Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals, and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 169] (the “Interim Compensation Order”).

3. Specifically, I have reviewed the period covered by the Interim Fee Application, and I hereby certify that such application complies with the Interim Compensation Order and the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules. In addition, I hereby certify that, in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order, and in connection with preparing the Interim Fee Application, Potter Anderson has made a reasonable effort to comply with the U.S. Trustee’s requests for information and additional disclosures set forth in the Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed under 11 U.S.C. § 330 by Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases, effective November 1, 2013 (the “U.S. Trustee Guidelines”). To that end, Potter Anderson specifically responds to certain questions identified in the U.S. Trustee Guidelines as follows:

Question 1: Did Potter Anderson agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, Potter Anderson’s standard or customary billing rates, fees or terms for services pertaining to this engagement that were provided during the application period? If so, please explain.

Answer: No.

Question 2: If the fees sought in the Interim Fee Application as compared to the fees budgeted for the time period covered by the Interim Fee Application are higher by 10% or more, did Potter Anderson discuss the reasons for the variation with the client?

Answer: The fees sought in the Interim Fee Application are less than the fees budgeted for the time period covered by such application.

Question 3: Have any of the professionals included in the Interim Fee Application varied their hourly rate based on geographic location of the bankruptcy case?

Answer: No.

Question 4: Does the Interim Fee Application include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing or revising invoices?

Answer: The Interim Fee Application includes time and fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing or revising invoices in connection with the preparation of Monthly Fee Applications relating to the Interim Compensation Period covered by the Interim Fee Application for consistency with the Local Rules.

Question 5: Does the Interim Fee Application include time for fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information?

Answer: No.

Question 6: If the Interim Fee Application includes any rate increases since retention in these cases:

Answer: Yes.

i: Did the client agree when retaining Potter Anderson to accept all future rate increases? If not, did Potter Anderson inform the client that they need not agree to modified rates or terms in order to have you continue the representation, consistent with ABA Formal Ethics Opinion 11-458?

Answer: The client did not approve rate increases in advance but was notified at the outset of the engagement that Potter Anderson's hourly rates are reviewed and revised from time to time, as described in Potter Anderson's retention application.
