THE COURT HEREBY FURTHER FINDS AND DETERMINES THAT:³

I. Petition Date

A. On March 16, 2025 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtors commenced these Chapter 11 Cases by filing voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Since the Petition Date, the Debtors have continued to operate and manage their business as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

II. Jurisdiction, Final Order and Statutory Predicates

B. The Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(1) and 1334(a). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (N) and (O). Venue is proper in this District and in the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

C. This order (this “Sale Order”) constitutes a final and appealable order within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 158(a). Notwithstanding the provisions of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d), and to any extent necessary under Bankruptcy Rule 9014 and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), as made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7054, the Court expressly finds that there is no just reason for delay in the implementation of this Sale Order, expressly waives any stay, and expressly directs entry of judgment as set forth herein.

D. The statutory predicates for the relief requested in the Motion are sections 105(a), 363, 365, 503, and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, 9007, and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Local Rules 9013-1 and 9013-2, and Section H of the Complex Case Procedures.

E. The findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014.

III. Notice of the Sale, Auction, and the Cure Amounts

F. Actual written notice of the Bidding Procedures Hearing, the Sale Hearing, the Auction Cancellation Notice, the Motion, the identity of the Buyer, the Sale, the assumption, assignment, cure and sale of the Assumed Contracts to be assigned to the Buyer pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement (which are identified on Exhibit B hereto, subject to Buyer's right to designate additional Assumed Contracts up to the Designation Deadline), and assumption by the Buyer of the customer and membership obligations (as set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement) has been timely and properly provided to, and a reasonably calculated, a fair and reasonable opportunity to object or be heard with respect to the Motion and the relief requested therein has been afforded to, all known interested persons and entities, including, but not limited to the following parties: (i) all entities known to have asserted any Interest in or upon any of the Debtors' Assets; (ii) all federal, state, and local regulatory or taxing authorities or recording offices which have a reasonably known interest in the relief requested by this Motion; (iii) known counterparties to any unexpired leases or executory contracts that could potentially be assumed and assigned to the Buyer; (iv) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Northern District of Georgia; (v) holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (vi) the Office of the United States Attorney General for the Northern District of Georgia; (vii) the Internal Revenue Service; (viii) the U.S. Department of Justice; (ix) the offices of the attorneys general for the states in which the Debtors operate; (x) counsel to each Stalking Horse Bidder; and (xi) all parties requesting notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002.

The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and all applicable Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

G. In accordance with the provisions of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors caused the Cure Notice to be served, in compliance with the requirements of due process and the Bankruptcy Code, upon the Buyer and the non-Debtor counterparties to the executory Contracts or unexpired Leases (each, a “Contract Counterparty,” and, collectively, the “Contract Counterparties”), noticing such parties: (i) of the Sale, (ii) that the Seller may seek to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts on the Closing Date, (iii) of the relevant Cure Amounts, and (iv) of the relevant objection deadlines. The Court finds that: (1) the Buyer and the Contract Counterparties have had an opportunity to object to the Sale and to Cure Amounts set forth in the Cure Notice; (2) the Cure Notice provided the Buyer and the Contract Counterparties with proper notice of the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts and any Cure Amount relating thereto; (3) the service of such Cure Notice was good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances; (4) no further notice need be given in respect of establishing Cure Amounts for the Assumed Contracts; and (5) the procedures set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order with regard to objecting to any such Cure Amount satisfy the provisions of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 6006.

H. In accordance with the provisions of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors caused the Customer Notice to be served, in compliance with the requirements of due process and the Bankruptcy Code, upon the Buyer and the customers of the Seller with warranty claims and/or memberships with the Seller (including those that may be counterparties to an executory Contract), noticing such parties: (i) of the Sale, (ii) that the Seller may seek to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts on the Closing Date (to the extent applicable), and (iii) of the relevant objection deadlines. The Court finds that: (1) the Buyer and these customers have had an opportunity to object to the Sale; (2) the Customer Notice provided the Buyer and customers with proper notice of the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts and of the Buyer's assumption of the warranty and membership obligations; (3) the service of such Customer Notice was good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances; and (4) the procedures set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order satisfy the provisions of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 6006.

I. The Debtors' Auction and Sale Notice, the Cure Notice, and Customer Notice, as applicable, provided all interested persons and entities with timely and proper notice of, and a reasonable opportunity to object and be heard with respect to, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the Sale, the Sale Hearing, and the Auction (prior to being cancelled).

J. As evidenced by the affidavits of service previously filed with the Court (including [D.I. 46, 73, 179, 208, 209, 247, 248, 261, 304, 320, 321, 322, and 340]), proper, timely, adequate, and sufficient notice of the Motion, the Bidding Procedures, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the Auction, the Auction Cancellation Notice, the Sale Order, the Sale Hearing, and the Sale has been provided in accordance with sections 102(1), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9014, the Local Rules, and Sections D and H of the Complex Case Procedures. The Debtors also have complied with all obligations to provide notice of the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the Auction, the cancellation of the Auction, the Sale Hearing, and the Sale required by the Bidding Procedures Order. The notices described in Section III were good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances, and no other or further notice of the Motion, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the Auction, the cancellation of the Auction, the Sale Hearing, Sale, or the assumption, assignment, and sale of the customer warranties and memberships is required.

K. The disclosures made by the Debtors concerning the Motion, the Bidding Procedures, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the assumption of the liabilities of the customer and membership claims, the cancellation of the Auction, the Sale, and the Sale Hearing, were good, complete, and adequate.

L. A reasonable opportunity to object and/or be heard regarding the relief provided in this Sale Order was afforded to all parties in interest.

IV. Good Faith of the Buyer, Seller and Solutions

M. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement was negotiated, proposed, and entered into by and among the Seller, Solutions, and the Buyer, including their respective boards of directors or equivalent governing bodies, officers, directors, employees, agents, professionals, and representatives, without collusion, in good faith, and from arm's-length bargaining positions. The Buyer is making such purchase in good faith and is a good-faith purchaser within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, in that among other things: (i) the Buyer's Qualified Bid was subject to a marketing process in a time frame approved by the Court through the Bidding Procedures Order; (ii) the Debtors conducted the marketing process, including in consultation with the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee"); (iii) the Buyer did not attempt to limit the Debtors' freedom to deal with any other party interested in acquiring the Acquired Assets; and (iv) all payments to be made by the Buyer and other agreements or arrangements entered into by the Buyer in connection with the Sale have been disclosed. There was no evidence of insider influence or improper conduct by the Buyer in connection with the negotiation of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement with the Debtors, no evidence of fraud, collusion, or bad faith on the part of the Buyer, no evidence of the Buyer doing anything to control or otherwise influence the marketing or sale process, including anything to control or otherwise influence the purchase price paid for the Acquired Assets, and no evidence that the Buyer violated section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Buyer is not an “insider” of any Debtor (as defined under section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code). Accordingly, the Buyer is entitled to the full protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

N. As demonstrated by (i) any testimony and other evidence proffered or adduced at the Sale Hearing, and (ii) the representations of counsel made on the record at the Sale Hearing, substantial marketing efforts and a competitive sale process were conducted in accordance with the Bidding Procedures Order and, among other things: (a) the Debtors and the Buyer complied with the provisions in the Bidding Procedures Order; (b) the Buyer agreed to subject its bid to the competitive Bidding Procedures set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order; and (c) the Buyer in no way improperly induced or caused the chapter 11 filing by the Debtors.

V. Highest and Best Offer

O. The Debtors’ marketing and sale process, including the Debtors’ prepetition marketing process, with respect to the Acquired Assets in accordance with the Bidding Procedures, which were followed by the Debtors, afforded a full, fair, and reasonable opportunity for any person or entity to make a higher or otherwise better offer to purchase the Acquired Assets.

P. The Debtors implemented the Bidding Procedures and cancelled the Auction in accordance with the provisions of the Bidding Procedures Order, and the Debtors have otherwise complied with the Bidding Procedures Order in all respects. Such process was duly noticed and conducted in a non-collusive, fair, and good faith manner, in consultation with the Committee, and a reasonable opportunity has been given to any interested party to make a higher and better offer for the Acquired Assets.

Q. The Debtors received no Qualified Bids by the Bid Deadline for the Acquired Assets other than the Qualified Bid submitted by the Buyer. The Bidding Procedures provide that if no Qualified Bids (other than the Qualified Bid submitted by the Buyer) were received by the Bid Deadline, the Auction would not be conducted and the Buyer's Qualified Bid would be the Successful Bid for the Acquired Assets.

R. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement represents a fair and reasonable offer to purchase the Acquired Assets under the circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases, including in light of the fact that no other Qualified Bids were received. The consideration provided by the Buyer under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, including the assumption of the Assumed Liabilities, is fair and adequate, represents the highest or otherwise best available offer, including by providing the highest economic value available to the Debtors' estates, and will provide a greater recovery for the Debtors' estates than would be provided by any other available alternative. Accordingly, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement constitutes the highest and best offer for the Acquired Assets and a valid, reasonable, and sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, and complies in all respects with the Bidding Procedures Order.

S. Approval of the Motion and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the consummation of the Sale contemplated thereby is in the best interests of the Debtors, their creditors, their estates, and other parties in interest.

VI. No Sub Rosa or De Facto Plan

T. Good and sufficient reasons for approval of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the transactions to be consummated in connection therewith have been articulated, and the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest. The Debtors have demonstrated compelling circumstances and good, sufficient, and sound business purposes and justifications for the Sale outside the ordinary course of business, pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, before, and outside of, a plan of reorganization, in that, among other things, the immediate consummation of the Sale with the Buyer is necessary and appropriate to maximize the value of the Debtors' estates, and the Sale will provide the means for the Debtors to maximize distributions to creditors.

U. The Sale does not constitute a sub rosa or de facto plan of reorganization or liquidation as it does not propose to (i) impair or restructure existing debt of, or equity interests in, the Debtors, (ii) impair or circumvent voting rights with respect to any plan that may be proposed by the Debtors, (iii) circumvent chapter 11 safeguards, such as those set forth in sections 1125 and 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, or (iv) classify claims or equity interests or extend debt maturities. Accordingly, the Sale neither impermissibly restructures the rights of the Debtors' creditors nor impermissibly dictates the terms of a liquidating chapter 11 plan for the Debtors.

VII. Successor Liability Matters

V. By virtue of the consummation of the Sale, (i) the Buyer is not a continuation of the Debtors or their respective estates, there is no continuity between the Buyer and the Debtors, there is no common identity between the Buyer and the Debtors, and there is no continuity of enterprise between the Buyer and the Debtors, (ii) the Buyer is not holding itself out to the public as a continuation of the Debtors or their respective estates, and (iii) the Sale does not amount to a consolidation, merger, or de facto consolidation or merger of the Buyer and any of the Debtors and the Debtors' respective estates.

W. The Buyer is not, and shall not be considered, a successor to the Debtors or their respective estates by reason of any theory of law or equity, including, but not limited to, under any federal, state or local statute or common law, or revenue, pension, ERISA, tax, labor, employment, worker's compensation, environmental, escheat or unclaimed property laws, or other law, rule or regulation (including, without limitation, filing requirements under any such laws, rules, or regulations), or under any products liability law or doctrine with respect to the Debtors' liability under such law, rule or regulation or doctrine or common law, or under any product warranty liability law or doctrine with respect to the Debtors' liability under such law, rule or regulation or doctrine, and the Buyer and its affiliates shall have no liability or obligation under the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Act (the "WARN Act"), 929 U.S.C. §§ 210 et seq. and shall not be deemed to be a "successor employer" for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Americans with Disability Act, the Family Medical Leave Act, the National Labor Relations Act, the Labor Management Relations Act, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the Equal Pay Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1866 (42 U.S.C. § 1981), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, the Multiemployer Pension Protection Act, the Pension Protection Act, and/or the Fair Labor Standards Act; the Buyer is not a continuation or substantial continuation of any of the Debtors or their respective estates, business or operations or any enterprise of the Debtors; the Buyer does not have a common identity of incorporators, directors or equity holders with the Debtors; and the Sale does not amount to a consolidation, merger, or de facto merger of the Buyer and the Debtors or their respective estates. Accordingly, the Buyer is not and shall not be deemed a successor to any of the Debtors or their respective estates as a result of the consummation of the Sale pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order.

VIII. No Fraudulent Transfer; Validity of Transfer

X. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement was not entered into by the Buyer and the Debtors for the purpose of hindering, delaying, or defrauding creditors under either the Bankruptcy Code or the other laws of the United States, or the laws of any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia (including, without limitation, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, and the Uniform Voidable Transactions Act). Neither the Debtors nor the Buyer entered into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement fraudulently, nor are they entering into or consummating the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement fraudulently, including under applicable federal and state fraudulent conveyance and fraudulent transfer laws.

Y. The consideration provided by the Buyer pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, (i) was negotiated at arm's-length, (ii) is fair, adequate, and reasonable, (iii) is the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets, and (iv) constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code and under the other laws of the United States, and the laws of any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia (including, without limitation, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act and the Uniform Voidable Transactions Act). No other person or entity or group of entities has offered to purchase the Acquired Assets for greater economic value to the Debtors' estates than the Buyer. For the purposes of statutory and common law fraudulent conveyance and fraudulent transfer claims, neither the Seller, Solutions, nor the Buyer are entering into or consummating the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement fraudulently. Approval of the Motion, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Sale, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and all other parties in interest.

Z. The Seller is the sole and lawful owner of the Acquired Assets. The Acquired Assets constitute property of the Seller's estate and title to the Acquired Assets is vested in the Seller's estate within the meaning of section 541(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Seller, Solutions, and the Buyer have full corporate power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and all other documents contemplated thereby, and no further consents or approvals are required for the Seller, Solutions, or the Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or the other documents contemplated thereby, except as otherwise set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or such other documents.

AA. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement does not provide for the sale of the Debtors' and their estates' claims—including, without limitation, commercial tort claims and Avoidance Actions—against any of the Debtors' insiders (as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code). For purposes of this Sale Order, "Avoidance Actions" means all avoidance and recovery actions or remedies that may be brought on behalf of the Debtors or their estates under the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law, including actions or remedies under sections 544, 547, 548, 550, 551, 552, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code.

BB. Subject to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of each of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer will be, as of the Closing Date, a legal, valid, and effective transfer of the Acquired Assets, which transfer vests or will vest the Buyer with all right, title, and interest of the Debtors in, to, and under the Acquired Assets free and clear of (i) all Liens (as defined in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement) and other liens (including any liens as that term is defined in section 101(37) of the Bankruptcy Code) and encumbrances relating to, accruing, or arising at any time prior to the Closing Date (collectively, as defined in this clause (i), the “Liens”), other than Permitted Liens, and (ii) all debts arising under, relating to, or in connection with any act of or omission by the Debtors, claims (as that term is defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code) or causes of action, liabilities, obligations, demands, guaranties, options in favor of third parties, rights, easements, servitudes, restrictive covenants, encroachments, contractual commitments, restrictions, interests, mortgages, hypothecations, charges, indentures, loan agreements, instruments, collective bargaining agreements, leases, subleases, licenses, deeds of trust, security interests, conditional sale or other title retention agreements, pledges, judgments, claims for reimbursement, contribution, indemnity, exoneration, infringement, products liability, alter-ego, and matters of any kind and nature, whether arising prior to or subsequent to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases, and whether imposed by agreement, understanding, law, equity, or otherwise, known or unknown, contingent or matured, liquidated or unliquidated, and all rights and remedies with respect thereto (a) that purport to give to any party a right of setoff against, or a right or option to effect any forfeiture, modification, profit sharing interest, right of first refusal, purchase or repurchase right or option, or termination of, any of the Debtors’ or the Buyer’s interests in the Acquired Assets, or any similar rights, or (b) in respect of taxes, restrictions, rights of first refusal, charges or interests of any kind or nature, if any, including without limitation, any restriction of use, voting, transfer, receipt of income or other exercise of any attributes of ownership (collectively, as defined in this clause (ii), the “Claims”), relating to, accruing or arising at any time prior to the Closing Date, other than Assumed Liabilities, including amounts necessary under sections 365(b)(1)(A) and (B) and 365(f)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code to cure all defaults and pay all actual pecuniary losses under the Assumed Contracts (the “Cure Amounts”) or any other obligations arising under the Assumed Contracts to the extent set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or this Sale Order.

IX. Section 363(f) Is Satisfied

CC. The conditions of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied in full. Therefore, the Seller may sell the Acquired Assets free and clear of any interests in the Acquired Assets. The Buyer would not have entered into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and would not consummate the transactions contemplated thereby if the sale of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer and the assumption, assignment, and sale of the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer were not, except as otherwise provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement with respect to the Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens, free and clear of all Claims and Liens of any kind or nature whatsoever of the Debtors, or if the Buyer would, or in the future could (except and only to the extent expressly provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and with respect to the Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens), be liable for any of such Claims and Liens, including, but not limited to, Claims and Liens in respect of the following: (i) all mortgages, deeds of trust, and security interests; (ii) any pension, welfare, compensation, or other employee benefit plans, agreements, practices, and programs, including, without limitation, any pension plan of the Debtors; (iii) any other employee, worker’s compensation, occupational disease, unemployment, or temporary disability related claim, including, without limitation, claims that might otherwise arise under or pursuant to (a) the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, (b) the Fair Labor Standards Act, (c) Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, (d) the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, (e) the National Labor Relations Act, (f) the WARN Act, (g) the Age Discrimination and Employee Act of 1967 and Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, (h) the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, (i) the Consolidated Omnibus Budget

Reconciliation Act of 1985, (j) state discrimination laws, (k) state unemployment compensation laws or any other similar state laws, or (l) any other state or federal benefits or claims relating to any employment with the Debtors or any of their predecessors; (iv) any bulk sales or similar law to the maximum extent permitted by Law; (v) any tax statutes or ordinances, including, without limitation, the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; (vi) any environmental laws, including any Environmental, Health and Safety Requirement(s); and (vii) any theories of successor or transferee liability.

DD. The Seller may sell the Acquired Assets free and clear of all Claims and Liens against the Seller, its estate, or any of the Acquired Assets (except for any Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement) because, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in section 363(f)(1)-(5) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied. Holders of such Claims or Liens fall within one or more of the other subsections of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code and are adequately protected by having their Claims or Liens attach to the net cash proceeds of the Sale, if any, ultimately attributable to the Acquired Assets in which such creditor or interest holder alleges an interest, in the same order of priority, with the same validity, force and effect that such creditor or interest holder had prior to the Sale, subject to any claims and defenses the Seller and its estate may possess with respect thereto. Those holders of Claims or Liens against or in the Seller, its estate or any of the Acquired Assets who did not object, who withdrew their objection, or whose objection was overruled, to the Sale or the Motion are deemed to have consented pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

X. Assumption and Assignment of the Assumed Contracts

EE. The assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts pursuant to the terms of this Sale Order is integral to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates, creditors, interest holders, and other parties in interest and represents the reasonable exercise of sound and prudent business judgment by the Debtors.

FF. The Cure Amounts set forth on Exhibit B annexed hereto are the sole amounts necessary under sections 365(b)(1)(A) and (B) and 365(f)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code to cure all monetary defaults and pay all actual pecuniary losses under the Assumed Contracts.

GG. Pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors have demonstrated that assuming all Assumed Contracts and assigning such Assumed Contracts to the Buyer is appropriate.

HH. Pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, the Buyer shall have: (i) either or both cured and provided adequate assurance of cure of any defaults existing before the Closing Date under any of the Assumed Contracts, within the meaning of section 365(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (ii) provided compensation or adequate assurance of compensation to any party for actual pecuniary loss to such party resulting from a default prior to the Closing Date under any of the Assumed Contracts, within the meaning of section 365(b)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. After payment of the relevant Cure Amounts by the Buyer and as required by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, the Debtors shall not have any further liabilities to the Contract Counterparties on or after the Closing Date. The Buyer provided adequate assurance of its future performance under the relevant Assumed Contracts within the meaning of sections 365(b)(1)(C), 365(b)(3) (to the extent applicable) and 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any non-Debtor counterparty to an Assumed Contract who did not timely file an objection to the assumption of its Assumed Contract shall be deemed to have consented to its assumption and assignment to the Buyer pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code in accordance with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

II. No default exists in the Seller's estate's performance under the Assumed Contracts as of the Closing Date other than the failure to pay Cure Amounts or defaults that are not required to be cured as contemplated in section 365(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code

JJ. Designation Rights. In accordance with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Buyer shall maintain certain rights to modify the list of Assumed Contracts after the date of this Sale Order and up to the applicable designation deadline (the "Designation Deadline"), which shall be seven (7) days following entry of this Sale Order, but in no event later than the Closing Date. Such modification rights include, but are not limited to, the right of the Buyer, prior to the Designation Deadline, to designate certain Contracts for assumption by the Debtors and assignment and to the Buyer. The notice and opportunity to object provided to the Contract Counterparties to such Assumed Contracts and to other parties in interest, as set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, fairly and reasonably protects any rights that such Contract Counterparties and other parties in interest may have with respect to such Assumed Contracts.

XI. Compelling Circumstances for an Immediate Sale

KK. Good and sufficient reasons for approval of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the Sale have been articulated. The relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest. To maximize the value of the Debtors' assets and preserve the viability of the business to which the Acquired Assets relate, it is essential that the Sale be approved and occur promptly within the time constraints set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. Time is of the essence in effectuating the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and consummating the Sale, both to preserve and maximize the value of the Debtors' assets for the benefit of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, interest holders, and all other parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases and to provide the means for the Debtors to maximize creditor and interest holder recoveries. As such, the Debtors and the Buyer intend to close the Sale of the Acquired Assets as soon as reasonably practicable, subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. The Debtors have demonstrated both compelling circumstances and a good, sufficient, and sound business purpose and justification for immediate approval and consummation of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

LL. The consummation of the transactions set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts are legal, valid, and properly authorized under all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f), 363(m), 365(b) and 365(f), and all of the applicable requirements of such sections have been complied with in respect of such transactions.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

General Provisions

1. The findings and conclusions set forth herein constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent that any findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such. Any findings of fact or conclusions of law stated by the Court on the record at the Sale Hearing are hereby incorporated.

2. The relief requested in the Motion is GRANTED and the transactions contemplated thereby and by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement are APPROVED for the reasons set forth in this Sale Order and on the record of the Sale Hearing, which is incorporated fully herein as if fully set forth in this Sale Order, and the Sale contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement is APPROVED.

3. All objections, statements, and reservations of rights (if any) to the Motion and the relief requested therein and to the entry of this Sale Order or the relief granted herein, that have not been withdrawn, waived, adjourned, settled as announced to the Court at any prior hearing, at the Sale Hearing, or by stipulation filed with the Court, or previously overruled, including, without limitation, all reservations of rights included therein or otherwise, are hereby overruled and denied on the merits with prejudice, except as expressly set forth herein. Those parties who did not object, or withdrew their objections to the Motion, are deemed to have consented to the Sale pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. This Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order are incorporated herein by reference.

Approval of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement

5. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and all other ancillary documents, and all of the respective terms and conditions thereof, the Sale contemplated thereby, and the Purchase Price are hereby approved. The Seller and Solutions are authorized to enter into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and all other ancillary documents to be executed in connection with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement as may be necessary.

6. Pursuant to sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, entry by the Seller and Solutions into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement is hereby authorized and approved. The Seller, Solutions, and the Buyer, acting by and through their respective existing agents, representatives, and officers, are authorized, empowered and directed, without further order of this Court, to use their reasonable best efforts to take any and all actions necessary or appropriate to (a) consummate and close the Sale in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, (b) transfer and assign all right, title, and interest to all assets, property, licenses, and rights of the Seller to be conveyed in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, and (c) execute and deliver, perform under, consummate, implement, and close fully the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, including the assumption and assignment to the Buyer of the Assumed Contracts, together with all additional instruments and documents that may be reasonably necessary or desirable to implement the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the Sale, including any other ancillary documents, or as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to the performance of the obligations as contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, this Sale Order, and such other ancillary documents, including any actions that otherwise would require further approval by shareholders, members, or their boards of directors, as the case may be, without the need to obtain such approvals. The Seller and Solutions are hereby authorized to perform their covenants and undertakings as provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and any ancillary documents before or after the Closing Date without further order of the Court. Neither the Buyer, the Seller nor Solutions shall have any obligation to proceed with the Closing under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement until all conditions precedent to their obligations to do so have been met, satisfied, or waived, except as otherwise contemplated and provided for in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order.

7. This Sale Order and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement shall be binding in all respects upon the Debtors, including the Debtors' estates, all holders of equity interests in any Debtor, all holders of Claims or Liens (whether known or unknown) against any Debtor, including the Committee, any holders of Claims or Liens against or on all or any portion of the Acquired Assets, all Contract Counterparties, the Buyer and all successors and assigns of the Buyer, the Acquired Assets, all successors and assigns of the Debtors, and any subsequent trustees appointed in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or upon a conversion to chapter 7 under the Bankruptcy Code of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, and shall not be subject to rejection or unwinding. This Sale Order and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, the Buyer and their respective successors and assigns. Nothing in any chapter 11 plan confirmed in the Chapter 11 Cases, the confirmation order confirming any such chapter 11 plan, any order approving the wind down or dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or any order entered upon the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to one or more cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise shall alter, conflict with, or derogate from, the provisions of this Sale Order.

Transfer of the Acquired Assets

8. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f), 365(b) and 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Seller is authorized and directed to transfer the Acquired Assets to the Buyer on the Closing Date. The transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement does not require any consents other than as specifically provided for in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. The transfer of the Seller's right, title, and interest in the Acquired Assets to the Buyer pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order shall be deemed transferred to the Buyer upon and as of the Closing Date, and such transfer of the Acquired Assets and the consummation of the Sale and any related actions contemplated thereby constitute a legal, valid, binding, and effective transfer of the Seller's right, title, and interest in the Acquired Assets and shall vest the Buyer with all the right, title and interest of the Seller in and to the Acquired Assets as set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, free and clear of all Claims and Liens (except Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens). Upon the Closing, the Buyer shall take title to and possession of the Acquired Assets subject only to the Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens. Pursuant to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of title to the Acquired Assets and the Assumed Contracts shall be free and clear of all Claims and Liens including, without limitation, all Claims pursuant to any successor or successor-in-interest liability theory, except for Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens.

9. On the Closing Date, this Sale Order shall be construed and shall constitute for any and all purposes a full and complete general assignment, conveyance, and transfer of all of the Seller's right, title, and interest in the Acquired Assets or a bill of sale transferring good and marketable title in such Acquired Assets to the Buyer on the Closing Date pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, free and clear of all Claims and Liens (other than Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens). For the avoidance of doubt, the Excluded Assets set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and herein are not included in the Acquired Assets, and the Excluded Liabilities set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and herein are not Assumed Liabilities.

10. The Buyer shall be authorized, as of the Closing Date, to operate under any license, permit, registration, and governmental authorization or approval of the Seller constituting Acquired Assets, and all such licenses, permits, registrations, and governmental authorizations and approvals are deemed to have been, and hereby are, directed to be transferred to the Buyer as of the Closing Date as provided by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. To the extent provided by section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, no governmental unit may revoke or suspend any grant, permit, or license relating to the operation of the Acquired Assets sold, transferred, assigned, or conveyed to the Buyer on account of the filing or pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases or the consummation of the Sale.

11. Except with respect to Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens, all persons and entities holding Claims against the Debtors or Claims or Liens in all or any portion of the Acquired Assets arising under or out of, in connection with or in any way relating to the Debtors, the Acquired Assets, the operation of the Debtors' business prior to the Closing Date, the transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer, or otherwise, are hereby forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from asserting against the Buyer or its successors or assigns, their property, or the Acquired Assets such persons' or entities' Claims against the Debtors or Claims or Liens in and to the Acquired Assets. On and after the Closing Date, each creditor is authorized and directed to execute such documents and take all other actions as may be deemed by the Buyer to be necessary or desirable to evidence the release of Claims or Liens, if any, as provided for herein, as such Claim or Lien may have been recorded or may otherwise exist.

12. All persons and entities that are presently, or on the Closing Date may be, in possession of some or all of the Acquired Assets to be sold, transferred, or conveyed (wherever located) to the Buyer pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement are hereby directed to surrender possession of such Acquired Assets to the Buyer on the Closing Date. To the extent that any such person or entity fails or refuses to surrender possession of such Acquired Assets on or after the Closing Date, the Buyer has the right to commence a turnover action and have it considered on an expedited basis. All persons are hereby forever prohibited and enjoined from taking any action that would adversely affect or interfere with, or which would be inconsistent with, the ability of the Seller to sell and transfer any or all of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer, or the ability of the Buyer to take title and possession of any or all of the Acquired Assets, in accordance with the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order.

13. This Sale Order is and shall be effective as a determination that, as of the Closing Date, all Claims and Liens of any kind or nature whatsoever existing as to the Acquired Assets before the Closing, other than Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens, or as otherwise provided in this Sale Order, shall have been unconditionally released, discharged, and terminated.

Moreover, this Sale Order is and shall be effective as a determination that, as of the Closing Date, the conveyances described herein have been affected, with all such Claims and Liens to attach to any net proceeds received by the Seller ultimately attributable to the Acquired Assets against, or in, which such Claims or Liens are asserted, subject to the terms thereof, with the same validity, force, and effect, and in the same order of priority, which such Claims or Liens now have against the Acquired Assets, subject to any rights, claims, and defenses that the Seller or its estate, as applicable, may possess with respect thereto.

14. This Sale Order is and shall be binding upon and govern the acts of all persons and entities, including, without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of deeds, registrars of deeds, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal and local officials and all other persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office, or contract, to accept, file, register or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments, or who may be required to report or insure any title or state of title in or to any lease, and each of the foregoing persons and entities is hereby authorized and directed to accept for filing any and all of the documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

15. Each and every federal, state, and local governmental agency or department is hereby authorized to accept any and all documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. A certified copy of this Sale Order may be: (a) filed with the appropriate clerk; (b) recorded with the recorder; or (c) filed or recorded with any other governmental agency to act to cancel any of the Claims, Liens, and other encumbrances of record.

16. If any person or entity that has filed statements or other documents or agreements evidencing Claims or Liens in all or any portion of the Acquired Assets has not delivered to the Seller prior to the Closing Date, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, releases of Liens and Claims and any other documents necessary or desirable to the Buyer for the purpose of documenting the release of all Claims and Liens (other than Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Liens), which the person or entity has or may assert with respect to all or any portion of the Acquired Assets, then the Buyer and the Debtors are hereby authorized to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases and other documents in the name and on behalf of such person or entity with respect to the Acquired Assets; provided that, notwithstanding anything in this Sale Order or the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement to the contrary, the provisions of this Sale Order shall be self-executing, and neither the Debtors nor the Buyer shall be required to execute or file releases termination statements, assignments, consents, or other instruments in order to effectuate, consummate, and implement the provisions of this Sale Order.

17. Consumer Privacy Ombudsman Report. Upon the Court's review of the report [D.I. 349] (the "Report")⁴ filed by the consumer privacy ombudsman appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases (the "CPO"), the Court hereby holds that:

- a. Customer PII may be sold and transferred, provided that Buyer demonstrates it is a "Qualified Buyer." A "Qualified Buyer" means an entity that: (a) is engaged in substantially the same lines of business as the Seller; (b) expressly agrees to be bound by and succeed to substantially similar terms as contained in Seller's privacy policy in effect as of the Petition Date; and (c) agrees to be responsible for any future violation of the privacy policy by the Buyer occurring after the purchase of the Customer PII;

⁴ Capitalized terms used in this paragraph 17 and not otherwise defined in this Sale Order shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Report.

- b. Based on the CPO's investigation, the Buyer is a Qualified Buyer of Seller's Customer PII;
- c. Buyer must agree to be bound by and substantially meet the standards established by the Seller's privacy policies that were in effect as of the Petition Date, and comply with applicable privacy laws and regulations governing the transfer, storage, maintenance, and access to Customer PII;
- d. Customers whose data Seller proposes to sell to Buyer, or the prevailing bidders, should be provided the opportunity to opt-out of that sale. Seller has satisfied, or otherwise will satisfy, this condition by providing written notice to any customer whose Customer PII is being sold and transferred, expressly providing the opportunity to opt-out of such a sale and transfer, prior to the transfer to the Buyer. Such written notice may be satisfied by posting on Seller's websites; and
- e. Seller shall file a certification within 30 days of entry of this Sale Order confirming its compliance with Paragraph 17(d).

DIP Facility Obligations; Continuing Lien⁵

18. On the Closing Date, the Debtors shall use and disburse the net cash proceeds from this Sale, and on any other closing date of any other sale of the Debtors' assets approved pursuant to orders of the Court (collectively, the "Sale Transactions", and such aggregate proceeds the "Sale Proceeds"), each as set forth below:

- a. First, subject to the last sentence of this paragraph 18(a), at least $13 million (the "Holdback Amount") of the Sale Proceeds shall be funded into the DIP Proceeds Account, which shall constitute Cash Collateral subject to the Final DIP Order (including, but not limited to, the Carve-Out). The Holdback Amount shall be used by the Debtors in accordance with the Final DIP Order (including, but not limited to, the Carve-Out) and the Approved Budget until (i) further order of this Court, which further order, for the avoidance of doubt, may include a stipulation and agreed order or the order confirming a chapter 11 plan for any Debtor, or (ii) the Debtors, the DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Secured Parties, and the Committee otherwise agree in writing. The Debtors, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties may mutually agree to adjust the Holdback Amount, either upward or downward, after the Closing Date and on any other closing date of the Sale Transactions, including to reflect adjustments to the Approved Budget after entry of this Sale Order.

- b. Second, all Sale Proceeds in excess of the Holdback Amount shall, in such amounts as may be directed in writing by the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent (collectively, the "Agent"), be paid directly to the Agent for application to the DIP Obligations and/or the Prepetition Obligations, as elected by the Agent; provided, nothing in this clause (b) shall prejudice any rights under the Final DIP Order that may be available to the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the Debtors, or the Committee.

For the avoidance of doubt, all Liens and Claims will attach to the Sale Proceeds to the same extent and with the same priority as existed prior to consummation of the Sale Transactions, subject to any claims, defenses and objections, if any, that the Debtors, their estates, or any other party in interest may possess with respect thereto.

19. Without limitation to the other provisions of this Sale Order, at the Closing, the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall execute such documents and take such other actions as may be reasonably necessary to release their Claims and Liens in and to the Acquired Assets as of the Closing that are transferred to the Buyer; provided, however, any failure to do so shall not in any way affect the validity of such transfer free and clear of such Liens and Claims pursuant to this Sale Order.

Assumed Contracts; Assumed Warranty and Membership Obligations

20. The Seller is hereby authorized and directed in accordance with sections 105(a), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code to (a) assume and assign the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer free and clear of all Claims, Liens, and other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever (other than the Assumed Liabilities), subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, as of the Closing Date and (b) execute and deliver to the Buyer such documents or other instruments as the Buyer deems necessary to assign and transfer the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer in accordance with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. The payment of the applicable Cure Amounts (if any) by the Buyer as required by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order shall (i) effect a cure of all defaults existing thereunder as of the Closing Date, (ii) compensate for any actual pecuniary loss to the applicable Contract Counterparty resulting from such default, and (iii) together with the assumption of the Assumed Contracts by the Seller and the assignment of Assumed Contracts to the Buyer, constitute adequate assurance of future performance thereof.

21. The Buyer's right to modify the list of Assumed Contracts after the date of this Sale Order and up to the Designation Deadline, including by adding Assumed Contracts to or deleting Assumed Contracts from such list, is hereby approved.

22. On the Closing Date, the Seller shall assume and assign to the Buyer each Assumed Contract designated by Buyer for assumption and assignment on the Closing Date in accordance with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, and which Assumed Contracts are set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto (as may be modified up to the Designation Deadline); provided, however, to the extent any contract with a customer for a warranty claim and/or a membership constitute an executory Contract, such contract shall be deemed an Assumed Contract without their inclusion on Exhibit B subject to the limitations set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

23. Pursuant to section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the assignment by the Seller of the Assumed Contracts shall not be a default thereunder. Any provisions in any Assumed Contract that prohibit or condition the assignment of such Assumed Contract to the Buyer or allows the party to such Assumed Contract to terminate, recapture, impose any penalty, condition on renewal or extension, or modify any term or condition upon the assignment of such Assumed Contract to the Buyer, constitute anti-assignment provisions that are unenforceable and will have no force and effect solely with respect to assumption and assignment pursuant to this Sale Order or any subsequent assumption and assignment order. All other requirements and conditions under sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code for the assumption by the Seller and assignment to the Buyer of the Assumed Contracts have been satisfied.

24. On the Closing Date, upon payment of the relevant Cure Amount, if any, in accordance with sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Buyer shall be fully and irrevocably vested with all right, title and interest of the Seller under the Assumed Contracts. To the extent provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Debtors shall cooperate with and take all actions reasonably requested by the Buyer to effectuate the foregoing.

25. On the Closing Date, upon payment of the relevant Cure Amount, if any, the Assumed Contracts will remain in full force and effect (subject to any amendments agreed to between the counterparty to such Assumed Contract and the Buyer), and no default shall exist under the Assumed Contracts and no counterparty to any Assumed Contract shall be permitted (a) to declare a default by the Buyer under such Assumed Contract, or (b) to otherwise take action against the Buyer as a result of any Debtors' financial condition, bankruptcy, or failure to perform any of its obligations under the relevant Assumed Contract.

26. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than the right to payment of any Cure Amount, all Contract Counterparties are forever barred and permanently enjoined from raising or asserting against either the Debtors or the Buyer any assignment fee, default, breach, Claim, pecuniary loss, or condition to assignment arising under or related to the Assumed Contracts existing as of the Closing Date or arising by reason of the Closing; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any customer of any Seller holding a Cure Amount on account of a valid warranty from any Seller or a membership agreement with any Seller, subject to the limitations set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, as such liabilities are being assumed by Buyer, but only to the extent set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

27. On the Closing Date, the Debtors shall be relieved, pursuant to sections 363 and 365(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, from any further liability under any Assumed Contract, and the counterparties shall be estopped from asserting any and all Claims or Liens, whether known or unknown, against the Debtors on account of the Assumed Contract. Without limiting the foregoing, on the Closing Date, the Seller shall be relieved of any further liability under any warranty or membership obligation with any of their customers, as such liabilities are being assumed by the Buyer to the extent set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

28. Any Contract Counterparty—including, to the extent applicable, any customer holding a valid warranty from, and/or membership with, any Seller—who did not timely file an objection to the assumption of its Assumed Contract shall be deemed to have consented to the Assumed Contract's assumption and assignment to the Buyer pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. All objections to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts that have not been withdrawn, waived, settled, or adjourned, as announced to the Court at the Sale Hearing or by stipulation filed with the Court, and all reservations of rights included in such objections or otherwise, are hereby denied and overruled on the merits with prejudice.

29. Other Provisions

30. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement does not provide for the sale of the Debtors' and their estates' claims—including, without limitation, commercial tort claims and Avoidance Actions—against any of the Debtors' insiders (as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code).

31. The consideration provided by the Buyer for the Seller's right, title, and interest in the Acquired Assets under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the Acquired Assets under the Bankruptcy Code, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, Uniform Voidable Transactions Act, and other applicable law within the meaning of section 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia.

32. Effective upon the Closing Date, except as set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement with respect to Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens and Sale Order, all persons and entities are forever prohibited and permanently enjoined from commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding, whether in law or equity, in any judicial, administrative, arbitral, or other proceeding against the Buyer, its successors and assigns, or the Acquired Assets, with respect to any (a) Claims and Liens arising under, out of, in connection with or in any way relating to the Debtors, the Buyer, the Acquired Assets, or the operation of the Acquired Assets prior to the Closing or (b) successor liability based, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, on any theory of successor or vicarious liability of any kind of character, or based upon any theory of antitrust, environmental, successor or transferee liability, de facto merger or substantial continuity, labor and employment, worker's compensation, or products liability, whether known or unknown as of the Closing, now existing or hereafter arising, asserted or

33. The transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement are undertaken by the Buyer without collusion and in good faith, as that term is defined in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and accordingly, the reversal or modification on appeal of the authorization provided herein to consummate the Sale shall not affect the validity of the Sale (including the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts), unless such authorization and such Sale are duly stayed pending such appeal. The Buyer is a good faith purchaser within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and, as such, is entitled to the full protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Sale is not subject to avoidance pursuant to section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

34. No bulk sales law or any similar law of any state or other jurisdiction applies in any way to the transactions with the Debtors that are approved by this Sale Order, including, without limitation, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the Sale.

35. The failure specifically to include any particular provision of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement in this Sale Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision, it being the intent of the Court that the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement be authorized and approved in its entirety.

36. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and any related or ancillary agreements, documents or other instruments may be further modified, amended, or supplemented by the parties thereto and in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court; provided that any such modification, amendment or supplement does not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' estates.

37. To the extent that this Sale Order is inconsistent with any prior order or pleading with respect to the Motion in the Chapter 11 Cases, the terms of this Sale Order shall govern. To the extent there are any inconsistencies between the terms of this Sale Order and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement (including any ancillary documents executed in connection therewith), the terms of this Sale Order shall govern.

38. The provisions of this Sale Order are non-severable and mutually dependent.

39. All time periods set forth in this Sale Order shall be calculated in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a).

40. The automatic stay pursuant to section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is hereby modified, lifted, and annulled with respect to the Debtors and the Buyer to the extent necessary, without further order of this Court, to allow the Buyer to take any and all actions permitted under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or any other Sale-related document in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof. The Buyer shall not be required to seek or obtain relief from the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code to enforce any of its remedies under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or any other Sale-related document.

41. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effect the relief granted pursuant to this Sale Order in accordance with the Motion. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and any related agreements, documents or other instruments may be modified, amended or supplemented through a written document signed by the parties thereto in accordance with the terms thereof without further order of this Court; provided, however, that any such modification, amendment, or supplement that is either material or materially changes the economic substance of the transactions shall be (i) filed on the docket served on the Limited Service List, and (ii) parties-in-interest shall have five (5) days to object to any such amendment. Absent any such objection, such modification, amendment, or supplement shall be binding and any timely objection shall be heard by the Court on an expedited basis.

42. Notwithstanding the provisions of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) and Bankruptcy Rule 6006(d), and pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 7062(g) and 9014, this Sale Order shall not be stayed, shall be effective immediately upon entry, and the Debtors and the Buyer are authorized to close the Sale immediately upon entry of this Sale Order. Time is of the essence in closing the transactions referenced herein, and the Debtors and the Buyer intend to close the Sale as soon as practicable subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

43. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to, among other things, interpret, implement, and enforce the terms and provisions of this Sale Order and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, all amendments thereto as well as any waivers and consents thereunder and each of the agreements executed in connection therewith to which the Debtors are a party and adjudicate, if necessary, any and all disputes concerning or relating in any way to the Sale.

44. Counsel for the Debtors, through Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC d/b/a Verita Global (“Verita”) shall, within three (3) days of the entry of this Sale Order, cause a copy of this Sale Order to be served by electronic mail or first-class mail, as applicable, on all parties served with the Motion, and Verita shall file promptly thereafter a certificate of service confirming such service.

(o) all other Liabilities of the Seller under this Agreement and the Related Agreements and the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby (excluding all the Assumed Liabilities).

Section 2.5 Consideration. The aggregate consideration for the sale, transfer, assignment, conveyance and delivery of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer (the “Purchase Price”) shall be (a) the Cash Purchase Price which shall be delivered to Seller in accordance with Section 2.9(b)(i) (by delivery of the Closing Seller Payment) and Section 2.13 (by delivery of the Good Faith Deposit); plus (b) the assumption of Assumed Liabilities (including the Cure Amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.6(f)). Not later than two (2) Business Days following the entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Buyer will confirm the then-current dollar amount of the Purchase Price in writing to the Seller, which amount shall be subject to upward adjustment at any time prior to or during the Auction.

Section 2.6 Assumption and Assignment of Contracts, Leases, Employee Benefit Plans and Permits.

(a) The Sale Order shall provide for the assumption by the Seller, and the assignment to the extent legally capable of being assigned by the Seller to the Buyer, of the Assumed Contracts on the terms and conditions set forth in the remainder of this Section 2.6.

(b) At the Buyer’s request, the Seller shall reasonably cooperate from the date hereof forward with the Buyer as reasonably requested by the Buyer to allow the Buyer to enter into an amendment of any Contract or Lease effective upon assignment to the Buyer of such Contract or Lease (and the Seller shall reasonably cooperate with the Buyer to the extent reasonably requested with the Buyer in negotiations with the applicable non-debtor counterparties and/or landlords). The Buyer shall compensate the Seller for any reasonable, reasonably documented out-of-pocket, non-fixed costs with respect to the foregoing, but not to include outside counsel fees.

(c) Section 2.6(c)(i) of the Disclosure Schedule sets forth a true, correct, and complete list of all Contracts and Leases to which the Seller is a party with respect to the Business. Section 2.6(c)(ii) of the Disclosure Schedule sets forth a true, correct, and complete list of all of the Seller's Employee Benefit Plans. Section 2.6(c)(iii) of the Disclosure Schedule sets forth a true, correct, and complete list of all of the Assumable Permits with respect to the Business. The proposed Cure Amounts in respect of each Contract, Lease and Employee Benefit Plan, are also set forth in Section 2.6(c)(i) of the Disclosure Schedule. Buyer has advised the Seller that it may want the Seller to assume and assign certain of the Contracts and Leases set forth in Section 2.6(c)(i) of the Disclosure Schedule, Employee Benefit Plans set forth in Section 2.6(c)(ii) of the Disclosure Schedule and Assumable Permits set forth in Section 2.6(c)(iii) of the Disclosure Schedule, in each case, under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The inclusion of any Contract or Lease on Section 2.6(c)(i) of the Disclosure Schedule, Employee Benefit Plan on Section 2.6(c)(ii) of the Disclosure Schedule or Assumable Permit on Section 2.6(c)(iii) of the Disclosure Schedule does not constitute an admission that a particular contract is an executory contract or unexpired lease within the meanings set forth in the Bankruptcy Code or require or guarantee that such Contract, Lease, Employee Benefit Plan or Assumable Permit will ultimately be assumed. All rights of Buyer with respect thereto are reserved. The Buyer shall, no later than five (5) days prior to the earlier of (i) a scheduled Auction or, (ii) in the event no Auction is held, prior to the hearing scheduled to consider entry of the Sale Order (the "Designation Deadline"), identify in writing to the Seller the Contracts, Leases, Employee Benefit Plans and Assumable Permits that the Buyer has decided subject to its other rights in this Section 2.6, will be Assumed Contracts by putting such agreements onto a contract and cure schedule (the "Contract and Cure Schedule"), will be Assumed Employee Benefit Plans by putting such Employee Benefit Plans on the "Assumed Employee Benefit Plan Schedule" or will be Assumed Permits by putting such Assumable Permits on the "Assumed Permit Schedule", each of which may be modified from time to time as set forth herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, subject to its other rights in this Section 2.6, if the Buyer is designated as the Successful Bidder at the Auction, no later than seven (7) days after entry of the Sale Order, but in no event later than the Closing Date (the "Opt Out Deadline"), the Buyer may add or remove any Contract, Lease, Employee Benefit Plan or Assumable Permit to or from the Contract and Cure Schedule, Assumed Employee Benefit Plan Schedule or Assumed Permit Schedule, as applicable, in each case as may have been amended prior thereto by the Buyer in accordance with this clause (c), and, in the case of any Contract or Lease that is removed from the Contract and Cure Schedule, Employee Benefit Plan that is removed from the Assumed Employee Benefit Plan Schedule or Assumable Permit that is removed from the Assumed Permit Schedule, as applicable, either advise the Seller it has no objection to the Seller rejecting such Contract, Lease, Employee Benefit Plan or Assumable Permit, in each case by providing notice thereof to the Seller along with a further modified Contract and Cure Schedule, Assumed Employee Benefit Plan Schedule or Assumed Permit Schedule, as applicable. The final Contract and Cure Schedule, as modified by any such designations or removals is referred to as the “Closing Assumed Contract List”. The final Assumed Employee Benefit Plan Schedule, as modified by any such designations or removals is referred to as the “Closing Assumed Employee Benefit Plan List”. The final Assumed Permit Schedule, as modified by any such designations or removals is referred to as the “Closing Assumed Permit List”. For the avoidance of doubt, at any time and from time to time prior to the Designation Deadline, or if the Buyer is designated as the Successful Bidder at the Auction, the Opt Out Deadline, the Buyer shall have the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to designate a Contract, Lease, Employee Benefit Plan or Assumable Permit for exclusion and, subject to the Seller’s reasonable discretion, rejection by delivering written notice to the Seller along with (x) a modified Contract and Cure Schedule (and all such Contract and Leases shall be Excluded Assets and all Liabilities arising under or in connection with such Contracts shall be Excluded Liabilities), (y) a modified Assumed Employee Benefit Plan Schedule (and all such Employee Benefit Plans shall be Excluded Assets and all Liabilities arising under or in connection such Employee Benefit Plans shall be Excluded Liabilities) or (z) a modified Assumed Permit Schedule (and all such Assumable Permits shall be Excluded Assets and all Liabilities arising under or in connection with such Assumable Permits shall be Excluded Liabilities), without the necessity of providing prior notice to any non-debtor counterparty to any such Contract, Lease, Employee Benefit Plan or Assumable Permit.

(d) The Sale Order shall provide that each Contract and Lease included on the Closing Assumed Contract List and Cure Schedule, Employee Benefit Plan included on the Closing Assumed Employee Benefit Plan List and Assumable Permit included on the Closing Assumed Permit List will be deemed to have been assigned to the Buyer and become an Assumed Contract, Assumed Employee Benefit Plan or Assumed Permit, as applicable, on the date (the “Assumption Effective Date”) that is the later of: (i) the Closing Date, or (ii) contemporaneously with the resolution of any objections to the assumption and assignment of such Contract or Lease (or to a proposed Cure Amount), Employee Benefit Plan or Assumable Permit.

(e) As part of the Sale Motion (or as necessary in one or more separate motions), the Seller shall request that, by virtue of the Seller providing prior notice of their intent to assume and assign any Contract, Lease, Employee Benefit Plan or Assumable Permit pursuant to the terms set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order, the Bankruptcy Court shall deem (by way of the Bidding Procedures Order or such other order of the Bankruptcy Court) any non-debtor party to such Contract, Lease, Employee Benefit Plan or Assumable Permit that does not file an objection with the Bankruptcy Court during such notice period to have given any required Consent to the assumption of the Contract, Lease, Employee Benefit Plan or Assumable Permit by the relevant Seller and assignment to the Buyer. Subject to Section 2.6(j), (i) each Contract and Lease that is listed on Section 2.6(c)(i) of the Disclosure Schedule, but not the Closing Assumed Contract List, shall be rejected by the Seller, (ii) each Employee Benefit Plan that is listed on Section 2.6(c)(ii) of the Disclosure Schedule, but not the Closing Assumed Employee Benefit Plan List shall be rejected by the Seller and (iii) each Assumable Permit that is listed on Section 2.6(c)(iii) of the Disclosure Schedule, but not the Closing Assumed Permit List shall be rejected by the Seller, in each case of (i), (ii) and (iii), subject to the Seller’s reasonable discretion and approval by the Bankruptcy Court.

(f) In connection with the assumption and assignment to the Buyer of any Assumed Contract, amounts that must be paid and obligations that otherwise must be satisfied, pursuant to Sections 365(b)(1)(A) and (B) of the Bankruptcy Code in order to effectuate the assumption by the Seller and the assignment to the Buyer of such Assumed Contract, as agreed among the applicable non-debtor counterparty, the Seller and the Buyer, or as determined by the Bankruptcy Court, that relates to the period prior to the Assumption Effective Date (such amounts, the “Cure Amounts”), shall be paid by the Buyer, on the Assumption Effective Date, and not by the Seller and the Seller shall have liability therefor, and the Cure Amounts paid by the Buyer shall not reduce, directly or indirectly, the Cash Purchase Price received by the Seller hereunder.

(g) The Seller shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain an order of the Bankruptcy Court (including the Sale Order) authorizing the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to Buyer (the “Assumption Approval”) on the terms set forth in this Section 2.6. In the event the Seller is unable to assign any such Assumed Contract, Assumed Employee Benefit Plan or Assumed Permit to the Buyer pursuant to an order of the Bankruptcy Court for any reason, including that the Consent of a Governmental Entity or third party is necessary to assume and assign such Assumed Contracts to the Buyer (the “Necessary Consents”) and such Necessary Consent has not yet been obtained, then the Parties shall use their commercially reasonable efforts until the earlier of the effective date of a Chapter 11 plan confirmed in the Seller’s Chapter 11 Cases or the ninetieth (90th) day after the Closing Date (the “Consent Deadline”) to obtain, and to cooperate in obtaining, all Consents from Governmental Entities and third parties necessary to assume and assign such Contract, Lease, Employee Benefit Plan or Assumable Permit to the Buyer, including, in the case of the Buyer, paying any applicable Cure Amounts.

(h) To the extent that any Consent that is required to assign to the Buyer any Contract or Lease is not obtained by the Closing Date, the Seller shall, with respect to each such Contract or Lease, from and after the Closing and until the earliest to occur of (x) the effective date of a Chapter 11 plan confirmed in the Seller’s Chapter 11 Cases, (y) the date on which such applicable Consent is obtained (which Consents the Parties shall use their commercially reasonable efforts, and cooperate with each other, to obtain promptly), and (z) the Consent Deadline, use commercially reasonable efforts to (i) provide to the Buyer the benefits under such Contract or Lease, (ii) cooperate in any reasonable and lawful arrangement (including holding such Contract or Lease in trust for the Buyer pending receipt of the required Consent) designed to provide such benefits to the Buyer, and (iii) use its commercially reasonable efforts to enforce for the account of the Buyer any rights of the Seller under such Contract or Lease (including the right to elect to terminate such Contract or Lease in accordance with the terms thereof upon the written direction of the Buyer). The Buyer shall reasonably cooperate with the Seller in order to enable the Seller to provide to the Buyer the benefits contemplated by this Section 2.6(h). The Buyer shall compensate the Seller for any reasonable and reasonably documented out-of-pocket, non-fixed costs with respect to any Assumed Contract for which a Necessary Consent has not been obtained until such time as such Assumed Contract is either (a) assumed by the Seller and assigned to the Buyer or (b) rejected by the Seller.

(i) Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Contract or Lease shall not be an Assumed Contract hereunder and shall not be assigned to, or assumed by, the Buyer to the extent that such Contract or Lease (i) is rejected by the Seller or validly terminated by the Seller in accordance with the terms hereof or by the other party thereto, or terminates or expires by its terms, on or prior to the Closing Date and is not continued or otherwise extended upon assumption, or (ii) requires a Consent of any Governmental Entity or other third party (other than, and in addition to, that of the Bankruptcy Court) in order to permit the sale or transfer to the Buyer of the Seller's rights under such Contract, and no such Consent has been obtained prior to the effective date of a Chapter 11 plan confirmed in the Seller's Chapter 11 Cases or the Consent Deadline. In addition, a Permit shall not be assigned to, or assumed by, the Buyer to the extent that such Permit requires a Consent of any Governmental Entity or other third party (other than, and in addition to, that of the Bankruptcy Court) in order to permit the sale or transfer to the Buyer of the Seller's rights under such Permit, and no such Consent has been obtained prior to the Closing or such later date as may be agreed among the Seller and the Buyer (and all costs and expenses associated with such extension shall be borne by the Buyer).

(j) If prior to the Closing, it is discovered that a Contract should have been listed on Section 2.6(c) of the Disclosure Schedule but was not so listed (any such Contract, a "Previously Omitted Contract"), the Seller shall, promptly following the discovery thereof (but in no event later than five (5) Business Days following the discovery thereof), notify the Buyer in writing of such Previously Omitted Contract and provide the Buyer with a copy of such Previously Omitted Contract and the Cure Amount (if any) in respect thereof. The Buyer shall thereafter deliver written notice to the Seller, no later than five (5) Business Days following such notice of such Previously Omitted Contract from the Seller, if the Buyer elects to so include such Previously Omitted Contract on the Contract and Cure Schedule.

(k) If the Buyer includes a Previously Omitted Contract on the Contract and Cure Schedule in accordance with Section 2.6(j), the Seller shall file and serve a notice on the contract counterparties to such Previously Omitted Contract notifying such counterparties of the Seller's intention to assume and assign to the Buyer such Previously Omitted Contract, including the proposed Cure Amount (if any). Such notice shall provide such contract counterparties pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order to object, in writing, to the Seller and the Buyer to the assumption of its Contract or Lease. If such counterparties, the Seller and the Buyer are unable to reach a consensual resolution with respect to the objection, the Seller shall seek an expedited hearing before the Bankruptcy Court to seek approval of the assumption and assignment of such Previously Omitted Contract. If no objection is timely served on the Seller and the Buyer, then such Previously Omitted Contract shall be deemed assumed by the Seller and assigned to the Buyer pursuant to the Sale Order. The Seller and the Buyer shall execute, acknowledge and deliver such other instruments and take commercially reasonable efforts as are reasonably practicable for the Buyer to assume the rights and obligations under such Previously Omitted Contract.

Section 2.7 Reserved.

Section 2.8 Closing. The Parties agree that the closing of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement including the purchase and sale of the Acquired Assets pursuant to this Agreement (the “Closing”) shall take place electronically commencing at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern time) on the date that is the third (3rd) Business Day after the date on which all conditions to the obligations of the Seller and the Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby set forth in Article VII have been satisfied or waived (other than conditions with respect to actions that either or both the Seller and the Buyer will take at the Closing itself, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver (by the Party entitled to waive such condition) of those conditions) or at such other time or on such other date as shall be mutually agreed upon by the Seller and the Buyer prior thereto (the “Closing Date”); provided, however, the Closing shall occur prior to the End Date. The date and time on and at which the Closing actually occurs is referred to in this Agreement as the “Closing Date.”

Section 2.9 Deliveries at Closing.

(a) At the Closing, the Seller shall deliver to the Buyer the following documents and other items, duly executed by the Seller, as applicable:

- (i) the Acquired Assets;

(b) At the Closing, the Buyer shall deliver to the Seller, the following documents, consideration and other items, duly executed by the Buyer, as applicable:

- (i) the Closing Seller Payment;
- (ii) the Assignment and Assumption Agreement;
- (iii) the Intellectual Property Assignment;
- (iv) the Transition Services Agreement;

(vi) a certificate to the effect that each of the conditions specified in Section 7.2(a) and Section 7.2(b) is satisfied in accordance with the terms thereof; and

(vii) a copy of the Buyer's certificate of incorporation, certificate of formation or other formation document certified as of a date on or soon before the Closing Date by the Secretary of State (or comparable governmental officer) of the respective jurisdictions of the Buyer's incorporation or organization.

Section 2.10 Allocation. As soon as reasonably practicable and in no event later than seventy-five (75) days after the Closing Date, the Buyer shall provide the Seller with a draft allocation of the Purchase Price for federal income tax purposes, including any liabilities properly included therein among the Acquired Assets and the agreements provided for herein, for federal, state and local income tax purposes (the "Allocation"). Within forty-five (45) days of the receipt of the Allocation, the Seller may deliver a written notice (the "Allocation Objection Notice") to the Buyer, setting forth in reasonable detail those items in the Allocation that the Seller disputes, if any. The Seller may make reasonable inquiries of the Buyer and its accountants and Service Providers relating to the Allocation, and the Buyer shall use reasonable efforts to cause any such accountants and Service Providers to cooperate with, and provide such requested information to, the Seller in a timely manner. If prior to the conclusion of such forty-five (45)-day period, the Seller notifies the Buyer in writing that the Seller will not provide any Allocation Objection Notice or if the Seller does not deliver an Allocation Objection Notice within such forty-five (45)-day period, then the Buyer's proposed Allocation shall be deemed agreed and final, conclusive and binding upon each of the Parties. Within thirty (30) days of the Seller's delivery of the Allocation Objection Notice, the Seller and the Buyer shall attempt to resolve in good faith any disputed items, and failing such resolution, the Buyer and Seller shall each be entitled to allocate any disputed items in the manner that they determine in their reasonable discretion. The Allocation shall be prepared in accordance with IRC Section 1060 and the treasury regulations promulgated thereunder (and any similar provision of state, local or foreign Law, as appropriate). With respect to any portion of the Allocation that is agreed between the parties, (i) the Buyer and the Sellers shall each report the federal, state and local income and other Tax consequences of the transactions contemplated hereby in a manner consistent with the Allocation, including, if applicable, the preparation and filing of Forms 8594 under IRC Section 1060 (or any successor form or successor provision of any future Tax Law) with their respective federal income Tax Returns for the taxable year which includes the Closing Date, and (ii) neither Buyer nor Seller will take any position inconsistent with the Allocation unless otherwise required under applicable Law.

Section 2.11 Proration of Taxes and Other Items. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement with respect to Tax items allocable to a particular Party, to the extent that any of the items listed below in this Section 2.11 are paid by the Seller prior to the Closing or are payable by the Buyer or the Seller after the Closing Date, such items shall be apportioned as of the Closing Date such that (i) the Seller shall be liable for (and shall reimburse the Buyer to the extent that the Buyer shall pay) that portion of such of the foregoing relating or attributable to periods prior to the Closing Date; and (ii) the Buyer shall be liable (and shall reimburse the Seller, to the extent the Seller shall have paid) that portion of the foregoing relating or attributable to periods on or after the Closing Date. Should any amounts to be prorated not have been finally determined on the Closing Date, a mutually satisfactory estimate of such amounts made on the basis of the Seller's records shall be used as a basis for settlement at the Closing, and the amount finally determined will be prorated as of the Closing Date and appropriate settlement made as soon as practicable after such final determination, with final settlement to be made no later than sixty (60) days after the Closing Date. The items to be prorated in accordance with this Section 2.11 shall include, without limitation: (a) personal property, real estate, retail sales, occupancy and use Taxes, if any, on or with respect to the Business, the Acquired Assets and/or the Assumed Liabilities, except to the extent the date of the assessment of such Taxes falls before the Closing Date, in which case such Taxes shall be Excluded Liabilities; (b) lease payments under any Assumed Contract that is a Lease for the month in which the Closing occurs; and (c) insurance premiums of any policies acquired by the Buyer at the Closing. The Seller and the Buyer agree to furnish each other with such documents and other records as each Party reasonably requests in order to confirm all adjustment and proration calculations made pursuant to this Section 2.11.

Section 2.12 [Reserved.]

Section 2.13 Good Faith Deposit. Upon Buyer's execution of this Agreement, the Buyer shall remit an earnest-money deposit in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the Cash Purchase Price (i.e., $1,150,000) to a non-interest-bearing escrow account maintained by Seller or Solutions (the "Good Faith Deposit"), which Good Faith Deposit shall be applied against the Purchase Price at Closing. Within five (5) Business Days of any termination of this Agreement, the Good Faith Deposit shall be returned to the Buyer if this Agreement is duly terminated in accordance with Section 8.1 (other than in the event of a Buyer Termination Breach). If a Buyer Termination Breach has occurred, the Good Faith Deposit shall be forfeited to the Seller's estate and such forfeiture of the Good Faith Deposit shall be Seller's sole and exclusive remedy and Seller shall have no further Claims or causes of action against Buyer arising from or relating to such termination of the Agreement.

ARTICLE III
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE SELLER.

The Seller represents and warrants to the Buyer as of the date hereof and as of Closing:

Section 3.1 Organization of the Seller; Good Standing.

(a) The Seller is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of its jurisdiction of formation or incorporation.

(b) The Seller has all requisite limited liability company power and authority to own, lease and operate its assets and to carry on the Business as currently conducted.

(c) True and complete copies of the organizational documents of the Seller have been made available to the Buyer.

(d) The Seller is duly authorized to conduct its business and is in good standing as a foreign limited liability company in each jurisdiction where the ownership or operation of the Acquired Assets or the conduct of the Business requires such qualification, except for failures to be so authorized or be in such good standing, as would not individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to result in a material liability to the Seller or the Business or prevent or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. No other jurisdiction has demanded, requested or otherwise indicated that the Seller is required so to qualify on account of ownership or operation of the Acquired Assets or the conduct of the Business.

(e) Except as set forth on Section 3.1(e) of the Disclosure Schedule, the Seller (i) has no Subsidiaries and (ii) does not directly or indirectly control any Subsidiary or any other Person which is involved in or relates to the Business. Except as set forth on Section 3.1(e) of the Disclosure Schedule, all outstanding equity interests of each Subsidiary of the Seller are held of record by the Seller and beneficially owned by the Seller, all outstanding equity interests of each Subsidiary, if any, of the Seller have been duly authorized and are fully paid and non-assessable. There are no outstanding or authorized, and there is no obligation of any Subsidiary of the Seller to issue or grant, any options, warrants, purchase rights, subscription rights, conversion rights, exchange rights, preemptive rights, redemption rights, repurchase rights, rights of first refusal or other rights, or Contracts that could require any Subsidiary of the Seller to issue, sell or otherwise cause to become outstanding or that otherwise relate to the equity interests of any Subsidiary of the Seller or to redeem or otherwise acquire any of its outstanding equity interests, or obligate any Subsidiary of the Seller to grant, extend or enter into any such agreements.

Section 3.2 Authorization of Transaction. Subject to the Sale Order having been entered and still being in effect and not subject to any stay pending appeal at the time of Closing:

(a) The Seller has all requisite limited liability company power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and all Related Agreements to which it is a party and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder; the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and all Related Agreements to which the Seller is a party have been duly authorized by the Seller, and no other limited liability company action on the part of the Seller is necessary to authorize this Agreement or the Related Agreements to which it is party or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby; and

(b) This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Seller, and, upon execution and delivery in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, each of the Related Agreements to which the Seller is a party will have been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Seller. Assuming that this Agreement constitutes a valid and legally binding obligation of the Buyer, this Agreement constitutes the valid and legally binding obligations of the Seller, enforceable against the Seller in accordance with its terms and conditions, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar Laws relating to creditors' rights and general principles of equity. Assuming, to the extent that it is a party thereto, that each Related Agreement constitutes a valid and legally binding obligation of the Buyer, each Related Agreement to which the Seller is a party, when executed and delivered, constituted or will constitute the valid and legally binding obligations of the Seller, as applicable, enforceable against the Seller in accordance with their respective terms and conditions, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar Laws relating to creditors' rights and general principles of equity.

Section 3.3 Noncontravention; Consents and Approvals.

(a) Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby (including the assignments and assumptions referred to in Article II), will, subject to the Sale Order having been entered and still being in effect and not subject to any stay pending appeal at the time of Closing, (i) conflict with or result in a breach of the certificate of incorporation, certificate of formation, limited liability company agreement, by-laws or other organizational documents of the Seller, (ii) violate or conflict with any Law or Decree to which the Seller is, or its respective assets or properties are, subject, or (iii) conflict with, result in a breach of, constitute a default under, result in the acceleration of, create in any party the right to accelerate, terminate, modify or cancel or require any notice or payment under, or result in the creation or imposition of any Liens upon any of the Acquired Assets under, any Contract or Lease to which the Seller is a party or by which it is bound or to which any of the Acquired Assets is subject, except as set forth on Section 3.3(a) of the Disclosure Schedule and, in the case of clause (ii) or (iii), for such violations, conflicts, breaches, defaults, accelerations, rights or failures to give notice, as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to be material to the Seller or the Business or prevent or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) Subject to the Sale Order having been entered and still being in effect and not subject to any stay pending appeal at the time of Closing and except as set forth on Section 3.3(b) of the Disclosure Schedule, no Consent, notice or filing is required to be obtained by the Seller from, or to be given by the Seller to, or made by the Seller with, any Governmental Entity in connection with the execution, delivery and performance by the Seller of this Agreement or any Related Agreement. Section 5.8 Post-Closing Operation of the Seller. The Seller hereby acknowledges and agrees that following the Closing, the Buyer and its Affiliates shall have the sole right to the use of the Owned Intellectual Property, including those names, logos and Marks set forth on Exhibit E or similar or other relevant names or any Marks containing or comprising the foregoing, including any name or Mark confusingly similar thereto (collectively, the "Assumed Trade Names"). Neither the Seller nor any of its Affiliates shall seek to register in any jurisdiction any trade, corporate or business name, trademark or other name or source identifier that is a derivation, translation, adaptation, combination or variation of, or confusingly similar to, any of the Assumed Trade Names. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller shall retain the right to use such Assumed Trade Names solely as required in connection with the completion of all of the Seller's Chapter 11 Cases.

Section 5.9 Transfer of Permits. From and after the date hereof, and for up to ninety (90) days after the Closing Date (subject to the prior entry by the Bankruptcy Court of an order confirming a Chapter 11 plan or dismissing all of the Seller's Chapter 11 Cases) and, subject to the Seller having appropriate levels of resources and personnel after the Closing Date, the Seller, shall reasonably cooperate to transfer to Buyer as of the Closing Date (or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter) all Permits included in the Acquired Assets; provided, that Buyer shall compensate the Seller for any reasonable and reasonably documented out-of-pocket, non-fixed costs incurred after the Closing with respect to the foregoing.

Section 5.10 Bankruptcy Court Approval. The Buyer and the Seller acknowledge that, under the Bankruptcy Code, the sale of Acquired Assets is subject to approval of the Bankruptcy Court. The Buyer and the Seller acknowledge that to obtain such approval, the Seller must demonstrate that they have taken reasonable steps to obtain the highest or best value possible for the Acquired Assets, including giving notice of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to creditors and other interested parties as ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, providing information about the Acquired Assets to prospective bidders, entertaining higher or better offers from qualified bidders and, if necessary, conducting an Auction and selling the Acquired Assets to another qualified bidder.

ARTICLE VI OTHER COVENANTS

The Parties agree as follows with respect to the period from and after the Closing:

Section 6.1 Cooperation. Each of the Parties shall cooperate with each other, and shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause their respective Representatives to cooperate with each other, to provide an orderly transition of the Acquired Assets and Assumed Liabilities from the Seller to the Buyer and to minimize the disruption to the Business resulting from the transactions contemplated hereby. The Seller shall reasonably (i) provide any information necessary or reasonably requested to allow the Buyer to comply with any information reporting or withholding requirements contained in the IRC or other applicable Laws or to compute the amount of payroll or other employment Taxes due with respect to any payment made in connection with this Agreement; and (ii) provide certificates or forms, and timely execute any Tax Return, that are necessary or appropriate to establish an exemption for (or reduction in) any Transfer Tax.

Section 6.2 Further Assurances. In case at any time from and after the Closing Date any further action is necessary or reasonably required to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the terms and conditions of the Sale Order, at any Party's request and sole cost and expense, each Party shall take such further action (including the execution and delivery to any other Party of such other reasonable instruments of sale, transfer, conveyance, assignment, assumption or confirmation and providing materials and information) as another Party may reasonably request as shall be necessary to transfer, convey and assign to the Buyer all of the Acquired Assets, to confirm the Buyer's assumption of the Assumed Liabilities and to confirm Seller's retention of the Excluded Assets and Excluded Liabilities. Without limiting the generality of this Section 6.2, to the extent that either the Buyer or the Seller discover any additional assets or properties (or the Buyer holds, directly or indirectly, any Excluded Assets or the Seller holds, directly or indirectly, any Acquired Assets), which should have been transferred or assigned to the Buyer as Acquired Assets but were not so transferred or assigned, the Buyer and the Seller shall promptly transfer (or cause to be transferred) such assets to or from (as the case may be) the other applicable Party, without further consideration from the other Party and cooperate and execute and deliver any instruments of transfer or assignment necessary to transfer and assign such asset or property, and no additional consideration shall be due from the other Party in connection therewith. Prior to any such transfer, the Party receiving or possessing any such asset will hold it in trust for such other Party.

Section 6.3 Availability of Business Records. From and after the Closing Date until the date that is three (3) years from the Closing Date, the Buyer shall promptly provide to the Seller and its Representatives (after reasonable notice and during normal business hours and without charge to Seller), at the Seller's sole cost and expense, reasonable access to all Records included in the Acquired Assets for periods prior to the Closing (as long as such access does not unreasonably interfere with the Buyer's business operations) to the extent such access is necessary in order for the Seller to comply with its obligations to administer Seller's Chapter 11 Cases or applicable Law or any contract to which it is a party, and so long as such access is subject to an obligation of confidentiality, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve such Records until the latest of (i) three (3) years after the Closing Date, (ii) the required retention period required by Law for all government contact information, records or documents, and (iii) the conclusion of all bankruptcy proceedings relating to the Seller's Chapter 11 Cases (the "Retention Period"). Such access shall include access to any information in electronic form to the extent reasonably available. The Buyer acknowledges that the Seller has the right to retain copies of all of Records included in the Acquired Assets for periods prior to the Closing subject to all confidentiality agreements applicable thereto. For a period of one (1) year immediately following the applicable Retention Period, prior to destroying any material Records included in the Acquired Assets for periods prior to the Closing, the Buyer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to reasonably notify the Seller thirty (30) days in advance of any such proposed destruction of its intent to destroy such Records, and the Buyer shall permit the Seller to retain such Records subject to all confidentiality agreements applicable thereto. With respect to any litigation and claims that are Excluded Liabilities, the Buyer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to render, at the Seller's expense, all reasonable assistance that the Seller may request in defending such litigation or claim and shall make reasonable efforts to make personnel most knowledgeable about the matter in question available to the Seller. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Buyer or any Affiliates thereof be required to make any such books or records available to the Seller or provide such access in connection with a dispute, litigation, claim or other Litigation involving Buyer or any Affiliates.

Section 6.4 Employee Matters.

(a) Effective immediately prior to the Closing, the Seller will terminate the employment of those employees of the Seller that are engaged in the Business. The Buyer shall offer employment as of the Closing Date to all active employees of the Business (such employees who accept such employment, the “Transferred Employees”). Such offers of employment made by the Buyer shall include at least base salary or hourly wage rate and commissions that are substantially similar in the aggregate to those that such employees received immediately prior to the Closing Date and such other terms and conditions solely to the extent to ensure that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement do not trigger the WARN Act or similar state and local Laws. Without limiting Seller’s responsibility for the Excluded Employee Liabilities, the Seller shall have no liability or obligation to any such Transferred Employee who becomes an employee of the Buyer on and after the Closing Date with respect to compensation payable or claims arising with respect to Buyer’s employment of such Transferred Employees during the post-Closing period. Subject to Seller’s compliance with Section 5.4(l) of this Agreement, the Buyer shall be responsible for all liabilities incurred pursuant to the WARN Act and any similar state or local Laws for Service Providers who become an employee of the Buyer in relation to any termination that occurs on or after the Closing Date. The Buyer shall have no liability or obligation to any employee of the Seller, including any employee of the Business, with respect to the Seller’s employment of such employee. Nothing in this Agreement shall restrict the rights of the Buyer under applicable Law or any employment contract with respect to any employee hired by the Buyer.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement is intended to (x) prevent the Buyer from terminating the employment of any Person who becomes an employee of the Buyer or one of its Affiliates on or following the Closing, (y) confer upon any of the Seller’s employees or any Transferred Employee, or any legal representative or beneficiary thereof, any rights or remedies, including any right to employment or continued employment for any specified period, or compensation or benefits of any nature or kind whatsoever under this Agreement, or (z) create any third-party beneficiary rights in any Service Provider of any Seller or any of its Subsidiaries, any beneficiary or dependent thereof, or any collective bargaining agreement representative.

Section 6.5 Transfer Taxes. The Buyer shall pay all stamp, documentary, registration, transfer, added-value or similar Tax (each, a “Transfer Tax”) imposed under any applicable Law in connection with the transactions contemplated by Article II of this Agreement. The Seller and the Buyer shall cooperate to prepare and timely file any Tax Returns required to be filed in connection with Transfer Taxes described in the immediately preceding sentence.

Section 6.6 Wage Reporting. The Buyer and the Seller agree to utilize, or cause their respective Affiliates to utilize, the standard procedure set forth in Internal Revenue Service Revenue Procedure 2004-53 with respect to wage reporting.

Section 6.7 Reasonable, Out-of-Pocket, Non-Fixed Costs. With respect to any provision in this Agreement, including Sections 2.6(b), 2.6(h), 5.9 and 6.2, that requires the Buyer to compensate the Seller for its reasonable and reasonably documented, out-of-pocket, non-fixed costs, the Buyer and the Seller shall each use their commercially reasonable efforts to agree in advance in writing as to such costs pursuant to, among other things, the Transition Services Agreement or an approved budget.

Section 6.8 No Successor Liability. The Parties intend that, to the fullest extent permitted by Law (including under Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code), upon the Closing, Buyer shall not be deemed to: (a) be the successor or successor employer of the Seller, including with respect to Environmental Liabilities; (b) have, de facto or otherwise, merged with or into the Seller; (c) have any common law successor liability in relation to any “multiemployer plan” (as defined in Section 3(37) of ERISA), any “multiple employer plan” (as defined in Section 413(c) of the IRC), or any “multiple employer welfare arrangement” (as defined in Section 3(40) of ERISA), including with respect to withdrawal liability or contribution obligations or with respect to any Environmental Liabilities, (d) be a mere continuation or substantial continuation of the Seller; or (e) be liable for any acts or omissions of the Seller in the conduct of the Business or arising under, or related to, the Acquired Assets, other than as set forth in this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Parties intend that Buyer shall not be liable for any Liability or Lien (other than Assumed Liabilities) against the Seller or any of the Seller’s predecessors or Affiliates and Buyer shall have no successor or vicarious Liability of any kind or character whether known or unknown as of the Closing Date, whether now existing or hereafter arising, or whether fixed or contingent, with respect to the Business, the Acquired Assets or any Liabilities of Seller arising prior to the Closing Date. The Parties agree that the provisions substantially in the form of this Section 6.8 shall be reflected in the Sale Order.

Section 6.9 Wrong Pockets. After the Closing: (a) if the Seller or any of its Affiliates receive any amount that is an Acquired Asset or is otherwise properly due and owing to Buyer in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, Seller promptly shall remit, or shall cause to be remitted, such amount to Buyer in accordance with this Agreement and (b) if Buyer or any of its Affiliates receive any amount that is an Excluded Asset or is otherwise properly due and owing to Seller, Solutions or any of their respective Affiliates in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, Buyer promptly shall remit, or shall cause to be remitted, such amount to Seller in accordance with this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII CONDITIONS TO OBLIGATION TO CLOSING

Section 7.1 Conditions to the Buyer’s Obligations. Subject to Section 7.3, the Buyer’s obligation to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby in connection with the Closing are subject to the Buyer becoming the Successful Bidder (whether following the conclusion of the Auction or thereafter as a result of the Successful Bidder failing to close) and to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions (any of which may be waived by the Buyer, in whole or in part, in its sole and absolute discretion):

(a) as of the date hereof and as of the Closing as if made at the Closing (in each case, except for any representation or warranty that is expressly made as of a specified date, in which case as of such specified date), (i) the Fundamental Representations shall be true and correct in all respects, and (ii) other than the Fundamental Representations, all representations and warranties set forth in Article III shall be true and correct in all respects (without giving effect to any materiality, Material Adverse Effect or similar qualifications contained therein), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct has not resulted in, and would not reasonably be expected to result in, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect;

(b) the Seller shall have materially performed and complied with the Seller's covenants and agreements hereunder to the extent required to be performed prior to the Closing in all material respects;

(c) the Buyer shall have received the items listed in Section 2.9(a);

(d) no Governmental Entity shall have threatened, enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any Law or Decree that has the effect of rendering the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any of the Related Agreements, or the Parties performance under this Agreement or any of the Related Agreements including the Closing, illegal or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any of the Related Agreements, or the Parties performance under this Agreement or any of the Related Agreements including the Closing;

(e) the Bidding Procedures Order shall have been entered by the Bankruptcy Court and shall be a Final Order;

(f) the Sale Order shall have been entered by the Bankruptcy Court and shall be a Final Order; provided, however, that nothing in this Agreement precludes the Parties from consummating the transactions contemplated by this Agreement if the Sale Order has been entered and has not been stayed and the Buyer, in its sole discretion, waives in writing the condition that the Sale Order be a Final Order;

(g) there must not be in effect any Law or Decree that would prohibit or make illegal the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

(h) from the date of this Agreement until the Closing Date, there shall not have occurred any Material Adverse Effect.

Section 7.2 Conditions to the Seller's Obligations. Subject to Section 7.3, Seller's obligation to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby in connection with the Closing are subject to the Buyer becoming the Successful Bidder (whether following the conclusion of the Auction, if any, or thereafter as a result of the Successful Bidder failing to close) and to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions (any of which may be waived by the Seller, in whole or in part, in their sole and absolute discretion):

(a) as of the date hereof and as of the Closing as if made at the Closing (in each case, except for any representation or warranty that is expressly made as of a specified date, in which case as of such specified date), (i) any representation or warranty contained in Section 4.1, Section 4.2 or Section 4.3 shall be true and correct in all respects, and (ii) any other representation or warranty set forth in Article IV shall be true and correct in all respects except where the failure of such representations and warranties referred to in this clause (ii) to be true and correct, individually or in the aggregate with other such failures, would not reasonably be expected to materially prevent, restrict or delay the Buyer's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby or by any Related Agreement;

(b) the Buyer shall have materially performed and complied with its covenants and agreements hereunder to the extent required to be performed prior to the Closing in all material respects;

(c) the Seller shall have received the items listed in Section 2.9(b);

(d) no Governmental Entity shall have threatened, enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any Law or Decree that has the effect of rendering the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any of the Related Agreements, or the Parties performance under this Agreement or any of the Related Agreements including the Closing, illegal or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any of the Related Agreements, or the Parties performance under this Agreement or any of the Related Agreements including the Closing; and

(e) the Sale Order shall have been entered by the Bankruptcy Court and shall be a Final Order.

Section 7.3 No Frustration of Closing Conditions. Neither the Buyer nor the Seller may rely on the failure of any condition to its obligation to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby set forth in Section 7.1 or Section 7.2, as the case may be, to be satisfied if such failure was caused by such Party's failure to use commercially reasonable best efforts or commercially reasonable efforts, as applicable, with respect to those matters contemplated by the applicable Sections of this Agreement to satisfy the conditions to the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or other breach of a representation, warranty or covenant hereunder.

ARTICLE VIII TERMINATION

Section 8.1 Termination of Agreement.

(a) This Agreement may, by written notice given before the Closing, be terminated:

(1) by mutual written consent of the Buyer and the Seller;

(2) by the Buyer (so long as there is not a then uncured Buyer Termination Breach), if there has been a breach of any of the Seller's representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement which would result in the failure of the conditions set forth in Section 7.1 to be satisfied, and which breach has not been cured within the earlier of (i) ten (10) days after written notice of such breach has been delivered to the Seller from the Buyer (provided that no cure period shall be required for a breach which by its nature cannot be cured), and (ii) the day before the End Date (a "Seller Termination Breach");

(3) by the Seller (so long as there is not a then uncured Seller Termination Breach), if there has been a breach of any of the Buyer's representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement which would result in the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.2 to be satisfied, and which breach has not been cured within the earlier of (i) ten (10) days after written notice of such breach has been delivered to the Buyer from the Seller (provided that no cure period shall be required for a breach which by its nature cannot be cured), and (ii) the day before the End Date (a "Buyer Termination Breach");

(4) by either the Buyer or the Seller, if there is in effect a Final Order restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(a)(4) will not be available to any Party whose failure to fulfill any material covenant or obligation under this Agreement is the cause of or resulted in the action or event described in this Section 8.1(a)(4) occurring;

(5) by the Buyer if the Bankruptcy Court enters an order under which (a) any of the Seller's Chapter 11 Cases is dismissed or converted into a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or (b) an examiner with expanded powers or trustee is appointed in any of the Seller's Chapter 11 Cases, and such Order is not reversed or vacated within fourteen (14) days after entry thereof; or

(6) by either the Buyer or the Seller, on or after the End Date if the Closing on the sale to the Buyer does not occur prior to the End Date.

(b) This Agreement shall terminate automatically in the event that (i) the Buyer is not chosen at the Auction to be the Successful Bidder or the Back-Up Bidder, (ii) Seller consummates an Alternative Transaction following approval by the Bankruptcy Court, or (iii) if the Buyer is chosen at the Auction to be the Back-Up Bidder, upon the expiration of the period during which the Buyer is required to keep its back-up bid open and irrevocable under the Bidding Procedures and Bidding Procedures Order.

Section 8.2 Effect of Termination. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 8.1, this Agreement and all rights and obligations of the parties under this Agreement automatically end without Liability against any other Party or its Affiliates, except that Section 2.13, this Article VIII and Article IX shall remain in full force and survive any termination of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event this Agreement is terminated by a Party because of the knowing and intentional breach of this Agreement by the other Party or because one or more of the conditions to the terminating Party's obligations under this Agreement is not satisfied as a result of the other Party's knowing and intentional failure to comply with its obligations under this Agreement, the terminating Party's right to pursue all legal rights and remedies hereunder and under applicable Law will survive such termination unimpaired.

Section 8.3 Expenses. The Seller shall pay its own direct and indirect expenses incurred in connection with the preparation and negotiation of this Agreement, all Related Agreements, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including all fees and expenses of its advisors and representatives. Except for such expenses as shall be covered by the Expense Reimbursement in Section 8.5, the Buyer shall pay its own direct and indirect expenses incurred in connection with the preparation and negotiation of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the fees and expenses of its advisors and representatives.

No waiver by any Party of any default, misrepresentation, or breach of warranty or covenant hereunder, whether intentional or not, shall be valid unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Party making such waiver, nor shall such waiver be deemed to extend to any prior or subsequent default, misrepresentation or breach of warranty or covenant hereunder or affect in any way any rights arising by virtue of any prior or subsequent default, misrepresentation or breach of warranty or covenant. Section 9.6 Governing Law: Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall in all aspects be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal Laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to any choice or conflict of laws provisions or rules (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the Laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware, and the obligations, rights and remedies of the Parties shall be determined in accordance with such Laws. The Parties agree that any Litigation one Party commences against any other Party pursuant to this Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the Bankruptcy Court; provided that if the Bankruptcy Court is unwilling or unable to hear any such Litigation, then the courts of the State of Delaware, sitting in New Castle County, and the federal courts of the United States of America sitting in the State of Delaware shall have exclusive jurisdiction over such Litigation.

Section 9.7 Consent to Service of Process. In addition to any other method allowed by applicable Law, each of the Parties hereby consents to process being served by any Party in any suit, action or proceeding by delivery of a copy thereof in accordance with the provisions of Section 9.5.

Section 9.8 WAIVERS OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE RELATED AGREEMENTS OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

Section 9.9 Specific Performance.

(a) Each of the Parties acknowledges and agrees that the other Parties (collectively, the "Enforcing Parties") would be damaged irreparably in the event any provision of this Agreement is not performed in accordance with its specific terms or otherwise breached, so that, prior to the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.2, in addition to any other remedy that each of the Parties may have under Law or equity, each of the Parties shall be entitled to injunctive relief to prevent breaches of the provisions of this Agreement and to enforce specifically this Agreement and the terms and provisions hereof.

(b) Each of the Parties agrees that it shall not oppose the granting of specific performance or an injunction sought in accordance with this Section 9.9 on the basis that the Enforcing Parties have an adequate remedy at law or that any award of specific performance is, for any reason, not an appropriate remedy. The Enforcing Parties shall not be required to provide any bond or other security in connection with any such injunction or other equitable remedy. The End Date shall be tolled from the date any of the Enforcing Parties files a petition seeking specific performance or an injunction under this Section 9.9 until a final, non-appealable decision regarding this matter is obtained from a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 9.10 Severability. The provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed severable, and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provisions of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any Person or any circumstance, is invalid or unenforceable, (a) a suitable and equitable provision shall be substituted therefor in order to carry out, so far as may be valid and enforceable, the intent and purpose of such invalid or unenforceable provision and (b) the remainder of this Agreement and the application of such provision to other Persons or circumstances shall not be affected by such invalidity or unenforceability, nor shall such invalidity or unenforceability in any one jurisdiction affect the validity or enforceability of such provision, or the application thereof, in any other jurisdiction.

Section 9.11 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement shall not confer any rights or remedies upon any Person other than the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns except such rights as may inure to a successor or permitted assignee or designee under Section 9.4.

Section 9.12 No Survival of Representations, Warranties and Agreements. None of the Parties' representations, warranties, covenants, and other agreements in this Agreement, including any rights of the other Party or any third party arising out of any breach of such representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements, shall survive the Closing, except for (i) those covenants and agreements contained herein that by their terms apply or are to be performed in whole or in part after the Closing, (ii) the Parties' representations and warranties relating to such Party's authority with regard to the execution of this Agreement to which it is a party and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, (iii) the Buyer's representations and warranties in connection with the Seller's Chapter 11 Cases or the Bankruptcy Code, (iv) this Article IX, and (v) all defined terms set forth in Article I that are referenced in the foregoing provisions referred to in clauses (i) through (iv) above. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, nothing in this Section 9.12 shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by the Buyer of actual and intentional common law fraud under Delaware Law committed by the Seller in the making of the representations and warranties set forth in Article III.

Section 9.13 Construction. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms. Whenever the context may require, any pronouns used herein shall include the corresponding masculine, feminine or neuter forms, and the singular form of names and pronouns shall include the plural and vice versa. The word “including” and “include” and other words of similar import shall be deemed to be followed by the phrase “without limitation.” The words “herein,” “hereto,” “hereby,” and other words of similar import refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular Article, Section or other subdivision of this Agreement. The words “includes” and “including” are not limiting. Unless expressly stated in connection therewith or the context otherwise requires, the phrase “relating to the Business” and other words of similar import shall be deemed to mean “relating to the operation of the Business as conducted as of the date hereof.” Except as otherwise provided herein, references to Articles, Sections, clauses, subclauses, subparagraphs, Annexes, Exhibits and the Disclosure Schedule herein are references to Articles, Sections, clauses, subclauses, subparagraphs, Annexes, Exhibits and the Disclosure Schedule of this Agreement. Any reference herein to any Law (or any provision thereof) shall include such Law (or any provision thereof) and any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, in each case, including any successor thereto, and as it may be amended, modified or supplemented from time to time. Any reference herein to “dollars” or “$” means United States dollars. To the extent not contrary to the foregoing, the rules of construction contained in section 102 of the Bankruptcy Code shall apply. Any option, consent, approval, discretion or similar right of the Buyer set forth in this Agreement or any other Related Agreement may be exercised by the Buyer in its sole, absolute and unreviewable discretion (regardless of whether any or all such words are used in connection therewith), unless the provisions of this Agreement or Related Agreement specifically require another standard for such option, consent, approval, discretion or similar right.

Section 9.14 Computation of Time. In computing any period of time prescribed by or allowed with respect to any provision of this Agreement that relates to a Seller’s or the Seller’s Chapter 11 Cases, the provisions of Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a) shall apply.

Section 9.15 Mutual Drafting. Each of the Parties has participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the Parties and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any Party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 9.16 Disclosure Schedule. All capitalized terms not defined in the Disclosure Schedule shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this Agreement. The representations and warranties of the Seller in this Agreement are made and given, and the covenants are agreed to, subject to the disclosures and exceptions set forth in the applicable portions of the Disclosure Schedule reference, deemed to reference in accordance with this Section 9.16 or are applicable on their face. The Seller Disclosure Schedule is arranged in sections and paragraphs corresponding to the numbered and lettered sections and paragraphs of this Agreement to which it relates. The disclosure in any section or paragraph of the Disclosure Schedule, and those in any amendment or supplement thereto, shall be deemed to relate to and to qualify only the particular representation or warranty set forth in the corresponding numbered or lettered section of this Agreement, except to the extent that: (a) such information is cross-referenced in another part of the Disclosure Schedule; or (b) it is reasonably apparent on the face of the disclosure (without reference to any document referred to therein or any independent knowledge on the part of the reader regarding the matter disclosed) that such information qualifies another schedule in the Disclosure Schedule. No disclosure in the Disclosure Schedule relating to any possible breach or violation of any Contract or law shall be construed as a third party admission or third party indication that any such breach or violation exists or has actually occurred. All attachments to the Disclosure Schedule are incorporated by reference into the Disclosure Schedule in which they are directly or indirectly referenced.

Section 9.17 Headings; Table of Contents. The section headings and the table of contents contained in this Agreement and the Disclosure Schedule are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 9.18 Counterparts: Facsimile and Email Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement or any counterpart may be executed and delivered by facsimile or email with scan attachment copies, each of which shall be deemed an original.

Section 9.19 Time of Essence. Time is of the essence of this Agreement.

Section 9.20 Condition of the Business. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, the Buyer acknowledges and agrees that neither the Seller nor any other Person is making any representations or warranties whatsoever, express or implied, beyond those expressly set forth in Article III (as amended, supplemented and modified by the Disclosure Schedule), and the Buyer acknowledges and agrees that, except for the representations and warranties contained therein, the Acquired Assets and the Business are being transferred on a “where is” and, as to condition, “as is” basis. Any claims the Buyer or any of its Affiliates may have for breach of representation or warranty shall be based solely on the representations and warranties set forth in Article III (as amended, supplemented and modified by the Disclosure Schedule). The Buyer further represents, acknowledges and agrees that neither the Seller nor any other Person has made, and the Buyer is not relying upon, any representation or warranty, express or implied, regarding the Seller, the Business, the Acquired Assets, the Assumed Liabilities or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or regarding the accuracy or completeness of any information in connection with the foregoing, not expressly set forth in Article III, and neither the Seller nor any other Person will have or be subject to any liability to the Buyer or any other Person resulting from the distribution to the Buyer or any of its Representatives or the Buyer’s use of any such information. The Buyer further represents, acknowledges and agrees that no Person has been authorized by any other party hereto to make any promise, representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, or undertaking relating to any other party hereto or any of its Affiliates or otherwise in connection with this Agreement, any of the other Related Agreements or any of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby (except as expressly set forth in this Agreement) and, if made, no such promise, representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, or undertaking was relied upon by such party and all of them are hereby expressly disclaimed. The Buyer represents, acknowledges and agrees that it is a sophisticated entity that was advised by knowledgeable counsel and financial and other advisors and hereby acknowledges that it has conducted, to its satisfaction, its own independent investigation and analysis of the Business (including its financial condition), the Acquired Assets and the Assumed Liabilities and, in making the determination to proceed with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Buyer has relied solely on the results of its own independent investigation and the express representations and warranties set forth in Article III. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, nothing in this Section 9.20 shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by the Buyer of actual and intentional common law fraud under Delaware Law committed by the Seller in the making of the representations and warranties set forth in Article III.

Section 9.21 Non-Recourse. This Agreement may be enforced only against, and any claim or cause of action based upon, arising out of, or related to this Agreement or the negotiation, execution or performance of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, may be brought only against the individuals and entities that are expressly named as parties hereto and then only with respect to the specific obligations set forth herein with respect to such party. With respect to each named party to this Agreement, no Non-Recourse Party of such named party to this Agreement shall have any liability (whether in contract tort, or otherwise) for any one or more of the representations, warranties, covenants, agreements or other obligations or liabilities of such named party or for any claim based on, arising out of, or related to this Agreement or the negotiation, execution or performance of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. Without limiting the rights of any party against the other parties to this Agreement, in no event shall any party hereto or any of its Affiliates seek to enforce this Agreement against, make any claims for breach of this Agreement against, or seek to recover monetary damages from, any Non-Recourse Party.

the best interest of the Debtors' estates; and the Court having jurisdiction over this matter; and the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Sale Hearing establishing just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation thereon,

I. Petition Date

A. On March 16, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors commenced these Chapter 11 Cases by filing voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Since the Petition Date, the Debtors have continued to operate and manage their business as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

II. Jurisdiction, Final Order and Statutory Predicates

B. The Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(1) and 1334(a). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (N) and (O). Venue is proper in this District and in the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

C. This order (this "Sale Order") constitutes a final and appealable order within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 158(a). Notwithstanding the provisions of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d), and to any extent necessary under Bankruptcy Rule 9014 and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), as made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7054, the Court expressly finds that there is no just reason for delay in the implementation of this Sale Order, expressly waives any stay, and expressly directs entry of judgment as set forth herein.

D. The statutory predicates for the relief requested in the Motion are sections 105(a), 363, 365, 503, and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, 9007, and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Local Rules 9013-1 and 9013-2, and Section H of the Complex Case Procedures.

E. The findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014.

III. Notice of the Sale, Auction, and the Cure Amounts

F. Actual written notice of the Bidding Procedures Hearing, the Sale Hearing, the Auction Cancellation Notice, the Motion, the identity of the Buyer, the Sale, the assumption, assignment, cure and sale of the Assumed Contracts to be assigned to the Buyer pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement (which are identified on Exhibit B hereto, subject to Buyer's right to designate additional Assumed Contracts up to the Designation Deadline), and assumption by the Buyer of the customer and membership obligations (as set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement) has been timely and properly provided to, and a reasonably calculated, a fair and reasonable opportunity to object or be heard with respect to the Motion and the relief requested therein has been afforded to, all known interested persons and entities, including, but not limited to the following parties: (i) all entities known to have asserted any Interest in or upon any of the Debtors' Assets; (ii) all federal, state, and local regulatory or taxing authorities or recording offices which have a reasonably known interest in the relief requested by this Motion; (iii) known counterparties to any unexpired leases or executory contracts that could potentially be assumed and assigned to the Buyer; (iv) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Northern District of Georgia; (v) holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (vi) the Office of the United States Attorney General for the Northern District of Georgia; (vii) the Internal Revenue Service; (viii) the U.S. Department of Justice; (ix) the offices of the attorneys general for the states in which the Debtors operate; (x) counsel to each Stalking Horse Bidder; and (xi) all parties requesting notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and all applicable Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

G. In accordance with the provisions of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors caused the Cure Notice to be served, in compliance with the requirements of due process and the Bankruptcy Code, upon the Buyer and the non-Debtor counterparties to the executory Contracts or unexpired Leases (each, a “Contract Counterparty,” and, collectively, the “Contract Counterparties”), noticing such parties: (i) of the Sale, (ii) that the Seller may seek to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts on the Closing Date, (iii) of the relevant Cure Amounts, and (iv) of the relevant objection deadlines. The Court finds that: (1) the Buyer and the Contract Counterparties have had an opportunity to object to the Sale and to Cure Amounts set forth in the Cure Notice; (2) the Cure Notice provided the Buyer and the Contract Counterparties with proper notice of the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts and any Cure Amount relating thereto; (3) the service of such Cure Notice was good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances; (4) no further notice need be given in respect of establishing Cure Amounts for the Assumed Contracts; and (5) the procedures set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order with regard to objecting to any such Cure Amount satisfy the provisions of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 6006.

H. In accordance with the provisions of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors caused the Customer Notice to be served, in compliance with the requirements of due process and the Bankruptcy Code, upon the Buyer and the customers of the Seller with warranty claims and/or memberships with the Seller (including those that may be counterparties to an executory Contract), noticing such parties: (i) of the Sale, (ii) that the Seller may seek to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts on the Closing Date (to the extent applicable), and (iii) of the relevant objection deadlines. The Court finds that: (1) the Buyer and these customers have had an opportunity to object to the Sale; (2) the Customer Notice provided the Buyer and customers with proper notice of the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts and of the Buyer's assumption of the warranty and membership obligations; (3) the service of such Customer Notice was good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances; and (4) the procedures set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order satisfy the provisions of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 6006.

I. The Debtors' Auction and Sale Notice, the Cure Notice, and Customer Notice, as applicable, provided all interested persons and entities with timely and proper notice of, and a reasonable opportunity to object and be heard with respect to, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the Sale, the Sale Hearing, and the Auction (prior to being cancelled).

J. As evidenced by the affidavits of service previously filed with the Court (including [D.I. 46, 73, 179, 208, 209, 247, 248, 261, 304, 320, 321, 322, and 340]), proper, timely, adequate, and sufficient notice of the Motion, the Bidding Procedures, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the Auction, the Auction Cancellation Notice, the Sale Order, the Sale Hearing, and the Sale has been provided in accordance with sections 102(1), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9014, the Local Rules, and Sections D and H of the Complex Case Procedures. The Debtors also have complied with all obligations to provide notice of the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the Auction, the cancellation of the Auction, the Sale Hearing, and the Sale required by the Bidding Procedures Order. The notices described in Section III were good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances, and no other or further notice of the Motion, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the Auction, the cancellation of the Auction, the Sale Hearing, Sale, or the assumption, assignment, and sale of the customer warranties and memberships is required.

K. The disclosures made by the Debtors concerning the Motion, the Bidding Procedures, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the assumption of the liabilities of the customer and membership claims, the cancellation of the Auction, the Sale, and the Sale Hearing, were good, complete, and adequate.

L. A reasonable opportunity to object and/or be heard regarding the relief provided in this Sale Order was afforded to all parties in interest.

IV. Good Faith of the Buyer, Seller and Solutions

M. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement was negotiated, proposed, and entered into by and among the Seller, Solutions, and the Buyer, including their respective boards of directors or equivalent governing bodies, officers, directors, employees, agents, professionals, and representatives, without collusion, in good faith, and from arm's-length bargaining positions. The Buyer is making such purchase in good faith and is a good-faith purchaser within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, in that among other things: (i) the Buyer's Qualified Bid was subject to a marketing process in a time frame approved by the Court through the Bidding Procedures Order; (ii) the Debtors conducted the marketing process, including in consultation with the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee"); (iii) the Buyer did not attempt to limit the Debtors' freedom to deal with any other party interested in acquiring the Acquired Assets; and (iv) all payments to be made by the Buyer and other agreements or arrangements entered into by the Buyer in connection with the Sale have been disclosed. There was no evidence of insider influence or improper conduct by the Buyer in connection with the negotiation of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement with the Debtors, no evidence of fraud, collusion, or bad faith on the part of the Buyer, no evidence of the Buyer doing anything to control or otherwise influence the marketing or sale process, including anything to control or otherwise influence the purchase price paid for the Acquired Assets, and no evidence that the Buyer violated section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Buyer is not an “insider” of any Debtor (as defined under section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code). Accordingly, the Buyer is entitled to the full protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

N. As demonstrated by (i) any testimony and other evidence proffered or adduced at the Sale Hearing, and (ii) the representations of counsel made on the record at the Sale Hearing, substantial marketing efforts and a competitive sale process were conducted in accordance with the Bidding Procedures Order and, among other things: (a) the Debtors and the Buyer complied with the provisions in the Bidding Procedures Order; (b) the Buyer agreed to subject its bid to the competitive Bidding Procedures set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order; and (c) the Buyer in no way improperly induced or caused the chapter 11 filing by the Debtors.

V. Highest and Best Offer

O. The Debtors' marketing and sale process, including the Debtors' prepetition marketing process, with respect to the Acquired Assets in accordance with the Bidding Procedures, which were followed by the Debtors, afforded a full, fair, and reasonable opportunity for any person or entity to make a higher or otherwise better offer to purchase the Acquired Assets.

P. The Debtors implemented the Bidding Procedures and cancelled the Auction in accordance with the provisions of the Bidding Procedures Order, and the Debtors have otherwise complied with the Bidding Procedures Order in all respects. Such process was duly noticed and conducted in a non-collusive, fair, and good faith manner, in consultation with the Committee, and a reasonable opportunity has been given to any interested party to make a higher and better offer for the Acquired Assets.

Q. The Debtors received no Qualified Bids by the Bid Deadline for the Acquired Assets other than the Qualified Bid submitted by the Buyer. The Bidding Procedures provide that if no Qualified Bids (other than the Qualified Bid submitted by the Buyer) were received by the Bid Deadline, the Auction would not be conducted and the Buyer's Qualified Bid would be the Successful Bid for the Acquired Assets.

R. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement represents a fair and reasonable offer to purchase the Acquired Assets under the circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases, including in light of the fact that no other Qualified Bids were received. The consideration provided by the Buyer under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, including the assumption of the Assumed Liabilities, is fair and adequate, represents the highest or otherwise best available offer, including by providing the highest economic value available to the Debtors' estates, and will provide a greater recovery for the Debtors' estates than would be provided by any other available alternative. Accordingly, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement constitutes the highest and best offer for the Acquired Assets and a valid, reasonable, and sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, and complies in all respects with the Bidding Procedures Order.

S. Approval of the Motion and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the consummation of the Sale contemplated thereby is in the best interests of the Debtors, their creditors, their estates, and other parties in interest.

VI. No Sub Rosa or De Facto Plan

T. Good and sufficient reasons for approval of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the transactions to be consummated in connection therewith have been articulated, and the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest. The Debtors have demonstrated compelling circumstances and good, sufficient, and sound business purposes and justifications for the Sale outside the ordinary course of business, pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, before, and outside of, a plan of reorganization, in that, among other things, the immediate consummation of the Sale with the Buyer is necessary and appropriate to maximize the value of the Debtors' estates, and the Sale will provide the means for the Debtors to maximize distributions to creditors.

U. The Sale does not constitute a sub rosa or de facto plan of reorganization or liquidation as it does not propose to (i) impair or restructure existing debt of, or equity interests in, the Debtors, (ii) impair or circumvent voting rights with respect to any plan that may be proposed by the Debtors, (iii) circumvent chapter 11 safeguards, such as those set forth in sections 1125 and 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, or (iv) classify claims or equity interests or extend debt maturities. Accordingly, the Sale neither impermissibly restructures the rights of the Debtors' creditors nor impermissibly dictates the terms of a liquidating chapter 11 plan for the Debtors.

VII. Successor Liability Matters

V. By virtue of the consummation of the Sale, (i) the Buyer is not a continuation of the Debtors or their respective estates, there is no continuity between the Buyer and the Debtors, there is no common identity between the Buyer and the Debtors, and there is no continuity of enterprise between the Buyer and the Debtors, (ii) the Buyer is not holding itself out to the public as a continuation of the Debtors or their respective estates, and (iii) the Sale does not amount to a consolidation, merger, or de facto consolidation or merger of the Buyer and any of the Debtors and the Debtors' respective estates.

W. The Buyer is not, and shall not be considered, a successor to the Debtors or their respective estates by reason of any theory of law or equity, including, but not limited to, under any federal, state or local statute or common law, or revenue, pension, ERISA, tax, labor, employment, worker's compensation, environmental, escheat or unclaimed property laws, or other law, rule or regulation (including, without limitation, filing requirements under any such laws, rules, or regulations), or under any products liability law or doctrine with respect to the Debtors' liability under such law, rule or regulation or doctrine or common law, or under any product warranty liability law or doctrine with respect to the Debtors' liability under such law, rule or regulation or doctrine, and the Buyer and its affiliates shall have no liability or obligation under the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Act (the "WARN Act"), 929 U.S.C. §§ 210 et seq. and shall not be deemed to be a "successor employer" for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Americans with Disability Act, the Family Medical Leave Act, the National Labor Relations Act, the Labor Management Relations Act, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the Equal Pay Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1866 (42 U.S.C. § 1981), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, the Multiemployer Pension Protection Act, the Pension Protection Act, and/or the Fair Labor Standards Act; the Buyer is not a continuation or substantial continuation of any of the Debtors or their respective estates, business or operations or any enterprise of the Debtors; the Buyer does not have a common identity of incorporators, directors or equity holders with the Debtors; and the Sale does not amount to a consolidation, merger, or de facto merger of the Buyer and the Debtors or their respective estates. Accordingly, the Buyer is not and shall not be deemed a successor to any of the Debtors or their respective estates as a result of the consummation of the Sale pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order.

VIII. No Fraudulent Transfer; Validity of Transfer

X. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement was not entered into by the Buyer and the Debtors for the purpose of hindering, delaying, or defrauding creditors under either the Bankruptcy Code or the other laws of the United States, or the laws of any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia (including, without limitation, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, and the Uniform Voidable Transactions Act). Neither the Debtors nor the Buyer entered into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement fraudulently, nor are they entering into or consummating the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement fraudulently, including under applicable federal and state fraudulent conveyance and fraudulent transfer laws.

Y. The consideration provided by the Buyer pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, (i) was negotiated at arm's-length, (ii) is fair, adequate, and reasonable, (iii) is the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets, and (iv) constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code and under the other laws of the United States, and the laws of any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia (including, without limitation, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act and the Uniform Voidable Transactions Act). No other person or entity or group of entities has offered to purchase the Acquired Assets for greater economic value to the Debtors' estates than the Buyer. For the purposes of statutory and common law fraudulent conveyance and fraudulent transfer claims, neither the Seller, Solutions, nor the Buyer are entering into or consummating the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement fraudulently. Approval of the Motion, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Sale, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and all other parties in interest.

Z. The Seller is the sole and lawful owner of the Acquired Assets. The Acquired Assets constitute property of the Seller's estate and title to the Acquired Assets is vested in the Seller's estate within the meaning of section 541(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Seller, Solutions, and the Buyer have full corporate power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and all other documents contemplated thereby, and no further consents or approvals are required for the Seller, Solutions, or the Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or the other documents contemplated thereby, except as otherwise set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or such other documents.

AA. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement does not provide for the sale of the Debtors' and their estates' claims—including, without limitation, commercial tort claims and Avoidance Actions—against any of the Debtors' insiders (as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code). For purposes of this Sale Order, "Avoidance Actions" means all avoidance and recovery actions or remedies that may be brought on behalf of the Debtors or their estates under the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law, including actions or remedies under sections 544, 547, 548, 550, 551, 552, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code.

BB. Subject to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of each of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer will be, as of the Closing Date, a legal, valid, and effective transfer of the Acquired Assets, which transfer vests or will vest the Buyer with all right, title, and interest of the Debtors in, to, and under the Acquired Assets free and clear of (i) all Liens (as defined in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement) and other liens (including any liens as that term is defined in section 101(37) of the Bankruptcy Code) and encumbrances relating to, accruing, or arising at any time prior to the Closing Date (collectively, as defined in this clause (i), the "Liens"), other than Permitted Liens, and (ii) all debts arising under, relating to, or in connection with any act of or omission by the Debtors, claims (as that term is defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code) or causes of action, liabilities, obligations, demands, guaranties, options in favor of third parties, rights, easements, servitudes, restrictive covenants, encroachments, contractual commitments, restrictions, interests, mortgages, hypothecations, charges, indentures, loan agreements, instruments, collective bargaining agreements, leases, subleases, licenses, deeds of trust, security interests, conditional sale or other title retention agreements, pledges, judgments, claims for reimbursement, contribution, indemnity, exoneration, infringement, products liability, alter-ego, and matters of any kind and nature, whether arising prior to or subsequent to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases, and whether imposed by agreement, understanding, law, equity, or otherwise, known or unknown, contingent or matured, liquidated or unliquidated, and all rights and remedies with respect thereto (a) that purport to give to any party a right of setoff against, or a right or option to effect any forfeiture, modification, profit sharing interest, right of first refusal, purchase or repurchase right or option, or termination of, any of the Debtors' or the Buyer's interests in the Acquired Assets, or any similar rights, or (b) in respect of taxes, restrictions, rights of first refusal, charges or interests of any kind or nature, if any, including without limitation, any restriction of use, voting, transfer, receipt of income or other exercise of any attributes of ownership (collectively, as defined in this clause (ii), the "Claims"), relating to, accruing or arising at any time prior to the Closing Date, other than Assumed Liabilities, including amounts necessary under sections 365(b)(1)(A) and (B) and 365(f)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code to cure all defaults and pay all actual pecuniary losses under the Assumed Contracts (the "Cure Amounts") or any other obligations arising under the Assumed Contracts to the extent set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or this Sale Order.

IX. Section 363(f) Is Satisfied

CC. The conditions of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied in full. Therefore, the Seller may sell the Acquired Assets free and clear of any interests in the Acquired Assets. The Buyer would not have entered into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and would not consummate the transactions contemplated thereby if the sale of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer and the assumption, assignment, and sale of the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer were not, except as otherwise provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement with respect to the Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens, free and clear of all Claims and Liens of any kind or nature whatsoever of the Debtors, or if the Buyer would, or in the future could (except and only to the extent expressly provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and with respect to the Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens), be liable for any of such Claims and Liens, including, but not limited to, Claims and Liens in respect of the following: (i) all mortgages, deeds of trust, and security interests; (ii) any pension, welfare, compensation, or other employee benefit plans, agreements, practices, and programs, including, without limitation, any pension plan of the Debtors; (iii) any other employee, worker's compensation, occupational disease, unemployment, or temporary disability related claim, including, without limitation, claims that might otherwise arise under or pursuant to (a) the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, (b) the Fair Labor Standards Act, (c) Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, (d) the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, (e) the National Labor Relations Act, (f) the WARN Act, (g) the Age Discrimination and Employee Act of 1967 and Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, (h) the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, (i) the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, (j) state discrimination laws, (k) state unemployment compensation laws or any other similar state laws, or (l) any other state or federal benefits or claims relating to any employment with the Debtors or any of their predecessors; (iv) any bulk sales or similar law to the maximum extent permitted by Law; (v) any tax statutes or ordinances, including, without limitation, the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; (vi) any environmental laws, including any Environmental, Health and Safety Requirement(s); and (vii) any theories of successor or transferee liability.

DD. The Seller may sell the Acquired Assets free and clear of all Claims and Liens against the Seller, its estate, or any of the Acquired Assets (except for any Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement) because, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in section 363(f)(1)-(5) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied. Holders of such Claims or Liens fall within one or more of the other subsections of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code and are adequately protected by having their Claims or Liens attach to the net cash proceeds of the Sale, if any, ultimately attributable to the Acquired Assets in which such creditor or interest holder alleges an interest, in the same order of priority, with the same validity, force and effect that such creditor or interest holder had prior to the Sale, subject to any claims and defenses the Seller and its estate may possess with respect thereto. Those holders of Claims or Liens against or in the Seller, its estate or any of the Acquired Assets who did not object, who withdrew their objection, or whose objection was overruled, to the Sale or the Motion are deemed to have consented pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

X. Assumption and Assignment of the Assumed Contracts

EE. The assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts pursuant to the terms of this Sale Order is integral to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates, creditors, interest holders, and other parties in interest and represents the reasonable exercise of sound and prudent business judgment by the Debtors.

FF. The Cure Amounts set forth on Exhibit B annexed hereto are the sole amounts necessary under sections 365(b)(1)(A) and (B) and 365(f)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code to cure all monetary defaults and pay all actual pecuniary losses under the Assumed Contracts.

GG. Pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors have demonstrated that assuming all Assumed Contracts and assigning such Assumed Contracts to the Buyer is appropriate.

HH. Pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, the Buyer shall have: (i) either or both cured and provided adequate assurance of cure of any defaults existing before the Closing Date under any of the Assumed Contracts, within the meaning of section 365(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (ii) provided compensation or adequate assurance of compensation to any party for actual pecuniary loss to such party resulting from a default prior to the Closing Date under any of the Assumed Contracts, within the meaning of section 365(b)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. After payment of the relevant Cure Amounts by the Buyer and as required by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, the Debtors shall not have any further liabilities to the Contract Counterparties on or after the Closing Date. The Buyer provided adequate assurance of its future performance under the relevant Assumed Contracts within the meaning of sections 365(b)(1)(C), 365(b)(3) (to the extent applicable) and 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any non-Debtor counterparty to an Assumed Contract who did not timely file an objection to the assumption of its Assumed Contract shall be deemed to have consented to its assumption and assignment to the Buyer pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code in accordance with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

II. No default exists in the Seller's estate's performance under the Assumed Contracts as of the Closing Date other than the failure to pay Cure Amounts or defaults that are not required to be cured as contemplated in section 365(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code

JJ. Designation Rights. In accordance with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Buyer shall maintain certain rights to modify the list of Assumed Contracts after the date of this Sale Order and up to the applicable designation deadline (the "Designation Deadline"), which shall be seven (7) days following entry of this Sale Order, but in no event later than the Closing Date. Such modification rights include, but are not limited to, the right of the Buyer, prior to the Designation Deadline, to designate certain Contracts for assumption by the Debtors and assignment and to the Buyer. The notice and opportunity to object provided to the Contract Counterparties to such Assumed Contracts and to other parties in interest, as set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, fairly and reasonably protects any rights that such Contract Counterparties and other parties in interest may have with respect to such Assumed Contracts.

XI. Compelling Circumstances for an Immediate Sale

KK. Good and sufficient reasons for approval of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the Sale have been articulated. The relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest. To maximize the value of the Debtors' assets and preserve the viability of the business to which the Acquired Assets relate, it is essential that the Sale be approved and occur promptly within the time constraints set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. Time is of the essence in effectuating the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and consummating the Sale, both to preserve and maximize the value of the Debtors' assets for the benefit of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, interest holders, and all other parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases and to provide the means for the Debtors to maximize creditor and interest holder recoveries. As such, the Debtors and the Buyer intend to close the Sale of the Acquired Assets as soon as reasonably practicable, subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. The Debtors have demonstrated both compelling circumstances and a good, sufficient, and sound business purpose and justification for immediate approval and consummation of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

LL. The consummation of the transactions set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts are legal, valid, and properly authorized under all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f), 363(m), 365(b) and 365(f), and all of the applicable requirements of such sections have been complied with in respect of such transactions.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

General Provisions

1. The findings and conclusions set forth herein constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent that any findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such. Any findings of fact or conclusions of law stated by the Court on the record at the Sale Hearing are hereby incorporated.

2. The relief requested in the Motion is GRANTED and the transactions contemplated thereby and by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement are APPROVED for the reasons set forth in this Sale Order and on the record of the Sale Hearing, which is incorporated fully herein as if fully set forth in this Sale Order, and the Sale contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement is APPROVED.

3. All objections, statements, and reservations of rights (if any) to the Motion and the relief requested therein and to the entry of this Sale Order or the relief granted herein, that have not been withdrawn, waived, adjourned, settled as announced to the Court at any prior hearing, at the Sale Hearing, or by stipulation filed with the Court, or previously overruled, including, without limitation, all reservations of rights included therein or otherwise, are hereby overruled and denied on the merits with prejudice, except as expressly set forth herein. Those parties who did not object, or withdrew their objections to the Motion, are deemed to have consented to the Sale pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. This Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order are incorporated herein by reference.

Approval of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement

5. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and all other ancillary documents, and all of the respective terms and conditions thereof, the Sale contemplated thereby, and the Purchase Price are hereby approved. The Seller and Solutions are authorized to enter into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and all other ancillary documents to be executed in connection with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement as may be necessary.

6. Pursuant to sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, entry by the Seller and Solutions into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement is hereby authorized and approved. The Seller, Solutions, and the Buyer, acting by and through their respective existing agents, representatives, and officers, are authorized, empowered and directed, without further order of this Court, to use their reasonable best efforts to take any and all actions necessary or appropriate to (a) consummate and close the Sale in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, (b) transfer and assign all right, title, and interest to all assets, property, licenses, and rights of the Seller to be conveyed in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, and (c) execute and deliver, perform under, consummate, implement, and close fully the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, including the assumption and assignment to the Buyer of the Assumed Contracts, together with all additional instruments and documents that may be reasonably necessary or desirable to implement the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the Sale, including any other ancillary documents, or as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to the performance of the obligations as contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, this Sale Order, and such other ancillary documents, including any actions that otherwise would require further approval by shareholders, members, or their boards of directors, as the case may be, without the need to obtain such approvals. The Seller and Solutions are hereby authorized to perform their covenants and undertakings as provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and any ancillary documents before or after the Closing Date without further order of the Court. Neither the Buyer, the Seller nor Solutions shall have any obligation to proceed with the Closing under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement until all conditions precedent to their obligations to do so have been met, satisfied, or waived, except as otherwise contemplated and provided for in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order.

7. This Sale Order and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement shall be binding in all respects upon the Debtors, including the Debtors' estates, all holders of equity interests in any Debtor, all holders of Claims or Liens (whether known or unknown) against any Debtor, including the Committee, any holders of Claims or Liens against or on all or any portion of the Acquired Assets, all Contract Counterparties, the Buyer and all successors and assigns of the Buyer, the Acquired Assets, all successors and assigns of the Debtors, and any subsequent trustees appointed in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or upon a conversion to chapter 7 under the Bankruptcy Code of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, and shall not be subject to rejection or unwinding. This Sale Order and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, the Buyer and their respective successors and assigns. Nothing in any chapter 11 plan confirmed in the Chapter 11 Cases, the confirmation order confirming any such chapter 11 plan, any order approving the wind down or dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or any order entered upon the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to one or more cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise shall alter, conflict with, or derogate from, the provisions of this Sale Order.

Transfer of the Acquired Assets

8. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f), 365(b) and 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Seller is authorized and directed to transfer the Acquired Assets to the Buyer on the Closing Date. The transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement does not require any consents other than as specifically provided for in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. The transfer of the Seller's right, title, and interest in the Acquired Assets to the Buyer pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order shall be deemed transferred to the Buyer upon and as of the Closing Date, and such transfer of the Acquired Assets and the consummation of the Sale and any related actions contemplated thereby constitute a legal, valid, binding, and effective transfer of the Seller's right, title, and interest in the Acquired Assets and shall vest the Buyer with all the right, title and interest of the Seller in and to the Acquired Assets as set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, free and clear of all Claims and Liens (except Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens). Upon the Closing, the Buyer shall take title to and possession of the Acquired Assets subject only to the Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens. Pursuant to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of title to the Acquired Assets and the Assumed Contracts shall be free and clear of all Claims and Liens including, without limitation, all Claims pursuant to any successor or successor-in-interest liability theory, except for Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens.

9. On the Closing Date, this Sale Order shall be construed and shall constitute for any and all purposes a full and complete general assignment, conveyance, and transfer of all of the Seller's right, title, and interest in the Acquired Assets or a bill of sale transferring good and marketable title in such Acquired Assets to the Buyer on the Closing Date pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, free and clear of all Claims and Liens (other than Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens). For the avoidance of doubt, the Excluded Assets set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and herein are not included in the Acquired Assets, and the Excluded Liabilities set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and herein are not Assumed Liabilities.

10. The Buyer shall be authorized, as of the Closing Date, to operate under any license, permit, registration, and governmental authorization or approval of the Seller constituting Acquired Assets, and all such licenses, permits, registrations, and governmental authorizations and approvals are deemed to have been, and hereby are, directed to be transferred to the Buyer as of the Closing Date as provided by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. To the extent provided by section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, no governmental unit may revoke or suspend any grant, permit, or license relating to the operation of the Acquired Assets sold, transferred, assigned, or conveyed to the Buyer on account of the filing or pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases or the consummation of the Sale.

11. Except with respect to Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens, all persons and entities holding Claims against the Debtors or Claims or Liens in all or any portion of the Acquired Assets arising under or out of, in connection with or in any way relating to the Debtors, the Acquired Assets, the operation of the Debtors' business prior to the Closing Date, the transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer, or otherwise, are hereby forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from asserting against the Buyer or its successors or assigns, their property, or the Acquired Assets such persons' or entities' Claims against the Debtors or Claims or Liens in and to the Acquired Assets. On and after the Closing Date, each creditor is authorized and directed to execute such documents and take all other actions as may be deemed by the Buyer to be necessary or desirable to evidence the release of Claims or Liens, if any, as provided for herein, as such Claim or Lien may have been recorded or may otherwise exist.

12. All persons and entities that are presently, or on the Closing Date may be, in possession of some or all of the Acquired Assets to be sold, transferred, or conveyed (wherever located) to the Buyer pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement are hereby directed to surrender possession of such Acquired Assets to the Buyer on the Closing Date. To the extent that any such person or entity fails or refuses to surrender possession of such Acquired Assets on or after the Closing Date, the Buyer has the right to commence a turnover action and have it considered on an expedited basis. All persons are hereby forever prohibited and enjoined from taking any action that would adversely affect or interfere with, or which would be inconsistent with, the ability of the Seller to sell and transfer any or all of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer, or the ability of the Buyer to take title and possession of any or all of the Acquired Assets, in accordance with the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order.

13. This Sale Order is and shall be effective as a determination that, as of the Closing Date, all Claims and Liens of any kind or nature whatsoever existing as to the Acquired Assets before the Closing, other than Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens, or as otherwise provided in this Sale Order, shall have been unconditionally released, discharged, and terminated. Moreover, this Sale Order is and shall be effective as a determination that, as of the Closing Date, the conveyances described herein have been affected, with all such Claims and Liens to attach to any net proceeds received by the Seller ultimately attributable to the Acquired Assets against, or in, which such Claims or Liens are asserted, subject to the terms thereof, with the same validity, force, and effect, and in the same order of priority, which such Claims or Liens now have against the Acquired Assets, subject to any rights, claims, and defenses that the Seller or its estate, as applicable, may possess with respect thereto.

14. This Sale Order is and shall be binding upon and govern the acts of all persons and entities, including, without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of deeds, registrars of deeds, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal and local officials and all other persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office, or contract, to accept, file, register or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments, or who may be required to report or insure any title or state of title in or to any lease, and each of the foregoing persons and entities is hereby authorized and directed to accept for filing any and all of the documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

15. Each and every federal, state, and local governmental agency or department is hereby authorized to accept any and all documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. A certified copy of this Sale Order may be: (a) filed with the appropriate clerk; (b) recorded with the recorder; or (c) filed or recorded with any other governmental agency to act to cancel any of the Claims, Liens, and other encumbrances of record.

16. If any person or entity that has filed statements or other documents or agreements evidencing Claims or Liens in all or any portion of the Acquired Assets has not delivered to the Seller prior to the Closing Date, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, releases of Liens and Claims and any other documents necessary or desirable to the Buyer for the purpose of documenting the release of all Claims and Liens (other than Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Liens), which the person or entity has or may assert with respect to all or any portion of the Acquired Assets, then the Buyer and the Debtors are hereby authorized to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases and other documents in the name and on behalf of such person or entity with respect to the Acquired Assets; provided that, notwithstanding anything in this Sale Order or the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement to the contrary, the provisions of this Sale Order shall be self-executing, and neither the Debtors nor the Buyer shall be required to execute or file releases termination statements, assignments, consents, or other instruments in order to effectuate, consummate, and implement the provisions of this Sale Order.

17. Consumer Privacy Ombudsman Report. Upon the Court's review of the report [D.I. 349] (the "Report")⁴ filed by the consumer privacy ombudsman appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases (the "CPO"), the Court hereby holds that:

- a. Customer PII may be sold and transferred, provided that Buyer demonstrates it is a "Qualified Buyer." A "Qualified Buyer" means an entity that: (a) is engaged in substantially the same lines of business as the Seller; (b) expressly agrees to be bound by and succeed to substantially similar terms as contained in Seller's privacy policy in effect as of the Petition Date; and (c) agrees to be responsible for any future violation of the privacy policy by the Buyer occurring after the purchase of the Customer PII;
- b. Based on the CPO's investigation, the Buyer is a Qualified Buyer of Seller's Customer PII;

c. Buyer must agree to be bound by and substantially meet the standards established by the Seller's privacy policies that were in effect as of the Petition Date, and comply with applicable privacy laws and regulations governing the transfer, storage, maintenance, and access to Customer PII;

d. Customers whose data Seller proposes to sell to Buyer, or the prevailing bidders, should be provided the opportunity to opt-out of that sale. Seller has satisfied, or otherwise will satisfy, this condition by providing written notice to any customer whose Customer PII is being sold and transferred, expressly providing the opportunity to opt-out of such a sale and transfer, prior to the transfer to the Buyer. Such written notice may be satisfied by posting on Seller's websites; and

e. Seller shall file a certification within 30 days of entry of this Sale Order confirming its compliance with Paragraph 17(d).

18. On the Closing Date, the Debtors shall use and disburse the net cash proceeds from this Sale, and on any other closing date of any other sale of the Debtors' assets approved pursuant to orders of the Court (collectively, the "Sale Transactions"), and such aggregate proceeds the "Sale Proceeds"), each as set forth below:

- a. First, subject to the last sentence of this paragraph 18(a), at least $~~1~~⁶13 million (the "Holdback Amount") of the Sale Proceeds shall be funded into the DIP Proceeds Account, which shall constitute Cash Collateral subject to the Final DIP Order (including, but not limited to, the Carve-Out). The Holdback Amount shall be used by the Debtors in accordance with the Final DIP Order (including, but not limited to, the Carve-Out) and the Approved Budget until (i) further order of this Court, which further order, for the avoidance of doubt, may include a stipulation and agreed order or the order confirming a chapter 11 plan for any Debtor, or (ii) the Debtors, the DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Secured Parties, and the Committee otherwise agree in writing. The Debtors, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties may mutually agree to adjust the Holdback Amount, either upward or downward, after the Closing Date and on any other closing date of the Sale Transactions,

⁶ ~~[NTD: The amount to be inserted remains under discussion between the Debtors, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties.]~~ including to reflect adjustments to the Approved Budget after entry of this Sale Order.

- b. Second, all Sale Proceeds in excess of the Holdback Amount shall, in such amounts as may be directed in writing by the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent (collectively, the “Agent”), be paid directly to the Agent for application to the DIP Obligations and/or the Prepetition Obligations, as elected by the Agent; provided, nothing in this clause (b) shall prejudice any rights under the Final DIP Order that may be available to the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the Debtors, or the Committee.

For the avoidance of doubt, all Liens and Claims will attach to the Sale Proceeds to the same extent and with the same priority as existed prior to consummation of the Sale Transactions, subject to any claims, defenses and objections, if any, that the Debtors, their estates, or any other party in interest may possess with respect thereto.

19. Without limitation to the other provisions of this Sale Order, at the Closing, the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall execute such documents and take such other actions as may be reasonably necessary to release their Claims and Liens in and to the Acquired Assets as of the Closing that are transferred to the Buyer; provided, however, any failure to do so shall not in any way affect the validity of such transfer free and clear of such Liens and Claims pursuant to this Sale Order.

Assumed Contracts; Assumed Warranty and Membership Obligations

20. The Seller is hereby authorized and directed in accordance with sections 105(a), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code to (a) assume and assign the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer free and clear of all Claims, Liens, and other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever

(other than the Assumed Liabilities), subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, as of the Closing Date and (b) execute and deliver to the Buyer such documents or other instruments as the Buyer deems necessary to assign and transfer the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer in accordance with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. The payment of the applicable Cure Amounts (if any) by the Buyer as required by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order shall (i) effect a cure of all defaults existing thereunder as of the Closing Date, (ii) compensate for any actual pecuniary loss to the applicable Contract Counterparty resulting from such default, and (iii) together with the assumption of the Assumed Contracts by the Seller and the assignment of Assumed Contracts to the Buyer, constitute adequate assurance of future performance thereof.

21. The Buyer's right to modify the list of Assumed Contracts after the date of this Sale Order and up to the Designation Deadline, including by adding Assumed Contracts to or deleting Assumed Contracts from such list, is hereby approved.

22. On the Closing Date, the Seller shall assume and assign to the Buyer each Assumed Contract designated by Buyer for assumption and assignment on the Closing Date in accordance with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, and which Assumed Contracts are set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto (as may be modified up to the Designation Deadline); provided, however, to the extent any contract with a customer for a warranty claim and/or a membership constitute an executory Contract, such contract shall be deemed an Assumed Contract without their inclusion on Exhibit B subject to the limitations set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

23. Pursuant to section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the assignment by the Seller of the Assumed Contracts shall not be a default thereunder. Any provisions in any Assumed Contract that prohibit or condition the assignment of such Assumed Contract to the Buyer or allows the party to such Assumed Contract to terminate, recapture, impose any penalty, condition on renewal or extension, or modify any term or condition upon the assignment of such Assumed Contract to the Buyer, constitute anti-assignment provisions that are unenforceable and will have no force and effect solely with respect to assumption and assignment pursuant to this Sale Order or any subsequent assumption and assignment order. All other requirements and conditions under sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code for the assumption by the Seller and assignment to the Buyer of the Assumed Contracts have been satisfied.

24. On the Closing Date, upon payment of the relevant Cure Amount, if any, in accordance with sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Buyer shall be fully and irrevocably vested with all right, title and interest of the Seller under the Assumed Contracts. To the extent provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Debtors shall cooperate with and take all actions reasonably requested by the Buyer to effectuate the foregoing.

25. On the Closing Date, upon payment of the relevant Cure Amount, if any, the Assumed Contracts will remain in full force and effect (subject to any amendments agreed to between the counterparty to such Assumed Contract and the Buyer), and no default shall exist under the Assumed Contracts and no counterparty to any Assumed Contract shall be permitted (a) to declare a default by the Buyer under such Assumed Contract, or (b) to otherwise take action against the Buyer as a result of any Debtors' financial condition, bankruptcy, or failure to perform any of its obligations under the relevant Assumed Contract.

26. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than the right to payment of any Cure Amount, all Contract Counterparties are forever barred and permanently enjoined from raising or asserting against either the Debtors or the Buyer any assignment fee, default, breach, Claim, pecuniary loss, or condition to assignment arising under or related to the Assumed Contracts existing as of the Closing Date or arising by reason of the Closing; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any customer of any Seller holding a Cure Amount on account of a valid warranty from any Seller or a membership agreement with any Seller, subject to the limitations set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, as such liabilities are being assumed by Buyer, but only to the extent set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

27. On the Closing Date, the Debtors shall be relieved, pursuant to sections 363 and 365(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, from any further liability under any Assumed Contract, and the counterparties shall be estopped from asserting any and all Claims or Liens, whether known or unknown, against the Debtors on account of the Assumed Contract. Without limiting the foregoing, on the Closing Date, the Seller shall be relieved of any further liability under any warranty or membership obligation with any of their customers, as such liabilities are being assumed by the Buyer to the extent set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

28. Any Contract Counterparty—including, to the extent applicable, any customer holding a valid warranty from, and/or membership with, any Seller—who did not timely file an objection to the assumption of its Assumed Contract shall be deemed to have consented to the Assumed Contract's assumption and assignment to the Buyer pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. All objections to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts that have not been withdrawn, waived, settled, or adjourned, as announced to the Court at the Sale Hearing or by stipulation filed with the Court, and all reservations of rights included in such objections or otherwise, are hereby denied and overruled on the merits with prejudice.

29. All non-Debtor counterparties to the Assumed Contracts shall cooperate and expeditiously execute and deliver, upon the reasonable request of the Buyer, any instruments, applications, consents, or other documents that may be required or requested by any public authority or other party or entity to effectuate the applicable transfers of the Assumed Contracts in connection with the sale of the Acquired Assets.

Other Provisions

30. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement does not provide for the sale of the Debtors' and their estates' claims—including, without limitation, commercial tort claims and Avoidance Actions—against any of the Debtors' insiders (as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code).

31. ~~30.~~ The consideration provided by the Buyer for the Seller's right, title, and interest in the Acquired Assets under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the Acquired Assets under the Bankruptcy Code, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, Uniform Voidable Transactions Act, and other applicable law within the meaning of section 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia.

32. ~~31.~~ Effective upon the Closing Date, except as set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement with respect to Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens and Sale Order, all persons and entities are forever prohibited and permanently enjoined from commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding, whether in law or equity, in any judicial, administrative, arbitral, or other proceeding against the Buyer, its successors and assigns, or the Acquired Assets, with respect to any (a) Claims and Liens arising under, out of, in connection with or in any way relating to the Debtors, the Buyer, the Acquired Assets, or the operation of the Acquired Assets prior to the Closing or (b) successor liability based, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, on any theory of successor or vicarious liability of any kind of character, or based upon any theory of antitrust, environmental, successor or transferee liability, de facto merger or substantial continuity, labor and employment, worker's compensation, or products liability, whether known or unknown as of the Closing, now existing or hereafter arising, asserted or unasserted, fixed or contingent, or liquidated or unliquidated, including, without limitation, the following actions: (i) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding against the Buyer, its successors or assigns, assets, or properties; (ii) enforcing, attaching, collecting or recovering in any manner any judgment, award, decree, or order against the Buyer, its successors or assigns, assets, or properties; (iii) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any Claims or Liens against the Buyer, its successors or assigns, assets, or properties; (iv) asserting any setoff or right of subrogation of any kind against any obligation due to the Buyer or its successors or assigns; (v) commencing or continuing any action, in any manner or place, that does not comply or is inconsistent with the provisions of this Sale Order or other orders of the Court, or the agreements or actions contemplated or taken in respect thereof; or (vi) revoking, terminating, or failing or refusing to renew any license, permit or authorization to operate any of the Acquired Assets or conduct any of the businesses operated with the Acquired Assets.

33. ~~32.~~ The transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement are undertaken by the Buyer without collusion and in good faith, as that term is defined in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and accordingly, the reversal or modification on appeal of the authorization provided herein to consummate the Sale shall not affect the validity of the Sale (including the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts), unless such authorization and such Sale are duly stayed pending such appeal. The Buyer is a good faith purchaser within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and, as such, is entitled to the full protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Sale is not subject to avoidance pursuant to section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

34. ~~33.~~ No bulk sales law or any similar law of any state or other jurisdiction applies in any way to the transactions with the Debtors that are approved by this Sale Order, including, without limitation, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the Sale.

35. ~~34.~~ The failure specifically to include any particular provision of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement in this Sale Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision, it being the intent of the Court that the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement be authorized and approved in its entirety.

36. ~~35.~~ The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and any related or ancillary agreements, documents or other instruments may be further modified, amended, or supplemented by the parties thereto and in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court; provided that any such modification, amendment or supplement does not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' estates.

37. ~~36.~~ To the extent that this Sale Order is inconsistent with any prior order or pleading with respect to the Motion in the Chapter 11 Cases, the terms of this Sale Order shall govern. To the extent there are any inconsistencies between the terms of this Sale Order and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement (including any ancillary documents executed in connection therewith), the terms of this Sale Order shall govern.

38. ~~37.~~ The provisions of this Sale Order are non-severable and mutually dependent.

39. ~~38.~~ All time periods set forth in this Sale Order shall be calculated in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a).

40. ~~39.~~ The automatic stay pursuant to section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is hereby modified, lifted, and annulled with respect to the Debtors and the Buyer to the extent necessary, without further order of this Court, to allow the Buyer to take any and all actions permitted under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or any other Sale-related document in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof. The Buyer shall not be required to seek or obtain relief from the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code to enforce any of its remedies under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or any other Sale-related document.

41. ~~40.~~ The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effect the relief granted pursuant to this Sale Order in accordance with the Motion. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and any related agreements, documents or other instruments may be modified, amended or supplemented through a written document signed by the parties thereto in accordance with the terms thereof without further order of this Court; provided, however, that any such modification, amendment, or supplement that is either material or materially changes the economic substance of the transactions shall be (i) filed on the docket served on the Limited Service List, and (ii) parties-in-interest shall have five (5) days to object to any such amendment. Absent any such objection, such modification, amendment, or supplement shall be binding and any timely objection shall be heard by the Court on an expedited basis.
