8 Catalina, Rolnick Kramer Sadighi, for the majority shareholders 1 and in connection with the 9024 motion Elafonissos Shipping 2 Corporation. I'm joined by Rich Bodnar with my firm. And we 3 have a few summer associates listening in too. 4 5 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning, everyone. MS. MOSS: Good morning, Your Honor. Tina Moss of 6 7 Perkins Coie, on behalf of Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, as indenture trustee. 8 THE COURT: Good morning. 9 Did anyone else wish to appear? 10 There are three matters that the Court is going 11 to address today. The first is the June 25th, 2025 order from 12 the Second Circuit that came out last week. The second is the 13 motion of Elafonissos for relief from the Court orders. 14 15 motion is at docket 1569. And the third is the motion to amend the Court's foreign opposition sanctions order to increase 16 sanctions. That's at docket number 1602. 17 First, the Court has received several letters at 18 docket numbers 1705, 1706, and 1707 regarding the June 25th, 19 2025 order from the United States Court of Appeals for the 20 Second Circuit in appellate case numbers 25-176 and 25-445. 21 In the June 25th order, the Second Circuit stated in part that, 22 "We decline to grant appellant's request to stay the district 23 court or bankruptcy court proceedings but trust that both 24 courts will tailor their proceedings to protect the privileged 25 property at issue." As to this Court, the potential privileged property at issue relates to this Court's June 11th, 2025 order authorizing and directing Microsoft Corporation to provide administrator-level account access to Eletson Holdings Inc. and its designee, which is at docket number 1691 in this case and the June 2nd, 2025 oral decision of this Court at docket number 1695, which is incorporated therein.

ELETSON HOLDINGS INC., ET AL.

On June 25th, 2025, purported Provisional Eletson Holdings Inc. filed a notice of appeal at docket number 1703 "from each and every part" of this Court's June 11th, 2025 order and the June 2nd, 2025 oral decision. In In re: Sabine case number 16-2561, 2016 WL 4203551 at *6 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 9, 2016), the district court explained:

"The filing of a bankruptcy appeal confers jurisdiction on the appellate court and divests the trial court of control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal." In re: Winmo Realty Corp., 270 B.R. 99, 105 (S.D.N.Y. 2001). Internal citation omitted. See also In re: Emergency Beacon 58 B.R. 399, 402 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986). ("Once a notice of appeal is filed, no lower court should be able to vacate or modify an order under appeal, not even a bankruptcy court attempting to eliminate the need for a particular appeal.") Internal citation omitted. Bankruptcy courts do not retain exclusive concurrent jurisdiction with the district court over the subject matter of an appeal. In re: Emergency Beacon, 58 B.R. at 402. In re: Adelphia Communications Corp., 6-4983, 2007 WL 4615604 at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 2007). But the bankruptcy courts do retain jurisdiction to decide issues different from those on appeal."

That entire quote is from Sabine, and there is certain bracketed language that was added for context. Based on Sabine, this Court finds that because of the notice of appeal that has been filed at docket 1703, this Court is without jurisdiction to consider the privilege issues raised by the parties.

Bankruptcy Rule 8008(a), entitled, "Motion for Relief When an Appeal Is Pending; Bankruptcy Courts Options", provides that if a party files a timely motion for relief in the bankruptcy court that the court lacks authority to grant because an appeal has been docketed and is pending, the bankruptcy court may, (1), defer considering the motion, (2), deny the motion, (3), state that it would grant the motion if the court where the appeal is pending remands for that purpose, or (4), state that the motion raises a substantial issue.

The Court will consider the letters raising the privilege issues to be a motion for relief, and based on the notice of appeal that has been filed at docket 1703, the Court finds that pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 8008(a), it is appropriate for this Court to defer ruling on any issue related to the June 11th order, pending the district court decision on the appeal of the June 11th order and the June 2nd oral decision incorporated therein. The Court also believes that the district court is best situated to consider these issues in connection with the other privilege issues pending in the district court. This Court assumes that all parties have complied with, and will continue to comply with the Second Circuit's June 25th, 2025 order.

The Court will now turn to the Elafonissos motion. So before the Court is the motion of Elafonissos Shipping

Corporation for relief from the Court's orders of January 29th,

2025 and March 13th, 2025, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil

Procedure 60(b)(4) and Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure

9024, which we will refer to as the motion for relief or the motion. It's at docket number 1569. In support of the motion is the declaration of Ioannis Zilakos at exhibit B.

In opposition to the motion is Eletson Holding Holdings Inc.'s objection to motion of Elafonissos Shipping Corporation for relief from the Court's orders of January 29th, 2025 and March 13th, 2025, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(4) and Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9024. We will refer to this as the objection. That's at docket number 1622. In response to the objection, Elafonissos filed its reply to motion for relief from the Court orders of January 29th, 2025 and March 13th, 2025, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(4) and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9024, which we will refer to as the reply, which can be found at docket number 1625.

A hearing was held on the motion on April 30th, 2025, and the transcript of the April 30th hearing is at docket number 1636. To address the recent Supreme Court decision in Fuld v. Palestine Liberation Organization, 606 U.S. 2025 WL 1716140 (Jun. 20, 2025). The Court issued an order regarding supplemental submissions directing the parties to file letters addressing the recent Supreme Court decision. That order is at docket 1701. Reorganized Eletson Holdings filed this letter addressing the full decision at docket 1708. Elafonissos did not file a letter by the date ordered by the Court, but it did file a letter yesterday afternoon at docket 1710, which the Court will consider in connection with this ruling.

This motion presents in the context of a motion for reconsideration the question of whether debtor Eletson Holdings Inc.'s foreign former minority shareholder, Elafonissos Shipping Corp., which received and returned a ballot in connection with Chapter 11 plan confirmation, which petitioned a foreign court post-confirmation for the appointment of a purported provisional board for the debtor that had voluntarily appeared before this Court, and which does not deny having actual knowledge and notice of all relevant motions, orders, and proceedings before this Court, whether it has been properly served and is subject to personal jurisdiction in this court.

ELETSON HOLDINGS INC., ET AL.

For the reasons to be described, based upon the motion, the objection, and the arguments made at the hearing and the record as a whole, the motion for relief is denied, and the Court finds that Elafonissos has been properly served and is subject to personal jurisdiction before this Court. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Sections 1334 and 157(a) and (b)(1) and the Amended Standing Order of Reference dated January 31st, 2012. This is a court proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 157(b)(2)(L). The instant case has a long and complicated history. The Court will set forth certain facts relevant to the motion for relief, and the Court presumes familiarity with facts not necessarily discussed

The debtor is part of an international shipping enterprise, referred to as the Eletson enterprise. See, for instance, the memorandum opinion and order denying purported Provisional Holdings', Reed Smith's, and the former majority shareholders' motion for stay of enforcement of the January 29th, 2025 order pending appeal at docket number 1520. The Eletson enterprise collectively owns and operates a fleet of gas tanker ships engaged in the business of shipping refined petroleum products and crude oil. See id.

On September 6th, 2023, the debtors stipulated to conversion of then-pending involuntary Chapter 7 cases to voluntary Chapter 11 cases. See ECF docket number 204 and see also docket number 215. The debtors' shareholders at the time of conversion included Elafonissos Shipping Corporation. See ECF docket number 1300. On July 5th, 2024, the former debtors filed a disclosure statement in connection with their Chapter 11 plan. That's at ECF docket number 839. They also filed the second amended joint plan of reorganization of debtors under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code on September 11th, 2024. We'll refer to it as the former debtors' Chapter 11 plan. ECF docket number 1111.

On July 8th, 2024, the petitioning creditors filed a disclosure statement in connection with their competing Chapter 11 plan at ECF docket number 847. On September 24th, 2024, certain petitioning creditors filed the petitioning creditors' amended joint Chapter 11 plan of reorganization of Eletson Holdings Inc. and its affiliated debtors, PCs' Chapter 11 plan, we will call it, together with the former debtors' Chapter 11 plan, we will refer to as the competing Chapter 11 plans. That's ECF docket number 1132. Under the petitioning creditors' plan, Elafonissos' existing interest in Eletson Holdings was to be extinguished post-confirmation. See ECF docket number 1132.

On July 10th, 2024, after the filing of the disclosure statements and order related to the joint solicitation of votes on the competing Chapter 11 plans was entered. The joint solicitation order is at docket number 856. The joint solicitation order included instructions and forms of ballots to cast votes in support of, or in opposition to the competing Chapter 11 plans. In the joint solicitation order, parties owning equity interests in the former debtors, including Elafonissos, which then held a three-percent interest in the debtor, see ECF docket number 802, they were permitted to submit their vote using the class 7/9 ballot. Again, see joint solicitation order. This ballot included instructions on how to vote on the competing Chapter 11 plans.

The joint solicitation order also authorized Verita Global as the voting agent responsible for distributing voting instructions to Elafonissos and to solicit Elafonissos' votes on the Chapter 11 plans, amongst other responsibilities. See the joint solicitation order at paragraph 3. Thus, on July 17th, 2024, Verita Global served Elafonissos with the competing Chapter 11 plans, the ballot, and the joint solicitation order. That's at docket number 932. Elafonissos was served via First-Class Mail, "First-Class Mail at 118 Kolokotroni Street, Piraeus, Greece, consistent with the joint solicitation order's direction that distribute solicitation packages via regular mail and electronic mail where available." That's from the objection at paragraph 12, referencing the joint solicitation order at paragraph 8.

On August 1st, 2024, Ioannis Zilakos submitted the class 7/9 ballot on behalf of Elafonissos, certifying that 16 Elafonissos' mailing address is at 118 Kolokotroni Street, 1 Piraeus, Greece and Elafonissos' email address is 2 "ioannis.zilakos@eletson.com". That's the Zilakos email 3 address, we'll refer to it as. See ECF docket number 1304, 4 Borriello declaration, exhibit 10, the Elafonissos ballot. 5 Elafonissos voted to accept the former debtors' Chapter 11 plan 6 7 and certified that Elafonissos had "received the disclosure statements and associated notices." That's from the 8 Elafonissos ballot at 5 to 6. It should be noted that 9 Elafonissos never raised any objection that Verita Global had 10 served it with the ballot and joint solicitation order at its 11 mailing address in Greece and at the Zilakos email address. 12 On October 25th, 2024, the Court issued the memorandum 13 opinion and order confirming petitioning creditors' amended 14 15 joint 11 Chapter plan -- Chapter 11 plan of reorganization of Eletson Holdings Inc., the Chapter 11 plan, which is found at 16 ECF docket number 1212. On November 4th, 2024, the Court 17 18 entered the order confirming petitioning creditors' amended joint Chapter 11 plan of Eletson Holdings Inc. and its 19 affiliated debtors, which we'll refer to as the confirmation 20 order, at ECF docket number 1223. 21 The confirmation order found that the solicitation of 22 23 votes served by Verita Global in "good faith and in compliance with" the joint solicitation order and that "transmittal and 24 service were due timely, adequate, and sufficient, based upon the circumstances of the Chapter 11 cases." That's from the confirmation order recital (e). Confirmation order states in relevant part that the "debtors and the petitioning creditors and each of their respective related parties, which included Elafonissos, are hereby directed to cooperate in good faith to implement and consummate the plan" and bracketed language added for context. That's from the confirmation order, paragraph 5(i).

Further, on November 4th, 2024, the confirmation order was served on Elafonissos via "First-Class mail at the Piraeus Street address indicated on the ballot by Reorganized Eletson Holdings Inc." See ECF docket number 1236, the affidavit of service of Ronaldo Lizarraga Angulo re findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order confirming petitioning creditors' amended joint Chapter 11 plan of Eletson Holdings Inc. and its affiliated debtors.

On November 11th, 2024. Elafonissos and Keros Shipping Corporation, which we'll refer to as Keros, and together with Elafonissos, we'll refer to as the former minority shareholders, they petitioned the Court of First Instance in Piraeus, Greece, which we'll refer to as the Greek court, for an order appointing an interim board of directors to "manage Eletson Holdings". That's from ECF docket number 1343, TX 81, an excerpt of the Greek order.

The former minority shareholders sought to appoint this provisional board to "challenge" the Chapter 11 plan, "as well as the confirmation order", amongst other reasons. See id. On November 13th, 2024, the Greek court signed an order appointing the purported Provisional Eletson Holdings Inc. board to manage Eletson Holdings. See id. The purported provisional board of directors was comprised of former Eletson Holdings Inc.'s shareholders and members, including Ioannis Zilakos from Elafonissos.

After the repeated failure of the former debtors and their former shareholders, directors, managers, and others to comply with the confirmation order, this Court issued a ruling on January 24th, 2025, there is a January 24th hearing transcript, finding that Reorganized Eletson Holdings Inc. is the Eletson Holdings and that certain parties, including former shareholders, are bound by the confirmation order pursuant to Sections 1141 and 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code to assist in implementing the plan. See ECF docket number 1405, the January 24th hearing transcript, page 26, lines 16 through 21, and page 28, lines 13 through 20.

The Court also found that arguments related to "international comity" were unfounded because -- and I'm quoting the January 24th hearing transcript -- "while counsel argues that Section 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code applies to just state preemption, this argument misses the point because the Court is not seeking to displace foreign law here with this Court's order but to enforce the confirmation order, which may involve implementing corporate acts in a foreign jurisdiction."

That's the January 24th hearing transcript at page 34, lines 2 through 7.

Subsequently, on January 29th, 2025, this Court entered an order, the January 29th order, pursuant to Section 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code, directing certain parties, including the former minority shareholders and the former majority shareholders, Glafkos Trust Company, Lassia Investment Company, Family Unity Trust Company, as I said, those are the former majority shareholders, together with the former minority shareholders, we will refer to them all as the former shareholders, to comply with the confirmation order and Chapter 11 plan and "to assist in effectuating, implementing, and consummating the terms thereof." That's from docket number 1402.

The Court further ordered that the "debtors and the related parties, including, without limitation, the ordered parties, are authorized, required, and directed to take all steps reasonably necessary, as requested by Reorganized Eletson Holdings, to unconditionally support the effectuation, implementation, and consummation of the plan", including at that time by taking all steps reasonably necessary to update or amend the address of record known as the AOR and update or amend the corporate governance documents with LISCR. See id.

ELETSON HOLDINGS INC., ET AL.

As noted earlier, the Court stated in the January 24th, 2025 ruling that the former minority shareholders had sought relief from the Greek court to appoint the temporary board to manage the company. See January 24th hearing transcript, page 22, lines 23 through 25, and page 23, lines 1 through 2. Mr. Ioannis Zilakos signed the declaration in connection with the motion for relief and was a member of the purported provisional board. See the objection, paragraph 14, note 9.

Further, on February 20th, '25, February 20th, 2025, in the February 20th decision, the Court issued a subsequent decision implementing the confirmation order. That's at docket number 1468, which is the hearing transcript. In relevant part, the Court ordered that certain parties were directed to cooperate with Reorganized Eletson Holdings in implementing the terms of the confirmation order on the Chapter 11 plan. See the February 20th hearing transcript at page 105, lines 5 through 25, page 106, lines 1 through 25, and page 107, lines 1 through 21.

The Court determined in the February 20th decision that service upon the former majority shareholders and purported Provisional Eletson Holdings was appropriate because for instance, as to the purported provisional board, in their capacity as former, or in their view, the current board members of Eletson Holdings Inc., they had voluntarily submitted to the jurisdiction of the Court. See docket number 1505, the February 20th hearing transcript, page 90, lines 22 through 94, line 1.

Due to various parties' noncompliance with this Court's orders and the confirmation order, the Court issued a ruling on March 12th, 2025, finding that, inter alia, the "former minority shareholders have failed to cooperate in good faith to implement and consummate the Chapter 11 plan and in fact have taken actions, for instance, the original action seeking to establish the purported provisional board to oppose the confirmation order." That's from docket number 1564, the March 12th hearing transcript, page 64, lines 12 through 17.

The Court also found, based on foreign proceedings initiated by and/or furthered by the former minority shareholders, that Elafonissos and Keros have "collaterally attacked" confirmation order and Chapter 11 plan in pleadings filed in other countries. Again, see the March 12th hearing transcript, page 65, lines 7 through 25, and page 66, line 1 through 24. The Court also addressed issues with respect to service, finding that, "claims about service and/or notice have previously been addressed by the Court in the February 20th decision." That's from the March 12th hearing transcript at page 60, lines 8 to 23.

Thereafter, on March 13th, 2025, this Court entered an order, which we'll refer to as the March 13th order, and together with the January 29th order, we'll refer to as the orders. This March 13th order imposing coercive monetary sanctions against certain parties, including the former minority shareholders, for "ongoing violations of confirmation order and the January 29th order for the reasons set forth in the March 12th decision." That's from docket number 1537.

The Court notes that on June 6th, 2025, the Court of First Instance of Piraeus in Greece issued a decision dismissing the November 11th, 2024 ex parte petition that had been filed by the former minority shareholders seeking the provisional board to manage Eletson Holdings after the confirmation order had been entered. See docket number 1697, which is the Greek court decision. The Greek court decision states in relevant part that, "The claim that the voluntary bankruptcy of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York, on October 25th, 2024 and the Court order of November 4th, 2024 have no legal effect in Greece is unfounded." See id.

The Court now turns to the arguments in support of the motion and the objection filed in opposition thereto. The motion for relief asserts that, one, Elafonissos moved timely under Rule 60(b)(4). See motion, paragraph 22. That the January 29th Order and March 13th order are void because the Court does not have personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos because it was not served properly under the Hague Convention pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7004. That's from the motion at paragraph 29. And that even if service was effectuated under the Hague, the Court lacks personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos because Elafonissos does not have the requisite "minimum contacts" with the U.S., and therefore exercising personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos "would be inconsistent with due process". That's from the motion at paragraph 34.

Reorganized Eletson Holdings filed an objection to the motion, arguing that, one, the motion cannot be granted as a matter of law because there is a pending appeal of the January 29th order and March 13th order. Two, Elafonissos has not met its burden pursuant to Rule 60(b)(4) in moving for relief. Three, this Court has personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos because Elafonissos subjected itself to the jurisdiction of the Court during the pendency of pre-confirmation Chapter 11 case, during which jurisdictional objections were never raised, and the "orders that are the subject of the motion were expressly entered by the Court in order to enforce Elafonissos' and others' obligations under the confirmation order." That's from the objection at paragraph 57. And they also argue, four, that Elafonissos cannot arque that service is improper due to not being served under the Haque because due process was satisfied by actual notice. See the objection, paragraph 61 through 62.

In the reply, Elafonissos responds by arguing that, one, the argument that the motion cannot be granted as a matter

24 of law is unfounded because the January 29th order and March 1 13th order were not appealed by Elafonissos, and therefore, no 2 appeal is pending as to Elafonissos. That's from the reply of 3 paragraph 8. That Elafonissos did not implicitly consent to 4 personal jurisdiction because Elafonissos did not file any 5 "claims, objections, or motions in the bankruptcy case". 6 7 That's from the reply at paragraph 10. And that the Court cannot exercise personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos because 8 they were not properly served. That's from the reply at 9 paragraph 18. 10 The Court finds that the motion for relief should be 11 denied because the movant has not met its burden for 12 13 reconsideration pursuant to Rule 60(b)(4) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. First, the Court finds that 14 15 Elafonissos has not met the standard under Federal Rule 60(b)(4). I'm sorry. The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. 16 Second, the Court finds that it has personal jurisdiction over 17

So Reorganized Eletson Holdings argues that the motion cannot be granted as a matter of law due to the pending appeals of the January 29th order and the March 13th order. That's from the objection at paragraph 35 and paragraph 37.

Bankruptcy Rule 8008 states that if a party files a timely motion in the bankruptcy court for relief that the court lacks authority to grant because an appeal has been docketed and is pending, the bankruptcy court may, (1), defer considering the motion, (2), deny the motion, (3), state that it would grant the motion if the Court where the appeal is pending remands for that purpose, or (4), state that the motion raises a substantial issue.

Courts have held that while there is an appeal pending, the bankruptcy court cannot rule on the merits of a motion for reconsideration. As I discussed earlier in In re: Sabine, the district court held that, "The filing of a bankruptcy appeal confers jurisdiction on the appellate court and divests the trial court of control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal." That's Sabine Oil and Gas, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 105029 at 21 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 8, 2016).

In the reply, Elafonissos argues that the trial court is only divested "of control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal". And in this case, the matters in the motion are not aspects involved in the appeal. That's from their reply paragraph 7, citing Sabine at *21. (Determining that "the bankruptcy courts do retain jurisdiction to decide issues different from those on appeal"). Elafonissos further argues that since it has not yet appealed the orders, no appeal is pending as to Elafonissos, and the motion is not moot as a matter of law. That's from the reply, paragraph 8.

The Court agrees with Reorganized Eletson Holdings that the appeals of the January 29th order and the March 13th order include "broad statements of issues with respect to the appeals of both orders that affect the Court's jurisdiction generally", and a determination of those issues could materially affect or impact the impact of the order. That's from the objection, paragraph 37. However, while the issues on appeal may be broad, the Court finds that it is not clear that the issue of personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos is an aspect of the appeals, and therefore the Court retains jurisdiction over that issue. The Court will thus consider the merits of the motion.

Elafonissos moves under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure (b)(4), made applicable by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9024, for relief from the January 29th order and the March 13th order as they apply to Elafonissos. That's from the motion, paragraph 22. Rule 60(b)(4) provides that "the court may relieve a party or its legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons, including if the judgment is void", and bracketed language added. That's from Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(4).

The Supreme Court has held that Rule 60(b)(4) applies "only in the rare instance where a judgment is premised either on a certain type of jurisdictional error or on a violation of due process that deprives the party of notice or the opportunity to be heard". That's United Student Aid Funds v. Espinosa, 559 U.S. 260, 271 (2010). However, Rule 60(b)(4) motions that assert that orders are void due to jurisdictional defects are appropriate only in the "exceptional case in which the court that rendered judgment lacked even an arguable basis for jurisdiction". That's from id. The Second Circuit has found that "a judgment may be declared void for jurisdictional defect only when there is a total want of jurisdiction and no arguable basis on which the court could have rested a finding that it had jurisdiction". That's Securities and Exchange Commission v. Romeril, 15 F.4th 166, 171 (2d Cir. 2021).

Elafonissos asserts that the Court should determine that the January 29th order and the March 13th order are void "because the orders are void as to Elafonissos for lack of personal jurisdiction". That's from the motion at paragraph 2. However, the Court agrees with Reorganized Eletson Holdings that Elafonissos has not met its burden to establish that "exceptional circumstances exist" pursuant to Rule 60(b)(4) for reconsideration. That's from the objection at paragraph 42. Indeed, this Court finds, contrary to Elafonissos' arguments, this Court finds here that it has personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos.

Elafonissos argues that the orders are void as to it, as "The Court entered the orders without personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos because one, Elafonissos was not served with process in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 7004 and two, Elafonissos does not have sufficient contacts with the U.S.

such that the Court can exercise jurisdiction over it." That's from the motion in paragraph 23. In response, Reorganized Eletson Holdings argues that, one, Elafonissos consented to this Court's jurisdiction by participating in the confirmation process and had received notice of the confirmation order, and two, Elafonissos received actual notice of the January 29th order and the March 13th order sufficient to establish service. That's from the objection, paragraphs 52, 63.

The Court will first address the issue of whether Elafonissos had actual notice of the orders. Reorganized Eletson Holdings asserts that Elafonissos' argument that the order should be vacated because "Elafonissos was not served with process in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules and the Hague Convention, which Elafonissos argues precludes personal jurisdiction," but that argument should be rejected because Elafonissos received actual notice sufficient to satisfy due process requirements. That's from the objection paragraph 60, 62. Reorganized Eletson Holdings further argues that even if a party is "not served pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7004", the Supreme Court has concluded that receipt of "actual notice" is sufficient to satisfy due process. That's from the objection at paragraph 62.

First, the Court agrees that here, there has been sufficient notice to satisfy due process. United States Aid Funds v. Espinosa, court held that the parties' "actual notice of the filing and contents of the plan at issue more than satisfied its due process rights. Thus, Espinosa's failure to make the required service does not entitle United to relief under Rule 60(b)(4)." That's from United Student Aid Funds v. Espinosa, 559 U.S. at 261. The Supreme Court further stated that the complainant there "had actual notice of the filing of Espinosa's plan, its contents, and the bankruptcy court's subsequent confirmation of the plan", and therefore could not hide behind its could not hide behind its argument that it did not receive sufficient notice. That's from id at 275.

Here, Elafonissos has clearly had actual notice of the confirmation order from which the January 29th Order and March 13th order flow. A party who has had actual notice of pleadings in related hearings is deemed to have received sufficient notice. See In re: Kirwan, 592 B.R. 489, 502 (S.D.N.Y. 2018), determining that the movant had actual notice of the confirmation hearing due to his participation in earlier related matters.

Elafonissos responded to the ballot that was served at the Greek address and the Zilakos email address and submitted in vote favor of the former debtors' Chapter 11 plan. That's from the objection paragraph 63, note 22. ("Elafonissos had actual notice of the first and third sanctioned motions defined therein, which were provided to Elafonissos via First-Class Mail and email and the Piraeus Street address and Zilakos email address indicated on the Elafonissos ballot"). Further, Elafonissos raised no objection to being served at the Piraeus Street address before confirmation and in fact, "Elafonissos sent the Elafonissos ballot back to Verita for its vote to be tabulated and sent to the Court". That's from the April 30th hearing transcript, page 40, lines 7 through 12.

Court also finds it persuasive that the Zilakos declaration "does not say that Elafonissos did not receive the relevant materials or have actual notice". That's also from the April 30th hearing transcript at page 40, lines 18 through 20.

Second, the Court notes that the Greek address is the same address used by purported Provisional Eletson Holdings in connection with certain filings made with LISCR and the same address purported Provisional Eletson Holdings used as their own address in Greek court -- in the Greek court while petitioning for the appointment of the provisional board to manage Eletson Holdings, as discussed earlier, which petition has since been dismissed by the Greek court. See docket number 1343, TX 81 and TX 140, and see also docket number 1697.

The Court believes that this is sufficient notice for a party that has voluntarily appeared before this Court in connection with the Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceeding. Thus, Elafonissos had actual notice of the January 29th order and the March 13th order through its voluntary meaningful participation in the Chapter 11 plan confirmation process and had received service at the Greek address and the Zilakos email address, which have been used to serve Elafonissos earlier in the case.

The Supreme Court has recognized three distinct bases for exercising personal jurisdiction "over an out-of-forum defendant in accordance with the dictates of due process, general jurisdiction, specific jurisdiction, and consent."

That's from Fuld v. Palestine Liberation Organization, 82 F.4th 74, 86. That's from the Second Circuit, 2023, reversed and remanded by the Supreme Court on other grounds at Fuld v.

Palestine Liberation Organization, 2025 WL 1716140 (Jun. 20th, 2025), determining that the Supreme Court need not determine whether the PLO may have implicitly consented to jurisdiction.

This Court will address implied consent and specific jurisdiction. A defendant may consent to jurisdiction through litigation-related conduct. That's from Fuld, 82 F.4th at 90, finding that "consent-based personal jurisdiction does not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice and is therefore consistent with Constitutional due process." Reorganized Eletson Holdings argues that Elafonissos "waived any personal-jurisdiction-based defense" and implicitly consented to this Court's jurisdiction. That's from the objection at paragraph 54.

The Court agrees. Here, Elafonissos voluntarily participated in proceedings before this Court in connection with and after the Chapter 11 plan hearings. As stated earlier, Ioannis Zilakos submitted a class 7/9 ballot on behalf of Elafonissos on August 1st, 2024 in connection with the Chapter 11 plan confirmation proceedings. That's at ECF docket number 1300, which is the ballot. Elafonissos voted to accept the former debtors' Chapter 11 plan, which was ultimately not confirmed over the petitioning creditors' Chapter 11 plan. See the Elafonissos ballot at 5 through 6.

In connection with the Chapter 11 plan confirmation proceedings, Elafonissos certified that it had "received the disclosure statements and associated notices". Id.

Additionally, upon confirmation of PCs' Chapter 11 plan, Elafonissos' petition for the appointment of a provisional board to manage Eletson Holdings Inc., the debtor that voluntarily submitted to the jurisdiction of this Court, to challenge the confirmation order. See ECF docket number 1343, TX 81. Thus, Elafonissos' litigation-related conduct in this case establishes that Elafonissos implicitly consented to jurisdiction. See Fuld, 82 F.4th at 89.

Moreover, the January 29th order and the March 13th order flow from the disclosure statement, the confirmation order, and the Chapter 11 plan confirmation trial and determinations, during which jurisdiction was never raised or disputed. That's from the motion, paragraph 38. Elafonissos argues that "Even if Reorganized Holdings effectuated service" under the Hague Convention", which will be discussed further below by the Court, there is no jurisdiction over Elafonissos, because Elafonissos "does not have the requisite minimum contacts with the U.S. necessary for the Court to exercise personal jurisdiction over it." That's from the motion, paragraph 34 to 35. Elafonissos further asserts that exercising personal jurisdiction over it would be "inconsistent with due process". That's from the motion at paragraph 34.

This Court disagrees with Elafonissos that personal jurisdiction cannot be established. Specifically, the Court finds that, one, minimum contacts with this forum exist, as Elafonissos subjected itself to this jurisdiction in connection with its participation in the confirmation process and its actions post-confirmation. See the objection at paragraph 52. And two, traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice do not preclude exercising personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos.

The Second Circuit employs the following analysis in determining whether a court has personal jurisdiction over a defendant. "One, whether the defendants have the requisite minimum contacts with the relevant forum such that the exercise of personal jurisdiction does not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice, and two, whether the exercise of jurisdiction is reasonable in the circumstances."

Close quote. That's In re: CIL Limited, 582 B.R. 46, 70

34 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2018), quoting International Shoe v. 1 2 Washington 326 U.S. 310, 316 (1945). To establish minimum contacts within the jurisdiction, 3 general or specific jurisdiction must be established. See SPV 4 Osus Limited v. UBS AG, 882 F.3d 333, 343 (2d Cir. 2018). 5 "Specific jurisdiction exists when a state exercises personal 6 7 jurisdiction over a defendant in a suit arising out of or related to the defendant's contacts with the forum. A court's 8 general jurisdiction, on the other hand, is based on the 9 defendant's general business contacts with the forum state." 10 And that's id, quoting MetLife Insurance v. Robertson-Ceco 11 Corp., 84 F.3d 560, 567 (2d Cir. 1996). 12 The Court notes that Reorganized Eletson Holdings Inc. 13 does not conduct the minimum contacts test in its objection to 14 15 establish that personal jurisdiction exists. Rather, Reorganized Holdings makes the argument that Elafonissos waived 16 its consent to personal jurisdiction, and Elafonissos consented 17 18 to jurisdiction in this forum by virtue of its actions, as discussed earlier. That's in paragraphs 49 and 58 of the 19 objection. 20 The Court first notes and addresses the recent Supreme 21 Court decision in Fuld v. Palestine Liberation Organization, 22 23 which broadens the court's assertion of personal jurisdiction 24 under a Fifth Amendment due process analysis. See Fuld v.

Palestine Liberation Organization, 606 U.S. 2025 WL 1716140.

In Fuld, the Supreme Court determined that because states and the federal government occupy "different sovereign spheres", it would not import the Fourteenth Amendment minimum contact standard into the Fifth Amendment. The Supreme Court went on to state that, "The due process clause of the Fifth Amendment necessarily permits a more flexible jurisdictional inquiry commensurate with the federal court's broader sovereign authority."

However, the Supreme Court declined to "delineate the outer bounds of the federal government's power, consistent with due process, to hale foreign defendants into U.S. courts," leaving courts with a broader but so far less defined due process standard under the Fifth Amendment. Further, the Supreme Court held that "any difference between the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments is therefore implicated in only a subset of federal cases, such as those in which personal jurisdiction is, as in the PSJVTA "authorized by a federal statute". That's from Fuld, 2025 WL 1716140 at *6.

Thus, even though the Supreme Court determined that the due process analysis under the Fifth Amendment is "more flexible than the minimum contacts inquiry" and Elafonissos disputes whether that applies or is relevant here and the Supreme Court did not delineate the outer bounds of the federal government power, the minimum context inquiry may continue to be relevant for this Court's analysis. At the very least, the minimum contacts inquiry should more than satisfy the "more flexible jurisdictional inquiry" under Fuld. Reorganized Eletson Holdings stated in its letter that even "if Fuld applied here, it would only operate to expand the Court's jurisdiction, not constrict it." That's from ECF docket number 1708. And as stated earlier, Elafonissos disagrees regarding the applicability of Fuld.

Here, the Court finds that specific jurisdiction exists. The inquiry whether -- "the inquiry whether a forum state may assert specific jurisdiction over a nonresident defendant "focuses on the relationship among the defendant, the forum, and the litigation." That's from Walden v. Fiore, 571 U.S. 277, 284 (2014), quoting Keeton v. Hustler, 465 U.S. 770, 775 (1984). That defendant or party "must have contact with the forum, and the underlying cause of action must arise out of or relate to that contact". That's In re: Motors liquidation Co., 565 B.R. 275, 286 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2017).

Elafonissos contacts with this forum arise from its participation in the Chapter 11 plan, confirmation proceedings, and its confirmation conduct. "The defendant's suit-related conduct must create a substantial connection with the forum state." That's from SPV Osus Limited v. UBS AG, 882 F.3d at 344. Elafonissos has had "substantial contact with this forum during the Chapter 11 confirmation proceedings and thereafter. As discussed earlier, Elafonissos participated in these proceedings, as evidenced by the submission of its ballot in support of the former debtors' Chapter 11 plan, a plan that ultimately was not confirmed, and thus, the underlying or cause of action, the January 29th order, and the March 13th order, directing compliance with the confirmation order, relate to the Chapter 11 confirmation proceedings and the post-confirmation petition that was filed seeking the appointment of a provisional board for the debtor that Elafonissos participated in. Again, see In re: Motors Liquidation, 565 B.R. at 286.

The Court agrees with Reorganized Holdings that "Orders that are the subject of the motion were expressly entered by the Court in order to enforce Elafonissos' and others obligations under the confirmation order." That's from the objection at paragraph 57. Additionally, as stated above, Elafonissos' actions as the minority shareholder to seek the appointment of the purported provisional board of the debtor that voluntarily submitted to the jurisdiction of this Court were also actions directed at this forum. See the objection at paragraph 58.

The Second Circuit has stated that "the minimum contacts inquiry is satisfied if the defendant has purposely directed his activities at residents of the forum". That's U.S. Bank National Association v. Bank of America, N.A., 916 F.3d 143, 150 (2d Cir. 2019), quoting Burger King v. Rudzewicz, 471 U.S. 462, 472 (1985). Elafonissos argument that it is not "subject to specific jurisdiction because the action complained of by Reorganized Holdings commencing litigation in Greece are not directed at the U.S." is incorrect. Elafonissos' further argument that "the purported activities of Elafonissos complained of by Reorganized Holdings consists solely of actions undertaken in foreign courts, not in the U.S." is also incorrect, as these foreign actions are directed at this forum, the implementation of the confirmation order, and the board composition of the debtor that is before this Court.

As the unsecured creditors committee noted at the April 30th hearing, Elafonissos "sought to have a competing board appointed over a debtor that is under this Court's supervision here in the United States." That's from the April 30th hearing transcript at page 46, lines 7 through 9.

Indeed, the Court finds it surprising that a threepercent minority shareholder, with apparently no other majority shareholder objecting or complaining, was able to petition a court for the entry of an order creating a provisional board to manage the debtor that is before this Court. It should be noted, too, that the principal of Elafonissos Mr. Ioannis Zilakos was appointed to the provisional board reflecting the relationship among the former shareholders and the individuals acting in concert to undermine the confirmation order.

In fact, Judge Liman, in connection with the ongoing arbitration case in the district court, Eletson Holdings v.

ELETSON HOLDINGS INC., ET AL.

Levona Holdings Ltd., determined in his findings of fact and conclusions of law in issuing an anti-suit injunction that,

"The court", referring to the district court, "The court anticipates little difficulty in concluding that Gas, Laskarina Karastamati, Vassilis Kertsikoff, Vassilis Hadjieleftheriadis, Lassia Investment Company, Family Unity Trust Company, and Glafkos Trust Company are sufficiently in privity with, in active concert with aiding or abetting interveners to bring them within range of the court's contempt power." That's from Elafonissos Holdings v. Levona Holdings, case number 23-7331, ECF docket number 413 at page 21.

Although that arose in a different context, the same seems to be the case here. Thus, the argument that personal jurisdiction has not been established is inaccurate because the January 29th order and the March 13th order flow, at least in part from the conduct initiated by Elafonissos' when it initiated an action before the Greek court to appoint the purported provisional board in reliance on and in violation of the confirmation order. See the objection at paragraph 58, quoting it, rather than helping implementation -- "Rather than helping implement the Chapter 11 plan consistent with the confirmation order following its entry, Elafonissos ran to the Greek and Liberian courts to try to stop implementation, quoting the confirmation order and seeking to oppose its recognition." Therefore, as the January 29th order and March

ELETSON HOLDINGS INC., ET AL.

13th order enforced the confirmation order, this Court has personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos based on its actions in and directed at this forum.

The Court also finds the Second Circuit decision in In re: Petrie Retail instructive on this issue. In In re: Petrie, the Second Circuit determined whether the bankruptcy court had personal jurisdiction over a creditor based on the creditor's limited involvement in the bankruptcy case. That's In re: Petrie, 304 F.3d 223, 231 (2d Cir. 2002). Luan, a creditor, disputed that the bankruptcy court could exercise personal jurisdiction over it with respect to plan confirmation. That's from id at 231. The Second Circuit determined that Luan participated in the bankruptcy case by filing claims and filing pleadings, never disputing personal jurisdiction. Id.

Ultimately, the Second Circuit determined that Luan was subject to personal jurisdiction before the bankruptcy court in the plan consummation proceedings because "in addition to submitting to the bankruptcy court's jurisdiction with regard to its claims against the estate, Luan submitted to jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court with regard to the sale order and its enforcement. Because the plan consummation motion sought enforcement of the sale order, the bankruptcy court had personal jurisdiction over Luan with regard to that motion." That's id at 232.

Chapter 11 plan confirmation, which ultimately resulted in the 1 confirmation of PCs' Chapter 11 plan and entry of the 2 confirmation order and the January 29th order and the March 3 13th order to seek the enforcement of the original confirmation 4 5 order and the Chapter 11 plan, which Elafonissos "did not object to or appeal on the basis of personal jurisdiction". 6 7 See In re: Petrie, 304 F.3d at 232. In addition, Elafonissos' actions petitioning for the appointment of the purported 8 provisional board have already been found to be a violation of 9 the plan and confirmation order by this Court. 10

Thus, the Court can exercise personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos connection with the orders, and the enforcement of such is not violative of due process. Also considering this case in light of the recent Supreme Court decision Fuld, the Court finds that personal jurisdiction exists under the more flexible and broadened Supreme Court standard there, as applicable. That's Fuld, 2025 WL 1716140. In this case, the Court has determined that it can exercise personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos because of Elafonissos' contacts within this forum. Thus, by satisfying the minimum contacts inquiry, the Supreme Court's broader Fifth Amendment due process standard would also be satisfied.

Moreover, due process has been satisfied as it is reasonable for the Court to exercise personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos under the specific facts of this case. See

ELETSON HOLDINGS INC., ET AL.

International Shoe, 326 U.S. at 316. Elafonissos argues that, "Even if Elafonissos had the requisite substantial connection to the U.S. to exercise personal jurisdiction, the Court should not do so as doing so would not be reasonable and would offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice."

That's from the motion at paragraph 40. However, exercising personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos is reasonable because as discussed earlier, Elafonissos has received actual notice of the confirmation order and the subsequent proceedings.

Courts have held that, "As a general matter, there is no denial of due process for purposes of Rule 60(b)(4) if the parties seeking relief received actual notice of the proceedings and had a full and fair opportunity to litigate the merits". That's from the United States SEC v. Smith, 2023 U.S. App. LEXIS 8308331 at *4 (2d Cir. Apr. 7, 2023). The Court finds that it would not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice based on Elafonissos' actions in this case.

As to service, the Court agrees with Elafonissos that the Court must have personal jurisdiction over a party to enter a default judgment, and personal service requires proper service of process." See Ray v. Choueka, 683 F.Supp.3d 427, 430 (S.D.N.Y. 2023). However, the Court disagrees with Elafonissos that Reorganized Holdings' service of the January 29th order and 13th order and the motions filed preceding such orders was not sufficient pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7004.

Reorganized Holdings' service of Elafonissos via First-Class

Mail at its Greek address and at its email address provided during the confirmation process is sufficient for service.

Elafonissos argues that Bankruptcy Rule 7004 incorporates Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(f) and 4(h), which "govern the service of individuals and corporations outside of the U.S." That's from the motion at paragraph 27.
They further argue that pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(f) and 4(h), service pursuant to the Hague Convention is mandatory when serving a foreign defendant.
That's from the motion at paragraph 28. Elafonissos asserts that they were not properly served because as a Greek citizen, they must have been served in accordance with the Hague Convention, and Greece does not accept service by mail, nor has Greece acceded to direct service by email as a means of service or process under the Hague Convention. That's from the motion, paragraph 31, 32.

However, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(f) allows for service of process by other means not prohibited by international agreement", as the court orders. See Federal Rule 4(f)(3). Service in accordance with the Hague is required, then service by email does not violate service rules mandated by Greece, as Greece does not prohibit service by email. See the Hague Convention on Private International Law,

44 Conference de La Haye de droit international prive, Greece, 1 2 Central Authority and Practice information, updated April 14th, 2022. Available online. (Listing methods of service for 3 Greece nationals with no indication that email service is 4 5 prohibited"). 6 See also Sulzer Mixpac v. Medenstar Industries, 312 7 F.R.D. 329, 332 (S.D.N.Y. 2015), determining that email service upon a company in China was sufficient, as the Court remains 8 9 free to order alternative means of service not referenced under the Hague. WeWork v. WePlus, 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5047 at *8 10 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 10, 2019). ("Given the weight of the 11 authority, the court finds that China's objection regarding 12 postal service does not mean that email service is prohibited 13 by international agreement"). Peanuts Worldwide v. 14 15 Partnerships and Unincorporated Associations, 347 F.R.D. 316, 328 (N.D. Ill. 2024). ("Rule 4(f)(1) provides for overseas 16 service through the Hague Service Convention's official 17 18 channels, but Rule 4(f)(3) also allows for service by any other means not prohibited by international agreement"). 19 Elafonissos arques that the court in Smart Study 20 prohibited service by email on a foreign defendant whose 21 country "does not expressly allow for email service". However, 22 2.3 this Court finds Smart Study distinguishable from the instant 24 Smart Study is at 620 F.Supp.3d 1382, 1394 to 95 case. (S.D.N.Y. 2022). The Court in Smart Study stated that "email 25 is nowhere mentioned in the convention", and therefore does not permit email service under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(f), as other courts have found. Id. See Sulzer at 312 F.R.D. at 32, finding that email service is permitted unless expressly stated by the Hague.

While the Court in Smart Study did not permit email service upon foreign parties in China, that case is distinct because the Court there relied on statements by Chinese authorities to conclude that service by email is prohibited.

Indeed, courts in the Second Circuit are "divided as to whether service by postal channels under the Hague Convention encompasses service by email". See Montana v. Herrera, 2023 WL 2644340 at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 27, 2023). (Distinguishing the Smart Study case because the serving party made a reasonable effort to serve the defendant pursuant to the Hague Convention and through Venezuelan authorities and finding that service by email in Venezuela was appropriate pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure (f)(3)). See also Peanuts Worldwide, 347 F.R.D. at 330. (Finding that the Hague Convention does not prohibit service by email).

However, this Court agrees with Sulzer and similar courts that "where a signatory nation has objected to only those means of service, a court acting under Rule 4(f)(3) remains free to order alternative means of service that are not specifically referenced under the Hague." That's from Sulzer, 312 F.R.D. at 332. The court in Sulzer went on to further determine that in the case before it, service by email was appropriate because the email was publicly utilized and relied upon by the defendant to conduct its foreign business.

Here, Reorganized Holdings served Elafonissos at the Greek address and the Zilakos email address, the same addresses that were used to serve Elafonissos during solicitation of votes for the competing Chapter 11 plans and the same address that Elafonissos used on the ballot that it returned its vote on. See the joint solicitation order, paragraph 8. See also the Elafonissos ballot.

Zilakos voluntarily disclosed that the Zilakos email address on its return ballot, thus tacitly approving communication to this email. Moreover, the Greek address is the same address used by Elafonissos in petitioning the Greek court to appoint the purported provisional board of the debtor that is before this Court. Again, see ECF docket number 1343, which is TX 81.

Thus, Elafonissos was previously accepted service at the same address that was used to serve it before the Court confirmed the PCs' Chapter 11 plan over the former debtors' Chapter 11 plan. This indicates that Elafonissos is now attempting to "pull failure of service out of a hat" to escape the sanctions orders entered by the Court. See Velez v. Vassallo, 203 F.Supp.2d 312, 323 to 324 (S.D.N.Y. 2022).

F.Supp.2d at 323 to 324.

ELETSON HOLDINGS INC., ET AL.

In Velez, the court held that the corporate defendants in the case were barred by their "gamesmanship" from arguing that there was no personal jurisdiction. The Court agrees with the reasoning in Velez. "The Federal Rules do not suggest that a defendant may halfway appear in a case giving plaintiff and the court the impression that he has been served and at the appropriate time pull failure of service out of a hat, like a rabbit, in order to escape default judgment. To countenance this train of events would elevate formality over substance and would leave plaintiffs to waste time, money, and judicial

Thus, the Court finds that Reorganized Eletson Holdings' service on Elafonissos of the January 29th order and the March 13th order at the Greek address and the Zilakos email address was sufficient.

resources pursuing a cause of action." That's Velez 203

So based on all the foregoing, the Court finds that the motion for relief, which is found at docket number 1569, is denied, and the Court will enter an order denying that motion.

The next matter before the Court is the motion to amend the Court's foreign opposition sanctions order to, A, increase the sanctions amount and B, impose sanctions on Laskarina Karastamati. That's the motion to amend, which is at docket 1602. The motion to amend seeks a court order imposing additional sanctions on certain violating parties named in this Court's order on March 13th, 2025 and Laskarina Karastamati.

The March 13th order is found at docket 1537. And this relief is sought due to the parties' failure to comply with the confirmation order and to withdraw filings that seek to oppose or undermine the confirmation order. We'll refer to these as certain foreign proceedings. That's all from the motion to amend at paragraphs 4 through 5.

Filed in support of the motion to amend is the declaration of Kyle Ortiz, which is found at docket number 1603, and filed as a supplement to the motion to amend is the supplement to Eletson Holdings Inc. 's motion to amend Court's foreign opposition sanctions order, the supplement to the motion, which is found at docket 1629. The supplemental declaration of Kyle Ortiz was filed at docket 1630 in support of the supplement.

Filed in opposition is Provisional Holdings' memorandum of law in opposition to Eletson Holding's motion to amend the Court's foreign opposition sanctions order. We will refer to it as the Provisional Eletson objection. That's from docket number 1640. Also filed in opposition is the objection to motion to amend the appeal of March 13th, 2025 order, filed on behalf of the former majority shareholders and Elafonissos. That is found at docket number 1642.

Filed in response to the objections is Eletson Holdings Inc.'s omnibus reply in support of the April 16th, 2025 motions. And the reply is at docket number 1651. Filed in support of the reply is the second supplemental declaration of Bryan Kotliar in support of Eletson Holdings Inc.'s omnibus reply in support of its April 16th, 2025 motions. The reply declaration is at docket 1652.

The Court held a hearing on the motion to amend on May 15th, 2025. On June 2nd, 2025, the district court in the case Eletson Holdings v. Levona Holdings, case number 23-7331, issued a preliminary injunction, findings of fact, and conclusions of Law, and entered a preliminary injunction order directing that certain parties "shall take all steps necessary to dismiss the proceedings that they have initiated in Greece and the United Kingdom seeking to confirm and/or enforce the arbitration award." That's from the district court docket numbers 407, 413.

On June 20th, 2025, at the request of this Court, Reorganized Holdings filed a letter re foreign proceeding status report, we'll refer to as the foreign proceedings status letter, at docket number 1699. The foreign proceedings status letter indicates that most of the foreign proceedings have not been withdrawn, except for the Greek petition for recognition of the arbitration award, which was withdrawn upon Judge Liman's preliminary injunction order, which will be discussed further below and the petition for recognition of Chapter 11 order, which was withdrawn by Reorganized Holdings as moot following the change of the address of record, the AOR, by the 1 2 Liberian International Ship and Corporate Registry, which we refer to as LISCR. It was withdrawn based on Reorganized 3 Holdings' independent actions taken to amend the AOR and the 4 petition for recognition of the Chapter 11 order, which was 5 withdrawn, and the petition for the appointment of the 6 7 provisional board of Election Holdings, which was dismissed, as discussed earlier, by the Court of First Instance of Piraeus in 8 Greece, which we will refer to as the Greek court. 9 10

The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1334 and 157(a) and (b)(1) and the Amended Standing Order of Reference dated January 31, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 157(b)(2)(L). Reorganized Holdings argues that the Court should utilize its previously asserted authority to enforce the Chapter 11 plan, the confirmation order, and the other related decisions and orders of this Court by increasing sanctions against "Family Unity Trust Company, Glafkos Trust Company, and Lassia Investment Company, the former majority shareholders, Elafonissos Shipping Corp. and Keros Shipping Corporation, the former minority shareholders, purported Provisional Eletson Holdings Inc., the purported provisional board, including Vassilis Hadjieleftheriadis, Konstantinos Hadjieleftheriadis, Ioannis Zilakos, Niki Zilakos, Adrianos Psomadakis-Karastamatis, Eleni Giannakopoulou, Panos Paxinos and Emmanuel

Andreoulakis, the purported provisional board, and Vassilis Hadjieleftheriadis, collectively referred to as the violating parties." And that long quote was from the motion to amend, paragraph 5, footnote 5, which is quoting the March 13th order.

Reorganized Holdings asserts that the violating parties have not complied with the March 12th ruling at ECF docket number 1564 and the March 13th order by failing to withdraw from actions and proceedings listed in the March 12th ruling and the March 13th order. See the motion, exhibit 1. And that they have allegedly initiated further filings to oppose the confirmation order. See the motion paragraphs 10, 13, and 21 and generally paragraph 28. And see also the foreign proceedings status letter. Reorganized Holdings also requests that the Court "impose such sanctions against Ms. Karastamati" based on her alleged violations of the confirmation order and the March 13th order. That's from the motion at paragraph 30.

Provisional Eletson Holdings argues that, one, this Court lacks jurisdiction to grant Reorganized Holdings' request to expand the March 13th order because the March 13th order is on appeal to the district court. And two, the foreign actions mentioned in the motion to amend do not seek to undermine the confirmation order or the March 13th order. That's from the Provisional Eletson objection, paragraphs 55 and 64., Purported Provisional Holdings asserts that "Movant has been abusing the bankruptcy process in order to masquerade as the entire Eletson enterprise." That's id at paragraph 64.

As indicated earlier, on June 6th, 2025, the Greek court dismissed the November 11th, 2024 ex parte petition that had been filed by the former minority shareholders seeking the appointment of a provisional board to manage Eletson Holdings post-confirmation. See docket number 1697, the June 6th Greek court decision. The June 6th Greek court decision also states in relevant part, "The claim that the voluntary bankruptcy of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York, on October 25th, 2024 and the Court order of November 4th, 2024 confirming the same, pursuant to which the shareholding structure of the company was changed and the above board of directors was appointed have no legal effect in Greece is unfounded." That's from id. And the Greek court continued to state that, "Consequently, the petition under consideration must be dismissed as inadmissible due to lack of jurisdiction." See id.

The former shareholders' objection argues that, one, this Court lacks jurisdiction to modify the March 13th order to impose additional sanctions because that will amend or supersede the order which is on appeal, two, this Court lacks personal jurisdiction over Elafonissos for reasons set forth Elafonissos' motion for relief, which was just ruled upon, and three, that the motion to amend "enjoins numerous parties from pursuing or continuing foreign litigations and seeks to modify and broaden the Court's anti-foreign suit injunctions". That's the former shareholder's objection, paragraphs 19, 21, 22.

As just stated, this Court has already addressed the issues raised in Elafonissos' motion for relief earlier in this hearing and denied that motion, so that argument will not be considered further.

After careful consideration of the facts and arguments and the motion, the supplement to the motion, the objections, the reply, and the arguments at the May 15th hearing, this Court finds that the motion to amend should be granted in part, and a further order should be entered, as discussed below.

The Court has the inherent authority to increase sanctions if its prior sanctions orders have not been complied with. In the case BOC Aviation Limited, finding that the defendant had failed to comply with the court's orders, the court imposed sanctions subject to increase based on party's continued failure to comply. See BOC Aviation v. AirBridge, 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 223726 at *55 (S.D.N.Y. 2022), citing New York v. Shore Realty, 763 F.2d 49, 54 (2d Cir. 1985).

(Upholding the district court's order imposing sanctions and holding that, the district court may even increase the amount of the daily fine").

Here, it is evident that the violating parties have failed to comply with the Court's March 13th order. The March

13th order directed in relevant part that, one, violating 1 2 parties, as applicable, are authorized, required, directed, and ordered to withdraw any and all filings that oppose or 3 undermine in any way the judicial recognition of the 4 confirmation order, including, without limitation, filings in 5 the Liberian proceedings and the Greek proceedings set forth in 6 7 exhibit 1 attached thereto. Two, the violating parties, as applicable, are enjoined from making any filings in any court 8 9 seeking to oppose or undermine in any way the judicial recognition of the confirmation order, including, without 10 limitation, by initiating or prosecuting any legal actions that 11 seek to oppose or undermine the confirmation order. And three, 12 Holdings' rights are expressly reserved to seek additional 13 coercive and compensatory monetary sanctions in to-be-14 15 determined amounts. That's from the March 13th order, pages 3 16 through 4. The violating parties have failed to independently 17 18 withdraw any of the filings or pleadings listed in exhibit 1 withdraw any of the filings or pleadings listed in exhibit 1 immediately after the Court's March 13th order. Exhibit 1 to the March 13th order listed nine proceedings. In fact, certain of the violating parties against whom the March 13th order imposed sanctions initiated four new proceedings in foreign jurisdictions that attempt to undermine the confirmation order. See the motion at paragraphs 10, 13, 21, and see also the supplement to the motions at paragraphs 3, 6.

On March 18th, 2025, an entity purporting to be Eletson Holdings Inc., the former minority shareholder Elafonissos, and the former majority shareholders commenced an action in Liberia, the first Liberian action, just five days after the March 13th order directing parties not to file pleadings that oppose the judicial recognition of the confirmation order, seeking to challenge the change in the AOR

It should also be noted that, subject to the January 29th order, certain parties had never complied in originally submitting the name of the AOR to Reorganized Holdings or to effectuated by Reorganized Holdings. That's from the motion at this Court.

Additionally, on April 8th, 2025, persons purporting to act on behalf of Eletson Corp. and EMC Investment Corp., subsidiary of Eletson Holdings, filed another action in Liberia, the second Liberian action, challenging the change in the AOR of Eletson Holdings in Liberia, arguing in part that LISCR was not authorized to change the AOR. That's from the motion at paragraph 13.

The Liberian actions undermine the March 13th order and the confirmation order. The March 13th order "enjoins parties from making any filings in any court seeking to oppose or undermine in any way the judicial recognition of the confirmation order." The Liberian actions dispute the change in the AOR. See the Ortiz declaration, exhibit 3. This undermines the implementation of the confirmation order, which states that the parties are directed to cooperate in good faith to implement and consummate the plan. That's at ECF docket number 1223, the confirmation order, paragraph 5(i), and which also enforces the Chapter 11 plan, which vests Eletson Holdings' shares in Reorganized Eletson Holdings Inc. That's at the Chapter 11 plan, paragraph 5.8.

The Court agrees that "It strains credulity that actions seeking to unwind the change in Holdings and its subsidiaries' AORs and seek a stay against LISCR regarding actions involving the company do not constitute an attack on judicial recognition of the confirmation order." That's quoting the reply at paragraph 25. It should also be noted that the Liberian actions were dismissed, with the court declining to issue the writ prayed for by the movants. See the Ortiz supplemental declaration, exhibit 7, order denying second

Liberian action.

Provisional Eletson Holdings argues that the Liberian proceedings do not seek to undermine the confirmation order. That's from their objection at paragraphs 65 through 66. As just stated, the Court disagrees that these actions do not undermine the confirmation order and in fact finds that these actions violate the March 13th order as well. The Liberian actions prevent Reorganized Holdings from effectuating control over the company pursuant to the Chapter 11 plan, which is a violation of the confirmation order's provisions requiring the violating parties to assist in implementing the Chapter 11 plan and the confirmation order.

In further violation of the March 13th order, the former majority shareholders and Emmanuel Andreoulakis, who has now been identified as the former AOR of Eletson Holdings, commenced a proceeding in the High Court of the Republic of the Marshall Islands against Reorganized Holdings and the other parties for redesignating the AOR. That's in the supplement to the motion at paragraph 4. Such action is a further violation of the March 13th order, which prohibits the parties stated from commencing actions opposing the implementation of the plan and the confirmation order.

Additionally, on April 10th, 2025, Eletson Holdings' former officers and directors initiated an action in Hamburg, Germany, referred to as the German action, seeking injunctive relief against Berenberg Bank for releasing the accounts to Reorganized Eletson Holdings "following months of obstructions by the former owners, particularly Mr. Hadjieleftheriadis". That's from the motion on paragraph 21. Berenberg Bank provides bank services to Reorganized Eletson Holdings Inc. subsidiaries Eletson Corp. and EMC Investment Corp.

Further, on April 28th, 2025, three additional actions were filed, which we will refer to as the subsequent German actions, in Germany against Berenberg Bank "for refusing to honor payment orders issued by former Eletson management drawing on corporate accounts". That's from the supplement to the motion, paragraph 6. See also docket number 1629, exhibit 12. These actions by former officers and directors and former owners undermine the confirmation order and the March 13th order because even though the actions were filed against Berenberg Bank, they seek to prevent Reorganized Holdings' access to the bank accounts under the control of Eletson Holdings.

Similar to the argument in support of the Liberian petition seeking to undo the change in AOR, Provisional Holdings argues that the German action, which was filed against Berenberg Bank, not the movant, does not seek to undermine the confirmation order. As stated, this Court disagrees. Finds that these actions undermine the confirmation order and violate the March 13th order for the reasons stated earlier.

assertion that it is urging "compliance with foreign law" and that it is "correcting blatant misrepresentations to foreign tribunals" and therefore should not be sanctioned, that's from the objection at paragraph 70, those assertions are failed attempts to oppose confirmation of the PCs' Chapter 11 plan. The foreign recognition proceedings that Provisional Holdings is opposing and the foreign actions that have been initiated are an attempt by the former debtors' shareholders, officers, and directors to prevent the implementation of the confirmation order.

Purported Provisional Holdings and the formal majority shareholders argue that this Court lacks jurisdiction to "expand the March 13th order" pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 8008 over matters on appeal and that this Court is "divested of jurisdiction to modify the March 13th order based upon its resolution of issues that will be determined by the district court in the course of the pending appeals". That's from the Provisional Eletson objection, paragraphs 55 and 57, and the former shareholders' objection at paragraph 19.

ELETSON HOLDINGS INC., ET AL.

The Court disagrees. First, the Court has the authority to increase sanctions in a new and subsequent order, based on the violating parties' continuing and additional failures to comply with this Court's previous orders. See BOC Aviation, 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 223726 at *55. (Imposed sanctions that were subject to increase based on sanctioned parties' failure to comply). Second, the Court has inherent authority to sanction parties for additional and/or continuing violations of this Court's orders, which will not materially affect matters currently on appeal.

Provisional argues that a bankruptcy court lacks jurisdiction to rule on "matters undeniably related to issues on appeal", citing In re: Southold Development Corp. That's at 129 B.R. 18, 21 (E.D.N.Y. 1991). In that case, the court held that a bankruptcy court is "without jurisdiction to modify a ruling when that ruling "would substantially affect the issues presented by the party's current appeal". See In re: Southold Development, 129 B.R. 18, 21.

In Southold Development, a nondebtor party, county, appealed the confirmation of a confirmed Chapter 11 plan that proposed to sell the debtor's sole asset, a property, to another entity. Id at page 19. Subsequently, the debtor sought and was granted a modification of the Chapter 11 plan in bankruptcy court to immediately sell the property. The district court then stayed that sale of the property approved by the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to a modification of the Chapter 11 plan, based on the pending appeal. See id.

The district court, relying on Griggs v. Provident

Consumer Discount, ultimately reversed the bankruptcy court's decision, permitting the plan modification post-appeal because the bankruptcy court "had no jurisdiction to modify the plan and that such a modification so impacted the issues on appeal that the bankruptcy court was divested of jurisdiction over that issue". Id.

This case is distinguishable from the present case because here, the Court's order will add on to and expand accruing sanctions based on continued and additional violations. An increase of the sanctions will not materially affect or modify the March 13th order, as those sanctions have already been accruing. The Court is not amending its previous ruling in a manner that will materially affect a debtor's assets, for instance, such as the sale of the property at issue in Southold.

Purported Provisional Holdings argues that the appeal of the orders divest the lower court of jurisdiction regarding those issues under appeal. This presupposes that an order from this Court increasing and imposing additional sanctions will be materially impacted by the appeal or will materially impact the appeal. See In re: Strawberry Square Associates, 152 B.R. 699, 701 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1993). That is not the case here.

The bankruptcy court in In re: Strawberry Square

Associates determined that it had jurisdiction to consider the creditor's Chapter 11 plan, which provided for the surrender of a property that was the subject of a stayed foreclosure proceeding pending appeal. That's id at 702. In that case, 6 the debtor appealed an order terminating the automatic stay and obtained a stay pending appeal from the district court. That's 8 at id 701.

The creditor subsequently filed a disclosure statement and Chapter 11 plan in the bankruptcy court, which the debtor objected to, asserting that the bankruptcy court lacked jurisdiction to consider the Chapter 11 plan based on the stay pending appeal. Again, id at 702. The bankruptcy court reasoned that considering the creditors Chapter 11 plan would not "put the same matter before the two courts at the same time" because the court would not be deciding issues before the district court.

Similarly, this Court is considering issues as the continued and additional noncompliance with, for instance, the January 29th order and the March 13th order, which are issues of continuing and additional noncompliance that are not part of the appeal. Also, in In re: Strawberry Square Associates, the court held that preventing the confirmation hearing from proceeding based on the appeal of the foreclosure stay would "operate to give an appellant a tactical advantage it would not have enjoyed had it been successful in the lower court", from id. Cite is to id.

Here, deferring a ruling on the motion to increase sanctions would advantage the objecting parties by allowing them to avoid increased and additional sanctions pending the appeal, especially, as noted, since Reorganized Holdings has raised additional material violations of the orders that warrant this Court's ruling. Contrary to the former shareholders argument, this Court is not "modifying an order that has been appealed", but rather, this Court is imposing new and increased sanctions based on certain parties' additional failure to comply with the March 13th order, which seeks to enforce and implement the confirmation order.

The former shareholders' objection cites In re:
Sabine, which we have discussed this morning, asserting that the court in that case determined that the filing of a bankruptcy appeal divests the lower court of "control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal". And that is Sabine, 2016 U.S. Dis. LEXIS 105029 at *21 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 9, 2016). Internal citations omitted. However, while it may be true that once a notice of appeal is filed, no lower court should be able to vacate or modify an order under appeal", this pertains to matters that would directly impact the order on appeal. See in re: Emergency Beacon, 58 B.R. 399, 402 (Bankr.
S.D.N.Y. 1986).

In the instant case, the Court is not examining the basis for its rulings in its prior sanctions order, for instance, the March 13th order. Rather, the Court is enforcing compliance with the plan, the confirmation order, and the other related decisions and orders of this Court to hold parties in contempt and impose continuing and additional sanctions". That is from the motion paragraph 26.

In Sabine, the court found that "the divestiture doctrine precludes a bankruptcy court from deciding the same issue a second time while the first decision is on appeal."

That's 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 105029 at *20. However, the district court, even though it was adjudicating the unsecured creditors committee's motion for a stay pending appeal of a confirmed Chapter 11 plan ultimately determined that a lower court could retain jurisdiction "to decide issues different than those on appeal". That's from id at *22.

Thus, the Court finds that it retains jurisdiction to increase and expand sanctions to parties obstructing implementation of the Chapter 11 plan and confirmation order.

The Court now turns to the issue of imposing sanctions based on actions taken by Laskarina Karastamati, certain violating parties, and other parties. This Court has the inherent power to enforce compliance with orders through civil contempt. See In re: Markus, 78 F.4th 554, 563 (2d Cir. 2023). (There can be no question that courts have inherent power to enforce compliance with their lawful orders through civil contempt). Internal citations omitted.

The power to hold a party in contempt and impose sanctions is "governed not by rule or statute, but by the control necessarily vested in courts to manage their own affairs so as to achieve the orderly and expeditious disposition of cases." That's from id at 564, citing Chambers v. Nasco, 501 U.S. 32, 43 through 44. Indeed, bankruptcy courts have the inherent power to enforce compliance with their own orders and sanction noncompliant parties. See In re:

Markus, 78 F.4th at 564.

Therefore, to demonstrate contempt and issue an order imposing sanctions, the movant must establish that, one, the order the party allegedly failed to comply with is clear and unambiguous, two, the proof of noncompliance is clear and convincing, and three, the party has not attempted in a reasonable manner to comply". That's In re: Chief Exec.

Officers Club, 359 B.R. 527, 535 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2007). The "clear and convincing" standard requires a "quantum of proof adequate to demonstrate the reasonable certainty that a violation occurred". That's id.

The Court will now address whether sanctions should be imposed against Ms. Karastamati and against violating parties for failure to adhere to this Court's orders, namely, the confirmation order and the March 13th order. It should be noted, as previously stated, that Laskarina Karastamati did not object to nor respond to the motion. See reply at paragraph 17.

The Court finds that the March 13th order and the confirmation order are clear and unambiguous. First, the confirmation order clearly states that these parties are "directed to cooperate in good faith to implement and consummate the plan". That's from paragraph 5(i) of the confirmation order. And two, "Upon entry of the confirmation order, parties are enjoined from taking any actions to interfere with the implementation and/or consummation of the plan." That's from the confirmation order, paragraph 12.

As stated earlier, the March 13th order directed in relevant part that, one, the violating parties, as applicable, are authorized, required, directed, and ordered to withdraw any and all filings that oppose or undermine in any way the judicial recognition of the confirmation order, including, without limitation, filings in the Liberian proceedings and the Greek proceedings set forth on exhibit 1 attached thereto, and two, that the violating parties, as applicable, are enjoined from making any filings in any court seeking to oppose or undermine in any way the judicial recognition of the confirmation order, including, without limitation, by initiating or prosecuting any legal actions that seek to oppose or undermine the confirmation order.

ELETSON HOLDINGS INC., ET AL.

A bankruptcy court retains post-confirmation jurisdiction to "interpret and enforce its own orders, particularly when disputes arise over a bankruptcy plan of reorganization." See In re: Petrie 304 F.3d 222, 230 (2d Cir. 2002). Confirmation is thus clear that it directs cooperation from the former shareholders, directors, and officers of Eletson Holdings Inc. to assist in implementation of the Chapter 11 plan. And the March 13th order is clear, too, in that it specifically prohibits violating parties' from initiating actions that would undermine the implementation of the confirmation order. Thus, this standard is met.

The proof of the parties' noncompliance is also clear and unambiguous. The clear and convincing standard, as stated, requires a quantum of proof adequate to demonstrate the reasonable certainty that a violation has occurred. Again, that's In re: Chief Exec. Officers Club, 359 B.R. at 535.

The Court will first address Laskarina Karastamati's noncompliance with the confirmation order as clear and convincing. On March 19th, 2025, Reorganized Holdings filed a motion for recognition in Greece. Rather than supporting recognition, former Eletson Holdings Inc.'s shareholders and former owners, including Ms. Karastamati, opposed the recognition of the confirmation order in Greece. That's from docket number 1603, exhibits 9 and 12.

Specifically, Ms. Karastamati testified before the

1 Athens Multi Member Court of First Instance in opposition to 2 Reorganized Eletson Holdings' confirmed Chapter 11 plan.

That's from ECF docket number 1603, exhibit 12. This 4 recognition proceeding was initiated by Reorganized Holdings to seek recognition of the confirmation order in Greece. See id.

Ms. Karastamati testified on behalf of the parties opposing recognition of the confirmation order in Greece. See id.

Additionally, Ms. Karastamati, on April 1st, 2025, testified before the Greek court in support of the former minority shareholders' petition for the appointment of the purported provisional board. That's docket number 1603 at exhibit 9. Specifically, Ms. Karastamati testified that there was "bad faith faced by Eletson Holdings in the bankruptcy case" and that the debtor was "forced to consent to the Chapter 11 proceedings in the United States." See id.

Ms. Karastamati is a related party, defined in the confirmation order on the Chapter 11 plan, directed to cooperate in good faith to implement and consummate the Chapter 11 plan. See the confirmation order, paragraph 5(i). Not only is opposing the judicial recognition of the confirmation order in violation of the March 13th order, but opposing implementation of the confirmation order in Greece is undermining the implementation of the confirmation order and thus an action warranting a finding of contempt.

While Ms. Karastamati did not file an objection to the 69 motion, Provisional Holdings argues that Ms. Karastamati's 1 testimony "was necessary to correct false representations that 2 movement made to the Greek court" during recognition 3 proceedings. That's from the purported Provisional Eletson 4 5 objection at paragraph 32. First, purported Provisional Eletson Holdings does not 6 7 appear to have standing to assert objections on Ms. Karastamati's behalf. Second, the Court agrees that Ms. 8 Karastamati's statements before the Athens court and the Greek 9 court undermine the confirmation order by painting false 10 representations of the proceedings before this Court as being 11 forced and coercive, when in fact the debtor voluntarily 12 consented to the Chapter 11 proceeding before this Court. 13 Even the Greek court has now found that purported Provisional 14 15 Eletson Holdings' assertion that the confirmation order, which, for instance, changed the shareholder structure, has no legal 16 effect in Greece is unfounded. That's a quote from the June 17 6th Greek court decision, as referenced earlier. 18 Reorganized Holdings is enabled to seek recognition of 19 the confirmation order and take the actions it deems necessary 20 to implement the confirmed plan. Thus, Mrs. Karastamati's 21 efforts to interfere with recognition in foreign courts 22 obstructed implementation of the confirmation order. 2.3 The Court will now address how certain violating 24

parties' and other parties' noncompliance with the March 13th

order and confirmation order is clear and convincing. Certain

2 violating parties, namely, and as discussed earlier,

3 Elafonissos, the former majority shareholders, Mr.

4 Hadjieleftheriadis, former management and officers and directors initiated the Liberian actions, the German action, the subsequent German actions, and the petition before the 7 Court in the Marshall Islands in violation of the confirmation

8 order and the March 13th order.

These persons and parties filed proceedings and opposed recognition by Reorganized Holdings in these foreign courts, in violation of their obligations to cooperate in good faith to implement and consummate the plan. See confirmation order, paragraph 5(i), and to cease filing actions in courts, including foreign courts, to prevent the implementation of the confirmation order. That's from the March 13th order. And see generally the reply, paragraph 24.

As stated earlier, certain of the violating parties initiated new proceedings in foreign jurisdictions that attempt to undermine the confirmation order. Again, that's the motion, paragraphs 10, 13, and 21, and the supplement to the motion at paragraph 6. For instance, the March 18th, 2025 Liberian proceeding seeking to challenge the change in the AOR effectuated by Reorganized Holdings, the April 8th, 2025 Liberian proceeding challenging the change in the AOR of Eletson Holdings in Liberia, arguing in part that LISCR was not authorized to change the AOR, the German action seeking injunctive relief against Berenberg Bank for releasing the accounts to Eletson Holdings, the subsequent German actions by former Eletson management against Berenberg Bank for refusing to honor payment orders issued by former Eletson management drawing on the corporate account, and the petition before the court in the Marshall Islands seeking to prohibit the change --seeking to prohibit the change of the AOR. Again, that's from the motion, paragraphs 10, 13, 21, and the supplement at paragraphs 3 and 6. These actions interfere with Reorganized Eletson Holdings' implementation of the confirmation order. Therefore, this second standard has been met as well.

The party to be held in contempt must not have diligently attempted to comply with the court's order in a reasonable manner. Here, Ms. Karastamati has not attempted to diligently comply with the confirmation order, and certain violating parties failed to comply with the March 13th order and confirmation order in a reasonable manner. Specifically, the initiation of the Liberian actions and the German actions shortly after the entry of the March 13th order demonstrate the parties' obstructionist actions attempting to prevent implementation of the confirmation order.

The Court agrees that "the violating parties should be assisting holdings in obtaining the recognition that they argue is required, not opposing it, as they have so ardently done."

That's from the reply of paragraph 25.

With respect to the Liberian actions, if certain violating parties are concerned that Liberian law is not being followed, that concern does not excuse actions taken against Reorganized Eletson Holdings Inc.'s implementation of the confirmed Chapter 11 plan. It is within Reorganized Eletson Holdings' discretion and authority to take the actions it deems necessary for the effectuation and implementation of the confirmation order.

And as for the German action, the Court also agrees that if the violating parties, including former shareholders, directors, and officers of Eletson Holdings, are concerned with compliance with foreign law, that discretion lies with the Reorganized Holdings to take the actions it deems necessary. See the reply at paragraph 27.

Therefore, given the clear and unambiguous language in the confirmation order and the March 13th order, the clear and convincing proof of noncompliance, and the failures to diligently comply with the confirmation order and the March 13th order, the violating persons and parties and Ms.

Karastamati are found to be in contempt.

Where the court finds a party in contempt, it may impose monetary sanctions upon that party, as the Court indicated earlier. Again, see In re: Markus, 78 F.4th 554, 570 (2d Cir. 2023). ("A bankruptcy court's inherent sanctioning authority includes the power to impose civil contempt sanctions in nonnominal amounts to compensate an injured party and coerce future compliance with the court's order").

In In re: Markus, the Second Circuit upheld the bankruptcy court's decision, which imposed a daily 1,000-dollar sanction upon debtors' counsel for failure to comply with the court's orders. That's id at 570. The Court can impose sanctions relative to the "character and magnitude of the harm threatened by continued contumacy and the probable effectiveness of any suggested sanction in bringing about compliance with the court order." That's from In re: Chief Executive Officers, 359 B.R. at 530.

Here, sanctions are warranted, given this Court's contempt finding, as stated earlier.

Although the anti-suit injunction issued by the district court arose in a different context, the Court also notes Judge Liman's recent finding that, "The court has the power to enjoin intervenors, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys and other persons who are in concert, in active concert or participation with intervenors. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(d)(2). Should contempt proceedings be brought for violation of this injunction, the court anticipates little difficulty in concluding that Gas, Laskarina Karastamati, Vassilis Kertsikoff, Vassilis Hadjieleftheriadis, Lassia Investment Company, Family Unity Trust Company, and Glafkos Trust Company are sufficiently in privity with, concert with aiding or abetting interveners to bring them within range of this court's contempt power." That's from Eletson Holdings v. Levona Holdings, case number 23-7331, docket number 413 at page 21. Although, again, it arose in a different context, the Court agrees with this finding and finds a similar situation present here.

Accordingly, based on the foregoing, it is hereby ordered as follows. One, the motion is granted in part. The Court finds that Family Unity Trust Company, Glafkos Trust Company, and Lassia Investment Company, again, the former majority shareholders, Elafonissos Shipping Corporation and Keros Shipping Corporation, the former minority shareholders, purported Provisional Eletson Holdings, the purported provisional board, as defined in the order in support of confirmation and consummation of the Court-approved plan of reorganization and imposing sanctions on certain parties. is at docket number 1495. Board was defined there as Vassilis Hadjieleftheriadis, Konstantinos Hadjieleftheriadis, Ioannis Zilakos, Niki Zilakos, Adrianos Psomadakis-Karastamatis, Eleni Giannakopoulou, Panos Paxinos, and Emanuel Andreoulakis, as well as Vassilis Hadjieleftheriadis, which have previously been defined as the violating parties, are in contempt of court for ongoing and continuing violations of the confirmation order and the consummation order, for the reasons set forth in the March 12th decision and March 13th order, and for the additional reasons set forth herein.

In addition, the Court finds that Ms. Karastamati is in contempt of court for ongoing violations of the confirmation order, consummation order, her testimony described herein in the motion, and the former majority shareholders, the former minority shareholders, purported Provisional Holdings, the purported provisional board, Laskarina Karastamati, and Vassilis Hadjieleftheriadis are therefore subject to ongoing and additional sanctions as set forth in the March 12th decision and March 13th order and herein.

Accordingly, it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed that the violating parties, as applicable, are authorized, required, directed, and ordered to withdraw any and all filings that oppose or undermine in any way the judicial recognition of the confirmation order, including, without limitation, filings in the Liberian proceedings, the Greek proceedings, the German proceedings, the Marshall Islands set forth in the motion and the supplemental letter. The violating parties are enjoined from making any filings in any court seeking to impose or undermine in any way the judicial recognition of the confirmation order, including, without limitation, by initiating or prosecuting any legal actions that seek to oppose or undermine the confirmation order.

And as a result of the violating parties' violations

1	of this Court's orders and this Court's finding of contempt,
2	the Court hereby imposes additional coercive monetary
3	sanctions, A, against each of the former majority shareholders,
4	each of the former minority shareholders, purported Provisional
5	Holdings, the purported provisional board, and Vassilis
6	Hadjieleftheriadis in the increased amount of 10,000 dollars
7	per party per day, commencing today, in addition to the 8	sanctions previously accruing, pursuant to prior orders of this
9	Court, and also against Laskarina Karastamati, commencing
10	today, in the amount of 5,000 dollars per day, all continuing
11	until such date that the violating parties and Ms. Karastamati
12	comply with the plan, the confirmation order, consummation
13	order, the March 13th order, and this order.
14	If counsel for Reorganized Holdings can submit an
15	order consistent with this ruling, that would be appreciated.
16	MR. ORTIZ: Good, I guess just now, afternoon, Your
17	Honor. Kyle Ortiz of HSF Kramer. We will do so. It'll
18	probably be at least a day, as we'll wait for this transcript.
19	THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.
20	Okay. Those were the three matters the Court had on 21	for today. So we are adjourned. Hope everyone enjoys the
22	holiday weekend.
23	MR. ORTIZ: Same to you, Your Honor.
24	THE COURT: Thank you, everyone. We're adjourned.

Closed	(If so, set forth the procedure which resulted in closure, e.g., voluntary dismissal, settlement, court decision. Also, state whether there is an appeal pending.)
Open	(If so, set forth procedural status and summarize any court rulings.)

See Appendix A for case information.

Explain in detail the reasons for your position that the newly filed case is related to the earlier filed case.

Rule 13 of the Southern District of New York Division of Business Rules provides that "[b]ankruptcy appeals are deemed related if they arise from the same order or judgment of the bankruptcy court." Although the matter does not strictly arise from the same order or judgment, Judge Liman is familiar with the parties and facts of the instant matter through the above-referenced proceedings. Appellant, therefore, files this Related Case Statement out of an abundance of caution.
