classes (or series) of common stock or any Beneficial Ownership³ therein (any such record or Beneficial Ownership of common stock, collectively, the “Common Stock”) and any existing classes (or series) of preferred stock or any Beneficial Ownership therein (any such record or Beneficial Ownership of preferred stock, collectively, the “Preferred Stock”),⁴ (b) directing that any purchase, sale, other transfer of, or declaration of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock in violation of the Procedures shall be null and void ab initio, and (c) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-one days from the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider approval of this motion on a final basis.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2),

³ “Beneficial Ownership” will be determined in accordance with the applicable rules of sections 382 and 383 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. §§ 1–9834 as amended (the “IRC”), and the U.S. Department of the Treasury regulations thereunder (“Treasury Regulations”) (other than Treasury Regulations section 1.382-2T(h)(2)(i)(A)), and includes direct, indirect, and constructive ownership (e.g., (1) a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all equity securities owned by its subsidiaries, (2) a partner in a partnership would be considered to beneficially own its proportionate share of any equity securities owned by such partnership, (3) an individual and such individual’s family members may be treated as one individual, (4) persons and entities acting in concert to make a coordinated acquisition of equity securities may be treated as a single entity, and (5) a holder would be considered to beneficially own equity securities that such holder has an Option (as defined herein) to acquire). For the avoidance of doubt, Beneficial Ownership includes direct and indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. Specifically in this case, for the avoidance of doubt, direct and indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd.’s U.S. subsidiaries constitute indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. that may be subject to the Procedures. An “Option” to acquire stock includes all interests described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4(d)(9), including any contingent purchase right, warrant, convertible debt, put, call, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether it is contingent or otherwise not currently exercisable.

and the Debtors confirm their consent, pursuant to rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Local Rules”), to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a), 362, and 541 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), rules 2002, 6003, and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and Local Rules 2002-1 and 9013-1.

Background

5. The Debtors, together with their non-Debtor affiliates (collectively, “Marelli” or the “Company”) are one of the largest international automotive parts suppliers in the world and a pioneer in motorsports and in automobile manufacturing and design. With its headquarters in Saitama, Japan and over 46,000 employees located in twenty-four countries around the world, Marelli designs and produces sophisticated technologies for leading automotive manufacturers, including lighting and sensor integrations, electronic systems, software solutions, and interior design products, and collaborates with motor sports teams and other industry leaders to research and develop cutting-edge, high-performance automotive components.

6. On June 11, 2025 (the “Petition Date”), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their property as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Concurrent with the filing of this motion, the Debtors filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases, and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

The Tax Attributes

7. Companies generate various Tax Attributes (as defined below) in the course of their operations. Generally, a company generates net operating losses (“NOLs”) if the operating expenses it has incurred exceed the revenues it has earned during a single tax year. A company may apply or “carry forward” NOLs to reduce future U.S. federal income tax payments (subject to certain conditions discussed below). NOLs arising in taxable years beginning before January 1, 2018 may be used to offset up to 100 percent of taxable income, and NOLs arising in taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017, may be used to offset up to 80 percent of taxable income. See Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “IRC”) § 172. Additionally, a company’s deduction for net business interest expense is generally limited to 30 percent of its adjusted taxable income plus certain other amounts. See IRC § 163. Any business interest expense that exceeds the maximum permitted deduction is disallowed and is carried forward and treated as business interest expense in the following tax year (“163(j) Carryforwards”). Id. Other Tax Attributes have other sources. While NOLs and 163(j) Carryforwards are the most ubiquitous tax attributes, companies may also generate a variety of other tax attributes, including general business credits, research and development credit carryforwards, unused minimum tax credits, foreign tax credits, business tax credits, and capital loss carryforwards, as the case may be.

8. As discussed below, a company’s Tax Attributes can become subject to significant limitation under sections 382 and 383 of the IRC if an “ownership change” occurs. See IRC §§ 382, 383. The purpose of the relief requested herein is to minimize the risk that an “ownership change” occurs before the conclusion of these chapter 11 cases. In doing so, the Debtors intend to maximize the value of their estates by limiting tax liabilities generated during or as a result of the actions taken during the cases.

9. The Debtors estimate that, as of December 31, 2024, they had approximately $26.97 million of federal NOLs, approximately $15.3 million of 163(j) Carryforwards, and approximately $26 million of federal research and development credit carryforwards.⁵ The Debtors may generate substantial additional tax attributes in the current tax year, including during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, and subject to further analysis may have a “net unrealized built-in loss”⁶ (together with the aforementioned NOLs, 163(j) Carryforwards, credit carryforwards, and certain other tax attributes, collectively, the “Tax Attributes”). The Tax Attributes are potentially of significant value to the Debtors and their estates because the Tax Attributes may offset U.S. federal taxable income or U.S. federal tax liability in future years, including any taxable income generated by transactions consummated during these chapter 11 cases (including, if applicable, with respect to any taxable disposition of some or all of the Debtors’ assets, including pursuant to one or more sale transactions under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code). Accordingly, the value of the Tax Attributes will inure to the benefit of all of the Debtors’ stakeholders.

10. The relief requested herein is expected to preserve the value of the Tax Attributes to the benefit of the Debtors’ stakeholders by ensuring that there are no “ownership changes” that may negatively affect the Debtors’ utilization of the tax attributes. Conversely, a premature limitation of the Debtors' Tax Attributes could cause substantial deterioration of value and significantly reduce recoveries to the Debtors' stakeholders. Failure to obtain the relief sought in this motion could, therefore, greatly increase the risk that the Debtors would be unable to maximize the value of their estates.

⁶ If the Debtors have a net unrealized built-in loss, then so-called “recognized built-in losses” that are deducted prior to the expiration of a five-year limitation period may otherwise be limited under section 382 of the IRC. See below for further discussion. The Debtors have not yet determined whether they have a net unrealized built-in loss.

I. An "Ownership Change" May Negatively Affect the Debtors' Utilization of the Tax Attributes.

11. Sections 382 and 383 of the IRC limit the amount of federal taxable income and federal tax liability, respectively, that can be offset by a corporation's tax attributes in taxable years (or portions thereof) following an "ownership change." Similar state laws apply to state tax attributes. Generally, an "ownership change" occurs if the percentage (by value) of the stock of a corporation owned by one or more "5-percent shareholders" has increased by more than 50 percentage points over the lowest percentage of stock owned by such shareholders at any time during the three-year testing period ending on the date of the relevant ownership change. See IRC §§ 382(g), 382(i). The total percentage point increase of stock owned by one or more "5-percent shareholders" within the measuring period is generally referred to as the amount of the "ownership shift." In situations involving multiple classes of stock with different rights, the determination of whether a shareholder is a "5-percent shareholder" is made by reference to stock value (without regard to certain considerations such as control premiums or minority discounts, and with reference to certain mechanical tests). For example, an ownership change would occur in the following situation:

An individual ("A") owns 50.1 percent of the stock of corporation XYZ. A sells her 50.1 percent interest to another individual ("B"), who owns 5 percent of XYZ's stock. Under section 382 of the IRC, an ownership change has occurred because B's interest in XYZ has increased more than 50 percentage points (from 5 percent to 55.1 percent) during the testing period. The same result would follow even if B owned no XYZ stock prior to the transaction with A because B both becomes a 5 percent shareholder and increases his ownership by more than 50 percentage points during the testing period.

12. An “ownership change” can also occur as a result of a “worthless stock deduction” claimed by any “50-percent shareholder.” IRC § 382(g)(4)(D). A 50-percent shareholder is any person or entity (or group of people that is treated as a single entity under the applicable rules) with Beneficial Ownership of 50 percent or more of a corporation’s stock “at any time during the 3-year period ending on the last day of the taxable year” with respect to which the worthless stock deduction is claimed. Id. If the 50-percent shareholder still owns the corporation’s stock at the end of the taxable year, sections 382 and 383 of the IRC essentially treat such person or entity as newly purchasing the stock on the first day of the next taxable year. For example, if a person or entity with 50 percent of a corporation’s stock claims a worthless stock deduction with respect to the 2025 tax year but does not sell such stock in 2025, that person is treated: (a) as not having owned the stock at the end of 2025; and (b) as having purchased the stock on the first day of the 2026 tax year. That deemed purchase would cause an ownership change because the 50-percent shareholder would be deemed to have a 50-percentage-point increase in its stock ownership. Notably, while the seminal case of Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. PSS S.S. Co. (In re Prudential Lines Inc.), 928 F.2d 565 (2d Cir. 1991), is generally relied upon to support equity trading motions in general, the specific issue in Prudential Lines was, in fact, a worthless stock deduction.

13. If an ownership change occurs, section 382 of the IRC limits the amount of a corporation’s future federal taxable income that may be offset by its “pre-change losses” and section 383 of the IRC limits the amount of a corporation’s future federal tax liability that may be offset by its “excess credits,” in each case, to an annual amount based on the fair market value of all of the stock of the corporation prior to the ownership change multiplied by the long-term tax-exempt rate that applies to the month of the ownership change.⁷ See IRC §§ 382(b) and 383(a). Pre-change losses and excess credits include the Debtors' Tax Attributes and any so-called "realized built-in losses" (as defined in section 382(h)(3) of the IRC).⁸ Once a Tax Attribute is limited under section 382 or 383 of the IRC, its use may be limited forever.⁹ Thus, certain transfers or worthless stock deductions with respect to the Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock effected before the effective date of the Debtors' emergence from chapter 11 protection may trigger an "ownership change" for IRC purposes, endangering the Debtors' ability to utilize the Tax Attributes, which would cause substantial damage to the Debtors' estates.

14. It is critical to understand that, under these rules, a company can be harmed as a result of actions by parties that are unknown to the company. As noted above, if a person unknown to the company were to acquire more than 5 percent of the company's stock (determined in accordance with the rules set forth above), the company would experience an "owner shift" (or an increase in the magnitude of an "owner shift") that could lead to an ownership change and resulting limitation in the amount of a corporation's future taxable income that may be offset. By the time the company knew who the unidentified shareholder was, the shareholder would have already purchased the shares and the harm would be done.

⁸ The rules relating to potential limitations on the ability to offset taxable income with so-called realized built-in losses are highly complex and depend on, among other things, the extent (if any) of a debtor's "net unrealized built-in loss." A net unrealized built-in loss is equal to the excess of the aggregate adjusted basis of all of a corporation's applicable assets over their fair market value (as determined for purposes of section 382 of the IRC) immediately prior to the ownership change. IRC § 382(h)(3)(A)(i). Once a net unrealized built-in loss is limited under section 382 or 383 of the IRC, its use is limited for 5 years.

15. To maximize the use of the Tax Attributes and enhance recoveries for the Debtors' stakeholders, the Debtors seek limited relief through establishment of the Procedures that will enable them to closely monitor certain transfers of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock and certain worthless stock deductions with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock so as to be in a position to act expeditiously to prevent such transfers or worthlessness deductions, if necessary, with the purpose of preserving the Tax Attributes. By establishing and implementing such Procedures, the Debtors will be in a position to object to "owner shifts" that threaten their ability to preserve the value of their Tax Attributes for the benefit of the estates.

16. For the Procedures to be effective in allowing the Debtors to preserve the value of their Tax Attributes, however, the Procedures must bind unknown parties. Similar binding mechanisms are common in the context of common stock and preferred stock ownership. As one particularly salient example, companies in certain instances may enact charter restrictions to protect their tax attributes. Such charter restrictions may impose substantive limitations on sales and purchases of equity that are similar to the procedural limitations requested in this motion. Although such charter restrictions are put to a shareholder vote before being enacted, they always bind unknown parties (i.e., persons that are not shareholders at the time the vote is taken) and do so via public information issued by the company in connection with the adoption of such charter restrictions. It is true that the relief requested in this motion is not being put to a shareholder vote—nor should it be, because the requested relief is intended to maximize the value of the Debtors for all stakeholders—but unlike charter restrictions, the relief requested in this motion merely implements procedures that must be observed before relevant actions are taken. The Debtors respectfully submit that the notice provided to all parties potentially subject to the procedural relief requested herein—via first class mail to known current 5-percent holders and via publication to potential purchasers—is sufficient under these circumstances.

17. Notably, the Debtors have limited the relief requested herein to the extent necessary to preserve estate value. Specifically, the proposed Interim Order and Final Order will affect only: (a) holders of Beneficial Ownership of the equivalent of more than 3,998,132,876 shares of Common Stock (i.e., 4.5 percent or more of outstanding Common Stock);¹⁰ (b) holders of Beneficial Ownership of the equivalent of more than 16,624,992 shares of Preferred A Stock (i.e., 4.5 percent or more of outstanding Preferred A Stock);¹¹ (c) holders of Beneficial Ownership of the equivalent of more than 8,964 shares of Preferred D-1 Stock (i.e., 4.5 percent or more of outstanding Preferred D-1 Stock);¹² (d) holders of Beneficial Ownership of the equivalent of more than 2,270 shares of Preferred D-2 Stock (i.e., 4.5 percent or more of outstanding Preferred D-2 Stock);¹³ (e) parties who are interested in purchasing sufficient Common Stock or Preferred Stock to result in such party becoming a holder of 4.5 percent or more of Beneficial Ownership of outstanding Common Stock or of any class (or series) of Preferred Stock; and (f) any “50-percent shareholder” seeking to claim a worthless stock deduction.

II. Proposed Procedures for Transfers of or Declarations of Worthlessness with Respect to Common Stock and Preferred Stock.

18. The Procedures are the mechanism by which the Debtors propose that they will monitor and, if necessary, object to certain transfers of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock and Preferred Stock and declarations of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to ensure preservation of the Tax Attributes. The Procedures, ¹⁰ Based on approximately 88,847,397,260 shares of Common Stock outstanding as of the Petition Date.

¹¹ Based on approximately 369,444,280 shares of Preferred A Stock outstanding as of the Petition Date.

¹² Based on approximately 199,215 shares of Preferred D-1 Stock outstanding as of the Petition Date.

¹³ Based on approximately 50,453 shares of Preferred D-2 Stock outstanding as of the Petition Date.

which are fully set forth in Exhibit 1 attached to the Interim Order and Final Order, are detailed below.¹⁴ doubt, the other procedures set forth herein shall apply to any Substantial Shareholder even if no Declaration of Status as a Substantial Shareholder has been filed.

- b. Prior to effectuating any transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock that would result in an increase in the amount of Common Stock or Preferred Stock of which a Substantial Shareholder has Beneficial Ownership or would result in an entity or individual becoming a Substantial Shareholder, the parties to such transaction must file with the Court, and serve upon the Notice Parties, an advance written declaration of the intended transfer of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1B (each, a “Declaration of Intent to Accumulate Common Stock or Preferred Stock”).
- c. Prior to effectuating any transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock that would result in a decrease in the amount of Common Stock or Preferred Stock of which a Substantial Shareholder has Beneficial Ownership or would result in an entity or individual ceasing to be a Substantial Shareholder, the parties to such transaction must file with the Court, and serve upon the Notice Parties, an advance written declaration of the intended transfer of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1C (each, a “Declaration of Intent to Transfer Common Stock or Preferred Stock,” and together with a Declaration of Intent to Accumulate Common Stock or Preferred Stock, each, a “Declaration of Proposed Transfer”).
- d. The Debtors and the other Notice Parties shall have twenty calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Proposed Transfer to file with the Court and serve on such Substantial Shareholder or potential Substantial Shareholder an objection to any proposed transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock described in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer on the grounds that such transfer is reasonably expected to adversely affect the Debtors’ ability to utilize their Tax Attributes. If the Debtors or any of the other Notice Parties file an objection, such transaction will remain ineffective unless such objection is withdrawn, or such transaction is approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court. If the Debtors and the other Notice Parties do not object within such twenty-day period, such transaction can proceed solely as set forth in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer. Further transactions within the scope of this paragraph must be the subject of additional notices in accordance with the procedures set forth herein, with an additional twenty-day waiting period for each Declaration of Proposed Transfer. To the extent that the Debtors receive an appropriate Declaration of Proposed Transfer and determine in their business judgment not to object, they shall provide notice of that decision to the Notice Parties as soon as is reasonably practicable.

- e. For purposes of these Procedures (including, for the avoidance of doubt, with respect to both transfers and declarations of worthlessness): (i) a “Substantial Shareholder” is any entity or individual person that has Beneficial Ownership of more than: (A) 3,998,132,876 shares of Common Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock); (B) 16,624,992 shares of Preferred A Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Preferred A Stock); (C) 8,964 shares of Preferred D-1 Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Preferred D-1 Stock); or (D) 2,270 shares of Preferred D-2 Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Preferred D-2 Stock); and (ii) “Beneficial Ownership” will be determined in accordance with the applicable rules of sections 382 and 383 of the IRC, and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder (other than Treasury Regulations section 1.382-2T(h)(2)(i)(A)) and includes direct, indirect, and constructive ownership (e.g., (1) a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all equity securities owned by its subsidiaries, (2) a partner in a partnership would be considered to beneficially own its proportionate share of any equity securities owned by such partnership, (3) an individual and such individual’s family members may be treated as one individual, (4) persons and entities acting in concert to make a coordinated acquisition of equity securities may be treated as a single entity, and (5) a holder would be considered to beneficially own equity securities that such holder has an Option (as defined herein) to acquire). For the avoidance of doubt, Beneficial Ownership includes direct and indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. Specifically in this case, for the avoidance of doubt, direct and indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd.’s U.S. subsidiaries constitute indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. that may be subject to the Procedures. An “Option” to acquire stock includes all interests described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4(d)(9), including any contingent purchase right, warrant, convertible debt, put, call, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether it is contingent or otherwise not currently exercisable.

Procedures for Declarations of Worthlessness of Common Stock or Preferred Stock

- a. Any person or entity that currently is or becomes a 50-Percent Shareholder¹⁵ must file with the Court and serve upon the Notice Parties a declaration of such status, substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1D (each, a “Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder”), on or before the later of (i) twenty calendar days after the date of the Notice of ¹⁵ For purposes of the Procedures, a “50-Percent Shareholder” is any person or entity that, at any time since December 31, 2021, has owned Beneficial Ownership of 50 percent or more of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock (determined in accordance with section 382(g)(4)(D) of the IRC and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder).

Interim Order and (ii) ten calendar days after becoming a 50-Percent Shareholder; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the other procedures set forth herein shall apply to any 50-Percent Shareholder even if no Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder has been filed.

- b. Prior to filing any U.S. federal or state tax return, or any amendment to such a return, or taking any other action that claims any deduction for worthlessness of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock for a taxable year ending before the Debtors' emergence from chapter 11 protection, such 50-Percent Shareholder must file with the Court and serve upon the Notice Parties a declaration of intent to claim a worthless stock deduction (a "Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction"), substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1E.
 - i. The Debtors and the other Notice Parties shall have twenty calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction to file with the Court and serve on such 50-Percent Shareholder an objection to any proposed claim of worthlessness described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction on the grounds that such claim is reasonably expected to adversely affect the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes.
 - ii. If the Debtors or the other Notice Parties timely object, the filing of the tax return or amendment thereto with such claim will not be permitted unless approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court, unless such objection is withdrawn.
 - iii. If the Debtors and the other Notice Parties do not object within such twenty-day period, the filing of the return or amendment with such claim will be permitted solely as described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction. Additional returns and amendments within the scope of this section must be the subject of additional notices as set forth herein, with an additional twenty-day waiting period. To the extent that the Debtors receive an appropriate Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction and determine in their business judgment not to object, they shall provide notice of that decision to the Notice Parties as soon as is reasonably practicable.

Notice Procedures

- a. No later than five business days following entry of the Interim Order, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors shall serve a notice by first class mail and email, if available, substantially in the form attached to the Interim Order as Exhibit 1F (the "Notice of Interim Order"), on: (i) the U.S. Trustee; (ii) the entities listed on the consolidated list of creditors holding the thirty largest unsecured claims; (iii) the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware; (vi) the state attorneys general for states in which the Debtors conduct business; (vii) all registered holders of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, and all banks, brokers, intermediaries, or mailing agents (collectively, the "Nominee Holders") that hold Common Stock or Preferred Stock in "street name" for the beneficial holders; and (viii) the Notice Parties. Additionally, no later than five business days following entry of the Final Order, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors shall serve a Notice of Interim Order modified to reflect that the Final Order has been entered (as modified, the "Notice of Final Order") on the same entities that received the Notice of Interim Order.

- b. All registered and Nominee Holders of Common Stock or Preferred Stock shall be required to serve the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable, on any holder for whose benefit such registered or Nominee Holder holds such Common Stock or Preferred Stock, down the chain of ownership for all such holders of Common Stock or Preferred Stock.
- c. Any entity or individual, or broker or agent acting on such entity's or individual's behalf who sells Common Stock or Preferred Stock to another entity or individual, shall be required to serve a copy of the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable, on such purchaser of such Common Stock or Preferred Stock, or any broker or agent acting on such purchaser's behalf.
- d. To the extent confidential information is required in any declaration described in the Procedures, such confidential information may be filed with the Court in redacted form; provided, however, that any such declarations served on the Notice Parties shall not be in redacted form. The Notice Parties shall keep all information provided in such declarations strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any person except: (i) to the extent necessary to respond to a petition or objection filed with the Court; (ii) to the extent otherwise required by law; or (iii) to the extent that the information contained therein is already public; provided, further, however, that the Debtors may disclose the contents thereof to their professional advisors, who shall keep all such notices strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any other person, subject to further Court order. To the extent confidential information is necessary to respond to an objection filed with the Court, such confidential information shall be filed under seal or in a redacted form.

Basis for Relief

19. Section 541 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that property of the estate comprises, among other things, "all legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the commencement of the case.” 11 U.S.C. § 541. The Tax Attributes are property of the Debtors’ estates. See Prudential Lines, 928 F.2d at 573 (“We hold that the right to a carryforward attributable to its . . . NOL was property of [the debtor’s] bankruptcy estate.”); In re Forman Enters., Inc., 273 B.R. 408, 415 (Bankr. W.D. Pa. 2002) (finding that NOLs are property of the debtors’ estates). Moreover, section 362(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code stays “any act [of an entity] to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3). Accordingly, any act of a holder of a debtor’s equity securities that causes the termination, or limits use, of the Tax Attributes violates the automatic stay. See, e.g., Prudential Lines, 928 F.2d at 574 (holding that causing the termination of or adversely affecting the value of a debtor’s NOL violates the automatic stay); In re Phar-Mor, Inc., 152 B.R. 924, 927 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1993) (“[T]he sale of stock is prohibited by § 362(a)(3) as an exercise of control over the NOL, which is property of the estate.”).

20. Implementation of the Procedures is necessary and appropriate to enforce the automatic stay and, critically, to preserve the value of the Tax Attributes for the benefit of the Debtors’ estates. Under sections 382 and 383 of the IRC, certain transfers of or declarations of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock prior to the consummation of a chapter 11 plan of reorganization (the “Plan”) could cause the termination or limit the use of the Tax Attributes. As stated above, the Debtors currently estimate that as of December 31, 2024, they had approximately $26.97 million of federal NOLs, approximately $15.3 million of 163(j) Carryforwards, and approximately $26 million of federal research and development credit carryforwards, and, in addition, the Debtors may generate substantial additional Tax Attributes in the current tax year, including during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, and the Debtors may further have a “net unrealized built-in loss.” These Tax Attributes may be necessary to address tax consequences resulting from the implementation of the Plan and, depending upon the structure utilized to consummate the Plan, they may provide the potential for material future tax savings (including in post-emergence years). The termination or limitation of the Tax Attributes could, therefore, be materially detrimental to all parties in interest, including by potentially limiting the Debtors' ability to utilize certain structures to consummate the Plan. Granting the relief requested herein will preserve the Debtors' flexibility in operating their businesses during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases and implementing an exit plan that makes full and efficient use of the Tax Attributes and maximizes the value of the Debtors' estates.

21. Additionally, the Procedures do not bar all transfers of or declarations of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock. The Debtors seek to establish procedures only to monitor those types of transactions that would pose a serious risk under the ownership change test pursuant to sections 382 and 383 of the IRC and to preserve the Debtors' ability to seek substantive relief if it appears that a proposed transfer or declaration of worthlessness could jeopardize the Debtors' utilization of the Tax Attributes. Because of the Tax Attributes' importance to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, and thus all parties in interest, the benefits of implementing the Procedures outweigh the drawbacks of subjecting a small subset of transfers to the Procedures.

22. Courts in this district routinely approve relief similar to that requested herein. See, e.g., In re JOANN Inc., No. 25-10068 (CTG) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 10, 2025) (approving certain notification and hearing procedures with respect to certain transfers of equity interests on a final basis); In re Am. Tire Distribs., Inc., No. 24-12391 (CTG) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 18, 2024) (same); In re Accuride Corp., No. 24-12289 (JKS) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 13, 2024) (same); In re Wheel

Pros, LLC, No. 24-11939 (JTD) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 10, 2024) (same); In re SunPower Corp., No. 24-11649 (CTG) (Bankr. D. Del. Aug. 28, 2024) (same).

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) Are Satisfied

23. Bankruptcy Rule 6003 empowers a court to grant certain relief within the first twenty-one days after the petition date only “to the extent that relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.” For the reasons discussed above, an immediate and orderly transition into chapter 11 is critical to the viability of the Debtors’ operations. Failure to receive the requested relief during the first twenty-one days of these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the Debtors’ operations at this critical juncture and cause immediate and irreparable harm. The requested relief is necessary for the Debtors to operate their businesses in the ordinary course, preserve the ongoing value of their operations, and maximize value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. The Debtors have demonstrated that the requested relief is “necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm,” as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003, and the Court should grant the requested relief.

Reservation of Rights

24. Nothing contained in this motion or any order granting the relief requested in this motion, and no action taken by the Debtors pursuant to the relief requested or granted (including any payment made in accordance with any such order), is intended as or shall be construed or deemed to be: (a) an admission as to the amount, validity, or priority of, or basis for, any claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors’ or any other party in interest’s rights to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this motion or any order granting the relief requested by this motion; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; or (g) a waiver or limitation of any claims, causes of action, or other rights of the Debtors or any other party in interest against any person or entity under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a) and 6004(h)

25. To the extent that any aspect of the relief sought herein constitutes a use of property under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors seek a waiver of the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the fourteen day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Notice

26. The Debtors will provide notice of this motion to: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) the holders of the 30 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) the office of the attorney general for each of the states in which the Debtors operate; (d) United States Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware; (e) the Internal Revenue Service; (f) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (g) the United States Department of Justice; (h) Mayer Brown LLP, as counsel to the DIP Agent; (i) Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, as counsel to Mizuho Bank, Ltd., in all capacities other than as Prepetition Agent; (j) Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP, as counsel to Mizuho Bank, Ltd., in its capacity as Prepetition Agent; (k) Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP and Cole Schotz P.C., as counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Senior Lenders; (l) Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP, as counsel to the Sponsors; and (m) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (the "Notice Parties”). As this motion is seeking “first day” relief, the Debtors will serve copies of this motion and any order entered in respect to this motion as required by Local Rule 9013-1(m). In light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

27. No prior request for the relief sought in this motion has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors request entry of the Interim Order and Final Order, substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B, (a) granting the relief requested herein and (b) granting such other relief as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.

8. Within five business days of entry of this Interim Order, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors shall send the Notice of Interim Order attached hereto as Exhibit 1F, by first class mail and email, if available, to all registered holders, who in turn shall serve the notice down the chain of ownership to the beneficial holders, and to all parties that were served with notice of the Motion, submit a copy of the Notice of Interim Order (modified for publication) to The New York Times, and post this Interim Order and the Procedures to the website established by the Debtors' claims and noticing agent for these chapter 11 cases, Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC dba Verita Global ("Verita Global") (<https://www.veritaglobal.net/Marelli>), such notice being reasonably calculated to provide notice to all parties that may be affected by the Procedures, whether known or unknown.

9. To the extent that this Interim Order is inconsistent with any prior order or pleading with respect to the Motion in these chapter 11 cases, the terms of this Interim Order shall govern.

10. Nothing herein shall preclude any person desirous of acquiring Common Stock or Preferred Stock from requesting relief from this Interim Order from this Court, subject to the Debtors' and the other Notice Parties' rights to oppose such relief.

11. The requirements set forth in this Interim Order are in addition to the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e) and applicable securities, corporate, and other laws and do not excuse compliance therewith.

16. Nothing in this Interim Order or the exhibits thereto shall authorize any filer that is not an individual to redact the name, date acquired, number of shares held, or last four digits of TIN.

17. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

18. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Interim Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

19. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

20. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.

other procedures set forth herein shall apply to any Substantial Shareholder even if no Declaration of Status as a Substantial Shareholder has been filed.

- c. - d. The Debtors and the other Notice Parties shall have twenty calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Proposed Transfer to file with the Court and serve on such Substantial Shareholder or potential Substantial Shareholder an objection to any proposed transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, described in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer on the grounds that such transfer is reasonably expected to adversely affect the Debtors’ ability to utilize their Tax Attributes. If the Debtors or any of the other Notice Parties file an objection, such transaction will remain ineffective unless such objection is withdrawn, or such transaction is approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court. If the Debtors and the other Notice Parties do not object within such twenty-day period, such transaction can proceed solely as set forth in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer. Further transactions within the scope of this paragraph must be the subject of additional notices in accordance with the procedures set forth herein, with an additional twenty-day waiting period for each Declaration of Proposed Transfer. To the extent that the Debtors receive an appropriate Declaration of Proposed Transfer and determine in their business judgment not to object, they shall provide notice of that decision to the Notice Parties as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- e. For purposes of these Procedures (including, for the avoidance of doubt, with respect to both transfers and declarations of worthlessness):

(i) a “Substantial Shareholder” is any entity or individual person that has Beneficial Ownership of more than: (A) 3,998,132,876 shares of Common Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock); (B) 16,624,992 shares of Preferred A Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Preferred A Stock); (C) 8,964 shares of Preferred D-1 Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Preferred D-1 Stock); or (D) 2,270 shares of Preferred D-2 Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Preferred D-2 Stock); and (ii) “Beneficial Ownership” will be determined in accordance with the applicable rules of sections 382 and 383 of the IRC, and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder (other than Treasury Regulations section 1.382-2T(h)(2)(i)(A)) and includes direct, indirect, and constructive ownership (e.g., (1) a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all equity securities owned by its subsidiaries, (2) a partner in a partnership would be considered to beneficially own its proportionate share of any equity securities owned by such partnership, (3) an individual and such individual’s family members may be treated as one individual, (4) persons and entities acting in concert to make a coordinated acquisition of equity securities may be treated as a single entity, and (5) a holder would be considered to beneficially own equity securities that such holder has an Option (as defined herein) to acquire). For the avoidance of doubt, Beneficial Ownership includes direct and indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. Specifically in this case, for the avoidance of doubt, direct and indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd.’s U.S. subsidiaries constitute indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. that may be subject to the Procedures. An “Option” to acquire stock includes all interests described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4(d)(9), including any contingent purchase right, warrant, convertible debt, put, call, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether it is contingent or otherwise not currently exercisable.

The following procedures apply for declarations of worthlessness of Common Stock or Preferred Stock:

- a. Any person or entity that currently is or becomes a 50-Percent Shareholder² must file with the Court and serve upon the Notice Parties a declaration of such status, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1D (each, a “Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder”), on or before the later of (i) twenty calendar days after the date of the Notice of Interim Order and (ii) ten calendar days after becoming a 50-Percent Shareholder; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the other procedures set forth herein shall apply to any 50-Percent Shareholder even if no Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder has been filed.

² For purposes of the Procedures, a “50-Percent Shareholder” is any person or entity that, at any time since December 31, 2021, has owned Beneficial Ownership of 50 percent or more of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock (determined in accordance with section 382(g)(4)(D) of the IRC and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder).

- b. Prior to filing any U.S. federal or state tax return, or any amendment to such a return, or taking any other action that claims any deduction for worthlessness of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock for a taxable year ending before the Debtors' emergence from chapter 11 protection, such 50-Percent Shareholder must file with the Court and serve upon the Notice Parties a declaration of intent to claim a worthless stock deduction (a "Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction"), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1E.
 - i. The Debtors and the other Notice Parties shall have twenty calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction to file with the Court and serve on such 50-Percent Shareholder an objection to any proposed claim of worthlessness described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction on the grounds that such claim is reasonably expected to adversely affect the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes.
 - ii. If the Debtors or the other Notice Parties timely object, the filing of the tax return or amendment thereto with such claim will not be permitted unless approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court, unless such objection is withdrawn.
 - iii. If the Debtors and the other Notice Parties do not object within such twenty-day period, the filing of the return or amendment with such claim will be permitted solely as described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction. Additional returns and amendments within the scope of this section must be the subject of additional notices as set forth herein, with an additional twenty-day waiting period. To the extent that the Debtors receive an appropriate Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction and determine in their business judgment not to object, they shall provide notice of that decision to the Notice Parties as soon as is reasonably practicable.

The following notice procedures apply to these Procedures:

- a. No later than five business days following entry of the Interim Order, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors shall serve a notice by first class mail and email, if available, substantially in the form attached to the Interim Order as Exhibit 1F (the "Notice of Interim Order"), on: (i) the U.S. Trustee; (ii) the entities listed on the consolidated list of creditors holding the thirty largest unsecured claims; (iii) the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware; (vi) the state attorneys general for states in which the Debtors conduct business; (vii) all registered holders of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, and all banks, brokers, intermediaries, or mailing agents (collectively, the "Nominee Holders") that hold Common Stock or Preferred Stock in "street name" for the beneficial holders; and (viii) the Notice Parties. Additionally, no later than five business days following entry of the Final Order, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors shall serve a Notice of Interim Order modified to reflect that the Final Order has been entered (as modified, the "Notice of Final Order") on the same entities that received the Notice of Interim Order.

- b. All registered and Nominee Holders of Common Stock or Preferred Stock shall be required to serve the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable, on any holder for whose benefit such registered or Nominee Holder holds such Common Stock or Preferred Stock, down the chain of ownership for all such holders of Common Stock or Preferred Stock.
- c. Any entity or individual, or broker or agent acting on such entity's or individual's behalf who sells Common Stock or Preferred Stock to another entity or individual, shall be required to serve a copy of the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable, on such purchaser of such Common Stock or Preferred Stock, or any broker or agent acting on such purchaser's behalf.
- d. To the extent confidential information is required in any declaration described in the Procedures, such confidential information may be filed with the Court in redacted form; provided, however, that any such declarations served on the Notice Parties shall not be in redacted form. The Notice Parties shall keep all information provided in such declarations strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any person except: (i) to the extent necessary to respond to a petition or objection filed with the Court; (ii) to the extent otherwise required by law; or (iii) to the extent that the information contained therein is already public; provided, further, however, that the Debtors may disclose the contents thereof to their professional advisors, who shall keep all such notices strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any other person, subject to further Court order. To the extent confidential information is necessary to respond to an objection filed with the Court, such confidential information shall be filed under seal or in a redacted form.

2 For purposes of this Declaration: (i) a “50-Percent Shareholder” is any person or entity that, at any time since December 31, 2021, has owned Beneficial Ownership of 50 percent or more of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock (determined in accordance with section 382(g)(4)(D) of the IRC and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder); and (ii) “Beneficial Ownership” will be determined in accordance with the applicable rules of sections 382 and 383 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. §§ 1–9834 as amended (the “IRC”), and the Treasury Regulations thereunder (other than Treasury Regulations section 1.382-2T(h)(2)(i)(A)) and includes direct, indirect, and constructive ownership (e.g., (1) a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all equity securities owned by its subsidiaries, (2) a partner in a partnership would be considered to beneficially own its proportionate share of any equity securities owned by such partnership, (3) an individual and such individual’s family members may be treated as one individual, (4) persons and entities acting in concert to make a coordinated acquisition of equity securities may be treated as a single entity, and (5) a holder would be considered to beneficially own equity securities that such holder has an Option (as defined herein) to acquire). For the avoidance of doubt, Beneficial Ownership includes direct and indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. Specifically in this case, for the avoidance of doubt, direct and indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd.’s U.S. subsidiaries constitute indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. that may be subject to the Procedures. An “Option” to acquire stock includes all interests described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4(d)(9), including any contingent purchase right, warrant, convertible debt, put, call, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether it is contingent or otherwise not currently exercisable.

Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. is a debtor and debtor in possession in Case No. 25-11071 (____) pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Court”).

If applicable, on _____, _____, the undersigned party filed a Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder with the Court and served copies thereof as set forth therein.

The undersigned party currently has Beneficial Ownership of _____ shares of Common Stock or _____ shares of Preferred Stock.

Pursuant to the Worthless Stock Deduction, the undersigned party proposes to declare that _____ shares of Common Stock or _____ shares of Preferred Stock became worthless during the tax year ending _____.

The last four digits of the taxpayer identification number of the undersigned party are _____.

Pursuant to the Interim Order (I) Approving Notification and Hearing Procedures for Certain Transfers of and Declarations of Worthlessness with Respect to Common Stock and Preferred Stock and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. [●]] (the “Interim Order”), this declaration (this “Declaration”) is being filed with the Court and served upon the Notice Parties (as defined in the Interim Order).

At the election of the undersigned party, the Declaration to be filed with this Court (but not the Declaration that is served upon the Notice Parties) may be redacted to exclude the undersigned party’s taxpayer identification number and the amount of Common Stock or Preferred Stock that the undersigned party beneficially owns.

Pursuant to the Interim Order, the undersigned party acknowledges that the Debtors and the other Notice Parties have twenty calendar days after receipt of this Declaration to object to the Worthless Stock Deduction described herein. If the Debtors or any of the other Notice parties file an objection, such Worthless Stock Deduction will not be effective unless such objection is withdrawn or such action is approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court. If the Debtors and the other Notice Parties do not object within such twenty-day period, then after expiration of such period the Worthless Stock Deduction may proceed solely as set forth in this Declaration.

Any further claims of worthlessness contemplated by the undersigned party will each require an additional notice filed with the Court to be served in the same manner as this Declaration and are subject to an additional twenty-day waiting period.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, under penalties of perjury, the undersigned party hereby declares that he or she has examined this Declaration and accompanying attachments (if any), and, to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, this Declaration and any attachments hereto are true, correct, and complete.

1. The Motion is granted on final basis as set forth herein.

all interests described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4(d)(9), including any contingent purchase right, warrant, convertible debt, put, call, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether it is contingent or otherwise not currently exercisable.

2. The Procedures, as set forth in Exhibit 1 attached to this Final Order are hereby approved on a final basis.

3. Any postpetition transfer of or postpetition declaration of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock in violation of the Procedures, including but not limited to the notice requirements, shall be null and void ab initio.

4. In the case of any such postpetition transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock in violation of the Procedures, including but not limited to the notice requirements, the person or entity making such transfer shall be required to take remedial actions specified by the Debtors, which may include the actions specified in Private Letter Ruling 201010009 (Dec. 4, 2009), to appropriately reflect that such transfer is null and void ab initio.

5. In the case of any such postpetition declaration of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock in violation of the Procedures, including the notice requirements, the person or entity making such declaration shall be required to file an amended tax return revoking such declaration and any related deduction to appropriately reflect that such declaration is void ab initio.

6. The Debtors may retroactively or prospectively, in writing, waive any and all restrictions, stays, and notification procedures set forth in the Procedures.

7. The Debtors shall post the Procedures to the website established by Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC dba Verita Global (“Verita Global”) for these chapter 11 cases (<https://www.veritaglobal.net/Marelli>), such notice being reasonably calculated to provide notice to all parties that may be affected by the Procedures, whether known or unknown.

17. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Final Order.

procedures set forth herein shall apply to any Substantial Shareholder even if no Declaration of Status as a Substantial Shareholder has been filed.

- b. Prior to effectuating any transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock that would result in an increase in the amount of Common Stock or Preferred Stock of which a Substantial Shareholder has Beneficial Ownership or would result in an entity or individual becoming a Substantial Shareholder, the parties to such transaction must file with the Court, and serve upon the Notice Parties, an advance written declaration of the intended transfer of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1B (each, a “Declaration of Intent to Accumulate Common Stock or Preferred Stock”).
- c. Prior to effectuating any transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock that would result in a decrease in the amount of Common Stock or Preferred Stock of which a Substantial Shareholder has Beneficial Ownership or would result in an entity or individual ceasing to be a Substantial Shareholder, the parties to such transaction must file with the Court, and serve upon the Notice Parties, an advance written declaration of the intended transfer of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1C (each, a “Declaration of Intent to Transfer Common Stock or Preferred Stock,” and together with a Declaration of Intent to Accumulate Common Stock or Preferred Stock, each, a “Declaration of Proposed Transfer”).
- d. The Debtors and the other Notice Parties shall have twenty calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Proposed Transfer to file with the Court and serve on such Substantial Shareholder or potential Substantial Shareholder an objection to any proposed transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, described in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer on the grounds that such transfer is reasonably expected to adversely affect the Debtors’ ability to utilize their Tax Attributes. If the Debtors or any of the other Notice Parties file an objection, such transaction will remain ineffective unless such objection is withdrawn, or such transaction is approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court. If the Debtors and the other Notice Parties do not object within such twenty-day period, such transaction can proceed solely as set forth in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer. Further transactions within the scope of this paragraph must be the subject of additional notices in accordance with the procedures set forth herein, with an additional twenty-day waiting period for each Declaration of Proposed Transfer. To the extent that the Debtors receive an appropriate Declaration of Proposed Transfer and determine in their business judgment not to object, they shall provide notice of that decision to the Notice Parties as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- e. For purposes of these Procedures (including, for the avoidance of doubt, with respect to both transfers and declarations of worthlessness):

(i) a “Substantial Shareholder” is any entity or individual person that has Beneficial Ownership of more than: (A) 3,998,132,876 shares of Common Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock); (B) 16,624,992 shares of Preferred A Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Preferred A Stock); (C) 8,964 shares of Preferred D-1 Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Preferred D-1 Stock); or (D) 2,270 shares of Preferred D-2 Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Preferred D-2 Stock); and (ii) “Beneficial Ownership” will be determined in accordance with the applicable rules of sections 382 and 383 of the IRC, and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder (other than Treasury Regulations section 1.382-2T(h)(2)(i)(A)) and includes direct, indirect, and constructive ownership (e.g., (1) a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all equity securities owned by its subsidiaries, (2) a partner in a partnership would be considered to beneficially own its proportionate share of any equity securities owned by such partnership, (3) an individual and such individual’s family members may be treated as one individual, (4) persons and entities acting in concert to make a coordinated acquisition of equity securities may be treated as a single entity, and (5) a holder would be considered to beneficially own equity securities that such holder has an Option (as defined herein) to acquire). For the avoidance of doubt, Beneficial Ownership includes direct and indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. Specifically in this case, for the avoidance of doubt, direct and indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd.’s U.S. subsidiaries constitute indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. that may be subject to the Procedures. An “Option” to acquire stock includes all interests described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4(d)(9), including any contingent purchase right, warrant, convertible debt, put, call, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether it is contingent or otherwise not currently exercisable.

The following procedures apply for declarations of worthlessness of Common Stock or Preferred Stock:

- a. Any person or entity that currently is or becomes a 50-Percent Shareholder² must file with the Court and serve upon the Notice Parties a declaration of such status, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1D (each, a “Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder”), on or before the later of (i) twenty calendar days after the date of the Notice of Final Order and (ii) ten calendar days after becoming a 50-Percent Shareholder; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the other procedures set forth herein shall apply to any 50-Percent Shareholder even if no Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder has been filed.

² For purposes of the Procedures, a “50-Percent Shareholder” is any person or entity that, at any time since December 31, 2021, has owned Beneficial Ownership of 50 percent or more of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock (determined in accordance with section 382(g)(4)(D) of the IRC and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder).

- b. Prior to filing any U.S. federal or state tax return, or any amendment to such a return, or taking any other action that claims any deduction for worthlessness of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock for a taxable year ending before the Debtors' emergence from chapter 11 protection, such 50-Percent Shareholder must file with the Court and serve upon the Notice Parties a declaration of intent to claim a worthless stock deduction (a "Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction"), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1E.
 - i. The Debtors and the other Notice Parties shall have twenty calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction to file with the Court and serve on such 50-Percent Shareholder an objection to any proposed claim of worthlessness described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction on the grounds that such claim is reasonably expected to adversely affect the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes.
 - ii. If the Debtors or the other Notice Parties timely object, the filing of the tax return or amendment thereto with such claim will not be permitted unless approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court, unless such objection is withdrawn.
 - iii. If the Debtors and the other Notice Parties do not object within such twenty-day period, the filing of the return or amendment with such claim will be permitted solely as described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction. Additional returns and amendments within the scope of this section must be the subject of additional notices as set forth herein, with an additional twenty-day waiting period. To the extent that the Debtors receive an appropriate Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction and determine in their business judgment not to object, they shall provide notice of that decision to the Notice Parties as soon as is reasonably practicable.

The following notice procedures apply to these Procedures:

- a. No later than five business days following entry of the Interim Order, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors shall serve a notice by first class mail and email, if available, substantially in the form attached to the Interim Order as Exhibit 1F (the "Notice of Interim Order"), on: (i) the U.S. Trustee; (ii) the entities listed on the consolidated list of creditors holding the thirty largest unsecured claims; (iii) the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware; (vi) the state attorneys general for states in which the Debtors conduct business; (vii) all registered holders of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, and all banks, brokers, intermediaries, or mailing agents (collectively, the "Nominee Holders") that hold Common Stock or Preferred Stock in "street name" for the beneficial holders; and (viii) the Notice Parties. Additionally, no later than five business days following entry of the Final Order, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors shall serve a Notice of Interim Order modified to reflect that the Final Order has been entered (as modified, the "Notice of Final Order") on the same entities that received the Notice of Interim Order.

- b. All registered and Nominee Holders of Common Stock or Preferred Stock shall be required to serve the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable, on any holder for whose benefit such registered or Nominee Holder holds such Common Stock or Preferred Stock, down the chain of ownership for all such holders of Common Stock or Preferred Stock.
- c. Any entity or individual, or broker or agent acting on such entity's or individual's behalf who sells Common Stock or Preferred Stock to another entity or individual, shall be required to serve a copy of the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable, on such purchaser of such Common Stock or Preferred Stock, or any broker or agent acting on such purchaser's behalf.
- d. To the extent confidential information is required in any declaration described in the Procedures, such confidential information may be filed with the Court in redacted form; provided, however, that any such declarations served on the Notice Parties shall not be in redacted form. The Notice Parties shall keep all information provided in such declarations strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any person except: (i) to the extent necessary to respond to a petition or objection filed with the Court; (ii) to the extent otherwise required by law; or (iii) to the extent that the information contained therein is already public; provided, further, however, that the Debtors may disclose the contents thereof to their professional advisors, who shall keep all such notices strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any other person, subject to further Court order. To the extent confidential information is necessary to respond to an objection filed with the Court, such confidential information shall be filed under seal or in a redacted form.

2 For purposes of this Declaration: (i) a “50-Percent Shareholder” is any person or entity that, at any time since December 31, 2021, has owned Beneficial Ownership of 50 percent or more of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock (determined in accordance with section 382(g)(4)(D) of the IRC and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder); and (ii) “Beneficial Ownership” will be determined in accordance with the applicable rules of sections 382 and 383 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. §§ 1-9834 as amended (the “IRC”), and the Treasury Regulations thereunder (other than Treasury Regulations section 1.382-2T(h)(2)(i)(A)) and includes direct, indirect, and constructive ownership (e.g., (1) a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all equity securities owned by its subsidiaries, (2) a partner in a partnership would be considered to beneficially own its proportionate share of any equity securities owned by such partnership, (3) an individual and such individual’s family members may be treated as one individual, (4) persons and entities acting in concert to make a coordinated acquisition of equity securities may be treated as a single entity, and (5) a holder would be considered to beneficially own equity securities that such holder has an Option (as defined herein) to acquire). For the avoidance of doubt, Beneficial Ownership includes direct and indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. Specifically in this case, for the avoidance of doubt, direct and indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd.’s U.S. subsidiaries constitute indirect interests in Debtor Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. that may be subject to the Procedures. An “Option” to acquire stock includes all interests described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4(d)(9), including any contingent purchase right, warrant, convertible debt, put, call, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether it is contingent or otherwise not currently exercisable.

Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. is a debtor and debtor in possession in Case No. 25-11071 (____) pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Court”).

If applicable, on _____, _____, the undersigned party filed a Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder with the Court and served copies thereof as set forth therein.

The undersigned party currently has Beneficial Ownership of _____ shares of Common Stock or _____ shares of Preferred Stock.

Pursuant to the Worthless Stock Deduction, the undersigned party proposes to declare that _____ shares of Common Stock or _____ shares of Preferred Stock became worthless during the tax year ending _____.

The last four digits of the taxpayer identification number of the undersigned party are _____.

Pursuant to the Final Order (I) Approving Notification and Hearing Procedures for Certain Transfers of and Declarations of Worthlessness with Respect to Common Stock and Preferred Stock and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. [●]] (the “Final Order”), this declaration (this “Declaration”) is being filed with the Court and served upon the Notice Parties (as defined in the Final Order).

At the election of the undersigned party, the Declaration to be filed with this Court (but not the Declaration that is served upon the Notice Parties) may be redacted to exclude the undersigned party’s taxpayer identification number and the amount of Common Stock or Preferred Stock that the undersigned party beneficially owns.

Pursuant to the Final Order, the undersigned party acknowledges that the Debtors and the other Notice Parties have twenty calendar days after receipt of this Declaration to object to the Worthless Stock Deduction described herein. If the Debtors or any of the other Notice parties file an objection, such Worthless Stock Deduction will not be effective unless such objection is withdrawn or such action is approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court. If the Debtors and the other Notice Parties do not object within such twenty-day period, then after expiration of such period the Worthless Stock Deduction may proceed solely as set forth in this Declaration.

Any further claims of worthlessness contemplated by the undersigned party will each require an additional notice filed with the Court to be served in the same manner as this Declaration and are subject to an additional twenty-day waiting period.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, under penalties of perjury, the undersigned party hereby declares that he or she has examined this Declaration and accompanying attachments (if any), and, to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, this Declaration and any attachments hereto are true, correct, and complete.

Respectfully submitted,
