The Debtors continued to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. These chapter 11 cases are being jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). pursuant to this Combined Second Monthly and Final Fee Application were rendered solely to or on behalf of the Debtors.

10. A summary of the hours expended and fees earned, broken out by timekeeper, during the Second Monthly Fee Period and Final Fee Period is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11. A summary of the hours expended and fees earned, broken out by project category, during the Second Monthly Fee Period and Final Fee Period is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

12. A detailed statement of Troutman Pepper's fees incurred during the Second Monthly Fee Period, broken out by task code, is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

13. No payments were received by Troutman Pepper from any other source for services rendered in connection with the Debtors' chapter 11 cases.

Basis for Final Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses

14. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court should consider the nature, extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (a) the time spent on such services;
- (b) the rates charged for such services;
- (c) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (d) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; and

(e) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

15. This Combined Second Monthly and Final Fee Application meets the standard under 11 U.S.C. § 330 for final approval and allowance of compensation for services rendered by Troutman Pepper on behalf of the Debtors' estates. The professional services provided by Troutman Pepper for which it seeks final approval in this Combined Second Monthly and Final Fee Application were reasonable, necessary, beneficial to the Debtors and their estates, and appropriate under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases, particularly considering Troutman Pepper's extensive history with, and institutional knowledge of, the Debtors. Troutman Pepper performed its services for the Debtors in an efficient, prudent and effective manner, which resulted in significant benefit not only for the Debtors, but also the Debtors' estates and their constituents. The compensation requested herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of Troutman Pepper's services to the Debtors, their estates, and all parties in interest.

16. Troutman Pepper's rates reflected in the Combined Second Monthly and Final Fee Application are reasonable. During the Final Fee Period, Troutman Pepper's hourly billing rates never exceeded $685 per hour. The hourly rates and corresponding rate structure utilized by Troutman Pepper in these chapter 11 cases are equivalent or less than the hourly rates and corresponding rate structure used by Troutman Pepper in comparable construction matters outside of bankruptcy. These hourly rates are subject to periodic adjustments to reflect economic and other conditions and are consistent with the rates charged elsewhere.⁵

17. For these reasons, the Combined Second Monthly and Final Fee Application should be approved on a final basis in accordance with 11 U.S.C. § 330.

WHEREFORE, Troutman Pepper requests (i) approval of compensation for professional services to the Debtors in the amount of $13,164.00 during the Second Monthly Fee Period and (ii) final allowance and approval of compensation for professional services to the Debtors in the amount of $126,784.00 during the Final Fee Period.
