Section 5.16. Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws. The Co-Issuers covenant (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) that they will not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law or any valuation, appraisement, redemption or marshalling law or rights, in each case wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, which may affect the covenants, the performance of or any remedies under this Indenture; and the Co-Issuers (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such law or rights, and covenant that they will not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Trustee, but will suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law had been enacted or rights created.

Section 5.17. Sale of Assets. (a) The power to effect any sale (a "Sale") of any portion of the Assets pursuant to Sections 5.4 (Remedies) and 5.5 (Optional Preservation of Assets) shall not be exhausted by any one or more Sales as to any portion of such Assets remaining unsold, but shall continue unimpaired until the entire Assets shall have been sold or all amounts secured by the Assets shall have been paid. The Trustee may upon notice to the Noteholders and the Portfolio Manager, and shall, upon direction of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class, from time to time postpone any Sale by public announcement made at the time and place of such Sale. The Trustee hereby expressly waives its rights to any amount fixed by law as compensation for any Sale; provided, that the Trustee shall be authorized to deduct the reasonable costs, charges and expenses incurred by it in connection with such Sale from the proceeds thereof notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.7 (Trustee Compensation and Reimbursement) hereof.

(b) The Trustee and the Portfolio Manager (and/or any of its Affiliates) may bid for and acquire any portion of the Assets in connection with a public Sale thereof, and the Trustee may pay all or part of the purchase price by crediting against amounts owing on the Secured Notes or other amounts secured by the Assets, all or part of the net proceeds of such Sale after deducting the reasonable costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Trustee in connection with such Sale notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.7 (Trustee Compensation and Reimbursement) hereof. The Holder(s) of Subordinated Notes may bid for and acquire any portion of the Assets in connection with a public or private Sale thereof. The Secured Notes need not be produced in order to complete any such Sale, or in order for the net proceeds of such Sale to be credited against amounts owing on the Notes. The Trustee may hold, lease, operate, manage or otherwise deal with any property so acquired in any manner permitted by law in accordance with this Indenture.

(c) If any portion of the Assets consists of securities issued without registration under the Securities Act ("Unregistered Securities"), the Trustee may seek an Opinion of Counsel.

(d) The Trustee shall execute and deliver an appropriate instrument of conveyance transferring its interest in any portion of the Assets in connection with a Sale thereof. In addition, the Trustee is hereby irrevocably appointed the agent and attorney in fact of the Issuer to transfer and convey its interest in any portion of the Assets in connection with a Sale thereof, and to take all action necessary to effect such Sale. No purchaser or transferee at such a sale shall be bound to ascertain the Trustee's authority, to inquire into the satisfaction of any conditions precedent or see to the application of any Monies.

Section 5.18. Action on the Notes. The Trustee's right to seek and recover judgment on the Notes or under this Indenture shall not be affected by the seeking or obtaining of or application for any other relief under or with respect to this Indenture. Neither the lien of this Indenture nor any rights or remedies of the Trustee or the Noteholders shall be impaired by the recovery of any judgment by the Trustee against the Issuer or by the levy of any execution under such judgment upon any portion of the Assets or upon any of the assets of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer.

ARTICLE 6

The Trustee

Section 6.1. Certain Duties and Responsibilities of the Trustee. (a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default:

(i) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(ii) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture; provided, however, that in the case of any such certificates or opinions which by any provision hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, the Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not, on their face, they substantially conform to the requirements of this Indenture and shall promptly in the case of an Officer's certificate furnished by the Portfolio Manager, notify the Portfolio Manager if such certificate or opinion does not conform.

(b) In case an Event of Default known to the Trustee has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall, prior to the receipt of directions, if any, from a Majority of the Controlling Class, exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise, as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

(c) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(i) this subsection shall not be construed to limit the effect of subsection (a) of this Section 6.1 (Certain Duties and Responsibilities of the Trustee);

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Bank Officer, unless it shall be proven that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or the Portfolio Manager in accordance with this Indenture and/or a Majority (or such other percentage as may be required by the terms hereof) of the Controlling Class (or other Class if required or permitted by the terms hereof) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, under this Indenture;

(iv) no provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers contemplated hereunder, if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it unless such risk or liability relates to incidental costs in connection with the performance of its ordinary services, under this Indenture; and

(v) in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, punitive, indirect or consequential loss or damage (including lost profits) even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such damages and regardless of such action.

(d) For all purposes under this Indenture, the Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice or knowledge of any Event of Default described in Sections 5.1(c), (d), (e) or (f) (Events of Default) unless a Bank Officer assigned to and working in the Corporate Office has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice of any event which is in fact such an Event of Default or Default is received by a Bank Officer at the Corporate Office, and such notice references the Notes generally, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Assets or this Indenture. For purposes of determining the Trustee's responsibility and liability hereunder, whenever reference is made in this Indenture to such an Event of Default or a Default, such reference shall be construed to refer only to such an Event of Default or Default of which the Trustee is deemed to have notice as described in this Section 6.1 (Certain Duties and Responsibilities of the Trustee).

(e) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 6.1 (Certain Duties and Responsibilities of the Trustee) and Section 6.3 (Certain Rights of the Trustee).

Section 6.2. Representations and Warranties of the Bank. The Bank hereby represents and warrants as follows:

(a) Organization. The Bank has been duly organized and is validly existing as a national banking association under the laws of the United States and has the power to conduct its business and affairs as a trustee.

(b) Authorization; Binding Obligations. The Bank has the corporate power and authority to perform the duties and obligations of trustee under this Indenture. The Bank has taken all necessary corporate action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Indenture, and all of the documents required to be executed by the Bank pursuant hereto. Upon execution and delivery by the Bank, this Indenture will constitute the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Bank enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the rights and remedies of creditors generally.

(c) Eligibility. The Bank is eligible under Section 6.8 (Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility) hereof to serve as Trustee hereunder.

(d) No Conflict. Neither the execution, delivery and performance of this Indenture, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Indenture, (i) is prohibited by, or requires the Bank to obtain any consent, authorization, approval or registration under, any law, statute, rule, regulation, judgment, order, writ, injunction or decree that is binding upon the Bank or any of its properties or assets or (ii) will violate any provision of, result in any default or acceleration of any obligations under, result in the creation or imposition of any lien pursuant to, or require any consent under, any material agreement to which the Bank is a party.

(e) Other Capacities. To the extent that the Bank is acting as Registrar, Calculation Agent, Paying Agent, Authenticating Agent, Securities Intermediary or Custodian, the rights, privileges and indemnities set forth in this Article VI shall also apply to the Bank acting in each such capacity and shall be in addition to any other right, privilege and indemnities the Bank may have in such capacity.

Section 6.3. Certain Rights of the Trustee. Except as otherwise provided in Section 6.1 (Certain Duties and Responsibilities of the Trustee):

(a) the Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report (including, without limitation, an Accountants Report), notice, request, direction, consent, order, note or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request or direction of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Issuer Request or Issuer Order, as the case may be;

(c) whenever in the administration of this Indenture the Trustee shall (i) deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder, the Trustee (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, request and rely upon an Officer's certificate or (ii) be required to determine the value of any Assets or funds hereunder or the cash flows projected to be received therefrom, the Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, rely on reports of nationally recognized accountants, investment bankers or other persons qualified to provide the information required to make such determination, including nationally recognized dealers in securities of the type being valued and securities quotation services;

(d) as a condition to the taking or omitting of any action by it hereunder, the Trustee may consult with counsel and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in reliance thereon;

(e) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise or to honor any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Noteholders pursuant to this Indenture, unless such Noteholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might reasonably be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction;

(f) the Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report (including any Accountants' Report), notice, request, direction, consent, order, note or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may, and upon the written direction of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit or as it shall be directed, and the Trustee shall be entitled, on reasonable prior notice to the Co-Issuers and the Portfolio Manager, to examine the books and records relating to the Notes and the Assets, personally or by agent or attorney, during the Co-Issuers' or the Portfolio Manager's normal business hours; provided, that the Trustee shall, and shall cause its agents to, hold in confidence all such information, except (i) to the extent disclosure may be required by law or by any regulatory or administrative authority and (ii) to the extent that the Trustee, in its sole judgment, may determine that such disclosure is consistent with its obligations hereunder;

(g) the Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, nominees, custodians or attorneys; provided, that the Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any non-Affiliated agent or non-Affiliated attorney appointed with due care by it hereunder;

(h) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith that it reasonably believes to be authorized or within its rights or powers hereunder;

(i) nothing herein shall be construed to impose an obligation on the part of the Trustee to recalculate, evaluate or verify any report, certificate or information received from the Issuer or Portfolio Manager (unless and except to the extent otherwise expressly set forth herein);

(j) to the extent any defined term hereunder, or any calculation required to be made or determined by the Trustee hereunder, is dependent upon or defined by reference to generally accepted accounting principles (as in effect in the United States) ("GAAP"), the Trustee shall be entitled to request and receive (and rely upon) instruction from the Issuer or the accountants identified in the Accountants' Report (and in the absence of its receipt of timely instruction therefrom, shall be entitled to obtain from an Independent accountant at the expense of the Issuer) as to the application of GAAP in such connection, in any instance;

(k) to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the execution of this Indenture or otherwise;

(l) the Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice or knowledge of any matter unless a Bank Officer has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by a Bank Officer at the Corporate Office and such notice references the Notes generally, the Issuer or this Indenture. Whenever reference is made in this Indenture to a Default or an Event of Default such reference shall, insofar as determining any liability on the part of the Trustee is concerned, be construed to refer only to a Default or an Event of Default of which the Trustee is deemed to have knowledge in accordance with this paragraph;

(m) the permissive right of the Trustee to take or refrain from taking any actions enumerated in this Indenture shall not be construed as a duty;

(n) the Trustee shall not be responsible for delays or failures in performance resulting from acts or circumstances beyond its control (such circumstances include but are not limited to acts of God, strikes, lockouts, riots, acts of war, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications services);

(o) the Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Portfolio Manager, the Collateral Administrator, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, any Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) or any Authenticating Agent (other than the Trustee) appointed under or pursuant to this Indenture;

(p) the Trustee or its Affiliates are permitted to receive additional compensation that could be deemed to be in the Trustee's economic self-interest for (i) serving as investment adviser, administrator, shareholder, servicing agent, custodian or sub-custodian with respect to certain of the Eligible Investments, (ii) using Affiliates to effect transactions in certain Eligible Investments and (iii) effecting transactions in certain Eligible Investments;

(q) the Trustee is not responsible or liable for the preparation, filing, continuation or correctness of financing statements or the validity or perfection of any lien or security interest;

(r) in making or disposing of any investment permitted by this Indenture, the Trustee is authorized to deal with itself (in its individual capacity) or with any one or more of its Affiliates, whether it or such Affiliate is acting as a subagent of the Trustee or for any third person or dealing as principal for its own account. If otherwise qualified, obligations of the Bank or any of its Affiliates shall qualify as Eligible Investments hereunder;

(s) in order to comply with laws, rules, regulations and executive orders in effect from time to time applicable to banking institutions, including those relating to the funding of terrorist activities and money laundering, the Trustee is required to obtain, verify and record certain information relating to individuals and entities which maintain a business relationship with the Trustee. Accordingly, each of the parties agrees to provide to the Trustee upon its request from time to time such party's complete name, address, tax identification number and such other identifying information together with copies of such party's constituting documentation, securities disclosure documentation and such other identifying documentation as may be available for such party; and

(t) Other Capacities. To the extent that the Trustee is acting as Registrar, Calculation Agent, Paying Agent, Authenticating Agent, Securities Intermediary, or Custodian, the rights, privileges and indemnities set forth in this Article VI shall also apply to the Trustee acting in each such capacity and shall be in addition to any other right, privilege and indemnities the Trustee may have in such capacity.

Section 6.4. Trustee Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes. The recitals contained herein and in the Debt, other than the Certificate of Authentication thereon, shall be taken as the statements of the Applicable Issuers; and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture (except as may be made with respect to the validity of the Trustee's obligations hereunder), the Assets or the Notes. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Co-Issuers of the Notes or the proceeds thereof or any Money paid to the Co-Issuers pursuant to the provisions hereof.

Section 6.5. Trustee May Hold Notes. The Trustee, any Paying Agent, Registrar or any other agent of the Co-Issuers, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and may otherwise deal with the Co-Issuers or any of their Affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee, Paying Agent, Registrar or such other agent.

Section 6.6. Money Held in Trust by the Trustee. Money held by the Trustee hereunder shall be held in trust to the extent required herein. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any Money received or invested by it hereunder.

Section 6.7. Trustee Compensation and Reimbursement. (a) The Issuer agrees:

(i) to pay the Trustee on each Payment Date reasonable compensation for all services rendered by it hereunder as set forth in the fee letter dated June 19, 2012 (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(ii) to reimburse the Trustee in a timely manner upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any provision of this Indenture (including, without limitation, securities transaction charges and the reasonable compensation and expenses and disbursements of its agents and legal counsel and of any accounting firm or investment banking firm employed by the Trustee pursuant to any term of this Indenture, except any such expense, disbursement or advance as may be attributable to its negligence or willful misconduct) but with respect to securities transaction charges, only to the extent any such charges have not been waived during a Collection Period due to the Trustee's receipt of a payment from a financial institution with respect to certain Eligible Investments, as specified by the Portfolio Manager; and

(iii) to indemnify the Trustee and its Officers, directors, employees and agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any loss, liability or expense incurred without negligence or willful misconduct on their part, arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust, including the costs and expenses of defending themselves (including reasonable attorney's fees and costs) against any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of their powers or duties hereunder and under any other transaction document.

(b) The Trustee shall receive amounts pursuant to this Section 6.7 (Trustee Compensation and Reimbursement) as provided in Sections 11.1(a)(i), (ii) and (iii) (Disbursements of Monies from Payment Account) but only to the extent that funds are available for the payment thereof. Subject to Section 6.9 (Resignation and Removal of the Trustee; Appointment of Successor), the Trustee shall continue to serve as Trustee under this Indenture notwithstanding the fact that the Trustee shall not have received amounts due it hereunder. No direction by the Noteholders or the Controlling Class shall affect the right of the Trustee to collect amounts owed to it under this Indenture. If on any date when a fee shall be payable to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture insufficient funds are available for the payment thereof, any portion of a fee not so paid shall be deferred and payable on such later date on which a fee shall be payable and sufficient funds are available therefor.

(c) The Trustee hereby agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy for the non-payment to the Trustee of any amounts provided by this Section 6.7 (Trustee Compensation and Reimbursement) until at least one year and one day, or if longer the applicable preference period then in effect, after the payment in full of all Notes issued under this Indenture.

(d) When the Trustee incurs expenses after the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default under Sections 5.1(e) or (f) (Events of Default) the expenses are intended to constitute expenses of administration under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable federal or state bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law; provided that, without limiting the Trustee's rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable federal or state bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law, such expenses shall be subject to and payable only to the extent allowed under the Priority of Payments.

Section 6.8. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility. There shall at all times be a Trustee hereunder which shall be an Independent organization or entity organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any state thereof, authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least $200,000,000, subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority, having a rating of at least "Baa1" by Moody's and at least "BBB+" by S&P and having an office within the United States. If such organization or entity publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section 6.8 (Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility), the combined capital and surplus of such organization or entity shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent published report of condition. If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section 6.8 (Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility), it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in this Article 6.

Section 6.9. Resignation and Removal of the Trustee; Appointment of Successor Trustee. (a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article 6 shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.10 (Acceptance of Appointment by Successor Trustee).

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving not less than 30 days written notice thereof to the Co-Issuers, the Portfolio Manager, the Holders of the Notes and each Rating Agency. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, the Co-Issuers shall promptly appoint a successor trustee or trustees satisfying the requirements of Section 6.8 (Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility) by written instrument, in duplicate, executed by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer and an Authorized Officer of the Co-Issuer, one copy of which shall be delivered to the Trustee so resigning and one copy to the successor Trustee or Trustees, together with a copy to each Holder and the Portfolio Manager; provided, that such successor Trustee shall be appointed only upon the written consent of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class and the Portfolio Manager (such consent, in the case of the Portfolio Manager, not to be unreasonably withheld). If no successor Trustee shall have been appointed and an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 30 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee or any Holder, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.8 (Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility).

(c) The Trustee may be removed at any time by written consent of the Portfolio Manager and Act of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class or, at any time when an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing by an Act of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class, delivered to the Trustee and to the Co-Issuers.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 6.8 (Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility) and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Co-Issuers or at least a Majority of the Controlling Class; or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged as bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver or liquidator of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation;

then, in any such case (subject to Section 6.9(a) (Resignation and Removal of the Trustee; Appointment of Successor)), (A) the Co-Issuers, by Issuer Order, may remove the Trustee or (B) subject to Section 5.15 (Undertaking for Costs), any Holder may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee shall be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of the Trustee for any reason (other than resignation), the Co-Issuers, by Issuer Order, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If the Co-Issuers shall fail to appoint a successor Trustee within 30 days after such removal or incapability or the occurrence of such vacancy, a successor Trustee may be appointed by at least a Majority of the Controlling Class by written instrument delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee. The successor Trustee so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede any successor Trustee proposed by the Co-Issuers. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Co-Issuers or at least a Majority of the Controlling Class and shall have accepted appointment in the manner hereinafter provided, subject to Section 5.15 (Undertaking for Costs), the Trustee or any Holder may, on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Co-Issuers shall give prompt notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee by mailing written notice of such event by first class mail, postage prepaid, to the Portfolio Manager, to each Rating Agency and to the Holders of the Notes as their names and addresses appear in the Register. Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Office. If the Co-Issuers fail to mail such notice within ten days after acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee, the successor Trustee shall cause such notice to be given at the expense of the Co-Issuers.

Section 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor Trustee. Every successor Trustee appointed hereunder shall meet the requirements of Section 6.8 (Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility) and shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Co-Issuers and the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting such appointment. Upon delivery of the required instruments, the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and such successor Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts, duties and obligations of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Co-Issuers or at least a Majority of any Class of Secured Notes or the successor Trustee, such retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of its charges then unpaid, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Trustee, and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Trustee all property and Money held by such retiring Trustee hereunder. Upon request of any such successor Trustee, the Co-Issuers shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Trustee all such rights, powers and trusts.

Section 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business of the Trustee. Any organization or entity into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any organization or entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any organization or entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee hereunder, provided such organization or entity shall be otherwise qualified and eligible under this Article 6, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. In case any of the Notes has been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion or consolidation to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Notes.

Section 6.12. Co-Trustees. At any time or times, for the purpose of meeting the legal requirements of any jurisdiction in which any part of the Assets may at the time be located, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee shall have power to appoint one or more Persons to act as co-trustee (subject to the written approval of the Rating Agencies), jointly with the Trustee, of all or any part of the Assets, with the power to file proofs of claims and take such other actions pursuant to Section 5.6 (Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes) herein and to make such claims and enforce such rights of action on behalf of the Holders, as such Holders themselves may have the right to do, subject to the other provisions of this Section 6.12 (Co-Trustees).

The Co-Issuers shall join with the Trustee in the execution, delivery and performance of all instruments and agreements necessary or proper to appoint a co-trustee. If the Co-Issuers do not join in such appointment within 15 days after the receipt by them of a request to do so, the Trustee shall have the power to make such appointment.

Should any written instrument from the Co-Issuers be required by any co trustee so appointed, more fully confirming to such co-trustee such property, title, right or power, any and all such instruments shall, on request, be executed, acknowledged and delivered by the Co-Issuers. The Co-Issuers agree to pay (but only from and to the extent of the Assets), to the extent funds are available therefor under Section 11.1(a)(i)(B) (Disbursements of Monies from Payment Account), for any reasonable fees and expenses in connection with such appointment.

Every co-trustee shall, to the extent permitted by law, but to such extent only, be appointed subject to the following terms:

(a) the Notes shall be authenticated and delivered and all rights, powers, duties and obligations hereunder in respect of the custody of securities, Cash and other personal property held by, or required to be deposited or pledged with, the Trustee hereunder, shall be exercised solely by the Trustee;

(b) the rights, powers, duties and obligations hereby conferred or imposed upon the Trustee in respect of any property covered by the appointment of a co-trustee shall be conferred or imposed upon and exercised or performed by the Trustee or by the Trustee and such co-trustee jointly as shall be provided in the instrument appointing such co-trustee;

(c) the Trustee at any time, by an instrument in writing executed by it, with the concurrence of the Co-Issuers evidenced by an Issuer Order, may accept the resignation of or remove any co-trustee appointed under this Section 6.12 (Co-Trustees), and in case an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall have the power to accept the resignation of, or remove, any such co-trustee without the concurrence of the Co-Issuers. A successor to any co-trustee so resigned or removed may be appointed in the manner provided in this Section 6.12 (Co-Trustees);

(d) no co-trustee hereunder shall be personally liable by reason of any act or omission of the Trustee hereunder;

(e) the Trustee shall not be liable by reason of any act or omission of a co-trustee; and

(f) any Act of Holders delivered to the Trustee shall be deemed to have been delivered to each co-trustee.

Section 6.13. Withholding by the Trustee. If any withholding tax is imposed on the Issuer's payment (or allocations of income) under the Notes to any Holder, such tax shall reduce the amount otherwise distributable to such Holder. The Trustee is hereby authorized and directed to retain from amounts otherwise distributable to any Holder sufficient funds for the payment of any tax that is legally owed by the Issuer (but such authorization shall not prevent the Trustee from contesting any such tax in appropriate proceedings and withholding payment of such tax, if permitted by law, pending the outcome of such proceedings) or may be withheld because of a failure by a Holder to provide any information required under FATCA or as a result of such Holder's status as a Non-Compliant FFI and to timely remit such amounts to the appropriate taxing authority. The amount of any withholding tax imposed with respect to any Holder shall be treated as cash distributed to such Holder at the time it is withheld by the Trustee and remitted to the appropriate taxing authority. If there is a possibility that withholding tax is payable with respect to a distribution, the Trustee may in its sole discretion withhold such amounts in accordance with this Section 6.13 (Withholding). If any Holder wishes to apply for a refund of any such withholding tax, the Trustee shall reasonably cooperate with such Holder in making such claim so long as such Holder agrees to reimburse the Trustee for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred. Nothing herein shall impose an obligation on the part of the Trustee to determine the amount of any tax or withholding obligation on the part of the Issuer or in respect of the Notes.

Section 6.14. Authenticating Agents. Upon the request of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee shall, and if the Trustee so chooses the Trustee may, appoint one or more Authenticating Agents with power to act on its behalf and subject to its direction in the authentication of Subordinated Notes in connection with issuance, transfers and exchanges under Sections 2.4 (Additional Notes), 2.5 (Execution, Authentication, Delivery and Dating), 2.6 (Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange), 2.7 (Mutilated, Defaced, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Note) and 8.5 (Reference in Notes to Supplemental Indentures), as fully to all intents and purposes as though each such Authenticating Agent had been expressly authorized by such Sections to authenticate such Notes. For all purposes of this Indenture, the authentication of Notes by an Authenticating Agent pursuant to this Section 6.14 (Authenticating Agents) shall be deemed to be the authentication of Notes by the Trustee.

Any corporation into which any Authenticating Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, consolidation or conversion to which any Authenticating Agent shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to the corporate trust business of any Authenticating Agent, shall be the successor of such Authenticating Agent hereunder, without the execution or filing of any further act on the part of the parties hereto or such Authenticating Agent or such successor corporation.

Any Authenticating Agent may at any time resign by giving written notice of resignation to the Trustee and the Issuer. The Trustee may at any time terminate the agency of any Authenticating Agent by giving written notice of termination to such Authenticating Agent and the Co-Issuers. Upon receiving such notice of resignation or upon such a termination, the Trustee shall promptly appoint a successor Authenticating Agent and shall give written notice of such appointment to the Co-Issuers.

The Co-Issuers (or the Trustee if the Trustee shall have appointed the Authenticating Agent) agrees to pay to each Authenticating Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for its services, and reimbursement for its reasonable expenses relating thereto, and the Trustee if it shall have paid such amounts shall be entitled to be reimbursed for such payments. The provisions of Sections 2.9 (Persons Deemed Owners), 6.4 (Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes) and 6.5 (Trustee May Hold Notes) shall be applicable to any Authenticating Agent.

Section 6.15. Notice of Default by the Trustee. Promptly (and in no event later than five Business Days) after the occurrence of any Default actually known to a Bank Officer of the Trustee or after any declaration of acceleration has been made or delivered to the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.2 (Acceleration of Maturity; Rescission and Annulment), the Trustee shall provide to the Portfolio Manager, each Rating Agency, and all Noteholders, as their names and addresses appear on the Register, and the Irish Stock Exchange, for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the guidelines of such exchange so require, notice of all Defaults hereunder known to the Trustee, unless such Default shall have been cured or waived.

Section 6.16. Certain Duties of the Trustee Related to Delayed Payment of Proceeds. In the event that in any month the Trustee shall not have received a payment with respect to any Pledged Obligation on its Due Date, (a) the Trustee shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager in writing or electronically and (b) unless within three Business Days (or the end of the applicable grace period for such payment, if longer) after such notice such payment shall have been received by the Trustee, or the Issuer, in its absolute discretion (but only to the extent permitted by Section 10.2(a) (Collection Account)), shall have made provision for such payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with Section 10.2(a) (Collection Account), the Trustee shall request the issuer of such Pledged Obligation, the Trustee under the related Underlying Instrument or paying agent designated by either of them, as the case may be, to make such payment as soon as practicable after such request but in no event later than three Business Days after the date of such request. In the event that such payment is not made within such time period, the Trustee, subject to the provisions of clause (iv) of Section 6.1(c) (Certain Duties and Responsibilities of the Trustee), shall take such action as the Portfolio Manager shall direct in writing. Any such action shall be without prejudice to any right to claim a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture. In the event that the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager requests a release of a Pledged Obligation and/or delivers an additional Collateral Obligation in connection with any such action under the Portfolio Management Agreement, such release and/or substitution shall be subject to Section 10.6 (Reinvestment of Funds in Accounts; Reports by Trustee) and Article 12 of this Indenture, as the case may be.

Section 6.17. Trustee Fiduciary for Secured Noteholders Only; Agent for each Hedge Counterparty and the Holders of the Subordinated Notes. With respect to the security interest created hereunder, the delivery of any item of Pledged Obligation to the Trustee is to the Trustee as representative of the Secured Noteholders and agent for each Hedge Counterparty and the Holders of the Subordinated Notes, in furtherance of the foregoing, the possession by the Trustee of any item of Pledged Obligation, the endorsement to or registration in the name of the Trustee of any item of Pledged Obligation (including, without limitation, as entitlement holder of the Custodial Account) are all undertaken by the Trustee in its capacity as representative of the Secured Noteholders and agent for each Hedge Counterparty and the Holders of the Subordinated Notes.

ARTICLE 7
Covenants

Section 7.1. Payment of Principal and Interest. The Applicable Issuers will duly and punctually pay the principal of and interest on the Secured Notes, in accordance with the terms of such Notes and this Indenture pursuant to the Priority of Payments. The Issuer will, to the extent legally permitted and to the extent funds are available pursuant to the Priority of Payments, duly and punctually pay all required distributions on the Subordinated Notes, in accordance with the Subordinated Notes and this Indenture.

The Issuer shall, subject to the Priority of Payments, reimburse the Co-Issuer for any amounts paid by the Co-Issuer pursuant to the terms of the Notes or this Indenture. The Co-Issuer shall not reimburse the Issuer for any amounts paid by the Issuer pursuant to the terms of the Notes or this Indenture.

Amounts properly withheld under the Code or other applicable law by any Person from a payment to any Holder shall be considered as having been paid by the Applicable Issuers to such Holder for all purposes of this Indenture.

Section 7.2. Maintenance of Office or Agency. The Co-Issuers hereby appoint the Trustee as a Paying Agent for payments on the Notes. Notes may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange at the Corporate Office of the Trustee or its agent designated for purposes of surrender, transfer or exchange. As of the Closing Date, the Trustee designates the Corporate Office for such purpose, as the place where Notes may be surrendered for transfer and exchange. The Co-Issuers hereby appoint CT Corporation System, as agent upon whom process or demands may be served in any action arising out of or based on this Indenture or the transactions contemplated hereby.

The Co-Issuers may at any time and from time to time vary or terminate the appointment of any such agent or appoint any additional agents for any or all of such purposes; provided, however, that the Co-Issuers will maintain in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, an office or agency where notices and demands to or upon the Co-Issuers in respect of such Notes and this Indenture may be served and, subject to any laws or regulations applicable thereto, an office or agency outside of the United States where Notes may be presented and surrendered for payment; and provided, further, that no paying agent shall be appointed in a jurisdiction which subjects payments on the Notes to withholding tax solely by reason of the location of the paying agent in such jurisdiction. The Co-Issuers hereby appoint, for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, McCann FitzGerald Listing Services Limited (the "Irish Listing Agent") as listing agent in Ireland with respect to the Notes. In the event that the Irish Listing Agent is replaced at any time during such period, notice of the appointment of any replacement will be published in the Companies Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange as promptly as practicable after such appointment. The Co-Issuers shall at all times maintain a duplicate copy of the Register at the Corporate Office of the Trustee. The Co-Issuers shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee, each Rating Agency and the Holders of the appointment or termination of any such agent and of the location and any change in the location of any such office or agency.

If at any time the Co-Issuers shall fail to maintain any such required office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, or outside the United States, or shall fail to furnish the Trustee with the address thereof, presentations and surrenders may be made (subject to the limitations described in the preceding paragraph) at and notices and demands may be served on the Co-Issuers, and Notes may be presented and surrendered for payment to the appropriate Paying Agent at its main office, and the Co-Issuers hereby appoint the same as their agent to receive such respective presentations, surrenders, notices and demands.

Section 7.3. Money for Note Payments to be Held in Trust. All payments of amounts due and payable with respect to any Notes that are to be made from amounts withdrawn from the Payment Account shall be made on behalf of the Applicable Issuers by the Trustee or a Paying Agent with respect to payments on the Notes.

When the Applicable Issuers shall have a Paying Agent that is not also the Registrar, they shall furnish, or cause the Registrar to furnish, no later than the fifth calendar day after each Record Date a list, if necessary, in such form as such Paying Agent may reasonably request, of the names and addresses of the Holders and of the certificate numbers of individual Notes held by each such Holder.

Whenever the Applicable Issuers shall have a Paying Agent other than the Trustee, they shall, on or before the Business Day next preceding each Payment Date or Redemption Date, as the case may be, direct the Trustee to deposit on such Payment Date with such Paying Agent, if necessary, an aggregate sum sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due (to the extent funds are then available for such purpose in the Payment Account), such sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled thereto and (unless such Paying Agent is the Trustee) the Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee of its action or failure so to act. Any Monies deposited with a Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) in excess of an amount sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due on the Notes with respect to which such deposit was made shall be paid over by such Paying Agent to the Trustee for application in accordance with Article 10.

The initial Paying Agent shall be as set forth in Section 7.2 (Maintenance of Office or Agency). Any additional or successor Paying Agents shall be appointed by Issuer Order with written notice thereof to the Trustee; provided, however, that so long as the Notes of any Class is rated by a Rating Agency, with respect to any additional or successor Paying Agent, either (i) such Paying Agent an Independent organization or entity organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any state thereof, having a combined capital and surplus of at least $200,000,000, subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority, having a rating of at least "Baa1" by Moody's and at least "BBB+" by S&P and having an office within the United States or (ii) the Global Rating Agency Condition is satisfied. In the event that such successor Paying Agent ceases to have the required ratings specified above, the Co-Issuers shall promptly remove such Paying Agent and appoint a successor Paying Agent. The Co-Issuers shall not appoint any Paying Agent that is not, at the time of such appointment, a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision and examination by federal and/or state and/or national banking authorities. The Co-Issuers shall cause each Paying Agent other than the Trustee to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee and if the Trustee acts as Paying Agent, it hereby so agrees), subject to the provisions of this Section 7.3 (Money for Note Payments to be Held in Trust), that such Paying Agent will:

(a) allocate all sums received for payment to the Holders of Notes for which it acts as Paying Agent on each Payment Date and any Redemption Date among such Holders in the proportion specified in the applicable report to the extent permitted by applicable law;

(b) hold all sums held by it for the payment of amounts due with respect to the Notes in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to such Persons or otherwise disposed of as herein provided and pay such sums to such Persons as herein provided;

(c) immediately resign as a Paying Agent and forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums held by it in trust for the payment of Notes if at any time it ceases to meet the standards set forth above required to be met by a Paying Agent at the time of its appointment;

(d) immediately give the Trustee notice of any default by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer (or any other obligor upon the Notes) in the making of any payment required to be made; and

(e) during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held in trust by such Paying Agent.

The Co-Issuers may at any time, for the purpose of obtaining the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture or for any other purpose, pay, or by Issuer Order direct any Paying Agent to pay, to the Trustee all sums held in trust by the Co-Issuers or such Paying Agent, such sums to be held by the Trustee upon the same trusts as those upon which such sums were held by the Co-Issuers or such Paying Agent; and, upon such payment by any Paying Agent to the Trustee, such Paying Agent shall be released from all further liability with respect to such Money.

Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any Money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent in trust for any payment on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such amount has become due and payable shall be paid to the Applicable Issuers on Issuer Order; and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter, as an unsecured general creditor, look only to the Applicable Issuers for payment of such amounts and all liability of the Trustee or such Paying Agent with respect to such trust Money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Applicable Issuers) shall thereupon cease. The Trustee or such Paying Agent, before being required to make any such release of payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Applicable Issuers any reasonable means of notification of such release of payment, including, but not limited to, mailing notice of such release to Holders whose Notes have been called but have not been surrendered for redemption or whose right to or interest in Monies due and payable but not claimed is determinable from the records of any Paying Agent, at the last address of record of each such Holder.

Section 7.4. Existence of Co-Issuers. (a) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, maintain in full force and effect their existence and rights as companies incorporated or organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands and the State of Delaware, respectively, and shall obtain and preserve their qualification to do business as foreign corporations in each jurisdiction in which such qualifications are or shall be necessary to protect the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes or any of the Assets; provided, however, that the Issuer shall be entitled to change its jurisdiction of incorporation from the Cayman Islands to any other jurisdiction reasonably selected by the Issuer so long as (i) the Issuer has received a legal opinion to the effect that such change is not disadvantageous in any material respect to the Holders, (ii) written notice of such change shall have been given by the Issuer to the Trustee (which shall provide notice to the Noteholders), the Portfolio Manager and each Rating Agency and (iii) on or prior to the 15th Business Day following receipt of such notice the Trustee shall not have received written notice from at least a Majority of the Controlling Class objecting to such change; and provided, further, that the Issuer shall be entitled to take any action required by this Indenture within the United States notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture requiring the Issuer to take such action outside of the United States so long as prior to taking any such action the Issuer receives a legal opinion from nationally recognized legal counsel to the effect that it is not necessary to take such action outside of the United States or any political subdivision thereof in order to prevent the Issuer from becoming subject to U.S. federal, state or local income taxes on a net income basis or any material other taxes to which the Issuer would not otherwise be subject.

(b) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall (i) ensure that all corporate or other formalities regarding their respective existences (including, if required, holding regular board of directors' and shareholders' or members', or other similar, meetings) are followed, (ii) maintain their books and records separate from any other Person, (iii) maintain their accounts separate from those of any other Person, (iv) not commingle any of their assets with those of another Person, (v) maintain an arm's length relationship with their Affiliates, (vi) each maintain separate financial statements from those of any other Person, (vii) pay their liabilities out of their respective funds, (viii) each hold themselves out as a separate entity and (ix) take affirmative steps to correct any misunderstanding regarding their separate identity. Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall take any action, or conduct its affairs in a manner, that is likely to result in its separate existence being ignored or in its assets and liabilities being substantively consolidated with any other Person in a bankruptcy, reorganization or other insolvency proceeding. Without limiting the foregoing, (i) the Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries (other than the Co-Issuer and any subsidiary that (x) meets the then-current general criteria of the Rating Agencies for bankruptcy remote entities and (y) is formed for the sole purpose of holding equity interests in "partnerships" (within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(2) of the Code), "grantor trusts" (within the meaning of the Code) or entities that are disregarded as separate from their owners for U.S. federal income tax purposes that are or may be engaged or deemed to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any interest that is treated as a real property interest), in each case, promptly following the receipt thereof in a workout of a Defaulted Obligation or otherwise promptly after the acquisition thereof in connection with a workout of a Collateral Obligation (an "ETB Subsidiary")); (ii) the Co-Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries; and (iii) except to the extent contemplated in the Administration Agreement or the declaration of trust dated March 14, 2013, by Appleby Trust (Cayman) Ltd., the Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall not (A) have any employees (other than their respective directors), (B) except as contemplated by the Portfolio Management Agreement, the Memorandum and Articles or the Administration Agreement, engage in any transaction with any shareholder that would constitute a conflict of interest or (C) pay dividends other than in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and the Memorandum and Articles.

(c) The Issuer shall ensure that any ETB Subsidiary (i) is wholly owned by the Issuer, (ii) will not sell, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate or otherwise encumber (or permit such to occur or suffer such to exist), any part of its assets, except in compliance with the Issuer's rights and obligations under this Indenture and with such subsidiary's constituent documents, (iii) will not have any subsidiaries, (iv) will comply with the restrictions set forth in Section 7.8(a)(ix) and (x) (Negative Covenants), (v) will not incur or guarantee any indebtedness except indebtedness with respect to which the Issuer is the sole creditor and will not hold itself out as being liable of the debts of any other Person, (vi) will include in its constituent documents a limitation on its business such that it may only engage in the acquisition of Equity Securities and the disposition of Equity Securities and the proceeds thereof to the Issuer (and activities ancillary thereto), (vii) will have at least one director that is Independent from the Portfolio Manager, (viii) will distribute (including by way of interest payment) 100% of the proceeds of the assets acquired by it (net of applicable taxes and expenses payable by such subsidiary) to the Issuer, (ix) will be treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes and (x) will not acquire any real property or any ownership interest in real property. The Issuer shall provide prior notice to Moody's and S&P of the formation of any ETB Subsidiary and of the transfer of any Equity Security to an ETB Subsidiary.

Section 7.5. Protection of Assets. (a) The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will cause the taking of such action within the Portfolio Manager's control as is reasonably necessary in order to maintain the perfection and priority of the security interest of the Trustee in the Assets. The Issuer shall from time to time execute and deliver all such supplements and amendments hereto and all such Financing Statements, continuation statements, instruments of further assurance and other instruments, and shall take such other action as may be necessary or advisable or desirable to secure the rights and remedies of the Holders of the Secured Notes hereunder and to:

(i) Grant more effectively all or any portion of the Assets;

(ii) maintain, preserve and perfect any Grant made or to be made by this Indenture including, without limitation, the first priority nature of the lien or carry out more effectively the purposes hereof;

(iii) perfect, publish notice of or protect the validity of any Grant made or to be made by this Indenture (including, without limitation, any and all actions necessary or desirable as a result of changes in law or regulations);

(iv) enforce any of the Pledged Obligations or other instruments or property included in the Assets;

(v) preserve and defend title to the Assets and the rights therein of the Trustee and the Holders of the Secured Notes against the claims of all Persons and parties; or

(vi) pay or cause to be paid any and all taxes levied or assessed upon all or any part of the Assets.

The Issuer hereby designates the Trustee as its agent and attorney in fact to prepare, execute and file any Financing Statement, continuation statement and all other instruments, and take all other actions, required pursuant to this Section 7.5 (Protection of Assets); provided that such designation shall not impose upon the Trustee any obligations under this Section 7.5 (Protection of Assets). The Issuer further authorizes the Trustee to file without the Issuer's signature a Financing Statement that names the Issuer as debtor and the Bank as secured party and that describes "all assets in which the debtor now or hereafter has rights" as the Assets in which the Trustee has a Grant.

(b) The Trustee shall not, except in accordance with Section 10.6 (Reinvestment of Funds in Accounts; Reports by Trustee) and Section 10.8 (Release of Securities) permit the removal of any portion of the Assets or transfer any such Assets from the Account to which it is credited, or cause or permit any change in the Delivery made pursuant to Section 3.3 (Custodianship; Delivery of Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments) with respect to any Assets, if, after giving effect thereto, the jurisdiction governing the perfection of the Trustee's security interest in such Assets is different from the jurisdiction governing the perfection at the time of delivery of the most recent Opinion of Counsel pursuant to Section 7.6 (Opinions as to Assets) (or, if no Opinion of Counsel has yet been delivered pursuant to Section 7.6, the Opinion of Counsel delivered at the Closing Date pursuant to Section 3.1 (a)(iii)) (Conditions to Issuance of Notes on Closing Date) unless the Trustee shall have received an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to such property and the priority thereof will continue to be maintained after giving effect to such action or actions.

Section 7.6. Opinions as to Assets. On or before the 5th anniversary of the Closing Date and every 5th anniversary thereafter, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee, Moody's (so long as the Class X Notes, Class A-1 Notes or Class A-2 Notes are rated by Moody's) and S&P an Opinion of Counsel relating to the security interest granted by the Issuer to the Trustee , which opinion may be substantially in the form of Exhibit C attached hereto.

Section 7.7. Performance of Obligations. (a) The Co-Issuers, each as to itself, shall not take any action, and will use their best efforts not to permit any action to be taken by others, that would release any Person from any of such Person's covenants or obligations under any instrument included in the Assets, except in the case of enforcement action taken with respect to any Defaulted Obligation in accordance with the provisions hereof and actions by the Portfolio Manager under the Portfolio Management Agreement and in conformity with this Indenture or as otherwise required hereby.

(b) The Applicable Issuers may, with the prior written consent of at least a Majority of each Class of Secured Notes (except in the case of the Portfolio Management Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement, in which case no consent shall be required), contract with other Persons, including the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee and the Collateral Administrator for the performance of actions and obligations to be performed by the Applicable Issuers hereunder and under the Portfolio Management Agreement by such Persons. Notwithstanding any such arrangement, the Applicable Issuers shall remain primarily liable with respect thereto. In the event of such contract, the performance of such actions and obligations by such Persons shall be deemed to be performance of such actions and obligations by the Applicable Issuers; and the Applicable Issuers will punctually perform, and use their best efforts to cause the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator and such other Person to perform, all of their obligations and agreements contained in the Portfolio Management Agreement, this Indenture, the Collateral Administration Agreement or any such other agreement.

Section 7.8. Negative Covenants. (a) The Issuer will not and, with respect to clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (vi), (vii), (viii), (ix) and (x) the Co-Issuer will not, in each case from and after the Closing Date:

(i) sell, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate or otherwise encumber (or permit such to occur or suffer such to exist), any part of the Assets, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and the Portfolio Management Agreement;

(ii) claim any credit on, make any deduction from, or dispute the enforceability of payment of the principal or interest payable (or any other amount) in respect of the Notes (other than amounts withheld in accordance with the Code or in order to comply with FATCA or any applicable laws of the Cayman Islands or other applicable jurisdiction) or assert any claim against any present or future Holder of Notes, by reason of the payment of any taxes levied or assessed upon any part of the Assets;

(iii) (A) incur or assume or guarantee any indebtedness, other than the Notes and this Indenture and the transactions contemplated hereby (including, without limitation, as a result of a Refinancing) or (B)(1) issue any additional class of securities (except as provided in Section 2.4 (Additional Notes) and Article 8 (Supplemental Indentures) or (2) issue any additional shares, member interests or limited liability company interests, as the case may be;

(iv) (A) permit the validity or effectiveness of this Indenture or any Grant hereunder to be impaired, or permit the lien of this Indenture to be amended, hypothecated, subordinated, terminated or discharged, or permit any Person to be released from any covenants or obligations with respect to this Indenture or the Notes, except as may be permitted hereby or by the Portfolio Management Agreement, (B) except as permitted by this Indenture, permit any lien, charge, adverse claim, security interest, mortgage or other encumbrance (other than the lien of this Indenture) to be created on or extend to or otherwise arise upon or burden the Assets or any part thereof, any interest therein or the proceeds thereof or (C) except as permitted by this Indenture, take any action that would permit the lien of this Indenture not to constitute a valid first priority security interest in the Assets;

(v) amend the Portfolio Management Agreement except pursuant to the terms thereof and Article 15;

(vi) dissolve or liquidate in whole or in part, except as permitted hereunder or required by applicable law;

(vii) pay any distributions other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments;

(viii) permit the formation of any subsidiaries (other than the Co-Issuer and any ETB Subsidiary);

(ix) conduct business under any name other than its own;

(x) have any employees (other than directors to the extent they are employees);

(xi) sell, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of Assets, or enter into an agreement or commitment to do so or enter into or engage in any business with respect to any part of the Assets, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture or the Portfolio Management Agreement; and

(xii) at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period, execute, enter into, agree to or vote in favor of any amendment or modification extending or having the effect of extending the maturity of a Collateral Obligation if (x) (1) during the Reinvestment Period, either (A) the Weighted Average Life Test will not be satisfied immediately after giving effect to such amendment or modification or (B) if the Weighted Average Life Test was not be satisfied immediately prior to giving effect to such amendment or modification, the level of compliance with the Weighted Average Life Test will not be maintained or improved after giving effect to such amendment or modification or (2) after the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Life Test will not be satisfied after giving effect to such amendment or modification (y) such amendment or modification would cause such Collateral Obligation to mature after the Stated Maturity of the Notes or (z) unless waived in writing by the Holders of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class, the then-current rating by Moody's of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2A Notes or the Class A-2B Notes is below "Aa3".

(b) The Co-Issuer will not invest any of its assets in "securities" as such term is defined in the Investment Company Act, and will keep all of its assets in Cash.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Issuer shall not, and shall use its best efforts to ensure that the Portfolio Manager acting on the Issuer's behalf does not, acquire any asset, conduct any activity or take any action if the acquisition or ownership of such asset, the conduct of such activity or the taking of such action, as the case may be, would cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis or income tax on a net income basis in any other jurisdiction. The requirements of this Section 7.8(c) (Negative Covenants) will be deemed to be satisfied if the requirements of Section 7.8(d) (Negative Covenants) below are satisfied.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Issuer shall comply with all of the provisions set forth in Schedule 1 to the Portfolio Management Agreement, unless, with respect to a particular transaction, the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and the Trustee shall have received an opinion or advice of White & Case LLP, Dechert LLP or other tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters to the effect that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such transaction, taking into account the Issuer's failure to comply with one or more of such provisions and assuming compliance with this Indenture and all other provisions in Schedule 1 to the Portfolio Management Agreement, the Issuer's contemplated activities will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis. The provisions set forth in Schedule 1 to the Portfolio Management Agreement may be waived, amended, eliminated, modified or supplemented (without execution of a supplemental indenture) if the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and the Trustee shall have received an opinion of White &

Case LLP, Dechert LLP or other tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters to the effect that, assuming compliance with this Indenture and taking into account the Issuer's compliance with such amended provisions or supplemental provisions or the Issuer's failure to comply with such provisions proposed to be waived, amended, eliminated, modified or supplemented, as the case may be, the Issuer's contemplated activities will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis; provided, however, that written notice of any such amendment, elimination or supplementation of or to the provisions of Schedule 1 to the Portfolio Management Agreement pursuant to this clause (d) shall be provided to each Rating Agency then rating any Outstanding Class of Secured Notes within 60 days of any such amendment, elimination or supplementation. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event an opinion of White & Case LLP, Dechert LLP or other tax counsel as described above has been obtained in accordance with the terms hereof, no consent of any Noteholder or any other Person or satisfaction of any Global Rating Agency Condition shall be required in order to comply with this Section 7.8(d) (Negative Covenants) in connection with the failure to comply with or waiver, amendment, elimination, modification or supplementation of any provision of Schedule 1 to the Portfolio Management Agreement contemplated by such opinion of tax counsel. The Issuer shall only be liable (or otherwise held accountable pursuant to this Section 7.8(d)) for the failure to comply with the provisions set forth in Schedule 1 to the Portfolio Management Agreement to the extent that such non-compliance causes the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis.

(e) The Issuer, Co-Issuer and any ETB Subsidiary shall not be party to any agreements that provide for a future financial obligation on the part of the Issuer (including Hedge Agreements) without including customary "non-petition" and "limited recourse" provisions therein (and shall not amend or eliminate such provisions in any agreement to which it is party) without satisfaction of the Global Rating Agency Condition, except for (i) any agreements related to the purchase and sale of any Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments which contain customary (as determined by the Portfolio Manager) purchase or sale terms or which are documented using customary (as determined by the Portfolio Manager) loan trading documentation and (ii) any IRS Agreement.

(f) The Issuer shall not acquire or hold any Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment that is a debt obligation in bearer form unless the Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment is not a "registration required obligation" under Section 163(f)(2)(A) of the Code.

Section 7.9. Statement as to Compliance. On or before March 14th in each calendar year commencing in 2014, or immediately if there has been a Default under this Indenture and prior to the issuance of any Additional Subordinated Notes pursuant to Section 2.4 (Additional Notes), the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (to be forwarded by the Trustee to each Noteholder making a written request therefor), the Portfolio Manager and each Rating Agency an Officer's certificate of the Issuer that, having made reasonable inquiries of the Portfolio Manager, and to the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the Issuer, there did not exist, as at a date not more than five days prior to the date of the certificate, nor had there existed at any time prior thereto since the date of the last certificate (if any), any Default hereunder or, if such Default did then exist or had existed, specifying the same and the nature and status thereof, including actions undertaken to remedy the same, and that the Issuer has complied with all of its obligations under this Indenture or, if such is not the case, specifying those obligations with which it has not complied.

Section 7.10. Co-Issuers May Consolidate, etc., Only on Certain Terms. Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer (the "Merging Entity") shall consolidate or merge with or into any other Person or transfer or convey all or substantially all of its assets to any Person, unless permitted by Cayman Islands law (in the case of the Issuer) or United States and Delaware law (in the case of the Co-Issuer) and unless:

(a) the Merging Entity shall be the surviving corporation, or the Person (if other than the Merging Entity) formed by such consolidation or into which the Merging Entity is merged or to which all or substantially all of the assets of the Merging Entity are transferred (the "Successor Entity") (A) if the Merging Entity is the Issuer, shall be a company organized and existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands or any other similar jurisdiction (e.g., having no entity-level tax) and (B) in any case shall expressly assume, by an indenture supplemental hereto, executed and delivered to the Trustee and each Holder, the due and punctual payment of the principal of and interest on all Secured Notes issued by the Merging Entity and the performance and observance of every covenant of this Indenture on its part to be performed or observed, all as provided herein;

(b) each Rating Agency shall have been notified in writing of such consolidation or merger and the Global Rating Agency Condition is satisfied with respect to the consummation of such transaction;

(c) if the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall have agreed with the Trustee (i) to observe the same legal requirements for the recognition of such formed or surviving corporation as a legal entity separate and apart from any of its Affiliates as are applicable to the Merging Entity with respect to its Affiliates and (ii) not to consolidate or merge with or into any other Person or transfer or convey the Assets or all or substantially all of its assets to any other Person except in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7.10 (Co-Issuers May Consolidate, etc., Only on Certain Terms);

(d) if the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall have delivered to the Trustee and each Rating Agency an Officer's certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that such Person shall be duly organized, validly existing and in good standing in the jurisdiction in which such Person is organized; that such Person has sufficient power and authority to assume the obligations set forth in subsection (a) above and to execute and deliver an indenture supplemental hereto for the purpose of assuming such obligations; that such Person has duly authorized the execution, delivery and performance of an indenture supplemental hereto for the purpose of assuming such obligations and that such supplemental indenture is a valid, legal and binding obligation of such Person, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject only to bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, moratorium and other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law); if the Merging Entity is the Issuer, that, immediately following the event which causes such Successor Entity to become the successor to the Issuer, (i) such Successor Entity has title, free and clear of any lien, security interest or charge, other than the lien and security interest of this Indenture, to the Assets securing all of the Secured Notes and (ii) the Trustee continues to have a valid perfected first priority security interest in the Assets securing all of the Secured Notes; and in each case as to such other matters as the Trustee or any Noteholder may reasonably require;

(e) immediately after giving effect to such transaction, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing;

(f) the Merging Entity shall have notified each Rating Agency of such consolidation, merger, transfer or conveyance and shall have delivered to the Trustee and each Noteholder an Officer's certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that such consolidation, merger, transfer or conveyance and such supplemental indenture comply with this Article 7 and that all conditions precedent in this Article 7 relating to such transaction have been complied with and that no adverse tax consequences will result therefrom to the Holders of the Notes (as compared to the tax consequences of not effecting the transaction);

(g) the Merging Entity shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel stating that after giving effect to such transaction, neither of the Co-Issuers (or, if applicable, the Successor Entity) will be required to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act; and

(h) after giving effect to such transaction, the outstanding stock (other than the Subordinated Notes) of the Merging Entity (or, if applicable, the Successor Entity) will not be beneficially owned within the meaning of the Investment Company Act by any U.S. Person.

Section 7.11. Successor Substituted. Upon any consolidation or merger, or transfer or conveyance of all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, in accordance with Section 7.10 (Co-Issuers May Consolidate, etc., Only on Certain Terms) hereof in which the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Merging Entity under this Indenture with the same effect as if such Person had been named as the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, herein. In the event of any such consolidation, merger, transfer or conveyance, the Person named as the "Issuer" or the "Co-Issuer" in the first paragraph of this Indenture or any successor which shall theretofore have become such in the manner prescribed in this Article 7 may be dissolved, wound up and liquidated at any time thereafter, and such Person thereafter shall be released from its liabilities as obligor and maker on all the Notes and from its obligations under this Indenture.

Section 7.12. No Other Business. From and after the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than issuing and selling the Notes pursuant to this Indenture and acquiring, owning, holding, selling, lending, exchanging, redeeming, pledging, contracting for the management of and otherwise dealing with Collateral Obligations and the other Assets in connection therewith (including, without limitation, establishing and maintaining any ETB Subsidiary) and entering into Hedge Agreements, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Securities Account Control Agreement, the Portfolio Management Agreement and other agreements specifically contemplated by this Indenture and shall not engage in any activity that would cause the Issuer to be subject to U.S. federal or state income tax on a net income basis, and the Co-Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than issuing and selling the Notes to be issued by it pursuant to this Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, such other activities which are necessary, suitable or convenient to accomplish the foregoing or are incidental thereto or connected therewith or ancillary thereto. The Issuer and the Co-Issuer may amend, or permit the amendment of, their Memorandum and Articles and Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws, respectively, only if such amendment would satisfy the Global Rating Agency Condition; provided, that, without satisfying the Global Rating Agency Condition, the Issuer and Co-Issuer shall each change their names at the direction of the Portfolio Manager only if prior notice of such change is provided to each Hedge Counterparty and Moody's. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 7.12 (No Other Business), the Issuer may take all actions necessary or advisable to comply with FATCA.

Section 7.13. Maintenance of Listing. To the extent such listing is not obtained on the Closing Date, the Issuer shall continue to use all reasonable efforts to obtain the listing of the Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange. Following such listing, so long as any Class of Notes remain Outstanding, the Co-Issuers shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain the listing of such Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange; provided, however, the Issuer will be permitted pursuant to a supplemental indenture under Section 8.1(xii) (Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders of Offered Securities) to cause the Subordinated Notes (and any other Class of Notes that reasonably could be characterized as equity in the Issuer) to be de-listed from such exchange (and to not be listed on any other exchange) if the listing of such Class of Notes could reasonably be expected to cause the Issuer to be treated as a domestic corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Section 7.14. Annual Rating Review. (a) So long as any of the Secured Notes of any Class remain Outstanding, on or before March 14th in each year commencing in 2014, the Applicable Issuers shall obtain and pay for an annual review of the rating of each such Class of Secured Notes from each Rating Agency, as applicable. The Applicable Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager in writing (and the Trustee shall promptly provide the Holders with a copy of such notice) if at any time the rating of any such Class of Secured Notes have been, or is known will be, changed or withdrawn.

(b) With respect to any Collateral Obligation which has a Moody's Rating derived as set forth in clause (i)(B) of the definition of the term "Moody's Rating," the Issuer shall obtain and pay for an annual review of each such Collateral Obligation. With respect to any Collateral Obligation which has a S&P Rating derived as set forth in clause (ii)(b) of the part of the definition of the term "S&P Rating," the Issuer shall obtain and pay for an annual review of each such Collateral Obligation.

Section 7.15. Reporting. At any time when the Co-Issuers are not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act and are not exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act, upon the request of a Holder or beneficial owner of a Note, the Co-Issuers shall promptly furnish or cause to be furnished "Rule 144A Information" to such Holder or beneficial owner, to a prospective purchaser of such Note designated by such Holder, or to the Trustee for delivery to such Holder or beneficial owner or a prospective purchaser designated by such Holder or beneficial owner, as the case may be, in order to permit compliance by such Holder or beneficial owner of such Note with Rule 144A under the Securities Act in connection with the resale of such Note by such Holder or beneficial owner of such Note, respectively. "Rule 144A Information" shall be such information as is specified pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act (or any successor provision thereto).

Section 7.16. Calculation Agent. (a) The Issuer hereby agrees that for so long as any Secured Notes remain Outstanding there will at all times be an agent appointed (which does not control or is not controlled or under common control with the Issuer or its Affiliates or the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates) to calculate LIBOR in respect of each Interest Accrual Period in accordance with the terms of Exhibit G hereto (the "Calculation Agent"). The Issuer initially appoints the Trustee as Calculation Agent. The Calculation Agent may be removed by the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine any of the information required to be published in the Companies Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange, as described in subsection (b), in respect of any Interest Accrual Period, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, will promptly appoint a replacement Calculation Agent which does not control or is not controlled by or under common control with the Issuer or its Affiliates or the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates. For so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the guidelines of such exchange so require, notice of the appointment of any replacement Calculation Agent shall be published in the Companies Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange as promptly as practicable after such appointment. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been duly appointed.

(b) The Calculation Agent shall be required to agree that, as soon as possible after 11:00 a.m. London time on each Interest Determination Date, but in no event later than 11:00 a.m. London time on the London Banking Day immediately following each Interest Determination Date, the Calculation Agent will calculate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Secured Notes for the next Interest Accrual Period and the Note Interest Amount for each Class of Secured Notes (in each case, rounded to the nearest cent, with half a cent being rounded upward) for the next Interest Accrual Period, on the related Payment Date. At such time the Calculation Agent will communicate such rates and amounts to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, each Paying Agent, the Portfolio Manager, Euroclear, Clearstream and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed thereon, the Companies Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange by email to rates@ise.ie. In the latter case, such information will be published in the Companies Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange as soon as possible after its determination. The Calculation Agent will also specify to the Co-Issuers the quotations upon which the foregoing rates and amounts are based, and in any event the Calculation Agent shall notify the Co-Issuers before 5:00 p.m. (London time) on every Interest Determination Date that either: (i) it has determined or is in the process of determining the Note Interest Rate and Note Interest

Amount for each Class of Secured Notes or (ii) it has not determined and is not in the process of determining any such Note Interest Rate or Note Interest Amount together with its reasons therefor. The Calculation Agent's determination of the foregoing rates and amounts for any Interest Accrual Period will (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon all parties.

Section 7.17. Certain Tax Matters. (a) For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Issuer shall treat the Secured Notes as debt of the Issuer and the Subordinated Notes as equity in the Issuer.

(b) The Issuer has not and shall not elect to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal, state or local income or franchise tax purposes and shall make any election necessary to avoid classification as a partnership or disregarded entity for U.S. federal, state or local income or franchise tax purposes.

(c) The Issuer shall treat each purchase of Collateral Obligations as a "purchase" for tax accounting and reporting purposes.

(d) The Issuer and Co-Issuer shall file, or cause to be filed, any tax returns, including information tax returns, required by any governmental authority.

(e) The Issuer shall not file, or cause to be filed, any income or franchise tax return in the United States or any state thereof except with respect to any ETB Subsidiary or a return required by a tax imposed under Section 881 of the Code unless it shall have obtained an Opinion of Counsel prior to such filing that, under the laws of such jurisdiction, the Issuer is required to file such income or franchise tax return.

(f) If required to prevent the withholding and imposition of United States income tax on payments made to the Issuer, the Issuer shall deliver or cause to be delivered a U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or applicable successor form certifying as to the non-U.S. Person status of the Issuer to each issuer or obligor of or counterparty with respect to an Asset at the time such Asset is purchased or entered into by the Issuer and thereafter prior to the obsolescence or expiration of such form.

(g) Upon the Trustee's receipt of a written request of a Holder of a Note or written request in the form of Exhibit I of a Person certifying that it is an owner of a beneficial interest in a Note for the information described in U.S. Treasury Regulations section 1.1275-3(b)(1)(i) that is applicable to such Note, the Issuer shall cause its Independent accountants to provide promptly to the Trustee and such requesting Holder or owner of a beneficial interest in such a Note all of such information.

(h) The Issuer shall use its reasonable commercial efforts to provide, or cause the Independent accountants to provide, within 180 days after the end of the Issuer's tax year, to each Holder of the Subordinated Notes (or any other Note that is required to be treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes) and, upon written request therefor in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a holder of a beneficial interest in a Subordinated Note (or any other Note that is required to be treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes), to such beneficial owner (or its designee), all information that a U.S. shareholder making a "qualified electing fund" election (as defined in the Code) with respect to the Subordinated Note (or any other Note treated that is required to be as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is required to obtain from the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and a "PFIC Annual Information Statement" as described in U.S. Treasury Regulation Section 1.1295-1(g)(1) (or any successor Treasury Regulation), including all representations and statements required by such statement, and the Issuer will take or cause the accountants to take any other reasonable steps to facilitate such election by a Holder or beneficial owner of a Subordinated Note (or any other Note that is required to be treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes).

(i) The Issuer will provide, or cause its Independent accountants to provide, to a Holder of a Subordinated Note (or any other Note that is required to be treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes) upon written request and, upon written request therefor in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a holder of a beneficial interest in a Subordinated Note (or any other Note that is required to be treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes), to such beneficial owner (or its designee), any information that such Holder or beneficial owner reasonably requests to assist such Holder or beneficial owner with regard to filing requirements that such Holder or beneficial owner is required to satisfy as a result of the controlled foreign corporation rules under the Code.

(j) Notwithstanding any contrary agreement or understanding, the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator and the Holders and beneficial owners of the Notes (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Indenture and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. The foregoing provision shall apply from the beginning of discussions between the parties. For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. tax treatment of the transaction under applicable U.S. federal, state or local law, and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. tax treatment of the transaction under applicable U.S. federal, state or local law.

(k) If the Issuer is aware that it has purchased an interest in a "reportable transaction" within the meaning of Section 6011 of the Code, and a Holder of a Subordinated Note (or any other Note that is required to be treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes) requests in writing information about any such transactions in which the Issuer is an investor, the Issuer shall provide, or cause its Independent accountants to provide, such information it has reasonably available that is required to be obtained by such Holder under the Code as soon as practicable after such request.

Section 7.18. Ramp-up Period; Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations. (a) The Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to satisfy the Target Initial Par Condition.

(b) During the Ramp-up Period, the Issuer shall use the following funds to purchase additional Collateral Obligations in the following order: (i) to pay for the principal portion of any Collateral Obligation, first, any amounts on deposit in the Ramp-up Account and second, any Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account and (ii) to pay for accrued interest on any such Collateral Obligation, first, any amounts on deposit in the Ramp-up Account and second, any Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account. In addition, the Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to acquire such Collateral Obligations that will satisfy, as of the end of the Ramp-up Period, the Concentration Limitations, the Collateral Quality Test and each of the Overcollateralization Ratio Tests.

(c) Within 30 days after the end of the Ramp-up Period: (i) the Issuer shall cause the Collateral Administrator to compile and provide to each Rating Agency an Effective Date Report and, to S&P, the S&P Excel Default Model Input File, (ii) the Issuer shall provide to the Collateral Administrator (upon its execution of an acknowledgement letter satisfactory to such accountants) an Accountants' Report (A) setting forth the issuer, principal balance, coupon/spread, Stated Maturity, Moody's Default Probability Rating, Moody's Rating, S&P Rating and country of Domicile with respect to each Collateral Obligation as of the end of the Ramp-up Period and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included in the Assets, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein, (B) calculating as of the end of the Ramp-up Period (1) the Overcollateralization Ratio Tests, (2) the Concentration Limitations, (3) the Collateral Quality Test (excluding the S&P CDO Monitor Test), (4) the Effective Date Overcollateralization Test and (5) the Target Initial Par Condition (such items (1) through (5), the "Moody's Specified Tested Items"); and (C) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the Accountants' Report and (iii) the Issuer shall request that S&P (such request shall be made to CDOEffectiveDatePortfolios@sandp.com) confirm that the S&P Effective Date Rating Condition is satisfied. If (x) the Issuer provides an Accountants' Report to the Collateral Administrator with the results of the Moody's Specified Tested Items, and the Collateral Administrator compares such results and based upon such comparison determines that such results are consistent with the results of the Moody's Specified Tested Items set forth in the Effective Date Report (for the avoidance of doubt, results that each indicate compliance with the Moody's Specified Tested Items will be considered consistent, even if the calculations are not identical), and (y) the Issuer causes the Collateral Administrator to provide to Moody's the Effective Date Report and the Effective Date Report confirms satisfaction of the Moody's Specified Tested Items, then a written confirmation from Moody's of its Initial Rating of the Class X Notes and the Class A Notes shall be deemed to have been provided.

(d) If, after the first Payment Date, the Effective Date Conditions have not been met, the Issuer may, in accordance with Section 10.2(f) (Collection Account), instruct the Trustee to (x) transfer amounts from the Interest Collection Subaccount to the Principal Collection Subaccount in an amount sufficient to satisfy the Effective Date Conditions (provided that the amount of such transfer would not result in the failure to pay interest due on any Senior Notes in accordance with the Priority of Payments) or (y) take such other action, including but not limited to a Special Redemption, sufficient to satisfy the Effective Date Conditions.

(e) The failure of the Issuer to satisfy the requirements of this Section 7.18 (Ramp-up Period; Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations) will not constitute an Event of Default unless such failure constitutes an Event of Default under Section 5.1(d) (Events of Default) hereof and the Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager acting on behalf of the Issuer, has acted in bad faith. Of the proceeds of the issuance of the Notes which are not applied to pay for the purchase of Collateral Obligations purchased by the Issuer on or before the Closing Date $502,631,025 shall be deposited in the Ramp-up Account on the Closing Date. At the direction of the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer), the Trustee shall apply amounts held in the Ramp-up Account to purchase additional Collateral Obligations. If at the end of the Ramp-up Period, any amounts on deposit in the Ramp-up Account have not been applied to purchase Collateral Obligations, such amounts shall be applied as described in Section 10.3(c) (Payment Account; Custodial Account; Ramp-up Account; Expense Reserve Account; Interest Reserve Account).

(f) On and after the last day of the Ramp-up Period, the Portfolio Manager shall determine which "row/column combination" of which Minimum Diversity/Maximum Rating/Minimum Spread Matrix shall be applicable for purposes of determining compliance with the Moody's Diversity Test, the Maximum Moody's Rating Factor Test and the Minimum Floating Spread Test, and if such "row/column combination" and/or Minimum Diversity/Maximum Rating/Minimum Spread Matrix differs from the "row/column combination" and/or Minimum Diversity/Maximum Rating/Minimum Spread Matrix chosen to apply as of the Closing Date, the Portfolio Manager will so notify the Issuer, the Collateral Administrator and the Trustee. After the last day of the Ramp-up Period, at any time on written notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Collateral Administrator, the Portfolio Manager may elect a different "row/column combination" and/or Minimum Diversity/Maximum Rating/Minimum Spread Matrix to apply to the Collateral Obligations, provided that the Collateral Obligations comply with the Minimum Diversity/Maximum Rating/Minimum Spread Matrix and "row/column combination" to which the Portfolio Manager desires to change. If the Collateral Obligations cease to comply with the Minimum Diversity/Maximum Rating/Minimum Spread Matrix and "row/column combination" which the Portfolio Manager has elected to apply, the Portfolio Manager shall promptly select a Minimum Diversity/Maximum Rating/Minimum Spread Matrix and "row/column combination" with respect to which the Collateral Obligations comply (or which will not cause the Collateral Obligations to be further out of compliance with any Collateral Quality Test measured by reference to the Minimum Diversity/Maximum Rating/Minimum Spread Matrix). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager may elect at any time after the last day of the Ramp-up Period, in lieu of selecting a "row/column combination" of the Minimum Diversity/Maximum Rating/Minimum Spread Matrix, to interpolate between two adjacent rows and/or two adjacent columns, as applicable, on a straight-line basis and round the results to two decimal points.

Section 7.19. Representations Relating to Security Interests in the Assets. (a) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and be deemed to be repeated on each date on which an Asset is Granted to the Trustee hereunder), with respect to the Assets:

(i) The Issuer owns such Asset free and clear of any lien, claim or encumbrance of any person, other than such as are created under, or permitted by, this Indenture.

(ii) Other than the security interest Granted to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture, except as permitted by this Indenture, the Issuer has not pledged, assigned, sold, granted a security interest in, or otherwise conveyed any of the Assets. The Issuer has not authorized the filing of and is not aware of any Financing Statements against the Issuer that include a description of collateral covering the Assets other than any Financing Statement relating to the security interest granted to the Trustee hereunder or that has been terminated; the Issuer is not aware of any judgment, PBGC liens or tax lien filings against the Issuer.

(iii) All Assets constitute Cash, accounts (as defined in Section 9-102(a)(2) of the UCC), Instruments, general intangibles (as defined in Section 9-102(a)(42) of the UCC), uncertificated securities (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(18) of the UCC), Certificated Securities or security entitlements to financial assets resulting from the crediting of financial assets to a "securities account" (as defined in Section 8-501(a) of the UCC).

(iv) All Accounts constitute "securities accounts" under Section 8-501(a) of the UCC.

(v) This Indenture creates a valid and continuing security interest (as defined in Section 1-201(37) of the UCC) in such Assets in favor of the Trustee, for the benefit and security of the Secured Parties, which security interest is prior to all other liens, claims and encumbrances (except as permitted otherwise in this Indenture), and is enforceable as such against creditors of and purchasers from the Issuer.

(b) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and be deemed to be repeated on each date on which an Asset is Granted to the Trustee hereunder), with respect to Assets that constitute Instruments:

(i) Either (x) the Issuer has caused or shall have caused, within ten days of the Closing Date, the filing of all appropriate Financing Statements in the proper office in the appropriate jurisdictions under applicable law in order to perfect the security interest in the Instruments granted to the Trustee, for the benefit and security of the Secured Parties, hereunder or (y)(A) all original executed copies of each promissory note or mortgage note that constitutes or evidences the Instruments have been delivered to the Trustee or the Issuer has received written acknowledgement from a custodian that such custodian is holding the mortgage notes or promissory notes that constitute evidence of the Instruments solely on behalf of the Trustee and for the benefit of the Secured Parties and (B) none of the Instruments that constitute or evidence the Assets has any marks or notations indicating that they have been pledged, assigned or otherwise conveyed to any Person other than the Trustee, for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

(ii) The Issuer has received all consents and approvals required by the terms of the Assets to the pledge hereunder to the Trustee of its interest and rights in the Assets.

(c) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and be deemed to be repeated on each date on which an Asset is Granted to the Trustee hereunder), with respect to the Assets that constitute Security Entitlements:

(i) All of such Assets have been and will have been credited to one of the Accounts which are securities accounts within the meaning of Section 8-501(a) of the UCC. The Custodian for each Account has agreed to treat all assets credited to such Accounts as "financial assets" within the meaning of Section 8-102(a)(9) the UCC.

(ii) The Issuer has received all consents and approvals required by the terms of the Assets to the pledge hereunder to the Trustee of its interest and rights in the Assets.

(iii) Either (x) the Issuer has caused or shall have caused, within ten days of the Closing Date, the filing of all appropriate Financing Statements in the proper office in the appropriate jurisdictions under applicable law in order to perfect the security interest granted to the Trustee, for the benefit and security of the Secured Parties, hereunder or (y)(A) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee a fully executed Securities Account Control Agreement pursuant to which the Custodian has agreed to comply with all instructions originated by the Trustee relating to the Accounts without further consent by the Issuer or (B) the Issuer has taken all steps necessary to cause the Custodian to identify in its records the Trustee as the person having a security entitlement against the Custodian in each of the Accounts.

(iv) The Accounts are not in the name of any person other than the Issuer or the Trustee. The Issuer has not consented to the Custodian to comply with the entitlement order of any person other than the Trustee (and the Issuer prior to a notice of exclusive control being provided by the Trustee).

(d) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and be deemed to be repeated on each date on which an Asset is Granted to the Trustee hereunder), with respect to Assets that constitute general intangibles:

(i) The Issuer has caused or shall have caused, within ten days of the Closing Date, the filing of all appropriate Financing Statements in the proper filing office in the appropriate jurisdictions under applicable law in order to perfect the security interest in the Assets granted to the Trustee, for the benefit and security of the Secured Parties, hereunder.

(ii) The Issuer has received, or shall receive, all consents and approvals required by the terms of the Assets to the pledge hereunder to the Trustee of its interest and rights in the Assets.

(e) The Co-Issuers agree to notify the Rating Agencies promptly if they become aware of the breach of any of the representations and warranties contained in this Section 7.19.

Section 7.20. Pre-funded Letters of Credit. If the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer) is notified by an administrative agent or other withholding agent for the syndicate of lenders or otherwise in respect of any Pre-funded Letter of Credit that the fees associated therewith are subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction, the Issuer shall permit the withholding of the full amount of withholding taxes due on such Pre-funded Letter of Credit. Under such circumstances, Section 1.2(p) (Assumptions as to Pledged Obligations) shall apply.

Section 7.21. Objection to Bankruptcy Proceeding. So long as any of the Notes are Outstanding, the Issuer shall promptly object to the institution of any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings, or other similar proceedings under Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state bankruptcy law or similar law against it and take all necessary or advisable steps to cause the dismissal of any such proceeding; provided, that such obligation shall be subject to the availability of funds therefor.

ARTICLE 8

Supplemental Indentures

Section 8.1. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders of Offered Securities. Without the consent of the Holders of any Offered Securities, but with the written consent of the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, when authorized by Board Resolutions, at any time and from time to time subject to the requirement provided below in this Section 8.1 (Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders of Offered Securities) with respect to the ratings of any Class of Secured Notes, may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto for any of the following purposes:

(i) to evidence the succession of another Person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and the assumption by any such successor Person of the covenants of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer herein and in the Notes;

(ii) to add to the covenants of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties or to surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Co-Issuers;

(iii) to convey, transfer, assign, mortgage or pledge any property to or with the Trustee or to add to the conditions, limitations or restrictions on the authorized amount, authentication and delivery of the Notes;

(iv) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment hereunder by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of this Indenture as shall be necessary to facilitate the administration of the trusts hereunder by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of Sections 6.9 (Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor), 6.10 (Acceptance of Appointment by Successor) and 6.12 (Co-Trustees) hereof;

(v) to correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of this Indenture, or to better assure, convey and confirm unto the Trustee any property subject or required to be subjected to the lien of this Indenture (including, without limitation, any and all actions necessary or desirable as a result of changes in law or regulations, whether pursuant to Section 7.5 (Protection of Assets) or otherwise) or to subject to the lien of this Indenture any additional property;

(vi) to modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of Notes to reflect any changes in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely upon any exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the Investment Company Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required thereunder;

(vii) at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, to change the name of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, so long as prior notice of such change is provided to each Hedge Counterparty and Moody's;

(viii) to make such changes as shall be necessary or advisable in order for a Class of Notes to be listed on an exchange, including the Irish Stock Exchange;

(ix) subject to the approval of the Holders of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class (if such issuance of Additional Subordinated Notes occurs on or after the Effective Date) and the Portfolio Manager, to make such changes as shall be necessary to permit the Applicable Issuers to issue Additional Subordinated Notes of any one or more new classes, provided, that any such new classes of notes shall be subordinate in payment of principal and interest to all existing Classes of Secured Notes; provided, further, that no amendment to this Indenture that does not relate directly to the issuance of the Additional Subordinated Notes or the terms of such Additional Subordinated Notes may be effected under this clause (ix), but may be effected simultaneously under another clause of this Section 8.1 (Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders of Offered Securities) or under Section 8.2 (Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders of Offered Securities), to the extent such other provision is available;

(x) to conform the provisions of this Indenture to the Offering Circular or, with the consent of the Holders of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), to correct any inconsistency or cure any ambiguity, omission or errors in this Indenture;

(xi) with the consent of the Holders of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class, to accommodate, modify or amend existing and/or replacement Hedge Agreements;

(xii) to (x) take any action advisable to prevent the Co-Issuers, any ETB Subsidiary or the Trustee from becoming subject to withholding or other taxes (other than taxes with respect to the Issuer otherwise permitted under this Indenture and other than taxes imposed on amounts payable or paid to the Trustee as compensation), fees or assessments, to prevent the Co-Issuers from being treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business or otherwise being subject to U.S. federal, state or local income tax on a net income basis, (y) take any action to allow the Co-Issuers to comply with FATCA or any rules or regulations promulgated thereunder (including providing for remedies against, or imposing penalties upon, any Noteholder who fails to deliver the Holder FATCA Information or is a Non-Compliant FFI) or (z) (A) issue a new Global Note or Global Notes in respect of, or issue one or more new sub-classes of, any Class of Notes to the extent that the Issuer determines that one or more beneficial owners of Notes of such Class are Recalcitrant Holders or Non-Compliant FFIs; provided, that any sub-class of a Class of Notes issued pursuant to this clause (z) shall be issued on identical terms as the existing Notes of such Class and (B) provide for procedures under which beneficial owners of such Class that are not Recalcitrant Holders or Non-Compliant FFIs may take an interest in such new Global Note(s) or sub-class(es);

(xiii) with the consent of the Holders of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class, to evidence any waiver by any Rating Agency as to any requirement or condition, as applicable, of such Rating Agency set forth herein;

(xiv) with the consent of the Portfolio Manager and at least a Majority of the Controlling Class to modify the definitions of "Credit Improved Obligation," "Credit Risk Obligation," "Defaulted Obligation" or "Equity Security" or the restrictions on the sales of Collateral Obligations set forth in Section 12.1 (Sales of Collateral Obligations) in a manner not material and adverse to any Holders, subject to the notice and objection provisions set forth in the second succeeding paragraph;

(xv) to make changes necessary to issue replacement securities or undertake loans in connection with a Refinancing; provided, however, that no amendment to this Indenture that does not relate directly to the issuance of the replacement securities or loans or the terms of such replacement securities or loans may be effected under this clause (xv), but may be effected simultaneously under another clause of this Section 8.1 (Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders of Offered Securities) or under Section 8.2 (Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders of Offered Securities), to the extent such other provision is available.

(xvi) to modify any provision to facilitate an exchange of one obligation for another obligation of the same Obligor that has substantially identical terms except transfer restrictions, including to effect any serial designation relating to the exchange;

(xvii) to modify or implement procedures necessary to comply with Rule 17g-5;

(xviii) to make such changes as shall be necessary or advisable in order for the Certificated Class E Notes and/or the Certificated Class F Notes to be held electronically through DTC or other clearing agencies in a manner similar to, and subject to the same procedures as, the Rule 144A Global Notes; or

(xix) to facilitate the issuance of combination notes with components consisting of existing Classes of Notes.

The Trustee shall join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations which may be therein contained, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, except to the extent required by law.

In the case of any supplemental indenture entered into pursuant to Section 8.1(xiv) (Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders of Offered Securities), if the Holders of at least a Majority of the Notes of any other Class provide written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee that such Holders will be materially and adversely affected by any such proposed supplemental indenture (which notice shall (i) set forth the basis on which such Holder or Holders are materially and adversely affected thereby and (ii) provide evidence of such Holder's identity, including a guarantee by a member of a signature guarantee program of its signature with respect to such notice), the Co-Issuers and the Trustee shall not enter into such supplemental indenture (it being understood that any Holder that does not object to such proposed supplemental indenture in writing within 15 Business Days of delivery of such proposed supplemental indenture will be deemed to have consented to such proposed supplemental indenture). In addition, for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the guidelines of such exchange shall so require, the Issuer shall notify the Irish Stock Exchange of any material modification of this Indenture.

Section 8.2. Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders of Offered Securities. (a) With the consent of (i) at least a Majority of each Class of Notes (voting separately by Class) materially and adversely affected thereby and (ii) without limiting clause (i) above, at least a Majority of the Controlling Class, if such supplemental indenture would modify the Weighted Average Life Test or extend the Reinvestment Period, the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may enter into a supplemental indenture to add any provisions to, or change in any manner or eliminate any of the provisions of, this Indenture or modify in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Secured Notes or the Holders of the Subordinated Notes, as applicable. Holders of the Combination Notes will vote with each Underlying Class, except in connection with any supplemental indenture that affects the Combination Notes in a materially adverse manner that is different from the effect of such supplemental indenture on the Notes of any Underlying Class, in which case they will vote only as a separate Class; provided, that, notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, no such supplemental indenture shall, without the consent of each Holder of any Class materially and adversely affected thereby:

(i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of any Class of Note or the due date of any installment of interest on any Secured Note, reduce the principal amount thereof or the rate of interest thereon or the Redemption Price with respect to any Offered Security, or change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class may be redeemed, change the provisions of this Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of any Assets to the payment of principal of or interest on Secured Notes or distributions on the Subordinated Notes or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which, Subordinated Notes or Secured Notes or the principal thereof or interest thereon is payable, or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after the Stated Maturity thereof (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the applicable Redemption Date); provided that, the consent of the Controlling Class shall not be required with respect to a supplemental indenture that reduces the rate of interest on a Class of Notes (unless such reduction is with respect to the Notes of the Controlling Class);

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Noteholders of each Class whose consent is required for the authorization of any such supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of this Indenture or certain defaults hereunder or their consequences provided for in this Indenture;

(iii) impair or adversely affect the Assets;

(iv) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture with respect to any part of the Assets or terminate such lien on any property at any time subject hereto or deprive the Holder of any Secured Note of the security afforded by the lien of this Indenture;

(v) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Noteholders, each Class of Secured Notes whose consent is required to request the Trustee to preserve the Assets or rescind the Trustee's election to preserve the Assets pursuant to Section 5.5 (Optional Preservation of Assets) or to sell or liquidate the Assets pursuant to Section 5.4 (Remedies) or 5.5 (Optional Preservation of Assets);

(vi) modify any of the provisions of this Article 8 (Supplemental Indentures), except to increase the percentage of Outstanding Secured Notes or Subordinated Notes the consent of the Holders of which is required for any such action or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Secured Note or Subordinated Note Outstanding and affected thereby;

(vii) modify the definition of the terms "Outstanding", "Controlling Class" or "Majority" or modify the Priority of Payments set forth in Section 11.1(a) (Disbursements of Monies from Payment Account) or the Note Payment Sequence;

(viii) modify any of the provisions of this Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of the Redemption Price, interest or principal on any Secured Note, or any amount available for distribution to the Subordinated Notes or to affect the rights of the Holders of Secured Notes to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of such Secured Notes contained herein; or

(ix) modify the provisions of this Indenture in such a manner as to affect the extent to which payments on the Underlying Class are made to the Holders of the Combination Notes or modifies the voting rights of Holders of the Combination Notes.

(b) Subject to Section 8.1, with the consent of the Holders of at least 66 2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Subordinated Notes delivered to the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto to accommodate the issuance of Additional Subordinated Notes pursuant to Section 2.4 (Additional Notes).

(c) Not later than 20 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to Sections 8.1 (Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders of Offered Securities) and 8.2 (Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders of Offered Securities), the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall deliver to the Noteholders

(and, upon receipt of a written request therefor in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a holder of a beneficial interest in a Note, any beneficial owner of a Note) and each Rating Agency (with respect to each Rating Agency, only for so long as any Outstanding Secured Notes are rated by such Rating Agency), a copy of such supplemental indenture. Unless otherwise notified in writing by at least a Majority of any Class of Notes that such Class would be materially and adversely affected by a supplemental indenture, the Trustee may conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates (including certificates delivered by the Portfolio Manager) and/or documents) as to whether the interests of any Holder of Notes would be materially and adversely affected by any supplemental indenture or other modification or amendment of this Indenture. Except as set forth in the previous sentence, such determination shall be conclusive and binding on all present and future Holders. The Trustee shall not be liable for any such determination made in good faith and in reliance in good faith upon an Opinion of Counsel delivered to the Trustee as described in Section 8.3 (Execution of Supplemental Indentures) hereof. If such a determination cannot be made with respect to a Class or Classes of Notes, such Class or Classes of Notes will be treated as if they would be materially and adversely affected by such change.

(d) It shall not be necessary for any Act of Holders under this Section 8.2 (Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders of Offered Securities) to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if such Act or consent shall approve the substance thereof.

(e) The Issuer shall not enter into any supplemental indenture which materially adversely affects any rights of any Hedge Counterparty under this Indenture without the prior written consent of such Hedge Counterparty.

(f) Promptly after the execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee of any supplemental indenture pursuant to Sections 8.1 (Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders of Offered Securities) and 8.2 (Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders of Offered Securities), the Trustee at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall deliver to the Noteholders (and, upon receipt of a written request therefor in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a holder of a beneficial interest in a Note, any beneficial owner of a Note), the Portfolio Manager and each Rating Agency a copy thereof. Any failure of the Trustee to deliver a copy of any supplemental indenture as provided herein, or any defect therein, shall not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any such supplemental indenture.

(g) With respect to any supplemental indenture that modifies or amends any component of the Minimum Diversity/Maximum Rating/Minimum Spread Matrix or the definitions related thereto, the following requirements must be satisfied prior to the execution of such supplemental indenture: (i) written consent to such supplemental indenture has been obtained from at least a Majority of the Controlling Class, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned and (ii) the Moody's Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to such supplemental indenture.

(h) Any supplemental indenture that amends or modifies the definitions of Concentration Limitations, Collateral Quality Tests, Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or Investment Criteria shall be deemed to materially and adversely affect the rights and interests of the Holders of each Class of Notes for the purposes of this Article 8.

Section 8.3. Execution of Supplemental Indentures. In executing or accepting the additional trusts created by any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article 8 or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to Sections 6.1 (Certain Duties and Responsibilities of the Trustee), 6.3 (Certain Rights of Trustee) and Section 8.2(c) (Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders of Offered Securities) hereof) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture and that all conditions precedent thereto have been satisfied. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise. The Portfolio Manager will be bound to follow any amendment or supplement to this Indenture of which it has received written notice from the time it has received a copy of such amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee; provided, however, that with respect to any amendment or supplement to this Indenture which would (i) increase the duties or liabilities of, or adversely change the economic consequences to the Portfolio Manager, (ii) modify the restrictions on the purchases or sales of Collateral Obligations described under Article 12 or the Investment Criteria, (iii) expand or restrict the Portfolio Manager's discretion or (iv) modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of Subordinated Notes, except as set forth in Section 8.1(vi) above, the Portfolio Manager shall not be bound thereby unless the Portfolio Manager shall have consented thereto in writing, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Issuer shall promptly provide the Portfolio Manager with notice of any proposed supplemental indenture that would have the effect of modifying the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of Subordinated Notes (whether as set forth in Section 8.1(vi) above or otherwise). For so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Issuer shall notify the Irish Stock Exchange of any material modification to this Indenture.

Section 8.4. Effect of Supplemental Indentures. Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article 8, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and such supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and every Holder of Notes theretofore and thereafter authenticated and delivered hereunder shall be bound thereby.

Section 8.5. Reference in Notes to Supplemental Indentures. Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 may, and if required by the Issuer shall, bear a notice in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in such supplemental indenture. If the Applicable Issuers shall so determine, new Notes, so modified as to conform in the opinion of the Co-Issuers to any such supplemental indenture, may be prepared and executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes.

Redemption of Notes

Section 9.1. Mandatory Redemption. If a Coverage Test is not met on any Determination Date occurring subsequent to the Ramp-up Period (or, in the case of each Interest Coverage Test, at or subsequent to the Determination Date with respect to the second Payment Date), the Issuer shall apply available amounts in the Payment Account on the related Payment Date to make payments in accordance with the Note Payment Sequence to the extent necessary to achieve compliance with such Coverage Test, as applicable. The Combination Notes will be redeemed on any Payment Date in connection with a Mandatory Redemption to the extent that each Underlying Class is redeemed.

Section 9.2. Optional Redemption and Refinancing. The Secured Notes shall be redeemable by the Applicable Issuers, in whole, on any Business Day (x) after the end of the Non-Call Period and (y) during the Non-Call Period, only if a Tax Event has occurred. No Optional Redemption shall occur unless the Issuer has received written direction from Holders of at least (i) when no Tax Event has occurred or is ongoing, 66 2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Subordinated Notes or (ii) when a Tax Event has occurred and is ongoing, 66 2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Subordinated Notes or of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of any Class of Secured Notes Affected by such Tax Event (provided that if the Tax Event that has occurred is with respect to any tax arising under or as a result of FATCA, then Holders that have not provided the Issuer (or an authorized agent acting on behalf of the Issuer) with the Holder FATCA Information (to the extent that the failure to provide the Holder FATCA Information was a cause of the tax arising under FATCA) shall not be considered in determining whether the Holders of at least 66 2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the applicable Class of Notes have directed a redemption of Secured Notes) provided to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager not later than 30 days prior to the Business Day on which such redemption shall occur.

Upon receipt or delivery of a notice of redemption of the Secured Notes, the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion will (except in the case of a Refinancing) direct the sale of all or part of the Collateral Obligations and other Assets in order that the proceeds from such sale and all other funds available for such purpose in the Collection Account and the Payment Account will be at least sufficient to pay the Redemption Price on all of the Secured Notes and to pay any applicable Management Fees, all Administrative Expenses (without limitation thereof by the Administrative Expense Cap) and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (including, without limitation, any amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties), provided that, in the event that the Redemption Date is not a Payment Date, any applicable Management Fees, the Administrative Expenses and other fees and expenses payable pursuant to the Priority of Payments shall be calculated as of such Redemption Date. On the Redemption Date, proceeds available for an Optional Redemption will be applied to redeem the Secured Notes and pay other amounts and expenses in accordance with the Priority of Payments. If such sale, in the sole discretion of the Portfolio Manager, would not be sufficient to redeem all Secured Notes and to pay such applicable Management Fees, Administrative Expenses and other fees and expenses, the Secured Notes may not be redeemed. The Portfolio Manager, in its discretion, may effect the sale of all or any part of the Collateral Obligations or other Assets through the sale of one or more participations in such Assets.

The Combination Notes shall be redeemed on any Redemption Date in connection with an Optional Redemption to the extent that each Underlying Class is redeemed by allocation of the Redemption Price of each Underlying Class. The Subordinated Notes may be redeemed, in whole but not in part, on any Business Day on or after the redemption or repayment of the Secured Notes, at the written direction of Holders of at least 66 2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Subordinated Notes.

Any Class or Classes of Secured Notes may be redeemed in whole, but not in part, on any Business Day after the Non-Call Period from Refinancing Proceeds at the written direction of at least 66 2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Subordinated Notes delivered to the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager (with a copy to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies). The Co-Issuers shall redeem such Class or Classes of Secured Notes on the applicable Redemption Date following receipt of such direction by obtaining a loan or an issuance of replacement securities, the terms of which loan or issuance will be negotiated by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, from one or more financial institutions or purchasers (a refinancing provided pursuant to such loan or issuance, a "Refinancing"). So long as the Combination Notes are Outstanding, the Underlying Classes may only be redeemed in connection with a Refinancing if all of the Underlying Classes will be redeemed on the same Redemption Date. The Combination Notes shall be redeemed on any Redemption Date in connection with a Refinancing to the extent that each Underlying Class is redeemed by allocation of the Redemption Price of each Underlying Class.

The Issuer shall not obtain a Refinancing of less than all Classes of Secured Notes unless the Portfolio Manager determines and certifies to the Trustee and the Issuer that: (i) the Global Rating Agency Condition has been satisfied with respect to any remaining Secured Notes that were not the subject of the Refinancing; (ii) the proceeds from the Refinancing (the "Refinancing Proceeds") (together with Interest Proceeds available in accordance with the Priority of Payments to pay the accrued interest portion of the applicable Redemption Price) will be at least sufficient to pay the Redemption Price of the Class or Classes of Secured Notes subject to Refinancing; (iii) the aggregate principal amount of any obligations providing the Refinancing is equal to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Secured Notes being redeemed with the proceeds of such obligations plus an amount equal to the expenses in connection with such Refinancing (other than expenses to be paid by application of Section 11.1(a)(i)(W) (Disbursements of Monies from Payment Account); (iv) the stated maturity of the obligations providing the Refinancing is no earlier than the Stated Maturity of the Secured Notes being refinanced; (v) the Refinancing Proceeds will be used (to the extent necessary) to redeem the applicable Secured Notes; (vi) the agreements relating to the Refinancing contain limited-recourse and non-petition provisions equivalent to those applicable to the Secured Notes being redeemed, as set forth herein; (vii) the obligations providing the Refinancing are not senior in priority of payment, and do not have greater voting rights than, the Class of Secured Notes being redeemed; and (viii) the expenses in connection with the Refinancing have been paid or will be adequately provided for from (x) the proceeds of the Refinancing (except for expenses owed to persons that agree to be paid solely as Administrative Expenses payable in accordance with the Priority of Payments) and/or (y) the application of Section 11.1(a)(i)(W) (Disbursements of Monies from Payment Account).

In addition to the foregoing restrictions, no replacement Class of Secured Notes shall be issued in connection with a Refinancing of less than all Classes of Secured Notes unless the Issuer causes to be delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel in form and substance satisfactory to the Trustee to the effect that the issuance of such Notes would not affect the U.S. Federal income tax treatment of the Secured Notes then Outstanding (including any resulting deemed exchange under Section 1001 of the Code).

In the case of a Refinancing upon a redemption of all Classes of Secured Notes, the Issuer shall not obtain such Refinancing unless (i) the Refinancing Proceeds and all other available funds will be at least sufficient to redeem simultaneously the Secured Notes, in whole but not in part, and to pay the other amounts included in the aggregate Redemption Price and all accrued and unpaid applicable Management Fees, Administrative Expenses (regardless of the Administrative Expense Cap), including the reasonable fees, costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Trustee and the Collateral Administrator (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such Refinancing, provided that, in the event that the Redemption Date is not a Payment Date, any applicable Management Fees, the Administrative Expenses and other fees and expenses payable pursuant to the Priority of Payments shall be calculated as of such Redemption Date, (ii) the Refinancing Proceeds and other available funds are used (to the extent necessary) to make such redemption and (iii) the agreements relating to the Refinancing contain limited recourse and non-petition provisions equivalent to those applicable to the Secured Notes being redeemed, as set forth herein.

Refinancing Proceeds shall not constitute Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds but will be applied directly on the related Redemption Date pursuant to this Indenture to redeem the Secured Notes being refinanced without regard to the Priority of Payments; provided, that to the extent that any Refinancing Proceeds are not applied to redeem the Secured Notes being refinanced or to pay expenses in connection with the Refinancing, such Refinancing Proceeds shall be treated as Principal Proceeds.

The Holders of the Notes shall not have any cause of action against any of the Co-Issuers, the Portfolio Manager or the Trustee for any failure to obtain a Refinancing. In the event that a Refinancing is obtained meeting the requirements specified above as certified by the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer and the Trustee shall amend this Indenture to the extent necessary to reflect the terms of the Refinancing and no further consent for such amendments shall be required from the Holders of Notes other than the consent of at least 66 2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Subordinated Notes directing or consenting to the redemption.

In the event of any redemption pursuant to this Section 9.2 (Optional Redemption and Refinancing), the Issuer shall, at least 20 days prior to the Redemption Date (unless the Trustee shall agree to a shorter notice period), notify the Trustee in writing of such Redemption Date, the applicable Record Date, the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed on such Redemption Date and the applicable Redemption Price(s).

Section 9.3. Redemption Procedures. (a) In the event of any redemption pursuant to Section 9.2 (Optional Redemption and Refinancing), the written direction of the Holders of the Subordinated Notes set forth therein shall be provided to the Trustee, the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager not later than 30 days prior to the Business Day on which such redemption is to be made (which date shall be designated in such notice) and a notice of redemption shall be given by first class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days prior to the applicable Redemption Date, to each applicable Holder of Notes, at such Holder's address in the Register and each Rating Agency. In addition, for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the guidelines of such exchange so require, notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.2 (Optional Redemption and Refinancing) shall also be given to the Noteholders by publication in the Companies Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

(b) All notices of redemption delivered pursuant to Section 9.3(a) (Redemption Procedures) shall state:

(i) the applicable Redemption Date;

(ii) the Redemption Price of the Notes to be redeemed;

(iii) that all of the Secured Notes are to be redeemed in full, in the case of an Optional Redemption, or listing the applicable Class of Notes that are to be redeemed, in the case of a Refinancing, and that interest on the Secured Notes shall cease to accrue on the Business Day specified in the notice;

(iv) the place or places where Notes are to be surrendered for payment of the Redemption Price, which shall be the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained as provided in Section 7.2 (Maintenance of Office or Agency); and

(v) whether the Subordinated Notes are to be redeemed in full on such Redemption Date and, if so, the place or places where the Subordinated Notes are to be surrendered for payment of the Redemption Price, which shall be the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained as provided in Section 7.2 (Maintenance of Office or Agency).

The Co-Issuers shall have the option to withdraw any such notice of redemption up to the Business Day immediately prior to the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager only if the Portfolio Manager shall be unable to deliver the sale agreement or agreements or certifications (described in Section 9.3(c) (Redemption Procedures)), in form satisfactory to the Trustee or is unable to effect the applicable Refinancing. If the Co-Issuers so withdraw any notice of redemption or is otherwise unable to complete any redemption of the Notes, the Sale Proceeds received from the sale of any Collateral Obligations and other Assets sold pursuant to Section 9.2 (Optional Redemption and Refinancing) may, during the Reinvestment Period at the Portfolio Manager's discretion, be reinvested in accordance with the Investment Criteria.

Notice of redemption shall be given by the Co-Issuers (so long as the Co-Issuers have received notice thereof) or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Notes selected for redemption shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Notes.

(c) In the event of any redemption pursuant to Section 9.2 (Optional Redemption and Refinancing), no Notes may be optionally redeemed (other than in connection with a Refinancing) unless (i) at least 10 Business Days before the scheduled Redemption Date the Portfolio Manager shall have furnished to the Trustee evidence, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, that the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer has entered into a binding agreement or agreements with a financial or other institution or institutions to sell to such institution, not later than the second Business Day preceding the scheduled Redemption Date in immediately available funds, all or part of the Collateral Obligations and/or the Hedge Agreements at a purchase price at least equal to an amount sufficient, together with the Eligible Investments maturing, redeemable (or putable to the issuer thereof at par) on or prior to the scheduled Redemption Date and any payments to be received in respect of the Hedge Agreements, to pay any applicable Management Fees, all Administrative Expenses and other fees and expenses payable in accordance with the Priority of Payments (without limitation thereof by the Administrative Expense Cap) prior to the payment of the principal of the Notes to be redeemed and redeem all of the Secured Notes on the scheduled Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Price, provided that, in the event that the Redemption Date is not a Payment Date, any applicable Management Fees, the Administrative Expenses and other fees and expenses payable pursuant to the Priority of Payments shall be calculated as of such Redemption Date or (ii) prior to selling any Collateral Obligations and/or Eligible Investments, the Portfolio Manager shall certify to the Trustee that, in its judgment, the aggregate sum of (A) expected proceeds from Hedge Agreements and the sale of Eligible Investments and (B) the aggregate Market Value of all Collateral Obligations and other Assets shall exceed the sum of (x) the aggregate Redemption Prices of the Outstanding Secured Notes and (y) any applicable Management Fees, all Administrative Expenses and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (without limitation thereof by the Administrative Expense Cap) prior to the redemption of the Notes, provided that, in the event that the Redemption Date is not a Payment Date, any applicable Management Fees, the Administrative Expenses and other fees and expenses payable pursuant to the Priority of Payments shall be calculated as of such Redemption Date. Any certification delivered pursuant to Section 9.3(c)(ii) (Redemption Procedures) shall include (1) the approximate prices of, and expected proceeds from, the sale of any Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments and/or Hedge Agreements and (2) all calculations required by this Section 9.3(c) (Redemption Procedures). The Issuer shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, the funds required for an Optional Redemption in the Payment Account on or prior to the Redemption Date.

Section 9.4. Notes Payable on Redemption Date. (a) Notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.3 (Redemption Procedures) having been given as aforesaid, the Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, subject to (i) Section 9.3(c) (Redemption Procedures) and (ii) the Co-Issuers' right to withdraw any notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.3(b) (Redemption Procedures), become due and payable at the Redemption Price therein specified, and from and after the Redemption Date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest) all such Secured Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Redemption Date. Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, each Noteholder shall present and surrender its Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption on or prior to such Redemption Date; provided, however, that if there is delivered to the Co-Issuers and the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by any of them to save such party harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender such Note, then, in the absence of notice to the Co-Issuers or the Trustee that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, such final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender. Payments of interest on Secured Notes so to be redeemed whose Stated Maturity is on or prior to the Redemption Date shall be payable to the Holders of such Secured Note, or one or more predecessor Notes, registered as such at the close of business on the relevant Record Date according to the terms and provisions of Section 2.8(e) (Payment of Principal and Interest and Other Amounts; Principal and Interest Rights Preserved).

(b) If any Secured Note called for redemption shall not be paid upon surrender thereof for redemption, the principal thereof shall, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the applicable Note Interest Rate for each successive Interest Accrual Period the Secured Note remains Outstanding; provided, that the reason for such non-payment is not the fault of such Noteholder.

Section 9.5. Special Redemption. The Secured Notes shall be subject to redemption in part on any Payment Date (A) during the Reinvestment Period, if the Portfolio Manager at its discretion notifies the Trustee that it has been unable, for a period of 20 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion and would meet the Investment Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the investment or reinvestment of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account that are to be invested in additional Collateral Obligations or (B) after the Ramp-up Period, if the Portfolio Manager notifies the Trustee that a redemption is required pursuant to Section 7.18(d) (Ramp-up Period; Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations) (in each case, a "Special Redemption"). On the first Payment Date following the Collection Period in which such notice is given (and, in the case of clause (B) above, any subsequent Payment Date) (a "Special Redemption Date"), the amount in the Principal Collection Subaccount representing Principal Proceeds which (1) the Portfolio Manager has determined cannot be reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations or (2) must be applied to redeem the Secured Notes in accordance with Section 7.18(d) (Ramp-up Period; Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations) (such amount, a "Special Redemption Amount"), as the case may be, will be available to be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments under Section 11.1(a)(ii) (Disbursements of Monies from Payment Account). Notice of payments pursuant to this Section 9.5 (Special Redemption) shall be given by the Trustee first class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than three Business Days prior to the applicable Special Redemption Date to each Holder of Notes affected thereby at such Holder's address in the Register and to both Rating Agencies. Failure to give any such notice, or any defect therein, to any Holder selected for redemption shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption or any other Notes. In addition, for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the guidelines of such exchange so require, notice of Special Redemption shall also be given by publication at the Companies Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange. The Issuer shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, the funds required for a Special Redemption in the Payment Account on or prior to the Special Redemption Date. The Combination Notes will be redeemed on any Payment Date in connection with a Special Redemption to the extent that each Underlying Class is redeemed.

Section 9.6. Clean-up Call Redemption. (a) The Notes are redeemable at the option of the Applicable Issuer(s) acting at the direction of the Portfolio Manager (which direction shall (x) be given so as to be received by the Issuer and the Trustee not later than twenty days prior to the proposed Clean-up Call Redemption Date and (y) include the Clean-up Call Redemption Date and the Clean-up Call Redemption Price of the Notes to be redeemed), in whole but not in part (a "Clean-up Call Redemption"), at the applicable Redemption Price, on any Business Day selected by the Portfolio Manager (such Business Day, the "Clean-up Call Redemption Date") which occurs on or after the Payment Date on which the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments is less than or equal to 15% of the Target Initial Par Amount. In such event a notice of redemption shall be given by first class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than six Business Days prior to the applicable Clean-up Call Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes, at such Holder's address in the Register and to each Rating Agency. Any such Clean-up Call Redemption may only be effected on a Payment Date and only from (a) the disposition proceeds of the Assets and (b) all other funds in the Accounts on the Payment Date relating to such redemption. A Clean-up Call Redemption may not occur unless the proceeds from the liquidation of the Assets and all other funds in the Accounts on the Payment Date relating to such redemption results in an amount at least equal to the Clean-up Call Redemption Price. The Combination Notes will be redeemed on any Clean-up Redemption Date in connection with a Clean-up Call Redemption to the extent that each Underlying Class is redeemed by allocation of the Clean-up Call Redemption Price of each Underlying Class.

(b) All notices of redemption delivered pursuant to Section 9.6(a) (Clean-up Call Redemption) shall state:

(i) the Clean-up Call Redemption Date;

(ii) the Clean-up Call Redemption Price of the Notes to be redeemed; and

(iii) that all of the Notes are to be redeemed in full and that interest on the Secured Notes shall cease to accrue on the Payment Date specified in the notice.

Notice of redemption shall be given by the Co-Issuers or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Notes. In addition, for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the guidelines of such exchange so require, notice of Clean-up Call Redemption shall also be given by publication in the Companies Announcement Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

(c) Any Clean-up Call Redemption is subject to (i) the purchase of the Assets by any Person(s) from the Issuer, on or prior to the fourth Business Day immediately preceding the Clean-up Call Redemption Date, for a purchase price in Cash at least equal to the Clean-up Call Redemption Price (less the amount of funds in the Accounts that are available to pay the Clean-up Call Redemption Price) and (ii) the receipt by the Trustee from the Portfolio Manager, prior to such purchase, of a certification from the Portfolio Manager that the sum so received satisfies the requirements of clause (i). Upon receipt by the Trustee of the certification referred to in the preceding sentence, the Trustee (pursuant to written direction from the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer) and the Portfolio Manager, acting on behalf of the Issuer, shall take all commercially reasonable actions necessary to sell, assign and transfer the Assets to such Person(s) (which may be the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates) upon payment in immediately available funds of the purchase price for such Assets. The Issuer shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, the funds required for a Clean-up Call Redemption in the Payment Account on or prior to the Clean-up Call Redemption Date. The Trustee shall deposit such payment into the Collection Account.

(d) Any notice of Clean-up Call Redemption may be withdrawn by the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf) up to the fourth Business Day prior to the scheduled Clean-up Call Redemption Date by written notice to the Trustee, the Rating Agencies and (if applicable) the Portfolio Manager only if amounts equal to the Clean-up Call Redemption Price (including funds in the Accounts available to pay the Clean-up Call Redemption Price) are not received in full in immediately available funds by the fourth Business Day immediately preceding the Clean-up Call Redemption Date. Notice of any such withdrawal of a notice of Clean-up Call Redemption shall be given by the Trustee at the expense of the Issuer to each Holder of Notes at such Holder's address in the Note Register by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery not later than the second Business Day prior to the scheduled Clean-up Call Redemption Date. The Trustee shall also arrange for notice of such withdrawal to be delivered to the Irish Stock Exchange so long as any Class of Notes is listed thereon and so long as the guidelines of such exchange so require.

(e) On the Clean-up Call Redemption Date, the Clean-up Call Redemption Price shall be distributed pursuant to the Priority of Payments.

(f) Notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.6 (Clean-up Call Redemption) having been given as aforesaid, the Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Clean-up Call Redemption Date, subject to Section 9.6(c) (Clean-up Call Redemption) and the Co-Issuers' right to withdraw any notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.6(d) (Clean-up Call Redemption), become due and payable at the Clean-up Call Redemption Price therein specified, and from and after the Clean-up Call Redemption Date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Clean-up Call Redemption Price and accrued interest) all the Secured Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Clean-up Call Redemption Date. Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, the Holder shall present and surrender such Notes at the place specified in the notice of redemption on or prior to such Clean-up Call Redemption Date; provided, however, that if there is delivered to the Co-Issuers and the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by any of them to save such party harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender such Note, then, in the absence of notice to the Co-Issuers or the Trustee that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, such final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender.

If any Secured Note called for redemption pursuant to Section 9.6 (Clean-up Call Redemption) shall not be paid upon surrender thereof for redemption, the principal thereof shall, until paid, bear interest from the Clean-up Call Redemption Date at the applicable Note Interest Rate for each successive Interest Accrual Period the Secured Note remains Outstanding; provided that the reason for such non-payment is not the fault of the Holder of such Secured Note.

ARTICLE 10

Accounts, Accountings and Releases

Section 10.1. Collection of Money. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the Trustee may demand payment or delivery of, and shall receive and collect, directly and without intervention or assistance of any fiscal agent or other intermediary, all Money and other property payable to or receivable by the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture, including all payments due on the Pledged Obligations, in accordance with the terms and conditions of such Pledged Obligations. The Trustee shall segregate and hold all such Money and property received by it in trust for the Holders of the Notes and shall apply it as provided in this Indenture.

Each Account shall be established and maintained with (a) a federal or state-chartered depository institution with (x) a long-term debt rating of at least "A" by S&P and a short-term debt rating of at least "A-1" by S&P or a long-term debt rating of at least "A+" by S&P and if such institution's long-term debt rating falls below "A" by S&P or its short-term rating falls below "A-1" by S&P (or its long-term rating falls below "A+" by S&P), the assets held in such Account shall be transferred within 60 calendar days to another institution that has a long-term debt rating of at least "A" by S&P and a short-term debt rating of at least "A-1" by S&P (or a long-term debt rating of at least "A+" by S&P) and (y) a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A2" or a short-term credit rating of "P-1" by Moody's or (b) in segregated non-interest bearing trust accounts with the corporate trust department of a federal or state-chartered deposit institution subject to regulations regarding fiduciary funds on deposit similar to Title 12 of the Code of Federal Regulation Section 9.10(b), which depository institution (x) has a long term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "Baa3" by Moody's and (y) to the extent any related trust account is holding cash, satisfies the ratings requirements specified in clause (a). If, in the case of either clause (a) or (b) above, such institution's long-term debt rating or short-term credit rating by Moody's falls below any such required rating, the assets held in the related Accounts shall be transferred within 30 calendar days to another institution that satisfies such rating requirements. The Trustee shall have the right to open subaccounts of any such Account as it deems necessary or appropriate for convenience of administration.

Section 10.2. Collection Account. (a) In accordance with this Indenture and the Securities Account Control Agreement, the Trustee shall, on or prior to the Closing Date, establish at the Custodian a segregated non-interest bearing trust account in the name "ACIS CLO 2013-1 Ltd., subject to the lien of the Trustee", which shall be designated as the Collection Account, which shall be held by the Custodian in accordance with the Securities Account Control Agreement. In addition, the Trustee shall maintain two segregated subaccounts within the Collection Account, one of which will be designated the "Interest Collection Subaccount," and one of which will be designated the "Principal Collection Subaccount." The Trustee shall from time to time deposit into the Interest Collection Subaccount, in addition to the deposits required pursuant to Section 10.6(a) (Reinvestment of Funds in Accounts; Reports by Trustee), immediately upon receipt thereof (except for income earned on amounts deposited in the Ramp-up Account and, to the extent provided in Section 10.4(a) (the Revolver Funding Account), the subaccount of the Revolver Funding Account relating to Permitted Currencies) (i) any funds received by the Issuer after the Closing Date and deemed by the Portfolio Manager to be Interest Proceeds and (ii) all Interest Proceeds (unless simultaneously reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations in accordance with Article 12) received by the Trustee. The Trustee shall deposit immediately upon receipt thereof all other amounts remitted to the Collection Account into the Principal Collection Subaccount, including in addition to the deposits required pursuant to Section 10.6(a) (Reinvestment of Funds in Accounts; Reports by Trustee), (i) any funds received by the Issuer after the Closing Date and deemed by the Portfolio Manager to be Principal Proceeds, (ii) all Principal Proceeds (unless simultaneously reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations in accordance with Article 12 or in Eligible Investments) received by the Trustee, and (iii) all other funds received by the Trustee. All Monies deposited from time to time in the Collection Account pursuant to this Indenture shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Assets and shall be applied to the purposes herein provided. Subject to Section 10.2(d) (Collection Account), amounts in the Collection Account shall be reinvested pursuant to Section 10.6(a) (Reinvestment of Funds in Accounts; Reports by Trustee).

(b) The Trustee, within one Business Day after receipt of any distribution or other proceeds in respect of the Assets which are not Cash, shall so notify or cause to notify the Issuer and the Issuer shall, use its commercially reasonable efforts to, within five Business Days of receipt of such notice from the Trustee (or as soon as practicable thereafter), sell such distribution or other proceeds for Cash in an arm's length transaction to a Person which is not the Portfolio Manager or an Affiliate of the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager and deposit the proceeds thereof in the Collection Account; provided, however, that the Issuer (i) need not sell such distributions or other proceeds if it delivers an Issuer Order or an Officer's certificate to the Trustee certifying that such distributions or other proceeds constitute Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments or (ii) may otherwise retain such distribution or other proceeds for up to two years from the date of receipt thereof if it delivers an Officer's certificate to the Trustee certifying that (x) it will sell such distribution within such two-year period and (y) retaining such distribution is not otherwise prohibited by this Indenture.

(c) At any time when reinvestment is permitted pursuant to Article 12, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of such Issuer Order the Trustee shall, (x) withdraw funds on deposit in the Principal Collection Subaccount representing Principal Proceeds (together with accrued interest received with regard to any Collateral Obligation and Interest Proceeds but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on an additional Collateral Obligation) and reinvest (or invest, in the case of funds referred to in Section 7.18 (Ramp-up Period; Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations)) such funds in additional Collateral Obligations or (y) withdraw funds in the Interest Collection Subaccount to exercise a warrant held in the Assets, in each case in accordance with the requirements of Article 12 and such Issuer Order; provided that, in the case of clause (y) above (i) funds on deposit in the Principal Collection Subaccount may be used to exercise warrants in Assets if the Effective Date Overcollateralization Test is satisfied as of the date such warrant is exercised and (ii) proceeds from the sale of securities obtained upon the exercise of such warrant may be treated as Interest Proceeds (up to the amount of Interest Proceeds used to exercise such warrant) or Principal Proceeds at the election of the Portfolio

Manager. At any time, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of such Issuer Order the Trustee shall, withdraw funds on deposit in the Principal Collection Subaccount representing Principal Proceeds and transfer such funds to the Revolver Funding Account, to be used in accordance with Section 10.4 (The Revolver Funding Account).

(d) The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of such Issuer Order the Trustee shall, pay from amounts on deposit in the Collection Account on any Business Day during any Interest Accrual Period (i) from Interest Proceeds only, any amount required to exercise a warrant held in the Assets or right to acquire securities in accordance with the requirements of Article 12 and such Issuer Order; provided that, (x) Principal Proceeds may be used to exercise warrants in Assets if the Effective Date Overcollateralization Test is satisfied as of the date such warrant is exercised and (y) proceeds from the sale of securities obtained upon the exercise of such warrant may be treated as Interest Proceeds (up to the amount of Interest Proceeds used to exercise such warrant) or Principal Proceeds at the election of the Portfolio Manager and (ii) from Interest Proceeds only, any Administrative Expenses; provided, that the aggregate Administrative Expenses paid pursuant to this Section 10.2(d) (Collection Account) during any Collection Period shall not exceed the Administrative Expense Cap for the related Payment Date.

(e) The Trustee shall transfer to the Payment Account as applicable, from the Collection Account, for application pursuant to Section 11.1(a) (Disbursements of Monies from Payment Account), on or not later than the Business Day preceding each Payment Date, the amount set forth to be so transferred in the Distribution Report for such Payment Date.

(f) The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of such Issuer Order the Trustee shall, transfer from amounts on deposit in the Interest Collection Subaccount on any Business Day during any Interest Accrual Period to the Principal Collection Subaccount, amounts necessary for application pursuant to Section 7.18(d) (Ramp-up Period; Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations) if, as of the end of the Ramp-up Period, any of the Effective Date Conditions have not been met.

Section 10.3. Payment Account; Custodial Account; Ramp-up Account; Expense Reserve Account; Interest Reserve Account.

(a) Payment Account. In accordance with this Indenture and the Securities Account Control Agreement, the Trustee shall, on or prior to the Closing Date, establish at the Custodian a segregated non-interest bearing trust account in the name "ACIS CLO 2013-1 Ltd., subject to the lien of the Trustee", which shall be designated as the Payment Account, which shall be held by the Custodian in accordance with the Securities Account Control Agreement. Except as provided in Section 11.1(a) (Disbursements of Monies from Payment Account), the only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Payment Account shall be to pay amounts due and payable on the Notes in accordance with their terms and the provisions of this Indenture and, upon Issuer Order, to pay Administrative Expenses and other amounts specified herein, each in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The Co-Issuers shall not have any legal, equitable or beneficial interest in the Payment Account other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

(b) Custodial Account. In accordance with this Indenture and the Securities Account Control Agreement, the Trustee shall, on or prior to the Closing Date, establish at the Custodian a segregated non-interest bearing trust account in the name "ACIS CLO 2013-1 Ltd., subject to the lien of the Trustee", which shall be designated as the Custodial Account, which shall be held by the Custodian in accordance with the Securities Account Control Agreement. The only permitted withdrawals from the Custodial Account shall be in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture. The Trustee agrees to give the Co-Issuers immediate notice if (to the Trustee's actual knowledge) the Custodial Account or any assets or securities on deposit therein, or otherwise to the credit of the Custodial Account, shall become subject to any writ, order, judgment, warrant of attachment, execution or similar process.

(c) Ramp-up Account. The Trustee shall, on or prior to the Closing Date, establish at the Custodian a segregated non-interest bearing trust account in the name "ACIS CLO 2013-1 Ltd., subject to the lien of the Trustee", which shall be designated as the Ramp-up Account, which shall be held by the Custodian in accordance with the Securities Account Control Agreement. The Issuer shall direct the Trustee to deposit the amount specified in Section 3.1(a)(xii) (Conditions to Issuance of Notes on Closing Date) in the Ramp-up Account. In connection with any purchase of an additional Collateral Obligation, the Trustee will apply amounts held in the Ramp-up Account as provided by Section 7.18(b) (Ramp-up Period; Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations). After the Effective Date, but prior to the second Determination Date, and after taking into account amounts to be transferred, up to $5,000,000 in Designated Principal Proceeds may be designated, on one occasion only, by the Portfolio Manager as Interest Proceeds (but only if the Effective Date Overcollateralization Test would be satisfied after such designation). Such Designated Principal Proceeds will be withdrawn from the Ramp-up Account and deposited into the Interest Collection Subaccount. On the first day after the end of the Ramp-up Period or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default (and excluding any proceeds that will be used to settle binding commitments entered into prior to that date), the Trustee will deposit any remaining amounts in the Ramp-up Account into the Principal Collection Subaccount as Principal Proceeds. Any income earned on amounts deposited in the Ramp-up Account will be deposited in the Ramp-up Account as it is paid.

(d) Expense Reserve Account. In accordance with this Indenture and the Securities Account Control Agreement, the Trustee shall, on or prior to the Closing Date, establish at the Custodian a segregated non-interest bearing trust account in the name "ACIS CLO 2013-1 Ltd., subject to the lien of the Trustee", which shall be designated as the Expense Reserve Account, which shall be held by the Custodian in accordance with the Securities Account Control Agreement. On any Business Day from the Closing Date to and including the Determination Date relating to the fourth Payment Date, the Trustee shall apply funds from the Expense Reserve Account, as directed by the Portfolio Manager, to pay expenses of the Co-Issuers incurred in connection with the establishment of the Co-Issuers, the structuring and consummation of the Offering, the issuance of the Offered Securities or the acquisition of the initial portfolio of Collateral Obligations prior to the fourth Payment Date or to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds. By the Determination Date relating to the fourth Payment Date following the Closing Date, all funds in the Expense Reserve Account (after deducting any expenses paid on such Determination Date) will be deposited in the Collection Account as Interest Proceeds and/or Principal Proceeds (in the respective amounts directed by the Portfolio Manager in its discretion) and the Expense Reserve Account will be closed. Amounts in the Expense Reserve Account may be invested at the direction of the Portfolio Manager in Eligible Investments and any income earned on amounts deposited in the Expense Reserve Account will be deposited in the Interest Collection Subaccount as Interest Proceeds as it is paid.

(e) [RESERVED].

(f) Interest Reserve Account. In accordance with this Indenture and the Securities Account Control Agreement, the Trustee shall, on or prior to the Closing Date, establish at the Custodian a segregated non-interest bearing trust account in the name "ACIS CLO 2013-1 Ltd., subject to the lien of the Trustee", which shall be designated as the Interest Reserve Account, which shall be held by the Custodian in accordance with the Securities Account Control Agreement. The Issuer shall direct the Trustee to deposit the amount specified in Section 3.1(a)(xii) (Conditions to Issuance of Notes on Closing Date) in the Interest Reserve Account. On any Business Day from the Closing Date to and including the Determination Date relating to the fourth Payment Date, the Trustee shall transfer funds from the Interest Reserve Account, as directed by the Portfolio Manager, to the Interest Collection Subaccount as Interest Proceeds and/or Principal Proceeds (in the respective amounts directed by the Portfolio Manager in its discretion). By the Determination Date relating to the fourth Payment Date following the Closing Date, all funds in the Interest Reserve Account (after deducting any transfer made on such Determination Date) will be deposited in the Collection Account as Interest Proceeds and/or Principal Proceeds (in the respective amounts directed by the Portfolio Manager in its discretion) and the Interest Reserve Account will be closed. Amounts in the Interest Reserve Account may be invested at the direction of the Portfolio Manager in Eligible Investments and any income earned on amounts deposited in the Interest Reserve Account will be deposited in the Interest Collection Subaccount as Interest Proceeds as it is paid.

Section 10.4. The Revolver Funding Account.

(a) Revolver Funding Account. Upon the purchase of any Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or Revolving Collateral Obligation, funds may be withdrawn first from the Ramp-up Account and then from the Collection Account, and deposited by the Trustee in a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account maintained by the Issuer with the Custodian (the "Revolver Funding Account") subject to the lien of the Trustee. Upon initial purchase, funds deposited in the Revolver Funding Account in respect of any Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or Revolving Collateral Obligation will be treated as part of the purchase price therefor. Amounts in each subaccount of the Revolver Funding Account shall be invested in overnight funds that are Eligible Investments selected by the Portfolio Manager and earnings from all such investments will be deposited in the Interest Collection Subaccount as Interest Proceeds.

With respect to any Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or Revolving Collateral Obligation, upon the purchase of any such Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or Revolving Collateral Obligation, funds shall be deposited in the Revolver Funding Account such that the sum of the amount of funds on deposit in such account shall be equal to or greater than the sum of the unfunded funding obligations under all such Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligations and Revolving Collateral Obligations then included in the Assets. If the Issuer receives proceeds with respect to any Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or Revolving Collateral Obligation that have any remaining unfunded obligations, the Issuer shall deposit all such proceeds into the Revolver Funding Account in an amount up to such unfunded obligations.

Any funds in the Revolver Funding Account (other than earnings from Eligible Investments therein) shall be available solely to cover any drawdowns on the Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligations and Revolving Collateral Obligations; provided, that any excess of (A) the amounts on deposit in the Revolver Funding Account over (B) the sum of the unfunded funding obligations under all Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligations and Revolving Collateral Obligations that are included in the Assets may be transferred by the Trustee (at the direction of the Portfolio Manager) from time to time as Principal Proceeds to the Principal Collection Subaccount.

Upon (a) the sale or maturity of a Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or Revolving Collateral Obligation or (b) the occurrence of an event of default with respect to any such Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or Revolving Collateral Obligation or any other event or circumstance which results in the irrevocable reduction of the undrawn commitments under such Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or Revolving Collateral Obligation, any excess of (A) the amounts on deposit in the Revolver Funding Account over (B) the sum of the unfunded amounts of all Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligations and Revolving Collateral Obligations that are included in the Assets shall be transferred (at the direction of the Portfolio Manager) by the Trustee as Principal Proceeds to the Principal Collection Subaccount.

Section 10.5. Hedge Accounts. If and to the extent that any Hedge Agreement requires the related Hedge Counterparty to secure its obligations thereunder, the Issuer shall, on or prior to the date such Hedge Agreement is entered into, establish a segregated, non-interest bearing trust account which shall be designated as a Hedge Account (each, a "Hedge Account"). The Trustee (as directed by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer) shall deposit into each Hedge Account all amounts or collateral which are required to secure the obligations of the Hedge Counterparty in accordance with the terms of the related Hedge Agreement. Amounts or collateral in the Hedge Account shall be released to the Issuer or the related Hedge Counterparty only in accordance with this Section 10.5(c) (Hedge Accounts), the applicable Hedge Agreement and applicable law.

As directed by the Portfolio Manager in writing, in accordance with the applicable Hedge Agreement, amounts on deposit in a Hedge Account may be invested in Eligible Investments. Income received on amounts or collateral on deposit in each Hedge Account shall be applied, as directed by the Portfolio Manager, to the payment of any periodic amounts owed by the Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer on the date any such amounts are due. After application of any such amounts, any income then contained in such Hedge Account shall be withdrawn from such account and paid to the related Hedge Counterparty in accordance with the applicable Hedge Agreement as directed by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer.

Upon the occurrence of any "event of default" or "termination event" (each as defined in the applicable Hedge Agreement) under the related Hedge Agreement, amounts contained in the related Hedge Account shall, as directed by the Portfolio Manager in writing, be withdrawn by the Trustee and applied toward the payment of any amounts payable by the related Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer in accordance with the terms of such Hedge Agreement. Any excess amounts held in a Hedge Account after payment of all amounts owing from the related Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer shall be withdrawn from such Hedge Account and paid to the related Hedge Counterparty in accordance with the applicable Hedge Agreement, as directed by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer.

Section 10.6. Reinvestment of Funds in Accounts; Reports by Trustee. (a) By Issuer Order (which may be in the form of standing instructions), the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer) shall at all times direct the Trustee to, and, upon receipt of such Issuer Order, the Trustee shall, invest all funds on deposit in the Accounts and the Hedge Account as so directed in Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day preceding the next Payment Date (or such shorter maturities expressly provided herein). If prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Issuer shall not have given any such investment directions, the Trustee shall seek instructions from the Portfolio Manager within three Business Days after transfer of any funds to such accounts. If the Trustee does not thereafter receive written instructions from the Portfolio Manager within five Business Days after transfer of such funds to such accounts, it shall invest and reinvest the funds held in such accounts, as fully as practicable, in the Standby Investment maturing no later than the Business Day immediately preceding the next Payment Date (or such shorter maturities expressly provided herein). If after the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Issuer shall not have given such investment directions to the Trustee for three consecutive days, the Trustee shall invest and reinvest such Monies as fully as practicable in the Standby Investment maturing not later than the earlier of (i) 30 days after the date of such investment (unless putable at par to the issuer thereof) or (ii) the Business Day immediately preceding the next Payment Date (or such shorter maturities expressly provided herein). Except to the extent expressly provided otherwise herein, all interest and other income from such investments shall be deposited in the Interest Collection Subaccount, any gain realized from such investments shall be credited to the Principal Collection Subaccount upon receipt, and any loss resulting from such investments shall be charged to the Principal Collection Subaccount. The Trustee shall not in any way be held liable by reason of any insufficiency of such accounts which results from any loss relating to any such investment, except with respect to investments in obligations of the Bank or any Affiliate thereof (if the Bank is then the Trustee).

(b) The Trustee agrees to give the Issuer immediate notice if any Account or any funds on deposit in any Account, or otherwise to the credit of an Account, shall become subject to any writ, order, judgment, warrant of attachment, execution or similar process. All Accounts shall remain at all times with the Trustee or a financial institution having a long-term debt rating of at least equal to "Baa1" by Moody's and having combined capital and surplus of at least $200,000,000 and shall be subject to the requirements of Section 10.1 (Collection of Money).

(c) The Trustee shall supply, in a timely fashion, to the Co-Issuers, each Rating Agency and the Portfolio Manager any information regularly maintained by the Trustee that the Co-Issuers, the Rating Agencies or the Portfolio Manager may from time to time request with respect to the Pledged Obligations, the Accounts and the other Assets and provide any other requested information reasonably available to the Trustee by reason of its acting as Trustee hereunder and required to be provided by Section 10.7 (Accountings) or to permit the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations under the Portfolio Management Agreement. The Trustee shall promptly forward to the Portfolio Manager copies of notices and other writings received by it from the issuer of any Collateral Obligation or from any Clearing Agency with respect to any Collateral Obligation which notices or writings advise the holders of such security of any rights that the holders might have with respect thereto (including, without limitation, requests to vote with respect to amendments or waivers and notices of prepayments and redemptions) as well as all periodic financial reports received from such issuer and Clearing Agencies with respect to such issuer.

Section 10.7. Accountings.

(a) Monthly. Not later than the 18th day of each month (or, if such day is not a Business Day on the next succeeding Business Day) beginning with April 2013, the Issuer shall compile and provide (or cause to be compiled and provided) (including, at the election of the Issuer, via appropriate electronic means acceptable to the recipient) to each Rating Agency, the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, Intex Solutions, Inc. and the Placement Agents (upon receipt of written request therefor) a monthly report (each a "Monthly Report"). The Monthly Report shall contain the following information with respect to the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments included in the Assets, determined as of the close of business on the 10th day of the current month (for which purpose only, assets of any ETB Subsidiary in which the Issuer has a first priority perfected security interest shall be included as if such assets were owned by the Issuer):

(i) Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments representing Principal Proceeds.

(ii) Adjusted Collateral Principal Amount of Collateral Obligations.

(iii) Collateral Principal Amount of Collateral Obligations.

(iv) A list of Collateral Obligations, including, with respect to each such Collateral Obligation, the following detailed information:

(A) The obligor thereon (including the issuer ticker, if any);

(b) The Trustee (without assuming any obligations to any such person, including for its failure to do so) shall make available to the persons identified on Schedule 7 (if any) (including by access to its password protected website) duplicate copies of all reports, notices and statements that the Trustee is required to deliver to any Noteholder, at the address specified in Schedule 7.

(c) The Trustee shall, upon the written request of the Portfolio Manager, provide the Portfolio Manager with a list of all registered Holders of Notes. In addition, if so requested by the Portfolio Manager in writing, the Trustee shall request that DTC request the identity of its participants.

(d) The Issuer shall submit, or shall cause the Portfolio Manager to submit on its behalf, at least every twelve months (from the date of the last such credit estimate), a request to Moody's to perform a credit estimate on each Collateral Obligation with a credit estimate, together with the information reasonably required by Moody's to perform such credit estimate.

(e) If the Trustee or the Issuer receives confirmation of the S&P Rating Condition and/or the Moody's Rating Condition in connection with this Indenture or the transactions contemplated hereby, such Person shall promptly forward such confirmation to the other such Person and to the Portfolio Manager.

(f) (i) The Trustee shall notify the Portfolio Manager of the internet address of the website to which the Trustee posts Monthly Reports, Distribution Reports and any other reports relating to this Indenture, the Notes or the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby from time to time. The Information Agent shall maintain a password-protected website required pursuant to Rule 17g-5 (the "17g-5 Site") in accordance with the Collateral Administration Agreement.

(ii) If the Trustee responds to requests for information by or otherwise communicates with the Rating Agencies in relation to this Indenture, the Trustee agrees to (x) notify the Portfolio Manager of such communication within a reasonable time and (y) use commercially reasonable efforts to assist the Portfolio Manager in complying with Rule 17g-5 (including, but not limited to, providing copies of such communications and/or information provided to the Rating Agencies). The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to engage in, or respond to, any oral communications from the Rating Agencies.

(g) If there is a Material Change with respect to a Collateral Obligation described in clause (ii)(b) of the definition of S&P Rating, the Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, shall, upon notice or knowledge thereof, notify S&P and provide available information with respect thereto. S&P may, in its sole discretion, update its credit estimate of such Collateral Obligation; provided, that, such update shall not, unless so requested by the Issuer, be considered (x) a request for a credit estimate by the Issuer in accordance with or (y) in determining whether or not the Issuer has complied with, in each case, the annual credit estimate requirements set forth in this Indenture.

Section 10.11. Procedures Relating to the Establishment of Accounts Controlled by the Trustee. Notwithstanding anything else contained herein, the Trustee agrees that with respect to each of the Accounts and any Hedge Account, it will cause each Securities

Interest Proceeds in an amount equal to or greater than the Market Value of such Equity Securities (determined by the Portfolio Manager as of the relevant Determination Date) distributed to the Consenting Holders of the Subordinated Notes with respect to any such Payment Date shall be treated for all purposes by the Issuer and the Trustee as Principal Proceeds available for distribution in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the relevant Payment Date. (H) to the extent not paid in full after application of the amounts referred to under Section 11.1(a)(i) (Disbursements of Monies from Payment Account), to the payment of (1) first, accrued and unpaid interest on the Class F Notes and (2) second, any Deferred Interest on the Class F Notes (and interest accrued thereon); provided, that after giving effect to such payments, each Overcollateralization Ratio Test and Interest Coverage Test will be satisfied on a pro forma basis;

(I) during the Reinvestment Period, at the discretion of the Portfolio Manager, to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds to invest in Eligible Investments and/or additional Collateral Obligations; provided, however, if the then-current rating by Moody's of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2A Notes or

(N) any remaining Principal Proceeds shall be paid as follows: (i) 20% of such remaining Principal Proceeds to the Portfolio Manager as the Incentive Management Fee and (ii) 80% of such remaining Principal Proceeds to the Holders of the Subordinated Notes.

(b) If on any Payment Date the amount available in the Payment Account is insufficient to make the full amount of the disbursements required by the Distribution Report, the Trustee shall make the disbursements called for in the order and according to the priority set forth under Section 11.1(a) (Disbursements of Monies from Payment Account) above, subject to Section 13.1 (Subordination; Non-Petition), to the extent funds are available therefor.

Section 11.2. Payments on the Class A-2 Notes and the Combination Notes. ARTICLE 12

Sale of Collateral Obligations; Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations

Section 12.1. Sales of Collateral Obligations. Subject to the satisfaction of the conditions specified in Section 12.3 (Conditions Applicable to All Sale and Purchase Transactions) and provided, that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing (except for sales pursuant to Sections 12.1(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (g) and (h) (Sales of Collateral Obligations)), the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer may in writing direct the Trustee to sell and the Trustee (on behalf of the Issuer) shall sell in the manner directed by the Portfolio Manager any Collateral Obligation or Equity Security if such sale meets the requirements of any one of paragraphs (a) through (h) of this Section 12.1 (Sales of Collateral Obligations). For purposes of this Section 12.1 (Sales of Collateral Obligations), the Sale Proceeds of a Collateral Obligation sold by the Issuer shall include any Principal Financed Accrued Interest received in respect of such sale.

(a) Credit Risk Obligations. The Portfolio Manager may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Risk Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction.

(b) Credit Improved Obligations. The Portfolio Manager may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Improved Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period if either:

(i) during the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager reasonably believes prior to such sale that it will be able to enter into binding commitments to reinvest all or a portion of the proceeds of such sale, in compliance with the Investment Criteria, in one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal

Balance at least equal to the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the sold Credit Improved Obligation within 20 Business Days of such sale; or

(ii) at any time, either (1) the Sale Proceeds from such sale are at least equal to the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the sold Credit Improved Obligation or (2) after giving effect to such sale, the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (excluding the Collateral Obligation being sold but including, without duplication, the anticipated cash proceeds of such sale) plus, without duplication, the amounts on deposit in the Accounts (including Eligible Investments therein) representing Principal Proceeds, will be greater than (or equal to) the Target Balance.

(c) Defaulted Obligations. The Portfolio Manager may direct the Trustee to sell any Defaulted Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction.

(d) Equity Securities. The Portfolio Manager may direct the Trustee to sell any Equity Security or any asset held by any ETB Subsidiary at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction, and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to effect the sale of any Equity Security within 45 days of receipt if such Equity Security constitutes Margin Stock, unless such sale is prohibited by applicable law, in which case such Equity Security shall be sold as soon as such sale is permitted by applicable law.

(e) Optional Redemption; Clean-up Call Redemption. After the Issuer has notified the Trustee of an Optional Redemption of the Notes in accordance with Section 9.2 (Optional Redemption and Refinancing) or a Clean-up Call Redemption in accordance with Section 9.6 (Clean-up Call Redemption), the Portfolio Manager shall (except in connection with a Refinancing) direct the Trustee to sell (which sale may be through participation) all or a portion of the Collateral Obligations if (i) the applicable requirements of Article 9 (including the certification requirements of Section 9.3(c)(ii) (Redemption Procedures)) are satisfied.

(f) Discretionary Sales. The Portfolio Manager may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation at any time if (a) during or after the Reinvestment Period, and after giving effect to such sale, the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations sold pursuant to this Section 12.1(f) (Sales of Collateral Obligations) during any 12 calendar month period is not greater than 25% of the Collateral Principal Amount as of the beginning of such 12 calendar month period; and (b) either:

(i) during the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager reasonably believes prior to such sale that it will be able to enter into binding commitments to reinvest all or a portion of the proceeds of such sale, in compliance with the Investment Criteria, in one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the sold Collateral Obligation within 20 Business Days of such sale; or

(ii) at any time, either (1) the Sale Proceeds from such sale are at least equal to the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the sold Collateral Obligation or (2) the Effective Date Overcollateralization Test will be satisfied after giving effect to such sale.

(g) Mandatory Sales. The Portfolio Manager shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to effect the sale (regardless of price) of any Collateral Obligation that (i) no longer meets the criteria described in clause (viii) of the definition of "Collateral Obligation," within 18 months of the failure of such Collateral Obligation to meet any such criteria (unless (x) the Moody's Rating Condition is satisfied and (y) notice has been provided to S&P of the failure of such Collateral Obligation to meet such criteria) and (ii) no longer meets the criteria described in clause (vi) or (vii) of the definition of "Collateral Obligation," within 45 days of the failure of such Collateral Obligation to meet either such criteria. Notwithstanding anything in this Article 12 to the contrary, so long as any Secured Notes are Outstanding on the Stated Maturity of the Notes, the Portfolio Manager shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to effect the sale of all remaining Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments and Equity Securities (including Equity Securities held by any ETB Subsidiary) upon the Stated Maturity of such Notes.

(h) Pre-funded Letters of Credit. If either the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager has actual knowledge that the account in which the funded amount in respect of a Pre-funded Letter of Credit owned by the Issuer is held has ceased to be a Pre-funded Letter of Credit Eligible Account, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf) may sell such Pre-funded Letter of Credit within 60 days of the date on which the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager obtained actual knowledge that such account ceased to be a Pre-funded Letter of Credit Eligible Account.

Section 12.2. Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations. On any date during the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer may direct the Trustee to invest Principal Proceeds and accrued interest received with respect to any Collateral Obligation to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on additional Collateral Obligations in additional Collateral Obligations, and the Trustee shall invest such proceeds, if each of the conditions specified in this Section 12.2 (Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations) and Section 12.3 (Conditions Applicable to All Sale and Purchase Transactions) are met; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, with respect to any Collateral Obligations for which the trade date has occurred during the Reinvestment Period and for which Principal Proceeds are available (including for this purpose, cash on deposit in the Collection Account as well as any Principal Proceeds that will be received by the Issuer from the sale of Collateral Obligations for which the trade date has already occurred but the settlement date has not yet occurred) are available but which settle after the end of the Reinvestment Period, the purchase of such Collateral Obligations shall be treated as a purchase made during the Reinvestment Period for purposes of this Section 12.2 (Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations).

(a) Investment Criteria. No Collateral Obligation may be purchased unless each of the following conditions are satisfied as of the date the Portfolio Manager commits on behalf of the Issuer to make such purchase, in each case (subject to the provisions of Section 1.2(k) (Assumptions as to Pledged Obligations)) after giving effect to such purchase and all other sales or purchases previously or simultaneously committed to; provided that the conditions set forth in clauses (iii) through (v) below need only be satisfied with respect to purchases of Collateral Obligations occurring after the end of the Ramp-up Period:

(i) such obligation is a Collateral Obligation;

(ii) such obligation is not as of such date a Credit Risk Obligation as determined by the Portfolio Manager;

(iii) (A) each Coverage Test will be satisfied, or if not satisfied such Coverage Test will be maintained or improved and (B) if each Coverage Test is not satisfied, the proceeds of any sale of a Defaulted Obligation pursuant to Section 12.1(c) above shall not be reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations;

(iv) (A) in the case of an additional Collateral Obligation purchased with the proceeds from the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation or a Defaulted Obligation, either (1) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all additional Collateral Obligations purchased with the proceeds from such sale will at least equal the Sale Proceeds from such sale, (2) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations when such Credit Risk Obligation or Defaulted Obligation was sold will be maintained or increased following the purchase of such additional Collateral Obligation or (3) after giving effect to such sale, the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (excluding the Collateral Obligation being sold but including, without duplication, the anticipated cash proceeds of such sale) plus, without duplication, the amounts on deposit in the Accounts (including Eligible Investments therein) representing Principal Proceeds, will be greater than (or equal to) the Target Balance and (B) in the case of any other purchase of additional Collateral Obligations, either (1) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations when such Collateral Obligations were sold will be maintained or increased after giving effect to the purchase of such additional Collateral Obligations or (2) after giving effect to such sale, the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (excluding the Collateral Obligation being sold but including, without duplication, the anticipated cash proceeds of such sale) plus, without duplication, the amounts on deposit in the Accounts (including Eligible Investments therein) representing Principal Proceeds, will be greater than (or equal to) the Target Balance;

(v) either (A) each requirement or test, as the case may be, of the Concentration Limitations and the Collateral Quality Test will be satisfied or (B) if any such requirement or test was not satisfied immediately prior to such reinvestment, such requirement or test will be maintained or improved after giving effect to the reinvestment; and

(vi) the then-current rating by Moody's of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2A Notes and the Class A-2B Notes is at least "Aa3", unless waived in writing by the Holders of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class.

(b) Reinvesting After the Reinvestment Period. For the avoidance of doubt, after the Reinvestment Period each of the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager may not invest in or purchase additional Collateral Obligations.

(c) Post-Reinvestment Period Settlement. Not later than the Business Day immediately following the end of the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager shall deliver to the Trustee a schedule of Collateral Obligations that the Issuer has purchased on a trade date basis but with respect to which the settlement date has not yet occurred and shall certify to the Trustee that sufficient Principal Proceeds are available (including for this purpose, cash on deposit in the Collection Account as well as any Principal Proceeds that will be received by the Issuer from the sale of Collateral Obligations for which the trade date has already occurred but the settlement date has not yet occurred) to effect the settlement of such Collateral Obligations.

(d) Certification by Portfolio Manager. Not later than the Subsequent Delivery Date for any Collateral Obligation purchased after the end of the Ramp-up Period, the Portfolio Manager shall deliver to the Trustee an Officer's certificate of the Portfolio Manager certifying that such purchase complies with this Section 12.2 (Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations) and Section 12.3 (Conditions Applicable to All Sale and Purchase Transactions).

(e) Purchase Following Sale of Credit Improved Obligations and Discretionary Sales. Following the sale of any Credit Improved Obligation pursuant to Section 12.1(b)(i) (Sales of Collateral Obligations) or any discretionary sale of a Collateral Obligation pursuant to Section 12.1(f)(i)(B) (Sales of Collateral Obligations), the Portfolio Manager shall use its reasonable efforts to purchase additional Collateral Obligations pursuant to this Section 12.2 (Purchase of Additional Collateral Obligations) within 20 Business Days after such sale.

(f) Investment in Eligible Investments. Cash on deposit in any Account or Hedge Account may be invested at any time in Eligible Investments in accordance with Article 10 (or, in the case of Hedge Accounts, collateral required to secure the obligations of the applicable Hedge Counterparty).

Section 12.3. Conditions Applicable to All Sale and Purchase Transactions. (a) Any transaction effected under this Article 12 or in connection with the acquisition of additional Collateral Obligations during the Ramp-up Period shall be conducted on an arm's length basis and, if effected with a Person Affiliated with the Portfolio Manager, shall be effected in accordance with the requirements of Section 6 of the Portfolio Management Agreement on terms no less favorable to the Issuer than would be the case if such Person were not so Affiliated, provided, that the Trustee shall have no responsibility to oversee compliance with this clause (a) by the other parties.

(b) Upon any acquisition of a Collateral Obligation pursuant to this Article 12, all of the Issuer's right, title and interest to the Pledged Obligation or Pledged Obligations shall be Granted to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture, such Pledged Obligations shall be Delivered to the Trustee, and, if applicable, the Issuer shall receive the Pledged Obligation for which the Pledged Obligation was substituted. The Trustee shall also receive, not later than the Subsequent Delivery Date, an Officer's certificate of the Issuer containing the statements set forth in Section 3.1(a)(ix) (Conditions to Issuance of Notes on Closing Date).

Section 12.4. Post-Reinvestment Period Amendment Proceeds. After the Reinvestment Period, with respect to any amendment to a Collateral Obligation that the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on the Issuer's behalf) voted in favor of (including any amendment that includes an extension of the stated maturity of such Collateral Obligation (a "Maturity Amendment")), it is understood and agreed that, in accordance with the following sentence, certain of the fees related to such amendment and/or the coupon of such Collateral Obligation shall comprise the Post-Reinvestment Period Amendment Proceeds (the "Post-Reinvestment Period Amendment Proceeds"). In the event that a Collateral Obligation is amended but such amendment is not a Maturity Amendment, then any economic benefit (such as a step-up in the coupon, an amendment fee, consent fee or any other related fee) actually received by the Issuer as a result of such amendment will comprise Post-Reinvestment Period Amendment Proceeds (as of the effective date of the related amendment or waiver) as certified in writing by the Portfolio Manager (in its reasonable business judgment) to the Issuer and the Trustee; provided, that, in the event such amendment is a Maturity Amendment, then the entire coupon received in respect of the related Collateral Obligation and any other related amendment fees will comprise Post-Reinvestment Period Amendment Proceeds. Following any amendment to a Collateral Obligation that the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on the Issuer's behalf) voted in favor of (including any Maturity Amendment), the Portfolio Manager shall certify to the Issuer and the Trustee (i) whether such amendment gives rise to any Post-Reinvestment Period Amendment Proceeds and (ii) the amount of any such Post-Reinvestment Period Amendment Proceeds. After the Reinvestment Period and for so long as any Class C Notes remain Outstanding, all Post-Reinvestment Period Amendment Proceeds will constitute the Turbo Payment Amount, which will be applied as Principal Proceeds in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the applicable Payment Date.

Noteholders' Relations

Section 13.1. Subordination; Non-Petition. (a) Anything in this Indenture or the Notes to the contrary notwithstanding, the Holders of each Class of Notes that constitute a Junior Class agree for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class with respect to such Junior Class that such Junior Class shall be subordinate and junior to the Notes of each such Priority Class to the extent and in the manner set forth in this Indenture.

(b) In the event that, notwithstanding the provisions of this Indenture, any Holder of Notes of any Junior Class shall have received any payment or distribution in respect of such Notes contrary to the provisions of this Indenture, then, unless and until each Priority Class with respect thereto shall have been paid in full in Cash or, to the extent a Majority of such Priority Class consents, other than in Cash in accordance with this Indenture, such payment or distribution shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of, and shall forthwith be paid over and delivered to, the Trustee, which shall pay and deliver the same to the Holders of the applicable Priority Class(es) in accordance with this Indenture; provided, however, that if any such payment or distribution is made other than in Cash, it shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Assets and subject in all respects to the provisions of this Indenture, including this Section 13.1 (Subordination; Non-Petition).

(c) Each Holder of Notes of any Junior Class agrees with all Holders of the applicable Priority Classes that such Holder of Junior Class Notes shall not demand, accept, or receive any payment or distribution in respect of such Notes in violation of the provisions of this Indenture including, without limitation, this Section 13.1 (Subordination; Non-Petition); provided, however, that after a Priority Class has been paid in full, the Holders of the related Junior Class or Classes shall be fully subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Priority Class. Nothing in this Section 13.1 (Subordination; Non-Petition) shall affect the obligation of the Issuer to pay Holders of any Junior Class of Notes.

(d) The Holders of each Class of Notes agree, for the benefit of all Holders of each Class of Notes, not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary until the payment in full of the Notes and not before one year and a day, or if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, has elapsed since such payment. The restrictions set forth in this Section 13.1(d) (Subordination; Non-Petition) are a material inducement for each holder and beneficial owner of the Notes to acquire such Notes and for the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Portfolio Manager to enter into this Indenture (in the case of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer) and the other applicable transaction documents and are an essential term of this Indenture. Any Holder or beneficial owner of a Note, the Portfolio Manager or either of the Issuers may seek and obtain specific performance of such restrictions (including injunctive relief), including, without limitation, in any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state bankruptcy law or similar laws.

Section 13.2. Standard of Conduct. In exercising any of its or their voting rights, rights to direct and consent or any other rights as a Holder under this Indenture, a Holder or Holders shall not have any obligation or duty to any Person or to consider or take into account the interests of any Person and shall not be liable to any Person for any action taken by it or them or at its or their direction or any failure by it or them to act or to direct that an action be taken, without regard to whether such action or inaction benefits or adversely affects any Holder, the Issuer, or any other Person, except for any liability to which such Holder may be subject to the extent the same results from such Holder's taking or directing an action, or failing to take or direct an action, in bad faith or in violation of the express terms of this Indenture.

Section 13.3. Voting Rights of Holders of Combination Notes. The Holders of the Combination Notes will be treated as Holders of the Underlying Classes for purposes of any voting rights of such Underlying Classes, except in connection with any supplemental indenture that affects the Combination Notes in a materially adverse manner that is different from the effect of such supplemental indenture on Notes of any Underlying Class, in which case the Combination Notes will vote only as a separate Class.

Section 13.4. Sales and Exchanges of Combination Notes. At the written request of the Holder of a Combination Note (i) all or any portion of the Combination Notes may be exchanged for the Underlying Classes represented by such Combination Notes and (ii) all or any portion of the Class A-1 Notes, Class B Notes and Class C Notes representing Underlying Classes may be combined into Combination Notes, in each such case, proportionally in accordance with the Permissible Ratio (each such exchange or combination, an "Exchange"); provided that no Exchange will be permitted during the period commencing on a Record Date and ending on the related Payment Date; provided further that, if the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Combination Notes is less than $1,590,190, such Combination Notes will not be eligible to be Exchanged for the Underlying Classes represented by such Combination Notes. The Combination Notes may be sold to a transferee in accordance with this Indenture, proportionally in accordance with the Permissible Ratio.

If a Holder wishes to make an Exchange, the Holder must notify the Trustee and Collateral Administrator in writing no later than seven Business Days prior to the proposed effective date of such Exchange, which effective date must be at least one Business Day prior to the Record Date. The written notice (the "Exchange Notice") must set forth the following information: the CUSIP and ISIN numbers of each Note to be exchanged and each Note to be received in such Exchange, the calculations of the Permissible Ratio, the Aggregate Outstanding Amount and face amount of each Note to be exchanged and each Note to be received in such Exchange, the Holder's DTC participant number and the proposed effective date of such Exchange. After receiving the Exchange Notice, the Collateral Administrator shall confirm, and the Portfolio Manager shall verify, whether such proposed Exchange satisfies the Permissible Ratio and the requirements set forth above. Within three Business Days after receipt of the Exchange Notice, the Collateral Administrator shall notify the Holder, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager whether such proposed Exchange satisfies the requirements set forth in the Indenture. If the amounts set forth in the Exchange Notice do not consist of a Permissible Ratio and/or the resulting aggregate amounts of Combination Notes and/or Underlying Classes do not consist of the required minimum denominations and required integral multiples of $1, the Holder agrees to cooperate with the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator and the Portfolio Manager to reallocate such impermissible integral multiples and reach appropriate allocations for each such Exchange. If any such reallocation cannot be promptly achieved, the Collateral Administrator shall within ten (10) Business Days notify the Holder that such Exchange has been rejected. If the Exchange has not been rejected, the holder will utilize the "deposit and withdrawal system" at DTC to effectuate such Exchange. A notice becomes irrevocable on the second Business Day prior to the proposed effective date of such Exchange. Each such Exchange shall be subject to the minimum denomination and integral multiples requirements with respect to the related Class of Notes and the transfer restrictions set forth in this Indenture. The Trustee shall promptly notify S&P upon the occurrence of any Exchange.

Miscellaneous

Section 14.1. Form of Documents Delivered to Trustee. In any case where several matters are required to be certified by, or covered by an opinion of, any specified Person, it is not necessary that all such matters be certified by, or covered by the opinion of, only one such Person, or that they be so certified or covered by only one document, but one such Person may certify or give an opinion with respect to some matters and one or more other such Persons as to other matters, and any such Person may certify or give an opinion as to such matters in one or several documents.

Any certificate or opinion of an Officer of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Portfolio Manager may be based, insofar as it relates to legal matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, counsel, unless such Officer knows, or should know that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to the matters upon which his certificate or opinion is based are erroneous. Any such certificate of an Officer of the Issuer, Co-Issuer or the Portfolio Manager or Opinion of Counsel may be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager or any other Person, stating that the information with respect to such factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager or such other Person, unless such Officer of the Issuer, Co-Issuer or the Portfolio Manager or such counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to such matters are erroneous. Any Opinion of Counsel may also be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, an Officer of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, stating that the information with respect to such matters is in the possession of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, unless such counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to such matters are erroneous.

Where any Person is required to make, give or execute two or more applications, requests, consents, certificates, statements, opinions or other instruments under this Indenture, they may, but need not, be consolidated and form one instrument.

Whenever in this Indenture it is provided that the absence of the occurrence and continuation of a Default or Event of Default is a condition precedent to the taking of any action by the Trustee at the request or direction of either Co-Issuer, then notwithstanding that the satisfaction of such condition is a condition precedent to such Co-Issuer's right to make such request or direction, the Trustee shall be protected in acting in accordance with such request or direction if it does not have knowledge of the occurrence and continuation of such Default or Event of Default as provided in Section 6.1(d) (Certain Duties and Responsibilities of Trustee).

Section 14.2. Acts of Holders. (a) Any request, demand, authorization, instruction, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Indenture to be given or taken by Holders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Holders in writing or by an agent duly appointed in writing; and, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee, and, where it is hereby expressly required, to the Issuer. Such instrument or instruments (and the action or actions embodied therein and evidenced thereby) are herein sometimes referred to as the "Act" of the Holders signing such instrument or instruments. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of this Indenture and conclusive in favor of the Trustee and the Co-Issuers, if made in the manner provided in this Section 14.2 (Acts of Holders).

(b) The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner which the Trustee deems sufficient.

(c) The principal amount or face amount, as the case may be, and registered numbers of Notes held by any Person, and the date of his holding the same, shall be proved by the Register.

(d) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action by the Holder of any Notes shall bind the Holder (and any transferee thereof) of such Note and of every Note issued upon the registration thereof or in exchange therefor or in lieu thereof, in respect of anything done, omitted or suffered to be done by the Trustee or the Co-Issuers in reliance thereon, whether or not notation of such action is made upon such Note.

(a) such notice shall be sufficiently given to Holders if in writing and mailed, first class postage prepaid, to each Holder affected by such event, at the address of such Holder as it appears in the Register not earlier than the earliest date and not later than the latest date, prescribed for the giving of such notice; and Thereafter, the Trustee shall give notices to such Holder by facsimile transmission; provided, that if such notice also requests that notices be given by mail, then such notice shall also be given by mail in accordance with clause (a) above.

Neither the failure to mail any notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Holder shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders. In case by reason of the suspension of regular mail service as a result of a strike, work stoppage or similar activity or by reason of any other cause it shall be impracticable to give such notice by mail of any event to Holders when such notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision Waivers of notice by Holders shall be filed with the Trustee but such filing shall not be a condition precedent to the validity of any action taken in reliance upon such waiver.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Holders and beneficial owners of the Offered Securities (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Indenture and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such tax treatment and U.S. federal income tax structure.

(b) For the purposes of this Section 14.13 (Confidential Information), "Confidential Information" means information delivered to the Trustee or any Holder of Notes or on behalf of the Co-Issuers in connection with and relating to the transactions contemplated by or otherwise pursuant to this Indenture; provided, that such term does not include information that: (i) was publicly known or otherwise known to the Trustee or such Holder prior to the time of such disclosure; (ii) subsequently becomes publicly known through no act or omission by the Trustee, any Holder or any person acting on behalf of the Trustee or any Holder; (iii) otherwise is known or becomes known to the Trustee or any Holder other than (x) through disclosure by the Co-Issuers or (y) to the knowledge of the Trustee or a Holder, as the case may be, in each case after reasonable inquiry, as a result of the breach of a fiduciary duty to the Co-Issuers or a contractual duty to the Co-Issuers; or (iv) is allowed to be treated as non-confidential by consent of the Co-Issuers.

Section 14.14. Liability of Co-Issuers. Notwithstanding any other terms of this Indenture, the Notes or any other agreement entered into between, inter alia, the Co-Issuers or otherwise, neither of the Co-Issuers shall have any liability whatsoever to the other of the Co-Issuers under this Indenture, the Notes, any such agreement or otherwise and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, neither of the Co-Issuers shall be entitled to take any action to enforce, or bring any action or proceeding, in respect of this Indenture, the Notes, any such agreement or otherwise against the other of the Co-Issuers. In particular, neither of the Co-Issuers nor any ETB Subsidiary shall be entitled to petition or take any other steps for the winding up or bankruptcy of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary, as applicable, or shall have any claim in respect to any assets of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary, as applicable.

Assignment of Certain Agreements

Section 15.1. Assignment of Portfolio Management Agreement. (a) The Issuer hereby acknowledges that its Grant pursuant to the first Granting Clause hereof includes all of the Issuer's estate, right, title and interest in, to and under the Portfolio Management Agreement, including (i) the right to give all notices, consents and releases thereunder, (ii) the right to give all notices of termination and to take any legal action upon the breach of an obligation of the Portfolio Manager thereunder, including the commencement, conduct and consummation of proceedings at law or in equity, (iii) the right to receive all notices, accountings, consents, releases and statements thereunder and (iv) the right to do any and all other things whatsoever that the Issuer is or may be entitled to do thereunder; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Trustee shall not have the authority to exercise any of the rights set forth in (i) through (iv) above or that may otherwise arise as a result of the Grant until the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder and such authority shall terminate at such time, if any, as such Event of Default is cured or waived.

(b) The assignment made hereby is executed as collateral security, and the execution and delivery hereby shall not in any way impair or diminish the obligations of the Issuer under the provisions of the Portfolio Management Agreement, nor shall any of the obligations contained in the Portfolio Management Agreement be imposed on the Trustee.

(c) Upon the retirement of the Notes, the payment of all amounts required to be paid pursuant to the Priority of Payments and the release of the Assets from the lien of this Indenture, this assignment and all rights herein assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders shall cease and terminate and all the estate, right, title and interest of the Trustee in, to and under the Portfolio Management Agreement shall revert to the Issuer and no further instrument or act shall be necessary to evidence such termination and reversion.

(d) The Issuer represents that the Issuer has not executed any other assignment of the Portfolio Management Agreement.

(e) The Issuer agrees that this assignment is irrevocable, and that it will not take any action which is inconsistent with this assignment or make any other assignment inconsistent herewith. The Issuer will, from time to time upon the request of the Trustee, execute all instruments of further assurance and all such supplemental instruments with respect to this assignment as the Trustee may reasonably specify.

Section 15.2. Assignment of Hedge Agreement. (a) After the Closing Date, the Issuer may enter into Hedge Agreements from time to time. Each Hedge Agreement shall be required to (x) satisfy the Global Rating Agency Condition, (y) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions equivalent to those contained in this Indenture with respect to the Notes and (z) provide that any amounts payable to the related Hedge Counterparties thereunder will be subject to the Priority of Payments (including, without limitation, the Acceleration Priority of Payments). The Issuer shall not enter into a Hedge Agreement unless (x) it reasonably determines that such Hedge Agreement would not cause the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager to be required to register with the CFTC or that the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager would be eligible for an exemption to the requirement to register with the CFTC as a CPO or (y) with the consent of at least a Majority of the Subordinated Notes, the Portfolio Manager will register as a CPO and comply with the requirements of the CFTC. The Issuer shall assign any such Hedge Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture. The Trustee shall, on behalf of the Issuer and in accordance with the Distribution Report, pay amounts due to the Hedge Counterparty under any Hedge Agreements on any Payment Date in accordance with Section 11.1 (Disbursements of Monies from Payment Account). The Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless such Hedge Agreement provides that any costs attributable to entering into a replacement Hedge Agreement which exceed the sum of the proceeds of the liquidation of any such Hedge Agreement shall be borne solely by the Hedge Counterparty; provided that such liquidation is not the result of a Priority Hedge Termination Event.

(b) The Trustee shall agree to any reduction in the notional amount of any Hedge Agreement proposed by the related Hedge Counterparty and agreed to by the Portfolio Manager, or any termination, replacement and/or other modification of a Hedge Agreement or any additional Hedge Agreement proposed by the Portfolio Manager; provided, that the Global Rating Agency Condition has been satisfied.

(c) If at any time a Hedge Agreement becomes subject to early termination due to the occurrence of an event of default or a termination event, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf) and the Trustee (following an Event of Default) shall notify each Rating Agency and take such actions (following the expiration of any applicable grace period) to enforce the rights of the Issuer and the Trustee under such Hedge Agreement as may be permitted by the terms of such Hedge Agreement and consistent with the terms hereof, and may apply the proceeds of any such actions (including, without limitation, the proceeds of the liquidation of any collateral pledged by the Hedge Counterparty thereunder) to enter into a replacement Hedge Agreement on such terms as satisfy the Global Rating Agency Condition (unless such early termination is due to an additional termination event caused by an Optional Redemption). No Hedge Agreement entered into by the Issuer may include an additional termination event resulting from an Optional Redemption unless such additional termination event is not effective until the notice of such Optional Redemption given by the Co-Issuers has become irrevocable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed and delivered this Indenture as of the date first written above.

DIVERSITY SCORE CALCULATION

The Diversity Score is calculated as follows:

(a) An "Issuer Par Amount" is calculated for each issuer of a Collateral Obligation, and is equal to the Aggregate Principal Balance of all the Collateral Obligations issued by that issuer and all affiliates.

(b) An "Average Par Amount" is calculated by summing the Issuer Par Amounts for all issuers, and dividing by the number of issuers.

(c) An "Equivalent Unit Score" is calculated for each issuer, and is equal to the lesser of (x) one and (y) the Issuer Par Amount for such issuer divided by the Average Par Amount.

(d) An "Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score" is then calculated for each of the Moody's industry classification groups, shown on Schedule 2, and is equal to the sum of the Equivalent Unit Scores for each issuer in such industry classification group.

(e) An "Industry Diversity Score" is then established for each Moody's industry classification group, shown on Schedule 2, by reference to the following table for the related Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score, provided, that if any Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score falls between any two such scores, the applicable Industry Diversity Score will be the lower of the two Industry Diversity Scores:

(3) if such Collateral Obligation is not rated by S&P but there is a public issuer credit rating of the issuer of such Collateral Obligation by S&P as published by S&P, or the guarantor which unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees such Collateral Obligation, then such issuer credit rating will at the election of the Portfolio Manager be determined in

(B) if such Collateral Obligation is not rated by Moody's or S&P and no other security or obligation of the issuer of such Collateral Obligation is rated by Moody's or S&P, and if Moody's has been requested by the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager or an affiliate of the Portfolio Manager to assign a rating or rating estimate with respect to such Collateral Obligation but such rating or rating estimate has not been received, pending receipt of such estimate, (1) "B3" if the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee (with a copy to the Collateral Administrator) that the Portfolio Manager believes that such estimate will be at least "B3" and if the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations determined pursuant to this clause (B) does not exceed 5% of the Collateral Principal Amount of all Collateral Obligations or (2) otherwise, "Caa1";

(C) if the obligor of such Collateral Obligation is a U.S. obligor and if such Collateral Obligation is a senior secured obligation of the obligor and (1) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings, (2) no debt securities or obligations of the obligor are in default, (3) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates have defaulted on any debt during the past two years, (4) the obligor has been in existence for the past five years, (5) the obligor is current on any cumulative dividends, (6) the fixed-charge ratio for the obligor exceeds 125% for each of the past two fiscal years and for the most recent quarter, (7) the obligor had a net profit before tax in the past fiscal year and the most recent quarter and (8) the annual financial statements of the obligor are unqualified and certified by a firm of Independent accountants of national reputation, and quarterly statements are unaudited but signed by a corporate officer, "Caa1";

For purposes of calculating a Moody's Derived Rating, each applicable rating calculated pursuant to clause (iv)(A)(1), (2) or (3) above using an S&P rating that is on credit watch by S&P with positive or negative implication or on negative outlook at the time of calculation will be adjusted in accordance with the Moody's Outlook/Review Rules, after giving effect to the determination of the rating in accordance with the provisions above.

With respect to rating estimates in the definition of Moody's Default Probability Rating, Moody's Rating and Moody's Derived Rating, if there is a Material Change with respect to such Collateral Obligation, the Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, shall, upon notice or knowledge thereof, notify Moody's and provide available information with respect thereto. Moody's, in its sole discretion, may update its rating estimate of such Collateral Obligation; provided, that, such update shall not, unless so requested by the Issuer, be considered (x) a request for a credit estimate by the Issuer in accordance with or (y) in determining whether or not the Issuer has complied with, in each case, the annual credit estimate requirements set forth in this Indenture. Subject to the following paragraph, in the event Moody's updates the credit estimate of a Collateral Obligation pursuant to the previous sentence, such credit estimate will be used by the Issuer until such later date that it is updated by Moody's.

[3] Applicable only to the Co-Issued Notes.
[4] Applicable only to the Class E Notes and Class F Notes.

Any transfer, pledge or other use of this Note for value or otherwise by or to any person is wrongful since the registered owner hereof, Cede & Co., has an interest herein, unless the Note is presented by an authorized representative of the Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), New York, New York, to the Co-Issuers or their agent for registration of transfer, exchange or payment and any Note issued is registered in the name of Cede & Co., or of such other entity as is requested by an authorized representative of DTC (and any payment hereon is made to Cede & Co.).

Transfers of this Note shall be limited to transfers in whole, but not in part, to nominees of DTC or to a successor thereof or such successor's nominee and transfers of portions of this Note shall be limited to transfers made in accordance with the restrictions set forth in the Indenture referred to herein.

Principal of this Note is payable as set forth herein. Accordingly, the outstanding principal of this Note at any time may be less than the amount shown on the face hereof. Any person acquiring this Note may ascertain its current principal amount by inquiry of the Trustee.

The failure to provide the Issuer, the Trustee and any Paying Agent with the applicable U.S. federal income tax certifications (generally, an Internal Revenue Service form W-9 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") or an appropriate Internal Revenue Service form W-8 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is not a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or the Holder FATCA Information) may result in the imposition of U.S. federal withholding tax or back-up withholding tax upon payments to the holder in respect of this Note.

The failure to provide the Issuer, the Trustee and any Paying Agent with any information reasonably requested by the Issuer or the Paying Agent to enable the Issuer or Paying Agent to comply with any reporting agreements with the IRS may result in the imposition of U.S. federal withholding upon payments to the holder in respect of this Note (and may cause the forced sale or transfer of such Note).

Each holder and beneficial owner of this Note (including a holder or beneficial owner of this Note that receives a definitive physical Note pursuant to the succeeding sentence) agrees to (i) provide the Issuer (or an authorized agent acting on behalf of the Issuer) with the Holder FATCA Information and (ii) permit the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and Trustee (on behalf of the Issuer) to (w) share such information with the IRS or the relevant Cayman Islands tax authority, (x) compel or effect the sale of this Note if such holder or beneficial owner fails to sell its Notes within 30 days of notice from the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager or the Trustee of its failure to comply with the foregoing requirements, (y) assign to such Note a separate CUSIP number or numbers and (z) make other amendments to the Indenture to enable the Issuer to comply with FATCA. A clearing organization that holds this Note on behalf of a beneficial owner may convert this Note from a Global Note to a definitive physical Note, upon request from such beneficial owner or the holder of this Note, if it is unable to obtain the Holder FATCA Information from such beneficial owner or the holder of this Note.

Each Holder and beneficial owner of this Note, by acceptance of such Note, or its interest in such Note, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have agreed to treat, and shall treat, such Note as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

[The Class [•] Notes represented by this certificate are being issued with original issue discount ("OID"), the issue price, total amount of OID, Issue Date and yield to maturity may be obtained by contacting the Trustee at 190 South LaSalle, Chicago, Illinois 60603.][5]

Each holder and beneficial owner of this Note that is not a "United States person" (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) will make, or by acquiring such Note or an interest therein will be deemed to make, a representation to the effect that (a) either (i) it is not a bank (or an affiliate of a bank) extending credit pursuant to a loan agreement entered into in the ordinary course of its trade or business (within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(a) of the Code), or (ii) it is a person that is eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates U.S. federal income taxation of U.S. source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States and (b) it is not purchasing the Note in order to reduce its U.S. federal income tax liability pursuant to a tax avoidance plan.

Each holder and beneficial owner of this Note will not institute against, or join any other person in instituting against, either of the Issuers or any ETB Subsidiary any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state bankruptcy law or similar laws until the date which is one year plus one day (or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect) after the payment in full of all Notes. Each holder and beneficial owner of this Note understands that the foregoing restrictions are a material inducement for each other holder and beneficial owner of the Notes to acquire such Notes and for the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Portfolio Manager to enter into the Indenture (in the case of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer) and the other applicable transaction documents and are an essential term of the Indenture and that any holder or beneficial owner of a Note, the Portfolio Manager or either of the Issuers may seek and obtain specific performance of such restrictions (including injunctive relief), including, without limitation, in any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state bankruptcy law or similar laws.

SUBORDINATED NOTES DUE 2024

This Subordinated Note has not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") or the securities laws of any state of the United States, and may be reoffered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only (a) (1) to a "Qualified Purchaser" (as defined for purposes of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act), a Knowledgeable Employee (as defined in Rule 3c-5 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended) with respect to the Issuer or an entity exclusively owned by Knowledgeable Employees and/or Qualified Purchasers that is (2) (x) a "Qualified Institutional Buyer" (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act) in reliance on the exemption from Securities Act registration provided by such rule or (y) an accredited investor (as defined in rule 501(a) under the Securities Act) who, if not an "institutional" accredited investor (an entity defined in rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act), is a Knowledgeable Employee with respect to the Issuer or (b) to a person that is not a "U.S. person" (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) and is acquiring this Subordinated Note in reliance on the exemption from Securities Act registration provided by such regulation, and in each case in compliance with the certification and other requirements specified in the Indenture referred to herein and in compliance with any applicable securities law of any applicable jurisdiction. The Issuer has the right, under the Indenture, to compel any-beneficial owner of an interest in this Subordinated Note that is a U.S. person and does not comply with the foregoing restrictions to sell its interest in the Subordinated Notes, or may sell such interest on behalf of such owner.

Each purchaser of this Subordinated Note from the Issuer in the initial offering will be required to represent and warrant, with respect to each day it holds the Subordinated Note or any beneficial interest therein, in the form specified in the Indenture, this Note, the Offering Circular and any applicable transfer certification, as applicable, (unless otherwise agreed to by the Issuer) (1) whether or not it is (a) an "employee benefit plan" as defined in Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), that is subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of Title I of ERISA, a "plan" as defined in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), that is subject to Section 4975 of the Code, any entity whose underlying assets include "plan assets" by reason of such employee benefit plan's or plan's investment in the entity or a "benefit plan investor" as such term is otherwise defined in any regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Labor or under Section 3(42) of ERISA (collectively, "Benefit Plan Investors") or (b) a person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) who has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or any person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to such assets, or any affiliate of such a person (a "Controlling Person") and (2) (a) if it is a Benefit Plan Investor, its acquisition, holding and disposition of a Subordinated Note will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code or (b) if it is a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan which is subject to any federal, state, local or non-U.S. law that is substantially similar to the provisions of Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, its acquisition, holding and disposition of a Subordinated Note will not constitute or result in a non-exempt violation under any such substantially similar law. Each purchaser from the Issuer in the initial offering of a Subordinated Note that fails to provide the certification described in the prior sentence will be deemed to have represented and warranted, with respect to each day it holds such Subordinated Note or any beneficial interest therein, that (1) such purchaser is not a Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person and (2) if the purchaser is a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan that is subject to any federal, state, local or non-U.S. law that is substantially similar to the provisions of Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, its acquisition, holding and disposition of Subordinated Notes will not constitute or result in a non-exempt violation under any such substantially similar law. No transfer or purchase of this Subordinated Note will be effective if it would cause 25% or more of the value of the Subordinated Notes to be held by Benefit Plan Investors. Each purchaser or transferee of this Subordinated Note from persons other than from the Issuer in the initial offering will be deemed to have represented and warranted with respect to each day it holds such Regulation S Subordinated Global Note or any beneficial interest herein that (1) such purchaser or transferee is not a Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person and (2) if such purchaser or transferee is a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan that is subject to any federal, state, local or non-U.S. law that is substantially similar to the provisions of Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, its acquisition, holding and disposition of Regulation S Global Subordinated Note will not constitute or result in a non-exempt violation under any such substantially similar law. No Regulation S Global Subordinated Notes may be acquired from persons other than the Issuer or other than in the initial offering by Benefit Plan Investors or Controlling Persons. Each purchaser and transferee further understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Subordinated Notes, or any interest therein, to a purchaser or transferee that does not comply with the requirements as specified in the Indenture, this Note, the Offering Circular and any applicable transfer certification, as applicable, will be of no force and effect, shall be null and void ab initio and the Issuer will have the right to direct the purchaser to transfer the Subordinated Notes, or any interest therein, as applicable, to a person who meets the foregoing criteria.

Any transfer, pledge or other use of this Note for value or otherwise by or to any person is wrongful since the registered owner hereof. Cede & Co., has an interest herein, unless the Note is presented by an authorized representative of the Depository Trust Company ("DTC"). New York, New York, to the Co-Issuers or their agent for registration of transfer, exchange or payment and any Note issued is registered in the name of Cede & Co. or of such other entity as is requested by an authorized representative of DTC (and any payment hereon is made to Cede & Co.)

Transfers of this Note shall be limited to transfers in whole, but not in part, to nominees of DTC or to a successor thereof or such successor's nominee and transfers of portions of this Note shall be limited to transfers made in accordance with the restrictions set forth in the Indenture referred to herein.

Distributions of Principal Proceeds and Interest Proceeds to the holder of the Subordinated Notes represented hereby are subordinate to the payment on each Payment Date of principal of and interest on the Secured Notes of the Issuer and the payment of certain other amounts, to the extent and as described in the Indenture governing such Secured Notes.

The failure to provide the Issuer, the Trustee and any Paying Agent with the applicable U.S. federal income tax certifications (generally, an Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is not a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or the Holder FATCA Information) may result in the imposition of U.S. federal withholding tax or backup withholding tax upon payments to the holder in respect of this Subordinated Note.

The failure to provide the Issuer, the Trustee and any Paying Agent with any information reasonably requested by the Issuer or the Paying Agent to enable the Issuer or Paying Agent to comply with any reporting agreements with the IRS may result in the imposition of U.S. federal withholding upon payments to the holder in respect of this Note (and may cause the forced sale or transfer of such Note).

Each holder and beneficial owner of this Note (including a holder or beneficial owner of this Note that receives a definitive physical Note pursuant to the succeeding sentence) agrees to (i) provide the Issuer (or an authorized agent acting on behalf of the Issuer) with the Holder FATCA Information and (ii) permit the Issuer, and the Portfolio Manager and Trustee (on behalf of the Issuer) to (w) share such information with the IRS or the relevant Cayman Islands tax authority, (x) compel or effect the sale of this Note if such holder or beneficial owner fails to sell its Notes within 30 days of notice from the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager or the Trustee of its failure to comply with the foregoing requirements, (y) assign to such Note a separate CUSIP number or numbers and (z) make other amendments to the Indenture to enable the Issuer to comply with FATCA. A clearing organization that holds this Note on behalf of a beneficial owner may convert this Note from a Global Note to a definitive physical Note, upon request from such beneficial owner or the holder of this Note, if it is unable to obtain the Holder FATCA Information from such beneficial owner or the holder of this Note.

Each Holder and beneficial owner of this Note, by acceptance of such Note, or its interest in such Note, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have agreed to treat, and shall treat, such Note as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Each holder and beneficial owner of this Note that is not a "United States person" (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) will make, or by acquiring such Note or an interest therein will be deemed to make, a representation to the effect that (a) either (i) it is not a bank (or an affiliate of a bank) extending credit pursuant to a loan agreement entered into in the ordinary course of its trade or business (within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(a) of the Code), or (ii) it is a person that is eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates U.S. federal income taxation of U.S. source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States and (b) it is not purchasing the Note in order to reduce its U.S. federal income tax liability pursuant to a tax avoidance plan.

Each holder and beneficial owner of this Note will not institute against, or join any other person in instituting against, either of the Issuers or any ETB Subsidiary any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state bankruptcy law or similar laws until the date which is one year plus one day (or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect) after the payment in full of all Notes. Each holder and beneficial owner of this Note understands that the foregoing restrictions are a material inducement for each other holder and beneficial owner of the Notes to acquire such Notes and for the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Portfolio Manager to enter into the Indenture (in the case of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer) and the other applicable transaction documents and are an essential term of the Indenture and that any holder or beneficial owner of a Note, the Portfolio Manager or either of the Issuers may seek and obtain specific performance of such restrictions (including injunctive relief), including, without limitation, in any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state bankruptcy law or similar laws.

This Note has not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") or the securities laws of any state of the United States, and may be reoffered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only (A) to a "Qualified Institutional Buyer" (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act) in reliance on the exemption from Securities Act registration provided by such rule that is not a broker-dealer which owns and invests on a discretionary basis less than U.S.$25 million in securities of issuers that are not affiliated persons of the dealer and is not a plan referred to in paragraph (a)(1)(d) or (a)(1)(e) of Rule 144A or a trust fund referred to in paragraph (a)(1)(f) of Rule 144A that holds the assets of such plan, if investment decisions with respect to the plan are made by the beneficiaries of the plan or (B) to a person that is not a "U.S. person" (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) and is acquiring this Note in reliance on the exemption from Securities Act registration provided by such regulation, and in each case in compliance with the certification and other requirements specified in the Indenture referred to herein and in compliance with any applicable securities law of any applicable jurisdiction. The Issuer has the right, under the Indenture, to compel any beneficial owner of an interest in this Note that is a U.S. person and is not a Qualified Purchaser and a Qualified Institutional Buyer to sell its interest in the Notes, or may sell such interest on behalf of such owner.

By its acquisition of Co-Issued Notes (the "ERISA Debt Securities"), each purchaser and subsequent transferee will be deemed to have represented and warranted or required to represent and warrant, as applicable, at the time of its acquisition and throughout the period it holds such ERISA Debt Security, that either (x) it is not an "employee benefit plan" as defined in Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), that is subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of Title I of ERISA, a "plan" as defined in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), that is subject to Section 4975 of the Code, any entity whose underlying assets are deemed to include "plan assets" by reason of such employee benefit plan's or plan's investment in the entity, or a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan which is subject to any federal, state, local or non-U.S. law that is substantially similar to the provisions of Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code or (y) its acquisition, holding and disposition of the ERISA Debt Security will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan, a non-exempt violation of any substantially similar law). Any purported transfer of an ERISA Debt Security, or any interest therein, to a purchaser or transferee that does not comply with the requirements specified in the Indenture, this Note, the Offering Circular and any applicable transfer certification, as applicable, will be of no force and effect and shall be null and void ab initio.

[Any transfer, pledge or other use of this Note for value or otherwise by or to any person is wrongful since the registered owner hereof, Cede & Co., has an interest herein, unless the Note is presented by an authorized representative of the Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), New York, New York, to the Co-Issuers or their agent for registration of transfer, exchange or payment and any Note issued is registered in the name of Cede & Co., or of such other entity as is requested by an authorized representative of DTC (and any payment hereon is made to Cede & Co.).

Transfers of this Note shall be limited to transfers in whole, but not in part, to nominees of DTC or to a successor thereof or such successor's nominee and transfers of portions of this Note shall be limited to transfers made in accordance with the restrictions set forth in the Indenture referred to herein.][13]

Principal of this Note is payable as set forth herein. Accordingly, the outstanding principal of this Note at any time may be less than the amount shown on the face hereof. Any person acquiring this Note may ascertain its current principal amount by inquiry of the Trustee.

The failure to provide the Issuer, the Trustee and any Paying Agent with any information reasonably requested by the Issuer or the Paying Agent to enable the Issuer or Paying Agent to comply with any reporting agreements with the IRS may result in the imposition of U.S. federal withholding upon payments to the holder in respect of this Note (and may cause the forced sale or transfer of such Note).

The obligations of the Co-Issuers under this Note and the Indenture are limited recourse obligations of the Co-Issuers payable solely from the Assets in accordance with the Indenture, and following realization of the Assets in accordance with the Indenture, all claims of Noteholders shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive.

The Combination Notes will not themselves bear interest at a stated rate. On the 18th day of January, April, July and October in each year; commencing on July 18, 2013 (or if such day is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day) the Co-Issuers promise to allocate a portion of all interest payments on the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes, respectively, to the Holders of the Combination Notes, in the proportion that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1 Note Component bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1 Notes as a whole (including the Class A-1 Note Component), that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class B Note Component bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class B Notes as a whole (including the Class B Note Component) and that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Note Component bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes as a whole (including the Class C Note Component) at the rate equal to, with respect to the Class A-1 Notes, LIBOR plus 0.87% per annum, with respect to the Class B Notes, LIBOR plus 1.95% per annum and, with respect to the Class C Notes, LIBOR plus 2.95% per annum. Interest shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the applicable Interest Accrual Period divided by 360. The interest so payable on any Payment Date will, as provided in the Indenture, be paid to the Person in whose name this Note (or one or more predecessor Notes) is registered at the close of business on the Record Date for such interest, which shall be the fifteenth day (whether or not a Business Day) prior to such Payment Date.

Interest will cease to accrue on the Class A-1 Note Component, the Class B Note Component and the Class C Note Component, or in the case of a partial repayment, on such part, from the date of repayment or Stated Maturity unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or unless a default is otherwise made with respect to such payments. The principal of the Class A-1 Notes that relate to the Class A-1 Note Component, Class B Notes that relate to the Class B Note Component and Class C Notes that relate to the Class C Component shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are permitted to be used for such purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The principal of the Class A-1 Note Component, the Class B Note Component and the Class C Note Component shall be payable no later than the Stated Maturity unless the unpaid principal of such Note becomes due and payable at an earlier date by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption or otherwise.

Any interest on the Class C Notes that relate to the Class C Note Component that is not paid when due by operation of the Priority of Payments will be deferred. Any interest so deferred will be added to the principal balance of the Class C Notes that relate to the Class C Note Component, and thereafter, interest will accrue on the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Class C Notes that relate to the Class C Note Component, as so increased.

The payment priority of each Component of the Combination Notes shall be in accordance with the priority of the respective Underlying Class in accordance with the Priority of Payments. On each date on which payments are made on any Underlying Class, a portion of such payments will be allocated to the Combination Notes in the proportion that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the related Component bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of that Underlying Class as a whole (including the related Components). The Combination Notes will be entitled to no other payments. In particular, interest will not accrue or be payable on the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Combination Notes, except to the extent, if any, of interest on the related Component.

The Holders of the Combination Notes will be treated as Holders of the Underlying Classes for purposes of any voting rights of such Underlying Classes, except in connection with any supplemental indenture that affects the Combination Notes in a materially adverse manner that is different from the effect of such supplemental indenture on Notes of any Underlying Class, in which case the Combination Notes will vote only as a separate Class.

The Combination Notes will be redeemed (i) on any Payment Date in connection with a Mandatory Redemption or Special Redemption to the extent that each Underlying Class is redeemed, (ii) on any Redemption Date in connection with an Optional Redemption or Refinancing to the extent that each Underlying Class is redeemed by allocation of the Redemption Price of each Underlying Class, (iii) on any Clean-up Redemption Date in connection with a Clean-up Call Redemption to the extent that each Underlying Class is redeemed by allocation of the Clean-up Call Redemption Price of each Underlying Class and (iv) to the extent the Underlying Classes are redeemed in accordance with the Priority of Payments or the Note Payment Sequence.

At the written request of the Holder of a Combination Note (i) all or any portion of the Combination Notes may be exchanged for the Underlying Classes represented by such Combination Notes and (ii) all or any portion of the Class A-1 Notes, Class B Notes and Class C Notes representing Underlying Classes may be combined into Combination Notes, in each such case, proportionally in accordance with the Permissible Ratio and in accordance with Section 13.4 of the Indenture.

This Combination Notes may be sold to a transferee in accordance with the Indenture, proportionally in accordance with the Permissible Ratio.

EXHIBIT B4

FORM OF SUBORDINATED NOTE ERISA CERTIFICATE

The purpose of this ERISA Certificate (this "Certificate") is, among other things, to (i) endeavor to ensure that less than 25% of the value of the Subordinated Notes issued by Acis CLO 2013-1 Ltd. (the "Issuer") is held by (a) an "employee benefit plan" (as defined in Section 3(3) of the United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") that is subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of Title I of ERISA, (b) a "plan" as defined in Section 4975(e)(1) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), that is subject to Section 4975 of the Code, (e) any entity whose underlying assets include "plan assets" by reason of any such employee benefit plan's or plan's investment in the entity or (d) a "benefit plan investor" as defined in U.S. Department of Labor regulations or under Section 3(42) of ERISA (collectively, "Benefit Plan Investors") so that the Issuer will not be subject to the U.S. federal pension laws contained in ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code, (ii) obtain from you certain representations and agreements and (iii) provide you with certain related information with respect to your acquisition, holding or disposition of the Subordinated Notes. By signing this Certificate, you agree to be bound by its terms.

Please be aware that the information contained in this Certificate is not intended to constitute advice and the examples given below are not intended to be, and are not, comprehensive. You should contact your own counsel if you have any questions in completing this Certificate. Capitalized terms not defined in this Certificate shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the final offering circular of the Issuer or the Indenture.

Please review the information in this Certificate and check the box(es) that are applicable to you.

If a box is not checked, you are agreeing that the applicable Section does not, and will not, apply to you.

1. Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA or the Code. We, or the entity on whose behalf we are acting, are an "employee benefit plan" within the meaning Section 3(3) of ERISA that is subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of Title I of ERISA or a "plan" within the meaning of Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code that is subject to Section 4975 of the Code. ☐

Examples: (i) tax qualified retirement plans such as pension, profit sharing and section 401 (k) plans, (ii) welfare benefit plans such as accident, life and medical plans, (iii) individual retirement accounts or "IRAs" and "Keogh" plans and (iv) certain tax-qualified educational and savings trusts.

2. Entity Holding Plan Assets by Reason of Plan Asset Regulations. We, or the entity on whose behalf we are acting, are an entity or fund whose underlying assets include "plan assets" by reason of the investment in such entity by an employee benefit plan or plan described in Section 1 above. ☐

Examples: (i) a hedge fund or other private investment vehicle where 25% or more of the value of any class of its equity is held by Benefit Plan Investors. (ii) an insurance company separate account and (iii) a bank collective trust fund.

ERISA and the regulations promulgated thereunder are technical. Accordingly, if you have any question regarding whether you may be an entity described in this Section 2, you should consult with your counsel.

If you check Box 2, please also complete Box A.

A. The maximum percentage of the entity's or fund's assets that we anticipate will constitute "plan assets" for purposes of conducting the 25% test under the Plan Asset Regulations is: ____%.

IF YOU CHECKED BOX 2 BUT DO NOT INCLUDE ANY PERCENTAGE IN THE BLANK SPACE, YOU WILL BE COUNTED AS IF YOU FILLED IN 100% IN THE BLANK SPACE.

3. Insurance Company General Account. We, or the entity on whose behalf we are acting, are an insurance company purchasing the Subordinated Notes with funds from our or their general account (i.e., the insurance company's corporate investment portfolio), the assets of which, in whole or in part, constitute "plan assets" for purposes of the U.S. Department of Labor's regulations set forth at 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101, as effectively modified by Section 3(42) of ERISA (the "Plan Asset Regulations"). ☐

If you check Box 3, please also check either Box A or Box B.

A. We are not able to determine an exact percentage of the general account that constitutes "plan assets" but the maximum percentage of the general account that constitutes (or will constitute) "plan assets" for purposes of, the Plan Asset Regulations is less than 25%. ☐

B. The maximum percentage of the insurance company general account that will constitute "plan assets" for purposes of conducting the 25% test under the Plan Asset Regulations is: ____%. IF YOU CHECK THIS BOX B BUT DO NOT INCLUDE ANY PERCENTAGE IN THE BLANK SPACE, YOU WILL BE COUNTED AS IF YOU FILLED IN 100% IN THE BLANK SPACE. ☐

4. None of Sections (1) Through (3) Above Apply. We, or the entity on whose behalf we are acting, are a person that does not fall into any of the categories described in Sections (1) through (3) above. ☐

5. No Prohibited Transaction. If we checked any of the boxes in Sections (1) through (3) above, we represent, warrant and agree that our acquisition, holding and disposition of the Subordinated Notes do not and will not constitute or give rise to a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code.

6. No Violation of Similar Law. If we are a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan subject to any federal, state, local or non-U.S. law substantially similar to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, we represent, warrant and agree that our acquisition, holding and disposition of the Subordinated Notes do not and will not constitute or give rise to a non-exempt violation of any such similar federal, state, local or non-U.S. law.

7. Controlling Person. We are, or we are acting on behalf of any of: (i) the Trustee, (ii) the Portfolio Manager, (iii) any person that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer, (iv) any person who provides financial or investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to such assets or (v) any "affiliate" of any of the above persons. "Affiliate" shall have the meaning set forth in the Plan Asset Regulations. Any of the persons described in the first sentence of this Section (7) is referred to in this Certificate as a "Controlling Person." ☐

Note: We understand that, for purposes of determining whether Benefit Plan Investors hold less than 25% of the value of the Subordinated Notes, the value of any Subordinated Notes held by Controlling Persons (other than Benefit Plan Investors) are required to be disregarded.

8. Compelled Disposition. We acknowledge and agree that:

(i) if any representation that we made hereunder is subsequently shown to be false or misleading or our beneficial ownership otherwise causes Benefit Plan Investors to own 25% or more of the value of any class of equity in the Issuer, the Issuer shall, promptly after such discovery (or upon notice from the Trustee if a responsible officer of the Trustee makes the discovery (who, in each case, agrees to notify the Issuer of such discovery, if any)), send notice to us demanding that we transfer our interest to a person that is not a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder within 14 days of the date of such notice;

(ii) if we fail to transfer our Subordinated Notes, the Issuer shall have the right, without further notice to us, to sell our Subordinated Notes or our interest in the Subordinated Notes, to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is not a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder on such terms as the Issuer may choose;

(iii) the Issuer may select the purchaser by soliciting one or more bids from one or more brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Subordinated Notes and selling such securities to the highest such bidder. However, the Issuer may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion;

(iv) by our acceptance of an interest in the Subordinated Notes, we agree to cooperate with the Issuer to effect such transfers;

(v) the proceeds of such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale shall be remitted to us; and

(vi) the terms and conditions of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer, and the Issuer shall not be liable to us, as a result of any such sale or the exercise of such discretion.

9. Required Notification. We hereby agree that we (a) will inform the Trustee of any proposed transfer by us of all or a specified portion of the Subordinated Notes owned by us to a transferee who would be deemed to be a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person or of any proposed change in our status under ERISA which would result in all or a portion of the Subordinated Notes owned by us and not previously so characterized being deemed to be held by a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person and (b) will not permit any such transfer or change of status that would cause Benefit Plan Investors to own 25% or more of the value of any class of equity in the Issuer to be exceeded to become effective. We hereby agree and acknowledge that after the Trustee effects any permitted transfer of Subordinated Notes owned by us to a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person or receives notice of any such permitted change of status, the Trustee shall include such Subordinated Notes in future calculations of this 25% limitation made pursuant hereto unless subsequently notified that such Subordinated Notes (or such portion), as applicable, would no longer be deemed to be held by Benefit Plan Investors or Controlling Persons.

10. Continuing Representation; Reliance. We acknowledge and agree that the representations contained in this Certificate shall be deemed made on each day from the date we make such representations through and including the date on which we dispose of our interests in the Subordinated Notes. We understand and agree that the information supplied in this Certificate will be used and relied upon by the Issuer, the trustee to determine that Benefit Plan Investors own or hold less than 25% of the value of the Subordinated Notes upon any subsequent transfer of the Subordinated Notes in accordance with the indenture.

11. Further Acknowledgement. We acknowledge and agree that (i) all of the assurances contained in this Certificate are for the benefit of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Placement Agents and the Portfolio Manager as third-party beneficiaries hereof, (ii) copies of this Certificate and any information contained herein may be provided to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, the Portfolio Manager, affiliates of any of the foregoing parties and to each of the foregoing parties' respective counsel for purposes of making the determinations described above and (iii) any acquisition or transfer of the Subordinated Notes by us that is not in accordance with the provisions of this Certificate shall be null and void from the beginning, and of no legal effect.

12. Future Transfer Requirements.

Transferee Letter and its Delivery. We acknowledge and agree that we may not transfer any Subordinated Notes to any person unless the Trustee has received a certificate substantially in the form of this Certificate. Nothing in this Section 3(i)(i) shall preclude, or be deemed to stop, the Portfolio Manager (i) from taking any action prior to the expiration of the aforementioned period in (A) any case or Proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or (B) any involuntary insolvency Proceeding filed or commenced by a Person other than the Portfolio Manager, or (ii) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of its properties any legal action which is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceeding. The provisions of this subsection 3(i)(i) shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager shall cause any purchase or sale of any Collateral Obligation to be conducted on arm's length terms or in the manner contemplated by Section 6, if applicable.

(iii) In providing services hereunder, the Portfolio Manager may employ third parties, including its Affiliates, to render advice (including investment advice), to provide services to arrange for trade execution and otherwise provide assistance to the Issuer, and to perform any of the Portfolio Manager's duties under this Agreement; provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall not be relieved of any of its duties hereunder regardless of the performance of any services by third parties.

4. Brokerage.

(a) The Portfolio Manager will seek to obtain the best execution (but shall have no obligation to obtain the best prices and execution) for all orders placed with respect to the Assets, in a manner permitted by law and in a manner it believes to be in the best interests of the Issuer. Subject to the preceding sentence, the Portfolio Manager may, in the allocation of business, select brokers and/or dealers with whom to effect trades on behalf of the Issuer and may open cash trading accounts with such brokers and dealers (provided that none of the Assets may be credited to, held in or subject to the lien of the broker or dealer with respect to any such account). In addition, subject to the first sentence of this paragraph, the Portfolio Manager may, in the allocation of business, take into consideration research and other brokerage services furnished to the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates by brokers and dealers which are not Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager; provided that the Portfolio Manager in good faith believes that the compensation for such services rendered by such brokers and dealers complies with the requirements of Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("Section 28(e)"), or in the case of principal or fixed income transactions for which the "safe harbor" of Section 28(e) is not available, the amount of the spread charged is reasonable in relation to the value of the research and other brokerage services provided. Such services may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with its other advisory activities or investment operations. The Portfolio Manager may aggregate sales and purchase orders of securities placed with respect to the Assets with similar orders being made simultaneously for other accounts managed by the Portfolio Manager or with accounts of the Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager, if in the Portfolio Manager's reasonable business judgment such aggregation shall result in an economic benefit to the Issuer, taking into consideration the advantageous selling or purchase price, brokerage commission or other expenses, as well as the availability of such securities on any other basis. In accounting for such aggregated order price, commissions and other expenses may be apportioned on a weighted average basis. When a transaction with respect to the Assets occurs as part of any aggregate sales or purchase orders, the objective of the Portfolio Manager shall be to allocate the executions among the accounts in an equitable manner the Portfolio Manager believes, in its reasonable business judgment, to be appropriate and in accordance with (x) its internal conflicts of interest and allocation policies and (y) any applicable requirements of the Advisers Act.

(b) The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that (i) the determination by the Portfolio Manager of any benefit to the Issuer will be subjective and will represent the Portfolio Manager's evaluation at the time that the Issuer will be benefited by relatively better purchase or sales prices, lower brokerage commissions, lower transaction costs and expenses and beneficial timing of transactions or any combination of any of these and/or other factors and (ii) the Portfolio Manager shall be fully protected with respect to any such determination to the extent the Portfolio Manager acts in accordance with Section 3(b).

(c) Subject to the Portfolio Manager's execution obligations described in Sections 4(a) and 4(d) and the covenants set forth in Section 6, the Portfolio Manager is hereby authorized to effect client cross-transactions where the Portfolio Manager causes a transaction with respect to the Assets to be effected between the Issuer and another account advised by it or any of its Affiliates; provided that, if and to the extent required by the Advisers Act, such authorization is terminable prior to the initiation of such cross-transaction at the Issuer's option without penalty. Such termination shall be effective upon receipt by the Portfolio Manager of written notice from the Issuer. Subject to the Portfolio Manager's execution obligations described in Sections 4(a) and 4(d) and the covenants set forth in Section 6, the Portfolio Manager is hereby authorized to effect principal transactions where the Issuer may invest in securities of issuers in which the Portfolio Manager and/or its Affiliates have a debt, equity or participation interest, in each case in accordance with applicable law.

(d) The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates may acquire or sell obligations or securities, for its own account or for the accounts of its customers, without either requiring or precluding the acquisition or sale of such obligations or securities for the account of the Issuer. Such investments may be the same or different from those made on behalf of the Issuer. If, in light of market conditions and investment objectives, the Portfolio Manager determines that it would be advisable to purchase the same item of Collateral Obligation both for the Issuer, and either the proprietary account of the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager or another client of the Portfolio Manager, the Portfolio Manager shall allocate such investment opportunities across such entities for which such opportunities are appropriate consistent with (i) its internal conflicts of interest and allocation policies and (ii) any applicable requirements of the Advisers Act. The Issuer agrees that, in the course of managing the Collateral Obligations held by the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager may consider its relationships with other clients (including obligors and issuers) and its Affiliates. The Portfolio Manager may decline to make a particular investment for the Issuer in view of such relationships.

5. Additional Activities of the Portfolio Manager.

(a) Nothing herein shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Related Entities from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Issuer and its Affiliates, the Trustee, the Holders, the Placement Agents or any other Person to the extent permitted by applicable law, regardless of whether such business is in competition with the Issuer or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager, its Related Entities and the directors, officers, employees and agents of the Portfolio Manager and its Related Entities may, subject to any limits specified in the Indenture:

(i) serve as directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, partners, employees, agents, nominees or signatories, and receive arm's length fees in connection with such service, for the Issuer or its Affiliates, or for any obligor or issuer in respect of the Collateral Obligations, Equity Securities or Eligible Investments or any affiliate thereof, to the extent permitted by their Governing Instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Issuer, its Affiliates or any obligor or issuer in respect of any of the Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or Equity Securities (or any Affiliate thereof) pursuant to their respective Governing Instruments, and neither the Holders of the Notes nor the Issuer shall have the right to any such fees; provided, that in the reasonable business judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity will not have a material adverse effect on any item of the Assets;

(ii) receive fees or other compensation from third parties (including Persons in which the Issuer has made or proposes to make an investment) in connection with any business activities of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates and which are not related to the use of the Issuer's capital (which fees or other compensation shall be for the benefit of the Portfolio Manager's own account); provided, that in the reasonable business judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activities will not have a material adverse effect on any item of the Assets; and

(iii) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold an equity interest in, or own or hold notes issued by, the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligation included in the Assets; provided, that the Portfolio Manager may not take any such actions (other than the holding of Notes issued by the Issuer) if, in the opinion of counsel to the Issuer, such action would require registration of the Issuer as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act or violate any applicable provisions of federal, state or non-U.S. law or any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer.

As a result, such individuals may possess information relating to obligors and issuers of Collateral Obligations that is (a) not known to or (b) known but restricted as to its use by the individuals at the Portfolio Manager responsible for monitoring the Collateral Obligations and performing the other obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement. Each of such ownership and other relationships may result in securities laws restrictions on transactions in such securities by the Issuer and otherwise create conflicts of interest for the Issuer. The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that, in all such instances, the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may in their discretion make investment recommendations and decisions that may be the same as or different from those made with respect to the Issuer's investments and they have no duty, in making or managing such investments, to act in a way that is favorable to the Issuer.

The Issuer acknowledges that there are generally no ethical screens or information barriers among the Portfolio Manager and certain of its Affiliates of the type that many firms implement to separate Persons who make investment decisions from others who might possess material, non-public information that could influence such decisions. The officers or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager may possess information relating to obligors of Collateral Obligations that is not known to the individuals at the Portfolio Manager responsible for monitoring the Collateral Obligations and performing the other obligations under this Agreement. As a result, the Portfolio Manager may from time to time come into possession of material nonpublic information that limits the ability of the Portfolio Manager to effect a transaction for the Issuer, and the Issuer's investments may be constrained as a consequence of the Portfolio Manager's inability to use such information for advisory purposes or otherwise to effect transactions that otherwise may have been initiated on behalf of its clients, including the Issuer.

(b) It is understood that the Portfolio Manager and any of its Affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have investment policies similar to those followed by the Portfolio Manager with respect to the Assets and which may own securities or obligations of the same class, or which are of the same type, as the Collateral Obligations or the Eligible Investments or other securities or obligations of the issuers of the Collateral Obligations or the Eligible Investments. The Portfolio Manager will be free, in its sole discretion, to make recommendations to others or effect transactions on behalf of itself or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Assets. Nothing in the Indenture and this Agreement shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, acting either as principal or agent on behalf of others, from buying or selling, or from recommending to or directing any other account to buy or sell, at any time, securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same obligor or issuer, as those directed by the Portfolio Manager to be purchased or sold on behalf of the Issuer. It is understood that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or Related Entities, or any of their directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or affiliates or any member of their families or a Person or entity advised by the Portfolio Manager may have an interest in a particular transaction or in securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same issuer, as those whose purchase or sale the Portfolio Manager may direct hereunder.

(c) The Portfolio Manager shall not be obligated to pursue any particular investment strategy or opportunity with respect to the Assets.

(d) The Issuer acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may make and/or hold an investment in an issuer's securities that may be pari passu, senior or junior in ranking to an investment in such issuer's securities made and/or held by the Issuer or in which partners, security holders, members, officers, directors, agents or employees of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates serve on boards of directors or otherwise have ongoing relationships.

6. Conflicts of Interest.

(a) Subject to compliance with applicable laws and regulations and subject to this Agreement and the Indenture, the Portfolio Manager may direct the Trustee to acquire a Collateral Obligation from, or sell a Collateral Obligation, Equity Security, Eligible Investment or asset held by an ETB Subsidiary to, the Portfolio Manager, any of its Affiliates or any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates serve as investment advisor for fair market value. The Portfolio Manager may obtain the Issuer's written consent through the Independent Review Party as provided herein if any such transaction requires the consent of the Issuer under Section 206(3) of the Advisers Act (any such transaction, an "Affiliate Transaction"). The Issuer hereby acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or accounts advised or sub-advised by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates (collectively, the "Portfolio Manager Affiliates") will purchase on the Closing Date U.S.$10,250,000 Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-2B Notes, U.S.$10,000,000 Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class B Notes, U.S.$2,500,000 Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class E Notes, U.S.$10,000,000 Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class F Notes and U.S.$51,750,000 Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Subordinated Notes (collectively, the "Portfolio Manager Affiliate Notes"). The Issuer further acknowledges and agrees that no Portfolio Manager Affiliate is under any obligation to retain any Portfolio Manager Affiliate Notes, and may sell all or a portion of such Portfolio Manager Affiliate Notes at any time. In addition, the Issuer acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager Affiliates may acquire and subsequently sell other Notes after the Closing Date. In certain circumstances, the interests of the Issuer and/or the Holders or beneficial owners of the Notes with respect to matters as to which the Portfolio Manager is advising the Issuer may conflict with the interests of the Portfolio Manager Affiliates or its Related Entities. The Issuer hereby acknowledges that various potential and actual conflicts of interest may exist with respect to the Portfolio Manager as described above and as described in the final offering circular relating to the Notes; provided that nothing in this Section 6 shall be construed as altering the duties of the Portfolio Manager referred to herein.

(b) At the written request of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall establish a conflicts review board or appoint an independent third party to act on behalf of the Issuer (such board or party, an "Independent Review Party") with respect to Affiliate Transactions. Decisions of any Independent Review Party shall be binding on the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer, and Holders of the Notes.

(c) Any Independent Review Party (i) shall either (A) be the Issuer's Board of Directors, (B) be an established financial institution or other financial company with experience in assessing the merits of transactions similar to the Affiliate Transactions or (C) be a review board comprised of one or more individuals selected by the Issuer (or at the request of the Issuer, selected by the Portfolio Manager), (ii) shall be required to assess the merits of the Affiliate Transaction and either grant or withhold consent to such transaction in its sole judgment and (iii) shall not be (A) affiliated with the Portfolio Manager (other than as a Holder or as a passive investor in the Issuer or an Affiliate of the Issuer) or (B) (other than the Issuer's Board of Directors) involved in the daily management and control of the Issuer.

(d) The Issuer (i) shall be responsible for any fees relating to the services provided by any Independent Review Party and shall reimburse members of any Independent Review Party for their out-of-pocket expenses and (ii) may indemnify members of such Independent Review Party to the maximum extent permitted by law, subject to terms and conditions satisfactory to the Portfolio Manager.

7. Records; Confidentiality.

The Portfolio Manager shall maintain or cause to be maintained appropriate books of account and records relating to its services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by representatives of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Holders, and the Independent accountants appointed by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer pursuant to Article 10 of the Indenture at any time during normal business hours and upon not less than three Business Days' prior notice. The Portfolio Manager shall keep confidential any and all information that is either (i) of a type that would ordinarily be considered proprietary or confidential or (ii) designated as confidential (collectively "Confidential Information") obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder and shall not disclose any such Confidential Information to non-affiliated third parties (excluding any Holders and beneficial owners of Notes) except (a) with the prior written consent of the Issuer, (b) such Confidential Information as a Rating Agency shall reasonably request in connection with its rating of the Secured Notes or supplying credit estimates on any obligation included in the Assets, (c) in connection with establishing trading or investment accounts or otherwise in connection with effecting transactions with respect to the Assets on behalf of the Issuer, (d) as required by (i) applicable law, regulation, court order, or a request by a governmental regulatory agency with jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, (ii) the rules or regulations of any stock exchange or self-regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates or (iii) the Irish Stock Exchange, (e) to its professional advisors (including, without limitation, legal, tax and accounting advisors), (f) such Confidential Information as shall have been publicly available or disclosed other than in known violation of this Agreement or the provisions of the Indenture or shall have been obtained by the Portfolio Manager on a non-confidential basis, (g) such Confidential Information as is necessary or appropriate to disclose so that the Portfolio Manager may perform its duties hereunder, under the Indenture or the related documents or (h) general performance information which may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with their marketing activities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is agreed that the Portfolio Manager may disclose (a) that it is serving as portfolio manager of the Issuer, (b) the nature, aggregate principal amount and overall performance of the Issuer's assets, (c) the amount of earnings on the Assets, (d) such other Confidential Information about the Issuer, the Assets and the Notes as is customarily disclosed by managers of collateralized loan obligations and (e) each of its respective employees, representatives or other agents may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the United States federal income tax treatment and United States federal income tax structure of the transactions contemplated by the Indenture, this Agreement and the related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions and other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such United States federal income tax treatment and United States income tax structure. For purposes of this Section 7, the Holders and beneficial owners of the Notes shall not be considered "non-affiliated third parties."

8. Obligations of Portfolio Manager.

In accordance with the performance standard set forth in Section 3(b), the Portfolio Manager shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that no action is taken by it, and shall not intentionally or with reckless disregard take any action, which would (a) materially adversely affect the status of the Issuer for purposes of Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state law, or other law known to the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to the Issuer, (b) not be permitted by the Issuer's Governing Instruments, (c) violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer, including, without limitation, actions which would violate any Cayman Islands law, United States federal, state or other applicable securities law that is known by the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to it and, in each case, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer or have a material adverse effect on the ability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations hereunder or under the Indenture, (d) require registration of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the pool of Assets as an "investment company" under Section 8 of the Investment Company Act, (e) cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise cause the Issuer to be subject to U.S. federal or state income tax on a net basis; provided that it shall not be a violation of this clause (e) for the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal or state income tax on a net basis as a result of an action taken either (i) in compliance with Certain Tax Restrictions attached hereto as Schedule 1 or (ii) in reliance upon an opinion or written advice from White & Case LLP, Dechert LLP or other tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters to the effect that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such action, the Issuer's contemplated action would not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis; or (f) knowingly and willfully adversely affect the interests of the Holders in the Assets in any material respect (other than (i) as expressly permitted hereunder or under the Indenture or (ii) in connection with any action taken in the ordinary course of business of the Portfolio Manager in accordance with its fiduciary duties to its clients). In furtherance of the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager shall at all times comply with the tax restrictions set forth in Schedule 1; provided that the Portfolio Manager may take an action that is not permitted by such operating guidelines if (x) such action is otherwise permitted under this Agreement and the Indenture and (y) the Portfolio Manager has received an opinion or written advice from White & Case LLP, Dechert LLP or other tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters to the effect that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such transaction, taking into account the Issuer's failure to comply with one or more of such provisions and assuming compliance with the Indenture and all other provisions in Schedule 1, the Issuer's contemplated activities would not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis. If the Portfolio Manager is ordered by the Board of Directors of the Issuer or the requisite Holders or beneficial owners of Notes to take any action which would, or could reasonably be expected to, in each case in its reasonable business judgment, have any such consequences, the Portfolio Manager shall promptly notify the Issuer that such action would, or could reasonably be expected to, in each case in its reasonable business judgment, have one or more of the consequences set forth above and shall not take such action unless the Board of Directors of the Issuer then request the Portfolio Manager to do so and at least a Majority of both the Controlling Class and the Subordinated Notes (voting separately by Class) have consented thereto in writing. Notwithstanding any such request, the Portfolio Manager shall not take such action unless (1) arrangements satisfactory to it are made to insure or indemnify the Portfolio Manager, Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager and members, shareholders, partners, directors, managers, officers or employees of the Portfolio Manager or such Affiliates from any liability and expense it may incur as a result of such action and (2) if the Portfolio Manager so requests in respect of a question of law, the Issuer delivers to the Portfolio Manager an opinion of a nationally recognized law firm (from outside counsel satisfactory to the Portfolio Manager) that the action so requested does not violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer or over the Portfolio Manager. Neither the Portfolio Manager nor its Affiliates, shareholders, partners, directors, members, managers, officers or employees shall be liable to the Issuer or any other Person, except as provided in Section 11. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, any indemnification or insurance by the Issuer provided for in this Section 8 or Section 11 shall be payable out of the Assets in accordance with the Priority of Payments, and the Portfolio Manager may take into account such Priority of Payments in determining whether any proposed indemnity arrangements contemplated by this Section 8 are satisfactory.

9. Compensation.

(a) The Issuer shall pay to the Portfolio Manager, for services rendered under this Agreement, on each Payment Date, the Senior Management Fee, the Subordinated Management Fee and the Incentive Management Fee. Accrued and unpaid Management Fees shall be paid as set forth in Article 11 of the Indenture. To the extent any of the Subordinated Management Fee is not paid on any Payment Date, such payment will be deferred and will accrue interest at LIBOR, compounded quarterly, as set forth in the Indenture.

(b) The Portfolio Manager may (but shall not be obligated to), at its election upon notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, reduce for a predetermined period of time the amount which is due to it as Senior Management Fee by a specific percentage, in which case the Subordinated Management Fee shall automatically be increased by the same percentage (the "Fee Election"). Any Fee Election must be made on or before the Determination Date for the first Collection Period in respect of which the Fee Election will apply and shall not be revocable during the period of the Fee Election; except that, in the event that the Portfolio Manager is removed, resigns or assigns its rights to any Persons, as contemplated by Sections 13, 14 and 15 of this Agreement, the replacement Portfolio Manager shall be bound initially by the terms set forth under subsection 9(a).

(c) The Portfolio Manager shall pay (without reimbursement by the Issuer) its general overhead expenses, including (i) all costs and expenses on account of salaries, wages, bonuses and other employee benefits of the Portfolio Manager and (ii) all occupational expenses, including rent, taxes and utilities, of the Portfolio Manager. The Issuer shall pay or reimburse the Portfolio Manager for its payment of any and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred on behalf of the Issuer, including, without limitation: (i) any and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the acquisition or disposition of the Assets (including (a) investment related travel, communications and related expenses and (b) amounts in connection with the termination, cancellation or abandonment of a potential acquisition or disposition of an Asset that is not consummated); (ii) any and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the carrying or management of the Assets; (iii) any and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Notes and other indebtedness of the Issuer; (iv) any and all attorneys' and accountants' fees and disbursements relating to Issuer matters (including in-house attorneys' and accountants' services provided by or on behalf of the Portfolio Manager to the Issuer as may be reasonably allocated to the Issuer); (v) any and all taxes and governmental charges that may be incurred or payable by the Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary; (vi) any and all insurance premiums or expenses incurred in connection with the activities of the Issuer by the Portfolio Manager; (vii) any and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Portfolio Manager's information systems relating to the Issuer and the Assets and communications with the Holders of the Notes (including charges related to annual meetings); (viii) any and all costs and expenses incurred by the Portfolio Manager in connection with the establishment of any ETB Subsidiary (provided that such costs and expenses are directly attributable to the establishment of such ETB Subsidiary) and (ix) any and all expenses incurred to comply with any law or regulation related to the activities of the Issuer, any ETB Subsidiary and the Portfolio Manager. Other than as stated above, the Issuer will bear, and will pay directly in accordance with the Indenture, all other costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with the organization, operation or liquidation of the Issuer.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 13, Section 15 or otherwise, the Senior Management Fee, the Subordinated Management Fee and the Incentive Management Fee calculated as provided in the Indenture shall be prorated for any partial periods between Payment Dates during which this Agreement was in effect and shall be due and payable on the first Payment Date following the date of such termination, subject to Article 11 of the Indenture.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer are limited recourse obligations payable solely from Assets granted to the Trustee pursuant to the Granting Clauses of the Indenture in accordance with the Priority of Payments and, following realization of the Assets and reduction thereof to zero, all obligations of the Issuer and any claims against the Issuer under this Agreement shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. No recourse shall be had for the payment of any amount owing in respect of this Agreement against any other asset of the Issuer or against any officer, director, employee, shareholder or incorporator of the Issuer. The provisions of this Section 9(e) shall survive termination of this Agreement.

10. Benefit of the Agreement.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that its obligations hereunder in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to it shall be enforceable by the Issuer and by the Trustee on behalf of the Holders, as provided in the Indenture. The Portfolio Manager agrees and consents to the provisions contained in Section 15.1 of the Indenture.

11. Limits of Portfolio Manager Responsibility.

(a) Subject to Section 8, the Portfolio Manager assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to it and affecting the duties and functions that have been delegated to it thereunder and hereunder in good faith and, subject to the standard of conduct described in the next succeeding sentence. The Portfolio Manager shall not be responsible for any action or inaction of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee in declining to follow any advice, recommendation or direction of the Portfolio Manager including as set forth in Section 8. Neither the Portfolio Manager nor any of its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or Affiliates will be liable to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Holders of the Notes, the Placement Agents or any other Person for any act, omission, error of judgment, mistake of law, or for any claim, loss, liability, damage, judgments, assessments, settlement, cost, or other expense (including attorneys' fees and expenses and court costs) arising out of any investment, or for any other act or omission arising out of or in connection with the performance by the Portfolio Manager, its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or Affiliates under this Agreement or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, incurred as a result of actions taken or recommended or for any omissions of the Portfolio Manager, or for any decrease in the value of the Collateral Obligations, except for liability to which the Portfolio Manager would be subject (i) by reason of acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or reckless disregard in the performance of its obligations hereunder or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager or, (ii) with respect to the information concerning the Portfolio Manager included in the Offering Circular dated March 13, 2013 (the "Offering Circular") under the headings "Summary—Portfolio Manager", "The Portfolio Manager" (including Part 2 of the Portfolio Manager's Form ADV referred to therein), "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—Conflicts of Interest Involving the Portfolio Manager", "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager—Past Performance Not Indicative of Future Results", "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager—The Portfolio Manager Relies on Highland to Perform Certain Services" and "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager—Litigation Involving Acis and Highland", as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any consequential, punitive, exemplary or treble damages or lost profits hereunder or under the Indenture. The Issuer (the Issuer in such case, the "Indemnifying Party") shall indemnify and hold harmless the Portfolio Manager, its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, agents and employees and its Affiliates and their directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, agents and employees (each, an "Indemnified Party") from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (other than losses in the value of a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment incurred by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates in connection with a transaction in which it elects to acquire a Collateral Obligation or an Eligible Investment from the Issuer as principal) (collectively, "Liabilities"), and will promptly reimburse each such Person for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) as such fees and expenses (collectively, the "Expenses") are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the "Actions"), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with the Assets or business of the Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary or otherwise relating to the Indenture or this Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Person; provided, however, that such Person shall not be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses (x) it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or reckless disregard in the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its obligations hereunder or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, or (y) it incurs with respect to the information concerning the Portfolio Manager included in the Offering Circular under the headings "Summary—Portfolio Manager", "The Portfolio Manager" (including Part 2 of the Portfolio Manager's Form ADV referred to therein), "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—Conflicts of Interest Involving the Portfolio Manager", "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager—Past Performance Not Indicative of Future Results", "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager—The Portfolio Manager Relies on Highland to Perform Certain Services" and "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager—Litigation Involving Acis and Highland", as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer under this Section 11 are limited recourse obligations of the Issuer payable solely out of the Assets in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The Indemnified Parties are not required to consult with, or obtain the consent of, the Issuer with respect to any settlement, negotiation or other act of the Indemnified Parties in connection with any Action.

(b) The Portfolio Manager shall indemnify and hold harmless (the Portfolio Manager in such case, the "Indemnifying Party") the Issuer (the Issuer in such case, the "Indemnified Party") from and against any and all expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising directly out of any information described in subsection 11(a)(ii) above, as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any special, indirect, consequential, punitive, exemplary or treble damages or lost profits.

(c) The Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the Indemnifying Party if the Indemnified Party receives a complaint, claim, compulsory process or other notice of any losses or damages giving rise to a claim for indemnification under this Section 11, but failure so to notify the Indemnifying Party or to comply with paragraph (d) below shall not relieve such Indemnifying Party from its obligations under this Section 11 unless and to the extent that such Indemnifying Party did not otherwise learn of such action or proceeding and to the extent such failure results in the forfeiture by the Indemnifying Party of material rights and defenses.

(d) With respect to any claim made or threatened against an Indemnified Party, or compulsory process or request served upon such Indemnified Party for which such Indemnified Party is or may be entitled to indemnification under this Section 11, such Indemnified Party shall:

(i) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, provide the Indemnifying Party such information and cooperation with respect to such claim as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require, including, but not limited to, making appropriate personnel available to the Indemnifying Party at such reasonable times as the Indemnifying Party may request;

(ii) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, cooperate and take all such steps as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request to preserve and protect any defense to such claim;

(iii) in the event suit is brought with respect to such claim, upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, which the Indemnifying Party may exercise in its sole discretion and at its expense, (A) to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement of such claim, and, (B) to the extent that it shall wish, to assume the defense thereof, with counsel satisfactory to such Indemnified Party (who shall not, except with the consent of the Indemnified Party, be counsel to the Indemnifying Party), and, after notice from the Indemnifying Party to such Indemnified Party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to such

Indemnified Party under such subsection for any legal fees and expenses of other counsel or any other expenses, in each case subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Party, in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation, except that, if such Indemnified Party reasonably determines that counsel selected by the Indemnifying Party has a conflict of interest, such Indemnifying Party shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of one additional counsel selected by the Indemnified Party (in addition to any local counsel) separate from its own counsel for all Indemnified Parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances; and

(iv) neither incur any material expense to defend against nor make any admission with respect thereto, nor permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof, in each case without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party; provided that the Indemnifying Party shall have advised such Indemnified Party that such Indemnified Party is entitled to be indemnified hereunder with respect to such claim.

(e) No Indemnified Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, settle or compromise any claim giving rise to a claim for indemnity hereunder, or permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof; provided that if the Indemnified Party is the Portfolio Manager or an Affiliate or a Related Entity of the Portfolio Manager or of an Affiliate thereof, such Indemnified Party shall not be required to seek or obtain such consent if it determines in good faith that the Indemnifying Party is unlikely to have sufficient funds available to indemnify it in full, taking into account the Priority of Payments.

(f) No Indemnifying Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, settle or compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect to any claim giving rise to a claim for indemnity hereunder if such settlement includes a statement as to or an admission of fault, culpability or a failure to act by or on behalf of any Indemnified Party.

(g) If the indemnification provided for in this Section 11 is unavailable to an Indemnified Party in respect of any claims or liabilities referred to herein, then the Indemnifying Party, in lieu of indemnifying such Indemnified Party hereunder, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnified Party as a result of such claims or liabilities in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by, and the relative fault of, the Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and the Indemnified Parties, on the other hand, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations.

(h) The required indemnification provided by this Section 11 shall be in addition to any rights to which an Indemnified Party may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law, and shall extend to each of its or his or her heirs, successors and assigns. The provisions of this Section 11 shall continue to afford protection to each Indemnified Party regardless of whether such Indemnified Party remains in the position or capacity pursuant to which such Indemnified Party became entitled to indemnification under this Section 11.

(i) United States federal securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith and nothing herein shall constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Issuer or any Holder of Notes may have under any applicable federal securities laws.

12. No Partnership or Joint Venture.

The Issuer and the Portfolio Manager are not partners or joint venturers with each other and nothing herein shall be construed to make them such partners or joint venturers or impose any liability as such on either of them. The Portfolio Manager's relation to the Issuer shall be deemed to be that of an independent contractor.

13. Term; Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall commence as of the date first set forth above and shall continue in force and effect until the first of the following occurs: (i) the payment in full of the Notes and the termination of the Indenture in accordance with its terms; (ii) the liquidation of the Assets and the final distribution of the proceeds of such liquidation to the Holders; or (iii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with subsections (b) of this Section 13 or Section 15 of this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary but subject to the provisions of clause (e) below, this Agreement may be terminated without cause by the Portfolio Manager, and the Portfolio Manager may resign, upon 90 days' (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer) written notice to the Issuer; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to resign immediately upon the effectiveness of any material change in applicable law or regulations which renders the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or under the Indenture to be a violation of such law or regulation.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (b) above, no resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager or termination of this Agreement pursuant to such clause shall be effective until the date as of which a successor Portfolio Manager shall have been appointed and approved in accordance with Section 13(e) and has accepted all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement in writing and has assumed such duties and obligations.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 13, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other, except as provided in subsection 3(i)(i), Section 9(d) and (e) and Sections 11 and 16 of this Agreement.

(e) Any termination, removal or resignation of the Portfolio Manager while any Notes are Outstanding will be effective only upon (a) the appointment by the Issuer, at the direction of at least a Majority of the Subordinated Notes, with the consent of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class, of a successor Portfolio Manager that is an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties reasonably comparable to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager hereunder, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as successor to the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, (iii) satisfies the Global Rating Agency Condition, (iv) shall not cause the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or the pool of Assets to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act and (v) shall not result in the imposition of any entity-level or withholding tax on the Issuer or the payments to the Holders or cause any other material adverse tax consequences to the Issuer and (b) written acceptance of appointment by such successor Portfolio Manager. The Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager to assume the duties and obligations of the removed or resigning Portfolio Manager. The Issuer, the Trustee and the successor Portfolio Manager shall take such action (or cause the outgoing Portfolio Manager to take such action) consistent with this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, as shall be necessary to effectuate any such succession. In the event that the successor manager has not been appointed or has not assumed the duties of the Portfolio Manager in writing within a 60-day period, any of the Portfolio Manager, a Majority of the Controlling Class or a Majority of the Subordinated Notes may petition a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Portfolio Manager, which appointment will not require the consent of, or be subject to the approval or disapproval of, the Issuer or any Holder (so long as such court appointed successor meets the requirements of clauses (a)(i) through (v) above).

(f) In the event of removal of the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement by the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, by the Trustee, the Issuer shall have all of the rights and remedies available with respect thereto at law or equity, and, without limiting the foregoing, the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, the Trustee may by notice in writing to the Portfolio Manager as provided under this Agreement terminate all the rights and obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement (except those that survive termination pursuant to subsection 13(d) above). Upon resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager in accordance with this Section 13 or Section 15 of this Agreement, as applicable, and upon acceptance by a successor Portfolio Manager of appointment, all authority and power of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement and the Indenture, whether with respect to the Assets or otherwise, shall automatically and without further action by any Person pass to and be vested in the successor Portfolio Manager.

(g) For so long as Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate of Acis Capital Management, L.P. is the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer will be permitted to use the "Acis" name; provided, however, that if the Portfolio Manager ceases to be Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate of Acis Capital Management, L.P., the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to change its name to remove all reference to the name "Acis" therefrom. In addition, the Portfolio

Manager, without the consent of the Issuer, may change the name of the Portfolio Manager.

14. Delegation; Assignments.

(a) Except as provided herein, the Portfolio Manager may not assign its rights or responsibilities hereunder without the written consent of the Issuer, at least a Majority of the Subordinated Notes and at least a Majority of the Controlling Class and satisfaction of the Global Rating Agency Condition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager may, with the consent of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class and without satisfaction of the Global Rating Agency Condition or the consent of any other Class of Notes, (i) assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder to an Affiliate provided that such Affiliate (A) has demonstrated ability, whether as an entity or by its personnel, to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement, (B) has the legal right and capacity to act as Portfolio Manager hereunder and (C) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of Assets to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act or (ii) enter into (or have its parent enter into) any consolidation or amalgamation with, or merger with or into, or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets to, another entity and, (A) at the time of such consolidation, merger, amalgamation or transfer the resulting, surviving or transferee entity assumes all the obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder generally and the other entity is solely a continuation of the Portfolio Manager in another corporate or similar form and has substantially the same staff and (B) such action does not cause the Issuer to be subject to tax in any jurisdiction outside of its jurisdiction of incorporation; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall deliver prior notice to the Rating Agencies then rating a Class of Notes of any assignment, delegation or combination made pursuant to this sentence. The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that pursuant to an agreement dated the date hereof in substantially the form of Annex A hereto (the "Collateral Administration Agreement") among the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and U.S. Bank National Association, as Collateral Administrator thereunder (in such capacity, the "Collateral Administrator"), the Issuer has retained the Collateral Administrator to prepare certain reports and other information with respect to the Collateral Obligations.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing to the extent that applicable law requires the consent of the Issuer to any "assignment" (as defined in the Advisers Act) of this Agreement to any Person, in whole or in part, by the Portfolio Manager, such requirement may be satisfied with respect to the Issuer and all holders (i) by obtaining consent to such assignment on behalf of the Issuer from any of the following persons as determined by the Portfolio Manager: (A) one or more directors of the Issuer independent from the Portfolio Manager, (B) the Independent Review Party, or (C) an advisory committee established by the Portfolio Manager; or (ii) in any other manner that is permitted pursuant to then applicable law. Any assignment consented to by the Issuer and such Holders shall bind the assignee hereunder in the same manner as the Portfolio Manager is bound. In addition, the assignee shall execute and deliver to the Issuer and the Trustee a counterpart of this Agreement naming such assignee as Portfolio Manager. Upon the execution and delivery of such a counterpart by the assignee, the Portfolio

Manager shall be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement, except with respect to its obligations arising under Section 11 of this Agreement prior to such assignment and except with respect to its obligations under subsection 3(i)(i) and Section 16 hereof.

(c) This Agreement shall not be assigned by the Issuer without the prior written consent of the Portfolio Manager, and unless the Global Rating Agency Condition has been satisfied in connection with such assignment, except in the case of assignment by the Issuer to (i) an entity which is a successor to the Issuer permitted under the Indenture, in which case such successor organization shall be bound hereunder and by the terms of said assignment in the same manner as the Issuer is bound thereunder or (ii) the Trustee as contemplated by the Granting Clause of the Indenture. In the event of any assignment by the Issuer, the Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its successor to execute and deliver to the Portfolio Manager such documents as the Portfolio Manager shall consider reasonably necessary to effect fully such assignment.

15. Termination by the Issuer for Cause.

This Agreement may be terminated, and the Portfolio Manager may be removed for cause (i) by at least a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes upon 10 days' prior written notice to the Portfolio Manager or (ii) by the Holders of at least 66-2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Subordinated Notes upon 10 days' prior written notice to the Portfolio Manager. For purposes of the first sentence of this Section 15, Notes owned by the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate thereof or an account or fund managed by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates shall be disregarded and deemed to be not Outstanding; provided that, Notes owned by a fund or an account managed by the Portfolio Manager or an Affiliate thereof will not be disregarded and will be deemed to be Outstanding if the voting rights with respect to such Notes are exercised by such fund or account or the client or beneficiary of such fund or account and not by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliate. No such termination or removal shall be effective until the date as of which a successor Portfolio Manager shall have agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and as specified in the Indenture. For purposes of determining "cause" with respect to any such termination of this Agreement or removal of the Portfolio Manager, such term includes any one of the following events:

(a) the Portfolio Manager willfully violates, or takes any action that it knows breaches, any material provision of this Agreement or the Indenture applicable to it in bad faith (not including a willful and intentional breach that results from a good faith dispute regarding reasonable alternative courses of action or interpretation of instructions);

(b) the Portfolio Manager breaches in any respect any provision of this Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it (other than as covered by clause (a) and it being understood that failure to meet any Coverage Test, any Concentration Limitation or the Collateral Quality Test is not such a violation) (except for any violation or breach that has not had, or could not reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on the Issuer) and fails to cure such breach within 30 days of a Responsible Officer receiving notice of such breach, unless, if such breach is remediable, the Portfolio Manager has taken action that the Portfolio Manager believes in good faith will remedy such breach, and such action does remedy such breach, within 60 days after a Responsible Officer receives notice thereof;

(c) the Portfolio Manager is wound up or dissolved or there is appointed over it or a substantial portion of its assets a receiver, administrator, administrative receiver, trustee or similar officer; or the Portfolio Manager (i) ceases to be able to, or admits in writing its inability to, pay its debts as they become due and payable, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of, or enters into any composition or arrangement with, its creditors generally; (ii) applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, assignee, custodian, liquidator or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Portfolio Manager or of any substantial part of its properties or assets, or authorizes such an application or consent, or proceedings seeking such appointment are commenced without such authorization, consent or application against the Portfolio Manager and continue undismissed for 60 days; (iii) authorizes or files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, or applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the application of any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, insolvency or dissolution, or authorizes such application or consent, or proceedings to such end are instituted against the Portfolio Manager without such authorization, application or consent and are approved as properly instituted and remain undismissed for 60 days or result in adjudication of bankruptcy or insolvency; or (iv) permits or suffers all or any substantial part of its properties or assets to be sequestered or attached by court order and the order remains undismissed for 60 days;

(d) the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Indenture that consists of a default in the payment of principal or interest on the Secured Notes when due and payable and results primarily from any material breach by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or under the Indenture, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period;

(e) the occurrence of an act by the Portfolio Manager that constitutes fraud or criminal activity in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement (as determined pursuant to a final adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction), or the Portfolio Manager being indicted for a criminal offense materially related to its business of providing asset management services;

(f) any senior executive officer of the Portfolio Manager (in the performance of his or her investment management duties) is indicted for a criminal offense materially related to the business of the Portfolio Manager providing asset management services and continues to have responsibility for the performance by the Portfolio Manager hereunder for a period of 10 days after such indictment; or

(g) the inability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its duties hereunder in accordance with the standard of care specified herein due to the termination of the Service Agreements, unless the Portfolio Manager believes in good faith that it will be able to either (i) secure reasonably equivalent substitute services to those that were performed for the Portfolio Manager under the Service Agreements or (ii) perform its duties hereunder in accordance with the applicable standard of care without engaging a third-party service provider, in each case, within 30 days, and the Portfolio Manager is in fact able to secure such services or perform such duties within such 30-day period.

If any of the events specified in the definition of "cause" in this Section 15 shall occur, the Portfolio Manager shall give prompt written notice thereof to the Issuer, each Rating Agency, each Holder of Notes and the Trustee upon the Portfolio Manager's becoming aware of the occurrence of such event. A Majority of the Controlling Class may waive any event described in (a), (b), (d), (e), (f) or (g) above as a basis for termination of this Agreement and removal of the Portfolio Manager under this Section 15.

16. Action Upon Termination.

(a) From and after the effective date of the termination of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement or resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager hereunder, the Portfolio Manager shall not be entitled to compensation for further services hereunder, but shall be paid all compensation accrued to the date of termination, as provided in Section 9 hereof (including any accrued and unpaid Subordinated Management Fee and Incentive Management Fee), and shall be entitled to receive any amounts owing under Section 11 hereof. Upon such termination, resignation or removal, the Portfolio Manager shall as soon as practicable:

(i) deliver to the Issuer all property and documents of the Trustee or the Issuer or otherwise relating to the Assets then in the custody of the Portfolio Manager; and

(ii) deliver to the Trustee an accounting with respect to the books and records delivered to the Trustee or the successor Portfolio Manager appointed pursuant to subsection 13(e) hereof.

Notwithstanding such termination, resignation or removal, the Portfolio Manager shall remain liable to the extent set forth herein (but subject to Section 11 hereof) for its acts or omissions hereunder arising prior to termination and for any expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in respect of or arising out of a breach of the representations and warranties made by the Portfolio Manager in subsection 17(b) hereof or from any failure of the Portfolio Manager to comply with the provisions of this Section 16.

(b) The Portfolio Manager agrees that, notwithstanding any termination, it shall reasonably cooperate in any Proceeding arising in connection with this Agreement, the Indenture or any of the Assets (excluding any such Proceeding in which claims are asserted against the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager) upon receipt of appropriate indemnification and expense reimbursement.

17. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants to the Portfolio Manager as follows:

(i) The Issuer has been duly incorporated and is validly existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands, has the full corporate power and authority to own its assets and the securities proposed to be owned by it and included in the Assets and to transact the business in which it is presently engaged and is duly qualified under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Indenture, the Hedge Agreements, the Collateral Administration Agreement or the Notes (collectively, the "Issuer Documents") would require, such qualification, except for failures to be so qualified, authorized or licensed that would not in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer.

(ii) The Issuer has the necessary corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform each of the Issuer Documents and all obligations required thereunder, and has taken all necessary action to authorize each of the Issuer Documents on the terms and conditions hereof and thereof and the execution, delivery and performance of each of the Issuer Documents and the performance of all obligations imposed upon it hereunder and thereunder. No consent of any other Person including, without limitation, shareholders and creditors of the Issuer, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority, other than those that may be required under state securities or "blue sky" laws and those that have been or shall be obtained in connection with the Indenture and the issuance of the Notes, is required by the Issuer in connection with the Issuer Documents or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of the Issuer Documents or the obligations imposed upon it hereunder or thereunder. This Agreement constitutes, and each instrument or document required hereunder, when executed and delivered hereunder, shall constitute, the legally valid and binding obligation of the Issuer enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with its terms, subject, as to enforcement, to (a) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights, as such laws would apply in the event of any bankruptcy, receivership, insolvency or similar event applicable to the Issuer and (b) general equitable principles (whether enforceability of such principles is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity).

(iii) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement and the documents and instruments required hereunder and thereunder do not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Issuer, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Issuer, or the Governing Instruments of, or any securities issued by, the Issuer or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Issuer is a party or by which the Issuer or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer, and do not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking (other than the lien of the Indenture).

(iv) The Issuer is not required to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act.

(v) The Issuer is not in violation of its Governing Instruments or in breach or violation of or in default under the Indenture or any other contract or agreement to which it is a party or by which it or any of its assets may be bound, or any applicable statute or any rule, regulation or order (including, without limitation, any anti-money laundering statute or related rule, regulation or order) of any court, government agency or body having jurisdiction over the Issuer or its properties, the breach or violation of which or default under which would have a material adverse effect on the validity or enforceability of this Agreement or the performance by the Issuer of its duties hereunder or under the Collateral Administration Agreement.

(vi) True and complete copies of the Indenture and the Issuer's Governing Instruments have been delivered to the Portfolio Manager.

(vii) The Issuer has not taken any action or engaged in any activity, either directly or through an agent, that could cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a United States trade or business for federal income tax purposes.

(viii) The Issuer is not a "bank" for purposes of Section 881 (c)(3)(A) of the Code.

(ix) The Issuer is a "qualified client" as such term is defined under the Advisers Act.

(x) The Issuer understands that the rules and regulations administered by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") prohibit, among other things, the engagement in transactions with, and the provision of services to, certain countries, territories, entities and individuals. The lists of OFAC prohibited countries, territories, persons and entities can be found on the OFAC website at <http://www.treas.gov/ofac>. In addition, the programs administered by OFAC ("OFAC Programs") prohibit dealing with individuals or entities in certain countries regardless of whether such individuals or entities appear on the OFAC lists. To the best of its knowledge, none of:

(1) the Issuer; (2) any person controlling or controlled by the Issuer; (3) any person having a beneficial interest in the Issuer; or (4) any person for whom the Issuer is acting as agent or nominee in connection with this investment is a country, territory, individual or entity named on an OFAC list, or is a person or entity prohibited under the OFAC Programs.

(xi) By entering into this Agreement, the Issuer represents and warrants that it has received and had an opportunity to review a current copy of Part 2 of the Form ADV of Acis Capital Management, L.P., at least forty-eight hours prior to its entering into this Agreement.

The Issuer agrees to deliver a true and complete copy of each amendment to the documents referred to in subsection 17(a)(v) above to the Portfolio Manager as promptly as practicable after its adoption or execution.

(b) The Portfolio Manager hereby represents and warrants to the Issuer as follows:

(i) The Portfolio Manager is a limited partnership duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has full power and authority to own its assets and to transact the business in which it is currently engaged and is duly qualified and in good standing under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of this Agreement or the Collateral Administration Agreement (together with this Agreement, the "Manager Documents") would require such qualification, except for those jurisdictions in which the failure to be so qualified, authorized or licensed would not have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or on the ability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations under, or on the validity or enforceability of, the Manager Documents and the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager; the Portfolio Manager is registered as an investment adviser under the Advisers Act.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform each of the Manager Documents and all obligations required hereunder and under the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, and has taken all necessary action to authorize each of the Manager Documents on the terms and conditions hereof and thereof and the execution, delivery and performance of each of the Manager Documents and all obligations required hereunder and thereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager. No consent of any other Person, including, without limitation, creditors of the Portfolio Manager, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority is required by the Portfolio Manager in connection with the Manager Documents or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of the Manager

Documents or the obligations required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager. Each of the Manager Documents has been, and each instrument and document required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall be, executed and delivered by a duly authorized officer of the Portfolio Manager, and each of the Manager Documents constitutes, and each instrument and document required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture when executed and delivered by the Portfolio Manager hereunder or thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall constitute, the valid and legally binding obligations of the Portfolio Manager enforceable against the Portfolio Manager in accordance with their terms, subject to (a) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights and (b) general equitable principles.

(iii) The execution, delivery and performance of the Manager Documents and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager and the documents and instruments required hereunder or thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Portfolio Manager, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Portfolio Manager, or the Governing Instruments of, or any securities issued by the Portfolio Manager or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Portfolio Manager is a party or by which the Portfolio Manager or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or its ability to perform its obligations under the Manager Documents, and shall not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking, the existence of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or its ability to perform its obligations under the Manager Documents.

(iv) There is no charge, investigation, action, suit or proceeding before or by any court pending or, to the best knowledge of the Portfolio Manager, threatened that, if determined adversely to the Portfolio Manager, would have a material adverse effect upon the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under, or on the validity or enforceability of, the Manager Documents and the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager hereunder.

(v) The Portfolio Manager is authorized to carry on its business in the United States and in all other jurisdictions necessary to the performance of its obligations under the Manager Documents and the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager.

(vi) The Portfolio Manager is not in violation of its Governing Instruments or in breach or violation of or in default under any contract or agreement to which it is a party or by which it or any of its property may be bound, or any applicable statute or any rule, regulation or order of any court, government agency or body having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or its properties, the breach or violation of which or default under which would have a material adverse effect on the validity or enforceability of the Manager Documents or the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, or the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or thereunder.

(vii) The information concerning the Portfolio Manager contained under the headings entitled "Summary—Portfolio Manager", "The Portfolio Manager" (including Part 2 of the Portfolio Manager's Form ADV referred to therein), "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—Conflicts of Interest Involving the Portfolio Manager", "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager—Past Performance Not Indicative of Future Results", "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager—The Portfolio Manager Relies on Highland to Perform Certain Services" and "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager—Litigation Involving Acis and Highland" in the Offering Circular, as of the respective dates of the Offering Circular and as of the Closing Date, is true in all material respects and does not omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

19. Binding Nature of Agreement; Successors and Assigns.

Subject to Section 14 hereof, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and permitted assigns as provided herein.

20. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, inducements and conditions, express or implied, oral or written, of any nature whatsoever with respect to the subject matter hereof. The express terms hereof control and supersede any course of performance and/or usage of the trade inconsistent with any of the terms hereof.

21. Amendment.

This Agreement may not be modified or amended other than by an agreement in writing executed by the parties hereto and (other than in respect of a modification or amendment of the type that may be made to the Indenture without Holder consent) (i) the consent of at least a Majority of each Class of Notes materially and adversely effected thereby (such determination to be made in the same manner as determining whether an amendment to the Indenture materially and adversely effects the Notes), (ii) the consent of at least a Majority of the Subordinated Notes, (iii) the consent of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class and (iv) satisfaction of the Global Rating Agency Condition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto, without the consent of any Holders, may amend or modify any provision of this agreement to (i) reflect a change that is of an inconsequential nature, (ii) correct inconsistencies, typographical or other errors, defects or ambiguities, (iii) conform this Agreement to the Offering Circular or the Indenture (as it may be amended from time to time) or (iv) reflect a change that is necessary or desirable to satisfy any requirements, conditions or guidelines contained in any opinion, directive, order, ruling or regulation (including ERISA, the Code, the Advisers Act and the Investment Company Act) of any U.S. federal or state agency or contained in any U.S. federal or state statute. In addition, Schedule 1 may be amended or modified by the parties hereto without the consent of any Holder in accordance with the last sentence of such Schedule.

22. Conflict with the Indenture.

In the event that this Agreement requires any action to be taken with respect to any matter and the Indenture requires that a different action be taken with respect to such matter, and such actions are mutually exclusive, the provisions of the Indenture (as in effect on the date hereof or as amended or supplemented, with the consent of the Portfolio Manager if such consent is required by Section 3(b)) in respect thereof shall control.

23. Priority of Payments.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that the payment of all amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to this Agreement shall be subordinated to the extent set forth in, and the Portfolio Manager agrees to be bound by the provisions of, Article 11 and Section 15.1 of the Indenture as if the Portfolio Manager were a party to the Indenture and each of the Portfolio Manager and Issuer hereby consents to the assignment of this Agreement as provided in Section 15.1 of the Indenture.

24. Governing Law; Jury Trial.

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICTS OF LAWS PROVISIONS THEREOF). EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT HAS RECEIVED FULL AND SUFFICIENT CONSIDERATION FOR THIS PROVISION AND THAT THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR SUCH PARTIES ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

25. Indulgences Not Waivers.

Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of any party hereto to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise of the same or of any other right, remedy, power or privilege, nor shall any waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any occurrence be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any other occurrence. No waiver shall be effective unless it is in writing and is signed by the party asserted to have granted such waiver.

26. Titles Not to Affect Interpretation.

The titles of Sections and subsections of this Agreement are for convenience only, and they neither form a part of this Agreement nor are they to be used in the construction or interpretation hereof.

27. Execution in Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

28. Provisions Separable.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, in case any provision in this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable as written, such provision shall be construed in the manner most closely resembling the apparent intent of the parties with respect to such provision so as to be valid, legal and enforceable; provided, however, that if there is no basis for such a construction, to the fullest extent permitted by law, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability and, unless the ineffectiveness of such provision destroys the basis of the bargain for one of the parties to this Agreement, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof or thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

29. Number and Gender.

Words used herein, regardless of the number and gender specifically used, shall be deemed and construed to include any other number, singular or plural, and any other gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, as the context requires.

30. Jurisdiction and Venue.

The parties to this Agreement irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the Notes or the Indenture, and the parties irrevocably agree that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York state or federal court. The parties to this Agreement irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent they may legally do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding. The parties to this Agreement irrevocably consent to the service of any and all process in any action or proceeding by the mailing or delivery of copies of such process to it in accordance with Section 18. The parties agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

31. Third Party Beneficiaries.

No party, including any Holder of Notes, is a third party beneficiary of this Agreement.

32. Miscellaneous.

(a) With respect to any Defaulted Obligation, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may instruct the agent or the trustee for such Defaulted Obligation to enforce the Issuer's rights under the Underlying Instruments governing such Defaulted Obligation and under any applicable law, rule or regulation in any manner permitted under the Indenture that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable business judgment will be in the best interests of the Issuer. In the event any Offer is made with respect to any Collateral Obligation or Equity Security, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may take such action as is permitted by the Indenture and that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable business judgment will be in the best interests of the Issuer.

(b) Without prejudice to subsection 15(f) hereof, any corporation, partnership or limited liability company into which the Portfolio Manager may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Portfolio Manager shall be a party, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company succeeding to all or substantially all of the collateral management business of the Portfolio Manager, shall be the successor to the Portfolio Manager without any further action by the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Holders or any other Person or entity; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall give prompt written notice to each Rating Agency upon any such occurrence.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein or in the Indenture to the contrary, with respect to any report, information, communication, request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver to be given to a Rating Agency by the Issuer, the Issuer shall instead provide such information to the Portfolio Manager, and the Portfolio Manager shall then provide such information as well as any information related to the transaction requested by any Rating Agency directly from the Portfolio Manager to the applicable Rating Agencies via the website established on behalf of the Issuer for purposes of Rule 17g-5 under the Exchange Act.

(d) If the Issuer shall receive any written or oral communication from any Rating Agency (or any of their respective officers, directors or employees) with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby or in any way relating to the Notes, the Issuer agrees to refrain from communicating with such Rating Agency and to promptly (and, in any event, within one Business Day) notify the Portfolio Manager of such communication. The Issuer agrees to coordinate with the Portfolio Manager with respect to any communication to a Rating Agency and further agrees that in no event shall it engage in any oral or written communication with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby or in any way relating to the Notes with any Rating Agency (or any of their respective officers, directors or employees) without the participation of the Portfolio Manager.

33. Power of Attorney.

The Issuer hereby makes, constitutes and appoints each of Josh Terry, Hunter Covitz and Philip Braner, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact (each an "Attorney" and together the "Attorneys"), jointly and severally with full power and authority in its name, place and stead, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Indenture (a) to prepare, sign and deliver tax documentation, transfer documentation and all other documentation in connection with the acquisition and sale by the Issuer of Collateral Obligations and (b) to (i) vote in its discretion any securities, instruments or obligations included in the Assets, (ii) execute proxies, waivers, consents and other instruments with respect to such Collateral Obligations, (iii) endorse, transfer or deliver such securities, instruments and obligations, (iv) participate in or consent (or decline to consent) to any modification, work-out, restructuring, bankruptcy proceeding, class action, plan of reorganization, merger, combination, consolidation, liquidation or similar plan or transaction with regard to such Collateral Obligations and (v) take any other action specified in Section 3 of this Agreement. This grant of power of attorney will expire (a), with respect to each Attorney (and to each substitute appointed by such Attorney), when such Attorney ceases to be an officer or employee of Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate thereof, acting on behalf of Acis Capital Management, L.P. or (b) upon (x) termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms or (y) any assignment by the Portfolio Manager of its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with Section 14 hereof.

SCHEDULE 1

CERTAIN TAX RESTRICTIONS

The Issuer[1] shall follow the following restrictions:

(1) Investment Restrictions relating to loan origination within the United States.

(A) The Issuer shall not make loans, shall not sign a loan agreement as an original lender, shall not purchase a loan until such loan has been closed for at least 48 hours and shall not, in the case of any loan the origination of which has not yet closed, commit the Issuer to acquire a loan earlier than 48 hours after the Person from whom the Issuer will purchase such loan is legally committed to acquire, participate in or make the loan (and such legal commitment by the seller of the loan to the Issuer is independent from and is not conditioned in any way on the Issuer's purchase of (or commitment to purchase) the loan from the seller). Notwithstanding this requirement, the Issuer is permitted to purchase a Publicly Issued Debt Security from an underwriter as part of the original issuance of the Publicly Issued Debt Security.

(B) The Issuer shall not, directly or indirectly, purchase (and will not enter into a commitment to purchase, whether or not in writing (or otherwise agree to acquire an economic, beneficial or derivative interest in)) a loan from the Portfolio Manager or one of its Affiliates if the Portfolio Manager or one of its Affiliates is lead or joint syndication agent in the loan syndicate, the originator, underwriter, placement agent or similar promoter of the loan unless (i) it has been 90 days since the loan was outstanding, issued and originated, (ii) the holder of the loan did not identify the loan as intended for sale to the Issuer until at least 60 days after the loan was issued; (iii) the price paid by the Issuer for such a loan is its fair market value on the date of the purchase, (iv) the employees or agents of the Portfolio Manager responsible for selecting the loan for the Issuer were not involved in the origination of the loan and (v) at all times after the acquisition, (A) the Issuer owns less than 50% of the aggregate principal amount of the borrowing that includes such Collateral Obligation and (B) less than 50% of the Issuer's assets are comprised of Collateral Obligations for which the Portfolio Manager or one of its Affiliates was lead or joint syndication agent in the loan syndicate, the originator, underwriter, placement agent or similar promoter of the Collateral Obligation.

(C) Except as set forth in subparagraph (I) or (II) of this paragraph (1)(C), the Issuer shall not (i) negotiate the terms of any loan, (ii) have any discussions with any obligor on a loan or the issuer of other Collateral Obligations, except for due diligence or informational purposes after all the material terms and conditions of the related Collateral Obligation are fixed and binding or (iii) structure or influence the terms of any Collateral Obligation; provided that the Issuer may (x) consent to or withhold consent to any proposed amendments, supplements or other modifications of the terms of any Collateral Obligation after such Collateral Obligation is acquired by the Issuer, (y) negotiate with respect to the terms of purchase of any loan by the Issuer and communicate its standard terms and conditions for such purchase to the agent bank or its affiliates and (z) provide comments as to mistakes or inconsistencies in loan documents (including with respect to any provisions that are inconsistent with the terms and conditions of purchase of the loan by the Issuer). The Issuer will not acquire a loan with the expectation of restructuring or "working-out" the loan. For purposes of this paragraph (1)(C), the Issuer will be treated as acquiring a new loan by reason of a modification to an existing loan that is treated as a significant modification for purposes of Treasury regulations section 1.1001-3, and the Issuer will not be treated as acquiring a new loan by reason of a modification to an existing loan that is not treated as a significant modification for purposes of Treasury regulations section 1.1001-3. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary,

(I) if, at the time of acquisition, a loan was performing and there was no reasonable expectation that the loan would likely default, and the loan subsequently defaults or the Portfolio Manager reasonably expects the loan to default, the Issuer may renegotiate the terms of the loan with the debtor or other creditors and, may participate on a creditor's committee with respect to the loan to protect its investment, but the Issuer may not advance any additional funds (other than in compliance with the other provisions in these guidelines); and

(II) the Portfolio Manager, any affiliate thereof, and an ETB Subsidiary of the Issuer also may, with respect to a loan held by the ETB Subsidiary (and, in the case of the Invesment Manager, a loan issued by the debtor as part of the same issuance as the loan held by the ETB Subsidiary), negotiate with a debtor or other creditors or participate on a creditors' committee if such loan held by the ETB Subsidiary is held by such ETB Subsidiary and not by the Issuer during any period of time the workout is being negotiated.

In all other cases, except as described herein, neither the Issuer nor any affiliate thereof will negotiate with a debtor or other creditors or participate on a creditors' committee without the Issuer having received advice of White & Case LLP or an opinion of other nationally recognized U.S. tax counsel experienced in such matters that such activity will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis.

(D) No Collateral Obligation shall be purchased by the Issuer on terms such that the Issuer receives the benefit of a fee for underwriting, syndication or placement services, or other services connected with structuring the terms, marketing or placement of the Collateral Obligation (which shall not include any discount or fee for the use of or time value of money or commitment fees or any discount or fee based on market conditions at the time the Issuer purchases or commits to purchase the Collateral Obligation).

(E) If the Issuer makes a commitment to purchase a loan that is not outstanding at the time that the Issuer makes the commitment, (i) such commitment will be subject to a satisfactory review of the terms and conditions contained in the loan documentation such that, if the loan documentation or the documentation pursuant to which the Issuer will purchase the loan from the agent bank or syndicate member is not acceptable to the Issuer, the Issuer will not be obligated to purchase the loan and (ii) the actual purchase by the Issuer will not occur earlier than 48 hours after the closing and full funding of the loan.

(F) The Issuer cannot have a contractual relationship with the obligor with respect to a loan until the Issuer actually closes the purchase of such loan.

(G) On the date of the legal document closing of a loan, the Issuer cannot be a signatory on the lending agreement governing such loan and, on such date, the lending agreement and other agreements and documents relating to such loan to which the obligor, or any of its agents, is a party will not list the Issuer as a "Lender" or otherwise list the Issuer as a party to such loan, or to such lending agreement or such other agreements or documents. No lending institution with respect to such loan will have the power to bind the Issuer to fund such loan directly with the obligor thereof prior to the closing of the purchase of such loan by the Issuer.

(H) The Issuer cannot purchase or commit to purchase a loan that is a term loan if it would cause the Issuer to own more than 50% of the aggregate principal amount of all term loans issued under the related credit agreement, determined as of the date of acquisition.

(I) The Issuer will not acquire an interest in a Collateral Obligation that consists of, or includes, a revolving or delayed draw credit facility unless (i) the underlying loan documents were negotiated, finalized and executed prior to the Issuer's commitment to purchase such interest, (ii) all the terms of any advance required to be made by the Issuer thereunder will be fixed as of the date of the Issuer's purchase (or determinable under a formula that is fixed as of such date), (iii) such revolving or delayed draw credit facility is a "fully committed loan" (i.e., under its terms, the Issuer has no discretion as to whether to make advances thereunder provided all the conditions thereto have been satisfied), (iv) (a) such revolving or delayed draw credit facility is acquired in connection with a term loan that the Issuer intends to hold at least as long as the revolving or delayed draw credit facility or (b) an advance of more than a de minimis amount has been made by a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Issuer and (v) the Issuer acquires less than 25% of the commitment amount of the revolver or delayed draw loan.

(J) If a Collateral Obligation requires the Issuer to participate in a letter of credit issued or to be issued to a borrower (directly or through a synthetic letter of credit structure), such Collateral Obligation only will be acquired and held in connection with an interest in a related term loan where the amount of such interest is at least as large as the Issuer's potential exposure under the letter of credit. All of the terms of any letter of credit in which the Issuer acquires an interest must have been fully negotiated no later than the original legal document closing of such credit facility.

(K) Any agent bank or syndicate members that are acting within the United States will not act on behalf of the Issuer as its agent when negotiating the economic terms of a loan with the obligor. Such agent bank or syndicate member may, however, seek, and the Issuer may respond to, requests for indications of interest.

(L) The Issuer will not hold itself out (or otherwise be held out) as originating loans.

(2) Investment Restrictions relating to activities (other than loan origination).

(A) The Issuer will not perform any services (e.g., loan servicing) for the obligor, the agent bank or a syndicate member in connection with a Collateral Obligation.

(B) The Issuer will invest in Collateral Obligations only with the intent of receiving interest and principal payment with respect to such obligations, or of selling the obligations for capital appreciation, and will not invest in Collateral Obligations with the goal of seeking a liquidation of the obligor of the security in order to obtain an interest in assets of the issuer that are located within the United States.

(C) The Issuer will not act as a dealer in stocks or securities or perform any services for others with respect to its investments. For this purpose,

"dealer" means a merchant of stocks or securities who is regularly engaged as a merchant in purchasing stocks and securities and selling them to customers with a view to the gains and profits that may be derived therefrom.

(D) The Issuer shall not hold itself out (or otherwise be held out) or take any actions (including making any filing with governmental agencies) that cause it to be treated as (i) making a market in Collateral Obligations, (ii) engaged in the business of insurance or guarantying debt obligations, (iii) a dealer in financial derivatives, (iv) a bank or (v) ready to enter into either side of a derivatives transaction with members of the public in the ordinary course of its business.

(E) The Issuer will not make a claim for exemption from U.S. withholding tax to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") on the basis that income of the Issuer is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States, and in particular, shall not file an IRS Form W-8ECI (or any successor form) with any withholding agent with respect to any loan.

(3) Investment Restrictions relating to the nature of certain investments.

(A) The Issuer shall not (i) acquire or enter into any Synthetic Security with respect to any Reference Obligation the direct acquisition of which would violate any provision of this Schedule 1 or (ii) use Synthetic Securities as a means of making advances to the Synthetic Security Counterparty following the date on which the Synthetic Security is acquired or entered into (for the avoidance of doubt, the establishment of Synthetic Security collateral accounts and the payment of Synthetic Security Counterparties from the amounts on deposit therein, in each case in accordance with the Agreement, shall not constitute the making of advances).

(B) No Synthetic Security acquired by the Issuer shall, through an agreement, arrangement or understanding (i) legally require or cause the Synthetic Security Counterparty to be commercially compelled to own or hold the Related Obligation while the Synthetic Security remains in effect or (ii) require by its terms the delivery of reports or other information relating to the Reference Obligation if the effect of such requirement is that the purchaser of credit protection thereunder would be required to own the applicable Reference Obligation.

(C) With respect to each Synthetic Security: (i) the criteria used to determine whether to enter into any particular synthetic security is similar to the criteria used by the Issuer in making investment decisions in debt securities; (ii) the Synthetic Security is acquired by or entered into by the Issuer for its own account and for investment purposes with the expectation of realizing a profit from income earned on the securities and/or any rise in their value during the interval of time between their purchase and sale or hedging purposes and not with an intention to trade or to sell for a short-term profit; (iii) the Issuer enters into the Synthetic Security with a counterparty that is a broker-dealer or a derivatives dealer; (iv) the Issuer does not solicit, advertise or publish to customers the Issuer's ability to enter into Synthetic Securities; (v) any net payment owed by the Issuer to the Synthetic Security Counterparty is not determined by reference, in whole or in part, to any actual loss incurred by the Synthetic Security Counterparty or any other designated person; (vi) the Synthetic Security (except such Synthetic Securities that are credit-linked notes or similar securities documented by an indenture, in which case the other provisions of this Schedule 1 apply) is structured as a default swap and is documented by a "Confirmation" as referred to in the form of ISDA Master Agreement published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc.; (vii) the Issuer will not treat the Synthetic Security as insurance, reinsurance, indemnity bonds, guarantees, guarantee bonds or suretyship contracts for any purposes; and (viii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty, to the Issuer's knowledge, is not regulated or licensed to do business as an insurance company or a reinsurance company in any jurisdiction.

(D) The Issuer shall not purchase, acquire or enter into (whether directly, as a part of a "unit" with a Collateral Obligation, in exchange for or upon conversion of a Collateral Obligation or otherwise) any asset or any derivative interest (including, without limitation, any option, warrant or Synthetic Security) with respect to any asset, if such asset or, in the case of such derivative interest the asset which is the subject of such derivative interest (including a Reference Obligation), is treated as (A) an equity interest in an entity or vehicle that is classified for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a partnership or grantor trust (or otherwise as a pass-through entity or disregarded entity), unless (i) all of the assets of such entity could have been purchased by the Issuer in accordance with the restrictions contained in this Schedule 1 and are (x) treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes or (y) ownership interests in entities treated as corporations for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (ii) such entity is not treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States and does not otherwise have income that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis and (iii) the organizational documents for such entity prohibits such entity from being treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States or otherwise having income that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis, (B) a residual interest in a "REMIC" (as such term is defined in the Code), (C) an ownership interest in a "FASIT" (as such term is defined in the Code), (D) an equity interest in a "United States real property holding corporation" ("USRPHC") (as such term is defined in the Code), such as a loan or security, in either case, convertible into equity of a USRPHC or a loan that has the right to share, directly or indirectly, in the appreciation of U.S. real estate or (E) an asset (located in the United States) that is neither debt nor equity for US federal income tax purposes. If at any time pursuant to a bankruptcy or other insolvency proceeding or workout of a debt obligation or otherwise, the Issuer would acquire in exchange for a Collateral Obligation (or otherwise would acquire) assets that do not constitute stock (or right to purchase stock) of a corporation (or a partnership not permitted to be acquired pursuant to clause (A) of this paragraph (iii)) or debt instruments for U.S. federal income tax purposes ("Non-Securities Assets"), the Issuer shall not acquire such Non-Securities Assets without establishing a subsidiary treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes to own such Non-Securities Assets (an "ETB Subsidiary"); provided that stock (or the right to purchase stock) of a United States real property holding corporation shall be treated as a Non-Securities Asset for the purpose of this paragraph and any such stock or any US real property shall be held through an ETB Subsidiary that is a non-U.S. corporation.

(4) Definitions and exceptions to Investment Restrictions.

(A) For purposes of this Schedule 1, (i) the term "Portfolio Manager" shall mean the Portfolio Manager when it is acting through any agent (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall include any entity or natural person who directly or indirectly performs any activities on behalf of the Portfolio Manager), employee, office, fixed place of business or permanent establishment, (ii) the term "loan" shall mean any loan (without regard to this definition), debt security or other investment that is treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (iii) the term "Collateral Obligation" shall mean any loan, debt security, or other investment, as the case may be, (iv) the term "Reference Obligation" shall mean a debt security or other obligation based upon which a party's payments under a Synthetic Security are determined, (v) the term "Synthetic Security" shall mean any swap transaction or security, other than a participation interest in a loan, that has payments associated with either payments of interest and/or principal on a Reference Obligation or the credit performance of a Reference Obligation, (vi) the term "Synthetic Security Counterparty" shall mean an entity (other than the Issuer) required to make payments on a Synthetic Security (including any guarantor); and (vii) "Publicly Issued Debt Security" shall mean a Security either (a) that was issued pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") in a firm commitment or best efforts underwriting for which no Issuer Affiliate served as underwriter or (b)(i) privately placed or eligible for resale under Rule 144A or Regulation S, in each case, (ii) purchased by the Issuer from a person other than the obligor of the Security and where the Issuer has no contractual agreements with the obligor with respect to such Security other than obligations of the obligor under the Security effective upon or after the Issuer's closing of the purchase of such Security and (iii) originally issued in an offering with an offering memorandum, private placement memorandum or similar offering document, and in each case with respect to which the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager (and Affiliates and accounts and funds managed or controlled by the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate) either (1) did not at original issuance acquire 50% or more of the aggregate principal amount of such Security or 50% or more of the aggregate principal amount of any other class of Securities offered by the issuer of the Security in the offering and any related offering or (2) did not at original issuance acquire 33 1/3% or more of the aggregate principal amount of all classes of Securities offered by the issuer of such Security in the offering and any related offering; and (viii) "Security" shall mean a bond, note or security that is issued under a trust indenture or similar agreement under which a trustee is appointed to act on behalf of the holders of such a bond, note or security.

(B) In furtherance and not in limitation of the Portfolio Management Agreement and this Schedule 1, the Issuer shall comply with all of the provisions set forth in this schedule, unless with respect to a particular transaction, the Issuer shall have received advice of White & Case LLP or an opinion of counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters, that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such transaction, the Issuer's failure to comply with one or more of such provisions will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis. The provisions set forth in this Schedule 1 may be amended, eliminated or supplemented by the Issuer if the Issuer shall have received advice of White & Case LLP or an opinion of tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters that the Issuer's compliance with such amended provisions or supplemental provisions or the failure to comply with such provisions proposed to be eliminated, as the case may be, will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis.

WHEREAS, the Issuer wishes to engage the Collateral Administrator to perform on its behalf certain administrative duties of the Issuer with respect to the Assets pursuant to the Indenture; and

WHEREAS, the Collateral Administrator, on behalf of the Issuer, is prepared to perform certain specified obligations of the Issuer under the Indenture and certain other services as specified herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in the Indenture.

2. Powers and Duties of the Collateral Administrator and the Portfolio Manager.

(vii) Assist the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager in preparing the report required to be prepared pursuant to Section 7.18(c)(i) of the Indenture, on the basis of information contained in the Asset database or provided to the Collateral Administrator by the Portfolio Manager or the Issuer;

(viii) Assist the Independent certified public accountants in the preparation of those reports required under Section 10.9 of the Indenture;

(ix) Reasonably cooperate with the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager in providing the Rating Agencies with such additional information in the possession of the Collateral Administrator as may be reasonably requested by the Rating Agencies under Section 10.10 of the Indenture;

(x) Notify the Portfolio Manager upon receiving any documents, legal opinions or any other information including, without limitation, any notices, reports, requests for waiver, consent requests or any other requests relating to corporate actions affecting the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments; and

(xi) Provide the Portfolio Manager with such other information as may be reasonably requested by the Portfolio Manager and as is within the possession of the Collateral Administrator.

(c) Not later than two Business Days prior to the day on which each Monthly Report or Distribution Report is required to be provided by the Issuer pursuant to Section 10.7(a) or Section 10.7(b) of the Indenture, respectively, the Collateral Administrator shall prepare the Monthly Report or Distribution Report, as applicable, in accordance with the Indenture, using the information contained in the Asset database created by the Collateral Administrator pursuant to Section 2(b) above and any other Asset information normally maintained by USB, in its capacity as Trustee, and subject to the Collateral Administrator's receipt from the Portfolio Manager of such information as the Collateral Administrator shall reasonably request in order to prepare such Monthly Report or Distribution Report with respect to the Assets that is not contained in such Asset database or normally maintained by USB, as Trustee, each item required to be stated in such Monthly Report or Distribution Report in accordance with the Indenture.

(d) Not more than two Business Days after receiving an Issuer Request requesting information regarding redemption pursuant to Sections 9.2 and 9.6 of the Indenture, the Collateral Administrator shall compute the information required to be provided by the Issuer in the Redemption Date notice pursuant to Sections 9.3 and 9.6 of the Indenture.

(e) The Collateral Administrator shall assist the Portfolio Manager in the preparation of such other reports that may be required by the Indenture and that are reasonably requested in writing by the Portfolio Manager and agreed to by the Collateral Administrator.

(f) Upon written notification by the Portfolio Manager of a proposed purchase of any Collateral Obligation pursuant to Section 12.2 of the Indenture (accompanied by such information concerning the Collateral Obligation to be purchased as may be necessary to make the calculations referred to below), the Collateral Administrator shall calculate, on a pro forma basis, each criterion included in the Investment Criteria set forth in Section 12.2(a) of the Indenture as a condition to such purchase in accordance with the Indenture and provide the results of such calculations to the Portfolio Manager so that the Portfolio Manager may determine whether such purchase is permitted by the Indenture. The Collateral Administrator shall deliver a draft of such calculation to the Portfolio Manager to the extent possible promptly after the later of (i) notification of such proposed purchase by the Portfolio Manager and (ii) delivery of all information to the Collateral Administrator reasonably necessary to complete such calculations; provided such notification or information is received by 12:00 Noon (Chicago time) on such date; otherwise such notification or information will be deemed made at 9:00a.m. (Chicago time), on the next succeeding Business Day. For the avoidance of doubt, the Collateral Administrator shall have no obligation to determine whether any item of the Assets meets the definition of "Collateral Obligation".

(g) Upon written notification by the Portfolio Manager of a proposed sale of any Collateral Obligation pursuant to Section 12.1 of the Indenture (accompanied by the Portfolio Manager's designation of the subsection of Section 12.1 of the Indenture pursuant to which it proposes to effect such sale), the Collateral Administrator shall calculate each criterion set forth in the designated subsection of Section 12.1 of the Indenture, if any, as a condition to such disposition in accordance with the Indenture and provide the results of such calculations to the Portfolio Manager so that the Portfolio Manager may determine whether such sale is permitted by the Indenture. The Collateral Administrator shall deliver a draft of such calculations to the Portfolio Manager to the extent possible promptly after the later of (i) notification of such proposed sale by the Portfolio Manager and (ii) delivery of all information to the Collateral Administrator reasonably necessary to complete such calculations; provided such notification or information is received by 12:00 Noon (Chicago time) on such date; otherwise such notification or information will be deemed made at 9:00a.m. (Chicago time), on the next succeeding Business Day.

(h) In the event the Portfolio Manager does not provide the Collateral Administrator the items necessary to complete the calculations required by Sections 2(f) and (g) above and/or the Portfolio Manager proceeds with a sale or purchase of the applicable Collateral Obligations prior to the time the Collateral Administrator delivers such calculations, neither the Collateral Administrator nor the Trustee shall be responsible for determining whether the provisions of the Indenture have been satisfied and each of the Trustee and Collateral Administrator shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon the instructions of the Portfolio Manager in all respects, including but not limited to instructions (which may be in the form of trade tickets) to release the applicable Collateral Obligation from the lien of the Indenture or to acquire the applicable Collateral Obligations. In the event the Portfolio Manager consummates a sale or purchase prior to receiving the calculations of the Collateral Administrator, the Collateral Administrator shall be under no duty, and shall incur no liability, to perform the calculations set forth in Sections 2(f) and (g) above.

(i) The Portfolio Manager shall cooperate with the Collateral Administrator in connection with the preparation (including the calculations required hereunder) by the Collateral Administrator of all reports, instructions, statements, the Monthly Reports, Distribution Reports, notices of Redemption, and the certificates required in connection with the purchase and sale of Collateral Obligations under the Indenture. The Portfolio Manager shall review and verify the contents of the aforesaid reports, instructions, statements and certificates and to the extent any of the information in such reports, instructions, statements and certificates conflicts with data or calculations in the records of the Portfolio Manager, the Portfolio Manager shall notify the Collateral Administrator of such discrepancy and use commercially reasonable efforts to assist the Collateral Administrator in reconciling such discrepancy. The Collateral Administrator shall cooperate with the Portfolio Manager in connection with the Portfolio Manager's review of the contents of the aforesaid reports, instructions, statements and certificates and shall provide such items to the Portfolio Manager within a reasonably sufficient time (as agreed between the Portfolio Manager and the Collateral Administrator, but in any event no later than two Business Days) prior to any applicable due date to enable such review. The Portfolio Manager shall cooperate with the Collateral Administrator by answering questions posed by the Collateral Administrator that are reasonably related to such reports, instructions, statements and certificates to the extent the answers to such questions are within the knowledge of the Portfolio Manager. Upon acknowledgment from the Portfolio Manager that it has completed its review, the Collateral Administrator shall transmit same to the Issuer for execution and shall distribute such reports, instructions, statements and certificates, after execution by the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager, as applicable.

If, in performing its duties under this Agreement, the Collateral Administrator is required to decide between alternative courses of action (each of which is consistent with provisions of this Agreement), the Collateral Administrator may request written instructions from the Portfolio Manager acting on behalf of the Issuer as to the appropriate course of action desired by it. If the Collateral Administrator does not receive such instructions within two Business Days after it has requested them, the Collateral Administrator may, but shall be under no duty to, take or refrain from taking any such courses of action. The Collateral Administrator shall act in accordance with instructions received after such two Business Day period except to the extent it has already taken, or committed itself to take, action inconsistent with such instructions. The Collateral Administrator shall be entitled to conclusively rely on the advice of legal counsel and Independent accountants in performing its duties hereunder and shall be deemed to have acted in good faith if it acts in accordance with such advice.

Nothing herein shall prevent the Collateral Administrator or any of its Affiliates from engaging in other businesses or from rendering services of any kind to any Person.

The Collateral Administrator shall have no obligation to determine Market Value or price in connection with any actions or duties under this Agreement.

3. Powers and Duties of the Information Agent.

(a) In connection with Section 10.10 of the Indenture, the Issuer hereby appoints the Collateral Administrator to act as its agent (the "Information Agent") and in so acting, the Information Agent shall have all the protections and benefits provided for the Collateral Administrator hereunder.

(b) The Information Agent shall make available on the 17g-5 Site (as defined in Section 10.10(f)(i) of the Indenture), solely to the Rating Agencies and to nationally recognized statistical rating organizations who deliver a certification in form and substance satisfactory to the Information Agent, the items that are delivered by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee or the Portfolio Manager (or their respective representatives or advisors) to the Information Agent by electronic mail to the following address: 17g5informationprovider@usbank.com (or by any alternative electronic mail address following notice to the parties hereto of such alternative electronic mail address or any other delivery method established by the Information Agent if or as may be necessary or beneficial). The Information Agent shall post information to the 17g-5 Site on the same Business Day of receipt; provided that such information is received by 12:00 p.m. (Eastern time) or, if received after 12:00 p.m. (Eastern time), on the next Business Day. Any electronic mail message sent to the Information Agent with items for posting to the 17g-5 Site shall include "ACIS 2013-1" in the subject line of such electronic mail message and shall contain in the body of such electronic mail message an identification of the type of information being provided. Each e-mail sent to the Information Agent pursuant to this Agreement or the Indenture failing to be sent to the e-mail address specified above or failing to conform to the foregoing requirements of this paragraph shall be deemed incomplete and the Information Agent shall have no obligations with respect thereto.

(c) The Information Agent's posting of information to the 17g-5 Site is ministerial in nature only, and the Information Agent shall have no obligation or duty to verify, confirm or otherwise determine whether any information being delivered for posting to the 17g-5 Site is accurate, complete, conforms to the terms of the Indenture or related transaction documents, conforms to the requirements of Rule 17g-5 of the Exchange Act or otherwise is or is not anything other than what it purports to be. In the event that any information is delivered or posted in error, the Information Agent may remove such information from the 17g-5 Site. The Collateral Administrator, the Trustee and the Information Agent have not obtained and shall not be deemed to have obtained actual knowledge of any information merely by posting such information to the 17g-5 Site to the extent such information was not produced by the Collateral Administrator, the Trustee or the Information Agent, as applicable.

(d) In connection with providing access to the 17g-5 Site, the Information Agent may require registration and the acceptance of a disclaimer. The Information Agent shall not be liable for the dissemination of information in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, makes no representations or warranties as to the accuracy or completeness of such information being made available, and assume no responsibility for such information, except to the extent such information is prepared by the Trustee or the Collateral Administrator pursuant to the term of this Agreement or the Indenture.

4. Compensation. The Issuer agrees to pay, and the Collateral Administrator shall be entitled to receive, as compensation for the Collateral Administrator's performance of the duties called for herein, including those of the Information Agent, the amounts set forth in the USB fee letter dated on June 19, 2012. The Issuer shall further reimburse the Collateral Administrator for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the performance of its obligations hereunder. All payments hereunder shall be paid subject to and in accordance with Section 11.1(a) of the Indenture.

5. Limitation of Responsibility of the Collateral Administrator.

(a) The Collateral Administrator will have no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder in good faith and without willful misconduct or gross negligence in the performance of, or reckless disregard of, its duties hereunder. The Collateral Administrator shall incur no liability to anyone in acting upon any signature, instrument, statement, notice, resolution, request, direction, consent, order, certificate, report, opinion, bond or other document or paper reasonably believed by it to be genuine and reasonably believed by it to be signed by the proper party or parties. The Collateral Administrator may exercise any of its rights or powers hereunder or perform any of its duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents or attorneys, and the Collateral Administrator shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed hereunder with due care by it. Neither the Collateral Administrator nor any of its affiliates, directors, officers, shareholders, agents or employees shall be liable to the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer or others, except by reason of acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence in the performance of, or reckless disregard of the Collateral Administrator's duties hereunder. The Issuer will reimburse, indemnify and hold harmless the Collateral Administrator, and its affiliates, directors, officers, shareholders, agents, members and employees with respect to all expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims of any nature (including the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel and other experts) in respect of or arising from any acts or omissions performed or omitted by the Collateral Administrator, its affiliates, directors, officers, shareholders, agents, members or employees hereunder in good faith and without willful misconduct or gross negligence in the performance of, or reckless disregard of the Collateral Administrator' duties hereunder. Such indemnification will be paid subject to and in accordance with Section 11.1 of the Indenture.

(b) The Collateral Administrator shall reimburse, indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer and its respective affiliates, directors, managers, officers, shareholders, agents, members and employees with respect to all expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims of any nature (including the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) to the extent arising out of any acts or omissions performed or omitted by the Portfolio Manager or any employees, agents or subcontractors thereof, in bad faith or constituting willful misconduct, gross negligence in the performance of, or reckless disregard of the Collateral Administrator's duties hereunder.

(c) Anything in this Agreement notwithstanding, in no event shall the Collateral Administrator be liable for special, punitive indirect or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Collateral Administrator has been advised of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(d) Nothing herein shall in any way constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Issuer may have under any U.S. federal or state securities laws.

6. No Joint Venture. Nothing contained in this Agreement (a) shall constitute the Collateral Administrator, the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager as members of any partnership, joint venture, association, syndicate, unincorporated business or other separate entity, (b) shall be construed to impose any liability as such on any of them or (c) shall be deemed to confer on any of them any express, implied or apparent authority to incur any obligation or liability on behalf of any other.

7. Term. This Agreement shall continue in effect so long as the Indenture remains in effect with respect to the Notes, unless this Agreement has been previously terminated in accordance with Section 7 hereof; provided that the Collateral Administrator and the Portfolio Manager shall be released from their respective obligations hereunder upon such party's ceasing to act as Collateral Administrator or Portfolio Manager, as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnification obligations of the Issuer and Collateral Administrator under Section 5 hereof shall survive the termination of this Agreement, the resignation or removal of the Collateral Administrator or the release of any party hereto with respect to matters, in the case of the indemnification obligations of the Collateral Administrator, occurring prior to such termination, resignation, removal or release.

8. Termination.

(a) This Agreement may be terminated without cause by any party hereto upon not less than 30 days' prior written notice to each other party hereto.

(b) If at any time prior to payment in full of the Notes, USB shall resign or be removed as Trustee under Section 16.9 of the Indenture, such resignation or removal shall be deemed a resignation or removal of the Collateral Administrator hereunder (without any requirement for notice pursuant to Section 7(e) hereof).

(c) At the option of the Portfolio Manager or the Issuer, this Agreement shall be terminated upon ten days' written notice of termination from the Portfolio Manager or the Issuer to the Collateral Administrator and the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager, as applicable, if any of the following events shall occur:

(i) The Collateral Administrator shall default in the performance of any of its material duties under this Agreement and shall not cure such default within twenty days of receipt of written notice thereof (or, if such default cannot be cured in such time, shall not give within twenty days such assurance of the cure of such default as shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Portfolio Manager and the Issuer);

(ii) The Collateral Administrator is dissolved (other than pursuant to a consolidation, amalgamation or merger) or has a resolution passed for its winding-up, official management or liquidation (other than pursuant to a consolidation, amalgamation or merger);

(iii) A court having jurisdiction in the premises shall enter a decree or order for relief in respect of the Collateral Administrator in any involuntary case under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law now or hereafter in effect, or appoint a receiver, conservator, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator (or similar official) of the Collateral Administrator or for any substantial part of its property, or order the winding-up or liquidation of its affairs; or

(iv) The Collateral Administrator shall commence a voluntary case under applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law now or hereafter in effect, or shall consent to the entry of an order for relief in an involuntary case under any such law, or shall consent to the appointment of or taking possession by a receiver, conservator, liquidator, assignee, trustee, custodian, sequestrator (or similar official) of the Collateral Administrator or for any substantial part of its property, or shall make any general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or shall fail generally to pay its debts as they become due.

If any of the events specified in clauses (ii), (iii) or (iv) of subsection (c) of this Section 7 shall occur, the Collateral Administrator shall give written notice thereof to the Portfolio Manager and the Issuer within five Business Days after the happening of such event.

(d) Except when the Collateral Administrator shall be removed pursuant to subsection (c) of this Section 7 or shall resign pursuant to subsection (e) of this Section 7, no removal or resignation of the Collateral Administrator shall be effective until the date as of which a successor collateral administrator reasonably acceptable to the Portfolio Manager and the Issuer shall have agreed in writing to assume all of the Collateral Administrator's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and shall have executed and delivered an agreement in form and content reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Collateral Administrator may resign its duties hereunder without any requirement that a successor collateral administrator be obligated hereunder and without any liability for further performance of any duties hereunder upon at least 30 days' prior written notice to the Portfolio Manager and the Issuer of termination upon the occurrence of any of the following events and the failure to cure such event within such 30 day notice period: (i) failure of the Issuer to pay any of the amounts specified in Section 3 hereof within 30 days after such amount is due pursuant to Section 3 hereof to the extent that amounts thereof are available therefor under Section 11.1(a) of the Indenture or (ii) failure of the Issuer to provide any indemnity payment or expense reimbursement payable to the Collateral Administrator hereunder within 30 days of the receipt by the Issuer of a written request for such payment or reimbursement.

(f) Subject to Section 7(d), at any time that the Collateral Administrator is the same institution as the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator hereby agrees that upon the appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to Section 6.9 of the Indenture, the Collateral Administrator shall immediately resign and such successor Trustee shall automatically become the Collateral Administrator under this Agreement. Any such successor Trustee shall be required to agree to assume the duties of the Collateral Administrator under the terms and conditions of this Agreement in its acceptance of appointment as successor Trustee.

(g) Promptly upon the effective date of termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 6 or resignation or removal of the Collateral Administration pursuant to Section 7, the Collateral Administrator shall forthwith deliver to, or as directed by, the Issuer all property and documents of or relating to the Assets then in the custody of the Collateral Administrator, and the Collateral Administrator shall cooperate with the Issuer and any successor Collateral Administrator in making an orderly transfer of the duties of the Collateral Administrator.

9. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants to the Collateral Administrator and the Portfolio Manager as follows:

(i) The Issuer has been duly registered and is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the Cayman Islands. The Issuer has the full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and all obligations required hereunder and has taken all necessary action to authorize this Agreement on the terms and conditions hereof on behalf of itself and for the Issuer, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the performance of all obligations imposed upon the Issuer hereunder. This Agreement constitutes the legally valid and binding obligation of the Issuer enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with its terms subject, as to enforcement, (A) to the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights as such laws would apply in the event of any bankruptcy, receivership, insolvency or similar event applicable to the Issuer and (B) to general equitable principles (whether enforceability of such principles is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity).

(ii) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement will not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Issuer, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Issuer, or the governing instruments of, or any securities issued by, the Issuer or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Issuer is a party or by which the Issuer or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer and will not result in, or require, the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking.

(b) The Portfolio Manager hereby represents and warrants to the Collateral Administrator and the Issuer as follows:

(i) The Portfolio Manager has been duly organized and is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has the full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and all obligations required hereunder and has taken all necessary action to authorize this Agreement on the terms and conditions hereof, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the performance of all obligations imposed upon it hereunder. This Agreement constitutes, and each instrument and document required hereunder when executed and delivered by the Portfolio Manager hereunder, will constitute the legally valid and binding obligation of the Portfolio Manager enforceable against the Portfolio Manager in accordance with its terms subject, as to enforcement, (A) to the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights as such laws would apply in the event of any bankruptcy, receivership, insolvency or similar event applicable to the Portfolio Manager and (B) to general equitable principles (whether enforceability of such principles is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity).

(ii) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the documents and instruments required hereunder by the Portfolio Manager will not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Portfolio Manager, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Portfolio Manager, or the governing instruments of, or any securities issued by, the Portfolio Manager or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Portfolio Manager is a party or by which the Portfolio Manager or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager and will not result in, or require, the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking.

(c) The Collateral Administrator hereby represents and warrants to the Portfolio Manager and the Issuer as follows:

(i) The Collateral Administrator is a national banking association with trust powers duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the United States of America and has the full corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and all its obligations required hereunder and has taken all necessary action to authorize this Agreement on the terms and conditions hereof, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and all its obligations required hereunder. (ii) The execution, delivery and performance by the Collateral Administrator of this Agreement and the documents and instruments required hereunder will not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Collateral Administrator, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Collateral Administrator, or the certificate or articles of association or incorporation or by-laws of the Collateral Administrator or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Collateral Administrator is a party or by which the Collateral Administrator or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Collateral Administrator and will not result in, or require, the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking.

10. Amendments. This Agreement may not be amended, changed, modified or terminated (except as otherwise expressly provided herein) except by the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer and the Collateral Administrator in writing. Promptly after the execution of any amendment hereto, the Issuer shall deliver a notice thereof to the Rating Agencies as required under the Indenture.

11. Waiver. No failure on the part of any party hereto to exercise and no delay in exercising, and no course of dealing with respect to, any right, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege under this Agreement preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

If the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager elects to give the Collateral Administrator e-mail or facsimile instructions (or instructions by a similar electronic method) and the Collateral Administrator in its discretion elects to act upon such instructions, the Collateral Administrator's reasonable understanding of such instructions shall be deemed controlling. The Collateral Administrator shall not be liable for any losses, costs or expenses arising directly or indirectly from the Collateral Administrator's reliance upon and compliance with such instructions notwithstanding such instructions conflicting with or being inconsistent with a subsequent written instruction. Each of the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager agree to assume all risks arising out of the use of such electronic methods to submit instructions and directions to the Collateral Administrator, including without limitation the risk of the Collateral Administrator acting in good faith on unauthorized instructions, and the risk of interception and misuse by third parties. The Portfolio Manager is entitled to rely on any other information furnished to it by third parties that it reasonably believes in good faith to be genuine.

(e) The Portfolio Manager may direct an Optional Redemption (including a Refinancing) under the Indenture on behalf of the Issuer.

(i) the Portfolio Manager acting repeatedly or continuously as an intermediary in securities for the Issuer;

(ii) the Portfolio Manager providing investment banking services to the Issuer; or

(iii) the Portfolio Manager having direct contact with, or actively soliciting or finding, outside investors to (x) invest in the Issuer or (y) make co-investments in securities of portfolio companies with the Issuer.

(h) The Portfolio Manager hereby agrees to the following:

(i) The Portfolio Manager agrees not to institute against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings or other proceedings under U.S. federal or state bankruptcy or similar laws, or the similar laws of the Cayman Islands or other applicable jurisdiction until the payment in full of all Notes issued under the Indenture and the expiration of a period equal to one year and a day, or, if longer, the applicable preference period, following such payment. Nothing in this Section 3(h)(i) shall preclude, or be deemed to stop, the Portfolio Manager (i) from taking any action prior to the expiration of the aforementioned period in (A) any case or Proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or (B) any involuntary insolvency Proceeding filed or commenced by a Person other than the Portfolio Manager, or (ii) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of its properties any legal action which is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceeding. The provisions of this Section 3(h)(i) shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager shall cause any purchase or sale of any Collateral Obligation to be conducted on arm's length terms or in the manner contemplated by Section 6, if applicable.

(iii) In providing services hereunder, the Portfolio Manager may employ third parties, including its Affiliates, to render advice (including investment advice), to provide services to arrange for trade execution and otherwise provide assistance to the Issuer, and to perform any of the Portfolio Manager's duties under this Agreement; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be relieved of any of its duties hereunder regardless of the performance of any services by third parties.

(i) From and after the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the Portfolio Manager will continue to perform and be bound by the provisions of this Agreement and the Indenture. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Indenture, the Trustee will be entitled to rely and be protected in relying upon all actions and omissions to act of the Portfolio Manager thereafter as fully as if no Event of Default had occurred.

4. Brokerage.

(a) The Portfolio Manager will seek to obtain the best execution (but shall have no obligation to obtain the best prices and execution) for all orders placed with respect to the Assets, in a manner permitted by law and in a manner it believes to be in the best interests of the Issuer. Subject to the preceding sentence, the Portfolio Manager may, in the allocation of business, select brokers and/or dealers with whom to effect trades on behalf of the Issuer and may open cash trading accounts with such brokers and dealers (provided that none of the Assets may be credited to, held in or subject to the lien of the broker or dealer with respect to any such account). In addition, subject to the first sentence of this paragraph, the Portfolio Manager may, in the allocation of business, take into consideration research and other brokerage services furnished to the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates by brokers and dealers which are not Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager; provided that the Portfolio Manager in good faith believes that the compensation for such services rendered by such brokers and dealers complies with the requirements of Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("Section 28(e)"), or in the case of principal or fixed income transactions for which the "safe harbor" of Section 28(e) is not available, the amount of the spread charged is reasonable in relation to the value of the research and other brokerage services provided. Such services may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with its other advisory activities or investment operations. The Portfolio Manager may aggregate sales and purchase orders of securities placed with respect to the Assets with similar orders being made simultaneously for other accounts managed by the Portfolio Manager or with accounts of the Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager, if in the Portfolio Manager's reasonable business judgment such aggregation shall result in an economic benefit to the Issuer, taking into consideration the advantageous selling or purchase price, brokerage commission or other expenses, as well as the availability of such securities on any other basis. In accounting for such aggregated order price, commissions and other expenses may be apportioned on a weighted average basis. When a transaction with respect to the Assets occurs as part of any aggregate sales or purchase orders, the objective of the Portfolio Manager shall be to allocate the executions among the accounts in an equitable manner the Portfolio Manager believes, in its reasonable business judgment, to be appropriate and in accordance with (x) its internal conflicts of interest and allocation policies and (y) any applicable requirements of the Advisers Act.

(b) The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that (i) the determination by the Portfolio Manager of any benefit to the Issuer will be subjective and will represent the Portfolio Manager's evaluation at the time that the Issuer will be benefited by relatively better purchase or sales prices, lower brokerage commissions, lower transaction costs and expenses and beneficial timing of transactions or any combination of any of these and/or other factors and (ii) the Portfolio Manager shall be fully protected with respect to any such determination to the extent the Portfolio Manager acts in accordance with Section 3(b).

(c) Subject to the Portfolio Manager's execution obligations described in Sections 4(a) and (d) and the covenants set forth in Section 6, the Portfolio Manager is hereby authorized to effect client cross-transactions where the Portfolio Manager causes a transaction with respect to the Assets to be effected between the Issuer and another account advised by it or any of its Affiliates; provided that, if and to the extent required by the Advisers Act, such authorization is terminable prior to the initiation of such cross-transaction at the Issuer's option without penalty. Such termination shall be effective upon receipt by the Portfolio Manager of written notice from the Issuer. Subject to the Portfolio Manager's execution obligations described in Sections 4(a) and (d) and the covenants set forth in Section 6, the Portfolio Manager is hereby authorized to effect transactions, including principal transactions, where the Issuer may invest in securities of obligors or issuers in which the Portfolio Manager and/or its Affiliates have a debt, equity or participation interest, in each case in accordance with applicable law.

(d) The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates may acquire or sell obligations or securities, for its own account or for the accounts of its customers, without either requiring or precluding the acquisition or sale of such obligations or securities for the account of the Issuer. Such investments may be the same or different from those made on behalf of the Issuer. If, in light of market conditions and investment objectives, the Portfolio Manager determines that it would be advisable to purchase the same item of Collateral Obligation both for the Issuer, and either the proprietary account of the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager or another client of the Portfolio Manager, the Portfolio Manager shall allocate such investment opportunities across such entities for which such opportunities are appropriate, consistent with (i) its internal conflicts of interest and allocation policies and (ii) any applicable requirements of the Advisers Act. The Issuer agrees that, in the course of managing the Collateral Obligations held by the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager may consider its relationships with other clients (including obligors and issuers) and its Affiliates. The Portfolio Manager may decline to make a particular investment for the Issuer in view of such relationships.

5. Additional Activities of the Portfolio Manager.

(a) Nothing herein shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Related Entities from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Issuer and its Affiliates, the Trustee, the Holders, the Initial Purchaser or any other Person to the extent permitted by applicable law, regardless of whether such business is in competition with the Issuer or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager, its Related Entities and the directors, officers, employees and agents of the Portfolio Manager and its Related Entities may, subject to any limits specified in the Indenture:

(i) serve as directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, partners, employees, agents, nominees or signatories, and receive arm's length fees in connection with such service, for the Issuer or its Affiliates, or for any obligor or issuer in respect of the Collateral Obligations, Equity Securities or Eligible Investments or any affiliate thereof, to the extent permitted by their Governing Instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Issuer, its Affiliates or any obligor or issuer in respect of any of the Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or Equity Securities (or any Affiliate thereof) pursuant to their respective Governing Instruments, and neither the Holders of the Notes nor the Issuer shall have the right to any such fees; provided that, in the reasonable business judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity will not have a material adverse effect on any item of the Assets;

(ii) receive fees or other compensation from third parties (including Persons in which the Issuer has made or proposes to make an investment) in connection with any business activities of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates and which are not related to the use of the Issuer's capital (which fees or other compensation shall be for the benefit of the Portfolio Manager's own account); provided that, in the reasonable business judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activities will not have a material adverse effect on any item of the Assets; and

(iii) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold an equity interest in, or own or hold notes issued by, the Issuer, its Affiliates or any obligor or issuer of any obligation included in the Assets, subject to the Portfolio Manager's obligations in Section 8 hereof.

As a result, such individuals may possess information relating to obligors and issuers of Collateral Obligations that is (a) not known to or (b) known but restricted as to its use by the individuals at the Portfolio Manager responsible for monitoring the Collateral Obligations and performing the other obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement. Each of such ownership and other relationships may result in securities laws restrictions on transactions in such securities by the Issuer and otherwise create conflicts of interest for the Issuer. The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that, in all such instances, the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may in their discretion make investment recommendations and decisions that may be the same as or different from those made with respect to the Issuer's investments and they have no duty, in making or managing such investments, to act in a way that is favorable to the Issuer.

The Issuer acknowledges that there are generally no ethical screens or information barriers among the Portfolio Manager and certain of its Affiliates of the type that many firms implement to separate Persons who make investment decisions from others who might possess material, non-public information that could influence such decisions. The officers or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager may possess information relating to obligors or issuers of Collateral Obligations that is not known to the individuals at the Portfolio Manager responsible for monitoring the Collateral Obligations and performing the other obligations under this Agreement. As a result, the Portfolio Manager may from time to time come into possession of material nonpublic information that limits the ability of the Portfolio Manager to effect a transaction for the Issuer, and the Issuer's investments may be constrained as a consequence of the Portfolio Manager's inability to use such information for advisory purposes or otherwise to effect transactions that otherwise may have been initiated on behalf of its clients, including the Issuer.

(b) It is understood that the Portfolio Manager and any of its Affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have investment policies similar to those followed by the Portfolio Manager with respect to the Assets and which may own securities or obligations of the same class, or which are of the same type, as the Collateral Obligations or the Eligible Investments or other securities or obligations of the obligors or issuers of the Collateral Obligations or the Eligible Investments. The Portfolio Manager will be free, in its sole discretion, to make recommendations to others or effect transactions on behalf of itself or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Assets. Nothing in the Indenture and this Agreement shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, acting either as principal or agent on behalf of others, from buying or selling, or from recommending to or directing any other account to buy or sell, at any time, securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same obligor or issuer, as those directed by the Portfolio Manager to be purchased or sold on behalf of the Issuer. It is understood that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or Related Entities, or any of their directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or affiliates or any member of their families or a Person or entity advised by the Portfolio Manager may have an interest in a particular transaction or in securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same obligor or issuer, as those whose purchase or sale the Portfolio Manager may direct hereunder.

(c) The Portfolio Manager shall not be obligated to pursue any particular investment strategy or opportunity with respect to the Assets.

(d) The Issuer acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may make and/or hold an investment in an obligor's or issuer's securities that may be pari passu, senior or junior in ranking to an investment in such obligor's or issuer's securities made and/or held by the Issuer or in which partners, security holders, members, officers, directors, agents or employees of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates serve on boards of directors or otherwise have ongoing relationships.

6. Conflicts of Interest.

(a) Subject to compliance with applicable laws and regulations and subject to this Agreement and the Indenture, the Portfolio Manager may direct the Trustee to acquire a Collateral Obligation from, or sell a Collateral Obligation, Equity Security, Eligible Investment or asset held by an Tax Subsidiary to, the Portfolio Manager, any of its Affiliates or any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates serve as investment advisor for fair market value. The Portfolio Manager may obtain the Issuer's written consent through the Independent Review Party as provided herein if any such transaction requires the consent of the Issuer under Section 206(3) of the Advisers Act (any such transaction, an "Affiliate Transaction"). The Issuer hereby acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or accounts advised or sub-advised by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates (collectively, the "Portfolio Manager Affiliates") will purchase on the Closing Date U.S$9,250,000 Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1A Notes, U.S$12,000,000 Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class D Notes, U.S$10,000,000 Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class E Notes, U.S$5,000,000 Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class F Notes and U.S.$39,750,000 Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Subordinated Notes (together, the "Portfolio Manager Notes"). The Issuer further acknowledges and agrees that no Portfolio Manager Affiliate is under any obligation to retain any Portfolio Manager Notes, and may sell all or a portion of such Portfolio Manager Notes at any time. In addition, the Issuer acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager Affiliates may acquire and subsequently sell other Notes after the Closing Date. In certain circumstances, the interests of the Issuer and/or the Holders or beneficial owners of the Notes with respect to matters as to which the Portfolio Manager is advising the Issuer may conflict with the interests of the Portfolio Manager Affiliates or its Related Entities. The Issuer hereby acknowledges that various potential and actual conflicts of interest may exist with respect to the Portfolio Manager as described above and as described in the final offering circular relating to the Notes; provided that nothing in this Section 6 shall be construed as altering the duties of the Portfolio Manager referred to herein.

(b) At the written request of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall establish a conflicts review board or appoint an independent third party to act on behalf of the Issuer (such board or party, an "Independent Review Party") with respect to Affiliate Transactions. Decisions of any Independent Review Party shall be binding on the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer, and Holders of the Notes.

(c) Any Independent Review Party (i) shall either (A) be the Issuer's Board of Directors, (B) be an established financial institution or other financial company with experience in assessing the merits of transactions similar to the Affiliate Transactions or (C) be a review board comprised of one or more individuals selected by the Issuer (or at the request of the Issuer, selected by the Portfolio Manager), (ii) shall be required to assess the merits of the Affiliate Transaction and either grant or withhold consent to such transaction in its sole judgment and (iii) shall not be (A) affiliated with the Portfolio Manager (other than as a Holder or as a passive investor in the Issuer or an Affiliate of the Issuer) or (B) (other than the Issuer's Board of Directors) involved in the daily management and control of the Issuer.

(d) The Issuer (i) shall be responsible for any fees relating to the services provided by any Independent Review Party and shall reimburse members of any Independent Review Party for their out-of-pocket expenses and (ii) may indemnify members of such Independent Review Party to the maximum extent permitted by law, subject to terms and conditions satisfactory to the Portfolio Manager.

7. Records; Confidentiality.

The Portfolio Manager shall maintain or cause to be maintained appropriate books of account and records relating to its services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by representatives of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Holders, and the Independent accountants appointed by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer pursuant to Article 10 of the Indenture at any time during normal business hours and upon not less than three Business Days' prior notice. The Portfolio Manager shall keep confidential any and all information that is either (i) of a type that would ordinarily be considered proprietary or confidential or (ii) designated as confidential (collectively "Confidential Information") obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder and shall not disclose any such Confidential Information to non-affiliated third parties (excluding any Holders and beneficial owners of Notes to the extent required by the terms of the Indenture) except (a) with the prior written consent of the Issuer, (b) such Confidential Information as a Rating Agency shall reasonably request in connection with its rating of the Secured Notes or supplying credit estimates on any obligation included in the Assets, (c) in connection with establishing trading or investment accounts or otherwise in connection with effecting transactions with respect to the Assets on behalf of the Issuer, (d) as required by (i) applicable law, regulation, court order, or a request by a governmental regulatory agency with jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, (ii) the rules or regulations of any stock exchange or self-regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates or (iii) the Irish Stock Exchange, (e) to its professional advisors (including, without limitation, legal, tax and accounting advisors), (f) such Confidential Information as shall have been publicly available or disclosed other than in known violation of this Agreement or the provisions of the Indenture or shall have been obtained by the Portfolio Manager on a non-confidential basis, (g) such Confidential Information as is necessary or appropriate to disclose so that the Portfolio Manager may perform its duties hereunder, under the Indenture or the related documents or (h) general performance information which may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with their marketing activities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is agreed that the Portfolio Manager may disclose (a) that it is serving as portfolio manager of the Issuer, (b) the nature, aggregate principal amount and overall performance of the Issuer's assets, (c) the amount of earnings on the Assets, (d) such other Confidential Information about the Issuer, the Assets and the Notes as is customarily disclosed by managers of collateralized loan obligations and (e) each of its respective employees, representatives or other agents may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the United States federal income tax treatment and United States federal income tax structure of the transactions contemplated by the Indenture, this Agreement and the related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions and other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such United States federal income tax treatment and United States income tax structure. For purposes of this Section 7, the Holders and beneficial owners of the Notes shall not be considered "non-affiliated third parties."

8. Obligations of Portfolio Manager.

In accordance with the performance standard set forth in Section 3(b), the Portfolio Manager shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that no action is taken by it, and shall not intentionally or with reckless disregard take any action, which would (a) materially and adversely affect the status of the Issuer for purposes of Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state law, or other law known to the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to the Issuer, (b) not be permitted by the Issuer's Governing Instruments, (c) violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer, including, without limitation, actions which would violate any Cayman Islands law, United States federal, state or other applicable securities law that is known by the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to it and, in each case, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer or have a material adverse effect on the ability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations hereunder or under the Indenture, (d) require registration of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the pool of Assets as an "investment company" under Section 8 of the Investment Company Act, (e) cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise cause the Issuer to be subject to U.S. federal or state income tax on a net basis; provided that it shall not be a violation of this clause (e) for the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal or state income tax on a net basis as a result of an action taken either (i) in compliance with the Trading Restrictions attached hereto as Schedule 1 or (ii) in reliance upon Tax Advice to the effect that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such action, the Issuer's contemplated action would not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis; or (f) knowingly and willfully adversely affect the interests of the Holders in the Assets in any material respect (other than (i) as expressly permitted hereunder or under the Indenture or (ii) in connection with any action taken in the ordinary course of business of the Portfolio Manager in accordance with its fiduciary duties to its clients). In furtherance of the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager shall at all times comply with the Trading Restrictions set forth in Schedule 1; provided that the Portfolio Manager may take an action that is not permitted by such Trading Restrictions if (x) such action is otherwise permitted under this Agreement and the Indenture and (y) the Portfolio Manager has received Tax Advice to the effect that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such transaction, taking into account the Issuer's failure to comply with one or more of such provisions and assuming compliance with the Indenture and all other provisions of the Trading Restrictions, the Issuer's contemplated activities would not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis. If the Portfolio Manager is ordered by the Board of Directors of the Issuer or the requisite Holders or beneficial owners of Notes to take any action which would, or could reasonably be expected to, in each case in its reasonable business judgment, have any such consequences, the Portfolio Manager shall promptly notify the Issuer that such action would, or could reasonably be expected to, in each case in its reasonable business judgment, have one or more of the consequences set forth above and shall not take such action unless the Board of Directors of the Issuer then request the Portfolio Manager to do so and at least a Majority of both the Controlling Class and the Subordinated Notes (voting separately by Class) have consented thereto in writing. Notwithstanding any such request, the Portfolio Manager shall not take such action unless (1) arrangements satisfactory to it are made to insure or indemnify the Portfolio Manager, Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager and members, shareholders, partners, directors, managers, officers or employees of the Portfolio Manager or such Affiliates from any liability and expense it may incur as a result of such action and (2) if the Portfolio Manager so requests in respect of a question of law, the Issuer delivers to the Portfolio Manager an opinion of a nationally recognized law firm (from outside counsel satisfactory to the Portfolio Manager) that the action so requested does not violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer or over the Portfolio Manager. Neither the Portfolio Manager nor its Affiliates, shareholders, partners, directors, members, managers, officers or employees shall be liable to the Issuer or any other Person, except as provided in Section 11. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, any indemnification or insurance by the Issuer provided for in this Section 8 or Section 11 shall be payable out of the Assets in accordance with the Priority of Payments, and the Portfolio Manager may take into account such Priority of Payments in determining whether any proposed indemnity arrangements contemplated by this Section 8 are satisfactory.

9. Compensation.

(a) The Issuer shall pay to the Portfolio Manager, for services rendered under this Agreement, on each Payment Date, the Base Management Fee, the Subordinated Management Fee and the Incentive Management Fee. Accrued and unpaid Management Fees shall be paid as set forth in Article 11 of the Indenture. To the extent any of the Subordinated Management Fee is not paid on any Payment Date, such payment will be deferred and will accrue interest at LIBOR (as determined for the applicable Interest Accrual Period with respect to the Secured Notes), compounded quarterly, as set forth in the Indenture.

(b) The Portfolio Manager may (but shall not be obligated to), at its election upon notice to the Issuer and the Trustee (the "Fee Election Notice"), reduce for a predetermined period of time, as specified in the Fee Election Notice, the amount which is due to it as Base Management Fee by a specific percentage, in which case the Subordinated Management Fee shall automatically be increased by the same percentage (the "Fee Election"). Any Fee Election must be made on or before the Determination Date for the first Collection Period in respect of which the Fee Election will apply and shall not be revocable during the period of the Fee Election; except that, in the event that the Portfolio Manager is removed, resigns or assigns its rights to any Persons, as contemplated by Sections 13, 14 and 15 of this Agreement, the replacement Portfolio Manager shall be bound initially by the terms set forth under Section 9(a) and the Fee Election will not apply to such replacement Portfolio Manager.

(c) The Portfolio Manager shall pay (without reimbursement by the Issuer) its general overhead expenses, including (i) all costs and expenses on account of salaries, wages, bonuses and other employee benefits of the Portfolio Manager and (ii) all occupational expenses, including rent, taxes and utilities, of the Portfolio Manager. The Issuer shall pay or reimburse the Portfolio Manager (at closing in the case of clause (i) below) for its payment of any and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred on behalf of the Issuer, including, without limitation: (i) the costs and expenses of the Portfolio Manager incurred in connection with the negotiation and preparation of this Agreement and all other agreements and matters related to the issuance of the Notes; (ii) any transfer fees necessary to register any Collateral Obligation in accordance with the Indenture; (iii) any costs, fees and expenses in connection with the acquisition, management or disposition of Assets or otherwise in connection with the Notes or the Issuer (including (a) investment related travel, communications and related expenses, (b) loan processing fees, legal fees and expenses and other expenses of professionals retained by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer and (c) amounts in connection with the termination, cancellation or abandonment of a potential acquisition or disposition of any Assets that is not consummated); (iv) any and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the carrying or management of the Assets; (v) any and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Notes and other indebtedness of the Issuer; (vi) any and all attorneys', accountants', rating agencies', consultants', brokers' and other professionals' fees and disbursements relating to Issuer matters (including in house attorneys' and accountants' services provided by or on behalf of the Portfolio Manager to the Issuer as may be reasonably allocated to the Issuer); (vii) any and all taxes and governmental charges that may be incurred or payable by the Issuer or any Tax Subsidiary; (viii) any and all insurance premiums or expenses incurred in connection with the activities of the Issuer by the Portfolio Manager; (ix) any and all costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with the rating of the Notes or obtaining ratings or credit estimates on Collateral Obligations, and communications with the Rating Agencies (including (a) any expenses related to compliance with Rule 17g-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and (b) any fees, expenses or other amounts payable to the Rating Agencies); (x) any and all costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Portfolio Manager's communications with the Holders (including charges related to annual meetings) and costs and expenses for services to the Issuer in respect of the Assets relating to asset pricing and rating services and specialty database software licensing and development fees; (xi) any and all costs and expenses incurred by the Portfolio Manager in connection with the establishment of any Tax Subsidiary (provided that such costs and expenses are directly attributable to the establishment of such Tax Subsidiary), and (xii) any and all expenses incurred to comply with any law or regulation related to the activities of the Issuer, any Tax Subsidiary and the Portfolio Manager. Other than as stated above, the Issuer will bear, and will pay directly in accordance with the Indenture, all other costs and expenses incurred by it or on its behalf in connection with the organization, operation or liquidation of the Issuer.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 13, Section 15 or otherwise, the Base Management Fee, the Subordinated Management Fee and the Incentive Management Fee calculated as provided in the Indenture shall be prorated for any partial periods between Payment Dates during which this Agreement was in effect and shall be due and payable on the first Payment Date following the date of such termination, subject to Article 11 of the Indenture.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer are limited recourse obligations payable solely from Assets granted to the Trustee pursuant to the Granting Clauses of the Indenture in accordance with the Priority of Payments and, following realization of the Assets and reduction thereof to zero, all obligations of the Issuer and any claims against the Issuer under this Agreement shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. No recourse shall be had for the payment of any amount owing in respect of this Agreement against any other asset of the Issuer or against any officer, director, employee, shareholder or incorporator of the Issuer. The provisions of this Section 9(e) shall survive termination of this Agreement.

10. Benefit of the Agreement.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that its obligations hereunder in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to it shall be enforceable by the Issuer and by the Trustee on behalf of the Holders, as provided in the Indenture. The Portfolio Manager agrees and consents to the provisions contained in Section 15.1 of the Indenture.

11. Limits of Portfolio Manager Responsibility.

(a) Subject to Section 8, the Portfolio Manager assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to it and affecting the duties and functions that have been delegated to it thereunder and hereunder in good faith and, subject to the standard of conduct described in the next succeeding sentence. The Portfolio Manager shall not be responsible for any action or inaction of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee in declining to follow any advice, recommendation or direction of the Portfolio Manager including as set forth in Section 8. Neither the Portfolio Manager nor any of its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, personnel, employees, agents or Affiliates will be liable to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Holders of the Notes, the Initial Purchaser or any other Person for any act, omission, error of judgment, mistake of law, or for any claim, loss, liability, damage, judgments, assessments, settlement, cost, or other expense (including attorneys' fees and expenses and court costs) arising out of any investment, or for any other act taken by or recommended by or omission arising out of or in connection with the performance by the Portfolio Manager, its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, personnel, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or Affiliates under this Agreement or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, incurred as a result of actions taken or recommended or for any omissions of the Portfolio Manager, or for any decrease in the value of the Collateral Obligations, except that the Portfolio Manager shall be liable (i) by reason of acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or reckless disregard in the performance of its obligations hereunder or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager or, (ii) with respect to the information concerning the Portfolio Manager included in the Offering Circular dated February 21, 2014 (the "Offering Circular") under the headings "Risk Factors—Relating to the Portfolio Manager" and the sub-headings thereunder, "Risk Factors—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer will be subject to various conflicts of interest involving the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates" and "The Portfolio Manager," as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any consequential, punitive, exemplary or treble damages or lost profits hereunder or under the Indenture. The Issuer (the Issuer in such case, the "Indemnifying Party") shall indemnify and hold harmless the Portfolio Manager, its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, agents, personnel and employees and its Affiliates and their directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, agents, personnel and employees (each, an "Indemnified Party") from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (other than losses in the value of a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment incurred by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates in connection with a transaction in which it elects to acquire a Collateral Obligation or an Eligible Investment from the Issuer as principal) (collectively, "Liabilities"), and will promptly reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) as such fees and expenses (collectively, the "Expenses") are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the "Actions"), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with the Assets or business of the Issuer or any Tax Subsidiary or otherwise relating to the Indenture or this Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses (x) it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or reckless disregard in the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its obligations hereunder or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, or (y) it incurs with respect to the information concerning the Portfolio Manager included in the Offering Circular under the headings "Risk Factors—Relating to the Portfolio Manager" and the sub-headings thereunder, "Risk Factors—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer will be subject to various conflicts of interest involving the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates" and "The Portfolio Manager," as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer under this Section 11 are limited recourse obligations of the Issuer payable solely out of the Assets in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The Indemnified Parties are not required to consult with, or obtain the consent of, the Issuer with respect to any settlement, negotiation or other act of the Indemnified Parties in connection with any Action.

(b) The Portfolio Manager shall indemnify and hold harmless (the Portfolio Manager in such case, the "Indemnifying Party") the Issuer (the Issuer in such case, the "Indemnified Party") from and against any and all expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising directly out of any information described in Section 11(a)(ii) above, as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any special, indirect, consequential, punitive, exemplary or treble damages or lost profits.

(c) The Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the Indemnifying Party if the Indemnified Party receives a complaint, claim, compulsory process or other notice of any losses or damages giving rise to a claim for indemnification under this Section 11, but failure so to notify the Indemnifying Party or to comply with paragraph (d) below shall not relieve such Indemnifying Party from its obligations under this Section 11 unless and to the extent that such Indemnifying Party did not otherwise learn of such action or proceeding and to the extent such failure results in the forfeiture by the Indemnifying Party of material rights and defenses.

(d) With respect to any claim made or threatened against an Indemnified Party, or compulsory process or request served upon such Indemnified Party for which such Indemnified Party is or may be entitled to indemnification under this Section 11, such Indemnified Party shall:

(i) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, provide the Indemnifying Party such information and cooperation with respect to such claim as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require, including, but not limited to, making appropriate personnel available to the Indemnifying Party at such reasonable times as the Indemnifying Party may request;

(ii) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, cooperate and take all such steps as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request to preserve and protect any defense to such claim;

(iii) in the event suit is brought with respect to such claim, upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, which the Indemnifying Party may exercise in its sole discretion and at its expense, (A) to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement of such claim, and, (B) to the extent that it shall wish, to assume the defense thereof, with counsel satisfactory to such Indemnified Party (who shall not, except with the consent of the Indemnified Party, be counsel to the Indemnifying Party), and, after notice from the Indemnifying Party to such Indemnified Party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to such Indemnified Party under such subsection for any legal fees and expenses of other counsel or any other expenses, in each case subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Party, in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation, except that, if such Indemnified Party reasonably determines that counsel selected by the Indemnifying Party has a conflict of interest, such Indemnifying Party shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of one additional counsel selected by the Indemnified Party (in addition to any local counsel) separate from its own counsel for all Indemnified Parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances; and

(iv) neither incur any material expense to defend against nor make any admission with respect thereto, nor permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof, in each case without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party; provided that the Indemnifying Party shall have advised such Indemnified Party that such Indemnified Party is entitled to be indemnified hereunder with respect to such claim.

(e) No Indemnified Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, settle or compromise any claim giving rise to a claim for indemnity hereunder, or permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof; provided that if the Indemnified Party is the Portfolio Manager or an Affiliate or a Related Entity of the Portfolio Manager or of an Affiliate thereof, such Indemnified Party shall not be required to seek or obtain such consent if it determines in good faith that the Indemnifying Party is unlikely to have sufficient funds available to indemnify it in full, taking into account the Priority of Payments.

(f) No Indemnifying Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, settle or compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect to any claim giving rise to a claim for indemnity hereunder if such settlement includes a statement as to or an admission of fault, culpability or a failure to act by or on behalf of any Indemnified Party.

(g) If the indemnification provided for in this Section 11 is unavailable to an Indemnified Party in respect of any claims or liabilities referred to herein, then the Indemnifying Party, in lieu of indemnifying such Indemnified Party hereunder, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnified Party as a result of such claims or liabilities in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by, and the relative fault of, the Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and the Indemnified Parties, on the other hand, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations.

(h) The required indemnification provided by this Section 11 shall be in addition to any rights to which an Indemnified Party may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law, and shall extend to each of its or his or her heirs, successors and assigns. The provisions of this Section 11 shall continue to afford protection to each Indemnified Party regardless of whether such Indemnified Party remains in the position or capacity pursuant to which such Indemnified Party became entitled to indemnification under this Section 11.

(i) United States federal securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith and nothing herein shall constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Issuer or any Holder of Notes may have under any applicable federal securities laws.

(j) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Portfolio Manager's obligations hereunder will be solely the obligations of the Portfolio Manager, and the Issuer will not have any recourse to any Manager Related Party other than the Portfolio Manager, with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby.

(k) The Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any act or omission of the custodian, any sub-custodian, prime broker or other Person appointed by the Issuer. Any compensation to any such Person for its services to the Issuer shall be the obligation of the Issuer and not the Portfolio Manager.

(l) The Portfolio Manager shall not be responsible for any liability resulting from any failure by the Portfolio Manager to fulfill its duties under this Agreement if such liability or failure shall be caused by or directly or indirectly due to a Force Majeure Event, provided that the Portfolio Manager shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the effect of the same. As used herein, the term "Force Majeure Event" means such an operation of the forces of nature as reasonable foresight and ability could not foresee or reasonably provide against including but not limited to, acts of god, flood, war (whether declared or undeclared), terrorism, fire, strikes or work stoppages for any reason, embargo, government action, including any laws, ordinances, regulations or the like which restrict or prohibit the providing of the services contemplated by this Agreement, inability to obtain material, equipment, or communications or computer facilities, or the failure of equipment or interruption of communications or computer facilities, and other causes beyond a party's control whether or not of the same class or kind as specifically named above.

(m) The Portfolio Manager shall be entitled to conclusively rely in good faith, and shall be fully protected in relying, upon any writing, resolution, notice, consent, certificate, affidavit, letter, cablegram, telegram, facsimile, email, telex or teletype message, statement (which may be made orally or by telephone), order or other document or communication reasonably believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by a Person that the Portfolio Manager has no reason to believe is not duly authorized and upon the advice and statements of independent accountants.

(n) The Portfolio Manager may consult with outside legal counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters as to questions of law pertaining to the performance of its duties hereunder and the advice or opinion of such counsel on any such question shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with the advice or opinion of such counsel; provided that the Portfolio Manager may take actions not permitted by the Trading Restrictions only if it has received Tax Advice as set forth in Section 8.

12. No Partnership or Joint Venture.

The Issuer and the Portfolio Manager are not partners or joint venturers with each other and nothing herein shall be construed to make them such partners or joint venturers or impose any liability as such on either of them. The Portfolio Manager's relation to the Issuer shall be deemed to be that of an independent contractor.

13. Term; Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall commence as of the date first set forth above and shall continue in force and effect until the first of the following occurs: (i) the payment in full of the Notes and the termination of the Indenture in accordance with its terms; (ii) the liquidation of the Assets and the final distribution of the proceeds of such liquidation to the Holders; or (iii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with subsections (b) of this Section 13 or Section 15 of this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary but subject to the provisions of clause (e) below, this Agreement may be terminated without cause by the Portfolio Manager, and the Portfolio Manager may resign, upon 90 days' (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer) written notice to the Issuer; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to resign immediately upon the effectiveness of any material change in applicable law or regulations which renders the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or under the Indenture to be a violation of such law or regulation.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (b) above, no resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager or termination of this Agreement pursuant to such clause shall be effective until the date as of which a successor Portfolio Manager shall have been appointed and approved in accordance with Section 13(e) and has accepted all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement in writing and has assumed such duties and obligations.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 13, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other, except as provided in Section 3(h)(i), Sections 9(d) and (e) and Sections 11 and 16 of this Agreement.

(e) Any termination, removal or resignation of the Portfolio Manager while any Notes are Outstanding will be effective only upon (a) the appointment by the Issuer, at the direction of at least a Majority of the Subordinated Notes, with the consent of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class, of a successor Portfolio Manager that is an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties reasonably comparable to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager hereunder, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as successor to the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, (iii) satisfies the S&P Rating Condition, (iv) shall not cause the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or the pool of collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act and (v) shall not result in the imposition of any entity-level or withholding tax on the Issuer or the payments to the Holders or cause any other material adverse tax consequences to the Issuer and (b) written acceptance of appointment by such successor Portfolio Manager. The Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager to assume the duties and obligations of the removed or resigning Portfolio Manager. The Issuer, the Trustee and the successor Portfolio Manager shall take such action (or cause the outgoing Portfolio Manager to take such action) consistent with this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, as shall be necessary to effectuate any such succession. In the event that the successor manager has not been appointed or has not assumed the duties of the Portfolio Manager in writing within a 60-day period, any of the Portfolio Manager, a Majority of the Controlling Class or a Majority of the Subordinated Notes may petition a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Portfolio Manager, which appointment will not require the consent of, or be subject to the approval or disapproval of, the Issuer or any Holder (so long as such court appointed successor meets the requirements of clauses (a)(i) through (v) above).

(f) In the event of removal of the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement by the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, by the Trustee, the Issuer shall have all of the rights and remedies available with respect thereto at law or equity, and, without limiting the foregoing, the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, the Trustee may by notice in writing to the Portfolio Manager as provided under this Agreement terminate all the rights and obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement (except those that survive termination pursuant to Section 13(d) above). Upon resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager in accordance with this Section 13 or Section 15 of this Agreement, as applicable, and upon acceptance by a successor Portfolio Manager of appointment, all authority and power of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement and the Indenture, whether with respect to the Assets or otherwise, shall automatically and without further action by any Person pass to and be vested in the successor Portfolio Manager.

(g) For so long as Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate of Acis Capital Management, L.P. is the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer will be permitted to use the "Acis" name; provided that, if the Portfolio Manager ceases to be Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate of Acis Capital Management, L.P., the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to change its name to remove all reference to the name "Acis" therefrom. In addition, the Portfolio Manager, without the consent of the Issuer, may change the name of the Portfolio Manager.

14. Delegation; Assignments.

(a) Except as provided herein, the Portfolio Manager may not assign its rights or responsibilities hereunder without the written consent of the Issuer, at least a Majority of the Subordinated Notes (provided that failure to object within 45 days of written notice of assignment will constitute consent) and at least a Majority of the Controlling Class and satisfaction of the S&P Rating Condition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager may, (i) with the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class and without satisfaction of the S&P Rating Condition or the consent of any other Class, assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder to an Affiliate; provided that such Affiliate (A) has demonstrated ability, whether as an entity or by its personnel, to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement, (B) has the legal right and capacity to act as Portfolio Manager hereunder and (C) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, or (ii) enter into (or have its parent enter into) any consolidation or amalgamation with, or merger with or into, or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets to, another entity and, (A) at the time of such consolidation, merger, amalgamation or transfer the resulting, surviving or transferee entity assumes all the obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder generally and the other entity is solely a continuation of the Portfolio Manager in another corporate or similar form and has substantially the same staff and (B) such action does not cause the Issuer to be subject to tax in any jurisdiction outside of its jurisdiction of incorporation; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall deliver prior notice to the Rating Agencies then rating a Class of any assignment, delegation or combination made pursuant to this sentence.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing to the extent that applicable law requires the consent of the Issuer to any "assignment" (as defined in the Advisers Act) of this Agreement to any Person, in whole or in part, by the Portfolio Manager, such requirement may be satisfied with respect to the Issuer and all holders (i) by obtaining consent to such assignment on behalf of the Issuer from any of the following persons as determined by the Portfolio Manager: (A) one or more directors of the Issuer independent from the Portfolio Manager, (B) the Independent Review Party, or (C) an advisory committee established by the Portfolio Manager; or (ii) in any other manner that is permitted pursuant to then applicable law. Any assignment consented to by the Issuer and such Holders shall bind the assignee hereunder in the same manner as the Portfolio Manager is bound. In addition, the assignee shall execute and deliver to the Issuer and the Trustee a counterpart of this Agreement naming such assignee as Portfolio Manager. Upon the execution and delivery of such a counterpart by the assignee, the Portfolio Manager shall be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement, except with respect to its obligations arising under Section 11 of this Agreement prior to such assignment and except with respect to its obligations under Section 3(h)(i) and Section 16 hereof.

(c) This Agreement shall not be assigned by the Issuer without the prior written consent of the Portfolio Manager, and unless the S&P Rating Condition has been satisfied in connection with such assignment, except in the case of assignment by the Issuer to (i) an entity which is a successor to the Issuer permitted under the Indenture, in which case such successor organization shall be bound hereunder and by the terms of said assignment in the same manner as the Issuer is bound thereunder or (ii) the Trustee as contemplated by the Granting Clause of the Indenture. In the event of any assignment by the Issuer, the Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its successor to execute and deliver to the Portfolio Manager such documents as the Portfolio Manager shall consider reasonably necessary to effect fully such assignment.

15. Termination by the Issuer for Cause.

This Agreement may be terminated, and the Portfolio Manager may be removed for cause by at least a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes upon 30 days' prior written notice to the Portfolio Manager. For purposes of determining whether the holders of the required percentage of relevant principal amount of the Notes have given notice of removal of the Portfolio Manager for cause, Notes owned by the Portfolio Manager or any affiliate thereof or an account or fund managed by the Portfolio Manager or its affiliates will be disregarded and deemed to be not outstanding; provided that Notes owned by a fund or an account managed by the Portfolio Manager or an affiliate thereof will not be disregarded and will be deemed to be outstanding if the voting rights with respect to such Notes is exercised by such fund or account or the client or beneficiary of such fund or account and not by the Portfolio Manager or its affiliate. No such termination or removal shall be effective until the date as of which a successor Portfolio Manager shall have agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and as specified in the Indenture. For purposes of determining "cause" with respect to any such termination of this Agreement or removal of the Portfolio Manager, such term includes any one of the following events:

(a) the Portfolio Manager willfully violates, or takes any action that it knows breaches, any material provision of this Agreement or the Indenture applicable to it in bad faith (not including a willful and intentional breach that results from a good faith dispute regarding reasonable alternative courses of action or interpretation of instructions);

(b) the Portfolio Manager breaches in any respect any provision of this Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it (other than as covered by clause (a) and it being understood that failure to meet any Coverage Test, any Concentration Limitation or the Collateral Quality Test is not such a violation) (except for any such violations or breaches that have not had, or could not, either individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on the Issuer) and fails to cure such breach within 30 days of a Responsible Officer receiving notice of such breach, unless, if such breach is remediable, the Portfolio Manager has taken action that the Portfolio Manager believes in good faith will remedy such breach, and such action does remedy such breach, within 60 days after a Responsible Officer receives notice thereof;

(c) the Portfolio Manager is wound up or dissolved or there is appointed over it or a substantial portion of its assets a receiver, administrator, administrative receiver, trustee or similar officer; or the Portfolio Manager (i) ceases to be able to, or admits in writing its inability to, pay its debts as they become due and payable, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of, or enters into any composition or arrangement with, its creditors generally; (ii) applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, assignee, custodian, liquidator or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Portfolio Manager or of any substantial part of its properties or assets, or authorizes such an application or consent, or proceedings seeking such appointment are commenced without such authorization, consent or application against the Portfolio Manager and continue undismissed for 60 days; (iii) authorizes or files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, or applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the application of any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, insolvency or dissolution, or authorizes such application or consent, or proceedings to such end are instituted against the Portfolio Manager without such authorization, application or consent and are approved as properly instituted and remain undismissed for 60 days or result in adjudication of bankruptcy or insolvency; or (iv) permits or suffers all or any substantial part of its properties or assets to be sequestered or attached by court order and the order remains undismissed for 60 days;

(d) the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Indenture that consists of a default in the payment of principal or interest on the Secured Notes when due and payable and results primarily from any material breach by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or under the Indenture, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period;

(e) the occurrence of an act by the Portfolio Manager that constitutes fraud or criminal activity in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement (as determined pursuant to a final adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction), or the Portfolio Manager being convicted for a criminal offense materially related to its business of providing asset management services;

(f) any senior executive officer of the Portfolio Manager (in the performance of his or her investment management duties) is indicted for a criminal offense materially related to the business of the Portfolio Manager providing asset management services and continues to have responsibility for the performance by the Portfolio Manager hereunder for a period of 10 days after such indictment; or

(g) the inability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its duties hereunder in accordance with the standard of care specified herein due to the termination of the Service Agreements, unless the Portfolio Manager believes in good faith that it will be able to either (i) secure reasonably equivalent substitute services to those that were performed for the Portfolio Manager under the Service Agreements or (ii) perform its duties hereunder in accordance with the applicable standard of care without engaging a third-party service provider, in each case, within 30 days, and the Portfolio Manager is in fact able to secure such services or perform such duties within such 30-day period.

If any of the events specified in the definition of "cause" in this Section 15 shall occur, the Portfolio Manager shall give prompt written notice thereof to the Issuer, each Rating Agency, each Holder of Notes and the Trustee upon the Portfolio Manager's becoming aware of the occurrence of such event. A Majority of the Controlling Class may waive any event described in (a), (b), (d), (e), (f) or (g) above as a basis for termination of this Agreement and removal of the Portfolio Manager under this Section 15.

16. Action Upon Termination.

(a) From and after the effective date of the termination of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement or resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager hereunder, the Portfolio Manager shall not be entitled to compensation for further services hereunder, but shall be paid all compensation accrued to the date of termination, as provided in Section 9 hereof (including any accrued and unpaid Subordinated Management Fee), and shall be entitled to receive any amounts owing under Section 11 hereof. Upon such termination, resignation or removal, the Portfolio Manager shall as soon as practicable:

(i) deliver to the Issuer all property and documents of the Trustee or the Issuer or otherwise relating to the Assets then in the custody of the Portfolio Manager; and

(ii) deliver to the Trustee an accounting with respect to the books and records delivered to the Trustee or the successor Portfolio Manager appointed pursuant to Section 13(e) hereof.

Notwithstanding such termination, resignation or removal, the Portfolio Manager shall remain liable to the extent set forth herein (but subject to Section 11 hereof) for its liabilities hereunder arising prior to termination and for any expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in respect of or arising out of a breach of the representations and warranties made by the Portfolio Manager in Section 17(b) hereof or from any failure of the Portfolio Manager to comply with the provisions of this Section 16.

(b) The Portfolio Manager agrees that, notwithstanding any termination, it shall reasonably cooperate in any Proceeding arising in connection with this Agreement, the Indenture or any of the Assets (excluding any such Proceeding in which claims are asserted against the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager) upon receipt of appropriate indemnification and expense reimbursement.

17. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants to the Portfolio Manager as follows:

(i) The Issuer has been duly incorporated and is validly existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands, has the full corporate power and authority to own its assets and the securities proposed to be owned by it and included in the Assets and to transact the business in which it is presently engaged and is duly qualified under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Indenture, the Collateral Administration Agreement or the Notes (collectively, the "Issuer Documents") would require, such qualification, except for failures to be so qualified, authorized or licensed that would not in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer.

(ii) The Issuer has the necessary corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform each of the Issuer Documents and all obligations required thereunder, and has taken all necessary action to authorize each of the Issuer Documents on the terms and conditions hereof and thereof and the execution, delivery and performance of each of the Issuer Documents and the performance of all obligations imposed upon it hereunder and thereunder. No consent of any other Person including, without limitation, shareholders and creditors of the Issuer, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority, other than those that may be required under state securities or "blue sky" laws and those that have been or shall be obtained in connection with the Indenture and the issuance of the Notes, is required by the Issuer in connection with the Issuer Documents or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of the Issuer Documents or the obligations imposed upon it hereunder or thereunder. This Agreement constitutes, and each instrument or document required hereunder, when executed and delivered hereunder, shall constitute, the legally valid and binding obligation of the Issuer enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with its terms, subject, as to enforcement, to (a) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights, as such laws would apply in the event of any bankruptcy, receivership, insolvency or similar event applicable to the Issuer and (b) general equitable principles (whether enforceability of such principles is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity).

(iii) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement and the documents and instruments required hereunder and thereunder do not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Issuer, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Issuer, or the Governing Instruments of, or any securities issued by, the Issuer or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Issuer is a party or by which the Issuer or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer, and do not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking (other than the lien of the Indenture).

(iv) The Issuer is not required to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act.

(v) The Issuer is not in violation of its Governing Instruments or in breach or violation of or in default under the Indenture or any other contract or agreement to which it is a party or by which it or any of its assets may be bound, or any applicable statute or any rule, regulation or order (including, without limitation, any anti-money laundering statute or related rule, regulation or order) of any court, government agency or body having jurisdiction over the Issuer or its properties, the breach or violation of which or default under which would have a material adverse effect on the validity or enforceability of this Agreement or the performance by the Issuer of its duties hereunder or under the Collateral Administration Agreement.

(vi) True and complete copies of the Indenture and the Issuer's Governing Instruments have been delivered to the Portfolio Manager.

(vii) The Issuer has not taken any action or engaged in any activity, either directly or through an agent, that could cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(viii) The Issuer is not a "bank" for purposes of Section 881 (c)(3)(A) of the Code.

(ix) The Issuer is a "qualified client" as such term is defined under the Advisers Act.

(x) The Issuer understands that the rules and regulations administered by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") prohibit, among other things, the engagement in transactions with, and the provision of services to, certain countries, territories, entities and individuals. The lists of OFAC prohibited countries, territories, persons and entities can be found on the OFAC website at <http://www.treas.gov/ofac>. In addition, the programs administered by OFAC ("OFAC Programs") prohibit dealing with individuals or entities in certain countries regardless of whether such individuals or entities appear on the OFAC lists. To the best of its knowledge, none of: (1) the Issuer; (2) any person controlling or controlled by the Issuer; (3) any person having a beneficial interest in the Issuer; or (4) any person for whom the Issuer is acting as agent or nominee in connection with this investment is a country, territory, individual or entity named on an OFAC list, or is a person or entity prohibited under the OFAC Programs.

(xi) The Issuer has received and had an opportunity to review a current copy of Part 2 of the Form ADV of Acis Capital Management, L.P., at least forty-eight hours prior to its entering into this Agreement.

The Issuer agrees to deliver a true and complete copy of each amendment to the documents referred to in Section 17(a)(v) above to the Portfolio Manager as promptly as practicable after its adoption or execution.

(b) The Portfolio Manager hereby represents and warrants to the Issuer as follows:

(i) The Portfolio Manager is a limited partnership duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has full power and authority to own its assets and to transact the business in which it is currently engaged and is duly qualified and in good standing under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of this Agreement or the Collateral Administration Agreement (together with this Agreement, the "Manager Documents") would require such qualification, except for those jurisdictions in which the failure to be so qualified, authorized or licensed would not have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or on the ability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations under, or on the validity or enforceability of, the Manager Documents and the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager; the Portfolio Manager is registered as an investment adviser under the Advisers Act.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform each of the Manager Documents and all obligations required hereunder and under the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, and has taken all necessary action to authorize each of the Manager Documents on the terms and conditions hereof and thereof and the execution, delivery and performance of each of the Manager Documents and all obligations required hereunder and thereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager. No consent of any other Person, including, without limitation, creditors of the Portfolio Manager, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority is required by the Portfolio Manager in connection with the Manager Documents or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of the Manager Documents or the obligations required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager. Each of the Manager Documents has been, and each instrument and document required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall be, executed and delivered by a duly authorized officer of the Portfolio Manager, and each of the Manager Documents constitutes, and each instrument and document required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture when executed and delivered by the Portfolio Manager hereunder or thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall constitute, the valid and legally binding obligations of the Portfolio Manager enforceable against the Portfolio Manager in accordance with their terms, subject to (a) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights and (b) general equitable principles.

(iii) The execution, delivery and performance of the Manager Documents and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager and the documents and instruments required hereunder or thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Portfolio Manager, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Portfolio Manager, or the Governing Instruments of, or any securities issued by the Portfolio Manager or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Portfolio Manager is a party or by which the Portfolio Manager or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or its ability to perform its obligations under the Manager Documents, and shall not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking, the existence of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or its ability to perform its obligations under the Manager Documents.

(iv) There is no charge, investigation, action, suit or proceeding before or by any court pending or, to the best knowledge of the Portfolio Manager, threatened that, if determined adversely to the Portfolio Manager, would have a material adverse effect upon the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under, or on the validity or enforceability of, the Manager Documents and the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager hereunder.

(v) The Portfolio Manager is authorized to carry on its business in the United States and in all other jurisdictions necessary to the performance of its obligations under the Manager Documents and the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager.

(vi) The Portfolio Manager is not in violation of its Governing Instruments or in breach or violation of or in default under any contract or agreement to which it is a party or by which it or any of its property may be bound, or any applicable statute or any rule, regulation or order of any court, government agency or body having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or its properties, the breach or violation of which or default under which would have a material adverse effect on the validity or enforceability of the Manager Documents or the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, or the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or thereunder.

(vii) The information concerning the Portfolio Manager contained under the headings entitled "Risk Factors—Relating to the Portfolio Manager," "Risk Factors—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer will be subject to various conflicts of interest involving the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates" and "The Portfolio Manager," in the Offering Circular, as of the respective dates of the Offering Circular and as of the Closing Date, is true in all material respects and does not omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

19. Binding Nature of Agreement; Successors and Assigns.

Subject to Section 14 hereof, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and permitted assigns as provided herein.

20. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, inducements and conditions, express or implied, oral or written, of any nature whatsoever with respect to the subject matter hereof. The express terms hereof control and supersede any course of performance and/or usage of the trade inconsistent with any of the terms hereof.

21. Amendment.

This Agreement may not be modified or amended other than by an agreement in writing executed by the parties hereto and (other than in respect of a modification or amendment of the type that may be made to the Indenture without Holder consent) (i) the consent of a Majority of the Subordinated Notes, (ii) the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class and (iii) notice to the Rating Agencies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto, without the consent of any Holders, may amend or modify any provision of this agreement to (i) reflect a change that is of an inconsequential nature, (ii) correct inconsistencies, typographical or other errors, defects or ambiguities, (iii) conform this Agreement to the Offering Circular or the Indenture (as it may be amended from time to time) or (iv) reflect a change that is necessary or desirable to satisfy any requirements, conditions or guidelines contained in any opinion, directive, order, ruling or regulation (including ERISA, the Code, the Advisers Act and the Investment Company Act) of any U.S. federal or state agency or contained in any U.S. federal or state statute. In addition, Schedule 1 may be amended or modified by the parties hereto without the consent of any Holder in accordance with the last sentence of such Schedule.

22. Conflict with the Indenture.

In the event that this Agreement requires any action to be taken with respect to any matter and the Indenture requires that a different action be taken with respect to such matter, and such actions are mutually exclusive, the provisions of the Indenture (as in effect on the date hereof or as amended or supplemented, with the consent of the Portfolio Manager if such consent is required by Section 3(b)) in respect thereof shall control.

23. Priority of Payments.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that the payment of all amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to this Agreement shall be subordinated to the extent set forth in, and the Portfolio Manager agrees to be bound by the provisions of, Article 11 and Section 15.1 of the Indenture as if the Portfolio Manager were a party to the Indenture and each of the Portfolio Manager and Issuer hereby consents to the assignment of this Agreement as provided in Section 15.1 of the Indenture.

24. Governing Law; Jury Trial.

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICTS OF LAWS PROVISIONS THEREOF). EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT HAS RECEIVED FULL AND SUFFICIENT CONSIDERATION FOR THIS PROVISION AND THAT THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR SUCH PARTIES ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

25. Indulgences Not Waivers.

Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of any party hereto to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise of the same or of any other right, remedy, power or privilege, nor shall any waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any occurrence be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any other occurrence. No waiver shall be effective unless it is in writing and is signed by the party asserted to have granted such waiver.

26. Titles Not to Affect Interpretation.

The titles of Sections and subsections of this Agreement are for convenience only, and they neither form a part of this Agreement nor are they to be used in the construction or interpretation hereof.

27. Execution in Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

28. Provisions Separable.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, in case any provision in this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable as written, such provision shall be construed in the manner most closely resembling the apparent intent of the parties with respect to such provision so as to be valid, legal and enforceable; provided that, if there is no basis for such a construction, to the fullest extent permitted by law, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability and, unless the ineffectiveness of such provision destroys the basis of the bargain for one of the parties to this Agreement, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof or thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

29. Number and Gender.

Words used herein, regardless of the number and gender specifically used, shall be deemed and construed to include any other number, singular or plural, and any other gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, as the context requires.

30. Jurisdiction and Venue.

The parties to this Agreement irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the Notes or the Indenture, and the parties irrevocably agree that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York state or federal court. The parties to this Agreement irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent they may legally do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding. The parties to this Agreement irrevocably consent to the service of any and all process in any action or proceeding by the mailing or delivery of copies of such process to it in accordance with Section 18. The parties agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

31. Third Party Beneficiaries.

Other than as provided below, no party, including any Holder of Notes, is a third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The parties hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Trustee will be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement.

32. Miscellaneous.

(a) With respect to any Defaulted Obligation, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may instruct the agent or the trustee for such Defaulted Obligation to enforce the Issuer's rights under the Underlying Instruments governing such Defaulted Obligation and under any applicable law, rule or regulation in any manner permitted under the Indenture that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable business judgment will be in the best interests of the Issuer. In the event any Offer is made with respect to any Collateral Obligation or Equity Security, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may take such action as is permitted by the Indenture and that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable business judgment will be in the best interests of the Issuer.

(b) Without prejudice to Section 15(f) hereof, any corporation, partnership or limited liability company into which the Portfolio Manager may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Portfolio Manager shall be a party, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company succeeding to all or substantially all of the collateral management business of the Portfolio Manager, shall be the successor to the Portfolio Manager without any further action by the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Holders or any other Person or entity; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall give prompt written notice to each Rating Agency upon any such occurrence.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein or in the Indenture to the contrary, with respect to any report, information, communication, request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver to be given to a Rating Agency by the Issuer, the Issuer shall instead provide such information to the Portfolio Manager, and the Portfolio Manager shall then provide such information as well as any information related to the transaction requested by any Rating Agency directly from the Portfolio Manager to the applicable Rating Agencies via the website established on behalf of the Issuer for purposes of Rule 17g-5 under the Exchange Act.

(d) If the Issuer shall receive any written or oral communication from any Rating Agency (or any of their respective officers, directors or employees) with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby or in any way relating to the Notes, the Issuer agrees to refrain from communicating with such Rating Agency and to promptly (and, in any event, within one Business Day) notify the Portfolio Manager of such communication. The Issuer agrees to coordinate with the Portfolio Manager with respect to any communication to a Rating Agency and further agrees that in no event shall it engage in any oral or written communication with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby or in any way relating to the Notes with any Rating Agency (or any of their respective officers, directors or employees) without the participation of the Portfolio Manager.

33. Power of Attorney.

The Issuer hereby makes, constitutes and appoints each of Josh Terry, Hunter Covitz and Philip Braner, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact (each an "Attorney" and together the "Attorneys"), jointly and severally with full power and authority in its name, place and stead, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Indenture (a) to prepare, sign and deliver tax documentation, transfer documentation and all other documentation in connection with the acquisition and sale by the Issuer of Collateral Obligations and (b) to (i) vote in its discretion any securities, instruments or obligations included in the Assets, (ii) execute proxies, waivers, consents and other instruments with respect to such Collateral Obligations, (iii) endorse, transfer or deliver such securities, instruments and obligations, (iv) participate in or consent (or decline to consent) to any modification, work-out, restructuring, bankruptcy proceeding, class action, plan of reorganization, merger, combination, consolidation, liquidation or similar plan or transaction with regard to such Collateral Obligations and (v) take any other action specified in Section 3 of this Agreement. This grant of power of attorney will expire (a), with respect to each Attorney (and to each substitute appointed by such Attorney), when such Attorney ceases to be an officer or employee of Acis

Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate thereof, acting on behalf of Acis Capital Management, L.P. or (b) upon (x) termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms or (y) any assignment by the Portfolio Manager of its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with Section 14 hereof.

TRADING RESTRICTIONS

The Issuer (and the Portfolio Manager and the Independent Investment Professional acting on behalf of the Issuer) and any other person acting on behalf or at the direction of the Issuer, and any Affiliate of the Issuer, will comply with all of the provisions set forth in this Schedule I (the "Trading Restrictions") unless, with respect to a particular transaction, the Portfolio Manager shall have received written advice of Dechert LLP or an opinion of other counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such transaction, the Portfolio Manager's failure to comply with one or more of such provisions will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes, or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis. For purposes of these Trading Restrictions, a "Collateral Obligation" shall include any "Assets" as defined in the Indenture.

The Issuer shall acquire, hold, lend and dispose of Collateral Obligations only for its own account, and shall acquire and hold its Collateral Obligations solely for investment with the expectation and intention of realizing a profit from income earned on the Collateral Obligations and/or any increase in their value during the interval of time between acquisition and disposition thereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Trading Restrictions, the Issuer shall not (each of the following, a "Prohibited Activity"):

(i) act as, or engage in any activities customarily undertaken by, an agent, arranger, or structuring agent with respect to, or negotiate the terms of, any Collateral Obligation or otherwise; provided that, after the date on which the Issuer has acquired a Collateral Obligation, the Issuer may exercise any voting or other rights available to a holder of a Collateral Obligation under the terms of the Collateral Obligation, and may accept or reject any amendment or modification of the terms of that Collateral Obligation if (w) the amendment or modification is proposed by the obligor under that Collateral Obligation and does not require or provide for any advance of additional funds, the Collateral Obligation is not an Affiliate Collateral Obligation, neither the Issuer nor the Collateral Manager, nor any Affiliate of either, has participated directly or indirectly in the negotiation of the amendment or modification, and the Issuer is not the largest holder of the Collateral Obligation, or (x) the modification would not constitute a Significant Modification (for purposes of this clause, "Significant Modification" means any amendment, supplement or modification that involves (1) a change in interest rate or yield of the Collateral Obligation, (2) a change in the stated maturity or the timing of any material payment on the Collateral Obligation (including deferral of an interest payment), (3) a change in the obligor of the Collateral Obligation or (4) a change in the collateral or security for the Collateral Obligation, including the addition or deletion of a co-obligor or guarantor, all within the meaning of United States Department of the Treasury regulation section 1.1001-3), or (y) in the reasonable judgment of the Collateral Manager, the obligor is in financial distress, the obligor was not in financial distress on the date on which the Issuer acquired such Collateral Obligation and such change in terms is desirable to protect the Issuer's investment, or (z) the Issuer has received advice of Dechert LLP or an opinion of other counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters that the Issuer's involvement in such amendment, supplement or modification of the terms of that Collateral Obligation will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

(ii) act as, hold itself out as, represent to others that it is, or engage in any activities customarily undertaken by, a dealer, middleman, market maker, retailer or wholesaler in any Collateral Obligations, reference obligations or hedging or derivative instruments, or hold as inventory for purposes of resale to customers, any Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer;

(iii) perform services, or hold itself out as willing to perform services, for any person, or have or seek customers;

(iv) register as a broker-dealer under the laws of any country or political subdivision thereof, or register as, or become subject to regulatory supervision or other legal requirements under the laws of any country or political subdivision thereof as, a bank, insurance company, loan originator, finance company or other institution engaged in a similar loan origination or insurance business;

(v) take any action causing it to be treated as a bank, insurance company, loan originator, finance company or other institution engaged in a similar loan origination or insurance business for purposes of any tax, securities law or other filing or submission made to any governmental authority, any application made to a rating agency, or qualification for any exemption from tax, securities law or any other legal requirements;

(vi) hold itself out to the public as a bank, insurance company, loan originator, finance company or other institution engaged in a similar loan origination or insurance business, or hold itself out to the public, through advertising or otherwise, as originating loans or making a market in loans or other assets;

(vii) establish a branch, agency or other place of business within the United States; provided, that entering into this Agreement and the appointment of the Portfolio Manager as described herein shall not be construed as a violation of this clause (vii);

(viii) make any tax election which would cause it to be subject to United States federal, state or local income or franchise tax;

(ix) buy any security in order to earn a dealer spread or dealer mark-up over its cost; or

(x) buy any security with an expectation or intention of restructuring or entering into a workout of such security.

For purposes of this Schedule I, "dealer" means: (a) a merchant of securities with an established place of business who in the ordinary course of business is engaged as a merchant in purchasing securities and selling them to customers with a view to the gains and profits that may be derived therefrom, and (b) a person that regularly offers to enter into, assume, offset, assign or otherwise terminate positions in derivatives with customers in the ordinary course of a trade or business, including regularly holding itself out, in the ordinary course of its trade or business, as being willing and able to enter into either side of a derivative transaction.

Requirements With Respect to Collateral Obligations.

The Issuer may acquire Collateral Obligations only by assignment or participation, and may not execute any credit agreement whereby Collateral Obligations are issued. The Issuer shall not acquire any Collateral Obligation, or enter into any understanding, arrangement, forward sale agreement or commitment with any person to acquire any Collateral Obligation (a "Commitment"), in each case (i) prior to 48 hours after the completion of the issuance and funding of such Collateral Obligation, other than as otherwise permitted under "Forward Purchase Commitments" below, or (ii) if the Issuer would own more than 50 percent of the loan, obligation, issue, class or tranche that includes the Collateral Obligation or, if the loan, obligation, issue, class or tranche that includes that Collateral Obligation is part of a larger credit facility, more than 25 percent of that entire credit facility. In the case of any Collateral Obligation that is amended or modified in a manner that constitutes a Significant Modification after issuance and funding of such Collateral Obligation and before acquisition by the Issuer of such Collateral Obligation, any seasoning requirement set forth herein shall be computed and applied with respect to the date of such Significant Modification.

The Issuer shall not have any contractual relationship with the borrower or issuer with respect to a Collateral Obligation until the Issuer actually closes the acquisition of that Collateral Obligation. On the funding date of the Collateral Obligation, the documents relating to the Collateral Obligation shall not list the Issuer as a lender or otherwise as a party to any document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation. The Issuer shall not be a signatory on any lending agreement or any other document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation.

The Issuer shall not have any communications or negotiations with the borrower or issuer of any Collateral Obligation (directly or indirectly through the seller of such Collateral Obligation, the agent, negotiator, originator or structuror thereof, or any other person) prior to the completion of the issuance and funding thereof, in connection with the issuance or funding of such Collateral Obligation or commitments with respect thereto, or the Issuer's acquisition of such Collateral Obligation or the Issuer's Commitment with respect thereto, in each case, except as otherwise permitted under "Forward Purchase Commitments" below. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager or the Independent Investment Professional acting on its behalf, may, however, undertake customary due diligence communications with an issuer or obligor of any Collateral Obligation that would be reasonably necessary in order for an investor or trader to make a reasonably informed decision to acquire any such Collateral Obligation for its own account, and (ii) nothing contained herein shall prohibit expressions of interest or providing comments as to mistakes or inconsistencies in documents relating to any Collateral Obligation by the Issuer, or by the Portfolio Manager or the Independent Investment Professional acting on its behalf.

The Issuer shall not be entitled to earn or receive from any person any premium, fee, commission or other compensation for services, whether or not denominated as received for services, in connection with acquiring or disposing of a Collateral Obligation, or entering into a commitment to acquire or dispose of a Collateral Obligation, including without limitation, in each case, any amount that is attributable or otherwise determined by reference to the amount of any origination, underwriting or similar profit or related or similar fees for services earned by an underwriter, placement agent, lender, arranger, agent or other similar person in connection with the issuance or funding of a Collateral Obligation. In furtherance and not in limitation of the immediately preceding sentence, the Issuer shall not be entitled to earn or receive directly from any person any separately stated premium, fee or commission that is compensation for services or that is based upon or otherwise determined by reference to the amount of any such services. For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing prohibition against earning or receiving fees and similar amounts shall not apply to (i) any compensation paid other than for a Prohibited Activity pursuant to the terms of any Collateral Obligation (e.g., a prepayment fee or commitment fee), (ii) any amendment or waiver fee, or (iii) any discount in the price paid by the Issuer for a Collateral Obligation from the price paid by the seller of the Collateral Obligation where such discount is attributable to the time value of money, credit quality of the related borrower, market conditions, or terms and conditions of the Collateral Obligation.

Additional Requirements With Respect to Affiliate Collateral Obligations and Transfers to Affiliates.

Except as provided below, the Portfolio Manager shall not cause the Issuer to purchase any Collateral Obligation of any borrower or issuer with respect to which the Issuer, Portfolio Manager or any of their Affiliates:

(i) acted as an underwriter, financial advisory, placement or other agent, arranger, negotiator or structuror in connection with the issuance or origination of such Collateral Obligation,

(ii) was an agent, negotiator, structuring agent, bridge loan provider (where a bridge loan is repaid by any Collateral Obligation) or member of the original lending syndicate with respect to such Collateral Obligation, or

(iii) earned or received any compensation relating to the origination of such Collateral Obligation (each such Collateral Obligation, an "Affiliate Collateral Obligation").

The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer shall be permitted to cause the Issuer to purchase Affiliate Collateral Obligations, provided that the following conditions are met:

(I) at least 30 days shall have passed since the issuance and funding of such Affiliate Collateral Obligation and the holder of the Collateral Obligation did not identify the obligation or security as intended for sale to the Issuer within 30 days of its issuance;

(II) following such 30-day period, the Independent Investment Professional shall have approved the purchase by the Issuer of such Affiliate Collateral Obligation after a review of the terms and conditions thereof and a determination that such transaction shall be effected on an arm's length basis and that the purchase price represents fair market value (x) by reference to dealer quotes or the price paid by an unrelated secondary buyer in a material contemporaneous sale on substantially the same terms, or (y) to the extent there is no independent sale or the price paid in such sale is not readily ascertainable, by reference to the fair market value price at which an unrelated independent secondary market acquirer would acquire such Affiliate Collateral Obligation in an arm's length transaction;

(III) the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliate, as the case may be, originated the Collateral Obligation in the ordinary course of its business and not in contemplation of its acquisition by the Issuer; and

(IV) the Issuer may not purchase any Affiliate Collateral Obligation having a greater principal amount than the principal amount of such Affiliate Collateral Obligation held following such purchase by the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates (excluding the Issuer).

In addition, the Portfolio Manager shall not cause the Issuer to sell or assign any Collateral Obligation to the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates in a transaction in which the Portfolio Manager is acting as principal for its own account or has discretionary authority to invest for the account of such Affiliate, unless such sale or assignment is consented to by the Independent Investment Professional, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed so long as such sale or assignment is effected at the fair market value price that an unrelated independent secondary market acquirer would acquire such Collateral Obligation in an arm's length transaction. It is understood and agreed that the consent requirement of the immediately preceding sentence shall not apply to any sale or assignment of any Collateral Obligation by the Issuer to any Person whose equity is at least majority owned by the Issuer (e.g., a special purpose financing subsidiary).

Maintenance of Separate and Independent Status.

At the written request of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall establish a conflicts review board or appoint an independent third party to act on behalf of the Issuer (such board or party, an "Independent Investment Professional") with respect to transactions involving any Affiliate Collateral Obligation. Any Independent Investment Professional (i) shall either (A) be an established financial institution or other financial company with experience in assessing the merits of transactions similar to the transactions involving any Affiliate Collateral Obligation or (B) be a review board comprised of one or more individuals selected by the Issuer (or at the request of the Issuer, selected by the Collateral Manager), (ii) shall be required to assess the merits of the transaction involving any Affiliate Collateral Obligation and either grant or withhold consent to such transaction in its sole judgment and (iii) shall not be (A) affiliated with the Portfolio Manager (other than as a holder or as a passive investor in the Issuer or an Affiliate of the Issuer) or (B) involved in the daily management and control of the Issuer.

Neither the Independent Investment Professional nor any of the employees or personnel performing duties of the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer relating to the purchase of Affiliate Collateral Obligations shall be directly or indirectly involved in any origination or underwriting activities with respect to any Collateral Obligation, or have access to any files, records, or other information that is not available to independent unrelated secondary market acquirers concerning the origination or underwriting of any such Collateral Obligation. In addition, neither the Independent Investment Professional nor any of the employees or personnel performing duties of the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer relating to the purchase of Affiliate Collateral Obligations shall be a party to any discussions or meetings relating to origination or underwriting activities with respect to any Affiliate Collateral Obligation. No employee or personnel of the Portfolio Manager who is involved in any origination or underwriting activities with respect to any Affiliate Collateral Obligation shall have any direct or indirect influence over the decision making process of the Issuer or the Independent Investment Professional with respect to the acquisition or disposition of any Affiliate Collateral Obligation on behalf of the Issuer, but no such employee or personnel shall be prohibited from making recommendations to the Independent Investment Professional. However, in all cases the decision whether to invest in an Affiliate Collateral Obligation or to sell a Collateral Obligation to the Portfolio Manager or one of its Affiliates shall be an independent decision by the Independent Investment Professional.

Revolving Collateral Obligations and Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligations.

Neither the Issuer nor the Portfolio Manager acting on the Issuer's behalf shall acquire an interest (including by means of participation) in a Revolving Collateral Obligation or a Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation unless:

(i) such interest is acquired in the secondary market, the acquisition of such interest will not cause the Issuer to hold more than 25 percent of such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation, and taken together with the aggregate principal amount of other such interests held by the Issuer does not exceed 15% of the aggregate principal amount of all Collateral Obligations held by the Issuer; and

(ii) with respect to any Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation:

(a) neither the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager acting on behalf of the Issuer, nor the Independent Investment Professional acting on behalf of the Issuer has participated in the negotiation of the terms of such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation;

(b) the terms of such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation are fixed as of the date of the Issuer's acquisition thereof and do not provide the Issuer any discretion as to whether to make advances under such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation;

(c) more than a de minimis amount of such Collateral Obligation has been funded, or such loan is associated with a term loan to such borrower which has been fully funded; and

(d) the Issuer does not acquire any interest in a Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation which is not associated with a term loan prior to 60 days after the issuance thereof, and all such interests combined shall not exceed 10% of the aggregate principal amount of all assets held by the Issuer.

Forward Purchase Commitments.

The Issuer shall not have nor make any Commitment to acquire a Collateral Obligation from a seller before completion of the closing, full funding and seasoning (except, with respect to funding, in the case of a Revolving Collateral Obligation or a Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation) of the Collateral Obligation, except as permitted in the following provisions.

If a Commitment is made to acquire a Collateral Obligation, other than an Affiliate Collateral Obligation, from a seller before completion of the closing and full funding of the Collateral Obligation by such seller (the "Original Lender"), such commitment shall only be made pursuant to a forward sale agreement at an agreed price (a "Forward Purchase Commitment"). Any Forward Purchase Commitment with any Original Lender in respect of a Collateral Obligation may only be made after such Original Lender has delivered its own commitment to acquire its own interest in that Collateral Obligation and after all material terms of the Collateral Obligation have been agreed to.

In the process of making or negotiating to make a Forward Purchase Commitment, the Issuer shall not negotiate with respect to any term of the Collateral Obligation to which the Forward Purchase Commitment relates. The Issuer is not prevented from negotiating the terms of the Forward Purchase Commitment, including the price at which the Issuer shall acquire the Collateral Obligation to which the Forward Purchase Commitment relates.

If the Issuer enters into a Forward Purchase Commitment to acquire a Collateral Obligation, the Issuer's obligation under the Forward Purchase Commitment shall be conditioned on there being, as of the time the Issuer is to acquire the Collateral Obligation, no material adverse change in the condition of the borrower or issuer, the Collateral Obligation or the financial markets, and in all other respects, the Forward Purchase Commitment may only be conditional to the extent the related counterparty's own commitment in the origination process and funding of the Collateral Obligation is delayed, reduced or eliminated; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, a Forward Purchase Commitment shall not be required to be conditioned on the absence of a material adverse change if (y) the Issuer enters into the Forward Purchase Commitment no sooner than 48 hours after the Original Lender has delivered its own commitment with respect to the related Collateral Obligation and after all material terms of the Collateral Obligation have been agreed to, and (z) the Issuer's Commitment is documented in a form for secondary market purchases that is substantially similar to that used for commitments given by all other persons who will acquire an interest in the Collateral Obligation from the Original Lender (including as to the absence of a material adverse change condition). In the event of any delayed, reduced or eliminated funding, the Issuer shall not receive any premium, fee, or other compensation in connection with having entered into the Forward Purchase Commitment, other than commitment fees or fees in the nature of commitment fees that are customarily paid in connection with such delays, reductions or eliminations of funding of Collateral Obligations of the type permitted to be purchased by the Issuer.

The Issuer shall not have any contractual relationship with the borrower or issuer with respect to a Collateral Obligation that will be subject to a Forward Purchase Commitment until the Issuer actually closes the acquisition of that Collateral Obligation. On the funding date of the Collateral Obligation, the documents relating to the Collateral Obligation shall not list the Issuer as a lender or otherwise as a party to any document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation. The Issuer shall not be a signatory on any lending agreement or any other document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation.

The Issuer shall not enter into any Forward Purchase Commitment in respect of any Affiliate Collateral Obligation. The Issuer, or Portfolio Manager or the Independent Investment Professional acting on its behalf, may, however, undertake customary due diligence communications with an issuer or obligor of an Affiliate Collateral Obligation or any other Collateral Obligation that would be reasonably necessary in order for an investor or trader to make a reasonably informed decision to acquire any such Collateral Obligation for its own account.

For the avoidance of doubt, except as provided above with respect to Forward Purchase Commitments, the Issuer may enter into a Commitment with respect to a Collateral Obligation only when the Collateral Obligation is funded and at least 48 hours have thereafter elapsed.

Equity Restrictions.

The Issuer shall not acquire (whether as part of a "unit" with a Collateral Obligation, in exchange for a Collateral Obligation, or otherwise) any asset that is treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as:

(i) an equity interest in a partnership, a trust or a disregarded entity (unless all of the assets of such trust or disregarded entity would otherwise qualify either as Collateral Obligations hereunder or as equity interests in entities taxable as corporations for U.S. federal income tax purposes);

(ii) a residual interest in a "REMIC" (as such term is defined in the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"));

(iii) an ownership interest in a "FASIT" (as such term is defined in the Code); or

(iv) any asset that constitutes a "United States real property interest" ("USRPI"), including certain interests in a "United States real property holding corporation" ("USRPHC") (as such terms are defined in the Code), except that, if otherwise permitted under the Indenture, the Issuer may acquire and/or hold an interest in a USRPHC under circumstances where the USRPHC may not be liquidated, and stock of the USRPHC may not be sold, unless prior to such liquidation or sale all USRPI held by the USRPHC have been sold and all U.S federal income taxes payable by the USPRHC have been paid, and the Issuer reasonably believes, at the time of the acquisition of the interest in the USRPHC, that the USRPHC will be liquidated or the stock of the USRPHC will be sold (in each case, in accordance with the restrictions in this clause (iv)) prior to the liquidation of the Issuer.

Synthetic Securities.

The Issuer shall not acquire or enter into any swap transaction or security, which swap transaction or security provides for payments associated with either (i) payments of interest and/or principal on a reference obligation or (ii) the credit performance of a reference obligation.

(ii) the Portfolio Manager providing investment banking services to the Issuer; or

(iii) the Portfolio Manager having direct contact with, or actively soliciting or finding, outside investors to (x) invest in the Issuer or (y) make co-investments in securities of portfolio companies with the Issuer.

(h) The Portfolio Manager hereby agrees to the following:

(i) The Portfolio Manager agrees not to institute against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings or other proceedings under U.S. federal or state bankruptcy or similar laws, or the similar laws of the Cayman Islands or other applicable jurisdiction until the payment in full of all Notes issued under the Indenture and the expiration of a period equal to one year and a day, or, if longer, the applicable preference period, following such payment. Nothing in this Section 3(h)(i) shall preclude, or be deemed to stop, the Portfolio Manager (i) from taking any action prior to the expiration of the aforementioned period in (A) any case or Proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or (B) any involuntary insolvency Proceeding filed or commenced by a Person other than the Portfolio Manager, or (ii) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of its properties any legal action which is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceeding. The provisions of this Section 3(h)(i) shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager shall cause any purchase or sale of any Collateral Obligation to be conducted on arm's length terms or in the manner contemplated by Section 6, if applicable.

(iii) In providing services hereunder, the Portfolio Manager may employ third parties, including its Affiliates, to render advice (including investment advice), to provide services to arrange for trade execution and otherwise provide assistance to the Issuer, and to perform any of the Portfolio Manager's duties under this Agreement; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be relieved of any of its duties hereunder regardless of the performance of any services by third parties.

(i) From and after the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the Portfolio Manager will continue to perform and be bound by the provisions of this Agreement and the Indenture. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Indenture, the Trustee will be entitled to rely and be protected in relying upon all actions and omissions to act of the Portfolio Manager thereafter as fully as if no Event of Default had occurred.

4. Brokerage.

(a) The Portfolio Manager will seek to obtain the best execution (but shall have no obligation to obtain the best prices and execution) for all orders placed with respect to the Assets, in a manner permitted by law and in a manner it believes to be in the best interests of the Issuer. Subject to the preceding sentence, the Portfolio Manager may, in the allocation of business, select brokers and/or dealers with whom to effect trades on behalf of the Issuer and may open cash trading accounts with such brokers and dealers (provided that none of the Assets may be credited to, held in or subject to the lien of the broker or dealer with respect to any such account). In addition, subject to the first sentence of this paragraph, the Portfolio Manager may, in the allocation of business, take into consideration research and other brokerage services furnished to the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates by brokers and dealers which are not Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager; provided that the Portfolio Manager in good faith believes that the compensation for such services rendered by such brokers and dealers complies with the requirements of Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("Section 28(e)"), or in the case of principal or fixed income transactions for which the "safe harbor" of Section 28(e) is not available, the amount of the spread charged is reasonable in relation to the value of the research and other brokerage services provided. Such services may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with its other advisory activities or investment operations. The Portfolio Manager may aggregate sales and purchase orders of securities placed with respect to the Assets with similar orders being made simultaneously for other accounts managed by the Portfolio Manager or with accounts of the Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager, if in the Portfolio Manager's reasonable business judgment such aggregation shall result in an economic benefit to the Issuer, taking into consideration the advantageous selling or purchase price, brokerage commission or other expenses, as well as the availability of such securities on any other basis. In accounting for such aggregated order price, commissions and other expenses may be apportioned on a weighted average basis. When a transaction with respect to the Assets occurs as part of any aggregate sales or purchase orders, the objective of the Portfolio Manager shall be to allocate the executions among the accounts in an equitable manner the Portfolio Manager believes, in its reasonable business judgment, to be appropriate and in accordance with (x) its internal conflicts of interest and allocation policies and (y) any applicable requirements of the Advisers Act.

(b) The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that (i) the determination by the Portfolio Manager of any benefit to the Issuer will be subjective and will represent the Portfolio Manager's evaluation at the time that the Issuer will be benefited by relatively better purchase or sales prices, lower brokerage commissions, lower transaction costs and expenses and beneficial timing of transactions or any combination of any of these and/or other factors and (ii) the Portfolio Manager shall be fully protected with respect to any such determination to the extent the Portfolio Manager acts in accordance with Section 3(b).

(c) Subject to the Portfolio Manager's execution obligations described in Sections 4(a) and (d) and the covenants set forth in Section 6, the Portfolio Manager is hereby authorized to effect client cross-transactions where the Portfolio Manager causes a transaction with respect to the Assets to be effected between the Issuer and another account advised by it or any of its Affiliates; provided that, if and to the extent required by the Advisers Act, such authorization is terminable prior to the initiation of such cross-transaction at the Issuer's option without penalty. Such termination shall be effective upon receipt by the Portfolio Manager of written notice from the Issuer. Subject to the Portfolio Manager's execution obligations described in Sections 4(a) and (d) and the covenants set forth in Section 6, the Portfolio Manager is hereby authorized to effect transactions, including principal transactions, where the Issuer may invest in securities of obligors or issuers in which the Portfolio Manager and/or its Affiliates have a debt, equity or participation interest, in each case in accordance with applicable law.

(d) The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates may acquire or sell obligations or securities, for its own account or for the accounts of its customers, without either requiring or precluding the acquisition or sale of such obligations or securities for the account of the Issuer. Such investments may be the same or different from those made on behalf of the Issuer. If, in light of market conditions and investment objectives, the Portfolio Manager determines that it would be advisable to purchase the same item of Collateral Obligation both for the Issuer, and either the proprietary account of the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager or another client of the Portfolio Manager, the Portfolio Manager shall allocate such investment opportunities across such entities for which such opportunities are appropriate, consistent with (i) its internal conflicts of interest and allocation policies and (ii) any applicable requirements of the Advisers Act. The Issuer agrees that, in the course of managing the Collateral Obligations held by the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager may consider its relationships with other clients (including obligors and issuers) and its Affiliates. The Portfolio Manager may decline to make a particular investment for the Issuer in view of such relationships.

5. Additional Activities of the Portfolio Manager.

(a) Nothing herein shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Related Entities from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Issuer and its Affiliates (other than those services that would violate the Portfolio Manager's covenants under this Agreement), the Trustee, the Holders, the Initial Purchaser or any other Person to the extent permitted by applicable law, regardless of whether such business is in competition with the Issuer or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager, its Related Entities and the directors, officers, employees and agents of the Portfolio Manager and its Related Entities may, subject to any limits specified in the Indenture:

(i) serve as directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, partners, employees, agents, nominees or signatories, and receive arm's length fees in connection with such service, for the Issuer or its Affiliates, or for any obligor or issuer in respect of the Collateral Obligations, Equity Securities or Eligible Investments or any affiliate thereof, to the extent permitted by their Governing Instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Issuer, its Affiliates or any obligor or issuer in respect of any of the Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or Equity Securities (or any Affiliate thereof) pursuant to their respective Governing Instruments, and neither the Holders of the Notes nor the Issuer shall have the right to any such fees; provided that, in the reasonable business judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity will not have a material adverse effect on any item of the Assets;

(ii) receive fees or other compensation from third parties (including Persons in which the Issuer has made or proposes to make an investment) in connection with any business activities of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates and which are not related to the use of the Issuer's capital (which fees or other compensation shall be for the benefit of the Portfolio Manager's own account); provided that, in the reasonable business judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activities will not have a material adverse effect on any item of the Assets; and

(iii) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold an equity interest in, or own or hold notes issued by, the Issuer, its Affiliates or any obligor or issuer of any obligation included in the Assets, subject to the Portfolio Manager's obligations in Section 8 hereof.

As a result, such individuals may possess information relating to obligors and issuers of Collateral Obligations that is (a) not known to or (b) known but restricted as to its use by the individuals at the Portfolio Manager responsible for monitoring the Collateral Obligations and performing the other obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement. Each of such ownership and other relationships may result in securities laws restrictions on transactions in such securities by the Issuer and otherwise create conflicts of interest for the Issuer. The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that, in all such instances, the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may in their discretion make investment recommendations and decisions that may be the same as or different from those made with respect to the Issuer's investments and they have no duty, in making or managing such investments, to act in a way that is favorable to the Issuer.

The Issuer acknowledges that there are generally no ethical screens or information barriers among the Portfolio Manager and certain of its Affiliates of the type that many firms implement to separate Persons who make investment decisions from others who might possess material, non-public information that could influence such decisions. The officers or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager may possess information relating to obligors or issuers of Collateral Obligations that is not known to the individuals at the Portfolio Manager responsible for monitoring the Collateral Obligations and performing the other obligations under this Agreement. As a result, the Portfolio Manager may from time to time come into possession of material nonpublic information that limits the ability of the Portfolio Manager to effect a transaction for the Issuer, and the Issuer's investments may be constrained as a consequence of the Portfolio Manager's inability to use such information for advisory purposes or otherwise to effect transactions that otherwise may have been initiated on behalf of its clients, including the Issuer.

(b) It is understood that the Portfolio Manager and any of its Affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have investment policies similar to those followed by the Portfolio Manager with respect to the Assets and which may own securities or obligations of the same class, or which are of the same type, as the Collateral Obligations or the Eligible Investments or other securities or obligations of the obligors or issuers of the Collateral Obligations or the Eligible Investments. The Portfolio Manager will be free, in its sole discretion, to make recommendations to others or effect transactions on behalf of itself or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Assets. Nothing in the Indenture and this Agreement shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, acting either as principal or agent on behalf of others, from buying or selling, or from recommending to or directing any other account to buy or sell, at any time, securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same obligor or issuer, as those directed by the Portfolio Manager to be purchased or sold on behalf of the Issuer. It is understood that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or Related Entities, or any of their directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or affiliates or any member of their families or a Person or entity advised by the Portfolio Manager may have an interest in a particular transaction or in securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same obligor or issuer, as those whose purchase or sale the Portfolio Manager may direct hereunder.

(c) The Portfolio Manager shall not be obligated to pursue any particular investment strategy or opportunity with respect to the Assets.

(d) The Issuer acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may make and/or hold an investment in an obligor's or issuer's securities that may be pari passu, senior or junior in ranking to an investment in such obligor's or issuer's securities made and/or held by the Issuer or in which partners, security holders, members, officers, directors, agents or employees of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates serve on boards of directors or otherwise have ongoing relationships.

6. Conflicts of Interest.

(a) Subject to compliance with applicable laws and regulations and subject to this Agreement and the Indenture, the Portfolio Manager may direct the Trustee to acquire a Collateral Obligation from, or sell a Collateral Obligation, Equity Security, Eligible Investment or asset held by an ETB Subsidiary to, the Portfolio Manager, any of its Affiliates or any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates serve as investment advisor for fair market value. The Portfolio Manager may obtain the Issuer's written consent through the Independent Review Party as provided herein if any such transaction requires the consent of the Issuer under Section 206(3) of the Advisers Act (any such transaction, an "Affiliate Transaction"). The Issuer hereby acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or accounts advised or sub-advised by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates (collectively, the "Portfolio Manager Affiliates") will purchase on the Closing Date U.S.$6,000,000 of the Class D Notes, U.S.$4,000,000 of the Class F Notes and U.S.$50,750,000 of the Subordinated Notes (together, the "Portfolio Manager Notes"). The Issuer further acknowledges and agrees that no Portfolio Manager Affiliate is under any obligation to retain any Portfolio Manager Notes, and may sell all or a portion of such Portfolio Manager Notes at any time. In addition, the Issuer acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager Affiliates may acquire and subsequently sell other Notes after the Closing Date. In certain circumstances, the interests of the Issuer and/or the Holders or beneficial owners of the Notes with respect to matters as to which the Portfolio Manager is advising the Issuer may conflict with the interests of the Portfolio Manager Affiliates or its Related Entities.

The Issuer hereby acknowledges that various potential and actual conflicts of interest may exist with respect to the Portfolio Manager as described above and as described in the final offering circular relating to the Notes; provided that nothing in this Section 6 shall be construed as altering the duties of the Portfolio Manager referred to herein.

(b) At the written request of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall establish a conflicts review board or appoint an independent third party to act on behalf of the Issuer (such board or party, an "Independent Review Party") with respect to Affiliate Transactions. Decisions of any Independent Review Party shall be binding on the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer, and Holders of the Notes.

(c) Any Independent Review Party (i) shall either (A) be the Issuer's Board of Directors, (B) be an established financial institution or other financial company with experience in assessing the merits of transactions similar to the Affiliate Transactions or (C) be a review board comprised of one or more individuals selected by the Issuer (or at the request of the Issuer, selected by the Portfolio Manager), (ii) shall be required to assess the merits of the Affiliate Transaction and either grant or withhold consent to such transaction in its sole judgment and (iii) shall not be (A) affiliated with the Portfolio Manager (other than as a Holder or as a passive investor in the Issuer or an Affiliate of the Issuer) or (B) (other than the Issuer's Board of Directors) involved in the daily management and control of the Issuer.

(d) The Issuer (i) shall be responsible for any fees relating to the services provided by any Independent Review Party and shall reimburse members of any Independent Review Party for their out-of-pocket expenses and (ii) may indemnify members of such Independent Review Party to the maximum extent permitted by law, subject to terms and conditions satisfactory to the Portfolio Manager.

7. Records; Confidentiality.

The Portfolio Manager shall maintain or cause to be maintained appropriate books of account and records relating to its services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by representatives of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Holders, and the Independent accountants appointed by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer pursuant to Article 10 of the Indenture at any time during normal business hours and upon not less than three Business Days' prior notice. The Portfolio Manager shall keep confidential any and all information that is either (i) of a type that would ordinarily be considered proprietary or confidential or (ii) designated as confidential (collectively "Confidential Information") obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder and shall not disclose any such Confidential Information to non-affiliated third parties (excluding any Holders and beneficial owners of Notes to the extent required by the terms of the Indenture) except (a) with the prior written consent of the Issuer, (b) such Confidential Information as a Rating Agency shall reasonably request in connection with its rating of the Secured Notes or supplying credit estimates on any obligation included in the Assets, (c) in connection with establishing trading or investment accounts or otherwise in connection with effecting transactions with respect to the Assets on behalf of the Issuer, (d) as required by (i) applicable law, regulation, court order, or a request by a governmental regulatory agency with jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, (ii) the rules or regulations of any stock exchange or self-regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates or (iii) the Irish Stock Exchange, (e) to its professional advisors (including, without limitation, legal, tax and accounting advisors), (f) such Confidential Information as shall have been publicly available or disclosed other than in known violation of this Agreement or the provisions of the Indenture or shall have been obtained by the Portfolio Manager on a non-confidential basis, (g) such Confidential Information as is necessary or appropriate to disclose so that the Portfolio Manager may perform its duties hereunder, under the Indenture or the related documents or (h) general performance information which may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with their marketing activities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is agreed that the Portfolio Manager may disclose (a) that it is serving as portfolio manager of the Issuer, (b) the nature, aggregate principal amount and overall performance of the Issuer's assets, (c) the amount of earnings on the Assets, (d) such other Confidential Information about the Issuer, the Assets and the Notes as is customarily disclosed by managers of collateralized loan obligations and (e) each of its respective employees, representatives or other agents may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the United States federal income tax treatment and United States federal income tax structure of the transactions contemplated by the Indenture, this Agreement and the related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions and other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such United States federal income tax treatment and United States income tax structure. For purposes of this Section 7, the Holders and beneficial owners of the Notes shall not be considered "non-affiliated third parties."

8. Obligations of Portfolio Manager.

In accordance with the performance standard set forth in Section 3(b), the Portfolio Manager shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that no action is taken by it, and shall not intentionally or with reckless disregard take any action, which would (a) materially and adversely affect the status of the Issuer for purposes of Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state law, or other law known to the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to the Issuer, (b) not be permitted by the Issuer's Governing Instruments, (c) violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer, including, without limitation, actions which would violate any Cayman Islands law, United States federal, state or other applicable securities law that is known by the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to it and, in each case, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer or have a material adverse effect on the ability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations hereunder or under the Indenture, (d) require registration of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the pool of Assets as an "investment company" under Section 8 of the Investment Company Act, (e) cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise cause the Issuer to be subject to U.S. federal or state income tax on a net basis; provided that it shall not be a violation of this clause (e) for the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal or state income tax on a net basis as a result of an action taken either (i) in compliance with the Trading Restrictions attached hereto as Schedule 1 or (ii) in reliance upon Tax Advice to the effect that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such action, the Issuer's contemplated action would not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis; or (f) knowingly and willfully adversely affect the interests of the Holders in the Assets in any material respect (other than (i) as expressly permitted hereunder or under the Indenture or (ii) in connection with any action taken in the ordinary course of business of the Portfolio Manager in accordance with its fiduciary duties to its clients). In furtherance of the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager shall at all times comply with the Trading Restrictions set forth in Schedule 1; provided that the Portfolio Manager may take an action that is not permitted by such Trading Restrictions if (x) such action is otherwise permitted under this Agreement and the Indenture and (y) the Portfolio Manager has received Tax Advice to the effect that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such transaction, taking into account the Issuer's failure to comply with one or more of such provisions and assuming compliance with the Indenture and all other provisions of the Trading Restrictions, the Issuer's contemplated activities would not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis. If the Portfolio Manager is ordered by the Board of Directors of the Issuer or the requisite Holders or beneficial owners of Notes to take any action which would, or could reasonably be expected to, in each case in its reasonable business judgment, have any such consequences, the Portfolio Manager shall promptly notify the Issuer that such action would, or could reasonably be expected to, in each case in its reasonable business judgment, have one or more of the consequences set forth above and shall not take such action unless the Board of Directors of the Issuer then request the Portfolio Manager to do so and at least a Majority of both the Controlling Class and the Subordinated Notes (voting separately by Class) have consented thereto in writing. Notwithstanding any such request, the Portfolio Manager shall not take such action unless (1) arrangements satisfactory to it are made to insure or indemnify the Portfolio Manager, Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager and members, shareholders, partners, directors, managers, officers or employees of the Portfolio Manager or such Affiliates from any liability and expense it may incur as a result of such action and (2) if the Portfolio Manager so requests in respect of a question of law, the Issuer delivers to the Portfolio Manager an opinion of a nationally recognized law firm (from outside counsel satisfactory to the Portfolio Manager) that the action so requested does not violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer or over the Portfolio Manager. Neither the Portfolio Manager nor its Affiliates, shareholders, partners, directors, members, managers, officers or employees shall be liable to the Issuer or any other Person, except as provided in Section 11. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, any indemnification or insurance by the Issuer provided for in this Section 8 or Section 11 shall be payable out of the Assets in accordance with the Priority of Payments, and the Portfolio Manager may take into account such Priority of Payments in determining whether any proposed indemnity arrangements contemplated by this Section 8 are satisfactory.

9. Compensation.

(a) The Issuer shall pay to the Portfolio Manager, for services rendered under this Agreement, on each Payment Date, the Senior Management Fee, the Subordinated Management Fee and the Incentive Management Fee. Accrued and unpaid Management Fees shall be paid as set forth in Article 11 of the Indenture. To the extent any of the Subordinated Management Fee is not paid on any Payment Date, such payment will be deferred and will accrue interest at LIBOR (as determined for the applicable Interest Accrual Period with respect to the Secured Notes), compounded quarterly, as set forth in the Indenture.

(b) The Portfolio Manager may (but shall not be obligated to), at its election upon notice to the Issuer and the Trustee (the "Fee Election Notice"), reduce for a predetermined period of time, as specified in the Fee Election Notice, the amount which is due to it as Senior Management Fee by a specific percentage, in which case the Subordinated Management Fee shall automatically be increased by the same percentage (the "Fee Election"). Any Fee Election must be made on or before the Determination Date for the first Collection Period in respect of which the Fee Election will apply and shall not be revocable during the period of the Fee Election; except that, in the event that the Portfolio Manager is removed, resigns or assigns its rights to any Persons, as contemplated by Sections 13, 14 and 15 of this Agreement, the replacement Portfolio Manager shall be bound initially by the terms set forth under Section 9(a) and the Fee Election will not apply to such replacement Portfolio Manager.

(c) The Portfolio Manager shall pay (without reimbursement by the Issuer) its general overhead expenses, including (i) all costs and expenses on account of salaries, wages, bonuses and other employee benefits of the Portfolio Manager and (ii) all occupational expenses, including rent, taxes and utilities, of the Portfolio Manager. The Issuer shall pay or reimburse the Portfolio Manager (at closing in the case of clause (i) below) for its payment of any and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred on behalf of the Issuer, including, without limitation: (i) the costs and expenses of the Portfolio Manager incurred in connection with the negotiation and preparation of this Agreement and all other agreements and matters related to the issuance of the Notes; (ii) any transfer fees necessary to register any Collateral Obligation in accordance with the Indenture; (iii) any costs, fees and expenses in connection with the acquisition, management or disposition of Assets or otherwise in connection with the Notes or the Issuer (including (a) investment related travel, communications and related expenses, (b) loan processing fees, legal fees and expenses and other expenses of professionals retained by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer and (c) amounts in connection with the termination, cancellation or abandonment of a potential acquisition or disposition of any Assets that is not consummated); (iv) any and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the carrying or management of the Assets; (v) any and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Notes and other indebtedness of the Issuer; (vi) any and all attorneys', accountants', rating agencies', consultants', brokers' and other professionals' fees and disbursements relating to Issuer matters (including in house attorneys' and accountants' services provided by or on behalf of the Portfolio Manager to the Issuer as may be reasonably allocated to the Issuer); (vii) any and all taxes and governmental charges that may be incurred or payable by the Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary; (viii) any and all insurance premiums or expenses incurred in connection with the activities of the Issuer by the Portfolio Manager; (ix) any and all costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with the rating of the Notes or obtaining ratings or credit estimates on Collateral Obligations, and communications with the Rating Agencies (including (a) any expenses related to compliance with Rule 17g-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and (b) any fees, expenses or other amounts payable to the Rating Agencies); (x) any and all costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Portfolio Manager's communications with the Holders (including charges related to annual meetings) and costs and expenses for services to the Issuer in respect of the Assets relating to asset pricing and rating services and specialty database software licensing and development fees; (xi) any and all costs and expenses incurred by the Portfolio Manager in connection with the establishment of any ETB Subsidiary (provided that such costs and expenses are directly attributable to the establishment of such ETB Subsidiary), and (xii) any and all expenses incurred to comply with any law or regulation related to the activities of the Issuer, any ETB Subsidiary and the Portfolio Manager. Other than as stated above, the Issuer will bear, and will pay directly in accordance with the Indenture, all other costs and expenses incurred by it or on its behalf in connection with the organization, operation or liquidation of the Issuer.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 13, Section 15 or otherwise, the Senior Management Fee, the Subordinated Management Fee and the Incentive Management Fee calculated as provided in the Indenture shall be prorated for any partial periods between Payment Dates during which this Agreement was in effect and shall be due and payable on the first Payment Date following the date of such termination, subject to Article 11 of the Indenture.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer are limited recourse obligations payable solely from Assets granted to the Trustee pursuant to the Granting Clauses of the Indenture in accordance with the Priority of Payments and, following realization of the Assets and reduction thereof to zero, all obligations of the Issuer and any claims against the Issuer under this Agreement shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. No recourse shall be had for the payment of any amount owing in respect of this Agreement against any other asset of the Issuer or against any officer, director, employee, shareholder or incorporator of the Issuer. The provisions of this Section 9(e) shall survive termination of this Agreement.

10. Benefit of the Agreement.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that its obligations hereunder in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to it shall be enforceable by the Issuer and by the Trustee on behalf of the Holders, as provided in the Indenture. The Portfolio Manager agrees and consents to the provisions contained in Section 15.1 of the Indenture.

11. Limits of Portfolio Manager Responsibility.

(a) Subject to Section 8, the Portfolio Manager assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to it and affecting the duties and functions that have been delegated to it thereunder and hereunder in good faith and, subject to the standard of conduct described in the next succeeding sentence. The Portfolio Manager shall not be responsible for any action or inaction of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee in declining to follow any advice, recommendation or direction of the Portfolio Manager including as set forth in Section 8. Neither the Portfolio Manager nor any of its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, personnel, employees, agents or Affiliates will be liable to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Holders of the Notes, the Initial Purchaser or any other Person for any act, omission, error of judgment, mistake of law, or for any claim, loss, liability, damage, judgments, assessments, settlement, cost, or other expense (including attorneys' fees and expenses and court costs) arising out of any investment, or for any other act taken by or recommended by or omission arising out of or in connection with the performance by the Portfolio Manager, its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, personnel, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or Affiliates under this Agreement or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, incurred as a result of actions taken or recommended or for any omissions of the Portfolio Manager, or for any decrease in the value of the Collateral Obligations, except that the Portfolio Manager shall be liable (i) by reason of acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or reckless disregard in the performance of its obligations hereunder or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager or, (ii) with respect to the information concerning the Portfolio Manager included in the Offering Circular dated June 3, 2014 (the "Offering Circular") under the headings "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager" and the sub-headings thereunder, "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer will be subject to various conflicts of interest involving the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates" and "The Portfolio Manager," as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any consequential, punitive, exemplary or treble damages or lost profits hereunder or under the Indenture. The Issuer (the Issuer in such case, the "Indemnifying Party") shall indemnify and hold harmless the Portfolio Manager, its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, agents, personnel and employees and its Affiliates and their directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, agents, personnel and employees (each, an "Indemnified Party") from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (other than losses in the value of a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment incurred by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates in connection with a transaction in which it elects to acquire a Collateral Obligation or an Eligible Investment from the Issuer as principal) (collectively, "Liabilities"), and will promptly reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) as such fees and expenses (collectively, the "Expenses") are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the "Actions"), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with the Assets or business of the Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary or otherwise relating to the Indenture or this Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses (x) it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or reckless disregard in the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its obligations hereunder or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, or (y) it incurs with respect to the information concerning the Portfolio Manager included in the Offering Circular under the headings "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager" and the sub-headings thereunder, "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer will be subject to various conflicts of interest involving the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates" and "The Portfolio Manager," as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer under this Section 11 are limited recourse obligations of the Issuer payable solely out of the Assets in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The Indemnified Parties are not required to consult with, or obtain the consent of, the Issuer with respect to any settlement, negotiation or other act of the Indemnified Parties in connection with any Action.

(b) The Portfolio Manager shall indemnify and hold harmless (the Portfolio Manager in such case, the "Indemnifying Party") the Issuer (the Issuer in such case, the "Indemnified Party") from and against any and all expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising directly out of any information described in Section 11(a)(ii) above, as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any special, indirect, consequential, punitive, exemplary or treble damages or lost profits.

(c) The Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the Indemnifying Party if the Indemnified Party receives a complaint, claim, compulsory process or other notice of any losses or damages giving rise to a claim for indemnification under this Section 11, but failure so to notify the Indemnifying Party or to comply with paragraph (d) below shall not relieve such Indemnifying Party from its obligations under this Section 11 unless and to the extent that such Indemnifying Party did not otherwise learn of such action or proceeding and to the extent such failure results in the forfeiture by the Indemnifying Party of material rights and defenses.

(d) With respect to any claim made or threatened against an Indemnified Party, or compulsory process or request served upon such Indemnified Party for which such Indemnified Party is or may be entitled to indemnification under this Section 11, such Indemnified Party shall:

(i) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, provide the Indemnifying Party such information and cooperation with respect to such claim as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require, including, but not limited to, making appropriate personnel available to the Indemnifying Party at such reasonable times as the Indemnifying Party may request;

(ii) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, cooperate and take all such steps as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request to preserve and protect any defense to such claim;

(iii) in the event suit is brought with respect to such claim, upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, which the Indemnifying Party may exercise in its sole discretion and at its expense, (A) to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement of such claim, and, (B) to the extent that it shall wish, to assume the defense thereof, with counsel satisfactory to such Indemnified Party (who shall not, except with the consent of the Indemnified Party, be counsel to the Indemnifying Party), and, after notice from the Indemnifying Party to such Indemnified Party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to such Indemnified Party under such subsection for any legal fees and expenses of other counsel or any other expenses, in each case subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Party, in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation, except that, if such Indemnified Party reasonably determines that counsel selected by the Indemnifying Party has a conflict of interest, such Indemnifying Party shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of one additional counsel selected by the Indemnified Party (in addition to any local counsel) separate from its own counsel for all Indemnified Parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances; and

(iv) neither incur any material expense to defend against nor make any admission with respect thereto, nor permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof, in each case without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party; provided that the Indemnifying Party shall have advised such Indemnified Party that such Indemnified Party is entitled to be indemnified hereunder with respect to such claim.

(e) No Indemnified Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, settle or compromise any claim giving rise to a claim for indemnity hereunder, or permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof; provided that if the Indemnified Party is the Portfolio Manager or an Affiliate or a Related Entity of the Portfolio Manager or of an Affiliate thereof, such Indemnified Party shall not be required to seek or obtain such consent if it determines in good faith that the Indemnifying Party is unlikely to have sufficient funds available to indemnify it in full, taking into account the Priority of Payments.

(f) No Indemnifying Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, settle or compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect to any claim giving rise to a claim for indemnity hereunder if such settlement includes a statement as to or an admission of fault, culpability or a failure to act by or on behalf of any Indemnified Party.

(g) If the indemnification provided for in this Section 11 is unavailable to an Indemnified Party in respect of any claims or liabilities referred to herein, then the Indemnifying Party, in lieu of indemnifying such Indemnified Party hereunder, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnified Party as a result of such claims or liabilities in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by, and the relative fault of, the Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and the Indemnified Parties, on the other hand, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations.

(h) The required indemnification provided by this Section 11 shall be in addition to any rights to which an Indemnified Party may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law, and shall extend to each of its or his or her heirs, successors and assigns. The provisions of this Section 11 shall continue to afford protection to each Indemnified Party regardless of whether such Indemnified Party remains in the position or capacity pursuant to which such Indemnified Party became entitled to indemnification under this Section 11.

(i) United States federal securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith and nothing herein shall constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Issuer or any Holder of Notes may have under any applicable federal securities laws.

(j) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Portfolio Manager's obligations hereunder will be solely the obligations of the Portfolio Manager, and the Issuer will not have any recourse to any Manager Related Party other than the Portfolio Manager, with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby.

(k) The Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any act or omission of the custodian, any sub-custodian, prime broker or other Person appointed by the Issuer. Any compensation to any such Person for its services to the Issuer shall be the obligation of the Issuer and not the Portfolio Manager.

(l) The Portfolio Manager shall not be responsible for any liability resulting from any failure by the Portfolio Manager to fulfill its duties under this Agreement if such liability or failure shall be caused by or directly or indirectly due to a Force Majeure Event, provided that the Portfolio Manager shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the effect of the same. As used herein, the term "Force Majeure Event" means such an operation of the forces of nature as reasonable foresight and ability could not foresee or reasonably provide against including but not limited to, acts of god, flood, war (whether declared or undeclared), terrorism, fire, strikes or work stoppages for any reason, embargo, government action, including any laws, ordinances, regulations or the like which restrict or prohibit the providing of the services contemplated by this Agreement, inability to obtain material, equipment, or communications or computer facilities, or the failure of equipment or interruption of communications or computer facilities, and other causes beyond a party's control whether or not of the same class or kind as specifically named above.

(m) The Portfolio Manager shall be entitled to conclusively rely in good faith, and shall be fully protected in relying, upon any writing, resolution, notice, consent, certificate, affidavit, letter, cablegram, telegram, facsimile, email, telex or teletype message, statement (which may be made orally or by telephone), order or other document or communication reasonably believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by a Person that the Portfolio Manager has no reason to believe is not duly authorized and upon the advice and statements of independent accountants.

(n) The Portfolio Manager may consult with outside legal counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters as to questions of law pertaining to the performance of its duties hereunder and the advice or opinion of such counsel on any such question shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with the advice or opinion of such counsel; provided that the Portfolio Manager may take actions not permitted by the Trading Restrictions only if it has received Tax Advice as set forth in Section 8.

12. No Partnership or Joint Venture.

The Issuer and the Portfolio Manager are not partners or joint venturers with each other and nothing herein shall be construed to make them such partners or joint venturers or impose any liability as such on either of them. The Portfolio Manager's relation to the Issuer shall be deemed to be that of an independent contractor.

13. Term; Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall commence as of the date first set forth above and shall continue in force and effect until the first of the following occurs: (i) the payment in full of the Notes and the termination of the Indenture in accordance with its terms; (ii) the liquidation of the Assets and the final distribution of the proceeds of such liquidation to the Holders; or (iii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with subsections (b) of this Section 13 or Section 15 of this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary but subject to the provisions of clause (e) below, this Agreement may be terminated without cause by the Portfolio Manager, and the Portfolio Manager may resign, upon 90 days' (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer) written notice to the Issuer; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to resign immediately upon the effectiveness of any material change in applicable law or regulations which renders the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or under the Indenture to be a violation of such law or regulation.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (b) above, no resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager or termination of this Agreement pursuant to such clause shall be effective until the date as of which a successor Portfolio Manager shall have been appointed and approved in accordance with Section 13(e) and has accepted all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement in writing and has assumed such duties and obligations.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 13, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other, except as provided in Section 3(h)(i), Sections 9(d) and (e) and Sections 11 and 16 of this Agreement.

(e) Any termination, removal or resignation of the Portfolio Manager while any Notes are Outstanding will be effective only upon (a) the appointment by the Issuer, at the direction of at least a Majority of the Subordinated Notes, with the consent of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class, of a successor Portfolio Manager that is an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties reasonably comparable to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager hereunder, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as successor to the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, (iii) satisfies the S&P Rating Condition, (iv) shall not cause the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or the pool of collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act and (v) shall not result in the imposition of any entity-level or withholding tax on the Issuer or the payments to the Holders or cause any other material adverse tax consequences to the Issuer and (b) written acceptance of appointment by such successor Portfolio Manager. The Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager to assume the duties and obligations of the removed or resigning Portfolio Manager. The Issuer, the Trustee and the successor Portfolio Manager shall take such action (or cause the outgoing Portfolio Manager to take such action) consistent with this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, as shall be necessary to effectuate any such succession. In the event that the successor manager has not been appointed or has not assumed the duties of the Portfolio Manager in writing within a 60-day period, any of the Portfolio Manager, a Majority of the Controlling Class or a Majority of the Subordinated Notes may petition a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Portfolio Manager, which appointment will not require the consent of, or be subject to the approval or disapproval of, the Issuer or any Holder (so long as such court appointed successor meets the requirements of clauses (a)(i) through (v) above). The Issuer shall provide notice to Moody's of any removal of the Portfolio Manager and appointment of a successor manager pursuant to this Section 13(e).

(f) In the event of removal of the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement by the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, by the Trustee, the Issuer shall have all of the rights and remedies available with respect thereto at law or equity, and, without limiting the foregoing, the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, the Trustee may by notice in writing to the Portfolio Manager as provided under this Agreement terminate all the rights and obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement (except those that survive termination pursuant to Section 13(d) above). Upon resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager in accordance with this Section 13 or Section 15 of this Agreement, as applicable, and upon acceptance by a successor Portfolio Manager of appointment, all authority and power of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement and the Indenture, whether with respect to the Assets or otherwise, shall automatically and without further action by any Person pass to and be vested in the successor Portfolio Manager.

(g) For so long as Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate of Acis Capital Management, L.P. is the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer will be permitted to use the "Acis" name; provided that, if the Portfolio Manager ceases to be Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate of Acis Capital Management, L.P., the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to change its name to remove all reference to the name "Acis" therefrom. In addition, the Portfolio Manager, without the consent of the Issuer, may change the name of the Portfolio Manager.

14. Delegation; Assignments.

(a) Except as provided herein, the Portfolio Manager may not assign its rights or responsibilities hereunder without the written consent of the Issuer, at least a Majority of the Subordinated Notes (provided that failure to object within 45 days of written notice of assignment will constitute consent) and at least a Majority of the Controlling Class and satisfaction of the S&P Rating Condition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager may, (i) with the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class and without satisfaction of the S&P Rating Condition or the consent of any other Class, assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder to an Affiliate; provided that such Affiliate (A) has demonstrated ability, whether as an entity or by its personnel, to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement, (B) has the legal right and capacity to act as Portfolio Manager hereunder and (C) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, or (ii) enter into (or have its parent enter into) any consolidation or amalgamation with, or merger with or into, or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets to, another entity and, (A) at the time of such consolidation, merger, amalgamation or transfer the resulting, surviving or transferee entity assumes all the obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder generally and the other entity is solely a continuation of the Portfolio Manager in another corporate or similar form and has substantially the same staff and (B) such action does not cause the Issuer to be subject to tax in any jurisdiction outside of its jurisdiction of incorporation; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall deliver prior notice to the Rating Agencies then rating a Class of any assignment, delegation or combination made pursuant to this sentence.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing to the extent that applicable law requires the consent of the Issuer to any "assignment" (as defined in the Advisers Act) of this Agreement to any Person, in whole or in part, by the Portfolio Manager, such requirement may be satisfied with respect to the Issuer and all holders (i) by obtaining consent to such assignment on behalf of the Issuer from any of the following persons as determined by the Portfolio Manager: (A) one or more directors of the Issuer independent from the Portfolio Manager, (B) the Independent Review Party, or (C) an advisory committee established by the Portfolio Manager; or (ii) in any other manner that is permitted pursuant to the applicable law. Any assignment consented to by the Issuer and such Holders shall bind the assignee hereunder in the same manner as the Portfolio Manager is bound. In addition, the assignee shall execute and deliver to the Issuer and the Trustee a counterpart of this Agreement naming such assignee as Portfolio Manager. Upon the execution and delivery of such a counterpart by the assignee, the Portfolio Manager shall be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement, except with respect to its obligations arising under Section 11 of this Agreement prior to such assignment and except with respect to its obligations under Section 3(h)(i) and Section 16 hereof.

(c) This Agreement shall not be assigned by the Issuer without the prior written consent of the Portfolio Manager, and unless the S&P Rating Condition has been satisfied in connection with such assignment, except in the case of assignment by the Issuer to (i) an entity which is a successor to the Issuer permitted under the Indenture, in which case such successor organization shall be bound hereunder and by the terms of said assignment in the same manner as the Issuer is bound thereunder or (ii) the Trustee as contemplated by the Granting Clause of the Indenture. In the event of any assignment by the Issuer, the Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its successor to execute and deliver to the Portfolio Manager such documents as the Portfolio Manager shall consider reasonably necessary to effect fully such assignment.

15. Termination by the Issuer for Cause.

This Agreement may be terminated, and the Portfolio Manager may be removed for cause by at least a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes upon 30 days' prior written notice to the Portfolio Manager. For purposes of determining whether the holders of the required percentage of relevant principal amount of the Notes have given notice of removal of the Portfolio Manager for cause, Notes owned by the Portfolio Manager or any affiliate thereof or an account or fund managed by the Portfolio Manager or its affiliates will be disregarded and deemed to be not outstanding; provided that Notes owned by a fund or an account managed by the Portfolio Manager or an affiliate thereof will not be disregarded and will be deemed to be outstanding if the voting rights with respect to such Notes is exercised by such fund or account or the client or beneficiary of such fund or account and not by the Portfolio Manager or its affiliate. No such termination or removal shall be effective until the date as of which a successor Portfolio Manager shall have agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and as specified in the Indenture. For purposes of determining "cause" with respect to any such termination of this Agreement or removal of the Portfolio Manager, such term includes any one of the following events:

(a) the Portfolio Manager willfully violates, or takes any action that it knows breaches, any material provision of this Agreement or the Indenture applicable to it in bad faith (not including a willful and intentional breach that results from a good faith dispute regarding reasonable alternative courses of action or interpretation of instructions);

(b) the Portfolio Manager breaches in any respect any provision of this Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it (other than as covered by clause (a) and it being understood that failure to meet any Coverage Test, any Concentration Limitation, Interest Reinvestment Test or the Collateral Quality Test is not such a violation) (except for any such violations or breaches that have not had, or could not, either individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on the Issuer) and fails to cure such breach within 30 days of a Responsible Officer receiving notice of such breach, unless, if such breach is remediable, the Portfolio Manager has taken action that the Portfolio Manager believes in good faith will remedy such breach, and such action does remedy such breach, within 60 days after a Responsible Officer receives notice thereof;

(c) the Portfolio Manager is wound up or dissolved or there is appointed over it or a substantial portion of its assets a receiver, administrator, administrative receiver, trustee or similar officer; or the Portfolio Manager (i) ceases to be able to, or admits in writing its inability to, pay its debts as they become due and payable, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of, or enters into any composition or arrangement with, its creditors generally; (ii) applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, assignee, custodian, liquidator or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Portfolio Manager or of any substantial part of its properties or assets, or authorizes such an application or consent, or proceedings seeking such appointment are commenced without such authorization, consent or application against the Portfolio Manager and continue undismissed for 60 days; (iii) authorizes or files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, or applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the application of any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, insolvency or dissolution, or authorizes such application or consent, or proceedings to such end are instituted against the Portfolio Manager without such authorization, application or consent and are approved as properly instituted and remain undismissed for 60 days or result in adjudication of bankruptcy or insolvency; or (iv) permits or suffers all or any substantial part of its properties or assets to be sequestered or attached by court order and the order remains undismissed for 60 days;

(d) the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Indenture that consists of a default in the payment of principal or interest on the Secured Notes when due and payable and results primarily from any material breach by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or under the Indenture, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period;

(e) the occurrence of an act by the Portfolio Manager that constitutes fraud or criminal activity in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement (as determined pursuant to a final adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction), or the Portfolio Manager being convicted for a criminal offense materially related to its business of providing asset management services;

(f) any senior executive officer of the Portfolio Manager (in the performance of his or her investment management duties) is indicted for a criminal offense materially related to the business of the Portfolio Manager providing asset management services and continues to have responsibility for the performance by the Portfolio Manager hereunder for a period of 10 days after such indictment; or

(g) the inability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its duties hereunder in accordance with the standard of care specified herein due to the termination of the Service Agreements, unless the Portfolio Manager believes in good faith that it will be able to either (i) secure reasonably equivalent substitute services to those that were performed for the Portfolio Manager under the Service Agreements or (ii) perform its duties hereunder in accordance with the applicable standard of care without engaging a third-party service provider, in each case, within 30 days, and the Portfolio Manager is in fact able to secure such services or perform such duties within such 30-day period.

If any of the events specified in the definition of "cause" in this Section 15 shall occur, the Portfolio Manager shall give prompt written notice thereof to the Issuer, each Rating Agency, each Holder of Notes and the Trustee upon the Portfolio Manager's becoming aware of the occurrence of such event. A Majority of the Controlling Class may waive any event described in (a), (b), (d), (e), (f) or (g) above as a basis for termination of this Agreement and removal of the Portfolio Manager under this Section 15.

16. Action Upon Termination.

(a) From and after the effective date of the termination of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement or resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager hereunder, the Portfolio Manager shall not be entitled to compensation for further services hereunder, but shall be paid all compensation accrued to the date of termination, as provided in Section 9 hereof (including any accrued and unpaid Subordinated Management Fee), and shall be entitled to receive any amounts owing under Section 11 hereof. Upon such termination, resignation or removal, the Portfolio Manager shall as soon as practicable:

(i) deliver to the Issuer all property and documents of the Trustee or the Issuer or otherwise relating to the Assets then in the custody of the Portfolio Manager; and

(ii) deliver to the Trustee an accounting with respect to the books and records delivered to the Trustee or the successor Portfolio Manager appointed pursuant to Section 13(e) hereof.

Notwithstanding such termination, resignation or removal, the Portfolio Manager shall remain liable to the extent set forth herein (but subject to Section 11 hereof) for its liabilities hereunder arising prior to termination and for any expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in respect of or arising out of a breach of the representations and warranties made by the Portfolio Manager in Section 17(b) hereof or from any failure of the Portfolio Manager to comply with the provisions of this Section 16.

(b) The Portfolio Manager agrees that, notwithstanding any termination, it shall reasonably cooperate in any Proceeding arising in connection with this Agreement, the Indenture or any of the Assets (excluding any such Proceeding in which claims are asserted against the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager) upon receipt of appropriate indemnification and expense reimbursement.

17. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants to the Portfolio Manager as follows:

(i) The Issuer has been duly incorporated and is validly existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands, has the full corporate power and authority to own its assets and the securities proposed to be owned by it and included in the Assets and to transact the business in which it is presently engaged and is duly qualified under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Indenture, the Collateral Administration Agreement or the Notes (collectively, the "Issuer Documents") would require, such qualification, except for failures to be so qualified, authorized or licensed that would not in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer.

(ii) The Issuer has the necessary corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform each of the Issuer Documents and all obligations required thereunder, and has taken all necessary action to authorize each of the Issuer Documents on the terms and conditions hereof and thereof and the execution, delivery and performance of each of the Issuer Documents and the performance of all obligations imposed upon it hereunder and thereunder. No consent of any other Person including, without limitation, shareholders and creditors of the Issuer, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority, other than those that may be required under state securities or "blue sky" laws and those that have been or shall be obtained in connection with the Indenture and the issuance of the Notes, is required by the Issuer in connection with the Issuer Documents or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of the Issuer Documents or the obligations imposed upon it hereunder or thereunder. This Agreement constitutes, and each instrument or document required hereunder, when executed and delivered hereunder, shall constitute, the legally valid and binding obligation of the Issuer enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with its terms, subject, as to enforcement, to (a) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights, as such laws would apply in the event of any bankruptcy, receivership, insolvency or similar event applicable to the Issuer and (b) general equitable principles (whether enforceability of such principles is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity).

(iii) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement and the documents and instruments required hereunder and thereunder do not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Issuer, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Issuer, or the Governing Instruments of, or any securities issued by, the Issuer or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Issuer is a party or by which the Issuer or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer, and do not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking (other than the lien of the Indenture).

(iv) The Issuer is not required to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act.

(v) The Issuer is not in violation of its Governing Instruments or in breach or violation of or in default under the Indenture or any other contract or agreement to which it is a party or by which it or any of its assets may be bound, or any applicable statute or any rule, regulation or order (including, without limitation, any anti-money laundering statute or related rule, regulation or order) of any court, government agency or body having jurisdiction over the Issuer or its properties, the breach or violation of which or default under which would have a material adverse effect on the validity or enforceability of this Agreement or the performance by the Issuer of its duties hereunder or under the Collateral Administration Agreement.

(vi) True and complete copies of the Indenture and the Issuer's Governing Instruments have been delivered to the Portfolio Manager.

(vii) The Issuer has not taken any action or engaged in any activity, either directly or through an agent, that could cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(viii) The Issuer is not a "bank" for purposes of Section 881 (c)(3)(A) of the Code.

(ix) The Issuer is a "qualified client" as such term is defined under the Advisers Act.

(x) The Issuer understands that the rules and regulations administered by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") prohibit, among other things, the engagement in transactions with, and the provision of services to, certain countries, territories, entities and individuals. The lists of OFAC prohibited countries, territories, persons and entities can be found on the OFAC website at <http://www.treas.gov/ofac>. In addition, the programs administered by OFAC ("OFAC Programs") prohibit dealing with individuals or entities in certain countries regardless of whether such individuals or entities appear on the OFAC lists. To the best of its knowledge, none of: (1) the Issuer; (2) any person controlling or controlled by the Issuer; (3) any person having a beneficial interest in the Issuer; or (4) any person for whom the Issuer is acting as agent or nominee in connection with this investment is a country, territory, individual or entity named on an OFAC list, or is a person or entity prohibited under the OFAC Programs.

(xi) The Issuer has received and had an opportunity to review a current copy of Part 2 of the Form ADV of Acis Capital Management, L.P., at least forty-eight hours prior to its entering into this Agreement.

The Issuer agrees to deliver a true and complete copy of each amendment to the documents referred to in Section 17(a)(v) above to the Portfolio Manager as promptly as practicable after its adoption or execution.

(b) The Portfolio Manager hereby represents and warrants to the Issuer as follows:

(i) The Portfolio Manager is a limited partnership duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has full power and authority to own its assets and to transact the business in which it is currently engaged and is duly qualified and in good standing under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of this Agreement or the Collateral Administration Agreement (together with this Agreement, the "Manager Documents") would require such qualification, except for those jurisdictions in which the failure to be so qualified, authorized or licensed would not have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or on the ability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations under, or on the validity or enforceability of, the Manager Documents and the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager; the Portfolio Manager is registered as an investment adviser under the Advisers Act.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform each of the Manager Documents and all obligations required hereunder and under the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, and has taken all necessary action to authorize each of the Manager Documents on the terms and conditions hereof and thereof and the execution, delivery and performance of each of the Manager Documents and all obligations required hereunder and thereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager. No consent of any other Person, including, without limitation, creditors of the Portfolio Manager, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority is required by the Portfolio Manager in connection with the Manager Documents or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of the Manager Documents or the obligations required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager. Each of the Manager Documents has been, and each instrument and document required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall be, executed and delivered by a duly authorized officer of the Portfolio Manager, and each of the Manager Documents constitutes, and each instrument and document required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture when executed and delivered by the Portfolio Manager hereunder or thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall constitute, the valid and legally binding obligations of the Portfolio Manager enforceable against the Portfolio Manager in accordance with their terms, subject to (a) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights and (b) general equitable principles.

(iii) The execution, delivery and performance of the Manager Documents and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager and the documents and instruments required hereunder or thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Portfolio Manager, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Portfolio Manager, or the Governing Instruments of, or any securities issued by the Portfolio Manager or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Portfolio Manager is a party or by which the Portfolio Manager or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or its ability to perform its obligations under the Manager Documents, and shall not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking, the existence of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or its ability to perform its obligations under the Manager Documents.

(iv) There is no charge, investigation, action, suit or proceeding before or by any court pending or, to the best knowledge of the Portfolio

Manager, threatened that, if determined adversely to the Portfolio Manager, would have a material adverse effect upon the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under, or on the validity or enforceability of, the Manager Documents and the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager hereunder.

(v) The Portfolio Manager is authorized to carry on its business in the United States and in all other jurisdictions necessary to the performance of its obligations under the Manager Documents and the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager.

(vi) The Portfolio Manager is not in violation of its Governing Instruments or in breach or violation of or in default under any contract or agreement to which it is a party or by which it or any of its property may be bound, or any applicable statute or any rule, regulation or order of any court, government agency or body having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or its properties, the breach or violation of which or default under which would have a material adverse effect on the validity or enforceability of the Manager Documents or the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, or the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or thereunder.

(vii) The information concerning the Portfolio Manager contained under the headings entitled "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager," "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer will be subject to various conflicts of interest involving the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates" and "The Portfolio Manager," in the Offering Circular, as of the respective dates of the Offering Circular and as of the Closing Date, is true in all material respects and does not omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

19. Binding Nature of Agreement; Successors and Assigns.

Subject to Section 14 hereof, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and permitted assigns as provided herein.

20. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, inducements and conditions, express or implied, oral or written, of any nature whatsoever with respect to the subject matter hereof. The express terms hereof control and supersede any course of performance and/or usage of the trade inconsistent with any of the terms hereof.

21. Amendment.

This Agreement may not be modified or amended other than by an agreement in writing executed by the parties hereto and (other than in respect of a modification or amendment of the type that may be made to the Indenture without Holder consent) (i) the consent of a Majority of the Subordinated Notes, (ii) the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class and (iii) notice to the Rating Agencies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto, without the consent of any Holders, may amend or modify any provision of this agreement to (i) reflect a change that is of an inconsequential nature, (ii) correct inconsistencies, typographical or other errors, defects or ambiguities, (iii) conform this Agreement to the Offering Circular or the Indenture (as it may be amended from time to time) or (iv) reflect a change that is necessary or desirable to satisfy any requirements, conditions or guidelines contained in any opinion, directive, order, ruling or regulation (including ERISA, the Code, the Advisers Act and the Investment Company Act) of any U.S. federal or state agency or contained in any U.S. federal or state statute. In addition, Schedule 1 may be amended or modified by the parties hereto without the consent of any Holder in accordance with the last sentence of such Schedule.

22. Conflict with the Indenture.

In the event that this Agreement requires any action to be taken with respect to any matter and the Indenture requires that a different action be taken with respect to such matter, and such actions are mutually exclusive, the provisions of the Indenture (as in effect on the date hereof or as amended or supplemented, with the consent of the Portfolio Manager if such consent is required by Section 3(b)) in respect thereof shall control.

23. Priority of Payments.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that the payment of all amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to this Agreement shall be subordinated to the extent set forth in, and the Portfolio Manager agrees to be bound by the provisions of, Article 11 and Section 15.1 of the Indenture as if the Portfolio Manager were a party to the Indenture and each of the Portfolio Manager and Issuer hereby consents to the assignment of this Agreement as provided in Section 15.1 of the Indenture.

24. Governing Law; Jury Trial.

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICTS OF LAWS PROVISIONS THEREOF). EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT HAS RECEIVED FULL AND SUFFICIENT CONSIDERATION FOR THIS PROVISION AND THAT THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR SUCH PARTIES ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

25. Indulgences Not Waivers.

Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of any party hereto to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise of the same or of any other right, remedy, power or privilege, nor shall any waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any occurrence be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any other occurrence. No waiver shall be effective unless it is in writing and is signed by the party asserted to have granted such waiver.

26. Titles Not to Affect Interpretation.

The titles of Sections and subsections of this Agreement are for convenience only, and they neither form a part of this Agreement nor are they to be used in the construction or interpretation hereof.

27. Execution in Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

28. Provisions Separable.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, in case any provision in this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable as written, such provision shall be construed in the manner most closely resembling the apparent intent of the parties with respect to such provision so as to be valid, legal and enforceable; provided that, if there is no basis for such a construction, to the fullest extent permitted by law, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability and, unless the ineffectiveness of such provision destroys the basis of the bargain for one of the parties to this Agreement, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof or thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

29. Number and Gender.

Words used herein, regardless of the number and gender specifically used, shall be deemed and construed to include any other number, singular or plural, and any other gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, as the context requires.

30. Jurisdiction and Venue.

The parties to this Agreement irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the Notes or the Indenture, and the parties irrevocably agree that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York state or federal court. The parties to this Agreement irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent they may legally do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding. The parties to this Agreement irrevocably consent to the service of any and all process in any action or proceeding by the mailing or delivery of copies of such process to it in accordance with Section 18. The parties agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

31. Third Party Beneficiaries.

Other than as provided below, no party, including any Holder of Notes, is a third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The parties hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Trustee will be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement.

32. Miscellaneous.

(a) With respect to any Defaulted Obligation, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may instruct the agent or the trustee for such Defaulted Obligation to enforce the Issuer's rights under the Underlying Instruments governing such Defaulted Obligation and under any applicable law, rule or regulation in any manner permitted under the Indenture that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable business judgment will be in the best interests of the Issuer. In the event any Offer is made with respect to any Collateral Obligation or Equity Security, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may take such action as is permitted by the Indenture and that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable business judgment will be in the best interests of the Issuer.

limited liability company resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Portfolio Manager shall be a party, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company succeeding to all or substantially all of the collateral management business of the Portfolio Manager, shall be the successor to the Portfolio Manager without any further action by the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Holders or any other Person or entity; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall give prompt written notice to each Rating Agency upon any such occurrence.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein or in the Indenture to the contrary, with respect to any report, information, communication, request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver to be given to a Rating Agency by the Issuer, the Issuer shall instead provide such information to the Portfolio Manager, and the Portfolio Manager shall then provide such information as well as any information related to the transaction requested by any Rating Agency directly from the Portfolio Manager to the applicable Rating Agencies via the website established on behalf of the Issuer for purposes of Rule 17g-5 under the Exchange Act.

(d) If the Issuer shall receive any written or oral communication from any Rating Agency (or any of their respective officers, directors or employees) with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby or in any way relating to the Notes, the Issuer agrees to refrain from communicating with such Rating Agency and to promptly (and, in any event, within one Business Day) notify the Portfolio Manager of such communication. The Issuer agrees to coordinate with the Portfolio Manager with respect to any communication to a Rating Agency and further agrees that in no event shall it engage in any oral or written communication with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby or in any way relating to the Notes with any Rating Agency (or any of their respective officers, directors or employees) without the participation of the Portfolio Manager.

33. Power of Attorney.

The Issuer hereby makes, constitutes and appoints each of Josh Terry, Hunter Covitz and Philip Braner, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact (each an "Attorney" and together the "Attorneys"), jointly and severally with full power and authority in its name, place and stead, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Indenture (a) to prepare, sign and deliver tax documentation, transfer documentation and all other documentation in connection with the acquisition and sale by the Issuer of Collateral Obligations and (b) to (i) vote in its discretion any securities, instruments or obligations included in the Assets, (ii) execute proxies, waivers, consents and other instruments with respect to such Collateral Obligations, (iii) endorse, transfer or deliver such securities, instruments and obligations, (iv) participate in or consent (or decline to consent) to any modification, work-out, restructuring, bankruptcy proceeding, class action, plan of reorganization, merger, combination, consolidation, liquidation or similar plan or transaction with regard to such Collateral Obligations and (v) take any other action specified in Section 3 of this Agreement. This grant of power of attorney will expire (a), with respect to each Attorney (and to each substitute appointed by such Attorney), when such Attorney ceases to be an officer or employee of Acis

Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate thereof, acting on behalf of Acis Capital Management, L.P. or (b) upon (x) termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms or (y) any assignment by the Portfolio Manager of its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with Section 14 hereof.

TRADING RESTRICTIONS

The Issuer (and the Portfolio Manager and the Independent Investment Professional acting on behalf of the Issuer) and any other person acting on behalf or at the direction of the Issuer, and any Affiliate of the Issuer, will comply with all of the provisions set forth in this Schedule 1 (the "Trading Restrictions") unless, with respect to a particular transaction, the Portfolio Manager shall have received written advice of Dechert LLP or an opinion of other counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such transaction, the Portfolio Manager's failure to comply with one or more of such provisions will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes, or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis. For purposes of these Trading Restrictions, a "Collateral Obligation" shall include any "Assets" as defined in the Indenture.

The Issuer shall acquire, hold, lend and dispose of Collateral Obligations only for its own account, and shall acquire and hold its Collateral Obligations solely for investment with the expectation and intention of realizing a profit from income earned on the Collateral Obligations and/or any increase in their value during the interval of time between acquisition and disposition thereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Trading Restrictions, the Issuer shall not (each of the following, a "Prohibited Activity"):

(i) act as, or engage in any activities customarily undertaken by, an agent, arranger, or structuring agent with respect to, or negotiate the terms of, any Collateral Obligation or otherwise; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, after the date on which the Issuer has acquired a Collateral Obligation, the Issuer may exercise any voting or other rights available to a holder of a Collateral Obligation under the terms of the Collateral Obligation, and may accept or reject any amendment or modification of the terms of that Collateral Obligation if (w) the amendment or modification is proposed by the obligor under that Collateral Obligation and does not require or provide for any advance of additional funds, the Collateral Obligation is not an Affiliate Collateral Obligation, neither the Issuer nor the Collateral Manager, nor any Affiliate of either, has participated directly or indirectly in the negotiation of the amendment or modification, and the Issuer is not the largest holder of the Collateral Obligation, or (x) the modification would not constitute a Significant Modification (for purposes of this clause, "Significant Modification" means any amendment, supplement or modification that involves (1) a change in interest rate or yield of the Collateral Obligation, (2) a change in the stated maturity or the timing of any material payment on the Collateral Obligation (including deferral of an interest payment), (3) a change in the obligor of the Collateral Obligation or (4) a change in the collateral or security for the Collateral Obligation, including the addition or deletion of a co-obligor or guarantor, all within the meaning of United States Department of the Treasury regulation section 1.1001-3), or (y) in the reasonable judgment of the Collateral Manager, the obligor is in financial distress, the obligor was not in financial distress on the date on which the Issuer acquired such Collateral Obligation and such change in terms is desirable to protect the Issuer's investment, or (z) the Issuer has received Tax Advice that the Issuer's involvement in such amendment, supplement or modification of the terms of that Collateral Obligation will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

(ii) act as, hold itself out as, represent to others that it is, or engage in any activities customarily undertaken by, a dealer, middleman, market maker, retailer or wholesaler in any Collateral Obligations, reference obligations or hedging or derivative instruments, or hold as inventory for purposes of resale to customers, any Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer;

(iii) perform services, or hold itself out as willing to perform services, for any person, or have or seek customers;

(iv) register as a broker-dealer under the laws of any country or political subdivision thereof, or register as, or become subject to regulatory supervision or other legal requirements under the laws of any country or political subdivision thereof as, a bank, insurance company, loan originator, finance company or other institution engaged in a similar loan origination or insurance business;

(v) take any action causing it to be treated as a bank, insurance company, loan originator, finance company or other institution engaged in a similar loan origination or insurance business for purposes of any tax, securities law or other filing or submission made to any governmental authority, any application made to a rating agency, or qualification for any exemption from tax, securities law or any other legal requirements;

(vi) hold itself out to the public as a bank, insurance company, loan originator, finance company or other institution engaged in a similar loan origination or insurance business, or hold itself out to the public, through advertising or otherwise, as originating loans or making a market in loans or other assets;

(vii) establish a branch, agency or other place of business within the United States; provided, that entering into this Agreement and the appointment of the Portfolio Manager as described herein shall not be construed as a violation of this clause (vii);

(viii) make any tax election which would cause it to be subject to United States federal, state or local income or franchise tax;

(ix) buy any security in order to earn a dealer spread or dealer mark-up over its cost; or

(x) buy any security with an expectation or intention of restructuring or entering into a workout of such security.

For purposes of this Schedule 1, "dealer" means: (a) a merchant of securities with an established place of business who in the ordinary course of business is engaged as a merchant in purchasing securities and selling them to customers with a view to the gains and profits that may be derived therefrom, and (b) a person that regularly offers to enter into, assume, offset, assign or otherwise terminate positions in derivatives with customers in the ordinary course of a trade or business, including regularly holding itself out, in the ordinary course of its trade or business, as being willing and able to enter into either side of a derivative transaction.

Requirements With Respect to Collateral Obligations.

The Issuer may acquire Collateral Obligations only by assignment or participation, and may not execute any credit agreement whereby Collateral Obligations are issued. The Issuer shall not acquire any Collateral Obligation, or enter into any understanding, arrangement, forward sale agreement or commitment with any person to acquire any Collateral Obligation (a "Commitment"), in each case (i) prior to 48 hours after the completion of the issuance and funding of such Collateral Obligation, other than as otherwise permitted under "Forward Purchase Commitments" below, or (ii) if the Issuer would own more than 50 percent of the loan, obligation, issue, class or tranche that includes the Collateral Obligation or, if the loan, obligation, issue, class or tranche that includes that Collateral Obligation is part of a larger credit facility, more than 25 percent of that entire credit facility. In the case of any Collateral Obligation that is amended or modified in a manner that constitutes a Significant Modification after issuance and funding of such Collateral Obligation and before acquisition by the Issuer of such Collateral Obligation, any seasoning requirement set forth herein shall be computed and applied with respect to the date of such Significant Modification.

The Issuer shall not have any contractual relationship with the borrower or issuer with respect to a Collateral Obligation until the Issuer actually closes the acquisition of that Collateral Obligation. On the funding date of the Collateral Obligation, the documents relating to the Collateral Obligation shall not list the Issuer as a lender or otherwise as a party to any document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation. The Issuer shall not be a signatory on any lending agreement or any other document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation.

The Issuer shall not have any communications or negotiations with the borrower or issuer of any Collateral Obligation (directly or indirectly through the seller of such Collateral Obligation, the agent, negotiator, originator or structuror thereof, or any other person) prior to the completion of the issuance and funding thereof, in connection with the issuance or funding of such Collateral Obligation or commitments with respect thereto, or the Issuer's acquisition of such Collateral Obligation or the Issuer's Commitment with respect thereto, in each case, except as otherwise permitted under "Forward Purchase Commitments" below. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager or the Independent Investment Professional acting on its behalf, may, however, undertake customary due diligence communications with an issuer or obligor of any Collateral Obligation that would be reasonably necessary in order for an investor or trader to make a reasonably informed decision to acquire any such Collateral Obligation for its own account, and (ii) nothing contained herein shall prohibit expressions of interest or providing comments as to mistakes or inconsistencies in documents relating to any Collateral Obligation by the Issuer, or by the Portfolio Manager or the Independent Investment Professional acting on its behalf.

The Issuer shall not be entitled to earn or receive from any person any premium, fee, commission or other compensation for services, whether or not denominated as received for services, in connection with acquiring or disposing of a Collateral Obligation, or entering into a commitment to acquire or dispose of a Collateral Obligation, including without limitation, in each case, any amount that is attributable or otherwise determined by reference to the amount of any origination, underwriting or similar profit or related or similar fees for services earned by an underwriter, placement agent, lender, arranger, agent or other similar person in connection with the issuance or funding of a Collateral Obligation. In furtherance and not in limitation of the immediately preceding sentence, the Issuer shall not be entitled to earn or receive directly from any person any separately stated premium, fee or commission that is compensation for services or that is based upon or otherwise determined by reference to the amount of any such services. For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing prohibition against earning or receiving fees and similar amounts shall not apply to (i) any compensation paid other than for a Prohibited Activity pursuant to the terms of any Collateral Obligation (e.g., a prepayment fee or commitment fee), (ii) any amendment or waiver fee, or (iii) any discount in the price paid by the Issuer for a Collateral Obligation from the price paid by the seller of the Collateral Obligation where such discount is attributable to the time value of money, credit quality of the related borrower, market conditions, or terms and conditions of the Collateral Obligation.

Additional Requirements With Respect to Affiliate Collateral Obligations and Transfers to Affiliates.

Except as provided below, the Portfolio Manager shall not cause the Issuer to purchase any Collateral Obligation of any borrower or issuer with respect to which the Issuer, Portfolio Manager or any of their Affiliates:

(i) acted as an underwriter, financial advisory, placement or other agent, arranger, negotiator or structuror in connection with the issuance or origination of such Collateral Obligation,

(ii) was an agent, negotiator, structuring agent, bridge loan provider (where a bridge loan is repaid by any Collateral Obligation) or member of the original lending syndicate with respect to such Collateral Obligation, or

(iii) earned or received any compensation relating to the origination of such Collateral Obligation (each such Collateral Obligation, an "Affiliate Collateral Obligation").

The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer shall be permitted to cause the Issuer to purchase Affiliate Collateral Obligations, provided that the following conditions are met:

(I) at least 30 days shall have passed since the issuance and funding of such Affiliate Collateral Obligation and the holder of the Collateral Obligation did not identify the obligation or security as intended for sale to the Issuer within 30 days of its issuance;

(II) following such 30-day period, the Independent Investment Professional shall have approved the purchase by the Issuer of such Affiliate Collateral Obligation after a review of the terms and conditions thereof and a determination that such transaction shall be effected on an arm's length basis and that the purchase price represents fair market value (x) by reference to dealer quotes or the price paid by an unrelated secondary buyer in a material contemporaneous sale on substantially the same terms, or (y) to the extent there is no independent sale or the price paid in such sale is not readily ascertainable, by reference to the fair market value price at which an unrelated independent secondary market acquirer would acquire such Affiliate Collateral Obligation in an arm's length transaction;

(III) the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliate, as the case may be, originated the Collateral Obligation in the ordinary course of its business and not in contemplation of its acquisition by the Issuer; and

(IV) the Issuer may not purchase any Affiliate Collateral Obligation having a greater principal amount than the principal amount of such Affiliate Collateral Obligation held following such purchase by the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates (excluding the Issuer).

In addition, the Portfolio Manager shall not cause the Issuer to sell or assign any Collateral Obligation to the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates in a transaction in which the Portfolio Manager is acting as principal for its own account or has discretionary authority to invest for the account of such Affiliate, unless such sale or assignment is consented to by the Independent Investment Professional, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed so long as such sale or assignment is effected at the fair market value price that an unrelated independent secondary market acquirer would acquire such Collateral Obligation in an arm's length transaction. It is understood and agreed that the consent requirement of the immediately preceding sentence shall not apply to any sale or assignment of any Collateral Obligation by the Issuer to any Person whose equity is at least majority owned by the Issuer (e.g., a special purpose financing subsidiary).

Maintenance of Separate and Independent Status.

At the written request of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall establish a conflicts review board or appoint an independent third party to act on behalf of the Issuer (such board or party, an "Independent Investment Professional") with respect to transactions involving any Affiliate Collateral Obligation. Any Independent Investment Professional (i) shall either (A) be an established financial institution or other financial company with experience in assessing the merits of transactions similar to the transactions involving any Affiliate Collateral Obligation or (B) be a review board comprised of one or more individuals selected by the Issuer (or at the request of the Issuer, selected by the Collateral Manager), (ii) shall be required to assess the merits of the transaction involving any Affiliate Collateral Obligation and either grant or withhold consent to such transaction in its sole judgment and (iii) shall not be (A) affiliated with the Portfolio Manager (other than as a holder or as a passive investor in the Issuer or an Affiliate of the Issuer) or (B) involved in the daily management and control of the Issuer.

Neither the Independent Investment Professional nor any of the employees or personnel performing duties of the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer relating to the purchase of Affiliate Collateral Obligations shall be directly or indirectly involved in any origination or underwriting activities with respect to any Collateral Obligation, or have access to any files, records, or other information that is not available to independent unrelated secondary market acquirers concerning the origination or underwriting of any such Collateral Obligation. In addition, neither the Independent Investment Professional nor any of the employees or personnel performing duties of the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer relating to the purchase of Affiliate Collateral Obligations shall be a party to any discussions or meetings relating to origination or underwriting activities with respect to any Affiliate Collateral Obligation. No employee or personnel of the Portfolio Manager who is involved in any origination or underwriting activities with respect to any Affiliate Collateral Obligation shall have any direct or indirect influence over the decision making process of the Issuer or the Independent Investment Professional with respect to the acquisition or disposition of any Affiliate Collateral Obligation on behalf of the Issuer, but no such employee or personnel shall be prohibited from making recommendations to the Independent Investment Professional. However, in all cases the decision whether to invest in an Affiliate Collateral Obligation or to sell a Collateral Obligation to the Portfolio Manager or one of its Affiliates shall be an independent decision by the Independent Investment Professional.

Revolving Collateral Obligations, Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligations and Letter of Credit Facilities.

Neither the Issuer nor the Portfolio Manager acting on the Issuer's behalf shall acquire an interest (including by means of participation) in a Revolving Collateral Obligation or a Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or a letter of credit facility unless:

(i) such interest is acquired in the secondary market, the acquisition of such interest will not cause the Issuer to hold more than 25 percent of such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or letter of credit facility, and taken together with the aggregate principal amount of other such interests held by the Issuer does not exceed 15% of the aggregate principal amount of all Collateral Obligations held by the Issuer;

(ii) with respect to any Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation:

(a) neither the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager acting on behalf of the Issuer, nor the Independent Investment Professional acting on behalf of the Issuer

has participated in the negotiation of the terms of such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation;

(b) the terms of such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation are fixed as of the date of the Issuer's acquisition thereof and do not provide the Issuer any discretion as to whether to make advances under such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation;

(c) more than a de minimis amount of such Collateral Obligation has been funded, or such loan is associated with a term loan to such borrower which has been fully funded; and

(d) the Issuer does not acquire any interest in a Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation which is not associated with a term loan prior to 60 days after the issuance thereof, and all such interests combined shall not exceed 10% of the aggregate principal amount of all assets held by the Issuer; and

(iii) with respect to any letter of credit facility:

(a) (I) such letter of credit facility has been fully funded by the original lender, and such lender has completed all of its obligations with respect to that letter of credit facility (such that the letter of credit facility does not constitute to any extent a Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation), at least 48 hours before the Issuer committed to acquire such letter of credit facility; or

(b) (I) such letter of credit facility is associated with a term loan to such borrower which has been fully funded;

(II) all terms of such letter of credit facility were fully negotiated and final no later than the time at which the terms of the related loan were fully negotiated and final;

(III) the Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager acting on behalf of the Issuer, holds the same proportionate interest in such letter of credit facility as the proportionate interest it holds in the term loan(s) associated with such letter of credit facility.

Forward Purchase Commitments.

The Issuer shall not have nor make any Commitment to acquire a Collateral Obligation from a seller before completion of the closing, full funding and seasoning (except, with respect to funding, in the case of a Revolving Collateral Obligation or a Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation) of the Collateral Obligation, except as permitted in the following provisions.

If a Commitment is made to acquire a Collateral Obligation, other than an Affiliate Collateral Obligation, from a seller before completion of the closing and full funding of the Collateral Obligation by such seller (the "Original Lender"), such commitment shall only be made pursuant to a forward sale agreement at an agreed price (a "Forward Purchase Commitment"). Any Forward Purchase Commitment with any Original Lender in respect of a Collateral Obligation may only be made after such Original Lender has delivered its own commitment to acquire its own interest in that Collateral Obligation and after all material terms of the Collateral Obligation have been agreed to.

In the process of making or negotiating to make a Forward Purchase Commitment, the Issuer shall not negotiate with respect to any term of the Collateral Obligation to which the Forward Purchase Commitment relates. The Issuer is not prevented from negotiating the terms of the Forward Purchase Commitment, including the price at which the Issuer shall acquire the Collateral Obligation to which the Forward Purchase Commitment relates.

If the Issuer enters into a Forward Purchase Commitment to acquire a Collateral Obligation, the Issuer's obligation under the Forward Purchase Commitment shall be conditioned on there being, as of the time the Issuer is to acquire the Collateral Obligation, no material adverse change in the condition of the borrower or issuer, the Collateral Obligation or the financial markets, and in all other respects, the Forward Purchase Commitment may only be conditional to the extent the related counterparty's own commitment in the origination process and funding of the Collateral Obligation is delayed, reduced or eliminated; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, a Forward Purchase Commitment shall not be required to be conditioned on the absence of a material adverse change if (y) the Issuer enters into the Forward Purchase Commitment no sooner than 48 hours after the Original Lender has delivered its own commitment with respect to the related Collateral Obligation and after all material terms of the Collateral Obligation have been agreed to, and (z) the Issuer's Commitment is documented in a form for secondary market purchases that is substantially similar to that used for commitments given by all other persons who will acquire an interest in the Collateral Obligation from the Original Lender (including as to the absence of a material adverse change condition). In the event of any delayed, reduced or eliminated funding, the Issuer shall not receive any premium, fee, or other compensation in connection with having entered into the Forward Purchase Commitment, other than commitment fees or fees in the nature of commitment fees that are customarily paid in connection with such delays, reductions or eliminations of funding of Collateral Obligations of the type permitted to be purchased by the Issuer.

The Issuer shall not have any contractual relationship with the borrower or issuer with respect to a Collateral Obligation that will be subject to a Forward Purchase Commitment until the Issuer actually closes the acquisition of that Collateral Obligation. On the funding date of the Collateral Obligation, the documents relating to the Collateral Obligation shall not list the Issuer as a lender or otherwise as a party to any document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation. The Issuer shall not be a signatory on any lending agreement or any other document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation.

The Issuer shall not enter into any Forward Purchase Commitment in respect of any Affiliate Collateral Obligation. The Issuer, or Portfolio Manager or the Independent Investment Professional acting on its behalf, may, however, undertake customary due diligence communications with an issuer or obligor of an Affiliate Collateral Obligation or any other Collateral Obligation that would be reasonably necessary in order for an investor or trader to make a reasonably informed decision to acquire any such Collateral Obligation for its own account.

For the avoidance of doubt, except as provided above with respect to Forward Purchase Commitments, the Issuer may enter into a Commitment with respect to a Collateral Obligation only when the Collateral Obligation is funded and at least 48 hours have thereafter elapsed.

Equity Restrictions.

The Issuer shall not acquire (whether as part of a "unit" with a Collateral Obligation, in exchange for a Collateral Obligation, or otherwise) any asset that is treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as:

(i) an equity interest in a partnership, a trust or a disregarded entity (unless all of the assets of such trust or disregarded entity would otherwise qualify either as Collateral Obligations hereunder or as equity interests in entities taxable as corporations for U.S. federal income tax purposes);

(ii) a residual interest in a "REMIC" (as such term is defined in the Code);

(iii) an ownership interest in a "FASIT" (as such term is defined in the Code); or

(iv) any asset that constitutes a "United States real property interest" ("USRPI"), including certain interests in a "United States real property holding corporation" ("USRPHC") (as such terms are defined in the Code), except that, if otherwise permitted under the Indenture, the Issuer may acquire and/or hold an interest in a USRPHC under circumstances where the USRPHC may not be liquidated, and stock of the USRPHC may not be sold, unless prior to such liquidation or sale all USRPI held by the USRPHC have been sold and all U.S federal income taxes payable by the USPRHC have been paid, and the Issuer reasonably believes, at the time of the acquisition of the interest in the USRPHC, that the USRPHC will be liquidated or the stock of the USRPHC will be sold (in each case, in accordance with the restrictions in this clause (iv)) prior to the liquidation of the Issuer.

Synthetic Securities.

The Issuer shall not acquire or enter into any swap transaction or security, which swap transaction or security provides for payments associated with either (i) payments of interest and/or principal on a reference obligation or (ii) the credit performance of a reference obligation.

Portfolio Manager has been given prior written notice of such amendment and consented thereto in writing and that it will give prior written notice of any other amendment to the Indenture to the Portfolio Manager.

(c) The Portfolio Manager shall (i) determine consistent with the applicable provisions of the Indenture, when Principal Proceeds shall be applied to effect a Special Redemption of the Secured Notes, (ii) select all Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments which shall be acquired by the Issuer and pledged to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture and (iii) facilitate the acquisition, settlement and sale of Collateral Obligations by the Issuer. In providing services to the Issuer hereunder, the Portfolio Manager shall take into consideration the interests of the Holders as a whole. The Portfolio Manager shall have no obligation to perform any duties other than as expressly specified herein, or in the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, and the Portfolio Manager shall be subject to no implicit obligations of any kind.

(d) Subject to any applicable terms of the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall monitor the Assets, on behalf of the Issuer, on an ongoing basis and provide (or cause to be provided) to the Issuer all reports, schedules and other data reasonably available to the Portfolio Manager that the Issuer is required to prepare, deliver or furnish, or cause to be prepared, delivered or furnished, under the Indenture, in the form and containing all information required thereby and in sufficient time for the Issuer to review such required reports, schedules and data and to deliver them to the parties entitled thereto under the Indenture. The Portfolio Manager shall, on behalf of the Issuer, be responsible for obtaining to the extent practicable any information concerning whether a Collateral Obligation has become a Defaulted Obligation. Pursuant to the terms of the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Collateral Administrator is required to provide drafts of certain reports, schedules and calculations to the Portfolio Manager regarding the Collateral Obligations. The obligation of the Portfolio Manager to furnish such information is subject to the Portfolio Manager's timely receipt of necessary reports and the appropriate information from the Person responsible for the delivery of or preparation of such reports and such information (including without limitation, the Obligors of the Collateral Obligations, the Rating Agencies, the Trustee and the Collateral Administrator) and to any confidentiality restrictions with respect thereto. The Portfolio Manager shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by a Person that the Portfolio Manager has no reason to believe is not duly authorized. The Portfolio Manager also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and made by a Person the Portfolio Manager has no reason to believe is not duly authorized, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. The Portfolio Manager is entitled to rely on any other information furnished to it by third parties that it reasonably believes in good faith to be genuine.

(e) At the direction of 66 2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Subordinated Notes, the Portfolio Manager may direct an Optional Redemption (including a Refinancing) under the Indenture on behalf of the Issuer.

(f) The Portfolio Manager may, in its sole discretion subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture and this Agreement, direct the Issuer and/or the Trustee to take the following actions with respect to a Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other Asset:

(i) retain such Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other Asset;

(ii) dispose of such Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other Asset in the open market or otherwise;

(iii) acquire, as security for the Secured Notes in substitution for or in addition to any one or more Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments included in the Assets, one or more additional Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments;

(iv) if applicable, tender such Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other Asset pursuant to an Offer;

(v) if applicable, consent to or refuse to consent to any proposed amendment, modification, restructuring, exchange or waiver pursuant to an Offer;

(vi) retain or dispose of any securities or other property (if other than cash) received pursuant to an Offer;

(vii) waive any default with respect to any Defaulted Obligation or other Asset;

(viii) vote to accelerate the maturity of any Defaulted Obligation or other Asset;

(ix) participate in a committee or group formed by creditors of an issuer or a borrower under a Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment, Equity Security or asset held by any ETB Subsidiary;

(x) negotiate, modify or amend any loan for the Issuer as authorized by the Indenture in accordance with a Refinancing;

(xi) exercise any other rights or remedies with respect to a Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other Asset as provided in the related Underlying Instruments or take any other action consistent with the terms of the Indenture; and

(xii) to make loans to ETB Subsidiaries.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, none of the services performed by the Portfolio Manager shall result in or be construed as resulting in an obligation to perform any of the following:

(i) the Portfolio Manager acting repeatedly or continuously as an intermediary in securities for the Issuer;

(ii) the Portfolio Manager providing investment banking services to the Issuer; or

(iii) the Portfolio Manager having direct contact with, or actively soliciting or finding, outside investors to (x) invest in the Issuer or (y) make co-investments in securities of portfolio companies with the Issuer.

(h) The Portfolio Manager hereby agrees to the following:

(i) The Portfolio Manager agrees not to institute against the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings or other proceedings under U.S. federal or state bankruptcy or similar laws, or the similar laws of the Cayman Islands or other applicable jurisdiction until the payment in full of all Notes issued under the Indenture and the expiration of a period equal to one year, or, if longer, the applicable preference period, and a day following such payment. Nothing in this Section 3(h)(i) shall preclude, or be deemed to stop, the Portfolio Manager (i) from taking any action prior to the expiration of the aforementioned period in (A) any case or Proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary or (B) any involuntary insolvency Proceeding filed or commenced by a Person other than the Portfolio Manager, or (ii) from commencing against the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, any ETB Subsidiary or any of their respective properties any legal action which is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceeding. The provisions of this Section 3(h)(i) shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager shall cause any purchase or sale of any Collateral Obligation to be conducted on arm's length terms or in the manner contemplated by Section 6, if applicable.

(iii) In providing services hereunder, the Portfolio Manager may employ third parties, including its Affiliates, to render advice (including investment advice), to provide services to arrange for trade execution and otherwise provide assistance to the Issuer, and to perform any of the Portfolio Manager's duties under this Agreement; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be relieved of any of its duties hereunder regardless of the performance of any services by third parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement, and any obligations or duties of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement, can be delegated by the Portfolio Manager, in whole or in part, to any entity that (i) is controlled by any of James Dondero, Mark Okada or Josh Terry and (ii) is one in which any of James Dondero, Mark Okada or Josh Terry is involved in the day-to-day management and operations (and in any such case pursuant to an instrument of delegation in form and substance satisfactory to the Issuer), with the prior written consent of the Issuer and, notwithstanding any such consent, no delegation of obligations or duties by the Portfolio Manager (including, without limitation, to an entity described above) shall relieve the Portfolio Manager from any liability under this Agreement.

(i) From and after the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the Portfolio Manager will continue to perform and be bound by the provisions of this Agreement and the Indenture. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Indenture, the Trustee will be entitled to rely and be protected in relying upon all actions and omissions to act of the Portfolio Manager thereafter as fully as if no Event of Default had occurred.

4. Brokerage.

(a) The Portfolio Manager will seek to obtain the best execution (but shall have no obligation to obtain the best prices and execution) for all orders placed with respect to the Assets, in a manner permitted by law and in a manner it believes to be in the best interests of the Issuer. Subject to the preceding sentence, the Portfolio Manager may, in the allocation of business, select brokers and/or dealers with whom to effect trades on behalf of the Issuer and may open cash trading accounts with such brokers and dealers (provided that none of the Assets may be credited to, held in or subject to the lien of the broker or dealer with respect to any such account). In addition, subject to the first sentence of this paragraph, the Portfolio Manager may, in the allocation of business, take into consideration research and other brokerage services furnished to the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates by brokers and dealers which are not Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager; provided that the Portfolio Manager in good faith believes that the compensation for such services rendered by such brokers and dealers complies with the requirements of Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("Section 28(e)"), or in the case of principal or fixed income transactions for which the "safe harbor" of Section 28(e) is not available, the amount of the spread charged is reasonable in relation to the value of the research and other brokerage services provided. Such services may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with its other advisory activities or investment operations. The Portfolio Manager may aggregate sales and purchase orders of securities placed with respect to the Assets with similar orders being made simultaneously for other accounts managed by the Portfolio Manager or with accounts of the Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager, if in the Portfolio Manager's reasonable business judgment such aggregation shall result in an overall economic benefit to the Issuer, taking into consideration the advantageous selling or purchase price, brokerage commission or other expenses, as well as the availability of such securities on any other basis. In accounting for such aggregated order price, commissions and other expenses may be apportioned on a weighted average basis. When a transaction with respect to the Assets occurs as part of any aggregate sales or purchase orders, the objective of the Portfolio Manager shall be to allocate the executions among the accounts in an equitable manner the Portfolio Manager believes, in its reasonable business judgment, to be appropriate and in accordance with (x) its internal conflicts of interest and allocation policies and (y) any applicable requirements of the Investment Advisers Act.

(b) The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that (i) the determination by the Portfolio Manager of any benefit to the Issuer will be subjective and will represent the Portfolio Manager's evaluation at the time that the Issuer will be benefited by relatively better purchase or sales prices, lower brokerage commissions, lower transaction costs and expenses and beneficial timing of transactions or any combination of any of these and/or other factors and (ii) the Portfolio Manager shall be fully protected with respect to any such determination to the extent the Portfolio Manager acts in accordance with Section 3(b).

(c) Subject to the Portfolio Manager's execution obligations described in Sections 4(a) and (d) and the covenants set forth in Section 6, the Portfolio Manager is hereby authorized to effect client cross-transactions where the Portfolio Manager causes a transaction with respect to the Assets to be effected between the Issuer and another account advised by it or any of its Affiliates; provided that, if and to the extent required by the Investment Advisers Act, such authorization is terminable prior to the initiation of such cross-transaction at the Issuer's option without penalty. Such termination shall be effective upon receipt by the Portfolio Manager of written notice from the Issuer. Subject to the Portfolio Manager's execution obligations described in Sections 4(a) and (d) and the covenants set forth in Section 6, the Portfolio Manager is hereby authorized to effect transactions, including principal transactions, where the Issuer may invest in securities of obligors or issuers in which the Portfolio Manager and/or its Affiliates have a debt, equity or participation interest, in each case in accordance with applicable law.

(d) The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates may acquire or sell obligations or securities, for its own account or for the accounts of its customers, without either requiring or precluding the acquisition or sale of such obligations or securities for the account of the Issuer. Such investments may be the same or different from those made on behalf of the Issuer. If, in light of market conditions and investment objectives, the Portfolio Manager determines that it would be advisable to purchase the same item of Collateral Obligation both for the Issuer, and either the proprietary account of the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager or another client of the Portfolio Manager, the Portfolio Manager shall allocate such investment opportunities across such entities for which such opportunities are appropriate, consistent with (i) its internal conflicts of interest and allocation policies and (ii) any applicable requirements of the Investment Advisers Act. The Issuer agrees that, in the course of managing the Collateral Obligations held by the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager may consider its relationships with other clients (including obligors and issuers) and its Affiliates. The Portfolio Manager may decline to make a particular investment for the Issuer in view of such relationships.

5. Additional Activities of the Portfolio Manager.

(a) Nothing herein shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Related Entities from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Issuer and its Affiliates (other than those services that would violate the Portfolio Manager's covenants under this Agreement), the Trustee, the Holders, the Placement Agent or any other Person to the extent permitted by applicable law, regardless of whether such business is in competition with the Issuer or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager, its Related Entities and the directors, officers, employees and agents of the Portfolio Manager and its Related Entities may, subject to any limits specified in the Indenture:

(i) serve as directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, partners, employees, agents, nominees or signatories, and receive arm's length fees in connection with such service, for the Issuer or its Affiliates, or for any obligor or issuer in respect of the Collateral Obligations, Equity Securities or Eligible Investments or any affiliate thereof, to the extent permitted by their Governing Instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Issuer, its Affiliates or any obligor or issuer in respect of any of the Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or Equity Securities (or any Affiliate thereof) pursuant to their respective Governing Instruments, and neither the Holders of the Notes nor the Issuer shall have the right to any such fees; provided that, in the reasonable business judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity will not have a material adverse effect on any item of the Assets;

(ii) receive fees or other compensation from third parties (including Persons in which the Issuer has made or proposes to make an investment) in connection with any business activities of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates and which are not related to the use of the Issuer's capital (which fees or other compensation shall be for the benefit of the Portfolio Manager's own account); provided that, in the reasonable business judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activities will not have a material adverse effect on any item of the Assets; and

(iii) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold an equity interest in, or own or hold notes issued by, the Issuer, its Affiliates or any obligor or issuer of any obligation included in the Assets, subject to the Portfolio Manager's obligations in Section 8 hereof.

As a result, such individuals may possess information relating to obligors and issuers of Collateral Obligations that is (a) not known to or (b) known but restricted as to its use by the individuals at the Portfolio Manager responsible for monitoring the Collateral Obligations and performing the other obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement. Each of such ownership and other relationships may result in securities laws restrictions on transactions in such securities by the Issuer and otherwise create conflicts of interest for the Issuer. The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that, in all such instances, the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may in their discretion make investment recommendations and decisions that may be the same as or different from those made with respect to the Issuer's investments and they have no duty, in making or managing such investments, to act in a way that is favorable to the Issuer.

The Issuer acknowledges that there are generally no ethical screens or information barriers among the Portfolio Manager and certain of its Affiliates of the type that many firms implement to separate Persons who make investment decisions from others who might possess material, non-public information that could influence such decisions. The officers or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager may possess information relating to obligors or issuers of Collateral Obligations that is not known to the individuals at the Portfolio Manager responsible for monitoring the Collateral Obligations and performing the other obligations under this Agreement. As a result, the Portfolio Manager may from time to time come into possession of material nonpublic information that limits the ability of the Portfolio Manager to effect a transaction for the Issuer, and the Issuer's investments may be constrained as a consequence of the Portfolio Manager's inability to use such information for advisory purposes or otherwise to effect transactions that otherwise may have been initiated on behalf of its clients, including the Issuer.

(b) It is understood that the Portfolio Manager and any of its Affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have investment policies similar to those followed by the Portfolio Manager with respect to the Assets and which may own securities or obligations of the same class, or which are of the same type, as the Collateral Obligations or the Eligible Investments or other securities or obligations of the obligors or issuers of the Collateral Obligations or the Eligible Investments. The Portfolio Manager will be free, in its sole discretion, to make recommendations to others or effect transactions on behalf of itself or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Assets. Nothing in the Indenture and this Agreement shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, acting either as principal or agent on behalf of others, from buying or selling, or from recommending to or directing any other account to buy or sell, at any time, securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same obligor or issuer, as those directed by the Portfolio Manager to be purchased or sold on behalf of the Issuer. It is understood that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or Related Entities, or any of their directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or affiliates or any member of their families or a Person or entity advised by the Portfolio Manager may have an interest in a particular transaction or in securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same obligor or issuer, as those whose purchase or sale the Portfolio Manager may direct hereunder.

(c) The Portfolio Manager shall not be obligated to pursue any particular investment strategy or opportunity with respect to the Assets.

(d) The Issuer acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may make and/or hold an investment in an obligor's or issuer's securities that may be pari passu, senior or junior in ranking to an investment in such obligor's or issuer's securities made and/or held by the Issuer or in which partners, security holders, members, officers, directors, agents or employees of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates serve on boards of directors or otherwise have ongoing relationships.

6. Conflicts of Interest.

(a) Subject to compliance with applicable laws and regulations and subject to this Agreement and the Indenture, the Portfolio Manager may direct the Trustee to acquire a Collateral Obligation from, or sell a Collateral Obligation, Equity Security, Eligible Investment or asset held by an ETB Subsidiary to, the Portfolio Manager, any of its Affiliates or any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates serve as investment advisor for fair market value. The Portfolio Manager may obtain the Issuer's written consent through the Independent Review Party as provided herein if any such transaction requires the consent of the Issuer under Section 206(3) of the Investment Advisers Act (any such transaction, an "Affiliate Transaction"). The Issuer hereby acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or accounts advised or sub-advised by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates or their respective advised accounts (collectively, the "Portfolio Manager Affiliates") will purchase on the Closing Date U.S.$35,000,000 of the Class A-1 Notes and all of the Class C-1 Notes, the Class D Notes, the Class E-2 Notes, and all of the Subordinated Notes (the "Portfolio Manager Notes"). The Issuer further acknowledges and agrees that no Portfolio Manager Affiliate is under any obligation to retain any Portfolio Manager Notes, and may sell all or a portion of such Portfolio Manager Notes at any time. In addition, the Issuer acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager Affiliates may acquire and subsequently sell other Notes after the Closing Date. In certain circumstances, the interests of the Issuer and/or the Holders or beneficial owners of the Notes with respect to matters as to which the Portfolio Manager is advising the Issuer may conflict with the interests of the Portfolio Manager Affiliates or its Related Entities. The Issuer hereby acknowledges that various potential and actual conflicts of interest may exist with respect to the Portfolio Manager as described above and as described in the final offering memorandum relating to the Notes; provided that nothing in this Section 6 shall be construed as altering the duties of the Portfolio Manager referred to herein.

(b) At the written request of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall establish a conflicts review board or appoint an independent third party to act on behalf of the Issuer (such board or party, an "Independent Review Party") with respect to Affiliate Transactions. Decisions of any Independent Review Party shall be binding on the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer, and Holders of the Notes.

(c) Any Independent Review Party (i) shall either (A) be the Issuer's Board of Directors, (B) be an established financial institution or other financial company with experience in assessing the merits of transactions similar to the Affiliate Transactions or (C) be a review board comprised of one or more individuals selected by the Issuer (or at the request of the Issuer, selected by the Portfolio Manager), (ii) shall be required to assess the merits of the Affiliate Transaction and either grant or withhold consent to such transaction in its sole judgment and (iii) shall not be (A) affiliated with the Portfolio Manager (other than as a Holder or as a passive investor in the Issuer or an Affiliate of the Issuer) or (B) (other than the Issuer's Board of Directors) involved in the daily management and control of the Issuer.

(d) The Issuer (i) shall be responsible for any fees relating to the services provided by any Independent Review Party and shall reimburse members of any Independent Review Party for their out-of-pocket expenses and (ii) may indemnify members of such Independent Review Party to the maximum extent permitted by law, subject to terms and conditions satisfactory to the Portfolio Manager.

7. Records; Confidentiality.

The Portfolio Manager shall maintain or cause to be maintained appropriate books of account and records relating to its services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by representatives of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Holders, and the Independent accountants appointed by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer pursuant to Article 10 of the Indenture at any time during normal business hours and upon not less than three Business Days' prior notice. The Portfolio Manager shall keep confidential any and all information that is either (i) of a type that would ordinarily be considered proprietary or confidential or (ii) designated as confidential (collectively "Confidential Information") obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder and shall not disclose any such Confidential Information to non-affiliated third parties (excluding any Holders and beneficial owners of Notes to the extent required by the terms of the Indenture) except (a) with the prior written consent of the Issuer, (b) such Confidential Information as a Rating Agency shall reasonably request in connection with its rating of the Secured Notes or supplying credit estimates on any obligation included in the Assets, (c) in connection with establishing trading or investment accounts or otherwise in connection with effecting transactions with respect to the Assets on behalf of the Issuer, (d) as required by (i) applicable law, regulation, court order, or a request by a governmental regulatory agency with jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, (ii) the rules or regulations of any stock exchange or self-regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates or (iii) the Irish Stock Exchange, (e) to its professional advisors (including, without limitation, legal, tax and accounting advisors), (f) such Confidential Information as shall have been publicly available or disclosed other than in known violation of this Agreement or the provisions of the Indenture or shall have been obtained by the Portfolio Manager on a non-confidential basis, (g) such Confidential Information as is necessary or appropriate to disclose so that the Portfolio Manager may perform its duties hereunder, under the Indenture or the related documents or (h) general performance information which may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with their marketing activities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is agreed that the Portfolio Manager may disclose (a) that it is serving as portfolio manager of the Issuer, (b) the nature, aggregate principal amount and overall performance of the Issuer's assets, (c) the amount of earnings on the Assets, (d) such other Confidential Information about the Issuer, the Assets and the Notes as is customarily disclosed by managers of collateralized loan obligations and (e) each of its respective employees, representatives or other agents may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the United States federal income tax treatment and United States federal income tax structure of the transactions contemplated by the Indenture, this Agreement and the related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions and other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such United States federal income tax treatment and United States income tax structure. For purposes of this Section 7, the Holders and beneficial owners of the Notes shall not be considered "non-affiliated third parties."

8. Obligations of Portfolio Manager.

In accordance with the performance standard set forth in Section 3(b), the Portfolio Manager shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that no action is taken by it, and shall not intentionally or with reckless disregard take any action, which would (a) materially and adversely affect the status of the Issuer for purposes of Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state law, or other law known to the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to the Issuer, (b) not be permitted by the Issuer's Governing Instruments, (c) violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer, including, without limitation, actions which would violate any Cayman Islands law, United States federal, state or other applicable securities law that is known by the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to it and, in each case, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer or have a material adverse effect on the ability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations hereunder or under the Indenture, (d) require registration of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the pool of Assets as an "investment company" under Section 8 of the Investment Company Act, (e) cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise cause the Issuer to be subject to U.S. federal or state income tax on a net basis; provided that it shall not be a violation of this clause (e) for the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis as a result of an action taken either (i) in compliance with the Trading Restrictions attached hereto as Schedule 1 or (ii) in reliance upon Tax Advice to the effect that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such action, the Issuer's contemplated action "will" not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis, so long as (in respect of either (i) or (ii)) (x) there has been no material change in U.S. federal income tax law or the interpretation thereof that is relevant to such action since the date of such Tax Advice or the date hereof, as applicable; and (y) the Portfolio Manager does not have actual knowledge that such action, when considered in the light of the other activities of the Issuer, would cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes; or (f) knowingly and willfully adversely affect the interests of the Holders in the Assets in any material respect (other than (i) as expressly permitted hereunder or under the Indenture or (ii) in connection with any action taken in the ordinary course of business of the Portfolio Manager in accordance with its fiduciary duties to its clients). In furtherance of the foregoing clause (e), the Portfolio Manager shall at all times comply with the Trading Restrictions set forth in Schedule 1, except with respect to actions taken in compliance with clause (e)(ii). If the Portfolio Manager is ordered by the Board of Directors of the Issuer or the requisite

Holders or beneficial owners of Notes to take any action which would, or could reasonably be expected to, in each case in its reasonable business judgment, have any such consequences, the Portfolio Manager shall promptly notify the Issuer that such action would, or could reasonably be expected to, in each case in its reasonable business judgment, have one or more of the consequences set forth above and shall not take such action unless the Board of Directors of the Issuer then request the Portfolio Manager to do so and at least a Majority of both the Controlling Class and the Subordinated Notes (voting separately by Class) have consented thereto in writing. Notwithstanding any such request, the Portfolio Manager shall not take such action unless (1) arrangements satisfactory to it are made to insure or indemnify the Portfolio Manager, Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager and members, shareholders, partners, directors, managers, officers or employees of the Portfolio Manager or such Affiliates from any liability and expense it may incur as a result of such action and (2) if the Portfolio Manager so requests in respect of a question of law, the Issuer delivers to the Portfolio Manager an opinion of a nationally recognized law firm (from outside counsel satisfactory to the Portfolio Manager) that the action so requested does not violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer or over the Portfolio Manager. Neither the Portfolio Manager nor its Affiliates, shareholders, partners, directors, members, managers, officers or employees shall be liable to the Issuer or any other Person, except as provided in Section 11. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, any indemnification or insurance by the Issuer provided for in this Section 8 or Section 11 shall be payable out of the Assets in accordance with the Priority of Payments, and the Portfolio Manager may take into account such Priority of Payments in determining whether any proposed indemnity arrangements contemplated by this Section 8 are satisfactory.

9. Compensation.

(a) The Issuer shall pay to the Portfolio Manager, for services rendered under this Agreement, on each Payment Date, the Senior Management Fee, the Subordinated Management Fee and the Incentive Management Fee. Accrued and unpaid Management Fees shall be paid as set forth in Article 11 of the Indenture. To the extent any of the Subordinated Management Fee is not paid on any Payment Date, such payment will be deferred and will accrue interest at LIBOR (as determined for the applicable Interest Accrual Period with respect to the Secured Notes), compounded quarterly, as set forth in the Indenture.

(b) The Portfolio Manager may (but shall not be obligated to), at its election upon notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Collateral Administrator (the "Fee Election Notice"), reduce for a predetermined period of time, as specified in the Fee Election Notice, the amount which is due to it as Senior Management Fee, in which case the Subordinated Management Fee shall automatically be increased by the same amount (the "Fee Election"). Any Fee Election must be made on or before the Determination Date for the first Collection Period in respect of which the Fee Election will apply and shall not be revocable during the period of the Fee Election; except that, in the event that the Portfolio Manager is removed, resigns or assigns its rights to any Persons, as contemplated by Sections 13, 14 and 15 of this Agreement, the replacement Portfolio Manager shall be bound initially by the terms set forth under Section 9(a) and the Fee Election will not apply to such replacement Portfolio Manager.

(c) The Portfolio Manager shall pay (without reimbursement by the Issuer) its general overhead expenses, including (i) all costs and expenses on account of salaries, wages, bonuses and other employee benefits of the Portfolio Manager and (ii) all occupational expenses, including rent, taxes and utilities, of the Portfolio Manager. The Issuer shall pay or reimburse the Portfolio Manager (at closing in the case of clause (i) below) for its payment of any and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred on behalf of the Issuer, including, without limitation: (i) the costs and expenses of the Portfolio Manager incurred in connection with the negotiation and preparation of this Agreement and all other agreements and matters related to the issuance of the Notes; (ii) any transfer fees necessary to register any Collateral Obligation in accordance with the Indenture; (iii) any costs, fees and expenses in connection with the acquisition, management or disposition of Assets or otherwise in connection with the Notes or the Issuer (including (a) investment related travel, communications and related expenses, (b) loan processing fees, legal fees and expenses and other expenses of professionals retained by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer and (c) amounts in connection with the termination, cancellation or abandonment of a potential acquisition or disposition of any Assets that is not consummated); (iv) any and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the carrying or management of the Assets; (v) any and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Notes and other indebtedness of the Issuer; (vi) any and all attorneys', accountants', rating agencies', consultants', brokers' and other professionals' fees and disbursements relating to Issuer matters (including in house attorneys' and accountants' services provided by or on behalf of the Portfolio Manager to the Issuer as may be reasonably allocated to the Issuer); (vii) any and all taxes and governmental charges that may be incurred or payable by the Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary; (viii) any and all insurance premiums or expenses incurred in connection with the activities of the Issuer by the Portfolio Manager; (ix) any and all costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with the rating of the Notes or obtaining ratings or credit estimates on Collateral Obligations, and communications with the Rating Agencies (including (a) any expenses related to compliance with Rule 17g-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and (b) any fees, expenses or other amounts payable to the Rating Agencies); (x) any and all costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Portfolio Manager's communications with the Holders (including charges related to annual meetings) and costs and expenses for services to the Issuer in respect of the Assets relating to asset pricing and rating services and specialty database software licensing and development fees; (xi) any and all costs and expenses incurred by the Portfolio Manager in connection with the establishment of any ETB Subsidiary (provided that such costs and expenses are directly attributable to the establishment of such ETB Subsidiary), and (xii) any and all expenses incurred to comply with any law or regulation related to the activities of the Issuer, any ETB Subsidiary and the Portfolio Manager. Other than as stated above, the Issuer will bear, and will pay directly in accordance with the Indenture, all other costs and expenses incurred by it or on its behalf in connection with the organization, operation or liquidation of the Issuer.

(d) Upon the effectiveness of any termination of this Agreement or any removal or resignation of the Portfolio Manager hereunder, (i) all Management Fees accrued but not paid prior to the effective date of such termination, removal, resignation or assignment, as the case may be (the "Exit Date"), shall continue to be payable to the exiting Portfolio Manager on Payment Dates occurring after the Exit Date and (ii) (a) in the case of removal for cause pursuant to Section 15, the Incentive Management Fee, if any, will be due and payable on each Payment Date after such removal for cause to the former Portfolio Manager and the successor Portfolio Manager pro rata based on the duration of service as portfolio manager for the Issuer during the period from the Closing Date to (and including) such Payment Date and (b) in the case of termination, resignation or assignment, as the case may be, for any reason other than cause, the Incentive Management Fee that is due and payable will be payable to the former Portfolio Manager and the successor Portfolio Manager based upon the former Portfolio Manager's reasonable determination of each portfolio manager's proportional participation and engagement in providing services to the Issuer in connection with the management of the Issuer's portfolio and carrying out the duties and obligations set forth in the Portfolio Management Agreement.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer are limited recourse obligations payable solely from Assets granted to the Trustee pursuant to the Granting Clauses of the Indenture in accordance with the Priority of Payments and, following realization of the Assets and reduction thereof to zero, all obligations of the Issuer and any claims against the Issuer under this Agreement shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. No recourse shall be had for the payment of any amount owing in respect of this Agreement against any other asset of the Issuer or against any officer, director, employee, shareholder or incorporator of the Issuer. The provisions of this Section 9(e) shall survive termination of this Agreement.

10. Benefit of the Agreement.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that its obligations hereunder in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to it shall be enforceable by the Issuer and by the Trustee on behalf of the Holders, as provided in the Indenture. The Portfolio Manager agrees and consents to the provisions contained in Section 15.1 of the Indenture.

11. Limits of Portfolio Manager Responsibility.

(a) Subject to Section 8, the Portfolio Manager assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to it and affecting the duties and functions that have been delegated to it thereunder and hereunder in good faith and, subject to the standard of conduct described in the next succeeding sentence. The Portfolio Manager shall not be responsible for any action or inaction of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee in declining to follow any advice, recommendation or direction of the Portfolio Manager including as set forth in Section 8. Neither the Portfolio Manager nor any of its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, personnel, employees, agents or Affiliates will be liable to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Holders of the Notes, the Placement Agent or any other Person for any act, omission, error of judgment, mistake of law, or for any claim, loss, liability, damage, judgments, assessments, settlement, cost, or other expense (including attorneys' fees and expenses and court costs) arising out of any investment, or for any other act taken by or recommended by or omission arising out of or in connection with the performance by the Portfolio Manager, its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, personnel, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or Affiliates under this Agreement or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, incurred as a result of actions taken or recommended or for any omissions of the Portfolio Manager, or for any decrease in the value of the Collateral Obligations, except that the Portfolio Manager shall be liable (i) by reason of acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or reckless disregard in the performance of its obligations hereunder or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager or, (ii) with respect to the information concerning the Portfolio Manager included in the Offering Memorandum dated November 12, 2014 (the "Offering Memorandum") under the headings "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager" and the sub-headings thereunder, "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Issuer and its Service Providers—The Issuer will be subject to various conflicts of interest involving the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates" and "The Portfolio Manager," as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any consequential, punitive, exemplary or treble damages or lost profits hereunder or under the Indenture. The Issuer (the Issuer in such case, the "Indemnifying Party") shall indemnify and hold harmless the Portfolio Manager, its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, agents, personnel and employees and its Affiliates and their directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, agents, personnel and employees (each, an "Indemnified Party") from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (other than losses in the value of a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment incurred by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates in connection with a transaction in which it elects to acquire a Collateral Obligation or an Eligible Investment from the Issuer as principal) (collectively, "Liabilities"), and will promptly reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) as such fees and expenses (collectively, the "Expenses") are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the "Actions"), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with the Assets or business of the Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary or otherwise relating to the Indenture or this Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses (x) it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or reckless disregard in the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its obligations hereunder or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, or (y) it incurs with respect to the information concerning the Portfolio Manager included in the Offering Memorandum under the headings "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager" and the sub-headings thereunder, "Risk Factors— Risks Relating to the Issuer and its Service Providers—The Issuer will be subject to various conflicts of interest involving the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates" and "The Portfolio Manager," as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer under this Section 11 are limited recourse obligations of the Issuer payable solely out of the Assets in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The Indemnified Parties are not required to consult with, or obtain the consent of, the Issuer with respect to any settlement, negotiation or other act of the Indemnified Parties in connection with any Action.

(b) The Portfolio Manager shall indemnify and hold harmless (the Portfolio Manager in such case, the "Indemnifying Party") the Issuer (the Issuer in such case, the "Indemnified Party") from and against any and all expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising directly out of any information described in Section 11(a)(ii) above, as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any special, indirect, consequential, punitive, exemplary or treble damages or lost profits.

(c) The Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the Indemnifying Party if the Indemnified Party receives a complaint, claim, compulsory process or other notice of any losses or damages giving rise to a claim for indemnification under this Section 11, but failure so to notify the Indemnifying Party or to comply with paragraph (d) below shall not relieve such Indemnifying Party from its obligations under this Section 11 unless and to the extent that such Indemnifying Party did not otherwise learn of such action or proceeding and to the extent such failure results in the forfeiture by the Indemnifying Party of material rights and defenses.

(d) With respect to any claim made or threatened against an Indemnified Party, or compulsory process or request served upon such Indemnified Party for which such Indemnified Party is or may be entitled to indemnification under this Section 11, such Indemnified Party shall:

(i) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, provide the Indemnifying Party such information and cooperation with respect to such claim as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require, including, but not limited to, making appropriate personnel available to the Indemnifying Party at such reasonable times as the Indemnifying Party may request;

(ii) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, cooperate and take all such steps as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request to preserve and protect any defense to such claim;

(iii) in the event suit is brought with respect to such claim, upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, which the Indemnifying Party may exercise in its sole discretion and at its expense, (A) to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement of such claim, and, (B) to the extent that it shall wish, to assume the defense thereof, with counsel satisfactory to such Indemnified Party (who shall not, except with the consent of the Indemnified Party, be counsel to the Indemnifying Party), and, after notice from the Indemnifying Party to such Indemnified Party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to such Indemnified Party under such subsection for any legal fees and expenses of other counsel or any other expenses, in each case subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Party, in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation, except that, if such Indemnified Party reasonably determines that counsel selected by the Indemnifying Party has a conflict of interest, such Indemnifying Party shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of one additional counsel selected by the Indemnified Party (in addition to any local counsel) separate from its own counsel for all Indemnified Parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances; and

(iv) neither incur any material expense to defend against nor make any admission with respect thereto, nor permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof, in each case without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party; provided that the Indemnifying Party shall have advised such Indemnified Party that such Indemnified Party is entitled to be indemnified hereunder with respect to such claim.

(e) No Indemnified Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, settle or compromise any claim giving rise to a claim for indemnity hereunder, or permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof; provided that if the Indemnified Party is the Portfolio Manager or an Affiliate or a Related Entity of the Portfolio Manager or of an Affiliate thereof, such Indemnified Party shall not be required to seek or obtain such consent if it determines in good faith that the Indemnifying Party is unlikely to have sufficient funds available to indemnify it in full, taking into account the Priority of Payments.

(f) No Indemnifying Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, settle or compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect to any claim giving rise to a claim for indemnity hereunder if such settlement includes a statement as to or an admission of fault, culpability or a failure to act by or on behalf of any Indemnified Party.

(g) If the indemnification provided for in this Section 11 is unavailable to an Indemnified Party in respect of any claims or liabilities referred to herein, then the Indemnifying Party, in lieu of indemnifying such Indemnified Party hereunder, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnified Party as a result of such claims or liabilities in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by, and the relative fault of, the Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and the Indemnified Parties, on the other hand, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations.

(h) The required indemnification provided by this Section 11 shall be in addition to any rights to which an Indemnified Party may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law, and shall extend to each of its or his or her heirs, successors and assigns. The provisions of this Section 11 shall continue to afford protection to each Indemnified Party regardless of whether such Indemnified Party remains in the position or capacity pursuant to which such Indemnified Party became entitled to indemnification under this Section 11.

(i) United States federal securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith and nothing herein shall constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Issuer or any Holder of Notes may have under any applicable federal securities laws.

(j) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Portfolio Manager's obligations hereunder will be solely the obligations of the Portfolio Manager, and the Issuer will not have any recourse to any Manager Related Party other than the Portfolio Manager, with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby.

(k) The Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any act or omission of the custodian, any sub-custodian, prime broker or other Person appointed by the Issuer. Any compensation to any such Person for its services to the Issuer shall be the obligation of the Issuer and not the Portfolio Manager.

(l) The Portfolio Manager shall not be responsible for any liability resulting from any failure by the Portfolio Manager to fulfill its duties under this Agreement if such liability or failure shall be caused by or directly or indirectly due to a Force Majeure Event, provided that the Portfolio Manager shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the effect of the same. As used herein, the term "Force Majeure Event" means such an operation of the forces of nature as reasonable foresight and ability could not foresee or reasonably provide against including but not limited to, acts of god, flood, war (whether declared or undeclared), terrorism, fire, strikes or work stoppages for any reason, embargo, government action, including any laws, ordinances, regulations or the like which restrict or prohibit the providing of the services contemplated by this Agreement, inability to obtain material, equipment, or communications or computer facilities, or the failure of equipment or interruption of communications or computer facilities, and other causes beyond a party's control whether or not of the same class or kind as specifically named above.

(m) The Portfolio Manager shall be entitled to conclusively rely in good faith, and shall be fully protected in relying, upon any writing, resolution, notice, consent, certificate, affidavit, letter, cablegram, telegram, facsimile, email, telex or teletype message, statement (which may be made orally or by telephone), order or other document or communication reasonably believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by a Person that the Portfolio Manager has no reason to believe is not duly authorized and upon the advice and statements of independent accountants.

(n) The Portfolio Manager may consult with outside legal counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters as to questions of law pertaining to the performance of its duties hereunder and the advice or opinion of such counsel on any such question shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with the advice or opinion of such counsel; provided that the Portfolio Manager may take actions not permitted by the Trading Restrictions only in compliance with Section 8.

12. No Partnership or Joint Venture.

The Issuer and the Portfolio Manager are not partners or joint venturers with each other and nothing herein shall be construed to make them such partners or joint venturers or impose any liability as such on either of them. The Portfolio Manager's relation to the Issuer shall be deemed to be that of an independent contractor.

13. Term; Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall commence as of the date first set forth above and shall continue in force and effect until the first of the following occurs: (i) the payment in full of the Notes and the termination of the Indenture in accordance with its terms; (ii) the liquidation of the Assets and the final distribution of the proceeds of such liquidation to the Holders; or (iii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with subsections (b) of this Section 13 or Section 15 of this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary but subject to the provisions of clause (e) below, this Agreement may be terminated without cause by the Portfolio Manager, and the Portfolio Manager may resign, upon 90 days' (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer) written notice to the Issuer; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to resign immediately upon the effectiveness of any material change in applicable law or regulations which renders the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or under the Indenture to be a violation of such law or regulation.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (b) above, no resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager or termination of this Agreement pursuant to such clause shall be effective until the date as of which a successor Portfolio Manager shall have been appointed and approved in accordance with Section 13(e) and has accepted all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement in writing and has assumed such duties and obligations.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 13, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other, except as provided in Section 3(h)(i), Sections 9(d) and (e) and Sections 11 and 16 of this Agreement.

(e) Any termination, removal or resignation of the Portfolio Manager while any Notes are Outstanding will be effective only upon (a) the appointment by the Issuer, at the direction of at least a Majority of the Subordinated Notes, with the consent of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class, of a successor Portfolio Manager that is an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties reasonably comparable to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager hereunder, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as successor to the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, (iii) satisfies the S&P Rating Condition, (iv) shall not cause the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or the pool of collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act and (v) shall not result in the imposition of any entity-level or withholding tax on the Issuer or the payments to the Holders or cause any other material adverse tax consequences to the Issuer and (b) written acceptance of appointment by such successor Portfolio Manager. The Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager to assume the duties and obligations of the removed or resigning Portfolio Manager. The Issuer, the Trustee and the successor Portfolio Manager shall take such action (or cause the outgoing Portfolio Manager to take such action) consistent with this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, as shall be necessary to effectuate any such succession. In the event that the successor manager has not been appointed or has not assumed the duties of the Portfolio Manager in writing within a 60-day period, any of the Portfolio Manager, a Majority of the Controlling Class or a Majority of the Subordinated Notes may petition a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Portfolio Manager, which appointment will not require the consent of, or be subject to the approval or disapproval of, the Issuer or any Holder (so long as such court appointed successor meets the requirements of clauses (a)(i) through (v) above). The Issuer shall provide notice to Moody's of any removal of the Portfolio Manager and appointment of a successor manager pursuant to this Section 13(e).

(f) In the event of removal of the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement by the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, by the Trustee, the Issuer shall have all of the rights and remedies available with respect thereto at law or equity, and, without limiting the foregoing, the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, the Trustee may by notice in writing to the Portfolio Manager as provided under this Agreement terminate all the rights and obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement (except those that survive termination pursuant to Section 13(d) above). Upon resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager in accordance with this Section 13 or Section 15 of this Agreement, as applicable, and upon acceptance by a successor Portfolio Manager of appointment, all authority and power of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement and the Indenture, whether with respect to the Assets or otherwise, shall automatically and without further action by any Person pass to and be vested in the successor Portfolio Manager.

(g) For so long as Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate of Acis Capital Management, L.P. is the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer will be permitted to use the "Acis" name; provided that, if the Portfolio Manager ceases to be Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate of Acis Capital Management, L.P., the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to change its name to remove all reference to the name "Acis" therefrom. In addition, the Portfolio Manager, without the consent of the Issuer, may change the name of the Portfolio Manager.

14. Delegation; Assignments.

(a) Except as provided herein, the Portfolio Manager may not assign its rights or responsibilities hereunder without the written consent of the Issuer, at least a Majority of the Subordinated Notes (provided that failure to object within 45 days of written notice of assignment will constitute consent) and at least a Majority of the Controlling Class and satisfaction of the S&P Rating Condition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager may, (i) with the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class and without satisfaction of the S&P Rating Condition or the consent of any other Class, assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder to an Affiliate; provided that such Affiliate (A) has demonstrated ability, whether as an entity or by its personnel, to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement, (B) has the legal right and capacity to act as Portfolio Manager hereunder and (C) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, or (ii) enter into (or have its parent enter into) any consolidation or amalgamation with, or merger with or into, or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets to, another entity and, (A) at the time of such consolidation, merger, amalgamation or transfer the resulting, surviving or transferee entity assumes all the obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder generally and the other entity is solely a continuation of the Portfolio Manager in another corporate or similar form and has substantially the same staff and (B) such action does not cause the Issuer to be subject to tax in any jurisdiction outside of its jurisdiction of incorporation; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall deliver prior notice to the Rating Agencies of any assignment, delegation or combination made pursuant to this sentence.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing to the extent that applicable law requires the consent of the Issuer to any "assignment" (as defined in the Investment Advisers Act) of this Agreement to any Person, in whole or in part, by the Portfolio Manager, such requirement may be satisfied with respect to the Issuer and all holders (i) by obtaining consent to such assignment on behalf of the Issuer from any of the following persons as determined by the Portfolio Manager: (A) one or more directors of the Issuer independent from the Portfolio Manager, (B) the Independent Review Party, or (C) an advisory committee established by the Portfolio Manager; or (ii) in any other manner that is permitted pursuant to the applicable law. Any assignment consented to by the Issuer and such Holders shall bind the assignee hereunder in the same manner as the Portfolio Manager is bound. In addition, the assignee shall execute and deliver to the Issuer and the Trustee a counterpart of this Agreement naming such assignee as Portfolio Manager. Upon the execution and delivery of such a counterpart by the assignee, the Portfolio Manager shall be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement, except with respect to its obligations arising under Section 11 of this Agreement prior to such assignment and except with respect to its obligations under Section 3(h)(i) and Section 16 hereof.

(c) This Agreement shall not be assigned by the Issuer without the prior written consent of the Portfolio Manager, and unless the S&P Rating Condition has been satisfied in connection with such assignment, except in the case of assignment by the Issuer to (i) an entity which is a successor to the Issuer permitted under the Indenture, in which case such successor organization shall be bound hereunder and by the terms of said assignment in the same manner as the Issuer is bound thereunder or (ii) the Trustee as contemplated by the Granting Clause of the Indenture. In the event of any assignment by the Issuer, the Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its successor to execute and deliver to the Portfolio Manager such documents as the Portfolio Manager shall consider reasonably necessary to effect fully such assignment.

15. Termination by the Issuer for Cause.

This Agreement may be terminated, and the Portfolio Manager may be removed for cause by at least a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes upon 30 days' prior written notice to the Portfolio Manager. For purposes of determining whether the holders of the required percentage of relevant principal amount of the Notes have given notice of removal of the Portfolio Manager for cause, Notes owned or controlled by the Portfolio Manager or any affiliate thereof or an account or fund managed on a discretionary basis by the Portfolio Manager or its affiliates will be disregarded and deemed to be not outstanding. No such termination or removal shall be effective until the date as of which a successor Portfolio Manager shall have agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and as specified in the Indenture. For purposes of determining "cause" with respect to any such termination of this Agreement or removal of the Portfolio Manager, such term includes any one of the following events:

(a) the Portfolio Manager willfully violates, or takes any action that it knows breaches, any material provision of this Agreement or the Indenture applicable to it in bad faith (not including a willful and intentional breach that results from a good faith dispute regarding reasonable alternative courses of action or interpretation of instructions);

(b) the Portfolio Manager breaches in any respect any provision of this Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it (other than as covered by clause (a) and it being understood that failure to meet any Coverage Test, any Concentration Limitation, Interest Reinvestment Test or the Collateral Quality Test is not such a violation) (except for any such violations or breaches that have not had, or could not, either individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on the Issuer) and fails to cure such breach within 30 days of a Responsible Officer receiving notice of such breach, unless, if such breach is remediable, the Portfolio Manager has taken action that the Portfolio Manager believes in good faith will remedy such breach, and such action does remedy such breach, within 60 days after a Responsible Officer receives notice thereof;

(c) the Portfolio Manager is wound up or dissolved or there is appointed over it or a substantial portion of its assets a receiver, administrator, administrative receiver, trustee or similar officer; or the Portfolio Manager (i) ceases to be able to, or admits in writing its inability to, pay its debts as they become due and payable, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of, or enters into any composition or arrangement with, its creditors generally; (ii) applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, assignee, custodian, liquidator or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Portfolio Manager or of any substantial part of its properties or assets, or authorizes such an application or consent, or proceedings seeking such appointment are commenced without such authorization, consent or application against the Portfolio Manager and continue undismissed for 60 days; (iii) authorizes or files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, or applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the application of any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, insolvency or dissolution, or authorizes such application or consent, or proceedings to such end are instituted against the Portfolio Manager without such authorization, application or consent and are approved as properly instituted and remain undismissed for 60 days or result in adjudication of bankruptcy or insolvency; or (iv) permits or suffers all or any substantial part of its properties or assets to be sequestered or attached by court order and the order remains undismissed for 60 days;

(d) the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Indenture that consists of a default in the payment of principal or interest on the Secured Notes when due and payable and results primarily from any material breach by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or under the Indenture, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period;

(e) the occurrence of an act by the Portfolio Manager that constitutes fraud or criminal activity in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement (as determined pursuant to a final adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction), or the Portfolio Manager being indicted for a criminal offense materially related to its business of providing asset management services;

(f) any senior executive officer of the Portfolio Manager (in the performance of his or her investment management duties) is convicted for a criminal offense materially related to the business of the Portfolio Manager providing asset management services and continues to have responsibility for the performance by the Portfolio Manager hereunder for a period of 10 days after such conviction; or

(g) the inability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its duties hereunder in accordance with the standard of care specified herein due to the termination of the Service Agreements, unless the Portfolio Manager believes in good faith that it will be able to either (i) secure reasonably equivalent substitute services to those that were performed for the Portfolio Manager under the Service Agreements or (ii) perform its duties hereunder in accordance with the applicable standard of care without engaging a third-party service provider, in each case, within 30 days, and the Portfolio Manager is in fact able to secure such services or perform such duties within such 30-day period.

If any of the events specified in the definition of "cause" in this Section 15 shall occur, the Portfolio Manager shall give prompt written notice thereof to the Issuer, each Rating Agency, each Holder of Notes and the Trustee upon the Portfolio Manager's becoming aware of the occurrence of such event. A Majority of the Controlling Class may waive any event described in (a), (b), (d), (e), (f) or (g) above as a basis for termination of this Agreement and removal of the Portfolio Manager under this Section 15.

16. Action Upon Termination.

(a) From and after the effective date of the termination of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement or resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager hereunder, the Portfolio Manager shall not be entitled to compensation for further services hereunder, but shall be paid all compensation accrued to the date of termination, as provided in Section 9 hereof (including any accrued and unpaid Subordinated Management Fee), and shall be entitled to receive any amounts owing under Section 11 hereof. Upon such termination, resignation or removal, the Portfolio Manager shall as soon as practicable:

(i) deliver to the Issuer all property and documents of the Trustee or the Issuer or otherwise relating to the Assets then in the custody of the Portfolio Manager; and

(ii) deliver to the Trustee an accounting with respect to the books and records delivered to the Trustee or the successor Portfolio Manager appointed pursuant to Section 13(e) hereof.

Notwithstanding such termination, resignation or removal, the Portfolio Manager shall remain liable to the extent set forth herein (but subject to Section 11 hereof) for its liabilities hereunder arising prior to termination and for any expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in respect of or arising out of a breach of the representations and warranties made by the Portfolio Manager in Section 17(b) hereof or from any failure of the Portfolio Manager to comply with the provisions of this Section 16.

(b) The Portfolio Manager agrees that, notwithstanding any termination, it shall reasonably cooperate in any Proceeding arising in connection with this Agreement, the Indenture or any of the Assets (excluding any such Proceeding in which claims are asserted against the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager) upon receipt of appropriate indemnification and expense reimbursement.

17. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants to the Portfolio Manager as follows:

(i) The Issuer has been duly incorporated and is validly existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands, has the full corporate power and authority to own its assets and the securities proposed to be owned by it and included in the Assets and to transact the business in which it is presently engaged and is duly qualified under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Indenture, the Collateral Administration Agreement or the Notes (collectively, the "Issuer Documents") would require, such qualification, except for failures to be so qualified, authorized or licensed that would not in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer.

(ii) The Issuer has the necessary corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform each of the Issuer Documents and all obligations required thereunder, and has taken all necessary action to authorize each of the Issuer Documents on the terms and conditions hereof and thereof and the execution, delivery and performance of each of the Issuer Documents and the performance of all obligations imposed upon it hereunder and thereunder. No consent of any other Person including, without limitation, shareholders and creditors of the Issuer, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority, other than those that may be required under state securities or "blue sky" laws and those that have been or shall be obtained in connection with the Indenture and the issuance of the Notes, is required by the Issuer in connection with the Issuer Documents or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of the Issuer Documents or the obligations imposed upon it hereunder or thereunder. This Agreement constitutes, and each instrument or document required hereunder, when executed and delivered hereunder, shall constitute, the legally valid and binding obligation of the Issuer enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with its terms, subject, as to enforcement, to (a) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights, as such laws would apply in the event of any bankruptcy, receivership, insolvency or similar event applicable to the Issuer and (b) general equitable principles (whether enforceability of such principles is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity).

(iii) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement and the documents and instruments required hereunder and thereunder do not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Issuer, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Issuer, or the Governing Instruments of, or any securities issued by, the Issuer or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Issuer is a party or by which the Issuer or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer, and do not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking (other than the lien of the Indenture).

(iv) The Issuer is not required to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act.

(v) The Issuer is not in violation of its Governing Instruments or in breach or violation of or in default under the Indenture or any other contract or agreement to which it is a party or by which it or any of its assets may be bound, or any applicable statute or any rule, regulation or order (including, without limitation, any anti-money laundering statute or related rule, regulation or order) of any court, government agency or body having jurisdiction over the Issuer or its properties, the breach or violation of which or default under which would have a material adverse effect on the validity or enforceability of this Agreement or the performance by the Issuer of its duties hereunder or under the Collateral Administration Agreement.

(vi) True and complete copies of the Indenture and the Issuer's Governing Instruments have been delivered to the Portfolio Manager.

(vii) The Issuer is a "qualified client" as such term is defined under the Investment Advisers Act.

(viii) The Issuer understands that the rules and regulations administered by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") prohibit, among other things, the engagement in transactions with, and the provision of services to, certain countries, territories, entities and individuals. The lists of OFAC prohibited countries, territories, persons and entities can be found on the OFAC website at <http://www.treas.gov/ofac>. In addition, the programs administered by OFAC ("OFAC Programs") prohibit dealing with individuals or entities in certain countries regardless of whether such individuals or entities appear on the OFAC lists. To the best of its knowledge, none of: (1) the Issuer; (2) any person controlling or controlled by the Issuer; (3) any person having a beneficial interest in the Issuer; or (4) any person for whom the Issuer is acting as agent or nominee in connection with this investment is a country, territory, individual or entity named on an OFAC list, or is a person or entity prohibited under the OFAC Programs.

(ix) The Issuer has received and had an opportunity to review a current copy of Part 2 of the Form ADV of Acis Capital Management, L.P., at least forty-eight hours prior to its entering into this Agreement.

The Issuer agrees to deliver a true and complete copy of each amendment to the documents referred to in Section 17(a)(v) above to the Portfolio Manager as promptly as practicable after its adoption or execution.

(b) The Portfolio Manager hereby represents and warrants to the Issuer as follows:

(i) The Portfolio Manager is a limited partnership duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has full power and authority to own its assets and to transact the business in which it is currently engaged and is duly qualified and in good standing under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of this Agreement or the Collateral Administration Agreement (together with this Agreement, the "Manager Documents") would require such qualification, except for those jurisdictions in which the failure to be so qualified, authorized or licensed would not have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or on the ability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations under, or on the validity or enforceability of, the Manager Documents and the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager; the Portfolio Manager is registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform each of the Manager Documents and all obligations required hereunder and under the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, and has taken all necessary action to authorize each of the Manager Documents on the terms and conditions hereof and thereof and the execution, delivery and performance of each of the Manager Documents and all obligations required hereunder and thereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager. No consent of any other Person, including, without limitation, creditors of the Portfolio Manager, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority is required by the Portfolio Manager in connection with the Manager Documents or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of the Manager Documents or the obligations required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager. Each of the Manager Documents has been, and each instrument and document required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall be, executed and delivered by a duly authorized officer of the Portfolio Manager, and each of the Manager Documents constitutes, and each instrument and document required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture when executed and delivered by the Portfolio Manager hereunder or thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall constitute, the valid and legally binding obligations of the Portfolio Manager enforceable against the Portfolio Manager in accordance with their terms, subject to (a) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights and (b) general equitable principles.

(iii) The execution, delivery and performance of the Manager Documents and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager and the documents and instruments required hereunder or thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Portfolio Manager, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Portfolio Manager, or the Governing Instruments of, or any securities issued by the Portfolio Manager or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Portfolio Manager is a party or by which the Portfolio Manager or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or its ability to perform its obligations under the Manager Documents, and shall not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking, the existence of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or its ability to perform its obligations under the Manager Documents.

(iv) There is no charge, investigation, action, suit or proceeding before or by any court pending or, to the best knowledge of the Portfolio Manager, threatened that, if determined adversely to the Portfolio Manager, would have a material adverse effect upon the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under, or on the validity or enforceability of, the Manager Documents and the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager hereunder.

(v) The Portfolio Manager is authorized to carry on its business in the United States and in all other jurisdictions necessary to the performance of its obligations under the Manager Documents and the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager.

(vi) The Portfolio Manager is not in violation of its Governing Instruments or in breach or violation of or in default under any contract or agreement to which it is a party or by which it or any of its property may be bound, or any applicable statute or any rule, regulation or order of any court, government agency or body having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or its properties, the breach or violation of which or default under which would have a material adverse effect on the validity or enforceability of the Manager

Documents or the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, or the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or thereunder.

(vii) The information concerning the Portfolio Manager contained under the headings entitled "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager," "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Issuer and its Service Providers—The Issuer will be subject to various conflicts of interest involving the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates" and "The Portfolio Manager," in the Offering Memorandum, as of the respective dates of the Offering Memorandum and as of the Closing Date, is true in all material respects and does not omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

19. Binding Nature of Agreement; Successors and Assigns.

Subject to Section 14 hereof, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and permitted assigns as provided herein.

20. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, inducements and conditions, express or implied, oral or written, of any nature whatsoever with respect to the subject matter hereof. The express terms hereof control and supersede any course of performance and/or usage of the trade inconsistent with any of the terms hereof.

21. Amendment.

This Agreement may not be modified or amended other than by an agreement in writing executed by the parties hereto and (other than in respect of a modification or amendment of the type that may be made to the Indenture without Holder consent) (i) the consent of a Majority of the Subordinated Notes, (ii) the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class and (iii) notice to the Rating Agencies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto, without the consent of any Holders, may amend or modify any provision of this agreement to (i) reflect a change that is of an inconsequential nature, (ii) correct inconsistencies, typographical or other errors, defects or ambiguities, (iii) conform this Agreement to the Offering Memorandum or the Indenture (as it may be amended from time to time) or (iv) reflect a change that is necessary or desirable to satisfy any requirements, conditions or guidelines contained in any opinion, directive, order, ruling or regulation (including ERISA, the Code, the Investment Advisers Act and the Investment Company Act) of any U.S. federal or state agency or contained in any U.S. federal or state statute. In addition, Schedule 1 may be amended or modified by the parties hereto without the consent of any Holder in accordance with Tax Advice.

22. Conflict with the Indenture.

In the event that this Agreement requires any action to be taken with respect to any matter and the Indenture requires that a different action be taken with respect to such matter, and such actions are mutually exclusive, the provisions of the Indenture (as in effect on the date hereof or as amended or supplemented, with the consent of the Portfolio Manager if such consent is required by Section 3(b)) in respect thereof shall control.

23. Priority of Payments.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that the payment of all amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to this Agreement shall be subordinated to the extent set forth in, and the Portfolio Manager agrees to be bound by the provisions of, Article 11 and Section 15.1 of the Indenture as if the Portfolio Manager were a party to the Indenture and each of the Portfolio Manager and Issuer hereby consents to the assignment of this Agreement as provided in Section 15.1 of the Indenture.

24. Governing Law; Jury Trial.

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICTS OF LAWS PROVISIONS THEREOF). EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT HAS RECEIVED FULL AND SUFFICIENT CONSIDERATION FOR THIS PROVISION AND THAT THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR SUCH PARTIES ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

25. Indulgences Not Waivers.

Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of any party hereto to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise of the same or of any other right, remedy, power or privilege, nor shall any waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any occurrence be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any other occurrence. No waiver shall be effective unless it is in writing and is signed by the party asserted to have granted such waiver.

26. Titles Not to Affect Interpretation.

The titles of Sections and subsections of this Agreement are for convenience only, and they neither form a part of this Agreement nor are they to be used in the construction or interpretation hereof.

27. Execution in Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

28. Provisions Separable.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, in case any provision in this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable as written, such provision shall be construed in the manner most closely resembling the apparent intent of the parties with respect to such provision so as to be valid, legal and enforceable; provided that, if there is no basis for such a construction, to the fullest extent permitted by law, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability and, unless the ineffectiveness of such provision destroys the basis of the bargain for one of the parties to this Agreement, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof or thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

29. Number and Gender.

Words used herein, regardless of the number and gender specifically used, shall be deemed and construed to include any other number, singular or plural, and any other gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, as the context requires.

30. Jurisdiction and Venue.

The parties to this Agreement irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the Notes or the Indenture, and the parties irrevocably agree that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York state or federal court. The parties to this Agreement irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent they may legally do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding. The parties to this Agreement irrevocably consent to the service of any and all process in any action or proceeding by the mailing or delivery of copies of such process to it in accordance with Section 18. The parties agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

31. Third Party Beneficiaries.

Other than as provided below, no party, including any Holder of Notes, is a third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The parties hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Trustee will be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement.

32. Miscellaneous.

(a) With respect to any Defaulted Obligation, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may instruct the agent or the trustee for such Defaulted Obligation to enforce the Issuer's rights under the Underlying Instruments governing such Defaulted Obligation and under any applicable law, rule or regulation in any manner permitted under the Indenture that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable business judgment will be in the best interests of the Issuer. In the event any Offer is made with respect to any Collateral Obligation or Equity Security, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may take such action as is permitted by the Indenture and that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable business judgment will be in the best interests of the Issuer.

(b) Without prejudice to Section 15(f) hereof, any corporation, partnership or limited liability company into which the Portfolio Manager may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Portfolio Manager shall be a party, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company succeeding to all or substantially all of the collateral management business of the Portfolio Manager, shall be the successor to the Portfolio Manager without any further action by the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Holders or any other Person or entity; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall give prompt written notice to each Rating Agency upon any such occurrence.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein or in the Indenture to the contrary, with respect to any report, information, communication, request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver to be given to a Rating Agency by the Issuer, the Issuer shall instead provide such information to the Portfolio Manager, and the Portfolio Manager shall then provide such information as well as any information related to the transaction requested by any Rating Agency directly from the Portfolio Manager to the applicable Rating Agencies via the website established on behalf of the Issuer for purposes of Rule 17g-5 under the Exchange Act.

(d) If the Issuer shall receive any written or oral communication from any Rating Agency (or any of their respective officers, directors or employees) with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby or in any way relating to the Notes, the Issuer agrees to refrain from communicating with such Rating Agency and to promptly (and, in any event, within one Business Day) notify the Portfolio Manager of such communication. The Issuer agrees to coordinate with the Portfolio Manager with respect to any communication to a Rating Agency and further agrees that in no event shall it engage in any oral or written communication with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby or in any way relating to the Notes with any Rating Agency (or any of their respective officers, directors or employees) without the participation of the Portfolio Manager.

33. Power of Attorney.

The Issuer hereby makes, constitutes and appoints each of Josh Terry, Hunter Covitz and Philip Braner, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact (each an "Attorney" and together the "Attorneys"), jointly and severally with full power and authority in its name, place and stead, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Indenture (a) to prepare, sign and deliver tax documentation, transfer documentation and all other documentation in connection with the acquisition and sale by the Issuer of Collateral Obligations and (b) to (i) vote in its discretion any securities, instruments or obligations included in the Assets, (ii) execute proxies, waivers, consents and other instruments with respect to such Collateral Obligations, (iii) endorse, transfer or deliver such securities, instruments and obligations, (iv) participate in or consent (or decline to consent) to any modification, work-out, restructuring, bankruptcy proceeding, class action, plan of reorganization, merger, combination, consolidation, liquidation or similar plan or transaction with regard to such Collateral Obligations and (v) take any other action specified in Section 3 of this Agreement. This grant of power of attorney will expire (a), with respect to each Attorney (and to each substitute appointed by such Attorney), when such Attorney ceases to be an officer or employee of Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate thereof, acting on behalf of Acis Capital Management, L.P. or (b) upon (x) termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms or (y) any assignment by the Portfolio Manager of its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with Section 14 hereof.

SCHEDULE 1

TRADING RESTRICTIONS

The Issuer (and the Portfolio Manager and the Independent Investment Professional acting on behalf of the Issuer) and any other person acting on behalf or at the direction of the Issuer, and any Affiliate of the Issuer, will comply with all of the provisions set forth in this Schedule 1 (the "Trading Restrictions") unless, with respect to a particular transaction, the Portfolio Manager shall have received Tax Advice in compliance with Section 8 of this Agreement. For purposes of these Trading Restrictions, a "Collateral Obligation" shall include any "Assets" as defined in the Indenture.

The Issuer shall acquire, hold, lend and dispose of Collateral Obligations only for its own account, and shall acquire and hold its Collateral Obligations solely for investment with the expectation and intention of realizing a profit from income earned on the Collateral Obligations and/or any increase in their value during the interval of time between acquisition and disposition thereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Trading Restrictions, the Issuer shall not (each of the following, a "Prohibited Activity"):

(i) act as, or engage in any activities customarily undertaken by, an agent, arranger, or structuring agent with respect to, or negotiate the terms of, any Collateral Obligation or otherwise; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, after the date on which the Issuer has acquired a Collateral Obligation, the Issuer may exercise any voting or other rights available to a holder of a Collateral Obligation under the terms of the Collateral Obligation, and may accept or reject any amendment or modification of the terms of that Collateral Obligation if (x) the amendment or modification is proposed by the obligor under that Collateral Obligation and does not require or provide for any advance of additional funds, the Collateral Obligation is not an Affiliate Collateral Obligation (as defined below), neither the Issuer nor the Portfolio Manager, nor any Affiliate of either, has participated directly or indirectly in the negotiation of the amendment or modification, and the Issuer is not the largest holder of the Collateral Obligation, or (y) the modification would not constitute a Significant Modification (for purposes of this clause, "Significant Modification" means any amendment, supplement or modification that involves (1) a change in interest rate or yield of the Collateral Obligation, (2) a change in the stated maturity or the timing of any material payment on the Collateral Obligation (including deferral of an interest payment), (3) a change in the obligor of the Collateral Obligation or (4) a change in the collateral or security for the Collateral Obligation, including the addition or deletion of a co-obligor or guarantor, all within the meaning of United States Department of the Treasury regulation section 1.1001-3), or (z) in the reasonable judgment of the Portfolio Manager, the obligor is in financial distress, the obligor was not in financial distress on the date on which the Issuer acquired such Collateral Obligation and such change in terms is desirable to protect the Issuer's investment;

(ii) act as, hold itself out as, represent to others that it is, or engage in any activities customarily undertaken by, a dealer, middleman, market maker, retailer or wholesaler in any Collateral Obligations, reference obligations or hedging or derivative instruments, or hold as inventory for purposes of resale to customers, any Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer;

(iii) perform services, or hold itself out as willing to perform services, for any person, or have or seek customers;

(iv) register as a broker-dealer under the laws of any country or political subdivision thereof, or register as, or become subject to regulatory supervision or other legal requirements under the laws of any country or political subdivision thereof as, a bank, insurance company, loan originator, finance company or other institution engaged in a similar loan origination or insurance business;

(v) take any action causing it to be treated as a bank, insurance company, loan originator, finance company or other institution engaged in a similar loan origination or insurance business for purposes of any tax, securities law or other filing or submission made to any governmental authority, any application made to a rating agency, or qualification for any exemption from tax, securities law or any other legal requirements;

(vi) hold itself out to the public as a bank, insurance company, loan originator, finance company or other institution engaged in a similar loan origination or insurance business, or hold itself out to the public, through advertising or otherwise, as originating loans or making a market in loans or other assets;

(vii) establish a branch, agency or other place of business within the United States; provided, that entering into this Agreement and the appointment of the Portfolio Manager as described herein shall not be construed as a violation of this clause (vii);

(viii) make any tax election which would cause it to be subject to United States federal, state or local income or franchise tax;

(ix) buy any security in order to earn a dealer spread or dealer mark-up over its cost; or

(x) buy any security with an expectation or intention of restructuring or entering into a workout of such security.

For purposes of this Schedule 1, "dealer" means: (a) a merchant of securities with an established place of business who in the ordinary course of business is engaged as a merchant in purchasing securities and selling them to customers with a view to the gains and profits that may be derived therefrom, and (b) a person that regularly offers to enter into, assume, offset, assign or otherwise terminate positions in derivatives with customers in the ordinary course of a trade or business, including regularly holding itself out, in the ordinary course of its trade or business, as being willing and able to enter into either side of a derivative transaction.

Requirements With Respect to Collateral Obligations.

The Issuer may acquire Collateral Obligations only by assignment or participation, and may not execute any credit agreement whereby Collateral Obligations are issued. The Issuer shall not acquire any Collateral Obligation, or enter into any understanding, arrangement, forward sale agreement or commitment with any person to acquire any Collateral Obligation (a "Commitment"), in each case (i) prior to 48 hours after the completion of the issuance and funding of such Collateral Obligation, other than as otherwise permitted under "Forward Purchase Commitments" below, or (ii) if the Issuer would own more than 50 percent of the loan, obligation, issue, class or tranche that includes the Collateral Obligation or, if the loan, obligation, issue, class or tranche that includes that Collateral Obligation is part of a larger credit facility, more than 25 percent of that entire credit facility. In the case of any Collateral Obligation that is amended or modified in a manner that constitutes a Significant Modification after issuance and funding of such Collateral Obligation and before acquisition by the Issuer of such Collateral Obligation, any seasoning requirement set forth herein shall be computed and applied with respect to the date of such Significant Modification.

The Issuer shall not have any contractual relationship with the borrower or issuer with respect to a Collateral Obligation until the Issuer actually closes the acquisition of that Collateral Obligation. On the funding date of the Collateral Obligation, the documents relating to the Collateral Obligation shall not list the Issuer as a lender or otherwise as a party to any document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation. The Issuer shall not be a signatory on any lending agreement or any other document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation.

The Issuer shall not have any communications or negotiations with the borrower or issuer of any Collateral Obligation (directly or indirectly through the seller of such Collateral Obligation, the agent, negotiator, originator or structuror thereof, or any other person) prior to the completion of the issuance and funding thereof, in connection with the issuance or funding of such Collateral Obligation or commitments with respect thereto, or the Issuer's acquisition of such Collateral Obligation or the Issuer's Commitment with respect thereto, in each case, except as otherwise permitted under "Forward Purchase Commitments" below. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager or the Independent Investment Professional acting on its behalf, may, however, undertake customary due diligence communications with an issuer or obligor of any Collateral Obligation that would be reasonably necessary in order for an investor or trader to make a reasonably informed decision to acquire any such Collateral Obligation for its own account, and (ii) nothing contained herein shall prohibit expressions of interest or providing comments as to mistakes or inconsistencies in documents relating to any Collateral Obligation by the Issuer, or by the Portfolio Manager or the Independent Investment Professional acting on its behalf.

The Issuer shall not be entitled to earn or receive from any person any premium, fee, commission or other compensation for services, whether or not denominated as received for services, in connection with acquiring or disposing of a Collateral Obligation, or entering into a commitment to acquire or dispose of a Collateral Obligation, including without limitation, in each case, any amount that is attributable or otherwise determined by reference to the amount of any origination, underwriting or similar profit or related or similar fees for services earned by an underwriter, placement agent, lender, arranger, agent or other similar person in connection with the issuance or funding of a Collateral Obligation. In furtherance and not in limitation of the immediately preceding sentence, the Issuer shall not be entitled to earn or receive directly from any person any separately stated premium, fee or commission that is compensation for services or that is based upon or otherwise determined by reference to the amount of any such services. For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing prohibition against earning or receiving fees and similar amounts shall not apply to (i) any compensation paid other than for a Prohibited Activity pursuant to the terms of any Collateral Obligation (e.g., a prepayment fee or commitment fee), (ii) any amendment or waiver fee, or (iii) any discount in the price paid by the Issuer for a Collateral Obligation from the price paid by the seller of the Collateral Obligation where such discount is attributable to the time value of money, credit quality of the related borrower, market conditions, or terms and conditions of the Collateral Obligation.

Additional Requirements With Respect to Affiliate Collateral Obligations and Transfers to Affiliates.

Except as provided below, the Portfolio Manager shall not cause the Issuer to purchase any Collateral Obligation of any borrower or issuer with respect to which the Issuer, Portfolio Manager or any of their Affiliates:

(i) acted as an underwriter, financial advisory, placement or other agent, arranger, negotiator or structuror in connection with the issuance or origination of such Collateral Obligation,

(ii) was an agent, negotiator, structuring agent, bridge loan provider (where a bridge loan is repaid by any Collateral Obligation) or member of the original lending syndicate with respect to such Collateral Obligation, or

(iii) earned or received any compensation relating to the origination of such Collateral Obligation (each such Collateral Obligation, an "Affiliate Collateral Obligation").

The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer shall be permitted to cause the Issuer to purchase Affiliate Collateral Obligations, provided that the following conditions are met:

(I) at least 30 days shall have passed since the issuance and funding of such Affiliate Collateral Obligation and the holder of the Collateral Obligation did not identify the obligation or security as intended for sale to the Issuer within 30 days of its issuance;

(II) following such 30-day period, the Independent Investment Professional shall have approved the purchase by the Issuer of such Affiliate Collateral Obligation after a review of the terms and conditions thereof and a determination that such transaction shall be effected on an arm's length basis and that the purchase price represents fair market value

(x) by reference to dealer quotes or the price paid by an unrelated secondary buyer in a material contemporaneous sale on substantially the same terms, or (y) to the extent there is no independent sale or the price paid in such sale is not readily ascertainable, by reference to the fair market value price at which an unrelated independent secondary market acquirer would acquire such Affiliate Collateral Obligation in an arm's length transaction;

(III) the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliate, as the case may be, originated the Collateral Obligation in the ordinary course of its business and not in contemplation of its acquisition by the Issuer; and

(IV) the Issuer may not purchase any Affiliate Collateral Obligation having a greater principal amount than the principal amount of such Affiliate Collateral Obligation held following such purchase by the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates (excluding the Issuer).

In addition, the Portfolio Manager shall not cause the Issuer to sell or assign any Collateral Obligation to the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates in a transaction in which the Portfolio Manager is acting as principal for its own account or has discretionary authority to invest for the account of such Affiliate, unless such sale or assignment is consented to by the Independent Investment Professional, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed so long as such sale or assignment is effected at the fair market value price that an unrelated independent secondary market acquirer would acquire such Collateral Obligation in an arm's length transaction. It is understood and agreed that the consent requirement of the immediately preceding sentence shall not apply to any sale or assignment of any Collateral Obligation by the Issuer to any Person whose equity is at least majority owned by the Issuer (e.g., a special purpose financing subsidiary).

Maintenance of Separate and Independent Status.

At the written request of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall establish a conflicts review board or appoint an independent third party to act on behalf of the Issuer (such board or party, an "Independent Investment Professional") with respect to transactions involving any Affiliate Collateral Obligation. Any Independent Investment Professional (i) shall either (A) be an established financial institution or other financial company with experience in assessing the merits of transactions similar to the transactions involving any Affiliate Collateral Obligation or (B) be a review board comprised of one or more individuals selected by the Issuer (or at the request of the Issuer, selected by the Portfolio Manager), (ii) shall be required to assess the merits of the transaction involving any Affiliate Collateral Obligation and either grant or withhold consent to such transaction in its sole judgment and (iii) shall not be (A) affiliated with the Portfolio Manager (other than as a holder or as a passive investor in the Issuer or an Affiliate of the Issuer) or (B) involved in the daily management and control of the Issuer.

Neither the Independent Investment Professional nor any of the employees or personnel performing duties of the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer relating to the purchase of Affiliate Collateral Obligations shall be directly or indirectly involved in any origination or underwriting activities with respect to any Collateral Obligation, or have access to any files, records, or other information that is not available to independent unrelated secondary market acquirers concerning the origination or underwriting of any such Collateral Obligation. In addition, neither the Independent Investment Professional nor any of the employees or personnel performing duties of the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer relating to the purchase of Affiliate Collateral Obligations shall be a party to any discussions or meetings relating to origination or underwriting activities with respect to any Affiliate Collateral Obligation. No employee or personnel of the Portfolio Manager who is involved in any origination or underwriting activities with respect to any Affiliate Collateral Obligation shall have any direct or indirect influence over the decision making process of the Issuer or the Independent Investment Professional with respect to the acquisition or disposition of any Affiliate Collateral Obligation on behalf of the Issuer, but no such employee or personnel shall be prohibited from making recommendations to the Independent Investment Professional. However, in all cases the decision whether to invest in an Affiliate Collateral Obligation or to sell a Collateral Obligation to the Portfolio Manager or one of its Affiliates shall be an independent decision by the Independent Investment Professional.

Revolving Collateral Obligations, Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligations and Letter of Credit Facilities.

Neither the Issuer nor the Portfolio Manager acting on the Issuer's behalf shall acquire an interest (including by means of participation) in a Revolving Collateral Obligation or a Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or a letter of credit facility unless:

(i) such interest is acquired in the secondary market, the acquisition of such interest will not cause the Issuer to hold more than 25 percent of such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or letter of credit facility, and taken together with the aggregate principal amount of other such interests held by the Issuer does not exceed 15% of the aggregate principal amount of all Collateral Obligations held by the Issuer;

(ii) with respect to any Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation:

(a) neither the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager acting on behalf of the Issuer, nor the Independent Investment Professional acting on behalf of the Issuer has participated in the negotiation of the terms of such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation;

(b) the terms of such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation are fixed as of the date of the Issuer's acquisition thereof and do not provide the Issuer any discretion as to whether to make advances under such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation;

(c) more than a de minimis amount of such Collateral Obligation has been funded, or such loan is associated with a term loan to such borrower which has been fully funded; and

(d) the Issuer does not acquire any interest in a Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation which is not associated with a term loan prior to 60 days after the issuance thereof, and all such interests combined shall not exceed 10% of the aggregate principal amount of all assets held by the Issuer; and

(iii) with respect to any letter of credit facility:

(a) (I) such letter of credit facility has been fully funded by the original lender, and such lender has completed all of its obligations with respect to that letter of credit facility (such that the letter of credit facility does not constitute to any extent a Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation), at least 48 hours before the Issuer committed to acquire such letter of credit facility; and

(II) the lead or agent lender or bank or other withholding agent with respect to such letter of credit will deduct and withhold all applicable withholding taxes on all payments made to the Issuer with respect to such letter of credit facility that are subject to withholding tax imposed by the United States; or

(b) (I) such letter of credit facility is associated with a term loan to such borrower which has been fully funded;

(II) all terms of such letter of credit facility were fully negotiated and final no later than the time at which the terms of the related loan were fully negotiated and final;

(III) the Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager acting on behalf of the Issuer, holds the same proportionate interest in such letter of credit facility as the proportionate interest it holds in the term loan(s) associated with such letter of credit facility; and

(IV) the lead or agent lender or bank or other withholding agent with respect to such letter of credit will deduct and withhold all applicable withholding taxes on all payments made to the Issuer with respect to such letter of credit facility that are subject to withholding tax imposed by the United States.

Forward Purchase Commitments.

The Issuer shall not have nor make any Commitment to acquire a Collateral Obligation from a seller before completion of the closing, full funding and seasoning (except, with respect to funding, in the case of a Revolving Collateral Obligation or a Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation) of the Collateral Obligation, except as permitted in the following provisions.

If a Commitment is made to acquire a Collateral Obligation, other than an Affiliate Collateral Obligation, from a seller before completion of the closing and full funding of the Collateral Obligation by such seller (the "Original Lender"), such commitment shall only be made pursuant to a forward sale agreement at an agreed price (a "Forward Purchase Commitment"). Any Forward Purchase Commitment with any Original Lender in respect of a Collateral Obligation may only be made after such Original Lender has delivered its own commitment to acquire its own interest in that Collateral Obligation and after all material terms of the Collateral Obligation have been agreed to.

In the process of making or negotiating to make a Forward Purchase Commitment, the Issuer shall not negotiate with respect to any term of the Collateral Obligation to which the Forward Purchase Commitment relates. The Issuer is not prevented from negotiating the terms of the Forward Purchase Commitment, including the price at which the Issuer shall acquire the Collateral Obligation to which the Forward Purchase Commitment relates.

If the Issuer enters into a Forward Purchase Commitment to acquire a Collateral Obligation, the Issuer's obligation under the Forward Purchase Commitment shall be conditioned on there being, as of the time the Issuer is to acquire the Collateral Obligation, no material adverse change in the condition of the borrower or issuer, the Collateral Obligation or the financial markets, and in all other respects, the Forward Purchase Commitment may only be conditional to the extent the related counterparty's own commitment in the origination process and funding of the Collateral Obligation is delayed, reduced or eliminated; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, a Forward Purchase Commitment shall not be required to be conditioned on the absence of a material adverse change if (y) the Issuer enters into the Forward Purchase Commitment no sooner than 48 hours after the Original Lender has delivered its own commitment with respect to the related Collateral Obligation and after all material terms of the Collateral Obligation have been agreed to, and (z) the Issuer's Commitment is documented in a form for secondary market purchases that is substantially similar to that used for commitments given by all other persons who will acquire an interest in the Collateral Obligation from the Original Lender (including as to the absence of a material adverse change condition). In the event of any delayed, reduced or eliminated funding, the Issuer shall not receive any premium, fee, or other compensation in connection with having entered into the Forward Purchase Commitment, other than commitment fees or fees in the nature of commitment fees that are customarily paid in connection with such delays, reductions or eliminations of funding of Collateral Obligations of the type permitted to be purchased by the Issuer.

The Issuer shall not have any contractual relationship with the borrower or issuer with respect to a Collateral Obligation that will be subject to a Forward Purchase Commitment until the Issuer actually closes the acquisition of that Collateral Obligation. On the funding date of the Collateral Obligation, the documents relating to the Collateral Obligation shall not list the Issuer as a lender or otherwise as a party to any document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation. The Issuer shall not be a signatory on any lending agreement or any other document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation.

The Issuer shall not enter into any Forward Purchase Commitment in respect of any Affiliate Collateral Obligation. The Issuer, or Portfolio Manager or the Independent Investment Professional acting on its behalf, may, however, undertake customary due diligence communications with an issuer or obligor of an Affiliate Collateral Obligation or any other Collateral Obligation that would be reasonably necessary in order for an investor or trader to make a reasonably informed decision to acquire any such Collateral Obligation for its own account.

For the avoidance of doubt, except as provided above with respect to Forward Purchase Commitments, the Issuer may enter into a Commitment with respect to a Collateral Obligation only when the Collateral Obligation is funded and at least 48 hours have thereafter elapsed.

Equity Restrictions.

The Issuer shall not acquire (whether as part of a "unit" with a Collateral Obligation, in exchange for a Collateral Obligation, or otherwise) any asset that is treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as:

(i) an equity interest in a partnership, a trust or a disregarded entity (unless all of the assets of such trust or disregarded entity would otherwise qualify either as Collateral Obligations hereunder or as equity interests in entities taxable as corporations for U.S. federal income tax purposes);

(ii) a residual interest in a "REMIC" (as such term is defined in the Code);

(iii) an ownership interest in a "FASIT" (as such term is defined in the Code); or

(iv) any asset that constitutes a "United States real property interest" ("USRPI"), including certain interests in a "United States real property holding corporation" ("USRPHC") (as such terms are defined in the Code), except that, if otherwise permitted under the Indenture, the Issuer may acquire and/or hold an interest in a USRPHC under circumstances where the USRPHC may not be liquidated, and stock of the USRPHC may not be sold, unless prior to such liquidation or sale all USRPI held by the USRPHC have been sold and all U.S. federal income taxes payable by the USRPHC have been paid, and the Issuer reasonably believes, at the time of the acquisition of the interest in the USRPHC, that the USRPHC will be liquidated or the stock of the USRPHC will be sold (in each case, in accordance with the restrictions in this clause (iv)) prior to the liquidation of the Issuer.

Synthetic Securities.

The Issuer shall not acquire or enter into any swap transaction or security, which swap transaction or security provides for payments associated with either (i) payments of interest and/or principal on a reference obligation or (ii) the credit performance of a reference obligation.

The Portfolio Manager shall provide services to the Issuer as follows:

(a) Subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager agrees to supervise and direct the investment and reinvestment of the Assets, and shall perform on behalf of the Issuer the duties that have been specifically delegated to the Portfolio Manager in this Agreement and in the Indenture (and the Portfolio Manager shall have no obligation to perform any other duties under this Agreement and the Indenture) and, to the extent necessary or appropriate to perform such duties, the Portfolio Manager shall have the power to execute and deliver all necessary and appropriate documents and instruments, and to take all other actions, on behalf of the Issuer with respect thereto, it being understood that the Portfolio Manager shall have no obligation to perform duties to be performed by third parties not under the control of the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates.

(b) The Portfolio Manager shall comply with all the terms and conditions of the Indenture affecting the duties and functions that have been delegated to it thereunder and hereunder and (without in any way limiting Section 11 of this Agreement) shall perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder in good faith and with reasonable care, using a degree of skill and attention no less than that which the Portfolio Manager (i) exercises with respect to comparable assets that it manages for itself and (ii) exercises with respect to comparable assets that it manages for others, and in a manner consistent with practices and procedures followed by institutional managers of national standing relating to assets of the nature and character of the Assets, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement and/or the Indenture. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager shall follow its customary standards, policies and procedures in performing its duties under the Indenture and hereunder (including those duties of the Issuer under the Indenture which the Portfolio Manager has agreed hereunder to perform on the Issuer's behalf). The Portfolio Manager shall not be bound to follow any amendment to the Indenture, however, until it has received written notice thereof and until it has received a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee; provided that with respect to any amendment to the Indenture which would (i) increase the duties or liabilities of the Portfolio Manager or adversely change the economic consequences to the Portfolio Manager, (ii) modify the restrictions on the purchases or sales of Collateral Obligations under Article 12 of the Indenture or the Investment Criteria, (iii) expand or restrict the Portfolio Manager's discretion or (iv) modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of Subordinated Notes, except as set forth in Section 8.1(vi) of the Indenture, the Portfolio Manager shall not be bound thereby unless the Portfolio Manager shall have consented thereto in writing, such consent to not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Pursuant to the terms of the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Collateral Administrator is required to provide drafts of certain reports, schedules and calculations to the Portfolio Manager regarding the Collateral Obligations. The obligation of the Portfolio Manager to furnish such information is subject to the Portfolio Manager's timely receipt of necessary reports and the appropriate information from the Person responsible for the delivery of or preparation of such reports and such information (including without limitation, the Obligors of the Collateral Obligations, the Rating Agency, the Trustee and the Collateral Administrator) and to any confidentiality restrictions with respect thereto. The Portfolio Manager shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by a Person that the Portfolio Manager has no reason to believe is not duly authorized. The Portfolio Manager also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and made by a Person the Portfolio Manager has no reason to believe is not duly authorized, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. The Portfolio Manager is entitled to rely on any other information furnished to it by third parties that it reasonably believes in good faith to be genuine.

(e) At the direction of 66 2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Subordinated Notes, the Portfolio Manager may direct an Optional Redemption (including a Refinancing) under the Indenture on behalf of the Issuer.

(f) The Portfolio Manager may, in its sole discretion subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture and this Agreement, direct the Issuer and/or the Trustee to take the following actions with respect to a Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other Asset:

(i) retain such Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other Asset;

(ii) dispose of such Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other Asset in the open market or otherwise;

(iii) acquire, as security for the Secured Notes in substitution for or in addition to any one or more Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments included in the Assets, one or more additional Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments;

(iv) if applicable, tender such Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other Asset pursuant to an Offer;

(v) if applicable, consent to or refuse to consent to any proposed amendment, modification, restructuring, exchange or waiver pursuant to an Offer;

(vi) retain or dispose of any securities or other property (if other than cash) received pursuant to an Offer;

(vii) waive any default with respect to any Defaulted Obligation or other Asset;

(viii) vote to accelerate the maturity of any Defaulted Obligation or other Asset;

(ix) participate in a committee or group formed by creditors of an issuer or a borrower under a Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment, Equity Security or asset held by any ETB Subsidiary;

(x) negotiate, modify or amend any loan for the Issuer as authorized by the Indenture in accordance with a Refinancing;

(xi) exercise any other rights or remedies with respect to a Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other Asset as provided in the related Underlying Instruments or take any other action consistent with the terms of the Indenture; and

(xii) to make loans to ETB Subsidiaries.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, none of the services performed by the Portfolio Manager shall result in or be construed as resulting in an obligation to perform any of the following:

(i) the Portfolio Manager acting repeatedly or continuously as an intermediary in securities for the Issuer;

(ii) the Portfolio Manager providing investment banking services to the Issuer; or

(iii) the Portfolio Manager having direct contact with, or actively soliciting or finding, outside investors to (x) invest in the Issuer or (y) make co-investments in securities of portfolio companies with the Issuer.

(h) The Portfolio Manager hereby agrees to the following:

(i) The Portfolio Manager agrees not to institute against the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings or other proceedings under U.S. federal or state bankruptcy or similar laws, or the similar laws of the Cayman Islands or other applicable jurisdiction until the payment in full of all Notes issued under the Indenture and the expiration of a period equal to one year, or, if longer, the applicable preference period, and a day following such payment. Nothing in this Section 3(h)(i) shall preclude, or be deemed to stop, the Portfolio Manager (i) from taking any action prior to the expiration of the aforementioned period in (A) any case or Proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary or (B) any involuntary insolvency Proceeding filed or commenced by a Person other than the Portfolio Manager, or (ii) from commencing against the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, any ETB Subsidiary or any of their respective properties any legal action which is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceeding. The provisions of this Section 3(h)(i) shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager shall cause any purchase or sale of any Collateral Obligation to be conducted on arm's length terms or in the manner contemplated by Section 6, if applicable.

(iii) In providing services hereunder, the Portfolio Manager may employ third parties, including its Affiliates, to render advice (including investment advice), to provide services to arrange for trade execution and otherwise provide assistance to the Issuer, and to perform any of the Portfolio Manager's duties under this Agreement; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be relieved of any of its duties hereunder regardless of the performance of any services by third parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement, and any obligations or duties of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement, can be delegated by the Portfolio Manager, in whole or in part, to any entity that (i) is controlled by any of James Dondero, Mark Okada or Josh Terry and (ii) is one in which any of James Dondero, Mark Okada or Josh Terry is involved in the day-to-day management and operations (and in any such case pursuant to an instrument of delegation in form and substance satisfactory to the Issuer), with the prior written consent of the Issuer and, notwithstanding any such consent, no delegation of obligations or duties by the Portfolio Manager (including, without limitation, to an entity described above) shall relieve the Portfolio Manager from any of its duties or any liability under this Agreement.

(i) From and after the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the Portfolio Manager will continue to perform and be bound by the provisions of this Agreement and the Indenture. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Indenture, the Trustee will be entitled to rely and be protected in relying upon all actions and omissions to act of the Portfolio Manager thereafter as fully as if no Event of Default had occurred.

4. Brokerage.

(a) The Portfolio Manager will seek to obtain the best execution (but shall have no obligation to obtain the best prices and execution) for all orders placed with respect to the Assets, in a manner permitted by law and in a manner it believes to be in the best interests of the Issuer. Subject to the preceding sentence, the Portfolio Manager may, in the allocation of business, select brokers and/or dealers with whom to effect trades on behalf of the Issuer and may open cash trading accounts with such brokers and dealers (provided that none of the Assets may be credited to, held in or subject to the lien of the broker or dealer with respect to any such account). In addition, subject to the first sentence of this paragraph, the Portfolio Manager may, in the allocation of business, take into consideration research and other brokerage services furnished to the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates by brokers and dealers which are not Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager; provided that the Portfolio Manager in good faith believes that the compensation for such services rendered by such brokers and dealers complies with the requirements of Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("Section 28(e)"), or in the case of principal or fixed income transactions for which the "safe harbor" of Section 28(e) is not available, the amount of the spread charged is reasonable in relation to the value of the research and other brokerage services provided. Such services may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with its other advisory activities or investment operations. The Portfolio Manager may aggregate sales and purchase orders of securities placed with respect to the Assets with similar orders being made simultaneously for other accounts managed by the Portfolio Manager or with accounts of the Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager, if in the Portfolio Manager's reasonable business judgment such aggregation shall result in an overall economic benefit to the Issuer, taking into consideration the advantageous selling or purchase price, brokerage commission or other expenses, as well as the availability of such securities on any other basis. In accounting for such aggregated order price, commissions and other expenses may be apportioned on a weighted average basis. When a transaction with respect to the Assets occurs as part of any aggregate sales or purchase orders, the objective of the Portfolio Manager shall be to allocate the executions among the accounts in an equitable manner the Portfolio Manager believes, in its reasonable business judgment, to be appropriate and in accordance with (x) its internal conflicts of interest and allocation policies and (y) any applicable requirements of the Investment Advisers Act.

(b) The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that (i) the determination by the Portfolio Manager of any benefit to the Issuer will be subjective and will represent the Portfolio Manager's evaluation at the time that the Issuer will be benefited by relatively better purchase or sales prices, lower brokerage commissions, lower transaction costs and expenses and beneficial timing of transactions or any combination of any of these and/or other factors and (ii) the Portfolio Manager shall be fully protected with respect to any such determination to the extent the Portfolio Manager acts in accordance with Section 3(b).

(c) Subject to the Portfolio Manager's execution obligations described in Sections 4(a) and (d) and the covenants set forth in Section 6, the Portfolio Manager is hereby authorized to effect client cross-transactions where the Portfolio Manager causes a transaction with respect to the Assets to be effected between the Issuer and another account advised by it or any of its Affiliates; provided that, if and to the extent required by the Investment Advisers Act, such authorization is terminable prior to the initiation of such cross-transaction at the Issuer's option without penalty. Such termination shall be effective upon receipt by the Portfolio Manager of written notice from the Issuer. Subject to the Portfolio Manager's execution obligations described in Sections 4(a) and (d) and the covenants set forth in Section 6, the Portfolio Manager is hereby authorized to effect transactions, including principal transactions, where the Issuer may invest in securities of obligors or issuers in which the Portfolio Manager and/or its Affiliates have a debt, equity or participation interest, in each case in accordance with applicable law.

(d) The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates may acquire or sell obligations or securities, for its own account or for the accounts of its customers, without either requiring or precluding the acquisition or sale of such obligations or securities for the account of the Issuer. Such investments may be the same or different from those made on behalf of the Issuer. If, in light of market conditions and investment objectives, the Portfolio Manager determines that it would be advisable to purchase the same item of Collateral Obligation both for the Issuer, and either the proprietary account of the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager or another client of the Portfolio Manager, the Portfolio Manager shall allocate such investment opportunities across such entities for which such opportunities are appropriate, consistent with (i) its internal conflicts of interest and allocation policies and (ii) any applicable requirements of the Investment Advisers Act. The Issuer agrees that, in the course of managing the Collateral Obligations held by the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager may consider its relationships with other clients (including obligors and issuers) and its Affiliates. The Portfolio Manager may decline to make a particular investment for the Issuer in view of such relationships.

5. Additional Activities of the Portfolio Manager.

(a) Nothing herein shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Related Entities from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Issuer and its Affiliates (other than those services that would violate the Portfolio Manager's covenants under this Agreement), the Trustee, the Holders, the Initial Purchaser or any other Person to the extent permitted by applicable law, regardless of whether such business is in competition with the Issuer or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager, its Related Entities and the directors, officers, employees and agents of the Portfolio Manager and its Related Entities may, subject to any limits specified in the Indenture:

(i) serve as directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, partners, employees, agents, nominees or signatories, and receive arm's length fees in connection with such service, for the Issuer or its Affiliates, or for any obligor or issuer in respect of the Collateral Obligations, Equity Securities or Eligible Investments or any affiliate thereof, to the extent permitted by their Governing Instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Issuer, its Affiliates or any obligor or issuer in respect of any of the Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or Equity Securities (or any Affiliate thereof) pursuant to their respective Governing Instruments, and neither the Holders of the Notes nor the Issuer shall have the right to any such fees; provided that, in the reasonable business judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity will not have a material adverse effect on any item of the Assets;

(ii) receive fees or other compensation from third parties (including Persons in which the Issuer has made or proposes to make an investment) in connection with any business activities of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates and which are not related to the use of the Issuer's capital (which fees or other compensation shall be for the benefit of the Portfolio Manager's own account); provided that, in the reasonable business judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activities will not have a material adverse effect on any item of the Assets; and

(iii) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold an equity interest in, or own or hold notes issued by, the Issuer, its Affiliates or any obligor or issuer of any obligation included in the Assets, subject to the Portfolio Manager's obligations in Section 8 hereof.

As a result, such individuals may possess information relating to obligors and issuers of Collateral Obligations that is (a) not known to or (b) known but restricted as to its use by the individuals at the Portfolio Manager responsible for monitoring the Collateral Obligations and performing the other obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement. Each of such ownership and other relationships may result in securities laws restrictions on transactions in such securities by the Issuer and otherwise create conflicts of interest for the Issuer. The Issuer acknowledges and agrees that, in all such instances, the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may in their discretion make investment recommendations and decisions that may be the same as or different from those made with respect to the Issuer's investments and they have no duty, in making or managing such investments, to act in a way that is favorable to the Issuer.

The Issuer acknowledges that there are generally no ethical screens or information barriers among the Portfolio Manager and certain of its Affiliates of the type that many firms implement to separate Persons who make investment decisions from others who might possess material, non-public information that could influence such decisions. The officers or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager may possess information relating to obligors or issuers of Collateral Obligations that is not known to the individuals at the Portfolio Manager responsible for monitoring the Collateral Obligations and performing the other obligations under this Agreement. As a result, the Portfolio Manager may from time to time come into possession of material nonpublic information that limits the ability of the Portfolio Manager to effect a transaction for the Issuer, and the Issuer's investments may be constrained as a consequence of the Portfolio Manager's inability to use such information for advisory purposes or otherwise to effect transactions that otherwise may have been initiated on behalf of its clients, including the Issuer.

(b) It is understood that the Portfolio Manager and any of its Affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have investment policies similar to those followed by the Portfolio Manager with respect to the Assets and which may own securities or obligations of the same class, or which are of the same type, as the Collateral Obligations or the Eligible Investments or other securities or obligations of the obligors or issuers of the Collateral Obligations or the Eligible Investments. The Portfolio Manager will be free, in its sole discretion, to make recommendations to others or effect transactions on behalf of itself or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Assets. Nothing in the Indenture and this Agreement shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, acting either as principal or agent on behalf of others, from buying or selling, or from recommending to or directing any other account to buy or sell, at any time, securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same obligor or issuer, as those directed by the Portfolio Manager to be purchased or sold on behalf of the Issuer. It is understood that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or Related Entities, or any of their directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or affiliates or any member of their families or a Person or entity advised by the Portfolio Manager may have an interest in a particular transaction or in securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same obligor or issuer, as those whose purchase or sale the Portfolio Manager may direct hereunder.

(c) The Portfolio Manager shall not be obligated to pursue any particular investment strategy or opportunity with respect to the Assets.

(d) The Issuer acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may make and/or hold an investment in an obligor's or issuer's securities that may be pari passu, senior or junior in ranking to an investment in such obligor's or issuer's securities made and/or held by the Issuer or in which partners, security holders, members, officers, directors, agents or employees of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates serve on boards of directors or otherwise have ongoing relationships.

6. Conflicts of Interest.

(a) Subject to compliance with applicable laws and regulations and subject to this Agreement and the Indenture, the Portfolio Manager may direct the Trustee to acquire a Collateral Obligation from, or sell a Collateral Obligation, Equity Security, Eligible Investment or asset held by an ETB Subsidiary to, the Portfolio Manager, any of its Affiliates or any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates serve as investment advisor for fair market value. The Portfolio Manager may obtain the Issuer's written consent through the Independent Review Party as provided herein if any such transaction requires the consent of the Issuer under Section 206(3) of the Investment Advisers Act (any such transaction, an "Affiliate Transaction"). The Issuer hereby acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or accounts advised or sub-advised by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates or their respective advised accounts (collectively, the "Portfolio Manager Affiliates") will purchase on the Closing Date U.S.$32,000,000 of the Class A-1 Notes, U.S.$2,000,000 of the Class D Notes, U.S.$5,500,000 of the Class E Notes and U.S.$51,850,000 of the Subordinated Notes (the "Portfolio Manager Notes"). The Issuer further acknowledges and agrees that no Portfolio Manager Affiliate is under any obligation to retain any Portfolio Manager Notes, and may sell all or a portion of such Portfolio Manager Notes at any time. In addition, the Issuer acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager Affiliates may acquire and subsequently sell other Notes after the Closing Date. In certain circumstances, the interests of the Issuer and/or the Holders or beneficial owners of the Notes with respect to matters as to which the Portfolio Manager is advising the Issuer may conflict with the interests of the Portfolio Manager Affiliates or its Related Entities. The Issuer hereby acknowledges that various potential and actual conflicts of interest may exist with respect to the Portfolio Manager as described above and as described in the final offering circular relating to the Notes; provided that nothing in this Section 6 shall be construed as altering the duties of the Portfolio Manager referred to herein.

(b) At the written request of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall establish a conflicts review board or appoint an independent third party to act on behalf of the Issuer (such board or party, an "Independent Review Party") with respect to Affiliate Transactions. Decisions of any Independent Review Party shall be binding on the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer, and Holders of the Notes.

(c) Any Independent Review Party (i) shall either (A) be the Issuer's Board of Directors, (B) be an established financial institution or other financial company with experience in assessing the merits of transactions similar to the Affiliate Transactions or (C) be a review board comprised of one or more individuals selected by the Issuer (or at the request of the Issuer, selected by the Portfolio Manager), (ii) shall be required to assess the merits of the Affiliate Transaction and either grant or withhold consent to such transaction in its sole judgment and (iii) shall not be (A) affiliated with the Portfolio Manager (other than as a Holder or as a passive investor in the Issuer or an Affiliate of the Issuer) or (B) (other than the Issuer's Board of Directors) involved in the daily management and control of the Issuer.

(d) The Issuer (i) shall be responsible for any fees relating to the services provided by any Independent Review Party and shall reimburse members of any Independent Review Party for their out-of-pocket expenses and (ii) may indemnify members of such Independent Review Party to the maximum extent permitted by law, subject to terms and conditions satisfactory to the Portfolio Manager.

7. Records; Confidentiality.

The Portfolio Manager shall maintain or cause to be maintained appropriate books of account and records relating to its services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by representatives of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Holders, and the Independent accountants appointed by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer pursuant to Article 10 of the Indenture at any time during normal business hours and upon not less than three Business Days' prior notice. The Portfolio Manager shall keep confidential any and all information that is either (i) of a type that would ordinarily be considered proprietary or confidential or (ii) designated as confidential (collectively "Confidential Information") obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder and shall not disclose any such Confidential Information to non-affiliated third parties (excluding any Holders and beneficial owners of Notes to the extent required by the terms of the Indenture) except (a) with the prior written consent of the Issuer, (b) such Confidential Information as the Rating Agency shall reasonably request in connection with its rating of the Secured Notes or supplying credit estimates on any obligation included in the Assets, (c) in connection with establishing trading or investment accounts or otherwise in connection with effecting transactions with respect to the Assets on behalf of the Issuer, (d) as required by (i) applicable law, regulation, court order, or a request by a governmental regulatory agency with jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, (ii) the rules or regulations of any stock exchange or self-regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates or (iii) the Irish Stock Exchange, (e) to its professional advisors (including, without limitation, legal, tax and accounting advisors), (f) such Confidential Information as shall have been publicly available or disclosed other than in known violation of this Agreement or the provisions of the Indenture or shall have been obtained by the Portfolio Manager on a non-confidential basis, (g) such Confidential Information as is necessary or appropriate to disclose so that the Portfolio Manager may perform its duties hereunder, under the Indenture or the related documents or (h) general performance information which may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with their marketing activities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is agreed that the Portfolio Manager may disclose (a) that it is serving as portfolio manager of the Issuer, (b) the nature, aggregate principal amount and overall performance of the Issuer's assets, (c) the amount of earnings on the Assets, (d) such other Confidential Information about the Issuer, the Assets and the Notes as is customarily disclosed by managers of collateralized loan obligations and (e) each of its respective employees, representatives or other agents may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the United States federal income tax treatment and United States federal income tax structure of the transactions contemplated by the Indenture, this Agreement and the related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions and other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such United States federal income tax treatment and

United States income tax structure. For purposes of this Section 7, the Holders and beneficial owners of the Notes shall not be considered "non-affiliated third parties."

8. Obligations of Portfolio Manager.

In accordance with the performance standard set forth in Section 3(b), the Portfolio Manager shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that no action is taken by it, and shall not intentionally or with reckless disregard take any action, which would (a) materially and adversely affect the status of the Issuer for purposes of Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state law, or other law known to the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to the Issuer, (b) not be permitted by the Issuer's Governing Instruments, (c) violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer, including, without limitation, actions which would violate any Cayman Islands law, United States federal, state or other applicable securities law that is known by the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to it and, in each case, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer or have a material adverse effect on the ability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations hereunder or under the Indenture, (d) require registration of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the pool of Assets as an "investment company" under Section 8 of the Investment Company Act, (e) cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise cause the Issuer to be subject to U.S. federal or state income tax on a net basis; provided that it shall not be a violation of this clause (e) for the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis as a result of an action taken either (i) in compliance with the Trading Restrictions attached hereto as Schedule 1 or (ii) in reliance upon Tax Advice to the effect that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such action, the Issuer's contemplated action "will" not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis, so long as (in respect of either (i) or (ii)) (x) there has been no material change in U.S. federal income tax law or the interpretation thereof that is relevant to such action since the date of such Tax Advice or the date hereof, as applicable; and (y) the Portfolio Manager does not have actual knowledge that such action, when considered in the light of the other activities of the Issuer, would cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes; or (f) knowingly and willfully adversely affect the interests of the Holders in the Assets in any material respect (other than (i) as expressly permitted hereunder or under the Indenture or (ii) in connection with any action taken in the ordinary course of business of the Portfolio Manager in accordance with its fiduciary duties to its clients). In furtherance of the foregoing clause (e), the Portfolio Manager shall at all times comply with the Trading Restrictions set forth in Schedule 1, except with respect to actions taken in compliance with clause (e)(ii). If the Portfolio Manager is ordered by the Board of Directors of the Issuer or the requisite Holders or beneficial owners of Notes to take any action which would, or could reasonably be expected to, in each case in its reasonable business judgment, have any such consequences, the Portfolio Manager shall promptly notify the Issuer that such action would, or could reasonably be expected to, in each case in its reasonable business judgment, have one or more of the consequences set forth above and shall not take such action unless the Board of Directors of the Issuer then request the Portfolio Manager to do so and at least a Majority of both the Controlling Class and the Subordinated Notes (voting separately by Class) have consented thereto in writing. Notwithstanding any such request, the Portfolio Manager shall not take such action unless (1) arrangements satisfactory to it are made to insure or indemnify the Portfolio Manager, Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager and members, shareholders, partners, directors, managers, officers or employees of the Portfolio Manager or such Affiliates from any liability and expense it may incur as a result of such action and (2) if the Portfolio Manager so requests in respect of a question of law, the Issuer delivers to the Portfolio Manager an opinion of a nationally recognized law firm (from outside counsel satisfactory to the Portfolio Manager) that the action so requested does not violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer or over the Portfolio Manager. Neither the Portfolio Manager nor its Affiliates, shareholders, partners, directors, members, managers, officers or employees shall be liable to the Issuer or any other Person, except as provided in Section 11. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, any indemnification or insurance by the Issuer provided for in this Section 8 or Section 11 shall be payable out of the Assets in accordance with the Priority of Payments, and the Portfolio Manager may take into account such Priority of Payments in determining whether any proposed indemnity arrangements contemplated by this Section 8 are satisfactory.

9. Compensation.

(a) The Issuer shall pay to the Portfolio Manager, for services rendered under this Agreement, on each Payment Date, the Senior Management Fee, the Subordinated Management Fee and the Incentive Management Fee. Accrued and unpaid Management Fees shall be paid as set forth in Article 11 of the Indenture. To the extent any of the Subordinated Management Fee is not paid on any Payment Date, such payment will be deferred and will accrue interest at LIBOR (as determined for the applicable Interest Accrual Period with respect to the Secured Notes), compounded quarterly, as set forth in the Indenture.

(b) The Portfolio Manager may (but shall not be obligated to), at its election upon notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Collateral Administrator (the "Fee Election Notice"), reduce for a predetermined period of time, as specified in the Fee Election Notice, the amount which is due to it as Senior Management Fee, in which case the Subordinated Management Fee shall automatically be increased by the same amount (the "Fee Election"). Any Fee Election must be made on or before the Determination Date for the first Collection Period in respect of which the Fee Election will apply and shall not be revocable during the period of the Fee Election; except that, in the event that the Portfolio Manager is removed, resigns or assigns its rights to any Persons, as contemplated by Sections 13, 14 and 15 of this Agreement, the replacement Portfolio Manager shall be bound initially by the terms set forth under Section 9(a) and the Fee Election will not apply to such replacement Portfolio Manager.

(c) The Portfolio Manager shall pay (without reimbursement by the Issuer) its general overhead expenses, including (i) all costs and expenses on account of salaries, wages, bonuses and other employee benefits of the Portfolio Manager and (ii) all occupational expenses, including rent, taxes and utilities, of the Portfolio Manager. The Issuer shall pay or reimburse the Portfolio Manager (at closing in the case of clause (i) below) for its payment of any and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred on behalf of the Issuer, including, without limitation: (i) the costs and expenses of the Portfolio Manager incurred in connection with the negotiation and preparation of this Agreement and all other agreements and matters related to the issuance of the Notes; (ii) any transfer fees necessary to register any Collateral Obligation in accordance with the Indenture; (iii) any costs, fees and expenses in connection with the acquisition, management or disposition of Assets or otherwise in connection with the Notes or the Issuer (including (a) investment related travel, communications and related expenses, (b) loan processing fees, legal fees and expenses and other expenses of professionals retained by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer and (c) amounts in connection with the termination, cancellation or abandonment of a potential acquisition or disposition of any Assets that is not consummated); (iv) any and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the carrying or management of the Assets; (v) any and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Notes and other indebtedness of the Issuer; (vi) any and all attorneys', accountants', rating agencies', consultants', brokers' and other professionals' fees and disbursements relating to Issuer matters (including in house attorneys' and accountants' services provided by or on behalf of the Portfolio Manager to the Issuer as may be reasonably allocated to the Issuer); (vii) any and all taxes and governmental charges that may be incurred or payable by the Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary; (viii) any and all insurance premiums or expenses incurred in connection with the activities of the Issuer by the Portfolio Manager; (ix) any and all costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with the rating of the Notes or obtaining ratings or credit estimates on Collateral Obligations, and communications with the Rating Agency (including (a) any expenses related to compliance with Rule 17g-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and (b) any fees, expenses or other amounts payable to the Rating Agency); (x) any and all costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Portfolio Manager's communications with the Holders (including charges related to annual meetings) and costs and expenses for services to the Issuer in respect of the Assets relating to asset pricing and rating services and specialty database software licensing and development fees; (xi) any and all costs and expenses incurred by the Portfolio Manager in connection with the establishment of any ETB Subsidiary (provided that such costs and expenses are directly attributable to the establishment of such ETB Subsidiary), and (xii) any and all expenses incurred to comply with any law or regulation related to the activities of the Issuer, any ETB Subsidiary and the Portfolio Manager. Other than as stated above, the Issuer will bear, and will pay directly in accordance with the Indenture, all other costs and expenses incurred by it or on its behalf in connection with the organization, operation or liquidation of the Issuer.

(d) Upon the effectiveness of any termination of this Agreement or any removal or resignation of the Portfolio Manager hereunder, (i) all Management Fees accrued but not paid prior to the effective date of such termination, removal, resignation or assignment, as the case may be (the "Exit Date"), shall continue to be payable to the exiting Portfolio Manager on Payment Dates occurring after the Exit Date and (ii) (a) in the case of removal for cause pursuant to Section 15, the Incentive Management Fee, if any, will be due and payable on each Payment Date after such removal for cause to the former Portfolio Manager and the successor Portfolio Manager pro rata based on the duration of service as portfolio manager for the Issuer during the period from the Closing Date to (and including) such Payment Date and (b) in the case of termination, resignation or assignment, as the case may be, for any reason other than cause, the Incentive Management Fee that is due and payable will be payable to the former Portfolio Manager and the successor Portfolio Manager based upon the former Portfolio Manager's reasonable determination of each portfolio manager's proportional participation and engagement in providing services to the Issuer in connection with the management of the Issuer's portfolio and carrying out the duties and obligations set forth in the Portfolio Management Agreement.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer are limited recourse obligations payable solely from Assets granted to the Trustee pursuant to the Granting Clauses of the Indenture in accordance with the Priority of Payments and, following realization of the Assets and reduction thereof to zero, all obligations of the Issuer and any claims against the Issuer under this Agreement shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. No recourse shall be had for the payment of any amount owing in respect of this Agreement against any other asset of the Issuer or against any officer, director, employee, shareholder or incorporator of the Issuer. The provisions of this Section 9(e) shall survive termination of this Agreement.

10. Benefit of the Agreement.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that its obligations hereunder in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to it shall be enforceable by the Issuer and by the Trustee on behalf of the Holders, as provided in the Indenture. The Portfolio Manager agrees and consents to the provisions contained in Section 15.1 of the Indenture.

11. Limits of Portfolio Manager Responsibility.

(a) Subject to Section 8, the Portfolio Manager assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to it and affecting the duties and functions that have been delegated to it thereunder and hereunder in good faith and, subject to the standard of conduct described in the next succeeding sentence. The Portfolio Manager shall not be responsible for any action or inaction of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee in declining to follow any advice, recommendation or direction of the Portfolio Manager including as set forth in Section 8. Neither the Portfolio Manager nor any of its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, personnel, employees, agents or Affiliates will be liable to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Holders of the Notes, the Initial Purchaser or any other Person for any act, omission, error of judgment, mistake of law, or for any claim, loss, liability, damage, judgments, assessments, settlement, cost, or other expense (including attorneys' fees and expenses and court costs) arising out of any investment, or for any other act taken by or recommended by or omission arising out of or in connection with the performance by the Portfolio Manager, its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, personnel, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or Affiliates under this Agreement or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, incurred as a result of actions taken or recommended or for any omissions of the Portfolio Manager, or for any decrease in the value of the Collateral Obligations, except that the Portfolio Manager shall be liable (i) by reason of acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or reckless disregard in the performance of its obligations hereunder or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager or, (ii) with respect to the information concerning the Portfolio Manager included in the Offering Circular dated April 14, 2015 (the "Offering Circular") under the headings "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager" and the sub-headings thereunder, "Risk Factors— Risks Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest — The Issuer will be subject to various conflicts of interest involving the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates" and "The Portfolio Manager," as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any consequential, punitive, exemplary or treble damages or lost profits hereunder or under the Indenture. The Issuer (the Issuer in such case, the "Indemnifying Party") shall indemnify and hold harmless the Portfolio Manager, its directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, agents, personnel and employees and its Affiliates and their directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, agents, personnel and employees (each, an "Indemnified Party") from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (other than losses in the value of a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment incurred by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates in connection with a transaction in which it elects to acquire a Collateral Obligation or an Eligible Investment from the Issuer as principal) (collectively, "Liabilities"), and will promptly reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) as such fees and expenses (collectively, the "Expenses") are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the "Actions"), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with the Assets or business of the Issuer or any ETB Subsidiary or otherwise relating to the Indenture or this Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses (x) it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or reckless disregard in the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its obligations hereunder or the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, or (y) it incurs with respect to the information concerning the Portfolio Manager included in the Offering Circular under the headings "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager" and the sub-headings thereunder, "Risk Factors— Risks Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer will be subject to various conflicts of interest involving the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates" and "The Portfolio Manager," as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer under this Section 11 are limited recourse obligations of the Issuer payable solely out of the Assets in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The Indemnified Parties are not required to consult with, or obtain the consent of, the Issuer with respect to any settlement, negotiation or other act of the Indemnified Parties in connection with any Action.

(b) The Portfolio Manager shall indemnify and hold harmless (the Portfolio Manager in such case, the "Indemnifying Party") the Issuer (the Issuer in such case, the "Indemnified Party") from and against any and all expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising directly out of any information described in Section 11(a)(ii) above, as of the date of such information, to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any special, indirect, consequential, punitive, exemplary or treble damages or lost profits.

(c) The Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the Indemnifying Party if the Indemnified Party receives a complaint, claim, compulsory process or other notice of any losses or damages giving rise to a claim for indemnification under this Section 11, but failure so to notify the Indemnifying Party or to comply with paragraph (d) below shall not relieve such Indemnifying Party from its obligations under this Section 11 unless and to the extent that such Indemnifying Party did not otherwise learn of such action or proceeding and to the extent such failure results in the forfeiture by the Indemnifying Party of material rights and defenses.

(d) With respect to any claim made or threatened against an Indemnified Party, or compulsory process or request served upon such Indemnified Party for which such Indemnified Party is or may be entitled to indemnification under this Section 11, such Indemnified Party shall:

(i) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, provide the Indemnifying Party such information and cooperation with respect to such claim as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require, including, but not limited to, making appropriate personnel available to the Indemnifying Party at such reasonable times as the Indemnifying Party may request;

(ii) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, cooperate and take all such steps as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request to preserve and protect any defense to such claim;

(iii) in the event suit is brought with respect to such claim, upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, which the

Indemnifying Party may exercise in its sole discretion and at its expense, (A) to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement of such claim, and, (B) to the extent that it shall wish, to assume the defense thereof, with counsel satisfactory to such Indemnified Party (who shall not, except with the consent of the Indemnified Party, be counsel to the Indemnifying Party), and, after notice from the Indemnifying Party to such Indemnified Party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to such Indemnified Party under such subsection for any legal fees and expenses of other counsel or any other expenses, in each case subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Party, in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation, except that, if such Indemnified Party reasonably determines that counsel selected by the Indemnifying Party has a conflict of interest, such Indemnifying Party shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of one additional counsel selected by the Indemnified Party (in addition to any local counsel) separate from its own counsel for all Indemnified Parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances; and

(iv) neither incur any material expense to defend against nor make any admission with respect thereto, nor permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof, in each case without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party; provided that the Indemnifying Party shall have advised such Indemnified Party that such Indemnified Party is entitled to be indemnified hereunder with respect to such claim.

(e) No Indemnified Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, settle or compromise any claim giving rise to a claim for indemnity hereunder, or permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof; provided that if the Indemnified Party is the Portfolio Manager or an Affiliate or a Related Entity of the Portfolio Manager or of an Affiliate thereof, such Indemnified Party shall not be required to seek or obtain such consent if it determines in good faith that the Indemnifying Party is unlikely to have sufficient funds available to indemnify it in full, taking into account the Priority of Payments.

(f) No Indemnifying Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, settle or compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect to any claim giving rise to a claim for indemnity hereunder if such settlement includes a statement as to or an admission of fault, culpability or a failure to act by or on behalf of any Indemnified Party.

(g) If the indemnification provided for in this Section 11 is unavailable to an Indemnified Party in respect of any claims or liabilities referred to herein, then the Indemnifying Party, in lieu of indemnifying such Indemnified Party hereunder, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnified Party as a result of such claims or liabilities in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by, and the relative fault of, the Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and the Indemnified Parties, on the other hand, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations.

(h) The required indemnification provided by this Section 11 shall be in addition to any rights to which an Indemnified Party may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law, and shall extend to each of its or his or her heirs, successors and assigns. The provisions of this Section 11 shall continue to afford protection to each Indemnified Party regardless of whether such Indemnified Party remains in the position or capacity pursuant to which such Indemnified Party became entitled to indemnification under this Section 11.

(i) United States federal securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith and nothing herein shall constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Issuer or any Holder of Notes may have under any applicable federal securities laws.

(j) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Portfolio Manager's obligations hereunder will be solely the obligations of the Portfolio Manager, and the Issuer will not have any recourse to any Manager Related Party other than the Portfolio Manager, with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby.

(k) The Portfolio Manager shall not be liable for any act or omission of the custodian, any sub-custodian, prime broker or other Person appointed by the Issuer. Any compensation to any such Person for its services to the Issuer shall be the obligation of the Issuer and not the Portfolio Manager.

(l) The Portfolio Manager shall not be responsible for any liability resulting from any failure by the Portfolio Manager to fulfill its duties under this Agreement if such liability or failure shall be caused by or directly or indirectly due to a Force Majeure Event, provided that the Portfolio Manager shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the effect of the same. As used herein, the term "Force Majeure Event" means such an operation of the forces of nature as reasonable foresight and ability could not foresee or reasonably provide against including but not limited to, acts of god, flood, war (whether declared or undeclared), terrorism, fire, strikes or work stoppages for any reason, embargo, government action, including any laws, ordinances, regulations or the like which restrict or prohibit the providing of the services contemplated by this Agreement, inability to obtain material, equipment, or communications or computer facilities, or the failure of equipment or interruption of communications or computer facilities, and other causes beyond a party's control whether or not of the same class or kind as specifically named above.

(m) The Portfolio Manager shall be entitled to conclusively rely in good faith, and shall be fully protected in relying, upon any writing, resolution, notice, consent, certificate, affidavit, letter, cablegram, telegram, facsimile, email, telex or teletype message, statement (which may be made orally or by telephone), order or other document or communication reasonably believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by a Person that the Portfolio Manager has no reason to believe is not duly authorized and upon the advice and statements of independent accountants.

(n) The Portfolio Manager may consult with outside legal counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters as to questions of law pertaining to the performance of its duties hereunder and the advice or opinion of such counsel on any such question shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with the advice or opinion of such counsel; provided that the Portfolio Manager may take actions not permitted by the Trading Restrictions only in compliance with Section 8.

12. No Partnership or Joint Venture.

The Issuer and the Portfolio Manager are not partners or joint venturers with each other and nothing herein shall be construed to make them such partners or joint venturers or impose any liability as such on either of them. The Portfolio Manager's relation to the Issuer shall be deemed to be that of an independent contractor.

13. Term; Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall commence as of the date first set forth above and shall continue in force and effect until the first of the following occurs: (i) the payment in full of the Notes and the termination of the Indenture in accordance with its terms; (ii) the liquidation of the Assets and the final distribution of the proceeds of such liquidation to the Holders; or (iii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with subsections (b) of this Section 13 or Section 15 of this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary but subject to the provisions of clause (e) below, this Agreement may be terminated without cause by the Portfolio Manager, and the Portfolio Manager may resign, upon 90 days' (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer) written notice to the Issuer; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to resign immediately upon the effectiveness of any material change in applicable law or regulations which renders the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or under the Indenture to be a violation of such law or regulation.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (b) above, no resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager or termination of this Agreement pursuant to such clause shall be effective until the date as of which a successor Portfolio Manager shall have been appointed and approved in accordance with Section 13(e) and has accepted all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement in writing and has assumed such duties and obligations.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 13, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other, except as provided in Section 3(h)(i), Sections 9(d) and (e) and Sections 11 and 16 of this Agreement.

(e) Any termination, removal or resignation of the Portfolio Manager while any Notes are Outstanding will be effective only upon (a) the appointment by the Issuer, at the direction of at least a Majority of the Subordinated Notes, with the consent of at least a Majority of the Controlling Class, of a successor Portfolio Manager that is an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties reasonably comparable to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager hereunder, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as successor to the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, (iii) satisfies the S&P Rating Condition, (iv) shall not cause the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or the pool of collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act and (v) shall not result in the imposition of any entity-level or withholding tax on the Issuer or the payments to the Holders or cause any other material adverse tax consequences to the Issuer and (b) written acceptance of appointment by such successor Portfolio Manager. The Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager to assume the duties and obligations of the removed or resigning Portfolio Manager. The Issuer, the Trustee and the successor Portfolio Manager shall take such action (or cause the outgoing Portfolio Manager to take such action) consistent with this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, as shall be necessary to effectuate any such succession. In the event that the successor manager has not been appointed or has not assumed the duties of the Portfolio Manager in writing within a 60-day period, any of the Portfolio Manager, a Majority of the Controlling Class or a Majority of the Subordinated Notes may petition a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Portfolio Manager, which appointment will not require the consent of, or be subject to the approval or disapproval of, the Issuer or any Holder (so long as such court appointed successor meets the requirements of clauses (a)(i) through (v) above).

(f) In the event of removal of the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement by the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, by the Trustee, the Issuer shall have all of the rights and remedies available with respect thereto at law or equity, and, without limiting the foregoing, the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, the Trustee may by notice in writing to the Portfolio Manager as provided under this Agreement terminate all the rights and obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement (except those that survive termination pursuant to Section 13(d) above). Upon resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager in accordance with this Section 13 or Section 15 of this Agreement, as applicable, and upon acceptance by a successor Portfolio Manager of appointment, all authority and power of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement and the Indenture, whether with respect to the Assets or otherwise, shall automatically and without further action by any Person pass to and be vested in the successor Portfolio Manager.

(g) For so long as Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate of Acis Capital Management, L.P. is the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer will be permitted to use the "Acis" name; provided that, if the Portfolio Manager ceases to be Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate of Acis Capital Management, L.P., the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to change its name to remove all reference to the name "Acis" therefrom. In addition, the Portfolio Manager, without the consent of the Issuer, may change the name of the Portfolio Manager.

14. Delegation; Assignments.

(a) Except as provided herein, the Portfolio Manager may not assign its rights or responsibilities hereunder without the written consent of the Issuer, at least a Majority of the Subordinated Notes (provided that failure to object within 45 days of written notice of assignment will constitute consent) and at least a Majority of the Controlling Class and satisfaction of the S&P Rating Condition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager may, (i) with the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class and without satisfaction of the S&P Rating Condition or the consent of any other Class, assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder to an Affiliate; provided that such Affiliate (A) has demonstrated ability, whether as an entity or by its personnel, to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement, (B) has the legal right and capacity to act as Portfolio Manager hereunder and (C) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, or (ii) enter into (or have its parent enter into) any consolidation or amalgamation with, or merger with or into, or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets to, another entity and, (A) at the time of such consolidation, merger, amalgamation or transfer the resulting, surviving or transferee entity assumes all the obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder generally and the other entity is solely a continuation of the Portfolio Manager in another corporate or similar form and has substantially the same staff and (B) such action does not cause the Issuer to be subject to tax in any jurisdiction outside of its jurisdiction of incorporation; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall deliver prior notice to the Rating Agency of any assignment, delegation or combination made pursuant to this sentence.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing to the extent that applicable law requires the consent of the Issuer to any "assignment" (as defined in the Investment Advisers Act) of this Agreement to any Person, in whole or in part, by the Portfolio Manager, such requirement may be satisfied with respect to the Issuer and all holders (i) by obtaining consent to such assignment on behalf of the Issuer from any of the following persons as determined by the Portfolio Manager: (A) one or more directors of the Issuer independent from the Portfolio Manager, (B) the Independent Review Party, or (C) an advisory committee established by the Portfolio Manager; or (ii) in any other manner that is permitted pursuant to the applicable law. Any assignment consented to by the Issuer and such Holders shall bind the assignee hereunder in the same manner as the Portfolio Manager is bound. In addition, the assignee shall execute and deliver to the Issuer and the Trustee a counterpart of this Agreement naming such assignee as Portfolio Manager. Upon the execution and delivery of such a counterpart by the assignee, the Portfolio

Manager shall be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement, except with respect to its obligations arising under Section 11 of this Agreement prior to such assignment and except with respect to its obligations under Section 3(h)(i) and Section 16 hereof.

(c) This Agreement shall not be assigned by the Issuer without the prior written consent of the Portfolio Manager, and unless the S&P Rating Condition has been satisfied in connection with such assignment, except in the case of assignment by the Issuer to (i) an entity which is a successor to the Issuer permitted under the Indenture, in which case such successor organization shall be bound hereunder and by the terms of said assignment in the same manner as the Issuer is bound thereunder or (ii) the Trustee as contemplated by the Granting Clause of the Indenture. In the event of any assignment by the Issuer, the Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its successor to execute and deliver to the Portfolio Manager such documents as the Portfolio Manager shall consider reasonably necessary to effect fully such assignment.

15. Termination by the Issuer for Cause.

This Agreement may be terminated, and the Portfolio Manager may be removed for cause by at least a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes upon 30 days' prior written notice to the Portfolio Manager. For purposes of determining whether the holders of the required percentage of relevant principal amount of the Notes have given notice of removal of the Portfolio Manager for cause, Notes owned or controlled by the Portfolio Manager or any affiliate thereof or an account or fund managed on a discretionary basis by the Portfolio Manager or its affiliates will be disregarded and deemed to be not outstanding. No such termination or removal shall be effective until the date as of which a successor Portfolio Manager shall have agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and as specified in the Indenture. For purposes of determining "cause" with respect to any such termination of this Agreement or removal of the Portfolio Manager, such term includes any one of the following events:

(a) the Portfolio Manager willfully violates, or takes any action that it knows breaches, any material provision of this Agreement or the Indenture applicable to it in bad faith (not including a willful and intentional breach that results from a good faith dispute regarding reasonable alternative courses of action or interpretation of instructions);

(b) the Portfolio Manager breaches in any respect any provision of this Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it (other than as covered by clause (a) and it being understood that failure to meet any Coverage Test, any Concentration Limitation, Interest Reinvestment Test or the Collateral Quality Test is not such a violation) (except for any such violations or breaches that have not had, or could not, either individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on the Issuer) and fails to cure such breach within 30 days of a Responsible Officer receiving notice of such breach, unless, if such breach is remediable, the Portfolio Manager has taken action that the Portfolio Manager believes in good faith will remedy such breach, and such action does remedy such breach, within 60 days after a Responsible Officer receives notice thereof;

(c) the Portfolio Manager is wound up or dissolved or there is appointed over it or a substantial portion of its assets a receiver, administrator, administrative receiver, trustee or similar officer; or the Portfolio Manager (i) ceases to be able to, or admits in writing its inability to, pay its debts as they become due and payable, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of, or enters into any composition or arrangement with, its creditors generally; (ii) applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, assignee, custodian, liquidator or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Portfolio Manager or of any substantial part of its properties or assets, or authorizes such an application or consent, or proceedings seeking such appointment are commenced without such authorization, consent or application against the Portfolio Manager and continue undismissed for 60 days; (iii) authorizes or files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, or applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the application of any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, insolvency or dissolution, or authorizes such application or consent, or proceedings to such end are instituted against the Portfolio Manager without such authorization, application or consent and are approved as properly instituted and remain undismissed for 60 days or result in adjudication of bankruptcy or insolvency; or (iv) permits or suffers all or any substantial part of its properties or assets to be sequestered or attached by court order and the order remains undismissed for 60 days;

(d) the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Indenture that consists of a default in the payment of principal or interest on the Secured Notes when due and payable and results primarily from any material breach by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or under the Indenture, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period;

(e) the occurrence of an act by the Portfolio Manager that constitutes fraud or criminal activity in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement (as determined pursuant to a final adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction), or the Portfolio Manager being indicted for a criminal offense materially related to its business of providing asset management services;

(f) any senior executive officer of the Portfolio Manager (in the performance of his or her investment management duties) is convicted for a criminal offense materially related to the business of the Portfolio Manager providing asset management services and continues to have responsibility for the performance by the Portfolio Manager hereunder for a period of 10 days after such conviction; or

(g) the inability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its duties hereunder in accordance with the standard of care specified herein due to the termination of the Service Agreements, unless the Portfolio Manager believes in good faith that it will be able to either (i) secure reasonably equivalent substitute services to those that were performed for the Portfolio Manager under the Service Agreements or (ii) perform its duties hereunder in accordance with the applicable standard of care without engaging a third-party service provider, in each case, within 30 days, and the Portfolio Manager is in fact able to secure such services or perform such duties within such 30-day period.

If any of the events specified in the definition of "cause" in this Section 15 shall occur, the Portfolio Manager shall give prompt written notice thereof to the Issuer, the Rating Agency, each Holder of Notes and the Trustee upon the Portfolio Manager's becoming aware of the occurrence of such event. A Majority of the Controlling Class may waive any event described in (a), (b), (d), (e), (f) or (g) above as a basis for termination of this Agreement and removal of the Portfolio Manager under this Section 15.

16. Action Upon Termination.

(a) From and after the effective date of the termination of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement or resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager hereunder, the Portfolio Manager shall not be entitled to compensation for further services hereunder, but shall be paid all compensation accrued to the date of termination, as provided in Section 9 hereof (including any accrued and unpaid Subordinated Management Fee), and shall be entitled to receive any amounts owing under Section 11 hereof. Upon such termination, resignation or removal, the Portfolio Manager shall as soon as practicable:

(i) deliver to the Issuer all property and documents of the Trustee or the Issuer or otherwise relating to the Assets then in the custody of the Portfolio Manager; and

(ii) deliver to the Trustee an accounting with respect to the books and records delivered to the Trustee or the successor Portfolio Manager appointed pursuant to Section 13(e) hereof.

Notwithstanding such termination, resignation or removal, the Portfolio Manager shall remain liable to the extent set forth herein (but subject to Section 11 hereof) for its liabilities hereunder arising prior to termination and for any expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in respect of or arising out of a breach of the representations and warranties made by the Portfolio Manager in Section 17(b) hereof or from any failure of the Portfolio Manager to comply with the provisions of this Section 16.

(b) The Portfolio Manager agrees that, notwithstanding any termination, it shall reasonably cooperate in any Proceeding arising in connection with this Agreement, the Indenture or any of the Assets (excluding any such Proceeding in which claims are asserted against the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager) upon receipt of appropriate indemnification and expense reimbursement.

17. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants to the Portfolio Manager as follows:

(i) The Issuer has been duly incorporated and is validly existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands, has the full corporate power and authority to own its assets and the securities proposed to be owned by it and included in the Assets and to transact the business in which it is presently engaged and is duly qualified under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Indenture, the Collateral Administration Agreement or the Notes (collectively, the "Issuer Documents") would require, such qualification, except for failures to be so qualified, authorized or licensed that would not in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer.

(ii) The Issuer has the necessary corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform each of the Issuer Documents and all obligations required thereunder, and has taken all necessary action to authorize each of the Issuer Documents on the terms and conditions hereof and thereof and the execution, delivery and performance of each of the Issuer Documents and the performance of all obligations imposed upon it hereunder and thereunder. No consent of any other Person including, without limitation, shareholders and creditors of the Issuer, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority, other than those that may be required under state securities or "blue sky" laws and those that have been or shall be obtained in connection with the Indenture and the issuance of the Notes, is required by the Issuer in connection with the Issuer Documents or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of the Issuer Documents or the obligations imposed upon it hereunder or thereunder. This Agreement constitutes, and each instrument or document required hereunder, when executed and delivered hereunder, shall constitute, the legally valid and binding obligation of the Issuer enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with its terms, subject, as to enforcement, to (a) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights, as such laws would apply in the event of any bankruptcy, receivership, insolvency or similar event applicable to the Issuer and (b) general equitable principles (whether enforceability of such principles is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity).

(iii) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement and the documents and instruments required hereunder and thereunder do not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Issuer, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Issuer, or the Governing Instruments of, or any securities issued by, the Issuer or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Issuer is a party or by which the Issuer or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer, and do not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking (other than the lien of the Indenture).

(iv) The Issuer is not required to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act.

(v) The Issuer is not in violation of its Governing Instruments or in breach or violation of or in default under the Indenture or any other contract or agreement to which it is a party or by which it or any of its assets may be bound, or any applicable statute or any rule, regulation or order (including, without limitation, any anti-money laundering statute or related rule, regulation or order) of any court, government agency or body having jurisdiction over the Issuer or its properties, the breach or violation of which or default under which would have a material adverse effect on the validity or enforceability of this Agreement or the performance by the Issuer of its duties hereunder or under the Collateral Administration Agreement.

(vi) True and complete copies of the Indenture and the Issuer's Governing Instruments have been delivered to the Portfolio Manager.

(vii) The Issuer is a "qualified client" as such term is defined under the Investment Advisers Act.

(viii) The Issuer understands that the rules and regulations administered by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") prohibit, among other things, the engagement in transactions with, and the provision of services to, certain countries, territories, entities and individuals. The lists of OFAC prohibited countries, territories, persons and entities can be found on the OFAC website at <http://www.treas.gov/ofac>. In addition, the programs administered by OFAC ("OFAC Programs") prohibit dealing with individuals or entities in certain countries regardless of whether such individuals or entities appear on the OFAC lists. To the best of its knowledge, none of: (1) the Issuer; (2) any person controlling or controlled by the Issuer; (3) any person having a beneficial interest in the Issuer; or (4) any person for whom the Issuer is acting as agent or nominee in connection with this investment is a country, territory, individual or entity named on an OFAC list, or is a person or entity prohibited under the OFAC Programs.

(ix) The Issuer has received and had an opportunity to review a current copy of Part 2 of the Form ADV of Acis Capital Management, L.P., at least forty-eight hours prior to its entering into this Agreement.

The Issuer agrees to deliver a true and complete copy of each amendment to the documents referred to in Section 17(a)(v) above to the Portfolio Manager as promptly as practicable after its adoption or execution.

(b) The Portfolio Manager hereby represents and warrants to the Issuer as follows:

(i) The Portfolio Manager is a limited partnership duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has full power and authority to own its assets and to transact the business in which it is currently engaged and is duly qualified and in good standing under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of this Agreement or the Collateral Administration Agreement (together with this Agreement, the "Manager Documents") would require such qualification, except for those jurisdictions in which the failure to be so qualified, authorized or licensed would not have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or on the ability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations under, or on the validity or enforceability of, the Manager Documents and the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager; the Portfolio Manager is registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform each of the Manager Documents and all obligations required hereunder and under the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, and has taken all necessary action to authorize each of the Manager Documents on the terms and conditions hereof and thereof and the execution, delivery and performance of each of the Manager Documents and all obligations required hereunder and thereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager. No consent of any other Person, including, without limitation, creditors of the Portfolio Manager, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority is required by the Portfolio Manager in connection with the Manager Documents or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of the Manager Documents or the obligations required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager. Each of the Manager Documents has been, and each instrument and document required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall be, executed and delivered by a duly authorized officer of the Portfolio Manager, and each of the Manager Documents constitutes, and each instrument and document required hereunder and thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture when executed and delivered by the Portfolio Manager hereunder or thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall constitute, the valid and legally binding obligations of the Portfolio Manager enforceable against the Portfolio Manager in accordance with their terms, subject to (a) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights and (b) general equitable principles.

(iii) The execution, delivery and performance of the Manager Documents and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager and the documents and instruments required hereunder or thereunder or under the terms of the Indenture shall not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Portfolio Manager, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Portfolio Manager, or the Governing Instruments of, or any securities issued by the Portfolio Manager or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Portfolio Manager is a party or by which the Portfolio Manager or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or its ability to perform its obligations under the Manager Documents, and shall not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking, the existence of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or its ability to perform its obligations under the Manager Documents.

(iv) There is no charge, investigation, action, suit or proceeding before or by any court pending or, to the best knowledge of the Portfolio Manager, threatened that, if determined adversely to the Portfolio Manager, would have a material adverse effect upon the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under, or on the validity or enforceability of, the Manager Documents and the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager hereunder.

(v) The Portfolio Manager is authorized to carry on its business in the United States and in all other jurisdictions necessary to the performance of its obligations under the Manager Documents and the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager.

(vi) The Portfolio Manager is not in violation of its Governing Instruments or in breach or violation of or in default under any contract or agreement to which it is a party or by which it or any of its property may be bound, or any applicable statute or any rule, regulation or order of any court, government agency or body having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager or its properties, the breach or violation of which or default under which would have a material adverse effect on the validity or enforceability of the Manager Documents or the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, or the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties hereunder or thereunder.

(vii) The information concerning the Portfolio Manager contained under the headings entitled "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Portfolio Manager," "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest —The Issuer will be subject to various conflicts of interest involving the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates" and "The Portfolio Manager," in the Offering Circular, as of the respective dates of the Offering Circular and as of the Closing Date, is true in all material respects and does not omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

19. Binding Nature of Agreement; Successors and Assigns.

Subject to Section 14 hereof, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and permitted assigns as provided herein.

20. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, inducements and conditions, express or implied, oral or written, of any nature whatsoever with respect to the subject matter hereof. The express terms hereof control and supersede any course of performance and/or usage of the trade inconsistent with any of the terms hereof.

21. Amendment.

This Agreement may not be modified or amended other than by an agreement in writing executed by the parties hereto and (other than in respect of a modification or amendment of the type that may be made to the Indenture without Holder consent) (i) the consent of a Majority of the Subordinated Notes, (ii) the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class and (iii) notice to the Rating Agency. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto, without the consent of any Holders, may amend or modify any provision of this agreement to (i) reflect a change that is of an inconsequential nature, (ii) correct inconsistencies, typographical or other errors, defects or ambiguities, (iii) conform this Agreement to the Offering Circular or the Indenture (as it may be amended from time to time) or (iv) reflect a change that is necessary or desirable to satisfy any requirements, conditions or guidelines contained in any opinion, directive, order, ruling or regulation (including ERISA, the Code, the Investment Advisers Act and the Investment Company Act) of any U.S. federal or state agency or contained in any U.S. federal or state statute. In addition, Schedule 1 may be amended or modified by the parties hereto without the consent of any Holder in accordance with Tax Advice.

22. Conflict with the Indenture.

In the event that this Agreement requires any action to be taken with respect to any matter and the Indenture requires that a different action be taken with respect to such matter, and such actions are mutually exclusive, the provisions of the Indenture (as in effect on the date hereof or as amended or supplemented, with the consent of the Portfolio Manager if such consent is required by Section 3(b)) in respect thereof shall control.

23. Priority of Payments.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that the payment of all amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to this Agreement shall be subordinated to the extent set forth in, and the Portfolio Manager agrees to be bound by the provisions of, Article 11 and Section 15.1 of the Indenture as if the Portfolio Manager were a party to the Indenture and each of the Portfolio Manager and Issuer hereby consents to the assignment of this Agreement as provided in Section 15.1 of the Indenture.

24. Governing Law; Jury Trial.

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICTS OF LAWS PROVISIONS THEREOF). EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT HAS RECEIVED FULL AND SUFFICIENT CONSIDERATION FOR THIS PROVISION AND THAT THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR SUCH PARTIES ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

25. Indulgences Not Waivers.

Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of any party hereto to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise of the same or of any other right, remedy, power or privilege, nor shall any waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any occurrence be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any other occurrence. No waiver shall be effective unless it is in writing and is signed by the party asserted to have granted such waiver.

26. Titles Not to Affect Interpretation.

The titles of Sections and subsections of this Agreement are for convenience only, and they neither form a part of this Agreement nor are they to be used in the construction or interpretation hereof.

27. Execution in Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

28. Provisions Separable.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, in case any provision in this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable as written, such provision shall be construed in the manner most closely resembling the apparent intent of the parties with respect to such provision so as to be valid, legal and enforceable; provided that, if there is no basis for such a construction, to the fullest extent permitted by law, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability and, unless the ineffectiveness of such provision destroys the basis of the bargain for one of the parties to this Agreement, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof or thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

29. Number and Gender.

Words used herein, regardless of the number and gender specifically used, shall be deemed and construed to include any other number, singular or plural, and any other gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, as the context requires.

30. Jurisdiction and Venue.

The parties to this Agreement irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the Notes or the Indenture, and the parties irrevocably agree that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York state or federal court. The parties to this Agreement irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent they may legally do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding. The parties to this Agreement irrevocably consent to the service of any and all process in any action or proceeding by the mailing or delivery of copies of such process to it in accordance with Section 18. The parties agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

31. Third Party Beneficiaries.

Other than as provided below, no party, including any Holder of Notes, is a third party beneficiary of this Agreement. The parties hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Trustee will be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement.

32. Miscellaneous.

(a) With respect to any Defaulted Obligation, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may instruct the agent or the trustee for such Defaulted Obligation to enforce the Issuer's rights under the Underlying Instruments governing such Defaulted Obligation and under any applicable law, rule or regulation in any manner permitted under the Indenture that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable business judgment will be in the best interests of the Issuer. In the event any Offer is made with respect to any Collateral Obligation or Equity Security, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may take such action as is permitted by the Indenture and that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable business judgment will be in the best interests of the Issuer.

(b) Without prejudice to Section 15(f) hereof, any corporation, partnership or limited liability company into which the Portfolio Manager may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Portfolio Manager shall be a party, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company succeeding to all or substantially all of the collateral management business of the Portfolio Manager, shall be the successor to the Portfolio Manager without any further action by the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Holders or any other Person or entity; provided that the Portfolio Manager shall give prompt written notice to the Rating Agency upon any such occurrence.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein or in the Indenture to the contrary, with respect to any report, information, communication, request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver to be given to the Rating Agency by the Issuer, the Issuer shall instead provide such information to the Portfolio Manager, and the Portfolio Manager shall then provide such information as well as any information related to the transaction requested by the Rating Agency directly from the Portfolio Manager to the Rating Agency via the website established on behalf of the Issuer for purposes of Rule 17g-5 under the Exchange Act.

(d) If the Issuer shall receive any written or oral communication from the Rating Agency (or any of its respective officers, directors or employees) with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby or in any way relating to the Notes, the Issuer agrees to refrain from communicating with the Rating Agency and to promptly (and, in any event, within one Business Day) notify the Portfolio Manager of such communication. The Issuer agrees to coordinate with the Portfolio Manager with respect to any communication to the Rating Agency and further agrees that in no event shall it engage in any oral or written communication with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby or in any way relating to the Notes with the Rating Agency (or any of its respective officers, directors or employees) without the participation of the Portfolio Manager.

33. Power of Attorney.

The Issuer hereby makes, constitutes and appoints each of Josh Terry, Hunter Covitz and Philip Braner, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact (each an "Attorney" and together the "Attorneys"), jointly and severally with full power and authority in its name, place and stead, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Indenture (a) to prepare, sign and deliver tax documentation, transfer documentation and all other documentation in connection with the acquisition and sale by the Issuer of Collateral Obligations and (b) to (i) vote in its discretion any securities, instruments or obligations included in the Assets, (ii) execute proxies, waivers, consents and other instruments with respect to such Collateral Obligations, (iii) endorse, transfer or deliver such securities, instruments and obligations, (iv) participate in or consent (or decline to consent) to any modification, work-out, restructuring, bankruptcy proceeding, class action, plan of reorganization, merger, combination, consolidation, liquidation or similar plan or transaction with regard to such Collateral Obligations and (v) take any other action specified in Section 3 of this Agreement. This grant of power of attorney will expire (a), with respect to each Attorney (and to each substitute appointed by such Attorney), when such Attorney ceases to be an officer or employee of Acis Capital Management, L.P. or an Affiliate thereof, acting on behalf of Acis Capital Management, L.P. or (b) upon (x) termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms or (y) any assignment by the Portfolio Manager of its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with Section 14 hereof.

SCHEDULE 1

TRADING RESTRICTIONS

The Issuer (and the Portfolio Manager and the Independent Investment Professional acting on behalf of the Issuer) and any other person acting on behalf or at the direction of the Issuer, and any Affiliate of the Issuer, will comply with all of the provisions set forth in this Schedule 1 (the "Trading Restrictions") unless, with respect to a particular transaction, the Portfolio Manager shall have received Tax Advice in compliance with Section 8 of this Agreement. For purposes of these Trading Restrictions, a "Collateral Obligation" shall include any "Assets" as defined in the Indenture.

The Issuer shall acquire, hold, lend and dispose of Collateral Obligations only for its own account, and shall acquire and hold its Collateral Obligations solely for investment with the expectation and intention of realizing a profit from income earned on the Collateral Obligations and/or any increase in their value during the interval of time between acquisition and disposition thereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Trading Restrictions, the Issuer shall not (each of the following, a "Prohibited Activity"):

(i) act as, or engage in any activities customarily undertaken by, an agent, arranger, or structuring agent with respect to, or negotiate the terms of, any Collateral Obligation or otherwise; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, after the date on which the Issuer has acquired a Collateral Obligation, the Issuer may exercise any voting or other rights available to a holder of a Collateral Obligation under the terms of the Collateral Obligation, and may accept or reject any amendment or modification of the terms of that Collateral Obligation if (w) the amendment or modification is proposed by the obligor under that Collateral Obligation and does not require or provide for any advance of additional funds, the Collateral Obligation is not an Affiliate Collateral Obligation (as defined below), neither the Issuer nor the Portfolio Manager, nor any Affiliate of either, has participated directly or indirectly in the negotiation of the amendment or modification, and the Issuer is not the largest holder of the Collateral Obligation, or (x) the modification would not constitute a Significant Modification (for purposes of this clause, "Significant Modification" means any amendment, supplement or modification that involves (1) a change in interest rate or yield of the Collateral Obligation, (2) a change in the stated maturity or the timing of any material payment on the Collateral Obligation (including deferral of an interest payment), (3) a change in the obligor of the Collateral Obligation or (4) a change in the collateral or security for the Collateral Obligation, including the addition or deletion of a co-obligor or guarantor, all within the meaning of United States Department of the Treasury regulation section 1.1001-3), or (y) in the reasonable judgment of the Portfolio Manager, the obligor is in financial distress, the obligor was not in financial distress on the date on which the Issuer acquired such Collateral Obligation and such change in terms is desirable to protect the Issuer's investment, or (z) the Issuer has received Tax Advice that the Issuer's involvement in such amendment, supplement or modification of the terms of that

Collateral Obligation will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

(ii) act as, hold itself out as, represent to others that it is, or engage in any activities customarily undertaken by, a dealer, middleman, market maker, retailer or wholesaler in any Collateral Obligations, reference obligations or hedging or derivative instruments, or hold as inventory for purposes of resale to customers, any Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer;

(iii) perform services, or hold itself out as willing to perform services, for any person, or have or seek customers;

(iv) register as a broker-dealer under the laws of any country or political subdivision thereof, or register as, or become subject to regulatory supervision or other legal requirements under the laws of any country or political subdivision thereof as, a bank, insurance company, loan originator, finance company or other institution engaged in a similar loan origination or insurance business;

(v) take any action causing it to be treated as a bank, insurance company, loan originator, finance company or other institution engaged in a similar loan origination or insurance business for purposes of any tax, securities law or other filing or submission made to any governmental authority, any application made to a rating agency, or qualification for any exemption from tax, securities law or any other legal requirements;

(vi) hold itself out to the public as a bank, insurance company, loan originator, finance company or other institution engaged in a similar loan origination or insurance business, or hold itself out to the public, through advertising or otherwise, as originating loans or making a market in loans or other assets;

(vii) establish a branch, agency or other place of business within the United States; provided, that entering into this Agreement and the appointment of the Portfolio Manager as described herein shall not be construed as a violation of this clause (vii);

(viii) make any tax election which would cause it to be subject to United States federal, state or local income or franchise tax;

(ix) buy any security in order to earn a dealer spread or dealer mark-up over its cost; or

(x) buy any security with an expectation or intention of restructuring or entering into a workout of such security.

For purposes of this Schedule 1, "dealer" means: (a) a merchant of securities with an established place of business who in the ordinary course of business is engaged as a merchant in purchasing securities and selling them to customers with a view to the gains and profits that may be derived therefrom, and (b) a person that regularly offers to enter into, assume, offset, assign or otherwise terminate positions in derivatives with customers in the ordinary course of a trade or business, including regularly holding itself out, in the ordinary course of its trade or business, as being willing and able to enter into either side of a derivative transaction.

Requirements With Respect to Collateral Obligations.

The Issuer may acquire Collateral Obligations only by assignment or participation, and may not execute any credit agreement whereby Collateral Obligations are issued. The Issuer shall not acquire any Collateral Obligation, or enter into any understanding, arrangement, forward sale agreement or commitment with any person to acquire any Collateral Obligation (a "Commitment"), in each case (i) prior to 48 hours after the completion of the issuance and funding of such Collateral Obligation, other than as otherwise permitted under "Forward Purchase Commitments" below, or (ii) if the Issuer would own more than 50 percent of the loan, obligation, issue, class or tranche that includes the Collateral Obligation or, if the loan, obligation, issue, class or tranche that includes that Collateral Obligation is part of a larger credit facility, more than 25 percent of that entire credit facility. In the case of any Collateral Obligation that is amended or modified in a manner that constitutes a Significant Modification after issuance and funding of such Collateral Obligation and before acquisition by the Issuer of such Collateral Obligation, any seasoning requirement set forth herein shall be computed and applied with respect to the date of such Significant Modification.

The Issuer shall not have any contractual relationship with the borrower or issuer with respect to a Collateral Obligation until the Issuer actually closes the acquisition of that Collateral Obligation. On the funding date of the Collateral Obligation, the documents relating to the Collateral Obligation shall not list the Issuer as a lender or otherwise as a party to any document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation. The Issuer shall not be a signatory on any lending agreement or any other document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation.

The Issuer shall not have any communications or negotiations with the borrower or issuer of any Collateral Obligation (directly or indirectly through the seller of such Collateral Obligation, the agent, negotiator, originator or structuror thereof, or any other person) prior to the completion of the issuance and funding thereof, in connection with the issuance or funding of such Collateral Obligation or commitments with respect thereto, or the Issuer's acquisition of such Collateral Obligation or the Issuer's Commitment with respect thereto, in each case, except as otherwise permitted under "Forward Purchase Commitments" below. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager or the Independent Investment Professional acting on its behalf, may, however, undertake customary due diligence communications with an issuer or obligor of any Collateral Obligation that would be reasonably necessary in order for an investor or trader to make a reasonably informed decision to acquire any such Collateral Obligation for its own account, and (ii) nothing contained herein shall prohibit expressions of interest or providing comments as to mistakes or inconsistencies in documents relating to any Collateral Obligation by the Issuer, or by the Portfolio Manager or the Independent Investment Professional acting on its behalf.

The Issuer shall not be entitled to earn or receive from any person any premium, fee, commission or other compensation for services, whether or not denominated as received for services, in connection with acquiring or disposing of a Collateral Obligation, or entering into a commitment to acquire or dispose of a Collateral Obligation, including without limitation, in each case, any amount that is attributable or otherwise determined by reference to the amount of any origination, underwriting or similar profit or related or similar fees for services earned by an underwriter, placement agent, lender, arranger, agent or other similar person in connection with the issuance or funding of a Collateral Obligation. In furtherance and not in limitation of the immediately preceding sentence, the Issuer shall not be entitled to earn or receive directly from any person any separately stated premium, fee or commission that is compensation for services or that is based upon or otherwise determined by reference to the amount of any such services. For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing prohibition against earning or receiving fees and similar amounts shall not apply to (i) any compensation paid other than for a Prohibited Activity pursuant to the terms of any Collateral Obligation (e.g., a prepayment fee or commitment fee), (ii) any amendment or waiver fee, or (iii) any discount in the price paid by the Issuer for a Collateral Obligation from the price paid by the seller of the Collateral Obligation where such discount is attributable to the time value of money, credit quality of the related borrower, market conditions, or terms and conditions of the Collateral Obligation.

Additional Requirements With Respect to Affiliate Collateral Obligations and Transfers to Affiliates.

Except as provided below, the Portfolio Manager shall not cause the Issuer to purchase any Collateral Obligation of any borrower or issuer with respect to which the Issuer, Portfolio Manager or any of their Affiliates:

(i) acted as an underwriter, financial advisory, placement or other agent, arranger, negotiator or structuror in connection with the issuance or origination of such Collateral Obligation,

(ii) was an agent, negotiator, structuring agent, bridge loan provider (where a bridge loan is repaid by any Collateral Obligation) or member of the original lending syndicate with respect to such Collateral Obligation, or

(iii) earned or received any compensation relating to the origination of such Collateral Obligation (each such Collateral Obligation, an "Affiliate Collateral Obligation").

The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer shall be permitted to cause the Issuer to purchase Affiliate Collateral Obligations, provided that the following conditions are met:

(I) at least 30 days shall have passed since the issuance and funding of such Affiliate Collateral Obligation and the holder of the Collateral Obligation did not identify the obligation or security as intended for sale to the Issuer within 30 days of its issuance;

(II) following such 30-day period, the Independent Investment Professional shall have approved the purchase by the Issuer of such Affiliate Collateral Obligation after a review of the terms and conditions thereof and a determination that such transaction shall be effected on an arm's length basis and that the purchase price represents fair market value (x) by reference to dealer quotes or the price paid by an unrelated secondary buyer in a material contemporaneous sale on substantially the same terms, or (y) to the extent there is no independent sale or the price paid in such sale is not readily ascertainable, by reference to the fair market value price at which an unrelated independent secondary market acquirer would acquire such Affiliate Collateral Obligation in an arm's length transaction;

(III) the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliate, as the case may be, originated the Collateral Obligation in the ordinary course of its business and not in contemplation of its acquisition by the Issuer; and

(IV) the Issuer may not purchase any Affiliate Collateral Obligation having a greater principal amount than the principal amount of such Affiliate Collateral Obligation held following such purchase by the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates (excluding the Issuer).

In addition, the Portfolio Manager shall not cause the Issuer to sell or assign any Collateral Obligation to the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates in a transaction in which the Portfolio Manager is acting as principal for its own account or has discretionary authority to invest for the account of such Affiliate, unless such sale or assignment is consented to by the Independent Investment Professional, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed so long as such sale or assignment is effected at the fair market value price that an unrelated independent secondary market acquirer would acquire such Collateral Obligation in an arm's length transaction. It is understood and agreed that the consent requirement of the immediately preceding sentence shall not apply to any sale or assignment of any Collateral Obligation by the Issuer to any Person whose equity is at least majority owned by the Issuer (e.g., a special purpose financing subsidiary).

Maintenance of Separate and Independent Status.

At the written request of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall establish a conflicts review board or appoint an independent third party to act on behalf of the Issuer (such board or party, an "Independent Investment Professional") with respect to transactions involving any Affiliate Collateral Obligation. Any Independent Investment Professional (i) shall either (A) be an established financial institution or other financial company with experience in assessing the merits of transactions similar to the transactions involving any Affiliate Collateral Obligation or (B) be a review board comprised of one or more individuals selected by the Issuer (or at the request of the Issuer, selected by the Portfolio Manager), (ii) shall be required to assess the merits of the transaction involving any Affiliate Collateral Obligation and either grant or withhold consent to such transaction in its sole judgment and (iii) shall not be (A) affiliated with the Portfolio Manager (other than as a holder or as a passive investor in the Issuer or an Affiliate of the Issuer) or (B) involved in the daily management and control of the Issuer.

Neither the Independent Investment Professional nor any of the employees or personnel performing duties of the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer relating to the purchase of Affiliate Collateral Obligations shall be directly or indirectly involved in any origination or underwriting activities with respect to any Collateral Obligation, or have access to any files, records, or other information that is not available to independent unrelated secondary market acquirers concerning the origination or underwriting of any such Collateral Obligation. In addition, neither the Independent Investment Professional nor any of the employees or personnel performing duties of the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer relating to the purchase of Affiliate Collateral Obligations shall be a party to any discussions or meetings relating to origination or underwriting activities with respect to any Affiliate Collateral Obligation. No employee or personnel of the Portfolio Manager who is involved in any origination or underwriting activities with respect to any Affiliate Collateral Obligation shall have any direct or indirect influence over the decision making process of the Issuer or the Independent Investment Professional with respect to the acquisition or disposition of any Affiliate Collateral Obligation on behalf of the Issuer, but no such employee or personnel shall be prohibited from making recommendations to the Independent Investment Professional. However, in all cases the decision whether to invest in an Affiliate Collateral Obligation or to sell a Collateral Obligation to the Portfolio Manager or one of its Affiliates shall be an independent decision by the Independent Investment Professional.

Revolving Collateral Obligations, Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligations and Letter of Credit Facilities.

Neither the Issuer nor the Portfolio Manager acting on the Issuer's behalf shall acquire an interest (including by means of participation) in a Revolving Collateral Obligation or a Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or a letter of credit facility unless:

(i) such interest is acquired in the secondary market, the acquisition of such interest will not cause the Issuer to hold more than 25 percent of such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation or letter of credit facility, and taken together with the aggregate principal amount of other such interests held by the Issuer does not exceed 15% of the aggregate principal amount of all Collateral Obligations held by the Issuer;

(ii) with respect to any Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation:

(a) neither the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager acting on behalf of the Issuer, nor the Independent Investment Professional acting on behalf of the Issuer has participated in the negotiation of the terms of such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation;

(b) the terms of such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation are fixed as of the date of the Issuer's acquisition thereof and do not provide the Issuer any discretion as to whether to make advances under such Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation;

(c) more than a de minimis amount of such Collateral Obligation has been funded, or such loan is associated with a term loan to such borrower which has been fully funded; and

(d) the Issuer does not acquire any interest in a Revolving Collateral Obligation or Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation which is not associated with a term loan prior to 60 days after the issuance thereof, and all such interests combined shall not exceed 10% of the aggregate principal amount of all assets held by the Issuer; and

(iii) with respect to any letter of credit facility:

(a) (I) such letter of credit facility has been fully funded by the original lender, and such lender has completed all of its obligations with respect to that letter of credit facility (such that the letter of credit facility does not constitute to any extent a Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation), at least 48 hours before the Issuer committed to acquire such letter of credit facility; and

(II) the lead or agent lender or bank or other withholding agent with respect to such letter of credit will deduct and withhold all applicable withholding taxes on all payments made to the Issuer with respect to such letter of credit facility that are subject to withholding tax imposed by the United States; or

(b) (I) such letter of credit facility is associated with a term loan to such borrower which has been fully funded;

(II) all terms of such letter of credit facility were fully negotiated and final no later than the time at which the terms of the related loan were fully negotiated and final;

(III) the Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager acting on behalf of the Issuer, holds the same proportionate interest in such letter of credit facility as the proportionate interest it holds in the term loan(s) associated with such letter of credit facility; and

(IV) the lead or agent lender or bank or other withholding agent with respect to such letter of credit will deduct and withhold all applicable withholding taxes on all payments made to the Issuer with respect to such letter of credit facility that are subject to withholding tax imposed by the United States.

Forward Purchase Commitments.

The Issuer shall not have nor make any Commitment to acquire a Collateral Obligation from a seller before completion of the closing, full funding and seasoning (except, with respect to funding, in the case of a Revolving Collateral Obligation or a Delayed Drawdown Collateral Obligation) of the Collateral Obligation, except as permitted in the following provisions.

If a Commitment is made to acquire a Collateral Obligation, other than an Affiliate Collateral Obligation, from a seller before completion of the closing and full funding of the Collateral Obligation by such seller (the "Original Lender"), such commitment shall only be made pursuant to a forward sale agreement at an agreed price (a "Forward Purchase Commitment"). Any Forward Purchase Commitment with any Original Lender in respect of a Collateral Obligation may only be made after such Original Lender has delivered its own commitment to acquire its own interest in that Collateral Obligation and after all material terms of the Collateral Obligation have been agreed to.

In the process of making or negotiating to make a Forward Purchase Commitment, the Issuer shall not negotiate with respect to any term of the Collateral Obligation to which the Forward Purchase Commitment relates. The Issuer is not prevented from negotiating the terms of the Forward Purchase Commitment, including the price at which the Issuer shall acquire the Collateral Obligation to which the Forward Purchase Commitment relates.

If the Issuer enters into a Forward Purchase Commitment to acquire a Collateral Obligation, the Issuer's obligation under the Forward Purchase Commitment shall be conditioned on there being, as of the time the Issuer is to acquire the Collateral Obligation, no material adverse change in the condition of the borrower or issuer, the Collateral Obligation or the financial markets, and in all other respects, the Forward Purchase Commitment may only be conditional to the extent the related counterparty's own commitment in the origination process and funding of the Collateral Obligation is delayed, reduced or eliminated; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, a Forward Purchase Commitment shall not be required to be conditioned on the absence of a material adverse change if (y) the Issuer enters into the Forward Purchase Commitment no sooner than 48 hours after the Original Lender has delivered its own commitment with respect to the related Collateral Obligation and after all material terms of the Collateral Obligation have been agreed to, and (z) the Issuer's Commitment is documented in a form for secondary market purchases that is substantially similar to that used for commitments given by all other persons who will acquire an interest in the Collateral Obligation from the Original Lender (including as to the absence of a material adverse change condition). In the event of any delayed, reduced or eliminated funding, the Issuer shall not receive any premium, fee, or other compensation in connection with having entered into the Forward Purchase Commitment, other than commitment fees or fees in the nature of commitment fees that are customarily paid in connection with such delays, reductions or eliminations of funding of Collateral Obligations of the type permitted to be purchased by the Issuer.

The Issuer shall not have any contractual relationship with the borrower or issuer with respect to a Collateral Obligation that will be subject to a Forward Purchase Commitment until the Issuer actually closes the acquisition of that Collateral Obligation. On the funding date of the Collateral Obligation, the documents relating to the Collateral Obligation shall not list the Issuer as a lender or otherwise as a party to any document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation. The Issuer shall not be a signatory on any lending agreement or any other document relating to the issuance of the Collateral Obligation.

The Issuer shall not enter into any Forward Purchase Commitment in respect of any Affiliate Collateral Obligation. The Issuer, or Portfolio Manager or the Independent Investment Professional acting on its behalf, may, however, undertake customary due diligence communications with an issuer or obligor of an Affiliate Collateral Obligation or any other Collateral Obligation that would be reasonably necessary in order for an investor or trader to make a reasonably informed decision to acquire any such Collateral Obligation for its own account.

For the avoidance of doubt, except as provided above with respect to Forward Purchase Commitments, the Issuer may enter into a Commitment with respect to a Collateral Obligation only when the Collateral Obligation is funded and at least 48 hours have thereafter elapsed.

Equity Restrictions.

The Issuer shall not acquire (whether as part of a "unit" with a Collateral Obligation, in exchange for a Collateral Obligation, or otherwise) any asset that is treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as:

(i) an equity interest in a partnership, a trust or a disregarded entity (unless all of the assets of such trust or disregarded entity would otherwise qualify either as Collateral Obligations hereunder or as equity interests in entities taxable as corporations for U.S. federal income tax purposes that are not ineligible to be acquired by the Issuer under clause (iv) below);

(ii) a residual interest in a "REMIC" (as such term is defined in the Code);

(iii) an ownership interest in a "FASIT" (as such term is defined in the Code); or

(iv) any asset that constitutes a "United States real property interest" ("USRPI"), including certain interests in a "United States real property holding corporation" ("USRPHC") (as such terms are defined in the Code), except that, if otherwise permitted under the Indenture, the Issuer may acquire and/or hold an interest in a USRPHC under circumstances where the USRPHC may not be liquidated, and stock of the USRPHC may not be sold, unless prior to such liquidation or sale all USRPI held by the USRPHC have been sold and all U.S. federal income taxes payable by the USRPHC have been paid, and the Issuer reasonably believes, at the time of the acquisition of the interest in the USRPHC, that the USRPHC will be liquidated or the stock of the USRPHC will be sold (in each case, in accordance with the restrictions in this clause (iv)) prior to the liquidation of the Issuer.

Synthetic Securities.

The Issuer shall not acquire or enter into any swap transaction or security, which swap transaction or security provides for payments associated with either (i) payments of interest and/or principal on a reference obligation or (ii) the credit performance of a reference obligation.

THIS AGREEMENT FOR PURCHASE AND SALE OF CLO PARTICIPATION INTERESTS (this "Agreement"), dated as of the 7th day of October, 2016, is entered into by and between ACIS CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the "Seller"), and HIGHLAND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the "Purchaser").

RECITALS

Whereas, the Seller is the owner of certain rights to receive senior and subordinated management fees (the "Servicer Fees"), as described in Schedule A, attributable to the collateralized loan obligation issuances also listed in Schedule A (the "CLOs");

Whereas, all of the reinvestment periods of the CLOs will have expired by August 2019;

Whereas, the Seller operates an investment management business focused on sponsoring and managing collateralized loan obligations ("CLO Investments");

Whereas, Seller has recently engaged an investment bank to actively market a new CLO to prospective investors and Seller currently is uncertain as to the likelihood of success and timing of securing new investors;

Whereas, recent European and U.S. regulatory rules require sponsors of newly issued CLO investments, such as Seller, to retain during the life of the CLO, a five percent ownership interest in the equity or capital structure of the CLO (the "Risk Retention Amount");

Whereas, in order to fund the Risk Retention Amount, Seller has undertaken a joint venture with another entity to originate and sponsor new CLO investments, pursuant to which Seller is obligated to contribute fifty-one percent of the Risk Retention Amount;

Whereas, Seller has typically paid overhead expenses first with its revenue, then made an annual distribution of excess cash to the partners of Seller;

Whereas, Seller has determined to stop making annual distributions of excess cash to Seller's partners while efforts are underway to form new CLOs;

Whereas, cash flows from the Servicer Fees are unpredictable and unstable;

Whereas, Seller has determined that obtaining a guaranteed fixed amount of cash flow from Buyer is a prudent business decision in order to facilitate Seller's compliance with its obligation to contribute funds toward the Risk Retention Amount to the joint venture entity;

Whereas, the Purchaser acknowledges it is a sophisticated investor and, in particular, has a knowledge and understanding of CLO Investments;

Whereas, the Purchaser acknowledges that it understands the inherent risk in the timing and amount of the payment of the Servicer Fees by the trustees of the respective CLOs; and

Whereas, the Purchaser acknowledges that it has undertaken all the necessary due diligence to feel comfortable in determining the inherent risks of purchasing such Servicer Fees from the Seller.

AGREEMENT

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises and mutual agreements set forth herein, and in consideration of the mutual representations, warranties and covenants contained herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties agree as follows:

1. Sale and Purchase of Acis Participation Interests.

Subject to and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Seller hereby sells to the Purchaser, and the Purchaser hereby purchases from the Seller, participation interests in the Servicer Fees (the "ACIS Participation Interests") in an amount equal to (A) the total Servicer Fees paid to Seller by each of the CLOs beginning in November 2016 and ending August 2019 (each, with respect to both a particular CLO payor and a particular payment date, a "Servicer Fee Payment," and in the aggregate for a particular payment date the "Aggregate Servicer Fee Payment") less (B) the Servicer Fee Retention Amount with respect to each CLO, as shown on Schedule A.

Purchase Price; Additional Documents; Termination.

1.1 In consideration of the sale of the Acis Participation Interests to the Purchaser, the Purchaser shall (a) pay to the Seller an amount equal to $666,655.00 in cash (the "Cash Purchase Price"), and (b) deliver to the Seller a promissory note (the "Note"), duly executed by the Purchaser and substantially in the form of Exhibit 1, with an initial principal balance of $12,666,446.00 (the Cash Purchase Price and the delivery of such Note, collectively, the "Purchase Price").

1.2 The Purchaser shall pay the Cash Purchase Price to the Seller by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated in writing by the Seller.

1.3 The parties acknowledge and agree that the Purchase Price reflects the arm's-length value of the Acis Participation Interests as of the date of this Agreement as determined by mutually agreed appraisal methods.

1.4 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, to the extent that the sale and purchase of the Acis Participation Interests hereunder shall require the consent or approval of another party or any governmental authority, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall not constitute an assignment or an attempted assignment with respect to the Servicer Fees if such assignment or attempted assignment would constitute a breach or violation with respect to the terms of the governing CLO agreements (the "CLO Documents"). Each of the parties hereto shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any such consent or approval. If such consent or approval is not obtained, each party agrees to cooperate with the other party in any reasonable manner necessary or desirable to provide the Purchaser the benefits of the Acis Participation Interests.

1.5 In the event that any governmental entity commences a formal regulatory proceeding against Seller and within 90 days thereof (or later, but solely in the event of removal of Seller by order of such governmental entity), Seller is terminated or otherwise removed as manager of one or more of the CLOs and such governmental action results in the seizure or forfeiture of Servicer Fees, then the outstanding principal of the Note shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction in Servicer Fees resulting from such termination or seizure.

2. Representations and Warranties of the Seller.

The Seller represents and warrants to the Purchaser that each of the following representations and warranties is true and correct as of the date of this Agreement:

2.1 Organization and Authority of the Seller. The Seller is a limited partnership, duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and any other agreements entered into in connection herewith and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder.

2.2 Title to the Acis Participation Interests. The Seller owns good and valid title to, and is the sole record and beneficial owner of, the Servicer Fees, free and clear of any and all mortgages, liens, pledges, charges, adverse rights or claims, security interests, restrictions on use and/or transfer or encumbrances of any kind (collectively, "Liens"), except as provided herein and in the CLO Documents and agreements governing the CLOs. Other than as provided in the CLO Documents, the Acis Participation Interests are not subject to any rights of first refusal or other rights to purchase such Acis Participation Interests.

2.3 Due Authorization and Enforceability. All action on the part of the Seller necessary for the authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement and any other agreements entered into in connection herewith and the performance by the Seller of its obligations hereunder and thereunder has been taken. This Agreement and any other agreements entered into in connection herewith constitute the valid and legally binding obligations of the Seller, enforceable in accordance with their terms, except as may be limited by (a) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and (b) the effect of rules of law governing the availability of equitable remedies.

2.4 Consents. Except as may be required under the CLO Documents, no consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, qualification, designation, declaration or filing with, any federal, state or local governmental authority or any third party is required by the Seller in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other agreements entered into in connection herewith.

2.5 Non-Contravention. Other than with respect to any consents required under the CLO Documents, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and any other agreements entered into in connection herewith and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby will not result in (a) a violation or default, or be in conflict with or constitute a default, under the Seller's organizational documents, or any agreement or contract that the Seller is party to or that its assets are bound by, (b) a violation of any statute, law, regulation or order; provided, however, that with respect to any statute, law, regulation or order applicable to any of the CLO Documents the foregoing is limited to the knowledge of the Seller, or (c) the creation of any Lien upon any asset of, or the loss of any right or asset by, the Seller that would not reasonably be expected to cause a material adverse effect on the Seller.

3. Representations and Warranties of the Purchaser.

The Purchaser represents and warrants to the Seller that each of the following representations and warranties is true and correct as of the date of this Agreement:

3.1 Organization and Authority of the Purchaser. The Purchaser is a limited liability company, duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and any other agreements entered into in connection herewith and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder.

3.2 Due Authorization and Enforceability. All action on the part of the Purchaser necessary for the authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement and any other agreements entered into in connection herewith and the performance by the Purchaser of its obligations hereunder and thereunder has been taken. This Agreement and any other agreements entered into in connection herewith constitute the valid and legally binding obligations of the Purchaser, enforceable in accordance with their terms, except as may be limited by (a) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and (b) the effect of rules of law governing the availability of equitable remedies.

3.3 Consents. No consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, qualification, designation, declaration or filing with, any federal, state or local governmental authority or any third party is required by the Purchaser in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other agreements entered into in connection herewith.

3.4 Non-Contravention. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and any other agreements entered into in connection herewith and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby will not result in (a) a violation or default, or be in conflict with or constitute a default, under the Purchaser's organizational documents, or any agreement or contract that the Purchaser is party to or that its assets are bound by, (b) a violation of any statute, law, regulation or order, or (c) the creation of any Lien upon any asset of, or the loss of any right or asset by the Purchaser.

3.5 Information Concerning the Acis Participation Interests. The Purchaser (a) has received and had the opportunity to review information with respect to the Seller, the Acis Participation Interests, the CLOs, and the CLO Documents, (b) is familiar with the Seller, the CLOs and the CLO Documents, and (c) has been afforded the opportunity to ask questions of and received satisfactory answers concerning the Seller, the CLOs and the CLO Documents and has asked any questions the Purchaser desires to ask and all such questions have been answered to the full satisfaction of the Purchaser. The Purchaser understands that the purchase and/or receipt of the Acis Participation Interests involves various risks and that the Purchaser may lose some or all of its investment due to economic conditions that could negatively impact the CLOs and/or the Seller and/or for other unforeseen reasons. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that no representations or warranties have been made to the Purchaser by the Seller, or any person acting on the Seller's behalf, as to the tax consequences of this investment, or as to profits, losses or cash flow that may be received or sustained as a result of this investment. All documents, records and books pertaining to a proposed investment in and/or receipt of the Acis Participation Interests which the Purchaser has requested have been made available to the Purchaser.

3.6 Acknowledgments of the Purchaser. Subject to Section 1.5, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that: (a) except as provided in Section 1.5, should the Seller's rights with respect to the Servicer Fees be terminated, such termination shall not affect the Purchaser's obligations under the Note; (b) except as provided in Section 1.5, the Seller may exercise all of its legal rights and remedies to enforce the Purchaser's obligations under the Note even if the Acis Participation Interests are not paid, in full or part, by the CLO trustees for any reason, including the termination of the Seller as the manager, a hostile buyout of such CLO, or any other reason (other than as a result of the Seller breaching its covenants under this Agreement or as a result of fraud or by willful misconduct of the Seller); and (c) Purchaser has had the opportunity to consult with its own legal counsel with respect to the purchase of the Acis Participation Interests. The Purchaser understands such actions could negatively impact the timing and amount of payment of such Acis Participation Interests during the pendency of such dispute by the trustee of such CLO. The Purchaser bears the sole risk with respect to non-payment of the Acis Participation Interests (other than as a result of the Seller breaching its covenants under this Agreement or as a result of the fraud or willful misconduct of the Seller).

3.7 No additional Representations. The Purchaser has relied solely upon its investigation and analysis and the representations and warranties of the Seller set forth in this Agreement and the Purchaser acknowledges that, other than as set forth in this Agreement, the Seller does not make any other representation or warranty, either express or implied.

4. Covenants.

4.1 Payments on the Acis Participation Interests. The Seller agrees to promptly remit, or cause to be promptly remitted, to the Purchaser the cash received with respect to the Acis Participation Interests. If the Seller is required at any time to return to any person, any portion of the payments made to the Seller pursuant to the Servicer Fees, then the Purchaser shall, on demand of the Seller, forthwith return to the Seller any such payments transferred to the Purchaser by the Seller but without interest or penalty on such payments.

4.2 Actions With Respect to Servicer Fees. Notwithstanding anything else contained in this Agreement, the Seller shall not, without the Purchaser's written consent, and other than as required by the CLO Documents, take or omit to take any action which would (a) postpone any date fixed for any payment under the CLO Documents of the Servicer Fees; (b) amend the CLO Documents so as to materially and adversely affect the payment of the Servicer Fees; or (c) release any material claim of the Seller under the CLO Documents that relates to the Servicer Fees.

4.3 Reporting. Seller shall provide Purchaser a detailed certification of any Servicer Fees received from the CLOs within forty-five (45) business days of the date such Servicer Fees are received by the Seller.

5. Miscellaneous.

5.1 Successors and Assigns. The terms and conditions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the respective successors and assigns of the parties; provided, however, that no party hereto may assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto.

5.2 Terms Confidential. The parties agree that they will keep the terms, amounts and facts of this Agreement completely confidential, and that they will not hereafter disclose any information concerning this Agreement to anyone except their respective attorneys or accountants. Notwithstanding the foregoing prohibition, the parties shall not be prohibited from disclosing the terms, amounts and facts of this Agreement or this Agreement itself as may be requested by governmental entities or required by law.

Such dispute or controversy shall be resolved pursuant to the rules of the AAA with the findings and any award by such arbitrator being final and binding upon all parties. Interest on the indebtedness evidenced by this Note shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days and the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day) unless such calculation would result in a rate that exceeds the maximum rate allowed by applicable law (such rate, the "Maximum Rate") in which case interest shall be calculated on the basis of a year of 365 or 366 days, as the case may be. If the regularly scheduled due date for any payment under this Note is not a Business Day, the due date for such payment shall be the next succeeding Business Day, and payment made on such succeeding Business Day shall have the same force and effect as if made on the regularly scheduled due date. "Business Day" means a day, other than a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, on which a bank in Dallas, Texas is open for business.

Maker shall have the right to prepay this Note, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time without premium or penalty. Amounts borrowed and repaid hereunder may not be reborrowed.

Conditions Precedent

This Note shall not become effective and Payee shall have no obligation to make the advance hereunder until Payee has received each of the following in form and substance acceptable to Payee:

(a) this Note executed by Maker;

(b) the Agreement for Purchase and Sale of CLO Participation Interests dated of even date herewith (the "Purchase Agreement"), by and between Maker and Payee, and copies of all agreements, documents and instruments executed or delivered in connection therewith and evidence that all conditions to the effectiveness of the Purchase Agreement have been or will be fulfilled contemporaneously with the initial advance under this Note;

(c) evidence that the execution, delivery and performance by Maker of this Note and all other documents and instruments related to this Note have been duly authorized by, or on behalf of, Maker; and

(d) such other agreements, documents, information, and other assurances as Payee may reasonably request.

Events of Default

Maker shall be in default under this Note upon the occurrence of any of the following events or conditions (each, an "Event of Default"):

(a) the failure of Maker to make any payment required to be made under this Note when such payment becomes due;

(b) Maker defaults in the performance of any obligation, covenant, or agreement now or hereafter made or owed by Maker to Payee, whether under this Note or any related document;

(c) any representation or warranty made by Maker to Payee in connection with this Note or any document executed or delivered in connection therewith, is false or misleading in any material respect when made;

(d) Maker shall commence a voluntary proceeding seeking liquidation, reorganization, or other relief with respect to itself or its debts under any bankruptcy, insolvency, or other similar law now or hereafter in effect, or seeking the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, custodian, or other similar official for it or a substantial part of its property or shall consent to any such relief or to the appointment of or taking possession by any such official in an involuntary case or other proceeding commenced against it or shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or shall generally fail to pay its debts as they become due or shall take any corporate action to authorize any of the foregoing;

(e) any involuntary proceeding shall be commenced against Maker seeking liquidation, reorganization, or other relief with respect to it or its debts under any bankruptcy, insolvency, or other similar law now or hereafter in effect, or seeking the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, custodian, or other similar official for it or a substantial part of its property, in each case, that results in the entry of an order for any such relief or appointment that has not been vacated, discharged or stayed or bonded pending appeal within 60 days from the entry thereof;

(f) any lien, attachment, sequestration or similar proceeding against any of Maker's assets or properties other than liens in favor of Payee;

(g) any event or condition occurs that results in any indebtedness of Maker becoming due prior to its scheduled maturity or that enables or permits (with or without the giving of notice, the lapse of time, or both) the holder of such indebtedness to cause any of such indebtedness to become due, or to require the prepayment, repurchase, redemption or defeasance thereof, prior to its scheduled maturity; or

(h) the validity or enforceability of this Note shall be contested or challenged by Maker.

Remedies

Should an Event of Default exist, Payee may but without any obligation to do so, at its option and at any time, and without presentment, demand, or protest, notice of default, dishonor, demand, non-payment, or protest, notice of intent to accelerate all or any part of the advances hereunder, notice of acceleration of all or any part of the indebtedness evidenced by this Note, or notice of any other kind, all of which Maker hereby expressly waives, except for any notice required by applicable statute which cannot be waived: (a) terminate Payee's commitment to make any advances under this Note; (b) declare the indebtedness evidenced by this Note, or any part thereof, immediately due and payable, whereupon the same shall be due and payable (provided, however, that upon the occurrence of any event described in clause (e) of the definition of "Event of Default", such indebtedness shall become immediately due and payable in full without demand or acceleration); (c) reduce any claim to judgment; (d) to the maximum extent permitted under applicable laws, set-off and apply any and all deposits, funds, or assets at any time held and any and all other indebtedness at any time owing by Payee to or for the credit or the account of Maker against any and all obligations, whether or not Payee exercises any other right or remedy hereunder and whether or not such obligations are then matured; (e) may cure any Event of Default, or event of nonperformance under this Note and/or (f) exercise any and all rights and remedies afforded by this Note, or by law or equity or otherwise, as Payee deems appropriate. No failure or delay of the holder hereof to exercise any of its rights or remedies shall not constitute a waiver thereof.

If the holder hereof incurs any costs or expenses in any attempt to enforce payment of all or any part of this Note, or if this Note is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, Maker agrees to pay all such costs fees and expenses incurred, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees.

Miscellaneous

It is expressly stipulated and agreed to be the intent of Maker and Payee at all times to comply with the applicable law of the State of Texas governing the maximum rate or amount of interest payable on or in connection with the indebtedness under this Note (or applicable United States federal law to the extent that it permits Payee to contract for, charge, take, reserve or receive a greater amount of interest than under Texas law). If such law is ever judicially interpreted so as to render usurious any amount contracted for, charged, taken, reserved or received with respect to this Note, or if any payment by Maker results in Maker having paid any interest in excess of the amount that is permitted by such law, then it is Maker's and Payee's express intent that all excess amounts theretofore collected by Payee be credited on the principal balance hereof (or, if the principal balance has been or would thereby be paid in full, refunded to Maker), and the provisions of this Note shall immediately be deemed reformed and the amounts thereafter collectible thereunder reduced, without the necessity of the execution of any new documents, so as to comply with all such applicable laws, but so as to permit the recovery of the fullest amount otherwise called for thereunder. All sums paid or agreed to be paid to Payee for the use, forbearance or detention of money and other indebtedness evidenced by this Note shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be amortized, prorated, allocated and spread throughout the full term of such indebtedness until payment in full so that the rate or amount of interest on account of such indebtedness does not exceed the applicable usury ceiling provided by such applicable law. Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, the total amount of interest that Maker is obligated to pay and Payee is entitled to receive with respect to this Note shall not exceed the amount calculated on a simple (i.e., non-compounded) interest basis at the maximum rate allowed by applicable law on principal amounts actually advanced hereunder to or for the account of Maker.

MAKER AND EACH SURETY, GUARANTOR, ENDORSER, AND OTHER PARTY EVER LIABLE FOR PAYMENT OF ANY SUMS OF MONEY PAYABLE ON THIS NOTE JOINTLY AND SEVERALLY WAIVE NOTICE, PRESENTMENT, DEMAND FOR PAYMENT, PROTEST, NOTICE OF PROTEST AND NON-PAYMENT OR DISHONOR, NOTICE OF ACCELERATION, NOTICE OF INTENT TO ACCELERATE, NOTICE OF INTENT TO DEMAND, DILIGENCE IN COLLECTING, GRACE, AND ALL OTHER FORMALITIES OF ANY KIND, AND CONSENT TO ALL EXTENSIONS WITHOUT NOTICE FOR ANY PERIOD OR PERIODS OF TIME AND PARTIAL PAYMENTS,

BEFORE OR AFTER MATURITY, AND ANY IMPAIRMENT OF ANY COLLATERAL SECURING THIS NOTE, ALL WITHOUT PREJUDICE TO THE HOLDER. Without limiting the foregoing, any notice or demand upon Maker in connection with this Note shall be in writing and shall become effective (a) upon personal delivery, (b) three (3) days after it shall have been mailed by United States mail, first class, certified or registered, with postage prepaid or (c) when properly transmitted by telecopy, in each case addressed to Maker's address for notice specified in connection with its signature below.

THIS NOTE SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS AND THE APPLICABLE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. THIS NOTE IS PERFORMABLE IN DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS. ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS NOTE AGAINST MAKER OR ANY OTHER PARTY EVER LIABLE FOR PAYMENT OF ANY SUMS OF MONEY PAYABLE ON THIS NOTE MAY BE BROUGHT IN ANY STATE OR FEDERAL COURT IN DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS. MAKER AND EACH SUCH OTHER PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY (I) SUBMITS TO THE NONEXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF SUCH COURTS AND (II) WAIVES ANY OBJECTION IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE AS TO THE VENUE OF ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN SUCH COURT OR THAT SUCH COURT IS AN INCONVENIENT FORUM. NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF PAYEE TO BRING ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING AGAINST MAKER OR ANY OTHER PARTY LIABLE HEREUNDER OR WITH RESPECT TO ANY COLLATERAL IN ANY STATE OR FEDERAL COURT IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION. ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING BY MAKER OR ANY OTHER PARTY LIABLE HEREUNDER AGAINST PAYEE SHALL BE BROUGHT ONLY IN A COURT LOCATED IN DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS.

MAKER AND PAYEE EACH IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS NOTE OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY, IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR OTHER LITIGATION OF ANY KIND BROUGHT BY EITHER AGAINST THE OTHER, WHETHER WITH RESPECT TO CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS, OR OTHERWISE. MAKER AND PAYEE EACH AGREES THAT ANY SUCH CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION SHALL BE TRIED BY A COURT WITHOUT A JURY. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, THE PARTIES FURTHER AGREE THAT ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IS WAIVED AS TO ANY ACTION, COUNTERCLAIM OR OTHER PROCEEDING WHICH SEEKS, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, TO CHALLENGE THE VALIDITY OR ENFORCEABILITY OF THIS NOTE OR ANY PROVISION HEREOF. THIS WAIVER SHALL APPLY TO ANY SUBSEQUENT AMENDMENTS, RENEWALS, SUPPLEMENTS OR MODIFICATIONS TO THIS NOTE, WHETHER OR NOT SPECIFICALLY SET FORTH THEREIN.

This Note embodies the final, entire agreement of Maker and Payee with respect to the indebtedness evidenced hereby and supersedes any and all prior commitments, agreements, representations and understandings, whether written or oral, relating thereto and may not be contradicted or varied by evidence of prior, contemporaneous or subsequent oral agreements or discussions of Maker and Payee. There are no oral agreements between Maker and Payee.

PROMISSORY NOTE

PROMISSORY NOTE

$12,666,446 October 7, 2016

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned, Highland Capital Management, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("Maker"), hereby promises to pay to the order of Acis Capital Management, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("Payee"), at its office at 300 Crescent Court, Suite 700, Dallas, Texas 75201 in lawful money of the United States of America, the principal sum of TWELVE MILLION SIX HUNDRED SIXTY-SIX THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED FORTY-SIX DOLLARS ($12,666,446), together with interest on the outstanding principal balance thereof from day to day remaining at the rate of three percent (3%) per annum, as provided herein.

Payments

THE UNPAID PRINCIPAL HEREOF, TOGETHER WITH ALL ACCRUED AND UNPAID INTEREST THEREON, SHALL AUTOMATICALLY BE DUE AND PAYABLE IN FULL, WITHOUT NECESSITY OF DEMAND OR NOTICE, ACCORDING TO THE AMORTIZATION TABLE ATTACHED HERETO AS EXHIBIT A.

All past due principal and interest shall bear interest from and after the date when due at a rate equal to the rate equal to the lesser of (a) eighteen percent (18.0%) per annum or (b) the Maximum Rate (as defined herein).

Interest on the indebtedness evidenced by this Note shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days and the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day) unless such calculation would result in a rate that exceeds the maximum rate allowed by applicable law (such rate, the "Maximum Rate") in which case interest shall be calculated on the basis of a year of 365 or 366 days, as the case may be. If the regularly scheduled due date for any payment under this Note is not a Business Day, the due date for such payment shall be the next succeeding Business Day, and payment made on such succeeding Business Day shall have the same force and effect as if made on the regularly scheduled due date. "Business Day" means a day, other than a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, on which a bank in Dallas, Texas is open for business.

Maker shall have the right to prepay this Note, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time without premium or penalty. Amounts borrowed and repaid hereunder may not be reborrowed.

Conditions Precedent

This Note shall not become effective and Payee shall have no obligation to make the advance hereunder until Payee has received each of the following in form and substance acceptable to Payee:

(a) this Note executed by Maker;

(b) the Agreement for Purchase and Sale of CLO Participation Interests dated of even date herewith (the "Purchase Agreement"), by and between Maker and Acis Capital Management, LP, a Delaware limited partnership ("Highland"), and copies of all agreements, documents and instruments executed or delivered in connection therewith and evidence that all conditions to the effectiveness of the Purchase Agreement have been or will be fulfilled contemporaneously with the initial advance under this Note;

(c) evidence that the execution, delivery and performance by Maker of this Note and all other documents and instruments related to this Note have been duly authorized by, or on behalf of, Maker;

(d) true and correct copies of the organizational documents of Maker; and

(e) such other agreements, documents, information, and other assurances as Payee may reasonably request.

Events of Default

Maker shall be in default under this Note upon the occurrence of any of the following events or conditions (each, an "Event of Default"):

(a) the failure of Maker to make any payment required to be made under this Note when such payment becomes due;

(b) Maker defaults in the performance of any obligation, covenant, or agreement now or hereafter made or owed by Maker to Payee, whether under this Note or any related document;

(c) any representation or warranty made by Maker to Payee in connection with this Note or any document executed or delivered in connection therewith, is false or misleading in any material respect when made;

(d) Maker shall commence a voluntary proceeding seeking liquidation, reorganization, or other relief with respect to itself or its debts under any bankruptcy, insolvency, or other similar law now or hereafter in effect, or seeking the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, custodian, or other similar official for it or a substantial part of its property or shall consent to any such relief or to the appointment of or taking possession by any such official in an involuntary case or other proceeding commenced against it or shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or shall generally fail to pay its debts as they become due or shall take any corporate action to authorize any of the foregoing;

(e) any involuntary proceeding shall be commenced against Maker seeking liquidation, reorganization, or other relief with respect to it or its debts under any bankruptcy, insolvency, or other similar law now or hereafter in effect, or seeking the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, custodian, or other similar official for it or a substantial part of its property;

(f) any lien, attachment, sequestration or similar proceeding against any of Maker's assets or properties other than liens in favor of Payee and liens in favor of Highland;

(g) any event or condition occurs that results in any indebtedness of Maker becoming due prior to its scheduled maturity or that enables or permits (with or without the giving of notice, the lapse of time, or both) the holder of such indebtedness to cause any of such indebtedness to become due, or to require the prepayment, repurchase, redemption or defeasance thereof, prior to its scheduled maturity; or

(i) the validity or enforceability of this Note shall be contested or challenged by Maker.

Remedies

Should an Event of Default exist, Payee may but without any obligation to do so, at its option and at any time, and without presentment, demand, or protest, notice of default, dishonor, demand, non-payment, or protest, notice of intent to accelerate all or any part of the advances hereunder, notice of acceleration of all or any part of the indebtedness evidenced by this Note, or notice of any other kind, all of which Maker hereby expressly waives, except for any notice required by applicable statute which cannot be waived: (a) terminate Payee's commitment to make any advances under this Note; (b) declare the indebtedness evidenced by this Note, or any part thereof, immediately due and payable, whereupon the same shall be due and payable (provided, however, that upon the occurrence of any event described in clause (e) of the definition of "Event of Default", such indebtedness shall become immediately due and payable in full without demand or acceleration); (c) reduce any claim to judgment; (d) to the maximum extent permitted under applicable laws, set-off and apply any and all deposits, funds, or assets at any time held and any and all other indebtedness at any time owing by Payee to or for the credit or the account of Maker against any and all obligations, whether or not Payee exercises any other right or remedy hereunder and whether or not such obligations are then matured; (e) may cure any Event of Default, or event of nonperformance under this Note and/or (f) exercise any and all rights and remedies afforded by this Note, or by law or equity or otherwise, as Payee deems appropriate. No failure or delay of the holder hereof to exercise any of its rights or remedies shall not constitute a waiver thereof.

If the holder hereof incurs any costs or expenses in any attempt to enforce payment of all or any part of this Note, or if this Note is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, Maker agrees to pay all such costs fees and expenses incurred, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees.

Miscellaneous

It is expressly stipulated and agreed to be the intent of Maker and Payee at all times to comply with the applicable law of the State of Texas governing the maximum rate or amount of interest payable on or in connection with the indebtedness under this Note (or applicable United States federal law to the extent that it permits Payee to contract for, charge, take, reserve or receive a greater amount of interest than under Texas law). If such law is ever judicially interpreted so as to render usurious any amount contracted for, charged, taken, reserved or received with respect to this Note, or if any payment by Maker results in Maker having paid any interest in excess of the amount that is permitted by such law, then it is Maker's and Payee's express intent that all excess amounts theretofore collected by Payee be credited on the principal balance hereof (or, if the principal balance has been or would thereby be paid in full, refunded to Maker), and the provisions of this Note shall immediately be deemed reformed and the amounts thereafter collectible thereunder reduced, without the necessity of the execution of any new documents, so as to comply with all such applicable laws, but so as to permit the recovery of the fullest amount otherwise called for thereunder. All sums paid or agreed to be paid to Payee for the use, forbearance or detention of money and other indebtedness evidenced by this Note shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be amortized, prorated, allocated and spread throughout the full term of such indebtedness until payment in full so that the rate or amount of interest on account of such indebtedness does not exceed the applicable usury ceiling provided by such applicable law. Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, the total amount of interest that Maker is obligated to pay and Payee is entitled to receive with respect to this Note shall not exceed the amount calculated on a simple (i.e., non-compounded) interest basis at the maximum rate allowed by applicable law on principal amounts actually advanced hereunder to or for the account of Maker.

MAKER AND EACH SURETY, GUARANTOR, ENDORSER, AND OTHER PARTY EVER LIABLE FOR PAYMENT OF ANY SUMS OF MONEY PAYABLE ON THIS NOTE JOINTLY AND SEVERALLY WAIVE NOTICE, PRESENTMENT, DEMAND FOR PAYMENT, PROTEST, NOTICE OF PROTEST AND NON-PAYMENT OR DISHONOR, NOTICE OF ACCELERATION, NOTICE OF INTENT TO ACCELERATE, NOTICE OF INTENT TO DEMAND, DILIGENCE IN COLLECTING, GRACE, AND ALL OTHER FORMALITIES OF ANY KIND, AND CONSENT TO ALL EXTENSIONS WITHOUT NOTICE FOR ANY PERIOD OR PERIODS OF TIME AND PARTIAL PAYMENTS,

BEFORE OR AFTER MATURITY, AND ANY IMPAIRMENT OF ANY COLLATERAL SECURING THIS NOTE, ALL WITHOUT PREJUDICE TO THE HOLDER. Without limiting the foregoing, any notice or demand upon Maker in connection with this Note shall be in writing and shall become effective (a) upon personal delivery, (b) three (3) days after it shall have been mailed by United States mail, first class, certified or registered, with postage prepaid or (c) when properly transmitted by telecopy, in each case addressed to Maker's address for notice specified in connection with its signature below.

THIS NOTE SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS AND THE APPLICABLE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. THIS NOTE IS PERFORMABLE IN DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS. ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS NOTE AGAINST MAKER OR ANY OTHER PARTY EVER LIABLE FOR PAYMENT OF ANY SUMS OF MONEY PAYABLE ON THIS NOTE MAY BE BROUGHT IN ANY STATE OR FEDERAL COURT IN DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS. MAKER AND EACH SUCH OTHER PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY (I) SUBMITS TO THE NONEXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF SUCH COURTS AND (II) WAIVES ANY OBJECTION IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE AS TO THE VENUE OF ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN SUCH COURT OR THAT SUCH COURT IS AN INCONVENIENT FORUM. NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF PAYEE TO BRING ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING AGAINST MAKER OR ANY OTHER PARTY LIABLE HEREUNDER OR WITH RESPECT TO ANY COLLATERAL IN ANY STATE OR FEDERAL COURT IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION. ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING BY MAKER OR ANY OTHER PARTY LIABLE HEREUNDER AGAINST PAYEE SHALL BE BROUGHT ONLY IN A COURT LOCATED IN DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS.

MAKER AND PAYEE EACH IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS NOTE OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY, IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR OTHER LITIGATION OF ANY KIND BROUGHT BY EITHER AGAINST THE OTHER, WHETHER WITH RESPECT TO CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS, OR OTHERWISE. MAKER AND PAYEE EACH AGREES THAT ANY SUCH CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION SHALL BE TRIED BY A COURT WITHOUT A JURY. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, THE PARTIES FURTHER AGREE THAT ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IS WAIVED AS TO ANY ACTION, COUNTERCLAIM OR OTHER PROCEEDING WHICH SEEKS, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, TO CHALLENGE THE VALIDITY OR ENFORCEABILITY OF THIS NOTE OR ANY PROVISION HEREOF. THIS WAIVER SHALL APPLY TO ANY SUBSEQUENT AMENDMENTS, RENEWALS, SUPPLEMENTS OR MODIFICATIONS TO THIS NOTE, WHETHER OR NOT SPECIFICALLY SET FORTH THEREIN.

This Note embodies the final, entire agreement of Maker and Payee with respect to the indebtedness evidenced hereby and supersedes any and all prior commitments, agreements, representations and understandings, whether written or oral, relating thereto and may not be contradicted or varied by evidence of prior, contemporaneous or subsequent oral agreements or discussions of Maker and Payee. EXPLANATION OF BALANCE ON WHICH THE INTEREST CHARGE IS COMPUTED

We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day, add any new advances/fees, and subtract any unpaid interest or other finance charges and any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance.

EXPLANATION OF BALANCE ON WHICH THE INTEREST CHARGE IS COMPUTED

We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day, add any new advances/fees, and subtract any unpaid interest or other finance charges and any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance.

CERTIFICATE OF REPRESENTATIONS OF ACIS

CERTIFICATE of REPRESENTATIONS

Reference is hereby made to that certain U.S. federal income tax opinion, dated January 31, 2017 (the "Tax Opinion"), provided by Hunton & Williams LLP to Acis Capital Management, L.P. ("ACIS") regarding certain U.S. federal income tax issues, including the treatment of any gain from the Transaction (as defined in the Tax Opinion). Each term herein with an initial capital not required by standard capitalization rules is a defined term, and each such term not parenthetically defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the Tax Opinion.

ACIS understands that Hunton & Williams LLP is relying upon the validity of each of the statements set forth below as the factual basis for the conclusions expressed in the Tax Opinion and that any inaccuracy in the matters set forth herein could adversely affect the conclusions in the Tax Opinion. ACIS hereby represents, warrants, covenants and certifies, after reasonable investigation and review and consultation as appropriate, as follows below.

1. The summary of facts set forth in Part II of the Tax Opinion and Exhibits A - N attached to the Tax Opinion are accurate and complete in all material respects.

2. ACIS is and has been during all relevant times properly treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

3. The Portfolio Management Agreements (as defined in the Tax Opinion) are in accord with market standard collateralized loan obligation ("CLO") cash and synthetic securitizations generally, and the obligations of ACIS under the Portfolio Management Agreements are consistent with industry standards and are substantially in accord with those of other similar CLOs.

4. Based on industry standards, the rights that ACIS retains, with respect to each CLO, to the remaining Senior Management Fees and Subordinated Management Fees, as well as all of the Incentive Management Fees (each as defined in the Portfolio Management Agreements) (the "Retained Fees") represents industry standard reasonable compensation for performing the services under the Portfolio Management Agreements. For this purpose, reasonable compensation means that, as of the relevant acquisition date, ACIS would not have paid (or required an upfront payment from a seller) to acquire the Portfolio Management Agreements if its servicing compensation consisted of only the Retained fees. The Retained Fees will not have more than a nominal value in relation to the expected costs of servicing the CLOs pursuant to the Portfolio Management Agreements.

5. ACIS has no intention to or reason to believe it will not fulfill the obligations related to the Portfolio Management Agreements and has no current intention to terminate the Portfolio Management Agreements or reason to believe that it will be terminated under the Portfolio Management Agreements.

6. During the Warehouse Period for each CLO, ACIS did not have the economic benefits and burdens of ownership of the assets acquired for the related CLOs.

7. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, any taxable gain or loss in respect of the sale of the interests in Senior Management Fees and Subordinated Management Fees (the "Participation Interests") conveyed to Highland Capital Management, L.P. ("Buyer"), under the Transaction Document (as defined in the Tax Opinion) will be calculated using a zero basis for such Participation Interests.

8. The parties to the Transaction believe and intend that the promissory note for $12,666,446 that Buyer gave to ACIS for the Participation Interests will be paid in accordance with its terms.

9. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, any previously reported income in respect of fee payments received pursuant to the Participation Interests has been reported by ACIS as ordinary income.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, ACIS has executed this Certificate under seal by its duly authorized representative as of January 31, 2017.

MR. DONDERO: I do.

WHEREUPON,

J A M E S D O N D E R O,

having been called as a witness, being duly sworn by the notary public present, testified as follows:

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Thank you, sir. You may put your hand down.

MR. MORRIS: Okay.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Good morning, Mr. Dondero.

A Morning.

Q Nice to see you again. I hope you're well. Where are you located right now, physically?

A Dallas.

Q Are you in a -- whose office are you in?

A I'm in a conference room.

Q And is there anybody in the conference room with you?

A Just Deborah and I.

Q Okay. Do you have a telephone that's on at the moment?

A No.

Q Okay. Do you have a computer in front of you?

A Just the one I'm talking into.

Q Thank you for the clarification. Do you have any notes of any kind?

A No.

Q Do you understand that you're here today to give testimony in connection with the claim objection relating to Highland Capital Management, LTD?

A Not the specific entity, but I -- I know it's regarding a note, the $10 million note.

Q Do you know who holds the $10 million note today?

A No.

Q Did you do anything to prepare for today's deposition?

A Not other than meeting with Deborah.

Q And when did you meet with Deborah?

A For half an hour on Friday -- or an hour on Friday and 15 minutes today.

Q So was Mr. Aigen present for either of those meetings?

A No.

Q Okay. So you met -- to prepare for today's deposition, you met with Deborah on Friday for 30 to 60 minutes and today for up to 15 minutes? Do I have that right?

A Yeah.

Q Okay. Did you review any documents to prepare for today's deposition?

A No.

Q Did you speak with anybody other than Deborah for today's deposition?

A No, I did not.

Q Did you speak with anybody concerning the events that are the subject of this litigation in connection with today's deposition at any time in the past 60 days?

A No.

Q Are you aware that Frank Waterhouse was deposed in connection with this particular litigation?

A No.

Q So is it fair to say that you didn't speak with Mr. Waterhouse about his testimony?

A I did not.

Q Have you reviewed any transcripts of Mr. Waterhouse's testimony?

A No.

Q Okay. Are you familiar with an entity named Highland CLO Management Limited?

A I -- I just know it was one of the entities involved with the resolution of Acis after Josh Terry left.

Q And do you know what role that entity played in connection with the resolution of the issues that you just referred to?

A Not specifically.

Q Do you have any knowledge at all as to what role Highland CLO Management Limited played in connection with the post-Josh-Terry issues surrounding Acis?

A Just generally.

Q And what's your general understanding?

A That it was one of the entities involved in -- on the note, and it was one of the entities that was going to be involved in refinancing or resetting of the CLOs.

Q What does it mean -- what -- when you use the term "involved," do you have any -- can you elaborate at all on what that term means in connection with this particular entity?

A Not specifically.

Q Do you know when Highland CLO Management Limited was formed?

A No.

Q Can I refer to that entity going forward as HCLOM? Just the acronym, H-C-L-O-M?

A HCLOM, you want to use for the limited entity?

Q Yes, sir.

A Okay.

Q Do you know where HCLOM was formed?

A And -- other than that Limited, generally, is a payment entity, other than that, no.

Q Do you know who directed the formation of HCLOM?

A I -- I believe it would have been the lawyers, the internal --

Q Do you know -- I appreciate that. Do you know -- can you identify any specific lawyer, or are you just saying, generally, you believe it would have been the lawyers?

A I believe it, excuse me, generally would have been our legal staff or internal lawyers.

Q Okay. Are you aware that there is a similarly named entity called Highland CLO Management, LLC?

A Yes.

Q Do you know when that entity was formed?

A No.

Q Do you know why that entity was formed?

A I -- not specifically, but it's -- it sounds like it's an onshore entity involved in the same process that we're talking about.

Q Do you know who decided to form -- I'm going to -- withdrawn.

I'm going to refer to that entity as HCLOM, LLC. So we've got HCLOM, LLC, and then just HCLOM, which refers to HCLOM Limited; is that okay?

A Okay.

Q Okay. So do you know who decided to form HCLOM, LLC?

A Same answer. I believe it would have been our internal legal staff.

Q Do you know if HCLOM, LLC, and HCLOM ever had common ownership?

A I don't know.

Q Do you know if they ever had a contractual relationship?

A I -- I believe they had to have some contractual relationship because ultimately, the assets have to be managed by an RIA and managed with people or some -- some sub-advisory agreement that gives it people. And I -- and I believe that was all at the LLC level, not at the LTD level.

Q Are you aware -- have you ever seen a contract between HCLOM, LLC, and HCLOM?

A Not that I'm -- not that I remember.
Q Do you recall if anybody ever told you that there was a contract that existed between HCLOM, LLC, and HCLOM?
A Not that I recall.
Q When did you first become aware that there was two different entities that were similarly named, one that was HCLOM, LLC, and one that was HCLOM?
A Excuse me. I don't know. Year -- years ago.
Q Did you ever ask anybody why there were two similarly named entities?
A No. I -- I wasn't specifically involved in any of the details on a transaction of this size. I was aware of the creation of the note and the moving away from Acis as a -- as a manager in the resets. But the specifics, the -- the specifics -- my -- my awareness is just general.
Q So is it fair to say that you never asked anybody why there were two entities created, one named HCLOM Limited, and one named HCLOM, LLC; is that fair?
A I never asked specifically, and I gave my best speculation as to why there would be.
Q Okay. Did anybody ever explain to you why there were two HCLOM entities that were formed, one HCLOM Limited and one HCLOM, LLC?

A Not that I recall.
Q I apologize if I'm repeating here, but you don't know today who holds the note in question; is that fair?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Can you -- can you say that again? Because I apologize. My phone rang while you were talking.
MR. MORRIS: No problem.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Mr. Dondero, do you know who holds the note that is the subject of this litigation?
A Not specifically.
Q Do you know generally?
A I don't -- I don't know generally.
Q Okay. Can you identify the ultimate beneficial owners of HCLOM Limited today?
A Not specifically.
Q Do you know generally who the ultimate beneficial owners of HCLOM Limited are today?
A Just generally, it's our side of the table, but I don't know -- I -- I don't know the ownership of the entities.
Q And when you refer to your side of the table, are you referring to you or entities in which you have a direct or indirect ownership interest?

A Yes. I -- I believe it's generally -- generally, it's monies that are due to -- that are owed to us.
Q But you can't identify any specific entity that has a direct or indirect ownership interest in HCLOM Limited today, correct?
A Correct.
Q Okay. Do you know who the ultimate beneficial owners of HCLOM Limited were at the time of formation?
A No.
Q Do you know if there was ever a change in the beneficial ownership of HCLOM Limited?
A I -- I would need to be refreshed on that. I -- I don't specifically remember.
Q Okay. Did you ever direct anybody to change the ultimate beneficial ownership for HCLOM Limited?
A No. Not that I recall.
Q Do you know who controls HCLOM Limited today?
A I do not.
Q Did you ever know? Do you know who -- withdrawn.
Do you know who controlled HCLOM Limited at any time?
A I -- I do not. I do not -- I do not recall. This is a small transaction. I wasn't involved in details.

Q Okay. Do you control HCLOM today?
A I don't know. I'm -- I'm willing to be refreshed, but I don't know.
Q Yeah. Did you ever ask anybody who controlled HCLOM Limited?
A No.
Q Do you know who's authorized to act on behalf of HCLOM Limited today?
A I do not specifically know, no.
Q Do you know if you're authorized to act on behalf of HCLOM Limited?
A I -- I don't know.
Q Are you aware that HCLOM Limited filed a response to Highland's objection to the scheduled claims that are at issue in this litigation?
A I'm aware we're pursuing or trying to get the note paid. I don't -- I -- I don't know the specific motions.
Q Have you ever seen any written response that was filed on behalf of HCLOM Limited in connection with this litigation?
A Not that I recall.
MR. MORRIS: Okay. Andrea, can you please put up on the screen tab 15, which we'll mark as Dondero Exhibit 1?

(Exhibit 1 marked for identification.)

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q All right. Mr. Dondero, we've done this a few times, so the last thing I want to do here is try to trick you. If there's anything about a document that you think you need to read for full context, let me know.

I don't expect to ask substantive questions about this document. But if we could just scroll down a little bit on this first page, this is a document that we've marked as Exhibit 1. You can see it was filed in the bankruptcy court in Docket 3715 on April 3rd, 2023.

MR. MORRIS: And if we could just scroll to the title of the document, please?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Yeah. You're aware that very little of the document is visible on the screen because of the size, right?

MR. MORRIS: Yeah.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: So I also wanted -- sorry to interject here. I just wanted to bring to your attention -- you can also control the document on your end if you would like. There's a plus or minus at the top of the document that you can zoom in or out. There's a hand icon for panning around on the document if you end up zooming in far enough.

MR. MORRIS: Oh, I see. Okay. Great. Enough said. Okay.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Mr. Dondero, do you see --

MR. MORRIS: I really do appreciate that.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Mr. Dondero, do you see this document is called Response of Highland CLO Management, Ltd. to -- and I'll just paraphrase here, to Highland's objection to the schedule claims?

Do you see that that's the title of the document, sir?

A Hold on. I can't -- that's all I got. I got --

MR. MORRIS: Deborah, scroll down on the document.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Yeah, we're trying.

MR. MORRIS: It's just trying to --

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Sorry. My screen froze for a moment, and I had to refresh.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: All right. You can hit the down arrow.

THE WITNESS: All right.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: And wait --

THE WITNESS: Response to -- okay.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. I invite you to scroll down. Are you able to scroll down on the document?

A Yes. Yeah.

Q So take your time. You can read as much of the document or as little of the document as you want. My only question for the moment is whether you've ever seen it before, so take your time.

A Not that I recall.

Q So is it fair to say that you don't recall reviewing this before it was filed?

A Correct.

Q And because you don't recall ever seeing it before, is it fair to say that you have no basis to say whether it's true or accurate today?

A Well, I -- I believe in the capabilities of my internal legal and accounting and my external legal to vet the pleadings. So I believe it's accurate, but it's not -- I don't -- it -- it's not a document that I created or reviewed.

Q Okay. Is there somebody within your organization who is responsible for handling this litigation on behalf of HCLOM Limited?

A I do not know. I mean, yes. There would be internal legal involved, but I -- I don't know who.

Q Did you ever designate somebody to be responsible for handling this litigation?

A I did not.

Q And nobody ever informed you as to the identity of an in-house professional who was charged with the responsibility of overseeing this litigation on behalf of HCLOM Limited, correct?

A Correct. I don't know who specifically internally was responsible or interfacing with externals.

Q Did you ever speak with anybody internally concerning the litigation that is the subject of this response, that is, Highland's claims?

A I do not.

MR. MORRIS: Okay. Let's shift gears. You can take that down.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: John, you're frozen on the screen. I don't know if that matters, but --

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: So one thing we can try and do, Mr. Morris, if you move your mouse over your -- over where your image is supposed to be, it will bring up a little blue box at the top right corner of your image. If you click on that, you can say, refresh video.

MR. MORRIS: Appear to -- you see me, Deb?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: No. Now you're gone entirely.

MR. MORRIS: You're probably better off.

THE WITNESS: I don't see him on my screen, either.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Yeah.

THE WITNESS: I mean, he's not -- he's not anywhere on my screen.

MR. AIGEN: Scroll down. You can see John's window, but there's no image. Looks like his video is turned off right now. If you scroll down, you can see his box. I think he moved down when --

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: I give up.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: I'm not sure why you're not showing back up. Would you like me to take us off the record while we figure this out?

MR. MORRIS: Yes, please. Apologies, folks.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Taking us off the record.

(Off the record.)

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: We are now back on the record, 11:32 a.m., Central Time.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Mr. Dondero, can you hear me okay?

A Yes.

Q Okay. You're familiar with an entity called Acis Capital Management, L.P., correct?

A Yes.

Q And we're going to refer to that entity as Acis for purposes of this deposition; is that okay?

A Okay.

Q Acis was formed by Mark Okada, Josh Terry, and you back in around 2011, correct?

A Yes.

Q And it was formed to be a registered advisor to manage and invest in certain collateralized loan obligations, correct?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And we're going to refer to collateralized loan obligations as CLOs, okay?

A Okay.

Q And Acis managed those CLOs through certain management agreements with the issuers of the CLOs, correct?

A I -- yes, in -- in conjunction with a shared services agreement with Highland.

Q I appreciate that. But just focusing on the relationship between Acis and the issuers, Acis obtained its role as the manager of the CLOs pursuant to management agreements with the issuers; is that fair?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And pursuant to those CLO management agreements, Acis would receive fees for its services, correct?

A Yes.

Q And is it okay with you if, going forward, I - I refer to the fees that are due under the CLO management agreements as servicing fees?

A Let's call them management fees because that's what they are.

Q Okay. In early 2018, Josh Terry commenced an involuntary bankruptcy case against Acis and its general partner, correct?

A Yes.

Q At all times prior to the commencement of the Acis bankruptcy case, your family owned a majority of Acis's limited partnership interest, correct?

A At all times prior, I -- I don't remember what the original percentages were, if they were a majority or not. I -- I believe, after Josh Terry left, it was a majority, but I -- I don't know. I don't know if it was before that.

Q Do you recall that at some point during the Acis bankruptcy, a gentleman named Robin Phelan was appointed as the Chapter 11 trustee, and in that capacity, he took control of Acis?

A I do remember that.

Q Okay. From the time of formation until Mr. Phelan's taking of control during the Acis bankruptcy case, you served as the president of Acis, correct?

A I -- yeah. I don't specifically remember it, but it's logical.

Q Is it fair to say, until Mr. Phelan took control of Acis as part of the Acis bankruptcy, that you personally controlled Acis?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q In your capacity as --

MR. MORRIS: I appreciate the objection. Withdrawn.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Mr. Dondero, as an office -- withdrawn. You were an officer of Acis at all times prior to Mr. Phelan's appointment Chapter 11 trustee, right?

A I -- same answer. I -- I don't remember. It's logical that I would've been, but I don't remember.

Q Do you know if there was any time prior to Mr.

Page 25

Phelan's appointment when you did not control Acis?
A I -- I don't -- I don't remember. And it's -- what is -- I -- I don't remember. And I -- I don't remember if I was an officer. I'm willing to be refreshed, you know? And I don't remember if I had majority ownership prior to Josh leaving.
A Yes. I remember -- yeah, mid-16. I remember. Yes.
Q And he left because you terminated him, correct?
A I -- that's -- I think that's been subject to litigation, and I -- I don't want to opine on that.
Q I'm not asking you to opine. I'm just asking about facts. It's a fact that you terminated Mr. Terry from his position at Acis in or around June 2016, correct?
A There were issues of aberrant behavior on his part, and I remember there were issues on whether or not it was for cause. And I don't remember, ultimately, how it was characterized or decided.
Q Okay. I want to assure you, Mr. Dondero, I'm not here to re mitigate the circumstances surrounding his departure. I'm just looking to establish some foundation. But if you don't remember specifically the circumstances of Terry's departure, that's fine.

We can agree, though, that he left Acis in or around June 2016, right?
A Yes. That's how I'd like to leave it.
Q That's fine. And following his departure, Mr. Terry's ownership interest in Acis was allocated between and among entities owned or controlled by you and Mr. Okada, fair?
A Yes. I believe that's the case.
Q Okay. And who decided to allocate Mr. Terry's ownership interest in Acis between and among entities owned or controlled by you and Mister --
A I -- I believe that came from internal counsel as the appropriate way to handle the reconfiguring of a partnership when the primary operating partner left.
Q Okay. Can you identify any particular lawyer, or do you think it was just in-house counsel? Is that the best you can do today?
A That's the best I can do today.
Q Was there anybody at Highland's internal -- withdrawn.
Was there any in-house counsel that was specifically tasked with the responsibility of addressing Acis and the issues that arose following Mr.

Page 27

Terry's departure?
A I don't know. I don't know who was specifically assigned to it.
Q Do you recall if Mr. Ellington was the person ultimately responsible among the in-house team addressing the issues following Mr. Terry's departure?
A He was -- he was the overall senior general counsel, but I -- I don't believe he handled the nuts and bolts. I believe he delegated it.
Q Did you delegate to a particular person the responsibility for addressing issues arising from Mr. Terry's departure?
A No.
Q Following Mr. Terry's departure, do you know who controlled Acis?
A I -- I believe the reconfigured partnership agreement outlined that.
Q And the only partners of Acis following Mr. Terry's departure were entities owned and/or controlled by you and Mr. Okada; is that fair?
A Yes, as far as ownership is concerned. But -- but again, control is a -- subject to various descriptions, and there -- there would've -- again, there was a shared services agreement which would've given control, so to speak, of the asset management and/or the accounting and other services. I think back to Highland. I think describing the ownership as reconfigured with Mark and I is correct, but I -- I don't want to -- I -- I don't want to broadly agree to control over all aspects just because we were the owners.

Q Okay. So following Mr. Terry's departure, his ownership interest gets allocated to you and Mr. Okada or entities owned directly or indirectly by the two of you, fair?
A I believe that's the case.
Q And as part of that process, your recollection is that Dugaboy or other entities owned or controlled by you held a majority of the limited partnership interest in Acis, correct?
A I believe so.
Q Okay. As the person who owned, directly or indirectly, a majority of the limited partnership interests of Acis, are you willing to tell me who, at any time following Mr. Terry's departure, actually controlled Acis?
A I'll say it one more time. Again, you know, the -- how to handle the document properly with the exit of the operating partner would've been done by internal and external legal, with the assistance of accounting where relevant. And I believe the portfolio management and the accounting and regulatory stuff was governed by shared services, as -- as it typically is when we have a -- offshoot RNAs.

Q Was there any particular person who was authorized -- personally authorized to act on behalf of Acis following Mr. Terry's departure other than its owners?

A I don't recall specifically delegating or specifically designating anybody.

Q Do you know if Mister -- withdrawn.

Do you -- can you identify any officers of Acis following Mr. Terry's departure?

A I don't remember, but I'm willing to be refreshed.

Q Do you know if you ever controlled Acis at any time after Mr. Terry's departure?

A I -- I think I've asked and answered that several times.

Q No. I'm now -- I'm not -- I'm now asking specifically about you. Do you know if you ever controlled Acis after Mr. Terry's departure?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: Not -- not beyond what I've answered already.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Did you ever take any action following Mr. Terry's departure that bound Acis that you can recall?

A I -- I would've signed the documents, as put forward by internal and external legal staff often. Usually, I'm the signatory and stuff.

Q And when you signed things, is it fair to say that when you signed documents, you understood that you were binding Acis?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

MR. MORRIS: Withdrawn.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q You understood, when you signed documents in your capacity as an officer of Acis, that you were binding that entity, correct?

A I -- I just understood I was the appropriate signatory on appropriate legal documents, as put forward by internal/external counsel.

Q And what was the basis for your understanding that you were the appropriate person to do those tasks?

A Trust in the legal department and trust in the external legal counsel.

Q Okay. Is there anybody who you can identify that specifically informed you that you were the appropriate person to sign documents on behalf of Acis?

A Not that I recall.

Q Okay. At some point in the fall of 2016, Highland sued Mr. Terry in Texas State Court; do you recall that?

A Not specifically.

Q Okay. I'm going to refer to Highland Capital Management L.P. as Highland; is that okay?

A Sure.

Q And you controlled Highland at all times until the independent board was appointed in January of 2020, correct?

A Yes.

Q And you authorized Highland to file for bankruptcy, correct?

A That turned out to be a mistake. I --

Q But you did authorize it, right?

A I believe so.

Q Okay. So going back to the fall of 2016, did you also authorize Highland to commence the action against Mr. Terry?

A Did I -- yes, I was aware of it. I would've ultimately had to authorize it, yes.

Q Okay. And a few weeks later, Mr. Terry, do you recall, he made his Motion to Compel Arbitration, and the dispute got submitted to arbitration? Do you recall that?

A Yes.

Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Can we put tab up -- tab 1 up on the screen, just so we can have a point of reference?

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q So this, Mr. Dondero, I'll represent to you is Mr. Terry's Motion to Compel Arbitration. You'll see that it's got the Highland versus Mr. Terry caption, and you'll see in the upper right-hand corner that it was filed in Dallas on September 12th, 2016.

Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q Okay. So just as a point of reference, Mr. Terry gets -- Mr. Terry departs from Acis in June 2016. Highland, based on your authority, commences a lawsuit against Mr. Terry in the fall of 2016. And Mr. Terry responds on September 12th with this Motion to Compel Arbitration.

Does that generally conform with your recollection of events?

A Generally.

Q Okay. And then short -- a short time later, Acis and Highland enter into what some of us have been referring to as a participation agreement.

Do you have any recollection of that?
A No. I'll need to be refreshed on that.
MR. MORRIS: Okay. Can we put up tab 2? Which we will - I guess, let's -- before you take this down, let's mark this Motion to Compel Arbitration, I think, as Exhibit 2.
THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Yes, it would be Exhibit 2.
I didn't get a chance to mark that, though, ma'am -- Ms. Bates.
MR. MORRIS: Can we take care of that at a break?
MS. BATES: I'm sorry. I'm bringing it up now. There you go.
MR. MORRIS: All right. Go ahead.
(Exhibit 2 marked for identification.)
THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Okay. We're good there. Sorry.
MR. MORRIS: That's okay. I'm learning to process myself.
So let's take that down and put up what we'll mark as Exhibit 3, which is tab number 2.
THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Great. Thank you.

(Exhibit 3 marked for identification.)
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q And Mr. Dondero, again, feel free to scroll through this document as you see fit. But do you see that this is an Agreement for Purchase and Sale of CLO Participation Interest between Acis and Highland, dated as of October 7, 2016?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: And I'll just note for the record it's 22 pages. And he's -- this is the most (indiscernible) reviewed.
MR. MORRIS: Yeah.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Do you see that that is what the document is called, sir?
A Yeah. That -- that's all I got. I'm trying to scroll. It's not taking the button, so it's a little -- it's not taking this.
THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: So when you try and scroll, go down.
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: So what -- hang on. We got it. If you push down when it's in there, then it will go. Otherwise, it will move this screen over here.
THE WITNESS: Yep. I got it.
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: All right.
THE WITNESS: Yes, I see the document.

BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Okay. And if you go down to page -- I think it's 15 of 22, can you just confirm for me that you signed this agreement on behalf of both Highland and Acis?
A Yes.
Q Okay. Do you recall if you read this document before you signed it?
A I did not.
Q Do you have an understanding today of what this document was intended to accomplish?
A Yes.
Q What is your recollection of what this document was intended to accomplish? And again, you know, to Deborah's point, if you'd like to scroll, I don't mean to rush you.
A No, that's okay. My -- my general understanding, and we've done several of these over the years, is a -- a purchase of -- of fees, expected fees for a note -- note -- note in cash or sometimes cash, sometimes note, whatever, that has some tax advantages to it, generally, in terms of deferring taxes and in some cases, recharacterizing short-term income as capital gains.
Q So is it fair to say that your understanding of -- is that the purpose of this document was to capture tax benefits, either through the deferral of income or through the recharacterization of income from ordinary income to capital gains income?

A I -- I believe that's the structure and my general purpose.
Q Okay. And do you understand that Acis is what was known as -- what is known as a pass-through entity? Are you familiar with that term?
A Yes.
Q Okay. What's your understanding of what a pass-through entity is?
A A pass-through entity is typically a partnership or an LLC that passes through the tax liability directly to the owners and does -- isn't a tax-paying entity in and of itself.
Q And so the benefits that you've described from this agreement, it was your understanding -- withdrawn.
It was your understanding, at the time you signed this agreement, that the intended beneficiaries of this transaction were the ultimate beneficial owners of Acis; is that fair?
A Well, the deferral and recharacterization benefits all parties. And then it's reflected, usually, in the price and timing and interest rate on the note.

But it's -- yeah. It -- it's -- the accountants weigh the benefits to all parties and then determine the appropriate variables.

Q Highland was also a pass-through entity, correct?

A Yes.

Q So that neither Highland nor Acis were the tax-paying entities for the income and losses that Highland and Acis experienced, right?

A Yeah. I don't understand why that's relevant, but -- yes.

Q Right. So that -- so that whether it's income or losses, those -- and that income and those losses would pass through Highland or Acis, respectively, to the beneficial owners of each entity, correct?

A Correct. And the ownership interest was similar in both entities. And the transaction, again, has a benefit to all parties in terms of deferral and some recharacterization.

Q Would you need -- would you need -- withdrawn. I'll get to it.

Was it your understanding that under this agreement, Acis agreed to pay Highland a portion of the management fees that we discussed earlier?

A I -- I don't know exactly how the mechanism works, whether it's --

Q Let's try and go through it. I'm sorry. We can -- if you can go to Section 1 of the document, which --

A What page?

Q It's right under "Agreement." It's page 2. It's got Bates Number 8900 in the lower right-hand corner. So it's page 4 of the screen --

A Okay.

Q -- as you go through the document. And if you could just take a moment to read paragraph 1 to yourself? And just -- does --

A Yes. I -- I read it. This is why you're using -- you wanted to use the word "servicer fee" versus "management fee."

Q Yes.

A Okay. I -- I read it.

Q Okay. So when you signed this agreement, did you understand that Acis was agreeing to pay to Highland a portion of the servicing fees that it was going to receive from serving as the portfolio manager of the CLOs?

A Yes.

Q And do you see at the end of Section 1, there is a reference to Schedule A?

Page 39

A Yes.

Q Can we take a look at Schedule A? I think it's the last page of the document. It's not the -- it's not the last page of the document. It's the page right after the signature page. It's 16 of 22, ending in Bates Number 8912.

A Yes.

Q So let me see if I understand this. This is the Schedule A that's referred to Section 1 in the agreement that we just looked at, right?

A Yes.

Q And these are the -- there's a list of CLO issuers in the left-hand column, and then there's a column called Total Servicer Fee; do you see that?

A Yes.

Q And the total servicer fee are the fees that Acis was going to receive from the issuer in exchange for managing the CLOs, correct?

A Yes.

Q And the next two columns show how that fee would be divided between Acis and Highland, fair?

A Yes.

Q So that servicer fee retention amount is the amount that Acis was going to retain as its portion of the total servicer fee that it expected to receive from the issuer, correct?

A Just, I don't want to get tripped up in the exact words, so I'm going back to page 4.

Q Take your time.

A It looks like the gross amount minus the retention is the servicer fee payment amount, which is --

Q Right. Okay.

A -- which is that second column, I guess.

Q Right. So the last column, the Acis Participation Interest, that is the amount of the total servicer fee that Acis was agreeing to pay to Highland, fair?

A I thought it was -- I thought it was saying the opposite of that. Hold on. Servicer fee payment is the aggregate minus the retention amount. The aggregate minus the retention amount, so --

Q Try this just one more time and say that --

A In the aggregate minus, so it's one -- Column 1 minus Column 3 equals Column 2.

Q Correct. Or Column 1 minus Column 2 equals Column 3. You could go either way, right?

A Yeah. Yes.

Q Okay. And the last column, the Acis Participation Interest, that's the portion of the total servicing fee that was supposed to go to Highland, correct? Under this agreement?

A Sorry. That -- but one -- one goes to Highland, and one goes to Acis, right?

Q That's right. And it's servicer fee retention amount that goes to Acis, and it's the Acis participation interest that go to Highland, right?

A Let's make sure we get that right. Yes. It's the Acis participation amount that goes to Highland.

Q Okay. So in exchange for the Acis participation interests, as set forth in Schedule A, Highland agreed to give some cash and a note; is that right?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And that's set forth in Section 1.1, if you go to that.

A Okay.

Q Okay. So am I correct that when you signed this document, you understood that Acis would give to Highland the participation interest set forth in the last column of Schedule A, and in exchange, Highland would give to Acis the cash purchase price and the note described in Section 1.1?

A I -- I believe that was the -- the economics, yeah.

Q Okay. Is it your understanding that nobody could get any of the tax benefits that you described earlier unless you had this exchange of cash in the form of the Acis participation interests on the one hand, and the payments that were required under Section 1.1 on the other hand?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: Yeah. I -- I don't -- I don't have an awareness of the nuts and bolts that it -- it takes to be bona fide for tax purposes. But it -- it's something that our internal lawyers and accountants would've always vetted and gotten an opinion with outside tax counsel, too.

MR. MORRIS: Okay. Let's take this down, and let's put up -- actually, hold on one second. The mote may be attached to this document. Oh, it's unsigned. Let's take this down. And let's put up and mark as the next exhibit -- thin.

k it's Exhibit 4, tab number 3?

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Yes, sir. Exhibit 4.

(Exhibit 4 marked for identification.)

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. So you'll see up on the screen, what's been marked as Exhibit 4 is a promissory note dated

Page 43

October 7th, 2016, in the principal amount of $12,666,446.

Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q And if you scroll down, you signed this promissory note, right?

A There we go again. There's the whole thing.

Q The next-to-the-last page. It's page 5 of 6.

A Yes.

Q Okay. And then what you did when you signed this document is, you obligated Highland to make the payment forth on Exhibit A, correct?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: I think he's talking about the next page.

MR. MORRIS: Yeah.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Exhibit -- after the signature page, there's another. There's one more page.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. And this note and that cash payment that we just looked at in Section 1.1, those were given to Acis in exchange for the promise of the future stream of servicing fees that we just looked at in the last column of the participation agreement, right?

A Yes. I believe that was the economics.

Q Okay. And if we go back to the top of the document, you know, the principal amount of the note is 12 -- I'm just going to call it $12.6-plus million.

Do you know how that amount -- when combined with the cash payment that was due under Section 1.1, do you know how that amount was calculated?

A No. I wouldn't have been involved with that. But again, that's where there's a give and take on the variables and to be compliant with the tax code and to provide some cushion and IRR, relative to the fee stream on the other side. But -- but how that note -- how that number is calculated, I -- I have no specific awareness or no specific involvement at all.

Q Do you know, if you added the cash payment with the principal amount of the note, whether that would've equaled the servicing fees that Acis was to give Highland under the participation agreement? Were they supposed to be equal?

A I don't know. But my memory of other transactions in the past is that typically, it's not equal. There's, you know, again, some kind of cushion or present value or interest component to it, also. But -- but I -- I don't know. Let me just leave it at, I don't know.

Q Okay. Do you know if the cash flow between the two entities -- subject to the participation agreement, were they supposed to at least approximate each other?

A Can you guys hear me? You guys kind of zapped in and out there for a second.

Q I can hear you.

A Okay. Was the question approximately? Was that the question?

Q Yep.

A I -- I'll say, in the ballpark. I -- I don't want to use the word "approximately," implying that it's close, because I don't think it's necessarily close.

Q Do you know if there's any relationship between the cash payment and the principal amount of the note and the cash flow that Highland expected to receive from Acis under the participation agreement? Is there any relationship between those two numbers at all?

A Yeah. Well, the same answer I've been giving. I mean, subject to time, value of money, a cushion, an interest rate, IRS tax code, there -- there's a bunch of variables that go into setting it. And I -- I don't -- I -- I don't know the -- I don't know the tax laws, but again, it's something that is done with the internal accountants and outside opinions and et cetera. But I'm not the person involved in any of those details.

MR. MORRIS: Okay. I'm just going to move to strike.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q And I'm just -- it's a really simple question. Do you know if there's a relationship between the cash flow that was expected to go from Acis to Highland and the cash flow that was supposed to go from Highland to Acis?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: Wow. Okay. You want to strike my last answer? I'll just give you a short one. No.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Thank you very much. What was the benefit to Highland from entering into the participation agreement and signing the promissory note?

A Benefit? Again, my understanding is, these are structured to provide tax benefits to both sides that are reflected either in the tax benefits themselves or the present value of the note being higher than otherwise. There -- there's a tax benefit to all parties, as I understand it.

Q Okay. Can you describe the tax benefit to Highland from this transaction?

A Tax deferral and recharacterization.

Page 47

Q And have -- can you quantify the benefit?

A No.

Q Did you ask anybody, before signing this document, what the monetary benefit would be to Highland from entering into this transaction?

A I did not.

Q Do you know what Highland's expected rate of return was from entering into this transaction?

A I do not.

Q Did you -- do you recall if you asked anybody what Highland's expected rate of return would be from entering into this transaction?

A I did not.

Q Do you recall if anybody ever told you what Highland's expected internal rate of return would be from entering into this transaction?

A I do not.

Q Have you ever entered into a transaction with a third party without knowing what the projected rate of return was?

A When I'm saying I did not know, I'm not saying that the organization didn't know, or accounting didn't know, or the tax department didn't know. I'm just saying I didn't know. And yes, organizationally, there are transactions that occur that I do not know the present value of, but other people in the organization do.

Q Could you -- would you -- would you have authorized Highland to enter into the same participation agreement on the same terms with a third party?

A Boy. I -- I believe part of the process with the external accounting firm and our internal compliance department checks and verifies those things.

Q I'm just asking you if you could envision doing a similar transaction with a third party?

A Yes.

Q Can you identify a third party with whom Highland did a similar transaction?

A Well, you asked me, could I envision it? The answer was yes. I -- I don't have a specific example, though.

Q Based on your understanding of the tax benefits that were to inure to both Highland and Acis, as well as their ultimate beneficial owners, would those tax benefits have existed if they weren't affiliated parties? If they didn't have common ownership?

A Yes. And -- and these kind of transactions happen in the market quite often.

Q Okay.

A Because it's a -- it's a way for a startup money management firm that has a -- a promise of fees, but needs capital for its next deal, to monetize those fees so it can do a subsequent deal. It -- it -- these kinds of structures are common among CLO managers. And these kinds of structures are common in real estate and other businesses, too.

Q Would Highland have entered into this agreement, and would you have signed this promissory note, if Acis wasn't on the other side of the transaction?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: Sure, if there was a business relationship or a business reason.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Whose idea was it to enter into this transaction?

A I believe it came from the tax accountants.

Q And who were the tax accountants?

A I -- I don't know which. It's a group. I don't know which one.

Q Is it Mark Patrick?

A I don't know.

Q What other tax accountants were there in the fall of 2016?

A There is a department of four or five. There was another senior tax accountant named Rick Swadley, and then there were two or three other tax accountants.

Q Do you recall, when we looked at paragraph 1.1 of the participation agreement, there was a cash component and the note component, right?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And the note -- so the note was an integral part of the participation agreement, fair?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q You can answer.

A It -- it was.

Q Right. You would never have signed this promissory note on behalf of Highland if you didn't receive the promise to receive the servicing fees from Acis under the participation agreement, right?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I mean, it was essentially a trade of promises, and one side wouldn't have signed it if they didn't get the promises of the other side, and vice versa.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Exactly. So just to be really clear, as the person who signed the participation on behalf of Acis, you would not have done that for Acis if Highland didn't promise to give the cash payment and the note, correct?

A I believe, yes, that was the promises on the Highland side.

Q Okay. And taking it in reverse, you were also acting on behalf of Highland. And you would not have agreed to give to Acis the promissory note and that cash payment without Acis promising to give to Highland the share of the participation agreements that we saw in Schedule A, fair?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I mean, yes. Those were promises on the other side, correct.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. Can we -- if you scroll down to the bottom of the note -- I think it's the bottom. Yeah, the last -- the amortization schedule on page 6. Tell me when you're there, Mr. Dondero.

A I'm having a hard time getting it. I'm on page 5.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: That's weird. Okay. Something is -- it's not you. It shows up on mine. Okay. That's really weird. On mine, you can see Exhibit A. On Jim's, you can't. There it is. Okay. Got it.

MR. MORRIS: Thanks, Deborah.

Page 52

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: That was weird.

THE WITNESS: Okay. I see the amortization schedule.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. So under this agreement, Highland was supposed to make a principal and interest payment of approximately $3.37 million on May 31st, 2017.

Do you see that?

A Yep.

Q Do you know if Highland made that payment?

A I don't know.

Q Do you know if Highland made any of the payments on this amortization schedule?

A I don't know.

Q Did you ever direct anybody to make any payments on this -- that are set forth on this amortization schedule?

A I was not involved.

Q Did you ever direct someone not to make any of the payments that were due under this note?

A I did not.

Q Do you know if Acis ever paid to Highland any of the servicing fees that were described on Exhibit A to the participation agreement?

A Just based on the timeline before the injunctions, the state injunctions, the threats of the injunctions, the bankruptcy, there probably were some. But I -- I don't have an awareness of how many or what amounts.

Q Did you ever direct anybody on behalf of Acis to make any of the payments that were due under the participation agreement?

A No. I wouldn't have been responsible for administering the agreement.

Q Do you know -- did -- do you recall if you ever directed anybody not to make any of the payments on behalf of Acis under the participation agreement?

A I did not.

Q Did you ever delegate to anybody the responsibility for making the payments that were due under the participation agreement and the promissory note that we're looking at?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: Not specifically.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Would it have been Frank Waterhouse's -- withdrawn.

Are you aware that Frank Waterhouse was the chief financial officer at Highland at the time?

A Yes.

Q Were you aware that Mr. Waterhouse was also the treasurer of Acis at the time?

A I was not aware.

Q Can you think of anybody other than Mr. Waterhouse who would have been responsible for overseeing the administration of the participation agreement?

A I -- I even think he would have delegated that to somebody below his level.

Q Do you know who he delegated it to?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I have no idea.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Acis had no employees of its own, correct?

A Post Josh leaving, I believe that's correct.

Q Okay. And Acis was able to fulfill its obligations as the CLO portfolio manager by entering into shared services and sub-advisory agreements with Highland, correct?

A Correct.

Q And Highland received a fee from Acis in exchange for those sub-advisory and shared services, correct?

A I don't know. I -- I don't know where -- when those began and ended, you know, subject to the same bankruptcy and injunction stuff. I don't know.

Q Well, before the bankruptcy, do you recall that you signed Amended Shared Services and Sub-Advisory Agreements on behalf of Highland and Acis?

A You're testing my memory. I -- I believe that was part of the Acis case. I -- I think there were some adjustments post-Josh leaving.

Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Can we put up on the screen -- let's mark, as Exhibit 5, tab Number 12.

(Exhibit 5 marked for identification.)

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q And, Mr. Dondero, you'll see that this is the Fourth Amended and Restated Shared Services agreement between Acis and Highland. It is dated March 17th, 2017, and if you went to the page towards the back -- hopefully you're able to get there.

Can you confirm for me that the page ending in Bates Number 9092 has your signatures on it?

A 22. Page 22, yes.

Q Yes. Those are your signatures, right?

A Yes.

Q And so in March 2017, you personally authorized both Highland and Acis to enter into the Fourth Amended and Restated Shared Services Agreement, correct?

A Yes.

Q And you did that because at the time, you expected Acis to continue on as the CLO manager, correct?

A I don't recall the reason.

Q You don't know why you signed this document?

A Correct.

Q Is it fair to say that you wouldn't have signed this document if you didn't believe that Acis was going to continue to serve as the portfolio manager for the CLOs?

A That's not fair.

Q I've heard and seen some allegations that the Acis brand was toxic. Have you heard that phrase before?

A Yes.

Q Now, Josh Terry had left Highland in June of 2016, correct?

A Yes.

Q And the litigation was started in the fall of 2016, correct?

A Yes.

Q And this agreement is entered into in March 2017, correct?

Page 57

A Yeah. Is that the date on it? If -- if it is, I'll agree to it.
Q Yes. It's on the first page.
A Okay.
Q If you want to just -- did you have any reason to believe that the Acis brand was toxic at the -- at the time you signed this agreement?
A It was -- it was pretty --
Q Withdrawn. Withdrawn. I need to lay a foundation.
Did you ever believe that the Acis brand was toxic?
A Yes.
Q Did you -- when did you form that belief?
A The -- at -- on the onset of the litigation. The -- the litigation was -- you know, it was -- it was, like, Petrofsky litigation. It was sensationalized with a lot of claims and, you know, et cetera. But no -- no investor would want to get involved with an entity that was a shell entity that no longer had employees, but was wrapped in that kind of litigation.
Q When did -- when did the shell entity lose its employees?
Q Was he the only employee that Acis had?

Page 58

A I believe so.
Q And how did you learn that the Acis brand was toxic?
A I -- I believe the firm that first coined that adjective was Goldman, when they were approached to reset or refinance the deals.
Q And when you refer to Goldman, you're referring to Goldman Sachs?
A Goldman Sachs CLO Group, yes.
Q And when did Goldman Sachs CLO Group get involved in a potential reset; do you recall?
A I -- I don't. But it would have been -- I -- I don't. It -- roughly early on after Josh left.
Q Are you aware that Goldman was negotiating with Highland concerning a potential reset of the Acis CLOs as late as October 2017?
A I -- I believe there were ongoing discussions for an extended period of time. I -- I don't know when it began and ended.
Q Were you involved in those discussions?
A I was not.
Q Do you have any personal knowledge as to whether Goldman Sachs stated that it would decline the opportunity to participate in the reset of the Acis CLOs because the Acis CLO brand was toxic?

Page 59

A That's essentially what I got from the business people who were trying to do it.
Q Which business people are you're referring to?
A I can't recall who was heading up investments at that point.
Q Can you identify any person who ever told you that they had been informed by Goldman Sachs that it would not participate in the reset of the Acis CLOs because Goldman Sachs had concluded that the Acis brand was toxic?
A I can't remember. I can't remember specifically. But it would have been whoever was heading up investments, the credit team, at that point in time.
Q Did you ever -- did you -- do you recall the communication? Did you ask any questions?
A I -- I took it at face value. It made sense.
Q Did anybody explain to you why Goldman Sachs believed that the Acis brand was toxic?
A Again, I think it all hearkens back to the litigation.
Q And do you know if Goldman Sachs actually expressed the concern that the resets might constitute a fraud joint transfer?
A I've never heard that.

Page 60

Q Have you ever been told that Goldman Sachs expressed the concern that transferring the CLO management agreements in the midst of the litigation might constitute a fraud joint transfer?
A I never heard that.
Q Okay. When did anybody acting on behalf of Highland or Acis ever suggest to Goldman Sachs that the resets be done with an entity other than Acis?
A My recollection is, that was the recommendation of Goldman Sachs and our internal people.
Q Did you ever see that in writing, sir?
A I don't -- I don't know. I don't recall. We don't have -- we don't have access to that stuff.
Q Well, do you recall signing a number of different agreements with a couple of different entities concerning potential resets of Acis CLOs?
A I -- I don't recall. But if we engaged investment banks to perform a service, it's logical I would've been the signatory.
Q And in fact, following Mr. Terry's arbitration, the issuance of the arbitration award in Mr. Terry -- in Mr. Terry's favor, steps were taken to replace Acis with HCLOM, LLC, correct?
A I don't recall.
Q Okay.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: I'm sorry to interject, but can we take a short break pretty soon, sir?

MR. MORRIS: Yeah, sure. We can take a break. It's 12:40 Central, I think. Why don't we just take a 10-minute break and come back at 12:50 Central?

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Great. Thank you, sir. I'm taking us off the record.

(Off the record.)

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Back on the record at 12:57 p.m., Central Time.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q All right. Mr. Dondero, are you ready to proceed?

A I am.

Q Can you hear me okay?

A Yep.

Q Okay. Going back to Goldman Sachs for a moment, did you ever see anything in writing from Goldman Sachs on the topic of Acis's alleged toxicity?

A Not that I recall.

Q And as you sit here right now, you can't recall the person who told you that Goldman Sachs stated that the Acis brand was toxic; is that fair?

A I -- it was either -- it was either -- I -- I just don't remember. It would've been whoever was running credit. It would've been, you know, Trey Parker or Jon Poglitsch. It would've been one of those two people, I believe.

Q Okay. Other than Goldman Sachs, did you ever hear of any other person or any entity using the phrase "toxic" to describe Acis following Mr. Terry's departure?

A I -- I'm trying to -- I -- I think we -- it was generally accepted as -- as true on its face by everybody. And I -- I believe it was the opinion of every other investment banker we talked to, also. But I -- I don't -- I don't have a specific recollection. That is my general -- my general memories.

Q Did you personally ever hear an investment banker describe Acis as toxic?

A I didn't have the conversations with the investment banks.

Q Okay. Did you ever see anything in writing from any investment bank that suggested Acis was toxic?

A I wasn't involved in those communications.

Q Can I ask a question? Can you identify any investment bank other than Goldman Sachs that you recall learning had described Acis as toxic?

A Again, consistent with what I just said, whoever else we would've been talking to besides Goldman.

Q Okay. So this is Exhibit 5. This was the shared services agreement. Do you recall that at the same time, you also signed an Amended and Restated Sub-Advisory Agreement between Highland and Acis?

A I -- I don't -- I don't recall specifically, but I do remember the shared services agreement was amended.

Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Let's take this down. And let's mark tab 13 as Exhibit 6.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Hang on. I don't see -- is there supposed to be a little yellow sticker on that ,electronically? There wasn't one.

MR. MORRIS: Yeah. There was one on the upper left corner, the first page.

THE WITNESS: On the front page.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Oh, okay. It's just not on my screen.

THE WITNESS: Okay. We're just not on the last page. Only on the front page. So it was --

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Okay. The last.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: See what it was. Thank you.

(Exhibit 6 marked for identification.)

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. So up on the screen, you have the Third Amended and Restated Sub-Advisory Agreement between Acis and Highland, which is also dated March 17, 2017.

Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q And if we scroll down, I think to the -- let's see. The page with -- it's 15 of 21, ending in Bates Number 7798.

Can you just confirm those are your signatures?

A Yes.

Q Okay. So do you recall that from the day you signed these two agreements on March 17th, 2017, beginning on that date, Highland provided shared services and sub-advisory services in accordance with those agreements until some point in the Acis bankruptcy?

A I -- I believe so. I have no reason to think it didn't.

Q Okay. And as we discussed earlier, at some point during the Acis bankruptcy, Mr. Phelan gets appointed as the Chapter 11 trustee for Acis, correct?

A Yes.

Q And do you recall that sometime after that, Highland is replaced by Brigade as the service provider to Acis?

A Yeah. I -- I believe that's true.

Q And to the best of your recollection, did Highland provide to Acis shared services and sub-advisory services from the date of this agreement until the date that Brigade took over?

A I really want to -- I want to be careful here not to just say yes to that. Brigade did the portfolio management, I believe, or provided the RIA for Josh to be involved in the portfolio management, I guess. Or -- or anyway -- but I'm not -- I'm not sure if they took over the other services and the shared services or if Highland kept doing those or not. I -- I just want to be careful, but I -- but the asset management or portfolio management by Highland did cease when Brigade took over. But I -- I don't know if -- the shared services agreement in its entirety.

Q Let me -- I appreciate the distinction, and never trying to trick you. Let me try and ask it in a more palatable way. From the time that the shared -- withdrawn.

From the time you signed the Amended and Restated Shared Services and Sub-Advisory Agreements, Highland provided services (indiscernible - audio disruption) until an orderly transition was effectuated, by which those services were provided to Acis by some third party; is that fair?

A I -- it -- yeah. It's my belief we -- we adhered to and honored the contract.

Q Okay. I want to go back in time. So the -- these agreements are signed in March of 2017. And while these agreements are being prepared and signed and executed and administered, Mr. Terry's arbitration is going forward.

Do you remember that in the early part of 2017?

A I -- I don't recall.

Q Did you testify in the arbitration?

A I believe so.

Q Okay. And do you remember who else testified on the Highland side in connection with the arbitration?

A Thomas Surgent. Mark Okada. I -- I don't recall who else.

Q Do you remember if Isaac did?

A I -- I wasn't there for every day. I -- I don't have a specific recollection.

Q Okay. Do you recall, at some point in October, the panel issued the award in favor of Mr.

Terry?

A I -- I remember it, but it was against a very limited number of entities.

Q Right. Highland was one of them, right?

A No. I thought it was just Acis.

Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Let's take that document down. Let's mark, as Exhibit 7, tab Number 4.

(Exhibit 7 marked for identification.)

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Yeah. You could be right about that. And do you see, up on the screen, there's a document that's been marked as Exhibit 7? It's dated October 20th, 2017, and the cover page discloses that it has attached the final award executed by the arbitrator.

Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q Okay. Did you ever read the final award that was issued by the panel in the Josh Terry arbitration?

A I did not.

Q To this day, you've never read it?

A Correct.

Q Can we go to the third page of the document, which is -- no, I apologize. It's page 3 of the document, which is page 4 of 28.

A Yes.

Q No. Apologies. Page 3 of 28. The panel was -- it was a panel of three that administered the arbitration; is that right?

A Yes.

Q And they were all retired, at least to the best of your knowledge, correct?

A Yes.

Q Do you know how they were selected?

A I do not.

Q Do you know if Highland had any role in the selection of the three arbitrators in the Josh Terry arbitration panel?

A I have no idea.

Q Is it fair to say that Highland had a fair opportunity to present its case?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I -- I don't want to -- I don't know. I don't want to comment on that.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Was Highland precluded from offering into evidence any evidence that it wanted to offer?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I don't know.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Page 69

Q Did anybody ever contend that all or any member of the panel was biased in favor of Mr. Terry?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: I -- I don't have any awareness.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Did anybody ever suggest that any member of the panel was biased against you or Highland?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: I don't have any awareness.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Okay. It was a pretty lengthy hearing, wasn't it?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: I -- I don't know. I don't know what lengthy is in an arbitration or arbitration panels.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q All right. If we go to the next page, you'll see that at the top, it refers to hearing dates in September. It's listed there. It's 10 hearing days.
Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q And so were you aware that, you know, for a number of days in September 2017, this arbitration with

Page 70

Mr. Terry was being litigated in Dallas?
A Yes, I was aware.
Q Okay. Are you aware of any of the findings of the panel?
A The -- my -- my recollection is that it was -- that the entities with any balance sheet or -- or any substance were all struck and that the only entity that it was awarded against was Acis.
Q What do you mean when you refer to the balance sheet?
A No. I'm just saying all the -- let me say it differently. Myself, Okada, Highland were all removed from the culpability list, and it was just Acis that received the negative award or -- or just -- it -- it was just a finding against Acis. That's my recollection.
Q And are you familiar with the findings?
A No. That was my recollection. That's how it was -- that -- my recollection of how it was explained to me.
Q Okay. Let's go down to page 21 of the document. Let's see. This is the -- it's page 22 of 28 on the PDF.
A Yes.
Q All right. So this is the panel's findings and conclusions. Do you see that?

A Yes.
Q And it states, among other things in that first paragraph, quote, "To the extent the findings and conclusions differ from any of the party's position, that is the result of these arbitrators' determinations as to the credibility, relevance, burden of proof, consideration, and the weighing of the evidence, both oral and written."
Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q I just want to cover a few of these. Looking down at Number 5, were you aware that the panel found and determined, quote, "Highland's termination of Terry's employment was not, in fact," quote, "for cause"? Highland's stated, quote, "for cause termination of Terry's employment was, in fact, pretextual and for the purpose of denying Terry benefits of employment, payable at his termination and as a basis for the forfeiture of the value of Terry's limited partnership interest in Acis"?
Have I read that fairly?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: That's what it says. It says what it says.

Page 72

BY MR. MORRIS:
Q And is this the first time that you're learning that the panel made that finding?
A No. I -- I knew -- I knew that. We didn't agree with that, but I knew that's what they had found.
Q Okay. And is it fair to say that you don't agree with any of the panel's findings here in this section of the document?
A I didn't say that.
Q All right. Let's just go through a few more. Number 6 on the next page says, quote, "Acis and Acis GP knowingly and willingly invoked Highland's false pretense of," quote, "for cause termination to deny Terry the value of his 25 percent limited partnership interest."
Did you know of that finding before I read it just now?
A No. I -- I - 6 kind of dovetails into 5. They're one and the same, really.
Q Okay. And were you aware that that finding had been made back in 2017?
A Yes.
Q I know you said that you didn't read the award. Did anybody describe the award for you at the time it was rendered?

Page 73

A I mean, just -- just what I've really said so far, that they -- I know they gave him an award against Acis, but it wasn't against other related entities. And they knew Acis was a partnership without assets.

Q Who knew Acis was a partnership without assets?

A The -- the arbitration panel.

Q What did -- what's your understanding of how the arbitration panel learned that Acis was without assets?

A That was part of the presentation. I -- my recollection is, the reason why Josh Terry tried to tie in a bunch of other entities was because he knew Acis had no assets, and Acis was allowed -- permitted bona fide, reconstituted after he left. So he sought to add Highland, myself, Okada, and other entities in, which were ultimately all stricken.

And again, my recollection -- you know, arbitration is supposed to be for all purposes, including, the way my lawyers described it, including collections, you know? So you know, the -- the lawyers thought it was highly inappropriate to file Acis for involuntary, and my lawyers thought it was highly inappropriate for Jernigan to remove it from arbitration.

Q And your lawyers had an opportunity to appeal her decision to the District Court, correct?

A I believe, yes. And I believe they -- I -- I believe they sought all remedies that they felt were possible.

Q And the District Court agreed with Judge Jernigan that it was appropriate to file the involuntary petition under the circumstances, correct?

A I -- I don't -- I don't remember.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: I don't think we've run into a problem yet, but as we go forward, if Mr. Morris asks you questions that relate to Highland's privilege, Highland has waived it. If he ever tries to ask you about communications between you and your lawyer personally, those are not waived. But just --

THE WITNESS: Okay.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: -- as he asks the questions, think about whether he is asking you Highland, or you, Mr. Dondero.

THE WITNESS: Sure.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Did Acis ever have any assets?

A Nothing meaningful. I -- I don't believe ever more than working capital or a million bucks or something.

Q Was the promissory note that you signed on behalf of Highland pursuant, to which you paid -- you agreed to pay Acis over $13 million when you had the cash component, was that an asset of Acis's?

A Yeah. You know what? Let me -- let me not -- other than the promises both ways regarding the promissory note, there weren't significant other assets at Acis. And -- and how exactly the note or promises to pay were accounted for, I -- I don't know.

Q Well, you made a statement that the panel knew, and Josh knew, and everybody knew that Acis had no assets. And I'm just asking you what I think is a fairly simple question.

From your perspective, was the note an asset of Acis's?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Asked and answered.

THE WITNESS: Yeah. You know, let me answer that by setting a context for a second. I think his judgment was only $8 million, but I think the amount that he sought in arbitration was hundreds of millions of dollars. And relative to hundreds of millions of dollars, there was no meaningful assets, even if you include the notes and a million dollars of other stuff. And so in that context, he was trying to include a whole bunch of other defendants, who were ultimately dropped or ultimately found to be not involved. That -- that's my recollection.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. I'm just asking you --

MR. MORRIS: I'm going to move to strike --

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q And just ask, simply from your perspective as Highlands president and as the majority owner of Acis, did you understand, prior to the issuance of the arbitration award, that the note that we looked at earlier was an asset of Acis?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to form.

THE WITNESS: I believe the note would have been properly accounted for on both parties books. I -- I don't know how it was accounted for.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q You're a CPA, sir, right?

A Yes.

Q And wouldn't it -- wouldn't you have expected, as a CPA, that the note would have been carried as an asset on Acis's balance sheet, with a corresponding liability for the amounts that were due under the participation agreement?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: Again, they're -- they're promises to pay, and this was -- was a -- a tax-driven structure. You know, the -- the note itself stands on its own, and promises to pay stand on their own. They're -- they're not -- if -- if they were directly tied, it wouldn't pass muster as a tax transaction.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q So on behalf of Highland -- so I just want to make sure I understand your testimony correctly. On behalf of Highland, you knowingly signed a promissory note for the benefit of Acis.

And it's your understanding that Highland would have the absolute obligation to pay whether or not Acis performed under the participation agreement? Do I have that right?

A Yeah. I mean, absolutely. That's the basis for the -- the transaction. And when you were asking me all the questions of why the amounts don't equal exactly, et cetera, it -- it's for a present value, handicapping the value at risk, handicapping the likelihood, et cetera. And that's why the numbers don't match. But -- but the -- the notes very much -- the note very much stands on its own, regardless of the promises to pay.

Q So even if even if Acis breaches and doesn't pay Highland a penny, Highland still must pay the face amount of the note? That's your --

A Yeah. I mean, absolutely. I mean, I'm sure there's legal consequences for the failure to pay, as promised, the fees. But the note says what it says, and it stands on its own.

Q Are you at all familiar with the concept that if one party materially breaches their obligation, the other party to the contract is relieved of performing? Is that news to you?

A Yeah. I'm -- I'm not a lawyer. It's -- the right to offset directly or indirectly is -- we deal with it at the bank sometimes. But that's not a -- that -- that's not an ironclad or only remedy under a certain -- again, I'm not a lawyer, but it -- I -- I don't -- I don't believe that it works like that.

Q Okay. About two weeks after the panel entered this award that we're looking at, you signed an Assignment and Transfer Agreement on behalf of both Highland and Acis, correct?

A You asking me to agree with the dates? Or I --

Q Do you recall that? Do you recall that just after the Terry arbitration award was issued, you signed an agreement on behalf of Highland and Acis called a -- an Assignment and Transfer Agreement? Do you recall that?

A Yes.

MR. MORRIS: Okay. So let's put up on the screen Exhibit 8, which is tab Number 5.

(Exhibit 8 marked for identification.)

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q All right. Do you see this is a document that's called Assignment and Transfer Agreement? It's dated as of November 3rd, 2017?

A Yes.

Q And it's between and among three entities. Do you see, it's Acis, Highland, and HCLOM? HCLOM Limited?

A Yep.

Q Okay. And if we could go down to, I think, the last page, can you confirm that you signed this document on behalf of both Highland and Acis?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And do you recognize the signature under HCLOM Limited?

A No.

Q Have you ever heard the name John Cullinane?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Is that how you -- are you sure that's how you pronounce it, John?

THE WITNESS: Are you talking about

Kinoyer (phonetic) that still works at Highland? No.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q No.

A Okay.

Q It's spelled C-U-L-L-I-N-A-N-E. I'm told it's pronounced Cullinane, but it could certainly be pronounced some other way.

A I -- I don't have a -- a recollection at this point.

Q Did you ever hear of Summit Management Limited?

A I -- I can't recall as I sit here right now.

Q Do you know why an entity called Summit Management Limited is signing this agreement on behalf of HCLOM?

A I do not.

Q Did you ever -- so you don't recall anybody by the name of John Cullinane, do you?

A I -- I do not, at this moment.

MR. MORRIS: Deborah, if you're familiar with another pronunciation, can you share that with me?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: I've heard it as Cullinane.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Does that cause you to change your answer, Mr.

Page 81

Dondero?
A No. It doesn't jar my memory.
Q Okay. I'm just going to ask you a few questions. Given what you've just said, I take it that you have no recollection of ever meeting John Cullinane or anybody acting on behalf of Summit Management or HCLOM Limited, correct?
A Not today.
Q Okay. And you don't recall, as you sit here today, ever speaking with Mr. Cullinane, the person who signed this document on behalf of Summit Management and HCLOM Limited, correct?
A Not today, no.
Q And as you sit here today, you don't recall ever exchanging any e-mails with that person, correct?
A I do not.
Q Do you have any recollection of ever communicating with him in any manner prior to today?
A I do not.
Q Do you know if there was somebody at Highland who was responsible for communicating with Mr. Cullinane or anybody acting on behalf of HCLOM Limited in connection with this particular agreement?
A My general recollection is, the vast majority of contact with any Cayman-related entities was handled by the internal lawyers, the setup and administration by the -- the setup and governance by the internal lawyers. The accounting or administration would subsequently get handed off to the accountants. But the -- the setup and the governance, and governance being approvals or actions, would be done by the internal lawyers.

Q Can you identify any internal lawyer who was responsible for handling this particular agreement?
A It would've been Surgent or somebody on his team. It would've been Surgent or Kinoyer, or there was a woman -- a -- a woman lawyer that worked for us for a number of years who was a big part of that group, too. I can't remember her name. But it was the three of them that typically handled the corporate formation and formation, governance, and stuff.
Q Do you know if this agreement was negotiated in any way with HCLOM Limited?
A I was not involved.
Q Do you know why HCLOM Limited signed this agreement?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Withdraw the question.
Since you've never spoken with Mr. Cullinane, did you ever speak with anybody who was authorized to act on behalf of HCLOM Limited in connection with this agreement, prior to the time it was executed?

A I did not.
Q Did anybody ever share with you anything that anybody ever said, who was authorized to act on behalf of HCLOM Limited, with respect to this document before you signed it?
A Not that I recall.
Q Okay. We can go back to the top of the document and again, you know, to the extent -- we urge you to take your time and do so.
Do you recall this document before?
A No.
Q Do you recall if you read it before you signed it?
A No.
Q You don't recall if you read it, or you're pretty sure you didn't?
A I don't recall if I read it.
Q Again, take your time and look at the document to the extent you think it would be helpful, but my question is kind of a simple one.
Do you have an understanding of what the purpose of the document was? From Acis's and Highland's perspective, the entities on behalf -- on whose behalf you signed it?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: It's replacing ACIS as portfolio manager. It's, I think, captured in that succession, paragraph Number 1.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q So is it your understanding that you signed this document for the purpose of having HCLOM Limited succeed Acis as portfolio manager?
A It says what it says, but that's what it appears to say to me.
Q Okay. And at the time you signed this, was it your expectation that Highland would continue to receive the servicing fees that were set forth in the participation agreement, in exchange for the payments that were due under the note?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: I -- I didn't have a particular opinion regarding that at the time of this. Not that I can recall.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q When you bound Highland to this agreement, what -- did you expect Highland to receive a benefit? And again, you can take your time to read the document.
A I don't recall.

Q As you sit here today, can you identify any benefit that Highland was expected to receive when it signed this document?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: The question was any benefit that Highland receives?

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Yeah. Let me restate it. When you signed this document, what benefit, if any, did you expect Highland to receive?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I mean, Highland is not a party to this, right? Are you -- are you talking about HCLOM Limited or --

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Highland is a party to this agreement.

A Wait a minute. Yeah, there it is. But I'm trying to see where they're referenced in here. Again, I'm not a lawyer, but what it appears to say is the -- the appointment of a HCLOM as portfolio manager, replacing Acis.

But then it's reciting that the assignment of the -- and transfer of the promissory note and the obligations of the stabilization payments or promises is part of the transfer. That's -- that's what it looks like it's saying to me. But again, it's -- I'm not a lawyer. I didn't draft it. That's -- I probably even shouldn't be giving my interpretation, but that's -- that's about all I can say about it.

Q Okay. But other than reading it right now and sharing your interpretation of it, do you have any recollection as to why you signed this document on behalf of Acis and Highland?

A What's the date on this thing?

Q November 3rd. That's 10 days or two weeks after the Terry arbitration award?

A I don't know. I don't know if it was part of the formal transfer process that -- I -- I don't know. I have -- I have no idea. I don't want to speculate.

Q I appreciate that. And you can't, you know, other than reading the document and interpreting it as you sit here right now -- withdrawn. No commentary.

Do you have any recollection, at the time you signed the document, of what benefit you expected Highland to receive from entering into this agreement?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: The extent that the CLO platform were to refinance, reset, or grow in the future, Highland would benefit either directly or indirectly with sub-advisor fees or management fees directly. I -- I mean, that's -- it looks like it's laying the groundwork for that, but --

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q And if you look at Sections 3(B) and (C), which I know I have up on my screen, wasn't it intended that Highland would receive the servicer fees regardless of whether Acis or HCLOM Limited served as portfolio manager of the CLOs?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. Repeat the question, please?

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Sure. If you look at Section 3(B) and 3(C), wasn't those -- wasn't -- aren't those sections intended to give assurance to Highland that it would continue to receive its servicer fees, regardless of whether Acis or HCLOM, Limited, was serving as the CLO portfolio manager?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: See, I don't -- I don't want to provide an interpretation, but it -- it -- again, I'm not a lawyer. But it looks like it -- it's just trying to make sure the promises and the obligations of Acis transfer to the new entity.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. Do you know if Highland ever actually received any benefit from entering into this agreement? I want to take it out from the theoretical and what was expected to -- what actually happened.

As the, you know, co-founder and president of Highland until January 20th -- until January 2020, do you know if Highland ever received any benefit from entering into this agreement?

A What I said, the part that perplexes me, I -- I don't know early on what payments were or weren't received. But all payments that Highland got or didn't get, Highland knew 100 percent of when they settled with Josh Terry. The settlement of Josh Terry would've been negligent if it didn't incorporate this.

Q Okay. So let me ask another question, then. Can you -- as you sit here today, can you identify any -- anything of value that HCLOM Ltd. ever provided to Highland, pursuant to this agreement? Forget about Acis.

A I believe there were shared services fees, if nothing else, away from -- away from the Acis agreement.

Q Do you believe that HCLOM Ltd. had a shared services agreement with Highland at any time?

A I -- I don't know. Just -- but typically, the asset management agreement comes along with a shared services agreement for the accounting and the other things.

Q Do you know if HCLOM Ltd., ever signed a management agreement?

A I -- I don't know between what typically happens and then what got clogged and derailed or detoured in the Acis parade of state actions, injunctions, bankruptcy, and then halted in the Highland bankruptcy, I don't know what amounts were actually paid or stayed or not.

And I wouldn't be in a position to know, but you guys have all the numbers and all the documentations. You guys would know. We were just doing everything when we could and when we were allowed to honor the agreement and the path of getting towards the agreements.

Q All right. So this agreement is signed on November 3rd, 2017, and you are in control of Highland until January 2020.

And my question is really simple: Do you have any knowledge of anything of value HCLOM Limited gave to Highland during the period, November 3rd, 2017, through the time you relinquished control of Highland in January 2020?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

Page 90

THE WITNESS: Yeah. I mean, for -- again, just to state it, there were other things going on besides being in control of Highland. There was the Acis injunctions and the Acis things going on. I don't know the particulars regarding what amounts went back and forth. I -- I don't know the answer.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Do you know -- do you have any knowledge that HCLOM Limited, ever paid one penny to Highland in the history of the world?

A I -- I wouldn't be in a position to know whether it was a penny or a hundred million.

Q Okay. Is it fair to say that you have no personal knowledge that HCLOM Limited ever gave anything to Highland -- anything of value to Highland, pursuant to this agreement?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: Same answer. I'm not in a position to know whether they received a hundred million or a penny.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Or zero, right?

A Or zero. I don't know.

Q Thank you. And now I just want to take it beyond this agreement. Same question, though: Are you aware of anything of value that HCLOM Limited, ever gave to Highland for any reason?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I -- I don't have an awareness.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. I appreciate that. Do you know if HCLOM Limited had any obligations under this agreement? I don't want to go through that same process again.

At the time that you signed this agreement, did you have any understanding that HCLOM, Limited, was undertaking any obligations or duties to Highland or Acis?

A I think it says, in the beginning there, it's essentially taking on the obligation to the CLOs, right?

Q And that's the --

A (Indiscernible - simultaneous speech) manager.

Q Okay. Do you know -- sorry.

A No, that's -- so sorry. So -- but as manager, the CLO, then, there are fees and sub-advisor fees and administrative fees that flow off of that, right? Anyway.

Q Okay. Do you know if HCLOM Limited ever had any employees?

A No. I -- I believe it wasn't an RIA, either.

Page 92

And I -- I think that's why there had to be an establishment of the LLC version of the (indiscernible - audio disruption).

Q Did you just use the acronym RIA?

A Yes.

Q And does that stand for? Registered Investment Advisor?

A Yes.

Q And is it your understanding that HCLOM Ltd. never became a registered investment advisor?

A I don't know that for sure, but I'm just saying, typically, it is the domestic entities that we have that are registered. And it's typically domestic entities that have the employees.

Q Do you know if a foreign entity is able, under U.S. law, to be a registered investment advisor?

A I -- I don't know the answer to that.

Q Okay. But you would agree that, to the best of your knowledge, HCLOM Ltd. never became an RIA, correct?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I don't know that for sure.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q I understand that you don't know it for sure, but you have no knowledge, as you sit here today, that

Page 93

HCLOM Limited ever became a registered investment advisor, correct?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I -- I do not know.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Thank you. Do you know if HCLOM Limited ever entered into a shared services agreement with Highland?

A I don't know.

Q Do you know if HCLOM Limited ever entered a shared services agreement with anybody?

A I don't know.

Q Do you know if HCLOM Limited ever entered into a sub-advisory agreement with Highland?

A I don't know.

Q Do you know if HCLOM Limited ever entered into a sub-advisory agreement with anybody?

A I -- I don't know what the relationship was with the LLC domestic version. I don't know whether it was a sub-advisory or a transfer. I don't know.

Q Okay. If we go back to the first page of the agreement, there's some recitals there.

A Yes. Yep.

Q Okay. The third one down says, "HCM -- " and HCM is the defined term for Highland that we've been using. It says, "HCM has notified Acis that HCM is unwilling to continue to provide support personnel and other critical services to Acis with respect to the CLOs." And it's defined -- that's defined as the notification.

Do you see that?

A What -- what page is that on? I'm sorry.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Yeah. I'm --

MR. MORRIS: It's the first page. It's the very first page.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: What document are you -- what document are you asking him to look at?

MR. MORRIS: I'm still on the -- I'm still on Exhibit 8, the Assignment and Transfer Agreement.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Okay.

MR. MORRIS: And I'm looking at the third whereas clause, under the recital of the first page.

THE WITNESS: Yes. Yep. Yep. Yep. "Whereas Highland is notified." Yep.

MR. MORRIS: Okay. So you're with me now?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. Mr. Dondero, do you have any personal knowledge concerning the notification, as that term is defined in the third whereas clause?

A Well, do I have any awareness of it, or do I -- what was the --

Q Personal knowledge. Yeah. Do you know anything about that personally?

A No. Not -- no.

Q Okay. Do you know who and -- who notified -- who gave the notification to Acis on behalf of Highland?

A No, I do not.

Q Do you know who received the notification from Highland on behalf of Acis?

A No, I do not.

Q Do you know why Highland was unwilling to continue to provide support personnel and other critical services to Acis with respect to the CLOs?

A I don't know. I'm guessing -- no, I don't want to guess. It -- not viable, no employees, toxic. But I don't -- but I don't know.

Q Did the arbitration award -- did the issuance of the arbitration award have anything to do with the entry into this agreement?

A Not as far as I know.

Q Did the issuance of the arbitration award have any impact on the perceived toxicity of Acis?

A I don't know. I don't remember.

Q Did Acis have the financial wherewithal to satisfy the award that was granted to Mr. Terry? Withdrawn. Let me ask a slightly different question.

Do you recall whether Acis had the financial wherewithal to satisfy the arbitration award that was issued to Mr. Terry on the day it was rendered? On October 20th, 2017?

A I don't know.

Q Do you recall if Acis's inability to satisfy that award was a factor in the decision to enter into this agreement?

A No, I -- I don't know.

Q Did you ever consider loaning Acis money so that it could satisfy the award that was rendered in Mr. Terry's favor?

A No.

Q You did cause Highland to loan money to affiliates from time to time, correct?

A Yes.

Q In fact, you caused Highland to loan money to Acis from time to time, correct?

A Yes.

Q Do you know how much money Acis would have needed in order to be able to satisfy Mr. Terry's arbitration award?

Page 97

A Roughly. Roughly, but not specifically.
Q Did the entry into this agreement leave Acis -- withdrawn.
Did the entry into this agreement have any impact on Ace's ability to satisfy Mr. Terry's arbitration award?
A I don't know.
Q Do you understand that by entering into this agreement, Acis was both losing the benefit of the payments under the note, but being relieved of the obligation to share servicing fees pursuant to the participation agreement?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: No.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Is it your understanding that this agreement is neutral to Acis?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: I -- I don't have an opinion.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Now, you have no view as to the impact of this agreement on Acis?
A I do not.
Q You did sign this agreement on behalf of Acis, right?

A Yes.
Q Did you expect Acis to receive a benefit from signing this agreement when you signed it on its behalf?
A Well, it -- it was more driven out of necessity.
Q Okay. But did you expect Acis to receive any benefit from signing this agreement?
A It was more out of necessity that Highland wasn't providing the service anymore for Acis to continue to function.
Q And who made that decision on behalf of Highland?
A I don't know.
Q Was it anybody other than you?
A It wasn't me.
Q Did you ever ask anybody who authorized Highland to notify Acis that Highland was no longer willing to provide services?
A Like I said, this whole -- the whole relationship with Josh Terry was being administered by legal, so it would've been someone in the legal department.
Q Did you have any interest at all as to how these issues were being managed?

Page 99

A Yes, but I trusted the legal department.
Q Do you know why you signed this document?
A Yes.
Q Why did you sign this document?
A Because I was an authorized signatory, and this was the administration of the agreements recommended by the legal department.
Q And who in the legal department recommended that you sign this?
A Going back to -- it would've been Tom Surgent and his group.
Q Did Scott Ellington play any role in advising you with respect to this document?
A Not that I recall. Again, he was the overall general counsel. The legal, and particularly the Josh Terry relationship and litigation, was handled by Thomas Surgent and his group. It was Thomas Surgent who impressed or didn't impress the -- the JAMS panel.
Q And what's your basis for that?
A He was the lawyer that testified on behalf of Highland.
Q You testified, too, didn't you?
A Yeah, but not regarding legal claims and -- and for cause, not for cause, et cetera. That was all Thomas Surgent.

Page 100

Q Okay. So I'd have to ask Mr. Surgent what the purpose of the agreement was; is that fair?
A I -- I would start there.
Q Okay. Can you share with me any advice that Mr. Surgeon gave to you before you signed this document?
A Not that I recall.
Q Can you share with me any advice you received from anybody before you put pen to paper on this document on behalf of Highland and Acis?
A Nope. Not that I recall at this point.
Q Can you tell me who was authorized on behalf of Highland to notify Acis that Highland was no longer willing to perform services?
A I don't know.
Q Was anybody other than you authorized to act on behalf of Highland in terms of giving notice of termination of services?
A Yes.
Q Who was authorized to do that without your authority?
A Again, this was all being administered by legal with some support from accounting and some support from tax. But it was all administered by the legal department.
Q Well, I appreciate that. I'm just asking you if you can recall who you authorized in the fall of 2017 to terminate shared services agreements without your prior knowledge and approval?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: Yeah. Again, I -- I point you back to Thomas and his group.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. So Thomas had the authority, without obtaining your knowledge or approval -- withdrawn.

Thomas had the authority, without obtaining your prior approval, to terminate intercompany service agreements. Is that your testimony?

A Yeah. I mean, he is administering the -- the documents in a way that's permissible, that he believes is the best way to effectuate an outcome or strategy. It's -- it's well within his realm.

Q Okay. I'm not talking about the administration of a document. I'm talking about the termination of a document.

Is it your testimony --

A Yes.

Q -- your --

A Yeah. That's -- well, that's exactly what I'm saying. He is just using -- there's -- there's an overall partnership agreement. There's a strategy of replacing a toxic advisor. There's a strategy in terms of getting there. That's all within his realm of responsibility and authority, including canceling the -- the service agreement with Acis.

Q Do you know that he did that?

A It -- it was him and his team. It wasn't -- it wasn't me. I wasn't that deeply involved in this.

Q Did anybody ever tell you anything about the notification, as defined in the third whereas clause? Did anybody ever tell you before you signed this document that the notification had been given?

A I can't recall specifically at this time. I -- I can't -- I'm not -- I'm not saying someone did mention it, but I can't remember specifically or remember who.

Q Do you know if anybody ever gave written notice of termination of the shared services and sub-advisory agreements that we looked at earlier?

A I don't know, but -- I don't know, but that -- that stuff tends to move in tandem. But I don't know.

Q Okay. Let's look at the --

A I'm -- I'm no longer on the screen. Can you guys see me on the screen? I can't see myself anymore.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Yeah, I was just about to mention your screen is --

Page 103

MR. MORRIS: Frozen.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Let me take us off the record for just a moment, if that's all right.

MR. MORRIS: Yes, please.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Okay. Taking us off the record.

(Off the record.)

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: We are now back on record. Sorry.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. Back on the record. Mr. Dondero, would you agree with me that the substance of the next whereas clause says that, as a result of the notification as defined, Acis has to identify a successor portfolio manager?

A I'm sorry. So "Whereas Acis has determined the effect of the notification"? Is that the paragraph?

Q Yes, sir.

A Yes.

Q Okay. And in the -- in the next whereas clause, it says, "HCLOM, a qualified successor manager." Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q Okay. Do you have an understanding of what it means to be a qualified successor manager?

Page 104

A No. It's defined, the indenture to CLOs, but I -- I don't know it off the top of my head.

Q Would being a registered investment advisor be one of the attributes of a qualified successor manager?

A Not necessarily.

Q Do you believe that an entity could serve as the portfolio manager of CLOs without being a registered investment advisor?

A I think Siri has been doing it for quite a while. Yes.

Q You do?

A Yes. Unless it specifically says it in the CLO indenture, there are managers out there that aren't registered investment advisors.

Q Do you know -- I'm sorry. I didn't mean --

A No. I was just saying, at least there used to be.

Q Did you ever check the indenture to see what the qualifications were to be a qualified successor manager for purposes of the Acis CLOs?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I did not.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Do you know if HCLOM Limited was, in fact, a qualified successor manager?

Page 105

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: I do not know.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Did you know, at the time you signed this agreement, whether HCLOM Limited was a qualified successor manager?
A I believed, as presented to me by staff that I trusted, everything was accurate when I signed it.
Q Okay. But nobody told you that HCLOM Limited was a qualified successor manager, correct? You just believed that?
A I -- I didn't focus on it. I didn't have specific knowledge.
Q Okay. Would you have signed this agreement on Highland's behalf if you knew that HCLOM Limited was not qualified to be a successor manager?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: If I had thought anything was inaccurate, I wouldn't have signed it. And I would have asked for it to be corrected.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Do you see, in the same clause, it then says that HCLOM "irrevocably commits to be appointed as successor manager, in consideration of Acis assigning to it the note"?

Page 106

A Yes.
Q And is that your understanding of what the deal was? That HCLOM Limited would become the successor manager, and Acis would transfer the note to HCLOM?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: I mean, it says what it says. I -- I'm reading it for the first time.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q But you don't have a recollection as to -- you don't have a recollection as to whether or not that was the substance of the transaction that's embodied in this document; is that fair?
A Other than it says what it says.
Q Okay. Do you know if HCLOM Limited was ever appointed as successor manager?
A I don't know.
Q Do you know if HCLOM Limited ever took any steps to become the successor manager?
A I -- I believe we took steps to do everything we said we were going to do and were only -- only stopped or paused or derailed based on injunctions, state actions, threat of injunctions, the Acis bankruptcy, or the Highland bankruptcy. But I -- I believe we moved in good faith on all the documents that we signed.

Q Would you agree with me that HCLOM, LLC, is not a party to this particular agreement?
A It doesn't appear to be. It doesn't appear to be.
Q When you talk about the steps that were taken to create a successor to Acis, do you know whether those steps involved HCLOM Limited or HCLOM, LLC?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: Yeah, I don't -- I don't know specifically.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Did either one ever become the successor manager?
A I -- I don't -- Jernigan's injunction, I think, prevented a lot of things from happening, but I don't know if -- I thought Acis 6 took a different path. I just remember that vaguely, but I -- I don't know if that was enough to make these different entities applicable. I -- I don't know the answer.
Q Do you know if the decision was made prior to the filing of the Acis bankruptcy that HCLOM, LLC, and not HCLOM Limited would be established for the purpose of serving as the successor portfolio manager?
A I don't know.
Q And I apologize if I asked you this, but you have no knowledge that HCLOM Limited ever became the successor manager, correct?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: I -- I don't know.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Okay. You wouldn't have signed this agreement on Highland's behalf if you knew HCLOM Limited was not qualified to become a successor manager, fair?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: I -- I think I answered that. If there were any errors or anything I thought was erroneous or inconsistent, I would've not signed it and asked it to be corrected and as accurate as possible.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Did you take any affirmative steps to make sure that this agreement reflected the facts that existed at that time?
A No. I -- I trusted -- I trusted internal counsel.
Q Did you ask internal counsel any questions about this document before you signed it?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
I think that's actually the third time.
THE WITNESS: Yeah. No. No, I did not.

Page 109

BY MR. MORRIS:
Q You're familiar with the phrase "quid pro quo," fair?
A Yes.
Q Okay. What is your understanding of that term?
A That it was part of a -- an action was part of a -- a trade or a barter.
Q When you signed this agreement, did you understand that the quid pro quo was that HCLOM Limited would step into Acis's shoes and share the portion of the servicing fees that was to remit to Highland under the participation agreement, in exchange for the stream of revenue that was contemplated under the Highland note?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: Yeah. I didn't have an understanding that -- I didn't have an understanding of that, or I didn't have an understanding that this changed the previously negotiated note arrangement.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q I didn't mean to suggest that it did. In fact, was it your understanding that this agreement was intended to simply let HCLOM Limited step into the shoes of Acis?

Page 110

A That was my general understanding.
Q Do you know who's managing this litigation today on behalf of HCLOM Limited? Who is the person -- not counsel, but who other than counsel is managing this on behalf of HCLOM Limited?
THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Oh, I think we might have lost --
THE WITNESS: Nope.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Do you know, Mr. Dondero?
A No. I don't know. Can we take a break soon and have an idea of how much longer you think you got?
Q Sure. Just a couple more questions. So today, as you sit here today, you don't know who's managing this litigation on behalf of HCLOM Limited, correct?
A I do not.
Q Did you ever ask anybody?
A No.
Q Do you have any understanding who the officers of HCLOM Limited are today?
A No.
Q Do you have any understanding as to who owns HCLOM Limited today?
A No.

Page 111

Q Do you have any understanding as to who is authorized to act on behalf of HCLOM Limited today?
A No, I do not.
MR. MORRIS: Okay. I'm happy to take a break now, if you'd like. If I had to guess, I would say 90 minutes. So it's 3:19.
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: 90 -- hold on. 90 minutes would be four and a half hours. I thought you had committed that this would be no more than four.
MR. MORRIS: Deborah, if you want to cut me off, you are free to cut me off. If I take four and a half hours instead of four, you're free to do that. I will note you took a 20-minute break before instead of a 10-minute break, but I think that would --
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: No, no. John, I'm not I'm not talking about actual hours on the clock. I'm looking at the -- on the record. I don't think that counts --
MR. MORRIS: Deborah, if you want to cut him off after four hours, you can do that, and I will reserve my rights. That's all. I'm giving you an estimate of --
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: I'm just reminding you of your promise, John.
MR. MORRIS: Okay. And it's not a promise. It's an estimate, and you should know that better than anybody.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: No, no. Actually, this time, because of the schedule --
MR. MORRIS: Let's take a break.
THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Okay. I'm going to take us off the record.
(Off the record.)
THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: We are back on the record at 2:35 p.m., Central Time.
MR. MORRIS: Great.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q So, Mr. Dondero, this Assignment and Transfer Agreement that's entered into among HCLOM Limited, Acis, and Highland is signed early November 2017, right?
A Yes.
Q And at around the same time, work is being done to either reset or refinance the Acis CLOs, right?
A I believe so.
Q Okay. And you were involved in that process, were you not?
A I was not.
Q No? What is a reset?
A A -- a reset is where you exchange and reprice the liabilities, assuming you still have enough equity to do so, or you resize the deal accordingly.

Q Is that different than refinancing?
A I'm sorry. What?
Q Is that different than a refinancing for this purpose?
A Is that different than a refinancing? Essentially -- essentially, it's one and the same.
Q Okay.
A A reset -- reset is a slightly easier version.
Q Okay. And at this time that the resets and the refinancings are being contemplated, you understood that the -- that one piece of that was that Acis would be replaced as the CLO portfolio manager, correct?
A Yes.
Q Okay. And if Acis were to be replaced as the CLO portfolio manager, did you understand that Acis would no longer have the right to receive the management fees or the servicing fees that we discussed earlier?
A Yes, when the -- when the resets or the refis were complete.
Q And the entity that would receive the management or servicing fees that we discussed, that would be the successor to Acis? The successor portfolio manager, right?
A Yes.

Q Okay. Do you know who decided to pursue the resets on behalf of the Acis CLOs in late 2017?
A Some combination of the senior investment professionals and the legal staff. The deals themselves had paid down a significant amount, and the Acis brand was toxic. So the effort to refire reset involved, you know, resetting the interest rates, releveraging as much as possible, and moving away from the Acis brand.
Q Did you play any role in the decision to reset the Acis CLOs?
A I was aware of it. You know, I signed things that were put in front of me, authorized the plan that the lawyers and the investment people had to make it happen, but I -- I wasn't involved in the details.
Q But do you know who made the decision? Who gave the instruction to the team to pursue the resetting of the Acis CLOs?
A I -- I think, on their own -- on their own, the investment professionals knew that it was necessary and needed to happen. And then, you know, the adjusting and how to operate within the Acis L.P. agreement and the CLO agreement was the counsel of the legal guys on how best to do it.
Q But do you know who said, I authorize and instruct you to pursue the resetting of the Acis CLOs?

Do you know?
A I -- I think the thing I keep dancing around; I'll say explicitly. It wasn't me. From a top-down basis, it was the business people knowing and realizing it needed to happen as responsible portfolio managers. And then you had the input of and counsel of the legal folks how to do it, and then you had input from the marketplace saying that the Acis name was toxic and non-marketable. It wasn't -- it wasn't top-down genius from my desk. It was obvious, normal course of business for the investment professionals.
Q I appreciate that those are the reasons that supported the decision. I'm asking you if you know, and if you don't, that's fine.
But do you know who made the decision to do this? Who was -- withdrawn.
Do you have any understanding as to who was authorized to make the decision, on behalf of Acis, to reset the Acis CLOs?
A In -- in the CLO management agreements, it's the CLO manager who has the ability to reset and refinance the CLOs.
Q Do you know, as you sit here today, who the CLO manager was?
A It depends on different points in time, right?

Page 116

I mean, there was Acis when Josh Terry was on board. There was Acis when Josh Terry was out. And then there's the intention to move it to the ALCM LTD or LLC that happened or didn't happen or partially happened, you know, along the way.
Q Right. I'm talking about a very specific moment in time, November 2017. It's just after Josh Terry obtained his arbitration award. It's at the same time that you signed this Assignment and Transfer Agreement on behalf of HCLOM Limited. You signed it on behalf of Highland and Acis, rather.
And the question is really pretty simple: At that moment in time, do you know who was authorized to have Acis reset the CLOs?
A I don't know specifically.
Q Is there a list of people from whom you believe would have had the authority to cause Acis to reset the CLOs, or you just don't have -- you can't name anybody?
A It's the same answer I've been giving, I think, for half an hour now.
Q I'm asking for specific names. You haven't given me one name, sir. I apologize. I don't mean to interrupt, and I don't want to be contentious.
I'm just asking you if you can identify a human being who you believe, in November 2017, had the authority to direct Acis to reset the CLOs?

A I -- I've given the names before. I'll give them again. On the investment side, it was Trey Parker or John Poglitsch. I don't remember who was in charge and -- or who was delegated to working on the CLOs, but those were the senior investment people. They reported to Mark Okada. I don't know if he was involved or not, but I've given those names at least once before, if not twice.

On the legal side, it was the people reporting to Thomas Surgent. And I've given these names at least once or twice before. It was Tim Cornyn (phonetic), and then there was a woman that no longer works for us who was a very good corporate lawyer, and she handled a lot of the document formation, company formation, company administration, et cetera. But she was a little bit more junior than Tim Cornyn and Thomas Surgeon.

And they -- they would've been -- they would've been among those five people, six people orchestrating the resets or the refis of the CLOs, which, again, is obvious on its face as they deliver, and their cost of debt is too high. It wasn't a brilliant -- brilliant observation from the top down of me ordering anybody to do anything.

Q Were any of the people that you just named ever an officer or employee of Acis?

A I don't know.

Q Do you know what the source of authority would've been for them to engage in the conduct we're talking about? And that is directing Acis to reset the CLOs.

What would the source of authority have been?

A I mean, there's multiple sources. If it was Okada, I think he would've been an officer of Acis somewhere. If it was the investment people, the investment people on some sub-advisory or -- or sub-management agreement would've been responsible for the portfolio and administering the structure, which would include refinancing, whatever.

So I believe they would've felt they had adequate authority, and then I think the lawyers could do what was in the best interest of the investors that got materially harmed and damaged by enduring its injunction. And the investors who would've benefited from a reset, it was their responsibility, if not a fiduciary responsibility, to do what was in their best interest.

Q But you had absolutely nothing to do with the approval of this, right?

Page 119

A Like I've said, I'm the signator. There aren't a lot of signators around here, so I probably sign a hundred things a week. And I -- I rely on -- especially on an administrative or legal side, I -- I rely on counsel.

Q Okay. Do you recall that Mizuho was engaged to serve as agent in connection with the resetting and refinancing the Acis CLOs in November 2017?

A I remember their name. I -- I thought they were going to be in conjunction with Goldman. I thought they were going to be party of the underwriting syndicate. That's my recollection. But maybe they were looking at it from an administrative agent standpoint.

MR. MORRIS: All right. Let's mark, as Exhibit 9, what we have, Andrea, as tab 14.

(Exhibit 9 marked for identification.)

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q You will see this is a letter agreement between Mizuho and HCLOM, LLC. It's dated November 15th. And if we could just scroll down to the end, Mr. Dondero, let me see if I can find the exact page number. 12 of 19.

Is that your signature, sir?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And again, if we go back to the top -- don't want to step on your toes at all. If you could just take a -- maybe a look at the beginning and tell me if you recall ever reading this document before?

A I do not.

Q Okay. Do you recall ever signing an agreement with Mizuho that related to the Acis CLOs?

A Okay. This is refreshing me on an issue that was an issue in terms of the refis or the resets. I think, on the refis, you needed to be compliant with the new --

Q The risk retention rules?

A Yeah, the new risk retention rules. I think, on a reset, you didn't need to, but on a refi, you did. But it looks like there -- this transaction -- yeah. "Engages the Placement Agent to act as sole financial arranger." So it looks like Mizuho was in competition with Goldman to be placement agent in terms of refinancing the restructures.

Q Okay. And you signed this agreement on behalf of HCLOM, LLC, correct?

A I'm getting there. C Level Management, LLC. Correct.

Q Okay. And if you go back to the first paragraph, HCLOM, LLC, is defined as the company. You take a look and confirm that for me?

Page 121

A LLC is defined as -- I'm sorry, what?
Q As the company. So in the first paragraph, you'll see a reference to HCLOM, LLC, and then there's a definition of the company. And I just want to make sure we're on the same page with that.
A Doesn't -- it -- it's not a defined term in that first paragraph. It just says, "the Company," right?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: You have to go on to the next --
THE WITNESS: Oh, okay.
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Yeah, there.
THE WITNESS: Highland C Level -- okay. I got it.
All right. So the company in the header is the company in the first paragraph, I guess, is what you're asking, which is LLC?
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Right. So HCLOM, LLC, is defined in this agreement as the company, fair?
A Yes.
Q Okay. Now, if you turn the page, we'll go down to the page to Section 2, Engagement of the Placement Agent. Would you agree with me that the first sentence essentially says that the co-issuers and HCLOM,

Page 122

LLC, engage Mizuho to act as the sole financial arranger and placement agent for the transactions and offerings described in the document?
A Yes.
Q Okay. Do you know where HCLOM, LLC, got the authority to engage Mizuho for this purpose?
A I do not.
Q Do you know why HCLOM Limited wasn't designated as the company for purposes of serving in this capacity in connection with the resets?
A I do not.
Q Does this document -- is it fair to say that under this document, if these transactions had occurred, then HCLOM, LLC would've served as Acis's successor manager?
A I -- I don't want to make a legal interpretation.
Q I don't want you to make a legal interpretation, either. I'm asking for facts. Was it your understanding, when you signed this document, that HCLOM, LLC was going to serve as Acis's successor manager of the CLOs?
A I'm struggling with the word "successor." I think this engagement letter says that the LLC will be the manager of whatever CLOs fall out of this engagement.

Q And Acis would no longer be the manager, correct?
A Depending upon how the deals were handled or --
Q And HCLOM Limited was not going to play any role in the transactions and offerings described in this document, correct?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: I don't know.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Well, you can take your time and review the document if you'd like.
A Well, I don't see their name mentioned here, but I -- it would be -- I don't see their name mentioned here. I would like to leave it at that. I -- I don't know -- I -- it's too much for me to say they would have no involvement.
Q Okay. So I'm going to ask two questions, then. As you review this document, you don't see any reference to HCLOM, LTD, correct?
A I do not.
Q And based on your recollection, you have no personal knowledge that HCLOM, LTD was ever going to play a role -- withdrawn.

Page 124

Based on your recollection, you have no knowledge that HCLOM, LTD was going to play a role in the transactions that are described in this document, fair?
MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.
THE WITNESS: I -- I don't have awareness.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Okay. Do you know why HCLOM, LLC was a signatory to this agreement rather than HCLOM, LTD?
A I do not.
Q Did you ever ask anybody why HCLOM, LTD wasn't signing this document instead of HCLOM, LLC?
A I do not.
Q Do you know if HCLOM, LLC ever succeeded Acis as the portfolio manager of the Acis CLOs?
A I -- like I said, I don't know how much that process was interrupted by the various other legal things that were going on.
Q But looking at this document, does that refresh your recollection that in November 2017, the expectation was that HCLOM, LLC would serve as the successor portfolio manager to Acis?
A That's what this document says, but I don't want to -- I don't want to extrapolate from that.

Q Okay. But you would agree with me that that's what this document says, fair?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q You can answer.

A Again, it says what it says, that the LLC would be the collateral manager.

Q Do you have any recollection of ever signing any document, other than the transfer agreement we looked at before, that contemplated that HCLOM, LTD would serve as Acis's successor portfolio manager?

A Not as I sit here today.

Q Okay. Let's go to page 3 and look at Section 3C. Do you see, in 3C, HCLOM, LLC represented, warranted, and agreed that it would, quote, "Act as collateral manager for the co-issuers"?

A (No audible response).

Q I'm just looking at C. We're only at one.

A Yeah. I see that.

Q Okay. And did you understand, at the time that you signed this document, that HCLOM, LLC was making this representation?

A I -- I don't remember.

Q When you signed the document, did you intend that Mizuho would rely on the representations and warranties in the document?

A I -- I didn't focus on them, but I do think people rely on reps and warranties.

Q Do you know what happened with respect to the transactions and the resets described in this document after it was executed?

A Other than what I've spoken to generally, I mean, I think it was derailed by legal actions. I'm not sure much happened at all.

Q Okay. Going to try and speed this up a bit.

MR. MORRIS: Let's take that down, and let's put up -- let's mark, as the next exhibit, tab 7.

(Exhibit 10 marked for identification.)

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. And you'll see, Mr. Dondero, this is a document entitled Standard Custodial Terms for Highland CLO Management, LLC, dated as of January 19th, 2018, by and between HCLOM, LLC and U.S. Bank National Association.

Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q And if we go down towards the bottom, I think we'll find the signature page. And if you can go to 26 of 29, that's your signature, correct?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And do you recall signing an agreement with U.S. Bank in January 2018 on behalf of HCLOM, LLC?

A No.

Q Do you know, looking at the document, if this was part of the contemplated reset of the Acis CLOs?

A I don't know. Was this ever executed or -- by their side or --

Q Yeah. We can go back --

A Okay.

Q -- to the bottom if you want.

A I just -- I saw my signature. I didn't see theirs, but --

Q Okay. Take your time.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Following page.

THE WITNESS: The following page. Okay. Uh-huh. Okay.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q So do you have any recollection of this document?

A No.

Q Do you have any recollection of entering into an agreement with U.S. Bank in January 2018 on behalf of HCLOM, LLC?

A No.

Q Do you know what role the custodian would play in the resetting of the Acis CLOs?

A Every deal needs a custodial bank. So on refis -- on resets, you don't typically change, I don't think. But on refinancings, you typically have a new custodial bank.

Q And the custodial bank plays a different role than the placement agent that Mizuho was going to play, fair?

A Correct.

Q Okay. Do you know why you signed this document at this time?

A I -- I assumed it was something that was necessary as part of engaging Mizuho or Goldman, that they wanted to know we had a custodial bank on board.

Q And is this consistent expectation that HCLOM, LLC was going to serve as Acis's successor as the portfolio manager of the Acis CLOs?

A I -- I think this is just setting up a relationship with a custodial bank. I'm not sure it's -- I think it's meant to be consistent with the entities in the agreements with Mizuho or Goldman, but it's not -- in and of itself, it's not a commentary on Acis versus something else.

Q Do you recall if there was -- do you recall any discussion in late 2017, early 2018, concerning whether HCLOM, LTD or HCLOM, LLC could or would serve as the successor portfolio manager to Acis?

A No.

Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Let's take that document down. Let's put up on the screen the next exhibit, which is tab 8.

(Exhibit 11 marked for identification.)

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. So this is just a one-page agreement. If we go to the second page, you'll see your signatures on behalf of Highland and Acis.

And then if we go to the last page, you'll see Mr. Kulani's (phonetic) name again on behalf of Summit, the director of HCLOM Limited; do you see that?

A Yes.

Q Okay. Have you seen this document before? Withdrawn.

Obviously, you did. You signed it, right? That's your signature. Those are your --

A Yes.

Q -- signatures we looked at?

A That is my signature.

Q Okay. Do you remember ever -- do you remember seeing this document before?

A No.

Q Do you recall if you signed -- if you read it before you signed it?

A I do not remember reading it.

Q Do you recall discussing it with anybody at any time?

A I do not.

Q Do you know what an -- what the purpose of the document is, now that you're looking at it?

A Again, it appears -- it appears to highlight the issue of risk retention rules that I -- I think influence how these transactions could be reset or refinanced, and I think also probably have something to do with the suitability or lack of suitability in -- on the part of Acis. I -- I --

Q So could -- I'm sorry?

A No. I was just going to say, I -- I don't remember the interplay of the issue. But it's something we'll get refreshed on, I guess --

Q Yeah.

A -- before -- before the trial. But there -- there was something to do with -- there was something to do with risk retention, and risk retention requires capital and requires new investment. And again, I -- I can't remember exactly, but I think it had something to do with the suitability, or lack thereof, of Acis on an ongoing basis.

Q Well, the second paragraph refers to the transfer agreement that we looked at earlier, right?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And the third paragraph describes certain obligations on the part of both Acis and HCLOM Limited, fair?

A Yep.

Q Okay. And you have no reason to believe that paragraph 3 is incorrect in any way, right?

A I -- I didn't when I signed it. I don't as I'm looking at it now, either.

Q Okay. Great. So the next paragraph says that both Highland and HCLOM acknowledge a number of things. And the first one is that they intend to reset the CLOs, fair?

A Yes.

Q B says that each reset has to comply with the U.S. risk retention rules, fair?

A Yes.

Q C says that to comply with the U.S. risk retention rules in connection with the resets, "Each applicable CLO issuer will appoint Highland CLO Management, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, as the collateral manager of such CLO"; is that right?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And then it continues, and D, "Therefore, none of the notices have been nor will be delivered pursuant to Section 1 of the transfer agreement, and none of the appointments have been nor will be made pursuant to Section 2 of the transfer agreement."

Have I read that?

A Yes.

Q So is it fair to interpret this as saying there's a cause and effect here? That because Highland CLO Management, LLC, is being appointed pursuant to the U.S. risk retention rules, that the notices and appointments set forth in Sections 1 and 2 of the transfer agreement won't occur?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: Are those notices referring to notices to Limited? Is that what they're referring to?

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q You can look up above and see, in the third paragraph, what they referred to. You know what? Let's take it in pieces. Let's look at that third paragraph.

Did you understand that, pursuant to the transfer agreement, Acis was required to promptly provide notice to the controlling class of each CLO?

A Yes, I see that.

Q And did you understand that as part of the transfer agreement, that was an obligation on Acis's part?

A I -- I don't specifically have awareness of that.

Q Okay. Are you aware of Acis ever promptly providing notice to the controlling class of each CLO, as that phrase is used in this paragraph?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I -- I have no awareness whether they did or didn't or had an obligation.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. The next sentence is -- says -- sentence that says that, after the delivery of the notices, "Each of Acis and HCLOM was required to promptly pursue an appointment for each CLO."

Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q Do you know if that ever happened? Did Acis and HCLOM ever promptly pursue an appointment for each CLO?

A I don't know.

Page 134

Q Okay. So now, going back to D, is it fair to say that the word "therefore" signifies that there's an effect that flows from C? And to be specific, is it fair to say that HCLOM, LLC, is going to be appointed as the collateral manager, and as a result, the notices and appointments contemplated by Sections 1 and 2 of the transfer agreement are not going to happen?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: Yeah. This is a legal document. I don't want to give a legal interpretation. You know, as a layperson, it appears to be a --

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q All right. So let me try it this way, then, because I'm certainly not looking for a legal conclusion. You signed this document on behalf of both Acis and Highland, correct?

A Right.

Q And you didn't read the document, correct?

A I did not read the document I was signing.

Q And you don't recall discussing the substance of this document with anybody prior to the time you signed it, fair?

A I did not. I do not.

Q Okay. Do you see, in the very last portion, it says, you know, taking the beginning, "Each of HCM and HCLOM hereby waive any breach of Sections 1 or 2 of the transfer agreement as applicable"? Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q Did you know when you signed this document that you were waiving breaches of the transfer agreement on behalf of Highland?

A I mean, this looks like document cleanup or clarification in the movement towards LLC from LTD. I did -- I did not have specific awareness that we were waiving a breach, but it -- it also doesn't strike me as material.

Q Okay. I'll move -- it's interesting that you don't want to play lawyer unless you do, right? Like, materiality is a legal conclusion; would you agree?

A Well, the materiality is a financial concept, you know? That's -- I -- I mean materiality in a financial way.

Q Okay. I appreciate that. Do you know what, if anything, Highland received in exchange for the waiver set forth in (indiscernible - audio disruption)?

A I -- I do not specifically.

Q Did you ever ask anybody why Highland was waiving breaches of the transfer agreement?

A I did not.

Q Did anybody ever explain to you what breaches occurred of the transfer agreement?

A No.

Q Did anybody ever explain to you what benefit there would be to Highland by waiving the breaches of the transfer agreement?

A No.

MR. MORRIS: All right. Why don't we take a five-minute break? I'll just have a few minutes more. I just want to look at my notes.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Sure. Taking us off the record.

(Off the record.)

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Back on record at 3:25 p.m., Central Time.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. Just a couple of questions, Mr. Dondero. Do you believe that Highland's objection to the claim -- to the scheduled claim that encompasses the note should be overruled? Do you think the Court should overrule Highland's objection?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I think it should be paid.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. And why do you think it should be paid, in your own words?

A It's -- it's a bona fide note. It had a tax angle to it. It's separate and distinct from when -- whether any of the fees are paid or not. In some ways, it's not unlike the note's case, where you guys argued that it was a bona fide note, you know, in and of itself, separate and distinct from anything else. Yeah. I mean, I don't know. That -- that's in a nutshell. I mean, again, it was -- it was done in good faith. It was a bona fide note.

But again, more importantly, Josh Terry had a $2 million claim when he left. He wrote me an eight-page heartfelt, handwritten note that he considered me like a father, and even though he only deserved a million or two, he should get paid four for having built the organization. He got awarded eight in the arbitration. He took out 15 initially, as much as 25 million out of Acis, all out of the hides of the investors. You guys gave him another 30 from the Highland estate. You know, he's -- he's parlayed a couple million bucks into 60 or 70, and he's suing me separately for another 75 million.

And when you guys settled with Acis and Josh Terry, you were 100 percent aware of the note, all the details around it, and that it was due, et cetera. And to the extent that Highland didn't get paid fees it might have, or could have, or should have that aren't directly related, but you want to make the argument are directly related, you, in essence, considered those or should have considered those in the Josh Terry, you know, unjust enrichment train.

Q Anything else?

A I'm sorry. You asked for my own words. Sorry if I rambled too long. That's it. No, that's all I got.

Q Okay. When you say that it's separate and distinct, are you saying the obligations under the note are separate and distinct from the obligations under the transfer agreement?

A That's our -- yes. It's separate and distinct from whether or not a penny of fees got paid or no fees got paid or whatever. Again, it was all something that was well known to Siri and the estate when you threw tens of millions of dollars at Josh Terry.

Q Okay. Anything else to add?

A That's it at the moment. Thank you.

MR. MORRIS: Okay. Thank you very much for your time, Mr. Dondero. Good to see you. Be well.

THE WITNESS: You, too. See you.

MR. MORRIS: Take care, folks. Bye now.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: There's

actually a couple questions that I need to ask before we go off the record, Mr. Morris.

MR. MORRIS: Okay.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: So the certified transcript is included in your order. I just wanted to confirm you wanted to be getting the transcript.

MR. MORRIS: Yes, please.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Okay. And I also wanted to confirm there was an expedite date for tomorrow, November 5th, 2024.

MR. MORRIS: Didn't quite need it that fast. I don't -- if you want to do that, that's fine because I don't mean to take money away from you. If you would be happier waiting until Friday, that would be okay, too. So I'll leave it to you. I'll take it tomorrow and pay for tomorrow if that's, you know, the deal, and that's what you want to do.

If you'd prefer a slightly more leisurely pace, you know, Thursday or Friday would be fine, too, okay?

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Okay. Perfect. So --

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: My two sense would be, if you don't need it expedited, John, don't order it expedited. Don't --

Page 140

MR. MORRIS: Please --

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: -- take money out of the estate to pay for the expedited.

MR. MORRIS: Please don't tell me what to do. Thank you.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: So would the 8th work all right for you, then, sir?

MR. MORRIS: Yeah, that would be great.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Okay. Perfect. Thank you.

MR. MORRIS: Thank you.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: And I'm sorry. Oh, and I -- Ms. Deborah, I'm so sorry. I don't want to mispronounce your last name. Would you like to purchase a copy of the transcript, ma'am?

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: Don't I get one, representing the witness?

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: From what --

MR. MORRIS: You know, that -- that's taking money out of his pocket, but you do what you want. I'll be sending you the transcript, and Mr. Dondero needs to read it.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: I'll take a -- I mean, I'll take -- I don't need it expedited. I'll take a condensed.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Okay.

MS. DEITSCH-PEREZ: But send me whatever I'm entitled to as counsel for the witness.

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Okay.

MR. MORRIS: All right, Kindel. Thanks so much. Anything else?

THE PROCEEDINGS OFFICER: Thank you. I think that's all that I need.

Thank you so much, everybody.

MR. MORRIS: All right.

(Proceeding concluded at 3:31 p.m., CT)

(Read and sign waived.)

ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSFER AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT FOR ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSFER OF PROMISSORY NOTE (this "Agreement"), dated as of November 3, 2017, is entered into by and between ACIS CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("Acis"), HIGHLAND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("HCM") and HIGHLAND CLO MANAGEMENT, LTD., a Cayman Islands exempted company ("HCLOM", and together with HCM and Acis, the "Parties"). Capitalized terms used herein but not defined have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Agreement for Purchase and Sale of CLO Participation Interests between Acis and HCM dated as of October 7, 2016 (the "Purchase Agreement" and the promissory note therein, the "Note").

RECITALS

Whereas, Acis is portfolio manager to certain collateralized loan obligations listed in Schedule A of the Purchase Agreement and is entitled to fee compensation in connection therewith as set forth therein (the "CLOs", the governing documents thereof, the "CLO Documents" and such fees, the "Servicer Fees");

Whereas, Acis and HCM entered into the Purchase Agreement, whereby Acis sold a portion of its future Servicer Fees to HCM in exchange for cash flows from HCM, in each case as set forth in the Note (such future Servicer Fees identified to be paid to HCM pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the "HCM Stabilization Fees" and such cash flows from HCM, the "Stabilization Payments");

Whereas, HCM has notified Acis that HCM is unwilling to continue to provide support personnel and other critical services to Acis with respect to the CLOs (the "Notification");

Whereas, Acis has determined that the effect of the Notification is that it cannot fulfill its duties as portfolio manager of the CLOs, and in order to ensure the continued operation of such CLOs and protection for its stakeholders, it must assign its rights as portfolio manager in the CLOs to a qualified successor portfolio manager pursuant to the CLO Documents (a "Successor Manager");

Whereas, HCLOM, a qualified Successor Manager, irrevocably commits to be appointed as Successor Manager in consideration of Acis assigning to it the Note, subject to the conditions set forth in the CLO Documents and pursuant to the terms herein;

Whereas, Acis is expected to incur significant costs and expenses related to ongoing claims and litigation to which Acis is either a party or is otherwise obligated with respect to such costs and expenses (the "Acis Legal Expenses"); and

Whereas, Acis also is expected to have ongoing accounting and administrative expenses (the "Acis Administrative Expenses" and together with the Acis Legal Expenses, the "Acis Expenses").

AGREEMENT

Now, therefore, in consideration of the promises and mutual agreements set forth herein, and in consideration of the mutual representations, warranties and covenants herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Succession. Acis shall promptly provide the Controlling Class (as defined in each of the CLO Indentures) with notice requesting the appointment of HCLOM as Portfolio Manager pursuant to the requirements of the CLO Documents (each, a "Notice" and the period between the Notice and an Appointment (as such term is defined below), the "Post-Notice Period").

2. Successor Manager. Subsequent to the Notices, each of Acis and HCLOM shall promptly pursue Successor Manager appointment of HCLOM in respect of each CLO, including but not limited to achieving all conditions precedent required by the CLO Documents in such respect (consummation of HCLOM's appointment as Portfolio Manager of a given CLO, an "Appointment").

3. Assignment and Transfer of the Promissory Note; Stabilization Payments.

   a. Effective immediately upon execution of this Agreement by the Parties, all right, title and interest of Acis under the Note, including the right to any and all Stabilization Payments not yet paid to Acis, are hereby irrevocably assigned and transferred by Acis to HCLOM, it being understood that from the date of such assignment, HCLOM shall become the "Payee" thereunder.
   b. For so long as Acis shall receive Servicer Fees following the date hereof, Acis shall remit to HCM the HCM Stabilization Fees pursuant to the Note Purchase Agreement.
   c. For so long as HCLOM receives any Servicer Fees following any Appointment, then HCLOM shall remit to HCM any portion of such fees that would otherwise have constituted HCM Stabilization Fees pursuant to the Note Purchase Agreement if Acis was the recipient of such fees.
   d. HCLOM shall sign a joinder to Note Purchase Agreement upon HCM's written notice thereof.

4. Expense Support. In the event Acis delivers written notice to HCLOM that Acis is unable to pay when due any Acis Expenses, then HCLOM shall promptly pay to Acis, or at Acis' written request, to Acis' creditors, the amount of such shortfall, provided that in no event shall HCOLM's obligations under this paragraph exceed greater than $2 million of Acis Legal Expenses in the aggregate, or greater than $1 million of Acis Administrative Expenses in the aggregate.

5. Indemnity. Acis shall and hereby does, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, advance, indemnify and hold harmless any Covered Person from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, costs, expenses, damages, losses, suits, proceedings, judgments, assessments, actions and other liabilities, whether judicial, administrative, investigative or otherwise, of whatever nature, known or unknown, liquidated or unliquidated ("Claims"), that my accrue to or be incurred by any Covered Person, or in which any Covered Person may be threatened, relating to this Agreement, including amounts paid in satisfaction of judgments, in compromise or as fines or penalties, and attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in connection with the preparation for or defense or disposition of any investigation, action, suit, arbitration or other proceeding (a "Proceeding"), whether civil or criminal (all of such Claims, amounts and expenses referred to therein are referred to collectively as "Damages"), except to the extent that it shall have been determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final nonappealable judgment, that such Damages arose primarily from fraud, bad faith or willful misconduct of such Covered Person. The termination of any Proceeding by settlement, judgment, order, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that any Damages relating to such settlement, judgment, order, conviction or plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent or otherwise relating to such Proceeding arose primarily from fraud, bad faith or willful misconduct of any Covered Persons. "Covered Person" means each of HCLOM and HCM, as well as each and every one of their affiliates (other than Acis), and all of HCLOM's and HCM's respective managers, members, principals, partners, directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents.

Re: ACIS CLO 2014-3, ACIS CLO 2014-4 and ACIS CLO 2014-5 Resets

Dear Sirs:

This letter agreement (together with all schedules, annexes, exhibits and attachments hereto, this "Agreement") confirms the terms on which each of ACIS CLO 2014-3 Ltd., ACIS CLO 2014-4 Ltd. and ACIS CLO 2014-5 Ltd., respectively (each, an "Issuer" and collectively, the "Issuers"), ACIS CLO 2014-3 LLC, ACIS CLO 2014-4 LLC and ACIS 2014-5 LLC, respectively (each, a "Co-Issuer" and collectively with the Issuers, the "Co-Issuers"), and Highland CLO Management, LLC, (the "Company" and together with its affiliates that are directly involved in the Transactions (as hereinafter defined), "Highland") hereby engages Mizuho Securities USA LLC. (the "Placement Agent" and together with its affiliates, "Mizuho") in connection with three proposed refinancing and reset transactions (each, a "Transaction" and collectively, the "Transactions").

Highland has advised Mizuho that the Company intends to initiate Transactions with respect to the refinancing of the Secured Notes issued by each of the Co-Issuers. The Company acknowledges that the final regulations implementing the credit risk retention requirements of Section 15G of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), codified at 17 C.F.R. Part 246 (the "U.S. Risk Retention Rules") will apply in connection with each Transaction. Each of the parties hereto acknowledges that Acis Capital Management, L.P. is the current collateral manager to the Co-Issuers, however in order to comply with the U.S. Risk Retention Rules and enhance the marketability of the Offered Notes (as hereinafter defined), as a condition to closing of the Transactions, Acis will be replaced by the Company, an affiliated registered investment adviser, as the collateral manager of the Co-Issuers.

1. The Transactions.

Each Transaction will involve, among other things, the sale, arrangement or placement, in a private transaction of replacement securities to replace the applicable Secured Notes (with respect to a Transaction, the "Offered Notes") in connection with a refinancing effected by the applicable Issuer in accordance with its indenture, on terms and subject to documentation acceptable to the Placement Agent and the Company.

2. Engagement of the Placement Agent. (a) Each of the Co-Issuers and the Company hereby engages the Placement Agent to act as sole financial arranger of each Transaction and sole placement agent for the offering of each of the Offered Notes (each, an "Offering"). Each of the Co-Issues and the Company agrees that it shall not appoint any third party as an additional financial arranger of the Transactions or as the Placement Agent or initial purchaser for any Offering without obtaining the Placement Agent's prior written consent to such appointment and to the terms of such third party's participation in the Transactions.

(b) The services to be provided by the Placement Agent in connection with its engagement hereunder will include, without limitation:

(i) Acting as initial purchaser or placement agent of the Offered Notes and managing each Offering (including managing communications with prospective investors).

(ii) Taking such incidental or related actions to assist the Company and each Issuer as the Company may deem to be appropriate, necessary or reasonable in connection with the such placement; and

(iii) Assisting in (A) preparing written materials for the preliminary marketing of the Offered Notes (together with any amendments or supplements thereto with respect to each Offering, "Marketing Materials") and (B) preliminary and final offering documents for the Offered Notes (together with any amendments or supplements thereto with respect to each Offering, the "Offering Documents" and together with the Marketing Materials with respect to each Offering, the "Disclosure Documents").

(c) Each of the Co-Issues and the Company acknowledges and agrees that the Placement Agent's engagement hereunder is not an agreement by the Placement Agent to purchase or place the Offered Notes or any other securities. The Placement Agent's agreement to place the Offered Notes will be set forth in a separate placement agency agreement between each Co-Issuer and the Placement Agent that is in the Placement Agent's customary form and that contains terms and conditions mutually acceptable to each applicable Co-Issuer, the Company and the Placement Agent.

3. The Company.

(a) Each Transaction will be effected at the direction of the respective Holders of the requisite percentage of the Subordinated Notes issued by the applicable Co-Issuer. The Company will use reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Holders of the requisite percentage of the Subordinated Notes in causing the indenture to be amended for the purpose of making such changes as will be necessary to issue the Offered Notes in connection with such Transaction.]

(b) For the avoidance of doubt, the Placement Agent's role as sole financial arranger and sole placement agent will not include acting as "arranger" for purposes of Rule 17g-5 under the Securities Act of 1934, as amended ("Rule 17g-5"). Each Co-Issuer has established and will be responsible for maintaining a website to comply with Rule 17g-5.

(c) The Company represents, warrants, acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) it will act as collateral manager for the Co-Issuers;

(ii) Mizuho shall have the right to approve all investor presentations, term sheets and offering memoranda furnished by or on behalf of any party to prospective investors in connection with the Transactions;

(iii) all Manager Provided Information (as defined below) is and will be true and correct in all material respects and does not and will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained therein not misleading in light of the circumstances under which such statements are made, in each case as of the date of such statements;

(iv) Mizuho may rely, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all information furnished by the Company to Mizuho in connection with the Transactions, including, without limitation, all Manager Provided Information, and that Mizuho does not assume any responsibility or liability therefor;

(v) it will assist Mizuho in completing a satisfactory preliminary marketing and offering of the Offered Notes in such manner as Mizuho may reasonably request from time to time, including, without limitation, providing prospective investors from time to time with reasonable access to the appropriate officers, accountants, legal counsel and other parties and facilities of the Company; and

(vi) (A) either it or its affiliate will be the "sponsor" (as defined in the U.S. Risk Retention Rules) of each Transaction for purposes of the U.S. Risk Retention Rules, (B) either it or an entity meeting the requirements for being a "majority-owned affiliate" (as defined in the U.S. Risk Retention Rules) will acquire and retain an "eligible horizontal residual interest" (as defined in the U.S. Risk Retention Rules) in each Transaction in a manner that complies with the U.S. Risk Retention Rules for so long as required to comply with the U.S. Risk Retention Rules, and (C) (1) it will cause to be provided to prospective investors each of the disclosures required under the U.S. Risk Retention Rules and such disclosures shall be included under the heading "Credit Risk Retention" (the "Credit Risk Disclosures") in the applicable Offering Documents, (2) it will cause to be provided a copy of such Credit Risk Disclosures to Mizuho at least one business day prior to the delivery of the applicable Offering Documents to prospective investors, (3) it will cause such Credit Risk Disclosures to contain a disclaimer with respect to Mizuho not having participated in the preparation thereof in form and substance satisfactory to Mizuho, (4) it will cause such Credit Risk Disclosures to be provided (i) to potential investors on the second business day prior to the pricing date of the Transaction (it being understood that the Credit Risk Disclosures will be included in the applicable Offering Documents to be provided by the applicable Co-Issuers, through Mizuho, to potential investors at least two business days prior to the pricing date), and (ii) on the date of delivery of, or prior to the delivery of, the applicable Co-Issuer's first monthly report following the Closing Date (provided that this covenant will be satisfied if such information is included in such monthly report).

4. Marketing and Offering of Securities. (a) The Company represents and agrees that neither it nor any of its affiliates (i) has offered or sold or will offer or sell the Offered Notes by any form of general solicitation or general advertising within the meaning of Rule 502(c) of Regulation D of the Securities Act or (ii) has engaged or will engage in any directed selling efforts within the meaning of Regulation S of the Securities Act with respect to the Offered Notes.

(b) The Company agrees to use reasonable efforts to assist the Placement Agent in completing a satisfactory preliminary marketing and offering of the Offered Notes in such manner as the Placement Agent may reasonably request from time to time, including, without limitation, furnishing the Placement Agent with all relevant financial and other information regarding the Company and its affiliates, and regarding the pool of collateral obligations owned by the Co-Issuers (the "Collateral Pool"), that the Placement Agent may reasonably request for inclusion in the Disclosure Documents or otherwise, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Company.

(c) The Company acknowledges and agrees that the Placement Agent may rely, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all information furnished in writing by the Company to the Placement Agent expressly for use in connection with each Offering (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the information furnished in writing by the Company expressly for use in the offering circular relating to such Offering under the heading "Credit Risk Retention) (collectively, the "Manager Provided Information") and that the Placement Agent does not assume any responsibility therefor.

The Company agrees that it (i) shall notify the Placement Agent promptly if (A) any material adverse change, or any development that could reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse change, occurs in the business, properties or financial condition of the Company or the Collateral Pool, (B) at any time, the Manager Provided Information relating to the Company and its affiliates included in the Disclosure Documents then in use includes any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading or (C) any Manager Provided Information furnished by the Company to the Placement Agent (and relating to the Company and its affiliates) is or becomes inaccurate, incomplete or misleading in any material respect and (ii) shall provide the Placement Agent, upon its reasonable request, with updated Manager Provided Information for inclusion in the Disclosure Documents.

The Company acknowledges and agrees that it shall be a condition to the issuance of the Offered Notes that the applicable Co-Issuer's counsel shall have delivered to the Placement Agent on the closing date of each Transaction (each, a "Closing Date") a Rule 10b-5 negative assurances letter covering the final Offering Documents.

5. Fees and Expenses. It is agreed that (a) on the Closing Date with respect to the ACIS CLO 2014-3 Transaction, the Placement Agent, as compensation for its services hereunder, will be paid a fee that is equal to 18.0 basis points on the face amount of the Offered Notes in respect of such Transaction (other than Offered Notes placed with the Company or any of its affiliates, or funds or accounts that are managed or advised by the Company or any of its affiliates), (b) on the Closing Date with respect to the ACIS CLO 2014-4 Transaction, the Placement Agent, as compensation for its services hereunder, will be paid a fee that is equal to (x) 19.0 basis points on the face amount of the Offered Notes in respect of such Transaction (other than Offered Notes placed with the Company or any of its affiliates, or funds or accounts that are managed or advised by the Company or any of its affiliates), plus (y) if the reinvestment period for such Transaction is 2.5 years or longer from the applicable Closing Date, 2.5 basis points on the face amount of the Offered Notes in respect of such Transaction (other than Offered Notes placed with the Company or any of its affiliates, or funds or accounts that are managed or advised by the Company or any of its affiliates), and (c) on the Closing Date with respect to the ACIS CLO 2014-5 Transaction, the Placement Agent, as compensation for its services hereunder, will be paid a fee that is equal to (x) 20.0 basis points on the face amount of the Offered Notes in respect of such Transaction (other than Offered Notes placed with the Company or any of its affiliates, or funds or accounts that are managed or advised by the Company or any of its affiliates), plus (y) if the reinvestment period for such Transaction is 2.5 years or longer from the applicable Closing Date, 2.5 basis points on the face amount of the Offered Notes in respect of such Transaction (other than Offered Notes placed with the Company or any of its affiliates, or funds or accounts that are managed or advised by the Company or any of its affiliates, in each case, which fee shall be payable solely by the applicable Co-Issuer and shall be paid as an Administrative Expense (as defined in the applicable indenture) in accordance with the Priority of Payments (as defined in the applicable indenture). For the avoidance of doubt, the Placement Agent's fees shall not be adjusted or reduced as a result of any discount on the purchase price of the Offered Notes and the cost of any discount shall be borne solely by the Co-Issuer.

The following expenses shall be payable solely by the applicable Co-Issuer and shall be paid as an Administrative Expense in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the applicable Closing Date: all expenses associated with the Transaction (including but not limited to the fees and expenses of the Placement Agent's outside counsel, the Company's outside counsel, the Co-Issuer's outside counsel (including "deal counsel" and special counsel in the Co-Issuer's jurisdiction of incorporation), the trustee's outside counsel and outside accountants, rating agency fees, listing fees, issuing and paying agent fees and the Placement Agent's and the Co-Issuer's out-of-pocket expenses) ("Costs and Expenses"). The parties agree that Dechert shall act as "deal counsel" for the Co-Issuers and as the Company's outside counsel (which role will include the provision of a customary "negative assurance" letter with respect to the Transactions). The parties further understand that Dechert has agreed to limit its fees in connection with each Transaction to a maximum of $150,000 per Transaction. The parties also agree that Schulte Roth & Zabel LLP shall act as the Placement Agent's outside counsel in connection with the Transactions and the parties understand that Schulte Roth & Zabel LLP has agreed to limit its fees to a maximum of $200,000 in the aggregate for all three Transactions. If this Agreement terminates on an Expiration Date other than the last Closing Date, then all Costs and Expenses with respect to any Transaction that has not closed, shall be equally split between the Co-Issuers and the Placement Agent unless one of the parties materially breaches its obligations or unilaterally terminates this Agreement without Cause (as defined below), in which case, such breaching or terminating party shall be responsible for all Costs and Expenses.

6. Indemnification and Contribution. In consideration of the Placement Agent's engagement hereunder, each of the Co-Issuers and the Company agrees to the provisions set forth in Schedule I hereto, which provisions are incorporated by reference herein and constitute a part hereof.

7. Termination and Survival. The Placement Agent's engagement hereunder and the term of this Agreement will commence upon the execution of this Agreement by all parties, and will continue until the earliest to occur of (i) the last Closing Date, (ii) termination by either Mizuho or the Company of this Agreement for Cause, and (iii) (a) in the event at least two Closing Dates have occurred, May 15, 2018, in the event less than two Closing Dates have occurred, March 16, 2018, or such later date as mutually agreed by Mizuho and the Company (the "Expiration Date"). For purposes hereof, "Cause" shall mean a material breach by the non-terminating party of its obligations hereunder.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary herein, this Section 7 (Termination and Survival) and Sections 4 (Marketing and Offering of Securities), 5 (Fees and Expenses), 6 (Indemnification and Contribution), 8 (Certain Matters Relating to Engagement), 10 (Governing Law, Waiver of Jury Trial and Submission to Jurisdiction) and 11 (Miscellaneous) will survive the expiration or any termination of the Placement Agent's engagement under this Agreement (whether as a result of the completion of the offering of the Offered Notes or otherwise).
