FOREIGN REPRESENTATIVE TO FILE CONSOLIDATED
LISTS OF INFORMATION REQUIRED BY BANKRUPTCY
RULE 1007(A)(4), AND (III) AUTHORIZING REDACTION OF CERTAIN

The Cannabist Company Holdings Inc. (the “Parent Company”), in its capacity as the duly-appointed foreign representative (the “Foreign Representative”) of the Parent Company and its debtor affiliate, The Cannabist Company Holdings (Canada) Inc. (“The Cannabist Canada Company,” and together with the Parent Company, the “Debtors”), which are the subject of a proceeding (the “Canadian Proceeding”) currently pending in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “Canadian Court”) and initiated pursuant to the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36 (as amended, the “CCAA”), has commenced the above-captioned chapter 15 cases (the “Chapter 15 Cases”) ancillary to the Canadian Proceeding and respectfully represents as follows in support of this motion:

RELIEF REQUESTED

1. By this Motion, pursuant to sections 105 and 342(c)(1) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and Rule 1015-1 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Local Rules”), the Foreign Representative seeks entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto at Exhibit A (the “Proposed Order”), (i) directing joint administration of these chapter 15 cases (the “Chapter 15 Cases”) for procedural purposes only, (ii) authorizing the Foreign Representative to file consolidated lists of information (the “Consolidated Lists”) required by Bankruptcy Rule 1007(a)(4), and (iii) approving the following proposed case caption:

2. The Foreign Representative also requests that the Court find that the proposed caption satisfies the requirements set forth in section 342(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. In addition, the Foreign Representative requests that the Court authorize and direct that a notation substantially similar to the following be entered on the docket in the chapter 15 case of The Cannabist Company Holdings (Canada) Inc. to reflect the joint administration of these cases:

An order has been entered in this case directing the joint administration of the chapter 15 cases of The Cannabist Company Holdings Inc. (8978) and The Cannabist Company Holdings (Canada) Inc. (9428). The docket in Case No. 26-_____ () should be consulted for all matters affecting this case.

4. Finally, the Foreign Representative requests that the Court authorize the Foreign Representative (i) to use a combined service list for the jointly administered cases and that combined notices be sent to the Debtors' creditors and other parties in interest, as applicable, and (ii) to redact certain personal identifying information contained in the Consolidated Lists (as defined below) and other service lists and to redact such information from any affidavit of service or other papers filed in the Chapter 15 Cases.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. The Foreign Representative properly commenced the Chapter 15 Cases pursuant to sections 1504 and 1509 of the Bankruptcy Code by filing petitions for recognition of the Canadian Proceeding pursuant to section 1515 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(f), the Foreign Representative consents to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this motion to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

7. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1410, as the Debtors have assets in the United States located in Delaware.

BACKGROUND

8. The CC Group operates businesses in the United States primarily across the Colorado, Delaware, Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia markets, where, as applicable, medical or adult-use cannabis is legally permitted under state law, through the Subsidiaries.

9. On March 24, 2026, the Debtors commenced the Canadian Proceeding to complete remaining Sales under the protection of the CCAA. On the same day, the Canadian Court granted the Debtors protection under an initial order (as amended, supplemented, extended, restated, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Initial Order”).

10. In support of the requested relief, the Foreign Representative respectfully refers the Court to and incorporates the following herein by reference: the (a) Motion for Recognition of Foreign Proceeding and Request for Certain Related Relief (the “Recognition Motion,” and together with the Voluntary Chapter 15 Petition for each of the Debtors, the “Verified Petitions”); (b) Declaration of Curt Kroll in Support of Debtors’ Motions for (I) Provisional Relief and (II) Recognition of Foreign Proceeding and Certain Related Relief (the “CRO Declaration”);¹ and (c) Declaration of Lee Nicholson as Canadian Counsel to the Debtors in Support of Debtors’ Motions for (I) Provisional Relief and (II) Recognition of Foreign Proceeding and Certain Related Relief (the “Nicholson Declaration,” and together with the CRO Declaration, the “Supporting Declarations”), each filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

BASIS FOR RELIEF REQUESTED

I. Joint Administration & Proposed Case Caption

11. Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b) provides that if two or more petitions are pending in the same court by or against a debtor and an affiliate, a court may order joint administration of the cases. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1015(b). Additionally, Local Rule 1015-1 provides that a court may order joint administration without notice or a hearing upon the filing of a motion requesting such joint administration and an affidavit, declaration, or verification establishing that joint administration is warranted and will ease the administrative burden for the court and the parties.

12. The Debtors are “affiliates” as defined under section 101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, as the Parent Company owns or controls, either directly or indirectly, greater than 20% of the outstanding voting securities of The Cannabist Canada Company. Accordingly, the Court is authorized to consolidate these cases for procedural purposes. Further, in accordance with Local Rule 1015-1, the Foreign Representative has filed the CRO Declaration contemporaneously herewith. Joint administration of the Chapter 15 Cases will allow for the efficient and convenient administration of the Chapter 15 Cases.

13. Joint administration will avoid duplicative notices and motions, thereby saving the Debtors, the Foreign Representative, and all other parties in interest time and expense. Requiring separate administration of the Chapter 15 Cases would subject the Foreign Representative (who would be forced to file documents on multiple dockets) and creditors (who would be forced to monitor multiple dockets) to unnecessary administrative burdens. This Motion will not adversely affect the rights of creditors because it requests only administrative consolidation of the Chapter 15 Cases. Joint administration will not affect any claims, interests, or other rights that creditors have in or against a particular Debtor and will permit creditors to look to one bankruptcy case docket regarding relief that may be sought or ordered with respect to the Debtors. Granting this Motion will also relieve the Court of the burden of entering duplicative orders and maintaining duplicative files.

14. Courts in this district have approved joint administration relief similar to that requested herein in other chapter 15 cases. See, e.g., In re Rokstad Holdings Corp., No. 24-12645 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 22, 2024) [D.I. 27]; In re Chesswood Grp. Ltd., No. 24-12454 (CTG) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 31, 2024) [D.I. 26]; In re Nexii Bldg. Sols. Inc., No. 24-10026 (JKS) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 17, 2024) [D.I. 29]; In re G.I. Sportz Inc., No. 20-12610 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 19, 2020) [D.I. 14]; In re CDS U.S. Holdings, Inc., No. 20-11719 (JKS) (Bankr. D. Del. July 2, 2020) [D.I. 36].

15. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court approve the form of caption (the “Proposed Caption”) set forth above. Section 342(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that “[i]f notice is required to be given by the debtor to a creditor . . . such notice shall contain the name, address, and last 4 digits of the taxpayer identification number of the debtor.” 11 U.S.C. § 342(c)(1). The proposed caption contains all the required information and, therefore, satisfies the terms of section 342(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. The Foreign Representative, therefore, submits that joint administration of the Chapter 15 Cases is in the best interests of the Debtors, their creditors, and all other interested parties, and that no conflict of interest should arise as a result of joint administration. For the foregoing reasons, the Foreign Representative respectfully requests the entry of an order providing for the joint administration of the Chapter 15 Cases.

II. Consolidated Bankruptcy Rule 1007(a)(4) List

17. The Court should also permit the Foreign Representative to file information required by Bankruptcy Rule 1007(a)(4) on a consolidated basis across all Debtors. In pertinent part, Bankruptcy Rule 1007(a)(4) provides that:

[T]he foreign representative must—in addition to the documents required by § 1515—include with the petition:

(A) a corporate ownership statement containing the information described in Rule 7007.1; and

(B) unless the court orders otherwise, a list containing the names and addresses of (i) all persons or bodies authorized to administer the debtor’s foreign proceedings; (ii) all entities against whom provisional relief is sought under § 1519; and (iii) all parties to litigation pending in the United States in which the debtor was a party when the petition was filed.

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(a)(4).

18. The Foreign Representative submits that filing a consolidated list of information required by Bankruptcy Rule 1007(a)(4) (the “Consolidated List”) will be more efficient and that no interested parties will be prejudiced by the filing of consolidated schedules containing the same information as separate schedules. Accordingly, the Foreign Representative seeks authority to file a consolidated list that identifies the names and addresses of those persons authorized to administer the Canadian Proceeding, all entities against whom provisional relief is sought, and parties to litigation pending in the United States in which a Debtor was a party at the time when the Verified Petitions were filed.

19. Courts in this district have approved the filing of consolidated Bankruptcy Rule 1007(a)(4) lists in other chapter 15 cases. See, e.g., In re Rokstad Holdings Corp., No. 24-12645 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 22, 2024) [D.I. 27]; In re Chesswood Grp. Ltd., No. 24-12454 (CTG) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 31, 2024) [D.I. 26]; In re Nexii Bldg. Sols. Inc., No. 24-10026 (JKS) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 17, 2024) [D.I. 29]; In re G.I. Sportz Inc., No. 20-12610 (CSS) (Bankr. D.

Del. Oct. 19, 2020) [D.I. 14]; In re CDS U.S. Holdings, Inc., No. 20-11719 (JKS) (Bankr. D. Del. July 2, 2020) [D.I. 36].

III. Redaction of Personal Identifying Information

20. Although the public has a common law “right of access to judicial proceedings and records,” Goldstein v. Forbes (In re Cendant Corp.), 260 F.3d 183, 192 (3d Cir. 2001), the Bankruptcy Code permits courts, in appropriate circumstances, to protect individuals from an undue risk of identity theft or other unlawful injury by limiting the public’s access, placing papers under seal, or otherwise entering orders to prohibit the dissemination of sensitive information. 11 U.S.C. § 107(c); see also Cendant, 260 F.3d at 194 (noting the public’s right of access “is not absolute”) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted); Leucadia, Inc. v. Applied Extrusion Tech., Inc., 998 F.2d 157, 165 (3d Cir. 1993) (“Although the right of access is firmly entrenched, so also is the correlative principle that the right . . . is not absolute.”) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted).

21. Specifically, section 107 of the Bankruptcy Code enables a court to issue orders that protect parties from the potential harm that could result from disclosing confidential information. Section 107 of the Bankruptcy Code provides:

The bankruptcy court, for cause, may protect an individual, with respect to the following types of information to the extent the court finds that disclosure of such information would create undue risk of identity theft or other unlawful injury to the individual or the individual’s property:

- (A) Any means of identification (as defined in section 1028(d) of title 18 [of the United States Code]) contained in a paper filed, or to be filed, in a case under [the Bankruptcy Code].
- (B) Other information contained in a paper described in subparagraph (A).

11 U.S.C. § 107(c)(1).

22. The Foreign Representative respectfully submits that it is appropriate to authorize the Foreign Representative to redact from the Consolidated Lists, and from any paper filed or to be filed with the Court in the Chapter 15 Cases, the home address and/or personal email address information of any of the Debtors' individual creditors because such information could be used by third parties to, among other things, perpetrate identity theft or locate survivors of domestic violence or stalking who have otherwise taken steps to conceal their whereabouts. For example, in at least one bankruptcy case, the abusive former partner of a debtor's employee used the publicly accessible creditor and employee information filed in the case to locate that employee's home address, forcing her to relocate once again.² Such outcomes are precisely what section 107(c) of the Bankruptcy Code intends to prevent.

23. Courts in this district have stressed the importance of authorizing debtors to redact individual creditors' personally identifiable information, particularly with respect to home addresses. See, e.g., Hr'g Tr. at 25:13–16, In re Art Van Furniture, LLC, No. 20-10553 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 10, 2020) [D.I. 82] (overruling objection by U.S. Trustee to relief similar to that requested herein and observing that “at this point and given the risks associated with having any kind of private information out on the internet, [redaction] has really become routine [and] . . . obvious relief); Hr'g Tr. at 48:20–22, 49:3–5, In re Anna Holdings, No. 19-12551 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Dec. 3, 2019) [D.I. 112] (overruling U.S. Trustee's objection to similar relief and noting that “it's just plain common sense . . . to put as little information out as possible about people's personal lives to present [sic] scams . . . [Identity theft] is a real-life issue, and, of course, the issue of domestic violence is extremely important.”); Hr'g Tr. at 24:21–25, 25:9–13, In re Clover Techs. Grp., LLC, No. 19-12680 (KBO) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 22, 2020) [D.I. 146] (describing requested redactions “common sense” on grounds that “there is, at best, a risk of identity theft and worse a risk of personal injury from listing someone's name and address on the internet by way of the court's electronic case filing system and, of course, the claims agent's website," which "the court can completely avoid . . . by redacting the addresses," and further observing that courts "routinely redact sensitive and confidential information for corporate entities and redact individuals' home addresses").

24. The Foreign Representative proposes to provide an unredacted version of the Consolidated List and any other redacted, applicable filings to this Court, the Office of the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee"), and other parties in interest upon reasonable request (email being sufficient) to the Foreign Representative that is reasonably related to the Chapter 15 Cases or as otherwise ordered by the Court.

25. For these reasons, the Foreign Representative respectfully submits that cause exists to authorize the Foreign Representative to seal, pursuant to section 107(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, personal identifying home address and/or personal email address information in respect of individuals who are listed on the Consolidated Lists or any other document filed with this Court. Absent such relief, the Foreign Representative would unnecessarily render individuals more susceptible to identity theft and could jeopardize the safety of individuals by publishing such information.³ Disclosure of the unredacted home addresses and/or personal email addresses of individual creditors is not necessary for any part of the Chapter 15 Cases, and the risk of harm to individual creditors outweighs any legitimate interest in publishing such information.

³ Under the circumstances, and given the nature of the relief requested herein, the Foreign Representative has not been able to confer with the individuals whose information is requested to be redacted, and, accordingly, the Foreign Representative submits that cause exists to excuse the Foreign Representative from the meet-and-confer obligations under Local Rule 9018-1(d), to the extent applicable.

NOTICE

26. The Foreign Representative requests that the Court grant this Motion without notice. The Foreign Representative will serve notice of entry of the order in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Motion for Order Scheduling Recognition Hearing and Specifying Form and Manner of Service of Notice, filed contemporaneously herewith, consistent with Bankruptcy Rule 2002(q) and Local Rule 9013-1(m). In light of the nature of the relief requested, the Foreign Representative requests that this Court find that no further notice is required.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

27. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Foreign Representative to this or any other court in the United States.

WHEREFORE the Foreign Representative respectfully requests that the Court enter an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as is just and proper.
