FEE EXAMINER'S SECOND QUARTERLY REPORT FOR MONTHS OF OCTOBER, NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER 2013

Robert M. Fishman, the duly appointed fee examiner (the "Fee Examiner"), submits this Quarterly Report for the Months of October, November and December 2013 (the "Reporting Period") pursuant to paragraph 8 of the Court's Fee Review Order dated September 11, 2013 [Docket No. 810] (the "Fee Review Order"):[1]

Background

1. Pursuant to the Order Appointing Fee Examiner dated August 19, 2013 [Docket No. 383] (the "Appointment Order"), the Court appointed Robert M. Fishman as the Fee Examiner in connection with the above-captioned bankruptcy case (the "Case"). Pursuant to the Appointment Order, it is the Fee Examiner's responsibility to assure the Court, the City, the creditors, and the public that the City's Professional Fee Expenses (as defined in the Appointment Order) are fully disclosed and are reasonable, as required by 11 U.S.C. § 943(b)(3).

2. Pursuant to paragraph 1 of the Fee Review Order, by no later than September 30, 2013, the City and the Committee were both required to submit lists of all professionals who have been retained to render services in connection with the Case and who seek payment of compensation and reimbursement of expenses from the City for post-petition services, excluding

By no later than October 4, 2013, each City Professional and Committee Professional was required to submit to the Fee Examiner (a) an executed copy of its engagement letter, (b) a verified rate statement respecting regular hourly rates and Discounted Rates, and (c) a list of billing and expense categories to be used in Monthly Invoices, which list had to be acceptable to the Fee Examiner in his reasonable discretion (collectively, the "Initial Submissions"). Fee Review Order, ¶ 2.

[2] The City added Professionals (Dykema Gossett, PLLC, Kilpatrick & Associates, PC and Ottenwess, Allman & Taweel, PLC) in a letter to the Fee Examiner dated December 13, 2013.

4. Each of the Professionals has provided its Initial Submissions to the Fee Examiner.

5. Pursuant to the Fee Review Order, each Professional is required to submit Monthly Invoices to the Fee Examiner within 49 days after the end of each calendar month; provided, however, that the July and August 2013 Monthly Invoices were due on or before October 21, 2013 (each, an "Invoice Deadline"). Id., ¶ 4. Within 35 days of each Invoice Deadline, the Fee Examiner is required to create Preliminary Reports with respect to each timely submitted Monthly Invoice and transmit that Preliminary Report to the applicable Professional. Id., ¶ 5. During the 14-day period after the Fee Examiner transmits the Preliminary Report (the "Resolution Period"), the Fee Examiner and each Professional are required to meet and confer respecting any issues raised by the Fee Examiner in the Preliminary Report in an effort to resolve such issues by agreement (the "Resolution Discussion"). Id., ¶ 6.

6. Within 14 days after the expiration of the Resolution Period, the Fee Examiner is required to prepare a Final Monthly Report respecting all of the Monthly Invoices. Fee Review Order, ¶ 7. In the Final Monthly Report, the Fee Examiner is required to delineate all write-offs and other adjustments made to each Monthly Invoice, both before the submission of the Monthly Invoice and as a result of the Resolution Discussions. Id.

7. Beginning on February 4, 2014[3] and approximately every 91 days thereafter, the Fee Examiner is required to prepare Quarterly Reports, which must include the following: (a) copies of each of the Final Monthly Reports for the applicable months and copies of each Monthly Invoice (subject to redaction requirements); (b) a summary of the Professional Fee Expenses for each Professional for the applicable time period, as well as for all prior time periods; and (c) a statement by the Fee Examiner as to whether all of the Professional Fee Expenses covered by the Quarterly Report have been fully disclosed and are reasonable. Fee Review Order, ¶ 8. The Quarterly Reports must be filed with the Court and posted on the Emergency Manager's page of the City's website and on the restructuring website maintained by the City's claims and noticing agent. Id.

8. The Fee Review Order sets forth other procedures and requirements that apply to and govern the submission, disclosure and review of all Professional Fees in the Case.

Final Monthly Reports and Monthly Invoices

9. As required by the Fee Review Order, the Fee Examiner prepared and transmitted Preliminary Reports to each Professional that submitted a Monthly Invoice and engaged in Resolution Discussions with the Professionals prior to preparing the Final Monthly Reports. The Final Monthly Reports are attached hereto as Group Exhibit 1 (October 2013 Final Monthly Reports), Group Exhibit 2 (November 2013 Final Monthly Reports), and Group Exhibit 3 (December 2013 Final Monthly Reports) and they include copies of the applicable Monthly Invoices (redacted where applicable) submitted by each Professional for the relevant months.[4]

[4] Except as noted in the Final Monthly Report to the contrary.

Statement Regarding Disclosure and Reasonableness of Professional Fee Expenses

12. The procedures and requirements set forth in the Fee Review Order, including but not limited to the submission of the information contained in this Second Quarterly Report, are intended to ensure the adequacy of disclosure and a mechanism to assess the reasonableness of all Professional Fee Expenses. For example, the Initial Submissions enabled the Fee Examiner (i) to understand the terms of the engagement letters pursuant to which each Professional is employed, (ii) to evaluate the significance of any Discounted Rates in comparison to each Professional's regular hourly rates, and (iii) to obtain Monthly Invoices in a sufficiently detailed and organized format that is conducive to meaningful review. The Fee Examiner, individually and through his professionals, conducted a thorough review of each Monthly Invoice and generated a Preliminary Report for each Monthly Invoice that contained the Fee Examiner's detailed comments and questions, which were aimed at (a) generating compliance with the substantive requirements of the Fee Review Order and the reasonableness standards developed by the Fee Examiner based on his extensive experience in bankruptcy cases, and (b) providing full public disclosure of the Professional Fee Expenses (subject only to redacting as determined by the applicable Professional).

13. Clearly, the Professional Fee Expenses incurred during the Reporting Period were substantial. Due to the magnitude and complexity of the Case, the novelty of the legal issues, the extremely tight time frames imposed by the Court and the strong differences in opinion between the various parties about what to do and how to do it, it was (and continues to be) inevitable that the costs associated with the services provided by the various Professionals were going to be significant. It is impossible (and inappropriate) to view these numbers in the abstract. They must be tested against the circumstances of the Case, such as the amount of debt being addressed, the number of competing interests that have to be considered, the number of diverse problems that must be simultaneously considered and solved and the uncharted waters of a Chapter 9 case of this magnitude.

14. During the Reporting Period, significant matters were on-going, including the eligibility trial, numerous simultaneous mediations, the contested hearings respecting the Debtor's motion to assume and approve the forbearance and optional termination agreement documenting the settlement of swap-related disputes, and multiple pension and labor negotiations.

15. All of the issues that the Fee Examiner identified in the Preliminary Reports were reasonably addressed to his satisfaction through the Resolution Discussions and the subsequent revisions to invoices, which in many instances resulted in additional voluntary reductions by the Professionals. That is not to say that every recommendation of the Fee Examiner was accepted by every Professional. The power of the Fee Examiner under the Fee Review Order is limited to recommendations and challenges made through the Preliminary Reports and the Resolution Discussions. The Fee Examiner has no authority to require modifications of the Monthly Invoices or to unilaterally reduce the amount of any firm's Professional Fee Expense request.

16. The Final Monthly Reports prepared by the Fee Examiner delineate the voluntary write-offs and reductions by each Professional, both before the submission of each Monthly Invoice and as a result of the Resolution Discussions with the Fee Examiner, and, in the Fee

Examiner's opinion, further reflect the reasonableness of the Professional Fee Expenses. Although the fees incurred by the Professionals during the Reporting Period and covered by this Second Quarterly Report are substantial by any measure, the Fee Examiner believes that all of the requested fees are commensurate with the complexity and speed of the Case, and the quality of the services that the Professionals have provided. Furthermore, the Fee Examiner believes that all of the requested expenses were necessarily incurred by the Professionals in connection with the services rendered. Accordingly, the Fee Examiner submits that all of the Professional Fee Expenses from the Reporting Period, as addressed by this Second Quarterly Report, have been fully disclosed and are reasonable, as required by 11 U.S.C. § 943(b)(3).

FEE EXAMINER'S FINAL MONTHLY REPORT
REGARDING OCTOBER 2013 MONTHLY INVOICES

Robert M. Fishman, the duly appointed fee examiner (the "Fee Examiner"), presents this Final Monthly Report regarding the October 2013 Monthly Invoices (each an "October Invoice") pursuant to paragraph 7 of the Court's Fee Review Order dated September 11, 2013 [Docket No. 810] (the "Fee Review Order"):[1]

Background

1. Pursuant to the Order Appointing Fee Examiner dated August 19, 2013 [Docket No. 383] (the "Appointment Order"), the Court appointed Robert M. Fishman as the Fee Examiner in connection with the above-captioned bankruptcy case. According to the Appointment Order, it is the Fee Examiner's responsibility to assure the Court, the City, the creditors, and the public that the City's Professional Fee Expenses (as defined in the Appointment Order) are fully disclosed and are reasonable, as required by 11 U.S.C. § 943(b)(3).

2. Pursuant to paragraph 1 of the Fee Review Order, the City and the Committee have identified the following City Professionals and Committee Professionals, whose Professional Fee Expenses are subject to review by the Fee Examiner:

City Professionals	Committee Professionals
Conway MacKenzie, Inc.	Dentons US LLP/Salans FMC SNR Denton Europe LLP
Ernst & Young LLP	Brooks Wilkins Sharkey & Turco PLLC

3. Pursuant to paragraph 4 of the Fee Review Order, the Professionals are required to submit monthly invoices to the Fee Examiner within 49 days after the end of each calendar month. Therefore, the October Invoices were due on or before December 19, 2013.

4. The Fee Examiner received timely October Invoices from each of the Professionals except Dykema Gossett, PLLC ("Dykema") and Ottenwess, Taweel & Schenk, PLC ("Ottenwess"). On December 13, 2013, counsel for the City advised that Kilpatrick & Associates, P.C., Dykema and Ottenwess were going to be added to the fee review process. Dykema submitted its October Invoice to the Fee Examiner on March 19, 2014, and Ottenwess submitted its October Invoice to the Fee Examiner on February 3, 2014.

5. Pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Fee Review Order, the Fee Examiner is to issue Preliminary Reports to each of the Professionals with respect to each month's Invoices. The October 2013 Preliminary Reports (each a "Preliminary Report") were issued by the Fee Examiner on or about January 23, 2014 (and transmitted to each Professional) with respect to each of the October Invoices.[2] Thereafter, the Fee Examiner engaged in Resolution Discussions with each of the Professionals in an effort to resolve the Fee Examiner's comments and questions regarding the October Invoices.

6. Pursuant to paragraph 7 of the Fee Review Order, the Fee Examiner submits this October Final Monthly Report regarding the October Invoices.

Summary of October Invoices by Professional

7. The following are summaries of the submitted October Invoices organized by Professional, indicating total requested fees and expenses, as well as voluntary write-offs and other reductions made by each of the Professionals with respect to its October Invoice, both before the submission of the October Invoice and as a result of the Resolution Discussions between the Fee Examiner and each Professional. As referenced beside the name of each Professional, attached as exhibits to this October Final Monthly Report are copies of the final, redacted (as applicable) October Invoices which in many respects have been revised and/or reduced based on the Preliminary Reports and Resolution Discussions between the Fee Examiner and the Professionals.

[2] Except as to Dykema and Ottenwess from whom the Fee Examiner had not yet received the October Invoices. The October Preliminary Reports were sent to Dykema and Ottenwess at a later date.

City Professionals

8. Conway MacKenzie, Inc. ("Conway") (Exhibit A)

Initial Voluntary Fee Reduction	$742.50
Original Fee Request	$1,148,841.25
Subsequent Voluntary Fee Reduction	$1,944.33
Final Fee Request	$1,146,896.92
Expenses Incurred	$11,603.29
Voluntary Expense Reduction	$3,656.61
Final Expense Request	$7,946.68
Total Fee and Expense Request	$1,154,843.60

The October Invoice of Conway initially requested fees in the amount of $1,148,841.25, expenses in the amount of $7,946.68, and a total request of $1,156,787.93. In the Preliminary Report regarding Conway's October Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and made certain requests of Conway relating to, among other things: (i) the sufficiency of certain service descriptions and the roles of each Conway professional; (ii) the allocation of certain tasks to senior professionals; (iii) the treatment of certain "administrative services" including whether they were appropriately billed to the City; (iv) numerous instances of lumping discrete tasks into single time entries; (v) the use of abbreviations and acronyms that are not understandable to the average reader; (vi) the considerable amount of time spent by certain Conway professionals; and (vii) the calculation of Conway's fees under the terms and conditions of its fee agreement with the City.

Based on the Preliminary Report, Conway made substantial revisions to the October Invoice to supplement and clarify certain service descriptions, to clarify the roles of various Conway professionals and explain why certain tasks were allocated to senior professionals, to further explain how certain administrative services relating to billing-related tasks and compliance with the Fee Review Order were appropriately charged to the City, and to de-lump certain time entries. Conway adequately explained the considerable amounts of time spent by certain professionals based on the substantial time constraints and demands of certain projects. Conway also agreed to make an additional voluntary reduction of $1,944.33 related to certain inconsistent or duplicate time entries, and with respect to several time entries that were of questionable benefit to the City. Conway has provided an affirmative statement that the fees requested in the October Invoice comply with the terms and conditions of Conway's fee agreement with the City and has further demonstrated that the fees are being monitored to comply with the amount restrictions set forth therein. In sum, Conway's revised October Invoice, which includes a modified fee and expense request of $1,154,843.60, addresses all of the issues raised by the Fee Examiner in the Preliminary Report.

9. Jones Day (Exhibit B)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	$578,781.18
Original Fee Request	$3,675,085.87
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	$31,764.00
Final Fee Request	$3,643,321.87
Original Expense Request	$102,224.00
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$107.92
Final Expense Request	$102,116.08
Total Fee and Expense Request	$3,745,437.95

In the Preliminary Report regarding Jones Day's October Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and made certain requests, including, but not limited to: (i) the number of Jones Day professionals that attended the eligibility trial over eight days in October 2013 (Jones Day billed approximately $168,000 for as many as nine professionals to attend), which number appeared excessive to the Fee Examiner; (ii) issues with respect to individual time entries and expenses (including, e.g., insufficient detail about the tasks performed, unreasonable time, incorrect categorization, improper allocation of resources, duplicative time entries, internal inconsistencies, and unreasonable or non-compensable expenses); (iii) the request by the Fee

Examiner that Jones Day create a separate category for tasks related to administrative issues with the Retiree Committee; (iv) the tendency of certain professionals to bill time in blocks of .50 or .00, which trend suggested that such professionals were not billing in increments of one-tenth of an hour; (v) the practice of placing tasks related to the C.O.P.S. Health Trust in the Mediation category; and (vi) the request by the Fee Examiner for a summary description of tasks related to the "13th check" program.

In response to the Preliminary Report, with respect to Jones Day's attendance at the eligibility trial, Jones Day explained the magnitude and complexity of issues involved, particularly the "(a) the scope of this litigation, (b) the number of issues and adversaries, (c) the fundamental importance of an eligibility determination to the success of the chapter 9 process and (d) the anticipation that the record would be reviewed carefully by the Bankruptcy Court and again on appeal." Such tasks were "far too large for one or two lawyers to handle." Jones Day also explained that it had already written off approximately 113 hours for both senior and junior lawyers to attend the eligibility trial, for a total of $74,248.00. Jones Day agreed, however, to write-off an additional $14,740.00 in legal fees, which comprised the attendance of one of the senior partners on October 23 and certain associates on October 25 and 28. The Fee Examiner believes this is an appropriate resolution to the issue.

With respect to individual time entries and expenses, Jones Day has (a) reduced or written off such time entry, (b) revised the applicable description, or (c) provided an adequate explanation with respect to the Fee Examiner's comments on such time entry or expense. Jones Day adequately addressed the Fee Examiner's concern that certain entries tended to add up to .50 or .00 by (i) having voluntarily written off entries that added up to .50 or .00 as part of its initial voluntary reduction, which would otherwise have been billable and (ii) further discounting many of the entries that added up to .50 or .00.

Jones Day explained that it believed that creation of a separate category for administrative tasks related to the Retiree Committee was unnecessary, because such tasks were encompassed by the Case Administration category, and Jones Day did not anticipate accruing a significant amount of additional hours on the topic.

Jones Day provided additional context regarding the placement of tasks related to C.O.P.S. Health Trust in the Mediation category, explaining that Jones Day professionals evaluated C.O.P.S. Health Trust as a potential health insurance option in connection with the Court-ordered mediation process.

Miller Buckfire submitted its October Invoice on December 18, 2013. In the Preliminary Report regarding the October Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and made certain requests of Miller Buckfire relating to: (i) including a brief description of the role of each professional in the summary description for each category, and (ii) the need for additional information in the description of some of the incurred expenses including the identity of persons included in certain large meal expenses and the names of participants in and the purpose of conference calls. Miller Buckfire responded to the Preliminary Report on February 4, 2014 and at that time submitted a revised redacted October Invoice. The revised redacted Invoice made the suggested revisions and provided the requested additional information including a reduction of $420.00 for reimbursement of travel agency fees which Miller Buckfire agreed to reduce by taking a credit on its November 2013 invoice. The revised redacted October Invoice addresses all concerns raised by the Fee Examiner and there are no unresolved issues.

13. Miller, Canfield, Paddock & Stone, P.L.C. ("Miller Canfield") (Exhibit F)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	None
Original Fee Request	$403,181.00
Subsequent Voluntary Fee Reduction	$7,823.50

Original Expense Request	$6,767.35
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	None
Final Expense Request	$6,767.35
Total Fee and Expense Request	$402,124.85

In the Preliminary Report regarding Miller Canfield's October Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues, including, but not limited to: (i) the inconsistent use of billing categories; (ii) the potential duplication of certain services by Miller Canfield professionals; and (iii) the absence of organizational affiliations for individuals with whom Miller Canfield communicated. Additionally, the Fee Examiner expressed concerns to Miller Canfield and other firms that the number of professionals in attendance and the amount of fees charged for the City's eligibility trial were excessive. Accordingly, the Fee Examiner asked Miller Canfield to review and re-evaluate its charges for certain court appearances.

Based on the Preliminary Report and related Resolution Discussions, Miller Canfield agreed not to charge the City for more than two lawyers appearing in court as local counsel in an non-active role, and to reduce the second appearing lawyer's charge by 50%. Also, in response to the Fee Examiner's determination that Miller Canfield's compensation arrangement, which included a blended hourly rate of $385 for non-bankruptcy lawyers was not resulting in a discount for the City, as intended, on March 25, 2014, Miller Canfield notified the Fee Examiner that it had modified its compensation arrangement with the City. Effective retroactively to October 1, 2013, Miller Canfield will charge the City the lesser of (a) standard hourly rates for all of lawyers; and (b) a blended hourly rate of $385 per hour for all non-bankruptcy lawyers and standard hourly rates for all bankruptcy lawyers. Miller Canfield's billing rates, including the blended hourly rate, may be adjusted annually, in accordance with typical, annual rate increases, as permitted by paragraph 12 of the Fee Review Order; however, Miller Canfield will not increase the blended hourly rate by more than 3% this year. With respect to the October Invoice, Miller Canfield's modified October Invoice reflects a fee and expense request in the amount of $395,357.50 based on Miller Canfield's standard hourly rates.

With regard to the Fee Examiner's comments concerning billing categories and the possible duplication of services, Miller Canfield revised its October Invoice to correct the billing categories and to clarify that its services were not duplicative. Miller Canfield also made numerous revisions to the October Invoice to address the Fee Examiner's comments request that organizational affiliations of individuals be provided, and provided voluntary fee reductions totaling $7,823.50. Miller Canfield's revised October Invoice addresses all of the issues raised by the Fee Examiner in the Preliminary Report.

On January 23, 2014 the Fee Examiner sent Milliman the October Preliminary Report. In the Preliminary Report, Milliman was asked to revise its October Invoice to provide more detail in the description of "Direct Expenses" and the "Description of Project Codes." In particular, Milliman was asked to incorporate into the October Invoice the identities of members of the Pension Plan Task Force and Health Care Task Force, and the definition of acronyms unrecognizable to the general public. Milliman provided written comments in response to the Fee Examiner's preliminary report, and those comments addressed the Fee Examiner's requests. Milliman later incorporated the Fee Examiner's comments into its revised and final October Invoice. The revised October Invoice addresses all of the Fee Examiner's concerns and there are no unresolved issues.

Voluntary Expense Reduction	None
Final Expense Request	$266.50
Total Fee and Expense Request	$221,340.00

In the Preliminary Report regarding Pepper's October Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and suggested certain revisions related to, among other things, (i) the sufficiency of various service descriptions; (ii) the use of capitalized terms and acronyms without an adequate definition or description of such terms and acronyms; and (iii) the role and purpose of each professional and paraprofessional for all time entries relating to the preparation for, and attendance at, the eligibility trial. The Fee Examiner also requested an explanation regarding the status of Pepper's modified compensation arrangement with the City to provide for a 10% discount off of its standard hourly rates and to freeze hourly billing rates at 2013 levels. In response to the Fee Examiner's suggestions and requests, Pepper clarified that its discounted rates went into effect on November 1, 2013. Pepper made substantial revisions to the October Invoice, including de-lumping of time entries, defining capitalized terms and acronyms, and providing more detailed descriptions of services relating to the eligibility trial. Based upon the foregoing revisions, Pepper has fully complied with the terms of the Court's Fee Review Order for the compensation period of October 2013.

16. Ernst & Young ("EY") (No Exhibit)

Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	TBD
Final Expense Request	TBD
Total Fee and Expense Request	TBD
10% Contractual Fee Hold-Back[3]	TBD
Interim Fee and Expense Request	TBD

On January 30, 2014, the Fee Examiner transmitted the Preliminary Report regarding the October Invoice of EY. In the Preliminary Report, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and suggested revisions related to (i) certain time entries that lacked the requisite detail and context to permit an outside reviewer to understand the services that were performed, and (ii) particular time entries that appeared to reflect inconsistencies with other time entries. In addition, the Fee Examiner requested a clarification ("Staffing Clarification") on EY's staffing for a particular category of its services, and he also asked EY for its confirmation ("Billing Increment Confirmation") that certain EY timekeepers were billing in tenth of an hour increments as opposed to half hour increments.

On February 14, 2014, EY provided the Fee Examiner with a written response to the Preliminary Report with a supporting spreadsheet, but it did not provide, and has not yet provided, the Staffing Clarification or the Billing Increment Confirmation. The Fee Examiner has continually reminded EY of his request for the Staffing Clarification and the Billing Increment Confirmation so that he can finish his review and evaluation of the October Invoice and EY's written response to the Preliminary Report. The Fee Examiner intends to prepare and file a supplement to this October Final Monthly Report and the corresponding Second Quarterly Report once these issues are resolved and his review and evaluation is completed.

[3] Under the terms of EY's engagement agreement with the City, the monthly fees of EY are "subject to a 10% holdback that will be payable upon the confirmation of a Plan of Adjustment of Debts by the Bankruptcy Court by December 31, 2014. In the event a Plan of Adjustment of Debts is not confirmed by December 31, 2014, the cumulative holdback amount will not be payable."

17. Kilpatrick & Associates, PC ("Kilpatrick") (Exhibit I)

Total Fee and Expense Request	$11,850.00

On January 23, 2014 the Fee Examiner sent Kilpatrick the October Preliminary Report (due to the timing of Kilpatrick's participation in the fee review process, the Fee Examiner sent one Preliminary Report to Kilpatrick covering the months of July-October 2013 and largely raising the same issues for each of those months). In the Preliminary Report, Kilpatrick was asked to revise its October Invoice to provide descriptive summaries of the services rendered in each billing category, and provide more detail for substantially all of its billing entries. In particular, Kilpatrick was asked to develop more substantive billing categories and revise its October Invoice to reorganize its time entries into the newly developed, appropriate billing categories. On February 17, 2014, Kilpatrick provided written comments in response to the Fee Examiner's preliminary report that added more detail to individual time entries, and included summaries of billing categories for each month and a separate explanation of all abbreviations used. Kilpatrick also worked with the Fee Examiner to develop new billing categories for its time entries. Kilpatrick's comments addressed the Fee Examiner's requests, and were later incorporated in Kilpatrick's revised and final October Invoice. Kilpatrick provided the Fee Examiner with a verification of compliance, and the revised October Invoice addressed all of the Fee Examiner's concerns.

18. Ottenwess, Taweel & Schenk, PLC ("Ottenwess") (Exhibit J)

In the Preliminary Report regarding Ottenwess' October Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and suggested certain revisions related to, among other things, (i) the sufficiency of various service descriptions; (ii) providing a summary of services performed during the period; and (iii) creating distinct, descriptive categories of services based upon the connection to the case. In response to the Fee Examiner's suggestions, Ottenwess made substantial revisions to the October Invoice, including drafting an informative summary of services rendered, providing a list of defined terms and key individuals referenced in the Invoice, and creating more descriptive time entries for the firm's services. Based upon the foregoing revisions, Ottenwess has fully complied with the terms of the Court's Fee Review Order for the compensation period of October 2013.

19. Dykema Gossett, PLLC ("Dykema") (No Exhibit)

Due to the timing of the submission of Dykema's various Invoices, and the fact that the Fee Examiner sent Dykema one Preliminary Report for the months of July – November, all of the Dykema Invoices for the months of July through November, 2013 will be addressed in the November Final Monthly Report.

Committee Professionals

20. Dentons US LLP ("Dentons") (Exhibit K)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	None
Original Fee Request	$2,000,567.15
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction[4]	$56,958.90
Final Fee Request	$1,943,608.25
Original Expense Request	$49,432.85
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$291.24
Final Expense Request	$49,141.61
Total Fee and Expense Request	$1,992,749.86

The Fee Examiner reviewed the October Invoice of Dentons and raised several issues in the Preliminary Report, including, but not limited to: (i) the excessive number of Dentons and Brooks Wilkins professionals that attended the eligibility trial over seven days in October 2013 on behalf of the Retiree Committee (Dentons billed approximately $122,930 for as many as six professionals to attend); (ii) the practice of billing for services rendered in connection with monitoring press reports, preparing summaries of media coverage, and preparing and responding to press reports ("Media Activities"), which in October exceeded 270 hours and $100,000 in fees; (iii) issues with respect to individual time entries and expenses (including, e.g., insufficient detail about the tasks performed, unreasonable time, incorrect categorization, improper allocation of resources, duplicative time entries, internal inconsistencies, and unreasonable or non-compensable expenses); and (iv) the lack of summaries for each fee category in the invoice.

[4] As discussed herein, Dentons agreed to a reduction of $51,010.50 for time spent on matters related to monitoring press reports, preparing summaries of media coverage, and preparing and responding to press reports. This reduction is reflected in the chart above. Rather than submitting a revised invoice for the month of October, however, Dentons has agreed to effectuate this reduction by subtracting it from the 15% holdback amount for the month of November 2013.

In response to the Fee Examiner's questions concerning attendance at the eligibility trial, Brooks Wilkins and Dentons prepared a joint memorandum explaining the role of each professional at the trial and detailing the complexity of the issues and magnitude of the evidence that was presented (including over 1,000 pre-trial and trial exhibits for all objecting parties). The memorandum also explained that Dentons and Brooks Wilkins were responsible for coordinating the presentation of objections for all other objecting parties. The firms agreed, however, to a fee reduction of $7,395 for time spent at the trial by certain Dentons professionals. In light of the magnitude and complexity of the issues in the eligibility trial, the Fee Examiner believes that this is an appropriate resolution.

Dentons also responded to the Fee Examiner's critique of Dentons' practice of billing for time spent on Media Activities. Dentons explained that the Retiree Committee was "compelled" to engage in Media Activities "[b]ecause of the City's efforts to position the case using media." Dentons has agreed, however, to reduce the fees for such tasks by 50%, for a total reduction of $51,010.50. The Fee Examiner believes that this is a reasonable resolution to the issue.

With respect to individual time entries and expenses, Dentons has either: (a) reduced or written off such time entry, (b) revised the description, or (c) provided an adequate explanation with respect to the Fee Examiner's comments on such time entry or expense. Dentons also provided sufficient summaries before each category of services.

21. Brooks Wilkins Sharkey & Turco, PLLC ("Brooks Wilkins") (Exhibit L)

Initial Voluntary Discounts (in addition to general rate reduction discount)	None
Original Fee Request	$95,628.50
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction[5]	$777.00

Original Expense Request	$1,062.25
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	None
Final Expense Request	$1,062.25
Total Fee and Expense Request	$95,913.75

The Fee Examiner reviewed the October Invoice of Brooks Wilkins and identified several issues and made certain requests of Brooks Wilkins in the Preliminary Report, including, but not limited, to explaining: (i) the excessive number of professionals that attended the eligibility trial on behalf of the Retiree Committee over seven days in October 2013 (Brooks Wilkins billed approximately $14,782.00 for as many as two professionals from Brooks Wilkins to attend); (ii) certain individual time entries (e.g., insufficient description or inadequate timekeeping); and (iii) the lack of summaries before each invoice category.

In response to the Fee Examiner's critique of the attendance at trial, Brooks Wilkins and Dentons prepared a joint memorandum explaining the responsibilities of counsel for the Retiree Committee and the roles of each professional involved. The joint response of Dentons and Brooks Wilkins is discussed more fully in the section on Dentons. In response to the Fee Examiner's critique, Brooks Wilkins has agreed to reduce its fees at the eligibility trial by 5% for a total reduction of $777.00. With respect to individual time entries, Brooks Wilkins either revised the description or provided an adequate explanation with respect to the Fee Examiner's comments on such entry, and there are no open issues with respect to the October Invoice.

[5] Brooks Wilkins has agreed that the credit for such reduction shall be applied to its April 2014 invoice.

22. Lazard Freres & Co. LLC ("Lazard") (Exhibit M)

Final Expense Request	$11,369.41
Total Fee and Expense Request	$186,369.41

With respect to Lazard's October Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and made certain requests of Lazard in the Preliminary Report, including, but not limited to: (i) the quality of the summaries of each category of services in the Invoice, which the Fee Examiner believed were too vague and generic; and (ii) insufficient descriptions of Lazard's expenses. In response to the Preliminary Report, Lazard provided revised the descriptions of each category of services, which the Fee Examiner believes are now sufficiently detailed. Lazard also provided additional information about its expenses, which the Fee Examiner believes is sufficient.

Total Fee and Expense Request	$321,990.22

On January 23, 2014 the Fee Examiner sent Segal the October Preliminary Report respecting its October Invoice. In the October Preliminary Report, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and made certain requests of Segal, including but not limited to: (i) providing descriptive summaries of the services rendered in each billing category; (ii) providing more detailed descriptions of the services performed for particular billing entries; (iii) defining acronyms and identifying individuals within billing entries; and (iv) explaining Segal's calculation of discounted, non-working travel time. In response to the October Preliminary Report, Segal provided the information requested and revised its October Invoice to address the Fee Examiner's concerns. Accordingly, Segal has fully complied with the terms of the Court's Fee Review Order for the compensation period of October, 2013.

Summary description of work performed

As required by paragraph 13 of the Fee Review Order

Introduction / Background

The City engaged Miller Buckfire based upon its restructuring expertise as well as its capital markets knowledge, financing skills and mergers and acquisitions capabilities, some or all of which are expected to be required during Miller Buckfire's engagement, and were important factors in determining the amount of the various fees set forth in Miller Buckfire's Contract. The fee structure was agreed after extensive arms-length negotiations and reduction by Miller Buckfire of the fees originally sought.

In reaching its agreement with Miller Buckfire, the City recognized that Miller Buckfire does not maintain detailed written time records in the normal course of providing financial advisory and investment banking services to its clients and that Miller Buckfire does not bill its clients based on the number of hours expended by its professionals. Rather, the Contract reflects an understanding that the ultimate benefit of Miller Buckfire's services cannot be measured merely by reference to the number of hours to be expended by Miller Buckfire's professionals in the performance of such services. Rather, the Contract was agreed in anticipation that a substantial commitment of professional time and effort will be required of Miller Buckfire and that the actual time and commitment required of Miller Buckfire and its professionals to perform its services would vary substantially from week to week or month to month, creating "peak load" issues for the firm.

Miller Buckfire respectfully submits that (i) the professional services performed by Miller Buckfire are necessary and appropriate and substantially benefit the City and (ii) the compensation requested in this application is in accordance with the terms of Miller Buckfire's Contract. The terms and provisions of the Contract appropriately reflect (i) the nature of the services to be provided by Miller Buckfire and (ii) the fee structures typically utilized by Miller Buckfire and other leading financial advisory and investment banking firms, which do not bill their clients on an hourly basis and generally are compensated on a transactional basis. The fee structure creates a proper balance between fixed, monthly fees and transaction fees based on the consummation of specifically identified transactions. In addition, Miller Buckfire's compensation is fully justified and reasonable based upon the (i) complexity of issues presented, (ii) skill required to perform the financial advisory services properly, (iii) preclusion of other similar employment, (iv) customary fees charged to clients in out-of-court and in-court situations for similar services rendered, (v) time constraints required by the exigencies of the City's case, (vi) experience, reputation and ability of the professionals rendering services, (vii) time and labor required and (viii) the requirement that specifically identified transaction be consummated prior to payment of any transaction based fees.

Employee Summary

The names in the chart below reflect Miller Buckfire bankers who spent more than five hours on the Detroit engagement during the month of October. Additionally, the chart reflects an estimated percentage of each banker's work time that was spent on the engagement during the month.

To provide background, Miller Buckfire will typically staff one Managing Director, one Director or Vice President, one Associate and one Analyst on a particular engagement. Additionally, bankers are typically staffed on two live engagements at any time and have other internal firm responsibilities as well. Based on the above, we would expect that a normal engagement would feature four bankers, and that they would each be categorized in the "25-50%" section, on average, over the course of the engagement.

In order to provide additional clarity on the work Miller Buckfire performed, Miller Buckfire has assigned one of the following classifications for each task category to reflect the amount of banker time required to complete the task:

- Moderate Time: Estimated 25-50 banker hours
- Extensive Time: Estimated 50-100 banker hours
- Very Extensive Time: Estimated 100+ banker hours

Please note that if any task category required less than ten banker hours to complete, Miller Buckfire excluded it from the work description summary.

Category 0016: Due Diligence.

This task category includes time relating to the due diligence review of various assets and potential assets of the City. It largely includes diligence work in connection with valuing the City-owned assets of the Detroit Institute of Arts ("DIA") and in reviewing the DWSD and alternatives to monetize that asset. Aside from general cash flow, the DIA and the DWSD are the City's two most valuable assets, and maximizing their values is essential to minimizing the City's proposed cut to retiree pensions and healthcare. Services in this category were rendered by BWST member Matthew E. Wilkins and Associate James McAskin. [14.30 hours of work with a value of $3,586.00].
