If the fees sought in this fee application as compared to the fees budgeted for the time period covered by this fee application are higher by 10% or more, did you discuss the reasons for the variation with the client?	No.
Have any of the professionals included in this fee application varied their hourly rate based on the geographic location of the bankruptcy case?	No.
Does the fee application include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices? (This is limited to work involved in preparing and editing billing records that would not be compensable outside of bankruptcy and does not include reasonable fees for preparing a fee application.). If so, please quantify by hours and fees.	No.
Does this fee application include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information? If so, please quantify by hours and fees.	No.
If the fee application includes any rate increases since retention: Did your client review and approve those rate increases in advance? Did your client agree when retaining the law firm to accept all future rate increases? If not, did you inform your client that they need not agree to modified rates or terms in order to have you continue the representation, consistent with ABA Formal Ethics Opinion 11-458?	The Application includes Morris James' standard yearly rate increases for 2026. Morris James' hourly rates are consistent with the rates charged by other firms rendering comparable services. Morris James filed the Notice of Annual Rate Increase of Morris James LLP with the Court [Docket No. 1363].

CUSTOMARY AND COMPARABLE COMPENSATION DISCLOSURES

Morris James' hourly rates for bankruptcy services are comparable or less than the hourly rates charged in complex chapter 11 cases by comparably skilled bankruptcy attorneys. In addition, Morris James' hourly rates for bankruptcy services are comparable to the rates charged by the firm, and by comparably skilled practitioners in other firms, for complex corporate and litigation matters, whether in court or otherwise, regardless of whether a fee application is required.

[1] Consistent with ¶ C.3 of the Appendix B Guidelines, the blended hourly rates set forth herein are calculated by dividing the dollar value of hours billed by the number of hours billed for the relevant timekeepers during the applicable time period. The data for the "preceding year" is based on information from Morris James' financial information for the period of October 1, 2025 through September 30, 2026.

[2] Please note that this column does not include the rates of the firm's personal injury attorneys, each of whom bill on a contingency basis.

[3] This column does not include Morris James' "local practices" (e.g., labor law, matrimonial, medical malpractice, real estate, and tax and estates).

[4] The "associate" category of timekeepers also includes senior counsel.
