2. The Debtors are authorized, pursuant to sections 327(a) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2014(a) and 2016(a), and Local Rule 2014-1 and 2016-1, to employ and retain PwC Advisory as margin reporting review services provider to the Debtors, effective as of February 6, 2026, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Engagement Letter, as limited and modified by this Order.

3. The terms and conditions of PwC Advisory's employment as provided in the Engagement Letter, including, all annexes and exhibits thereto are hereby approved, as modified by this Order. Further, the Fee and Expense Structure is approved, and PwC Advisory shall be compensated and reimbursed subject to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code in accordance with the terms of the Engagement Letter, subject to Court approval and as modified by this Order.

4. PwC Advisory shall file any fee applications for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses pursuant to and in accordance with the procedures set forth in sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules as may then be applicable including Local Rule 2016-1(e), and any other case specific fee protocols established by the Court.

engagements, describing the services rendered by each professional and the amount of time spent on each date.

6. Solely as to any fixed fee compensation requests: (a) PwC Advisory shall be excused from keeping time records in tenth of an hour (0.1) increments and instead shall keep records in half-hour (0.5) increments; and (b) any objections related to any fixed fee compensation shall be subject only to the standard of review set forth in section 328 of the Bankruptcy Code and shall not be subject to the standard of review in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code or any other standard of review. All hourly engagements shall be subject to the standard of review under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code.

7. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in this Order, the U.S. Trustee and the Court shall retain the right and be entitled to object to PwC US Tax's fees and expenses for both fixed fee engagements and hourly engagements based on the reasonableness standard provided for in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Court retains jurisdiction to consider such objection or response by the U.S. Trustee to PwC Advisory's fees and expenses for both fixed fee engagements and hourly engagements pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. 8. If the Debtors request and PwC Advisory agrees to provide additional services, PwC Advisory and the Debtors may enter into statements of work or amendments with respect to the Engagement Letter or additional agreements. Any additional agreements, statements of work, or amendments will be filed with the Court and served on the U.S. Trustee, any statutory committee that may be appointed in this case, and any other applicable notice parties, and, absent any objections filed within fourteen (14) days after the filing and service of such supplemental declaration, PwC Advisory's employment and retention, including as to the additional agreements, statements of work, amendments, and/or services, shall continue as authorized pursuant to this Order.

9. Prior to any increases in the disclosed hourly rates for any PwC Advisory professional providing services in these cases, PwC Advisory shall file a supplemental declaration with this Court, providing ten (10) business days' notice to the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, and any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases. reimbursement to the PwC Advisory Parties, for any claim or expense that is either: (i) judicially determined (the determination having become final) to have arisen from PwC Advisory Parties' gross negligence, actual fraud, willful misconduct, bad faith, or self-dealing to which the Debtors have not consented; (ii) for a contractual dispute in which the Debtors allege the breach of PwC Advisory's obligations under the Engagement Letter (including the indemnification agreement), unless the Court determines that indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement would be permissible pursuant to In re United Artists Theatre Co., 315 F.3d 217 (3d Cir. 2003); or (iii) settled without the Debtors' consent, prior to a judicial determination as to the exclusions set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) above, but determined by this Court, after notice and a hearing to be a claim or expense for which PwC Advisory Parties should not receive indemnity, contribution, or reimbursement under the terms of the Engagement Letter as modified by this Order; and

- c. This subparagraph (c) is intended only to specify the period of time during which this Court shall have jurisdiction over any request for fees and expenses by PwC Advisory Parties for indemnification, contribution, and/or reimbursement, and is not a provision limiting the duration of the Debtors' obligation to indemnify or make contributions or reimbursements to PwC Advisory Parties. All parties in interest shall retain the right to object to any demand by PwC Advisory Parties for indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement.

11. Any limitation of liability provisions set forth in the Engagement Letter, or otherwise, is eliminated for the duration of these chapter 11 cases.
