Exhibit A

Summary description of work performed
As required by paragraph 13 of the Fee Review Order

Introduction / Background

The City engaged Miller Buckfire based upon its restructuring expertise as well as its capital markets knowledge, financing skills and mergers and acquisitions capabilities, some or all of which are expected to be required during Miller Buckfire's engagement, and were important factors in determining the amount of the various fees set forth in Miller Buckfire's Contract. The fee structure was agreed after extensive arms-length negotiations and reduction by Miller Buckfire of the fees originally sought.

In reaching its agreement with Miller Buckfire, the City recognized that Miller Buckfire does not maintain detailed written time records in the normal course of providing financial advisory and investment banking services to its clients and that Miller Buckfire does not bill its clients based on the number of hours expended by its professionals. Rather, the Contract reflects an understanding that the ultimate benefit of Miller Buckfire's services cannot be measured merely by reference to the number of hours to be expended by Miller Buckfire's professionals in the performance of such services. Rather, the Contract was agreed in anticipation that a substantial commitment of professional time and effort will be required of Miller Buckfire and that the actual time and commitment required of Miller Buckfire and its professionals to perform its services would vary substantially from week to week or month to month, creating "peak load" issues for the firm.

Miller Buckfire respectfully submits that (i) the professional services performed by Miller Buckfire are necessary and appropriate and substantially benefit the City and (ii) the compensation requested in this application is in accordance with the terms of Miller Buckfire's Contract. The terms and provisions of the Contract appropriately reflect (i) the nature of the services to be provided by Miller Buckfire and (ii) the fee structures typically utilized by Miller Buckfire and other leading financial advisory and investment banking firms, which do not bill their clients on an hourly basis and generally are compensated on a transactional basis. The fee structure creates a proper balance between fixed, monthly fees and transaction fees based on the consummation of specifically identified transactions. In addition, Miller Buckfire's compensation is fully justified and reasonable based upon the (i) complexity of issues presented, (ii) skill required to perform the financial advisory services properly, (iii) preclusion of other similar employment, (iv) customary fees charged to clients in out-of-court and in-court situations for similar services rendered, (v) time constraints required by the exigencies of the City's case, (vi) experience, reputation and ability of the professionals rendering services, (vii) time and labor required and (viii) and the requirement that specifically identified transaction be consummated prior to payment of any transaction based fees.

Employee Summary

The names in the chart below reflect Miller Buckfire bankers who spent more than five hours on the Detroit engagement during the month of February. Additionally, the chart reflects an estimated percentage of each banker’s work time that was spent on the engagement during the month.

To provide background, Miller Buckfire will typically staff one Managing Director, one Director or Vice President, one Associate and one Analyst on a particular engagement. Additionally, bankers are typically staffed on two live engagements at any time and have other internal firm responsibilities as well. Based on the above, we would expect that a normal engagement would feature four bankers, and that they would each be categorized in the “25-50%” section, on average, over the course of the engagement.

- Extensive Time: Estimated 50-100 banker hours

Notes:

1. The City has asked EY to perform a role that requires significant investment of time by several senior EY professionals given that the City is still in the process of hiring additional senior personnel in its Finance Department. The assistance of certain senior EY professionals during this transitional time provides the City with additional information and experience which better enables the City to execute its daily operation and achieve its ultimate restructuring. Where appropriate, junior EY staff has been utilized. That junior staff, however, has been supervised, as deemed appropriate, by EY senior professionals.
2. In general, some of the tasks performed by EY are repetitive on a weekly or even daily basis, depending on the task. The time required to perform these tasks is often the same, or relatively close, which may result in the recording of the same time for the same or for similarly-worded entries on multiple days.

RE: Billing categories used on the Ottenwess, Taweel & Schenk, PLC invoices

Dear Mr. Fishman:

Pursuant to our telephone conference on March 27, 2014 and my letter of March 20, 2014, I am recommending the following categories for billings associated with our firm's work on the Detroit Bankruptcy matter:

Alternative Structures for DWSD: Within this billing category, I will capture all time associated with reviewing alternatives to DWSD remaining a department of the City as currently envisioned by the City Charter as amended by the orders of the federal court in the matter United States v City of Detroit (Case No. 77-71100). This category will include assorted variations on the Root Cause Committee's recommendations, the review of proposals submitted by the Emergency Manager for a regional authority, and other matters under consideration during the engagement.

DWSD Legal Structure: Within this billing category, I will capture time associated with research and legal advice concerning DWSD current legal framework including, but not limited to (1) a review of the various orders of Judge Sean F. Cox in the matter of United States v City of Detroit (Case No. 77-71100) which granted DWSD a certain degree of operational independence from the City of Detroit, (2) the Detroit City Charter, (3) existing state laws related to DWSD's operations, (4) the interplay between the orders of Judge Cox and Public Act 436, which authorized the appointment of an emergency manager and provided the framework for a bankruptcy filing by a municipality, and (4) applicable case law addressing DWSD's operations.

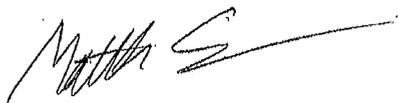

Bankruptcy Proceedings: Within this billing category, I will capture time associated with reviewing filings by parties to the bankruptcy proceedings that both directly and indirectly impact the negotiations regarding the treatment of DWSD within Detroit's bankruptcy. This category includes reviews of relevant provisions of the Disclosure Statements, the Plan of Adjustment, the Notice of Intent for DWSD capital financing during the bankruptcy, the initial proposal to creditors, and other related matters. This category may, on occasion, include review of relevant testimony within the bankruptcy proceedings and media reports of the same that directly impact other categories within this engagement.

Administration: This category will be used largely as a catch-all category to capture time that does not fit easily into one of the categories listed above, including time associated with compliance with the Fee Review Order, meetings with and responses to the Fee Examiner, etc.

Based upon our discussion on March 27, 2014, it is my understanding that these categories were acceptable to you, retroactively to the October 2013 invoices. Additionally, I understand that it is my obligation to update the categories should additional matters be added to the scope of our engagement in the Detroit Bankruptcy.

Very Truly Yours,

Ottenwess, Taweel & Schenk, PLC.

City of Detroit, Michigan, Detroit Chapter 9 Task Descriptions for Dentons

Overview. The Official Committee of Retirees ("Committee") was appointed by the Office of the United States Trustee on August 23, 2013. The Committee represents the general interests of approximately 22,500 retirees with vested pension benefits and OPEB (other post employment benefits) that the City estimated to be a total $3.5 billion and $5.6 billion, respectively with bankruptcy case filings. As a result, claims related to retirees account for more than half of the City's asserted $18 billion of debt, and more than 66% of claims if the alleged $6.5 billion if secured bonds are excluded.

After being retained, the Committee interviewed several law firms to serve as its principal legal counsel. On August 28, 2013, the Committee retained Dentons US LLP ("Dentons"). There are three key engagement partners Sam J. Alberts, Claude Montgomery and Carole Neville, the second of whom was still technically with Salans FMC SNR Denton Europe LLP ("Salans"). On October 1, 2013, the New York offices of Dentons and Salans combined. As such, separate fee applications for Dentons and Salans were submitted for the months of August and September 2013, and any single fee application for Dentons have been and continue to be submitted for the period beginning October 2013.

As a general matter, the representation of the Committee is being conducted by three key engagement Dentons partners identified above. These partners, often oversee specific issues and tasks, and often oversee other attorneys on tasks.

We have read and understand the terms of the Court's Fee Review Order dated September 11, 2013 ("the Order"). We have complied with the Order except as expressly noted in this transmittal.

Matter: Eligibility

Eligibility of the City to be a debtor under chapter 9 is the central gating issue in this and almost all other chapter 9 cases. In this case, the issue of eligibility, and the Committee objection to it, was one of, if not the most significant tasks for the first several months of this case. The Committee's efforts were rendered both more complicated in some respects, and easier in others, by the fact that more than 100 different parties filed objection to the City's eligibility. In addition to complex factual discovery, the Committee raised several procedural, legal and constitutional challenges to eligibility, as well as seeking withdrawal of the reference to the District Court on certain legal issues. The Eligibility task was lead by Claude Montgomery, with assistance from several attorneys, including partners Carole Neville, Arthur Rugger and Anthony Ullman on trial matters, Leah Bruno on general discovery matters and Robert Millner on pension discovery matters. Also providing significant assistance were counsel Paul Gunther and associates Joseph Selby, Christopher Soper and Carolina Ramirez on brief writing and research. Services during this period include preparation coordination and filing appellate papers, including motions and a draft appellate brief, which in total resulted in 566.60 hours of work at a value of $300,260.00.

Matter: Assumption Motion

This task involves a motion by the City filed within the first days of the bankruptcy case to assume a contract that ostensibly resolves $220 million in allegedly secured SWAP obligations. A number of objections were filed before the Committee was appointed. The Committee was expressly authorized by Judge Rhodes to participate in the mediation involving the swap assumption motion and to file its objection. Given the pending nature of the motion, Dentons was required to attend to the Swap Matters. This task was principally overseen by Carole Neville, with assistance from Gene Besen and Sam J. Alberts. The City has entered into a series of settlement motions with the SWAP parties (UBS and Merrill Lynch)-non of which have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court. Dentons has been monitoring widespread creditor dissent and has taken an active role in opposition to the City's third settlement effort. The time spent on this task in this period was 0.70 hours, at a value of $597.00.

Invoice No. 1549616

Matter: OPEB

The City asserts that unfunded OPEB obligations to retirees totals $5.6 billion, making it the largest claim in the case. OPEB largely (although not exclusively) consists of health care benefits. The issue of threatened reductions to OPEB are of critical importance to retirees. From the outset the case, the City has stated its intention to substantially reduce OPEB health care, and to eliminate dental, eye care and life insurance benefits to retirees. In fact, under the City's original plan (still in affect), the City seeks to reduce annual OPEB spending from approximately $180 million to retirees to $30 million. Sam J. Alberts is the lead partner on these efforts. On OPEB litigation matters, assistance was provided by Dan Barnowski, Daniel Morris and Chris Soper (among others). On OPEB health care issue, assistance was provided by Tom Hutchinson and later John Feore, and on trust structures, Michael Maryn. The calculation of OPEB liability and the treatment of OPEB under the Plan are ongoing efforts, involving all Committee professionals. Total time for this period was 48.10 hours with a value of $31,411.00.

Matter: Media

This matter includes review of media reports, as well as Committee contact and responses to media inquiries. Because of the City's efforts to position the case using media, the Committee was compelled to respond in kind to both inform its constituents of its efforts and to influence certain case events. The case is very closely watched by the local and national media, which influences the retirees and other parties in interest including the legislators. The partner in charge of media is Sam Alberts, with assistance originally from Tom Ochs, a media specialist, and later Amy Maslin, with further help from Daniel Pina, a paralegal. For this month, total time was 51.30 hours at a value of $18,946.50.

Matter: Government Affairs

Given the fundamentally political nature of the case, the Committee was called upon to understand the state, local and federal political dynamics of the bankruptcy, as to in turn formulate and implement a governmental affairs strategy. This tasks was principally overseen by Claude Montgomery, Sam Alberts and Carole Neville, with significant assistance from Michael Zolandz and others in Dentons governmental affairs practice group. For this period, total time was 18.80 hours at a value of $17,466.00.

FEE EXAMINER'S FINAL MONTHLY REPORT
REGARDING MARCH 2014 MONTHLY INVOICES

Robert M. Fishman, the duly appointed fee examiner (the "Fee Examiner"), presents this Final Monthly Report regarding the March 2014 Monthly Invoices (each a "March Invoice") pursuant to paragraph 7 of the Court's Fee Review Order dated September 11, 2013 [Docket No. 810] (the "Fee Review Order"):¹

Background

1. Pursuant to the Order Appointing Fee Examiner dated August 19, 2013 [Docket No. 383] (the "Appointment Order"), the Court appointed Robert M. Fishman as the Fee Examiner in connection with the above-captioned bankruptcy case. According to the Appointment Order, it is the Fee Examiner's responsibility to assure the Court, the City, the creditors, and the public that the City's Professional Fee Expenses (as defined in the Appointment Order) are fully disclosed and are reasonable, as required by 11 U.S.C. § 943(b)(3).

2. Pursuant to paragraph 1 of the Fee Review Order, the City and the Committee have identified the following City Professionals and Committee Professionals, whose Professional Fee Expenses are subject to review by the Fee Examiner:

¹ Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Fee Review Order.

City Professionals	Committee Professionals
Conway MacKenzie, Inc.	Dentons US LLP/Salans FMC SNR Denton Europe LLP
Ernst & Young LLP	Brooks Wilkins Sharkey & Turco PLLC
Jones Day	Lazard Freres & Co. LLC
Foley & Lardner LLP	Segal Consulting
Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC
Miller Buckfire & Co. LLC
Miller, Canfield, Paddock & Stone, P.L.C.
Milliman, Inc.
Pepper Hamilton LLP
Kilpatrick & Associates, PC
Dykema Gossett, PLLC
Ottewess, Taweel & Schenk, PLC

3. Pursuant to paragraph 4 of the Fee Review Order, the Professionals are required to submit monthly invoices to the Fee Examiner within 49 days after the end of each calendar month. Therefore, the March Invoices were due on or before May 19, 2014.

4. The Fee Examiner received timely March Invoices from each of the Professionals except Dykema Gossett, PLLC, Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC, Miller Buckfire & Co. LLC and Milliman Inc. Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC submitted its March Invoice on July 16, 2014, Miller Buckfire & Co. LLC submitted its March Invoice on May 23, 2014, and Milliman Inc. submitted its March Invoice on May 31, 2014. Dykema Gossett, PLLC was added to the Fee Review Process late and was required to submit monthly invoices for the period of July-December 2013 before submitting its March Invoice. Dykema Gossett, PLLC submitted its March Invoice on June 6, 2014. On May 29, 2014 the Court issued an order [Docket No. 5150] (the "US Bank Order") requiring that US Bank, as Trustee, submit the invoices (going back to the inception of the case) received from its internal employee, counsel and consultants to the Fee Examiner for review. Accordingly, the following Professionals, on behalf of U.S. Bank, as Trustee, are also now participating in the Fee Review Process and submitting their invoices to the Fee Examiner: Waller, Bodman, John Young, GLC and U.S. Bank. Additionally, counsel for Christie's Inc, Debevoise, has also agreed to be designated as a City Professional and have its invoices reviewed by the Fee Examiner. The Fee Examiner has just begun the process of reviewing and commenting on these invoices.

5. Pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Fee Review Order, the Fee Examiner is to issue Preliminary Reports to each of the Professionals with respect to each month's Invoices. The March Preliminary Reports (each a "Preliminary Report") were issued by the Fee Examiner on or about June 30, 2014 (and transmitted to each Professional) with respect to each of the March Invoices. Thereafter, the Fee Examiner engaged in Resolution Discussions with each of the Professionals in an effort to resolve the Fee Examiner's comments and questions regarding the March Invoices.

6. Pursuant to paragraph 7 of the Fee Review Order, the Fee Examiner submits this March Final Monthly Report regarding the March Invoices. Excepted from this March Final Monthly Report is the March Invoice of Jones Day because that firm has not a submitted final, revised March Invoice to the Fee Examiner. The Fee Examiner will file a supplement to this March Final Monthly Report upon receipt of the remaining applicable March Invoice.

Summary of March Invoices by Professional

7. The following are summaries of the submitted March Invoices organized by Professional, indicating total requested fees and expenses, as well as voluntary write-offs and other reductions made by each of the Professionals with respect to its March Invoice, both before the submission of the March Invoice and as a result of the Resolution Discussions between the Fee Examiner and each Professional. As referenced beside the name of each Professional, attached as exhibits to this March Final Monthly Report are copies of the final, redacted (as applicable) March Invoices which in many respects have been revised and/or reduced based on the Preliminary Reports and Resolution Discussions between the Fee Examiner and the Professionals.

City Professionals

8. Conway MacKenzie, Inc. ("Conway") (Exhibit A)

Initial Voluntary Fee Reduction	$7,029.00
Original Fee Request	$913,800.50
Subsequent Voluntary Fee Reduction	$3,841.36
Final Fee Request	$1,046,079.14

Voluntary Expense Reduction	$6,862.71
Final Expense Request	$1,446.88
Total Final Fee and Expense Request	$1,047,526.02

Conway's March 2014 Monthly Invoice initially included a voluntary fee reduction of $7,029.00, and provided for a fee request of $913,800.50 and an expense request of $1,446.88, for a total request of $1,051,367.38. In the Preliminary Report regarding Conway's Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and made certain requests of Conway relating to, among other things: (i) the sufficiency of certain service descriptions; (ii) clarification as to the nature of certain services relating to preparation of invoices; and (iii) the improper categorization of certain time entries.

Based on the Preliminary Report, Conway made substantial revisions to the Invoice to supplement, re-categorize, and clarify certain service descriptions. Conway made additional voluntary reductions totaling $3,841.36 relating to certain inconsistent meeting times and other issues identified by the Fee Examiner. Conway has provided an affirmative statement that the fees requested in the Invoice comply with the terms and conditions of Conway's fee agreement with the City and has further demonstrated that the fees are being monitored to comply with the amount restrictions set forth therein. In sum, Conway's revised March 2014 Invoice, which includes a modified fee and expense request of $1,047,526.02, addresses all of the issues raised by the Fee Examiner in the Preliminary Report.

9. Jones Day (No Exhibit)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	$334,323.41
Original Fee Request	$2,953,665.00
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	TBD
Final Fee Request	TBD
Original Expense Request	$82,868.55
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$82,868.55
Total Fee and Expense Request	TBD

In the Preliminary Report regarding Jones Day's March 2014 Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and made certain requests, including, but not limited to: (i) issues with respect to individual time entries and expenses (including, e.g., insufficient detail about the tasks performed, and potential internal inconsistencies); (ii) the amount of time spent with respect to drafting a fact finding post-hearing brief (over 200 hours); (iii) the amount of time spent on a research memorandum on Oakland County's standing to object to the plan of adjustment; and (iv) the high number of upper-level associates and partners billing to the OPEB and City Assets Services and Revitalization categories.

In response to the Fee Examiner's comment on the fact finding post-hearing brief, Jones Day has requested additional time to investigate the issue and respond to the Fee Examiner. Accordingly, the Fee Examiner will supplement this Report after Jones Day has responded and the issue has been resolved.

As to the amount of time on the research memorandum, Jones Day explained that the memorandum Oakland County's status as a "party in interest" under the Bankruptcy Code was a "critical" issue in the plan confirmation process. The research was time consuming because it required reviewing extensive caselaw, as well as analysis of legislative history and secondary sources. The memorandum also required multiple rounds of revisions to address additional issues identified by research and other case developments.

In response to the Fee Examiner's comment on the OPEB and City Assets Services categories, Jones Day explained that the staffing was appropriate given the complex and "unprecedented" nature of the matters involved, as well as "the level of scrutiny and contentiousness involved in this bankruptcy case, and the need to address issues at a massive scale on an accelerated timeline."

Finally, with respect to individual time entries and expenses, Jones Day has either reduced or written off such time entry or provided an adequate explanation with respect to the Fee Examiner's comments on such time entry or expense.

As a result of the response from Jones Day, there are no open issues with respect to the March 2014 Invoice.

10. Foley & Lardner LLP (“Foley”) (Exhibit B)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	Attorney Blended Rate of $475.00/hour

Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	N/A
Final Expense Request	$0.00
Total Fee and Expense Request	$16,197.50

In the Preliminary Report regarding Foley’s March 2014 Monthly Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and suggested certain revisions related to, among other things, the sufficiency of various service descriptions. In response to the Fee Examiner’s Preliminary Report, Foley made the suggested revisions to the Monthly Invoice which clarified the nature of the services rendered. As a result, Foley has fully complied with the terms of the Court’s Fee Review Order for the compensation period of March 2014.

11. Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (“KCC”) (Exhibit C)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	50% Courtesy Rate Discount
Original Fee Request	$98,185.00
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	$840.00

Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$4,791.72
Final Expense Request	$156,366.66
Total Fee and Expense Request	$253,711.66

Due to the late date that KCC submitted its March Invoice, the Fee Examiner did not actually issue a written Preliminary Report. KCC provided adequate clarification and made certain adjustments to the Invoice, based on issues raised by the Fee Examiner respecting prior months' invoices, resulting in the credits identified above. Accordingly, KCC has fully complied with the terms of the Court's Fee Review Order for the compensation period of March 2014.

12. Miller Buckfire & Co. LLC ("Miller Buckfire") (Exhibit D)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	Fixed Fee Contract Negotiated with City $300,000 per month beginning January 2014
Original Fee Request	$300,000.00

Original Expense Request	$27,327.54
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$27,327.54
Total Fee and Expense Request	$327,327.54

Miller Buckfire submitted its March 2014 Invoice on May 23, 2014. In the Preliminary Report regarding the Invoice, which was sent to Miller Buckfire on July 8, 2014, the Fee Examiner noted the reduced monthly fee of Miller Buckfire beginning as of January 2014 and that all prior comments by the Fee Examiner on specificity concerning D expenses had been addressed. The Fee Examiner did request additional information concerning what appeared to be excessive charges for use of a car service rather than a commercial cab service. Miller Buckfire provided the Fee Examiner with a thorough explanation in a telephone conversation held on August 1, 2014. The response received addresses all concerns raised by the Fee Examiner and there are no unresolved issues.

13. Miller, Canfield, Paddock & Stone, P.L.C. (“Miller Canfield”) (Exhibit E)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	$795.00
Original Fee Request	$306,940.50
Subsequent Voluntary Fee Reduction	$3,109.50

Original Expense Request	$1,415.72
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$1,415.72
Total Fee and Expense Request	$305,574.65

In the Preliminary Report regarding Miller Canfield’s March 2014 Monthly Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues, including, but not limited to: (i) the inconsistent use of billing categories, and (ii) the inadequacy of several descriptions of services rendered in individual time entries. Pursuant to its modified retention agreement with the City, effective retroactively to October 1, 2013, Miller Canfield will charge the City the lesser of (a) standard hourly rates for all of lawyers; and (b) a blended hourly rate of $395 per hour for all non-bankruptcy lawyers and standard hourly rates for all bankruptcy lawyers. Miller Canfield’s billing rates, including the blended hourly rate, may be adjusted annually, in accordance with typical, annual rate increases, as permitted by paragraph 12 of the Fee Review Order; however, Miller Canfield will not increase the blended hourly rate by more than 3% this year.

With regard to the Fee Examiner’s comments concerning billing categories and the insufficiency of certain service descriptions, Miller Canfield revised its Invoice to correct the billing categories and provide additional detail of the services rendered. Miller Canfield also voluntarily removed some of the time entries for which it sought compensation. Miller Canfield’s revised March 2014 Monthly Invoice addresses all of the issues raised by the Fee Examiner in the Preliminary Report.

14. Milliman, Inc. (“Milliman”) (Exhibit F)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	None
Original Fee Request	$78,526.20
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	$0.00

Original Expense Request	$0.00
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	N/A
Final Expense Request	$0.00
Total Fee and Expense Request	$78,526.20

On June 24, 2014 the Fee Examiner sent Milliman the March 2014 Preliminary Report (the “Preliminary Report”) respecting its March 2014 Invoice, asking Milliman to provide an explanation of the work performed by professionals whose billed entries totaled less than an hour for the entire month, as it was difficult to assessment the reasonableness of the time spent in those circumstances. The Fee Examiner also once again asked Milliman to consider providing a discounted rate for its services, as the City is not receiving any discount on the work Milliman performs. Milliman provided written comments in response to the Preliminary Report providing the additional explanations as requested, although Milliman continues to decline to provide a discounted rate to the City, as suggested by the Fee Examiner. There are no further unresolved issues respecting Milliman’s Invoice.

15. Pepper Hamilton LLP (“Pepper”) (Exhibit G).

Initial Voluntary Discounts	10% Discount Using 2013 Professional Rates

Original Expense Request	$743.94
Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$743.94
Total Fee and Expense Request	$195,536.34

In the Preliminary Report regarding Pepper’s March 2014 Monthly Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and suggested certain revisions related to the sufficiency of various service descriptions, including identifying communications between Pepper professionals and other professionals in the case. In response to the Fee Examiner’s suggestions and requests, Pepper made substantial revisions to the March 2014 Monthly Invoice, including providing more detailed descriptions of the particular services performed by Pepper professionals. Based upon the foregoing revisions, Pepper has fully complied with the terms of the Court’s Fee Review Order for the compensation period of March 2014.

16. Ernst & Young (“EY”) (Exhibit H)

On July 2, 2014, the Fee Examiner served the Preliminary Report regarding the March 2014 Invoice of EY, contained a spreadsheet identifying specific issues and suggested revisions to particular time and expense entries that were vague, incomplete, improperly categorized or inconsistent with other time and expense entries. The Preliminary Report also contained a narrative (“Narrative”) that raised general issues with the March Invoice and (i) requested an explanation on certain redactions reflected in the Invoice; (ii) raised concern over the amount of compensation sought by EY in order to comply with the Fee Review Order (“Fee Review Compensation”); and (iii) requested an explanation on the need for multiple EY professionals to attend the same conference calls and meetings; and (iv) requested further information on EY’s arrangement with the City for expert witness services.

² Under the terms of EY’s engagement agreement with the City, the monthly fees of EY are “subject to a 10% holdback that will be payable upon the confirmation of a Plan of Adjustment of Debts by the Bankruptcy Court by December 31, 2014. In the event a Plan of Adjustment of Debts is not confirmed by December 31, 2014, the cumulative holdback amount will not be payable.”

On July 18, 2014, EY provided the Fee Examiner with a written response to the Preliminary Report. EY’s response included a supporting spreadsheet that mirrored the Fee Examiner’s spreadsheet, responded to each of the Fee Examiner’s comments on particular time and expense entries, and detailed specific revisions and adjustments that EY agreed to make to its March Invoice in order to address the Fee Examiner’s concerns. EY’s response also included a response to the Narrative that (i) provided the requested information on the redactions; (ii) offered a $32,000 reduction of the Fee Review Compensation; (iii) justified the need for the participation of multiple EY professionals in conference calls and meetings; and (iv) provided the requested information on EY’s arrangement with the City for expert witness services. On the basis of EY’s response and agreed adjustments to its invoice, EY has fully complied with the terms of the Court’s Fee Review Order for the compensation period of March 2014.

Total Fee and Expense Request	$6,320.00

On June 24, 2014 the Fee Examiner sent Kilpatrick the March 2014 Preliminary Report respecting the March Invoice, in which the Fee Examiner asked Kilpatrick to revise the Invoice to provide more descriptive summaries for services rendered in various time entries, and to “unlump” some entries to break down the time spent performing multiple tasks. Kilpatrick provided written comments in response to the Preliminary Report, adding more detail to those entries identified in the Preliminary Report and making additional revisions. Kilpatrick later incorporated the Fee Examiner’s comments into its revised and final Invoice. The revised Invoice addresses all of the Fee Examiner’s concerns and there are no unresolved issues.

18. Ottenwess, Taweel & Schenk, PLC (“Ottenwess”) (Exhibit J)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	Capped Rate of $225/hour

In the Preliminary Report regarding Ottenwess’ March 2014 Monthly Invoice, the Fee Examiner had no comments or suggested revisions for Ottenwess. As a result, Ottenwess has fully complied with the terms of the Court’s Fee Review Order for the compensation period of March 2014.

19. Dykema Gossett, PLLC (“Dykema”) (Exhibit K)

On June 6, 2014, Dykema submitted its March invoice to the Fee Examiner, and on July 1, 2014, the Fee Examiner transmitted the Preliminary Report regarding Dykema’s March Invoice to Dykema. In the Preliminary Report, the Fee Examiner stated that he had no comments or suggested revisions to Dykema’s invoice. However, the Fee Examiner did request that Dykema provide an affirmative statement acknowledging that it had complied with the Fee Review Order in connection with the compensation and expense reimbursement requested in the invoice. Dykema promptly provided the requested acknowledgment. Accordingly, Dykema has fully complied with the terms of the Court’s Fee Review Order for the compensation period of March 2014.

Committee Professionals

20. Dentons US LLP (“Dentons”) (Exhibit L)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	None
Original Fee Request	$1,085,269.50
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	$885.00
Final Fee Request	$1,084,384.50
Original Expense Request	$93,143.92
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$93,143.92
Total Fee and Expense Request	$1,177,528.42

The Fee Examiner reviewed the March 2014 Invoice of Dentons and raised several issues in his Preliminary Report, including, but not limited to: (i) the practice of billing for services rendered in connection with monitoring press reports, preparing summaries of media coverage, and preparing and responding to press reports (“Media Activities”) (in excess of $27,000); (ii) the use of the Mediation fee category, which the Fee Examiner believed is confusing and potentially too broad; and (iii) issues with respect to individual time entries and expenses (including, e.g., insufficient detail about the tasks performed, unreasonable time, incorrect categorization, improper allocation of resources, duplicative time entries, internal inconsistencies, and unreasonable or non-compensable expenses).

In response to the Fee Examiner’s comment on the Media Activities, Dentons reiterated its position that “[p]er the Mediators, press efforts are vital to this case and for communicating with retirees generally,” and further, that “press management is a critical communication tool for the more than 23,500 retirees and 7,000 beneficiaries who are Committee constituents.” The Fee Examiner respectfully disagrees that a law firm should be undertaking these efforts. As the Fee Examiner has stated previously, certain Media Activities fall within the scope of providing legal services, such as reviewing and advising on press reports prepared by a client, while others tasks do not, such as drafting the entire press report and reviewing newspaper articles on the bankruptcy case. The Fee Examiner thus does not believe that the fees charged for the Media Activities are reasonable.

With respect to the Mediation category, Dentons has agreed to revise the category summary to indicate that the Retiree Committee was involved in only two mediations—one involving pension issues and the other healthcare issues. Because of the related nature and limited number of the proceedings, the Fee Examiner agrees that it is reasonable to include them in the same category.

Finally, with respect to individual time entries and expenses, Dentons has either reduced or written off such time entry, revised the description, or provided an adequate explanation with respect to the Fee Examiner’s comments on such time entry or expense.

21. Brooks Wilkins Sharkey & Turco, PLLC (“Brooks Wilkins”) (Exhibit M)

Initial Voluntary Discounts (in addition to general rate reduction discount)	None
Original Fee Request	$69,972.50

Final Fee Request	$69,972.50
Original Expense Request	$594.76
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$594.76
Total Fee and Expense Request	$70,567.26

The Fee Examiner reviewed the March 2014 Invoice for Brooks Wilkins and identified several issues and made certain requests of Brooks Wilkins in his Preliminary Report with respect to certain individual time entries (e.g., insufficient description, incorrect categories, and potentially duplicative services). In response, Brooks Wilkins either revised the description or provided an adequate explanation with respect to the Fee Examiner’s comments on such time entry. As a result of the response from Brooks Wilkins, there are no open issues with respect to the March 2014 Invoice.

22. Lazard Freres & Co. LLC (“Lazard”) (Exhibit N)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	None
Original Fee Request	$175,000.00

Total Fee and Expense Request	$190,897.13

With respect to Lazard’s March 2014 Invoice, the Fee Examiner made several suggestions, intended to be applicable to future invoices, with respect to Lazard’s descriptions of certain travel expenses. There are no open issues with respect to the March 2014 Invoice.

23. Segal Consulting (“Segal”) (Exhibit O)

Initial Voluntary Discounts	None
Original Fee Request	$295,316.00
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	$0.00
Final Fee Request	$295,316.00
Original Expense Request	$13,009.40
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$13,009.40
Total Fee and Expense Request	$308,325.40

On June 30, 2014 the Fee Examiner sent Segal the March Preliminary Report. In the March Preliminary Report, the Fee Examiner requested that Segal provide summary descriptions of the Invoice’s billing categories—summaries that had traditionally been included in Segal’s submissions, but were omitted from the March Invoice—and provide detail for several categories of expenses. In particular, Segal sought reimbursement for hotel expenses and ground transportation, but had not provided any detail regarding those expenses in the Invoice. Segal submitted a response to the March Preliminary Report providing the summary descriptions requested by the Fee Examiner, and adding detail to its expense request for hotel, ground transportation and taxi expenses. The Fee Examiner is satisfied with Segal’s expense descriptions and its summary descriptions of the Invoice’s billing categories. There are no unresolved issues.
