MOTION FOR ORDER IMPOSING TEMPORARY
RESTRICTIONS ON DEBTOR'S ABILITY, AS PORTFOLIO MANAGER, TO INITIATE SALES BY NON-DEBTOR CLO VEHICLES

Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. (“HCMFA”) and NexPoint Advisors, L.P. (“NexPoint”, and together with HCMFA, the “Advisors”), and Highland Income Fund, NexPoint Strategic Opportunities Fund, and NexPoint Capital, Inc. (together, the “Funds”), by and through their undersigned counsel, hereby submit this motion for an order of the Court under Bankruptcy Code §§ 105(a), 363, and 1107 imposing temporary restrictions on Highland Capital Management, L.P.’s (the “Debtor”) ability to initiate sales as portfolio manager (or other similar capacity) for certain non-debtor investment vehicles (the “CLOs”). In support of the Motion, the Funds and Advisors submit the Declaration of Dustin Norris (the “Declaration”) attached hereto and state as follows:

BACKGROUND

A. General Background on the Advisors and their Advised Funds

1. Each Advisor is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) as an investment advisor under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the “Advisers Act”).

2. Each of the Advisors advises several funds, including the Funds. Each of the Funds is a registered investment company or business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (as amended, the “1940 Act”).

3. As an investment company or business development company, each Fund is overseen by a majority independent board of trustees subject to 1940 Act requirements. That board reviews and approves contracts with one of the Advisors for the respective Fund. The Funds do not have employees. Instead, each Fund relies on its respective Advisor, acting pursuant to advisory agreements, to provide the services necessary to the Fund’s operations.

B. The CLOs

4. The CLOs are Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd., Brentwood CLO, Ltd., Eastland CLO, Ltd., Gleneagles CLO, Ltd., Grayson CLO, Ltd., Greenbriar CLO, Ltd., Jasper CLO, Ltd., Liberty CLO, Ltd., Red River CLO, Ltd., Rockwall CDO, Ltd., Rockwall CDO II Ltd.,

Southfork CLO, Ltd., Stratford CLO Ltd., Loan Funding VII, LLC, and Westchester CLO, Ltd.

5. The CLOs are securitization vehicles formed to acquire and hold pools of debt obligations. They also issued various tranches of notes and preference shares, which are intended to be repaid from proceeds of the subject CLO's pool of debt obligations. The notes issued by the CLOs are paid according to a contractual waterfall, with the value remaining in the CLO after the notes are fully paid flowing to the holders of the preference shares.

6. The CLOs were created many years ago. Most of the CLOs are, at this point, past their reinvestment period and have paid off all the tranches of notes or, in a few instances, all but the last and most junior tranche. Accordingly, most of the economic value remaining in the CLOs, and all of the upside, belongs to the holders of the preference shares. The repayment status of the notes in the CLOs as of November 2020 is shown on Exhibit A to the Declaration, and the Funds' collective ownership of the preference shares is shown on Exhibit B to the Declaration. As shown on Exhibit B, the Funds hold a majority of the preference shares in three of the CLOs, Grayson CLO, Ltd., Greenbriar CLO, Ltd., and Stratford CLO Ltd., and material interests in most of the other CLOs.

7. The CLOs have each separately contracted for the Debtor to serve as the CLO's portfolio manager.<sup>1</sup> In this capacity, the Debtor is responsible, among other things, for making decisions to sell the CLO's assets. Although the portfolio management agreements vary, the agreements generally impose a duty on the Debtor when acting as portfolio manager to maximize the value of the CLO's assets for the benefit of the CLO's noteholders and preference

<sup>1</sup> The title given to the Debtor by the CLOs varies from CLO to CLO based on the relevant agreements, but the Debtor has the same general rights and obligations for each CLO. In this Motion, the Funds and Advisors have used the term "portfolio manager" when referring to the Debtor's role for each CLO regardless of the precise title in the underlying documents.

C. The Operating Protocols

8. As part of the resolution of certain disputes between the Debtor and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”), the Debtor is operating under the restrictions and provisions of certain operating protocols (the “Operating Protocols”) approved by the Court. See Notice of Debtor’s Amended Operating Protocols (Docket No. 466). Among other things, the Operating Protocols include provisions regulating the Debtor’s actions on behalf of other entities. With respect to the CLOs, however, the Operating Protocols generally exempt the Debtor from the regular approval process involving the Committee where the Debtor acts as portfolio manager for the CLOs. See, e.g., Operating Protocols at § IV(B)(3)(a).

C. Recent Asset Sales and the Advisors’ Requests for a Temporary Pause in Sales

9. The Court recently approved the Debtor’s Disclosure Statement for the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (Docket No. 1473) (the “Disclosure Statement”).

10. The Disclosure Statement discusses the Debtor’s role as portfolio manager for the CLOs (which the Disclosure Statement defines as “Issuers”) in Article II(U) (pg. 32). After explaining the Debtor’s role and noting some proofs of claim filed by the CLOs, the Disclosure Statement states as follows:

The Issuers have taken the position that the rejection of the Portfolio Management Agreements (including any ancillary documents) would result in material rejection damages and have encouraged the Debtor to assume such agreements. Nonetheless, the Issuers and the Debtor are working in good faith to address any outstanding issues regarding such assumption. The Portfolio Management Agreements may be assumed either pursuant to the Plan or by separate motion filed with the Bankruptcy Court.

The Debtor is still assessing its options with respect to the Portfolio Management Agreements, including whether to assume the Portfolio Management Agreements.

11. The Financial Projections attached as Exhibit C to the Disclosure Statement make clear that, assuming confirmation of the Debtor's chapter 11 plan in its current form, the Debtor intends to liquidate its remaining assets over the next two years, concluding in December 2022.

12. The Funds and Advisors do not agree with recent sales executed by the Debtor in certain CLOs, including sales during the historically light Thanksgiving trading week, because the Funds and Advisors view those assets as having greater value if held as long-term investments. When the Advisors became aware the Debtor was considering these transactions, NexPoint requested that the Debtor not consummate the sales.

13. NexPoint has requested in two letters that the Debtor refrain from causing the CLOs to sell further assets without prior notice and consent of NexPoint. Counsel to the Funds and Advisors has also requested by email that the Debtor agree consensually to temporarily suspend further sales of the CLOs' assets and/or confirm that the Debtor is not presently planning further sales in the immediate future. The Debtor has refused these requests.

D. HCMLP Decisions Illustrating Its Short-Term Approach

14. Consistent with its proposal to liquidate all of its assets by the end of 2022 per the Disclosure Statement, HCMLP has engaged in transactions taking a short-term approach to value.

15. In addition to the sales noted above during Thanksgiving week, during the chapter 11 case, the Debtor has directed the disposition of other assets in a manner that suggests a focus on quick monetization at the expense of maximizing returns for investors and/or the estate. For example, Debtor-controlled entities sold a collective majority interest in an unsecured term loan to OmniMax International, Inc. Other non-Debtor controlled entities, advised by the Advisors, were able to secure a substantially better price for their stake in the same asset by being willing to hold it and transacting at a later date. Given the Debtor-controlled entities large ownership in the unsecured loan, the Advisors believe the Debtor was well-positioned to realize a higher price.

16. Also, upon information and belief, the Debtor, through its wholly owned subsidiary Trussway Holdings, LLC (“Trussway”), consummated a sale transaction where Trussway sold a division, SSP Holdings, LLC, in which Trussway had a majority interest. Upon information and belief, the sale was conducted without a formal competitive bidding process and resulted in a loss of $10 million, despite certain metrics of SSP Holdings, LLC having improved materially since it was acquired in 2014.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

17. The Funds and Advisors request that the Court, under Bankruptcy Code sections 105(a), 363, and 1107(a) impose a temporary restriction on the Debtor’s ability, as portfolio manager, to cause the CLOs to sell assets. The Funds and Advisors request that the Court prohibit the Debtor from authorizing any such sales for a period of 30 days, absent further order of the Court.

18. Bankruptcy Code section 363 governs the Debtor’s use of estate property. 11 U.S.C. § 363. Section 363 authorizes the Debtor to use that property outside of the ordinary course of business “after notice and a hearing,” and in the ordinary course of business without notice and a hearing “unless the court orders otherwise . . . .” 11 U.S.C. § 363(b-c). Bankruptcy Code section 1107(a) grants the Debtor, as debtor-in-possession, the powers of a chapter 11 trustee, subject to “such limitations or conditions as the court prescribes . . . .” 11 U.S.C.

§ 1107(a). And Bankruptcy Code section 105(a) empowers the Court to “issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions” of the Bankruptcy Code. 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).

19. Consistent with these powers, the Court implemented the Operating Protocols earlier in this case regarding the Debtor’s actions on behalf of other non-debtor entities. Unlike where the Debtor directs sales of assets for other entities, however, the Operating Protocols generally do not restrict the Debtor’s actions as portfolio manager for the CLOs. See Operating Protocols at IV(B)(3)(a).<sup>2</sup> The Funds and Advisors submit that the relief requested does not conflict with the Operating Protocols, but to the extent necessary, the Funds and Advisors request that the Court modify the Operating Protocols in the limited and temporary way requested in this Motion.

20. The Funds and Advisors seek this relief to preserve the status quo at the CLOs while the Funds and Advisors explore replacing the Debtor as portfolio manager either

Except (x) as set forth in (b) and (c) below and (y) for any Transaction involving a Specified Entity and the sale or purchase by such Specified Entity of an asset that is not an obligation or security issued or guaranteed by any of the Debtor, a Related Entity or a fund, account, portfolio company owned, controlled or managed by the Debtor or a Related Entity, where such Transaction is effected in compliance with the collateral management agreement to which such Specified Entity is party, any Transaction that decreases the NAV of an entity managed by the Debtor in excess of the greater of (i) 10% of NAV or (ii) $3,000,000 requires five business days advance notice to Committee and if the Committee objects, the burden is on the Debtor to seek Court approval, which the Committee agrees may be sought on an expedited basis.

(emphasis added). “Specified Entity” is defined in section I(K) of the Operating Protocols to include the CLOs referenced in this Motion.

consensually or through the contractual processes laid out in the relevant underlying agreements.

21. In the Disclosure Statement, the Debtor states that it has not determined if it wants to continue to serve as portfolio manager for the CLOs. The Debtor also has not sought input from the Funds and Advisers, even though the Funds are among the largest stakeholders indirectly and significantly affected by the Debtor's actions with respect to the CLOs.

22. The Advisers Act places a fiduciary duty on investment advisers comprising a duty of care and duty of loyalty. See, e.g., SEC Release No. IA-3248, "Commission Interpretation Regarding Standard of Conduct for Investment Advisers," (July 12, 2019). This means an adviser, like the Debtor, must, at all times, serve the best interest of its client and not subordinate its client's interest to its own. See id. This combination of care and loyalty obligations has been characterized as requiring the investment adviser to act in the "best interest" of its client at all times. See SEC v. Tambone, 550 F.3d 106, 146 (1st Cir. 2008) ("Section 206 imposes a fiduciary duty on investment advisers to act at all times in the best interest of the fund . . . ."); SEC v. Moran, 944 F. Supp. 286, 297 (S.D.N.Y. 1996) ("Investment advisers are entrusted with the responsibility and duty to act in the best interest of their clients.").

23. Although the Debtor's nominal "clients" are the CLOs themselves, the true parties in interest are the holders of beneficial interests in the CLOs, such as the Funds. Most or all of the other layers of CLO interests have been paid out, and the Funds hold either the majority or a substantial portion of most of the remaining CLO interests. In these circumstances, the Funds and the other preference shareholders are the parties who are economically affected by the Debtor's actions as portfolio manager.

24. The Funds and Advisors believe replacing the Debtor as portfolio manager is appropriate in light of the reduced staffing the Debtor anticipates having once the Debtor's chapter 11 plan goes effective. The Funds and Advisors also believe it is appropriate in light of the Debtor's reduced investment time horizon under the chapter 11 plan. As noted above, the Debtor intends to liquidate its investments in the next two years. The Funds, on the other hand, have a much longer investment time horizon and, as a result, have very different financial incentives with respect to their investments. The Funds and Advisors accordingly believe that the Funds and the other preference shareholders would be best served by a portfolio manager with a similar long-term perspective.

25. Upon information and belief, none of the CLOs needs liquidity at the current time, as the next quarterly waterfall payments are not due until February 2021. The Funds and Advisors accordingly submit that none of the CLOs, the other holders of preference shares and notes issued by the CLOs, or the Debtor will be harmed by the temporary restriction proposed by this Motion. Notably, the Funds and Advisors are not seeking to restrict the Debtor from performing any of its other functions for the CLOs or to modify the Debtor's compensation from the CLOs in any way.

CONCLUSION

26. For the reasons set forth above, the Funds and Advisors respectfully request that the Court grant the relief requested in the Motion and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DECLARATION OF DUSTIN NORRIS

I, Dustin Norris, hereby declare pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, that the following is true and correct.

1. I am the Executive Vice President of NexPoint Advisors, L.P. (“NexPoint”).

2. I submit this Declaration based on my personal knowledge and information supplied to me by other members of NexPoint’s management. I submit this Declaration in support of the Motion for Order Imposing Temporary Restrictions on Debtor’s Ability, as Portfolio Manager, to Initiate Sales by Non-Debtor CLO Vehicles (the “Motion”) by NexPoint, Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. (“HCMFA”, and together with NexPoint, the “Advisors”), Highland Income Fund, NexPoint Strategic Opportunities Fund, and NexPoint Capital, Inc. (together, the “Funds”).

3. The Motion concerns the following non-debtor investment vehicles: Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd., Brentwood CLO, Ltd., Eastland CLO, Ltd., Gleneagles CLO, Ltd., Grayson CLO, Ltd., Greenbriar CLO, Ltd., Jasper CLO, Ltd., Liberty CLO, Ltd., Red River CLO, Ltd., Rockwall CDO, Ltd., Rockwall CDO II Ltd., Southfork CLO, Ltd., Stratford CLO Ltd., Loan Funding VII, LLC, and Westchester CLO, Ltd. (collectively, the “CLOs”).

4. The Funds each hold interests in the CLOs.

5. The CLOs are securitization vehicles formed to acquire and hold pools of debt obligations. They also issued various tranches of notes and preference shares, which are intended to be repaid from proceeds of the subject CLO's pool of debt obligations. The notes issued by the CLOs are paid according to a contractual waterfall, with the value remaining in the CLO after the notes are fully paid flowing to the holders of the preference shares.

6. The CLOs were created many years ago. Most of the CLOs are, at this point, past their reinvestment period and have paid off all the tranches of notes or, in a few instances, all but the last and most junior tranche. Accordingly, most of the economic value remaining in the CLOs, and all of the upside, belongs to the holders of the preference shares. The repayment status of the notes in the CLOs as of November 2020 is shown on Exhibit A hereto, and the Funds' collective ownership of the preference shares is shown on Exhibit B hereto.

7. The CLOs have each separately contracted for Highland Capital Management, L.P. (the "Debtor") to serve as the CLO's portfolio manager. The title given to the Debtor by the CLOs varies from CLO to CLO based on the relevant agreements, but the Debtor has the same general rights and obligations for each CLO. In this capacity, the Debtor is responsible, among other things, for making decisions to sell the CLOs assets. Although the portfolio management agreements vary, the agreements generally impose a duty on the Debtor when acting as portfolio manager to maximize the value of the CLO's assets for the benefit of the CLO's noteholders and preference shareholders.

8. During the chapter 11 case, the Debtor has directed the disposition of other assets in a manner that suggests a focus on quick monetization at the expense of maximizing returns for investors and/or the estate. For example, Debtor-controlled entities sold a collective majority interest in an unsecured term loan to OmniMax International, Inc. Other non-Debtor controlled entities, advised by the Advisors, were able to secure a substantially better price for their stake in the same asset by being willing to hold it and transacting at a later date. Given the Debtor-controlled entities large ownership in the unsecured loan, the Advisors believe the Debtor was well-positioned to realize a higher price.

9. Also, upon information and belief, the Debtor, through its wholly owned subsidiary Trussway Holdings, LLC (“Trussway”), consummated a sale transaction where Trussway sold a division, SSP Holdings, LLC, in which Trussway had a majority interest. Upon information and belief, the sale was conducted without a formal competitive bidding process and resulted in a loss of $10 million, despite certain metrics of SSP Holdings, LLC having improved materially since it was acquired in 2014.

10. The Advisors did not agree with the Debtor’s decision to execute recent sales for certain of the CLOs, because the Advisors viewed those assets as having greater value if held as long-term investments. When the Advisors became aware the Debtor was considering these transactions, NexPoint requested that the Debtor not consummate the sales.

11. Upon information and belief, none of the CLOs need liquidity at the current time, as the next quarterly waterfall payments are not due until February 2021.

I declare under the penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 8th day of December, 2020, in Allen, Texas,

1                   DALLAS, TEXAS - DECEMBER 16, 2020 - 1:35 P.M.

2                   THE COURT: All right. This is Judge Jernigan. We
3 have settings in Highland. We have -- I guess the very first
4 thing that we had set today was a motion of Dondero, Mr.
5 Dondero wanting some sort of revised procedures for "future
6 estate transactions occurring outside the ordinary course of 7 business." Then, related to that, we received the other day
8 -- I'm not showing it on the calendar, I'm not sure if that 9 means it's moot now or not, but we had a motion for protective
10 order and a motion to quash with regard to certain depositions 11 that Mr. Dondero wanted in connection with his motion. The 12 Debtor filed that motion to quash. It was to quash a 13 deposition of Mr. Dubel, Mr. Nelms, Mr. Sevilla, and Mr.
14 Caruso. And then we have the CLO Motion, what I'm calling the 15 CLO Motion, of --

16                   (Interruption.)

17                   THE COURT: Okay. Let's --

18                   MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, this is Jeff Pomerantz.
19 The first two motions have been resolved. And after Your 20 Honor takes appearances, I'm happy to inform the Court of the 21 proposed resolution, and there's an agreed order that we would 22 upload after the hearing.

23                   THE COURT: Okay. Well, that is certainly music to 24 my ears. All right. So I was just trying to lay out the 25 program for what I thought was set, potentially three motions,

1 one of which was a deposition dispute.

2 All right. So let's go ahead and get appearances. Mr.
3 Pomerantz, you're obviously appearing for the Debtor team.

4 MR. POMERANTZ: Yes. Good morning, Your Honor. Or 5 good afternoon, Your Honor. Jeff Pomerantz; Pachulski Stang
6 Ziehl & Jones. Also on the video with me today are John
7 Morris and Greg Demo. They will be handling the CLO Motion,
8 and I will be reporting to the Court on the resolution of Mr.
9 Dondero's motion and our corollary discovery motions.

10 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, why don't I take 11 an appearance from Mr. Dondero next. Mr. Lynn, I see you
12 there.

13 MR. LYNN: Yes, Your Honor. I am here with Bryan
14 Assink, who will replace me after the preliminaries when our 15 business is done. Other than concurring with Mr. Pomerantz, I 16 wanted to advise Your Honor that in the last 30 minutes we 17 filed an additional motion where we're seeking a clarification
18 with respect to the temporary restraining order that the Court
19 entered last week.

20 THE COURT: All right. Well, I did see an email from 21 my courtroom deputy right before walking in about that motion, 22 and so that's why I was a little surprised and said "Music to 23 my ears" that there was an agreed order on the Dondero
24 motions. But I'll get the details --

25 MR. LYNN: Well, we're --

1           THE COURT: I'll get the details about that in a
2 minute. Let me go ahead and get the other appearances.

3           For the Movants on what I've called the CLO Motion, who do
4 we have appearing?

5           MR. WRIGHT: Good afternoon, Your Honor. It's James 6 Wright of K&L Gates for the -- I guess I'll call them the 7 Movant for this motion.

8           THE COURT: Yes. Sometimes you're referred to as the 9 Advisors and the Funds and -- but Movants on Docket Entry
10 1528.

11          All right. For the Committee, I know you have weighed in 12 on a couple of these motions. Who do we have?

13          MR. CLEMENTE: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Matt
14 Clemente with Sidley Austin on behalf of the Committee.

15          THE COURT: All right. Well, we have a lot of folks
16 on the phone. I think I've covered everybody who filed a 17 pleading for today. Is there anyone else who would like to 18 appear? I'd really like to restrict it only to those who have 19 filed pleadings today.

20          MS. MATSUMURA: This is Rebecca Matsumura from King &
21 Spalding representing Highland CLO Funding, Ltd. I don't 22 expect I'll be weighing in today, but there are a couple 23 issues that I may say a sentence on, so I want to go ahead and 24 make my appearance now.

25          THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Anyone else?

1           MR. BAIN: Yes, Your Honor. Joseph Bain; Jones
2 Walker; on behalf of the CLO Issuers.

3           THE COURT: All right.

4           MR. BAIN: And Your Honor, if we may make certain
5 comments at the requisite time, we'd appreciate it.

6           THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Anyone else?

7           All right. Well, Mr. Pomerantz, let's hear about the 8 agreements you have on the Dondero-related motions.

9           MR. POMERANTZ: Happy to, Your Honor. And yes, Mr.
10 Lynn is correct, we saw also an emergency motion that came 11 through that I'll have a couple of comments at the end of my 12 presentation.

13           So, as I mentioned before, Your Honor, I'm pleased to 14 report that with respect to the two motions that Your Honor
15 scheduled for today's hearing, we have an agreement with Mr.
16 Dondero. One was the motion of Mr. Dondero requiring 17 transactions out of the ordinary course to be brought before
18 this Court. The second was the Debtor's motion to quash a 19 series of subpoenas that had been issued in the last two days,
20 requiring board members and others to testify.

21           As part of the agreement, we have agreed with Mr. Dondero
22 that his motion, which is presently set for today, shall be 23 continued to January 4th, which is the same date set as the 24 continued hearing on the preliminary injunction relating to 25 the TRO that Your Honor had entered last week.

1       As part of that agreement, the Debtor has agreed that it
2 will provide Mr. Dondero with three business days' notice
3 before selling any non-security assets from any managed funds
4 accounts through and including January 13th, which is the date
5 set for confirmation.

6       While, as the Court is aware, the Debtor doesn't believe 7 that any notice, opportunity for hearing, or an order from the 8 Court is required in connection with such transactions, as the 9 Debtor does not have any current plans to sell non-security
10 assets from managed funds before confirmation, it was willing 11 to agree to the notice requirement as essentially a way of 12 resolving the motion before Your Honor today and continuing 13 until the 4th.

14       As part of the agreement as well, Your Honor, the parties
15 have agreed that there will be no further discovery in 16 connection with the motion that is set. That'll be no
17 additional discovery by Mr. Dondero, so he is withdrawing the 18 subpoenas as it relates to this motion, and there will be no
19 further discovery as -- by the Debtor. As Your Honor, I
20 think, is aware, there were depositions conducted of both Mr.
21 Seery and Mr. Dondero on Monday in connection with this 22 motion, but the discovery will not happen over the next couple 23 of weeks.

24       Mr. Dondero wanted to make sure, and the Debtor didn't 25 have any opposition, that that agreement with respect to no

1 discovery only relates to the pending motion before the Court.
2 And in connection with any other matters relating to this
3 bankruptcy case, Mr. Dondero would reserve the right to pursue
4 discovery, and of course the Debtors would reserve the right
5 to challenge discovery if we believed it was inappropriate or 6 unduly burdensome.

7 With respect to the motion that was just filed, Your 8 Honor, we had a chance to briefly review it. We haven't had a
9 chance to discuss it with the board. In any event, we don't 10 think there's an emergency. Mr. Dondero wants the opportunity
11 to approach and communicate with the board. I've told Mr.
12 Lynn that communications regarding the plan are to go through 13 Mr. Seery. Mr. Seery is the Debtor's chief executive officer.
14 He's the chief restructuring officer. And at this point, the 15 board doesn't see a reason or have a desire to meet with Mr.
16 Dondero to talk about his plan, but, again, would be happy to 17 receive any written communications that Mr. Dondero has.

18 Mr. Dondero has sought to modify the TRO to allow him to 19 speak to the board. Again, if the board agreed to speak with 20 Mr. Dondero, that wouldn't violate the TRO, provided that 21 counsel would be present. But at this point, the board has 22 decided that it would be inappropriate and not a good use of 23 anyone's time to have that communication and that Mr. Dondero
24 should continue to communicate through Mr. Seery, the Debtor's
25 chief executive officer.

1           If Your Honor, after reading the motion and hearing my
2       comments, and I'm sure Judge Lynn's comments that he will make 3       to Your Honor, Your Honor wants to set it for hearing, we 4       would submit, Your Honor, there's no emergency and that a
5       hearing could be set next week, but we would think Your Honor
6       might be able to dispose of the motion just on the papers and 7       the limited argument that would go on today.

8           THE COURT: All right.

9           MR. POMERANTZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

10          THE COURT: All right. Mr. Lynn, first, could you
11       confirm the terms of the agreed order that Mr. Pomerantz just 12       announced are consistent with what you and your client
13       believed was negotiated?

14          THE CLERK: He's on mute.

15          THE COURT: You're on mute, sir.

16          MR. LYNN: Mr. Pomerantz has correctly stated the 17       agreement of the parties. I am pleased to advise Your Honor 18       that I expect that we will withdraw the motion that is 19       presently pending to be heard on January 4th, since all we 20       were asking for was notice until confirmation date. If those 21       sales are going to take place before then, we don't have a
22       problem any longer with the pre-confirmation activity of Mr.
23       Seery.

24          With regard to the motion that we filed requesting that 25       the temporary restraining order be modified, we would point

1 out, respectfully, that the independent board is the board of 2 directors of Strand Advisors. Strand Advisors belongs to Mr.
3 Dondero. It is not unreasonable for the sole stockholder of 4 Strand Advisors to ask the board questions or present thoughts
5 to the board or ask its advice. Mr. Seery, on the other hand,
6 while being a member of the board of Strand, is the chief
7 executive officer and the chief restructuring officer of 8 Highland, which is not the same as Strand.

9 Furthermore, Your Honor, Mr. Dondero has been attempting 10 for several months to negotiate an arrangement by which the 11 Debtor can continue as a going concern. It is his desire to 12 discuss further with the board as a whole what he can do in 13 that regard. I think the Court, by directing him originally 14 to participate in the mediation that took place in September, 15 expected him to do so. He has attempted to do so. And while 16 he has not gotten a response from the Creditors' Committee
17 that is definitive, he has at least caught the interest of Mr.
18 Seery, though that interest may have died for a variety of 19 reasons in recent weeks.

20 And by the way, next week is fine with us. We're not in a 21 hurry beyond that if the Court feels further discussion would 22 be useful.

23 MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, just a couple of points
24 in response.

25 Mr. Dondero has the right to request an audience with the

1 board. He has requested the audience with the board. The 2 board has considered it and decided not to communicate in that 3 fashion with Mr. Dondero at this time. There is nothing that 4 Your Honor can do in the TRO that would change that, other
5 than ordering the board to speak with Mr. Dondero, which I
6 highly doubt Your Honor would do.

7 Having said that, this board in general and Mr. Seery in 8 particular have been very supportive of an overall resolution
9 to this case, not only with the creditors, but with Mr.
10 Dondero. Mr. Seery has spent tens if not hundreds of hours
11 over the last several months working with Mr. Dondero to try 12 to get him in a position to present something that would have 13 traction with the Unsecured Creditors. Unfortunately, that 14 hasn't occurred. We understand there have been communications
15 between Mr. Lynn and Mr. Clemente. And if there is any hope 16 of a plan and any traction with the creditors, this Debtor in 17 general and Mr. Seery in particular stands ready, willing, and 18 able to do anything within the Debtor's power to help that 19 out.

20 So, it's not really the Debtor standing in the way. It's 21 an economic agreement ultimately that needs to be reached with 22 Mr. Clemente and his constituents and Mr. Lynn. And if that 23 can be reached, we will be the first to jump on that bandwagon
24 and do everything humanly possible to have that occur.

25 Thank you, Your Honor.

1           THE COURT: All right. Well, again, I've not read
2 the motion. I've just seen an email that I have this motion.
3 I'm a little bit confused. I don't want to spend too long on 4 this because we have another motion to get to. But I'm a
5 little bit confused on how Dondero wants the TRO to be 6 modified. If he has the right already to request an audience
7 of the board, what is it that is problematic about the TRO
8 that he wants modified?

9           THE CLERK: He's on mute.

10          THE COURT: You're on mute.

11          MR. LYNN: Sorry, Your Honor. As I told you before, 12 you must forgive me, my command of technology is not great.

13          In response, I would say that I question whether it is 14 appropriate, in advance of a meeting with the board of his 15 company, that what he wants to talk about should be screened.
16 And that is what has occurred in our effort to meet by 17 telephone with the board.

18          Any such meeting would, of course, be subject to the 19 restraints that are included in the temporary restraining 20 order, in that both Mr. Pomerantz or his designee and I would 21 participate in any such discussion. I respectfully submit 22 Strand is his. Nobody may like that, but it is his, and he 23 ought to be able to talk to his own board.

24          THE COURT: Is this about having a conversation
25 without the Committee's involvement? I just don't -- hmm. I

1 just need to see the motion.

2 Mr. Clemente, anything you want to add at this juncture?
3 Have you even reviewed the motion yet?

4 MR. CLEMENTE: Your Honor, I apologize. I haven't
5 actually even seen the motion. And so I have no comment on 6 it, Your Honor. I apologize for not having been able to look 7 at it.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Well, what about the agreed order
9 that's been announced? Any comment on that?

10 MR. CLEMENTE: Your Honor, we support the resolution
11 that Mr. Pomerantz announced on the record.

12 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, I assume there's 13 nothing further, then, on the Dondero motions that were 14 scheduled today?

15 All right. So I will happily accept the agreed order that 16 has been announced. For now, we will continue the Dondero 17 motion that was Docket Entry No. 1439 to January 4th, when the 18 preliminary injunction hearing is set. And we -- I understand
19 there are going to be no more discovery requests in connection
20 with these matters that were set today.

21 And I will review the motion that Mr. Dondero has filed
22 shortly before today's hearing in chambers later, and I will 23 have my courtroom deputy communicate to the lawyers whether I
24 see fit to set it for an emergency hearing next week or rule
25 on the pleadings or set it for January 4th. Those are, I

1 guess, the three possibilities I can think of that I might 2 decide upon.

3 So, again, I'm not making any ruling at all on a motion I
4 haven't read yet. So I'll -- the courtroom deputy will let 5 you all know, if not later today, tomorrow. Probably 6 tomorrow, because I have a confirmation hearing set later
7 today in another case.

8 All right. So, thank you all for working these issues
9 out. And Mr. Pomerantz, Mr. Dondero -- or, excuse me, Mr.
10 Lynn, anything further on the Dondero disputes?

11 MR. POMERANTZ: Nothing from the Debtor, Your Honor.

12 MR. LYNN: Your Honor, nothing from Mr. Dondero. May 13 I be excused?

14 THE COURT: Is anyone anticipating needing Mr.
15 Dondero's counsel for the other matter? All right. If not, 16 then I certainly have no problem with you dropping off the 17 line, Mr. Lynn. Thank you.

18 MR. LYNN: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So let's turn next to 20 the CLO Motion. I take it there are no agreements on this 21 one?

22 MR. POMERANTZ: There are not, Your Honor.

23 MR. WRIGHT: There are not, Your Honor. I can 24 confirm that.

25 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Wright, do you have

1 anything you want to say as far as an opening statement before
2 we go to the evidence?

3 MR. WRIGHT: I don't, Your Honor. My intention, if 4 it's okay with you, you asked me to bring a witness, so I do
5 have Mr. Norris from my client, and I was going to just remind
6 the Court who I am and state the name of all of my Movants,
7 and then I was going to move directly to put him on the stand
8 and go through a brief direct.

9 THE COURT: All right. I think I heard Mr. Morris is 10 going to handle this phase of the hearing.

11 MR. DEMO: And Your Honor, this is Greg Demo from 12 Pachulski on behalf of the Debtor.

13 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

14 MR. DEMO: We would like to make a brief opening 15 statement before we have witnesses, if that's all right with 16 Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. I'm fine with that. So, --

18 MR. DEMO: All right.

19 THE COURT: -- go ahead.

20 MR. DEMO: All right. Well, thank you, Your Honor.
21 Again, Greg Demo; Pachulski Stang; on behalf of the Debtor.

22 We are here today on what really amounts to the third of 23 three motions that deal with Mr. Dondero's attempts, either 24 directly or through a proxy, to transfer control away from the 25 Debtor and back to Mr. Dondero.

1       The current motion is filed by NexPoint Capital and 2 Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors and three of their 3 managed funds: Highland Income Fund, NexPoint Capital, and 4 NexPoint Strategic Opportunities Funds.

5       Mr. Dondero owns and controls NexPoint Capital and 6 Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors. While both
7 NexPoint Capital and Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors
8 are governed by boards, the boards have no investment
9 authority with respect to the funds they manage, nor was the 10 boards' approval necessary to file the motion, or obtained.

11       Mr. Dondero is the sole portfolio manager for NexPoint
12 Strategic Opportunities Fund and Highland Income Fund. Mr.
13 Dondero is one of three portfolio managers for NexPoint 14 Capital. Mr. Dondero's decisions are not subject to 15 oversight.

16       The Movants disclosed these facts in their recent SEC
17 filings, and there can be no dispute that Mr. Dondero is the 18 controlling figure behind the Movants in the relief being 19 sought in the motion which seeks to impede the Debtor's
20 efforts to exercise its rights as a CLO manager.

21       The fact that this motion was even filed is quite 22 surprising, since on December 7th the Debtor filed a complaint
23 and TRO based upon Mr. Dondero's unlawful efforts to frustrate 24 the Debtor's efforts to sell assets from the very CLOs that 25 are the subject of this motion.

1       The Court granted the TRO on December 10th. Mr. Dondero
2       also filed a motion seeking similar relief in November, which 3       has now been adjourned to January 4th.

4       The Movants are essentially now seeking an order from this
5       Court enjoining the Debtor from exercising its rights as a CLO
6       manager and requiring the Debtor to seek the Movants' and Mr.
7       Dondero's permission to fulfill its obligations as a manager
8       for the CLOs.

9       The Movants, however, do not come right out and say this,
10      and instead couch the motion as seeking to simply pause the 11      CLOs' asset sales while the Movants and the Debtor engage in 12      discussions regarding the future of the CLOs' management.

13      In the motion, the Movants also argue the Debtor has made
14      decisions detrimental to the interests of the preference
15      shareholders because the Debtor is trying to monetize its 16      assets in a manner inconsistent with the preference shares'
17      objectives.

18      The Movants simply mischaracterize the facts, the parties'
19      respective rights under contracts, and the law.

20      First, to the extent the Movants hold interests, they hold
21      only preference shares in the CLOs and are minority investors 22      in the preference shares of 12 of the 15 CLOs at issue. In 23      one third of the CLOs, the Movants' interests sit behind
24      senior debt which must be paid first.

25      Notably, Your Honor, no other investors in the CLOs are

1 here or have expressed support for the Movants' position.

2 Second, the Movants simply have no right under the 3 contracts governing the CLOs to the relief they are 4 requesting. The CLOs are governed by a series of agreements
5 which were agreed to long ago and dictate the rights of all
6 investors of the CLOs. The enforceability of those agreements
7 is relied on by all investors, not just the Movants.

8 Under these agreements, investment discretion is given to 9 the CLOs' manager -- in this case, the Debtor -- and no
10 investor has the right to direct the CLO manager. The manager
11 was chosen to manage the CLOs' assets. No individual investor
12 was chosen to manage the CLOs' assets.

13 Simply said, there will be no evidence that the Movants
14 have the right to do what they're trying to do, and there will 15 be no evidence that the Movants' preferences with respect to 16 the CLOs' assets is in line with that of the other investors
17 in the CLOs.

18 Under the relevant agreements, if an investor is not happy
19 with a manager's performance, the investor's rights are 20 generally limited to replacing the manager. The investors 21 here -- excuse me, the Movants here -- have not done that and 22 cannot do that. Under the agreements, replacement requires at 23 least the majority of the preference shares that are not 24 affiliates of the managers. In 12 of the 15 CLOs, the Movants
25 hold a substantial minority interest position. They are not

1 the majority. In the three CLOs in which they are the 2 majority, the Movants still cannot replace the Debtor as the 3 investment manager because they are the Debtor's affiliates.

4 It is indisputable that, prior to January 9th, when Mr.
5 Dondero was removed from control of the Debtor, that the 6 Debtor, NexPoint Advisors, Highland Capital Management Fund
7 Advisors, and the three funds were the Debtor's affiliates
8 because of Mr. Dondero's common control.

9 After January 9th, where the Court removed Mr. Dondero
10 from control of the Debtor, the Debtor is arguably, under the 11 documents, not an affiliate. However, Your Honor, the Movants
12 have disclosed in their recent proxy statements filed in 2020
13 that they still consider themselves the Debtor's affiliate, 14 and they should be bound by that statement. The Movants, by 15 virtue of Mr. Dondero's being removed from control of the 16 Debtor, should not be able to use that removal to reassert
17 control over the CLOs that were taken away from Mr. Dondero
18 when he was removed in January 2020.

19 The Debtor believes that additional briefing may be needed
20 on this issue, and that a ruling specifically on this issue
21 and the parties' relative rights under the CLO management
22 agreements may be needed. The Debtor reserves its right to 23 brief this issue and to bring it before this Court, either as 24 a declaratory judgment or any other procedurally-appropriate
25 motion.

1           Because the Debtor -- excuse me. The Movants have no
2 right to the relief requested. They argue that the relief is 3 justified because of the mismatch between the investors'
4 timelines and the Movants'. This is not true. The Movants
5 cite to three transactions to justify their statement in the 6 motion: SSP, OmniMax, and certain recent transactions.

7           The recent transactions were the attempted sales of two 8 public equities immediately before Thanksgiving that Mr.
9 Dondero interfered with. You'll hear testimony from Mr. Seery
10 about each of these transactions and how each was in the best
11 interest of the CLOs.

12           First, SSP. SSP is a steel business that was suffering
13 for a number of reasons. The Debtor's investment team
14 believed SSP should be sold since 2019. The Debtor received
15 multiple offers for SSP, the Debtor evaluated these offers,
16 and the Debtor choose the one that was the best. The SSP sale
17 closed in early November.

18           Notably, Your Honor, none of the CLOs held an equity
19 interest in SSP, its parent, or in Trussway. Instead, they 20 held debt, and they got exactly what they bargained for, 21 repayment of their debt obligations in full.

22           OmniMax, Your Honor, is the second one. It is a
23 fabricator of building materials. The CLOs and the Movants
24 held an interest in OmniMax debt which they have been trying 25 to refinance or equitize since 2019. That deal was intended

1 to include the Movants, but instead of working with the 2 Debtor, Mr. Dondero held out and used the threat of litigation
3 against OmniMax to secure a higher price for the Movants, to 4 the detriment of the CLOs.

5 As Mr. Seery will testify, these two transactions were all
6 about maximizing value and have nothing to do with investment
7 timelines.

8 Finally, Your Honor, the Movants reference the 9 Thanksgiving transactions. These transactions were discussed
10 in the context of Mr. Dondero's TRO. Mr. Seery directed 11 Debtor personnel, on the advice of his investment team, to 12 sell these securities. Mr. Dondero blocked those trades. Now
13 the Movants argue that the reason those trades were blocked 14 was because of a mismatch between the Movants' and the 15 Debtor's investment timelines. That is not the case. Mr.
16 Seery will testify as to these trades. The Debtor is an 17 investment manager and appreciates that its decisions with 18 respect to how it manages its assets are -- is a judgment
19 call. The evidence, however, will show that the Debtor at all 20 times exercised that judgment in good faith based on all
21 available information.

22 The Movants may disagree with the Debtor's judgment, Your 23 Honor, but that is irrelevant. The Movants have no right to 24 interfere with the Debtor's management of the CLOs. There is 25 simply no statutory or contractual basis for this, not under

1 Section 363 and not under the CLO agreements.

2 Finally, Your Honor, -- I guess not finally. There's one
3 more point I want to make. But Your Honor, this -- what we're 4 here on today is notably similar to the Acis bankruptcy that 5 Your Honor noted last time we were here last week. In that 6 bankruptcy, HCLOF tried to direct the collateral manager to 7 take certain actions that HCLOF thought were in the best
8 interest of the CLOs. In this case, the Movants, through Mr.
9 Dondero, are trying to file an action that functionally seeks 10 to direct the Debtor to take interests that the Movants
11 believe are in their best interest. There is substantial
12 overlap between the litigation in Acis and the litigation
13 here.

14 Finally, Your Honor, the Debtor has been in discussions
15 with the CLOs' counsel on this issue. And the Debtor has been 16 informed that the CLOs' position is that the Debtor's ability 17 to operate under the management agreements should not be 18 interfered with, not by the Movants or not by any other party.

19 Thank you, Your Honor. With that, I will turn it over to 20 Mr. Norris. Or, I'm sorry, Mr. Wright.

22 witness.

23 MR. WRIGHT: All right, Your Honor. Dustin Norris
24 should be -- should be dialed in and should be available on 25 screens.

Norris - Direct

23

1 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to --

2 MR. WRIGHT: I'll pause and have him confirm that.

3 THE COURT: I'm going to ask you, Mr. Wright, to 4 speak up or closer to your device. I didn't hear the name of 5 your witness.

6 MR. WRIGHT: Sure. Sorry. It's Dustin Norris. I --
7 last time, you were having trouble hearing me, and so I'm 8 trying a different device this time. I actually followed the 9 instructions that I found very helpful, so I'm trying my phone
10 in hopes that it will work better.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 MR. WRIGHT: But, yeah, it's Dustin Norris. D-U-S-T-
13 I-N, N-O-R-R -- N-O-R-R-I-S.

14 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Norris, can you say
15 "Testing one two" so we pick up your video?

16 MR. NORRIS: Testing one two.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. NORRIS: Testing one two.

19 THE COURT: All right. Please raise your right hand.

20 DUSTIN NORRIS, MOVANTS' WITNESS, SWORN

21 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Wright, you may proceed.

22 MR. WRIGHT: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 DIRECT EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. WRIGHT:

25 Q Mr. Norris, you're employed by NexPoint Advisors?

1 A I am. That's correct.

2 Q And what is your title and role there?

3 A Yeah. I am the executive vice president of NexPoint
4 Advisors. In that role, I oversee business development,
5 marketing, sales, investor relations. And as far as the funds
6 advised by the advisor, I'm the liaison with the independent
7 board on the business side.

8 Q Thank you. Do you also have a role for Highland Capital
9 Management Fund Advisors?

10 A I do. I'm also the same executive vice president and 11 fulfill that same role as it pertains to business development, 12 sales, investor relations. And in both, I'm also working on 13 product development. So, launching, developing new products
14 and investment funds.

15 Q Do you also have a role for Highland Income Fund, NexPoint
16 Strategic Opportunities Fund, and NexPoint Capital, Inc.?

17 A I do. I'm also executive vice president for each of those 18 funds.

19 Q Thank you. Have you ever served on the boards of these 20 three funds?

21 A I have. I've served as the interested trustee, sole 22 interested trustee for each of these funds. I'm no longer the 23 board member or interested trustee, but still serve as an 24 officer, executive vice president, for each fund.

25 Q At times, I'm going to refer to NexPoint Advisors, LP and

1 Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, LP simply as the
2 Advisors, to avoid having to keep saying their long names.
3 And similarly with the three funds that are part of the 4 motion, I may just call them the Funds.

5 Can you explain the relationship between the Advisors and 6 the Funds, briefly?

7 A Yeah. So, each of these are investment companies that are 8 registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940. So, with 9 that comes a unique relationship between an investment advisor
10 and the funds themselves. The Funds don't have employees.
11 They rely on the investment advisor and investment advisor
12 employees. And between the Funds and the Advisors is an 13 investment advisory agreement. And the Funds themselves are 14 also overseen by an independent board, and that's by statute
15 by the 1940 Act.

16 Q Okay. And just to be clear, when you said that these are 17 -- entities are investment companies, you meant that the three 18 Funds are investment companies?

19 A Correct. Correct. The three Funds are investment
20 companies. The investment advisors are not investment
21 companies.

22 Q Thank you. Can you explain the role of the board for the 23 Funds?

24 A Yeah. So, as prescribed by the Investment Company Act of 25 1940, there are certain obligations related to an investment

Norris - Direct

1 company, and one of those is they must be overseen by an
2 independent board. And the independent board has a
3 responsibility to oversee the -- certain material agreements,
4 including the advisory agreement. And we meet regularly with 5 the boards. They overseas certain processes and, again, all
6 material contracts. And the board is, by Section 15(c) of the 7 1940 Act, required by law to annually review the capabilities
8 of the Advisor and to either approve or reject the advisory 9 contracts. So, each year, those contracts are renewed by the 10 independent board.

11 There are certain obligations of the Fund and operations
12 that are delegated responsibility to the investment advisors.
13 That includes portfolio management and investment decisions.
14 But all those are overseen by the board.

15 Q Okay. And are the boards involved in the day-to-day
16 operations of the Funds?

17 A They're not.

18 Q Okay. And do you know who the members of the boards of 19 these three Funds are?

20 A I do.

21 Q Could you share that with us?

22 A Yeah. So, the -- there is one interested trustee of each
23 board, and that's John Honis. And then for the Highland 24 Income Fund and the NexPoint Strategic Opportunities Fund --
25 sorry, for NexPoint -- for Highland Income Fund and NexPoint

Norris - Direct

1 Capital, we have the same three disinterested or independent
2 trustees, and that's Bryan Ward, Dr. Bob Froehlich, and Ethan 3 Powell. And for NexPoint Strategic Opportunities Fund, we 4 have the same four trustees, one interested, three 5 independent, but there's another fourth independent trustee,
6 Ed Constantino.

7 Q And when you refer to independent trustees, do you mean
8 independent for purposes of the Investment Company Act of 9 1940, as amended?

10 A That's correct. They, by statute, they are independent
11 trustees. They also have an independent legal counsel. Stacy 12 Louizos represents them from Blank Rome. And also two of 13 these Funds are listed on the New York Stock Exchange, and the 14 New York Stock Exchange has various independence requirements
15 that each independent director has met.

16 Q Thank you. And which are the two Funds that are listed on 17 NYSE?

18 A The Highland Income Fund and the NexPoint Strategic 19 Opportunities Fund are both NYSE-listed.

20 Q And I know you probably haven't memorized everybody who 21 invests in the Funds, but can you give us a general idea of 22 who invests in these Funds?

23 A Certainly. I definitely have not memorized them. There
24 are thousands of individual investors in each of these Funds.
25 Part of my role overseeing investor relations and sales, I do

Norris - Direct

1 talk to a lot of those investors. But the majority of the 2 investors in each of these Funds are individual investors.

3 As '40 Act Funds, almost anybody with a brokerage account
4 can buy them. They have tickers, particularly the Funds that 5 are listed. Closed-end funds. And so, with that, it is mom-
6 and-pop investors. It's retail investors, including myself.
7 I've allocated my 401(k) to these funds, the majority of my
8 401(k) to these funds. But there are also institutional
9 investors. There's hedge funds. There's ETFs. There are 10 large high-net-worth individuals. But the majority of it is 11 individual investors that have invested through their 12 brokerage firms, be it Wells Fargo, Morgan Stanley, or Cetera.
13 These are -- these are -- these are the individual investors.

14 Q Thank you. Does Mr. Dondero have investments in the 15 Funds? Do you know?

16 A He does. He's invested in each of the Funds.

17 Q Does he have a majority investment in any of the Funds?

18 A He does not have a majority investment in any of the 19 Funds.

20 Q Thank you. Does Mr. Dondero have a control relationship
21 with the two Advisors?

22 A Yes. He does. With the Advisors.

23 Q And does he have a control relationship with the Funds?

24 A As it pertains to portfolio management, he is a portfolio
25 manager of each Fund. But as discussed, as I mentioned, the

Norris - Direct

1 independent board on an annual basis has the ability to 2 terminate or renew our advisory contracts, and that -- that 3 dynamic removes the control, overall control, of the Funds in 4 that regard.

5 Q Are you familiar with the motion that the Court I think
6 has accurately referred to as the CLO Motion that was filed by 7 the two Advisors and the three Funds?

8 A Yes. I am familiar with it.

9 Q And I'm going to ask you a question now that I think is of 10 interest to the Court, based on the last time I was in front
11 of Judge Jernigan. Were any employees of the Debtor involved
12 in deciding to bring this motion or in preparing the motion?

13 A No. None of the HCMLP employees, to my knowledge, were 14 involved in preparing or deciding to bring the motion.

15 Q Okay. And you investigated who was involved in preparing 16 the motion, so your knowledge is pretty good on this point?

17 A Correct. I have. And none were involved, based on that 18 investigation.

19 Q (garbled) involved in deciding to bring a motion,
20 preparing it, other than outside counsel and my firm?

21 A Yeah. So, the initial cause for concern was raised by Mr.
22 Dondero himself to our legal -- internal legal team and 23 compliance team. And working together with them, myself, and 24 outside counsel, and senior management of Highland Capital
25 Management Fund Advisors, including Joe Sowin, we prepared the

1 order. Or, sorry, not the order, the motion.

2 Q All right. Thank you. Were the boards of the three Funds
3 involved at all with bringing the motion?

4 A They were not involved in the preparation of the motion
5 itself. They were aware and supportive, but they did not 6 prepare the motion.

7 Q You provided a (audio gap), correct?

8 A Sorry. You did cut out there. I didn't hear the 9 question.

10 Q I'll try again. You provided a declaration (garbled)
11 motion, correct?

12 A I did, yes.

13 Q And there are two exhibits to your declaration. There's 14 an Exhibit A and an Exhibit B.

15 A Correct.

16 Q Exhibit A, does this reflect the current repayment status
17 of the various CLOs as we -- as you understand it to be as of 18 December 1st?

19 A Yes, it does.

20 Q And does Exhibit (garbled) of the three Funds --

21 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. --

22 BY MR. WRIGHT:

23 Q -- and the various CLOs, --

24 THE COURT: Mr. Wright?

25 BY MR. WRIGHT:

Norris - Direct

31

1 Q -- as you understand it?

2 THE COURT: Mr. Wright, time out. Two things.

3 First, I don't know what you can do to improve --

4 MR. WRIGHT: Sure.

5 THE COURT: -- your connection, but you're

6 occasionally breaking up a little.

7 But second, can we be clear for myself, the record,
8 everyone else, what you're referring to right now? We have an 9 Advis... your witness and exhibit list is at Docket 1573. Is 10 that what I should be looking at first?

11 MR. WRIGHT: Yes, Your Honor. The declaration of Mr.
12 Norris. It's Docket 1522-1. And it's on our exhibit list.
13 It may be the only exhibit on our exhibit list, frankly.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So you're talking about his 15 declaration now, not the witness and exhibit list with the 16 attachments to it? Actually, it is attached here. Exhibit A.
17 Okay. I'm there. I went to Exhibit A in your attachments to 18 your exhibit list at 1573.

19 All right. Let's try again with your question you just 20 asked.

21 MR. WRIGHT: Sure.

22 BY MR. WRIGHT:

23 Q So, Mr. Norris, Exhibit A, this reflects the current 24 repayment status of the CLOs that are the subject of the 25 motion as of December 1. Correct?

Norris - Direct

1 A Correct.

2 Q And then --

3 MR. WRIGHT: Your Honor, if you turn to Exhibit B,
4 which is just a couple pages forward.

5 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I would ask that this be put 6 up on the screen, if possible.

7 THE COURT: Yes. Can you do that, please?

8 MR. WRIGHT: I'm sorry. I couldn't hear that, John.

9 THE COURT: He asked if you could --

10 MR. MORRIS: I would --

11 THE COURT: -- share your screen. Can you share your 12 screen as to what you're looking at?

13 MR. WRIGHT: Can I share my screen? Last time I was 14 using a computer and you were having trouble hearing me, so
15 this time I'm doing it on my phone. So my phone, no, I don't 16 have this on my phone to share my screen that way. It's 17 Docket 1522-1, and it's the only exhibit that was on our 18 exhibit list.

19 MR. MORRIS: No objection, Your Honor.

20 MR. WRIGHT: All it shows is the holdings in Funds in 21 the CLOs. That's all it is.

22 MR. MORRIS: No objection, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. NORRIS: I'm sorry, John. I didn't hear.

25 THE COURT: Give me a minute, because I was at 1573,

Norris - Direct

1 your witness and exhibit list.

2 (Pause.)

3 THE COURT: Okay. That's not the correct docket
4 number.

5 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor?

6 THE COURT: Yes?

7 MR. MORRIS: If I may, it's John -- it's John Morris.
8 It's Docket No. 1528. And the declaration can be found at 9 Page 12 of 26.

10 MR. WRIGHT: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: 1528?

12 MR. WRIGHT: That's bizarre, because I have a 13 printout of it and it says Docket 1522-1.

15 we've set for hearing.

16 MR. MORRIS: And it's attached to that, yes. If you
18 declaration.

19 THE COURT: Okay. I'm there now. Okay. So we're on 20 that declaration. And then you were having the witness look 21 first at Exhibit A to that declaration. And then where are 22 you having him look next? Exhibit B, which is entitled 23 "Holdings of Preferred Shares in CLOs"?

24 MR. WRIGHT: Exhibit B, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Continue.

34

1 MR. WRIGHT: (garbled) I think some of the exhibits
2 that I have had the wrong docket number printed on the top,
3 and I --

4 BY MR. WRIGHT:

5 Q Exhibit B. So, Mr. Norris, Exhibit B to your declaration
6 shows the holdings of the preference shares of the Funds in 7 the various CLOs that are the subject of the motion, correct?

8 A That's correct. One clarification. It shows the 9 percentage ownership of each of those preference share
10 tranches that each Fund owns.

11 Q Thank you. Mr. Norris, do the three Funds have a date by 12 which they have to liquidate their investments?

13 A Sorry, you did skip out there. If you could you repeat
14 the question. I apologize.

15 Q It's frustrating. Do the three Funds have a date by which 16 they must liquidate their investments?

17 A No. They do not.

18 Q Okay. Can you briefly explain why the Advisors and the 19 Funds brought this motion?

20 A Yeah. The Advisors and the Funds were concerned with 21 certain transactions, as described in the motion. As 22 preference share owners, we own the majority or a substantial
23 portion of the economics of most of these CLOs, and in three 24 instances the majority of the economic benefit. And there was 25 concern with the way that the sales were executed. And so,

Norris - Cross

1 with that, we're simply asking for a temporary relief in order
2 to benefit and to maximize the recovery for our preference
3 shares that we own.

4 Q Thank you.

5 MR. WRIGHT: All right, Your Honor. I have no
6 further questions for Mr. Norris, although I guess I reserve
7 the right to redirect.

8 THE COURT: All right. Cross-examination?

9 MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 CROSS-EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. MORRIS:

12 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Norris. Can you hear me?

13 A I can. Thank you, Mr. Morris.

14 Q All right. I'm going to go into a little bit more detail
15 about some of the topics that you discussed. To be clear
16 here, there are five moving parties; is that right?

17 A That's correct. The two Advisors and the three Funds.

18 Q And one of the advisory firms is Highland Capital
19 Management Fund Advisors, LP; is that right?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q And I'll refer to that as Fund Advisors; is that okay?

22 A That's great.

23 Q James Dondero and Mark Okada are the beneficial owners of 24 Fund Advisors, correct?

25 A That is my understanding, yes.

1 Q And your understanding is that Mr. Dondero controls Fund
2 Advisors, correct?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q And the other advisory firm that brought the motion is 5 NexPoint Advisors, LP; is that right?

6 A That is correct.

7 Q And Mr. Dondero is the beneficial owner of NexPoint; is
8 that right?

9 A A family trust where Jim is the sole beneficiary, I
10 believe, controls or owns NexPoint Advisors.

11 Q Okay. And Mr. Dondero --

12 A Or 99.9 percent of NexPoint Advisors.

13 Q Thank you for the clarification. Mr. Dondero controls
14 NexPoint; is that right?

15 A Correct.

16 Q All right. And I'm going to refer to Fund Advisors and 17 NexPoint as the Advisors going forward; is that fair?

18 A That's fair.

19 Q Each of the Advisors manages certain funds; is that right?

20 A That is correct.

21 Q And three of those funds that are managed by the Advisors
22 are the Movants on this motion, correct?

23 A Correct.

24 Q All right. The Advisors caused these three Funds to 25 invest in CLOs that are managed by the Debtor; is that right?

1 A The portfolio managers working for the Advisors did.

2 That's correct.

3 Q And Mr. Dondero is the portfolio manager of the Highland
4 Income Fund; is that right?

5 A He is one of the portfolio managers for that Fund.

6 Q And he's also --

7 A I believe there are two.

8 Q And he's also a portfolio manager of NexPoint Capital,
9 Inc., one of the Movants here, right?

10 A That is correct.

11 Q And he's also the portfolio manager of NexPoint Strategic 12 Opportunities Fund, another Movant; is that right?

13 A Yes. That is correct.

14 Q Okay. And I think you testified earlier that each of 15 these Funds has a board. Is that right?

16 A That is correct.

17 Q But the boards don't make investment decisions for the 18 Funds, do they?

19 A They do not. They have delegated that authority.

20 Q And that authority to make investment decisions is 21 delegated to the Advisors; is that right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. And none of the boards of the Funds who are Movants
24 here adopted any resolution authorizing the Funds to file this 25 motion; is that right?

1 A To my knowledge, that is correct.

2 Q And in fact, the boards were not required to approve the 3 filing of this motion, correct?

4 A I'm not -- I believe that's a legal question, but to my 5 knowledge, there was not a requirement of the board to -- or,
6 to adopt a resolution for that.

7 Q Okay. Let's talk a little bit about your background. I
8 think you testified that you're the executive vice president
9 at NexPoint Advisors, one of the Movants. Is that right?

10 A That's right.

11 Q Who's the president of NexPoint Advisors, LP?

12 A Mr. Dondero.

13 Q And you report directly to him; is that right?

14 A I do.

15 Q You're also the executive vice president of Fund Advisors, 16 another Movant; is that right?

17 A Correct.

18 Q And Mr. Dondero is the president of Fund Advisors; is that
19 right?

20 A He is not. There is no president of Fund Advisors. But 21 he -- yeah.

22 Q You're the president of another entity called NexPoint
23 Securities; is that right?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And you're also the executive vice president of the 11 or

1 12 funds that are managed by the Advisors here, right?

2 A Yes. That is correct.

3 Q Okay. You've been working for Highland Capital Management
4 or other Highland-related entities for a little more than a
5 decade; is that right?

6 A That's correct. Since June 2010.

7 Q Okay. Now, you don't personally make any investment
8 decisions for -- for the Funds. Is that right?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q And you don't hold yourself out as an investment manager,
11 do you?

12 A I do not.

13 Q And you've never worked for a CLO, have you?

14 A Never worked for a -- for a C -- employed by a CLO.
15 Worked on accounting, various other aspects, but never worked
16 for a CLO.

17 Q Okay. You referred earlier to the declaration that you've 18 submitted in support of the motion. Do you remember that?

19 A I do.

20 Q I've got an assistant on the line here.

21 MR. MORRIS: Ms. Cantey, can we put up onto the 22 screen Debtor's Exhibit C, which I believe was Mr. Norris's
23 declaration? And if we could go to Page 12 of 26. Oh, all
24 right.

25 BY MR. MORRIS:

1 Q And, again, Mr. Norris, as we did in the deposition
2 yesterday, I'll remind you of the difficulty of doing a
3 virtual examination. And if at any time I ask you a question
4 about your declaration that prompts you to think you need to 5 see another portion of the declaration, will you let me know
6 that?

7 A Yes, I will.

8 Q Okay. Because I'm not here to test your memory. I'm just 9 here to ask you certain questions. So please let me know if 10 you need to see something that's not on the screen itself.

11 You didn't write any portion of this declaration; is that
12 right?

13 A I did not.

14 Q And you didn't provide any substantive comments to the 15 declaration as drafted because you agreed with -- with the 16 declaration as written by others; is that fair?

17 A Correct.

18 Q And all of the key information in your declaration was 19 supplied by NexPoint's management; isn't that right?

20 A Correct.

21 Q The individuals who provided the information that's in 22 your declaration include D.C. Sauter, Jason Post, Mr. Dondero, 23 and outside counsel at K&L Gates; is that right?

24 A Correct.

25 Q And Mr. Sauter is in-house counsel at the Advisors; is

1 that right?

2 A That is right.

3 Q And Mr. Post is the chief compliance officer at NexPoint;
4 is that right?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q The whole idea for this motion initiated with Mr. Dondero;
7 isn't that right?

8 A The concern, yes, the concern originated, and his concern
9 was voiced to our legal and compliance team.

10 Q Okay.

11 MR. MORRIS: Can we take the declaration down for -- 12 oh, actually, no, I'm sorry, leave it there, and let's talk
13 about Exhibit B. Now we can all see it. If you can scroll
14 down to Exhibit B, please. Okay.

15 BY MR. MORRIS:

16 Q This page is attached to your declaration, right?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q And this page is intended to show the percentage of 19 preferred shares owned by each of the Movant Funds and the 15
20 different CLOs, right?

21 A That's right.

22 Q And the Debtor is the portfolio manager for each of these 23 CLOs; is that right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And it's your understanding that the Debtor's management

1 of the CLOs on this page is governed by written agreements
2 between the Debtor and each of the CLOs, right?

3 A Yes.

4 Q None of the Movants are parties to the agreements between 5 the Debtor and each of the CLOs pursuant to which the Debtor
6 serves as portfolio manager; is that correct?

7 A I believe that is correct. One, I think, important --
8 even though they're not subject to the agreement, they are the 9 -- they have the economic ownership of each of these CLOs.

10 Q But they're not party to the agreement; is that right?

11 A Not that I'm aware of.

12 Q Okay. And in preparing for this motion and preparing for 13 your testimony, you didn't personally review any of the 14 agreements between the Debtor and any of the CLOs listed on

16 A No. I relied on legal counsel for that review.

17 Q Okay. And, but even though you didn't review the 18 agreements, it's your understanding that among the 19 responsibilities that the Debtor has as the portfolio manager 20 is buying and selling assets on behalf of the CLOs; is that
21 right?

22 A Yes. And I believe I specifically stated in my statement, 23 if you want to turn to it, what I (audio gap) to regarding the 24 CLOs' duties under the agreements.

25 Q Okay. It's your understanding, in fact, that nobody other

1 than the Debtor has the right or the authority to buy and sell
2 assets on behalf of the CLOs listed on Exhibit B, correct?

3 A That's my understanding.

4 Q Okay. And it's also your understanding, your specific 5 understanding, that holders of preferred shares do not make 6 investment decisions on behalf of the CLO; is that right?

7 A Correct.

8 Q And that's something that the Advisors knew when they 9 decided to invest in the CLOs on behalf of the Movant Funds;
10 is that fair?

11 A That's right. And at that time, the knowledge in the 12 purchase was with Highland Capital Management, LP and the 13 portfolio management team at that time.

14 Q And it's still with Highland Capital Management, LP; isn't
15 that right?

16 A That's correct. I'm not sure that the portfolio
17 management team looks the same, but it was HCMLP.

18 Q Okay. Let's just look at this document for a second. The 19 first column has the list of the CLOs in which the Movant
20 Funds have invested; is that right?

21 A Correct.

22 Q And the second column, HIF, that stands for Highland
23 Income Fund; is that right?

24 A Yes, sir.

1 Movants here, right?

2 A That is correct.

3 Q And the percentages below that show the percentage of the 4 preference shares of each of the CLOs that that particular
5 fund holds; is that right?

6 A That's right.

7 Q And then the third column relates to NexPoint Strategic 8 Opportunities Fund, one of the Movants here; is that right?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q And the next column, the fourth column, relates to 11 NexPoint Capital, Inc.'s holding of preference shares in the 12 15 CLOs, right?

13 A That's right.

14 Q So, NexPoint Capital doesn't hold any preference shares in 15 any of the CLOs except for a less-than-one-percent interest in 16 Grayson; am I reading that correctly?

17 A Yes, that's correct.

18 Q Okay. And then the last column is intended to show the 19 aggregate portion or percentage of preference shares that the 20 three moving Funds have in each of the 15 CLOs; is that right?

21 A Yes, that's right.

22 Q Okay. Am I reading this correctly that, for 12 of the 15
23 Funds, the moving Funds own less than a majority of the 24 outstanding preferred shares?

25 A Yes, that's correct.

Norris - Cross

1 Q And is it also -- am I also reading this correctly to 2 conclude that the moving Funds owned less than 70 percent of 3 every one of these CLOs; is that right?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q You don't know who owns the preferred shares in the CLOs
6 that are not owned by the Movant Funds, do you?

7 A I don't know any -- any specific owners.

8 Q And some of these CLOs still have notes that are 9 outstanding; is that right?

10 A Yes. Very small amounts as a percentage of the overall
11 CLO original capital structure, but yes, some still have small

13 Q So, --

14 A -- notes. Small amounts of notes.

15 Q Okay. I'm sorry to interrupt. If we looked at Exhibit A, 16 if we took the time to look at Exhibit A, Exhibit A would 17 show, for each of the 15 CLOs, which of those CLOs still had 18 notes outstanding and the amount of out -- the dollar value of 19 those notes. Is that right?

20 A That's correct.

21 Q Okay. And your understanding is that -- your 22 understanding -- withdrawn. The payment -- the distributions
23 from the CLOs are made pursuant to a waterfall; is that right?

24 A Yes, that's correct.

25 Q And your understanding of the waterfall process is that

1 the notes that are still outstanding at any CLO must be paid
2 -- must be paid in full before the preferred shares receive
3 any recovery; is that right?

4 A So, I would say that my understanding is slightly
5 different. It's going to be dependent on each indenture.
6 But, in general, interest payments are made to the debt
7 holders, and anything extra is then allocated to the equity.
8 But ultimate recovery, to your point, would be once those --
9 once the debt is paid off. And that's the critical thing
10 here, where the preference shares here now with most of these 11 CLOs almost all the way wound down, with the exception of a 12 small piece of debt. The equity owns the lion's share of the 13 economic interest of every one of these CLOs. And I think 14 that's important.

15 Q Okay. Some of the CLOs still have outstanding notes. Is
16 that right?

17 A Yes. As we discussed on -- Exhibit A will have the notes
18 that are -- that are remaining on those.

19 Q And you don't know who holds the notes in the other CLOs,
20 right?

21 A I don't.

22 Q The only holders of preferred shares that are pursuing 23 this motion are the three Funds managed by the Advisors,
24 right?

25 A In this motion, yes.

1 Q You're not aware of any holder of preferred shares
2 pursuing this motion other than the three Funds managed by the
3 Advisors, correct?

4 A No, I'm not aware of any others.

5 Q You didn't personally inform any holder of preferred
6 shares, other than the Funds that are the Movants, that this 7 motion would be filed, did you?

8 A No, I did not.

9 Q You're not aware of any steps taken by either of the 10 Advisors to provide notice to holders of preferred shares that 11 this motion was going to be filed, are you?

12 A I'm not, no.

13 Q And you're not aware of any attempt that was made to 14 obtain the consent of all of the holders of the preferred
15 shares to seek the relief sought in this motion, correct?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q You don't have any personal knowledge, personal knowledge, 18 as to whether any holder of preferred shares other than the 19 Funds managed by the Advisors wants the relief sought in the 20 motion, correct?

21 A Correct.

22 Q You don't have any personal knowledge as to whether any of 23 the CLOs that are subject to the contracts that you described 24 want the relief that's being requested in this motion, right?

25 A That's correct. I have not spoken or been involved at all

1 directly with the CLOs. I'm representing the Funds.

2 Q Okay. Now, two of the Funds, two of the three Movant
3 Funds, I believe you testified are publicly traded; is that
4 right?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q And that's the Highland Income Fund and the NexPoint
7 Strategic Opportunities Fund; is that right?

8 A That's right. That's right.

9 Q And because they are publicly-traded, the shareholders in 10 those two funds can sell their shares any time the market is 11 open; is that right?

12 A If they're willing to take the price that the market is 13 willing to give, yes.

14 Q Yes.

15 A Between market hours.

16 Q And if they -- if they don't like the way the assets that 17 are -- that the Funds have been invested, one of the things
18 they could do is simply sell their shares, right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And the third fund, the shareholders in the third fund
21 have the right to sell out not on a public market but on a
22 quarterly basis; is that right?

23 A Correct.

24 Q That third Movant Fund is NexPoint Capital; do I have that
25 right?

1 A Correct.

2 Q So they also have the ability to exit if they don't like
3 management on a quarterly basis; is that right?

4 A Correct.

5 Q All right. Can we turn to Paragraph -- Paragraphs 8 and 9
6 of your declaration? Okay. Paragraph 8 describes a
7 transaction that's been referred to as OmniMax; is that right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And Paragraph 9 refers to a transaction involving SSP
10 Holdings, LLC; do I have that right?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q Do you know what SSP stands for?

13 A See if we say it in there. SSP Holdings, LLC.

14 Q Right. Do you know what SSP stands for?

15 A I don't. Something Steel Products. I --

16 Q Okay. You don't need to guess. These are the only two 17 transactions that the Movants question; is that right?

18 A These transactions, as well as certain transactions around
19 Thanksgiving time.

20 Q Okay. We'll talk about those. But those transactions
21 about -- around Thanksgiving time aren't in your declaration, 22 are they?

23 A Not specifically mentioned by name.

24 Q Okay. Let's talk about the two that are mentioned by 25 name, Trussway and SSP. The Movants do not contend that

1 either transaction was the product of fraudulent conduct, do
2 they?

3 A No.

4 Q The Movants do not contend that the Debtor breached any 5 agreement by effectuating these transactions, do they?

6 A I don't believe so.

7 Q In fact, the Movants do not contend that the Debtor
8 violated any agreement at any time in the management of the 9 CLOs listed on Exhibit B; is that right?

10 A That's right.

11 Q The Movants don't even question the Debtor's business
12 judgment, only the results of the trans -- of these two 13 transactions. Is that right?

14 A That's right. And results is the key here and the 15 approach.

16 Q I see. And the reason the Movants do not question the 17 Debtor's business judgment is because you don't know what 18 factor or factors the Debtor considered in executing these 19 transactions, right?

20 A That's right. I can't look into the mind or know the 21 business judgment and the inputs that went into this. We do
22 know the outcomes. And to us, that's troubling, right, as the 23 owners of the lion's share or the majority or even significant 24 amounts of the economic ownership of the CLOs. And having 25 insight into those transactions, as mentioned in my statement,

Norris - Cross

1 really just trying to maximize recoveries for our Funds.

2 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I move to strike the portion 3 of his answer following that which was responsive to the 4 question.

5 THE COURT: All right. I grant that motion.

6 MR. MORRIS: Okay.

7 BY MR. MORRIS:

8 Q Sir, you never asked the Debtor what factors it considered
9 in making these trades, right?

10 A I did not.

11 Q And you have no reason to believe that anyone on behalf of 12 the Movants ever asked the Debtor why it executed these 13 trades, right?

14 A I don't have any knowledge. There could have been 15 somebody from -- from the Movants. But I did not.

16 Q Okay. On OmniMax, the Movants disagree with the price at 17 which the Debtor effectuated the trade, right?

18 A Correct.

19 Q And I believe there was a meeting of the boards of the 20 Funds back in August at which Mr. Seery appeared. Do I have
21 that right?

22 A I believe it was August, but he did appear.

23 Q And the purpose of the appearance was so that Mr. Seery
24 could give an update on the bankruptcy; is that right?

25 A That's correct, and on the services provided by Highland

1 Capital Management, LP to our Advisor. Advisors. They
2 provide various shared services.

3 Q And it was during that meeting that Mr. Seery forthrightly
4 told the boards the price at which he was planning to execute
5 the OmniMax transaction, correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q The transaction hadn't yet occurred, right?

8 A I'm not sure if it had been finalized. He had a price,
9 and these -- these things are negotiated. This was, I
10 believe, a company in restructuring. So I don't know whether 11 it had been transacted or not.

12 Q Okay. The board didn't ask Mr. Seery not to execute the 13 transaction, did it?

14 A Not to my knowledge. The board wouldn't -- I don't think 15 the board would have that authority, either.

16 Q Okay. But it's here asking the Court to cause the Debtor
17 to pause in the execution of any trades in the CLOs; is that
18 right?

19 A I think the order speaks in that regard.

20 Q Yeah. Okay. Let's talk about the SSP transaction for a 21 moment. It's your understanding that Trussway Holdings, LLC
22 owned a majority interest in SSP Holdings, LLC, right? That's 23 in Paragraph 9.

24 A Yes. The statement in Paragraph 9 is what I believe is 25 correct.

1 Q Okay. And it's also your understanding that Trussway is a
2 wholly-owned subsi... I'm sorry, that SSP Holdings is a
3 wholly-owned subsidiary -- withdrawn. It's also your 4 understanding that Trussway is a wholly-owned subsidiary of 5 the Debtor, right?

6 A Yes.

7 Q But Trussway is not a debtor in bankruptcy, right?

8 A I'm not sure.

9 Q Okay. You have no reason to believe that; is that fair?

10 A That it's not a debtor in bankruptcy? That Trussway is 11 not in bankruptcy itself?

12 Q Correct.

13 A Yeah. I have no knowledge of Trussway's situation.

14 Q Okay. But you -- but according to your declaration that 15 was prepared by the Advisors' management team, Trussway and 16 not the Debtor owned SSP Holdings, LLC. Is that right?

17 A I'm looking here at the statement just to make sure.

19 (Pause.)

20 A I -- again, I -- the statement is correct, and I believe 21 speaks for itself regarding entity ownership.

22 Q The only things you know about the SSP transaction are,
23 one, that you believe it was made without a formal bidding
24 process; and two, that it resulted in a $10 million loss. Is 25 that right?

1 A Correct.

2 Q Okay. But, again, neither you, or to the best of your 3 knowledge, anybody at Advisors, ever spoke with anybody at the 4 Debtor about the circumstances concerning either of the 5 transactions, right?

6 A I don't know the conversations that were had at anyone
7 else from our Advisors, but this is the knowledge that -- that 8 I have.

9 Q Okay. And it's the only knowledge you have, right? You
10 don't know anything about the SSP transaction other than those 11 two facts, right?

12 A Correct.

13 Q In fact, I think you testified yesterday that you've been 14 very remote from the SSP transaction, right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And that it's not a transaction that you have much
17 knowledge on. Fair?

18 A Fair.

19 Q Let's just talk briefly about the transactions that 20 occurred (garbled) Thanksgiving. They're not specifically
21 referred to in your declaration; is that right?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q And you have no knowledge about any transaction that Mr.
24 Seery wanted to execute around Thanksgiving; is that right?

25 A I know there were transactions and there were concerns

1 from our management team, but I'm not aware of what the 2 transactions were.

3 Q In fact, you can't even identify the assets that Mr. Seery
4 wanted to sell around Thanksgiving, or at least you couldn't
5 at the time of your deposition yesterday. Is that right?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And you have no knowledge as to why Mr. Seery wanted to 8 make those particular trades at around Thanksgiving?

9 A No, I don't.

10 Q And in fact, you don't even know if the transactions that 11 Mr. Seery wanted to close around Thanksgiving ever in fact 12 closed. Is that fair?

13 A Correct.

14 Q Okay. Let's just -- let's just finish up with a few
15 questions about the boards.

16 MR. MORRIS: Ms. Cantey, can we put up Debtor's
17 Exhibit EEEE? Four E's, Your Honor. Thank you.

18 BY MR. MORRIS:

19 Q This particular page identifies the directors for each of 20 the three Movant Funds; is that right?

21 A Let me take a look and confirm. (Pause.) Yes. That 22 looks correct.

23 Q Okay. And this was prepared by the Movants; is that
24 right?

25 A I'm not sure who prepared it.

Norris - Cross

1 Q Okay. To the best of your knowledge, does this document
2 accurately reflect the composition of the boards of each of 3 the three Movant Funds?

4 A Yes, it does.

5 Q Okay. John Honis, I think you mentioned him earlier.
6 He's on all three boards. Is that right?

7 A That's correct. And the reason being we have a unitary
8 board structure, so -- which is very common in '40 Act Fund
9 land, where the board sits, for efficiency purposes, on 10 multiple fund boards, and there's a lot of economies of scale
11 from an operating standpoint. So, yes, they sit on multiple 12 boards.

13 Q Okay. And for purposes of the '40 Act, Mr. Honis has been 14 deemed to be an interested trustee. Is that right?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q Okay. But you don't specifically know what facts caused 17 that designation; you only know that the designation exists.
18 Right?

19 A That's right. And I know they are disclosed in the proxy
20 -- or, in the -- the relative filings related to those Funds.

21 Q Okay. Three other people are common to all three of the 22 Movant Funds. I think you've got Dr. Froehlich, Ethan Powell,

24 A Froehlich.

25 Q Froehlich. Ethan Powell and Bryan Ward. Right?

1 A That is correct.

2 Q Okay. All three of those individuals actually serve on 3 the 11 or 12 boards that you mentioned earlier that are 4 managed by the Advisors, right?

5 A Yes, that is correct.

6 Q And they're the same Funds for which you serve as an 7 executive vice president, right?

8 A Yes. That's correct.

9 Q So, for all of the Funds that are managed by the Advisors,
10 you serve as executive vice president and all four of these 11 directors -- trustees serve as trustees on the boards, right?

12 A Yes, that's correct.

13 Q Okay. In exchange for serving on all of these boards, the 14 three individuals -- Dr. Froehlich, Mr. Ward, and Mr. Powell
15 -- each receive $150,000 a year for services across the 16 Highland complex; is that right?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q Dr. Froehlich has been serving as a board member across 19 the Highland complex for seven or eight years now; is that
20 right?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q Mr. --

23 A I believe it's about seven or eight years.

24 Q And Mr. Powell, he actually was employed by Highland or 25 related entities from about 2007 or 2008 until 2015, right?

1 A That's correct.

2 Q And Mr. Ward, the third of the independent trustees, he's 3 been serving as a board member on various Highland-related
4 funds on a continuous basis since about 2004. Do I have that
5 right?

6 A Yeah, I believe that's correct.

7 Q Okay. Just a couple of final questions. You would agree,
8 would you not, sir, that portfolio managers have an obligation
9 to effectuate transactions concerning the assets that they 10 manage based on their business judgment?

11 A Yes. And in accordance with whatever governing documents
12 govern the fund structure.

13 Q And you would personally expect a portfolio manager to 14 execute a transaction that he or she reasonably believes in 15 good faith and in their business judgment would maximize value
16 for the CLO, even if the CLO did not need cash at that 17 particular time. Is that right?

18 A I think it would come down to the governing documents.
19 And I think what you're getting at here is, in this instance, 20 these sales and the intent of the portfolio manager. And our 21 view, again, is -- and the request for the motion is simply 22 there is a lot at play here. Several negotiations. And in 23 order to maximize returns, simply asking for a pause on 24 transactions.

25 Q All right. Let me -- let me ask the question again, and I

Norris - Cross

1 would ask that you please listen carefully to the question.
2 You would expect a portfolio manager would execute a
3 transaction that he or she believes maximizes value, even if 4 the CLO didn't need cash at that particular moment in time.
5 Correct?

6 A Yeah. As long as that is maximizing value for the 7 stakeholders, and in the instance of a CLO, the economic 8 interest is owned by the equity holders. So, to their 9 benefit, yes, that -- that would be the idea.

10 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I have no further questions.

11 THE COURT: Any redirect, Mr. Wright?

12 MR. WRIGHT: Only briefly, Your Honor.

13 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. WRIGHT:

15 Q Mr. Norris, I think you were asked at one point about how 16 long you'd been working for Highland Capital Management, which 17 there's -- there's Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors
18 and then there's Highland Capital Management, LP, Debtor. And 19 I wanted to give you an opportunity to just explain when and 20 what years you worked for HCMLP and then when and what years
21 you worked for NexPoint Advisors or Highland Capital
22 Management Fund Advisors.

23 A Yes. From June 2010, I was employed by Highland Capital
24 Management, LP, until July or August of 2012, at which time I
25 was then hired by Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors,

Norris - Redirect

1 not HCML -- no longer employed by HCMLP, and have worked since
2 that time for HCMFA and NexPoint Advisors and not for the 3 Debtor, HCMLP.

4 Q Okay. So -- and I'm sorry if I missed a year, but it's 5 been about ten years since you had worked for HCMLP or been an 6 employee of HCMLP, correct?

7 A Yeah. It's been over eight years since I have left
8 employment by HCMLP. Ten and a half years ago, I started
9 working for HCMLP, and then two years after that transitioned
10 away and started working for the Advisors that are part of 11 this motion.

12 Q Thank you for clarifying.

13 MR. WRIGHT: Your Honor, I hope -- you directed us to 14 have a witness here today, and so we do. And I know that you 15 had asked me at the last hearing some questions about the 16 involvement of people at HCMLP, which I tried to address with 17 Mr. Norris in my direct. But I, you know, I do want to make 18 sure that we've answered any questions that you have.

19 THE COURT: All right. Yes, that's fine. Are you
20 -- does that conclude your redirect?

21 MR. WRIGHT: It does, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Any recross, Mr. Morris, on that 23 redirect?

24 MR. MORRIS: No, thank you, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right, then. That concludes the

1 testimony of Mr. Norris.

2 Any other evidence, Mr. Wright?

3 MR. WRIGHT: I do not, Your Honor, although I guess I
4 would offer the Exhibit A and Exhibit B to Mr. Norris's
5 declaration --

6 THE COURT: Any objection to that?

7 MR. WRIGHT: -- into evidence.

8 MR. MORRIS: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. Those are admitted.

10 (Movants' Exhibits A and B are received into evidence.)

11 THE COURT: All right. Well, Mr. Morris, did you
12 want to put on any evidence?

13 MR. MORRIS: Does the -- do the Movants rest, Your 14 Honor?

15 THE COURT: I understood that they rest. Correct,
16 Mr. Wright?

17 MR. WRIGHT: That's correct, Your Honor.

18 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I would move, effectively, 19 for a directed verdict here. The Movants have the burden of 20 establishing a prima facie case to entitlement to the relief
21 that's been requested, and they have failed to meet that 22 burden. The Debtor has -- we -- the undisputed facts are the 23 Debtor has the contractual right, and indeed, the obligation, 24 to serve as the portfolio manager of the CLOs pursuant to 25 written agreements.

1       The Movants are not parties to those agreements. The 2 testimony is undisputed that there are many holders of 3 preferred shares and notes that have had no notice of this 4 proceeding that will undoubtedly be impacted by the tying of 5 the hands of the portfolio manager. The chart that was 6 attached as Exhibit B expressly shows just what a large
7 portion of interested parties and people who would be affected
8 by this motion are not -- they didn't get notice. There was 9 no attempt to get notice. There was no attempt to get their 10 consent. All of that testimony is now in the record, and I 11 think due process alone would prevent the entry or even the 12 consideration of an order of this type.

13       There is nothing improper that's been alleged. There is 14 no -- there is no allegation of fraud. There is no allegation
15 of breach of contract of any kind. There's not even a 16 question of business judgment. The Movants didn't even do
17 their diligence to ask the Debtor why they made these 18 transactions. There is nothing in the record that shows that 19 the Debtor, as the portfolio manager of the CLOs, did anything
20 improper.

21       The only thing that the Movants care about is that they 22 don't like the results in two particular trades. I don't 23 think that that meets their burden of persuasion that the 24 Court should enter an order of this type, and I would like to 25 relieve Mr. Seery of the burden, frankly, and the Court, of

1 having to put on testimony to justify transactions that really
2 aren't even being questioned, Your Honor.

3 So the Debtor would respectfully move for the denial of 4 the motion and the relief sought therein.

5 THE COURT: All right. Your request for a directed 6 verdict, something equivalent to a directed verdict here, is 7 granted. I agree that the Movant has wholly failed to meet
8 its burden of proof here today to show the Court, persuade the 9 Court that, as Mr. Morris said, I should essentially tie the 10 hands of the Debtor as a portfolio manager here, as stated.
11 Nothing improper has been alleged. There has been no showing 12 of a statutory right here, or a contractual right here, on the 13 part of the Movants.

14 I am -- I'm utterly dumbfounded, really. I agree with the 15 -- I was going to say innuendo; not really innuendo -- I agree
16 with part of the theme, I think, asserted by the Debtor here
17 today that this is Mr. Dondero, through different entities, 18 through a different motion. I feel like he sidestepped the 19 requirement that I stated last week that if we had a contested
20 hearing on his motion, Dondero's motion, that I was going to 21 require Mr. Dondero to testify. He apparently worked out an 22 eleventh hour agreement with the Debtor on his motion to avoid 23 that. But, again, these so-called CLO Motions very clearly,
24 very clearly, in this Court's view, were pursued at his sole
25 direction here.

1           This is almost Rule 11 frivolous to me. You know, we're
2   -- we didn't have a Rule 11 motion filed, and, you know, I
3   guess, frankly, I'm glad that a week before the holidays begin
4   we don't have that, but that's how bad I think it was, Mr.
5   Wright and Mr. Norris. This is a very, very frivolous motion.
6   Again, no statutory basis for it. No contractual basis. You
7   know, you didn't even walk me through the provisions of the 8   contracts. I guess that would have been fruitless. But you
9   haven't even shown something equitable, some lack of 10   reasonable business judgment.

11           Bluntly, don't waste my time with this kind of thing
12   again. You wasted my time. We have 70 people on the video.
13   Utter waste of time.

14           All right. So, motion is denied. Mr. Morris, please
15   upload an order.

16           MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

17           THE COURT: All right. Do we have any other business
18   to accomplish today?

19           MR. POMERANTZ: I don't think so, Your Honor. I know
20   we will see you tomorrow in connection with Mr. Daugherty's
21   relief from stay motion.

22           THE COURT: Well, yeah, we do have that. Okay. We 23   will see you tomorrow. We stand adjourned.

24           MR. CLEMENTE: Thank you, Your Honor.

25           MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE CLERK: All rise.

Matt, Sam, and Sidley/FTI,

The HCM team continues to work through the SSP transaction and issues related to the flow of funds. Accordingly, a revised deck for the UCC is attached which includes an updated waterfall analysis.

At issue, as noted on the updated waterfall (and detailed on page 8 of the PDF), is a Restricted Distribution provision related to section 5.3 of the 4th Amended and Restated Credit and Guarantee Agreement for loans at Trussway Industries, LLC where Trussway Holdings, LLC is the Guarantor and subject to the agreement. This restriction limits the amount of money Trussway Holdings can distribute to a bucket of $5 million in the aggregate based on certain types of distributions. HCM believes that $2.3 million of that bucket remains eligible for distribution as illustrated in the updated waterfall.

The SSP sale process and issues related to the flow of funds will be covered by Jim Seery on tomorrow's call with the UCC.

CONFIDENTIAL - NOTICE OF PENDING ASSET SALE

Matt, Sam, and Sidley/FTI,

We are providing you with Notice of a potential Transaction as required by the Protocols, Section (II)(B)(3)(a). The Transaction will be with an independent third-party, but we anticipate that it will be in excess of $2,000,000. The Independent Board of HCMLP is requesting immediate pre-authorization from the UCC to complete the transaction at a final negotiated price that will be approved of by the Independent Board in the interest of all stakeholders. We believe any delay in the sale process could impact value. As such, this emails serves as the required three business day advance notice of the potential Transaction. Jim Seery and the HCM team can make themselves available for a call to discuss the transaction if requested.

1. Assets: All debt, equity and other interest in SSPI Holdings, Inc. (DE)
2. Seller: Trussway Holdings, LLC
3. Price: Final price is TBD, and requires Independent Board approval. Terms are currently being negotiated. The company received a Letter of Intent indicating a transaction for $50MM. To the extent agreed, the negotiations require immediate agreement by HCMLP.
4. Structure: Stock sale
5. Purchaser: Race Rock Group (or an Affiliate)
6. Timing: Immediate. However, closing of the sale and receipt of proceeds not expected until late October or early November.

The sale of this asset is a critical component for the execution of any confirmed plan. We ask that you review the attached deck that includes a brief background information on the company, a summary of the extensive sale process, and a potential waterfall of proceeds. Also included are copies of the Dugaboy note at Trussway Holdings, LLC (and its amended and restated note) that are under review.

The attached deck is shared on a Confidential basis. Please let us know at your earliest convenience.

EXHIBIT E

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL STRUCTURAL AND STEEL PRODUCTS SITUATION OVERVIEW IMMEDIATE ATTENTION

SEPTEMBER 29, 2020

EXPERIENCED. DISCIPLINED. BOLD.

HIGHLAND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

DRAFT – HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL

- Structural and Steel Products (“SSP”) is a manufacturer/distributor of highway products based in Texas
- Product offerings include distributed products (guardrails, crash cushions) and manufactured product (overhead sign structures, lighting/cell/utility poles, rail)
- Principal equity holders:
  - Highland Select Equity Fund, L.P. (via Trussway Holdings, LLC [1]): 76.6%
  - Patriot Capital: 12.1%
  - SSP Management Members: 6.6%
  - Non-Management Members: 4.7%

Note: [1] Trussway Holdings, LLC equity is 90% owned by Highland Select Equity Fund, L.P.

- See Exhibit A for organizational chart
- See Exhibit B for capital structure

SSP SALE PROCESS OVERVIEW

DRAFT - HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL

- In the last ~12 months, SSP received indications of interest ranging from $45-$50MM from several different interested parties:
  - September 2019 – Arcosa: $45.0 - $50.0MM (for manufacturing business only)
  - November 2019 & January 2020 – VP of Guardrail: $7.5 - $10.0MM (for guardrail business only)
  - January 2020 – Merit Capital Partners (former Sponsor): $38.5MM (for entire business)
  - February 2020 – Millerbernd provided a verbal indication of $30.0 - $32.0 (for the manufacturing business only)
  - May 2020 – Race Rock Group (“RRG”): $45.0 - $50.0MM (for entire business)
  - July 2020 – DWM Holdings: $50MM (for entire business)
- In addition to the IOIs received from the parties above, NDAs were executed, and confidential information shared with Sabre and Valmont. Both parties passed on the potential transaction with SSP, and, ultimately, they determined it was cheaper to build capacity than to buy SSP.
- In August of 2020, SSP went exclusive with RRG and executed an LOI at $50MM; due diligence is underway and on-going with most of the due diligence completed, environmental and ERISA reviews remain outstanding.

($MM)	EBITDA	$50 LOI
LTM	$ 9.0	5.6x
2020E	$ 8.2	6.1x
3-Year Avg.	$ 6.9	7.2x

SSP SALE PROCESS OVERVIEW – RACE ROCK GROUP

DRAFT – HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL

- SSP is in the process of negotiating a definitive agreement with Race Rock Group (“RRG”) to sell the business for $50MM
  - RRG is a Houston-based private investment firm focused on making control, growth-oriented investments in lower middle-market businesses throughout the US Gulf Coast and Mid America regions
- It’s estimated that the transaction proceeds will generate approximately $6.5MM for HCMLP
  - ~$2.0MM for the Select Fund’s net interests
  - Trussway Holdings, LLC proceeds will repay the ~$1.2MM HCMLP loans
  - SSP will payoff the ~$2.7MM subordinated loan to HCMLP with the sales proceeds
  - HCMLP will receive ~$0.5MM in management fees from SSP per the terms of a 2019 management services agreement
  - See Exhibit C for the complete waterfall of sale proceeds
- It’s estimated that the transaction proceeds will also generate ~$8.4MM, net for Trussway Holdings, LLC
- Trussway Holdings, LLC appears to currently owe ~$2.5MM to Dugaboy via a loan. This is under review, and the amount may be reserved for. The amended and restated note had a principal amount of $2.09MM as of Feb. 2019 and matures on Nov. 1, 2021. ~$370k of PIK interest has accrued since Feb 2019.
- A simultaneous signing and closing is anticipated to occur in late Oct. or early Nov. subject to completion of due diligence by RRG.
- The Debtor believes a potential sale of SSP maximizes value for all stakeholders and any delay in the sale process could impact value. The Debtor is seeking immediate pre-approval from the UCC to proceed with a potential transaction.

4TH A&R CREDIT & GUARANTY AGREEMENT HIGHLIGHTS*DRAFT – HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL

- Trussway Holdings, LLC is a Guarantor of the loan to Trussway Industries, LLC
  - THIS FOURTH AMENDED AND RESTATED CREDIT AND GUARANTY AGREEMENT dated as of May 15, 2017 among TRUSSWAY INDUSTRIES, LLC, as borrower (“Borrower”), the Guarantors party hereto (the Borrower and the Guarantors being collectively referred to herein as the “Credit Parties”, and each individually, a “Credit Party”), the financial institutions from time to time parties hereto, each as a Lender (collectively, the “Lenders”), and NEXBANK, SSB, as administrative agent for the Lenders (“Agent”).
- “Restricted Distribution” is defined as, with respect “to any Person (i) any dividend or other distribution on any equity interest in such Person or (ii) any payment on account of (a) the purchase, redemption, retirement, defeasance, surrender or acquisition of any equity interests in such Person or any claim respecting the purchase or sale of any equity interest in such Person or (b) any option, warrant or other right to acquire any equity interests in such Person; provided that, the term “Restricted Distribution” shall not include any dividend or distribution payable solely in equity interests of such Person or warrants, options or other rights to purchase such equity interests.”
- Section 5.3 – Restricted Distributions. Borrower will not, and will not permit any Guarantor to, directly or indirectly, declare, order, pay, make or set apart any sum for any Restricted Distribution; provided that the foregoing shall not restrict or prohibit any wholly-owned Guarantor from making dividends or distributions to Borrower or any other wholly-owned Guarantor and provided, further, that the foregoing shall not restrict or prohibit Borrower from making dividends or distributions to Holdings on the Closing Date in the amount of up to $20,500,000.00, which amount represents funds received by Borrower from Trussway, LLC in connection with the Amegy Credit Facility. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Holdings may make Restricted Distributions in connection with the repurchase, redemption or retirement of its membership interests, or otherwise make payment in connection with appraisal rights related thereto, in each case, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $5,000,000.00.

The Securities will be issued on or about March 27, 2008 (the “Closing Date”). The Stated Maturity of the Notes and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date of the Preference Shares are subject to multiple extensions if the Issuer provides timely notice and the Extension Conditions are satisfied as described herein.

The net proceeds of the offering of the Securities will be applied by the Issuer to repay amounts used by the Issuer in connection with financing the purchase of certain Collateral Obligations prior to the Closing Date and to purchase additional Collateral Obligations on and after the Closing Date, all of which will be pledged under the Indenture by the Issuer to the Trustee for the benefit of the secured parties named therein. See “Use of Proceeds.” Highland Capital Management, L.P. (“Highland Capital” or, in such capacity, the “Servicer”) will service the Issuer’s portfolio.

The Senior Notes are being offered in negotiated transactions at varying prices determined at the time of each sale. The Class E Notes and the Preference Shares are being offered in negotiated transactions at varying prices determined at the time of each sale.

This Offering Memorandum constitutes a prospectus (the “Prospectus”) for the purposes of Directive 2003/71/EC (the “Prospectus Directive”). Application will be made to the Irish Financial Services Regulatory Authority, as competent authority under the Prospectus Directive for this Prospectus to be approved. Application will be made for the Senior Notes to be admitted to the Official List of the Irish Stock Exchange and trading on its regulated market.

Investing in the Securities involves risks. See “Risk Factors” beginning on Page 26.

Certain pledged assets of the issuer are the sole source of payments on the Securities. The Securities do not represent an interest in or obligations of, and are not insured or guaranteed by, the Holders of the Preference Shares, the Servicer, the Trustee, any paying agent, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty or any of their respective Affiliates.

The Securities have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act and neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer will be registered under the Investment Company Act. The Senior Notes will be offered and sold to non-U.S. Persons outside of the United States in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Senior Notes may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons (“U.S. Persons”) as such term is defined in Regulation S except to persons that are (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act) (or, solely in the case of certain Holders purchasing Class C Notes and Class D Notes on the Closing Date, institutional Accredited Investors (as defined in clause (1), (2), (3) or (7) of Rule 501(a) under Regulation D under the Securities Act) (each, an “Institutional Accredited Investor”)) and (ii) Qualified Purchasers for purposes of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act. The Class E Notes and the Preference Shares will be offered and sold only to persons that are (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers (or, solely in the case of certain Holders purchasing Class E Notes on the Closing Date, Institutional Accredited Investors) and (ii) Qualified Purchasers. The Securities are not transferable except in accordance with the restrictions described under “Transfer Restrictions.”

The Senior Notes are being offered, subject to prior sale, when, as and if delivered to and accepted by Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (the “Initial Purchaser”) and/or its agents and the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares are being offered and sold directly by the Issuer. It is expected that the Global Notes evidencing the Senior Notes will be ready for delivery in book-entry form only in New York, New York, on or about March 27, 2008, through the facilities of DTC, against payment therefor in immediately available funds. It is expected that delivery of the physical certificates representing the Certificated Class E Notes and the Certificated Preference Shares will be made in New York, New York on or about March 27, 2008 against payment therefor in immediately available funds.

Offering Memorandum dated March 27, 2008.

Payment of interest on, and principal of, the Notes will be made by the Issuer in U.S. Dollars on the first day of each February, May, August and November of each year (or if such day is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day) (each such date a “Payment Date”), commencing on the Payment Date in November 2008, to the extent of available cash flow in respect of the Collateral in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Each Class of Notes will bear interest at the per annum rates set forth under “Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities.” The Preference Shares will receive as dividends certain amounts available for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Priority of Payments subject to any restrictions under Cayman Islands law. In addition, with respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion (or all) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. See “Description of the Securities—Interest Payments on the Notes and Payments of Dividends on the Preference Shares from Interest Proceeds” and “—Priority of Payments.”

The Notes will be subject to Optional Redemption in whole, but not in part, on any Payment Date upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period, in each case at the direction of the applicable Required Redemption Percentage. The Notes will be subject to mandatory redemption on any Payment Date, to the extent that any of the Coverage Tests are not satisfied, as described herein. The Notes will be subject to Special Redemption, at the discretion of the Servicer, to the extent that at any time during the Replacement Period, the Servicer cannot identify satisfactory additional or replacement Collateral Obligations. The Notes will be subject to Refinancing after the Non-Call Period on the terms and conditions described herein. After redemption in full of the Notes, the Preference Shares will be subject to Optional Redemption in whole or in part on any Payment Date by the Issuer at the request of the Holders of the requisite percentage of the Preference Shares at the applicable Redemption Price pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted; provided, however, that the Preference Shares will be redeemed on or prior to the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. See “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption,” “Optional Redemption—Redemption by Refinancing,” “—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes,” “—Special Redemption of Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture” and “—Priority of Payments.” The principal amount of the Notes will be payable at the Stated Maturity, unless redeemed or paid in full prior thereto. The Preference Shares are scheduled to be redeemed at their Redemption Price on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, unless redeemed prior thereto.

Application will be made for the Senior Notes to be admitted to the Official List of the Irish Stock Exchange (the “ISE”) and trading on its regulated market. However, there can be no assurance that the ISE will in fact accept the listing of the Senior Notes or, if accepted, that such listing will be maintained. Furthermore, the Co-Issuers will not be required to maintain a listing on a stock exchange in the European Union if compliance with requirements of the European Commission on a member state becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Servicer.

It is a condition of the issuance of the Securities that (i) the Class A Notes be rated “Aaa” by Moody’s Investors Service, Inc. (“Moody’s”) and “AAA” by Standard & Poor’s Ratings Services, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. (“S&P” and, together with Moody’s, the “Rating Agencies”), (ii) the Class B Notes be rated at least “Aa2” by Moody’s and at least “AA” by S&P, (iii) the Class C Notes be rated at least “A2” by Moody’s and at least “A” by S&P, (iv) the Class D Notes be rated at least “Baa2” by Moody’s and at least “BBB” by S&P and (v) the Class E Notes be rated at least “Ba2” by Moody’s and at least “BB” by S&P. Each of the above ratings assumes that no Maturity Extension occurs after the Closing Date. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning Rating Agency. The Preference Shares will not be rated by any credit rating agency.

No person has been authorized to make or provide any representation or information regarding the Co-Issuers or the Securities other than as contained in this Offering Memorandum. Any such representation or information should not be relied upon as having been authorized by the Co-Issuers or the Initial Purchaser. The delivery of this Offering Memorandum at any time does not imply that the information contained in it is correct as of any time subsequent to the date of this Offering Memorandum. The Co-Issuers disclaim any obligation to update such information and do not intend to do so. Unless otherwise indicated, all information in this Offering Memorandum is given as of the date of this Offering Memorandum.

This Offering Memorandum (this “Offering Memorandum”) has been prepared by the Co-Issuers solely for use in connection with the listing of the Senior Notes and the offering of the Securities as described herein. The Co-Issuers accept responsibility for the information contained in this Offering Memorandum (other than the information contained in the sections entitled “Risk Factors—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer” and “The Servicer”), having made all reasonable inquiries, confirm that, to the best knowledge and belief of the Co-Issuers, the information contained in this Offering Memorandum is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information. The Co-Issuers (and with respect to the information contained in this Offering Memorandum in the sections entitled “Risk Factors—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer” and “The Servicer” only, the Servicer) take responsibility accordingly.

The information appearing in the sections entitled “Risk Factors—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer” and “The Servicer” has been received from the Servicer and has been accurately reproduced. So far as the Co-Issuers are aware and are able to ascertain, no facts have been omitted from such information received which would render such information inaccurate or misleading. The Initial Purchaser and the Co-Issuers do not assume any responsibility for the accuracy, completeness, or applicability of such information, except that the Co-Issuers assume responsibility for accurately reproducing such information in this Offering Memorandum.

None of the Initial Purchaser, the Servicer (except with respect to the sections entitled, “Risk Factors—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer” and “The Servicer”) or the Trustee makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of the information in this Offering Memorandum. Each person receiving this Offering Memorandum acknowledges that such person has not relied on the Initial Purchaser, the Servicer (except with respect to the section entitled “Risk Factors—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer” and “The Servicer”) or the Trustee or any person affiliated therewith, in connection with its investigation of the accuracy of such information or its investment decision. Each person contemplating making an investment in the Securities must make its own investigation and analysis of the creditworthiness of the Co-Issuers and its own determination of the suitability of any such investment, with particular reference to its own investment objectives and experience, and any other factors that may be relevant to it in connection with such investment.

NOTICE TO NEW HAMPSHIRE RESIDENTS

NEITHER THE FACT THAT A REGISTRATION STATEMENT OR AN APPLICATION FOR A LICENSE HAS BEEN FILED UNDER CHAPTER 421-B OF THE NEW HAMPSHIRE REVISED STATUTES (THE “RSA”) WITH THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE NOR THE FACT THAT A SECURITY IS EFFECTIVELY REGISTERED OR A PERSON IS LICENSED IN THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE CONSTITUTES A FINDING BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE THAT ANY DOCUMENT FILED UNDER RSA 421-B IS TRUE, COMPLETE AND NOT MISLEADING. NEITHER ANY SUCH FACT NOR THE FACT THAT AN EXEMPTION OR EXCEPTION IS AVAILABLE FOR A SECURITY OR A TRANSACTION MEANS THAT THE SECRETARY OF STATE HAS PASSED IN ANY WAY UPON THE MERITS OR QUALIFICATIONS OF, OR RECOMMENDED OR GIVEN APPROVAL TO, ANY PERSON, SECURITY, OR TRANSACTION. IT IS UNLAWFUL TO MAKE, OR CAUSE TO BE MADE, TO ANY PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER, CUSTOMER, OR CLIENT ANY REPRESENTATION INCONSISTENT WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THIS PARAGRAPH.

THE SECURITIES HAVE NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION OR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION OR OTHER REGULATORY AUTHORITY, AND NONE OF THE FOREGOING AUTHORITIES HAS CONFIRMED THE ACCURACY OR DETERMINED THE ADEQUACY OF THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

This Offering Memorandum contains summaries of certain documents. The summaries do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to such documents. Each person receiving this Offering Memorandum acknowledges that such person has been afforded an opportunity to request from the Issuer and to review, and has received, all additional information considered by such person to be necessary to verify the accuracy and completeness of the information herein. Requests and inquiries regarding this Offering Memorandum or such documents should be directed to the Issuer, in care of the Initial Purchaser at One New York Plaza, New York, New York 10004. Such requests may also be made to the Listing Agent at the address set forth on the final page of this Offering Memorandum.

The Securities are a new issue of securities. There can be no assurance that a secondary market for any of the Securities will develop, or if a secondary market does develop, that it will provide the Holders of such Securities with liquidity of investment or that it will continue. Accordingly, investors should be prepared to bear the risks of holding the Securities until final payment is made thereon.

THE CONTENTS OF THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM ARE NOT TO BE CONSTRUED AS ACCOUNTING, LEGAL, BUSINESS OR TAX ADVICE. EACH PROSPECTIVE INVESTOR SHOULD CONSULT ITS OWN ACCOUNTANT, ATTORNEY, BUSINESS ADVISOR AND TAX ADVISOR AS TO LEGAL, BUSINESS AND TAX ADVICE. NONE OF THE CO-ISSUERS, THE INITIAL PURCHASER, THE SERVICER OR ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION TO ANY OFFEREE OF THE SECURITIES REGARDING THE LEGALITY OF AN INVESTMENT THEREIN BY SUCH OFFEREE UNDER APPLICABLE LEGAL INVESTMENT OR SIMILAR LAWS OR REGULATIONS OR THE PROPER CLASSIFICATION OF SUCH AN INVESTMENT THEREUNDER.

This Offering Memorandum does not constitute an offer of, or an invitation by or on behalf of, the Co-Issuers or the Initial Purchaser to subscribe to or purchase any of the Securities in any jurisdiction in which it is unlawful to make such an offer or invitation. The distribution of this Offering Memorandum and the offering of the Securities in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Offering Memorandum comes are required by the Co-Issuers and the Initial Purchaser to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. For a description of certain further restrictions on offers and sales of Securities and distribution of this Offering Memorandum, see “Description of the Securities,” “Plan of Distribution” and “Transfer Restrictions.”

Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer has been registered under the United States Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Investment Company Act”), in reliance on an exclusion from the definition of “investment company” under Section 3(c)(7) under the Investment Company Act (“Section 3(c)(7)”). Each purchaser of Senior Notes represented by an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note will be deemed to represent and agree and each purchaser of Class E Notes will be required to represent and agree that (i) the purchaser is acquiring such Notes in a principal amount of not less than U.S.$250,000, and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess thereof for such purchaser (and, in the case of the Senior Notes, each account for which such purchaser is purchasing such Notes) and (ii) the purchaser (and, in the case of the Senior Notes, each such account), is a Qualified Purchaser for purposes of Section 3(c)(7) (“Qualified Purchaser”). Each purchaser of Preference Shares will be required to represent and agree that (i) the purchaser is acquiring such Preference Shares in a number of not less than 100 Preference Shares and in integral multiples of one Preference Share in excess thereof for such purchaser and (ii) the purchaser is a Qualified Purchaser. See “Transfer Restrictions.”

The Issuer and the Co-Issuer may, at any time following the Closing Date, rely on exclusion from the definition of “investment company” under Rule 3a-7 under the Investment Company Act (“Rule 3a-7”) in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7) upon (a) receipt of an opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm providing that neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer is required to register as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act in reliance on such exclusion under Rule 3a-7 and (b) notice to the Holders of the Securities in accordance with the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. In connection with the Issuer’s reliance on Rule 3a-7 in lieu of Section 3(c)(7), the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents may be amended without the consent of any Holders and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities to prevent the Issuer from becoming an “investment company” as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7). See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Servicer May Cause the Issuer to Amend the Indenture to Assure Compliance with Rule 3a-7 Without the Consent of the Holders of the Securities in a Manner That May Adversely Affect the Holders of Securities.”

No invitation to subscribe for the Securities may be made to the public in the Cayman Islands.

Prospective purchasers are hereby notified that a seller of the Securities may be relying on an exemption from the registration requirements of Section 5 of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act (“Section 4(2)”).

In this Offering Memorandum references to “Dollars,” “$” and “U.S.$” are dollars or other equivalent units in such coin or currency of the United States of America as at the time shall be legal tender for all debts, public and private.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, except as necessary to comply with securities laws, each prospective investor (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure of the transactions described herein and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure under applicable U.S. federal, state or local tax law. Any such disclosure of the tax treatment, tax structure and other tax-related materials shall not be made for the purpose of offering to sell the Securities offered hereby or soliciting an offer to purchase any such Securities.

NO ACTION WAS TAKEN OR IS BEING CONTEMPLATED BY THE CO-ISSUERS THAT WOULD PERMIT A PUBLIC OFFERING OF THE SECURITIES OR POSSESSION OR DISTRIBUTION OF THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM OR ANY AMENDMENT THEREOF, OR SUPPLEMENT THERETO OR ANY OTHER OFFERING MATERIAL RELATING TO THE SECURITIES IN ANY JURISDICTION (OTHER THAN IRELAND) WHERE, OR IN ANY OTHER CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH, ACTION FOR THOSE PURPOSES IS REQUIRED. NOTHING CONTAINED HEREIN SHALL CONSTITUTE AN OFFER TO SELL OR A SOLICITATION OF AN OFFER TO PURCHASE ANY SECURITIES IN ANY JURISDICTION WHERE IT IS UNLAWFUL TO DO SO ABSENT THE TAKING OF SUCH ACTION OR THE AVAILABILITY OF AN EXEMPTION THEREFROM.

A PROSPECTUS PREPARED PURSUANT TO THE PROSPECTUS DIRECTIVE WILL BE PUBLISHED, WHICH CAN BE OBTAINED FROM THE ISSUER AND THE IRISH PAYING AGENT. SEE “LISTING AND GENERAL INFORMATION”. ANY FOREIGN LANGUAGE INCLUDED IN THIS DOCUMENT IS FOR CONVENIENCE PURPOSES ONLY AND DOES NOT FORM PART OF THE PROSPECTUS.

INFORMATION APPLICABLE TO NON U.S. INVESTORS

A COPY OF THIS PROSPECTUS WILL BE FILED WITH THE IRISH FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATORY AUTHORITY AND WILL BE AVAILABLE ON THE WEBSITE OF THE IRISH FINANCIAL REGULATORY AUTHORITY FROM THE DATE OF APPROVAL. COPIES OF SUCH PROSPECTUS WILL BE AVAILABLE FREE OF CHARGE FROM THE IRISH PAYING AGENT.

INFORMATION APPLICABLE TO U.S. INVESTORS

This Offering Memorandum is confidential and is being furnished by the Co-Issuers in connection with an offering exempt from registration under the Securities Act, solely for the purpose of enabling a prospective investor to consider the purchase of the Securities described herein. Except as otherwise authorized herein, any reproduction or distribution of this Offering Memorandum, in whole or in part, and any disclosure of its contents or use of any information herein for any purpose other than considering an investment in the Securities is prohibited. Each offeree of the Securities, by accepting delivery of this Offering Memorandum, agrees to the foregoing.

THE SECURITIES OFFERED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN RECOMMENDED BY ANY UNITED STATES FEDERAL OR STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION OR REGULATORY AUTHORITY. FURTHERMORE, THE FOREGOING AUTHORITIES HAVE NOT CONFIRMED THE ACCURACY OR DETERMINED THE ADEQUACY OF THIS DOCUMENT. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

NOTICE TO RESIDENTS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM

THE SECURITIES MUST NOT BE OFFERED OR SOLD AND THE DISTRIBUTION OF THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM AND ANY OTHER DOCUMENT IN CONNECTION WITH THE OFFERING AND

ISSUANCE OF THE SECURITIES MUST NOT BE ISSUED OR PASSED ON TO PERSONS IN THE UNITED KINGDOM EXCEPT TO PERSONS WHO: (i) ARE OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED KINGDOM; OR (ii) WHO ARE IN THE UNITED KINGDOM AND (A) HAVE PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE IN MATTERS RELATING TO INVESTMENTS; OR (B) ARE PERSONS FALLING WITHIN ARTICLE 49(2) OF THE FINANCIAL SERVICES AND MARKETS ACT 2000 (FINANCIAL PROMOTION) ORDER 2005 OR ARE PERSONS TO WHOM THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM OR ANY OTHER SUCH DOCUMENT MAY OTHERWISE LAWFULLY BE ISSUED OR PASSED ON (ALL SUCH PERSONS TOGETHER BEING REFERRED TO AS “RELEVANT PERSONS”). ANY INVESTMENT OR INVESTMENT ACTIVITY TO WHICH THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM RELATES IS AVAILABLE ONLY TO RELEVANT PERSONS AND WILL BE ENGAGED IN ONLY WITH RELEVANT PERSONS.

RELEVANT PERSONS SHOULD NOTE THAT ALL, OR MOST, OF THE PROTECTIONS OFFERED BY THE UNITED KINGDOM REGULATORY SYSTEM WILL NOT APPLY TO AN INVESTMENT IN THE SECURITIES AND THAT COMPENSATION WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE UNDER THE UNITED KINGDOM FINANCIAL SERVICES COMPENSATION SCHEME.

NOTICE TO RESIDENTS OF MEMBER STATES OF THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC AREA

In relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a “Relevant Member State”), the Initial Purchaser has represented and agreed that with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Relevant Member State (the “Relevant Implementation Date”) it has not made and will not make an offer of securities to the public in that Relevant Member State prior to the publication of an Offering Memorandum in relation to the securities which has been approved by the competent authority in that Relevant Member State or, where appropriate, approved in another Relevant Member State and notified to the competent authority in that Relevant Member State, all in accordance with the Prospectus Directive, except that each may, with effect from and including the Relevant Implementation Date, make an offer of securities to the public in that Relevant Member State at any time:

- (a) to the legal entities which are authorized or regulated to operate in the financial markets or, if not so authorized or regulated, whose corporate purpose is solely to invest in securities;
- (b) to any legal entity which has two or more of (1) an average of at least 250 employees during the last financial year; (2) a total balance sheet of more than €43,000,000 and (3) an annual net turnover of more than €50,000,000, as shown in its last annual or consolidated accounts; or
- (c) in any other circumstances which do not require the publication by the issuer of an Offering Memorandum pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an “offer of securities to the public” in relation to any Securities in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the securities to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Securities, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State and the expression “Prospectus Directive” means Directive 2003/71/EC and includes any relevant implementing measure in each Relevant Member State.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC IN THE CAYMAN ISLANDS

NO OFFER MAY BE MADE TO THE PUBLIC IN THE CAYMAN ISLANDS TO SUBSCRIBE FOR ANY SECURITIES AND THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM MAY NOT BE PASSED TO ANY SUCH PERSON.

AVAILABLE INFORMATION

To permit compliance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act (“Rule 144A”) in connection with the sale of the Securities, the Issuer (and, solely in the case of the Senior Notes, the Co-Issuers) under the Indenture referred to under “Description of the Securities” and the Preference Share Documents will be required to furnish upon request of a holder of a Security to such holder and a prospective purchaser designated by such holder the information required to be delivered under Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act if at the time of the request the Co-Issuers are not reporting companies under Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act. Such information may be obtained directly from the Issuer or through the paying agent in Ireland at the address set forth on the final page of this Offering Memorandum.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Any projections, forecasts and estimates contained herein are forward looking statements and are based upon certain reasonable assumptions. Projections are necessarily speculative in nature, and it can be expected that some or all of the assumptions underlying the projections will not materialize or will vary significantly from actual results. Accordingly, the projections are only an estimate. Actual results may vary from the projections, and the variations may be material. Consequently, the inclusion of projections herein should not be regarded as a representation by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Initial Purchaser or any of their respective Affiliates or any other person or entity of the results that will actually be achieved by the Issuer. None of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Servicer, the Initial Purchaser and their respective Affiliates has any obligation to update or otherwise revise any projections, including any revisions to reflect changes in economic conditions or other circumstances arising after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, even if the underlying assumptions do not come to fruition.

- 1 The Preference Shares will be issued with a Face Amount of U.S.$1,000 per share.
- 2 Under a hypothetical scenario in which, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (i) the Collateral consists of not less than 90% senior secured loans, (ii) the weighted average life of the Collateral is 8.76 years, (iii) 2% per annum by par amount of the Collateral Obligations experience defaults, (iv) 75% of the defaulted par amount on loans is recovered immediately and (v) 20% prepayments on the loans occur, the average life of each Class of the Notes will be as set forth in this table. The assumptions set forth above are not predictive or a forecast. They may not necessarily reflect historical performance and defaults for loans. The actual average lives may vary from the foregoing approximations. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary”.
- 3 The Stated Maturity of the Notes and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date of the Preference Shares are subject to multiple extensions to the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date (in the case of the Notes) and the applicable Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date (in the case of the Preference Shares), if the Issuer provides timely notice and the Extension Conditions are satisfied. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary,” “—A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected,” “Maturity and Prepayment Considerations” and “Description of the Securities—Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date.”

Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd. (the “Issuer”) and Aberdeen Loan Funding Corp. (the “Co-Issuer” and, together with the Issuer, the “Co-Issuers”) will issue the Class A Floating Rate Senior Secured Extendable Notes Due 2018 (the “Class A Notes”), the Class B Floating Rate Senior Secured Extendable Notes Due 2018 (the “Class B Notes”), the Class C Floating Rate Senior Secured Deferrable Interest Extendable Notes Due 2018 (the “Class C Notes”) and the Class D Floating Rate Senior Secured Deferrable Interest Extendable Notes Due 2018 (the “Class D Notes” and, together with the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes, the “Senior Notes”), and the Issuer will issue the Class E Floating Rate Senior Secured Deferrable Interest Extendable Notes Due 2018 (the “Class E Notes” and, together with the Senior Notes, the “Notes”), the Class I Preference Shares (the “Class I Preference Shares”) and the Class II Preference Shares (the “Class II Preference Shares” and, together with the Class I Preference Shares, the “Preference Shares” and, together with the Notes, the “Securities”), each Preference Share with U.S.$0.01 par value per share.

The Senior Notes will be limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer and non-recourse debt obligations of the Co-Issuer. The Class E Notes will be limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer. The Notes will be issued pursuant to an indenture, dated as of March 27, 2008 (the “Indenture”), among the Co-Issuers and State Street Bank and Trust Company, as Trustee (the “Trustee”).

The Preference Shares will be part of the issued share capital of the Issuer and, accordingly, will not be secured obligations of the Issuer. State Street Bank and Trust Company will act as the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the Preference Shares and will perform various administrative services pursuant to a Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, dated as of the Closing Date (the “Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement”) by and between the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent, as amended from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof.

The Class I Preference Shares and Class II Preference Shares will be identical in respect of rights to distributions except that the Class II Preference Shares (i) are entitled to receive Class II Preference Share

Special Payments if, with respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer, in its sole discretion, at any time waives a portion (or all) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments, and (ii) have total control with respect to the appointment and removal of the directors of the Issuer as long as the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date is higher than the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date. See “Description of the Securities—The Issuer Charter—Voting Rights.”

Payments to each Holder of the Notes of each Class shall be made ratably among the Holders of the Notes of that Class in proportion to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes of such Class held by each Holder. Payments to each Holder of the Preference Shares shall be made ratably among the Holders of the Preference Shares in proportion to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of such Preference Shares held by each Holder (provided that the Class II Preference Share Special Payments shall be paid solely to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares in proportion to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class II Preference Shares held by each Holder).

Except as provided under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments,” the Class A Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and payments of dividends on the Preference Shares; the Class B Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and payments of dividends on the Preference Shares; the Class C Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and payments of dividends on the Preference Shares; the Class D Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class E Notes and payments of dividends on the Preference Shares; the Class E Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to payments of dividends on the Preference Shares; and the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares will rank pari passu in right of dividend payments on each Payment Date except that any payments to the Holders of Class II Preference Shares of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments will have priority to the extent provided under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

The Securities and certain other obligations of the Co-Issuers will have the priorities of payment described under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

Co-Issuers.....

The Issuer is incorporated and exists as an exempted company incorporated with limited liability under the laws of the Cayman Islands. The Issuer’s activities are limited under the Indenture to acquiring Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments, entering into any Hedge Agreements, issuing the Securities and entering into certain related transactions. The Issuer has been established as a special purpose vehicle for the purpose of issuing asset-backed securities.

The Co-Issuer is organized as a corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of co-issuing the Senior Notes. The Co-Issuer has been established as a special purpose vehicle for the purpose of issuing asset-backed securities.

The Issuer will not have any significant assets other than Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, any Hedge Agreements and certain other eligible assets. The Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, the rights of the Issuer under any Hedge Agreements and other collateral will be pledged to the Trustee as security for, among other things, the Issuer's obligations under the Notes.

The Co-Issuer is not expected to have any significant assets and will not pledge any assets to secure the Senior Notes.

Trustee..... State Street Bank and Trust Company will act as the Trustee under the Indenture on behalf of the Holders of the Notes.

Servicer..... Certain servicing and administrative functions with respect to the Collateral will be performed by Highland Capital Management, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("Highland Capital" or, in such capacity, the "Servicer"), pursuant to the Servicing Agreement, which may be amended from time to time without the consent of the Holders of the Securities. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Servicing Agreement" and "The Servicing Agreement."

On the Closing Date, (i) the Approved Class II Preference Shareholders are expected to purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class E Notes and may purchase a portion of the Class C Notes and Class D Notes and (ii) the Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates is expected to purchase all or a portion of the Class I Preference Shares. No assurance can be given whether HFP or the Servicer will retain such Class C Notes, Class D Notes, Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares and/or Class II Preference Shares for any amount of time. See "Plan of Distribution."

The Share Registrar will record in the register maintained by it (the "Share Register") which Preference Shares are held by HFP or any of its subsidiaries and which Preference Shares so specifically designated by Highland Capital are held by Highland Capital or one or more of its Affiliates (together with HFP or any of its subsidiaries, the "Approved Class II Preference Shareholders"). Such Preference Shares will be designated by the Share Registrar as Class II Preference Shares. Any transfer of a Class II Preference Share by an Approved Class II Preference Shareholder to any Person other than any Approved Class II Preference Shareholder will, subject to the terms of the Issuer Charter, be converted into a Class I Preference Share, which shall be effected by a redemption by the Issuer of the applicable Class II Preference Share and an issue of a Class I Preference Share. Any transfer of a Class I Preference Share to an Approved Class II Preference Shareholder will, subject to the terms of the Issuer Charter, be converted into a Class II Preference Share, which shall be effected by a redemption by the Issuer of the applicable Class I Preference Share and an issue of a Class II Preference Share.

The Servicer or its Affiliates may also acquire Securities upon the occurrence of the Amendment Buy-Out Option or in connection with a Refinancing. In addition, the Servicer or its Affiliates may acquire all or any portion of any Extension Sale Securities in connection with a Maturity Extension. See “The Servicer,” “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities,” “—Relating to the Servicer” and “—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer,” “Description of the Securities—Amendment Buy-Out,” “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Redemption by Refinancing,” “Description of the Securities—Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date” and “The Servicing Agreement.”

Closing Date ..... March 27, 2008.

Use of Proceeds ..... The net proceeds of the offering of the Securities received on the Closing Date, prior to the deduction of transaction expenses, are expected to equal approximately U.S.$454,837,350 and will be used by the Issuer to:

- purchase a portfolio of Collateral Obligations;
- fund a trust account for Revolving Loans (the “Revolving Reserve Account”) and a trust account for Delayed Drawdown Loans (the “Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account”) to cover any future draws on Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans;
- enter into any Hedge Agreements, as applicable;
- enter into any Synthetic Security Agreements (and correspondingly to fund the related accounts);
- repay amounts owed to the Pre-Closing Parties in connection with the financing of the Issuer’s pre-closing acquisition of Collateral Obligations;
- fund the Closing Date Expense Account;
- pay certain expenses related to the transaction; and
- undertake certain related activities.

See “Use of Proceeds.”

Payment Dates ..... Payment of interest on, and principal of, the Notes will be made by the Issuer in U.S. Dollars on the first day of each February, May, August and November of each year (or if such day is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day), commencing on the Payment Date in November 2008, to the extent of available cash flow in respect of the Collateral in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Hedge Agreements..... At any time and from time to time on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, may enter into Hedge Agreements and will assign its rights (but none of its obligations) under any Hedge Agreements to the Trustee. See “Hedge Agreements.”

Interest Payments and*Distributions from Interest*Proceeds .....

The Notes will accrue interest from the Closing Date. Interest on the Notes will be payable, to the extent of funds available therefor, on each Payment Date.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of interest due on such Class of Deferred Interest Notes that is not available to be paid (“Deferred Interest”) in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered “payable” for the purposes of the Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments. To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for such Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest), until paid. See “Description of the Securities—Interest Payments on the Notes and Payments of Dividends on the Preference Shares from Interest Proceeds,” “—Priority of Payments” and “—The Indenture—Events of Default.”

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted and to the extent of available Interest Proceeds as described under clauses (xviii) and (xx) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds;” provided that, in lieu of payment of such Interest Proceeds, in whole or in part, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, will have the right to direct the Trustee to distribute on any Payment Date Eligible Equity Securities pro rata to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date to the extent that the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) is equal to or lower than the aggregate amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be distributed on the relevant Payment Date to such Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares. Interest Proceeds in an amount equal to the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) distributed to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares will be treated for all purposes by the Issuer and the Servicer as Principal Proceeds available for distribution in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the relevant Payment Date. The amount of Interest Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date will be reduced and the amount of Principal Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date will be increased accordingly. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” and “—Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement—Distribution of Eligible Equity Securities.”

In addition, with respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion (or all) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. Any Class II Preference Share Special Payment will be paid by the Issuer in accordance with the Priority of Payments described under clause (E) of the “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Adjusted Proceeds”, and clauses (xv) and (xix) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

Principal Payments and Distributions from Principal Proceeds .....

The Notes will mature at par on the Payment Date in November 2018 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date (the “Stated Maturity”) and the Preference Shares are scheduled to be redeemed at the Redemption Price thereof by the Issuer on the Payment Date in November 2018 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date (the “Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date”), in each case unless redeemed or (in the case of the Notes) repaid in full prior thereto. The average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years from issuance until the Stated Maturity for such Notes. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary,” “—A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected” and “Maturity and Prepayment Considerations.”

In general, principal payments will not be made on the Notes before the end of the Replacement Period, except in the following circumstances:

- in connection with the payment of Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes;
- in connection with an Optional Redemption;
- at the option of the Servicer, to effect a Special Redemption of the Notes;
- in connection with a Refinancing;
- pursuant to an Optional Redemption made in connection with a Tax Event; or
- following a mandatory redemption of the Notes caused by a failure to meet any of the Coverage Tests or a Rating Confirmation Failure.

See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments,” “—Optional Redemption,” “—Special Redemption of the Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture,” “—Optional Redemption—Redemption by Refinancing,” “—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes” and “Security for the Notes—Ramp-Up.”

No payments of principal will be made on the Class B Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class C Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class D Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class E Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes has been paid in full (other than with respect to the use of Interest Proceeds to pay principal of the Class E Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class E Coverage Tests). However, Principal Proceeds may be used to pay Deferred Interest and other amounts before the payment of principal of the Notes. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

No principal of any Class of Notes will be payable on any Payment Date other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and to the extent funds are available therefor on that Payment Date for that purpose, except that the principal of each Class of Notes will be payable in full at the Stated Maturity, unless repaid before that.

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares (including, with respect to the Class II Preference Shares, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted and to the extent of available Principal Proceeds as described under clauses (xi)(A), (xiv) and (xvi) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

For a description of the relative priority of payments and level of subordination of the Securities and certain fees, expenses and other liabilities of the Co-Issuers, see “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date.....

The Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Replacement Period to the applicable Extended Replacement Period End Date up to a maximum of four times if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Replacement Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. For purposes of the foregoing, “Extension Effective Date” means if an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extension Effective Date (or, in the case of the first Extension Effective Date, the Payment Date in May 2012) and “Extended Replacement Period End Date” means, if an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Replacement Period End Date (or, in the case of the first Extension, the Payment Date in May 2018); provided that the “Extended Replacement Period End Date” will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in May 2030.

If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Notes shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date shall automatically be extended to the Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents (the “Maturity Extension”); provided that the Issuer will not be permitted to effect more than four Maturity Extensions. For purposes of the foregoing, “Extended Stated Maturity Date” means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Stated Maturity Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Stated Maturity Date, the Payment Date in November 2022), “Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date” means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, November 2022) and “Extended Weighted Average Life Date” means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Weighted Average Life Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Weighted Average Life Date, May 2022); provided that the Extended Stated Maturity Date will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in November 2034, the Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in November 2034 and the Extended Weighted Average Life Date will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in May 2034.

As a condition to a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes or Preference Shares will have the right to offer to sell their Notes or Preference Shares to one or more Extension Qualifying Purchasers for purchase on the applicable Extension Effective Date.

If all Extension Conditions are satisfied and a Maturity Extension is effected, each Noteholder, other than Holders of Extension Sale Securities, will be entitled to receive the applicable Extension Bonus Payment, to the extent of available funds and as provided in the Priority of Payments. Holders of Preference Shares will not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in connection with a sale of Extension Sale Securities, all, but not part, of the Extension Sale Securities must be purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date.

See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary,” “—A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected,” “Maturity and Prepayment Considerations,” and “Description of the Securities—Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date.”

Security for the Notes ..... The Notes will be secured by a portfolio having an Aggregate Principal Balance following the Ramp-Up Period of approximately U.S.$510,000,000 (in principal amount) and consisting primarily of Collateral Obligations and certain other debt securities, in each case having the characteristics set forth herein. The Notes will also be secured by funds on deposit in the Issuer Accounts, the Issuer's rights under any Hedge Agreements, any Securities Lending Agreements, the Servicing Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement. See "Security for the Notes."

Collateral Ramp-Up Period ..... The Issuer expects that, as of the Closing Date, it will have purchased (or entered into commitments to purchase) Collateral Obligations to be included in the anticipated portfolio such that the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator will be at least U.S.$510,000,000 as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date. The "Ramp-Up Completion Date" is the earlier of (i) the Business Day after the 120th day after the Closing Date, and (ii) the first date on which the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer plus the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations committed to be purchased by the Issuer with proceeds from the sale of the Securities (in each case with respect to Collateral Obligations committed to be purchased, measured solely as of the date of commitment) equals at least U.S.$510,000,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, (x) without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments or principal prepayments made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp Up Completion Date, (y) for any Loan acquired by the Issuer at a Purchase Price less than 70% of its Principal Balance (I) if such Loan has a Moody's Obligation Rating that is equal to or better than "B2" (and not rated "B2" on watch for downgrade) such Loan will be given 100% par credit for purposes of determining its Principal Balance on the Ramp-Up Completion Date and (II) if such Loan has a Moody's Obligation Rating less than "B2" (or "B2" on watch for downgrade) such Loan will be valued at its Purchase Price for purposes of determining its Principal Balance on the Ramp-Up Completion Date and (z) any Structured Finance Obligation that has an overcollateralization-based event of default with ratings based haircuts (including CCC excess securities haircuts) shall have a Principal Balance of zero).

In anticipation of the issuance of the Securities, one or more Affiliates of the Initial Purchaser (the "Pre-Closing Parties") are financing the acquisition of Collateral Obligations by the Issuer during the Accumulation Period. On the Closing Date, the funds advanced by each applicable Pre-Closing Party will be repaid by the Issuer with proceeds of the offering to the extent not prepaid prior thereto. In exchange for bearing the risk of loss on the Collateral Obligations acquired prior to the Closing Date, the Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates will each be entitled to a share of the interest and any fees and commissions (net of any interest and other amounts payable to the Pre-Closing Parties on funds advanced by them to finance the acquisition of Collateral Obligations) paid by the obligors of such Collateral Obligations or accrued on such Collateral Obligations, from the time of purchase to the Closing Date, plus a share of the amount by which any realized net gains exceed any realized net losses on Collateral Obligations sold or fully repaid during the Accumulation Period, in each case, in proportion to the percentage of Preference Shares each such party purchases on the Closing Date. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Collateral Obligations—A Substantial Amount of Collateral Obligations Was Acquired Before the Closing Date, and the Terms of the Acquisition May Adversely Affect the Issuer.”

See “Security for the Notes—Ramp-Up.”

Replacement Period; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations.....

During the Replacement Period, the Issuer may generally (and subject to certain requirements) use Principal Proceeds received with respect to the Collateral to purchase additional or replacement Collateral Obligations in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria (which Eligibility Criteria include requirements that an item of Collateral purchased by the Issuer meet the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and that the portfolio of Collateral Obligations be in compliance with the Concentration Limitations to the extent provided in the Eligibility Criteria). See “—Collateral Obligations,” “—Concentration Limitations” and “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria.”

The “Replacement Period” will be the period from the Closing Date through and including the first to occur of:

- (i) the Payment Date after the date that the Servicer notifies the Trustee, each Rating Agency and the Administrator, in the sole discretion of the Servicer, that, in light of the composition of the Collateral, general market conditions, and other factors, the acquisition of additional Collateral Obligations within the foreseeable future would be impractical;
- (ii) the Payment Date in May 2014 or, in the case of an Extension, the Extended Replacement Period End Date;
- (iii) the Payment Date on which all Notes are to be optionally redeemed or an earlier date after notice of an Optional Redemption chosen by the Servicer to facilitate the liquidation of the Collateral for the Optional Redemption; and
- (iv) the date on which the Replacement Period terminates or is terminated as a result of an Event of Default (subject to the terms of the Indenture).

No acquisition of Collateral Obligations will be made after the termination of the Replacement Period, except that (x) Unscheduled Principal Payments and (y) Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations may be used to purchase Collateral Obligations after the Replacement Period subject to the limitations described under “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria” and “—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations.” After the termination of the Replacement Period, all Principal Proceeds (other than Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations) must be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no acquisition or disposition of a Collateral Obligation or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) shall be effected by or on behalf of the Issuer for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes.

Collateral Obligations ..... Any obligation or security (a “Collateral Obligation”) that, when the Issuer commits to purchase (or otherwise acquire) the obligation or security, is a Loan, High-Yield Bond, Structured Finance Obligation or Synthetic Security with a Reference Obligation that is a Loan, a Structured Finance Obligation or High-Yield Bond that is:

- (i) denominated and payable in U.S. Dollars and is not convertible by its obligor into any other currency;
- (ii) an obligation of an obligor Domiciled in an Eligible Country;
- (iii) an obligation that is eligible by its terms to be assigned to the Issuer and pledged by the Issuer to the Trustee for inclusion in the Collateral;
- (iv) not an exchangeable or convertible security;
- (v) not an equity security or a component of an equity security or a security that has a component that is an equity security (other than for avoidance of doubt, a pass-through trust certificate in a trust holding Collateral Obligations that is rated by a nationally recognized credit rating agency);
- (vi) not an obligation or security that has been called for redemption and not an obligation or security that is the subject of an Offer other than a Permitted Offer or an exchange offer in which a security that is not registered under the Securities Act is exchanged for (a) a security that has substantially identical terms (except for transfer restrictions) but is registered under the Securities Act or (b) a security that would otherwise qualify for purchase under the Eligibility Criteria;
- (vii) an obligation that (a) has a Moody’s Rating (including any estimated or confidential rating which is in respect of the full obligation of the obligor and which is monitored) and (b) has an S&P Rating (including any confidential rating which is in respect of the full obligation of the obligor and which is monitored), which S&P Rating does not have a “p”, “pi”, “q”, “r”, “t” or “f” subscript unless S&P otherwise authorizes in writing;
- (viii) an obligation that is a Finance Lease (if it is a lease) and the Rating Condition with respect to S&P has been satisfied with respect to the acquisition thereof;
- (ix) (a) an obligation that is not a Current-Pay Obligation, Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Credit Risk Obligation and (b) in the case of a Collateral Obligation that has a Moody’s Rating of “Caa1” or lower or an S&P Rating of “CCC+” or lower, an obligation for which the Servicer has certified in writing that such Collateral Obligation is not a Credit Risk Obligation;

- (x) an obligation that (unless it is a High-Yield Bond) is not subordinated by its terms to other indebtedness for borrowed money of the applicable issuer; provided that for the avoidance of doubt, this clause shall not prohibit the inclusion as Collateral Obligations of Subordinated Lien Loans or Second Lien Loans;
- (xi) an obligation that (a) (unless it is a PIK Security) bears simple interest payable in cash no less frequently than annually at a fixed or floating rate that is paid on a periodic basis on an unleveraged basis and, in the case of a floating rate, computed on a benchmark interest rate plus or minus a spread, if any (which may vary under the terms of the obligation) and (b) provides for a fixed amount of principal payable in cash according to a fixed schedule (which may include optional call dates) or at maturity (or a fixed notional amount in the case of Synthetic Securities);
- (xii) an obligation the payment or repayment of the principal, if any, of which is not an amount determined by reference to any formula or index or subject to any contingency under the terms thereof;
- (xiii) an obligation the portion of which to be acquired (including through a Synthetic Security with respect to the Reference Obligation) does not represent, directly or indirectly, more than a 25% interest in the obligation;
- (xiv) not an obligation with a maturity later than four years after the Stated Maturity of the Notes;
- (xv) an obligation upon which no payments are subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the obligor thereof or counterparty with respect thereto is required to make “gross-up” payments that cover the full amount of any such withholding tax on an after-tax basis (other than withholding taxes with respect to commitment fees, facility fees or other similar fees);
- (xvi) not a Loan or Synthetic Security that would require the Issuer after its purchase of the Loan or Synthetic Security to advance any funds to the related borrower or Synthetic Security Counterparty or permit the borrower or Synthetic Security Counterparty to require that any future advances be made except for:
  - (A) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan if, simultaneously with its purchase of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, the Issuer deposits into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, respectively, the maximum amount of any advances that may be required of the Issuer under the related Underlying Instrument (as provided in the Indenture); and

- (B) any Synthetic Security if, simultaneously with its purchase of the Synthetic Security, the Issuer posts cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) the Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of any future advances;
- (xvii) if such obligation is a Structured Finance Obligation that is a collateralized loan obligation, such obligation:
  - (A) has been assigned a rating by both Moody's and S&P;
  - (B) has a Moody's Rating of "Baa3" or higher and an S&P Rating of "BBB-" or higher;
  - (C) has not been placed on the watch list for possible downgrade by Moody's or S&P;
  - (D) not serviced/managed by the Servicer; and
  - (E) not a middle market CLO (as determined by the Servicer);
- (xviii) not a Loan that is an obligation of a debtor in possession or a trustee for a debtor in an insolvency proceeding other than a DIP Loan;
- (xix) with respect to an obligation that provides for the payment of interest at a floating rate, an obligation for which such floating rate is determined by reference to the U.S. Dollar prime rate or other base rate, London interbank offered rate or similar interbank offered rate, commercial deposit rate or any other index that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto;
- (xx) in the case of a Synthetic Security, the Synthetic Security is one for which the counterparty or issuer, as the case may be, has a short-term debt rating by Moody's of at least "P-1" or long-term senior unsecured rating by Moody's of at least "A3" and, if rated "A3" by Moody's, such rating is not on watch for downgrade, and a short-term debt rating by S&P of at least "A-1+" or, if no short-term rating exists, an issuer credit rating by S&P of at least "AA-" and at the time of acquisition the documentation meets S&P's current counterparty criteria with respect to collateral posting and replacement upon downgrade of the counterparty;
- (xxi) not an obligation that constitutes Margin Stock;
- (xxii) not a Zero-Coupon Security;
- (xxiii) not an obligation that is currently deferring interest or paying interest "in kind" or otherwise has an interest "in kind" balance outstanding at the time of purchase, which interest is otherwise payable in cash;

- (xxiv) not a security whose repayment is subject to substantial non-credit related risk as determined by the Servicer;
- (xxv) not an obligation the interest payments of which are scheduled to decrease (although interest payments may decrease due to unscheduled events such as a decrease of the index relating to a Floating Rate Obligation, the change from a default rate of interest to a non-default rate of interest or an improvement in the obligor's financial condition); and
- (xxvi) an "eligible asset" as defined under Rule 3a-7 and not an obligation that will cause the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the pool of assets to be required to be registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act.

Pursuant to the definition of "Synthetic Security," unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any "deliverable obligation" that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event" must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such "deliverable obligation" is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event") as a Collateral Obligation, except that such "deliverable obligation" may constitute a Defaulted Collateral Obligation when delivered upon a "credit event."

See "Security for the Notes—Purchase of Collateral Obligations" and "—Eligibility Criteria."

Concentration Limitations..... Upon a purchase of a Collateral Obligation, the Eligibility Criteria require that each of the limits set forth below with respect to a particular type of Relevant Obligation (measured by Aggregate Principal Balance plus the aggregate outstanding principal amount of any Defaulted Collateral Obligations) as a percentage of the Maximum Amount (the "Concentration Limitations") is satisfied or, if any such limit is not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced:

	Percentage of the Maximum Amount
(1) Senior Secured Loans and Eligible Investments	≥ 90.0%
(2) Senior Unsecured Loans, Subordinated Lien Loans and Second Lien Loans	≤ 5.0%
(3) Revolving Loans and the unfunded portion of Delayed Drawdown Loans	≤ 12.0%
(4) DIP Loans	≤ 7.5%
(5) PIK Securities	≤ 5.0%
(6) High-Yield Bonds	≤ 5.0%
(7) Structured Finance Obligations	≤ 2.5%
(a) except that Structured Finance Obligations serviced by the Servicer may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 0%
(b) except that Structured Finance Obligations that are middle market CLOs may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 0%
(c) except that Structured Finance Obligations that are rated either Ba1 or lower or BB+ or lower may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 0%
(d) except that a single issuer together with any of its Affiliates (excluding Secondary Risk Counterparties) of a Structured Finance Obligation may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 1.0%
(e) except that Structured Finance Obligations that are CLOs of which greater than 10% of the underlying obligations are backed primarily by other CLOs may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 0.0%

	Percentage of the Maximum Amount
(8) obligors Domiciled other than in the United States and Canada	≤ 20.0%
(9) obligors Domiciled in Canada or any single Moody's Group I Country	≤ 10.0%
(10) obligors Domiciled in any single Moody's Group II Country	≤ 5.0%
(11) obligors Domiciled in all Moody's Group II Countries in the aggregate	≤ 10.0%
(12) obligors Domiciled in any single Moody's Group III Country	≤ 2.5%
(13) obligors Domiciled in all Moody's Group III Countries in the aggregate	≤ 5.0%
(14) obligors organized in any Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction (other than Structured Finance Obligations)	≤ 3.0%
(15) same S&P Industry Classification	≤ 10.0%
(a) except that Relevant Obligations belonging to two S&P Industry Classifications may each constitute up to the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 12.0%
(16) same Moody's Industry Classification	≤ 12.0%
(a) except that Relevant Obligations belonging to two Moody's Industry Classifications may each constitute up to the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 14.0%
(17) single obligor and any of its Affiliates (excluding Secondary Risk Counterparties)	≤ 1.5%
(a) except that up to each of five individual obligors and any of their Affiliates (excluding Secondary Risk Counterparties and any obligor under a DIP Loan) may each constitute up to the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 2.5%
(18) Fixed Rate Obligations	≤ 5.0%
(19) Pay interest less frequently than quarterly but no less frequently than semi-annually	≤ 5.0%
(20) Pay interest less frequently than semi-annually but no less frequently than annually	≤ 3.0%
(21) Synthetic Securities	≤ 20.0%
(a) except that Synthetic Securities that provide for settlement other than by physical delivery may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 5.0%
(b) except that Synthetic Securities that reference a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 0.0%
(c) except that Synthetic Securities that reference a single vintage of such index may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 2.0%
(22) Participations including Synthetic Letters of Credit structured as a Participation ( provided that no Relevant Obligations may be a Participation in a Participation)	≤ 10.0%
(23) Relevant Obligations of which are (i) obligors Domiciled other than in the United States, (ii) Collateral Obligations lent under Securities Lending Agreements, (iii) Participations and (iv) Synthetic Securities, in the aggregate may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 20.0%
(24) Relevant Obligations of which are (i) obligors Domiciled other than in the United States, (ii) Collateral Obligations lent under Securities Lending Agreements, (iii) Participations and (iv) Synthetic Securities, entered into with, or issued by, a single Secondary Risk Counterparty	≤ respective percentage in Secondary Risk Table under "Individual Counterparty Limit" for applicable rating*

(25) Relevant Obligations of which are (i) obligors Domiciled other than in the United States, (ii) Collateral Obligations lent under Securities Lending Agreements, (iii) Participations and (iv) Synthetic Securities, entered into with, or issued by, all Secondary Risk Counterparties	≤ respective percentage in Secondary Risk Table under “Aggregate Counterparty Limit” for applicable rating
(26) Deep Discount Obligations	≤ 7.5%
(a) except that Collateral Obligations acquired by the Issuer for a Purchase Price less than 50% of their Principal Balance and which have a public Moody’s rating that is equal to or better than “B2” (and not rated “B2” on watch for downgrade) may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column; provided that:	≤ 3.0%
(i) no Collateral Obligation of the type set forth in the clause 26(a) may be purchased:
(a) if on the date of such purchase a Credit Rating Event is in effect;
(b) if on the date of such purchase the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is not satisfied;
(c) if on the date of such purchase the Concentration Limitations set forth in clause 27 are not satisfied; or
(d) if the Class E Coverage Tests are lower than the levels as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date;
(ii) Collateral Obligations may not exceed, on a cumulative basis, 12% of the Maximum Amount from the Ramp-Up Completion Date up to and including the Stated Maturity, but such cumulative amount will be reset on any Maturity Extension;
(iii) once such a Collateral Obligation has traded for 30 consecutive days at a Market Value Percentage equal to or greater than 65% it shall no longer be counted as part of the 3.0% limit in clause 26(a) above (for the avoidance of doubt any such Collateral Obligation will count toward the 12% cumulative bucket set forth in clause (a)(iii) above);
(b) except that no single obligor of a Collateral Obligation of the type specified in clause 26(a) may exceed the percentage of the Maximum Percentage specified in the right column	≤ 1.0%
(c) except that Collateral Obligations that do not have a public Moody’s rating or have a public Moody’s rating less than “B2” (or rated “B2” on watch for downgrade) may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤ 0.0%
(27) CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations	≤ 5.0%
(28) Long-Dated Collateral Obligations	≤ 2.0%
(29) Collateral Obligations lent under Securities Lending Agreements	≤ 15.0%
(30) Collateral Obligations providing for interest at a non-London interbank offered rate (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, the unfunded amount of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan)	≤ 5.0%
(31) Collateral Obligations that are Loans that are part of a credit facility with a total global aggregate commitment amount of less than $150,000,000	≤ 10.0%
(32) Synthetic Letters of Credit	≤ 5.0%
(33) Current-Pay Obligations	≤ 5.0%
(34) Cov-lite Loans	≤ 10.0%

* Applicable long-term unsecured rating by Moody’s or S&P of such Secondary Risk Counterparty (using the limit for the lower of such ratings if different).

** Long-term unsecured rating by Moody's or S&P at or below a level specified in the Secondary Risk Table (using the lower of such ratings for a Secondary Risk Counterparty, if different).

Subject to the rights in certain circumstances of the Servicer to determine otherwise as set out in the Indenture, solely for the purpose of determining whether the Concentration Limitations are met, Eligible Investments and Cash will be treated as Senior Secured Loans and Floating Rate Obligations.

See "Security For the Notes—Eligibility Criteria."

Coverage Tests and the Interest

Diversion Test.....

The "Coverage Tests" will consist of the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Tests. In addition, the Interest Diversion Test, which is not a Coverage Test, will apply as described herein. See "Security For the Notes—The Coverage Tests—The Overcollateralization Tests" and "—The Interest Coverage Tests" for the formulations of these tests, which are highly detailed. The ratios on which they are based are also described under such headings. The tests will be used to determine, among other things, whether (i) Notes will be redeemed in certain circumstances as described under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments" and (ii) in the case of the Coverage Tests, Collateral Obligations may be acquired as described under "Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria."

There will not be any Coverage Test applicable to the Preference Shares.

The Overcollateralization Tests.....

The Overcollateralization Tests will consist of the "Class A/B Overcollateralization Test," the "Class C Overcollateralization Test," the "Class D Overcollateralization Test" and the "Class E Overcollateralization Test." Each Overcollateralization Test will be satisfied with respect to any Class of Notes if, as of any Measurement Date, the Overcollateralization Ratio for the Class is at least equal to the specified required level for the specified Class indicated in the table below:

Test	Required Level
Class A/B Overcollateralization Test	113.75 %
Class C Overcollateralization Test	110.50 %
Class D Overcollateralization Test	107.25 %
Class E Overcollateralization Test	105.00 %

The Interest Coverage Tests.....

The Interest Coverage Tests will consist of the "Class A/B Interest Coverage Test," the "Class C Interest Coverage Test," the "Class D Interest Coverage Test" and the "Class E Interest Coverage Test." Each Interest Coverage Test will be satisfied with respect to any specified Class of Notes if, as of the second Payment Date and any Measurement Date thereafter on which any Notes remain Outstanding, the Interest Coverage Ratio equals or exceeds the applicable required level specified in the table below for the specified Class:

Test	Required Level
Class A/B Interest Coverage Test	125.00 %
Class C Interest Coverage Test	115.00 %
Class D Interest Coverage Test	110.00 %
Class E Interest Coverage Test	105.00 %

Interest Diversion Test .....	A test that will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date on which any Notes remain Outstanding, if the Interest Diversion Ratio as of such Measurement Date is at least equal to 106.00%.
Collateral Quality Tests .....	The Collateral Quality Tests will be used primarily as criteria for purchasing Collateral Obligations. See “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria.” The “ Collateral Quality Tests ” will consist of the Diversity Test, the Weighted Average Life Test, the Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test, the Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, the Weighted Average Spread Test, the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test and the S&P CDO Monitor Test, as described below.
Diversity Test .....	The Diversity Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date, if the Diversity Score equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score.
S&amp;P CDO Monitor Test .....	The S&P CDO Monitor Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if, after giving effect to the sale of a Collateral Obligation or the purchase of a Collateral Obligation, each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is positive.
Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test .....	The Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon equals or exceeds 7.5%.
Weighted Average Life Test .....	The Weighted Average Life Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the greater of (a) the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and May 1, 2018 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date and (b) four years.
Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test .....	The Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Moody’s Minimum Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 44.50%.
Weighted Average Rating Factor Test .....	The Weighted Average Rating Factor Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date, if the Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor of the Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) as of such Measurement Date is less than or equal to the Maximum Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor.
Weighted Average S&amp;P Recovery Rate Test .....	The Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the S&P Recovery Rate for each Class of Notes is greater than or equal to: (i) with respect to the Class A Notes, 58.50%; (ii) with respect to the Class B Notes, 61.75%; (iii) with respect to the Class C Notes, 65.00%; (iv) with respect to the Class D Notes, 67.75%; and (v) with respect to the Class E Notes, 70.75%.

Weighted Average Spread Test ..... The Weighted Average Spread Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Weighted Average Spread.

See “Security for the Notes—The Collateral Quality Tests.”

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests .....

If any of the Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the last day of any Due Period (each, a “Determination Date”), funds will be used pursuant to the Priority of Payments to redeem the Notes to the extent necessary for such failing Coverage Tests to be satisfied that would otherwise be used:

- (i) to purchase additional Collateral Obligations during the Replacement Period; or
- (ii) to make interest and principal payments on the Notes and to make dividend or redemption payments in respect of the Preference Shares.

See “Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests.”

Certain Consequences of Failure to Satisfy the Interest
Diversion Test .....

If the Interest Diversion Test is not satisfied on any Determination Date, certain funds, as described under clause (xiv) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds,” representing Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be used to make payments on the Preference Shares and pay certain subordinated expenses of the Issuer, will instead be used to pay principal on the Notes, in reverse order of priority, as described under clause (xiv) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation
Failure .....

No later than 10 Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer shall (a) provide certain information to S&P and Moody’s as required by the Indenture and described herein and (b) notify each of the Rating Agencies in writing of the occurrence of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (each, a “Ramp-Up Notice”) and request in writing that each of S&P and Moody’s confirm in writing within 25 days of delivery of such Ramp-Up Notice that it has not reduced or withdrawn the ratings (including any private or confidential ratings) assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to request a Rating Confirmation from Moody’s if, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date Moody’s has received an accountants’ certificate confirming (i) the Issuer is in compliance with each of the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests and the Concentration Limitations and (ii) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator of the Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owns or has committed to purchase is at least equal to U.S.$510,000,000. If the Issuer is unable to obtain a requested Rating Confirmation from S&P or, if required, Moody's with respect to any Class of Notes on or prior to the date 25 days after the delivery of the Ramp-Up Notice, a "Rating Confirmation Failure" will be deemed to have occurred and shall thereafter be deemed to be continuing until the first date thereafter on which the Trustee shall have received evidence of confirmation of the Initial Ratings, on which date it shall be deemed to have been cured. If a Rating Confirmation Failure is continuing, then, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all Interest Proceeds remaining after payment of amounts referred to in clauses (A) through (F) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Adjusted Proceeds" and (i) through (xii) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" will be used to pay principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes in the Note Payment Sequence on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date thereafter until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. If necessary, after the foregoing payments are made out of Interest Proceeds, Principal Proceeds in accordance with clause (x) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds" will be used to pay principal of each Class of the Notes sequentially in order of their priority on each Payment Date until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. See "Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure."

Optional Redemption ..... Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the applicable Required Redemption Percentage may require the Issuer or Co-Issuers, as applicable, to redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, from Principal Proceeds and all other funds available for that purpose in the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account in accordance with the optional redemption procedures described under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption."

Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at their Redemption Price. From and after the Redemption Date the redeemed Notes will cease to bear interest.

The redemption price payable in connection with the Optional Redemption of any Class of Notes will be the sum of:

- (i) the outstanding principal amount of the Note being redeemed;
plus
- (ii) accrued interest on the Note (including any Defaulted Interest and interest on Defaulted Interest); plus
- (iii) in the case of any Deferred Interest Note, the applicable Deferred Interest on the Note; plus
- (iv) any unpaid Extension Bonus Payment in respect of the Note.

The redemption price payable in connection with the Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares will be (i) at the request of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the entire remaining amount of available funds after all prior applications or (ii) as specified by the unanimous written request of the Holders of the Preference Shares, in each case, as described under “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption.”

In addition, any Class of Notes may be redeemed in whole, but not in part, on any Payment Date after the Non-Call Period from Refinancing Proceeds obtained from a loan or the issuance of a replacement class of notes, subject to the written consent of a Majority of the Preference Shares (voting as a single class) and to the extent and subject to the restrictions and conditions described herein and set forth in the Indenture.

Special Redemption ..... The Notes will be subject to redemption in whole or in part by the Issuer or the Co-Issuers, as applicable, on Payment Dates during the Replacement Period if the Servicer elects (subject to the Servicing Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional or replacement Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Servicer in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the use of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to purchase additional or replacement Collateral Obligations (a “Special Redemption”). On the first Payment Date following the Due Period for which such notice is effective (a “Special Redemption Date”), the funds in the Collection Account or the Payment Account representing Principal Proceeds that cannot be used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (the “Special Redemption Amount”) will be available to be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments. See “Description of the Securities—Special Redemption of the Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture.”

Additional Issuance of Preference Shares..... At any time during the Replacement Period, the Issuer may issue and sell additional Preference Shares and use the net proceeds to purchase additional Collateral Obligations if the conditions for such additional issuance described under “Description of the Securities—Additional Issuance of Preference Shares” are met. Any amendment to the Indenture, the Preference Share Documents or any other related documents required to provide for or facilitate such additional issuance of Preference Shares will not require the consent of the Holders of Securities.

The Offering..... The Senior Notes are initially being offered (i) in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act (“Regulation S”) to non-U.S. Persons in offshore transactions (“Offshore Transactions”) as such term is defined in Regulation S and (ii) to purchasers that are (I) Qualified Institutional Buyers (as defined in Rule 144A) (each, a “Qualified Institutional Buyer”) (or, solely with respect to the initial offering to certain Holders purchasing Class C Notes and Class D Notes on the Closing Date, to Institutional Accredited Investors) and (II) Qualified Purchasers. Subsequent transferees of the Senior Notes must be (i) non-U.S. Persons that purchase the Senior Notes in Offshore Transactions or (ii)(a) Qualified Institutional Buyers and (b) Qualified Purchasers. The Class E Notes and the Preference Shares are initially offered and may be subsequently transferred only to purchasers that are (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers (or, solely with respect to the initial offering to certain Holders purchasing Class E Notes on the Closing Date, to Institutional Accredited Investors) and (ii) Qualified Purchasers. See “Plan of Distribution” and “Transfer Restrictions.”

Form, Registration and Transfer of the Senior Notes .....

Except as provided herein, the Senior Notes sold in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A to Qualified Institutional Buyers and Qualified Purchasers will be represented by one or more permanent global notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons (each, a “Rule 144A Global Note”) deposited with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of, a nominee of the Depository. The Depository will credit the account of each of its participants with the principal amount of the Senior Notes being purchased by or through the participant. Beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note will be shown on, and transfers thereof will be effected only through, records maintained by the Depository and its direct and indirect participants. See “Description of the Securities—Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Senior Notes.”

Except as provided herein, the Senior Notes sold to non-U.S. Persons in Offshore Transactions in reliance on Regulation S will be represented by one or more permanent global notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons (each, a “Regulation S Global Note,” and, together with the Rule 144A Global Notes, the “Global Notes”) which will be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of, a nominee of the Depository for the respective accounts of the beneficial owners at Euroclear or Clearstream. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may be held only through Euroclear or Clearstream at any time.

Except in the limited circumstances described herein, certificated Senior Notes will not be issued in exchange for beneficial interests in Global Notes. See “Settlement and Clearing.”

Transfers of interests in the Senior Notes are subject to certain restrictions and must be made in accordance with the procedures and requirements set forth in the Indenture. See “Description of the Securities—Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Senior Notes” and “Transfer Restrictions.” Each purchaser of Senior Notes in making its purchase will be required to make, or will be deemed to have made, as the case may be, certain acknowledgments, representations and agreements. See “Transfer Restrictions.”

Form, Registration and Transfers of the Certificated Notes.....

Some of the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes, and all of the Class E Notes, will be issued in the form of one or more certificated Notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons, registered in the name of the owner thereof (the “Certificated Notes”).

Transfers of the Certificated Notes are subject to certain restrictions and must be made in accordance with the procedures and requirements set forth in the Indenture. See “Description of the Securities—Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Certificated Notes” and “Transfer Restrictions.” Each purchaser of Certificated Notes in making its purchase will be required to make certain acknowledgments, representations and agreements. See “Transfer Restrictions” for more details.

Form, Registration and Transfers of the Preference Shares.....

The Preference Shares will be issued in the form of one or more certificated Preference Shares in definitive, fully registered form, registered in the name of the owner thereof (the “Certificated Preference Shares”).

Transfers of the Preference Shares are subject to certain restrictions and must be made in accordance with the procedures and requirements set forth in the Preference Share Documents. See “Description of the Securities—Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Preference Shares” and “Transfer Restrictions.” Each purchaser of Preference Shares in making its purchase will be required to make certain acknowledgments, representations and agreements. See “Transfer Restrictions” for more details.

Ratings.....

It is a condition of the issuance of the Securities that each Class of Notes be rated at least as indicated in the table under “—Principal Terms of the Securities” on the Closing Date.

No rating of the Preference Shares has been sought or obtained in connection with the issuance thereof.

Each of the above ratings assumes that no Maturity Extension occurs after the Closing Date.

A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning Rating Agency. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—Future Ratings of the Notes Are Not Assured and Limited in Scope; the Preference Shares are Not Rated.”

Listing.....

Application will be made for the Senior Notes to be admitted to the Official List of the ISE and trading on its regulated market. There can be no assurance that such admission will be granted or maintained. See “Listing and General Information.” The issuance and settlement of the Senior Notes on the Closing Date will not be conditioned on the listing of the Senior Notes on the ISE. Furthermore, the Co-Issuers will not be required to maintain a listing on a stock exchange in the European Union if compliance with requirements of the European Commission on a member state becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Servicer. In addition, there is currently no market for the Senior Notes and there can be no assurance that a market will develop.

Governing Law .....

The terms and conditions of the Preference Shares (as set forth in the Issuer Charter and the Resolutions) will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the Cayman Islands. The Notes, Indenture, any supplemental indenture, the Servicing Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Securities Account Control Agreement and any Hedge Agreements will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of New York.

Tax Status..... See “Income Tax Considerations.”

Certain ERISA Considerations ..... See “Certain ERISA Considerations” and “Transfer Restrictions.”

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Securities involves certain risks. Prospective investors should carefully consider the following factors, in addition to the matters set forth elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum, prior to investing in any Class of Securities.

Investor Suitability

An investment in the Securities will not be appropriate or suitable for all investors. Structured investment products, like the Securities, are complex instruments, and typically involve a high degree of risk and are intended for sale only to sophisticated investors who are capable of understanding and assuming the risks involved. Any investor purchasing Securities should conduct its own investigation and analysis of an investment in the Securities and consult with its own professional advisors as to the risks involved in making such investment.

General; Priorities of Securities

The Issuer intends to acquire securities and other financial assets with certain risk characteristics as provided in the Indenture and the Servicing Agreement. See “Security for the Notes.” There can be no assurance that the Issuer will be successful in achieving its objectives to ensure that investors receive their initial investments under the Securities and that they receive a return (and avoid any losses, including total losses) on their investment in the Securities. Prospective investors are therefore advised to review this entire Offering Memorandum carefully and should consider, among other things, the following risk factors (along with, among other things, the inherent risks of investment activities) before deciding whether to invest in the Securities.

Except as is otherwise stated below, the risk factors are generally applicable to all the Securities, although the degree of risk associated with each Class of Securities may vary. In particular, the priorities of payment of the Notes are generally in the order of their alphabetic designation from the Class A Notes (the highest priority) to the Class E Notes (the lowest priority), the priorities of payment of the Notes are higher than priorities of payment of the Preference Shares except with respect to the amount, if any, required for payment of Class II Preference Share Special Payments.

Relating to the Securities

Recent Developments in the Financial Markets May Adversely Affect Repayment of Notes

Investors should note that the financial markets have experienced substantial fluctuations in prices for leveraged loans and limited liquidity for such obligations. No assurance can be given that the conditions giving rise to such price fluctuations and limited liquidity will not occur following the Closing Date. During periods of limited liquidity and higher price volatility, the Issuer’s ability to acquire or dispose of Collateral Obligations at a price and time that the Issuer deems advantageous may be impaired. In particular, the Issuer is prohibited from acquiring or disposing of Collateral Obligations for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. As a result, in periods of rising market prices, the Issuer may be unable to participate in price increases fully to the extent that it is unable to acquire desired positions quickly; the Issuer’s inability to dispose fully and promptly of positions in declining markets may exacerbate losses suffered by the Issuer when Collateral Obligations are sold. A decrease in the market value of the Collateral Obligations would also adversely affect the sale proceeds that could be obtained upon the sale of the Collateral Obligations and could ultimately adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to pay in full or redeem the Notes. Such events could cause the ratings on the Notes to be lowered or withdrawn entirely by each Rating Agency if in its judgment the circumstances so warrant. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—Future Ratings of the Notes Are Not Assured and Limited in Scope; the Preference Shares Are Not Rated.”

The Securities Will Have Limited Liquidity

There is currently no market for the Securities. There can be no assurance that a secondary market for any Class of Securities will develop, or if a secondary market does develop, that it will provide the Holders of the applicable Class of Securities with liquidity of investment or that it will continue for the life of such Class of Securities. In addition, each Class of Securities is subject to certain transfer restrictions and can only be transferred to certain transferees as described under "Transfer Restrictions." The restrictions on the transfer of the Securities may further limit their liquidity. The Securities are designed for long-term investors and should not be considered a vehicle for short-term trading purposes. Consequently, an investor in the Securities must be prepared to bear the risk of holding such Securities until their Stated Maturity or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. To the extent that any secondary market exists for the Securities in the future, the price (if any) at which Securities may be sold could be at a discount, which in some cases may be substantial, from the principal amount of the Securities. To the extent any market exists for the Securities in the future, significant delays could occur in the actual sale of Securities. In addition, the Securities will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws, and the Co-Issuers have no plans, and are under no obligation, to register the Securities under the Securities Act. Application will be made for the Senior Notes to be admitted to the Official List of the ISE and trading on its regulated market. There can be no assurance that any such admission will be granted or maintained.

The Subordination of the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares Will Affect Their Right to Payment in Relation to the More Senior Securities

The Class B Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class B Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees and expenses) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class B Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

The Class C Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class C Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees and expenses) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class C Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full, except in connection with the payment of any Class C Deferred Interest.

The Class D Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class D Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees and expenses) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class D Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full, except in connection with the payment of any Class D Deferred Interest.

The Class E Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class E Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees and expenses) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class E Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full, except in connection with the payment of any Class E Deferred Interest and the use of Interest Proceeds to pay principal of the Class E Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class E Coverage Tests.

No payments will be made out of Interest Proceeds on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date (other than, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments), until due and unpaid interest on the Notes (including any Deferred Interest) and certain amounts (including certain amounts due under any Hedge Agreements, certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees and expenses) have been paid on the Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

No payments will be made out of Principal Proceeds on the Preference Shares (other than, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) until principal of each Class of Notes and certain other amounts payable out of Principal Proceeds on each Payment Date have been paid in full. In addition, the Preference Shares will not be redeemed until each Class of Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

In addition, the Co-Issuers will have only nominal equity capitalization in the form of Issuer Ordinary Shares and the Co-Issuer Common Stock. Consequently, to the extent that any losses are suffered by any of the Holders of any Securities, the losses will be borne first by the Holders of the Preference Shares, and then by the Holders of each Class of Notes, sequentially in inverse order of their alphabetic designations.

See “Description of the Securities.”

Interest Will Be Deferred on Deferred Interest Notes if There Are Insufficient Funds under the Priority of Payments for Payment of Interest

So long as any Class A Notes or Class B Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class C Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes as Class C Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on the Payment Date when it originally became due will not be an Event of Default. Class C Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds.

So long as any Class A Notes, Class B Notes or Class C Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class D Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class D Notes as Class D Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on the Payment Date when it originally became due will not be an Event of Default. Class D Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A Notes, Class B Notes and the Class C Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds.

So long as any Class A Notes, Class B Notes, Class C Notes or Class D Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class E Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class E Notes as Class E Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on the Payment Date when it originally became due will not be an Event of Default. Class E Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A Notes, Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds.

Interest Proceeds May Be Retained in Priority to any Payments to Holders of Preference Shares

If the Interest Diversion Test is not met on any Determination Date, a portion of the Interest Proceeds that might otherwise have been paid to the Holders of the Preference Shares on the related Payment Date will instead be used to pay principal on the Notes, in reverse order of priority, as described under clause (xiv) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

The Controlling Class Will Control Many Rights under the Indenture; However, Some Rights of the Controlling Class to Sell the Collateral in Connection with an Event of Default Are Limited

Under the Indenture, many rights of the Holders of the Notes will be controlled by a Majority of the Controlling Class. Remedies pursued by the Holders of the Controlling Class upon an Event of Default could be adverse to the interests of the Holders of Securities subordinated to the Controlling Class. After any realization on the Collateral, proceeds will be allocated in accordance with the Priority of Payments pursuant to which the Notes and certain other amounts owing by the Co-Issuers will be paid in full before any allocation to the Preference Shares (except, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments), and each Class of Notes (along with certain other amounts owing by the Co-Issuers) will be paid sequentially in alphabetic order until it is paid in full before any allocation is made to the next Class of Notes.

The ability of the Controlling Class to direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral is subject to certain limitations. As described under “Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default,” if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee must retain the Collateral intact and collect all payments in respect of the Collateral and continue making payments in accordance with the Priority of Payments and in accordance with the Indenture unless either (A) the Trustee, in consultation with the Servicer, determines (bid prices having been obtained with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one dealer, that dealer), selected and specified by the Servicer to the Trustee in writing, at the time making a market in those securities, and having computed the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security) that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty and all other amounts then payable under clause (E) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Adjusted Proceeds” or (B) with respect to an Event of Default other than as specified in clauses (a), (b) or (d) under “Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default,” the Holders of a Super Majority of each of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes direct, subject to the provisions of the Indenture, the sale and liquidation of the Collateral, and with respect to an Event of Default specified in clauses (a), (b) or (d) under “Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default,” a Majority of the Controlling Class direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral.

Net Proceeds Less Than Aggregate Amount of the Securities

It is anticipated that the proceeds received by the Issuer on the Closing Date from the issuance of the Securities, net of certain fees and expenses, will be less than the aggregate principal amount of the Securities. Consequently, it is anticipated that on the Closing Date the Collateral will be insufficient to repay the full principal amount of the Securities in the event an Event of Default were to occur under the Indenture on or shortly after the Closing Date.

In addition, during the lifetime of the transaction, except as described herein, excess interest will be distributed as dividends to the Holders of the Preference Shares, rather than being used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations. Therefore, it is highly likely that after payments of the Notes and the other amounts payable prior to the Preference Shares under the Priority of Payments, Principal Proceeds will be insufficient to return the initial investment made in the Preference Shares. Therefore, Holders of Preference Shares must rely on distributions of excess interest proceeds to achieve their expected return.

The Issuer is Highly Leveraged, which Increases Risks to Investors

The Issuer will be substantially leveraged. The use of leverage in acquiring assets is a speculative technique which increases the risk to holders of the Securities, particularly holders of the subordinated Securities. In certain scenarios, the Notes may not be paid in full and the Preference Shares may be subject to up to 100% loss of invested capital. The leverage provided to the Issuer by the issuance of the Securities will result in interest expense and other costs incurred in connection with the borrowings that may not be covered by the net interest income, dividends and other cash flow in respect of the Collateral Obligations. The use of leverage generally magnifies the Issuer’s risk of loss, particularly for the more subordinate Classes of Notes and the Preference Shares. The Preference Shares represent the most junior Securities in a highly leveraged capital structure. As a result, any deterioration in performance of the Collateral, including defaults and losses, a reduction of realized yield or other factors, will be borne first by holders of the Preference Shares. In addition, the use of leverage can magnify the effects on the Preference Shares of a deterioration in the performance of the Collateral. In certain circumstances, such as in connection with the exercise of remedies following an Event of Default, the Controlling Class may require the Issuer to dispose of some or all of the Collateral Obligations under unfavorable market conditions, thus causing the Issuer to recognize a loss that might not otherwise have occurred. In certain circumstances, the Controlling Class are entitled to direct the sales of Collateral Obligations and may be expected to do so in their own interest, rather than in the interests of the more subordinate Classes of Securities.

Each of the Co-Issuers Is Recently Formed, Has No Significant Operating History, Has No Material Assets Other than the Collateral and Is Limited in Its Permitted Activities

Each of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer is a recently formed entity and has no significant operating history, other than, with respect to the Issuer, in connection with the acquisition of the Collateral Obligations during the period up to the Ramp-Up Completion Date. Accordingly, neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer has a performance history for prospective investors to consider. The performance of other CDO vehicles serviced or advised by the Servicer should not be relied upon as an indication or prediction of the performance of the Issuer. Such other CDO vehicles may have significantly different characteristics, including structures, composition of the collateral pool, objectives, management personnel and terms when compared to the Issuer and the Co-Issuer. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—Performance History of the Servicer May Not Be Indicative of Future Results.”

Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer will have any material assets other than, with respect to the Issuer, the Collateral. The Indenture provides that the Issuer is not permitted to engage in any business activity other than the issuance of the Notes, the Preference Shares and the Issuer Ordinary Shares, the acquisition and disposition of Collateral Obligations, certain activities conducted in connection with the payment of amounts in respect of the Securities and the servicing of the Collateral, and other activities incidental or related to the foregoing and that the Co-Issuer is not permitted to engage in any business activity other than the co-issuance and sale of the Senior Notes, the issuance of the Co-Issuer Common Stock, and other activities incidental or related to the foregoing. Income derived from the Collateral will be the Issuer’s principal source of cash.

The Securities Are Not Registered Under the Securities Act and the Issuer Is Not Registered under the Investment Company Act

The Issuer has not registered the Securities under the Securities Act and the Issuer is not registered under the Investment Company Act, in each case in reliance upon applicable exemptions to registration under the Securities Act and the Investment Company Act. The Issuer does not expect to register the Securities under the Securities Act nor become registered under the Investment Company Act at any time in the foreseeable future. As such, investors should be aware that the Issuer and the Securities are not subject to many of the regulatory protections and oversight applicable to securities that are registered under the Securities Act or applicable to registered investment companies.

The Notes May Become Subject to Emerging Requirements of the European Union

As part of the harmonization of securities markets in Europe, the European Commission has adopted Directive 2004/109/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 December 2004 and amended Directive 2001/34/EC (collectively known as the Transparency Directive) that, among other things, imposes continuing financial reporting obligations on issuers that have certain types of securities admitted to trading on an E.U. regulated market, including the Irish Stock Exchange. In addition, the Market Abuse Directive harmonizes the rules on insider trading and market manipulation in respect of securities admitted to trading on an E.U. regulated market and requires issuers of such securities to disclose any non-public price-sensitive information as soon as possible, subject to certain limited exemptions. Any listing of the Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange would subject the Co-Issuers to regulation under these directives, although the requirements applicable to the Co-Issuers are not yet fully clarified. If compliance with these directives (or other requirements adopted by the European Commission or a relevant member state) is required and is determined by the Issuer (or the Servicer, acting on behalf of the Issuer), to be overly burdensome or costly, the Issuer could elect not to maintain the listing of the Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange or any other E.U. stock exchange.

The Notes Are Limited Recourse Debt Obligations; Investors Must Rely on Available Collections from the Collateral and Will Have No Other Source for Payment

The Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer and non-recourse obligations of the Co-Issuer and the Class E Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer. The Securities are payable solely from the Collateral pledged by the Issuer to secure the Notes. None of the security holders, members, officers, directors, partners, or incorporators of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer, the Initial Purchaser, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator, the Administrator, the Share Registrar, the Share Trustee, any of their respective affiliates, or any other person will be obligated to make payments on the Notes. The Issuer’s ability to make interest payments and principal repayments on the Notes will be constrained by the terms of the Indenture. Holders of the Notes must rely solely on collections received on the Collateral pledged to secure the Notes and for the payment of interest and principal on the Notes, and there can be no assurance that those collections will be sufficient to pay all amounts due on the Notes. If distributions on the Collateral are insufficient to make payments on the Notes, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and, following liquidation of all of the Collateral, the Co-Issuers will not have any obligation to pay any deficiency, which shall be extinguished and shall not revive.

The Preference Shares are not Secured Obligations; Investors Must Rely on Available Collections from the Collateral and Will Have No Other Source for Payment

The Preference Shares will be part of the issued share capital of the Issuer. The Preference Shares are equity in the Issuer and are not secured by the Collateral Obligations or other Collateral securing the Notes. As such, the Holders of Preference Shares will rank behind all creditors, whether secured or unsecured and known or unknown, of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the Holders of the Notes and any Hedge Counterparties (other than, to the extent described under the “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments,” the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares with respect to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments). Except with respect to the obligations of the Issuer to pay the amounts described under the “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” and “—Principal Proceeds,” the Issuer does not, however, expect to have any creditors though there can be no assurance that this will be the case. In addition, the Issuer is also subject to limitations with respect to the business that it may undertake. See “The Co-Issuers—Business.” Payments in respect of the Preference Shares are subject to certain requirements imposed by Cayman Islands law. Any amounts paid by the Preference Shares Paying Agent as dividends on the Preference Shares will be payable only if the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or balance in the Issuer’s share premium account. In addition, dividends and the final payment upon redemption of the Preference Shares will be payable only to the extent that the Issuer is and will remain solvent after such dividends or redemption payment is paid. Under Cayman Islands law, a company is generally deemed to be solvent if it is able to pay its debts as they come due in the normal course of business.

The Issuer’s obligation to pay dividends or to make other distributions to the Holders of the Preference Shares will therefore not be a secured obligation of the Issuer and such Holders will not be entitled to the benefits of the Indenture, nor will the Trustee have any obligation to act on behalf of the Holders of Preference Shares. With the exception of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments, Holders of the Preference Shares will only be entitled to receive amounts available for payment of dividends or other distributions after payment of all amounts payable on each Class of Notes and certain other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments and only to the extent of distributable profits of the Issuer and/or any balance in the Issuer’s share premium account and (in each case) only to the extent that the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distributions.

To the extent the requirements under Cayman Islands law described in the preceding paragraphs are not met, amounts otherwise payable to the Holders of the Preference Shares (with the exception of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) will be retained in the Preference Shares Distribution Account until, in the case of dividends, the next succeeding Payment Date on which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent such requirements are met and, in the case of any payment on redemption of the Preference Shares, the next succeeding Business Day on which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent such requirements are met. Amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account will not be available to pay amounts due to the Holders of the Notes, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Servicer, any Hedge Counterparty or any other creditor of the Issuer whose claim is limited in recourse to the Collateral. However, amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account may be subject to the claims of creditors of the Issuer that have not contractually limited their recourse to the Collateral. The Indenture and the Preference Share Documents will limit the Issuer’s activities to the issuance and sale of the Securities, the acquisition and disposition of the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments and the other activities related to the issuance and sale of the Securities described under the “The Co-Issuers.” The Issuer therefore does not expect to have any significant full recourse liabilities that would be payable out of amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

The Issuer May Distribute Eligible Equity Securities to the Holders of the Preference Shares in Lieu of Cash

The Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, may direct the Trustee to distribute Eligible Equity Securities, in lieu of a distribution of Interest Proceeds, in whole or in part, to the Holders of the Preference Shares who consent to such distribution with respect to any applicable Payment Date to the extent that the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities, determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date, is equal to or lower than the aggregate amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be distributed to such Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares on the relevant Payment Date. The Market Value of any Eligible Equity Securities is subject to fluctuations and may increase or decrease following any distribution of such Eligible Equity Securities to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares, which, in certain circumstances, may result in the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares receiving overall a higher or lower internal rate of return compared with the internal rate of return received by the Holders of the Preference Shares who have not accepted any distribution of the Eligible Equity Securities.

The Issuer May Not Be Able to Apply Available Funds to Acquire Appropriate Collateral

The amount of Collateral Obligations purchased on the Closing Date, the amount and timing of the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations before the Ramp-Up Completion Date, and the subsequent application of Principal Proceeds, will affect the cash flows available to make payments on, and the return to the Holders of, the Securities. Reduced liquidity and relatively lower volumes of trading in certain Collateral Obligations, in addition to restrictions on acquisition represented by the Eligibility Criteria, could result in periods during which the Issuer is not able to fully utilize its available cash to acquire Collateral Obligations, and it is unlikely that the Issuer's available cash will be fully applied in Collateral Obligations at any time. The longer the period before application of cash or cash-equivalents to acquire Collateral Obligations and the larger the amount of such cash or cash equivalents, the greater the adverse impact may be on aggregate interest collected and distributed by the Issuer, thereby resulting in lower yield than could have been obtained if the net proceeds associated with the offering of the Securities and all Principal Proceeds were immediately and fully applied. The associated risk will be borne first by the Holders of the Preference Shares and second by the Holders of the Notes (beginning with the most subordinated Class of Notes). Although the Servicer may mitigate this risk to some degree during the Replacement Period by declaring a Special Redemption, the Servicer is not required to do so, and any Special Redemption may result in a lower yield on the Issuer's assets than could have been obtained if the net proceeds from the offering of the Securities and all Principal Proceeds were immediately and fully applied and no Special Redemption had taken place.

Generally, Principal Proceeds (together with Interest Proceeds, but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on Collateral Obligations, and Sale Proceeds received on the Collateral Obligations) will be applied during the Replacement Period (and, Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, may be applied on any date after the Replacement Period, at the discretion of the Servicer) to purchase replacement Collateral Obligations or temporarily held in Eligible Investments pending purchase of replacement Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The earnings with respect to replacement Collateral Obligations will depend, among other factors, on interest rates available in the marketplace at the time and on the availability of Collateral Obligations acceptable to the Servicer that satisfy the criteria under "Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria." The need to satisfy the criteria and identify acceptable Collateral Obligations may require the purchase of replacement Collateral Obligations having lower yields than those initially acquired or require that Principal Proceeds be held temporarily in cash or Eligible Investments, which will reduce the yield earned by the Issuer. Further, issuers of Collateral Obligations may be more likely to exercise any rights they may have to redeem them when interest rates or spreads are declining. Any decrease in the yield on the Collateral Obligations will reduce the amounts available to make payments of principal and interest on the Notes and payments on the Preference Shares.

The Issuer expects that, as of the Closing Date, it will have purchased (or entered into commitments to purchase) an Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations to be included in the anticipated portfolio equal to at least 90% of the Maximum Amount as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (which is anticipated to consist of approximately $200,000,000 in Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations purchased and approximately $259,000,000 in Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations committed to be purchased). As such, on the Closing Date, the Issuer is expected to have unapplied proceeds. This will likely reduce the amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be available to distribute to the holders of the Preference Shares, particularly on the first Payment Date. If the Issuer issues additional Preference Shares after the Closing Date, the Issuer would likely have unapplied proceeds of the offering, pending the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations. The extent to which cash balances remain unapplied will be subject to a variety of factors, including future market conditions and is difficult to predict.

Valuation Information

Neither the Issuer nor any other party will be required to provide periodic pricing or valuation information to investors.

Changes in Tax Law Could Result in the Imposition of Withholding Taxes with Respect to Payments on the Securities, and the Issuer Will Not Gross-Up Payments to Holders

Although no withholding tax is currently imposed by the United States or the Cayman Islands on payments on the Securities, there can be no assurance that, as a result of any change in any applicable law, treaty, rule, regulation, or interpretation thereof, the payments with respect to the Securities would not in the future become subject to withholding taxes. If any withholding tax is imposed on payments on any Securities, the Issuer will not “gross up” payments to their Holders.

The Securities Are Subject to Substantial Transfer Restrictions

The Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act, under any U.S. state securities or “Blue Sky” laws, or under the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and are being issued and sold in reliance upon exemptions from registration provided by those laws. No Securities may be sold or transferred unless: the sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act (for example, in reliance on exemptions provided by Rule 144A or Regulation S) and applicable state securities laws; and the sale or transfer does not cause either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral to become subject to the registration requirements of the Investment Company Act. See “Transfer Restrictions” and “Certain ERISA Considerations.”

Non-Compliance with Restrictions on Ownership of the Securities and Acquisition or Disposition of Collateral Obligations under the Investment Company Act Could Adversely Affect the Issuer

Neither of the Co-Issuers has registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) as an investment company pursuant to the Investment Company Act in reliance on an exclusion from the definition of “investment company” under Section 3(c)(7) for companies organized under the laws of a jurisdiction other than the United States or any of its states whose investors residing in the United States are solely “qualified purchasers” (within the meaning given to such term in the Investment Company Act and related SEC regulations).

The Issuer and the Co-Issuer may, at any time following the Closing Date, rely on exclusion from the definition of “investment company” under Rule 3a-7 in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7) upon (a) receipt of an opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm providing that neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer is required to register as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act in reliance on such exclusion under Rule 3a-7 and (b) notice to the Holders of the Securities in accordance with the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. In connection with this alternate reliance, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents may be amended without the consent of any Holders to prevent the Issuer from becoming an “investment company” as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7). See “—The Servicer May Cause the Issuer to Amend the Indenture to Assure Compliance with Rule 3a-7 Without the Consent of the Holders of the Securities in a Manner that May Adversely Affect the Holders of Securities” below.

No opinion or no-action position with respect to the registration of either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral under the Investment Company Act has been requested of, or received from, the SEC. If the SEC or a court of competent jurisdiction were to find that the Issuer or the Co-Issuer is required, but in violation of the Investment Company Act had failed, to register as an investment company, possible consequences include the following: (i) the SEC could apply to a district court to enjoin the violation; (ii) investors in the Issuer or the Co-Issuer could sue the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, and recover any damages caused by the violation; and (iii) any contract to which the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, is party whose performance involves a violation of the Investment Company Act would be unenforceable by any party to the contract unless a court were to find that under the circumstances enforcement would produce a more equitable result than non-enforcement and would not be inconsistent with the purposes of the Investment Company Act.

In addition, the Issuer’s being required to register as an investment company would result in an Event of Default. See “Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default.” Should the Issuer or the Co-Issuer be subjected to any or all of the foregoing, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, would be materially and adversely affected.

Restrictions on Acquisition or Disposition of Collateral Obligations May Reduce the Earnings of the Holders of the Securities

Rule 3a-7 imposes limitations on the ability of the Issuer to purchase or sell assets, including prohibiting the Issuer from purchasing or selling assets for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. The Indenture will restrict the Issuer from purchasing and selling assets consistent with such requirements of Rule 3a-7. Under these restrictions the Issuer may be required to hold a Collateral Obligation or precluded from acquiring a Collateral Obligation when it would have sold such Collateral Obligation or acquired such Collateral Obligation, as applicable, had it based such determination on the market value changes in the value of such Collateral Obligations. As a result, greater losses on the Collateral may be sustained and there may be insufficient proceeds on any Payment Date to pay in full any expenses of the Issuer or any amounts payable to the Trustee or the Administrator (all of which amounts are payable prior to payments in respect of the Notes) and the payments due on the Securities. See “Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations.”

The Servicer May Cause the Issuer to Amend the Indenture to Assure Compliance with Rule 3a-7 Without the Consent of the Holders of the Securities in a Manner That May Adversely Affect the Holders of Securities

On the Closing Date, the Approved Class II Preference Shareholders will purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares. The Servicer will act as the manager for HFP. HFP may need to rely on an exception from the definition of “investment company” and the requirement to register under the Investment Company Act that in turn depends upon the Issuer not being an investment company required to register under the Investment Company Act by reason of Rule 3a-7 thereunder in lieu of the Issuer’s reliance on Section 3(c)(7). It is expected that, in connection with certain capital raising activities of HFP, the SEC may consider the applicability of Rule 3a-7 to the Issuer. If it were determined that the Issuer cannot rely on Rule 3a-7, the Servicer may cause the Issuer to amend the Indenture without the consent of the Holders of the Notes and without the consent of the Holders of the Preference Shares to enable the Issuer to rely on Rule 3a-7 or to better assure compliance therewith, which could require additional limitations and prohibitions on the circumstances under which the Issuer may sell assets, on the type of assets that the Issuer may acquire out of the proceeds of assets that mature, are refinanced or otherwise sold, on the period during which such transactions may occur, on the level of transactions that may occur or on other provisions of the Indenture and could adversely affect the earnings of the Issuer and its ability to make payments on the Notes and distributions to the Preference Shares. As a condition to the effectiveness of any such amendment to the Indenture, the Issuer, the Trustee and the Servicer will receive (i) a Rating Confirmation with respect to such amendment and (ii) a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such amendment and assuming compliance with the Indenture as so amended, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act in reliance on such exemption under Rule 3a-7. Such nationally recognized law firm may also be acting as counsel to the Servicer, certain Holders of Notes and/or Preference Shares. The interests of any such parties may not align with the interest of other Holders of Notes and/or Preference Shares. See “Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Supplemental Indenture.”

The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary

The Stated Maturity of the Notes is November 1, 2018 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date. The weighted average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years until their Stated Maturity. See “Description of the Securities.” The weighted average life of a Class of Notes will be affected by the amount and timing of payments of principal of the Notes and the amount and timing of payments received on the Collateral Obligations. The amount and timing of payments of principal on the Notes will be affected by, among other things, any Optional Redemption of the Notes, any Refinancing of the Notes, a failure of any Coverage Test, a Rating Confirmation Failure, any failure by the Servicer to apply the proceeds of the offering of the Securities in Collateral Obligations, a redemption of the Securities made in connection with a Tax Event, any Special Redemption of one or more Classes of Notes, and an Event of Default by the Issuer in the payment of the Notes and an acceleration of the principal of the Notes in connection with an Event of Default. The occurrence of any of the foregoing unscheduled principal repayments of the Notes is, in turn, determined by the amount and timing of payments on the Collateral, which will be dependent on, among other things, the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral and the characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, including the existence and frequency of exercise of any prepayment, optional redemption, or sinking fund features, the prevailing level of interest rates, the redemption price, the actual default rate and the actual level of recoveries on any Defaulted Collateral Obligations, the frequency of tender or exchange offers for the Collateral Obligations and any sales of Collateral Obligations, dividends or other distributions received on any obligations that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange do not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation, as well as the risks unique to Collateral Obligations of foreign issuers. A shortening of the average life of the Notes may adversely affect returns on the Preference Shares. See “Security for the Notes.”

The Collateral Obligations actually acquired by the Issuer may be different from those expected to be purchased by the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, due to market conditions, availability of such Collateral Obligations and other factors. The actual portfolio of Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer will change from time to time as a result of sales and purchases of Collateral Obligations.

A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected

Under the Indenture, the Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, shall be entitled, on each Extension Effective Date, to extend the Replacement Period (a maximum of four times) to the applicable Extended Replacement Period End Date if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Replacement Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. Under the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents, if the Replacement Period is so extended, the Stated Maturity of the Notes (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date) will be equally extended and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended without the requirement for any approval or consent of any Holders of Securities. Holders of Securities will not be able to prevent or prohibit the extension of the Stated Maturity of the Notes (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date) so long as the Extension Conditions are satisfied, which include the ability of Holders of Securities to sell their Securities at the designated purchase price to a designated purchaser under the Indenture. However, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Indenture provides that Holders of Preference Shares that have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12% as of the Extension Effective Date will not receive any payment in exchange for their Preference Shares sold in connection with a Maturity Extension.

As a consequence, if the Servicer elects to extend the Replacement Period and the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Holders of the Securities must either hold their Securities for a significantly longer period of time than initially expected or sell their Securities at the applicable purchase price under the Indenture.

An Amendment Buy-Out May Result in a Shorter Holding Period Than Expected

Any Non-Consenting Holder of Securities with respect to an amendment of the Indenture (which includes Holders that fail to respond to a consent solicitation within the applicable period) may be forced to sell its applicable Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Securities. However, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Indenture provides that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price will be zero for Non-Consenting Holders that have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12% as of the date of an Amendment Buy-Out. See “Description of the Securities—Amendment Buy-Out.” Given these features, a Holder’s ability to affect or influence the amendment process through voting against such amendment may be limited, while the Servicer’s ability to affect or influence the amendment process may be enhanced.

The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests

If any of the Coverage Tests are not satisfied on any Determination Date on which the Notes of the relevant Class are Outstanding, Interest Proceeds available on the related Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments (and, to the extent Interest Proceeds are insufficient, Principal Proceeds available on the Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments) are required to be applied to pay principal of the relevant Class of Notes (and any Classes senior to it) to the extent necessary for the relevant Coverage Test to be satisfied. The application of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds to pay principal of the Notes to the extent necessary to restore the Coverage Tests to certain minimum required levels could result in an elimination, deferral or reduction in the amounts available to make distributions on the Preference Shares and interest and principal payments on one or more classes of Notes, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of the Securities.

The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure

If a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, Interest Proceeds and, if Interest Proceeds are insufficient, Principal Proceeds, are required to be diverted in accordance with the Priority of Payments and used to pay the principal of the Notes sequentially in order of their relative priority on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date after that until each rating is reinstated. The application of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds to pay principal of the Notes to the extent necessary for one or more ratings to be reinstated could result in an elimination, deferral, or reduction in one or more payments or distributions on one or more Classes of Securities, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of those Classes of Securities.

The Indenture Permits Special Redemption of Notes Based on the Servicer's Inability to Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations

The Servicer is permitted under the Indenture to elect to have all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations applied to a Special Redemption of the Notes, in whole or in part, on one or more Payment Dates during the Replacement Period because it has been unable, for a period of at least 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional or replacement Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Servicer in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the application of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be used to purchase additional or replacement Collateral Obligations. On the Special Redemption Date, in accordance with the Indenture, the Special Redemption Amount will be applied in accordance with "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds," to the extent available (which includes for this purpose unapplied proceeds specified by the Servicer), to pay the principal of the Notes. The application of funds in that manner could result in an elimination, deferral, or reduction of amounts available to make payments on Securities subordinate in priority to the Securities being amortized. See "Description of the Securities—Special Redemption of Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture."

The Notes Are Subject to Optional Redemption

Subject to satisfaction of certain conditions, on any Payment Date upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the applicable Required Redemption Percentage may require that the Notes be redeemed as described under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption." In the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Servicer may be required to aggregate Collateral Obligations to be sold together in one block transaction, thereby possibly resulting in a lower realized value for the Collateral Obligations sold. There can be no assurance that the market value of the Collateral will be sufficient for the applicable Required Redemption Percentage to direct an Optional Redemption of the Notes. A decrease in the market value of the Collateral would adversely affect the Sale Proceeds from their sale. Consequently, the conditions precedent to the exercise of an Optional Redemption may not be met. Moreover, the Holders of the Notes may not be able to invest the proceeds of the redemption of the Notes in investments providing a return equal to or greater than the return the Holders of the Notes expected to obtain from their investment in the Notes.

The Notes are Subject to Redemption by Refinancing

The Indenture provides that any Class of the Notes may be redeemed in whole, but not in part, on any Payment Date after the Non-Call Period from Refinancing Proceeds subject to the satisfaction of certain requirements. See "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Redemption by Refinancing." Accordingly, a more junior Class of Notes may be redeemed from Refinancing Proceeds in whole even if a more senior Class of Notes remains outstanding. Holders of Notes that are refinanced (or otherwise optionally redeemed) may not be able to reinvest the proceeds of such Notes in assets with comparable interest rates or maturity. An optional redemption from Refinancing Proceeds may also result in a shorter investment than a Holder of Notes may have anticipated.

Future Ratings of the Notes Are Not Assured and Limited in Scope; the Preference Shares Are Not Rated

It is a condition to the issuance of the Notes that they be rated as provided under “Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities.” A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and is subject to revision or withdrawal at any time. There is no assurance that a rating will remain for any given period or that a rating will not be lowered or withdrawn entirely by each Rating Agency if in its judgment circumstances in the future so warrant. Any such action could have an adverse effect on the Holders of the relevant Class of Securities. If a rating initially assigned to a Class of Notes is subsequently lowered for any reason, no person is obligated to provide any additional credit support or credit enhancement. The ratings of the Notes are based on the assumption that no Maturity Extension occurs at any time.

No rating of the Preference Shares will be sought or obtained in connection with their issuance.

Tax Considerations; No Gross-Up

A Collateral Obligation will be eligible for purchase by the Issuer if, at the time it is purchased (or committed for purchase), either the payments thereon are not subject to withholding taxes (except for withholding taxes with respect to commitment fees and other similar fees (including, without limitation, certain payments on obligations or securities that include a participation in or that support a letter of credit) associated with Collateral Obligations constituting Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans and fees from a borrower under a synthetic letter of credit) imposed by any jurisdiction or the obligor is required to make “gross-up” payments that fully compensate for such withholding taxes. There can be no assurance that, as a result of any change in any applicable law, treaty, rule or regulation or interpretation thereof, the payments on certain Collateral Obligations would not become or be treated as subject to withholding taxes imposed by any jurisdiction. In addition, the IRS and the United States Department of Treasury (the “Treasury”) have requested comments on the appropriate treatment of credit default swaps, which often are included as Synthetic Securities, and possible alternative treatments could result in withholding taxes on payments received by the Issuer. In that event, if the obligors of such Collateral Obligations were not then required to make or in fact failed to make “gross-up” payments that fully compensate for such withholding taxes, the amounts available to make payments on, or distributions to, the holders of the Notes would accordingly be reduced. There can be no assurance that remaining payments on the Collateral would be sufficient to make timely payments of interest on and payment of principal at the Stated Maturity of each Class of Notes and, consequently, to make distributions to the holders of the Preference Shares. For additional tax considerations, see “Income Tax Considerations”.

In the event that any withholding tax is imposed on payments on the Notes, the holders of such Notes will not be entitled to receive “gross-up” amounts to compensate for such withholding tax. In addition, upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, the Issuer may on any Payment Date, whether during or after the Non-Call Period, simultaneously redeem in whole but not in part, at redemption prices specified herein, the Notes in accordance with the procedures described under “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Optional Redemption Procedures” below.

Additional Tax. The Issuer expects to conduct its affairs so that its net income will not become subject to U.S. federal income tax. There can be no assurance, however, that its net income will not become subject to United States federal income tax as the result of unanticipated activities by the Issuer, changes in law, contrary conclusions by the U.S. tax authorities or other causes. Investors should note that the Treasury and the IRS recently announced that they are considering taxpayer requests for specific guidance on, among other things, whether a foreign person may be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States by virtue of entering into credit default swaps. However, the Treasury and the IRS have not yet provided any guidance on whether they believe entering into credit default swaps may cause a foreign person to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States and if so, what facts and circumstances must be present for this conclusion to apply. Any future guidance issued by the Treasury and/or the IRS may have an adverse impact on the tax treatment of the Issuer. See discussion under the heading “Income Tax Considerations—Tax Treatment of the Issuer” below.

Tax Treatment of Holders of Equity. The Issuer will be a passive foreign investment company and may also be a controlled foreign corporation. As a result, United States holders of Preference Shares or any class of Notes treated as equity for United States federal income tax purposes could be required to recognize income for tax purposes in excess of cash actually distributable to them (“phantom income”) in a variety of circumstances and could be subject to certain other potentially adverse consequences. Each holder should consult its own tax advisor before investing.

Certain ERISA Considerations

If the ownership of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares (or of any other class of equity interest of the Issuer, such as another class of Notes which may be characterized as equity) (the “ERISA Equity Notes”) by Benefit Plan Investors were to equal or exceed 25% of the value of the class of equity (as determined under Section 3(42) of ERISA and the Plan Asset Regulation issued by the United States Department of Labor at 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101), resulting in the assets of the Issuer being deemed to be “plan assets,” certain transactions that the Issuer might enter into, or may have entered into, in the ordinary course of business might constitute non-exempt prohibited transactions under ERISA and/or Section 4975 of the Code and might have to be rescinded, at significant cost to the Issuer. Additionally, the Issuer or one or more “parties in interest” (as defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA) or “disqualified persons” (as defined in Section 4975(e)(2) of the Code) may be subject to other penalties or excise taxes with respect to such transaction. The term “Benefit Plan Investor” includes (a) an employee benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) that is subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA, (b) a plan as defined in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code that is subject to Section 4975 of the Code, (c) any entity whose underlying assets include “plan assets” by reason of any such employee benefit plan’s or plan’s investment in the entity or (d) as such term is otherwise modified from time to time.

The Issuer intends, through the use of written representations, to restrict ownership of the ERISA Equity Notes so that no assets of the Issuer will be deemed to be “plan assets” subject to ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code as such term is defined in the Plan Asset Regulation. Although the Issuer intends to restrict the acquisition of each class of ERISA Equity Notes, there can be no assurance that ownership of the ERISA Equity Notes by Benefit Plan Investors will always remain below the 25% Limitation established under the Plan Asset Regulation. See “Certain ERISA Considerations” herein.

Relating to the Servicing Agreement

The Servicing Agreement May Be Amended Without the Consent of Holders of Securities Whether or Not Such Amendment Adversely Affects Holders of Securities

The Issuer may, at the request of the Servicer, enter into an amendment or modification of the Servicing Agreement from time to time, without the consent of the Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not the interests of the Holders of the Securities are adversely affected thereby; provided that, with respect to any such amendment or modification, (a) the Rating Condition is satisfied and (b) a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares have not objected in writing to such amendment or modification by delivering a notice to the Trustee prior to the relevant Objection Cut-Off Date. Holders of the Securities other than Holders of the Controlling Class of Notes and Holders of the Preference Shares will have no ability to vote against any such amendment or modification. The ability of the Holders of the Controlling Class of Notes and Holders of the Preference Shares to influence the amendment process is limited to the right of a Majority of either such Class to object as described above. To the extent that less than a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares object to the proposed amendment or modification, the Servicer may request that the Issuer enter into such amendment or modification and the Trustee consent thereto, without regard to the fact that certain Holders of the Securities may have objected to such proposed amendment or modification.

Relating to the Servicer

The Issuer Will Depend on the Expertise Available to the Servicer and its Key Personnel

The performance of the Issuer’s portfolio of Collateral Obligations depends heavily on the skills of the Servicer in analyzing, selecting and monitoring the Collateral Obligations. As a result, the Issuer will be highly dependent on the financial and servicing experience of certain professionals associated with the Servicer, none of whom is under a contractual obligation to the Issuer to continue to be associated with the Servicer for the term of this transaction. The loss of one or more of these individuals could have a material adverse effect on the performance of the Co-Issuers. Furthermore, the Servicer has informed the Issuer that these professionals are also actively involved in other activities and will not be able to devote all of their time to the Issuer’s business and affairs. In addition, individuals not currently associated with the Servicer may become associated with the Servicer and the cash-flow performance of the Collateral Obligations may also depend on the financial and servicing experience of such individuals. See “The Servicing Agreement” and “The Servicer.”

The Issuer Will Have Limited Control of the Administration and Amendment of Collateral Obligations

The Servicer will cause the Issuer to exercise or enforce, or refrain from exercising or enforcing, its rights in connection with the Collateral Obligations or any related documents or will refuse amendments or waivers of the terms of any Collateral Obligation and related documents in accordance with its ordinary business practices as if the Servicer were administering the Collateral Obligations for its own account. The authority of the Servicer to cause the Issuer to change the terms of the Collateral Obligations will generally not be restricted by the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement. As a result, the Issuer will be relying on the Servicer’s customary standards, policies and procedures with respect to the servicing of the Collateral Obligations. The Holders of the Securities and the Issuer will not have any right to compel the Issuer or the Servicer to take or refrain from taking any actions other than in accordance with its ordinary business practices.

In addition, when the Issuer holds a Participation, the Issuer generally will have no right to enforce compliance by the borrower with the loan or credit agreement or other instrument evidencing the related loan obligation, no rights of set-off against the borrower, no direct interest in the collateral supporting the loan obligation, and no right to vote with respect to amendments of, or waivers of defaults under, the loan obligation. An acquisition by the Issuer of a Synthetic Security related to a Loan involves many of the same considerations relevant to Participations. See “—Relating to the Collateral Obligations—Loans Involve Particular Risks” and “—Synthetic Securities Involve Particular Risks” below.

A modification that would increase the commitment of a lender, reduce the interest rate, or postpone the final maturity of an obligation under a participation agreement, or release all of the collateral for an obligation, generally requires the affirmative vote of the Participating Institution for a loan in which the Issuer owns a Participation, or of the Issuer for a Loan purchased by assignment, for the increase, reduction, or postponement to be binding. The exercise of remedies may also be subject to the vote of a specified percentage of the lenders under the loan obligation. The Servicer will have the authority to cause the Issuer to consent to certain amendments, waivers, or modifications to the Collateral Obligations requested by obligors or the lead agents for participation agreements relating to Participations (subject to operating procedures intended to reduce the risk that the Issuer would be deemed to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States for United States federal income tax purposes). The Servicer may, subject to the transaction documents, cause the Issuer to extend or defer the maturity, adjust the outstanding balance of any Collateral Obligation, reduce or forgive interest or fees, release material collateral or guarantees, or otherwise amend, modify, or waive the terms of any related loan agreement, including its payment terms. The Servicer will make determinations in accordance with its servicing standards under the Servicing Agreement. Any amendment, waiver, or modification of a Collateral Obligation could postpone the expected maturity of the Notes or the expected redemption date of the Preference Shares, or reduce the likelihood of timely and complete payment of interest or principal under the Notes or a full return of an investment in the Preference Shares.

Performance History of the Servicer May Not Be Indicative of Future Results

Any prior results of the Servicer, and the persons associated with it or any other entity may not be indicative of the Issuer’s future results. The nature of, and risks associated with, the Issuer’s future assets may differ substantially from those assets historically associated with the Servicer, and the persons associated with it or any other entity. There can be no assurance that the Issuer’s assets will perform as well as the past assets serviced or managed by the Servicer, and the persons associated with it or any other entity. Moreover, since the criteria that govern the acquisition of the Collateral Obligations do not govern the Servicer’s activities generally, the acquisition and disposition of Collateral Obligations conducted in accordance with the criteria contained in the Indenture, and the results they yield, may differ substantially from other assets serviced or managed by the Servicer.

Other accounts, collateralized debt obligations or other funds managed or serviced by the Servicer that are similar to the Issuer (“Other Debt Funds”) have been structured to comply with the exemption from registration under the Investment Company Act provided by Section 3(c)(7) thereunder, whereas the Issuer is also structured to comply with the exemption from registration provided by Rule 3a-7 under the Investment Company Act and may in the future, subject to the conditions described herein, rely exclusively on such exemption from registration provided by Rule 3a-7. Rule 3a-7 requires certain additional limitations and restrictions on the buying and selling of assets of the Issuer that are not applicable to the assets of the Other Debt Funds relying on the Section 3(c)(7) exemption from registration. As a result, the Issuer's ability to react to changes in market value of the assets is more limited and the returns on the Issuer's assets and the Securities, including the returns on the Preference Shares, may not be comparable to, and may differ materially from, the performance of the Other Debt Funds.

Notwithstanding the inapplicability of the results obtained and expected to be obtained from the past activities of the Servicer, a period of increased volatility in market conditions, including interest rate environments, can have an adverse effect on the realized and unrealized returns to investors in the past products of the Servicer. There can be no assurance that current economic conditions and the effects of increased interest rate and corresponding price volatility will not adversely impact the investment returns ultimately realized by investors or continued compliance with, among other things, applicable coverage requirements described in this Offering Memorandum.

Relating to the Collateral Obligations

In General, the Collateral Obligations Are Subject to Various Risks

The Collateral Obligations are subject to credit, liquidity, and interest rate risks, among others. The Eligibility Criteria and the Collateral Quality Tests have been established to address certain assumed deficiencies in payment occasioned by defaults with respect to the Collateral Obligations. If any deficiencies exceed certain modeled scenarios, however, payments or distributions on the Securities could be adversely affected. To the extent that a default occurs with respect to any Collateral Obligation securing the Notes and the Issuer (on the advice of the Servicer) sells or otherwise disposes of the Collateral Obligation, it is not likely that the proceeds of the sale or other disposition will be equal to the amount of principal and interest owing to the Issuer on the Collateral Obligation.

The value of the Collateral Obligations generally will fluctuate with, among other things, the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral Obligations and, with respect to Synthetic Securities, both the financial condition of the related Synthetic Security counterparties and the obligors on or issuers of the Reference Obligations, general economic conditions, the condition of certain financial markets, political events, developments or trends in any particular industry, and changes in prevailing interest rates. Credit markets have recently experienced sharp volatility due to various factors, including increased defaults on sub-prime mortgages and related securities. Such volatility has been accompanied by increased interest rates, a tightening of liquidity and declines in prices and valuations on various classes of assets, not all of which are exposed to the sub-prime mortgage market.

The ability of the Issuer to sell Collateral Obligations before their maturity is subject to certain restrictions under the Indenture including those described under "Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations."

Below Investment-Grade Obligations Involve Particular Risks

A substantial amount of the Collateral Obligations will consist of loans, bonds and other obligations that are below investment grade, including high-yield loans and securities. Those Collateral Obligations will have greater credit and liquidity risk than investment-grade obligations. They are also often unsecured and may be subordinated to certain other obligations of their issuer. The lower rating of those Collateral Obligations reflects a greater possibility that adverse changes in the financial condition of an issuer or in general economic conditions or both may impair the ability of their issuer to make payments of principal or interest. These Collateral Obligations may be speculative.

Risks of below investment-grade Collateral Obligations may include (among others):

- (i) limited liquidity and secondary market support;
- (ii) in the case of fixed-rate high-yield debt securities, substantial market place volatility resulting from changes in prevailing interest rates;
- (iii) subordination to the prior claims of senior lenders and creditors;

- (iv) the operation of mandatory sinking fund or call and redemption provisions during periods of declining interest rates that could cause the Issuer to apply premature redemption proceeds in lower-yielding debt obligations;
- (v) the possibility that earnings of the below investment-grade issuer may be insufficient to meet its debt service; and
- (vi) the declining creditworthiness and potential for insolvency of a below investment-grade issuer during periods of rising interest rates and economic downturn.

An economic downturn or an increase in interest rates could severely disrupt the market for below investment-grade obligations and could adversely affect the value of outstanding below investment-grade obligations and the ability of their issuers to repay principal and interest.

Issuers that are below investment grade may be highly leveraged and may not have available to them more traditional methods of financing. The risk associated with obligations of below investment-grade issuers is generally greater than is the case with investment-grade issuers. For example, during an economic downturn or a sustained period of rising interest rates, below investment-grade issuers may be more likely to experience financial stress, especially if they are highly leveraged. During those periods, timely service of debt obligations may also be adversely affected by specific issuer developments, or the issuer's inability to meet specific projected business forecasts or the unavailability of additional financing. The risk of loss from default by the issuer is significantly greater for the holders of below investment-grade obligations because those obligations may be unsecured and may be subordinated to obligations owed to other creditors of the issuer. Further, bankruptcy and similar laws applicable to issuers of the Collateral Obligations may limit the amount of any recovery in respect of a Collateral Obligation if its issuer is insolvent and may also adversely affect the timing of receipt of any recovery to which the Issuer may be entitled. In addition, the Issuer may incur additional expenses to the extent it is required to seek recovery upon a default on such an obligation or participate in its restructuring.

As a result of the limited liquidity of below investment-grade obligations, their prices have at times experienced significant and rapid decline when a substantial number of holders decided to sell. In addition, it may be difficult or impossible for the Issuer to dispose of certain below investment-grade obligations in a timely manner because there may be a thin trading market for them. Even if it is possible to dispose of such Collateral Obligations, it is unlikely that the proceeds of such disposition would equal the unpaid principal and interest thereof. To the extent that a secondary trading market for below investment-grade obligations does exist, it is generally not as liquid as the secondary market for highly rated obligations. Reduced secondary market liquidity may have an adverse impact on the Issuer's ability to dispose of particular Collateral Obligations in response to a specific economic event, such as a deterioration in the creditworthiness of the issuer of the Collateral Obligation.

All risks associated with the Issuer's purchase of such Collateral Obligations will be borne by the holders of the Securities in reverse order of seniority, beginning with the Preference Shares as the most junior Class.

Limitations of Portfolio Diversification

The Indenture will require that certain levels of diversification are maintained or improved in connection with purchases of Collateral Obligations. The Collateral Obligations are expected to consist primarily of below investment grade debt obligations. To the extent that below investment grade debt obligations as an asset class generally underperform or experience increased levels of credit losses or market volatility, the Collateral Obligations will likely experience credit losses and losses in connection with sales even with significant issuer and industry diversification. In addition, given the leveraged capital structure of the Issuer, any losses resulting from defaults and/or trading losses will be borne first by the Preference Shares, as the most junior Class. Because the value of the obligations of any single issuer or industry sector will represent a higher percentage of the issuance price, as the case may be, of the Preference Shares (or any other junior Class) than it represents in relation to the aggregate principal amount of the total portfolio, there can be no assurance that the diversification guidelines of the Indenture will be effective in minimizing losses on the junior Classes of Securities, particularly the Preference Shares.

Loans Involve Particular Risks

The Collateral Obligations will consist primarily of Dollar-denominated senior secured and senior unsecured loans, which are required by the Indenture to be obligations of corporations, partnerships, or other entities organized under the laws of the United States (or any of its states) or of foreign obligors meeting specified criteria, or Synthetic Securities the Reference Obligations of which are such loans. See “Security for the Notes—Collateral Obligations.”

Loans may become non-performing for a variety of reasons. Non-performing loans may require substantial workout negotiations or restructuring that may entail, among other things, a substantial reduction in the interest rate or a substantial write-down of the principal of a loan. In addition, because of the unique and customized nature of a loan agreement and the private syndication of a loan, loans typically may not be purchased or sold as easily as publicly traded securities, and historically the trading volume in the bank term loan market has been small relative to the corporate bond market. Loans may encounter trading delays due to their unique and customized nature, and transfers may require the consent of an agent bank or borrower. Consequently, there can be no assurance that there will be any market for any Loan if the Issuer is required to sell or otherwise dispose of such Loan. Depending on the terms of the underlying loan documentation, consent of the borrower may be required for an assignment, and a purported assignee may not have any direct right to enforce compliance by the obligor with the terms of the loan agreement in the absence of this consent.

The Issuer may acquire interests in loans either directly (by assignment) or indirectly (by Participation or through Synthetic Securities). The Issuer may not originate any loans. The purchaser of an assignment of a loan obligation typically succeeds to all the rights and obligations of the Participating Institution and becomes a lender under the loan or credit agreement with respect to the debt obligation. In contrast, a Participation acquired by the Issuer in a portion of a loan obligation held by a Participating Institution or a security or other debt obligation typically results in a contractual relationship only with the Participating Institution, not with the borrower. The Issuer would have the right to receive payments of principal, interest, and any fees to which it is entitled under a Participation only from the Participating Institution and only upon receipt by the Participating Institution of those payments from the borrower. Participating Institutions commonly reserve the right to administer the Participations sold by them as they see fit (unless their actions constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct) and to amend the documentation evidencing the obligations in all respects. However, most participation agreements provide that the Participating Institutions may not vote in favor of any amendment, modification or waiver that forgives principal, interest or fees, reduces principal, interest or fees that are payable, postpones any payment of principal (whether a scheduled payment or a mandatory prepayment), interest or fees or releases any material guarantee or security without the consent of the participant (at least to the extent the participant would be affected by any such amendment, modification or waiver). Participating Institutions voting in connection with a potential waiver of a restrictive covenant may have interests different from those of the Issuer, and such Participating Institutions might not consider the interests of the Issuer in connection with their votes. In addition, many participation agreements that provide voting rights to the holder of the Participation further provide that if the holder does not vote in favor of amendments, modifications or waivers, the selling lender may repurchase such Participation at par. The Issuer will be subject to restrictions on the amount of Participations that may be acquired for inclusion in the Collateral. See “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria.”

Holders of Participations are subject to additional risks not applicable to a holder of a direct interest in a loan. In the event of the insolvency of the Participating Institution, under the laws of the United States and the various States thereof, a holder of a Participation may be treated as a general creditor of the Participating Institution and may not have any exclusive or senior claim with respect to the Participating Institution’s interest in, or the collateral with respect to, the loan. Consequently, the holder of a Participation will be subject to the credit risk of the Participating Institution as well as of the borrower. Participants also often do not benefit from the collateral (if any) supporting the loans in which they have a participation interest because Participations often do not provide a purchaser with direct rights to enforce compliance by the borrower with the terms of the loan agreement or any rights of set-off against the borrower. The Servicer is not required, and does not expect, to perform independent credit analyses of the Participating Institutions.

Certain of the loans in the Issuer’s portfolio may be unsecured or secured by collateral worth less than the outstanding balance of the loan. In addition to the general risks associated with loans described above, unsecured loans will not be secured by substantial collateral or any collateral and secured loans may be substantially under-secured. Without collateral and with materially inadequate collateral, the ability of the holder of the loan to recover amounts due from the borrower may be substantially limited.

Subordinated Lien Loans and Second Lien Loans Contain Terms That May Expose Noteholders to Risk of Losses on such Loans.

Some of the loans will be subject to subordination agreements with senior lenders, pursuant to which the Issuer's right to payment will be subordinated to the senior lender's right to payment, the Issuer's interest in any specified collateral securing the obligor's obligations under the loan will be subordinated to liens held by the senior lender (certain subordinated loans will be unsecured) and the ability of the Issuer to exercise remedies after a loan becomes a Defaulted Collateral Obligation will be subject to various standstill provisions. In addition, certain of the loans may contain provisions requiring the liens securing the Issuer's interests in the Collateral to be released in certain circumstances. Under such subordination agreements, the Issuer generally may not receive payments of principal on a loan until the applicable senior loan is paid in full and generally may receive payments of interest only if there is no default under the senior loan. Additionally, if a loan becomes a Defaulted Collateral Obligation, the Issuer generally would be prohibited from taking any action to enforce its rights with regard to the loan, including the foreclosure of any specified collateral securing the obligor's obligations under the loan, for a period of time, typically 180 days. In certain cases, the Issuer would be prohibited from taking any action to foreclose upon such collateral until the senior loan is paid in full. Moreover, any amounts that would be realized upon foreclosure of any of such collateral or other collection efforts or in connection with a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding involving an obligor generally will be required to be turned over to the senior lender until the senior lender has realized the full value of its claims. Such restrictions may materially and adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to realize value from a Defaulted Collateral Obligation.

A portion of the loans will consist of Second Lien Loans. Second Lien Loans contain provisions that subordinate the payment obligations of the obligor and the liens on the specified collateral securing the obligor's obligations under the loan on the Issuer's portion of such loans to the portion of such loans or the liens, as the case may be, held by the other lenders party to such loans upon the occurrence of a payment default under the related loan documents or in the case of any liquidation or foreclosure on the related underlying collateral. In any of the foregoing circumstances, the Issuer would receive payments on such Second Lien Loan only after the other lenders to the related obligor that are ranked senior to such Second Lien Loan are paid in full. Such subordinated payment provisions may materially and adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to realize value from a Second Lien Loan.

Risks Associated with Applying Proceeds of Dispositions

The Issuer's income will decline if and when the Issuer applies the proceeds from matured, prepaid, sold or called Collateral Obligations into lower yielding instruments. A decline in income will affect the amount available for distributions on the Securities. Subject to criteria described herein, the Servicer will have discretion to use Principal Proceeds to purchase Collateral Obligations in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria and other requirements for the acquisition of Collateral Obligations described herein. The yield with respect to such Collateral Obligations will depend on, among other factors, interest rates available at the time, the availability of assets satisfying the Eligibility Criteria and acceptable to the Servicer, and market conditions related to leveraged Loans and high yield bonds in general. The need to satisfy the Eligibility Criteria and other requirements for the acquisition of Collateral Obligations described herein and identify acceptable assets may require the purchase of Collateral Obligations with a lower yield than those replaced, with different characteristics than those replaced (including, but not limited to, coupon, spread, maturity, call features and/or credit quality) or require that such funds be maintained in Eligible Investments pending such replacement of Collateral Obligations, which will further reduce the yield on the Collateral Obligations. Any decrease in the yield on the Collateral Obligations will have the effect of reducing the amounts available to make distributions on the Securities, especially the most junior Class of Securities. There can be no assurance that in the event Collateral Obligations are sold, prepaid, called, or mature, yields on Collateral Obligations that are available and eligible for purchase will be at the same levels as those replaced, that the characteristics of any Collateral Obligations purchased will be the same as those replaced or as to the timing of the purchase of any such Collateral Obligations.

Leveraged Loans and privately placed high yield bonds are not as easily (or as quickly) purchased or sold as publicly traded securities for a variety of reasons, including confidentiality requirements with respect to obligor information, the customized non-uniform nature of loan agreements and private syndication. The reduced liquidity and lower volume of trading in such debt obligations, in addition to restrictions on purchase represented by the Eligibility Criteria, could result in periods of time during which the Issuer is not able to fully apply its cash to purchase Collateral Obligations. The longer the period before the application of cash to purchase Collateral Obligations, the greater the adverse impact will be on aggregate Interest Proceeds collected and distributed by the Issuer, including on the Securities, especially the most junior Class of Securities, thereby resulting in lower yields than could have been obtained if proceeds were immediately applied. In addition, leveraged Loans are often prepayable by the borrowers with no, or limited, penalty or premium. As a result, leveraged Loans generally prepay more frequently than other corporate obligations of the same borrower. Senior leveraged Loans usually have shorter terms than more junior obligations and often require mandatory repayments from excess cash flow, asset dispositions and offerings of debt and/or equity securities. The increased levels of prepayments and amortization of leveraged Loans increase the associated replacement risk on the Collateral Obligations which risk will first be borne by holders of the Securities, beginning with the Preference Shares as the most junior Class.

Defaults and Market Volatility

To the extent that a default occurs with respect to any Collateral Obligation and the Issuer sells or otherwise disposes of that Collateral Obligation, it is likely that the proceeds will be less than its unpaid principal, interest or its purchase price. This could have a material adverse effect on the payments on the Securities. The Issuer also may incur additional expenses to the extent it is required to seek recovery after a default or participate in the restructuring of an obligation. Even in the absence of a default with respect to any of the Collateral Obligations, the market value of the Collateral Obligation at any time will vary, and may vary substantially, from the price at which that Collateral Obligation was initially purchased and from the principal amount of such Collateral Obligation, due to market volatility, changes in relative credit quality, general economic conditions, the level of interest rates, changes in exchange rates, the supply of below investment grade debt obligations and other factors that are difficult to predict. In addition, the Indenture places significant restrictions on the Servicer's ability to buy and sell Collateral Obligations which restrictions may be greater if amendments are made to assure compliance with Rule 3a-7. See "—The Servicer May Cause the Issuer to Amend the Indenture to Assure Compliance with Rule 3a-7 Without the Consent of the Holders of the Securities in a Manner that May Adversely Affect the Holders of Securities".

The market price of below investment grade debt obligations may from time to time experience significant volatility. During certain periods, this market has experienced significant volatility with respect to market prices, a significant increase in issues trading at distressed levels, a significant increase in default rates, and a significant decrease in recovery rates. No assurance can be given that volatility in the below investment grade debt market will not continue in the future. Such volatility can adversely impact the liquidity, market prices and other performance characteristics of leveraged Loans and high yield bonds.

Structured Finance Obligations Involve Particular Risks

A portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of Structured Finance Obligations. Structured Finance Obligations may present risks similar to those of the other types of Collateral Obligations which the Issuer may purchase and, in fact, the risks may be of greater significance in the case of Structured Finance Obligations. Moreover, purchasing Structured Finance Obligations may entail a variety of unique risks. Among other risks, Structured Finance Obligations may be subject to prepayment risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk, structural risk, legal risk and interest rate risk (which may be exacerbated if the interest rate payable on a Structured Finance Obligation changes based on multiples of changes in interest rates or inversely to changes in interest rates). In addition, certain Structured Finance Obligations (particularly subordinated collateralized bond obligations) may provide that non-payment of interest is not an event of default in certain circumstances and the holders of the securities will therefore not have available to them any associated default remedies. During the period of non-payment, unpaid interest will generally be capitalized and added to the outstanding principal balance of the related security. Furthermore, the performance of a Structured Finance Obligation will be affected by a variety of factors, including its priority in the capital structure of its issuer, the availability of any credit enhancement, the level and timing of payments and recoveries on and the characteristics of the underlying receivables, loans, or other assets that are being securitized, bankruptcy remoteness of those assets from the originator or transferor, the adequacy of and ability to realize on any related collateral, and the skill of the manager or the servicer of the Structured Finance Obligation in managing or servicing securitized assets. The price of a Structured Finance Obligation, if required to be sold, may be subject to certain market and liquidity risks for securities of its type at the time of sale. In addition, Structured Finance Obligations may involve initial and ongoing expenses above the costs associated with the related direct purchases.

Synthetic Securities Involve Particular Risks

A portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of Synthetic Securities the Reference Obligations of which are Loans, Structured Finance Obligations or High-Yield Bonds. Acquiring these types of assets through the purchase of Synthetic Securities present risks in addition to those inherently associated with direct purchases of such assets. With respect to Synthetic Securities, the Issuer will usually have a contractual relationship only with the counterparty of the Synthetic Security, and not the reference obligor on the Reference Obligation. The Issuer will have no right to enforce compliance by the reference obligor with the Reference Obligation nor any rights of set-off against the reference obligor, nor have any voting or other consensual rights of ownership with respect to the Reference Obligation. The Issuer will not directly benefit from any collateral supporting the Reference Obligation and will not have the benefit of the remedies that would normally be available to a holder of the Reference Obligation.

In addition, in the event of the insolvency of the Synthetic Security Counterparty, the Issuer will be treated as a general creditor of the counterparty and will not have any claim of title with respect to the Reference Obligation. Consequently, the Issuer will be subject to the credit risk of the counterparty as well as that of the reference obligor and concentrations of Synthetic Securities entered into with any one counterparty will subject the Securities to an additional degree of risk with respect to defaults by that counterparty. One or more Affiliates of the Initial Purchaser may act as counterparty with respect to all or a portion of the Synthetic Securities, which relationship may create certain conflicts of interest. See “—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Initial Purchaser” below. In addition, Synthetic Securities may involve initial and ongoing expenses above the costs associated with the related direct acquisitions. The Issuer will be subject to restrictions on the amount of Synthetic Securities it may own at any one time.

Some of the Collateral Obligations Will Be Illiquid

Some of the Collateral Obligations purchased by the Issuer will have no, or only a limited, trading market. The Issuer’s acquisition of illiquid Collateral Obligations may restrict its ability to dispose of Collateral Obligations in a timely fashion and for a fair price, as well as its ability to take advantage of market opportunities, although the Issuer is generally prohibited by the Indenture from selling Collateral Obligations except under certain limited circumstances described under “Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations.” Illiquid Collateral Obligations may trade at a discount from comparable, more liquid assets. The market for below investment grade debt obligations may become illiquid from time to time as a result of adverse market conditions, regulatory developments or other circumstances. In addition, the Issuer may purchase privately placed Collateral Obligations that may or may not be freely transferable under the laws of the applicable jurisdiction or due to contractual restrictions on resale, and even if those privately placed Collateral Obligations are transferable, the prices realized from their sale could be less than those originally paid by the Issuer or less than what may be considered their fair value.

Insolvency Considerations With Respect to Issuers of Collateral Obligations May Affect the Issuer’s Rights

Various laws enacted for the protection of creditors may apply to the Collateral Obligations. If, in a lawsuit brought by a creditor or representative of creditors of an obligor under a Collateral Obligation (such as a trustee in bankruptcy), a court were to find that the obligor did not receive fair consideration or reasonably equivalent value for incurring the indebtedness evidenced by the Collateral Obligation and, after giving effect to the indebtedness and the use of the proceeds thereof, the obligor (i) was insolvent, (ii) was engaged in a business for which the remaining assets of the obligor constituted unreasonably small capital or (iii) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay them as they mature, the court could determine to invalidate, in whole or in part, the indebtedness as a fraudulent conveyance, to subordinate the indebtedness to existing or future creditors of the obligor, or to recover amounts previously paid by the obligor in satisfaction of the indebtedness. There can be no assurance as to what standard a court would apply to determine whether the obligor was “insolvent” or that, regardless of the method of valuation, a court would not determine that the obligor was “insolvent,” in each case, after giving effect to the incurrence of the Collateral Obligation and the use of its proceeds. In addition, in the event of the insolvency of an obligor under a Collateral Obligation, payments made on the Collateral Obligation may be subject to avoidance as a “preference” if made within a certain period before insolvency (which may be as long as approximately one year).

In general, if payments on a Collateral Obligation are avoidable, whether as fraudulent conveyances or preferences, the payments can be recaptured either from the initial recipient (such as the Issuer) or from subsequent transferees of the payments (such as the Holders of the Securities). To the extent that any payments are recaptured from the Issuer, the resulting reduction in payments on the Securities will be borne by the Holders of the Securities beginning with the Preference Shares as the most junior Class of Securities. A court in a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding would be able to direct the recapture of any payment from a Holder of the Securities to the extent that the court has jurisdiction over the Holder or its assets. Since there is no judicial precedent relating to structured securities such as the Securities, there can be no assurance that a Holder of Securities will be able to avoid recapture on this basis.

The preceding discussion is based on principles of United States federal and state laws. Insofar as Collateral Obligations that are obligations of non-United States obligors are concerned, the laws of certain foreign jurisdictions may provide for avoidance remedies under factual circumstances similar to, or broader or narrower than, those described above, with consequences that may or may not be analogous to those described above under United States federal and state laws.

Collateral Obligations consisting of obligations of non-U.S. issuers may be subject to various laws enacted in their home countries for the protection of debtors or creditors, which could adversely affect the Issuer’s ability to recover amounts owed. These insolvency considerations will differ depending on the country in which each issuer is located and may differ depending on whether the issuer is a non-sovereign or a sovereign entity.

International Collateral Obligations Involve Particular Risks

A portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of obligations of obligors Domiciled outside the United States. Acquiring assets outside the United States may involve greater risks than acquiring assets in the United States. These risks may include: less publicly available information; varying levels of governmental regulation and supervision; and the difficulty of enforcing legal rights in a foreign jurisdiction and uncertainties as to the status, interpretation and application of laws. Moreover, foreign companies may be subject to accounting, auditing, and financial reporting standards, practices, and requirements different from those applicable to U.S. companies.

There generally is less governmental supervision and regulation of exchanges, brokers and issuers in foreign countries than there is in the United States. For example, there may be no comparable provisions under certain foreign laws with respect to insider trading and similar investor protection securities laws that apply with respect to securities transactions consummated in the United States.

Foreign markets also have different clearance and settlement procedures, and in certain markets there have been times when settlements have failed to keep pace with the volume of securities transactions, making it difficult to conduct transactions. Delays in settlement could result in periods when assets of the Issuer are unapplied and no return is earned on them. The inability of the Issuer to make intended purchases of Collateral Obligations due to settlement problems or the risk of intermediary counterparty failures could cause the Issuer to miss opportunities to acquire Collateral Obligations. The inability to dispose of a Collateral Obligation due to settlement problems could result either in losses to the Issuer due to subsequent declines in the value of the Collateral Obligation or, if the Issuer has entered into a contract to sell the security, could result in possible liability to the purchaser. Transaction costs of buying and selling foreign securities, including brokerage, tax, and custody costs, also are generally higher than those involved in domestic transactions. Furthermore, foreign financial markets, while generally growing in volume, have, for the most part, substantially less volume than U.S. markets, and securities of many foreign companies are less liquid and their prices more volatile than securities of comparable domestic companies.

In certain foreign countries there is the possibility of expropriation, nationalization, or confiscatory taxation; limitations on the convertibility of currency or the removal of securities, property, or other assets of the Issuer; political, economic, or social instability; or adverse diplomatic developments, each of which could have an adverse effect on the Issuer’s purchase of Collateral Obligations in the foreign countries (which may make it more difficult to pay Dollar-denominated obligations such as the Collateral Obligations). The economies of individual non-U.S. countries may also differ favorably or unfavorably from the U.S. economy in such respects as growth of gross domestic product, rate of inflation, volatility of currency exchange rates, depreciation, capital reinvestment, resource self-sufficiency and balance of payments position.

Lender Liability Considerations and Equitable Subordination Can Affect the Issuer's Rights with Respect to Collateral Obligations

In recent years, a number of judicial decisions in the United States have upheld the right of borrowers to sue lenders and bondholders on the basis of various evolving legal theories (collectively termed “lender liability”). Generally, lender liability is founded on the premise that a lender has violated a duty (whether implied or contractual) of good faith and fair dealing owed to the debtor or has assumed a degree of control over the debtor resulting in the creation of a fiduciary duty owed to the debtor or its other creditors or shareholders. Because of the nature of the Collateral Obligations, the Issuer may be subject to allegations of lender liability. In addition, under common law principles that in some cases form the basis for lender liability claims, a court may elect to subordinate the claim of the offending lender to the claims of the disadvantaged creditors, a remedy called “equitable subordination,” if a lender: (i) intentionally takes an action that results in the undercapitalization of a borrower to the detriment of other creditors of the borrower; (ii) engages in other inequitable conduct to the detriment of the other creditors; (iii) engages in fraud with respect to, or makes misrepresentations to, the other creditors; or (iv) uses its influence as a lender to dominate or control a borrower to the detriment of other creditors of the borrower.

Because the Collateral Obligations are primarily Loans, the Issuer may be subject to claims from creditors of an obligor that Collateral Obligations issued by the obligor that are held by the Issuer should be equitably subordinated. However, the Servicer does not intend to engage in conduct that would form the basis for a successful cause of action based on lender liability or the equitable subordination doctrine. Nonetheless, no assurances can be given that actions taken in good faith by the Servicer will not result in losses to issuers of Collateral Obligations, and that the Issuer will not be liable for any such losses. Furthermore, the Issuer and the Servicer may be unable to control the conduct of lenders under a loan syndication agreement requiring less than a unanimous vote, yet the Issuer may be subject to lender liability or equitable subordination for such conduct.

The preceding discussion is based on principles of United States federal and state laws. Insofar as Collateral Obligations that are obligations of non-United States obligors are concerned, the laws of certain foreign jurisdictions may impose liability on lenders or bondholders under factual circumstances similar to, or broader or narrower than, those described above, with consequences that may or may not be analogous to those described above under United States federal and state laws.

Notes May Be Affected by Interest Rate Risks, Including Mismatches Between the Notes and the Collateral Obligations

The Notes bear interest at a rate based on LIBOR as determined on the second Business Day prior to the first day of the relevant Interest Period. The Collateral Obligations will consist primarily of obligations that bear interest at floating rates, which floating rates may be different than the floating rates on the Floating Rate Notes. Accordingly, the Notes are subject to interest rate risk to the extent that there is an interest rate mismatch between the rates at which interest accrues on the Notes and the rates at which interest accrues on the Collateral. In addition, there may be a timing mismatch between the Floating Rate Notes and the Floating Rate Obligations as the interest on the Floating Rate Obligations may adjust more or less frequently, on different dates and based on different indices than the interest rates on the Floating Rate Notes. Furthermore, any payments of principal of or interest on Collateral received during a Due Period will (except to a limited extent specified in the Indenture) be held in Eligible Investments maturing not later than the Business Day immediately preceding the next Payment Date. There is no requirement that Eligible Investments bear interest at LIBOR or a similar rate, and the interest rates available for Eligible Investments are inherently uncertain. As a result of these mismatches, an increase or decrease in LIBOR for the relevant maturity could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to make interest payments on the Notes (including due to a rise or a decline in the value of previously issued Collateral Obligations or other Collateral that bear interest at a fixed rate as LIBOR decreases or increases, as applicable) and to make distributions or final distributions on the Preference Shares. To mitigate a portion of the interest rate mismatch, the Issuer may enter into Hedge Agreements that are (in the case of Hedge Agreements entered into on or after the Closing Date) subject to a Rating Confirmation. However, there can be no assurance that the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments, together with the Hedge Agreements, will in all circumstances generate sufficient Interest Proceeds to make timely payments of interest on the Notes. Moreover, the benefits of any Hedge Agreements may not be achieved in the event of the early termination of the Hedge Agreements, including termination upon the failure of the related Hedge Counterparty to perform its obligations under the Hedge Agreement. Although any Hedge Counterparty will be a highly rated institution at the time of entering into the applicable Hedge Agreement, there can be no assurance that it will meet its obligations under the applicable Hedge Agreement. In addition, the actual principal balance of any rate mismatch between the Collateral Obligations and the Notes may not exactly match the notional balance under any Hedge Agreement. All risks associated with any rate or notional balance mismatch will be borne by the holders of the Securities, beginning with the Preference Shares as the most junior Class. See “Security for the Notes—Hedge Agreements.”

The Servicer may direct the Issuer to reduce the notional amount of, or otherwise adjust the terms of, any Hedge Agreement outstanding at any time, subject, in the case of any reduction or adjustment made on or after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, to obtaining a Rating Confirmation.

The Issuer Has the Right to Engage in Securities Lending, which Involves Counterparty Risks and Other Risks

The Collateral Obligations may be loaned for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) that have, or are guaranteed by entities that have, long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or a guarantor with those ratings at the time of the loan, of at least “A1” (and not “A1” but on credit watch with negative implications) and “P 1” (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody’s and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least “A” from S&P. See “Security for the Notes—Securities Lending.” The loans must be secured by cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America, in an amount at least equal to 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value of the loaned Collateral Obligations, determined on a daily basis. However, if the borrower of a loaned Collateral Obligation defaults on its obligation to return the loaned Collateral Obligation because of insolvency or otherwise, the Issuer could experience delays and costs in gaining access to the collateral posted by the borrower (and in extreme circumstances could be restricted from selling the collateral). If the borrower defaults, the Issuer could suffer a loss to the extent that the realized value of the cash or securities securing the obligation of the borrower to return a loaned Collateral Obligation (less expenses) is less than the amount required to purchase the Collateral Obligation in the open market. This shortfall could be due to, among other factors, discrepancies between the mark-to-market and actual transaction prices for the loaned Collateral Obligations arising from limited liquidity or availability of the loaned Collateral Obligations and, in extreme circumstances, the loaned Collateral Obligations being unavailable at any price.

The Rating Agencies may downgrade any of the Notes if a borrower of a Collateral Obligation or, if applicable, the entity guaranteeing the performance of the borrower has been downgraded by one of the Rating Agencies such that the Issuer is not in compliance with the Securities Lending Counterparty rating requirements. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Initial Purchaser or Affiliates of the Servicer, which may create certain conflicts of interest. See “—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer” and “—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Initial Purchaser” below.

A Substantial Amount of Collateral Obligations Was Acquired Before the Closing Date, and the Terms of the Acquisition May Adversely Affect the Issuer

In anticipation of the issuance of the Securities, the Pre-Closing Parties are financing the acquisition of Collateral Obligations by the Issuer during an accumulation period before the Closing Date (the “Accumulation Period”) pursuant to a credit agreement. On the Closing Date, the funds advanced by each Pre-Closing Party will be repaid by the Issuer with proceeds of the offering to the extent not yet prepaid prior thereto. In exchange for bearing the risk of loss on the Collateral Obligations acquired prior to the Closing Date, the Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates will each be entitled to a share of the interest and any fees and commissions (net of any interest and other amounts payable to the Pre-Closing Parties on funds advanced by them to finance the acquisition of Collateral Obligations) paid by the obligors under such Collateral Obligations or accrued on such Collateral Obligations, from the time of purchase to the Closing Date, plus a share of the amount by which any realized net gains exceed any realized net losses on Collateral Obligations sold or fully repaid during the Accumulation Period, in each case, in proportion to the percentage of Preference Shares each such party purchases on the Closing Date. There can be no assurance that the market value of any such Collateral Obligation on the Closing Date will be equal to or greater than the price paid by the Issuer during the Accumulation Period, and any net losses, and, except to the extent described above, net gains, experienced in respect of any such Collateral Obligation during the period in which they were warehoused will be for the Issuer's account.

A portion of the portfolio of the Collateral Obligations acquired by the Issuer during the Accumulation Period were purchased from funds serviced or managed by the Servicer or its Affiliates. The prices at which the Collateral Obligations were conveyed from such funds serviced or managed by the Servicer or its Affiliates to the Issuer were determined by the Servicer primarily by reference to the average of bid and ask prices with respect to such Collateral Obligations from third party pricing services.

Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest

In General, the Transaction Will Involve Various Potential and Actual Conflicts of Interest

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall servicing, advisory and other activities of the Servicer and its Affiliates and from the conduct by the Initial Purchaser and their respective Affiliates of other transactions with the Issuer, including acting as counterparty with respect to Hedge Agreements, Securities Lending Agreements, and Synthetic Securities. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

The Holders of the Class II Preference Shares Control Appointment and Removal of Directors of the Issuer

The Approved Class II Preference Shareholders are expected to purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares on the Closing Date. Class II Preference Shares will control the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer as long as the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date is higher than the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date. The Class I Preference Shares will have no voting rights with respect to the appointment or removal of directors. If the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date does not exceed the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date, the Issuer Ordinary Shares will be entitled to vote with respect to the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer. As of the Closing Date, the Class II Preference Shares Outstanding will constitute a Majority of the Preference Shares Outstanding. Any transfer of a Class II Preference Share by an Approved Class II Preference Shareholder to any Person other than any Approved Class II Preference Shareholder will, subject to the terms of the Issuer Charter, be converted into a Class I Preference Share, which shall be effected by a redemption by the Issuer of the applicable Class II Preference Share and an issue of a Class I Preference Share. If at any time, due to such conversion upon sale of any Class II Preference Shares by any Approved Class II Preference Shareholder, the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding is reduced so that it is equal to or lower than the number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding, Class II Preference Shares will automatically become non-voting shares and will no longer be entitled to vote with respect to the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer (and, in such case, the directors will be appointed and removed by resolution of the holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares).

As long as Class II Preference Shares retain the voting rights with respect to the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer, the Approved Class II Preference Shareholders that have purchased such Class II Preference Shares will be able to appoint and remove any of the directors. The directors appointed by the Approved Class II Preference Shareholders may be Affiliates of such Approved Class II Preference Shareholders. No Holders of the Securities will have any right to vote with respect to such appointments and removals of directors of the Issuer other than the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares for as long as Class II Preference Shares retain the voting rights with respect to the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer.

The Holders of the Class II Preference Shares May Control or Prevent Removal of the Servicer, Appointment of a Replacement Servicer and Optional Redemption or Refinancing of the Notes

The Class II Preference Shares to be purchased by Approved Class II Preference Shareholders at closing are expected to constitute a Majority of the Preference Shares. As long as the Approved Class II Preference Shareholders hold a Majority of the Preference Shares, HFP and such subsidiaries will hold the controlling vote on any decision to be made under the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement that requires a Majority of the Preference Shares (and does not exclude from voting Preference Shares held by the Servicer or its Affiliates) and will hold a blocking position with respect to any decision that requires a higher percentage of Preference Shares.

Pursuant to the Servicing Agreement, such agreement may be terminated and the Servicer may be removed by the Issuer, if directed by the Trustee (acting at the direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes) or by a Majority of the Preference Shares (excluding any Preference Shares held by the Servicer, any of its Affiliates or any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority other than, with respect to the Class II Preference Shares, HFP or any of its subsidiaries; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of the Class II Preference Shares owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote shall not be excluded only if such vote is determined by a vote of the majority of the “independent directors” (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiaries and certified in writing to the Trustee or the Preference Shares Paying Agent, as applicable, by any of the “independent directors” of HFP) of HFP or such subsidiaries) (each such non-excluded Preference Share, a “Voting Preference Share”), in each case for “cause” upon 10 days’ prior written notice. Further, the Issuer’s ability to appoint a successor servicer is subject to, among other things, the written direction of a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares. As such, if the Class II Preference Shares continue to constitute a Majority of Preference Shares, HFP and any of its subsidiaries that hold Class II Preference Shares will collectively control the ability of the Holders of the Preference Shares to both remove the Servicer for “cause” and appoint the Servicer’s replacement. Since HFP is managed by the Servicer, HFP may have a conflict of interest and may be less likely to exercise these rights than the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares. In such case, should the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares believe that “cause” exists to remove the Servicer, the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares may prevent their ability to do so.

The Holders of a Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares may give written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer and the Servicer directing an optional redemption of the Notes upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period. After such Notes are retired, the Holders of a Majority of or all of the Preference Shares (depending on the form of redemption) may request an optional redemption of the Preference Shares. As a result of the foregoing, and so long as they hold a controlling block of Preference Shares, the vote of the Approved Class II Preference Shareholders will be required to redeem the Securities. As an entity managed by the Servicer, HFP may once again have interests that differ from those of the Class I Preference Shares. Should the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares seek to redeem the Securities, the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares may prevent their ability to do so.

In addition, at any time after the Non-Call Period, upon a proposal by the Servicer, the Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares may consent to a redemption of any Class of Notes pursuant to a Refinancing. As a result of the foregoing, and so long as they hold a controlling block of Preference Shares, the vote of the Approved Class II Preference Shareholders will be required for such Refinancing. If the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares seek a redemption of Notes pursuant to Refinancing, the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares could prevent their ability to achieve this.

The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall activities of the Servicer, its Affiliates and the subsidiaries of HFP. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

On the Closing Date, (i) the Approved Class II Preference Shareholders are expected to purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares directly from the Issuer at a discounted purchase price and all or a portion of the Class E Notes and Class D Notes at a discounted purchase price and may purchase a portion of the Class C Notes at a discounted purchase price and (ii) the Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates is expected to purchase all or a portion of the Class I Preference Shares directly from the Issuer at a discounted purchase price. The Initial Purchaser will not be acting as Initial Purchaser with respect to the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares. On the Closing Date, the Servicer will be reimbursed by the Issuer for certain of its expenses incurred in connection with the organization of the Issuer (including legal fees and expenses). In addition, a broker-dealer Affiliate of the Servicer may receive a fee for placing certain of the Securities.

Conflicts of interest may arise for the Servicer with respect to its obligations to the Issuer from the overall activities of the Servicer, its Affiliates and the subsidiaries of HFP, for the accounts of its other clients. For example, the Servicer, its Affiliates and their respective clients and the subsidiaries of HFP may acquire loans, securities, and other obligations that would be appropriate for inclusion in the Issuer’s portfolio of Collateral Obligations, as well as in loans, securities, and other obligations that are senior to, or have interests different from or adverse to, assets that are pledged to secure the Notes. Furthermore, Affiliates of the Servicer may serve as general partners or managers of special-purpose entities organized to issue other collateralized loan obligations (“CLOs”) secured primarily by corporate loans and collateralized debt obligations (“CDOs”) secured by corporate debt obligations or asset backed securities. The Servicer and its Affiliates may also have ongoing relationships with, render services to, or engage in transactions with, companies whose loan obligations or securities are pledged to secure the Notes and may now or in the future own (as portfolio assets or otherwise) loan obligations or equity or debt securities issued by issuers of or obligors on, Collateral Obligations or other Collateral. An Affiliate of the Servicer may earn fees with respect to financial advisory services rendered to companies in connection with workouts or the subsequent restructuring of such companies. Such fees and advice may continue for a period of time after any such workout or restructure. The Issuer may own an interest in the securities of such companies. The Servicer will endeavor to resolve conflicts with respect to opportunities in a manner that it deems equitable to the extent possible under the prevailing facts and circumstances.

The Servicer and its Affiliates may possess information relating to issuers of Collateral Obligations or other Collateral that (i) may constrain the Issuer’s asset acquisition as a consequence of the Servicer’s inability to use such information for asset acquisition purposes or otherwise to take actions that would be in the best of interests of the Issuer or (ii) is not known to the employees of the Servicer responsible for monitoring the Collateral and performing the other obligations of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement. The Servicer, its Affiliates and their respective clients and the subsidiaries of HFP may at certain times be simultaneously seeking to purchase or dispose of assets for the respective accounts of the Issuer, any similar entity for which it serves as servicer, manager or advisor, and for its clients or Affiliates.

Neither the Servicer nor any of its Affiliates has any affirmative obligation to offer any assets to the Issuer or to inform the Issuer of any assets before offering any assets to other funds or accounts that the Servicer or any of its Affiliates manage or service. Furthermore, the Servicer may be bound by affirmative obligations in the future, whereby the Servicer is obligated to offer certain assets to funds or accounts that it manages or services before or without the Servicer offering those assets to the Issuer.

Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Servicer such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Servicer, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm’s length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (iii) such transaction is permitted by the United States Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the “Advisers Act”). The Servicing Agreement also provides that the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Servicer, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm’s length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (ii) permitted by the Advisers Act.

The Servicer currently serves as the servicer or portfolio manager for a number of special purpose vehicles that have issued securities secured by or referencing collateral consisting of assets similar to the Collateral Obligations, which may create conflicts in allocating its time and services among the Issuer and the Servicer’s other accounts. The Servicer and its Affiliates and the subsidiaries of HFP may own equity or other securities of issuers of or obligors on Collateral Obligations or other Collateral and may have provided and may provide in the future, advisory and other services to issuers of Collateral. In addition, the Servicer and its Affiliates may act as the Securities Lending Counterparty under any Securities Lending Agreement entered into by the Issuer.

The Servicer may resign at any time and may be removed for cause by the Issuer, if directed by the Trustee (acting at the direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes) or by a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares. Upon the resignation or removal of the Servicer, the Issuer, at the written direction of a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares, may appoint a replacement servicer if (x) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes held by the Servicer, its Affiliates or any account over which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority other than HFP or any of its subsidiaries; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of Notes owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote shall not be excluded only if such vote is determined by a vote of the majority of the “independent directors” (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiaries and certified in writing to the Trustee by any of the “independent directors” of HFP) of HFP or such subsidiaries) (each such non-excluded Note, a “Voting Note”) or (y) a Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Voting Notes (voting as a single Class) do not object to the replacement servicer. See “The Servicing Agreement.” Securities held by the Servicer, its Affiliates or any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority (other than HFP or any of its subsidiaries) will have no voting rights with respect to any vote in connection with removal of the Servicer for “cause” and appointment of a replacement servicer and will be deemed not to be outstanding in connection with any vote to remove the Servicer for “cause” and to appoint a replacement servicer; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of Class II Preference Shares or Notes owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote shall be determined by a vote of the majority of the “independent directors” (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiary) of HFP or such subsidiary. Except to the extent specified otherwise, Securities held by the Servicer, its Affiliates or any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority at the time of such vote will have voting rights with respect to all other matters as to which the Holders of the Securities are entitled to vote, including any vote to direct an Optional Redemption or a Refinancing. See “The Servicing Agreement”, “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption” and “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Redemption by Refinancing.”

On the Closing Date, (i) the Approved Class II Preference Shareholders are expected to purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class E Notes and may purchase a portion of the Class C Notes and Class D Notes and (ii) the Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates is expected to purchase all or a portion of the Class I Preference Shares. No assurance can be given whether HFP or the Servicer will retain such Class C Notes, Class D Notes, Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares and/or Class II Preference Shares for any amount of time. In addition, the Servicer or its Affiliates may also acquire Securities upon the occurrence of an Amendment Buy-Out or a Maturity Extension or Notes upon the occurrence of a Refinancing as described herein. To the extent that the interests of the Holders of the Notes differ from the interests of the Holders of the Preference Shares, the holding of Preference Shares by the Servicer or its Affiliates may create additional conflicts of interest.

The Servicer will be entitled to receive the Senior Servicing Fee, the Subordinated Servicing Fee and the Supplemental Servicing Fee, as further described herein. The structure of such fees may cause the Servicer to direct the Issuer to purchase more speculative Collateral Obligations than it would otherwise acquire in the absence of such performance based compensation. See “The Servicing Agreement.”

In addition to acting as Servicer to the Issuer, Highland Capital will act as manager for HFP, which will, on the Closing Date, purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares. Because Highland Capital will receive both a Servicing Fee from the Issuer for servicing the Collateral and a management fee from HFP for managing HFP’s assets, which will include the Class II Preference Shares (and therefore a residual interest in the Collateral), Highland Capital, acting as Servicer, may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion (or all) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event such amount will be paid by the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. The Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares will vote together as a single class, except as described otherwise in “Description of the Securities—The Issuer Charter—Voting Rights”. Receipt of Servicing Fees in the form of dividends on Class II Preference Shares may cause HFP to have different incentives from the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares.

The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Initial Purchaser

The Initial Purchaser and/or its Affiliates may have placed or underwritten certain of the Collateral Obligations at original issuance and may have provided investment banking services, advisory, banking and other services to issuers of Collateral Obligations. The Initial Purchaser may, from time to time as principal or through one or more investment funds that it manages, make investments in the equity securities of one or more of the issuers of Collateral Obligations with the result that one or more of such issuers may be or may become controlled by the Initial Purchaser. The Initial Purchaser may not have completed its resale of the Senior Notes by any date certain, which may affect the liquidity of the Securities as well as the ability of the Initial Purchaser to make a market in the Senior Notes. From time to time, the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer may purchase or sell Collateral Obligations through the Initial Purchaser and/or any of its Affiliates (collectively, “Initial Purchaser Entities”). The Issuer may acquire the securities of companies affiliated with the Initial Purchaser Entities or in which the Initial Purchaser Entities have an equity or participation interest. The purchase, holding and sale of such securities by the Issuer may enhance the profitability of the Initial Purchaser Entities' own investments in such companies. In addition, an Initial Purchaser Entity may also act as counterparty with respect to one or more Synthetic Securities and may act as hedge counterparty with respect to one or more hedge agreements. The Issuer may make purchases of money market funds that are managed by the Initial Purchaser Entities or for which the Trustee or its Affiliates provides services; provided that such money market funds otherwise qualify as Eligible Investments.

By purchasing a Security, each investor will be deemed to have acknowledged the existence of the conflicts of interest inherent to this transaction, including as described above, and to have consented thereto.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SECURITIES

The Notes will be issued pursuant to the Indenture. The terms of the Preference Shares are contained in the Issuer Charter and in certain resolutions adopted by the Issuer's Board of Directors on or before the Closing Date authorizing and approving the issuance of the Securities, as reflected in the minutes thereof (the "Resolutions" and, together with the Issuer Charter and the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the "Preference Share Documents"). The following summary describes certain provisions of the Notes, the Preference Shares, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the provisions of the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. Copies of the Indenture may be obtained by prospective purchasers upon request in writing to the Trustee at 200 Clarendon Street, Mail Code: EUC 108, Boston, MA 02116 Attention: CDO Services Group, and will be available at the office of Custom House Administration & Corporate Services Ltd. (in such capacity, the "Irish Paying Agent") in the City of Dublin. Copies of the Preference Share Documents may be obtained upon request in writing to the Administrator at Walker House, 87 Mary Street, George Town, Grand Cayman, KY1-9002, Cayman Islands, Attention: the Directors—Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd.

Status and Security

The Senior Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer and non-recourse debt obligations of the Co-Issuer. The Class E Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer. Each Note within a Class will rank pari passu with all other Notes of that Class. Under the Indenture, the Issuer will grant to the Trustee a first-priority security interest in the Collateral to secure the Issuer's obligations under the Indenture, the Notes, any Hedge Agreements, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement (to the extent Administrative Expenses arising thereunder are payable as provided in the Indenture) and the Servicing Agreement (collectively, the "Secured Obligations"). The Notes are payable solely from amounts received in respect of the Collateral pledged by the Issuer to secure the Notes. If the amounts received in respect of the Collateral (net of certain expenses) are insufficient to make payments on the Secured Obligations, in accordance with the Priority of Payments, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and, following liquidation of all the Collateral, the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, to pay the deficiency will be extinguished.

The Preference Shares are entitled to proceeds of the Collateral only to the extent that any such proceeds are remaining on any Payment Date after payment of all interest and principal payable on each Class of Notes on that Payment Date and the satisfaction of certain other amounts payable in accordance with the Priority of Payments. In addition, the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares will be entitled, as and to the extent set forth herein, to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments pursuant to the priority provided in the Priority of Payments.

In furtherance of the priorities of payments among the Classes of Notes and the Preference Shares, the Indenture contains express subordination provisions pursuant to which the Holders of each Class of Notes that is a Junior Class as described below agree for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class that the Junior Class shall be subordinate and junior to the Notes of each Priority Class to the extent and in the manner provided in the Indenture.

If any Event of Default has not been cured or waived and acceleration occurs and is continuing under and in accordance with the Indenture, each Priority Class of Notes shall be paid in full in cash or, to the extent a Majority of each Class of Notes (voting separately) consents, other than in cash, before any further payment or distribution is made on account of any Junior Class of Notes with respect to the Priority Class, as and to the extent provided under “—Priority of Payments—Stated Maturity”. The Holders of each Junior Class of Notes agree, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for failure to pay to them amounts due to the Junior Class, of the Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, or under the Indenture until the payment in full of the Priority Classes or all the Classes, as the case may be and not before one year and a day, or if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, has elapsed since the payment.

For purposes of this provision, with respect to each Class of Notes, the Classes of Notes that are Priority Classes and Junior Classes are as follows:

A	B, C, D, E, Preference Shares	None
B	C, D, E, Preference Shares*	A
C	D, E, Preference Shares*	A, B
D	E, Preference Shares*	A, B, C
E	Preference Shares*	A, B, C, D
Preference Shares	None	A, B, C, D, E

* Other than with respect to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments, which may be payable to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as set forth herein and will have priority to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments. If the Class E Coverage Tests are not satisfied on any Determination Date, Interest Proceeds will first be used to pay principal of the Class E Notes and second to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary to meet all Class E Coverage Tests on such Determination Date as set forth in clause (xi) of “—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds”. If the Interest Diversion Test is not satisfied on any Determination Date Interest Proceeds will be used to satisfy the Interest Diversion Test and such amount will be paid first, to principal of the Class E Notes, second, to principal of the Class D Notes, third, to principal of the Class C Notes, fourth, to principal of the Class B Notes and fifth, to principal of the Class A Notes, in that order, in each case, to the extent required to satisfy the Interest Diversion Test as set forth in clause (xiv) of “—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds”.

** The Preference Shares will be entitled to certain residual cash flow after payment of senior obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

If, notwithstanding the provisions of the Indenture, any Holder of Notes of any Junior Class has received any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes contrary to the provisions of the Indenture, then, until each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class of Notes has been paid in full in Cash or, to the extent a Majority of each Class of Notes (voting separately) consents, other than in cash, in accordance with the Indenture, the payment or distribution shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of, and shall forthwith be paid over and delivered to, the Trustee, which shall pay and deliver the same to the Holders of the applicable Priority Classes of Notes in accordance with the Indenture. If any such payment or distribution is made other than in cash, it shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and subject in all respects to the Indenture.

Each Holder of Notes of any Junior Class agrees with all Holders of the applicable Priority Classes that the Holder of Junior Class Notes shall not demand, accept, or receive any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes in violation of the Indenture. After a Priority Class has been paid in full, the Holders of Notes of the related Junior Class or Classes shall be fully subrogated to the rights of the Holders of the Priority Class. Nothing in these provisions shall affect the obligation of the Issuer to pay Holders of any Junior Class of Notes.

Distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares are subordinate to distributions on the Notes as described in the Priority of Payments (other than, as and to the extent set forth herein, with respect to distribution of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments).

The Servicing Fees shall have priority only to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments.

Interest Payments on the Notes and Payments of Dividends on the Preference Shares from Interest Proceeds

The Notes of each Class will accrue interest during each Interest Period on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day) at the applicable per annum interest rates for each such Class (the “Note Interest Rate”) equal to LIBOR for Eurodollar deposits for the applicable Interest Period plus the spread, as specified above under “Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities.” Interest accrued on the Notes shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the applicable Interest Period divided by 360. Payment of interest on each Class of Notes shall be subordinated to the payments of interest on the related Priority Classes and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of Deferred Interest in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered “payable” for the purposes of the Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments. To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest), until paid.

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note, or in the case of a partial repayment, on the part repaid, from the date of repayment or its Stated Maturity unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or unless there is some other default with respect to the payments of principal.

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares, pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted and to the extent of available Interest Proceeds as described under clauses (xviii) and (xx) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

In addition, Holders of the Class II Preference Shares will be entitled to distributions, on a pro rata basis, from the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account, equal to the Class II Preference Share Senior Special Payment, the Class II Preference Share Subordinated Special Payment and the Class II Preference Share Supplemental Special Payment (if any) (collectively, the “Class II Preference Share Special Payments”). With respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion (or all) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. Any payments to the Holders of Class II Preference Shares of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments will have priority to the extent provided under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

For purposes of calculating the Class II Preference Share Special Payments, the following definitions shall apply:

“Class II Preference Share Portion” means, for any Payment Date, 100% minus the Servicing Fee Portion for such Payment Date.

“Class II Preference Share Senior Special Payment” means, for any Payment Date, an amount equal to the product of (a) the Senior Servicing Fee for such Payment Date and (b) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date.

“Class II Preference Share Subordinated Special Payment” means, for any Payment Date, an amount equal to the product of (a) the Subordinated Servicing Fee for such Payment Date and (b) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date.

“Class II Preference Share Supplemental Special Payment” means, for any Payment Date, an amount equal to the product of (a) the Supplemental Servicing Fee for such Payment Date and (b) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date.

“Servicing Fee Portion” means 100% minus a percentage (between 0% and 100%) selected by the Servicer in its sole discretion and reported to the Trustee in writing on or before the related Determination Date.

For purposes of calculating interest on each Class of Notes, the Issuer will initially appoint the Trustee as calculation agent (the Trustee in that capacity, and each successor calculation agent, the “Calculation Agent”).

As soon as possible after 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period, but in no event later than 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the next Business Day, the Calculation Agent will calculate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes for the related Interest Period and the amount of interest for the Interest Period payable in respect of each $100,000 in principal amount of each Class of Floating Rate Notes (in each case rounded to the nearest cent, with half a cent being rounded upward) on the related Payment Date and will communicate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes and the date of the next Payment Date to the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, each paying agent, Euroclear, Clearstream, the Depository, and (as long as the Senior Notes are listed on the ISE) the ISE.

The Calculation Agent may be removed by the Co-Issuers at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Co-Issuers or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes or the amount of interest payable in respect of each Class of Floating Rate Notes for any Interest Period, the Issuer will promptly appoint as a replacement Calculation Agent a leading bank which is engaged in transactions in U.S. Dollar deposits in the international U.S. Dollar market and which does not control and is not controlled by or under common control with the Co-Issuers or any of their respective affiliates. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been duly appointed. The determination of the Note Interest Rate with respect to each Class of Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Period by the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon all parties.

“LIBOR” means the offered rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent for any Interest Period, for three month Dollar deposits that appears on Reuters Screen LIBOR01 Page as reported on Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News (or a page that replaces Reuters Screen LIBOR01 Page for the purpose of displaying comparable rates), as of 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period.

If, on the second Business Day before the first day of any relevant Interest Period, that rate does not appear on Reuters Screen LIBOR01 Page (or 3750) as reported on Bloomberg Financial Market Commodities News (or a page that replaces Reuters Screen LIBOR01 Page (or 3750) for the purpose of displaying comparable rates), the Calculation Agent shall determine the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations of the Reference Banks to prime banks in the London interbank market for three month Dollar deposits in Europe, by reference to requests by the Calculation Agent to four major banks in the London interbank market selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer) (the “Reference Banks”) for quotations as of approximately 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of the Interest Period. If at least two of the Reference Banks provide quotations as requested, LIBOR shall equal such arithmetic mean. If fewer than two Reference Banks provide quotations, LIBOR shall be the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations that one or more leading banks in New York City selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer) are quoting to the principal London offices of leading banks in the London interbank market on the second Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period for three month Dollar deposits.

If the Calculation Agent is unable to determine a rate in accordance with any of the above procedures, LIBOR for the Interest Period shall be calculated on the last day of the Interest Period and shall be the arithmetic mean of the rate of interest for each day during the Interest Period determined by the Calculation Agent as being the rate of interest most recently announced by the Bank at its New York office as its base rate, prime rate, reference rate, or similar rate for Dollar loans (or if the Bank ceases to exist or is not quoting a base rate, prime rate, reference rate, or similar rate for Dollar loans, another major money center commercial bank in New York City selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer)).

For the first Interest Period LIBOR shall be determined using two separate time periods, first, using straight-line interpolation of two rates calculated in accordance with the above procedure, except that instead of using three month Dollar deposits, one rate shall be determined using four month Dollar deposits and the other rate shall be determined using five month Dollar deposits calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed from the Closing Date to, but not including August 1, 2008 divided by 360, and second, based on three month Dollar deposits for the period from and including August 1, 2008 to the first Payment Date. Unless the Maturity Extension occurs, LIBOR shall be determined for the last Interest Period based on the actual number of days in the Interest Period using straight-line interpolation of two rates calculated in accordance with the above procedure, except that instead of using three month Dollar deposits, one rate shall be determined using the period for which rates are obtainable next shorter than the Interest Period and the other rate shall be determined using the period for which rates are obtainable next longer than the Interest Period. All calculations shall be calculated to at least four decimal places and rounded to four decimal places.

Principal Payments on the Notes and Distributions on the Preference Shares from Principal Proceeds

The principal of each Note of each Class matures at par and is payable on the Payment Date that is the Stated Maturity for the Class of Notes, unless the unpaid principal of the Note becomes payable at an earlier date by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption, or otherwise. The Preference Shares are scheduled to be redeemed on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, unless redeemed prior thereto. The average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years from issuance until Stated Maturity for such Notes. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary” and “Maturity and Prepayment Considerations.” Notwithstanding the foregoing, and except as set forth below, the payment of principal of each Class of Notes: (i) may only occur after principal on each Class of Notes that is a Priority Class with respect to the Class has been paid in full and (ii) is subordinated to the payment on each Payment Date of the principal and interest payable on the Priority Classes, and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments. However, (i) Interest Proceeds may be used to pay principal of the Class E Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class E Coverage Tests and (ii) Principal Proceeds may be used to pay Deferred Interest and other amounts before the payment of principal of the Notes. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

In general, principal payments will not be made on the Notes before the end of the Replacement Period, except in the following circumstances: (i) in connection with the payment of Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, (ii) in connection with an Optional Redemption, (iii) in connection with a Refinancing, (iv) at the option of the Servicer, to effect a Special Redemption of the Notes, (v) pursuant to an Optional Redemption made in connection with a Tax Event or (vi) following a mandatory redemption of the Notes caused by a failure to meet any of the Coverage Tests or a Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Replacement Period, Principal Proceeds will be applied on each Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments to pay principal of each Class of Notes (except for Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations which may be applied to purchase Collateral Obligations to the extent described herein). No principal of any Class of Notes will be payable on any Payment Date other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and to the extent funds are available therefor on that Payment Date for that purpose, except that the principal of each Class of Notes will be payable in full at the Stated Maturity, unless repaid before that.

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares, pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted and to the extent of available Principal Proceeds as described under clauses (xi)(A), (xiv) and (xvi) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

Legal Provisions Applicable to the Payments of Dividends from Interest Proceeds and Dividends or Other Distributions from Principal Proceeds

Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds paid to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment of dividends on, or the payment of the Redemption Price in respect of, the Preference Shares, will be distributable to the Holders of the Preference Shares only if the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distribution and Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds paid to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment of dividends in respect of the Preference Shares will be distributable to the Holders of the Preference Shares only if the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium and if the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distribution. Payments will be paid by the Trustee to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for payment of dividends and other distributions to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, on a pro rata basis according to the number of Preference Shares held by each Holder on the Record Date for such Payment Date.

Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date

General

The Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Replacement Period to the applicable Extended Replacement Period End Date up to four times if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given the Trustee written notice of its election to extend the Replacement Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Notes shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents.

In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes or Preference Shares wishing to sell all or a portion of its Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to “—Extension Procedure” below (such Securities as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, “Extension Sale Securities”). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in connection with a sale of Extension Sale Securities, all, but not part, of the Extension Sale Securities must be purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date.

The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the “Extension Conditions”) are satisfied:

- (i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;
- (ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions in the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents and described herein immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Extension Sale Securities and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);
- (iii) (a) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody’s (so long as any Notes are then rated by Moody’s);
- (iv) the Issuer has not effected more than three prior Extensions; and
- (v) such extension is not effected for the primary purpose of decreasing losses or recognizing gains resulting from market value changes.

In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Noteholder, other than Holders of Extension Sale Securities, shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment. Holders of Preference Shares shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to any applicable qualifying beneficial owners, as determined by the Issuer, who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification on the first Payment Date from and including the Extension Effective Date on which funds are available for such purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption of the Notes. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments shall not be considered “due and payable” hereunder. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Securities. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid, in the case of the Notes, to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer.

Extension Procedure

Not later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer of its election to extend the Replacement Period (the “Extension Notice”), the Trustee shall mail the Extension Notice to all Holders of Notes and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), in the form set out in the Indenture, and shall request the Rating Confirmation for the Maturity Extension from each Rating Agency, if applicable.

Any Holder of Securities may deliver an irrevocable written notice (an “Extension Sale Notice”) to the Issuer and the Trustee within 30 days after the Trustee has mailed the Extension Notice (the “Extension Sale Notice Period”) of its intention to sell all or a portion of its Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of Securities that has not delivered such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension.

If any Holder of Class II Preference Shares delivers an Extension Sale Notice notifying the Issuer and the Trustee of its intention to sell all or a portion of its Class II Preference Shares such Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to the Extension Qualifying Purchaser and such Preference Shares will, subject to the terms of the Issuer Charter, be converted into Class I Preference Shares, which shall be effected by a redemption by the Issuer of the applicable Class II Preference Shares and an issue of an equivalent number of Class I Preference Shares.

On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) shall confirm, as shall be certified to the Trustee by a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer (i) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Extension Sale Securities in compliance with all transfer restrictions in the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents and the legends on such Extension Sale Securities and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (ii) whether the requirements of clause (iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (iii) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall automatically become effective under the terms of the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth above are satisfied, as determined by the Issuer upon consultation with the Servicer (and as certified to the Trustee by a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer). No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on such determination made by the Issuer, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail a notice to all Holders of Notes, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Servicer, the Initial Purchaser, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) and the ISE (if and for so long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depository for any Securities subject to the Maturity Extension.

None of the Initial Purchaser, the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any duty to act as an Extension Qualifying Purchaser.

Optional Redemption

Notes. The applicable Required Redemption Percentage may give written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer and the Servicer directing an optional redemption of the Notes (with respect to the Notes, an “Optional Redemption”) upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period. Such notice must be given not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made. In the event that the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee and the Issuer receive notice directing an Optional Redemption of the Notes from any one or more Holders of Preference Shares holding less than a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall, within five Business Days of receipt of such notice, notify the Holders of the Preference Shares (i) of the receipt of such notice and (ii) that any Holder of Preference Shares may join in directing an Optional Redemption by notifying the Issuer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing within five Business Days after such Holder's receipt of the Preference Shares Paying Agent's notice.

Upon receipt of the written notice directing an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Co-Issuers with respect to the Senior Notes and the Issuer with respect to the Class E Notes are required by the Indenture to redeem the Notes (in whole but not in part) from amounts available therefor in accordance with "—Optional Redemption Procedures" described below. Any Optional Redemption of the Notes shall be made at the applicable Redemption Price. Upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Replacement Period will terminate in accordance with the definition of that term. The Issuer shall, at least 30 days before the Redemption Date (unless the Trustee shall agree to a shorter notice period), notify the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency in writing of the Redemption Date, the applicable Record Date, the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed on the Redemption Date and the applicable Redemption Prices.

Preference Shares. On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, so long as all administrative fees and expenses and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), and all amounts owing under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged:

(i) at the request of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Preference Shares, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings subject to the provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and Cayman Islands law; or

(ii) at the unanimous written request of the Holders of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a specified portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such written request subject to the provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and Cayman Islands law,

(with respect to the Preference Shares and each of clauses (i) and (ii) above, an Optional Redemption).

Upon a distribution pursuant to clause (i) above, the Servicer will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Servicing Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer (and subject to clause (ii) above), direct the sale of all remaining Collateral Obligations. Upon a distribution pursuant to clause (ii) above, the Servicer will effect the sale of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares.

Upon receipt of the written notice requesting an Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares, the Issuer, in accordance with the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, will redeem the Preference Shares in the applicable manner described above. Any Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares shall be made at the applicable Redemption Price.

If any Holder of Preference Shares desires to request the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares after the redemption or repayment of the Notes and in accordance with clauses (i) and (ii) above in this section "—Preference Shares", such Holder should notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing not later than 30 Business Days (or with the Servicer's consent, not later than 20 Business Days) prior to the proposed Redemption Date (which must be a Payment Date). Upon receiving such notice, the Preference Shares Paying Agent will promptly (and in no event later than two Business Days thereafter) notify the Issuer and each Holder of the Preference Shares thereof. Each Holder of Preference Shares that also wishes to request the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares must so notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing (and the Preference Shares Paying Agent will promptly notify the Issuer and the Servicer of such request) within five Business Days after receipt of such notice. If the aggregate number of Preference Shares that have requested the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares equals or exceeds the minimum threshold set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) above in this section “—Preference Shares”, the Issuer will cause an optional redemption of the Preference Shares pursuant to the procedures described in the Preference Share Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Preference Shares will be redeemed on or prior to the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. The Preference Shares shall be redeemed from the proceeds of any Collateral remaining after giving effect to the redemption or repayment of the Notes and payment in full of all expenses of the Co-Issuers.

Optional Redemption Procedures. The Trustee will give notice of a redemption by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days and not earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date, to (i) each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder’s address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository, Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and (ii) in the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, to each Rating Agency. In addition, for so long as any Senior Notes are listed on the ISE and so long as the guidelines of the exchange so require, notice of an Optional Redemption of Senior Notes shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

Notice of redemption shall be given by the Co-Issuers or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note selected for redemption or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Securities.

The Notes may not be optionally redeemed unless either of the following conditions is satisfied:

(i) at least 10 Business Days before the Redemption Date, the Servicer shall have furnished to the Trustee evidence (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) that the Issuer has entered into a binding agreement (with a financial or other institution or entity whose short-term unsecured debt obligations (other than obligations whose rating is based on the credit of a person other than the institution) have a credit rating of at least “A-1” from S&P and of “P-1” (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody’s (or to any other institution or entity if the Rating Condition with respect to Moody’s is satisfied with respect to the other entity)) to sell to the financial or other institutions, not later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date in immediately available funds, all or part of the Collateral (directly or by participation or other arrangement) at a Purchase Price at least equal to an amount sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to any Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices; or

(ii) before entering into any binding agreement to sell all or a portion of the Collateral and selling or terminating any Hedge Agreement, the Servicer shall have certified that, in its commercially reasonable judgment, the settlement dates of the sales will be scheduled to occur on or before the Business Day before the Redemption Date and that the expected proceeds from the sales are to be delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date, in immediately available funds, in an amount (calculated as applicable in the manner provided below) sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount shall be calculated with respect to the classes of Collateral listed in the table below by multiplying the expected proceeds of sale of the Collateral by the indicated percentage in the table below. For the avoidance of doubt, no Hedge Agreement will be sold or terminated unless the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date has passed and no notice of withdrawal has been issued.

	Number of Business Days Between Certification to the Trustee and Sale
	Same Day	1 to 2	3 to 5	6 to 15
1. Cash or other Eligible Investments	100%	100%	100%	100%
2. Loans (other than 5 below)	100%	93%	92%	88%
3. High-Yield Bonds (other than 5 below) and Structured Finance Obligations (in each case, other than 4 below)	100%	89%	85%	75%
4. High-Yield Bonds (other than 5 below) and Structured Finance Obligations, in each case with a Moody's Rating of "B3" and on credit watch with negative implications or below "B3"	100%	75%	65%	55%
5. Synthetic Securities	100%	65%	55%	35%

Any certification delivered by the Servicer shall include (A) the prices of, and expected proceeds from, the sale of any Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or Hedge Agreements and (B) all calculations required by the Indenture.

Any notice of redemption may be withdrawn by the Issuer up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Trustee and the Servicer only if:

(i) in the case of an Optional Redemption of Notes, the Servicer does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications required under the Indenture, as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee;

(ii) in the case of an Optional Redemption in whole of either the Notes or the Preference Shares as described above in "—Optional Redemption—Notes" and clause (i) of the first paragraph under "—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares," the Issuer receives the written request of the Holders of the Preference Shares (or, in the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes resulting from a Tax Event, the Affected Class) to withdraw the notice of redemption delivered by the percentage of the Holders of the Preference Shares (or, in the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes resulting from a Tax Event, the Affected Class) requesting redemption under "—Optional Redemption—Notes" or clause (i) of the first paragraph under "—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares," as applicable; or

(iii) in the case of an Optional Redemption of Preference Shares as described in clause (ii) of the first paragraph under "Optional Redemption—Preference Shares," the Issuer receives the unanimous written request of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer hereby agrees for the benefit of the requesting Holders to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written request referred to in the preceding clause (ii) or this clause (iii)).

Notice of any withdrawal shall be sent, not later than the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date (assuming that the Trustee has received timely written notice from the Issuer as provided above), by the Trustee, to each Holder of Notes scheduled to be redeemed at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery (or, to the extent the address contained in the Indenture Register is not sufficient for that purpose, by first-class mail) and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares). If the Issuer so withdraws any notice of redemption or is otherwise unable to complete any redemption of the Notes, the Sale Proceeds received from the sale of any Collateral Obligations sold in accordance with the Indenture may, during the Replacement Period (and, in respect of Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, after the Replacement Period) at the Servicer's discretion, be used to purchase replacement Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria.

Notice of redemption having been given as provided above, the Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at the Redemption Price therein specified and from and after the Redemption Date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest) the Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Redemption Date.

Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, the Holder shall present and surrender the Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption to receive the applicable Redemption Price unless the Holder provides an undertaking to surrender the Note thereafter.

Redemption by Refinancing. In addition, any Class of the Notes may be redeemed in whole, but not in part, on any Payment Date after the Non-Call Period from Refinancing Proceeds if the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, proposes to the Holders of the Preference Shares in writing (by notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares)) with a copy to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies) at least 30 days prior to the Payment Date for such redemption (such date, the “Refinancing Date”) to redeem such Notes in accordance with the Indenture, which notice shall, among other things, specify the Refinancing Date and the Class of Notes to be refinanced. Such redemption will be effected by the Issuer obtaining a loan or an issuance of a replacement class of notes (“Refinancing Notes”), the terms of which loan or issuance will be negotiated by the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, from one or more financial institutions or purchasers (which may include the Servicer or its Affiliates) selected by the Servicer (a refinancing provided pursuant to such loan or issuance, a “Refinancing”), and provided that (i) such proposal is approved by a Majority of the Preference Shares (voting as a single class) at least 15 days prior to the Refinancing Date and (ii) the Servicer completes such Refinancing and causes the Refinancing Proceeds to be deposited with the Trustee (in immediately available funds) no later than the close of the Business Day immediately preceding the Refinancing Date.

The Issuer will obtain a Refinancing only if the Servicer determines and certifies to the Trustee that:

- (i) (A) a Rating Confirmation has been obtained from each Rating Agency for each Class of Notes not subject to Refinancing and (B) a rating letter has been obtained from each Rating Agency with respect to each class of Refinancing Notes that such Refinancing Notes shall be rated at least as high as the Initial Rating of the Class of Notes subject to the Refinancing;
- (ii) the proceeds from the Refinancing will be at least sufficient to pay the Refinancing Price plus any Administrative Expenses of the Issuer related to the Refinancing;
- (iii) the interest rate payable in respect of the obligations providing the Refinancing is less than the interest rate payable on the Notes being refinanced;
- (iv) the principal amount of any obligations providing the Refinancing is no greater than the principal amount of the Notes being redeemed with the proceeds of such obligations;
- (v) the stated maturity of the obligations providing the Refinancing is no earlier than the Stated Maturity of the Notes being refinanced;
- (vi) the Refinancing Proceeds will be used (to the extent necessary) to redeem the applicable Notes;
- (vii) the agreements relating to the Refinancing contain limited recourse, non-recourse and non-petition provisions, investor qualification provisions and transfer restrictions equivalent to those applicable to the Notes being redeemed, as set forth in the Indenture;
- (viii) the obligations providing the Refinancing are subject to the Priority of Payments and do not rank higher in priority pursuant to the Priority of Payments than the Class of Notes being redeemed; and
- (ix) the expenses in connection with the Refinancing have been paid or will be adequately provided for.

Any Refinancing Proceeds will not constitute Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds but will be applied directly on the related Refinancing Date pursuant to the Indenture to redeem the Notes being refinanced and pay Administrative Expenses in connection with the Refinancing without regard to the Priority of Payments; provided that, to the extent that any Refinancing Proceeds exceed the amount necessary to redeem the Notes being refinanced (and any associated Administrative Expenses), such excess Refinancing Proceeds will be treated as Principal Proceeds.

Refinancing Notes may be issued from time to time pursuant to a Refinancing as described above and subject to and in compliance with the terms of the Indenture. Any such Refinancing Note will be issued by the Issuer and, if any such Refinancing Note is a Senior Note, the Co-Issuer and will be authenticated by the Trustee upon delivery to the Trustee of an order of the Issuer and the applicable opinion of counsel as set forth in the Indenture.

Special Redemption of Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture

Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in whole or in part, at par, in accordance with the Priority of Payments if, at any time during the Replacement Period, the Servicer elects (subject to the Servicing Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional or replacement Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Servicer in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the application of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be used to purchase additional or replacement Collateral Obligations.

On the Special Redemption Date, the Special Redemption Amount will be available to be applied in accordance with “—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds” to the extent of available Principal Proceeds. Notice of payment of the Special Redemption Amount shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than three Business Days before the applicable Special Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder’s address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository. In addition, for so long as any Senior Notes are listed on the ISE and so long as the guidelines of the exchange so require, notice of a Special Redemption of the Senior Notes shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

In connection with a Special Redemption, the principal of the Notes will be paid from Principal Proceeds in an aggregate amount equal to the Special Redemption Amount (first to any Class A Notes to be redeemed, then to any Class B Notes to be redeemed, then to any Class C Notes to be redeemed, then to any Class D Notes to be redeemed and then to any Class E Notes to be redeemed, in each case until paid in full) in accordance with the Priority of Payments. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes

General

In the event of a failure to meet any Coverage Test or a Rating Confirmation Failure on any Determination Date, a mandatory redemption of one or more Classes of Notes in whole or in part will be required. Any mandatory redemption could result in an elimination, deferral or reduction in interest or principal payments to one or more Classes of Securities, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of the Class or Classes of Securities. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Interests for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests” and “—The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure.”

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests

Except with respect to payments made pursuant to an Optional Redemption or a redemption made in connection with a Tax Event as described under “—Optional Redemption,” on any Payment Date with respect to which any Coverage Test (as described under “Security for the Notes—The Coverage Tests”) is not met on any Determination Date, principal payments on the Notes will be made as described under “—Priority of Payments.”

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure

Upon the event of a Rating Confirmation Failure, all Interest Proceeds remaining after payment of amounts referred to in clauses (A) through (F) of “—Priority of Payments—Adjusted Proceeds” and (i) through (xii) of “—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” will be used to pay principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes in the Note Payment Sequence on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date thereafter until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. If necessary, after the foregoing payments are made out of Interest Proceeds, Principal Proceeds in accordance with clause (x) “—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds” will be used to pay principal of each Class of the Notes sequentially in order of their priority on each Payment Date until the Initial Ratings are confirmed.

Upon receipt of notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes, at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes, then the Servicer may direct and, upon such direction and in accordance with the instructions of the Servicer, the Trustee shall sell Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for the purpose in the Collection Account will be used to redeem the Notes (but only to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes) and to pay all administrative and other fees, expenses and obligations payable under the Priority of Payments. Any sale under these provisions shall be conducted in such a manner that:

- (i) after giving effect to the sale, each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied or, if any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Overcollateralization Test is not reduced;
- (ii) if the sale occurs on or after the second Payment Date, after giving effect to the sale each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied or, if any Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Interest Coverage Test is not reduced; and
- (iii) after giving effect to the sale each Collateral Quality Test is satisfied or, if any Collateral Quality Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Collateral Quality Test is not reduced.

Redemption of the Preference Shares in Connection with Mandatory Redemption of the Notes

The Preference Shares will be redeemed in whole in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Preference Share Documents on any Payment Date on which a mandatory redemption of the Notes described under "—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes" results in the payment in full of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes.

Tax Certification

As a condition to the payment on any Security in accordance with the Priority of Payments without the imposition of withholding tax, the Issuer will require certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer, the Trustee, and any paying agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments in respect of such Security under any present or future law or regulation of the United States or other jurisdiction or any present or future law or regulation of any political subdivision thereof or taxing authority therein or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under any such law or regulation. Without limiting the foregoing, as a condition to payments on any Security without U.S. federal back up withholding, the Issuer will require the delivery of properly completed and signed applicable U.S. federal income tax certifications (generally, an IRS Form W-9 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a person that is a "United States person" as defined in the Code or an appropriate IRS Form W-8 (or applicable successor form), together with any required attachments, in the case of a person that is not a "United States person" as defined in the Code).

Priority of Payments

Adjusted Proceeds

On each Payment Date (including the Stated Maturity and if funds become available after the Stated Maturity, on any date after the Stated Maturity), in accordance with the Valuation Report for the Determination Date immediately preceding such Payment Date, Interest Proceeds, to the extent of available funds in the Collection Account (excluding from such available funds any Sale Proceeds received during the Due Period relating to such Determination Date to be applied by the Trustee during the related Due Period or the immediately succeeding Due Period to the purchase of replacement Collateral Obligations and, with respect to the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations as described in the Indenture, certain Principal Proceeds with respect to which the Issuer has entered into a commitment to purchase prior to the end of such Due Period) and payments received from the Hedge Counterparties under any Hedge Agreements (after giving effect to the netting provisions thereunder), will be applied by the Trustee to pay each of the following in the order of priority set forth below:

(A) in the following order of priority, (i) taxes and registration and filing fees owed by the Co-Issuers (without limit), (ii) the fees, expenses and indemnities of the Trustee with respect to such Payment Date and any fees, indemnities and expenses of the Trustee with respect to a previous Payment Date that were not paid on a previous Payment Date, and (iii) fees, expenses and indemnities of the Collateral Administrator with respect to such Payment Date and any fees, indemnities and expenses of the Collateral Administrator with respect to a previous Payment Date that were not paid on a previous Payment Date,

(B) the fees, expenses and indemnities of the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to such Payment Date and any fees, expenses and indemnities of the Preference Shares Paying Agent that were not paid on a previous Payment Date,

(C) in the following order of priority, (i) fees and expenses of the Administrator with respect to such Payment Date and any fees and expenses of the Administrator with respect to a previous Payment Date that were not paid on a previous Payment Date, and (ii) fees and expenses of the Co-Issuers (including fees and expenses of counsel and ongoing surveillance, credit estimate, and other fees owing to the Rating Agencies) and any other person (except the Servicer) if specifically provided for in the Indenture, and to the expenses (but not fees) of the Servicer if payable under the Servicing Agreement,

(D) for the replenishment of the Expense Reimbursement Account to the extent any of the amounts referred to in clauses (A)-(C) have already been paid from funds on deposit therein (the aggregate of the amounts set forth in clauses (A), (B), (C) and (D) shall not exceed the Administrative Expense Cap),

(E) first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with “Security for the Notes—The Accounts—Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account” an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) any accrued and unpaid Senior Servicing Fee then due and payable and second, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Senior Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause, and

(F) to the payment of all amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements (if any) other than any Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments (the aggregate of clauses (A), (B), (C), (D), (E) and (F), the “Aggregate Base Fees and Expenses”).

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any amounts to be paid to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the Preference Shares pursuant to the Indenture will be delivered by the Trustee to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account in accordance with the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

Interest Proceeds, net of amounts payable on a Payment Date pursuant to clauses (A) through (F) above, represent “Adjusted Interest Proceeds” for such Payment Date. Principal Proceeds, net of amounts payable on a Payment Date pursuant to clauses (A) through (F) above, to the extent not paid or replenished from Interest Proceeds with respect to such Payment Date, represent “Adjusted Principal Proceeds” (and, together with Adjusted Interest Proceeds, “Adjusted Proceeds”) for such Payment Date.

On each Payment Date (other than a Payment Date covered by “—Stated Maturity” below) in accordance with the Valuation Report for the Determination Date immediately preceding such Payment Date, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Collection Account, to the extent of available funds therein (excluding from such available funds any Sale Proceeds received during the Due Period relating to such Determination Date to be applied by the Trustee during the related Due Period or the immediately succeeding Due Period and Principal Proceeds in an aggregate amount equal to the agreed purchase prices for additional Collateral Obligations with respect to which the Issuer has entered into a commitment to purchase prior to the end of such Due Period, but has not settled such purchase by the end of such Due Period) an amount equal to the Adjusted Proceeds and shall make disbursements in accordance with “—Interest Proceeds” and “—Principal Proceeds” set forth below.

I. Interest Proceeds.

On each Payment Date, Adjusted Interest Proceeds for such Payment Date will be applied by the Trustee in the following order of priority:

(i) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Defaulted Interest on, and any Defaulted Interest Charge with respect to, the Class A Notes;

(ii) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class B Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Defaulted Interest on, and any Defaulted Interest Charge with respect to, the Class B Notes;

(iii) if the Class A/B Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case, in the amount necessary so that all of the Class A/B Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full (Interest Proceeds to be applied pursuant to this clause (iii) before the application of any Principal Proceeds as described under “—Principal Proceeds” below on the current Payment Date);

(iv) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class C Notes (excluding Class C Deferred Interest but including interest accrued for the preceding Interest Period on Class C Deferred Interest);

(v) if the Class C Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that all of the Class C Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full (Interest Proceeds to be applied pursuant to this clause (v) before the application of any Principal Proceeds as described under “—Principal Proceeds” below on the current Payment Date);

(vi) to the payment of Class C Deferred Interest;

(vii) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class D Notes (excluding Class D Deferred Interest but including interest accrued for the preceding Interest Period on Class D Deferred Interest);

(viii) if the Class D Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that all of the Class D Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full (Interest Proceeds to be applied pursuant to this clause (viii) before the application of any Principal Proceeds as described under “—Principal Proceeds” below on the current Payment Date);

(ix) to the payment of Class D Deferred Interest;

(x) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class E Notes (excluding Class E Deferred Interest but including interest accrued for the preceding Interest Period on Class E Deferred Interest);

(xi) if the Class E Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, first, to the payment of principal of the Class E Notes, and second, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that all of the Class E Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full (Interest Proceeds to be applied pursuant to this clause (xi) before the application of any Principal Proceeds as described under “—Principal Proceeds” below on the current Payment Date);

(xii) to the payment of Class E Deferred Interest;

(xiii) if a Rating Confirmation Failure exists on the Payment Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that a Rating Confirmation is obtained, or until paid in full

(Interest Proceeds to be applied pursuant to this clause (xiii) before the application of any Principal Proceeds as described under “—Principal Proceeds” below on the current Payment Date);

(xiv) if the Interest Diversion Test is not satisfied on the related Determination Date, 50% of the remaining Interest Proceeds available after the payments pursuant to clause (xiii) above (or, if the amount necessary to cause the Interest Diversion Test to be satisfied as of such Determination Date is less than 50% of such remaining Interest Proceeds, such necessary amount), such amount to be paid first, to principal of the Class E Notes, second, to principal of the Class D Notes, third, to principal of the Class C Notes, fourth, to principal of the Class B Notes and fifth, to principal of the Class A Notes, in that order, in each case, to the extent required to satisfy the Interest Diversion Test;

(xv) first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with “Security for the Notes—The Accounts—Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account” an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) any accrued and unpaid Subordinated Servicing Fee then due and payable and second, to the payment (pro rata according to the amounts payable under clauses (x) and (y) below) to: (x) the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Subordinated Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause; and (y) pro rata to each Holder of Securities entitled thereto, the applicable Extension Bonus Payment as described under “—Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date”;

(xvi) to the payment of any remaining Administrative Expenses not paid under clauses (A) through (C) above in the respective priorities specified in clauses (A) through (C);

(xvii) to the payment, pro rata, of (i) any Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments and (ii) any Defaulted Synthetic Security Termination Payments;

(xviii) to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment of dividends pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares until the Holders of the Preference Shares have realized a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 12%;

(xix) first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with “Security for the Notes—The Accounts—Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account” of an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) the Supplemental Servicing Fee, if applicable and second, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Supplemental Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause; and

(xx) any remaining Interest Proceeds, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement;

provided that, after the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes has been paid in full, or so long as the Class A Notes are no longer Outstanding, if the Coverage Tests are at the same level as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, in lieu of payment of Interest Proceeds referred to under clauses (xviii) and (xx) above, in whole or in part on any Payment Date, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, will have the right to direct the Trustee to distribute any Eligible Equity Securities pro rata to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date to the extent that the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) is equal to or lower than the aggregate amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be due and payable on such Payment Date to such Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares. Interest Proceeds in an amount equal to the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) distributed to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to any such Payment Date will be treated for all purposes by the Issuer and the Servicer as Principal Proceeds available for distribution in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the relevant Payment Date. The amount of Interest Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date will be reduced and the amount of Principal Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date will be increased accordingly. Any payments to the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be released from the lien of the Indenture and shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

II. Principal Proceeds.

On each Payment Date, Adjusted Principal Proceeds with respect to the related Due Period other than:

(A) Principal Proceeds previously used to purchase Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security) or otherwise used as permitted under the Indenture;

(B) Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account or the Securities Lending Account; and will be applied by the Trustee in the following order of priority:

(C) Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account in an aggregate amount equal to the agreed Purchase Prices for Collateral Obligations with respect to which the Issuer has entered into a commitment before the end of the Due Period for their purchase, but has not settled the purchase by the end of the Due Period;

(i) to the payment of the amounts described in clauses (i) and (ii) with respect to Interest Proceeds, in each case to the extent such amounts have not been paid from Adjusted Interest Proceeds with respect to such Payment Date;

(ii) after the Replacement Period, first, at the discretion of the Servicer (with respect to Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations) to the purchase or funding of additional or replacement Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria and the applicable provisions of the Indenture when appropriate Collateral Obligations are available, and until such time, to the Collection Account for the purchase of Eligible Investments; and second, to the payment of the Notes as follows:

A. to pay principal of the Class A Notes until the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof has been paid in full;

B. to pay principal of the Class B Notes until the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof has been paid in full;

C. to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class C Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Class C Deferred Interest;

D. to pay principal of the Class C Notes until the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof has been paid in full;

E. to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class D Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Class D Deferred Interest;

F. to pay principal of the Class D Notes until the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof has been paid in full;

G. to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class E Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Class E Deferred Interest;

H. to pay principal of the Class E Notes until the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof has been paid in full;

(iii) if the Class A/B Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case, in the amount necessary so that all of the Class A/B Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro

forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full;

(iv) if the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes have been paid in full, to the payment of the amounts described in clause (iv) with respect to Interest Proceeds, in each case to the extent such amounts have not been paid from Adjusted Interest Proceeds with respect to such Payment Date;

(v) if the Class C Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that all of the Class C Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full;

(vi) if the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes have been paid in full, to the payment of the amounts described in clause (vii) with respect to Interest Proceeds, in each case to the extent such amounts have not been paid from Adjusted Interest Proceeds with respect to such Payment Date;

(vii) if the Class D Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that all of the Class D Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full;

(viii) if the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes have been paid in full, to the payment of the amounts described in clause (x) with respect to Interest Proceeds, in each case to the extent such amounts have not been paid from Adjusted Interest Proceeds with respect to such Payment Date;

(ix) if the Class E Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that all of the Class E Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full;

(x) if a Rating Confirmation Failure exists on the Payment Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that a Rating Confirmation is obtained, or until paid in full;

(xi) (A) if the Payment Date is a Redemption Date in the following order of priority: (i) to the payment in the Note Payment Sequence of the Redemption Prices of all of the Notes to be redeemed, (ii) to the payment of the amounts referred to in clauses (xv), (xvi) and (xvii) under “—Interest Proceeds” above (and in the same manner and order of priority) to the extent not previously paid in full thereunder, (iii) the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment of dividends pro rata to the Holders of Preference Shares until the Holders of the Preference Shares have realized a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 12%, (iv) first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with “Security for the Notes—The Accounts—Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account” of an amount equal to the product of (x) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (y) the Supplemental Servicing Fee, if applicable and second, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (x) the accrued and unpaid Supplemental Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (y) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause and (v) to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares of the Redemption Price of any Preference Shares to be redeemed; and

(B) if the Payment Date is a Special Redemption Date, to the payment in the Note Payment Sequence of principal of the Notes in an aggregate amount equal to the Special Redemption Amount, in each case until paid in full;

(xii) during the Replacement Period, all remaining Principal Proceeds to the acquisition of additional Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Indenture (and, until so applied (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security), to be deposited in the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds);

(xiii) to the extent not previously paid in full under clause (xi) above, after the Replacement Period, to the payment of the amounts referred to in clauses (xv), (xvi) and (xvii) under “—Interest Proceeds” above (and in the same manner and order of priority) to the extent not previously paid in full thereunder;

(xiv) after the Replacement Period, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment of dividends pro rata to the Holders of Preference Shares until the Holders of the Preference Shares have realized a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 12%;

(xv) after the Replacement Period, first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with “Security for the Notes—The Accounts—Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account” of an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) the Supplemental Servicing Fee, if applicable and second, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Supplemental Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause; and

(xvi) after the Replacement Period to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares.

The calculation on any Coverage Test on any Determination Date shall be made by giving effect to all payments to be made pursuant to all subclauses of the Priority of Payments as applicable, payable on the Payment Date following such Determination Date. In addition no Principal Proceeds will be used to pay a subordinated Class on a Payment Date if, after giving effect to such payment, any Coverage Test of a more senior Class of Notes is failing on such Payment Date or would fail as a result of such application of the Principal Proceeds on such Payment Date.

Any payments to the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be released from the lien of the Indenture and shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

If on any Payment Date the amount available in the Payment Account is insufficient to make the full amount of the disbursements required by the Valuation Report, the Trustee shall make the disbursements called for in the order and according to the priority under “—Interest Proceeds” and “—Principal Proceeds,” to the extent funds are available therefor.

The Trustee shall remit funds to pay Administrative Expenses of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in accordance with the Priority of Payments under “—Interest Proceeds” and “—Principal Proceeds” above, to the extent available, to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer as directed and designated in an Issuer Order (which may be in the form of standing instructions) delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before each Payment Date.

Stated Maturity.

On (i) the Stated Maturity (including an Optional Redemption Date or the date of a Tax Event Redemption or any Payment Date on which the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes is paid in full as described herein) and, if funds become available after the Stated Maturity, on any other date after the Stated Maturity, and (ii) each Payment Date (x) after the occurrence of an Event of Default and an acceleration of the Notes as described under “The Indenture—Events of Default” that has not been rescinded, or (y) after the occurrence of an Event of Default and an acceleration of the Notes as described under “The Indenture—Events of Default” that has not been rescinded and the liquidation of the Collateral as described under “The Indenture—Events of Default”, and, in each case, in accordance with the Valuation Report for the Determination Date immediately preceding such Payment Date or Stated Maturity (or in the case of an Optional Redemption, in accordance with the related redemption date statement delivered pursuant to the Indenture), available funds in the Collection Account in an amount equal to the sum of Adjusted Proceeds plus Sale Proceeds (if any), together, in the case of clause (i) above, with all available funds in the Expense Reimbursement Account, will be applied by the Trustee in the following order of priority:

- (i) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Defaulted Interest on, and any Defaulted Interest Charge with respect to, the Class A Notes;
- (ii) to pay the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A Notes;
- (iii) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class B Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Defaulted Interest on, and any Defaulted Interest Charge with respect to, the Class B Notes;
- (iv) to pay the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class B Notes;
- (v) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class C Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Class C Deferred Interest;
- (vi) to pay the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes;
- (vii) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class D Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Class D Deferred Interest;
- (viii) to pay the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class D Notes;
- (ix) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class E Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Class E Deferred Interest;
- (x) to pay the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class E Notes;
- (xi) first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with “Security for the Notes—The Accounts—Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account” of an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) the Subordinated Servicing Fee, if applicable and second, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Subordinated Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause;
- (xii) to the payment of any remaining Administrative Expenses not paid under clauses (A) through (C) above under “Adjusted Proceeds” in the respective priorities specified in clauses (A) through (C);
- (xiii) to the payment, pro rata, of any (i) Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments and any (ii) Defaulted Synthetic Security Termination Payments;
- (xiv) to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment of dividends pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares until the Holders of the Preference Shares have realized a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 12%;
- (xv) first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with “Security for the Notes—The Accounts—Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account” of an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) the Supplemental Servicing Fee, if applicable and second, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Supplemental Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause; and
- (xvi) any remaining Interest Proceeds, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement;

provided that, after the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes has been paid in full, or so long as the Class A Notes are no longer Outstanding, if the Coverage Tests are at the same level as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, in lieu of payment of Interest Proceeds referred to under clauses (xiv) and (xvi) above, in whole or in part on any Payment Date, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, will have the right to direct the Trustee to distribute any Eligible Equity Securities pro rata to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date to the extent that the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) is equal to or lower than the aggregate amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be due and payable on such Payment Date to such Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares. Interest Proceeds in an amount equal to the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) distributed to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to any such Payment Date will be treated for all purposes by the Issuer and the Servicer as Principal Proceeds available for distribution in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the relevant Payment Date. The amount of Interest Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date will be reduced and the amount of Principal Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date will be increased accordingly. Any payments to the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be released from the lien of the Indenture and shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

The amount and frequency of principal and interest payments will depend on, among other things, the extent to which the Collateral Obligations pledged to secure the Notes become items of Defaulted Collateral Obligations, are subject to early payment provisions or are retired prior to the Stated Maturity through mandatory or optional redemption, sale, maturity or other liquidation or disposition and the extent to which additional Collateral Obligations meeting the requirements specified herein are available for purchase in circumstances in which available funds are to be used for the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations or in circumstances in which the Issuer may dispose of Collateral Obligations and apply the proceeds thereof to the purchase of replacement Collateral Obligations as described herein as well as other factors, including the interest rates obtained in connection with the purchase of any such items of Collateral Obligations or any Eligible Investment which funds held in the accounts described herein may be used to purchase.

Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Senior Notes

The Senior Notes sold in Offshore Transactions may only be sold to non-U.S. Persons in reliance on Regulation S. Except as provided below, the Senior Notes sold in reliance on Regulation S will be represented by one or more Regulation S Global Notes. The Regulation S Global Notes will be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of, a nominee of the Depository for the respective accounts of the beneficial owners at Euroclear and Clearstream. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may be held only through Euroclear or Clearstream. Investors may hold their interests in a Regulation S Global Note directly through Euroclear or Clearstream, if they are participants in such systems, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in such systems. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may not be held by a U.S. Person at any time. By acquisition of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note, the purchaser thereof will be deemed to represent that it is not a U.S. Person and that, if in the future it determines to transfer such beneficial interest, it will transfer such interest only to a person whom the seller reasonably believes to be a non-U.S. Person or to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note.

The Senior Notes initially sold in non-Offshore Transactions or to U.S. Persons in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A may only be sold to (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers that are also (ii) Qualified Purchasers and, except as provided below, will be represented by one or more permanent Rule 144A Global Notes. Investors may hold their interests in the Rule 144A Global Notes directly through the Depository if they are the Depository participants, or indirectly through organizations that are the Depository participants. The Rule 144A Global Notes will be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for the Depository, and registered in the name of a nominee of the Depository.

Beneficial interests in Senior Notes represented by Global Notes will be subject to certain restrictions on transfer set forth therein and in the Indenture and such Global Notes will bear the applicable legends regarding the restrictions set forth under "Transfer Restrictions." A beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note may be transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note only upon receipt by the Trustee of a written certification from (A) the transferor (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that the transfer is being made to a person whom the transferor reasonably believes is a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is also a Qualified Purchaser and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction and (B) the transferee (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is both a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser. Beneficial interests in the Rule 144A Global Notes may be transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note only upon receipt by the Trustee of a written certification from (A) the transferor (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that the transfer is being made to a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction in accordance with Regulation S and (B) the transferee (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is a non-U.S. Person.

Any beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note that is transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note will, upon transfer, cease to be an interest in such Regulation S Global Note and become an interest in the Rule 144A Global Note and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions and other procedures applicable to beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note for as long as it remains such an interest. Any beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Note that is transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note will, upon transfer, cease to be an interest in the Rule 144A Global Note and become an interest in the Regulation S Global Note and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions and other procedures applicable to beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note for as long as it remains such an interest. No service charge will be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of Senior Notes, but the Issuer or Co-Issuers, as the case may be, or the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

Except in the limited circumstances described in this paragraph, owners of beneficial interests in Senior Notes held in the form of Global Notes will not be entitled to receive delivery of certificated Senior Notes. The Senior Notes are not issuable in bearer form. A Global Note deposited with the Depository pursuant to the Indenture shall be transferred to the beneficial owners thereof only if such transfer complies with the Indenture and either (i) the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for a Global Note or ceases to be a "Clearing Agency" registered under the Exchange Act and a successor depository is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days of such notice or (ii) as a result of any amendment to or change in, the laws or regulations of the Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which become effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or the Trustee becomes aware that it is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Senior Notes which would not be required if the Senior Notes were in definitive form. In addition, the owner of a beneficial interest in a Global Note will be entitled to receive a certificated Note in exchange for such interest if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. In the event that certificated Senior Notes are not so issued by the Issuer to such beneficial owners of interests in Global Notes, the Issuer expressly acknowledges that such beneficial owners shall be entitled to pursue any remedy that the Holders of a Global Note would be entitled to pursue in accordance with the Indenture (but only to the extent of such beneficial owner's interest in the Global Note) as if certificated Senior Notes had been issued. Payments on such certificated Senior Notes will be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a Dollar-denominated account maintained by the owner or, if a wire transfer cannot be effected, by a Dollar check delivered to the owner. See "Settlement and Clearing."

The Senior Notes will be issued in minimum denominations of U.S.$250,000 and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess thereof for each Class of Senior Notes.

Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Certificated Notes

Some of the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes, and all of the Class E Notes, will be issued in the form of one or more Certificated Notes. The Certificated Notes may only be sold to persons who are Qualified Institutional Buyers (or, solely in the case of certain Holders purchasing Certificated Notes on the Closing Date, Institutional Accredited Investors) who are also Qualified Purchasers.

The Certificated Notes may be transferred only upon (inter alia) receipt by the Trustee of a written certification (in the form provided in the Indenture) from the transferee to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is also a Qualified Purchaser, and such transfer is being made in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction. Each initial Holder as well as each transferee of the Certificated Notes is also required to provide certain tax forms and other tax-related certifications. See "Transfer Restrictions."

The Certificated Notes will be issued in minimum denominations of U.S.$250,000 and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess thereof.

Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Preference Shares

The Preference Shares will be issued in the form of one or more Certificated Preference Shares. Preference Shares may only be sold to persons who are Qualified Institutional Buyers who are also Qualified Purchasers.

Preference Shares may be transferred only upon (inter alia) receipt by the Preference Shares Paying Agent of a written certification (in the form provided in the Preference Share Documents) from the transferee to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is also a Qualified Purchaser, and such transfer is being made in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction. Each initial Holder as well as each transferee of the Preference Shares is also required to provide certain tax forms and other tax-related certifications. See “Transfer Restrictions.”

Walkers SPV Limited has been appointed and will serve as the registrar with respect to the Preference Shares (the “Share Registrar”) and will provide for (inter alia) the registration of the Preference Shares and the registration of transfers of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Preference Share Documents and the Administration Agreement in the register maintained by it. The Preference Shares will be issued in minimum numbers of 100 Preference Shares per investor and integral multiples of one Preference Share in excess thereof.

The Indenture

The following summary describes certain provisions of the Indenture. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the provisions of the Indenture.

Events of Default

“Event of Default” is defined in the Indenture as:

- (a) a default for four Business Days in the payment of any interest on the Class A Notes or the Class B Notes, or, if no Class A Notes or Class B Notes are Outstanding, a default in the payment of any interest on the Controlling Class, in each case, when it becomes payable (or in the case of a default in payment due to an administrative error or omission by the Trustee, the Irish Paying Agent or the Indenture Registrar, after seven Business Days);
- (b) a default in the payment of principal (including Deferred Interest) of any Note when the same becomes payable, at its Stated Maturity or on the Redemption Date;
- (c) the failure on any Payment Date to disburse amounts available in the Payment Account in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the failure continues for three Business Days;
- (d) on any Measurement Date for so long as any Class A Notes are Outstanding, the Overcollateralization Ratio with respect to the Class A Notes (which, for purposes of this clause (d), will be calculated without giving effect to clause 5(A) of the definition of Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator) is less than 100%;
- (e) either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral becomes an investment company under the Investment Company Act;
- (f) breach of any other covenant or other agreement of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer made in the Indenture (other than any failure to satisfy any of the Collateral Quality Tests, any of the Concentration Limitations, any of the Coverage Tests, the Interest Diversion Test, or other covenants or agreements for which a specific remedy has been provided under the Indenture) in any material respect, or the failure of any representation or warranty of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer made in the Indenture or in any certificate or other writing delivered pursuant thereto, or in connection therewith, to be correct in any material respect when made, and the breach or failure continues for 30 days after either of the Co-Issuers has actual knowledge of it or after notice to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Servicer by the Trustee or to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class by registered or certified mail or overnight courier specifying the breach or failure and requiring it to be remedied and stating that the notice is a “Notice of Default” under the Indenture;

(g) the entry of a decree or order by a court having competent jurisdiction adjudging the Issuer or the Co-Issuer as bankrupt or insolvent, or approving as properly filed a petition seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Bankruptcy Law or any other applicable law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and if the decree or order remains unstayed and in effect for 45 consecutive days;

(h) the institution by the shareholders of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of Proceedings to have the Issuer or Co-Issuer, as the case may be, adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by the shareholders of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings against the Issuer or Co-Issuer, or the filing by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under the Bankruptcy Law or any other similar applicable law, or the consent by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the filing of any such petition or to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or the taking of any action by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in furtherance of any such action; or

(i) one or more final judgments is rendered against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer that exceed in the aggregate U.S.$2,000,000 and that remain unstayed, undischarged and unsatisfied for 30 days after the judgments become nonappealable, unless adequate funds have been reserved or set aside for their payment.

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Trustee must give prompt (and in no event later than five Business Days after becoming aware of such event) notice thereof to the Noteholders.

If an Event of Default is continuing (other than an Event of Default described in clauses (e), (g) or (h) under “—Events of Default” above), the Trustee may, with consent of the Majority of the Controlling Class, and must, upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, declare the principal of all the Notes to be immediately payable by notice to the Issuer or Co-Issuer, as applicable, and the Noteholders, and upon that declaration the unpaid principal of all the Notes, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), and other amounts payable under the Indenture, shall become immediately payable. The Replacement Period shall terminate upon a declaration of acceleration (subject to re-commencement as described below). If an Event of Default described in clauses (e), (g) or (h) above under “—Events of Default” occurs, all unpaid principal, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), of all the Notes, and other amounts payable under the Indenture, shall automatically become payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Noteholder, and the Replacement Period shall terminate automatically (subject to re-commencement as described below).

At any time after the declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may rescind the declaration and its consequences if:

- (i) the Issuer or the Co-Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:
  - (A) all unpaid installments of interest and principal on the Notes then due (other than as a result of the acceleration);
  - (B) to the extent that payment of the interest is lawful, interest on any Deferred Interest and Defaulted Interest at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable;
  - (C) all Administrative Expenses of the Co-Issuers and other sums paid or advanced by the Trustee under the Indenture;
  - (D) all unpaid Senior Servicing Fees;

- (E) all amounts then payable to any Hedge Counterparty; and
- (ii) the Trustee has determined that all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of the interest on or principal of the Notes that have become due solely by the acceleration, have been (A) cured, and a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Trustee has agreed with that determination, or (B) waived as provided in the Indenture.

No rescission shall affect any subsequent default or impair any right resulting from the default. The Issuer shall not terminate any Hedge Agreement at any time after a declaration of acceleration of the Stated Maturity of the Notes has been made, unless such declaration and its consequences may no longer be rescinded and annulled in accordance with the Indenture and liquidation of the Collateral has begun.

If an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee will retain the Collateral, collect and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Collateral and the Notes and any Hedge Agreements (other than amounts received under a Hedge Agreement that are used in putting a replacement hedge in place) in the manner described under “—Priority of Payments” and the Indenture unless:

- (i) the Trustee, in consultation with the Servicer, determines (bid prices having been obtained with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one dealer, that dealer), selected and specified by the Servicer to the Trustee in writing, at the time making a market in those securities, and having computed the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security) that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would (after deduction of the reasonable expenses of the sale or liquidation) be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and the Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty and all other amounts then payable under clause (E) of “—Priority of Payments—Adjusted Proceeds”; or
- (ii) with respect to an Event of Default other than as specified in clauses (a), (b) or (d) under “Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default,” the Holders of a Super Majority of each of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes direct, subject to the provisions of the Indenture, the sale and liquidation of the Collateral, and with respect to an Event of Default specified in clauses (a), (b) or (d) under “Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default,” a Majority of the Controlling Class direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral.

During the continuance of an Event of Default, a Majority of the Controlling Class may institute and direct the Trustee in the conduct of any proceedings for any remedy available to the Trustee (including the exercise of any remedy specified in the Indenture or otherwise with respect to the Collateral) or for the exercise of any right of the Trustee under the Indenture if the direction does not conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of the Indenture and the Trustee has been indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction. Any direction to the Trustee to undertake a sale of the Collateral shall be by the Holders of Notes representing the requisite percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes specified in the Indenture. The Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability or expense unless it has received an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the liability or expense.

A Majority of the Controlling Class may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes, before the time a judgment or decree for the payment of money due has been obtained by the Trustee, waive any past Event of Default or event that, with notice or the lapse of time or both, would become an Event of Default and its consequences, except such a default:

- (i) in the payment of principal or Redemption Price of any Note or in the payment of interest (including Defaulted Interest, Deferred Interest and any interest on Defaulted Interest or Deferred Interest) on the Notes;

- (ii) with respect to a provision of the Indenture that cannot be modified or amended without the waiver or consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected by the modification or amendment;
- (iii) in the payment of amounts due to the Servicer, the Trustee or the Hedge Counterparty, which may only be waived with the consent of the affected party; or
- (iv) arising as a result of an Event of Default described in clause (e), (g) or (h) under “—Events of Default.”

No Holder of any Note may institute any proceeding with respect to the Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy under the Indenture, unless:

- (i) the Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of an Event of Default;
- (ii) the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings with respect to the Event of Default in its own name as Trustee under the Indenture and the Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with the request;
- (iii) the Trustee, for 30 days after its receipt of the notice, request and offer of indemnity, has failed to institute a Proceeding; and
- (iv) no direction inconsistent with the written request has been given to the Trustee during the 30 day period by a Majority of the Controlling Class.

If the Trustee receives conflicting or inconsistent requests and indemnity pursuant to clauses (i) through (iv) above from two or more groups of Holders of the Controlling Class, each representing less than a Majority of the Controlling Class, the Trustee shall take the action requested by the Holders of the largest percentage in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, notwithstanding any other provisions of the Indenture but subject to such Holders having offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs and liabilities that might reasonably be incurred by it in compliance with the request as provided in the Indenture.

Supplemental Indentures

Without Consent of Holders

Without the consent of the Holders of any Securities, but with the consent of the parties the consent of which is required as described in the following paragraph, the Co-Issuers, in each instance when authorized by resolutions of the respective Boards of Directors, and the Trustee, at any time and from time to time subject to the requirement provided below with respect to receipt of a Rating Confirmation, may, if, with respect to any matters described in clauses (1) through (21) below, the interests of the Holders of the Securities (except, in the case of clause (11) below, any Holders of Notes subject to the applicable Refinancing) are not materially and adversely affected thereby as provided in this section “—Without Consent of Holders”, enter into one or more indentures supplemental to the Indenture, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, for any of the following purposes:

- (1) to evidence the succession of another person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and the assumption by the successor person of the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in the Indenture and in the Securities;
- (2) to add to the covenants of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders or to surrender any right in the Indenture conferred on the Co-Issuers;
- (3) to convey, transfer, assign, mortgage or pledge any property to the Trustee, or add to the conditions, limitations or restrictions on the authorized amount, terms and purposes of the issue, authentication and delivery of the Notes;
- (4) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment under the Indenture by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of the Indenture necessary to facilitate the administration of the trusts under the Indenture by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of the Indenture;

- (5) to correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of the Indenture, or to better assure, convey and confirm to the Trustee any property subject or required to be subject to the lien of the Indenture (including all actions appropriate as a result of changes in law) or to subject to the lien of the Indenture any additional property;
- (6) to cause any provision of the Indenture to conform to, or be consistent with, the statements made with respect to such provision in this Offering Memorandum;
- (7) to modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any changes in applicable law (or its interpretation) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely on any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act (including, without limitation, to add provisions for resales and transfers of the Class E Notes and/or Preference Shares under Regulation S) or the Investment Company Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required thereunder (for the avoidance of doubt no modification of the restrictions or procedures for resales and transfers may be made for the purpose of increasing any such restrictions);
- (8) to make appropriate changes for any Class of Senior Notes to be listed on an exchange other than the ISE;
- (9) to otherwise correct any inconsistency or cure any ambiguity or errors in the Indenture;
- (10) to accommodate the issuance of the Senior Notes in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC or otherwise;
- (11) to accommodate a Refinancing effected pursuant to and in compliance with the terms of the Indenture; provided that no Holders of Notes or Preference Shares are materially adversely affected thereby, other than Holders of Notes subject to such Refinancing (and provided that the mere occurrence of the Refinancing itself shall be deemed not to constitute such a material adverse effect);
- (12) to take any appropriate action to prevent the Issuer, the Holders of Securities or the Trustee from becoming subject to withholding or other taxes, fees or assessments, or to prevent the Issuer from being treated as being engaged in a U.S. trade or business or otherwise being subject to U.S. federal, state or local income tax on a net income basis, so long as the action will not cause the Holders of any Securities to be adversely affected to any material extent by any change to the timing, character or source of the income from the Securities, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion);
- (13) to authorize the appointment of any listing agent, transfer agent, paying agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes appropriate in connection with the listing of any Class of Senior Notes on the ISE or any other stock exchange, and otherwise to amend the Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, transfer agent, paying agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes in connection with its appointment, so long as the supplemental indenture would not materially and adversely affect any Noteholder, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Servicer, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Notes;
- (14) to amend, modify, enter into or accommodate the execution of any contract relating to a Synthetic Security (including posting collateral under a Synthetic Security Agreement) if such particular action is not otherwise permitted under the Indenture;
- (15) to modify certain representations as to Collateral in the Indenture in order that it may be consistent with applicable laws or Rating Agency requirements;
- (16) to evidence any waiver by any Rating Agency as to any requirement or condition, as applicable, of the Rating Agency in the Indenture;

- (17) to facilitate the issuance of participation notes, combination notes, composite securities and other similar securities;
- (18) to facilitate hedging transactions;
- (19) to facilitate the ability of the Issuer to lend collateral pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement;
- (20) to modify any provision to facilitate an A/B Exchange, including to effect any serial designation relating to the exchange;
- (21) to provide for the issuance of additional Preference Shares to the extent permitted by the Preference Share Documents and to extend to such additional Preference Shares the benefits applicable to the Preference Shares under the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents; or
- (22) to prevent the Issuer from becoming an “investment company” as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7); provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Servicer shall have received (A) a Rating Confirmation with respect to such supplemental indenture and (B) a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental indenture, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act in reliance on the exemption provided by Rule 3a-7.

Without the consent of the Servicer, no supplemental indenture may be entered into that (x) affects the rights, powers, obligations or duties of the Servicer or (y) affects the amount or priority of any fees payable to the Servicer under the Indenture or (z) is with respect to any matters described in clauses (viii) and (ix) of “—With Consent of Holders” below.

The Trustee is authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be in the agreements, but the Trustee should not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee’s own rights, duties, liabilities or immunities under the Indenture or otherwise, except to the extent required by law. Unless notified in writing by a Majority of any Class of Securities that the Class of Securities would be materially and adversely affected, the Trustee will be entitled to receive and may rely on a certificate of the Servicer or an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) as to whether the interests of any Holder of Securities would be materially and adversely affected by any such supplemental indenture.

If any Outstanding Notes are rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee will enter into a supplemental indenture without the consent of Holders only if either (1) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the supplemental indenture or (2) the Servicer and the Holders of 100% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes the ratings on which would be reduced or withdrawn consent to the supplemental indenture. Prior to the entry into any supplemental Indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note informing them of such fact.

At the cost of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee will mail to the Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), each Rating Agency (for so long as any Notes are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency), the Collateral Administrator and each Hedge Counterparty a copy of any such proposed supplemental indenture at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee (or 60 calendar days before execution in the case of a supplemental indenture for the purpose described in clause (8) above, which shall be identified as such in a certificate of the Servicer delivered to the Trustee before the date on which such notice is required to be given).

With Consent of Holders

If the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to S&P, with the consent of (a) the Servicer if the supplemental indenture would affect the rights, powers, obligations or duties of the Servicer or would affect the amount or priority of any fees payable to the Servicer under the Indenture, (b) a Majority of each Class of Notes adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of each such Class of Notes and (c) a Majority of the Preference Shares adversely affected thereby, the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may enter into a supplemental indenture to add any provisions to, change in any manner or eliminate any of the provisions of the Indenture, or modify in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes under the Indenture.

Any proposed supplemental indenture that would also necessitate a change to the Issuer Charter may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined therein) has been passed to permit the Issuer's constitutional documents to be altered to conform with such proposed change to the Indenture as certified to the Trustee by the Issuer.

Notwithstanding anything in the Indenture to the contrary, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected thereby and the Holder of each Outstanding Preference Share adversely affected thereby, no supplemental indenture shall:

(i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date of any installment of interest on any Note or of any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares (other than in the case of any Maturity Extension in connection with an extension of the Replacement Period as described in "—Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date"), reduce the principal amount or the rate of interest on any Note, or the Default Interest Rate or the Redemption Price with respect to any Note or Preference Share, or change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Share may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, change the provisions of the Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of any Collateral to the payment of principal of or interest on Notes, or to payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares, or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which, Notes or their principal or interest are paid, or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after their Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the applicable Redemption Date);

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class or Holders of Preference Shares whose consent is required for the authorization of any such supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of the Indenture or certain defaults under the Indenture or their consequences provided for in the Indenture;

(iii) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of the Indenture with respect to any part of the Collateral, or terminate the lien on any property at any time subject hereto, or deprive the Holder of any Note of the security afforded by the lien of the Indenture;

(iv) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class whose consent is required to request the Trustee to retain the Collateral pursuant to the Indenture or to sell or liquidate the Collateral pursuant to the Indenture;

(v) modify any of the provisions of these clauses (i) through (vii) with respect to supplemental indentures, or to modify other provisions of the Indenture that expressly provide by their terms that they cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note and Preference Share affected thereby;

(vi) modify the definition of "Outstanding," "Controlling Class," or "Majority," or the Priority of Payments in the Indenture;

(vii) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of Redemption Price or of interest or principal on any Note or any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the payment of dividends or other payments on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes or Preference Shares to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of the Notes or the Preference Shares contained in the Indenture;

(viii) except as permitted under clause (22) of “—Without Consent of Holders” above, modify (A) the restrictions on the sales of Collateral Obligations described in “Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations” or (B) the Eligibility Criteria described in “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria” (and the related definitions); or

(ix) except as permitted under clause (22) of “—Without Consent of Holders” above, be entered into for the purpose of adding any additional agreements as well as any amendment, modification or waiver if the Issuer determines that the agreement, amendment, modification or waiver would, upon or after becoming effective, materially and adversely affect the rights or interest of the Holders of any Class of Securities.

Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to the above provision, the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, will mail to the Noteholders, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Collateral Administrator and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) a copy of such proposed supplemental indenture and will request any required consent from the applicable Holders of Securities to be given within the Initial Consent Period. Any consent given to a proposed supplemental indenture by the Holder of any Securities will be irrevocable and binding on all future Holders or beneficial owners of that Security, irrespective of the execution date of the supplemental indenture. If the Holders of less than the required percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the relevant Securities consent to a proposed supplemental indenture within the Initial Consent Period, on the first Business Day after the Initial Consent Period, the Trustee will notify the Issuer and the Servicer which Holders of Securities have consented to the proposed supplemental indenture and, which Holders (and, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Trustee, which beneficial owners) have not consented to the proposed supplemental indenture. If it intends to exercise its Amendment Buy-Out Option, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must so notify the Trustee in writing (which notice will designate a date for the Amendment Buy-Out to occur no earlier than 10 Business Days after the date of such notice) no later than five Business Days after the Servicer is so notified by the Trustee and the Trustee will promptly mail such notice to all Noteholders and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares). Any Non-Consenting Holder may give consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture until the 5th Business Day prior to the date of the Amendment Buy-Out designated by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and in such case will cease to be a Non-Consenting Holder for purposes of the Amendment Buy-Out. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser exercises its Amendment Buy-Out Option and purchases the applicable Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, as Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Securities, may consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture within five Business Days of the Amendment Buy-Out.

It is not necessary for any Act of Noteholders under the above provision to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if the Act or consent approves its substance.

The Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, will mail to the Noteholders, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Collateral Administrator and each Rating Agency a copy of any supplemental indenture promptly after its execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee.

Additional Issuance of Preference Shares

The Preference Share Documents will provide that, at any time during the Replacement Period, the Issuer may issue and sell additional Preference Shares and use the proceeds from such issuance and sale to purchase additional Collateral Obligations or as otherwise permitted under the Preference Share Documents and the Indenture; provided that the following conditions are met: (a) the terms of the Preference Shares issued must be identical to the terms of previously issued Preference Shares and (b) the net proceeds of any additional Preference Shares are used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations. Such additional Preference Shares may be offered and sold at prices that differ from the initial offering prices of the outstanding Preference Shares; provided that the initial offering prices of additional Preference Shares shall not be below 100% of the face amount thereof. The Issuer must cause purchases of additional Preference Shares made pursuant to an additional issuance of Preference Shares to comply individually and in the aggregate with the applicable purchase and transfer restrictions for the Preference Shares set forth herein in “Transfer Restrictions” and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Any additional Preference Shares issued will, to the extent reasonably practicable, be offered by the Issuer first to the existing Holders of the Preference Shares, in such amounts as are necessary to preserve their pro rata holdings of the Preference Shares. By its acceptance of the Preference Shares, each Holder of a Preference Share agrees that additional Preference Shares can be issued in accordance with the Preference Share Documents and the Indenture without consent of any Holder of the Securities.

Except as contemplated in connection with a Refinancing, the Indenture does not permit the issuance of additional Class A Notes, Class B Notes, Class C Notes, Class D Notes or Class E Notes or other obligations with terms similar to those of such Classes of Notes. See “—Redemption by Refinancing.”

Amendment Buy-Out

In the case of any supplemental indenture that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Securities held by such Holders of the Class of Securities whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the “Amendment Buy-Out Option”), in each case, for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; provided, however, that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser may not exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option during the Non-Call Period (i) for any reason with respect to the Class A Noteholders or (ii) with respect to Notes of any Class, in connection with a proposed amendment to reduce the rate of interest on any Securities or to change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Shares may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Securities of Non-Consenting Holders for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an “Amendment Buy-Out”); provided that if any Non-Consenting Holder holds Class II Preference Shares, such Non-Consenting Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser and such Preference Shares will, subject to the terms of the Issuer Charter, be converted into Class I Preference Shares, which shall be effected by a redemption by the Issuer of the applicable Class II Preference Shares and an issue of an equivalent number of Class I Preference Shares. By its acceptance of its Securities under the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents, as applicable, each Holder of Securities agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser. Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or beneficial owner of Securities as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option.

All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Securities set forth herein in “Transfer Restrictions” and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Notices

Notices to the Holders of the Securities will be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the registered Holders of the Notes at their respective addresses appearing in the Indenture Register and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares). If and for so long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed on the ISE and the guidelines of the exchange so require, notice will also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

Any Holder or beneficial owner of any Class A Notes may elect to acquire bond insurance, a surety bond, a credit default swap or similar credit enhancement supporting the payment of principal and/or interest on such Class A Notes on terms and conditions acceptable to such Holder or beneficial owner and at the sole expense of such Holder or beneficial owner. On or after any such acquisition, such Holder or beneficial owner may deliver notice (and if from a beneficial owner, any such notice shall include certification that such owner is a beneficial owner of the Class A Notes) to the Trustee in substantially the form set out in the Indenture, specifying the name and contact information of the insurer, surety, credit protection seller or enhancer of such Class A Notes (each, an “Insurer”). After receipt of any such notice by the Trustee, the Trustee shall copy the related Insurer on all notices, reports or other documents delivered to the Noteholders.

Certain Covenants

The Indenture contains certain covenants restricting the conduct of the Co-Issuers, including (i) restrictions on consolidations, mergers and transfers or conveyances of assets involving either Co-Issuer, (ii) restrictions on incurrence of debt other than the Notes and certain obligations incidental to the performance by each Co-Issuer of its obligations under the Indenture, (iii) restrictions on the ability of either Co-Issuer to conduct activities inconsistent with its special-purpose nature and (iv) certain restrictions on amendments of the Collateral Administration Agreement and the Servicing Agreement.

Certain Additional Issues Relating to Listing of Senior Notes

Application will be made for the Senior Notes to be admitted to the Official List of the ISE and trading on its regulated market. There can be no assurance that any such admission will be granted or maintained.

The Indenture provides that, so long as any Senior Notes remain Outstanding, the Co-Issuers shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain the listing of the Senior Notes on the regulated market of the ISE; provided that the Co-Issuers will not be required to maintain a listing on a stock exchange in the European Union if compliance with requirements of the European Commission on a member state becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Servicer.

Cancellation

All Securities that are paid in full or redeemed and surrendered for cancellation will forthwith be canceled and may not be reissued or resold.

No Gross-Up

All payments made by the Issuer under the Securities will be made without any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax unless the deduction or withholding is required by any applicable law, as modified by the practice of any relevant governmental revenue authority, then in effect. If the Issuer is so required to deduct or withhold, then the Issuer will not be obligated to pay any additional amounts in respect of the withholding or deduction.

Petitions for Bankruptcy

The Indenture provides that the Trustee, each Hedge Counterparty, the Servicer and the Holders of the Notes may not cause the Issuer or Co-Issuer to petition for bankruptcy before one year and one day have elapsed since the final payments to the Holders of all Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, including any period established pursuant to the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Standard of Conduct

The Indenture provides that, in exercising any of its or their voting rights, rights to direct and consent or any other rights as a Noteholder under the Indenture, subject to the terms and conditions of the Indenture, a Noteholder shall not have any obligation or duty to any Person or to consider or take into account the interests of any Person and shall not be liable to any Person for any action taken by it or them or at its or their direction or any failure by it or them to act or to direct that an action be taken, without regard to whether the action or inaction benefits or adversely affects any Noteholder, the Issuer, or any other Person, except for any liability to which the Noteholder may be subject to the extent the same results from the Noteholder's taking or directing an action, or failing to take or direct an action, in bad faith or in violation of the express terms of the Indenture.

Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture

The Indenture will be discharged with respect to the Collateral upon delivery to the Trustee for cancellation of all of the Notes, or, within certain limitations (including the obligation to pay interest on or principal of the Notes) upon deposit with the Trustee of funds sufficient for the payment or redemption thereof and the payment by the Co-Issuers or the Issuer, as applicable, of all other amounts due under the Indenture.

Trustee

State Street Bank and Trust Company will be the Trustee under the Indenture. The Co-Issuers, the Servicer and their respective Affiliates may maintain other banking relationships in the ordinary course of business with the Trustee and its Affiliates. The payment of the fees and expenses of the Trustee relating to the Notes is solely the obligation of the Issuer. The payment of the fees and expenses, which will be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments, is secured by a lien on the Collateral which is senior to the lien of the Holders of the Notes. The Trustee and its Affiliates may receive compensation in connection with the purchase of trust assets in certain Eligible Investments as provided in the Indenture. Eligible Investments may include assets for which the Trustee or an Affiliate of the Trustee is the obligor or depository institution or provide services. The Indenture contains provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee for any loss, liability or expense (including reasonable attorney's fees and costs) incurred without negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Indenture.

Pursuant to the Indenture, as security for the payment by the Issuer of the compensation and expenses of the Trustee and any sums the Trustee may be entitled to receive as indemnification by the Issuer, the Issuer will grant the Trustee a senior lien on the Collateral, which is senior to the lien of the holders of the Secured Obligations on the Collateral.

Pursuant to the Indenture, the Trustee may resign at any time by providing 30 days' written notice to the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, the Holders of each Class of Notes, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency, upon receipt of which the Co-Issuers shall by board resolution (or, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class) promptly appoint a successor trustee that meets the requirements set forth in the Indenture. If no successor trustee is appointed within 60 days after such notice, the resigning Trustee or any Holder of a Class of Notes may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of such successor. The Trustee may be removed (i) at any time by the Co-Issuers as directed by board resolution (or, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, by a Majority of the Controlling Class) or (ii) by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. If at any time the Trustee ceases to be an eligible trustee under the Indenture and fails to resign after written request by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class, or the Trustee becomes incapable of acting or is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, then (A) the Co-Issuers may, and at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, remove the Trustee, or (B) any Holder of a Security may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor trustee. If the Trustee is removed or becomes incapable of acting, or if a vacancy occurs in the office of the Trustee for any reason (other than resignation), the Co-Issuers shall promptly appoint a successor trustee. If the Co-Issuers fail to appoint a successor trustee within 60 days after the removal or incapability or the occurrence of the vacancy, a successor trustee may be appointed by a Majority of the Controlling Class by written instrument. If no successor trustee has been so appointed by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class, then the Trustee to be replaced or any Holder of a Security, may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, no resignation or removal of the Trustee will become effective until the acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

Governing Law

The Notes, the Indenture, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Servicing Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Subscription Agreements, the Securities Lending Agreements, and the Hedge Agreements will be governed by the laws of the State of New York. The Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares and the Issuer Charter will be governed by the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Method of Payments

Payments of principal and interest on any Note or payments on or in respect of the Preference Shares (including any Redemption Price paid on the applicable Redemption Date) and of any payments on any Notes or Preference Shares will be made to the person in whose name the related Note or Preference Share is registered 15 days before the applicable Payment Date (the "Record Date"). Payments will be made (i) in the case of a Global Note, to the Depository or its designee and to the Holder or its nominee with respect to a Definitive Security, by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a United States dollar account maintained by the Depository or its nominee with respect to a Global Note and to the Holder or its designee with respect to a Definitive Security if the Holder has provided written wiring instructions to the Trustee and, if the payment is to be made by the Irish Paying Agent, the Irish Paying Agent on or before the related Record Date or, (ii) if appropriate wiring instructions are not received by the related Record Date, by check drawn on a U.S. bank mailed to the address of the Holder in the Indenture Register (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the share register). Final payments of principal of the Notes or Preference Shares will be made against surrender of the related Notes or Preference Shares at the office designated by the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent. None of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Servicer, the Initial Purchaser, any paying agent, or any of their respective affiliates will have any responsibility or liability for any aspects of the records maintained by the Depository or its nominee or any of its direct or indirect participants (including Euroclear or Clearstream or any of their respective direct or indirect participants) relating to payments made on account of beneficial interests in a Global Note.

The Co-Issuers expect that the Depository or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal or interest in respect of a Global Note held by the Depository or its nominee, will immediately credit participants' accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the Global Note as shown on the records of the Depository or its nominee. The Co-Issuers also expect that payments by participants (i.e., direct participants) to owners of beneficial interests in a Global Note held through the participants (i.e., indirect participants) will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for the customers. The payments will be the responsibility of the participants.

For so long as any Senior Notes are listed on the ISE and the guidelines of the exchange shall so require, the Issuer and the Co-Issuers, as applicable, will have the Irish Paying Agent for the Senior Notes in Ireland and payments on the Senior Notes may be effected through the Irish Paying Agent. If the Irish Paying Agent is replaced at any time during the period, notice of the appointment of any replacement will be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement

General

Pursuant to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agent will perform various fiscal services with respect to the Preference Shares on behalf of the Issuer, including the maintenance of the Preference Shares Distribution Account and the making of distributions on the Preference Shares. The Preference Shares Paying Agent will deliver or request the Trustee to deliver all Monthly Reports and Valuation Reports prepared pursuant to the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent will deliver, or shall cause the Trustee to deliver, a copy of any other notice or information it receives from the Trustee under the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares, in each case (i) by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to each Holder of a Preference Share at the address appearing in the share register of the Issuer or (ii) with respect to delivery of Monthly Reports and Valuation Reports, by making such reports available via its internet website, initially located at <http://www.cdocalc.com/ibt/cdo/>. All information made available on the Preference Shares Paying Agent's website will be restricted and the Preference Shares Paying Agent will only provide access to such reports to those parties entitled thereto pursuant to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement. In connection with providing access to its website, the Preference Shares Paying Agent may require registration and the acceptance of a disclaimer. Questions regarding the Preference Shares Paying Agent's website can be directed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent's customer service desk at (617) 937-4175. The payment of the fees and expenses of the Preference Shares Paying Agent is solely the obligation of the Issuer. The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement contains provisions for the indemnification of the Preference Shares Paying Agent for any loss, liability or expense incurred without gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith on its part, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its function under the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

Redemption

On the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, the Issuer is scheduled to redeem the Preference Shares for a redemption price equal to all amounts distributable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares as provided under "—Priority of Payments," unless the Preference Shares have been redeemed earlier through an optional redemption as described herein or otherwise.

Governing Law

The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York. The rights of the Holders of the Preference Shares will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Redesignation of Class I Preference Shares and Class II Preference Shares

The Share Registrar will record in the Share Register which Preference Shares are held by each of the Approved Class II Preference Shareholders. Any transfer of Class II Preference Shares by an Approved Class II Preference Shareholder to any Person other than any Approved Class II Preference Shareholder will convert Class II Preference Shares into Class I Preference Shares, and any transfer of Class I Preference Shares to an Approved Class II Preference Shareholder will convert Class I Preference Shares into Class II Preference Shares, and each such conversion shall be effected by a redemption by the Issuer of the applicable converting share and an issue of an equivalent number of converted shares, subject to the Issuer Charter.

Distribution of Eligible Equity Securities

If the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, desires to make distributions of Eligible Equity Securities on any Payment Date in lieu of Interest Proceeds that are otherwise available for distribution to the Holders of Preference Shares on such Payment Date pursuant to the Priority of Payments, the Servicer will notify the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent not later than 20 calendar days prior to such Payment Date and provide the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding on the Record Date or promptly thereafter, but in any event no later than two Business Days after the Record Date, to each Holder of the Preference Shares registered as such on the Record Date for such Payment Date) with (i) details of the Eligible Equity Securities to be distributed, (ii) the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities determined as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date, (iii) any other information considered necessary by the Servicer in connection with such proposed distribution and (iv) any information as otherwise required by the Trustee and/or the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to such proposed distribution. The Preference Shares Paying Agent will then mail such materials, within two Business Days of its receipt thereof from the Servicer, to each registered Holder of Preference Shares on the Record Date for such Payment Date along with a form of notice and consent (in a form attached to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement) seeking the written consent of each such Holder of Preference Shares to distribute such Eligible Equity Securities to such Holder in lieu of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such Payment Date. Each Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares must deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent a written consent (which consent will be irrevocable) not later than five Business Days prior to such Payment Date. If any Holder of Preference Shares does not timely deliver its written consent to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in the manner set forth in such notice indicating its consent to the receipt of such Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of a distribution of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such Payment Date, such Holder will be deemed to have not given its consent and shall not be a Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date. On each applicable Payment Date (or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable), Eligible Equity Securities will be distributed pro rata to each Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date. Each Holder of Preference Shares that is not a Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares (and, for the avoidance of doubt, each Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares to the extent the Market Value as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date of the pro rata portion of Eligible Equity Securities distributed to it on such Payment Date is less than the pro rata portion of the Interest Proceeds that it would have received on such Payment Date had the Eligible Equity Securities not been distributed on such Payment Date) on any applicable Payment Date will receive a distribution of Interest Proceeds to the extent available in accordance with the Priority of Payments on such Payment Date. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

Amendment

Without the Consent of Holders. The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement may be amended by the parties thereto, without the consent of the Holders of any Preference Shares, for the purpose of curing any ambiguity, or of curing, correcting or supplementing any defective provision contained therein, or in regard to matters or questions arising under the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement as the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may deem necessary or desirable and which shall not materially adversely affect the interests of Holders of the Preference Shares. In addition, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement may be amended without the consent of any Holders of the Preference Shares and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Preference Shares in order to prevent the Issuer from becoming an “investment company” as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7); provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such amendment, each of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Servicer shall have received a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such amendment, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act in reliance on the exemption provided by Rule 3a-7.

With the Consent of Holders. Unless otherwise set forth in the preceding paragraph, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement may be amended with the consent of Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares materially and adversely affected thereby.

Any amendment to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement must be in writing, executed by each party thereto. The Preference Shares Paying Agent is entitled to receive, and (subject to the terms of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an opinion of counsel, consent or certificate of the Issuer in determining whether or not any proposed amendment is permitted under Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

Any amendment to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement that would also necessitate a change to the Issuer Charter may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Issuer Charter) has been passed to permit the Issuer Charter to be altered to conform with such proposed amendment.

The Issuer Charter

The following summary describes certain provisions of the Issuer Charter relating to the Preference Shares that are not referred to elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum.

Voting Rights

Other than as provided below, only the holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares shall have the right to receive notice of, attend at and vote as a shareholder of the Issuer at any general meeting of the Issuer. Every holder of an Issuer Ordinary Share present at any meeting shall, on a show of hands, be entitled to one vote and, on a poll, shall be entitled to one vote per Issuer Ordinary Share held by such holder.

Other than as provided below, the Holders of the Preference Shares shall have the right to receive notice of, attend at and vote as a shareholder of the Issuer at any general meeting of the Issuer only in respect of a resolution which relates to any circumstance or matter which under the Indenture, the Preference Share Documents or the Servicing Agreement can take place or occur only at the direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares (a “Preference Share Vote”). Every Holder of Preference Shares present shall, on a show of hands, be entitled to one vote and, on a poll, shall be entitled to one vote per Preference Share held by such Holder except that, in relation to a Preference Share Vote relating to certain matters (as set out in the Indenture) Preference Shares held by certain Holders (as set out in the Indenture), shall be ignored.

The Class II Preference Shares will have total control with respect to the appointment and removal of the directors of the Issuer as long as the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date is higher than the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date. If the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date is lower than or equal to the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date, only the Issuer Ordinary Shares will be entitled to vote with respect to the appointment and removal of the directors of the Issuer.

Liquidation

In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Issuer:

(i) the holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares at the time outstanding will be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Issuer available for distribution to shareholders, before any distribution of assets is made to Holders of the Preference Shares, an amount equal to U.S.$2.00 in respect of each Issuer Ordinary Share held by each such holder; and

(ii) the Holders of the Preference Shares at the time Outstanding will be entitled to the balance of the assets of the Issuer available for distribution to shareholders, after distribution of amounts due to holders of Issuer Ordinary Shares under the above subparagraph, pro rata according to the number of Preference Shares held by each such holder.

If the assets available for distribution to holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares are not sufficient to pay to such holders U.S.$2.00 in respect of each Issuer Ordinary Share, the available assets shall be distributed to holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares pro rata according to the number of Issuer Ordinary Shares held by each such holder.

Transfer

The rights of a Holder of a Preference Share to transfer such Preference Share are subject to restrictions set out in the Preference Share Documents and as described in “Transfer Restrictions.”

Petitions for Bankruptcy

Each Holder of a Preference Share will be required to agree (or be deemed to have agreed) not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The Securities will be issued and sold for Cash on the Closing Date. The net proceeds from the issuance of such Securities on the Closing Date, prior to the deduction of transaction expenses, are expected to equal approximately U.S.$454,837,350 and will be used by the Issuer to:

- purchase a portfolio of Collateral Obligations;
- fund the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account to cover any future draws on Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans;
- enter into any Hedge Agreements, as applicable;
- enter into Synthetic Security Agreements (and correspondingly to fund the related accounts);
- repay amounts owed to the Pre-Closing Parties in connection with the financing of the Issuer’s pre-closing acquisition of Collateral Obligations;
- fund the Closing Date Expense Account;
- pay certain expenses related to the transaction; and
- undertake certain related activities.

SECURITY FOR THE NOTES

The Notes and the Issuer’s obligations under any Hedge Agreements and the Servicing Agreement will be secured by the following:

- (i) the Collateral Obligations and all Workout Assets;

(ii) the Custodial Account, the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Interest Reserve Account and the Securities Lending Account (such accounts, collectively, the “Issuer Accounts”), Eligible Investments purchased with funds on deposit in the Issuer Accounts, and all income from funds in the Issuer Accounts;

(iii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account (and together with the Issuer Accounts, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account and the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the “Accounts”) and assets included therein, subject to the terms of the related Synthetic Security (provided, however, that any such rights in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be held in trust by the Trustee (or securities intermediary) first to secure the Issuer’s payment obligations to the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty and second for the benefit of the Secured Parties);

(iv) the Servicing Agreement, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, the Securities Lending Agreements and all Securities Lending Collateral and the Securities Lending Account, the Hedge Agreements as set forth in the Indenture and all Collateral securing the Hedge Counterparty’s obligations thereunder including, without limitation, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account and the Collateral Administration Agreement, to the extent of any rights of the Issuer therein;

(v) all Cash or money delivered to the Trustee (or its bailee);

(vi) all securities, investments, investment property, instruments, money, general intangibles, chattel paper and agreements of any nature in which the Issuer has an interest (except for money, securities and investments in the Issuer’s bank account in the Cayman Islands), including any part thereof which consists of general intangibles or supporting obligations (each as defined in the UCC) relating thereto; and

(vii) all proceeds with respect to the foregoing (collectively, the “Collateral”).

For the avoidance of any doubt, Collateral will exclude (i) amounts released from the Trustee’s lien in connection with certain Synthetic Securities, Hedge Agreements and Securities Lending Agreements in accordance with the Indenture and (ii) any Excluded Property.

Purchase of Collateral Obligations

The Indenture will provide that the Servicer will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Issuer to purchase or enter into binding commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations that meet certain minimum amounts and characteristics. The composition of the portfolio of Collateral Obligations will be determined by the selections of the Servicer designed to meet the Eligibility Criteria, the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests and the requirements provided in paragraphs (i) through (ix) in “—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations.” See “—Eligibility Criteria,” “—The Collateral Quality Tests,” “—The Coverage Tests” and “—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations.”

On the Interim Target Date (assuming for these purposes (1) settlement in accordance with customary settlement procedures in the relevant markets of all agreements entered into by the Issuer to acquire items of Collateral Obligation scheduled to settle on or following such date and (2) that each such item or Collateral Obligation is pledged as security for the Notes pursuant to this Indenture), the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee and Moody’s a statement that the Interim Target Test is satisfied (and calculations thereof in reasonable detail). Failure to satisfy the Interim Target Test on the Interim Target Date (any such failure an “Interim Target Failure”) will not constitute an Event of Default; provided that upon the occurrence of an Interim Target Failure the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall submit to Moody’s a plan with respect to which the Servicer certifies that, in the Servicer’s reasonable business judgment is sufficient to attain compliance with each applicable Collateral Quality Test by the Ramp-Up Completion Date.

The Servicer expects that, by the end of the Ramp-Up Period, the Issuer will have purchased or committed to purchase Collateral Obligations having an Aggregate Principal Balance of approximately U.S.$510,000,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments or principal prepayments made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date).

Eligibility Criteria

On any date during the Replacement Period (and, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, on any date after the Replacement Period), so long as no Event of Default is continuing, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to apply Principal Proceeds (together with Interest Proceeds, but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on Collateral Obligations) to purchase Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security) if the conditions specified in the Indenture are satisfied. No obligations may be purchased unless each of the conditions in the following clauses (1) through (12) (the "Eligibility Criteria") is satisfied as evidenced by a certificate of the Servicer as of the date the Issuer commits to make the purchase, in each case after giving effect to the purchase and all other purchases and sales previously or simultaneously committed to:

- (1) the obligation is a Collateral Obligation;
- (2) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period:
  - (A) each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied and, if the commitment is made on or after the second Payment Date, each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied; or
  - (B) if any such Coverage Test is not satisfied, both:
    - (i) the extent of satisfaction of the Coverage Test is not reduced; and
    - (ii) the Collateral Obligation is being purchased with Principal Proceeds other than:
      - (x) Principal Proceeds received in respect of a Defaulted Collateral Obligation; or
      - (y) Principal Proceeds received in respect of a Workout Asset that has been received in exchange for a Defaulted Collateral Obligation;
- (3) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Diversity Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (4) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (5) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, each of the limits in the definition of "Concentration Limitations" is satisfied or, if any such limit is not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (6) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Spread Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (7) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (8) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Life Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (9) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (10) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

- (11) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the S&P CDO Monitor Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced; provided, however, that this Eligibility Criterion (11) shall not apply either to the application of the proceeds from the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation, Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset or to the application of Principal Proceeds in respect of Defaulted Collateral Obligations; and
- (12) for any date occurring after the Replacement Period:
- (A) each Coverage Test is satisfied and the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
  - (B) each Collateral Quality Test (other than the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test) is maintained or improved and the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied;
  - (C) each Concentration Limitation is maintained or improved and the Aggregate Principal Balance of all CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations do not exceed 7.5% of the Maximum Amount;
  - (D) the stated maturity of such Collateral Obligation is equal to or earlier than the stated maturity of the Collateral Obligation being the source of the Unscheduled Principal Payments or the Credit Risk Obligations or Credit Improved Obligation being the source of Sale Proceeds, as applicable;
  - (E) the S&P Rating of such Collateral Obligation is at least equal to the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation being the source of the Unscheduled Principal Payments or of the Credit Risk Obligations or Credit Improved Obligation being the source of Sale Proceeds, as applicable;
  - (F) the Scenario Default Rate for all Outstanding Classes of Notes is no worse following such purchase; and
  - (G) the current Moody's Ratings on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes are no lower than their Initial Rating and the current Moody's Ratings on the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes are no lower than one subcategory below their Initial Rating.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall not direct the Trustee to purchase any Collateral Obligation following receipt by the Servicer of notice of removal or resignation pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement until a successor servicer is appointed pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement. See "The Servicing Agreement."

The Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, exchange a Collateral Obligation for another Collateral Obligation in an A/B Exchange.

Cash on deposit in the Collection Account may be held in Eligible Investments in accordance with this "Eligibility Criteria" section pending the application thereof to purchase Collateral Obligations.

The Indenture provides that any sale or purchase by the Issuer of a Collateral Obligation shall be conducted on an arm's length basis and, if effected with the Servicer or a person Affiliated with the Servicer or any fund or account for which the Servicer or an Affiliate of the Servicer acts as investment adviser, shall be effected in accordance with the requirements the Servicing Agreement on terms no less favorable to the Issuer than would be the case if the person were not so Affiliated.

The Collateral Quality Tests

The Collateral Quality Tests will be used primarily as criteria for purchasing Collateral Obligations. See "—Eligibility Criteria" above and "—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations" below. The Collateral Quality Tests are described below.

Measurement of the degree of compliance with the Collateral Quality Tests will be required on each Measurement Date on and after the Ramp-Up Completion Date.

The Diversity Test

The “Diversity Test” is a test that will be satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Diversity Score as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score and, with respect to the Interim Target Date, will be satisfied if the Diversity Score equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score multiplied by the Interim Diversity Factor. For purposes of calculating the Diversity Test, any Structured Finance Obligation that is (i) a collateralized loan obligation (including any collateralized loan obligation primarily backed by other collateralized loan obligations), (ii) a Synthetic Security with respect to which the Reference Obligation is a collateralized loan obligation or (iii) a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, will be disregarded.

Weighted Average Life Test

The “Weighted Average Life Test” is a test that is satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the greater of (a) the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and May 1, 2018 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date and (b) four years.

Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test

The “Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test” is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Moody’s Minimum Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 44.50%.

Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test

The “Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test” is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the S&P Recovery Rate for each Class of Notes is greater than or equal to: (i) with respect to the Class A Notes, 58.50%; (ii) with respect to the Class B Notes, 61.75%; (iii) with respect to the Class C Notes, 65.00%; (iv) with respect to the Class D Notes, 67.75%; and (v) with respect to the Class E Notes, 70.75%.

Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test

The “Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test” is a test that is satisfied if, as of any Measurement Date, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon equals or exceeds 7.5%.

Weighted Average Spread Test

The “Weighted Average Spread Test” is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Weighted Average Spread.

Weighted Average Rating Factor Test

The “Weighted Average Rating Factor Test” is a test that is satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor of the Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) as of the Measurement Date is less than or equal to the Maximum Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor.

S&P CDO Monitor Test

The “S&P CDO Monitor Test” is a test that is satisfied on any Measurement Date if, after giving effect to the sale of a Collateral Obligation or the purchase of a Collateral Obligation, each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is positive. The S&P CDO Monitor Test shall be considered to be improved if each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is at least equal to the corresponding Note Class Loss Differential of the Current Portfolio. The S&P CDO Monitor Test is not required to be satisfied or improved upon the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation and the application of the related Sale Proceeds to purchase additional Collateral Obligations. For purposes of the S&P CDO Monitor Test:

- (i) the S&P Rating of any S&P Unrated DIP Loan shall be “CCC”; and
- (ii) the S&P Industry Classification for a Synthetic Security shall be that of the related Reference Obligation and not the Synthetic Security.

The “Note Class Loss Differential” with respect to any Measurement Date and any Class of Notes that is rated by S&P, the rate calculated by subtracting the Scenario Default Rate for the Class from the then-applicable Note Break-Even Loss Rate for the Class of Notes.

The “Note Break-Even Loss Rate” with respect to each Class of Notes that is rated by S&P, the maximum percentage of defaults that the Current Portfolio or Proposed Portfolio can sustain (as determined by S&P through application of the S&P CDO Monitor) and nevertheless sufficient funds will remain for the payment of principal of the Class of Notes in full by its Stated Maturity and the timely payment of interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes and the ultimate payment of interest on the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes using S&P’s assumptions on recoveries, defaults and timing, and taking into account the Priority of Payments.

On the Ramp-Up Completion Date, S&P shall provide sixteen (16) different S&P CDO Monitors to the Issuer, the Servicer, the Collateral Administrator and the Trustee, such S&P CDO Monitors corresponding to portfolios with weighted average spreads of 2.00%, 2.10%, 2.20%, 2.30%, 2.40%, 2.50%, 2.60%, 2.70%, 2.80%, 2.90%, 3.00%, 3.10%, 3.20%, 3.30%, 3.40% and 3.50%, respectively. After the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Servicer, by written notice to the Collateral Administrator, the Trustee and S&P, will elect which S&P CDO Monitor shall apply initially and, thereafter, on two Business Days written notice prior to the Measurement Date to the Collateral Administrator, Trustee and S&P, the Servicer will elect to have a different S&P CDO Monitor apply, such S&P CDO Monitor corresponding to a portfolio with a weighted average spread that is equal to or lower than the Weighted Average Spread of the Floating Rate Obligations in the Collateral at the time of such election; provided, that if the Weighted Average Spread of the Floating Rate Obligations in the Collateral at the time of such election is less than 2.00%, then the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will request S&P to provide a different S&P CDO Monitor which has a weighted average spread equal to or lower than the Weighted Average Spread of the Floating Rate Obligations in the Collateral. For the avoidance of doubt, the selection of an S&P CDO Monitor as described in this paragraph shall be separate and independent of any election of the Servicer with respect to the Ratings Matrix.

The Coverage Tests

General

The Coverage Tests will be used to determine, among other things, whether Notes will be redeemed in certain circumstances as described under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments” and whether additional Collateral Obligations may be acquired as described under “—Eligibility Criteria.” There will not be any Coverage Test applicable to the Preference Shares.

The Overcollateralization Tests

The “Overcollateralization Tests” will consist of the Class A/B Overcollateralization Test, the Class C Overcollateralization Test, the Class D Overcollateralization Test and the Class E Overcollateralization Test.

Each Overcollateralization Test will be satisfied with respect to any Class of Notes on any Measurement Date if, as of such Measurement Date, the Overcollateralization Ratio for the Class is at least equal to the specified required level for the Class indicated in the table in “Summary of Terms—The Overcollateralization Tests.”

The Overcollateralization Ratio, with respect to each Class of Notes on any Measurement Date, is referred to as an “Overcollateralization Ratio,” and is the ratio calculated by dividing:

- (i) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator; by

- (ii) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of such Class of Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it (including any Deferred Interest on the Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it); provided that the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes shall constitute one Class of Notes for purposes of the Overcollateralization Ratio relating to such Classes of Notes.

The “Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator” is, on any date, the sum of:

- (1) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (other than any Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, any Deep Discount Obligations, any Collateral Obligations loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement with respect to which an “event of default” (under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing and any Structured Finance Obligation that has an overcollateralization-based event of default with ratings based haircuts (including CCC excess securities haircuts)); plus
- (2) unpaid Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal (excluding any unpaid Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal in respect of Non-Performing Collateral Obligations); plus
- (3) the Aggregate Principal Balance of any Eligible Investments that were purchased with Principal Proceeds and the amount of Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account; plus
- (4) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Eligible Investments on deposit in a Securities Lending Account that relate to a Securities Lending Agreement with respect to which an “event of default” (under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing; plus
- (5) with respect to Collateral Obligations that are Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, Deep Discount Obligations or Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, the amount determined by using one of the following methods applicable to such type of Collateral Obligation; provided that if a Collateral Obligation falls within more than one of such types, the Issuer will be required to use the method that results in the smallest amount:
  - (A) with respect to any Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, an amount equal to the product of (i) the CCC+/Caa1 Excess Market Value Percentage, multiplied by (ii) the Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations;
  - (B) with respect to any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, the aggregate of the Applicable Collateral Obligation Amounts for all included Non-Performing Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations that have been held by the Issuer for more than three years, which shall be deemed to be zero for purposes of this clause (B)); and
  - (C) with respect to any Deep Discount Obligations, the Aggregate Purchase Price Amount for all Deep Discount Obligations.

“Applicable Collateral Obligation Amount” for any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation means:

- (1) the lesser of (x) the Market Value Percentage of the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation and (y) the Applicable Percentage for the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation multiplied by:
- (2) if the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation is:
  - (A) any Pledged Obligation other than those in clauses (B) through (D) below, the outstanding principal amount of the Pledged Obligation as of the relevant Measurement Date;
  - (B) a Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in the Synthetic Security;
  - (C) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its Principal Balance including any unfunded amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer’s obligation to fund the unfunded amount); and
  - (D) any PIK Security, its Principal Balance.

As used in the calculation of Market Value Percentage of the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation, the Principal Balance of any Defaulted Collateral Obligation shall be, if the Defaulted Collateral Obligation is:

- (i) any Pledged Obligation other than those in clauses (ii) through (iv) below, the outstanding principal amount of the Pledged Obligation as of the relevant Measurement Date;
- (ii) a Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in the Synthetic Security;
- (iii) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its Principal Balance including any unfunded amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer's obligation to fund the unfunded amount); and
- (iv) any PIK Security, its Principal Balance.

The Interest Coverage Tests

The Interest Coverage Test in respect of each Class of Notes (each an “Interest Coverage Test”) is a test the first Measurement Date for which will be on the second Payment Date and that is satisfied with respect to any specified Class of Notes if, as of the second Payment Date and any Measurement Date thereafter on which any Notes remain Outstanding, the Interest Coverage Ratio equals or exceeds the applicable required level specified in the table in “Summary of Terms— The Interest Coverage Tests.”

The “Interest Coverage Ratio” with respect to any specified Class of Notes on any Measurement Date, the ratio calculated by dividing:

- (i) the sum of:
  - (A) the Interest Proceeds received or scheduled to be received with respect to the Due Period in which the Measurement Date occurs; minus
  - (B) Aggregate Base Fees and Expenses on the related Payment Date; by
- (ii) all accrued and unpaid interest on such Class of Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it (excluding any Deferred Interest on the Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it) on the related Payment Date; provided that the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes shall constitute one Class of Notes for purposes of the Interest Coverage Ratio relating to such Classes of Notes.

For purposes of the Interest Coverage Ratio, only the amount of any interest payment (including any “gross up” payment) on any Collateral Obligation in excess of any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction on any date of determination shall be included in Interest Proceeds.

Interest Diversion Test

The “Interest Diversion Test” is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date on which any Notes remain Outstanding, if the Interest Diversion Ratio as of such Measurement Date is at least equal to 106.00%.

Ramp-Up

In connection with the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period or enter into commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period for purchase on or as soon as practicable thereafter (not to exceed 60 days thereafter), in each case, for inclusion in the Collateral so that the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator with respect to the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes is at least U.S.$510,000,000.

No Collateral Obligations may be purchased prior to the Ramp-Up Completion Date unless immediately following the purchase of any Collateral Obligation (as certified by the Servicer in writing), the remaining funds in the Collection Account, after giving effect to such purchase, are sufficient as of the date of determination to purchase Collateral Obligations for inclusion in the Collateral so that the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator with respect to the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes is at least U.S.$510,000,000 (taking into account the Collateral Obligations already part of the Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments or principal prepayments made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date)).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of the Indenture, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase a Collateral Obligation to be included in the Collateral, such commitment initially not to exceed 60 days, and at the time of the commitment the Collateral Obligation complied with the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and the requirements set forth under “—Ramp-Up,” the Issuer may consummate the purchase of the Collateral Obligation notwithstanding that the Collateral Obligation fails to comply with the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and the requirements set out above on the date of settlement.

The Issuer will use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, or to enter into binding agreements to purchase, Collateral Obligations by the Ramp-Up Completion Date, that, together with the Collateral Obligations purchased on or before the Closing Date and then held by the Issuer, will satisfy, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments or principal prepayments made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date), the Collateral Quality Tests, the Concentration Limitations, the criteria set forth in the Indenture and the Overcollateralization Tests.

No later than 10 Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer shall deliver a Ramp-Up Notice to each of the Rating Agencies and request in writing that each of S&P and Moody’s confirm in writing within 25 days of delivery of such Ramp-Up Notice that it has not reduced or withdrawn the Initial Ratings; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to request a Rating Confirmation from Moody’s if, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date Moody’s has received, as described below, an accountant’s certificate confirming (i) the Issuer is in compliance with each of the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests and the Concentration Limitations and (ii) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator of the Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owns or has committed to purchase is at least equal to U.S.$510,000,000. In connection with such request or, in the case of Moody’s, in lieu of such request, the Issuer shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies identifying the Collateral Obligations then included in the Collateral and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies, together with the delivery of a report (and, with respect to S&P, the Excel Default Model Input File (if applicable)) substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, an accountants’ certificate:

(i) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread and recovery rate for each item of original Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included in the Collateral, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein;

(ii) confirming that as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date:

- (1) each of the Coverage Tests are satisfied;
- (2) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator of Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date is at least equal to the Maximum Amount; and
- (3) the Collateral Obligations comply with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests, the Concentration Limitations and the criteria set forth in “—Eligibility Criteria;” and

(iii) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements.

If a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to the Indenture and as described in “Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes upon Rating Confirmation Failure.”

Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations

Pursuant to the Indenture and so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, direct the Trustee to sell (and the Trustee will sell) any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset if the sale meets the requirements in paragraphs (i) through (ix) below:

- (i) Credit Risk Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Risk Obligation at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Risk Obligation in accordance with such direction. Following any sale of a Credit Risk Obligation pursuant to the Indenture, at the direction of the Servicer during the Replacement Period, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (to the extent the purchase is in the best interest of the Issuer) meeting the Eligibility Criteria with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Sale Proceeds received by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral Obligation sold. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount.
- (ii) Credit Improved Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Improved Obligation if either:
  - (1) during the Replacement Period, the Servicer has identified in writing before the sale one or more specific manners in which it will be able, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria and the requirements set forth in paragraph (ix) below, to cause the Issuer to use the Sale Proceeds (it being understood that such identification shall not be considered either a requirement or an assurance that any specified purchase will be consummated) to purchase one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Credit Improved Obligation by the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest) which in aggregate will result in (i) the Collateral Quality Tests, the Interest Coverage Tests, the Overcollateralization Tests and the Concentration Limitations herein being satisfied or if one or more of such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests or Concentration Limitations are not satisfied, the degree of compliance therewith being improved, (ii) the quality of the total portfolio of Collateral Obligations as measured by such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests and Concentration Limitations being improved on a net basis in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer and (iii) in the case of each of clause (i) and (ii), any other Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests or Concentration Limitations not being violated or, in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, the likelihood of such violation in the future not being significantly increased; and
  - (2) after the Replacement Period, the Sale Proceeds received in respect of the Credit Improved Obligation are at least equal to its Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest); and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Improved Obligation in accordance with such direction.

- (iii) Non-Performing Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction. Non-Performing Collateral Obligations may be sold regardless of price.
- (iv) Non-qualifying Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation (the “Non-Qualifying Collateral Obligation”) at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell that obligation in accordance with such direction.

- (v) Withholding Tax Sales. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation subject to withholding tax at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction.
- (vi) Optional Redemption. After the Issuer has notified the Trustee of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all or a portion of the Collateral Obligations as contemplated therein if (A) the requirements in respect of an Optional Redemption under the Indenture have been satisfied and (B) the independent certified public accountants appointed pursuant to the Indenture have confirmed the calculations contained in any required certificate furnished by the Servicer pursuant to the Indenture's Note redemption procedure provisions. After the Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares have requested an Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Indenture, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all of the remaining Collateral Obligations (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to clause (i) under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares") or a portion of the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous written request of Holders of the Preference Shares (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to clause (ii) under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares") and the Trustee shall sell the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.
- (vii) Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Servicer has received notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, direct the Trustee to sell Collateral Obligations as contemplated in the Indenture and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.
- (viii) Workout Assets. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Workout Asset at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and regardless of price, and the Trustee shall sell the Workout Assets in accordance with such direction.
- (ix) Supervening Requirement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Issuer (at the direction of the Servicer or otherwise) will not acquire or dispose of a Collateral Obligation or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer or otherwise, may direct the Trustee to sell any CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligation or Deep Discount Obligation only (a) if it constitutes Credit Risk Obligation or Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or (b) in connection with the Optional Redemption as set out in paragraph (vi) above. The Trustee will have no obligation to monitor compliance by the Issuer or the Servicer with respect to the requirement set out in this paragraph.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall not direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation (other than the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation or a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation pursuant to a sale that meets the requirements in paragraph (i) or (iii) above, as applicable) following receipt by the Servicer of notice of removal pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement until a successor servicer is appointed pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement. See "The Servicing Agreement."

Certain Determinations Relating to Collateral Obligations

The Indenture provides that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained therein, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have purchased any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer enters into a contract to purchase, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to receive such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have acquired, granted or delivered, as the case may be, such Collateral Obligations on such date.

The Indenture provides that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained therein, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer enters into a contract to sell, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to sell, and requiring the purchaser to purchase, such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold such Collateral Obligations on such date.

Under the circumstances described in the two preceding paragraphs, if the transaction contemplated by the contract, commitment letter, confirmation or due bill referred to therein does not settle on or before the 60th day following the scheduled settlement date (the “Deadline”), the deemed purchase or sale shall be deemed not to have occurred; provided, however, that the Servicer shall have the right to extend the Deadline for an additional period (not to exceed an additional 60 days) by notice to the Trustee, which notice shall include the Servicer’s certification to the effect that the Servicer believes that the settlement shall occur on or before the extended Deadline.

Scheduled distributions with respect to any Pledged Obligation shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Indenture.

Certain Conditions Relating to Synthetic Securities

Each Synthetic Security that is a credit default swap the Reference Obligations of which are Loans shall require each such Reference Obligation to be denominated and payable in U.S. Dollars.

The maturity, interest rate, and other non credit characteristics of a Synthetic Security may be different from the Reference Obligations to which the credit risk of the Synthetic Security relates.

No Synthetic Security shall require the Issuer to make any payment to the Synthetic Security Counterparty after its initial purchase other than any payments represented by the release of any cash collateral posted by the Issuer from the Collection Account to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account simultaneously with the Issuer’s purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of the posted cash collateral. Collateral may be posted only to a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. No Synthetic Security shall result in the Issuer being a “buyer” of credit protection.

The term Synthetic Security shall not include any Structured Finance Obligation or any Participation, but the Reference Obligation of a Synthetic Security may be a Structured Finance Obligation.

Each Synthetic Security Agreement shall contain appropriate limited recourse and non petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in the Indenture.

The ownership or disposition of any Synthetic Security (without regard to the Issuer’s other activities) must not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

Unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any “deliverable obligation” that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any “credit event” under any proposed Synthetic Security must not provide that its transfer to the Issuer is subject to obtaining any consents and must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such “deliverable obligation” is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any “credit event”) as a Collateral Obligation and satisfy the Concentration Limitations under the Indenture, except that such “deliverable obligation” may constitute a Defaulted Collateral Obligation when delivered upon a “credit event” and if the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security is a Senior Secured Loan then the “deliverable obligation” under the Synthetic Security must also be a Senior Secured Loan.

No Synthetic Security may provide for any event other than bankruptcy or a failure to pay as a “credit event.”

No Synthetic Security may provide for termination by the Synthetic Security Counterparty at any time (i) after a declaration of acceleration of Maturity of the Notes has been made upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, unless such declaration and its consequences may no longer be rescinded and annulled in accordance with the Indenture and liquidation of the Collateral has begun or (ii) upon an Optional Redemption, unless the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date has passed and no notice of withdrawal has been issued.

For purposes of the Coverage Tests and the Interest Diversion Test, unless the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied in respect of any proposed alternative treatment, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of calculating compliance with the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), the Coverage Tests and the Interest Diversion Test, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligations.

For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligations.

With respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, for purposes of: (i) calculating compliance with the Diversity Test, the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test, and the Concentration Limitations (other than limits relating to payment characteristics and except for clause 15, and the exception thereto, of the definition of "Concentration Limitations"), and all related definitions, and (ii) any other provision or definition of the Indenture involving a determination with respect to a Reference Obligation, the characteristics of such Reference Obligations shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct interest of the Issuer in each such Reference Obligation in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation. In addition, each Reference Obligation under such Synthetic Security shall be assigned a Moody's Rating Factor equal to the sum of the Moody's Rating Factor of (i) the related Reference Obligor, (ii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty of such Synthetic Security and (iii) the Synthetic Security Collateral of such Synthetic Security. In addition, the Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate in respect of a Synthetic Security referencing multiple Reference Obligations pursuant to this paragraph shall be the Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate as assigned by Moody's to each Reference Obligation underlying such Synthetic Security. For the avoidance of doubt, Reference Obligations upon which a Synthetic Security is based as described in this paragraph must meet the definition of "Collateral Obligation" to the extent provided in this definition.

If the Rating Condition must be satisfied to execute the purchase of any Synthetic Security, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall give each applicable Rating Agency not less than five days' prior notice of the purchase of or entry into any Synthetic Security.

The Accounts

The Indenture provides that the Trustee will establish separate segregated non-interest bearing trust accounts, which will be designated as the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Custodial Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Securities Lending Account and the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account. In addition, Synthetic Security Counterparty Accounts may also be established. The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement provides that the Preference Shares Paying Agent will establish a segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Preference Shares Distribution Account. Any account may contain any number of subaccounts.

Collection Account. The Trustee shall deposit into the “Collection Account”:

- (i) any funds transferred from the Closing Date Expense Account pursuant to the Indenture;
- (ii) all Principal Proceeds (unless (1) simultaneously used to purchase Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Indenture, (2) deposited into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or (3) posted by the Issuer as cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer’s purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security or in Eligible Investments) received by the Trustee;
- (iii) all Interest Proceeds received by the Trustee (unless simultaneously used to purchase accrued interest in respect of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Indenture or in Eligible Investments); and
- (iv) all other funds received by the Trustee from the Collateral and not excluded above.

The Issuer and the Servicer may, but will not be required to, jointly deposit from time to time any monies in the Collection Account it deems, in its sole discretion, to be advisable (and may designate any amounts so deposited as Principal Proceeds or Interest Proceeds in its discretion).

Any Principal Proceeds received during the Replacement Period, and Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments received after the Replacement Period, which have not been used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations on the Business Day of receipt shall be deposited in the Collection Account and shall at the direction of the Servicer be applied to the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria and the other requirements set forth in the Indenture or the purchase of Eligible Investments pending such application or used to enter into additional Hedge Agreements or used in connection with a Special Redemption. Principal Proceeds (other than Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Risk Obligations, Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments) received after the Replacement Period shall be deposited into the Collection Account and applied to the purchase of Eligible Investments.

The Collection Account shall be maintained for the benefit of the Noteholders, the Trustee, the Servicer and each Hedge Counterparty and amounts on deposit in the Collection Account will be available for application in the order of priority under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments” and for the acquisition of Collateral Obligations under the circumstances and pursuant to the requirements in the Indenture. Amounts received in the Collection Account during a Due Period and amounts received in prior Due Periods and retained in the Collection Account under the circumstances stated above in “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments” will be applied in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions). All proceeds deposited in the Collection Account will be retained therein unless used to purchase Collateral Obligations during the Replacement Period (or, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, after the Replacement Period) in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria, to honor commitments with respect thereto entered into during or after the Replacement Period, or used as otherwise permitted under the Indenture. See “—Eligibility Criteria.”

At any time during or after the Replacement Period, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to pay from amounts on deposit in the Collection Account on any Business Day during any Interest Period from Interest Proceeds only, any Administrative Expenses that require payment before the next Payment Date to the extent that the amount of the payments does not exceed the aggregate amount that may be paid on the next payment Date under, and at the level of priority specified by, “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

The Trustee shall transfer to the Payment Account from the Collection Account for application pursuant to the Priority of Payments, no later than the Business Day preceding each Payment Date, the amount set forth to be so transferred in the Valuation Report for the Payment Date.

Custodial Account. The Trustee will from time to time deposit collateral into the “Custodial Account,” over which the Trustee will have exclusive control and sole right of withdrawal, in accordance with the Indenture. All assets or securities at any time on deposit in or otherwise to the credit of the Custodial Account will be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders, the Trustee, the Servicer and each Hedge Counterparty.

Revolving Reserve Account and Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account. Upon the purchase of any Collateral Obligation that is a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, at the direction of the Servicer, the Trustee shall deposit Principal Proceeds into the Revolving Reserve Account, in the case of a Revolving Loan, and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, in the case of a Delayed Drawdown Loan, each equal to the unfunded Commitment Amount of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, respectively, and the Principal Proceeds so deposited shall be considered part of the Purchase Price of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan for purposes of the Indenture. At the direction of the Servicer at any time during or after the Replacement Period, the Trustee shall withdraw funds from the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account to fund extensions of credit pursuant to Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans, respectively. In addition, to the extent that the Issuer receives proceeds of a repayment in respect of a Revolving Loan (except to the extent of any concurrent commitment reduction) at any time during or after the Replacement Period, the Trustee shall deposit the proceeds into the Revolving Reserve Account.

Upon the sale of a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan in whole or in part or the reduction in part or termination of the Issuer's commitment thereunder, an amount on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, as the case may be, specified by the Servicer as being equal to (i) the unfunded amount of the commitment (in the case of a sale in whole or a termination of the commitment), (ii) the proportionate amount of the amount on deposit (in the case of a sale in part) or (iii) the amount by which the commitment is reduced (in the case of a reduction thereof in part), shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds.

Amounts on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account will be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) not later than the Business Day after the date of their purchase. All interest and other income from amounts in the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account deposited to the Collection Account under the Indenture shall be considered Interest Proceeds in the Due Period in which they are so deposited.

Synthetic Security Collateral Account. On or before the date on which the Issuer enters into a Synthetic Security the Trustee shall create a sub-account of the non-interest bearing trust account established for Synthetic Security Collateral (the "Synthetic Security Collateral Account") with respect to the Synthetic Security. All Synthetic Security Collateral posted by any Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Synthetic Security shall be immediately deposited into the Synthetic Security Collateral Account and posted to the sub-account related to the Synthetic Security. On each day on which amounts are payable to the Issuer out of Synthetic Security Collateral, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to withdraw amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account in an amount sufficient to make the payment (including any total or partial release of Synthetic Security Collateral). The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account shall be:

- (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty to the Issuer under a Synthetic Security if the Synthetic Security becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the Synthetic Security upon any "event of default" under and as defined in the terms of the Synthetic Security, including liquidating the related Synthetic Security Collateral Account; or
- (ii) to return the Synthetic Security Collateral to the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty when and as required by the terms of the Synthetic Security, in each case as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account will be held in Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities not later than one Business Day after their purchase, as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions), and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account. The Trustee will deposit all collateral received from a Hedge Counterparty under any Hedge Agreement into the "Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account." The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account will be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer under a Hedge Agreement if the Hedge Agreement becomes subject to early termination or (ii) to return collateral to the relevant Hedge Counterparty when and as required by the relevant Hedge Agreement, in each case as directed by the Servicer. Amounts on deposit in the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account will be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Closing Date Expense Account. Amounts deposited in the “Closing Date Expense Account” on the Closing Date will be withdrawn to pay certain administrative expenses of the Co-Issuers. On the Payment Date in November 2008, the Trustee, at the direction of the Servicer in its sole discretion, shall transfer all funds on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account to the Collection Account as Interest Proceeds (to the extent such funds are not required to be applied to cure a Rating Confirmation Failure) or Principal Proceeds and close the Closing Date Expense Account. Amounts on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account shall be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the second Payment Date as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Expense Reimbursement Account. On any Payment Date and on any date between Payment Dates, the Trustee will apply amounts, if any, in the “Expense Reimbursement Account” to the payment of expenses and fees that must be paid between Payment Dates or that are due on that Payment Date under clauses (A) through (C) of “—Priority of Payments—Adjusted Proceeds” and the Trustee shall on any Payment Date transfer to the Expense Reimbursement Account an amount equal to the excess, if any of the Administrative Expense Cap over the amounts due under clauses (A) through (C) of “—Priority of Payments—Adjusted Proceeds” to the Expense Reimbursement Account in accordance with clause (D) of “—Priority of Payments—Adjusted Proceeds”; provided that the Trustee shall be entitled (but not required), without liability on its part, to refrain from making such payments if, in the reasonable determination of the Trustee, the payment of such amounts would leave insufficient funds available to pay in full each of the items described in the Priority of Payments in amounts reasonably anticipated by the Trustee to be payable on the next Payment Date, or would result in payments being made that are inconsistent with the items described in the Priority of Payments. Amounts on deposit in the Expense Reimbursement Account shall be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions), no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date.

Securities Lending Account. The Trustee will deposit all Securities Lending Collateral posted by any Securities Lending Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Securities Lending Agreement in a non-interest bearing trust account (the “Securities Lending Account”). The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Securities Lending Account will be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty to the Issuer under a Securities Lending Agreement if the Securities Lending Agreement becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the Securities Lending Agreement upon any “event of default” under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement, including liquidating the related Securities Lending Collateral or (ii) to return collateral to the Securities Lending Counterparty when and as required by a Securities Lending Agreement. Amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account shall be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date. Amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the loaned security or asset that relates to the Securities Lending Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer.

Payment Account. The Trustee will deposit collateral into the “Payment Account,” over which the Trustee will have exclusive control and sole right of withdrawal, in accordance with the Indenture. All assets or securities at any time on deposit in or otherwise to the credit of the Payment Account will be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders, the Trustee, the Servicer, and each Hedge Counterparty. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Payment Account shall be to pay amounts due and payable on the Notes and to pay Administrative Expenses and other amounts specified in the Indenture, each in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account. With respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion (or all) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer, from available funds in the Payment Account as provided in the Priority of Payments, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. On the first Payment Date that the Servicer elects to waive a portion (or all) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee and the Trustee shall establish the “Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account”. On each Payment Date that the Servicer elects to waive a portion (or all) of its Servicing Fees, to the extent of available funds in accordance with the Priority of Payments, the Trustee will deposit into the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account amounts equal to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments. For purposes of any calculation under the Indenture and the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will be deemed to have received the Servicing Fee in an amount equal to the sum of the Servicing Fee actually paid to the Servicer and the amount distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments.

Interest Reserve Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a segregated non-interest bearing trust account (the “Interest Reserve Account”) that shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Secured Parties and over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. The Trustee shall credit to the Interest Reserve Account the Interest Reserve Amount, from the deposit made therein as provided in the Indenture. All amounts in the Interest Reserve Account shall be applied on the November 2008 Payment Date as Adjusted Interest Proceeds in accordance with the provisions of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds”.

Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. To the extent that any Synthetic Security requires the Issuer to secure its obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty or to the extent that any Synthetic Security has an unfunded amount payable by the Issuer that does not by its terms require collateral, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee and the Trustee shall establish a segregated non-interest bearing trust account (the “Synthetic Security Counterparty Account”) for the Synthetic Security which shall be held in trust for the benefit of the related Synthetic Security Counterparty and over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security as directed by the Servicer. In the alternative, a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account may be established with a trustee designated by the Synthetic Security Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that trustee would qualify to be a successor trustee under the Indenture and the account satisfies the other requirements of a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account under the Indenture.

As directed in writing by the Servicer, the Trustee shall deposit (or deliver for deposit) into each Synthetic Security Counterparty Account, from funds or Eligible Investments on deposit in the Collection Account, all amounts or securities that are required to secure the obligations of the Issuer in accordance with the related Synthetic Security and, without duplication, an amount equal to the unfunded amount of a Synthetic Security, including the entire notional amount of any Synthetic Security in the form of a credit default swap or other similar transaction, in each case as directed by the Servicer. The Servicer shall direct any such deposit only during the Replacement Period and only to the extent that monies are available for the purchase of Collateral Obligations pursuant to the Indenture. Any income received on amounts in the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall, after application in accordance with the relevant Synthetic Security, be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Interest Proceeds.

As directed by the Servicer in writing and in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security and the Indenture, amounts on deposit in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be held in Synthetic Security Collateral.

In connection with the occurrence of a credit event or an event of default or a termination event (each as defined in the applicable Synthetic Security) under the related Synthetic Security, amounts in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be withdrawn by the Trustee (or the Trustee shall request their withdrawal) and applied toward the payment of any amounts payable by the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the Synthetic Security, as directed by the Servicer in writing; provided that any Defaulted Synthetic Security Termination Payments will be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Any excess amounts held in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account, or held directly by a Synthetic Security Counterparty, after payment of all amounts owing from the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the related Synthetic Security shall be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Principal Proceeds.

Amounts on deposit in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the Synthetic Security that relates to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer (with the notional amount as the Principal Balance unless a default exists under the applicable Synthetic Security).

Hedge Agreements

At any time and from time to time on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, may enter into the Hedge Agreements and will assign its rights (but none of its obligations) under the Hedge Agreements to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture. The Trustee will, on behalf of the Issuer and in accordance with the Valuation Report, pay amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements on any Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

The Issuer will not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless at the time of entering into such Hedge Agreement the Hedge Counterparty has the ratings specified in such Hedge Agreement.

If at any time a Hedge Counterparty does not have the required ratings as set forth in the Hedge Agreement, the Hedge Counterparty shall be required to take such actions as are set forth in the relevant Hedge Agreement.

Whenever the Issuer enters into a Hedge Agreement, the Hedge Counterparty thereto shall comply with the then currently applicable rating criteria of each Rating Agency from time to time.

Any payments required to be made under the Hedge Agreements shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments shall be subordinate to interest and principal payments on the Notes and any other payments required to be made by the Issuer under the Hedge Agreements, but senior to distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Indenture.

Unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is otherwise satisfied, following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, shall promptly (but no later than 60 days after the early termination), and to the extent possible through Hedge Termination Receipts, enter into a replacement hedge, unless, in the exercise of the Servicer's commercially reasonable judgment, to do so would not be in the best interest of the Issuer and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to not entering into a replacement hedge. In addition, a replacement hedge may not be entered into unless the Issuer provides the Rating Agencies with at least seven Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to enter into a replacement hedge, together with its form and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the replacement hedge. The Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than a termination resulting from the bankruptcy, insolvency or similar event with respect to the Hedge Counterparty) to become effective simultaneously with its entering into a replacement hedge. To the extent that (i) the Servicer determines not to replace the Hedge Agreement and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the determination; or (ii) termination is occurring on a Redemption Date, the Hedge Termination Receipts shall become part of Principal Proceeds and be distributed in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the next following Payment Date (or on the Redemption Date, if the Notes are redeemed on the Redemption Date).

The notional amounts of the Hedge Agreements outstanding at any time may be reduced or increased from time to time by the Issuer, and the Hedge Agreements may be amended, modified or terminated in accordance with the Hedge Agreements if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the reduction, increase, amendment, modification or termination, as the case may be.

Each Hedge Agreement may be terminated pursuant to its terms by the Hedge Counterparty upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes (but only after the applicable notice of redemption may no longer be withdrawn pursuant to the Indenture), an acceleration of maturity of the Notes after an Event of Default or the entry into certain amendments to the Indenture without the consent of the Hedge Counterparty. The Hedge Agreement will not be permitted to be terminated by the Issuer as the result of a default or Event of Default unless any acceleration of maturity of the Notes resulting from the Event of Default is no longer permitted to be rescinded pursuant to the Indenture.

Except for Hedge Agreements entered into on or before the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied.

Securities Lending

The Indenture permits the Issuer to engage in a limited number of securities lending transactions as described below.

So long as no Event of Default is continuing and if after the completion of the transaction the limit in clause (29) of the definition of "Concentration Limitations" would be satisfied, the Servicer may cause Collateral Obligations that are not Defaulted Collateral Obligations to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a short-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A-1", or if no short-term rating exists, a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A+" from S&P (each, a "Securities Lending Counterparty") pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a "Securities Lending Agreement"); provided that Collateral Obligations the Market Value of which cannot be determined under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Collateral Obligations to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Servicer. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Initial Purchaser or Affiliates of the Servicer. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Servicer (except to the extent specified in the Indenture) and shall:

- (i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Issuer debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent Collateral Obligations;
- (ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Issuer amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent Collateral Obligation is entitled to for the period during which the Collateral Obligation is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities Lending Agreement to make "gross-up" payments to the Issuer that cover the full amount of the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;
- (iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;
- (iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;
- (v) be governed by the laws of New York;
- (vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture;
- (vii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Collateral Obligation becomes a Credit Risk Obligation or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;
- (viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty upon any redemption of the Notes in whole;
- (ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement (the "Securities Lending Collateral") to secure its obligation to return the Collateral Obligations or in the alternative post that collateral with a custodian for the benefit of the Issuer designated by the Securities Lending Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that custodian would qualify to be a successor trustee under the Indenture;

- (x) provide that the Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained at all times in an amount equal to at least 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value (determined daily and monitored by the Servicer) of the lent Collateral Obligations and if securities are delivered to the Trustee as security for the obligations of the Securities Lending Counterparty under the related Securities Lending Agreement, the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will negotiate with the Securities Lending Counterparty a rate for the loan fee to be paid to the Issuer for lending the lent Collateral Obligations;
- (xi) the lent Collateral Obligations shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Servicer on the basis of their Market Value;
- (xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer's rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement rather than the loaned Collateral Obligation;
- (xiii) provide for early termination within 10 days at the option of the Issuer and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in the Indenture; and
- (xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in the Indenture.

In addition, each Securities Lending Agreement must provide that if either Moody's or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty, then the Issuer, within 10 days of the downgrade, shall (i) terminate its Securities Lending Agreements with the Securities Lending Counterparty unless a guarantor with the required ratings for the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements has been obtained; or (ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations lent to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty so that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party, together with all other Securities Lending Agreements, are in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of Securities Lending Counterparties; or (iii) take any other steps Moody's or S&P may require to cause the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party to be treated by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, as if the obligations were owed by a counterparty having a rating at least equivalent to the rating that was assigned by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty before its being downgraded.

The Servicer shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in the Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Collateral Obligation is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement, (a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Collateral Obligation because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action) and (b) the loaned Collateral Obligations shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as a Collateral Obligation by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Collateral Obligation to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under the Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

MATURITY AND PREPAYMENT CONSIDERATIONS

The Stated Maturity of each Class of Notes will be November 1, 2018 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date; however, the principal of each Class of the Notes is expected to be paid in full prior to its Stated Maturity (or Extended Stated Maturity Date, as applicable). Average life refers to the average amount of time that will elapse from the date of delivery of a security until each dollar of the principal of such security will be paid to the investor. The average lives of the Notes will be determined by the amount and frequency of principal payments, which are dependent upon, among other things, the amount of sinking fund payments and any other payments received at or in advance of the scheduled maturity of Collateral Obligations (whether through sale, maturity, redemption, default or other liquidation or disposition).

The actual performance of the Securities will also be affected by the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral Obligations and the characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, including the interest rate or other rate of distribution, the actual default rate and actual losses sustained, the existence and frequency of exercise of any prepayment, optional redemption, or sinking fund features and any related premium, the prevailing level of interest rates, any sales of Collateral Obligations, and any unique risks of the Collateral Obligations. Any disposition of a Collateral Obligation may change the composition and characteristics of the portfolio of Collateral Obligations and their rate of payment, and, accordingly, may affect the actual performance of each respective Class of Securities. The ability of the Issuer to apply any Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds in the manner described under "Security for the Notes" will also affect the performance of the Securities. Redemptions will also affect the performance of the Securities.

As of December 31, 2007, Highland Capital managed or serviced over $39 billion in leveraged loans, high yield bonds, structured products and other assets for banks, insurance companies, pension plans, foundations and high net worth individuals.

Highland Capital manages or services these assets through a variety of fund structures including separate accounts, CDOs, hedge funds and mutual funds. As of December 31, 2007, Highland Capital invested in, managed or serviced more than 1,700 below investment grade and credit sensitive credit positions, and Highland Capital's 134-person credit team followed investment grade and credit sensitive credit positions across over 36 industries. Highland Capital or an Affiliate or predecessor thereof has been an SEC-registered investment adviser since April 1993.

Philosophy and Process

Highland Capital has a large range and depth of experience. It has expertise in the fields of syndicated loans, high yield bonds, and distressed assets. Highland Capital believes it is in a position to maximize the spread differential between the yields on underlying collateral and the cost of financing. In addition, Highland Capital seeks to construct portfolios to (a) maximize relative value based on its credit views and (b) maximize diversification in order to minimize the effect of isolated credit events on the overall portfolio, utilizing Highland Capital's infrastructure to minimize defaults of underlying assets and to maximize recoveries in the case of defaults. Highland Capital has over $1 billion of firm capital exposure to the firm's funds and expects that HFP, an Affiliate of the Servicer, and/or one or more of HFP's subsidiaries will on the Closing Date purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares.

Highland Capital believes that its disciplined selection process minimizes a portfolio's risk and that its analysis seeks to maximize yield spread while limiting downside risk. Portfolio managers actively follow each credit and several times each year the entire staff reviews all positions during multi-day monitoring meetings. Highland Capital diversifies its portfolios with set limits on exposure to any one given industry or issuer. Highland Capital believes that this philosophy and selection process has resulted in positive returns on its underlying loan portfolio and consistent outperformance relative to its indices.

Highland Capital focuses on a “team” approach that it has used since 1990. It is Highland Capital management’s belief that this style creates the optimum environment for the exchange of information and the development of all asset management professionals. All aspects of the selection, monitoring and servicing process are coordinated through the senior asset portfolio managers’ direct interaction. A committee of senior portfolio managers and analysts, Highland Capital’s Chief Investment Officer and its Head of Structured Products meets every morning to discuss the status of the credits. Collectively, the committee utilizes a selection and monitoring process which is driven by fundamental credit research. Each portfolio manager/analyst makes specific credit recommendations based upon industry coverage. The credit recommendation is then brought to the committee for consideration. Based upon the consensus decision, the portfolio manager with the recommendation will direct Highland Capital traders to execute the trade. Highland Capital has also provided its committee with a strong commitment to technology. The firm developed Wall Street Office® which is a proprietary software system that allows Highland Capital to model, portfolio manage, and trade syndicated loans. This software has been licensed to more than 70 financial institutions that acquire syndicated loans.

THE SERVICING AGREEMENT

The following summary describes certain provisions of the Servicing Agreement. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Servicing Agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement, and in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Indenture, the Servicer will select the portfolio of Collateral Obligations and will instruct the Trustee with respect to any acquisition, disposition or sale of a Collateral Obligation or an Eligible Investment. Neither the Initial Purchaser nor its Affiliates will select any of the Collateral Obligations.

Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will monitor the Collateral Obligations and provide the Issuer with certain information received from the Collateral Administrator with respect to the composition and characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, any disposition or tender of a Collateral Obligation, the application of the proceeds of any such disposition to the purchase of Eligible Investments and with respect to the retention of the proceeds of any such disposition or the application thereof toward the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations. The Servicer will, and will be authorized to, negotiate, on behalf of the Issuer, with respect to all actions to be taken by the Issuer under any Hedge Agreements.

As compensation for the performance of its obligations as Servicer, the Servicer will be entitled to receive:

- (i) a fee (the “Senior Servicing Fee”) that accrues from the Closing Date payable to the Servicer in arrears on each Payment Date equal to 0.10% per annum of the Maximum Amount if and to the extent funds are available for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments (with the Senior Servicing Fee being calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months);
- (ii) an amount (the “Subordinated Servicing Fee”) payable on each Payment Date equal to the sum of (a) a fee that accrues from the Closing Date payable to the Servicer in arrears on each Payment Date equal to 0.40% per annum of the Maximum Amount if and to the extent funds are available for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments and (b) on any Payment Date that any part of the Subordinated Servicing Fee was not paid on the preceding Payment Date, an amount equal to interest on such unpaid amount at a rate of LIBOR for the applicable period plus 3.00% per annum (with the portion of the Subordinated Servicing Fee, in clauses (a) and (b) above, as applicable, being calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months); and
- (iii) a fee (the “Supplemental Servicing Fee” and together with the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee, the “Servicing Fees”), if any, payable on each Payment Date to the Servicer in an amount equal to: (i) 20% of the remaining Interest Proceeds, if any, available after making the distributions on such Payment Date pursuant to clause (xviii) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” and (ii) 20% of the remaining Principal Proceeds, if any, available for payment in respect of the Supplemental Servicing Fee pursuant to clause (xi)(A) and, if applicable, clause (xv), in each case pursuant to “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

On each Payment Date, as and to the extent described under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments,” the Trustee will deposit the Class II Preference Share Portion of the Servicing Fees into the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account. With respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion (or all) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. For purposes of any calculation under the Indenture and the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will be deemed to have received the Servicing Fee in an amount equal to the sum of the Servicing Fee actually paid to the Servicer and the amount distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments as described above. See “Security for the Notes—The Accounts—Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account.”

In addition, notwithstanding anything set out above, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion waive all or any portion of the Subordinated Servicing Fee or Supplemental Servicing Fee, any funds representing the waived Subordinated Servicing Fees or Supplemental Servicing Fees to be retained in the Collection Account for distribution as either Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds (as determined by the Servicer) pursuant to the Priority of Payments.

In addition, the Servicer will be reimbursed for its reasonable expenses incurred with respect to any compliance requirements, including, but not limited to, compliance with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act solely related to the ownership or holding of any Securities by HFP or any of its subsidiaries to the extent funds are available therefor in accordance with and subject to the Priority of Payments and other limitations contained in the Indenture.

The Servicer, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, and its Affiliates and their directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, shall not be liable to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Holders of the Securities or any other person for any losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (collectively “Liabilities”) incurred by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Holders of the Securities or any other person that arise out of or in connection with the performance by the Servicer of its duties under the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture, except by reason of (i) acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance, or reckless disregard, of the obligations of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to it or (ii) with respect to any information included in this Offering Memorandum in the sections entitled “The Servicer” and “Risk Factors—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer” that contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (the preceding clauses (i) and (ii) collectively being the “Servicer Breaches”). The Servicer will be liable for any non-waivable breaches of applicable securities laws.

The Issuer will indemnify and hold harmless the Servicer, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees (such parties collectively in such case, the “Indemnified Parties”) from and against any and all Liabilities, and shall reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) (collectively, the “Expenses”) as such Expenses are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the “Actions”), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with, the issuance of the Securities, the transactions contemplated by the Offering Memorandum, the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided, however, that no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions by any Indemnified Party constituting Servicer Breaches. Any such indemnification by the Issuer will be paid in accordance with, and subject to, the Priority of Payments.

Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will agree that on the Closing Date, (i) the Approved Class II Preference Shareholders are expected to purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class E Notes and may purchase a portion of the Class C Notes and Class D Notes and (ii) the Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates is expected to purchase all or a portion of the Class I Preference Shares. No assurance can be given whether HFP or the Servicer will retain such Class C Notes, Class D Notes, Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares and/or Class II Preference Shares for any amount of time.

The Issuer may, at the request of the Servicer, enter into an amendment or modification of the Servicing Agreement from time to time, without the consent of the Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not the interests of the Holders of the Securities are adversely affected thereby; provided that, with respect to any such amendment or modification, (a) a Rating Condition is satisfied and (b) a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares have not objected in writing to such amendment or modification prior to the relevant Objection Cut-Off Date (as defined below).

If at any time the Servicer desires to amend or modify the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will notify the Issuer and the Trustee, providing details of such proposed amendment or modification. Not later than five Business Days after receipt of such notice, the Trustee will mail such notice to (i) each Noteholder at such Holder’s address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository, Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, (ii) to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and (iii) to each Rating Agency. If any Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes or any Holder of the Preference Shares notifies, by delivering a written notice to the Trustee within 35 days after the Trustee has mailed such notice, that it objects to such proposed amendment or modification, the Trustee will, within two Business Days after receiving such notice of objection, mail a notice of the receipt of such objection to the Issuer, the Servicer and other Holders of the Controlling Class of Notes and other Holders of the Preference Shares. Each Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes and each Holder of the Preference Shares that also wishes to object to such amendment or modification must, by delivering a written notice, so notify the Trustee within seven Business Days after the Trustee has mailed such notice of the receipt of such objection (the last day of such seven Business Day period, the “Objection Cut-Off Date”). If a Majority of either the Controlling Class of Notes or the Preference Shares notifies the Trustee in writing on or before the Objection Cut-Off Date that they object to the proposed amendment or modification to the Servicing Agreement, such amendment or modification will not be made.

The Servicing Agreement provides that the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Servicer such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Servicer, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm’s length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (iii) such transaction is permitted by the Advisers Act. The Servicing Agreement also provides that the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Servicer, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm’s length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (ii) permitted by the Advisers Act.

Subject to the provisions for a successor servicer discussed below, the Servicer may resign, upon 90 days’ written notice to the Issuer (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer).

The Servicing Agreement will be terminated, and the Servicer will be removed, by the Issuer, if directed by the Trustee (acting at the direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes)) or by a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares (excluding any Preference Shares that are not Voting Preference Shares), in each case for “cause” upon 10 days’ prior written notice to the Servicer and upon written notice to the Holders of the Securities as set forth below. For purposes of determining “cause” with respect to any such termination of the Servicing Agreement, such term shall mean any one of the following events:

- (i) the Servicer willfully breaches in any respect, or takes any action that it knows violates in any respect, any provision of the Servicing Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it;
- (ii) the Servicer breaches in any material respect any provision of the Servicing Agreement or any terms of the Indenture or the Collateral Administration Agreement applicable to it, or any representation, warranty, certification or statement given in writing by the Servicer shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect when made or given, and the Servicer fails to cure such breach or take such action so that the facts (after giving effect to such action) conform in all material respects to such representation, warranty, certificate or statement, in each case within 30 days of becoming aware of, or receiving notice from, the Trustee of, such breach or materially incorrect representation, warranty, certificate or statement;
- (iii) certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency occur with respect to the Servicer;
- (iv) the occurrence of any Event of Default under the Indenture that results from any breach by the Servicer of its duties under the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period; or
- (v) (x) the occurrence of an act by the Servicer related to its activities in any servicing, securities, financial advisory or other investment business that constitutes fraud, (y) the Servicer being indicted, or any of its principals being convicted, of a felony criminal offense related to its activities in any servicing, securities, financial advisory or other investment business or (z) the Servicer being indicted for, adjudged liable in a civil suit for, or convicted of a violation of the Securities Act or any other United States Federal securities law or any rules or regulations thereunder.

No removal or resignation of the Servicer will be effective under the Servicing Agreement unless (A) (i) at the written direction of a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares, the Issuer appoints a successor servicer and such successor servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the Servicer’s duties and obligations pursuant to the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture and (ii) the successor servicer is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Voting Notes (voting as a single Class) or (B) if a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares has nominated two or more successor servicers that have been objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (A)(ii) or has failed to appoint a successor servicer that has not been objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (A)(ii) within 60 days of the date of notice of such removal or resignation of the Servicer, (i) at the written direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes), the Issuer appoints a successor servicer and such successor servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture and (ii) the successor servicer is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares (voting as a single class) or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Voting Notes (voting as a single Class); provided that if a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares and a Super Majority of the Controlling Class (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) have each nominated two or more successor servicers that have been objected to pursuant to the preceding clauses (A)(ii) and (B)(ii) or have otherwise failed to appoint a successor servicer that is not objected to pursuant to the preceding clauses (A)(ii) or (B)(ii) within 120 days of the date of notice of such removal or resignation of the Servicer, any Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes), any Holder of Voting Preference Shares or the Trustee petitions a court of competent authority to appoint a successor servicer. In addition, any successor servicer must be an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as Servicer under the Servicing Agreement, as successor to the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement and under the applicable terms of the Indenture, (iii) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of Collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, (iv) shall perform its duties as successor servicer under the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture without causing the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any Holder of Preference Shares to become subject to tax in any jurisdiction where such successor servicer is established as doing business and (v) each Rating Agency has confirmed that the appointment of such successor servicer shall not cause its then-current rating of any Class of Notes to be reduced or withdrawn. No compensation payable to a successor servicer from payments on the Collateral shall be greater than that paid to the Servicer without the prior written consent of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes, a Majority of the Notes and a Majority of the Preference Shares.

The Servicing Agreement, and any obligations or duties of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement, cannot be delegated by the Servicer, in whole or in part, except to any entity that (i) is controlled by any of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers and (ii) is one in which any of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers is involved in the day to day management and operations (and in any such case pursuant to an instrument of delegation in form and substance satisfactory to the Issuer), without the prior written consent of the Issuer, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) and a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares and, notwithstanding any such consent, no delegation of obligations or duties by the Servicer (including, without limitation, to an entity described above) shall relieve the Servicer from any liability under the Servicing Agreement.

THE CO-ISSUERS

General

The Issuer was incorporated under the name "Rockwall CDO III Ltd." as an exempted company with limited liability on December 14, 2006 in the Cayman Islands under registration number WK-179034, and subsequently changed its name by special resolution on February 25, 2008. The registered office of the Issuer is at the offices of Walkers SPV Limited, Walker House, 87 Mary Street, George Town, Grand Cayman, KY1-9002, Cayman Islands. The Issuer's telephone number is (345) 945-3727. The Issuer has no prior operating experience (other than in connection with the acquisition of the Collateral Obligations during the Accumulation Period) and will not have any material assets other than (i) the Collateral pledged to secure the Secured Obligations, and (ii) $500 (of which $250 represents the Issuer's issued ordinary share capital and $250 represents a fee for issuing the Securities).

The Co-Issuer was incorporated on March 13, 2008 in the State of Delaware under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware with the file number 4518571. The registered office of the Co-Issuer is at c/o National Corporate Research, Ltd., 615 South DuPont Highway, Dover, Delaware 19901. The Co-Issuer's principal address is c/o Puglisi & Associates, 850 Library Avenue, Suite 204, Newark, Delaware, 19711 and the Co-Issuer's telephone number is (302) 738-6680. The Co-Issuer was incorporated as a special purpose vehicle for the specific purpose of carrying out the transactions described in this Offering Memorandum, which primarily consists of issuing the Senior Notes and performing other activities related thereto, as set forth in Article Third of its Certificate of Incorporation. The Co-Issuer has no prior operating history and will not have any material assets.

The Senior Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer and non-recourse debt obligations of the Co-Issuer. The Class E Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer and the Preference Shares are equity interests only in the Issuer. The Securities are not obligations of the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Servicer, the Initial Purchaser, the Administrator, the Holders of the Preference Shares, Walkers SPV Limited, as the share trustee (in such capacity, the "Share Trustee"), or any directors or officers of the Co-Issuers or any of their respective Affiliates.

At the Closing Date, the authorized share capital of the Issuer consists of 250 ordinary shares, U.S.$1.00 par value per share (the "Issuer Ordinary Shares"), all of which will have been issued prior to the Closing Date, and 48,000 Preference Shares, U.S.$0.01 par value per share, all of which will be issued on or about the Closing Date. The authorized common stock of the Co-Issuer consists of 1,000 shares of common stock, U.S.$0.01 par value (the "Co-Issuer Common Stock"), all of which shares will be issued on or about the Closing Date. All of the outstanding Issuer Ordinary Shares will be held by the Share Trustee and all of the Co-Issuer Common Stock will be held by the Issuer. For so long as any of the Securities are Outstanding, no transfer of any Issuer Ordinary Shares or Co-Issuer Common Stock to a U.S. Person shall be registered.

The Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares will be identical in all respects except that the Class II Preference Shares will also be entitled, subject to any restrictions under Cayman Islands law, to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments and will have voting rights with respect to the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer as described herein. In addition to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments payable on the Class II Preference Shares, regular dividends will be payable on the Class II Preference Shares and the Class I Preference Shares on each Payment Date in the amounts and in the priority described under the Priority of Payments; provided that, if and to the extent sufficient funds to pay such regular dividends in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Cayman Islands law are not available on any Payment Date, no dividends will be payable on such Payment Date. Class II Preference Share Special Payments will be paid to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares on a pro rata basis according to the number of Class II Preference Shares held by each Holder. All other dividends and distributions in respect of the Preference Shares will be paid to the Holders of the Preference Shares on a pro rata basis according to the number of Preference Shares held by each Holder.

Capitalization

The initial proposed capitalization of the Issuer as of the Closing Date after giving effect to the initial issuance of the Securities and the Issuer Ordinary Shares (before deducting expenses of the offering) is as set forth below.

	Amount (U.S.$)
Class A Notes.....	$376,000,000
Class B Notes.....	$29,500,000
Class C Notes.....	$25,250,000
Class D Notes.....	$19,250,000
Class E Notes.....	$17,250,000
Total Notes.....	$467,250,000
Class I Preference Shares.....	$12,000,000*
Class II Preference Shares.....	$36,000,000*
Issuer Ordinary Shares.....	$250
Total Equity.....	$48,000,250
Total Capitalization.....	$515,250,250

* The Preference Shares will be issued with a Face Amount of U.S.$1,000 per share.

The Co-Issuer will be capitalized only to the extent of its common equity of U.S.$10, will have no assets other than its equity capital and will have no debt other than as Co-Issuer of the Senior Notes.

Business

General

The Issuer Charter provides that the objects for which the Issuer is established are unlimited, although the Indenture restricts the activities of the Issuer as set forth below. Article Third of the Co-Issuer's Certificate of Incorporation provides that the principal purpose of the Co-Issuer is the co-issuance of the Senior Notes and to engage in any activity and to exercise any powers permitted to corporations organized under Delaware Law, which are incidental to, or connected with, the foregoing and necessary, suitable or convenient to accomplish the foregoing.

The Issuer

The Indenture provides that the activities of the Issuer are limited to the following:

- (i) acquisition and disposition of Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments;
- (ii) entering into, and performing its obligations under, the Indenture, the Preference Share Documents, any Hedge Agreements, the Securities Lending Agreements, the Servicing Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement and the Administration Agreement;
- (iii) the issuance and sale of the Securities and the Issuer Ordinary Shares;
- (iv) the pledge of the Collateral as security for its obligations in respect of the Notes and any Hedge Agreements;
- (v) entering into certain pre-closing warehousing arrangements and the agreements relating thereto;
- (vi) undertaking certain other activities incidental to the foregoing; and
- (vii) owning the Co-Issuer Common Stock.

The Co-Issuer

The activities of the Co-Issuer are to be limited to the following:

- (i) the co-issuance and sale of the Senior Notes; and
- (ii) to engage in any activity and to exercise any powers permitted to corporations organized under Delaware Law, which are incidental to, or connected with, the foregoing and necessary, suitable or convenient to accomplish the foregoing.

Administration

Walkers SPV Limited, a Cayman Islands company, or any successor thereto appointed under the Administration Agreement, will act as the administrator of the Issuer (in such capacity, the "Administrator"), the Share Registrar and the Share Trustee. The office of the Administrator will serve as the principal office of the Issuer. Through this office and pursuant to the terms of an agreement by and between the Administrator and the Issuer (as amended, supplemented and modified from time to time) (the "Administration Agreement"), the Administrator will perform various administrative functions on behalf of the Issuer, including the provision of certain clerical and other services including acting as Share Registrar until termination of the Administration Agreement. In consideration of the foregoing, the Administrator will receive various fees and reimbursement of its expenses.

The activities of the Administrator under the Administration Agreement will be subject to the overview of the Issuer's Board of Directors. The Administration Agreement may be terminated by the Issuer upon 14 days' written notice following the happening of certain events or upon 90 days' written notice in all other cases. Upon the earlier of the termination of the Administration Agreement or the dissolution of the Issuer, the Administrator shall cease to serve in such capacity. There is no requirement in the Administration Agreement that a replacement administrator be appointed prior to the effectiveness of any withdrawal or termination of the Administrator. In addition, the Administrator may resign if the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares remove one or more of the directors of the Issuer who are employees or officers of the Administrator.

The Administrator's principal office is at Walker House, 87 Mary Street, George Town, Grand Cayman, KY1-9002, Cayman Islands.

Directors

The Issuer will have two directors, each of whom will initially be an employee or officer of the Administrator or an Affiliate of the Administrator.

The directors of the Issuer are John Cullinane and Rachael Rankin. Holders of the Class II Preference Shares may, for so long as the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding is greater than the number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding, vote at any time to remove any or all (but, so long as such directors are all associated with Walkers SPV Limited, not less than all) of the directors and appoint other directors who may be employees, officers or designees of the Servicer.

Directors of the Issuer may serve as directors of, and provide services to, other special purpose entities that issue collateralized obligations and perform other duties for the Administrator and the Servicer, as the case may be. They may be contacted at the address of the Administrator.

The sole independent director of the Co-Issuer is Donald Puglisi. Mr. Puglisi is also the President, Secretary and Treasurer of the Co-Issuer. Mr. Puglisi is MBNA America Professor of Business Emeritus at the University of Delaware. Mr. Puglisi serves as a director of, and provides services to, a number of special purpose entities. He may be contacted at the address of the Co-Issuer.

PREVENTION OF MONEY LAUNDERING

To ensure compliance with applicable statutory requirements relating to anti-money laundering and anti-terrorism initiatives, the Share Registrar, on behalf of the Issuer, will require verification of identity and source of funds from all prospective purchasers of the Preference Shares. Depending on the circumstances of each purchase, it may not always be necessary to obtain full documentary evidence of identity and/or source of funds where:

1. The purchaser is a licensed entity or financial institution regulated in a country recognized as having an adequate anti-money laundering regime and such countries are listed in the Third Schedule to the Money Laundering Regulations (as amended) of the Cayman Islands;
2. The purchaser is an entity or financial institution listed on the Cayman Islands or other approved stock exchange<sup>1</sup>; or
3. The funds have been paid from an account held in the name of the purchaser at a financial institution based in a country recognized as having an adequate anti-money laundering regime.

INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

General

The following summary describes the principal U.S. federal income tax and Cayman Islands tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Securities to investors that acquire Preference Shares pursuant to this Offering Memorandum and investors that acquire the Notes at original issuance and for an amount equal to the Issue Price of the relevant Class of Notes (for purposes of this section, with respect to each Class of Notes, the first price at which a substantial amount of Notes of such Class are sold to the public (excluding bond houses, brokers, underwriters, placement agents, and wholesalers) is referred to herein as the “Issue Price”). This summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a particular investor’s decision to purchase the Notes. In addition, this summary does not describe any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, locality or taxing jurisdiction other than the U.S. federal income tax laws and Cayman Islands tax laws. In general, the summary assumes that a beneficial owner of a Security holds the Security as a capital asset and not as part of a hedge, straddle or conversion transaction, within the meaning of Section 1258 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”).

The advice below was not written and is not intended to be used and cannot be used by any taxpayer for purposes of avoiding United States federal income tax penalties that may be imposed. The advice is written to support the promotion or marketing of the transaction. Each taxpayer should seek advice based on the taxpayer’s particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

The foregoing disclaimer is provided to satisfy obligations under Circular 230 governing standards of practice before the Internal Revenue Service.

This summary is based on the U.S. and Cayman Islands tax laws, regulations (final and temporary), administrative rulings and practice and judicial decisions in effect or available on the date of this Offering Memorandum. All of the foregoing are subject to change or differing interpretation at any time, which change or interpretation may apply retroactively and could affect the continued validity of this summary.

This summary is included herein for general information only, and there can be no assurance that the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) will take a similar view of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the Notes as described herein. ACCORDINGLY, PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS OF THE SECURITIES SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX AND CAYMAN ISLANDS TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PURCHASE, OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF THE SECURITIES, AND THE POSSIBLE APPLICATION OF STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN OR OTHER TAX LAWS.

As used in this section, the term “U.S. Holder” includes a beneficial owner of a Security that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a citizen or individual resident of the United States of America, an entity treated for United States federal income tax purposes as a corporation created or organized in or under the laws of the United States of America or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, an estate the income of which is includable in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes regardless of its source, or a trust if, in general, a court within the United States of America is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of such trust and certain eligible trusts that have elected to be treated as U.S. persons. This summary also does not address the rules applicable to certain types of investors that are subject to special U.S. federal income tax rules which are not discussed herein, including but not limited to, dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities, financial institutions, U.S. expatriates, tax-exempt entities (except with respect to specific issues discussed herein), charitable remainder trusts and their beneficiaries, persons whose functional currency is not the Dollar, insurance companies, persons that own (directly or indirectly) equity interests in beneficial owners of Notes and subsequent purchasers of the Notes.

Special tax rules, not discussed herein, apply to Securities held by a partnership (including an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes). A partnership, and any partner therein, considering the acquisition of Securities should consult its own tax advisor.

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Issuer, and not the Co-Issuer, will be treated as the issuer of the Senior Notes.

Tax Treatment of the Issuer

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences. The Code and the Treasury Regulations provide a specific exemption from net income-based U.S. federal income tax to non-U.S. corporations that restrict their activities in the United States to trading in stocks and securities (and any other activity closely related thereto) for their own account, whether such trading (or such other activity) is conducted by the corporation or its employees or through a resident broker, commission agent, custodian or other agent. This particular exemption does not apply to non-U.S. corporations that are engaged in activities in the United States other than trading in stocks and securities (and any other activity closely related thereto) for their own accounts or that are dealers in stocks and securities.

The Issuer intends to rely on the above exemption and does not intend to operate so as to be subject to U.S. federal income taxes on its net income. In this regard, on the Closing Date, the Issuer will receive an opinion from Dechert LLP, special U.S. tax counsel to the Co-Issuers (“Special U.S. Tax Counsel”) to the effect that, although no activity closely comparable to that contemplated by the Issuer has been the subject of any Treasury Regulation, administrative ruling or judicial decision, under current law and assuming compliance with the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Issuer, the Indenture, the Servicing Agreement, and other related documents (the “Documents”) by all parties thereto, the Issuer’s permitted activities will not cause it to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States under the Code and, consequently, the Issuer will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis (or the branch profits tax described below). The opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel will be based on the Code, the Treasury Regulations (final, temporary and proposed) thereunder, the existing authorities, and Special U.S. Tax Counsel’s interpretation thereof and judgment concerning their application to the Issuer’s permitted activities, and on certain factual assumptions and representations as to the Issuer’s permitted activities. The Issuer intends to conduct its affairs in accordance with the Documents and such assumptions and representations, and the remainder of this summary assumes such result. The opinion referred to above will be based on the Servicer complying with certain investment restrictions which are intended to prevent the Issuer from engaging in activities which could give rise to a trade or business within the United States. Although the Servicer has undertaken to comply with these restrictions, it is permitted to depart from them if it obtains an opinion from nationally recognized tax counsel that the departure will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States. In addition, the Servicer is not obligated to monitor (and conform the Issuer’s activities to) changes in law, and accordingly, any such changes could adversely affect whether the Issuer is treated as engaged in a United States trade or business. In addition, in complying with the Documents and such assumptions and representations, the Issuer and the Servicer are entitled to rely upon the advice and/or opinions of their selected counsel, and the opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel will assume that any such advice and/or opinions are correct and complete. However, the opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel and any such other advice or opinions are not binding on the IRS or the courts, and no ruling will be sought from the IRS regarding this, or any other, aspect of the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Issuer. Accordingly, in the absence of authority on point, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Issuer is not entirely free from doubt, and there can be no assurance that positions contrary to those stated in the opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel or any such other advice or opinions may not be asserted successfully by the IRS.

If, notwithstanding the Issuer’s intention and the aforementioned opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel or any such other advice or opinions, it were nonetheless determined that the Issuer were engaged in a trade or business in the United States (as defined in the Code), and the Issuer had taxable income that was effectively connected with such U.S. trade or business, the Issuer would be subject under the Code to the regular U.S. corporate income tax on such effectively connected taxable income (and possibly to the 30% branch profits tax as well). The imposition of such taxes would materially affect the Issuer’s financial ability to make payments with respect to the Notes and could materially affect the yield of the Notes and the return on the Preference Shares.

With respect to Cayman Islands taxation, see the discussion below in “—Cayman Islands Taxation”.

United States Withholding Taxes. Although, based on the foregoing, the Issuer is not expected to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis, income derived by the Issuer may be subject to withholding taxes imposed by the United States or other countries. Generally, U.S. source interest income received by a foreign corporation not engaged in a trade or business within the United States is subject to U.S. withholding tax at the rate of 30% of the amount thereof. The Code provides an exemption (the “portfolio interest exemption”) from such withholding tax for interest paid with respect to certain debt obligations issued after July 18, 1984, unless the interest constitutes a certain type of contingent interest or is paid to a 10% shareholder of the payor, to a controlled foreign corporation related to the payor, or to a bank with respect to a loan entered into in the ordinary course of its business. In this regard, the Issuer is permitted to acquire a particular Collateral Obligation only if the payments thereon are exempt from U.S. withholding taxes at the time of purchase or commitment to purchase (except for U.S. withholding taxes which may be payable with respect to commitment fees and other similar fees (including, without limitation, certain payments on obligations or securities that include a participation in or that support a letter of credit) associated with Collateral Obligations constituting Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans and fees from a borrower under a synthetic letter of credit) or the obligor is required to make “gross-up” payments that fully compensate for such tax. Any commitment fees associated with Collateral Obligations constituting Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans and fees associated with participations or letters of credit or synthetic letters of credit may (and in some cases will) be subject to U.S. withholding tax, which would reduce the Issuer’s net income from such activities. However, the Issuer does not anticipate that it will otherwise derive material amounts of any other items of income that would be subject to U.S. withholding taxes. Accordingly, assuming compliance with the foregoing restrictions and subject to the foregoing qualifications, income derived by the Issuer will be free of or fully “grossed up” for any material amount of U.S. withholding tax. It is possible that, as a result of a workout of a defaulted Collateral Obligation, the Issuer could receive an asset subject to withholding. However, there can be no assurance that income derived by the Issuer will not generally become subject to U.S. withholding tax as a result of a change in U.S. tax law or administrative practice, procedure, or interpretations thereof. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—Tax Considerations; No Gross-Up”. Any change in U.S. tax law or administrative practice, procedure, or interpretations thereof resulting in the income of the Issuer becoming subject to U.S. withholding taxes could constitute a Tax Event. See “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption”. It is also anticipated that the Issuer will acquire Collateral Obligations that consist of obligations of non-U.S. issuers. In this regard, the Issuer may only acquire a particular Collateral Obligation if the payments thereon are not subject to foreign withholding tax (except for U.S. withholding taxes which may be payable with respect to commitment fees and other similar fees (including, without limitation, certain payments on obligations or securities that include a participation in or that support a letter of credit) associated with Collateral Obligations constituting Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans and fees from a borrower under a synthetic letter of credit) or the obligor of the Collateral Obligation is required to make “gross-up” payments.

Prospective investors should be aware that, under certain Treasury Regulations, the IRS may disregard the participation of an intermediary in a “conduit” financing arrangement and the conclusions reached in the immediately preceding paragraph assume that Affected Banks will not, as a result of holding Securities, influence the selection of Collateral Obligations and that such Treasury Regulations do not apply. Those Treasury Regulations could require withholding of U.S. federal income tax from payments to the Issuer of interest on the Collateral Obligations. In order to prevent “conduit” classification, each holder and beneficial owner of a Class E Note, a Class I Preference Share or a Class II Preference Share that (i) is not a “United States person” (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) and (ii) is acquiring, directly or in conjunction with affiliates, more than 33 1/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of such Class of Securities will be deemed to make a representation to the effect that it is not an Affected Bank. “Affected Bank” means a “bank” for purposes of Section 881 of the Code or an entity acting on behalf of such a bank that neither (x) meets the definition of a U.S. Holder nor (y) is entitled to the benefits of an income tax treaty with the United States under which withholding taxes on interest payments made by obligors resident in the United States to such bank are reduced to 0%.

Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of the Notes

Status of the Notes. On the Closing Date, the Issuer will receive an opinion from Special U.S. Tax Counsel to the effect that the Senior Notes will be, and the Class E Notes should be, treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes when issued, and this summary assumes such treatment. Further, the Issuer and each U.S. Holder and beneficial owner of a Note, by acquiring such Note or an interest in such Note, will agree to treat such Note as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except (x) as otherwise required by applicable law, (y) to the extent that a holder makes a protective election to be treated as a qualified electing fund, or (z) to the extent that a holder files certain United States tax information returns required of only certain equity owners with respect to various reporting requirements under the Code. The determination of whether a Note will be treated as debt for United States federal income tax purposes is based on the applicable law and facts and circumstances existing at the time the Note is issued. However, the opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel is based on current law and certain representations and assumptions and is not binding on the IRS or the courts, and no ruling will be sought from the IRS regarding this, or any other, aspect of the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Notes. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not contend, and that a court will not ultimately hold, that one or more Classes of the Notes are properly treated as equity in the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Recharacterization of a Class of Notes, particularly the Class E Notes because of their subordination in the capital structure, may be more likely if a single investor or a group of investors that holds all of the Preference Shares also holds all of the more senior Class of Notes in the same proportion as the Preference Shares are held. If a Class of the Notes were treated as equity in, rather than debt of, the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes, U.S. Holders of Notes of such Class would be subject to taxation under rules substantially the same as those set forth below under “Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of Preference Shares” which could cause adverse tax consequences for such U.S. Holders upon the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition of, or the receipt of certain types of distributions on, such Notes.

Maturity Extension and Extension Bonus Payment. Because the Stated Maturity of the Notes may be extended if certain conditions are met, it is unclear whether the Notes should be treated as maturing on November 1, 2018 or November 1, 2034, or on a date between such dates. The Treasury regulations do not provide clear guidance on debt instruments with terms similar to the Notes. Absent further guidance, the Issuer intends to take the position that the Notes should be treated as maturing on November 1, 2018. If the Notes are extended, the Issuer intends to treat each Note, solely for purposes of sections 1272 and 1273 of the Code, as retired and reissued for an amount equal to the adjusted issue price on the date of the new Extension Effective Date. Prospective investors in the Notes should consult their tax advisors regarding whether the Notes should be treated as maturing on a different date and the tax consequences if the Notes have a different maturity date than that chosen by the Issuer.

If the Stated Maturity is extended and the Notes may be sold to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser that is related to the Issuer within the meaning of section 267(b) of the Code, the extension of the Stated Maturity could, or after the first Maturity Extension would, be treated as a modification of the Notes. If such extension constitutes a modification, there is a significant risk that U.S. Holders who continue to hold their Notes after such extension will be treated as having exchanged their Notes for new Notes (“New Notes”) in a deemed exchange for U.S. federal income tax purposes (a “Deemed Exchange”). Any such Deemed Exchange would be treated as a taxable exchange, resulting in gain or loss, if any. Furthermore, if the Notes are treated as exchanged for New Notes in a Deemed Exchange as a result of a Maturity Extension, whether the New Notes would be treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes will depend on the facts and circumstances existing at the time of such Deemed Exchange. Tax Counsel is unable to opine on whether New Notes treated as received in a Deemed Exchange for the Notes will be treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In the event of a Deemed Exchange, U.S. Holders are strongly urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of such Deemed Exchange.

The tax treatment of the Extension Bonus Payment is unclear. The Issuer intends to take the positions that the full amount of the Extension Bonus Payment should be taxable to U.S. Holders as ordinary income in accordance with their method of accounting and that neither the Extension Bonus Payment nor the Issuer’s options to extend the Stated Maturity should cause the Notes to be treated as subject to the rules applicable to “contingent payment debt instruments” under Section 1.1275-4 of the Treasury regulation. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the taxation of the Extension Bonus Payment and the tax consequences of the Notes if they are treated as contingent payment debt instruments.

Interest or Discount on the Notes. Subject to the discussion below, U.S. Holders of each Class of Notes generally will include in gross income payments of stated interest received on such Class of Notes, in accordance with their usual method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes as ordinary interest income from sources outside the United States.

If the Issue Price of a Class of Notes is less than the “stated redemption price at maturity” of such Class of Notes by more than a de minimis amount, U.S. Holders of Notes of such Class will be considered to have purchased such Notes with original issue discount (“OID”). The stated redemption price at maturity of a Class of Notes will be the sum of all payments to be received on Notes of such Class, other than payments of “qualified stated interest” (i.e., generally, stated interest which is unconditionally payable in money at least annually during the entire term of a debt instrument; interest is unconditionally payable only if reasonable legal remedies exist to compel timely payment or the debt instrument otherwise provides terms and conditions that make the likelihood of late payment or nonpayment a remote contingency). Prospective U.S. Holders of the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes or the Class E Notes should note that, because interest on these Notes can be deferred, the Issuer intends to treat interest on these Classes as not unconditionally payable in money on each Payment Date (and, therefore, not “qualified stated interest”), and as a result include all of the stated interest payments on these Notes in the stated redemption prices at maturity of these Notes, therefore requiring that interest be accrued by U.S. Holders pursuant to the OID rules described below. Such OID inclusion on such Notes generally will be treated as income from sources outside the United States.

A U.S. Holder of such Class of Notes issued with OID will be required to accrue and include in gross income the sum of the “daily portions” of total OID on such Notes for each day during the taxable year on which the U.S. Holder held such Notes, generally under a constant yield method, regardless of such U.S. Holder’s usual method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If a Note is issued with only a de minimis amount of OID, such discount is not subject to accrual under the OID rules and should be included in gross income proportionately as stated principal payments are received. Such de minimis OID should be treated as gain from the sale or exchange of property and may be eligible to be treated as a capital gain if the Note is a capital asset in the hands of the U.S. Holder.

In the case of such Class of Notes that provides for a floating rate of interest, the amount of OID to be accrued over the term of such Notes will be based initially on the assumption that the floating rate in effect for the first accrual period of such Notes will remain constant throughout their term. To the extent such rate varies with respect to any accrual period, such variation will be reflected in an increase or decrease of the amount of OID accrued for such period. Under the foregoing method, U.S. Holders of the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes or the Class E Notes may be required to include in gross income increasingly greater amounts of OID and may be required to include OID in advance of the receipt of cash attributable to such income.

The Issuer intends to treat each Class of Notes issued with more than de minimis OID as being subject to the rules prescribed by Section 1272(a)(6) of the Code using an assumption as to the prepayments on such Class of Notes, as discussed below under “—OID on the Notes”. A prepayment assumption applies to debt instruments if payments under such debt instruments may be accelerated by reason of prepayments of other obligations securing such debt instruments.

OID on the Notes. The following discussion will apply to a Class of Notes if it is issued with more than de minimis OID. Because principal repayments on such Notes are subject to acceleration, the method by which OID on such Notes is required to be accrued is uncertain. For purposes of accruing OID on these Notes under such circumstances, the Issuer intends to treat these Notes as being subject to the “prepayment assumption method”. These rules require that the amount and rate of accrual of OID be calculated based on a prepayment assumption and the anticipated reinvestment rate, if any, relating to the Notes and prescribe a method for adjusting the amount and rate of accrual of the discount where the actual prepayment rate differs from the prepayment assumption. Under the Code, the prepayment assumption must be determined in the manner prescribed by the Treasury Regulations, which have not yet been issued. The legislative history provides, however, that Congress intended the Treasury Regulations to require that the prepayment assumption be the prepayment assumption that is used in determining the initial offering price of the Notes. Solely for purposes of determining OID, market discount and bond premium, the Issuer intends to assume that the Collateral Obligations will either not prepay or any prepayments will be reinvested. No representation is made that the Notes will prepay at the prepayment assumption or at any other rate.

It is possible the IRS could contend that another method of accruing OID with respect to these Notes is appropriate and, if successful, could apply rules that may result in adverse or more favorable U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of such Notes. One such alternative method of accruing OID may be the noncontingent bond method that governs contingent payment debt obligations. Such method could affect the amount and character of the gain or loss recognized upon a disposition of a Note.

A purchaser of a Note issued with OID who purchases such Note at a price other than the adjusted Issue Price but at a cost less than the remaining stated redemption price at maturity will also be required to include in gross income the sum of the daily portions of OID on such Note. In computing the daily portions of OID for a purchaser of a Note that purchases at a price higher than the adjusted issue price, but less than the stated redemption price at maturity, however, the daily portion is reduced by the amount that would be the daily portion for the day (computed in accordance with the rules set forth above) multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount, if any, by which the price paid by the U.S. holder for such Note exceeds the following amount:

- The sum of the Issue Price plus the aggregate amount of OID that would have been includible in the gross income of an original U.S. Holder (who purchased the Note at the Issue Price), less

- Any prior payments included in the stated redemption price at maturity, and the denominator of which is the sum of the daily portions for such Note for all days beginning on the date after the purchase date and ending on the maturity date computed under the prepayment assumption.

As a result of the complexity of the OID rules, each U.S. Holder of Notes should consult its own tax advisor regarding the impact of the OID rules on its investment in such Notes.

Premium. A U.S. Holder who pays a premium (an amount in excess of the Note's stated redemption price at maturity) for a Note may elect to amortize such premium under a constant yield method over the life of such Note. The amortizable amount for any accrual period would offset the amount of OID that must be included in the gross income of a U.S. Holder in such accrual period. The U.S. Holder's basis in such Note would be reduced by the amount of amortization. It is not clear whether the prepayment assumption would be taken into account in determining the life of such Note for this purpose.

Market Discount. If a U.S. Holder acquires a Note at a discount to the adjusted issue price of the Note that is greater than a statutorily defined de minimis amount, such discount is treated as market discount. Absent an election to accrue into income currently, the amount of accrued market discount on a Note is included in income as ordinary income when principal payments are received or the U.S. Holder disposes of the Note. Market discount is included ratably unless a U.S. Holder elects to use a constant yield method for accrual. For this purpose, the term "ratably" may be based on the term of the Note, or a U.S. Holder may be permitted to accrue market discount in proportion to interest on Notes issued without OID or in proportion to OID on Notes issued with OID.

Election to Treat All Interest as OID. The OID rules permit a U.S. Holder of a Note to elect to accrue all interest, discount (including de minimis market or original issue discount) and premium in income as interest, based on a constant yield method. If an election to treat all interest as OID were to be made with respect to a Note with market discount, the U.S. Holder of such Note would be deemed to have made an election to include in income currently market discount with respect to all other debt instruments having market discount that such U.S. Holder acquires during the year of the election or thereafter. Similarly, a U.S. Holder that makes this election for a Note that is acquired at a premium will be deemed to have made an election to amortize bond premium with respect to all debt instruments having amortizable bond premium that such U.S. Holder owns or acquires. The election to accrue interest, discount and premium on a constant yield method with respect to a Note cannot be revoked without the consent of the IRS.

Disposition of the Notes. In general, a U.S. Holder of a Note initially will have a basis in such Note equal to the cost of such Note to such U.S. Holder, (i) increased by any amount includable in income by such U.S. Holder as OID (or accrued market discount such U.S. Holder previously included in income) with respect to such Note, and (ii) reduced by amortized premium and by any payments on such Note, other than payments of qualified stated interest on such Note. Upon a sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition of a Note, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized on the disposition (other than amounts attributable to accrued qualified stated interest on such Note, which will be taxable as described above) and the U.S. Holder's tax basis in such Note. Except to the extent of accrued interest or market discount not previously included in income, gain or loss from the disposition of a Note generally will be long term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder held the Note for more than one year at the time of disposition, provided that such Note is held as a "capital asset" (generally, property held for investment) within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code.

In certain circumstances, U.S. Holders that are individuals may be entitled to preferential treatment for net long-term capital gains; however, the ability of U.S. Holders to offset capital losses against ordinary income is limited.

Gain recognized by a U.S. Holder on the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition of a Note generally will be treated as from sources within the United States and loss so recognized generally will be available to offset income from sources in the United States.

Alternative Characterization of the Notes. Notwithstanding special U.S. tax counsel's opinion, U.S. Holders should recognize that there is some uncertainty regarding the appropriate classification of instruments such as the Notes. It is possible, for example, that the IRS may contend that a Class of Notes should be treated as equity interests (or as part debt, part equity) in the Issuer. Such a recharacterization might result in material adverse U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders. If U.S. Holders of a Class of the Notes were treated as owning equity interests in the Issuer, the U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders of such recharacterized Notes would be as described under “—Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of Preference Shares” and “—Tax Return Disclosure and Investor List Requirements.” In order to avoid the application of the PFIC rules, each U.S. Holder of a Security should consider making a qualified electing fund election provided in Section 1295 of the Code on a “protective” basis (although such protective election may not be respected by the IRS because current regulations do not specifically authorize that particular election). Further, U.S. Holders of any Class of Notes that may be recharacterized as equity in the Issuer should consult with their own tax advisors with respect to whether, if they owned equity in the Issuer, they would be required to file information returns in accordance with sections 6038, 6038B, and 6046 of the Code (and, if so, whether they should file such returns on a protective basis).

Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of Preference Shares

Based on the capital structure of the Issuer and the terms of the Preference Shares, it is likely the Preference Shares will be treated as equity for United States federal income tax purposes. The following discussion is based on the Preference Shares being treated as equity of the Issuer.

Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company. The Issuer will constitute a “passive foreign investment company” (“PFIC”). Accordingly, U.S. Holders of Preference Shares (other than certain U.S. Holders that are subject to the rules pertaining to a “controlled foreign corporation”, described below) will be considered U.S. shareholders in a PFIC and will be required to file annual information returns on IRS Form 8621 with their U.S. federal income tax returns. In general, a U.S. Holder of a PFIC may desire to make an election to treat the Issuer as a “qualified electing fund” (“QEF”) with respect to such U.S. Holder. Generally, a QEF election should be made by filing IRS Form 8621 with a U.S. Holder’s federal income tax return for the first taxable year for which it held Preference Shares, indicating on such form the Holder’s election to treat a PFIC as a QEF. If a timely QEF election is made for the Issuer, an electing U.S. Holder generally will be required in each taxable year to include in gross income (i) as ordinary income, such holder’s pro rata share of the Issuer’s ordinary earnings and (ii) as long term capital gain, such holder’s pro rata share of the Issuer’s net capital gain, whether or not distributed. A U.S. Holder will not be eligible for the preferential income tax rate on “qualified dividend income” (as defined in the Code) or the dividends received deduction with respect to any such income or gain. In addition, any losses of the Issuer in a taxable year will not be available to such U.S. Holder and may not be carried back or forward in computing the Issuer’s ordinary earnings and net capital gain in other taxable years. An amount included in an electing U.S. Holder’s gross income should be treated as income from sources outside the United States for U.S. foreign tax credit limitation purposes. However, if U.S. Holders collectively own (directly or constructively) 50% or more (measured by vote or value) of the Preference Shares, such amount will be treated as income from sources within the United States for such purposes to the extent that such amount is attributable to income of the Issuer from sources within the United States. If applicable to a U.S. Holder of Preference Shares, the rules pertaining to a “controlled foreign corporation”, discussed below, generally override those pertaining to a PFIC with respect to which a QEF election is in effect.

In certain cases in which a QEF does not distribute all of its earnings in a taxable year, U.S. shareholders may also be permitted to elect to defer payment of some or all of the taxes on the QEF’s income subject to an interest charge on the deferred amount. In this respect, prospective purchasers of Preference Shares should be aware that it is possible that the Collateral Obligations may be purchased by the Issuer with substantial OID, the cash payment of which may be deferred, perhaps for a substantial period of time, and the Issuer may use interest and other income from the Collateral Obligations to purchase additional Collateral Obligations or to retire Securities. As a result, the Issuer may have in any given year substantial amounts of earnings for U.S. federal income tax purposes that are not distributed on the Preference Shares. Thus, absent an election to defer payment of taxes, U.S. Holders that make a QEF election with respect to the Issuer may owe tax on significant undistributed income.

In addition, it should be noted that if the Issuer acquires obligations that are not in registered form, a U.S. Holder making a QEF election (a) may not be permitted to take a deduction for any loss attributable to such obligations when calculating its share of the Issuer’s earnings and (b) may be required to treat income attributable to such obligations as ordinary income even though the income would otherwise constitute capital gains. It is possible that some portion of the assets of the Issuer will constitute obligations that are not in registered form.

The Issuer will provide, upon request, all information and documentation that a U.S. Holder making a QEF election is required to obtain for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

A U.S. Holder of Preference Shares (other than certain U.S. Holders that are subject to the rules pertaining to a “controlled foreign corporation”, described below) that does not make a timely QEF election will be required to report any gain on disposition (including gain recognized upon a redemption) of any Preference Shares as if it were an excess distribution, rather than capital gain, and to compute the tax liability on such gain and any other excess distribution received with respect to the Preference Shares as if such items had been earned ratably over each day in the U.S. Holder’s holding period (or a certain portion thereof) for the Preference Shares. The U.S. Holder will be subject to tax on such items at the highest ordinary income tax rate for each taxable year, other than the current year of the U.S. Holder (which are includable as ordinary income by such U.S. Holder for such current year), in which the items were treated as having been earned, regardless of the rate otherwise applicable to the U.S. Holder. Further, such U.S. Holder will also be liable for an additional tax equal to interest on the tax liability attributable to income allocated to prior years as if such liability had been due with respect to each such prior year. For purposes of these rules, gifts, exchanges pursuant to corporate reorganizations and use of the Preference Shares as security for a loan may be treated as a taxable disposition of such Preference Shares. Very generally, an “excess distribution” is the amount by which distributions during a taxable year with respect to a Preference Share exceed 125 percent of the average amount of distributions in respect thereof during the three preceding taxable years (or, if shorter, the U.S. Holder’s holding period for the Preference Share). In addition, a stepped-up basis in the Preference Shares upon the death of an individual U.S. Holder may not be available.

In many cases, application of the tax on gain on disposition and receipt of excess distributions will be substantially more onerous than the treatment applicable if a timely QEF election is made. ACCORDINGLY, U.S. HOLDERS OF PREFERENCE SHARES SHOULD CONSIDER CAREFULLY WHETHER TO MAKE A QEF ELECTION WITH RESPECT TO THE PREFERENCE SHARES AND THE CONSEQUENCES OF NOT MAKING SUCH AN ELECTION.

Investment in a Controlled Foreign Corporation. The Issuer may be classified as a controlled foreign corporation (“CFC”). In general, a foreign corporation will be classified as a CFC if more than 50% of the shares of the corporation, measured by reference to combined voting power or value, is owned (actually or constructively) by “U.S. Shareholders”. A U.S. Shareholder, for this purpose, is any U.S. person that possesses (actually or constructively) 10% or more of the combined voting power (generally the right to vote for directors of the corporation) of all classes of shares of a corporation. Although the Preference Shares do not vote for directors of the Issuer, it is possible that the IRS would assert that the Preference Shares are de facto voting securities and that U.S. Holders possessing (actually or constructively) 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote (including the Preference Shares) are U.S. Shareholders. If this argument were successful and more than 50% of the Preference Shares (determined with respect to aggregate value or combined voting power) are owned (actually or constructively) by such U.S. Shareholders, the Issuer would be treated as a CFC.

If the Issuer were treated as a CFC, a U.S. Shareholder who holds Preference Shares of the Issuer on the last day of the Issuer’s taxable year would be treated, subject to certain exceptions, as receiving a deemed dividend at the end of the taxable year of the Issuer in an amount equal to that person’s pro rata share of the “subpart F income” of the Issuer (which may include any subpart F income of the Issuer during the warehousing of the Collateral Obligations). Such deemed dividend would be treated as income from sources within the United States for U.S. foreign tax credit limitation purposes to the extent that it is attributable to income of the Issuer from sources within the United States. Among other items, and subject to certain exceptions, “subpart F income” includes dividends, interest, annuities, gains from the sale or exchange of shares and securities, certain gains from commodities transactions, certain types of insurance income and income from certain transactions with related parties. It is likely that, if the Issuer were to constitute a CFC, all or most of its income would be subpart F income and, in general, if the Issuer’s subpart F income exceeds 70% of its gross income for a taxable year, the entire amount of the Issuer’s income for such taxable year will be treated as subpart F income.

If the Issuer were treated as a CFC, a U.S. Shareholder of the Issuer which made a QEF election with respect to the Issuer would be taxable on the subpart F income of the Issuer under rules described in the preceding paragraph and not under the QEF rules previously described. As a result, to the extent subpart F income of the Issuer includes net capital gains, such gains will be treated as ordinary income of the U.S. Shareholder under the CFC rules, notwithstanding the fact that the character of such gains generally would otherwise be preserved under the QEF rules.

Furthermore, if the Issuer were treated as a CFC and a U.S. Holder were treated as a U.S. Shareholder therein, the Issuer would not be treated as a PFIC or a QEF with respect to such U.S. Holder for the period during which the Issuer remained a CFC and such U.S. Holder remained a U.S. Shareholder therein (the “qualified portion” of the U.S. Holder’s holding period for the Preference Shares). If the qualified portion of such U.S. Holder’s holding period for the Preference Shares subsequently ceased (either because the Issuer ceased to be a CFC or the U.S. Holder ceased to be a U.S. Shareholder), then solely for purposes of the PFIC rules, such U.S. Holder’s holding period for the Preference Shares would be treated as beginning on the first day following the end of such qualified portion, unless the U.S. Holder had owned any Preference Shares for any period of time prior to such qualified portion and had not made a QEF election with respect to the Issuer. In that case, the Issuer would again be treated as a PFIC which is not a QEF with respect to such U.S. Holder and the beginning of such U.S. Holder’s holding period for the Preference Shares would continue to be the date upon which such U.S. Holder acquired the Preference Shares, unless the U.S. Holder made an election to recognize gain with respect to the Preference Shares and a QEF election with respect to the Issuer.

Indirect Interests in PFICs and CFCs. If the Issuer owns a Collateral Obligation or an Eligible Equity Security issued by a non-U.S. corporation that is treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, U.S. Holders of Preference Shares could be treated as owning an indirect equity interest in a PFIC or a CFC and could be subject to certain adverse tax consequences.

In particular, if the Issuer owns equity interests in PFICs (“Lower-Tier PFICs”), a U.S. Holder of Preference Shares would be treated as owning directly the U.S. Holder’s proportionate amount (by value) of the Issuer’s equity interests in the Lower-Tier PFICs. A U.S. Holder’s QEF election with respect to the Issuer would not be effective with respect to such Lower-Tier PFICs. However, a U.S. Holder would be able to make QEF elections with respect to such Lower-Tier PFICs if the Lower-Tier PFICs provide certain information and documentation to the Issuer in accordance with applicable Treasury Regulations. However, there can be no assurance that the Issuer would be able to obtain such information and documentation from any Lower-Tier PFIC, and thus there can be no assurance that a U.S. Holder would be able to make or maintain a QEF election with respect to any Lower-Tier PFIC. If a U.S. Holder does not have a QEF election in effect with respect to a Lower-Tier PFIC, as a general matter, the U.S. Holder would be subject to the adverse consequences described above under “—Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company” with respect to any excess distributions made by such Lower-Tier PFIC to the Issuer, any gain on the disposition by the Issuer of its equity interest in such Lower-Tier PFIC treated as indirectly realized by such U.S. Holder, and any gain treated as indirectly realized by such U.S. Holder on the disposition of its equity in the Issuer (which may arise even if the U.S. Holder realizes a loss on such disposition). Such amount would not be reduced by expenses or losses of the Issuer, but any income recognized may increase a U.S. Holder’s tax basis in its Preference Shares. Moreover, if the U.S. Holder has a QEF election in effect with respect to a Lower-Tier PFIC, the U.S. Holder would be required to include in income the U.S. Holder’s pro rata share of the Lower-Tier PFIC’s ordinary earnings and net capital gain as if the U.S. Holder’s indirect equity interest in the Lower-Tier PFIC were directly owned, and it appears that the U.S. Holder would not be permitted to use any losses or other expenses of the Issuer to offset such ordinary earnings and/or net capital gains, but recognition of such income may increase a U.S. Holder’s tax basis in its Preference Shares.

Accordingly, if any of the Collateral Obligations or Eligible Equity Securities are treated as equity interests in a PFIC, such U.S. Holders could experience significant amounts of phantom income with respect to such interests. Other adverse tax consequences may arise for such U.S. Holders that are treated as owning indirect interests in CFCs. U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax issues associated with such investments in light of their own individual circumstances.

Distributions on Preference Shares. The treatment of actual distributions of cash on the Preference Shares, in very general terms, will vary depending on whether a U.S. Holder has made a timely QEF election as described above. See “—Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company”. If a timely QEF election has been made, distributions should be allocated first to amounts previously taxed pursuant to the QEF election (or pursuant to the CFC rules, if applicable) and to this extent will not be taxable to U.S. Holders. Distributions in excess of amounts previously taxed pursuant to a QEF election (or pursuant to the CFC rules, if applicable) will be treated as dividends (but not eligible for the reduced tax rate applicable to “qualified dividend income”) and taxable to U.S. Holders as ordinary income upon receipt to the extent of any remaining amounts of untaxed current and accumulated earnings and profits of the Issuer. Distributions in excess of any current and accumulated earnings and profits will be treated first as a nontaxable reduction to the U.S. Holder's tax basis for the Preference Shares to the extent thereof and then as capital gain.

In the event that a U.S. Holder does not make a timely QEF election, then except to the extent that distributions may be attributable to amounts previously taxed pursuant to the CFC rules, some or all of any distributions with respect to the Preference Shares may constitute "excess distributions", taxable as previously described. See "—Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company". In that event, except to the extent that distributions may be attributable to amounts previously taxed to the U.S. Holder pursuant to the CFC rules or are treated as "excess distributions", distributions on the Preference Shares generally would be treated as dividends to the extent paid out of the Issuer's current or accumulated earnings and profits not allocated to any "excess distributions", then as a nontaxable reduction to the U.S. Holder's tax basis for the Preference Shares to the extent thereof and then as capital gain. Dividends on the Preference Shares would not be "qualified dividend income" and therefore would be taxable to individuals, trusts and estates as ordinary income rather than at the 15% net capital gain rate. Dividends received from a foreign corporation generally will be treated as income from sources outside the United States for U.S. foreign tax credit limitation purposes. However, if U.S. Holders collectively own (directly or constructively) 50% or more (measured by vote or value) of the Preference Shares, a percentage of the dividend income equal to the proportion of the Issuer's earnings and profits from sources within the United States generally will be treated as income from sources within the United States for such purposes.

Disposition of the Preference Shares. In general, a U.S. Holder of a Preference Share will recognize gain or loss upon the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition of a Preference Share equal to the difference between the amount realized and such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the Preference Share. Except as discussed below, such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder held the Preference Share for more than one year at the time of the disposition. In certain circumstances, U.S. Holders who are individuals may be entitled to preferential treatment for net long-term capital gains; however, the ability of U.S. Holders to offset capital losses against ordinary income is limited. Gain recognized by a U.S. Holder on the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition of a Preference Share (other than, in the case of a U.S. Holder treated as a "U.S. Shareholder", any such gain characterized as a dividend, as discussed below) generally will be treated as from sources within the United States and loss so recognized generally will be available to offset income from sources within the United States.

Initially, a U.S. Holder's tax basis for a Preference Share will equal the amount paid for the Preference Share. Such basis will be increased by amounts taxable to such U.S. Holder by virtue of a QEF election, or by virtue of the CFC rules, as applicable, and decreased by actual distributions from the Issuer that are deemed to consist of such previously taxed amounts or are treated as a nontaxable reduction to the U.S. Holder's tax basis for the Preference Share (as described above).

If a U.S. Holder does not make a timely QEF election as described above, any gain realized on the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition of a Preference Share (or any gain deemed to accrue prior to the time a non-timely QEF election is made) will be taxed as ordinary income and subject to an additional tax reflecting a deemed interest charge under the special tax rules described above. See "—Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company".

Except for a limited exception applicable to individuals, if the Issuer were treated as a CFC and a U.S. Holder were treated as a "U.S. Shareholder" therein, then any gain realized by such U.S. Holder upon the disposition of Preference Shares, other than gain constituting an excess distribution under the PFIC rules, if applicable, would be treated as a dividend to the extent of the U.S. Holder's share of the current or accumulated earnings and profits of the Issuer. In this regard, earnings and profits would not include any amounts previously taxed pursuant to a timely QEF election or pursuant to the CFC rules.

Certain Reporting Requirements

A U.S. Holder of Preference Shares that owns (actually or constructively) at least 10% by vote or value of the Issuer (and each officer or director of the Issuer that is a U.S. citizen or resident) may be required to file an information return on IRS Form 5471. A U.S. Holder of Preference Shares generally is required to provide additional information regarding the Issuer annually on IRS Form 5471 if it owns (actually or constructively) more than 50% by vote or value of the Issuer. U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding whether they are required to file IRS Form 5471.

A U.S. person (including a tax exempt entity) that purchases the Preference Shares for cash will be required to file an IRS Form 926 or similar form with the IRS if (a) such person owned, directly or by attribution, immediately after the transfer at least 10% by vote or value of the Issuer or (b) if the transfer, when aggregated with all transfers made by such person (or any related person) within the preceding 12 month period, exceeds $100,000. In the event a U.S. Holder fails to file any such required form, the U.S. Holder could be required to pay a penalty equal to 10% of the gross amount paid for such Preference Shares (subject to a maximum penalty of $100,000, except in cases involving intentional disregard). U.S. persons should consult their tax advisors with respect to this or any other reporting requirement which may apply with respect to their acquisition of the Preference Shares.

Tax Treatment of Tax-Exempt U.S. Holders of Securities

U.S. Holders which are tax-exempt entities (“Tax-Exempt U.S. Holders”) will not be subject to the tax on unrelated business taxable income (“UBTI”) with respect to interest and capital gains income derived from an investment in the Senior Notes or the Class E Notes (assuming that the Class E Notes are treated as debt of the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes). However, a Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder that also acquires the Preference Shares (or, if recharacterized as equity in the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Class E Notes) should consider whether interest it receives with respect to the Securities may be treated as UBTI under rules governing certain payments received from controlled entities.

A Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to the tax on UBTI with respect to regular distributions or “excess distributions” (defined above under “—Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of Preference Shares — Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company”) on the Preference Shares. A Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder which is not subject to tax on UBTI with respect to “excess distributions” may not make a QEF election. In addition, a Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder which is subject to the rules relating to “controlled foreign corporations” with respect to the Preference Shares (or, if recharacterized as equity in the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Class E Notes) generally should not be subject to the tax on UBTI with respect to income from such Preference Shares (or, if recharacterized as equity in the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Class E Notes).

Notwithstanding the discussion in the preceding two paragraphs, a Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder which incurs “acquisition indebtedness” (as defined in Section 514(c) of the Code) with respect to the Securities may be subject to the tax on UBTI with respect to income from the Securities to the extent that the Securities constitute “debt-financed property” (as defined in Section 514(b) of the Code) of the Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder. A Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder subject to the tax on UBTI with respect to income from the Preference Shares (or, if recharacterized as equity in the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Class E Notes) will be taxed on “excess distributions” in the manner discussed above under “—Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of Preference Shares—Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company”. Such a Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder will be permitted, and should consider whether, to make a QEF election with respect to the Issuer as discussed above.

Tax-Exempt U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding an investment in the Securities.

Tax Return Disclosure and Investor List Requirements

Any person that files a U.S. federal income tax return or U.S. federal information return and participates in a “reportable transaction” in a taxable year is required to disclose certain information on IRS Form 8886 (or its successor form) attached to such person’s U.S. tax return for such taxable year (and also file a copy of such form with the IRS’s Office of Tax Shelter Analysis) and to retain certain documents related to the transaction. In addition, under these regulations, under certain circumstances, certain organizers and sellers and other advisors with respect to a “reportable transaction” will be required to file reports with the IRS and maintain lists of participants in the transaction containing identifying information, retain certain documents related to the transaction, and furnish those lists and documents to the IRS upon request. There are significant penalties for failure to comply with these disclosure and list keeping requirements. The definition of “reportable transaction” is highly technical. However, in very general terms, a transaction may be a “reportable transaction” if, among other things, it is offered under conditions of confidentiality or it results in the claiming of a loss or losses for U.S. federal income tax purposes in excess of certain threshold amounts.

In this regard, in order to prevent the investors' purchase of Securities in this offering from being treated as offered under conditions of confidentiality, the Servicer, the Issuer and the holders and beneficial owners of the Securities (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure of the transactions described herein and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure. For this purpose, the U.S. tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. tax treatment of the transaction under applicable U.S. federal, state or local tax law, and the U.S. tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. tax treatment of the transaction under applicable U.S. federal, state or local tax law.

If the Issuer participates in a "reportable transaction", a U.S. Holder of Preference Shares that is a "reporting shareholder" of the Issuer will be treated as participating in the transaction and will be subject to the rules described above. Although most of the Issuer's activities generally are not expected to give rise to "reportable transactions", the Issuer nevertheless may participate in certain types of transactions that could be treated as "reportable transactions". A U.S. Holder of Preference Shares will be treated as a "reporting shareholder" of the Issuer if (i) such U.S. Holder owns 10% or more of the Preference Shares and makes a QEF election with respect to the Issuer or (ii) the Issuer is treated as a CFC and such U.S. Holder is a "U.S. Shareholder" (as defined above) of the Issuer. The Issuer will make reasonable efforts to make such information available.

Prospective investors in the Securities should consult their own tax advisors concerning any possible disclosure obligations under these Treasury Regulations with respect to their ownership or disposition of the Securities in light of their particular circumstances.

Tax Treatment of Non-U.S. Holders of Securities

In general, payments on the Securities to a Holder that is not, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. Holder (a "Non-U.S. Holder") and gain realized on the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other disposition of the Securities by a Non-U.S. Holder, will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax, unless (a) such income is effectively connected with a trade or business conducted by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States, (b) notwithstanding the opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel, it is not the case that less than 25% of the gross income from all sources of the Issuer for the 3-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the payments on the Securities taxable as dividends was effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States, or (c) in the case of gain, such Non-U.S. Holder is a nonresident alien individual who holds the Securities as a capital asset and is present in the United States for more than 182 days in the taxable year of the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other disposition of the Securities and certain other conditions are satisfied.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Under certain circumstances, the Code requires "information reporting", and may require "backup withholding", with respect to certain payments made on the Securities and the payment of the proceeds from the disposition of the Securities. Backup withholding generally will not apply to corporations, tax-exempt organizations, qualified pension and profit sharing trusts, and individual retirement accounts. Backup withholding will apply to a U.S. Holder if the U.S. Holder fails to provide certain identifying information (such as the U.S. Holder's taxpayer identification number) or otherwise comply with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. The application for exemption from backup withholding for a U.S. Holder is available by providing a properly completed IRS Form W-9.

A Non-U.S. Holder of the Securities generally will not be subject to these information reporting requirements or backup withholding with respect to payments of interest or distributions on the Securities if (a) it certifies to the Trustee its status as a Non-U.S. Holder under penalties of perjury on the appropriate IRS Form W-8, and (b) in the case of a Non-U.S. Holder that is a "nonwithholding foreign partnership", "foreign simple trust" or "foreign grantor trust" as defined in the applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations under the Code, the beneficial owners of such Non-U.S. Holder also certify their status as Non-U.S. Holders under penalties of perjury on the appropriate IRS Form W-8.

The payments of the proceeds from the disposition of a Security by a Non-U.S. Holder to or through the U.S. office of a broker generally will not be subject to information reporting and backup withholding if the Non-U.S.

Holder certifies its status as a Non-U.S. Holder (and, if applicable, its beneficial owners also certify their status as Non-U.S. Holders) under penalties of perjury on the appropriate IRS Form W-8, satisfies certain documentary evidence requirements for establishing that it is a Non-U.S. Holder, or otherwise establishes an exemption. The payment of the proceeds from the disposition of a Security by a Non-U.S. Holder to or through a non-U.S. office of a non-U.S. broker will not be subject to backup withholding or information reporting unless the non-U.S. broker has certain specific types of relationships to the United States, in which case the treatment of such payment for such purposes will be as described in the following sentence. The payment of proceeds from the disposition of a Security by a Non-U.S. Holder to or through a non-U.S. office of a U.S. broker or to or through a non-U.S. broker with certain specific types of relationships to the United States generally will not be subject to backup withholding but will be subject to information reporting unless the Non-U.S. Holder certifies its status as a Non-U.S. Holder (and, if applicable, its beneficial owners also certify their status as Non-U.S. Holders) under penalties of perjury or the broker has certain documentary evidence in its files as to the Non-U.S. Holder's foreign status and the broker has no actual knowledge to the contrary.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax and may be credited against the U.S. Holder's or Non-U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, and then refunded to the extent of any excess thereon; provided that certain required information is furnished to the IRS. The information reporting requirements may apply regardless of whether withholding is required.

Foreign, State and Local Taxes

Holders of Securities may be liable for foreign, state and local taxes in the country, state, or locality in which they are resident or doing business. Since the tax laws of each country, state, and locality may differ, each prospective investor should consult its own tax counsel with respect to any taxes other than United States federal income taxes that may be payable as a result of an investment in the Securities.

Cayman Islands Taxation. The following discussion of certain Cayman Islands income tax consequences of an investment in the Securities is based on the advice of Walkers as to Cayman Islands law. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It assumes that the Issuer will conduct its affairs in accordance with assumptions made by and representations made to, counsel. It is not intended as tax advice, does not consider any investor's particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

Under existing Cayman Islands laws:

- (i) payments of principal and interest on the Notes and dividends and capital in respect of the Preference Shares will not be subject to taxation in the Cayman Islands and no withholding will be required on such payments to any Holder of a Security and gains derived from the sale of Securities will not be subject to Cayman Islands income or corporation tax. The Cayman Islands currently have no income, corporation or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax;
- (ii) no stamp duty is payable in respect of the issue or transfer of Securities although duty may be payable if Notes are executed in or brought into the Cayman Islands; and
- (iii) certificates evidencing Securities, in registered form, to which title is not transferable by delivery, should not attract Cayman Islands stamp duty. However, an instrument transferring title to a Note or an agreement to transfer Preference Shares, if brought to or executed in the Cayman Islands, would be subject to Cayman Islands stamp duty.

The Issuer is incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands as an exempted company with limited liability and, as such, has applied for and received an undertaking from the Governor in Cabinet of the Cayman Islands in substantially the following form:

“THE TAX CONCESSIONS LAW
1999 REVISION
UNDERTAKING AS TO TAX CONCESSIONS

In accordance with Section 6 of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision) the Governor in Cabinet undertakes with:

Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd. (in its former name Rockwall CDO III Ltd.) “the Company”

(a) that no law which is hereafter enacted in the Islands imposing any tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations shall apply to the Company or its operations; and

(b) in addition, that no tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations or which is in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax shall be payable:

(i) on or in respect of the shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company; or

(ii) by way of the withholding in whole or part, of any relevant payment as defined in Section 6(3) of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision).

These concessions shall be for a period of THIRTY years from the 30th day of January 2007.

GOVERNOR IN CABINET”

The Cayman Islands does not have an income tax treaty arrangement with the U.S. or any other country.

THE PRECEDING DISCUSSION IS ONLY A SUMMARY OF CERTAIN OF THE TAX IMPLICATIONS OF AN INVESTMENT IN THE SECURITIES. PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS ARE URGED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS PRIOR TO INVESTING TO DETERMINE THE TAX IMPLICATIONS OF SUCH INVESTMENT IN LIGHT OF SUCH INVESTORS’ CIRCUMSTANCES.

The advice below was not written and is not intended to be used and cannot be used by any taxpayer for purposes of avoiding United States federal income tax penalties that may be imposed. The advice is written to support the promotion or marketing of the transaction. Each taxpayer should seek advice based on the taxpayer’s particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

The foregoing disclaimer is provided to satisfy obligations under Circular 230 governing standards of practice before the Internal Revenue Service.

The United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), imposes certain requirements on “employee benefit plans” (as defined in Section 3(3) of, and that are subject to, Title I of ERISA), including entities such as collective investment funds and insurance company separate accounts whose underlying assets include the assets of such plans (collectively, “ERISA Plans”) and on those persons who are fiduciaries with respect to ERISA Plans. Investments by ERISA Plans are subject to ERISA’s general fiduciary requirements, including the requirement of investment prudence and diversification and the requirement that an ERISA Plan’s investments be made in accordance with the documents governing the ERISA Plan. The prudence of a particular investment must be determined by the responsible fiduciary of an ERISA Plan by taking into account the ERISA Plan’s particular circumstances and all of the facts and circumstances of the investment including, but not limited to, the matters discussed above under “Risk Factors” and the fact that in the future there may be no market in which such fiduciary will be able to sell or otherwise dispose of the Securities.

Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code prohibit certain transactions involving the assets of an ERISA Plan (as well as those plans that are not subject to ERISA but which are subject to Section 4975 of the Code, such as individual retirement accounts (together with ERISA Plans, “Plans”)) and certain persons (referred to as “parties in interest” or “disqualified persons”) having certain relationships to such Plans, unless a statutory or administrative exemption is applicable to the transaction. A party in interest or disqualified person who engages in a prohibited transaction may be subject to excise taxes and other penalties and liabilities under ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code.

Governmental plans, certain church plans and non-U.S. plans, while not subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA or the provisions of Section 4975 of the Code, may nevertheless be subject to state, local or other federal and non U.S. laws that are substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code (“Substantially Similar Law”). Fiduciaries of any such plans should consult with their counsel before purchasing any Securities.

The U.S. Department of Labor has promulgated regulations, 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101, which have been modified by Section 3(42) of ERISA (collectively, the “Plan Asset Regulation”), describing what constitutes the assets of a Plan with respect to the Plan’s investment in an entity for purposes of certain provisions of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code, including the fiduciary responsibility provisions of Title I of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code. Under the Plan Asset Regulation, if a Plan invests in an “equity interest” of an entity that is neither a “publicly offered security” nor a security issued by an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act, the Plan’s assets include both the equity interest and an undivided interest in each of the entity’s underlying assets, unless it is established that the entity is an “operating company” or, as further discussed below, that equity participation in the entity by “benefit plan investors” is not “significant.”

Prohibited transactions within the meaning of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code may arise if Notes are acquired with the assets of a Plan with respect to which the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, the Trustee, the Servicer, any seller of Collateral Obligations to the Issuer and the Co-Issuer or any of their respective Affiliates, is a party in interest or a disqualified person. Certain exemptions from the prohibited transaction provisions of Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code may be applicable, however, depending in part on the type of Plan fiduciary making the decision to acquire a Security and the circumstances under which such decision is made. Included among these exemptions are Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption (“PTCE”) 91-38 (relating to investments by bank collective investment funds), PTCE 84-14 (relating to transactions effected by independent “qualified professional asset managers”), PTCE 90-1 (relating to investments by insurance company pooled separate accounts), PTCE 95-60 (relating to investments by insurance company general accounts), and PTCE 96-23 (relating to transactions effected by certain “in-house asset managers”) (“Investor-Based Exemptions”). There can be no assurance that any of these Investor-Based Exemptions or any other exemption will be available with respect to any particular transaction involving the Securities. There is also a statutory exemption that may be available under Section 408(b)(17) of ERISA and Section 4975(d)(20) of the Code to a party in interest that is a service provider to a Plan investing in the Securities for adequate consideration, provided such service provider is not (i) the fiduciary with respect to the Plan’s assets used to acquire the Securities or an affiliate of such fiduciary or (ii) an affiliate of the employer sponsoring the Plan (the “Service Provider Exemption”). Adequate consideration means fair market as determined in good faith by the Plan fiduciary pursuant to regulations to be promulgated by the U.S. Department of Labor.

Any Plan fiduciary or other person who proposes to use assets of any Plan to purchase any Securities should consult with its counsel regarding the applicability of the fiduciary responsibility and prohibited transaction provisions of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code to such an investment, and to confirm that such investment will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction or any other violation of an applicable requirement of ERISA.

The sale of any Security to a Plan, or to a person using assets of any Plan to effect its purchase of any Security, is in no respect a representation by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Initial Purchaser or the Servicer that such an investment meets all relevant legal requirements with respect to investments by Plans generally or any particular Plan, or that such an investment is appropriate for Plans generally or any particular Plan.

Any insurance company proposing to invest assets of its general account in Securities should consider the extent to which such investment would be subject to the requirements of Title I of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code in light of the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co. v. Harris Trust and Savings Bank, 510 U.S. 86 (1993), and the enactment of Section 401(c) of ERISA on August 20, 1996. In particular, such an insurance company should consider (i) the exemptive relief granted by the U.S. Department of Labor for transactions involving insurance company general accounts in PTCE 95-60 and (ii) if such exemptive relief is not available, whether its purchase of Securities will be permissible under the final regulations issued under Section 401(c) of ERISA. The final regulations provide guidance on which assets held by an insurance company constitute “plan assets” for purposes of the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code. The regulations do not exempt the assets of insurance company general accounts from treatment as “plan assets” to the extent they support certain participating annuities issued to Plans after December 31, 1998.

The Senior Notes

The Plan Asset Regulation defines an “equity interest” as any interest in an entity other than an instrument that is treated as indebtedness under applicable local law and which has no substantial equity features. As noted above in Income Tax Considerations, it is the opinion of tax counsel to the Issuer and the Co-Issuer that the Senior Notes will be treated as debt for U.S. income tax purposes. Although there is little guidance on the subject, at the time of their issuance, the Senior Notes should be treated as indebtedness without substantial equity features for purposes of the Plan Asset Regulation. This determination is based in part upon (i) tax counsel’s opinion that the Senior Notes will be classified as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes when issued and (ii) the traditional debt features of the Senior Notes, including the reasonable expectation of purchasers of the Senior Notes that they will be repaid when due, as well as the absence of conversion rights, warrants and other typical equity features. Based upon and subject to the foregoing and other considerations, and subject to the considerations described below, the Senior Notes may be purchased by a Plan. Nevertheless, without regard to whether the Senior Notes are considered equity interests, prohibited transactions within the meaning of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code may arise if the Senior Notes are acquired with the assets of an ERISA Plan with respect to which the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Initial Purchaser or the Trustee or, in certain circumstances, any of their respective Affiliates, is a party in interest or a disqualified person. The Investor-Based Exemptions or the Service Provider Exemption may be available to cover such prohibited transactions.

By the acquisition of any Senior Notes, each purchaser and subsequent transferee thereof, and each fiduciary acting on behalf of the purchaser or subsequent transferee (both in its fiduciary and corporate capacity), will be deemed to have represented and warranted at the time of the purchase or subsequent transfer and throughout the period such Senior Note is held either that (a) such purchaser or subsequent transferee is neither a Plan nor any entity whose underlying assets include “plan assets” (within the meaning of the Plan Asset Regulation) by reason of such Plan’s investment in the entity, nor a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan which is subject to any Substantially Similar Law or (b) (i) in connection with the acquisition, holding and disposition of such Senior Note, the purchaser’s or subsequent transferee’s fiduciary has determined that such purchaser or subsequent transferee is receiving no less, and paying no more, than “adequate consideration” (within the meaning of Section 408(b)(17)(B) of ERISA and Section 4975(f)(10) of the Code) and (ii) the purchase, holding and disposition of a Senior Note by such purchaser or subsequent transferee will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan, a non-exempt violation of any Substantially Similar Law).

Any Plan fiduciary or other person who proposes to use assets of any Plan to purchase any Senior Notes should consult with its counsel regarding the applicability of the fiduciary responsibility and prohibited transaction provisions of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code to such an investment, and to confirm that such investment will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction or any other violation of an applicable requirement of ERISA.

The Class E Notes and the Preference Shares

Equity participation in an issuer of securities by “benefit plan investors” is “significant” and will cause the assets of the Issuer to be deemed the assets of an investing Plan (in the absence of another applicable Plan Asset Regulation exception) if 25% or more of the value of any class of equity interest in the Issuer is held by “benefit plan investors,” as defined in the Plan Asset Regulation. The term “benefit plan investor” includes (a) an employee benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) that is subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA, (b) a plan as defined in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code that is subject to Section 4975 of the Code, (c) any entity whose underlying assets include “plan assets” by reason of any such employee benefit plan’s or plan’s investment in the entity or (d) as such term is otherwise modified from time to time (collectively “Benefit Plan Investors”). For purposes of making the 25% determination, the value of any equity interests held by a person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) who has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or any person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to such assets, or any Affiliate of such person (each, a “Controlling Person”), is disregarded. Under the Plan Asset Regulation, an “affiliate” of a person includes any person, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controlling, controlled by or under common control with the person, and “control” with respect to a person other than an individual, means the power to exercise a controlling influence over the management or policies of such person. The Preference Shares and the Class E Notes are considered equity investments for the purposes of applying Title I of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code. Accordingly, purchases and transfers of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares by Benefit Plan Investors from the Initial Purchaser or the Issuer and any subsequent transferee will be limited to less than 25% of the value of each of all Outstanding Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares and Class II Preference Shares by requiring each such purchaser and subsequent transferee to make certain representations and/or to agree to certain transfer restrictions regarding their status as Benefit Plan Investors or Controlling Persons (the “25% Limitation”). Class E Notes or Preference Shares either (i) held as principal by the Servicer, the Trustee, any of their respective affiliates, employees of the Servicer, the Trustee or any of their affiliates and any charitable foundation of any such employees (other than any of such interests held as a Benefit Plan Investor) or (ii) held by persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons (to the extent that such a Controlling Person is not a Benefit Plan Investor), will be disregarded and will not be treated as Outstanding for purposes of determining compliance with such 25% Limitation.

With respect to the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares, or any beneficial interest therein, a purchaser or subsequent transferee, and each fiduciary acting on behalf of such purchaser or subsequent transferee (both in its fiduciary and corporate capacity), will be required to represent and warrant, at the time of the acquisition and throughout the period such Class E Note, Class I Preference Share or Class II Preference Share is held, (1) whether or not such purchaser or subsequent transferee is a Benefit Plan Investor, (2) whether or not such purchaser or subsequent transferee is a Controlling Person and (3) (a) if such purchaser or subsequent transferee is a Benefit Plan Investor, (i) in connection with the acquisition, holding and disposition of such Class E Note, Class I Preference Share or Class II Preference Share, the purchaser’s or the subsequent transferee’s fiduciary has determined that such purchaser or subsequent transferee is receiving no less, and paying no more, than “adequate consideration” (within the meaning of Section 408(b)(17)(B) of ERISA and Section 4975(f)(10) of the Code) and (ii) the purchase, holding and disposition of Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares by such purchaser or subsequent transferee will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code or (b) if such purchaser or subsequent transferee is a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan that is subject to any Substantially Similar Law, the purchase, holding and disposition of Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares by such purchaser or subsequent transferee will not constitute or result in a non-exempt violation of any such Substantially Similar Law. Any purported transfer of the Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares and Class II Preference Shares, or any interest therein, to a purchaser or subsequent transferee that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph will be of no force and effect, shall be null and void ab initio and the Issuer will have the right to direct the purchaser to transfer the Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares and Class II Preference Shares, or any interest therein, as applicable, to a person who meets the foregoing criteria.

There can be no assurance that, despite the transfer restrictions relating to purchases by Benefit Plan Investors and Controlling Persons and the procedures to be employed by the Issuer to attempt to limit ownership by Benefit Plan Investors of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares, Benefit Plan Investors will not in actuality own 25% or more of the outstanding Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares.

If for any reason the assets of the Issuer are deemed to be “plan assets” of a Plan subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code because one or more Plans is an owner of Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares (or of a Senior Note characterized as an “equity interest” in the Issuer), certain transactions that the Servicer might enter into, or may have entered into, on behalf of the Issuer in the ordinary course of its business might constitute non-exempt “prohibited transactions” under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code and might have to be rescinded at significant cost to the Issuer. The Servicer could be deemed to be an ERISA fiduciary and may be prevented from engaging in certain investments (as not being deemed consistent with the ERISA prudent investment standards) or engaging in certain transactions or fee arrangements because they might be deemed to cause non-exempt prohibited transactions. It also is not clear that Section 403(a) of ERISA, which limits delegation of investment management responsibilities by fiduciaries of ERISA Plans, would be satisfied.

Any Plan fiduciary or other person who proposes to use assets of any Plan to purchase any Securities should consult with its counsel regarding the applicability of the fiduciary responsibility and prohibited transaction provisions of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code to such an investment, and to confirm that such investment will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction or any other violation of an applicable requirement of ERISA.

The sale of any Security to a Plan, or to a person using assets of any Plan to effect its purchase, is in no respect a representation by the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser or the Servicer that such an investment meets all relevant legal requirements with respect to investments by Plans generally or any particular Plan, or that such an investment is appropriate for Plans generally or any particular Plan.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Co-Issuers and the Initial Purchaser will enter into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) relating to the purchase and sale of the Senior Notes to be delivered on the Closing Date. The Senior Notes will be offered by the Initial Purchaser to prospective investors from time to time in individually negotiated transactions at varying prices to be determined at the time of sale. The Initial Purchaser reserves the right to withdraw, cancel or modify such offer and to reject orders in whole or in part. The Initial Purchaser is acting as sole book runner with respect to the placement of the Senior Notes. The Initial Purchaser’s responsibility is limited to a “reasonable efforts” basis in placing the Senior Notes, with no understanding, express or implied, on the part of the Initial Purchaser of a commitment by the Initial Purchaser, whether as principal or agent, to purchase or place the Senior Notes. The obligations of the Initial Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement are subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, each of the Co-Issuers will agree to indemnify the Initial Purchaser against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribute to payments the Initial Purchaser may be required to make in respect thereof. The Senior Notes are offered when, as and if issued by the Co-Issuers, subject to prior sale or withdrawal, cancellation or modification of the offer without notice and subject to approval of certain legal matters by counsel and certain other conditions.

The Co-Issuers have been advised by the Initial Purchaser that the Initial Purchaser proposes to sell the Senior Notes (a) in the United States in reliance upon an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act to Qualified Purchasers who are also Qualified Institutional Buyers, and (b) outside the United States to person who are not U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S) in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S and, in each case, in accordance with applicable laws.

On the Closing Date, (i) the Approved Class II Preference Shareholders are expected to purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class E Notes and may purchase a portion of the Class C Notes and Class D Notes and (ii) the Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates is expected to purchase all or a portion of the Class I Preference Shares. No assurance can be given whether HFP or the Servicer will retain such Class C Notes, Class D Notes, Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares and/or Class II Preference Shares for any amount of time.

The Securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act for offer or sale as part of their distribution and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, a U.S. Person or a U.S. resident (as determined for purposes of the Investment Company Act, a “U.S. Resident”) except in certain transactions exempt from, or not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

The Issuer proposes to sell the Certificated Notes and the Preference Shares in reliance on Rule 144A or pursuant to another exemption from registration under the Securities Act, but only to Qualified Institutional Buyers purchasing for their own accounts or for the accounts of Qualified Institutional Buyers each of which purchasers or accounts is a Qualified Purchaser (or, solely in the case of certain Holders purchasing Certificated Notes on the Closing Date, institutional Accredited Investors (as defined in clause (1), (2), (3) or (7) of Rule 501(a) under Regulation D under the Securities Act which are Qualified Purchasers).

Each purchaser of a Certificated Note or a Preference Share will be required to execute and deliver an investor application form in form and substance satisfactory to the Initial Purchaser and the Issuer.

Application will be made to the Irish Financial Services Regulatory Authority, as competent authority under the Prospectus Directive for this Offering Memorandum to be approved. Application will be made for the Senior Notes to be admitted to the Official List of the Irish Stock Exchange and to trading on its regulated market. There can be no assurance that such listing will be approved or maintained.

The Co-Issuers have agreed to indemnify the Initial Purchaser against certain liabilities, including, but not limited to, liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribute to payments they may be required to make in respect thereof. In addition, the Co-Issuers have agreed to reimburse the Initial Purchaser for certain of its expenses.

SETTLEMENT AND CLEARING

Book Entry Registration of the Global Notes

So long as the Depository, or its nominee, is the registered owner or Holder of a Global Note, the Depository or the nominee, as the case may be, will be considered the sole owner or Holder of the Senior Notes represented by a Global Note for all purposes under the Indenture, the Issuer Charter and the Global Notes, and members of, or participants in, the Depository as well as any other persons on whose behalf the participants may act (including Clearstream and Euroclear and account holders and participants therein) will have no rights under the Indenture, the Issuer Charter or a Global Note. Owners of beneficial interests in a Global Note will not be considered to be owners or Holders of the related Senior Note under the Indenture or the Issuer Charter. Unless the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for a Global Note or ceases to be a “clearing agency” registered under the Exchange Act, owners of a beneficial interest in a Global Note will not be entitled to have any portion of a Global Note registered in their names, will not receive or be entitled to receive physical delivery of Senior Notes in certificated form and will not be considered to be the owners or Holders of any Senior Notes under the Indenture. In addition, no beneficial owner of an interest in a Global Note will be able to transfer that interest except in accordance with the Depository’s applicable procedures (in addition to those under the Indenture and, if applicable, those of Euroclear and Clearstream).

Investors may hold their interests in a Regulation S Global Note directly through Clearstream or Euroclear, if they are participants in Clearstream or Euroclear, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in Clearstream or Euroclear. Clearstream and Euroclear will hold interests in the Regulation S Global Notes on behalf of their participants through their respective depositories, which in turn will hold the interests in Regulation S Global Notes in customers’ securities accounts in the depositories’ names on the books of the Depository. Investors may hold their interests in a Rule 144A Global Note directly through the Depository if they are participants in the Depository, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in the Depository.

Payments of principal of, or interest or other distributions on a Global Note will be made to the Depository or its nominee, as the registered owner thereof. The Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the paying agents, the Initial Purchaser, the Servicer and their respective Affiliates will not have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in a Global Note or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to the beneficial ownership interests.

The Co-Issuers expect that the Depository or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal, interest, or other distributions in respect of a Global Note representing any Senior Notes, as the case may be, held by it or its nominee, will immediately credit participants’ accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the stated aggregate principal amount or number of a Global Note for the Senior Notes, as shown on the records of the Depository or its nominee. The Co-Issuers also expect that payments by participants to owners of beneficial interests in a Global Note held through the participants will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for those customers. The payments will be the responsibility of the participants.

Global Note Settlement Procedures

Transfers between the participants in the Depository will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with the Depository rules and will be settled in immediately available funds. The laws of some states require that certain persons take physical delivery of securities in definitive form. Consequently, the ability to transfer beneficial interests in a Global Note to these persons may be limited. Because the Depository can only act on behalf of participants, who in turn act on behalf of indirect participants and certain banks, the ability of a person holding a beneficial interest in a Global Note to pledge its interest to persons or entities that do not participate in the Depository system, or otherwise take actions in respect of its interest, may be affected by the lack of a physical certificate of the interest. Transfers between participants in Euroclear and Clearstream will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with their respective rules and operating procedures.

Subject to compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Securities described above and under “Transfer Restrictions,” cross-market transfers between the Depository, on the one hand, and directly or indirectly through Euroclear or Clearstream participants, on the other, will be effected in the Depository in accordance with the Depository rules on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, by its respective depository; however, the cross-market transactions will require delivery of instructions to Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, by the counterparty in the system in accordance with its rules and procedures and within its established deadlines (Brussels time). Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, will if the transaction meets its settlement requirements, deliver instructions to its respective depository to take action to effect final settlement on its behalf by delivering or receiving interests in a Senior Note represented by a Regulation S Global Note in the Depository and making or receiving payment in accordance with normal procedures for same-day funds settlement applicable to the Depository. Clearstream participants and Euroclear participants may not deliver instructions directly to the depositories of Clearstream or Euroclear.

Because of time zone differences, cash received in Euroclear or Clearstream as a result of sales of interests in a Regulation S Global Note by or through a Euroclear or Clearstream participant to the Depository participant will be received with value on the Depository settlement date but will be available in the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream cash account only as of the business day following settlement in the Depository.

The Depository has advised the Issuer that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a Holder of Securities (including the presentation of Securities for exchange as described above) only at the direction of one or more participants in the Depository to whose account with the Depository interests in the Securities are credited and only in respect of the portion of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities as to which the participant or participants has or have given the direction.

The Depository has advised the Issuer as follows: The Depository is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a “banking organization” within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a “clearing corporation” within the meaning of the UCC and a “Clearing Agency” registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act. The Depository was created to hold securities for its participants and facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of its participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Participants in the Depository include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, and clearing corporations and may include certain other organizations. Indirect access to the Depository system is available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers, and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a participant, either directly or indirectly.

Although the Depository, Clearstream and Euroclear have agreed to the foregoing procedures to facilitate transfers of interests in Regulation S Global Notes among participants of the Depository, Clearstream and Euroclear, they are under no obligation to perform or continue to perform the procedures, and the procedures may be discontinued at any time. Neither the Co-Issuers nor the Trustee will have any responsibility for the performance by the Depository, Clearstream, or Euroclear or their respective participants or indirect participants of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS

Because of the following restrictions, purchasers are advised to consult legal counsel prior to making any offer, resale, pledge or transfer of the Securities. Purchasers of Senior Notes represented by an interest in a Regulation S Global Note are advised that such interests are not transferable to U.S. Persons at any time except in accordance with the following restrictions.

Each prospective purchaser of Securities that is a U.S. Person or is purchasing the Securities in a non-Offshore Transaction (a “U.S. Offeree”), by accepting delivery of this Offering Memorandum, will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows:

- (1) The U.S. Offeree acknowledges that this Offering Memorandum is personal to the U.S. Offeree and does not constitute an offer to any other person or to the public generally to subscribe for or otherwise acquire the Securities other than pursuant to transactions exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act or in Offshore Transactions in accordance with Regulation S. Distribution of this Offering Memorandum to any person other than the U.S. Offeree and those persons, if any, retained to advise the U.S. Offeree with respect thereto, and other persons that are, (a) in the case of the Senior Notes, Qualified Institutional Buyers or non-U.S. Persons or, (b) in the case of the Certificated Notes or the Preference Shares, Qualified Institutional Buyers, is unauthorized and any disclosure of any of its contents, without the prior written consent of the Co-Issuers, is prohibited.
- (2) The U.S. Offeree agrees to make no photocopies of this Offering Memorandum or any documents referred to herein and, if the U.S. Offeree does not purchase the Securities or the offering is terminated, to return this Offering Memorandum and all documents referred to herein to the Initial Purchaser at One New York Plaza, New York, New York 10004.

Under the Indenture (with respect to the Co-Issuers) and the Preference Share Documents (with respect to the Issuer), the Co-Issuers or the Issuer will agree to comply with the requirements of Rule 144A relative to the dissemination of information to prospective purchasers in the secondary market. See “Available Information.”

The Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act and, (a) in the case of the Senior Notes, may not be offered or sold in non-Offshore Transactions or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons, except to Qualified Institutional Buyers in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act who are also Qualified Purchasers and, (b) in the case of the Certificated Notes or the Preference Shares, may only be offered or sold to Qualified Institutional Buyers (or, solely in the case of certain Holders purchasing Class E Notes on the Closing Date, Institutional Accredited Investors) in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act who are also Qualified Purchasers.

Any purported transfer of a Security not in accordance with this section shall be null and void and shall not be given effect for any purpose hereunder.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes

Each purchaser of a beneficial interest in Senior Notes represented by a Rule 144A Global Note will be deemed to represent and agree (on its own behalf, or if the purchaser is acquiring the Senior Notes for any account, on behalf of each such account) (and each transferee of a beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Note will be deemed to represent and agree) (and in the case of paragraph (13), each fiduciary acting on behalf of a purchaser or a transferee (both in its fiduciary and corporate capacity) will be deemed to represent and agree) as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Rule 144A or Regulation S are used herein as defined therein):

- (1) (A) The purchaser is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser, (B) the purchaser is purchasing the Senior Notes for its own account or the account of another Qualified Purchaser that is also a Qualified Institutional Buyer as to which the purchaser exercises sole investment discretion, (C) the purchaser and any such account is acquiring the Senior Notes as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (D) the purchaser and any such account was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Senior Notes (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (E) to the extent the purchaser (or any account for which it is purchasing the Senior Notes) is a private investment company formed on or before April 30, 1996, the purchaser and each such account has received the necessary consent from its beneficial owners, (F) the purchaser is not a broker-dealer that owns and invests on a discretionary basis less than $25,000,000 in securities of unaffiliated issuers, (G) the purchaser is not a pension, profit-sharing or other retirement trust fund or plan in which the partners, beneficiaries or participants or affiliates may designate the particular investment to be made, (H) the purchaser agrees that it and each such account shall not hold such Senior Notes for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Senior Notes or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the distributions on the Senior Notes (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (I) the Senior Notes purchased directly or indirectly by the purchaser or any account for which it is purchasing the Senior Notes constitute an investment of no more than 40% of the purchaser's and each such account's assets (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (J) the purchaser and each such account is purchasing the Senior Notes in a principal amount of not less than the minimum denomination requirement for the purchaser and each such account, (K) the purchaser will provide notice of the transfer restrictions set forth in the Indenture (including the exhibits thereto) to any transferee of its Senior Notes and (L) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Senior Notes to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph (1) shall be null and void ab initio.

- (2) The purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Senior Notes, and the purchaser, and any account for which it is acting, are each able to bear the economic risk of the purchaser's or its investment.
- (3) The purchaser understands that the Senior Notes are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Senior Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and, if in the future the purchaser decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein, such Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with the applicable legend in respect of such Senior Notes set forth in (6) below and the restrictions set forth in the Indenture. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Co-Issuers, the Servicer or the Initial Purchaser as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any jurisdiction for resale of the Senior Notes.
- (4) The purchaser is not purchasing the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that an investment in the Senior Notes involves certain risks, including the risk of loss of its entire investment in the Senior Notes under certain circumstances. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Co-Issuers, the Senior Notes and the Collateral as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein, including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Co-Issuers and the Initial Purchaser.
- (5) In connection with the purchase of Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein (provided that no such representation is made with respect to the Servicer by any Affiliate of or account serviced by the Servicer): (i) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator or the Servicer is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment adviser for the purchaser, (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates other than in the Offering Memorandum and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other person) any assurance, guarantee, or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence, or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting, or otherwise) of the Senior Notes or an investment therein; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the Indenture) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator or the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein reflect those in relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) if the purchaser is acting for the account of another investor, the purchaser represents that the investment on behalf of such account is based on a determination that the investment is suitable based on the risks referred to in this Offering Memorandum (including, without limitation, the “Risk Factors” and the “Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes”), given the investment objectives of the account for which the purchase is being made, and that the investment is consistent with any applicable legal requirements; (vii) the purchaser is purchasing the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and it is capable of assuming and willing to assume (financially and otherwise) those risks; and (viii) the purchaser is a sophisticated investor.

- (6) (i) The purchaser understands that the Senior Notes offered to Qualified Institutional Buyers in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A (a) will bear the legend substantially in the form set forth below unless the Co-Issuers determine otherwise in accordance with applicable law, (b) will be represented by one or more Rule 144A Global Notes, and (c) may not at any time be resold, pledged or transferred to U.S. Persons that are not Qualified Institutional Buyers and Qualified Purchasers. Before any interest in a Rule 144A Global Note may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred to a Person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note, the transferor will be required to provide the Trustee with a written certification as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

THIS NOTE OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST HEREIN HAS NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE “SECURITIES ACT”), AND THE CO-ISSUERS HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED (THE “INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT”). THE PURCHASER HEREOF, BY PURCHASING THIS NOTE, AGREES FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE CO-ISSUERS THAT THIS NOTE OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST HEREIN MAY BE OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED, ONLY (A)(1) TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER, IN A TRANSACTION MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT SO LONG AS THIS NOTE IS ELIGIBLE FOR RESALE IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 144A OR (2) TO A NON-U.S. PERSON IN AN OFFSHORE TRANSACTION COMPLYING WITH RULE 903 OR RULE 904 OF REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT AND, IN CASE OF CLAUSE (1), TO A PURCHASER THAT (W) IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 3(c)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT THAT WAS NOT FORMED FOR THE PURPOSE OF INVESTING IN THE ISSUER (EXCEPT WITH EACH BENEFICIAL OWNER OF THE PURCHASER IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER), (X) TO THE EXTENT THE PURCHASER (OR ANY ACCOUNT FOR WHICH IT IS PURCHASING THE NOTES) IS A PRIVATE INVESTMENT COMPANY FORMED ON OR BEFORE APRIL 30, 1996, HAS RECEIVED THE NECESSARY CONSENT FROM ITS BENEFICIAL OWNERS, (Y) IS NOT A BROKER-DEALER THAT OWNS AND INVESTS ON A DISCRETIONARY BASIS LESS THAN $25,000,000 IN SECURITIES OF UNAFFILIATED ISSUERS, AND (Z) IS NOT A PENSION, PROFIT-SHARING OR OTHER RETIREMENT TRUST FUND OR PLAN IN WHICH THE PARTNERS, BENEFICIARIES OR PARTICIPANTS OR AFFILIATES MAY DESIGNATE THE PARTICULAR INVESTMENT TO BE MADE, (B) IN A PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF NOT LESS THAN U.S.$250,000 FOR THE PURCHASER AND FOR EACH ACCOUNT FOR WHICH IT IS ACTING AND (C) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF THE STATES OF THE UNITED STATES. EACH TRANSFEROR OF THIS NOTE OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST HEREIN WILL PROVIDE NOTICE OF THE TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS AS SET FORTH HEREIN TO ITS TRANSFEREE. EACH PURCHASER OF THIS NOTE OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST HEREIN WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE MADE THE APPLICABLE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE INDENTURE. ANY TRANSFER IN VIOLATION OF THE FOREGOING WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT AND WILL NOT OPERATE TO TRANSFER ANY RIGHTS TO THE TRANSFEREE, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRARY TO THE CO-ISSUERS, THE TRUSTEE OR ANY INTERMEDIARY. IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING, THE CO-ISSUERS MAINTAIN THE RIGHT TO RESELL NOTES OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST THEREIN PREVIOUSLY TRANSFERRED TO NON-PERMITTED U.S.

HOLDERS (AS DEFINED IN THE INDENTURE) IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE INDENTURE.

UNLESS THIS NOTE IS PRESENTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF THE DEPOSITORY TRUST COMPANY ("DTC") TO THE INDENTURE REGISTRAR FOR REGISTRATION OF TRANSFER OR PAYMENT, AND ANY CERTIFICATE ISSUED IS REGISTERED IN THE NAME OF CEDE & CO. OR IN SUCH OTHER NAME AS IS REQUESTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF DTC (AND ANY PAYMENT MADE TO CEDE & CO. OR TO SUCH OTHER ENTITY AS IS REQUESTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF DTC), ANY TRANSFER, PLEDGE OR OTHER USE HEREOF FOR VALUE OR OTHERWISE BY OR TO ANY PERSON IS WRONGFUL INASMUCH AS THE REGISTERED OWNER HEREOF, CEDE & CO., HAS AN INTEREST HEREIN.

THE FAILURE TO PROVIDE THE ISSUER, THE TRUSTEE AND ANY PAYING AGENT WITH THE APPLICABLE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CERTIFICATIONS (GENERALLY, AN INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-9 (OR SUCCESSOR APPLICABLE FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS A "UNITED STATES PERSON" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986, AS AMENDED (THE "CODE"), OR AN APPLICABLE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-8 (OR SUCCESSOR APPLICABLE FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS NOT A "UNITED STATES PERSON" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE) MAY RESULT IN U.S. FEDERAL WITHHOLDING FROM PAYMENTS TO THE HOLDER IN RESPECT OF THIS NOTE.

BY THE ACQUISITION OF A CLASS A NOTE, A CLASS B NOTE, A CLASS C NOTE OR A CLASS D NOTE, EACH PURCHASER AND SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE, AND EACH FIDUCIARY ACTING ON BEHALF OF THE PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE (BOTH IN ITS FIDUCIARY AND CORPORATE CAPACITY), WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE REPRESENTED, WARRANTED AND AGREED, WITH RESPECT TO EACH DAY SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE HOLDS SUCH NOTE OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST HEREIN, EITHER THAT (A) SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE IS NOT AN "EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN" AS DEFINED IN SECTION 3(3) OF THE UNITED STATES EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT INCOME SECURITY ACT OF 1974, AS AMENDED ("ERISA"), THAT IS SUBJECT TO TITLE I OF ERISA, A "PLAN" AS DESCRIBED IN SECTION 4975(e)(1) OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986, AS AMENDED (THE "CODE") AND SUBJECT TO SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE, AN ENTITY WHOSE UNDERLYING ASSETS INCLUDE "PLAN ASSETS" PURSUANT TO 29 C.F.R. SECTION 2510.3-101, SECTION 3(42) OF ERISA OR OTHERWISE OR A GOVERNMENTAL, CHURCH, NON-U.S. OR OTHER PLAN WHICH IS SUBJECT TO ANY FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL OR OTHER LAW THAT IS SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR TO THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 406 OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE ("SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR LAW") OR (B) (1) IN CONNECTION WITH THE ACQUISITION, HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF SUCH NOTE, SUCH PURCHASER'S OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE'S FIDUCIARY HAS DETERMINED THAT SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE IS RECEIVING NO LESS, AND PAYING NO MORE, THAN "ADEQUATE CONSIDERATION" (WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 408(b)(17)(B) OF ERISA AND SECTION 4975(f)(10) OF THE CODE) AND (2) SUCH PURCHASER'S OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE'S ACQUISITION, HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF THIS NOTE WILL NOT CONSTITUTE OR RESULT IN A NON-EXEMPT PROHIBITED TRANSACTION UNDER SECTION 406 OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE OR, IN THE CASE OF A GOVERNMENTAL, CHURCH, NON-U.S. OR OTHER PLAN, A VIOLATION OF ANY SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR LAW. ANY PURPORTED TRANSFER OF THIS NOTE TO A PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE THAT DOES NOT COMPLY WITH THE ABOVE REQUIREMENTS SHALL BE NULL AND VOID AB INITIO.

- (ii) In addition, each Regulation S Global Note representing any Senior Note will contain the following additional legend:

EACH TRANSFEREE OF THE NOTE REPRESENTED HEREBY WILL, IF REQUIRED BY THE INDENTURE, BE REQUIRED TO DELIVER A TRANSFEREE CERTIFICATE IN A FORM PRESCRIBED IN THE INDENTURE OR WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE MADE THE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE INDENTURE.

- (7) The purchaser will provide notice to each person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Senior Notes of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Indenture, including the exhibits referenced therein.
- (8) The purchaser understands that the Indenture permits the Issuer to compel any Holder of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein who is a U.S. Person and who is determined not to have been both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) a Qualified Purchaser at the time of acquisition of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein to sell such interest, or to sell such interest on behalf of such purchaser, to a person that is both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) a Qualified Purchaser, in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A or to a person that is a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction meeting the requirements of Regulation S.
- (9) The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Senior Notes, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase Senior Notes from any Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell such Senior Note to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.
- (10) The purchaser understands that the Stated Maturity of the Senior Notes is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of Securities at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.
- (11) The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Co-Issuers that would permit a public offering of the Senior Notes in any jurisdiction. The purchaser further acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Co-Issuers that would permit possession or distribution of the Offering Memorandum or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Senior Notes in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the offering memorandum relating to the Senior Notes shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Senior Notes in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.
- (12) The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.
- (13) In the case of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes, on each day from the date on which such purchaser or transferee acquires such purchaser's or transferee's interest in such Notes through and including the date on which such purchaser or transferee disposes of such purchaser's or transferee's interest in such Notes either that (A) such purchaser or transferee is neither a Plan nor an entity whose underlying assets include "plan assets" by reason of such Plan's investment in the entity, nor a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan which is subject to any Substantially Similar Law or (B) (1) in connection with the acquisition, holding and disposition of such Class A Note, Class B Note, Class C Note or Class D Note, the purchaser's or transferee's fiduciary has determined that such purchaser or transferee is receiving no less, and paying no more, than "adequate consideration" (within the meaning of Section 408(b)(17)(B) of ERISA and Section 4975(f)(10) of the Code) and (2) such purchaser's or transferee's acquisition, holding and disposition of such Notes will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan, a violation of any Substantially Similar Law). Any purported purchase or transfer of the Senior Notes to a purchaser or transferee that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph (13) shall be null and void ab initio.
- (14) The purchaser understands that the Co-Issuers may receive a list of participants holding positions in its securities from one or more book-entry depositories.

- (15) The purchaser agrees that it will not offer or sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of the Senior Notes or any interest therein except (i) pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws or the applicable laws of any other jurisdiction and (ii) in accordance with the Indenture, to which provisions the purchaser hereby agrees it is subject.
- (16) The purchaser is not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.
- (17) The beneficial owner will agree to treat the Senior Notes as unconditional debt of the Issuer for tax, accounting and financial reporting purposes.
- (18) To the extent required, as determined by the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Trustee, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Senior Notes to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the USA PATRIOT Act) and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Senior Note to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.
- (19) The purchaser understands that, to the extent required, as determined by the Co-Issuers, the Co-Issuers may amend the Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer only, the Preference Share Documents, without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities to (i) remove any restrictions and limitations imposed on the Co-Issuers or the Holders of the Securities that solely relate to compliance with Section 3(c)(7) and (ii) add any requirements that are necessary for compliance with Rule 3a-7 if, at any time following the Closing Date, the Co-Issuers elect to rely on exclusion from the definition of “investment company” under Rule 3a-7 in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7).
- (20) The purchaser understands that the Issuer may enter into amendments or modifications to the Servicing Agreement without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities.
- (21) The purchaser agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.
- (22) The purchaser acknowledges that the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, the Trustee and the Initial Purchaser. If the purchaser is acquiring any Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein as a fiduciary or agent for one or more institutional accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Regulation S Global Notes

Each purchaser of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note will be further deemed (and each transferee of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note will be required or deemed) (and in the case of paragraph (13) above in “—Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes”, each fiduciary acting on behalf of a purchaser or a transferee (both in its fiduciary and corporate capacity)), in addition to making the representations set forth in paragraphs (3), (4), (5) and (7) through (22) above in “—Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes,” to represent and agree as follows:

The purchaser is aware that the Senior Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or any other applicable state securities law and the sale of such Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein to it is being made in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Regulation S and understands that the Senior Notes offered in reliance on Regulation S will bear the appropriate legend set forth in paragraph (6) above in “—

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes” and will be represented by one or more Regulation S Global Notes. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Co-Issuers or the Initial Purchaser as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any other jurisdiction for resale of the Senior Notes. The purchaser and each beneficial owner of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein that it holds is not, and will not be, a U.S. Person as defined in Regulation S and its purchase of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein will comply with all applicable laws in any jurisdiction in which it resides or is located and will be in a principal amount of not less than U.S.$250,000. The purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein, and it, and any accounts for which it is acting are each able to bear the economic risk of its investment. Before any interest in a Regulation S Global Note may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note, the transferor and the transferee will be required to provide the Trustee with written certifications as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Certificated Notes

Each purchaser of Certificated Notes acquiring such Certificated Notes in the initial offering will be required to enter into a Subscription Agreement with the Issuer (or otherwise provides the Issuer with a certification) pursuant to which each such purchaser will be required to represent and agree (and each subsequent transferee will be required to represent and agree) (and in the case of paragraph (24), each fiduciary acting on behalf of a purchaser or a subsequent transferee (both in its fiduciary and corporate capacity) will be required to represent and agree), on its own behalf as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Rule 144A are used herein as defined therein):

- (1) The purchaser is a Qualified Institutional Buyer (or, solely in the case of certain purchasers purchasing Certificated Notes on the Closing Date, an Institutional Accredited Investor) and is aware that the sale of Certificated Notes to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements provided by Section 4(2) and is acquiring the Certificated Notes for its own account (and not for the account of any family or other trust, any family member or any other person). In addition, the purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Certificated Notes, and the purchaser is able to bear the economic risk of the purchaser’s investment.
- (2) The purchaser understands that the Certificated Notes are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Certificated Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and, if in the future the purchaser decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Certificated Notes, such Certificated Notes may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with the legend in respect of such Certificated Notes set forth in (7) below and the restrictions set forth in the Indenture. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Issuer, the Servicer or the Initial Purchaser or any of their respective Affiliates as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any jurisdiction for resale of the Certificated Notes.
- (3) The purchaser agrees that it will not offer or sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of the Certificated Notes or any interest therein except (i) pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws or the applicable laws of any other jurisdiction and (ii) in accordance with the Indenture, to which provisions the purchaser agrees it is subject.
- (4) The purchaser is not purchasing the Certificated Notes with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that the Certificated Notes will be highly illiquid and are not suitable for short-term trading. The Certificated Notes are a leveraged investment in the Collateral Obligations that may expose the Certificated Notes to disproportionately large changes in value. Payments in respect of the Certificated Notes are not guaranteed as they are dependent on the performance of the Issuer’s portfolio of Collateral Obligations. The purchaser understands that an investment in the Certificated Notes involves certain risks, including the risk of loss of all or a substantial part of its investment. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Issuer, the Certificated Notes and the Collateral as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Certificated Notes, including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Issuer and the Initial Purchaser.

- (5) In connection with the purchase of Certificated Notes (provided that no such representation is made with respect to the Servicer by any Affiliate of or account serviced by the Servicer): (i) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment adviser for the purchaser; (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates other than in the Offering Memorandum and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other Person or documentation for the Certificated Notes) any assurance, guarantee, or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence, or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting, or otherwise) of the Certificated Notes or an investment therein; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the documentation for the Certificated Notes) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Certificated Notes reflect those in relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) the purchaser is purchasing the Certificated Notes with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and it is capable of assuming and willing to assume (financially and otherwise) those risks; and (vii) the purchaser is a sophisticated investor.
- (6) (A) The purchaser is (a) a Qualified Institutional Buyer (or, solely in the case of certain purchasers purchasing Certificated Notes on the Closing Date, an Institutional Accredited Investor) and (b) a Qualified Purchaser, (B) the purchaser is acquiring the Certificated Notes as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (C) the purchaser was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Certificated Notes (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser is a Qualified Purchaser), (D) to the extent the purchaser is a private investment company formed before April 30, 1996, the purchaser has received the necessary consent from its beneficial owners, (E) the purchaser is not a broker-dealer that owns and invests on a discretionary basis less than $25,000,000 in securities of unaffiliated issuers, (F) the purchaser is not a pension, profit-sharing or other retirement trust fund or plan in which the partners, beneficiaries or participants or affiliates may designate the particular investment to be made, (G) the purchaser agrees that it shall not hold such Certificated Notes for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Certificated Notes or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the dividends or other distributions on the Certificated Notes (except when each such other Person is (a) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (b) a Qualified Purchaser) and (H) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Certificated Notes to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph shall be null and void ab initio.
- (7) The purchaser understands that the Certificated Notes (A) will be represented by either one or more certificates which will bear the legend substantially in the form set forth below unless the Issuer determines otherwise in accordance with applicable law, and (B) may only be resold, pledged or transferred to Persons who are both (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers and (ii) Qualified Purchasers. The purchaser understands that before the Certificated Notes may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred, the transferee will be required to provide the Trustee and the Issuer with a written certification as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

THE NOTES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), AND THE ISSUER HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED (THE "INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT"). THE NOTES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED, EXCEPT (A) TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER ("QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER") WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (OR, SOLELY IN THE CASE OF CERTAIN PURCHASERS PURCHASING THE NOTES ON THE CLOSING DATE, AN INSTITUTIONAL INVESTOR AS DEFINED IN CLAUSES (1), (2), (3) OR (7) OF RULE 501(a) UNDER REGULATION D OF THE SECURITIES ACT) PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT (IN A TRANSACTION MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF RULE 144A SO LONG AS THE NOTES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR RESALE IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 144A) WHO IS ALSO A QUALIFIED PURCHASER ("QUALIFIED PURCHASER") WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 3(c)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT THAT WAS NOT FORMED FOR THE PURPOSE OF INVESTING IN THE ISSUER (EXCEPT WHEN EACH BENEFICIAL OWNER OF THE PURCHASER IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER) AND THAT (1) HAS RECEIVED THE NECESSARY CONSENT FROM ITS BENEFICIAL OWNERS WHEN THE PURCHASER IS A PRIVATE INVESTMENT COMPANY FORMED ON OR BEFORE APRIL 30, 1996, (2) IS NOT A BROKER-DEALER THAT OWNS AND INVESTS ON A DISCRETIONARY BASIS LESS THAN $25,000,000 IN SECURITIES OF UNAFFILIATED ISSUERS AND (3) IS NOT A PENSION, PROFIT-SHARING OR OTHER RETIREMENT TRUST FUND OR PLAN IN WHICH THE PARTNERS, BENEFICIARIES OR PARTICIPANTS OR AFFILIATES MAY DESIGNATE THE PARTICULAR INVESTMENT TO BE MADE, (B) IN A PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF NOT LESS THAN U.S.$250,000 FOR THE PURCHASER AND (C) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER APPLICABLE JURISDICTION. EACH TRANSFEROR OF THE NOTES REPRESENTED HEREBY OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST THEREIN WILL PROVIDE NOTICE OF THE TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS AS SET FORTH HEREIN TO ITS PURCHASER. EACH PURCHASER OF THE NOTES REPRESENTED HEREBY WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE THE APPLICABLE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE INDENTURE. THE NOTES REPRESENTED HEREBY MAY BE PURCHASED BY OR TRANSFERRED TO A BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR OR CONTROLLING PERSON (EACH AS DEFINED IN THE INDENTURE) ONLY UPON THE SATISFACTION OF CERTAIN CONDITIONS SET FORTH IN THE INDENTURE. ANY TRANSFER IN VIOLATION OF THE FOREGOING WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT, WILL BE VOID AB INITIO, AND WILL NOT OPERATE TO TRANSFER ANY RIGHTS TO THE TRANSFEE, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRARY TO THE ISSUER, THE TRUSTEE OR ANY INTERMEDIARY. IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING, THE ISSUER MAINTAINS THE RIGHT TO RESELL ANY NOTES PREVIOUSLY TRANSFERRED TO NON-PERMITTED HOLDERS OR NON-PERMITTED BENEFIT PLAN INVESTORS (AS DEFINED IN THE INDENTURE) IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE INDENTURE.

THE FAILURE TO PROVIDE THE ISSUER AND ANY PAYING AGENT, WHENEVER REQUESTED BY THE ISSUER OR THE SERVICER ON BEHALF OF THE ISSUER, WITH THE APPLICABLE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CERTIFICATIONS (GENERALLY, AN INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-9 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS A "UNITED STATES PERSON" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE OR AN APPROPRIATE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-8 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS NOT A "UNITED STATES PERSON" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE) MAY RESULT IN THE IMPOSITION OF U.S. FEDERAL WITHHOLDING FROM PAYMENTS TO THE HOLDER IN RESPECT OF THE NOTES REPRESENTED HEREBY.

EACH PURCHASER AND EACH SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEE (AND EACH FIDUCIARY ACTING ON BEHALF OF SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEE (BOTH IN ITS FIDUCIARY AND CORPORATE CAPACITY) OF THIS CERTIFICATED NOTE WILL BE REQUIRED TO REPRESENT, WITH RESPECT TO EACH DAY SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEE HOLDS SUCH CERTIFICATED NOTE OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST HEREIN, (1) WHETHER OR NOT SUCH

PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE IS (A) AN "EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN" (AS DEFINED IN SECTION 3(3) OF TITLE I OF THE EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT INCOME SECURITY ACT OF 1974, AS AMENDED ("ERISA")) SUBJECT TO THE FIDUCIARY RESPONSIBILITY PROVISIONS OF ERISA, A "PLAN" AS DEFINED IN SECTION 4975(e)(1) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986, AS AMENDED (THE "CODE") THAT IS SUBJECT TO SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE, ANY ENTITY WHOSE UNDERLYING ASSETS INCLUDE "PLAN ASSETS" BY REASON OF SUCH EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN'S OR PLAN'S INVESTMENT IN THE ENTITY OR A "BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR" AS SUCH TERM IS OTHERWISE MODIFIED FROM TIME TO TIME (COLLECTIVELY, "BENEFIT PLAN INVESTORS") OR (B) A PERSON (OTHER THAN A BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR) WHO HAS DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY OR CONTROL WITH RESPECT TO THE ASSETS OF THE ISSUER OR ANY PERSON WHO PROVIDES INVESTMENT ADVICE FOR A FEE (DIRECT OR INDIRECT) WITH RESPECT TO SUCH ASSETS, OR ANY AFFILIATE OF SUCH A PERSON AND (2) (A) (I) IF SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE IS A BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR, (1) IN CONNECTION WITH THE ACQUISITION, HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF SUCH CERTIFICATED NOTE, THE PURCHASER'S OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE'S FIDUCIARY HAS DETERMINED THAT SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE IS RECEIVING NO LESS, AND PAYING NO MORE, THAN "ADEQUATE CONSIDERATION" (WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 408(b)(17)(B) OF ERISA AND SECTION 4975(f)(10) OF THE CODE) AND (II) SUCH PURCHASER'S OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE'S ACQUISITION, HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF CERTIFICATED NOTES WILL NOT CONSTITUTE OR RESULT IN A NON-EXEMPT PROHIBITED TRANSACTION UNDER SECTION 406 OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE OR (B) IF SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE IS A GOVERNMENTAL, CHURCH, NON-U.S. OR OTHER PLAN WHICH IS SUBJECT TO ANY FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL OR OTHER LAW THAT IS SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR TO THE PROVISIONS OF TITLE I OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE, SUCH PURCHASER'S OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE'S ACQUISITION, HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF CERTIFICATED NOTES WILL NOT CONSTITUTE OR RESULT IN A NON-EXEMPT VIOLATION OF ANY SUCH SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR LAW AND (3) SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE WILL NOT SELL OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER ANY SUCH CERTIFICATED NOTES OR INTERESTS THEREIN TO ANY PERSON WHO IS UNABLE TO SATISFY THE SAME FOREGOING REPRESENTATION AND WARRANTIES. NO TRANSFER OF ANY INTEREST IN THIS CERTIFICATED NOTE WILL BE EFFECTIVE, AND THE TRUSTEE WILL NOT RECOGNIZE ANY SUCH TRANSFER IF IT WOULD RESULT IN 25% OR MORE OF THE VALUE OF THE CERTIFICATED NOTES BEING HELD BY BENEFIT PLAN INVESTORS. EACH PURCHASER AND EACH SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE OF THIS CERTIFICATED NOTE WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE THE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE INDENTURE. ANY PURPORTED TRANSFER OF A BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN A CERTIFICATED NOTE IN VIOLATION OF THE REQUIREMENTS SET FORTH IN THIS PARAGRAPH WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT, SHALL BE NULL AND VOID AB INITIO AND THE ISSUER WILL HAVE THE RIGHT TO DIRECT THE PURCHASER OR THE SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE TO TRANSFER THE CERTIFICATED NOTE, OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN, AS APPLICABLE, TO A PERSON WHO MEETS THE FOREGOING CRITERIA.

EACH TRANSFEREE WILL BE REQUIRED TO DELIVER A TRANSFEREE CERTIFICATE IN A FORM PRESCRIBED IN THE INDENTURE.

- (8) The purchaser will provide notice to each Person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Certificated Notes of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Indenture, including the exhibits referenced in the Indenture.
- (9) The purchaser understands that the Indenture permits the Issuer to compel any Holder of the Certificated Notes who is determined not to have been (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer (with the exception of a purchaser purchasing Certificated Notes on the Closing Date that is an Institutional Accredited Investor) and (y) a Qualified Purchaser, at the time of acquisition of the Certificated Notes to sell such Certificated Notes, or to sell such Certificated Notes on behalf of such purchaser, to a Person that is both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) a Qualified Purchaser, in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act.
- (10) The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Certificated Notes. The purchaser further acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit possession or distribution of the Offering Memorandum or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Securities in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the offering memorandum relating to the Certificated Notes shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Certificated Notes in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.

- (11) The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Certificated Notes, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase Certificated Notes from any Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell such Certificated Notes to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.
- (12) The purchaser understands that the Stated Maturity of the Certificated Notes is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of Securities at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.
- (13) The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Certificated Notes by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.
- (14) The purchaser understands and agrees that (i) no purchase or transfer may be made that would result in any person or entity holding beneficial ownership in any Certificated Notes in less than an authorized number as set forth in the Indenture and (ii) no purchase or transfer of the Certificated Notes that would have the effect of requiring either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral to register as an investment company as defined under the Investment Company Act will be permitted.
- (15) The beneficial owner will agree to treat, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (a) the Preference Shares as equity of the Issuer, (b) the Notes as indebtedness of the Issuer and (c) the Issuer as a corporation. The beneficial owner will be deemed to have acknowledged that the Issuer is not authorized to engage in activities that could cause it to constitute a finance or lending business for U.S. federal income tax purposes and agrees that it will report its investment in the Notes consistent with such limitation.
- (16) Each purchaser and each subsequent transferee of Certificated Notes that (i) is not a "United States person" (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) and (ii) is acquiring, directly or in conjunction with affiliates, more than 33 1/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Certificated Notes will make a representation to the effect that it is not an Affected Bank.
- (17) To the extent required, as determined by the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Trustee and the Indenture Registrar, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Certificated Notes to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the USA PATRIOT Act) and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Certificated Note to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.
- (18) The purchaser agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.
- (19) The purchaser is not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.
- (20) The beneficial owner will agree to treat the Certificated Notes as unconditional debt of the Issuer for tax, accounting and financial reporting purposes.
- (21) The purchaser understands that, prior to any sale or other transfer of any interest in Certificated Notes, it (or the transferee, as applicable) will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Trustee a duly executed transfer certificate substantially in the form provided in the Indenture and such other certificates and other information as they may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed transfer complies with the restrictions in the legend placed on each certificate representing the Certificated Notes and in the Indenture.

- (22) The purchaser understands that, to the extent required, as determined by the Co-Issuers, the Co-Issuers may amend the Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer only, the Preference Share Documents, without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities to (i) remove any restrictions and limitations imposed on the Co-Issuers or the Holders of the Securities that solely relate to compliance with Section 3(c)(7) and (ii) add any requirements that are necessary for compliance with Rule 3a-7 if, at any time following the Closing Date, the Co-Issuers elect to rely on exclusion from the definition of “investment company” under Rule 3a-7 in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7).
- (23) The purchaser understands that the Issuer may enter into amendments or modifications to the Servicing Agreement without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities.
- (24) (a) The purchaser or the subsequent transferee is (or is not, as applicable) a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person. No Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person will be permitted to purchase Certificated Notes, unless such purchaser’s or subsequent transferee’s acquisition, holding and disposition of such Certificated Notes, (x) will not cause participation by Benefit Plan Investors to be “significant” within the meaning of the Plan Asset Regulation and (y) (1) in connection with the acquisition, holding and disposition of such Certificated Note, the purchaser’s or subsequent transferee’s fiduciary has determined that such purchaser or subsequent transferee is receiving no less, and paying no more, than “adequate consideration” (within the meaning of Section 408(b)(17)(B) of ERISA and Section 4975(f)(10) of the Code) and (2) such purchaser’s or subsequent transferee’s acquisition, holding and disposition of such Certificated Notes will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. If the purchaser or the subsequent transferee is a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan that is subject to any Substantially Similar Law, such purchaser or subsequent transferee shall represent and warrant that such purchaser’s or subsequent transferee’s acquisition, holding and disposition of a Certificated Note will not constitute or result in a non-exempt violation of any such Substantially Similar Law.
  - (b) In determining whether participation by Benefit Plan Investors is “significant”, Certificated Notes beneficially held by (1) the Servicer, the Trustee, any of their respective Affiliates, employees of the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates and any charitable foundation of any such employees or (2) persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons, will be disregarded and will not be treated as Outstanding for purposes of whether participation by Benefit Plan Investors is “significant” to the extent that persons listed in (1) or (2) are not Benefit Plan Investors.
  - (c) The purchaser or the subsequent transferee acknowledges that a transfer of the Certificated Notes will not be permitted, and no such transfer or exchange will be registered under the Indenture, to the extent that the transfer or exchange would result in Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Certificated Notes immediately after such transfer or exchange (determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation and the Indenture).
- (25) If any Person that is the beneficial owner of an interest in a Certificated Note becomes a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, the Issuer shall, promptly after discovery that such person is a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee (and notice by the Trustee or the Co-Issuer to the Issuer, if either of them makes the discovery), send notice to such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder demanding that such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder transfer its interest to a person that is not a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder within 14 days of the date of such notice. If such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder fails to so transfer its Certificated Notes, the Issuer shall have the right, without further notice to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, to sell (and shall sell if directed to do so by the Servicer) such Certificated Notes or interest in such Certificated Notes, to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is not a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder on such terms as the Issuer may choose. The Issuer, or the Trustee acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select the purchaser by soliciting one or more bids from one or more brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Certificated Notes and selling such Certificated Notes to the highest such bidder. However, the Issuer or the Trustee may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion. The Holder of each Certificated Note, the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder and each other Person in the chain of title from the Holder to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, by its acceptance of an interest in the Certificated Notes, agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Trustee to effect such transfers. The proceeds of such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder. The terms and conditions of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer, and none of the Issuer, the Servicer or the Trustee shall be liable to any Person having an interest in the Certificated Notes sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of such discretion (including for the price of such sale).

- (26) The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer, the Servicer, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Certificated Notes are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Issuer, the Servicer, the Trustee and the Initial Purchaser.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Preference Shares

Each initial purchaser of Preference Shares acquiring such Preference Shares from the Issuer in the initial offering will be required to enter into a Subscription Agreement with the Issuer pursuant to which each such initial purchaser will be required to represent and agree (and each subsequent transferee will be required to represent and agree) (and in the case of paragraph (23), each fiduciary acting on behalf of a purchaser or a subsequent transferee (both in its fiduciary and corporate capacity) will be required to represent and agree), on its own behalf as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Rule 144A are used herein as defined therein):

- (1) The purchaser is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is aware that the sale of Preference Shares to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements provided by Section 4(2) and is acquiring the Preference Shares for its own account (and not for the account of any family or other trust, any family member or any other person). In addition, the purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Preference Shares, and the purchaser is able to bear the economic risk of its investment.
- (2) The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Preference Shares have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and, if in the future the purchaser decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Preference Shares, such Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with the legend in respect of such Preference Shares set forth in (7) below and the restrictions set forth in the Preference Share Documents. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Issuer, the Servicer or the Initial Purchaser or any of their respective Affiliates as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any jurisdiction for resale of the Preference Shares.
- (3) The purchaser agrees that it will not offer or sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of the Preference Shares or any interest therein except (i) pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws or the applicable laws of any other jurisdiction and (ii) in accordance with the Preference Share Documents, to which provisions the purchaser agrees it is subject.
- (4) The purchaser is not purchasing the Preference Shares with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares will be highly illiquid and are not suitable for short-term trading. The Preference Shares are a leveraged investment in the Collateral Obligations that may expose the Preference Shares to disproportionately large changes in value. Payments in respect of the Preference Shares are not guaranteed as they are dependent on the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations.

The purchaser understands that it is possible that, due to the structure of the transaction and the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations, dividends or other distributions in respect of the Preference Shares may be reduced or eliminated entirely. Furthermore, the Preference Shares constitute equity in the Issuer, are not secured by the Collateral and will rank behind all creditors (secured and unsecured and whether known or unknown) of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the Holders of the Notes, and any Hedge Counterparties. The Issuer has assets limited to the Collateral for payment of all Classes of the Notes and dividends and other distributions on the Preference Shares, and the Preference Shares bear, pro rata, the first risk of loss. The purchaser understands that an investment in the Preference Shares involves certain risks, including the risk of loss of all or a substantial part of its investment. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Issuer, the Preference Shares and the Collateral as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Preference Shares, including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Issuer and the Initial Purchaser.

- (5) In connection with the purchase of Preference Shares (provided that no such representation is made with respect to the Servicer by any Affiliate of or account serviced by the Servicer): (i) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator or the Servicer is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment adviser for the purchaser; (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates other than in the Offering Memorandum for such Preference Shares and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other Person or documentation for the Preference Shares) any assurance, guarantee, or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence, or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting, or otherwise) of the Preference Shares or an investment therein; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the documentation for the Preference Shares) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Preference Shares reflect those in the relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) the purchaser is purchasing the Preference Shares with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and it is capable of assuming and willing to assume (financially and otherwise) those risks; and (vii) the purchaser is a sophisticated investor.
- (6) (A) The purchaser is (a) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (b) a Qualified Purchaser, (B) the purchaser is acquiring the Preference Shares as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (C) the purchaser was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Preference Shares (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser is a Qualified Purchaser), (D) to the extent the purchaser is a private investment company formed before April 30, 1996, the purchaser has received the necessary consent from its beneficial owners, (E) the purchaser is not a broker-dealer that owns and invests on a discretionary basis less than $25,000,000 in securities of unaffiliated issuers, (F) the purchaser is not a pension, profit-sharing or other retirement trust fund or plan in which the partners, beneficiaries or participants or affiliates may designate the particular investment to be made, (G) the purchaser agrees that it shall not hold such Preference Shares for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Preference Shares or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the dividends or other distributions on the Preference Shares (except when each such other Person is (a) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (b) a Qualified Purchaser) and (H) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Preference Shares to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph shall be null and void ab initio.

- (7) The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares (A) will be represented by one or more Preference Share certificates which will bear the legend substantially in the form set forth below unless the Issuer determines otherwise in accordance with applicable law, and (B) may only be resold, pledged or transferred to Qualified Institutional Buyers who are also Qualified Purchasers. The purchaser understands that before the Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred, the transferee will be required to provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Issuer with a written certification as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), AND THE ISSUER HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED (THE "INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT"). THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED, EXCEPT (A) TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER ("QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER") WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT (IN A TRANSACTION MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF RULE 144A SO LONG AS THE PREFERENCE SHARES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR RESALE IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 144A) WHO IS ALSO A QUALIFIED PURCHASER ("QUALIFIED PURCHASER") WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 3(c)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT THAT WAS NOT FORMED FOR THE PURPOSE OF INVESTING IN THE ISSUER (EXCEPT WHEN EACH BENEFICIAL OWNER OF THE PURCHASER IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER) AND THAT (1) HAS RECEIVED THE NECESSARY CONSENT FROM ITS BENEFICIAL OWNERS WHEN THE PURCHASER IS A PRIVATE INVESTMENT COMPANY FORMED ON OR BEFORE APRIL 30, 1996, (2) IS NOT A BROKER-DEALER THAT OWNS AND INVESTS ON A DISCRETIONARY BASIS LESS THAN $25,000,000 IN SECURITIES OF UNAFFILIATED ISSUERS AND (3) IS NOT A PENSION, PROFIT-SHARING OR OTHER RETIREMENT TRUST FUND OR PLAN IN WHICH THE PARTNERS, BENEFICIARIES OR PARTICIPANTS OR AFFILIATES MAY DESIGNATE THE PARTICULAR INVESTMENT TO BE MADE, (B) IN EACH CASE, IN A NUMBER OF NOT LESS THAN 100 PREFERENCE SHARES FOR THE PURCHASER AND (C) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER APPLICABLE JURISDICTION. EACH TRANSFEROR OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST THEREIN WILL PROVIDE NOTICE OF THE TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS AS SET FORTH HEREIN TO ITS PURCHASER. EACH PURCHASER OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE THE APPLICABLE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS. THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY MAY BE PURCHASED BY OR TRANSFERRED TO A BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR OR CONTROLLING PERSON (EACH AS DEFINED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS) ONLY UPON THE SATISFACTION OF CERTAIN CONDITIONS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS. ANY TRANSFER IN VIOLATION OF THE FOREGOING WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT, WILL BE VOID AB INITIO, AND WILL NOT OPERATE TO TRANSFER ANY RIGHTS TO THE TRANSFEREE, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRARY TO THE ISSUER, THE PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENT OR ANY INTERMEDIARY. IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING, THE ISSUER MAINTAINS THE RIGHT TO RESELL ANY PREFERENCE SHARES PREVIOUSLY TRANSFERRED TO NON-PERMITTED HOLDERS OR NON-PERMITTED BENEFIT PLAN INVESTORS (AS DEFINED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS) IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

THE FAILURE TO PROVIDE THE ISSUER AND ANY PAYING AGENT, WHENEVER REQUESTED BY THE ISSUER OR THE SERVICER ON BEHALF OF THE ISSUER, WITH THE APPLICABLE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CERTIFICATIONS (GENERALLY, AN INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-9 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS A "UNITED STATES PERSON" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE OR AN APPROPRIATE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-8 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS NOT A "UNITED STATES PERSON" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE) MAY RESULT IN THE IMPOSITION OF U.S. FEDERAL WITHHOLDING FROM PAYMENTS TO THE HOLDER IN RESPECT OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY.

EACH PURCHASER AND EACH SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE (AND EACH FIDUCIARY ACTING ON BEHALF OF SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE (BOTH IN ITS FIDUCIARY AND CORPORATE CAPACITY) OF THE CLASS I PREFERENCE SHARES OR CLASS II PREFERENCE SHARES WILL BE REQUIRED TO REPRESENT, WITH RESPECT TO EACH DAY SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE HOLDS SUCH CLASS I PREFERENCE SHARES OR CLASS II PREFERENCE SHARES OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST HEREIN, (1) WHETHER OR NOT SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE IS (A) AN "EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN" (AS DEFINED IN SECTION 3(3) OF TITLE I OF THE EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT INCOME SECURITY ACT OF 1974, AS AMENDED ("ERISA")) SUBJECT TO THE FIDUCIARY RESPONSIBILITY PROVISIONS OF ERISA, A "PLAN" AS DEFINED IN SECTION 4975(e)(1) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986, AS AMENDED (THE "CODE") THAT IS SUBJECT TO SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE, ANY ENTITY WHOSE UNDERLYING ASSETS INCLUDE "PLAN ASSETS" BY REASON OF SUCH EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN'S OR PLAN'S INVESTMENT IN THE ENTITY OR A "BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR" AS SUCH TERM IS OTHERWISE MODIFIED FROM TIME TO TIME (COLLECTIVELY, "BENEFIT PLAN INVESTORS") OR (B) A PERSON (OTHER THAN A BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR) WHO HAS DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY OR CONTROL WITH RESPECT TO THE ASSETS OF THE ISSUER OR ANY PERSON WHO PROVIDES INVESTMENT ADVICE FOR A FEE (DIRECT OR INDIRECT) WITH RESPECT TO SUCH ASSETS, OR ANY AFFILIATE OF SUCH A PERSON AND (2) (A) IF SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE IS A BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR, (I) IN CONNECTION WITH THE ACQUISITION, HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF SUCH CLASS I PREFERENCE SHARES OR CLASS II PREFERENCE SHARES, THE PURCHASER'S OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE'S FIDUCIARY HAS DETERMINED THAT SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE IS RECEIVING NO LESS, AND PAYING NO MORE, THAN "ADEQUATE CONSIDERATION" (WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 408(b)(17)(B) OF ERISA AND SECTION 4975(f)(10) OF THE CODE) AND (II) SUCH PURCHASER'S OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE'S ACQUISITION, HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF CLASS I PREFERENCE SHARES OR CLASS II PREFERENCE SHARES WILL NOT CONSTITUTE OR RESULT IN A NON-EXEMPT PROHIBITED TRANSACTION UNDER SECTION 406 OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE OR (B) IF SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE IS A GOVERNMENTAL, CHURCH, NON-U.S. OR OTHER PLAN WHICH IS SUBJECT TO ANY FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL OR OTHER LAW THAT IS SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR TO THE PROVISIONS OF TITLE I OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE, SUCH PURCHASER'S OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE'S ACQUISITION, HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF CLASS I PREFERENCE SHARES OR CLASS II PREFERENCE SHARES WILL NOT CONSTITUTE OR RESULT IN A NON-EXEMPT VIOLATION OF ANY SUCH SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR LAW AND (3) SUCH PURCHASER OR SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE WILL NOT SELL OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER ANY SUCH CLASS I PREFERENCE SHARES OR CLASS II PREFERENCE SHARES OR INTERESTS THEREIN TO ANY PERSON WHO IS UNABLE TO SATISFY THE SAME FOREGOING REPRESENTATION AND WARRANTIES. NO TRANSFER OF ANY INTEREST IN THE CLASS I PREFERENCE SHARES OR CLASS II PREFERENCE SHARES WILL BE EFFECTIVE, AND THE TRUSTEE WILL NOT RECOGNIZE ANY SUCH TRANSFER IF IT WOULD RESULT IN 25% OR MORE OF THE VALUE OF THE CLASS I PREFERENCE SHARES OR THE CLASS II PREFERENCE SHARES BEING HELD BY BENEFIT PLAN INVESTORS. EACH PURCHASER AND EACH SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE OF THE CLASS I PREFERENCE SHARES OR CLASS II PREFERENCE SHARES WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE THE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE INDENTURE. ANY PURPORTED TRANSFER OF A BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN CLASS I PREFERENCE SHARES OR A CLASS II PREFERENCE SHARES IN VIOLATION OF THE REQUIREMENTS SET FORTH IN THIS PARAGRAPH WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT, SHALL BE NULL AND VOID AB INITIO AND THE ISSUER WILL HAVE THE RIGHT TO DIRECT THE PURCHASER OR THE SUBSEQUENT TRANSFEREE TO TRANSFER THE CLASS I PREFERENCE SHARES OR THE CLASS II PREFERENCE SHARES, OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN, AS APPLICABLE, TO A PERSON WHO MEETS THE FOREGOING CRITERIA.

EACH TRANSFEREE WILL BE REQUIRED TO DELIVER A TRANSFEREE CERTIFICATE IN A FORM PRESCRIBED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

- (8) The purchaser will provide notice to each Person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Preference Shares of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Preference Share Documents, including the exhibits referenced in the Preference Share Documents.
- (9) The purchaser understands that the Preference Share Documents permit the Issuer to compel any Holder of the Preference Shares who is determined not to have been (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) a Qualified Purchaser, at the time of acquisition of the Preference Shares to sell such Preference Shares, or to sell such Preference Shares on behalf of such purchaser, to a Person that is both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) a Qualified Purchaser, in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act.
- (10) The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Preference Shares. The purchaser further acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit possession or distribution of the Offering Memorandum or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Securities in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the offering memorandum relating to the Preference Shares shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Preference Shares in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.
- (11) The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Preference Shares, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase Preference Shares from any Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell such Preference Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.
- (12) The purchaser understands that the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date of the Preference Shares is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of Securities at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.
- (13) The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Preference Shares by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.
- (14) The beneficial owner will agree to treat, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (a) the Preference Shares as equity of the Issuer, (b) the Notes as indebtedness of the Issuer and (c) the Issuer as a corporation. The beneficial owner will be deemed to have acknowledged that the Issuer is not authorized to engage in activities that could cause it to constitute a finance or lending business for U.S. federal income tax purposes and agrees that it will report its investment in Preference Shares consistent with such limitation.
- (15) Each purchaser and each subsequent transferee of Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares that (i) is not a "United States person" (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) and (ii) is acquiring, directly or in conjunction with affiliates, more than 33 1/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares will make a representation to the effect that it is not an Affected Bank.
- (16) To the extent required, as determined by the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Share Registrar, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Preference Shares to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the "USA PATRIOT Act") and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Preference Share to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.
- (17) The purchaser agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.

- (18) The purchaser is not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.
- (19) The purchaser understands that, prior to any sale or other transfer of any interest in Preference Shares, it (or the transferee, as applicable) will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent a duly executed transfer certificate substantially in the form provided in the Preference Share Documents and such other certificates and other information as they may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed transfer complies with the restrictions in the legend placed on each certificate representing the Preference Shares and in the Preference Share Documents.
- (20) The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer has the right pursuant to Section 6 of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement to issue additional Preference Shares.
- (21) The purchaser understands that, to the extent required, as determined by the Co-Issuers, the Co-Issuers may amend the Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer only, the Preference Share Documents without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities to (i) remove any restrictions and limitations imposed on the Co-Issuers or the Holders of the Securities that solely relate to compliance with Section 3(c)(7) and (ii) add any requirements that are necessary for compliance with Rule 3a-7 if, at any time following the Closing Date, the Co-Issuers elect to rely on exclusion from the definition of “investment company” under Rule 3a-7 in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7).
- (22) The purchaser understands that the Issuer may enter into amendments or modifications to the Servicing Agreement without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities.
- (23) (a) The purchaser or the subsequent transferee is (or is not, as applicable) a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person. No Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person will be permitted to purchase Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares, unless such purchaser’s or subsequent transferee’s acquisition, holding and disposition of such Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares, (x) will not cause participation by Benefit Plan Investors to be “significant” within the meaning of the Plan Asset Regulation and (y) (1) in connection with the acquisition, holding and disposition of such Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares, the purchaser’s or subsequent transferee’s fiduciary has determined that such purchaser or subsequent transferee is receiving no less, and paying no more, than “adequate consideration” (within the meaning of Section 408(b)(17)(B) of ERISA and Section 4975(f)(10) of the Code) and (2) such purchaser’s or subsequent transferee’s acquisition, holding and disposition of such Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. If the purchaser or the subsequent transferee is a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan that is subject to any Substantially Similar Law, such purchaser or subsequent transferee shall represent and warrant that such purchaser’s or subsequent transferee’s acquisition, holding and disposition of a Class I Preference Share or a Class II Preference Share will not constitute or result in a non-exempt violation of any such Substantially Similar Law.

(b) In determining whether participation by Benefit Plan Investors is “significant”, Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares beneficially held by (1) the Servicer, the Trustee, any of their respective Affiliates, employees of the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates and any charitable foundation of any such employees or (2) persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons, will be disregarded and will not be treated as Outstanding for purposes of whether participation by Benefit Plan Investors is “significant” to the extent that persons listed in (1) or (2) are not Benefit Plan Investors.

(c) The purchaser or the subsequent transferee acknowledges that a transfer of the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares will not be permitted, and no such transfer or exchange will be registered under the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement, to the extent that the transfer or exchange would result in Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares immediately after such transfer or exchange (determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation and the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement).

- (24) If any Person that is the beneficial owner of an interest in a Class I Preference Share or a Class II Preference Share becomes a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, the Issuer shall, promptly after discovery that such person is a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee (and notice by the Trustee or the Co-Issuer to the Issuer, if either of them makes the discovery), send notice to such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder demanding that such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder transfer its interest to a person that is not a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder within 14 days of the date of such notice. If such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder fails to so transfer its Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares, the Issuer shall have the right, without further notice to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, to sell (and shall sell if directed to do so by the Servicer) such Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares or interest in such Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares, to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is not a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder on such terms as the Issuer may choose. The Issuer, or the Trustee acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select the purchaser by soliciting one or more bids from one or more brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares and selling such Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares to the highest such bidder. However, the Issuer or the Trustee may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion. The Holder of each Class I Preference Share or Class II Preference Share, the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder and each other Person in the chain of title from the Holder to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, by its acceptance of an interest in the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares, agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Trustee to effect such transfers. The proceeds of such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder. The terms and conditions of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer, and none of the Issuer, the Servicer or the Trustee shall be liable to any Person having an interest in the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of such discretion (including for the price of such sale).
- (25) The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Preference Shares are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Issuer, the Servicer, the Trustee and the Initial Purchaser.

LISTING AND GENERAL INFORMATION

- (i) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer accept responsibility for the information contained in this document. To the best knowledge and belief of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, the information contained in this document is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.
- (ii) Application will be made for the Senior Notes to be admitted to the Official List of the ISE and trading on its regulated market. However, there can be no assurance that any admission will be granted or maintained. Prior to the listing, a legal notice relating to the issue of the Senior Notes and copies of the Issuer Charter and the Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws of the Co-Issuer will be deposited with Custom House Administration & Corporate Services Ltd. and at the principal office of the Issuer, where copies thereof may be obtained, free of charge, upon request. The Co-Issuers have been advised by Dillon Eustace that the estimated upfront fees and expenses of the ISE for obtaining such listing will be approximately €5,440 and the estimated ongoing expenses for maintaining such listing will be approximately €1,500 per annum.
- (iii) Dillon Eustace is acting solely in its capacity as listing agent for the Issuer in connection with the Notes and is not itself seeking admission of the Notes to the Official List or to trading on the ISE for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive.
- (iv) As long as any of the Senior Notes are Outstanding and listed on the ISE, copies of the Issuer Charter and the Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws of the Co-Issuer, the Administration Agreement, the Resolutions, the resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Co-Issuer authorizing the issuance of the Senior Notes, the Indenture, the Servicing Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and any Hedge Agreement will be available for inspection at the office of the Issuer and the Irish Paying Agent in the City of Dublin, where copies thereof may be obtained upon request in printed form.

- (v) Copies of the Issuer Charter and the Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws of the Co-Issuer, the Administration Agreement, the Resolutions, the resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Co-Issuer authorizing the issuance of the Senior Notes, the Indenture, the Servicing Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and any Hedge Agreement, the Monthly Report prepared by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer containing information relating to the Collateral and the Valuation Report by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer containing information relating to the Collateral and the Notes will be available for inspection so long as any of the Securities are Outstanding at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or may be made available on the Trustee's password protected website initially located at <http://www.cdocalc.com/ibt/cdo/> and providing access thereto to the Holders of the Notes and the Preference Shares.
- (vi) Each of the Co-Issuers represents that as of the date of this Offering Memorandum, there has been no material adverse change in its financial position since its date of incorporation. Since its date of incorporation, neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer has commenced operations, other than the Issuer purchasing certain Collateral Obligations and selling participation interests therein pursuant to a master participation agreement preparatory to the offering of the Securities, and no annual reports or accounts have been prepared as of the date of this Offering Memorandum.
- (vii) The Co-Issuers are not involved in any litigation, arbitration or governmental proceedings (including any such proceedings which are pending or threatened of which the Co-Issuers are aware) which may have or have had within the last twelve (12) months a significant effect on the financial position of the Co-Issuers.
- (viii) The issuance of the Securities was authorized and approved by the Board of Directors of the Issuer by the Resolutions. The issuance of the Senior Notes was authorized and approved by the Board of Directors of the Co-Issuer by resolutions passed on or before the Closing Date.
- (ix) Since the date of their incorporation and as of the date of this document, no financial statements of the Co-Issuers have been prepared. The Issuer is not required by Cayman Islands law to publish financial statements, and does not intend to publish any financial statements. The Issuer is required to provide written confirmation to the Trustee, on an annual basis, that no Event of Default or other matter that is required to be brought to the Trustee's attention has occurred.

LEGAL MATTERS

Certain legal matters will be passed upon for the Co-Issuers and the Initial Purchaser by Dechert LLP, Charlotte, North Carolina. Certain matters with respect to Cayman Islands corporate law and tax law will be passed upon for the Issuer by Walkers, George Town, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands. Certain legal matters will be passed upon for the Servicer by Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, Los Angeles, California. Certain legal matters relating to Delaware law will be passed upon by Pepper Hamilton LLP, Wilmington, Delaware.

GLOSSARY OF DEFINED TERMS

"A/B Exchange" means an exchange of one security (the "A Security") for another security (the "B Security") of the same issuer or issuers, which security shall have the same seniority, maturity and interest rate as the A Security except that one or more transfer restrictions applicable to the A Security are inapplicable to the B Security.

"Accrued Interest On Sale" means interest accrued on a Collateral Obligation at the time of sale or other disposition to the extent paid to the Issuer as part of the sale or other disposition price of the Collateral Obligation after deduction of any amount representing Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal of the Collateral Obligation.

"Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal" means (i) interest accrued on or purchased with a Collateral Obligation as part of the price paid by the Issuer to acquire the Collateral Obligation less any amount of Interest Proceeds (applied as Interest Proceeds) applied by the Issuer to acquire the accrued interest at the time of purchase and (ii) interest accrued on a Loan that constitutes part of the price paid by the Issuer to repay amounts owed to the Pre-Closing Parties in connection with the financing of the Issuer's pre-closing acquisition of such Loan.

“Act” means any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action to be given or taken by Noteholders or Holders of Preference Shares under the Indenture embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments (which may be an electronic document, including, but not limited to, in the form of e-mail, to the extent permitted by applicable law) of substantially similar tenor signed by Noteholders or Holders of Preference Shares in person or by agents duly appointed in writing (provided that no signature shall be required on electronic documents, including, but not limited to, in the form of e-mail to the extent permitted by law). Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Indenture, the action shall become effective when the instruments are delivered to the Trustee (which instrument or instruments may be delivered through the Preference Shares Paying Agent, in the case of the Holders of the Preference Shares) and, if expressly required, to the Issuer. The instruments (and the action embodied in them) are referred to as the “Act” of the Noteholders or Holders of Preference Shares signing the instruments.

“Administrative Expense Cap” means, an amount on any Payment Date equal to the excess of:

- (i) the sum of 0.025% of the Maximum Amount on the related Determination Date plus $250,000; over
- (ii) the sum of the amounts paid for Administrative Expenses in the twelve months preceding the current Payment Date.

“Administrative Expenses” means amounts due or accrued representing:

- (i) tax preparation, filing, and registration fees or expenses and any other filing and registration fees owed by the Co-Issuers (including all filing, registration and annual return fees payable to the Cayman Islands government and registered office fees);
- (ii) fees, indemnities and expenses of the Trustee (including all amounts under Section 6.8 of the Indenture), the Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Collateral Administrator;
- (iii) fees, indemnities and expenses of the Co-Issuers and of accountants, agents and counsel for either of the Co-Issuers;
- (iv) fees and expenses of the Rating Agencies in connection with any rating of the Collateral (requested by the Issuer or the Servicer) or the Notes owed by either Co-Issuer (including fees and expenses for ongoing surveillance, credit estimates and other fees owing to the Rating Agencies);
- (v) expenses and indemnities (but not Servicing Fees) of the Servicer if payable under the Servicing Agreement;
- (vi) fees, indemnities and expenses for third-party loan pricing services and accountants; and
- (vii) amounts due (other than indemnities) to any other Person (except the Servicer) if specifically provided for in the Indenture, including fees or expenses in connection with any Securities Lending Agreement.

“Affected Class” means any Class of Notes that, as a result of the occurrence of a Tax Event, has received or will receive less than the aggregate amount of principal and interest that would otherwise have been payable to such Class on the Payment Date related to the Due Period with respect to which such Tax Event occurs.

“Affiliate” or “Affiliated” means with respect to a Person,

- (i) any other Person who, directly or indirectly, is in control of, or controlled by, or is under common control with, the Person; or
- (ii) any other Person who is a director, officer or employee (A) of the Person, (B) of any subsidiary or parent company of the Person or (C) of any Person described in clause (i) above.

For the purposes of this definition, control of a Person shall mean the power, direct or indirect:

- (A) to vote more than 50% of the securities having ordinary voting power for the election of directors of the Person; or

- (B) to direct the corporate management and corporate policies of the Person whether by contract or otherwise (this does not include the Servicing Agreement unless it is amended expressly to provide those services).

For the purpose of this definition, the Administrator and its Affiliates are neither Affiliates of nor Affiliated with the Co-Issuers and the Co-Issuers are neither Affiliates of nor Affiliated with the Administrator, or any of their Affiliates.

“Aggregate Outstanding Amount” means, when used with respect to any of the Notes as of any date, the aggregate principal amount of such Notes on that date. When used with respect to the Preference Shares as of any date, means the number of such Preference Shares Outstanding on such date.

Except as otherwise provided herein:

(i) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A Notes at any time shall include any Defaulted Interest in respect thereof and (to the extent not included in any such Defaulted Interest) accrued interest on such Defaulted Interest;

(ii) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class B Notes at any time shall include any Defaulted Interest in respect thereof and (to the extent not included in any such Defaulted Interest) accrued interest on such Defaulted Interest;

(iii) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes at any time shall include all Class C Deferred Interest attributed thereto;

(iv) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class D Notes at any time shall include all Class D Deferred Interest attributed thereto; and

(v) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class E Notes at any time shall include all Class E Deferred Interest attributed thereto.

“Aggregate Principal Balance” means, when used with respect to the Pledged Obligations, the sum of the Principal Balances of all the Pledged Obligations. When used with respect to a portion of the Pledged Obligations, the term Aggregate Principal Balance means the sum of the Principal Balances of that portion of the Pledged Obligations.

“Aggregate Purchase Price Amount” means, when used with respect to the Pledged Obligations, the sum of the Purchase Price Amounts of all the Pledged Obligations. When used with respect to a portion of the Pledged Obligations, the term Aggregate Purchase Price Amount means the sum of the Purchase Price Amounts of that portion of the Pledged Obligations.

“Allocable Principal Balance” means, with respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, the portion of the aggregate Principal Balance of such Synthetic Security that is allocable to each Reference Obligation comprising such index or indices based upon allocating the Principal Balance of such Synthetic Security among such Reference Obligations in the same proportion as each Reference Obligation bears to the aggregate Principal Balance of such Synthetic Security.

“Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price” means, the purchase price payable by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser for Securities purchased in an Amendment Buy-Out, if any, in an amount equal to (i) in the case of the Notes, the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest (including Deferred Interest, if any) as of the date of purchase payable to the Non-Consenting Holder (giving effect to any amounts paid to the Holder on such date), plus any unpaid Extension Bonus Payment, and (ii) in the case of the Preference Shares, an amount that, when taken together with all payments and distributions made in respect of such Preference Shares since the Closing Date (and any amounts payable, if any, to the Non-Consenting Holder on the next succeeding Payment Date) would cause such Preference Shares to have received (as of the date of purchase thereof) a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 12% (assuming such purchase date was a Payment Date); provided, however, that in any Amendment Buy-Out from and after the date on which the Non-Consenting Holders of Preference Shares have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12%, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price for such Preference Shares shall be zero.

“Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser” means the Servicer (or any of its Affiliates acting as principal or agent); provided that in the event that the Servicer elects not to purchase Securities from Holders pursuant to “Description of the Securities—Amendment Buy-Out,” “Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser” shall mean one or more qualifying purchasers (which may include the Initial Purchaser or any of their Affiliates acting as principal or agent) designated by the Servicer; provided, however, none of the Servicer, the Initial Purchaser or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any duty to act as an Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser.

“Applicable Note Interest Rate” means, with respect to the Notes of any Class, the Note Interest Rate with respect to such Class.

“Applicable Percentage” means the lesser of the Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate applicable to the Collateral Obligation and the S&P Recovery Rate applicable to the Collateral Obligation and the current S&P Rating of the most senior Class of Notes then Outstanding.

“Approved Pricing Service” means Loan Pricing Corporation, Mark-It-Partners, Inc. or any other nationally recognized loan pricing service approved in writing by S&P.

“Ask-Side Market Value” means, as of any Measurement Date, the market value determined by the Servicer and reported to the Trustee as an amount rather than as a percentage or fraction of par (expressed in Dollars) of any lent Collateral Obligation based upon the Servicer’s commercially reasonable judgment and based upon the following order of priority: (i) the average of the ask-side market prices obtained by the Servicer from three Independent broker dealers active in the trading of such obligations which are also Independent from the Servicer or (ii) if the foregoing set of prices could not be obtained, the higher of the ask-side market prices obtained by the Servicer from two Independent broker dealers active in the trading of such obligations which are also Independent from the Servicer or (iii) if the foregoing set of prices could not be obtained, the ask-side market price obtained by the Servicer from one Independent broker dealer active in the trading of such obligations which is also Independent from the Servicer or (iv) if the foregoing sets of prices could not be obtained, the average of the ask-side prices for the purchase of such Collateral Obligation determined by an Approved Pricing Service (Independent from the Servicer) that derives valuations by polling broker-dealers (Independent from the Servicer); provided that if the Ask-Side Market Value of any lent Collateral Obligation cannot be so determined then such Collateral Obligation shall be deemed to have a Market Value equal to the outstanding principal balance thereof.

“Assigned Moody’s Rating” means the monitored publicly available rating or the monitored estimated rating expressly assigned to a debt obligation (or facility) by Moody’s that addresses the full amount of the principal and interest promised.

“Authorized Officer” means, with respect to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, any Officer or agent who is authorized to act for the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, in matters relating to, and binding on, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer. With respect to the Servicer, any managing member, Officer, manager, employee, partner or agent of the Servicer who is authorized to act for the Servicer in matters relating to, and binding on, the Servicer with respect to the subject matter of the request, certificate or order in question. With respect to the Trustee or any other bank or trust company acting as trustee of an express trust or as custodian, a Trust Officer. With respect to the Preference Share Paying Agent, the persons constituting Authorized Officers of the Trustee under the Indenture. “Collateral Administrator” means the Bank, in its capacity as collateral administrator under the Collateral Administration Agreement.

“Commitment Amount” means, with respect to any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, the maximum aggregate outstanding principal amount (whether then funded or unfunded) of advances or other extensions of credit that the Issuer could be required to make to the borrower under its Underlying Instruments.

“Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares” means, with respect to any Payment Date after the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes has been paid in full, or so long as the Class A Notes are no longer Outstanding, if the Coverage Tests are at the same level as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, a Holder of Preference Shares that has consented by delivering an irrevocable written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent to a distribution of Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of payment of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds on such Payment Date, as described in “Description of the Securities—Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.”

“Controlling Class” means the Class A Notes, (voting together as a Class) so long as any Class A Notes are Outstanding; then the Class B Notes (voting together as a Class), so long as any Class B Notes are Outstanding; then the Class C Notes (voting together as a Class), so long as any Class C Notes are Outstanding; then the Class D Notes (voting together as a Class), so long as any Class D Notes are Outstanding; and then the Class E Notes (voting together as a Class), so long as any Class E Notes are Outstanding.

“Corporate Trust Office” means the corporate trust office of the Trustee at which the Trustee performs its duties under the Indenture, currently having an address of 200 Clarendon Street, Mail Code: EUC 108, Boston, MA 02116, telecopy no. (617) 937-0517, Attention: CDO Services Group, or any other address the Trustee designates from time to time by notice to the Noteholders, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Issuer and each Rating Agency or the principal corporate trust office of any successor Trustee.

“Cov-lite Loan” means a Loan that (i) does not contain any financial covenants or (ii) requires the borrower to comply with an Incurrence Covenant, but does not require the borrower to comply with a Maintenance Covenant.

“Credit Improved Obligation” is any Collateral Obligation that (a) is sold pursuant to a Portfolio Improvement Exchange or (b) in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, has improved in credit quality; provided that, in forming such judgment, a reduction in credit spread or an increase in Market Value of such Collateral Obligation (whether as described in clauses (ii) or (iii) below or otherwise) may only be utilized as corroboration of other bases for such judgment; and provided, further, that, if a Credit Rating Event is in effect, such Collateral Obligation will be considered a Credit Improved Obligation only if in addition to the above:

- (i) the Collateral Obligation has been upgraded or has been put on credit watch list with the potential for developing positive credit implications by either of the Rating Agencies since the date the Issuer first acquired the Collateral Obligation under the Indenture;

(ii) such Collateral Obligation has experienced a reduction in credit spread of (A) 0.25% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such decrease) less than or equal to 2.00%, (B) 0.375% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such decrease) greater than 2.00% but less than or equal to 4.00% or (C) 0.50% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such decrease) greater than 4.00%, in each case compared to the credit spread at the time such Collateral Obligation was acquired by the Issuer;

(iii) (x) in the case of a Loan, the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation has increased by at least 1.00% from the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation as of its date of acquisition, as determined by the Servicer (provided that this subclause (iii)(x) will be deemed satisfied if Market Value increases to 1.01%), or (y) in the case of a bond, the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation has changed since its date of acquisition by a percentage more positive than the percentage change in the Merrill Lynch US High Yield Master II Index, Bloomberg ticker H0A0, plus 3.00%, over the same period; or

(iv) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class have voted to suspend the limitations on a Collateral Obligation being a Credit Improved Obligation set forth in clauses (i) through (iii) above, and for each subsequent downgrade by Moody's after a vote to suspend the limitations pursuant to this clause (iv) has occurred, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class must again vote to suspend the limitations on the Collateral Obligation being a Credit Improved Obligation set forth in clauses (i) through (iii) above for this clause (iv) to remain applicable.

A Synthetic Security shall be considered a Credit Improved Obligation if:

- (i) the Synthetic Security itself is a Credit Improved Obligation; or
- (ii) the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security would, if it were a Collateral Obligation, be a Credit Improved Obligation.

“Credit Rating Event” means an event that is in effect if the rating by Moody's:

- (i) of the Class A Notes or the Class B Notes has been withdrawn or is one or more rating sub-categories below its Initial Rating; or
- (ii) of the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes or the Class E Notes has been withdrawn or is two or more rating sub-categories below its respective Initial Rating.

For the purposes of this definition, any withdrawal or reduction in rating shall not be effective if after the withdrawal or reduction Moody's has upgraded the reduced or withdrawn rating to at least the Initial Rating in the case of the Class A Notes, or to only one subcategory below their Initial Rating in the case of the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes.

“Credit Risk Obligation” means any Collateral Obligation (other than a Defaulted Collateral Obligation) that, in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, has significantly declined in credit quality and has a significant risk, with a lapse of time, of becoming a Defaulted Collateral Obligation; provided that in forming such judgment an increase in credit spread or a decrease in Market Value of such Collateral Obligation (whether as described in clauses (ii) or (iii) below or otherwise) may only be utilized as corroboration of other bases for such judgment.

So long as a Credit Rating Event is in effect, no Collateral Obligation shall be eligible to be a Credit Risk Obligation unless in addition to the above, as of the date of determination:

- (i) the Collateral Obligation has been downgraded or has been put on credit watch list with the potential for developing negative credit implications by either of the Rating Agencies since the date the Issuer first acquired the Collateral Obligation under the Indenture;
- (ii) such Collateral Obligation has experienced an increase in credit spread of (A) 0.25% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such increase)

less than or equal to 2.00%, (B) 0.375% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such increase) greater than 2.00% but less than or equal to 4.00% or (C) 0.50% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such increase) greater than 4.00%, compared to the credit spread at the time such Collateral Obligation was acquired by the Issuer;

(iii) (x) in the case of a Loan, the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation has decreased by at least 2.50% from the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation as of its date of acquisition, as determined by the Servicer, and (y) in the case of a bond, the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation has changed since its date of acquisition by a percentage more negative, or less positive, as the case may be, than the percentage change in the Merrill Lynch US High Yield Master II Index, Bloomberg ticker H0A0, less 3.00%, over the same period; or

(iv) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class have voted to suspend the limitations on a Collateral Obligation being a Credit Risk Obligation set forth in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) above, and for each subsequent downgrade by Moody's after a vote to suspend the limitations pursuant to this clause (iv) has occurred, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class must again vote to suspend the limitations on the Collateral Obligation being a Credit Risk Obligation set forth in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) above for this clause (iv) to remain applicable.

A Synthetic Security shall be considered a Credit Risk Obligation if:

(a) the Synthetic Security itself is a Credit Risk Obligation; or

(b) the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security would, if it were a Collateral Obligation, be a Credit Risk Obligation.

“Current Portfolio” means, at any time, the portfolio (measured by Aggregate Principal Balance) of Collateral Obligations, Principal Proceeds held as cash on deposit in the Collection Account, and other Eligible Investments purchased with Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account that exists before the sale, maturity or other disposition of a Collateral Obligation or before the acquisition of a Collateral Obligation, as the case may be.

“Current-Pay Obligation” means a Collateral Obligation as to which:

(i) an insolvency event has occurred with respect to its obligor or as to which its obligor is rated “D” or “SD” by S&P or its obligor has previously been rated “CCC-” by S&P and the rating has been withdrawn;

(ii) no default as to the payment of principal or interest with respect to the Collateral Obligation is then continuing and the Servicer has delivered to the Trustee an Officer's certificate to the effect that the Servicer expects that the obligor will make payments of interest and principal in Cash on the Collateral Obligation as they become due and is current on such payments;

(iii) (A) if the rating by Moody's of the Collateral Obligation is at least “Caa1” (and not on credit watch with negative implications) the Market Value of the Collateral Obligation is at least equal to 80% of its Principal Balance or (B) if the rating by Moody's of the Collateral Obligation is less than “Caa1” or is “Caa1” and on credit watch with negative implications, the Market Value of the Collateral Obligation is at least equal to 85% of its Principal Balance; provided that the Market Value of the Collateral Obligation must be at least equal to 80% of its Principal Balance without regard to its rating and not determined in accordance with clause (b) of the definition of Market Value;

(iv) if an insolvency event has occurred with respect to the obligor of the Collateral Obligation, a bankruptcy court has authorized all payments of principal and interest payable on the Collateral Obligation;

(v) there is a rating of at least “Caa2” by Moody's (if rated by Moody's) (provided that if such rating is “Caa2”, such rating must not be on watch for possible downgrade by Moody's); and

(vi) the Servicer has designated in writing to the Trustee the Collateral Obligation as a Current-Pay Obligation.

If the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that would otherwise be Current-Pay Obligations exceeds 5% of the Maximum Amount, all or a portion of one or more Collateral Obligations that would otherwise be Current-Pay Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance equal to the amount of the excess shall not be Current-Pay Obligations (and will therefore be Defaulted Collateral Obligations). The Servicer shall designate in writing to the Trustee the Collateral Obligations that shall not be Current-Pay Obligations pursuant to the preceding sentence as the Collateral Obligations (or portions thereof) that have the lowest Market Value on any applicable date of determination.

The Servicer may, with the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class, by notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Collateral Administrator, change the definition of “Current-Pay Obligation” or how Current-Pay Obligations are treated in the Indenture, subject to the satisfaction of the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency.

“Deep Discount Obligation” means, (i) until the Market Value Percentage of the Collateral Obligation (other than a Structured Finance Obligation), as determined daily for any period of 30 consecutive days, equals or exceeds 90%, any Collateral Obligation acquired by the Issuer for a Purchase Price less than 85% of its Principal Balance or any Collateral Obligation acquired by the Issuer for a Purchase Price less than 85% but greater than or equal to 80% of its Principal Balance and which has a public Moody’s Rating that is equal to or better than “B3” (and not rated “B3” on watch for downgrade) or (ii) until the Market Value Percentage of a Structured Finance Obligation, as determined daily for any period of 60 consecutive days, equals or exceeds 85%, any Structured Finance Obligation acquired by the Issuer for a Purchase Price less than 75% of its Principal Balance. For such purpose, the Market Value Percentage of a Collateral Obligation on a day that is not a Business Day shall be deemed to be the Market Value Percentage of the Collateral Obligation on the immediately preceding Business Day.

“Default Interest Rate” means, with respect to any specified Class of Notes, the per annum interest rate equal to the Note Interest Rate payable on the Notes of the Class.

“Defaulted Collateral Obligation” means any Collateral Obligation or other obligation included in the Collateral:

(i) as to which there has occurred and is continuing a default with respect to the payment of principal or interest (including the non-payment of any PIK Cash-Pay Interest) without giving effect to any applicable grace or waiver period (provided that if the Servicer certifies to the Trustee in writing that such default is for non-credit related reasons, the related Collateral Obligation shall not be treated as a Defaulted Collateral Obligation under this clause (i) unless and until such default has continued for a period of three (3) consecutive Business Days), unless in the case of a failure of the obligor to make required interest payments, the obligor has resumed current Cash payments of interest previously scheduled and unpaid and has paid in full any accrued interest due and payable thereon, in which case the Collateral Obligation shall cease to be classified as a Defaulted Collateral Obligation;

(ii) the maturity of all or a portion of the principal amount of such Collateral Obligation has been accelerated as a consequence of a default (other than any payment default) under the instruments evidencing or relating to such Collateral Obligation; unless such default or event of default has been fully cured and is no longer continuing and such acceleration has been rescinded;

(iii) with respect to which there has been effected any distressed exchange or other debt restructuring where the obligor has offered the holders thereof a new security or instrument or package of securities or instruments that, in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, either (x) amounts to a diminished financial obligation or (y) has the sole purpose of enabling the obligor to avoid a default;

(iv) (1) that is pari passu with or subordinated to other indebtedness for borrowed money owing by its obligor (“Other Indebtedness”), (2) the obligor has defaulted in the payment of principal or interest (without regard to any applicable grace or notice period and without regard to any waiver of the default) on the Other Indebtedness, unless, in the case of a failure of the obligor to make required interest payments, the obligor has resumed current Cash payments of interest previously scheduled and unpaid on the Other Indebtedness and has paid in full any accrued interest due and payable thereon, in which case the Collateral Obligation shall cease to be classified as a Defaulted Collateral Obligation and (3) the Servicer, provided that the related Collateral Obligation has not been downgraded after the default on such Other Indebtedness has occurred, determines (in its commercially reasonable judgment) that such Other Indebtedness is material;

(v) (other than a Current-Pay Obligation or a DIP Loan) as to which:

(A) an insolvency event has occurred with respect to its obligor;

(B) the obligation is rated “D”, “SD”, “C” or “CC” by S&P or was so rated immediately prior to such rating being withdrawn, or has previously been rated “CCC-” or lower by S&P and the rating has been withdrawn; or

(C) the obligor is assigned a probability of default rating of “D” by Moody’s;

(vi) if the Collateral Obligation is a Structured Finance Obligation, it is rated “CC” or below by S&P, or it was rated “CC” or below by S&P but the rating has since been withdrawn, or it is rated “Ca” or below by Moody’s, or it was rated “C” or below by Moody’s but the rating has since been withdrawn;

(vii) that is a Participation that would, if the underlying Loan were a Collateral Obligation, be a Defaulted Collateral Obligation under any of clauses (i) through (v) above or with respect to which the Participating Institution has defaulted in the performance of any of its payment obligations under the Participation;

(viii) that is a Synthetic Security referencing a Reference Obligation that would, if the Reference Obligation were a Collateral Obligation, be a Defaulted Collateral Obligation under any of clauses (i) through (vi) above or with respect to which the Synthetic Security Counterparty has defaulted in the performance of any of its payment obligations under the Synthetic Security; provided, however, with respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time: (x) a determination whether the Reference Obligations upon which such Synthetic Security is based would, if such Reference Obligations were Collateral Obligations, be a Defaulted Collateral Obligation, shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct interest of the Issuer in each of the Reference Obligations on which such Synthetic Security is based in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation and (y) the “Defaulted Collateral Obligation” for purposes of this clause (viii) shall be limited to the Allocable Principal Balance of each Reference Obligation that would, if the Reference Obligation were a Collateral Obligation, be a Defaulted Collateral Obligation under any of clauses (i) through (vi) above;

(ix) that is a Written-Down Obligation;

(x) that is a DIP Loan as to which an order has been entered converting the debtor’s chapter 11 case to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code; or

(xi) that is declared to be a Defaulted Collateral Obligation by the Servicer.

Any Collateral Obligation that is classified as a Defaulted Collateral Obligation shall cease to be so classified if the Collateral Obligation, at any date thereafter,

(1) would not otherwise be classified as a Defaulted Collateral Obligation in accordance with this definition; and

(2) otherwise meets the Eligibility Criteria as of that date.

If any portion of a Collateral Obligation has a maturity later than one year after the Stated Maturity of the Notes due to a change in the payment schedule of the Collateral Obligation occurring after its acquisition by the Issuer, that portion of the Collateral Obligation shall be considered a Defaulted Collateral Obligation.

“Defaulted Hedge Termination Payment” means any termination payment required to be made by the Issuer to a Hedge Counterparty pursuant to a Hedge Agreement upon a termination of the Hedge Agreement in respect of which the Hedge Counterparty is the sole Defaulting Party or Affected Party (each as defined in the Hedge Agreements).

“Defaulted Interest” means any interest payable in respect of any Class of Notes that is not punctually paid or duly provided for on the applicable Payment Date or at Stated Maturity.

“Defaulted Interest Charge” means to the extent lawful, interest on any Defaulted Interest at the Default Interest Rate.

“Defaulted Synthetic Security Termination Payments” means any termination payment required to be made by the Issuer to a Synthetic Security Counterparty pursuant to a Synthetic Security upon the occurrence of any “event of default” or “termination event” (each as defined in the applicable Synthetic Security) under such Synthetic Security as to which such Synthetic Security Counterparty is the Defaulting Party or the sole Affected Party (each as defined in the applicable Synthetic Security).

“Definitive Security” means any Note or Certificated Preference Share that is registered in the name of the beneficial owner.

“Delayed Drawdown Loan” means a Loan or any Synthetic Security with a Reference Obligation that:

- (i) requires the Issuer to make one or more future advances to the borrower under its Underlying Instruments;
- (ii) specifies a maximum amount that can be borrowed on one or more fixed borrowing dates; and
- (iii) does not permit the re-borrowing of any amount previously repaid.

A Loan or Synthetic Security shall only be considered to be a Delayed Drawdown Loan for so long as its unused commitment amount is greater than zero and for purposes of the Concentration Limitations only unfunded portions will count as Delayed Drawdown Loans.

“Depository” or “DTC” means The Depository Trust Company and its nominees.

“DIP Loan” means any Loan:

- (i) that has a rating assigned by Moody’s (or if the Loan does not have a rating assigned by Moody’s, the Servicer has commenced the process of having a rating assigned by Moody’s within five Business Days of the date the Loan is acquired by the Issuer) and a rating assigned by S&P (or if the Loan does not have a rating assigned by S&P, the Servicer has commenced the process of having a rating assigned by S&P within two Business Days of the date the Loan is acquired by the Issuer);
- (ii) that is an obligation of a debtor in possession as described in Section 1107 of the Bankruptcy Code or a trustee (if appointment of a trustee has been ordered pursuant to Section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code) (a “Debtor”) organized under the laws of the United States or any state of the United States; and
- (iii) the terms of which have been approved by a final order of the United States Bankruptcy Court, United States District Court, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, the enforceability of which order is not subject to any pending contested matter or proceeding (as those terms are defined in the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure) and which order provides that:
  - (A) the Loan is secured by liens on the Debtor’s otherwise unencumbered assets pursuant to Section 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code;
  - (B) the Loan is secured by liens of equal or senior priority on property of the Debtor’s estate that is otherwise subject to a lien pursuant to Section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code;
  - (C) the Loan is fully secured (based on a current valuation or appraisal report) by junior liens on the Debtor’s encumbered assets; or

- (D) if any portion of the Loan is unsecured, the repayment of the Loan retains priority over all other administrative expenses pursuant to Section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code (and in the case of this clause (D), before the acquisition of the Loan, the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency).

“Diversity Score” is a single number that indicates collateral concentration in terms of both issuer and industry concentration, calculated as set forth in Schedule 4 to the Indenture.

“Domicile” or “Domiciled” means, with respect to each Collateral Obligation, either (i) the jurisdiction of incorporation, organization or creation of the related obligor or (ii) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with an obligor organized, incorporated or created in a Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction, the jurisdiction in which, in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, the related obligor conducts substantially all of its business operations and in which the assets primarily responsible for generating its revenues are located.

“Due Period” means, with respect to any Payment Date, for all purposes other than payments and receipts under Hedge Agreements, the period from the Business Day after the eighth Business Day before the previous Payment Date (or in the case of the first Payment Date, from the Closing Date) up to but excluding the Business Day after the eighth Business Day before the Payment Date (or in the case of the final Payment Date or any Payment Date that is a Redemption Date, through the Business Day before the Payment Date and for payments and receipts under Hedge Agreements the period from the day after the previous Payment Date (or in the case of the first Payment Date from the Closing Date) through the Payment Date).

“Eligible Country” means the United States, Canada and any country classified by Moody’s as a Moody’s Group I Country, Moody’s Group II Country or Moody’s Group III Country and, in each case, has an S&P foreign currency rating of at least “AA” and a Moody’s foreign currency rating of at least “Aa2”.

“Eligible Equity Security” mean an equity security acquired in connection with the workout or restructuring of any Collateral Obligation by, or on behalf of, the Issuer that (i) is publicly traded on an Established Securities Market or (ii) the Market Value of which is higher than the Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligation with respect to which such equity security has been acquired by the Issuer (for the avoidance of doubt, the Principal Balance of any Eligible Equity Security shall be zero for purposes of determining the Overcollateralization Test).

“Eligible Investments” means any Dollar-denominated obligation or asset that, when it is pledged by the Issuer to the Trustee under the Indenture, is one or more of the following:

- (i) Cash;
- (ii) direct Registered obligations of, and Registered obligations the timely payment of principal and interest on which is fully and expressly guaranteed by, the United States or any agency or instrumentality of the United States the obligations of which are expressly backed by the full faith and credit of the United States, which in each case are not zero coupon securities;
- (iii) demand and time deposits in, trust accounts, certificates of deposit payable within 91 days of issuance of, bankers’ acceptances payable within 91 days of issuance issued by, or Federal funds sold by any depository institution or trust company incorporated under the laws of the United States or any state thereof and subject to supervision and examination by Federal and/or state banking authorities so long as the commercial paper and/or the debt obligations of such depository institution or trust company (or, in the case of the principal depository institution in a holding company system, the commercial paper or debt obligations of such holding company), at the time of such acquisition or contractual commitment providing for such acquisition and throughout the term thereof, have a credit rating of not less than “Aaa” by Moody’s and “AAA” by S&P and in each case are not on watch for downgrade, or “P-1” by Moody’s and “A-1+” by S&P in the case of commercial paper and short-term debt obligations; provided that in any case, the issuer thereof must have at the time of such acquisition a long-term credit rating of not less than “AA-” by S&P and “Aa3” by Moody’s and a short-term rating of “A-1+” by S&P and “P-1” by Moody’s, and if so rated, is not on watch for downgrade;
- (iv) commercial paper or other short-term obligations with a maturity which, even after giving effect to any extendibility feature thereof, does not exceed 183 days from the date of issuance and having at the time of such acquisition a credit rating of at least “P-1” by Moody’s and “A-1+” by S&P; provided that, in any case, the issuer thereof must have at the time of such acquisition a long-term credit rating of not less than “Aa2” by Moody’s and “AA-” by S&P, and if so rated, such rating is not on watch for downgrade;

(v) unleveraged repurchase obligations with respect to any security described in clause (b) above entered into with a U.S. federal or state depository institution or trust company (acting as principal) described in clause (iii) above or entered into with a corporation (acting as principal) whose long-term credit rating is not less than “Aaa” by Moody’s and “AAA” by S&P and in each case are not on watch for downgrade or whose short-term credit rating is “P-1” by Moody’s and “A-1+” by S&P at the time of such acquisition and throughout the term thereof; provided that, if such repurchase obligation has a maturity of longer than 91 days, the counterparty thereto must also have at the time of such acquisition and throughout the term thereof a long-term credit rating of not less than “Aa2” by Moody’s and “AAA” by S&P, and if so rated, such rating is not on watch for downgrade;

(vi) any money market funds (including any fund for which the Trustee or an Affiliate of the Trustee serves as an investment adviser, administrator, shareholder servicing agent, custodian or subcustodian, notwithstanding that (A) the Trustee or an Affiliate of the Trustee charges and collects fees and expenses from such funds for services rendered (provided that such charges, fees and expenses are on terms consistent with terms negotiated at arm’s length) and (B) the Trustee charges and collects fees and expenses for services rendered, pursuant to the Indenture) (i) which funds have at the time of acquisition and throughout the term thereof a credit rating of “Aaa” and “MR1+” by Moody’s and “AAA” by S&P, respectively (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or (ii) that are registered as money market funds under Rule 2a-7 under the Investment Company Act and have a credit rating of “Aaa” from Moody’s and “AAAm” or “AAAmG” from S&P (and not on credit watch with negative implications);

(vii) a guaranteed reinvestment agreement from a bank (if treated as a deposit by such bank), insurance company or other corporation or entity organized under the laws of the United States or any state thereof (if treated as debt by such insurance company or other corporation or entity), providing for periodic payments thereunder during each Due Period; provided that each such agreement provides that it is terminable by the purchaser, without premium or penalty, in the event that the rating assigned to such agreement by either Moody’s or S&P is at any time lower than the then current ratings assigned to the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes or the Class E Notes; provided, further, that, at the time of acquisition and throughout the term thereof, the issuer of such agreement has a senior unsecured long-term debt rating, issuer rating or counterparty rating of at least “Aaa” by Moody’s, a short-term debt rating of “P-1” by Moody’s (and not on watch for downgrade), a short-term debt rating of at least “A-1+” by S&P and a long-term debt rating of at least “AAA” by S&P (and not on watch for downgrade); and

(viii) such other obligations or assets for which Rating Confirmation has been received;

and, in each case, with a stated maturity (giving effect to any applicable grace period) that is the earlier of (i) 60 days from acquisition and (ii) the Business Day before the Payment Date next succeeding the date of acquisition.

Eligible Investments on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, or the Synthetic Security Collateral Account must have a stated maturity no later than one Business Day after the date of their purchase.

Eligible Investments may not include:

- (1) any interest-only security, any security purchased at a price in excess of 100% of its par value, any mortgage-backed security or any security whose repayment is subject to substantial non-credit related risk as determined in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer;
- (2) any security whose rating assigned by S&P includes the subscript “r”, “t”, “p”, “pi”, “q” or “f”;
- (3) any floating rate security whose interest rate is inversely or otherwise not proportionately related to an interest rate index or is calculated as other than the sum of an interest rate index plus a spread (which spread may be zero);
- (4) any security that is subject to an exchange or tender offer; or

- (5) any security that has payments subject to foreign or United States withholding tax.

Eligible Investments may include Eligible Investments for which the Trustee or an Affiliate of the Trustee is the issuer or depository institution or provides services. Eligible Investments may not include obligations principally secured by real property.

“Emerging Market Security” means a security or obligation issued by a sovereign or non-sovereign issuer located in a country (excluding the Cayman Islands, Bermuda, the British Virgin Islands, the Netherlands Antilles, and the Channel Islands):

- (i) that is in Latin America, Asia, Africa, Eastern Europe, or the Caribbean; or
- (ii) the long-term foreign currency debt obligations of which are rated below “Aa2” or “Aa2” and on credit watch with negative implications by Moody’s or the foreign currency issuer credit rating of which is below “AA” by S&P.

“Euroclear” means Euroclear Bank S.A./N.V., as operator of the Euroclear system.

“Excel Default Model Input File” means an electronic spreadsheet file in Microsoft excel format to be provided to S&P, which file shall include the balance of Cash and Eligible Investments in each account and the following information (to the extent such information is not confidential) with respect to each Collateral Obligation or Reference Obligation in the case of a Synthetic Security:

- (a) the name and country of domicile of the issuer thereof and the particular obligation or security held by the Issuer,
- (b) the CUSIP or other applicable identification number associated with such Collateral Obligation,
- (c) the par value of such Collateral Obligation,
- (d) the type of obligation or security (including, by way of example, whether such Collateral Obligation is a bond, loan, Cov-lite Loan or asset-backed security), using such abbreviations as may be selected by the Trustee,
- (e) a description of the index or other applicable benchmark upon which the interest payable on such Collateral Obligation is based (including, by way of example, fixed rate, step-up rate, zero coupon and LIBOR),
- (f) the coupon (in the case of a Collateral Obligation which bears interest at a fixed rate) or the spread over the applicable index (in the case of a Collateral Obligation which bears interest at a floating rate),
- (g) the S&P Industry Classification for such Collateral Obligation,
- (h) the stated maturity date of such Collateral Obligation,
- (i) the S&P Rating of such Collateral Obligation or the issuer thereof, as applicable,
- (j) the applicable S&P Recovery Rate, and
- (k) such other information as the Trustee may determine to include in such file.

“Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations” means the Principal Balance of all CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations in excess of 7.5% of the Maximum Amount on the relevant Determination Date.

“Excluded Property” means (i) U.S.$250 (attributable to the issue and allotment of the Issuer Ordinary Shares) and a U.S.$250 transaction fee paid to the Issuer, the bank account in which those amounts are credited in the Cayman Islands and any interest earned on those amounts; (ii) any amounts credited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account and the Preference Share Distribution Account from time to time and (iii) any Margin Stock.

“Extension” means an extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity of the Notes and the Weighted Average Life Test in accordance with the Indenture.

“Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification” means, with respect to each Maturity Extension and each beneficial owner of Notes other than Extension Sale Securities, the written certification by such beneficial owner acceptable to the Issuer to the effect that it held Notes other than Extension Sale Securities on the applicable Extension Effective Date, including the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof in the case of the Notes and wire transfer instructions for the Extension Bonus Payment and any required documentation thereunder.

“Extension Bonus Payment” means, with respect to each Maturity Extension, a single payment to each applicable beneficial owner set forth in “Description of the Securities—Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date” in an amount equal to (1) in the case of the Class A Notes, 0.25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof held by such beneficial owner as of the applicable Extension Effective Date, (2) in the case of the Class B Notes, 0.25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof held by such beneficial owner as of the applicable Extension Effective Date, (3) in the case of the Class C Notes, 0.25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof held by such beneficial owner as of the applicable Extension Effective Date, (4) in the case of the Class D Notes, 0.25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof held by such beneficial owner as of the applicable Extension Effective Date and (5) in the case of the Class E Notes, 0.25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof held by such beneficial owner as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

“Extension Determination Date” means the 8th Business Day prior to each Extension Effective Date.

“Extension Purchase Price” means the purchase price payable by the Extension Qualifying Purchasers for Extension Sale Securities in connection with each Maturity Extension, if any, in an amount equal to (i) in the case of the Notes, the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest (including Deferred Interest, if any) as of the applicable Extension Effective Date (giving effect to any amounts paid to the Holder on such date), and (ii) in the case of the Preference Shares, an amount that, when taken together with all payments and distributions made in respect of such Preference Shares since the Closing Date would cause such Preference Shares to have received (as of the date of purchase thereof) a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 12% (assuming such purchase date was a “Payment Date” under the Indenture); provided, however, that if the applicable Extension Effective Date is on or after the date on which such Holders have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12%, the applicable Extension Purchase Price for such Preference Shares shall be zero.

“Extension Qualifying Purchasers” means the Servicer (or any of its Affiliates acting as principal or agent); provided that in the event that the Servicer elects not to purchase Extension Sale Securities from Holders pursuant to the Extension Conditions set forth in “Description of the Securities—Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date;” “Extension Qualifying Purchasers” shall mean one or more qualifying purchasers (which may include the Initial Purchaser or any of its Affiliates acting as principal or agent) designated by the Servicer; provided, however, none of the Servicer, the Initial Purchaser or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any duty to act as an Extension Qualifying Purchaser.

“Face Amount” means, with respect to any Preference Share, the amount set forth therein as the “face amount” thereof, which “face amount” shall be $1,000 per Preference Share.

“Finance Lease” means a lease agreement or other agreement entered into in connection with and evidencing a Leasing Finance Transaction; provided that such Finance Lease shall have a rating by Moody’s.

“Fixed Rate Excess” means, as of any Measurement Date, a fraction whose numerator is the product of:

- (i) the greater of zero and the excess of the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon for the Measurement Date over the minimum percentage specified to pass the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test; and
- (ii) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Fixed Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date;

and whose denominator is the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date.

In computing the Fixed Rate Excess on any Measurement Date, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon for the Measurement Date will be computed as if the Spread Excess were equal to zero.

“Fixed Rate Obligation” means any Collateral Obligation that bears interest at a fixed rate.

“Floating Rate Notes” means the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes.

“Floating Rate Obligation” means any Collateral Obligation that bears interest based on a floating rate index.

“Form-Approved Synthetic Security” means a Synthetic Security:

(i) (A) the Reference Obligation of which satisfies the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and could be purchased by the Issuer without any required action by the Rating Agencies, without satisfaction of the Rating Condition or which the Rating Agencies have otherwise approved; or

(B) the Reference Obligation of which would satisfy clause (A) above but for the currency in which the Reference Obligation is payable and the Synthetic Security is payable in Dollars, does not provide for physical settlement, and does not expose the Issuer to Dollar currency risk;

(ii) the Synthetic Security Agreement of which conforms (but for the amount and timing of periodic payments, the name of the Reference Obligation, the notional amount, the effective date, the termination date, and other similar necessary changes) to a form that has been expressly identified and approved in writing in connection with a request under the Indenture by Moody’s and S&P;

(iii) a copy of the Synthetic Security Agreement of which has been delivered to the Holders of the Class A Notes by the Trustee at the expense of the Co-Issuers and upon being furnished with a copy of the same by the Servicer; and

(iv) that is with a counterparty with respect to which the Rating Condition has been satisfied by each of Moody’s and S&P prior to the acquisition of any such Form-Approved Synthetic Security, and such approval has not been withdrawn.

Moody’s or S&P may at any time, by notice to the Servicer, withdraw its approval of any such form. A withdrawal of approval shall have no effect on any Synthetic Security acquired, entered into, or committed to before the date on which the Servicer receives the notice of withdrawal. For the avoidance of doubt, no form of Synthetic Security Agreement approved by S&P will be in place as of the Closing Date.

“Funded Amount” means, with respect to any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan at any time, the aggregate principal amount of advances or other extensions of credit made thereunder by the Issuer that are outstanding and have not been repaid at such time.

“Hedge Agreements” means, collectively, all interest rate cap or interest rate swap agreements between the Issuer and any Hedge Counterparty, and any replacement agreement entered into pursuant to the Indenture.

“Hedge Counterparty” means any counterparty, to the extent that when the Issuer enters into any Hedge Agreement with such counterparty, such counterparty satisfies the requirements of the Indenture, including the satisfaction of the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency.

“Hedge Termination Receipt” means any termination payment paid by the Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer upon any early termination of a Hedge Agreement with respect to which the Hedge Counterparty is the sole Defaulting Party or Affected Party (each as defined in the Hedge Agreements).

“HFP” means Highland Financial Partners, L.P. (an Affiliate of the Servicer).

“High-Yield Bond” means any debt security, other than a Loan or a Structured Finance Obligation, that is either Registered or, if not Registered, (i) it is issued by an obligor that is not resident in the United States, (ii) the payments on it are not subject to United States withholding tax and (iii) it is held through a financial institution pursuant to the procedures described in Treasury Regulation section 1.165-12(c)(3).

“Holder” means, of any Note, the person whose name appears on the Indenture Register as the registered holder of the Note; and of any Preference Share, the person whose name appears in the share register of the Issuer related thereto as the registered holder of such Preference Share.

“Incurrence Covenant” means a covenant by the borrower to comply with one or more financial covenants only upon the occurrence of certain actions of the borrower including, but not limited to, a debt issuance, dividend payment, share purchase, merger, acquisition or divestiture.

“Indenture Register” means the register caused to be kept by the Issuer for the purpose of registering Notes and transfers of the Notes as provided in the Indenture.

“Indenture Registrar” means the Bank, in its capacity as Indenture registrar as provided in the Indenture.

“Independent” means, as to any person, any other person (including, in the case of an accountant or lawyer, a firm of accountants or lawyers, and any member of the firm, or an investment bank and any member of the bank) who

(i) does not have and is not committed to acquire any material direct or any material indirect financial interest in the person or in any Affiliate of the person, and

(ii) is not connected with the person as an Officer, employee, promoter, underwriter, voting trustee, partner, director, or person performing similar functions.

“Independent” when used with respect to any accountant may include an accountant who audits the books of the person if in addition to satisfying the criteria above the accountant is independent with respect to the person within the meaning of Rule 101 of the Code of Ethics of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Whenever any Independent person’s opinion or certificate is to be furnished to the Trustee, the opinion or certificate shall state that the signer has read this definition and that the signer is Independent within the meaning of this Indenture.

“Information” means S&P’s “Credit Estimate Information Requirements” dated June 2007 and any other information S&P reasonably requests in order to produce a credit estimate for a Collateral Obligation.

“Initial Consent Period” means the period of 15 Business Days from but excluding the date on which the Trustee mailed notice of a proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to the Indenture to the Holders of Securities.

“Initial Rating” means, the ratings by Moody’s and S&P with respect to each Class of Notes provided in the table in “Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities.”

“Interest Period” means, initially, the period from and including the Closing Date to but excluding the first Payment Date, and, thereafter, each successive period from and including each Payment Date to but excluding the following Payment Date.

“Interest Proceeds” means, with respect to any Due Period, the sum (without duplication) of all amounts received in Cash during the Due Period (or as otherwise specified below) by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral that are:

(i) payments of interest, fees, and commissions (excluding (A) Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal, (B) interest and dividends on Workout Assets, (C) fees and commissions from Defaulted Collateral Obligations, and (D) syndication and other up-front fees and any up-front fixed payments received in connection with entering into a Synthetic Security);

(ii) any portion of the Sale Proceeds of a Collateral Obligation (other than a Defaulted Collateral Obligation) representing Accrued Interest On Sale;

(iii) all payments of principal on, or disposition proceeds from the sale of, Eligible Investments to the extent purchased with Interest Proceeds;

(iv) payments with respect to the Hedge Agreements received on or before the related Payment Date (other than any amount payable thereunder because of any early termination or notional amount reduction), but not any Sale Proceeds from any of these instruments (except to the extent that they were purchased with Interest Proceeds);

(v) all fees received pursuant to any Securities Lending Agreements;

(vi) amounts in the Collection Account designated for distribution as Interest Proceeds pursuant to the Priority of Payments;

(vii) all earnings on amounts in the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account and the Revolving Reserve Account deposited to the Collection Account in accordance with the Indenture;

(viii) amounts in the Expense Reimbursement Account on the Payment Date for the relevant Due Period; and

(ix) any recoveries (including interest) received on a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation in excess of the principal balance of such Non-Performing Collateral Obligation (as of the date the related Collateral Obligation became a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation and excluding from such principal balance any deferred interest on Non-Performing Collateral Obligations that are PIK Securities).

Interest Proceeds shall not include the Excluded Property and Interest Proceeds shall not include earnings on amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account to the extent the earnings are payable by the Issuer to a Securities Lending Counterparty.

Each reference in the definition of “Interest Proceeds” to a Collateral Obligation shall include a Collateral Obligation that has been loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement and Interest Proceeds shall include any amounts referred to in clauses (i) through (iii) above received by the Issuer in respect of the Collateral Obligation indirectly from the related Securities Lending Counterparty pursuant to the Securities Lending Agreement.

With respect to any Payment Date after the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes has been paid in full, or so long as the Class A Notes are no longer Outstanding, if the Coverage Tests are at the same level as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, Interest Proceeds in an amount equal to the Interest Proceeds due and payable on such Payment Date to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date that are distributed to such Holders by way of Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of Cash pursuant to “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” will be treated for all purposes by the Issuer and the Servicer as Principal Proceeds.

“Interest Reserve Amount”: U.S. $2,000,000

“Interim Diversity Factor” means 95%.

“Interim Target Date” means May 27, 2008.

“Interim Target Test” means a test that will be satisfied on the Interim Target Date if (i) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all items of Collateral Obligation which the Issuer has purchased or has entered into binding commitments to purchase is at least $484,500,000, and (ii) the following tests are satisfied: (A) the Diversity Test, (B) the Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test, (C) the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, (D) the Weighted Average Spread Test and (E) the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test.

“Irish Listing Agent” means Dillon Eustace.

“Issuer Charter” means the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Issuer, as may be amended and restated before the Closing Date or in accordance with the Indenture.

“Issuer Order” and “Issuer Request” means a written order or request dated and signed in the name of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, or by the Servicer by an Authorized Officer of the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer.

“Junior Class” means, with respect to a particular Class of Notes, each Class of Notes that is subordinated to that Class.

“Leasing Finance Transaction” means any transaction pursuant to which the obligations of the lessee to pay rent or other amounts on a triple net basis under any lease of (or other arrangement conveying the right to use) real or personal property, or a combination thereof, are required to be classified and accounted for as a capital lease on a balance sheet of such lessee under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America; but only if (a) such lease or other transaction provides for the unconditional obligation of the lessee to pay a stated amount of principal no later than a stated maturity date, together with interest thereon, and the payment of such obligation is not subject to any material non-credit related risk as determined by the Servicer, (b) the obligations of the lessee in respect of such lease or other transaction are fully secured, directly or indirectly, by the property that is the subject of such lease and (c) the interest held by the Issuer in respect of such lease or other transaction is treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

“Loan” means any interest in a fully committed, senior secured, unsecured, or revolving loan (including loans involving credit linked deposits and synthetic letters of credit) that is acquired by assignment or by Participation (including any DIP Loan) that is either:

- (i) Registered; or
- (ii) issued by an obligor that is not resident in the United States:
  - (A) whose payments are not subject to United States withholding tax; and
  - (B) that is held through a financial institution pursuant to the procedures described in Treasury Regulation section 1.165-12(c)(3).

“Long-Dated Collateral Obligation” means any Collateral Obligation with a stated maturity later than the Stated Maturity of the Notes other than a Collateral Obligation with a stated maturity later than the Stated Maturities of the Notes that includes a “put” option to its obligor at a price of at least par payable on or before the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

“Maintenance Covenant” means a covenant by the borrower to comply with one or more financial covenants during each reporting period, whether or not it has taken any specified action.

“Majority” means, with respect to any Class or group of Notes or Preference Shares, the Holders of more than 50% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of that Class or group of Notes or Preference Shares, as the case may be.

“Margin Stock” means “Margin Stock” as defined under Regulation U issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, including any debt security that is by its terms convertible into Margin Stock, but does not include any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation received pursuant to an offer by an issuer of a Defaulted Collateral Obligation.

“Market Value” means, (a) as of any Measurement Date, the market value determined by the Servicer and reported to the Trustee as an amount rather than as a percentage or fraction of par (expressed in Dollars) of any Collateral Obligation (or Eligible Equity Security, as applicable) based upon the following order of priority: (i) the average of the bid-side market prices obtained by the Servicer from three Independent broker dealers active in the trading of such obligations which are also Independent from the Servicer or (ii) if the foregoing set of prices were not obtained, the lower of the bid-side market prices obtained by the Servicer from two Independent broker dealers active in the trading of such obligations which are also Independent from the Servicer or (iii) if the foregoing set of prices were not obtained, the bid-side market price obtained by the Servicer from one Independent broker dealer active in the trading of such obligations which is also Independent from the Servicer; provided the Servicer remains a registered investment advisor, or (iv) if the foregoing sets of prices were not obtained, the average of the bid-side prices for the purchase of the Collateral Obligation (or Eligible Equity Security, as applicable) determined by an Approved Pricing Service (Independent from the Servicer) that derives valuations by polling broker dealers (Independent from the Servicer).

(b) If a Market Value of any Collateral Obligation cannot be so determined in accordance with the procedures set out in the previous paragraph for a period of 30 consecutive days then such Collateral Obligation shall be deemed to have a Market Value of zero; provided, that during such 30 day period, such Collateral Obligation shall be deemed to have a Market Value equal to (a) the higher of (i) the S&P Recovery Rate for such Collateral Obligation and the then current S&P Rating of the most senior Class of Notes then Outstanding and (ii) 70% of the Principal Balance of such Collateral Obligation or (b) if the Servicer has determined in its commercially reasonable judgment that the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation is lower than the amount determined pursuant to clause (a), such amount to be determined by the Servicer in its commercially reasonable judgment; provided, further, that the maximum amount of Collateral Obligations having a Market Value assigned pursuant to the immediately preceding proviso shall be limited to 5.0% of the Maximum Amount (and any amount in excess of 5.0% of the Maximum Amount (which amount shall be composed of Collateral Obligations with the lowest Market Value Percentage) shall be deemed to have a Market Value of zero). For the avoidance of doubt, the procedures set out in this paragraph shall not apply to determinations of Market Value of any Eligible Equity Securities or Current-Pay Obligations.

The Servicer is under no obligation to determine the Market Value of the Collateral Obligations other than as set forth in the Servicing Agreement or the Indenture or to comply with any of its duties as set forth in the Servicing Agreement or in the Indenture.

“Market Value Determination Date” means, with respect to any distribution of Eligible Equity Securities, one Business Day prior to the date of the notice distributed by the Issuer to the Holders of the Preference Shares in connection with such distribution.

“Market Value Percentage” means, for any Collateral Obligation, the ratio obtained by dividing:

- (i) the Market Value of the Collateral Obligation; by
- (ii) the Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligation.

“Maximum Amount” means an amount equal to:

- (i) on any Measurement Date during the Ramp-Up Period, U.S.$510,000,000; and
- (ii) on any Measurement Date after the Ramp-Up Completion Date:
  - (A) the aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations plus the aggregate outstanding principal amount of any Defaulted Collateral Obligations; plus
  - (B) Cash representing Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account; plus
  - (C) Eligible Investments (other than Cash) purchased by the Issuer with Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account.

“Maximum Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor” means, as of any Measurement Date, a rate equal to the sum of (i) the number set forth in the column entitled “Maximum Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor” in the Ratings Matrix based upon the applicable “row/column combination” chosen by the Servicer (or the interpolation between two adjacent rows and/or two adjacent columns, as applicable) plus (ii) the Recovery Rate Modifier.

“Measurement Date” means any date:

- (i) on which the Issuer commits to acquire or dispose of any Collateral Obligation;
- (ii) on which a Collateral Obligation becomes a Defaulted Collateral Obligation;
- (iii) that is a Determination Date;
- (iv) that is the Ramp-Up Completion Date;
- (v) that is the Interim Target Date;
- (vi) that is the date as of which the information in a Monthly Report is calculated pursuant to the Indenture; and,

with respect to any distribution of Eligible Equity Securities only,

- (vii) that is the Market Value Determination Date.

“Minimum Diversity Score” means, as of any Measurement Date, a score equal to the number set forth in the column entitled “Minimum Diversity Score” in the Ratings Matrix based upon the applicable “row/column combination” chosen by the Servicer (or the interpolating between two adjacent rows and/or two adjacent columns, as applicable).

“Minimum Weighted Average Spread” means, as of any Measurement Date, the spread equal to the percentage set forth in the row entitled “Minimum Weighted Average Spread” in the Ratings Matrix based upon the applicable “row/column combination” chosen by the Servicer (or the interpolating between two adjacent rows and/or two adjacent columns, as applicable).

“Monthly Report” means a monthly report compiled and provided by the Issuer.

“Moody’s Default Probability Rating” means with respect to any Collateral Obligation, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (i) with respect to a Moody’s Senior Secured Loan:
  - (A) if the Loan’s obligor has a corporate family rating from Moody’s, such corporate family rating;
  - (B) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody’s Obligation Rating of such Loan;
  - (C) if the preceding clauses do not apply, the rating that is one subcategory above the Moody’s Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating;
- (ii) with respect to a Moody’s Non Senior Secured Loan or a High-Yield Bond, the Moody’s Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating of such Collateral Obligation;
- (iii) with respect to a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the rating that is one rating subcategory below the Assigned Moody’s Rating thereof;
- (iv) with respect to a Structured Finance Obligation, the Assigned Moody’s Rating thereof or, if the obligation does not have an Assigned Moody’s Rating but has a rating by S&P, then the Moody’s Default Probability Rating shall be:
  - (x) one rating subcategory below the Moody’s equivalent of such S&P rating if it is “BBB–” or higher; or
  - (y) two rating subcategories below the Moody’s equivalent of such S&P rating if it is “BB+” or lower; and
  - (v) with respect to a Synthetic Security, the Assigned Moody’s Rating thereof.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Moody's rating or ratings used to determine the Moody's Default Probability Rating are on watch for downgrade or upgrade by Moody's, such rating or ratings will be adjusted down (if on watch for downgrade) (i) with respect to any Collateral Obligation other than Structured Finance Obligations, one subcategory and (ii) with respect to any Structured Finance Obligation, two subcategories or adjusted up (if on watch for upgrade) (i) with respect to any Collateral Obligation other than Structured Finance Obligations, one subcategory and (ii) with respect to any Structured Finance Obligation, two subcategories. For purposes of any calculation under the Indenture, if a Moody's Default Probability Rating is withdrawn by Moody's with respect to a Collateral Obligation and if the Issuer, or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, has applied for a rating estimate from Moody's with respect to such Collateral Obligation, the Issuer will continue using the latest Moody's Default Probability Rating available immediately prior to such withdrawal pending receipt of such rating estimate from Moody's; provided, however, that if a Moody's Default Probability Rating is withdrawn and neither the Issuer, nor the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, have applied for a rating estimate, the provisions of Schedule 7 to the Indenture with respect to Collateral Obligations whose ratings have been withdrawn will be followed.

"Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating" means, with respect to any Collateral Obligation that is a Loan or bond and the obligor thereof, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (i) if the obligor has a senior unsecured obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating;
- (ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's "Issuer Rating" (as defined by Moody's) for the obligor;
- (iii) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a subordinated obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating; then
  - (A) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is at least "B3" (and, if rated "B3", not on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be the rating which is one rating subcategory higher than such Assigned Moody's Rating; or
  - (B) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is less than "B3" (or rated "B3" and on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be such Assigned Moody's Rating;
- (iv) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior secured obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating; then:
  - (A) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is at least "Caa3" (and, if rated "Caa3", not on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be the rating which is one subcategory below such Assigned Moody's Rating; or
  - (B) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is less than "Caa3" (or rated "Caa3" and on watch for downgrade), then the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be "C";
- (v) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but such obligor has a corporate family rating from Moody's, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be one rating subcategory below such corporate family rating;
- (vi) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior unsecured obligation (other than a bank loan) with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), then the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be:
  - (A) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;

- (B) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower; or
- (C) "B3" until the Issuer or the Servicer obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (a) the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating no lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Servicer on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or High-Yield Bond, (b) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (vi)(C), or clauses (vii)(C) or (viii)(C) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Amount, and (c) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(vii) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a subordinated obligation (other than a bank loan) with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), the Assigned Moody's Rating shall be deemed to be:

- (A) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;
- (B) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower, and the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be determined pursuant to clause (iii) above; or
- (C) "B3" until the Issuer or the Servicer obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (a) the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating not lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Servicer on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or High-Yield Bond, (b) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (vii)(C), or clauses (vi)(C) or (viii)(C) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Amount, and (c) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(viii) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior secured obligation with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), the Assigned Moody's Rating shall be deemed to be:

- (A) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;
- (B) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower, and the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be determined pursuant to clause (iv) above; or
- (C) "B3" until the Issuer or the Servicer obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (a) the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating not lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Servicer on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within two Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or High-Yield Bond, (b) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (viii)(C), or clause (vi)(C) or (vii)(C) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Amount, and (c) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(ix) if the preceding clauses do not apply and each of the following clauses (A) through (H) do apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Caa1":

- (A) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings;
- (B) no debt securities or obligations of the obligor are in default;
- (C) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates has defaulted on any debt during the preceding two years;
- (D) the obligor has been in existence for the preceding five years;
- (E) the obligor is current on any cumulative dividends;
- (F) the fixed-charge ratio for the obligor exceeds 125% for each of the preceding two fiscal years and for the most recent quarter;
- (G) the obligor had a net profit before tax in the past fiscal year and the most recent quarter; and
- (H) the annual financial statements of such obligor are unqualified and certified by a firm of Independent accountants of international reputation, and quarterly statements are unaudited but signed by a corporate officer;

(x) if the preceding clauses do not apply but each of the following clauses (A) and (B) do apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Caa3":

- (A) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings; and
- (B) no debt security or obligation of such obligor has been in default during the past two years; and

(xi) if the preceding clauses do not apply and a debt security or obligation of the obligor has been in default during the past two years, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Ca."

Notwithstanding the foregoing, not more than 10% of the Maximum Amount may consist of Relevant Obligations given a Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating based on a rating given by S&P as provided in clauses (vi), (vii) and (viii) above.

"Moody's Group I Country" means any of the following countries: Australia, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and any country subsequently determined by Moody's to be a Moody's Group I Country.

"Moody's Group II Country" means any of the following countries: Germany, Ireland, Sweden, Switzerland and any country subsequently determined by Moody's to be a Moody's Group II Country.

"Moody's Group III Country" means any of the following countries: Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Norway, Spain and any country subsequently determined by Moody's to be a Moody's Group III Country.

"Moody's Minimum Average Recovery Rate" means, as of any Measurement Date, a rate equal to the lesser of (x) 60% and (y) the number obtained by (i) summing the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation by its respective Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate, (ii) dividing the sum determined pursuant to clause (i) above by the sum of the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations and (iii) rounding up to the first decimal place.

"Moody's Non Senior Secured Loan" means any Loan that is not a Moody's Senior Secured Loan.

“Moody’s Obligation Rating” means, with respect to any Collateral Obligation as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (i) With respect to a Moody’s Senior Secured Loan:
  - (A) if it has an Assigned Moody’s Rating, such Assigned Moody’s Rating; or
  - (B) if the preceding clause does not apply, the rating that is one rating subcategory above the Moody’s Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating; and
- (ii) With respect to a Moody’s Non Senior Secured Loan or a High-Yield Bond:
  - (A) if it has an Assigned Moody’s Rating, such Assigned Moody’s Rating; or
  - (B) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody’s Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating; and
- (iii) With respect to a Synthetic Security or a DIP Loan, the Assigned Moody’s Rating thereof.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Moody’s rating or ratings used to determine the Moody’s Default Probability Rating are on watch for downgrade or upgrade by Moody’s, such rating or ratings will be adjusted down one subcategory (if on watch for downgrade) or up one subcategory (if on watch for upgrade).

“Moody’s Priority Category” means each type of Collateral Obligation specified in the definition of “Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate Matrix” as a “Moody’s Priority Category.”

“Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate” means for any Collateral Obligation, the percentage specified in the definition of “Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate Matrix” opposite the Moody’s Priority Category of the Collateral Obligation.

“Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate Matrix” means the table below:

Moody’s Priority Category	Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate
Synthetic Securities .....	In the case of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(i) a Form-Approved Synthetic Security, the “Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate” given by Moody’s to the Form-Approved Synthetic Security at the time of approval of the Form-Approved Synthetic Security by Moody’s; and</li> <li>(ii) any other Synthetic Security, the “Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate” given by Moody’s to the Synthetic Security at the time of acquisition of the Synthetic Security.</li> </ul>
Structured Finance Obligations .....	The Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate determined in accordance with the Moody’s Structured Finance Obligation Recovery Rates set forth in Schedule 5 to the Indenture by reference to the type of asset and its then Moody’s Rating (or, with respect to assets to which that schedule does not apply, on a case-by-case basis in connection with the grant of the relevant Collateral Obligation).
unsecured DIP Loans and any Collateral Obligations not covered above or below .....	As determined by Moody’s on a case-by-case basis.

For High-Yield Bonds, Moody's Senior Secured Loans and Moody's Non Senior Secured Loans, the relevant Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate is the rate determined pursuant to the table below based on the number of rating subcategories difference between the High-Yield Bond's or Loan's Moody's Obligation Rating and its Moody's Default Probability Rating (for purposes of clarification, if the Moody's Obligation Rating is higher than the Moody's Default Probability Rating, the rating subcategories difference will be positive and if it is lower, negative):

Number of Moody's Rating Subcategories Difference Between the Moody's Obligation Rating and the Moody's Default Probability Rating	Moody's Senior Secured Loans	Moody's Non Senior Secured Loans	High-Yield Bonds
+2 or more	60.0%	45.0%	40.0%
+1	50.0%	42.5%	35.0%
0	45.0%	40.0%	30.0%
-1	40.0%	30.0%	15.0%
-2	30.0%	15.0%	10.0%
-3 or less	20.0%	10.0%	2.0%

If no Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate has been specifically assigned with respect to a Loan pursuant to the above table, and the Loan is a secured DIP Loan, the relevant Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate is 50.0%.

"Moody's Rating" means the Moody's Default Probability Rating; provided that, with respect to the Collateral Obligations generally, if at any time Moody's or any successor to it ceases to provide rating services, references to rating categories of Moody's in the Indenture shall be deemed instead to be references to the equivalent categories of any other nationally recognized investment rating agency selected by the Servicer, as of the most recent date on which such other rating agency and Moody's published ratings for the type of security in respect of which such alternative rating agency is used. If no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's, then the Servicer may apply to Moody's for a Moody's credit rating estimate, which will be its Moody's Rating; provided that, on or prior to each one-year anniversary of the acquisition of any such Collateral Obligation, the Issuer shall submit to Moody's a request for a Moody's credit rating estimate for such Collateral Obligation, which shall be its Moody's Rating, together with all information reasonably required by Moody's to perform such estimate.

"Moody's Rating Factor" means the number in the table below opposite the rating of the Collateral Obligation (excluding Synthetic Securities where an Assigned Moody's Rating is not available).

Moody's Rating	Moody's Rating Factor	Moody's Rating	Moody's Rating Factor
Aaa	1	Ba1	940
Aa1	10	Ba2	1,350
Aa2	20	Ba3	1,766
Aa3	40	B1	2,220
A1	70	B2	2,720
A2	120	B3	3,490
A3	180	Caa1	4,770
Baa1	260	Caa2	6,500
Baa2	360	Caa3	8,070
Baa3	610	Ca or lower	10,000

The Moody's Rating Factor for Collateral Obligations that are Synthetic Securities shall be determined by Moody's and obtained by the Issuer or the Servicer on a case-by-case basis, unless (1) there is an Assigned Moody's Rating available for such Collateral Obligation that is a Synthetic Security, in which case such Assigned Moody's Rating shall be used to compute the Moody's Rating Factor for such Collateral Obligation that is a Synthetic Security, or (2) such Collateral Obligation is a Form-Approved Synthetic Security, in which case the Moody's Rating Factor given to such Collateral Obligation at the time of approval of the Form-Approved Synthetic Security shall be used to compute the Moody's Rating Factor for such Collateral Obligation that is a Synthetic Security.

The Moody's Rating Factor for any Collateral Obligation that is a Structured Finance Obligation shall be equal to:  $\frac{Ax55\%}{1-B}$

where: "A" means the number determined with respect to such Collateral Obligation pursuant to the table above; and

"B" means the Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate with respect to such Collateral Obligation.

"Moody's Senior Secured Loan" means:

- (i) a Loan that:
  - (A) is not (and cannot by its terms become) subordinate in right of payment to any other obligation of the obligor of the Loan;
  - (B) is secured by a valid first priority perfected security interest or lien in, to or on specified collateral securing the obligor's obligations under the Loan; and
  - (C) the value of the collateral securing the Loan together with other attributes of the obligor (including, without limitation, its general financial condition, ability to generate cash flow available for debt service and other demands for that cash flow) is adequate (in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer) to repay the Loan in accordance with its terms and to repay all other loans of equal seniority secured by a first lien or security interest in the same collateral; or
- (ii) a Loan that:
  - (A) is not (and cannot by its terms become) subordinate in right of payment to any other obligation of the obligor of the Loan, other than, with respect to a Loan described in clause (i) above, with respect to the liquidation of such obligor or the collateral for such loan;
  - (B) is secured by a valid second priority perfected security interest or lien in, to or on specified collateral securing the obligor's obligations under the Loan;
  - (C) the value of the collateral securing the Loan together with other attributes of the obligor (including, without limitation, its general financial condition, ability to generate cash flow available for debt service and other demands for that cash flow) is adequate (in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer) to repay the Loan in accordance with its terms and to repay all other loans of equal or higher seniority secured by a first or second lien or security interest in the same collateral; and
  - (D) has been assigned a Moody's rating equal to or higher than Moody's corporate family rating for such obligor; and
- (iii) the Loan is not: (A) a DIP Loan, (B) a Loan for which the security interest or lien (or the validity or effectiveness thereof) in substantially all of its collateral attaches, becomes effective, or otherwise "springs" into existence after the origination thereof, or (C) a type of loan that Moody's has identified as having unusual terms and with respect to which its Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate has been or is to be determined on a case-by-case basis.

"Non-Call Period" means, with respect to the Class A Notes, the period from the Closing Date to but not including the Payment Date in May 2012, and with respect to the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes, the period from the Closing Date to but not including the Payment Date in May 2009.

"Non-Consenting Holder" means with respect to any supplemental indenture pursuant to the Indenture that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities, any Holder or, in the case of Securities represented by Global Notes, any beneficial owner, that either (i) has delivered to the Trustee a written notice that it will not consent to such supplemental indenture or (ii) had not consented to such supplemental indenture within the applicable Initial Consent Period.

"Non-Performing Collateral Obligation" means any Defaulted Collateral Obligation and any PIK Security as to which its issuer or obligor has previously deferred or capitalized any interest due on it and all the interest so deferred or capitalized has not subsequently been paid in full in cash by:

(i) if the PIK Security has a Moody's Rating of "Baa3" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or above, the earlier of its second payment date or one year, in each case, following the date of the initial deferral or capitalization of interest due on it; or

(ii) if the PIK Security has a Moody's Rating of "Baa3" and on credit watch with negative implications or below "Baa3", the earlier of its first payment date or six months, in each case, following the date of the initial deferral or capitalization of interest due on it.

"Non-Permitted ERISA Holder" means the beneficial owner of an interest in a Class E Note, a Class I Preference Share or a Class II Preference Share who has made a Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person representation that is subsequently shown to be false or misleading or whose beneficial ownership otherwise causes a violation of the 25% Limitation.

"Note Payment Sequence" means the application of funds in the following order:

- (1) to the Class A Notes until the Class A Notes have been fully redeemed;
- (2) to the Class B Notes until the Class B Notes have been fully redeemed;
- (3) to the Class C Notes until the Class C Notes have been fully redeemed;
- (4) to the Class D Notes until the Class D Notes have been fully redeemed; and
- (5) to the Class E Notes until the Class E Notes have been fully redeemed.

"Noteholder" means a Holder of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes or the Class E Notes.

"Notes" means the Class the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes.

“Outstanding” means, with respect to:

(i) the Notes or any specified Class, as of any date of determination, all of the Notes or all of the Notes of the specified Class, as the case may be, theretofore authenticated and delivered under the Indenture, except with respect to Notes:

- (A) Notes canceled by the Indenture Registrar or delivered to the Indenture Registrar for cancellation;
- (B) Notes for whose payment or redemption funds in the necessary amount have been theretofore irrevocably deposited with the Trustee or any paying agent in trust for their Holders pursuant to the Indenture and if the Notes are to be redeemed, notice of redemption has been duly given pursuant to the Indenture;
- (C) Notes in exchange for or in lieu of which other Notes have been authenticated and delivered pursuant to the Indenture; and
- (D) Notes alleged to have been destroyed, lost, or stolen for which replacement Notes have been issued as provided in the Indenture, unless proof satisfactory to the Trustee is presented that any such Notes are held by a protected purchaser; and

(ii) the Preference Shares, as of any date of determination, all of the Preference Shares theretofore issued under the Preference Share Documents and listed in the share register of the Issuer as outstanding;

provided that, in determining whether the Holders of the requisite Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities have given any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver under the Indenture, the Securities owned or beneficially owned by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, any Affiliate of either of them and, with respect to any matter affecting its status as Servicer or appointment of a replacement Servicer or relating to an acceleration of any Class of Notes if the effect of the Servicer’s action or inaction as a Holder of Securities would effectively prevent acceleration, the Servicer, its Affiliates and any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority (other than, with respect to Notes or Class II Preference Shares, HFP or any of its subsidiaries; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of Notes or Class II Preference Shares owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote shall not be excluded only if such vote is determined by a vote of the majority of the “independent directors” (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiaries and certified in writing to the Trustee or the Preference Shares Paying Agent, as applicable, by any of the “independent directors” of HFP) of HFP or such subsidiaries) shall be disregarded and not be Outstanding, except that, in determining whether the Trustee shall be protected in relying on any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver, only Securities that a Trust Officer of the Trustee (or with respect to the Preference Shares, only Preference Shares that an Authorized Officer of the Preference Shares Paying Agent) has actual knowledge to be so owned or beneficially owned shall be so disregarded. Securities so owned or beneficially owned that have been pledged in good faith may be regarded as Outstanding if the pledgee establishes to the satisfaction of the Trustee or the Preference Shares Paying Agent, as applicable, the pledgee’s right so to act with respect to the Securities and that the pledgee is independent from the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent.

“Participating Institution” means an institution that creates a participation interest and that has a long-term senior unsecured rating by Moody’s of at least “A3” (and if so rated by Moody’s such rating is not on watch for possible downgrade) and a short-term credit rating by S&P of at least “A-1” or, if no short-term rating exists, a long-term credit rating by S&P of at least “A+”.

“Participation” means a Loan acquired as a participation interest created by a Participating Institution.

“Permitted Offer” means a tender offer, voluntary redemption, exchange offer, conversion or other similar action pursuant to which the offeror offers to acquire a debt obligation (including a Collateral Obligation) in exchange solely for cash in an amount equal to or greater than the full face amount of the debt obligation plus any accrued and unpaid interest and as to which the Servicer has determined in its commercially reasonable judgment that the offeror has sufficient access to financing to consummate the tender offer, voluntary redemption, exchange offer, conversion or other similar action.

“Person” is an individual, corporation (including a business trust), partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, association, joint stock company, trust (including any beneficiary thereof), unincorporated association or government or any agency or political subdivision thereof.

“PIK Security” means any loan or debt obligation on which any portion of the interest accrued for a specified period of time or until the maturity thereof is, or at the option of the obligor may be, added to the principal balance of such loan or debt obligation or otherwise deferred rather than being paid in cash; provided that such loan or debt obligation shall not be a PIK Security if the portion, if any, of such interest required pursuant to the terms of the related Underlying Instruments to be paid in Cash would result in the outstanding principal amount of such loan or debt obligation having an effective rate of PIK Cash-Pay Interest at least equal to (i) if such loan or debt obligation is a fixed rate loan or debt obligation, 4% per annum, or (ii) if such loan or debt obligation is a floating rate loan or debt obligation, LIBOR.

“Pledged Obligations” means, as of any date of determination, the Collateral Obligations, the Workout Assets, the Eligible Investments, and any other securities or obligations that have been granted to the Trustee that form part of the Collateral.

“Portfolio Improvement Exchange” means, the disposition, during the Replacement Period, of a Collateral Obligation and corresponding acquisition of one or more Collateral Obligations which in the aggregate will result in (i) the Collateral Quality Tests, the Interest Coverage Test, the Overcollateralization Tests and the Concentration Limitations herein being satisfied (or bring the total portfolio of Collateral Obligations closer to compliance with any such test or limitation) or if one or more of such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Test, Overcollateralization Test or Concentration Limitations are not satisfied, the degree of compliance therewith would be improved and (ii) improving, on a net basis, the quality of the total portfolio of Collateral Obligations as measured by such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Test, Overcollateralization Test and Concentration Limitations and (iii) in the case of each of clause (i) and (ii), any other Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests or Concentration Limitations not being violated or the likelihood of such violation in the future not being significantly increased.

“Preference Share Internal Rate of Return” means, with respect to any Payment Date, the internal rate of return (computed using the “XIRR” function in Microsoft® Excel 2002 or an equivalent function in another software package), stated on a per annum basis, for the following cash flows, assuming all Preference Shares are purchased on the Closing Date at their Face Amount:

- (i) each distribution of Interest Proceeds made to the Holders of the Preference Shares (excluding any Class II Preference Share Special Payment distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares) on any prior Payment Date and, to the extent necessary to reach the applicable Preference Share Internal Rate of Return, the current Payment Date; and
- (ii) each distribution of Principal Proceeds made to the Holders of the Preference Shares (excluding any Class II Preference Share Special Payment distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares) on any prior Payment Date and, to the extent necessary to reach the applicable Preference Share Internal Rate of Return, the current Payment Date.

“Preference Shares Distribution Account” means a separate segregated non-interest bearing account established by the Preference Shares Paying Agent pursuant to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement into which the Preference Shares Paying Agent will deposit all amounts received from the Issuer and payable to the Holders of the Preference Shares under the Priority of Payments.

“Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement” means the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement dated as of March 27, 2008, between the Issuer and State Street Bank and Trust Company, as note registrar, transfer agent and Preference Shares Paying Agent, relating to the Preference Shares.

“Preference Shares Paying Agent” means State Street Bank and Trust Company in its capacity as Preference Shares Paying Agent under the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, unless a successor Person shall have become the preference shares paying agent pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, and thereafter “Preference Shares Paying Agent” shall mean such successor person.

“Principal Balance” means, with respect to:

- (i) any Pledged Obligation other than those specifically covered in this definition, the outstanding principal amount of the Pledged Obligation as of the relevant Measurement Date;
- (ii) a Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in the Synthetic Security;
- (iii) any Pledged Obligation in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest, zero, except as otherwise expressly specified in the Indenture;
- (iv) any Defaulted Collateral Obligation, except as otherwise provided, zero;
- (v) any Collateral Obligation that has been loaned, its Principal Balance shall be reduced by the excess of the amount of collateral required over the actual Market Value of the collateral;
- (vi) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its Principal Balance shall include any unfunded amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer’s obligation to fund the unfunded amount), except as otherwise expressly specified in the Indenture;
- (vii) any PIK Security, its Principal Balance shall not include any principal amount of the PIK Security representing previously deferred or capitalized interest; and
- (viii) any Qualified Equity Security and any obligation or security that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation, zero.

“Principal Proceeds” means with respect to any Due Period, all amounts received in Cash during the Due Period by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral that are not Interest Proceeds.

Principal Proceeds shall include any funds transferred from the Closing Date Expense Account into the Collection Account pursuant to the Indenture.

Principal Proceeds do not include the Excluded Property or earnings on amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account to the extent the earnings are payable by the Issuer to a Securities Lending Counterparty.

At any time when an “event of default” under a Securities Lending Agreement has occurred and is continuing, any payments received by the Issuer from the related Securities Lending Collateral shall be Principal Proceeds.

“Priority Class” means, with respect to any specified Class of Notes, each Class of Notes that ranks senior to that Class.

“Proceeding” means any suit in equity, action at law, or other judicial or administrative proceeding.

“Proposed Portfolio” means, as of any Measurement Date, the portfolio (measured by Aggregate Principal Balance) of Collateral Obligations and Principal Proceeds held as cash on deposit in the Collection Account and other Eligible Investments purchased with Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account resulting from the sale, maturity, or other disposition of a Collateral Obligation or a proposed purchase of a Collateral Obligation, as the case may be.

“Purchase Agreement” means a securities purchase agreement dated as of March 27, 2008 among the Co-Issuers and the Initial Purchaser relating to the purchase of the Senior Notes, as modified, amended and supplemented and in effect from time to time.

“Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance” means, for any Collateral Obligation other than Deep Discount Obligations, its Principal Balance; and for any Deep Discount Obligation its Purchase Price; provided, however, that if any Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations exist, the Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance for the Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations shall be equal to the weighted average Market Value of all CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, expressed as a percentage of their outstanding principal balances.

“Purchase Price” means, with respect to the purchase of any Collateral Obligation (other than any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation), the net purchase price paid by the Issuer for the Collateral Obligation. The net purchase price is determined by subtracting from the purchase price the amount of any Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal and any syndication and other upfront fees paid to the Issuer and by adding the amount of any related transaction costs (including assignment fees) paid by the Issuer to the seller of the Collateral Obligation or its agent.

“Purchase Price Amount” means, respect to any Collateral Obligation on any date of determination, the product of (i) the Purchase Price (stated as a percentage) thereof and (ii) the Principal Balance thereof on such date.

“Qualified Equity Security” means any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation that is stock or evidence of an interest in or a right to buy stock, or any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation but whose acquisition otherwise is a transaction in stocks or securities within the meaning of Section 864(b)(2)(A)(ii) of the Code and the regulations under the Code. Qualified Equity Securities do not include any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation and that will cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in or having income from a United States trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes by virtue of its ownership or disposition of the obligation (without regard to the Issuer’s other activities).

“Ramp-Up Period” means the period from and including the Closing Date to and including the Ramp-Up Completion Date.

“Rating Agency” means, each of Moody’s and S&P or, with respect to Pledged Obligations generally, if at any time Moody’s or S&P ceases to provide rating services with respect to high yield debt securities, any other nationally recognized statistical rating organization selected by the Issuer and reasonably satisfactory to a Majority of each Class of Notes. If at any time Moody’s ceases to be a Rating Agency, references to rating categories of Moody’s in the Indenture shall instead be references to the equivalent categories of the replacement rating agency as of the most recent date on which the replacement rating agency and Moody’s published ratings for the type of security in respect of which the replacement rating agency is used. If at any time S&P ceases to be a Rating Agency, references to rating categories of S&P in the Indenture shall instead be references to the equivalent categories of the replacement rating agency as of the most recent date on which the replacement rating agency and S&P published ratings for the type of security in respect of which the replacement rating agency is used.

“Rating Condition” means, with respect to any Rating Agency and any action taken or to be taken under the Indenture, a condition that is satisfied when the Rating Agency has confirmed to the Servicer (as agent for the Issuer) in writing that no withdrawal, reduction, suspension, or other adverse action with respect to any then current rating by it (including any private or confidential rating) of any Class of Notes will occur as a result of the action. The Rating Condition with respect to any Rating Agency shall be satisfied for all purposes of the Indenture at any time when no Outstanding Notes are rated by it.

“Rating Confirmation” means confirmation in writing from each Rating Agency that it has not reduced, suspended, or withdrawn the Initial Rating assigned by it to any Class of Notes; provided, however, that in the case of Refinancing Notes, both a Moody’s rating and an S&P rating will be obtained for such Refinancing Notes and a Rating Confirmation with respect to such Refinancing Notes shall mean (i) with respect to S&P, confirmation in writing from S&P that the S&P rating of each Class of Refinancing Notes will be no lower than the rating on each corresponding Class of Notes subject to such Refinancing and (ii) with respect to Moody’s, that the Moody’s rating of each Class of Refinancing Notes will be no lower than the rating on each corresponding Class of Notes subject to such Refinancing; provided further that if the terms of such Refinancing Notes are the same as the terms of the corresponding Class of Notes subject to Refinancing (other than with respect to the coupon thereof), it is expected that the cost of obtaining such rating from Moody’s shall be no more than the cost of obtaining a Rating Confirmation.

“Ratings Matrix” means the “row/column combination” of the table below selected by the Servicer on the Closing Date to apply initially for purposes of the Diversity Test, the Weighted Average Spread Test and the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test. Thereafter, on notice to the Trustee, the Servicer may select a different row of the Ratings Matrix to apply, or may interpolate between two adjacent rows and/or two adjacent columns, as applicable, on a straight-line basis and round the results to two decimal points.

Maximum Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor

“Recovery Rate Modifier” means as of any Measurement Date, the product of:

(i) (a) the Moody's Minimum Average Recovery Rate minus the minimum percentage specified to pass the Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test (but not less than zero) multiplied by (b) 100; and

(ii) 55.

“Redemption Date” means any Payment Date specified for an Optional Redemption or the redemption of a Class of Notes in connection with a Refinancing under “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption.”

“Redemption Price” means, with respect to any Note and any Optional Redemption or Refinancing, an amount equal to:

- (i) the outstanding principal amount of the Note being redeemed; plus
- (ii) accrued interest on the Note (including any Defaulted Interest and interest on Defaulted Interest); plus
- (iii) in the case of any Deferred Interest Note, the applicable Deferred Interest on the Note; plus
- (iv) any unpaid Extension Bonus Payment in respect of the Note.

With respect to any Preference Share and any Optional Redemption, “Redemption Price” means (i) at the request of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the pro rata portion for such Preference Share of the entire remaining amount of available funds after all prior applications pursuant to the Priority of Payments or (ii) as specified by the unanimous written request of the Holders of the Preference Shares, in each case as specified in “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares.”

“Reference Obligation” means an obligation that would otherwise satisfy the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and on which a Synthetic Security is based; provided that no Reference Obligation shall be a Synthetic Security.

“Refinancing Price” means, with respect to any Class of Notes that is subject to a Refinancing, an amount equal to the Redemption Price therefor.

“Refinancing Proceeds” means, the proceeds from any refinancing permitted under the Indenture.

“Registered” means, with respect to a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment, means that it is issued after July 18, 1984 and is in registered form within the meaning of Section 881(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

“Regulation D” means Regulation D under the Securities Act.

“Relevant Obligation” means, for a Collateral Obligation that is a Synthetic Security, the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security and otherwise the Collateral Obligation.

“Required Redemption Percentage” means, with respect to (a) any Optional Redemption resulting from a Tax Event, the Holders of at least 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of any Affected Class or at least 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares and (b) any other Optional Redemption, a Majority of the Preference Shares.

“Revolving Loan” means a Loan or any Synthetic Security with a Reference Obligation (in each case excluding any Delayed Drawdown Loan) that requires the Issuer to make future advances to (or for the account of) the borrower under its underlying instruments (including any letter of credit for which the Issuer is required to reimburse the issuing bank for under it). A Loan or Synthetic Security shall only be considered to be a Revolving Loan for so long as its Commitment Amount is greater than zero.

“S&P CDO Monitor” means a dynamic, analytical computer model developed by S&P (and as may be modified by S&P from time to time) and provided to the Servicer and the Collateral Administrator to be used to calculate the default frequency in terms of the amount of debt assumed to default as a percentage of the original principal amount of the Collateral Obligations consistent with a specified benchmark rating level based on certain assumptions and S&P’s proprietary corporate default studies. For the purpose (and only for the purpose) of applying the S&P CDO Monitor to a portfolio of obligations, for each obligation in the portfolio, the rating of the obligation shall be its S&P Rating.

“S&P CRR” means, with respect to any Collateral Obligation, a corporate recovery rate assigned by S&P to such Collateral Obligation.

“S&P Industry Classification” means the S&P Industry Classifications in Schedule 3 of the Indenture as modified, amended, and supplemented from time to time by S&P.

“S&P Rating” means, with respect to any Collateral Obligation, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following methodology:

- (i) If there is an issuer credit rating of the borrower of the Collateral Obligation (the “Borrower”), or the guarantor who unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the Collateral Obligation (the “Guarantor”) by S&P, the most current issuer credit rating for such Borrower or Guarantor (provided that with respect to any private or confidential rating, a consent has been granted by such Borrower or Guarantor and a copy of such consent shall be provided to S&P indicating that the issuer can rely on such private or confidential rating);
- (ii) (a) if there is not an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation will be one subcategory below such rating; (b) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior unsecured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be such rating; and (c) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a subordinated obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be two subcategories above such rating if such rating is “BBB-” or higher and will be one subcategory above such rating if such rating is “BB+” or lower (provided that with respect to any private or confidential rating, a consent has been granted by such Borrower or Guarantor and a copy of such consent shall be provided to S&P indicating that the issuer can rely on such private or confidential rating); or

(iii) if there is neither an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P nor a rating by S&P on an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating may be determined using any one of the methods below:

- (A) if an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is publicly rated by Moody’s, then the S&P Rating will be determined in accordance with the methodologies for establishing the Moody’s Default Probability Rating, except that the S&P Rating of such obligation will be (1) one subcategory below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody’s if such security is rated “Baa3” or higher by Moody’s and (2) two subcategories below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody’s if such security is rated “Ba1” or lower by Moody’s; provided that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 10% of the Maximum Amount may be given a S&P Rating based on a rating given by Moody’s as provided in this subclause (A) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable); or
- (B) if no security or obligation of the issuer or obligor is rated by S&P or Moody’s, and the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer has applied to S&P for a rating estimate and provided all relevant Information to S&P (at Credit\_estimates@sandp.com) within 30 days of the acquisition (or, if such application is caused as a result of a rating withdrawal by S&P or Moody’s, as applicable, the withdrawal of the rating by S&P or Moody’s, as applicable) of such security or obligation, such security or obligation, pending receipt from S&P of such rating estimate, shall have an S&P Rating as determined by the Servicer in its commercially reasonable judgment; provided that, if the Servicer does not submit all relevant Information within 30 days of such acquisition or rating withdrawal, as applicable, of such security or obligation, (x) S&P shall endeavor to provide a rating estimate as soon as reasonably practical upon receipt of all relevant Information, (y) during a period of 90 days (or such longer period as agreed to by S&P pursuant to a request made by the Servicer) from the date of such acquisition or rating withdrawal, as applicable, and pending receipt from S&P of a rating estimate, such security or obligation shall have an S&P Rating as determined by the Servicer in its commercially reasonable judgment and (z) if S&P does not provide a rating estimate within 90 days (or such longer period as agreed by S&P pursuant to a request made by the Servicer) of the date of such acquisition or rating withdrawal, as applicable, of such security or obligation, such security or obligation shall be treated as rated “CCC-” by S&P until such time as S&P provides a credit estimate; and
- (C) any reference in this definition to an S&P rating estimate or estimated rating must be such rating provided by S&P in writing and any such rating shall expire after one year of its provision by S&P. The Servicer may re-apply for a credit estimate within 30 days prior to the expiration of such credit estimate, subject to the procedures specified in subclause (iii)(B) above; provided that, if an obligation identical to a Collateral Obligation is held in another fund serviced or managed by the Servicer and an estimated rating has been assigned by S&P to such obligation held in such other fund (and such estimated rating has not yet expired), such estimated rating, upon request by the Servicer to S&P, shall be applicable to the Collateral Obligation held by the Trustee under the Indenture;

provided that, if (i) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any positive “credit watch” list by S&P, such rating will be increased by one rating subcategory or (ii) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any negative “credit watch” list by S&P, such rating will be decreased by one rating subcategory.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the S&P Rating shall be (A) the rating assigned thereto by S&P if the rating is public, (B) the rating assigned by S&P if the rating is confidential, but only if all appropriate parties have provided written consent to its disclosure and use, (C) the rating assigned by S&P thereto through an estimated rating or (D) the rating assigned thereto by S&P in connection with the acquisition thereof upon the request of the Servicer. In the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a PIK Security, Structured Finance Obligation or Synthetic Securities, the S&P Rating may not be determined pursuant to clause (iii)(A) above.

S&P Ratings for entities or obligations relevant hereunder other than Borrowers and Collateral Obligations shall be determined in a corresponding manner.

“S&P Recovery Rate” means, as of any date of determination, with respect to any Collateral Obligation, the percentage for such Collateral Obligation set forth in (x) the applicable table below, as modified, amended, and supplemented from time to time by S&P, (y) the row in such table opposite the S&P CRR (or, if the relevant assets have no S&P CRR, the senior secured recovery rating, the U.S. loan recovery rating or the CDO liability rating, as applicable) of such Collateral Obligation (or, in the case of a Form-Approved Synthetic Security, the Reference Obligation unless otherwise specified by S&P) and (z) the column in such table below the initial S&P Rating of the respective Class of Notes; provided, however that (i) with respect to a DIP Loan or a Synthetic Security (other than a Form-Approved Synthetic Security that does not reference an index), the S&P Recovery Rate shall be the recovery rate assigned by S&P and with respect to a Structured Finance Obligation the S&P Recovery Rate shall be the recovery rate determined by reference to Table V or Table VI below, as applicable and (ii) the Issuer or the Servicer may request the assignment of a recovery rate from S&P with respect to any Collateral Obligation, any such assignment by S&P to be in writing (electronic or otherwise); provided, further, that if a Collateral Obligation is a Cov-lite Loan for which there is no S&P CRR and therefore Table IV would apply, the recovery rate for such Collateral Obligation shall be equal to 90% of its recovery rate as of such date of determination, unless otherwise provided by S&P upon request by the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer.

In all recovery rate tables above, Note rating categories below “AAA” include rating subcategories (for example, the “AA” column also applies to Notes rated “AA+” and “AA-”).

“S&P Unrated DIP Loan” means a DIP Loan acquired by the Issuer that does not have a rating assigned by S&P and for which the Servicer has commenced the process of having a rating assigned by S&P (as specified in the definition of “DIP Loan”).

“Sale Proceeds” means all proceeds received (including any proceeds received with respect to any associated interest rate swap or security providing fixed annuity payments ) with respect to Collateral Obligations or other

Pledged Obligations as a result of their sales or other dispositions less any reasonable expenses expended by the Servicer or the Trustee in connection with the sales or other dispositions, which shall be paid from such proceeds notwithstanding their characterization otherwise as Administrative Expenses.

“Scenario Default Rate” means, with respect to any Class of Notes rated by S&P, an estimate of the cumulative default rate for the Current Portfolio or the Proposed Portfolio, as applicable, consistent with S&P’s rating of the Class of Notes on the Closing Date, determined by application of the S&P CDO Monitor.

“Second Lien Loan” means a Loan that (i) is not (and cannot by its terms become) subordinated in right of payment to any other obligation of the obligor of the Loan other than a Senior Secured Loan with respect to the liquidation of such obligor or the collateral for such Loan, (ii) is secured by a valid second priority perfected security interest in or lien on specified collateral securing the obligor’s obligations under the Loan, which specified collateral does not consist solely of common stock or shares issued by the obligor or any of its Affiliates or intangible assets and (iii) if such Loan does not have an S&P Recovery Rating, then, solely for purposes of determining the S&P Recovery Rate for such Loan, in the Servicer’s commercially reasonable judgment (with such judgment being made in good faith by the Servicer at the time of such Loan’s purchase), the specified collateral for such Loan has a value not less than the outstanding principal amount of all debt senior to such Loan and any debt pari passu with such Loan, which value may be derived from, among other things, the enterprise value of the issuer of such Loans (provided that the provisions of the clause (iii) may be amended at any time, subject to Rating Confirmation from S&P, or in order to conform to S&P’s then-current criteria for such Loans).

“Secondary Risk Counterparty” means any obligor Domiciled other than in the United States, any Participating Institution, any Synthetic Security Counterparty and any Securities Lending Counterparty.

“Secondary Risk Table” means, with respect to Moody’s the table below:

Long-Term Senior Unsecured Debt Rating of Secondary Risk Counterparty	Individual Counterparty Limit	Aggregate Counterparty Limit
Aaa	20.0%	20.0%
Aa1	10.0%	10.0%
Aa2	10.0%	10.0%
Aa3	10.0%	10.0%
A1	5.0%	10.0%

With respect to S&P and solely with respect to Participations and Securities Lending Agreements, the table below:

Long-Term Senior Unsecured Debt Rating of Secondary Risk Counterparty	Individual Counterparty Limit	Aggregate Counterparty Limit
AAA	20.0%	20.0%
AA+/AA/AA-	10.0%	20.0%

If any Secondary Risk Counterparty's long-term senior unsecured debt rating or short-term rating is on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's or S&P, then for the purposes of the table above, its rating by the Rating Agency putting its rating on credit watch shall be one rating notch lower for that Rating Agency.

"Secured Loan" means a Loan that is secured by a valid and perfected security interest in specified collateral.

"Secured Parties" means the Noteholders, the Trustee, the Servicer and each Hedge Counterparty (and the Collateral Administrator and Preference Shares Paying Agent to the extent of Administrative Expenses payable to such parties as provided in the Indenture).

"Securities Account Control Agreement" means an agreement dated as of the Closing Date by and among the Issuer, the Trustee and the Bank, as custodian.

"Securities Lending Collateral" means Cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the relevant Securities Lending Agreement and that are pledged by a Securities Lending Counterparty as collateral pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement.

"Senior Secured Loan" means a Secured Loan that is not subordinated by its terms to indebtedness of the borrower for borrowed money, trade claims, capitalized leases, or other similar obligations, with a valid and perfected first priority security interest in collateral that in the opinion of the Servicer has value at least equal to the amount of the Loan and that is not a DIP Loan.

"Senior Unsecured Loan" means a Loan that is not a Senior Secured Loan and is not (i) subordinated by its terms to indebtedness of the borrower for borrowed money and (ii) secured by a valid and perfected security interest in collateral.

"Servicing Agreement" means the Servicing Agreement, dated as of the Closing Date, between the Issuer and the Servicer, as modified, amended and supplemented and in effect from time to time.

"Spread Excess" means, as of any Measurement Date, a fraction whose (i) numerator is the product of (A) the greater of zero and the excess of the Weighted Average Spread for the Measurement Date over the Minimum Weighted Average Spread specified in the applicable row of the Ratings Matrix and (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date and (ii) denominator is the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Fixed Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date. In computing the Spread Excess on any Measurement Date, the Weighted Average Spread for the Measurement Date will be computed as if the Fixed Rate Excess were equal to zero.

"Structured Finance Obligation" means any obligation (other than the Notes or any other security or obligation issued by the Issuer):

(i) primarily secured directly by, referenced to or representing ownership of, a pool of loan receivables of U.S. obligors, or obligors organized or incorporated in Moody's Group I Countries, Moody's Group II Countries, Moody's Group III Countries or Tax Advantaged Jurisdictions (for the avoidance of doubt, excluding;

- (A) residential mortgage backed securities;
- (B) collateralized debt obligations primarily backed by Emerging Market Securities;
- (C) collateralized debt obligations primarily backed by asset backed securities;
- (D) market value collateralized debt obligations;
- (E) securities backed by "future flow" receivables;
- (F) securities backed by "trust preferred securities";

- (G) net interest margin securitizations;
  - (H) collateralized debt obligations greater than 10% of the underlying obligations of which are backed by high yield corporate bonds;
  - (I) collateralized debt obligations and collateralized loan obligations greater than 10% of the underlying obligations of which are backed by other collateralized debt obligations or collateralized loan obligations, as applicable;
  - (J) collateralized loan obligations backed by less than 90% loans; provided that the following collateralized loan obligations up to the Principal Balance set forth opposite their name will be allowed:
    - (1) Greywolf CLO I, Ltd.: $1,000,000, and
    - (2) Madison Park Funding V, Ltd.: $5,000,000;
  - (K) obligations secured directly by, referenced to, or representing ownership of, a pool of receivables or other assets where the obligors with respect to such receivables or other assets are non-corporate credit risks);
- (ii) that has an S&P Rating;
  - (iii) that has a Moody's Rating and a Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate as specified in Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate Matrix; and
  - (iv) whose ownership or disposition (without regard to the Issuer's other activities) by the Issuer will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

For purposes of the Diversity Test, multiple Structured Finance Obligations from CLOs serviced by the same Servicer or multiple Structured Finance Obligations issued by the same master trust will be considered to be obligations of one issuer.

"Subordinated Lien Loan" means a Secured Loan (other than a Second Lien Loan) secured by a second (or lower) priority security interest in the relevant collateral.

"Subscription Agreement" means a subscription agreement between a purchaser and the Issuer entered into on or before the Pricing Date for the subscription of the Class E Notes or the Preference Shares, as applicable.

"Super Majority" means, with respect to any Class or group of Notes or Preference Shares, the Holders of more than 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of that Class or group of Notes or Preference Shares, as the case may be.

"Synthetic Letter of Credit" means a facility whereby (i) an agent bank issues or will issue a letter of credit for or on behalf of a borrower pursuant to an Underlying Instrument, (ii) the lender/participant pre-funds in full its obligations thereunder (provided that for the avoidance of doubt if funds are deposited to the Revolving Reserve Account with respect to such Synthetic Letter of Credit, such future funding obligations shall be deemed to be pre-funded) and upon such pre-funding, the lender/participant has no future funding obligations with respect to such Synthetic Letter of Credit and (iii) either (x) in the event that the letter of credit is drawn upon and the borrower does not reimburse the agent bank, the amounts pre-funded by the lender/participant are utilized by the agent bank to reimburse the agent bank for such amounts not funded by the borrower or (y) the agent bank passes on (in whole or in part) the fees it receives for providing the letter of credit to the lender/participant; provided, that, with respect to any Synthetic Letter of Credit, either (i) the related agent bank has confirmed to the Issuer that it will withhold taxes from fees paid to the Issuer, or (ii) if the Issuer, or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, determines in its reasonable discretion that it is probable that such Synthetic Letter of Credit will be subject to withholding tax, then the Issuer, or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, either (x) disposes of such Synthetic Letter of Credit or (y) establishes an account with the Trustee into which 30% of all fee income from such Synthetic Letter of Credit will be transferred and applied to the payment of any withholding tax imposed on the related fees received by the Issuer (it being understood that such reserved amounts shall be released and applied as Interest Proceeds at any later date if (A) the Issuer has received an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the Issuer is no longer responsible for any withholding tax payments on such Synthetic Letter of Credit or (B) the Rating Condition with respect to S&P (so long as any Class of Notes is rated by S&P) is satisfied with respect to such release of the reserved amounts).

“Synthetic Security” means any swap transaction, structured bond, credit linked note or other derivative financial instrument providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a debt instrument (but excluding any such instrument relating directly to a basket or portfolio of debt instruments) or an index or indices (such as the “SAMI” index published by Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC) in connection with a basket or portfolio of debt instruments or other similar instruments entered into by the Issuer with a Synthetic Security Counterparty that has in the Servicer’s commercially reasonable judgment, equivalent expected loss characteristics (those characteristics, “credit risk”) to those of the related Reference Obligations (taking account of those considerations as they relate to the Synthetic Security Counterparty), if (i) it is either a Form-Approved Synthetic Security or the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied, and (ii) the Reference Obligations thereof have a Market Value equal to at least 85% of the Principal Balance of the Reference Obligation at the time the Synthetic Security is entered into.

“Synthetic Security Agreement” means the documentation governing any Synthetic Security.

“Synthetic Security Collateral” means, respect to any Synthetic Security, amounts posted to the Synthetic Security Collateral Account by the Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its obligations under the Synthetic Security, including (i) all Eligible Investments that mature no later than the Stated Maturity or (ii) floating rate credit card securitizations that are rated “Aaa” by Moody’s and “AAA” by S&P that mature no later than the Stated Maturity in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account that are purchased with Synthetic Security Collateral; provided that any amounts described in clause (ii) above shall be hedged by a guaranteed investment contract or a total return swap which shall be subject to Rating Confirmation by S&P.

“Synthetic Security Counterparty” means any entity required to make payments on a Synthetic Security to the extent that a reference obligor makes payments on a related Reference Obligation.

“Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction” means one of the Cayman Islands, Bermuda, the Netherlands Antilles or the tax advantaged jurisdiction of the Channel Islands, or such other jurisdiction that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto; provided that any Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction that is the jurisdiction of organization of an obligor of a Collateral Obligation other than obligors that are special purpose vehicles or issuers of Structured Finance Obligations shall have a Moody’s foreign currency rating of at least “Aa2” and a S&P foreign currency rating of at least “AA-”.

“Tax Event” means an event that occurs if either:

(i) (A) one or more Collateral Obligations that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more Collateral Obligations that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them and (B) in any Due Period, the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on new withholding tax obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on increased rate withholding tax obligations, in each case to the extent not “grossed-up” (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period; or

(ii) taxes, fees, assessments, or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any twelve-month period in excess of U.S.$2,000,000, other than any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax with respect to any payment owing in respect of any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation.

“Treasury Regulations” means the regulations, including proposed or temporary regulations, promulgated under the Code. References herein to specific provisions of proposed or temporary regulations shall include analogous provisions of final Treasury Regulations or other successor Treasury Regulations.

“Trust Officer” means, when used with respect to the Trustee, any officer in the Corporate Trust Office (or any successor group of the Trustee) including any director, vice president, assistant vice president, associate, or any other officer of the Trustee customarily performing functions similar to those performed by such officers in the Corporate Trust Office, or to whom any corporate trust matter is referred at the Corporate Trust Office because of his knowledge of and familiarity with the particular subject and having direct responsibility for the administration of the Indenture.

“UCC” means the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect in the State of New York, and as amended from time to time.

“Underlying Instrument” means the loan agreement, indenture, credit agreement, or other agreement pursuant to which a Pledged Obligation has been issued or created and each other agreement that governs the terms of or secures the obligations represented by the Pledged Obligation or of which the holders of the Pledged Obligation are the beneficiaries.

“Unfunded Amount” means, with respect to any Revolving Loan or any Delayed Drawdown Loan at any time, the excess, if any, of (a) the Commitment Amount over (b) the Funded Amount thereof.

“Unscheduled Principal Payments” means any principal payments received with respect to a Collateral Obligation as a result of optional redemptions, exchange offers, tender offers, other payments or prepayments made at the option of the issuer thereof or that are otherwise not scheduled to be made thereunder.

“Valuation Report” means the accounting report, determined as of the close of business on each Determination Date, rendered in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

“Voting Record Date” means, with respect to any vote by the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares in relation to the appointment or removal of the directors of the Issuer, (a) 15 days prior to the relevant shareholders meeting or (b) in the case of any vote by the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares exercised by written consent resolution, the date of such resolution.

“Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon” means, as of any Measurement Date, the rate obtained by:

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Fixed Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum rate at which it pays interest (other than, with respect to Collateral Obligations that are not PIK Securities, any interest that is not required to be paid in Cash and may be deferred), using only the effective after-tax interest rate determined by the Servicer on any Fixed Rate Obligation after taking into account any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction and any gross-up paid by the obligor);

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);

(iii) dividing the sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations that are Fixed Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, adding to the sum the amount of any Spread Excess as of the Measurement Date, but only to the extent required to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test.

“Weighted Average Life” means, as of any Measurement Date the number obtained by (i) summing the products obtained by multiplying (A) the Average Life at that time of each Collateral Obligation by (B) the Principal Balance at that time of the Collateral Obligation and (ii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance at that time of all Collateral Obligations.

“Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor” means the summation of the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation (excluding Eligible Investments) by its respective Moody’s Rating Factor, dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) and rounding the result up to the nearest whole number.

“Weighted Average Spread” means, as of any Measurement Date, a rate obtained by:

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Floating Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum contract spread at which it pays interest (which (w) for PIK Securities for which interest has been deferred or capitalized, will be deemed to be zero, (x) for Collateral Obligations that would be PIK Securities but for the proviso in the definition thereof, will be deemed to be equal to the effective rate of PIK Cash-Pay Interest applicable thereto, (y) for any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, will be the per annum contract spread for the Funded Amount thereof and the rate of the commitment fee and such other fees payable to the Issuer for any Unfunded Amount thereof and (z) for any synthetic letter of credit, will be the all-in rate net of withholding taxes (including any fees payable to the Issuer by the underlying obligor) minus the applicable LIBOR), determined with respect to any Floating Rate Obligation that does not bear interest based on a London interbank offered rate, by expressing the current interest rate on the Floating Rate Obligation as a spread above a three month London interbank offered rate calculated in a manner consistent with the calculation of LIBOR;

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);

(iii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to pass the Weighted Average Spread Test, adding to that sum the amount of Fixed Rate Excess as of the Measurement Date.

“Workout Assets” means a Loan, High-Yield Bond, or Qualified Equity Security acquired in connection with the workout or restructuring of any Collateral Obligation that the Issuer does not advance any funds to purchase that does not qualify as a Collateral Obligation.

“Written-Down Obligation” means as of any date of determination, any Structured Finance Obligation as to which the Issuer or the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, has been notified by the issuer of the Structured Finance Obligation that the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Structured Finance Obligation and all other Structured Finance Obligations secured by the same pool of collateral that rank pari passu with or senior in priority of payment to the Structured Finance Obligation exceeds the aggregate principal balance (including reserved interest or other amounts available for overcollateralization) of all collateral securing the Structured Finance Obligation and such other pari passu and senior Structured Finance Obligations (excluding defaulted collateral).

“Zero-Coupon Security” means a security that, at the time of determination, does not make periodic payments of interest. A Zero-Coupon Security shall not include a security that is a PIK Security.

INDENTURE, dated as of March 27, 2008, among ABERDEEN LOAN FUNDING, LTD. (the “Issuer”), ABERDEEN LOAN FUNDING CORP. (the “Co-Issuer”) and STATE STREET BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, as trustee (together with its permitted successors, the “Trustee”).

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Co-Issuers are duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture to provide for the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes and the Issuer is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture to provide for the Class E Notes, in each case issuable as provided in this Indenture. All covenants and agreements made by the Co-Issuers in this Indenture are for the benefit and security of the Secured Parties. The Co-Issuers are entering into this Indenture, and the Trustee is accepting the trusts created by this Indenture, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged.

All things necessary to make this Indenture a valid agreement of the Co-Issuers in accordance with the agreement’s terms have been done.

GRANTING CLAUSES

The Issuer Grants to the Trustee, for the benefit and security of the Noteholders, the Trustee, the Servicer and each Hedge Counterparty (and the Collateral Administrator and Preference Shares Paying Agent to the extent of Administrative Expenses payable to such parties as provided hereunder) (collectively, the “Secured Parties”), all of its right, title, and interest in, to, and under, in each case, whether now owned or existing, or hereafter acquired or arising:

(a) the Collateral Obligations (listed, as of the Closing Date, in Schedule 1 to this Indenture and listed from time to time on such Schedule 1 as such Schedule 1 may be modified, amended and revised subsequent to the Closing Date by the Issuer) and all Workout Assets, including any part thereof which consists of general intangibles or supporting obligations (each as defined in the UCC) relating thereto, all payments made or to be made thereon or with respect thereto, and all Collateral Obligations and Workout Assets including any part thereof which consists of general intangibles (as defined in the UCC) relating thereto, which are delivered or credited to the Trustee, or for which a Security Entitlement is delivered or credited to the Trustee or which are credited to one or more of the Issuer Accounts on or after the Closing Date and all payments made or to be made thereon or with respect thereto;

(b) the Custodial Account, the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Interest Reserve Account and the Securities Lending Account (collectively, the “Issuer Accounts”), Eligible Investments purchased with funds on deposit in the Issuer Accounts, and all income from funds in the Issuer Accounts;

(c) the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account (and, together with the Issuer Accounts, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account and the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the “Accounts”) and assets included therein, subject to the terms of the related

Synthetic Security (provided, however, that any such rights in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be held in trust by the Trustee (or Securities Intermediary) first to secure the Issuer's payment obligations to the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty and second for the benefit of the Secured Parties);

(d) the Servicing Agreement, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, the Securities Lending Agreements and all Securities Lending Collateral and the Securities Lending Account, the Hedge Agreements as set forth in Article 15 and all Collateral securing the Hedge Counterparty's obligations thereunder including, without limitation, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account and the Collateral Administration Agreement, to the extent of any rights of the Issuer therein;

(e) all Cash or money delivered to the Trustee (or its bailee);

(f) all securities, investments, investment property, instruments, money, general intangibles, chattel paper and agreements of any nature in which the Issuer has an interest (except for money, securities and investments in the Issuer's bank account in the Cayman Islands), including any part thereof which consists of general intangibles or supporting obligations (each as defined in the UCC) relating thereto; and

(g) all proceeds with respect to the foregoing;

(all of the property and assets described in foregoing clauses (a) through (g), but excluding any Excluded Property, the "Collateral"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Collateral shall not include (i) amounts released from the Trustee's lien in connection with certain Synthetic Securities, Hedge Agreements and Securities Lending Agreements in accordance with this Indenture and (ii) any Excluded Property.

These Grants are not intended to and do not transfer any liability under the Collateral, which liabilities shall remain the sole obligation of the Issuer. These Grants are made, however, in trust as separate trusts, to secure the Notes. Except as provided in Article 13 and the priorities set forth in the Priority of Payments, the Notes are secured by the first grant equally and ratably without prejudice, priority or distinction between any Note and any other Note because of difference in time of issuance or otherwise. The Grants are made to secure, in accordance with the priorities in the Priority of Payments and Article 13:

(i) the payment of all amounts due on the Notes equally and ratably without prejudice, priority or distinction between any Note and any other Note because of difference in time of issuance or otherwise, in accordance with their terms;

(ii) the payment of all other sums payable under this Indenture (including without limitation, Administrative Expenses, but excluding amounts payable in respect of the Preference Shares);

(iii) the payment of sums payable to any Hedge Counterparty under a Hedge Agreement;

(iv) the payment of sums payable to the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement; and

(v) compliance with this Indenture;

(collectively, the “Secured Obligations”), all as provided in this Indenture.

The Trustee acknowledges the Grants, accepts the trusts under this Indenture in accordance with this Indenture, and agrees to perform its duties in this Indenture in accordance with the provisions hereof.

ARTICLE 1

DEFINITIONS

Section 1.1 Definitions.

Except as otherwise specified in this Indenture or as the context may otherwise require, the following terms have the respective meanings provided below for all purposes of this Indenture.

“25% Limitation”: The limitation imposed so that any purchase or transfer of Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares and Class II Preference Shares by Benefit Plan Investors from the Initial Purchaser or the Issuer and any subsequent transferee will be limited to less than 25% of the value of each of all Outstanding Class E Notes, Class I Preference Shares and Class II Preference Shares by requiring each such purchaser and subsequent transferee to make certain representations and/or to agree to certain transfer restrictions regarding their status as Benefit Plan Investors or Controlling Persons.

“A/B Exchange”: An exchange of one security (the “A Security”) for another security (the “B Security”) of the same issuer or issuers, which security shall have the same seniority, maturity and interest rate as the A Security except that one or more transfer restrictions applicable to the A Security are inapplicable to the B Security.

“Accounts”: The meaning specified in the Granting Clauses.

“Accountants’ Certificate”: An agreed upon procedures report of a firm of Independent certified public accountants of international reputation appointed by the Issuer pursuant to Section 10.8(a), which may be the firm of Independent accountants that performs certain accounting services for the Issuer or the Servicer.

“Accrued Interest On Sale”: Interest accrued on a Collateral Obligation at the time of sale or other disposition to the extent paid to the Issuer as part of the sale or other disposition price of the Collateral Obligation after deduction of any amount representing Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal of the Collateral Obligation.

“Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal”: (i) interest accrued on or purchased with a Collateral Obligation as part of the price paid by the Issuer to acquire the Collateral Obligation less any amount of Interest Proceeds (applied as Interest Proceeds) applied by the Issuer to acquire the accrued interest at the time of purchase and (ii) interest accrued on a Loan that constitutes part of the price paid by the Issuer to repay amounts owed to the Pre-Closing Parties in connection with the financing of the Issuer's pre-closing acquisition of such Loan.

"Act": The meaning specified in Section 14.2.

"Adjusted Interest Proceeds": The meaning specified in Section 11.1(b).

"Adjusted Principal Proceeds": The meaning specified in Section 11.1(b).

"Adjusted Proceeds": The meaning specified in Section 11.1(b).

"Administration Agreement": The Administration Agreement between the Issuer and the Administrator, providing for the administrative functions on behalf of the Issuer, as modified, amended, and supplemented and in effect from time to time.

"Administrative Expense Cap": An amount on any Payment Date equal to the excess of:

(a) the sum of 0.025% of the Maximum Amount on the related Determination Date plus $250,000; over

(b) the sum of the amounts paid for Administrative Expenses in the twelve months preceding the current Payment Date.

"Administrative Expenses": Amounts due or accrued representing

(i) tax preparation, filing, and registration fees or expenses and any other filing and registration fees owed by the Co-Issuers (including all filing, registration and annual return fees payable to the Cayman Islands government and registered office fees);

(ii) fees, indemnities and expenses of the Trustee (including all amounts under Section 6.8), the Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Collateral Administrator;

(iii) fees, indemnities and expenses of the Co-Issuers and of accountants, agents and counsel for either of the Co-Issuers;

(iv) fees and expenses of the Rating Agencies in connection with any rating of the Collateral (requested by the Issuer or the Servicer) or the Notes owed by either Co-Issuer (including fees and expenses for ongoing surveillance, credit estimates and other fees owing to the Rating Agencies);

(v) expenses and indemnities (but not Servicing Fees) of the Servicer if payable under the Servicing Agreement;

(vi) fees, indemnities and expenses for third-party loan pricing services and accountants; and

(vii) amounts due (other than indemnities) to any other Person (except the Servicer) if specifically provided for in this Indenture, including fees or expenses in connection with any Securities Lending Agreement.

“Administrator”: Walkers SPV Limited, or any successor thereto appointed under the Administration Agreement.

“Affected Bank” means a “bank” for purposes of Section 881 of the Code or an entity acting on behalf of such a bank that neither (x) meets the definition of a U.S. Holder nor (y) is entitled to the benefits of an income tax treaty with the United States under which withholding taxes on interest payments made by obligors resident in the United States to such bank are reduced to 0%.

“Affected Class”: Any Class of Notes that, as a result of the occurrence of a Tax Event, has received or will receive less than the aggregate amount of principal and interest that would otherwise have been payable to such Class on the Payment Date related to the Due Period with respect to which such Tax Event occurs.

“Affiliate” or “Affiliated”: With respect to a Person,

(i) any other Person who, directly or indirectly, is in control of, or controlled by, or is under common control with, the Person; or

(ii) any other Person who is a director, officer, or employee (A) of the Person, (B) of any subsidiary or parent company of the Person or (C) of any Person described in clause (i) above.

For the purposes of this definition, control of a Person shall mean the power, direct or indirect:

(A) to vote more than 50% of the securities having ordinary voting power for the election of directors of the Person; or

(B) to direct the corporate management and corporate policies of the Person whether by contract or otherwise (this does not include the Servicing Agreement unless it is amended expressly to provide those services).

For the purpose of this definition, the Administrator and its Affiliates are neither Affiliates of nor Affiliated with the Co-Issuers and the Co-Issuers are neither Affiliates of nor Affiliated with the Administrator, or any of their Affiliates.

“Agent Members”: Members of, or participants in, a Depository.

“Aggregate Base Fees and Expenses”: The meaning specified in Section 11.1(b).

“Aggregate Outstanding Amount”: When used with respect to any of the Notes as of any date, the aggregate principal amount of such Notes on that date. When used with respect to the Preference Shares as of any date, means the number of such Preference Shares Outstanding on such date.

Except as otherwise provided herein:

(a) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A Notes at any time shall include any Defaulted Interest in respect thereof and (to the extent not included in any such Defaulted Interest) accrued interest on such Defaulted Interest;

(b) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class B Notes at any time shall include any Defaulted Interest in respect thereof and (to the extent not included in any such Defaulted Interest) accrued interest on such Defaulted Interest;

(c) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes at any time shall include all Class C Deferred Interest attributed thereto;

(d) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class D Notes at any time shall include all Class D Deferred Interest attributed thereto; and

(e) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class E Notes at any time shall include all Class E Deferred Interest attributed thereto.

“Aggregate Principal Balance”: When used with respect to the Pledged Obligations, the sum of the Principal Balances of all the Pledged Obligations. When used with respect to a portion of the Pledged Obligations, the term Aggregate Principal Balance means the sum of the Principal Balances of that portion of the Pledged Obligations.

“Aggregate Purchase Price Amount”: When used with respect to the Pledged Obligations, the sum of the Purchase Price Amounts of all the Pledged Obligations. When used with respect to a portion of the Pledged Obligations, the term Aggregate Purchase Price Amount means the sum of the Purchase Price Amounts of that portion of the Pledged Obligations.

“Allocable Principal Balance”: With respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, the portion of the aggregate Principal Balance of such Synthetic Security that is allocable to each Reference Obligation comprising such index or indices based upon allocating the Principal Balance of such Synthetic Security among such Reference Obligations in the same proportion as each Reference Obligation bears to the aggregate Principal Balance of such Synthetic Security.

“Amendment Buy-Out”: The meaning specified in Section 9.6(a).

“Amendment Buy-Out Option”: The meaning specified in Section 9.6(a).

“Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price”: The purchase price payable by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser for Securities purchased in an Amendment Buy-Out, if any, in an amount equal to (i) in the case of the Notes, the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest (including Deferred Interest, if any) as of the date of purchase payable to the Non-Consenting Holder (giving effect to any amounts paid to the Holder on such date), plus any unpaid Extension Bonus Payment, and (ii) in the case of the Preference Shares, an amount that, when taken together with all payments and distributions made in respect of such Preference Shares since the Closing Date (and any amounts payable, if any, to the Non-Consenting Holder on the next succeeding Payment Date) would cause such Preference Shares to have received (as of the date of purchase thereof) a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 12% (assuming such purchase date was a Payment Date); provided, however, that in any Amendment Buy-Out from and after the date on which the Non-Consenting Holders of Preference Shares have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12%, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price for such Preference Shares shall be zero.

“Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser”: The Servicer (or any of its Affiliates acting as principal or agent); provided that in the event that the Servicer elects not to purchase Securities from Holders pursuant to Section 9.6, “Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser” shall mean one or more qualifying purchasers (which may include the Initial Purchaser or any of their Affiliates acting as principal or agent) designated by the Servicer; provided, however, none of the Servicer, the Initial Purchaser or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any duty to act as an Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser.

“Applicable Issuers” or “Applicable Issuer”: With respect to the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes, each of the Co-Issuers. With respect to the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares, the Issuer only.

“Applicable Note Interest Rate”: With respect to the Notes of any Class, the Note Interest Rate with respect to such Class.

- (1) denominated and payable in U.S. Dollars and is not convertible by its obligor into any other currency;
- (2) an obligation of an obligor Domiciled in an Eligible Country;
- (3) an obligation that is eligible by its terms to be assigned to the Issuer and pledged by the Issuer to the Trustee for inclusion in the Collateral;
- (4) not an exchangeable or convertible security;
- (5) not an equity security or a component of an equity security or a security that has a component that is an equity security (other than for avoidance of doubt, a pass-through trust certificate in a trust holding Collateral Obligations that is rated by a nationally-recognized credit rating agency);
- (6) not an obligation or security that has been called for redemption and not an obligation or security that is the subject of an Offer other than a Permitted Offer or an exchange offer in which a security that is not registered under the Securities Act is exchanged for (i) a security that has substantially identical terms (except for transfer restrictions) but is registered under the Securities Act or (ii) a security that would otherwise qualify for purchase under Article 12;
- (7) an obligation that (a) has a Moody’s Rating (including any estimated or confidential rating which is in respect of the full obligation of the obligor and which is monitored) and (b) has an S&P Rating (including any confidential rating which is in respect of the full obligation of the obligor and which is monitored), which S&P Rating does not have a “p”, “pi”, “q”, “r”, “t” or “f” subscript unless S&P otherwise authorizes in writing;

(8) an obligation that is a Finance Lease (if it is a lease) and the Rating Condition with respect to S&P has been satisfied with respect to the acquisition thereof;

(9) (a) an obligation that is not a Current-Pay Obligation, Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Credit Risk Obligation and (b) in the case of a Collateral Obligation that has a Moody’s Rating of “Caal” or lower or an S&P Rating of “CCC+” or lower, an obligation for which the Servicer has certified in writing that such Collateral Obligation is not a Credit Risk Obligation;

(10) an obligation that (unless it is a High-Yield Bond) is not subordinated by its terms to other indebtedness for borrowed money of the applicable issuer; provided that for the avoidance of doubt, this clause shall not prohibit the inclusion as Collateral Obligations of Subordinated Lien Loans or Second Lien Loans;

(11) an obligation that (i) (unless it is a PIK Security) bears simple interest payable in cash no less frequently than annually at a fixed or floating rate that is paid on a periodic basis on an unleveraged basis and, in the case of a floating rate, computed on a benchmark interest rate plus or minus a spread, if any (which may vary under the terms of the obligation) and (ii) provides for a fixed amount of principal payable in cash according to a fixed schedule (which may include optional call dates) or at maturity (or a fixed notional amount in the case of Synthetic Securities);

(12) an obligation the payment or repayment of the principal, if any, of which is not an amount determined by reference to any formula or index or subject to any contingency under the terms thereof;

(13) an obligation the portion of which to be acquired (including through a Synthetic Security with respect to the Reference Obligation) does not represent, directly or indirectly, more than a 25% interest in the obligation;

(14) not an obligation with a maturity later than four years after the Stated Maturity of the Notes;

(15) an obligation upon which no payments are subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the obligor thereof or counterparty with respect thereto is required to make “gross-up” payments that fully compensate for such withholding tax on an after-tax basis (other than withholding taxes with respect to commitment fees, facility fees or other similar fees);

(16) not a Loan or Synthetic Security that would require the Issuer after its purchase of the Loan or Synthetic Security to advance any funds to the related borrower or Synthetic Security Counterparty or permit the borrower or Synthetic Security Counterparty to require that any future advances be made except for:

(A) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan if, simultaneously with its purchase of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, the Issuer deposits into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, respectively, the maximum amount of any advances that may be required of the Issuer under the related Underlying Instrument (as provided in Section 10.3(b)), and

(B) any Synthetic Security if, simultaneously with its purchase of the Synthetic Security, the Issuer posts cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) the Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of any future advances;

(17) if such obligation is a Structured Finance Obligation that is a collateralized loan obligation, such obligation:

(A) has been assigned a rating by both Moody's and S&P;

(B) has a Moody's Rating of "Baa3" or higher and an S&P Rating of "BBB-" or higher;

(C) has not been placed on the watch list for possible downgrade by Moody's or S&P;

(D) not serviced/managed by the Servicer; and

(E) not a middle market CLO (as determined by the Servicer);

(18) not a Loan that is an obligation of a debtor in possession or a trustee for a debtor in an insolvency proceeding other than a DIP Loan;

(19) with respect to an obligation that provides for the payment of interest at a floating rate, an obligation for which such floating rate is determined by reference to the U.S. Dollar prime rate or other base rate, London interbank offered rate or similar interbank offered rate, commercial deposit rate or any other index that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto;

(20) in the case of a Synthetic Security, the Synthetic Security is one for which the counterparty or issuer, as the case may be, has a short-term debt rating by Moody's of at least "P-1" or long-term senior unsecured rating by Moody's of at least "A3" and, if rated "A3" by Moody's, such rating is not on watch for downgrade, and a short-term debt rating by S&P of at least "A-1+" or, if no short-term rating exists, an issuer credit rating by S&P of at least "AA-" and at the time of acquisition the documentation meets S&P's current counterparty criteria with respect to collateral posting and replacement upon downgrade of the counterparty;

(21) not an obligation that constitutes Margin Stock;

(22) not a Zero-Coupon Security;

(23) not an obligation that is currently deferring interest or paying interest “in kind” or otherwise has an interest “in kind” balance outstanding at the time of purchase, which interest is otherwise payable in cash;

(24) not a security whose repayment is subject to substantial non-credit related risk as determined by the Servicer;

(25) not an obligation the interest payments of which are scheduled to decrease (although interest payments may decrease due to unscheduled events such as a decrease of the index relating to a Floating Rate Obligation, the change from a default rate of interest to a non-default rate of interest or an improvement in the obligor’s financial condition); and

(26) an “eligible asset” as defined under Rule 3a-7 and not an obligation that will cause the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the pool of assets to be required to be registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act.

Pursuant to the definition of “Synthetic Security,” unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any “deliverable obligation” that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any “credit event” must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such “deliverable obligation” is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any “credit event”) as a Collateral Obligation, except that such “deliverable obligation” may constitute a Defaulted Collateral Obligation when delivered upon a “credit event.”

“Collateral Quality Tests”: The Diversity Test, the Weighted Average Life Test, the Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test, the Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, the Weighted Average Spread Test, the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test and the S&P CDO Monitor Test.

“Collection Account”: The trust account established pursuant to Section 10.2(a).

“Commitment Amount”: With respect to any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, the maximum aggregate outstanding principal amount (whether then funded or unfunded) of advances or other extensions of credit that the Issuer could be required to make to the borrower under its Underlying Instruments.

“Commitment Reduction”: With respect to any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, a permanent reduction (whether scheduled, mandatory, optional, or otherwise) in the related Commitment Amount.

“Concentration Limitations”: The limit set forth below with respect to a particular type of Relevant Obligation (measured by Aggregate Principal Balance plus the aggregate outstanding principal amount of any Defaulted Collateral Obligations) as a percentage of the Maximum Amount:

	Percentage of the Maximum Amount
(1) Senior Secured Loans and Eligible Investments	$\geq 90.0\%$
(2) Senior Unsecured Loans, Subordinated Lien Loans and Second Lien Loans	$\leq 5.0\%$
(3) Revolving Loans and the unfunded portion of Delayed Drawdown Loans	$\leq 12.0\%$
(4) DIP Loans	$\leq 7.5\%$
(5) PIK Securities	$\leq 5.0\%$
(6) High-Yield Bonds	$\leq 5.0\%$
(7) Structured Finance Obligations	$\leq 2.5\%$
(a) except that Structured Finance Obligations serviced by the Servicer may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	$\leq 0.0\%$
(b) except that Structured Finance Obligations that are middle market CLOs may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	$\leq 0.0\%$
(c) except that Structured Finance Obligations that are rated either Ba1 or lower or BB+ or lower may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	$\leq 0.0\%$
(d) except that a single issuer together with any of its Affiliates (excluding Secondary Risk Counterparties) of a Structured Finance Obligation may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	$\leq 1.0\%$
(e) except that Structured Finance Obligations that are CLOs of which greater than 10% of the underlying obligations are backed primarily by other CLOs may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	$\leq 0.0\%$
(8) obligors Domiciled other than in the United States and Canada	$\leq 20.0\%$
(9) obligors Domiciled in Canada or any single Moody's Group I Country	$\leq 10.0\%$
(10) obligors Domiciled in any single Moody's Group II Country	$\leq 5.0\%$

	Percentage of the Maximum Amount
(11) obligors Domiciled in all Moody's Group II Countries in the aggregate	≤10.0%
(12) obligors Domiciled in any single Moody's Group III Country	≤2.5%
(13) obligors Domiciled in all Moody's Group III Countries in the aggregate	≤5.0%
(14) obligors organized in any Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction (other than Structured Finance Obligations)	≤3.0%
(15) same S&P Industry Classification	≤10.0%
(a) except that Relevant Obligations belonging to two S&P Industry Classifications may each constitute up to the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤12.0%
(16) same Moody's Industry Classification	≤12.0%
(a) except that Relevant Obligations belonging to two Moody's Industry Classifications may each constitute up to the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤14.0%
(17) single obligor and any of its Affiliates (excluding Secondary Risk Counterparties)	≤1.5%
(a) except that up to each of five individual obligors and any of their Affiliates (excluding Secondary Risk Counterparties and any obligor under a DIP Loan) may each constitute up to the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤2.5%
(18) Fixed Rate Obligations	≤5.0%
(19) Pay interest less frequently than quarterly but no less frequently than semi-annually	≤5.0%
(20) Pay interest less frequently than semi-annually but no less frequently than annually	≤3.0%
(21) Synthetic Securities	≤20.0%
(a) except that Synthetic Securities that provide for settlement other than by physical delivery may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤5.0%
(b) except that Synthetic Securities that reference a	≤0.0%

	Percentage of the Maximum Amount
senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column
(c) except that Synthetic Securities that reference a single vintage of such index may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤2.0%
(22) Participations including Synthetic Letters of Credit structured as a Participation (provided that no Relevant Obligations may be a Participation in a Participation)	≤10.0%
(23) Relevant Obligations of which are (i) obligors Domiciled other than in the United States, (ii) Collateral Obligations lent under Securities Lending Agreements, (iii) Participations and (iv) Synthetic Securities, in the aggregate may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤20.0%
(24) Relevant Obligations of which are (i) obligors Domiciled other than in the United States, (ii) Collateral Obligations lent under Securities Lending Agreements, (iii) Participations and (iv) Synthetic Securities, entered into with, or issued by, a single Secondary Risk Counterparty	≤respective percentage in Secondary Risk Table under “Individual Counterparty Limit” for applicable rating*
(25) Relevant Obligations of which are (i) obligors Domiciled other than in the United States, (ii) Collateral Obligations lent under Securities Lending Agreements, (iii) Participations and (iv) Synthetic Securities, entered into with, or issued by, all Secondary Risk Counterparties	≤respective percentage in Secondary Risk Table under “Aggregate Counterparty Limit” for applicable rating
(26) Deep Discount Obligations	≤7.5%
(a) except that Collateral Obligations acquired by the Issuer for a Purchase Price less than 50% of their Principal Balance and which have a public Moody’s rating that is equal to or better than “B2”	≤3.0%

	Percentage of the Maximum Amount
(and not rated “B2” on watch for downgrade) may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column; provided that:
(i) no Collateral Obligation of the type set forth in the clause 26(a) may be purchased:
(a) if on the date of such purchase a Credit Rating Event is in effect;
(b) if on the date of such purchase the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is not satisfied;
(c) if on the date of such purchase the Concentration Limitations set forth in clause 27 are not satisfied; or
(d) if the Class E Coverage Tests are lower than the levels as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date;
(ii) Collateral Obligations may not exceed, on a cumulative basis, 12% of the Maximum Amount from the Ramp-Up Completion Date up to and including the Stated Maturity, but such cumulative amount will be reset on any Maturity Extension;
(iii) once such a Collateral Obligation has traded for 30 consecutive days at a Market Value Percentage equal to or greater than 65% it shall no longer be counted as part of the 3.0% limit in clause 26(a) above (for the avoidance of doubt any such Collateral Obligation will count toward the 12% cumulative bucket set forth in clause (a)(iii) above);
(b) except that no single obligor of a Collateral Obligation of the type specified in clause 26(a) may exceed the percentage of the Maximum Percentage specified in the right column	≤1.0%
(c) except that Collateral Obligations that do not have a public Moody’s rating or have a public Moody’s rating less than “B2” (or rated “B2” on watch for downgrade) may not exceed the percentage of the	≤0.0%

	Maximum Amount specified in the right column	Percentage of the Maximum Amount
(d)	except that prior to the Ramp-Up Completion Date Collateral Obligations acquired by the Issuer for a Purchase Price less than 50% of their Principal Balance (regardless of their rating) may not exceed the percentage of the Maximum Amount specified in the right column	≤0.0%
(27)	CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations	≤5.0%
(28)	Long-Dated Collateral Obligations	≤2.0%
(29)	Collateral Obligations lent under Securities Lending Agreements	≤15.0%
(30)	Collateral Obligations providing for interest at a non-London interbank offered rate (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, the unfunded amount of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan)	≤5.0%
(31)	Collateral Obligations that are Loans that are part of a credit facility with a total global aggregate commitment amount of less than $150,000,000	≤10.0%
(32)	Synthetic Letters of Credit	≤5.0%
(33)	Current-Pay Obligations	≤5.0%
(34)	Cov-lite Loans	≤ 10.0%

* Applicable long-term unsecured rating by Moody's or S&P of such Secondary Risk Counterparty (using the limit for the lower of such ratings if different).

** Long-term unsecured rating by Moody's or S&P at or below a level specified in the Secondary Risk Table (using the lower of such ratings for a Secondary Risk Counterparty, if different).

Subject to the rights in certain circumstances of the Servicer to determine otherwise as set out in Section 1.2(h), solely for the purpose of determining whether the Concentration Limitations are met, Eligible Investments and Cash will be treated as Senior Secured Loans and Floating Rate Obligations.

“Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares”: With respect to any Payment Date after the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes has been paid in full, or so long as the Class A Notes are no longer Outstanding, if the Coverage Tests are at the same level as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, a Holder of Preference Shares that has consented by delivering an irrevocable written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent to a distribution of Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of payment of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds on such Payment Date.

“Controlling Class”: The Class A Notes, (voting together as a Class) so long as any Class A Notes are Outstanding; then the Class B Notes (voting together as a Class), so long as any Class B Notes are Outstanding; then the Class C Notes (voting together as a Class), so long as any Class C Notes are Outstanding; then the Class D Notes (voting together as a Class), so long as any Class D Notes are Outstanding; and then the Class E Notes (voting together as a Class), so long as any Class E Notes are Outstanding.

“Controlling Person”: A person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) who has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or any person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to such assets, or any Affiliate of such a person.

“Corporate Trust Office”: The corporate trust office of the Trustee at which the Trustee performs its duties under this Indenture, currently having an address of 200 Clarendon Street, Mail Code: EUC 108, Boston, MA 02116, telecopy no. (617) 937-0517, Attention: CDO Services Group, or any other address the Trustee designates from time to time by notice to the Noteholders, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Issuer and each Rating Agency or the principal corporate trust office of any successor Trustee.

“Coverage Tests”: Collectively, the Class A/B Coverage Tests, the Class C Coverage Tests, the Class D Coverage Tests and the Class E Coverage Tests applicable as of any Measurement Date.

“Cov-lite Loan”: A Loan that (i) does not contain any financial covenants or (ii) requires the borrower to comply with an Incurrence Covenant, but does not require the borrower to comply with a Maintenance Covenant.

“Credit Improved Obligation”: Any Collateral Obligation that (a) is sold pursuant to a Portfolio Improvement Exchange and in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, has improved in credit quality or (b) in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, has improved in credit quality; provided that, in forming such judgment, a reduction in credit spread or an increase in Market Value of such Collateral Obligation (whether as described in clauses (ii) or (iii) below or otherwise) may only be utilized as corroboration of other bases for such judgment; and provided, further, that, if a Credit Rating Event is in effect, such Collateral Obligation will be considered a Credit Improved Obligation only if in addition to the above:

(i) the Collateral Obligation has been upgraded or has been put on credit watch list with the potential for developing positive credit implications by either of the Rating Agencies since the date the Issuer first acquired the Collateral Obligation under this Indenture;

(ii) such Collateral Obligation has experienced a reduction in credit spread of (A) 0.25% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such decrease) less than or equal to 2.00%, (B) 0.375% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such decrease) greater than 2.00% but less than or equal to 4.00% or (C) 0.50% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such decrease) greater than 4.00%, in each case compared to the credit spread at the time such Collateral Obligation was acquired by the Issuer;

(iii) (x) in the case of a Loan, the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation has increased by at least 1.00% from the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation as of its date of acquisition, as determined by the Servicer (provided that this subclause (iii)(x) will be deemed satisfied if Market Value increases to 1.01%), or (y) in the case of a bond, the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation has changed since its date of acquisition by a percentage more positive than the percentage change in the Merrill Lynch US High Yield Master II Index, Bloomberg ticker H0A0, plus 3.00%, over the same period; or

(iv) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class have voted to suspend the limitations on a Collateral Obligation being a Credit Improved Obligation set forth in clauses (i) through (iii) above, and for each subsequent downgrade by Moody's after a vote to suspend the limitations pursuant to this clause (iv) has occurred, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class must again vote to suspend the limitations on the Collateral Obligation being a Credit Improved Obligation set forth in clauses (i) through (iii) above for this clause (iv) to remain applicable.

A Synthetic Security shall be considered a Credit Improved Obligation if:

- (i) the Synthetic Security itself is a Credit Improved Obligation; or
- (ii) the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security would, if it were a Collateral Obligation, be a Credit Improved Obligation.

“Credit Rating Event”: An event that is in effect if the rating by Moody's:

- (i) of the Class A Notes or the Class B Notes has been withdrawn or is one or more rating sub-categories below its Initial Rating; or
- (ii) of the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes or the Class E Notes has been withdrawn or is two or more rating sub-categories below its respective Initial Rating.

For the purposes of this definition, any withdrawal or reduction in rating shall not be effective if after the withdrawal or reduction Moody's has upgraded the reduced or withdrawn rating to at least the Initial Rating in the case of the Class A Notes, or to only one subcategory below their Initial Rating in the case of the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes.

“Credit Risk Obligation”: Any Collateral Obligation (other than a Defaulted Collateral Obligation) that, in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, has significantly declined in credit quality and has a significant risk, with a lapse of time, of becoming a Defaulted Collateral Obligation; provided that in forming such judgment, an increase in credit spread or a decrease in Market Value of such Collateral Obligation (whether as described in clauses (ii) or (iii) below or otherwise) may only be utilized as corroboration of other bases for such judgment.

So long as a Credit Rating Event is in effect, no Collateral Obligation shall be eligible to be a Credit Risk Obligation unless in addition to the above, as of the date of determination:

(i) the Collateral Obligation has been downgraded or has been put on credit watch list with the potential for developing negative credit implications by either of the Rating Agencies since the date the Issuer first acquired the Collateral Obligation under this Indenture;

(ii) such Collateral Obligation has experienced an increase in credit spread of (A) 0.25% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such increase) less than or equal to 2.00%, (B) 0.375% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such increase) greater than 2.00% but less than or equal to 4.00% or (C) 0.50% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such increase) greater than 4.00%, compared to the credit spread at the time such Collateral Obligation was acquired by the Issuer;

(iii) (x) in the case of a Loan, the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation has decreased by at least 2.50% from the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation as of its date of acquisition, as determined by the Servicer, and (y) in the case of a bond, the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation has changed since its date of acquisition by a percentage more negative, or less positive, as the case may be, than the percentage change in the Merrill Lynch US High Yield Master II Index, Bloomberg ticker H0A0, less 3.00%, over the same period; or

(iv) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class have voted to suspend the limitations on a Collateral Obligation being a Credit Risk Obligation set forth in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) above, and for each subsequent downgrade by Moody's after a vote to suspend the limitations pursuant to this clause (iv) has occurred, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class must again vote to suspend the limitations on the Collateral Obligation being a Credit Risk Obligation set forth in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) above for this clause (iv) to remain applicable.

A Synthetic Security shall be considered a Credit Risk Obligation if:

(i) the Synthetic Security itself is a Credit Risk Obligation; or

(ii) the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security would, if it were a Collateral Obligation, be a Credit Risk Obligation.

“Current Portfolio”: At any time, the portfolio (measured by Aggregate Principal Balance) of Collateral Obligations, Principal Proceeds held as Cash on deposit in the Collection Account, and other Eligible Investments purchased with Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account that exists before the sale, maturity or other disposition of a Collateral Obligation or before the acquisition of a Collateral Obligation, as the case may be.

“Current-Pay Obligation”: A Collateral Obligation as to which:

(i) an Insolvency Event has occurred with respect to its obligor or as to which its obligor is rated “D” or “SD” by S&P or its obligor has previously been rated “CCC-” by S&P and the rating has been withdrawn;

(ii) no default as to the payment of principal or interest with respect to the Collateral Obligation is then continuing and the Servicer has delivered to the Trustee an Officer’s certificate to the effect that the Servicer expects that the obligor will make payments of interest and principal in Cash on the Collateral Obligation as they become due and is current on such payments;

(iii) (A) if the rating by Moody’s of the Collateral Obligation is at least “Caa1” (and not on credit watch with negative implications) the Market Value of the Collateral Obligation is at least equal to 80% of its Principal Balance or (B) if the rating by Moody’s of the Collateral Obligation is less than “Caa1” or is “Caa1” and on credit watch with negative implications, the Market Value of the Collateral Obligation is at least equal to 85% of its Principal Balance; provided that the Market Value of the Collateral Obligation must be at least equal to 80% of its Principal Balance without regard to its rating and not determined in accordance with clause (b) of the definition of Market Value;

(iv) if an Insolvency Event has occurred with respect to the obligor of the Collateral Obligation, a bankruptcy court has authorized all payments of principal and interest payable on the Collateral Obligation;

(v) there is a rating of at least “Caa2” by Moody’s (if rated by Moody’s) (provided that if such rating is “Caa2”, such rating must not be on watch for possible downgrade by Moody’s); and

(vi) the Servicer has designated in writing to the Trustee the Collateral Obligation as a Current-Pay Obligation.

If the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that would otherwise be Current-Pay Obligations exceeds 5% of the Maximum Amount, all or a portion of one or more Collateral Obligations that would otherwise be Current-Pay Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance equal to the amount of the excess shall not be Current-Pay Obligations (and will therefore be Defaulted Collateral Obligations). The Servicer shall designate in writing to the Trustee the Collateral Obligations that shall not be Current-Pay Obligations pursuant to the preceding sentence as the Collateral Obligations (or portions thereof) that have the lowest Market Value on any applicable date of determination.

The Servicer may, with the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class, by notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Collateral Administrator, change the definition of “Current-Pay Obligation” or how Current-Pay Obligations are treated in this Indenture, subject to the satisfaction of the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency.

“Custodial Account”: The custodial account established in the name of the Trustee pursuant to Section 10.3(a).

“Custodian”: The meaning specified in the first sentence of Section 3.2(a) with respect to items of collateral referred to therein, and each entity with which an Account is maintained, as the context may require, each of which shall be a Securities Intermediary.

“Deep Discount Obligation”: Until the Market Value Percentage of the Collateral Obligation (other than a Structured Finance Obligation), as determined daily for any period of 30 consecutive days, equals or exceeds 90%, any Collateral Obligation acquired by the Issuer for a Purchase Price less than 85% of its Principal Balance or any Collateral Obligation acquired by the Issuer for a Purchase Price less than 85% but greater than or equal to 80% of its Principal Balance and which has a public Moody’s Rating that is equal to or better than “B3” (and not rated “B3” on watch for downgrade). Until the Market Value Percentage of a Structured Finance Obligation, as determined daily for any period of 60 consecutive days, equals or exceeds 85%, any Structured Finance Obligation acquired by the Issuer for a Purchase Price less than 75% of its Principal Balance. For such purpose, the Market Value Percentage of a Collateral Obligation on a day that is not a Business Day shall be deemed to be the Market Value Percentage of the Collateral Obligation on the immediately preceding Business Day.

“Default”: Any Event of Default or any occurrence that, with notice or the lapse of time or both, would become an Event of Default.

“Default Interest Rate”: With respect to any specified Class of Notes, the per annum interest rate equal to the Note Interest Rate payable on the Notes of the Class.

“Defaulted Collateral Obligation”: Any Collateral Obligation or other obligation included in the Collateral:

(i) as to which there has occurred and is continuing a default with respect to the payment of principal or interest (including the non-payment of any PIK Cash-Pay Interest) without giving effect to any applicable grace or waiver period (provided that if the Servicer certifies to the Trustee in writing that such default is for non-credit related reasons, the related Collateral Obligation shall not be treated as a Defaulted Collateral Obligation under this clause (i) unless and until such default has continued for a period of three (3) consecutive Business Days), unless in the case of a failure of the obligor to make required interest payments, the obligor has resumed current Cash payments of interest previously scheduled and unpaid and has paid in full any accrued interest due and payable thereon, in which case the Collateral Obligation shall cease to be classified as a Defaulted Collateral Obligation;

(ii) the maturity of all or a portion of the principal amount of such Collateral Obligation has been accelerated as a consequence of a default (other than any payment default) under the instruments evidencing or relating to such Collateral Obligation; unless such default or event of default has been fully cured and is no longer continuing and such acceleration has been rescinded;

(iii) with respect to which there has been effected any distressed exchange or other debt restructuring where the obligor has offered the holders thereof a new security or instrument or package of securities or instruments that, in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, either (x) amounts to a diminished financial obligation or (y) has the sole purpose of enabling the obligor to avoid a default;

(iv) (1) that is pari passu with or subordinated to other indebtedness for borrowed money owing by its obligor (“Other Indebtedness”), (2) the obligor has defaulted in the payment of principal or interest (without regard to any applicable grace or notice period and without regard to any waiver of the default) on the Other Indebtedness, unless, in the case of a failure of the obligor to make required interest payments, the obligor has resumed current Cash payments of interest previously scheduled and unpaid on the Other Indebtedness and has paid in full any accrued interest due and payable thereon, in which case the Collateral Obligation shall cease to be classified as a Defaulted Collateral Obligation and (3) the Servicer, provided that the related Collateral Obligation has not been downgraded after the default on such Other Indebtedness has occurred, determines (in its commercially reasonable judgment) that such Other Indebtedness is material;

(v) (other than a Current-Pay Obligation or a DIP Loan) as to which:

(A) an Insolvency Event has occurred with respect to its obligor;

(B) the obligation is rated “D”, “SD”, “C” or “CC” by S&P or was so rated immediately prior to such rating being withdrawn, or has previously been rated “CCC-” or lower by S&P and the rating has been withdrawn; or

(C) the obligor is assigned a probability of default rating of “D” by Moody’s;

(vi) if the Collateral Obligation is a Structured Finance Obligation, it is rated “CC” or below by S&P, or it was rated “CC” or below by S&P but the rating has since been withdrawn, or it is rated “Ca” or below by Moody’s, or it was rated “C” or below by Moody’s but the rating has since been withdrawn;

(vii) that is a Participation that would, if the underlying Loan were a Collateral Obligation, be a Defaulted Collateral Obligation under any of clauses (i) through (v) above or with respect to which the Participating Institution has defaulted in the performance of any of its payment obligations under the Participation;

(viii) that is a Synthetic Security referencing a Reference Obligation that would, if the Reference Obligation were a Collateral Obligation, be a Defaulted Collateral Obligation under any of clauses (i) through (vi) above or with respect to which the Synthetic Security Counterparty has defaulted in the performance of any of its payment obligations under the Synthetic Security; provided, however, with respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time: (x) a determination whether the Reference Obligations upon which such Synthetic Security is based would, if such Reference Obligations were Collateral Obligations, be a Defaulted Collateral

Obligation, shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct interest of the Issuer in each of the Reference Obligations on which such Synthetic Security is based in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation and (y) the “Defaulted Collateral Obligation” for purposes of this clause (viii) shall be limited to the Allocable Principal Balance of each Reference Obligation that would, if the Reference Obligation were a Collateral Obligation, be a Defaulted Collateral Obligation under any of clauses (i) through (vi) above;

(ix) that is a Written-Down Obligation;

(x) that is a DIP Loan as to which an order has been entered converting the debtor’s chapter 11 case to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code; or

(xi) that is declared to be a Defaulted Collateral Obligation by the Servicer.

Any Collateral Obligation that is classified as a Defaulted Collateral Obligation shall cease to be so classified if the Collateral Obligation, at any date thereafter,

(1) would not otherwise be classified as a Defaulted Collateral Obligation in accordance with this definition; and

(2) otherwise meets the Eligibility Criteria as of that date.

If any portion of a Collateral Obligation has a maturity later than one year after the Stated Maturity of the Notes due to a change in the payment schedule of the Collateral Obligation occurring after its acquisition by the Issuer, that portion of the Collateral Obligation shall be considered a Defaulted Collateral Obligation.

“Defaulted Hedge Termination Payment”: Any termination payment required to be made by the Issuer to a Hedge Counterparty pursuant to a Hedge Agreement upon a termination of the Hedge Agreement in respect of which the Hedge Counterparty is the sole Defaulting Party or Affected Party (each as defined in the Hedge Agreements).

“Defaulted Interest”: Any interest payable in respect of any Class of Notes that is not punctually paid or duly provided for on the applicable Payment Date or at Stated Maturity.

“Defaulted Interest Charge”: To the extent lawful, interest on any Defaulted Interest at the Default Interest Rate.

“Defaulted Synthetic Security Termination Payments”: Any termination payment required to be made by the Issuer to a Synthetic Security Counterparty pursuant to a Synthetic Security upon the occurrence of any “event of default” or “termination event” (each as defined in the applicable Synthetic Security) under such Synthetic Security as to which such Synthetic Security Counterparty is the Defaulting Party or the sole Affected Party (each as defined in the applicable Synthetic Security).

“Deferred Interest”: With respect to any specified Class of Deferred Interest Notes, the meaning specified in Section 2.8(a).

“Deferred Interest Notes”: The Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes.

“Definitive Notes”: The meaning specified in Section 2.11(b).

“Delayed Drawdown Loan”: A Loan or any Synthetic Security with a Reference Obligation that:

- (i) requires the Issuer to make one or more future advances to the borrower under its Underlying Instruments;
- (ii) specifies a maximum amount that can be borrowed on one or more fixed borrowing dates; and
- (iii) does not permit the re-borrowing of any amount previously repaid.

A Loan or Synthetic Security shall only be considered to be a Delayed Drawdown Loan for so long as its unused commitment amount is greater than zero and for purposes of the Concentration Limitations only unfunded portions will count as Delayed Drawdown Loans.

“Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account”: The trust account established pursuant to Section 10.3(b).

“Deliver” or “Delivered” or “Delivery”: The taking of the following steps:

- (i) in the case of each Certificated Security (other than a Clearing Corporation Security) or Instrument,
  - (A) causing the delivery to the Custodian of the original executed certificate or other writing that constitutes or evidences such Certificated Security (UCC) or Instrument, registered in the name of the Custodian or endorsed, by an effective endorsement, to the Custodian in blank (unless such Certificated Security or Instrument is in bearer form in which case delivery alone shall suffice),
  - (B) causing the Custodian to continuously indicate on its books and records that such Certificated Security (UCC) or Instrument is credited to the applicable Account, and
  - (C) causing the Custodian to maintain continuous possession of such Certificated Security (UCC) or Instrument;
- (ii) in the case of each Uncertificated Security (other than a Clearing Corporation Security),
  - (A) causing such Uncertificated Security to be continuously registered on the books of the issuer thereof to the Custodian, and

(B) causing the Custodian to continuously indicate on its books and records that such Uncertificated Security is credited to the applicable Account;

(iii) in the case of each Clearing Corporation Security,

(A) causing the relevant Clearing Corporation to continuously credit such Clearing Corporation Security to the securities account of the Custodian at such Clearing Corporation, and

(B) causing the Custodian to continuously indicate on its books and records that such Clearing Corporation Security is credited to the applicable Account;

(iv) in the case of any Financial Asset that is maintained in book-entry form on the records of a Federal Reserve Bank ("FRB"),

(A) causing the continuous crediting of such Financial Asset to a securities account of the Custodian at any FRB, and

(B) causing the Custodian to continuously indicate on its books and records that such Financial Asset is credited to the applicable Account;

(v) in the case of each Financial Asset not covered by the foregoing subclauses (i) through (iv) and (vi),

(A) causing the transfer of such Financial Asset to the Custodian in accordance with applicable law and regulation, and

(B) causing the Custodian to continuously credit such Financial Asset to the applicable Account; and

(vi) in the case of cash or money,

(A) causing the delivery of such cash or money to the Custodian,

(B) causing the Custodian to treat such cash or money as a Financial Asset maintained by such Custodian for credit to the applicable Account in accordance with the provisions of Article 8 of the UCC, and

(C) causing the Custodian to continuously indicate on its books and records that such cash or money is credited to the applicable Account;

(vii) in the case of each general intangible (including any Participation in which the Participation is not represented by an Instrument or Certificated Security), by:

(1) either

(A) causing the filing of a Financing Statement in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in the District of Columbia, Washington, DC, within 10 days after the Closing Date, or

(B) (1) causing the Custodian to become and remain the owner thereof, (2) causing the Custodian to credit and continuously identify such general intangible to the relevant Issuer Account, (3) causing the Custodian to agree to treat such general intangible as a Financial Asset and (4) causing the Custodian to agree pursuant to the Securities Account Control Agreement to comply with Entitlement Orders related thereto originated by the Trustee without further consent by the Issuer; and in addition, the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will obtain any and all consents required by the underlying agreements relating to any such general intangibles for the transfer of ownership to the Issuer and the pledge hereunder (except to the extent that the requirement for such consent is rendered ineffective under Section 9-406 of the UCC).

(2) causing the registration of this Indenture in the Register of Mortgages of the Issuer at the Issuer's registered office in the Cayman Islands;

In addition to the methods specified above, any Collateral may be delivered in accordance with any other method specified in an Opinion of Counsel delivered to the Trustee as sufficient to establish a first priority perfected security (subject to customary exceptions and qualifications) interest therein.

“Depository” or “DTC”: The Depository Trust Company and its nominees.

“Determination Date”: The last day of any Due Period.

“DIP Loan”: Any Loan:

(i) that has a rating assigned by Moody's (or if the Loan does not have a rating assigned by Moody's, the Servicer has commenced the process of having a rating assigned by Moody's within five Business Days of the date the Loan is acquired by the Issuer) and a rating assigned by S&P (or if the Loan does not have a rating assigned by S&P, the Servicer has commenced the process of having a rating assigned by S&P within two Business Days of the date the Loan is acquired by the Issuer);

(ii) that is an obligation of a debtor in possession as described in Section 1107 of the Bankruptcy Code or a trustee (if appointment of a trustee has been ordered pursuant to Section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code) (a “Debtor”) organized under the laws of the United States or any state of the United States; and

(iii) the terms of which have been approved by a final order of the United States Bankruptcy Court, United States District Court, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, the enforceability of which order is not subject to any pending contested matter or proceeding (as those terms are defined in the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure) and which order provides that:

(A) the Loan is secured by liens on the Debtor's otherwise unencumbered assets pursuant to Section 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(B) the Loan is secured by liens of equal or senior priority on property of the Debtor's estate that is otherwise subject to a lien pursuant to Section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(C) the Loan is fully secured (based on a current valuation or appraisal report) by junior liens on the Debtor's encumbered assets; or

(D) if any portion of the Loan is unsecured, the repayment of the Loan retains priority over all other administrative expenses pursuant to Section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code (and in the case of this clause (D), before the acquisition of the Loan, the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency).

"Diversity Score": A single number that indicates collateral concentration in terms of both issuer and industry concentration, calculated as set forth in Schedule 4 to this Indenture.

"Diversity Test": A test that will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Diversity Score equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score and, with respect to the Interim Target Date, will be satisfied if the Diversity Score equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score multiplied by the Interim Diversity Factor and, with respect to the Closing Date, will be satisfied if the Diversity Score equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score multiplied by the Closing Date Diversity Factor. For purposes of calculating the Diversity Test, any Structured Finance Obligation that is (i) a collateralized loan obligation (including any collateralized loan obligation primarily backed by other collateralized loan obligations), (ii) a Synthetic Security with respect to which the Reference Obligation is a collateralized loan obligation or (iii) a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, will be disregarded.

"Dollar" or "U.S. Dollar" or "U.S.$": A dollar or other equivalent unit in such coin or currency of the United States of America as at the time shall be legal tender for all debts, public and private.

"Domicile" or "Domiciled": With respect to each Collateral Obligation, either (i) the jurisdiction of incorporation, organization or creation of the related obligor or (ii) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with an obligor organized, incorporated or created in a Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction, the jurisdiction in which, in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, the related obligor conducts substantially all of its business operations and in which the assets primarily responsible for generating its revenues are located.

“Due Date”: Each date on which any payment is due on a Pledged Obligation in accordance with its terms.

“Due Period”: With respect to any Payment Date, for all purposes other than payments and receipts under Hedge Agreements, the period from the Business Day after the eighth Business Day before the previous Payment Date (or in the case of the first Payment Date, from the Closing Date) up to but excluding the Business Day after the eighth Business Day before the Payment Date (or in the case of the final Payment Date or any Payment Date that is a Redemption Date, through the Business Day before the Payment Date and for payments and receipts under Hedge Agreements the period from the day after the previous Payment Date (or in the case of the first Payment Date from the Closing Date) through the Payment Date).

“Eligibility Criteria”: The meaning specified in Section 12.2(b).

“Eligible Collateral”: (i) Cash, (ii) U.S. Treasury obligations, (iii) U.S. agency obligations or (iv) commercial paper obligations rated at least “P-1” by Moody’s (and not on watch for downgrade) and “A-1+” by S&P, in each case to collateralize fully on a mark-to-market basis the obligations of a Hedge Counterparty under the related Hedge Agreement; provided in each case to collateralize fully in accordance with S&P’s current published counterparty criteria (as determined by the Servicer).

“Eligible Country”: The United States, Canada and any country classified by Moody’s as a Moody’s Group I Country, Moody’s Group II Country or Moody’s Group III Country and, in each case, has an S&P foreign currency rating of at least “AA” and a Moody’s foreign currency rating of at least “Aa2”.

“Eligible Equity Security”: An equity security acquired in connection with the workout or restructuring of any Collateral Obligation by, or on behalf of, the Issuer that (i) is publicly traded on an Established Securities Market or (ii) the Market Value of which is higher than the Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligation with respect to which such equity security has been acquired by the Issuer (for the avoidance of doubt, the Principal Balance of any Eligible Equity Security shall be zero for purposes of determining the Overcollateralization Test).

“Eligible Investments”: Any Dollar-denominated obligation or asset that, when it is pledged by the Issuer to the Trustee under this Indenture, is one or more of the following:

- (a) Cash;
- (b) direct Registered obligations of, and Registered obligations the timely payment of principal and interest on which is fully and expressly guaranteed by, the United States or any agency or instrumentality of the United States the obligations of which are expressly backed by the full faith and credit of the United States, which in each case are not zero coupon securities;
- (c) demand and time deposits in, trust accounts, certificates of deposit payable within 91 days of issuance of, bankers’ acceptances payable within 91 days of issuance issued by, or Federal funds sold by any depository institution or trust company incorporated under the laws of the United States or any state thereof and subject to supervision and examination by Federal and/or state banking authorities so long as the commercial paper and/or the debt obligations of such depository institution or trust company (or, in the case of the principal depository institution in a holding company system, the commercial paper or debt obligations of such holding company), at the time of such acquisition or contractual commitment providing for such acquisition and throughout the term thereof, have a credit rating of not less than “Aaa” by Moody’s and “AAA” by S&P and in each case are not on watch for downgrade, or “P-1” by Moody’s and “A-1+” by S&P in the case of commercial paper and short-term debt obligations; provided that in any case, the issuer thereof must have at the time of such acquisition a long-term credit rating of not less than “AA-” by S&P and “Aa3” by Moody’s and a short-term rating of “A-1+” by S&P and “P-1” by Moody’s, and if so rated, is not on watch for downgrade;

(d) commercial paper or other short-term obligations with a maturity which, even after giving effect to any extendibility feature thereof, does not exceed 183 days from the date of issuance and having at the time of such acquisition a credit rating of at least “P-1” by Moody’s and “A-1+” by S&P; provided that, in any case, the issuer thereof must have at the time of such acquisition a long-term credit rating of not less than “Aa2” by Moody’s and “AA-” by S&P, and if so rated, such rating is not on watch for downgrade;

(e) unleveraged repurchase obligations with respect to any security described in clause (b) above entered into with a U.S. federal or state depository institution or trust company (acting as principal) described in clause (c) above or entered into with a corporation (acting as principal) whose long-term credit rating is not less than “Aaa” by Moody’s and “AAA” by S&P and in each case are not on watch for downgrade or whose short-term credit rating is “P-1” by Moody’s and “A-1+” by S&P at the time of such acquisition and throughout the term thereof; provided that, if such repurchase obligation has a maturity of longer than 91 days, the counterparty thereto must also have at the time of such acquisition and throughout the term thereof a long-term credit rating of not less than “Aa2” by Moody’s and “AAA” by S&P, and if so rated, such rating is not on watch for downgrade;

(f) any money market funds (including any fund for which the Trustee or an Affiliate of the Trustee serves as an investment adviser, administrator, shareholder servicing agent, custodian or subcustodian, notwithstanding that (A) the Trustee or an Affiliate of the Trustee charges and collects fees and expenses from such funds for services rendered (provided that such charges, fees and expenses are on terms consistent with terms negotiated at arm’s length) and (B) the Trustee charges and collects fees and expenses for services rendered, pursuant to this Indenture) (i) which funds have at the time of acquisition and throughout the term thereof a credit rating of “Aaa” and “MR1+” by Moody’s and “AAA” by S&P, respectively (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or (ii) that are registered as money market funds under Rule 2a-7 under the Investment Company Act and have a credit rating of “Aaa” from Moody’s and “AAAm” or “AAAmG” from S&P (and not on credit watch with negative implications);

(g) a guaranteed reinvestment agreement from a bank (if treated as a deposit by such bank), insurance company or other corporation or entity organized under the laws of the United States or any state thereof (if treated as debt by such insurance company or other corporation or entity), providing for periodic payments thereunder during each Due Period; provided that each such agreement provides that it is terminable by the purchaser, without premium or penalty, in the event that the rating assigned to such agreement by either Moody’s or S&P is at any time lower than the then current ratings assigned to the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C

Notes, the Class D Notes or the Class E Notes; provided, further, that, at the time of acquisition and throughout the term thereof, the issuer of such agreement has a senior unsecured long-term debt rating, issuer rating or counterparty rating of at least “Aaa” by Moody’s, a short-term debt rating of “P-1” by Moody’s (and not on watch for downgrade), a short-term debt rating of at least “A-1+” by S&P and a long-term debt rating of at least “AAA” by S&P (and not on watch for downgrade); and

(h) such other obligations or assets for which Rating Confirmation has been received;

and, in each case, with a stated maturity (giving effect to any applicable grace period) that is the earlier of (i) 60 days from acquisition and (ii) the Business Day before the Payment Date next succeeding the date of acquisition.

Eligible Investments on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, or the Synthetic Security Collateral Account must have a stated maturity no later than one Business Day after the date of their purchase.

Eligible Investments may not include:

(1) any interest-only security, any security purchased at a price in excess of 100% of its par value, any mortgage-backed security or any security whose repayment is subject to substantial non-credit related risk as determined in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer;

(2) any security whose rating assigned by S&P includes the subscript “r”, “t”, “p”, “pi”, “q” or “f”;

(3) any floating rate security whose interest rate is inversely or otherwise not proportionately related to an interest rate index or is calculated as other than the sum of an interest rate index plus a spread (which spread may be zero);

(4) any security that is subject to an exchange or tender offer; or

(5) any security that has payments subject to foreign or United States withholding tax.

Eligible Investments may include Eligible Investments for which the Trustee or an Affiliate of the Trustee is the issuer or depository institution or provides services. Eligible Investments may not include obligations principally secured by real property.

“Emerging Market Security”: A security or obligation issued by a sovereign or non-sovereign issuer located in a country (excluding the Cayman Islands, Bermuda, the British Virgin Islands, the Netherlands Antilles, and the Channel Islands):

(i) that is in Latin America, Asia, Africa, Eastern Europe, or the Caribbean; or

(ii) the long-term foreign currency debt obligations of which are rated below “Aa2” or “Aa2” and on credit watch with negative implications by Moody’s or the foreign currency issuer credit rating of which is below “AA” by S&P.

“Entitlement Order”: The meaning specified in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the UCC.

“ERISA”: The United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

“Established Securities Market”: Any national securities exchange registered under Section 6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or exempted from registration because of the limited volume of transaction; any foreign securities exchange that, under the laws of the jurisdiction where it is organized, satisfies regulatory requirements that are analogous to the regulatory requirements imposed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; any regional or local exchange; and any interdealer quotation system that regularly disseminates firm buy or sell quotations by identified brokers or dealers, by electronic means or otherwise.

“Euroclear”: Euroclear Bank S.A./N.V., as operator of the Euroclear system.

“Event of Default”: The meaning specified in Section 5.1.

“Excel Default Model Input File”: An electronic spreadsheet file in Microsoft excel format to be provided to S&P, which file shall include the balance of Cash and Eligible Investments in each account and the following information (to the extent such information is not confidential) with respect to each Collateral Obligation or Reference Obligation in the case of a Synthetic Security:

(a) the name and country of domicile of the issuer thereof and the particular obligation or security held by the Issuer,

(b) the CUSIP or other applicable identification number associated with such Collateral Obligation,

(c) the par value of such Collateral Obligation,

(d) the type of obligation or security (including, by way of example, whether such Collateral Obligation is a bond, loan, Cov-lite Loan or asset-backed security), using such abbreviations as may be selected by the Trustee,

(e) a description of the index or other applicable benchmark upon which the interest payable on such Collateral Obligation is based (including, by way of example, fixed rate, step-up rate, zero coupon and LIBOR),

(f) the coupon (in the case of a Collateral Obligation which bears interest at a fixed rate) or the spread over the applicable index (in the case of a Collateral Obligation which bears interest at a floating rate),

(g) the S&P Industry Classification for such Collateral Obligation,

- (h) the stated maturity date of such Collateral Obligation,
- (i) the S&P Rating of such Collateral Obligation or the issuer thereof, as applicable,
- (j) the applicable S&P Recovery Rate, and
- (k) such other information as the Trustee may determine to include in such file.

“Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations”: The Principal Balance of all CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations in excess of 7.5% of the Maximum Amount on the relevant Determination Date.

“Exchange Act”: The United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

“Excluded Property”: (i) U.S.$250 (attributable to the issue and allotment of the Issuer Ordinary Shares) and a U.S.$250 transaction fee paid to the Issuer, the bank account in which those amounts are credited in the Cayman Islands and any interest earned on those amounts, (ii) any amounts credited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account and the Preference Shares Distribution Account from time to time and (iii) any Margin Stock.

“Expense Reimbursement Account”: The trust account established pursuant to Section 10.3(c).

“Extended Replacement Period End Date”: If an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Replacement Period End Date (or, in the case of the first Extension pursuant to Section 2.4, the Payment Date in May 2018); provided that the “Extended Replacement Period End Date” will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in May 2030.

“Extended Stated Maturity Date”: If a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Stated Maturity Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Stated Maturity Date, the Payment Date in November 2022); provided that the “Extended Stated Maturity Date” will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in November 2034.

“Extended Weighted Average Life Date”: If a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Weighted Average Life Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Weighted Average Life Date, May 2022); provided that the “Extended Weighted Average Life Date” will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in May 2034.

“Extension”: An extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity of the Notes and the Weighted Average Life Test pursuant to Section 2.4.

“Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification”: With respect to each Maturity Extension and each beneficial owner of Notes other than Extension Sale Securities, the written certification by such beneficial owner acceptable to the Issuer to the effect that it held Notes other than Extension Sale Securities on the applicable Extension Effective Date, including the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof in the case of the Notes and wire transfer instructions for the Extension Bonus Payment and any required documentation thereunder.

“Extension Bonus Payment”: With respect to each Maturity Extension, a single payment to each applicable beneficial owner set forth in Section 2.4(g), in an amount equal to (1) in the case of the Class A Notes, 0.25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof held by such beneficial owner as of the applicable Extension Effective Date, (2) in the case of the Class B Notes, 0.25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof held by such beneficial owner as of the applicable Extension Effective Date, (3) in the case of the Class C Notes, 0.25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof held by such beneficial owner as of the applicable Extension Effective Date, (4) in the case of the Class D Notes, 0.25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof held by such beneficial owner as of the applicable Extension Effective Date and (5) in the case of the Class E Notes, 0.25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof held by such beneficial owner as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

“Extension Conditions”: The meaning specified in Section 2.4.

“Extension Determination Date”: The 8th Business Day prior to each Extension Effective Date.

“Extension Effective Date”: If an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extension Effective Date (or, in the case of the first Extension Effective Date, the Payment Date in May 2012).

“Extension Notice”: The meaning specified in Section 2.4.

“Extension Purchase Price”: The purchase price payable by the Extension Qualifying Purchasers for Extension Sale Securities in connection with each Maturity Extension, if any, in an amount equal to (i) in the case of the Notes, the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest (including Deferred Interest, if any) as of the applicable Extension Effective Date (giving effect to any amounts paid to the Holder on such date), and (ii) in the case of the Preference Shares, an amount that, when taken together with all payments and distributions made in respect of such Preference Shares since the Closing Date would cause such Preference Shares to have received (as of the date of purchase thereof) a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 12% (assuming such purchase date was a Payment Date); provided, however, that if the applicable Extension Effective Date is on or after the date on which such Holders have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12%, the applicable Extension Purchase Price for such Preference Shares shall be zero.

“Extension Qualifying Purchasers”: The Servicer (or any of its Affiliates acting as principal or agent); provided that in the event that the Servicer elects not to purchase Extension Sale Securities from Holders pursuant to the Extension Conditions set forth in Section 2.4(c), “Extension Qualifying Purchasers” shall mean one or more qualifying purchasers (which may include the Initial Purchaser or any of its Affiliates acting as principal or agent) designated by the Servicer; provided, however, none of the Servicer, the Initial Purchaser or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any duty to act as an Extension Qualifying Purchaser.

“Extension Sale Notice”: The meaning specified in Section 2.4.

“Extension Sale Notice Period”: The meaning specified in Section 2.4.

“Extension Sale Securities”: The meaning specified in Section 2.4.

“Face Amount”: With respect to any Preference Share, the amount set forth therein as the “face amount” thereof, which “face amount” shall be $1,000 per Preference Share.

“Finance Lease”: A lease agreement or other agreement entered into in connection with and evidencing a Leasing Finance Transaction; provided that such Finance Lease shall have a rating by Moody’s.

“Financial Asset”: The meaning specified in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the UCC.

“Financing Statements”: Financing statements relating to the Collateral naming the Issuer as debtor and the Trustee on behalf of the Secured Parties as secured party.

“Fixed Rate Excess”: As of any Measurement Date, a fraction whose numerator is the product of:

(i) the greater of zero and the excess of the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon for the Measurement Date over the minimum percentage specified to pass the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test; and

(ii) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Fixed Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date,

and whose denominator is the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date.

In computing the Fixed Rate Excess on any Measurement Date, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon for the Measurement Date will be computed as if the Spread Excess were equal to zero.

“Fixed Rate Obligation”: Any Collateral Obligation that bears interest at a fixed rate.

“Floating Rate Obligation”: Any Collateral Obligation that bears interest based on a floating rate index.

“Form-Approved Synthetic Security”: A Synthetic Security:

(i) (A) the Reference Obligation of which satisfies the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and could be purchased by the Issuer without any required action by the Rating Agencies, without satisfaction of the Rating Condition or which the Rating Agencies have otherwise approved; or

(B) the Reference Obligation of which would satisfy clause (A) above but for the currency in which the Reference Obligation is payable and the Synthetic Security is payable in Dollars, does not provide for physical settlement, and does not expose the Issuer to Dollar currency risk;

(ii) the Synthetic Security Agreement of which conforms (but for the amount and timing of periodic payments, the name of the Reference Obligation, the notional amount, the effective date, the termination date, and other similar necessary changes) to a form that has been expressly identified and approved in writing in connection with a request under this Indenture by Moody's and S&P;

(iii) a copy of the Synthetic Security Agreement of which has been delivered to the Holders of the Class A Notes by the Trustee at the expense of the Co-Issuers and upon being furnished with a copy of the same by the Servicer; and

(iv) that is with a counterparty with respect to which the Rating Condition has been satisfied by each of Moody's and S&P prior to the acquisition of any such Form-Approved Synthetic Security, and such approval has not been withdrawn.

Moody's or S&P may at any time, by notice to the Servicer, withdraw its approval of any such form. A withdrawal of approval shall have no effect on any Synthetic Security acquired, entered into, or committed to before the date on which the Servicer receives the notice of withdrawal. For the avoidance of doubt, no form of Synthetic Security Agreement approved by S&P will be in place as of the Closing Date.

"Funded Amount": With respect to any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan at any time, the aggregate principal amount of advances or other extensions of credit made thereunder by the Issuer that are outstanding and have not been repaid at such time.

"GAAP": The meaning specified in Section 6.3(j).

"Global Notes": Any Regulation S Global Notes or Rule 144A Global Notes.

"Grant": To grant, bargain, sell, warrant, alienate, remise, demise, release, convey, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, create, and grant a security interest in and right of setoff against, deposit, set over, and confirm. A Grant of the Pledged Obligations, or of any other instrument, shall include all rights, powers, and options of the granting party thereunder, including the immediate continuing right to claim for, collect, receive, and receipt for principal and interest payments in respect of the Pledged Obligations, and all other monies payable thereunder, to give and receive notices and other communications, to make waivers or other agreements, to exercise all rights and options, to bring Proceedings in the name of the granting party or otherwise, and generally to do and receive anything that the granting party is or may be entitled to do or receive thereunder or with respect thereto.

“Hedge Agreements”: Collectively, all interest rate cap or interest rate swap agreements between the Issuer and any Hedge Counterparty, and any replacement agreement entered into pursuant to Section 15.2.

“Hedge Counterparty”: Any counterparty, to the extent that when the Issuer enters into any Hedge Agreement with such counterparty, such counterparty satisfies the requirements of Section 15.2(b) (subject to satisfaction of the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency).

“Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account”: The trust account established pursuant to Section 10.3(d).

“Hedge Termination Receipt”: Any termination payment paid by the Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer upon any early termination of a Hedge Agreement with respect to which the Hedge Counterparty is the sole Defaulting Party or Affected Party (each as defined in the Hedge Agreements).

“HFP”: Highland Financial Partners, L.P. (an Affiliate of the Servicer).

“High-Yield Bond”: Any debt security, other than a Loan or a Structured Finance Obligation, that is either Registered or, if not Registered, (i) it is issued by an obligor that is not resident in the United States, (ii) the payments on it are not subject to United States withholding tax and (iii) it is held through a financial institution pursuant to the procedures described in Treasury Regulation section 1.165-12(c)(3).

“Holder”: Of any Note, the person whose name appears on the Indenture Register as the registered holder of the Note; and of any Preference Share, the person whose name appears in the share register of the Issuer related thereto as the registered holder of such Preference Share.

“Indenture”: This instrument as originally executed and, if from time to time supplemented or amended by one or more indentures supplemental to this Indenture entered into pursuant to this Indenture, as so supplemented or amended.

“Indenture Register”: The meaning specified in Section 2.6(a).

“Indenture Registrar”: The meaning specified in Section 2.6(a).

“Independent”: As to any person, any other person (including, in the case of an accountant or lawyer, a firm of accountants or lawyers, and any member of the firm, or an investment bank and any member of the bank) who

(i) does not have and is not committed to acquire any material direct or any material indirect financial interest in the person or in any Affiliate of the person, and

(ii) is not connected with the person as an Officer, employee, promoter, underwriter, voting trustee, partner, director, or person performing similar functions.

“Independent” when used with respect to any accountant may include an accountant who audits the books of the person if in addition to satisfying the criteria above the accountant is independent with respect to the person within the meaning of Rule 101 of the Code of Ethics of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Whenever any Independent person’s opinion or certificate is to be furnished to the Trustee, the opinion or certificate shall state that the signer has read this definition and that the signer is Independent within the meaning of this Indenture.

“Initial Consent Period”: The period of 15 Business Days from but excluding the date on which the Trustee mailed notice of a proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to Section 8.2(c) to the Holders of Securities.

“Initial Purchaser”: Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated.

“Initial Rating”: The ratings by Moody’s and S&P with respect to each Class of Notes provided in the table in Section 2.3(a).

“Insolvency Event”: With respect to any person, means that:

(i) an involuntary proceeding shall be commenced or an involuntary petition shall be filed seeking:

(A) liquidation, reorganization, or other relief in respect of the person or its debts, or of all or substantially all of its assets, under any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, or similar law now or hereafter in effect, or

(B) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, or similar official for the person or for all or substantially all of its assets, and, in any such case, the proceeding or petition shall continue undismissed for 30 days; or an order or decree approving or ordering any of the foregoing shall be entered, or

(ii) the person shall:

(A) voluntarily commence any proceeding or file any petition seeking liquidation, reorganization, or other relief under any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, or similar law now or hereafter in effect,

(B) consent to the institution of, or fail to contest in a timely and appropriate manner, any proceeding or petition described in clause (i) above,

(C) apply for or consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, or conservator or for all or substantially all of its assets,

(D) file an answer admitting the material allegations of a petition filed against it in any such proceeding, or

(E) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors.

“Institutional Accredited Investor”: An institutional accredit investor as defined in clause (1), (2), (3) or (7) of Rule 501(a) under Regulation D under the Securities Act.

“Instrument”: The meaning specified in Section 9-102(a)(47) of the UCC.

“Interest Coverage Ratio”: With respect to any specified Class of Notes on any Measurement Date, the ratio calculated by dividing:

(i) the sum of:

(A) the Interest Proceeds received or scheduled to be received with respect to the Due Period in which the Measurement Date occurs, minus

(B) Aggregate Base Fees and Expenses on the related Payment Date, by:

(ii) all accrued and unpaid interest on such Class of Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it (excluding any Deferred Interest on the Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it) on the related Payment Date; provided that the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes shall constitute one Class of Notes for purposes of the Interest Coverage Ratio relating to such Classes of Notes.

For purposes of the Interest Coverage Ratio, only the amount of any interest payment (including any “gross up” payment) on any Collateral Obligation in excess of any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction on any date of determination shall be included in Interest Proceeds.

“Interest Coverage Test”: A test the first Measurement Date for which will be on the second Payment Date and that is satisfied with respect to any specified Class of Notes if, as of the second Payment Date and any Measurement Date thereafter on which any Notes remain Outstanding, the Interest Coverage Ratio equals or exceeds the applicable required level in the table below for the specified Class:

Test	Required Level
Class A/B Interest Coverage Test	125.00 %
Class C Interest Coverage Test	115.00 %
Class D Interest Coverage Test	110.00 %
Class E Interest Coverage Test	105.00 %

“Interest Diversion Ratio”: As of any Measurement Date, the ratio obtained by dividing:

- (i) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator by
- (ii) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes (including any Deferred Interest on any Class of Notes).

“Interest Diversion Test”: A test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date on which any Notes remain Outstanding, if the Interest Diversion Ratio as of such Measurement Date is at least equal to 106.00%.

“Interest Period”: Initially, the period from and including the Closing Date to but excluding the first Payment Date, and, thereafter, each successive period from and including each Payment Date to but excluding the following Payment Date.

“Interest Proceeds”: With respect to any Due Period, the sum (without duplication) of all amounts received in Cash during the Due Period (or as otherwise specified below) by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral that are:

- (i) payments of interest, fees, and commissions (excluding (A) Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal, (B) interest and dividends on Workout Assets, (C) fees and commissions from Defaulted Collateral Obligations, and (D) syndication and other up-front fees and any up-front fixed payments received in connection with entering into a Synthetic Security);
- (ii) any portion of the Sale Proceeds of a Collateral Obligation (other than a Defaulted Collateral Obligation) representing Accrued Interest On Sale;
- (iii) all payments of principal on, or disposition proceeds from the sale of, Eligible Investments to the extent purchased with Interest Proceeds;
- (iv) payments with respect to the Hedge Agreements received on or before the related Payment Date (other than any amount payable thereunder because of any early termination or notional amount reduction), but not any Sale Proceeds from any of these instruments (except to the extent that they were purchased with Interest Proceeds);
- (v) all fees received pursuant to any Securities Lending Agreements;
- (vi) amounts in the Collection Account designated for distribution as Interest Proceeds pursuant to the Priority of Payments;
- (vii) all earnings on amounts in the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account and the Revolving Reserve Account deposited to the Collection Account in accordance with Section 10.3(b);

(viii) amounts in the Expense Reimbursement Account on the Payment Date for the relevant Due Period; and

(ix) any recoveries (including interest) received on a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation in excess of the principal balance of such Non-Performing Collateral Obligation (as of the date the related Collateral Obligation became a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation and excluding from such principal balance any deferred interest on Non-Performing Collateral Obligations that are PIK Securities).

Interest Proceeds shall not include the Excluded Property and Interest Proceeds shall not include earnings on amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account to the extent the earnings are payable by the Issuer to a Securities Lending Counterparty.

Each reference in the definition of “Interest Proceeds” to a Collateral Obligation shall include a Collateral Obligation that has been loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement and Interest Proceeds shall include any amounts referred to in clauses (i) through (iii) above received by the Issuer in respect of the Collateral Obligation indirectly from the related Securities Lending Counterparty pursuant to the Securities Lending Agreement.

With respect to any Payment Date after the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes has been paid in full, or so long as the Class A Notes are no longer Outstanding, if the Coverage Tests are at the same level as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, Interest Proceeds in an amount equal to the Interest Proceeds due and payable on such Payment Date to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date that are distributed to such Holders by way of Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of Cash pursuant to Sections 11.1(b) and (c)(i) will be treated for all purposes by the Issuer and the Servicer as Principal Proceeds.

“Interest Reserve Account”: The trust account established pursuant to Section 10.3(j) hereof.

“Interest Reserve Amount”: U.S. $2,000,000.

“Interim Diversity Factor”: 95%.

“Interim Target Date”: May 27, 2008.

“Interim Target Test”: A test that will be satisfied on the Interim Target Date if (i) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all items of Collateral Obligation which the Issuer has purchased or has entered into binding commitments to purchase is at least $484,500,000, and (ii) the following tests are satisfied: (A) the Diversity Test, (B) the Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test, (C) the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, (D) the Weighted Average Spread Test and (E) the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test.

“Interim Targets”: The meaning specified in Section 7.19(h).

“Interim Target Failure”: The meaning specified in Section 7.19(h).

“Investment Company Act”: The United States Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

“Insurer”: The meaning specified in Section 14.3.

“Irish Listing Agent”: Dillon Eustace.

“Irish Paying Agent”: The meaning specified in Section 7.2.

“ISE”: The Irish Stock Exchange.

“Issuer”: The Person named as such on the first page of this Indenture.

“Issuer Accounts”: The meaning assigned in the Granting Clauses.

“Issuer Order” and “Issuer Request”: A written order or request dated and signed in the name of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, or by the Servicer by an Authorized Officer of the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer.

“Issuer Ordinary Shares”: The ordinary shares, par value $1.00 per share, of the Issuer which have been issued by the Issuer and are outstanding from time to time.

“Junior Class”: With respect to a particular Class of Notes, each Class of Notes that is subordinated to that Class, as indicated in Section 13.1.

“Leasing Finance Transaction”: Any transaction pursuant to which the obligations of the lessee to pay rent or other amounts on a triple net basis under any lease of (or other arrangement conveying the right to use) real or personal property, or a combination thereof, are required to be classified and accounted for as a capital lease on a balance sheet of such lessee under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America; but only if (a) such lease or other transaction provides for the unconditional obligation of the lessee to pay a stated amount of principal no later than a stated maturity date, together with interest thereon, and the payment of such obligation is not subject to any material non-credit related risk as determined by the Servicer, (b) the obligations of the lessee in respect of such lease or other transaction are fully secured, directly or indirectly, by the property that is the subject of such lease and (c) the interest held by the Issuer in respect of such lease or other transaction is treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

“LIBOR”: The offered rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent for any Interest Period, for three month Dollar deposits that appears on Reuters Screen LIBOR01 Page (or 3750) as reported on Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News (or a page that replaces Reuters Screen LIBOR01 Page (or 3750) for the purpose of displaying comparable rates), as of 11:00 A.M. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period.

If, on the second Business Day before the first day of any relevant Interest Period, that rate does not appear on Reuters Screen LIBOR01 Page (or 3750) as reported on Bloomberg

Financial Market Commodities News (or a page that replaces Reuters Screen LIBOR01 Page (or 3750) for the purpose of displaying comparable rates), the Calculation Agent shall determine the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations of the Reference Banks to prime banks in the London interbank market for three month Dollar deposits in Europe, by reference to requests by the Calculation Agent to four major banks in the London interbank market selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer) (the “Reference Banks”) for quotations as of approximately 11:00 A.M. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of the Interest Period. If at least two of the Reference Banks provide quotations as requested, LIBOR shall equal such arithmetic mean. If fewer than two Reference Banks provide quotations, LIBOR shall be the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations that one or more leading banks in New York City selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer) are quoting to the principal London offices of leading banks in the London interbank market on the second Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period for three month Dollar deposits.

If the Calculation Agent is unable to determine a rate in accordance with any of the above procedures, LIBOR for the Interest Period shall be calculated on the last day of the Interest Period and shall be the arithmetic mean of the rate of interest for each day during the Interest Period determined by the Calculation Agent as being the rate of interest most recently announced by the Bank at its New York office as its base rate, prime rate, reference rate, or similar rate for Dollar loans (or if the Bank ceases to exist or is not quoting a base rate, prime rate, reference rate, or similar rate for Dollar loans, another major money center commercial bank in New York City selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer)).

For the first Interest Period, LIBOR shall be determined using two separate time periods, first, using straight-line interpolation of two rates calculated in accordance with the above procedure, except that instead of using three month Dollar deposits, one rate shall be determined using four month Dollar deposits and the other rate shall be determined using five month Dollar deposits calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed from the Closing Date to, but not including August 1, 2008 divided by 360, and second, based on three-month Dollar deposits for the period from and including August 1, 2008 to the first Payment Date. Unless the Maturity Extension occurs, LIBOR shall be determined for the last Interest Period based on the actual number of days in the Interest Period using straight-line interpolation of two rates calculated in accordance with the above procedure, except that instead of using three month Dollar deposits, one rate shall be determined using the period for which rates are obtainable next shorter than the Interest Period and the other rate shall be determined using the period for which rates are obtainable next longer than the Interest Period. All calculations shall be calculated to at least four decimal places and rounded to four decimal places.

“Loan”: Any interest in a fully committed, senior secured, unsecured, or revolving loan (including loans involving credit linked deposits and synthetic letters of credit) that is acquired by assignment or by Participation (including any DIP Loan) that is either:

- (i) Registered; or
- (ii) issued by an obligor that is not resident in the United States:

(A) whose payments are not subject to United States withholding tax; and

(B) that is held through a financial institution pursuant to the procedures described in Treasury Regulation section 1.165-12(c)(3).

“Long-Dated Collateral Obligation”: Any Collateral Obligation with a stated maturity later than the Stated Maturity of the Notes other than a Collateral Obligation with a stated maturity later than the Stated Maturities of the Notes that includes a “put” option to its obligor at a price of at least par payable on or before the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

“Maintenance Covenant”: A covenant by the borrower to comply with one or more financial covenants during each reporting period, whether or not it has taken any specified action.

“Majority”: With respect to any Class or group of Notes or Preference Shares, the Holders of more than 50% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of that Class or group of Notes or Preference Shares, as the case may be.

“Margin Stock”: “Margin Stock” as defined under Regulation U issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, including any debt security that is by its terms convertible into Margin Stock, but does not include any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation received pursuant to an offer by an issuer of a Defaulted Collateral Obligation.

“Market Value”: (a) As of any Measurement Date, the market value determined by the Servicer and reported to the Trustee as an amount rather than as a percentage or fraction of par (expressed in Dollars) of any Collateral Obligation (or Eligible Equity Security, as applicable) based upon the following order of priority: (i) the average of the bid-side market prices obtained by the Servicer from three Independent broker-dealers active in the trading of such obligations which are also Independent from the Servicer or (ii) if the foregoing set of prices were not obtained, the lower of the bid-side market prices obtained by the Servicer from two Independent broker-dealers active in the trading of such obligations which are also Independent from the Servicer or (iii) if the foregoing set of prices were not obtained, the bid-side market price obtained by the Servicer from one Independent broker-dealer active in the trading of such obligations which is also Independent from the Servicer; provided the Servicer remains a registered investment advisor, or (iv) if the foregoing sets of prices were not obtained, the average of the bid-side prices for the purchase of the Collateral Obligation (or Eligible Equity Security, as applicable) determined by an Approved Pricing Service (Independent from the Servicer) that derives valuations by polling broker-dealers (Independent from the Servicer).

(b) If a Market Value of any Collateral Obligation cannot be so determined in accordance with the procedures set out in the previous paragraph for a period of 30 consecutive days then such Collateral Obligation shall be deemed to have a Market Value of zero; provided, that during such 30 day period, such Collateral Obligation shall be deemed to have a Market Value equal to (a) the higher of (i) the S&P Recovery Rate for such Collateral Obligation and the then current S&P Rating of the most senior Class of Notes then Outstanding and (ii) 70% of the Principal Balance of such Collateral Obligation or (b) if the Servicer has determined in its commercially reasonable judgment that the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation is lower than the amount determined pursuant to clause (a), such amount to be determined by the Servicer in its commercially reasonable judgment; provided, further, that the maximum amount of Collateral Obligations having a Market Value assigned pursuant to the immediately preceding proviso shall be limited to 5.0% of the Maximum Amount (and any amount in excess of 5.0% of the Maximum Amount (which amount shall be composed of Collateral Obligations with the lowest Market Value Percentage) shall be deemed to have a Market Value of zero). For the avoidance of doubt, the procedures set out in this paragraph shall not apply to determinations of Market Value of any Eligible Equity Securities or Current-Pay Obligations.

The Servicer is under no obligation to determine the Market Value of the Collateral Obligations other than as set forth in the Servicing Agreement or this Indenture or to comply with any of its duties as set forth in the Servicing Agreement or in this Indenture.

“Market Value Determination Date”: With respect to any distribution of Eligible Equity Securities, one Business Day prior to the date of the notice distributed by the Issuer to the Holders of the Preference Shares in connection with such distribution.

“Market Value Percentage”: For any Collateral Obligation, the ratio obtained by dividing:

- (i) the Market Value of the Collateral Obligation; by
- (ii) the Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligation.

“Maturity”: With respect to any Note, the date on which the unpaid principal of the Note becomes payable as provided in the Note or this Indenture, whether at the Stated Maturity or by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption, or otherwise.

“Maturity Extension”: The meaning specified in Section 2.4.

“Maximum Amount”: An amount equal to:

- (i) on any Measurement Date during the Ramp-Up Period, U.S.$510,000,000;
- and
- (ii) on any Measurement Date after the Ramp-Up Completion Date:
    - (A) the aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations plus the aggregate outstanding principal amount of any Defaulted Collateral Obligations; plus
    - (B) Cash representing Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account; plus
    - (C) Eligible Investments (other than Cash) purchased by the Issuer with Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account.

“Maximum Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor”: As of any Measurement Date, a rate equal to the sum of (i) the number set forth in the column entitled “Maximum Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor” in the Ratings Matrix based upon the applicable “row/column combination” chosen by the Servicer (or the interpolation between two adjacent rows and/or two adjacent columns, as applicable) plus (ii) the Recovery Rate Modifier.

“Measurement Date”: Any date:

- (i) on which the Issuer commits to acquire or dispose of any Collateral Obligation;
  - (ii) on which a Collateral Obligation becomes a Defaulted Collateral Obligation;
  - (iii) that is a Determination Date;
  - (iv) that is the Ramp-Up Completion Date;
  - (v) that is the Interim Target Date;
  - (vi) that is the date as of which the information in a Monthly Report is calculated pursuant to Section 10.6; and,
- with respect to any distribution of Eligible Equity Securities only,
- (vii) that is the Market Value Determination Date.

“Memorandum and Articles of Association”: The memorandum and articles of association of the Issuer, as may be amended and restated before the Closing Date or in accordance with this Indenture.

“Merging Entity”: The meaning specified in Section 7.10.

“Minimum Diversity Score”: As of any Measurement Date, a score equal to the number set forth in the column entitled “Minimum Diversity Score” in the Ratings Matrix based upon the applicable “row/column combination” chosen by the Servicer (or the interpolating between two adjacent rows and/or two adjacent columns, as applicable).

“Minimum Weighted Average Spread”: As of any Measurement Date, the spread equal to the percentage set forth in the row entitled “Minimum Weighted Average Spread” in the Ratings Matrix based upon the applicable “row/column combination” chosen by the Servicer (or the interpolating between two adjacent rows and/or two adjacent columns, as applicable).

“Monthly Determination Date”: The meaning specified in Section 10.6(a).

“Monthly Report”: The meaning specified in Section 10.6(a).

“Moody’s”: Moody’s Investors Service, Inc.

“Moody’s Default Probability Rating”: The meaning set forth in Schedule 7.

“Moody’s Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating”: The meaning set forth in Schedule 7.

“Moody’s Group I Country”: Any of the following countries: Australia, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and any country subsequently determined by Moody’s to be a Moody’s Group I Country.

“Moody’s Group II Country”: Any of the following countries: Germany, Ireland, Sweden, Switzerland and any country subsequently determined by Moody’s to be a Moody’s Group II Country.

“Moody’s Group III Country”: Any of the following countries: Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Norway, Spain and any country subsequently determined by Moody’s to be a Moody’s Group III Country.

“Moody’s Industry Classification”: The industry classifications in Schedule 2 as modified, amended, and supplemented from time to time by Moody’s.

“Moody’s Minimum Average Recovery Rate”: As of any Measurement Date, a rate equal to the lesser of (x) 60% and (y) the number obtained by:

- (i) summing the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation by its respective Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate;
- (ii) dividing the sum determined pursuant to clause (i) above by the sum of the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations; and
- (iii) rounding up to the first decimal place.

“Moody’s Non Senior Secured Loan”: Any Loan that is not a Moody’s Senior Secured Loan.

“Moody’s Obligation Rating”: The meaning set forth in Schedule 7.

“Moody’s Priority Category”: Each type of Collateral Obligation specified in the definition of “Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate Matrix” as a “Moody’s Priority Category.”

“Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate”: For any Collateral Obligation, the percentage specified in the definition of “Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate Matrix” opposite the Moody’s Priority Category of the Collateral Obligation.

“Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate Matrix”:

Moody’s Priority Category	Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate

Synthetic Securities.....	In the case of: (i) a Form-Approved Synthetic Security, the “Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate” given by Moody’s to the Form-Approved Synthetic Security at the time of approval of the Form-Approved Synthetic Security by Moody’s, and (ii) any other Synthetic Security, the “Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate” given by Moody’s to the Synthetic Security at the time of acquisition of the Synthetic Security.
Structured Finance Obligations.....	The Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate determined in accordance with the Moody’s Structured Finance Obligation Recovery Rates set forth in Schedule 5 by reference to the type of asset and its then Moody’s Rating (or, with respect to assets to which that schedule does not apply, on a case-by-case basis in connection with the Grant of the relevant Collateral Obligation).
unsecured DIP Loans and any Collateral Obligations not covered above or below .....	As determined by Moody’s on a case-by-case basis.

For High-Yield Bonds, Moody’s Senior Secured Loans and Moody’s Non Senior Secured Loans, the relevant Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate is the rate determined pursuant to the table below based on the number of rating subcategories difference between the High-Yield Bond’s or Loan’s Moody’s Obligation Rating and its Moody’s Default Probability Rating (for purposes of clarification, if the Moody’s Obligation Rating is higher than the Moody’s Default Probability Rating, the rating subcategories difference will be positive and if it is lower, negative):

Number of Moody’s Rating Subcategories Difference Between the Moody’s Obligation Rating and the Moody’s Default Probability Rating	Moody’s Senior Secured Loans	Moody’s Non Senior Secured Loans	High-Yield Bonds
+2 or more	60.0%	45.0%	40.0%
+1	50.0%	42.5%	35.0%
0	45.0%	40.0%	30.0%
-1	40.0%	30.0%	15.0%
-2	30.0%	15.0%	10.0%
-3 or less	20.0%	10.0%	2.0%

If no Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate has been specifically assigned with respect to a Loan pursuant to the above table, and the Loan is a secured DIP Loan, the relevant Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate is 50.0%.

"Moody's Rating": The meaning set forth in Schedule 7.

"Moody's Rating Factor": The number in the table below opposite the rating of the Collateral Obligation (excluding Synthetic Securities where an Assigned Moody's Rating is not available).

Moody's Rating	Moody's Rating Factor	Moody's Rating	Moody's Rating Factor
Aaa	1	Ba1	940
Aa1	10	Ba2	1,350
Aa2	20	Ba3	1,766
Aa3	40	B1	2,220
A1	70	B2	2,720
A2	120	B3	3,490
A3	180	Caa1	4,770
Baa1	260	Caa2	6,500
Baa2	360	Caa3	8,070
Baa3	610	Ca or lower	10,000

The Moody's Rating Factor for Collateral Obligations that are Synthetic Securities shall be determined by Moody's and obtained by the Issuer or the Servicer on a case-by-case basis, unless (1) there is an Assigned Moody's Rating available for such Collateral Obligation that is a Synthetic Security, in which case such Assigned Moody's Rating shall be used to compute the Moody's Rating Factor for such Collateral Obligation that is a Synthetic Security, or (2) such Collateral Obligation is a Form-Approved Synthetic Security, in which case the Moody's Rating Factor given to such Collateral Obligation at the time of approval of the Form-Approved Synthetic Security shall be used to compute the Moody's Rating Factor for such Collateral Obligation that is a Synthetic Security.

The Moody's Rating Factor for any Collateral Obligation that is a Structured Finance Obligation shall be equal to:  $\frac{Ax55\%}{1-B}$

where: "A" means the number determined with respect to such Collateral Obligation pursuant to the table above; and

“B” means the Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate with respect to such Collateral Obligation.

“Moody’s Senior Secured Loan”:

(a) a Loan that:

(i) is not (and cannot by its terms become) subordinate in right of payment to any other obligation of the obligor of the Loan;

(ii) is secured by a valid first priority perfected security interest or lien in, to or on specified collateral securing the obligor’s obligations under the Loan; and

(iii) the value of the collateral securing the Loan together with other attributes of the obligor (including, without limitation, its general financial condition, ability to generate cash flow available for debt service and other demands for that cash flow) is adequate (in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer) to repay the Loan in accordance with its terms and to repay all other loans of equal seniority secured by a first lien or security interest in the same collateral; or

(b) a Loan that:

(i) is not (and cannot by its terms become) subordinate in right of payment to any other obligation of the obligor of the Loan, other than, with respect to a Loan described in clause (a) above, with respect to the liquidation of such obligor or the collateral for such loan;

(ii) is secured by a valid second priority perfected security interest or lien in, to or on specified collateral securing the obligor’s obligations under the Loan;

(iii) the value of the collateral securing the Loan together with other attributes of the obligor (including, without limitation, its general financial condition, ability to generate cash flow available for debt service and other demands for that cash flow) is adequate (in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer) to repay the Loan in accordance with its terms and to repay all other loans of equal or higher seniority secured by a first or second lien or security interest in the same collateral; and

(iv) has been assigned a Moody’s rating equal to or higher than Moody’s corporate family rating for such obligor; and

(c) the Loan is not: (i) a DIP Loan, (ii) a Loan for which the security interest or lien (or the validity or effectiveness thereof) in substantially all of its collateral attaches, becomes effective, or otherwise “springs” into existence after the origination thereof, or (iii) a type of loan that Moody’s has identified as having unusual terms and with respect to which its Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate has been or is to be determined on a case-by-case basis.

“Non-Call Period”: With respect to the Class A Notes, the period from the Closing Date to but not including the Payment Date in May 2012, and with respect to the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes, the period from the Closing Date to but not including the Payment Date in May 2009.

“Non-Consenting Holder”: With respect to any supplemental indenture pursuant to Section 8.2 that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities, any Holder or, in the case of Securities represented by Global Notes, any beneficial owner, that either (i) has delivered to the Trustee a written notice that it will not consent to such supplemental indenture or (ii) had not consented to such supplemental indenture within the applicable Initial Consent Period.

“Non-Performing Collateral Obligation”: Any Defaulted Collateral Obligation and any PIK Security as to which its issuer or obligor has previously deferred or capitalized any interest due on it and all the interest so deferred or capitalized has not subsequently been paid in full in cash by:

(i) if the PIK Security has a Moody’s Rating of “Baa3” (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or above, the earlier of its second payment date or one year, in each case, following the date of the initial deferral or capitalization of interest due on it; or

(ii) if the PIK Security has a Moody’s Rating of “Baa3” and on credit watch with negative implications or below “Baa3”, the earlier of its first payment date or six months, in each case, following the date of the initial deferral or capitalization of interest due on it.

“Non-Permitted ERISA Holder”: The meaning specified in Section 2.6(c)(iii).

“Non-Permitted Holder”: (a) With respect to the Global Notes, a Holder or beneficial owner of an interest in a Global Note that is a U.S. person and (i) not a QIB/QP and that becomes the beneficial owner of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note or (ii) does not have an exemption available under the Securities Act and (b) with respect to the Class E Notes, a Holder or beneficial owner of an interest in a Class E Note that is not a QIB/QP.

“Non-qualifying Collateral Obligation”: The meaning specified in Section 12.1(d).

“Note Break-Even Loss Rate”: With respect to each Class of Notes that is rated by S&P, the maximum percentage of defaults that the Current Portfolio or Proposed Portfolio can sustain (as determined by S&P through application of the S&P CDO Monitor) and nevertheless sufficient funds will remain for the payment of principal of the Class of Notes in full by its Stated Maturity and the timely payment of interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes and the ultimate payment of interest on the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes using S&P’s assumptions on recoveries, defaults and timing, and taking into account the Priority of Payments.

“Note Class Loss Differential”: With respect to any Measurement Date and any Class of Notes that is rated by S&P, the rate calculated by subtracting the Scenario Default Rate for the Class from the then-applicable Note Break-Even Loss Rate for the Class of Notes.

“Note Interest Rate”: With respect to any specified Class of Notes, the per annum interest rate payable on the Notes of the Class with respect to each Interest Period on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day) equal to LIBOR for Eurodollar deposits for the applicable Interest Period plus the spread specified in the “Interest Rate” rows of the tables in Section 2.3 with respect to such Notes except in the first Interest Period.

“Note Payment Sequence”: The application of funds in the following order:

- (1) to the Class A Notes until the Class A Notes have been fully redeemed;
  - (2) to the Class B Notes until the Class B Notes have been fully redeemed;
  - (3) to the Class C Notes until the Class C Notes have been fully redeemed;
  - (4) to the Class D Notes until the Class D Notes have been fully redeemed;
- and
- (5) to the Class E Notes until the Class E Notes have been fully redeemed.

“Notes”: The Senior Notes and the Class E Notes authorized by, and authenticated and delivered under, this Indenture or any supplemental indenture.

“Notice of Refinancing”: The meaning specified in Section 9.7.

“Objection Cut-Off Date”: The meaning specified in Section 15.1(h)(ii).

“Offer”: The meaning specified in Section 10.7(c).

“Offering”: The offering of the Notes.

“Offering Memorandum”: The final offering memorandum, dated March 26, 2008, prepared and delivered in connection with the offer and sale of the Securities.

“Officer”: With respect to the Issuer and any corporation, any director, the Chairman of the board of directors, the President, any Vice President, the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, the Treasurer, or an Assistant Treasurer of the entity; with respect to the Co-Issuer and any corporation, any director, the Chairman of the board of directors, the President, any Vice President, the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, the Treasurer, or an Assistant Treasurer of the entity; with respect to any partnership, any of its general partners; and with respect to the Trustee, any Trust Officer.

“Opinion of Counsel”: A written opinion addressed to the Trustee and each Rating Agency, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee and each Rating Agency, of an attorney at law (or law firm with one or more partners) reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee and admitted to practice before the highest court of any state of the United States or the District of Columbia (or the Cayman Islands, in the case of an opinion relating to the laws of the Cayman Islands), which attorney (or law firm) may, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture, be counsel for the Servicer, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer. Whenever an Opinion of Counsel is required under this Indenture, the Opinion of Counsel may rely on opinions of other counsel who are so admitted and so satisfactory, which opinions of other counsel shall accompany the Opinion of Counsel and shall either be addressed to the Trustee and each Rating Agency or shall state that the Trustee and each Rating Agency may rely on it. An Opinion of Counsel may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion.

“Optional Redemption Date”: The Payment Date fixed by the Issuer for an Optional Redemption, which shall be no earlier than the Non-Call Period with respect to any Class of Notes.

“Optional Redemption Price”: With respect to each Class of Notes, an amount equal to the aggregate of (i) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of such Class of Notes as of the Optional Redemption Date and (ii)(A) with respect to the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes, the applicable accrued and unpaid interest, and any accrued and unpaid Defaulted Interest and (B) with respect to the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes, the applicable accrued and unpaid interest, and any accrued and unpaid Deferred Interest, in each case with respect to the Optional Redemption Date.

“Other Indebtedness”: The meaning specified in the definition of “Defaulted Collateral Obligation.”

“Outstanding”: With respect to:

(a) the Notes or any specified Class, as of any date of determination, all of the Notes or all of the Notes of the specified Class, as the case may be, theretofore authenticated and delivered under this Indenture, except with respect to Notes:

(i) Notes canceled by the Indenture Registrar or delivered to the Indenture Registrar for cancellation;

(ii) Notes for whose payment or redemption funds in the necessary amount have been theretofore irrevocably deposited with the Trustee or any paying agent in trust for their Holders pursuant to Section 4.1(a)(ii) and if the Notes are to be redeemed, notice of redemption has been duly given pursuant to this Indenture;

(iii) Notes in exchange for or in lieu of which other Notes have been authenticated and delivered pursuant to this Indenture; and

(iv) Notes alleged to have been destroyed, lost, or stolen for which replacement Notes have been issued as provided in Section 2.7, unless proof satisfactory to the Trustee is presented that any such Notes are held by a protected purchaser; and

(b) the Preference Shares, as of any date of determination, all of the Preference Shares theretofore issued under the Preference Share Documents and listed in the share register of the Issuer as outstanding;

provided that, in determining whether the Holders of the requisite Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities have given any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver under this Indenture, the Securities owned or beneficially owned by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, any Affiliate of either of them and, with respect to any matter affecting its status as Servicer or appointment of a replacement Servicer or relating to an acceleration of any Class of Notes if the effect of the Servicer's action or inaction as a Holder of Securities would effectively prevent acceleration, the Servicer, its Affiliates and any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority (other than, with respect to Notes or Class II Preference Shares, HFP or any of its subsidiaries; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of Notes or Class II Preference Shares owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote shall not be excluded only if such vote is determined by a vote of the majority of the "independent directors" (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiaries and certified in writing to the Trustee or the Preference Shares Paying Agent, as applicable, by any of the "independent directors" of HFP) of HFP or such subsidiaries) shall be disregarded and not be Outstanding, except that, in determining whether the Trustee shall be protected in relying on any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver, only Securities that a Trust Officer of the Trustee (or with respect to the Preference Shares, only Preference Shares that an Authorized Officer of the Preference Shares Paying Agent) has actual knowledge to be so owned or beneficially owned shall be so disregarded. Securities so owned or beneficially owned that have been pledged in good faith may be regarded as Outstanding if the pledgee establishes to the satisfaction of the Trustee or the Preference Shares Paying Agent, as applicable, the pledgee's right so to act with respect to the Securities and that the pledgee is independent from the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent.

"Overcollateralization Ratio": With respect to any Class of Notes on any Measurement Date, the ratio calculated by dividing:

- (i) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator; by
- (ii) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of such Class of Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it (including any Deferred Interest on the Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it); provided that the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes shall constitute one Class of Notes for purposes of the Overcollateralization Ratio relating to such Classes of Notes.

"Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator": On any date, the sum of:

(1) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (other than any Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, any Deep Discount Obligations, any Collateral Obligations loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement with respect to which an “event of default” (under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing and any Structured Finance Obligation that has an overcollateralization-based event of default with ratings based haircuts (including CCC excess securities haircuts)); plus

(2) unpaid Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal (excluding any unpaid Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal in respect of Non-Performing Collateral Obligations); plus

(3) the Aggregate Principal Balance of any Eligible Investments that were purchased with Principal Proceeds and the amount of Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account; plus

(4) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Eligible Investments on deposit in a Securities Lending Account that relate to a Securities Lending Agreement with respect to which an “event of default” (under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing; plus

(5) with respect to Collateral Obligations that are Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, Deep Discount Obligations or Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, the amount determined by using one of the following methods applicable to such type of Collateral Obligation; provided that if a Collateral Obligation falls within more than one of such types, the Issuer will be required to use the method that results in the smallest amount:

(A) with respect to any Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, an amount equal to the product of (i) the CCC+/Caa1 Excess Market Value Percentage, multiplied by (ii) the Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations;

(B) with respect to any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, the aggregate of the Applicable Collateral Obligation Amounts for all included Non-Performing Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations that have been held by the Issuer for more than three years, which shall be deemed to be zero for purposes of this clause (B)); and

(C) with respect to any Deep Discount Obligations, the Aggregate Purchase Price Amount for all Deep Discount Obligations.

As used in this definition, “Applicable Collateral Obligation Amount” for any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation means:

(a) the lesser of:

(x) the Market Value Percentage of the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation; and

(y) the Applicable Percentage for the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation;

multiplied by:

(b) if the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation is:

(1) any Pledged Obligation other than those in clauses (2) through (4) below, the outstanding principal amount of the Pledged Obligation as of the relevant Measurement Date;

(2) a Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in the Synthetic Security;

(3) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its Principal Balance including any unfunded amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer's obligation to fund the unfunded amount); and

(4) any PIK Security, its Principal Balance.

As used in the calculation of Market Value Percentage of the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation, the Principal Balance of any Defaulted Collateral Obligation shall be, if the Defaulted Collateral Obligation is:

(1) any Pledged Obligation other than those in clauses (2) through (4) below, the outstanding principal amount of the Pledged Obligation as of the relevant Measurement Date;

(2) a Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in the Synthetic Security;

(3) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its Principal Balance including any unfunded amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer's obligation to fund the unfunded amount); and

(4) any PIK Security, its Principal Balance.

“Overcollateralization Test”: A test that is satisfied with respect to any Class of Notes if, as of any Measurement Date, the Overcollateralization Ratio for the Class is at least equal to the required level for the specified Class indicated in the table below:

Test	Required Level
Class A/B Overcollateralization Test	113.75 %
Class C Overcollateralization Test	110.50 %
Class D Overcollateralization Test	107.25 %
Class E Overcollateralization Test	105.00 %

“Participating Institution”: An institution that creates a participation interest and that has a long-term senior unsecured rating by Moody’s of at least “A3” (and if so rated by Moody’s such rating is not on watch for possible downgrade) and a short-term credit rating by S&P of at least “A-1” or, if no short-term rating exists, a long-term credit rating by S&P of at least “A+”.

“Participation”: A Loan acquired as a participation interest created by a Participating Institution.

“Paying Agent”: Any Person authorized by the Issuer to pay the principal of or interest on any Notes on behalf of the Issuer as specified in Section 7.2.

“Payment Account”: The trust account established pursuant to Section 10.3(h).

“Payment Date”: The first day of February, May, August and November in each year, commencing in November 2008 or, if any such day is not a Business Day, the next following Business Day, any other date on which the Notes are redeemed or paid before their Stated Maturity, and at the Stated Maturity for the Notes.

“Permitted Offer”: An Offer pursuant to which the offeror offers to acquire a debt obligation (including a Collateral Obligation) in exchange solely for cash in an amount equal to or greater than the full face amount of the debt obligation plus any accrued and unpaid interest and as to which the Servicer has determined in its commercially reasonable judgment that the offeror has sufficient access to financing to consummate the Offer.

“Person”: An individual, corporation (including a business trust), partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, association, joint stock company, trust (including any beneficiary thereof), unincorporated association or government or any agency or political subdivision thereof.

“PIK Cash-Pay Interest”: As to any PIK Security, the portion of interest required to be paid in cash (and not permitted to be added to the balance of such PIK Security or otherwise deferred and accrued) thereon pursuant to the terms of the related Underlying Instruments.

“PIK Security”: Any loan or debt obligation on which any portion of the interest accrued for a specified period of time or until the maturity thereof is, or at the option of the obligor may be, added to the principal balance of such loan or debt obligation or otherwise deferred rather than being paid in cash; provided that such loan or debt obligation shall not be a PIK Security if the portion, if any, of such interest required pursuant to the terms of the related Underlying Instruments to be paid in Cash would result in the outstanding principal amount of such loan or debt obligation having an effective rate of PIK Cash-Pay Interest at least equal to (i) if such loan or debt obligation is a fixed rate loan or debt obligation, 4% per annum, or (ii) if such loan or debt obligation is a floating rate loan or debt obligation, LIBOR.

“Plan”: An employee benefit plan as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA that is subject to the provisions of Title I of ERISA or a plan as defined in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code that is subject to Section 4975 of the Code.

“Plan Asset Regulation”: The regulations issued by the United States Department of Labor and found at 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101, which have been modified by Section 3(42) of ERISA.

“Pledged Obligations”: As of any date of determination, the Collateral Obligations, the Workout Assets, the Eligible Investments, and any other securities or obligations that have been Granted to the Trustee that form part of the Collateral.

“Portfolio Improvement Exchange”: The disposition, during the Replacement Period, of a Collateral Obligation and corresponding acquisition of one or more Collateral Obligations which in the aggregate will result in (i) the Collateral Quality Tests, the Interest Coverage Test, the Overcollateralization Tests and the Concentration Limitations herein being satisfied (or bring the total portfolio of Collateral Obligations closer to compliance with any such test or limitation) or if one or more of such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Test, Overcollateralization Test or Concentration Limitations are not satisfied, the degree of compliance therewith would be improved and (ii) improving, on a net basis, the quality of the total portfolio of Collateral Obligations as measured by such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Test, Overcollateralization Test and Concentration Limitations and (iii) in the case of each of clause (i) and (ii), any other Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests or Concentration Limitations not being violated or the likelihood of such violation in the future not being significantly increased.

“Pre-Closing Parties”: One or more Affiliates of the Initial Purchaser that are financing the acquisition of Collateral Obligations by the Issuer during an accumulation period before the Closing Date.

“Preference Share Documents”: The Issuer’s Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and the resolutions of the Issuer’s board of directors authorizing and approving the issuance of the Preference Shares passed on or before the Closing Date.

“Preference Share Internal Rate of Return”: With respect to any Payment Date, the internal rate of return (computed using the “XIRR” function in Microsoft® Excel 2002 or an equivalent function in another software package), stated on a per annum basis, for the following cash flows, assuming all Preference Shares are purchased on the Closing Date at their Face Amount:

(i) each distribution of Interest Proceeds made to the Holders of the Preference Shares (excluding any Class II Preference Share Special Payment distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares) on any prior Payment Date and, to the extent necessary to reach the applicable Preference Share Internal Rate of Return, the current Payment Date; and

(ii) each distribution of Principal Proceeds made to the Holders of the Preference Shares (excluding any Class II Preference Share Special Payment distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares) on any prior Payment Date and, to the extent necessary to reach the applicable Preference Share Internal Rate of Return, the current Payment Date.

“Preference Shares”: The Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares.

“Preference Shares Distribution Account”: A separate segregated non-interest bearing account established by the Preference Shares Paying Agent pursuant to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement into which the Preference Shares Paying Agent will deposit all amounts received from the Issuer and payable to the Holders of the Preference Shares under the Priority of Payments.

“Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement”: The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement dated as of March 27, 2008, by and between the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent, as amended from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof.

“Preference Shares Paying Agent”: State Street Bank and Trust Company, in its capacity as Preference Shares Paying Agent under the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, unless a successor Person shall have become the preference shares paying agent pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, and thereafter “Preference Shares Paying Agent” shall mean such successor Person.

“Principal Balance”: With respect to:

- (i) any Pledged Obligation other than those specifically covered in this definition, the outstanding principal amount of the Pledged Obligation as of the relevant Measurement Date;
- (ii) a Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in the Synthetic Security;
- (iii) any Pledged Obligation in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest, zero, except as otherwise expressly specified in this Indenture;
- (iv) any Defaulted Collateral Obligation, except as otherwise provided, zero;
- (v) any Collateral Obligation that has been loaned, its Principal Balance shall be reduced by the excess of the amount of collateral required over the actual Market Value of the collateral;
- (vi) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its Principal Balance shall include any unfunded amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer’s obligation to fund the unfunded amount), except as otherwise expressly specified in this Indenture;
- (vii) any PIK Security, its Principal Balance shall not include any principal amount of the PIK Security representing previously deferred or capitalized interest; and

(viii) any Qualified Equity Security and any obligation or security that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation, zero.

“Principal Proceeds”: With respect to any Due Period, all amounts received in Cash during the Due Period by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral that are not Interest Proceeds.

Principal Proceeds shall include any funds transferred from the Closing Date Expense Account into the Collection Account pursuant to Section 10.2.

Principal Proceeds do not include the Excluded Property or earnings on amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account to the extent the earnings are payable by the Issuer to a Securities Lending Counterparty.

At any time when an “event of default” under a Securities Lending Agreement has occurred and is continuing, any payments received by the Issuer from the related Securities Lending Collateral shall be Principal Proceeds.

“Priority Class”: With respect to any specified Class of Notes, each Class of Notes that ranks senior to that Class, as indicated in Section 13.1.

“Priority of Payments”: The meaning specified in Section 11.1.

“Proceeding”: Any suit in equity, action at law, or other judicial or administrative proceeding.

“Proposed Portfolio”: As of any Measurement Date, the portfolio (measured by Aggregate Principal Balance) of Collateral Obligations and Principal Proceeds held as Cash on deposit in the Collection Account and other Eligible Investments purchased with Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account resulting from the sale, maturity, or other disposition of a Collateral Obligation or a proposed purchase of a Collateral Obligation, as the case may be.

“Purchase Agreement”: A securities purchase agreement dated as of March 27, 2008 among the Co-Issuers and the Initial Purchaser, relating to the purchase of the Senior Notes, as modified, amended and supplemented and in effect from time to time.

“Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance”: For any Collateral Obligation other than Deep Discount Obligations, its Principal Balance; and for any Deep Discount Obligation its Purchase Price; provided, however, that if any Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations exist, the Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance for the Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations shall be equal to the weighted average Market Value of all CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, expressed as a percentage of their outstanding principal balances.

“Purchase Price”: With respect to the purchase of any Collateral Obligation (other than any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation), the net purchase price paid by the Issuer for the Collateral Obligation. The net purchase price is determined by subtracting from the purchase price the amount of any Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal and any syndication and other upfront fees paid to the Issuer and by adding the amount of any related transaction costs (including assignment fees) paid by the Issuer to the seller of the Collateral Obligation or its agent.

“Purchase Price Amount”: With respect to any Collateral Obligation on any date of determination, the product of (i) the Purchase Price (stated as a percentage) thereof and (ii) the Principal Balance thereof on such date.

“QIB/QP”: Any Person that, at the time of its acquisition of Notes is both a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser.

“Qualified Equity Security”: Any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation that is stock or evidence of an interest in or a right to buy stock, or any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation but whose acquisition otherwise is a transaction in stocks or securities within the meaning of Section 864(b)(2)(A)(ii) of the Code and the regulations under the Code. Qualified Equity Securities do not include any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation and that will cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in or having income from a United States trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes by virtue of its ownership or disposition of the obligation (without regard to the Issuer’s other activities).

“Qualified Institutional Buyer”: The meaning specified in Rule 144A under the Securities Act.

“Qualified Purchaser”: The meaning specified in Section 2(a)(51) of the Investment Company Act and Rule 2a51-2 under the Investment Company Act (including entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers).

“Ramp-Up Completion Date”: The earlier of:

- (i) the Business Day after the 120th day after the Closing Date, and
- (ii) the first date on which the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer plus the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations committed to be purchased by the Issuer with proceeds from the sale of the Securities (in each case with respect to Collateral Obligations committed to be purchased, measured solely as of the date of commitment) equals at least U.S.$510,000,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, (x) without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments or principal prepayments made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date, (y) for any Loan acquired by the Issuer at a Purchase Price less than 70% of its Principal Balance (I) if such Loan has a Moody’s Obligation Rating that is equal to or better than “B2” (and not rated “B2” on watch for downgrade) such Loan will be given 100% par credit for purposes of determining its Principal Balance on the Ramp-Up Completion Date and (II) if such Loan has a Moody’s Obligation Rating less than “B2” (or “B2” on watch for downgrade) such Loan will be valued at its Purchase Price for purposes of determining its Principal Balance on the Ramp-Up Completion Date and (z) any Structured Finance Obligation that has an overcollateralization-based event of default with ratings based haircuts (including CCC excess securities haircuts) shall have a Principal Balance of zero).

“Ramp-Up Notice”: The meaning specified in Section 7.19(e).

“Ramp-Up Period”: The period from and including the Closing Date to and including the Ramp-Up Completion Date.

“Rating Agency”: Each of Moody’s and S&P or, with respect to Pledged Obligations generally, if at any time Moody’s or S&P ceases to provide rating services with respect to high yield debt securities, any other nationally recognized statistical rating organization selected by the Issuer and reasonably satisfactory to a Majority of each Class of Notes. If at any time Moody’s ceases to be a Rating Agency, references to rating categories of Moody’s in this Indenture shall instead be references to the equivalent categories of the replacement rating agency as of the most recent date on which the replacement rating agency and Moody’s published ratings for the type of security in respect of which the replacement rating agency is used. If at any time S&P ceases to be a Rating Agency, references to rating categories of S&P in this Indenture shall instead be references to the equivalent categories of the replacement rating agency as of the most recent date on which the replacement rating agency and S&P published ratings for the type of security in respect of which the replacement rating agency is used.

“Rating Condition”: With respect to any Rating Agency and any action taken or to be taken under this Indenture, a condition that is satisfied when the Rating Agency has confirmed to the Servicer (as agent for the Issuer) in writing that no withdrawal, reduction, suspension, or other adverse action with respect to any then current rating by it (including any private or confidential rating) of any Class of Notes will occur as a result of the action. The Rating Condition with respect to any Rating Agency shall be satisfied for all purposes of this Indenture at any time when no Outstanding Notes are rated by it.

“Rating Confirmation”: Confirmation in writing from each Rating Agency that it has not reduced, suspended, or withdrawn the Initial Rating assigned by it to any Class of Notes; provided, however, that in the case of Refinancing Notes, both a Moody’s rating and an S&P rating will be obtained for such Refinancing Notes and a Rating Confirmation with respect to such Refinancing Notes shall mean (i) with respect to S&P, confirmation in writing from S&P that the S&P rating of each Class of Refinancing Notes will be no lower than the rating on each corresponding Class of Notes subject to such Refinancing and (ii) with respect to Moody’s, that the Moody’s rating of each Class of Refinancing Notes will be no lower than the rating on each corresponding Class of Notes subject to such Refinancing; provided further that if the terms of such Refinancing Notes are the same as the terms of the corresponding Class of Notes subject to Refinancing (other than with respect to the coupon thereof), it is expected that the cost of obtaining such rating from Moody’s shall be no more than the cost of obtaining a Rating Confirmation.

“Rating Confirmation Failure”: The meaning specified in Section 7.19(f) hereof.

“Ratings Matrix”: On the Closing Date the Servicer may select a “row/column combination” of the table below to apply, or may interpolate between two adjacent rows and/or two adjacent columns, as applicable, on a straight-line basis and round the results to two decimal points to apply initially for purposes of the Diversity Test, the Weighted Average Spread Test and the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test. Thereafter, on notice to the Trustee, the Servicer may select a different row of the Ratings Matrix to apply, or may interpolate between two adjacent rows and/or two adjacent columns, as applicable, on a straight-line basis and round the results to two decimal points.

Maximum Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor

“Recovery Rate Modifier”: As of any Measurement Date, the product of:

(i) (a) the Moody’s Minimum Average Recovery Rate minus the minimum percentage specified to pass the Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test (but not less than zero) multiplied by (b) 100; and

(ii) 55.

“Record Date”: As to any Payment Date, the 15th day (whether or not a Business Day) before the Payment Date.

“Redemption Date”: Any Payment Date specified for an Optional Redemption of Notes pursuant to Section 9.2 or the redemption of a Class of Notes in connection with a Refinancing pursuant to Section 9.7.

“Redemption Price”: With respect to any Note and any Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) or any redemption by Refinancing pursuant to Section 9.7(a), an amount equal to:

- (i) the outstanding principal amount of the Note being redeemed; plus
- (ii) accrued interest on the Note (including any Defaulted Interest and interest on Defaulted Interest); plus
- (iii) in the case of any Deferred Interest Note, the applicable Deferred Interest on the Note; plus
- (iv) any unpaid Extension Bonus Payment in respect of the Note.

With respect to any Preference Share and any Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b), “Redemption Price” means (i) at the request of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the pro rata portion for such Preference Share of the entire remaining amount of available funds after all prior applications pursuant to the Priority of Payments or (ii) as specified by the unanimous written request of the Holders of the Preference Shares, in each case as specified in Section 9.2(b).

“Redemption Date Statement”: The meaning specified in Section 10.6(c).

“Reference Obligation”: An obligation that would otherwise satisfy the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and on which a Synthetic Security is based; provided that no Reference Obligation shall be a Synthetic Security.

“Reference Obligor”: The obligor of a Reference Obligation.

“Refinancing”: The meaning specified in Section 9.7.

“Refinancing Date”: The meaning specified in Section 9.7.

“Refinancing Notes”: The meaning specified in Section 9.7.

“Refinancing Price”: With respect to any Class of Notes that is subject to a Refinancing, an amount equal to the Redemption Price therefor.

“Refinancing Proceeds”: The proceeds from any refinancing permitted under this Indenture.

“Registered”: With respect to a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment, means that it is issued after July 18, 1984 and is in registered form within the meaning of Section 881(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Code and the United States Department of the Treasury (“Treasury”) regulations promulgated thereunder.

“Regulation D”: Regulation D under the Securities Act.

“Regulation S”: Regulation S under the Securities Act.

“Regulation S Global Note”: The meaning specified in Section 2.2(b).

“Relevant Obligation”: For a Collateral Obligation that is a Synthetic Security, the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security and otherwise the Collateral Obligation.

“Replacement Hedge”: A replacement hedge agreement that qualifies to be a Hedge Agreement under this Indenture.

“Replacement Period”: The period from the Closing Date through and including the first to occur of:

(i) the Payment Date after the date that the Servicer notifies the Trustee, each Rating Agency, and the Administrator, in the sole discretion of the Servicer, that, in light of the composition of the Collateral, general market conditions, and other factors, the acquisition of additional Collateral Obligations within the foreseeable future would either be impractical or not beneficial,

(ii) the Payment Date in May 2014 or, in the case of an Extension, the Extended Replacement Period End Date,

(iii) the Payment Date on which all Notes are to be optionally redeemed or an earlier date after notice of an Optional Redemption chosen by the Servicer to facilitate the liquidation of the Collateral for the Optional Redemption, and

(iv) the date on which the Replacement Period terminates or is terminated as a result of an Event of Default (subject to Section 5.2(c)).

“Required Redemption Percentage”: With respect to (a) any Optional Redemption resulting from a Tax Event, the Holders of at least 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of any Affected Class or at least 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares and (b) any other Optional Redemption, a Majority of the Preference Shares.

“Revolving Loan”: A Loan or any Synthetic Security with a Reference Obligation (in each case excluding any Delayed Drawdown Loan) that requires the Issuer to make future advances to (or for the account of) the borrower under its Underlying Instruments (including any letter of credit for which the Issuer is required to reimburse the issuing bank for under it). A Loan or Synthetic Security shall only be considered to be a Revolving Loan for so long as its Commitment Amount is greater than zero.

“Revolving Reserve Account”: The trust account established pursuant to Section 10.3(b).

“Rule 3a-7”: Rule 3a-7 under the Investment Company Act.

“Rule 144A”: Rule 144A under the Securities Act.

“Rule 144A Global Note”: The meaning specified in Section 2.2(c).

“Rule 144A Information”: The meaning specified in Section 7.15.

“S&P”: Standard & Poor’s Ratings Services, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc.

“S&P CDO Monitor”: A dynamic, analytical computer model developed by S&P (and as may be modified by S&P from time to time) and provided to the Servicer and the Collateral Administrator to be used to calculate the default frequency in terms of the amount of debt assumed to default as a percentage of the original principal amount of the Collateral Obligations consistent with a specified benchmark rating level based on certain assumptions and S&P’s proprietary corporate default studies. For the purpose (and only for the purpose) of applying the S&P CDO Monitor to a portfolio of obligations, for each obligation in the portfolio, the rating of the obligation shall be its S&P Rating.

“S&P CDO Monitor Test”: A test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if, after giving effect to the sale of a Collateral Obligation or the purchase of a Collateral Obligation, each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is positive. The S&P CDO Monitor Test shall be considered to be improved if each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is at least equal to the corresponding Note Class Loss Differential of the Current Portfolio. The S&P CDO Monitor Test is not required to be satisfied or improved upon the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation and the application of the related Sale Proceeds to purchase additional Collateral Obligations as provided in Section 12.1(a). For purposes of the S&P CDO Monitor Test,

- (i) the S&P Rating of any S&P Unrated DIP Loan shall be “CCC-”; and
- (ii) the S&P Industry Classification for a Synthetic Security shall be that of the related Reference Obligation and not the Synthetic Security.

“S&P CRR”: With respect to any Collateral Obligation, a corporate recovery rate assigned by S&P to such Collateral Obligation.

“S&P Industry Classification”: The S&P Industry Classifications in Schedule 3 as modified, amended, and supplemented from time to time by S&P.

“S&P Rating”: The meaning set forth in Schedule 7.

“S&P Rating Confirmation”: Confirmation in writing from S&P that it has not reduced, suspended, or withdrawn the Initial Rating assigned by it to any Class of Notes.

“S&P Recovery Rate”: As of any date of determination, with respect to any Collateral Obligation, the percentage for such Collateral Obligation set forth in (x) the applicable table below, as modified, amended, and supplemented from time to time by S&P, (y) the row in such table opposite the S&P CRR (or, if the relevant assets have no S&P CRR, the senior secured recovery rating, the U.S. loan recovery rating or the CDO liability rating, as applicable) of such Collateral Obligation (or, in the case of a Form-Approved Synthetic Security, the Reference Obligation unless otherwise specified by S&P) and (z) the column in such table below the initial S&P Rating of the respective Class of Notes; provided, however that (i) with respect to a DIP Loan or a Synthetic Security (other than a Form-Approved Synthetic Security that does not reference an index), the S&P Recovery Rate shall be the recovery rate assigned by S&P and with respect to a Structured Finance Obligation the S&P Recovery Rate shall be the recovery rate determined by reference to Table V or Table VI below, as applicable and (ii) the Issuer or the Servicer may request the assignment of a recovery rate from S&P with respect to any Collateral Obligation, any such assignment by S&P to be in writing (electronic or otherwise); provided, further, that if a Collateral Obligation is a Cov-lite Loan for which there is no S&P CRR and therefore Table IV would apply, the recovery rate for such Collateral Obligation shall be equal to 90% of its recovery rate as of such date of determination, unless otherwise provided by S&P upon request by the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer.

In all recovery rate tables above, Note rating categories below “AAA” include rating subcategories (for example, the “AA” column also applies to Notes rated “AA+” and “AA-”).

“S&P Unrated DIP Loan”: A DIP Loan acquired by the Issuer that does not have a rating assigned by S&P and for which the Servicer has commenced the process of having a rating assigned by S&P (as specified in the definition of “DIP Loan”).

“Sale”: The meaning specified in Section 5.17.

“Sale Proceeds”: All proceeds received (including any proceeds received with respect to any associated interest rate swap or security providing fixed annuity payments ) with respect to Collateral Obligations or other Pledged Obligations as a result of their sales or other dispositions less any reasonable expenses expended by the Servicer or the Trustee in connection with the sales or other dispositions, which shall be paid from such proceeds notwithstanding their characterization otherwise as Administrative Expenses.

“Scenario Default Rate”: With respect to any Class of Notes rated by S&P, an estimate of the cumulative default rate for the Current Portfolio or the Proposed Portfolio, as applicable, consistent with S&P’s rating of the Class of Notes on the Closing Date, determined by application of the S&P CDO Monitor.

“Schedule of Collateral Obligations”: The Collateral Obligations listed on Schedule 1, which schedule shall include with respect to each listed Collateral Obligation:

- (A) the name of the obligor and a unique Loan or other instrument identifier;
- (B) the purchase price;
- (C) the Principal Balance;
- (D) the classification (including whether the Collateral Obligation is a Loan, a High-Yield Bond, a Synthetic Security, a Participation, a Structured Finance Obligation, a Revolving Loan or a Delayed Drawdown Loan);
- (E) the funded amount (stated as a percentage) in respect of a Collateral Obligation that is a Revolving Loan or a Delayed Drawdown Loan;
- (F) the coupon or spread (as applicable);
- (G) the Stated Maturity;
- (H) the Moody’s Rating;
- (I) the S&P Rating; and
- (J) the CUSIP and any ISIN, if applicable,

as the schedule may be amended from time to time to reflect the release of Collateral Obligations pursuant to Article 10 and the inclusion of Collateral Obligations as provided in Section 12.2.

“Second Lien Loan”: A Loan that (i) is not (and cannot by its terms become) subordinated in right of payment to any other obligation of the obligor of the Loan other than a Senior Secured Loan with respect to the liquidation of such obligor or the collateral for such Loan, (ii) is secured by a valid second priority perfected security interest in or lien on specified collateral securing the obligor’s obligations under the Loan, which specified collateral does not consist solely of common stock or shares issued by the obligor or any of its Affiliates or intangible assets and (iii) if such Loan does not have an S&P Recovery Rating, then, solely for purposes of determining the S&P Recovery Rate for such Loan, in the Servicer’s commercially reasonable judgment (with such judgment being made in good faith by the Servicer at the time of such Loan’s purchase), the specified collateral for such Loan has a value not less than the outstanding principal amount of all debt senior to such Loan and any debt pari passu with such Loan, which value may be derived from, among other things, the enterprise value of the issuer of such Loans (provided that the provisions of the clause (iii) may be amended at any time, subject to Rating Confirmation from S&P, or in order to conform to S&P’s then-current criteria for such Loans).

“Secondary Risk Counterparty”: Any obligor Domiciled other than in the United States, any Participating Institution, any Synthetic Security Counterparty, and any Securities Lending Counterparty.

“Secondary Risk Table”: With respect to Moody’s, the table below:

Long-Term Senior Unsecured Debt Rating of Secondary Risk Counterparty	Individual Counterparty Limit	Aggregate Counterparty Limit
Aaa	20.0%	20.0%
Aa1	10.0%	10.0%
Aa2	10.0%	10.0%
Aa3	10.0%	10.0%
A1	5.0%	10.0%

With respect to S&P and solely with respect to Participations and Securities Lending Agreements, the table below:

Long-Term Senior Unsecured Debt Rating of Secondary Risk Counterparty	Individual Counterparty Limit	Aggregate Counterparty Limit
AAA	20.0%	20.0%
AA+/AA/AA-	10.0%	20.0%

If any Secondary Risk Counterparty’s long-term senior unsecured debt rating or short-term rating is on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody’s or S&P, then for the purposes of the table above, its rating by the Rating Agency putting its rating on credit watch shall be one rating notch lower for that Rating Agency.

“Section 3(c)(7)”: Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act.

“Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice”: A notice from the Issuer to the Noteholders (to be delivered in accordance with Sections 10.6(a) and (b)) substantially in the form of Exhibit H-1.

“Secured Loan”: A Loan that is secured by a valid and perfected security interest in specified collateral.

“Secured Obligations”: The meaning specified in the Granting Clauses.

“Secured Parties”: The meaning specified in the Granting Clauses.

“Securities”: The Notes and the Preference Shares.

“Securities Account Control Agreement”: An agreement dated as of the Closing Date by and among the Issuer, the Trustee and the Bank, as Custodian.

“Securities Act”: The United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

“Securities Intermediary”: The meaning specified in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the UCC.

“Securities Lending Account”: The trust account established pursuant to Section 10.3(f).

“Securities Lending Agreement”: The meaning specified in Section 7.18.

“Securities Lending Collateral”: The meaning specified in Section 7.18.

“Securities Lending Counterparty”: The meaning specified in Section 7.18.

“Security Entitlement”: The meaning specified in Section 8-102(a)(17) of the UCC.

“Senior Notes”: The Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes authorized by, and authenticated and delivered under, this Indenture or any supplemental indenture.

“Senior Secured Loan”: A Secured Loan that is not subordinated by its terms to indebtedness of the borrower for borrowed money, trade claims, capitalized leases, or other similar obligations, with a valid and perfected first priority security interest in collateral that in the opinion of the Servicer has value at least equal to the amount of the Loan and that is not a DIP Loan.

“Senior Servicing Fee”: A fee that accrues from the Closing Date payable to the Servicer in arrears on each Payment Date equal to 0.10% per annum of the Maximum Amount if and to the extent funds are available for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The Senior Servicing Fee shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months.

“Senior Unsecured Loan”: A Loan that is not a Senior Secured Loan and is not (i) subordinated by its terms to indebtedness of the borrower for borrowed money and (ii) secured by a valid and perfected security interest in collateral.

“Servicer”: Highland Capital Management, L.P., and any successor Servicer pursuant to the Servicing Agreement.

“Servicing Agreement”: The Servicing Agreement, dated as of the Closing Date, between the Issuer and the Servicer, as modified, amended and supplemented and in effect from time to time.

“Servicing Fee Portion”: 100% minus a percentage (between 0% and 100%) selected by the Servicer in its sole discretion and reported to the Trustee in writing on or before the related Determination Date.

“Servicing Fees”: Collectively, the Senior Servicing Fee, the Subordinated Servicing Fee and the Supplemental Servicing Fee.

“Share Registrar”: Walkers SPV Limited or any successor thereto.

“Share Trustee”: Walkers SPV Limited.

“Special Redemption”: The meaning specified in Section 9.5.

“Special Redemption Amount”: The meaning specified in Section 9.5.

“Special Redemption Date”: The meaning specified in Section 9.5.

“Spread Excess”: As of any Measurement Date, a fraction whose:

(i) numerator is the product of:

(A) the greater of zero and the excess of the Weighted Average Spread for the Measurement Date over the Minimum Weighted Average Spread specified in the applicable row of the Ratings Matrix; and

(B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(ii) denominator is the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Fixed Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date.

In computing the Spread Excess on any Measurement Date, the Weighted Average Spread for the Measurement Date will be computed as if the Fixed Rate Excess were equal to zero.

“Stated Maturity”: With respect to any Collateral Obligation, the maturity date specified in it or the applicable Underlying Instrument (or, if earlier, the first date on which any Person may be required by the Issuer to repurchase the entire principal amount of the Collateral Obligation at or above par) and with respect to the Notes of any Class, the Payment Date in November 2018 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date. Unless otherwise specified, “Stated Maturity” means the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

“Structured Finance Obligation”: Any obligation (other than the Notes or any other security or obligation issued by the Issuer):

(i) primarily secured directly by, referenced to or representing ownership of, a pool of loan receivables of U.S. obligors, or obligors organized or incorporated in Moody’s Group I Countries, Moody’s Group II Countries, Moody’s Group III Countries or Tax Advantaged Jurisdictions (for the avoidance of doubt, excluding:

(A) residential mortgage backed securities;

(B) collateralized debt obligations primarily backed by Emerging Market Securities;

(C) collateralized debt obligations primarily backed by asset backed securities;

(D) market value collateralized debt obligations;

(E) securities backed by “future flow” receivables;

(F) securities backed by “trust preferred securities”;

(G) net interest margin securitizations;

(H) collateralized debt obligations greater than 10% of the underlying obligations of which are backed by high yield corporate bonds;

(I) collateralized debt obligations and collateralized loan obligations greater than 10% of the underlying obligations of which are backed by other collateralized debt obligations or collateralized loan obligations, as applicable;

(J) collateralized loan obligations backed by less than 90% loans; provided that the following collateralized loan obligations up to the Principal Balance set forth opposite their name will be allowed:

(1) Greywolf CLO I, Ltd.: $1,000,000, and

(2) Madison Park Funding V, Ltd.: $5,000,000;

(K) obligations secured directly by, referenced to, or representing ownership of, a pool of receivables or other assets where the obligors with respect to such receivables or other assets are non-corporate credit risks);

(ii) that has an S&P Rating;

(iii) that has a Moody’s Rating and a Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate as specified in Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate Matrix; and

(iv) whose ownership or disposition (without regard to the Issuer’s other activities) by the Issuer will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

For purposes of the Diversity Test, multiple Structured Finance Obligations from CLOs serviced by the same Servicer or multiple Structured Finance Obligations issued by the same master trust will be considered to be obligations of one issuer.

“Subordinated Lien Loan”: A Secured Loan (other than a Second Lien Loan) secured by a second (or lower) priority security interest in the relevant collateral.

“Subordinated Servicing Fee”: An amount payable on each Payment Date equal to the sum of (i) a fee that accrues from the Closing Date payable to the Servicer in arrears on each Payment Date equal to 0.40% per annum of the Maximum Amount if and to the extent funds are available for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments and (ii) on any Payment Date that any part of the Subordinated Servicing Fee was not paid on the preceding Payment Date, an amount equal to interest on such unpaid amount at a rate of LIBOR for the applicable period plus 3.00% per annum. The portion of the Subordinated Servicing Fee in clauses (i) and (ii) above, as applicable, shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months.

“Substantially Similar Law”: State, local or other federal and non-U.S. laws that are substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code to which governmental plans, certain church plans and non-U.S. plans, while not subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA or the provisions of Section 4975 of the Code, may nevertheless be subject.

“Successor Entity”: The meaning specified in Section 7.10.

“Super Majority”: With respect to any Class or group of Notes or Preference Shares, the Holders of more than 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of that Class or group of Notes or Preference Shares, as the case may be.

“Supplemental Servicing Fee”: On each Payment Date, the fee, if any, payable to the Servicer in an amount equal to: (i) 20% of the remaining Interest Proceeds, if any, available after making the distributions on such Payment Date pursuant to Section 11.1(c)(i)(19) and (ii) 20% of the remaining Principal Proceeds, if any, available for payment in respect of the Supplemental Servicing Fee pursuant to Section 11.1(c)(ii)(11)(A) and, if applicable, Section 11.1(c)(ii)(15).

“Synthetic Letter of Credit”: A facility whereby (i) an agent bank issues or will issue a letter of credit for or on behalf of a borrower pursuant to an Underlying Instrument, (ii) the lender/participant pre-funds in full its obligations thereunder (provided that for the avoidance of doubt if funds are deposited to the Revolving Reserve Account with respect to such Synthetic Letter of Credit, such future funding obligations shall be deemed to be pre-funded) and upon such pre-funding, the lender/participant has no future funding obligations with respect to such Synthetic Letter of Credit and (iii) either (x) in the event that the letter of credit is drawn upon and the borrower does not reimburse the agent bank, the amounts pre-funded by the lender/participant are utilized by the agent bank to reimburse the agent bank for such amounts not funded by the borrower or (y) the agent bank passes on (in whole or in part) the fees it receives for providing the letter of credit to the lender/participant; provided that, with respect to any Synthetic Letter of Credit, either (i) the related agent bank has confirmed to the Issuer that it will withhold taxes from fees paid to the Issuer, or (ii) if the Issuer, or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, determines in its reasonable discretion that it is probable that such Synthetic Letter of Credit will be subject to withholding tax, then the Issuer, or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, either (x) disposes of such Synthetic Letter of Credit or (y) establishes an account with the Trustee into which 30% of all fee income from such Synthetic Letter of Credit will be transferred and applied to the payment of any withholding tax imposed on the related fees received by the Issuer (it being understood that such reserved amounts shall be released and applied as Interest Proceeds at any later date if (A) the Issuer has received an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the Issuer is no longer responsible for any withholding tax payments on such Synthetic Letter of Credit or (B) the Rating Condition with respect to S&P (so long as any Class of Notes is rated by S&P) is satisfied with respect to such release of the reserved amounts).

“Synthetic Security”: Any swap transaction, structured bond, credit linked note or other derivative financial instrument providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a debt instrument (but excluding any such instrument relating directly to a basket or portfolio of debt instruments) or an index or indices (such as the “SAMI” index published by Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC) in connection with a basket or portfolio of debt instruments or other similar instruments entered into by the Issuer with a Synthetic Security Counterparty that has in the Servicer’s commercially reasonable judgment, equivalent expected loss characteristics (those characteristics, “credit risk”) to those of the related Reference Obligations (taking account of those considerations as they relate to the Synthetic Security Counterparty), if (i) it is either a Form-Approved Synthetic Security or the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied, and (ii) the Reference Obligations thereof have a Market Value equal to at least 85% of the Principal Balance of the Reference Obligation at the time the Synthetic Security is entered into.

“Synthetic Security Agreement”: The documentation governing any Synthetic Security.

“Synthetic Security Collateral”: With respect to any Synthetic Security, amounts posted to the Synthetic Security Collateral Account by the Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its obligations under the Synthetic Security, including (i) all Eligible Investments that mature no later than the Stated Maturity or (ii) floating rate credit card securitizations that are rated “Aaa” by Moody’s and “AAA” by S&P that mature no later than the Stated Maturity in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account that are purchased with Synthetic Security Collateral; provided that any amounts described in clause (ii) above shall be hedged by a guaranteed investment contract or a total return swap which shall be subject to Rating Confirmation by S&P.

“Synthetic Security Collateral Account”: The trust account established pursuant to Section 10.3(e).

“Synthetic Security Counterparty”: Any entity required to make payments on a Synthetic Security to the extent that a Reference Obligor makes payments on a related Reference Obligation.

“Synthetic Security Counterparty Account”: The trust account established pursuant to Section 10.5.

“Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction”: One of the Cayman Islands, Bermuda, the Netherlands Antilles or the tax advantaged jurisdiction of the Channel Islands, or such other jurisdiction that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto; provided that any Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction that is the jurisdiction of organization of an obligor of a Collateral Obligation other than obligors that are special purpose vehicles or issuers of Structured Finance Obligations shall have a Moody’s foreign currency rating of at least “Aa2” and a S&P foreign currency rating of at least “AA-”.

“Tax Event”: An event that occurs if either:

(i) (A) one or more Collateral Obligations that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax (“New Withholding Tax Obligations”) or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more Collateral Obligations that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them (“Increased Rate Withholding Tax Obligations”) and (B) in any Due Period, the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on New Withholding Tax Obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on Increased Rate Withholding Tax Obligations, in each case to the extent not “grossed-up” (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period; or

(ii) taxes, fees, assessments, or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any twelve-month period in excess of U.S.$2,000,000, other than any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax with respect to any payment owing in respect of any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation.

“Tax Opinion of Counsel”: A written opinion addressed to the Issuer (a copy of which will be provided to the Trustee) and, if requested, each Rating Agency that has made such request, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee and each Rating Agency, issued by a nationally recognized law firm reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, which law firm is experienced in the relevant areas of tax law, and which law firm may be counsel for the Servicer or the Issuer.

“Transaction Reports”: The meaning specified in Section 14.4.

“Transfer Agent”: The Person or Persons, which may be the Issuer, authorized by the Issuer to exchange or register the transfer of Notes.

“Transferee Certificate”: A certificate substantially in the form of, with respect to the Senior Notes, Exhibit B-1 or, with respect to the Class E Notes, Exhibit B-4 attached hereto, duly completed as appropriate.

“Treasury Regulations”: The regulations, including proposed or temporary regulations, promulgated under the Code. References herein to specific provisions of proposed or temporary regulations shall include analogous provisions of final Treasury Regulations or other successor Treasury Regulations.

“Trust Officer”: When used with respect to the Trustee, any officer in the Corporate Trust Office (or any successor group of the Trustee) including any director, vice president, assistant vice president, associate, or any other officer of the Trustee customarily performing functions similar to those performed by such officers in the Corporate Trust Office, or to whom any corporate trust matter is referred at the Corporate Trust Office because of his knowledge of and familiarity with the particular subject and having direct responsibility for the administration of this Indenture.

“Trustee”: As defined in the first sentence of this Indenture.

“UCC”: The Uniform Commercial Code as in effect in the State of New York, and as amended from time to time.

“Uncertificated Security”: The meaning specified in Section 8-102(a)(18) of the UCC.

“Underlying Instrument”: The loan agreement, indenture, credit agreement, or other agreement pursuant to which a Pledged Obligation has been issued or created and each other agreement that governs the terms of or secures the obligations represented by the Pledged Obligation or of which the holders of the Pledged Obligation are the beneficiaries.

“Unfunded Amount”: With respect to any Revolving Loan or any Delayed Drawdown Loan at any time, the excess, if any, of (a) the Commitment Amount over (b) the Funded Amount thereof.

“Unregistered Securities”: The meaning specified in Section 5.17(c).

“Unscheduled Principal Payments”: Any principal payments received with respect to a Collateral Obligation as a result of optional redemptions, exchange offers, tender offers, other payments or prepayments made at the option of the issuer thereof or that are otherwise not scheduled to be made thereunder.

“U.S. Person”: A beneficial owner of a Security that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a citizen or individual resident of the United States of America, an entity treated for United States federal income tax purposes as a corporation or a partnership created or organized in or under the laws of the United States of America or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, an estate the income of which is includable in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes regardless of its source, or a trust if, in general, a court within the United States of America is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more U.S. Persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of such trust, and certain eligible trusts that have elected to be treated as U.S. Persons.

“Valuation Report”: The meaning specified in Section 10.6(b).

“Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon”: As of any Measurement Date, the rate obtained by:

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Fixed Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum rate at which it pays interest (other than, with respect to Collateral Obligations that are not PIK Securities, any interest that is not required to be paid in Cash and may be deferred), using only the effective after-tax interest rate determined by the Servicer on any Fixed Rate Obligation after taking into account any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction and any gross-up paid by the obligor);

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);

(iii) dividing the sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations that are Fixed Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, adding to the sum the amount of any Spread Excess as of the Measurement Date, but only to the extent required to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test.

“Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test”: A test that is satisfied if, as of any Measurement Date, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon equals or exceeds 7.5%.

“Weighted Average Life”: As of any Measurement Date, the number obtained by

(i) summing the products obtained by multiplying

(A) the Average Life at that time of each Collateral Obligation by

(B) the Principal Balance at that time of the Collateral Obligation and

(ii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance at that time of all Collateral Obligations.

“Weighted Average Life Test”: A test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the greater of (a) the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and May 1, 2018 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date and (b) four years.

“Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor”: The summation of the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation (excluding Eligible Investments) by its respective Moody’s Rating Factor, dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) and rounding the result up to the nearest whole number.

“Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test”: A test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Moody’s Minimum Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 44.50%.

“Weighted Average Rating Factor Test”: A test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor of the Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) as of such Measurement Date is less than or equal to the Maximum Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor.

“Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test”: A test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the S&P Recovery Rate for each Class of Notes is greater than or equal to: (i) with respect to the Class A Notes, 58.50%; (ii) with respect to the Class B Notes, 61.75%; (iii) with respect to the Class C Notes, 65.00%; (iv) with respect to the Class D Notes, 67.75% and (v) with respect to the Class E Notes, 70.75%.

“Weighted Average Spread”: As of any Measurement Date, a rate obtained by:

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Floating Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum contract spread at which it pays interest (which (w) for PIK Securities for which interest has been deferred or capitalized, will be deemed to be zero, (x) for Collateral Obligations that would be PIK Securities but for the proviso in the definition thereof, will be deemed to be equal to the effective rate of PIK Cash-Pay Interest applicable thereto, (y) for any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, will be the per annum contract spread for the Funded Amount thereof and the rate of the commitment fee and such other fees payable to the Issuer for any Unfunded Amount thereof and (z) for any synthetic letter of credit, will be the all-in rate net of withholding taxes (including any fees payable to the Issuer by the underlying obligor) minus the applicable LIBOR), determined with respect to any Floating Rate Obligation that does not bear interest based on a London interbank offered rate, by expressing the current interest rate on the Floating Rate Obligation as a spread above a three month London interbank offered rate calculated in a manner consistent with the calculation of LIBOR;

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);

(iii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to pass the Weighted Average Spread Test, adding to that sum the amount of Fixed Rate Excess as of the Measurement Date.

“Weighted Average Spread Test”: A test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Weighted Average Spread.

“Workout Assets”: A Loan, High-Yield Bond, or Qualified Equity Security acquired in connection with the workout or restructuring of any Collateral Obligation that the Issuer does not advance any funds to purchase that does not qualify as a Collateral Obligation.

“Written-Down Obligation”: As of any date of determination, any Structured Finance Obligation as to which the Issuer or the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, has been notified by the issuer of the Structured Finance Obligation that the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Structured Finance Obligation and all other Structured Finance Obligations secured by the same pool of collateral that rank pari passu with or senior in priority of payment to the Structured Finance Obligation exceeds the aggregate principal balance (including reserved interest or other amounts available for overcollateralization) of all collateral securing the Structured Finance Obligation and such other pari passu and senior Structured Finance Obligations (excluding defaulted collateral).

“Zero-Coupon Security”: A security that, at the time of determination, does not make periodic payments of interest. A Zero-Coupon Security shall not include a security that is a PIK Security.

Section 1.2 Assumptions as to Pledged Obligations; Construction Conventions.

This Section 1.2 shall be applied in connection with all calculations required to be made pursuant to this Indenture:

- with respect to the scheduled payment of principal or interest on any Pledged Obligation, or any payments on any other assets included in the Collateral,
- with respect to the sale of and acquisition of Collateral Obligations,
- with respect to the income that can be earned on the scheduled payment of principal or interest on the Pledged Obligations and on any other amounts that may be received for deposit in the Collection Account, and
- with respect to the treatment of Collateral Obligations loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement.

The provisions of this Section 1.2 shall be applicable to any determination or calculation that is covered by this Section 1.2, whether or not reference is specifically made to Section 1.2, unless some other method of calculation or determination is expressly specified in the particular provision.

(a) All calculations with respect to the scheduled payment of principal or interest on the Pledged Obligations shall be made on the basis of information as to the terms of each Pledged Obligation and on reports of payments received on the Pledged Obligation that are furnished by or on behalf of the issuer of the Pledged Obligation and, to the extent they are not manifestly in error, the information or report may be conclusively relied on in making the calculations.

(b) For each Due Period and as of any Measurement Date, the scheduled payment of principal or interest on any Pledged Obligation shall be the sum of

(i) the total amount of payments and collections reasonably expected to be received during the Due Period in respect of the Pledged Obligation that, if paid as scheduled, will be available for payment on the Notes and of certain expenses of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer in the Collection Account at the end of the Due Period; and

(ii) any such amounts received in prior Due Periods that were not disbursed on a previous Payment Date.

Except as provided in paragraph (h) below, a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation shall be assumed to have a scheduled payment of principal and interest of zero.

The total amount of payments and collections reasonably expected to be received includes the proceeds of the sale of the Pledged Obligation received and, in the case of sales which have not yet settled, to be received during the Due Period and not used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty, Securities Lending Counterparty, or Hedge Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security, Securities Lending Agreement, or Hedge Agreement) or Eligible Investments or retained in the Collection Account for subsequent application thereof to purchase additional Collateral Obligations pursuant to Section 12.2.

(c) For purposes of the applicable determinations required by Article 12 and the definition of "Interest Coverage Ratio," the expected interest on Collateral Obligations shall be calculated using their then current interest rates.

(d) With respect to any Collateral Obligation, the date on which it "matures" (or its "maturity" date) shall be the earlier of

(i) the stated maturity of the obligation or

(ii) if the Issuer has the right to require the issuer or obligor of the Collateral Obligation to purchase, redeem, or retire the Collateral Obligation at a price of at least par on any one or more dates before its Stated Maturity (a "put right") and the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that it will cause the Issuer to direct the Trustee to exercise the put right on a date, the maturity date shall be the date specified in the certification.

(e) For purposes of calculating compliance with the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), the Coverage Tests and the Interest Diversion Test, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligations. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligations.

(f) Any Collateral Obligation loaned to a Securities Lending Counterparty shall be included in the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests and the Interest Diversion Test, and the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation loaned to a Securities Lending Counterparty shall be included in the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations, in each case unless an "event of default" (under and as defined in the related Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing.

(g) If a Class of Notes ceases to be Outstanding, then any Coverage Test computed by reference to the Class of Notes (but not to any subordinate Class of Notes then Outstanding) shall cease to be of any force.

(h) For purposes of calculating compliance with the Eligibility Criteria (other than the Weighted Average Life Test), at the direction of the Servicer by notice to the Trustee, during the Replacement Period any Eligible Investment representing Principal Proceeds received upon the maturity, redemption, sale, or other disposition of a Collateral Obligation (or, after the Replacement Period, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations) shall be deemed to have the characteristics of the disposed Collateral Obligation until used to purchase an additional Collateral Obligation. The calculations shall be based on the Principal Balance of the disposed Collateral Obligations except in the case of Defaulted Collateral Obligations and Credit Risk Securities, in which case the calculations will be based on the Principal Proceeds received on the disposition or sale of the Defaulted Collateral Obligation or Credit Risk Obligation.

Section 1.3 Rules of Interpretation.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture or unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) Defined terms include, as appropriate, all genders and the plural as well as the singular.

(b) References to designated articles, sections, subsections, exhibits, and other subdivisions of this Indenture, such as “Section 6.13 (a)”, refer to the designated article, section, subsection, exhibit, or other subdivision of this Indenture as a whole and to all subdivisions of the designated article, section, subsection, exhibit, or other subdivision. The words “herein”, “hereof”, “hereto”, “hereunder” and other words of similar import refer to this Indenture as a whole and not to any particular article, section, exhibit, or other subdivision of this Indenture.

(c) Any term that relates to a document or a statute, rule, or regulation includes any amendments, modifications, supplements, or any other changes that may have occurred since the document, statute, rule, or regulation came into being, including changes that occur after the date of this Indenture. References to law are not limited to statutes. Any reference to any Person includes references to its successors and assigns.

(d) Any party may execute any of the requirements under this Indenture either directly or through others, and the right to cause something to be done rather than doing it directly shall be implicit in every requirement under this Indenture. Unless a provision is restricted as to time or limited as to frequency, all provisions under this Indenture are implicitly available and things may happen from time to time.

(e) The term “including” and all its variations mean “including but not limited to.” Except when used in conjunction with the word “either”, the word “or” is always used inclusively (for example, the phrase “A or B” means “A or B or both”, not “either A or B but not both”).

(f) A reference to “a thing” or “any of a thing” does not imply the existence or occurrence of the thing referred to even though not followed by “if any”, and “any of a thing” is any and all of it. A reference to the plural of anything as to which there could be either one or more than one does not imply the existence of more than one (for instance, the phrase “the obligors on a note” means “the obligor or obligors on a note”). “Until something occurs” does not imply that it must occur, and will not be modified by the word “unless.” The word “due” and the word “payable” are each used in the sense that the stated time for payment has passed. The word “accrued” is used in its accounting sense, i.e., an amount paid is no longer accrued. In the calculation of amounts of things, differences and sums may generally result in negative numbers, but when the calculation of the excess of one thing over another results in zero or a negative number, the calculation is disregarded and an “excess” does not exist. Portions of things may be expressed as fractions or percentages interchangeably. The word “shall” is used in its imperative sense, as for instance meaning a party agrees to something or something must occur or exist.

(g) All accounting terms used in an accounting context and not otherwise defined, and accounting terms partly defined in this Indenture, to the extent not completely defined, shall be construed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. To the extent that the definitions of accounting terms in this Indenture are inconsistent with their meanings under generally accepted accounting principles, the definitions contained in this Indenture shall control.

(h) In the computation of a period of time from a specified date to a later specified date or an open-ended period, the words “from” and “beginning” mean “from and including”, the word “after” means “from but excluding,” the words “to” and “until” mean “to but excluding”, and the word “through” means “to and including.” Likewise, in setting deadlines or other periods, “by” means “on or before.” The words “preceding”, “following”, “before”, “after”, “next” and words of similar import, mean immediately preceding or following. References to a month or a year refer to calendar months and calendar years.

(i) Any reference to the enforceability of any agreement against a party means that it is enforceable against the party in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, and other similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors’ rights and to general equity principles.

(j) Except when only the registered holder is recognized, such as in Section 2.9, references to Noteholders, holders, and the like refer equally to beneficial owners who have an interest in a Note but are not reflected in the Indenture Register as the owner.

ARTICLE 2

THE NOTES

Section 2.1 Forms Generally.

The Notes and the Trustee’s or Authenticating Agent’s certificate of authentication on them (the “Certificate of Authentication”) shall be in substantially the forms required by this Article, with appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions, and other variations required or permitted by this Indenture, and may have any letters, numbers, or other marks of identification and any legends or endorsements on them that are consistent with this Indenture, as determined by the Authorized Officers of the Issuer executing the Notes as evidenced by their execution of the Notes.

Section 2.2 Forms of Notes and Certificate of Authentication.

(a) The Senior Notes, including the Regulation S Global Notes, Rule 144A Global Notes and Certificate of Authentication, shall be in the forms of the applicable portion of Exhibit A-1.

(b) Regulation S Global Notes. The Senior Notes of each Class sold to non-U.S. persons in off-shore transactions in reliance on Regulation S shall each be represented by one or more global notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit A-1, including legends (the “Regulation S Global Notes”). The global notes shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Senior Notes represented thereby with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depository for the respective accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream, duly executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Regulation S Global Notes may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee or the Depository or its nominee, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided. As used above and in subsection (d) below, “U.S. person” and “off-shore transaction” have the meanings assigned to them in Regulation S.

(c) Rule 144A Global Notes. The Senior Notes of each Class initially sold to U.S. persons that are Qualified Institutional Buyers (or, solely in the case of certain Holders purchasing Certificated Notes on the Closing Date, Institutional Accredited Investors) and Qualified Purchasers shall each be issued initially in the form of one permanent global note per Class in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit A-1, including legends (each, a “Rule 144A Global Note”), which shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Senior Notes represented thereby with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depository, duly executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Notes may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee or the Depository or its nominee, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided.

(d) Book-Entry Provisions. This Section 2.2(d) shall apply only to Global Notes deposited with or on behalf of the Depository. The “Operating Procedures of the Euroclear System” of Euroclear and the “Terms and Conditions Governing Use of Participants” of Clearstream, respectively, shall be applicable to the Regulation S Global Notes insofar as interests in the Global Notes are held by the Agent Members of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be.

Agent Members shall have no rights under this Indenture with respect to any Global Note held on their behalf by the Trustee, as custodian for the Depository and the Depository may be treated by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, and any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee as the absolute owner of the Senior Note for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Indenture shall prevent the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, or any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee, from giving effect to any written certification, proxy, or other authorization furnished by the Depository or impair, as between the Depository and its Agent Members, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a Holder of any Senior Note.

(e) Some of the Class C Notes and Class D Notes, and all of the Class E Notes, shall be issued in the form of one or more certificated Notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of Exhibit A-2, including legends, which shall be registered in the name of the owner thereof (each, a “Certificated Note”).

Section 2.3 Authorized Amount; Denominations.

(a) The aggregate principal amount of Notes that may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to U.S.$467,250,000, except for Notes authenticated and delivered upon registration of, transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, other Notes pursuant to Sections 2.6, 2.7, or 8.5.

(b) The Notes shall be divided into the following Classes, having the designations, original principal amounts and other characteristics as follows:

Class	A	B	C	D	E
Original Principal Amount	$376,000,000	$29,500,000	$25,250,000	$19,250,000	$17,250,000
Interest Rate	LIBOR + 0.65%	LIBOR + 1.65%	LIBOR + 2.75%	LIBOR + 5.25%	LIBOR + 9.50%
Initial Rating (Moody's/S&P)	Aaa/AAA	Aa2/AA	A2/A	Baa2/BBB	Ba2/BB

(c) The Notes will be issuable in minimum denominations of U.S.$250,000, and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess of that amount.

(d) The Issuer will also issue 12,000 Class I Preference Shares and 36,000 Class II Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, simultaneously with the issuance of the Notes under this Indenture. At any time during the Replacement Period, the Issuer may issue and sell additional Preference Shares and use the proceeds from such issuance and sale to purchase additional Collateral Obligations or as otherwise permitted under the Preference Share Documents and this Indenture pursuant to Section 6 of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement. The Preference Shares are not secured by the lien of this Indenture. Any payments made by the Trustee hereunder with respect to the Preference Shares (other than, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) will be released by the Trustee to the Preference Shares Paying Agent on each Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment, subject to Cayman Islands law, to Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends or Redemption Price, as applicable, and in accordance with the provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

Section 2.4 Extension of Replacement Period and Stated Maturity.

(a) The Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Replacement Period to the applicable Extended Replacement Period End Date up to a maximum of four times if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date in accordance with this Section 2.4 and (ii) the Extension Conditions set forth in Section 2.4(c) are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Replacement Period to the Trustee no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Notes shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or amendment or supplement to this Indenture or the Preference Share Documents (the “Maturity Extension”); provided that the Issuer will not be permitted to effect more than four Maturity Extensions.

(b) In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Securities wishing to sell all or a portion of such Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to Section 2.4(d) (such Securities as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, “Extension Sale Securities”). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in connection with an Extension Sale, all, but not part, of the Extension Sale Securities shall be purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date.

(c) The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the “Extension Conditions”) are satisfied:

(i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;

(ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions in this Indenture and the Preference Share Documents immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Extension Sale Securities and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);

(iii) (a) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody’s (so long as any Notes are then rated by Moody’s);

(iv) the Issuer has not effected more than three prior Extensions; and

(v) such extension is not effected for the primary purpose of decreasing losses or recognizing gains resulting from market value changes.

The Issuer, the Trustee and, by its acceptance of the Notes, each Noteholder agrees that the Initial Purchaser shall not be responsible for causing the Extension Conditions to be satisfied and the Initial Purchaser shall not be liable to any such Person or Noteholders (whether or not such Holder gave an Extension Sale Notice with respect to its Notes) or to any other Person if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied. Failure of the Extension Conditions to be satisfied shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture. The Trustee shall be entitled to receive and rely conclusively on a certificate of the Issuer as to compliance with the extension provisions, as provided in Section 2.4(e) below.

(d) Extension Procedure.

(i) Not later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer of its election to extend the Replacement Period (the “Extension Notice”), the Trustee shall mail the Extension Notice to all Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), in the form of Exhibit J, and shall request the Rating Confirmation for the Maturity Extension from each Rating Agency, if applicable;

(ii) Any Holder of the Securities may deliver an irrevocable written notice (an “Extension Sale Notice”) to the Issuer and the Trustee within 30 days after the Trustee has mailed the Extension Notice (the “Extension Sale Notice Period”) of its intention to sell all or a portion of its Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of the Securities that has not delivered such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension; and

(iii) If clause (iii)(b) of the Extension Conditions is not satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date as determined by the Issuer (or its agent) and notified to the Trustee, the Trustee shall request the Rating Condition to be satisfied with respect to Moody’s.

(e) On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) shall confirm, as shall be certified to the Trustee by a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer (i) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Extension Sale Securities in compliance with all transfer restrictions in this Indenture and the Preference Share Documents and the legends on such Extension Sale Securities and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (ii) whether the requirements of clause (c)(iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (iii) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

(f) On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall automatically become effective under the terms of this Indenture; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth in subparagraph (c) above, and other applicable requirements of this Section 2.4 are satisfied, as determined by the Issuer upon consultation with the Servicer (and as certified to the Trustee by a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer). No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on such determination made by the Issuer in consultation with the Servicer, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail a notice to all Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Servicer, the Initial Purchaser, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) and the ISE (if and for so long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depository for any Notes subject to the Maturity Extension.

(g) In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Noteholder, other than a Holder of Extension Sale Securities, shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment. Holders of Preference Shares shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to any applicable qualifying beneficial owners, as determined by the Issuer, who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification on the first Payment Date from and including each Extension Effective Date on which funds are available to be used for such purposes in accordance with Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption of the Notes. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments shall not be considered “due and payable” hereunder. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Securities. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid, in the case of the Notes, to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer.

(h) If any Holder of Class II Preference Shares delivers an Extension Sale Notice notifying the Issuer and the Trustee of its intention to sell all or a portion of its Class II Preference Shares, such Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to the Extension Qualifying Purchaser and such Preference Shares will, subject to the terms of the Memorandum and Articles of Association, be converted into Class I Preference Shares, which shall be effected by a redemption by the Issuer of the applicable Class II Preference Shares and an issue of an equivalent number of Class I Preference Shares.

Section 2.5 Execution, Authentication, Delivery, and Dating.

The Notes shall be executed on behalf of each of the Applicable Issuers by one of their respective Authorized Officers. The signature of the Authorized Officer on the Notes may be manual or facsimile.

Notes bearing the manual or facsimile signatures of individuals who were at any time the Authorized Officers of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, shall bind the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, notwithstanding that any of them have ceased to hold their offices before the authentication and delivery of the Notes or did not hold their offices at the date of issuance of the Notes.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Co-Issuers may deliver the Senior Notes and the Issuer may deliver the Class E Notes, in each case executed by the Applicable Issuers to the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent, for authentication and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent, upon Issuer Order, shall authenticate and deliver the Notes as provided in this Indenture and not otherwise.

Each Note authenticated and delivered by the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated as of the Closing Date. All other Notes that are authenticated after the Closing Date for any other purpose under this Indenture shall be dated the date of their authentication.

Notes issued upon transfer, exchange, or replacement of other Notes shall be issued in authorized denominations reflecting the original Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes so transferred, exchanged, or replaced, but shall represent only the current outstanding principal amount of the Notes so transferred, exchanged, or replaced. If any Note is divided into more than one Note in accordance with this Article 2, the original principal amount of the Note shall be proportionately divided among the Notes delivered in exchange for it and shall be the original aggregate principal amount of the subsequently issued Notes.

No Note shall be entitled to any benefit under this Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose, unless there appears on the Note a Certificate of Authentication executed by the Trustee or by the Authenticating Agent by the manual signature of one of their Authorized Officers, and that certificate on any Note shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that the Note has been duly authenticated and delivered under this Indenture.

Section 2.6 Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause a register (the “Indenture Register”) to be kept in which the Issuer shall provide for the registration of Notes and the registration of transfers of Notes. The Trustee is hereby initially appointed “Indenture Registrar” for the purpose of registering Notes and transfers of the Notes as provided in this Indenture. The Issuer may rely conclusively on any such information provided to it by the Trustee. Upon any resignation or removal of the Indenture Registrar, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor and notify the Servicer of the appointment or, in the absence of such appointment, assume the duties of Indenture Registrar.

If the Issuer appoints a Person other than the Trustee to be Indenture Registrar, the Issuer will give the Trustee prompt written notice of the appointment of the Indenture Registrar and of the location, and any change in the location, of the Indenture Register. The Trustee may inspect the Indenture Register at all reasonable times and obtain copies of it. The Trustee may rely on a certificate executed on behalf of the Indenture Registrar by an Officer of the Indenture Registrar as to the names and addresses of the Noteholders and the principal amounts and number of the Notes.

Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Notes at the office or agency of the Applicable Issuers to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.2, if the requirements of this Indenture are met the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferees, new Notes of any authorized denomination and of a like original Aggregate Outstanding Amount.

At the option of their Holder, Notes may be exchanged for Notes of like terms, in any authorized denominations and of like aggregate principal amount, upon surrender of the Notes to be exchanged at the office or agency of the Applicable Issuers to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.2. Whenever any Note is surrendered for exchange, the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, the Notes that the Noteholder making the exchange is entitled to receive.

All Notes issued on any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes shall be the valid obligations of the Applicable Issuers evidencing the same obligations and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture as the Notes surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

Every Note presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Indenture Registrar duly executed by its holder or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No Holder shall incur a service charge for any registration of transfer or exchange of the Notes, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

(b) No Note may be sold or transferred (including by pledge or hypothecation) unless the sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, is exempt from the registration requirements under applicable state securities laws, and will not cause either of the Co-Issuers to become subject to the requirement that it register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act. None of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee or any other Person shall have any obligation to register the Notes under the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

(c) (i) In the case of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes, on each day from the date on which a Holder or transferee acquires such Holder's or subsequent transferee's interest in such Notes through and including the date on which such Holder or subsequent transferee disposes of such Holder's or subsequent transferee's interest in such Notes, such Holder or subsequent transferee (and each fiduciary acting on behalf of a Holder or a subsequent transferee (both in its fiduciary and corporate capacity)) shall be deemed to represent either that (A) such Holder or subsequent transferee is neither a Plan nor an entity whose underlying assets include "plan assets" by reason of such Plan's investment in the entity, nor a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan which is subject to any Substantially Similar Law or (B) (1) in connection with the acquisition, holding and disposition of such Class A Note, Class B Note, Class C Notes or Class D Note, the Holder's or transferee's fiduciary has determined that such Holder or transferee is receiving no less, and paying no more, than “adequate consideration” (within the meaning of Section 408(b)(17)(B) of ERISA and Section 4975(f)(10) of the Code) and (2) such Holder’s or transferee’s acquisition, holding and disposition of such Notes will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan, a violation of any Substantially Similar Law). Any purported purchase or transfer of the Senior Notes to a Holder or transferee that does not comply with the requirements of this subsection (i) shall be null and void ab initio.

(ii) (A) Each Holder or subsequent transferee of a Class E Note (and each fiduciary acting on behalf of a Holder or a subsequent transferee (both in its fiduciary and corporate capacity)) will be required to represent whether such Holder or subsequent transferee is (or is not, as applicable) a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person. No Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person will be permitted to purchase Class E Notes unless such Holder’s or subsequent transferee’s acquisition, holding and disposition of such Class E Notes, (x) will not cause participation by Benefit Plan Investors to be “significant” within the meaning of the Plan Asset Regulation and (y) (1) in connection with the acquisition, holding and disposition of such Class E Note, the Holder’s or subsequent transferee’s fiduciary has determined that such Holder or subsequent transferee is receiving no less, and paying no more, than “adequate consideration” (within the meaning of Section 408(b)(17)(B) of ERISA and Section 4975(f)(10) of the Code) and (2) such Holder’s or subsequent transferee’s acquisition, holding and disposition of such Class E Notes will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. If the Holder or the subsequent transferee is a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan that is subject to any Substantially Similar Law, such Holder or subsequent transferee (and each fiduciary acting on behalf of a Holder or a subsequent transferee (both in its fiduciary and corporate capacity)) shall represent and warrant that such Holder’s or subsequent transferee’s acquisition, holding and disposition of a Class E Note will not constitute or result in a non-exempt violation of any such Substantially Similar Law.

(B) In determining whether participation by Benefit Plan Investors is “significant”, Class E Notes beneficially held by (1) the Servicer, the Trustee, any of their respective Affiliates, employees of the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates and any charitable foundation of any such employees or (2) persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons, will be disregarded and will not be treated as Outstanding for purposes of whether participation by Benefit Plan Investors is “significant” to the extent that persons listed in (1) or (2) are not Benefit Plan Investors.

(C) Each Holder or subsequent transferee (and each fiduciary acting on behalf of a Holder or a subsequent transferee (both in its fiduciary and corporate capacity)) acknowledges that a transfer of the Class E Notes will not be permitted, and no such transfer or exchange will be registered under this Indenture, to the extent that the transfer or exchange would result in Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class E Notes immediately after such transfer or exchange (determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation and this Indenture).

(iii) If any Person shall become the beneficial owner of an interest in a Class E Note who has made a Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person representation that is subsequently shown to be false or misleading or whose beneficial ownership otherwise causes a violation of the 25% Limitation (any such person a “Non-Permitted ERISA Holder”), the Issuer shall, promptly after discovery that such person is a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee (and notice by the Trustee or the Co-Issuer to the Issuer, if either of them makes the discovery), send notice to such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder demanding that such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder transfer its interest to a person that is not a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder within 14 days of the date of such notice. If such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder fails to so transfer its Class E Notes, the Issuer shall have the right, without further notice to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, to sell (and shall sell if directed to do so by the Servicer) such Class E Notes or interest in such Class E Notes, to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is not a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder on such terms as the Issuer may choose. The Issuer, or the Trustee acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select the purchaser by soliciting one or more bids from one or more brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Class E Notes and selling such Class E Notes to the highest such bidder. However, the Issuer or the Trustee may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion. The Holder of each Class E Note, the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder and each other Person in the chain of title from the Holder to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, by its acceptance of an interest in the Class E Notes, agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Trustee to effect such transfers. The proceeds of such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale, shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder. The terms and conditions of any sale under this subsection (iii) shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer, and none of the Issuer, the Servicer or the Trustee shall be liable to any Person having an interest in the Class E Notes sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of such discretion (including for the price of such sale).

(d) None of the Trustee, the Share Registrar or the Indenture Registrar shall be responsible for ascertaining whether any transfer complies with, or for otherwise monitoring or determining compliance with, the requirements or terms of the Securities Act, applicable state securities laws, ERISA, the Code or the Investment Company Act; except that if a certificate or any other document is specifically required by this Section 2.6 to be provided to the Trustee, the Share Registrar or the Indenture Registrar by a prospective transferee, the Trustee, the Share Registrar or the Indenture Registrar, as applicable, shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether it conforms substantially on its face to the applicable requirements of this Section 2.6.

(e) For so long as any of the Notes are Outstanding, the Issuer shall not issue or register the transfer of any Issuer Ordinary Shares to U.S. persons and the Co-Issuer shall not issue or register the transfer of any of its shares of the Co-Issuer to U.S. persons. As used in this subsection (e), “U.S. person” has the meaning assigned to it in Regulation S.

(f) So long as a Global Note remains Outstanding and is held by or on behalf of the Depository, transfers of the Global Note, in whole or in part, shall only be made in accordance with Section 2.2(c), Section 2.6(c) and this Section 2.6(f).

(i) Subject to clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Section 2.6(f), transfers of a Global Note shall be limited to transfers of the Global Note in whole, but not in part, to nominees of the Depository.

(ii) Rule 144A Global Note to Regulation S Global Note. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Note deposited with the Depository wishes at any time to exchange its interest in the Rule 144A Global Note for an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note, or to transfer its interest in the Rule 144A Global Note to a Person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note, the Holder may exchange or transfer the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note (subject to the rules and procedures of the Depository) if the Holder after the exchange or transfer is not a U.S. person.

The Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Note and to increase the principal amount of the Regulation S Global Note by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Rule 144A Global Note to be exchanged, and to credit to the securities account of the Person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note equal to the reduction in the principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Note upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of:

(A) instructions given in accordance with the Depository's procedures from an Agent Member directing the Indenture Registrar to credit a beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note, but not less than the minimum denomination applicable to the Holder's Senior Notes, equal to the beneficial interest in the Rule 144A Global Note to be exchanged or transferred,

(B) a written order given in accordance with the Depository's procedures containing information regarding the participant account of the Depository and the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase,

(C) the transferor shall be deemed to make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-3 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest stating that the exchange or transfer of the interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Global Notes, including that the Holder or the transferee, as applicable, is not a U.S. person, and that the transfer has been made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S, and

(D) the transferee shall be deemed to make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in a certificate in the applicable form of Exhibit B-1 given by the proposed transferee stating that it is not a U.S. person.

(iii) Regulation S Global Note to Rule 144A Global Note. If a Holder of a Senior Note held as a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note deposited with the Depository wishes at any time to exchange its interest in the Regulation S Global Note for an interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note or to transfer its interest in the Regulation S Global Note to a Person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note, the Holder may, subject to the rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream or the Depository, as the case may be, exchange or transfer, or cause the exchange or transfer of, the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of:

(A) instructions from Euroclear, Clearstream or the Depository, as the case may be, directing the Indenture Registrar to cause to be credited a beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note equal to the beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Note, but not less than the minimum denomination applicable to the Holder's Senior Notes, to be exchanged or transferred, the instructions to contain information regarding the participant account with the Depository to be credited with the increase,

(B) the transferor shall be deemed to make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-2 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest and stating that, in the case of an exchange, the Holder is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser or, in the case of a transfer, the Person transferring the interest in the Regulation S Global Note reasonably believes that the Person acquiring the interest in a Rule 144A Global Note is a Qualified Institutional Buyer, is obtaining the beneficial interest in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction, and a Qualified Purchaser, and

(C) the transferee shall be deemed to make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-1 given by the proposed transferee stating that it is a QIB/QP, the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the Regulation S Global Note by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Note to be transferred or exchanged and the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository, concurrently with the reduction, to credit to the securities account of the Person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note equal to the reduction in the principal amount of the Regulation S Global Note.

(iv) Other Exchanges. If a Global Note is exchanged for a Senior Note in definitive registered form without interest coupons pursuant to Section 2.11, the Senior Notes may be exchanged for one another only in accordance with procedures substantially consistent with the provisions above (including the certification requirements, intended to insure that the transfers are made only to Holders who are QIB/QPs or non-U.S. persons, or otherwise comply with Regulation S, as the case may be), and as may be from time to time adopted by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee.

(g) So long as the Class E Notes remain Outstanding transfers of such Class E Notes shall only be made in accordance with Section 2.6(c) and this Section 2.6(g) upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-4 given by the proposed transferee stating that it is a QIB/QP and containing other representations, warranties and agreements of such transferee and a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-5 given by the proposed transferee with respect to such transferee's Benefit Plan Investor and affected bank status.

(h) If the Notes are issued upon the transfer, exchange, or replacement of Notes bearing the applicable legends in the applicable forms in Exhibit A, as applicable, and if a request is made to remove the legend on the Notes, the legend shall not be removed unless the Trustee and the Applicable Issuers received satisfactory evidence, which may include an Opinion of Counsel acceptable to them, reasonably required by the Applicable Issuers (and which shall by its terms permit reliance by the Trustee), to the effect that neither the legend nor the restrictions on transfer in it are required to ensure that transfers of the Notes comply with the Securities Act, the Investment Company Act, ERISA and the Code. Upon provision of satisfactory evidence, the Trustee or its Authenticating Agent, at the written direction of the Applicable Issuers shall, after due execution by the Applicable Issuers authenticate and deliver Notes that do not bear the applicable legend.

(i) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 2.6 to the contrary:

(i) Restrictions on U.S. Transfers. Transfers of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note that are not made in an offshore transaction pursuant to Regulation S or are made to U.S. Persons, if such transferees take delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note, shall be limited to transfers made pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.6(f)(iii) and Section 2.6(f)(iv).

(ii) Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may only be held through Euroclear or Clearstream.

(j) (i) Each Person who becomes a beneficial owner of a Senior Note evidenced by: (A) an interest in a Definitive Note, shall make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in the applicable Transferee Certificate set forth in Exhibit B-1 upon such Person's purchase or other acquisition of the relevant Definitive Note and (B) an interest in a Global Note, shall be deemed to make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in the applicable legends of the Notes set forth in Exhibit A-1 hereto and in the applicable Transferee Certificate set forth in Exhibit B-1 hereto upon such Person's purchase or other acquisition of the relevant Global Note.

(ii) Each Person who becomes a beneficial owner of a Class E Note shall (x) make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in the Transferee Certificate set forth in Exhibit B-4 and (y) make the representations set forth in the Benefit Plan Investor and Affected Bank Certificate set forth in Exhibit B-5 upon such Person's purchase or other acquisition of such Class E Note.

(k) The aggregate principal amount of any Global Note may be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee, as custodian for DTC for the Global Note, which adjustments shall be conclusive as to the aggregate principal amount of any Global Note.

(l) Any purported transfer of a Note not in accordance with this Section 2.6 shall be null and void.

Section 2.7 Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Notes.

If the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, and the relevant Transfer Agent receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Note, and they receive the security or indemnity they require to hold each of them harmless, or if any mutilated Note is surrendered to a Transfer Agent, then, in the absence of notice to the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, or the Transfer Agent that the Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the Applicable Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for the mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Note, a replacement Note, of like tenor and equal principal or face amount.

If, after delivery of the replacement Note or payment on it, a protected purchaser of the predecessor Note presents it for payment, transfer, or exchange, the Applicable Issuers, the Transfer Agent, and the Trustee may recover the replacement Note (or the payment on it) from the Person to whom it was delivered or any Person taking the replacement Note from the Person to whom the replacement Note was delivered or any assignee of that Person, except a protected purchaser, and may recover on the security or indemnity provided therefor to the extent of any loss, damage, cost, or expense incurred by the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, and the Transfer Agent in connection with it.

If the final payment in respect of any mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Note has become payable, the Applicable Issuers in their discretion may, instead of issuing a new Note pay the Note without requiring its surrender except that any mutilated Note shall be surrendered.

Upon the issuance of any new Note under this Section, the Applicable Issuers or the Trustee may require the payment by its holder of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with the issuance and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected with it.

Every new Note issued pursuant to this Section in replacement for any mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Note shall be an original additional contractual obligation of the Applicable Issuers and the new Note shall be entitled to all the benefits of this Indenture equally and proportionately with all other Notes of the same Class duly issued under this Indenture, as applicable.

The provisions of this Section are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Notes.

Section 2.8 Payment of Principal and Interest and Other Amounts; Principal and Interest Rights Preserved; Withholding

(a) The Notes of each Class shall accrue interest during each Interest Period on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day) at the Applicable Note Interest Rate. Interest shall be payable in arrears on each Payment Date. Payment of interest on each Class of Notes shall be subordinated to the payments of interest on the related Priority Classes and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of interest due on the Class of Deferred Interest Notes that is not available to be paid (“Deferred Interest”) in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered “payable” for the purposes of this Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note, or in the case of a partial repayment, on the part repaid, from the date of repayment or its Stated Maturity unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or unless there is some other default with respect to the payments of principal.

To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest, until paid as provided in this Indenture).

(b) The principal of each Note of each Class matures at par and is payable on the Payment Date that is the Stated Maturity for the Class of Notes, unless the unpaid principal of the Note becomes payable at an earlier date by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption, or otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the payment of principal of each Class of Notes:

(i) may only occur after principal on each Class of Notes that is a Priority Class with respect to the Class has been paid in full; and

(ii) is subordinated to the payment on each Payment Date of the principal and interest payable on the Priority Classes, and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments;

provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, Interest Proceeds may be used to pay principal of the Class E Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class E Coverage Tests.

(c) Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Section 9.1.

(d) As a condition to the payment of principal of and interest on any Note without the imposition of U.S. withholding tax, the Paying Agent shall require the previous delivery of appropriate properly completed and signed original forms United States federal income tax certifications (generally, an Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a Person that is a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a Person that is not a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) or any other certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, and any Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments on the Note under any present or future law of the United States or any present or future law of any political subdivision of the United States or taxing authority in the United States or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under any such law.

(e) Payments in respect of interest on and principal of any Note shall be made by the Trustee, or by the Irish Paying Agent, if applicable, in U.S. Dollars to the Depository or its designee with respect to a Global Note and to the Holder or its nominee with respect to a Definitive Note and a Class E Note, by wire transfer, as directed by the Holder, in immediately available funds to a U.S. Dollar account maintained by the Depository or its nominee with respect to a Global Note, and to the Holder or its designee with respect to a Definitive Note and a Class E Note. In the case of a Definitive Note and a Class E Note, its Holder has provided written wiring instructions to the Trustee and, if the payment with respect to a Definitive Note is to be made by the Irish Paying Agent, the Irish Paying Agent, on or before the related Record Date.

If appropriate instructions for the wire transfer are not received by the related Record Date, then the payment will be made by check drawn on a U.S. bank mailed to the address of the Holder in the Indenture Register. Upon final payment due on the Maturity of a Note, its Holder shall present and surrender the Note at the office designated by the Trustee on or before the Maturity. If the Trustee and the Applicable Issuers have been furnished the security or indemnity they require to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the certificate, then, in the absence of notice to the Applicable Issuers or the Trustee that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender. Neither the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Share Registrar nor any Paying Agent shall have any responsibility or liability for any aspects of the records maintained by Euroclear, Clearstream, or any of the Agent Members relating to or for payments made thereby on account of beneficial interests in a Global Note.

In the case where any final payment of principal and interest is to be made on any Note (other than on its Stated Maturity and except as otherwise provided in this Indenture), the Trustee, in the name and at the expense of the Applicable Issuers shall, not more than 30 days nor less than 10 days before the date on which the payment is to be made (or as soon as possible after known by the Trustee to be such final payment), mail (by first-class mail, postage prepaid) to the Persons entitled thereto at their addresses appearing on the Indenture Register, a notice specifying the date on which the payment will be made, the amount of the payment per U.S.$100,000 original principal amount of Notes and the place where the Notes may be presented and surrendered for payment. If the Trustee and the Issuer have been furnished any security or indemnity they require to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the certificate, then, in the absence of notice to the Issuer or the Trustee that the applicable certificate has been acquired by a protected purchaser, final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender of the applicable certificate.

(f) Payments of principal to Holders of the Notes of each Class shall be made in the proportion that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes of the Class registered in the name of each Holder on the applicable Record Date bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of all Notes of the Class on the Record Date.

(g) Interest accrued shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the applicable Interest Period divided by 360.

(h) All reductions in the principal amount of a Note (or one or more predecessor Notes) effected by payments of installments of principal made on any Payment Date or Redemption Date shall be binding on all future Holders of the Note and of any Note issued upon the registration of its transfer, exchange, or replacement, whether or not the payment is noted on the Note.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the obligations of the Co-Issuer under the Senior Notes and under this Indenture are non-recourse obligations, and the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes and under this Indenture are limited recourse obligations payable solely from the Collateral and following realization of the assets, application of their proceeds in accordance with this Indenture and the reduction of the proceeds of the Collateral to zero, all obligations of, and any claims against, the Co-Issuers under this Indenture or under the Notes or arising in connection therewith shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. No recourse shall be had against any Officer, director, employee, shareholder, or incorporator of either of the Co-Issuers or their respective successors or assigns for any amounts payable under the Notes or this Indenture. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not (1) prevent recourse to the Collateral for the sums due or to become due under any security, instrument, or agreement that is part of the Collateral or (2) be a waiver, release, or discharge of any indebtedness or obligation evidenced by the Notes or secured by this Indenture until the Collateral have been realized. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not limit the right of any Person to name the Issuer or the Co-Issuer as a party defendant in any Proceeding or in the exercise of any other remedy under the Notes or this Indenture, so long as no judgment in the nature of a deficiency judgment or seeking personal liability is sought or (if obtained) enforced against the person.

(j) If any withholding tax is imposed on the Issuer's payment (or allocations of income) under the Notes to any Noteholder, the tax shall reduce the amount otherwise distributable to the Noteholder. The Trustee is hereby authorized and directed to retain from amounts otherwise distributable to any Noteholder sufficient funds for the payment of any tax that is legally owed, or required by law to be collected, by or on behalf of the Issuer (but the authorization shall not prevent the Trustee or the Issuer from contesting any such tax in appropriate proceedings and withholding payment of the tax, if permitted by law, pending the outcome of the proceedings). The amount of any withholding tax imposed with respect to any Noteholder shall be treated as Cash distributed to the Noteholder when it is withheld by the Trustee and remitted to the appropriate taxing authority. If there is a possibility that withholding tax is payable with respect to a distribution, the Trustee may in its sole discretion withhold the amounts in accordance with this Section 2.8(j). If any Noteholder wishes to apply for a refund of any such withholding tax, the Trustee shall reasonably cooperate with the Noteholder in making the claim by providing information readily available to the Trustee so long as the Noteholder agrees to reimburse the Trustee for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred and provides the Trustee with security reasonably acceptable to the Trustee assuring the reimbursement. The Trustee hereby provides notice to each Noteholder that the failure by the Noteholder to provide the Trustee with appropriate tax certifications may result in amounts being withheld from payments to the Noteholder. Nothing in this Indenture shall impose an obligation on the part of the Trustee to determine the amount of any tax or withholding obligation on the part of the Issuer or in respect of the Notes.

Section 2.9 Persons Considered Owners.

The Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, and any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee may treat as the owner of the Note the Person in whose name any Note is registered on the Indenture Register on the applicable Record Date for the purpose of receiving payments on the Note and on any other date for all other purposes whatsoever (whether or not the Note is overdue), and neither the Issuer, the Co-Issuer nor the Trustee nor any agent of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee shall be affected by notice to the contrary. Pursuant to the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will notify the Trustee and the Share Registrar of any Securities that are owned by the Servicer or any Affiliate of the Servicer.

Section 2.10 Cancellation.

All Notes surrendered for payment, registration of transfer, exchange, or redemption, or lost or stolen, shall be promptly canceled by the Trustee and may not be reissued or resold. No Notes shall be authenticated in lieu of or in exchange for any Notes canceled as provided in this Section 2.10, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture. All canceled Notes held by the Trustee shall be destroyed by the Trustee in accordance with its standard policy unless the Applicable Issuers direct by an Issuer Order delivered to the Trustee prior to cancellation and destruction that they be returned to the Issuer.

Section 2.11 Definitive Notes.

(a) A Global Note deposited with the Depository pursuant to Section 2.2 shall be transferred in the form of a Definitive Note to its beneficial owners only if the transfer complies with Section 2.6 and either

(i) the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depository for the Global Note or

(ii) if at any time the Depository ceases to be a Clearing Agency registered under the Exchange Act and, in each case, a successor depository is not appointed by the Co-Issuers within 90 days after the notice.

(b) Any Global Note that is transferable in the form of a Definitive Note to its beneficial owners pursuant to this Section 2.11 shall be surrendered by the Depository to the Corporate Trust Office (or any other office designated by the Trustee) to be so transferred, in whole or from time to time in part, without charge, and the Applicable Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, upon the transfer of each portion of the Global Note, an equal aggregate principal amount of definitive physical certificates (pursuant to the instructions of the Depository) (each, a “Definitive Note”) in authorized denominations. Any Definitive Note delivered in exchange for an interest in a Global Note, as applicable, shall, except as otherwise provided by Section 2.6(j), bear the legends in the applicable portion of Exhibit A-1 and shall be subject to the transfer restrictions referred to in the legends.

(c) The Holder of a Global Note may grant proxies and otherwise authorize any Person, including Agent Members and Persons that may hold interests through Agent Members, to take any action which a Holder is entitled to take under this Indenture or the Senior Notes, as applicable.

(d) Upon the occurrence of either of the events specified in Section 2.11(a)(i) and (ii), the Co-Issuers shall promptly make available to the Trustee a reasonable supply of Definitive Notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons.

The Definitive Notes shall be in substantially the same form as the Global Notes, with any changes the Issuer and Trustee agree to and the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange therefor, the same aggregate principal amount of Definitive Notes of authorized denominations.

Section 2.12 Notes Beneficially Owned by Non-Permitted Holders.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary elsewhere in this Indenture, (i) any transfer of a beneficial interest in any Global Note to a U.S. person (for purposes of this Section 2.12 as defined in Regulation S) that is not a QIB/QP and that is not made pursuant to an applicable exemption under the Securities Act and (ii) any transfer of a beneficial interest in any Class E Note to a Person that is not a QIB/QP, shall be void and any such purported transfer of which the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee has notice may be disregarded by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Trustee for all purposes.

(b) After discovery by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee (and notice by the Trustee or the Co-Issuer to the Issuer, if either of them makes the discovery) that a Person is a Non-Permitted Holder, the Issuer shall promptly send notice to the Non-Permitted Holder demanding that the Non-Permitted Holder transfer its interest to a Person that is not a Non-Permitted Holder within 30 days of the date of the notice. If the Non-Permitted Holder fails to so transfer its Notes or interest in the Notes without further notice to the Non-Permitted Holder, the Issuer may sell the Notes or interest in the Notes to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is not a Non-Permitted Holder on any terms the Issuer chooses. The Issuer, or the Trustee acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select the purchaser by soliciting bids (or by appointing an investment bank at the expense of the Issuer to solicit bids) from brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Notes, and selling the Notes, or interest in the Notes to the highest bidder. However, the Issuer or the Trustee may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion. The Holder of each Note, the beneficial owner of each interest in a Note, the Non-Permitted Holder, and each other Person in the chain of title from the Holder or beneficial owner to the Non-Permitted Holder, by its acceptance of an interest in the Notes agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Trustee to effect the transfers. The proceeds of the sale, net of any commissions, expenses of the Trustee or otherwise, and taxes due in connection with the sale shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted Holder. The terms of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer (or the Trustee acting on its behalf), and the Issuer and the Trustee shall not be liable to any Person having an interest in the Notes sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of its discretion.

Section 2.13 Tax Purposes.

The Issuer agrees, and each Holder and each beneficial owner of a Note, by acceptance of its Note or its interest in a Note, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have agreed, to treat, and shall treat, such Note as unconditional debt of the Issuer for tax, accounting and financial reporting purposes.

ARTICLE 3

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

Section 3.1 Conditions to Issuance of Notes on Closing Date.

(a) The Notes to be issued on the Closing Date shall be executed by the Applicable Issuers and delivered to the Trustee for authentication and thereupon the same shall be authenticated and delivered by the Trustee upon Issuer Order and upon receipt by the Trustee of the following:

(i) Officers' Certificates of the Co-Issuers Regarding Corporate Matters. An Officer's certificate of each of the Co-Issuers:

(A) (1) evidencing (x) the authorization by Board Resolution of the execution and delivery of this Indenture and the Purchase Agreement and, in the case of the Issuer, the Servicing Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Securities Account Control Agreement and any Hedge Agreements being entered into on or before the Closing Date (if any), and related transaction documents and (y) the execution, authentication and delivery of the Notes applied for by it and specifying the Stated Maturity, principal amount and the Note Interest Rate of each applicable Class of Notes to be authenticated and delivered and (2) with respect to the Issuer only, evidencing the authorization by Board Resolution of the issuance, terms and number of Preference Shares issued on the Closing Date, and that each of the foregoing is in accordance with the terms of the Board Resolution, and

(B) certifying that (1) the attached copy of the Board Resolution is an accurate copy, (2) the resolutions have not been rescinded and are in full force on and as of the Closing Date and (3) the Officers authorized to execute and deliver the documents hold the offices and have the signatures indicated on the documents.

(ii) Governmental Approvals. From each of the Co-Issuers either:

(A) a certificate of the Applicable Issuer or other official document evidencing the due authorization, approval or consent of any governmental bodies, at the time having jurisdiction in the premises, together with an Opinion of Counsel of the Applicable Issuer that no other authorization, approval or consent of any governmental body is required for the valid issuance of the Securities applied for by it, or

(B) an Opinion of Counsel of the Applicable Issuer that no authorization, approval, or consent of any governmental body is required for the valid issuance of the Securities except as have been given; provided that the opinions of Dechert LLP and Walkers, substantially in the forms of Exhibit C and Exhibit D, respectively, shall satisfy this clause (B).

(iii) Co-Issuers' and Servicer's U.S. Counsel Opinion. An opinion of Dechert LLP, special U.S. counsel to the Co-Issuers, an opinion of Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, counsel to the Servicer, and an opinion of Pepper Hamilton LLP, counsel to the Co-Issuer, dated the Closing Date, substantially in the forms of Exhibit C, Exhibit F and Exhibit G.

(iv) Issuer's Cayman Counsel Opinion. An opinion of Walkers, Cayman Islands counsel to the Issuer, dated the Closing Date, substantially in the form of Exhibit D.

(v) Trustee's Counsel Opinion. An opinion of Nixon Peabody LLP, counsel to the Trustee, dated the Closing Date, substantially in the form of Exhibit E.

(vi) Officers' Certificates of Co-Issuers Regarding Indenture. An Officer's certificate of each of the Co-Issuers stating that, to the best of the Officer's knowledge,

(A) the Applicable Issuer is not in default under this Indenture and that the issuance of the Securities applied for by it will not result in a default or a breach of, or be a default under, its organizational documents, any indenture or other agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it is bound, or any order of any court or administrative agency entered in any Proceeding to which it is a party or by which it may be bound or to which it may be subject;

(B) all conditions precedent in this Indenture relating to the authentication and delivery of the applicable Notes have been complied with; and

(C) all expenses due or accrued with respect to the Offering or relating to actions taken on or in connection with the Closing Date have been paid or reserves therefor have been made.

The Officer's certificate of the Issuer shall also state that, to the best of the Officer's knowledge, all of its representations and warranties contained in this Indenture are accurate as of the Closing Date.

(vii) Hedge Agreements. Executed copies of any Hedge Agreements being entered into on or entered into before the Closing Date, if any.

(viii) Servicing Agreement. Executed copy of the Servicing Agreement.

(ix) Preference Shares. Copies of executed Preference Share certificates to be issued on the Closing Date.

(x) Preference Share Documents. Executed copy of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

(xi) Collateral Administration Agreement. Executed copy of the Collateral Administration Agreement.

(xii) Grant of Collateral Obligations. Evidence of the Grant pursuant to the Granting Clauses of this Indenture of all of the Issuer's interest in the Collateral Obligations pledged to the Trustee for inclusion in the Collateral, on the Closing Date and Delivery of the Collateral Obligations (including any promissory notes and all other Underlying Instruments related to them to the extent received by the Issuer) to the Trustee or the Custodian as contemplated by Section 3.2.

(xiii) Certificate of the Servicer. A certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Servicer, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that, to the best knowledge of the Servicer, in the case of each Collateral Obligation pledged to the Trustee for inclusion in the Collateral, as the case may be, on the Closing Date and immediately before the delivery of the Collateral Obligations on the Closing Date:

(A) the "row/column combination" of the table appearing in the definition of "Ratings Matrix" selected by the Servicer on the Closing Date;

(B) the information with respect to the Collateral Obligation in the Schedule of Collateral Obligations is correct; and

(C) the Collateral Obligation satisfies the requirements of the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and of Section 3.1(a)(xx)(B);

(xiv) Rating Letters. Copies of letters signed by each of the Rating Agencies confirming that the Class A Notes have been rated “Aaa” by Moody’s and “AAA” by S&P, that the Class B Notes have been rated at least “Aa2” by Moody’s and at least “AA” by S&P, that the Class C Notes have been rated at least “A2” by Moody’s and at least “A” by S&P, that the Class D Notes have been rated at least “Baa2” by Moody’s and at least “BBB” by S&P, that the Class E Notes have been rated at least “Ba2” by Moody’s and at least “BB” by S&P, and that such ratings are in effect on the Closing Date.

(xv) Accounts. Evidence that each of the Accounts has been established.

(xvi) Issuer Order for Deposit of Funds into Accounts. An Issuer Order signed in the name of the Issuer by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer, dated as of the Closing Date, authorizing the deposit of at least U.S.$285,000,000 into the Collection Account for use pursuant to Section 7.19 and the deposit of at least U.S.$1,800,000 into the Closing Date Expense Account for use pursuant to Section 10.3(g), and the deposit of the Interest Reserve Amount into the Interest Reserve Account pursuant to Section 10.3(j).

(xvii) Irish Listing. An Officer’s certificate of the Issuer to the effect that application has been made to the ISE to admit the Senior Notes to the Official List of the ISE.

(xviii) Issuer Order for Authentication of Notes. An Issuer Order signed in the name of the Issuer by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer, dated as of the Closing Date, directing the Trustee to authenticate the Notes in the amounts, in the registered names and with the CUSIP numbers in the Issuer Order.

(xix) Accountants’ Certificate. An Accountants’ Certificate satisfactory to the Issuer (A) confirming the information with respect to each Collateral Obligation on the Schedule of Collateral Obligations attached as Schedule 1, (B) confirming that the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations that the Issuer has purchased or committed to purchase in accordance with customary settlement procedures in the relevant markets, is approximately U.S.$459,000,000, that the Weighted Average Spread Test is satisfied as of the Closing Date, that the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied as of the Closing Date, that the Weighted Average Life Test is satisfied as of the Closing Date, that each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied as of the Closing Date, that the Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test is satisfied as of the Closing Date, that the Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test is satisfied as of the Closing Date, that the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test is satisfied as of the Closing Date and that the Diversity Test is satisfied as of the Closing Date, (C) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to this Section 3.1(a)(xix), (D) confirming the weighted average purchase price of the Collateral Obligations and (E) indicating the percentage of Collateral Obligations constituting Deep Discount Obligations.

(xx) Certificate of the Issuer Regarding Collateral. A certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that, to the knowledge of the Issuer, in the case of each Collateral Obligation pledged to the Trustee for inclusion in the Collateral, as the case may be, on the Closing Date and immediately before the Delivery of the Collateral Obligation on the Closing Date:

(A) the Issuer has good and marketable title to such Collateral Obligation free and clear of any liens, claims, encumbrances or defects of any nature whatsoever except for those that are being released on the Closing Date and except for those Granted pursuant to or permitted by this Indenture;

(B) the Issuer has acquired its ownership in such Collateral Obligation in good faith without notice of any adverse claim, except as described in paragraph (A) above;

(C) the Issuer has not assigned, pledged or otherwise encumbered any interest in such Collateral Obligation (or, if any interest in the Collateral Obligation has been assigned, pledged or otherwise encumbered, it has been released before the Closing Date or is being released on the Closing Date) other than interests Granted pursuant to or permitted by this Indenture;

(D) the Issuer has full right to Grant a security interest in and assign and pledge such Collateral Obligation to the Trustee;

(E) upon Grant by the Issuer, the Trustee has a first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral Obligations and the other Collateral;

(F) based solely on the Accountant's Certificate set forth in clause (xix) above, the weighted average purchase price of the Collateral Obligations in the Collateral as of the Closing Date is at least 85% of the aggregate par amount thereof; and

(G) the Issuer has made delivery to the Trustee or to a Custodian as contemplated by Section 3.2 of all Collateral Obligations pledged to the Trustee for inclusion in the Collateral on the Closing Date (including any and all promissory notes and other Underlying Instruments related to them to the extent received by the Issuer or on its behalf).

(xxi) Certificate of the Issuer Regarding Important Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice. A certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer, dated as of the Closing Date to the effect that, on or prior to the Closing Date the Issuer provided to the Depository the Important Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice, substantially in the form of Exhibit H-2.

(xxii) Other Documents. Any other documents the Trustee reasonably requires. Nothing in this clause (xxii) shall imply or impose a duty on the part of the Trustee to require any other documents.

(b) Any Refinancing Note may be issued from time to time pursuant to Section 9.7 hereof. Any such Refinancing Notes shall be executed by the Applicable Issuer and delivered to the Trustee for authentication, and thereupon shall be authenticated and delivered by the Trustee upon and pursuant to Issuer Order delivered to the Trustee, together with delivery to the Trustee by the Issuer of an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that (A) such Refinancing Notes are duly authorized and validly issued by the Applicable Issuer pursuant to this Indenture, constituting the legal, valid and binding obligation of such Applicable Issuer, enforceable against such Issuer in accordance with its terms and (B) all conditions precedent under this Indenture, if any, applicable to the issuance, authentication and delivery of such Notes, have been satisfied.

Section 3.2 Custodianship; Delivery of Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments.

(a) The Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall deliver or cause to be delivered to a custodian appointed by the Issuer, which shall be a Securities Intermediary (the “Custodian”), all Collateral in accordance with the definition of “Deliver.” Initially, the Custodian shall be State Street Bank and Trust Company. Any successor custodian shall be a state or national bank or trust company that is not an Affiliate of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, has a long-term debt rating of at least “Baa1” by Moody’s (and not on credit watch with negative implications) and has combined capital and surplus of at least U.S.$200,000,000 and is a Securities Intermediary. Subject to the limited right to relocate Pledged Obligations as provided in Section 7.5(b), the Trustee shall hold all Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, other assets purchased in accordance with this Indenture (other than Loans, Participations and general intangibles) and Cash in the relevant Account established and maintained pursuant to Article 10, as to which in each case the Trustee shall have entered into a Securities Account Control Agreement with the Custodian in accordance with Article 8 of the UCC providing, inter alia, that the establishment and maintenance of the Account shall be governed by the law of the State of New York.

(b) Each time that the Issuer, or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, directs or causes the acquisition of any Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other assets, the Servicer (on behalf of the Issuer) shall, if the Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other asset is required to be, but has not already been, transferred to the relevant Account, cause the Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other asset to be Delivered to the Custodian to be held in the Custodial Account (or in the case of any such asset that is not a Collateral Obligation, in the Account in which the funds used to purchase the asset are held in accordance with Article 10) for the benefit of the Trustee in accordance with this Indenture. The security interest of the Trustee in the funds or other property used in connection with the acquisition shall, immediately and without further action on the part of the Trustee, be released. The security interest of the Trustee shall nevertheless come into existence and continue in the Collateral Obligation, Eligible Investment or other asset so acquired, including all interests of the Issuer in to any contracts related to and proceeds of the Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or other assets.

Section 3.3 Representations as to Collateral.

The Issuer hereby represents and warrants to the Secured Parties as to the Collateral as follows (which representations are repeated on each day on which the Issuer acquires new Collateral):

(i) This Indenture creates a valid and continuing security interest (as defined in the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) in the Collateral in favor of the Trustee, which security interest is prior to all other liens, charges, claims, security interests, mortgages and other encumbrances, and is enforceable as such as against creditors of and purchasers from the Issuer.

(ii) Except for any Securities Lending Collateral and Synthetic Securities Collateral, the Issuer has good and marketable title to and is the owner of each item of Collateral free of any liens, claims, or encumbrances of any nature whatsoever except for liens (A) that are being released on the Closing Date and (B) granted pursuant to or permitted by this Indenture. The Issuer has a first priority security interest in all Securities Lending Collateral to secure all obligations of Securities Lending Counterparty under the Securities Lending Agreement and a first priority interest in all Synthetic Securities Collateral to secure all obligations of Synthetic Security Counterparty under the Synthetic Securities Agreement.

(iii) The Issuer has not assigned, pledged or otherwise encumbered any interest in the Collateral (or, if any interest in the Collateral has been assigned, pledged or otherwise encumbered, it has been released before the Closing Date or is being released on the Closing Date) other than interests granted pursuant to or permitted by this Indenture.

(iv) The Issuer has full right, and has received all consents and approvals required by the related Underlying Instruments, to grant a security interest in its rights in the Collateral to the Trustee.

(v) Each Collateral Obligation included in the Collateral satisfied the requirements of the definition of "Collateral Obligation" as of the date the Issuer committed to purchase the same or, in the case of the Loans with respect to which loans were made by Pre-Closing Parties and repaid by the Issuer on the Closing Date, as of the Closing Date.

(vi) All Collateral Obligations, any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange did not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation, and Eligible Investments (other than, in each case, "general intangibles" within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) have been and will have been credited to one of the Accounts. The securities intermediary for each Account has agreed to treat all assets credited to the Accounts as "financial assets" within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code.

(vii) The Issuer has pledged to the Trustee all of the Issuer's interest in each Collateral Obligation included in the Collateral pursuant to the Granting Clauses of this Indenture and has delivered each Collateral Obligation (including any promissory note and all its other Underlying Instruments to the extent received by the Issuer) to the Trustee or the Custodian as contemplated by Section 3.2.

(viii) Each of the Collateral constitutes "general intangibles," "certificated securities," "instruments," "securities entitlements," "uncertificated securities," "chattel paper" or "securities accounts," each within the meaning of the applicable Uniform

Commercial Code, or any other category of collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code as to which the Issuer has complied with its obligations under Section 3.3(b).

(ix) The Issuer has caused (or will have caused within 10 days following the Closing Date) the filing of appropriate financing statements in the proper filing offices in the appropriate jurisdictions under applicable law to perfect the security interest in the portion of the Collateral pledged to the Trustee under this Indenture that may be perfected by the filing of financing statements.

(x) The Issuer has not authorized the filing of and is not aware of any financing statements against the Issuer that include a description of collateral covering the Collateral other than any financing statement (A) relating to the security interest granted to the Trustee under this Indenture, (B) that has been terminated or (C) that names the Trustee as the secured party. On the date of this Indenture, the Issuer is not aware of any judgment or Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation or tax lien filings against the Issuer.

(xi) The Issuer has delivered to the Trustee a fully executed agreement pursuant to which the securities intermediary for each Account has agreed to comply with all instructions originated by the Trustee relating to the Account without further consent by the Issuer.

(xii) All original executed copies of each “instrument” (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral have been delivered to the Custodian, to the extent received by the Issuer. The Issuer has received confirmation from the Custodian that the Custodian has credited the instruments to one of the Accounts. None of the instruments that are or evidence the Collateral has any marks or notations indicating that they are then pledged or otherwise assigned to any Person other than the Trustee.

(xiii) The Accounts are not in the name of any Person other than the Issuer or the Trustee. The Issuer has not consented to the securities intermediary of any Account to comply with instructions of any Person other than the Trustee.

(xiv) All “certificated securities” (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral have been delivered to the Custodian, to the extent received by the Issuer, registered in the name of the Custodian or indorsed to the Custodian. The Issuer has received confirmation from the Custodian that the Custodian has credited such certificated securities to one of the Accounts.

(xv) The Issuer has caused all “uncertificated securities” (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral to be registered in the name of the Custodian.

(xvi) Upon grant by the Issuer, the Trustee has a first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral.

The parties to this Indenture shall not waive any of the representations in this Section 3.3, unless the Rating Condition is satisfied in connection with such waiver. The Issuer shall provide each of the Rating Agencies with prompt written notice of any breach of the representations contained in this Section 3.3 upon becoming aware thereof, and shall not waive a breach of any of the representations in this Section 3.3, unless the Rating Condition is satisfied (as determined after any adjustment or withdrawal of the ratings following notice of such breach) in connection with such waiver.

If the Issuer acquires Collateral that is not “general intangibles,” “certificated securities,” “instruments,” “securities accounts,” “chattel paper,” “securities entitlements” or “uncertificated securities,” each within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code, or another category of collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code as to which the Issuer has complied with its obligations under this Section 3.3(b), then on or before the date on which the Issuer acquires the Collateral, the Issuer (or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer) shall notify S&P and the Trustee (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) of its acquisition or intended acquisition of the Collateral and the Issuer shall represent to S&P and to the Trustee (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) as to the category of the Collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code and shall make any further representations as to the perfection and priority of the security interest in the Collateral Granted under this Indenture acceptable to S&P.

ARTICLE 4

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE

Section 4.1    Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture.

This Indenture shall be discharged and shall cease to be of further effect with respect to the Notes and the Collateral except as to:

- (i)     rights of registration of transfer and exchange,
- (ii)    substitution of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes,
- (iii)   rights of Noteholders to receive payments of principal and interest on, or other amounts (including without limitation Extension Bonus Payments) owing in respect of, the Notes as provided in this Indenture,
- (iv)    the rights, indemnities, and immunities of the Trustee under this Indenture and the obligations of the Trustee under Section 7.3 of this Indenture with respect to the holding and paying of unclaimed funds,
- (v)    for so long as any Preference Shares remain Outstanding, any provisions hereof conferring any rights or remedies upon the Holders of the Preference Shares or the Preference Shares Paying Agent on behalf of the Holders of the Preference Shares, including but not limited to, the provisions of Articles 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 14 and 15,

(vi) for so long as any Preference Shares remain Outstanding, the provisions of Articles 10, 11 and 12 relating to the acquisition, retention and disbursement of Collateral,

(vii) the rights, obligations, and immunities of the Servicer under this Indenture and under the Servicing Agreement, and

(viii) the rights of Noteholders as beneficiaries of this Indenture with respect to the property deposited with the Trustee and payable to any of them (and the Trustee, on demand of and at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture), when:

(a) either:

(i) all Notes theretofore authenticated and delivered to Holders of Notes (other than (A) Notes that have been destroyed, lost or stolen and which have been replaced or paid as provided in Section 2.7 and (B) Notes for whose payment money has theretofore irrevocably been deposited in trust and thereafter repaid to the Issuer or discharged from the trust, as provided in Section 7.3), have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation; or

(ii) all Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation

(A) have become payable, or

(B) will become payable at their Stated Maturity within one year, or

(C) are to be called for redemption pursuant to Article 9 under an arrangement satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Applicable Issuers pursuant to Section 9.3, and the Issuer has irrevocably deposited with the Trustee, in trust for payment of the principal and interest on the Notes, Cash or non-callable obligations of the United States of America. The obligations deposited under Section 4.1(a)(ii) with respect to the other Notes must be entitled to the full faith and credit of the United States of America or be debt obligations that are rated "Aaa" by Moody's and "AAA" by S&P, in an amount sufficient, as verified by a firm of Independent certified public accountants that are nationally recognized, to pay and discharge the entire indebtedness on the Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, for principal and interest to the date of the deposit (in the case of Notes that have become payable), or to the respective Stated Maturity or the respective Redemption Date, as the case may be, and the Issuer shall have Granted to the Trustee a valid perfected security interest in the Eligible Investment that is of first priority, free of any adverse claim, and shall have furnished an Opinion of Counsel with respect thereto. Section 4.1(a)(ii) shall not apply if an election to act in accordance with Section 5.5(a) has been made and not rescinded. In addition, the Issuer shall cause delivery to the Trustee of a Tax Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the Noteholders would recognize no income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the deposit and satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture;

(b) the Issuer has paid all other sums then payable under this Indenture by the Issuer and no other amounts are scheduled to be payable by the Issuer; and

(c) the Co-Issuers have delivered to the Trustee Officer's certificates and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent in this Indenture provided for relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been complied with.

Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, the rights and obligations of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Servicer and, if applicable, the Noteholders, as the case may be, under Sections 2.8, 4.2, 5.4(d), 5.9, 5.18, 6.7, 6.8, 7.1, 7.3 and 13.1 shall survive.

Section 4.2 Application of Trust Money.

All monies deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 4.1 shall be held in trust for the Person entitled to it and applied by the Trustee in accordance with the Notes and this Indenture, including the Priority of Payments, to the payment of principal and interest, either directly or through any Paying Agent, as the Trustee may determine. The money shall be held in a segregated non-interest bearing trust account identified as being held in trust for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

Section 4.3 Repayment of Monies Held by Paying Agent.

In connection with the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture with respect to the Notes, all monies then held by any Paying Agent other than the Trustee under this Indenture shall, upon demand of the Co-Issuers, be paid to the Trustee to be held and applied pursuant to Section 7.3 and in accordance with the Priority of Payments and thereupon the Paying Agent shall be released from all further liability with respect to the monies.

ARTICLE 5

REMEDIES

Section 5.1 Events of Default.

“Event of Default,” wherever used in this Indenture, means any one of the following events whatever the reason:

(a) a default for four Business Days in the payment of any interest on the Class A Notes or the Class B Notes, or, if no Class A Notes or Class B Notes are Outstanding, a default in the payment of any interest on the Controlling Class, in each case, when it becomes payable

(or in the case of a default in payment due to an administrative error or omission by the Trustee, the Irish Paying Agent or the Indenture Registrar, after seven Business Days);

(b) a default in the payment of principal (including Deferred Interest) of any Note when the same becomes payable, at its Stated Maturity or on the Redemption Date;

(c) the failure on any Payment Date to disburse amounts available in the Payment Account in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the failure continues for three Business Days;

(d) on any Measurement Date for so long as any Class A Notes are Outstanding, the Overcollateralization Ratio with respect to the Class A Notes (which, for purposes of this clause (d), will be calculated without giving effect to clause 5(A) of the definition of Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator) is less than 100%;

(e) either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral becomes an investment company under the Investment Company Act;

(f) breach of any other covenant or other agreement of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer made in this Indenture (other than any failure to satisfy any of the Collateral Quality Tests, any of the Concentration Limitations, any of the Coverage Tests, the Interest Diversion Test, or other covenants or agreements for which a specific remedy has been provided in this Section 5.1) in any material respect, or the failure of any representation or warranty of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in this Indenture or in any certificate or other writing delivered pursuant thereto, or in connection therewith, to be correct in any material respect when made, and the breach or failure continues for 30 days after either of the Co-Issuers has actual knowledge of it or after notice to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Servicer by the Trustee or to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class by registered or certified mail or overnight courier specifying the breach or failure and requiring it to be remedied and stating that the notice is a "Notice of Default" under this Indenture;

(g) the entry of a decree or order by a court having competent jurisdiction adjudging the Issuer or the Co-Issuer as bankrupt or insolvent, or approving as properly filed a petition seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Bankruptcy Law or any other applicable law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and if the decree or order remains unstayed and in effect for 45 consecutive days;

(h) the institution by the shareholders of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of Proceedings to have the Issuer or Co-Issuer, as the case may be, adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by the shareholders of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings against the Issuer or Co-Issuer, or the filing by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under the Bankruptcy Law or any other similar applicable law, or the consent by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the filing of any such petition or to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or the taking of any action by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in furtherance of any such action; or

(i) one or more final judgments is rendered against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer that exceed in the aggregate U.S.$2,000,000 and that remain unstayed, undischarged and unsatisfied for 30 days after the judgments become non-appealable, unless adequate funds have been reserved or set aside for their payment.

Section 5.2 Notice of Event of Default; Acceleration of Maturity; Rescission and Annulment.

(a) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Trustee shall give prompt (and in no event later than five Business Days after becoming aware of such event) notice thereof to the Noteholders.

(b) If an Event of Default is continuing (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h)), the Trustee may, with consent of the Majority of the Controlling Class, and shall, upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, declare the principal of all the Notes to be immediately payable by notice to the Applicable Issuers and the Noteholders, and upon that declaration the unpaid principal of all the Notes, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), and other amounts payable under this Indenture, shall become immediately payable. The Replacement Period shall terminate upon a declaration of acceleration (subject to re-commencement pursuant to Section 5.2(c)). If an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h) occurs, all unpaid principal, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), of all the Notes, and other amounts payable under this Indenture, shall automatically become payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Noteholder, and the Replacement Period shall terminate automatically (subject to re-commencement pursuant to Section 5.2(c)).

(c) At any time after the declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may rescind the declaration and its consequences if:

(i) The Issuer or the Co-Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:

(A) all unpaid installments of interest and principal on the Notes then due (other than as a result of the acceleration);

(B) to the extent that payment of the interest is lawful, interest on any Deferred Interest and Defaulted Interest at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable;

(C) all Administrative Expenses of the Co-Issuers and other sums paid or advanced by the Trustee under this Indenture;

(D) all unpaid Senior Servicing Fees;

(E) all amounts then payable to any Hedge Counterparty; and

(ii) The Trustee has determined that all Events of Default, other than the non-payment of the interest on or principal of the Notes that have become due solely by the acceleration, have been (A) cured, and a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Trustee has agreed with that determination, or (B) waived as provided in Section 5.14.

No such rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right consequent thereon. The Issuer shall not terminate any Hedge Agreement at any time after a declaration of acceleration of the Stated Maturity of the Notes has been made, unless such declaration and its consequences may no longer be rescinded and annulled in accordance with this Section 5.2(c) and liquidation of the Collateral has begun.

If a declaration of acceleration is rescinded as described above:

(x) the Replacement Period, if terminated by the declaration, shall re-commence on the date of the rescission (unless the Replacement Period would have otherwise terminated before that date pursuant to clauses (i), (ii), or (iii) of its definition); and

(y) the Trustee shall retain the Collateral in accordance with this Indenture. If the retention of the Collateral is rescinded pursuant to Section 5.5, the Notes may again be accelerated pursuant to Section 5.2(b), notwithstanding any previous rescission of a declaration of acceleration pursuant to this Section 5.2(c).

No rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right resulting from the Default.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.2 to the contrary, the Notes will not be subject to acceleration by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class or any other Holders solely as a result of the failure to pay any amount due on Notes that are not of the Controlling Class.

Section 5.3 Collection of Indebtedness and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee.

The Applicable Issuers covenant that if a default occurs in the payment of any principal of or interest when payable on any Note, upon demand of the Trustee or the Holder of any affected Note, the Applicable Issuers shall pay to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Holder of the Note, the whole amount then payable on the Note for principal and interest with interest on the overdue principal and, to the extent that payments of the interest shall be legally enforceable, on overdue installments of interest and all other amounts owing to the Noteholders under this Indenture, at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable, and, in addition, an amount sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection, including the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and the Holders and their agents and counsel.

If the Issuer or the Co-Issuer fails to pay those amounts immediately on demand, the Trustee, in its own name and as Trustee of an express trust, may (after giving prior written notice to the Controlling Class and absent the Trustee having received a written direction to the contrary from the Controlling Class), and shall at the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class (subject to Section 6.3(e)), institute a Proceeding for the collection of the sums due, may prosecute the Proceeding to judgment or final decree, and may enforce the same against the Applicable Issuers or any other obligor on the Notes and collect the monies determined to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the Collateral.

If an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee may (after giving prior written notice to the Controlling Class and absent the Trustee having received a written direction to the contrary from the Majority of the Controlling Class), and shall upon written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class (subject to Section 6.3(e)), proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Noteholders by any appropriate Proceedings as is deemed most effective (if no direction is received by the Trustee) or as the Trustee may be directed by a Majority of the Controlling Class, to protect and enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Noteholders, whether for the specific enforcement of any agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted in this Indenture, or to enforce any other proper remedy or legal or equitable right vested in the Trustee by this Indenture or by law. The reasonable compensation, costs, expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or paid by the Trustee and its agents and counsel, in connection with such Proceeding, including, without limitation, the exercise of any remedies pursuant to Section 5.4, shall be reimbursed to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.8.

If any Proceedings are pending relating to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any other obligor on the Notes under the Bankruptcy Law or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or if a receiver, assignee, or trustee in bankruptcy or reorganization, liquidator, sequestrator or similar official has been appointed for or taken possession of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or their respective property or any other obligor on the Notes or its property, or if any other comparable Proceedings are pending relating to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or other obligor on the Notes, or the creditors or property of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or other obligor on the Notes, the Trustee, regardless of whether the principal of any Notes is then payable by declaration or otherwise and regardless of whether the Trustee has made any demand pursuant to this Section 5.3, may, by intervention in the Proceedings or otherwise:

(a) file and prove claims for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes, and file any other papers or documents appropriate and take any other appropriate action (including sitting on a committee of creditors) to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for reasonable compensation to the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys, and counsel, and for reimbursement of all expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, except as a result of negligence or bad faith) and of the Noteholders allowed in any Proceedings relating to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes or to the creditors or property of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or other obligor on the Notes;

(b) unless prohibited by applicable law, vote on behalf of the Noteholders in any election of a trustee or a standby trustee in arrangement, reorganization, liquidation or other bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings or Person performing similar functions in comparable Proceedings; and

(c) collect and receive any monies or other property payable to or deliverable on any such claims, and distribute all amounts received with respect to the claims of the Noteholders and of the Trustee on their behalf; and any trustee, receiver or liquidator, custodian or other similar official is authorized by each of the Noteholders to make payments to the Trustee, and, if the Trustee consents to making payments directly to the Noteholders, to pay to the Trustee amounts sufficient to cover reasonable compensation to the Trustee, each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys, and counsel, and all other reasonable expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee except as a result of negligence or bad faith.

Nothing in this Indenture shall authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or vote for or accept or adopt on behalf of the Holder of any Note, any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or any Noteholder, or to authorize the Trustee to vote on the claim of the Holder of any Note in any Proceeding except, as aforesaid, to vote for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy or similar Person.

Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.3 to the contrary, the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Collateral or institute Proceedings in furtherance of the sale or liquidation of the Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.3 except according to Section 5.5(a).

Section 5.4 Remedies.

(a) If an Event of Default is continuing, and the Notes have been declared payable and the declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded, or at any time after the Stated Maturity, the Co-Issuers agree that the Trustee may (after giving prior written notice to the Controlling Class and absent the Trustee having received a written direction to the contrary from the Majority of the Controlling Class), and shall, upon written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class (subject to Section 6.3(e)), to the extent permitted by applicable law, exercise one or more of the following rights:

(i) institute Proceedings for the collection of all amounts then payable on the Notes or otherwise payable under this Indenture, whether by declaration or otherwise, enforce any judgment obtained, and collect from the Collateral any monies adjudged due;

(ii) sell or liquidate all or a portion of the Collateral or interests in it, at one or more public or private sales called and conducted in any manner permitted by law and in accordance with Section 5.17;

(iii) institute Proceedings from time to time for the complete or partial foreclosure of this Indenture with respect to the Collateral;

(iv) exercise any remedies of a secured party under the UCC and take any other appropriate action to protect and enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Noteholders under this Indenture; and

(v) exercise any other rights that may be available at law or in equity;

except that the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Collateral or institute Proceedings in furtherance of the sale or liquidation of the Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.4 except according to Section 5.5(a).

(b) If an Event of Default as described in Section 5.1(f) is continuing the Trustee may, with the consent of, and shall, at the written direction of, the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, subject to Section 5.8 and Section 6.3(e), institute a Proceeding solely to compel performance of the covenant or agreement or to cure the representation or warranty, the breach of which gave rise to the Event of Default under Section 5.1(f), and enforce any equitable decree or order arising from the Proceeding.

(c) Upon any sale, whether made under the power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, any Holders or the Servicer (subject to the Servicing Agreement) may bid for and purchase any part of the Collateral and, upon compliance with the terms of sale, may hold, retain, possess, or dispose of the Collateral in its or their own absolute right without accountability.

Upon any sale, whether made under the power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, the receipt of the Trustee, or of the Officer making a sale under judicial Proceedings, shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchasers at any sale for their purchase money, and the purchasers shall not be obliged to see to its application.

Any sale, whether under any power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, shall bind the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Noteholders, shall operate to divest all interest whatsoever, either at law or in equity, of each of them in the property sold, and shall be a perpetual bar, both at law and in equity, against each of them and their successors and assigns, and against all Persons claiming through or under them.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, none of the Trustee, the Secured Parties or the Noteholders may, before the date that is one year and one day (or if longer, any applicable preference period plus one day) after the payment in full of all Notes, institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, or liquidation Proceedings, or other Proceedings under the Bankruptcy Law or any similar laws in any jurisdiction. Nothing in this Section 5.4 shall preclude the Trustee or any Secured Party (i) from taking any action before the expiration of that period in (A) any case or Proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or (B) any involuntary insolvency Proceeding filed or commenced by a Person other than a Secured Party or (ii) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of its properties any legal action that is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation Proceeding.

Section 5.5 Optional Retention of Collateral.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, if an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall retain the Collateral, collect and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Collateral and the Notes and any Hedge Agreements (other than amounts received under a Hedge Agreement that are used in putting a Replacement Hedge in place) in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Article 10 and Article 13 unless:

(i) the Trustee, in consultation with the Servicer, determines (bid prices having been obtained with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one dealer, that dealer), selected and specified by the Servicer to the Trustee in writing, at the time making a market in those securities, and having computed the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security) that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty and all other amounts then payable under Section 11.1(b)(v); or

(ii) with respect to an Event of Default other than as specified in Section 5.1(a), (b) or (d), the Holders of a Super Majority of each of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral, and with respect to an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(a), (b) or (d), a Majority of the Controlling Class direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral.

The Trustee shall give written notice of the retention of the Collateral to the Issuer with a copy to the Co-Issuer and the Servicer. So long as the Event of Default is continuing, any retention pursuant to this Section 5.5(a) may be rescinded at any time when the conditions specified in clause (i) or (ii) exist.

(b) Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) shall be construed to require the Trustee to sell the Collateral if the conditions in clause (i) or (ii) of Section 5.5(a) are not satisfied. Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) shall be construed to require the Trustee to retain the Collateral if prohibited by applicable law.

(c) In determining whether the condition specified in Section 5.5(a)(i) exists, the Trustee, in consultation with the Servicer, shall obtain bid prices with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one market maker, that market maker) selected and specified by the Servicer to the Trustee in writing, at the time making a market in those securities, and shall compute the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security. In addition, for the purposes of determining issues relating to the valuation of the Collateral, the satisfaction of the conditions specified in this Indenture, the execution of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral, and the execution of a sale or other liquidation of the Collateral in connection with a determination whether the condition specified in Section 5.5(a)(i) exists, the Trustee may retain, at the Issuer's expense, and rely on an opinion of an Independent investment banking firm, or other appropriate Advisor, of national reputation, which may be the Initial Purchaser.

The Trustee shall deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Noteholders, the Co-Issuers, the Servicer and the Hedge Counterparties a report stating the results of any determination made as required pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i). The Trustee shall make the determinations required by Section 5.5(a)(i) after an Event of Default at the written request of a Majority of the Controlling Class at any time during which the Trustee retains the Collateral pursuant to Section 5.5(a) (provided that if such review is made more frequently than once per Due Period the Trustee shall be entitled to require that any associated expense be borne by the requesting Holders). The Trustee shall obtain (at the Issuer's expense) a letter of a firm of Independent certified public accountants confirming the mathematical accuracy of each calculation made by the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) and certifying their conformity to the requirements of this Indenture (to the extent such accountants are willing and able to do so).

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, the Trustee may not, and the Noteholders representing the requisite percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes specified in Section 5.4 or 5.5, may not instruct the Trustee to sell or liquidate or (except in connection with the concurrent execution of a Replacement Hedge) terminate any Hedge Agreement during the continuance of an Event of Default until all Collateral other than the Hedge Agreements has been sold or liquidated and its proceeds applied in accordance with this Indenture.

(e) Collateral may not be sold or liquidated pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) after the last date on which the sale or liquidation is permitted under Section 5.5(a)(i) with respect to a determination made pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) (the last permitted date being determined by the Trustee under Section 5.5(a)(i)), unless a new determination is made in accordance with Section 5.5(a)(i) and the Collateral is sold or liquidated before the last sale date permitted in accordance with the new determination.

Section 5.6 Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes.

All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or under any of the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Notes or their production in any trial or other Proceeding relating to them, and any Proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be applied as provided in Section 5.7.

In any Proceedings brought by the Trustee (and any Proceedings involving the interpretation of any provision of this Indenture to which the Trustee shall be a party) the Trustee shall be held to represent all the Noteholders.

Section 5.7 Application of Money Collected.

Any money collected by the Trustee with respect to the Notes pursuant to this Article 5 and any money that may then be held or subsequently received by the Trustee with respect to the Notes under this Indenture shall be applied in accordance with Section 11.1, subject to Section 13.1, at the dates fixed by the Trustee.

Section 5.8 Limitation on Suits.

No Holder of any Note shall have any right to institute any Proceedings, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy under this Indenture, unless:

(a) the Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of an Event of Default;

(b) the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings with respect to the Event of Default in its own name as Trustee under this Indenture and the Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with the request;

(c) the Trustee, for 30 days after its receipt of the notice, request and offer of indemnity, has failed to institute a Proceeding; and

(d) no direction inconsistent with the written request has been given to the Trustee during the 30 day period by a Majority of the Controlling Class.

No Noteholder shall have any right in any manner whatsoever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect the rights of any other Noteholders of the same Class or to obtain or to seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders of Notes of the same Class or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner provided in this Indenture and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Notes of the same Class subject to and in accordance with Section 13.1 and the Priority of Payments under Section 11.1, as the case may be.

If the Trustee receives conflicting or inconsistent requests and indemnity pursuant to this Section 5.8 from two or more groups of Holders of the Controlling Class, each representing less than a Majority of the Controlling Class, the Trustee shall take the action requested by the Holders of the largest percentage in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture but subject to Section 6.3(e).

Section 5.9 Unconditional Rights of Noteholders.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture other than this Section 5.9 and Sections 2.8(i), 5.4(d), and 13.1, the Holder of any Note shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of the principal of and interest on the Note as it comes due in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Section 13.1, and, subject to Section 5.8, to institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment, and that right shall not be impaired without the consent of the Holder. Noteholders ranking junior to Notes still Outstanding may not institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until no Note ranking senior to their Note remains Outstanding, subject to Section 5.8, and shall not be impaired without the consent of any such Holder. For so long as any Notes are Outstanding, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be entitled to any payment of any amount for payments to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, on a claim against the Issuer unless there are sufficient funds to pay such amounts to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Section 5.10 Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If the Trustee or the Holder of any Note has instituted any Proceeding to enforce any right under this Indenture and the Proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to the Holder, then, subject to any determination in the Proceeding, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Holder shall be restored to their former positions under this Indenture, and thereafter all rights of the Trustee and the Holder shall continue as though no Proceeding had been instituted.

Section 5.11 Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

No right in this Indenture conferred on or reserved to the Trustee or to the Noteholders is intended to be exclusive of any other right, and every right shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right given under this Indenture or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right under this Indenture, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right.

Section 5.12 Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

No delay or omission of the Trustee or the Holder of any Note to exercise any right accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair the right or be a waiver of the Event of Default or an acquiescence in it or of a subsequent Event of Default. Every right given by this Article 5 or by law to the Trustee or to the Noteholders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the applicable Noteholders.

Section 5.13 Control by Majority of the Controlling Class.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, during the continuance of an Event of Default, a Majority of the Controlling Class may institute and direct the time, method and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee (including the exercise of any remedy specified in Section 5.4(a) or otherwise with respect to the Collateral), or exercising any right of the Trustee with respect to the Notes if:

(i) the direction does not conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of this Indenture; and

(ii) the Trustee has been indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction (and the Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability or expense unless it has received an indemnity against the liability and expense).

(b) The Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with a direction under Section 5.13(a). Subject to Section 6.1, the Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability or expense (unless the Trustee has received an indemnity against the liabilities and expenses reasonably satisfactory to it) and during the continuance of an Event of Default that has not been cured, or waived, the Trustee shall, before receiving directions from a Majority of the Controlling Class, exercise the rights expressly vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise with respect to the Event of Default as is required by Section 6.1(b).

(c) Any direction to the Trustee to undertake a Sale of the Collateral shall be in accordance with Section 5.4 or 5.5.

Section 5.14 Waiver of Past Defaults.

Before a judgment or decree for payment of any money due has been obtained by the Trustee, as provided in this Article 5, a Majority of the Controlling Class may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes, with respect to the Notes waive any past Default and its consequences, except a Default:

(a) in the payment of the principal or Redemption Price of any Note or in the payment of interest (including Defaulted Interest, Deferred Interest and any interest on Defaulted Interest or Deferred Interest) on the Notes;

(b) with respect to a provision of this Indenture that under Section 8.2 cannot be modified or amended without the waiver or consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected by the modification or amendment;

(c) in the payment of amounts due to the Servicer, the Trustee or the Hedge Counterparty, which may only be waived with the consent of the affected party; or

(d) arising as a result of an Event of Default described in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h).

Upon any such waiver, the Default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising from it shall be cured, for every purpose of this Indenture, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereto. The Trustee shall promptly give written notice of any such waiver to the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Noteholder.

Section 5.15 Undertaking for Costs.

All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by its acceptance of its Note agrees, that in any suit for the enforcement of any right under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee or the Servicer for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee or for any action taken or omitted by the Servicer, as applicable, any court may in its discretion require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and that the court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 5.15 shall not apply to any suit instituted by the Trustee or the Servicer, to any suit instituted by any Holder, or group of Holders, of Notes holding in the aggregate more than 10% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, or to any suit instituted by any Noteholder for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note or any other amount payable under this Indenture after the applicable Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, after the applicable Redemption Date).

Section 5.16 Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws.

To the extent that they may lawfully do so, the Co-Issuers covenant that they will not at any time insist on, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law or any valuation, appraisal, redemption, or marshalling law or rights, in each case wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, that may affect the covenants, the performance of, or any remedies under this Indenture. To the extent that they may lawfully do so, the Co-Issuers expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such law or rights, and covenant that they shall not delay or impede the execution of any power in this Indenture granted to the Trustee or the Noteholders but will permit the execution of every power as though the law had not been enacted or rights created.

Section 5.17 Sale of Collateral.

(a) The power to effect any sale (a “Sale”) of any portion of the Collateral pursuant to Sections 5.4 and 5.5 shall not be exhausted by any one or more Sales as to any portion of the Collateral remaining unsold, but shall continue unimpaired until the entire Collateral is sold or all amounts secured by the Collateral have been paid. The Trustee may upon notice to the Noteholders and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), and shall, at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class with respect to Collateral, from time to time postpone any Sale by public announcement made at the time and place of the Sale. The Trustee waives its rights to any amount fixed by law as compensation for any Sale. The Trustee may deduct the reasonable expenses (including the reasonable fees and expenses of its agents and attorneys) incurred by it in connection with a Sale from its proceeds notwithstanding Section 6.8.

(b) The Trustee may bid for and acquire any portion of the Collateral in connection with a public Sale of the Collateral, and may pay all or part of the purchase price by crediting against amounts owing on the Notes or other amounts secured by the Collateral all or part of the net proceeds of the Sale after deducting the reasonable expenses incurred by the Trustee in connection with the Sale notwithstanding Section 6.8. The Notes need not be produced to complete any Sale, or for the net proceeds of the Sale to be credited against amounts owing on the Notes. The Trustee may hold, lease, operate, manage or otherwise deal with any property so acquired in any manner permitted by law in accordance with this Indenture.

(c) If any portion of the Collateral consists of securities issued without registration under the Securities Act (“Unregistered Securities”), the Trustee may seek an Opinion of Counsel, or, if no Opinion of Counsel can be obtained, seek a no action position from the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other relevant federal or state regulatory authorities, regarding the legality of a public or private Sale of the Unregistered Securities.

(d) The Trustee shall execute and deliver an appropriate instrument of transfer transferring its interest in any portion of the Collateral in connection with its Sale. In addition, the Trustee is irrevocably appointed the agent and attorney-in-fact of the Issuer to transfer its interest in any portion of the Collateral in connection with its Sale, and to take all action necessary to effect the Sale. No purchaser or transferee at a Sale shall be bound to ascertain the Trustee's authority, to inquire into the satisfaction of any conditions precedent, or see to the application of any monies.

Section 5.18 Action on the Notes.

The Trustee's right to seek and recover judgment on the Notes or under this Indenture shall not be affected by the seeking or obtaining of or application for any other relief under or with respect to this Indenture. Neither the lien of this Indenture nor any rights or remedies of the Trustee or the Noteholders shall be impaired by the recovery of any judgment by the Trustee against the Issuer or by the levy of any execution under the judgment on any portion of the Collateral or on any of the assets of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer.

ARTICLE 6

THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.1 Certain Duties and Responsibilities.

(a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default known to the Trustee:

(i) the Trustee undertakes to perform the duties and only the duties specifically provided in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(ii) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, on certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture; the Trustee shall examine any certificates or opinions that by any provision of this Indenture are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee to determine whether or not they substantially conform on their face to the requirements of this Indenture and shall promptly notify the party delivering the same if the certificate or opinion does not conform. If a corrected form has not been delivered to the Trustee within 15 days after the notice from the Trustee, the Trustee shall so notify the Noteholders and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares).

(b) If the Trustee has actual knowledge that an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall, before the receipt of directions from a Majority of the Controlling Class, exercise the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise, as a prudent Person would use under the circumstances in the conduct of the Person's own affairs.

(c) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(i) this subsection shall not be construed to limit the effect of subsection (a) of this Section 6.1;

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Trust Officer, unless it is proven that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or the Servicer in accordance with this Indenture or a Majority (or the other percentage required or permitted by this Indenture) of the Controlling Class (or other Class if required or permitted by this Indenture) relating to the time, method, and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee, under this Indenture; and

(iv) no provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties under this Indenture, or in the exercise of any of its rights contemplated under this Indenture, if it has reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of the funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against the risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it; provided that the reasonable costs of performing its ordinary services under this Indenture shall not be deemed a "financial liability" for purposes hereof.

(d) For all purposes under this Indenture, the Trustee shall not have notice or knowledge of any Event of Default described in Section 5.1(d) through 5.1(i) or any Default described in Section 5.1(e) through 5.1(i) unless a Trust Officer assigned to and working in the Corporate Trust Office has actual knowledge of it or unless written notice of any event that is in fact the an Event of Default or Default is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office, and the notice references the Notes generally, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Collateral or this Indenture. For purposes of determining the Trustee's responsibility and liability under this Indenture, whenever reference is made in this Indenture to an Event of Default or a Default, the reference shall be construed to refer only to an Event of Default or Default of which the Trustee has notice as described in this Section 6.1.

(e) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to this Section 6.1 and Section 6.3.

Section 6.2    Notice of Default.

Promptly (and in no event later than five Business Days) after the occurrence of any Default known to the Trustee or after any declaration of acceleration has been made or delivered to the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.2, the Trustee shall transmit notice of all Defaults under this Indenture known to the Trustee, unless the Default has been cured or waived, and of the declaration by mail to the Servicer and the Co-Issuers, each Rating Agency, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and to all Noteholders, as their names and addresses appear on the Indenture Register, the ISE, for so long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed on the ISE and so long as the guidelines of the exchange so require, and, upon written request therefor by a Beneficial Owner in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a Beneficial Owner, to the Beneficial Owner (or its designee).

Section 6.3    Certain Rights of Trustee.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 6.1:

(a) the Trustee may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting on any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, note, or other paper or document (including but not limited to any reports prepared and delivered under Article 10) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request or direction of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer mentioned in this Indenture shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Issuer Request or Issuer Order;

(c) whenever in the administration of this Indenture the Trustee

(i) deems it desirable that a matter be proved or established before taking, suffering, or omitting any action under this Indenture, the Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, rely on an Officer's certificate (unless other evidence is specifically prescribed in this Indenture) or

(ii) is required to determine the value of, or any other matter with respect to, any Collateral or funds under this Indenture or the cash flows projected to be received therefrom, the Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, rely on reports of nationally recognized accountants, investment bankers or other persons qualified to provide the information required to make the determination, including nationally recognized dealers in securities of the type being valued and securities quotation services;

(d) as a condition to taking or omitting to take any action under this Indenture, the Trustee may consult with counsel and the advice of the counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection with respect to any action taken or omitted by it under this Indenture in good faith and in reliance thereon;

(e) the Trustee need not exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Noteholders pursuant to this Indenture, unless the Holders have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs and liabilities that might reasonably be incurred by it in compliance with the request or direction;

(f) the Trustee need not make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, note or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may, and upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, subject to Section 6.3(e), shall, make any the further inquiry or investigation into the facts or matters that it deems appropriate or as it is directed, and the Trustee shall be entitled, on reasonable prior notice to the Co-Issuers and the Servicer, to examine the books and records relating to the Notes, the Collateral, personally or by agent or attorney, during the Co-Issuers' or the Servicer's normal business hours. The Trustee shall, and shall cause its agents to, hold in confidence all such information, except to the extent (i) disclosure may be required by law by any regulatory or administrative authority and (ii) that the Trustee, in its sole judgment, determines that disclosure is consistent with its obligations under this Indenture; provided, however, that the Trustee may disclose on a confidential basis any such information to its agents, attorneys and auditors in connection with the performance of its responsibilities hereunder;

(g) the Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under this Indenture or perform any duties under this Indenture either directly or by or through agents or attorneys, and the Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any non-Affiliated agent, or non-Affiliated attorney, appointed with due care by it under this Indenture;

(h) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith that it reasonably believes to be authorized or within its rights or powers under this Indenture;

(i) nothing in this Indenture shall be construed to impose an obligation on the Trustee to recalculate, evaluate, or verify any report, certificate or information received from the Issuer or Servicer;

(j) the Trustee may request and receive (and rely on) instruction from the Issuer, the Servicer, or the accountants identified in the Accountants' Certificate (and in the absence of its receipt of timely instruction from them, may obtain from an Independent accountant at the expense of the Issuer) as to the application of GAAP to the extent any defined term in this Indenture, or any calculation required to be made or determined by the Trustee under this Indenture, is dependent on or defined by reference to United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), in any instance;

(k) the permissive rights of the Trustee to take or refrain from taking any actions enumerated in this Indenture are not duties;

(l) the Trustee is not responsible for the accuracy of the books and records of, or for any acts or omissions of, the Depository, any Transfer Agent, Custodian, Securities Intermediary, Collateral Administrator, Clearstream, Euroclear, Calculation Agent or any Paying Agent (in each case, other than the Bank acting in that capacity);

(m) in purchasing or disposing of any asset permitted by this Indenture, the Trustee is authorized to deal with itself (in its individual capacity) or with any one or more of its Affiliates, whether it or the Affiliate is acting as a subagent of the Trustee or for any third Person or dealing as principal for its own account. If otherwise qualified, obligations of the Bank or any of its Affiliates shall qualify as Eligible Investments under this Indenture; and

(n) if the Bank is also acting in the capacity of Paying Agent, Transfer Agent, Custodian, Calculation Agent or Securities Intermediary under this Indenture, the rights protections, immunities, and indemnities afforded to the Trustee pursuant to this Article 6 shall also be afforded to the Bank acting in those capacities.

Section 6.4 Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of the Notes.

The recitals contained in this Indenture and in the Notes, other than the Certificate of Authentication, shall be taken as the statements of the Applicable Issuers. The Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture (except as may be made with respect to the validity of the Trustee's obligations under this Indenture), the Collateral or the Notes. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Co-Issuers of the Notes or their proceeds or any money paid to the Co-Issuers pursuant to this Indenture.

Section 6.5 May Hold Notes.

(a) The Trustee, any Paying Agent, Indenture Registrar or any other agent of the Co-Issuers, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and may otherwise deal with the Co-Issuers or any of their Affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee, Paying Agent, Indenture Registrar or other agent.

Section 6.6 Acquisition of Class E Notes and Preference Shares.

The Trustee, in its individual or any other capacity, agrees that after the initial distribution of the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares, neither the Trustee nor any of its affiliates (as defined in the Plan Asset Regulation) will acquire any Class E Notes or Preference Shares (including pursuant to a Maturity Extension, a Refinancing and the Amendment Buy-Out Option) unless such acquisition would not, as determined by the Trustee in reliance on representations made in the applicable transfer certificates with respect thereto, result in persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of any of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares immediately after such acquisition (determined in accordance with Section 3(42) of ERISA, this Indenture and the Preference Share Documents). Any Class E Notes or Preference Shares held as principal by the Trustee or any of its affiliates shall be disregarded and shall not be treated as outstanding for purposes of determining compliance with such 25% Limitation to the extent that such person has represented that it is not a Benefit Plan Investor.

Section 6.7 Money Held in Trust.

Money held by the Trustee under this Indenture shall be held in trust to the extent required in this Indenture. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it under this Indenture except as otherwise agreed on with the Issuer and except to the extent of income or other gain on assets that are deposits in or certificates of deposit of the Bank in its commercial capacity and income or other gain actually received by the Trustee on Eligible Investments. Under no circumstances shall the Trustee be responsible for any losses on assets purchased in accordance with an Issuer Order or a written order or request by the Servicer (provided that the foregoing shall not relieve the Bank of its obligations under any security or obligation issued by the Bank or any Affiliate thereof).

Section 6.8 Compensation and Reimbursement.

(a) The Issuer agrees:

(i) to pay the Trustee on each Payment Date reasonable compensation for all services rendered by it under this Indenture in accordance with its letter agreement with the Trustee (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(ii) except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture or in its letter agreement with the Trustee, to reimburse the Trustee in a timely manner upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with this Indenture (including securities transaction charges and the reasonable compensation and expenses and disbursements of its agents and legal counsel and of any accounting firm or investment banking firm employed by the Trustee pursuant to Sections 5.4, 5.5, 10.5 or 10.7, except any such expense, disbursement or advance attributable to its negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith) but with respect to securities transaction charges, only to the extent they have not been waived during a Due Period due to the Trustee's receipt of a payment from a financial institution with respect to certain Eligible Investments, as specified by the Servicer;

(iii) to indemnify the Trustee and its officers, directors, employees and agents for any loss, liability or expense (including reasonable attorney's fees and costs) incurred without negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith on their part, arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust, including the costs and expenses of defending themselves against any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of their powers or duties under this Indenture; and

(iv) to pay the Trustee reasonable additional compensation together with its expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and costs) for any collection action taken pursuant to Section 6.14.

(b) The Trustee shall receive amounts pursuant to this Section 6.8 as provided in Sections 11.1(b), (c)(i) and (ii) but only to the extent that funds are available for their payment. Subject to Section 6.10, the Trustee shall continue to serve as Trustee under this Indenture notwithstanding the fact that the Trustee has not received amounts due to it under this Indenture.

No direction by the Noteholders shall affect the right of the Trustee to collect amounts owed to it under this Indenture. If on any date when a fee is payable to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture insufficient funds are available for its payment any portion of a fee not so paid shall be deferred and payable on the next date on which a fee is payable and sufficient funds are available for it.

(c) The Trustee agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy for the non-payment to the Trustee of any amounts provided by this Section 6.8 until at least one year and one day, or if longer the applicable preference period then in effect plus one day, after the payment in full of all Notes issued under this Indenture and the payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent of all amounts payable with respect to the Preference Shares in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Nothing in this Section 6.8(c) shall prohibit or otherwise prevent the Trustee from filing proofs of claim in any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceeding.

Section 6.9 Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility.

There shall at all times be a Trustee under this Indenture that is an Independent “bank” (within the meaning of the Investment Company Act) organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any state of the United States, authorized under those laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least U.S.$200,000,000, subject to supervision or examination by federal or state banking authority, having a rating of at least “Baa1” (and not on credit watch with negative implications) by Moody’s and at least “BBB+” by S&P, and having an office within the United States. In addition, the Trustee shall not be “affiliated” (within the meaning of Rule 405 under the Securities Act) with either of the Co-Issuers or any person involved in the organization or operation of either of the Co-Issuers and shall not provide credit or credit enhancement to either of the Co-Issuers; provided that the requirements of the preceding sentence shall be met if (a) the Trustee is not “affiliated” (as defined in the preceding sentence) with the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Administrator or the Share Registrar, (b) neither the Trustee nor the Issuer has actual knowledge, or has received written notice, that the Trustee is “affiliated” (as defined in the preceding sentence) with any person involved with the organization or operation of either of the Co-Issuers, and (c) the Trustee has not provided and does not provide credit or credit enhancement to either of the Co-Issuers. For purposes of the preceding clause (b), (i) the “actual knowledge” of the Trustee shall mean (x) its knowledge of those persons who have been expressly identified in writing to it by either or both of the Co-Issuers, or the Servicer on their behalf or (y) any persons otherwise actually known to a Responsible Officer of the Trustee, in either case, to be a person involved with the organization or operation either of the Co-Issuers, without any duty of independent inquiry or investigation on the part of the Trustee, and (ii) unless and except to the extent it has been otherwise expressly notified in writing by the Issuer, or the Servicer on its behalf, the Trustee shall be entitled to presume that the Issuer has no knowledge of such an affiliation. If the Trustee publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of its supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section 6.9, the combined capital and surplus of the Trustee shall be its combined capital and surplus in its most recent published report of condition. If at any time the Trustee ceases to be eligible in accordance with this Section 6.9, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.10.

Section 6.10 Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article 6 shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.11. The indemnification in favor of the Trustee shall survive any resignation or removal of the Trustee.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving not less than 30 days' written notice to the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, the Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency. Upon receiving the notice of resignation, the Co-Issuers shall by Board Resolution (or, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class) promptly appoint a successor trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.9, by written instrument, in duplicate, executed by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer and an Authorized Officer of the Co-Issuer, one copy of which shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and one copy to the successor Trustee, together with a copy to each Noteholder, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and the Servicer. If no successor Trustee has been appointed and an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee has not been delivered to the Trustee within 60 days after the giving of the notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee or any Noteholder, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.9.

(c) The Trustee may be removed (i) at any time by the Co-Issuers as directed by Board Resolution (or, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, by an Act of a Majority of the Controlling Class) or (ii) by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, delivered to the Trustee and to the Co-Issuers.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee ceases to be eligible under Section 6.9 and fails to resign after written request by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class; or

(ii) the Trustee becomes incapable of acting or is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver or liquidator of the Trustee or of its property appointed or any public officer takes charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then, in any such case (subject to Section 6.10(a)), (A) the Co-Issuers, by Issuer Order (as directed by Board Resolution), may, and at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, remove the Trustee or (B) subject to Section 5.15, or any Holder may, on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee is removed or becomes incapable of acting, or if a vacancy occurs in the office of the Trustee for any reason (other than resignation), the Co-Issuers, by Issuer Order (as directed by Board Resolution) or at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If the Co-Issuers fail to appoint a successor

Trustee within 60 days after the removal or incapability or the occurrence of the vacancy, a successor Trustee may be appointed by a Majority of the Controlling Class by written instrument delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee. The successor Trustee so appointed shall, upon its acceptance of its appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede any successor Trustee proposed by the Co-Issuers. If no successor Trustee has been so appointed by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class and accepted appointment pursuant to Section 6.11, subject to Section 5.15, then the Trustee to be replaced, or any Holder, may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Co-Issuers shall give prompt notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee by mailing written notice of the event by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the Servicer, to each Rating Agency, to the Noteholders as their names and addresses appear in the Indenture Register and to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares). Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office. If the Co-Issuers fail to mail the notice within 10 days after acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee, the successor Trustee shall cause the notice to be given at the expense of the Co-Issuers.

Section 6.11 Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

Every successor Trustee appointed under this Indenture shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the Co-Issuers and the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting its appointment. Upon delivery of the required instruments, the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and the successor Trustee, without any further act, shall become vested with all the rights and obligations of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Co-Issuers or a Majority of any Class of Notes or the successor Trustee, the retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of any amounts then due to it, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to the successor Trustee all the rights and obligations of the retiring Trustee, and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to the successor Trustee all property and money held by the retiring Trustee under this Indenture. Upon request of any successor Trustee, the Co-Issuers shall execute any instruments to more fully and certainly vest in and confirm to the successor Trustee all the rights and obligations of the Trustee under this Indenture.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of its acceptance the successor is qualified and eligible under Section 6.9 and either (a) each Rating Agency has been notified and the successor has long-term debt rated within the four highest rating categories by each Rating Agency, or (b) if not rated within the four highest categories by each Rating Agency, the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto.

Section 6.12 Merger, Conversion, Consolidation, or Succession to Business of Trustee.

Any entity into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee is a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under this Indenture (and of the Bank under all of its other capacities under this Indenture, including as Custodian, Securities Intermediary, Indenture Registrar and Paying Agent) without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. If any of the Notes have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion or consolidation to the authenticating Trustee may adopt the authentication and deliver the Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if the successor Trustee had itself authenticated the Notes.

Section 6.13 Co-Trustees.

At any time, to meet the legal requirements of any jurisdiction in which any part of the Collateral may at the time be located, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may appoint a co-trustee (subject to the approval of the Rating Agencies) to act jointly with the Trustee, with respect to all or any part of the Collateral, with the power to file proofs of claim and take any other actions pursuant to Section 5.6 in this Indenture and to make claims and enforce rights of action on behalf of the Noteholders, as the Holders themselves have the right to do, subject to the other provisions of this Section 6.13.

The Co-Issuers shall join with the Trustee in the execution, delivery and performance of all instruments and agreements necessary or proper to appoint a co-trustee. If the Co-Issuers do not join in the appointment within 15 days after they receive a request to do so, the Trustee may make the appointment.

Any instruments to more fully confirm a co-trustee's appointment shall, on request, be executed, acknowledged and delivered by the Co-Issuers. The Co-Issuers agree to pay (but only from and to the extent of the Collateral), to the extent funds are available therefor under clauses (i)-(iii) of Section 11.1(b), any reasonable fees and expenses in connection with the appointment.

Every co-trustee shall, to the extent permitted by law, but to that extent only, be appointed subject to the following terms:

(a) the Notes shall be authenticated and delivered and all rights and obligations under this Indenture in respect of the custody of securities, cash and other personal property held by, or required to be deposited or pledged with, the Trustee under this Indenture, shall be exercised solely by the Trustee;

(b) the rights and obligations conferred or imposed on the Trustee in respect of any property covered by the appointment of a co-trustee shall be conferred or imposed on and exercised or performed by the Trustee or by the Trustee and the co-trustee jointly as provided in the instrument appointing the co-trustee;

(c) the Trustee at any time, by an instrument in writing executed by it, with the concurrence of the Co-Issuers evidenced by an Issuer Order, may accept the resignation of or remove any co-trustee appointed under this Section 6.13, and if an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall have the power to accept the resignation of, or remove, any co-trustee without the concurrence of the Co-Issuers. A successor to any co-trustee so resigned or removed may be appointed in the manner provided in this Section 6.13;

(d) no co-trustee under this Indenture shall be personally liable because of any act or omission of the Trustee under this Indenture;

(e) the Trustee shall not be liable because of any act or omission of a co-trustee; and

(f) any Act of Noteholders delivered to the Trustee shall be deemed to have been delivered to each co-trustee.

Section 6.14 Certain Duties of Trustee Related to Delayed Payment of Proceeds.

If in any month the Trustee has not received a payment with respect to any Pledged Obligation on its Due Date:

(a) the Trustee shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Servicer in writing, and

(b) unless the payment is received by the Trustee within three Business Days (or the end of the applicable grace period for the payment, if longer) after the notice, or unless the Issuer, in its absolute discretion (but only to the extent permitted by Section 10.2(a)), makes provision for the payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with Section 10.2(a), the Trustee shall request the issuer of the Pledged Obligation, the trustee under the related Underlying Instrument, or paying agent designated by either of them to make the payment as soon as practicable after the request but in no event later than three Business Days after the date of the request. If the payment is not made within that time period, the Trustee, subject to clause (iv) of Section 6.1(c), shall take the action directed by the Servicer in writing. Any such action shall be without prejudice to any right to claim a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture. If the Issuer or the Servicer requests a release of a Pledged Obligation or delivers a Collateral Obligation in connection with any such action under the Servicing Agreement, the release or substitution shall be subject to Section 10.6 and Article 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Trustee shall deliver to the Issuer or its designee any payment with respect to any Pledged Obligation or any Collateral Obligation received after its Due Date to the extent the Issuer previously made provisions for the payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with this Section 6.14 and the payment shall not be part of the Collateral.

Section 6.15 Authenticating Agents.

Upon the request of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee shall, and if the Trustee so chooses the Trustee may, appoint one or more Authenticating Agents with power to act on its behalf and subject to its direction in the authentication of the Notes in connection with issuance, transfers, and exchanges under Sections 2.4, 2.5, 2.6, 2.7, and 8.5, as fully to all intents and purposes as though each Authenticating Agent had been expressly authorized by those Sections to authenticate the Notes. For all purposes of this Indenture, the authentication of Notes by an Authenticating Agent pursuant to this Section 6.15 shall be the authentication of the Notes “by the Trustee.”

Any Authenticating Agent may at any time resign by giving written notice of resignation to the Trustee and the Issuer. The Trustee may at any time terminate the agency of any Authenticating Agent by giving written notice of termination to the Authenticating Agent and the Co-Issuers.

The Co-Issuers agree to pay to each Authenticating Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for its services, and reimbursement for its reasonable expenses relating to its services as an Administrative Expense; provided, however, that if the Trustee elects to appoint an Authenticating Agent without the approval or request of the Co-Issuers, then the Trustee shall pay such compensation and reimbursement. Sections 2.9, 6.4, and 6.5 shall be applicable to any Authenticating Agent.

Section 6.16 Fiduciary for Noteholders Only; Agent for Secured Parties.

With respect to the security interest created under this Indenture, the delivery of any Pledged Obligation to the Trustee is to the Trustee as representative of the Noteholders and agent for the other Secured Parties. In furtherance of the foregoing, the possession by the Trustee of any Pledged Obligation and the endorsement to or registration in the name of the Trustee of any Pledged Obligation (including as entitlement holder of the Custodial Account) are all undertaken by the Trustee in its capacity as representative of the Noteholders and agent for the other Secured Parties.

Section 6.17 Representations and Warranties of the Bank.

The Bank represents and warrants as follows for the benefit of the Noteholders:

(a) Organization. The Bank has been duly organized and is validly existing as a Massachusetts trust company and has the power to conduct its business and affairs as a trustee.

(b) Authorization; Binding Obligations. The Bank has the corporate power and authority to perform the duties and obligations of trustee under this Indenture. The Bank has taken all necessary corporate action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Indenture, and all of the documents required to be executed by the Bank pursuant to this Indenture. Upon execution and delivery by the Bank, this Indenture will be the valid and legally binding obligation of the Bank enforceable in accordance with its terms.

(c) Eligibility. The Bank is eligible under Section 6.9 to serve as Trustee under this Indenture.

Section 6.18 Withholding Tax Forms.

The Issuer hereby agrees to deliver or cause to be delivered, a United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN (or successor form thereto) or any other appropriate tax certificates to the relevant issuer of its Collateral Obligations and issuer of its Eligible Investments at the time such Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments are purchased by the Issuer and thereafter as required under the relevant law. In addition, the Issuer hereby agrees to deliver, and the Issuer shall be required to deliver, United States Internal Revenue Service Forms W-8BEN (or successor form thereto) and other appropriate United States tax forms as may be required by the Hedge Counterparty, to the Hedge Counterparty at the time the Hedge Agreement is entered into and thereafter prior to the expiration or obsolescence of such form, and shall take any other action appropriate to prevent withholding or backup withholding tax on the Hedge Agreements. The Issuer shall represent, to the Hedge Counterparty in the master agreement, confirmation or schedule to the Hedge Agreement, that the Issuer is a “non-U.S. branch” of a foreign person as that term is used in Section 1.1441-4(a)(3)(ii) of the United States Treasury Regulations and a “foreign person” as that term is used in Section 1.6041-4(a)(4) of the United States Treasury Regulations. The Issuer will request that the Hedge Counterparty provide the Issuer a United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 or an appropriate United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8, as applicable, together with any required attachments, at the time the Hedge Agreement is entered into and thereafter prior to the expiration or obsolescence of such form.

ARTICLE 7

COVENANTS

Section 7.1    Payment of Principal and Interest.

The Applicable Issuers shall pay the principal of and interest on the Notes in accordance with the Notes and this Indenture.

The Issuer shall, subject to the Priority of Payments, reimburse the Co-Issuer for any amounts paid by the Co-Issuer pursuant to the Senior Notes or this Indenture. The Co-Issuer shall not reimburse the Issuer for any amounts paid by the Issuer pursuant to the Notes or this Indenture.

Amounts properly withheld under the Code or other applicable law by any Person from a payment to any Holder shall be considered as having been paid by the Applicable Issuers to the Holder for all purposes of this Indenture.

Section 7.2    Maintenance of Office or Agency.

The Co-Issuers appoint the Trustee as a Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and interest on the Notes. The Co-Issuers appoint State Street Bank and Trust Company, 200 Clarendon Street, Mail Code: EUC 108, Boston, MA 02116, telecopy no. (617) 937-0517, Attention: CDO Services Group, as the Co-Issuers’ agent where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Notes or this Indenture may be served and where the Notes may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

The Co-Issuers may at any time and from time to time vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent or appoint any additional agents for all of these purposes.

The Co-Issuers shall maintain in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, an office or agency where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Notes and this Indenture may be served, which office will initially be the office of CT Corporation System, 111 Eighth Avenue, 13th Floor, New York, New York 10011, and an office or agency outside of the United States where the Notes may be presented and surrendered for payment (written notice of which shall be provided to the Trustee by the Co-Issuers).

No paying agent shall be appointed in a jurisdiction that subjects payments on the Notes to withholding tax.

So long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed on the ISE and the guidelines of the exchange so require, the Co-Issuers shall maintain in Ireland a Paying Agent and an office or agency where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Senior Notes and this Indenture may be served and where the Senior Notes may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

The Co-Issuers appoint, for so long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed on the ISE, Custom House Administration & Corporate Services Ltd. (the “Irish Paying Agent”) as Paying Agent in Ireland with respect to the Senior Notes, for the payment of principal, interest and other distributions on the Senior Notes and as the Co-Issuers’ agent where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Senior Notes or this Indenture may be served. If the Irish Paying Agent is replaced at any time when any Class of Senior Notes is listed on the ISE, notice of the appointment of any replacement shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE as promptly as practicable after the appointment. The Co-Issuers shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee, each Rating Agency, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and the Holders of the Senior Notes of the appointment or termination of any such agent and of the location and any change in the location of any such office or agency.

If at any time the Co-Issuers fail to maintain any required office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, or outside the United States, or fail to furnish the Trustee with their addresses, notices and demands may be served on the Co-Issuers at their addresses as provided in Section 14.3.

Section 7.3 Money for Note Payments to be Held in Trust.

All payments of amounts payable with respect to any Notes that are to be made from amounts withdrawn from the Payment Account shall be made on behalf of the Applicable Issuers by the Trustee or a Paying Agent with respect to payments on the Notes.

When the Applicable Issuers have a Paying Agent that is not also the Indenture Registrar, they shall furnish not later than the fifth calendar day after each Record Date a list in the form the Paying Agent reasonably requests, of the names and addresses of the Holders and of the certificate numbers of individual Notes held by each Holder.

Whenever the Applicable Issuers have a Paying Agent other than the Trustee, they shall, on or before the Business Day before each Payment Date or Redemption Date direct the Trustee to deposit on the Payment Date with the Paying Agent an aggregate sum sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due (to the extent funds are then available for that purpose in the Payment Account), that sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled to it and (unless the Paying Agent is the Trustee) the Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee of its action or failure so to act. Any monies deposited with a Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) in excess of an amount sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due on the Notes with respect to which the deposit was made shall be paid over by the Paying Agent to the Trustee for application in accordance with Article 10.

Additional or successor Paying Agents shall be appointed by Issuer Order with written notice of the appointment to the Trustee. So long as Notes of any Class are rated by a Rating Agency any Paying Agent other than the Trustee must either have a long-term debt rating of “Aa3” (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or higher by Moody’s and “AA-” or higher by S&P or a short-term debt rating of “P 1” (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) by Moody’s and “A-1+” by S&P or the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency must be satisfied with respect to its appointment. If a successor Paying Agent ceases to have a long-term debt rating of “Aa3” (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or higher by Moody’s and “AA-” or higher by S&P or a short-term debt rating of “P-1” (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) by Moody’s and a short-term debt rating of “A-1+” by S&P, the Co-Issuers shall promptly remove the Paying Agent and appoint a successor Paying Agent. The Co-Issuers shall not appoint any Paying Agent that is not, at the time of the appointment, a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision and examination by federal or state or national banking authorities. The Co-Issuers shall cause each Paying Agent other than the Trustee to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which the Paying Agent agrees with the Trustee, subject to this Section 7.3, that the Paying Agent will:

- (i) allocate all sums received for payment to the Noteholders for which it acts as Paying Agent on each Payment Date and any Redemption Date among the Holders in the proportion specified in the applicable report to the extent permitted by applicable law;
- (ii) hold all sums held by it for the payment of amounts due with respect to the Notes in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled to them until they are paid or otherwise disposed of as provided in this Indenture;
- (iii) immediately resign as a Paying Agent and forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums held by it in trust for the payment of the Notes if at any time it ceases to meet the standards required to be met by a Paying Agent at the time of its appointment;
- (iv) immediately give the Trustee notice of any default by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer (or any other obligor on the Notes) in the making of any payment required to be made; and
- (v) during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held in trust by the Paying Agent.

To obtain the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture or for any other purpose, the Co-Issuers may at any time pay, or by Issuer Order direct any Paying Agent to pay, to the Trustee all sums held in trust by the Co-Issuers or the Paying Agent, and, upon the payment by any Paying Agent to the Trustee, the Paying Agent shall be released from all further liability with respect to the money paid.

Any money deposited with a Paying Agent and not previously returned that remains unclaimed for 20 Business Days shall be returned to the Trustee. Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent in trust for the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after the principal or interest has become payable shall be paid to the Issuer. The Noteholder shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment of the amounts due to it as an unsecured general creditor and all liability of the Trustee or the Paying Agent with respect to that money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Issuer) shall thereupon cease. The Trustee or the Paying Agent, before being required to release any payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Issuer any reasonable means of notification of the release of the payment, including mailing notice of the release to Holders whose Notes have been called but have not been surrendered for redemption or whose right to or interest in monies payable but not claimed is determinable from the records of any Paying Agent, at the last address of record of each Holder.

Section 7.4 Existence of Co-Issuers.

(a) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, maintain in full force their existence and rights as companies incorporated or organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands and the State of Delaware, respectively, and shall obtain and preserve their qualification to do business as foreign corporations in each jurisdiction in which the qualifications are necessary to protect the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and any of the Collateral.

However, the Issuer may change its jurisdiction of incorporation from the Cayman Islands to any other jurisdiction reasonably selected by the Issuer so long as:

(A) the Issuer has received a legal opinion (on which the Trustee may rely) to the effect that the change is not disadvantageous in any material respect to the Holders, the Servicer or any Hedge Counterparty,

(B) written notice of the change has been given by the Issuer to the Trustee, the Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Servicer, any Hedge Counterparty and each Rating Agency, and

(C) on or before the 15th Business Day following its receipt of the notice the Trustee has not received written notice from a Majority of the Controlling Class objecting to the change.

The Issuer may take any action required by this Indenture within the United States notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture requiring the Issuer to take the action outside of the United States so long as before taking the action the Issuer receives a Tax Opinion of Counsel to the effect that it is not necessary to take the action outside of the United States or any political subdivision of the United States to prevent the Issuer from becoming subject to any United States federal, state, or local withholding or other taxes.

(b) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall ensure that all corporate or other formalities regarding their respective existences (including holding regular board of directors' and shareholders', or other similar, meetings to the extent required by applicable law) are followed.

Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall take any action or conduct its affairs in a manner that is likely to result in its separate existence being ignored or in its assets and liabilities being substantively consolidated with any other Person in a bankruptcy, reorganization or other insolvency proceeding. Without limiting the foregoing,

- (i) the Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries (other than the Co-Issuer),
- (ii) the Co-Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries,
- (iii) the Issuer shall maintain at all times at least one director who is Independent of the Servicer, the Trustee and any of their respective Affiliates,
- (iv) the Issuer shall not commingle its funds with the funds of any other Person, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture, and
- (v) except to the extent contemplated in the Servicing Agreement, the Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and the declaration of trust by the Share Trustee, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall not:
  - (A) engage in any transaction with any shareholder that would be a conflict of interest (the entry into the Administration Agreement with the Administrator shall not be deemed a conflict of interest), or
  - (B) pay dividends in violation of this Indenture, the resolutions of its board of directors and the Preference Share Documents.

Section 7.5 Protection of Collateral.

(a) The Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will procure any action within the Servicer's control that is reasonably necessary to maintain the perfection and priority of the security interest of the Trustee in the Collateral. The Issuer from time to time shall execute and deliver any supplements and amendments to this Indenture and shall execute and deliver any Financing Statements, continuation statements, instruments of further assurance, and other instruments and shall take any other action appropriate to secure the rights and remedies of the Secured Parties under this Indenture and to:

- (i) Grant more effectively all or any portion of the Collateral;
- (ii) maintain or preserve the lien (and its priority) of this Indenture or to carry out more effectively the purposes of this Indenture;
- (iii) perfect, publish notice of, or protect the validity of, any Grant made by this Indenture (including any actions appropriate as a result of changes in law);
- (iv) enforce any of the Pledged Obligations or other instruments or property included in the Collateral;

(v) preserve and defend title to the Collateral and the rights of the Secured Parties in the Collateral against the claims of anyone;

(vi) pay when due all taxes levied or assessed on any part of the Collateral and use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize taxes and any other costs arising in connection with its activities; and

(vii) give, execute, deliver, file and/or record any financing statement, notice, instrument, document, agreement or other papers that may be necessary or desirable to create, preserve, perfect or validate the security interest granted pursuant to this Indenture or to enable the Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights hereunder with respect to such pledge and security interest, and hereby authorizes the Trustee to file a UCC financing statement listing 'all assets of the debtor' in the collateral description of such financing statement.

The Issuer designates the Servicer as its agent and attorney in fact to execute any Financing Statement, continuation statement, and all other instruments, and take all other actions, required pursuant to this Section 7.5.

The Issuer authorizes the filing without the Issuer's signature a financing statement that names the Issuer as "debtor" and State Street Bank and Trust Company as "secured party" (with or without indicating its capacity as Trustee hereunder) and that describes the Collateral as "all assets of the debtor, whether now owned or hereafter acquired and wherever located."

(b) The Trustee shall not:

(i) except in accordance with Section 10.6(a), (b) or (c), remove any portion of the Collateral that consists of Cash or is evidenced by an instrument, certificate or other writing:

(A) from the jurisdiction in which it was held at the date the most recent Opinion of Counsel was delivered pursuant to Section 7.6 (or from the jurisdiction in which it was held as described in the Opinions of Counsel delivered at the Closing Date pursuant to Section 3.1(a)(iii) if no Opinion of Counsel has yet been delivered pursuant to Section 7.6), or

(B) from the possession of the Person who held it (other than the Bank) on such date, or

(ii) cause or permit ownership or the pledge of any portion of the Collateral that consists of book-entry securities to be recorded on the books of a Person (other than the Bank):

(A) located in a different jurisdiction from the jurisdiction in which the ownership or pledge was recorded at such date, or

(B) other than the Person on whose books the ownership or pledge was originally recorded, unless (in the case of clause (i) or (ii) of this Section 7.5(b))

the Trustee shall have first received an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to the property and its priority will continue to be maintained after giving effect to such action or actions.

(c) Without at least 30 days' prior written notice to the Trustee and the Servicer, the Issuer shall not change its "location" (as defined in Section 9-307 of the UCC) or change its name from the name shown on the signature pages of this Indenture.

(d) The Issuer shall, subject to the Priority of Payments, enforce all of its material rights and remedies under the Servicing Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, each Hedge Agreement and each Securities Lending Agreement.

(e) The Issuer shall pay, or cause to be paid, any taxes levied because any Pledged Obligations are owned by the Issuer.

(f) The Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will either exercise the "put" option that prevents a Collateral Obligation from being a Long-Dated Collateral Obligation on the last available date before the Stated Maturity of the Notes or sell the Collateral Obligation for Sale Proceeds at least equal to the Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligation, in either case by the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

Section 7.6 Opinions as to Collateral.

On or before January 1 in each calendar year, commencing in 2009, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee and each of the Rating Agencies, an Opinion of Counsel stating that in the opinion of such counsel as of the date of such opinion under the District of Columbia Uniform Commercial Code, the UCC financing statement(s) filed in connection with the lien and security interests created by this Indenture shall remain effective and no additional financing statements, continuation statements or amendments with respect to such financing statement(s) shall be required to be filed in the District of Columbia from the date thereof through the next twelve months to maintain the perfection of the security interest of this Indenture under the District of Columbia Uniform Commercial Code.

Section 7.7 Performance of Obligations.

(a) The Co-Issuers, each as to itself, shall not take any action, and shall use their reasonable commercial efforts not to permit any action to be taken by others, that would release any Person from any of the Person's covenants or obligations under any instrument included in the Collateral, except in the case of enforcement action taken with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation in accordance with this Indenture and actions by the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement and in conformity with this Indenture or as otherwise required by this Indenture.

(b) The Applicable Issuers may, with the prior written consent of a Majority of each Class of Notes and a Majority of the Preference Shares (except in the case of the Servicing Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement as initially executed), contract with other Persons (including the Servicer, the Trustee and the Collateral Administrator) for the performance of actions and obligations to be performed by the Applicable Issuers under this Indenture. Notwithstanding any such arrangement, the Applicable Issuers shall remain primarily liable for performance under this Indenture. The Applicable Issuers shall punctually perform, and use their reasonable commercial efforts to cause the Servicer, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and any other Person to perform, all of their obligations in the Servicing Agreement, this Indenture, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement or any other agreement.

Section 7.8 Negative Covenants.

(a) The Issuer shall not and, with respect to clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (vi) and (ix), the Co-Issuer shall not, in each case from and after the Closing Date:

(i) sell, transfer, assign, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber (or permit or suffer the sale, transfer, assignment, exchange, or other disposition of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecation, or other encumbering of), any part of the Collateral, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and the Servicing Agreement;

(ii) claim any credit on, make any deduction from, or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, dispute the enforceability of payment of the principal or interest (or any other amount) payable in respect of the Notes (other than amounts withheld in accordance with the Code or any applicable laws of the Cayman Islands) or assert any claim against any present or future Noteholder because of the payment of any taxes levied or assessed on any part of the Collateral;

(iii) (A) incur or assume or guarantee any indebtedness, other than the Notes and this Indenture and the transactions contemplated by this Indenture (including a Refinancing in accordance with Section 9.7 and including, as contemplated hereby, entering into any Hedge Agreements and Securities Lending Agreements) or (B) issue any additional class of securities other than the Preference Shares issued on or before the Closing Date, except as otherwise permitted by the Preference Share Documents;

(iv) (A) permit the validity or effectiveness of this Indenture or any Grant under this Indenture to be impaired, or permit the lien of this Indenture to be amended, hypothecated, subordinated, terminated, or discharged or permit any Person to be released from any covenants or obligations with respect to this Indenture or the Notes, except as may be expressly permitted by this Indenture or by the Servicing Agreement, (B) permit any lien, charge, adverse claim, security interest, mortgage or other encumbrance (other than the lien of this Indenture) to be created on or extend to or otherwise arise on or burden any part of the Collateral, any interest in it, or its proceeds of or (C) take any action that would permit the lien of this Indenture not to be a valid first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral;

(v) amend the Servicing Agreement except pursuant to its terms and Section 15.1(h) or amend the Collateral Administration Agreement except pursuant to its terms unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the amendment or enter into any waiver in respect of any of the foregoing agreements without providing written notice to each Rating Agency and the Trustee (and, with respect to the Collateral Administration Agreement, without the consent of the Trustee);

(vi) to the extent permitted by applicable law, dissolve or liquidate in whole or in part, except as permitted under this Indenture;

(vii) pay any dividends or other distributions other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Preference Share Documents;

(viii) conduct business under any name other than its own;

(ix) have any employees (other than directors and officers to the extent they are employees); or

(x) except for any Underlying Instrument and agreements involving the purchase or sale of Collateral Obligations having customary purchase or sale terms and documented with customary trading documentation (but not excepting any Synthetic Security or Hedge Agreement), enter into any agreement unless the agreement contains “non-petition” and “limited recourse” provisions and shall not amend such “non-petition” and “limited recourse” provisions without prior Rating Confirmation.

(b) Neither the Issuer nor the Trustee shall sell, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of Collateral, or enter into an agreement or commitment to do so, or enter into or engage in any business with respect to any part of the Collateral, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer, the Servicing Agreement.

(c) The Co-Issuer shall not invest any of its assets in “securities” as the term is defined in the Investment Company Act, and shall keep all of its assets in Cash.

(d) Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall use the proceeds of the Notes to buy or carry Margin Stock.

Section 7.9 Notice of Default; Statement as to Compliance.

(a) The Co-Issuers shall notify the Trustee, the Servicer, the Rating Agencies and each Hedge Counterparty within 10 days of acquiring actual knowledge of Default.

(b) On or before December 15 in each calendar year, commencing in 2009, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (to be forwarded by the Trustee to the Servicer and each Noteholder making a written request therefor and, upon written request therefor by a Beneficial Owner in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a Beneficial Owner, to the Beneficial Owner (or its designee) and each Rating Agency) a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer that, to the best knowledge of the Issuer, no Default exists, and has not existed since the date of the last certificate or, if a Default does then exist or had existed, specifying the same and its nature and status, including actions undertaken to remedy it, and that the Issuer has complied with all of its obligations under this Indenture or, if that is not the case, specifying those obligations with which it has not complied.

Section 7.10 Co-Issuers May Consolidate, etc. Only on Certain Terms.

Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer (the “Merging Entity”) shall consolidate or merge with or into any other Person or transfer or convey all or substantially all of its assets to any Person, unless permitted by Cayman Islands law (in the case of the Issuer) or United States and Delaware law (in the case of the Co-Issuer) and unless:

(a) the Merging Entity shall be the surviving corporation, or the Person (if other than the Merging Entity) formed by the consolidation or into which the Merging Entity is merged or to which all or substantially all of the assets of the Merging Entity are transferred (the “Successor Entity”),

(i) if the Merging Entity is the Issuer, is a company organized and existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands or another jurisdiction approved by a Majority of the Controlling Class (except that no approval shall be required in connection with any such transaction undertaken solely to effect a change in the jurisdiction of incorporation pursuant to Section 7.4), and

(ii) in any case shall expressly assume, by an indenture supplemental to this Indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee and each Noteholder, the due and punctual payment of all amounts on all Notes issued by the Merging Entity and the performance and observance of every covenant of this Indenture on its part to be performed or observed, all as provided in this Indenture;

(b) each Rating Agency shall have been notified of the consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the transaction;

(c) if the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall have agreed with the Trustee,

(i) to observe the same legal requirements for the recognition of the formed or surviving corporation as a legal entity separate and apart from any of its Affiliates as are applicable to the Merging Entity with respect to its Affiliates,

(ii) not to consolidate or merge with or into any other Person or transfer or convey the Collateral or all or substantially all of its assets to any other Person except in accordance with this Section 7.10; and

(iii) in any case shall expressly assume by an indenture supplemental to this Indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee, each Noteholder and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the due and punctual payment of all amounts on all the Notes issued by the Merging Entity and the performance and observance of every covenant of this Indenture on its part to be performed or observed, all as provided in this Indenture;

(d) if the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall have delivered to the Trustee and each Rating Agency an Officer's certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing in the jurisdiction in which it is organized; that it has sufficient power and authority to assume the obligations in subsection (a) above and to execute and deliver an indenture supplemental to this Indenture for the purpose of assuming the obligations in subsection (a) above; that it has duly authorized the execution, delivery, and performance of an indenture supplemental to this Indenture for the purpose of assuming the obligations in subsection (a) above and that the supplemental indenture is its valid and legally binding obligation, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject only to bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, moratorium, and other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity; if the Merging Entity is the Issuer, that, following the event that causes the Successor Entity to become the successor to the Issuer, (i) the Successor Entity has title, free of any lien, security interest, or charge, other than the lien and security interest of this Indenture, to the Collateral, and (ii) the lien of this Indenture continues to be effective in the Collateral; and in each case as to any other matters the Trustee or any Noteholder reasonably requires;

(e) after giving effect to the transaction, no Default or Event of Default shall be continuing;

(f) the Merging Entity shall have notified each Rating Agency of the consolidation, merger, transfer or conveyance and shall have delivered to the Trustee, each Noteholder and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) an Officer's certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that the consolidation, merger, transfer or conveyance and the supplemental indenture comply with this Article 7 and that all conditions precedent in this Article 7 relating to the transaction have been complied with and shall have obtained a Tax Opinion of Counsel that no adverse tax consequences will result therefrom to the Holders of the Securities;

(g) the Merging Entity shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel stating that after giving effect to the transaction, neither of the Co-Issuers (or, if applicable, the Successor Entity) will be required to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act; and

(h) after giving effect to the transaction, the outstanding stock of the Merging Entity (or, if applicable, the Successor Entity) will not be beneficially owned within the meaning of the Investment Company Act by any U.S. Person.

Section 7.11 Successor Substituted.

Upon any consolidation or merger, or transfer or conveyance of all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, in accordance with Section 7.10 in which the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right of, the Merging Entity under this Indenture with the same effect as if the Person had been named as the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, in this Indenture. Upon any such consolidation, merger, transfer or conveyance, the Person named as the "Issuer" or the "Co-Issuer" in the first paragraph of this Indenture or any successor may be dissolved, wound up and liquidated at any time thereafter, and the Person thereafter shall be released from its liabilities as obligor and maker on all the Notes and from its obligations under this Indenture.

Section 7.12 No Other Business.

(a) From and after the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than issuing and selling the Notes pursuant to this Indenture and the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents and acquiring, owning, holding, and pledging and selling Collateral Obligations and the other Collateral in connection therewith, and shall not act as agent, negotiator or structurer with respect to any Collateral, act as a participant in negotiating terms of a primary loan agreement or engage in any transaction or activity not permitted by the restrictions set forth in Annex 1 to the Servicing Agreement or which the Issuer knows would cause it to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States within the meaning of the Code or subject the Issuer's income to taxation on a net basis in any jurisdiction, and the Co-Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than issuing and selling the Notes to be issued by it pursuant to this Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, other activities appropriate to accomplish the foregoing or incidental thereto or connected therewith.

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of clause (a) of this Section 7.12, the Issuer shall comply with all of the provisions set forth in Annex 1 to the Servicing Agreement, unless, with respect to a particular transaction, it obtains written advice of Dechert LLP or a Tax Opinion of Counsel that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such transaction, the Issuer's failure to comply with one or more of such provisions will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States within the meaning of the Code or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis. The provisions set forth in Annex 1 to the Servicing Agreement may be amended, eliminated or supplemented (without execution of a supplemental indenture) if the Issuer obtains written advice of Dechert LLP or a Tax Opinion of Counsel that the Issuer's compliance with such amended provisions or supplemental provisions or the Issuer's failure to comply with such provisions proposed to be eliminated, as the case may be, will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States within the meaning of the Code or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis and, at the request of the Issuer, the Trustee is hereby authorized to enter into any amendment of Annex 1 to the Servicing Agreement under such circumstances; provided, however, that written notice of any such amendment, elimination or supplementation of or to the provisions of Annex 1 to the Servicing Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.12(b) shall be provided to each Rating Agency then rating any Outstanding Class of Notes within 90 days of any such amendment, elimination or supplementation. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event written advice of Dechert LLP or a Tax Opinion of Counsel as described above has been obtained in accordance with the terms hereof, no consent of any Noteholder or satisfaction of the Rating Condition shall be required in order to comply with this Section 7.12(b) in connection with the amendment, elimination or supplementation of any provision of Annex 1 to the Servicing Agreement contemplated by such written advice or opinion.

(c) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer may amend, or permit the amendment of, their Memorandum and Articles or the Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the amendment (but not otherwise).

Section 7.13 Listing on ISE.

So long as any Senior Notes remain Outstanding, the Co-Issuers shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain the listing of the Senior Notes on the regulated market of the ISE; provided that the Co-Issuers will not be required to maintain a listing on a stock exchange in the European Union if compliance with requirements of the European Commission on a member state becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Servicer.

Section 7.14 Annual Rating Review.

So long as any Notes of any Class remain Outstanding, on or before December 1 in each year commencing in 2009, the Co-Issuers shall obtain and pay for an annual review or ongoing surveillance of the rating of each Outstanding Class of Notes from each Rating Agency, as applicable. The Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee and the Servicer in writing (and the Trustee shall promptly provide a copy of the notice to the Noteholders) and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) if at any time the rating of any Class of Notes has been, or is known will be, changed or withdrawn.

Section 7.15 Reporting.

At any time when the Co-Issuers are not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act and are not exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act, upon the request of a Holder or Beneficial Owner of any Note, the Co-Issuers shall promptly furnish “Rule 144A Information” to the Holder or Beneficial Owner, to a prospective purchaser of a Note designated by the Holder or Beneficial Owner or to the Trustee for delivery to the Holder or Beneficial Owner or a prospective purchaser designated by the Holder or Beneficial Owner, as the case may be, to permit compliance by the Holder or Beneficial Owner with Rule 144A under the Securities Act in connection with the resale of the Note by the Holder or Beneficial Owner. “Rule 144A Information” is the information specified pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

Section 7.16 Calculation Agent.

(a) The Issuer agrees that for so long as any Floating Rate Notes remain Outstanding an agent will always have been appointed (that does not control and is not controlled by or under common control with the Issuer or its Affiliates) to calculate LIBOR in respect of each Interest Period (the “Calculation Agent”). The Issuer has initially appointed the Trustee as Calculation Agent. The Issuer may remove the Calculation Agent at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Issuer or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine any of the information required to be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE, as described in subsection (b), in respect of any Interest Period, the Issuer or the Servicer (on its behalf) shall promptly appoint a replacement Calculation Agent. For so long as any Floating Rate Notes are listed on the ISE and the guidelines of the exchange so require, notice of the appointment of any replacement Calculation Agent shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE as promptly as practicable after the appointment. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been duly appointed.

(b) As soon as possible after 11:00 a.m., London time, on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period, but in no event later than 11:00 a.m., London time, on the next Business Day, the Calculation Agent shall calculate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes for the next Interest Period. The Calculation Agent shall communicate those rates and amounts to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, each Paying Agent, the Servicer, Euroclear, Clearstream, the Depository, and, so long as any of the Floating Rate Notes are listed thereon and the guidelines of the exchange so require, the ISE. In the latter case, the information shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE as soon as possible after its determination. The Calculation Agent shall separately notify the ISE of the information. The Calculation Agent shall also specify to the Co-Issuers the quotations on which the foregoing rates are based, and in any event the Calculation Agent shall notify the Co-Issuers before 7:00 p.m., London time, on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period that either:

- (i) it has determined or is in the process of determining the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes, or
- (ii) it has not determined and is not in the process of determining any such Note Interest Rate together with its reasons therefor.

The Calculation Agent's determination of the foregoing rates for any Interest Period shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding on all parties and the Holders and Beneficial Owners of the Preference Shares.

Section 7.17 Certain Tax Matters.

(a) For United States federal income tax purposes, the Issuer shall treat the Preference Shares as equity and the Notes as debt. The Issuer and each Holder and beneficial owner of a Note, by its acquisition of that Note, agrees to treat those Notes as debt for United States federal income tax purposes, except (x) as otherwise required by applicable law, (y) to the extent a Holder makes a protective QEF election, or (z) to the extent that a Holder files certain United States tax information returns required of only certain equity owners with respect to various reporting requirements under the Code.

(b) The Issuer will not make an election to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and will take all necessary actions to maintain its status as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(c) The Issuer and Co-Issuer shall file, or cause to be filed, any tax returns, including information tax returns, required by any governmental authority; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not file, or cause to be filed, any income or franchise tax return in the United States or any state thereof except with respect to a return required by a tax imposed under Section 881 of the Code unless it shall have obtained a Tax Opinion of Counsel prior to such filing that, under the laws of such jurisdiction, the Issuer is required to file such income or franchise tax return.

(d) Upon the Trustee's receipt of a written request of the Issuer's Independent accountants, a Noteholder, or written request of a Person certifying that it is an owner of a beneficial interest in a Note, for the information described in United States Treasury Regulations Section 1.1275-3(b)(1)(i) that is applicable to such Note, it shall notify the Issuer of such request and the Issuer will cause its Independent accountants to provide promptly to the Trustee and such requesting Holder or owner of a beneficial interest in such a Note all of such information. Any additional issuance of Notes shall be accomplished in a manner that will allow the Issuer to accurately provide the same information as the foregoing to the Noteholders of such Notes.

(e) In order to ensure the Holders' and Beneficial Owners' acquisition of the Notes pursuant to this Indenture are not treated as offered under conditions of confidentiality, the Holders and Beneficial Owners of the Notes (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) are hereby permitted to disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Indenture (including the ownership and disposition of the Notes). For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction, and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction.

(f) If the Issuer is aware that it has purchased an interest in a "reportable transaction" within the meaning of Section 6011 of the Code, and a Noteholder requests information about any such transactions in which the Issuer is a purchaser, the Issuer shall provide such information it has reasonably available as soon as practicable after such request.

(g) The Issuer shall not conduct any business other than the business that the Issuer is permitted to conduct under this Indenture and the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

(h) The Issuer shall provide, upon the request by a Holder of Class E Notes (or any other Class of Notes that may be treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes), such information for the purposes of allowing such Holder to make a protective "qualifying electing fund" election. The Issuer shall provide, upon request of a Holder of Class E Notes, any information that such Holder reasonably requests to assist such Holder with regard to any filing requirements the Holder may have as a result of the controlled foreign corporation rules under the Code. Upon written request by the Independent accountants, the Indenture Registrar shall provide to the Independent accountants that information contained in the Indenture Register requested by the Independent accountants to comply with this Section 7.17.

(i) The Issuer will treat each purchase of Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments as a "purchase" for tax, accounting and reporting purposes.

(j) Each of the Issuers and the Trustee agrees that it does not intend for this Indenture to represent an agreement to enter into a partnership, a joint venture or any other business entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Issuers and the Trustee shall not represent or otherwise hold themselves out to the United States Internal Revenue Service or other third parties as partners in a partnership or members of a joint venture or other business entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Section 7.18 Securities Lending.

(a) So long as no Event of Default is continuing and if after the completion of the transaction the limit in clause (29) of the definition of “Concentration Limitations” would be satisfied, the Servicer may cause Collateral Obligations that are not Defaulted Collateral Obligations to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least “A1” (and not “A1” but on credit watch with negative implications) and “P-1” (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody’s and a short-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least “A-1”, or if no short-term rating exists, a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least “A+” from S&P (each, a “Securities Lending Counterparty”) pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a “Securities Lending Agreement”); provided that Collateral Obligations the Market Value of which cannot be determined under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Collateral Obligations to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Servicer. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Initial Purchaser or Affiliates of the Servicer. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

(b) Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Servicer (except as may be required below) and shall:

(i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Issuer debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent Collateral Obligations;

(ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Issuer amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent Collateral Obligation is entitled to for the period during which the Collateral Obligation is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities Lending Agreement to make “gross-up” payments to the Issuer that fully compensate for the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;

(iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;

(iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;

(v) be governed by the laws of New York;

(vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture;

(vii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Collateral Obligation becomes a Credit Risk Obligation or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;

(viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty upon any redemption of the Notes in whole;

(ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement (the “Securities Lending Collateral”) to secure its obligation to return the Collateral Obligations or in the alternative post the Securities Lending Collateral with a custodian for the benefit of the Issuer designated by the Securities Lending Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that custodian would qualify to be a successor trustee under Section 6.9;

(x) provide that the Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained at all times in an amount equal to at least 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value (determined daily and monitored by the Servicer) of the lent Collateral Obligations and if securities are delivered to the Trustee as security for the obligations of the Securities Lending Counterparty under the related Securities Lending Agreement, the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will negotiate with the Securities Lending Counterparty a rate for the loan fee to be paid to the Issuer for lending the lent Collateral Obligations;

(xi) the lent Collateral Obligations shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Servicer on the basis of their Market Value;

(xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer’s rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement rather than the loaned Collateral Obligation;

(xiii) provide for early termination within 10 days at the option of the Issuer and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in this Indenture; and

(xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in this Indenture.

(c) If either Moody’s or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities

Lending Counterparty, then the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, within 10 days of the downgrade, shall

(i) terminate its Securities Lending Agreements with the Securities Lending Counterparty unless a guarantor with the required ratings for the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements has been obtained; or

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations lent to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty so that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party, together with all other Securities Lending Agreements, are in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of Securities Lending Counterparties; or

(iii) take any other steps Moody's or S&P may require to cause the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party to be treated by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, as if the obligations were owed by a counterparty having a rating at least equivalent to the rating that was assigned by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty before its being downgraded.

(d) In connection with any such direction by the Servicer to enter into a Securities Lending Agreement, the Trustee may receive and rely on an Issuer Order to the effect that the Securities Lending Agreement, and its Securities Lending Counterparty, is each in compliance with the requirements of this Indenture (including the definition of "Securities Lending Counterparty"). The Issuer and the Trustee may enter into any Securities Lending Agreement (and any related account control agreement) at the instruction of the Servicer, and deliver and accept delivery and return of any Collateral Obligations pursuant to the Securities Lending Agreement, or pursuant to instructions from the Servicer in connection with the Securities Lending Agreement. The Trustee may take any actions and exercise any rights and remedies under any Securities Lending Agreement that the Servicer instructs. The Trustee need not enter into any Securities Lending Agreement (or any related account control agreement) that would in its judgment, subject it to any liability, whether financial or otherwise, or cause it to incur or subject it to risk of any cost or disbursement for which it is not, in its judgment, adequately indemnified, or that would impose on it any obligations or administrative burdens that are unacceptable to it. The Servicer shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in this Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Collateral Obligation is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement:

(a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Collateral Obligation because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action), and

(b) the loaned Collateral Obligations shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as a Collateral Obligation by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Collateral Obligation to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under this Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

Section 7.19 Purchase of Collateral Obligations; Ramp-Up Completion Date.

(a) The Issuer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period or enter into commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period for purchase on or as soon as practicable thereafter (not to exceed 60 days thereafter), in each case, for inclusion in the Collateral so that each of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator with respect to the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes is at least U.S.$510,000,000.

(b) No Collateral Obligations may be purchased prior to the Ramp-Up Completion Date unless immediately following the purchase of any Collateral Obligation (as certified by the Servicer in writing), the remaining funds in the Collection Account, after giving effect to such purchase, are sufficient as of the date of determination to purchase Collateral Obligations for inclusion in the Collateral so that each of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator with respect to the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes is at least U.S.$510,000,000 (taking into account the Collateral Obligations already part of the Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments or principal prepayments made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date)).

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of this Indenture, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase a Collateral Obligation to be included in the Collateral, such commitment initially not to exceed 60 days, and at the time of the commitment the Collateral Obligation complied with the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and the requirements set forth in this Section 7.19, the Issuer may consummate the purchase of the Collateral Obligation notwithstanding that the Collateral Obligation fails to comply with the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and the requirements set out above on the date of settlement.

(d) The Issuer will use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, or to enter into binding agreements to purchase, Collateral Obligations by the Ramp-Up Completion Date, that, together with the Collateral Obligations purchased on or before the Closing Date and then held by the Issuer, will satisfy, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments or principal prepayments made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date), the Collateral Quality Tests, the Concentration Limitations, the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 of this Indenture and the Overcollateralization Tests.

(e) No later than 10 Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer shall notify each of the Rating Agencies in writing of the occurrence of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (each, a “Ramp-Up Notice”) and request in writing that each of S&P (with such request sent to CDOEffectiveDatePortfolios@sandp.com) and Moody’s confirm in writing within 25 days of delivery of such Ramp-Up Notice that it has not reduced or withdrawn the Initial Ratings; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to request a Rating Confirmation from Moody’s if, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date Moody’s has received an Accountants’ Certificate confirming (i) the Issuer is in compliance with each of the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests and the Concentration Limitations and (ii) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator of the Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owns or has committed to purchase is at least equal to U.S.$510,000,000. In connection with such request or, in the case of Moody’s, in lieu of such request, the Issuer shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies identifying the Collateral Obligations then included in the Collateral and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies, together with the delivery of a report (and, with respect to S&P, an Excel Default Model Input File (if applicable)) substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, an Accountants’ Certificate:

(i) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread and recovery rate for each item of original Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included in the Collateral, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein;

(ii) confirming that as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date:

(1) each of the Coverage Tests are satisfied;

(2) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator of Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date is at least equal to the Maximum Amount; and

(3) the Collateral Obligations comply with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests, the Concentration Limitations and the Eligibility Criteria; and

(iii) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements.

(f) Any failure by the Issuer to obtain a Ratings Confirmation pursuant to Section 7.19(e) above shall be a Rating Confirmation Failure (a “Rating Confirmation Failure”). If a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to, and to the extent provided in, Section 9.1(a).

(g) On the Ramp-Up Completion Date, S&P shall provide sixteen (16) different S&P CDO Monitors to the Issuer, the Servicer, the Collateral Administrator and the Trustee, such

S&P CDO Monitors corresponding to portfolios with weighted average spreads of 2.00%, 2.10%, 2.20%, 2.30%, 2.40%, 2.50%, 2.60%, 2.70%, 2.80%, 2.90%, 3.00%, 3.10%, 3.20%, 3.30%, 3.40% and 3.50%, respectively. After the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Servicer, by written notice to the Collateral Administrator, the Trustee and S&P, will elect which S&P CDO Monitor shall apply initially and, thereafter, on two Business Days written notice prior to the Measurement Date to the Collateral Administrator, Trustee and S&P, the Servicer will elect to have a different S&P CDO Monitor apply, such S&P CDO Monitor corresponding to a portfolio with a weighted average spread that is equal to or lower than the Weighted Average Spread of the Floating Rate Obligations in the Collateral at the time of such election; provided, that if the Weighted Average Spread of the Floating Rate Obligations in the Collateral at the time of such election is less than 2.00%, then the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will request S&P to provide a different S&P CDO Monitor which has a weighted average spread equal to or lower than the Weighted Average Spread of the Floating Rate Obligations in the Collateral. For the avoidance of doubt, the selection of an S&P CDO Monitor as described in this paragraph shall be separate and independent of any election of the Servicer with respect to the Ratings Matrix.

(h) On the Interim Target Date (assuming for these purposes (1) settlement in accordance with customary settlement procedures in the relevant markets of all agreements entered into by the Issuer to acquire items of Collateral Obligation scheduled to settle on or following such date and (2) that each such item or Collateral Obligation is pledged as security for the Notes pursuant to this Indenture), the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee and Moody's a statement that the Interim Target Test is satisfied (and calculations thereof in reasonable detail). Failure to satisfy the Interim Target Test on the Interim Target Date (any such failure an "Interim Target Failure") will not constitute an Event of Default; provided that upon the occurrence of an Interim Target Failure the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall submit to Moody's a plan with respect to which the Servicer certifies that, in the Servicer's reasonable business judgment is sufficient to attain compliance with each applicable Collateral Quality Test by the Ramp-Up Completion Date.

Section 7.20 Secondary Risk Procedures.

The Servicer shall notify S&P and request that S&P modify the S&P CDO Monitor accordingly if on any date (as disclosed in the most recent Monthly Report):

(a) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations participated from or entered into with the same Secondary Risk Counterparty exceeds the percentage of the Maximum Amount in the Secondary Risk Table opposite the long-term S&P credit rating of the Secondary Risk Counterparty under the caption "Individual Counterparty Limit," or

(b) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations participated from or entered into with Secondary Risk Counterparties with the same long-term credit rating exceeds the percentage of the Maximum Amount in the Secondary Risk Table opposite that rating under the caption "Aggregate Counterparty Limit" (excluding up to 5% by Aggregate Principal Balance of Synthetic Securities with respect to Collateral Obligations the "Aggregate Counterparty Limit" of which is 20% to the extent that (x) such exposure is fully collateralized with respect to principal and (y) the related Synthetic Security Counterparties are rated at least "A-1+" by S&P).

Section 7.21 Section 3(c)(7) Procedures.

In addition to the notices required to be given under Section 10.6 hereof, the Issuer shall take the following actions to ensure compliance with the requirements of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act (provided that such procedures and disclosures may be revised by the Issuer to be consistent with generally accepted practice for compliance with the requirements of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act):

(a) Section 3(c)(7) Notice to Investors. The Issuer shall (i) request the Depository to cause, and cooperate with the Depository in causing, the Depository's security description and delivery order to include a "3(c)(7) marker" and the Depository's user manual to contain an accurate description of the restrictions on the holding and transfer of the Notes due to the Issuer's reliance on the exclusion to registration provided by Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act, (ii) request that the Depository send, and cooperate with the Depository in causing the Depository to send, to its Agent Members (x) the Important Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice substantially in the form of Exhibit H-2 in connection with the initial offering of the Notes and (y) the Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice substantially in the form of Exhibit H-1 as set forth in Section 10.6(b) and (iii) request that the Depository cause, and cooperate with the Depository in causing, the Depository's Reference Directory to include each Class of Notes (and the applicable CUSIP numbers for the Notes) in the listing of 3(c)(7) issues together with an attached description of the limitations as to the distribution, purchase, sale and holding of the Notes.

(b) CUSIP Numbers. The Issuer shall (a) request of S&P, and shall cooperate with S&P to ensure that all CUSIP numbers identifying the Notes shall have a "fixed field" attached thereto that contains "3c7" and "144A" indicators and (b) take steps to cause the Initial Purchaser and any market makers to require that all "confirms" of trades of the Notes contain CUSIP numbers with such "fixed field" identifiers.

(c) Bloomberg and other Third-Party Vendor Screens. The Issuer shall use all reasonable efforts to cause the Bloomberg screen or screens containing information about the Notes to include the following language: (a) the "Note Box" on the bottom of the "Security Display" page describing the Notes shall state: "Iss'd Under 144A/3(c)(7)," (b) the "Security Display" page shall have the flashing red indicator "See Other Available Information" and (c) the indicator shall link to the "Additional Security Information" page, which shall state that the securities are "being offered in reliance on the exemption from registration under Rule 144A of the Securities Act, to persons who are both (x) qualified institutional buyers (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act) and (y) qualified purchasers (as defined under Section 3(c)(7) under the Investment Company Act)." The Issuer shall use all reasonable efforts to require that any other third-party vendor screens containing information about the Notes include substantially similar language to clauses (a) through (c) above.

ARTICLE 8

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

Section 8.1 Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders.

(a) Without the consent of the Holders of any Securities, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and subject to the requirement provided below in this Section 8.1 with respect to the ratings of any Class of Notes, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may, if, with respect to any matters described in clauses (1) through (21) below, the interests of the Holders of the Securities (except, in the case of clause (11) below, any Holders of Notes subject to the applicable Refinancing) are not materially and adversely affected thereby as provided in this Section 8.1, execute one or more indentures supplemental to this Indenture, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, to:

(1) evidence the succession of another Person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and the assumption by the successor Person of the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in this Indenture and in the Securities;

(2) add to the covenants of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders or to surrender any right in this Indenture conferred on the Co-Issuers;

(3) convey, transfer, assign, mortgage or pledge any property to the Trustee, or add to the conditions, limitations or restrictions on the authorized amount, terms and purposes of the issue, authentication and delivery of the Notes;

(4) evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment under this Indenture by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of this Indenture necessary to facilitate the administration of the trusts under this Indenture by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of Sections 6.10, 6.11, and 6.13;

(5) correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of this Indenture, or to better assure, convey and confirm to the Trustee any property subject or required to be subject to the lien of this Indenture (including all actions appropriate as a result of changes in law) or to subject to the lien of this Indenture any additional property;

(6) cause any provision of this Indenture to conform to, or be consistent with, the statements made with respect to such provision in the Offering Memorandum;

(7) modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any changes in applicable law (or its interpretation) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely on any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act (including, without limitation, to add provisions for resales and transfers of the Class E Notes and/or Preference Shares under Regulation S) or the Investment Company Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required thereunder (for the avoidance of doubt no modification of the restrictions or procedures for resales and transfers may be made for the purpose of increasing any such restrictions);

(8) make appropriate changes for any Class of Senior Notes to be listed on an exchange other than the ISE;

(9) otherwise correct any inconsistency or cure any ambiguity or errors in this Indenture;

(10) accommodate the issuance of the Senior Notes in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC or otherwise;

(11) accommodate a Refinancing effected pursuant to and in compliance with Section 9.7; provided that no Holders of Notes or Preference Shares are materially adversely affected thereby, other than Holders of Notes subject to such Refinancing (and provided that the mere occurrence of the Refinancing itself shall be deemed not to constitute such a material adverse effect);

(12) take any appropriate action to prevent the Issuer, the Holders of the Securities, or the Trustee from becoming subject to withholding or other taxes, fees or assessments, or to prevent the Issuer from being treated as being engaged in a U.S. trade or business or otherwise being subject to income tax on a net income basis, so long as the action will not cause the Holders of any Securities to be adversely affected to any material extent by any change to the timing, character or source of the income from the Securities, as evidenced by a Tax Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion);

(13) authorize the appointment of any listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes appropriate in connection with the listing of any Class of Senior Notes on the ISE or any other stock exchange, and otherwise to amend this Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes in connection with its appointment, so long as the supplemental indenture would not materially and adversely affect any Noteholder, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Servicer, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Notes;

(14) amend, modify, enter into or accommodate the execution of any contract relating to a Synthetic Security (including posting collateral under a Synthetic Security Agreement) if such particular action is not otherwise permitted under this Indenture;

(15) modify Section 3.3 to be consistent with applicable laws or Rating Agency requirements;

(16) evidence any waiver by any Rating Agency as to any requirement or condition, as applicable, of the Rating Agency set forth in this Indenture;

(17) facilitate the issuance of participation notes, combination notes, composite securities and other similar securities;

(18) facilitate hedging transactions;

(19) facilitate the ability of the Issuer to lend collateral pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement;

(20) modify any provision to facilitate an A/B Exchange, including to effect any serial designation relating to the exchange;

(21) provide for the issuance of additional Preference Shares to the extent permitted by the Preference Share Documents and to extend to such additional Preference Shares the benefits applicable to the Preference Shares under this Indenture and the Preference Share Documents; or

(22) prevent the Issuer from becoming an “investment company” as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7); provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Servicer shall have received (A) a Rating Confirmation with respect to such supplemental indenture and (B) a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental indenture, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act in reliance on the exemption provided by Rule 3a-7.

(b) Without the consent of the Servicer, no supplemental indenture may be entered into that (x) affects the rights, powers, obligations or duties of the Servicer or (y) affects the amount or priority of any fees payable to the Servicer under this Indenture.

(c) The Trustee is authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be in the agreements, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee’s own rights, duties, liabilities or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, except to the extent required by law. Unless notified in writing by a Majority of any Class of Notes or a Majority of the Preference Shares that Holders of the Class of the Notes or Holders of the Preference Shares would be materially and adversely affected, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive and may rely on a certificate of the Servicer or an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) as to whether the interests of any Holder of Securities would be materially and adversely affected by any such supplemental indenture.

(d) If any Outstanding Notes are rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall enter into a supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.1 only if either (1) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the supplemental indenture or (2) the Servicer and the Holders of 100% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes the ratings on which would be reduced or withdrawn consent to the supplemental indenture. Prior to the entry into any supplemental Indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note informing them of such fact.

(e) At the cost of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee shall mail to the Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), each Rating Agency (for so long as any Notes are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency), the Collateral Administrator and each Hedge Counterparty a copy of any such proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee (or 60 calendar days before execution in the case of a supplemental indenture for the purpose described in paragraph (8) of Section 8.1(a), which shall be identified as such in a certificate of the Servicer delivered to the Trustee before the date on which such notice is required to be given).

Section 8.2 Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders.

(a) If the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to S&P, the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may execute one or more indentures supplemental to this Indenture to add any provisions to, change in any manner or eliminate any of the provisions of this Indenture, or modify in any manner the rights of the Noteholders under this Indenture with the consent of:

(1) the Servicer if the supplemental indenture would affect the rights, powers, obligations or duties of the Servicer or would affect the amount or priority of any fees payable to the Servicer under this Indenture or is with respect to any matters described in Section 8.2(b)(viii) or (ix);

(2) a Majority of each Class of Notes adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of each such Class of Notes; and

(3) a Majority of the Preference Shares adversely affected thereby.

Any proposed supplemental indenture that would also necessitate a change to the Memorandum and Articles of Association may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Memorandum and Articles of Association) has been passed to permit the Issuer's constitutional documents to be altered to conform them to the proposed change to this Indenture as certified to the Trustee by the Issuer.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected thereby and the Holder of each Preference Share adversely affected thereby, no supplemental indenture shall:

(i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date of any installment of interest on any Note or of any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares (other than in the case of any Maturity Extension in connection with an extension of the Replacement Period as described in Section 2.4), reduce the principal amount or the rate of interest on any Note, or the Default Interest Rate or the Redemption Price with respect to any Note or Preference Share, or change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Share may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, change the provisions of this Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of any Collateral to the payment of principal of or interest on Notes, or to payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares, or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which, Notes or their principal or interest are paid, or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after their Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the applicable Redemption Date);

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class or Holders of Preference Shares whose consent is required for the authorization of any such supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of this Indenture or certain defaults under this Indenture or their consequences provided for in this Indenture;

(iii) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture with respect to any part of the Collateral, or terminate the lien on any property at any time subject hereto, or deprive the Holder of any Note of the security afforded by the lien of this Indenture;

(iv) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class whose consent is required to request the Trustee to retain the Collateral or rescind the Trustee's election to retain the Collateral, pursuant to Section 5.5 or to sell or liquidate the Collateral, pursuant to Section 5.4 or 5.5;

(v) modify any of the provisions of this Section 8.2(b), or to modify other provisions of this Indenture that expressly provide by their terms that they cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note and Preference Share affected thereby;

(vi) modify the definition of "Outstanding," "Controlling Class," or "Majority," or the Priority of Payments in Section 11.1 or Section 13.1;

(vii) modify any of the provisions of this Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of Redemption Price or of interest or principal on any Note or any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the payment of dividends or other payments on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date or to affect the rights of the Holders of the Securities to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of the Notes or the Preference Shares contained in this Indenture;

(viii) except as permitted under Section 8.1(a)(22), modify (A) the restrictions on the sales of Collateral Obligations in Section 12.1 or (B) the Eligibility Criteria in Section 12.2 (and the definitions related thereto); or

(ix) except as permitted under Section 8.1(a)(22), be entered into for the purpose of adding any additional agreements as well as any amendment, modification or waiver if the Issuer determines that the agreement, amendment, modification or waiver would, upon or after becoming effective, materially and adversely affect the rights or interest of the Holders of any Class of Securities.

(c) Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2, the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Noteholders, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Collateral Administrator and each Rating Agency (for so long as any Notes are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency) a copy of such proposed supplemental indenture and shall request any required consent from the applicable Holders of Securities to be given within the Initial Consent Period. Any consent given to a proposed supplemental indenture by the Holder of any Securities, as applicable, shall be irrevocable and binding on all future Holders or beneficial owners of that Security, irrespective of the execution date of the supplemental indenture. If the Holders of less than the required percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the relevant Securities consent to a proposed supplemental indenture within the Initial Consent Period, on the first Business Day after the Initial Consent Period, the Trustee shall notify the Issuer and the Servicer which Holders of Securities have consented to the proposed supplemental indenture and, which Holders (and, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Trustee, which beneficial owners) have not consented to the proposed supplemental indenture. If it intends to exercise its Amendment Buy-Out Option pursuant to Section 9.6, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall so notify the Trustee in writing (which notice shall designate a date for the Amendment Buy-Out to occur no earlier than 10 Business Days after the date of such notice) no later than five Business Days after the Servicer is so notified by the Trustee and the Trustee shall promptly mail such notice to all Noteholders and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares). Any Non-Consenting Holder may give consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture until the 5th Business Day prior to the date of the Amendment Buy-Out designated by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and in such case shall cease to be a Non-Consenting Holder for purposes of the Amendment Buy-Out. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser exercises its Amendment Buy-Out Option and purchases the applicable Securities pursuant to Section 9.6 below, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, as Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Securities, may consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture within five Business Days of the Amendment Buy-Out.

(d) It shall not be necessary for any Act of Noteholders under this Section 8.2 to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if the Act or consent approves its substance.

(e) The Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Noteholders, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Collateral Administrator and each Rating Agency a copy of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2 promptly after its execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee. Any failure of the Trustee to mail a copy of any supplemental indenture as provided in this Indenture, or any defect in the mailing, shall not in any way affect the validity of the supplemental indenture.

Section 8.3    Execution of Supplemental Indentures.

In executing or accepting the additional trusts created by any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article 8 or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to Sections 6.1 and 6.3) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of the supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture and that all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture have been satisfied. In the event that any supplemental indenture is consented to by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer (if such Servicer's consent is required hereunder) and 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes and the Preference Shares (if the consent of the Holders of the Preference Shares is required hereunder) and the Rating Condition is satisfied or is specifically waived by all consenting parties (and provided that no objection has been received from any Hedge Counterparty after delivery of such proposed supplemental indenture to such Hedge Counterparty at least 10 days prior to execution), all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture shall be deemed satisfied, the execution of such supplemental indenture shall be authorized or permitted by this Indenture, and the Trustee shall execute and accept the additional trusts created by such supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 or modification thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture without obtaining an Opinion of Counsel; provided that the Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise. The Servicer shall not be bound by any amendment or supplement to this Indenture that would affect the rights, powers, obligations or duties of the Servicer or would affect the amount or priority of any fees payable to the Servicer under this Indenture unless the Servicer consents to it in writing, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Servicer shall follow any amendment or supplement to this Indenture by which it is bound of which it has received written notice from the time it receives a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee.

Section 8.4    Effect of Supplemental Indentures; Certain Required Consents.

Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article 8, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and the supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and every Holder of Notes theretofore and thereafter authenticated and delivered under this Indenture shall be bound thereby.

Without the approval of each Hedge Counterparty to a then existing Hedge Agreement (so long as the Hedge Counterparty is not in default under any Hedge Agreement to which it is party), no supplemental indenture will be effective, and the Co-Issuers will not consent to any supplemental indenture, that would have a material adverse effect on the Hedge Counterparty. For purposes of this paragraph, any supplemental indenture will be deemed not to have a material adverse effect on the Hedge Counterparty if it does not object within 10 days of delivery of such supplemental indenture by the Trustee.

Any supplemental indenture that would necessitate a change to the Memorandum and Articles of Association may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Memorandum and Articles of Association) has been passed to permit the Memorandum and Articles of Association to be altered to conform with such proposed amendment.

Section 8.5 Reference in Notes to Supplemental Indentures.

Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 may, and if required by the Trustee shall, bear a notice in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in the supplemental indenture. If the Applicable Issuers shall so determine, new Notes, so modified as to conform in the opinion of the Trustee and the Co-Issuers to any such supplemental indenture, may be prepared and executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes.

ARTICLE 9

REDEMPTION OF NOTES

Section 9.1 Mandatory Redemption.

(a) If either (a) a Coverage Test is not met on any Determination Date or (b) a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, principal payments on the Notes shall be made on the related Payment Date (without payment of any Redemption Price) in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Upon receipt of notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes, at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes, then the Servicer may direct and, upon such direction and in accordance with the instructions of the Servicer, the Trustee shall sell Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for the purpose in the Collection Account will be used to redeem the Notes (but only to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes) and to pay all administrative and other fees, expenses and obligations payable under the Priority of Payments. Any sale under this Section shall be conducted in such a manner that:

(i) after giving effect to the sale, each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied or, if any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Overcollateralization Test is not reduced,

(ii) if the sale occurs on or after the second Payment Date, after giving effect to the sale each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied or, if any Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Interest Coverage Test is not reduced, and

(iii) after giving effect to the sale each Collateral Quality Test is satisfied or, if any Collateral Quality Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Collateral Quality Test is not reduced.

(b) The Preference Shares will be redeemed in whole in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Preference Share Documents on any Payment Date on which a mandatory redemption of the Notes pursuant to Section 9.1(a) results in the payment in full of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes.

Section 9.2 Optional Redemption.

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Notes shall be redeemed by the Applicable Issuers, in whole but not in part, on any Payment Date from Principal Proceeds and all other funds available for that purpose in the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account at the direction of the applicable Required Redemption Percentage, which direction must be given to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer and the Servicer not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made, at the applicable Redemption Price (exclusive of installments of interest and principal maturing on or before that date, payment of which shall have been made or duly provided for, to the Noteholders on relevant Record Dates or as otherwise provided in this Indenture). All Notes must be simultaneously redeemed, and any termination payments pursuant to Hedge Agreements must be paid.

In the event that the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee and the Issuer receive notice directing an Optional Redemption of the Notes from any one or more Holders of Preference Shares holding less than a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall, within five Business Days of receipt of such notice, notify the Holders of the Preference Shares (i) of the receipt of such notice and (ii) that any Holder of Preference Shares may join in directing an optional redemption by notifying the Issuer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing within five Business Days after such Holder's receipt of the Preference Shares Paying Agent's notice.

Upon receipt of a notice of redemption pursuant to the first paragraph of this Section 9.2(a), the Servicer in its sole discretion will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Servicing Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer, direct the sale of the Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for such purpose in the Collection Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Payment Account, the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account will be at least sufficient to redeem all of the Notes and to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations. If, in the Servicer's reasonable discretion, the sale would not be sufficient to redeem the Notes, and to pay the fees, expenses and obligations, the Notes shall not be redeemed.

Upon any redemption pursuant to this Section 9.2(a), the Replacement Period will terminate in accordance with the definition of that term. The Issuer shall, at least 30 days before the Redemption Date (unless the Trustee shall agree to a shorter notice period), notify the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency in writing of the Redemption Date, the applicable Record Date, the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed on the Redemption Date and the applicable Redemption Prices.

(b) On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, so long as all administrative fees and expenses and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture and all amounts owing under this Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged,

(i) at the request of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Preference Shares, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings subject to the provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and Cayman Islands law; or

(ii) at the unanimous written request of the Holders of the Preference Shares, voting as a single Class or group, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a specified portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such written request subject to the provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and Cayman Islands law.

Upon a distribution pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(i), the Servicer will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Servicing Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer (and subject to Section 9.2(b)(ii)), direct the sale of all remaining Collateral Obligations. Upon a distribution pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii), the Servicer will effect the sale of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares.

Section 9.3 Optional Redemption Procedures.

(a) Upon any redemption pursuant to Section 9.2, the Trustee shall give notice of a redemption by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days and not earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date, to (i) each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and (ii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a), to each Rating Agency. In addition, for so long as any Senior Notes are listed on the ISE and so long as the guidelines of the exchange so require, notice of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) of Senior Notes shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

(b) All notices of redemption delivered pursuant to Section 9.3(a) shall state:

- (i) the applicable Redemption Date;
- (ii) the Redemption Price of the Notes to be redeemed (in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a));

(iii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a), that all of the Notes, are to be redeemed in full and that interest on the Notes to be redeemed shall cease to accrue on the Payment Date specified in the notice; and

(iv) the places where the Notes to be redeemed in whole are to be surrendered for payment of the Redemption Price, which shall be the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained as provided in Section 7.2 and, so long as any Senior Notes to be redeemed are listed on the ISE, and the Irish Paying Agent.

Notice of redemption shall be given by the Co-Issuers or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Notes selected for redemption or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Securities.

(c) The Notes may not be redeemed pursuant to Section 9.2(a) unless either of the following conditions is satisfied:

(i) At least 10 Business Days before the Redemption Date, the Servicer shall have furnished to the Trustee evidence (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) that the Issuer has entered into a binding agreement (with a financial or other institution or entity whose short-term unsecured debt obligations (other than obligations whose rating is based on the credit of a Person other than the institution) have a credit rating of at least "A-1" from S&P and of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's (or to any other institution or entity if the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's is satisfied with respect to the other entity)) to sell to the financial or other institutions, not later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date in immediately available funds, all or part of the Collateral (directly or by participation or other arrangement) at a Purchase Price at least equal to an amount sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to any Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties, and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices; or

(ii) Before entering into any binding agreement to sell all or a portion of the Collateral and selling or terminating any Hedge Agreement, the Servicer shall have certified that, in its commercially reasonable judgment, the settlement dates of the sales will be scheduled to occur on or before the Business Day before the Redemption Date and that the expected proceeds from the sales are to be delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date, in immediately available funds, in an amount (calculated as applicable in the manner provided below) sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties, and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount shall be calculated with respect to the classes of Collateral listed in the table below by multiplying the expected proceeds of sale of the Collateral by the indicated percentage in the table below. For the avoidance of doubt, no Hedge Agreement shall be sold or terminated unless the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date has passed and no notice of withdrawal has been issued.

		Number of Business Days Between Certification to the Trustee and Sale
		Same Day	1 to 2	3 to 5	6 to 15
1	Cash or other Eligible Investments	100%	100%	100%	100%
2	Loans (other than 5 below)	100%	93%	92%	88%
3	High-Yield Bonds (other than 5 below) and Structured Finance Obligations (in each case, other than 4 below)	100%	89%	85%	75%
4	High-Yield Bonds (other than 5 below) and Structured Finance Obligations, in each case with a Moody's Rating of "B3" and on credit watch with negative implications or below "B3"	100%	75%	65%	55%
5	Synthetic Securities	100%	65%	55%	35%

Any certification delivered pursuant to this Section 9.3(c) shall include (A) the prices of, and expected proceeds from, the sale of any Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or Hedge Agreements and (B) all calculations required by this Section 9.3(c).

(d) Any such notice of redemption may be withdrawn by the Issuer up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Trustee and the Servicer only if:

(i) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a), the Servicer does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications (described in Sections 9.3(c) and 12.1(f)), as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee,

(ii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i), the Issuer receives the written request of the Majority of the Preference Shares (or, in the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes resulting from a Tax Event, the Affected Class) to withdraw the notice of redemption delivered by the percentage of the Preference Shares (or, in the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes resulting from a Tax Event, the Affected Class) requesting redemption under Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i), as applicable, or

(iii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii), the Issuer receives the unanimous written request of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer hereby agrees for the benefit of the requesting Holders to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written request referred to in the preceding clause (B) or this clause (C)).

Notice of any withdrawal shall be sent, not later than the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date (assuming that the Trustee has received timely written notice from the Issuer as provided above), by the Trustee, to each Noteholder scheduled to be redeemed at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery (or, to the extent the address contained in the Indenture Register is not sufficient for that purpose, by first class mail) and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares). If the Issuer so withdraws any notice of redemption or is otherwise unable to complete any redemption of the Notes, the Sale Proceeds received from the sale of any Collateral Obligations sold pursuant to Sections 9.2 and 12.1(f) may, during the Replacement Period (and, in respect of Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, after the Replacement Period) at the Servicer's discretion, be used to purchase replacement Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria.

Notice of redemption having been given as provided above, the Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at the Redemption Price therein specified and from and after the Redemption Date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest) the Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Redemption Date.

Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, the Holder present and surrender the Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption to receive the applicable Redemption Price unless the Holder provides an undertaking to surrender the Note thereafter.

Section 9.4 Notes Payable on Redemption Date.

(a) Notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.3 having been given as aforesaid, the Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at the Redemption Price therein specified and from and after the Redemption Date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest) the Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Redemption Date. Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, the Holder shall present and surrender the Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption on or before the Redemption Date unless the Co-Issuers and the Trustee receive the security or indemnity required by them to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the Note, and in the absence of notice to the Co-Issuers and the Trustee, that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender. Payments of interest on Notes to be redeemed whose Stated Maturity is on or before the Redemption Date shall be payable to the Noteholders, or one or more predecessor Notes, registered as such at the close of business on the relevant Record Date if the Record Date is a Business Day (or, if the Record Date is not a Business Day, the close of business on the Business Day before the Record Date) according to Section 2.8(e).

(b) If any Note called for redemption is not paid on its surrender for redemption, its principal shall bear interest from the Redemption Date at the Applicable Note Interest Rate for each successive Interest Period the Note remains Outstanding if the reason for the non-payment is not the fault of the Holder of the Note.

Section 9.5 Special Redemption.

Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in whole or in part, at par, in accordance with the Priority of Payments if, at any time during the Replacement Period, the Servicer elects (subject to the Servicing Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional or replacement Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Servicer in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the use of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be used to purchase additional or replacement Collateral Obligations (a “Special Redemption”).

On the first Payment Date following the Due Period for which the notice is effective (a “Special Redemption Date”), the funds in the Collection Account or the Payment Account representing Principal Proceeds that, by operation of the preceding paragraph, that cannot be used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (the “Special Redemption Amount”) will be available to be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments under Section 11.1(c)(ii). Notice of payments pursuant to this Section 9.5 shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than three Business Days before the applicable Special Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder’s address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of DTC. In addition, for so long as any Senior Notes are listed on the ISE and so long as the guidelines of the exchange so require, notice of a redemption pursuant to this Section 9.5 of Senior Notes shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

Section 9.6 Amendment Buy-Out.

(a) In the case of any supplemental indenture pursuant to Section 8.2 that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Securities held by such Holders whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the “Amendment Buy-Out Option”), in each case, for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; provided, however, that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser may not exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option during the Non-Call Period (i) for any reason with respect to the Class A Noteholders or (ii) with respect to Notes of any Class, in connection with a proposed amendment to reduce the rate of interest on any Note or to change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Shares may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Securities of Non-Consenting Holders for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an “Amendment Buy-Out”); provided that if any Non Consenting Holder holds Class II Preference Shares, such Non-Consenting Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser and such Preference Shares will, subject to the terms of the Memorandum and Articles of Association, be converted into Class I Preference Shares, which shall be effected by a redemption by the Issuer of the applicable Class II Preference Shares and an issue of an equivalent number of Class I Preference Shares. By its acceptance of its Securities hereunder or under the Preference Share Documents, as applicable, each Holder of Securities agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser. Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or beneficial owner of Securities as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option.

(b) All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Securities set forth herein and in the Preference Share Documents, and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Section 9.7 Redemption by Refinancing

(a) On any Payment Date after the Non-Call Period, any Class of the Notes may be redeemed in whole, but not in part from Refinancing Proceeds if the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, proposes to the Holders of the Preference Shares in writing (by notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares)) with a copy to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies, at least 30 days prior to the Payment Date for such redemption (such date, the “Refinancing Date”), to redeem such Notes in accordance with this Section 9.7 (a “Notice of Refinancing”), which notice shall, among other things, specify the Refinancing Date and the Class of Notes to be refinanced. Such redemption shall be effected by the Issuer obtaining a loan or an issuance of a replacement class of notes (“Refinancing Notes”), the terms of which loan or issuance will be negotiated by the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, from one or more financial institutions or purchasers (which may include the Servicer or its Affiliates) selected by the Servicer (a refinancing provided pursuant to such loan or issuance, a “Refinancing”), and provided that (i) such proposal is approved by a Majority of the Preference Shares (voting as a single class) at least 15 days prior to the Refinancing Date and (ii) the Servicer completes such Refinancing and causes the Refinancing Proceeds to be deposited with the Trustee (in immediately available funds) no later than the close of the Business Day immediately preceding the Refinancing Date.

(b) The Issuer shall obtain a Refinancing only if the Servicer determines and certifies to the Trustee that:

(i) (A) a Rating Confirmation has been obtained from each Rating Agency for each Class of Notes not subject to Refinancing and (B) a rating letter has been obtained from each Rating Agency with respect to each class of Refinancing Notes that such Refinancing Notes shall be rated at least as high as the Initial Rating of the Class of Notes subject to the Refinancing;

(ii) the proceeds from the Refinancing will be at least sufficient to pay the Refinancing Price plus any Administrative Expenses of the Issuer related to the Refinancing;

(iii) the interest rate payable in respect of the obligations providing the Refinancing is less than the interest rate payable on the Notes being refinanced;

(iv) the principal amount of any obligations providing the Refinancing is no greater than the principal amount of the Notes being redeemed with the proceeds of such obligations;

(v) the stated maturity of the obligations providing the Refinancing is no earlier than the stated maturity of the Notes being refinanced;

(vi) the Refinancing Proceeds will be used (to the extent necessary) to redeem the applicable Notes;

(vii) the agreements relating to the Refinancing contain limited recourse, non-recourse and non-petition provisions, investor qualification provisions and transfer restrictions equivalent to those applicable to the Notes being redeemed, as set forth herein;

(viii) the obligations providing the Refinancing are subject to the Priority of Payments and do not rank higher in priority pursuant to the Priority of Payments than the Class of Notes being redeemed; and

(ix) the expenses in connection with the Refinancing have been paid or will be adequately provided for.

(c) The Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to Sections 6.1 and 6.3 hereof) shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel stating that the Refinancing is permitted by this Indenture and that all conditions precedent thereto have been complied with.

(d) Any Refinancing Proceeds will not constitute Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds but will be applied directly on the related Refinancing Date pursuant to this Indenture to redeem the Notes being refinanced and pay Administrative Expenses in connection with the Refinancing without regard to the Priority of Payments; provided that to the extent that any Refinancing Proceeds exceed the amount necessary to redeem the Notes being refinanced (and any associated Administrative Expenses), such excess Refinancing Proceeds will be treated as Principal Proceeds.

(e) If notice of consent by a Majority of the Preference Shares to a Refinancing has been received by the Trustee from the Servicer pursuant to Section 9.7(a) no later than 15 days prior to the Refinancing Date, notice of a Refinancing shall be given by the Trustee by first class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than 10 days prior to the proposed Refinancing Date, to each Holder of Notes of the Class to be refinanced at the address in the Indenture Register (with a copy to the Servicer) and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the ISE, the Irish Paying Agent.

All Notices of Refinancing shall state:

(i) the proposed Refinancing Date, which shall be the applicable Redemption Date in respect of the Notes being redeemed;

(ii) the Refinancing Price, which shall be the applicable Redemption Price in respect of the Notes being redeemed;

(iii) that on such proposed Refinancing Date such Notes will be refinanced and redeemed in full, and that, provided that the Refinancing Proceeds have been deposited with the Trustee for any such payment in full, interest on such Notes being redeemed shall cease to accrue on such date; and

(iv) the place or places where such Notes are to be surrendered for payment of the Refinancing Price which, if not stated, shall be the office or agency of any paying agent as provided in Section 7.2.

provided that no such Notice of Refinancing shall be sent if either (a) the Servicer has withdrawn its consent to such Refinancing or (b) the consent of a Majority of the Holders of Preference Shares to such Refinancing has not been obtained.

(f) Notice of Refinancing shall be given by the Trustee at the expense of the Issuer. Failure to give a Notice of Refinancing, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note selected for Refinancing shall not impair or affect the validity of the Refinancing or give rise to any claim based upon such failure or defect.

Any Notice of Refinancing may be withdrawn by the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, on or prior to the fourth Business Day prior to the scheduled Refinancing Date by written notice to the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Rating Agencies and the Holders of the Preference Shares. Upon receipt of such notice of withdrawal, the Trustee shall send such notice to the Holders of Notes and, if applicable, the Irish Paying Agent.

(g) If a Notice of Refinancing pursuant to Section 9.7(a) has been given as provided herein and not withdrawn, the Notes to be refinanced shall on the Refinancing Date become due and payable at the Refinancing Price. Each Holder of such Notes shall present and surrender its Note at the place specified in the Notice of Refinancing on or prior to such Refinancing Date; provided that if there is delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender such Note, then, in the absence of notice to the Issuer and the Trustee that the applicable Note has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, such final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender.

If any Class of Notes called for Refinancing shall not be so paid upon surrender thereof for Refinancing (or the delivery of the indemnity pursuant to the preceding paragraph) the principal shall, until paid, bear interest from the Refinancing Date at the applicable Interest Rate for each successive Payment Date with respect to which such Note remains Outstanding.

ARTICLE 10

ACCOUNTS, ACCOUNTINGS, AND RELEASES

Section 10.1 Collection of Money.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture, the Trustee may demand payment or delivery of, and shall receive and collect, directly and without intervention or assistance of any fiscal agent or other intermediary, all money and other property payable to or receivable by the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture, including all payments due on the Pledged Obligations, in accordance with the terms of the Pledged Obligations. The Trustee shall segregate and hold all money and property received by it in trust for the Secured Parties and shall apply it as provided in this Indenture. Any Account may contain any number of sub-accounts for the convenience of the Trustee or as required by the Servicer for convenience in administering the Accounts, the Collateral.

Each Account shall be established and maintained (a) with a federal or state-chartered depository institution with a short-term rating of at least "A-1" by S&P (or a long-term rating of at least "A+" by S&P if such institution has no short-term rating) and if such institution's short-term rating falls below "A-1" by S&P (or its long-term rating falls below "A+" by S&P if such institution has no short-term rating), the assets held in such Account shall be transferred within 60 calendar days to another institution that has a short-term rating of at least "A-1" by S&P (or which has a long-term rating of at least "A+" by S&P if such institution has no short-term rating) or (b) in segregated trust accounts with the corporate trust department of a federal or state-chartered deposit institution subject to regulations regarding fiduciary funds on deposit similar to Title 12 of the Code of Federal Regulation Section 9.10(b).

Section 10.2 Collection Account.

(a) Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Collection Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal, and into which the Trustee shall from time to time deposit, in addition to the deposits required pursuant to Section 10.7(e), immediately upon the Trustee's receipt thereof:

(i) any funds transferred from the Closing Date Expense Account pursuant to Section 10.3(g),

(ii) all Principal Proceeds (unless (1) simultaneously used to purchase Collateral Obligations in accordance with Article 12, (2) deposited into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or (3) posted by the Issuer as cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security or in Eligible Investments) received by the Trustee,

(iii) all Interest Proceeds received by the Trustee (unless simultaneously used to purchase accrued interest in respect of Collateral Obligations in accordance with Article 12 or in Eligible Investments), and

(iv) all other funds received by the Trustee from the Collateral and not excluded above.

In addition to the items described above, the Issuer may, but under no circumstances shall be required to, deposit from time to time any monies, securities and other instruments in the Collection Account it deems, in its sole discretion, to be advisable (and may designate any amounts deposited pursuant to this sentence as Principal Proceeds or Interest Proceeds in its discretion). Any Principal Proceeds received during the Replacement Period, and Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments received after the Replacement Period, which have not been used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations on the Business Day of receipt shall be deposited in the Collection Account and shall at the direction of the Servicer be applied to the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria and the other requirements set forth herein or the purchase of Eligible Investments pending such application or used to enter into additional Hedge Agreements or used in connection with a Special Redemption. Principal Proceeds (other than Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Risk Obligations, Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments) received after the Replacement Period shall be deposited into the Collection Account and applied to the purchase of Eligible Investments. All monies deposited from time to time in the Collection Account pursuant to this Indenture shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and shall be applied to the purposes provided in this Indenture. Amounts in the Collection Account shall be held pursuant to Section 10.4(a).

(b) Within one Business Day after receipt of any distribution or other proceeds of the Collateral that are not Cash, the Trustee shall so notify the Issuer and the Servicer. Within five Business Days of receipt of the notice from the Trustee, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall sell the distribution or other proceeds for Cash in an arm's length transaction to a Person that is not the Servicer or an Affiliate of the Servicer and deposit its proceeds in the Collection Account. The Issuer need not sell the distributions or other proceeds if it delivers an Issuer Order or an Officer's certificate to the Trustee and the Servicer certifying that the distributions or other proceeds are Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, or Workout Assets.

(c) During the Replacement Period (or, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, after the Replacement Period), at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of the Issuer Order the Trustee shall withdraw funds on deposit in the Collection Account representing Principal Proceeds (and, to the extent expressly provided in this Indenture, Interest Proceeds) and apply the funds to purchase Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security), in each case in accordance with the requirements of Article 12 and the Issuer Order.

(d) At any time during or after the Replacement Period, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of the Issuer Order the Trustee shall, pay from amounts on deposit in the Collection Account on any Business Day during any Interest Period from Interest Proceeds only, any Administrative Expenses that require payment before the next Payment Date to the extent that the amount of the payments does not exceed the aggregate amount that may be paid on the next Payment Date under, and at the level of priority specified by, clauses (i)-(iii) of Section 11.1(b).

(e) The Trustee shall transfer to the Payment Account from the Collection Account for application pursuant to Section 11.1 on or not later than the Business Day preceding each Payment Date, the amount set forth to be so transferred in the Valuation Report for the Payment Date.

Section 10.3 Other Accounts.

(a) Custodial Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated trust account that shall be designated as the Custodial Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal, and into which the Trustee shall deposit the Collateral Obligations and other Collateral not deposited elsewhere in accordance with this Indenture (other than Loans, Participations and general intangibles, which in the case of Loans and Participations, shall be held by the Trustee as provided in Section 3.2). All assets or securities at any time on deposit in or otherwise to the credit of the Custodial Account shall be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties. The only permitted withdrawals from the Custodial Account shall be in accordance with this Indenture. The Co-Issuers shall not have any legal, equitable, or beneficial interest in the Custodial Account other than in accordance with Section 3.2 and the Priority of Payments.

(b) Revolving Reserve Account and Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish (i) a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account which shall be designated as the Revolving Reserve Account and (ii) a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, each of which shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. Upon the purchase of any Collateral Obligation that is a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, at the direction of the Servicer, the Trustee shall deposit Principal Proceeds into the Revolving Reserve Account, in the case of a Revolving Loan, and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, in the case of a Delayed Drawdown Loan, each equal to the unfunded Commitment Amount of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, respectively, and the Principal Proceeds so deposited shall be considered part of the Purchase Price of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan for purposes of Article 12. At the direction of the Servicer at any time during or after the Replacement Period, the Trustee shall withdraw funds from the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account to fund extensions of credit pursuant to Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans, respectively. In addition, to the extent that the Issuer receives proceeds of a repayment in respect of a Revolving Loan (except to the extent of any concurrent Commitment Reduction) at any time during or after the Replacement Period, the Trustee shall deposit the proceeds into the Revolving Reserve Account. Upon the sale of a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan in whole or in part or the reduction in part or termination of the Issuer's commitment thereunder, an amount on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, as the case may be, specified by the Servicer as being equal to:

- (i) the unfunded amount of the commitment (in the case of a sale in whole or a termination of the commitment),
- (ii) the proportionate amount of the amount on deposit (in the case of a sale in part), or
- (iii) the amount by which the commitment is reduced (in the case of a reduction thereof in part),

shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds. Amounts on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account shall be held pursuant to Section 10.4(b). All interest and other income from amounts in the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account deposited to the Collection Account pursuant to Section 10.4(b) shall be considered Interest Proceeds in the Due Period in which they are so deposited.

(c) Expense Reimbursement Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Expense Reimbursement Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. On any Payment Date and on any date between Payment Dates, the Trustee will apply amounts, if any, in the Expense Reimbursement Account to the payment of expenses and fees that must be paid between Payment Dates or that are due on that Payment Date under clauses (i)-(iii) of Section 11.1(b) and the Trustee shall on any Payment Date transfer to the Expense Reimbursement Account an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Administrative Expense Cap over the amounts due under clauses (i)-(iii) of Section 11.1(b) to the Expense Reimbursement Account in accordance with Section 11.1(b)(iv); provided that the Trustee shall be entitled (but not required), without liability on its part, to refrain from making such payments if, in the reasonable determination of the Trustee, the payment of such amounts would leave insufficient funds available to pay in full each of the items described in the Priority of Payments in amounts reasonably anticipated by the Trustee to be payable on the next Payment Date, or would result in payments being made that are inconsistent with the items described in the Priority of Payments. Funds in the Expense Reimbursement Account shall be used to purchase Eligible Investments in accordance with Section 10.4(a).

(d) Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties (other than the Hedge Counterparty pledging the Collateral), over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control, the sole right of withdrawal and a lien for the benefit of the Secured Parties. The Trustee shall deposit all collateral received from a Hedge Counterparty under any Hedge Agreement into the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account shall be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer under a Hedge Agreement if the Hedge Agreement becomes subject to early termination, or (ii) to return collateral to the relevant Hedge Counterparty when and as required by the relevant Hedge Agreement, in each case as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts on deposit in the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account shall be held pursuant to Section 10.4(a) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

(e) Synthetic Security Collateral Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control, the sole right of withdrawal, and a lien for the benefit of the Secured Parties. On or before the date on which the Issuer enters into a Synthetic Security and delivers a copy of it to the Trustee, the Trustee shall create a sub-account of the Synthetic Security Collateral Account with respect to the Synthetic Security.

All Synthetic Security Collateral posted by any Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Synthetic Security shall be immediately deposited into the Synthetic Security Collateral Account and posted to the sub-account related to the Synthetic Security. On each day on which amounts are payable to the Issuer out of Synthetic Security Collateral, the Issuer by Issuer Order shall direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of the Issuer Order, the Trustee shall, withdraw amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account in an amount sufficient to make the payment as provided in the Issuer Order (including any total or partial release of Synthetic Security Collateral). The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account shall be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty to the Issuer under a Synthetic Security if the Synthetic Security becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the Synthetic Security upon any "event of default" under and as defined in the terms of the Synthetic Security, including liquidating the related Synthetic Security Collateral Account or (ii) to return Synthetic Security Collateral to the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty at the termination of the relevant Synthetic Security Agreement or as otherwise required by the Synthetic Security Agreement, in each case as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account shall be held pursuant to Section 10.4(b) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

(f) Securities Lending Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Securities Lending Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control, the sole right of withdrawal, and a lien for the benefit of the Secured Parties. On or before the date on which the Issuer enters into a Securities Lending Agreement and delivers a copy of it to the Trustee, the Trustee shall create a sub-account of the Securities Lending Account with respect to the Securities Lending Agreement. All Securities Lending Collateral posted by any Securities Lending Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Securities Lending Agreement shall be immediately deposited into the Securities Lending Account and posted to the sub-account related to the Securities Lending Agreement. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Securities Lending Account shall be:

(i) for application to obligations of the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty to the Issuer under a Securities Lending Agreement if the Securities Lending Agreement becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the related Securities Lending Agreement upon any “event of default” under and as defined in the related Securities Lending Agreement, including liquidating the related Securities Lending Collateral, or

(ii) to return the Securities Lending Collateral to the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty when and as required by the relevant Securities Lending Agreement, in each case as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account shall be held pursuant to Section 10.4(c). To the extent provided in a Securities Lending Agreement, earnings on amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account shall be payable by the Issuer to the related Securities Lending Counterparty.

Amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the loaned security or asset that relates to the Securities Lending Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer.

(g) Closing Date Expense Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Closing Date Expense Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. On the Closing Date, the Trustee, at the direction of the Issuer, shall deposit into the Closing Date Expense Account approximately U.S.$1,800,000 from the proceeds of the Offering. At any time before the Payment Date in November 2008, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of the Issuer Order the Trustee shall, pay from amounts on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account any applicable fees and expenses of the Offering. On the Payment Date in November 2008, at the direction of the Servicer in its sole discretion, the Trustee shall transfer all funds on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account to the Collection Account as Interest Proceeds (to the extent such funds are not required to be applied to cure a Rating Confirmation Failure) or Principal Proceeds and close the Closing Date Expense Account.

Amounts on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account shall be held pursuant to Section 10.4(a) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

(h) Payment Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Payment Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Payment Account shall be to pay amounts due and payable on the Notes in accordance with their terms and the provisions of this Indenture and to pay Administrative Expenses and other amounts specified in this Indenture, each in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The Co-Issuers shall not have any legal, equitable, or beneficial interest in the Payment Account other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

(i) Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account. With respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion (or all) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer, from available funds in the Payment Account as provided in the Priority of Payments, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. On the first Payment Date that the Servicer elects to waive a portion (or all) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee and the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of Holders of the Class II Preference Shares, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. On each Payment Date that the Servicer elects to waive a portion (or all) of its Servicing Fees, to the extent of available funds in accordance with the Priority of Payments (but subject to Section 13.1), the Trustee shall deposit into the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account amounts equal to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments. For purposes of any calculation under this Indenture and the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will be deemed to have received the Servicing Fee in an amount equal to the sum of the Servicing Fee actually paid to the Servicer and the amount distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments.

(j) Interest Reserve Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Interest Reserve Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. The Trustee shall credit to the Interest Reserve Account the Interest Reserve

Amount, from the deposit made therein as provided in Section 3.1(a)(xvi). All amounts in the Interest Reserve Account shall be applied on the November 2008 Payment Date as Adjusted Interest Proceeds in accordance with Section 11.1(c)(i) hereof.

(k) In addition to any deposit, withdrawal, transfer or other application of funds with respect to any Account set forth in this Section 10.3 or in Section 10.2, any deposit, withdrawal, transfer or other application of funds with respect to any Account authorized elsewhere in this Indenture is hereby authorized pursuant to this Section 10.3.

(l) In order to comply with its obligations under the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001, if any, the Trustee shall be entitled to request and verify, and the Noteholders, beneficial owners, the Co-Issuers and other parties related to this Indenture shall be obligated to provide to the Trustee all the necessary information required by the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001.

Section 10.4 Application of Funds in Accounts; Reports by Trustee.

(a) By Issuer Order (which may be in the form of standing instructions), at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall at all times before an Event of Default occurs, direct the Trustee to, and, upon receipt of the Issuer Order, the Trustee shall, use all funds on deposit in the Collection Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Interest Reserve Account and the Closing Date Expense Account as so directed to purchase Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date. All applications on any Business Day shall be subject to the timely receipt of the funds and the availability of any Eligible Investments. Before an Event of Default occurs, if the Issuer has not given directions, the Trustee shall seek instructions from the Servicer within three Business Days after transfer of any funds to the Collection Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Interest Reserve Account or the Closing Date Expense Account. If the Trustee does not receive written instructions from the Servicer within five Business Days after transfer of the funds to the account, it shall apply the funds held in the account, as fully as practicable, but only in one or more Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (c) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" maturing no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date. After an Event of Default occurs, if the Issuer does not give directions to the Trustee for three consecutive days, the Trustee shall apply the monies as fully as practicable in Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (c) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" maturing not later than the earlier of (i) 30 days after the date of the application or (ii) the Business Day before the next Payment Date. All interest and other income from such Eligible Investments shall be deposited in the Collection Account, any gain realized from such Eligible Investments shall be credited to the Collection Account, and any loss resulting from such Eligible Investments shall be charged to the Collection Account. Subject to Section 6.7, the Trustee shall not in any way be held liable for the selection of Eligible Investments or because of any insufficiency of the Collection Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account or any other account that results from any loss relating to any such Eligible Investment.

(b) By Issuer Order (which may be in the form of standing instructions), at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall at all times direct the Trustee to, and, upon receipt of the Issuer Order, the Trustee shall, apply all funds on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, and the Synthetic Security Collateral Account in Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities not later than one Business Day after the date of their purchase. All applications on any Business Day shall be subject to the timely receipt of the funds and the availability of any Eligible Investments. If before an Event of Default, the Issuer does not give directions, the Trustee shall seek instructions from the Servicer within three Business Days after transfer of any funds to the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, or the Synthetic Security Collateral Account. If the Trustee does not thereupon receive written instructions from the Servicer within five Business Days after transfer of the funds to the account, it shall apply the funds held in the account, as fully as practicable, but only in one or more Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (e) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" that are overnight funds. If after an Event of Default, the Issuer does not give directions to the Trustee for three consecutive days, the Trustee shall apply the monies as fully as practicable in Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (e) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" that are overnight funds. All interest and other income from such Eligible Investments shall be deposited in the Collection Account, any gain realized from such Eligible Investments shall be credited to the Collection Account, and any loss resulting from such Eligible Investments shall be charged to the Collection Account.

(c) By Issuer Order (which may be in the form of standing instructions), at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall at all times direct the Trustee to, and, upon receipt of the Issuer Order, the Trustee shall, apply all funds on deposit in the Securities Lending Account in Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the stated termination date of the related Securities Lending Agreement. All applications on any Business Day shall be subject to the timely receipt of the funds and the availability of any Eligible Investments. The interest on the Eligible Investments shall be allocated between the Issuer and the Securities Lending Counterparty pursuant to the related Securities Lending Agreement. If before an Event of Default, the Issuer does not give directions, the Trustee shall seek instructions from the Servicer within three Business Days after transfer of any funds to the Securities Lending Account. If the Trustee does not thereupon receive written instructions from the Servicer within five Business Days after transfer of the funds to the account, it shall apply the funds held in the account, as fully as practicable, but only in one or more Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (e) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" that mature no later than the Business Day before the stated termination date of the related Securities Lending Agreement. If after an Event of Default, the Issuer does not give directions to the Trustee for three consecutive days, the Trustee shall apply the monies as fully as practicable in Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (e) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" maturing no later than the Business Day before the stated termination date of the related Securities Lending Agreement. All interest and other income from such Eligible Investments shall be deposited in the Collection Account, any gain realized from such Eligible Investments shall be credited to the Collection Account, and any loss resulting from such Eligible Investments shall be charged to the Collection Account.

(d) The Trustee agrees to give the Issuer notice as soon as reasonably practicable if a Trust Officer obtains actual knowledge that any Account or any funds on deposit in any Account, or otherwise to the credit of an Account, shall become subject to any writ, order, judgment, warrant of attachment, execution or similar process. All Accounts shall remain at all times with the Custodian or a financial institution having a long-term debt rating of at least “Baa1” (and not on credit watch with negative implications) by Moody’s and having combined capital and surplus of at least U.S.$200,000,000 that has entered into one or more securities account control agreements in accordance with Article 8 of the UCC; provided, however, that (i) with respect to the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, the Synthetic Security Counterparty shall be a party to such control agreement and shall consent to the Trustee’s control of such Synthetic Security Collateral Account, (ii) with respect to the Securities Lending Account, the Securities Lending Counterparty shall be a party to such control agreement and shall consent to the Trustee’s control of such Securities Lending Account and (iii) with respect to each Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the related Hedge Counterparty shall be a party to such control agreement and shall consent to the Trustee’s control of such Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account.

(e) The Trustee shall supply, in a timely fashion, to the Co-Issuers and the Servicer any information regularly maintained by the Trustee that the Co-Issuers or the Servicer may from time to time request with respect to the Pledged Obligations, the Accounts and the Collateral and provide any other requested information reasonably available to the Trustee because of its acting as Trustee under this Indenture and required to be provided by Section 10.6, to permit the Servicer to perform its obligations under the Servicing Agreement. The Trustee shall promptly forward to the Servicer copies of notices and other writings received by it from the issuer of any Collateral Obligation or from any Clearing Agency with respect to any Collateral Obligation which notices or writings advise the holders of the security of any rights that the holders might have with respect to the Collateral Obligation (including requests to vote with respect to amendments or waivers and notices of prepayments and redemptions) as well as all periodic financial reports received from the issuer and Clearing Agencies with respect to the issuer.

(f) To the extent monies deposited in any Account exceed amounts insured by the Bank Insurance Fund or Savings Association Insurance Fund administered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any agencies succeeding to its insurance functions, and are not fully collateralized by direct obligations of the United States of America, the excess shall be used to purchase Eligible Investments as described above.

Section 10.5 Synthetic Security Counterparty Account.

(a) To the extent that any Synthetic Security requires the Issuer to secure its obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty or to the extent that any Synthetic Security has an unfunded amount payable by the Issuer that does not by its terms require collateral, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee and the Trustee shall establish a segregated non-interest bearing trust account (a “Synthetic Security Counterparty Account”) for the Synthetic Security which shall be held in trust for the benefit of the related Synthetic Security Counterparty and over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security as directed by the Servicer. In the alternative, a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account may be established with a trustee designated by the Synthetic Security Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that trustee would qualify to be a successor trustee under Section 6.9 and the account satisfies the other requirements of this Section.

As directed in writing by the Servicer, the Trustee shall deposit (or deliver for deposit) into each Synthetic Security Counterparty Account, from funds or Eligible Investments on deposit in the Collection Account, all amounts or securities that are required to secure the obligations of the Issuer in accordance with the related Synthetic Security and, without duplication, an amount equal to the unfunded amount of a Synthetic Security, including the entire notional amount of any Synthetic Security in the form of a credit default swap or other similar transaction, in each case as directed by the Servicer. The Servicer shall direct any such deposit only during the Replacement Period and only to the extent that monies are available for the purchase of Collateral Obligations pursuant to this Indenture. Any income received on amounts in the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall, after application in accordance with the relevant Synthetic Security, be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Interest Proceeds.

(b) As directed by the Servicer in writing and in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security and this Indenture, amounts on deposit in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be held in Synthetic Security Collateral.

(c) In connection with the occurrence of a credit event or an event of default or a termination event (each as defined in the applicable Synthetic Security) under the related Synthetic Security, amounts in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be withdrawn by the Trustee (or the Trustee shall request their withdrawal) and applied toward the payment of any amounts payable by the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the Synthetic Security, as directed by the Servicer in writing; provided that any Defaulted Synthetic Security Termination Payments shall be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Any excess amounts held in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account, or held directly by a Synthetic Security Counterparty, after payment of all amounts owing from the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the related Synthetic Security shall be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Principal Proceeds.

(d) Amounts on deposit in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the Synthetic Security that relates to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer (with the notional amount as the Principal Balance unless a default exists under the applicable Synthetic Security).

Section 10.6 Accountings.

(a) Monthly. Commencing the earlier of (a) the first full month after the Ramp-Up Completion Date and (b) July 25, 2008, (i) in the case of a month in which there is no Payment Date, not later than the eighth Business Day after the last calendar day of such month and (ii) in the case of a month in which there is a Payment Date, on such Payment Date, the Issuer shall cause to be compiled and provided to the Servicer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares), the Initial Purchaser, each Hedge Counterparty, the Rating Agencies, (if so requested by the Initial Purchaser) or each Holder of a Note who makes a written request therefor, and, upon written request therefor by a Beneficial Owner in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a Beneficial Owner, the Beneficial Owner (or its designee), a monthly report (the “Monthly Report”); provided that a Monthly Report may be provided to any such party by posting such Monthly Report on the Trustee’s password-protected website initially located at <http://www.cdocalc.com/ibt/cdo/> and providing access thereto to such parties. Each Monthly Report shall be accompanied by a Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice. The Monthly Report shall contain the following information, determined as of (1) in the case of a month in which there is no Payment Date, the last day of the applicable month and (2) in the case of a month in which there is a Payment Date, the Determination Date for such Payment Date, based in part on information provided by the Servicer (the “Monthly Determination Date”):

(i) Collateral:

(B) The stated principal balance of Defaulted Collateral Obligations;

(C) The Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that are Cov-lite Loans;

(D) The identity of all Collateral Obligations and all obligations that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange do not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation that were released for sale or other disposition (and, for each obligation sold, indicating whether sold as a Credit Risk Obligation, a Credit Improved Obligation, a Current-Pay Obligation, a Defaulted Collateral Obligation, a Workout Asset or an obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation or whether sold in connection with any withholding tax pursuant to Section 12.1(e) or sold as a discretionary sale pursuant to Section 12.1(h)); and the identity of all Collateral Obligations that were acquired, in each case since the date of the previous Monthly Report;

(E) The obligor of each Workout Asset;

(F) The Purchase Price of each Collateral Obligation acquired, the sale price of each Collateral Obligation sold (or the adjusted purchase or sale price with respect to any exchange of securities requiring an allocation by the Servicer) since the date of the previous Monthly Report on each sale;

(G) The identity of each Collateral Obligation (1) that is a Defaulted Collateral Obligation, a Workout Asset, a Cov-lite Loan, a Deep Discount Obligation (including Deep Discount Obligations purchased below 50% of their Principal Balance) or a PIK Security, and in the case of a PIK Security (i) the principal amount of previously deferred or capitalized interest and (ii) the change in the principal amount of previously deferred or capitalized interest since the most recent Monthly Report or (2) in respect of which an obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation has been received, in each case indicating the date of such default, as applicable, and reporting any Other Indebtedness, as defined in clause (ii) in the definition of “Defaulted Collateral Obligation,” that the Servicer has determined not to be material;

(H) The S&P Industry Classification and the Moody’s Industry Classification for each Collateral Obligation and the five highest concentrations of Collateral Obligations in the Moody’s Industry Classification groups and the five highest concentrations of Collateral Obligations in the S&P Industry Classification groups;

(I) For each Collateral Obligation, the country of the obligor (and the related foreign currency debt rating) and, in the case of a country other than the United States of America, whether the obligor is Domiciled in a Moody’s Group I Country, Moody’s Group II Country, or Moody’s Group III Country and the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations issued by issuers in the applicable country;

(J) For each Collateral Obligation, the Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate and S&P Recovery Rate;

(K) For each Collateral Obligation, the S&P Rating, and if any S&P Rating for any Collateral Obligation in any Monthly Report is a credit estimate, “non-public” rating or “shadow” rating, the rating shall not be disclosed, but shall be replaced with an asterisk in the place of the applicable credit estimate, “non-public” rating or “shadow” rating;

(L) For each Collateral Obligation, the Moody’s Rating and the Moody’s Rating Factor, determined, for this purpose, and set forth both with and without regard to whether the Collateral Obligation has been put on watch for possible upgrade or downgrade, and if any Moody’s Rating for any Collateral Obligation in any Monthly Report is an “estimated” or “shadow” rating, the rating shall not be disclosed, but shall be replaced with an asterisk in the place of the applicable “estimated” or “shadow” rating;

(M) The Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations that have a Moody’s Rating of “Caa1” or lower;

(N) The Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations that have an S&P Rating of “CCC+” or lower;

(O) For each Collateral Obligation that is a Participation or a Synthetic Security or is loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement, the related Secondary Risk Counterparty and each Rating Agency’s long-term unsecured debt rating of the Secondary Risk Counterparty;

(P) Certain S&P benchmarks relating to the portfolio as provided by S&P in the S&P CDO Monitor regardless whether or not the S&P CDO Monitor passes or fails, including (1) S&P Default Measure (Annualized Portfolio Default Rate), (2) S&P Variability Measure (Annualized Standard Deviation of Portfolio Default Rate), (3) S&P Correlation Measure (Ratio of Standard Deviation of Portfolio with Correlation to Standard Deviation of Portfolio without Correlation) and (4) Weighted Average Default Correlation;

(Q) The identity and Market Value of each Collateral Obligation whose Market Value (in the determination of the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator) was determined pursuant to last proviso in the definition of "Market Value;"

(R) The identity of each Collateral Obligation participated from or entered into with a Secondary Risk Counterparty; and

(S) The identity of each Collateral Obligation owned by the Issuer that has not been disposed of within the time limits required by this Indenture.

(ii) Accounts:

(A) The amount of any proceeds in the Collection Account, distinguishing between amounts credited as Interest Proceeds, Principal Proceeds (excluding unapplied proceeds), and unapplied proceeds;

(B) The amount of any Principal Proceeds in the Revolving Reserve Account;

(C) The amount of any Principal Proceeds in the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account;

(D) The amount of any Principal Proceeds in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account;

(E) The amount of any Principal Proceeds in the Securities Lending Account; and

(F) The amount of any proceeds in the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account;

(iii) Hedge Agreements:

(A) The outstanding notional amount of each Hedge Agreement; and

(B) The amount scheduled to be received and paid by the Issuer pursuant to each Hedge Agreement on the next Payment Date (as specified by the calculation agent under each Hedge Agreement);

(iv) Coverage Tests, Collateral Quality Tests and Interest Diversion Test:

(A) The Overcollateralization Ratios and the Overcollateralization Ratios as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date; a statement as to whether each of the Overcollateralization Tests is satisfied and a statement as to whether the Interest Diversion Test is satisfied;

(B) The Interest Coverage Ratios and, on and after the second Payment Date, a statement as to whether each of the Interest Coverage Tests is satisfied;

(C) The Diversity Score and, on and after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, a statement as to whether the Diversity Test is satisfied;

(D) The Weighted Average Life of the Collateral Obligations and, on and after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, a statement as to whether the Weighted Average Life Test is satisfied;

(E) The Moody's Minimum Average Recovery Rate, the S&P Recovery Rate and, on and after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, a statement as to whether the Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test with respect to the Moody's Minimum Average Recovery Rate and Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test with respect to the S&P Recovery Rate is satisfied;

(F) The Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon of the Collateral Obligations and, on and after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, a statement as to whether the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test is satisfied and a statement as to the amount of Spread Excess was used to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test;

(G) The Weighted Average Spread of the Collateral Obligations and, on and after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, a statement as to whether the Weighted Average Spread Test is satisfied and a statement as to the amount of Fixed Rate Excess was used to satisfy the Weighted Average Spread Test;

(H) The Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor and, on and after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, a statement as to whether the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied; and

(I) The S&P CDO Monitor Test and, on and after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, a statement as to whether the S&P CDO Monitor Test is satisfied and the Scenario Default Rate and the then applicable Note Break-Even Loss Rate with respect to each Class of Notes that is rated by S&P;

(v) Concentration Limitations and Withholding Taxes:

(A) The percentage of the Maximum Amount itemized against each element of the Concentration Limitations and a statement as to whether each Concentration Limitation is satisfied; and

(B) Any withholding tax on payments under any Collateral Obligation;

(vi) Securities Lending Agreements:

(A) Each Collateral Obligation loaned or borrowed pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement and the percentage of the Maximum Amount that represents Collateral Obligations that are loaned or borrowed pursuant to Securities Lending Agreements; and

(B) With respect to each Securities Lending Agreement in effect as of the Monthly Determination Date, a list setting forth:

(1) for each Collateral Obligation loaned or borrowed under it as of the first day of the loan, (x) its Principal Balance, (y) its Market Value and (z) its Principal Balance expressed as a percentage of the Maximum Amount,

(2) the term of the loan of the Collateral Obligation,

(3) the expiration date of the Securities Lending Agreement,

(4) the Moody's Rating and S&P Rating for each loaned or borrowed Collateral Obligation,

(5) the principal amount of the related Securities Lending Collateral held in the Securities Lending Account, and

(6) the Eligible Investments held as Securities Lending Collateral pursuant to the related Securities Lending Agreement; and

(vii) Any other information the Trustee reasonably requests.

Upon receipt of each Monthly Report, the Trustee shall compare the information contained in the Monthly Report to the information contained in its records with respect to the Collateral and shall, within three Business Days after receipt of such Monthly Report, notify the Issuer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Servicer if the information contained in the Monthly Report does not conform to the information maintained by the Trustee with respect to the Collateral, and shall detail any discrepancies. In the event that any discrepancy exists, the Trustee, the Issuer, and the Servicer shall attempt to resolve the discrepancy. If such discrepancy cannot be promptly resolved, the Trustee shall within five Business Days after notification of such discrepancy cause the Independent accountants appointed by the Issuer pursuant to Section 10.8 to review such Monthly Report and the Trustee's records to determine the cause of such discrepancy. If such review reveals an error in the Monthly Report or the Trustee's records, the Monthly Report or the Trustee's records shall be revised accordingly and, as so revised, shall be used in making all calculations pursuant to this Indenture and notice of any error in the Monthly Report shall be sent as soon as practicable by the Issuer to all recipients of the report. If the review by the Independent accountants does not resolve the discrepancy, the Trustee, upon receipt of an Officer's certificate of the Servicer certifying that, to the best knowledge of the Servicer, the information contained in the related Monthly Report is correct, shall conform the information it maintains to the Monthly Report received.

(b) Payment Date Accounting. The Issuer shall cause to be rendered an accounting report (the “Valuation Report”), determined as of the close of business on each Determination Date, and provided to the Servicer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares), the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, each Hedge Counterparty, the Rating Agencies and each Noteholder (if so requested by the Initial Purchaser), the Depository (with instructions to forward it to each of its Agent Members who are Noteholders), and upon written request therefor by a Beneficial Owner in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a Beneficial Owner and the Beneficial Owner (or its designee) not later than the second Business Day preceding the related Payment Date. Each Valuation Report shall be accompanied by a Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice. The Valuation Report shall contain the following information as of the related Payment Date (unless otherwise stated), based in part on information provided by the Servicer:

(i) Notes:

(A) The amount of principal payments to be made on each Class of Notes on the related Payment Date;

(B) The Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes after giving effect to any principal payments on the related Payment Date and, for each Class of Notes, the percentage of its initial Aggregate Outstanding Amount that amount represents;

(C) For each Class of Notes, the percentage of the initial Aggregate Outstanding Amount of all of the Notes that its initial Aggregate Outstanding Amount represented and, after giving effect to any principal payments on the related Payment Date, the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of all of the Notes that its Aggregate Outstanding Amount represents;

(D) The interest payable in respect of each Class of Notes on the related Payment Date (in the aggregate and by Class) and its calculation in reasonable detail; and

(E) The amounts to be paid, if any, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payments on the Preference Shares on the related Payment Date, showing separately the payments from Interest Proceeds and the payments from Principal Proceeds;

(ii) Payment Date Payments:

(A) The amounts to be distributed under each clause of Sections 11.1(b), 11.1(c)(i) and 11.1(c)(ii) itemized by clause, and to the extent applicable, by type of distribution under the clause; and

(B) Any amounts payable under the Hedge Agreements by any Hedge Counterparty on or before the related Payment Date and its calculation in reasonable detail (as specified by the calculation agent under the Hedge Agreement);

(iii) Accounts:

(A) The amount of any proceeds in the Collection Account, distinguishing between amounts credited as Interest Proceeds, Principal Proceeds (excluding unapplied proceeds) and unapplied proceeds;

(B) The amount in the Collection Account after all payments and deposits to be made on the related Payment Date, distinguishing between amounts credited as Interest Proceeds and as Principal Proceeds;

(C) The amount of any Principal Proceeds in the Revolving Reserve Account;

(D) The amount of any Principal Proceeds in the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account;

(E) The amount of any Principal Proceeds in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account;

(F) The amount of any Principal Proceeds in the Securities Lending Account;

(G) The amount in the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account; and

(H) The amount in the Expense Reimbursement Account;

(iv) A notice setting forth LIBOR, as calculated by the Calculation Agent, for the next Interest Period and each Note Interest Rate for the next Payment Date; and

(v) Any other information the Trustee reasonably requests.

Upon receipt of each Valuation Report, the Trustee shall compare the information contained in the Valuation Report to the information contained in its records with respect to the Collateral and shall, within three Business Days after receipt of such Valuation Report, notify the Issuer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Servicer if the information contained in the Valuation Report does not conform to the information maintained by the Trustee with respect to the Collateral, and shall detail any discrepancies. In the event that any discrepancy exists, the Trustee, the Issuer, and the Servicer shall attempt to resolve the discrepancy. If such discrepancy cannot be promptly resolved, the Trustee shall within five Business Days after notification of such discrepancy cause the Independent accountants appointed by the Issuer pursuant to Section 10.8 to review such Valuation Report and the Trustee's records to determine the cause of such discrepancy. If such review reveals an error in the Valuation Report or the Trustee's records, the Valuation Report or the Trustee's records shall be revised accordingly and, as so revised, shall be used in making all calculations pursuant to this Indenture and notice of any error in the Valuation Report shall be sent as soon as practicable by the Issuer to all recipients of such report. If the review by the Independent accountants does not resolve the discrepancy, the Trustee, upon receipt of an Officer's certificate of the Servicer certifying that, to the best knowledge of the Servicer, the information contained in the related Valuation Report is correct, shall conform the information it maintains to the Valuation Report received.

(c) Optional Redemption Instructions. Not less than three Business Days after an Issuer Order electing an Optional Redemption of the Notes pursuant to Section 9.2 has been delivered to the Trustee, the Issuer shall compute the following information and provide such information in a statement (the “Redemption Date Statement”) delivered to the Trustee, the Servicer and the Rating Agencies:

(i) the amounts payable to the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Hedge Counterparty, the Issuer and the Servicer pursuant to Sections 11.1(b) and (d);

(ii) any amount payable to any Synthetic Security Obligor;

(iii) the amount in the Collection Account available for payment of the Optional Redemption Price; and

(iv) the Optional Redemption Price.

(d) Failure to Provide Accounting. If the Trustee shall not have received any accounting provided for in Section 10.6(b) on the first Business Day after the date on which the accounting is due to the Trustee, the Trustee shall notify the Issuer and the Servicer, and the Servicer shall use all reasonable efforts to cause the accounting to be made by the applicable Payment Date. To the extent the Trustee is required to provide any information or reports pursuant to this Section 10.6 as a result of the failure of the Issuer (or anyone acting on the Issuer’s behalf) to provide the information or reports, the Trustee may retain an Independent certified public accountant in connection therewith and the reasonable costs incurred by the Trustee for the Independent certified public accountant shall be reimbursed pursuant to Section 6.8.

(e) Irish Stock Exchange. So long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed on the ISE:

(i) the Trustee shall communicate to the ISE the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each listed Class of Senior Notes following each Payment Date and inform the ISE if any such Class of Senior Notes did not receive scheduled payments of principal or interest on the Payment Date;

(ii) the Trustee shall inform the ISE if the ratings assigned to the Senior Notes are reduced or withdrawn and the information shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE; and (iii) the Trustee shall inform the ISE, in advance, of the Note Interest Rate for each such Class, as well as the exact date of the following Payment Date.

(f) Quarterly Letter. The Servicer shall provide a quarterly letter to the recipients of the Valuation Report highlighting events occurring during the related quarterly period within 30 days of the date of the delivery of the Valuation Report.

(g) S&P CDO Monitor. On or after the Ramp-Up Completion Date and together with each Monthly Report, the Issuer shall provide to S&P the Excel Default Model Input File.

(h) Payments or Transfers from the Payment Account. Each Valuation Report shall constitute instructions to the Trustee to withdraw on the related Payment Date from the Payment Account and pay or transfer amounts set forth in such Valuation Report in the manner specified and in accordance with the priority established in Section 11.1 hereof.

Section 10.7 Release of Collateral.

(a) The Trustee shall present Collateral for redemption or payment in full in accordance with the terms of the Collateral upon receipt of an Issuer Order. If no Event of Default is continuing, the Issuer may, by Issuer Order executed by an Authorized Officer of the Servicer, delivered to the Trustee at least two Business Days before the settlement date for any sale of an obligation certifying that the sale of the Collateral is being made in accordance with Sections 12.1 and 12.3 and the sale complies with all applicable requirements of Section 12.1, direct the Trustee to release the Collateral and, upon receipt of the Issuer Order, the Trustee shall deliver any such Collateral, if in physical form, duly endorsed to the broker or purchaser designated in the Issuer Order or otherwise cause an appropriate transfer of it to be made, in each case against receipt of the sales price therefor as specified by the Servicer in the Issuer Order. The Trustee may deliver any such Collateral in physical form for examination pursuant to a bailee letter.

(b) The Trustee shall, upon an Issuer Order executed by an Authorized Officer of the Servicer, deliver any Pledged Obligation that is set for any mandatory call or redemption or payment in full to the appropriate paying agent on or before the date set for the call, redemption or payment, in each case against receipt of its call or redemption price or payment in full and provide notice of it to the Servicer.

(c) Upon receiving actual notice of any Offer, the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer shall notify the Servicer of any Collateral Obligation that is subject to a tender offer, voluntary redemption, exchange offer, conversion or other similar action (an “Offer”). If no Event of Default is continuing, the Servicer may direct the Trustee (and if an Event of Default is continuing, the Servicer may advise, and the Trustee may, in consultation with the Servicer, decide) to accept or participate in or decline or refuse to participate in the Offer and, in the case of acceptance or participation, to dispose of the Collateral Obligation in accordance with the Offer against receipt of payment for it. If the consideration to be received by the Issuer for the Collateral Obligation is other than Cash, the consideration must be a Collateral Obligation that would be eligible for purchase by the Issuer pursuant to Section 12.2 assuming for this purpose that the Issuer committed to purchase the same on the date on which the Issuer accepts the Offer.

(d) Upon disposition by the Trustee of Collateral to any Person against receipt of payment therefore as provided in any of the foregoing clauses (a), (b) or (c), the Collateral shall be free of the lien of this Indenture. The lien shall continue in the proceeds received from the disposition.

(e) As provided in Section 10.2(b), the Trustee shall deposit any proceeds received by it from the disposition of a Pledged Obligation in the Collection Account, unless simultaneously applied to the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer’s purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security) or Eligible

Investments as permitted under and in accordance with the requirements of this Article 10 and Article 12.

(f) The Trustee shall, upon receipt of an Issuer Order when no Notes are Outstanding and all obligations of the Co-Issuers under this Indenture have been satisfied, as evidenced by an Officer's certificate or an Opinion of Counsel, release any remaining Collateral from the lien of this Indenture.

(g) The Trustee shall release from the lien of this Indenture any Collateral that is provided directly to a Synthetic Security Counterparty or deposited in a segregated account in accordance with Section 10.5. Any Collateral or proceeds received by or redeposited by the Issuer into the Collection Account in accordance with Section 10.5 shall again be subject to the lien of this Indenture.

Any collateral deposited in a segregated account in accordance with Section 10.3(d), (e), and (f) shall be subject to the lien of this Indenture for the benefit of the Secured Parties. Any collateral withdrawn by the Issuer in accordance with Section 10.3(d), (e), and (f) shall be released from the lien of this Indenture by the Trustee to the extent returned to the appropriate counterparty pursuant to Sections 10.3(d), (e) and (f).

Section 10.8 Reports by Independent Accountants.

(a) At the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, shall appoint a firm of Independent certified public accountants of recognized international reputation for purposes of preparing and delivering the reports or certificates of the accountants required by this Indenture. Within 30 days of any resignation by the firm, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, shall promptly appoint by Issuer Order delivered to the Trustee and each Rating Agency a successor firm that is a firm of Independent certified public accountants of recognized international reputation. If the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, fails to appoint a successor to a firm of Independent certified public accountants which has resigned within 30 days after the resignation, the Trustee, in consultation with the Servicer, shall promptly appoint a successor firm of Independent certified public accountants of recognized international reputation. The fees of such Independent certified public accountants and their successors shall be payable by the Issuer as an Administrative Expense.

(b) On or before December 15 of each year commencing in 2009, the Issuer shall cause to be delivered to the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Servicer or each Noteholder or Holder of Preference Shares upon written request therefor, upon written request therefor by a Beneficial Owner in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a Beneficial Owner, to the Beneficial Owner (or its designee) and each Rating Agency a statement from a firm of Independent certified public accountants indicating (i) that the firm has reviewed each Valuation Report received since the last review and applicable information from the Trustee, (ii) that the calculations within those Valuation Reports have been performed in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Indenture (except as otherwise noted in the statement) and (iii) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer as of the preceding Determination Date. If a conflict exists between the firm of Independent certified public accountants and the Issuer with respect to any matter in this Section 10.7, the determination by that firm of Independent public accountants shall be conclusive. The statement shall be in the form of an Accountant's Certificate issued to the Issuer, the form of which shall be agreed on by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer.

(c) Upon the written request of the Preference Shares Paying Agent or any Holder of Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the firm of Independent certified public accountants appointed pursuant to Section 10.7(a) to provide any Holder of Preference Shares with all information requested pursuant to Section 7.17(g) or provide the Issuer with any assistance required in its preparation.

Section 10.9 Reports to Rating Agencies.

In addition to the information and reports specifically required to be provided to each Rating Agency pursuant to this Indenture, the Issuer shall provide each Rating Agency with the Accountants' Certificates delivered to the Trustee under this Indenture, and such additional information as either Rating Agency may from time to time reasonably request. In addition, any notices of restructurings and amendments received by the Issuer or the Trustee in connection with the Issuer's ownership of a DIP Loan shall be delivered by the Servicer (on behalf of the Issuer) or the Trustee, as the case may be, promptly to the Rating Agencies.

ARTICLE 11

APPLICATION OF MONIES

Section 11.1 Disbursements of Monies from Payment Account.

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture, but subject to the other subsections of this Section 11.1 and to Section 13.1, on each Payment Date, the Trustee shall disburse available amounts from the Closing Date Expense Account and the Collection Account as follows and for application by the Trustee in accordance with the following priorities (the "Priority of Payments"):

(a) On the Closing Date, the Trustee shall pay, from the funds deposited in the Closing Expense Date Account, the fees, commissions and expenses associated with the Closing (collectively, "Closing Expenses") as set forth in an Issuer Order delivered to the Trustee on the Closing Date; provided that any such Closing Expenses may in the alternative be paid on any date after the Closing Date and prior to the Payment Date in November 2008 from the amounts on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account pursuant to an Issuer Order delivered to the Trustee (which shall state that the amounts called for to be paid therein are Closing Expenses). All payments pursuant to this Section 11.1 may be made from the United States. The Issuer may appoint an agent or agents for purposes of making payment of expenses, fees and commissions to be paid on its behalf from outside the United States pursuant hereto and (each such person shall be considered a Paying Agent hereunder). The Issuer hereby initially appoints State Street Bank and Trust Company, as such Paying Agent for such limited purpose.

(b) On each Payment Date (including the Stated Maturity and if funds become available after the Stated Maturity, on any date after the Stated Maturity) and in accordance with the Valuation Report for the Determination Date immediately preceding such Payment Date, the

Trustee shall withdraw from the Collection Account, to the extent of the available funds therein, an amount up to the Interest Proceeds (excluding therefrom (I) any Sale Proceeds received during the Due Period relating to such Determination Date to be applied by the Trustee during the related Due Period or the immediately succeeding Due Period as set forth in Section 9.2 and Section 12.1(f) and (II) Principal Proceeds in an aggregate amount equal to the agreed purchase prices for additional Collateral Obligations with respect to which the Issuer has entered into a commitment (as set forth in the notice from the Servicer to the Trustee) prior to the end of such Due Period for the purchase thereof, but has not settled such purchase by the end of such Due Period, as set forth in Section 12.2), and payments received from the Hedge Counterparties under any Hedge Agreements (after giving effect to the netting provisions thereunder), and, to the extent the amount of the Interest Proceeds is not sufficient, an amount up to the Principal Proceeds, and shall make a disbursement in the following order of priority:

(i) first, taxes and registration and filing fees owed by the Co-Issuers (without limit), second, the fees, expenses and indemnities of the Trustee with respect to such Payment Date and any fees, indemnities and expenses of the Trustee with respect to a previous Payment Date that were not paid on a previous Payment Date, and third, fees, expenses and indemnities of the Collateral Administrator with respect to such Payment Date and any fees, indemnities and expenses of the Collateral Administrator with respect to a previous Payment Date that were not paid on a previous Payment Date;

(ii) the fees, expenses and indemnities of the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to such Payment Date and any fees, indemnities and expenses of the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to a previous Payment Date that were not paid on a previous Payment Date;

(iii) first, fees and expenses of the Administrator with respect to such Payment Date and any fees and expenses of the Administrator with respect to a previous Payment Date that were not paid on a previous Payment Date, and second, fees and expenses of the Co-Issuers (including fees and expenses of counsel and ongoing surveillance, credit estimate, and other fees owing to the Rating Agencies) and any other person (except the Servicer) if specifically provided for in this Indenture, and to the expenses (but not fees) of the Servicer if payable under the Servicing Agreement;

(iv) for the replenishment of the Expense Reimbursement Account to the extent any of the amounts referred to in clauses (i)-(iii) above have already been paid from funds on deposit therein (the aggregate of the amounts set forth in clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) shall not exceed the Administrative Expense Cap);

(v) first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with Section 10.3(i) an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) any accrued and unpaid Senior Servicing Fee then due and payable and second, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Senior Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause; and

(vi) to the payment of all amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements (if any) other than any Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments (the aggregate of clauses (i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi), the “Aggregate Base Fees and Expenses”).

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any amounts to be paid to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the Preference Shares pursuant to this Indenture will be delivered by the Trustee to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account in accordance with the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

Interest Proceeds, net of amounts payable on a Payment Date pursuant to clauses (i) through (vi) above, represent “Adjusted Interest Proceeds” for such Payment Date. Principal Proceeds, net of amounts payable on a Payment Date pursuant to clauses (i) through (vi) above, to the extent not paid or replenished from Interest Proceeds with respect to such Payment Date, represent “Adjusted Principal Proceeds” (and, together with Adjusted Interest Proceeds, “Adjusted Proceeds”) for such Payment Date.

(c) On each Payment Date (other than a Payment Date covered by Section 11.1(d)) in accordance with the Valuation Report for the Determination Date immediately preceding such Payment Date, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Collection Account, to the extent of the available funds therein (excluding therefrom (I) any Sale Proceeds received during the Due Period relating to such Determination Date to be applied by the Trustee during the related Due Period or the immediately succeeding Due Period as set forth in Section 9.2 and Section 12.1(f) hereof and (II) Principal Proceeds in an aggregate amount equal to the agreed purchase prices for additional Collateral Obligations with respect to which the Issuer has entered into a commitment (as set forth in the notice from the Servicer to the Trustee) prior to the end of such Due Period for the purchase thereof, but has not settled such purchase by the end of such Due Period, as set forth in Section 12.2 hereof) an amount equal to the Adjusted Proceeds and shall make the following disbursements:

(i) The Trustee shall apply such amounts constituting Adjusted Interest Proceeds (to the extent of available funds therefor) in the following order of priority:

(1) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Defaulted Interest on, and any Defaulted Interest Charge with respect to, the Class A Notes;

(2) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class B Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Defaulted Interest on, and any Defaulted Interest Charge with respect to, the Class B Notes;

(3) if the Class A/B Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case, in the amount necessary so that all of the Class A/B Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full (Interest Proceeds to be applied pursuant to this clause (3) before the application of any Principal Proceeds as pursuant to Section 11.1(c)(ii) below on the current Payment Date);

(4) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class C Notes (excluding Class C Deferred Interest but including interest accrued for the preceding Interest Period on Class C Deferred Interest);

(5) if the Class C Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that all of the Class C Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full (Interest Proceeds to be applied pursuant to this clause (5) before the application of any Principal Proceeds pursuant to Section 11.1(c)(ii) below on the current Payment Date);

(6) to the payment of Class C Deferred Interest;

(7) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class D Notes (excluding Class D Deferred Interest but including interest accrued for the preceding Interest Period on Class D Deferred Interest);

(8) if the Class D Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that all of the Class D Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full (Interest Proceeds to be applied pursuant to this clause (8) before the application of any Principal Proceeds pursuant to Section 11.1(c)(ii) on the current Payment Date);

(9) to the payment of Class D Deferred Interest;

(10) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class E Notes (excluding Class E Deferred Interest but including interest accrued for the preceding Interest Period on Class E Deferred Interest);

(11) if the Class E Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, first, to the payment of principal of the Class E Notes, and second, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that all of the Class E Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full (Interest Proceeds to be applied pursuant to this clause (11) before the application of any Principal Proceeds pursuant to Section 11.1(c)(ii) on the current Payment Date);

(12) to the payment of Class E Deferred Interest;

(13) if a Rating Confirmation Failure exists on the Payment Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that a Rating Confirmation is obtained, or until paid in full (Interest Proceeds to be applied pursuant to this clause (13) before the application of any Principal Proceeds pursuant to Section 11.1(c)(ii) on the current Payment Date);

(14) if the Interest Diversion Test is not satisfied on the related Determination Date, 50% of the remaining Interest Proceeds available after the payments pursuant to clause 13 above (or, if the amount necessary to cause the Interest Diversion Test to be satisfied as of such Determination Date is less than 50% of the such remaining Interest Proceeds, such necessary amount), such amount to be paid first, to principal of the Class E Notes, second, to principal of the Class D Notes, third, to principal of the Class C Notes, fourth, to principal of the Class B Notes and fifth, to principal of the Class A Notes, in that order, in each case, to the extent required to satisfy the Interest Diversion Test;

(15) first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with Section 10.3(i) an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) any accrued and unpaid Subordinated Servicing Fee then due and payable and second, to the payment (pro rata according to the amounts payable under clauses (x) and (y) below) to: (x) the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Subordinated Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause; and (y) pro rata to each Holder of Securities entitled thereto, the applicable Extension Bonus Payment pursuant to Section 2.4;

(16) to the payment of any remaining Administrative Expenses not paid under Section 11(b)(i)-(iii) above in the respective priorities specified therein;

(17) to the payment, pro rata, of (i) any Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments and (ii) any Defaulted Synthetic Security Termination Payments;

(18) to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment of dividends pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares until the Holders of the Preference Shares have realized a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 12%;

(19) first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with Section 10.3(i) of an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) the Supplemental Servicing Fee, if applicable and second, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Supplemental Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause; and;

(20) any remaining Interest Proceeds, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement;

provided that, after the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes has been paid in full, or so long as the Class A Notes are no longer Outstanding, if the Coverage Tests are at the same level as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, in lieu of payment of Interest Proceeds referred to under clauses (18) and (20) above, in whole or in part on any Payment Date, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall have the right to direct the Trustee to distribute any Eligible Equity Securities pro rata to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date to the extent that the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) is equal to or lower than the aggregate amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be due and payable on such Payment Date to such Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares. Interest Proceeds in an amount equal to the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) distributed to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to any such Payment Date shall be treated for all purposes by the Issuer and the Servicer as Principal Proceeds available for distribution in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the relevant Payment Date. The amount of Interest Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date shall be reduced and the amount of Principal Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date shall be increased accordingly. Any payments to the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be released from the lien of this Indenture and shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

(ii) The Trustee shall apply the Adjusted Principal Proceeds (to the extent of available funds therefor) other than:

(A) Principal Proceeds previously used to purchase Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security) or otherwise used as permitted by Section 10.2,

(B) Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, or the Securities Lending Account, and

(C) Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account in an aggregate amount equal to the agreed Purchase Prices for Collateral Obligations with respect to which the Issuer has entered into a commitment before the end of the Due Period for their purchase, but has not settled the purchase by the end of the Due Period, in the following order of priority:

(1) to the payment of the amounts described in Section 11.1(c)(i)(1)-(2) with respect to Interest Proceeds, in each case to the extent such amounts have not been paid from Adjusted Interest Proceeds with respect to such Payment Date;

(2) after the Replacement Period, first, at the discretion of the Servicer (with respect to Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations) to the purchase or funding of additional or replacement Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria and the applicable provisions of this Indenture when appropriate Collateral Obligations are available, and until such time, to the Collection Account for the purchase of Eligible Investments; and second, to the payment of the Notes in the following order of Priority:

(i) to pay principal of the Class A Notes until the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof has been paid in full;

(ii) to pay principal of the Class B Notes until the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof has been paid in full;

(iii) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class C Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Class C Deferred Interest;

(iv) to pay principal of the Class C Notes until the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof has been paid in full;

(v) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class D Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Class D Deferred Interest;

(vi) to pay principal of the Class D Notes until the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof has been paid in full;

(vii) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class E Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Class E Deferred Interest;

(viii) to pay principal of the Class E Notes until the Aggregate Outstanding Amount thereof has been paid in full;

(3) if the Class A/B Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case, in the amount necessary so that all of the Class A/B Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full;

(4) if the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes have been paid in full, to the payment of the amounts described in Section 11.1(c)(i)(4), in each case to the extent such amounts have not been paid from Adjusted Interest Proceeds with respect to such Payment Date;

(5) if the Class C Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that all of the Class C Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full;

(6) if the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes have been paid in full, to the payment of the amounts described in Section 11.1(c)(i)(7), in each case to the extent such amounts have not been paid from Adjusted Interest Proceeds with respect to such Payment Date;

(7) if the Class D Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that all of the Class D Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full;

(8) if the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes have been paid in full, to the payment of the amounts described in Section 11.1(c)(i)(10), in each case to the extent such amounts have not been paid from Adjusted Interest Proceeds with respect to such Payment Date;

(9) if the Class E Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the related Determination Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that all of the Class E Coverage Tests would be met on such Determination Date on a pro forma basis after giving effect to any payments in reduction of the principal of Notes made through this clause, or until paid in full;

(10) if a Rating Confirmation Failure exists on the Payment Date, to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary so that a Rating Confirmation is obtained, or until paid in full;

(11) (A) if the Payment Date is a Redemption Date in the following order of priority: (i) to the payment in the Note Payment Sequence of the Redemption Prices of all of the Notes to be redeemed, (ii) to the payment of the amounts referred to in clauses (15), (16) and (17) of Section 11.1(c)(i) (and in the same manner and order of priority) to the extent not previously paid in full thereunder, (iii) the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment of dividends pro rata to the Holders of Preference Shares until the Holders of the Preference Shares have realized a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 12%, (iv) first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with Section 10.3(i) of an amount equal to the product of (x) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (y) the Supplemental Servicing Fee, if applicable and second, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (x) the accrued and unpaid Supplemental Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (y) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause and (v) to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares of the Redemption Price of any Preference Shares to be redeemed; and

(B) if the Payment Date is a Special Redemption Date, to the payment in the Note Payment Sequence of principal of the Notes in an aggregate amount equal to the Special Redemption Amount, in each case until paid in full;

(12) during the Replacement Period, all remaining Principal Proceeds to the acquisition of additional Collateral Obligations in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.19 and Article 12 (and, until so applied (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security), to be deposited in the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds);

(13) to the extent not previously paid in full under clause (11) above, after the Replacement Period, to the payment of the amounts referred to in clauses (15), (16) and (17) under Section 11.1(c)(i) (and in the same manner and order of priority) to the extent not previously paid in full thereunder;

(14) after the Replacement Period, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment of dividends pro rata to the Holders of Preference Shares until the Holders of the Preference Shares have realized a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 12%;

(15) after the Replacement Period, first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with

Section 10.3(i) of an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) the Supplemental Servicing Fee, if applicable and second, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Supplemental Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause; and

(16) after the Replacement Period to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares.

The calculation on any Coverage Test on any Determination Date shall be made by giving effect to all payments to be made pursuant to all subclauses of the Priority of Payments as applicable, payable on the Payment Date following such Determination Date. In addition no Principal Proceeds will be used to pay a subordinated Class on a Payment Date if, after giving effect to such payment, any Coverage Test of a more senior Class of Notes is failing on such Payment Date or would fail as a result of such application of the Principal Proceeds on such Payment Date.

Any payments to the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be released from the lien of this Indenture and shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

(d) On (i) the Stated Maturity (including an Optional Redemption Date or any Payment Date on which the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes is paid in full as described herein) and, if funds become available after the Stated Maturity, on any other date after the Stated Maturity, and (ii) each Payment Date (x) after the occurrence of an Event of Default and an acceleration of the Notes pursuant to Section 5.2 that has not been rescinded, or (y) after the occurrence of an Event of Default and an acceleration of the Notes pursuant to Section 5.2 that has not been rescinded and the liquidation of the Collateral pursuant to Sections 5.4 and 5.5, and, in each case, in accordance with the Valuation Report for the Determination Date immediately preceding such Payment Date or Stated Maturity (or in the case of an Optional Redemption, in accordance with the Redemption Date Statement), the Trustee shall withdraw from the Collection Account an amount equal to the Adjusted Proceeds (including Sale Proceeds, if any) and, in the case of clause (i) above, from the Expense Reimbursement Account any amount on deposit therein, and shall apply such amounts in the following order of priority:

(i) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Defaulted Interest on, and any Defaulted Interest Charge with respect to, the Class A Notes;

(ii) to pay the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A Notes;

(iii) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class B Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Defaulted Interest on, and any Defaulted Interest Charge with respect to, the Class B Notes;

(iv) to pay the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class B Notes;

(v) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class C Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Class C Deferred Interest;

(vi) to pay the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes;

(vii) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class D Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Class D Deferred Interest;

(viii) to pay the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class D Notes;

(ix) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class E Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Class E Deferred Interest;

(x) to pay the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class E Notes;

(xi) first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with Section 10.3(i) of an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) the Subordinated Servicing Fee, if applicable and second, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Subordinated Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause;

(xii) to the payment of any remaining Administrative Expenses not paid under Section 11(b)(i)-(iii) in the respective priorities specified therein;

(xiii) to the payment, pro rata, of any (i) Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments and any (ii) Defaulted Synthetic Security Termination Payments;

(xiv) to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment of dividends pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares until the Holders of the Preference Shares have realized a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 12%;

(xv) first, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with Section 10.3(i) of an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) the Supplemental Servicing Fee, if applicable and second, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Supplemental Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause; and

(xvi) any remaining Interest Proceeds, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement;

provided that, after the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes has been paid in full, or so long as the Class A Notes are no longer Outstanding, if the Coverage Tests are at the same level as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, in lieu of payment of Interest Proceeds referred to under clauses (xiv) and (xvi) above, in whole or in part on any Payment Date, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall have the right to direct the Trustee to distribute any Eligible Equity Securities pro rata to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date to the extent that the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) is equal to or lower than the aggregate amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be due and payable on such Payment Date to such Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares. Interest Proceeds in an amount equal to the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) distributed to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to any such Payment Date shall be treated for all purposes by the Issuer and the Servicer as Principal Proceeds available for distribution in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the relevant Payment Date. The amount of Interest Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date shall be reduced and the amount of Principal Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date shall be increased accordingly. Any payments to the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be released from the lien of this Indenture and shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

The obligation to pay the foregoing amounts on the Stated Maturity is absolute and unconditional, but recourse therefor will be limited to the Collateral.

(e) If on any Payment Date the amount available in the Payment Account is insufficient to make the full amount of the disbursements required by the Valuation Report, the Trustee shall make the disbursements called for in the order and according to the priority under Sections 11.1(b) and (c), subject to Section 13.1, to the extent funds are available therefor.

(f) The Trustee shall remit funds to pay Administrative Expenses of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in accordance with Sections 11.1(b) and (c), to the extent available, to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer as directed and designated in an Issuer Order (which may be in the form of standing instructions) delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before each Payment Date.

(g) If the Hedge Counterparty defaults in the payment of its obligations to the Issuer under the respective Hedge Agreements on the date on which any payment is due thereunder, the Trustee shall make a demand on the Hedge Counterparty, or any guarantor, if applicable, demanding payment by 12:30 p.m., New York time, on that date. The Trustee shall give notice to the Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Servicer and each Rating Agency upon the continuing failure by the Hedge Counterparty to perform its obligations during the two Business Days following a demand made by the Trustee on, the Hedge Counterparty, and (subject to Section 6.1(c)(iv)) shall take the action with respect to the continuing failure as directed by the Servicer unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing in which case direction is to be taken pursuant to Section 5.13.

(h) Except as otherwise expressly provided in Sections 11.1(b) and (c) above, if on any Payment Date, the amount available in the Payment Account from amounts received in the related Due Period is insufficient to make the full amount of the disbursements required by any numbered or lettered paragraph or clause of Sections 11.1(b) and (c) to different Persons, the Trustee shall make the disbursements called for by the paragraph or clause ratably in accordance with the respective amounts of the disbursements then payable, subject to Section 13.1, to the extent funds are available therefor.

(i) Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, with respect to Adjusted Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account and held in Eligible Investments pending the purchase of Collateral Obligations, any such amounts not used to purchase Collateral Obligations by the last day of the Due Period next succeeding the Due Period in which such amounts were collected may be used to purchase Collateral Obligations in subsequent Due Periods in accordance with Section 12.2 (until otherwise applied pursuant to this Section 11.1).

ARTICLE 12

SALE OF COLLATERAL OBLIGATIONS; PURCHASE OF COLLATERAL OBLIGATIONS

Section 12.1 Sales of Collateral Obligations

Subject to the satisfaction of the conditions specified in Section 10.6, Section 12.1 and Section 12.3 and if no Event of Default is continuing as evidenced by an Officer's certificate of the Servicer provided to the Trustee, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset if the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that the sale meets the requirements of any one of paragraphs (a) through (i) of this Section 12.1. If the Issuer sells any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset during the Replacement Period, the proceeds shall be applied in accordance with Section 12.2.

(a) Credit Risk Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Risk Obligation at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Risk Obligation in accordance with such direction. Following any sale of a Credit Risk Obligation pursuant to this Section 12.1(a), at the direction of the Servicer during the Replacement Period, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (to the extent the purchase is in the best interest of the Issuer) meeting the Eligibility Criteria with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Sale Proceeds received by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral Obligation sold. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount.

(b) Credit Improved Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Improved Obligation if either:

(i) during the Replacement Period, the Servicer has identified in writing before the sale one or more specific manners in which it will be able, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria and the requirements set forth in Section 12.1(i) below, to cause the Issuer to use the Sale Proceeds (it being understood that such identification shall not be considered either a requirement or an assurance that any specified purchase will be consummated) to purchase one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Credit Improved Obligation by the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest) which in aggregate will result in (i) the Collateral Quality Tests, the Interest Coverage Tests, the Overcollateralization Tests and the Concentration Limitations herein being satisfied or if one or more of such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests or Concentration Limitations are not satisfied, the degree of compliance therewith being improved, (ii) the quality of the total portfolio of Collateral Obligations as measured by such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests and Concentration Limitations being improved on a net basis in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer and (iii) in the case of each of clause (i) and (ii), any other Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests or Concentration Limitations not being violated or, in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, the likelihood of such violation in the future not being significantly increased; and

(ii) after the Replacement Period, the Sale Proceeds received in respect of the Credit Improved Obligation are at least equal to its Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest; and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Improved Obligation in accordance with such direction.

(c) Non-Performing Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction. Non-Performing Collateral Obligations may be sold regardless of price.

(d) Non-qualifying Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation (the “Non-qualifying Collateral Obligation”) at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell that obligation in accordance with such direction.

(e) Withholding Tax Sales. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation subject to withholding tax at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction.

(f) Optional Redemption. After the Issuer has notified the Trustee of an Optional Redemption of the Notes in accordance with Article 9, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all or a portion of the Collateral Obligations as contemplated therein if (i) the requirements of Article 9 are satisfied and (ii) the Independent certified public accountants appointed pursuant to Section 10.7 have confirmed the calculations contained in any required certificate furnished by the Servicer pursuant to Section 9.3(c). After the Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares have requested an Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares in accordance with Section 9.2(b), at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all of the remaining Collateral Obligations (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(i)) or a portion of the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous written request of Holders of the Preference Shares (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii)) and the Trustee shall sell the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

(g) Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Servicer has received notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, direct the Trustee to sell Collateral Obligations as contemplated in Section 9.1 and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

(h) Workout Assets. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Workout Asset at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and regardless of price, and the Trustee shall sell the Workout Assets in accordance with such direction.

(i) Supervening Requirement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Issuer (at the direction of the Servicer or otherwise) shall not acquire or dispose of a Collateral Obligation or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer or otherwise, may direct the Trustee to sell any CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligation or Deep Discount Obligation only (a) if it constitutes Credit Risk Obligation or Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or (b) in connection with the Optional Redemption as set out in paragraph (f) above. The Trustee shall have no obligation to monitor compliance by the Issuer or the Servicer with respect to the requirement set out in this paragraph (i).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall not direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation (other than the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation or a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation pursuant to a sale that meets the requirements in paragraph (a) or (c) above, as applicable) following receipt by the Servicer of notice of removal pursuant to Section 14 of the Servicing Agreement until a successor Servicer is appointed pursuant to Section 12 of the Servicing Agreement.

Section 12.2 Purchase of Collateral Obligations.

(a) On any date during the Replacement Period (and, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, on any date after the Replacement Period), so long as no Event of Default is continuing, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to apply Principal Proceeds (together with Interest Proceeds, but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on Collateral Obligations) to purchase Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security) if the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that, to the best knowledge of the Servicer, the conditions specified in this Section 12.2 and Section 12.3 are met.

(b) Eligibility Criteria. No obligations may be purchased unless each of the conditions in the following clauses (i) through (xii) (the “Eligibility Criteria”) is satisfied as evidenced by a certificate of the Servicer as of the date the Issuer commits to make the purchase, in each case after giving effect to the purchase and all other purchases and sales previously or simultaneously committed to:

(i) the obligation is a Collateral Obligation;

(ii) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period:

(A) each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied and, if the commitment is made on or after the second Payment Date, each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied, or

(B) if any such Coverage Test is not satisfied, both:

(1) the extent of satisfaction of the Coverage Test is not reduced, and

(2) the Collateral Obligation is being purchased with Principal Proceeds other than:

(x) Principal Proceeds received in respect of a Defaulted Collateral Obligation, or

(y) Principal Proceeds received in respect of a Workout Asset that has been received in exchange for a Defaulted Collateral Obligation;

(iii) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Diversity Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(iv) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(v) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, each of the limits in the definition of "Concentration Limitations" is satisfied or, if any such limit is not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(vi) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Spread Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(vii) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(viii) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Life Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(ix) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(x) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(xi) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the S&P CDO Monitor Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced; provided, however, that this Eligibility Criterion (xi) shall not apply either to the application of the proceeds from the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation, Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset or to the application of Principal Proceeds in respect of Defaulted Collateral Obligations; and

(xii) for any date occurring after the Replacement Period:

(A) each Coverage Test is satisfied and the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(B) each Collateral Quality Test (other than the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test) is maintained or improved and the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied;

(C) each Concentration Limitation is maintained or improved and the Aggregate Principal Balance of all CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations do not exceed 7.5% of the Maximum Amount;

(D) the stated maturity of such Collateral Obligation is equal to or earlier than the stated maturity of the Collateral Obligation being the source of the Unscheduled Principal Payments or the Credit Risk Obligations or Credit Improved Obligation being the source of Sale Proceeds, as applicable;

(E) the S&P Rating of such Collateral Obligation is at least equal to the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation being the source of the Unscheduled Principal Payments or of the Credit Risk Obligations or Credit Improved Obligation being the source of Sale Proceeds, as applicable;

(F) the Scenario Default Rate for all Outstanding Classes of Notes is no worse following such purchase; and

(G) the current Moody's Ratings on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes are no lower than their Initial Rating and the current Moody's Ratings on the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes are no lower than one subcategory below their Initial Rating.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall not direct the Trustee to purchase any Collateral Obligation following receipt by the Servicer of notice of removal pursuant to Section 14 of the Servicing Agreement until a successor Servicer is appointed pursuant Section 12 of the Servicing Agreement.

(c) Certain Permitted Exchanges. The Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, exchange a Collateral Obligation for another Collateral Obligation in an A/B Exchange.

(d) Certification by Servicer. Not later than the Business Day preceding the settlement date for any Collateral Obligation purchased after the Closing Date (but in any event no later than the release of Cash for the Purchase Price of the purchase), the Servicer shall deliver to the Trustee an Officer's certificate of the Servicer certifying that, to the best knowledge of the Servicer, the purchase complies with this Section 12.2 and with Section 12.3 (determined as of the date that the Issuer commits to make the purchase).

(e) Eligible Investments. Cash on deposit in the Collection Account may be held at any time in Eligible Investments in accordance with Section 10.4(a) pending the application thereof to purchase Collateral Obligations.

Section 12.3 Conditions Applicable to All Sale and Purchase Transactions.

(a) Any sale or purchase by the Issuer of a Collateral Obligation shall be conducted on an arm's length basis and, if effected with the Servicer or a Person Affiliated with the Servicer or any fund or account for which the Servicer or an Affiliate of the Servicer acts as investment adviser, shall be effected in accordance with the requirements of Section 5 of the Servicing Agreement on terms no less favorable to the Issuer than would be the case if the Person were not so Affiliated. The Trustee shall have no responsibility to oversee compliance with this clause (a) by the other parties.

(b) Upon any acquisition of any Collateral Obligation, all of the Issuer's interest in the Collateral Obligation shall be Granted to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture.

(c) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Article 12, the Issuer (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall not direct the Trustee to sell or purchase any Collateral Obligation (other than the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation or a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation pursuant to Section 12.1(a) or (c), as applicable) following receipt by the Servicer of notice of removal pursuant to Section 14 of the Servicing Agreement until a successor Servicer is appointed pursuant to Section 12(e) of the Servicing Agreement.

Section 12.4 Certain Determinations Relating to Collateral Obligations.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have purchased any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer enters into a contract to purchase, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to receive such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have acquired, granted or delivered, as the case may be, such Collateral Obligations on such date.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer enters into a contract to sell, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to sell, and requiring the purchaser to purchase, such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold such Collateral Obligations on such date.

(c) Under the circumstances described in subsections (a) and (b) above, if the transaction contemplated by the contract, commitment letter, confirmation or due bill referred to therein does not settle on or before the 60th day following the scheduled settlement date (the "Deadline"), the deemed purchase or sale shall be deemed not to have occurred; provided, however, that the Servicer shall have the right to extend the Deadline for an additional period (not to exceed an additional 60 days) by notice to the Trustee, which notice shall include the Servicer's certification to the effect that the Servicer believes that the settlement shall occur on or before the extended Deadline.

(d) Scheduled distributions with respect to any Pledged Collateral Obligation shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Indenture.

Section 12.5 Certain Conditions Relating to Synthetic Securities.

Each Synthetic Security that is a credit default swap the Reference Obligations of which are Loans shall require each such Reference Obligation to be denominated and payable in U.S. Dollars.

The maturity, interest rate, and other non-credit characteristics of a Synthetic Security may be different from the Reference Obligations to which the credit risk of the Synthetic Security relates.

No Synthetic Security shall require the Issuer to make any payment to the Synthetic Security Counterparty after its initial purchase other than any payments represented by the release of any cash collateral posted by the Issuer from the Collection Account to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of the posted cash collateral. Collateral may be posted only to a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. No Synthetic Security shall result in the Issuer being a "buyer" of credit protection.

The term Synthetic Security shall not include any Structured Finance Obligation or any Participation, but the Reference Obligation of a Synthetic Security may be a Structured Finance Obligation.

Each Synthetic Security Agreement shall contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in this Indenture.

The ownership or disposition of any Synthetic Security (without regard to the Issuer's other activities) must not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

Unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any "deliverable obligation" that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event" under any proposed Synthetic Security must not provide that its transfer to the Issuer is subject to obtaining any consents and must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such "deliverable obligation" is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event") as a Collateral Obligation and satisfy the Concentration Limitations under this Indenture, except that such "deliverable obligation" may constitute a Defaulted Collateral Obligation when delivered upon a "credit event" and if the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security is a Senior Secured Loan then the "deliverable obligation" under the Synthetic Security must also be a Senior Secured Loan.

No Synthetic Security may provide for any event other than bankruptcy or a failure to pay as a "credit event."

No Synthetic Security may provide for termination by the Synthetic Security Counterparty at any time (i) after a declaration of acceleration of Maturity of the Notes has been made upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, unless such declaration and its consequences may no longer be rescinded and annulled in accordance with Section 5.2(c) and liquidation of the Collateral has begun or (ii) upon an Optional Redemption, unless the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date has passed and no notice of withdrawal has been issued.

For purposes of the Coverage Tests and the Interest Diversion Test, unless the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied in respect of any proposed alternative treatment, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligation.

With respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, for purposes of: (i) calculating compliance with the Diversity Test, the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test, and the Concentration Limitations (other than limits relating to payment characteristics and except for clause 15, and the exception thereto, of the definition of “Concentration Limitations”), and all related definitions, and (ii) any other provision or definition of this Indenture involving a determination with respect to a Reference Obligation, the characteristics of such Reference Obligations shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct interest of the Issuer in each such Reference Obligation in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation. In addition, each Reference Obligation under such Synthetic Security shall be assigned a Moody’s Rating Factor equal to the sum of the Moody’s Rating Factor of (i) the related Reference Obligor, (ii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty of such Synthetic Security and (iii) the Synthetic Security Collateral of such Synthetic Security. In addition, the Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate in respect of a Synthetic Security referencing multiple Reference Obligations pursuant to this paragraph shall be the Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate as assigned by Moody’s to each Reference Obligation underlying such Synthetic Security. For the avoidance of doubt, Reference Obligations upon which a Synthetic Security is based as described in this paragraph must meet the definition of “Collateral Obligation” to the extent provided in this definition.

If the Rating Condition must be satisfied to execute the purchase of any Synthetic Security, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall give each applicable Rating Agency not less than five days’ prior notice of the purchase of or entry into any Synthetic Security.

ARTICLE 13*NOTEHOLDERS' RELATIONS*Section 13.1 Subordination.

(a) With respect to each Class of Notes and the Preference Shares, the Classes of Notes and the Preference Shares that are Priority Classes and Junior Classes are as follows:

Class	Junior Classes	Priority Classes
A	B, C, D, E, Preference Shares*	None
B	C, D, E, Preference Shares*	A
C	D, E, Preference Shares*	A, B
D	E, Preference Shares*	A, B, C
E	Preference Shares*	A, B, C, D
Preference Shares	None	A, B, C, D, E

* Other than with respect to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments, which may be payable to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as set forth herein and will have priority to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments. If the Class E Coverage Tests are not satisfied on any Determination Date, Interest Proceeds will first be used to pay principal of the Class E Notes and second to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the Note Payment Sequence, in each case in the amount necessary to meet all Class E Coverage Tests on such Determination Date as set forth in Section 11.1(c)(i)(11). If the Interest Diversion Test is not satisfied on any Determination Date, Interest Proceeds will be used to satisfy the Interest Diversion Test and such amount will be paid first, to principal of the Class E Notes, second, to principal of the Class D Notes, third, to principal of the Class C Notes, fourth, to principal of the Class B Notes and fifth, to principal of the Class A Notes, in that order, in each case, to the extent required to satisfy the Interest Diversion Test as set forth in Section 11.1(c)(i)(14).

** The Preference Shares will be entitled to certain residual cash flow after payment of senior obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

(b) Anything in this Indenture or the Notes to the contrary notwithstanding, the Holders of each Class of Notes that is a Junior Class agree for the benefit of the Holders of Notes of each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class that the Junior Class shall be subordinate and junior to the Notes of each Priority Class to the extent and in the manner provided in this Indenture. If any Event of Default has not been cured or waived and acceleration occurs and is continuing in accordance with Article 5, each Priority Class of Notes shall be paid in full in Cash or, to the extent a Majority of each Class of Notes (voting separately) consents, other than in Cash, before any further payment or distribution is made on account of any Junior Class of Notes with respect to the Priority Class, as and to the extent provided in Section 11.1(d). The Holders of each Junior Class of Notes agree, for the benefit of the Holders of Notes of each Priority Class in respect of the Junior Class, not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for failure to pay to them amounts due to the Junior Class, of the Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, or under this Indenture until the payment in full of the Priority Classes or all the Classes, as the case may be, and not before one year and a day, or if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, has elapsed since the payment.

(c) If, notwithstanding the provisions of this Indenture, any Holder of Notes of any Junior Class has received any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes contrary to the provisions of this Indenture, then, until each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class of Notes has been paid in full in Cash or, to the extent a Majority of each Class of Notes (voting separately) consents, other than in Cash, in accordance with this Indenture, the payment or distribution shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of, and shall forthwith be paid over and delivered to, the Trustee, which shall pay and deliver the same to the Holders of the applicable Priority Classes of Notes in accordance with this Indenture. If any such payment or distribution is made other than in Cash, it shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and subject in all respects to this Indenture, including this Section 13.1.

(d) Each Holder of Notes of any Junior Class agrees with all Holders of the applicable Priority Classes that the Holder of Junior Class Notes shall not demand, accept, or receive any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes in violation of this Indenture including this Section 13.1. After a Priority Class has been paid in full, the Holders of Notes of the related Junior Class or Classes shall be fully subrogated to the rights of the Holders of the Priority Class. Nothing in this Section 13.1 shall affect the obligation of the Issuer to pay Holders of any Junior Class of Notes.

(e) Distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares (other than, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) are subordinate to distributions on the Notes as described in the Priority of Payments.

(f) The Servicing Fees shall have priority only to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments.

Section 13.2 Standard of Conduct.

In exercising any of its or their voting rights, rights to direct and consent, or any other rights as a Noteholder under this Indenture, a Noteholder shall not have any obligation or duty to any Person or to consider or take into account the interests of any Person and shall not be liable to any Person for any action taken by it or them or at its or their direction or any failure by it or them to act or to direct that an action be taken, without regard to whether the action or inaction benefits or adversely affects any Noteholder, the Issuer or any other Person, except for any liability to which the Noteholder may be subject to the extent the same results from the Noteholder's taking or directing an action, or failing to take or direct an action, in bad faith or in violation of the express terms of this Indenture.

ARTICLE 14

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 14.1 Form of Documents Delivered to Trustee.

In any case where several matters are required to be certified by, or covered by an opinion of, any specified Person, it is not necessary that all the matters be certified by, or covered by the opinion of, only one Person, or that they be so certified or covered by only one document, but one such Person may certify or give an opinion with respect to some matters and one or more other such Persons as to other matters, and any such Person may certify or give an opinion as to the matters in one or several documents.

Any certificate or opinion of an Officer of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Servicer may be based, insofar as it relates to legal matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, counsel, unless the Officer knows, or should know that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to the matters upon which his certificate or opinion is based are erroneous. Any such certificate of an Officer of the Issuer, Co-Issuer or the Servicer or Opinion of Counsel may be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer or any other Person, stating that the information with respect to the factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer or the other Person, unless the Officer of the Issuer, Co-Issuer or the Servicer or the counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to factual matters are erroneous. Any Opinion of Counsel may also be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, an Officer of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, stating that the information with respect to factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, unless the counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to factual matters are erroneous.

Where any Person is required to make, give, or execute two or more applications, requests, consents, certificates, statements, opinions or other instruments under this Indenture, they may, but need not, be consolidated and form one instrument.

Whenever this Indenture provides that the absence of the continuation of a Default or Event of Default is a condition precedent to the taking of any action by the Trustee at the request or direction of either Co-Issuer, then notwithstanding that the satisfaction of the condition is a condition precedent to the Co-Issuer's right to make the request or direction, the Trustee shall be protected in acting in accordance with the request or direction if it does not have knowledge of the continuation of the Default or Event of Default as provided in Section 6.1(d).

Section 14.2 Acts of Holders of Securities.

(a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Indenture to be given or taken by Holders of Securities may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments (which may be an electronic document, including, but not limited, to in the form of e-mail, to the extent permitted by applicable law) of substantially similar tenor signed by Holders of Securities in Person or by agents duly appointed in writing (provided that no signature shall be required on electronic documents, including, but not limited to, in the form of e-mail to the extent permitted by law). Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture, the action shall become effective when the instruments are delivered to the Trustee (which instrument or instruments may be delivered through the Preference Shares Paying Agent, in the case of the Holders of the Preference Shares) and, if expressly required, to the Issuer. The instruments (and the action embodied in them) are referred to as the “Act” of the Holders of Securities signing the instruments. Proof of execution of any instrument or of a writing appointing an agent for a Holder of a Security shall be sufficient for any purpose of this Indenture and conclusive in favor of the Trustee and the Issuer, if made in the manner provided in this Section.

(b) The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any instrument may be proved by an affidavit of a witness to the execution or the certificate of any notary public or other Person authorized by law to acknowledge the execution of deeds. Any certificate on behalf of a jural entity executed by a Person purporting to have authority to act on behalf of the jural entity shall itself be sufficient proof of the authority of the Person executing it to act. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any instrument may also be proved in any other manner that the Trustee deems sufficient.

(c) The Indenture Register shall prove the ownership of the Notes and the principal amount and registered numbers of Notes, and the number of Preference Shares held by and the number(s) of the Preference Share certificate(s) issued to any Person shall be proved by the share register of the Issuer.

(d) Any Act by the Holder of a Security shall bind every Holder of the same Security and every Security issued on its transfer or in exchange for it or in lieu of it, in respect of anything done, omitted or suffered to be done by the Trustee or the Issuer in reliance on the Act, whether or not notation of the action is made on the Securities.

Section 14.3 Notices, etc., to Certain Persons or Parties.

(a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, order, notice, consent, waiver, or Act of Holders of Securities or other documents provided or permitted by this Indenture to be made, given, or furnished to, or filed with:

(i) the Trustee or Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be sufficient for every purpose under this Indenture if in writing and made, given, furnished, or filed to and mailed, by certified mail, return receipt requested, hand delivered, sent by overnight courier service guaranteeing next day delivery, or by telecopy in legible form, to the Trustee or Preference Shares Paying Agent addressed to it at, 200 Clarendon Street, Mail Code: EUC 108, Boston, MA 02116, telecopy no. (viii) the Administrator shall be sufficient for every purpose under this Indenture (unless otherwise in this Indenture expressly provided) if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, hand delivered, sent by overnight courier service, or by facsimile in legible form, addressed to Walkers SPV Limited, Walker House, 87 Mary Street, George Town, Grand Cayman, KY1-9002, Cayman Islands, telecopy no. (345) 945-4757, Attention: the Directors—Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd.;

(ix) to the Listing Agent at Dillon Eustace, 33 Sir John Rogerson's Quay, Dublin 2, Ireland, telephone no. +353-1-667-0022, telecopy no. +353-1-667-0042, Attention: Mark Fitzgerald, or at any other address previously furnished in writing by the Listing Agent or e-mailed to info@dilloneustace.ie; and

(x) to the Irish Paying Agent at Custom House Administration & Corporate Services Ltd., 25 Eden Quay, Dublin 1, Ireland, telephone no. +353 1 878 0807, telecopy

no. +353 1 878 0827, Attention: Evelyn Meenaghan, or at any other address previously furnished in writing by the Irish Paying Agent.

(b) If any provision in this Indenture calls for any notice or document to be delivered simultaneously to the Trustee and any other Person, the Trustee's receipt of the notice or document shall entitle the Trustee to assume that the notice or document was delivered to the other Person unless otherwise expressly specified in this Indenture.

(c) Any Holder or beneficial owner of any Class A Notes may elect to acquire bond insurance, a surety bond, a credit default swap or similar credit enhancement supporting the payment of principal and/or interest on such Class A Notes on terms and conditions acceptable to such Holder or beneficial owner and at the sole expense of such Holder or beneficial owner. On or after any such acquisition, such Holder or beneficial owner may deliver notice (and if from a beneficial owner, any such notice shall include certification that such owner is a beneficial owner of the Class A Notes) to the Trustee in substantially the form of Exhibit K specifying the name and contact information of the insurer, surety, credit protection seller or enhancer of such Class A Notes (each, an "Insurer"). After receipt of any such notice (in the form of Exhibit K) by the Trustee, the Trustee shall copy the related Insurer on all notices, reports or other documents delivered to the Noteholders.

Section 14.4 Notices to Noteholders and the Preference Shares Paying Agent; Waiver.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture, where this Indenture provides for notice to the Noteholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) of any event,

(a) the notice shall be sufficiently given to the Noteholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, each Noteholder affected by the event or the Preference Shares Paying Agent, at the address of the Holder as it appears in the Indenture Register or at the address of the Preference Shares Paying Agent supplied by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to the Trustee, as applicable, not earlier than the earliest date and not later than the latest date, prescribed for the giving of the notice; and

(b) the notice shall be in the English language.

Notices shall be deemed to have been given on the date of their mailing.

Notwithstanding clause (a), a Noteholder or the Preference Shares Paying Agent may give the Trustee a written notice that it is requesting that notices to it be given by facsimile transmissions and stating the telecopy number for the transmission. Thereafter, the Trustee shall give notices to the Holder or the Preference Shares Paying Agent by facsimile transmission. If the notice also requests that notices be given by mail, then the notice shall also be given by mail in accordance with clause (a) above, as the case may be.

The Trustee shall deliver to the Noteholders any information or notice relating to this Indenture requested to be so delivered by at least 10% (by Aggregate Outstanding Amount) of the Holders of any Class of Notes at the expense of the Issuer. The Trustee shall deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent any information or notice that the Preference Shares Paying Agent certifies was requested to be so delivered by at least 10% (by Aggregate Outstanding Amount) of the Holders of the Preference Shares at the expense of the Issuer.

Neither the failure to mail any notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Noteholder or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall affect the sufficiency of the notice with respect to other Noteholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent. If it is impracticable to give the notice by mail of any event to Noteholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent when the notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Indenture because of the suspension of regular mail service as a result of a strike, work stoppage or similar activity or because of any other cause, then the notification to Noteholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent as shall be made with the approval of the Trustee shall be a sufficient notification to the Holders for every purpose under this Indenture.

Where this Indenture provides for notice in any manner, the notice may be waived in writing by any Person entitled to receive the notice, either before or after the event, and the waiver shall be the equivalent of the notice. Waivers of notice by Noteholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be filed with the Trustee but the filing shall not be a condition precedent to the validity of any action taken in reliance on the waiver.

So long as any Senior Notes are listed on the ISE and the guidelines of the exchange so require, all notices to Noteholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to Holders of Preference Shares) shall also be given to the Irish Paying Agent for publication in the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

The Issuer shall (and authorizes the Trustee to) deliver to the Initial Purchaser all periodic reports, notices, demands, and other written information delivered or received by the Issuer, the Servicer, trustees, paying agents, accountants, or other Persons pursuant to this Indenture and other operative documentation relating to the Notes requested by the Initial Purchaser (collectively, the “Transaction Reports”) and the Issuer consents to the Initial Purchaser providing Transaction Reports received by it to current and prospective investors in the Notes (including by means of electronic transmissions or posting the Transaction Reports on internet sites maintained by the Initial Purchaser or any of its Affiliates).

Section 14.5 Effect of Headings and Table of Contents.

The Article and Section headings in this Indenture and the Table of Contents are for convenience only and shall not affect the construction of this Indenture.

Section 14.6 Successors and Assigns.

All covenants and agreements in this Indenture by the Co-Issuers shall bind their respective successors and assigns, whether so expressed or not.

Section 14.7 Separability.

Except to the extent prohibited by applicable law, in case any provision in this Indenture, in the Notes shall be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

Section 14.8 Benefits of Indenture.

Nothing in this Indenture or in the Notes, expressed or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors under this Indenture, the Servicer, the Noteholders, the Holders of Preference Shares or the Preference Shares Paying Agent any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under this Indenture.

Section 14.9 Governing Law.

THIS INDENTURE AND EACH NOTE SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO ITS PROVISIONS THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

Section 14.10 Submission to Jurisdiction.

The Co-Issuers and the Trustee hereby irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Securities or this Indenture, and the Co-Issuers and the Trustee hereby irrevocably agree that all claims in respect of the action or proceeding may be heard and determined in the New York State or federal court. The Co-Issuers and the Trustee hereby irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent that they may legally do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of the action or proceeding. The Co-Issuers and the Trustee irrevocably consent to the service of all process in any action or proceeding by the mailing or delivery of copies of the process to the Co-Issuers at the office of State Street Bank and Trust Company (to the attention of State Street Bank and Trust Company, Trustee for Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd.) set out in Section 7.2. The Co-Issuers and the Trustee agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

Section 14.11 Counterparts.

This Indenture may be executed in any number of copies, and by the different parties on the same or separate counterparts, each of which shall be considered to be an original instrument.

Section 14.12 Acts of Issuer.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Indenture to be given or performed by the Issuer shall be effective if given or performed by the Issuer or by the Servicer on the Issuer's behalf.

Section 14.13 Liability of Co-Issuers.

Notwithstanding any other terms of this Indenture, the Notes or any other agreement entered into by either of the Co-Issuers or otherwise, neither of the Co-Issuers shall have any liability whatsoever to the other of the Co-Issuers under this Indenture, the Notes, any other agreement, or otherwise. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, neither of the Co-Issuers may take any action to enforce, or bring any action or proceeding, in respect of this Indenture, the Notes, any other agreement, or otherwise against the other of the Co-Issuers. In particular, neither of the Co-Issuers may petition or take any other steps for the winding up or bankruptcy of the other of the Co-Issuers and neither of the Co-Issuers shall have any claim with respect to any assets of the other of the Co-Issuers.

Section 14.14 Indemnity of Co-Issuer.

The Issuer agrees to indemnify the Co-Issuer for any payments that may become due from the Co-Issuer under Article 11 with respect to any Notes issued under this Indenture and any administrative, legal, or other costs incurred by the Co-Issuer in connection with those payments.

ARTICLE 15

ASSIGNMENT OF SERVICING AGREEMENT; HEDGE AGREEMENTS

Section 15.1 Assignment of Servicing Agreement; Amendment of Servicing Agreement.

(a) The Issuer, in furtherance of the covenants of this Indenture and as security for the Notes and amounts payable to the Secured Parties under this Indenture and the performance and observance of the provisions of this Indenture, acknowledges that its Grant pursuant to the first Granting Clause includes all of the Issuer's interest in the Servicing Agreement, including:

- (i) the right to give all notices, consents and releases under it,
- (ii) the right to give all notices of termination pursuant to the Servicing Agreement and to take any legal action upon the breach of an obligation of the Servicer under it, including the commencement, conduct and consummation of proceedings at law or in equity,
- (iii) the right to receive all notices, accountings, consents, releases and statements under it, and
- (iv) the right to do all other things whatsoever that the Issuer is or may be entitled to do under it.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, the Trustee may not exercise any of the rights in (i) through (iv) above or that may otherwise arise as a result of the Grant until the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Indenture and the authority shall terminate when the Event of Default is cured or waived.

(b) The assignment made hereby is executed as security, and the execution and delivery hereby shall not in any way impair or diminish the obligations of the Issuer under the Servicing Agreement, nor shall any of the obligations contained in the Servicing Agreement be imposed on the Trustee.

(c) Upon the retirement of the Notes and the release of the Collateral from the lien of this Indenture, this assignment, and all rights in this Indenture assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders shall cease and terminate and all the interest of the Trustee in the Servicing Agreement shall revert to the Issuer and no further instrument or act shall be necessary to evidence the termination and reversion.

(d) The Issuer represents that the Issuer has not executed any other assignment of the Servicing Agreement.

(e) The Issuer agrees that this assignment is irrevocable, and that it shall not take any action that is inconsistent with this assignment or make any other assignment inconsistent herewith. The Issuer shall, from time to time upon the request of the Trustee, execute all instruments of further assurance and all such supplemental instruments with respect to this assignment as the Trustee may reasonably request.

(f) The Issuer agrees to obtain the agreement and consent of the Servicer in the Servicing Agreement to the following:

(i) the Servicer consents to this collateral assignment and agrees to perform any provisions of this Indenture made expressly applicable to the Servicer pursuant to the Servicing Agreement.

(ii) the Servicer acknowledges that the Issuer is collaterally assigning all of its interest in the Servicing Agreement to the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties and the Servicer agrees that all of the representations, covenants and agreements made by the Servicer in the Servicing Agreement are also for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

(iii) the Servicer shall deliver to the Trustee duplicate original copies of all notices, statements, communications and instruments delivered or required to be delivered to the Issuer pursuant to the Servicing Agreement (other than any of them delivered to the Issuer by the Trustee or the Collateral Administrator).

(iv) the procedure for amending the Servicing Agreement as set forth in Section 15.1(h) below.

(v) except as otherwise provided in this Indenture and the Servicing Agreement, subject to the resignation rights of the Servicer pursuant to Section 12 of the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer shall continue to serve as Servicer under the Servicing Agreement notwithstanding that the Servicer shall not have received amounts due it under the Servicing Agreement because sufficient funds were not then available under this Indenture to pay the amounts owed to the Servicer pursuant to the Priority of Payments. The Servicer agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for the nonpayment of the fees or other amounts payable by the Administrative Agent to the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement until the payment in full of all Notes issued under this Indenture and the payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent of all amounts payable with respect to the Preference Shares in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the expiration of a period equal to the greater of (A) the applicable preference period plus one day or (B) one year and one day following the payment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Servicer may commence any legal action that is not a bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation or similar proceeding against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of their properties and may take any action it deems appropriate at any time in any bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation or similar proceeding and any other Proceeding voluntarily commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or involuntarily commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer by anyone other than the Servicer or any Affiliate of the Servicer.

(vi) the Servicer irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Notes, the Preference Shares or this Indenture, and the Servicer irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of the action or proceeding may be heard and determined in the New York State or federal court. The Servicer irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may legally do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of the action or proceeding. The Servicer irrevocably consents to the service of all process in any action or proceeding by the mailing or delivery of copies of the process to it the address provided for in Section 14.3. The Servicer agrees that a final and non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

(g) Following the resignation or removal of the Servicer, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to appoint a successor Servicer, and the Issuer, the Trustee, and the resigning or removed Servicer shall take any action consistent with the Servicing Agreement and this Indenture applicable to the Servicer, necessary to effectuate any such succession.

(h) (i) The Issuer may, at the request of the Servicer, enter into an amendment or modification of the Servicing Agreement from time to time, without the consent of the Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not the interests of the Holders of the Securities are adversely affected thereby; provided that, with respect to any such amendment or modification, (a) a Rating Condition is satisfied and (b) a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares have not objected in writing to such amendment or modification prior to the relevant Objection Cut-Off Date (as defined below).

(ii) If at any time the Servicer desires to amend or modify the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer shall notify the Issuer and the Trustee, providing details of such proposed amendment or modification. Not later than five Business Days after receipt of such notice, the Trustee shall mail such notice to (a) each Noteholder at such Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository, Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, (b) to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and

(c) to each Rating Agency. If any Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes or any Holder of the Preference Shares notifies, by delivering a written notice to the Trustee within 35 days after the Trustee has mailed such notice, that it objects to such proposed amendment or modification, the Trustee shall, within two Business Days after receiving such notice of objection, mail a notice of the receipt of such objection to the Issuer, the Servicer and other Holders of the Controlling Class of Notes and other Holders of the Preference Shares. Each Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes and each Holder of the Preference Shares that also wishes to object to such amendment or modification must, by delivering a written notice, so notify the Trustee within seven Business Days after the Trustee has mailed such notice of the receipt of such objection (the last day of such seven Business Day period, the “Objection Cut-Off Date”). If a Majority of either the Controlling Class of Notes or the Preference Shares notifies the Trustee in writing on or before the Objection Cut-Off Date that they object to the proposed amendment or modification to the Servicing Agreement, such amendment or modification shall not be made.

Section 15.2 Hedge Agreements.

(a) At any time and from time to time on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, may enter into the Hedge Agreements and shall assign its rights (but none of its obligations) under the Hedge Agreements to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture. The Trustee shall, on behalf of the Issuer and in accordance with the Valuation Report, pay amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements on any Payment Date in accordance with Section 11.1.

(b) The Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless at the time of entering into such Hedge Agreement the Hedge Counterparty has the ratings specified in such Hedge Agreement.

(c) If at any time a Hedge Counterparty does not have the required ratings as set forth in the Hedge Agreement, the Hedge Counterparty shall be required to take such actions as are set forth in the relevant Hedge Agreement.

(d) Whenever the Issuer enters into a Hedge Agreement, the Hedge Counterparty thereto shall comply with the then currently applicable rating criteria of each Rating Agency from time to time.

(e) If the Issuer has the right under a Hedge Agreement at any time to demand that the related Hedge Counterparty deliver Eligible Collateral in accordance with an Approved Credit Support Document, the Issuer, or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, shall make the demand.

(f) Any payments required to be made under the Hedge Agreements shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments shall be subordinate to interest and principal payments on the Notes and any other payments required to be made by the Issuer under the Hedge Agreements, but senior to distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares.

(g) Except as provided in paragraph (i) of this Section 15.2, following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, shall, promptly (but no later than 60 days after the early termination), and to the extent possible through application of Hedge Termination Receipts, enter into a Replacement Hedge, unless, in the exercise of the Servicer's commercially reasonable judgment, to do so would not be in the best interest of the Issuer and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the non-entry into the a Replacement Hedge. In addition, a Replacement Hedge may not be entered into unless the Issuer provides the Rating Agencies with at least seven Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to enter into the agreement, together with its form and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the Replacement Hedge. The Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than a termination resulting from the bankruptcy, insolvency or similar event with respect to the Hedge Counterparty) to become effective simultaneously with its entering into a Replacement Hedge. To the extent that (i) the Servicer determines not to replace the Hedge Agreement and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the determination or (ii) termination is occurring on a Redemption Date, the Hedge Termination Receipts shall become part of Principal Proceeds and be distributed in accordance with Section 11.1 on the next following Payment Date (or on the Redemption Date, if the Notes are redeemed on the Redemption Date).

(h) Notwithstanding Section 15.2(i), the applicable requirements of Section 15.2(i) shall not have to be met if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is otherwise satisfied with respect thereto.

(i) The notional amounts of the Hedge Agreements outstanding at any time may be reduced or increased from time to time by the Issuer, and the Hedge Agreements may be amended, modified or terminated in accordance with the Hedge Agreements if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the reduction, increase, amendment, modification or termination, as the case may be.

(j) Each Hedge Agreement may be terminated pursuant to its terms by the Hedge Counterparty upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes (but only after the applicable notice of redemption may no longer be withdrawn pursuant to Section 9.3), an acceleration of maturity of the Notes after an Event of Default or the entry into certain amendments to this Indenture without the consent of the Hedge Counterparty. The Hedge Agreement will not be permitted to be terminated by the Issuer as the result of a Default or Event of Default unless any acceleration of maturity of the Notes resulting from the Event of Default is no longer permitted to be rescinded pursuant to this Indenture.

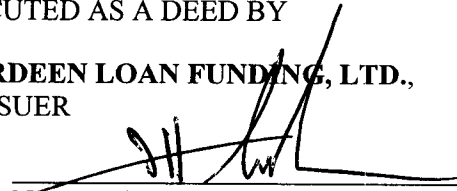

(k) Except for Hedge Agreements entered into on or before the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have set our hands as of the day and year first written above.

Schedule 4Diversity Score Calculation

The Diversity Score for the Collateral Obligations is calculated by summing each of the Industry Diversity Scores, which are calculated as follows:

(i) An “Obligor Par Amount” is calculated for each obligor represented in the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) by summing the par amounts of all Collateral Obligations in the Collateral (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) issued by that obligor or any Affiliate of that obligor (other than obligors that the Servicer reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(ii) An “Average Par Amount” is calculated by summing the Obligor Par Amounts and dividing by the number of obligors represented. For purposes of calculating the number of issuers of the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations), any issuers Affiliated with one another shall be considered one issuer (other than obligors that the Servicer reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(iii) An “Equivalent Unit Score” is calculated for each obligor represented in the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) by taking the lesser of (A) one and (B) the Obligor Par Amount for the obligor divided by the Average Par Amount. For purposes of calculating the Equivalent Unit Score, any issuers Affiliated with one another shall be considered one issuer (other than obligors that the Servicer reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(iv) An “Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score” is then calculated for each of the Moody’s industrial classification groups by summing the Equivalent Unit Scores for each obligor in the industry.

(v) An “Industry Diversity Score” is then established by reference to the Diversity Score Table shown below for the related Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score. If any Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score falls between any two the scores then the applicable Industry Diversity Score shall be the lower of the two Industry Diversity Scores in the Diversity Score Table.

The Diversity Score for any Structured Finance Obligation that is (i) a collateralized loan obligation, (ii) any Synthetic Security with respect to which the Reference Obligation is a collateralized loan obligation or (iii) any Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, is equal to zero.

* If the Structured Finance Obligation is (x) a collateralized debt obligation backed by project finance securities, asset-backed securities, structured finance or real estate securities, distressed debt or other collateralized debt obligations; (y) a market value collateralized debt obligation; or (z) a synthetic collateralized debt obligation, the recovery rate will be assigned by S&P at the time of acquisition. This Schedule 6 may be modified, amended, and supplemented from time to time by S&P.

Schedule 7Certain Defined Terms Relating to S&P Rating and Moody's Rating

“Assigned Moody's Rating”: The monitored publicly available rating or the monitored estimated rating expressly assigned to a debt obligation (or facility) by Moody's that addresses the full amount of the principal and interest promised.

“Moody's Default Probability Rating”: With respect to any Collateral Obligation as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (a) with respect to a Moody's Senior Secured Loan:
  - (i) if the Loan's obligor has a corporate family rating from Moody's, such corporate family rating;
  - (ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's Obligation Rating of such Loan;
  - (iii) if the preceding clauses do not apply, the rating that is one subcategory above the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating;
- (b) with respect to a Moody's Non Senior Secured Loan or a High-Yield Bond, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating of such Collateral Obligation;
- (c) with respect to a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the rating that is one rating subcategory below the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof;
- (d) with respect to a Structured Finance Obligation, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof or, if the obligation does not have an Assigned Moody's Rating but has a rating by S&P, then the Moody's Default Probability Rating shall be:
  - (i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is “BBB–” or higher; or
  - (ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is “BB+” or lower; and
- (e) with respect to a Synthetic Security, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Moody's rating or ratings used to determine the Moody's Default Probability Rating are on watch for downgrade or upgrade by Moody's, such rating or ratings will be adjusted down (if on watch for downgrade) (i) with respect to any Collateral Obligation other than Structured Finance Obligations, one subcategory and (ii) with respect to any Structured Finance Obligation, two subcategories or adjusted up (if on watch for upgrade) (i) with respect to any Collateral Obligation other than Structured Finance Obligations, one subcategory and (ii) with respect to any Structured Finance Obligation, two subcategories.

For purposes of any calculation under this Indenture, if a Moody's Default Probability Rating is withdrawn by Moody's with respect to a Collateral Obligation and if the Issuer, or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, has applied for a rating estimate from Moody's with respect to such Collateral Obligation, the Issuer will continue using the latest Moody's Default Probability Rating available immediately prior to such withdrawal pending receipt of such rating estimate from Moody's; provided, however, that if a Moody's Default Probability Rating is withdrawn and neither the Issuer, nor the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, have applied for a rating estimate, the provisions of this Schedule 7 with respect to Collateral Obligations whose ratings have been withdrawn will be followed.

“Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating”: With respect to any Collateral Obligation that is a Loan or bond and the obligor thereof, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

(a) if the obligor has a senior unsecured obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating;

(b) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's "Issuer Rating" (as defined by Moody's) for the obligor;

(c) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a subordinated obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating; then

(i) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is at least "B3" (and, if rated "B3", not on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be the rating which is one rating subcategory higher than such Assigned Moody's Rating; or

(ii) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is less than "B3" (or rated "B3" and on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be such Assigned Moody's Rating;

(d) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior secured obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating; then:

(i) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is at least "Caa3" (and, if rated "Caa3", not on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be the rating which is one subcategory below such Assigned Moody's Rating; or

(ii) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is less than "Caa3" (or rated "Caa3" and on watch for downgrade), then the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be "C";

(e) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but such obligor has a corporate family rating from Moody's, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be one rating subcategory below such corporate family rating;

(f) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior unsecured obligation (other than a bank loan) with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), then the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be:

(i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher,

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower; or

(iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Servicer obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating no lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Servicer on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or High-Yield Bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (f)(iii), or clause (g)(iii) or (h)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(g) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a subordinated obligation (other than a bank loan) with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), the Assigned Moody's Rating shall be deemed to be:

(i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower, and the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be determined pursuant to clause (c) above; or

(iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Servicer obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating not lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Servicer on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or High-Yield Bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (g)(iii), or clauses (f)(iii) or (h)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(h) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior secured obligation with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), the Assigned Moody's Rating shall be deemed to be:

(i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower, and the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be determined pursuant to clause (d) above; or

(iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Servicer obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating not lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Servicer on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or High-Yield Bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (h)(iii), or clauses (f)(iii) or (g)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(i) if the preceding clauses do not apply and each of the following clauses (i) through (viii) do apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Caa1":

(i) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings;

(ii) no debt securities or obligations of the obligor are in default;

(iii) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates has defaulted on any debt during the preceding two years;

(iv) the obligor has been in existence for the preceding five years;

(v) the obligor is current on any cumulative dividends;

(vi) the fixed-charge ratio for the obligor exceeds 125% for each of the preceding two fiscal years and for the most recent quarter;

(vii) the obligor had a net profit before tax in the past fiscal year and the most recent quarter; and

(viii) the annual financial statements of such obligor are unqualified and certified by a firm of Independent accountants of international reputation, and quarterly statements are unaudited but signed by a corporate officer;

(j) if the preceding clauses do not apply but each of the following clauses (i) and (ii) do apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Caa3":

(i) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings; and

(ii) no debt security or obligation of such obligor has been in default during the past two years; and

(k) if the preceding clauses do not apply and a debt security or obligation of the obligor has been in default during the past two years, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Ca."

Notwithstanding the foregoing, not more than 10% of the Maximum Amount may consist of Relevant Obligations given a Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating based on a rating given by S&P as provided in clauses (f), (g) and (h) above.

"Moody's Obligation Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (a) With respect to a Moody's Senior Secured Loan:
  - (i) if it has an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating; or
  - (ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the rating that is one rating subcategory above the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating; and
- (b) With respect to a Moody's Non Senior Secured Loan or a High-Yield Bond:
  - (i) if it has an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating; or
  - (ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating; and
- (c) With respect to a Synthetic Security or a DIP Loan, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Moody's rating or ratings used to determine the Moody's Obligation Rating are on watch for downgrade or upgrade by Moody's, such rating or ratings will be adjusted down one subcategory (if on watch for downgrade) or up one subcategory (if on watch for upgrade).

"Moody's Rating": The Moody's Default Probability Rating; provided that, with respect to the Collateral Obligations generally, if at any time Moody's or any successor to it ceases to provide rating services, references to rating categories of Moody's in this Indenture shall be deemed instead to be references to the equivalent categories of any other nationally recognized investment rating agency selected by the Servicer, as of the most recent date on which such other rating agency and Moody's published ratings for the type of security in respect of which such alternative rating agency is used. If no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's, then the Servicer may apply to Moody's for a Moody's credit rating estimate, which will be its Moody's Rating; provided that, on or prior to each one-year anniversary of the acquisition of any such Collateral Obligation, the Issuer shall submit to Moody's a request for a Moody's credit rating estimate for such Collateral Obligation, which shall be its Moody's Rating, together with all information reasonably required by Moody's to perform such estimate.

“S&P Rating”: With respect to any Collateral Obligation, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following methodology:

(i) If there is an issuer credit rating of the borrower of the Collateral Obligation (the “Borrower”), or the guarantor who unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the Collateral Obligation (the “Guarantor”) by S&P, the most current issuer credit rating for such Borrower or Guarantor (provided that with respect to any private or confidential rating, a consent has been granted by such Borrower or Guarantor and a copy of such consent shall be provided to S&P indicating that the issuer can rely on such private or confidential rating);

(ii) (a) if there is not an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation will be one subcategory below such rating; (b) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior unsecured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be such rating; and (c) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a subordinated obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be two subcategories above such rating if such rating is “BBB-” or higher and will be one subcategory above such rating if such rating is “BB+” or lower (provided that with respect to any private or confidential rating, a consent has been granted by such Borrower or Guarantor and a copy of such consent shall be provided to S&P indicating that the issuer can rely on such private or confidential rating); or

(iii) if there is neither an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P nor a rating by S&P on an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating may be determined using any one of the methods below:

(A) if an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is publicly rated by Moody’s, then the S&P Rating will be determined in accordance with the methodologies for establishing the Moody’s Default Probability Rating, except that the S&P Rating of such obligation will be (1) one subcategory below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody’s if such security is rated “Baa3” or higher by Moody’s and (2) two subcategories below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody’s if such security is rated “Ba1” or lower by Moody’s; provided that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 10% of the Maximum Amount may be given a S&P Rating based on a rating given by Moody’s as provided in this subclause (A) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable); or

(B) if no security or obligation of the issuer or obligor is rated by S&P or Moody’s, and the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer has applied to S&P for a rating estimate and provided all relevant Information to S&P (at Credit_estimates@sandp.com) within 30 days of the acquisition (or, if such application is caused as a result of a rating withdrawal by S&P or Moody’s, as applicable, the withdrawal of the rating by S&P or Moody’s, as applicable) of such security or obligation, such security or obligation, pending receipt from S&P of such rating estimate, shall have an S&P Rating as determined by the Servicer in its commercially reasonable judgment; provided that, if the Servicer does not submit all relevant Information within 30 days of such acquisition or rating withdrawal, as applicable, of such security or obligation, (x) S&P shall endeavor to provide a rating estimate as soon as reasonably practical upon receipt of all relevant Information, (y) during a period of 90 days (or such longer period as agreed to by S&P pursuant to a request made by the Servicer) from the date of such acquisition or rating withdrawal, as applicable, and pending receipt from S&P of a rating estimate, such security or obligation shall have an S&P Rating as determined by the Servicer in its commercially reasonable judgment and (z) if S&P does not provide a rating estimate within 90 days (or such longer period as agreed by S&P pursuant to a request made by the Servicer) of the date of such acquisition or rating withdrawal, as applicable, of such security or obligation, such security or obligation shall be treated as rated “CCC-” by S&P until such time as S&P provides a credit estimate; and

(C) any reference in this definition to an S&P rating estimate or estimated rating must be such rating provided by S&P in writing and any such rating shall expire after one year of its provision by S&P. The Servicer may re-apply for a credit estimate within 30 days prior to the expiration of such credit estimate, subject to the procedures specified in subclause (iii)(B) above; provided that, if an obligation identical to a Collateral Obligation is held in another fund serviced or managed by the Servicer and an estimated rating has been assigned by S&P to such obligation held in such other fund (and such estimated rating has not yet expired), such estimated rating, upon request by the Servicer to S&P, shall be applicable to the Collateral Obligation held by the Trustee under this Indenture;

provided that if (i) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any positive “credit watch” list by S&P, such rating will be increased by one rating subcategory or (ii) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any negative “credit watch” list by S&P, such rating will be decreased by one rating subcategory.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the S&P Rating shall be (A) the rating assigned thereto by S&P if the rating is public, (B) the rating assigned by S&P if the rating is confidential, but only if all appropriate parties have provided written consent to its disclosure and use, (C) the rating assigned by S&P thereto through an estimated rating or (D) the rating assigned thereto by S&P in connection with the acquisition thereof upon the request of the Servicer. In the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a PIK Security, Structured Finance Obligation or Synthetic Securities, the S&P Rating may not be determined pursuant to clause (iii)(A) above.

S&P Ratings for entities or obligations relevant hereunder other than Borrowers and Collateral Obligations shall be determined in a corresponding manner.

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE NO. 1
(Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd.)

THIS SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE NO. 1 (this “Supplemental Indenture”), dated as of September 11, 2008, is entered into in connection with that certain Indenture, dated as of March 27, 2008 (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the “Indenture”), by and among ABERDEEN LOAN FUNDING, LTD., an exempted company incorporated with limited liability under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the “Issuer”), ABERDEEN LOAN FUNDING CORP., a Delaware corporation (the “Co-Issuer” and, together with the Issuer, the “Co-Issuers”), and STATE STREET BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, a trust company formed under the laws of The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, as trustee (herein, together with its permitted successors in the trusts hereunder, called the “Trustee”). Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Indenture.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the above-named parties have entered into the Indenture and, pursuant to and in accordance with Section 8.1 thereof, desire to amend the Indenture in certain respects as provided herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, based upon the above Recitals, the mutual premises and agreements contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the undersigned, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT.

(a) In Section 1.1 of the Indenture, the definition of “Deep Discount Obligation” is hereby amended by deleting the word “or” in the fourth line and replacing it with the words “except for”.

SECTION 2. AGREEMENT IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT AS AMENDED.

Except as specifically amended hereby, all provisions of the Indenture shall remain in full force and effect. This Supplemental Indenture shall not be deemed to expressly or impliedly waive, amend or supplement any provision of the Indenture other than as expressly set forth herein and shall not constitute a novation of the Indenture.

SECTION 3. REPRESENTATIONS.

Each of the Co-Issuers represents and warrants as of the date of this Supplemental Indenture as follows:

(i) it is duly incorporated or organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation or organization;

(ii) the execution, delivery and performance by it of this Supplemental Indenture are within its powers, have been duly authorized, and do not contravene its charter, by-laws or other organizational documents, or any applicable law;

(iii) no consent, license, permit, approval or authorization of, or registration, filing or declaration with any governmental authority, is required in connection with the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of this Supplemental Indenture by or against it;

(iv) this Supplemental Indenture has been duly executed and delivered by it;

(v) this Supplemental Indenture constitutes its legal, valid and binding obligation, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally or by general principles of equity; and

(vi) it is not in default under the Indenture.

SECTION 4. CONDITIONS TO EFFECTIVENESS.

Pursuant to Section 8.1 of the Indenture, as of the date hereof, the Co-Issuers, the Servicer (on behalf of the Co-Issuers) and/or the Trustee, as required, have received confirmation in writing that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the Supplemental Indenture. Accordingly, this Supplemental Indenture shall become effective as of the date hereof.

SECTION 5. MISCELLANEOUS.

(a) This Supplemental Indenture may be executed in any number of counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic means), and by the different parties hereto on the same or separate counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original instrument but all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

(b) The descriptive headings of the various sections of this Supplemental Indenture are inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any of the provisions hereof.

(c) This Supplemental Indenture may not be amended or otherwise modified except as provided in the Indenture.

(d) The failure or unenforceability of any provision hereof shall not affect the other provisions of this Supplemental Indenture.

(e) Whenever the context and construction so require, all words used in the singular number herein shall be deemed to have been used in the plural, and vice versa, and the masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter and the neuter shall include the masculine and feminine.

(f) This Supplemental Indenture represents the final agreement between the parties only with respect to the subject matter expressly covered hereby and may not be contradicted by evidence of prior, contemporaneous or subsequent oral agreements between the parties. There are no unwritten oral agreements between the parties.

(g) THIS SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES UNDER THIS SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO ITS PROVISIONS THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have caused this Supplemental Indenture to be executed by their respective officers thereunto duly authorized, as of the date first above written.

PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENCY AGREEMENT

As of March 27, 2008

State Street Bank and Trust Company, as Preference Shares Paying Agent
CDO Services Group – Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd.
200 Clarendon Street
Mail Code: EUC 108
Boston, MA 02116

Walkers SPV Limited, as Share Registrar
Walker House
87 Mary Street
George Town, Grand Cayman
Cayman Islands, KY1-9002

Ladies and Gentlemen:

THIS PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENCY AGREEMENT, dated as of March 27, 2008 (this "Agreement") is entered into between ABERDEEN LOAN FUNDING, LTD., an exempted company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the "Issuer") and State STREET BANK AND TRUST COMPANY ("State Street"), as preference shares paying agent (the "Preference Shares Paying Agent") for the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares issued by the Issuer (collectively, the "Preference Shares") and WALKERS SPV LIMITED as share registrar (the "Share Registrar") for the shares (including the Preference Shares) issued by the Issuer. The Issuer hereby appoints State Street as Preference Shares Paying Agent under the terms set forth below and confirms State Street's agreement to distribute any funds to be paid to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Priority of Payments set forth in the Indenture (as defined herein). Reference is also made to the indenture, dated as of March 27, 2008, among the Issuer, Aberdeen Loan Funding Corp. (the "Co-Issuer") and State Street, as trustee (the "Indenture"). Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Indenture or, if not defined therein, certain resolutions passed at a meeting of the Issuer's Board of Directors that was held on March 26, 2008, as reflected in the minutes thereof, including Annex A ("Annex A") therein (the "Resolutions") and, together with this Agreement and the Issuer's Memorandum and Articles of Association, the "Preference Share Documents"). The Preference Shares will be issued, and may be transferred, subject to the procedures set forth in Annex A to the Resolutions the terms of which are incorporated hereto.

On the Closing Date, (i) all of the Class I Preference Shares will be offered and sold directly by the Issuer to Highland CDO Opportunity Master Fund, L.P. (an Affiliate of the Servicer) or one or more of its Affiliates, and (ii) all of the Class II Preference Shares will be offered and sold by the Issuer directly to Highland Crusader Offshore Partners, L.P. (an Affiliate of the Servicer) or one or more of its Affiliates or Highland Credit Strategies Master Fund, L.P. (an Affiliate of the Servicer) or one or more of its Affiliates.

Section 1. Notice of Distribution to Directors. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, promptly after receipt of the Valuation Report, shall forward or make available to the directors of the Issuer (as identified to it by the Issuer) the Valuation Report which identifies the Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds, payable to the Holders of the Preference Shares on the applicable Payment Date.

Section 2. Payments of Dividends and Other Distributions, Amounts Not Distributable. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall, subject to paragraphs (b), (c), (d) and (e) below, pay or cause to be paid, on behalf of the Issuer on each applicable Payment Date, the Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds received from the Trustee to the Holders of the Preference Shares as a distribution of dividends on such Payment Date. Such distributions of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds by way of dividends to the Holders of Preference Shares shall be paid pro rata in the proportion that the number of Preference Shares held by each such Holder bears to the total number of Preference Shares. The Issuer, or the Share Registrar on its behalf, shall provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with a copy of the share register of the Issuer on the Closing Date and thereafter, the Share Registrar will promptly notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent of any changes to the share register of the Issuer. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall notify the Issuer and the Share Registrar of any transfers of Preference Shares known to it.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, distributions of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds by way of dividends to the Holders of Preference Shares on any Payment Date shall (i) be subject to the Issuer being solvent under Cayman Islands law (defined as the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business) immediately prior to, and after giving effect to, such payment as determined by the Issuer and (ii) be made only to the extent that the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium out of which to make such payment as determined by the Issuer. If the Issuer determines that the conditions set forth in either clause (i) or (ii) above are not satisfied with respect to any portion of Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds payable on such Payment Date, the Issuer shall instruct the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing not later than one Business Day prior to such Payment Date that such portion of Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds, as applicable, should not be paid, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not pay the same, to the Holders of the Preference Shares until the first succeeding Payment Date, or (in the case of any payments which would otherwise be payable on the Redemption Date or any Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date) until the first succeeding Business Day, upon which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing that each such condition is satisfied, at which time the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall distribute such amounts. To the extent available, distributions shall be made first out of distributable profits for the current Due Period, then out of distributable profits in excess of dividends for prior Due Periods and then out of share premium.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, distributions of the Redemption Price by way of redemption of the Preference Shares shall be subject to the Issuer being solvent under Cayman Islands law (defined as the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business) immediately prior to, and after giving effect to, such distribution as determined by the Issuer. For purposes of this subsection (c), a determination as to whether the Issuer is solvent on the Redemption Date shall be made by the Issuer (A) after giving effect to any payments to be made on such Redemption Date and (B) in light of the fact that the obligations of the Issuer to the Holders of the Notes, the other Secured Parties and the other Persons subject to the Priority of Payments are limited in recourse to the Collateral, and not to amounts (i) in the Preference Shares Distribution Account, (ii) any other amounts released from the Collateral in accordance with the Indenture and held by or on behalf of the Issuer for the benefit of the Holders of the Preference Shares or (iii) amounts on deposit in the Issuer's bank account in the Cayman Islands, and that after the assets in the Collateral are exhausted, such parties will have no further claim against the Issuer. If the Issuer determines that such condition is not satisfied on a Redemption Date with respect to any portion of the Redemption Price, the Issuer shall instruct the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing not later than one Business Day prior to such Redemption Date that such portion should not be distributed, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not distribute the same, to the Holders of the Preference Shares until the first succeeding Business Day upon which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing that such condition is satisfied, and the amounts so retained in the Preference Shares Distribution Account will be held therein until such amounts are paid.

(d) On each Payment Date, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall distribute, on behalf of the Issuer, amounts, if any, received by it from the Trustee, which are then on deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account pursuant to Section 10.3(i) of the Indenture for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as the Class II Preference Share Special Payment.

(e) Dividends to the Holders of the Preference Shares (other than Class II Preference Share Special Payments) may be paid, in whole or in part on any Payment Date, with any Eligible Equity Securities held by, or on behalf of, the Issuer at such time in lieu of a distribution of Interest Proceeds. The Servicer, on behalf the Issuer, shall have the right to direct the Trustee to distribute any Eligible Equity Securities pro rata to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares (as identified to the Trustee by the Preference Shares Paying Agent) with respect to such Payment Date to the extent that the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) is equal to or lower than the aggregate amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be due and payable on such Payment Date to such Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares. Interest Proceeds in an amount equal to the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) distributed to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to any such Payment Date shall be treated for all purposes by the Issuer and the Servicer as Principal Proceeds available for distribution on the relevant Payment Date. The amount of Interest Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date shall be reduced and the amount of Principal Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date shall be increased accordingly.

(f) Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, the Holders of the Preference Shares acknowledge and agree for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes that the rights of the Holders of the Preference Shares to distributions by the Issuer and in and to the assets of the Issuer in respect of such Preference Shares, shall be subordinate and junior to the Notes, to the extent and in the manner set forth in the Indenture including as set forth in Section 11.1 thereof and as required by law. If any Event of Default has occurred and has not been cured or waived and acceleration occurs in accordance with Article V of the Indenture, the Notes shall be paid in full in Cash before any further payment or distribution is made on account of the Preference Shares. The Holders of the Preference Shares agree, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer for failure to pay to them amounts due under the Issuer's Memorandum and Articles of Association or hereunder in respect of the Preference Shares or payable under the Indenture prior to the date which is one year and one day (or, if longer, the applicable preference period) after the payment in full of principal of and interest on the Notes.

(g) In the event that notwithstanding the provisions of this Agreement or the Indenture, any Holder of any Preference Shares shall have received any payment or distribution in respect of such Preference Shares contrary to the provisions of this Agreement, the Issuer's Memorandum and Articles of Association or the Indenture, then, unless and until (i) the Class A Notes, (ii) the Class B Notes, (iii) the Class C Notes, (iv) the Class D Notes and (v) the Class E Notes shall have been paid in full in Cash (or to the extent that a Majority of each Class of Notes consents, other than Cash) in accordance with the Indenture, such payment or distribution shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of, and shall forthwith be paid over and delivered to, the Trustee, for payment and delivery of the same to the Holders of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes or the Class E Notes, as the case may be, in accordance with the Indenture; provided, however, that if any such payment or distribution is made other than in Cash, it shall be paid over and delivered to the Trustee such that it may be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral pursuant to, and subject in all respects to, the provisions of the Indenture, including Section 13.1 thereof.

Section 3. Payments and Redemption. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall make payments or distributions (other than distributions of Eligible Equity Securities) to each registered Holder on the relevant Record Date by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a U.S. Dollar account maintained by such Holder as notified to the Preference Shares Paying Agent or, in the absence of such notification, by U.S. Dollar check mailed to such Holder at its address of record. The Issuer shall, or shall ensure that the Share Registrar will, provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with all relevant information regarding the registered Holders of the Preference Shares as the Preference Shares Paying Agent may reasonably require to the extent such information is in possession or control of the Issuer or Share Registrar.

(b) If the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, desires to make distributions of Eligible Equity Securities on any Payment Date in lieu of Interest Proceeds that are otherwise available for distribution to the Holders of Preference Shares on such Payment Date pursuant to the Priority of Payments and as described in Section 2(e) above, the Servicer shall notify the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent pursuant to the Servicing Agreement not later than 20 calendar days prior to such Payment Date and provide the Trustee, the Issuer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding on the Record Date or promptly thereafter, but in no event later than two Business Days after the Record Date, to each Holder of the Preference Shares registered as such on the Record Date for such Payment Date) with (i) details of the Eligible Equity Securities to be distributed, (ii) the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities determined as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date, (iii) any other information considered necessary by the Servicer in connection with such proposed distribution and (iv) any information as otherwise required by the Trustee and/or the Preference Shares

Paying Agent with respect to such proposed distribution. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall then mail such materials, within two Business Days of its receipt thereof from the Servicer, to each registered Holder of Preference Shares on the Record Date for such Payment Date along with a form of notice and consent (in a form attached hereto in Schedule I) seeking the written consent of each such Holder of Preference Shares to distribute such Eligible Equity Securities to such Holder in lieu of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such Payment Date. Each Holder of the Preference Shares wishing to receive such Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of a distribution of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such applicable Payment Date (each such Holder with respect to such Payment Date, a “Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares”) is required to deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent a written consent (which consent will be irrevocable) no later than five Business Days prior to such Payment Date. If any Holder of Preference Shares does not timely deliver its written consent to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in the manner set forth in such notice indicating its consent to the receipt of such Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of a distribution of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such Payment Date, such Holder shall be deemed to have not given its consent and shall not be a Consenting Holder of Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date. On each applicable Payment Date (or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable), Eligible Equity Securities shall be distributed pro rata to each Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date. Each Holder of Preference Shares that is not a Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares (and, for the avoidance of doubt, each Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares to the extent the Market Value as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date of the pro rata portion of Eligible Equity Securities distributed to it on such Payment Date is less than the pro rata portion of the Interest Proceeds that it would have received on such Payment Date had the Eligible Equity Securities not been distributed on such Payment Date) on any applicable Payment Date shall receive a distribution of Interest Proceeds to the extent available in accordance with the Priority of Payments on such Payment Date in accordance with Section 2(e) herein and the Indenture.

(c) The Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be obligated to pay any additional amounts to Holders or beneficial owners of the Preference Shares as a result of any withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges. As a condition to payment of any amount, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, may require certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments or distributions in respect of Preference Shares under any present or future law or regulation of the United States or any present or future law or regulation of any political subdivision thereof or taxing authority therein or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under such law or regulation. Amounts properly withheld under the Code by any Person from a payment or distribution to a Holder of Preference Shares shall be considered as having been paid by the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent to such Holder for all purposes herein. The Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereby provide notice to each Holder or beneficial owner of the Preference Shares that the failure to provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with appropriate tax certifications will result in amounts being withheld from payments to such Holders or beneficial owners of the Preference Shares under this Agreement (provided that amounts withheld pursuant to applicable tax laws shall be considered as having been paid by the Issuer as provided herein).

(d) The Issuer, the Share Registrar and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may deem and treat the Holder of any Preference Shares as the absolute owner of such Preference Shares, notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing on any certificate representing such Preference Shares, for the purpose of paying dividends and other distributions thereon, and for all other purposes, and none of the Issuer, the Share Registrar or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary. All such payments (including distributions of Eligible Equity Securities) so made to such Holder or upon such Holder's order shall be valid and, to the extent of the sum or sums so paid, effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability for the monies payable upon any such Preference Share.

(e) All payments by the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder shall be made without charging any commission or fee to the Holders of the Preference Shares.

(f) On the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, the Issuer shall redeem the Preference Shares for a redemption price equal to all amounts distributable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Priority of Payments set forth in the Indenture, unless the Preference Shares have been redeemed earlier through an optional redemption or otherwise. Upon final payment due on the Preference Shares (whether on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date or any earlier Redemption Date), the Holder thereof shall present and surrender the certificates, if any, representing the Preference Shares at the office of the Preference Shares Paying Agent on or prior to such final payment date. On the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, all payments on redemption of Preference Shares to the Holders of the Preference Shares shall be made pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings.

Notice of final payment of the Preference Shares pursuant to an optional redemption in conjunction with an optional redemption of the Notes shall be given as set forth in Section 9.3 of the Indenture. Notice of any other final payment shall be given by the Preference Shares Paying Agent by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days nor earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date to each Holder of Preference Shares at such Holder's address as set forth in the share register of the Issuer.

All notices of redemption shall state:

- (i) the Redemption Date on which the Preference Shares are to be redeemed;
- (ii) the applicable Redemption Price for the Preference Shares being redeemed;
- (iii) the place or places where such Preference Shares to be redeemed are to be surrendered for payment of the applicable Redemption Price, which shall be the office of the Preference Shares Paying Agent; and

(iv) in the case of an optional redemption, the latest possible date upon which such notice of redemption may be withdrawn.

The Issuer shall have the option to withdraw any such notice of redemption up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Trustee, the Servicer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) only if (i) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) of the Indenture, the Servicer does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications required under the Indenture (as described in Section 9.3(c) and 12.1(f) of the Indenture), as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, (ii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i) of the Indenture, the Issuer receives the written direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption delivered by a percentage of the Preference Shares requesting redemption under Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i) of the Indenture, as applicable, or (iii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii) of the Indenture, the Issuer receives the unanimous written direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer thereby agrees for the benefit of the directing Holders to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written direction referred to in the preceding clause (ii) or this clause (iii)). Notice of any such withdrawal shall be delivered pursuant to Section 9.3 of the Indenture.

Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Preference Shares.

(g) On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, so long as all administrative fees and expenses and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture and all amounts owing under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged:

(i) at the request of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Preference Shares, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings, subject to Section 2(b) hereof and Cayman Islands law; or

(ii) at the unanimous request of the Holders of the Preference Shares, voting as a single Class or group, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a requested portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such request, subject to Section 2(b) hereof and Cayman Islands law.

(h) If any Holder of Preference Shares desires to direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Notes in accordance with Section 9.2(a) of the Indenture, such Holder shall notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer, and the Servicer not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made. If the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee and the Issuer receive notice from one or more Holders of Preference Shares holding less than a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall, within five Business Days of receipt of such notice, notify the Holders of the Preference Shares (i) of the receipt of such notice and (ii) that any Holder of Preference Shares may join in directing an Optional Redemption by notifying the Issuer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing within five Business Days after such Holder's receipt of the Preference Shares Paying Agent's notice. If the Holders of at least a Majority of the Preference Shares direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Notes, the Issuer shall effect an Optional Redemption of the Notes pursuant to the procedures described in the Indenture.

(i) If any Holder of Preference Shares desires to request the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares after the redemption or repayment of the Notes and in accordance with paragraphs (g)(i) and (ii) above, such Holder shall notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing not later than 30 Business Days (or with the Servicer's consent, not later than 20 Business Days) prior to the proposed Redemption Date (which must be a Payment Date). Upon receiving such notice, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall promptly (and in no event later than two Business Days thereafter) notify the Issuer and each Holder of the Preference Shares thereof. Each Holder of Preference Shares that also wishes to request the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares must so notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing (and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Servicer of such request) within 5 Business Days after receipt of such notice. If the aggregate number of Preference Shares that have requested the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares equals or exceeds the minimum threshold set forth in paragraphs (g)(i) and (ii) above, the Issuer shall may effect an optional redemption of the Preference Shares pursuant to the procedures described in the Preference Share Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Preference Shares must be redeemed on or prior to the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. The Preference Shares shall be redeemed from the proceeds of any Collateral remaining after giving effect to the redemption or repayment of the Notes and payment in full of all expenses of the Co-Issuers.

(j) If the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, proposes a Refinancing in accordance with Section 9.7(a) of the Indenture by notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall promptly upon receipt of such notice (and in no event later than two Business Days thereafter) notify each Holder of Preference Shares thereof. Each Holder of Preference Shares that wishes to consent to such Refinancing will deliver such consent to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing no later than 15 days prior to the Refinancing Date. Upon receipt of such consents, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall immediately notify the Servicer whether or not the Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares (voting as a single class) have consented to such Refinancing.

Section 4. Preference Shares Distribution Account. (a) On or prior to the Closing Date, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the "Preference Shares Distribution Account" (the "Preference Shares Distribution Account") that shall be held in trust in the name of the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the benefit of the Issuer, over which the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall cause the Trustee to make any payment pursuant to the Priority of Payments by wire transfer (or by internal transfer if the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent are the same Person) to the Preference Shares Distribution Account in immediately available funds. All sums received by the Preference Shares Paying Agent from the Trustee or the Issuer for payment of dividends or other distributions (other than the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) or the Redemption Price in respect of the Preference Shares shall be deposited promptly in the Preference Shares Distribution Account until the first Payment Date or, in the case of the payment of the Redemption Price in respect of the Preference Shares, the first Business Day, on which, in either case, the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent that such distribution can be made to the Holders of the Preference Shares in accordance with Section 2. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall then apply such funds as provided for in Section 3. All sums payable by the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder shall be paid out of the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not incur any personal liability to pay amounts due to Holders of the Preference Shares and shall only be required to make payments or other distributions (including the Redemption Price thereof) if there are sufficient monies in the Preference Shares Distribution Account to make such payments or other distributions.

(c) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have no right of set off with respect to amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

(d) Amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account that are not paid out may be deposited in an interest-bearing account as directed in writing by the Issuer.

Section 5. Unclaimed Payments. Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any money deposited with the Preference Shares Paying Agent and held in the Preference Shares Distribution Account or otherwise held for payment on any Preference Share and remaining unclaimed for two years after such payment has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer upon Issuer Request; and the Holder of such Preference Shares shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment of such amounts and all liability of the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to such money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Issuer) shall thereupon cease. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, before being required to make any such release of payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Issuer any reasonable means of notification of such release of payment, including, but not limited to, arranging with the Share Registrar for the Share Registrar to mail notice of such release to Holders of Preference Shares whose right to or interest in monies due and payable but not claimed is determinable from the records of the Issuer or Preference Shares Paying Agent, as applicable, at the last address of record of each such Holder.

Section 6. Additional Issuance of Preference Shares. (a) At any time during the Replacement Period, the Issuer may issue and sell additional Preference Shares and use the proceeds from such issuance and sale to purchase additional Collateral Obligations or as otherwise permitted under the Preference Share Documents and the Indenture; provided that the following conditions are met: (i) the terms of the Preference Shares issued shall be identical to the terms of previously issued Preference Shares and (ii) the net proceeds of any additional Preference Shares shall be used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations. Such additional Preference Shares may be offered and sold at prices that differ from the initial offering prices of the outstanding Preference Shares; provided that the initial offering prices of additional Preference Shares shall not be below 100% of the face amount thereof. The Issuer shall cause purchases of additional Preference Shares made pursuant to an additional issuance of Preference Shares to comply individually and in the aggregate with the applicable purchase and transfer restrictions for the Preference Shares set forth herein in Section 9 and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

(b) Any additional Preference Shares issued shall, to the extent reasonably practicable, be offered by the Issuer first to the existing Holders of the Preference Shares, in such amounts as are necessary to preserve their pro rata holdings of the Preference Shares.

Section 7. Purchase and Conversion of Preference Shares. (a) Each Holder or beneficial owner of Preference Shares, by its ownership of such Preference Shares, acknowledges and agrees that each Non-Consenting Holder of Preference Shares with respect to an amendment of the Indenture (which includes Holders that fail to respond to a consent solicitation within the applicable period) will be forced to sell its applicable Preference Shares pursuant to Section 9.6 of the Indenture, whereby the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser is permitted to purchase the Preference Shares held by any such Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; provided that if any Non-Consenting Holder holds Class II Preference Shares, such Non-Consenting Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and such Preference Shares will, subject to the Issuer Articles of Association, be converted to Class I Preference Shares, which shall be effected by a redemption by the Issuer of the applicable Class II Preference Shares and an issue of an equivalent number of Class I Preference Shares.

(b) Each Holder or beneficial owner of Preference Shares will have the right to sell such Preference Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser upon a Maturity Extension pursuant to Section 2.4 of the Indenture at the applicable Extension Purchase Price and absent such sale shall be subject to an extension of the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date as set forth in the Indenture and the other aspects of a Maturity Extension under the Indenture; provided that if any Non-Consenting Holder holds Class II Preference Shares, such Non-Consenting Holder shall sell such Class II Preference Shares to the Extension Qualifying Purchaser, and such Preference Shares will, subject to the Issuer Articles of Association, be converted to Class I Preference Shares, which shall be effected by a redemption by the Issuer of the applicable Class II Preference Shares and an issue of an equivalent number of Class I Preference Shares.

(c) The Share Registrar shall record in the register maintained by it those Preference Shares which it has been notified in writing are held by HFP or any of its subsidiaries and which Preference Shares so specifically designated by Highland Capital are held by Highland Capital or its Affiliates (together with HFP or any of its subsidiaries, the “Approved Class II Preference Shareholders”). Such Preference Shares shall be designated at issue or issued, upon a transfer to an Approved Class II Preference Shareholder by the Issuer, as Class II Preference Shares. The Share Registrar at the direction of the Issuer will update the Share Register to reflect (i) any transfer of such Class II Preference Shares by an Approved Class II Preference Shareholder to any Person other than an Approved Class II Preference Shareholder, the redemption of such Class II Preference Shares and the issue of an equivalent number of Class I Preference Shares, subject to the Issuer Articles of Association, and (ii) any transfer of Class I Preference Shares to any Approved Class II Preference Shareholder, the redemption of such Class I Preference Shares and the issue of an equivalent number of Class II Preference Shares, subject to the Issuer Articles of Association.

Section 8. Execution, Delivery and Dating. The certificates (if required by the Resolutions) relating to the Preference Shares shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer as provided for in the Issuer’s Memorandum and Articles of Association.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Issuer may deliver Preference Share certificates (the “Preference Share Certificates”) executed by the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent, upon Issuer Order, shall deliver such Preference Share Certificates as provided in this Agreement and not otherwise.

Each Preference Share Certificate delivered by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to or upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated the Closing Date. All other Preference Share Certificates that are delivered after the Closing Date for any other purpose under this Agreement shall be dated the date of their delivery.

Section 9. Registration and Registration of Transfer. (a) When the Preference Shares Paying Agent receives a request for transfer of Preference Shares, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall comply with its obligations as set forth in Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions.

Each purchaser and subsequent transferee of Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares will represent and agree (and each fiduciary acting on behalf of such purchaser or subsequent transferee (both in its fiduciary and corporate capacity) will represent and agree) whether such purchaser or subsequent transferee is (or is not, as applicable) a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person set forth in a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-5 to the Indenture. No Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person will be permitted to purchase Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares, unless such purchaser’s or subsequent transferee’s acquisition, holding and disposition of such Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares, (x) will not cause participation by Benefit Plan Investors to be “significant” within the meaning of the Plan Asset Regulation and (y) (1) in connection with the acquisition, holding and disposition of such Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares, the purchaser’s or subsequent transferee’s fiduciary has determined that such purchaser or subsequent transferee is receiving no less, and paying no more, than “adequate consideration”

(within the meaning of Section 408(b)(17)(B) of ERISA and Section 4975(f)(10) of the Code) and (2) such purchaser's or subsequent transferee's acquisition, holding and disposition of such Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. If the purchaser or the subsequent transferee is a governmental, church, non-U.S. or other plan that is subject to any Substantially Similar Law, such purchaser or subsequent transferee shall represent and warrant that such purchaser's or subsequent transferee's acquisition, holding and disposition of a Class I Preference Share or a Class II Preference Share will not constitute or result in a non-exempt violation of any such Substantially Similar Law.

In determining whether participation by Benefit Plan Investors is "significant", Class I Preference Shares and Class II Preference Shares beneficially held by (1) the Servicer, the Trustee, any of their respective Affiliates, employees of the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates and any charitable foundation of any such employees or (2) persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons, will be disregarded and will not be treated as Outstanding for purposes of whether participation by Benefit Plan Investors is "significant" to the extent that persons listed in (1) or (2) are not Benefit Plan Investors.

The purchaser or the subsequent transferee acknowledges that a transfer of the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares will not be permitted, and no such transfer or exchange will be registered under the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement, to the extent that the transfer or exchange would result in Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares immediately after such transfer or exchange (determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation and the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement).

If any Person that is the beneficial owner of an interest in a Class I Preference Share or a Class II Preference Share becomes a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, the Issuer shall, promptly after discovery that such person is a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee (and notice by the Trustee or the Co-Issuer to the Issuer, if either of them makes the discovery), send notice to such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder demanding that such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder transfer its interest to a person that is not a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder within 14 days of the date of such notice. If such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder fails to so transfer its Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares, the Issuer shall have the right, without further notice to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, to sell (and shall sell if directed to do so by the Servicer) such Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares or interest in such Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares, to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is not a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder on such terms as the Issuer may choose. The Issuer, or the Trustee acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select the purchaser by soliciting one or more bids from one or more brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares and selling such Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares to the highest such bidder. However, the Issuer, or the Trustee acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion. The Holder of each Class I Preference Share or Class II Preference Share, the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder and each other Person in the chain of title from the Holder to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, by its acceptance of an interest in the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares, agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Trustee to effect such transfers. The proceeds of such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder. The terms and conditions of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer, and none of the Issuer, the Servicer, or the Trustee shall be liable to any Person having an interest in the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of such discretion (including for the price of such sale).

Each purchaser or transferee of Preference Shares will be required to represent and agree that it will not transfer such Preference Shares in violation of any of the foregoing representations and agreements, that any purported transfer that does not comply with such representations and agreements will be null and void ab initio and will vest in the transferee no rights against the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Issuer, and that such purchaser or transferee, as applicable, and any fiduciary or other Person causing it to acquire such Preference Shares shall, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Share Paying Agent, the Servicer, the Share Registrar, the Initial Purchaser and their respective affiliates from any cost, damage or loss incurred by them as a result of any transfer in violation of any of the foregoing.

(b) The Preference Shares Paying Agent agrees that, after the initial distribution of the Preference Shares, neither it nor any of its affiliates will acquire any Preference Shares (including pursuant to a Maturity Extension or the Amendment Buy-Out Option) unless such acquisition would not, as determined by the Trustee (based upon the information contained in the transfer certificates delivered to it pursuant to this Section 9), result in persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of any of the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares immediately after such acquisition (determined in accordance with Section 3(42) of ERISA, the Plan Asset Regulation, the Indenture, this Agreement and Annex to the Resolutions). The Preference Shares held by the Preference Shares Paying Agent or any of its affiliates (as defined in the Plan Asset Regulation) that have represented that they are Controlling Persons will be disregarded and will not be treated as outstanding for purposes of determining compliance with such 25% limitation to the extent that such person has represented that it is not a Benefit Plan Investor.

(c) Notwithstanding anything else contained herein to the contrary, neither the Preference Shares Paying Agent nor the Share Registrar shall be responsible for ascertaining whether any purchase or transfer complies with the registration provisions of or exemptions from the Securities Act, applicable state laws, the Code, ERISA, the Plan Asset Regulation or the Investment Company Act; provided that if a certificate or other written representation is specifically required by the express terms of this Agreement or Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions to be delivered to the Preference Shares Paying Agent by the purchaser or transferee of a Preference Share, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether the same substantially conforms on its face with the terms of this Agreement or Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions, as applicable, and shall promptly notify the party delivering the same if such certificate does not comply with such terms.

(d) The Issuer shall (and shall cause the Share Registrar to) consult the Preference Shares Paying Agent in connection with all transfers of Preference Shares and shall (and shall cause the Share Registrar to) direct all transferors and transferees to correspond through the Preference Shares Paying Agent. The Share Registrar will not be required to determine whether any proposed transfer, redemption or other transaction in relation to the Preference Shares complies with any restrictions imposed by law or under the terms of the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents but shall be entitled to rely completely in that respect on the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent.

(e) Each purchaser and each subsequent transferee of Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares that (i) is not a "United States person" (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) and (ii) is acquiring, directly or in conjunction with persons acting on its behalf, more than 33 1/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares will make a representation to the effect that it is not an Affected Bank.

(f) Except as expressly provided herein or as required by this Agreement in connection with the Preference Shares Paying Agent's obligations to the Holders of Preference Shares, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have no obligation to oversee or participate in any such transfer of Preference Shares.

Section 10. Fees and Indemnification. The Issuer agrees to pay, and the Preference Share Paying Agent shall be entitled to receive compensation for, and reimbursement for expenses in connection with, the Preference Share Paying Agent's performance of the duties called for herein; provided that such amounts will be payable solely from the Collateral and pursuant to the Priority of Payments set forth in Section 11.1 of the Indenture. The fees payable hereunder shall be paid by the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent's account as directed by the Preference Shares Paying Agent. The Issuer will indemnify the Preference Shares Paying Agent and its officers, directors, employees and agents, against any loss, liability or expense (including reasonable legal fees and out-of-pocket expenses of counsel) incurred in connection with their appointment and duties hereunder, except such as result from their own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Preference Shares Paying Agent agrees that such fees and indemnification shall be treated as an Administrative Expense of the Issuer as defined in the Indenture and paid pursuant to the Priority of Payments. Anything in this Agreement notwithstanding, in no event shall the Preference Shares Paying Agent be liable for special, indirect or consequential losses or damages of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to loss of profits), even if the Preference Shares Paying Agent has been advised of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action. The obligation of the Issuer to indemnify the Preference Shares Paying Agent under this Section 10 shall survive retirement of the Preference Shares and any resignation or removal of the Preference Shares Paying Agent but shall remain subject to the provisions of Section 23.

Section 11. Liabilities. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be responsible or accountable to anyone for any reason whatsoever with respect to the validity of this Agreement or of the Preference Shares, or for any act done or omitted by it in good faith, or for anything whatsoever in connection with this Agreement, except for its own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct in the performance of any duty to be performed by the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder.

(b) The Preference Shares Paying Agent may consult as to legal matters with lawyers selected with due care by it, who may be employees of or regular independent counsel to the Issuer, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be protected from and shall incur no liability for action taken, or suffered to be taken, with respect to such matters in good faith and in accordance with the opinion or advice of such lawyers.

(c) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be protected from and shall incur no liability for or in respect of any action taken or thing suffered by it in reliance upon any Preference Shares, notice, direction, consent, certificate, affidavit, statement or other paper or document reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been delivered or signed by the proper parties, except as may result from its own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct or that of its directors, officers, employees or agents.

(d) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be under any liability for interest on any money at any time received by it pursuant to any of the provisions of this Agreement, except as otherwise agreed in writing with the Issuer.

(e) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not incur any liability with respect to the validity or value of any of the Preference Shares unless otherwise specified herein.

Section 12. Conflicts. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent and its officers, directors and employees may, subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 9, become the Holder of, or acquire any interest in, any Preference Shares, with the same rights that it or they would have if it were not the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder, or they were not such officers, directors, or employees, and may engage or be interested in any fiscal or other transaction with the Issuer and may act on, or as depository, trustee or agent for, any committee or body of Holders of Preference Shares or other indebtedness of the Issuer as freely as if it were not the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder or they were not such officers, directors, or employees.

(b) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be obliged to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth herein, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Agreement or the Indenture against the Preference Shares Paying Agent. Except for Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions (to the extent they do not contradict this Agreement), the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have no duties under Annex A to the Resolutions. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be under any obligation to take any action hereunder that may tend to involve it in any expenses or liability, the payment of which within a reasonable time is not, in its reasonable opinion, assured to it. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be accountable or under any duty or responsibility in case of any default of which the Preference Shares Paying Agent has knowledge by the Issuer in the performance of its obligations contained in the Issuer's Memorandum and Articles of Association and Annex A to the Resolutions (including, without limitation, any duty or responsibility to initiate or attempt to initiate any proceedings at law or otherwise or to make any demand for payment upon the Issuer).

(c) In acting under this Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agent is acting solely as agent of the Issuer and does not assume any obligations to, or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the owners or Holders of the Preference Shares. All funds held by the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment on the Preference Shares shall be held in trust for the Issuer, until paid.

(d) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall, as between itself and the Holders of the Preference Shares, with respect to all the obligations, powers, authorities and discretions, vested in it hereunder and under the Issuer's Memorandum and Articles of Association and the Resolutions, have absolute and uncontrolled discretion as to the exercise thereof whether in relation to the manner or as to the mode of and time for the exercise thereof and, in the absence of gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct on its part or that of its officers, directors or employees shall be in no way responsible for any loss, costs, damages or inconvenience that may result from the exercise or non-exercise thereof.

Section 13. Amendment. (a) This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, without the consent of the Holders of any Preference Shares, for the purpose of curing any ambiguity, or of curing, correcting or supplementing any defective provision contained herein, or in regard to matters or questions arising under this Agreement as the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may deem necessary or desirable and which shall not materially adversely affect the interests of Holders of the Preference Shares. In addition, this Agreement may be amended without the consent of any Holders of the Preference Shares and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Preference Shares in order to prevent the Issuer from becoming an "investment company" as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7); provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such amendment, each of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Servicer shall have received a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such amendment, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act in reliance on the exemption provided by Rule 3a-7.

(b) Unless otherwise as set forth in subsection (a) above, this Agreement may be amended with the consent of Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares materially and adversely affected thereby.

(c) Any amendment to this Agreement must be in writing executed by each party hereto.

(d) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to its duties and obligations herein) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an opinion of counsel, consent or certificate of the Issuer in determining whether or not any proposed amendment is permitted hereunder.

(e) Any amendment to this Agreement that would necessitate a change to the Issuer's Memorandum and Articles of Association may only be made after a Special Resolution (as therein defined) has been passed to permit the Issuer's Memorandum and Articles of Association to be altered to conform with such proposed amendment.

Section 14. Resignation or Removal of the Preference Shares Paying Agent. The Preference Shares Paying Agent may at any time resign as the Preference Shares Paying Agent, by giving written notice to the Issuer of its resignation, specifying the date on which its resignation shall become effective (which date shall not be less than 60 days after the date on which such notice is given unless the Issuer shall agree to a shorter period). The Issuer may remove the Preference Shares Paying Agent at any time by giving written notice of not less than 60 days to the Preference Shares Paying Agent specifying the date on which such removal shall become effective. Such resignation or removal shall only take effect upon the appointment by the Issuer of a successor Preference Shares Paying Agent and upon the acceptance of such appointment by such successor Preference Shares Paying Agent; provided, however, that if the successor Preference Shares Paying Agent has not been appointed within 60 days after such notice of resignation or removal, then the Preference Shares Paying Agent, or any Holder of Preference Shares, may, on behalf of himself and others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Preference Shares Paying Agent; provided, further, that after the retirement of the Notes, if the Issuer determines that no material distributions will be paid on the Preference Shares, the Issuer may remove the Preference Shares Paying Agent at any time, by giving written notice of not less than 10 days, and assume the duties of the Preference Shares Paying Agent itself.

Section 15. Assignment. No party hereto may assign or novate any of its rights or obligations hereunder except with the prior written consent of all the parties hereto.

Section 16. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business of Preference Shares Paying Agent. Any entity into which the Preference Shares Paying Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Preference Shares Paying Agent is a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Preference Shares Paying Agent, shall be the successor of the Preference Shares Paying Agent under this Agreement without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

Section 17. Reports and Notices. The Issuer hereby authorizes the Preference Shares Paying Agent to deliver or request the Trustee to deliver all Monthly Reports and Valuation Reports (each a "Report" and, collectively, "Reports") prepared pursuant to the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall deliver, or shall cause the Trustee to deliver, a copy of any such Report to such Holders within two Business Days of receipt of any such Report. In addition, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall deliver, or shall cause the Trustee to deliver, a copy of any other notice or information that it has received from the Trustee under the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares within two Business Days of receipt of such notice and information. Any notices or information to be delivered by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to this Agreement shall be delivered, in each case, (i) by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to each Holder of a Preference Share at the address appearing in the share register of the Issuer or (ii) with respect to delivery of the Reports, by making such Reports available via its password-protected internet website, initially located at <http://www.cdocalc.com/ibt/cdo/>. All information made available on the Preference Shares Paying Agent's website shall be restricted and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall only provide access to such reports to those parties entitled thereto pursuant to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement. In connection with providing access to its website, the Preference Shares Paying Agent may require registration and the acceptance of a disclaimer. Questions regarding the Preference Shares Paying Agent's website may be directed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent's customer service desk at (617) 937-4175.

Section 18. Notices. (a) All communications by or on behalf of the Issuer relating to the transfer or payment of Preference Shares or any interest therein shall be directed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent at its address set forth in clause (b)(ii) below. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall mail any notice it receives from the Trustee (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) to the Holders of the Preference Shares on the Business Day it receives such notice.

Where this Agreement provides for notice to Holders of the Preference Shares of any event, such notice shall be sufficiently given (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) if such notice is in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to each Holder of the Preference Shares affected by such event, at such Holder's address as it appears on the share register of the Issuer, not later than the latest date, and not earlier than the earliest date, prescribed for the giving of such notice.

Neither the failure to mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Holder of Preference Shares shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders. Any notice that is given in the manner herein provided shall conclusively be presumed to have been duly given whether or not actually received by such Holder. Any notice to Holders of the Preference Shares provided for in this Agreement will be deemed to have been given on the date of mailing.

Where this Agreement provides for notice in any manner, such notice may be waived in writing by any Person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice.

In the event that, by reason of the suspension of the regular mail service as a result of a strike, work stoppage or similar activity, it shall be impractical to mail notice of any event to Holders of the Preference Shares when such notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, then any manner of giving such notice as shall be satisfactory to the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be deemed to be a sufficient giving of such notice.

(b) Notices and other communications hereunder shall (except to the extent otherwise expressly provided) be in writing and shall be addressed as follows, or to such other addresses as the parties hereto shall specify from time to time:

- (i) if to the Issuer:

Section 19. Covenants of the Issuer. The Issuer shall not take any action under this Agreement or the Indenture that requires the authorization, direction or consent from the Holders of the Preference Shares without obtaining such authorization, direction or consent from the Holders of the Preference Shares. It shall be the responsibility of the Issuer to satisfy the Preference Shares Paying Agent as to the compliance with the foregoing condition (on which the Preference Shares Paying Agent may rely on in good faith).

Section 20. Transfer of Issuer Ordinary Shares. For so long as any of the Preference Shares are Outstanding, the Issuer shall not agree to the transfer of any Issuer Ordinary Shares to U.S. Persons (as defined in the Code), and shall not transfer any such Issuer Ordinary Shares to any Person other than a Person which is a resident of the Cayman Islands.

Section 21. Certain Tax Matters. (a) On demand of the Issuer, a Holder or beneficial owner of Preference Shares shall notify the Issuer whether or not the Holder or beneficial owner of such Preference Shares is a United States person within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code and the name and status of such Holder or beneficial owner as an individual, partnership, corporation, or other entity and such other information as the Issuer shall reasonably request for purposes of tax reporting of the Issuer or other Holders of the Preference Shares.

(b) If the Issuer is aware that it has purchased an interest in a “reportable transaction” within the meaning of Section 6011 of the Code because, after the Closing Date, the Issuer entered into a transaction whereby the Issuer recognized a significant loss or otherwise, and a Holder of the Preference Shares requests information about any such transactions in which the Issuer is a purchaser, the Issuer shall provide such information it has reasonably available as soon as practicable after such request.

(c) The Issuer shall provide or cause to be provided to each Holder or beneficial owner of the Preference Shares (or its designee), upon written request therefor, any information that such Holder or beneficial owner reasonably requests to assist such Holder or beneficial owner with regard to its or its equity owners' U.S. federal income tax filing requirements.

(d) Each Holder and beneficial owner of the Preference Shares agrees to treat the Preference Shares as equity of the Issuer and the Notes as debt of the Issuer for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, if applicable.

(e) The Issuer will not make an election to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and will take all necessary actions to maintain its status as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(f) Within 90 days after December 31 of each calendar year, the Issuer shall (or shall cause its Independent accountants to) provide to each Holder of Preference Shares (i) all information that a U.S. shareholder making a "qualified electing fund" election (as defined in the Code) is required to obtain for U.S. federal income tax purposes and (ii) a "PFIC Annual Information Statement" as described in Treasury Regulation section 1.1295-1 (or any successor Treasury Regulation), including all representations and statements required by such statement, and will take any other reasonable steps necessary to facilitate such election by, and any reporting requirements of, a holder of Preference Shares. Upon request by the Independent accountants, the Share Registrar shall provide to the Independent accountants information contained in the share register of the Issuer and requested by the Independent accountants to comply with this Section 21(f).

(g) The Issuer will provide, upon request of a Holder of Preference Shares, any information that such Holder reasonably requests to assist such Holder with regard to any filing requirements the Holder may have as a result of the controlled foreign corporation rules under the Code.

(h) The Issuer shall treat each purchase of Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments as a "purchase" for tax, accounting and reporting purposes.

(i) The Issuer shall file, or cause to be filed, any tax returns, including information tax returns, required by any governmental authority; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not file, or cause to be filed, any income or franchise tax return in the United States or any state thereof except with respect to a return required by a tax imposed under Section 881 of the Code unless it shall have obtained a Tax Opinion of Counsel prior to such filing that, under the laws of such jurisdiction, the Issuer is required to file such income or franchise tax return.

(j) The Issuer shall not conduct its business in contravention of Annex 1 to the Servicing Agreement.

(k) Notwithstanding any contrary agreement or understanding, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Holders' of the Preference Shares (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) are hereby permitted to disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the ownership and disposition of the Preference Shares) and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction, and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction.

(l) Each Holder of Preference Shares, by acceptance of its Preference Shares, shall be deemed to understand and acknowledge that failure to provide the Issuer, the Trustee or the Preference Shares Paying Agent with the applicable U.S. federal income tax certifications (generally, a United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is not a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) may result in U.S. federal back-up withholding from payments in respect of such Preference Shares.

Section 22. Minimum Lots. Preference Shares must be held in minimum lots of 100 Preference Shares per investor and integral multiples of one Preference Share in excess thereof.

Section 23. Limited Recourse; No Petition. The Preference Shares Paying Agent hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Issuer’s obligations hereunder will be solely the corporate obligations of the Issuer, and that the Preference Shares Paying Agent will not have any recourse to any of the directors, officers, employees, shareholders or Affiliates of the Issuer with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, recourse in respect of any obligations of the Issuer hereunder will be limited to the proceeds of the Collateral, paid pursuant to the Priority of Payments and on the exhaustion thereof all obligations of and all claims against the Issuer arising from this Agreement or any transactions contemplated hereby shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. The Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Share Registrar, by entering into this Agreement and each Holder of Preference Shares by its acceptance of Preference Shares, hereby covenants and agrees that it will not, prior to the date which is one year and one day (or, if longer, the applicable preference period) after the payment in full of all amounts owing under the Indenture and this Agreement, institute against the Issuer, or voluntarily join in any institution against the Issuer of, any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under any United States federal or state bankruptcy or similar law of any jurisdiction within or without the United States in connection with any obligations relating to the Preference Shares or this Agreement. The provisions of this Section 23 shall survive termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

Section 24. Legal. (a) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

(b) WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE ISSUER AND THE PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE PREFERENCE SHARES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

(c) Service of Process. The Issuer irrevocably appoints CT Corporation System (the "Process Agent") c/o CT Corporation System, located at 111 Eighth Avenue, 13th Floor, New York, NY 10011, to receive, for it and on its behalf, service of process in any suit, action or proceeding relating to this Agreement. If for any reason the Process Agent is unable to act as such, the Issuer shall promptly notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent and within 30 days appoint a substitute process agent acceptable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent.

Section 25. Signatures. This Agreement may be signed in two or more counterparts with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument. A facsimile signature shall be considered due execution and shall be binding upon the signatory thereto with the same force and effect as if the signature were an original.

Section 26. Voting. The Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares will be identical in all respects except that the Class II Preference Shares will also be entitled, subject to any restrictions under Cayman Islands law, to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments and will have voting rights with respect to the directors of the Issuer as set forth in the Issuer's Memorandum and Articles of Association. Unless otherwise specified herein or in the Issuer's Memorandum and Articles of Association, Holders of Class I Preference Shares and Class II Preference Shares shall vote together as a single class.

Re: Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd.
Distribution of Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of Interest Proceeds

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This letter is to inform you that Highland Capital Management, L.P., in its capacity as servicer (the "Servicer") with respect to that certain servicing agreement, dated as of March 27, 2008, by and between Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd. (the "Issuer") and the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, would like to distribute Eligible Equity Securities on the Payment Date of _____, 20__ to the Holders of the Preference Shares in lieu of the Interest Proceeds, in whole or in part, that are otherwise due and payable to such Holders on such Payment Date. Such Eligible Equity Securities will be distributed in accordance with Sections 2(e) and 3(b) of that certain paying agency agreement, dated as of March 27, 2008 (the "Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement"), by and among the Issuer, State Street Bank and Trust Company, in its capacity as preference shares paying agent (the "Preference Shares Paying Agent") and Section 11.1(a)(i) of that certain indenture, dated as of March 27, 2008, by and among the Issuer, Aberdeen Loan Funding Corp. and State Street Bank and Trust Company, in its capacity as trustee (the "Trustee"). Any capitalized terms used without definition herein are used with the meanings assigned to such terms in the Indenture.

Details with respect to the proposed distribution of such Eligible Equity Securities are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Each Holder of the Preference Shares wishing to receive such Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder (each such Holder, a "Consenting Holder") must deliver the consent notice attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Consent Notice") to the Preference Shares Paying Agent not later than five Business Days prior to such Payment Date. Each Consenting Holder must indicate in the Consent Notice the portion of Preference Shares held by such Holder for which such Holder wishes to receive a distribution of Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of Interest Proceeds. Any Consent Notice that is not delivered to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in the manner set forth herein shall be deemed to have not been delivered.

Please contact [ ] (insert e-mail address) at [( ) __-__ ] with any questions.

SERVICING AGREEMENT

This Servicing Agreement, dated as of March 27, 2008 is entered into by and among ABERDEEN LOAN FUNDING, LTD., an exempted company incorporated with limited liability under the laws of the Cayman Islands, with its registered office located at Walker House, 87 Mary Street, George Town, Grand Cayman, KY1-9002, Cayman Islands (together with successors and assigns permitted hereunder, the “Issuer”), and HIGHLAND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership, with its principal offices located at Two Galleria Tower, 13455 Noel Road, Suite 1300, Dallas, Texas 75240, as servicer (“Highland” or, in such capacity, the “Servicer”).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Issuer and ABERDEEN LOAN FUNDING CORP. (the “Co-Issuer” and together with the Issuer, the “Co-Issuers”) intend to issue U.S.$376,000,000 of their Class A Floating Rate Senior Secured Extendable Notes due 2018 (the “Class A Notes”), U.S.$29,500,000 of their Class B Floating Rate Senior Secured Extendable Notes due 2018 (the “Class B Notes”), U.S.$25,250,000 of their Class C Floating Rate Senior Secured Deferrable Interest Extendable Notes due 2018 (the “Class C Notes”), U.S.$19,250,000 of their Class D Floating Rate Senior Secured Deferrable Interest Extendable Notes due 2018 (the “Class D Notes”), and the Issuer intends to issue U.S.$17,250,000 of its Class E Floating Rate Senior Secured Deferrable Interest Extendable Notes due 2018 (the “Class E Notes” and together with the Class A Notes, Class B Notes, Class C Notes and Class D Notes, the “Notes”) pursuant to the Indenture dated as of March 27, 2008 (the “Indenture”), among the Co-Issuers and State Street Bank and Trust Company, as trustee (the “Trustee”) and the Issuer intends to issue 12,000 Class I Preference Shares, $0.01 par value (the “Class I Preference Shares”) and 36,000 Class II Preference Shares, $0.01 par value (the “Class II Preference Shares” and, together with the Class I Preference Shares, the “Preference Shares” and, together with the Notes, the “Securities”) pursuant to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement dated as of March 27, 2008 (the “Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement”) between the Issuer and State Street Bank and Trust Company, as the Preference Shares Paying Agent, and pursuant to the Issuer’s amended and restated memorandum and articles of association (the “Memorandum and Articles of Association”) and certain resolutions of the board of directors of the Issuer;

WHEREAS, the Issuer intends to pledge certain Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments and Cash (all as defined in the Indenture) and certain other assets (all as set forth in the Indenture) (collectively, the “Collateral”) to the Trustee as security for the Notes;

WHEREAS, the Issuer wishes to enter into this Servicing Agreement, pursuant to which the Servicer agrees to perform, on behalf of the Issuer, certain duties with respect to the Collateral in the manner and on the terms set forth herein; and

WHEREAS, the Servicer has the capacity to provide the services required hereby and in the applicable provisions of the other Transaction Documents and is prepared to perform such services upon the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual agreements herein set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

Terms used herein and not defined below shall have the meanings set forth in the Indenture.

“Agreement” shall mean this Servicing Agreement, as amended from time to time.

“Governing Instruments” shall mean the memorandum, articles or certificate of incorporation or association and by-laws, if applicable, in the case of a corporation; the certificate of formation, if applicable, or the partnership agreement, in the case of a partnership; or the certificate of formation, if applicable, or the limited liability company agreement, in the case of a limited liability company.

“HFP” shall mean Highland Financial Partners, L.P. (which includes, for the avoidance of doubt, any subsidiary thereof).

“Offering Memorandum” shall mean the Offering Memorandum of the Issuer dated March 27, 2008 prepared in connection with the offering of the Securities.

“Servicer Breaches” shall have the meaning specified in Section 10(a).

“Servicing Fee” shall mean, collectively, the Senior Servicing Fee, the Subordinated Servicing Fee and the Supplemental Servicing Fee.

“Transaction Documents” shall mean the Indenture, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Servicing Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement.

2. General Duties of the Servicer.

(a) The Servicer shall provide services to the Issuer as follows:

(i) Subject to and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents, the Servicer shall supervise and direct the administration, acquisition and disposition of the Collateral, and shall perform on behalf of the Issuer those duties and obligations of the Servicer required by the Indenture and the other Transaction Documents, and including the furnishing of Issuer Orders, Issuer Requests and officer’s certificates, and such certifications as are required of the Servicer under the Indenture with respect to permitted purchases and sales of the Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments and other assets, and other matters, and, to the extent necessary or appropriate to perform such duties, the Servicer shall have the power to execute and deliver all necessary and appropriate documents and instruments on behalf of the Issuer with respect thereto. The Servicer shall, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents, perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder with reasonable care, using a degree of skill and attention no less than that which the Servicer exercises with respect to comparable assets that it services or manages for others having similar objectives and restrictions, and in a manner consistent with practices and procedures followed by institutional servicers or managers of national standing relating to assets of the nature and character of the Collateral for clients having similar objectives and restrictions, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement and/or the other Transaction Documents. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the Servicer shall follow its customary standards, policies and procedures in performing its duties under the Indenture and hereunder. The Servicer shall comply with all terms and conditions of the other Transaction Documents affecting the duties and functions to be performed hereunder. The Servicer shall not be bound to follow any amendment to any Transaction Document until it has received written notice thereof and until it has received a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee; provided, however, that the Servicer shall not be bound by any amendment to any Transaction Document that affects the rights, powers, obligations or duties of the Servicer unless the Servicer shall have consented thereto in writing. The Issuer agrees that it shall not permit any amendment to the Indenture that (x) affects the rights, powers, obligations or duties of the Servicer or (y) affects the amount or priority of any fees payable to the Servicer to become effective unless the Servicer has been given prior written notice of such amendment and consented thereto in writing;

(ii) the Servicer shall select any Collateral which shall be acquired by the Issuer pursuant to the Indenture in accordance with the Collateral criteria set forth herein and in the Indenture;

(iii) the Servicer shall monitor the Collateral on an ongoing basis and provide to the Issuer all reports, certificates, schedules and other data with respect to the Collateral which the Issuer is required to prepare and deliver under the Indenture, in the form and containing all information required thereby and in reasonable time for the Issuer to review such required reports, certificates, schedules and data and to deliver them to the parties entitled thereto under the Indenture;

(iv) the Servicer shall undertake to determine to the extent reasonably practicable whether a Collateral Obligation has become a Defaulted Collateral Obligation;

(v) the Servicer, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture may, at any time permitted under the Indenture, and shall, when required by the Indenture, direct the Trustee (x) to dispose of a Collateral Obligation, Equity Security or Eligible Investment or other securities received in respect thereof in the open market or otherwise, (y) to acquire, as security for the Notes in substitution for or in addition to any one or more Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments included in the Collateral, one or more substitute Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments, or (z) direct the Trustee to take the following actions with respect to a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment:

- (1) retain such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment;
- or
- (2) dispose of such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment in the open market or otherwise; or
- (3) if applicable, tender such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment pursuant to an Offer; or

(4) if applicable, consent to any proposed amendment, modification or waiver pursuant to an Offer; or

(5) retain or dispose of any securities or other property (if other than cash) received pursuant to an Offer; or

(6) waive any default with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation; or

(7) vote to accelerate the maturity of any Defaulted Collateral Obligation; or

(8) exercise any other rights or remedies with respect to such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment as provided in the related Underlying Instruments, including in connection with any workout situations, or take any other action consistent with the terms of the Indenture which is in the best interests of the Holders of the Securities; and

(vi) the Servicer shall (a) on or prior to any day which is a Redemption Date, direct the Trustee to enter into contracts to dispose of the Collateral Obligation and any other Collateral pursuant to the Indenture and otherwise comply with all redemption procedures and certification requirements in the Indenture in order to allow the Trustee to effect such redemption and (b) conduct auctions in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

(b) In performing its duties hereunder, the Servicer shall seek to preserve the value of the Collateral for the benefit of the Holders of the Securities taking into account the Collateral criteria and limitations set forth herein and in the Indenture and the Servicer shall use reasonable efforts to select and service the Collateral in such a way that will permit a timely performance of all payment obligations by the Issuer under the Indenture; provided, that the Servicer shall not be responsible if such objectives are not achieved so long as the Servicer performs its duties under this Agreement in the manner provided for herein, and provided, further, that there shall be no recourse to the Servicer with respect to the Notes or the Preference Shares. The Servicer and the Issuer shall take such other action, and furnish such certificates, opinions and other documents, as may be reasonably requested by the other party hereto in order to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement and to facilitate compliance with applicable laws and regulations and the terms of this Agreement.

(c) The Servicer hereby agrees to the following:

(i) The Servicer agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer until the payment in full of all Notes issued under the Indenture and the payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent of all amounts payable with respect to the Preference Shares in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the expiration of a period equal to the greater of (A) the applicable preference period plus one day or (B) one year and one day following the payment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Servicer may commence any legal action that is not a bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation or similar proceeding against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of their properties and may take any action it deems appropriate at any time in any bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation or similar proceeding and any other Proceeding voluntarily commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or involuntarily commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer by anyone other than the Servicer or any Affiliate of the Servicer. The provisions of this Section 2(c)(i) shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(ii) The Servicer shall cause each sale or purchase of any Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment to be conducted on an arm's-length basis.

(d) The Servicer shall not act for the Issuer in any capacity except as provided in this Section 2. In providing services hereunder, the Servicer may employ third parties, including its Affiliates, to render advice (including advice with respect to the servicing of the Collateral) and assistance; provided, however, that the Servicer shall not be relieved of any of its duties or liabilities hereunder regardless of the performance of any services by third parties. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Servicer shall not be required to take any action required of it pursuant to this Agreement or the Indenture if such action would constitute a violation of any law.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or the Indenture, (i) any granted signatory powers or authority granted to the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer with respect to the Special Procedures Obligations (as defined in Annex 1) shall be conditioned upon the prior written approval of the Independent Advisor (as defined in Annex 1) and (ii) neither the Servicer nor any Affiliate of the Servicer shall have any authority to enter into agreements, or take any action, on behalf of the Issuer with respect to the Special Procedures Obligations without the prior written approval of the Independent Advisor.

3. Brokerage.

The Servicer shall seek to obtain the best prices and execution for all orders placed with respect to the Collateral, considering all reasonable circumstances. Subject to the objective of obtaining best prices and execution, the Servicer may take into consideration research and other brokerage services furnished to the Servicer or its Affiliates by brokers and dealers which are not Affiliates of the Servicer. Such services may be used by the Servicer or its Affiliates in connection with its other servicing or advisory activities or operations. The Servicer may aggregate sales and purchase orders of securities placed with respect to the Collateral with similar orders being made simultaneously for other accounts serviced or managed by the Servicer or with accounts of the Affiliates of the Servicer, if in the Servicer's reasonable judgment such aggregation shall result in an overall economic benefit to the Issuer, taking into consideration the advantageous selling or purchase price, brokerage commission and other expenses. In the event that a sale or purchase of a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment (in accordance with the terms of the Indenture) occurs as part of any aggregate sales or purchase orders, the objective of the Servicer (and any of its Affiliates involved in such transactions) shall be to allocate the executions among the accounts in an equitable manner and consistent with its obligations hereunder and under applicable law.

In addition to the foregoing and subject to the provisions of Section 2 and the limitations of Section 5, the objective of obtaining best prices and execution and to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Servicer may, on behalf of the Issuer, direct the Trustee to acquire any and all of the Eligible Investments or other Collateral from, or sell Collateral Obligations or other Collateral to, the Initial Purchaser, the Trustee or any of their respective Affiliates, or any other firm.

4. Additional Activities of the Servicer.

Nothing herein shall prevent the Servicer or any of its Affiliates from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Trustee, the Holders of the Securities, or any other Person or entity to the extent permitted by applicable law. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Servicer and partners, directors, officers, employees and agents of the Servicer or its Affiliates may, among other things, and subject to any limits specified in the Indenture:

(a) serve as directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, partners, employees, agents, nominees or signatories for any issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates, to the extent permitted by their Governing Instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates, pursuant to their respective Governing Instruments; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Servicer, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on the enforceability of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Overcollateralization Ratio and each Interest Coverage Test; provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the duties of the Servicer set forth in Section 2 hereof;

(b) receive fees for services of any nature rendered to the issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Servicer, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on the enforceability of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Coverage Test; and provided, further, that if any portion of such services are related to the purchase by the Issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral, the portion of such fees relating to such obligations shall be applied to the purchase price of such obligations; and

(c) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold an equity interest in, the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligation included in the Collateral; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Servicer, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on the enforceability of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Coverage Test; provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the duties of the Servicer set forth in Section 2 hereof.

It is understood that the Servicer and any of its Affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish servicing, investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have policies similar to those followed by the Servicer with respect to the Collateral and which may own securities of the same class, or which are the same type, as the Collateral Obligations or other securities of the issuers of Collateral Obligations. The Servicer shall be free, in its sole discretion, to make recommendations to others, or effect transactions on behalf of itself or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Collateral.

Unless the Servicer determines in its reasonable judgment that such purchase or sale is appropriate, the Servicer may refrain from directing the purchase or sale hereunder of securities issued by (i) Persons of which the Servicer, its Affiliates or any of its or their officers, directors or employees are directors or officers, (ii) Persons for which the Servicer or its Affiliates act as financial adviser or underwriter or (iii) Persons about which the Servicer or any of its Affiliates have information which the Servicer deems confidential or non-public or otherwise might prohibit it from trading such securities in accordance with applicable law. The Servicer shall not be obligated to have or pursue any particular strategy or opportunity with respect to the Collateral.

5. Conflicts of Interest.

(a) The Servicer shall not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Servicer such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (iii) such transaction is permitted by the United States Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended.

(b) The Servicer shall not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (ii) permitted by the United States Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended.

(c) In addition, the Servicer shall not undertake any transaction described in this Section 5 unless such transaction is exempt from the prohibited transaction rules of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code.

6. Records; Confidentiality.

The Servicer shall maintain appropriate books of account and records relating to services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by a representative of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Holders of the Securities and the Independent accountants appointed by the Issuer pursuant to the Indenture at a mutually agreed time during normal business hours and upon not less than three Business Days' prior notice. At no time shall the Servicer make a public announcement concerning the issuance of the Notes or the Preference Shares, the Servicer's role hereunder or any other aspect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents. The Servicer shall keep confidential any and all information obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder and shall not disclose any such information to non-affiliated third parties except (i) with the prior written consent of the Issuer, (ii) such information as either Rating Agency shall reasonably request in connection with the rating of any Class of Securities, (iii) as required by law, regulation, court order or the rules or regulations of any self regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Servicer, (iv) to its professional advisers, (v) such information as shall have been publicly disclosed other than in violation of this Agreement, or (vi) such information that was or is obtained by the Servicer on a non-confidential basis; provided, that the Servicer does not know or have reason to know of any breach by such source of any confidentiality obligations with respect thereto. For purposes of this Section 6, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator and the Holders of the Securities shall in no event be considered "non-affiliated third parties."

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Indenture to the contrary, the Servicer, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Holders of the Securities (and the beneficial owners thereof) (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure, as such terms are defined under U.S. federal, state or local tax law.

7. Obligations of Servicer.

Unless otherwise specifically required by any provision of the Indenture or this Agreement or by applicable law, the Servicer shall use its best reasonable efforts to ensure that no action is taken by it, and shall not intentionally or with reckless disregard take any action, which would (a) materially adversely affect the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for purposes of Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state law or any other law known to the Servicer to be applicable to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, (b) not be permitted under the Issuer's Memorandum and Articles of Association or the Co-Issuer's Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws, (c) violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer or the Co-Issuer including, without limitation, any Cayman Islands or United States federal, state or other applicable securities law the violation of which has or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any of the Collateral, (d) require registration of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the pool of Collateral as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act, (e) cause the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to violate the terms of the Indenture, including, without limitation, any representations made by the Issuer or Co-Issuer therein, or any other agreement contemplated by the Indenture or (f) not be permitted by Annex 1 hereto and would subject the Issuer to U.S. federal or state income or franchise taxation or cause the Issuer to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Servicer covenants that it shall comply in all material respects with all laws and regulations applicable to it in connection with the performance of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Servicer shall not be required to take any action under this Agreement or the Indenture if such action would violate any applicable law, rule, regulation or court order.

8. Compensation.

(a) The Issuer shall pay to the Servicer, for services rendered and performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Servicing Fee, which shall be payable in such amounts and at such times as set forth in the Indenture. The provisions of the Indenture which relate to the amount and payment of the Servicing Fee shall not be amended without the written consent of the Servicer. If on any Payment Date there are insufficient funds to pay the Servicing Fee (and/or any other amounts due and payable to the Servicer) in full, the amount not so paid shall be deferred and shall be payable on such later Payment Date on which funds are available therefor as provided in the Indenture.

With respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion (or all) of its Servicing Fees then due and payable. All waived amounts will be paid to the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments pursuant to the Indenture. For purposes of any calculation under this Agreement and the Indenture, the Servicer shall be deemed to have received the Servicing Fee in an amount equal to the sum of the Servicing Fee actually paid to the Servicer and the amount distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments.

In addition, notwithstanding anything set out above, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion waive all or any portion of the Subordinated Servicing Fee or Supplemental Servicing Fee, any funds representing the waived Subordinated Servicing Fees and Supplemental Servicing Fees to be retained in the Collection Account for distribution as either Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds (as determined by the Servicer) pursuant to the Priority of Payments.

(b) The Servicer shall be responsible for the ordinary expenses incurred in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Indenture and the other Transaction Documents; provided, however, that any extraordinary expenses incurred by the Servicer in the performance of such obligations (including, but not limited to, any fees, expenses or other amounts payable to the Rating Agencies, the Collateral Administrator, the Trustee and the accountants appointed by the Issuer, the reasonable expenses incurred by the Servicer to employ outside lawyers or consultants reasonably necessary in connection with the evaluation, transfer or restructuring of any Collateral Obligation or other unusual matters arising in the performance of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture, any reasonable expenses incurred by the Servicer in obtaining advice from outside counsel with respect to its obligations under this Agreement, brokerage commissions, transfer fees, registration costs, taxes and other similar costs and transaction related expenses and fees arising out of transactions effected for the Issuer's account and the portion allocated to the Issuer of any other fees and expenses that the Servicer customarily allocates among all of the funds or portfolios that it services or manages, including reasonable expenses incurred with respect to any compliance requirements, including, but not limited to, compliance with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, related solely to the ownership or holding of any Securities by HFP or any of its subsidiaries) shall be reimbursed by the Issuer to the extent funds are available therefor in accordance with and subject to the Priority of Payments and other limitations contained in the Indenture.

(c) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 12, Section 14 or otherwise, the fees payable to the Servicer shall be prorated for any partial periods between Payment Dates during which this Agreement was in effect and shall be due and payable on the first Payment Date following the date of such termination and on any subsequent Payment Dates to the extent remaining unpaid and in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Indenture.

9. Benefit of the Agreement.

The Servicer agrees that its obligations hereunder shall be enforceable at the instance of the Issuer, the Trustee, on behalf of the Noteholders, or the requisite percentage of Noteholders or the Holders of the Preference Shares, as applicable, as provided in the Indenture or the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, as applicable.

10. Limits of Servicer Responsibility; Indemnification.

(a) The Servicer assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder and under the terms of the other Transaction Documents made applicable to it pursuant to the terms of this Agreement in good faith and, subject to the standard of liability described in the next sentence, shall not be responsible for any action of the Issuer or the Trustee in following or declining to follow any advice, recommendation or direction of the Servicer. The Servicer, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, and its Affiliates and their directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, shall not be liable to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Holders of the Securities or any other person, for any losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (collectively, "Liabilities") incurred by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Holders of the Securities or any other person, that arise out of or in connection with the performance by the Servicer of its duties under this Agreement and under the terms of the other Transaction Documents made applicable to it pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, except by reason of (i) acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance, or reckless disregard, of the obligations of the Servicer hereunder and under the terms of the other Transaction Documents made applicable to it pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or (ii) with respect to any information included in the Offering Memorandum in the section entitled "The Servicer" that contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (the preceding clauses (i) and (ii) collectively being the "Servicer Breaches"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Servicer shall have no duty to independently investigate any laws not otherwise known to it in connection with its obligations under this Agreement, the Indenture and the other Transaction Documents. The Servicer shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements of the Indenture and this Agreement relating to not causing the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes (including as those requirements relate to the acquisition (including manner of acquisition), ownership, enforcement, and disposition of Collateral) to the extent the Servicer complies with the requirements set forth in Annex 1 hereto (unless the Servicer knows that as a result of a change in law the investment restrictions set forth in Annex 1 may no longer be relied upon).

(b) The Issuer shall indemnify and hold harmless (the Issuer in such case, the “Indemnifying Party”) the Servicer, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees (such parties collectively in such case, the “Indemnified Parties”) from and against any and all Liabilities, and shall reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) (collectively, the “Expenses”) as such Expenses are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the “Actions”), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with, the issuance of the Securities, the transactions contemplated by the Offering Memorandum, the Indenture or this Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided, however, that no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions by any Indemnified Party constituting Servicer Breaches. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer under this Section 10 shall be payable solely out of the Collateral in accordance with, and subject to, the Priority of Payments and shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(c) With respect to any claim made or threatened against an Indemnified Party, or compulsory process or request or other notice of any loss, claim, damage or liability served upon an Indemnified Party, for which such Indemnified Party is or may be entitled to indemnification under this Section 10, such Indemnified Party shall (or with respect to Indemnified Parties that are directors, officers, stockholders, agents or employees of the Servicer, the Servicer shall cause such Indemnified Party to):

(i) give written notice to the Indemnifying Party of such claim within ten (10) days after such Indemnified Party’s receipt of actual notice that such claim is made or threatened, which notice to the Indemnifying Party shall specify in reasonable detail the nature of the claim and the amount (or an estimate of the amount) of the claim; provided, however, that the failure of any Indemnified Party to provide such notice to the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under this Section 10 unless the Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced or otherwise forfeits rights or defenses by reason of such failure;

(ii) at the Indemnifying Party’s expense, provide the Indemnifying Party such information and cooperation with respect to such claim as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require, including, but not limited to, making appropriate personnel available to the Indemnifying Party at such reasonable times as the Indemnifying Party may request;

(iii) at the Indemnifying Party’s expense, cooperate and take all such steps as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request to preserve and protect any defense to such claim;

(iv) in the event suit is brought with respect to such claim, upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, which the Indemnifying Party may exercise in its sole discretion and at its expense, to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement of such claim;

(v) neither incur any material expense to defend against nor release or settle any such claim or make any admission with respect thereto (other than routine or incontestable admissions or factual admissions the failure to make which would expose such Indemnified Party to uninsured liability) nor permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof, in each case without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party; and

(vi) upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, in its sole discretion and at its sole expense, to assume the defense of such claim, including, but not limited to, the right to designate counsel reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party and to control all negotiations, litigation, arbitration, settlements, compromises and appeals of such claim; provided, that if the Indemnifying Party assumes the defense of such claim, it shall not be liable for any fees and expenses of counsel for any Indemnified Party incurred thereafter in connection with such claim except that if such Indemnified Party reasonably determines that counsel designated by the Indemnifying Party has a conflict of interest in connection with its representation of such Indemnified Party, such Indemnifying Party shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of one counsel (in addition to any local counsel) separate from its own counsel for all Indemnified Parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances; provided, further, that prior to entering into any final settlement or compromise, such Indemnifying Party shall seek the consent of the Indemnified Party and use its commercially reasonable efforts in the light of the then prevailing circumstances (including, without limitation, any express or implied time constraint on any pending settlement offer) to obtain the consent of such Indemnified Party as to the terms of settlement or compromise. If an Indemnified Party does not consent to the settlement or compromise within a reasonable time under the circumstances, the Indemnifying Party shall not thereafter be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Party for any amount in excess of such proposed settlement or compromise.

(d) In the event that any Indemnified Party waives its right to indemnification hereunder, the Indemnifying Party shall not be entitled to appoint counsel to represent such Indemnified Party nor shall the Indemnifying Party reimburse such Indemnified Party for any costs of counsel to such Indemnified Party.

(e) The U.S. federal securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith; accordingly, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, nothing herein shall in any way constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Issuer or the Holders of the Securities may have under any U.S. federal securities laws.

11. No Partnership or Joint Venture.

The Issuer and the Servicer are not partners or joint venturers with each other and nothing herein shall be construed to make them such partners or joint venturers or impose any liability as such on either of them. The Servicer's relation to the Issuer shall be deemed to be that of an independent contractor.

12. Term; Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall commence as of the date first set forth above and shall continue in force and effect until the first of the following occurs: (i) the payment in full of the Notes, the termination of the Indenture in accordance with its terms and the redemption in full of the Preference Shares; (ii) the liquidation of the Collateral and the final distribution of the proceeds of such liquidation to the Holders of the Securities; or (iii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with subsection (b), (c), (d) or (e) of this Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement.

(b) Subject to Section 12(e) below, the Servicer may resign, upon 90 days' written notice to the Issuer (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer). If the Servicer resigns, the Issuer agrees to appoint a successor servicer to assume such duties and obligations in accordance with Section 12(e).

(c) This Agreement shall be automatically terminated in the event that the Issuer determines in good faith that the Issuer or the pool of Collateral has become required to be registered under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, and the Issuer notifies the Servicer thereof.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 12, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other, except as provided in Sections 2(c)(i), 8, 10 and 15 of this Agreement.

(e) No removal or resignation of the Servicer shall be effective unless:

(i) (A) the Issuer appoints a successor servicer at the written direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares (excluding any Preference Shares held by the retiring Servicer, any of its Affiliates or any account over which the retiring Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority other than, with respect to the Class II Preference Shares owned by HFP or its subsidiaries; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of Class II Preference Shares owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote shall not be excluded only if such vote is determined by a vote of the majority of the "independent directors" (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiaries and certified in writing to the Preference Shares Paying Agent by any of the "independent directors" of HFP) of HFP or such subsidiaries) (each such non-excluded Preference Share, a "Voting Preference Share"), (B) such successor servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the retiring Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture and (C) such successor servicer is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Servicer, its Affiliates or any account over which the retiring Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority other than HFP; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of Notes owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote shall not be excluded only if such vote is determined by a vote of the majority of the "independent directors" (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiaries and certified in writing to the Trustee by any of the "independent directors" of HFP) of HFP or such subsidiaries) (each such non-excluded Note, a "Voting Note") or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Voting Notes (voting as a single class); or

(ii) if a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares has nominated two or more successor servicers that have been objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (i)(C) or has failed to appoint a successor servicer that has not been objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (i)(C) within 60 days of the date of notice of such removal or resignation of the Servicer, (A) the Issuer appoints a successor servicer at the written direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes), (B) such successor servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the retiring Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture and (C) such successor servicer is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares (voting as a single class) or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Voting Notes (voting as a single class); provided, that if a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares and a Super Majority of the Controlling Class (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) have each nominated two or more successor servicers that have been objected to pursuant to the preceding clauses (i)(C) and (ii)(C) or have otherwise failed to appoint a successor servicer that has not been objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (i)(C) or (ii)(C) within 120 days of the date of notice of such removal or resignation of the Servicer, (A) any Holder of the Controlling Class (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes), any Holder of Voting Preference Shares or the Trustee petitions a court of competent authority to appoint a successor servicer, (B) such court appoints a successor servicer and (C) such successor servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the retiring Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture.

In addition, any successor servicer must be an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Servicer hereunder, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as Servicer hereunder, as successor to the Servicer under this Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Servicer hereunder and under the applicable terms of the Indenture, (iii) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of Collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, (iv) shall perform its duties as successor servicer under this Agreement and the Indenture without causing the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any Holder of Preference Shares to become subject to tax in any jurisdiction where such successor servicer is established as doing business and (v) each Rating Agency has confirmed that the appointment of such successor servicer shall not cause its then-current rating of any Class of Notes to be reduced or withdrawn. No compensation payable to a successor servicer from payments on the Collateral shall be greater than that paid to the retiring Servicer without the prior written consent of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes, a Majority of the Noteholders and a Majority of the Preference Shares. The Issuer, the Trustee and the successor servicer shall take such action (or cause the retiring Servicer to take such action) consistent with this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Servicer, as shall be necessary to effectuate any such succession.
