The location of the Debtors' service address in these chapter 11 cases is: In re CBRM Realty Inc., et al., c/o White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020.

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER (I) APPROVING (A) BIDDING PROCEDURES, THE SALE TIMELINE, AND THE FORM AND MANNER OF NOTICE THEREOF FOR THE KELLY HAMILTON PROPERTY, (B) THE DEBTORS' ENTRY INTO AND PERFORMANCE UNDER THE STALKING HORSE AGREEMENT, (C) BID PROTECTIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE STALKING HORSE AGREEMENT, AND (D) ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT PROCEDURES, AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (the "Debtors") state as follows in support of this motion:

Preliminary Statement

1. Following extensive good-faith, arm's-length discussions between the Debtors and their lender under the postpetition financing facility secured by the Debtors' Kelly Hamilton asset in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility"),[2] the parties have entered into an agreement for a newly formed affiliated entity, 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender") or a nominee designated in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement[3] (such nominee, together with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, as applicable, the "Stalking Horse Bidder"), pursuant to a credit bid of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim (each as defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement), to acquire substantially all of the multi-family housing assets (the "Kelly Hamilton Property") owned by Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton Debtor").

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Bidding Procedures and Bidding Procedures Order, the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 246] (the "Plan"),the Disclosure Statement for the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 247] (the "Disclosure Statement"), or the Stalking Horse Agreement (as defined below), as applicable, filed contemporaneously herewith.

[3] The nominee shall be a special purpose entity under common control by the Stalking Horse Bidder which the Stalking Horse Bidder shall designate to acquire the Kelly Hamilton Property in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement.

2. The Debtors' proposed sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property will be effectuated under a chapter 11 plan (the "Sale Transaction"). The proposed Sale Transaction will provide extensive benefits to the Debtors and their estates, including the (i) elimination of the obligations under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, (ii) preservation of the Kelly Hamilton Property as a multi-family housing going concern in a historic area of Pittsburgh, and (iii) funding to consummate the Plan.

3. The Debtors seek the Court's approval to authorize the Debtors to, subject to the outcome of the auction process, enter into the asset purchase agreement with the Stalking Horse Bidder pursuant to the Plan (the "Stalking Horse Agreement"), establish a timeline to solicit bids, approve the Debtors' selection of the Stalking Horse Bidder, and approve certain limited bid protections in favor of the Stalking Horse Bidder in light of the benefits that the proposed sale provides to the Debtors' estates. The Debtors will use the committed bid from the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender as a floor in the Debtors' ongoing sale process in accordance with the timeline set forth herein to secure the highest and best bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Debtors believe that approval of the Bidding Procedures (as defined below) and entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and all stakeholders.

4. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court authorize the requested relief to permit the Debtors to complete their value-maximizing sale process.

Relief Requested

5. By this motion, the Debtors seek entry of an order (the "Bidding Procedures Order") approving, among other things, certain dates and procedures that are critical to the Debtors' proposed bidding and sale process as well as assumption and assignment procedures, in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Debtors will seek approval of an order

(the "Confirmation and Sale Order") approving the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property through the Plan.

6. The relief sought in the proposed Bidding Procedures Order includes the following:

(a) setting August 14, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) as the deadline by which parties must submit an offer with respect to the Debtors' proposed sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property (the "Bid Deadline");

(b) setting August 18, 2025 as the date on which the Debtors will conduct an auction (the "Auction") (if any) with respect to the proposed sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property;

(c) scheduling a hearing to consider approval of the Confirmation and Sale Order (the "Confirmation and Sale Hearing"), for September 4, 2025, or as soon thereafter as the Court may be available, and approving the form and manner of notice thereof;

(d) approving bidding and auction procedures for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property (the "Bidding Procedures"), substantially in the form attached to the Bidding Procedures Order as Exhibit 1, and the form and manner of notice thereof;

(e) approving the form and manner of the confirmation and sale notice ("Confirmation and Sale Notice"), substantially in the form attached to the Bidding Procedures Order as Exhibit 2;

(f) approving procedures for the assumption and assignment of certain Executory Contracts[4] and Unexpired Leases[5] in connection with the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property (each, an "Assumed Contract" and collectively, the "Assumed Contracts"), and notice of the Debtors' potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, substantially in the form attached as Exhibit 3 to the Bidding Procedures Order (the "Assumption Notice");

(g) authorizing the Debtors' entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement, attached to the Bidding Procedures Order as Exhibit 4, with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender as the Stalking Horse Bidder;

(h) approving the payment of the Bid Protection to the Stalking Horse Bidder in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement; and

(i) granting related relief.

[4] "Executory Contract" means a contract to which one or more of the Debtors is a party that is subject to assumption or rejection under sections 365 or 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code.

[5] "Unexpired Lease" means a lease to which one or more of the Debtors is a party that is subject to assumption or rejection under sections 365 or 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. The predicates for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a), 363, 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, rules 2002(a)(2), 6004, and 6006 of the Bankruptcy Rules, and rules 6004-1, 6004-2 and 9013-1(a)(3) of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Local Rules").

Background

I. The Chapter 11 Cases

10. On May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code commencing the above-captioned chapter 11 cases. The Debtors continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. These chapter 11 cases are being jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

11. Additional factual information regarding the Debtors' business, their capital structure, and the circumstances leading to these chapter 11 filings is contained in the Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings [Docket No. 44] (the "First Day Declaration").

II. Events Leading to the Stalking Horse Agreement and Marketing Process

12. Prior to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors determined that a successful restructuring process would require consideration and evaluation of all potential restructuring options, including: (a) a recapitalization or restructuring of the Debtors' equity and/or debt securities; (b) a sale or sales of equity and/or assets of the Debtors; and/or (c) a refinancing of existing funded debt obligations or raising new capital through the issuance of debt or equity securities for the Debtors' properties, whether individually or collectively.

13. Specifically, the Debtors sought (i) a source of capital to maintain and operate the Kelly Hamilton Property, and/or (ii) a purchaser for the Kelly Hamilton Property. In the fall of 2024, Kelly Hamilton Lender LLC, an affiliate of the Debtors' prepetition property manager, Lynd Management Group LLC ("Lynd Management"), provided a loan for the Debtors to fund the Kelly Hamilton Property's operations and restructuring.

14. In preparation for these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors, in conjunction with Lynd Management, determined that obtaining further financing outside of a court-supervised restructuring process was not feasible. The Debtors engaged with Lynd Management and its financing partner, 3650 REIT, regarding the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. Lynd Management and 3650 REIT formed 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh LLC to provide the $9.7 million Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility which was finalized in connection with these chapter 11 cases. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility and Stalking Horse Agreement provide for, among other things, a credit bid of all obligations outstanding under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, the potential assumption of certain liabilities, and the payment of cure amounts for assigned executory contracts (the "Stalking Horse Bid"). The Debtors' discussions with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender have resulted in a definitive agreement for 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh LLC or a nominee under common control with the Stalking Horse Bidder designated in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement to serve as the Stalking Horse Bidder for the Kelly Hamilton Property, the sale of which would be consummated under the Plan.

15. Accordingly, on July 11, 2025, the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender entered into the Stalking Horse Agreement, a copy of which is attached to the Bidding Procedures Order as Exhibit 4. The Stalking Horse Agreement contemplates that the Kelly Hamilton Property will be sold free and clear, except as set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement, pursuant to a chapter 11 plan following a robust marketing, auction, and sale process to determine whether or not the Stalking Horse Bid is the highest or otherwise best bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property.

16. Moreover, in May 2025, the Debtors retained IslandDundon LLC ("IslandDundon") as their financial advisor and investment banker to (a) seek postpetition financing for the Kelly Hamilton Property, and (b) conduct a comprehensive marketing process to canvass all value-maximizing restructuring options that may be available to the Debtors. The Debtors and their advisors have identified 37 potential transaction parties. The Debtors intend to distribute marketing materials to these parties as soon as practicable, together with confidentiality agreements.

III. The Proposed Sale Process and Related Timeline

17. The Debtors request that the Court approve the following dates in connection with the Bidding Procedures and the proposed sale timeline (the "Sale Timeline"):

Event	Deadline
Entry of the Bidding Procedures Order and Conditional Approval of the Disclosure Statement	July 24, 2025
Assumption and Assignment Service Deadline	Seven (7) Days After Entry of the Bidding Procedures Order
Cure Objection Deadline	Fourteen (14) Days After Service of the Assumption Notice[6]
Bid Deadline	August 14, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time)
Deadline for Debtors to Designate Qualifying Bids	August 15, 2025
Auction Date (if any)	August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time)
Deadline to File Notice of Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder	August 19, 2025
Deadline to Object to Confirmation and the Sale, and the Voting Deadline	August 22, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time)
Reply in Support of Confirmation	August 27, 2025
Confirmation and Sale Hearing	September 4, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time)
Consummation of Sale Transaction	Ten (10) Business Days Following Entry of the Confirmation and Sale Order

18. The Debtors believe that the sale process and related timeline are reasonable in time and scope and afford parties and creditors with sufficient time to gather information necessary to formulate a competitive bid that should maximize the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property for the benefit of the Debtors' estates and their stakeholders. The Debtors and their advisors believe that a fulsome and transparent marketing process will generate significant interest from potential bidders. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully submit that the proposed sale process and related timeline are in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, will establish whether and to what extent a market exists for the Kelly Hamilton Property, will provide interested parties with sufficient opportunity to participate in any sale transaction, and ultimately, will drive a higher and better value for the Kelly Hamilton Property under the circumstances.

IV. The Stalking Horse Bid

19. Entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement will establish a floor for other interested bidders to submit, and for the Debtors to pursue, a superior offer in accordance with the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Debtors will conduct a Court-supervised marketing process pursuant to the Bidding Procedures, including conducting an auction on August 18, 2025 if a qualified bid other than the Stalking Horse Bid is received by the proposed Bid Deadline of August 14, 2025. This process will allow the Debtors to maximize estate value while maintaining their ability to emerge from chapter 11 by the end of August.

20. Among other things, the Stalking Horse Agreement contemplates the Stalking Horse Bidder credit bidding the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and Manager Administrative Expense Claim under a chapter 11 plan, assuming certain liabilities and Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases of the Debtors, and satisfying related cure costs related to the assumption and assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases of the Debtors, which will allow the Debtors to consummate the Plan and responsibly wind down their related remaining estates. The Stalking Horse Agreement also includes various customary representations, warranties, and covenants by and from the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder, and certain conditions to closing and rights of termination related to the sale and these chapter 11 cases. The transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement are subject to approval by the Court and entry of the Confirmation and Sale Order.

LBR 6004-1(a)(3)	Summary. If one or more Qualifying Bids are received by the Bid Deadline, the Debtors will conduct the Auction to facilitate the determination of the highest or otherwise best Qualifying Bid. Prior to or at the start of the Auction (if any), the Debtors will notify the Qualifying Bidders participating in the Auction (if any), including the Stalking Horse Bidder, of the highest or otherwise best Qualifying Bid received before the Bid Deadline (the "Baseline Bid") and provide copies of the documents supporting the Baseline Bid to all Qualifying Bidders.
	Date, Time, and Place. The Auction (if any) shall take place on August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. ET (prevailing Eastern Time) at the offices of White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020 and/or in a virtual room hosted by the Debtors' counsel, or such other place and time as the Debtors shall notify the Qualifying Bidders. In accordance with the Bidding Procedures, the Debtors will provide instructions for accessing the Auction (if any) by videoconference to the Qualifying Bidders prior to the Auction (if any).
	Auction Participants. Except as otherwise determined by the Debtors, only (i) the Debtors, (ii) any Qualifying Bidder, (iii) the U.S. Trustee, (iv) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, (v) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, and (vi) any other creditor of the Debtors that delivers to Debtors' counsel a written request to attend the Auction (by email to barrett.lingle@whitecase.com) no later than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the commencement of the Auction, in each case, along with their respective representatives and counsel, may attend the Auction; provided that the Debtors may, in their sole discretion, establish a reasonable limit on the number of advisors that may appear on behalf of each party.
	Conducting the Auction. The Debtors and their professionals shall direct and preside over the Auction (if any) and the Auction (if any) shall be transcribed. Other than as expressly set forth herein, the Debtors may conduct the Auction (if any) in the manner they determine will result in the best offer. The Debtors may modify the format of the Auction (if any).
	Overbids. Auction Bidders may submit successive bids (each, an "Overbid") in increments of at least $250,000.00, provided that: (i) each such Overbid must be a Qualifying Bid; and (ii) the Debtors shall retain the right to modify the bid increment requirements at the Auction.
	Successful Bidder. The Auction (if any) shall continue until the Debtors select such Qualifying Bid that is the highest or best Qualifying Bid at the Auction (if any), taking into account any factors the Debtors reasonably deem relevant to the value and certainty of the Qualifying Bid to the Debtors' estates (such Qualifying Bid, the "Successful Bid," and the Bidder submitting such Successful Bid, the "Successful Bidder") as the winner of the Auction (if any). In making this decision, the Debtors shall consider, in consultation with the Consultation Party, the amount of the purchase price, the assumption of liabilities, the likelihood of the bidder's ability to close the proposed transaction and the timing thereof, the number, type and nature of any changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement or the applicable Alternative APA, as applicable, requested by each bidder, and the net benefit to the Debtors' estates. As set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order, in the event the Debtors receive a Qualifying Bid other than the Stalking Horse Bid, the Stalking Horse Bid shall be the Successful Bid so long as the Stalking Horse Bid is equal to an amount not less than the highest other Qualifying Bid, if any. The Auction (if any) shall close when the Successful Bidder submits fully executed transaction documents memorializing the terms of the Successful Bid.

	Back-Up Bidder. The Qualifying Bidder with the next highest or otherwise next best Bid at the Auction (if any), as determined by the Debtors, will be designated as the Back-Up Bidder. The identity of the Back-Up Bidder and the amount and material terms of the Back-Up Bid shall be announced by the Debtors at the conclusion of the Auction (if any) at the same time the Debtors announce the Successful Bid.
	Notice. On August 19, 2025, the Debtors shall file with the Court a notice identifying the Successful Bidder and the Back-Up Bidder.
Reservation of Rights of the Debtors; Modification of Bidding and Auction Procedures	The Debtors reserve the right as they may reasonably determine in their sole discretion, to be in the best interest of the Debtors' estates, to: (i) determine which Qualifying Bid at the Auction (if any) is the highest or best proposal; (ii) reject any Bid that is (a) inadequate or insufficient, (b) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bidding Procedures or the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, or (c) contrary to the best interests of the Debtors and their estates; (iii) waive terms and conditions set forth herein with respect to all potential bidders and Qualifying Bidders; (iv) impose additional terms and conditions at the Auction (if any) with respect to all Qualifying Bidders; (v) extend the deadlines set forth herein; (vi) continue or cancel the Auction (if any) in open court without further notice; and (vii) modify the Bidding Procedures, if necessary, and implement additional procedural rules that the Debtors determine, in their business judgment, will better promote the goals of the bidding process and discharge their fiduciary duties and are not inconsistent with any Court order.

25. The Debtors submit that the timeline set forth in the Bidding Procedures, and the Bidding Procedures themselves, are reasonable and necessary under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases. Such timeline provides approximately five weeks between the filing of this motion and the Bid Deadline, which will allow parties in interest sufficient time to diligence the opportunity presented here, and to formulate bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Bidding Procedures were designed with the objective of generating interest in, and driving higher and better value for, the Kelly Hamilton Property while allowing the Debtors to close the Sale Transaction in a timely and efficient manner.

26. The robust auction and sale process, contemplated by the Bidding Procedures, will also serve as a market test to ensure that the Stalking Horse Agreement is a value-maximizing transaction for the Debtors and their stakeholders. The Stalking Horse Bidder will be deemed to be a Qualifying Bidder, and the Stalking Horse Agreement is deemed to be a Qualifying Bid. The Stalking Horse Bidder is credit bidding pursuant to section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, and thus, is not required to make a deposit with the Debtors.

27. Nothing in the Bidding Procedures will impose any obligation on a Debtor (including the board of directors, board of managers, or similar governing body of a Debtor), after consulting with counsel, to take any action or to refrain from taking any action, with respect to the Bidding Procedures or otherwise related to any potential transaction, to the extent taking or failing to take such action is required to comply or would be inconsistent with applicable law or the Debtors' fiduciary obligations, if any, under applicable law. Therefore, the Bidding Procedures do not hinder the Debtors' ability to consider all Qualifying Bid proposals and preserve the Debtors' right to modify the Bidding Procedures as necessary or appropriate to maximize value for their estates.

VI. Notice Procedures for the Sale, Bidding Procedures, Auction, and Confirmation and Sale Hearing

28. As soon as practicable after entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors will cause the Confirmation and Sale Notice, substantially in the form attached to the Bidding Procedures Order as Exhibit 2, to be served on (a) all parties listed on the notice block of this motion and (b) any parties that have expressed written interest in pursuing a potential transaction in connection with the marketing and bidding process. The Confirmation and Sale Notice is reasonably calculated to provide all interested parties with timely and proper notice of the Bidding Procedures, Auction (if any), and Confirmation and Sale Hearing. As soon as practicable following the entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors shall cause the Confirmation and Sale Notice to be published once in the Newark Star Ledger and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, or similar publication in the prudent exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. In addition, the Debtors will post the Confirmation and Sale Notice on the Debtors' restructuring website: https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm.

29. Following the Auction (if any), on August 19, 2025, the Debtors will promptly file with the Court a notice (the "Notice of Successful Bidder") that will identify, among other things, the Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder.

VII. The Assumption and Assignment Procedures and Related Notice

30. The Debtors are also seeking approval of certain procedures to facilitate the fair and orderly assumption and assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases in connection with the Sale Transaction (the "Assumption and Assignment Procedures") and the Assumption Notice, substantially in the form attached to the Bidding Procedures Order as Exhibit 3. Because the Bidding Procedures Order sets forth the Assumption and Assignment Procedures in detail, they are not restated herein. Generally, however, the Assumption and Assignment Procedures (a) outline the process by which the Debtors may serve notice to certain Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease counterparties regarding the proposed assumption and assignment and related cure amounts, informing such parties of their right and the procedures to object thereto, and (b) establish objection and other relevant deadlines and the manner for resolving disputes relating to the assumption and assignment of the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to the extent necessary.

Basis for Relief

I. The Court Should Approve the Sale Timeline Because It Is in the Best Interests of the Debtors' Estates and Is Reasonable in Time and Scope.

31. The Debtors seek entry of the Bidding Procedures Order for purposes of setting the Sale Timeline and providing parties with as much notice and clarity as possible. The proposed Sale Timeline contemplates an efficient sale process, and the Debtors want to ensure that all interested parties, and any potential bidders, understand the timeline to participate in the sale process and submit Qualifying Bids.

32. The Debtors further submit that the Sale Timeline is appropriate. The Debtors and their advisors have evaluated a number of qualitative and quantitative factors in designing a process that they believe will maximize the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property and result in a successful restructuring of their estates. The Debtors and their advisors have negotiated a timeline that balances the need to provide adequate notice to parties in interest, including to sufficiently market the Kelly Hamilton Property in the context of a postpetition sale process, with the need to quickly and efficiently consummate the Sale Transaction. The Sale Timeline is a product of good-faith, arm's-length negotiations and reflects the best option for maximizing the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases.

33. The Debtors believe that the Sale Timeline is reasonable in time and scope and affords parties with sufficient time to gather information necessary to formulate a competitive, value-maximizing bid. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that the Sale Timeline is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, will assist in establishing whether and to what extent a market exists for the Kelly Hamilton Property, and provides interested parties with sufficient opportunity to participate in any sale transaction(s), and ultimately, will result in the highest or otherwise best bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property under the circumstances.

34. Access to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility is critical to the Debtors' ability to operate their businesses through the completion of the Sale Transaction and during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases. Failure to adhere to the milestones included in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, which are reflected in the Sale Timeline, could jeopardize the Debtors' available borrowing under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility and, in turn, compromise the Debtors' ability to effectuate the proposed Sale Transaction. Given the anticipated cost of administering these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors cannot afford any delay in monetizing the Kelly Hamilton Property. With this in mind, the proposed Sale Timeline provides the Debtors with the ability to maximize value while minimizing administrative expenses.

35. In view of the foregoing, the Debtors request that the Court enter the Bidding Procedures Order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, approving the Sale Timeline.

II. The Court Should Approve the Debtors' Entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement.

36. Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor, "after notice and a hearing, may use, sell or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Courts apply the business judgment standard in evaluating a debtor's proposed use of property outside of the ordinary course of business. Dai-Ichi Kangyo Bank, Ltd. v. Montgomery Ward Holding Corp. (In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp.), 242 B.R. 147, 153-54 (D. Del. 1999) (use of assets outside the ordinary course of business permitted if "sound business purpose justifies such actions"); Meyers v. Martin (In re Martin), 91 F.3d 389, 395 (3d Cir. 1996) (citing Fulton State Bank v. Schipper (In re Schipper), 933 F.2d 513, 515 (7th Cir. 1991)); In re Lionel Corp., 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d Cir. 1983). The business judgment standard recognizes that informed, good faith decisions by debtors' directors should be ratified so long as they can be attributed to "any rational purpose." See Marvel Entm't Group, Inc. v. Mafco Holdings, Inc. (In re Marvel Entm't Grp., Inc.), 273 B.R. 58, 78 (D. Del. 2002) ("[U]nder the business judgment rule, a board's 'decisions will not be disturbed if they can be attributed to any rational purpose'. . . ."). By applying this standard, courts recognize that a debtor is in the best position to make informed and educated decisions about its business. Id.; see also In re Friedman's, Inc., 336 B.R. 891, 895 (Bankr. S.D. Ga. 2005) (holding that the "business judgment rule is a 'policy of judicial restraint born of the recognition that directors are, in most cases, more qualified to make business decisions than are judges'") (quoting Int'l Ins. Co. v. Johns, 874 F.2d 1447, 1458 n.20 (11th Cir. 1989)).

37. Once the debtor articulates a valid business justification, the business judgment rule creates "a presumption that in making a business decision the directors of a corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the company." In re Integrated Res., Inc., 147 B.R. 650 at 656 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (quoting Smith v. Van Gorkom, 488 A.2d 858, 872 (Del. 1985)). Thus, "[w]here the debtor articulates a reasonable basis for its business decisions (as distinct from a decision made arbitrarily or capriciously), courts will generally not entertain objections to the debtor's conduct." Comm. of Asbestos-Related Litigants and/or Creditors v. Johns-Manville Corp. (In re Johns Manville Corp.), 60 B.R. 612, 616 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986).

38. Additionally, section 105(a) further provides that "[t]he court may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a); In re Combustion Eng'g, Inc., 391 F.3d 190, 236 (3d Cir. 2004) ("[Section 105(a)] has been construed to give a bankruptcy court 'broad authority' to provide equitable relief appropriate to assure the orderly conduct of reorganization proceedings.") (citation omitted); In re

VII Holdings Co., 362 B.R. 663, 668-69 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007) ("Section 105(a) bestows broad equitable powers on the Court").

39. Here, the Debtors have demonstrated a sound business judgment for entering into the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Stalking Horse Agreement was the result of arms-length, good-faith negotiations between the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder, and the Stalking Horse Bid is the best and the highest offer the Debtors have received to date for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement will establish a floor for other interested bidders to submit, and for the Debtors to pursue, a superior offer. Based on the foregoing, the Debtors submit that entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement is a valid exercise of their business judgment and should be approved by the Court.

III. The Bid Protection Is Fair, Market-Based, and an Essential Component of the Stalking Horse Bid and Should Be Approved.

40. In order to compensate the Stalking Horse Bidder for the time, effort, expense, and risk that it incurred in negotiating, documenting, and seeking to consummate the Sale Transaction, the Bidding Procedures also provide that if the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, and if an alternative transaction closes, the Stalking Horse Bidder will be entitled to a break-up fee in the amount of $250,000, which such amount shall be earned and shall be paid to the Stalking Horse in the event that the Successful Bidder overbids the Stalking Horse Bidder on the same terms contemplated by the applicable Stalking Horse Bid, and will only be payable on the Effective Date or the closing of the Sale Transaction from the cash proceeds of the transaction, as applicable (the "Bid Protection").

41. Bid protections are a normal and, in many cases, necessary components of sales conducted under the Bankruptcy Code:

> Break-up fees are important tools to encourage bidding and to maximize the value of the debtor's assets .... In fact, because the ... corporation ha(s) a duty to encourage bidding, break-up fees can be necessary to discharge [such] duties to maximize values.

Integrated Res., Inc.,, 147 B.R. at 659-60 (emphasis in original). Specifically, "breakup fees and other strategies may be legitimately necessary to convince a 'white knight' bidder to enter the bidding by providing some form of compensation for the risks it is undertaking." In re 995 Fifth Ave., Assocs., L.P., 96 B.R. 24, 28 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) (quotations omitted); See also Integrated Res., Inc., 147 B.R. at 660-61 (break-up fees can prompt bidders to commence negotiations and "ensure that a bidder does not retract its bid"); In re Hupp Indus., Inc., 140 B.R. 191, 194 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1992) ("without such fees, bidders would be reluctant to make an initial bid for fear that their first bid will be shopped around for a higher bid from another bidder who would capitalize on the initial bidder's . . . due diligence")

42. As a consequence, courts in this jurisdiction routinely approve such bidding protections in connection with similar transactions. See Calpine Corp. v. O'Brien Envtl. Energy, Inc. (In re O'Brien Envtl. Energy, Inc.), 181 F.3d 527 (3d Cir. 1999) ("In other words, the allowability of break-up fees, like that of other administrative expenses, depends upon the requesting party's ability to show that the fees were actually necessary to preserve the value of the estate."); In re Reliant Energy Channelview LP, 594 F.3d 200, 206-07 (3d Cir. 2010) (holding that a fee could preserve the value of an estate by assuring that a bidder adhered to its bid rather than abandoning its attempt to purchase in the event that the bankruptcy court required an auction for the sale of the relevant asset); In re Women First Healthcare, Inc., 332 B.R. 115, 121 (Bankr. D. Del. 2005) ("The Third Circuit has expressly recognized as an administrative claim a stalking-horse bidder's claim for a break-up fee and expense reimbursement if granting such a claim provides a benefit to the estate . . . nor does the benefit to the estate have to be substantial . . . .").

43. In Calpine Corp. v. O'Brien Envtl. Energy, Inc. (In re O'Brien Envtl. Energy, Inc.), 181 F.3d 527 (3d Cir. 1999), the Third Circuit held that although bid protections are measured against a business judgment standard in non-bankruptcy transactions, the administrative expense provisions of Bankruptcy Code section 503(b) apply to bid protections in bankruptcy cases. Accordingly, to be approved, bid protections must provide postpetition benefit to the Debtor's estate. See id. at 533; see also In re Reliant Energy Channelview LP, 594 F.3d 200, 206-07 (3d Cir. 2010) (breakup fee must be necessary to preserve the value of the estate).

44. The O'Brien court identified at least two instances in which bid protections may provide benefit to the estate. First, benefit may be found if "assurance of a break-up fee promoted more competitive bidding, such as by inducing a bid that otherwise would not have been made and without which bidding would have been limited." Id. at 537. Second, when the availability of bid protections induce a bidder to research the value of the debtor and submit a bid that serves as a minimum or floor bid on which other bidders can rely, "the bidder may have provided a benefit to the estate by increasing the likelihood that the price at which the debtor is sold will reflect its true worth." Id.

45. The Bid Protection is fair and reasonable in amount, particularly in view of the efforts that have been and will be expended by the Stalking Horse Bidder. The Debtors have engaged with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender regarding its interest in submitting a potential stalking horse bid. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender indicated to the Debtors that a market break-up fee is an integral part of a deal and inducement for the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender to submit a stalking horse bid with respect to the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Debtors determined that it was prudent to select a stalking horse prior to the auction to ensure that there was a committed "floor" at the auction. Accordingly, the Bid Protection is "actually necessary to preserve the value of the estate." In re O'Brien Env't Energy, Inc., 181 F.3d at 535.

46. The proposed Bid Protection is also appropriate under the "administrative expense" standard of O'Brien. Here, the Stalking Horse Bid provides a floor for other Qualifying Bids. Moreover, the Bid Protection, which is insisted on as consideration by the Stalking Horse Bidder, will enable the Debtors to secure an adequate floor for the Auction and, thus, ensure that competing bids are materially higher or otherwise better than the Stalking Horse Bidder's initial bid, which provides a clear benefit to the estate.

47. Indeed, if the Court does not approve the proposed Bid Protection, the Debtors risk losing the Stalking Horse Bidder's offer to the detriment of the estate. Moreover, the Debtors believes that the willingness of the Stalking Horse Bidder to commit to a sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property, subject to higher and better offers, and thereby provide the funding necessary to confirm the proposed Plan, may encourage third parties to submit higher bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Indeed, courts in this district have routinely approved break-up fees and/or expense reimbursements offered to stalking horse bidders. See, e.g., In re Invitae Corporation, No. 24-11362 (MBK) (Bankr. D. N.J. Feb. 13, 2024) (approving bidding procedures and bidding protections including a break-up fee and expense reimbursement payable to the stalking horse bidder); In re Directbuy Home Improvement, Inc., No. 23-19159 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Nov. 9, 2023) (same); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 18, 2023) (same); In re Cyxtera Technologies, Inc., No. 23-14853 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 29, 2023) (same); In re Bed Bath & Beyond Inc., No. 23-13359 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 25, 2023) (same); In re David's Bridal, LLC, No. 23-13131 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 19, 2023) (same).

48. The proposed Bid Protection is reasonable under the circumstances. By inducing the Stalking Horse Bidder to hold its proposal open as a baseline from which other potential bidders can submit higher or better offers, the Bid Protection will serve to encourage more competitive bidding, which will hopefully increase the consideration provided under the Plan. Moreover, the aggregate amount of the proposed Bid Protection ($250,000) will not chill bidding given the size of this transaction, which will restructure more than $9 million in funded indebtedness. In short, the proposed Bid Protection is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and is in the best interest of the Debtors, their estates, and all stakeholders. Accordingly, the Court should approve the Bid Protection.

IV. Implementing the Bidding Procedures Is an Appropriate Exercise of the Debtors' Business Judgment and in the Best Interests of the Estates.

49. Courts uniformly recognize that procedures intended to enhance competitive bidding are consistent with the goal of maximizing the value received by the estate and, therefore, are appropriate in the context of bankruptcy transactions. See Integrated Res., Inc., 147 B.R. at 659 (bidding procedures "are important tools to encourage bidding and to maximize the value of the debtor's assets"); see also In re Fin. News Network, Inc., 126 B.R. 152, 156 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991) ("court-imposed rules for the disposition of assets . . . [should] provide an adequate basis for comparison of offers, and [should] provide for a fair and efficient resolution of bankrupt estates"). Where there is a court-approved auction process, the assets are presumed to sell for a full and fair price because the best way to determine value is exposure to the market. See Bank of Am. Nat'l Trust & Sav. Ass'n. v. 203 N. LaSalle St. P'ship, 526 U.S. 434, 457 (1999); s*ee also In re Trans World Airlines, Inc.*, No. 01-00056, 2001 WL 1820326, at *4 (Bankr. D. Del. 2001) (while a "sale transaction does not require an auction procedure," "the auction procedure has developed over the years as an effective means for producing an arm's length fair value transaction.").

50. Here, the Bidding Procedures will promote active bidding from interested parties and will elicit the highest or otherwise best proposals available on the market. In particular, the Bidding Procedures contemplate an open auction process and provide potential bidding parties with sufficient time to perform due diligence and acquire the information necessary to submit a timely and well-informed bid. The Debtors fully expect that, by testing the marketplace, they will be able to select a potential transaction that is value-maximizing and in the best interests of the Debtors' stakeholders. The proposed Bidding Procedures are therefore appropriate under the relevant standards governing auction proceedings and bidding incentives in bankruptcy proceedings, and are consistent with other procedures previously approved by this District. See, e.g., In re New Rite Aid, LLC, Case No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 11, 2025) [Docket No. 804]; In re Careismatic Brands, LLC, Case No. 24-10561 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 29, 2024) [Docket No. 339]; In re DirectBuy Home Improvement, Inc., Case No. 23-19159 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Nov. 9, 2023) [Docket No. 187]; In re Bed Bath & Beyond Inc., Case No. 23-13359 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 25, 2023) [Docket No. 92]; In re David's Bridal, LLC, Case No. 23-13131 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 19, 2023) [Docket No. 72]; In re BlockFi Inc., Case No. 22-19361 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 30, 2023) [Docket No. 441].

V. The Form and Manner of the Confirmation and Sale Notice Should be Approved.

51. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a), the Debtors are required to provide creditors with twenty-one (21) days' notice of a hearing where the Debtors will seek to use, lease, or sell property of the estate outside the ordinary course of business. Bankruptcy Rule 2002(c) requires any such notice to include the time and place of the auction and the hearing and the deadline for filing any objections to the relief requested therein. Notice of this Motion and the related hearing to consider entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, coupled with service of the Confirmation and Sale Notice, as provided for herein, is reasonably calculated to provide all interested parties with timely and proper notice of a potential transaction, including the date, time, and place of the Auction (if one is held) and the Bidding Procedures and the dates and deadlines related thereto. Accordingly, the Debtors request that this Court approve the form and manner of the Confirmation and Sale Notice.

VI. The Proposed Notices are Appropriate Under Bankruptcy Rule 2002.

52. The notices contemplated by the Bidding Procedures give notice of the proposed marketing and bidding process, including a disclosure of the time, place, and methodology of the Auction (if any), the terms and conditions for being a Qualifying Bidder, the necessary terms to be included in any potential transaction, and the deadline for filing any objections to the bidding process or any part thereof. The Debtors submit that the notice procedures comply with Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and include information regarding the Bidding Procedures necessary to enable interested bidders to participate in the Auction (if any), and constitute good and adequate notice of the Bidding Procedures and the other components of the marketing and bidding process. Therefore, the Debtors respectfully request that this Court approve the proposed notice procedures.

VII. The Assumption and Assignment Procedures Are Appropriate and Should Be Approved.

53. As set forth above, the Sale Transaction contemplates the assumption and assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to the Successful Bidder. In connection with this process, the Debtors believe it is necessary to establish the Assumption and Assignment procedures by which: (a) the Debtors and counterparties to the Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (the "Contract Counterparties") can reconcile cure obligations, if any, in accordance with section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (b) such Contract Counterparties can object to the assumption and assignment of the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and/or related cure payments. As set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors also request that any Contract Counterparty that fails to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease be deemed to consent to the assumption and assignment of the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, along with the cure payments identified in the Assumption Notice. See, e.g., In re Boy Scouts of Am., 642 B.R. 504, 569 (Bankr. D. Del. 2022) ("The lack of objection of a [creditor] is also consensual for purposes of § 363 and, again, permissible under § 363(f)(2)."); In re Christ Hosp., No. CIV.A. 14-472 ES, 2014 WL 4613316, at *14 (D.N.J. Sept. 12, 2014) (same); In re Congoleum Corp., No. 03-51524, 2007 WL 1428477, at * 1 (Bankr. D.N.J. May 11, 2007) (same); Hargrave v. Township of Pemberton (In re Tabone, Inc.), 175 B.R. 855, 858 (Bankr. D.N.J. 1994) (same); In re Elliot, 94 B.R. 343, 345 (E.D. Pa. 1988) (same).

54. The Debtors believe that the Assumption and Assignment Procedures are fair and reasonable, provide sufficient notice to parties to the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, and provide certainty to all parties in interest regarding their obligations and rights in respect thereof. Accordingly, the Debtors request the Court approve the Assumption and Assignment Procedures set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order.

VIII. The Assumption and Assignment of the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases Should be Approved.

a. The Assumption and Assignment of the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases Reflects the Debtors' Business Judgment.

55. Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor to assume and/or assign its executory contracts and unexpired leases, subject to the approval of the court, provided that the defaults under such contracts and leases are cured and adequate assurance of future performance is provided. The Debtors' decision to assume or reject an executory contract or unexpired lease must only satisfy the "business judgment rule" and will not be subject to review unless such decision is clearly an unreasonable exercise of such judgment. See, e.g., Grp. of Inst'l Invrs. v. Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific Ry. Co., 318 U.S. 523 (1943) (applying Bankruptcy Act section 77(b), predecessor to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and rejecting test of whether executory contract was burdensome in favor of whether rejection is within debtor's business judgment); Sharon Steel Corp. v. Nat'l Fuel Gas Distrib. Corp., 872 F.2d 36, 40 (3d Cir. 1989) (describing deference to a debtor's business judgment as "breathing space afforded [to] the debtor to consider whether to reject or assume executory contracts under the Code"); In re S.A. Holding Co., LLC, 357 B.R. 51, 56 (Bankr. D.N.J. 2006) (applying the business judgment test in determining whether to approve a contract rejection); In re Cent. Jersey Airport Servs., LLC, 282 B.R. 176, 183 (Bankr. D.N.J. 2002) ("Although the [Bankruptcy Code] does not provide the standard to be applied in determining the propriety of the [debtor's] decision [to assume or reject a contract], most Circuits, including the Third Circuit have adopted the business judgment test.").

56. Here, the Court should approve the decision to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts in connection with the Sale Transaction as a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. The Assumed Contracts are necessary to operate the Kelly Hamilton Property and, as such, they are essential to inducing the best offer for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Finally, the Assumed Contracts will be assumed and assigned through the process approved by the Court pursuant to the Bidding Procedures Order and, thus, will be reviewed by key constituents in these chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts by way of the Assumption and Assignment Procedures should be approved as an exercise of their business judgment.

b. The Defaults Under the Assumed Contracts Will Be Cured Through the Sale.

57. Upon finding that a debtor has exercised its business judgment in determining that assuming an executory contract or unexpired lease is in the best interest of its estate, courts must then evaluate whether the assumption meets the requirements of section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, specifically that a debtor (a) cure, or provide adequate assurance of promptly curing, prepetition defaults in the executory contract, (b) compensate parties for pecuniary losses arising therefrom, and (c) provide adequate assurance of future performance thereunder. Carlisle Homes, Inc. v. Azzari (In re Carlisle Homes, Inc.), 103 B.R. 524, 538 (Bankr. D.N.J. 1988). This section "attempts to strike a balance between two sometimes competing interests, the right of the contracting non-debtor to get the performance it bargained for and the right of the debtor's creditors to get the benefit of the debtor's bargain." Id. (quoting In re Bon Ton Restaurant & Pastry Shop, Inc., 53 B.R. 789, 803 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1985)). Here, the statutory requirements of section 365(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code will be satisfied because the Stalking Horse Agreement or any alternative agreement with the Successful Bidder will require that the Stalking Horse Bidder or, to the extent the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, the Successful Bidder, to cure all defaults associated with, or that are required to properly assume, any Assumed Contracts.

58. Because the Assumption and Assignment Procedures (once approved) provide a clear process by which to resolve disputes over cure payments or other defaults, if defaults exist that must be cured, such cure will be achieved fairly, efficiently, and properly, consistent with the Bankruptcy Code and with due respect to the rights of Contract Counterparties.

c. Contract Counterparties Will Be Adequately Assured of Future Performance.

59. Similarly, the third requirement of section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code—adequate assurance of future performance—is also satisfied given the facts and circumstances present here. "The phrase 'adequate assurance of future performance,' adopted from section 2-609(1) of the Uniform Commercial Code, is to be given a practical, pragmatic construction based upon the facts and circumstances of each case. Although no single solution will satisfy every case, the required assurance will fall considerably short of an absolute guarantee of performance." Carlisle Homes, 103 B.R. at 538 (internal citations omitted). Among other things, adequate assurance may be given by demonstrating the assignee's financial health and experience in managing the type of enterprise or property assigned. See In re Filene's Basement, 2014 WL 1713416, at *12 (Bankr. D. Del. 2014) (holding that a contract could be assigned because the assignee had the financial ability to perform the contract obligations going forward and would not fail to perform the contract's obligations at risk of losing a significant investment); In re Bygaph, Inc., 56 B.R. 596, 605−06 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) (holding that adequate assurance of future performance is present where a prospective assignee has the financial resources and has expressed a willingness to devote sufficient funding to a business to give it a strong likelihood of succeeding).

60. At the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, the Debtors will demonstrate that the requirements for assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Successful Bidder are satisfied. As required by the Bidding Procedures, the Debtors will evaluate the financial wherewithal of potential bidders before designating such party a Qualifying Bidder and will demonstrate such financial wherewithal, willingness, and ability to perform under any contracts to be assumed and assigned to a Successful Bidder. Further, the Assumption and Assignment Procedures provide the Court and other interested parties ample opportunity to evaluate and, if necessary, challenge the ability of the Successful Bidder to provide adequate assurance of future performance and object to the assumption of the contracts or proposed cure payments. Thus, the Court should authorize the Debtors to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts to the Successful Bidder pursuant to the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

Waiver of Memorandum of Law

61. The Debtors request that the Court waive the requirement to file a separate memorandum of law pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(a)(3) because the legal basis upon which the Debtors rely is set forth herein and this motion does not raise any novel issues of law.

No Prior Request

62. No prior request for the relief sought in this motion has been made to this or any other court.

Reservation of Rights

63. Nothing contained in this motion or any order granting the relief requested in this motion, and no action taken pursuant to the relief requested or granted (including any payment made in accordance with any such order), is intended as or shall be construed or deemed to be: (a) an admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's right to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this motion or any order granting the relief requested by this motion except as otherwise set forth in the motion; (e) except as set forth herein, a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; or (g) a waiver or limitation of any claims, causes of action or other rights of the Debtors or any other party in interest against any person or entity under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

Notice

64. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to the following parties and/or their respective counsel, as applicable: (a) the office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (b) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender; (c) the NOLA DIP Lender; (d) Lynd Living; (e) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes; (f) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey; (g) the Internal Revenue Service; (h) the attorneys general in the states where the Debtors conduct their business operations; (i) the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development; (j) the U.S. Department of Justice; and (k) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter the Bidding Procedures Order granting the relief requested in this motion and such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.

the District of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on September 18, 2012 (Simandle, C.J.) and consideration of the Motion and the relief requested therein being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"); and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor:

THE COURT HEREBY MAKES THE FOLLOWING FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:[5]

A. Confirmation and Sale Notice. The confirmation and sale notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2 (the "Confirmation and Sale Notice"), is appropriate and reasonably calculated to provide all interested parties with timely and proper notice (i) of this Bidding Procedures Order, (ii) of the Bidding Procedures, (iii) of the Auction, (iv) of the Sale Transaction, (v) of the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, (vi) of any and all objection deadlines related thereto, and (vii) that the Sale Transaction shall be free and clear of liens, claims, interests, and other encumbrances, with all such liens, claims interests, and other encumbrances attaching with the same validity and priority to the proceeds of the Sale Transaction, and, in each case, no other or further notice is required of the foregoing. Such notice is sufficient to cause all interested parties, including all holders of liens, claims, interests, and other encumbrances, whether holders of such liens, claims, interests, or other encumbrances are known or unknown, to be on notice that the proposed Sale Transaction shall be free and clear of such liens, claims, interests, or other encumbrances with respect to the Debtors, their assets, and their estates.

[5] The findings, determinations, and conclusions set forth herein constitute this Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

B. Bidding Procedures. The Debtors have articulated good and sufficient business reasons for the Court to approve the Bidding Procedures. The Bidding Procedures are: (i) fair, reasonable, and appropriate; and (ii) reasonably designed to maximize recovery with respect to the Sale Transaction. The Bidding Procedures were negotiated in good faith and at arm's length and are reasonably designed to promote a competitive and robust bidding process to generate substantial interest in, and better value for, the Kelly Hamilton Property.

C. Stalking Horse Agreement. The process for selecting the Stalking Horse Bidder was fair and appropriate under the circumstances. The Stalking Horse Agreement represents the highest or otherwise best offer the Debtors have received to date to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Stalking Horse Agreement provides the Debtors with the opportunity to sell the Kelly Hamilton Property in a manner designed to preserve and maximize the property's value and provides a floor for a further marketing and auction process. Without the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Debtors are at significant risk of realizing a lower price for the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall act as a "stalking horse purchaser" pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement and shall be subject to higher or otherwise better offers in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement and the Bidding Procedures. Pursuit of the Stalking Horse Bidder as a "stalking horse bidder" and the Stalking Horse Agreement as a "stalking horse purchase agreement" is in the best interests of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates and their creditors, and it reflects a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment.

D. Bid Protection. The Bid Protection is reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances and on the terms set forth in the Bidding Procedures, including in light of the time, cost, and resources expended by the Stalking Horse Bidder and the commitments that will be made by the Stalking Horse Bidder. The Bid Protection is an actual and necessary cost and expense of preserving the Debtors' assets within the meaning of section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall be treated as an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim against the Debtors' estates pursuant to sections 105(a), 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code with priority over all other administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, provided that such superpriority administrative expense claim shall be junior to any obligations incurred under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, any superpriority claim granted under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order[6] (whether as adequate protection or otherwise), and any claims senior to the obligations incurred pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any "Carve Out" or similar provision granted pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order). The Bid Protection was a material inducement for, and a condition of, the Stalking Horse Bidder's entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Stalking Horse Bidder is unwilling to enter into the Stalking Horse Agreement unless the Stalking Horse Bidder is assured the Bid Protection pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement.

E. Auction. The Auction, if held, is necessary to determine whether any entity other than the Stalking Horse Bidder is willing to enter into a definitive agreement on terms and conditions more favorable to the Debtors and their estates than the Stalking Horse Agreement.

F. Assumption and Assignment Procedures. The notice of the Debtors' potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3 (the "Assumption Notice"), is reasonably calculated to provide counterparties to the Assumed Contracts with proper notice of the intended assumption and assignment of their Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, any Cure Payment and the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

[6] As used herein, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order refers to the Final Order (I) Authorizing the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties to Obtain Senior Secured Priming Superpriority Postpetition Financing, (II) Granting Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (IV) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 178].

G. Entry of this Bidding Procedures Order is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, their creditors, and all other interested parties.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Motion and the relief requested therein is GRANTED and APPROVED, as set forth herein.

[7] For the avoidance of doubt, there are two separate deadlines to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of a potential Assumed Contract: (a) the applicable Cure Objection Deadline, which is the deadline to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of a potential Assumed Contract to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including the Cure Payments related to any assumption and assignment of such potential Assumed Contract and the adequate assurance of future performance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (b) the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline, which only applies in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder and is the deadline to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of a Potential Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of the identity of the Successful Bidder and adequate assurance of future performance.

7. The Debtors shall have the right, in their reasonable discretion, to withhold or limit access to any due diligence information that the Debtors determine is business-sensitive or otherwise not appropriate for disclosure to any potential Bidder. Notwithstanding any prepetition limitations, including, without limitation, any non-disclosure, confidentiality, or similar provisions relating to any due diligence information, the Debtors and their estates shall be authorized to provide due diligence information to Potential Bidders, provided that such potential Bidders have delivered an executed confidentiality agreement in form and substance acceptable to the Debtors. The Debtors and their estates are not responsible for, and shall have no liability with respect to, any information obtained by, or provided to, any potential Bidders in connection with the Bidding Procedures or the Sale Transaction, provided that the information was provided in accordance with this Bidding Procedures Order.

8. For all purposes under the Bidding Procedures: (a) the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be considered a Qualifying Bidder, and the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be considered a Qualifying Bid; (b) the Stalking Horse Bidder is, and will be deemed to be, a Qualifying Bidder for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures, without regard to any of the requirements or conditions set forth herein or the Bidding Procedures and without any other or further action by the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (c) in determining whether any potential Bidders constitute Qualifying Bidders, the Debtors may consider a combination of bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. In the event the Debtors receive a Qualifying Bid other than the Stalking Horse Bid, the Stalking Horse Bid shall be the Successful Bid so long as the Stalking Horse Bid is equal to an amount not less than the highest other Qualifying Bid, if any.

9. The Debtors are authorized to enter into and perform all of their respective pre-closing obligations under the Stalking Horse Agreement; provided that for the avoidance of doubt, approval and consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be subject to the terms and conditions detailed herein and the entry of the Confirmation and Sale Order and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to closing on the terms set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Stalking Horse Agreement and any related agreements, documents, or other instruments may be modified, amended or supplemented by the parties thereto, solely in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court.

10. The Bid Protection is approved in the amount $250,000 and shall be paid to the Stalking Horse Bidder pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 2.1(b) of the Stalking Horse Agreement and other relevant provisions thereof. The Debtors are authorized to incur and pay the Bid Protection without further action or order by the Court. The Bid Protection, to the extent payable under the Stalking Horse Agreement, shall constitute an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim against the Debtors' estates pursuant to sections 105(a), 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code with priority over all other administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code,

The Bid Protection shall not be subject to any avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether contractual, equitable, or otherwise), counterclaims, cross-claims, defenses, disallowance, impairment, or any other challenges under any applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

The Debtors' decision to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, is subject to this Court's approval and the closing of the Sale Transaction. Accordingly, absent this Court's approval and the closing of the Sale Transaction, the Assumed Contracts shall not be deemed assumed or assumed and assigned, and shall in all respects be subject to further administration by the Debtors and their estates under the Bankruptcy Code in connection with these chapter 11 cases.

Stalking Horse Bidder, which copy may be provided via email. The Assumption Notice shall inform each recipient of the timing and procedures relating to the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder upon Court approval of the Sale Transaction, and, to the extent applicable, (i) the Debtors' good-faith estimates of the Cure Payment (if any) required in connection with the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, (ii) whether the potential Assumed Contract is then anticipated to be assumed and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder in connection with the Stalking Horse Agreement; (iii) the deadline to object to the proposed Cure Payments; and (iv) the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline; provided, however, that service of an Assumption Notice does not constitute an admission that any contract is an executory contract or that the stated Cure Payment related to any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease constitutes a claim against the Debtors or a right against the Stalking Horse Bidder (all rights with respect thereto being expressly reserved). Further, the inclusion of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, on the Assumption Notice is not a guarantee that such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, will or will not ultimately be assumed and assigned. For the avoidance of doubt, the inclusion of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease in the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice (as defined below), or any amendment thereto does not constitute a designation by the Stalking Horse Bidder of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease for assumption and assignment under the Stalking Horse Agreement, and the Stalking Horse Bidder will not be deemed to assume or be responsible for any Cure Payment or other liability with respect to such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease unless and until the Court enters an order approving the Sale Transaction to the Stalking Horse Agreement, in which case any such assumption of liabilities shall be (i) only with respect to any Assumed Contracts and (ii) as of the closing date.

b) Cure Payments and Adequate Assurance of Future Performance. The payment of the applicable Cure Payments by the Stalking Horse

Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, shall (i) effect a cure of all defaults existing thereunder and (ii) compensate for any actual pecuniary loss to such counterparty resulting from such default.

c) Additions. The Debtors may also designate additional Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases as agreements to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder (the "Additional Assumed Contracts") until consummation of the Sale Transaction. Following the addition of an Additional Assumed Contract, the Debtors shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter serve an Assumption Notice on each of the counterparties to such Additional Assumed Contracts and their counsel of record, if any, indicating (i) that the Debtors intend to assume and assign the counterparty's Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, and (ii) the corresponding Cure Payment.

d) Eliminations. The Debtors may remove any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder (the "Eliminated Agreements") until consummation of the Sale Transaction. Following the removal of an Eliminated Agreement, the Debtors shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter serve a notice (a "Removal Notice") on each of the impacted counterparties and their counsel of record, if any, indicating that the Debtors no longer intend to assign the counterparty's contract or unexpired lease, as applicable, to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder in connection with the Sale Transaction. For the avoidance of doubt, the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder will not assume any Cure Payment or other liability with respect to any Eliminated Agreement, notwithstanding such agreement's inclusion in the Assumption Notice or any Supplemental Assumption Notice.

e) Supplemental Contract Assumption Notice. Although the Debtors intend to make a good-faith effort to identify all Assumed Contracts that may be assumed and assigned in connection with the Sale Transaction, the Debtors may discover certain Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases inadvertently omitted from the Assumed Contracts list or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder may identify other Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that it desires to assume and assign in connection with the Sale Transaction. Accordingly, the Debtors reserve the right, but only in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, at any time before the closing of the Sale Transaction to (i) supplement the list of Assumed Contracts with previously omitted Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, (ii) remove Assumed Contracts from the list of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases ultimately selected as Assumed Contracts that the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder proposes be assumed and assigned to it in connection with the Sale Transaction, or (iii) modify the previously stated Cure Payment associated with any Assumed Contract. In the event the Debtors exercise any of these reserved rights, the Debtors will promptly serve a supplemental notice of contract assumption (a "Supplemental Assumption Notice") on each of the counterparties to such contracts and their counsel of record, if any; provided that the Debtors may not add an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to the list of Assumed Contracts that has been previously rejected by the Debtors by order of the Court. Each Supplemental Assumption Notice will include the same information with respect to listed Assumed Contracts as was included in the Assumption Notice, or in the event of a removal, the information required in a Removal Notice.

f) Objections.[8] Objections, if any, to the Cure Payment or proposed assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the

[8] Any objection that includes confidential, non-public Adequate Assurance Information (as defined herein) must be filed under seal unless disclosure of such confidential, non-public information is authorized by the Debtors and the applicable assignee(s). The unredacted versions of such objections shall be served upon the Debtors, the Consultation Party, and the U.S. Trustee; provided further that all rights of all parties in interest in these chapter

> Stalking Horse Bidder, must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection and, if the objection pertains to the proposed amount of the Cure Payment, the correct cure amount alleged by the objecting counterparty, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, and (iv) be filed with the Court and served upon, so as to be actually received by (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (c) any other party that has filed a notice of appearance in these chapter 11 cases, so as to be actually received on or before fourteen (14) days after service (or as reflected by the postmarked date) of the Assumption Notice or three (3) business days after service of the Supplemental Assumption Notice (such date, as applicable, the "Cure Objection Deadline"). In the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, the deadline to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of (x) the identity of the Successful Bidder and (y) adequate assurance of future performance of the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), is the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline (as defined below).[9]

16. The Assumption Notice is: (a) reasonably calculated to (i) provide sufficient, effective notice to all counterparties and any other affected parties of the Debtors' intent to assume and assign to the Stalking Horse Bidder—or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is

[9] For the avoidance of doubt, all objections to the Cure Payment and assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including objections to the adequate assurance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, must be filed by the applicable Cure Objection Deadline regardless of whether the Stalking Horse Bidder is the Successful Bidder.

Such party shall be forever barred and estopped from objecting to the Cure Payment, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, or Additional Assumed Contract, adequate assurance of future performance, the relief requested in the Motion, whether applicable law excuses such counterparty from accepting performance by, or rendering performance to, the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, for purposes of section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and from asserting any additional cure or other amounts against the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then the Successful Bidder, as applicable, with respect to such party's Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract.

18. The Debtors shall have no liability or obligation with respect to defaults relating to the Assumed Contracts arising, accruing, or relating to the period from and after the effective date of assignment.

19. The Confirmation and Sale Notice, the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice, the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, and the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and the objection periods associated with each of the foregoing are reasonably calculated to provide notice to any affected party and afford the affected party the opportunity to exercise any rights affected by the Motion as it relates to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, the Sale Transaction, the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and the assumption and assignment to the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, of the Assumed Contracts pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(2), 6004 and 6006, and such notice and objection periods are hereby approved.

As soon as reasonably practicable following the entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors shall cause the Confirmation and Sale Notice to be published once in the Newark Star Ledger and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, or similar publication in the prudent exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. Publication of the Confirmation and Sale Notice as described in this Bidding Procedures Order conforms to the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 2002(l) and 9008 and is reasonably calculated to provide notice to any affected party, including any potential Bidders, and afford the affected party the opportunity to exercise any rights affected by the Motion and the relief granted by this Bidding Procedures Order.

22. Any objections to the Sale Transaction under the Plan (a "Confirmation and Sale Objection") must: (1) be in writing; (2) comply with the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules; (3) set forth the specific basis for the Confirmation and Sale Objection; (4) be filed with the Court, on or before 4:00 p.m. (ET) on August 22, 2025 (the "Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline"); (5) be served upon (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) the Successful Bidder, (c) counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, and (d) the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey (collectively, the "Objection Notice Parties"); and (6) proof of service of such Confirmation and Sale Objection upon the Objection Notice Parties shall be filed with the Court as and when required by the Local Rules. If a Confirmation and Sale Objection is not filed and served on or before the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline in accordance with the foregoing requirements, the objecting party may be barred from objecting to the Sale Transaction and being heard at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and this Court may enter the Confirmation and Sale Order without further notice to such party.

23. Failure to file a Confirmation and Sale Objection on or before the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline may forever bar the assertion, whether at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing or thereafter, of any objection to the Sale Transaction and consummation and performance of the Sale Transaction contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement with a Successful Bidder other than the Stalking Horse Bidder.

24. As part of its bid, each potential Bidder must provide the Debtors information supporting the potential Bidder's ability to comply with the requirements of adequate assurance of future performance under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Adequate Assurance Information"), including (a) the potential Bidder's financial wherewithal and willingness to perform under any contracts and leases that are assumed and assigned to such potential Bidder; and (b) a contact person for the proposed assignee that the applicable counterparty may directly contact in connection with the adequate assurance of future performance. In the event that a potential Bidder (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) is a newly formed acquisition entity, the financial and other information supporting the potential Bidder's financial wherewithal shall include financial and other

25. Any party in receipt of Adequate Assurance Information under this Bidding Procedures Order shall review the Adequate Assurance Information received on a confidential basis and shall not disclose the Adequate Assurance Information except as expressly provided in this Bidding Procedures Order and the Bidding Procedures. No party may use or disclose, except to representatives, attorneys, advisors and financing sources (collectively, "Representatives"), any confidential Adequate Assurance Information for any purpose other than: (a) evaluating whether adequate assurance of future performance as required under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code has been provided; and (b) in support of any objection (subject to the limitations on disclosure set forth herein) by such party relating to adequate assurance of future performance. Any Representative receiving Adequate Assurance Information shall be notified and shall agree to be bound by the restrictions set forth in this Bidding Procedures Order.

26. If no timely Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Agreement are submitted on or before the Bid Deadline, the Debtors shall not hold an Auction and shall request at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing that this Court approve the Stalking Horse Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder. If the Debtors timely receive one or more Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Agreement, then the Debtors shall conduct the Auction on Tuesday, August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time), at the offices of White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020 or virtually via telephone and/or video conference pursuant to information to be timely provided by the Debtors to the Auction Participants (as defined below). Except as otherwise determined by the Debtors, only (i) the Debtors, (ii) any Qualifying Bidder, (iii) the U.S. Trustee, (iv) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, (v) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, and (vi) any other creditor of the Debtors that delivers to Debtors' counsel a written request to attend the Auction (by email to barrett.lingle@whitecase.com) no later than 24 hours prior to the commencement of the Auction, in each case, along with their respective representatives and counsel, may attend the Auction (collectively, the "Auction Participants"); provided that the Debtors may, in their sole discretion, establish a reasonable limit on the number of advisors that may appear on behalf of each party. Only Qualifying Bidders will be entitled to make any bids at the Auction.

27. Following the Auction (if any), on August 19, 2025, the Debtors will file with the Court a notice (the "Notice of Successful Bidder") that will identify, among other things, the Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder.

28. The Confirmation and Sale Hearing shall be held in this Court on September 4, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (ET), unless otherwise determined by this Court. The Confirmation and Sale Hearing may be adjourned by the Debtors from time to time without further notice to creditors or other parties in interest other than by announcement of the adjournment in open

1. Consultation Party

As appropriate throughout the sale process, the Debtors and their advisors will consult with counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes (the "Ad Hoc Group" or the "Consultation Party"). Neither the Debtors nor their representatives shall be obligated to furnish any information of any kind relating to the Kelly Hamilton Property to any party that is not a Potential Bidder (defined below) or a Consultation Party.

Nothing herein or contemplated hereby constitutes or will be deemed to constitute or otherwise result in the consent or approval of any Consultation Party to the sale, sale order, or to any agreement or motion or other pleading related thereto, or the waiver or modification of any of the terms of, or any rights under, any existing agreement, instrument or document. Any and all rights or such parties to object or otherwise oppose any sale, sale order, bid, or any agreement or pleading related thereto are hereby expressly preserved and reserved.

2. Stalking Horse Bidder

On July 11, 2025, the Debtors entered into the Stalking Horse Agreement with the Stalking Horse Bidder. As set forth more fully in the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Stalking Horse Bidder is (i) credit bidding the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations (as defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement) and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, (ii) assuming certain liabilities and certain executory contracts and unexpired leases of the Debtors, (iii) satisfying cure costs, and (iv) providing a cash payment if required under the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement (collectively, the "Stalking Horse Bid"). The Stalking Horse Agreement also includes various customary representations, warranties, and covenants by and from the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder, and certain conditions to closing and rights of termination.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Stalking Horse Bidder is deemed to be a Qualifying Bidder (as defined below), and the Stalking Horse Bid (including as it may be modified at the Auction (if any) in accordance with the terms therein and herein) is deemed to be a Qualifying Bid(as defined below). The Stalking Horse Bidder is credit bidding pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(k) and thus is not required to make a Deposit (as defined below) with the Debtors. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall have the unqualified right at any time to credit bid on a dollar-for-dollar basis up to the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim.

3. Assets to be Sold

The Debtors shall offer for sale the Kelly Hamilton Property, provided that the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, determine that the aggregate consideration offered by any bid, or combination of bids, for the Kelly Hamilton Property, satisfies the requirements set forth in these Bidding Procedures. Potential Bidders (as defined herein) may bid on the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Debtors propose to consummate the proposed Sale Transaction pursuant to a chapter 11 plan, subject to Court approval.

4. Participation Requirements

Any interested party that wishes to participate in the bidding process for the Kelly Hamilton Property other than in the case of the Stalking Horse Bidder (each, an "Interested Bidder") must first become a potential bidder (a "Potential Bidder"). To become a Potential Bidder, an Interested Bidder must submit to (a) counsel to the Debtors, (i) White & Case LLP, 111 South Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60606 (Attn: Gregory F. Pesce (gregory.pesce@whitecase.com)) and (ii) White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020 (Attn: Barrett Lingle (barrett.lingle@whitecase.com), and (ii) co-counsel to the Debtors, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, 80 Central Park West, New York, New York 10023 (Attn: Kenneth A. (a) documentation identifying the Interested Bidder, its principals, and the representatives thereof who are authorized to appear and act on their behalf for all purposes regarding the contemplated transaction, including the Auction, if any;

(b) an executed confidentiality agreement ("Confidentiality Agreement") in form and substance satisfactory to the Debtors;

(c) a statement and other factual support demonstrating to the Debtors' reasonable satisfaction, after consultation with the Consultation Party, that the Interested Bidder has a bona fide interest in consummating the Sale Transaction; and

(d) sufficient information, as determined by the Debtors, after consultation with the Consultation Party, to allow the Debtors to determine that the Interested Bidder

(x) has, or can obtain, the financial wherewithal and any required internal corporate, legal, or other authorizations to close the Sale Transaction, including, but not limited to, current audited financial statements of the Interested Bidder (or such other form of financial disclosure acceptable to the Debtors in their discretion), and (y) can provide adequate assurance of future performance under any Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, in connection with the Sale Transaction, pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, in connection with the Sale Transaction.[4]

Each Interested Bidder shall comply with all reasonable requests for information and due diligence access by the Debtors or their advisors regarding the ability of such Interested Bidder to consummate its contemplated transaction. The Debtors reserve the right to work with any Interested Bidder to cure any deficiencies in the Preliminary Bid Documents or waive any of the foregoing requirements in the Debtors' reasonable business judgment, in consultation with the Consultation Party. The Debtors reserve all rights to determine in their business judgment whether a party that has submitted Preliminary Bid Documents shall be deemed a Potential Bidder.

5. Bankruptcy Court Jurisdiction

Any Interested Bidders, Potential Bidders, and Qualifying Bidders (as defined herein) shall: (a) be deemed to have waived any right to a jury trial in connection with, and consented and submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court over, any actions or proceedings arising from or relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Sale Transaction, the Auction, and the construction and enforcement of the contemplated transaction documents of such parties; (b) be deemed to have waived any right to bring any such action or proceeding in the Court; and (c) be deemed to have consented to (i) the Court entering a final order or judgment determining any such action or proceeding and (ii) such final order or judgment in any such action or proceeding, including all appeals, being conclusive and enforceable in other jurisdictions (including any foreign jurisdictions) by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable law.

6. Due Diligence

The Debtors will provide Potential Bidders with reasonable access to a data room and any other additional information that the Debtors believe to be reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances. All due diligence requests shall be directed to the Debtors' Advisors via email at the email address(es) noted above.

The due diligence period shall extend through and include the Bid Deadline. The Debtors, in their business judgment, may, but shall not be obligated to, furnish any due diligence information after the Bid Deadline.

[4] By submitting a Bid, each Bidder agrees that the Debtors are authorized to disseminate the adequate assurance information to the Consultation Party.

The Debtors reserve the right, in their reasonable discretion, to withhold or limit access to any due diligence information that the Debtors determine is not appropriate for disclosure to a Potential Bidder (including its affiliates and any related persons) at any time and for any reason, including, without limitation, if (a) any due diligence information is determined to be business sensitive, proprietary, or otherwise not appropriate for disclosure to a Potential Bidder by the Debtors, including, but not limited to, Potential Bidders who are customers or competitors of the Debtors or affiliates thereof, and other industry participants, (b) the Potential Bidder does not become, or the Debtors determine that the Potential Bidder is not likely to become, a Qualifying Bidder (as defined below), (c) the Potential Bidder violates the terms of its Confidentiality Agreement, (d) the Debtors become aware that the information set forth on the Potential Bidder's Preliminary Bid Documents is inaccurate or misleading or of any other reason to doubt such Potential Bidder's ability to close its contemplated transaction, (e) the Potential Bidder (including its affiliates and any related persons) uses information obtained from the data room or the diligence process in connection with, or related to, any litigation or other legal action related to any Debtor, any current or former directors and officers of the Debtors, the Debtors' non-Debtor affiliates, or the Debtors' primary creditors as identified by the Debtors, (f) such disclosure would jeopardize protections afforded any Debtor or primary creditor as identified by the Debtors under the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work product doctrine, or (g) the bidding process is terminated in accordance with its terms. Notwithstanding any prepetition limitations, including, without limitation, any non-disclosure, confidentiality, or similar provisions relating to any due diligence information, the Debtors and their estates shall be authorized to provide due diligence information to Potential Bidders; provided that such Potential Bidders have delivered an executed Confidentiality Agreement in form and substance acceptable to the Debtors. Subject to the terms and conditions of each Confidentiality Agreement, the Debtors and their estates are not responsible for, and shall have no liability with respect to, any information obtained by, or provided to, any Potential Bidders in connection with the Bidding Procedures and the Sale Transaction.

7. Bid Requirements

Other than in the case of the Stalking Horse Bidder and the Stalking Horse Agreement, which shall be considered a Qualifying Bidder and a Qualifying Bid (each as defined below), respectively, for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures, without any regard to any of the requirements or conditions set forth therein and without any other or further action by the Stalking Horse Bidder, to be deemed a "Qualifying Bid," a bid must be received by the Debtors' Advisors from a Potential Bidder before the Bid Deadline and satisfy each of the following requirements (each, a "Bid Requirement"):

(a) be in writing;

(b) include a clean and duly executed asset purchase agreement, including the exhibits, schedules, and ancillary agreements related thereto (an "Alternative APA") and a marked copy of the Alternative APA showing any variations from the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Alternative APA must (i) provide cash payment that is not less than the sum of (a) the DIP Facility Obligations, (b) the Bid Protection, (c) the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, (d) an amount that is equal to 5% of the aforementioned amounts and (e), any cash necessary to satisfy Senior Claims in full, to the extent such Senior Claims are not assumed in full by the Potential Bidder, (ii) consummate the transactions contemplated in the Alternative APA through the Plan, and (iii) include a commitment to close by no later than ten (10) business days following entry of the Confirmation and Sale Order. The executed copy of the Alternative APA must effective upon the Debtors' countersignature. The terms and conditions of the Alternative APA must be, in the aggregate, not materially more burdensome or adverse to the Debtors than the provisions contained in the Stalking Horse Agreement;

(c) fully disclose the identity of the Potential Bidder (and to the extent that the Potential Bidder is a newly formed acquisition entity or the like, the identity of the Potential Bidder's parent company or sponsor), and provide the contact information of the specific person(s) whom the Debtors or their advisors should contact in the event that the Debtors have any questions or wish to discuss the bid submitted by the Potential Bidder;

(d) set forth the purchase price to be paid by such Potential Bidder, which purchase price shall include an aggregate amount of cash sufficient to pay in full at closing, an amount that is not less than the sum of (a) the DIP Facility Obligations, (b) the Bid Protection, (c) the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, and (d) an amount that is equal to 5% of the aforementioned amounts in full at closing;

(e) identify separately any cash and non-cash components, which non-cash components shall be limited only to credit bids in accordance with section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code and assumed liabilities;

(f) state the liabilities proposed to be paid or assumed by such Potential Bidder;

(g) state that such Potential Bidder offers to (i) purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property and (ii) assume liabilities (including the Cure Payments), upon substantially the same terms as, or terms more favorable to the Debtors and their estate than, the terms set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement;

(h) state that such Potential Bidder's offer is formal, binding and unconditional, and is irrevocable until two (2) business days after the closing of the Sale Transaction;

(i) to the extent that a bid is not accompanied by evidence of a Potential Bidder's capacity to consummate the applicable Sale Transaction with cash on hand, the bid must include unconditional committed financing from a reputable financing institution, documented to the satisfaction of the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, including appropriate contact information for such financing sources, that demonstrates that the Potential Bidder has: (i) received sufficient debt and/or equity funding commitments to satisfy the Potential Bidder's purchase price and other obligations under its bid; and (ii) adequate working capital financing or resources to finance going concern operations for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Such funding commitments or other financing must be unconditional and must not be subject to any internal approvals, syndication requirements, diligence, or credit committee approvals, and shall have covenants and conditions reasonably acceptable to the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party;

(j) contain such financial and other information to allow the Debtors to make a reasonable determination, after consultation with the Consultation Party, as to the Potential Bidder's financial and other capabilities to close the transactions contemplated by the applicable Alternative APA, including, without limitation, such financial and other information supporting the Potential Bidder's ability to comply with the requirements of adequate assurance of future performance under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, including the Potential Bidder's financial wherewithal and willingness to perform under any contracts and leases that are assumed and assigned to the Potential Bidder, in a form that allows the Debtors to serve such information on any counterparties to such contracts or leases in connection with the Sale Transaction within one (1) business day after the Debtors' receipt of such information. To the extent that the Potential Bidder (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) is a newly formed acquisition entity or the like, the financial and other information supporting the Potential Bidder's financial wherewithal shall include financial and other information supporting the financial wherewithal of the Potential Bidder's parent company or sponsor;

(k) identify with particularity each and every Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease, the assumption and assignment of which is a condition to close the transactions contemplated by the Alternative APA;

(l) include closing conditions that are no less favorable to the Debtors than the closing conditions contained in the Stalking Horse Agreement (and specify such closing conditions in the applicable Alternative APA);

(m) include a statement that the bid does not request or entitle such Potential Bidder to any break-up fee, termination fee, expense reimbursement, or similar type of payment or reimbursement;

(n) not contain any contingencies of any kind, including, without limitation, contingencies related to financing, internal approval, or due diligence;

(o) contain a written acknowledgement and representation that the Potential Bidder (i) has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Kelly Hamilton Property, (ii) has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation or inspection of any documents and other information in making its bid, and (iii) did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties or guaranties whatsoever, whether express, implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Kelly

Hamilton Property, or the completeness of any documents or other information provided in connection with the Bidding Procedures and the Sale Transaction;

(p) set forth any regulatory and third-party approvals required for the Potential Bidder to close the transactions contemplated by the Alternative APA, and the time period within which the Potential Bidder expects to receive such regulatory and third-party approvals (and in the case that receipt of any such regulatory or third-party approval is expected to take more than five (5) days following execution and delivery of such Potential Bidder's Alternative APA, those actions the bidder will take to ensure receipt of such approval(s) as promptly as possible); provided, however, that a Potential Bidder agrees that its legal counsel will coordinate in good faith with the Debtors' legal counsel to discuss and explain the Potential Bidder's regulatory analysis, strategy, and timeline for securing all such approvals as soon as reasonably practicable, and in no event later than the time period contemplated in the Alternative APA;

(q) provide for a binding commitment of the Potential Bidder to serve as a backup bidder (the "Back-Up Bidder") if the Potential Bidder's bid is the next highest or otherwise next best bid (the "Back-Up Bid") after the Successful Bid;

(r) include written evidence of authorization and approval from the Potential Bidder's board of directors (or comparable governing body) with respect to the submission, execution, and delivery of the Alternative APA;

(s) provide a good faith cash deposit (the "Deposit") in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the aggregate purchase price provided for in the Alternative APA (or such additional amount as may be determined by the Debtors in their reasonable discretion);

(t) state or otherwise estimate the types of, and costs or charges for, transition services, if any, the Potential Bidder would require of or provide to the Debtors, including an estimate of the time any such transition services would be required of or provided to the Debtors; and

(u) provide that in the event of the Potential Bidder's breach of, or failure to perform under, the Alternative APA, the Debtors and their estates shall be entitled to pursue all available legal and equitable remedies, including, without limitation, retention of the Deposit as part of the damages resulting to the Debtors and their estates for such breach or failure to perform.

A bid from a Potential Bidder satisfying all of the above requirements, as determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, shall constitute a Qualifying Bid. The Debtors reserve the right, in their business judgment and in consultation with the Consultation Party, to waive any of the Bid Requirements or work with any Potential Bidder in advance of the Auction to cure any deficiencies in a bid that is not initially deemed a Qualifying Bid.

Each Potential Bidder submitting a bid shall be deemed to: (a) acknowledge and represent that it is bound by all of the terms and conditions of the Bidding Procedures; and (b) have waived the right to pursue a substantial contribution claim under section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code related in any way to the submission of its bid, the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or the Sale Transaction.

In the event a Bid is submitted, the Debtors shall provide copies of all Bid materials to counsel to the Consultation Party, provided, however, that the Debtors shall have no obligation to provide Bid materials to counsel to the Consultation Party (i) once such party, or an affiliate thereof, has submitted a Bid and (ii) for so long as such Bid remains open.

8. Bid Deadline

A Potential Bidder, other than the Stalking Horse Bidder, that desires to make a bid shall deliver a written and electronic copy of its bid in both PDF and MS-WORD format to the Debtors' Advisors so as to be received on or before August 14, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) (the "Bid Deadline"); provided that the Debtors may extend the Bid Deadline without further order of the Court, after consultation with the Consultation Party. To the extent that the Bid Deadline is extended for all parties, the Debtors shall file a notice on the docket of their chapter 11 cases indicating the same. Any party that does not submit a bid by the Bid Deadline will not be allowed to (a) submit any bids after the Bid Deadline or (b) participate in the Auction.

9. Evaluation of Qualifying Bids

The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, shall make a determination regarding whether a timely submitted bid from a Potential Bidder is a Qualifying Bid.

No later than August 15, 2025, the Debtors shall: (i) notify all Potential Bidders whether their respective bids have been determined to be Qualifying Bids and those Potential Bidders that have submitted Qualifying Bids will be considered to be qualifying bidders (the "Qualifying Bidders") and (ii) determine, in consultation with the Consultation Party, which of the Qualifying Bids, at such time, is the highest or best Qualifying Bid for purposes of constituting the opening bid of the Auction (the "Baseline Bid").

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, and for the avoidance of doubt, for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures: (i) the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be considered a Qualifying Bidder, and the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be considered a Qualifying Bid, for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures, without regard to any of the requirements or conditions set forth therein and without any other or further action by the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (ii) in determining whether the Potential Bidders constitute Qualifying Bidders, the Debtors may consider a combination of bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. As set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order, in the event one or more Qualifying Bids are submitted in advance of the Auction, the Stalking Horse Bid shall be the Successful Bid so long as the Stalking Horse Bid is equal to an amount not less than the highest other Qualifying Bid, if any

10. No Qualifying Bids

If no timely Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Bid are submitted on or before the Bid Deadline, the Debtors shall not hold an Auction and shall request at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing that the Court approve the sale to the Stalking Horse Bidder on the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and the transaction contemplated thereunder.

11. Auction

If the Debtors timely receive one or more Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Bid, then the Debtors shall conduct an auction (the "Auction"). Following the Auction, the Debtors will determine, in consultation with the Consultation Party, which Qualifying Bid or combination of Qualifying Bids is the highest or otherwise best bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property, which will be determined by considering, among other things, the following non-binding factors: (a) the number, type and nature of any changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement requested by each Qualifying Bidder; (b) the extent to which such modifications are likely to delay closing of the Sale Transaction and the cost to the Debtors and their estates of such modifications or delay; (c) the total consideration to be received by the Debtors and their estates; (d) the transaction structure and execution risk, including conditions to, timing of and certainty of closing, termination provisions, availability of financing and financial wherewithal to meet all commitments, and required governmental or other approval; (e) the net benefit to the Debtors' estates; (f) the certainty of the Debtors being able to confirm a chapter 11 plan; and (g) any other factors the Debtors may reasonably deem relevant in their business judgment.

Bidders and their representatives may not communicate or coordinate with one another for purposes of submitting a Bid or Bids or participating in the Auction without the prior consent of the Debtors. All parties are prohibited from (i) engaging in any collusion with respect to the bidding or sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property described herein or (ii) taking any other action to prevent a transparent and competitive auction process.

The Auction shall be governed by the following procedures:

(a) the Auction shall be held on August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (ET) or such other date as may be determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party (which information will be timely provided by the Debtors to the Auction Participants (as defined below)) at the offices of White & Case LLP, White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020, or virtually via telephone or video conference;

(b) only the Stalking Horse Bidder and the other Qualifying Bidders (together, the "Auction Bidders") shall be entitled to make any subsequent bids at the Auction;

(c) the Auction Bidders shall appear at the Auction themselves, or through a duly authorized representative;

(d) Only (i) the Debtors, (ii) any Qualifying Bidder, (iii) the U.S. Trustee, (iv) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, (v) the Ad Hoc Group, and (vi) in the Debtors' discretion, any other creditor of the Debtors that delivers to Debtors' counsel a written request to attend the Auction (by email to barrett.lingle@whitecase.com) no later than 24 hours prior to the commencement of the Auction, in each case, along with their respective representatives and counsel, may attend the Auction (collectively, the "Auction Participants"); provided that the Debtors may establish a reasonable limit on the number of advisors that may appear on behalf of each party;

(e) the Debtors and their professional advisors shall direct and preside over the Auction, which shall be transcribed;

(f) prior to the start of the Auction, each of the Auction Bidders shall confirm that they have not engaged in any collusion with respect to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction or the Sale Transaction;

(g) the Auction shall be conducted in an open format (and not by way of sealed bids);

(h) the Auction Bidders may submit successive bids (each, an "Overbid") in increments of at least $250,000.00, provided that: (i) each such Overbid must be a Qualifying Bid; and (ii) the Debtors shall retain the right to modify the bid increment requirements at the Auction following consultation with the Consultation Party;

(i) the Auction may include individual negotiations with any of the Auction Bidders, but all bids shall be made on the record and in the presence of all of the Auction Bidders;

(j) all material terms of the bid that is deemed to be the highest or otherwise best bid, if applicable, for each round of bidding shall be fully disclosed to the Auction Bidders, and the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to clarify any and all questions that the Auction Bidders may have regarding Debtors' announcement of the then-current highest or otherwise best bid;

(k) except as specifically set forth herein, for the purpose of evaluating the value of the purchase price provided by each successive bid (including any successive bid by the Stalking Horse Bidder), the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, may give effect to any additional liabilities to be assumed by a Qualifying Bidder, and any additional costs which may be imposed on the Debtors;

(l) each Auction Bidder shall (i) be deemed to have waived any right to a jury trial in connection with, and consented and submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court over, any actions or proceedings arising from or relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Sale Transaction, the Auction and the construction and enforcement of the contemplated transaction documents of the Auction Bidders, (ii) be deemed to have waived any right to bring any such action or proceeding relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or the Sale Transaction in the Court, and (iii) be deemed to have consented to (a) the Court entering a final order or judgment determining in any such action or proceeding and (b) a final order or judgment in any such action or proceeding, including all appeals, being conclusive and enforceable in other jurisdictions (including any foreign jurisdictions) by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable law;

(m) throughout the Auction, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall have the continuing right to credit bid an amount equal to the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property;

(n) the Auction Bidders shall have the right to make additional modifications to the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable, in conjunction with each Qualifying Bid submitted in each round of bidding during the Auction, provided that (i) any such modifications on an aggregate basis and viewed in whole, shall not, in the Debtors' discretion, in consultation with the Consultation Party, be less favorable to the Debtors and their estates than the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement, and (ii) each Qualifying Bid shall constitute an irrevocable offer and shall be binding on the Auction Bidder submitting such bid until such Auction Bidder shall have submitted a subsequent Qualifying Bid at the Auction, unless such bid is selected as the Successful Bid, which shall remain binding as provided for herein;

(o) the Debtors and the Consultation Party shall have the right to request any additional financial information that will allow the Debtors and the Consultation Party to make a reasonable determination as to an Auction Bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable, as may be amended during the Auction, and any further information that the Debtors may believe is reasonably necessary to clarify and evaluate any bid made by an Auction Bidder during the Auction;

(p) upon the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtors shall determine, in consultation with the Consultation Party, and subject to Court approval, the offer that is the highest or otherwise best from among the Qualifying Bids submitted at the Auction (the "Successful Bid"). In making this decision, the Debtors shall consider, in consultation with the Consultation Party, the amount of the purchase price, the assumption of liabilities, the likelihood of the bidder's ability to close the proposed transaction and the timing thereof, the number, type and nature of any changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement or the applicable Alternative APA, as applicable, requested by each bidder, and the net benefit to the Debtors' estates. The bidder(s) submitting such Successful Bid at the Auction shall become the "Successful Bidder," and shall have such rights and responsibilities of the purchaser as set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable. The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, shall designate a Back-Up Bid (and the corresponding Back-Up Bidder) to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property (or any subset thereof, if applicable) in the event that the Successful Bidder does not close the sale;

(q) on August 19, 2025, the Debtors will file with the Court a notice setting forth the results of the Auction (the "Notice of Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder"), which will (a) identify the Successful Bidder and the Back-Up Bidder with respect to the Kelly Hamilton Property; (b) include a copy of the Successful Bid(s) and the Back-Up Bid(s) or a summary of the material terms of such bids; and (c) set forth the date, time, and location of the Confirmation and Sale Hearing and any other relevant dates or other information necessary to reasonably apprise parties of the outcome of the Auction;

(r) within one (1) business day of the close of the Auction, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, the Successful Bidder shall supplement the Successful Bidder's Deposit such that the Deposit shall be equal to an amount that is ten (10%) percent of the Successful Bid; and

(s) prior to the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, the Successful Bidder(s) shall complete and execute all agreements, contracts, instruments, and other documents evidencing and containing the terms and conditions upon which the Successful Bid was made.

THE SUCCESSFUL BID AND ANY BACK-UP BID AND THEIR RELATED PURCHASE AGREEMENTS SHALL CONSTITUTE AN IRREVOCABLE OFFER AND BE BINDING ON THE SUCCESSFUL BIDDER(S) AND THE BACK-UP BIDDER(S), RESPECTIVELY, FROM THE TIME THE APPLICABLE BID IS SUBMITTED UNTIL TWO (2) BUSINESS DAYS AFTER THE SALE TRANSACTION WITH RESPECT TO THE KELLY HAMILTON PROPERTY HAS CLOSED. EACH QUALIFYING BID THAT IS NOT THE SUCCESSFUL BID OR THE BACK-UP BID SHALL BE DEEMED WITHDRAWN AND TERMINATED AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE CONFIRMATION AND SALE HEARING.

12. Confirmation and Sale Hearing

The Successful Bid and any Back-Up Bid (or if no Qualifying Bid other than that of the Stalking Horse Bidder is received, then the Stalking Horse Agreement, which will be deemed to be the Successful Bid) will be subject to approval by the Court. The Confirmation and Sale Hearing to approve the Successful Bid and any Back-Up Bid (or if no Qualifying Bid other than that of the Stalking Horse Bidder is received, then the Stalking Horse Agreement) shall take place on September 4, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Confirmation and Sale Hearing may be adjourned by the Debtors from time to time without further notice to creditors or other parties in interest other than by announcement of the adjournment in open court or by filing a hearing agenda or notice on the docket of these chapter 11 cases.

At the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, the Debtors will seek entry of their forthcoming Confirmation and Sale Order that, among other things: (i) confirms the Debtors' proposed chapter 11 plan, (ii) authorizes and approves the Sale Transaction to the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or Alternative APA submitted by the Successful Bidder, as applicable, free and clear of all liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances, except certain permitted encumbrances and assumed liabilities as determined by the Debtors and any Successful Bidder; (iii) finds that the Stalking Horse Bidder or Successful Bidder, as applicable, is a good faith purchaser pursuant to section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (iv) authorizes the assumption and assignment of certain Assumed Contracts in connection with the Sale Transaction.

Any party who fails to file an objection to the Sale Transaction with the Court and serve it upon the parties specified in the Bidding Procedures Order on or before August 22, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (ET) will be forever barred from asserting, at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing or thereafter, any objection to the consummation of the applicable Sale Transaction and any related relief requested by the Debtors.

13. Back-Up Bidder

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, in the event that a Sale Transaction to the applicable Successful Bidder is terminated or fails to close by the outside date identified in the Successful Bid (or such date as may be extended by the Debtors in consultation with the Consultation Party), the applicable Back-Up Bid will be deemed to be the Successful Bid with respect to the Kelly Hamilton Property, the applicable Back-Up Bidder will be deemed to be the applicable Successful Bidder, and the Debtors shall be authorized to close the Sale Transaction for the Kelly Hamilton Property to such Back-Up Bidder on the terms of its Back-Up Bid without the need for further order of the Court and without the need for further notice to any interested parties.

14. Return of Deposits

All Deposits shall be returned to the bidders not selected by the Debtors as the Successful Bidder or Back-Up Bidder no later than five (5) business days following the closing of the Sale Transaction. The deposit of the Successful Bidder or, if the Sale Transaction is closed with the Back-Up Bidder, the deposit of the Back-Up Bidder, shall be applied to the purchase price at the closing of the Sale Transaction. If the Successful Bidder (or, if the Sale Transaction is to be closed with the Back-Up Bidder, then the Back-Up Bidder) fails to consummate the Sale Transaction because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such bidder, then, subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable, the Debtors and their estates shall be entitled to retain the Deposit of the Successful Bidder (or, if the Sale Transaction is to be closed with the Back-Up Bidder, then the Back-Up Bidder) as part of the damages to the Debtors and their estates for such breach or failure to perform. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors' retention of a Deposit shall not constitute a waiver or limitation of any of the Debtors' legal or equitable rights relating to a Successful Bidder's or Back-Up Bidder's breach or failure to perform, and all such rights and remedies are preserved.

15. No-Shop or No-Solicitation Provisions

The Bidding Procedures Order and Bidding Procedures do not limit the Debtors' ability or right to solicit higher or otherwise better bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Motion, the Bidding Procedures, and the Bidding Procedures Order call for a fair and open bidding and auction process.

16. Consultation Rights

For the avoidance of doubt, any consultation rights provided to the Consultation Party by these Bidding Procedures shall not limit the Debtors' discretion in any way and shall not include the right to veto any decision made by the Debtors in the exercise of their business judgment.

17. Sale Is As Is / Where Is

Except as may be set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, the Kelly Hamilton Property sold pursuant to the Bidding Procedures shall be conveyed at the closing in its then-present condition, "AS IS, WITH ALL FAULTS, AND WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED."

18. Reservation of Rights and Fiduciary Out

The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, reserve their rights to, and approval of the Bidding Procedures shall not in any way affect the Debtors' rights to: (i) determine whether a Bid is a Qualifying Bid; (ii) determine which Bid at the Auction is the highest or otherwise best Bid; (iii) reject any Bid that is (a) inadequate or insufficient, (b) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bidding Procedures or the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, or (c) contrary to the best interests of the Debtors and their estates; (iv) waive terms and conditions set forth herein with respect to all Bidders; (v) impose additional terms and conditions at the Auction with respect to all Bidders; (vi) extend the deadlines set forth herein (including the date, time, or location of the Auction and/or the Bid Deadline); (vii) continue or cancel the Auction by filing a notice or in open court without further notice; and (viii) modify the Bidding Procedures, if necessary, and implement additional procedural rules that the Debtors determine, in their business judgment, and after consultation with the Consultation Party, will better promote the goals of the bidding process and discharge their fiduciary duties and are not inconsistent with any Court order.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bidding Procedures, nothing in the Bidding Procedures or the Order shall require a Debtor (including the Independent Fiduciary, board of directors, board of managers, or similar governing body of a Debtor), after consulting with counsel, to take any action or to refrain from taking any action, with respect to the Bidding Procedures or otherwise related to any potential transaction, to the extent taking or failing to take such action is required to comply or would be inconsistent with applicable law or the Debtors' fiduciary obligations, if any, under applicable law.

You are receiving this Notice because you or one of your affiliates may be a party to an Assumed Contract that may be assumed and assigned in connection with the Sale Transaction.

If the Debtors assume and assign to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, an Assumed Contract to which you are a party, on the closing date of the Sale Transaction, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, will pay you the amount the Debtors' records reflect is owing to you for prepetition arrearages as set forth on Schedule A attached hereto (the "Cure Payment"). The Debtors' records reflect that all postpetition amounts owing under your Assumed Contract have been paid and will continue to be paid until the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, and that other than the Cure Payment, there are no other defaults under the Assumed Contract.

The Debtors' inclusion of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as an Assumed Contract on Schedule A is not a guarantee that such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease will ultimately be assumed and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder. Should it be determined that an Assumed Contract will not be assumed and assigned, the Debtors shall notify such party to the Assumed Contract in writing of such decision.

Under the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors may modify the list of Assumed Contracts on Schedule A until consummation of the Sale Transaction, and the Debtors reserve the right, but only in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, at any time after the closing of the Sale Transaction and before the deadline for designation of additional Assumed Contracts or removal of potentially Assumed Contracts set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement to (i) supplement the list of Assumed Contracts with previously omitted executory contracts, (ii) remove Assumed Contracts from the list of executory contracts ultimately selected as Assumed Contracts that the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, proposes be assumed and assigned to it in connection with the Sale Transaction, or (iii) modify the previously stated Cure Payment associated with any Assumed Contracts. In the event the Debtors exercise any of these reserved rights, the Debtors will promptly serve a supplemental notice of contract assumption (a "Supplemental Assumption Notice") on each of the counterparties to such contracts and their counsel of record, if any; provided, however, the Debtors may not add an executory contract to the list of Assumed Contracts that has been previously rejected by the Debtors by order of the Bankruptcy Court. Each Supplemental Assumption Notice will include the same information with respect to listed Assumed Contracts as was included in the Assumption Notice, or in the event of a removal, the information required in a Removal Notice.

Any objection to the Cure Payment or to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection and, if the objection pertains to the proposed amount of the Cure Payment, the correct cure amount alleged by the objecting counterparty, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, and (iv) be filed with the Court on or before [____, 2025 (i.e., fourteen (14) days after service) or ____, 2025 (i.e., three (3) business days after service of the Supplemental Assumption Notice)] (the "Cure Objection Deadline") and served upon, so as to be actually received by, the Objection Notice Parties (as defined herein) on or before the Cure Objection Deadline.

Any objection to the (a) Sale Transaction and (b) in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, any objection to the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of the identity of the Successful Bidder and adequate assurance of future performance of the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, (iv) be filed with the Court on or before August 22, 2025, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time (the "Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline"), and (v) be served upon, so as to be actually received by, the Objection Notice Parties (as defined herein) on or before the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline.[4]

The "Objection Notice Parties" are as follows: (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (c) any other party that has filed a notice of appearance in these chapter 11 cases.

If an objection to the Cure Payment, assumption and assignment, adequate assurance of future performance, or the Sale Transaction is timely filed and not resolved by the parties, a hearing with respect to the objection will take place in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing to be held at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on September 4, 2025, subject to the Bankruptcy Court's availability, or such other date as determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then in consultation with the Successful Bidder, in accordance with the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order. A hearing regarding the Cure Payment, if any, may be continued at the discretion of the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, until after the closing of the Sale Transaction.

Any party failing to timely file an objection to the proposed Cure Payment, the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract listed on an Assumption Notice or the Supplemental Assumption Notice, or the Sale Transaction is deemed to have consented to (a) such Cure Payment, (b) the assumption and assignment of such Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract (including the adequate assurance of future payment), (c) the related relief requested in the Motion, and (d) the Sale Transaction. Such party shall be forever barred and estopped from objecting to the Cure Payment, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, or Additional Assumed Contract, adequate assurance of future performance, the relief requested herein, whether applicable law excuses such counterparty from accepting performance by, or rendering performance to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, for purposes of section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and from asserting any additional cure or other amounts against the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, with respect to such party's Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract.

[4] For the avoidance of doubt, all objections to the Cure Payment and assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including objections to the adequate assurance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, must be filed by the applicable Cure Objection Deadline regardless of whether the Stalking Horse Bidder is the Successful Bidder.

Subject to the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, an auction (the "Auction") for the Kelly Hamilton Property, including the Assumed Contracts, will be conducted on August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) or such other date as may be determined by the Debtors (which information will be timely provided by the Debtors to the Auction Participants), at the White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020, or virtually via telephone and/or video conference.

After the Auction, the Debtors will file and serve a notice that identifies the Successful Bidder for the Kelly Hamilton Property, including any Assumed Contracts. The Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, reserve all of their rights, claims, and causes of action with respect to the contracts and agreements listed on Schedule A hereto. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the proposed assumption and assignment of each of the Assumed Contracts listed on Schedule A hereto (a) shall not be an admission as to whether any such Assumed Contract was executory or unexpired as of the Petition Date or remains executory or unexpired postpetition within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (b) shall be subject to the Debtors' or the Stalking Horse Bidder's or other Successful Bidder's, as applicable, right to conduct further confirmatory diligence with respect to the Cure Payment of each Assumed Contract and to modify such Cure Payment accordingly. In the event that the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, determine that your Cure Payment should be modified, you will receive a notice, which will provide for additional time to object to such modification.

The Debtors will seek to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts that have been selected by the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, (collectively, the "Selected Assumed Contracts") at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing.

Nothing contained herein shall obligate the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder to assume any Selected Assumed Contracts, and all rights of the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder with respect to such Selected Assumed Contracts are reserved. Moreover, the Debtors explicitly reserve their rights, in their reasonable discretion, to seek to reject or assume each Selected Assumed Contract pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and in accordance with the procedures allowing the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, to designate any Selected Assumed Contract as either rejected or assumed on a post-closing basis.

ARTICLE 6 - CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

6.1 Conditions Precedent to Bidder's Obligations. Bidder's obligation to close the Transaction is conditioned on all of the following:

(a) Accuracy of Representations and Warranties. All of the representations and warranties of Debtor contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the Closing Date with the same force and effect as if the same had been made as of the Closing Date;

(b) Legal Proceedings. No court order, injunction, legal action, suit or other legal proceeding shall be pending against Debtor as of the Closing Date (i) seeking to restrain or prohibit the purchase and sale of the Property or the consummation of the Transaction or (ii) seeking damages with respect to such purchase and sale or the consummation of the Transaction;

(c) Sale Order. The Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Sale Order no later than September 15, 2025, in a form reasonably acceptable to Debtor and Bidder and such Order shall not have been stayed, reversed, revoked, modified or vacated;

(d) HAP Approval. HUD shall have executed and delivered the Assignment and Assumption of the HAP Contract to Escrow Agent and authorized Escrow Agent to release the same upon the completion of the Closing;

(e) Debtor's Performance. Debtor shall have delivered all of the documents and other items required pursuant to Section 5.2 hereof and shall have performed all other obligations to be performed by Debtor pursuant to this Agreement prior to Closing in all material respects.

6.2 Conditions Precedent to Debtor's Obligations. Debtor's obligation to close the Transaction is conditioned on all of the following:

(a) Accuracy of Representations and Warranties. All of the representations and warranties of Bidder contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date with the same force and effect as if the same had been made as of the Closing Date;

(b) Legal Proceedings. No court order, injunction, legal action, suit or other legal proceeding shall be pending against Bidder as of the Closing Date (i) seeking to restrain or prohibit in the purchase and sale of the Property or the consummation of the Transaction, or (ii) seeking damages with respect to such purchase and sale or the consummation of the Transaction;

(c) Sale Order. The Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Sale Order no later than September 15, 2025 and such Order shall not have been stayed, reversed, revoked, modified or vacated;

(d) Title Conditions Satisfied. At Closing, the Title Company shall issue (or be irrevocably committed to issuing) the Owner's Title Policy to Bidder; and

(e) Bidder's Performance. Bidder shall have delivered all of the documents and other items required pursuant to Section 5.3 hereof and shall have performed all other obligations to be performed by Bidder pursuant to this Agreement prior to Closing.

6.3 Waiver of Failure of Conditions Precedent. At any time on or before the date specified for the satisfaction of any condition, Debtor or Bidder may elect in writing to waive the benefit of any condition precedent to its obligations hereunder other than the entry of the Sale Order. By closing the Transaction, Debtor and Bidder shall be conclusively deemed to have waived the benefit of any remaining unfulfilled conditions set forth in this Article 6, except to the extent that the same expressly survive Closing. In the event any of the conditions set forth in this Article 6 are neither waived nor fulfilled on or before the Outside Closing Date, as the same may be extended in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Party for whose benefit the applicable condition exists may terminate this Agreement and exercise such rights and remedies, if any, that such Party may have in the event such termination is the result of a default hereunder by the other Party pursuant to the terms of Article 9. If this Agreement is terminated as a result of the failure of any condition set forth in this Article 6 that is not also a default hereunder, then neither Party shall have any further rights or obligations hereunder except for the Surviving Obligations.

6.4 Execution of Assignment and Assumption of HAP Contract. The Parties shall execute and deliver the Assignment and Assumption of HAP Contract to HUD as soon as practicable following the entry of the Sale Order. The Scheduled Closing Date and the Outside Closing Date shall be subject to extension for up to ten (10) Business Days in the event that the same is delayed by reason of the failure of HUD to execute and deliver the Assignment and Assumption of HAP Contract.

ARTICLE 7 - REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

7.1 Bidder's Representations and Warranties. Bidder represents and warrants to Debtor as follows:

(a) Bidder's Authorization. Bidder is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and authorized to execute this Agreement, consummate the Transaction and fulfill all of its obligations hereunder and under all Closing Documents to be executed by Bidder. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and all Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Bidder pursuant to this Agreement and the performance by Bidder of the obligations of Bidder hereunder and under such Closing Documents have been authorized by all requisite company action of Bidder. The obligations of Bidder under this Agreement constitute and, as of the Closing Date, the obligations of Bidder under the Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Bidder pursuant to this Agreement shall constitute, the valid and binding obligations of Bidder enforceable in accordance with their respective terms. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement and Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Bidder pursuant to this Agreement nor the performance by Bidder of the obligations of Bidder hereunder under such Closing Documents will (i) result in the violation of any applicable Laws or any provision of Bidder's organizational documents, (ii) conflict with any order of any Governmental Authority binding upon Bidder, or (iii) conflict or be inconsistent with, or result in any default under, any contract, agreement or commitment by which Bidder is bound.

(b) Patriot Act Compliance. Bidder is not acting, directly or indirectly for, or on behalf of, any person, group, entity or nation named by any Executive Order (including the September 24, 2001, Executive Order Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions With Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism) or the United States Treasury Department as a terrorist, "Specially Designated National and Blocked Person," or other banned or blocked person, group, entity, or nation pursuant to any Law that is enforced or administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, and Bidder is not engaging in this Transaction, directly or indirectly, on behalf of, or instigating or facilitating this Transaction, directly or indirectly, on behalf of, any such person, group, entity or nation. Bidder is not engaging in this Transaction, directly or indirectly, in violation of any Laws relating to drug trafficking, money laundering or predicate crimes to money laundering. None of the funds of Bidder have been or will be derived from any unlawful activity with the result that the investment of direct or indirect equity owners in Bidder is prohibited by Law or that the Transaction or this Agreement is or will be in violation of Law. Bidder has and will continue to implement procedures, and has consistently and will continue to consistently apply those procedures, to ensure the foregoing representations and warranties remain true and correct at all times prior to Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Bidder's representations and warranties under this Section 7.1(b) apply to any person or entity which owns, has owned, or may hereafter own any publicly traded stock or other publicly traded securities of (i) Bidder (if any), or (ii) any Person which directly or indirectly owns an interest in Bidder.

7.2 Debtor's Representations and Warranties. Debtor represents and warrants to Bidder as follows:

(a) Debtor's Authorization. Debtor is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Delaware and qualified to do business under the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and authorized to execute this Agreement and, subject to the entry of the Sale Order, consummate the Transaction and fulfill all of its obligations hereunder and under all Closing Documents to be executed by Debtor in connection herewith. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and all Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Debtor pursuant to this Agreement and the performance by Debtor of the obligations of Debtor hereunder under such Closing Documents have been authorized by all requisite company action of Debtor. The obligations of Debtor under this Agreement constitute and, as of the Closing Date, the obligations of Debtor under the Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Debtor pursuant to this Agreement shall constitute, the valid and binding obligations of Debtor enforceable in accordance with their respective terms, subject to entry of the Sale Order. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, but subject to entry of the Sale Order, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement and Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Debtor pursuant to this Agreement nor the performance by Debtor of the obligations of Debtor hereunder or under such Closing Documents will (i) result in the violation of any applicable Laws or any provision of Debtor's organizational documents, (ii) conflict with any order of any Governmental Authority binding upon Debtor, or (iii) conflict or be inconsistent with, or result in any default under, any contract, agreement or commitment by which Debtor is bound.

(b) Patriot Act Compliance. Debtor is not acting, directly or indirectly for, or on behalf of, any person, group, entity or nation named by any Executive Order (including the September 24, 2001, Executive Order Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions With Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism) or the United States Treasury Department as a terrorist, "Specially Designated National and Blocked Person," or other banned or blocked person, group, entity, or nation pursuant to any Law that is enforced or administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control and Debtor is not engaging in this Transaction, directly or indirectly, on behalf of, or instigating or facilitating this Transaction, directly or indirectly, on behalf of, any such person, group, entity or nation. Debtor is not engaging in this Transaction, directly or indirectly, in violation of any Laws relating to drug trafficking, money laundering or predicate crimes to money laundering. None of the funds of Debtor have been or will be derived from any unlawful activity with the result that the investment of direct or indirect equity owners in Debtor is prohibited by Law or that the Transaction or this Agreement is or will be in violation of Law. Debtor has and will continue to implement procedures, and has consistently and will continue to consistently apply those procedures, to ensure the foregoing representations and warranties remain true and correct at all times prior to Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Debtor's representations and warranties under this Section 7.2(b) apply to any person or entity which owns, has owned, or may hereafter own any publicly traded stock or other publicly traded securities of (a) Debtor (if any), or (b) any entity which directly or indirectly owns an interest in Debtor.

7.2.2 Personal Property. Except for the liens and security interests created in favor of the DIP Lender under the DIP Facility Documents and as provided in the Sale Order, the Personal Property to be transferred to Bidder is free and clear of liens, security interests and other encumbrances.

7.2.3 Rents. Except for the assignments of the interest of Debtor in the Leases and Rents to the DIP Lender pursuant to the DIP Facility Documents, Debtor has not assigned, transferred or hypothecated its interest in the Leases and Rents.

7.2.4 Third-Party Rights. Debtor has not entered into any agreements currently in effect pursuant to which Debtor has granted any Person any option to purchase, right of first refusal to purchase, right of first option to purchase or other preferential right to purchase all or any part of the Property.

7.2.5 Litigation. Except for the Bankruptcy Proceedings and those matters listed in Exhibit K attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof, there is not currently or threatened in writing any pending action, claim, suit, litigation or other proceeding to which Debtor is a party or which otherwise relates to the Property (including, without limitation, any condemnation proceedings).

7.2.6 Contracts. As of the Execution Date, Debtor has not entered into or assumed any leases or other executory contracts affecting the Property which will be binding upon Bidder after the Closing other than Scheduled Contracts.

Debtor's representations and warranties in this Section 7.2 shall survive the Closing for a period of three (3) months and not be merged therein.

ARTICLE 8 - COVENANTS

8.1 Compliance with DIP Facility Documents. Debtor shall at all times comply with the requirements of the DIP Facility Documents until Closing and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the rights or obligations of the Parties under the DIP Facility Documents prior to Closing.

8.2 Compliance with Requirements of Orders. Debtor shall comply with the requirements of all Orders.

ARTICLE 9 - DEFAULTS

9.1 DEBTOR'S REMEDIES FOR BIDDER DEFAULTS. IF THE SALE OF THE PROPERTY IS NOT CONSUMMATED DUE TO ANY DEFAULT BY BIDDER HEREUNDER, THEN DEBTOR SHALL BE ENTITLED, AS ITS SOLE REMEDY TO TERMINATE THIS AGREEMENT BY DELIVERY OF WRITTEN NOTICE TO BIDDER, WHEREUPON NEITHER PARTY HERETO SHALL HAVE ANY FURTHER OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY TO THE OTHER HEREUNDER EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO SURVIVING OBLIGATIONS.

9.2 BIDDER'S REMEDIES FOR DEBTOR DEFAULTS. IF THE SALE OF THE PROPERTY IS NOT CONSUMMATED DUE TO DEBTOR'S DEFAULT HEREUNDER, BIDDER SHALL BE ENTITLED, AS ITS SOLE REMEDY, TO (A) TERMINATE THIS AGREEMENT BY DELIVERY OF WRITTEN NOTICE TO DEBTOR, WHEREUPON NEITHER PARTY HERETO SHALL HAVE ANY FURTHER OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY TO THE OTHER EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO SURVIVING OBLIGATIONS OR (B) ENFORCE THIS AGREEMENT BY SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE PROVIDED ANY SUCH PROCEEDING IS COMMENCED WITHIN FORTY-FIVE (45) DAYS AFTER THE DEBTOR DEFAULT OCCURS GIVING RIGHT TO SUCH ENFORCEMENT.

ARTICLE 10 - CASUALTY/CONDEMNATION

10.1 Right to Terminate. If, after the Execution Date, (a) any portion of the Property is taken by condemnation or eminent domain (or is the subject of a pending taking), or (b) any portion of the Property is damaged or destroyed (excluding routine wear and tear and damage caused by any of Bidder's Representatives), Debtor shall notify Bidder in writing of such fact promptly after obtaining knowledge thereof. If the Property is the subject of a Major Casualty/Condemnation that occurs after the Execution Date, Bidder shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to Debtor no later than ten (10) Business Days after the giving of Debtor's notice, and the Closing Date shall be extended, if necessary, to provide sufficient time for Bidder to make such election. The failure by Bidder to terminate this Agreement within such ten (10) Business Day period shall be deemed an election by Bidder not to terminate this Agreement.

10.2 Allocation of Proceeds and Awards. If a condemnation or casualty occurs after the Execution Date and this Agreement is not terminated as permitted pursuant to the terms of Section 10.1 hereof, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Bidder shall acquire the Property or, if applicable, the remainder thereof, upon the terms and conditions set forth herein. Any Casualty/Condemnation Proceeds shall be allocated between Bidder and Debtor as follows in respect of a Closing hereunder:

(a) Debtor shall be entitled to be reimbursed from the Casualty/Condemnation Proceeds for proceeds of any rental loss, business interruption or similar insurance, or other compensation for loss of use or income, that are allocable to the period prior to the Closing Date, such sums to be applied in accordance with the requirements of the DIP Facility Documents; and

(b) Bidder shall be entitled to the balance of the Casualty/Condemnation Proceeds.

ARTICLE 11 - MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Brokers. Each of the Parties hereby warrants and represents to the other that it did not employ or use any broker or finder to arrange or bring about this transaction. If any Person brings a claim for a commission or finder's fee based upon any contact, dealings, or communication with either Party in connection with the Transaction, then the Party allegedly authorizing such commission or fee shall defend the other Party and hold the other Party harmless from any and all costs, damages, claims, liabilities, or expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements) incurred by the other Party with respect to the claim. The provisions of this Section 11.1 shall survive the Closing or, if the purchase and sale is not consummated, any termination of this Agreement.

11.2 Survival/Merger. Except for the provisions of this Agreement which are explicitly stated to survive the Closing, (a) none of the terms of this Agreement shall survive the Closing, and (b) the delivery of the Purchase Price, the Deed and the other Closing Documents and the acceptance thereof shall effect a merger, and be deemed the full performance and discharge of every obligation on the part of Bidder and Debtor to be performed hereunder.

11.3 Integration; Waiver. This Agreement and the Sale Order embody and constitute the entire understanding between the Parties with respect to the Transaction and all prior agreements, understandings, representations and statements, oral or written, are merged into this Agreement. Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, modified, amended, discharged or terminated except by an instrument signed by the Party against whom the enforcement of such waiver, modification, amendment, discharge or termination is sought, and then only to the extent set forth in such instrument. No waiver by either Party hereto of any failure or refusal by the other Party to comply with its obligations hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of any other or subsequent failure or refusal to so comply.

11.4 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, without application of its choice of laws.

11.5 Captions Not Binding; Exhibits. The captions in this Agreement are inserted for reference only and in no way limit the scope or intent of this Agreement or of any of the provisions hereof. All Exhibits attached hereto shall be incorporated by reference as if set out herein in full.

11.6 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

11.7 Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any persons or circumstances shall, to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby, and each term and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Instead, Bidder is executing this Agreement on behalf of a special purpose entity controlled by Bidder or under common control with Bidder which Bidder shall designate to acquire the Property at least three days prior to the Auction (as defined in the Bidding Procedures Order). DECLARATION OF MATTHEW DUNDON, PRINCIPAL OF ISLANDDUNDON LLC, IN SUPPORT OF DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER (I) APPROVING (A) BIDDING PROCEDURES, THE SALE TIMELINE, AND THE FORM AND MANNER OF NOTICE THEREOF FOR THE KELLY HAMILTON PROPERTY, (B) THE DEBTORS' ENTRY INTO AND PERFORMANCE UNDER THE STALKING HORSE AGREEMENT, (C) BID PROTECTIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE STALKING HORSE AGREEMENT, AND (D) ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT PROCEDURES, AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

I, Matthew Dundon, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, hereby declare that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief:

1. I am a Principal of Dundon Advisers LLC ("Dundon") and its real estate restructuring affiliate IslandDundon LLC ("IslandDundon"), the proposed financial advisor for the above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, the "Debtors").

2. Based on my work with the Debtors, my review of relevant documents, and my discussions with members of the Debtors' management team and other professionals, including the Independent Fiduciary,[2] I am familiar with the Debtors' day-to-day operations and business affairs. I submit this declaration (this "Declaration") in support of the Debtors Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Approving (A) Bidding Procedures, the Sale Timeline, and the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof for the Kelly Hamilton Property, (B) the Debtors' Entry into and Performance Under the Stalking Horse Agreement, (C) Bid Protections in Connection with the Stalking Horse Agreement, and (D) Assumption and Assignment Procedures, and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 281] (the "Bidding Procedures Motion").

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Bidding Procedures and Bidding Procedures Motion (as defined herein).

3. Except as otherwise indicated herein, all facts set forth in this Declaration are based upon: (a) my personal knowledge of the Debtors' operations and finances; (b) information learned from my review of relevant documents; (c) information supplied to me by the Debtors' professional advisors; or (d) my opinion based on my experience, knowledge, and information concerning the Debtors' operations and financial condition. I previously submitted the Declaration of Matthew Dundon in Support of the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Postpetition Financing, (II) Granting Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (IV) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 156] (the "DIP Declaration"), which provides additional information regarding the Debtors' efforts to secure debtor in possession financing and is incorporated herein by reference.

4. I am over the age of 18 and authorized to submit this Declaration on behalf of the Debtors. I am not being compensated for this testimony other than through payments received by IslandDundon as a professional engaged by the Debtors; none of those payments are specifically payable on account of this testimony. If called upon to testify, I could and would testify competently to the statements set forth in this Declaration, as the information in this Declaration is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

I. Background and Qualifications

5. I have been a principal of Dundon since 2016 and of IslandDundon and its predecessor joint venture vehicles with Island Capital Group LLC ("Island") since 2019. Dundon provides financial restructuring and asset management advice and places loans and other non-securities financings on the primary and secondary markets. Island invests in real estate transactions and holds interests in real estate services concerns. I previously worked as a credit hedge fund portfolio manager (2010 to 2016), an institutional brokerage fixed income analyst and head of research (2003 to 2010), and a securities and leveraged finance attorney (1998 to 2003).

6. I received a Juris Doctor from the University of Chicago Law School and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of California at Berkeley. My testimony and declarations in relation to complex chapter 11 matters are regularly accepted by bankruptcy courts in this and many other districts.

II. Events Leading to the Stalking Horse Agreement and Marketing Process

7. In May 2025, the Debtors retained IslandDundon as their financial advisor and investment banker. Among other things, the Debtors have tasked IslandDundon with advising the Debtors in connection with one or more postpetition transaction(s) concerning the Kelly Hamilton Property with the goal of maximizing its value for the Debtors' stakeholders.

8. As the first step in that process, the Debtors, with IslandDundon's assistance, secured a debtor-in-possession loan facility (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan") from the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender. See Kelly Hamilton DIP Order [Docket No. 178].

9. Next, as required by the terms of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan, the Debtors, with IslandDundon's assistance, negotiated with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender to become the "stalking horse" bidder for the Kelly Hamilton Property.

10. These negotiations culminated in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender's presentation of proposed transaction terms. The Debtors, with the assistance of IslandDundon and the Debtors' legal counsel, evaluated (a) the amount of consideration provided; (b) the structure of the proposed plan transactions; (c) the requested bid protections and any possible impact on the upcoming auction; (d) the risk that Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender might be unable to consummate the purchase; and (e) the potential consequences of refusing the proposal, including but not limited to being required to repay the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan with cash. On the basis of this evaluation, the Debtors determined that acceptance of the terms proposed by the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender was in the best interests of the estates and therefore authorized the drafting, execution and delivery of definitive documentation embodying the accepted terms.

11. On July 11, 2025, the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender entered into a purchase and sale agreement whereby the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender agreed to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property for a purchase price equal to the balance of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loans (the "Stalking Horse Agreement"). The Stalking Horse Agreement includes procedures that treat the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender's purchase commitment as a "stalking horse" bid, i.e., subject to a continued marketing process by the Debtors and to being supplanted, albeit with the benefit of a compensatory fee for capital commitment and reimbursement of expenses, by a third party's higher and better bid, should one emerge from such continued marketing process.

12. Recognizing the likely need for a sales process for the Kelly Hamilton Property that includes potential buyers other than the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, the Debtors have, with the assistance of IslandDundon and their other advisors, been developing such a sales process since before the petition date of these chapter 11 cases. To date, IslandDundon has identified 37 parties that in its experience may be interested in purchasing and/or financing the purchase of the Kelly Hamilton Property. These include both "strategic" buyers (i.e., operators of other multifamily affordable housing projects) and "financial" buyers (i.e., managers of real estate investment funds and other institutional investors). In my experience, publicity for the Court's approval of the Bidding Procedures, should the Court see fit to approve them, is likely to catalyze expressions of interest from one or more strategic and/or financial buyers in addition to those 37 prospects. The Debtors intend to distribute a non-confidential marketing overview (a "teaser" in industry parlance) to IslandDundon-identified or self-identified potentially interested parties as soon as practicable after approval of the Bidding Procedures, and will provide extensive additional material to the subset of potential purchasers who agree to execute and deliver confidentiality agreements with the Debtors. Moreover, the Debtors and IslandDundon will continue to conduct discussions with any party that complies with the requirements of the Bidding Procedures.

13. I believe that the proposed Bidding Procedures, taken together with the Stalking Horse Agreement serving as a baseline for the Debtors' marketing and sale process, will enable the Debtors to achieve the greatest possible level of interest and consideration for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Further, I believe that the proposed Bidding Procedures and the Debtors' proposed Sale Timeline provide sufficient time and flexibility to conduct a robust marketing and sale process that will allow the Debtors to confirm whether the Stalking Horse Bid represents the highest and otherwise best offer for the Kelly Hamilton Property.

III. Terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement Generally

14. The Stalking Horse Agreement provides for the purchase of the Kelly Hamilton Property by the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender for the aggregate purchase consideration of (i) a credit bid in the amount equal to the sum of the balance of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan[3] and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, (ii) assumption of the Assumed Liabilities as of the Closing Date, (iii) payment of the Cure Payment, and (iv) to the extent that any sums shall be required to pay the obligations of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender as described in clause (ii) above or to pay closing costs for which the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender is responsible hereunder, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender shall also deliver such a cash payment to the Escrow Agent as may be required for purposes of paying such sums (collectively, the "Stalking Horse Bid"). In the event that a third party submits a bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property which the Debtors determine to be higher and better than the Stalking Horse Bid (a "Topping Bid"), the Stalking Horse Agreement permits, but does not require, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender to increase its bid to an amount higher and better than the Topping Bid.

15. The negotiation of the stalking horse bidder exclusivity provisions of the Kelly Hamiton DIP Loan and the subsequent negotiation of the Stalking Horse Agreement were each led for the Debtors by the Debtors' Independent Fiduciary Elizabeth LaPuma, who was closely assisted by her advisors, including me and my senior colleagues at IslandDundon. Based on my involvement in the negotiations, I believe that those stalking horse bidder exclusivity provisions and the Stalking Horse Agreement were each negotiated in good faith and at arm's-length.

IV. Bidding Procedures and the Bid Protection

16. Critical to my view that this Court's approving the Stalking Horse Agreement will maximize the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property to the Debtors' stakeholders is the fact that the Bidding Procedures placed into effect by such approval subjects the Stalking Horse Bid to an open and transparent auction and sale process led by the Debtors, with the assistance of IslandDundon and the Debtors' other advisors. The purchase consideration provided by the Stalking Horse Bid will therefore be market-tested to ensure the highest and otherwise best offer is received for the Kelly Hamilton Property.

17. The customary fee provision the Stalking Horse Agreement provides to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender in the event a Topping Bid is successful (the "Bid Protection") is in my view necessary and appropriate, and was negotiated by the Debtors to minimize any appearance or reality of "chilling" competing bids.

18. The Bid Protection would, if approved by the Court, fairly compensate the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender for the time, effort, expense, and risk that it incurred in negotiating, documenting, and seeking to consummate the Sale Transaction. The Bid Protection would provide the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender a break-up fee in the amount of $250,000, which shall only be payable in the event that a Topping Bid succeeds, and would only be payable on the Effective Date or the closing of the Sale Transaction from the cash proceeds of the transaction, as applicable.

19. From my experience in bankruptcy sales, I believe that in the absence of bid protections such as the Bid Protection, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, like most proposed stalking horse purchasers in bankruptcy sales, would not have accepted the commitment to purchase without the corresponding obligation to sell, provided by the Stalking Horse Agreement.

20. Here, I believe that the terms of the Bid Protection are customary and usual under the circumstances and adequately compensate the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender for its time, effort, and resources in connection with its diligence of the Kelly Hamilton Property and entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement. I believe that the specific amount of the Bid Protection is well within the range – in fact fall close to the bottom of the range – of breakup compensation with which I am familiar in bankruptcy sales processes for assets such as the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Bid Protection was the result of the Debtors' good-faith, arm's-length negotiations with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender.

21. In sum, I believe approval of the Bid Protection will help to preserve value for the Debtors' estates in connection with the marketing and sale process for the Kelly Hamilton Property.

V. The Sale Timeline

22. The Debtors, with IslandDundon's assistance, carefully designed the sale process required by the Bidding Procedures, including the sale timeline embedded therein (the "Sale Timeline"). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, I believe the Sale Timeline provides potentially interested parties with sufficient time to perform due diligence and acquire the information necessary to submit a timely and well-informed bid. The sufficiency of the Sale Timeline is due in part to the previously-noted commencement of the sales process's development several months ago, beginning before commencement of these chapter 11 cases. From my extensive experience in bankruptcy sales processes, I believe approval of the Bidding Procedures will allow the Debtors to conduct their marketing and sale process in a controlled, fair, and open fashion that will encourage participation by financially capable bidders who can demonstrate the ability to close a transaction.

23. Based on the foregoing, I believe the Sale Timeline provides sufficient time and flexibility to conduct a competitive and robust postpetition auction and sale process for the Kelly Hamilton Property.

VI. Conclusion

24. In conclusion, I believe that approval of the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Bidding Procedures, Bid Protection, and Sale Timeline is necessary and appropriate to maximize the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property to the Debtors' stakeholders.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

the District of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on September 18, 2012 (Simandle, C.J.) and consideration of the Motion and the relief requested therein being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"); and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor:

THE COURT HEREBY MAKES THE FOLLOWING FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:[5]

A. Confirmation and Sale Notice. The confirmation and sale notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2 (the "Confirmation and Sale Notice"), is appropriate and reasonably calculated to provide all interested parties with timely and proper notice (i) of this Bidding Procedures Order, (ii) of the Bidding Procedures, (iii) of the Auction, (iv) of the Sale

[5] The findings, determinations, and conclusions set forth herein constitute this Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

Transaction, (v) of the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, (vi) of any and all objection deadlines related thereto, and (vii) that the Sale Transaction shall be free and clear of liens, claims, interests, and other encumbrances, with all such liens, claims interests, and other encumbrances attaching with the same validity and priority to the proceeds of the Sale Transaction, and, in each case, no other or further notice is required of the foregoing. Such notice is sufficient to cause all interested parties, including all holders of liens, claims, interests, and other encumbrances, whether holders of such liens, claims, interests, or other encumbrances are known or unknown, to be on notice that the proposed Sale Transaction shall be free and clear of such liens, claims, interests, or other encumbrances with respect to the Debtors, their assets, and their estates.

B. Bidding Procedures. The Debtors have articulated good and sufficient business reasons for the Court to approve the Bidding Procedures. The Bidding Procedures are: (i) fair, reasonable, and appropriate; and (ii) reasonably designed to maximize recovery with respect to the Sale Transaction. The Bidding Procedures were negotiated in good faith and at arm's length and are reasonably designed to promote a competitive and robust bidding process to generate substantial interest in, and better value for, the Kelly Hamilton Property.

C. Stalking Horse Agreement. The process for selecting the Stalking Horse Bidder was fair and appropriate under the circumstances. The Stalking Horse Agreement represents the highest or otherwise best offer the Debtors have received to date to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Stalking Horse Agreement provides the Debtors with the opportunity to sell the Kelly Hamilton Property in a manner designed to preserve and maximize the property's value and provides a floor for a further marketing and auction process. Without the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Debtors are at significant risk of realizing a lower price for the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall act as a "stalking horse purchaser" pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement and shall be subject to higher or otherwise better offers in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement and the Bidding Procedures. Pursuit of the Stalking Horse Bidder as a "stalking horse bidder" and the Stalking Horse Agreement as a "stalking horse purchase agreement" reflects a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment.

D. Bid Protection. The Bid Protection is reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances and on the terms set forth in the Bidding Procedures, including in light of the time, cost, and resources expended by the Stalking Horse Bidder and the commitments that will be made by the Stalking Horse Bidder. The Bid Protection is an actual and necessary cost and expense of preserving the Debtors' assets within the meaning of section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall be treated as an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim against the Debtors' estates pursuant to sections 105(a), 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code with priority over all other administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, provided that such superpriority administrative expense claim shall be junior to any obligations incurred under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, any superpriority claim granted under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order[6] (whether as adequate protection or otherwise), and any claims senior to the obligations incurred pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any "Carve Out" or similar provision granted pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order). The Bid Protection was a material inducement for, and a condition of, the Stalking Horse Bidder's entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Stalking Horse Bidder is unwilling to enter into the Stalking Horse Agreement unless the Stalking Horse Bidder is assured the Bid Protection pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement.

E. Auction. The Auction, if held, is necessary to determine whether any entity other than the Stalking Horse Bidder is willing to enter into a definitive agreement on terms and conditions more favorable to the Debtors and their estates than the Stalking Horse Agreement.

F. Assumption and Assignment Procedures. The notice of the Debtors' potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3 (the "Assumption Notice"), is reasonably calculated to provide counterparties to the Assumed Contracts with proper notice of the intended assumption and assignment of their Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, any Cure Payment and the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

[6] As used herein, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order refers to the Final Order (I) Authorizing the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties to Obtain Senior Secured Priming Superpriority Postpetition Financing, (II) Granting Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (IV) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 178].

4. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, may extend the deadlines set forth in Bidding Procedures Order or the Bidding Procedures, with notice of such extension being filed with the Court.

5. No party may object to the right of the Stalking Horse Bidder to credit bid the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim.

6. The Bidding Procedures attached hereto as Exhibit 1 are hereby approved. The failure to specifically include or reference any particular provision of the Bidding Procedures in the Motion or this Bidding Procedures Order shall not diminish or otherwise impair the effectiveness of such procedures, it being this Court's intent that the Bidding Procedures are approved in their entirety, as if fully set forth in this Bidding Procedures Order. The Debtors are hereby authorized to conduct the Auction, if applicable, pursuant to the terms of the Bidding Procedures and this Bidding Procedures Order.

7. Pursuant to the provisions in the Bidding Procedures, the Debtors shall have the right, in their reasonable discretion, to withhold or limit access to any due diligence information that the Debtors determine is business-sensitive or otherwise not appropriate for disclosure to any potential Bidder. Notwithstanding any prepetition limitations, including, without limitation, any non-disclosure, confidentiality, or similar provisions relating to any due diligence information, the Debtors and their estates shall be authorized to provide due diligence information to Potential Bidders, provided that such potential Bidders have delivered an executed confidentiality agreement in form and substance acceptable to the Debtors. The Debtors and their estates are not responsible for, and shall have no liability with respect to, any information obtained by, or provided to, any potential Bidders in connection with the Bidding Procedures or the Sale Transaction, provided that the information was provided in accordance with this Bidding Procedures Order.

8. For all purposes under the Bidding Procedures: (a) the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be considered a Qualifying Bidder, and the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be considered a Qualifying Bid; (b) the Stalking Horse Bidder is, and will be deemed to be, a Qualifying Bidder for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures, without regard to any of the requirements or conditions set forth herein or the Bidding Procedures and without any other or further action by the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (c) in determining whether any potential Bidders constitute Qualifying Bidders, the Debtors may consider a combination of bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. In the event the Debtors receive a Qualifying Bid other than the Stalking Horse Bid, the Stalking Horse Bid shall be the Successful Bid so long as the Stalking Horse Bid is equal to an amount not less than the highest other Qualifying Bid, if any.

9. The Debtors are authorized to enter into and perform all of their respective pre-closing obligations under the Stalking Horse Agreement; provided that for the avoidance of doubt, approval and consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be subject to the terms and conditions detailed herein and the entry of the Confirmation and Sale Order and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to closing on the terms set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Stalking Horse Agreement and any related agreements, documents, or other instruments may be modified, amended or supplemented by the parties thereto, solely in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court.

10. The Bid Protection is approved in the amount $250,000 and shall be paid to the Stalking Horse Bidder pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 2.1(b) of the Stalking Horse Agreement and other relevant provisions thereof. The Debtors are authorized to incur and pay the Bid Protection without further action or order by the Court. The Bid Protection, to the extent payable under the Stalking Horse Agreement, shall constitute an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim against the Debtors' estates pursuant to sections 105(a), 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code with priority over all other administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, provided that such superpriority administrative expense claim shall be junior to any obligations incurred under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, any superpriority claim granted under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order (whether as adequate protection or otherwise), and any claims senior to the obligations incurred pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any "Carve Out" or similar provision granted pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order). If the Bid Protection becomes payable pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement, such payment shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Stalking Horse Bidder against the Debtors with respect to the Stalking Horse Bid. The Bid Protection shall not be subject to any avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether contractual, equitable, or otherwise), counterclaims, cross-claims, defenses, disallowance, impairment, or any other challenges under any applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

11. Pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be permitted to credit bid the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim.

12. The Bidding Procedures shall apply to any Bidder, the Qualifying Bidders, the submission, receipt, and analysis of all Bids relating to the Sale Transaction, and the conduct of the Sale Transaction and the Auction (if any). The Debtors and their professionals shall direct and preside over the Auction (if any), and the Auction shall be transcribed and shall be conducted openly in person, virtually via telephone, and/or video conference.

Caption of Order: ORDER (I) APPROVING (A) BIDDING PROCEDURES, THE SALE TIMELINE, AND THE FORM AND MANNER OF NOTICE THEREOF FOR THE KELLY HAMILTON PROPERTY, (B) THE DEBTORS' ENTRY INTO AND PERFORMANCE UNDER THE STALKING HORSE AGREEMENT, (C) BID PROTECTIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE STALKING HORSE AGREEMENT, AND (D) ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT PROCEDURES, AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

13. The Debtors' decision to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, is subject to this Court's approval and the closing of the Sale Transaction. Accordingly, absent this Court's approval and the closing of the Sale Transaction, the Assumed Contracts shall not be deemed assumed or assumed and assigned, and shall in all respects be subject to further administration by the Debtors and their estates under the Bankruptcy Code in connection with these chapter 11 cases.

14. The procedures set forth below regarding the assumption and assignment of the Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases proposed to be assumed by the Debtors pursuant to section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder pursuant to section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code in connection with the Sale Transaction (the "Assumption and Assignment Procedures") are hereby approved to the extent set forth herein.

15. These Assumption and Assignment Procedures shall govern the assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract, subject to the payment of any amounts necessary to cure any defaults arising under any Assumed Contract (the "Cure Payments"):

a) Assumption Notice. No later than three (3) business days following the entry of this Bidding Procedures Order (the "Assumption and Assignment Service Deadline"), the Debtors shall serve the Assumption Notice via first-class mail on all counterparties to all potential Assumed Contracts and provide a copy of the same to the

Stalking Horse Bidder, which copy may be provided via email. The Assumption Notice shall inform each recipient of the timing and procedures relating to the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder upon Court approval of the Sale Transaction, and, to the extent applicable, (i) the Debtors' good-faith estimates of the Cure Payment (if any) required in connection with the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, (ii) whether the potential Assumed Contract is then anticipated to be assumed and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder in connection with the Stalking Horse Agreement; (iii) the deadline to object to the proposed Cure Payments; and (iv) the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline; provided, however, that service of an Assumption Notice does not constitute an admission that any contract is an executory contract or that the stated Cure Payment related to any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease constitutes a claim against the Debtors or a right against the Stalking Horse Bidder (all rights with respect thereto being expressly reserved). Further, the inclusion of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, on the Assumption Notice is not a guarantee that such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, will or will not ultimately be assumed and assigned. For the avoidance of doubt, the inclusion of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease in the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice (as defined below), or any amendment thereto does not constitute a designation by the Stalking Horse Bidder of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease for assumption and assignment under the Stalking Horse Agreement, and the Stalking Horse Bidder will not be deemed to assume or be responsible for any Cure Payment or other liability with respect to such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease unless and until the Court enters an order approving the Sale Transaction to the Stalking Horse Agreement, in which case any such assumption of liabilities shall be (i) only with respect to any Assumed Contracts and (ii) as of the closing date.

b) Cure Payments and Adequate Assurance of Future Performance. The payment of the applicable Cure Payments by the Stalking Horse

Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, shall (i) effect a cure of all defaults existing thereunder and (ii) compensate for any actual pecuniary loss to such counterparty resulting from such default.

c) Additions. The Debtors may also designate additional Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases as agreements to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder (the "Additional Assumed Contracts") until consummation of the Sale Transaction. Following the addition of an Additional Assumed Contract, the Debtors shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter serve an Assumption Notice on each of the counterparties to such Additional Assumed Contracts and their counsel of record, if any, indicating (i) that the Debtors intend to assume and assign the counterparty's Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, and (ii) the corresponding Cure Payment.

d) Eliminations. The Debtors may remove any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder (the "Eliminated Agreements") until consummation of the Sale Transaction. Following the removal of an Eliminated Agreement, the Debtors shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter serve a notice (a "Removal Notice") on each of the impacted counterparties and their counsel of record, if any, indicating that the Debtors no longer intend to assign the counterparty's contract or unexpired lease, as applicable, to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder in connection with the Sale Transaction. For the avoidance of doubt, the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder will not assume any Cure Payment or other liability with respect to any Eliminated Agreement, notwithstanding such agreement's inclusion in the Assumption Notice or any Supplemental Assumption Notice.

e) Supplemental Contract Assumption Notice. Although the Debtors intend to make a good-faith effort to identify all Assumed Contracts that may be assumed and assigned in connection with the Sale Transaction, the Debtors may discover certain Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases inadvertently omitted from the Assumed Contracts list or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder may identify other Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that it desires to assume and assign in connection with the Sale Transaction. Accordingly, the Debtors reserve the right, but only in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, at any time before the closing of the Sale Transaction to (i) supplement the list of Assumed Contracts with previously omitted Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, (ii) remove Assumed Contracts from the list of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases ultimately selected as Assumed Contracts that the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder proposes be assumed and assigned to it in connection with the Sale Transaction, or (iii) modify the previously stated Cure Payment associated with any Assumed Contract. In the event the Debtors exercise any of these reserved rights, the Debtors will promptly serve a supplemental notice of contract assumption (a "Supplemental Assumption Notice") on each of the counterparties to such contracts and their counsel of record, if any; provided that the Debtors may not add an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to the list of Assumed Contracts that has been previously rejected by the Debtors by order of the Court. Each Supplemental Assumption Notice will include the same information with respect to listed Assumed Contracts as was included in the Assumption Notice, or in the event of a removal, the information required in a Removal Notice.

f) Objections.[8] Objections, if any, to the Cure Payment or proposed assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the

[8] Any objection that includes confidential, non-public Adequate Assurance Information (as defined herein) must be filed under seal unless disclosure of such confidential, non-public information is authorized by the Debtors and the applicable assignee(s). The unredacted versions of such objections shall be served upon the Debtors, the Consultation Party, and the U.S. Trustee; provided further that all rights of all parties in interest in these chapter

Stalking Horse Bidder, must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection and, if the objection pertains to the proposed amount of the Cure Payment, the correct cure amount alleged by the objecting counterparty, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, and (iv) be filed with the Court and served upon, so as to be actually received by (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (c) any other party that has filed a notice of appearance in these chapter 11 cases, so as to be actually received on or before fourteen (14) days after service (or as reflected by the postmarked date) of the Assumption Notice or three (3) business days after service of the Supplemental Assumption Notice (such date, as applicable, the "Cure Objection Deadline"). In the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, the deadline to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of (x) the identity of the Successful Bidder and (y) adequate assurance of future performance of the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), is the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline (as defined below).[9]

16. The Assumption Notice is: (a) reasonably calculated to (i) provide sufficient, effective notice to all counterparties and any other affected parties of the Debtors' intent to assume and assign to the Stalking Horse Bidder—or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder—some or all of the Assumed Contracts, and (ii) afford the counterparties the opportunity to exercise any rights affected by the Motion and the relief granted by this Bidding Procedures Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(2), 6004 and 6006; and (b) hereby approved.

11 cases are reserved to oppose the filing under seal of any such information and to seek any other relief from this Court with respect to such matter.

[9] For the avoidance of doubt, all objections to the Cure Payment and assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including objections to the adequate assurance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, must be filed by the applicable Cure Objection Deadline regardless of whether the Stalking Horse Bidder is the Successful Bidder.

17. Any party failing to timely file an objection to the proposed Cure Payment, the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract listed on an Assumption Notice or Supplemental Assumption Notice, or the Sale Transaction is deemed to have consented to (a) such Cure Payment, (b) the assumption and assignment of such Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract (including the adequate assurance of future payment), (c) the related relief requested in the Motion, and (d) the Sale Transaction. Such party shall be forever barred and estopped from objecting to the Cure Payment, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, or Additional Assumed Contract, adequate assurance of future performance, the relief requested in the Motion, whether applicable law excuses such counterparty from accepting performance by, or rendering performance to, the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, for purposes of section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and from asserting any additional cure or other amounts against the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then the Successful Bidder, as applicable, with respect to such party's Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract.

18. The Debtors shall have no liability or obligation with respect to defaults relating to the Assumed Contracts arising, accruing, or relating to the period from and after the effective date of assignment.

19. The Confirmation and Sale Notice, the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice, the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, and the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and the objection periods associated with each of the foregoing are reasonably calculated to provide notice to any affected party and afford the affected party the opportunity to exercise any rights affected by the Motion as it relates to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, the Sale Transaction, the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and the assumption and assignment to the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, of the Assumed Contracts pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(2), 6004 and 6006, and such notice and objection periods are hereby approved.

20. The Confirmation and Sale Notice is approved. Within two (2) business days after entry of this Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors shall serve the Confirmation and Sale Notice by regular mail on (a) the office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey, (b) the Debtors Top 30 Unsecured Creditors, (c) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey, (d) the Internal Revenue Service, (e) the Securities and Exchange Commission, (f) the attorneys general in the states where the Debtors conduct their business operations, (g) any parties that have expressed written interest in pursuing a potential transaction in connection with the marketing and bidding process, (h) any known counterparty to a potentially Assumed Contract, and (i) any other party that has requested notice pursuant to Rule 2002.

21. The Debtors shall post the Confirmation and Sale Notice, the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice, and this Bidding Procedures Order on the website of the Debtors' claims and noticing agent. Within two (2) business days following the entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors shall submit the Confirmation and Sale Notice for publication once in the Newark Star Ledger and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, and any additional similar publication in the prudent exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. Publication of the Confirmation and Sale Notice as described in this Bidding Procedures Order conforms to the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 2002(l) and 9008 and is reasonably calculated to provide notice to any affected party, including any potential Bidders, and afford the affected party the opportunity to exercise any rights affected by the Motion and the relief granted by this Bidding Procedures Order.

22. Any objections to the Sale Transaction under the Plan (a "Confirmation and Sale Objection") must: (1) be in writing; (2) comply with the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules; (3) set forth the specific basis for the Confirmation and Sale Objection; (4) be filed with the Court, on or before 4:00 p.m. (ET) on August 22, 2025 (the "Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline"); (5) be served upon (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) the Successful Bidder, (c) counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, and (d) the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey (collectively, the "Objection Notice Parties"); and (6) proof of service of such Confirmation and Sale Objection upon the Objection Notice Parties shall be filed with the Court as and when required by the Local Rules. If a Confirmation and Sale Objection is not filed and served on or before the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline in accordance with the foregoing requirements, the objecting party may be barred from objecting to the Sale Transaction and being heard at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and this Court may enter the Confirmation and Sale Order without further notice to such party.

23. As part of its bid, each potential Bidder must provide the Debtors information supporting the potential Bidder's ability to comply with the requirements of adequate assurance of future performance under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Adequate Assurance Information"), including (a) the potential Bidder's financial wherewithal and willingness to perform under any contracts and leases that are assumed and assigned to such potential Bidder; and (b) a contact person for the proposed assignee that the applicable counterparty may directly contact in connection with the adequate assurance of future performance. In the event that a potential Bidder (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) is a newly formed acquisition entity, the financial and other information supporting the potential Bidder's financial wherewithal shall include financial and other information supporting the financial wherewithal of the potential Bidder's parent company or sponsor.

24. Any party in receipt of Adequate Assurance Information under this Bidding Procedures Order shall review the Adequate Assurance Information received on a confidential basis and shall not disclose the Adequate Assurance Information except as expressly provided in this Bidding Procedures Order and the Bidding Procedures. No party may use or disclose, except to representatives, attorneys, advisors and financing sources (collectively, "Representatives"), any confidential Adequate Assurance Information for any purpose other than: (a) evaluating whether adequate assurance of future performance as required under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code has been provided; and (b) in support of any objection (subject to the limitations on disclosure set forth herein) by such party relating to adequate assurance of future performance. Any Representative receiving Adequate Assurance Information shall be notified and shall agree to be bound by the restrictions set forth in this Bidding Procedures Order.

25. If no timely Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Agreement are submitted on or before the Bid Deadline, the Debtors shall not hold an Auction and shall request at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing that this Court approve the Stalking Horse Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder. If the Debtors timely receive one or more Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Agreement, then the Debtors shall conduct the Auction on Tuesday, August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time), at the offices of White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020 or virtually via telephone and/or video conference pursuant to information to be timely provided by the Debtors to the Auction Participants (as defined below). Except as otherwise determined by the Debtors, only (i) the Debtors, (ii) any Qualifying Bidder, (iii) the U.S. Trustee, (iv) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, (v) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, and (vi) any other creditor of the Debtors that delivers to Debtors' counsel a written request to attend the Auction (by email to barrett.lingle@whitecase.com) no later than 24 hours prior to the commencement of the Auction, in each case, along with their respective representatives and counsel, may attend the Auction (collectively, the "Auction Participants"); provided that the Debtors may, in their sole discretion, establish a reasonable limit on the number of advisors that may appear on behalf of each party. Only Qualifying Bidders will be entitled to make any bids at the Auction.

26. Following the Auction (if any), on August 19, 2025, the Debtors will file with the Court a notice (the "Notice of Successful Bidder") that will identify, among other things, the Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder.

27. The Confirmation and Sale Hearing shall be held in this Court on September 4, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (ET), unless otherwise determined by this Court. The Confirmation and Sale Hearing may be adjourned by the Debtors from time to time without further notice to creditors or other parties in interest other than by announcement of the adjournment in open court on the date scheduled for the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, or by filing a hearing agenda or notice on the docket of these chapter 11 cases.

28. All persons and entities that participate in the Auction or bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property during the sale process shall be deemed to have knowingly and voluntarily (i) consented to the core jurisdiction of the Court to enter any order related to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or any other relief requested in the Motion or granted in this Bidding Procedures Order; (ii) waived any right to a jury trial in connection with any disputes relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or any other relief requested in the Motion or granted in this Bidding Procedures Order; and (iii) consented to the entry of a final order or judgment in connection with any disputes relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or any other relief requested in the Motion or granted in this Bidding Procedures Order, if it is determined that the Court would lack Article III jurisdiction to enter such a final order or judgment absent the consent of the relevant parties.

29. Nothing in this Bidding Procedures Order, the Stalking Horse Agreement, or the Motion shall be deemed to or constitute the assumption or assignment of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

30. In the event that there is a conflict between this Bidding Procedures Order or the Bidding Procedures, on the one hand, and the Motion, the Stalking Horse Agreement, on the other hand, this Bidding Procedures Order and the Bidding Procedures shall control and govern.

If there is a conflict between this Bidding Procedures Order and the Bidding Procedures, this Bidding Procedures Order shall control and govern. If there is a conflict between this Bidding Procedures Order or the Bidding Procedures, on the one hand, and any notice served in connection with the Motion or this Bidding Procedures Order, on the other hand, this Bidding Procedures Order and the Bidding Procedures shall control and govern.

31. Prior to mailing the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice, and the Confirmation and Sale Notice, the Debtors may fill in, or cause to be filled in, any missing dates and other information, correct any typographical errors, conform the provisions thereof to the provisions of this Bidding Procedures Order, and make such other, non-material changes as the Debtors deem necessary or appropriate.

32. This Bidding Procedures Order shall be effective immediately upon entry, and any stay of orders provided for in Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) or 6006(d) or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules or the Local Rules is expressly waived. The Debtors are not subject to any stay in the implementation, enforcement or realization of the relief granted in this Bidding Procedures Order, and may, in its sole discretion and without further delay, take any action and perform any act authorized or approved under this Bidding Procedures Order.

33. The requirements set forth in Local Rules 6004-1, 6004-2, and 90013-2 are hereby satisfied or waived.

1. Consultation Party

As appropriate throughout the sale process, the Debtors and their advisors will consult with counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes (the "Ad Hoc Group" or the "Consultation Party"). Neither the Debtors nor their representatives shall be obligated to furnish any information of any kind relating to the Kelly Hamilton Property to any party that is not a Potential Bidder (defined below) or a Consultation Party.

Nothing herein or contemplated hereby constitutes or will be deemed to constitute or otherwise result in the consent or approval of any Consultation Party to the sale, sale order, or to any agreement or motion or other pleading related thereto, or the waiver or modification of any of the terms of, or any rights under, any existing agreement, instrument or document. Any and all rights or such parties to object or otherwise oppose any sale, sale order, bid, or any agreement or pleading related thereto are hereby expressly preserved and reserved.

2. Stalking Horse Bidder

On July 11, 2025, the Debtors entered into the Stalking Horse Agreement with the Stalking Horse Bidder. As set forth more fully in the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Stalking Horse Bidder is (i) credit bidding the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations (as defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement) and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, (ii) assuming certain liabilities and certain executory contracts and unexpired leases of the Debtors, (iii) satisfying cure costs, and (iv) providing a cash payment if required under the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement (collectively, the "Stalking Horse Bid"). The Stalking Horse Agreement also includes various customary representations, warranties, and covenants by and from the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder, and certain conditions to closing and rights of termination.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Stalking Horse Bidder is deemed to be a Qualifying Bidder (as defined below), and the Stalking Horse Bid (including as it may be modified at the Auction (if any) in accordance with the terms therein and herein) is deemed to be a Qualifying Bid(as defined below). The Stalking Horse Bidder is credit bidding pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(k) and thus is not required to make a Deposit (as defined below) with the Debtors. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall have the unqualified right at any time to credit bid on a dollar-for-dollar basis up to the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim.

3. Assets to be Sold

The Debtors shall offer for sale the Kelly Hamilton Property, provided that the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, determine that the aggregate consideration offered by any bid, or combination of bids, for the Kelly Hamilton Property, satisfies the requirements set forth in these Bidding Procedures. Potential Bidders (as defined herein) may bid on the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Debtors propose to consummate the proposed Sale Transaction pursuant to a chapter 11 plan, subject to Court approval.

4. Participation Requirements

Any interested party that wishes to participate in the bidding process for the Kelly Hamilton Property other than in the case of the Stalking Horse Bidder (each, an "Interested Bidder") must first become a potential bidder (a "Potential Bidder"). To become a Potential Bidder, an Interested Bidder must submit to (a) counsel to the Debtors, (i) White & Case LLP, 111 South Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60606 (Attn: Gregory F. Pesce (gregory.pesce@whitecase.com)) and (ii) White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020 (Attn: Barrett Lingle (barrett.lingle@whitecase.com), and (ii) co-counsel to the Debtors, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, 80 Central Park West, New York, New York 10023 (Attn: Kenneth A. Rosen (ken@kenrosenadvisors.com)), and (b) the Debtors' proposed financial advisors, IslandDundon LLC, 10 Bank Street, Suite 1100, White Plains, NY 10606 (Attn: Tabish Rizvi (tr@dundon.com) and Steven Landgraber (slandgraber@islecap.com)) (collectively, the "Debtors' Advisors") the following documents (collectively, the "Preliminary Bid Documents") via email:

(a) documentation identifying the Interested Bidder, its principals, and the representatives thereof who are authorized to appear and act on their behalf for all purposes regarding the contemplated transaction, including the Auction, if any;

(b) an executed confidentiality agreement ("Confidentiality Agreement") in form and substance satisfactory to the Debtors;

(c) a statement and other factual support demonstrating to the Debtors' reasonable satisfaction, after consultation with the Consultation Party, that the Interested Bidder has a bona fide interest in consummating the Sale Transaction; and

(d) sufficient information, as determined by the Debtors, after consultation with the Consultation Party, to allow the Debtors to determine that the Interested Bidder (x) has, or can obtain, the financial wherewithal and any required internal corporate, legal, or other authorizations to close the Sale Transaction, including,

but not limited to, current audited financial statements of the Interested Bidder (or such other form of financial disclosure acceptable to the Debtors in their discretion), and (y) can provide adequate assurance of future performance under any Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, in connection with the Sale Transaction, pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, in connection with the Sale Transaction.[4]

Each Interested Bidder shall comply with all reasonable requests for information and due diligence access by the Debtors or their advisors regarding the ability of such Interested Bidder to consummate its contemplated transaction. The Debtors reserve the right to work with any Interested Bidder to cure any deficiencies in the Preliminary Bid Documents or waive any of the foregoing requirements in the Debtors' reasonable business judgment, in consultation with the Consultation Party. The Debtors reserve all rights to determine in their business judgment whether a party that has submitted Preliminary Bid Documents shall be deemed a Potential Bidder.

5. Bankruptcy Court Jurisdiction

Any Interested Bidders, Potential Bidders, and Qualifying Bidders (as defined herein) shall: (a) be deemed to have waived any right to a jury trial in connection with, and consented and submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court over, any actions or proceedings arising from or relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Sale Transaction, the Auction, and the construction and enforcement of the contemplated transaction documents of such parties; (b) be deemed to have waived any right to bring any such action or proceeding in the Court; and (c) be deemed to have consented to (i) the Court entering a final order or judgment determining any such action or proceeding and (ii) such final order or judgment in any such action or proceeding, including all appeals, being conclusive and enforceable in other jurisdictions (including any foreign jurisdictions) by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable law.

6. Due Diligence

The Debtors will provide Potential Bidders with reasonable access to a data room and any other additional information that the Debtors believe to be reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances. All due diligence requests shall be directed to the Debtors' Advisors via email at the email address(es) noted above.

The due diligence period shall extend through and include the Bid Deadline. The Debtors, in their business judgment, may, but shall not be obligated to, furnish any due diligence information after the Bid Deadline.

The Debtors reserve the right, in their reasonable discretion, to withhold or limit access to any due diligence information that the Debtors determine is not appropriate for disclosure to a Potential Bidder (including its affiliates and any related persons) at any time and for any reason, including, without limitation, if (a) any due diligence information is determined to be business sensitive, proprietary, or otherwise not appropriate for disclosure to a Potential Bidder by the Debtors, including, but not limited to, Potential Bidders who are customers or competitors of the Debtors or affiliates thereof, and other industry participants, (b) the Potential Bidder does not become, or the Debtors determine that the Potential Bidder is not likely to become, a Qualifying Bidder (as defined below), (c) the Potential Bidder violates the terms of its Confidentiality Agreement, (d) the Debtors become aware that the information set forth on the Potential Bidder's Preliminary Bid Documents is inaccurate or misleading or of any other reason to doubt such Potential Bidder's ability to close its contemplated transaction, (e) the Potential Bidder (including its affiliates and any related persons) uses information obtained from the data room or the diligence process in connection with, or related to, any litigation or other legal action related to any Debtor, any current or former directors and officers of the Debtors, the Debtors' non-Debtor affiliates, or the Debtors' primary creditors as identified by the Debtors, (f) such disclosure would jeopardize protections afforded any Debtor or primary creditor as identified by the Debtors under the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work product doctrine, or (g) the bidding process is terminated in accordance with its terms. Notwithstanding any prepetition limitations, including, without limitation, any non-disclosure, confidentiality, or similar provisions relating to any due diligence information, the Debtors and their estates shall be authorized to provide due diligence information to Potential Bidders; provided that such Potential Bidders have delivered an executed Confidentiality Agreement in form and substance acceptable to the Debtors. Subject to the terms and conditions of each Confidentiality Agreement, the Debtors and their estates are not responsible for, and shall have no liability with respect to, any information obtained by, or provided to, any Potential Bidders in connection with the Bidding Procedures and the Sale Transaction.

7. Bid Requirements

Other than in the case of the Stalking Horse Bidder and the Stalking Horse Agreement, which shall be considered a Qualifying Bidder and a Qualifying Bid (each as defined below), respectively, for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures, without any regard to any of the requirements or conditions set forth therein and without any other or further action by the Stalking Horse Bidder, to be deemed a "Qualifying Bid," a bid must be received by the Debtors' Advisors from a Potential Bidder before the Bid Deadline and satisfy each of the following requirements (each, a "Bid Requirement"):

(a) be in writing;

(b) include a clean and duly executed asset purchase agreement, including the exhibits, schedules, and ancillary agreements related thereto (an "Alternative APA") and a marked copy of the Alternative APA showing any variations from the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Alternative APA must (i) provide cash payment that is not less than the sum of (a) the DIP Facility Obligations, (b) the Bid Protection, (c) the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, (d) an amount that is equal to 5% of the aforementioned amounts and (e), any cash necessary to satisfy Senior Claims in full, to the extent such Senior Claims are not assumed in full by the Potential Bidder, (ii) consummate the transactions contemplated in the Alternative APA through the Plan, and (iii) include a commitment to close by no later than ten (10) business days following entry of the Confirmation and Sale Order. The executed copy of the Alternative APA must effective upon the Debtors' countersignature. The terms and conditions of the Alternative APA must be, in the aggregate, not materially more burdensome or adverse to the Debtors than the provisions contained in the Stalking Horse Agreement;

(c) fully disclose the identity of the Potential Bidder (and to the extent that the Potential Bidder is a newly formed acquisition entity or the like, the identity of the Potential Bidder's parent company or sponsor), and provide the contact information of the specific person(s) whom the Debtors or their advisors should contact in the event that the Debtors have any questions or wish to discuss the bid submitted by the Potential Bidder;

(d) set forth the purchase price to be paid by such Potential Bidder, which purchase price shall include an aggregate amount of cash sufficient to pay in full at closing, an amount that is not less than the sum of (a) the DIP Facility Obligations, (b) the Bid Protection, (c) the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, and (d) an amount that is equal to 5% of the aforementioned amounts in full at closing;

(e) identify separately any cash and non-cash components, which non-cash components shall be limited only to credit bids in accordance with section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code and assumed liabilities;

(f) state the liabilities proposed to be paid or assumed by such Potential Bidder;

(g) state that such Potential Bidder offers to (i) purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property and (ii) assume liabilities (including the Cure Payments), upon substantially the same terms as, or terms more favorable to the Debtors and their estate than, the terms set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement;

(h) state that such Potential Bidder's offer is formal, binding and unconditional, and is irrevocable until two (2) business days after the closing of the Sale Transaction;

(i) to the extent that a bid is not accompanied by evidence of a Potential Bidder's capacity to consummate the applicable Sale Transaction with cash on hand, the bid must include unconditional committed financing from a reputable financing institution, documented to the satisfaction of the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, including appropriate contact information for such financing sources, that demonstrates that the Potential Bidder has: (i) received sufficient debt and/or equity funding commitments to satisfy the Potential Bidder's purchase price and other obligations under its bid; and (ii) adequate working capital financing or resources to finance going concern operations for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Such funding commitments or other financing must be unconditional and must not be subject to any internal approvals, syndication requirements, diligence, or credit committee approvals, and shall have covenants and conditions reasonably acceptable to the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party;

(j) contain such financial and other information to allow the Debtors to make a reasonable determination, after consultation with the Consultation Party, as to the Potential Bidder's financial and other capabilities to close the transactions contemplated by the applicable Alternative APA, including, without limitation, such financial and other information supporting the Potential Bidder's ability to comply with the requirements of adequate assurance of future performance under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, including the Potential Bidder's financial wherewithal and willingness to perform under any contracts and leases that are assumed and assigned to the Potential Bidder, in a form that allows the Debtors to serve such information on any counterparties to such contracts or leases in connection with the Sale Transaction within one (1) business day after the Debtors' receipt of such information. To the extent that the Potential Bidder (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) is a newly formed acquisition entity or the like, the financial and other information supporting the Potential Bidder's financial wherewithal shall include financial and other information supporting the financial wherewithal of the Potential Bidder's parent company or sponsor;

(k) identify with particularity each and every Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease, the assumption and assignment of which is a condition to close the transactions contemplated by the Alternative APA;

(l) include closing conditions that are no less favorable to the Debtors than the closing conditions contained in the Stalking Horse Agreement (and specify such closing conditions in the applicable Alternative APA);

(m) include a statement that the bid does not request or entitle such Potential Bidder to any break-up fee, termination fee, expense reimbursement, or similar type of payment or reimbursement;

(n) not contain any contingencies of any kind, including, without limitation, contingencies related to financing, internal approval, or due diligence;

(o) contain a written acknowledgement and representation that the Potential Bidder (i) has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Kelly Hamilton Property, (ii) has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation or inspection of any documents and other information in making its bid, and (iii) did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties or guaranties whatsoever, whether express, implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Kelly Hamilton Property, or the completeness of any documents or other information provided in connection with the Bidding Procedures and the Sale Transaction;

(p) set forth any regulatory and third-party approvals required for the Potential Bidder to close the transactions contemplated by the Alternative APA, and the time period within which the Potential Bidder expects to receive such regulatory and third-party approvals (and in the case that receipt of any such regulatory or third-party approval is expected to take more than five (5) days following execution and delivery of such Potential Bidder's Alternative APA, those actions the bidder will take to ensure receipt of such approval(s) as promptly as possible); provided, however, that a Potential Bidder agrees that its legal counsel will coordinate in good faith with the Debtors' legal counsel to discuss and explain the Potential Bidder's regulatory analysis, strategy, and timeline for securing all such approvals as soon as reasonably practicable, and in no event later than the time period contemplated in the Alternative APA;

(q) provide for a binding commitment of the Potential Bidder to serve as a backup bidder (the "Back-Up Bidder") if the Potential Bidder's bid is the next highest or otherwise next best bid (the "Back-Up Bid") after the Successful Bid;

(r) include written evidence of authorization and approval from the Potential Bidder's board of directors (or comparable governing body) with respect to the submission, execution, and delivery of the Alternative APA;

(s) provide a good faith cash deposit (the "Deposit") in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the aggregate purchase price provided for in the Alternative APA (or such additional amount as may be determined by the Debtors in their reasonable discretion);

(t) state or otherwise estimate the types of, and costs or charges for, transition services, if any, the Potential Bidder would require of or provide to the Debtors, including an estimate of the time any such transition services would be required of or provided to the Debtors; and

(u) provide that in the event of the Potential Bidder's breach of, or failure to perform under, the Alternative APA, the Debtors and their estates shall be entitled to pursue all available legal and equitable remedies, including, without limitation, retention of the Deposit as part of the damages resulting to the Debtors and their estates for such breach or failure to perform.

A bid from a Potential Bidder satisfying all of the above requirements, as determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, shall constitute a Qualifying Bid. The Debtors reserve the right, in their business judgment and in consultation with the Consultation Party, to waive any of the Bid Requirements or work with any Potential Bidder in advance of the Auction to cure any deficiencies in a bid that is not initially deemed a Qualifying Bid.

Each Potential Bidder submitting a bid shall be deemed to: (a) acknowledge and represent that it is bound by all of the terms and conditions of the Bidding Procedures; and (b) have waived the right to pursue a substantial contribution claim under section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code related in any way to the submission of its bid, the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or the Sale Transaction.

In the event a Bid is submitted, the Debtors shall provide copies of all Bid materials to counsel to the Consultation Party, provided, however, that the Debtors shall have no obligation to provide Bid materials to counsel to the Consultation Party (i) once such party, or an affiliate thereof, has submitted a Bid and (ii) for so long as such Bid remains open.

8. Bid Deadline

A Potential Bidder, other than the Stalking Horse Bidder, that desires to make a bid shall deliver a written and electronic copy of its bid in both PDF and MS-WORD format to the Debtors' Advisors so as to be received on or before August 14, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) (the "Bid Deadline"); provided that the Debtors may extend the Bid Deadline without further order of the Court, after consultation with the Consultation Party. To the extent that the Bid Deadline is extended for all parties, the Debtors shall file a notice on the docket of their chapter 11 cases indicating the same. Any party that does not submit a bid by the Bid Deadline will not be allowed to (a) submit any bids after the Bid Deadline or (b) participate in the Auction.

9. Evaluation of Qualifying Bids

The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, shall make a determination regarding whether a timely submitted bid from a Potential Bidder is a Qualifying Bid.

No later than August 15, 2025, the Debtors shall: (i) notify all Potential Bidders whether their respective bids have been determined to be Qualifying Bids and those Potential Bidders that have submitted Qualifying Bids will be considered to be qualifying bidders (the "Qualifying Bidders") and (ii) determine, in consultation with the Consultation Party, which of the Qualifying Bids, at such time, is the highest or best Qualifying Bid for purposes of constituting the opening bid of the Auction (the "Baseline Bid").

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, and for the avoidance of doubt, for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures: (i) the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be considered a Qualifying Bidder, and the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be considered a Qualifying Bid, for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures, without regard to any of the requirements or conditions set forth therein and without any other or further action by the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (ii) in determining whether the Potential Bidders constitute Qualifying Bidders, the Debtors may consider a combination of bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. As set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order, in the event one or more Qualifying Bids are submitted in advance of the Auction, the Stalking Horse Bid shall be the Successful Bid so long as the Stalking Horse Bid is equal to an amount not less than the highest other Qualifying Bid, if any

10. No Qualifying Bids

If no timely Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Bid are submitted on or before the Bid Deadline, the Debtors shall not hold an Auction and shall request at the Confirmation and

Sale Hearing that the Court approve the sale to the Stalking Horse Bidder on the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and the transaction contemplated thereunder.

11. Auction

If the Debtors timely receive one or more Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Bid, then the Debtors shall conduct an auction (the "Auction"). Following the Auction, the Debtors will determine, in consultation with the Consultation Party, which Qualifying Bid or combination of Qualifying Bids is the highest or otherwise best bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property, which will be determined by considering, among other things, the following non-binding factors: (a) the number, type and nature of any changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement requested by each Qualifying Bidder; (b) the extent to which such modifications are likely to delay closing of the Sale Transaction and the cost to the Debtors and their estates of such modifications or delay; (c) the total consideration to be received by the Debtors and their estates; (d) the transaction structure and execution risk, including conditions to, timing of and certainty of closing, termination provisions, availability of financing and financial wherewithal to meet all commitments, and required governmental or other approval; (e) the net benefit to the Debtors' estates; (f) the certainty of the Debtors being able to confirm a chapter 11 plan; and (g) any other factors the Debtors may reasonably deem relevant in their business judgment.

Bidders and their representatives may not communicate or coordinate with one another for purposes of submitting a Bid or Bids or participating in the Auction without the prior consent of the Debtors. All parties are prohibited from (i) engaging in any collusion with respect to the bidding or sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property described herein or (ii) taking any other action to prevent a transparent and competitive auction process.

The Auction shall be governed by the following procedures:

(a) the Auction shall be held on August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (ET) or such other date as may be determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party (which information will be timely provided by the Debtors to the Auction Participants (as defined below)) at the offices of White & Case LLP, White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020, or virtually via telephone or video conference;

(b) only the Stalking Horse Bidder and the other Qualifying Bidders (together, the "Auction Bidders") shall be entitled to make any subsequent bids at the Auction;

(c) the Auction Bidders shall appear at the Auction themselves, or through a duly authorized representative;

(d) Only (i) the Debtors, (ii) any Qualifying Bidder, (iii) the U.S. Trustee, (iv) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, (v) the Ad Hoc Group, and (vi) in the Debtors' discretion, any other creditor of the Debtors that delivers to Debtors' counsel a written request to attend the Auction (by email to barrett.lingle@whitecase.com) no later than 24 hours prior to the commencement of the Auction, in each case, along with their respective representatives and counsel, may attend the Auction (collectively, the "Auction Participants"); provided that the Debtors may establish a reasonable limit on the number of advisors that may appear on behalf of each party;

(e) the Debtors and their professional advisors shall direct and preside over the Auction, which shall be transcribed;

(f) prior to the start of the Auction, each of the Auction Bidders shall confirm that they have not engaged in any collusion with respect to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction or the Sale Transaction;

(g) the Auction shall be conducted in an open format (and not by way of sealed bids);

(h) the Auction Bidders may submit successive bids (each, an "Overbid") in increments of at least $250,000.00, provided that: (i) each such Overbid must be a Qualifying Bid; and (ii) the Debtors shall retain the right to modify the bid increment requirements at the Auction following consultation with the Consultation Party;

(i) the Auction may include individual negotiations with any of the Auction Bidders, but all bids shall be made on the record and in the presence of all of the Auction Bidders;

(j) all material terms of the bid that is deemed to be the highest or otherwise best bid, if applicable, for each round of bidding shall be fully disclosed to the Auction Bidders, and the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to clarify any and all questions that the Auction Bidders may have regarding Debtors' announcement of the then-current highest or otherwise best bid;

(k) except as specifically set forth herein, for the purpose of evaluating the value of the purchase price provided by each successive bid (including any successive bid by the Stalking Horse Bidder), the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, may give effect to any additional liabilities to be assumed by a Qualifying Bidder, and any additional costs which may be imposed on the Debtors;

(l) each Auction Bidder shall (i) be deemed to have waived any right to a jury trial in connection with, and consented and submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court over, any actions or proceedings arising from or relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Sale Transaction, the Auction and the construction and enforcement of the contemplated transaction documents of the Auction Bidders, (ii) be deemed to have waived any right to bring any such action or proceeding relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or the Sale Transaction in the Court, and (iii) be deemed to have consented to (a) the Court entering a final order or judgment determining in any such action or proceeding and (b) a final order or judgment in any such action or proceeding, including all appeals, being conclusive and enforceable in other jurisdictions (including any foreign jurisdictions) by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable law;

(m) throughout the Auction, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall have the continuing right to credit bid an amount equal to the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property;

(n) the Auction Bidders shall have the right to make additional modifications to the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable, in conjunction with each Qualifying Bid submitted in each round of bidding during the Auction, provided that (i) any such modifications on an aggregate basis and viewed in whole, shall not, in the Debtors' discretion, in consultation with the Consultation Party, be less favorable to the Debtors and their estates than the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement, and (ii) each Qualifying Bid shall constitute an irrevocable offer and shall be binding on the Auction Bidder submitting such bid until such Auction Bidder shall have submitted a subsequent Qualifying Bid at the Auction, unless such bid is selected as the Successful Bid, which shall remain binding as provided for herein;

(o) the Debtors and the Consultation Party shall have the right to request any additional financial information that will allow the Debtors and the Consultation Party to make a reasonable determination as to an Auction Bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable, as may be amended during the Auction, and any further information that the Debtors may believe is reasonably necessary to clarify and evaluate any bid made by an Auction Bidder during the Auction;

(p) upon the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtors shall determine, in consultation with the Consultation Party, and subject to Court approval, the offer that is the highest or otherwise best from among the Qualifying Bids submitted at the Auction (the "Successful Bid"). In making this decision, the Debtors shall consider, in consultation with the Consultation Party, the amount of the purchase price, the assumption of liabilities, the likelihood of the bidder's ability to close the proposed transaction and the timing thereof, the number, type and nature of any changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement or the applicable Alternative APA, as applicable, requested by each bidder, and the net benefit to the Debtors' estates. The bidder(s) submitting such Successful Bid at the Auction shall become the "Successful Bidder," and shall have such rights and responsibilities of the purchaser as set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable. The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, shall designate a Back-Up Bid (and the corresponding Back-Up Bidder) to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property (or any subset thereof, if applicable) in the event that the Successful Bidder does not close the sale;

(q) on August 19, 2025, the Debtors will file with the Court a notice setting forth the results of the Auction (the "Notice of Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder"), which will (a) identify the Successful Bidder and the Back-Up Bidder with respect to the Kelly Hamilton Property; (b) include a copy of the Successful Bid(s) and the Back-Up Bid(s) or a summary of the material terms of such bids; and (c) set forth the date, time, and location of the Confirmation and Sale Hearing and any other relevant dates or other information necessary to reasonably apprise parties of the outcome of the Auction;

(r) within one (1) business day of the close of the Auction, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, the Successful Bidder shall supplement the Successful Bidder's Deposit such that the Deposit shall be equal to an amount that is ten (10%) percent of the Successful Bid; and

(s) prior to the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, the Successful Bidder(s) shall complete and execute all agreements, contracts, instruments, and other documents evidencing and containing the terms and conditions upon which the Successful Bid was made.

THE SUCCESSFUL BID AND ANY BACK-UP BID AND THEIR RELATED PURCHASE AGREEMENTS SHALL CONSTITUTE AN IRREVOCABLE OFFER AND BE BINDING ON THE SUCCESSFUL BIDDER(S) AND THE BACK-UP BIDDER(S), RESPECTIVELY, FROM THE TIME THE APPLICABLE BID IS SUBMITTED UNTIL TWO (2) BUSINESS DAYS AFTER THE SALE TRANSACTION WITH RESPECT TO THE KELLY HAMILTON PROPERTY HAS CLOSED. EACH QUALIFYING BID THAT IS NOT THE SUCCESSFUL BID OR THE BACK-UP BID SHALL BE DEEMED WITHDRAWN AND TERMINATED AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE CONFIRMATION AND SALE HEARING.

12. Confirmation and Sale Hearing

The Successful Bid and any Back-Up Bid (or if no Qualifying Bid other than that of the Stalking Horse Bidder is received, then the Stalking Horse Agreement, which will be deemed to be the Successful Bid) will be subject to approval by the Court. The Confirmation and Sale Hearing to approve the Successful Bid and any Back-Up Bid (or if no Qualifying Bid other than that of the Stalking Horse Bidder is received, then the Stalking Horse Agreement) shall take place on September 4, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Confirmation and Sale Hearing may be adjourned by the Debtors from time to time without further notice to creditors or other parties in interest other than by announcement of the adjournment in open court or by filing a hearing agenda or notice on the docket of these chapter 11 cases.

At the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, the Debtors will seek entry of their forthcoming Confirmation and Sale Order that, among other things: (i) confirms the Debtors' proposed chapter 11 plan, (ii) authorizes and approves the Sale Transaction to the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or Alternative APA submitted by the Successful Bidder, as applicable, free and clear of all liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances, except certain permitted encumbrances and assumed liabilities as determined by the Debtors and any Successful Bidder; (iii) finds that the Stalking Horse Bidder or Successful Bidder, as applicable, is a good faith purchaser pursuant to section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (iv) authorizes the assumption and assignment of certain Assumed Contracts in connection with the Sale Transaction.

Any party who fails to file an objection to the Sale Transaction with the Court and serve it upon the parties specified in the Bidding Procedures Order on or before August 22, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (ET) will be forever barred from asserting, at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing or thereafter, any objection to the consummation of the applicable Sale Transaction and any related relief requested by the Debtors.

13. Back-Up Bidder

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, in the event that a Sale Transaction to the applicable Successful Bidder is terminated or fails to close by the outside date identified in the Successful Bid (or such date as may be extended by the Debtors in consultation with the Consultation Party), the applicable Back-Up Bid will be deemed to be the Successful Bid with respect to the Kelly Hamilton Property, the applicable Back-Up Bidder will be deemed to be the applicable Successful Bidder, and the Debtors shall be authorized to close the Sale Transaction for the Kelly Hamilton Property to such Back-Up Bidder on the terms of its Back-Up Bid without the need for further order of the Court and without the need for further notice to any interested parties.

14. Return of Deposits

All Deposits shall be returned to the bidders not selected by the Debtors as the Successful Bidder or Back-Up Bidder no later than five (5) business days following the closing of the Sale Transaction. The deposit of the Successful Bidder or, if the Sale Transaction is closed with the Back-Up Bidder, the deposit of the Back-Up Bidder, shall be applied to the purchase price at the closing of the Sale Transaction. If the Successful Bidder (or, if the Sale Transaction is to be closed with the Back-Up Bidder, then the Back-Up Bidder) fails to consummate the Sale Transaction because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such bidder, then, subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable, the Debtors and their estates shall be entitled to retain the Deposit of the Successful Bidder (or, if the Sale Transaction is to be closed with the Back-Up Bidder, then the Back-Up Bidder) as part of the damages to the Debtors and their estates for such breach or failure to perform. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors' retention of a Deposit shall not constitute a waiver or limitation of any of the Debtors' legal or equitable rights relating to a Successful Bidder's or Back-Up Bidder's breach or failure to perform, and all such rights and remedies are preserved.

15. No-Shop or No-Solicitation Provisions

The Bidding Procedures Order and Bidding Procedures do not limit the Debtors' ability or right to solicit higher or otherwise better bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Motion, the Bidding Procedures, and the Bidding Procedures Order call for a fair and open bidding and auction process.

16. Consultation Rights

For the avoidance of doubt, any consultation rights provided to the Consultation Party by these Bidding Procedures shall not limit the Debtors' discretion in any way and shall not include the right to veto any decision made by the Debtors in the exercise of their business judgment.

17. Sale Is As Is / Where Is

Except as may be set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, the Kelly Hamilton Property sold pursuant to the Bidding Procedures shall be conveyed at the closing in its then-present condition, "AS IS, WITH ALL FAULTS, AND WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED."

18. Reservation of Rights and Fiduciary Out

The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, reserve their rights to, and approval of the Bidding Procedures shall not in any way affect the Debtors' rights to: (i) determine whether a Bid is a Qualifying Bid; (ii) determine which Bid at the Auction is the highest or otherwise best Bid; (iii) reject any Bid that is (a) inadequate or insufficient, (b) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bidding Procedures or the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, or (c) contrary to the best interests of the Debtors and their estates; (iv) waive terms and conditions set forth herein with respect to all Bidders; (v) impose additional terms and conditions at the Auction with respect to all Bidders; (vi) extend the deadlines set forth herein (including the date, time, or location of the Auction and/or the Bid Deadline); (vii) continue or cancel the Auction by filing a notice or in open court without further notice; and (viii) modify the Bidding Procedures, if necessary, and implement additional procedural rules that the Debtors determine, in their business judgment, and after consultation with the Consultation Party, will better promote the goals of the bidding process and discharge their fiduciary duties and are not inconsistent with any Court order.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bidding Procedures, nothing in the Bidding Procedures or the Order shall require a Debtor (including the Independent Fiduciary, board of directors, board of managers, or similar governing body of a Debtor), after consulting with counsel, to take any action or to refrain from taking any action, with respect to the Bidding Procedures or otherwise related to any potential transaction, to the extent taking or failing to take such action is required to comply or would be inconsistent with applicable law or the Debtors' fiduciary obligations, if any, under applicable law.

Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bidding Procedures, nothing in the Bidding Procedures or the Order shall diminish the right of the Debtors and their respective directors, officers, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, consultants, and other advisors or representatives to: (a) consider, respond to, and facilitate alternate proposals for other restructuring transactions involving any or all of the Debtors' assets (an "Alternate Proposal"); (b) provide access to non-public information concerning the Debtors to any entity or enter into confidentiality agreements or nondisclosure agreements with any entity; (c) maintain or continue discussions or negotiations with respect to any Alternate Proposals; (d) otherwise cooperate with, assist, participate in, or facilitate any inquiries, proposals, discussions, or negotiation of any Alternate Proposals; and (e) enter into or continue discussions or negotiations with holders of claims against or equity interests in a Debtor or any other party in interest in these chapter 11 cases, or any other entity regarding any Alternate Proposals.

(Jointly Administered)

NOTICE OF POSSIBLE ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT WITH RESPECT TO EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES OF THE DEBTORS

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT:

The above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (the "Debtors") each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code"), on May 19, 2025, in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Bankruptcy Court"). The Debtors are seeking to assume and assign certain of their executory contracts and unexpired leases in connection with the sale (the "Sale Transaction") of substantially all of the multi-family housing assets (the "Kelly Hamilton Property") owned by Debtor Kelly Hamilton Apts through a chapter 11 plan (the "Plan"). In connection with the Sale Transaction, the Kelly Hamilton Debtor has entered into that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified by the parties thereto, and including any exhibits attached thereto, the "Stalking Horse Agreement"), dated July 11, 2025, with 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender") or a nominee designated in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement[2] (such nominee, together with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, as applicable, the "Stalking Horse Bidder") to acquire the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Stalking Horse Agreement remains subject to the Debtors' acceptance of higher or otherwise better offers in accordance with the Bidding Procedures (as defined herein).

By order, dated [●], 2025 [Docket No. [●]] (the "Bidding Procedures Order"), the Bankruptcy Court approved certain relief requested in the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Approving (a) Bidding Procedures, the Sale Timeline, and the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof for the Kelly Hamilton Property, (B) the Debtors' Entry into and Performance Under the Stalking Horse Agreement, (C) Bid Protections in Connection with the Stalking Horse Agreement, and (D) Assumption and Assignment Procedures, and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. ●] (the "Motion"), including the "Bidding Procedures" that govern the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property to the highest or otherwise best bidder(s). All interested bidders should carefully read the Bidding Procedures. The Bidding Procedures Order also approved certain procedures for the assumption and assignment of certain of the Debtors' executory contracts and unexpired leases (the "Assumption and Assignment Procedures").

Copies of the Motion,[3] the Bidding Procedures Order, the Bidding Procedures, and the Stalking Horse Agreement are available for download at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm (the "Case Website").

Pursuant to the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors hereby provide notice that they are seeking to potentially assume and assign to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, the executory contracts or unexpired leases (each, an "Assumed Contract" and together, the "Assumed Contracts") listed on Schedule A attached hereto.

[2] The nominee shall be a special purpose entity under common control by the Stalking Horse Bidder which the Stalking Horse Bidder shall designate to acquire the Kelly Hamilton Property in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement.

[3] Capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning ascribed to such terms in the Bidding Procedures Order or the Motion, as applicable.

You are receiving this Notice because you or one of your affiliates may be a party to an Assumed Contract that may be assumed and assigned in connection with the Sale Transaction.

If the Debtors assume and assign to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, an Assumed Contract to which you are a party, on the closing date of the Sale Transaction, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, will pay you the amount the Debtors' records reflect is owing to you for prepetition arrearages as set forth on Schedule A attached hereto (the "Cure Payment"). The Debtors' records reflect that all postpetition amounts owing under your Assumed Contract have been paid and will continue to be paid until the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, and that other than the Cure Payment, there are no other defaults under the Assumed Contract.

The Debtors' inclusion of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as an Assumed Contract on Schedule A is not a guarantee that such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease will ultimately be assumed and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder. Should it be determined that an Assumed Contract will not be assumed and assigned, the Debtors shall notify such party to the Assumed Contract in writing of such decision.

Under the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors may modify the list of Assumed Contracts on Schedule A until consummation of the Sale Transaction, and the Debtors reserve the right, but only in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, at any time after the closing of the Sale Transaction and before the deadline for designation of additional Assumed Contracts or removal of potentially Assumed Contracts set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement to (i) supplement the list of Assumed Contracts with previously omitted executory contracts, (ii) remove Assumed Contracts from the list of executory contracts ultimately selected as Assumed Contracts that the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, proposes be assumed and assigned to it in connection with the Sale Transaction, or (iii) modify the previously stated Cure Payment associated with any Assumed Contracts. In the event the Debtors exercise any of these reserved rights, the Debtors will promptly serve a supplemental notice of contract assumption (a "Supplemental Assumption Notice") on each of the counterparties to such contracts and their counsel of record, if any; provided, however, the Debtors may not add an executory contract to the list of Assumed Contracts that has been previously rejected by the Debtors by order of the Bankruptcy Court. Each Supplemental Assumption Notice will include the same information with respect to listed Assumed Contracts as was included in the Assumption Notice, or in the event of a removal, the information required in a Removal Notice.

Any objection to the Cure Payment or to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection and, if the objection pertains to the proposed amount of the Cure Payment, the correct cure amount alleged by the objecting counterparty, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, and (iv) be filed with the Court on or before [____, 2025 (i.e., fourteen (14) days after service) or ____, 2025 (i.e., three (3) business days after service of the Supplemental Assumption Notice)] (the "Cure Objection Deadline") and served upon, so as to be actually received by, the Objection Notice Parties (as defined herein) on or before the Cure Objection Deadline.

Any objection to the (a) Sale Transaction and (b) in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, any objection to the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of the identity of the Successful Bidder and adequate assurance of future performance of the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, (iv) be filed with the Court on or before August 22, 2025, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time (the "Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline"), and (v) be served upon, so as to be actually received by, the Objection Notice Parties (as defined herein) on or before the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline.[4]

The "Objection Notice Parties" are as follows: (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (c) any other party that has filed a notice of appearance in these chapter 11 cases.

If an objection to the Cure Payment, assumption and assignment, adequate assurance of future performance, or the Sale Transaction is timely filed and not resolved by the parties, a hearing with respect to the objection will take place in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing to be held at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on September 4, 2025, subject to the Bankruptcy Court's availability, or such other date as determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then in consultation with the Successful Bidder, in accordance with the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order. A hearing regarding the Cure Payment, if any, may be continued at the discretion of the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, until after the closing of the Sale Transaction.

Any party failing to timely file an objection to the proposed Cure Payment, the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract listed on an Assumption Notice or the Supplemental Assumption Notice, or the Sale Transaction is deemed to have consented to (a) such Cure Payment, (b) the assumption and assignment of such Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract (including the adequate assurance of future payment), (c) the related relief requested in the Motion, and (d) the Sale Transaction. Such party shall be forever barred and estopped from objecting to the Cure Payment, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, or Additional Assumed Contract, adequate assurance of future performance, the relief requested herein, whether applicable law excuses such counterparty from accepting performance by, or rendering performance to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, for purposes of section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and

At any time on or before the date specified for the satisfaction of any condition, Debtor or Bidder may elect in writing to waive the benefit of any condition precedent to its obligations hereunder other than the entry of the Sale Order. In the event any of the conditions set forth in this Article 6 are neither waived nor fulfilled on or before the Outside Closing Date, as the same may be extended in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Party for whose benefit the applicable condition exists may terminate this Agreement and exercise such rights and remedies, if any, that such Party may have in the event such termination is the result of a default hereunder by the other Party pursuant to the terms of Article 9. If this Agreement is terminated as a result of the failure of any condition set forth in this Article 6 that is not also a default hereunder, then neither Party shall have any further rights or obligations hereunder except for the Surviving Obligations.

6.4 Execution of Assignment and Assumption of HAP Contract. The Parties shall execute and deliver the Assignment and Assumption of HAP Contract to HUD as soon as practicable following the entry of the Sale Order. The Scheduled Closing Date and the Outside Closing Date shall be subject to extension for up to ten (10) Business Days in the event that the same is delayed by reason of the failure of HUD to execute and deliver the Assignment and Assumption of HAP Contract.

ARTICLE 7 - REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

7.1 Bidder's Representations and Warranties. Bidder represents and warrants to Debtor as follows:

(a) Bidder's Authorization. Bidder is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and authorized to execute this Agreement, consummate the Transaction and fulfill all of its obligations hereunder and under all Closing Documents to be executed by Bidder. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and all Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Bidder pursuant to this Agreement and the performance by Bidder of the obligations of Bidder hereunder and under such Closing Documents have been authorized by all requisite company action of Bidder. The obligations of Bidder under this Agreement constitute and, as of the Closing Date, the obligations of Bidder under the Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Bidder pursuant to this Agreement shall constitute, the valid and binding obligations of Bidder enforceable in accordance with their respective terms. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement and Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Bidder pursuant to this Agreement nor the performance by Bidder of the obligations of Bidder hereunder under such Closing Documents will (i) result in the violation of any applicable Laws or any provision of Bidder's organizational documents, (ii) conflict with any order of any Governmental Authority binding upon Bidder, or (iii) conflict or be inconsistent with, or result in any default under, any contract, agreement or commitment by which Bidder is bound.

(b) Patriot Act Compliance. Bidder is not acting, directly or indirectly for, or on behalf of, any person, group, entity or nation named by any Executive Order (including the September 24, 2001, Executive Order Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions With Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism) or the United States Treasury Department as a terrorist, "Specially Designated National and Blocked Person," or other banned or blocked person, group, entity, or nation pursuant to any Law that is enforced or administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, and Bidder is not engaging in this Transaction, directly or indirectly, on behalf of, or instigating or facilitating this Transaction, directly or indirectly, on behalf of, any such person, group, entity or nation. Bidder is not engaging in this Transaction, directly or indirectly, in violation of any Laws relating to drug trafficking, money laundering or predicate crimes to money laundering. None of the funds of Bidder have been or will be derived from any unlawful activity with the result that the investment of direct or indirect equity owners in Bidder is prohibited by Law or that the Transaction or this Agreement is or will be in violation of Law. Bidder has and will continue to implement procedures, and has consistently and will continue to consistently apply those procedures, to ensure the foregoing representations and warranties remain true and correct at all times prior to Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Bidder's representations and warranties under this Section 7.1(b) apply to any person or entity which owns, has owned, or may hereafter own any publicly traded stock or other publicly traded securities of (i) Bidder (if any), or (ii) any Person which directly or indirectly owns an interest in Bidder.

7.2 Debtor's Representations and Warranties. Debtor represents and warrants to Bidder as follows:

(a) Debtor's Authorization. Debtor is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Delaware and qualified to do business under the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and authorized to execute this Agreement and, subject to the entry of the Sale Order, consummate the Transaction and fulfill all of its obligations hereunder and under all Closing Documents to be executed by Debtor in connection herewith. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and all Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Debtor pursuant to this Agreement and the performance by Debtor of the obligations of Debtor hereunder under such Closing Documents have been authorized by all requisite company action of Debtor. The obligations of Debtor under this Agreement constitute and, as of the Closing Date, the obligations of Debtor under the Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Debtor pursuant to this Agreement shall constitute, the valid and binding obligations of Debtor enforceable in accordance with their respective terms, subject to entry of the Sale Order. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, but subject to entry of the Sale Order, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement and Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Debtor pursuant to this Agreement nor the performance by Debtor of the obligations of Debtor hereunder or under such Closing Documents will (i) result in the violation of any applicable Laws or any provision of Debtor's organizational documents, (ii) conflict with any order of any Governmental Authority binding upon Debtor, or (iii) conflict or be inconsistent with, or result in any default under, any contract, agreement or commitment by which Debtor is bound.

(b) Patriot Act Compliance. Debtor is not acting, directly or indirectly for, or on behalf of, any person, group, entity or nation named by any Executive Order (including the September 24, 2001, Executive Order Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions With Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism) or the United States Treasury Department as a terrorist, "Specially Designated National and Blocked Person," or other banned or blocked person, group, entity, or nation pursuant to any Law that is enforced or administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control and Debtor is not engaging in this Transaction, directly or indirectly, on behalf of, or instigating or facilitating this Transaction, directly or indirectly, on behalf of, any such person, group, entity or nation. Debtor is not engaging in this Transaction, directly or indirectly, in violation of any Laws relating to drug trafficking, money laundering or predicate crimes to money laundering. None of the funds of Debtor have been or will be derived from any unlawful activity with the result that the investment of direct or indirect equity owners in Debtor is prohibited by Law or that the Transaction or this Agreement is or will be in violation of Law. Debtor has and will continue to implement procedures, and has consistently and will continue to consistently apply those procedures, to ensure the foregoing representations and warranties remain true and correct at all times prior to Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Debtor's representations and warranties under this Section 7.2(b) apply to any person or entity which owns, has owned, or may hereafter own any publicly traded stock or other publicly traded securities of (a) Debtor (if any), or (b) any entity which directly or indirectly owns an interest in Debtor.

7.2.2 Personal Property. Except for the liens and security interests created in favor of the DIP Lender under the DIP Facility Documents and as provided in the Sale Order, the Personal Property to be transferred to Bidder is free and clear of liens, security interests and other encumbrances.

7.2.3 Rents. Except for the assignments of the interest of Debtor in the Leases and Rents to the DIP Lender pursuant to the DIP Facility Documents, Debtor has not assigned, transferred or hypothecated its interest in the Leases and Rents.

7.2.4 Third-Party Rights. Debtor has not entered into any agreements currently in effect pursuant to which Debtor has granted any Person any option to purchase, right of first refusal to purchase, right of first option to purchase or other preferential right to purchase all or any part of the Property.

7.2.5 Litigation. Except for the Bankruptcy Proceedings and those matters listed in Exhibit K attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof, there is not currently or threatened in writing any pending action, claim, suit, litigation or other proceeding to which Debtor is a party or which otherwise relates to the Property (including, without limitation, any condemnation proceedings).

7.2.6 Contracts. As of the Execution Date, Debtor has not entered into or assumed any leases or other executory contracts affecting the Property which will be binding upon Bidder after the Closing other than Scheduled Contracts.

Debtor's representations and warranties in this Section 7.2 shall survive the Closing for a period of three (3) months and not be merged therein.

ARTICLE 8 - COVENANTS

8.1 Compliance with DIP Facility Documents. Debtor shall at all times comply with the requirements of the DIP Facility Documents until Closing and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the rights or obligations of the Parties under the DIP Facility Documents prior to Closing.

8.2 Compliance with Requirements of Orders. Debtor shall comply with the requirements of all Orders.

ARTICLE 9 - DEFAULTS

9.1 DEBTOR'S REMEDIES FOR BIDDER DEFAULTS. IF THE SALE OF THE PROPERTY IS NOT CONSUMMATED DUE TO ANY DEFAULT BY BIDDER HEREUNDER, THEN DEBTOR SHALL BE ENTITLED, AS ITS SOLE REMEDY TO TERMINATE THIS AGREEMENT BY DELIVERY OF WRITTEN NOTICE TO BIDDER, WHEREUPON NEITHER PARTY HERETO SHALL HAVE ANY FURTHER OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY TO THE OTHER HEREUNDER EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO SURVIVING OBLIGATIONS.

9.2 BIDDER'S REMEDIES FOR DEBTOR DEFAULTS. IF THE SALE OF THE PROPERTY IS NOT CONSUMMATED DUE TO DEBTOR'S DEFAULT HEREUNDER, BIDDER SHALL BE ENTITLED, AS ITS SOLE REMEDY, TO (A) TERMINATE THIS AGREEMENT BY DELIVERY OF WRITTEN NOTICE TO DEBTOR, WHEREUPON NEITHER PARTY HERETO SHALL HAVE ANY FURTHER OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY TO THE OTHER EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO SURVIVING OBLIGATIONS OR (B) ENFORCE THIS AGREEMENT BY SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE PROVIDED ANY SUCH PROCEEDING IS COMMENCED WITHIN FORTY-FIVE (45) DAYS AFTER THE DEBTOR DEFAULT OCCURS GIVING RIGHT TO SUCH ENFORCEMENT.

ARTICLE 10 - CASUALTY/CONDEMNATION

If, after the Execution Date, (a) any portion of the Property is taken by condemnation or eminent domain (or is the subject of a pending taking), or (b) any portion of the Property is damaged or destroyed (excluding routine wear and tear and damage caused by any of Bidder's Representatives), Debtor shall notify Bidder in writing of such fact promptly after obtaining knowledge thereof. If the Property is the subject of a Major Casualty/Condemnation that occurs after the Execution Date, Bidder shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to Debtor no later than ten (10) Business Days after the giving of Debtor's notice, and the Closing Date shall be extended, if necessary, to provide sufficient time for Bidder to make such election. The failure by Bidder to terminate this Agreement within such ten (10) Business Day period shall be deemed an election by Bidder not to terminate this Agreement.

10.2 Allocation of Proceeds and Awards. If a condemnation or casualty occurs after the Execution Date and this Agreement is not terminated as permitted pursuant to the terms of Section 10.1 hereof, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Bidder shall acquire the Property or, if applicable, the remainder thereof, upon the terms and conditions set forth herein. Any Casualty/Condemnation Proceeds shall be allocated between Bidder and Debtor as follows in respect of a Closing hereunder:

ARTICLE 11 - MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Brokers. Each of the Parties hereby warrants and represents to the other that it did not employ or use any broker or finder to arrange or bring about this transaction. If any Person brings a claim for a commission or finder's fee based upon any contact, dealings, or communication with either Party in connection with the Transaction, then the Party allegedly authorizing such commission or fee shall defend the other Party and hold the other Party harmless from any and all costs, damages, claims, liabilities, or expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements) incurred by the other Party with respect to the claim. The provisions of this Section 11.1 shall survive the Closing or, if the purchase and sale is not consummated, any termination of this Agreement.

Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, modified, amended, discharged or terminated except by an instrument signed by the Party against whom the enforcement of such waiver, modification, amendment, discharge or termination is sought, and then only to the extent set forth in such instrument. No waiver by either Party hereto of any failure or refusal by the other Party to comply with its obligations hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of any other or subsequent failure or refusal to so comply.

11.4 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, without application of its choice of laws.

Upon consideration of the motion (the "Motion")[2] of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") for entry of an order (this "Bidding Procedures Order") (i) approving (a) bidding and auction procedures for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property (the "Bidding Procedures"), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1, and the form and manner of notice thereof; (b) the form and manner of the Confirmation and Sale Notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2; (c) procedures for the assumption and assignment of certain Executory Contracts[3] and Unexpired Leases[4] in connection with the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property (each, an "Assumed Contract" and collectively, the "Assumed Contracts"), attached hereto as Exhibit 3 (the "Assumption Notice"), and approving the form and manner of notice thereof; (d) the Debtors' entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender as the Stalking Horse Bidder, attached hereto as Exhibit 4; and (e) the payment of the Bid Protection to the Stalking Horse Bidder in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement; and (ii) granting related relief; and the Court having jurisdiction to consider the Motion and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11 of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on September 18, 2012 (Simandle, C.J.) and consideration of the Motion and the relief requested therein being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"); and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor:

THE COURT HEREBY MAKES THE FOLLOWING FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:[5]

[5] The findings, determinations, and conclusions set forth herein constitute this Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

A. Confirmation and Sale Notice. The confirmation and sale notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2 (the "Confirmation and Sale Notice"), is appropriate and reasonably calculated to provide all interested parties with timely and proper notice (i) of this Bidding Procedures Order, (ii) of the Bidding Procedures, (iii) of the Auction, (iv) of the Sale Transaction, (v) of the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, (vi) of any and all objection deadlines related thereto, and (vii) that the Sale Transaction shall be free and clear of liens, claims, interests, and other encumbrances, with all such liens, claims interests, and other encumbrances attaching with the same validity and priority to the proceeds of the Sale Transaction, and, in each case, no other or further notice is required of the foregoing. Such notice is sufficient to cause all interested parties, including all holders of liens, claims, interests, and other encumbrances, whether holders of such liens, claims, interests, or other encumbrances are known or unknown, to be on notice that the proposed Sale Transaction shall be free and clear of such liens, claims, interests, or other encumbrances with respect to the Debtors, their assets, and their estates.

B. Bidding Procedures. The Debtors have articulated good and sufficient business reasons for the Court to approve the Bidding Procedures. The Bidding Procedures are: (i) fair, reasonable, and appropriate; and (ii) reasonably designed to maximize recovery with respect to the Sale Transaction. The Bidding Procedures were negotiated in good faith and at arm's length and are reasonably designed to promote a competitive and robust bidding process to generate substantial interest in, and better value for, the Kelly Hamilton Property.

C. Stalking Horse Agreement. The process for selecting the Stalking Horse Bidder was fair and appropriate under the circumstances. The Stalking Horse Agreement represents the highest or otherwise best offer the Debtors have received to date to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Stalking Horse Agreement provides the Debtors with the opportunity to sell the Kelly Hamilton Property in a manner designed to preserve and maximize the property's value and provides a floor for a further marketing and auction process. Without the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Debtors are at significant risk of realizing a lower price for the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall act as a "stalking horse purchaser" pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement and shall be subject to higher or otherwise better offers in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement and the Bidding Procedures. Pursuit of the Stalking Horse Bidder as a "stalking horse bidder" and the Stalking Horse Agreement as a "stalking horse purchase agreement" ~~is in the best interests of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates and their creditors, and it~~ reflects a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment.

D. Bid Protection. The Bid Protection is reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances and on the terms set forth in the Bidding Procedures, including in light of the time, cost, and resources expended by the Stalking Horse Bidder and the commitments that will be made by the Stalking Horse Bidder. The Bid Protection is an actual and necessary cost and expense of preserving the Debtors' assets within the meaning of section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall be treated as an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim against the Debtors' estates pursuant to sections 105(a), 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code with priority over all other administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, provided that such superpriority administrative expense claim shall be junior to any obligations incurred under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, any superpriority claim granted under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order[6] (whether as adequate protection or otherwise), and any claims senior to the obligations incurred pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any "Carve Out" or similar provision granted pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order). The Bid Protection was a material inducement for, and a condition of, the Stalking Horse Bidder's entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Stalking Horse Bidder is unwilling to enter into the Stalking Horse Agreement unless the Stalking Horse Bidder is assured the Bid Protection pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement.

[6] As used herein, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order refers to the Final Order (I) Authorizing the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties to Obtain Senior Secured Priming Superpriority Postpetition Financing, (II) Granting Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (IV) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 178].

E. Auction. The Auction, if held, is necessary to determine whether any entity other than the Stalking Horse Bidder is willing to enter into a definitive agreement on terms and conditions more favorable to the Debtors and their estates than the Stalking Horse Agreement.

F. Assumption and Assignment Procedures. The notice of the Debtors' potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3 (the "Assumption Notice"), is reasonably calculated to provide counterparties to the Assumed Contracts with proper notice of the intended assumption and assignment of their Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, any Cure Payment and the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

~~G. Entry of this Bidding Procedures Order is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, their creditors, and all other interested parties.~~

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Motion and the relief requested therein is GRANTED and APPROVED, as set forth herein.

2. All objections that have not been withdrawn, waived, or settled, or not otherwise resolved pursuant to the terms hereof, if any, are hereby DENIED and OVERRULED on the merits with prejudice. All withdrawn objections are deemed withdrawn with prejudice.

3. The following Sale Timeline is hereby approved:

4. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, may extend the deadlines set forth in Bidding Procedures Order or the Bidding Procedures, with notice of such extension being filed with the Court.

[7] For the avoidance of doubt, there are two separate deadlines to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of a potential Assumed Contract: (a) the applicable Cure Objection Deadline, which is the deadline to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of a potential Assumed Contract to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including the Cure Payments related to any assumption and assignment of such potential Assumed Contract and the adequate assurance of future performance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (b) the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline, which only applies in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder and is the deadline to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of a Potential Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of the identity of the Successful Bidder and adequate assurance of future performance.

5. No party may object to the right of the Stalking Horse Bidder to credit bid the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim.

6. The Bidding Procedures attached hereto as Exhibit 1 are hereby approved. The failure to specifically include or reference any particular provision of the Bidding Procedures in the Motion or this Bidding Procedures Order shall not diminish or otherwise impair the effectiveness of such procedures, it being this Court's intent that the Bidding Procedures are approved in their entirety, as if fully set forth in this Bidding Procedures Order. The Debtors are hereby authorized to conduct the Auction, if applicable, pursuant to the terms of the Bidding Procedures and this Bidding Procedures Order.

7. ~~The~~Pursuant to the provisions in the Bidding Procedures, the Debtors shall have the right, in their reasonable discretion, to withhold or limit access to any due diligence information that the Debtors determine is business-sensitive or otherwise not appropriate for disclosure to any potential Bidder. Notwithstanding any prepetition limitations, including, without limitation, any non-disclosure, confidentiality, or similar provisions relating to any due diligence information, the Debtors and their estates shall be authorized to provide due diligence information to Potential Bidders, provided that such potential Bidders have delivered an executed confidentiality agreement in form and substance acceptable to the Debtors. The Debtors and their estates are not responsible for, and shall have no liability with respect to, any information obtained by, or provided to, any potential Bidders in connection with the Bidding Procedures or the Sale Transaction, provided that the information was provided in accordance with this Bidding Procedures Order.

8. For all purposes under the Bidding Procedures: (a) the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be considered a Qualifying Bidder, and the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be considered a Qualifying Bid; (b) the Stalking Horse Bidder is, and will be deemed to be, a Qualifying Bidder for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures, without regard to any of the requirements or conditions set forth herein or the Bidding Procedures and without any other or further action by the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (c) in determining whether any potential Bidders constitute Qualifying Bidders, the Debtors may consider a combination of bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. In the event the Debtors receive a Qualifying Bid other than the Stalking Horse Bid, the Stalking Horse Bid shall be the Successful Bid so long as the Stalking Horse Bid is equal to an amount not less than the highest other Qualifying Bid, if any.

9. The Debtors are authorized to enter into and perform all of their respective pre-closing obligations under the Stalking Horse Agreement; provided that for the avoidance of doubt, approval and consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be subject to the terms and conditions detailed herein and the entry of the Confirmation and Sale Order and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to closing on the terms set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Stalking Horse Agreement and any related agreements, documents, or other instruments may be modified, amended or supplemented by the parties thereto, solely in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court.

10. The Bid Protection is approved in the amount $250,000 and shall be paid to the Stalking Horse Bidder pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 2.1(b) of the Stalking Horse Agreement and other relevant provisions thereof. The Debtors are authorized to incur and pay the Bid Protection without further action or order by the Court. The Bid Protection, to the extent payable under the Stalking Horse Agreement, shall constitute an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim against the Debtors' estates pursuant to sections 105(a), 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code with priority over all other administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, provided that such superpriority administrative expense claim shall be junior to any obligations incurred under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, any superpriority claim granted under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order (whether as adequate protection or otherwise), and any claims senior to the obligations incurred pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any "Carve Out" or similar provision granted pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order). If the Bid Protection becomes payable pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement, such payment shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Stalking Horse Bidder against the Debtors with respect to the Stalking Horse Bid. The Bid Protection shall not be subject to any avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether contractual, equitable, or otherwise), counterclaims, cross-claims, defenses, disallowance, impairment, or any other challenges under any applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

11. Pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be permitted to credit bid the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim.

12. The Bidding Procedures shall apply to any Bidder, the Qualifying Bidders, the submission, receipt, and analysis of all Bids relating to the Sale Transaction, and the conduct of the Sale Transaction and the Auction (if any). The Debtors and their professionals shall direct and preside over the Auction (if any), and the Auction shall be transcribed and shall be conducted openly in person, virtually via telephone, and/or video conference.

13. The Debtors' decision to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, is subject to this Court's approval and the closing of the Sale Transaction. Accordingly, absent this Court's approval and the closing of the Sale Transaction, the Assumed Contracts shall not be deemed assumed or assumed and assigned, and shall in all respects be subject to further administration by the Debtors and their estates under the Bankruptcy Code in connection with these chapter 11 cases.

14. The procedures set forth below regarding the assumption and assignment of the Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases proposed to be assumed by the Debtors pursuant to section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder pursuant to section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code in connection with the Sale Transaction (the "Assumption and Assignment Procedures") are hereby approved to the extent set forth herein.

15. These Assumption and Assignment Procedures shall govern the assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract, subject to the payment of any amounts necessary to cure any defaults arising under any Assumed Contract (the "Cure Payments"):

a) Assumption Notice. No later than ~~seven~~three (~~7~~3) business days following the entry of this Bidding Procedures Order (the "Assumption and Assignment Service Deadline"), the Debtors shall serve the Assumption Notice via first-class mail on all counterparties to all potential Assumed Contracts and provide a copy of the same to the Stalking Horse Bidder, which copy may be provided via email. The Assumption Notice shall inform each recipient of the timing and procedures relating to the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the

Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder upon Court approval of the Sale Transaction, and, to the extent applicable, (i) the Debtors' good-faith estimates of the Cure Payment (if any) required in connection with the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, (ii) whether the potential Assumed Contract is then anticipated to be assumed and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder in connection with the Stalking Horse Agreement; (iii) the deadline to object to the proposed Cure Payments; and (iv) the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline; provided, however, that service of an Assumption Notice does not constitute an admission that any contract is an executory contract or that the stated Cure Payment related to any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease constitutes a claim against the Debtors or a right against the Stalking Horse Bidder (all rights with respect thereto being expressly reserved). Further, the inclusion of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, on the Assumption Notice is not a guarantee that such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, will or will not ultimately be assumed and assigned. For the avoidance of doubt, the inclusion of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease in the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice (as defined below), or any amendment thereto does not constitute a designation by the Stalking Horse Bidder of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease for assumption and assignment under the Stalking Horse Agreement, and the Stalking Horse Bidder will not be deemed to assume or be responsible for any Cure Payment or other liability with respect to such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease unless and until the Court enters an order approving the Sale Transaction to the Stalking Horse Agreement, in which case any such assumption of liabilities shall be (i) only with respect to any Assumed Contracts and (ii) as of the closing date.

b) Cure Payments and Adequate Assurance of Future Performance. The payment of the applicable Cure Payments by the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, shall (i) effect a cure of all defaults existing thereunder and (ii) compensate for any actual pecuniary loss to such counterparty resulting from such default.

c) Additions. The Debtors may also designate additional Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases as agreements to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder (the "Additional Assumed Contracts") until consummation of the Sale Transaction. Following the addition of an Additional Assumed Contract, the Debtors shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter serve an Assumption Notice on each of the counterparties to such Additional Assumed Contracts and their counsel of record, if any, indicating (i) that the Debtors intend to assume and assign the counterparty's Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, and (ii) the corresponding Cure Payment.

d) Eliminations. The Debtors may remove any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder (the "Eliminated Agreements") until consummation of the Sale Transaction. Following the removal of an Eliminated Agreement, the Debtors shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter serve a notice (a "Removal Notice") on each of the impacted counterparties and their counsel of record, if any, indicating that the Debtors no longer intend to assign the counterparty's contract or unexpired lease, as applicable, to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder in connection with the Sale Transaction. For the avoidance of doubt, the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder will not assume any Cure Payment or other liability with respect to any Eliminated Agreement, notwithstanding such agreement's inclusion in the Assumption Notice or any Supplemental Assumption Notice.

e) Supplemental Contract Assumption Notice. Although the Debtors intend to make a good-faith effort to identify all Assumed Contracts that may be assumed and assigned in connection with the Sale Transaction, the Debtors may discover certain Executory

Contracts or Unexpired Leases inadvertently omitted from the Assumed Contracts list or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder may identify other Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that it desires to assume and assign in connection with the Sale Transaction. Accordingly, the Debtors reserve the right, but only in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, at any time before the closing of the Sale Transaction to (i) supplement the list of Assumed Contracts with previously omitted Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, (ii) remove Assumed Contracts from the list of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases ultimately selected as Assumed Contracts that the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder proposes be assumed and assigned to it in connection with the Sale Transaction, or (iii) modify the previously stated Cure Payment associated with any Assumed Contract. In the event the Debtors exercise any of these reserved rights, the Debtors will promptly serve a supplemental notice of contract assumption (a "Supplemental Assumption Notice") on each of the counterparties to such contracts and their counsel of record, if any; provided that the Debtors may not add an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to the list of Assumed Contracts that has been previously rejected by the Debtors by order of the Court. Each Supplemental Assumption Notice will include the same information with respect to listed Assumed Contracts as was included in the Assumption Notice, or in the event of a removal, the information required in a Removal Notice.

f) Objections.[8] Objections, if any, to the Cure Payment or proposed assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the [8] Any objection that includes confidential, non-public Adequate Assurance Information (as defined herein) must be filed under seal unless disclosure of such confidential, non-public information is authorized by the Debtors and the applicable assignee(s). The unredacted versions of such objections shall be served upon the Debtors, the Consultation Party, and the U.S. Trustee; provided further that all rights of all parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases are reserved to oppose the filing under seal of any such information and to seek any other relief from this Court with respect to such matter.

Stalking Horse Bidder, must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection and, if the objection pertains to the proposed amount of the Cure Payment, the correct cure amount alleged by the objecting counterparty, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, and (iv) be filed with the Court and served upon, so as to be actually received by (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (c) any other party that has filed a notice of appearance in these chapter 11 cases, so as to be actually received on or before fourteen (14) days after service (or as reflected by the postmarked date) of the Assumption Notice or three (3) business days after service of the Supplemental Assumption Notice (such date, as applicable, the "Cure Objection Deadline"). In the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, the deadline to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of (x) the identity of the Successful Bidder and (y) adequate assurance of future performance of the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), is the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline (as defined below).[9]

16. The Assumption Notice is: (a) reasonably calculated to (i) provide sufficient, effective notice to all counterparties and any other affected parties of the Debtors' intent to assume and assign to the Stalking Horse Bidder—or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder—some or all of the Assumed

[9] For the avoidance of doubt, all objections to the Cure Payment and assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including objections to the adequate assurance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, must be filed by the applicable Cure Objection Deadline regardless of whether the Stalking Horse Bidder is the Successful Bidder.

Contracts, and (ii) afford the counterparties the opportunity to exercise any rights affected by the Motion and the relief granted by this Bidding Procedures Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(2), 6004 and 6006; and (b) hereby approved.

17. Any party failing to timely file an objection to the proposed Cure Payment, the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract listed on an Assumption Notice or Supplemental Assumption Notice, or the Sale Transaction is deemed to have consented to (a) such Cure Payment, (b) the assumption and assignment of such Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract (including the adequate assurance of future payment), (c) the related relief requested in the Motion, and (d) the Sale Transaction. Such party shall be forever barred and estopped from objecting to the Cure Payment, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, or Additional Assumed Contract, adequate assurance of future performance, the relief requested in the Motion, whether applicable law excuses such counterparty from accepting performance by, or rendering performance to, the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, for purposes of section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and from asserting any additional cure or other amounts against the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then the Successful Bidder, as applicable, with respect to such party's Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract.

18. The Debtors shall have no liability or obligation with respect to defaults relating to the Assumed Contracts arising, accruing, or relating to the period from and after the effective date of assignment.

19. The Confirmation and Sale Notice, the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice, the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, and the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and the objection periods associated with each of the foregoing are reasonably calculated to provide notice to any affected party and afford the affected party the opportunity to exercise any rights affected by the Motion as it relates to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, the Sale Transaction, the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and the assumption and assignment to the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, of the Assumed Contracts pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(2), 6004 and 6006, and such notice and objection periods are hereby approved.

20. The Confirmation and Sale Notice is approved. ~~As soon as reasonably practicable~~Within two (2) business days after entry of this Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors shall serve the Confirmation and Sale Notice by regular mail on ~~served on~~ (a) ~~all~~ ~~parties listed on the notice block of the Motion and (b)~~the office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey, (b) the Debtors Top 30 Unsecured Creditors, (c) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey, (d) the Internal Revenue Service, (e) the Securities and Exchange Commission, (f) the attorneys general in the states where the Debtors conduct their business operations, (g) any parties that have expressed written interest in pursuing a potential transaction in connection with the marketing and bidding process, (h) any known counterparty to a potentially Assumed Contract, and (i) any other party that has requested notice pursuant to Rule 2002.

21. The Debtors shall post the Confirmation and Sale Notice, the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice, and this Bidding Procedures Order on the website of the Debtors' claims and noticing agent. ~~As soon as reasonably practicable~~Within two (2) business days following the entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors shall ~~cause~~submit the Confirmation and Sale Notice ~~to be published~~for publication once in the Newark Star Ledger and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, ~~or~~and any additional similar publication in the prudent exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. Publication of the Confirmation and Sale Notice as described in this Bidding Procedures Order conforms to the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 2002(l) and 9008 and is reasonably calculated to provide notice to any affected party, including any potential Bidders, and afford the affected party the opportunity to exercise any rights affected by the Motion and the relief granted by this Bidding Procedures Order.

22. Any objections to the Sale Transaction under the Plan (a "Confirmation and Sale Objection") must: (1) be in writing; (2) comply with the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules; (3) set forth the specific basis for the Confirmation and Sale Objection; (4) be filed with the Court, on or before 4:00 p.m. (ET) on August 22, 2025 (the "Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline"); (5) be served upon (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) the Successful Bidder, (c) counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, and (d) the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey (collectively, the "Objection Notice Parties"); and (6) proof of service of such Confirmation and Sale Objection upon the Objection Notice Parties shall be filed with the Court as and when required by the Local Rules. If a Confirmation and Sale Objection is not filed and served on or before the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline in accordance with the foregoing requirements, the objecting party may be barred from objecting to the Sale Transaction and being heard at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and this Court may enter the Confirmation and Sale Order without further notice to such party.

~~23. Failure to file a Confirmation and Sale Objection on or before the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline may forever bar the assertion, whether at the Confirmation and~~

~~Sale Hearing or thereafter, of any objection to the Sale Transaction and consummation and performance of the Sale Transaction contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement with a Successful Bidder other than the Stalking Horse Bidder.~~

23. ~~24.~~ As part of its bid, each potential Bidder must provide the Debtors information supporting the potential Bidder's ability to comply with the requirements of adequate assurance of future performance under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Adequate Assurance Information"), including (a) the potential Bidder's financial wherewithal and willingness to perform under any contracts and leases that are assumed and assigned to such potential Bidder; and (b) a contact person for the proposed assignee that the applicable counterparty may directly contact in connection with the adequate assurance of future performance. In the event that a potential Bidder (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) is a newly formed acquisition entity, the financial and other information supporting the potential Bidder's financial wherewithal shall include financial and other information supporting the financial wherewithal of the potential Bidder's parent company or sponsor.

24. ~~25.~~ Any party in receipt of Adequate Assurance Information under this Bidding Procedures Order shall review the Adequate Assurance Information received on a confidential basis and shall not disclose the Adequate Assurance Information except as expressly provided in this Bidding Procedures Order and the Bidding Procedures. No party may use or disclose, except to representatives, attorneys, advisors and financing sources (collectively, "Representatives"), any confidential Adequate Assurance Information for any purpose other than: (a) evaluating whether adequate assurance of future performance as required under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code has been provided; and (b) in support of any objection (subject to the limitations on disclosure set forth herein) by such party relating to adequate assurance of future performance. Any Representative receiving Adequate Assurance Information shall be notified and shall agree to be bound by the restrictions set forth in this Bidding Procedures Order.

25. ~~26.~~ If no timely Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Agreement are submitted on or before the Bid Deadline, the Debtors shall not hold an Auction and shall request at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing that this Court approve the Stalking Horse Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder. If the Debtors timely receive one or more Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Agreement, then the Debtors shall conduct the Auction on Tuesday, August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time), at the offices of White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020 or virtually via telephone and/or video conference pursuant to information to be timely provided by the Debtors to the Auction Participants (as defined below). Except as otherwise determined by the Debtors, only (i) the Debtors, (ii) any Qualifying Bidder, (iii) the U.S. Trustee, (iv) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, (v) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, and (vi) any other creditor of the Debtors that delivers to Debtors' counsel a written request to attend the Auction (by email to barrett.lingle@whitecase.com) no later than 24 hours prior to the commencement of the Auction, in each case, along with their respective representatives and counsel, may attend the Auction (collectively, the "Auction Participants"); provided that the Debtors may, in their sole discretion, establish a reasonable limit on the number of advisors that may appear on behalf of each party. Only Qualifying Bidders will be entitled to make any bids at the Auction.

26. ~~27.~~ Following the Auction (if any), on August 19, 2025, the Debtors will file with the Court a notice (the "Notice of Successful Bidder") that will identify, among other things, the Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder.

27. ~~28.~~ The Confirmation and Sale Hearing shall be held in this Court on September 4, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (ET), unless otherwise determined by this Court. The Confirmation and Sale Hearing may be adjourned by the Debtors from time to time without further notice to creditors or other parties in interest other than by announcement of the adjournment in open court on the date scheduled for the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, or by filing a hearing agenda or notice on the docket of these chapter 11 cases.

28. ~~29.~~ All persons and entities that participate in the Auction or bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property during the sale process shall be deemed to have knowingly and voluntarily (i) consented to the core jurisdiction of the Court to enter any order related to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or any other relief requested in the Motion or granted in this Bidding Procedures Order; (ii) waived any right to a jury trial in connection with any disputes relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or any other relief requested in the Motion or granted in this Bidding Procedures Order; and (iii) consented to the entry of a final order or judgment in connection with any disputes relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or any other relief requested in the Motion or granted in this Bidding Procedures Order, if it is determined that the Court would lack Article III jurisdiction to enter such a final order or judgment absent the consent of the relevant parties.

29. ~~30.~~ Nothing in this Bidding Procedures Order, the Stalking Horse Agreement, or the Motion shall be deemed to or constitute the assumption or assignment of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

30. ~~31.~~ In the event that there is a conflict between this Bidding Procedures Order or the Bidding Procedures, on the one hand, and the Motion, the Stalking Horse Agreement, on the other hand, this Bidding Procedures Order and the Bidding Procedures shall control and govern. If there is a conflict between this Bidding Procedures Order and the Bidding Procedures, this Bidding Procedures Order shall control and govern. If there is a conflict between this Bidding Procedures Order or the Bidding Procedures, on the one hand, and any notice served in connection with the Motion or this Bidding Procedures Order, on the other hand, this Bidding Procedures Order and the Bidding Procedures shall control and govern.

31. ~~32.~~ Prior to mailing the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice, and the Confirmation and Sale Notice, the Debtors may fill in, or cause to be filled in, any missing dates and other information, correct any typographical errors, conform the provisions thereof to the provisions of this Bidding Procedures Order, and make such other, non-material changes as the Debtors deem necessary or appropriate.

32. ~~33.~~ This Bidding Procedures Order shall be effective immediately upon entry, and any stay of orders provided for in Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) or 6006(d) or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules or the Local Rules is expressly waived. The Debtors are not subject to any stay in the implementation, enforcement or realization of the relief granted in this Bidding Procedures Order, and may, in its sole discretion and without further delay, take any action and perform any act authorized or approved under this Bidding Procedures Order.

33. ~~34.~~ The requirements set forth in Local Rules 6004-1, 6004-2, and 90013-2 are hereby satisfied or waived.

34. ~~35.~~ The Debtors are authorized to take all steps necessary or appropriate to implement the relief granted in this Bidding Procedures Order.

35. ~~36.~~ Any relief granted to the Debtors pursuant to this Bidding Procedures Order shall mean the Debtors, acting at the direction of the Independent Fiduciary.

36. ~~37.~~ This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation or interpretation of this Bidding Procedures Order, including any matter, claim or dispute arising from or relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Bid Protection, the Assumption and Assignment Procedures, and the implementation of this Bidding Procedures Order.

1. Consultation Party

As appropriate throughout the sale process, the Debtors and their advisors will consult with counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes (the "Ad Hoc Group" or the "Consultation Party"). Neither the Debtors nor their representatives shall be obligated to furnish any information of any kind relating to the Kelly Hamilton Property to any party that is not a Potential Bidder (defined below) or a Consultation Party.

Nothing herein or contemplated hereby constitutes or will be deemed to constitute or otherwise result in the consent or approval of any Consultation Party to the sale, sale order, or to any agreement or motion or other pleading related thereto, or the waiver or modification of any of the terms of, or any rights under, any existing agreement, instrument or document. Any and all rights or such parties to object or otherwise oppose any sale, sale order, bid, or any agreement or pleading related thereto are hereby expressly preserved and reserved.

2. Stalking Horse Bidder

[3] For the avoidance of doubt, there are two separate deadlines to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of a potential Assumed Contract: (a) the applicable Cure Objection Deadline, which is the deadline to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of a potential Assumed Contract to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including the Cure Payments related to any assumption and assignment of such potential Assumed Contract and the adequate assurance of future performance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (b) the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline, which only applies in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder and is the deadline to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of a Potential Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of the identity of the Successful Bidder and adequate assurance of future performance.

On July 11, 2025, the Debtors entered into the Stalking Horse Agreement with the Stalking Horse Bidder. As set forth more fully in the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Stalking Horse Bidder is (i) credit bidding the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations (as defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement) and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, (ii) assuming certain liabilities and certain executory contracts and unexpired leases of the Debtors, (iii) satisfying cure costs, and (iv) providing a cash payment if required under the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement (collectively, the "Stalking Horse Bid"). The Stalking Horse Agreement also includes various customary representations, warranties, and covenants by and from the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder, and certain conditions to closing and rights of termination.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Stalking Horse Bidder is deemed to be a Qualifying Bidder (as defined below), and the Stalking Horse Bid (including as it may be modified at the Auction (if any) in accordance with the terms therein and herein) is deemed to be a Qualifying Bid(as defined below). The Stalking Horse Bidder is credit bidding pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(k) and thus is not required to make a Deposit (as defined below) with the Debtors. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall have the unqualified right at any time to credit bid on a dollar-for-dollar basis up to the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim.

3. Assets to be Sold

The Debtors shall offer for sale the Kelly Hamilton Property, provided that the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, determine that the aggregate consideration offered by any bid, or combination of bids, for the Kelly Hamilton Property, satisfies the requirements set forth in these Bidding Procedures. Potential Bidders (as defined herein) may bid on the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Debtors propose to consummate the proposed Sale Transaction pursuant to a chapter 11 plan, subject to Court approval.

4. Participation Requirements

Any interested party that wishes to participate in the bidding process for the Kelly Hamilton Property other than in the case of the Stalking Horse Bidder (each, an "Interested Bidder") must first become a potential bidder (a "Potential Bidder"). To become a Potential Bidder, an Interested Bidder must submit to (a) counsel to the Debtors, (i) White & Case LLP, 111 South Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60606 (Attn: Gregory F. Pesce (gregory.pesce@whitecase.com)) and (ii) White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020 (Attn: Barrett Lingle (barrett.lingle@whitecase.com), and (ii) co-counsel to the Debtors, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, 80 Central Park West, New York, New York 10023 (Attn: Kenneth A. Rosen (ken@kenrosenadvisors.com)), and (b) the Debtors' proposed financial advisors, IslandDundon LLC, 10 Bank Street, Suite 1100, White Plains, NY 10606 (Attn: Tabish Rizvi (tr@dundon.com) and Steven Landgraber (slandgraber@islecap.com)) (collectively, the "Debtors' Advisors") the following documents (collectively, the "Preliminary Bid Documents") via email:

(a) documentation identifying the Interested Bidder, its principals, and the representatives thereof who are authorized to appear and act on their behalf for all purposes regarding the contemplated transaction, including the Auction, if any;

(b) an executed confidentiality agreement ("Confidentiality Agreement") in form and substance satisfactory to the Debtors;

(c) a statement and other factual support demonstrating to the Debtors' reasonable satisfaction, after consultation with the Consultation Party, that the Interested Bidder has a bona fide interest in consummating the Sale Transaction; and

(d) sufficient information, as determined by the Debtors, after consultation with the Consultation Party, to allow the Debtors to determine that the Interested Bidder (x) has, or can obtain, the financial wherewithal and any required internal corporate, legal, or other authorizations to close the Sale Transaction, including, but not limited to, current audited financial statements of the Interested Bidder (or such other form of financial disclosure acceptable to the Debtors in their discretion), and (y) can provide adequate assurance of future performance under any Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, in connection with the Sale Transaction, pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, in connection with the Sale Transaction.[4]

Each Interested Bidder shall comply with all reasonable requests for information and due diligence access by the Debtors or their advisors regarding the ability of such Interested Bidder to consummate its contemplated transaction. The Debtors reserve the right to work with any Interested Bidder to cure any deficiencies in the Preliminary Bid Documents or waive any of the foregoing requirements in the Debtors' reasonable business judgment, in consultation with the Consultation Party. The Debtors reserve all rights to determine in their business judgment whether a party that has submitted Preliminary Bid Documents shall be deemed a Potential Bidder.

5. Bankruptcy Court Jurisdiction

Any Interested Bidders, Potential Bidders, and Qualifying Bidders (as defined herein) shall: (a) be deemed to have waived any right to a jury trial in connection with, and consented and submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court over, any actions or proceedings arising from or relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Sale Transaction, the Auction, and the construction and enforcement of the contemplated transaction documents of such parties; (b) be deemed to have waived any right to bring any such action or proceeding in the Court; and (c) be deemed to have consented to (i) the Court entering a final order or judgment determining any such action or proceeding and (ii) such final order or judgment in any such action or proceeding, including all appeals, being conclusive and enforceable in other jurisdictions (including any foreign jurisdictions) by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable law.

6. Due Diligence

The Debtors will provide Potential Bidders with reasonable access to a data room and any other additional information that the Debtors believe to be reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances. All due diligence requests shall be directed to the Debtors' Advisors via email at the email address(es) noted above.

The due diligence period shall extend through and include the Bid Deadline. The Debtors, in their business judgment, may, but shall not be obligated to, furnish any due diligence information after the Bid Deadline.

The Debtors reserve the right, in their reasonable discretion, to withhold or limit access to any due diligence information that the Debtors determine is not appropriate for disclosure to a Potential Bidder (including its affiliates and any related persons) at any time and for any reason, including, without limitation, if (a) any due diligence information is determined to be business sensitive, proprietary, or otherwise not appropriate for disclosure to a Potential Bidder by the Debtors, including, but not limited to, Potential Bidders who are customers or competitors of the Debtors or affiliates thereof, and other industry participants, (b) the Potential Bidder does not become, or the Debtors determine that the Potential Bidder is not likely to become, a Qualifying Bidder (as defined below), (c) the Potential Bidder violates the terms of its Confidentiality Agreement, (d) the Debtors become aware that the information set forth on the Potential Bidder's Preliminary Bid Documents is inaccurate or misleading or of any other reason to doubt such Potential Bidder's ability to close its contemplated transaction, (e) the Potential Bidder (including its affiliates and any related persons) uses information obtained from the data room or the diligence process in connection with, or related to, any litigation or other legal action related to any Debtor, any current or former directors and officers of the Debtors, the Debtors' non-Debtor affiliates, or the Debtors' primary creditors as identified by the Debtors, (f) such disclosure would jeopardize protections afforded any Debtor or primary creditor as identified by the Debtors under the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work product doctrine, or (g) the bidding process is terminated in accordance with its terms. Notwithstanding any prepetition limitations, including, without limitation, any non-disclosure, confidentiality, or similar provisions relating to any due diligence information, the Debtors and their estates shall be authorized to provide due diligence information to Potential Bidders; provided that such Potential Bidders have delivered an executed Confidentiality Agreement in form and substance acceptable to the Debtors. Subject to the terms and conditions of each Confidentiality Agreement, the Debtors and their estates are not responsible for, and shall have no liability with respect to, any information obtained by, or provided to, any Potential Bidders in connection with the Bidding Procedures and the Sale Transaction.

7. Bid Requirements

Other than in the case of the Stalking Horse Bidder and the Stalking Horse Agreement, which shall be considered a Qualifying Bidder and a Qualifying Bid (each as defined below), respectively, for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures, without any regard to any of the requirements or conditions set forth therein and without any other or further action by the Stalking Horse Bidder, to be deemed a "Qualifying Bid," a bid must be received by the Debtors' Advisors from a Potential Bidder before the Bid Deadline and satisfy each of the following requirements (each, a "Bid Requirement"):

(a) be in writing;

(b) include a clean and duly executed asset purchase agreement, including the exhibits, schedules, and ancillary agreements related thereto (an "Alternative APA") and a marked copy of the Alternative APA showing any variations from the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Alternative APA must (i) provide cash payment that is not less than the sum of (a) the DIP Facility Obligations, (b) the Bid Protection, (c) the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, (d) an amount that is equal to 5% of the aforementioned amounts and (e), any cash necessary to satisfy Senior Claims in full, to the extent such Senior Claims are not assumed in full by the Potential Bidder, (ii) consummate the transactions contemplated in the Alternative APA through the Plan, and (iii) include a commitment to close by no later than ten (10) business days following entry of the Confirmation and Sale Order. The executed copy of the Alternative APA must effective upon the Debtors' countersignature. The terms and conditions of the Alternative APA must be, in the aggregate, not materially more burdensome or adverse to the Debtors than the provisions contained in the Stalking Horse Agreement;

(c) fully disclose the identity of the Potential Bidder (and to the extent that the Potential Bidder is a newly formed acquisition entity or the like, the identity of the Potential Bidder's parent company or sponsor), and provide the contact information of the specific person(s) whom the Debtors or their advisors should contact in the event that the Debtors have any questions or wish to discuss the bid submitted by the Potential Bidder;

(d) set forth the purchase price to be paid by such Potential Bidder, which purchase price shall include an aggregate amount of cash sufficient to pay in full at closing, an amount that is not less than the sum of (a) the DIP Facility Obligations, (b) the Bid Protection, (c) the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, and (d) an amount that is equal to 5% of the aforementioned amounts in full at closing;

(e) identify separately any cash and non-cash components, which non-cash components shall be limited only to credit bids in accordance with section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code and assumed liabilities;

(f) state the liabilities proposed to be paid or assumed by such Potential Bidder;

(g) state that such Potential Bidder offers to (i) purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property and (ii) assume liabilities (including the Cure Payments), upon substantially the same terms as, or terms more favorable to the Debtors and their estate than, the terms set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement;

(h) state that such Potential Bidder's offer is formal, binding and unconditional, and is irrevocable until two (2) business days after the closing of the Sale Transaction;

(i) to the extent that a bid is not accompanied by evidence of a Potential Bidder's capacity to consummate the applicable Sale Transaction with cash on hand, the bid must include unconditional committed financing from a reputable financing institution, documented to the satisfaction of the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, including appropriate contact information for such financing sources, that demonstrates that the Potential Bidder has: (i) received sufficient debt and/or equity funding commitments to satisfy the Potential Bidder's purchase price and other obligations under its bid; and (ii) adequate working capital financing or resources to finance going concern operations for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Such funding commitments or other financing must be unconditional and must not be subject to any internal approvals, syndication requirements, diligence, or credit committee approvals, and shall have covenants and conditions reasonably acceptable to the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party;

(j) contain such financial and other information to allow the Debtors to make a reasonable determination, after consultation with the Consultation Party, as to the Potential Bidder's financial and other capabilities to close the transactions contemplated by the applicable Alternative APA, including, without limitation, such financial and other information supporting the Potential Bidder's ability to comply with the requirements of adequate assurance of future performance under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, including the Potential Bidder's financial wherewithal and willingness to perform under any contracts and leases that are assumed and assigned to the Potential Bidder, in a form that allows the Debtors to serve such information on any counterparties to such contracts or leases in connection with the Sale Transaction within one (1) business day after the Debtors' receipt of such information. To the extent that the Potential Bidder (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) is a newly formed acquisition entity or the like, the financial and other information supporting the Potential Bidder's financial wherewithal shall include financial and other information supporting the financial wherewithal of the Potential Bidder's parent company or sponsor;

(k) identify with particularity each and every Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease, the assumption and assignment of which is a condition to close the transactions contemplated by the Alternative APA;

(l) include closing conditions that are no less favorable to the Debtors than the closing conditions contained in the Stalking Horse Agreement (and specify such closing conditions in the applicable Alternative APA);

(m) include a statement that the bid does not request or entitle such Potential Bidder to any break-up fee, termination fee, expense reimbursement, or similar type of payment or reimbursement;

(n) not contain any contingencies of any kind, including, without limitation, contingencies related to financing, internal approval, or due diligence;

(o) contain a written acknowledgement and representation that the Potential Bidder (i) has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Kelly Hamilton Property, (ii) has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation or inspection of any documents and other information in making its bid, and (iii) did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties or guaranties whatsoever, whether express, implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Kelly Hamilton Property, or the completeness of any documents or other information provided in connection with the Bidding Procedures and the Sale Transaction;

(p) set forth any regulatory and third-party approvals required for the Potential Bidder to close the transactions contemplated by the Alternative APA, and the time period within which the Potential Bidder expects to receive such regulatory and third-party approvals (and in the case that receipt of any such regulatory or third-party approval is expected to take more than five (5) days following execution and delivery of such Potential Bidder's Alternative APA, those actions the bidder will take to ensure receipt of such approval(s) as promptly as possible); provided, however, that a Potential Bidder agrees that its legal counsel will coordinate in good faith with the Debtors' legal counsel to discuss and explain the Potential Bidder's regulatory analysis, strategy, and timeline for securing all such approvals as soon as reasonably practicable, and in no event later than the time period contemplated in the Alternative APA;

(q) provide for a binding commitment of the Potential Bidder to serve as a backup bidder (the "Back-Up Bidder") if the Potential Bidder's bid is the next highest or otherwise next best bid (the "Back-Up Bid") after the Successful Bid;

(r) include written evidence of authorization and approval from the Potential Bidder's board of directors (or comparable governing body) with respect to the submission, execution, and delivery of the Alternative APA;

(s) provide a good faith cash deposit (the "Deposit") in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the aggregate purchase price provided for in the Alternative APA (or such additional amount as may be determined by the Debtors in their reasonable discretion);

(t) state or otherwise estimate the types of, and costs or charges for, transition services, if any, the Potential Bidder would require of or provide to the Debtors, including an estimate of the time any such transition services would be required of or provided to the Debtors; and

(u) provide that in the event of the Potential Bidder's breach of, or failure to perform under, the Alternative APA, the Debtors and their estates shall be entitled to pursue all available legal and equitable remedies, including, without limitation, retention of the Deposit as part of the damages resulting to the Debtors and their estates for such breach or failure to perform.

A bid from a Potential Bidder satisfying all of the above requirements, as determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, shall constitute a Qualifying Bid. The Debtors reserve the right, in their business judgment and in consultation with the Consultation Party, to waive any of the Bid Requirements or work with any Potential Bidder in advance of the Auction to cure any deficiencies in a bid that is not initially deemed a Qualifying Bid.

Each Potential Bidder submitting a bid shall be deemed to: (a) acknowledge and represent that it is bound by all of the terms and conditions of the Bidding Procedures; and (b) have waived the right to pursue a substantial contribution claim under section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code related in any way to the submission of its bid, the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or the Sale Transaction.

In the event a Bid is submitted, the Debtors shall provide copies of all Bid materials to counsel to the Consultation Party, provided, however, that the Debtors shall have no obligation to provide Bid materials to counsel to the Consultation Party (i) once such party, or an affiliate thereof, has submitted a Bid and (ii) for so long as such Bid remains open.

8. Bid Deadline

A Potential Bidder, other than the Stalking Horse Bidder, that desires to make a bid shall deliver a written and electronic copy of its bid in both PDF and MS-WORD format to the Debtors' Advisors so as to be received on or before August 14, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) (the "Bid Deadline"); provided that the Debtors may extend the Bid Deadline without further order of the Court, after consultation with the Consultation Party. To the extent that the Bid Deadline is extended for all parties, the Debtors shall file a notice on the docket of their chapter 11 cases indicating the same. Any party that does not submit a bid by the Bid Deadline will not be allowed to (a) submit any bids after the Bid Deadline or (b) participate in the Auction.

9. Evaluation of Qualifying Bids

The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, shall make a determination regarding whether a timely submitted bid from a Potential Bidder is a Qualifying Bid.

No later than August 15, 2025, the Debtors shall: (i) notify all Potential Bidders whether their respective bids have been determined to be Qualifying Bids and those Potential Bidders that have submitted Qualifying Bids will be considered to be qualifying bidders (the "Qualifying Bidders") and (ii) determine, in consultation with the Consultation Party, which of the Qualifying Bids, at such time, is the highest or best Qualifying Bid for purposes of constituting the opening bid of the Auction (the "Baseline Bid").

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, and for the avoidance of doubt, for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures: (i) the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be considered a Qualifying Bidder, and the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be considered a Qualifying Bid, for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures, without regard to any of the requirements or conditions set forth therein and without any other or further action by the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (ii) in determining whether the Potential Bidders constitute Qualifying Bidders, the Debtors may consider a combination of bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. As set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order, in the event one or more Qualifying Bids are submitted in advance of the Auction, the Stalking Horse Bid shall be the Successful Bid so long as the Stalking Horse Bid is equal to an amount not less than the highest other Qualifying Bid, if any

10. No Qualifying Bids

If no timely Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Bid are submitted on or before the Bid Deadline, the Debtors shall not hold an Auction and shall request at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing that the Court approve the sale to the Stalking Horse Bidder on the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and the transaction contemplated thereunder.

11. Auction

If the Debtors timely receive one or more Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Bid, then the Debtors shall conduct an auction (the "Auction"). Following the Auction, the Debtors will determine, in consultation with the Consultation Party, which Qualifying Bid or combination of Qualifying Bids is the highest or otherwise best bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property, which will be determined by considering, among other things, the following non-binding factors: (a) the number, type and nature of any changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement requested by each Qualifying Bidder; (b) the extent to which such modifications are likely to delay closing of the Sale Transaction and the cost to the Debtors and their estates of such modifications or delay; (c) the total consideration to be received by the Debtors and their estates; (d) the transaction structure and execution risk, including conditions to, timing of and certainty of closing, termination provisions, availability of financing and financial wherewithal to meet all commitments, and required governmental or other approval; (e) the net benefit to the Debtors' estates; (f) the certainty of the Debtors being able to confirm a chapter 11 plan; and (g) any other factors the Debtors may reasonably deem relevant in their business judgment.

Bidders and their representatives may not communicate or coordinate with one another for purposes of submitting a Bid or Bids or participating in the Auction without the prior consent of the Debtors. All parties are prohibited from (i) engaging in any collusion with respect to the bidding or sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property described herein or (ii) taking any other action to prevent a transparent and competitive auction process.

The Auction shall be governed by the following procedures:

(a) the Auction shall be held on August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (ET) or such other date as may be determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party (which information will be timely provided by the Debtors to the Auction Participants (as defined below)) at the offices of White & Case LLP, White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020, or virtually via telephone or video conference;

(b) only the Stalking Horse Bidder and the other Qualifying Bidders (together, the "Auction Bidders") shall be entitled to make any subsequent bids at the Auction;

(c) the Auction Bidders shall appear at the Auction themselves, or through a duly authorized representative;

(d) Only (i) the Debtors, (ii) any Qualifying Bidder, (iii) the U.S. Trustee, (iv) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, (v) the Ad Hoc Group, and (vi) in the Debtors' discretion, any other creditor of the Debtors that delivers to Debtors' counsel a written request to attend the Auction (by email to barrett.lingle@whitecase.com) no later than 24 hours prior to the commencement of the Auction, in each case, along with their respective representatives and counsel, may attend the Auction (collectively, the "Auction Participants"); provided that the Debtors may establish a reasonable limit on the number of advisors that may appear on behalf of each party;

(e) the Debtors and their professional advisors shall direct and preside over the Auction, which shall be transcribed;

(f) prior to the start of the Auction, each of the Auction Bidders shall confirm that they have not engaged in any collusion with respect to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction or the Sale Transaction;

(g) the Auction shall be conducted in an open format (and not by way of sealed bids);

(h) the Auction Bidders may submit successive bids (each, an "Overbid") in increments of at least $250,000.00, provided that: (i) each such Overbid must be a Qualifying Bid; and (ii) the Debtors shall retain the right to modify the bid increment requirements at the Auction following consultation with the Consultation Party;

(i) the Auction may include individual negotiations with any of the Auction Bidders, but all bids shall be made on the record and in the presence of all of the Auction Bidders;

(j) all material terms of the bid that is deemed to be the highest or otherwise best bid, if applicable, for each round of bidding shall be fully disclosed to the Auction Bidders, and the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to clarify any and all questions that the Auction Bidders may have regarding Debtors' announcement of the then-current highest or otherwise best bid;

(k) except as specifically set forth herein, for the purpose of evaluating the value of the purchase price provided by each successive bid (including any successive bid by the Stalking Horse Bidder), the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, may give effect to any additional liabilities to be assumed by a Qualifying Bidder, and any additional costs which may be imposed on the Debtors;

(l) each Auction Bidder shall (i) be deemed to have waived any right to a jury trial in connection with, and consented and submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court over, any actions or proceedings arising from or relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Sale Transaction, the Auction and the construction and enforcement of the contemplated transaction documents of the Auction Bidders, (ii) be deemed to have waived any right to bring any such action or proceeding relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or the Sale Transaction in the Court, and (iii) be deemed to have consented to (a) the Court entering a final order or judgment determining in any such action or proceeding and (b) a final order or judgment in any such action or proceeding, including all appeals, being conclusive and enforceable in other jurisdictions (including any foreign jurisdictions) by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable law;

(m) throughout the Auction, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall have the continuing right to credit bid an amount equal to the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property;

(n) the Auction Bidders shall have the right to make additional modifications to the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable, in conjunction with each Qualifying Bid submitted in each round of bidding during the Auction, provided that (i) any such modifications on an aggregate basis and viewed in whole, shall not, in the Debtors' discretion, in consultation with the Consultation Party, be less favorable to the Debtors and their estates than the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement, and (ii) each Qualifying Bid shall constitute an irrevocable offer and shall be binding on the Auction Bidder submitting such bid until such Auction Bidder shall have submitted a subsequent Qualifying Bid at the Auction, unless such bid is selected as the Successful Bid, which shall remain binding as provided for herein;

(o) the Debtors and the Consultation Party shall have the right to request any additional financial information that will allow the Debtors and the Consultation Party to make a reasonable determination as to an Auction Bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable, as may be amended during the Auction, and any further information that the Debtors may believe is reasonably necessary to clarify and evaluate any bid made by an Auction Bidder during the Auction;

(p) upon the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtors shall determine, in consultation with the Consultation Party, and subject to Court approval, the offer that is the highest or otherwise best from among the Qualifying Bids submitted at the Auction (the "Successful Bid"). In making this decision, the Debtors shall consider, in consultation with the Consultation Party, the amount of the purchase price, the assumption of liabilities, the likelihood of the bidder's ability to close the proposed transaction and the timing thereof, the number, type and nature of any changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement or the applicable Alternative APA, as applicable, requested by each bidder, and the net benefit to the Debtors' estates. The bidder(s) submitting such Successful Bid at the Auction shall become the "Successful Bidder," and shall have such rights and responsibilities of the purchaser as set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable. The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, shall designate a Back-Up Bid (and the corresponding Back-Up Bidder) to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property (or any subset thereof, if applicable) in the event that the Successful Bidder does not close the sale;

(q) on August 19, 2025, the Debtors will file with the Court a notice setting forth the results of the Auction (the "Notice of Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder"), which will (a) identify the Successful Bidder and the Back-Up Bidder with respect to the Kelly Hamilton Property; (b) include a copy of the Successful Bid(s) and the Back-Up Bid(s) or a summary of the material terms of such bids; and (c) set forth the date, time, and location of the Confirmation and Sale Hearing and any other relevant dates or other information necessary to reasonably apprise parties of the outcome of the Auction;

(r) within one (1) business day of the close of the Auction, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, the Successful Bidder shall supplement the Successful Bidder's Deposit such that the Deposit shall be equal to an amount that is ten (10%) percent of the Successful Bid; and

(s) prior to the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, the Successful Bidder(s) shall complete and execute all agreements, contracts, instruments, and other documents evidencing and containing the terms and conditions upon which the Successful Bid was made.

THE SUCCESSFUL BID AND ANY BACK-UP BID AND THEIR RELATED PURCHASE AGREEMENTS SHALL CONSTITUTE AN IRREVOCABLE OFFER AND BE BINDING ON THE SUCCESSFUL BIDDER(S) AND THE BACK-UP BIDDER(S), RESPECTIVELY, FROM THE TIME THE APPLICABLE BID IS SUBMITTED UNTIL TWO (2) BUSINESS DAYS AFTER THE SALE TRANSACTION WITH RESPECT TO THE KELLY HAMILTON PROPERTY HAS CLOSED. EACH QUALIFYING BID THAT IS NOT THE SUCCESSFUL BID OR THE BACK-UP BID SHALL BE DEEMED WITHDRAWN AND TERMINATED AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE CONFIRMATION AND SALE HEARING.

12. Confirmation and Sale Hearing

The Successful Bid and any Back-Up Bid (or if no Qualifying Bid other than that of the Stalking Horse Bidder is received, then the Stalking Horse Agreement, which will be deemed to be the Successful Bid) will be subject to approval by the Court. The Confirmation and Sale Hearing to approve the Successful Bid and any Back-Up Bid (or if no Qualifying Bid other than that of the Stalking Horse Bidder is received, then the Stalking Horse Agreement) shall take place on September 4, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Confirmation and Sale Hearing may be adjourned by the Debtors from time to time without further notice to creditors or other parties in interest other than by announcement of the adjournment in open court or by filing a hearing agenda or notice on the docket of these chapter 11 cases.

At the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, the Debtors will seek entry of their forthcoming Confirmation and Sale Order that, among other things: (i) confirms the Debtors' proposed chapter 11 plan, (ii) authorizes and approves the Sale Transaction to the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or Alternative APA submitted by the Successful Bidder, as applicable, free and clear of all liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances, except certain permitted encumbrances and assumed liabilities as determined by the Debtors and any Successful Bidder; (iii) finds that the Stalking Horse Bidder or Successful Bidder, as applicable, is a good faith purchaser pursuant to section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (iv) authorizes the assumption and assignment of certain Assumed Contracts in connection with the Sale Transaction.

Any party who fails to file an objection to the Sale Transaction with the Court and serve it upon the parties specified in the Bidding Procedures Order on or before August 22, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (ET) will be forever barred from asserting, at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing or thereafter, any objection to the consummation of the applicable Sale Transaction and any related relief requested by the Debtors.

13. Back-Up Bidder

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, in the event that a Sale Transaction to the applicable Successful Bidder is terminated or fails to close by the outside date identified in the Successful Bid (or such date as may be extended by the Debtors in consultation with the Consultation Party), the applicable Back-Up Bid will be deemed to be the Successful Bid with respect to the Kelly Hamilton Property, the applicable Back-Up Bidder will be deemed to be the applicable Successful Bidder, and the Debtors shall be authorized to close the Sale Transaction for the Kelly Hamilton Property to such Back-Up Bidder on the terms of its Back-Up Bid without the need for further order of the Court and without the need for further notice to any interested parties.

14. Return of Deposits

All Deposits shall be returned to the bidders not selected by the Debtors as the Successful Bidder or Back-Up Bidder no later than five (5) business days following the closing of the Sale Transaction. The deposit of the Successful Bidder or, if the Sale Transaction is closed with the Back-Up Bidder, the deposit of the Back-Up Bidder, shall be applied to the purchase price at the closing of the Sale Transaction. If the Successful Bidder (or, if the Sale Transaction is to be closed with the Back-Up Bidder, then the Back-Up Bidder) fails to consummate the Sale Transaction because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such bidder, then, subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable, the Debtors and their estates shall be entitled to retain the Deposit of the Successful Bidder (or, if the Sale Transaction is to be closed with the Back-Up Bidder, then the Back-Up Bidder) as part of the damages to the Debtors and their estates for such breach or failure to perform. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors' retention of a Deposit shall not constitute a waiver or limitation of any of the Debtors' legal or equitable rights relating to a Successful Bidder's or Back-Up Bidder's breach or failure to perform, and all such rights and remedies are preserved.

15. No-Shop or No-Solicitation Provisions

The Bidding Procedures Order and Bidding Procedures do not limit the Debtors' ability or right to solicit higher or otherwise better bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Motion, the Bidding Procedures, and the Bidding Procedures Order call for a fair and open bidding and auction process.

16. Consultation Rights

For the avoidance of doubt, any consultation rights provided to the Consultation Party by these Bidding Procedures shall not limit the Debtors' discretion in any way and shall not include the right to veto any decision made by the Debtors in the exercise of their business judgment.

17. Sale Is As Is / Where Is

Except as may be set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, the Kelly Hamilton Property sold pursuant to the Bidding Procedures shall be conveyed at the closing in its then-present condition, "AS IS, WITH ALL FAULTS, AND WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED."

18. Reservation of Rights and Fiduciary Out

The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, reserve their rights to, and approval of the Bidding Procedures shall not in any way affect the Debtors' rights to: (i) determine whether a Bid is a Qualifying Bid; (ii) determine which Bid at the Auction is the highest or otherwise best Bid; (iii) reject any Bid that is (a) inadequate or insufficient, (b) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bidding Procedures or the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, or (c) contrary to the best interests of the Debtors and their estates; (iv) waive terms and conditions set forth herein with respect to all Bidders; (v) impose additional terms and conditions at the Auction with respect to all Bidders; (vi) extend the deadlines set forth herein (including the date, time, or location of the Auction and/or the Bid Deadline); (vii) continue or cancel the Auction by filing a notice or in open court without further notice; and (viii) modify the Bidding Procedures, if necessary, and implement additional procedural rules that the Debtors determine, in their business judgment, and after consultation with the Consultation Party, will better promote the goals of the bidding process and discharge their fiduciary duties and are not inconsistent with any Court order.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bidding Procedures, nothing in the Bidding Procedures or the Order shall require a Debtor (including the Independent Fiduciary, board of directors, board of managers, or similar governing body of a Debtor), after consulting with counsel, to take any action or to refrain from taking any action, with respect to the Bidding Procedures or otherwise related to any potential transaction, to the extent taking or failing to take such action is required to comply or would be inconsistent with applicable law or the Debtors' fiduciary obligations, if any, under applicable law.

Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bidding Procedures, nothing in the Bidding Procedures or the Order shall diminish the right of the Debtors and their respective directors, officers, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, consultants, and other advisors or representatives to: (a) consider, respond to, and facilitate alternate proposals for other restructuring transactions involving any or all of the Debtors' assets (an "Alternate Proposal"); (b) provide access to non-public information concerning the Debtors to any entity or enter into confidentiality agreements or nondisclosure agreements with any entity; (c) maintain or continue discussions or negotiations with respect to any Alternate Proposals; (d) otherwise cooperate with, assist, participate in, or facilitate any inquiries, proposals, discussions, or negotiation of any Alternate Proposals; and (e) enter into or continue discussions or negotiations with holders of claims against or equity interests in a Debtor or any other party in interest in these chapter 11 cases, or any other entity regarding any Alternate Proposals.

EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES OF THE DEBTORS

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT:

The above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (the "Debtors") each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code"), on May 19, 2025, in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Bankruptcy Court"). You are receiving this Notice because you or one of your affiliates may be a party to an Assumed Contract that may be assumed and assigned in connection with the Sale Transaction.

If the Debtors assume and assign to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, an Assumed Contract to which you are a party, on the closing date of the Sale Transaction, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, will pay you the amount the Debtors' records reflect is owing to you for prepetition arrearages as set forth on Schedule A attached hereto (the "Cure Payment"). The Debtors' records reflect that all postpetition amounts owing under your Assumed Contract have been paid and will continue to be paid until the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, and that other than the Cure Payment, there are no other defaults under the Assumed Contract.

The Debtors' inclusion of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as an Assumed Contract on Schedule A is not a guarantee that such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease will ultimately be assumed and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder. Should it be determined that an Assumed Contract will not be assumed and assigned, the Debtors shall notify such party to the Assumed Contract in writing of such decision.

Under the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors may modify the list of Assumed Contracts on Schedule A until consummation of the Sale Transaction, and the Debtors reserve the right, but only in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, at any time after the closing of the Sale Transaction and before the deadline for designation of additional Assumed Contracts or removal of potentially Assumed Contracts set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement to (i) supplement the list of Assumed Contracts with previously omitted executory contracts, (ii) remove Assumed Contracts from the list of executory contracts ultimately selected as Assumed Contracts that the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, proposes be assumed and assigned to it in connection with the Sale Transaction, or (iii) modify the previously stated Cure Payment associated with any Assumed Contracts. In the event the Debtors exercise any of these reserved rights, the Debtors will promptly serve a supplemental notice of contract assumption (a "Supplemental Assumption Notice") on each of the counterparties to such contracts and their counsel of record, if any; provided, however, the Debtors may not add an executory contract to the list of Assumed Contracts that has been previously rejected by the Debtors by order of the Bankruptcy Court. Each Supplemental Assumption Notice will include the same information with respect to listed Assumed Contracts as was included in the Assumption Notice, or in the event of a removal, the information required in a Removal Notice.

Any objection to the Cure Payment or to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection and, if the objection pertains to the proposed amount of the Cure Payment, the correct cure amount alleged by the objecting counterparty, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, and (iv) be filed with the Court on or before [____, 2025 (i.e., fourteen (14) days after service) or ____, 2025 (i.e., three (3) business days after service of the Supplemental Assumption Notice)] (the "Cure Objection Deadline") and served upon, so as to be actually received by, the Objection Notice Parties (as defined herein) on or before the Cure Objection Deadline.

Any objection to the (a) Sale Transaction and (b) in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, any objection to the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of the identity of the Successful Bidder and adequate assurance of future performance of the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, (iv) be filed with the Court on or before August 22, 2025, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time (the "Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline"), and (v) be served upon, so as to be actually received by, the Objection Notice Parties (as defined herein) on or before the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline.[4]

The "Objection Notice Parties" are as follows: (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (c) any other party that has filed a notice of appearance in these chapter 11 cases.

If an objection to the Cure Payment, assumption and assignment, adequate assurance of future performance, or the Sale Transaction is timely filed and not resolved by the parties, a hearing with respect to the objection will take place in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing to be held at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on September 4, 2025, subject to the Bankruptcy Court's availability, or such other date as determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then in consultation with the Successful Bidder, in accordance with the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order. Any party failing to timely file an objection to the proposed Cure Payment, the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract listed on an Assumption Notice or the Supplemental Assumption Notice, or the Sale Transaction is deemed to have consented to (a) such Cure Payment, (b) the assumption and assignment of such Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract (including the adequate assurance of future

[4] For the avoidance of doubt, all objections to the Cure Payment and assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including objections to the adequate assurance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, must be filed by the applicable Cure Objection Deadline regardless of whether the Stalking Horse Bidder is the Successful Bidder.

Subject to the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, an auction (the "Auction") for the Kelly Hamilton Property, including the Assumed Contracts, will be conducted on August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) or such other date as may be determined by the Debtors (which information will be timely provided by the Debtors to the Auction Participants), at the White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020, or virtually via telephone and/or video conference.

After the Auction, the Debtors will file and serve a notice that identifies the Successful Bidder for the Kelly Hamilton Property, including any Assumed Contracts. The Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, reserve all of their rights, claims, and causes of action with respect to the contracts and agreements listed on Schedule A hereto. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the proposed assumption and assignment of each of the Assumed Contracts listed on Schedule A hereto (a) shall not be an admission as to whether any such Assumed Contract was executory or unexpired as of the Petition Date or remains executory or unexpired postpetition within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (b) shall be subject to the Debtors' or the Stalking Horse Bidder's or other Successful Bidder's, as applicable, right to conduct further confirmatory diligence with respect to the Cure Payment of each Assumed Contract and to modify such Cure Payment accordingly. In the event that the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, determine that your Cure Payment should be modified, you will receive a notice, which will provide for additional time to object to such modification.

The Debtors will seek to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts that have been selected by the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, (collectively, the "Selected Assumed Contracts") at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing.

Nothing contained herein shall obligate the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder to assume any Selected Assumed Contracts, and all rights of the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder with respect to such Selected Assumed Contracts are reserved. Moreover, the Debtors explicitly reserve their rights, in their reasonable discretion, to seek to reject or assume each Selected Assumed Contract pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and in accordance with the procedures allowing the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, to designate any Selected Assumed Contract as either rejected or assumed on a post-closing basis.

If any Person brings a claim for a commission or finder's fee based upon any contact, dealings, or communication with either Party in connection with the Transaction, then the Party allegedly authorizing such commission or fee shall defend the other Party and hold the other Party harmless from any and all costs, damages, claims, liabilities, or expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements) incurred by the other Party with respect to the claim. The provisions of this Section 11.1 shall survive the Closing or, if the purchase and sale is not consummated, any termination of this Agreement.

11.2 Survival/Merger. Except for the provisions of this Agreement which are explicitly stated to survive the Closing, (a) none of the terms of this Agreement shall survive the Closing, and (b) the delivery of the Purchase Price, the Deed and the other Closing Documents and the acceptance thereof shall effect a merger, and be deemed the full performance and discharge of every obligation on the part of Bidder and Debtor to be performed hereunder.

11.3 Integration; Waiver. This Agreement and the Sale Order embody and constitute the entire understanding between the Parties with respect to the Transaction and all prior agreements, understandings, representations and statements, oral or written, are merged into this Agreement. Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, modified, amended, discharged or terminated except by an instrument signed by the Party against whom the enforcement of such waiver, modification, amendment, discharge or termination is sought, and then only to the extent set forth in such instrument. No waiver by either Party hereto of any failure or refusal by the other Party to comply with its obligations hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of any other or subsequent failure or refusal to so comply.

11.4 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, without application of its choice of laws.

11.5 Captions Not Binding; Exhibits. The captions in this Agreement are inserted for reference only and in no way limit the scope or intent of this Agreement or of any of the provisions hereof. All Exhibits attached hereto shall be incorporated by reference as if set out herein in full.

11.6 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

11.7 Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any persons or circumstances shall, to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby, and each term and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

11.8 Notices. All notices required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be served on the Parties at the following addresses:

Any such notices may be sent by (a) certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid in the U.S. mail, or (b) a nationally recognized overnight courier, or (c) sent by electronic transmission (i.e., e mail). Notices shall be deemed delivered upon actual delivery or refusal of delivery one (1) Business Day after deposit in the case of overnight courier and three (3) Business Days after deposit in the case of certified mail, and notices delivered by electronic transmission shall be deemed delivered on the same day of such successful transmission. The above addresses may be changed by written notice to the other Party; provided that no notice of a change of address shall be effective until actual receipt of such notice.

11.9 Counterparts; Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which counterparts taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Signatures to this Agreement transmitted by electronic means shall be valid and effective to bind the Party so signing. Each Party agrees to promptly deliver an execution original to this Agreement with its actual signature to the other Party, but a failure to do so shall not affect the enforceability of this Agreement.

11.10 Additional Agreements; Further Assurances. Each Party hereto shall execute and deliver such documents as the other Party shall reasonably request in order to consummate and make effective the Transaction; provided, however, the execution and delivery of such documents shall not result in any additional liability or cost to the executing Party.

11.11 Construction. 11.12 Time of Essence. Time is of the essence with respect to the Closing and all of the provisions of this Agreement.

11.13 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY PROCEEDINGS BROUGHT BY THE OTHER PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH ANY MATTER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH THE TRANSACTION, THIS AGREEMENT, THE PROPERTY OR THE RELATIONSHIP OF BIDDER AND DEBTOR HEREUNDER. THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION 11.13 SHALL SURVIVE THE CLOSING (AND NOT BE MERGED THEREIN) OR ANY EARLIER TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT.

11.14 RELEASES. WITH RESPECT TO ANY RELEASE SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT RELATING TO UNKNOWN AND UNSUSPECTED CLAIMS, THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGE THAT SUCH WAIVER AND RELEASE IS MADE WITH THE ADVICE OF COUNSEL AND WITH FULL KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING OF THE CONSEQUENCES AND EFFECTS OF SUCH RELEASE.

11.15 Nominee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Parties acknowledge and agree that Bidder does not intend to acquire title to the Property in its own name. Instead, Bidder is executing this Agreement on behalf of a special purpose entity controlled by Bidder or under common control with Bidder which Bidder shall designate to acquire the Property at least three days prior to the Auction (as defined in the Bidding Procedures Order). Such designation shall not be deemed to constitute a taxable assignment under the laws relating to the Realty Transfer Tax payable under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in connection with the transfer of real estate interests.

The relief set forth on the following pages, numbered two (2) through twenty-five (25), is ORDERED.

Honorable Michael B. Kaplan
United States Bankruptcy Judge

[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: CBRM Realty Inc. (2420), Crown Capital Holdings LLC (1411), Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC (9071), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC (0765), RH Chenault Creek LLC (8987), RH Copper Creek LLC (0874), RH Lakewind East LLC (6963), RH Windrun LLC (0122), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC (7528), and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC (1951). The location of the Debtors' service address in these chapter 11 cases is: In re CBRM Realty Inc., et al., c/o White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020.

Upon consideration of the motion (the "Motion")[2] of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") for entry of an order (this "Bidding Procedures Order") (i) approving (a) bidding and auction procedures for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property (the "Bidding Procedures"), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1, and the form and manner of notice thereof; (b) the form and manner of the Confirmation and Sale Notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2; (c) procedures for the assumption and assignment of certain Executory Contracts[3] and Unexpired Leases[4] in connection with the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property (each, an "Assumed Contract" and collectively, the "Assumed Contracts"), attached hereto as Exhibit 3 (the "Assumption Notice"), and approving the form and manner of notice thereof; (d) the Debtors' entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender as the Stalking Horse Bidder, attached hereto as Exhibit 4; and (e) the payment of the Bid Protection to the Stalking Horse Bidder in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement; and (ii) granting related relief; and the Court having jurisdiction to consider the Motion and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11 of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on September 18, 2012 (Simandle, C.J.) and consideration of the Motion and the relief requested therein being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"); and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor:

3 "Executory Contract" means a contract to which one or more of the Debtors is a party that is subject to assumption or rejection under sections 365 or 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code.

4 "Unexpired Lease" means a lease to which one or more of the Debtors is a party that is subject to assumption or rejection under sections 365 or 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code.

THE COURT HEREBY MAKES THE FOLLOWING FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:[5]

A. Confirmation and Sale Notice. The confirmation and sale notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2 (the "Confirmation and Sale Notice"), is appropriate and reasonably calculated to provide all interested parties with timely and proper notice (i) of this Bidding Procedures Order, (ii) of the Bidding Procedures, (iii) of the Auction, (iv) of the Sale

[5] The findings, determinations, and conclusions set forth herein constitute this Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

Transaction, (v) of the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, (vi) of any and all objection deadlines related thereto, and (vii) that the Sale Transaction shall be free and clear of liens, claims, interests, and other encumbrances, with all such liens, claims interests, and other encumbrances attaching with the same validity and priority to the proceeds of the Sale Transaction, and, in each case, no other or further notice is required of the foregoing. Such notice is sufficient to cause all interested parties, including all holders of liens, claims, interests, and other encumbrances, whether holders of such liens, claims, interests, or other encumbrances are known or unknown, to be on notice that the proposed Sale Transaction shall be free and clear of such liens, claims, interests, or other encumbrances with respect to the Debtors, their assets, and their estates.

B. Bidding Procedures. The Debtors have articulated good and sufficient business reasons for the Court to approve the Bidding Procedures. The Bidding Procedures are: (i) fair, reasonable, and appropriate; and (ii) reasonably designed to maximize recovery with respect to the Sale Transaction. The Bidding Procedures were negotiated in good faith and at arm's length and are reasonably designed to promote a competitive and robust bidding process to generate substantial interest in, and better value for, the Kelly Hamilton Property.

C. Stalking Horse Agreement. The process for selecting the Stalking Horse Bidder was fair and appropriate under the circumstances. The Stalking Horse Agreement represents the highest or otherwise best offer the Debtors have received to date to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Stalking Horse Agreement provides the Debtors with the opportunity to sell the Kelly Hamilton Property in a manner designed to preserve and maximize the property's value and provides a floor for a further marketing and auction process. Without the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Debtors are at significant risk of realizing a lower price for the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall act as a "stalking horse purchaser" pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement and shall be subject to higher or otherwise better offers in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement and the Bidding Procedures. Pursuit of the Stalking Horse Bidder as a "stalking horse bidder" and the Stalking Horse Agreement as a "stalking horse purchase agreement" reflects a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment.

D. Bid Protection. The Bid Protection is reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances and on the terms set forth in the Bidding Procedures, including in light of the time, cost, and resources expended by the Stalking Horse Bidder and the commitments that will be made by the Stalking Horse Bidder. The Bid Protection is an actual and necessary cost and expense of preserving the Debtors' assets within the meaning of section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall be treated as an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim against the Debtors' estates pursuant to sections 105(a), 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code with priority over all other administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, provided that such superpriority administrative expense claim shall be junior to any obligations incurred under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, any superpriority claim granted under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order[6] (whether as adequate protection or otherwise), and any claims senior to the obligations incurred pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any "Carve Out" or similar provision granted pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order). The Bid Protection was a material inducement for, and a condition of, the Stalking Horse Bidder's entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Stalking Horse Bidder is unwilling to enter into the Stalking Horse Agreement unless the Stalking Horse Bidder is assured the Bid Protection pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement.

E. Auction. The Auction, if held, is necessary to determine whether any entity other than the Stalking Horse Bidder is willing to enter into a definitive agreement on terms and conditions more favorable to the Debtors and their estates than the Stalking Horse Agreement.

F. Assumption and Assignment Procedures. The notice of the Debtors' potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3 (the "Assumption Notice"), is reasonably calculated to provide counterparties to the Assumed Contracts with proper notice of the intended assumption and assignment of their Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, any Cure Payment and the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Motion and the relief requested therein is GRANTED and APPROVED, as set forth herein.

2. All objections that have not been withdrawn, waived, or settled, or not otherwise resolved pursuant to the terms hereof, if any, are hereby DENIED and OVERRULED on the merits with prejudice. All withdrawn objections are deemed withdrawn with prejudice.

[7] For the avoidance of doubt, there are two separate deadlines to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of a potential Assumed Contract: (a) the applicable Cure Objection Deadline, which is the deadline to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of a potential Assumed Contract to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including the Cure Payments related to any assumption and assignment of such potential Assumed Contract and the adequate assurance of future performance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (b) the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline, which only applies in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder and is the deadline to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of a Potential Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of the identity of the Successful Bidder and adequate assurance of future performance.

4. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, may extend the deadlines set forth in Bidding Procedures Order or the Bidding Procedures, with notice of such extension being filed with the Court.

5. No party may object to the right of the Stalking Horse Bidder to credit bid the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim.

6. The Bidding Procedures attached hereto as Exhibit 1 are hereby approved. The failure to specifically include or reference any particular provision of the Bidding Procedures in the Motion or this Bidding Procedures Order shall not diminish or otherwise impair the effectiveness of such procedures, it being this Court's intent that the Bidding Procedures are approved in their entirety, as if fully set forth in this Bidding Procedures Order. The Debtors are hereby authorized to conduct the Auction, if applicable, pursuant to the terms of the Bidding Procedures and this Bidding Procedures Order.

7. Pursuant to the provisions in the Bidding Procedures, the Debtors shall have the right, in their reasonable discretion, to withhold or limit access to any due diligence information that the Debtors determine is business-sensitive or otherwise not appropriate for disclosure to any potential Bidder. Notwithstanding any prepetition limitations, including, without limitation, any non-disclosure, confidentiality, or similar provisions relating to any due diligence information, the Debtors and their estates shall be authorized to provide due diligence information to Potential Bidders, provided that such potential Bidders have delivered an executed confidentiality agreement in form and substance acceptable to the Debtors. The Debtors and their estates are not responsible for, and shall have no liability with respect to, any information obtained by, or provided to, any potential Bidders in connection with the Bidding Procedures or the Sale Transaction, provided that the information was provided in accordance with this Bidding Procedures Order.

8. For all purposes under the Bidding Procedures: (a) the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be considered a Qualifying Bidder, and the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be considered a Qualifying Bid; (b) the Stalking Horse Bidder is, and will be deemed to be, a Qualifying Bidder for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures, without regard to any of the requirements or conditions set forth herein or the Bidding Procedures and without any other or further action by the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (c) in determining whether any potential Bidders constitute Qualifying Bidders, the Debtors may consider a combination of bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. In the event the Debtors receive a Qualifying Bid other than the Stalking Horse Bid, the Stalking Horse Bid shall be the Successful Bid so long as the Stalking Horse Bid is equal to an amount not less than the highest other Qualifying Bid, if any.

9. The Debtors are authorized to enter into and perform all of their respective pre-closing obligations under the Stalking Horse Agreement; provided that for the avoidance of doubt, approval and consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be subject to the terms and conditions detailed herein and the entry of the Confirmation and Sale Order and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to closing on the terms set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Stalking Horse Agreement and any related agreements, documents, or other instruments may be modified, amended or supplemented by the parties thereto, solely in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court.

10. The Bid Protection is approved in the amount $250,000 and shall be paid to the Stalking Horse Bidder pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 2.1(b) of the Stalking Horse Agreement and other relevant provisions thereof. The Debtors are authorized to incur and pay the Bid Protection without further action or order by the Court. The Bid Protection, to the extent payable under the Stalking Horse Agreement, shall constitute an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim against the Debtors' estates pursuant to sections 105(a), 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code with priority over all other administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, provided that such superpriority administrative expense claim shall be junior to any obligations incurred under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, any superpriority claim granted under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order (whether as adequate protection or otherwise), and any claims senior to the obligations incurred pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any "Carve Out" or similar provision granted pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order). If the Bid Protection becomes payable pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement, such payment shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Stalking Horse Bidder against the Debtors with respect to the Stalking Horse Bid. The Bid Protection shall not be subject to any avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether contractual, equitable, or otherwise), counterclaims, cross-claims, defenses, disallowance, impairment, or any other challenges under any applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

11. Pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be permitted to credit bid the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim.

12. The Bidding Procedures shall apply to any Bidder, the Qualifying Bidders, the submission, receipt, and analysis of all Bids relating to the Sale Transaction, and the conduct of the Sale Transaction and the Auction (if any). The Debtors and their professionals shall direct and preside over the Auction (if any), and the Auction shall be transcribed and shall be conducted openly in person, virtually via telephone, and/or video conference.

13. The Debtors' decision to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, is subject to this Court's approval and the closing of the Sale Transaction. Accordingly, absent this Court's approval and the closing of the Sale Transaction, the Assumed Contracts shall not be deemed assumed or assumed and assigned, and shall in all respects be subject to further administration by the Debtors and their estates under the Bankruptcy Code in connection with these chapter 11 cases.

14. The procedures set forth below regarding the assumption and assignment of the Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases proposed to be assumed by the Debtors pursuant to section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder pursuant to section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code in connection with the Sale Transaction (the "Assumption and Assignment Procedures") are hereby approved to the extent set forth herein.

15. These Assumption and Assignment Procedures shall govern the assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract, subject to the payment of any amounts necessary to cure any defaults arising under any Assumed Contract (the "Cure Payments"):

a) Assumption Notice. No later than three (3) business days following the entry of this Bidding Procedures Order (the "Assumption and Assignment Service Deadline"), the Debtors shall serve the Assumption Notice via first-class mail on all counterparties to all potential Assumed Contracts and provide a copy of the same to the

Stalking Horse Bidder, which copy may be provided via email. The Assumption Notice shall inform each recipient of the timing and procedures relating to the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder upon Court approval of the Sale Transaction, and, to the extent applicable, (i) the Debtors' good-faith estimates of the Cure Payment (if any) required in connection with the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, (ii) whether the potential Assumed Contract is then anticipated to be assumed and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder in connection with the Stalking Horse Agreement; (iii) the deadline to object to the proposed Cure Payments; and (iv) the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline; provided, however, that service of an Assumption Notice does not constitute an admission that any contract is an executory contract or that the stated Cure Payment related to any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease constitutes a claim against the Debtors or a right against the Stalking Horse Bidder (all rights with respect thereto being expressly reserved). Further, the inclusion of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, on the Assumption Notice is not a guarantee that such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, will or will not ultimately be assumed and assigned. For the avoidance of doubt, the inclusion of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease in the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice (as defined below), or any amendment thereto does not constitute a designation by the Stalking Horse Bidder of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease for assumption and assignment under the Stalking Horse Agreement, and the Stalking Horse Bidder will not be deemed to assume or be responsible for any Cure Payment or other liability with respect to such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease unless and until the Court enters an order approving the Sale Transaction to the Stalking Horse Agreement, in which case any such assumption of liabilities shall be (i) only with respect to any Assumed Contracts and (ii) as of the closing date.

b) Cure Payments and Adequate Assurance of Future Performance. The payment of the applicable Cure Payments by the Stalking Horse

Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, shall (i) effect a cure of all defaults existing thereunder and (ii) compensate for any actual pecuniary loss to such counterparty resulting from such default.

c) Additions. The Debtors may also designate additional Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases as agreements to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder (the "Additional Assumed Contracts") until consummation of the Sale Transaction. Following the addition of an Additional Assumed Contract, the Debtors shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter serve an Assumption Notice on each of the counterparties to such Additional Assumed Contracts and their counsel of record, if any, indicating (i) that the Debtors intend to assume and assign the counterparty's Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, and (ii) the corresponding Cure Payment.

d) Eliminations. The Debtors may remove any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as applicable, to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder (the "Eliminated Agreements") until consummation of the Sale Transaction. Following the removal of an Eliminated Agreement, the Debtors shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter serve a notice (a "Removal Notice") on each of the impacted counterparties and their counsel of record, if any, indicating that the Debtors no longer intend to assign the counterparty's contract or unexpired lease, as applicable, to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder in connection with the Sale Transaction. For the avoidance of doubt, the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder will not assume any Cure Payment or other liability with respect to any Eliminated Agreement, notwithstanding such agreement's inclusion in the Assumption Notice or any Supplemental Assumption Notice.

e) Supplemental Contract Assumption Notice. Although the Debtors intend to make a good-faith effort to identify all Assumed Contracts that may be assumed and assigned in connection with the Sale Transaction, the Debtors may discover certain Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases inadvertently omitted from the Assumed Contracts list or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder may identify other Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that it desires to assume and assign in connection with the Sale Transaction. Accordingly, the Debtors reserve the right, but only in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, at any time before the closing of the Sale Transaction to (i) supplement the list of Assumed Contracts with previously omitted Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, (ii) remove Assumed Contracts from the list of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases ultimately selected as Assumed Contracts that the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder proposes be assumed and assigned to it in connection with the Sale Transaction, or (iii) modify the previously stated Cure Payment associated with any Assumed Contract. In the event the Debtors exercise any of these reserved rights, the Debtors will promptly serve a supplemental notice of contract assumption (a "Supplemental Assumption Notice") on each of the counterparties to such contracts and their counsel of record, if any; provided that the Debtors may not add an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to the list of Assumed Contracts that has been previously rejected by the Debtors by order of the Court. Each Supplemental Assumption Notice will include the same information with respect to listed Assumed Contracts as was included in the Assumption Notice, or in the event of a removal, the information required in a Removal Notice.

In the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, the deadline to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of (x) the identity of the Successful Bidder and (y) adequate assurance of future performance of the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), is the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline (as defined below).[9]

[9] For the avoidance of doubt, all objections to the Cure Payment and assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including objections to the adequate assurance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, must be filed by the applicable Cure Objection Deadline regardless of whether the Stalking Horse Bidder is the Successful Bidder.

17. Any party failing to timely file an objection to the proposed Cure Payment, the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract listed on an Assumption Notice or Supplemental Assumption Notice, or the Sale Transaction is deemed to have consented to (a) such Cure Payment, (b) the assumption and assignment of such Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract (including the adequate assurance of future payment), (c) the related relief requested in the Motion, and (d) the Sale Transaction. Such party shall be forever barred and estopped from objecting to the Cure Payment, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, or Additional Assumed Contract, adequate assurance of future performance, the relief requested in the Motion, whether applicable law excuses such counterparty from accepting performance by, or rendering performance to, the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, for purposes of section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and from asserting any additional cure or other amounts against the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then the Successful Bidder, as applicable, with respect to such party's Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract.

18. The Debtors shall have no liability or obligation with respect to defaults relating to the Assumed Contracts arising, accruing, or relating to the period from and after the effective date of assignment.

19. The Confirmation and Sale Notice, the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice, the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, and the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and the objection periods associated with each of the foregoing are reasonably calculated to provide notice to any affected party and afford the affected party the opportunity to exercise any rights affected by the Motion as it relates to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, the Sale Transaction, the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and the assumption and assignment to the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, of the Assumed Contracts pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(2), 6004 and 6006, and such notice and objection periods are hereby approved.

20. The Confirmation and Sale Notice is approved. Within two (2) business days after entry of this Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors shall serve the Confirmation and Sale Notice by regular mail on (a) the office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey, (b) the Debtors Top 30 Unsecured Creditors, (c) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey, (d) the Internal Revenue Service, (e) the Securities and Exchange Commission, (f) the attorneys general in the states where the Debtors conduct their business operations, (g) any parties that have expressed written interest in pursuing a potential transaction in connection with the marketing and bidding process, (h) any known counterparty to a potentially Assumed Contract, and (i) any other party that has requested notice pursuant to Rule 2002.

21. The Debtors shall post the Confirmation and Sale Notice, the Assumption Notice, any Supplemental Assumption Notice, and this Bidding Procedures Order on the website of the Debtors' claims and noticing agent. Within two (2) business days following the entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors shall submit the Confirmation and Sale Notice for publication once in the Newark Star Ledger and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, and any additional similar publication in the prudent exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. Publication of the Confirmation and Sale Notice as described in this Bidding Procedures Order conforms to the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 2002(l) and 9008 and is reasonably calculated to provide notice to any affected party, including any potential Bidders, and afford the affected party the opportunity to exercise any rights affected by the Motion and the relief granted by this Bidding Procedures Order.

22. Any objections to the Sale Transaction under the Plan (a "Confirmation and Sale Objection") must: (1) be in writing; (2) comply with the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules; (3) set forth the specific basis for the Confirmation and Sale Objection; (4) be filed with the Court, on or before 4:00 p.m. (ET) on August 22, 2025 (the "Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline"); (5) be served upon (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) the Successful Bidder, (c) counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, and (d) the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey (collectively, the "Objection Notice Parties"); and (6) proof of service of such Confirmation and Sale Objection upon the Objection Notice Parties shall be filed with the Court as and when required by the Local Rules. If a Confirmation and Sale Objection is not filed and served on or before the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline in accordance with the foregoing requirements, the objecting party may be barred from objecting to the Sale Transaction and being heard at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and this Court may enter the Confirmation and Sale Order without further notice to such party.

23. As part of its bid, each potential Bidder must provide the Debtors information supporting the potential Bidder's ability to comply with the requirements of adequate assurance of future performance under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Adequate Assurance Information"), including (a) the potential Bidder's financial wherewithal and willingness to perform under any contracts and leases that are assumed and assigned to such potential Bidder; and (b) a contact person for the proposed assignee that the applicable counterparty may directly contact in connection with the adequate assurance of future performance. In the event that a potential Bidder (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) is a newly formed acquisition entity, the financial and other information supporting the potential Bidder's financial wherewithal shall include financial and other information supporting the financial wherewithal of the potential Bidder's parent company or sponsor.

24. Any party in receipt of Adequate Assurance Information under this Bidding Procedures Order shall review the Adequate Assurance Information received on a confidential basis and shall not disclose the Adequate Assurance Information except as expressly provided in this Bidding Procedures Order and the Bidding Procedures. No party may use or disclose, except to representatives, attorneys, advisors and financing sources (collectively, "Representatives"), any confidential Adequate Assurance Information for any purpose other than: (a) evaluating whether adequate assurance of future performance as required under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code has been provided; and (b) in support of any objection (subject to the limitations on disclosure set forth herein) by such party relating to adequate assurance of future performance. Any Representative receiving Adequate Assurance Information shall be notified and shall agree to be bound by the restrictions set forth in this Bidding Procedures Order.

25. If no timely Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Agreement are submitted on or before the Bid Deadline, the Debtors shall not hold an Auction and shall request at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing that this Court approve the Stalking Horse Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder. If the Debtors timely receive one or more Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Agreement, then the Debtors shall conduct the Auction on

As appropriate throughout the sale process, the Debtors and their advisors will consult with counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes (the "Ad Hoc Group" or the "Consultation Party"). Neither the Debtors nor their representatives shall be obligated to furnish any information of any kind relating to the Kelly Hamilton Property to any party that is not a Potential Bidder (defined below) or a Consultation Party.

Nothing herein or contemplated hereby constitutes or will be deemed to constitute or otherwise result in the consent or approval of any Consultation Party to the sale, sale order, or to any agreement or motion or other pleading related thereto, or the waiver or modification of any of the terms of, or any rights under, any existing agreement, instrument or document. Any and all rights or such parties to object or otherwise oppose any sale, sale order, bid, or any agreement or pleading related thereto are hereby expressly preserved and reserved.

2. Stalking Horse Bidder

On July 11, 2025, the Debtors entered into the Stalking Horse Agreement with the Stalking Horse Bidder. As set forth more fully in the Stalking Horse Agreement, the Stalking Horse Bidder is (i) credit bidding the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations (as defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement) and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, (ii) assuming certain liabilities and certain executory contracts and unexpired leases of the Debtors, (iii) satisfying cure costs, and (iv) providing a cash payment if required under the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement (collectively, the "Stalking Horse Bid"). The Stalking Horse Agreement also includes various customary representations, warranties, and covenants by and from the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder, and certain conditions to closing and rights of termination.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Stalking Horse Bidder is deemed to be a Qualifying Bidder (as defined below), and the Stalking Horse Bid (including as it may be modified at the Auction (if any) in accordance with the terms therein and herein) is deemed to be a Qualifying Bid(as defined below). The Stalking Horse Bidder is credit bidding pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(k) and thus is not required to make a Deposit (as defined below) with the Debtors. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall have the unqualified right at any time to credit bid on a dollar-for-dollar basis up to the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim.

3. Assets to be Sold

The Debtors shall offer for sale the Kelly Hamilton Property, provided that the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, determine that the aggregate consideration offered by any bid, or combination of bids, for the Kelly Hamilton Property, satisfies the requirements set forth in these Bidding Procedures. Potential Bidders (as defined herein) may bid on the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Debtors propose to consummate the proposed Sale Transaction pursuant to a chapter 11 plan, subject to Court approval.

4. Participation Requirements

Any interested party that wishes to participate in the bidding process for the Kelly Hamilton Property other than in the case of the Stalking Horse Bidder (each, an "Interested Bidder") must first become a potential bidder (a "Potential Bidder"). To become a Potential Bidder, an Interested Bidder must submit to (a) counsel to the Debtors, (i) White & Case LLP, 111 South Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60606 (Attn: Gregory F. Pesce (gregory.pesce@whitecase.com)) and (ii) White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020 (Attn: Barrett Lingle (barrett.lingle@whitecase.com), and (ii) co-counsel to the Debtors, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, 80 Central Park West, New York, New York 10023 (Attn: Kenneth A. Rosen (ken@kenrosenadvisors.com)), and (b) the Debtors' proposed financial advisors, IslandDundon LLC, 10 Bank Street, Suite 1100, White Plains, NY 10606 (Attn: Tabish Rizvi (tr@dundon.com) and Steven Landgraber (slandgraber@islecap.com)) (collectively, the "Debtors' Advisors") the following documents (collectively, the "Preliminary Bid Documents") via email:

(a) documentation identifying the Interested Bidder, its principals, and the representatives thereof who are authorized to appear and act on their behalf for all purposes regarding the contemplated transaction, including the Auction, if any;

(b) an executed confidentiality agreement ("Confidentiality Agreement") in form and substance satisfactory to the Debtors;

(c) a statement and other factual support demonstrating to the Debtors' reasonable satisfaction, after consultation with the Consultation Party, that the Interested Bidder has a bona fide interest in consummating the Sale Transaction; and

(d) sufficient information, as determined by the Debtors, after consultation with the Consultation Party, to allow the Debtors to determine that the Interested Bidder (x) has, or can obtain, the financial wherewithal and any required internal corporate, legal, or other authorizations to close the Sale Transaction, including,

but not limited to, current audited financial statements of the Interested Bidder (or such other form of financial disclosure acceptable to the Debtors in their discretion), and (y) can provide adequate assurance of future performance under any Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, in connection with the Sale Transaction, pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, in connection with the Sale Transaction.[4]

Each Interested Bidder shall comply with all reasonable requests for information and due diligence access by the Debtors or their advisors regarding the ability of such Interested Bidder to consummate its contemplated transaction. The Debtors reserve the right to work with any Interested Bidder to cure any deficiencies in the Preliminary Bid Documents or waive any of the foregoing requirements in the Debtors' reasonable business judgment, in consultation with the Consultation Party. The Debtors reserve all rights to determine in their business judgment whether a party that has submitted Preliminary Bid Documents shall be deemed a Potential Bidder.

5. Bankruptcy Court Jurisdiction

Any Interested Bidders, Potential Bidders, and Qualifying Bidders (as defined herein) shall: (a) be deemed to have waived any right to a jury trial in connection with, and consented and submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court over, any actions or proceedings arising from or relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Sale Transaction, the Auction, and the construction and enforcement of the contemplated transaction documents of such parties; (b) be deemed to have waived any right to bring any such action or proceeding in the Court; and (c) be deemed to have consented to (i) the Court entering a final order or judgment determining any such action or proceeding and (ii) such final order or judgment in any such action or proceeding, including all appeals, being conclusive and enforceable in other jurisdictions (including any foreign jurisdictions) by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable law.

6. Due Diligence

The Debtors will provide Potential Bidders with reasonable access to a data room and any other additional information that the Debtors believe to be reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances. All due diligence requests shall be directed to the Debtors' Advisors via email at the email address(es) noted above.

The due diligence period shall extend through and include the Bid Deadline. The Debtors, in their business judgment, may, but shall not be obligated to, furnish any due diligence information after the Bid Deadline.

The Debtors reserve the right, in their reasonable discretion, to withhold or limit access to any due diligence information that the Debtors determine is not appropriate for disclosure to a Potential Bidder (including its affiliates and any related persons) at any time and for any reason, including, without limitation, if (a) any due diligence information is determined to be business sensitive, proprietary, or otherwise not appropriate for disclosure to a Potential Bidder by the Debtors, including, but not limited to, Potential Bidders who are customers or competitors of the Debtors or affiliates thereof, and other industry participants, (b) the Potential Bidder does not become, or the Debtors determine that the Potential Bidder is not likely to become, a Qualifying Bidder (as defined below), (c) the Potential Bidder violates the terms of its Confidentiality Agreement, (d) the Debtors become aware that the information set forth on the Potential Bidder's Preliminary Bid Documents is inaccurate or misleading or of any other reason to doubt such Potential Bidder's ability to close its contemplated transaction, (e) the Potential Bidder (including its affiliates and any related persons) uses information obtained from the data room or the diligence process in connection with, or related to, any litigation or other legal action related to any Debtor, any current or former directors and officers of the Debtors, the Debtors' non-Debtor affiliates, or the Debtors' primary creditors as identified by the Debtors, (f) such disclosure would jeopardize protections afforded any Debtor or primary creditor as identified by the Debtors under the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work product doctrine, or (g) the bidding process is terminated in accordance with its terms. Notwithstanding any prepetition limitations, including, without limitation, any non-disclosure, confidentiality, or similar provisions relating to any due diligence information, the Debtors and their estates shall be authorized to provide due diligence information to Potential Bidders; provided that such Potential Bidders have delivered an executed Confidentiality Agreement in form and substance acceptable to the Debtors. Subject to the terms and conditions of each Confidentiality Agreement, the Debtors and their estates are not responsible for, and shall have no liability with respect to, any information obtained by, or provided to, any Potential Bidders in connection with the Bidding Procedures and the Sale Transaction.

7. Bid Requirements

Other than in the case of the Stalking Horse Bidder and the Stalking Horse Agreement, which shall be considered a Qualifying Bidder and a Qualifying Bid (each as defined below), respectively, for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures, without any regard to any of the requirements or conditions set forth therein and without any other or further action by the Stalking Horse Bidder, to be deemed a "Qualifying Bid," a bid must be received by the Debtors' Advisors from a Potential Bidder before the Bid Deadline and satisfy each of the following requirements (each, a "Bid Requirement"):

(a) be in writing;

(b) include a clean and duly executed asset purchase agreement, including the exhibits, schedules, and ancillary agreements related thereto (an "Alternative APA") and a marked copy of the Alternative APA showing any variations from the Stalking Horse Agreement. The Alternative APA must (i) provide cash payment that is not less than the sum of (a) the DIP Facility Obligations, (b) the Bid Protection, (c) the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, (d) an amount that is equal to 5% of the aforementioned amounts and (e), any cash necessary to satisfy Senior Claims in full, to the extent such Senior Claims are not assumed in full by the Potential Bidder, (ii) consummate the transactions contemplated in the Alternative APA through the Plan, and (iii) include a commitment to close by no later than ten (10) business days following entry of the Confirmation and Sale Order. The executed copy of the Alternative APA

must effective upon the Debtors' countersignature. The terms and conditions of the Alternative APA must be, in the aggregate, not materially more burdensome or adverse to the Debtors than the provisions contained in the Stalking Horse Agreement;

(c) fully disclose the identity of the Potential Bidder (and to the extent that the Potential Bidder is a newly formed acquisition entity or the like, the identity of the Potential Bidder's parent company or sponsor), and provide the contact information of the specific person(s) whom the Debtors or their advisors should contact in the event that the Debtors have any questions or wish to discuss the bid submitted by the Potential Bidder;

(d) set forth the purchase price to be paid by such Potential Bidder, which purchase price shall include an aggregate amount of cash sufficient to pay in full at closing, an amount that is not less than the sum of (a) the DIP Facility Obligations, (b) the Bid Protection, (c) the Manager Administrative Expense Claim, and (d) an amount that is equal to 5% of the aforementioned amounts in full at closing;

(e) identify separately any cash and non-cash components, which non-cash components shall be limited only to credit bids in accordance with section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code and assumed liabilities;

(f) state the liabilities proposed to be paid or assumed by such Potential Bidder;

(g) state that such Potential Bidder offers to (i) purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property and (ii) assume liabilities (including the Cure Payments), upon substantially the same terms as, or terms more favorable to the Debtors and their estate than, the terms set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement;

(h) state that such Potential Bidder's offer is formal, binding and unconditional, and is irrevocable until two (2) business days after the closing of the Sale Transaction;

(i) to the extent that a bid is not accompanied by evidence of a Potential Bidder's capacity to consummate the applicable Sale Transaction with cash on hand, the bid must include unconditional committed financing from a reputable financing institution, documented to the satisfaction of the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, including appropriate contact information for such financing sources, that demonstrates that the Potential Bidder has: (i) received sufficient debt and/or equity funding commitments to satisfy the Potential Bidder's purchase price and other obligations under its bid; and (ii) adequate working capital financing or resources to finance going concern operations for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Such funding commitments or other financing must be unconditional and must not be subject to any internal approvals, syndication requirements, diligence, or credit committee approvals, and shall have covenants and conditions reasonably acceptable to the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party;

(j) contain such financial and other information to allow the Debtors to make a reasonable determination, after consultation with the Consultation Party, as to the Potential Bidder's financial and other capabilities to close the transactions contemplated by the applicable Alternative APA, including, without limitation, such financial and other information supporting the Potential Bidder's ability to comply with the requirements of adequate assurance of future performance under section 365(f)(2)(B) and, if applicable, section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, including the Potential Bidder's financial wherewithal and willingness to perform under any contracts and leases that are assumed and assigned to the Potential Bidder, in a form that allows the Debtors to serve such information on any counterparties to such contracts or leases in connection with the Sale Transaction within one (1) business day after the Debtors' receipt of such information. To the extent that the Potential Bidder (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) is a newly formed acquisition entity or the like, the financial and other information supporting the Potential Bidder's financial wherewithal shall include financial and other information supporting the financial wherewithal of the Potential Bidder's parent company or sponsor;

(k) identify with particularity each and every Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease, the assumption and assignment of which is a condition to close the transactions contemplated by the Alternative APA;

(l) include closing conditions that are no less favorable to the Debtors than the closing conditions contained in the Stalking Horse Agreement (and specify such closing conditions in the applicable Alternative APA);

(m) include a statement that the bid does not request or entitle such Potential Bidder to any break-up fee, termination fee, expense reimbursement, or similar type of payment or reimbursement;

(n) not contain any contingencies of any kind, including, without limitation, contingencies related to financing, internal approval, or due diligence;

(o) contain a written acknowledgement and representation that the Potential Bidder (i) has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Kelly Hamilton Property, (ii) has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation or inspection of any documents and other information in making its bid, and (iii) did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties or guaranties whatsoever, whether express, implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Kelly Hamilton Property, or the completeness of any documents or other information provided in connection with the Bidding Procedures and the Sale Transaction;

(p) set forth any regulatory and third-party approvals required for the Potential Bidder to close the transactions contemplated by the Alternative APA, and the time period within which the Potential Bidder expects to receive such regulatory and third-party approvals (and in the case that receipt of any such regulatory or third-party approval is expected to take more than five (5) days following execution and delivery of such Potential Bidder's Alternative APA, those actions the bidder will take to ensure receipt of such approval(s) as promptly as possible); provided, however, that a Potential Bidder agrees that its legal counsel will coordinate in good faith with the Debtors' legal counsel to discuss and explain the Potential Bidder's regulatory analysis, strategy, and timeline for securing all such approvals as soon as reasonably practicable, and in no event later than the time period contemplated in the Alternative APA;

(q) provide for a binding commitment of the Potential Bidder to serve as a backup bidder (the "Back-Up Bidder") if the Potential Bidder's bid is the next highest or otherwise next best bid (the "Back-Up Bid") after the Successful Bid;

(r) include written evidence of authorization and approval from the Potential Bidder's board of directors (or comparable governing body) with respect to the submission, execution, and delivery of the Alternative APA;

(s) provide a good faith cash deposit (the "Deposit") in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the aggregate purchase price provided for in the Alternative APA (or such additional amount as may be determined by the Debtors in their reasonable discretion);

(t) state or otherwise estimate the types of, and costs or charges for, transition services, if any, the Potential Bidder would require of or provide to the Debtors, including an estimate of the time any such transition services would be required of or provided to the Debtors; and

(u) provide that in the event of the Potential Bidder's breach of, or failure to perform under, the Alternative APA, the Debtors and their estates shall be entitled to pursue all available legal and equitable remedies, including, without limitation, retention of the Deposit as part of the damages resulting to the Debtors and their estates for such breach or failure to perform.

A bid from a Potential Bidder satisfying all of the above requirements, as determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, shall constitute a Qualifying Bid. The Debtors reserve the right, in their business judgment and in consultation with the Consultation Party, to waive any of the Bid Requirements or work with any Potential Bidder in advance of the Auction to cure any deficiencies in a bid that is not initially deemed a Qualifying Bid.

Each Potential Bidder submitting a bid shall be deemed to: (a) acknowledge and represent that it is bound by all of the terms and conditions of the Bidding Procedures; and (b) have waived the right to pursue a substantial contribution claim under section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code related in any way to the submission of its bid, the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or the Sale Transaction.

In the event a Bid is submitted, the Debtors shall provide copies of all Bid materials to counsel to the Consultation Party, provided, however, that the Debtors shall have no obligation to provide Bid materials to counsel to the Consultation Party (i) once such party, or an affiliate thereof, has submitted a Bid and (ii) for so long as such Bid remains open.

8. Bid Deadline

A Potential Bidder, other than the Stalking Horse Bidder, that desires to make a bid shall deliver a written and electronic copy of its bid in both PDF and MS-WORD format to the Debtors' Advisors so as to be received on or before August 14, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) (the "Bid Deadline"); provided that the Debtors may extend the Bid Deadline without further order of the Court, after consultation with the Consultation Party. To the extent that the Bid Deadline is extended for all parties, the Debtors shall file a notice on the docket of their chapter 11 cases indicating the same. Any party that does not submit a bid by the Bid Deadline will not be allowed to (a) submit any bids after the Bid Deadline or (b) participate in the Auction.

9. Evaluation of Qualifying Bids

The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, shall make a determination regarding whether a timely submitted bid from a Potential Bidder is a Qualifying Bid.

No later than August 15, 2025, the Debtors shall: (i) notify all Potential Bidders whether their respective bids have been determined to be Qualifying Bids and those Potential Bidders that have submitted Qualifying Bids will be considered to be qualifying bidders (the "Qualifying Bidders") and (ii) determine, in consultation with the Consultation Party, which of the Qualifying Bids, at such time, is the highest or best Qualifying Bid for purposes of constituting the opening bid of the Auction (the "Baseline Bid").

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, and for the avoidance of doubt, for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures: (i) the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be considered a Qualifying Bidder, and the Stalking Horse Agreement shall be considered a Qualifying Bid, for all purposes under the Bidding Procedures, without regard to any of the requirements or conditions set forth therein and without any other or further action by the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (ii) in determining whether the Potential Bidders constitute Qualifying Bidders, the Debtors may consider a combination of bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. As set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order, in the event one or more Qualifying Bids are submitted in advance of the Auction, the Stalking Horse Bid shall be the Successful Bid so long as the Stalking Horse Bid is equal to an amount not less than the highest other Qualifying Bid, if any

If no timely Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Bid are submitted on or before the Bid Deadline, the Debtors shall not hold an Auction and shall request at the Confirmation and

Sale Hearing that the Court approve the sale to the Stalking Horse Bidder on the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and the transaction contemplated thereunder.

11. Auction

If the Debtors timely receive one or more Qualifying Bids other than the Stalking Horse Bid, then the Debtors shall conduct an auction (the "Auction"). Following the Auction, the Debtors will determine, in consultation with the Consultation Party, which Qualifying Bid or combination of Qualifying Bids is the highest or otherwise best bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property, which will be determined by considering, among other things, the following non-binding factors: (a) the number, type and nature of any changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement requested by each Qualifying Bidder; (b) the extent to which such modifications are likely to delay closing of the Sale Transaction and the cost to the Debtors and their estates of such modifications or delay; (c) the total consideration to be received by the Debtors and their estates; (d) the transaction structure and execution risk, including conditions to, timing of and certainty of closing, termination provisions, availability of financing and financial wherewithal to meet all commitments, and required governmental or other approval; (e) the net benefit to the Debtors' estates; (f) the certainty of the Debtors being able to confirm a chapter 11 plan; and (g) any other factors the Debtors may reasonably deem relevant in their business judgment.

Bidders and their representatives may not communicate or coordinate with one another for purposes of submitting a Bid or Bids or participating in the Auction without the prior consent of the Debtors. All parties are prohibited from (i) engaging in any collusion with respect to the bidding or sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property described herein or (ii) taking any other action to prevent a transparent and competitive auction process.

The Auction shall be governed by the following procedures:

(a) the Auction shall be held on August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (ET) or such other date as may be determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party (which information will be timely provided by the Debtors to the Auction Participants (as defined below)) at the offices of White & Case LLP, White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020, or virtually via telephone or video conference;

(b) only the Stalking Horse Bidder and the other Qualifying Bidders (together, the "Auction Bidders") shall be entitled to make any subsequent bids at the Auction;

(c) the Auction Bidders shall appear at the Auction themselves, or through a duly authorized representative;

(d) Only (i) the Debtors, (ii) any Qualifying Bidder, (iii) the U.S. Trustee, (iv) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, (v) the Ad Hoc Group, and (vi) in the Debtors' discretion, any other creditor of the Debtors that delivers to Debtors' counsel a written request to attend the Auction (by email to barrett.lingle@whitecase.com) no later than 24 hours prior to the commencement of the Auction, in each case, along with their respective representatives and counsel, may attend the Auction (collectively, the "Auction Participants"); provided that the Debtors may establish a reasonable limit on the number of advisors that may appear on behalf of each party;

(e) the Debtors and their professional advisors shall direct and preside over the Auction, which shall be transcribed;

(f) prior to the start of the Auction, each of the Auction Bidders shall confirm that they have not engaged in any collusion with respect to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction or the Sale Transaction;

(g) the Auction shall be conducted in an open format (and not by way of sealed bids);

(h) the Auction Bidders may submit successive bids (each, an "Overbid") in increments of at least $250,000.00, provided that: (i) each such Overbid must be a Qualifying Bid; and (ii) the Debtors shall retain the right to modify the bid increment requirements at the Auction following consultation with the Consultation Party;

(i) the Auction may include individual negotiations with any of the Auction Bidders, but all bids shall be made on the record and in the presence of all of the Auction Bidders;

(j) all material terms of the bid that is deemed to be the highest or otherwise best bid, if applicable, for each round of bidding shall be fully disclosed to the Auction Bidders, and the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to clarify any and all questions that the Auction Bidders may have regarding Debtors' announcement of the then-current highest or otherwise best bid;

(k) except as specifically set forth herein, for the purpose of evaluating the value of the purchase price provided by each successive bid (including any successive bid by the Stalking Horse Bidder), the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, may give effect to any additional liabilities to be assumed by a Qualifying Bidder, and any additional costs which may be imposed on the Debtors;

(l) each Auction Bidder shall (i) be deemed to have waived any right to a jury trial in connection with, and consented and submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court over, any actions or proceedings arising from or relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Sale Transaction, the Auction and the construction and enforcement of the contemplated transaction documents of the Auction Bidders, (ii) be deemed to have waived any right to bring any such action or proceeding relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, or the Sale Transaction in the Court, and (iii) be deemed to have consented to (a) the Court entering a final order or judgment determining in any such action or proceeding and (b) a final order or judgment in any such action or proceeding, including all appeals, being conclusive and enforceable in other jurisdictions (including any foreign jurisdictions) by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable law;

(m) throughout the Auction, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall have the continuing right to credit bid an amount equal to the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property;

(n) the Auction Bidders shall have the right to make additional modifications to the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable, in conjunction with each Qualifying Bid submitted in each round of bidding during the Auction, provided that (i) any such modifications on an aggregate basis and viewed in whole, shall not, in the Debtors' discretion, in consultation with the Consultation Party, be less favorable to the Debtors and their estates than the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement, and (ii) each Qualifying Bid shall constitute an irrevocable offer and shall be binding on the Auction Bidder submitting such bid until such Auction Bidder shall have submitted a subsequent Qualifying Bid at the Auction, unless such bid is selected as the Successful Bid, which shall remain binding as provided for herein;

(o) the Debtors and the Consultation Party shall have the right to request any additional financial information that will allow the Debtors and the Consultation Party to make a reasonable determination as to an Auction Bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable, as may be amended during the Auction, and any further information that the Debtors may believe is reasonably necessary to clarify and evaluate any bid made by an Auction Bidder during the Auction;

(p) upon the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtors shall determine, in consultation with the Consultation Party, and subject to Court approval, the offer that is the highest or otherwise best from among the Qualifying Bids submitted at the Auction (the "Successful Bid"). In making this decision, the Debtors shall consider, in consultation with the Consultation Party, the amount of the purchase price, the assumption of liabilities, the likelihood of the bidder's ability to close the proposed transaction and the timing thereof, the number, type and nature of any changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement or the applicable Alternative APA, as applicable, requested by each bidder, and the net benefit to the Debtors' estates. The bidder(s) submitting such Successful Bid at the Auction shall become the "Successful Bidder," and shall have such rights and responsibilities of the purchaser as set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable. The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, shall designate a Back-Up Bid (and the corresponding Back-Up Bidder) to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property (or any subset thereof, if applicable) in the event that the Successful Bidder does not close the sale;

(q) on August 19, 2025, the Debtors will file with the Court a notice setting forth the results of the Auction (the "Notice of Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder"), which will (a) identify the Successful Bidder and the Back-Up Bidder with respect to the Kelly Hamilton Property; (b) include a copy of the Successful Bid(s) and the Back-Up Bid(s) or a summary of the material terms of such bids; and (c) set forth the date, time, and location of the Confirmation and Sale Hearing and any other relevant dates or other information necessary to reasonably apprise parties of the outcome of the Auction;

(r) within one (1) business day of the close of the Auction, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, the Successful Bidder shall supplement the Successful Bidder's Deposit such that the Deposit shall be equal to an amount that is ten (10%) percent of the Successful Bid; and

(s) prior to the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, the Successful Bidder(s) shall complete and execute all agreements, contracts, instruments, and other documents evidencing and containing the terms and conditions upon which the Successful Bid was made.

THE SUCCESSFUL BID AND ANY BACK-UP BID AND THEIR RELATED PURCHASE AGREEMENTS SHALL CONSTITUTE AN IRREVOCABLE OFFER AND BE BINDING ON THE SUCCESSFUL BIDDER(S) AND THE BACK-UP BIDDER(S), RESPECTIVELY, FROM THE TIME THE APPLICABLE BID IS SUBMITTED UNTIL TWO (2) BUSINESS DAYS AFTER THE SALE TRANSACTION WITH RESPECT TO THE KELLY HAMILTON PROPERTY HAS CLOSED. EACH QUALIFYING BID THAT IS NOT THE SUCCESSFUL BID OR THE BACK-UP BID SHALL BE DEEMED WITHDRAWN AND TERMINATED AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE CONFIRMATION AND SALE HEARING.

12. Confirmation and Sale Hearing

The Successful Bid and any Back-Up Bid (or if no Qualifying Bid other than that of the Stalking Horse Bidder is received, then the Stalking Horse Agreement, which will be deemed to be the Successful Bid) will be subject to approval by the Court. The Confirmation and Sale Hearing to approve the Successful Bid and any Back-Up Bid (or if no Qualifying Bid other than that of the Stalking Horse Bidder is received, then the Stalking Horse Agreement) shall take place on September 4, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Confirmation and Sale Hearing may be adjourned by the Debtors from time to time without further notice to creditors or other parties in interest other than by announcement of the adjournment in open court or by filing a hearing agenda or notice on the docket of these chapter 11 cases.

At the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, the Debtors will seek entry of their forthcoming Confirmation and Sale Order that, among other things: (i) confirms the Debtors' proposed chapter 11 plan, (ii) authorizes and approves the Sale Transaction to the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then to the Successful Bidder, pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or Alternative APA submitted by the Successful Bidder, as applicable, free and clear of all liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances, except certain permitted encumbrances and assumed liabilities as determined by the Debtors and any Successful Bidder; (iii) finds that the Stalking Horse Bidder or Successful Bidder, as applicable, is a good faith purchaser pursuant to section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (iv) authorizes the assumption and assignment of certain Assumed Contracts in connection with the Sale Transaction.

Any party who fails to file an objection to the Sale Transaction with the Court and serve it upon the parties specified in the Bidding Procedures Order on or before August 22, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (ET) will be forever barred from asserting, at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing or thereafter, any objection to the consummation of the applicable Sale Transaction and any related relief requested by the Debtors.

13. Back-Up Bidder

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, in the event that a Sale Transaction to the applicable Successful Bidder is terminated or fails to close by the outside date identified in the Successful Bid (or such date as may be extended by the Debtors in consultation with the Consultation Party), the applicable Back-Up Bid will be deemed to be the Successful Bid with respect to the Kelly Hamilton Property, the applicable Back-Up Bidder will be deemed to be the applicable Successful Bidder, and the Debtors shall be authorized to close the Sale Transaction for the Kelly Hamilton Property to such Back-Up Bidder on the terms of its Back-Up Bid without the need for further order of the Court and without the need for further notice to any interested parties.

14. Return of Deposits

All Deposits shall be returned to the bidders not selected by the Debtors as the Successful Bidder or Back-Up Bidder no later than five (5) business days following the closing of the Sale Transaction. The deposit of the Successful Bidder or, if the Sale Transaction is closed with the Back-Up Bidder, the deposit of the Back-Up Bidder, shall be applied to the purchase price at the closing of the Sale Transaction. If the Successful Bidder (or, if the Sale Transaction is to be closed with the Back-Up Bidder, then the Back-Up Bidder) fails to consummate the Sale Transaction because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such bidder, then, subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, as applicable, the Debtors and their estates shall be entitled to retain the Deposit of the Successful Bidder (or, if the Sale Transaction is to be closed with the Back-Up Bidder, then the Back-Up Bidder) as part of the damages to the Debtors and their estates for such breach or failure to perform. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors' retention of a Deposit shall not constitute a waiver or limitation of any of the Debtors' legal or equitable rights relating to a Successful Bidder's or Back-Up Bidder's breach or failure to perform, and all such rights and remedies are preserved.

15. No-Shop or No-Solicitation Provisions

The Bidding Procedures Order and Bidding Procedures do not limit the Debtors' ability or right to solicit higher or otherwise better bids for the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Motion, the Bidding Procedures, and the Bidding Procedures Order call for a fair and open bidding and auction process.

16. Consultation Rights

For the avoidance of doubt, any consultation rights provided to the Consultation Party by these Bidding Procedures shall not limit the Debtors' discretion in any way and shall not include the right to veto any decision made by the Debtors in the exercise of their business judgment.

17. Sale Is As Is / Where Is

Except as may be set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or any Alternative APA, the Kelly Hamilton Property sold pursuant to the Bidding Procedures shall be conveyed at the closing in its then-present condition, "AS IS, WITH ALL FAULTS, AND WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED."

18. Reservation of Rights and Fiduciary Out

The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Party, reserve their rights to, and approval of the Bidding Procedures shall not in any way affect the Debtors' rights to: (i) determine whether a Bid is a Qualifying Bid; (ii) determine which Bid at the Auction is the highest or otherwise best Bid; (iii) reject any Bid that is (a) inadequate or insufficient, (b) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bidding Procedures or the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, or (c) contrary to the best interests of the Debtors and their estates; (iv) waive terms and conditions set forth herein with respect to all Bidders; (v) impose additional terms and conditions at the Auction with respect to all Bidders; (vi) extend the deadlines set forth herein (including the date, time, or location of the Auction and/or the Bid Deadline); (vii) continue or cancel the Auction by filing a notice or in open court without further notice; and (viii) modify the Bidding Procedures, if necessary, and implement additional procedural rules that the Debtors determine, in their business judgment, and after consultation with the Consultation Party, will better promote the goals of the bidding process and discharge their fiduciary duties and are not inconsistent with any Court order.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bidding Procedures, nothing in the Bidding Procedures or the Order shall require a Debtor (including the Independent Fiduciary, board of directors, board of managers, or similar governing body of a Debtor), after consulting with counsel, to take any action or to refrain from taking any action, with respect to the Bidding Procedures or otherwise related to any potential transaction, to the extent taking or failing to take such action is required to comply or would be inconsistent with applicable law or the Debtors' fiduciary obligations, if any, under applicable law.

Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bidding Procedures, nothing in the Bidding Procedures or the Order shall diminish the right of the Debtors and their respective directors, officers, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, consultants, and other advisors or representatives to: (a) consider, respond to, and facilitate alternate proposals for other restructuring transactions involving any or all of the Debtors' assets (an "Alternate Proposal"); (b) provide access to non-public information concerning the Debtors to any entity or enter into confidentiality agreements or nondisclosure agreements with any entity; (c) maintain or continue discussions or negotiations with respect to any Alternate Proposals; (d) otherwise cooperate with, assist, participate in, or facilitate any inquiries, proposals, discussions, or negotiation of any Alternate Proposals; and (e) enter into or continue discussions or negotiations with holders of claims against or equity interests in a Debtor or any other party in interest in these chapter 11 cases, or any other entity regarding any Alternate Proposals.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE OF THE FOLLOWING:

On May 19, 2025, the above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, the "Debtors") filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court").

The Debtors are seeking to assume and assign certain of their executory contracts and unexpired leases in connection with the proposed sale of substantially all of the multi-family housing assets (the "Kelly Hamilton Property") owned by Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC under a chapter 11 plan (the "Sale Transaction"). The Debtors currently propose that the Sale Transaction will be approved pursuant to a chapter 11 plan (the "Plan"). The Sale Transaction will be free and clear of liens, claims, and encumbrances, to the maximum extent permissible under applicable law, the Plan, and the order approving confirmation of the Plan and Sale Transaction. [3] Capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning ascribed to such terms in the Bidding Procedures Order or the Motion, as applicable.

You are receiving this Notice because you or one of your affiliates may be a party to an Assumed Contract that may be assumed and assigned in connection with the Sale Transaction.

If the Debtors assume and assign to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, an Assumed Contract to which you are a party, on the closing date of the Sale Transaction, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, will pay you the amount the Debtors' records reflect is owing to you for prepetition arrearages as set forth on Schedule A attached hereto (the "Cure Payment"). The Debtors' records reflect that all postpetition amounts owing under your Assumed Contract have been paid and will continue to be paid until the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, and that other than the Cure Payment, there are no other defaults under the Assumed Contract.

The Debtors' inclusion of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as an Assumed Contract on Schedule A is not a guarantee that such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease will ultimately be assumed and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder. Should it be determined that an Assumed Contract will not be assumed and assigned, the Debtors shall notify such party to the Assumed Contract in writing of such decision.

Under the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors may modify the list of Assumed Contracts on Schedule A until consummation of the Sale Transaction, and the Debtors reserve the right, but only in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, at any time after the closing of the Sale Transaction and before the deadline for designation of additional Assumed Contracts or removal of potentially Assumed Contracts set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement to (i) supplement the list of Assumed Contracts with previously omitted executory contracts, (ii) remove Assumed Contracts from the list of executory contracts ultimately selected as Assumed Contracts that the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, proposes be assumed and assigned to it in connection with the Sale Transaction, or (iii) modify the previously stated Cure Payment associated with any Assumed Contracts. In the event the Debtors exercise any of these reserved rights, the Debtors will promptly serve a supplemental notice of contract assumption (a "Supplemental Assumption Notice") on each of the counterparties to such contracts and their counsel of record, if any; provided, however, the Debtors may not add an executory contract to the list of Assumed Contracts that has been previously rejected by the Debtors by order of the Bankruptcy Court. Each Supplemental Assumption Notice will include the same information with respect to listed Assumed Contracts as was included in the Assumption Notice, or in the event of a removal, the information required in a Removal Notice.

Any objection to the Cure Payment or to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection and, if the objection pertains to the proposed amount of the Cure Payment, the correct cure amount alleged by the objecting counterparty, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, and (iv) be filed with the Court on or before [____, 2025 (i.e., fourteen (14) days after service) or ____, 2025 (i.e., three (3) business days after service of the Supplemental Assumption Notice)] (the "Cure Objection Deadline") and served upon, so as to be actually received by, the Objection Notice Parties (as defined herein) on or before the Cure Objection Deadline.

Any objection to the (a) Sale Transaction and (b) in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, any objection to the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of the identity of the Successful Bidder and adequate assurance of future performance of the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, (iv) be filed with the Court on or before August 22, 2025, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time (the "Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline"), and (v) be served upon, so as to be actually received by, the Objection Notice Parties (as defined herein) on or before the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline.[4]

The "Objection Notice Parties" are as follows: (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (c) any other party that has filed a notice of appearance in these chapter 11 cases.

If an objection to the Cure Payment, assumption and assignment, adequate assurance of future performance, or the Sale Transaction is timely filed and not resolved by the parties, a hearing with respect to the objection will take place in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing to be held at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on September 4, 2025, subject to the Bankruptcy Court's availability, or such other date as determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then in consultation with the Successful Bidder, in accordance with the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order. A hearing regarding the Cure Payment, if any, may be continued at the discretion of the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, until after the closing of the Sale Transaction.

Any party failing to timely file an objection to the proposed Cure Payment, the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract listed on an Assumption Notice or the Supplemental Assumption Notice, or the Sale Transaction is deemed to have consented to (a) such Cure Payment, (b) the assumption and assignment of such Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract (including the adequate assurance of future payment), (c) the related relief requested in the Motion, and (d) the Sale Transaction. Such party shall be forever barred and estopped from objecting to the Cure Payment, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, or Additional Assumed Contract, adequate assurance of future performance, the relief requested herein, whether applicable law excuses such counterparty from accepting performance by, or rendering performance to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, for purposes of section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and from asserting any additional cure or other amounts against the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, with respect to such party's Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract.

[4] For the avoidance of doubt, all objections to the Cure Payment and assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including objections to the adequate assurance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, must be filed by the applicable Cure Objection Deadline regardless of whether the Stalking Horse Bidder is the Successful Bidder.

Subject to the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, an auction (the "Auction") for the Kelly Hamilton Property, including the Assumed Contracts, will be conducted on August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) or such other date as may be determined by the Debtors (which information will be timely provided by the Debtors to the Auction Participants), at the White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020, or virtually via telephone and/or video conference.

After the Auction, the Debtors will file and serve a notice that identifies the Successful Bidder for the Kelly Hamilton Property, including any Assumed Contracts. The Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, reserve all of their rights, claims, and causes of action with respect to the contracts and agreements listed on Schedule A hereto. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the proposed assumption and assignment of each of the Assumed Contracts listed on Schedule A hereto (a) shall not be an admission as to whether any such Assumed Contract was executory or unexpired as of the Petition Date or remains executory or unexpired postpetition within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (b) shall be subject to the Debtors' or the Stalking Horse Bidder's or other Successful Bidder's, as applicable, right to conduct further confirmatory diligence with respect to the Cure Payment of each Assumed Contract and to modify such Cure Payment accordingly. In the event that the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, determine that your Cure Payment should be modified, you will receive a notice, which will provide for additional time to object to such modification.

The Debtors will seek to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts that have been selected by the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, (collectively, the "Selected Assumed Contracts") at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing.

Nothing contained herein shall obligate the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder to assume any Selected Assumed Contracts, and all rights of the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder with respect to such Selected Assumed Contracts are reserved. Moreover, the Debtors explicitly reserve their rights, in their reasonable discretion, to seek to reject or assume each Selected Assumed Contract pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and in accordance with the procedures allowing the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, to designate any Selected Assumed Contract as either rejected or assumed on a post-closing basis.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, but subject to entry of the Sale Order, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement and Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Debtor pursuant to this Agreement nor the performance by Debtor of the obligations of Debtor hereunder or under such Closing Documents will (i) result in the violation of any applicable Laws or any provision of Debtor's organizational documents, (ii) conflict with any order of any Governmental Authority binding upon Debtor, or (iii) conflict or be inconsistent with, or result in any default under, any contract, agreement or commitment by which Debtor is bound.

Debtor is not engaging in this Transaction, directly or indirectly, in violation of any Laws relating to drug trafficking, money laundering or predicate crimes to money laundering. None of the funds of Debtor have been or will be derived from any unlawful activity with the result that the investment of direct or indirect equity owners in Debtor is prohibited by Law or that the Transaction or this Agreement is or will be in violation of Law. Debtor has and will continue to implement procedures, and has consistently and will continue to consistently apply those procedures, to ensure the foregoing representations and warranties remain true and correct at all times prior to Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Debtor's representations and warranties under this Section 7.2(b) apply to any person or entity which owns, has owned, or may hereafter own any publicly traded stock or other publicly traded securities of (a) Debtor (if any), or (b) any entity which directly or indirectly owns an interest in Debtor.

In connection with the Sale Transaction, the Kelly Hamilton Debtor has entered into that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified by the parties thereto, and including any exhibits attached thereto, the "Stalking Horse Agreement"), dated July 11, 2025, with 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender") or a nominee designated in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement[2] (such nominee, together with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, as applicable, the "Stalking Horse Bidder") to acquire the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Stalking Horse Agreement remains subject to the Debtors' acceptance of higher or otherwise better offers in accordance with the Bidding Procedures (as defined herein).

By order, dated July 24, 2025 [Docket No. 325] (the "Bidding Procedures Order"), the Bankruptcy Court approved certain relief requested in the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Approving (A) Bidding Procedures, the Sale Timeline, and the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof for the Kelly Hamilton Property, (B) the Debtors' Entry into and Performance Under the Stalking Horse Agreement, (C) Bid Protections in Connection with the Stalking Horse Agreement, and (D) Assumption and Assignment Procedures, and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 325] (the "Motion"), including the "Bidding Procedures" that govern the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property to the highest or otherwise best bidder(s). All interested bidders should carefully read the Bidding Procedures. The Bidding Procedures Order also approved certain procedures for the assumption and assignment of certain of the Debtors' executory contracts and unexpired leases (the "Assumption and Assignment Procedures").

Copies of the Motion,[3] the Bidding Procedures Order, the Bidding Procedures, and the Stalking Horse Agreement are available for download at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm (the "Case Website").

Pursuant to the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors hereby provide notice that they are seeking to potentially assume and assign to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, the executory contracts or unexpired leases (each, an "Assumed Contract" and together, the "Assumed Contracts") listed on Schedule A attached hereto.

[2] The nominee shall be a special purpose entity under common control by the Stalking Horse Bidder which the Stalking Horse Bidder shall designate to acquire the Kelly Hamilton Property in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement.

[3] Capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning ascribed to such terms in the Bidding Procedures Order or the Motion, as applicable.

You are receiving this notice because you or one of your affiliates may be a party to an Assumed Contract that may be assumed and assigned in connection with the Sale Transaction.

If the Debtors assume and assign to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, an Assumed Contract to which you are a party, on the closing date of the Sale Transaction, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, will pay you the amount the Debtors' records reflect is owing to you for prepetition arrearages as set forth on Schedule A attached hereto (the "Cure Payment"). The Debtors' records reflect that all postpetition amounts owing under your Assumed Contract have been paid and will continue to be paid until the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, and that other than the Cure Payment, there are no other defaults under the Assumed Contract.

The Debtors' inclusion of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as an Assumed Contract on Schedule A is not a guarantee that such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease will ultimately be assumed and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder. Should it be determined that an Assumed Contract will not be assumed and assigned, the Debtors shall notify such party to the Assumed Contract in writing of such decision.

Under the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors may modify the list of Assumed Contracts on Schedule A until consummation of the Sale Transaction, and the Debtors reserve the right, but only in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, at any time after the closing of the Sale Transaction and before the deadline for designation of additional Assumed Contracts or removal of potentially Assumed Contracts set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement to (i) supplement the list of Assumed Contracts with previously omitted executory contracts, (ii) remove Assumed Contracts from the list of executory contracts ultimately selected as Assumed Contracts that the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, proposes be assumed and assigned to it in connection with the Sale Transaction, or (iii) modify the previously stated Cure Payment associated with any Assumed Contracts. In the event the Debtors exercise any of these reserved rights, the Debtors will promptly serve a supplemental notice of contract assumption (a "Supplemental Assumption Notice") on each of the counterparties to such contracts and their counsel of record, if any; provided, however, the Debtors may not add an executory contract to the list of Assumed Contracts that has been previously rejected by the Debtors by order of the Bankruptcy Court. Each Supplemental Assumption Notice will include the same information with respect to listed Assumed Contracts as was included in the Assumption Notice, or in the event of a removal, the information required in a Removal Notice.

Any objection to the Cure Payment or to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection and, if the objection pertains to the proposed amount of the Cure Payment, the correct cure amount alleged by the objecting counterparty, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, and (iv) be filed with the Court on or before August 11, 2025 at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time or three (3) business days after service of the Supplemental Assumption Notice at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time (the "Cure Objection Deadline") and served upon, so as to be actually received by, the Objection Notice Parties (as defined herein) on or before the Cure Objection Deadline.

Any objection to the (a) Sale Transaction and (b) in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, any objection to the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of the identity of the Successful Bidder and adequate assurance of future performance of the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, (iv) be filed with the Court on or before August 26, 2025, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time (the "Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline"), and (v) be served upon, so as to be actually received by, the Objection Notice Parties (as defined herein) on or before the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline.[4]

The "Objection Notice Parties" are as follows: (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (c) any other party that has filed a notice of appearance in these chapter 11 cases.

If an objection to the Cure Payment, assumption and assignment, adequate assurance of future performance, or the Sale Transaction is timely filed and not resolved by the parties, a hearing with respect to the objection will take place in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing to be held at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on September 4, 2025, subject to the Bankruptcy Court's availability, or such other date as determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then in consultation with the Successful Bidder, in accordance with the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order. A hearing regarding the Cure Payment, if any, may be continued at the discretion of the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, until after the closing of the Sale Transaction.

Any party failing to timely file an objection to the proposed Cure Payment, the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract listed on an Assumption Notice or the Supplemental Assumption Notice, or the Sale Transaction is deemed to have consented to (a) such Cure Payment, (b) the assumption and assignment of such Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract (including the adequate assurance of future payment), (c) the related relief requested in the Motion, and (d) the Sale Transaction. Such party shall be forever barred and estopped from objecting to the Cure Payment, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, or Additional Assumed Contract, adequate assurance of future performance, the relief requested herein, whether applicable law excuses such counterparty from accepting performance by, or rendering performance to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, for purposes of section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and from asserting any additional cure or other amounts against the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, with respect to such party's Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract.

[4] For the avoidance of doubt, all objections to the Cure Payment and assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including objections to the adequate assurance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, must be filed by the applicable Cure Objection Deadline regardless of whether the Stalking Horse Bidder is the Successful Bidder.

Subject to the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, an auction (the "Auction") for the Kelly Hamilton Property, including the Assumed Contracts, will be conducted on August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) or such other date as may be determined by the Debtors (which information will be timely provided by the Debtors to the Auction Participants), at the White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020, or virtually via telephone and/or video conference.

After the Auction, the Debtors will file and serve a notice that identifies the Successful Bidder for the Kelly Hamilton Property, including any Assumed Contracts. The Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, reserve all of their rights, claims, and causes of action with respect to the contracts and agreements listed on Schedule A hereto. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the proposed assumption and assignment of each of the Assumed Contracts listed on Schedule A hereto (a) shall not be an admission as to whether any such Assumed Contract was executory or unexpired as of the Petition Date or remains executory or unexpired postpetition within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (b) shall be subject to the Debtors' or the Stalking Horse Bidder's or other Successful Bidder's, as applicable, right to conduct further confirmatory diligence with respect to the Cure Payment of each Assumed Contract and to modify such Cure Payment accordingly. In the event that the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, determine that your Cure Payment should be modified, you will receive a notice, which will provide for additional time to object to such modification.

The Debtors will seek to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts that have been selected by the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, (collectively, the "Selected Assumed Contracts") at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing.

Nothing contained herein shall obligate the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder to assume any Selected Assumed Contracts, and all rights of the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder with respect to such Selected Assumed Contracts are reserved. Moreover, the Debtors explicitly reserve their rights, in their reasonable discretion, to seek to reject or assume each Selected Assumed Contract pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and in accordance with the procedures allowing the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, to designate any Selected Assumed Contract as either rejected or assumed on a post-closing basis.

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE OF POSSIBLE ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT WITH RESPECT TO EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES OF THE DEBTORS

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT:

The above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (the "Debtors") each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code"), on May 19, 2025, in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Bankruptcy Court"). The Debtors are seeking to assume and assign certain of their executory contracts and unexpired leases in connection with the sale (the "Sale Transaction") of substantially all of the multi-family housing assets (the "Kelly Hamilton Property") owned by Debtor Kelly Hamilton Apts through a chapter 11 plan (the "Plan"). In connection with the Sale Transaction, the Kelly Hamilton Debtor has entered into that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified by the parties thereto, and including any exhibits attached thereto, the "Stalking Horse Agreement"), dated July 11, 2025, with 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender") or a nominee designated in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement[2] (such nominee, together with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, as applicable, the "Stalking Horse Bidder") to acquire the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Stalking Horse Agreement remains subject to the Debtors' acceptance of higher or otherwise better offers in accordance with the Bidding Procedures (as defined herein).

By order, dated July 24, 2025 [Docket No. 325] (the "Bidding Procedures Order"), the Bankruptcy Court approved certain relief requested in the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Approving (A) Bidding Procedures, the Sale Timeline, and the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof for the Kelly Hamilton Property, (B) the Debtors' Entry into and Performance Under the Stalking Horse Agreement, (C) Bid Protections in Connection with the Stalking Horse Agreement, and (D) Assumption and Assignment Procedures, and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 325] (the "Motion"), including the "Bidding Procedures" that govern the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property to the highest or otherwise best bidder(s). All interested bidders should carefully read the Bidding Procedures. The Bidding Procedures Order also approved certain procedures for the assumption and assignment of certain of the Debtors' executory contracts and unexpired leases (the "Assumption and Assignment Procedures").

Copies of the Motion,[3] the Bidding Procedures Order, the Bidding Procedures, and the Stalking Horse Agreement are available for download at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm (the "Case Website").

Under the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors may modify the list of Assumed Contracts on Schedule A until consummation of the Sale Transaction, and the Debtors reserve the right, but only in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement or as otherwise agreed

[2] The nominee shall be a special purpose entity under common control by the Stalking Horse Bidder which the Stalking Horse Bidder shall designate to acquire the Kelly Hamilton Property in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement.

[3] Capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning ascribed to such terms in the Bidding Procedures Order or the Motion, as applicable.

by the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, at any time after the closing of the Sale Transaction and before the deadline for designation of additional Assumed Contracts or removal of potentially Assumed Contracts set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement to (i) supplement the list of Assumed Contracts with previously omitted executory contracts, (ii) remove Assumed Contracts from the list of executory contracts ultimately selected as Assumed Contracts that the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, proposes be assumed and assigned to it in connection with the Sale Transaction, or (iii) modify the previously stated Cure Payment associated with any Assumed Contracts. In the event the Debtors exercise any of these reserved rights, the Debtors will promptly serve a supplemental notice of contract assumption (a "Supplemental Assumption Notice") on each of the counterparties to such contracts and their counsel of record, if any; provided, however, the Debtors may not add an executory contract to the list of Assumed Contracts that has been previously rejected by the Debtors by order of the Bankruptcy Court. Each Supplemental Assumption Notice will include the same information with respect to listed Assumed Contracts as was included in the Assumption Notice, or in the event of a removal, the information required in a Removal Notice.

In accordance with the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors hereby provide this Supplemental Assumption Notice that they are seeking to potentially assume and assign to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, the executory contracts or unexpired leases (each, an "Assumed Contract" and together, the "Assumed Contracts") listed on Schedule A attached hereto.

You are receiving this Supplemental Assumption Notice because you or one of your affiliates may be a party to an Assumed Contract that may be assumed and assigned in connection with the Sale Transaction.

If the Debtors assume and assign to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, an Assumed Contract to which you are a party, on the closing date of the Sale Transaction, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, will pay you the amount the Debtors' records reflect is owing to you for prepetition arrearages as set forth on Schedule A attached hereto (the "Cure Payment"). The Debtors' records reflect that all postpetition amounts owing under your Assumed Contract have been paid and will continue to be paid until the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, and that other than the Cure Payment, there are no other defaults under the Assumed Contract.

The Debtors' inclusion of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as an Assumed Contract on Schedule A is not a guarantee that such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease will ultimately be assumed and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder. Should it be determined that an Assumed Contract will not be assumed and assigned, the Debtors shall notify such party to the Assumed Contract in writing of such decision.

Any objection to the Cure Payment or to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection and, if the objection pertains to the proposed amount of the Cure Payment, the correct cure amount alleged by the objecting counterparty, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, and (iv) be filed with the Court on or before three (3) business days after service of this Supplemental Assumption Notice at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time (the "Cure Objection Deadline") and served upon, so as to be actually received by, the Objection Notice Parties (as defined herein) on or before the Cure Objection Deadline.

Any objection to the (a) Sale Transaction and (b) in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, any objection to the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract to the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), solely on account of the identity of the Successful Bidder and adequate assurance of future performance of the Successful Bidder (that is not the Stalking Horse Bidder), must (i) be in writing, (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (iii) state with specificity the nature of the objection, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof, (iv) be filed with the Court on or before August 26, 2025, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time (the "Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline"), and (v) be served upon, so as to be actually received by, the Objection Notice Parties (as defined herein) on or before the Confirmation and Sale Objection Deadline.[4]

The "Objection Notice Parties" are as follows: (a) counsel to the Debtors, (b) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder, and (c) any other party that has filed a notice of appearance in these chapter 11 cases.

If an objection to the Cure Payment, assumption and assignment, adequate assurance of future performance, or the Sale Transaction is timely filed and not resolved by the parties, a hearing with respect to the objection will take place in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing to be held at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on September 4, 2025, subject to the Bankruptcy Court's availability, or such other date as determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Stalking Horse Bidder or, in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is not the Successful Bidder, then in consultation with the Successful Bidder, in accordance with the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order. A hearing regarding the Cure Payment, if any, may be continued at the discretion of the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, until after the closing of the Sale Transaction.

Any party failing to timely file an objection to the proposed Cure Payment, the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract listed on an Assumption Notice or the Supplemental Assumption Notice, or the Sale Transaction is deemed to have consented to (a) such Cure Payment, (b) the assumption and assignment of such Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract (including the adequate assurance of future payment), (c) the related relief requested in the Motion, and (d) the Sale Transaction. Such party shall be forever barred and estopped from objecting to the Cure Payment, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, or Additional Assumed Contract, adequate assurance of future performance, the relief requested herein, whether applicable law excuses such counterparty from accepting performance by, or rendering performance to the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, for purposes of section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and from asserting any additional cure or other amounts against the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, with respect to such party's Assumed Contract or Additional Assumed Contract.

[4] For the avoidance of doubt, all objections to the Cure Payment and assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder, including objections to the adequate assurance of the Stalking Horse Bidder, must be filed by the applicable Cure Objection Deadline regardless of whether the Stalking Horse Bidder is the Successful Bidder.

Subject to the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, an auction (the "Auction") for the Kelly Hamilton Property, including the Assumed Contracts, will be conducted on August 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) or such other date as may be determined by the Debtors (which information will be timely provided by the Debtors to the Auction Participants), at the White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020, or virtually via telephone and/or video conference.

After the Auction, the Debtors will file and serve a notice that identifies the Successful Bidder for the Kelly Hamilton Property, including any Assumed Contracts. The Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, reserve all of their rights, claims, and causes of action with respect to the contracts and agreements listed on Schedule A hereto. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the proposed assumption and assignment of each of the Assumed Contracts listed on Schedule A hereto (a) shall not be an admission as to whether any such Assumed Contract was executory or unexpired as of the Petition Date or remains executory or unexpired postpetition within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (b) shall be subject to the Debtors' or the Stalking Horse Bidder's or other Successful Bidder's, as applicable, right to conduct further confirmatory diligence with respect to the Cure Payment of each Assumed Contract and to modify such Cure Payment accordingly. In the event that the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, determine that your Cure Payment should be modified, you will receive a notice, which will provide for additional time to object to such modification.

The Debtors will seek to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts that have been selected by the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, (collectively, the "Selected Assumed Contracts") at the Confirmation and Sale Hearing.

Nothing contained herein shall obligate the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder to assume any Selected Assumed Contracts, and all rights of the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder with respect to such Selected Assumed Contracts are reserved. Moreover, the Debtors explicitly reserve their rights, in their reasonable discretion, to seek to reject or assume each Selected Assumed Contract pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and in accordance with the procedures allowing the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder, as applicable, to designate any Selected Assumed Contract as either rejected or assumed on a post-closing basis.

Unless previously Filed, requests for payment of General Administrative Claims must be Filed and served on the Debtors no later than the General Administrative Claims Bar Date pursuant to the procedures specified in the Confirmation Order and the notice of the Effective Date. Holders of General Administrative Claims that do not File and serve such a request by the General Administrative Claims Bar Date shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from asserting such General Administrative Claims against the Debtors or the Debtors' property and such General Administrative Claims shall be deemed released and compromised as of the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes is not required to file a request for payment of any General Administrative Claims relating to the Ad Hoc Group Fees. To the extent the Debtors' Cash on hand is not sufficient to pay the Ad Hoc Group Fees as of the Effective Date, the Ad Hoc Group Fees shall be paid from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets once the Creditor Recovery Trust has satisfied any unpaid Allowed Professional Compensation Claims and fees of the Independent Fiduciary.

B. Professional Compensation Claims.

Funds held in the Fee Escrow Account shall not be considered property of the Estates; provided that the Debtors' counsel shall be the designated Entity authorized to release funds from the Fee Escrow Account in accordance with the governing escrow agreement.

Upon the Confirmation Date, any requirement that Professionals comply with sections 327 through 331, 363, and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code in seeking retention or compensation for services rendered after such date shall terminate, and the Debtors may employ and pay any Professional in the ordinary course of business for the period after the Confirmation Date without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, no General Administrative Claims, Professional Compensation Claims, or any other post-confirmation fees and expenses shall be paid prior to payment of any Quarterly Fees due and outstanding to the U.S. Trustee.

A Priority Tax Claim that becomes Allowed after the Effective Date shall receive such treatment in accordance with the Plan as soon as reasonably practicable after such Priority Tax Claim becomes Allowed.

F. Kelly Hamilton DIP Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, and release of and in exchange for release of all Allowed Kelly Hamilton DIP Claims, on the Effective Date, each Allowed Kelly Hamilton DIP Claim shall be credit bid in its entirety in accordance with the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement; provided that, to the extent that the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser is not the Successful Bidder at the Auction (each as defined in the Bidding Procedures Order) and an alternative transaction is consummated, all Allowed Kelly Hamilton DIP Claims shall receive payment in full in Cash on the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Claims shall be Allowed in the aggregate amount outstanding under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Credit Agreement as of the Effective Date. Fees in full in Cash when due and payable from the Wind-Down Assets. The Debtors shall remain obligated to pay any and all applicable Quarterly Fees until the earliest of that particular Debtor's case being closed, dismissed, or converted to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. The U.S. Trustee shall not be treated as providing any release under the Plan. Quarterly Fees are Allowed. The U.S. Trustee shall not be required to file any proof of claim or any request for administrative expense for Quarterly Fees. 5. Privileged Information of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, any attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, common-interest communications with Insurance Companies, protection or privilege granted by joint defense, common interest, and/or other privilege or immunity of the Debtors relating, in whole or in part, to the Crown

Capital Unsecured Claims, the CBRM Unsecured Claims, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action), or the Insurance Causes of Actions shall be irrevocably transferred to and vested in the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall have the same rights as the Debtors in Privileged Information relating to the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the CBRM Unsecured Claims, and the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The Creditor Recovery Trust's rights in the Privileged Information will remain subject to the rights of third parties under applicable law, including any rights arising from the common interest doctrine, the joint defense doctrine, joint attorney-client representation, or any agreement; provided, however, that prior to taking any action that could affect any privilege in which a third party may have rights, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall provide such third party with reasonable written notice.

6. Creditor Recovery Trustee.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be governed exclusively by the Creditor Recovery Trustee. The powers and duties of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall include, but shall not be limited to, those powers, duties and responsibilities vested in the Creditor Recovery Trustee pursuant to the terms of the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and shall include the authority to: (a) hold, manage, protect, and monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; (b) carry out the provisions of the Plan relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including commencing, prosecuting, and settling all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Insurance Causes of Action; and (c) perform all actions and execute all agreements, instruments and other documents necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The preceding list of powers, duties, and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee is non-exclusive and the powers, rights and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be further specified in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

7. Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee.

On the Effective Date and pursuant to the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Trust Advisory Committee (as defined in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement) shall be established. The Trust Advisory Committee shall serve in a fiduciary capacity in the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust and have such rights of with respect to consultation and consent as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The members of the Trust Advisory Committee shall be entitled to compensation for their services in an amount to be agreed by, if prior to the Confirmation Hearing, the Debtors, or if on or after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee.

8. Vesting of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

As of the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, charges or other interests to the extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses the Debtors would have if such assets had been retained by the Debtors. The Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action vested, transferred, or assigned to such entity on behalf of both the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, subject to the provisions of this Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets will not be deemed property of the Debtors or their Estates.

9. Adequate Disclosure.

The Confirmation Order shall provide that all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action have been sufficiently and adequately disclosed in the Chapter 11 Cases for all purposes necessary to satisfy the requirements of the standard set forth in Oneida Motor Freight, Inc. v. United Jersey Bank, 848 F.2d 414 (3d Cir. 1988) such that no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), shall apply to prevent the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Wind-Down Officer from initiating, filing, prosecuting, enforcing, abandoning, settling, compromising, releasing, withdrawing, or litigating to judgment any such Causes of Action.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

F. Corporate Action.

Notwithstanding any requirements under applicable nonbankruptcy law, upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions and the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors, and any corporate action required by the Debtors in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by any Person or Entity or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, the Independent Fiduciary may in her reasonable discretion authorize another Person or Entity to act on behalf of the Independent Fiduciary or assume the powers of the Independent Fiduciary.

H. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests, including the Transferred Subsidiaries, pursuant to the Plan, including the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

J. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

K. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall thereafter be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

L. Funding of Creditor Recovery Trust Amount.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Amount shall be funded in Cash.

M. CBRM-Crown Capital Intercompany Settlement.

In full settlement of any Intercompany Claims arising in connection with the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility being used to fund the restructuring of Debtor CBRM pursuant to this Plan, (1) any Claims and Causes of Action held by CBRM shall constitute Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, and (2) CBRM agrees that the Wind-Down Officer shall have the sole authority to wind down, dissolve, and liquidate its Estate and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the sole authority to effectuate Distributions to the Holders of CBRM Unsecured Claims to the extent the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims receive payment in full.

ARTICLE V
TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D&O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. The D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder. The Debtors and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors and their Affiliates who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VI
PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIBUTIONS

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court.

Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and CBRM Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

ARTICLE VII
PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING CONTINGENT, UNLIQUIDATED, AND DISPUTED CLAIMS

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Claims Filed after the Claims Bar Date that were required to be Filed in advance of the Claims Bar Date under its terms shall be expunged and disallowed without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

C. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, as soon as practicable, the Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the Distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, less any previous Distribution (if any) that was made on account of the undisputed portion of such Claim, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Claim.

ARTICLE VIII
SETTLEMENT, RELEASE, INJUNCTION, AND RELATED PROVISIONS

A. Settlement, Compromise, and Release of Claims and Interests.

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided pursuant to the Plan, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, the distributions, rights, and treatment that are provided in the Plan shall be in complete settlement, compromise, and release, effective as of the Effective Date, of Claims, Interests, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on Claims or Interests from and after the Petition Date, whether known or unknown, against, liabilities of, Liens on, obligations of, rights against, and Interests in, the Debtors or any of their assets or properties, regardless of whether any property shall have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims and Interests, including demands, liabilities, and Causes of Action that arose before the Effective Date, any liability (including withdrawal liability) to the extent such Claims or Interests relate to services performed by agents or representatives of the Debtors before the Effective Date and that arise from a termination of employment, any contingent or non-contingent liability on account of representations or warranties issued on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in sections 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case whether or not: (1) a Proof of Claim based upon such debt, right, Claim, or Interest is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) a Claim or Interest based upon such debt, right, or Interest is Allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (3) the Holder of such a Claim or Interest has accepted the Plan. Any default by the Debtors or their Affiliates with respect to any Claim or Interest that existed immediately before or on account of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases shall be deemed cured on the Effective Date. The Confirmation Order shall be a judicial determination of the settlement, compromise, and release of all Claims and Interests subject to the Effective Date occurring.[2]

B. Release of Liens.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, on the Effective Date and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and, in the case of a Secured Claim, satisfaction in full of the portion of the Secured Claim that is Allowed as of the Effective Date, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estate shall be fully released, settled, and compromised.

[2] Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the discharge and releases provided in this Article VIII shall not discharge any Claims or Causes of Action against Crown Capital arising under or in connection with the NOLA DIP Facility.

C. Releases by the Debtors.

Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, for good and valuable consideration, on and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, including any derivative Claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that the Debtors or their Estates would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim or Interest or other Entity, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Chapter 11 Cases, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

D. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests.

As of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Releasing Parties are deemed to have released the Debtors, their Estates, and the Released Parties from any and all Claims, Interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies and liabilities whatsoever, including any direct Claims held by any of the Releasing Parties against the Debtors, their Estates, and/or the Released Parties or derivative Claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that each Releasing Party would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Debtors' restructuring, the Chapter 11 Cases, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents, or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan.

E. Exculpation.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Released Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects each Debtor and each Released Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, and the Released Parties have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

F. Injunction.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or for obligations issued or required to be paid pursuant to the Plan, all Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that have been released pursuant to Article VIII.B of the Plan or Article VIII.D of the Plan, compromised and settled pursuant to Article VIII.A of the Plan, or are subject to exculpation pursuant to Article VIII.E of the Plan are permanently enjoined, from and after the Effective Date, from taking any of the following actions against, as applicable, the Debtors or the Released Parties: (1) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claim or Interest; (2) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (3) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against such Entities or the property or the Estates of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (4) asserting any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from such Entities or against the property of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; and (5) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests.

ARTICLE IX
CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE

A. Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date.

It shall be a condition to Consummation that the following conditions shall have been satisfied or waived pursuant to the provisions of Article IX.B of the Plan:

1. the Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Confirmation Order and it shall have become a Final Order; provided, however, that in accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 3020(e), 6004(h), and 6006(d) (and notwithstanding any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules), the Confirmation Order shall not be stayed and shall be effective immediately upon its entry;

2. all documents and agreements necessary to implement the Plan, including any documents related to the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and Restructuring Transactions shall have (a) all conditions precedent to the effectiveness of such documents and agreements satisfied or waived pursuant to the terms of such documents or agreements, (b) been tendered for delivery, and (c) been effected or executed;

3. all governmental and material third-party approvals and consents, including Bankruptcy Court approval, necessary in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Plan shall have been obtained, not be subject to unfulfilled conditions and be in full force and effect, and all applicable waiting periods shall have expired without any action being taken or threatened by any competent authority that would restrain, prevent, or otherwise impose materially adverse conditions on such transactions; and

4. all conditions precedent to implementation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and Restructuring Transactions, including any conditions precedent under the Bidding Procedures Order, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any auction, if necessary, shall have occurred.

B. Waiver of Conditions.

The conditions to Consummation set forth in Article IX of the Plan may be waived only by consent of the Debtors and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser without notice, leave, or order of the Bankruptcy Court or any formal action other than proceedings to confirm or consummate the Plan.

ARTICLE X
MODIFICATION, REVOCATION, OR WITHDRAWAL OF THE PLAN

A. Modification and Amendments.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors reserve the right to modify the Plan, whether materially or immaterially, including by adding a non-Debtor entity that becomes a debtor and debtor in possession under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code to, or removing a Debtor from, the Plan, and seek Confirmation, in each instance, to the extent permitted under the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain restrictions and requirements set forth in section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019 and those restrictions on modifications set forth in the Plan, the Debtors reserve their right to alter, amend, or modify materially the Plan, one or more times, after Confirmation, and, to the extent necessary, may initiate proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court to so alter, amend, or modify the Plan, or remedy any defect or omission, or reconcile any inconsistencies in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Confirmation Order, in such matters as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and intent of the Plan.

B. Effect of Confirmation on Modifications.

Entry of a Confirmation Order shall mean that all modifications or amendments to the Plan occurring after the solicitation thereof and before the Confirmation Date are approved pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and do not require additional disclosure or resolicitation under Bankruptcy Rule 3019.

C. Revocation or Withdrawal of the Plan.

The Debtors reserve the right to revoke or withdraw the Plan before the Confirmation Date or the Effective Date and to File subsequent plans of reorganization, in which case the Plan shall be null and void in all respects.

ARTICLE XI
RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

Notwithstanding the entry of the Confirmation Order and the occurrence of the Effective Date, on and after the Effective Date, the Bankruptcy Court shall retain such jurisdiction over the Chapter 11 Cases and all matters, arising out of, or related to, the Chapter 11 Cases and the Plan, including jurisdiction to:

1. allow, disallow, determine, liquidate, classify, estimate, or establish the priority, Secured or unsecured status, or amount of any Claim or Interest, including the resolution of any request for payment of any General Administrative Claim and the resolution of any and all objections to the Secured or unsecured status, priority, amount, or allowance of Claims or Interests;

2. decide and resolve all matters related to the granting and denying, in whole or in part, any applications for allowance of compensation or reimbursement of expenses to Professionals authorized pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or the Plan;

3. resolve any matters related to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, including the rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to which any Debtor is a party or with respect to which the Debtors may be liable in any manner and to hear, determine, and, if necessary, liquidate, any Claims arising therefrom, or any other matter related;

4. ensure that distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims and Allowed Interests are accomplished pursuant to the provisions of the Plan;

CBRM REALTY INC.,

Debtors.[3]

Chapter 11

Case Number: 25-15343 (MBK)
(Jointly Administered)

(I) OBJECTION OF CHARDELL BACON—ON HER OWN BEHALF AND ON BEHALF OF THOSE SIMILARLY-SITUATED—TO JOINT CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF CBRM REALTY INC. AND CERTAIN OF ITS DEBTOR AFFILIATES AND TO APPROVAL OF THE KELLY HAMILTON SALE TRANSACTION; AND (II) MOTION TO CERTIFY CLASS OF OBJECTORS PURSUANT TO BANKRUPTCY RULES 9014 AND 7023

[1] Pro Hac Vice admission pending.

[2] Pro Hac Vice admission pending.

[3] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: CBRM Realty Inc. (2420), Crown Capital Holdings LLC (1411), Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC (1115), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC (0765), RH Chenault Creek LLC (8987), RH Copper Creek LLC (0874), RH Lakewind East LLC (6963), RH Windrun LLC (0122), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC (7528), and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC (1951). The location of the Debtors' service address in these chapter 11 cases is: In re CBRM Realty Inc., et al., c/o White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020.

Chardell Bacon, claimant herein on her own behalf and on behalf of those similarly-situated, by and through undersigned counsel, hereby submits this objection ("Objection") to the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates ("the Joint Plan") and to Approval of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction ("the Sale Transaction"), and respectfully states as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Ms. Bacon has resided at one of the homes in the Kelly Hamilton portfolio since 2018, prior to Debtors' purchase of the properties. Since Debtors' purchase of the properties, and as a result of their continued and severe neglect of the portfolio, Ms. Bacon's unit has deteriorated in condition substantially, and it presents health and safety risks to Ms. Bacon and her three children. Ms. Bacon filed a claim on July 28, 2025 in this matter, based on Debtors' breach of her lease and violation of the implied warranty of habitability.

2. The habitability issues undoubtedly arose during Debtors' ownership of the property. More importantly, however, those issues have persisted to the present day, while the Kelly Hamilton portfolio is under control of Lynd Management ("Lynd"). Despite the work of an independent fiduciary and Lynd's management takeover in March of 2024, Ms. Bacon, and many other residents of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio (together, "the Tenants"), continue to live in uninhabitable conditions. (ECF 360 at 31.)

3. For this reason, the Tenants file this Objection to the confirmation of the Joint Plan (ECF 338-1) and Stalking Horse Agreement (ECF 325 at 57-84) ("the Confirmation and Sale Transaction") which transfer the Kelly Hamilton portfolio to 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh LLC, an affiliate of Lynd. Based on Lynd's failure thus far to bring the portfolio into decent, safe, and sanitary condition for current residents and failure to maintain compliance with HUD requirements and regulations, the Tenants oppose the presently proposed Joint Plan and Sale Transaction, and they request that this Honorable Court postpone any approval of the Plan and Transaction for at least ninety (90) days, to determine whether Lynd can bring property conditions and other operational aspects of its management of the property into compliance with applicable standards and obtain HUD's approval to take over the Housing Assistance Payments ("HAP") contract at the property.

4. In addition, Tenants request this 90-day postponement to permit them and local governmental and philanthropic stakeholders to bring to the Court and the Parties an alternative plan and sale transaction whereby interested local stakeholders, who are actively meeting on this issue, may present a feasible, alternative acquisition, ownership and management plan for preserving and recapitalizing the portfolio as HUD-assisted housing.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

5. Debtors own the Kelly Hamilton portfolio, consisting of approximately 110 family-sized units of scattered-site, multifamily HUD-assisted housing, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

6. The Kelly Hamilton portfolio has been the subject of a HAP contract with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") since on or about October 1982. The HAP contract was assigned to Debtor Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC on or about February of 2023. A true and correct copy of the HAP contract is attached as Exhibit A.

7. All households in the Kelly Hamilton portfolio are "low-income," "very low-income," or "extremely low-income" within the meaning of the U.S. Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. 1437f, and implementing regulations. These households are leaseholders and are protected by statutory and regulatory provisions which require leases to be renewed and prohibit termination as long as the household remains income-eligible and compliant with specific obligations.

8. Under the HAP contract, the property owner is obligated to comply with HUD's Physical Condition Standards and Inspection Requirements of 24 CFR part 5, subpart G, and HUD's Physical Condition Standards of Multifamily Properties of 24 CFR part 200, subpart P. See Exhibit A at 2, 20, 49; 24 C.F.R. § 280.85024; C.F.R. § 5.701 et seq.

9. If HUD determines that the property owner is in default of these obligations, then the default triggers an enforcement process which, if the default is not remedied to HUD's satisfaction within a specified timeframe, will result in the displacement of residents from the property and the suspension or termination of the HAP contract. See Exhibit A, HAP Renewal Contract, Sections 4.d.(2) and 7.b., and HAP Contract, Section 2.5(a) – (e), and 2.21(b); 24 C.F.R. § 5.701 et seq.

10. Ms. Bacon has resided in her unit at Kelly Hamilton since 2018. A true and correct copy of her lease is attached as Exhibit B. All tenants of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio have substantially identical leases.

11. Debtors acknowledge that "[p]rior to the Petition Date, limited liquidity, capital needs, and the legacy deferred maintenance burden impaired the Debtors' ability to stabilize operations and maintain compliance with regulatory standards." Id.

12. The deterioration of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio largely results from the alleged misconduct and neglect of Moshe "Mark" Silber, the principal of CBRM Realty, Inc., and certain of his associates.

13. Mr. Silber, acting on behalf of a subsidiary of debtor Crown Capital, purchased the Kelly Hamilton portfolio as part of a larger transaction that included about a dozen other properties in the Pittsburgh region, from the Nancy D. Washington Irrevocable Trust, exclusive of the rights of tenants under residential leases, for $57,500.00 by Special Warranty Deed dated December 12, 2022. Around the same time, Mr. Silber, acting on behalf of other corporate entities, purchased over a dozen other HUD-subsidized properties from the same seller, and it is likely that the Kelly Hamilton purchase price reflected negotiations for the entire portfolio. A true and correct copy of the deed obtained from the Allegheny County Department of Real Estate is attached as Exhibit C.

14. Mr. Silber pled guilty to financial crimes in the United States Court for the District of New Jersey on April 17, 2024, for misconduct related to a different affordable housing project. Id. at 31.

15. Shortly before his guilty plea, Silber engaged Lynd to manage the Kelly Hamilton portfolio and approximately fifty (50) other HUD-assisted properties within the larger Crown Capital portfolio Mr. Silber had assembled.

16. Lynd has been engaged as the property management company for the Kelly Hamilton portfolio since on or about March 2024. (ECF 360 at 31.) In that role, Lynd "provides on-site personnel and oversees all day-to-day property-level functions, including leasing, maintenance, compliance with regulatory obligations, and the coordination of services for residents." Id.

17. LAGSP, an affiliate of Lynd, was engaged around the same time as asset manager of the portfolio. In that role, LAGSP "provides strategic oversight of the Kelly Hamilton Property's operations, ensures compliance with financing and regulatory obligations, and assists in capital planning and financial reporting." Id.

18. After Mr. Silber pled guilty, on September 20, 2024, he entered, on behalf of Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC, into a $3.5 million loan agreement with Kelly Hamilton Lender LLC, another affiliate of Lynd. Id. at 30-31.

19. Lynd used this $3.5 million loan not only for expenses at the Kelly Hamilton portfolio, but to pay bills throughout the approximately 49 other properties nationwide that Lynd had agreed to manage for Mr. Silber.

20. Shortly thereafter, bondholders of certain notes in Debtor Crown Capital's portfolio, as well as Mr. Silber himself, consented to the appointment of Independent Fiduciary Elizabeth A. LaPuma as sole director of Crown Capital and CBRM. (ECF 339-1 at 29.) Upon her appointment on September 26, 2024, "the Independent Fiduciary, with the assistance of entities within Lynd Management, began the process of ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes." Id.

21. Ms. Bacon's experience, detailed in a sworn affidavit attached as Exhibit D and her claims regarding the management of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio in this matter, attached hereto as Exhibit E, bely the success of these efforts. The properties under Ms. Bacon's oversight and Lynd's management have fallen and remain well below the threshold of decent, safe, and sanitary housing required by the HAP contact and other applicable law, including local housing codes, and their management to date has failed to fulfill the implied warranty of habitability implicit in every residential lease agreement under Pennsylvania law. For example, with regard to Ms. Bacon's dwelling:

(a) The ceiling in her dining room has slowly collapsed, and due to the growing hole, she is unable to safely use the room.

(b) The unit has frequent pest infiltrations, including mice and roaches, despite her best efforts to keep the pests out of her home.

(c) The floor in dining room is uneven and unsound in areas, causing danger to Ms. Bacon and her children as well as the tenants in the unit below.

(d) A leak under her bathroom sink caused flooding to such an extreme degree in the unit below that a maintenance technician turned off the water supply to the sink entirely. The condition has been ongoing for approximately one year.

(e) Over Debtors' ownership of the property, Ms. Bacon has had mold, a broken window, and flaking paint in her unit.

(f) Ms. Bacon has repeatedly requested maintenance for these issues during the course of Debtors' ownership and Lynd's management of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio. At times, the phone line for the management office has been disconnected. When she approached maintenance technicians directly, she was told there was no funding for repairs.

(g) Ms. Bacon has visited neighbors' buildings within the Kelly Hamilton portfolio and observed similar levels of disrepair and uninhabitability.

(h) Pursuant to the United States Housing Act and implementing regulations, Ms. Bacon is entitled to monthly utility reimbursements to help cover the utility costs of her tenancy. See 24 C.F.R. § 965.502 et seq. She has not received utility checks in 2025, apart from the month of May. Ms. Bacon was informed by a member of the management office that utility checks would not be distributed until September of 2025, at the earliest.

(i) Under the United States Housing Act and implementing regulations, Ms. Bacon is required to report any changes to her income to the management office for recertification of her rent obligation. Additionally, Debtor is required to perform annual recertifications and interim recertifications of all residents' income to properly calculate residents' share of the rent and utility costs and inform them of their rent obligations accordingly. See 24 C.F.R. § 5.230 et seq. Ms. Bacon reported new employment to Lynd in or about October or November of 2024, but Lynd took no steps to recertify her income. Ms. Bacon again approached Lynd in January of 2025 to complete her annual recertification, but again, Lynd did not timely complete the paperwork. Lynd did not inform Ms. Bacon of her new rent obligation until July of 2025, despite her repeated inquiries.

(j) Furthermore, Lynd provided Ms. Bacon with a rent ledger, attached as Exhibit F, that set her rent at $723 for the months of December 2024 through February 2025, $499 for the month of March 2025, and $350 for April 2025 onward. Lynd provided no explanation as to why the rent calculation changed this drastically throughout the year.

(k) In July of 2025, Lynd sent Ms. Bacon a notice of termination of her assistance alleging a rental arrearage of over $7000 to be due. The amount, which is far from accurate, appeared to be based in part on applying the market rent to her unit from February of 2025 onward, as Lynd had not recertified her income prior to that date. Moreover, the alleged arrearage does not account for rent abatement to which Ms. Bacon is entitled due to the significant, long-unremedied habitability issues in her home. When Lynd finally recalculated Ms. Bacon's rent based on her income recertification in July, it nonetheless alleged that she owed over $4000 in arrears, the accuracy of which Ms. Bacon, again, disputes.

(l) Feeling she had no other option at that time, Ms. Bacon entered a payment plan for the alleged arrearage, in order to avoid an eviction filing against her.

(m) Ms. Bacon has observed a management agent viewing units in the Kelly Hamilton portfolio and allowed the agent to view and take notes of the deficiencies in her unit. Nevertheless, no repairs have been made to her unit.

22. Additionally, Debtor Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC has been cited for violations of local ordinances relating to property maintenance on numerous occasions, including as recently as August 22, 2025. All of the citations occurred after Lynd took over management of the property in March of 2024. True and correct copies of the dockets for these citations are attached as Exhibit G.

23. Further, the Claims Register in this matter reflects that the Allegheny County Health Department has filed two claims, for $23,552.25 and $117,888.75, against Debtor Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC.

24. Despite its involvement with the Kelly Hamilton portfolio since March of 2024, Lynd has not been approved by HUD as the management company for the property as of at least August 18, 2025. Exhibit H. Such approval is a regulatory requirement for HUD-subsidized housing. See 24 C.F.R. §§ 200.210; 200.216. This failure has exacerbated the conditions and problems present in the properties.

25. Debtors, through the Independent Fiduciary, filed the instant cases in May of 2025 and continue to operate their businesses as debtors in possession. (ECF 1, 7, 136, 226.)

26. Shortly thereafter, Debtors sought court approval for a superpriority debtor-in-possession financing facility for the continued operation of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio ("Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility"), which was granted by this Honorable Court. (ECF 61; ECF 178.) The Lender for the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility is 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh LLC ("DIP Lender"), an entity formed by Lynd and 3650 REIT Investment Management LLC.

27. Of the $9.7 million in funding available from the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, only $1.3 million was budgeted for capital expenditures and $313,021 for working capital. (ECF 178 at 72.) However, the budget allocated $3.575 million to repay the existing loan on the property, which had been issued by Lynd's affiliate and used by Lynd to pay bills throughout the Silber portfolio after his guilty plea. Id.

28. In conjunction with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, Debtors negotiated a Stalking Horse Agreement with the DIP Lender. (ECF 61, 95.) The Stalking Horse Agreement allows the DIP Lender to credit-bid the balance of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility to purchase the portfolio and includes bid protections if another entity were to outbid DIP Lender.

29. A condition precedent to ratification of the Sale Transaction is HUD's approval of an assignment of the HAP contract to the Stalking Horse Bidder, which will then commence operations of the portfolio pursuant to that contract. (ECF 360 at 51.)

30. Presumably due to the size of the super-priority line (and potential credit bid and bid protections), Debtors received no other qualifying bids for the portfolio and the Stalking Horse bid was designated as the successful bid. (ECF 383.)

31. Ms. Bacon's counsel, the Community Justice Project, has been meeting with local stakeholders in Allegheny County for approximately 10 months to develop a preservation plan for the Kelly Hamilton property, as well as the rest of the portfolio obtained by Mr. Silber. Individuals from the City of Pittsburgh Mayor's Office, the Allegheny County Executive's Office, the office of Congresswoman Summer Lee, local housing non-profit groups, affordable housing developers, and philanthropic organizations are coordinating to develop a feasible preservation plan to acquire the property for market value following due diligence. The effort to develop a plan for the Kelly Hamilton portfolio has been hampered by late notice of this bankruptcy case, the accelerated timeline for a sale to the Stalking Horse Bidder, and the inflated super-priority lien on the property. Accordingly, Ms. Bacon respectfully requests this Honorable Court continue the confirmation hearing and grant an additional ninety (90) days for these locally invested parties to develop an alternative plan to for presentation to this Court and the parties.

MOTION FOR CLASS CERTIFICATION

32. All previous paragraphs are incorporated as if fully set forth within.

33. Ms. Bacon, as a creditor in this matter, has standing to file this Objection to the Joint Proposed Chapter 11 Plan and Sale Transaction. 11 U.S.C. § 1109(b).

34. Moreover, the Tenants of Kelly Hamilton are parties-in-interest with standing to object to the Plan and Sale Transaction based on their lease agreements with Debtors, which are themselves inextricably linked to the HAP contract. In re Glob. Indus. Techs., Inc., 645 F.3d 201, 210-11 (3d Cir. 2011) (quoting In re James Wilson Assocs., 965 F.2d 160, 169 (7th Cir. 1992))

(defining a party in interest as "'anyone who has a legally protected interest that could be affected by a bankruptcy proceeding'").

35. As statutorily qualified leaseholders and recipients of HUD-funded project-based rental assistance, the Tenants reside at Kelly Hamilton under indefinite leases that may only be terminated for material noncompliance with leases requirements or state landlord tenant law, certain criminal activity, or "[o]ther good cause" as defined in applicable HUD regulations. 24 C.F.R. § 247.3.

36. In an already-heavily-strained local affordable housing market, the Tenants cannot easily move to new subsidized homes, as there are long waiting lists at virtually every such property, nor can they afford market-rate housing.

37. As a result, Ms. Bacon and similarly-situated Tenants have weighty, significant interests in ensuring that the next buyer / operator of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio is a proven, responsible, long-term, preservation-oriented buyer who is dedicated to improving and maintaining the property in compliance with applicable statutory and regulatory requirements and who is capable of obtaining and maintaining HUD approval to own and operate the property under the HAP contract.

38. Ms. Bacon and similarly-situated Tenants of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio satisfy the class certification requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, applicable to these proceedings via Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014(c) and 7023. This Honorable Court should exercise its discretion to allow the within Objection to proceed as a class Objection on behalf of a class defined as follows: "All occupants of the Kelly Hamilton properties owned by Debtors Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC who currently reside, or will reside following approval of the Sale Transaction, at the properties pursuant to a lease agreement subject to the HAP contract attached to the properties."

(a) The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical. F.R.C.P. 23(a)(1). The Kelly Hamilton portfolio consists of 110 units of subsidized, multi-family housing. Even at less than 100% occupancy of the units, well over 100 tenants reside at the properties under Debtors' ownership and management by Lynd.

(b) Common questions of law and fact between Ms. Bacon, as class representative, and the members of the class she seeks to represent predominate over any individual claims or questions affecting only individual class members. F.R.C.P. 23(a)(2). The Objection to the Confirmation and Sale Transaction rests upon Lynd's ongoing failure to maintain the portfolio in compliance with the law, the terms of the HAP contract, and HUD regulations, which effects all class members.

(c) Ms. Bacon's Objection to the Confirmation and Sale Transaction is typical of the objections of other class members because, based on her conversations with her neighbors in the portfolio and knowledge of current management practices, Lynd's shortcomings have affected the habitability of most of the portfolio and have created health, safety, and administrative problems for all class members. F.R.C.P. 23(a)(3).

(d) Ms. Bacon will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. F.R.C.P. 23(a)(4). She has no interests antagonistic to those of the class. Class counsel, the Community Justice Project, has extensive experience in housing and class action litigation and will adequately and zealously prosecute this action, and Ms. Bacon, through class counsel, has sufficient financial resources to assure the interests of the class will not be harmed.

(e) Debtors and current management agent Lynd have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, such that the requested relief is appropriate respecting the class as a whole. F.R.C.P. 23(b)(2).

39. According, Ms. Bacon respectfully requests this Honorable Court allow the within Objection to proceed as a class objection on behalf of herself and similarly-situated Tenants.

OBJECTION

40. All previous paragraphs are incorporated as if fully set forth within.

41. The Joint Plan and Sale Transaction are not feasible means, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(11), to continue the business of the Kelly Hamilton Debtors, which requires preserving the HAP contract, stabilizing the portfolio, and returning the properties to decent, safe, sanitary, and habitable condition. The Joint Plan and Sale Transaction do not assure that the DIP Lender has the necessary financing, experience, and regulatory approval to continue operating the portfolio as affordable, subsidized housing, to the benefit of the current Tenants.

42. The Joint Plan mandates that "[n]either the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates shall be deemed to be a successor to the Debtors." (ECF 338-1 at 25.) This provision flies in the face of the reality that the Stalking Horse Bidder will act, in all respects, as successor to the Kelly Hamilton Debtors for the purposes of assuming the HAP contract and managing the portfolio.

43. A debtor must prove the feasibility of a Chapter 11 reorganization plan by a preponderance of the evidence. 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(11) (a plan may only be confirmed if

"[c]onfirmation of the plan is not likely to be followed by the liquidation, or the need for further financial reorganization, of the debtor or any successor to the debtor under the plan, unless such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the plan.").

44. At the very minimum, "[t]o ensure that all residents live in safe, habitable dwellings, the items and components located inside the building, outside the building, and within the units of HUD housing must be functionally adequate, operable, and free of health and safety hazards." 24 C.F.R. § 5.703(a). Ms. Bacon's home, and the homes of similarly-situated tenants, have failed to meet this baseline for many months.

45. Based on her experiences under current management, Ms. Bacon has serious doubts whether the Stalking Horse Bidder will adequately protect and prioritize resident health and safety when managing the portfolio. Moreover, the abbreviated timeframe and significant, super-priority debt attached to the portfolio through the DIP Facility prevented other potential buyers from making fair market value bids for the portfolio following due diligence, including the local governmental and nongovernmental stakeholders with whom Ms. Bacon and her counsel have been working for this purpose.

46. While the DIP Facility totaled $9.7 million, only a small portion was actually allocated to capital expenditures to stabilize the properties, with the bulk of the funding actually spent was directed toward repaying debt spent to cover bills at properties other than Kelly Hamilton and for various professional fees. (ECF 178 at 72.)

47. Ms. Bacon and her neighbors continue to live in deplorable conditions almost a year and a half after Lynd did its due diligence and signed its contract to manage the properties. In that time, the conditions of Ms. Bacon's unit have worsened, and she has had little success obtaining maintenance or communicating with the management office regarding income recertifications, utility checks, and work orders.

48. Based on the conditions of her unit, her observations of her neighbors' units, the pending code violation citations against the property, and the 2022 sale price of the portfolio, Ms. Bacon does not believe the Kelly Hamilton portfolio could currently be valued anywhere near $9.7 million of the DIP Facility, and is likely valued at far less.

49. Nevertheless, any competing bid for the portfolio would have had to exceed the value of the funds drawn from the DIP Facility, combined with a Bid Protection fee of $250,000 and other fees. (ECF 338-1 at 19; ECF 360 at 38.)

50. Upon information and belief, this significant price tag, in light of the necessary investment to return the portfolio to decent, safe, sanitary, and habitable condition, along with the abbreviated timeframe for the sale set forth the Joint Plan, prevented any competing bids from being entered in the auction.

51. Debtors have produced no evidence of the fair market value of the portfolio or the future earning power of the business should the sale and assignment of the HAP contract be approved. As a result, there is no evidence of record that the Stalking Horse Bidder can remedy the defaults in the HAP contract to HUD's satisfaction in a timely manner while also funding the operating expenses and rehabilitation of the portfolio.

52. To the contrary, Lynd's failure to maintain the portfolio in compliance with HUD regulations since March of 2024 demonstrates that it has been and may be unsuited to the task of stabilizing and rehabilitating the properties.

53. Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC exist for the sole business purpose of operating the Kelly Hamilton portfolio as HUD-subsidized housing pursuant to the HAP contract. The Stalking Horse Bidder, as proposed successor to the Kelly Hamilton Debtors, has not demonstrated that it will be able to successfully assume that contract and fulfill its obligations thereunder to the benefit of the tenants.

54. Accordingly, the Joint Chapter 11 Plan and Sale Transaction should be rejected, as they do not feasibly assure that the HAP contract will continue unabated.

55. In the alternative, if confirmation of the plan is not denied, Ms. Bacon respectfully requests this Honorable Court continue the confirmation hearing to December 10, 2025, and grant 90 days, until December 3, 2025, to allow local stakeholders to develop and submit a competing plan.

WHEREFORE, Ms. Bacon, on behalf of herself and those similarly-situated, respectfully requests this Honorable Court grant the relief requested in this motion and such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.

4 RENEWAL CONTRACT

a Parties

(1) The Renewal Contract is a housing assistance payments contract ("HAP Contract") between the Contract Administrator and the Owner of the Project (see section 1).

(2) If HUD is the Contract Administrator, HUD may assign the Renewal Contract to a public housing agency ("PHA") for the purpose of PHA administration of the Renewal Contract, as Contract Administrator, in accordance with the Renewal Contract (during the term of the annual contributions contract ("ACC") between HUD and the PHA). Notwithstanding such assignment, HUD shall remain a party to the provisions of the Renewal Contract that specify HUD's role pursuant to the Renewal Contract, including such provisions of section 9 (HUD requirements), section 10 (statutory changes during term) and section 11 (PHA default), of the Renewal Contract.

b Statutory authority

The Renewal Contract is entered pursuant to section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437f), and section 524 of MAHRA.

c Expiring Contract

Previously, the Contract Administrator and the Owner had entered into a HAP Contract ("expiring contract") to make Section 8 housing assistance payments to the Owner for eligible families living in the Project. The term of the expiring contract will expire prior to the beginning of the term of the Renewal Contract.

d Purpose of Renewal Contract

(1) The purpose of the Renewal Contract is to renew the expiring contract for an additional term. During the term of the Renewal Contract, the Contract Administrator shall make housing assistance payments to the Owner in accordance with the provisions of the Renewal Contract.

(2) Housing assistance payments shall only be paid to the Owner for contract units occupied by eligible families leasing decent, safe and sanitary units from the Owner in accordance with statutory requirements, and with all HUD regulations and other requirements. If the Contract Administrator determines that the Owner has failed to maintain one or more contract units in decent, safe and sanitary condition, and has abated housing assistance payments to the Owner for such units, the Contract Administrator may use amounts otherwise payable to the Owner pursuant to the Renewal Contract for the purpose of relocating or rehousing assisted residents in other housing.

The Renewal Contract applies to the Contract units.

5 EXPIRING CONTRACT - PROVISIONS RENEWED

a Except as specifically modified by the Renewal Contract, all provisions of the Expiring Contract are renewed (to the extent such provisions are consistent with statutory requirements in effect at the beginning of the Renewal Contract term).

b All provisions of the Expiring Contract concerning any of the following subjects are not renewed, and shall not be applicable during the renewal term:

(1) Identification of contract units by size and applicable contract rents;

(2) The amount of the monthly contract rents;

(3) Contract rent adjustments; and

(4) Project account (sometimes called "HAP reserve" or "project reserve") as previously established and maintained by HUD pursuant to former Section 8(c)(6) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (currently Section 8(c)(5) of the Act, 42 U.S.C. 1437f(c)(5)). Section 8(c)(5) does not apply to the Renewal Contract, or to payment of housing assistance payments during the Renewal Contract term.

c The Renewal Contract includes those provisions of the Expiring Contract that are renewed in accordance with this section 5.

6 CONTRACT RENT

a Initial contract rents

At the beginning of the Renewal Contract term, and until contract rents for units in the Project are adjusted in accordance with section 6b, the contract rent for each bedroom size (number of bedrooms) shall be the initial contract rent amount listed in Exhibit A of the Renewal Contract.

b Contract rent adjustments

(1) OCAF or Budget-Based Rent Adjustments

(a) Except as provided in section 6b(2) below (concerning comparability adjustments at each Fifth Year Anniversary and discretionary comparability adjustments within each five-year term), during the term of the Renewal Contract the Contract Administrator shall annually, on the anniversary of the Renewal Contract, adjust the amounts of the monthly contract rents in accordance with HUD requirements by either of the following methods (as determined by the Contract Administrator in accordance with HUD requirements):

(i) Using an OCAF; or

(ii) At the request of the owner, based on the budget for the Project, as approved by the Contract Administrator in accordance with HUD requirements.

(b) Adjustments by use of the OCAF shall not result in a negative adjustment (decrease) of the contract rents. The OCAF shall not be used for adjustment of rent at each Fifth Year Anniversary (as determined in accordance with section 6b(2)(b) below).

(2) Comparability adjustments

(a) Applicability. This section 6b(2) is applicable only if the contract has been renewed pursuant to Section 524(a) of MAHRA. This section 6b(2) does not apply to a project renewed at exception rents under Section 524(b)(1) of MAHRA (See section 1 of the Renewal Contract).

(b) Fifth year adjustment (comparability adjustment at expiration of each 5-year period, if applicable).

(i) This section 6b(2)(b) is only applicable if the term of the Renewal Contract is longer than five (5) years (from the first day of the term specified in section 2a).

(ii) At the expiration of each 5-year period of the Renewal Contract term ("Fifth Year Anniversary"), the Contract Administrator shall conduct a comparability analysis of existing contract rents. At such Fifth Year Anniversary of the Renewal Contract, the Contract Administrator shall make any adjustments in the monthly contract rents, as reasonably determined by the Contract Administrator in accordance with HUD requirements, necessary to set the contract rent for each unit size at comparable market rent. Such adjustment may result in a negative adjustment (decrease) or positive adjustment (increase) of the contract rents for one or more unit sizes.

(iii) To assist in the redetermination of contract rents at each Fifth Year Anniversary, the Contract Administrator may require that the Owner submit to the Contract Administrator a rent comparability study prepared (at the Owner's expense) in accordance with HUD requirements.

(c) Mid-term adjustment (discretionary comparability adjustment within 5-year term)

In addition to the comparability analysis and adjustment of contract rents at the Fifth Year Anniversary, HUD may, at HUD's discretion, require or permit the Contract Administrator to conduct a comparability analysis and adjustment of contract rents ("mid-term adjustment"), one more time within each 5-year period of the Renewal Contract term

(d) Adjusting contract rent

At the time of a fifth year or mid-term comparability adjustment, the Contract Administrator shall make any adjustments in the monthly contract rents, as reasonably determined by the Contract Administrator in accordance with HUD requirements, necessary to set the contract rent for each unit size at comparable rent. Such adjustment may result in a negative adjustment (decrease) or positive adjustment (increase) of the contract rents for one or more unit sizes.

(3) Procedure for rent adjustments during renewal term

(a) To adjust contract rents during the term of the Renewal Contract (including an OCAF or budget- based adjustment in accordance with section 6b(1), or a fifth year or midterm adjustment in accordance with section 6b(2)), the Contract Administrator shall give the Owner notice with a revised Exhibit A that specifies the adjusted contract rent amounts.

(b) The revised Exhibit A shall specify the adjusted contract rent amount for each bedroom size as determined by the Contract Administrator in accordance with this section. The adjustment notice by the Contract Administrator to the Owner shall specify when the adjustment of contract rent is effective.

(c) Notice of rent adjustment by the Contract Administrator to the Owner shall automatically constitute an amendment of the Renewal Contract.

(4) No other adjustments

Except for contract rent adjustments in accordance with this section, there shall not be any other adjustments of the contract rents during the term of the Renewal Contract. Special adjustments shall not be granted.

7 OWNER WARRANTIES

a The Owner warrants that it has the legal right to execute the Renewal Contract and to lease dwelling units covered by the contract.

b The Owner warrants that the rental units to be leased by the Owner under the Renewal Contract are in decent, safe and sanitary condition (as defined and determined in accordance with HUD regulations and procedures), and shall be maintained in such condition during the term of the Renewal Contract.

8 OWNER TERMINATION NOTICE

a Before termination of the Renewal Contract, the Owner shall provide written notice to the Contract Administrator and each assisted family in accordance with HUD requirements.

b If the Owner fails to provide such notice in accordance with the law and HUD requirements, the Owner may not increase the tenant rent payment for any assisted family until such time as the Owner has provided such notice for the required period.

9 HUD REQUIREMENTS

The Renewal Contract shall be construed and administered in accordance with all statutory requirements, and with all HUD regulations and other requirements, including changes in HUD regulations and other requirements during the term of the Renewal Contract. However, any changes in HUD requirements that are inconsistent with the provisions of the Renewal Contract, including the provisions of section 6 (contract rent), shall not be applicable.

10 STATUTORY CHANGES DURING TERM

If any statutory change during the term of the Renewal Contract is inconsistent with section 6 of the Renewal Contract, and if HUD determines, and so notifies the Contract Administrator and the Owner, that the Contract Administrator is unable to carry out the provisions of section 6 because of such statutory change, then the Contract Administrator or the Owner may terminate the Renewal Contract upon notice to the other party.

11 PHA DEFAULT

a This section 11 of the Renewal Contract applies if the Contract Administrator is a PHA acting as Contract Administrator pursuant to an annual contributions contract ("ACC") between the PHA and HUD. This includes a case where HUD has assigned the Renewal Contract to a PHA Contract Administrator, for the purpose of PHA administration of the Renewal Contract.

b If HUD determines that the PHA has committed a material and substantial breach of the PHA's obligation, as Contract Administrator, to make housing assistance payments to the Owner in accordance with the provisions of the Renewal Contract, and that the Owner is not in default of its obligations under the Renewal Contract, HUD shall take any action HUD determines necessary for the continuation of housing assistance payments to the Owner in accordance with the Renewal Contract.

12 EXCLUSION OF THIRD-PARTY RIGHTS

a The Contract Administrator does not assume any responsibility for injury to, or any liability to, any person injured as a result of the Owner's action or failure to act in connection with the Contract Administrator's implementation of the Renewal Contract, or as a result of any other action or failure to act by the Owner.

b The Owner is not the agent of the Contract Administrator or HUD, and the Renewal Contract does not create or affect any relationship between the Contract Administrator or HUD and any lender to the Owner or any suppliers, employees, contractors or subcontractors used by the Owner in connection with implementation of the Renewal Contract.

c If the Contract Administrator is a PHA acting as Contract Administrator pursuant to an annual contributions contract ("ACC") between the PHA and HUD, the Contract Administrator is not the agent of HUD, and the Renewal Contract does not create any relationship between HUD and any suppliers, employees, contractors or subcontractors used by the Contract Administrator to carry out functions or responsibilities in connection with contract administration under the ACC.

13 WRITTEN NOTICES

a Any notice by the Contract Administrator or the Owner to the other party pursuant to the Renewal Contract shall be given in writing.

b A party shall give notice at the other party's address specified in section 1 of the Renewal Contract, or at such other address as the other party has designated by a contract notice. A party gives a notice to the other party by taking steps reasonably required to deliver the notice in ordinary course of business. A party receives notice when the notice is duly delivered at the party's designated address.

DISTRIBUTIONS LIMITATION

FOR PROJECT NOT SUBJECT TO DISTRIBUTIONS LIMITATION:

If the project is not subject to any limitation on distributions of project funds, either pursuant to an FHA Regulatory Agreement or pursuant to the Expiring Contract, neither HUD nor the PHA may impose any additional limitation on distributions of project funds during the term of the Renewal Contract.

However, owners of Section 8 properties must maintain the property in good condition, as demonstrated by a REAC score of 60 or higher, in order to take increased distributions.

The owner shall comply with the distribution limitations. The maximum distribution to the owner shall be equal to the total of:

The limited distribution permitted pursuant to the FHA Regulatory Agreement or the Expiring Contract, plus

Former FHA PROJECT NUMBERS (if applicable): 033-44021; 033-55013

2.1 OWNER'S WARRANTIES; AMENDMENTS.

(a) Legal Capacity. The Owner warrants that it has the legal right to execute this Contract and to lease dwelling units covered by this Contract.

(b) Completion of Work. The Owner warrants that the project as described in section 1.1 is in good and tenantable condition and that the project has been completed in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement to Enter into Housing Assistance Payments Contract (Agreement) or will be completed in accordance with the Special Conditions for Acceptance (see attached exhibit, where applicable). The Owner further warrants that it will remedy any defects or omissions covered by this warranty if called to its attention within 12 months of the effective date of this Contract. The Owner and the CA agree that the continuation of this Contract shall be subject to the Owner meeting any Special Conditions for Acceptance.

2.2 FAMILIES TO BE HOUSED; CONTRACT ADMINISTRATOR (CA) ASSISTANCE.

(a) Families To Be Housed. The Contract Units are to be leased by the Owner to eligible Lower-Income Families (Families) for occupancy by such Families solely as private dwellings and as their principal place of residence. (See also section 2.10.)

(b) CA Assistance.

(1) The CA hereby agrees to make housing assistance payments on behalf of Families for the Contract Units, to enable the Families to lease Decent, Safe, and Sanitary housing pursuant to section 8 of the Act.

(2) If there is a Utility Allowance and if the Allowance exceeds the total Family contribution, the Owner shall pay the Family the amount of the excess. The CA will pay funds to the Owner in trust solely for the purpose of making this payment. Any pledge by the Owner of payments properly payable under this Contract shall not be construed to include payments covered by this paragraph (b)(2). (See 24 CFR section 880.501(e), 881.501(e), or 886.309(a).)

2.3 MAXIMUM HOUSING ASSISTANCE COMMITMENT; PROJECT ACCOUNT.

(a) Maximum Annual Contract Commitment. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Contract (other than paragraph (b)(2) of this section) or any provisions of any other contract between the CA and the Owner, the CA shall not be obligated to make and shall not make any housing assistance payments (or [illegible] party to this Contract for the purpose of authorizing terminations in the case of previously HUD-owned projects) under this Contract in excess of the amount identified in section 1.1(c). However, this amount may be reduced commensurately with any reduction in the number of Contract Units or in the Contract Rents or pursuant to any other provisions of this Contract.

(b) Project Account.

(1) A project account will be established and maintained by HUD, consistent with its responsibilities under section 8(c)(6) of the Act, as a specifically identified and segregated account for the project. The account will be established and maintained, in an amount determined by HUD, out of the amounts by which the Maximum Annual Contract Commitment under section 1.1(c) (for Private-Owner/HUD or PHA-Owner/HUD Projects) or Maximum ACC Commitment (for Private-Owner/PHA Projects) exceeds the amount actually paid out under the Contract or ACC each fiscal year. Payments will be made from the account for housing assistance payments (and fees for PHA administration) when needed to cover increases in Contract Rents or decreases in tenant rents and for other costs specifically approved by the Secretary.

(2) If funds are available in the project account, the maximum annual contribution payable for any fiscal year will be increased by the amount, if any, as may be required for housing assistance payments (and fees where the CA is a PHA) to cover increases in Contract Rents or decreases in rents payable by Families and other costs approved by HUD.

(3) Whenever a HUD-approved estimate of the required annual contribution for a fiscal year exceeds the maximum annual commitment and would cause the amount in the project account to be less than 40 percent of the maximum annual commitment, HUD will, within a reasonable period of time, take such additional steps authorized by section 8(c)(6) of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 as may be necessary to assure that payments under the Contract and ACC (if applicable) will be adequate to cover increases in Contract Rents and decreases in rents payable by Families, including (as provided in that section of the Act) "the reservation of annual contributions authority for the purpose of amending housing assistance contracts, or the allocation of a portion of new authorizations for the purpose of amending housing assistance contracts."

(4) Any amount remaining in the account after payment of the last Annual Contribution with respect to the project shall be applied by HUD in accordance with law.

2.4 HOUSING ASSISTANCE PAYMENTS TO OWNERS.

(a) Housing Assistance Payments on Behalf of Families.

(1) Housing assistance payments shall be paid to the Owner for units under lease for occupancy by Families in accordance with the Contract. The housing assistance payment will cover the difference between the Contract Rent and that portion of the rent payable by the Family as determined in accordance with the HUD-established schedules and criteria.

(2) The amount of housing assistance payment payable on behalf of a Family and the amount of rent payable by the Family shall be subject to change by reason of changes in Family Income, Family composition, extent of exceptional medical or other unusual expenses or program rules in accordance with the HUD-established schedules and criteria; or by reason of a change in any applicable Utility Allowance approved or required by the CA. Any such change shall be effective as of the date stated in a notification of the change to the Family, which need not be at the end of the Lease term.

(b) Vacancies During Rent-up. If a Contract Unit is not leased as of the effective date of the Contract (or within 15 days of the effective date of this Contract in the case of previously HUD-owned projects), the Owner is entitled to housing assistance payments in the amount of 80 percent of the Contract Rent for the unit for a vacancy period not exceeding 60 days from the effective date of the Contract, provided that the Owner (1) commenced marketing and otherwise complied with section 2.2(d) of the Agreement, (2) has taken and continues to take all feasible actions to fill the vacancy, including, but not limited to, contacting applicants on its waiting list, if any, requesting the PHA and other appropriate sources to refer eligible applicants, and advertising the availability of the unit in a manner specifically designed to reach eligible families, and (3) has not rejected any eligible applicant, except for good cause acceptable to the CA.

(c) Vacancies after Rent-Up. If an eligible family vacates a unit, the owner is entitled to housing assistance payments in the amount (except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section) of 80 percent of the Contract Rent for the first 60 days of vacancy if the Owner:

(1) Certifies that it did not cause the vacancy by violating the lease, the Contract or any applicable law or by moving a Family to another unit;

(2) Notified the CA of the vacancy or prospective vacancy and the reasons for it immediately upon learning of the vacancy or prospective vacancy;

(3) Has fulfilled and continues to fulfill the requirements specified in paragraphs (b)(1), (2), and (3) of this section; and

(4) Certifies that any eviction resulting in a vacancy was carried out in compliance with section 8.9.

(d) Payments for Vacancies after Initial Occupancy in Previously HUD-Owned Projects. In the case of previously HUD-owned projects, the Owner may receive housing assistance payments for so much of the month in which the Family vacates the unit as the unit remains vacant. Should the unit remain vacant, the Owner may receive from HUD a housing assistance payment in the amount of 80 percent of the Contract Rent for a vacancy period not exceeding an additional month. However, if the Owner collects any of the Family's share of the rent for this period, the payment for the vacancy period must be reduced to an amount which, when added to the Family's payments, does not exceed 80 percent of the Contract Rent. Any such excess shall be reimbursed by the Owner to HUD or as HUD may direct. Paragraphs (c)(1) through (4) apply.

(e) Vacancies for Longer than 60 Days. Except for previously HUD-owned projects not requiring substantial rehabilitation, if an assisted unit continues to be vacant after the period specified in paragraph (b), (c) or (d) of this section, the Owner may apply to receive additional payments for the vacancy period in an amount equal to the principal and interest payments required to amortize that portion of the debt service attributable to the vacant unit (see Exhibit 2) for up to 12 additional months for the unit if:

(1) The unit was in decent, safe and sanitary condition during the vacancy period for which payments are claimed;

(2) The owner has fulfilled and continues to fulfill the requirements specified in paragraph (b), (c) or (d) of this section, as appropriate; and

(3) The owner has demonstrated to the satisfaction of HUD that:

(i) For the period of vacancy, the project is not providing the owner with revenues at least equal to project expenses (exclusive of depreciation), and the amount of payments requested is not more than the portion of the deficiency attributable to the vacant unit, and

(ii) The project can achieve financial soundness within a reasonable time.

(f) Prohibition of Double Compensation for Vacancies. The Owner is not entitled to payments for vacant units to the extent it can collect for the vacancy from other sources (such as security deposits, other amounts collected from the Family, payments from the CA under section 2.8(b), and governmental payments under other programs). If the Owner collects any of the Family's share of the rent for a vacancy period in an amount which, when added to the vacancy payment, results in more than the Contract Rent, the excess must be reimbursed as HUD directs.

(g) CA Not Obligated for Family Rent. The CA has not assumed any obligation for the amount of rent payable by any Family or the satisfaction of any claim by the Owner against any Family other than in accordance with section 2.8(b) of this Contract.

The financial obligation of the CA is limited to making housing assistance payments on behalf of Families in accordance with this Contract.

(h) Owner's Monthly Requests for Payments.

(1) The Owner shall submit monthly requests to the CA or as directed by the CA for housing assistance payments. Each request shall set forth: (i) the name of each Family and the address and/or number of the unit leased by the Family; (ii) the address and/or the number of each unit, if any, not leased to Families for which the Owner is claiming payments; (iii) the Contract Rent as set forth in Exhibit 1 for each unit for which the Owner is claiming payments; (iv) the amount of rent payable by the Family leasing the unit (or, where applicable, the amount to be paid the Family in accordance with section 2.2(b)(2)); and (v) the total amount of housing assistance payments requested by the Owner.

(2) Each of the Owner's monthly requests shall contain a certification by it that to the best of its knowledge and belief (i) the dwelling units are in Decent, Safe, and Sanitary condition, (ii) all the other facts and data on which the request for funds is based are true and correct, (iii) the amount requested has been calculated in accordance with the provisions of this Contract and is payable under the Contract, (iv) none of the amount claimed has been previously claimed or paid under this Contract, and (v) the Owner has not received and will not receive any payments or other consideration from the Family, the PHA, HUD, or any other public or private source for the unit beyond that authorized in this Contract and the lease.

(3) If the Owner has received an excessive payment, the CA (or HUD where the CA is a PHA), in addition to any other rights to recovery, may deduct the amount from any subsequent payment or payments.

(4) The Owner's monthly requests for housing assistance payments are subject to penalty under 18 U.S.C. 1001, which provides, among other things, that whoever knowingly and willfully makes or uses a document or writing containing any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or entry, in any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States, shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both.

(i) Payments to Trustee by PHA Where It Is the Lender. (See section 1.4 for applicability of this paragraph.) The amount of the housing assistance payment determined in accordance with the provisions of this Contract, up to the amount of the mortgage repayments due the PHA from the Owner pursuant to the mortgage loan made by the PHA for the project, shall be credited to the Owner and transferred monthly by the PHA from the account maintained under the General Depositary Agreement pursuant to the ACC to the trustee under the note or bond resolution of the PHA under which the notes or bonds to provide the mortgage loan were issued. Any amount of the housing assistance payment in excess of such credit shall be paid by the PHA directly to the Owner.

(a) Maintenance and Operation. The Owner agrees to maintain and operate the Contract Units, assisted units, if any, and related facilities to provide Decent, Safe, and Sanitary housing including the provision of all the services, maintenance and utilities set forth in section 1.1(e). The Owner also agrees to comply with the lead-based paint regulations at 24 CFR Part 35. If the CA determines that the Owner is not meeting one or more of these obligations, the CA shall have the right to take action under section 2.21(b).

(b) Inspection.

(1) Prior to occupancy of any Contract Unit by a Family, the Owner and the Family shall inspect the unit and both shall certify, on forms prescribed or approved by the CA, that they have inspected the unit and have determined it to be Decent, Safe, and Sanitary in accordance with the criteria provided in the forms. The Owner shall keep copies of these reports on file for at least three years.

(2) The CA shall inspect or cause to be inspected the Contract Units and related facilities at least annually and at such other times (including prior to initial occupancy and rerenting of any unit) as may be necessary to ensure that the Owner is meeting its obligation to maintain the units in Decent, Safe, and Sanitary condition including the provision of the agreed-upon utilities and other services. The CA shall take into account complaints by occupants and any other information coming to its attention in scheduling inspections and shall notify the Owner and the Family of its determination.

(c) Units Not Decent, Safe, and Sanitary. If the CA notifies the Owner that it has failed to maintain a dwelling unit in Decent, Safe, and Sanitary condition and the Owner fails to take corrective action within the time prescribed in the notice, the CA may exercise any of its rights or remedies under the Contract, including reduction or suspension of housing assistance payments, even if the Family continues to occupy the unit. If, however, the Family wishes to be rehoused in another dwelling unit with section 8 assistance and the CA does not have other section 8 funds for such purposes, the CA may use the abated housing assistance payments for the purpose of rehousing the Family in another dwelling unit. If the Family continues to occupy the unit, it will do so in accordance with the terms of its lease, including the termination date and amount of rent payable by the Family.

(d) Notification of Abatement. Any reduction or suspension of housing assistance payments shall be effective as provided in written notification to the Owner. The Owner shall promptly notify the Family of any such abatement.

(e) Overcrowded and Underoccupied Units. Where the CA determines a unit is larger or smaller than appropriate for an eligible family, the Owner agrees to correct the situation in accordance with HUD regulations and requirements in effect at the time of the determination.

2.6 FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS.

(a) Submission of Financial and Operating Statements.

The Owner must submit to the CA:

(1) Within 60 days after the end of each fiscal year of the project, financial statements for the project audited by an Independent Public Accountant in the form required by HUD, and

(2) Other statements as to project operation, financial conditions and occupancy as HUD may require pertinent to administration of the Contract and monitoring of project operations.

(b) Use of Project Funds.

(1) Project funds must be used for the benefit of the project, to make mortgage payments, to pay operating expenses, and to make required deposits to the replacement reserve in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section, and to pay distributions to the owner as provided in paragraph (d).

purposes, the surplus funds must be deposited with the mortgagee or other HUD-approved depositary in an interest-bearing residual receipts account. Withdrawals from this account will be made only with the approval of HUD and for project purposes, including the reduction of housing assistance payments. Upon termination of the Contract, any excess funds must be remitted to HUD.

(2) In the case of HUD-insured projects, the provisions of this paragraph (b) will apply instead of the otherwise applicable mortgage insurance requirements, except in the case of partially assisted or previously HUD-owned, insured projects which are subject to the applicable mortgage insurance requirements.

(c) Replacement Reserve. (Not applicable to Partially Assisted or Previously HUD-Owned Projects.)

(1) The Owner shall establish and maintain a replacement reserve in an interest-bearing account to aid in funding extraordinary maintenance and repair and replacement of capital items in accordance with applicable regulations.

(i) The obligation of the Owner to deposit into the replacement reserve shall commence upon the effective date of the Contract. For staged projects, the obligation shall commence on a pro rata basis for units in each stage on the effective date of the Contract for that stage. The amount of the deposit to the replacement reserve will be adjusted each year by the amount of the automatic annual adjustment factor. See 24 CFR Part 888.

(ii) The reserve must be built up to and maintained at a level determined by HUD to be sufficient to meet projected requirements. Should the reserve achieve that level, the rate of deposit to the reserve may be reduced with the approval of HUD.

(iii) All earnings including interest on the reserve must be added to the reserve.

(iv) Funds will be held by the mortgagee or trustee for the bondholders, and may be drawn from the reserve and used only in accordance with HUD guidelines and with the approval of, or as directed by, HUD.

(2) In the case of HUD-insured projects, the provisions of this paragraph (c) will apply instead of the otherwise applicable mortgage insurance requirements, except in the case of partially-assisted or previously HUD-owned, insured projects which are subject to the applicable mortgage insurance requirements.

(d) Limitation on Distributions.

(1) Nonprofit owners are not entitled to distributions of project funds.

(2) For the life of the Contract, project funds may only be distributed to profit-motivated owners at the end of each fiscal year of project operation following the effective date of the Contract after all project expenses have been paid, or funds have been set aside for payment, and all reserve requirements have been met. From the remaining funds (surplus cash computed in accordance with HUD requirements), the Owner may take distributions. The first distribution may not be made until cost certification, where applicable, is completed.

(3) In the case of HUD-insured projects, or projects on which HUD holds a purchase money mortgage, distributions are subject to the terms of the applicable Regulatory Agreement.

2.7 RENT ADJUSTMENTS.

(a) Funding of Adjustments. Housing assistance payments will be made in amounts commensurate with Contract Rent adjustments under this section up to the maximum amount authorized under section 2.3(a) of this Contract.

(b) Annual Adjustments.

(1) Upon request from the Owner to the CA, Contract Rents will be adjusted on the anniversary date of the Contract in accordance with 24 CFR 888 and this Contract. See, however, paragraph (d).

(2) In the case of previously HUD-owned projects, the Contract Rents shall be adjusted in accordance with 24 CFR 886, Subpart C and this Contract.

(3) Contract Rents may be adjusted upward or downward, as may be appropriate; however, in no case shall the annual adjustment result in Contract Rents less than the Contract Rents on the effective date of the Contract.

(c) Special Additional Adjustments. Special additional adjustments shall be granted, when approved by HUD, to reflect increases in the actual and necessary expenses of owning and maintaining the Contract Units which have resulted from substantial general increases in real property taxes, utility rates, assessments, and utilities not covered by regulated rates. The Owner must demonstrate that such general increases have caused increases in the Owner's operating costs which are not adequately compensated for by annual adjustments. The Owner shall submit to HUD supporting data, financial statements and certifications which clearly support the increase. See, however, paragraph (d).

(d) Overall Limitation. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Contract, adjustments after Contract execution or cost certification, where applicable, shall not result in material differences between the rents charged for assisted and comparable unassisted units, as determined by HUD, except to the extent that the differences existed with respect to the Contract Rents set at Contract execution or cost certification, where applicable.

(e) Incorporation of Rent Adjustment. Any adjustment in Contract Rents shall be incorporated into Exhibit 1 by a dated addendum to the exhibit establishing the effective date of the adjustment.

(f) Adjustment of Contract Rents based on Cost Certification. (See section 1.4 for applicability of this paragraph.)

(1) Submission by Owner. Within 60 days after HUD accepts the project (or accepts the last stage, where applicable), or any extensions approved by HUD for good cause, the Owner will certify the actual costs estimated in the Final Proposal or Purchase and Use Plan of the replacement cost, operating expenses, income, and debt service, and submit a cost certification including the certificate of an Independent Public Accountant to HUD in the manner and form prescribed by HUD, based on the following guidelines:

(i) Projects which [illegible] mortgage amount, will be subject to the cost certification requirements of the applicable insurance program;

(ii) For projects not insured by HUD, a simplified form of cost certification as prescribed by HUD will be completed and submitted.

(2) HUD Review. Cost certifications will be subject to review by HUD. As part of this review, the Owner and/or contractor may be required to submit additional documentation.

(3) Reduction of Contract Rents. If the Owner's certified costs provided in accordance with paragraph (f)(1) of this section, as approved by HUD, are less than the cost estimates provided in the Final Proposal or Purchase and Use Plan, the Contract Rents will be reduced accordingly.

(4) Reduction of Maximum Annual Commitment. If the Contract Rents are reduced pursuant to paragraph (f)(3) of this section, the maximum annual Contract commitment (and the maximum ACC commitment, in the case of Private-Owner/PHA projects) will be reduced. If Contract Rents are reduced based on certification after Contract execution, any overpayment since the effective date of the Contract will be recovered from the Owner by the CA.

(g) Adjustment of Contract Rents to Reflect Actual Cost of Tax Exempt Obligations Issued by a Participating State Agency Not Subject to Part 811. (See section 1.4 for applicability of this paragraph.) After the project is permanently financed, the financing agency shall submit a certification to HUD specifying the actual financing terms. If the actual debt service to the Owner under the permanent financing is lower than the anticipated debt service on which the Contract Rents were based, the initial Contract Rents or the Contract Rents then in effect shall be reduced commensurately and the amount of savings credited to the project account. The maximum annual Contract commitment (and the maximum annual ACC commitment, in the case of Private-Owner/PHA projects) will not be reduced.

(h) Adjustment of Contract Rents to Reflect Actual Cost for Projects Subject to Part 811. (See section 1.4 for applicability of this paragraph.)

(1) Submission by Owner and Financing Agency. The Owner and the financing agency shall submit certified statements as to the financing and other costs as required by Part 811 prior to final endorsement. Based on the certified statements, HUD will determine whether any reduction in initial Contract Rents is required under Part 811. Promptly after HUD notification, the Owner and the financing agency agree to amend the Contract to reduce the initial Contract Rents to the extent required by HUD. See sections 2.3(b)(5) and (6) of the Agreement, as appropriate.

(2) Reduction of Maximum Annual Commitment. If the Contract Rents are reduced pursuant to paragraph (h)(1) of this section, the maximum annual Contract commitment(and the maximum ACC commitment, in the case of Private-Owner/PHA projects) will be reduced. If Contract Rents are reduced based on certification after Contract execution, any overpayment since the effective date of the Contract will be recovered from the Owner by the CA.

(i) Adjustment of Contract Rents Due to Property Tax Exemption or Similar Savings. The Contract Rents may be reduced to reflect real property tax exemption or similar savings where the initial Contract Rents were approved on the assumption that the project would not receive the benefit of tax abatement or similar savings. The Owner agrees to notify the CA in the event such a project begins to receive such an exemption or similar savings so that the initial Contract Rents or the Contract Rents then in effect may be reduced.

(a) Compliance with Equal Opportunity Requirements. Marketing of units and selection of families by the Owner shall be in accordance with the Owner's HUD-approved Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan (if required), shown as an exhibit, and with all regulations relating to fair housing advertising. Projects shall be managed and operated without regard to race, color, religion, creed, sex, handicap, or national origin and in the case of previously HUD-owned projects in accordance with the tenant selection factors shown as Exhibit 6.

(b) Security Deposits. The Owner agrees to comply with applicable section 8 regulations and other requirements, as revised from time to time, regarding security deposits and to comply with all State and local law.

(c) Eligibility, Selection and Admission of Families.

(1) Except for those families in previously HUD-owned projects determined by HUD at the time of the sale of the project to be eligible for section 8, the Owner shall be responsible for determination of eligibility of applicants, selection of families from among those determined to be eligible, computation of the amount of housing assistance payments on behalf of each selected Family and of total Family contributions and recordkeeping in accordance with applicable HUD regulations and requirements.

(2) The Owner shall not charge any applicant or assisted Family any amount in excess of the total Family contribution except as authorized by HUD.

(3) In the initial renting of the Contract Units, the Owner must lease at least 30 percent to Very Low-Income Families (determined in accordance with HUD-established schedules and criteria). However, if this requirement cannot be met for substantial rehabilitation or previously HUD-owned projects because of families already residing in the project, HUD may permit the leasing of less than 30 percent of the units to Very Low-Income Families. Thereafter the Owner shall exercise best efforts to maintain (or achieve and maintain) at least 30 percent occupancy of the Contract Units by Very Low-Income Families. In addition, at all times, the Owner will use its best efforts to achieve leasing to Families with a range of incomes so that the average of incomes of all Families in occupancy is at or above 40 percent of the median income in the area.

(4) The Lease entered into between the Owner and each selected Family shall be on the form of Lease approved by HUD.

(5) (i) The Owner shall make a reexamination of Family income, composition, and the extent of medical or other unusual expenses incurred by the Family at least as often as required by HUD regulations or other requirements, and appropriate redeterminations shall be made by the Owner of the amount of Family contribution and the amount of housing assistance payment, all in accordance with applicable HUD regulations and requirements.

(ii) If a family reports a change in income or other circumstances that would result in a decrease of total family contribution between regularly scheduled reexaminations, the Owner, upon receipt of verification of the change, must promptly make appropriate adjustments in the total family contribution. The Owner may require in its lease that families report increases in income or other changes between scheduled reexaminations.

(iii) In connection with the reexamination, the Owner shall determine what percentage of Families in occupancy are Very Low-Income Families and what the average Family income is. If there are fewer than 30 percent Very Low-Income Families in occupancy, or the average income is below 40 percent of the median, the Owner shall report the fact to HUD and shall adopt appropriate changes in its admission policies.

(iv) A Family's eligibility for housing assistance payments continues until its total Family contribution equals the total housing expense for the unit it occupies. The termination of eligibility at this point will not affect the Family's other rights under the lease nor preclude resumption of payments as a result of later changes in income or other circumstances during the term of this Contract.

(6) Where fewer than 100 percent of the units in the project are covered by this Contract, assisted Families shall be dispersed throughout. At initial rent-up, the Owner shall lease the units identified in Exhibit 1 to eligible Families. Thereafter, the Owner may lease other units of appropriate size and type to eligible Families in accordance with Exhibit 1. For projects with units for both elderly and non-elderly Families, the respective family types may be grouped together.

(7) The Owner shall maintain as confidential all information relating to section 8 applicants and assisted Families, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(d) Rent Redetermination after Adjustment in Utility Allowance. In the event that the Owner is notified of a CA determination approving or requiring an adjustment in the Utility Allowance applicable to any of the Contract Units, the Owner shall promptly make a corresponding adjustment in the amount of rent to be paid by the affected Families and the amount of housing assistance payments.

(e) Processing of Applications and Complaints. The Owner shall process applications for admission, notifications to applicants, and complaints by applicants in accordance with applicable HUD and PHA regulations and requirements and shall maintain records and furnish such copies or other information as may be required by HUD or the PHA.

(f) Review; Incorrect Payments. In making housing assistance payments to Owners, the PHA or HUD will review the Owner's determinations under this section. If as a result of this review, or other reviews, audits or information received by the PHA or HUD at any time, it is determined that the Owner has received improper or excessive housing assistance payments, the PHA or HUD shall have the right to deduct the amount of such overpayments from any amounts otherwise due the Owner, or otherwise effect recovery.

2.9 TERMINATION OF TENANCY OR SECTION 8 ASSISTANCE BY THE OWNER.

The Owner agrees not to terminate any tenancy of or assistance on behalf of an assisted Family except in accordance with all HUD regulations and other requirements, in effect at the time of the termination, and any State and local law.

2.10 REDUCTION OF NUMBER OF UNITS FOR FAILURE TO LEASE TO ELIGIBLE FAMILIES.

(a) Limitation on Leasing to Ineligible Families. Except in the case of previously HUD-owned projects, the Owner may not at any time during the term of this Contract lease more than 10 percent of the assisted units in the project to families which are ineligible under section 8 requirements at initial occupancy without the prior approval of HUD. Failure on the part of the Owner to comply with this prohibition is a violation of the Contract and grounds for all available legal remedies, including specific performance of the Contract, suspension or debarment from HUD programs and reduction of the number of units under the Contract, as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. (See also section 2.21.)

(b) Reduction for Failure to Lease to Eligible Families - New and Rehab Projects. If, at any time beginning six months after the effective date of the Contract, the Owner fails for a continuous period of six months to have at least 90 percent of the assisted units leased or available for leasing by families eligible under section 8 requirements at initial occupancy, HUD (or the PHA at the direction of HUD, as appropriate) may, on at least 30 days' notice, reduce the number of units covered by the Contract. HUD or the PHA may reduce the number of units to the number of units actually leased or available for leasing plus 10 percent (rounded up). This reduction, however, will not be made if the failure to lease units to eligible families is permitted in writing by HUD under paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Reduction --Pre[illegible]ously Approved Units. If, at any time[illegible]ning six months after the effective date of the Contract, the Owner fails for a continuous period of six months to have all of the assisted units leased or available for leasing by families eligible under section 8 requirements at initial occupancy, HUD may, on 30 calendar days' notice, reduce the number of Contract units to not less than the number of Contract units under lease, plus 10 percent of such number if the number is 10 or more, rounded up. Failure by the Owner to make a reasonable effort to lease the units to eligible Families shall be a violation of the Contract and grounds for all legal remedies including those specified in paragraph (a) and section 2.21.

(d) Restoration. HUD will agree to an amendment of the ACC or the Contract, as appropriate, to provide for subsequent restoration of any reduction made pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of this section if:

(1) HUD determines that the restoration is justified by demand,

(2) The Owner otherwise has a record of compliance with its obligations under the Contract, and

(3) Contract authority is available. (HUD will take such steps authorized by section 8(c)(6) of the Act as may be necessary to carry out its agreement.

2.11 NONDISCRIMINATION.

(a) General. The Owner shall not in the selection of Families, in the provision of services, or in any other manner, discriminate against any person on the grounds of race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, or handicap.

(b) Members of Certain Classes. The Owner shall not automatically exclude anyone from participation in, or deny anyone the benefits of, the Housing Assistance Payments Program because of membership in a class, such as unmarried mothers, recipients of public assistance, handicapped persons.

(c) Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968. The Owner shall comply with all requirements imposed by Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, which prohibits discrimination in the sale, rental, financing and advertising of housing on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin, and any related rules and regulations.

(d) Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Executive Order 11063. The Owner shall comply with all requirements imposed by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. 2000d, et seq.; the HUD Regulations issued thereunder, 24 CFR, Subtitle A, Part 1; the HUD requirements pursuant to these regulations; and Executive Order 11063 and any regulations and requirements issued thereunder, to the end that, in accordance with that Act, Executive Order 11063, and the regulations and requirements of HUD, no person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, creed, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, or be denied the benefits of, the Housing Assistance Payments Program, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination. This provision is included pursuant to the regulations of HUD, 24 CFR, Subtitle A, Part 1 issued under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, HUD regulations issued pursuant to Executive Order 11063 and the HUD requirements pursuant to the regulations. The obligation of the Owner to comply therewith inures to the benefit of the United States of America, HUD, and the PHA (where the CA is a PHA), any of which shall be entitled to invoke any remedies available by law to redress any breach or to compel compliance by the Owner.

(e) Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The Owner shall comply with all the requirements imposed by section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and any related rules and regulations. Section 504 provides that no qualified handicapped person shall, on the basis of handicap, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity which receives or benefits from Federal financial assistance. Accordingly, the Owner (1) shall not discriminate against any qualified handicapped person on the basis of handicap and (2) shall cause to be incorporated into all contracts executed in connection with this project a provision requiring compliance with rules and regulations issued pursuant to section 504.

(f) Employees of Owner.

(1) In carrying out the obligations under this Contract, the Owner will not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, creed, religion, sex, handicap or national origin. The Owner will take affirmative action to ensure that applicants are employed, and that employees are treated during employment, without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sex, handicap or national origin. Such action shall include, but not be limited to, the following: employment, upgrading, demotion, or transfer; recruitment or recruitment advertising; layoff or termination; rates of pay or other forms of compensation; and selection for training, including apprenticeship.

(2) The Owner agrees to post in conspicuous places, available to employees and applicants for employment, notices to be provided by HUD setting forth the provisions of this nondiscrimination clause. The Owner will in all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of the Owner state that all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sex, handicap or national origin. The Owner will incorporate the foregoing requirements of this paragraph in all of its contracts for project work, except contracts for standard commercial supplies or raw materials, and will require all of its contractors for such work to incorporate such requirements in all subcontracts for project work.

(g) Age Discrimination Act of 1975. The Owner shall comply with any rules and regulations issued or adopted by HUD under the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 6101 et seq., which prohibits discrimination on the basis of age in programs and activities receiving Federal financial assistance.

2.12 COOPERATION IN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY COMPLIANCE REVIEWS.

The Owner and the PHA (where the CA is a PHA) agree to cooperate with HUD in the conducting of compliance reviews and complaint investigations pursuant to or permitted by all applicable civil rights statutes, Executive Orders, and rules and regulations.

2.13 TRAINING, EMPLOYMENT AND CONTRACTING OPPORTUNITIES FOR BUSINESSES AND LOWER INCOME PERSONS. (See section 1.4 for applicability of this section.)

(a) The project assisted under this Contract is subject to the requirements of section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968, as amended, 12 U.S.C. 1701u. Section 3 requires that, to the greatest extent feasible, opportunities for training and employment be given lower-income residents of the project area and contracts for work in connection with the project be awarded to business concerns which are located in, or owned in substantial part by persons residing in, the area of the project.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Contract, the Owner shall carry out the provisions of section 3 and the regulations issued by HUD as set forth in 24 CFR, Part 135, and all applicable rules and orders of HUD issued thereunder prior to the execution of this Contract. The requirements of the regulations include, but are not limited to, development and implementation of an affirmative action plan for utilizing business concerns located within, or owned in substantial part by persons residing in, the area of the project; the making of a good faith effort, as defined by the regulations, to provide training, employment, and business opportunities required by section 3; and incorporation of the "section 3 clause" specified by section 135.20(b) of the regulations and paragraph (d) of this section in all contracts for work in connection with the project. The Owner certifies and agrees that it is under no contractual or other disability which would prevent it from complying with these requirements.

(c) Compliance with the provisions of section 3, the regulations set forth in 24 CFR, Part 135, and all applicable rules and orders issued by HUD thereunder prior to execution of this Contract, shall be a condition of the Federal financial assistance provided to the project, binding upon the Owner, its contractors and subcontractors, its successors and assigns. Failure to fulfill these requirements shall subject the Owner, its contractors and subcontractors, its successors, and assigns to the sanctions specified by this Contract, and to such sanctions as are specified by 24 CFR, Section 135.135.

(d) The Owner shall incorporate or cause to be incorporated into any contract or subcontract for work pursuant to this Agreement in excess of $50,000. cost, the following clause:

EMPLOYMENT OF PROJECT AREA RESIDENTS AND CONTRACTORS

"A The work to be performed under this Contract is on a project assisted under a program providing direct Federal financial assistance from HUD and is subject to the requirements of section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968, as amended, 12 U.S.C. 1701u. Section 3 requires that, to the greatest extent feasible, opportunities for training and employment be given lower-income residents of the project area, and contracts for work in connection with the project be awarded to business concerns which are located in, or owned in substantial part by persons residing in, the area of the project.

"B The parties to this Contract will comply with the provisions of section 3 and the regulations issued pursuant thereto by HUD as set forth in 24 CFR, Part 135, and all applicable rules and orders of HUD issued thereunder prior to the execution of this Contract. The parties to this Contract certify and agree that they are under no contractual or other disability which would prevent them from complying with these requirements.

"C The contractor will send to each labor organization or representative of workers with which he has a collective bargaining agreement or other contract or understanding, if any, a notice advising the labor organization or workers' representative of his commitments under this section 3 clause and shall post copies of the notice in conspicuous places available to employees and applicants for employment or training.

"D The contractor will include this section 3 clause in every subcontract for work in connection with the project and will, at the direction of the applicant for or recipient of Federal financial assistance, take appropriate action pursuant to the subcontract upon a finding that the subcontractor is in violation of regulations issued by HUD, 24 CFR, Part 135. The contractor will not subcontract with any subcontractor where it has notice or knowledge that the latter has been found in violation of regulations under 24 CFR, Part 135, and will not let any subcontract unless the subcontractor has first provided it with a preliminary statement of ability to comply with the requirements of these regulations.

"E Compliance with the provisions of section 3, the regulations set forth in 24 CFR, Part 135, and all applicable rules and orders of HUD issued thereunder prior to the execution of the Housing Assistance Payments Contract, shall be a condition of the Federal financial assistance provided to the project, binding upon the Owner, its contractors and subcontractors, its successors, and assigns. Failure to fulfill these requirements shall subject the Owner, its contractors and subcontractors, its successors, and assigns to those sanctions specified by the Housing Assistance Payments Contract, and to such sanctions as are specified by 24 CFR, Section 135.135."

(3) The term "substantial interest" means the interest of any general partner, any limited partner having a 25 percent or more interest in the organization, any corporate officer or director, and any stockholder having a 10 percent or more interest in the organization.

(a) Rights of PHA if PHA Defaults under Contract (for Private-Owner PHA Projects).

(1) Events of Default. The occurrence of any of the following events, if the Owner is not in default, is defined as a default under the ACC:

(i) If the PHA fails to perform or observe any term or condition of this Contract;

(ii) If the Contract is held to be void, voidable, or ultra vires;

(iii) If the power or right of the PHA to enter into the Contract is drawn into question in any legal proceeding; or

(iv) If the PHA asserts or claims that the Contract is not binding upon the PHA for any such reason.

(2) Owner Request for HUD Determination of Default.

If the Owner believes that an event as specified in paragraph (a)(1) has occurred, and the Owner is not in default, the Owner may, within 30 days of the initial occurrence of the event:

(i) Notify HUD of the occurrence of the event;

(ii) Provide supporting evidence of the default and of the fact that the Owner is not in default; and

(iii) Request HUD to determine whether there has been a default.

(3) HUD Determination of Default and Curing of Default.

HUD, after notice to the PHA giving it a reasonable opportunity to take corrective action, or to demonstrate that it is not in default, shall make a determination whether the PHA is in default and whether the Owner is not in default. If HUD determines tha the PHA is in default and that the Owner is not, HUD shall take appropriate action to require the PHA to cure the default. If necessary for the prompt continuation of the project, HUD shall assume the PHA's rights and obligations under the Contract, including any funds. HUD shall continue to pay annual contributions with respect to the units covered by this Contract in accordance with the ACC and this Contract until reassigned to the PHA. All rights and obligations of the PHA assumed by HUD will be returned as constituted at the time of the return:

(i) When HUD is satisfied that all defaults have been cured and that the project will thereafter be administered in accordance with all applicable requirements, or

(ii) When the Contract is at an end, whichever occurs sooner.

(4) Enforcement by Owner. The provisions of this paragraph (a) are made for the benefit of the Owner, the lender, the PHA where it is the lender and then only in its capacity as lender, and the Owner's other assignees, if any, who have been specifically approved by HUD prior to the assignment. These provisions shall be enforceable by these parties against HUD by suit at law or in equity.

(b) Rights of PHA and HUD if Owner Defaults under Contract.

(1) Events of Default.

A default by the Owner under this Contract shall result if:

(i) The Owner has violated or failed to comply with any provision of, or obligation under, this Contract or of any Lease, including failure to correct any deficiencies

...ide... ...in connection with any annual or other ...spection, or:

(ii) The Owner has asserted or demonstrated an intention not to perform some or all of its obligations under this Contract or under any Lease; or

(iii) For projects with mortgages insured by HUD or loans made by HUD, the Owner has violated or failed to comply with the regulations for the applicable insurance or loan program, with the insured mortgage, or with the regulatory agreement; or the Owner has filed any false statement or misrepresentation with HUD in connection with the mortgage insurance or loan.

(2) CA Determination of Default.

Upon a determination by the CA that a default has occurred, the CA shall notify the Owner and the lender, with a copy to HUD where the CA is a PHA, of:

(i) The nature of the default,

(ii) The actions required to be taken and the remedies to be applied on account of the default (including actions by the Owner and/or the lender to cure the default), and

(iii) The time within which the Owner and/or the lender shall respond with a showing that all the required actions have been taken.

If the Owner and/or lender fail to respond or take action to the satisfaction of the CA (and HUD where the CA is a PHA), the CA shall have the right to take corrective action to achieve compliance, in accordance with paragraph (b)(3) or to terminate this Contract with HUD approval, in whole or in part, or to take other corrective action to achieve compliance in its discretion, or as directed by HUD (where the CA is a PHA).

(3) Corrective Actions.

Pursuant to paragraph (b)(2) of this section the CA, in its discretion or as directed by HUD (where the CA is a PHA), may take the following corrective actions either directly or in conjunction with or acting through a PHA:

(i) Take possession of the project, bring any action necessary to enforce any rights of the Owner growing out of the project operation, and operate the project in accordance with the terms of this Contract until such time as HUD determines that the Owner is again in a position to operate the project in accordance with this Contract. If the CA takes possession, housing assistance payments shall continue in accordance with the Contract.

(ii) Collect all rents and charges in connection with the operation of the project and use these funds to pay the necessary expenses of preserving the property and operating the project and to pay the Owner's obligations under the note and mortgage or other loan documents.

(iii) Apply to any court, State or Federal, for specific performance of this Contract, for an injunction against any violation of the Contract, for the appointment of a receiver to take over and operate the project in accordance with the Contract, or for such other relief as may be appropriate. These remedies are appropriate since the injury to the PHA and/or HUD arising from a default under any of the terms of this Contract could be irreparable and the amount of damage would be difficult to ascertain.

(iv) Reduce or suspend housing assistance payments.

(v) Recover any overpayments.

(4) HUD Rights.

(For Private-Owner PHA projects where the PHA is the lender.)

(i) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Contract, in the event HUD determines that the Owner is in default of its obligations under the Contract, HUD shall have the right, after notice to the Owner, the trustee, if any, and the PHA giving them a reasonable opportunity to take corrective action, to proceed in accordance with paragraph (b)(3).

(ii) In the event HUD takes any action under this section, the Owner and the PHA hereby expressly agree to recognize the rights of HUD to the same extent as if the action were taken by the PHA. HUD shall not have the right to terminate the Contract except by proceeding in accordance with paragraphs (b)(1), (2), and (3) of this section and with the ACC.

(c) Remedies Not Exclusive and Non-Waiver of Remedies. The availability of any remedy under this Contract or the ACC, where applicable, shall not preclude the exercise of any other remedy under this Contract or the ACC or under any provisions of law, nor shall any action taken in the exercise of any remedy be considered a waiver of any other rights or remedies. Failure to exercise any right or remedy shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise that or any other right or remedy at any time.

   a) The TENANT may terminate this Agreement at the end of the initial term or any successive term by giving 30 days written notice in advance to the LANDLORD. Whenever the LANDLORD has been in material noncompliance with this Agreement, the TENANT may in accordance with State law terminate this Agreement by so advising the LANDLORD in writing.

   b) The LANDLORD's right to terminate this Agreement is governed by the regulation at 24 CFR Part 247. The HUD Regulation provides that the LANDLORD may terminate this Agreement only under the following circumstances:

      1) The LANDLORD may terminate, effective at the end of the initial term or any successive term, by giving the TENANT notification in the manner prescribed in paragraph (g) below that the term of this Agreement is not renewed and this Agreement is accordingly terminated. This termination must be based upon either material noncompliance with this Agreement, material failure to carry out obligations under any State landlord or tenant act, or other good cause. When the termination of the tenancy is based on other good cause, the termination notice shall so state, at the end of a term and in accordance with the termination provisions of this Agreement, but in no case earlier than 30 days after receipt by the TENANT of the notice. Where the termination notice is based on material noncompliance with this Agreement or material failure to carry out obligations under a State landlord and tenant act, the time of service shall be in accordance with the previous sentence or State law, whichever is later.

      2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (1), whenever the TENANT has been in material noncompliance with this Agreement, the LANDLORD may, in accordance with State law and the HUD Regulation, terminate this Agreement by notifying the TENANT in the manner prescribed in paragraph (g) below.

   c) If the TENANT does not vacate the premises on the effective date of the termination of this Agreement, the LANDLORD may pursue all judicial remedies under State or local law for the eviction of the TENANT, and in accordance with the requirements in the HUD Regulation.

   d) The term "material noncompliance with this Agreement" shall, in the case of the TENANT, include (1) one or more substantial violations of this Agreement, (2) repeated minor violations of this Agreement which disrupt the livability of the project, adversely affect the health or safety of any person or the right of any tenant to the quiet enjoyment of the leased premises and related project facilities, interfere with the management of the project or have an adverse financial effect on the project, or (3) failure of the TENANT to timely supply all required information on the income and composition, or eligibility factors of the TENANT household (including failure to meet the disclosure and verification requirements for Social Security Numbers, as provided by 24 CFR Part 5, or knowingly providing incomplete or inaccurate information). Nonpayment of rent or any other financial obligation due under this Agreement (including any portion thereof) beyond any grace period permitted under State law shall constitute a substantial violation. The payment of rent or any other financial obligation due under this Agreement after the due date but within any grace period permitted under State law shall constitute a minor violation.

e) The conduct of the TENANT cannot be deemed other good cause unless the LANDLORD has given the TENANT prior notice that said conduct shall henceforth constitute a basis for termination of this Agreement. Said notice shall be served on the TENANT in the manner prescribed in paragraph (g) below.

f) The LANDLORD's determination to terminate this Agreement shall be in writing and shall (1) state that the Agreement is terminated on a date specified therein, (2) state the reasons for the LANDLORD's action with enough specificity so as to enable the TENANT to prepare a defense, (3) advise the TENANT that if he or she remains in the leased unit on the date specified for termination, the LANDLORD may seek to enforce the termination only by bringing a judicial action at which time the TENANT may present a defense, and (4) be served on the TENANT in the manner prescribed by paragraph (g) below.

g) The LANDLORD's termination notice shall be accomplished by (1) sending a letter by first class mail, properly stamped and addressed, to the TENANT at his/her address at the project, with a proper return address, and (2) serving a copy of said notice on any adult person answering the door at the leased dwelling unit, or if no adult responds, by placing the notice under or through the door, if possible, or else by affixing the notice to the door. Service shall not be deemed effective until both notices provided for herein have been accomplished. The date on which the notice shall be deemed to be received by the TENANT shall be the date on which the first class letter provided for in clause (1) herein is mailed, or the date on which the notice provided for in clause (2) is properly given, whichever is later.

h) The LANDLORD may, with the prior approval of HUD, modify the terms and conditions of the Agreement, effective at the end of the initial term or a successive term, by serving an appropriate notice on the TENANT, together with the tender of a revised Agreement or an addendum revising the existing Agreement. Any increase in rent shall in all cases be governed by 24 CFR Part 245 and other applicable HUD regulations. This notice and tender shall be served on the TENANT in the manner prescribed in paragraph (g) and must be received by the TENANT (as defined in paragraph (g)) at least 30 days prior to the last date on which the TENANT has the right to terminate the tenancy without being bound by the codified terms and conditions. The TENANT may accept it by executing the tendered revised Agreement or addendum, or may reject it by giving the LANDLORD written notice at least 30 days prior to its effective date that he/she intends to terminate the tenancy. The TENANT's termination notice shall be accomplished by sending a letter by first class mail, properly stamped and addressed to the LANDLORD at his/her address.

i) The Landlord may terminate this Agreement for the following reasons:
   1) drug related criminal activity engaged in on or near the premises, by any tenant, household member, or guest, and any such activity engaged in on the premises by any other person under the tenant's control;

2) determination made by the Landlord that a household member is illegally using a drug;
3) determination made by the Landlord that a pattern of illegal use of a drug interferes with the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents;
4) criminal activity by a tenant, any member of the tenant's household, a guest or another person under the tenant's control:
   a. that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents (including property management staff residing on the premises); or
   b. that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of their residences by persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises;
5) if the tenant is fleeing to avoid prosecution, or custody or confinement after conviction, for a crime, or attempt to commit a crime, that is a felony under the laws of the place from which the individual flees, or that in the case of the State of New Jersey, is a high misdemeanor; or
6) if the tenant is violating a condition of probation or parole under Federal or State law;
7) determination made by the Landlord that a household member's abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents;
8) if the Landlord determines that the tenant, any member of the tenant's household, a guest or another person under the tenant's control has engaged in criminal activity, regardless of whether the tenant, any member of the tenant's household, a guest or another person under the tenant's control has been arrested or convicted for such activity.

10. TENANT agrees that the family income, family composition and other eligibility requirements shall be deemed substantial and material obligations of his/her tenancy with respect to the amount of rental he/she will be obligated to pay and his/her right of occupancy, and that a recertification of income shall be made to the LANDLORD annually from the date of this lease in accordance with HUD regulations and requirements. (Note: This paragraph is not applicable to non-Section 8 tenants.)

11. TENANT agrees that the TENANT's share of the monthly rental payment is subject to adjustment by the LANDLORD to reflect income changes which are disclosed on any of TENANT's recertification of income, and TENANT agrees to be bound by such adjustment. LANDLORD agrees to give 30 days written notice of any such adjustment to the TENANT, by an addendum to be made a part of this lease, stating the amount of the adjusted monthly rental which the TENANT will be required to pay. (Note: This paragraph is not applicable to non-Section 8 tenants.)

12. LANDLORD and TENANT agree that if, upon recertification, TENANT's income is found to be sufficient to pay the Contract Rent plus any Utility Allowance, the Tenant shall then be required to bear the cost of all such housing expense, but he/she will no longer be required to make income certifications under this lease.

13. The TENANT shall not assign this lease, sublet the premises, give accommodation to any roomers or lodgers, or permit the use of the premises for any purpose other than as a private dwelling solely for the TENANT and his/her family. The TENANT agrees to reside in this unit and agrees that this unit shall be the TENANT's and his/her family's only place of residence.

14. TENANT agrees to pay to the LANDLORD any rental which should have been paid but for (a) TENANT's misrepresentation in his/her initial income certification or recertification, or in any other information furnished to the LANDLORD or (b) TENANT's failure to supply income recertification when required or to supply information requested by the LANDLORD.

15. TENANT for himself/herself and his/her heirs, executors and administrators agrees as follows:

    a) To pay the rent herein stated promptly when due, without any deductions whatsoever, and without any obligation on the part of the LANDLORD to make any demand for the same;

    b) To keep the premises in a clean and sanitary condition, and to comply with all obligations imposed upon TENANTS under applicable provisions of building and housing codes materially affecting health and safety with respect to said premises and appurtenances, and to save the LANDLORD harmless from all fines, penalties and costs for violations or noncompliance by TENANT with any of said laws, requirements or regulations, and from all liability arising out of any such violations or noncompliance.

    c) Not to use premises for any purpose deemed hazardous by insurance companies carrying insurance thereon;

    d) That if any damage to the property shall be caused by his/her acts or neglect, the TENANT shall forthwith repair such damage at his/her own expense, and should the TENANT fail or refuse to make such repairs within a reasonable time after the occurrence of such damage, the LANDLORD may, at his/her option, make such repairs and charge the cost thereof to the TENANT, and the TENANT shall thereupon reimburse the LANDLORD for the total cost of the damages so caused;

    e) To permit the LANDLORD, or his/her agents, or any representative of any holder of a mortgage on the property, or when authorized by the LANDLORD, the employees of any contractor, utility company, municipal agency or others, to enter the premises for the purpose of making reasonable inspections and repairs and replacements;

    f) Not to install a washing machine, clothes dryer, or air conditioning unit in the apartment without the prior approval of the LANDLORD; and

    g) To permit the LANDLORD or his/her agents to bring appropriate legal action in the event of a breach or threatened breach by the TENANT of any of the covenants or provisions of this lease.

16. The TENANT is permitted to keep common household pets in his/her dwelling unit (subject to the provisions in 24 CFR Part 5 and the pet rules promulgated under 24 CFR Part 5). Any pet rules promulgated by the LANDLORD are attached hereto and incorporated hereby. The TENANT agrees to comply with these rules. A violation of these rules may be grounds for removal of the pet or termination of the TENANT's (pet owner's) tenancy (or both), in accordance with the provisions of 24 CFR Part 5 and applicable regulations and State or local law. These regulations include 24 CFR Part 5 (Evictions From Certain Subsidized and HUD-Owned Projects) and provisions governing the termination of tenancy under the Section 8 housing assistance payments and project assistance payments programs.

Note: The Part 5 Pet Rules do not apply to an animal used by a Tenant or visitor that is needed as a reasonable accommodation for the Tenant or visitor's disability. Optional: The LANDLORD may after reasonable notice to the TENANT and during reasonable hours, enter and inspect the premises. Entry and inspection is permitted only if the LANDLORD has received a signed, written complaint alleging (or the LANDLORD has reasonable grounds to believe) that the conduct or condition of a pet in the dwelling unit constitutes, under applicable State or local law, a nuisance or a threat to the health or safety of the occupants of the project or other persons in the community where the project is located.

If there is no State or local authority (or designated agent of such an authority) authorized under applicable State or local law to remove a pet that becomes vicious, displays symptoms of severe illness, or demonstrates other behavior that constitutes an immediate threat to the health or safety of the tenancy as a whole, the LANDLORD may enter the premises (if necessary), remove the pet, and take such action with respect to the pet as may be permissible under State and local law, which may include placing it in a facility that will provide care and shelter for a period not to exceed 30 days. The LANDLORD shall enter the premises and remove the pet or take such other permissible action only if the LANDLORD requests the TENANT (pet owner) to remove the pet from the project immediately, and the TENANT (pet owner) refuses to do so, or if the LANDLORD is unable to contact the TENANT (pet owner) to make a removal request. The cost of the animal care facility shall be paid as provided in 24 CFR Part 5.

17. The LANDLORD agrees to comply with the requirement of all applicable Federal, State, and local laws, including health, housing and building codes and to deliver and maintain the premises in safe, sanitary and decent condition.

18. The TENANT, by the execution of this Agreement, agrees that the dwelling unit described herein has been inspected by him/her and meets with his/her approval. The TENANT acknowledges hereby that said premises have been satisfactorily completed and that the LANDLORD will not be required to repaint, replaster, or otherwise perform any other work, labor, or service which it has already performed for the TENANT. The TENANT admits that he/she has inspected the unit and found it to be in good and tenantable condition, and agrees that at the end of the occupancy hereunder to deliver up and surrender said premises to the LANDLORD in as good condition as when received, reasonable wear and tear excepted.

19. No alteration, addition, or improvements shall be made in or to the premises without the prior consent of the LANDLORD in writing. The LANDLORD agrees to provide reasonable accommodation to an otherwise eligible tenant's disability, including making changes to rules, policies, or procedures, and making and paying for structural alterations to a unit or common areas. The Landlord is not required to provide accommodations that constitute a fundamental alteration to the Landlord's program or which would pose a substantial financial and administrative hardship. See the regulations at 24 CFR Part 8. In addition, if a requested structural modification does pose a substantial financial and administrative hardship, the Landlord must then allow the tenant to make and pay for the modification in accordance with the Fair Housing Act.

20. TENANT agrees not to waste utilities furnished by the LANDLORD; not to use utilities or equipment for any improper or unauthorized purpose; and not to place fixtures, signs, or fences in or about the premises without the prior permission of the LANDLORD in writing. If such permission is obtained, TENANT agrees, upon termination of the lease, to remove any fixtures, signs or fences, at the option of the LANDLORD, without damage to the premises.

21. This Agreement shall be subordinate in respect to any mortgages that are now on or that hereafter may be placed against said premises, and the recording of such mortgage or mortgages shall have preference and precedence and be superior and prior in lien to this Agreement, and the TENANT agrees to execute any such instrument without cost, which may be deemed necessary or desirable to further effect the subordination of this Agreement to any such mortgage or mortgages and a refusal to execute such instruments shall entitle the LANDLORD, or the LANDLORD's assigns and legal representatives to the option of cancelling this Agreement without incurring any expense or damage, and the term hereby granted is expressly limited accordingly.

22. Tenant Income Verification: The Tenant must promptly provide the Landlord with any letter or other notice by HUD to a member of the family that provides information concerning the amount or verification of family income in accordance with HUD requirements.

23. Tenants' rights to organize: Landlord agrees to allow tenant and tenant organizers to conduct on the property the activities related to the establishment or operation of a tenant organization set out in accordance with HUD requirements.

24. Interim recertifications.
    a) The TENANT agrees to advise the Landlord immediately if any of the following changes occur.

        1) Any household member moves out of the unit.

        2) Any adult member of the household who was reported as unemployed on the most recent certification or recertification obtains employment.

        3) The household's income cumulatively increases by $200 or more a month.

    b) The Tenant may report any decrease in income or any change in other factors considered in calculating the Tenant's rent. Unless the Landlord has confirmation that the decrease in income or change in other factors will last less than one month, the Landlord will verify the information and make the appropriate rent reduction. However, if the Tenant's income will be partially or fully restored within two months, the Landlord may delay the certification process until the new income is known, but the rent reduction will be retroactive and Landlord may not evict the Tenant for nonpayment of rent due during the period of the reported decrease and the completion of the certification process. The Tenant has thirty days after receiving written notice of any rent due for the above described time period to pay or the Landlord can evict for nonpayment of rent.

    c) If the Tenant does not advise the Landlord of the interim changes concerning household members or increase in income, the Landlord may increase the Tenant's rent to the HUD-approved market rent. The Landlord may do so only in accordance with the time frames and administrative procedures set forth in HUD's regulations, handbooks and instructions on the administration of multifamily subsidy programs.

d) The Tenant may request to meet with the Landlord to discuss how any change in income or other factors affected his/her rent or assistance payment, if any. If the Tenant requests such a meeting, the Landlord agrees to meet with the Tenant and explain how the Tenant's rent or assistance payment, if any, was computed.

25. Removal of Subsidy:

a) The Tenant understands that assistance made available on his/her behalf may be terminated if events in either item 1 or 2 below occur. Termination of assistance means that the Landlord may make the assistance available to another Tenant and the Tenant's rent will be recomputed. In addition, if the Tenant's assistance is terminated because of criterion (1) below, the Tenant will be required to pay the HUD-approved market rent for the unit.

1) The Tenant does not provide the Landlord with the information or reports required by paragraph 10 or 24 within 10 calendar days after receipt of the Landlord's notice of intent to terminate the Tenant's assistance payment.

2) The amount the Tenant would be required to pay towards rent and utilities under HUD rules and regulations equals the Family Gross Rent shown on Attachment 1.

b) The Landlord agrees to give the Tenant written notice of the proposed termination. The notice will advise the Tenant that, during the ten calendar days following the date of the notice, he/she may request to meet with the Landlord to discuss the proposed termination of assistance. If the Tenant requests a discussion of the proposed termination, the Landlord agrees to meet with the Tenant.

c) Termination of assistance shall not affect the Tenant's other rights under this Agreement, including the right to occupy the unit. Assistance may subsequently be reinstated if the Tenant submits the income or other data required by HUD procedures, the Landlord determines the Tenant is eligible for assistance, and assistance is available.

26. Failure of the LANDLORD to insist upon the strict performance of the terms, covenants, agreements and conditions herein contained, or any of them, shall not constitute or be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of the LANDLORD's right thereafter to enforce any such term, covenant, agreement, or condition, but the same shall continue in full force and effect.

27. In return for the TENANT's continued fulfillment of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the LANDLORD covenants that the TENANT may at all times, while this Agreement remains in effect, have and enjoy for his/her sole use and benefit the above described property.

28. The lease agreement will terminate automatically, if the Section 8 Housing Assistance contract terminates for any reason.

29. Attachments to the Agreement: The Tenant certifies that he/she has received a copy of the Agreement and the following attachments to the Agreement and understands that these attachments are part of the Agreement.

I, Chardell Bacon, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, hereby declare that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief:

1. I reside at 926 North Murtland Street in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, which is a second-floor apartment unit in the Kelly Hamilton portfolio. My building is a townhouse, and I share a basement with the lower unit. There are four units in my building.
2. I have lived in that unit since 2018. My 12-year-old and 7-year-old sons and 2-year-old daughter live with me.
3. The conditions of my unit have deteriorated steadily under the current ownership, and the conditions are affecting my health and the health of my children.
4. It has been extremely difficult, and mostly impossible, to get maintenance work completed in my unit under the current owner and management.
5. I have submitted work orders that were never answered.
6. An agent in the management office told me that there was no money to pay for repairs.
7. At times, I called the management office only to discover the phone line was disconnected.
8. The banister in the common area stairwell to my unit is missing a baluster, leaving a gap over the stairs. The gap is large enough that I worry my daughter could fall through the opening. Additionally, the light at the bottom of the steps flickers and does not work consistently.
9. There is a growing hole in the center of my dining room ceiling, with the plaster cracking and falling off in chunks. I have had to move everything out of that room and no longer use it.

10. My unit has not been painted since I've moved in, and my daughter can pull large flakes of deteriorating paint from the walls.
11. My unit has frequent pest infestations, including rodents and insects. Currently, the entire unit is infested with roaches. I have attempted to treat the issue with cleaning, Raid, and other available pest infestation treatments, to no success. Management told me that I cannot bug bomb the unit myself. An exterminator was supposed to treat my unit during the week of August 18, 2025, and never showed up.
12. Many of the electrical outlets in my unit are covered in cockroach tracks.
13. There is a severe leak under my bathroom sink that has caused flooding in my unit and in the unit below. The leak is so bad that maintenance turned off the water to the sink entirely, and I have not been able to use it for a year.
14. The vinyl tile in my bathroom floor is mislaid, and wooden beams are visible underneath. Water has repeatedly soaked the wood and there is an odor of rotting wood throughout the entire unit as a result.
15. Last year, a contractor hired by Lynd treated mold in my bathroom by spray-painting the area white without cleaning the mold or determining the cause.
16. The floor in the dining room is soft in some areas, and I worry that I or my children will fall through the floor.
17. My oven has been broken since the beginning of this year. When I've asked for a repair, individuals at the management office told me that the ignitor must be replaced, and the part is on back order. As a result, I have not been able to use my oven for months.
18. The back of my refrigerator is infested with roaches, and I have to frequently spray the seal with bug spray to prevent them from entering the refrigerator.

19. In November of 2024, someone in the apartment downstairs accidentally discharged a rifle into the ceiling that traveled through my bedroom floor. The tenant, who was a maintenance employee of Kelly Hamilton, spackled the ceiling, and the hole in my floor was never repaired. I have covered the hole with my mattress.
20. Local teenagers broke a pane in the window in my sunroom in or about April of 2024. When a contractor came to my unit to complete repairs, they removed the broken pane without replacing it, such that the window is no longer insulated.
21. I have visited my neighbors' units over the past two years, and they are in similar or worse condition. I frequently talk with my neighbors about our difficulties getting maintenance and the deplorable conditions of our homes.
22. For example, a neighbor who lives on Mulford Street did not have a working refrigerator for months. My downstairs neighbor reports that water leaks into his living room from an unknown source, unrelated to leaks in my unit. My basement, and several of my neighbors' basements, have water intrusion and sewage backup. Many of my neighbors are also dealing with mouse or insect infestation. One unit across the street from my home is currently boarded up after a car hit the front.
23. A real estate professional with management or hired by management first visited my unit in August of 2025 and took note of all of the problems. That same day, they submitted work orders to address my bathroom floor and sink, peeling paint, and dining room ceiling damage. Still, no maintenance has been done.
24. I have also had significant difficulty getting any administrative help from the management office throughout the current ownership.

25. I recall three management companies at the property since the current owner took over. Each time a new management company started, the computer system would shut down and the office was unable to process paperwork for an extended period. The new companies would tell me that the prior one did not maintain my file and income documentation.

26. I am supposed to receive a utility reimbursement check each month as part of my housing subsidy. I have only received one check in 2025. My neighbors have told me they are not receiving their utility checks either. Terri, an employee of Lynd Management, told me that we would not receive our checks until September 2025, at the earliest.

27. Prior to October or November of 2024, I was unemployed and did not have to make rent payments. Once I started working, I reported that income to the rental office. I repeatedly reached out to the management office to find out what my rent payment would be and did not get a response.

28. In the past, I recertified my income annually with the management office in January. I again went to the office and submitted my income paperwork in January of 2025, but again, I was not told what my rent payment would be for months.

29. Management asked me to return and resubmit the paperwork in March of 2025 because they did not have the necessary paperwork.

30. In July of 2025, I received two notices of termination of my subsidy on my door on the same day. One was dated July 10, 2025 and the other was dated July 18, 2025. The notices calculated alleged arrears at $7,089.00 based on market rent from March of 2025 onward, as if I no longer qualified for my rental subsidy. True and correct copies of those notices are attached hereto.

31. When I met with management to recertify my income, an agent recalculated my rent as $723 for the months of December 2024 through February 2025, $499 for the month of March 2025, and $350 per month for April 2025 onward. I do not know how they calculated those figures, but I agreed to a payment plan to avoid an eviction filing.
32. Lynd Management has told me that I owe $4,825 in back rent and late fees accrued since December of 2024, even though they did not tell me what my rent payment would be until July of 2025.
33. I would like to move to a new home in this community, where my children have grown up. I am afraid that I will be rejected if I apply to move due to the alleged outstanding balance on my rent ledger.
34. I submitted a claim in this matter on July 28, 2025, for damages due to the conditions of my unit and the administrative errors. A true and correct copy of that claim is attached to my Objection as Exhibit E.
35. Jessica Durkin, an employee of the Community Justice Project, took photographs of my unit on August 23, 2025, which are attached hereto. The photographs are true and accurate representations of the condition of my unit on that date.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

COMMUNITY JUSTICE PROJECT

July 28, 2025
In re CBRM Realty Inc., et al., 25-15343, and consolidated cases
Debtor: Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC, 25-15352

Ms. Bacon has resided at 926 North Murtland Street, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, 15208, a unit in the Kelly Hamilton portfolio, since 2018. Following Debtor's acquisition of the property, it failed to maintain the property in habitable condition in violation of the implied warranty of habitability. Pugh v. Holmes, 405 A.2d 897, 903 (Pa. 1979). Habitability issues include, but are not limited to, pest infestation, including mice and roaches; mold; a broken window; a collapse in the dining room ceiling such that she no longer feels safe using the room; flaking paint; electrical problems; a sinking floor, causing danger to Ms. Bacon, her children, and the tenant below; and a leak under the bathroom sink that flooded the below unit to such a degree that Ms. Bacon has turned off the water supply to the sink entirely. Photos of Ms. Bacon's unit are included as Exhibit A.

These conditions have posed health and safety threats to Ms. Bacon and her three young children and violate the regulations promulgated by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") to ensure that residents of HUD-assisted housing are provided with a decent, safe, and sanitary place to live. Nevertheless, Debtor, through current management agent Lynd Management Group LLC ("Lynd"), has assessed Ms. Bacon $4,825 in arrearages and fees that have accrued during this period of uninhabitability. Ms. Bacon's rent ledger is included as Exhibit B. These arrearages must be abated to account for the conditions of her unit. See In re Clark, 96 B.R. 569 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1989).

Additionally, Debtor has failed to comply with HUD regulations for timely annual recertification of tenant income and recalculation of rent obligations. Ms. Bacon submitted documentation to Debtor, through Lynd, that she had obtained employment in October of 2024 and required a rent recertification. Additionally, Ms. Bacon again approached Debtor, through Lynd, seeking a recertification in January of 2025, the time in which her annual recertifications took place in the past. Debtor, through Lynd, did not inform Ms. Bacon of her recalculated rent obligation until July of 2025, despite Ms. Bacon's repeated inquiries. Furthermore, Lynd provided Ms. Bacon with a rent ledger, attached as Exhibit B, that set her rent at $723 for the months of December 2024 through February 2025, $499 for the month of March 2025, and $350 per month for April 2025 onward. Lynd provided no explanation as to why the rent calculation changed drastically throughout the year. In July of 2025, Ms. Bacon was assessed $13 in late fees, even though she was not told what her rent obligation would be before those charges began to accrue.

Finally, Ms. Bacon has been entitled to receive utility reimbursement checks during her tenancy with Debtor. However, to the best of her recollection, Ms. Bacon has not received utility checks for most of 2025, with the exception of May. The attached ledger includes utility line items as “charges” rather than “credits” for 2025. Ms. Bacon is entitled to recalculation and reimbursement for the outstanding utility reimbursement checks.

Due to Debtor’s above-outlined failures to perform on Ms. Bacon’s lease, she files this claim in the amount of market rate rent for the eight month period, beginning in December of 2024, during which she owed rent. Because the market rental rate for her home is $1,379 per month, see Exhibit B, her claim totals $11,032.

Hello Ed. For PA I have them listed as management agent on:

Bellefield Dwellings
Gallatin Apts.
Geneva House
Harmony Towers
Mon View Heights
Palisades Plaza
Valley Royal Court

The fact that they are on the list gives me a high level of confidence that they have received formal HUD agent approval on these projects but I would need Chris or Teresa to double check for me.

Hi Joe,

After today's call I had a quick clarifying question about the status of Lynd as approved management agent for the NB portfolio.

Back in March, Lisa's email (below) was that Lynd was approved management agent at Mon View and Pallisades but not at other NB properties.

I thought that had changed and that Lynd was the approved management agent, but after today's call it seemed like I may have been incorrect. Is Lynd the HUD approved management agent for the Bankwell portfolio, Bellefield, and/or Kelly Hamilton?

Thanks!
Ed

INTRODUCTION

Kelly Hamilton is one of many HUD-assisted properties purchased in 2023 by affordable housing owner and developer NB Affordable, an affiliate of Debtors herein, and principal Moshe "Mark" Silber.[4] The sale to NB Affordable quickly resulted in deteriorating and, ultimately, deplorable conditions in properties throughout the portfolio, as NB Affordable and its principals withdrew funds from the properties, stopped paying vendors and contracts, and were unresponsive to complaints from residents, elected officials, and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD").[5] Local officials continue to grapple with the myriad health and safety issues caused by the sale, which broadly affected 1300 units of affordable housing.[6] Mortgagees for other properties in the portfolio have been forced to pursue foreclosure and receivership to restore the properties to habitable condition and sell them to new owners.[7]

All of the Allegheny County NB Affordable properties have experienced significant financial distress and varying degrees of safety and habitability problems, causing extreme uncertainty for residents. HUD determined that many of the properties were in default of their Housing Assistance Payment ("HAP") contracts and entered into an enforcement posture with the ownership, requiring significant work to be completed at the properties before HAP payments would resume. Alternatively, if the properties are not brought back into compliance with the HAP contract and HUD regulations, the HAP contracts can be terminated, resulting in a mass displacement of residents that would be catastrophic to the Allegheny County region.

Against this backdrop, Chardell Bacon, a current resident of Kelly Hamilton, on her own behalf and on behalf of those similarly-situated, objects to the confirmation of the Joint Chapter 11 Plan and Sale Transaction. Ms. Bacon seeks to ensure that the property is adequately maintained in accordance with applicable health and safety requirements and is sold to a long-term, responsible, preservation-oriented buyer, to preserve the property as HUD-assisted housing for existing and future income-eligible residents. As a leaseholder at the property, she has a substantial interest in maintaining the property as HUD-assisted, affordable housing that meets the basic requirements of decent, safe, and sanitary conditions. Ms. Bacon has experienced first-hand the health and safety problems that arose when the property was purchased by an unscrupulous, absentee owner and seeks to prevent similar problems in the future. Her experience at the property while it has been managed by Lynd Management ("Lynd") leads her to object to the acquisition of Kelly Hamilton by 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh LLC ("Stalking Horse Bidder"), an affiliate of Lynd, as Lynd to-date has failed to sufficiently prioritize the health and safety of current residents while in control of the property and has failed to obtain necessary HUD approval to implement or assume the HAP contract.

ARGUMENT

The tenants of Kelly Hamilton, thus far absent from these proceedings, are central to the disposition of Debtors' bankruptcy petitions. No one is more affected by Debtors' failures, or the actions/omissions of Lynd as management agent, than the residents who must live with them every day. All of their legal rights and practical interests as residential leaseholders in this HUD-assisted development are at stake in this proceeding. As a court of equity, this Honorable Court is entitled to consider the interests of the leaseholder tenants, which hang in the balance of the confirmation of the Joint Chapter 11 Plan and Sale Transaction. Off. Comm. of Unsecured Creditors of Cybergenics Corp. ex rel. Cybergenics Corp. v. Chinery, 330 F.3d 548, 567 (3d Cir. 2003) ("[B]ankruptcy courts are equitable tribunals that apply equitable principles in the administration of bankruptcy proceedings.").

As such, Ms. Bacon, on her own behalf and on behalf of similarly-situated tenants, urges the Court to certify a class of objectors and reject the presently proposed plan based on the sale of Kelly Hamilton to the Stalking Horse Bidder. They request that this honorable Court postpone any confirmation of the Joint Plan and Sale Transaction for at least ninety (90) days, to determine whether Lynd can bring property conditions and other operational aspects of its management of the property into compliance with applicable standards and obtain HUD's approval to take over the HAP contract at the property. In addition, Tenants request this 90-day postponement to permit them and local governmental, nongovernmental and philanthropic stakeholders to bring to the Court and the Parties an alternative plan and sale transaction whereby interested local stakeholders, who are currently exploring this, may present a feasible, alternative acquisition, ownership and management plan for preserving and recapitalizing the portfolio as HUD-assisted housing.

I. Kelly Hamilton tenants are parties in interest to these bankruptcy proceedings.

Ms. Bacon, as a creditor and Class 4 claimholder in this matter, is undoubtedly a party in interest to the instant matter and "may raise and may appear and be heard on any issue." 11 U.S.C. § 1109(b). So too are the other residents of Kelly Hamilton, as they reside at the property under substantially similar leases, inextricably tied to the HAP contract held by Debtors.

The Supreme Court acknowledged just last year that "party in interest" under the Bankruptcy Code is an expansive term intended to "promote[] a fair and equitable reorganization process" in which even minority interested are represented. Truck Ins. Exch. v. Kaiser Gypsum Co., Inc., 602 U.S. 268, 280 (2024). A party in interest under the Bankruptcy Code is "'anyone who has a legally protected interest that could be affected by a bankruptcy proceeding,'" and the analysis is "effectively coextensive" with that for Article III standing. In re Glob. Indus. Techs., Inc., 645 F.3d 201, 210-11 (3d Cir. 2011) (quoting In re James Wilson Assocs., 965 F.2d 160, 169 (7th Cir. 1992)). To demonstrate standing, the tenants must show that they "(1) suffered an injury in fact, (2) that is fairly traceable to the challenged conduct of the defendant, and (3) that is likely to be redressed by a favorable judicial decision." Town of Chester, N.Y. v. Laroe Ests., Inc., 581 U.S. 433, 438 (2017) (quoting Spokeo Inc. v. Robins, 578 U.S. 330, 338 (2016)). The injury in fact element of standing requires that the party "suffered 'an invasion of a legally protected interest' that is 'concrete and particularized' and 'actual or imminent, not conjectural or hypothetical.'" Cottrell v. Alcon Lab'ys, 874 F.3d 154, 162–63 (3d Cir. 2017) (quoting Spokeo, 578 U.S. at 339).

Here, tenants' legally enforceable interests in their homes, as set forth in their leases, the HAP contract, and the U.S. Housing Act and implementing HUD regulations, are affected by the ownership of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio—a reality demonstrated clearly by the instant case.

These interests go beyond "generalized grievances" that are "common to the entire public." Cottrell, 874 F.3d at 162. As a result of Debtors' purchase of the portfolio, neglect of the properties, and non-compliance with state and federal law related to housing, tenants have suffered the specific and particularized injury of breach of their leases and related health and safety injuries, and the future of the property as HUD-assisted housing, and residents' ability to continue to live therein, is at risk.

These interests are ongoing. As residents of a project-based multifamily housing development subject to a HAP contract, tenants may only be evicted for material noncompliance with lease requirements or state landlord tenant law, certain criminal activity, or "[o]ther good cause," as defined in applicable HUD regulations. 24 C.F.R. § 247.3. Their leases are indefinite, and they may not be evicted based on expiration of the term of the lease. In re Burch, 401 B.R. 153, 159-60 & n.15 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2008). Long after the instant cases have closed and Debtors are relieved of their obligations under the HAP contract, tenants will continue to reside at Kelly Hamilton under new ownership by the Stalking Horse Bidder. Residents are uniquely invested in ensuring that new ownership approaches the purchase with a realistic, clear-eyed view of the current state of the properties and the extensive renovation and repair work, and by extension significant funding, that will be required to bring their homes back into habitable condition and in compliance with HUD regulations.

II. The tenants of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio should be permitted to object to the Confirmation and Sale Transaction as a class.

This Honorable Court may exercise its discretion to order that Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7023 applies to a contested matter and certify a class of objectors to the Confirmation and Sale Transaction. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014(c); In re Dynegy, Inc., 770 F.3d 1064, 1069 (2d Cir. 2014) (outlining requirements for class objection to a Chapter 11 Plan as a contested matter under Rule 9014). The proposed class is defined as follows: "All occupants of the Kelly Hamilton properties currently owned by Debtors Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC who reside, or will reside following approval of the Sale Transaction, at the properties pursuant to a lease agreement subject to the HAP contract attached to the properties."

Class certification is proper if the matter meets the four requirements of Rule 23(a) and at least one of the three prongs of Rule 23(b). In re Hydrogen Peroxide Antitrust Litig., 552 F.3d 305, 309 n.6 (3d Cir. 2008), as amended (Jan. 16, 2009). "Factual determinations necessary to make Rule 23 findings must be made by a preponderance of the evidence." Id. at 320. Here, Ms. Bacon's Objection meets the requirements of Rule 23(a) and 23(b)(2), and certifying a class of tenant objectors will serve the important purpose of ensuring that minority interests, thus far unrepresented, have a voice in the disposition of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio. See Truck Ins. Exch., 602 U.S. at 280.

First, joinder of, or objection by, all class members is impracticable, as the proposed class is numerous and includes present and future tenants of the portfolio. Mielo v. Steak 'n Shake Operations, Inc., 897 F.3d 467, 486 (3d Cir. 2018) (quoting Stewart v. Abraham, 275 F.3d 220, 226-27) (3d Cir. 2001) ("[A]lthough '[n]o minimum number of plaintiffs is required to maintain a suit as a class action,' a plaintiff in this circuit can generally satisfy Rule 23(a)(1)'s numerosity requirement by establishing 'that the potential number of plaintiffs exceeds 40.'"). Additional factors relevant to determining impracticability include: judicial economy, class members' ability and motivation to litigate, the financial resources of class members, the ability to identify future claimants, and whether the claims are for injunctive relief or for damages. In re Modafinil Antitrust Litig., 837 F.3d 238, 253 (3d Cir. 2016), as amended (Sept. 29, 2016).

The present case involves a proposed class of current tenants of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio under HUD-subsidized leases and subject to the HAP contract, which, as a 110-unit portfolio of multifamily housing, includes well over 100 members at present. Moreover, the objection is based on doubt and deep concerns about the future feasibility of the properties under the proposed sale to the Stalking Horse Bidder, based on the value of the property, Lynd's performance to date as management agent, and the significant capital investment required to stabilize and rehabilitate the portfolio. As Lynd will be leasing units to new tenants as they become ready for occupancy, those future tenants likewise have an interest in ensuring the property is effectively managed and maintained in accordance with applicable HUD requirements. Accordingly, the proposed class meets the numerosity requirements of Rule 23(a)(1).

Second, the questions of law and fact are common to the proposed class of objectors. F.R.C.P. 23(a)(2). "The commonality requirement will be satisfied if the named plaintiffs share at least one question of fact or law with the grievances of the prospective class." Stewart v. Abraham, 275 F.3d 220, 227 (3d Cir. 2001); accord Johnston v. HBO Film Mgmt., 265 F.3d 178, 184 (3d Cir. 2001). All proposed class members reside at the Kelly Hamilton properties under substantially identical leases that are governed by the same HAP contract and statutory and regulatory requirements, and the Joint Plan and Sale Transaction require assignment of that contract to the Stalking Horse Bidder, an affiliate of current management company Lynd. The factual questions surrounding Lynd's performance as manager to date, detailed further below, are central to the Objection of all class members and impact the feasibility of maintaining the HAP contract for the benefit of all tenants into the future.

Third, Ms. Bacon's objection to the Confirmation and Sale Transaction is typical of the objections of the class. F.R.C.P. 23(a)(3). "Cases challenging the same unlawful conduct which affects both the named plaintiffs and the putative class usually satisfy the typicality requirement irrespective of the varying fact patterns underlying the individual claims. Factual differences will not render a claim atypical if the claim arises from the same event or practice or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of the [absent] class members, and if it is based on the same legal theory." Stewart, 275 F.3d at 227-228 (internal citations omitted). "Actions requesting declaratory and injunctive relief to remedy conduct directed at the class clearly fit [the Rule 23 typicality] mold." Baby Neal for and by Kanter v. Casey, 43 F.3d 48, 58 (3d Cir. 1994).

Ms. Bacon's Objection to the Confirmation and Sale Transaction is in the nature of declaratory or injunctive relief. While she has filed a claim for monetary damages in this matter, her objection herein is predicated on Lynd's unproven suitability to manage the properties in compliance with the law, HUD regulations, and the HAP contract into the future. Lynd's management practices at Kelly Hamilton affect all residents, and complaints regarding deplorable conditions, missing utility checks, and noncompliance with recertification requirements are typical of each proposed class member's experience since March of 2024.

Fourth, Ms. Bacon will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. F.R.C.P. 23(a)(4). Adequacy of representation turns on two factors: "whether the representatives' interests conflict with those of the class and whether the class attorney is capable of representing the class." Johnston, 265 F.3d at 185; accord Amchem Prods. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 625-626 (1997). Here, there is no conflict between Ms. Bacon's interests in objecting to the Confirmation and Sale Transaction and the interests of other class members. To the contrary, Ms. Bacon asserts identical objections to Sale Transaction as other class members, and the relief she seeks will inure to the benefit of each member of the proposed class. With regard to the adequacy of counsel, the Community Justice Project and its attorneys are experienced in class action litigation and have the resources to pursue relief on behalf of the class. See, e.g., Massie et al. v. HUD, 620 F.3d 340 (3d Cir. 2010); Jones et al. v. Barkman et al., C.A. No. 2:05-cv-1052 (W.D. Pa. 2008); Thompson et al. v. Altoona Housing Authority, C.A. No. 3:10-00312 (W.D. Pa. 2014).

Finally, the criteria of Rule 23(b)(2) are satisfied in this matter, as Ms. Bacon's objection to the Confirmation and Sale Transaction is in the nature of injunctive or declaratory relief to enjoin continued violations of HUD regulations and the HAP contract and, thereby, to prevent the Kelly Hamilton portfolio from losing its HAP contract. Rule 23(b)(2) "is almost automatically satisfied in actions primarily seeking injunctive relief." Baby Neal, 43 F.3d at 58-59 (citing Weiss v. York Hospital, 745 F.2d 786, 811 (3d. Cir. 1984)). This class provision is "designed specifically for civil rights cases seeking broad declaratory or injunctive relief for a numerous and often unascertainable or amorphous class of persons." Id. at 59. "What is important is that the relief sought by the named plaintiffs benefits the entire class." Id.

Ms. Bacon alleges that Lynd, an affiliate of the Stalking Horse Bidder, has thus far failed to fulfill its obligations as management company for the Kelly Hamilton portfolio, and that these errors have permeated its entire tenure as management agent and affected every resident of the portfolio. As a result, the proposed class has deep concern and little confidence that the HAP contract and related lease agreements will remain in place if the Stalking Horse Bidder is permitted to acquire the portfolio, as proposed, and class members face uncertainty and risk the loss of their homes as a result. Sustaining the within objection and rejecting the proposed Plan and Sale Transaction will remedy these shortcomings for each member of the proposed class and will compel Debtors to formulate a new plan that protects the future of the Kelly Hamilton portfolio for its residents.

Accordingly, this Honorable Court should exercise its discretion to certify the within class of objectors to the Confirmation and Sale Transaction.

III. The Joint Plan and Sale Transaction do not meet the feasibility requirement of the Bankruptcy Code because they do not assure that the Stalking Horse Bidder, as successor to Debtors, will have the ability and financial means to remedy defaults to the HAP contract and maintain the portfolio as HUD-subsidized affordable housing.

Under the Bankruptcy Code, the proponent of a Chapter 11 plan must establish by a preponderance of the evidence that "[c]onfirmation of the plan is not likely to be followed by the liquidation, or the need for further financial reorganization, of the debtor or any successor to the debtor under the plan, unless such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the plan." 11 U.S.C. 1129(a)(11). "In determining whether the feasibility standard is met, a court must be satisfied that the plan is workable and has a reasonable likelihood of success." In re S B Bldg. Assocs. Ltd. P'ship, 621 B.R. 330, 354 (Bankr. D.N.J. 2020). Other factors to consider when determining feasibility include:

> (a) the adequacy of the capital structure; (b) the earning power of the business; (c) economic conditions; (d) the ability of management; (e) the probability of the continuation of the same management; (f) any other related matter which determines the prospects of a sufficiently successful operation to enable performance of the provisions of the plan.

Matter of Sound Radio, Inc., 93 B.R. 849, 856 (Bankr. D.N.J. 1988), aff'd in part, remanded in part, 103 B.R. 521 (D.N.J. 1989). Moreover, any income projections "must not be speculative, conjectural or unrealistic." Id.

The Kelly Hamilton Debtors have a singular business purpose: to operate the Kelly Hamilton portfolio pursuant to the HAP contract with HUD, providing affordable, subsidized housing in a community where it is much needed. As the successor to the Kelly Hamilton

Debtors, the Stalking Horse Bidder, an affiliate of Lynd, will have to receive approval from HUD to assume the HAP contract and operate it in compliance with its terms and program requirements. Based on Lynd's management of the portfolio since March of 2024, however, the HAP contract will remain at risk of termination if it takes over the property.

While the Stalking Horse bidder has been in place in some form at the Kelly Hamilton properties since March of 2024, there is substantial evidence that the property has continued to deteriorate under its management and remains out of compliance with HUD standards and requirements. This deterioration undoubtedly began prior to Lynd's involvement, but it has nonetheless persisted after the retention of Lynd and appointment of the Independent Fiduciary, well into these bankruptcy proceedings. At present, the conditions of the portfolio do not meet the minimum requirements of the law and HUD regulations, nor is required recertification paperwork timely completed and submitted to HUD. After any sale, the Kelly Hamilton portfolio will remain in significant default of obligations under the HAP contract, and any feasible plan to maintain the HAP contract and continue to operate the portfolio as HUD-assisted housing, which is of paramount interest to claimants, will require extensive time, hefty financial resources, and able management at the helm that can obtain HUD approval. Matter of Sound Radio, Inc., 93 B.R. at 856 (identifying "ability of management" as a relevant factor to the feasibility analysis). The Joint Plan and Sale Transaction contain no assurances that the Stalking Horse Bidder is up to this task, and its history at the property demonstrates that it is not.

Both the Sale Transaction and the Joint Plan include the necessary condition precedent that HUD must approve the purchaser of the portfolio and assignment the HAP contract to the purchaser. (ECF 360 at 51; ECF 338-1 at 38.) This is far from a foregone conclusion. As late as August 18, 2025, approximately 17 months after Lynd became the property manager for Kelly Hamilton, HUD had still not formally approved Lynd for that role. Exhibit H.

One only need visit Ms. Bacon's property to understand the extent of Lynd's failure to maintain and manage the portfolio to date. The hole in her dining room ceiling continues to expand; she has not had a functional oven for months, see 24 C.F.R. § 5.703(d)(4); a leak in her bathroom sink rendered the sink entirely unusable after it flooded her own unit and leaked into the unit below on multiple occasions, see 24 C.F.R. § 5.703(d)(1), (2); damaged parts of the floor threaten to give way, see 24 C.F.R. § 5.703(e)(1); and she contends daily with an extensive roach infestation and the odor of rotting wood throughout the unit, see id. These are not conditions that arise suddenly and can be remedied quickly and inexpensively. Rather, they are evidence of years of neglect and deferred maintenance that began under Debtors' ownership of the properties and continued during Lynd's management, resulting in very serious conditions that will require a significant capital investment to safely address. The Joint Plan does not establish that the Stalking Horse Bidder, as successor to Debtor, has the resources to perform these tasks. Without that assurance, and without HUD approval, the HAP contract remains in jeopardy, and all tenants of the portfolio are at risk of losing an already-scarce affordable housing resource.

Nor did Lynd, in its capacity as the DIP Lender, prioritize resident health and safety in negotiating the terms of the DIP Facility. While the DIP Facility totaled $9.7 million, only a small portion was allocated to capital expenditures to stabilize the properties, with the bulk of the funding directed toward debt service and various professional fees. (ECF 178 at 72.) And even with $1.3 million budgeted for capital expenditures, Ms. Bacon has observed few improvements to her or her neighbors' homes, and her maintenance requests even after the DIP Facility was in place have not been addressed.

In addition to the baseline requisite of decent, safe, and sanitary housing, HUD regulations mandate that a party to a HAP contract ensure compliance with the income guidelines for the program through annual recertifications, with interim recertifications as necessary, to ensure that residents are charged no more than approximately 30% of their adjusted gross income for rent and utilities, as well as providing utility reimbursement checks to those who are income-qualified to receive them. 24 C.F.R. § 5.601 et seq. and § 5.230 et seq. Despite staffing a management office for the portfolio for over a year, Lynd has not complied with these requirements, instead allowing tenants to continue in lengthy periods of uncertainty while their income was not recertified, their rent obligations were unknown, and the utility checks on which they depend to keep the lights on were missing. For example, Ms. Bacon repeatedly contacted the management office beginning in October of 2024 to recertify her income, and she was not informed of her recertified rent until July of 2025, when Lynd erroneously claimed she was in arrears of $4,825.[8] She has received a single utility reimbursement check this year, and when she inquired about the missing checks, she was told by an agent of Lynd that she could not expect to receive that money until at least September.

Finally, the abbreviated timeframe for the proposed transaction and the terms of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility and Stalking Horse Agreement, which overburden the property with an exorbitant though largely unused super-priority debt lien, prevented other buyers from making competitive offers based on the actual value of the portfolio, including local governmental and [8] Not only was this alleged arrearage based errantly, in part, on Lynd's failure to property certify Ms. Bacon's income and correctly calculate her tenant payment, under Pennsylvania law, tenants may withhold rent if their units are uninhabitable and may assert that uninhabitability as a defense to any action seeking payment for rent arrearages to offset the total owed. See Echeverria v. Holley, 142 A.3d 29, 35 (Pa. Super. 2016). Based on the conditions of Ms. Bacon's unit, it is simply preposterous, and borderline insulting, to suggest that she is the party in breach of her lease and could be liable for any portion of her calculated rent during this time period.

nongovernmental stakeholders with whom claimant and her counsel have been working for this very purpose. There is no evidence that the portfolio, in its current condition, could draw $9.7 million on the open market, particularly when it was last sold for a recorded price of $57,500.00, while it was in far better condition and obtained in a sale that included other local properties from the same seller.

As the proponents of the Plan, Debtors have also failed to produce any evidence of the earning power of the portfolio or access to the capital investment needed to bring the portfolio fully back into compliance with the HAP contract and HUD regulations. Matter of Sound Radio, Inc., 93 B.R. at 856; accord In re Diocese of Camden, New Jersey, 653 B.R. 309, 344 (Bankr. D.N.J. 2023). The proposed purchase by the Stalking Horse Bidder will discharge the DIP Facility associated with the property and does not include any evidence or assurances that the HAP funds and expected cash flow will be sufficient to address the myriad habitability problems that still exist. Any potential bidder outside of the Stalking Horse Bidder would have been even more burdened: it would have had to offer enough capital to repay the DIP Facility, the Bid Protection fee and related expenses, while also being assured that it had adequate cash flow to perform the work necessary to return the portfolio to compliance with applicable HUD requirements. It is wholly unsurprising that the bid process did not produce a single qualified bidder who felt the portfolio was a sound investment under these terms, and the lack of disinterested bidders evidences the unfeasibility of the Joint Plan and Sale Transaction.

IV. Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, Ms. Bacon, on her own behalf and on behalf of those similarly-situated, respectfully requests this Honorable Court certify a class of objecting tenants and deny confirmation of the Joint Plan and Sale Transaction.

IN RE: CBRM REALTY. INC., et al.[1] Debtors.	Chapter 11 Case No. 25-15343 (MBK) (Jointly Administered) Related Docket Nos.: 281 and 338

OBJECTION OF THE CITY OF PITTSBURGH TO: (A) THE DEBTORS' SALE MOTION FOR THE KELLY HAMILTON PROPERTY AND (B) CONFIRMATION OF DEBTOR'S PLAN OF REORGANIZATION AND REQUEST FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF AN EXAMINER PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. § 1104(c)(1)

The City of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (the "City") respectfully submits this objection with respect to: a) the above referenced motion (the "Motion")[2] for the sale of property owned by Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton Debtor"); and (b) confirmation of the Debtors' plan of reorganization (the "Plan") related to the Kelly Hamilton Debtor.[3] The City also respectfully requests the appointment of an examiner pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1104(c)(1).

[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: CBRM Realty Inc. (2420), Crown Capital Holdings LLC (1411), Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC (9071), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC (0765), RH Chenault Creek LLC (8987), RH Copper Creek LLC (0874), RH Lakewind East LLC (6963), RH Windrun LLC (0122), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC (7528), and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC (1951).

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The City respectfully requests the Court deny approval of the sale Motion and confirmation of the Debtors' Plan at least until a committee of creditors and/or an examiner is appointed to address apparent misuse of the bankruptcy system including the use of the proceeds of a debtor-in-possession loan to pay pre-petition debts related to non-debtor entities. This payment directly impacts the propriety of the successful credit bid submitted by the stalking horse.

2. In particular, debtor-in-possession financing was used to pay off a mortgage in the original amount of $3.5 million to the Kelly Hamilton Debtor's property manager (which is affiliated with the stalking horse buyer and may exercise sufficient control over the debtors to be considered an insider) relating to the property manager's fees for non-debtor projects owned or controlled by the Debtor's principal, Moshe "Mark" Silber ("Silber"). Silber plead guilty to crimes related to fraudulent loan transactions.

3. The Kelly Hamilton Debtor did not receive reasonably equivalent value when it became obligated for the management fees of the other projects in the Silber portfolio. It is the City's understanding that the Kelly Hamilton Debtor was chosen by the property manager and Silber as the mortgagor because all other entities in the Silber portfolio were fully encumbered. The Kelly Hamilton Debtor was apparently the only entity with equity available to secure, in whole or in part, the property manager's fees related to non-debtors in the Silber portfolio.

4. An affiliate of the property manager provided the debtor-in-possession financing to the Kelly Hamilton Debtor which effectively rolled up the property manager's pre-petition claims relating to the non-debtors in the Silber portfolio without adequate disclosure to the Court as required by the local rules.

5. The roll up of the potentially fraudulent debt was included in the stalking horse bid of the property manager and its capital partner and may have chilled the bidding for the property. The stalking horse was the winning bidder with a credit bid of a little more than $9.7 million.

6. The property manager was retained, and the mortgage was signed by Silber, prior to the appointment of the independent fiduciary. As a result, there is reason for skepticism and a creditors' committee or examiner should be appointed to investigate these matters before the sale is approved and the Plan is confirmed.

7. The City is also interested in preserving affordable housing for the residents but is very concerned with the performance of the property manager on the Kelly Hamilton project and on other Silber portfolio projects in the City. The Kelly Hamilton property remains in disrepair and is subject to multiple code violations which are apparent from the outside of the property. Due to limitations in the City's inspection rights, the City has not been able to inspect the inside of the property at this point. To the extent that the sale is approved, the City respectfully requests that it be conditioned upon the Debtors and the property manager correcting the problems at the property and permitting the City to inspect the interiors and exterior prior to closing. The debtor-in-possession financing allocated $1.3 million for capital expenditures. To the City's dismay, it does not appear that these funds have been used for repairs of occupied units at the property.

II. BACKGROUND

The Bankruptcy Cases

8. The Debtors commenced these cases on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date").

9. The bankruptcy cases are jointly administered but are not substantively consolidated.

10. No creditors' committee, trustee or examiner has been appointed.

The Affordable Housing Project

11. The Kelly Hamilton Debtor owns approximately twenty-one (21) properties with 110 residential units (collectively, the "Property") which are located within City and are operated as affordable housing pursuant to one or more Housing Assistance Payments Contracts (also known as "HAP Contracts") between the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD"). The proposed sale requires the assignment of the HAP Contract which cannot occur without HUD's approval.

The City's Standing

12. The City is a creditor of the Kelly Hamilton Debtor in connection with certain code violations, municipal claims and tax claims. The City also has an interest in maintaining clean, safe, habitable and affordable housing for residents of the City including those who reside in the Property.

The Silber Portfolio of Properties

13. The Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the other Debtors in this case are part of an affiliated group of entities owned or controlled by Silber. Most of the entities in the Silber portfolio are not debtors in this case.

Silber's Guilty Plea

14. According to the United States Department of Justice, on or about August 1, 2024, Silber pled guilty to crimes relating to "an extensive, multi-year conspiracy to fraudulently obtain multimillion-dollar loans on commercial and multifamily properties."[4]

The Mortgage without Reasonably Equivalent Value in Favor of the Property Manager

15. On September 20, 2024, shortly after Silber's guilty plea but before sentencing, Silber executed a $3.5 million mortgage (the "Mortgage") on behalf of the Kelly Hamilton Debtor in favor of Kelly Hamilton Lender, LLC (the "Lynd Pre-Petition Mortgagee"). The Lynd Pre-Petition Mortgagee is an affiliate of The Lynd Company and its related entities (collectively, "Lynd"). At the time, one or more Lynd affiliates were acting as the management companies for approximately 50 projects in the Silber portfolio including the Kelly Hamilton Property.

16. Prior to the recording of the Mortgage on October 16, 2024 (nearly a month after it was executed), there was no recorded mortgage debt encumbering the Property.

17. The City understands that the Mortgage relates to Lynd's management fees the numerous properties owned or controlled by Silber. The City understands the Mortgage was placed on the Property because the other properties owned by Silber lacked equity and the Kelly Hamilton Property was the only property, or one of the only, which was not fully encumbered.

18. In other words, the $3.5 million Mortgage was potentially a fraudulent transfer which loaded the Kelly Hamilton Debtor with debt attributable to other non-debtor entities in the Silber portfolio. The Kelly Hamilton Debtor received little, if anything, in return.

Lynd's Potential Insider Status

19. Lynd is a potential insider of the Debtors as there is an indication that Lynd exerted at least some degree of control and influence over the Debtors and their operations. For example, it appears Lynd ran the day-to-day operations of the Debtors' properties as Lynd was the property manager. In addition, after the independent fiduciary was appointed for the Debtors on September 26, 2024 (after Silber executed the Mortgage in favor of the Lynd Pre-Petition Mortgagee), the independent fiduciary worked with Lynd on issues related to staffing and resources related to the Silber portfolio of properties.

20. Lynd also assisted in attempts to obtain external financing for the Debtors. However, it is not clear that Lynd, or anyone affiliated with the Debtors, contacted public finance agencies to inquire about available funding.

Lynd's Efforts to Obtain Financing for the Debtors Fail

21. Lynd's efforts to obtain external financing (whether good faith efforts or not) were not successful and the Debtors determined that financing outside of a court-supervised restructuring process was not feasible.

The Lynd DIP Loan

22. After the Debtors (working with Lynd) failed to obtain external financing, the Debtors turned to Lynd and a capital partner, 3650 REIT, for debtor-in-possession financing facility secured by the Kelly Hamilton Debtor's assets (the "Original Kelly Hamilton DIP Proposal"). At the same time, the Debtors also began to engage with another noteholder regarding a potential financing facility secured by the assets of both the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the New Orleans debtors (the "Noteholder DIP Proposal") which the Debtors thought was superior to the Original Kelly Hamilton DIP Proposal.

23. As the Debtors sought to finish documenting the Noteholder DIP Proposal, the Debtors also recommenced discussions with Lynd and 3650 REIT regarding a revised financing proposal for the Kelly Hamilton Debtor.

24. Ultimately, the Debtors obtained a lending commitment from Lynd and 3650 REIT for a secured debtor-in-possession credit facility (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility") in a principal amount of up to $9,830,162 which was approved by the Court. The Debtors also obtained a separate debtor-in-possession credit facility (the "NOLA DIP Facility") for the New Orleans properties.

25. According to the Debtors, the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility were to be used as follows:

Repayment of the Lynd Mortgage	$3,575,000
Working Capital	$313,021
Capital Expenditures	$1,300,000
Professional Fees	$2,450,000[5]
Litigation Trust	$453,734
Asset Management Fees (Lynd)	$400,000[6]
Kelly Hamilton Tax Payments	$47,000
DIP Lender Professional Fees /

[5] It appears the full amount of professional fees were a component of the stalking horse bid even though some of the fees are likely attributable to Debtors other than the Kelly Hamilton Debtor. The Court should deny the sale Motion and confirmation of the Plan until an examiner or creditors' committee investigates whether any inclusion of professional fees unrelated to the Kelly Hamilton Debtor chilled the bidding for the Kelly Hamilton Debtor's Property.

[6] The Asset Management Fee paid to Lynd appears excessive. The management fee represents approximately eighteen percent (18%) of the Kelly Hamilton Debtor's 2024 revenue of $2,213,709.97 [ECF No. 91-1]. According to HUD, the 80th percentile of management fees charged in Pittsburgh for HUD's multi-family housing programs is $73.36 per unit month. See, https://www.hud.gov/sites/dfiles/PIH/documents/2025_Schedule_Management_Fees.pdf. This 80th percentile, as applied to the 110 units owned by the Kelly Hamilton Debtor is $8,069.60 per month or $96,835.20 annually. There is no explanation why Lynd is taking four (4) times this amount as a management fee during the interim period covered by the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility budget. The City respectfully submits this excessive management fee is one of the many reasons why the Court should view Lynd's involvement in this case with skepticism.

Contingency	$460,000
Origination Fee	$291,155
Interest Reserve	$370,252
Servicing Fee Reserve	$45,000
Total:	$9,705,162

26. At best, only about 16.6% of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility was used on the Property. The bulk of the remainder went to professionals and Lynd. In reality though, it is not clear the funds earmarked for the Property were ever used on the Property which, for the most part, remains in poor condition.

27. To the City's knowledge, the Debtors and Lynd did not inform the Court that the Mortgage repayment related to Lynd's management fees for non-debtor entities in the Silber portfolio.

28. By including the repayment of the Lynd Mortgage as part of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, the Debtors: a) paid a debt which was potentially fraudulently incurred; and b) substantially increased the eventual stalking horse bid of Lynd and its capital partner.

III. OBJECTIONS TO SALE

A. Lynd may be an insider and the Court should closely scrutinize the proposed sale transaction.

29. There are indications that Lynd, as property manager, consultant and DIP Lender, exercises, or has exercised, sufficient control or influence over the Debtors to warrant the Court closely scrutinizing the sale transaction especially in light of the non-disclosure of the nature of the Lynd claims which were repaid, and rolled up, by the Kelly Hamilton Debtor Financing. See, Schubert v. Lucent Technologies, Inc., 554 F.3d 382 (3rd Cir. 2009).

30. Accordingly, the City objects to the proposed sale to the extent it does not withstand close scrutiny by the Court.

B. The sale process may not withstand any level of scrutiny.

31. The sale process may not withstand any level of scrutiny. For example, the bidding and auction process may have been chilled by the buyer's credit bid which included: a) amounts attributable to the satisfaction of the Mortgage which covered non-debtor expenses which were inadequately disclosed and rolled up in violation D.N.J. LBR 4001-3(b)(2)(requiring disclosure of rollups); and b) professional fees which may not be attributable to the Kelly Hamilton Debtor or the Property. Accordingly, the City objects to the extent the evidence adduced during the hearing on this matter does not withstand scrutiny.

C. The sale should not absolve the Debtors or buyer from complying with applicable law including codes and ordinances of the City with respect to the Property and the sale should not divest the City's first priority liens.

32. The City objects to the extent the sale, or the proposed sale order, modifies or absolves, in any way, the obligations of the Debtors or buyer from complying with applicable laws including codes and ordinances of the City with respect to the Property. The sale should also not divest any of the City's tax or municipal liens which are of first priority under applicable law.

D. The sale should be conditioned upon the Debtors and property manager correcting health, safety and habitability problems at the Property prior to closing.

33. To the extent that the sale is approved, the City respectfully requests that it be conditioned upon the Debtors and the property manager correcting the problems at the property prior to closing and subject to the satisfaction of the City following appropriate inspection of the interior and exterior of the Property.

34. The debtor-in-possession financing allocated $1.3 million for capital expenditures which does not appear to have been used to repair occupied units at the property.

IV. OBJECTIONS TO CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

35. The City objects to confirmation of the Plan for the following reasons:

a. the Plan may not have been proposed in good faith as required by 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(3) because it includes the proposed sale of the Property which may have been the product of impermissible bid chilling as described in this objection; and

b. the Debtors may not have complied with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code as required by 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(2) in that the Debtors may have made an unauthorized post-petition transaction in violation of 11 U.S.C. § 549 when it paid off the Mortgage without disclosing the true nature of the Mortgage to the Court.

V. REQUEST FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF AN EXAMINER

36. Because no trustee or creditors' committee has been appointed in these cases and because the issues described herein warrant further examination, the City respectfully requests the appointment of an examiner pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1104(c)(1) to investigate the Debtors as is appropriate, including an investigation of any allegations of fraud, dishonesty, incompetence, misconduct, mismanagement, or irregularity in the management of the affairs of the debtor of or by current or former management of the debtor and further including without limitation an investigation of: a) the matters raised herein; b) the relationship between Lynd and the Debtors and/or Silber; c) whether there was any misconduct or malfeasance which would be grounds to vacate, amend or annul the Court's orders approving the Kelly Hamilton DIP Financing; d) the sale process for the Property including whether there was any impermissible bid chilling or collusion.

37. The appointment of an examiner is in the interests of creditors, any equity security holders, and other interests of the estate.

WHEREFORE, the City respectfully requests the Court deny or condition the sale and confirmation of the Plan as set forth herein. The City also respectfully request that an examiner be appointed pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1104(c)(1).

Respectfully submitted,

[2] The Debtors granted the U.S. Trustee an extension through August 28, 2025 to file this Objection.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The Debtors and the U.S. Trustee were able to resolve several objections to the Plan, which resolutions will be incorporated in a soon to be filed revised plan. Those resolutions involve Art. I.A.65. (Definition of General Administrative Claim), Art. I.A.66. (Definition of General Administrative Claim Bar Date), Art. II.H. (Quarterly Fees), Art. IV.B (General Settlement of Claims), Art. VIII.A. (Settlement, Compromise, and Release of Claims and Interests), Art. VIII.E. (Exculpation), and Art. VIII.F (Injunction). In addition, the Debtors have agreed to revise similar language ("satisfaction, compromise, settlement, release, and discharge") in Articles II.A and E, and Articles III.B.1(b), B.2(b), B.3.(b), B.4.(b), B.5.(a), B.6.(b). Further, the Debtors have agreed to incorporate a paragraph in the confirmation order concerning the closing of these cases pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3022.[3]

2. The U.S. Trustee has one remaining objection concerning Article VIII.C of the Plan, which provides an overbroad debtor release provision granting releases to estate fiduciaries and other unknown parties. See Dkt. 338-1 at pages 36 and 37 of 43. For the reasons set forth in more detail herein, the U.S. Trustee respectfully requests that the Court enter an order sustaining the objection and requiring the removal of the overbroad debtor release provision or deny confirmation.

JURISDICTION AND STANDING

3. Under (i) 28 U.S.C. § 1334, (ii) applicable order(s) of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey issued pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(a), and (iii) 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), this Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the Debtors' request for approval of the relief requested in the Motion and the matters raised in this Objection.

[3] The Debtors have also agreed to provide more information concerning the Debtor's payment of certain fees of the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes.

4. The U.S. Trustee is charged with overseeing the administration of chapter 11 cases filed in this judicial district, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 586. This duty is part of the U.S. Trustee's overarching responsibility to enforce the bankruptcy laws as written by Congress and interpreted by the courts to guard against abuse and over-reaching to assure fairness in the process and adherence to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. See In re United Artists Theatre Co., 315 F.3d 217, 225 (3d Cir. 2003) ("U.S. Trustees are officers of the Department of Justice who protect the public interest by aiding bankruptcy judges in monitoring certain aspects of bankruptcy proceedings."); United States Trustee v. Columbia Gas Sys., Inc. (In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc.), 33 F.3d 294, 298 (3d Cir. 1994) ("It is precisely because the statute gives the U.S. Trustee duties to protect the public interest . . . that the Trustee has standing to attempt to prevent circumvention of that responsibility."); *Morgenstern v. 5. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 586(a)(3)(B), the U.S. Trustee has the duty to monitor and comment on plans and disclosure statements filed in chapter 11 cases.

6. Under section 307 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code" or "Code"), the U.S. Trustee has standing to be heard on the Debtors' request for confirmation of the Plan. See U.S. Tr. v. Columbia Gas Sys., Inc. (In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc.), 33 F.3d 294, 295-96 (3d Cir. 1994) (noting that U.S. Trustee has "public interest standing" under section 307, which goes beyond mere pecuniary interest).

BACKGROUND

A. The Chapter 11 Cases

7. On May 19, 2025, CBRM Realty Inc. 11. As of the date hereof, no trustee or examiner has been requested or appointed.

12. The Plan only involves certain of the Debtors including CBRM, Crown, KHA and KHAMM (the "Kelly Hamilton Debtors"). See Dkt. 360 at page 12 of 109.

D. Specific Provision of the Plan

24. Article VIII.C of the Plan broadly provides that each of the Released Parties[4] are "deemed released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, including any derivative Claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtors."[5] See Dkt. 338-1 at Art. VIII.C, pages 36 and 37 of 43.

[4] The Plan defines "Released Party" as follows:

> "each of the following in its capacity as such: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former Affiliates, and such Entity's and its current and former Affiliates' subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute a Released Party for purposes of the Plan."

> "Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, for good and valuable consideration, on and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, including any derivative Claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that the Debtors or their Estates would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf

These include Claims and Causes of Action "whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise." See id.

OMNIBUS OBJECTION

25. The Plan provides for a release by the Debtors to the Released Parties. See Dkt. 338-1 at Art. VIII.C.

26. The Plan does not establish that each of the proposed Released Parties are providing adequate consideration in exchange for receiving such releases. In addition, certain persons included in the Released Party definition do not appear to be entitled to such releases under applicable case law. Further, there are many individuals and entities included in the definition of Released Parties that are unknown parties. Also, estate fiduciaries are not only receiving an exculpation under the Plan but are also receiving a release from the Debtors.

27. In In re Zenith Elecs. Corp., the Court identified five factors that are relevant to determine whether a debtor's release of a non-debtor is appropriate:

(1) an identity of interest between the debtor and non-debtor such that a suit against the non-debtor will deplete the estate's resources;

(2) a substantial contribution to the plan by the non-debtor;

(3) the necessity of the release to the reorganization; of the Holder of any Claim or Interest or other Entity, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Chapter 11 Cases, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date."

(4) the overwhelming acceptance of the plan and release by creditors and interest holders; and

(5) the payment of all or substantially all of the claims of the creditors and interest holders under the plan.

See Zenith, 241 B.R. 92, 110 (Bankr. D. Del. 1999) (citing Master Mortgage Inv. Fund, Inc., 168 B.R. 930, 937 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 1994). These factors are neither exclusive nor conjunctive requirements but provide guidance in the court's determination of fairness. See Master Mortgage, 168 B.R. at 935 (finding there is no "rigid test" to be applied in every circumstance and that the five factors are neither exclusive, nor conjunctive).

28. The first Zenith factor requires an "identity of interest between the debtor and the third-party, such that a suit against the non-debtor is, in essence, a suit against the debtor or will deplete the assets of the estate." See In re Spansion, Inc., 426 B.R. 114, n. 47 (Bankr. D. Del. 2010), citing Zenith, 241 B.R. at 110. An identity of interest exists when, among other things, the debtor has a duty to indemnify the non-debtor receiving the release. See Wash. Mut., 442 B.R. 314, 347 (Bankr. D. Del 2011) (recognizing that indemnification may create an identity of interest thereby satisfying the first factor of Zenith). Here, it is unclear whether an identity of interest exists between the Debtors and each of the Released Parties.

29. The second Zenith factor involves whether the non-debtor party benefiting from the release made a substantial contribution of assets to the debtor's reorganization. See In re Congoleum Corp., 362 B.R. 167, 193 (Bankr. D.N.J. 2007). In considering releases, substantial contribution does not include contributions to the reorganization related to operational restructuring or negotiating for the financial restructuring. See In re Genesis Health, 266 B.R. 591, 606-7 (Bankr. D. Del 2001) ("the officers, directors and employees have been otherwise compensated for their contributions, and the management functions they performed do not constitute contributions of 'assets' to the reorganization."). Here, it does not appear that each of the Released Parties provided a substantial contribution of assets.

30. As to the third Zenith factor, there is no information provided to support a contention that all of the releases are necessary to a reorganization.

31. The fourth Zenith factor concerning acceptance of the plan cannot be assessed at this time as the Debtors have not filed a certification of ballots.

32. The fifth Zenith factor is not satisfied as it does not appear that unsecured creditors will receive all or substantially all of their claims. Accordingly, these factors do not support the Debtor Releases.

33. Additionally, estate fiduciaries are being exculpated for their actions or inactions between the Petition Date and the Effective Date. See Dkt. 338-1 at Art. VIII.E, page 37 of 43. The estate fiduciaries do not satisfy the Zenith factors and should only be granted an exculpation, not a release from the Debtors.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

34. The U.S. Trustee reserves all of his rights and objections regarding any and all future amendments to the Plan. The U.S. Trustee reserves the right to comment on and object to the proposed form of confirmation order. The U.S. Trustee reserves the right to amend or supplement this Objection.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the U.S. Trustee respectfully requests that this Court sustain the objection and require the removal of the overbroad debtor release provision or deny confirmation of the Plan and grant such other relief it deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Accordingly, the beneficiaries of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes (1) s direct recipients of undivided interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than to the extent the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets are allocable to Disputed Claims) and as having immediately contributed such assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (2) thereafter, as the grantors and deemed owners of the Creditor Recovery Trust and thus, the direct owners of an undivided interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets that are allocable to Disputed Claims).

The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall file tax returns for the Creditor Recovery Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with the Plan. The Creditor Recovery Trust's items of taxable income, gain, loss, deduction, and/or credit (other than such items in respect of any assets allocable to, or retained on account of, Disputed Claims) will be allocated to each holder in accordance with their relative ownership of Creditor Recovery Trust interests. As soon as possible after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall make a good faith valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and such valuation shall be used consistently by all parties for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes on the Creditor Recovery Trust under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the Creditor Recovery Trust for all taxable periods through the dissolution of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trustee (1) may timely elect to treat any Creditor Recovery Trust Assets allocable to Disputed Claims as a "disputed ownership fund" governed by Treasury Regulations Section 1.468B-9, and (2) to the extent permitted by applicable law, shall report consistently for state and local income tax purposes. If a "disputed ownership fund" election is made, all parties (including the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the holders of Creditor Recovery Trust interests) shall report for U.S. federal, state, and local income tax purposes consistently with the foregoing. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall file all income tax returns with respect to any income attributable to a "disputed ownership fund" and shall pay the U.S. federal, state, and local income taxes attributable to such disputed ownership fund based on the items of income, deduction, credit, or loss allocable thereto.

3. Purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

The purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be to (a) hold, manage, protect and monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and (b) administer, process and satisfy all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and CBRM Unsecured Claims, which for the avoidance of doubt shall be submitted exclusively to the Creditor Recovery Trust and satisfied by the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall have the exclusive power and authority to, among other things, in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement: (i) hold, manage, protect and monetize Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; (ii) commence, prosecute, and settle all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action; and (iii) perform all actions and execute all agreements, instruments and other documents necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust and carry out the provisions of the Plan relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Following the establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust, no Person or Entity shall have the right under the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law to obtain standing on behalf of any Debtor, any Debtor's Estate, or the Creditor Recovery Trust to take any action, or fail to take any action, with respect to any matter directly or indirectly involving the Creditor Recovery Trust (including the right to obtain standing to pursue any Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, any Avoidance Action, or any Causes of Action).

4. Funding of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be funded with the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. Following the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the exclusive right, subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court, to enter into any financing arrangement to fund the Creditor Recovery Trust (including funding provided by litigation finance parties). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may, in its reasonable discretion, without approval by the Bankruptcy Court enter into an engagement letter on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust with an attorney, law firm, or other professional pursuant to which the Creditor Recovery Trust will retain such attorney, law firm, or other professional to pursue the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action on a contingency or special-fee-award basis.

5. Privileged Information of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, any attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, common-interest communications with Insurance Companies, protection or privilege granted by joint defense, common interest, and/or other privilege or immunity of the Debtors relating, in whole or in part, to the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the CBRM Unsecured Claims, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action), or the Insurance Causes of Actions shall be irrevocably transferred to and vested in the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall have the same rights as the Debtors in Privileged Information relating to the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the CBRM Unsecured Claims, and the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The Creditor Recovery Trust's rights in the Privileged Information will remain subject to the rights of third parties under applicable law, including any rights arising from the common interest doctrine, the joint defense doctrine, joint attorney-client representation, or any agreement; provided, however, that prior to taking any action that could affect any privilege in which a third party may have rights, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall provide such third party with reasonable written notice.

6. Creditor Recovery Trustee.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be governed exclusively by the Creditor Recovery Trustee. The powers and duties of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall include, but shall not be limited to, those powers, duties and responsibilities vested in the Creditor Recovery Trustee pursuant to the terms of the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and shall include the authority to: (a) hold, manage, protect, and monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; (b) carry out the provisions of the Plan relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including commencing, prosecuting, and settling all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Insurance Causes of Action; and (c) perform all actions and execute all agreements, instruments and other documents necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The preceding list of powers, duties, and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee is non-exclusive and the powers, rights and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be further specified in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

7. Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee.

On the Effective Date and pursuant to the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Trust Advisory Committee (as defined in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement) shall be established. The Trust Advisory Committee shall serve in a fiduciary capacity in the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust and have such rights of with respect to consultation and consent as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The members of the Trust Advisory Committee shall be entitled to compensation for their services in an amount to be agreed by, if prior to the Confirmation Hearing, the Debtors, or if on or after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee.

8. Vesting of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

As of the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, charges or other interests to the extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses the Debtors would have if such assets had been retained by the Debtors. The Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action vested, transferred, or assigned to such entity on behalf of both the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, subject to the provisions of this Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets will not be deemed property of the Debtors or their Estates.

9. Abandonment of the Abandoned Entities

Upon the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors shall be deemed to have abandoned any equity interest in or other interest with respect to any Abandoned Entity pursuant to section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. Adequate Disclosure.

The Confirmation Order shall provide that all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action have been sufficiently and adequately disclosed in the Chapter 11 Cases for all purposes necessary to satisfy the requirements of the standard set forth in Oneida Motor Freight, Inc. v. United Jersey Bank, 848 F.2d 414 (3d Cir. 1988) such that no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), shall apply to prevent the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Wind-Down Officer from initiating, filing, prosecuting, enforcing, abandoning, settling, compromising, releasing, withdrawing, or litigating to judgment any such Causes of Action.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

F. Corporate Action.

Notwithstanding any requirements under applicable nonbankruptcy law, upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions and the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors, and any corporate action required by the Debtors in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by any Person or Entity or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, the Independent Fiduciary may in her reasonable discretion authorize another Person or Entity to act on behalf of the Independent Fiduciary or assume the powers of the Independent Fiduciary.

H. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests, including the Transferred Subsidiaries, pursuant to the Plan, including the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Wind-Down

Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

J. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

K. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall thereafter be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

L. Funding of Creditor Recovery Trust Amount.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Amount shall be funded in Cash.

M. CBRM-Crown Capital Intercompany Settlement.

In full settlement of any Intercompany Claims arising in connection with the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility being used to fund the restructuring of Debtor CBRM pursuant to this Plan, (1) any Claims and Causes of Action held by CBRM shall constitute Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, and (2) CBRM agrees that the Wind-Down Officer shall have the sole authority to wind down, dissolve, and liquidate its Estate and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the sole authority to effectuate Distributions to the Holders of CBRM Unsecured Claims to the extent the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims receive payment in full.

ARTICLE V
TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D&O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. The D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder. The Debtors and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors and their Affiliates who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VI

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and CBRM Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Claims Filed after the Claims Bar Date that were required to be Filed in advance of the Claims Bar Date under its terms shall be expunged and disallowed without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

C. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, as soon as practicable, the Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the Distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, less any previous Distribution (if any) that was made on account of the undisputed portion of such Claim, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Claim.

ARTICLE VIII
SETTLEMENT, RELEASE, INJUNCTION, AND RELATED PROVISIONS

A. Settlement, Compromise, and Release of Claims and Interests.

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided pursuant to the Plan, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, the distributions, rights, and treatment that are provided in the Plan shall be in complete settlement, compromise, and release, effective as of the Effective Date, of Claims, Interests, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on Claims or Interests from and after the Petition Date, whether known or unknown, against, liabilities of, Liens on, obligations of, rights against, and Interests in, the Debtors or any of their assets or properties, regardless of whether any property shall have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims and Interests, including demands, liabilities, and Causes of Action that arose before the Effective Date, any liability (including withdrawal liability) to the extent such Claims or Interests relate to services performed by agents or representatives of the Debtors before the Effective Date and that arise from a termination of employment, any contingent or non-contingent liability on account of representations or warranties issued on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in sections 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case whether or not: (1) a Proof of Claim based upon such debt, right, Claim, or Interest is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) a Claim or Interest based upon such debt, right, or Interest is Allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (3) the Holder of such a Claim or Interest has accepted the Plan. Any default by the Debtors or their Affiliates with respect to any Claim or Interest that existed immediately before or on account of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases shall be deemed cured on the Effective Date. The Confirmation Order shall be a judicial determination of the settlement, compromise, and release of all Claims and Interests subject to the Effective Date occurring.[2]

B. Release of Liens.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, on the Effective Date and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and, in the case of a Secured Claim, satisfaction in full of the portion of the Secured Claim that is Allowed as of the Effective Date, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estate shall be fully released, settled, and compromised.

C. Releases by the Debtors.

Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, for good and valuable consideration, on and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, including any derivative Claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown,

[2] Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the discharge and releases provided in this Article VIII shall not discharge any Claims or Causes of Action against Crown Capital arising under or in connection with the NOLA DIP Facility. Additionally, the releases provided in this Article VII are without duplication to the releases provided under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order.

foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that the Debtors or their Estates would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim or Interest or other Entity, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Chapter 11 Cases, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

D. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests.

As of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Releasing Parties are deemed to have released the Debtors, their Estates, and the Released Parties from any and all Claims, Interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies and liabilities whatsoever, including any direct Claims held by any of the Releasing Parties against the Debtors, their Estates, and/or the Released Parties or derivative Claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that each Releasing Party would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Debtors' restructuring, the Chapter 11 Cases, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents, or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan.

E. Exculpation.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, and the Exculpated Parties have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

F. Injunction.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or for obligations issued or required to be paid pursuant to the Plan, all Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that have been released pursuant to Article VIII.B of the Plan or Article VIII.D of the Plan, compromised and settled pursuant to Article VIII.A of the Plan, or are subject to exculpation

On or before the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement shall be executed, and all other necessary steps shall be taken to create the Creditor Recovery Trust. On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be automatically appointed as a representative of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to sections 1123(a)(5), (a)(7), and (b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. From and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall succeed to all rights, privileges, and powers of the Debtors and their Estates with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be substituted and will replace the Debtors and their Estates in all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Insurance Causes of Action, whether or not such claims are pending in filed litigation.

2. Certain Tax Matters Related to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

~~The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be structured in a manner consistent with U.S. federal tax law as determined by the Debtors prior to the Confirmation Hearing.~~

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be established to liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and make distributions in accordance with the Plan, Confirmation Order, and Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and in accordance with Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be structured to qualify as a "liquidating trust" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 301.7701-4(d) and in compliance with Revenue Procedure 94-45, and thus, as a "grantor trust" within the meaning of Sections 671 through 679 of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, the beneficiaries of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes (1) s direct recipients of undivided interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than to the extent the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets are allocable to Disputed Claims) and as having immediately contributed such assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (2) thereafter, as the grantors and deemed owners of the Creditor Recovery Trust and thus, the direct owners of an undivided interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets that are allocable to Disputed Claims).

The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall file tax returns for the Creditor Recovery Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with the Plan. The Creditor Recovery Trust's items of taxable income, gain, loss, deduction, and/or credit (other than such items in respect of any assets allocable to, or retained on account of, Disputed Claims) will be allocated to each holder in accordance with their relative ownership of Creditor Recovery Trust interests. As soon as possible after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall make a good faith valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and such valuation shall be used consistently by all parties for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes on the Creditor Recovery Trust under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the Creditor Recovery Trust for all taxable periods through the dissolution of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trustee (1) may timely elect to treat any Creditor Recovery Trust Assets allocable to Disputed Claims as a "disputed ownership fund" governed by Treasury Regulations Section 1.468B-9, and (2) to the extent permitted by applicable law, shall report consistently for state and local income tax purposes. If a "disputed ownership fund" election is made, all parties (including the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the holders of Creditor Recovery Trust interests) shall report for U.S. federal, state, and local income tax purposes consistently with the foregoing. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall file all income tax returns with respect to any income attributable to a "disputed ownership fund" and shall pay the U.S. federal, state, and local income taxes attributable to such disputed ownership fund based on the items of income, deduction, credit, or loss allocable thereto.

3. Purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

The purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be to (a) hold, manage, protect and monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and (b) administer, process and satisfy all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and CBRM Unsecured Claims, which for the avoidance of doubt shall be submitted exclusively to the Creditor Recovery Trust and satisfied by the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall have the exclusive power and authority to, among other things, in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement: (i) hold, manage, protect and monetize Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; (ii) commence, prosecute, and settle all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action; and (iii) perform all actions and execute all agreements, instruments and other documents necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust and carry out the provisions of the Plan relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Following the establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust, no Person or Entity shall have the right under the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law to obtain standing on behalf of any Debtor, any Debtor's Estate, or the Creditor Recovery Trust to take any action, or fail to take any action, with respect to any matter directly or indirectly involving the Creditor Recovery Trust (including the right to obtain standing to pursue any Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, any Avoidance Action, or any Causes of Action).

4. Funding of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be funded with the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. Following the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the exclusive right, subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court, to enter into any financing arrangement to fund the Creditor Recovery Trust (including funding provided by litigation finance parties). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may, in its reasonable discretion, without approval by the Bankruptcy Court enter into an engagement letter on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust with an attorney, law firm, or other professional pursuant to which the Creditor Recovery Trust will retain such attorney, law firm, or other professional to pursue the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action on a contingency or special-fee-award basis.

5. Privileged Information of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, any attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, common-interest communications with Insurance Companies, protection or privilege granted by joint defense, common interest, and/or other privilege or immunity of the Debtors relating, in whole or in part, to the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the CBRM Unsecured Claims, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action), or the Insurance Causes of Actions shall be irrevocably transferred to and vested in the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall have the same rights as the Debtors in Privileged Information relating to the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the CBRM Unsecured Claims, and the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The Creditor Recovery Trust's rights in the Privileged Information will remain subject to the rights of third parties under applicable law, including any rights arising from the common interest doctrine, the joint defense doctrine, joint attorney-client representation, or any agreement; provided, however, that prior to taking any action that could affect any privilege in which a third party may have rights, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall provide such third party with reasonable written notice.

6. Creditor Recovery Trustee.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be governed exclusively by the Creditor Recovery Trustee. The powers and duties of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall include, but shall not be limited to, those powers, duties and responsibilities vested in the Creditor Recovery Trustee pursuant to the terms of the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and shall include the authority to: (a) hold, manage, protect, and monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; (b) carry out the provisions of the Plan relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including commencing, prosecuting, and settling all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Insurance Causes of Action; and (c) perform all actions and execute all agreements, instruments and other documents necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The preceding list of powers, duties, and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee is non-exclusive and the powers, rights and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be further specified in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

7. Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee.

On the Effective Date and pursuant to the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Trust Advisory Committee (as defined in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement) shall be established. The Trust Advisory Committee shall serve in a fiduciary capacity in the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust and have such rights of with respect to consultation and consent as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The members of the Trust Advisory Committee shall be entitled to compensation for their services in an amount to be agreed by, if prior to the Confirmation Hearing, the Debtors, or if on or after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee.

8. Vesting of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

As of the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, charges or other interests to the extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses the Debtors would have if such assets had been retained by the Debtors. The Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action vested, transferred, or assigned to such entity on behalf of both the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, subject to the provisions of this Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets will not be deemed property of the Debtors or their Estates.

9. Abandonment of the Abandoned Entities

Upon the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors shall be deemed to have abandoned any equity interest in or other interest with respect to any Abandoned Entity pursuant to section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. ~~9.~~ Adequate Disclosure.

The Confirmation Order shall provide that all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action have been sufficiently and adequately disclosed in the Chapter 11 Cases for all purposes necessary to satisfy the requirements of the standard set forth in Oneida Motor Freight, Inc. v. United Jersey Bank, 848 F.2d 414 (3d Cir. 1988) such that no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), shall apply to prevent the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Wind-Down Officer from initiating, filing, prosecuting, enforcing, abandoning, settling, compromising, releasing, withdrawing, or litigating to judgment any such Causes of Action.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

F. Corporate Action.

Notwithstanding any requirements under applicable nonbankruptcy law, upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions and the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors, and any corporate action required by the Debtors in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by any Person or Entity or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, the Independent Fiduciary may in her reasonable discretion authorize another Person or Entity to act on behalf of the Independent Fiduciary or assume the powers of the Independent Fiduciary.

H. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests, including the Transferred Subsidiaries, pursuant to the Plan, including the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

J. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

K. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall thereafter be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

L. Funding of Creditor Recovery Trust Amount.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Amount shall be funded in Cash.

M. CBRM-Crown Capital Intercompany Settlement.

In full settlement of any Intercompany Claims arising in connection with the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility being used to fund the restructuring of Debtor CBRM pursuant to this Plan, (1) any Claims and Causes of Action held by CBRM shall constitute Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, and (2) CBRM agrees that the Wind-Down Officer shall have the sole authority to wind down, dissolve, and liquidate its Estate and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the sole authority to effectuate Distributions to the Holders of CBRM Unsecured Claims to the extent the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims receive payment in full.

ARTICLE V

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D&O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. The D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder. The Debtors and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors and their Affiliates who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VI

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and CBRM Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Claims Filed after the Claims Bar Date that were required to be Filed in advance of the Claims Bar Date under its terms shall be expunged and disallowed without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

C. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, as soon as practicable, the Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the Distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, less any previous Distribution (if any) that was made on account of the undisputed portion of such Claim, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Claim.

ARTICLE VIII
SETTLEMENT, RELEASE, INJUNCTION, AND RELATED PROVISIONS

A. Settlement, Compromise, and Release of Claims and Interests.

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided pursuant to the Plan, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, the distributions, rights, and treatment that are provided in the Plan shall be in complete settlement, compromise, and release, effective as of the Effective Date, of Claims, Interests, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on Claims or Interests from and after the Petition Date, whether known or unknown, against, liabilities of, Liens on, obligations of, rights against, and Interests in, the Debtors or any of their assets or properties, regardless of whether any property shall have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims and Interests, including demands, liabilities, and Causes of Action that arose before the Effective Date, any liability (including withdrawal liability) to the extent such Claims or Interests relate to services performed by agents or representatives of the Debtors before the Effective Date and that arise from a termination of employment, any contingent or non-contingent liability on account of representations or warranties issued on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in sections 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case whether or not: (1) a Proof of Claim based upon such debt, right, Claim, or Interest is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) a Claim or Interest based upon such debt, right, or Interest is Allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (3) the Holder of such a Claim or Interest has accepted the Plan. Any default by the Debtors or their Affiliates with respect to any Claim or Interest that existed immediately before or on account of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases shall be deemed cured on the Effective Date. The Confirmation Order shall be a judicial determination of the settlement, compromise, and release of all Claims and Interests subject to the Effective Date occurring.[2]

B. Release of Liens.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, on the Effective Date and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and, in the case of a Secured Claim, satisfaction in full of the portion of the Secured Claim that is Allowed as of the Effective Date, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estate shall be fully released, settled, and compromised.

C. Releases by the Debtors.

Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, for good and valuable consideration, on and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, including any derivative Claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that the Debtors or their Estates would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim or Interest or other Entity, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Chapter 11 Cases, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

[2] Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the discharge and releases provided in this Article VIII shall not discharge any Claims or Causes of Action against Crown Capital arising under or in connection with the NOLA DIP Facility. Additionally, the releases provided in this Article VII are without duplication to the releases provided under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order.

D. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests.

Unless previously Filed, requests for payment of General Administrative Claims must be Filed and served on the Debtors no later than the General Administrative Claims Bar Date pursuant to the procedures specified in the Confirmation Order and the notice of the Effective Date. Pursuant to section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code, unless otherwise agreed by the Holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim and the Debtors, prior to the Effective Date, each Holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim will receive, at the option of the Debtor, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of, and in exchange for, its Allowed Priority Tax Claim, (a) Cash in an amount equal to the amount of such Allowed Priority Tax Claim or (b) Cash in an aggregate amount of such Allowed Priority Tax Claim payable in installment payments over a period of time not to exceed five (5) years after the Petition Date, pursuant to section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code. A Priority Tax Claim that becomes Allowed after the Effective Date shall receive such treatment in accordance with the Plan as soon as reasonably practicable after such Priority Tax Claim becomes Allowed.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, except to the extent that the NOLA DIP Facility has been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary agree otherwise, the Plan shall not modify or otherwise affect any obligations of the Debtors under NOLA DIP Facility.

H. Statutory Fees.

All Quarterly Fees that are due and owing as of the Effective Date shall be paid by the Debtors in full in Cash on the Effective Date. The Debtors shall file all monthly operating reports due prior to the Effective Date when they become due, using UST Form 11-MOR. After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall cause to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court UST Form 11-PCR reports when they become due. After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall pay all applicable Quarterly Fees in full in Cash when due and payable from the Wind-Down Assets. The Debtors shall remain obligated to pay any and all applicable Quarterly Fees until the earliest of that particular Debtor's case being closed, dismissed, or converted to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. The U.S. Trustee shall not be treated as providing any release under the Plan. Quarterly Fees are Allowed. The U.S. Trustee shall not be required to file any proof of claim or any request for administrative expense for Quarterly Fees. From and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall be a representative of and shall act for the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates.

Among other things, the Wind-Down Officer shall be responsible for: (a) implementing the Wind-Down as expeditiously as reasonably possible and administering the liquidation of the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates and of any assets held by the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates after consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, (b) resolving any Disputed Wind-Down Claims and undertaking a good faith effort to reconcile and settle Disputed Wind-Down Claims, (c) making distributions on account of Allowed Wind-Down Claims in accordance with the Plan, (d) filing appropriate tax returns, and (e) otherwise administering the Plan, in each case to the extent set forth in the Wind-Down Agreement.

On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer will be authorized to implement the Plan, and the Wind-Down Officer shall have the power and authority to take any reasonable action necessary to implement the Wind-Down. On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall cause the Debtors to comply with, and abide by, the terms of the Plan, and take such other reasonable actions as the Wind-Down Officer may determine to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan. Except to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of the Plan or complete the Wind-Down, from and after the Effective Date, the Debtors (a) for all purposes, shall be deemed to have withdrawn their business operations from any state or province in which the Debtors were previously conducting, or are registered or licensed to conduct, their business operations, and shall not be required to file any document, pay any sum, or take any other action to effectuate such withdrawal, (b) shall be deemed to have cancelled pursuant to this Plan all Interests, and (c) shall not be liable in any manner to any taxing authority for franchise, business, license, or similar taxes accruing on or after the Effective Date. The filing of the final monthly operating or disbursement report (for the month in which the Effective Date occurs) and all subsequent quarterly reports shall be the responsibility of the Wind-Down Officer, provided, however, that no Debtor shall be relieved of any duty under applicable law to file any post-confirmation report or pay any U.S. Trustee Fees.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall complete and file all final or otherwise required federal, state, provincial, and local tax returns for each of the Debtors.

2. Termination of Wind-Down Officer's Duties; Dissolution of Debtors.

Upon a certification to be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court by the Wind-Down Officer of all distributions having been made and completion of all its duties under the Plan and entry of a final decree closing the last of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Wind-Down Officer shall be discharged without any further action, including the filing of any documents with the secretary of state for the state in which the Debtors are formed or any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Wind-Down Officer shall retain the authority to take all necessary actions to dissolve the Debtors in, and withdraw the Debtors from, applicable states and provinces to the extent required by applicable law, without the necessity for any other or further actions to be taken by or on behalf of such dissolving Entity or any payments to be made in connection therewith, other than the filing of a certificate of dissolution with the appropriate governmental authorities. Any funds remaining in the Debtors at the time of dissolution shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, subject to any reversionary interests of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender in the Fee Escrow solely to the extent that the Bankruptcy Court determines that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility has not been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or otherwise satisfied in full by the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction.

D. Creditor Recovery Trust.

1. Establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On or before the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement shall be executed, and all other necessary steps shall be taken to create the Creditor Recovery Trust. On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be automatically appointed as a representative of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to sections 1123(a)(5), (a)(7), and (b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. From and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall succeed to all rights, privileges, and powers of the Debtors and their Estates with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be substituted and will replace the Debtors and their Estates in all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Insurance Causes of Action, whether or not such claims are pending in filed litigation.

2. Certain Tax Matters Related to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be established to liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and make distributions in accordance with the Plan, Confirmation Order, and Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and in accordance with Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be structured to qualify as a "liquidating trust" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 301.7701-4(d) and in compliance with Revenue Procedure 94-45, and thus, as a "grantor trust" within the meaning of Sections 671 through 679 of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, the beneficiaries of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes (1) s direct recipients of undivided interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than to the extent the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets are allocable to Disputed Claims) and as having immediately contributed such assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (2) thereafter, as the grantors and deemed owners of the Creditor Recovery Trust and thus, the direct owners of an undivided interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets that are allocable to Disputed Claims).

The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall file tax returns for the Creditor Recovery Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with the Plan. The Creditor Recovery Trust's items of taxable income, gain, loss, deduction, and/or credit (other than such items in respect of any assets allocable to, or retained on account of, Disputed Claims) will be allocated to each holder in accordance with their relative ownership of Creditor Recovery Trust interests. As soon as possible after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall make a good faith valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and such valuation shall be used consistently by all parties for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes on the Creditor Recovery Trust under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the Creditor Recovery Trust for all taxable periods through the dissolution of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trustee (1) may timely elect to treat any Creditor Recovery Trust Assets allocable to Disputed Claims as a "disputed ownership fund" governed by Treasury Regulations Section 1.468B-9, and (2) to the extent permitted by applicable law, shall report consistently for state and local income tax purposes. If a "disputed ownership fund" election is made, all parties (including the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the holders of Creditor Recovery Trust interests) shall report for U.S. federal, state, and local income tax purposes consistently with the foregoing. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall file all income tax returns with respect to any income attributable to a "disputed ownership fund" and shall pay the U.S. federal, state, and local income taxes attributable to such disputed ownership fund based on the items of income, deduction, credit, or loss allocable thereto.

3. Purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

The purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be to (a) hold, manage, protect and monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and (b) administer, process and satisfy all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and CBRM Unsecured Claims, which for the avoidance of doubt shall be submitted exclusively to the Creditor Recovery Trust and satisfied by the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall have the exclusive power and authority to, among other things, in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement: (i) hold, manage, protect and monetize Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; (ii) commence, prosecute, and settle all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action; and (iii) perform all actions and execute all agreements, instruments and other documents necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust and carry out the provisions of the Plan relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Following the establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust, no Person or Entity shall have the right under the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law to obtain standing on behalf of any Debtor, any Debtor's Estate, or the Creditor Recovery Trust to take any action, or fail to take any action, with respect to any matter directly or indirectly involving the Creditor Recovery Trust (including the right to obtain standing to pursue any Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, any Avoidance Action, or any Causes of Action).

4. Funding of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be funded with the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. Following the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the exclusive right, subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court, to enter into any financing arrangement to fund the Creditor Recovery Trust (including funding provided by litigation finance parties). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may, in its reasonable discretion, without approval by the Bankruptcy Court enter into an engagement letter on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust with an attorney, law firm, or other professional pursuant to which the Creditor

Recovery Trust will retain such attorney, law firm, or other professional to pursue the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action on a contingency or special-fee-award basis.

5. Privileged Information of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, any attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, common-interest communications with Insurance Companies, protection or privilege granted by joint defense, common interest, and/or other privilege or immunity of the Debtors relating, in whole or in part, to the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the CBRM Unsecured Claims, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action), or the Insurance Causes of Actions shall be irrevocably transferred to and vested in the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall have the same rights as the Debtors in Privileged Information relating to the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the CBRM Unsecured Claims, and the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The Creditor Recovery Trust's rights in the Privileged Information will remain subject to the rights of third parties under applicable law, including any rights arising from the common interest doctrine, the joint defense doctrine, joint attorney-client representation, or any agreement; provided, however, that prior to taking any action that could affect any privilege in which a third party may have rights, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall provide such third party with reasonable written notice.

6. Creditor Recovery Trustee.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be governed exclusively by the Creditor Recovery Trustee. The powers and duties of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall include, but shall not be limited to, those powers, duties and responsibilities vested in the Creditor Recovery Trustee pursuant to the terms of the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and shall include the authority to: (a) hold, manage, protect, and monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; (b) carry out the provisions of the Plan relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including commencing, prosecuting, and settling all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Insurance Causes of Action; and (c) perform all actions and execute all agreements, instruments and other documents necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The preceding list of powers, duties, and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee is non-exclusive and the powers, rights and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be further specified in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

7. Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee.

On the Effective Date and pursuant to the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Trust Advisory Committee (as defined in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement) shall be established. The Trust Advisory Committee shall serve in a fiduciary capacity in the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust and have such rights of with respect to oversight, approval, consultation and consent as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The members of the Trust Advisory Committee shall be entitled to compensation for their services in an amount to be agreed by, if prior to the Confirmation Hearing, the Debtors, or if on or after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee.

8. Vesting of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

As of the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, charges or other interests to the extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, that the Crown Capital Interests shall remain subject to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed to by Spano Investor LLC; provided, further, however, that Spano Investor LLC shall not directly or indirectly seek to exercise any legal, equitable, or other rights against such Crown Capital Interests or other assets of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor that may constitute collateral of Spano Investor LLC with respect to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. pending further order of the Bankruptcy Court or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Spano Adversary Proceeding; provided, further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Plan shall limit or affect Spano Investor LLC's rights to enforce its prepetition judgment and exercise any remedies against non-Debtors Fox Capital LLC, CBCC 1 LLC, CBCC 2 LLC, CBCC 3 LLC, CBCC 4 LLC, CBCC 5 LLC, Westwood Jackson Apts MM LLC, or Westwood Jackson Apts LLC, or any assets of such non-Debtor entities. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses the Debtors would have if such assets had been retained by the Debtors. The Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action vested, transferred, or assigned to such entity on behalf of both the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, subject to the provisions of this Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets will not be deemed property of the Debtors or their Estates.

9. Abandonment of the Abandoned Entities

Upon the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors shall be deemed to have abandoned any equity interest in or other interest with respect to any Abandoned Entity pursuant to section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. Adequate Disclosure.

The Confirmation Order shall provide that all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action have been sufficiently and adequately disclosed in the Chapter 11 Cases for all purposes necessary to satisfy the requirements of the standard set forth in Oneida Motor Freight, Inc. v. United Jersey Bank, 848 F.2d 414 (3d Cir. 1988) such that no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), shall apply to prevent the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Wind-Down Officer from initiating, filing, prosecuting, enforcing, abandoning, settling, compromising, releasing, withdrawing, or litigating to judgment any such Causes of Action.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

F. Corporate Action.

Notwithstanding any requirements under applicable nonbankruptcy law, upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions and the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors, and any corporate action required by the Debtors in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by any Person or Entity or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, the Independent Fiduciary may in her reasonable discretion authorize another Person or Entity to act on behalf of the Independent Fiduciary or assume the powers of the Independent Fiduciary.

H. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests, including the Transferred Subsidiaries, pursuant to the Plan, including the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the Trust Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

J. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. Contributed Claims and the proceeds thereof will not be included within the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Rather, as provided in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, any value attributable to such Contributed Claims will be segregated and only available for disbursement to those Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

K. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall thereafter be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

L. Funding of Creditor Recovery Trust Amount.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Amount shall be funded in Cash.

M. CBRM-Crown Capital Intercompany Settlement.

In full settlement of any Intercompany Claims arising in connection with the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility being used to fund the restructuring of Debtor CBRM pursuant to this Plan, (1) any Claims and Causes of Action held by CBRM shall constitute Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, and (2) CBRM agrees that the Wind-Down Officer shall have the sole authority to wind down, dissolve, and liquidate its Estate and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the sole authority to effectuate Distributions to the Holders of CBRM Unsecured Claims to the extent the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims receive payment in full.

ARTICLE V

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D&O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. The D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder. The Debtors and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors and their Affiliates who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VI

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable

Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and CBRM Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that neither the Wind-Down Officer nor the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to any Professional Fee Claims or fees of the Independent Fiduciary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to and otherwise reconcile any and all Claims that seek recovery from the Creditor Recovery Trust other than Professional Fee Claims and fees of the Independent Fiduciary. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.
