Re: OBJECTION TO DOC 1097-1 in Case 24-11390-TMH ["NOTICE OF LIQUIDATING TRUSTEE'S ELEVENTH OMNIBUS OBJECTION"]

Dear Clerk of the Court,

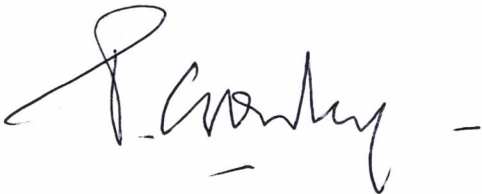

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to respond to the motion filed in the US Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware in relation to the FISKER, INC., et al., debtors claims.

My claim number in case 24-11390-TMH is 3788, for the amount of $50,000 which was the immediate loss I incurred on selling my Fisker Ocean once it was clear that the company was headed towards bankruptcy.

Although I had been away before the deadline my paperwork was completed before the deadline, but the post appears to have been delayed, likely due to the adverse weather conditions in Texas at that time, and so my claim arrived late. I would therefore like to object to a late filing ruling in this case on the basis that there were unavoidable "acts of god" reasons for my late filing.

Thank you for your kind attention in this matter, and I look forward to hearing of the outcome of my objection.

Yours sincerely,

Patrick Crowley, Ph.D.
