Case No. 24-34908

DEBTOR'S SECOND MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER EXTENDING ITS EXCLUSIVE
PERIOD FOR THE FILING OF A CHAPTER 11 PLAN
PURSUANT TO § 1121(D) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

IF YOU OBJECT TO THE RELIEF REQUESTED, YOU MUST RESPOND IN WRITING. UNLESS OTHERWISE DIRECTED BY THE COURT, YOU MUST FILE YOUR RESPONSE ELECTRONICALLY AT HTTPS://ECF.TXSB.USCOURTS.GOV/ WITHIN TWENTY-ONE DAYS FROM THE DATE THIS MOTION WAS FILED. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE ELECTRONIC FILING PRIVILEGES, YOU MUST FILE A WRITTEN OBJECTION THAT IS ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY THE CLERK WITHIN TWENTY-ONE DAYS FROM THE DATE THIS MOTION WAS FILED. OTHERWISE, THE COURT MAY TREAT THE PLEADING AS UNOPPOSED AND GRANT THE RELIEF REQUESTED.

Global Wound Care Medical Group, a Professional Corporation (the “Debtor”), the debtor and debtor in possession in the above-captioned case (the “Case”), hereby moves (the “Motion”) the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas (the “Court”), pursuant to § 1121(d) of title 11 of the United States Code, §§ 101 et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”),² for entry of an order (substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, the “Proposed Order”): (a) extending the periods during which the Debtor has the exclusive right to (i) file a chapter 11 plan (the “Exclusive Filing Period”); and (ii) solicit acceptances thereof (the “Exclusive Solicitation Period,” and together with the Exclusive Filing Period, the “Exclusive Periods”), in each case, by 120 days, from June 18, 2025 and August 19, 2025 to October 16, 2025 and December 17, 2025, respectively, without prejudice to the Debtor’s rights to request further extensions of such periods in accordance with § 1121(d);³ and (b) granting the Debtor such other and further relief as is just.⁴

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The Debtor currently has the exclusive right to file a plan and solicit acceptances under § 1121(d). By this Motion, the Debtor seeks to extend the Exclusive Periods by 120 days, from June 18, 2025 and August 19, 2025 to October 16, 2025 and December 17, 2025, respectively, without prejudice to the Debtor's right to request further extensions of such periods. If granted, this would be the second extension of the Exclusive Periods in this Case.

2. The requested relief is justified for the reasons discussed below; however, the primary reasons are as follows:

- First, as demonstrated by those certain stipulations and extensions on file in this Case [Docket Nos. 87, 95, 112, 119, 129, 141, 150, 154, 163, 171, 175, 182, 194, 199, 203, and 213] (collectively, the "DOJ Stipulations"), the Debtor has been and continues to negotiate a comprehensive settlement (the "Settlement") with the United States Department of Justice and the United States Attorney Office for the Eastern District of California, which are representing the Office of Inspector General ("OIG-HHS") of the Department of Health and Human Services ("HHS"), the Defense Health Agency ("DHA"), and the United States Department of Veterans Affairs ("VA," and collectively with OIG-HHS and DHA, the "United States"). The Debtor has made substantial progress on resolving the pending issues with the United States, which issues compelled the Debtor to commence this Case,

³ Paragraph 30 of the Procedures for Complex Chapter 11 Cases in the Southern District of Texas provides that "if a motion is filed that complies with these procedures to extend the time to take any action before the expiration of the period prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Bankruptcy Local Rules, or a confirmed plan, the time for taking the action is automatically extended until the Court rules on the motion." By the filing of this Motion prior to the expiration of the Exclusive Filing Period, the Exclusive Filing Period will not expire until the Court resolves the Motion.

resolution of which will enable the Debtor to confirm a plan and bring this Case to a successful conclusion. The terms and conditions of the Settlement are currently being negotiated and finalized.

- Second, the Debtor is currently formulating a plan of reorganization, and has commenced discussions with the United States regarding the terms of a plan of reorganization.

3. For these reasons, and as further demonstrated below, including affording the Debtor the full and fair opportunity contemplated by Congress for the Debtor to prosecute a viable, fair, and comprehensive chapter 11 plan and solicit acceptances thereof, the Court should grant the requested relief without prejudice to seek additional extensions.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a) and 1334. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1408 and 1409. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

5. The predicates for the relief requested herein are § 1121(d).

III. BACKGROUND

A. General Overview.

6. On October 21, 2024 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition (the “Petition”) for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

7. The Debtor continues to operate its business and manage its property as a debtor in possession pursuant to §§ 1107 and 1108.

8. No trustee, examiner, or official committee has been appointed in this Case.

9. A description of the Debtor, its business, and the reasons for commencing this Case are set forth in greater detail in the Declaration of Ralph Cetrulo in Support of the Chapter 11 Petition and First Day Motions [Docket No. 8] (the “First Day Declaration”). The First Day Declaration is incorporated by reference herein.

10. On February 7, 2025, the Debtor filed the Motion of Debtor for Entry of an Order (I) Establishing Deadlines and Procedures for Filing Proofs of Claim; (II) Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof; and (III) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 115] (the “Bar Date Motion”), requesting that the Court enter an order setting April 8, 2025 as the deadline to file general claims and April 21, 2025 as the deadline to file governmental claims, other than the United States’ claim related to the issues with CMS, which extended by the DOJ Stipulations to July 12, 2025. On March 6, 2025, the Court granted the Bar Date Motion. [Docket No. 138].

B. Facts Relevant to this Motion.

11. The Debtor, a professional corporation incorporated in California, is a medical practice that provides wound care services, primarily to elderly patients that receive Medicare. The Medicare Program is a federally funded health insurance program primarily designed to cover medical care for the elderly and disabled.

12. Since the Petition Date, the Debtor has continued to provide essential wound care services to thousands of patients in homes, hospices, and skilled nursing facilities. The Debtor operates in a heavily regulated industry while continuing to treat over 2,000 wounds daily. To achieve the Debtor’s chapter 11 goals and maintain quality services to the Debtor’s patients, the Debtor is required to, inter alia, maintain vendor relationships and retain 248 full-time and 36 part-time employees and contracts with 49 medical directors.

13. As reflected in each of the Patient Care Ombudsman’s reports (the “PCO Reports”), “the PCO received excellent cooperation and transparency from all of the Debtor’s leadership,” leading the PCO to conclude that “[t]he Debtor[] appears to strive to meet the needs of their clients” and that the quality of care has not changed as a result of the Debtor’s pending bankruptcy. [See Docket Nos. 105, 131, 212]. The PCO further noted that “[s]taffing appears to have remained consistent since the filing of bankruptcy,” “[n]o red flag issues [were] reported with respect to staffing, incidents, purchasing/supplies and quality of care,” “[n]o financial issues were expressed” and no coverage gaps were reported since the bankruptcy filing. Id.

14. As described in the First Day Declaration, the Debtor filed the Petition as a result of the suspension of Medicare payments (the “Payment Suspension”), which was an existential threat to the Debtor’s business, as well as to patient care and hundreds of jobs. First Day Declaration at ¶¶28-30.

15. After the Petition Date, with the breathing room afforded by chapter 11 protections, the Debtor and the United States began settlement discussions and entered into the DOJ Stipulation and various extensions to provide time to negotiate a global settlement. [See Docket Nos. 87, 95, 112, 119, 129, 141, 150, 154, 163, 171, 175, 182, 194, 199, 203, and 213]. The Debtor continues to participate in meaningful, good faith negotiations with the United States, which negotiations are vital to the Debtor’s progress towards reorganization and in which the Debtor is making substantial positive progress.

16. A global resolution of the issues that led to the Payment Suspension and any resulting claims by the United States against the Debtor is integral to finalizing the terms of any plan of reorganization.

17. On February 18, 2025, the Debtor filed its Motion for Entry of an Order Extending its Exclusive Period for the Filing of a Chapter 11 Plan Pursuant to § 1121(d) of the Bankruptcy Code (the “First Exclusivity Motion”). On March 18, 2025, the Court granted the First Exclusivity Motion and extended the Exclusive Filing Period from February 18, 2025 to June 18, 2025 and extended the Exclusive Solicitation Period from April 21, 2025 to August 19, 2025. [Docket No. 144].

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

18. Pursuant to § 1121(d), the Debtor requests entry of an order: (a) extending the periods during which the Debtor has the exclusive right to (i) file a chapter 11 plan, and (ii) solicit acceptances thereof, in each case, by 120 days, from June 18, 2025 and August 19, 2025 to October 16, 2025 and December 17, 2025, respectively, without prejudice to the Debtor’s right to request further extensions of the Exclusive Periods in accordance with § 1121(d); and (b) granting the Debtor such other and further relief as is just.

V. BASIS FOR RELIEF

A. This Court Should Grant the Relief Requested.

19. Section 1121(b) provides for an initial period of 120 days after the commencement of a chapter 11 case during which a debtor has the exclusive right to file a chapter 11 plan. Section 1121(c)(3) provides that if a debtor files a plan within the 120-day Exclusive Filing Period, it has an exclusive period of 180 days after the commencement of the chapter 11 case to obtain acceptances of its plan. The Debtor's initial Exclusive Filing Period and Exclusive Solicitation Period are currently set to expire on June 18, 2025 and August 19, 2025, respectively.

20. Under § 1121(d), the Court may extend the Exclusive Periods for cause. 11 U.S.C. § 1121(d)(1) (“[O]n request of a party in interest made within the respective periods specified in subsections (b) and (c) of this section and after notice and a hearing, the court may for cause reduce or increase the 120-day period or the 180-day period referred to in this section.”).

21. The Bankruptcy Code neither defines the term “cause” for purposes of § 1121(d) nor establishes formal criteria for an extension. The legislative history of § 1121 indicates, however, that it is intended to be a flexible standard to balance the competing interests of a debtor and its creditors. See In re Timbers of Inwood Forest Assocs., Ltd., 808 F.2d 363, 372 (5th Cir. 1987) (“[A]ny bankruptcy court involved in an assessment of whether ‘cause’ exists should be mindful of the legislative goal behind § 1121.”); In re Mirant Corp., No. 4-04-CV-476-A, 4-04-CV-530-A, 2004 WL 2250986, at *2 (N.D. Tex. Sept. 30, 2004) (“In virtually every case where an extension has been granted, the debtor showed substantial progress had been made in negotiations toward reorganization.”); H.R. Rep. No. 95-595, at 231-32 (1978), reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5963 (noting that Congress intended to give Bankruptcy Courts great flexibility to protect a debtor's interests by allowing a debtor an unimpeded opportunity to negotiate settlement of debts without interference from other parties in interest).

22. The broad discretion conferred on the Court in these circumstances enables the Court to consider a variety of factors to assess the totality of circumstances in each case. In re Adelphia Commc'ns Corp., 352 B.R. 578, 587 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2006) (identifying factors courts consider in determining whether to extend exclusivity); In re Hoffinger Indus., Inc., 292 B.R. 639, 644 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2003) (“It is within the discretion of the bankruptcy court to decide which factors are relevant and give the appropriate weight to each.”); In re Express One Int’l, Inc., 194 B.R. 98, 100 (Bankr. E.D. Tex. 1996) (listing factors considered by courts); In re Washington-St. Tammany Elec. Coop., Inc., 97 B.R. 852, 854 (E.D. La. 1989) (noting that the decision to extend exclusivity “rests with the discretion of the Court.”).

23. Courts in this district and others have identified the Adelphia factors as factors to consider in determining whether cause exists to extend exclusivity. See, e.g., In re New Millennium Mgmt., LLC, No. 13-35719-H3-11, 2014 WL 792115, at *6 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Feb. 25, 2014); see also In re Borders Grp., Inc., 460 B.R. 818, 822 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011) (evaluating the factors set forth in Adelphia to hold that debtor established cause to extend exclusivity). These non-exclusive factors include:

- (i) the size and complexity of the debtor’s case;
- (ii) the necessity for sufficient time to permit the debtor to negotiate a chapter 11 plan and prepare adequate information;
- (iii) the existence of good faith progress towards reorganization;
- (iv) the fact that the debtor is paying its bills as they become due;
- (v) whether the debtor has demonstrated reasonable prospects for filing a viable plan;
- (vi) whether the debtor has made progress in negotiations with its creditors;
- (vii) the amount of time which has elapsed in the case;
- (viii) whether the debtor is seeking an extension of exclusivity in order to pressure creditors to submit to the debtor’s reorganization demands; and
- (ix) whether an unresolved contingency exists.

See, e.g., Millennium Mgmt., 2014 WL 792115, at *6; see also In re Adelphia Commc'ns Corp., 352 B.R. at 587 (noting that the factors listed above are “objective factors which courts historically have considered in making determinations of this character”).

24. Not all factors are relevant to every case and courts tend to use a relevant subset of the above factors in determining whether cause exists to grant an exclusivity extension in a particular chapter 11 case. See, e.g., In re Hoffinger Indus., Inc., 292 B.R. at 644 (“It is within the discretion of the bankruptcy court to decide which factors are relevant and give the appropriate weight to each.”); In re Serv. Merch. Co., Inc., 256 B.R. 744, 751–54 (Bankr. M.D. Tenn. 2000) (finding cause to extend where the debtors established six of the aforementioned factors); In re Express One Int’l, Inc., 194 B.R. at 100-01 (identifying four of the factors as relevant in determining whether “cause” existed to extend exclusivity); see also In re Dow Corning Corp., 208 B.R. 661, 670 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 1997) (“When the Court is determining whether to terminate a debtor’s exclusivity, the primary consideration should be whether or not doing so would facilitate moving the case forward. And that is a practical call that can override a mere toting up of the factors.”).

25. Moreover, courts regularly grant a debtor’s second request for an extension of the debtor’s exclusive period to file a chapter 11 plan. See, e.g., In re Barrow Shaver Resources Company LLC, Case No. 24-33353 (ARP) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. May 20, 2025) [Docket No. 61] (granting second extension of the exclusive filing periods for 90 days and 60 days, respectively); In re Seadrill Ltd., No. 21- 30427 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Feb. 11, 2022) [Docket No. 1392] (granting third extension of the exclusive filing periods); In re Fieldwood Energy LLC, No. 20-33948 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Jul. 13, 2021) [Docket No. 1873] (granting third extension of the exclusive filing periods); In re NPC Int’l, Inc., No. 20-33353 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Mar. 16, 2021) [Docket No. 1316] (granting another 120-day extension); In re EP Energy Corp., No. 19-35654 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Mar. 31, 2020) [Docket No. 1135] (granting 6-month extension).

B. Cause Exists to Grant the Relief Requested.

26. An extension of the Exclusive Periods by 120 days is appropriate, in the best interests of the Debtor and its stakeholders, and consistent with the intent and purpose of chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The requested extensions of the Exclusive Periods are necessary and appropriate to enable the Debtor to finalize negotiations with the United States to resolve the issues that led to the Payment Suspension, and to pursue a chapter 11 plan framework that will maximize the value of the Debtor’s estate for the benefit of all stakeholders.

27. Accordingly, application of each of the factors courts consider when granting extensions to the facts of this Case demonstrates that ample cause exists to grant the extension of the Exclusive Periods requested herein.

(i) The Debtor's Case is Complex.

28. The Debtor's dispute with the United States requires the Debtor to address numerous complex regulatory and legal issues related to the Medicare program and the False Claims Act in the context of the Settlement. Representatives of the Debtor and related entities have been meeting regularly with attorneys representing the United States, and had an in-person meeting in Washington, D.C. with those same attorneys, with the goal of reaching the Settlement between the Debtor and related entities, and the United States.

29. The Debtor operates in a heavily regulated industry while continuing to treat over 2,000 wounds daily. To achieve the Debtor's chapter 11 goals and maintain quality services to the Debtor's patients, the Debtor is required to, inter alia, maintain vendor relationships and manage 248 full-time and 36 part-time employees and contracts with 49 medical directors – all while engaging in critical negotiations with the United States and other key stakeholders. These highly complex tasks are essential to the Debtor's successful reorganization.

30. The Case is eight months old, and given the complexity of the issues to be resolved with the United States, the Debtor's progress to date supports the relief requested in this Motion.

(ii) The Debtor has Demonstrated a Necessity for Additional Time to Permit the Debtor to Negotiate a Chapter 11 Plan and Prepare Adequate Information.

31. In addition to making progress in the Debtor's negotiations with the United States regarding a resolution of the Payment Suspension through a global settlement, the Debtor has made substantive, good faith progress towards formulating a plan of reorganization and preparing adequate information and disclosures related thereto. The Debtor needs additional time to finalize a settlement with the DOJ, which will allow it to resolve issues related to the terms of a plan of reorganization.

32. Section 1121 aims to provide the Debtor with sufficient time and flexibility to negotiate with its creditors. To that end, the Debtor continues to engage with the DOJ and other key stakeholders on the terms and conditions that will be necessary to formulate what the Debtor anticipates will be a consensual plan of reorganization. Therefore, this factor weighs heavily in support of the Debtor's request for an extension of the Exclusivity Periods.

(iii) The Debtor has Established Good Faith Progress Towards Reorganization.

33. As stated in the First Day Declaration, the Payment Suspension was the existential threat that forced the Debtor to file for chapter 11 protections. First Day Declaration at ¶ 30. These chapter 11 protections, and the subsequent DOJ Stipulation with the United States, have afforded the Debtor with breathing room to participate in meaningful, good faith negotiations with the United States, which negotiations are integral to the Debtor's progress towards reorganization. That said, the Settlement has not been finalized at this time, and, thus, the Debtor requests this Court grant an extension of the Exclusivity Periods, so that the Debtor may continue working towards resolution of the issues with the United States.

34. As set forth above, the Debtor has expended significant time and effort since the Petition Date working in good faith with the United States to address its concerns, all while maintaining the Debtor's business operations, preserving value for the Debtor, its stakeholders, and parties in interest, and, most importantly, protecting the health and wellbeing of the patients who are being treated at their homes, hospices, and skilled nursing facilities.

35. Since the Petition Date, in addition to negotiating with the United States, the Debtor has, among other things:

- Promptly completed and filed its schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs;
- Conducted and concluded the meeting of creditors pursuant to § 341;
- Obtained final approval authorizing the Debtor to pay certain prepetition wages, to maintain its insurance program and pay insurance premiums, and to continue using its prepetition cash management system;
- Conducted an orderly process for filing proofs of claims;

- Obtained positive PCO Reports, noting “excellent cooperation and transparency from all of the Debtor’s leadership,” and that “[s]taffing appears to have remained consistent,” “[n]o red flag issues [were] reported with respect to staffing, incidents, purchasing/supplies and quality of care,” “[n]o financial issues were expressed,” and no coverage gaps were reported since the bankruptcy filing; and
- Analyzed potential resolution of this Case, including issues related to the formulation of a plan of reorganization.

36. Thus, this factor supports the extension of the Exclusive Periods. See In re Adelpia Commc’ns Corp., 352 B.R. at 588 (viewing the good faith progress factor “as one of the more important factors” in the analysis).

(iv) The Debtor is Paying Its Postpetition Bills as They Become Due.

37. The Debtor is paying its postpetition bills as they come due and an extension of the Exclusivity Period will inure to benefit of the Debtor’s estate, creditors, and other key stakeholders. This factor weighs in favor of granting this Motion.

(v) The Debtor has Demonstrated Reasonable Prospects for Filing a Viable Plan.

38. The Debtor has a viable business, which continues to generate sufficient revenue to pay its postpetition accounts payables. If a global settlement with the United States can be reached, there is no reason to believe that the Debtor will not be viable going forward and will be able to file a viable plan. This factor also supports an extension of the Exclusivity Periods.

(vi) The Debtor has Made Progress in Negotiations with its Creditors.

39. As discussed, the Debtor is making progress in its negotiations with the United States. This factor weighs strongly in favor of granting this Motion.

(vii) Only a Small Amount of Time has Elapsed Since the Petition Date.

40. This is the Debtor’s second motion for an extension of the Exclusive Periods, and only eight (8) months have passed since the Petition Date. Given the scope of the issues between the Debtor and the United States, and the importance of their resolution to the Debtor, this is a relatively small amount of time. Although the data is not recent, the General Accounting Office reported that False Claims Act cases where the United States intervened “took a median of 38 months to conclude,” and the time ranged from “4 months to 187 months” to be resolved. See

General Accounting Office, Information on False Claims Act Litigation, available at chrome-extension://efaidnbmnnnibpcajpcglclefindmkaj/https://www.gao.gov/assets/gao-06-320r.pdf.

Thus, under the circumstances, eight (8) months is a “small amount” of time. Therefore, this factor supports the requested extension.

(viii) The Debtor is Seeking an Extension of Exclusivity to Best Position Its Estate for Reorganization, and Not to Pressure Creditors to Submit to Its Reorganization Demands.

41. The Debtor’s request for an extension of the Exclusive Periods is not a tactical decision aimed at pressuring creditors to accept the Debtor’s goals and objectives related to a plan of reorganization. Therefore, this factor does not weigh against the Court granting this Motion.

(ix) An Unresolved Contingency Exists.

42. The Debtor’s current potential plan of reorganization anticipates a global resolution between the Debtor and the United States, and until terms and conditions of such global resolution can be settled, it is premature to file a plan of reorganization. Rather, it is in the best interests of the Debtor’s estates, its creditors, and other parties in interest for the Debtor to continue its efforts to finalize a global settlement with the United States. This factor weighs squarely in favor of granting the Motion.

43. Accordingly, for the reasons set forth herein, the Debtor submits that “cause” exists to extend the Exclusive Periods and respectfully request that the Court grant the relief requested herein.

VI. NOTICE

44. The Debtor has provided notice of this Motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee for the Southern District of Texas; (b) the holders of the twenty (20) largest unsecured claims against the Debtor; (c) the Office of the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Texas; (d) the United States, acting by and through the Secretary of the Department of Health & Human Services; (e) the Attorney General of the United States; and (f) any party that has appeared electronically in this Case and/or requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. In light of the nature of the relief requested, the Debtor submits that no other or further notice is required.

VII. NO PRIOR REQUEST

45. The First Exclusivity Motion sought extensions for different period of time than this Motion, and no prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this Court or any other Court.

VIII. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully requests entry of the Proposed Order: (i) granting the relief requested herein; and (ii) granting the Debtor such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
