13 C. Present Posture of the Chapter 11 Mediation

18 person mediation sessions with the mediation parties on May 13-14, June 18-19, August 13, 19 September 10-11 and October 16-17. The mediation has not yet reached a resolution, but the 20 Mediator believes progress has been made and the mediation process remains ongoing.

21 SERVICES RENDERED

25 4) The Mediators shall apply for the payment of their fees and the reimbursement of 26 their expenses in conformity with the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, Local Rules and

- 13 v. Such other issues as may arise.

14 8) At any time following entry of this Order, one or more of the Mediation Parties
15 may, individually or jointly, propose in writing that the Mediators address one or more 16 particular Mediation Issues (each such proposal, a “Mediation Proposal”) so long as such 17 Mediation Party or Parties submits the Mediation Proposal by email to all of the Mediators and 18 all of the Parties and describes, with specificity, the Mediation Issue(s) that are the subject of 19 the Mediation Proposal. Upon receipt of a Mediation Proposal, the Mediators shall confer and 20 determine, in their discretion, the allocation of responsibility amongst themselves with respect
21 to the Mediation Issue(s) that are the subject of the Mediation Proposal. Notwithstanding 22 anything to the contrary in this Order, and for the avoidance of doubt, no Mediation Party shall 23 be required to participate in the mediation of any Mediation Issue(s).

24 9) The Mediators shall consult with the Mediation Parties on the matters concerning 25 the Mediation, including, without limitation: (a) the structure and timing of Mediation 26 procedures, including, without limitation, the attendance of specific Mediation Parties at 27 particular Mediation sessions; and (b) the timing, general content, and manner of any 28 submissions to the Mediators. Notwithstanding any provision of this order, nothing shall

1 prevent the Mediators from considering modifications to the subjects to be included in the 2 Committee Mediation Matters and the Insurance Mediation Matters, as set forth in paragraphs 7
3 and 8 of this Order.

4 10) The results of the Mediation are non-binding and are without prejudice to any 5 Mediation Party's rights, claims, or defenses, including with respect to any of the Mediation
6 Matters, all of which are expressly preserved.

7 11) The Mediation shall take place on such date(s) and location(s) (either in-person or 8 via electronic means), as the Mediators reasonably determine, which may include joint and 9 private meetings between the Mediators and Mediation Parties during the course of the 10 Mediation, including joint and separate meetings with any of the parties to the Committee
11 Mediation Matters and the Insurance Mediation Matters.

12 12) The Mediators shall have the authority to require a representative, with complete
13 authority to negotiate and settle all disputed issues and amounts, of each of the Mediation
14 Parties to personally attend the Mediation meeting(s) either in person or via video conference.

15 13) The Mediators shall have authority to control all procedural aspects of the 16 Mediation(s), including when the Mediation Parties will meet jointly and/or separately with the 17 Mediator(s), and whether meetings shall be by telephone, video conference, or in person. The 18 Mediators may require Mediation Parties to sign a mediation agreement as may be reasonably 19 required to promote the Mediation, except that any such supplemental agreement shall be 20 consistent with and subject in all respects to the terms of this Order. The Mediators may report
21 to the Court any willful failure to attend or participate in good faith in the mediation process or 22 mediation conference. Such failure may result in the imposition of sanctions by the Court.

23 14) Participation by the Mediation Parties in the Mediation will not prejudice their 24 rights with respect to any disputed issue in the Chapter 11 Case, and all such rights, to the extent
25 they existed prior to this Order, are preserved and may be exercised consistent with any order of 26 the Court. This includes, without limitation, the Mediation Parties' rights (if any) to (a) seek a 27 judicial determination from this Court with respect to any issue that may arise during the 28 Mediation requiring judicial resolution; (b) contest the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court; (c)

1 contest the entry of final orders or judgments by the Bankruptcy Court; (d) withdraw the 2 reference; or (e) demand arbitration or a trial by jury.

3 15) After the Mediation concludes, the Mediators will report to chambers staff whether 4 the Mediation resulted in a settlement.

5 16) The provisions of Local Rule 9047-1 pertaining to the “Confidentiality” of the 6 Bankruptcy Dispute Resolution Program shall govern the Mediation; provided, however, that if 7 a Mediation Party puts at issue any good faith finding concerning the Mediation in any 8 subsequent action concerning insurance coverage, the parties’ right to seek discovery, if any, is 9 preserved. However, nothing in this paragraph shall limit communications between the 10 Mediators during the Mediation. Further, nothing in this paragraph makes a document or other 11 information confidential that was received or developed by a Mediation Party without an 12 obligation of confidentiality that related to the Mediation.

13 17) The Mediation Parties shall cooperate in pre-mediation discovery. In the event that 14 a discovery dispute arises that cannot be resolved by negotiation among the Mediation Parties
15 involved, a motion may be brought before this Court to resolve the dispute. The Court may hold 16 hearings on short notice on any discovery dispute. The Court expects the Mediation Parties to 17 obtain such information as they may deem reasonable to participate meaningfully in the 18 Mediation.

19 18) Notwithstanding any provision of this Order to the contrary, (a) nothing contained 20 in this Order shall authorize any Mediation Party to produce documents or information that are 21 subject to attorney-client privilege, attorney work product, or any other legally recognized 22 privilege; and (b) the Debtor shall not as part of the Mediation or otherwise provide the 23 Committee or its counsel with any materials created or used in the defense and resolution of 24 abuse claims that may be subject to an attorney client privilege, attorney work product privilege, 25 common interest privilege (subject to the provisions of paragraph 20 below), or other rule of 26 privilege or confidentiality, unless the Debtor first shares those materials with the Insurers and 27 the Insurers consent to the disclosure of those materials.

1 19) If any of the parties subject to this Order believe that they share a “common
2 interest” privilege with respect to any information or communications subject to this Order, 3 before any such privilege may be invoked, such parties shall memorialize the terms of their 4 agreement concerning the existence and scope of such privilege in a written agreement to be 5 executed by all parties asserting a right to invoke the privilege and to be lodged with the Court.
6 If the parties decide to ask the Court to approve their agreement regarding a common interest
7 privilege, and to the enforce such agreement if so approved, the Court will consider a motion to 8 obtain such relief on notice to the other participants in the Mediation who are not parties to the 9 agreement.

10 20) Notwithstanding any provision of this Order to the contrary, no Mediation Party
11 may disclose to any other Mediation Party, either in connection with the Mediation or any pre-
12 mediation discovery, any information or documents which are protected by common interest
13 privilege, without the prior written consent of all parties sharing in such common interest 14 privilege.

15 21) Nothing in this Order shall relieve any of the Mediation Parties or any other party 16 in interest from complying with applicable requirements of the Bankruptcy Code and Federal 17 Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, such as requirements for obtaining court approval of any 18 compromises of controversies, stipulated stay relief or adequate protection, or sales of property
19 outside the ordinary course of business.

20 22) Any of the Mediation Parties may at any time file a motion with the Court to 21 withdraw from, suspend, and/or terminate the Mediation for cause.

22 23) Neither this Order nor any of its terms shall be construed as a stay or prohibition of 23 any proceedings or issues in this Chapter 11 Case.

24 24) The Court retains discretion to modify this Order and retains exclusive jurisdiction
25 to hear and determine all matters arising from the implementation or interpretation of this 26 Order.
