with Article III of the United States Constitution; (2) to have final orders in a non-core case, proceeding, matter, or controversy entered only after an opportunity to object to proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law and a de novo review by a district court judge; (3) to trial by jury in any case, proceeding, matter, or controversy so triable; (4) to have the reference withdrawn by the United States District Court in any case, proceeding, matter, or controversy subject to mandatory or discretionary withdrawal; or (5) any other rights, claims, actions, defenses, setoffs, or recoupments to which the Monitor is or may be entitled under agreements, in law, or in equity, all of which rights, claims, actions, defenses, setoffs, and recoupments are hereby expressly reserved. For the avoidance of doubt, filing this Notice of Appearance is not intended as, and shall not be, the Monitor's consent to the entry of final orders and judgments in any case, proceeding, matter, or controversy if it is determined that the Court cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution, absent consent of the Monitor.
