(22) The purchaser understands that, prior to any sale or other transfer of any interest in Composite Securities held in the form of a Certificated Composite Security, it (or the transferee, as applicable) will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Trustee a duly executed transfer certificate substantially in the form provided in the Indenture and such other certificates and other information as they may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed transfer complies with the restrictions in the legend placed on each certificate representing the Composite Securities and in the Indenture.

(23) The purchaser understands and agrees that (a) no purchase or transfer of the Composite Securities or interest therein or Component thereof to a purchaser or transferee that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person (each as defined under United States Department of Labor Regulations 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101) will be effective, and the Issuer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Trustee will not recognize or register such purchase or transfer, if such purchase or transfer would result in (i) Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Component of any Composite Security and determined pursuant to 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101, the Preference Share Documents and the Indenture) or (ii) a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law) and (b) except for purchases directly from the Issuer and accepted by the Placement Agents no purchase or transfer of the Composite Securities or interest therein or component thereof may be made by or to a purchaser or transferee that wishes to take delivery in the form of a Regulation S Global Composite Security that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person. The purchaser further understands and agrees that any transfer in violation of the applicable provisions of the Preference Share Documents, the Indenture and the representations and agreements in this paragraph (23) will be null and void ab initio. For purposes of the determination described in clause (a)(i) of the preceding sentence, the Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Component of any Composite Security) held by the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Portfolio Manager, any of their respective affiliates (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)(3)) and any other persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons (and not a Benefit Plan Investor) will be disregarded and will not be treated as outstanding. The purchaser's acquisition, holding and disposition of the Composite Securities will not result in a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law), because such purchase, holding and disposition either (a) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws or (b) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all conditions of which are and will be been satisfied throughout its holding and disposition of such Composite Securities. The purchaser and any Person causing it to acquire the Composite Securities agree, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Portfolio Manager and their respective affiliates from any cost, damage, or loss incurred by them as a result of a breach of the representations set forth in this paragraph (23) or of the representations described in paragraph (24) and paragraph (25), as applicable. If the purchaser is an insurance company investing through its general account as defined in PTCE 95-60, for so long as it holds the Composite Securities, such purchaser shall meet the requirements pertaining to the percentage of the assets of such insurance company general account that can be treated as plan assets for purposes of calculating the 25% threshold under the significant participation test of the Plan Asset Regulation (29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)). The purchaser understands that the representations made in this paragraph (23) will be deemed made on each day from the date hereof through and including the date on which the purchaser disposes of its interests in the Composite Securities. The purchaser agrees that it will not sell, pledge or otherwise transfer any Composite Securities in violation of the foregoing.

(24) The funds that the purchaser is using or will use to purchase the Composite Securities are or are not assets of a person who is or at any time while the Composite Securities are held by the purchaser will be (A) an "employee benefit plan" as defined in Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), whether or not such plan is subject to Title I of ERISA, including, without limitation, foreign, church and governmental plans, (B) a "plan" described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") or (C) an entity whose underlying assets would be deemed to include "plan assets" of either of the foregoing by reason of the investment by an employee benefit plan or other plan in the entity within the meaning of 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101 or otherwise (the plans and persons described in clauses (A), (B) and (C) being referred to as "Benefit Plan Investors"). For purposes of making this determination, foreign benefit plans, government or church plans, Keoghs and individual retirement accounts ("IRAs") are typically considered Benefit Plan Investors.

The purchaser is or is not the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager or any other person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the assets of the Issuer, or any "affiliate" (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)(3)) of any such person (any such person, a "Controlling Person").

In addition, each transferee of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Composite Security will be deemed to represent and agree as follows:

(25) The purchaser is not, is not using the assets of, and upon its acquisition and throughout its holding and disposition of, such Composite Securities, it will not be or become or transfer any interest therein to, a Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Preference Shares

Each initial purchaser of Certificated Preference Shares and each initial purchaser of Regulation S Global Preference Shares acquiring such Preference Shares from the Issuer in the initial offering will be required to enter into a subscription agreement with the Issuer pursuant to which each such initial purchaser will be required to represent and agree (and each subsequent transferee of Regulation S Global Preference Shares will be required or, other than as to paragraph (24), deemed to have represented and agreed) in each case as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Rule 144A or Regulation S are used herein as defined therein):

(1) If the purchaser is:

(A) a U.S. Offeree, such purchaser is an Accredited Investor and is aware that the sale of Preference Shares to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements provided by Section 4(2) under the Securities Act and is acquiring the Preference Shares for its own account or for one or more accounts, each of which is an Accredited Investor, and as to each of which the purchaser exercises sole investment discretion, and in a number not less than the minimum lot for the purchaser and each such account, or

(B) a non-U.S. Person, such purchaser is purchasing the Preference Shares in an Offshore Transaction not involving any directed selling efforts in the United States and is aware that the sale of Preference Shares to it is being made in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act provided by Regulation S and is acquiring the Preference Shares for its own account in a number not less than the minimum lot.

In addition, the purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Preference Shares, and the purchaser, and any accounts for which it is acting, are each able to bear the economic risk of the purchaser's or its investment.

(2) The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Preference Shares have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and, if in the future the purchaser decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Preference Shares, such Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with the legend in respect of such Preference Shares set forth in (7) below and the restrictions set forth in the Preference Share Documents. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager or the Placement Agents or any of their respective Affiliates as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any jurisdiction for resale of the Preference Shares.

(3) The purchaser agrees that it will not offer or sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of the Preference Shares or any interest therein except (i) pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws or the applicable laws of any other jurisdiction and (ii) in accordance with the Preference Share Documents, to which provisions the purchaser agrees it is subject.

(4) The purchaser is not purchasing the Preference Shares with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares will be highly illiquid and are not suitable for short-term trading. The Preference Shares are a leveraged investment in the Collateral Obligations that may expose the Preference Shares to disproportionately large changes in value. Payments in respect of the Preference Shares are not guaranteed as they are dependent on the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations. The purchaser understands that it is possible that, due to the structure of the transaction and the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations, dividends or other distributions in respect of the Preference Shares may be reduced or eliminated entirely. Furthermore, the Preference Shares constitute equity in the Issuer, are not secured by the Collateral and will rank behind all creditors (secured and unsecured and whether known or unknown) of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the holders of the Notes, and any Hedge Counterparties. The Issuer has assets limited to the Collateral for payment of all Classes of the Notes and dividends and other distributions on the Preference Shares, and the Preference Shares bear, pro rata, the first risk of loss. The purchaser understands that an investment in the Preference Shares involves certain risks, including the risk of loss of all or a substantial part of its investment. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Issuer, the Preference Shares and the Collateral as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Preference Shares, including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Issuer and the Placement Agents.

(5) In connection with the purchase of Preference Shares (provided that no such representation is made with respect to the Portfolio Manager by any Affiliate of or account managed by the Portfolio Manager): (i) none of the Co-Issuers, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, or the Portfolio Manager is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment advisor for the purchaser, (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Co-Issuers, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager or any of their respective Affiliates other than in a current offering memorandum for such Preference Shares and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Co-Issuers, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager or any of their respective Affiliates has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other Person or documentation for the Preference Shares) any assurance, guarantee, or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence, or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting, or otherwise) of the Preference Shares or an investment therein; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the documentation for the Preference Shares) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Co-Issuers, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager or any of their respective Affiliates; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Preference Shares reflect those in relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) if the purchaser is acting for the account of another investor, the purchaser represents that the investment on behalf of such account is based on a determination that the investment is suitable based on the risks referred to in this Offering Memorandum (including, without limitation, the "Risk Factors" and the "Transfer Restrictions Applicable to the Preference Shares"), given the investment objectives of the account for which the purchase is being made, and that the investment is consistent with any applicable legal requirements; (vii) the purchaser is purchasing the Preference Shares with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and it is capable of assuming and willing to assume (financially and otherwise) those risks; and (viii) the purchaser is a sophisticated investor.

(6) If the purchaser is acquiring the Preference Shares pursuant to paragraph (1)(A) above, (A) the purchaser and each account for which the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares is (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, (B) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) is acquiring the Preference Shares as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (C) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Preference Shares (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee), (D) to the extent the purchaser or any account for which the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares is a private investment company formed before April 30, 1996, the purchaser or such account has received the necessary consent from its beneficial owners, (E) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) agrees that it shall not hold such Preference Shares for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Preference Shares or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the dividends or other distributions on the Preference Shares (except when each person is (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee) and (F) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Preference Shares to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph shall be null and void ab initio.

(7) (i) The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares (A) will be represented by either one or more Certificated Preference Shares or Regulation S Global Preference Shares which will bear the legend substantially in the form set forth below unless the Issuer determines otherwise in accordance with applicable law, and (B) (i) in the case of Preference Shares represented by an interest in a Certificated Preference Share, may only be resold, pledged or transferred to (x) non-U.S. Persons or (y) U.S. Persons that are either Qualified Institutional Buyers or Accredited Investors and either (a) Qualified Purchasers, (b) Knowledgeable Employees or (c) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees and (ii) in the case of Preference Shares represented by an interest in a Regulation S Global Preference Share, may not at any time be held by or on behalf of any person that is a U.S. Person. The purchaser understands that before the Preference Shares represented by an interest in Certificated Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred, the transferee will be required to provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Issuer with a written certification as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE “SECURITIES ACT”), AND THE ISSUER HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED (THE “INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT”). THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED, EXCEPT (A)(1) TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER, IN A TRANSACTION MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF RULE 144A SO LONG AS THE PREFERENCE SHARES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR RESALE IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 144A, (2) TO AN ACCREDITED INVESTOR (AS DEFINED IN RULE 501(a) UNDER REGULATION D UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) IN A TRANSACTION EXEMPT FROM REGISTRATION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, OR (3) TO A NON-U.S. PERSON IN AN OFFSHORE TRANSACTION IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 903 OR RULE 904 OF REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT AND, IN THE CASE OF CLAUSES (1) AND (2), TO A PURCHASER THAT (X) IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 3(C)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT THAT WAS NOT FORMED FOR THE PURPOSE OF INVESTING IN THE ISSUER (EXCEPT WHEN EACH BENEFICIAL OWNER OF THE PURCHASER IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER OR KNOWLEDGEABLE EMPLOYEE) THAT HAS RECEIVED THE NECESSARY CONSENT FROM ITS BENEFICIAL OWNERS WHEN THE PURCHASER IS A PRIVATE INVESTMENT COMPANY FORMED ON OR BEFORE APRIL 30, 1996, (Y) IS A KNOWLEDGEABLE EMPLOYEE (AS DEFINED IN RULE 3C-5 UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT) WITH RESPECT TO THE ISSUER OR (Z) IS AN ENTITY OWNED EXCLUSIVELY BY QUALIFIED PURCHASERS AND/OR KNOWLEDGEABLE EMPLOYEES, (B) IN EACH CASE, IN A NUMBER OF NOT LESS THAN 100 PREFERENCE SHARES FOR THE PURCHASER AND FOR EACH SUCH ACCOUNT FOR WHICH IT IS ACTING, AND (C) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER APPLICABLE JURISDICTION. EACH TRANSFEROR OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST THEREIN WILL PROVIDE NOTICE OF THE TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS AS SET FORTH HEREIN TO ITS PURCHASER. EACH PURCHASER OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE (OR WILL BE DEEMED TO MAKE) THE APPLICABLE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS. ANY TRANSFER IN VIOLATION OF THE FOREGOING WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT, WILL BE VOID AB INITIO, AND WILL NOT OPERATE TO TRANSFER ANY RIGHTS TO THE TRANSFEREE, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRARY TO THE ISSUER, THE PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENT OR ANY INTERMEDIARY. IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING, THE ISSUER MAINTAINS THE RIGHT TO RESELL ANY PREFERENCE SHARES PREVIOUSLY TRANSFERRED TO NON-PERMITTED U.S. HOLDERS (AS DEFINED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS) IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

THE FAILURE TO PROVIDE THE ISSUER AND ANY PAYING AGENT, WHENEVER REQUESTED BY THE ISSUER OR THE PORTFOLIO MANAGER ON BEHALF OF THE ISSUER, WITH THE APPLICABLE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CERTIFICATIONS (GENERALLY, AN INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-9 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS A "UNITED STATES PERSON" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE OR AN APPROPRIATE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-8 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS NOT A "UNITED STATES PERSON" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE) SHALL RESULT IN THE IMPOSITION OF U.S. FEDERAL BACK-UP WITHHOLDING FROM PAYMENTS TO THE HOLDER IN RESPECT OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY.

(ii) In addition, each Certificated Preference Share will contain the following additional legend:

EACH TRANSFEREE WILL BE REQUIRED TO DELIVER A TRANSFEREE CERTIFICATE IN A FORM PRESCRIBED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

(iii) In addition, each Regulation S Global Preference Share will contain the following additional legend:

EACH TRANSFEREE OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY WILL, IF REQUIRED BY THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS, BE REQUIRED TO DELIVER A TRANSFEREE CERTIFICATE IN A FORM PRESCRIBED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS OR WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE MADE THE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

(iv) In addition, each Regulation S Global Preference Share will also contain the following additional legend:

UNLESS THIS CERTIFICATE IS PRESENTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF THE DEPOSITORY TRUST COMPANY (“DTC”) TO THE SHARE REGISTRAR FOR REGISTRATION OF TRANSFER OR PAYMENT, AND ANY CERTIFICATE ISSUED IS REGISTERED IN THE NAME OF CEDE & CO. OR IN SUCH OTHER NAME AS IS REQUESTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF DTC (AND ANY PAYMENT MADE TO CEDE & CO. OR TO SUCH OTHER ENTITY AS IS REQUESTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF DTC), ANY TRANSFER, PLEDGE OR OTHER USE HEREOF FOR VALUE OR OTHERWISE BY OR TO ANY PERSON IS WRONGFUL INASMUCH AS THE REGISTERED OWNER HEREOF, CEDE & CO., HAS AN INTEREST HEREIN.

(8) The purchaser will provide notice to each Person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Preference Shares of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Preference Share Documents, including the exhibits referenced in the Preference Share Documents.

(9) The purchaser understands that the Preference Share Documents permit the Issuer to compel any holder of the Preference Shares who is a U.S. Person and who is determined not to have been both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or Accredited Investor and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, at the time of acquisition of the Preference Shares to sell such Preference Shares, or to sell such Preference Shares on behalf of such purchaser, to a person that is both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or Accredited Investor and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act or to a person that is a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction meeting the requirements of Regulation S. The purchaser also understands that any transfer to an Accredited Purchaser may require delivery of an opinion of counsel evidencing that such transfer may be made pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Securities Act, as described in the Preference Share Documents.

(10) The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Preference Shares or possession or distribution of the offering memorandum with respect thereto or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Preference Shares in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the offering memorandum relating to the Preference Shares shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Preference Shares in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.

(11) The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Preference Shares, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase the beneficial interest in the Preference Shares from any Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its beneficial interest in the Preference Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.

(12) The purchaser understands that the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date of the Preference Shares is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of Securities at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.

(13) The purchaser understands that in the case of any vote to remove the Portfolio Manager, the Management Agreement permits the Portfolio Manager to purchase the beneficial interest in the Preference Shares from any Holder of Preference Shares that voted to remove the Portfolio Manager at the applicable Buy-Out Amount; and such Holder of Preference Shares will be required to sell its beneficial interest in the Preference Shares to the Portfolio Manager at such price.

(14) The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Preference Shares by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.

(15) The purchaser agrees to treat the Preference Shares as equity of the Issuer for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, if applicable.

(16) The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the Placement Agents and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Preference Shares are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and the Placement Agents. If it is acquiring any Preference Shares as a fiduciary or agent for one or more institutional accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

(17) The purchaser, if not a U.S. Person, either (i) is not a bank (within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code) or an Affiliate of a bank or (ii) is a person (or a wholly owned Affiliate of a person) that is eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates United States federal income taxation of United States source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States.

(18) To the extent required by the Issuer, as determined by the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Share Registrar, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Preference Shares to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the U.S. Patriot Act) and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Preference Share to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.

(19) The purchaser agrees to not cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.

(20) The purchaser is not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.

(21) The purchaser understands that, prior to any sale or other transfer of any interest in Preference Shares held in the form of a Certificated Preference Share, it (or the transferee, as applicable) will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent a duly executed transfer certificate substantially in the form provided in the Preference Share Documents and such other certificates and other information as they may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed transfer complies with the restrictions in the legend placed on each certificate representing the Preference Shares and in the Preference Share Documents.

(22) The purchaser understands and agrees that (a) no purchase or transfer of the Preference Shares to a purchaser or transferee that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan

Investor or a Controlling Person (each as defined under United States Department of Labor Regulations, 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101) will be effective, and the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent will not recognize or register such purchase or transfer, if such purchase or transfer would result in (i) Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Components) (determined pursuant to 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents) or (ii) a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law) and (b) except for initial purchases from the Issuer in the initial offering, no purchase or transfer of the Preference Shares may be made by or to a purchaser or transferee that wishes to take delivery in the form of a Regulation S Global Preference Share that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person. The purchaser or transferee further understands and agrees that any transfer in violation of the applicable provisions of the Preference Share Documents will be null and void ab initio. For purposes of the determination described in clause (a)(i) of the preceding sentence, the Preference Shares held by the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, any of their respective affiliates (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)(3)) and any other persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons will be disregarded and will not be treated as outstanding unless such person is also a Benefit Plan Investor. The purchaser's acquisition, holding and disposition of the Preference Shares will not result in a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law), because such purchase, holding and disposition either (a) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws or (b) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all conditions of which are and will be been satisfied throughout its holding and disposition of such Preference Shares. The purchaser and any Person causing it to acquire the Preference Shares agree, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, the Placement Agents and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage, or loss incurred by them as a result of a breach of the representations set forth in this paragraph (22), paragraph (23) and paragraph (24). If the purchaser is an insurance company investing through its general account as defined in PTCE 95-60, for so long as it holds the Preference Shares, such purchaser shall meet the requirements pertaining to the percentage of the assets of such insurance company general account that can be treated as plan assets for purposes of calculating the 25% threshold under the significant participation test of the Plan Asset Regulation (29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)).

(23) The funds that the purchaser is using or will use to purchase the Preference Shares are or are not assets of a person who is or at any time while the Preference Shares are held by the purchaser will be (A) an "employee benefit plan" as defined in Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), whether or not such plan is subject to Title I of ERISA, including, without limitation, foreign, church and governmental plans, (B) a "plan" described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") or (C) an entity whose underlying assets would be deemed to include "plan assets" of either of the foregoing by reason of the investment by an employee benefit plan or other plan in the entity within the meaning of 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101 or otherwise (the plans and persons described in clauses (A), (B) and (C) being referred to as "Benefit Plan Investors"). For purposes of making this determination, foreign benefit plans, government or church plans, Keoghs and individual retirement accounts ("IRAs") are typically considered Benefit Plan Investors.

The purchaser is or is not the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager or any other person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the assets of the Issuer, or any "affiliate" (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)(3)) of any such person (any such person, a "Controlling Person").

In addition, each transferee of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Preference Share will be deemed to represent and agree as follows:

(24) The purchaser is not, is not using the assets of, and upon its acquisition and throughout its holding and disposition of, such Preference Shares, it will not be or become or transfer any interest therein to, a Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person.

(25) The purchaser understands and agrees that (i) no purchase or transfer may be made that would result in any person or entity holding beneficial ownership in any Preference Shares in less than an authorized number as set forth in the Preference Share Documents and (ii) no purchase or transfer of the Preference Shares that would have the effect of requiring either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act will be permitted.

The term Synthetic Security shall not include any Structured Finance Obligation or any Participation, but the Reference Obligation of a Synthetic Security may be a Structured Finance Obligation.

Each Synthetic Security Agreement shall contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in the Indenture.

The ownership or disposition of any Synthetic Security (without regard to the Issuer’s other activities) must not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

Unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any “deliverable obligation” that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any “credit event” under any proposed Synthetic Security must not provide that its transfer to the Issuer is subject to obtaining any consents and must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such “deliverable obligation” is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any “credit event”) as a Collateral Obligation and satisfy the Concentration Limitations under the Indenture, except that such “deliverable obligation” may constitute a Defaulted Collateral Obligation when delivered upon a “credit event” and if the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security is a Senior Secured Loan then the “deliverable obligation” under the Synthetic Security must also be a Senior Secured Loan.

Synthetic Securities that are credit default swaps, credit linked notes, or other similar instruments may not provide for “restructuring” as a “credit event.”

For purposes of the Coverage Tests and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test, unless the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied in respect of any proposed alternative treatment, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligation.

With respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index investment providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, for purposes of: (i) calculating compliance with the Diversity Test, the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test, and the Concentration Limitations (other than limits relating to payment characteristics and except for clauses 17 and 17(a) of the definition of “Concentration Limitations”), and all related definitions, and (ii) any other provision or definition of the Indenture involving a determination with respect to a Reference Obligation, the characteristics of such Reference Obligations shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct investment by the Issuer in each such Reference Obligation in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation. In addition, each Reference Obligation under such Synthetic Security shall be assigned a Moody’s Rating Factor equal to the sum of the Moody’s Rating Factor of (i) the related Reference Obligor, (ii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty of such Synthetic Security and (iii) the Synthetic Security Collateral of such Synthetic Security. In addition, the Moody’s Priority Category Rate in respect of a Synthetic Security referencing multiple Reference Obligations pursuant to this paragraph shall be the Moody’s Priority Category Rate as assigned by Moody’s to each Reference Obligation underlying such Synthetic Security. For the avoidance of doubt, Reference Obligations upon which a Synthetic Security is based as described in this paragraph must meet the definition of “Collateral Obligation” to the extent provided in this definition.

If the Rating Condition must be satisfied to execute the purchase of any Synthetic Security, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall give each applicable Rating Agency not less than 5 days’ prior notice of the purchase of or entry into any Synthetic Security.

“Synthetic Security Agreement” means the documentation governing any Synthetic Security.

“Synthetic Security Collateral” means, respect to any Synthetic Security, amounts posted to the Synthetic Security Collateral Account by the Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its obligations under the Synthetic Security, including (i) all Eligible Investments or (ii) investments that satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to Moody’s, in each case that mature no later than the Stated Maturity, in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account that are purchased with Synthetic Security Collateral.

“Synthetic Security Counterparty” means any entity required to make payments on a Synthetic Security to the extent that a reference obligor makes payments on a related Reference Obligation.

“Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction” means one of the Cayman Islands, Bermuda, the Netherlands Antilles or the tax advantaged jurisdiction of the Channel Islands, or such other jurisdiction that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto.

“Tax Event” means an event that occurs if either:

(i) (A) one or more Collateral Obligations that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more Collateral Obligations that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them and (B) in any Due Period, the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on new withholding tax obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on increased rate withholding tax obligations, in each case to the extent not “grossed-up” (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period; or

(ii) taxes, fees, assessments, or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any twelve-month period in excess of U.S.$2,000,000, other than any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax with respect to any payment owing in respect of any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation or Collateral Obligation.

“Treasury Regulations” means regulations, including proposed or temporary regulations, promulgated under the Code. References herein to specific provisions of proposed or temporary regulations shall include analogous provisions of final Treasury Regulations or other successor Treasury Regulations.

“UCC” means the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect in the State of New York, and as amended from time to time.

“Underlying Instrument” means the loan agreement, indenture, credit agreement, or other agreement pursuant to which a Pledged Obligation has been issued or created and each other agreement that governs the terms of or secures the obligations represented by the Pledged Obligation or of which the holders of the Pledged Obligation are the beneficiaries.

“Unscheduled Principal Payments” means any principal payments received with respect to a Collateral Obligation as a result of optional redemptions, exchange offers, tender offers, other payments or prepayments made at the option of the issuer thereof or that are otherwise not scheduled to be made thereunder.

“Valuation Report” means the accounting report, determined as of the close of business on each Determination Date, rendered in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

“Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon” means, as of any Measurement Date, the rate obtained by:

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Fixed Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum rate at which it pays interest (other than, with respect to Collateral Obligations that are not PIK Securities, any interest that is not required to be paid in Cash and may be deferred), using only the effective after-tax interest rate determined by the Portfolio Manager on any Fixed Rate Obligation after taking into account any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction and any gross-up paid by the obligor);

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);

(iii) dividing the sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations that are Fixed Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, adding to the sum the amount of any Spread Excess as of the Measurement Date, but only to the extent required to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test.

“Weighted Average Life” means, as of any Measurement Date the number obtained by (i) summing the products obtained by multiplying (A) the Average Life at that time of each Collateral Obligation by (B) the Principal Balance at that time of the Collateral Obligation and (ii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance at that time of all Collateral Obligations.

“Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor” means the summation of the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation (excluding Eligible Investments) by its respective Moody’s Rating Factor, dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) and rounding the result up to the nearest whole number.

“Weighted Average Spread” means, as of any Measurement Date, a rate obtained by:

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Floating Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum overall rate at which it pays interest (other than, with respect to Collateral Obligations that are not PIK Securities, any interest that is not required to be paid in Cash and may be deferred), determined with respect to any Floating Rate Obligation that does not bear interest based on a three month London interbank offered rate, by expressing the current interest rate on the Floating Rate Obligation as a spread above a three month London interbank offered rate calculated in a manner consistent with the calculation of LIBOR;

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);

(iii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to pass the Weighted Average Spread Test, adding to that sum the amount of Fixed Rate Excess as of the Measurement Date.

For purposes of calculating the Weighted Average Spread, the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall not include any of its unfunded amount.

“Workout Assets” means a Loan, High-Yield Bond, or Qualified Equity Security acquired in connection with the workout or restructuring of any Collateral Obligation that the Issuer does not advance any funds to purchase that does not qualify as a Collateral Obligation.

“Zero-Coupon Security” means a security that, at the time of determination, does not make periodic payments of interest. A Zero-Coupon Security shall not include a security that is a PIK Security.

“Offering Memorandum” shall mean the Offering Memorandum of the Issuer dated June 27, 2005 prepared in connection with the offering of the Securities.

“Portfolio Manager Breaches” shall have the meaning specified in Section 10(a).

“Preliminary Offering Memorandum” shall mean the Preliminary Offering Memorandum for the Issuer dated May 2, 2005 prepared in connection with the offering of the Securities.

2. General Duties of the Portfolio Manager.

The Portfolio Manager shall provide services to the Issuer as follows:

(i) Subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall supervise and direct the investment and reinvestment of the Collateral, and shall perform on behalf of the Issuer those investment-related duties and functions that have been specifically delegated or assigned to the Portfolio Manager in the Indenture (and the Portfolio Manager shall have no obligation to perform any other duties other than as specified herein or under the Indenture) and, to the extent necessary or appropriate to perform such duties, the Portfolio Manager shall have the power to execute and deliver all necessary and appropriate documents and instruments on behalf of the Issuer with respect thereto, including without limitation, providing such certifications and Officer’s certificates as are required of the Portfolio Manager or the Issuer under the Indenture with respect to the permitted purchases and sales of Collateral Obligations and other securities required or permitted to be purchased or sold under the Indenture. The Portfolio Manager shall, subject to the terms and conditions hereof and of the Indenture, perform its obligations hereunder and under the Indenture (including, without limitation, its obligations in Sections 2.4 and 9.6 thereof) with reasonable care and in good faith, using a degree of skill and attention no less than that which the Portfolio Manager exercises with respect to comparable assets that it manages for others having similar investment objectives and restrictions, and in a manner consistent with practices and procedures followed by institutional managers of national standing relating to assets of the nature and character of the Collateral for clients having similar investment objectives and restrictions, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement and/or the Indenture. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager shall follow its customary standards, policies and procedures in performing its duties under the Indenture and hereunder. The Portfolio Manager shall comply with all terms and conditions of the Indenture affecting the duties and functions to be performed hereunder. The Portfolio Manager shall not be bound to follow any amendment to the Indenture until it has received written notice thereof and until it has received a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee; provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall not be bound by any amendment to the Indenture that affects the rights, duties or liabilities of the Portfolio Manager unless the Portfolio Manager shall have consented thereto in writing. The Issuer agrees that it shall not permit any amendment to the Indenture that (x) affects the rights, duties or liabilities of the Portfolio Manager or (y) affects the amount or priority of any fees payable to the Portfolio Manager to become effective unless the Portfolio Manager has been given prior written notice of such amendment and consented thereto in writing; the Portfolio Manager shall select any Collateral which shall be acquired by the Issuer pursuant to the Indenture in accordance with the investment criteria set forth therein;

the Portfolio Manager shall monitor the Collateral on an ongoing basis and provide to the Issuer all reports, certificates, schedules and other data with respect to the Collateral which the Issuer is required to prepare and deliver under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement, in the form and containing all information required thereby and in reasonable time for the Issuer to review such required reports, certificates, schedules and data and to deliver them to the parties entitled thereto under the Indenture; the Portfolio Manager shall undertake to determine to the extent reasonably practicable whether a Collateral Obligation has become a Defaulted Collateral Obligation; and the Portfolio Manager shall monitor any Hedge Agreements and direct the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer in respect of all actions to be taken thereunder by the Issuer;

the Portfolio Manager, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture may, at any time permitted under the Indenture, and shall, when required by the Indenture, direct the Trustee (i) to dispose of a Collateral Obligation, Equity Security or Eligible Investment or other securities received in respect thereof in the open market or otherwise, or (ii) to acquire, as security for the Notes in substitution for or in addition to any one or more Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments included in the Collateral, one or more substitute Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments, and may, in each case subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture, direct the Trustee to take the following actions with respect to a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment:

- (1) retain such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment;
- or
- dispose of such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment in the open market or otherwise; or
- if applicable, tender such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment pursuant to an Offer; or if applicable, consent to any proposed amendment, modification or waiver pursuant to an Offer; or retain or dispose of any securities or other property (if other than cash) received pursuant to an Offer; or waive any default with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation; or vote to accelerate the maturity of any Defaulted Collateral Obligation; or

(2) exercise any other rights or remedies with respect to such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment as provided in the related Underlying Instruments or take any other action consistent with the terms of the Indenture which is in the best interests of the Noteholders and the Holders of the Preference Shares; and subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer shall determine whether to enter into any additional hedging arrangements, increase or reduce the notional amounts of existing Hedge Agreements or terminate existing Hedge Agreements, and the Portfolio Manager shall use its reasonable efforts to cause the Issuer, promptly following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) and to the extent possible through application of funds received as a result of the early termination (including the proceeds of the liquidation of any collateral pledged by the Hedge Counterparty), to enter into a replacement Hedge Agreement.

(b) In performing its duties hereunder, the Portfolio Manager shall seek to maximize the value of the Collateral for the benefit of the Noteholders and the Holders of the Preference Shares taking into account the investment criteria and limitations set forth herein and in the Indenture and the Portfolio Manager shall use reasonable efforts to manage the Collateral in such a way that will (i) permit a timely performance of all payment obligations by the Issuer under the Indenture and (ii) subject to such objective, maximize the return to the Holders of the Preference Shares; provided, that the Portfolio Manager shall not be responsible if such objectives are not achieved so long as the Portfolio Manager performs its duties under this Agreement in the manner provided for herein, and provided, further, that there shall be no recourse to the Portfolio Manager with respect to the Notes or the Preference Shares. The Portfolio Manager and the Issuer shall take such other action, and furnish such certificates, opinions and other documents, as may be reasonably requested by the other party hereto in order to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement and to facilitate compliance with applicable laws and regulations and the terms of this Agreement.

(c) The Portfolio Manager hereby agrees to the following:

(i) The Portfolio Manager agrees not to institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings or other proceedings under federal or state bankruptcy or similar laws of any jurisdiction until at least one year and one day after the payment in full of all Notes issued under the Indenture or, if longer, the applicable period then provided by law; provided, however, that nothing in this clause (i) shall preclude, or be deemed to estop, the Portfolio Manager

(A) from taking any action prior to the expiration of such period in (x) any case or proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, or (y) any involuntary insolvency proceeding filed or commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, by a Person other than the Portfolio Manager, or (B) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any properties of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any legal action which is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, liquidation or similar proceeding.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager shall cause each sale or purchase of any Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment to be conducted on an arm's-length basis.

(d) The Portfolio Manager shall not act for the Issuer in any capacity except as provided in this Section 2. In providing services hereunder, the Portfolio Manager may employ third parties, including its Affiliates, to render advice (including investment advice) and assistance; provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall not be relieved of any of its duties or liabilities hereunder regardless of the performance of any services by third parties. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall not be required to take any action required of it pursuant to this Agreement or the Indenture if such action would constitute a violation of any law.

3. Brokerage.

The Portfolio Manager shall seek to obtain the best prices and execution for all orders placed with respect to the Collateral, considering all reasonable circumstances. Subject to the objective of obtaining best prices and execution, the Portfolio Manager may take into consideration research and other brokerage services furnished to the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates by brokers and dealers which are not Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager. Such services may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with its other advisory activities or investment operations. The Portfolio Manager may aggregate sales and purchase orders of securities placed with respect to the Collateral with similar orders being made simultaneously for other accounts managed by Portfolio Manager or with accounts of the Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager, if in the Portfolio Manager's reasonable judgment such aggregation shall result in an overall economic benefit to the Issuer, taking into consideration the advantageous selling or purchase price, brokerage commission and other expenses. In the event that a sale or purchase of a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment (in accordance with the terms of the Indenture) occurs as part of any aggregate sales or purchase orders, the objective of the Portfolio Manager (and any of its Affiliates involved in such transactions) shall be to allocate the executions among the accounts in an equitable manner.

In addition to the foregoing and subject to the provisions of Section 2 and the limitations of Section 5, the objective of obtaining best prices and execution and to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Portfolio Manager may, on behalf of the Issuer, direct the Trustee to acquire any and all of the Eligible Investments or other Collateral from, or sell Collateral Obligations or other Collateral to, the Initial Purchaser, the Trustee or any of their respective Affiliates, or any other firm.

4. Additional Activities of the Portfolio Manager.

Nothing herein shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Trustee, the Noteholders, the Holders of the Preference Shares or any other Person or entity to the extent permitted by applicable law. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager and partners, directors, officers, employees and agents of the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates may, among other things, and subject to any limits specified in the Indenture:

(a) serve as directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, partners, employees, agents, nominees or signatories for any issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates, to the extent permitted by their Governing Instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates, pursuant to their respective Governing Instruments; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on any item of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Collateral Quality Test; provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the duties of the Portfolio Manager set forth in Section 2 hereof;

(b) receive fees for services of any nature rendered to the issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on any item of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Collateral Quality Test; and provided, further that if any portion of such services are related to purchase by the Issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral, the portion of such fees relating to such obligations shall be deposited into the Collection Account; and

(c) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold an equity interest in, the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligation included in the Collateral; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on any item of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Collateral Quality Test; provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the duties of the Portfolio Manager set forth in Section 2 hereof.

It is understood that the Portfolio Manager and any of its Affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have investment policies similar to those followed by the Portfolio Manager with respect to the Collateral and which may own securities of the same class, or which are the same type, as the Collateral Obligations or other securities of the issuers of Collateral Obligations. The Portfolio Manager shall be free, in its sole discretion, to make recommendations to others, or effect transactions on behalf of itself or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Collateral.

Unless the Portfolio Manager determines in its reasonable judgment that such purchase or sale is appropriate, the Portfolio Manager may refrain from directing the purchase or sale hereunder of securities issued by (i) Persons of which the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or any of its or their officers, directors or employees are directors or officers, (ii) Persons for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliate act as financial adviser or underwriter or (iii) Persons about which the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates have information which the Portfolio Manager deems confidential or non-public or otherwise might prohibit it from trading such securities in accordance with applicable law. The Portfolio

Manager shall not be obligated to pursue any particular investment strategy or opportunity with respect to the Collateral.

5. Conflicts of Interest.

(a) The Portfolio Manager shall not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Portfolio Manager such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (iii) such transaction is permitted by the Investment Adviser's Act of 1940.

(b) The Portfolio Manager shall not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager serves as investment advisor, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager serves as investment advisor unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Portfolio Manager, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (ii) permitted by the Investment Adviser's Act of 1940.

(c) In addition, the Portfolio Manager shall not undertake any transaction described in this Section 5 unless such transaction is exempt from the prohibited transaction rules of ERISA and the Code.

6. Records; Confidentiality.

The Portfolio Manager shall maintain appropriate books of account and records relating to services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by a representative of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Share Paying Agent, the Noteholders, the Holders of the Preference Shares and the Independent accountants appointed by the Issuer pursuant to the Indenture at a mutually agreed time during normal business hours and upon not less than three Business Days' prior notice. At no time shall the Portfolio Manager make a public announcement concerning the issuance of the Notes or the Preference Shares, the Portfolio Manager's role hereunder or any other aspect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Indenture. The Portfolio Manager shall keep confidential any and all information obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder and shall not disclose any such information to non-affiliated third parties except (i) with the prior written consent of the Issuer, (ii) such information as either Rating Agency shall reasonably request in connection with the rating of the Notes, (iii) as required by law, regulation, court order or the rules or regulations of any self regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager, (iv) to its professional advisers, (v) such information as shall have been publicly disclosed other than in violation of this Agreement, or (vi) such information that was or is obtained by the Portfolio Manager on a non-confidential basis, provided, that the Portfolio Manager does not know or have reason to know of any breach by such source of any confidentiality obligations with respect thereto. For purposes of this Section 6, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Share Paying Agent, the Noteholders and the Holders of the Preference Shares shall in no event be considered "non-affiliated third parties."

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Indenture to the contrary, the Portfolio Manager and the Issuer (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) are hereby permitted to disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction, and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction.

7. Obligations of Portfolio Manager.

Unless otherwise specifically required by any provision of the Indenture or this Agreement or by applicable law, the Portfolio Manager shall use its best reasonable efforts to ensure that no action is taken by it, and shall not intentionally or with reckless disregard take any action, which would (a) materially adversely affect the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for purposes of Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state law or any other law known to the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, (b) not be permitted under the Issuer's or the Co-Issuer's respective governing instruments, (c) violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer or the Co-Issuer including, without limitation, any Cayman Islands or United States federal, state or other applicable securities law the violation of which has or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any of the Collateral, (d) require registration of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the pool of Collateral as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act, (e) cause the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to violate the terms of the Indenture, including, without limitation, any representations made by the Issuer or Co-Issuer therein, or any other agreement contemplated by the Indenture or (f) engage in any activity which would subject the Issuer's income to taxation on a net basis in any jurisdiction. The Portfolio Manager covenants that it shall comply in all material respects with all laws and regulations applicable to it in connection with the performance of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Portfolio Manager shall not be required to take any action under this Agreement or the Indenture if such action would violate any applicable law, rule, regulation or court order.

8. Compensation.

(a) The Issuer shall pay to the Portfolio Manager, for services rendered and performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Management Fee, which shall be payable in such amounts and at such times as set forth in the Indenture. The provisions of the Indenture which relate to the amount and payment of the Management Fee shall not be amended without the consent of the Portfolio Manager. If on any Payment Date there are insufficient funds to pay such fee (and/or any other amounts due and payable to the Portfolio Manager) in full, the amount not so paid shall be deferred and shall be payable with accrued interest on such later Payment Date on which funds are available therefor as provided in the definition of "Subordinated Management Fee" in the Indenture.

(b) The Portfolio Manager shall be responsible for the ordinary expenses incurred in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that any extraordinary expenses actually incurred by the Collateral Manager in the performance of such obligations (including, but not limited to, any fees, expenses or other amounts payable to the Rating Agencies, the Collateral Administrator, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the accountants appointed by the Issuer, the reasonable expenses incurred by the Portfolio Manager to employ outside lawyers or consultants reasonably necessary in connection with the evaluation, transfer or restructuring of any Collateral Obligation, any reasonable expenses incurred by the Portfolio Manager in obtaining advice from outside counsel with respect to its obligations under this Agreement, brokerage commissions, transfer fees, registration costs, taxes and other similar costs and transaction related expenses and fees arising out of transactions effected for the Issuer's account and the portion allocated to the Issuer of any other fees and expenses that the Portfolio Manager customarily allocates among all of the funds or portfolios that it manages) shall be reimbursed by the Issuer to the extent funds are available therefor in accordance with and subject to the priority of payments and the other limitations contained in the Indenture.

(c) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 12, Section 14 or otherwise, the fees payable to the Portfolio Manager shall be prorated for any partial periods between Payment Dates during which this Agreement was in effect and shall be due and payable on the first Payment Date following the date of such termination and on any subsequent Payment Dates to the extent remaining unpaid and in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Indenture.

9. Benefit of the Agreement.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that its obligations hereunder shall be enforceable at the instance of the Issuer, the Trustee, on behalf of the Noteholders, or the requisite percentage of Noteholders or Holders of Preference Shares, as applicable, as provided in the Indenture or the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement, as applicable.

10. Limits of Portfolio Manager Responsibility; Indemnification.

(a) The Portfolio Manager assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture made applicable to it pursuant to the terms of this Agreement in good faith and, subject to the standard of conduct described in the next sentence, shall not be responsible for any action of the Issuer or the Trustee in following or declining to follow any advice, recommendation or direction of the Portfolio Manager. The Portfolio Manager, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, and its Affiliates and their directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, shall not be liable to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Noteholders, the Preference Share Paying Agent, the Holders of the Preference Shares or any other person for any losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (collectively, "Liabilities") incurred by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Noteholders, the Preference Share Paying Agent, the Holders of the Preference Shares or any other person that arise out of or in connection with the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture, except by reason of (i) acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance, or reckless disregard, of the obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to it or (ii) with respect to any information included in the Offering Memorandum in the sections entitled "The Portfolio Manager" and "Risk Factors--Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest--The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interests Involving the Portfolio Manager" that contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (the preceding clauses (i) and (ii) collectively being the "Portfolio Manager Breaches").

For the avoidance of doubt, (x) the Portfolio Manager shall have no duty to independently investigate any laws not otherwise known to it in connection with its obligations under this Agreement and the Indenture and (y) the Portfolio Manager shall be deemed to have satisfied Section 7(f) with respect to U.S. federal or state income taxes if (i) the Portfolio Manager acts consistently with the Collateral Acquisition Agreement with respect to Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments and (ii) the Portfolio Manager does not have actual knowledge that its actions with respect to a Collateral Obligation or an Eligible Investment would violate Section 7(f).

(b) The Issuer shall indemnify and hold harmless (the Issuer in such case, the “Indemnifying Party”) the Portfolio Manager, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees (such parties collectively in such case, the “Indemnified Parties”) from and against any and all Liabilities, and shall reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) (collectively, the “Expenses”) as such Expenses are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the “Actions”), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with, the issuance of the Securities, the transactions contemplated by the Offering Memorandum, the Indenture or this Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided, however, that no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions by any Indemnified Party constituting Portfolio Manager Breaches. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer under this Section 10 shall be payable solely out of the Collateral in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Indenture and shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(c) With respect to any claim made or threatened against an Indemnified Party, or compulsory process or request or other notice of any loss, claim, damage or liability served upon an Indemnified Party, for which such Indemnified Party is or may be entitled to indemnification under this Section 10, such Indemnified Party shall (or with respect to Indemnified Parties that are directors, officers, stockholders, agents or employees of the Portfolio Manager, the Portfolio Manager shall cause such Indemnified Party to):

(i) give written notice to the Indemnifying Party of such claim within ten (10) days after such Indemnified Party’s receipt of actual notice that such claim is made or threatened, which notice to the Indemnifying Party shall specify in reasonable detail the nature of the claim and the amount (or an estimate of the amount) of the claim; provided, however, that the failure of any Indemnified Party to provide such notice to the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under this Section 10 unless the Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced or otherwise forfeits rights or defenses by reason of such failure;

(ii) at the Indemnifying Party’s expense, provide the Indemnifying Party such information and cooperation with respect to such claim as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require, including, but not limited to, making appropriate personnel available to the Indemnifying Party at such reasonable times as the Indemnifying Party may request;

(iii) at the Indemnifying Party’s expense, cooperate and take all such steps as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request to preserve and protect any defense to such claim;

(iv) in the event suit is brought with respect to such claim, upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, which the Indemnifying Party may exercise in its sole discretion and at its expense, to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement of such claim;

(v) neither incur any material expense to defend against nor release or settle any such claim or make any admission with respect thereto (other than routine or incontestable admissions or factual admissions the failure to make which would expose such Indemnified Party to uninsured liability) nor permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof, in each case without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party; and

(vi) upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, in its sole discretion and at its sole expense, to assume the defense of such claim, including, but not limited to, the right to designate counsel reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party and to control all negotiations, litigation, arbitration, settlements, compromises and appeals of such claim; provided, that if the Indemnifying Party assumes the defense of such claim, it shall not be liable for any fees and expenses of counsel for any Indemnified Party incurred thereafter in connection with such claim except that if such Indemnified Party reasonably determines that counsel designated by the Indemnifying Party has a conflict of interest in connection with its representation of such Indemnified Party, such Indemnifying Party shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of one counsel (in addition to any local counsel) separate from its own counsel for all Indemnified Parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances; provided, further, that prior to entering into any final settlement or compromise, such Indemnifying Party shall seek the consent of the Indemnified Party and use its commercially reasonable efforts in the light of the then prevailing circumstances (including, without limitation, any express or implied time constraint on any pending settlement offer) to obtain the consent of such Indemnified Party as to the terms of settlement or compromise. If an Indemnified Party does not consent to the settlement or compromise within a reasonable time under the circumstances, the Indemnifying Party shall not thereafter be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Party for any amount in excess of such proposed settlement or compromise.

(d) In the event that any Indemnified Party waives its right to indemnification hereunder, the Indemnifying Party shall not be entitled to appoint counsel to represent such Indemnified Party nor shall the Indemnifying Party reimburse such Indemnified Party for any costs of counsel to such Indemnified Party.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, nothing herein shall in any way constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Issuer, the Holders of Notes or Preference Shares may have under any U.S. federal securities laws.

11. No Partnership or Joint Venture.

The Issuer and the Portfolio Manager are not partners or joint venturers with each other and nothing herein shall be construed to make them such partners or joint venturers or impose any liability as such on either of them. The Portfolio Manager's relation to the Issuer shall be deemed to be that of an independent contractor.

12. Term; Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall commence as of the date first set forth above and shall continue in force and effect until the first of the following occurs: (i) the payment in full of the Notes, the termination of the Indenture in accordance with its terms and the redemption in full of the Preference Shares; (ii) the liquidation of the Collateral and the final distribution of the proceeds of such liquidation to the Noteholders and the Preference Share Paying Agent; or (iii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with subsection (b), (c), (d) or (e) of this Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement.

Subject to Section 12(f) below, the Portfolio Manager may resign, upon 90 days' written notice to the Issuer (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer). If the Portfolio Manager resigns, the Issuer agrees to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager to assume such duties and obligations.

Subject to Section 12(f) below, the Portfolio Manager may be removed without cause upon 90 days' prior written notice by the Issuer, at the direction of the Holders of a Super Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Preference Shares (excluding Preference Shares held by the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or any account for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority at the time of such vote); provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to avoid any such removal if, on or prior to the proposed removal date the following conditions are satisfied: (i) the Portfolio Manager provides written notice, not less than 20 Business Days prior to the proposed removal date, to the Holders of the Composite Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to Holders of Preference Shares), the Issuer and the Trustee that the Portfolio Manager intends to purchase not less than all of the Preference Shares voting for such removal from the Holders thereof (the "Directing Preference Shares" and all of the securities relating to the Preference Share Components which constitute a part of the Directing Preference Shares), (ii) in the notice provided to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to Holders of Preference Shares) in the preceding clause (i), the Portfolio Manager includes a statement to the effect that each Holder of Preference Share (including each Holder of a Composite Security in respect of Preference Share Components) who did not vote for removal may provide written notice to the Portfolio Manager not later than 5 Business Days prior to the proposed removal date that the Preference Shares or Preference Share Components, as applicable, held by such Holder shall be deemed to be included in the Directing Preference Shares as provided in the preceding clause (i), and (iii) the Portfolio Manager effects the purchase of not less than all of the Directing Preference Shares and all of the Composite Securities relating to the Preference Share Components which form a part of the Directing Preference Shares at the Buy-out Amount. If all of the conditions set forth in the preceding sentence are satisfied on or prior to the proposed removal date, the Portfolio Manager shall continue as the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement. For purposes of this Section 12(c), "Buy-out Amount" means, with respect to the (i) Directing Preference Shares, an amount, when taken together with all payments and distributions made in respect of such Directing Preference Shares since the Closing Date, would cause the Directing Preference Shares to have received (as of the date of the Portfolio Manager's purchase thereof) a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return of 15% (assuming such purchase date was a "Payment Date" under the Indenture), (ii) the Class 1 Composite Securities, the sum of (x) the amount that would be payable pursuant to the preceding clause (i) in respect of the Preference Shares underlying the Class 1 Composite Security Preference Share Component and (y) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class D-2 Notes underlying the Note Component plus all accrued and unpaid interest (including Deferred Interest, if any) to the date of purchase and (iii) the Class 2 Composite Securities, the sum of (x) the amount that would be payable pursuant to the preceding clause (i) in respect of the Preference Shares underlying the Class 2 Composite Security Preference Share Component and (y) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes underlying the Note Component plus all accrued and unpaid interest (including Deferred Interest, if any) to the date of purchase.

(b) This Agreement shall be automatically terminated in the event that the Issuer determines in good faith that the Issuer or the pool of Collateral has become required to be registered under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, and the Issuer notifies the Portfolio Manager thereof.

(c) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 12, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other, except as provided in Sections 2(c)(i), 8, 10 and 15 of this Agreement.

(d) No removal, termination or resignation of the Portfolio Manager shall be effective unless (i) at the written direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer appoints a successor Portfolio Manager that has agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture and (ii) the successor Portfolio Manager is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single Class (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates)); provided, that if a Majority of the Preference Shares has nominated two or more successor Portfolio Managers that have been objected to pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding sentence or has otherwise failed to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager that is not objected to pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding sentence within 60 days of the date of notice of such removal, termination or resignation of the Portfolio Manager, then any Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes or the Trustee may petition a court of competent authority to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager. In addition, any successor Portfolio Manager must be an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager hereunder, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as Portfolio Manager hereunder, as successor to the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder and under the applicable terms of the Indenture, (iii) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of Collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, (iv) shall perform its duties as Portfolio Manager under this Agreement and the Indenture without causing the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any Holder of Preference Shares to become subject to tax in any jurisdiction where such successor Portfolio Manager is established as doing business and (v) each Rating Agency has confirmed that the appointment of such successor Portfolio Manager shall not cause its then-current rating of any Class of Notes or Composite Securities to be reduced or withdrawn. No compensation payable to a successor from payments on the Collateral shall be greater than that paid to the Portfolio Manager without the prior written consent of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes, a Majority of the Notes and a Majority of the Preference Shares. The Issuer, the Trustee and the successor Portfolio Manager shall take such action (or cause the retiring Portfolio Manager to take such action) consistent with this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, as shall be necessary to effectuate any such succession.

(e) In the event of removal of the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement, the Issuer shall have all of the rights and remedies available with respect thereto at law or equity, and, without limiting the foregoing, the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, the Trustee may by notice in writing to the Portfolio Manager as provided under this Agreement terminate all the rights and obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement (except those that survive termination pursuant to Section 12(e) above). Upon expiration of the applicable notice period with respect to termination specified in this Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement, as applicable, all authority and power of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement, whether with respect to the Collateral or otherwise, shall automatically and without further action by any person or entity pass to and be vested in the successor Portfolio Manager upon the appointment thereof.

13. Delegation; Assignments.

This Agreement, and any obligations or duties of the Portfolio Manager hereunder, shall not be delegated by the Portfolio Manager, in whole or in part, except to any entity that is both (i) controlled by two or more of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers and (ii) one in which two or more of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers (or any Approved Replacement thereof) is involved in the day to day management and operations (and in any such case pursuant to an instrument of delegation in form and substance satisfactory to the Issuer), without the prior written consent of the Issuer, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes and a Majority of the Preference Shares (excluding Preference Shares held by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates), and, notwithstanding any such consent, no delegation of obligations or duties by the Portfolio Manager (including, without limitation, to an entity described above) shall relieve the Portfolio Manager from any liability hereunder.

Subject to Section 12, any assignment of this Agreement to any Person, in whole or in part, by the Portfolio Manager shall be deemed null and void unless (i) such assignment is consented to in writing by the Issuer, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes and the Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares (excluding Preference Shares held by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates) and (ii) the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to any such assignment. Any assignment consented to by the Issuer and such Noteholders and Holders of Preference Shares shall bind the assignee hereunder in the same manner as the Portfolio Manager is bound. In addition, the assignee shall execute and deliver to the Issuer and the Trustee a counterpart of this Agreement naming such assignee as Portfolio Manager. Upon the execution and delivery of such a counterpart by the assignee and consent thereto by the Issuer, such Noteholders and such Holders of the Preference Shares, the Portfolio Manager shall be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement, except with respect to its obligations arising under Section 10 of this Agreement prior to such assignment and except with respect to its obligations under Sections 2(c)(i) and 15 hereof. This Agreement shall not be assigned by the Issuer without the prior written consent of the Portfolio Manager and the Trustee, except in the case of assignment by the Issuer to (i) an entity which is a successor to the Issuer permitted under the Indenture, in which case such successor organization shall be bound hereunder and by the terms of said assignment in the same manner as the Issuer is bound thereunder or (ii) the Trustee as contemplated by the Indenture. In the event of any assignment by the Issuer, the Issuer shall cause its successor to execute and deliver to the Portfolio Manager such documents as the Portfolio Manager shall consider reasonably necessary to effect fully such assignment. The Portfolio Manager hereby consents to the matters set forth in Article 15 of the Indenture.

14. Termination by the Issuer for Cause.

Subject to Section 12(f) above, this Agreement shall be terminated, and the Portfolio Manager shall be removed, by the Issuer, if directed by the Trustee or a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or by a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares (excluding any Preference Shares held by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates), in each case for cause upon 10 days' prior written notice to the Portfolio Manager and upon written notice to the Noteholders and the Holders of the Preference Shares as set forth below. For purposes of determining "cause" with respect to any such termination of this Agreement, such term shall mean any one of the following events:

(a) the Portfolio Manager willfully breaches in any respect, or takes any action that it knows violates in any respect, any provision of this Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it;

(b) the Portfolio Manager breaches in any material respect any provision of this Agreement or any terms of the Indenture or the Collateral Administration Agreement applicable to it, or any representation, warranty, certification or statement given in writing by the Portfolio Manager shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect when made or given, and the Portfolio Manager fails to cure such breach or take such action so that the facts (after giving effect to such action) conform in all material respects to such representation, warranty, certificate or statement, in each case within 30 days of becoming aware of, or receiving notice from, the Trustee of, such breach or materially incorrect representation, warranty, certificate or statement;

(c) the Portfolio Manager is wound up or dissolved (other than a dissolution in which the remaining members elect to continue the business of the Portfolio Manager in accordance

(d) the occurrence of any Event of Default under the Indenture that results from any breach by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under the Indenture or this Agreement, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period; or

(e) (x) the occurrence of an act by the Portfolio Manager related to its activities in any securities, financial advisory or other investment business that constitutes fraud, (y) the Portfolio Manager being indicted, or any of its principals being convicted, of a felony criminal offense related to its activities in any securities, financial advisory or other investment business or (z) the Portfolio Manager being indicted for, adjudged liable in a civil suit for, or convicted of a violation of the Securities Act or any other United States Federal securities law or any rules or regulations thereunder; or

(f) a Change of Control shall occur with respect to the Portfolio Manager.

If any of the events specified in this Section 14 shall occur, the Portfolio Manager shall give prompt written notice thereof to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Share Paying Agent and the Holders of all outstanding Notes and Preference Shares upon the Portfolio Manager's becoming aware of the occurrence of such event. A Super Majority of Controlling Class of Notes and a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares (excluding any Preference Shares held by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates) may, acting together, waive any event described above as a basis for termination of this Agreement and removal of the Portfolio Manager under this Section 14.

(a) From and after the effective date of termination of this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall not be entitled to compensation for further services hereunder, but shall be paid all compensation accrued to the date of termination, as provided in Section 8 hereof, and shall be entitled to receive any amounts owing under Section 10 hereof. Upon the effective date of termination of this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall as soon as practicable:

(i) deliver to the Issuer all property and documents of the Trustee or the Issuer or otherwise relating to the Collateral then in the custody of the Portfolio Manager; and

The Portfolio Manager agrees that the payment of all amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture shall be due and payable only in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Indenture and only to the extent funds are available for such payments in accordance with such priorities.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

Limitation of Liabilities.

The Issuer's obligations hereunder are solely the corporate obligations of the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager shall not have any recourse to any of the directors, officers, shareholders, members or incorporators of the Issuer with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby, except for any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations caused by the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such directors, officers, shareholders, members or incorporators of the Issuer. The obligations of the Issuer hereunder shall be limited to the net proceeds of the Collateral, if any, and following realization of the Collateral and its application in accordance with the Indenture, any outstanding obligations of the Issuer hereunder shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. "Credit Risk Obligation": Any Collateral Obligation (other than a Defaulted Collateral Obligation) that, in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Portfolio Manager, has a significant risk of declining in credit quality and, with a lapse of time, becoming a Defaulted Collateral Obligation.

So long as a Credit Rating Event is in effect, no Collateral Obligation shall be eligible to be a Credit Risk Obligation unless in addition to the above, as of the date of determination:

- (i) the Collateral Obligation has been downgraded or has been put on credit watch list with the potential for developing negative credit implications by either of the Rating Agencies since the date the Issuer first acquired the Collateral Obligation under this Indenture,
- (ii) such Collateral Obligation has experienced an increase in credit spread of (A) 0.25% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such increase) less than or equal to 2.00%, (B) 0.375% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such increase) greater than 2.00% but less than or equal to 4.00% or (C) 0.50% or more (on an absolute rather than a relative basis) in the case of a Collateral Obligation with a spread (prior to such increase) greater than 4.00%, in each case compared to the credit spread at the time such Collateral Obligation was acquired by the Issuer, determined by reference to an applicable index selected by the Portfolio Manager (such index selection subject to satisfaction of the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's),
- (iii) (x) in the case of a Loan, the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation has decreased by at least 2.50% from the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation as of its date of acquisition, as determined by the Portfolio Manager, and (y) in the case of a Bond, the Market Value of such Collateral Obligation has changed since its date of acquisition by a percentage more negative, or less positive, as the case may be, than the percentage change in the Merrill Lynch US High Yield Master II Index, Bloomberg ticker H0A0, less 3.00%, over the same period, or

- (v) the Portfolio Manager has designated in writing to the Trustee the Collateral Obligation as a Current-Pay Obligation.

If the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that would otherwise be Current-Pay Obligations exceeds 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount, all or a portion of one or more Collateral Obligations that would otherwise be Current-Pay Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance equal to the amount of the excess shall not be Current-Pay Obligations (and will therefore be Defaulted Collateral Obligations). The Portfolio Manager shall designate in writing to the Trustee the Collateral Obligations that shall not be Current-Pay Obligations pursuant to the preceding sentence as the Collateral Obligations (or portions thereof) that have the lowest Market Value on any applicable date of determination.

case the Collateral Obligation shall cease to be classified as a Defaulted Collateral Obligation and (3) the Portfolio Manager, provided that the related Collateral Obligation has not been downgraded after the default on such Other Indebtedness has occurred, determines (in its commercially reasonable judgment) that such Other Indebtedness is material;

In addition, each Reference Obligation under such Synthetic Security shall be assigned a Moody's Rating Factor equal to the sum of the Moody's Rating Factor of (i) the related Reference Obligor, (ii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty of such Synthetic Security and (iii) the Synthetic Security Collateral of such Synthetic Security. In addition, the Moody's Priority Category Rate in respect of a Synthetic Security referencing multiple Reference Obligations pursuant to this paragraph shall be the Moody's Priority Category Rate as assigned by Moody's to each Reference Obligation underlying such Synthetic Security. For the avoidance of doubt, Reference Obligations upon which a Synthetic Security is based as described in this paragraph must meet the definition of "Collateral Obligation" to the extent provided in this definition.

(ii) taxes, fees, assessments, or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any twelve-month period in excess of U.S.$2,000,000, other than any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax with respect to any payment owing in respect of any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation or Collateral Obligation.

"Weighted Average Spread Test": A test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Weighted Average Spread.

"Workout Assets": A Loan, High-Yield Bond, or Qualified Equity Security acquired in connection with the workout or restructuring of any Collateral Obligation that the Issuer does not advance any funds to purchase that does not qualify as a Collateral Obligation.

"Written-Down Obligation": As of any date of determination, any Structured Finance Obligation as to which the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, has been notified by the issuer of the Structured Finance Obligation that the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Structured Finance Obligation and all other Structured Finance Obligations secured by the same pool of collateral that rank pari passu with or senior in priority of payment to the Structured Finance Obligation exceeds the aggregate principal balance (including reserved interest or other amounts available for overcollateralization) of all collateral securing the Structured Finance Obligation and such other pari passu and senior Structured Finance Obligations (excluding defaulted collateral).

"Zero-Coupon Security": A security that, at the time of determination, does not make periodic payments of interest. A Zero-Coupon Security shall not include a security that is a PIK Security.

Section 1.2. Assumptions as to Pledged Obligations; Construction Conventions.

This Section 1.2 shall be applied in connection with all calculations required to be made pursuant to this Indenture:

- with respect to the scheduled payment of principal or interest on any Pledged Obligation, or any payments on any other assets included in the Collateral,
- with respect to the sale of and reinvestment in Collateral Obligations,
- with respect to the income that can be earned on the scheduled payment of principal or interest on the Pledged Obligations and on any other amounts that may be received for deposit in the Collection Account, and
- with respect to the treatment of Collateral Obligations loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement.

The provisions of this Section 1.2 shall be applicable to any determination or calculation that is covered by this Section 1.2, whether or not reference is specifically made to Section 1.2, unless some other method of calculation or determination is expressly specified in the particular provision.

(a) All calculations with respect to the scheduled payment of principal or interest on the Pledged Obligations shall be made on the basis of information as to the terms of each Pledged Obligation and on reports of payments received on the Pledged Obligation that are furnished by or on behalf of the issuer of the Pledged Obligation and, to the extent they are not manifestly in error, the information or report may be conclusively relied on in making the calculations.

(b) For each Due Period and as of any Measurement Date, the scheduled payment of principal or interest on any Pledged Obligation shall be the sum of

(i) the total amount of payments and collections reasonably expected to be received during the Due Period in respect of the Pledged Obligation that, if paid as scheduled, will be available for payment on the Notes and of certain expenses of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer in the Collection Account at the end of the Due Period; and

(ii) any such amounts received in prior Due Periods that were not disbursed on a previous Payment Date.

Except as provided in paragraph (h) below, a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation shall be assumed to have a scheduled payment of principal and interest of zero.

The total amount of payments and collections reasonably expected to be received includes the proceeds of the sale of the Pledged Obligation received and, in the case of sales which have not yet settled, to be received during the Due Period and not reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty, Securities Lending Counterparty, or Hedge Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security, Securities Lending Agreement, or Hedge Agreement) or Eligible Investments or retained in the Collection Account for subsequent reinvestment pursuant to Section 12.2.

(c) For purposes of the applicable determinations required by Article 12 and the definition of "Interest Coverage Ratio," the expected interest on Collateral Obligations shall be calculated using their then current interest rates.

(d) With respect to any Collateral Obligation, the date on which it "matures" (or its "maturity" date) shall be the earlier of

(i) the stated maturity of the obligation or

(ii) if the Issuer has the right to require the issuer or obligor of the Collateral Obligation to purchase, redeem, or retire the Collateral Obligation at a price of at least par on any one or more dates before its Stated Maturity (a "put right") and the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that it will cause the Issuer to direct the Trustee to exercise the put right on a date, the maturity date shall be the date specified in the certification.

(e) For purposes of calculating compliance with the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), the Coverage Tests, and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the Reference Obligation. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limits other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligations.

(f) Any Collateral Obligation loaned to a Securities Lending Counterparty shall be included in the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests, and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test and the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation loaned to a Securities Lending Counterparty shall be included in the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations, in each case unless an "event of default" (under and as defined in the related Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing.

(g) If a Class of Notes ceases to be Outstanding, then any Coverage Test computed by reference to the Class of Notes (but not to any subordinate Class of Notes then Outstanding) shall cease to be of any force.

(h) For purposes of calculating compliance with the Eligibility Criteria (other than the Weighted Average Life Test), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager by notice to the Trustee, during the Reinvestment Period any Eligible Investment representing Principal Proceeds received upon the maturity, redemption, sale, or other disposition of a Collateral Obligation (or, after the Reinvestment Period, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations) shall be deemed to have the characteristics of the disposed Collateral Obligation until reinvested in an additional Collateral Obligation. The calculations shall be based on the Principal Balance of the disposed Collateral Obligations except in the case of Defaulted Collateral Obligations and Credit Risk Securities, in which case the calculations will be based on the Principal Proceeds received on the disposition or sale of the Defaulted Collateral Obligation or Credit Risk Obligation.

(i) The calculation on any Coverage Test on any Determination Date shall be made by giving effect to all payments to be made pursuant to all subclauses of the Priority of Payments as applicable, payable on the Payment Date following such Determination Date. In addition no Principal Proceeds will be used to pay a subordinated Class on a Payment Date if, after giving effect to such payment, any Coverage Test of a more senior Class of Notes is failing on such Payment Date or would fail as a result of such application of the Principal Proceeds on such Payment Date.

Section 1.3. Rules of Interpretation.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture or unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) Defined terms include, as appropriate, all genders and the plural as well as the singular.

(b) References to designated articles, sections, subsections, exhibits, and other subdivisions of this Indenture, such as "Section 6.12 (a)," refer to the designated article, section, subsection, exhibit, or other subdivision of this Indenture as a whole and to all subdivisions of the designated article, section, subsection, exhibit, or other subdivision. The words "herein," "hereof," "hereto," "hereunder," and other words of similar import refer to this Indenture as a whole and not to any particular article, section, exhibit, or other subdivision of this Indenture.

(c) Any term that relates to a document or a statute, rule, or regulation includes any amendments, modifications, supplements, or any other changes that may have occurred since the document, statute, rule, or regulation came into being, including changes that occur after the date of this Indenture. References to law are not limited to statutes. Any reference to any person includes references to its successors and assigns.

(d) Any party may execute any of the requirements under this Indenture either directly or through others, and the right to cause something to be done rather than doing it directly shall be implicit in every requirement under this Indenture. Unless a provision is restricted as to time or limited as to frequency, all provisions under this Indenture are implicitly available and things may happen from time to time.

(e) The term "including" and all its variations mean "including but not limited to." Except when used in conjunction with the word "either," the word "or" is always used inclusively (for example, the phrase "A or B" means "A or B or both," not "either A or B but not both").

(f) A reference to "a thing" or "any of a thing" does not imply the existence or occurrence of the thing referred to even though not followed by "if any," and "any of a thing" is any and all of it. A reference to the plural of anything as to which there could be either one or more than one does not imply the existence of more than one (for instance, the phrase "the obligors on a note" means "the obligor or obligors on a note"). "Until something occurs" does not imply that it must occur, and will not be modified by the word "unless." The word "due" and the word "payable" are each used in the sense that the stated time for payment has passed. The word "accrued" is used in its accounting sense, i.e., an amount paid is no longer accrued. In the calculation of amounts of things, differences and sums may generally result in negative numbers, but when the calculation of the excess of one thing over another results in zero or a negative number, the calculation is disregarded and an "excess" does not exist. Portions of things may be expressed as fractions or percentages interchangeably. The word "shall" is used in its imperative sense, as for instance meaning a party agrees to something or something must occur or exist.

(g) All accounting terms used in an accounting context and not otherwise defined, and accounting terms partly defined in this Indenture, to the extent not completely defined, shall be construed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. To the extent that the definitions of accounting terms in this Indenture are inconsistent with their meanings under generally accepted accounting principles, the definitions contained in this Indenture shall control.

(h) In the computation of a period of time from a specified date to a later specified date or an open-ended period, the words "from" and "beginning" mean "from and including," the word "after" means "from but excluding," the words "to" and "until" mean "to but excluding," and the word "through" means "to and including." Likewise, in setting deadlines or other periods, "by" means "on or before." The words "preceding," "following," "before," "after," "next," and words of similar import, mean immediately preceding or following. References to a month or a year refer to calendar months and calendar years.

(i) Any reference to the enforceability of any agreement against a party means that it is enforceable against the party in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, and other similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights and to general equity principles.

(j) Except when only the registered holder is recognized, such as in Section 2.9., references to Noteholders, holders, and the like refer equally to beneficial owners who have an interest in a Note but are not reflected in the Indenture Register as the owner.

ARTICLE 2

THE NOTES AND THE COMPOSITE SECURITIES

Section 2.1. Forms Generally.

The Notes, the Composite Securities and the Trustee's or Authenticating Agent's certificate of authentication on them (the "Certificate of Authentication") shall be in substantially the forms required by this Article, with appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions, and other variations required or permitted by this Indenture, and may have any letters, numbers, or other marks of identification and any legends or endorsements on them that are consistent with this Indenture, as determined by the Authorized Officers of the Issuer executing the Securities as evidenced by their execution of the Securities.

(a) The Securities, including the Certificated Composite Securities, Regulation S Global Securities, Rule 144A Global Notes and Certificate of Authentication, shall be in the forms of the applicable portion of Exhibit A.

(b) Regulation S Global Securities. The Notes of each Class and the Composite Securities sold to non-U.S. persons in off-shore transactions in reliance on Regulation S shall each be represented by one or more global securities in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit A, including legends (the "Regulation S Global Securities"). The global securities shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Securities represented thereby with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depository for the respective accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream, duly executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Regulation S Global Securities may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee or the Depository or its nominee, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided. As used above and in subsection (d) below, "U.S. person" and "off-shore transaction" have the meanings assigned to them in Regulation S.

(c) Rule 144A Global Notes. The Notes of each Class initially sold to U.S. persons that are Accredited Investors and Qualified Purchasers shall each be issued initially in the form of one permanent global note per Class in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit A, including legends (each, a "Rule 144A Global Note"), which shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Notes represented thereby with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depository, duly executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Notes may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee or the Depository or its nominee, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided.

(d) Certificated Composite Securities. The Composite Securities initially sold to U.S. persons that are Accredited Investors and (i) Qualified Purchasers, (ii) Knowledgeable Employees or (iii) entities owned exclusively by Knowledgeable Employees shall be issued in the form of certificated securities in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit A (each, a "Certificated Composite Security"), which shall be registered in the name of their beneficial owner or a nominee of their beneficial owner, duly executed by the Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided.

(e) Book-Entry Provisions. This Section 2.2(e) shall apply only to Global Securities deposited with or on behalf of the Depository. The "Operating Procedures of the Euroclear System" of Euroclear and the "Terms and Conditions Governing Use of Participants" of Clearstream, respectively, shall be applicable to the Regulation S Global Securities insofar as interests in the Global Securities are held by the Agent Members of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be.

Agent Members shall have no rights under this Indenture with respect to any Global Security held on their behalf by the Trustee, as custodian for the Depository and the Depository may be treated by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, and any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee as the absolute owner of the Security for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Indenture shall prevent the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, or any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee, from giving effect to any written certification, proxy, or other authorization furnished by the Depository or impair, as between the Depository and its Agent Members, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a Holder of any Security.

Section 2.3. Authorized Amount; Denominations.

(a) The aggregate principal amount of Notes that may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to U.S.$630,000,000, except for Notes authenticated and delivered upon registration of, transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, other Notes pursuant to Section 2.6, 2.7, or 8.5.

(b) The aggregate principal amount of Composite Securities that may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to U.S.$15,000,000, except for Composite Securities authenticated and delivered upon registration of, transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, other Composite Securities pursuant to Section 2.6, 2.7, or 8.5.

The Securities shall be divided into the following Classes, having the designations, original principal amounts and other characteristics as follows:

3 The Class 1 Composite Securities shall consist of the Preference Share Component and the Class D-2 Component.

6 The amount of the Class 2 Composite Securities shown includes the Preference Share Component comprised of 1,000 Preference Shares.

7 In the event that the Class 1 Composite Securities Principal Balance is reduced to $1,000 or the Class 2 Composite Securities Rated Balance is reduced to zero, Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities or the Holders of the Class 2 Composite Securities, as the case may be, will continue to receive payments in accordance with the Priority of Payments to the extent allocated to their related Components, and such payments will be classified as "excess distributions."

- 8 The Class 1 Composite Securities are rated only as to the ultimate payment of their Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance. The Class 1 Composite Securities will not be rated as to the payment of the Class 1 Composite Security Stated Coupon.
- 9 The Class 2 Composite Securities are rated as to the ultimate payment of their Class 2 Composite Rated Balance and the Class 2 Composite Security Rated Coupon.

(c) The Class 1 Composite Securities have 2 Components, the Preference Share Component and the Class D-2 Component. At issuance U.S.$10,000,000 original principal amount of Class 1 Composite Securities represents a Preference Share Component equal to 5,000 Preference Shares combined with the Class D-2 Component equal to an initial principal amount of $5,000,000 Class D-2 Notes.

(d) The Class 2 Composite Securities have 2 Components, the Preference Share Component and the Class C Component. (f) The Issuer will also issue 70,000 Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, simultaneously with the issuance of the Notes and Composite Securities under this Indenture. The Preference Shares are not secured by the lien of this Indenture. Any payments made by the Trustee hereunder with respect to the Preference Shares will be released by the Trustee to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in accordance with the Priority of Payments for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment (subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands) to Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends or redemption price, as applicable.

Section 2.4. Extension of Reinvestment Period and Stated Maturity.

(a) The Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Reinvestment Period to the applicable Extended Reinvestment Period End Date up to a maximum of four times if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date in accordance with this Section 2.4 and (ii) the Extension Conditions set forth in Section 2.4(c) are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Reinvestment Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Securities shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or Preference Shares or amendment or supplement to this Indenture or the Preference Share Documents (the "Maturity Extension"); provided that the Issuer will not be permitted to effect more than four Maturity Extensions.

(b) In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes, Composite Securities or Preference Shares wishing to sell such Securities or Preference Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to Section 2.4(d) (such Securities as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, "Extension Sale Securities"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Holder providing an Extension Sale Notice shall be deemed to agree that no Extension Sale Securities of any Holder shall be purchased unless all Extension Sale Securities of all Holders are purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date and the other Extension Conditions are satisfied as of such date.

(c) The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the "Extension Conditions") are satisfied:

(i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;

(ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions in this Indenture and the Preference Share Documents immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Securities or Preference Shares and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);

(iii) (a) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) either (i) all Coverage Tests and the Selected Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied as of the related Extension Determination Date, the rating of each Class of Securities by Moody's has not been downgraded, withdrawn or qualified from that in effect on the Closing Date (unless it subsequently has been reinstated to the rating assigned on the Closing Date) and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $678,000,000 or (ii) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody's (so long as any Securities are then rated by Moody's); and

(iv) the Issuer has not effected more than three prior Extensions.

The Issuer, the Trustee and, by its acceptance of the Securities or Preference Shares, each Holder of Securities or Preference Shares agrees that the Placement Agents shall not be responsible for causing the Extension Conditions to be satisfied and shall not be liable to any such person or Holder of Securities or Preference Shares (whether or not such Holder gave an Extension Sale Notice with respect to its Securities or Preference Shares) or to any other person if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied. Failure of the Extension Conditions to be satisfied shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture.

(d) Extension Procedure.

(i) No later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer of its election to extend the Reinvestment Period (the "Extension Notice"), the Trustee shall mail the Extension Notice to all Holders of Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Securities are Outstanding), in the form of Exhibit J, and shall request the Rating Condition for the Maturity Extension from S&P, if applicable;

(ii) Any Holder of Securities or Preference Shares may give irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") within 30 days after the Trustee has mailed the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell its Securities or Preference Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of

Securities or Preference Shares that has not given such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Securities or Preference Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension; and

(iii) If clause (iii)(b)(i) of the Extension Conditions is not satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date as determined by the Issuer (or its agent), the Trustee shall request the Rating Condition to be satisfied with respect to Moody's.

(e) On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) shall confirm (i) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Securities or Preference Shares in compliance with all transfer restrictions in this Indenture and the legends on such Securities or Preference Shares and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (ii) whether the requirements of clause (c)(iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (iii) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

(f) On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall automatically become effective under the terms of this Indenture; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth in clauses (a) and (c) above are satisfied. No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer in consultation with the Portfolio Manager, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail a notice to all Holders of Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Portfolio Manager, the Placement Agents, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Securities are Outstanding) and the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Securities is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depository for any Securities or Preference Shares subject to the Maturity Extension.

(g) In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Holder of Notes (including each Holder of Composite Securities with respect to the Note Components) other than Extension Sale Securities shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment. Holders of Preference Shares (including Holders of Composite Securities with respect to the Preference Share Components) shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to any applicable qualifying beneficial owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification on the first Payment Date from and including each Extension Effective Date on which funds are available to be used for such purposes in accordance with Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption of the Notes. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments on a Payment Date shall not be considered "due and payable" hereunder. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Securities. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid, in the case of the Notes, to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer.

Section 2.5. Execution, Authentication, Delivery, and Dating.

The Securities shall be executed on behalf of each of the Applicable Issuers by one of their respective Authorized Officers. The signature of the Authorized Officer on the Securities may be manual or facsimile.

Securities bearing the manual or facsimile signatures of individuals who were at any time the Authorized Officers of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, shall bind the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, notwithstanding that any of them have ceased to hold their offices before the authentication and delivery of the Securities or did not hold their offices at the date of issuance of the Securities.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer may deliver Securities executed by the Applicable Issuers to the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent for authentication and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent, upon Issuer Order, shall authenticate and deliver the Securities as provided in this Indenture and not otherwise.

Each Security authenticated and delivered by the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated as of the Closing Date. All other Securities that are authenticated after the Closing Date for any other purpose under this Indenture shall be dated the date of their authentication.

Securities issued upon transfer, exchange, or replacement of other Securities shall be issued in authorized denominations reflecting the original Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities so transferred, exchanged, or replaced, but shall represent only the current outstanding principal amount of the Securities so transferred, exchanged, or replaced. If any Security is divided into more than one Security in accordance with this Article 2, the original principal amount of the Security shall be proportionately divided among the Securities delivered in exchange for it and shall be the original aggregate principal amount of the subsequently issued Securities.

No Security shall be entitled to any benefit under this Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose, unless there appears on the Security a Certificate of Authentication executed by the Trustee or by the Authenticating Agent by the manual signature of one of their Authorized Officers, and that certificate on any Security shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that the Security has been duly authenticated and delivered under this Indenture.

Section 2.6. Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause a register (the "Indenture Register") to be kept in which the Issuer shall provide for the registration of Securities and the registration of transfers of Securities. The Trustee is hereby initially appointed "Indenture Registrar" for the purpose of registering Securities and transfers of the Securities as provided in this Indenture. The Issuer may rely conclusively on any such information provided to it by the Trustee. Upon any resignation or removal of the Indenture Registrar, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor and notify the Portfolio Manager of the appointment or, in the absence of such appointment, assume the duties of Indenture Registrar. The Issuer shall cause the Composite Securities (including the Class C Component and the Class D-2 Component) to be registered and recorded in the Indenture Register and, with respect to the Preference Share Component, in the Preference Share register.

If the Issuer appoints a person other than the Trustee to be Indenture Registrar, the Issuer will give the Trustee prompt written notice of the appointment of the Indenture Registrar and of the location, and any change in the location, of the Indenture Register. The Trustee may inspect the Indenture Register at all reasonable times and obtain copies of it. The Trustee may rely on a certificate executed on behalf of the Indenture Registrar by an Officer of the Indenture Registrar as to the names and addresses of the Holders of the Securities and the principal amounts and number of the Securities.

Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Securities at the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.2, if the requirements of this Indenture are met the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferees, new Securities of any authorized denomination and of a like original Aggregate Outstanding Amount.

At the option of their holder, Securities may be exchanged for Securities of like terms, in any authorized denominations and of like aggregate principal amount, upon surrender of the Securities to be exchanged at the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.2. Whenever any Security is surrendered for exchange, the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, the Securities that the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder making the exchange is entitled to receive.

All Securities issued on any registration of transfer or exchange of Securities shall be the valid obligations of the Applicable Issuers evidencing the same obligations (in the case of the Notes (including the Note Components)), and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture or, as applicable, the Preference Share Documents, as the Securities surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

Every Security presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Indenture Registrar duly executed by its holder or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No Holder shall incur a service charge for any registration of transfer or exchange of the Securities, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

(b) No Security may be sold or transferred (including by pledge or hypothecation) unless the sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, is exempt from the registration requirements under applicable state securities laws, and will not cause either of the Co-Issuers to become subject to the requirement that it register as an investment company under the 1940 Act. None of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, or any other person shall have any obligation to register the Securities under the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

(c) No Security or interest therein may be transferred to any purchaser or transferee unless such purchase, holding and disposition of such Security will not result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any federal, state, foreign or local law that is substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code).

(d) None of the Trustee, the Share Registrar or the Indenture Registrar shall be responsible for ascertaining whether any transfer complies with, or for otherwise monitoring or determining compliance with, the requirements or terms of the Securities Act, applicable state securities laws, ERISA, the Code or the 1940 Act; except that if a certificate or any other document is specifically required by this Section 2.6 to be provided to the Trustee by a prospective transferee, the Trustee shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether it conforms substantially on its face to the applicable requirements of this Section 2.6.

(e) For so long as any of the Securities are Outstanding, the Issuer shall not issue or register the transfer of any Issuer Ordinary Shares to U.S. persons and the Co-Issuer shall not issue or register the transfer of any of its shares of the Co-Issuer to U.S. persons. As used in this subsection (e), "U.S. person" has the meaning assigned to it in Regulation S.

(f) So long as a Global Security remains Outstanding and is held by or on behalf of the Depository, transfers of the Global Security, in whole or in part, shall only be made in accordance with Section 2.2(c), Section 2.6(c) and this Section 2.6(f).

(i) Subject to clauses (ii), (iii), and (iv) of this Section 2.6(f), transfers of a Global Security shall be limited to transfers of the Global Security in whole, but not in part, to nominees of the Depository.

(ii) Rule 144A Global Note to Regulation S Global Note. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Note deposited with the Depository wishes at any time to exchange its interest in the Rule 144A Global Note for an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note, or to transfer its interest in the Rule 144A Global Note to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note, the Holder may exchange or transfer the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note (subject to the rules and procedures of the Depository) if the Holder after the exchange or transfer is not a U.S. person.

The Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Note and to increase the principal amount of the Regulation S Global Note by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Rule 144A Global Note to be exchanged, and to credit to the securities account of the person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note equal to the reduction in the principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Note upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of

(A) instructions given in accordance with the Depository's procedures from an Agent Member directing the Indenture Registrar to credit a beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note, but not less than the minimum denomination applicable to the Holder's Notes, equal to the beneficial interest in the Rule 144A Global Note to be exchanged or transferred,

(B) a written order given in accordance with the Depository's procedures containing information regarding the participant account of the Depository and the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase,

(C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-3 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest stating that the exchange or transfer of the interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Global Securities, including that the Holder or the transferee, as applicable, is not a U.S. person, and that the transfer has been made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S, and

(D) in the case of a transfer, a certificate in the applicable form of Exhibit B-1 given by the proposed transferee stating that it is not a U.S. person.

(iii) Regulation S Global Note to Rule 144A Global Note. If a Holder of a Note held as a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note deposited with the Depository wishes at any time to exchange its interest in the Regulation S Global Note for an interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note or to transfer its interest in the Regulation S Global Note to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note, the Holder may, subject to the rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, exchange or transfer, or cause the exchange or transfer of, the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of:

(A) instructions from Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, directing the Indenture Registrar to cause to be credited a beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note equal to the beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Note, but not less than the minimum denomination applicable to the Holder's Notes, to be exchanged or transferred, the instructions to contain information regarding the participant account with the Depository to be credited with the increase,

(B) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-2 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest and stating that, in the case of an exchange, the Holder is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser or, in the case of a transfer, the person transferring the interest in the Regulation S Global Note reasonably believes that the person acquiring the interest in a Rule 144A Global Note is a Qualified Institutional Buyer, is obtaining the beneficial interest in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction, and a Qualified Purchaser, and

(C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-1 given by the proposed transferee stating that it is a QIB/QP, the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the Regulation S Global Note by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Note to be transferred or exchanged and the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository, concurrently with the reduction, to credit to the securities account of the person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note equal to the reduction in the principal amount of the Regulation S Global Note.

(iv) Regulation S Global Composite Security to Certificated Composite Security. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Composite Security wishes at any time to transfer its interest in such Global Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of a Certificated Composite Security of the same Class, the Holder may, subject to the rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, transfer the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class as described below. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of:

(A) instructions given in accordance with the Depository's procedures from an Agent Member, or instructions from Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, directing the Trustee to deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class, designating the registered name or names, address, payment instructions, the Class, and the number and principal amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities to be executed and delivered (the Class and the aggregate principal amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities being equal to the aggregate principal amount of such Global Security to be transferred), in authorized denominations,

(B) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-6 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest and stating that the person transferring the interest in the Global Security reasonably believes that the person acquiring the interest in a Certificated Composite Security is either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor, is obtaining the beneficial interest in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A or in a transaction not requiring registration under the Securities Act and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction, and is also either (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Knowledgeable Employees, and

(C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-4 given by the transferee of the beneficial interest stating that it is both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Knowledgeable Employees, and certifying to the other matters addressed in the form of such certificate, the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the applicable Global Security by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Global Security to be transferred and the Indenture Registrar shall record the transfer in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a) and authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the appropriate Class registered in the names specified in the certificate described in clause (B) above in principal amounts designated by the transferee (the aggregate of the amounts being equal to the beneficial interest in the Global Securities to be transferred) and in the minimum denominations and integral multiples in excess thereof as specified in Section 2.3.

If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Composite Security wishes at any time to exchange the interest in such Global Security for one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class, the Holder may exchange the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class as provided below. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of

(A) instructions given in accordance with the Depository's procedures from an Agent Member, or instructions from Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, directing the Trustee to deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities and

(B) written instructions from the Holder designating the registered name, address, and payment instructions of the Holder and the Class and the face amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities to be executed and delivered to the Holder (the Class and the aggregate face amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities being the same as the beneficial interest in the Global Security to be exchanged), the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the Global Security by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Global Security to be exchanged, shall record the exchange in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the appropriate Class registered as specified in the instructions described in clause (A) above, in authorized denominations.

(v) Other Exchanges. If a Global Security is exchanged for Securities in definitive registered form without interest coupons pursuant to Section 2.11, the Securities may be exchanged for one another only in accordance with procedures substantially consistent with the provisions above (including certification requirements intended to insure that the transfers are made only to Holders who are QIB/QPs or non-U.S. persons, or otherwise comply with Regulation S, as the case may be), and as may be from time to time adopted by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee.

(g) So long as a Certificated Composite Security remains Outstanding, transfers of a Certificated Composite Security, in whole or in part, shall only be made in accordance with Section 2.6(c) and this Section 2.6(g).

(i) Certificated Composite Security to Regulation S Global Composite Security. If a Holder of a Composite Security represented by a Certificated Composite Security wishes at any time to exchange the Certificated Composite Security for an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Composite Security, or to transfer the Certificated Composite Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Composite Security, the Holder may exchange or transfer the Security for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Composite Security, if the proposed transferee or the person requesting the exchange, as applicable, is not a U.S. person. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of:

(A) the Certificated Composite Security properly endorsed for the transfer, and written instructions from the Holder directing the Indenture Registrar to cause to be credited a beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Composite Security of the same Class equal to the principal amount of the Certificated Composite Security,

(B) a written order containing information regarding the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase,

(C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-5, given by the Holder of the Certificated Composite Security stating that the exchange or transfer of the interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Regulation S Global Composite Security, including that the proposed transferee or the person requesting the exchange, as the case may be, is not a U.S. person and that the proposed transfer is being made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S, and

(D) in the case of a transfer, a certificate in the appropriate form of Exhibit B-4 given by the proposed transferee stating that it is not a U.S. person,

the Indenture Registrar shall cancel the Certificated Composite Security in accordance with Section 2.10, record the transfer in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and instruct the Depository to increase the principal amount of Regulation S Global Composite Security by the aggregate principal amount of the Certificated Composite Security to be exchanged or transferred, and to credit to the account of the person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Composite Security of the same Class equal to the amount specified in the instructions received pursuant to clause (A) above.

(ii) Certificated Composite Security to Certificated Composite Security. If a Holder of a Certificated Composite Security wishes at any time to transfer the Certificated Composite Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class, the Holder may transfer the Security as provided below. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of

(A) the Holder's Certificated Composite Security properly endorsed for the transfer, and

(B) a certificate in the applicable form of Exhibit B-4 given by the transferee of the Certificated Composite Security,

the Indenture Registrar shall cancel the Certificated Composite Security in accordance with Section 2.10, record the transfer in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and upon execution by the Applicable Issuers authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities bearing the same designation as the Certificated Composite Securities endorsed for transfer, registered in the names specified in the assignment described in clause (A) above, in principal amounts designated by the transferee (the aggregate of the principal amounts being equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Certificated Composite Securities surrendered by the transferor), and in authorized denominations.

(iii) Exchange of Certificated Composite Securities. If a Holder of one or more Certificated Composite Securities wishes at any time to exchange the Certificated Composite Securities for one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class of different face amounts, the Holder may exchange the Certificated Composite Security for Certificated Composite Securities bearing the same designation as the Certificated Composite Securities endorsed for exchange as provided below. Upon receipt by the Applicable Issuers and the Indenture Registrar of (A) the Holder's Certificated Composite Securities properly endorsed for the exchange and (B) written instructions from the Holder designating the face amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities to be issued (the aggregate of the face amounts being equal to the aggregate face amount of the Certificated Composite Securities surrendered for exchange), then the Indenture Registrar shall cancel the Certificated Composite Securities in accordance with Section 2.10, record the exchange in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and upon execution by the Applicable Issuers authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities bearing the same designation as the Certificated Composite Securities endorsed for exchange, registered in the same names as the Certificated Composite Securities surrendered by the Holder, in different face amounts designated by the Holder, and in authorized denominations.

(h) Exchange of Composite Securities for Underlying Components. A Holder of a beneficial interest in a Composite Security may exchange all or a proportionate amount of each Component of such interest for proportional interests in the Class D-2 Notes and the Preference Shares, in the case of the Class 1 Composite Securities, or Class C Notes and the Preference Shares, in the case of the Class 2 Composite Securities, subject to the minimum denomination requirements and other requirements of this Section 2.6 and in the manner described in (a) this Indenture for exchange for beneficial interests in the Rule 144A Global Notes or Regulation S Global Securities (in the case of the Note Components) and (b) the Preference Share Documents for exchange for Preference Shares (in the case of the Preference Shares Components). The Trustee, upon receipt of appropriate instructions with respect to a Composite Security, shall simultaneously convert (or shall direct the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Paying Agent, as applicable, to convert) its constituent Components into the Class C Notes, Class D-2 Notes or the Preference Shares represented by such Component, as applicable, and effect such exchange. Thereafter, the Holder of the beneficial interest in a Composite Security so exchanged under this paragraph will be the Holder of the Class D-2 Notes and the Preference Shares, received upon an exchange of the Class 1 Composite Securities, or Class C Notes and the Preference Shares, received upon an exchange of the Class 2 Composite Securities, as the case may be. No Holder of a Class C Note, Class D-2 Note or a Preference Share (including a Holder that received such Class C Note, Class D-2 Note or Preference Share upon an exchange of a Composite Security) will have the right to exchange such Notes or Preference Shares for a Composite Security. No service charge will be made for any such exchange, but the Trustee or the Preference Share Paying Agent may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

(i) If the Securities are issued upon the transfer, exchange, or replacement of Securities bearing the applicable legends in the applicable Exhibit A, and if a request is made to remove the legend on the Securities, the legend shall not be removed unless the Trustee and the Applicable Issuers received satisfactory evidence, which may include an Opinion of Counsel acceptable to them, reasonably required by the Applicable Issuers (and which shall by its terms permit reliance by the Trustee), to the effect that neither the legend nor the restrictions on transfer in it are required to ensure that transfers of the Securities comply with the Securities Act, the 1940 Act, ERISA, and the Code. Upon provision of satisfactory evidence, the Trustee or its Authenticating Agent, at the written direction of the Applicable Issuers shall, after due execution by the Applicable Issuers authenticate and deliver Securities that do not bear the applicable legend.

(j) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 2.6 to the contrary:

(i) Restrictions on U.S. Transfers. Transfers of an interest in a Regulation S Global Security that are not made in an offshore transaction pursuant to Regulation S or are made to U.S. Persons, if such transferees take delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note or a Certificated Composite Security, shall be limited to transfers made pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.6(f)(iii) and Section 2.6(f)(iv).

(ii) Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Security may only be held through Euroclear or Clearstream.

(k) Each person who becomes a beneficial owner of a Note or Composite Security evidenced by: (i) an interest in a Certificated Composite Security or Definitive Security, shall make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in the applicable Transferee Certificate set forth in Exhibit B-1 upon such person's purchase or other acquisition of the relevant Certificated Composite Security or Definitive Security and (ii) an interest in a Global Security, shall be deemed to make (or, in the case of a Class 1 Composite Security or Class 2 Composite Security, represented by a Global Security purchased in the Offering of the Securities, will be required to make) the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in the applicable legends of the Securities set forth in Exhibit A hereto and in the applicable Transferee Certificate set forth in Exhibit B-1 (in the case of a Global Security evidencing an interest in Notes) or Exhibit B-4 (in the case of a Global Security evidencing an interest in Composite Securities) hereto upon such person's purchase or other acquisition of the relevant Global Security.

(l) The aggregate principal amount of any Global Security may be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee, as custodian for DTC for the Global Security, which adjustments shall be conclusive as to the aggregate principal amount of any Global Security.

(m) Any purported transfer of a Security not in accordance with this Section 2.6 shall be null and void.

Section 2.7. *Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost, or Stolen Securities.

If the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, and the relevant Transfer Agent receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss, or theft of any Security, and they receive the security or indemnity they require to hold each of them harmless, or if any mutilated Security is surrendered to a Transfer Agent, then, in the absence of notice to the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, or the Transfer Agent that the Security has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the Applicable Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for the mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Security, a replacement Security, of like tenor and equal principal or face amount.

If, after delivery of the replacement Security or payment on it, a protected purchaser of the predecessor Security presents it for payment, transfer, or exchange, the Applicable Issuers, the Transfer Agent, and the Trustee may recover the replacement Security (or the payment on it) from the person to whom it was delivered or any person taking the replacement Security from the person to whom the replacement Security was delivered or any assignee of that person, except a protected purchaser, and may recover on the security or indemnity provided therefor to the extent of any loss, damage, cost, or expense incurred by the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, and the Transfer Agent in connection with it.

If the final payment in respect of any mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Security has become payable, the Applicable Issuers in their discretion may, instead of issuing a new Security pay the Security without requiring its surrender except that any mutilated Security shall be surrendered.

Upon the issuance of any new Security under this Section, the Applicable Issuers or the Trustee may require the payment by its holder of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with the issuance and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected with it.

Every new Security issued pursuant to this Section in replacement for any mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Security shall be an original additional contractual obligation (in the case of the Notes and the Note Components) of the Applicable Issuers and the new Security shall be entitled to all the benefits of this Indenture equally and proportionately with all other Securities of the same Class duly issued under this Indenture or the Preference Share Documents, as applicable.

The provisions of this Section are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Securities.

Section 2.8. Payment of Principal and Interest and Other Amounts; Principal and Interest Rights Preserved; Withholding.

(a) The Notes of each Class shall accrue interest during each Interest Period on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day) at the Applicable Note Interest Rate. Interest shall be payable in arrears on each Payment Date. Payment of interest on each Class of Notes shall be subordinated to the payments of interest on the related Priority Classes and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of interest due on the Class of Deferred Interest Notes that is not available to be paid ("Deferred Interest") in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered "payable" for the purposes of this Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note, or in the case of a partial repayment, on the part repaid, from the date of repayment or its Stated Maturity unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or unless there is some other default with respect to the payments of principal.

To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest, until paid as provided in this Indenture.

(b) The principal of each Note of each Class matures at par and is payable on the Payment Date that is the Stated Maturity for the Class of Notes, unless the unpaid principal of the Note becomes payable at an earlier date by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption, or otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the payment of principal of each Class of Notes:

(i) may only occur after principal on each Class of Notes that is a Priority Class with respect to the Class has been paid in full; and

(ii) is subordinated to the payment on each Payment Date of the principal and interest payable on the Priority Classes, and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, Interest Proceeds may be used to pay principal of the Class D Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class D Coverage Tests.

(c) Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Section 9.1.

(d) As a condition to the payment of principal of and interest on any Note without the imposition of U.S. withholding tax, the Paying Agent shall require the previous delivery of appropriate properly completed and signed original forms United States federal income tax certifications (generally, an Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a person that is a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a person that is not a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) or any other certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, and any Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments on the Note under any present or future law of the United States or any present or future law of any political subdivision of the United States or taxing authority in the United States or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under any such law.

(e) Payments in respect of interest on and principal of any Note shall be made by the Trustee, or by the Irish Paying Agent, if applicable, in U.S. Dollars to the Depository or its designee with respect to a Global Security and to the Holder or its nominee with respect to a Certificated Composite Security or a Definitive Security, by wire transfer, as directed by the Holder, in immediately available funds to a U.S. Dollar account maintained by the Depository or its nominee with respect to a Global Security, and to the Holder or its designee with respect to a Certificated Composite Security or a Definitive Security, in the case of a Certificated Composite Security or a Definitive Security, its holder has provided written wiring instructions to the Trustee and, if the payment is to be made by the Irish Paying Agent, the Irish Paying Agent, on or before the related Record Date. Payments in respect of any Preference Share payable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in accordance with the Priority of Payments for payments on the Preference Shares in accordance with the Preference Share Documents shall be payable by wire transfer in immediately available funds (or by internal transfer if the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent are the same Person) to the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

If appropriate instructions for the wire transfer are not received by the related Record Date, then the payment will be made by check drawn on a U.S. bank mailed to the address of the Holder in the Indenture Register. Upon final payment due on the Maturity of a Note, its holder shall present and surrender the Note at the office designated by the Trustee on or before the Maturity. If the Trustee and the Applicable Issuers have been furnished the security or indemnity they require to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the certificate, then, in the absence of notice to the Applicable Issuers or the Trustee that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender. In the case of Components to be redeemed, the related Composite Securities do not need to be surrendered at the office of any paying agent under this Indenture to receive the applicable Redemption Price. Neither the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Share Registrar nor any Paying Agent shall have any responsibility or liability for any aspects of the records maintained by Euroclear, Clearstream, or any of the Agent Members relating to or for payments made thereby on account of beneficial interests in a Global Security.

In the case where any final payment of principal and interest is to be made on any Note (other than on its Stated Maturity and except as otherwise provided in this Indenture), the Trustee, in the name and at the expense of the Applicable Issuers shall, not more than 30 nor less than 10 days before the date on which the payment is to be made, mail (by first-class mail, postage prepaid) to the persons entitled thereto at their addresses appearing on the Indenture Register, a notice specifying the date on which the payment will be made, the amount of the payment per U.S.$100,000 original principal amount of Notes and the place where the Notes may be presented and surrendered for payment. The final payment on any Composite Security shall be made only upon surrender of the certificate for the Composite Security to the Trustee at the office designated by the Trustee. If the Trustee and the Issuer have been furnished any security or indemnity they require to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the certificate, then, in the absence of notice to the Issuer or the Trustee that the applicable certificate has been acquired by a protected purchaser, final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender of the applicable certificate.

(f) Payments of principal to Holders of the Notes (including the Note Components) of each Class shall be made in the proportion that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes of the Class registered in the name of each Holder on the applicable Record Date bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of all Notes of the Class on the Record Date.

(g) Interest accrued shall be calculated (i) in the case of the Notes (other than the Fixed Rate Notes) on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the applicable Interest Period divided by 360 and (ii) in the case of the Fixed Rate Notes on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30 day months.

(h) All reductions in the principal amount of a Security (or one or more predecessor Securities) effected by payments of installments of principal made on any Payment Date or Redemption Date shall be binding on all future Holders of the Security and of any Security issued upon the registration of its transfer, exchange, or replacement, whether or not the payment is noted on the Security.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the obligations of the Applicable Issuers under the Notes and the Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components) and under this Indenture are limited recourse obligations of the Applicable Issuers payable solely from the Collateral and following realization of the assets, application of their proceeds in accordance with this Indenture and the reduction of the proceeds of the Collateral to zero, all obligations of, and any claims against, the Co-Issuers under this Indenture or under the Securities or arising in connection therewith shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. No recourse shall be had against any Officer, director, employee, shareholder, or incorporator of either of the Co-Issuers or their respective successors or assigns for any amounts payable under the Securities or this Indenture. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not (1) prevent recourse to the Collateral for the sums due or to become due under any security, instrument, or agreement that is part of the Collateral or (2) be a waiver, release, or discharge of any indebtedness or obligation evidenced by the Securities or secured by this Indenture until the Collateral have been realized. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not limit the right of any person to name the Issuer or the Co-Issuer as a party defendant in any Proceeding or in the exercise of any other remedy under the Notes or this Indenture, so long as no judgment in the nature of a deficiency judgment or seeking personal liability is sought or (if obtained) enforced against the person.

(j) If any withholding tax is imposed on the Issuer's payment (or allocations of income) under the Securities to any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder, as applicable, the tax shall reduce the amount otherwise distributable to the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder, as applicable. The Trustee is hereby authorized and directed to retain from amounts otherwise distributable to any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder sufficient funds for the payment of any tax that is legally owed, or required by law to be collected, by or on behalf of the Issuer (but the authorization shall not prevent the Trustee or the Issuer from contesting any such tax in appropriate proceedings and withholding payment of the tax, if permitted by law, pending the outcome of the proceedings). The amount of any withholding tax imposed with respect to any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder shall be treated as Cash distributed to the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder when it is withheld by the Trustee and remitted to the appropriate taxing authority. If there is a possibility that withholding tax is payable with respect to a distribution, the Trustee may in its sole discretion withhold the amounts in accordance with this Section 2.8(j). If any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder wishes to apply for a refund of any such withholding tax, the Trustee shall reasonably cooperate with the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder in making the claim by providing information readily available to the Trustee so long as the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder agrees to reimburse the Trustee for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred and provides the Trustee with security reasonably acceptable to the Trustee assuring the reimbursement. The Trustee hereby provides notice to each Noteholder or Composite Securityholder that the failure by the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder to provide the Trustee with appropriate tax certifications may result in amounts being withheld from payments to the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder. Nothing in this Indenture shall impose an obligation on the part of the Trustee to determine the amount of any tax or withholding obligation on the part of the Issuer or in respect of the Securities.

Section 2.9. Persons Considered Owners.

(i) the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depository for the Global Security or

(ii) if at any time the Depository ceases to be a Clearing Agency registered under the Exchange Act and, in each case, a successor depository is not appointed by the Co-Issuers within 90 days after the notice.

(b) Any Global Security that is transferable in the form of a Definitive Security to its beneficial owners pursuant to this Section 2.11 shall be surrendered by the Depository to the office of the Trustee's agent located in the City of New York, New York as specified in Section 7.2 (or any

The proceeds of the sale, net of any commissions, expenses of the Trustee or otherwise, and taxes due in connection with the sale shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted Holder. The terms of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer (or the Trustee acting on its behalf), and the Issuer and the Trustee shall not be liable to any person having an interest in the Securities sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of its discretion.

(i) This Indenture creates a valid and continuing security interest (as defined in the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) in the Collateral in favor of the Trustee, which security interest is prior to all other liens, charges, claims, security interests, mortgages, and other encumbrances, and is enforceable as such as against creditors of and purchasers from the Issuer.

(ii) Except for any Securities Lending Collateral and Synthetic Securities Collateral, the Issuer has good and marketable title to and is the owner of each item of Collateral free of any liens, claims, or encumbrances of any nature whatsoever except for liens (A) that are being released on the Closing Date and (B) granted pursuant to or permitted by this Indenture. The Issuer has a first priority security interest in all Securities Lending Collateral to secure all obligations of Securities Lending Counterparty under the Securities Lending Agreement and a first priority interest in all Synthetic Securities Collateral to secure all obligations of Synthetic Security Counterparty under the Synthetic Securities Agreement.

(iii) The Issuer has not assigned, pledged, or otherwise encumbered any interest in the Collateral (or, if any interest in the Collateral has been assigned, pledged, or otherwise encumbered, it has been released before the Closing Date or is being released on the Closing Date) other than interests granted pursuant to or permitted by this Indenture.

(iv) The Issuer has full right, and has received all consents and approvals required by the related Underlying Instruments, to grant a security interest in its rights in the Collateral to the Trustee.

(v) Each Collateral Obligation included in the Collateral satisfied the requirements of the definition of "Collateral Obligation" as of the date the Issuer committed to purchase the same or, in the case of the Warehoused Loans, as of the Closing Date.

(vi) All Collateral Obligations, any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange did not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation, and Eligible Investments (other than, in each case, "general intangibles" within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) have been and will have been credited to one of the Accounts. The securities intermediary for each Account has agreed to treat all assets credited to the Accounts as "financial assets" within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code.

(vii) The Issuer has pledged to the Trustee all of the Issuer's interest in each Collateral Obligation included in the Collateral pursuant to the Granting Clauses of this Indenture and has delivered each Collateral Obligation (including any promissory note and all its other Underlying Instruments to the extent received by the Issuer) to the Trustee or the Custodian as contemplated by Section 3.2.

(viii) Each of the Collateral constitutes "general intangibles," "certificated securities," "instruments," "securities entitlements," or "uncertificated securities," each within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code, or any other category of collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code as to which the Issuer has complied with its obligations under Section 3.3(b).

(ix) The Issuer has caused (or will have caused within 10 days following the Closing Date) the filing of appropriate financing statements in the proper filing offices in the appropriate jurisdictions under applicable law to perfect the security interest in the portion of the Collateral pledged to the Trustee under this Indenture that may be perfected by the filing of financing statements.

(x) The Issuer has not authorized the filing of and is not aware of any financing statements against the Issuer that include a description of collateral covering the Collateral other than any financing statement (A) relating to the security interest granted to the Trustee under this Indenture, (B) that has been terminated, or (C) that names the Trustee as the secured party. On the date of this Indenture, the Issuer is not aware of any judgment or Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation or tax lien filings against the Issuer.

(xi) The Issuer has delivered to the Trustee a fully executed agreement pursuant to which the securities intermediary for each Account has agreed to comply with all instructions originated by the Trustee relating to the Account without further consent by the Issuer.

delivered to the Custodian, to the extent received by the Issuer. The Issuer has received confirmation from the Custodian that the Custodian has credited the instruments to one of the Accounts. None of the instruments that are or evidence the Collateral has any marks or notations indicating that they are then pledged or otherwise assigned to any person other than the Trustee.

(xiii) The Accounts are not in the name of any person other than the Issuer or the Trustee. The Issuer has not consented to the securities intermediary of any Account to comply with instructions of any person other than the Trustee.

(xiv) All "certificated securities" (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral have been delivered to the Custodian, to the extent received by the Issuer, registered in the name of the Custodian or indorsed to the Custodian. The Issuer has received confirmation from the Custodian that the Custodian has credited such certificated securities to one of the Accounts.

(xv) The Issuer has caused all "uncertificated securities" (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral to be registered in the name of the Custodian.

(xvi) Upon grant by the Issuer, the Trustee has a first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral.

The parties to this Indenture (i) shall not waive any of the representations in this Section 3.3, unless the Rating Condition is satisfied in connection with such waiver; (ii) the Issuer shall provide each of the Rating Agencies with prompt written notice of any breach of the representations contained in this Section 3.3 upon becoming aware thereof, and shall not waive a breach of any of the representations in this Section 3.3, unless the Rating Condition is satisfied (as determined after any adjustment or withdrawal of the ratings following notice of such breach) in connection with such waiver.

(b) If the Issuer acquires Collateral that is not "general intangibles," "certificated securities," "instruments," "securities entitlements," or "uncertificated securities," each within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code, or another category of collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code as to which the Issuer has complied with its obligations under this Section 3.3(b), then on or before the date on which the Issuer acquires the Collateral, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer) shall notify S&P and the Trustee (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) of its acquisition or intended acquisition of the Collateral and the Issuer shall represent to S&P and to the Trustee (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) as to the category of the Collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code and shall make any further representations as to the perfection and priority of the security interest in the Collateral Granted under this Indenture acceptable to S&P.

Section 5.2. Acceleration of Maturity; Rescission and Annulment.

(a) If an Event of Default is continuing (other than (i) an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h)), the Trustee may, and upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, declare the principal of all the Notes and Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components) to be immediately payable by notice to the Applicable Issuers, and upon that declaration the unpaid principal of all the Notes and Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components), together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), and other amounts payable under this Indenture, shall become immediately payable. The Reinvestment Period shall terminate upon a declaration of acceleration (subject to re-commencement pursuant to Section 5.2(b)). If an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h) occurs, all unpaid principal, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), of all the Notes and Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components), and other amounts payable under this Indenture, shall automatically become payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Noteholder and the Reinvestment Period shall terminate automatically (subject to re-commencement pursuant to Section 5.2(b)).

(b) At any time after the declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent, may rescind the declaration and its consequences:

(i) The Issuer or the Co-Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:

(A) all unpaid installments of interest and principal on the Notes and Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components) then due;

(B) to the extent that payment of the interest is lawful, interest on any Deferred Interest and Defaulted Interest at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable;

(C) all Administrative Expenses of the Co-Issuers and other sums paid or advanced by the Trustee under this Indenture;

(D) all unpaid Senior Management Fees;

(E) all amounts then payable to any Hedge Counterparty; and

(ii) The Trustee has determined that all Events of Default, other than the non-payment of the interest on or principal of the Notes and Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components), have been (A) cured, and a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Trustee has agreed with that determination, or (B) waived as provided in Section 5.14.

No such rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right consequent thereon. The Issuer shall not terminate any Hedge Agreement at any time after a declaration of acceleration of Maturity of the Notes and Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components) has been made, unless such declaration and its consequences may no longer be rescinded and annulled in accordance with this Section 5.2(b) and liquidation of the Collateral has begun.

If a declaration of acceleration is rescinded as described above:

(x) the Reinvestment Period, if terminated by the declaration, shall recommence on the date of the rescission (unless the Reinvestment Period would have otherwise terminated before that date pursuant to clauses (i), (ii), or (iii) of its definition); and

(y) the Trustee shall preserve the Collateral in accordance with this Indenture. If the preservation of the Collateral is rescinded pursuant to Section 5.5, the Notes and Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components) may again be accelerated pursuant to Section 5.2(a), notwithstanding any previous rescission of a declaration of acceleration pursuant to this Section 5.2(b)).

No rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right resulting from the Default.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.2 to the contrary, the Notes will not be subject to acceleration by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class, or any other Holders solely as a result of the failure to pay any amount due on Notes that are not of the Controlling Class.

Section 5.3. Collection of Indebtedness and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee.

The Applicable Issuers covenant that if a default occurs in the payment of any principal or interest when payable on any Note, upon demand of the Trustee or the Holder of any affected Note or Composite Security, the Applicable Issuers shall pay to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Holder of the Note, the whole amount then payable on the Note or Composite Security (to the extent of the Note Component) for principal and interest with interest on the overdue principal and, to the extent that payments of the interest shall be legally enforceable, on overdue installments of interest and all other amounts owing to the Holders of the Securities under this Indenture, at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable, and, in addition, an amount sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection, including the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements, and advances of the Trustee and the Holders and their agents and counsel.

If the Issuer or the Co-Issuer fails to pay those amounts immediately on demand, the Trustee, in its own name and as Trustee of an express trust, may, and shall at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, institute a Proceeding for the collection of the sums due, may prosecute the Proceeding to judgment or final decree, and may enforce the same against the Applicable Issuers or any other obligor on the Notes or Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components) and collect the monies determined to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the Collateral.

If an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee may, and shall upon written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Holders of the Securities by any appropriate Proceedings as is deemed most effective (if no direction is received by the Trustee) or as the Trustee may be directed by a Majority of the Controlling Class, to protect and enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Holders of the Securities, whether for the specific enforcement of any agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted in this Indenture, or to enforce any other proper remedy or legal or equitable right vested in the Trustee by this Indenture or by law. The reasonable compensation, costs, expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or paid by the Trustee and its agents and counsel, in connection with such Proceeding, including, without limitation, the exercise of any remedies pursuant to Section 5.4, shall be reimbursed to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7.

If any Proceedings are pending relating to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any other obligor on the Notes or Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components) under the Bankruptcy Law or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, or other similar law, or if a receiver, assignee, or trustee in bankruptcy or reorganization, liquidator, sequestrator, or similar official has been appointed for or taken possession of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or their respective property or any other obligor on the Notes or Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components) or its property, or if any other comparable Proceedings are pending relating to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes or Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components), or the creditors or property of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes or Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components), the Trustee, regardless of whether the principal of any Notes is then payable by declaration or otherwise and regardless of whether the Trustee has made any demand pursuant to this Section 5.3, may, by intervention in the Proceedings or otherwise:

(a) file and prove claims for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes or Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components), and file any other papers or documents appropriate and take any other appropriate action (including sitting on a committee of creditors) to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for reasonable compensation to the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys, and counsel, and for reimbursement of all expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, except as a result of negligence or bad faith) and of the Holders of the Securities allowed in any Proceedings relating to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes or to the creditors or property of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes or Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components);

(b) unless prohibited by applicable law, vote on behalf of the Holders of the Securities in any election of a trustee or a standby trustee in arrangement, reorganization, liquidation, or other bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings or person performing similar functions in comparable Proceedings; and

(c) collect and receive any monies or other property payable to or deliverable on any such claims, and distribute all amounts received with respect to the claims of the Holders of the Securities and of the Trustee on their behalf; and any trustee, receiver or liquidator, custodian, or other similar official is authorized by each of the Holders of the Securities to make payments to the Trustee, and, if the Trustee consents to making payments directly to the Holders of the Securities, to pay to the Trustee amounts sufficient to cover reasonable compensation to the Trustee, each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys, and counsel, and all other reasonable expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee except as a result of negligence or bad faith.

Nothing in this Indenture shall authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or vote for or accept or adopt on behalf of the Holder of any Security, any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, or composition affecting the Securities or any Holder of Securities, or to authorize the Trustee to vote on the claim of the Holder of any Security in any Proceeding except, as aforesaid, to vote for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy or similar person.

Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.3 to the contrary, the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Collateral or institute Proceedings in furtherance of the sale or liquidation of the Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.3 except according to Section 5.5(a).

Section 5.4. Remedies.

(a) If an Event of Default is continuing, and the Notes and Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components) have been declared payable and the declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded, or at any time after the Stated Maturity, the Co-Issuers agree that the Trustee may, and shall, upon written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, to the extent permitted by applicable law, exercise one or more of the following rights:

(i) institute Proceedings for the collection of all amounts then payable on the Notes (including the Note Components) or otherwise payable under this Indenture, whether by declaration or otherwise, enforce any judgment obtained, and collect from the Collateral any monies adjudged due;

(ii) sell or liquidate all or a portion of the Collateral or interests in it, at one or more public or private sales called and conducted in any manner permitted by law and in accordance with Section 5.17;

(iii) institute Proceedings from time to time for the complete or partial foreclosure of this Indenture with respect to the Collateral;

(iv) exercise any remedies of a secured party under the UCC and take any other appropriate action to protect and enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes under this Indenture; and

(v) exercise any other rights that may be available at law or in equity;

except that the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Collateral or institute Proceedings in furtherance of the sale or liquidation of the Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.4 except according to Section 5.5(a).

(b) If an Event of Default as described in Section 5.1(f) is continuing the Trustee may, with the consent of, and shall, at the direction of, the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, institute a Proceeding solely to compel performance of the covenant or agreement or to cure the representation or warranty, the breach of which gave rise to the Event of Default under Section 5.1(f), and enforce any equitable decree or order arising from the Proceeding.

(c) Upon any sale, whether made under the power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, any Holders or the Portfolio Manager (subject to the Management Agreement) may bid for and purchase any part of the Collateral and, upon compliance with the terms of sale, may hold, retain, possess, or dispose of the Collateral in its or their own absolute right without accountability.

Upon any sale, whether made under the power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, the receipt of the Trustee, or of the Officer making a sale under judicial Proceedings, shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchasers at any sale for their purchase money, and the purchasers shall not be obliged to see to its application.

Any sale, whether under any power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, shall bind the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, and the Holders of the Securities, shall operate to divest all interest whatsoever, either at law or in equity, of each of them in the property sold, and shall be a perpetual bar, both at law and in equity, against each of them and their successors and assigns, and against all persons claiming through or under them.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, none of the Trustee, the Secured Parties, or the Holders of the Securities may, before the date that is one year and one day (or if longer, any applicable preference period plus one day) after the payment in full of all Notes (including the Note Components), institute against, or join any other person in instituting against, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, or liquidation Proceedings, or other Proceedings under the Bankruptcy Law or any similar laws in any jurisdiction. Nothing in this Section 5.4 shall preclude the Trustee or any Secured Party (i) from taking any action before the expiration of that period in (A) any case or Proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or (B) any involuntary insolvency Proceeding filed or commenced by a person other than a Secured Party, or (ii) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of its properties any legal action that is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, or liquidation Proceeding.

Section 5.5. *Optional Preservation of Collateral.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, if an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall retain the Collateral intact, collect, and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Collateral and the Notes, and any Hedge Agreements (other than amounts received under a Hedge Agreement that are used in putting a Replacement Hedge in place), in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Article 10 and Article 12 unless:

(i) the Trustee determines that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) of Section 11.1(a)(i) and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination; or

(ii) the Holders of a Super Majority of each of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral.

The Trustee shall give written notice of the retention of the Collateral to the Issuer with a copy to the Co-Issuer and the Portfolio Manager. So long as the Event of Default is continuing, any retention pursuant to this Section 5.5(a) may be rescinded at any time when the conditions specified in clause (i) or (ii) exist.

(b) Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) shall be construed to require the Trustee to sell the Collateral if the conditions in clause (i) or (ii) of Section 5.5(a) are not satisfied. Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) shall be construed to require the Trustee to preserve the Collateral if prohibited by applicable law.

(c) In determining whether the condition specified in Section 5.5(a)(i) exists, the Trustee shall obtain bid prices with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one market maker, that market maker and if there is no market maker, from a pricing service), at the time making a market in those securities, and shall compute the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security. In addition, for the purposes of determining issues relating to the valuation of the Collateral, the satisfaction of the conditions specified in this Indenture, the execution of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral, and the execution of a sale or other liquidation of the Collateral in connection with a determination whether the condition specified in Section 5.5(a)(i) exists, the Trustee may retain, at the Issuer's expense, and rely on an opinion of an Independent investment banking firm of national reputation, which may be the Placement Agents.

The Trustee shall deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holders of the Securities, the Co-Issuers, the Portfolio Manager and the Hedge Counterparties a report stating the results of any determination required pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i). The Trustee shall make the determinations required by Section 5.5(a)(i) after an Event of Default at the request of a Majority of the Controlling Class at any time during which the Trustee retains the Collateral pursuant to Section 5.5(a). The Trustee shall obtain (at the Issuer's expense) a letter of a firm of Independent certified public accountants confirming the accuracy of each calculation made by the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) and certifying their conformity to the requirements of this Indenture.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, the Trustee may not, and the Holders of the Notes representing the requisite percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes specified in Section 5.4 or 5.5, may not instruct the Trustee to sell or liquidate or (except in connection with the concurrent execution of a Replacement Hedge) terminate any Hedge Agreement during the continuance of an Event of Default until all Collateral other than the Hedge Agreements has been sold or liquidated and its proceeds applied in accordance with this Indenture.

(e) Collateral may not be sold or liquidated pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) after the last date on which the sale or liquidation is permitted under Section 5.5(a)(i) with respect to a determination made pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) (the last permitted date being determined by the Trustee under Section 5.5(a)(i)), unless a new determination is made in accordance with Section 5.5(a)(i) and the Collateral is sold or liquidated before the last sale date permitted in accordance with the new determination.

Section 5.6. *Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Securities.

All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or under any of the Securities may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Securities or their production in any trial or other Proceeding relating to them, and any Proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be applied as provided in Section 5.7.

In any Proceedings brought by the Trustee (and any Proceedings involving the interpretation of any provision of this Indenture to which the Trustee shall be a party) the Trustee shall be held to represent all the Holders of the Securities.

Section 5.7. *Application of Money Collected.

Any money collected by the Trustee with respect to the Notes (including the Note Components) pursuant to this Article 5 and any money that may then be held or subsequently received by the Trustee with respect to the Notes under this Indenture shall be applied, subject to Section 13.1 and in accordance with Section 11.1, at the dates fixed by the Trustee.

Section 5.8. *Limitation on Suits.

No Holder of any Security shall have any right to institute any Proceedings, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy under this Indenture, unless:

- (a) the Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of an Event of Default;
- (b) the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings with respect to the Event of Default in its own name as Trustee under this Indenture and the Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with the request;
- (c) the Trustee for 30 days after its receipt of the notice, request, and offer of indemnity has failed to institute a Proceeding; and
- (d) no direction inconsistent with the written request has been given to the Trustee during the 30 day period by a Majority of the Controlling Class.

No one or more Holders of Securities have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect the rights of any other Holders of Securities of the same Class or to obtain or to seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders of the Securities of the same Class or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner provided in this Indenture and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Notes of the same Class subject to and in accordance with Section 13.1 and the Priority of Payments or Section 11.2, as the case may be.

If the Trustee receives conflicting or inconsistent requests and indemnity from two or more groups of Holders of the Controlling Class, each representing less than a Majority of the Controlling Class, the Trustee shall take the action requested by the Holders of the largest percentage in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture.

Section 5.9. *Unconditional Rights of Holders of Notes.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture other than this Section 5.9 and Sections 2.8(i), 5.4(d), and 13.1, the Holder of any Note (including the Note Components) shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of the principal of and interest on the Note (including the Note Components) as it comes due in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Section 13.1, and, subject to Section 5.8, to institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment, and that right shall not be impaired without the consent of the Holder. Holders of Notes (including the Note Components) ranking junior to Notes still Outstanding may not institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until no Note ranking senior to their Note remains Outstanding, subject to Section 5.8, and shall not be impaired without the consent of any such Holder. For so long as any Notes are Outstanding, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be entitled to any payment of any amount for payments to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Shares Documents, to the extent legally permitted, on a claim against the Issuer unless there are sufficient funds to pay such amounts to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Section 5.10. *Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If the Trustee or the Holder of any Security has instituted any Proceeding to enforce any right under this Indenture and the Proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to the Holder, then, subject to any determination in the Proceeding, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Holder shall be restored to their former positions under this Indenture, and thereafter all rights of the Trustee and the Holder shall continue as though no Proceeding had been instituted.

Section 5.11. *Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

No right in this Indenture conferred on or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders of Securities is intended to be exclusive of any other right, and every right shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right given under this Indenture or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right under this Indenture, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right.

Section 5.12. *Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

No delay or omission of the Trustee or the Holder of any Security to exercise any right accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair the right or be a waiver of the Event of Default or an acquiescence in it or of a subsequent Event of Default. Every right given by this Article 5 or by law to the Trustee or to the Holders of Securities may be exercised from time to time, and as often as deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the applicable Holders.

Section 5.13. *Control by Majority of the Controlling Class.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, during the continuance of an Event of Default, a Majority of the Controlling Class may institute and direct the time, method, and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any right of the Trustee with respect to the Notes if:

(i) the direction does not conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of this Indenture; and

(ii) the Trustee has been indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction (and the Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability unless it has received an indemnity against the liability).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, only a Majority of the Controlling Class may direct proceedings with respect to remedies specified in Section 5.4(a) or otherwise with respect to the Collateral.

(b) The Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with a direction under Section 5.13(a). Subject to Section 6.1, the Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability (unless the Trustee has received an indemnity against the liabilities reasonably satisfactory to it) and during the continuance of an Event of Default that has not been cured, or waived, the Trustee shall, before receiving directions from a Majority of the Controlling Class, exercise the rights expressly vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise with respect to the Event of Default as is required by Section 6.1(b).

(c) Any direction to the Trustee to undertake a Sale of the Collateral shall be in accordance with Section 5.4 or 5.5.

Section 5.14. *Waiver of Past Defaults.

Before a judgment or decree for payment of any money due has been obtained by the Trustee, as provided in this Article 5, a Majority of the Controlling Class may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes (including the Note Components), with respect to the Notes waive any past Default and its consequences, except a Default:

(a) in the payment of the principal or Redemption Price of any Note or in the payment of interest (including Defaulted Interest, Deferred Interest, and any interest on Defaulted Interest or Deferred Interest) on the Notes;

(b) with respect to a provision of this Indenture that under Section 8.2 cannot be modified or amended without the waiver or consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected by the modification or amendment;

(c) in the payment of amounts due to the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee or the Hedge Counterparty, which may only be waived with the consent of the affected party; or

(d) arising as a result of an Event of Default described in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h).

Upon any such waiver, the Default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising from it shall be cured, for every purpose of this Indenture, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereto. The Trustee shall promptly give written notice of any such waiver to the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Holder of Notes (including the Note Components).

Section 5.15. *Undertaking for Costs.

All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note (including any Note Component) by its acceptance of its Note agrees, that in any suit for the enforcement of any right under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee or the Portfolio Manager for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee or for any action taken or omitted by the Portfolio Manager, as applicable, any court may in its discretion require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and that the court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 5.15 shall not apply to any suit instituted by the Trustee or the Portfolio Manager, to any suit instituted by any Holder, or group of Holders, of Notes holding in the aggregate more than 10% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, or to any suit instituted by any Holder of Securities for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note or Composite Security or any other amount payable under this Indenture after the applicable Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, after the applicable Redemption Date).

Section 5.16. Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws.

To the extent that they may lawfully do so, the Co-Issuers covenant that they will not at any time insist on, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law or any valuation, appraisal, redemption, or marshalling law or rights, in each case wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, that may affect the covenants, the performance of, or any remedies under this Indenture. To the extent that they may lawfully do so, the Co-Issuers expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such law or rights, and covenant that they shall not delay or impede the execution of any power in this Indenture granted to the Trustee or the Holders of the Securities but will permit the execution of every power as though the law had not been enacted or rights created.

Section 5.17. Sale of Collateral.

(a) The power to effect any sale (a "Sale") of any portion of the Collateral pursuant to Sections 5.4 and 5.5 shall not be exhausted by any one or more Sales as to any portion of the Collateral remaining unsold, but shall continue unimpaired until the entire Collateral is sold or all amounts secured by the Collateral have been paid. The Trustee may upon notice to the Holders of the Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), and shall, at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class with respect to Collateral, from time to time postpone any Sale by public announcement made at the time and place of the Sale. The Trustee waives its rights to any amount fixed by law as compensation for any Sale. The Trustee may deduct the reasonable expenses incurred by it in connection with a Sale from its proceeds notwithstanding Section 6.7.

(b) The Trustee may bid for and acquire any portion of the Collateral in connection with a public Sale of the Collateral, and may pay all or part of the purchase price by crediting against amounts owing on the Notes (including the Note Components) or other amounts secured by the Collateral all or part of the net proceeds of the Sale after deducting the reasonable expenses incurred by the Trustee in connection with the Sale notwithstanding Section 6.7. The Notes need not be produced to complete any Sale, or for the net proceeds of the Sale to be credited against amounts owing on the Notes. The Trustee may hold, lease, operate, manage, or otherwise deal with any property so acquired in any manner permitted by law in accordance with this Indenture.

(c) If any portion of the Collateral consists of securities issued without registration under the Securities Act ("Unregistered Securities"), the Trustee may seek an Opinion of Counsel, or, if no Opinion of Counsel can be obtained, seek a no action position from the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other relevant federal or state regulatory authorities, regarding the legality of a public or private Sale of the Unregistered Securities.

(ii) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, on certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture; the Trustee shall examine any certificates or opinions that by any provision of this Indenture are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee to determine whether or not they substantially conform on their face to the requirements of this Indenture and shall promptly notify the party delivering the same if the certificate or opinion does not conform. If a corrected form has not been delivered to the Trustee within 15 days after the notice from the Trustee, the Trustee shall so notify the Holders of the Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares).

(b) If the Trustee has actual knowledge that an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall, before the receipt of directions from a Majority of the Controlling Class, exercise the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise, as a prudent person would use under the circumstances in the conduct of the person's own affairs.

(c) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(i) this subsection shall not be construed to limit the effect of subsection (a) of this Section 6.1;

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Trust Officer, unless it is proven that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iv) no provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any extraordinary financial liability in the performance of any of its duties under this Indenture, or in the exercise of any of its rights contemplated under this Indenture, if it has reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of the funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against the risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it; provided that the reasonable costs of performing its ordinary services under this Indenture shall not be deemed an "extraordinary financial liability" for purposes hereof.

(d) For all purposes under this Indenture, the Trustee shall not have notice or knowledge of any Event of Default described in Section 5.1(d) through 5.1(i) or any Default described in Section 5.1(e) through 5.1(i) unless a Trust Officer assigned to and working in the Corporate Trust Office has actual knowledge of it or unless written notice of any event that is in fact the an Event of Default or Default is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office, and the notice references the Notes generally, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Collateral or this Indenture. (e) the Trustee need not exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Holders of the Securities pursuant to this Indenture, unless the Holders have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs and liabilities that might reasonably be incurred by it in compliance with the request or direction;

(f) the Trustee need not make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, note, or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may, and upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class or of a Rating Agency shall, make any the further inquiry or investigation into the facts or matters that it deems appropriate or as it is directed, and the Trustee shall be entitled, on reasonable prior notice to the Co-Issuers and the Portfolio Manager, to examine the books and records relating to the Notes, the Collateral, personally or by agent or attorney, during the Co-Issuers' or the Portfolio Manager's normal business hours. dependent on or defined by reference to United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), in any instance;

(k) the permissive rights of the Trustee to take or refrain from taking any actions enumerated in this Indenture are not duties;

Section 6.6. Money Held in Trust.

Money held by the Trustee under this Indenture shall be held in trust to the extent required in this Indenture. (a) The Issuer agrees:

(i) to pay the Trustee on each Payment Date reasonable compensation for all services rendered by it under this Indenture in accordance with its letter agreement with the Trustee (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(iii) to indemnify the Trustee and its officers, directors, employees, and agents for any loss, liability, or expense incurred without negligence, willful misconduct, or bad faith on their part, arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust, including the costs and expenses of defending themselves (including reasonable attorney's fees and costs) against any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of their powers or duties under this Indenture; and

(iv) to pay the Trustee reasonable additional compensation together with its expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and costs) for any collection action taken pursuant to Section 6.13.

(b) The Trustee shall receive amounts pursuant to this Section 6.7 as provided in Sections 11.1(a)(i) and (ii) but only to the extent that funds are available for their payment. Subject to Section 6.9, the Trustee shall continue to serve as Trustee under this Indenture notwithstanding the fact that the Trustee has not received amounts due to it under this Indenture. No direction by the Holders of the Securities shall affect the right of the Trustee to collect amounts owed to it under this Indenture. If on any date when a fee is payable to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture insufficient funds are available for its payment any portion of a fee not so paid shall be deferred and payable on the next date on which a fee is payable and sufficient funds are available for it.

(c) The Trustee agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy for the non-payment to the Trustee of any amounts provided by this Section 6.7 until at least one year and one day, or if longer the applicable preference period then in effect plus one day, after the payment in full of all Securities issued under this Indenture and the payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent of all amounts payable with respect to the Preference Shares in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Nothing in this Section 6.7(c) shall prohibit or otherwise prevent the Trustee from filing proofs of claim in any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceeding.

Section 6.8. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility.

There shall at all times be a Trustee under this Indenture that is an Independent entity organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any state of the United States, authorized under those laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least U.S.$200,000,000, subject to supervision or examination by federal or state banking authority, having a rating of at least "Baa1" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) by Moody's and at least "BBB+" by S&P, and having an office within the United

If the Trustee publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of its supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section 6.8, the combined capital and surplus of the Trustee shall be its combined capital and surplus in its most recent published report of condition. If at any time the Trustee ceases to be eligible in accordance with this Section 6.8, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.9.

Section 6.9. *Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article 6 shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.10. The indemnification in favor of the Trustee shall survive any resignation or removal of the Trustee.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving not less than 30 days written notice to the Co-Issuers, the Portfolio Manager, the Holders of the Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency. Upon receiving the notice of resignation, the Co-Issuers shall at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class promptly appoint a successor trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.8, by written instrument, in duplicate, executed by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer and an Authorized Officer of the Co-Issuer, one copy of which shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and one copy to the successor Trustee, together with a copy to each Holder of Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and the Portfolio Manager. If no successor Trustee has been appointed and an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee has not been delivered to the Trustee within 60 days after the giving of the notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee or any Holder of a Security, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.8.

(c) The Trustee may be removed (i) at any time by an Act of a Majority of each Class of Securities, (ii) at any time when an Event of Default is continuing by a Majority of the Controlling Class, or (iii) by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, delivered to the Trustee and to the Co-Issuers.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee ceases to be eligible under Section 6.8 and fails to resign after written request by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class; or

(ii) the Trustee becomes incapable of acting or is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver or liquidator of the Trustee or of its property appointed or any public officer takes charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation, or liquidation, then, in any such case (subject to Section 6.9(a)), (A) the Co-Issuers, by Issuer Order, may, and at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, remove the Trustee, or (B) subject to Section 5.15, or any Holder may, on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee is removed or becomes incapable of acting, or if a vacancy occurs in the office of the Trustee for any reason (other than resignation), the Co-Issuers, by Issuer Order or at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If the Co-Issuers fail to appoint a successor Trustee within 60 days after the removal or incapability or the occurrence of the vacancy, a successor Trustee may be appointed by a Majority of the Controlling Class by written instrument delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee. The successor Trustee so appointed shall, upon its acceptance of its appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede any successor Trustee proposed by the Co-Issuers. If no successor Trustee has been so appointed by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class and accepted appointment pursuant to Section 6.10, subject to Section 5.15, then the Trustee to be replaced, or any Holder, may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Co-Issuers shall give prompt notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee by mailing written notice of the event by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the Portfolio Manager, to each Rating Agency, to the Holders of Securities as their names and addresses appear in the Indenture Register and to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares). Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office. If the Co-Issuers fail to mail the notice within ten days after acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee, the successor Trustee shall cause the notice to be given at the expense of the Co-Issuers.

Section 6.10. *Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

Every successor Trustee appointed under this Indenture shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the Co-Issuers and the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting its appointment. Upon delivery of the required instruments, the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and the successor Trustee, without any further act, shall become vested with all the rights and obligations of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Co-Issuers or a Majority of any Class of Notes or the successor Trustee, the retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of any amounts then due to it, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to the successor Trustee all the rights and obligations of the retiring Trustee, and shall duly assign, transfer, and deliver to the successor Trustee all property and money held by the retiring Trustee under this Indenture. Upon request of any successor Trustee, the Co-Issuers shall execute any instruments to more fully and certainly vest in and confirm to the successor Trustee all the rights and obligations of the Trustee under this Indenture.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of its acceptance the successor is qualified and eligible under Section 6.8 and either (a) each Rating Agency has been notified and the successor has long-term debt rated within the four highest rating categories by each Rating Agency, or (b) if not rated within the four highest categories by each Rating Agency, the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto.

Section 6.11. *Merger, Conversion, Consolidation, or Succession to Business of Trustee.

Any entity into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion, or consolidation to which the Trustee is a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under this Indenture (and of the Bank under all of its other capacities under this Indenture, including as Custodian, Securities Intermediary, Indenture Registrar, and Paying Agent) without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. If any of the Securities have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion, or consolidation to the authenticating Trustee may adopt the authentication and deliver the Securities so authenticated with the same effect as if the successor Trustee had itself authenticated the Securities.

Section 6.12. Co-Trustees.

At any time, to meet the legal requirements of any jurisdiction in which any part of the Collateral may at the time be located, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may appoint a co-trustee (subject to the approval of the Rating Agencies) to act jointly with the Trustee, with respect to all or any part of the Collateral, with the power to file proofs of claim and take any other actions pursuant to Section 5.6 in this Indenture and to make claims and enforce rights of action on behalf of the Holders of the Securities and the, as the Holders themselves have the right to do, subject to the other provisions of this Section 6.12.

The Co-Issuers shall join with the Trustee in the execution, delivery, and performance of all instruments and agreements necessary or proper to appoint a co-trustee. If the Co-Issuers do not join in the appointment within 15 days after they receive a request to do so, the Trustee may make the appointment.

Any instruments to more fully confirm a co-trustee's appointment shall, on request, be executed, acknowledged, and delivered by the Co-Issuers. The Co-Issuers agree to pay (but only from and to the extent of the Collateral), to the extent funds are available therefor under Section 11.1(a)(i)(1), any reasonable fees and expenses in connection with the appointment.

Every co-trustee shall, to the extent permitted by law, but to that extent only, be appointed subject to the following terms:

(a) the Securities shall be authenticated and delivered and all rights and obligations under this Indenture in respect of the custody of securities, cash, and other personal property held by, or required to be deposited or pledged with, the Trustee under this Indenture, shall be exercised solely by the Trustee;

(b) the rights and obligations conferred or imposed on the Trustee in respect of any property covered by the appointment of a co-trustee shall be conferred or imposed on and exercised or performed by the Trustee or by the Trustee and the co-trustee jointly as provided in the instrument appointing the co-trustee;

(c) the Trustee at any time, by an instrument in writing executed by it, with the concurrence of the Co-Issuers evidenced by an Issuer Order, may accept the resignation of or remove any co-trustee appointed under this Section 6.12, and if an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall have the power to accept the resignation of, or remove, any co-trustee without the concurrence of the Co-Issuers. A successor to any co-trustee so resigned or removed may be appointed in the manner provided in this Section 6.12;

(d) no co-trustee under this Indenture shall be personally liable because of any act or omission of the Trustee under this Indenture;

(e) the Trustee shall not be liable because of any act or omission of a co-trustee; and

(f) any Act of Holders of Notes delivered to the Trustee shall be deemed to have been delivered to each co-trustee.

Section 6.13. Certain Duties of Trustee Related to Delayed Payment of Proceeds.

If in any month the Trustee has not received a payment with respect to any Pledged Obligation on its Due Date:

(a) the Trustee shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager in writing, and

(b) unless the payment is received by the Trustee within three Business Days (or the end of the applicable grace period for the payment, if longer) after the notice, or unless the Issuer, in its absolute discretion (but only to the extent permitted by Section 10.2(a)), makes provision for the payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with Section 10.2(a), the Trustee shall request the issuer of the Pledged Obligation, the trustee under the related Underlying Instrument, or paying agent designated by either of them to make the payment as soon as practicable after the request but in no event later than three Business Days after the date of the request. If the payment is not made within that time period, the Trustee, subject to clause (iv) of Section 6.1(c), shall take the action directed by the Portfolio Manager in writing. Any such action shall be without prejudice to any right to claim a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture. If the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager requests a release of a Pledged Obligation or delivers a Collateral Obligation in connection with any such action under the Management Agreement, the release or substitution shall be subject to Section 10.6 and Article 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Trustee shall deliver to the Issuer or its designee any payment with respect to any Pledged Obligation or any Collateral Obligation received after its Due Date to the extent the Issuer previously made provisions for the payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with this Section 6.13 and the payment shall not be part of the Collateral.

Upon the request of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee shall, and if the Trustee so chooses the Trustee may, appoint one or more Authenticating Agents with power to act on its behalf and subject to its direction in the authentication of the Securities in connection with issuance, transfers, and exchanges under Sections 2.4, 2.5, 2.6, 2.7, and 8.5, as fully to all intents and purposes as though each Authenticating Agent had been expressly authorized by those Sections to authenticate the Securities. For all purposes of this Indenture, the authentication of Securities by an Authenticating Agent pursuant to this Section 6.14 shall be the authentication of the Securities "by the Trustee."

Any Authenticating Agent may at any time resign by giving written notice of resignation to the Trustee and the Issuer. The Trustee may at any time terminate the agency of any Authenticating Agent by giving written notice of termination to the Authenticating Agent and the Co-Issuers.

The Co-Issuers agree to pay to each Authenticating Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for its services, and reimbursement for its reasonable expenses relating to its services as an Administrative Expense; provided, however, that if the Trustee elects to appoint an Authenticating Agent without the approval or request of the Co-Issuers, then the Trustee shall pay such compensation and reimbursement. Sections 2.9, 6.4, and 6.5 shall be applicable to any Authenticating Agent.

Section 6.15. Fiduciary for Holders of Notes Only; Agent for Secured Parties.

With respect to the security interest created under this Indenture, the delivery of any Pledged Obligation to the Trustee is to the Trustee as representative of the Holders of Notes and agent for the other Secured Parties. In furtherance of the foregoing, the possession by the Trustee of any Pledged Obligation and the endorsement to or registration in the name of the Trustee of any Pledged Obligation (including as entitlement holder of the Custodial Account) are all undertaken by the Trustee in its capacity as representative of the Holders of Notes and agent for the other Secured Parties.

The Co-Issuers shall maintain in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, an office or agency where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Securities and this Indenture may be served and an office or agency outside of the United States where the Securities may be presented and surrendered for payment.

No paying agent shall be appointed in a jurisdiction that subjects payments on the Securities to withholding tax.

So long as any Class of Securities is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, the Co-Issuers shall maintain in Ireland a Paying Agent and an office or agency where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Securities and this Indenture may be served and where the Securities may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

The Co-Issuers appoint, for so long as any Class of Securities is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, AIB International Financial Services Ltd. (the "Irish Paying Agent") as Paying Agent in Ireland with respect to the Securities, for the payment of principal, interest and other distributions on the Securities and as the Co-Issuers' agent where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Securities or this Indenture may be served. If the Irish Paying Agent is replaced at any time when any Class of Securities is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, notice of the appointment of any replacement shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange as promptly as practicable after the appointment. The Co-Issuers shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee, each Rating Agency, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and the Holders of the Securities of the appointment or termination of any such agent and of the location and any change in the location of any such office or agency.

If at any time the Co-Issuers fail to maintain any required office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, or outside the United States, or fail to furnish the Trustee with their addresses, notices and demands may be served on the Co-Issuers.

Section 7.3. Money for Note Payments to be Held in Trust.

All payments of amounts payable with respect to any Securities that are to be made from amounts withdrawn from the Payment Account shall be made on behalf of the Applicable Issuers by the Trustee or a Paying Agent with respect to payments on the Securities.

When the Applicable Issuers have a Paying Agent that is not also the Indenture Registrar, they shall furnish no later than the fifth calendar day after each Record Date a list in the form the Paying Agent reasonably requests, of the names and addresses of the Holders and of the certificate numbers of individual Securities held by each Holder.

Whenever the Applicable Issuers have a Paying Agent other than the Trustee, they shall, on or before the Business Day before each Payment Date or Redemption Date direct the Trustee to deposit on the Payment Date with the Paying Agent an aggregate sum sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due (to the extent funds are then available for that purpose in the Payment Account), that sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled to it and (unless the Paying Agent is the Trustee) the Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee of its action or failure so to act. Any monies deposited with a Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) in excess of an amount sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due on the Securities with respect to which the deposit was made shall be paid over by the Paying Agent to the Trustee for application in accordance with Article 10.

Additional or successor Paying Agents shall be appointed by Issuer Order with written notice of the appointment to the Trustee. So long as Notes of any Class are rated by a Rating Agency any Paying Agent must either have a long-term debt rating of "Aa3" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or higher by Moody's and "AA-" or higher by S&P or a short-term debt rating of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) by Moody's and "A-1+" by S&P or the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency must be satisfied with respect to its appointment. If a successor Paying Agent ceases to have a long-term debt rating of "Aa3" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or higher by Moody's and "AA-" or higher by S&P or a short-term debt rating of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) by Moody's and a short-term debt rating of "A-1+" by S&P, the Co-Issuers shall promptly remove the Paying Agent and appoint a successor Paying Agent. The Co-Issuers shall not appoint any Paying Agent that is not, at the time of the appointment, a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision and examination by federal or state or national banking authorities. The Co-Issuers shall cause each Paying Agent other than the Trustee to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which the Paying Agent agrees with the Trustee, subject to this Section 7.3, that the Paying Agent will:

- (i) allocate all sums received for payment to the Holders of Securities for which it acts as Paying Agent on each Payment Date and any Redemption Date among the Holders in the proportion specified in the applicable report to the extent permitted by applicable law;
- (ii) hold all sums held by it for the payment of amounts due with respect to the Securities in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled to them until they are paid or otherwise disposed of as provided in this Indenture;
- (iii) immediately resign as a Paying Agent and forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums held by it in trust for the payment of the Securities if at any time it ceases to meet the standards required to be met by a Paying Agent at the time of its appointment;
- (iv) immediately give the Trustee notice of any default by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer (or any other obligor on the Notes) in the making of any payment required to be made; and
- (v) during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held in trust by the Paying Agent.

To obtain the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture or for any other purpose, the Co-Issuers may at any time pay, or by Issuer Order direct any Paying Agent to pay, to the Trustee all sums held in trust by the Co-Issuers or the Paying Agent, and, upon the payment by any Paying Agent to the Trustee, the Paying Agent shall be released from all further liability with respect to the money paid.

Any money deposited with a Paying Agent and not previously returned that remains unclaimed for 20 Business Days shall be returned to the Trustee. Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent in trust for the payment of the principal of or interest on any Security and remaining unclaimed for two years after the principal or interest has become payable shall be paid to the Applicable Issuers. The Holder of the Security shall thereafter look only to the Applicable Issuers for payment of the amounts due to it as an unsecured general creditor and all liability of the Trustee or the Paying Agent with respect to that money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Applicable Issuers) shall thereupon cease. The Trustee or the Paying Agent, before being required to release any payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Applicable Issuers any reasonable means of notification of the release of the payment, including mailing notice of the release to Holders whose Securities have been called but have not been surrendered for redemption or whose right to or interest in monies payable but not claimed is determinable from the records of any Paying Agent, at the last address of record of each Holder.

Section 7.4. Existence of Co-Issuers.

(a) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall maintain in full force their existence and rights as companies incorporated or organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands and the State of Delaware, respectively, and shall obtain and preserve their qualification to do business as foreign corporations in each jurisdiction in which the qualifications are necessary to protect the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, the Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, and any of the Collateral.

However, the Issuer may change its jurisdiction of incorporation from the Cayman Islands to any other jurisdiction reasonably selected by the Issuer so long as:

(A) the Issuer has received a legal opinion (on which the Trustee may rely) to the effect that the change is not disadvantageous in any material respect to the Holders, the Portfolio Manager or any Hedge Counterparty,

(B) written notice of the change has been given by the Issuer to the Trustee, the Holders of the Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Portfolio Manager, any Hedge Counterparty and each Rating Agency, and

(C) on or before the 15th Business Day following its receipt of the notice the Trustee has not received written notice from a Majority of the Controlling Class objecting to the change.

The Issuer may take any action required by this Indenture within the United States notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture requiring the Issuer to take the action outside of the United States so long as before taking the action the Issuer receives a legal opinion from nationally recognized legal counsel to the effect that it is not necessary to take the action outside of the United States or any political subdivision of the United States to prevent the Issuer from becoming subject to any United States federal, state, or local withholding or other taxes.

(b) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall ensure that all corporate or other formalities regarding their respective existences (including holding regular board of directors' and shareholders', or other similar, meetings to the extent required by applicable law) are followed. Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall take any action, or conduct its affairs in a manner, that is likely to result in its separate existence being ignored or in its assets and liabilities being substantively consolidated with any other person in a bankruptcy, reorganization, or other insolvency proceeding. Without limiting the foregoing,

(i) the Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries other than the Co-Issuer,

(ii) the Co-Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries,

(iii) the Issuer shall maintain at all times at least one director who is Independent of the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, and any of their respective Affiliates,

(iv) the Issuer shall not commingle its funds with the funds of any other person, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture, and

(v) except to the extent contemplated in the Management Agreement, the Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and the declaration of trust by the Share Trustee, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall not:

(A) have any employees (other than their respective directors),

(B) engage in any transaction with any shareholder that would be a conflict of interest (the entry into the Administration Agreement with the Administrator shall not be deemed a conflict of interest), or

(C) pay dividends in violation of this Indenture, the resolutions of its board of directors and the Preference Share Documents.

Section 7.5. Protection of Collateral.

(a) The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will procure any action within the Portfolio Manager's control that is reasonably necessary to maintain the perfection and priority of the security interest of the Trustee in the Collateral. The Issuer from time to time shall execute and deliver any supplements and amendments to this Indenture and shall execute and deliver any Financing Statements, continuation statements, instruments of further assurance, and other instruments and shall take any other action appropriate to secure the rights and remedies of the Secured Parties under this Indenture and to:

(i) Grant more effectively all or any portion of the Collateral;

(ii) maintain or preserve the lien (and its priority) of this Indenture or to carry out more effectively the purposes of this Indenture;

(iii) perfect, publish notice of, or protect the validity of any Grant made by this Indenture (including any actions appropriate as a result of changes in law);

(iv) enforce any of the Pledged Obligations or other instruments or property included in the Collateral;

(v) preserve and defend title to the Collateral and the rights of the Secured Parties in the Collateral against the claims of anyone; and

(vi) pay when due all taxes levied or assessed on any part of the Collateral.

The Issuer designates the Portfolio Manager as its agent and attorney in fact to execute any Financing Statement, continuation statement, and all other instruments, and take all other actions, required pursuant to this Section 7.5.

The Issuer authorizes the filing without the Issuer's signature a financing statement that names the Issuer as "debtor" and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association as "secured party" (with or without indicating its capacity as Trustee hereunder) and that describes the Collateral as "all assets of the debtor, whether now owned or hereafter acquired and wherever located."

(b) The Trustee shall not:

(i) except in accordance with Section 10.6(a), (b), or (c), remove any portion of the Collateral that consists of Cash or is evidenced by an instrument, certificate, or other writing:

(A) from the jurisdiction in which it was held at the date the most recent Opinion of Counsel was delivered pursuant to Section 7.6 (or from the jurisdiction in which it was held as described in the Opinions of Counsel delivered at the Closing Date pursuant to Section 3.1(iii) if no Opinion of Counsel has yet been delivered pursuant to Section 7.6), or

(B) from the possession of the person who held it (other than the Bank), or

(ii) cause or permit ownership or the pledge of any portion of the Collateral that consists of book-entry securities to be recorded on the books of a person (other than the Bank):

(A) located in a different jurisdiction from the jurisdiction in which the ownership or pledge was recorded, or

(B) other than the person on whose books the ownership or pledge was originally recorded, unless the Trustee shall have first received an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to the property and its priority will continue to be maintained after giving effect to the change.

(c) Without at least 30 days' prior written notice to the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall not change its "location" (as defined in Section 9-307 of the UCC) or change its name from the name shown on the signature pages of this Indenture.

(d) The Issuer shall, subject to the Priority of Payments, enforce all of its material rights and remedies under the Management Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, each Hedge Agreement and each Securities Lending Agreement.

(e) The Issuer shall pay any taxes levied because any Pledged Obligations are owned by the Issuer.

(f) The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will either exercise the "put" option that prevents a Collateral Obligation from being a Long-Dated Collateral Obligation on the last available date before the Stated Maturity of the Notes or sell the Collateral Obligation for Sale Proceeds at least equal to the Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligation, in either case by the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

Section 7.6. Opinions as to Collateral.

On or before July 31 in each calendar year, commencing in 2006, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager and each Rating Agency an Opinion of Counsel from each relevant jurisdiction stating that, in the counsel's opinion, as of the date of the opinion, all actions necessary to maintain the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to the Collateral have been taken and that no further action (other than as specified in the opinion) needs to be taken for the continued effectiveness and perfection of the lien over the next year. The opinion may be subject to customary assumptions and qualifications.

Section 7.7. *Performance of Obligations.

(a) The Co-Issuers, each as to itself, shall not take any action, and shall use their reasonable commercial efforts not to permit any action to be taken by others, that would release any person from any of the person's covenants or obligations under any instrument included in the Collateral, except in the case of enforcement action taken with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation in accordance with this Indenture and actions by the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement and in conformity with this Indenture or as otherwise required by this Indenture.

(b) The Applicable Issuers may, with the prior written consent of a Majority of each Class of Notes and a Majority of the Preference Shares (except in the case of the Management Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement as initially executed), contract with other persons (including the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, and the Collateral Administrator) for the performance of actions and obligations to be performed by the Applicable Issuers under this Indenture. Notwithstanding any such arrangement, the Applicable Issuers shall remain primarily liable for performance under this Indenture. The Applicable Issuers shall punctually perform, and use their reasonable commercial efforts to cause the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and any other person to perform, all of their obligations in the Management Agreement, this Indenture, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement or any other agreement.

Section 7.8. *Negative Covenants.

(a) The Issuer shall not and, with respect to clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), and (vi), the Co-Issuer shall not, in each case from and after the Closing Date:

(i) sell, transfer, assign, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber (or permit or suffer the sale, transfer, assignment, exchange, or other disposition of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecation, or other encumbering of), any part of the Collateral, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and the Management Agreement;

(ii) claim any credit on, make any deduction from, or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, dispute the enforceability of payment of the principal or interest (or any other amount) payable in respect of the Notes (other than amounts withheld in accordance with the Code or any applicable laws of the Cayman Islands) or assert any claim against any present or future Holder of Notes because of the payment of any taxes levied or assessed on any part of the Collateral;

(iii) (A) incur or assume or guarantee any indebtedness, other than the Securities and this Indenture and the transactions contemplated by this Indenture (including, as contemplated hereby, entering into the Hedge Agreements and Securities Lending Agreements), or (B) issue any additional class of securities other than the Preference Shares issued on or before the Closing Date, except as otherwise permitted by the Preference Share Documents;

(iv) (A) permit the validity or effectiveness of this Indenture or any Grant under this Indenture to be impaired, or permit the lien of this Indenture to be amended, hypothecated, subordinated, terminated, or discharged, or permit any person to be released from any covenants or obligations with respect to this Indenture or the Securities, except as may be expressly permitted by this Indenture or by the Management Agreement, (B) permit any lien, charge, adverse claim, security interest, mortgage, or other encumbrance (other than the lien of this Indenture) to be created on or extend to or otherwise arise on or burden any part of the Collateral, any interest in it, or its proceeds of, or (C) take any action that would permit the lien of this Indenture not to be a valid first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral;

(v) amend the Management Agreement except pursuant to its terms and Section 15.1(f)(iv) or amend the Collateral Administration Agreement except pursuant to its terms unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the amendment or enter into any waiver in respect of any of the foregoing agreements without providing written notice to each Rating Agency and the Trustee (and, with respect to the Collateral Administration Agreement, without the consent of the Trustee);

(vi) to the extent permitted by applicable law, dissolve or liquidate in whole or in part, except as permitted under this Indenture;

(vii) pay any dividends or other distributions other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Preference Share Documents;

(viii) conduct business under any name other than its own;

(ix) have any employees (other than directors and officers to the extent they are employees); or

(x) except for any Underlying Instrument and agreements involving the purchase or sale of Collateral Obligations having customary purchase or sale terms and documented with customary trading documentation (but not excepting any Synthetic Security or Hedge Agreement), enter into any agreement unless the agreement contains "non-petition" and "limited recourse" provisions and shall not amend such "non-petition" and "limited recourse" provisions without prior Rating Confirmation.

(b) Neither the Issuer nor the Trustee shall sell, transfer, exchange, or otherwise dispose of Collateral, or enter into an agreement or commitment to do so, or enter into or engage in any business with respect to any part of the Collateral, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer, the Management Agreement.

(c) The Co-Issuer shall not invest any of its assets in "securities" as the term is defined in the 1940 Act, and shall keep all of its assets in Cash.

(d) Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall use the proceeds of the Securities to buy or carry Margin Stock.

Section 7.9. Notice of Default; Statement as to Compliance.

(a) The Co-Issuers shall notify the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, the Rating Agencies, and each Hedge Counterparty within 10 days of acquiring actual knowledge of Default.

(b) On or before July 31 in each calendar year, commencing in 2006, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (to be forwarded by the Trustee to the Portfolio Manager and each Holder of Securities making a written request therefor and, upon written request therefor by a Beneficial Owner in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a Beneficial Owner, to the Beneficial Owner (or its designee) and each Rating Agency) a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer that, to the best knowledge of the Issuer, no Default exists, and has not existed since the date of the last certificate or, if a Default does then exist or had existed, specifying the same and its nature and status, including actions undertaken to remedy it, and that the Issuer has complied with all of its obligations under this Indenture or, if that is not the case, specifying those obligations with which it has not complied.

Section 7.10. Co-Issuers May Consolidate, etc., Only on Certain Terms.

Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer (the "Merging Entity") shall consolidate or merge with or into any other person or transfer or convey all or substantially all of its assets to any person, unless permitted by Cayman Islands law (in the case of the Issuer) or United States and Delaware law (in the case of the Co-Issuer) and unless:

(a) the Merging Entity shall be the surviving corporation, or the person (if other than the Merging Entity) formed by the consolidation or into which the Merging Entity is merged or to which all or substantially all of the assets of the Merging Entity are transferred (the "Successor Entity"),

(i) if the Merging Entity is the Issuer, is a company organized and existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands or another jurisdiction approved by a Majority of the Controlling Class (except that no approval shall be required in connection with any such transaction undertaken solely to effect a change in the jurisdiction of incorporation pursuant to Section 7.4), and

(ii) in any case shall expressly assume, by an indenture supplemental to this Indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee and each Noteholder and each Composite Securityholder, the due and punctual payment of all amounts on all Securities issued by the Merging Entity and the performance and observance of every covenant of this Indenture on its part to be performed or observed, all as provided in this Indenture;

(b) each Rating Agency shall have been notified of the consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the transaction;

(c) if the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall have agreed with the Trustee,

(i) to observe the same legal requirements for the recognition of the formed or surviving corporation as a legal entity separate and apart from any of its Affiliates as are applicable to the Merging Entity with respect to its Affiliates,

(ii) not to consolidate or merge with or into any other person or transfer or convey the Collateral or all or substantially all of its assets to any other person except in accordance with this Section 7.10; and

(iii) in any case shall expressly assume by an indenture supplemental to this Indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee, each Noteholder, each Composite Securityholder and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the due and punctual payment of all amounts on all the Securities issued by the Merging Entity and the performance and observance of every covenant of this Indenture on its part to be performed or observed, all as provided in this Indenture;

(d) if the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall have delivered to the Trustee and each Rating Agency an Officer's certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing in the jurisdiction in which it is organized; that it has sufficient power and authority to assume the obligations in subsection (a) above and to execute and deliver an indenture supplemental to this Indenture for the purpose of assuming the obligations in subsection (a) above; that it has duly authorized the execution, delivery, and performance of an indenture supplemental to this Indenture for the purpose of assuming the obligations in subsection (a) above and that the supplemental indenture is its valid and legally binding obligation, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject only to bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, moratorium, and other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity; if the Merging Entity is the Issuer, that, following the event that causes the Successor Entity to become the successor to the Issuer, (i) the Successor Entity has title, free of any lien, security interest, or charge, other than the lien and security interest of this Indenture, to the Collateral, and (ii) the lien of this Indenture continues to be effective in the Collateral; and in each case as to any other matters the Trustee or any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder reasonably requires;

(e) after giving effect to the transaction, no Default or Event of Default shall be continuing;

(f) the Merging Entity shall have notified each Rating Agency of the consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance and shall have delivered to the Trustee, each Noteholder, each Composite Securityholder and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) an Officer's certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that the consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance and the supplemental indenture comply with this Article 7 and that all conditions precedent in this Article 7 relating to the transaction have been complied with and that no adverse tax consequences will result therefrom to the Holders of the Securities or Preference Shares;

(g) the Merging Entity shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel stating that after giving effect to the transaction, neither of the Co-Issuers (or, if applicable, the Successor Entity) will be as an investment company under the 1940 Act; and

(h) after giving effect to the transaction, the outstanding stock of the Merging Entity (or, if applicable, the Successor Entity) will not be beneficially owned within the meaning of the 1940 Act by any U.S. Person.

Section 7.11. Successor Substituted.

Upon any consolidation or merger, or transfer or conveyance of all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, in accordance with Section 7.10 in which the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right of, the Merging Entity under this Indenture with the same effect as if the person had been named as the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, in this Indenture. Upon any such consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance, the person named as the "Issuer" or the "Co-Issuer" in the first paragraph of this Indenture or any successor may be dissolved, wound up, and liquidated at any time thereafter, and the person thereafter shall be released from its liabilities as obligor and maker on all the Securities and from its obligations under this Indenture.

Section 7.12. No Other Business.

(a) From and after the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than issuing and selling the Securities pursuant to this Indenture and the Preference

Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents and acquiring, owning, holding, and pledging and selling Collateral Obligations and the other Collateral in connection therewith, and shall not act as agent, negotiator or structurer with respect to any Collateral, act as a participant in negotiating terms of a primary loan agreement, enter into a binding commitment to purchase any Collateral prior to the issuance thereof or engage in any transaction or activity not permitted by the Collateral Acquisition Agreement or which the Issuer knows would cause it to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States within the meaning of the Code or subject the Issuer's income to taxation on a net basis in any jurisdiction, and the Co-Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than issuing and selling the Notes to be issued by it pursuant to this Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, other activities appropriate to accomplish the foregoing or incidental thereto or connected therewith.

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of clause (a) of this Section 7.12, the Issuer shall comply with all of the provisions set forth in the Collateral Acquisition Agreement, unless, with respect to a particular transaction, the Issuer and the Trustee shall have received an opinion or advice of tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such transaction, the Issuer's failure to comply with one or more of such provisions will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States within the meaning of the Code or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis. The provisions set forth in the Collateral Acquisition Agreement may be amended, eliminated or supplemented (without execution of a supplemental indenture) if the Issuer and the Trustee shall have received an opinion of tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters that the Issuer's compliance with such amended provisions or supplemental provisions or the Issuer's failure to comply with such provisions proposed to be eliminated, as the case may be, will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States within the meaning of the Code or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis provided, however, that written notice of any such amendment, elimination or supplementation of or to the provisions of the Collateral Acquisition Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.12(b) shall be provided to each Rating Agency then rating any Outstanding Class of Securities within 90 days of any such amendment, elimination or supplementation. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event an opinion of tax counsel as described above has been obtained in accordance with the terms hereof, no consent of any Holder of the Securities or satisfaction of the Rating Condition shall be required in order to comply with this Section 7.12(b) in connection with the amendment, elimination or supplementation of any provision of the Collateral Acquisition Agreement contemplated by such opinion of tax counsel.

(c) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer may amend, or permit the amendment of, their Memorandum and Articles or the Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the amendment (but not otherwise).

Section 7.13. Listing on Irish Stock Exchange.

So long as any Securities remain Outstanding, the Co-Issuers shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain the listing of the Securities on the Irish Stock Exchange.

Section 7.14. Annual Rating Review.

So long as any Securities of any Class remain Outstanding, on or before May, 31 in each year commencing in 2006, the Co-Issuers shall obtain and pay for an annual review or ongoing surveillance of the rating of each Outstanding Class of Securities from each Rating Agency, as applicable. The Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager in writing (and the Trustee shall promptly provide a copy of the notice to the Holders of the Securities) and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) if at any time the rating of any Class of Securities has been, or is known will be, changed or withdrawn.

Section 7.15. Reporting.

At any time when the Co-Issuers are not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act and are not exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act, upon the request of a Holder or Beneficial Owner of any Note or a Holder of a Composite Security, the Co-Issuers shall promptly furnish "Rule 144A Information" to the Holder or Beneficial Owner, to a prospective purchaser of a Security designated by the Holder or Beneficial Owner or to the Trustee for delivery to the Holder or Beneficial Owner or a prospective purchaser designated by the Holder or Beneficial Owner, as the case may be, to permit compliance by the Holder or Beneficial Owner with Rule 144A under the Securities Act in connection with the resale of the Security by the Holder or Beneficial Owner. "Rule 144A Information" is the information specified pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

Section 7.16. Calculation Agent.

(a) The Issuer agrees that for so long as any Floating Rate Notes remain Outstanding an agent will always have been appointed (that does not control and is not controlled by or under common control with the Issuer or its Affiliates) to calculate LIBOR in respect of each Interest Period (the "Calculation Agent"). The Issuer has initially appointed the Trustee as Calculation Agent. The Issuer may remove the Calculation Agent at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Issuer or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine any of the information required to be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange, as described in subsection (b), in respect of any Interest Period, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager (on its behalf) shall promptly appoint a replacement Calculation Agent. For so long as any Securities are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, notice of the appointment of any replacement Calculation Agent shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange as promptly as practicable after the appointment. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been duly appointed.

(b) As soon as possible after 11:00 A.M., London time, on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period, but in no event later than 11:00 A.M., London time, on the next Business Day, the Calculation Agent shall calculate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes for the next Interest Period. The Calculation Agent shall communicate those rates and amounts to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, each Paying Agent, the Portfolio Manager, Euroclear, Clearstream, the Depository, and, so long as any of the Floating Rate Notes are listed thereon and the rules of the exchange so require, the Irish Stock Exchange. In the latter case, the information shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange as soon as possible after its determination. The Calculation Agent shall separately notify the Irish Stock Exchange of the information. The Calculation Agent shall also specify to the Co-Issuers the quotations on which the foregoing rates are based, and in any event the Calculation Agent shall notify the Co-Issuers before 7:00 P.M., London time, on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period that either:

- (i) it has determined or is in the process of determining the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes, or
- (ii) it has not determined and is not in the process of determining any such Note Interest Rate together with its reasons therefor.

The Calculation Agent's determination of the foregoing rates for any Interest Period shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding on all parties and the Holders and Beneficial Owners of the Preference Shares.

Section 7.17. Certain Tax Matters.

(a) For United States federal income tax purposes, the Issuer shall treat the Preference Shares as equity and the Notes as debt. The Issuer shall treat the Class 1 Composite Securities as consisting of Preference Shares corresponding to the Preference Share Component and Class D-2 Notes corresponding to the Class D-2 Component. The Issuer shall treat the Class 2 Composite Securities as consisting of Preference Shares corresponding to the Preference Share Component and Class C Notes corresponding to the Class C Component. Each Holder of a Note, by its acquisition of that Note, agrees to treat those Notes as debt for United States federal income tax purposes. Each Holder of a Class 1 Composite Security, by its acquisition of the Class 1 Composite Security, agrees to treat the Class 1 Composite Securities as consisting of Preference Shares corresponding to the Preference Share Component and Class D-2 Notes corresponding to the Class D-2 Component, and to treat the Preference Shares as equity in the Issuer and the Class D-2 Component as debt for United States federal income tax purposes. Each Holder of a Class 2 Composite Security, by its acquisition of the Class 2 Composite Security, agrees to treat the Class 2 Composite Securities as consisting of Preference Shares corresponding to the Preference Share Component and Class C Notes corresponding to the Class C Component, and to treat the Preference Shares as equity in the Issuer and the Class C Component as debt for United States federal income tax purposes.

(b) The Issuer will not elect to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(c) The Issuer shall file, or cause to be filed, any tax returns, including information tax returns, required by any governmental authority; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not file, or cause to be filed, any income or franchise tax return in any state of the United States unless it shall have obtained an Opinion of Counsel from a tax counsel of nationally recognized standing experienced in such matters prior to such filing that, under the laws of such jurisdiction, the Issuer is required to file such income or franchise tax return.

(d) In order to ensure the Holders' and Beneficial Owners' acquisition of the Securities pursuant to this Agreement are not treated as offered under conditions of confidentiality, the Holders and Beneficial Owners of the Securities (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) are hereby permitted to disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the ownership and disposition of the Securities). For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction, and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction.

(e) If the Issuer is aware that it has purchased an interest in a "reportable transaction" within the meaning of Section 6011 of the Code, and a Holder of a Note or Composite Security requests information about any such transactions in which the Issuer is an investor, the Issuer shall provide such information it has reasonably available as soon as practicable after such request.

(f) The Issuer shall not conduct any business other than the business that the Issuer is permitted to conduct under this Agreement.

(g) Upon written request by the Independent accountants, the Indenture Registrar shall provide to the Independent accountants that information contained in the Indenture Register requested by the Independent accountants to comply with this Section 7.17.

(h) The Issuer will treat each purchase of Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments as a "purchase" for tax accounting and reporting purposes.

Section 7.18. Securities Lending.

(a) So long as no Event of Default is continuing and if after the completion of the transaction the limit in clause (28) of the definition of "Concentration Limitations" would be satisfied, the Portfolio Manager may cause Collateral Obligations that are not Defaulted Collateral Obligations to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A" from S&P (each, a "Securities Lending Counterparty") pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a "Securities Lending Agreement"); provided that Collateral Obligations the Market Value of which cannot be determined under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Collateral Obligations to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Portfolio Manager. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Placement Agents or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Stated Maturity of the Securities.

(b) Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Portfolio Manager (except as may be required below) and shall:

(i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Issuer debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent Collateral Obligations;

(ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Issuer amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent Collateral Obligation is entitled to for the period during which the Collateral Obligation is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities Lending Agreement to make "gross-up" payments to the Issuer that cover the full amount of the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;

(iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;

(iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;

(v) be governed by the laws of New York;

(vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture;

(vii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Collateral Obligation becomes a Credit Risk Obligation or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;

(viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty upon any redemption of the Securities in whole;

(ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement (the "Securities Lending Collateral") to secure its obligation to return the Collateral Obligations or in the alternative post the Securities Lending Collateral with a custodian for the benefit of the Issuer designated by the Securities Lending Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that custodian would qualify to be a successor trustee under Section 6.8;

(x) provide that the Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained at all times in an amount equal to at least 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value (determined daily and monitored by the Portfolio Manager) of the lent Collateral Obligations and if securities are delivered to the Trustee as security for the obligations of the Securities Lending Counterparty under the related Securities Lending Agreement, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will negotiate with the Securities Lending Counterparty a rate for the loan fee to be paid to the Issuer for lending the lent Collateral Obligations;

(xi) the lent Collateral Obligations shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Portfolio Manager on the basis of their Market Value;

(xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer's rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement rather than the loaned Collateral Obligation;

(xiii) provide for early termination within 10 days at the option of the Issuer and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in this Indenture; and

(xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in this Indenture.

(c) If either Moody's or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty, then the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, within 10 days of the downgrade, shall

(i) terminate its Securities Lending Agreements with the Securities Lending Counterparty unless a guarantor for the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements has been obtained; or

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations lent to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty so that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party, together with all other Securities Lending Agreements, are in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of Securities Lending Counterparties; or

(iii) take any other steps Moody's or S&P may require to cause the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party to be treated by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, as if the obligations were owed by a counterparty having a rating at least equivalent to the rating that was assigned by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty before its being downgraded.

(d) In connection with any such direction by the Portfolio Manager to enter into a Securities Lending Agreement, the Trustee may receive and rely on an Issuer Order to the effect that the Securities Lending Agreement, and its Securities Lending Counterparty, is each in compliance with the requirements of this Indenture (including the definition of "Securities Lending Counterparty"). The Issuer and the Trustee may enter into any Securities Lending Agreement (and any related account control agreement) at the instruction of the Portfolio Manager, and deliver and accept delivery and return of any Collateral Obligations pursuant to the Securities Lending Agreement, or pursuant to instructions from the Portfolio Manager in connection with the Securities Lending Agreement. The Trustee may take any actions and exercise any rights and remedies under any Securities Lending Agreement that the Portfolio Manager instructs. The Trustee need not enter into any Securities Lending Agreement (or any related account control agreement) that would in its judgment, subject it to any liability, whether financial or otherwise, or cause it to incur or subject it to risk of any cost or disbursement for which it is not, in its judgment, adequately indemnified, or that would impose on it any obligations or administrative burdens that are unacceptable to it. The Portfolio Manager shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity, or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in this Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Collateral Obligation is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement,

(a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Collateral Obligation because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action), and

(b) the loaned Collateral Obligations shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as a Collateral Obligation by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Collateral Obligation to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under this Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

Section 7.19. Purchase of Collateral Obligations; Ramp-Up Completion Date.

(a) The Issuer shall use its best efforts to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period or enter into commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period for purchase on or as soon as practicable thereafter (not to exceed 60 days thereafter), in each case, for inclusion in the Collateral so that each of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $678,000,000.

(b) No Collateral Obligations may be purchased prior to the Ramp-Up Completion Date unless immediately following the purchase of any Collateral Obligation (as certified by the Portfolio Manager in writing), the remaining funds in the Collection Account, after giving effect to such purchase, are sufficient as of the date of determination to purchase Collateral Obligations for inclusion in the Collateral so that each of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $678,000,000 (taking into account the Collateral Obligations already part of the Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date)).

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of this Indenture, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase a Collateral Obligation to be included in the Collateral, such commitment initially not to exceed 60 days, and at the time of the commitment the Collateral Obligation complied with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set forth in this Section 7.19, the Issuer may consummate the purchase of the Collateral Obligation notwithstanding that the Collateral Obligation fails to comply with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set out above on the date of settlement.

(d) The Issuer will use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, or to enter into binding agreements to purchase, Collateral Obligations by the Ramp-Up Completion Date, that, together with the Collateral Obligations purchased on or before the Closing Date and then held by the Issuer, will satisfy, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date), the Collateral Quality Tests, the Concentration Limitations, the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 of this Indenture and the Overcollateralization Tests.

(e) On or prior to September 1, 2005, so long as the Ramp-Up Completion Date has not already occurred, the Portfolio Manager shall certify by an order of the Portfolio Manager delivered to the Issuer, the Trustee and Moody's that, as of such date: (i)(A) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer equals at least $500,000,000, or (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations purchased (or committed to be purchased) by the Issuer with proceeds from the sale of the Notes (in each case in this clause (B), measured solely as of the date of purchase or commitment, as the case may be) equals at least $500,000,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date, (ii) the Diversity Score is equal to at least 40, (iii) the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied and (iv) each of the Coverage Tests is satisfied. If the Portfolio Manager is not able to certify each of the foregoing items, an Interim Ramp-Up Completion Date Failure shall occur.

(f) On or prior to November 1, 2005, so long as the Ramp-Up Completion Date has not already occurred, the Portfolio Manager shall certify by an order of the Portfolio Manager delivered to the Issuer, the Trustee and Moody's that, as of such date: (i)(A) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer equals at least $600,000,000, or (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations purchased (or committed to be purchased) by the Issuer with proceeds from the sale of the Notes (in each case in this clause (B), measured solely as of the date of purchase or commitment, as the case may be) equals at least $600,000,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date, (ii) the Diversity Score is equal to at least 45, (iii) the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied and (iv) each of the Coverage Tests is satisfied. If the Portfolio Manager is not able to certify each of the foregoing items, an Interim Ramp-Up Completion Date Failure shall occur.

(g) Within 5 Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager (on behalf of the Issuer) shall request a Rating Confirmation on behalf of the Issuer and shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies identifying the Collateral Obligations then included in the Collateral and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies, together with the delivery of a report (and, with respect to S&P, a Microsoft Excel file of the S&P CDO Monitor input file and, with respect to each Collateral Obligation, the name of the obligor thereon, the CUSIP number thereof (if applicable) and the S&P Priority Category thereof) substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, an Accountants' Certificate:

(i) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread and recovery rate for each item of Original Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included in the Collateral, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein;

(ii) confirming that as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date:

(1) each of the Coverage Tests are satisfied;

(2) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date is at least equal to the Maximum Investment Amount; and

(3) the Collateral Obligations comply with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests and the Concentration Limitations and the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 of this Indenture; and

(iii) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements.

(h) If a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to, and to the extent provided in, Section 9.1(a).

Section 7.20. Posting of Reports on Repository.

If the Placement Agents have entered into a posting dealer agreement with The Bond Market Association relating to the transactions contemplated by this Indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager acknowledges and agrees that each Monthly Report and Valuation Report shall be posted to the Repository for use in the manner provided in the Repository. In connection therewith, the Trustee at the expense of the Issuer agrees to make available in accordance with Section 14.3(a)(viii) each Monthly Report or Valuation Report to the operator of the Repository for posting on the Repository.

Section 7.21. *Secondary Risk Procedures.

The Portfolio Manager shall notify S&P and request that S&P modify the S&P CDO Monitor accordingly if on any date (as disclosed in the most recent Monthly Report):

(a) the Aggregate Principal Amount of all Collateral Obligations participated from or entered into with the same Secondary Risk Counterparty exceeds the percentage of the Maximum Investment Amount in the Secondary Risk Table opposite the long-term S&P credit rating of the Secondary Risk Counterparty under the caption "Individual Counterparty Limit," or

(b) the Aggregate Principal Amount of all Collateral Obligations participated from or entered into with Secondary Risk counterparties with the same long-term credit rating exceeds the percentage of the Maximum Investment Amount in the Secondary Risk Table opposite that rating under the caption "Aggregate Counterparty Limit" (excluding up to 5% by Aggregate Principal Amount of Synthetic Securities with respect to Collateral Obligations the Aggregate Counterparty Limit of which is 20% to the extent that (x) such exposure is fully collateralized with respect to principal and (y) the related Synthetic Security counterparties are rated at least "A-1+" by S&P).

Section 7.22. *Section 3(c)(7) Procedures.

In addition to the notices required to be given under Section 10.6 hereof, the Issuer shall take the following actions to ensure compliance with the requirements of Section 3(c)(7) of the 1940 Act (provided, that such procedures and disclosures may be revised by the Issuer to be consistent with generally accepted practice for compliance with the requirements of Section 3(c)(7) of the 1940 Act):

(a) Section 3(c)(7) Notice to Investors. The Issuer shall (i) request the Depository to cause, and cooperate with the Depository in causing, the Depository's security description and delivery order to include a "3(c)(7) marker" and the Depository's user manual to contain an accurate description of the restrictions on the holding and transfer of the Notes due to the Issuer's reliance on the exclusion to registration provided by Section 3(c)(7) of the 1940 Act, (ii) request that the Depository send, and cooperate with the Depository in causing the Depository to send, to its Agent Members (x) the Important Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice substantially in the form of Exhibit H-2 in connection with the initial offering of the Notes and (y) the Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice substantially in the form of Exhibit H-1 as set forth in Section 10.6(b) and (iii) request that the Depository cause, and cooperate with the Depository in causing, the Depository's Reference Directory to include each Class of Notes (and the applicable CUSIP numbers for the Notes) in the listing of 3(c)(7) issues together with an attached description of the limitations as to the distribution, purchase, sale and holding of the Notes.

(b) CUSIP Numbers. The Issuer shall (a) request of S&P, and shall cooperate with S&P to ensure that all CUSIP numbers identifying the Notes shall have a "fixed field" attached thereto that contains "3c7" and "144A" indicators and (b) take steps to cause the Placement Agents and any market makers to require that all "confirms" of trades of the Notes contain CUSIP numbers with such "fixed field" identifiers.

(c) Bloomberg and other Third-Party Vendor Screens. The Issuer shall use all reasonable efforts to cause the Bloomberg screen or screens containing information about the Notes to include the following language: (a) the “Note Box” on the bottom of the “Security Display” page describing the Notes shall state: “Iss’d Under 144A/3(c)(7),” (b) the “Security Display” page shall have the flashing red indicator “See Other Available Information,” and (c) the indicator shall link to the “Additional Security Information” page, which shall state that the securities are “being offered in reliance on the exemption from registration under Rule 144A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) to persons who are both (x) qualified institutional buyers (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act) and (y) qualified purchasers (as defined under Section 3(c)(7) under the Investment Company Act of 1940).” The Issuer shall use all reasonable efforts to require that any other third-party vendor screens containing information about the Notes include substantially similar language to clauses (a) through (c) above.

ARTICLE 8

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

Section 8.1. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders.

(a) Without the consent of the Holders of any Securities or the Holders of any Preference Shares, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and subject to the requirement provided below in this Section 8.1 with respect to the ratings of any Class of Securities, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may, if it is not materially and adversely affected thereby (and will be bound by a standard of good faith and fair dealing in making such determination) execute one or more indentures supplemental to this Indenture, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, to:

- (1) evidence the succession of another person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and the assumption by the successor person of the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in this Indenture and in the Securities;
- (2) add to the covenants of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee for the benefit of the Holders of the Securities or to surrender any right in this Indenture conferred on the Co-Issuers;
- (3) convey, transfer, assign, mortgage, or pledge any property to the Trustee, or add to the conditions, limitations, or restrictions on the authorized amount, terms, and purposes of the issue, authentication, and delivery of the Securities;
- (4) evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment under this Indenture by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of this Indenture necessary to facilitate the administration of the trusts under this Indenture by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of Sections 6.9, 6.10, and 6.12;
- (5) correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of this Indenture, or to better assure, convey, and confirm to the Trustee any property subject or required to be subject to the lien of this Indenture (including all actions appropriate as a result of changes in law) or to subject to the lien of this Indenture any additional property;
- (6) modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of the Securities to reflect any changes in applicable law (or its interpretation) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely on any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities

Act or the 1940 Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required under this Indenture;

(7) with the consent of the Portfolio Manager, to modify the restrictions on the sales of Collateral Obligations in Section 12.1 or the Eligibility Criteria in Section 12.2 (and the definitions related thereto) in a manner not materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of the Notes, the Composite Securities or the Preference Shares as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Portfolio Manager to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of the Notes, the Composite Securities or the Preference Shares;

(8) make appropriate changes for any Class of Securities to be listed on an exchange other than the Irish Stock Exchange;

(9) otherwise to correct any inconsistency or cure any ambiguity or errors in this Indenture;

(10) accommodate the issuance of the Securities in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC or otherwise;

(11) to take any appropriate action to prevent the Issuer, the Holders of Securities or Preference Shares, or the Trustee from becoming subject to withholding or other taxes, fees, or assessments or to prevent the Issuer from being treated as being engaged in a U.S. trade or business or otherwise being subject to income tax on a net income basis, so long as the action will not cause the Holders of any Securities or Preference Shares to be adversely affected to any material extent by any change to the timing, character, or source of the income from the Securities or Preference Shares, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion);

(12) to authorize the appointment of any listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent, or additional registrar for any Class of Securities appropriate in connection with the listing of any Class of Securities on the Irish Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange, and otherwise to amend this Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent, or additional registrar for any Class of Securities in connection with its appointment, so long as the supplemental indenture would not materially and adversely affect any Holder of Securities, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Portfolio Manager, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities;

(13) to amend, modify, enter into, or accommodate the execution of any contract relating to a Synthetic Security (including posting collateral under a Synthetic Security Agreement);

(14) to modify Section 3.3 to be consistent with applicable laws or Rating Agency requirements;

(15) to evidence any waiver by any Rating Agency as to any requirement or condition, as applicable, of the Rating Agency set forth in this Indenture;

(16) to facilitate the issuance of participation notes, combination notes, composite securities and other similar securities;

(17) to facilitate hedging transactions;

(18) to facilitate the ability of the Issuer to lend collateral pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement;

(19) to modify any provision to facilitate an A/B Exchange, including to effect any serial designation relating to the exchange; or

(20) with the consent of the Portfolio Manager, to enter into any additional agreements not expressly prohibited by this Indenture as well as any amendment, modification, or waiver if the Issuer determines that the amendment, modification, or waiver would not, upon or after becoming effective, materially and adversely affect the rights or interest of the Holders of any Class of Securities or the Holders of Preference Shares as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Portfolio Manager to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities or the Holders of Preference Shares.

(b) Without the consent of the Portfolio Manager, no supplemental indenture may be entered into that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to the Portfolio Manager under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager.

(c) The Trustee is authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be in the agreements, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, except to the extent required by law. Unless notified by a Majority of any Class of the Securities or a Majority of the Holders of Preference Shares that the Class of Securities or Holders of Preference Shares would be materially and adversely affected, the Trustee may rely on a certificate of the Portfolio Manager and an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) as to whether the interests of any Holder of Securities or Holder of Preference Shares would be materially and adversely affected by any such supplemental indenture. The Trustee shall give notice of the proposed change to the Holders of Securities and to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) at least 15 Business Days before execution of any supplemental indenture by the Trustee (or 60 calendar days before execution, in the case of a supplemental indenture for the purpose described in paragraph (7) of Section 8.1(a), which shall be identified as such in a certificate of the Portfolio Manager delivered to the Trustee before the date on which such notice is required to be given).

(d) If any Outstanding Securities are rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall enter into a supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.1 only if either (1) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the supplemental indenture or (2) the Portfolio Manager and the Holders of 100% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Securities the ratings on which would be reduced or withdrawn consent to the supplemental indenture. Prior to the entry into any supplemental Indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes or Composite Securities is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note and each Holder of each Outstanding Composite Security informing them of such fact.

(e) At the cost of the Co-Issuers, for so long as any Securities are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall provide to the Rating Agency, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Hedge Counterparty a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee.

Section 8.2. *Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders.

(a) If the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency, the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may execute one or more indentures supplemental to this Indenture to add any provisions to, or change in any manner, or eliminate any of the provisions of, this Indenture or modify in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Securities under this Indenture with the consent of:

- (1) the Portfolio Manager if the supplemental indenture would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager;
- (2) a Majority of each Class of Notes adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of each such Class of Notes;
- (3) a Majority of the Composite Securities adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of the Composite Securities; and
- (4) a Majority of the Preference Shares adversely affected thereby.

Any proposed supplemental indenture that would also necessitate a change to the Memorandum and Articles of Association may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Memorandum and Articles of Association) has been passed to permit the Issuer's constitutional documents to be altered to conform them to the proposed change to this Indenture as certified to the Trustee by the Issuer.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected thereby, the Holder of each Outstanding Composite Security adversely affected thereby and the Holder of each Preference Share adversely affected thereby, no supplemental indenture shall:

- (i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date of any installment of interest on any Note or of any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares, reduce the principal amount or the rate of interest on any Note, or the Default Interest Rate or the Redemption Price with respect to any Note or Preference Share, or change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Share may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, change the provisions of this Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of any Collateral to the payment of principal of or interest on Notes and the application of proceeds of any Class C Components, Class D-2 Components or Preference Share Components corresponding to their related Components, or to payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares, or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which, Notes or their principal or interest are paid or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after their Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the applicable Redemption Date);

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class or Composite Securities or Holders of Preference Shares whose consent is required for the authorization of any such supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of this Indenture or certain defaults under this Indenture or their consequences provided for in this Indenture;

(iii) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture with respect to any part of the Collateral or terminate the lien on any property at any time subject hereto or deprive the Holder of any Security of the security afforded by the lien of this Indenture;

(iv) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class whose consent is required to request the Trustee to preserve the Collateral or rescind the Trustee's election to preserve the Collateral, pursuant to Section 5.5 or to sell or liquidate the Collateral, pursuant to Section 5.4 or 5.5;

(v) modify any of the provisions of this Section, or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note, Preference Share and Composite Security affected thereby;

(vi) modify the definition of "Outstanding," "Controlling Class," or "Majority," or the Priority of Payments in Section 11.1(a) or Section 13.1; or

(vii) modify any of the provisions of this Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of Redemption Price or of interest or principal on any Note or any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the payment of dividends or other payments on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes or Preference Shares (including the Note Components or Preference Share Components, as the case may be) to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of the Notes or the Preference Shares contained in this Indenture.

Prior to the entry into any supplemental indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes or Composite Securities is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note, each Holder of each Outstanding Composite Security and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) informing them of such fact.

(b) At the cost of the Co-Issuers, for so long as any Securities are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall provide to the Rating Agency a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee.

(c) Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2, the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Holders of the Securities, the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Securities are Outstanding) a copy of such supplemental indenture and shall request any required consent from the applicable Holders of Securities or Preference Shares to be given within the Initial Consent Period. Any consent given to a proposed supplemental indenture by the Holder of any Securities or Preference Shares, as applicable, shall be irrevocable and binding on all future Holders or beneficial owners of that Security or Preference Share, irrespective of the execution date of the supplemental indenture. If the Holders of less than the required percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the relevant Securities or Preference Shares consent to a proposed supplemental indenture within the Initial Consent Period, on the first Business Day after the Initial Consent Period, the Trustee shall notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager which Holders of Securities or Preference Shares have consented to the proposed supplemental indenture and, which Holders (and, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Trustee, which beneficial owners) have not consented to the proposed supplemental indenture. If it intends to exercise its Amendment Buy-Out Option pursuant to Section 9.6, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall so notify the Trustee (which notice shall designate a date for the Amendment Buy-Out to occur no earlier than 10 Business Days after the date of such notice) no later than five (5) Business Days after so being notified by the Trustee and the Trustee shall mail such notice to all Holders of Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares). Any Non-Consenting Holder may give consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture until the 5th Business Day prior to the date of the Amendment Buy-Out designated by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and in such case shall cease to be a Non-Consenting Holder for purposes of the Amendment Buy-Out. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser exercises its Amendment Buy-Out Option and purchases the applicable Securities pursuant to Section 9.6 below, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, as Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Securities or Preference Shares, may consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture within five (5) Business Days of the Amendment Buy-Out.

(d) It shall not be necessary for any Act of Holders of Securities under this Section 8.2 to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if the Act or consent approves its substance.

(e) The Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Holders of the Securities, the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency a copy of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2 promptly after its execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee. Any failure of the Trustee to mail a copy of any supplemental indenture as provided in this Indenture, or any defect in the mailing, shall not in any way affect the validity of the supplemental indenture.

Section 8.3. Execution of Supplemental Indentures.

In executing or accepting the additional trusts created by any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article 8 or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee may receive, and (subject to Sections 6.1 and 6.3) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of the supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture and that all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture have been satisfied. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise. The Portfolio Manager shall not be bound by any amendment or supplement to this Indenture that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager unless the Portfolio Manager consents to it in writing, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Portfolio Manager shall follow any amendment or supplement to this Indenture by which it is bound of which it has received written notice from the time it receives a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee.

Section 8.4. Effect of Supplemental Indentures; Certain Required Consents.

Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article 8, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and the supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and every Holder of Securities and Preference Shares theretofore and thereafter authenticated and delivered under this Indenture shall be bound thereby.

Without the approval of each Hedge Counterparty to a then existing Hedge Agreement (so long as the Hedge Counterparty is not in default under any Hedge Agreement to which it is party), no supplemental indenture will be effective, and the Co-Issuers will not consent to any supplemental indenture, that would have a material adverse effect on the Hedge Counterparty. For purposes of this paragraph, any supplemental indenture will be deemed not to have a material adverse effect on the Hedge Counterparty if it does not object within 10 days of delivery of such supplemental indenture by the Trustee.

Section 8.5. Reference in Securities to Supplemental Indentures.

Securities authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 may, and if required by the Trustee shall, bear a notice in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in the supplemental indenture. If the Applicable Issuers shall so determine, new Notes and new Composite Securities, so modified as to conform in the opinion of the Trustee and the Co-Issuers to any such supplemental indenture, may be prepared and executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Securities.

Section 8.6. Composite Securities.

(a) For purposes of this Article 8, the Class 1 Composite Securities shall only be adversely affected or materially and adversely affected, as the context requires, by any proposed supplemental indenture if the Composite Securities would suffer an adverse effect or material adverse effect, as the context requires, that does not arise directly from an adverse effect or material adverse effect suffered by the the Class D-2 Notes or the Preference Shares.

(b) For purposes of this Article 8, the Class 2 Composite Securities shall only be adversely affected or materially and adversely affected, as the context requires, by any proposed supplemental indenture if the Composite Securities would suffer an adverse effect or material adverse effect, as the context requires, that does not arise directly from an adverse effect or material adverse effect suffered by the Class C Notes or the Preference Shares.

(c) The Holders of the Composite Securities shall not be entitled to voting rights as a separate Class except to the extent such Composite Securities are deemed to be adversely affected or materially and adversely affected, as the context requires, as provided in Section 8.6(a) and (b). Additionally, the Holders of the Composite Securities shall not be entitled to direct the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture except, in the case of the Class 1 Composite Security, with the Holders of the Class D-2 Notes to the extent of their interest in the Note Component and, in the case of the Class 2 Composite Security, with the Holders of the Class C Notes to the extent of their interest in the Note Component or, in the case of either Composite Security, with the Holders of the Preference Shares to the extent of their interest in the respective Preference Shares Components.

Section 9.1. Mandatory Redemption.

(a) If either (a) a Coverage Test is not met on any Determination Date or (b) a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, principal payments on the Notes shall be made on the related Payment Date (without payment of any Redemption Price) in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Upon receipt of notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes, at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities, then at the direction and in accordance with the instructions of the Portfolio Manager the Trustee shall sell Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for the purpose in the Collection Account will be used to redeem the Notes and the Preference Shares (but only to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities) and to pay all administrative and other fees, expenses, and obligations payable under the Priority of Payments. Any sale under this Section shall be conducted in such a manner that:

(i) after giving effect to the sale each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied or, if any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Overcollateralization Test is not reduced,

(ii) if the sale occurs on or after the second Payment Date, after giving effect to the sale each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied or, if any Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Interest Coverage Test is not reduced, and

(iii) after giving effect to the sale each Collateral Quality Test is satisfied or, if any Collateral Quality Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Collateral Quality Test is not reduced.

(b) The Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Component) will be redeemed in whole in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Preference Share Documents on any Payment Date on which a mandatory redemption of the Notes pursuant to Section 9.1(a) results in the payment in full of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes.

Section 9.2. Optional Redemption.

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Notes (including the Note Components) shall be redeemed by the Applicable Issuers, in whole but not in part, on any Payment Date from Principal Proceeds and all other funds available for that purpose in the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account at the direction of the Holders of a Super Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Components), which direction must be given to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made, at the applicable Redemption Price (exclusive of installments of interest and principal maturing on or before that date, payment of which shall have been made or duly provided for, to the Holders of the Notes on relevant Record Dates or as otherwise provided in this Indenture). All Notes must be simultaneously redeemed, and any termination payments pursuant to Hedge Agreements must be paid.

If, in the Portfolio Manager's reasonable discretion, the sale would not be sufficient to redeem the Notes, and to pay the fees, expenses, and obligations, the Notes shall not be redeemed.

Upon any redemption pursuant to this Section 9.2(a), the Issuer shall, at least 30 days before the Redemption Date (unless the Trustee shall agree to a shorter notice period), notify the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency of the Redemption Date, the applicable Record Date, the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed on the Redemption Date, and the applicable Redemption Prices.

Upon a redemption of the Notes or the Preference Shares, (i) the Class 1 Composite Securities will be redeemed with payments, if any, made in respect of (x) the Class D-2 Notes, with respect to the Class D-2 Component and (y) the Preference Shares, with respect to the Class 1 Composite Security Preference Shares Component and (ii) the Class 2 Composite Securities will be redeemed with payments, if any, made in respect of (x) the Class C Notes, with respect to the Class C Component and (y) the Preference Shares, with respect to the Class 2 Composite Security Preference Shares Component.

(ii) at the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Components), voting as a single Class or group, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a directed portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such direction.

Upon a distribution pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(i), the Portfolio Manager will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Management Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer (and subject to Section 9.2(b)(ii)), direct the sale of all remaining Collateral Obligations. Upon a distribution pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii), the Portfolio Manager will effect the sale of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Components).

Section 9.3. Redemption Procedures.

(a) Upon any redemption pursuant to Section 9.2, a notice of redemption shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days and not earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date, each Holder of Notes (including the Note Components) to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of DTC, Euroclear, and Clearstream, as applicable, to the Holders of the Composite Securities and to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), and (in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a)) to each Rating Agency. In addition, for so long as any Securities are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of redemption of Securities pursuant to Section 9.2 shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

(b) All notices of redemption delivered pursuant to Section 9.3(a) shall state:

- (i) the applicable Redemption Date;
- (ii) the Redemption Price of the Notes (including the Note Components) to be redeemed (in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a));

Any such notice of redemption may be withdrawn by the Issuer up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager only if:

(A) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a), the Portfolio Manager does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications (described in Section 9.3(c) and 12.1(f)), as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee,

(B) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i), the Issuer receives the written direction of the Majority of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption delivered by a percentage of the Preference Shares requesting redemption under Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i), as applicable, and

(C) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii), the Issuer receives the unanimous written direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer hereby agrees for the benefit of the directing person to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it

Notice of any withdrawal shall be sent, not later than the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date (assuming that the Trustee has received timely written notice from the Issuer as provided above), by the Trustee, to each Holder of Securities (including the Note Components) scheduled to be redeemed at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery (or, to the extent the address contained in the Indenture Register is not sufficient for that purpose, by first class mail) and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares). If the Issuer so withdraws any notice of redemption or is otherwise unable to complete any redemption of the Notes, the Sale Proceeds received from the sale of any Collateral Obligations sold pursuant to Sections 9.2 and 12.1(f) may, during the Reinvestment Period (and, in respect of Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, after the Reinvestment Period) at the Portfolio Manager's discretion, be reinvested in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria.

Notice of redemption shall be given by the Co-Issuers or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Securities (including any Note Components) selected for redemption or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Securities or Preference Shares.

(c) The Notes may not be redeemed pursuant to Section 9.2(a) unless either of the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) At least ten Business Days before the Redemption Date, the Portfolio Manager shall have furnished to the Trustee evidence (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) that the Issuer has entered into a binding agreements (with a financial or other institution or entity whose short-term unsecured debt obligations (other than obligations whose rating is based on the credit of a person other than the institution) have a credit rating of at least "A-1" from S&P and of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's (or to any other institution or entity if the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's is satisfied with respect to the other entity)) to sell to the financial or other institutions, not later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date in immediately available funds, all or part of the Collateral (directly or by participation or other arrangement) at a Purchase Price at least equal to an amount sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties, and to redeem the Notes (including the Note Components) on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices; or

(ii) Before entering into any binding agreement to sell all or a portion of the Collateral and selling or terminating any Hedge Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall have certified that, in its commercially reasonable judgment, the settlement dates of the sales will be scheduled to occur on or before the Business Day before the Redemption Date and that the expected proceeds from the sales are to be delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date, in immediately available funds, in an amount (calculated as applicable in the manner provided below) sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties, and to redeem the Notes (including the Note Components) on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount shall be calculated with respect to the classes of Collateral listed in the table below by multiplying the expected proceeds of sale of the Collateral by the indicated percentage in the table below.

5	Synthetic Securities	100%	65%	55%	35%

Any certification delivered pursuant to this Section 9.3(c) shall include (A) the prices of, and expected proceeds from, the sale of any Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, or Hedge Agreements and (B) all calculations required by this Section 9.3(c).

Section 9.4. *Notes Payable on Redemption Date.

(a) Notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.3 having been given as aforesaid, the Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at the Redemption Price therein specified and from and after the Redemption Date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest) the Notes (including the Note Components) shall cease to bear interest on the Redemption Date. Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, the Holder shall present and surrender the Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption on or before the Redemption Date unless the Co-Issuers and the Trustee receive the security or indemnity required by them to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the Note, and in the absence of notice to the Co-Issuers and the Trustee, that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender. If a Component is to be redeemed, the related Composite Security does not need to be surrendered at the office of any paying agent under this Indenture to receive the applicable Redemption Price. Payments of interest on Notes so to be redeemed whose Stated Maturity is on or before the Redemption Date shall be payable to the Holders of the Notes or Composite Securities (to the extent of the Note Components), or one or more predecessor Notes or Composite Securities, registered as such at the close of business on the relevant Record Date if the

(b) If any Note called for redemption is not paid on its surrender for redemption, its principal shall bear interest from the Redemption Date at the Applicable Note Interest Rate for each successive Interest Period the Note remains Outstanding if the reason for the non-payment is not the fault of the Holder of the Note.

Section 9.5. Special Redemption.

Principal payments on the Notes (including the Note Components) shall be made in whole or in part, at par, in accordance with the Priority of Payments if, at any time during the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager elects (subject to the Management Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the investment or reinvestment of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be invested in additional Collateral Obligations (a "Special Redemption").

On the first Payment Date following the Due Period for which the notice is effective (a "Special Redemption Date"), the funds in the Collection Account or the Payment Account representing Principal Proceeds that, by operation of the preceding paragraph, are not reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations (the "Special Redemption Amount") will be available to be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments under Section 11.1(a)(ii). Notice of payments pursuant to this Section 9.5 shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than three Business Days before the applicable Special Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of DTC. In addition, for so long as any Securities are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of redemption of Securities pursuant to Section 9.2 shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

Section 9.6. Amendment Buy-Out.

(a) In the case of any supplemental indenture pursuant to Section 8.2 that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities or Preference Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Securities or Preference Shares held by such Holders of the Class of Securities or Preference Shares whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; provided, however, that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser may not exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option during the Non-Call Period in connection with a proposed amendment to reduce the rate of interest on any Note or to change the earliest date on which Securities of any Class or Preference Shares may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Securities or Preference Shares of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities or Preference Shares the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of its Securities or Preference Shares hereunder, each Holder of Securities or Preference Shares agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Securities or Preference Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser; provided that, if the solicited consent to a supplemental indenture only applies to one Component of a Composite Security, the Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell, at the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser's option, its Composite Security as a whole.

Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or beneficial owner of Securities or Preference Shares as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option.

(b) All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Securities or Preference Shares set forth herein and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

(e) Except as otherwise expressly provided in Section 11.1(a) above, if on any Payment Date, the amount available in the Payment Account from amounts received in the related Due Period is insufficient to make the full amount of the disbursements required by any numbered or lettered paragraph or clause of Section 11.1(a) to different persons, the Trustee shall make the disbursements called for by the paragraph or clause ratably in accordance with the respective amounts of the disbursements then payable, subject to Section 13.1, to the extent funds are available therefor.

(f) On each Payment Date on which distributions are made in respect of the Class C Notes, a portion of such payment will be allocated to the Class 2 Composite Securities in the proportion that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Component bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes (including the Class C Note Component). The payment of distributions, redemption amounts and any other payments on the Class 2 Composite Securities will be distributed in the same manner as the Class C Notes to which the Class C Component relates.

(g) On each Payment Date on which distributions are made in respect of the Class D-2 Notes, a portion of such payment will be allocated to the Class 1 Composite Securities in the proportion that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class D-2 Component bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class D-2 Notes (including the Class D-2 Note Component). ### SALE OF COLLATERAL OBLIGATIONS; PURCHASE OF COLLATERAL OBLIGATIONS

Section 12.1. Sales of Collateral Obligations.

Subject to the satisfaction of the conditions specified in Section 10.6, Section 12.1 and Section 12.3 and if no Event of Default is continuing as evidenced by an Officer's Certificate of the Portfolio Manager provided to the Trustee, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset if the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that the sale meets the requirements of any one of paragraphs (a) through (i) of this Section 12.1. If the Issuer sells any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset during the Reinvestment Period, the proceeds shall be reinvested in accordance with Section 12.2.

(a) Credit Risk Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Risk Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Risk Obligation in accordance with such direction. Following any sale of a Credit Risk Obligation pursuant to this Section 12.1(a), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager during the Reinvestment Period, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (to the extent the purchase is in the best interest of the Issuer) with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Sale Proceeds received by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral Obligation sold. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount.

(b) Credit Improved Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Improved Obligation if either:

(i) during the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager believes before the sale that it will be able to cause the Issuer to reinvest its Sale Proceeds, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria, in one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Credit Improved Obligation by the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest); or

(ii) after the Reinvestment Period, the Sale Proceeds received in respect of the Credit Improved Obligation are at least equal to its Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest; and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Improved Obligation in accordance with such direction.

(c) Non-Performing Collateral Obligations and Current-Pay Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Current-Pay Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Current-Pay Obligation in accordance with such direction. Non-Performing Collateral Obligations may be sold regardless of price; provided, that, the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation purchased with proceeds of any Current-Pay Obligation shall equal or exceed the Principal Balance of such Current-Pay Obligation that was sold.

(d) Non-qualifying Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell that obligation in accordance with such direction.

(e) Withholding Tax Sales. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation subject to withholding tax at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction.

(f) Optional Redemption. After the Issuer has notified the Trustee of an Optional Redemption of the Notes in accordance with Article 9, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all or a portion of the Collateral Obligations as contemplated therein if (i) the requirements of Article 9 are satisfied and (ii) the Independent certified public accountants appointed pursuant to Section 10.7 have confirmed the calculations contained in any required certificate furnished by the Portfolio Manager pursuant to Section 9.3(c). After a Majority of the Preference Shares have directed an Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares in accordance with Section 9.2(b), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all of the remaining Collateral Obligations (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(i)) or a portion of the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous directions of Holders of the Preference Shares (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii)) and the Trustee shall sell the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

(g) Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Portfolio Manager has received notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, direct the Trustee to sell Collateral Obligations as contemplated in Section 9.1 and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

(h) Discretionary Sales. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation:

(i) at any time on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without regard to any restriction specified in clause (ii) below); and

(ii) at any time after the Ramp-Up Completion Date if:

(A) after giving effect to the sale and the sale of any other Collateral Obligations whose sale is pending, the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations sold pursuant to this Section 12.1(h)(ii) (in each case determined as of the date the direction to sell is given) is not greater than 20% of the Maximum Investment Amount as of January 1 of such calendar year (or, for the first calendar year, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date); and

(B) during the Reinvestment Period the Portfolio Manager believes before the sale that it will be able to cause the Issuer within 30 days thereafter to reinvest or commit to reinvest its Sale Proceeds, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria, in one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Collateral Obligation (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest);

and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction. However, if the rating by Moody's of any of the Class A Notes is one or more rating sub-categories below the Initial Rating of the Class A Notes or has been withdrawn or the rating by Moody's of the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes or the Class D Notes is two or more rating sub-categories below the Initial Rating of the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes or the Class D Notes has been withdrawn, the Issuer shall not instruct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligations pursuant to this Section 12.1(h). This restriction may be waived by written consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class. For the purposes of this subsection (h), any withdrawal or reduction in rating shall not restrict the sale of any Collateral Obligations pursuant to this subsection (h) if after the withdrawal or reduction Moody's has upgraded the reduced or withdrawn rating to at least the Initial Rating in the case of the Class A Notes or to only one subcategory below their Initial Rating in the case of the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes.

For the purposes of determining the percentage of Collateral Obligations sold during any period in Section 12.1(h)(ii):

(i) the amount of any Collateral Obligation sold shall be reduced:

(A) to the extent of any purchases of Collateral Obligations of the same obligor (that are pari passu with the sold Collateral Obligation) occurring within 30 Business Days of the sale (determined based on the date of any relevant trade confirmation or commitment letter) (but only for so long as (x) the Collateral Obligations purchased have not been downgraded by any of the Rating Agencies during the 30 Business Day period, (y) the Collateral Obligations have not been purchased from the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates acting, in each case, as principal or from any funds or accounts advised or managed by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, and (z) the purchase price of each Notes purchased Collateral Obligation must not exceed the sale price of the sold Collateral Obligation), and

(B) to the extent of any purchases of Collateral Obligations permitted pursuant to Section 12.2(c); and

(ii) any Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index investment providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time that is invested into a substantially similar Synthetic Security but with a later maturity shall be treated as having been sold.

(i) Workout Assets. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Workout Asset at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and regardless of price and the Trustee shall sell the Workout Assets in accordance with such direction.

Section 12.2. Purchase of Collateral Obligations.

(a) On any date during the Reinvestment Period (and, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, on any date after the Reinvestment Period), so long as no Event of Default is continuing, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to invest or reinvest Principal Proceeds (together with Interest Proceeds, but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on Collateral Obligations) in Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security) if the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that, to the best knowledge of the Portfolio Manager, the conditions specified in this Section 12.2 and Section 12.3 are met.

(b) Eligibility Criteria. No obligations may be purchased unless each of the conditions in the following clauses (i) through (xii) (the "Eligibility Criteria") is satisfied as evidenced by a certificate of the Portfolio Manager as of the date the Issuer commits to make the purchase, in each case after giving effect to the purchase and all other purchases and sales previously or simultaneously committed to:

(1) the extent of satisfaction of the Coverage Test is not reduced, and

(v) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, each of the limits in the definition of "Concentration Limitations" is satisfied or, if any such limit is not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(vi) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Spread Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(vii) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(ix) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(x) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(xi) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the S&P CDO Monitor Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced; provided, however, that this Eligibility Criterion (xi) shall not apply either to reinvestment of the proceeds from the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation, Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset or to the reinvestment of Principal Proceeds in respect of Defaulted Collateral Obligations; and

(A) each Coverage Test is satisfied and the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

(B) each Collateral Quality Test is maintained or improved and the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied;

(C) each Concentration Limitation is maintained or improved and the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Caa Collateral Obligations do not exceed 7.50% of the Maximum Investment Amount;

The Trustee shall have no responsibility to oversee compliance with this clause (a) by the other parties.

(b) Upon any acquisition of any Collateral Obligation, all of the Issuer's interest in the Collateral Obligation shall be Granted to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture.

Section 12.4. Certain Determinations Relating to Collateral Obligations.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have purchased any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer delivers to the Trustee a contract to purchase, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to receive such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have acquired, granted or delivered, as the case may be, such Collateral Obligations on such date.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer delivers to the Trustee a contract to sell, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to sell, and requiring the purchaser to purchase, such Collateral

NOTEHOLDERS' RELATIONS

Section 13.1. Subordination.

(a) With respect to each Class of Notes and the Preference Shares, the Classes of Notes and the Preference Shares that are Priority Classes and Junior Classes are as follows:

Class	Junior Classes	Priority Classes
Class A	B, C, D, Preference Shares	None
Class B	C, D, Preference Shares	Class A
Class C	D, Preference Shares	Class A, B
Class D	Preference Shares	Class A, B, C
Preference Shares	None*	Class A, B, C, D

* The Preference Shares will be entitled to certain residual cashflow after payment of senior obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

(b) Anything in this Indenture or the Securities to the contrary notwithstanding, the Holders of each Class of Notes that is a Junior Class agree for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class that the Junior Class shall be subordinate and junior to the Notes of each Priority Class to the extent and in the manner provided in this Indenture. If any Event of Default has not been cured or waived and acceleration occurs and is continuing in accordance with Article 5, each Priority Class of Notes shall be paid in full in Cash or, to the extent a Majority of the Class consents, other than in Cash, before any further payment or distribution is made on account of any Junior Class of Notes with respect to the Priority Class. The Holders of each Junior Class of Notes agree, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class in respect of the Junior Class, not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for failure to pay to them amounts due to the Junior Class, of the Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, or under this Indenture until the payment in full of the Priority Classes or all the Classes, as the case may be, and not before one year and a day, or if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, has elapsed since the payment.

(c) If, notwithstanding the provisions of this Indenture, any Holder of Notes of any Junior Class has received any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes contrary to the provisions of this Indenture, then, until each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class of Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, has been paid in full in Cash or, to the extent a Majority of the Priority Class or the Class, as the case may be, consents, other than in Cash in accordance with this Indenture, the payment or distribution shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of, and shall forthwith be paid over and delivered to, the Trustee, which shall pay and deliver the same to the Holders of the applicable Priority Classes of Notes or the Holders of all Classes of Notes, as the case may be, in accordance with this Indenture. If any such payment or distribution is made other than in Cash, it shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and subject in all respects to this Indenture, including this Section 13.1.

(d) Each Holder of Notes of any Junior Class agrees with all Holders of the applicable Priority Classes that the Holder of Junior Class Notes shall not demand, accept, or receive any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes in violation of this Indenture including this Section 13.1. After a Priority Class has been paid in full, the Holders of the Notes of the related Junior Class or Classes shall be fully subrogated to the rights of the Holders of the Priority Class. Nothing in this Section 13.1 shall affect the obligation of the Issuer to pay Holders of any Junior Class of Notes.

(e) Distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares are subordinate to distributions on the Notes and Preference Shares as described in the Priority of Payments.

(f) The Management Fees shall have priority only to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments.

(g) For purposes of subordination, the Composite Securities shall not be treated as a separate Class, but the Class C Component, Class D-2 Component and Preference Share Components shall be treated as being pari passu with the Class C Notes, the Class D-2 Notes and the Preference Shares, respectively.

Section 13.2. Standard of Conduct.

In exercising any of its or their voting rights, rights to direct and consent, or any other rights as a Noteholder or a Composite Securityholder under this Indenture, a Noteholder or a Composite Securityholder shall not have any obligation or duty to any person or to consider or take into account the interests of any person and shall not be liable to any person for any action taken by it or them or at its or their direction or any failure by it or them to act or to direct that an action be taken, without regard to whether the action or inaction benefits or adversely affects any Noteholder, Composite Securityholder, the Issuer, or any other person, except for any liability to which the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder may be subject to the extent the same results from the Noteholder's or Composite Securityholder's taking or directing an action, or failing to take or direct an action, in bad faith or in violation of the express terms of this Indenture.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 14.1. Form of Documents Delivered to Trustee.

In any case where several matters are required to be certified by, or covered by an opinion of, any specified person, it is not necessary that all the matters be certified by, or covered by the opinion of, only one person, or that they be so certified or covered by only one document, but one such person may certify or give an opinion with respect to some matters and one or more other such persons as to other matters, and any such person may certify or give an opinion as to the matters in one or several documents.

Any certificate or opinion of an Officer of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager may be based, insofar as it relates to legal matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, counsel, unless the Officer knows, or should know that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to the matters upon which his certificate or opinion is based are erroneous. Any such certificate of an Officer of the Issuer, Co-Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager or Opinion of Counsel may be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, or any other person, stating that the information with respect to the factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, or the other person, unless the Officer of the Issuer, Co-Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager or the counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to factual matters are erroneous. Any Opinion of Counsel may also be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, an Officer of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, stating that the information with respect to factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, unless the counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to factual matters are erroneous.

Where any person is required to make, give, or execute two or more applications, requests, consents, certificates, statements, opinions, or other instruments under this Indenture, they may, but need not, be consolidated and form one instrument.

Whenever this Indenture provides that the absence of the continuation of a Default or Event of Default is a condition precedent to the taking of any action by the Trustee at the request or direction of either Co-Issuer, then notwithstanding that the satisfaction of the condition is a condition precedent to the Co-Issuer's right to make the request or direction, the Trustee shall be protected in acting in accordance with the request or direction if it does not have knowledge of the continuation of the Default or Event of Default as provided in Section 6.1(d).

Section 14.2. Acts of Noteholders, Composite Securityholders or Holders of Preference Shares.

(a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver, or other action provided by this Indenture to be given or taken by Noteholders, Composite Securityholders or Holders of Preference Shares may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by Noteholders, Composite Securityholders or Holders of Preference Shares in person or by agents duly appointed in writing. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture the action shall become effective when the instruments are delivered to the Trustee (which instrument or instruments may be delivered through the Preference Shares Paying Agent, in the case of the Holders of the Preference Shares) and, if expressly required, to the Issuer. The instruments (and the action embodied in them) are referred to as the "Act" of the Noteholders, the Composite Securityholders or the Holders of Preference Shares signing the instruments. Proof of execution of any instrument or of a writing appointing an agent for a Noteholder, Composite Securityholder or Holder of a Preference Share shall be sufficient for any purpose of this Indenture and conclusive in favor of the Trustee and the Issuer, if made in the manner provided in this Section.

(b) The fact and date of the execution by any person of any instrument may be proved by an affidavit of a witness to the execution or the certificate of any notary public or other person authorized by law to acknowledge the execution of deeds. Any certificate on behalf of a jural entity executed by a person purporting to have authority to act on behalf of the jural entity shall itself be sufficient proof of the authority of the person executing it to act. The fact and date of the execution by any person of any instrument may also be proved in any other manner that the Trustee deems sufficient.

(c) The Indenture Register shall prove the ownership of the Securities and the principal amount and registered numbers of Securities and the number of Preference Shares held by and the number(s) of the Preference Share certificate(s) issued to, any Person shall be proved by the Preference Share register.

(d) Any Act by the Holder of a Security shall bind every Holder of the same Security and every Security issued on its transfer or in exchange for it or in lieu of it, in respect of anything done, omitted, or suffered to be done by the Trustee or the Issuer in reliance on the Act, whether or not notation of the action is made on the Securities or Preference Shares.

Section 14.3. Notices, etc., to Certain Persons or Parties.

(vii) the Administrator shall be sufficient for every purpose under this Indenture (unless otherwise in this Indenture expressly provided) if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, hand delivered, sent by overnight courier service, or by facsimile in legible form, addressed to Ogier Fiduciary Services (Cayman) Limited, P.O. Box 1234, Queensgate House, George Town, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands, telecopy no. (345) 949-9876, Attention: The Directors; or (viii) the Repository shall be sufficient for every purpose under this Indenture if delivered to the Repository at CDO Library, c/o The Bond Market Association, 360 Madison Avenue, 18th Floor, New York, New York 10017, electronic mail address: admin@cdolibrary.com. Any document required to be delivered or made available to the Repository by the Trustee may be made available by providing the operator of the Repository with access to a website containing such document in a format that permits the user to download the document as a pdf file.

(b) If any provision in this Indenture calls for any notice or document to be delivered simultaneously to the Trustee and any other person, the Trustee's receipt of the notice or document shall entitle the Trustee to assume that the notice or document was delivered to the other person unless otherwise expressly specified in this Indenture.

Section 14.4. Notices to Holders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent; Waiver.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture, where this Indenture provides for notice to the Noteholders, the Composite Securityholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) of any event,

(a) the notice shall be sufficiently given to the Noteholders, the Composite Securityholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, each Noteholder and Composite Securityholder affected by the event or the Preference Shares Paying Agent, at the address of the Holder as it appears in the Indenture Register or at the address of the Preference Shares Paying Agent supplied by the Preference Shares Paying Agent supplied by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to the Trustee, as applicable, not earlier than the earliest date and not later than the latest date, prescribed for the giving of the notice; and

(b) the notice shall be in the English language.

Notices shall be deemed to have been given on the date of their mailing.

Notwithstanding clause (a), a Noteholder, a Composite Securityholder or the Preference Shares Paying Agent may give the Trustee a written notice that it is requesting that notices to it be given by facsimile transmissions and stating the telecopy number for the transmission. Thereafter, the Trustee shall give notices to the Holder or the Preference Shares Paying Agent by facsimile transmission. If the notice also requests that notices be given by mail, then the notice shall also be given by mail in accordance with clause (a) above, as the case may be.

The Trustee shall deliver to the Holders of Notes any information or notice relating to this Indenture requested to be so delivered by at least 10% (by Aggregate Outstanding Amount) of the Holders of any Class of Notes at the expense of the Issuer. The Trustee shall deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent any information or notice that the Preference Shares Paying Agent certifies was requested to be so delivered by at least 10% (by Aggregate Outstanding Amount) of the Holders of the Preference Shares at the expenses of the Issuer.

Neither the failure to mail any notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Noteholder, Composite Securityholder or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall affect the sufficiency of the notice with respect to other Noteholders, Composite Securityholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent. If it is impracticable to give the notice by mail of any event to Noteholders, Composite Securityholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent when the notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Indenture because of the suspension of regular mail service as a result of a strike, work stoppage, or similar activity or because of any other cause, then the notification to Noteholders, Composite Securityholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent as shall be made with the approval of the Trustee shall be a sufficient notification to the Holders for every purpose under this Indenture.

Where this Indenture provides for notice in any manner, the notice may be waived in writing by any person entitled to receive the notice, either before or after the event, and the waiver shall be the equivalent of the notice. Waivers of notice by Noteholders, Composite Securityholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be filed with the Trustee but the filing shall not be a condition precedent to the validity of any action taken in reliance on the waiver.

So long as any Securities are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, all notices to Holders of the Securities or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to Holders of Preference Shares) shall also be given to the Irish Paying Agent for publication in the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

The Issuer shall (and authorizes the Trustee to) deliver to the Placement Agents all periodic reports, notices, demands, and other written information delivered or received by the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, trustees, paying agents, accountants, or other persons pursuant to this Indenture and other operative documentation relating to the Securities requested by the Placement Agents (collectively, the "Transaction Reports") and the Issuer consents to the Placement Agents' providing Transaction Reports received by it to current and prospective investors in the Securities (including by means of electronic transmissions or posting the Transaction Reports on internet sites maintained by the Placement Agents or any of their Affiliates).

Section 14.7. Separability.

Except to the extent prohibited by applicable law, in case any provision in this Indenture, in the Securities shall be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

Section 14.8. Benefits of Indenture.

Nothing in this Indenture or in the Securities, expressed or implied, shall give to any person, other than the parties hereto and their successors under this Indenture, the Portfolio Manager, the Noteholders, the Composite Securityholders, the Holders of Preference Shares or the Preference Shares Paying Agent any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy, or claim under this Indenture.

Section 14.9. Legal Holidays.

If any Payment Date, Redemption Date, or Stated Maturity is not a Business Day, then notwithstanding any other provision of the Notes or this Indenture, payment need not be made on that date, but shall be made on the next Business Day with the same effect as if made on the nominal date of the Payment Date, Redemption Date, or Stated Maturity date, as the case may be, and except as provided in the definition of "Due Period," no interest shall accrue on the payment for the period beginning on the nominal date.

(b) THE COMPOSITE SECURITIES WILL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITH RESPECT TO THE NOTE COMPONENTS. HOWEVER, THE RIGHTS OF A

HOLDER OF THE COMPOSITE SECURITIES WITH RESPECT TO THE PREFERENCE SHARE COMPONENTS WILL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE CAYMAN ISLANDS.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, none of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Trustee makes any representation or warranty to The Bond Market Association (or any successor thereto) or any affiliate thereof or any Person having or obtaining access to the information maintained in the Repository or to any of such Person's affiliates regarding the accuracy or completeness of any information, document, report or other communication transmitted to the Repository, and no Person having or obtaining access to the information maintained in the Repository shall have any rights under this Indenture or otherwise by reason of the transmission of any such information, document, report or other communication to the Repository.

ARTICLE 15

ASSIGNMENT OF MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT; HEDGE AGREEMENTS

Section 15.1. Assignment of Management Agreement.

(a) The Issuer, in furtherance of the covenants of this Indenture and as security for the Notes and amounts payable to the Secured Parties under this Indenture and the performance and observance of the provisions of this Indenture, acknowledges that its Grant pursuant to the first Granting Clause includes all of the Issuer's interest in the Management Agreement, including:

- (i) the right to give all notices, consents, and releases under it,
- (ii) the right to give all notices of termination pursuant to the Management Agreement and to take any legal action upon the breach of an obligation of the Portfolio Manager under it, including the commencement, conduct, and consummation of proceedings at law or in equity,
- (iii) the right to receive all notices, accountings, consents, releases, and statements under it, and
- (iv) the right to do all other things whatsoever that the Issuer is or may be entitled to do under it.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, the Trustee may not exercise any of the rights in (i) through (iv) above or that may otherwise arise as a result of the Grant until the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Indenture and the authority shall terminate when the Event of Default is cured or waived.

(b) The assignment made hereby is executed as security, and the execution and delivery hereby shall not in any way impair or diminish the obligations of the Issuer under the Management Agreement, nor shall any of the obligations contained in the Management Agreement be imposed on the Trustee.

(c) Upon the retirement of the Notes and the release of the Collateral from the lien of this Indenture, this assignment, and all rights in this Indenture assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders shall cease and terminate and all the interest of the Trustee in the Management Agreement shall revert to the Issuer and no further instrument or act shall be necessary to evidence the termination and reversion.

(d) The Issuer represents that the Issuer has not executed any other assignment of the Management Agreement.

(e) The Issuer agrees that this assignment is irrevocable, and that it shall not take any action that is inconsistent with this assignment or make any other assignment inconsistent herewith. The Issuer shall, from time to time upon the request of the Trustee, execute all instruments of further assurance and all such supplemental instruments with respect to this assignment as the Trustee may reasonably request.

(f) The Issuer agrees to obtain the agreement and consent of the Portfolio Manager in the Management Agreement to the following:

(i) The Portfolio Manager consents to this collateral assignment and agrees to perform any provisions of this Indenture made expressly applicable to the Portfolio Manager pursuant to the Management Agreement.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager acknowledges that the Issuer is collaterally assigning all of its interest in the Management Agreement to the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties and the Portfolio Manager agrees that all of the representations, covenants and agreements made by the Portfolio Manager in the Management Agreement are also for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

(iii) The Portfolio Manager shall deliver to the Trustee duplicate original copies of all notices, statements, communications, and instruments delivered or required to be delivered to the Issuer pursuant to the Management Agreement (other than any of them delivered to the Issuer by the Trustee or the Collateral Administrator).

(iv) Neither the Issuer nor the Portfolio Manager shall select or consent to a successor manager or enter into any agreement amending, modifying, or terminating the Management Agreement (other than an amendment or modification of the type that may be made to this Indenture without Holder consent) without obtaining the consents of Holders that would be required if an amendment or modification of the same type were being made to this Indenture and without the satisfaction of the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency with respect thereto.

(v) Except as otherwise provided in this Indenture and the Management Agreement, subject to the resignation rights of the Portfolio Manager pursuant to Section 12 of the Management Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall continue to serve as Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement notwithstanding that the Portfolio Manager shall not have received amounts due it under the Management Agreement because sufficient funds were not then available under this Indenture to pay the amounts pursuant to the Priority of Payments. The Portfolio Manager agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer for the nonpayment of the fees or other amounts payable by the Administrative Agent to the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement until the payment in full of all Notes issued under this Indenture and the payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent of all amounts payable with respect to the Preference Shares in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the expiration of a period equal to the greater of (A) the applicable preference period plus one day or (B) one year and one day following the payment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager may commence any legal action that is not a bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, or similar proceeding against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of their properties and may take any action it deems appropriate at any time in any bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, or similar proceeding and any other Proceeding voluntarily commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or involuntarily commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer by anyone other than the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager.

(vi) The Portfolio Manager irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Notes, the Preference Shares or this Indenture, and the Portfolio Manager irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of the action or proceeding may be heard and determined in the New York State or federal court. The Portfolio Manager irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may legally do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of the action or proceeding. The Portfolio Manager irrevocably consents to the service of all process in any action or Proceeding by the mailing or delivery of copies of the process to it the address provided for in Section 14.3. The Portfolio Manager agrees that a final and non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

(g) Following the resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall use its best efforts to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager, and the Issuer, the Trustee, and the resigning or removed Portfolio Manager shall take any action consistent with the Management Agreement and this Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, necessary to effectuate any such succession.

Section 15.2. Hedge Agreements.

(a) At any time and from time to time after the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, shall enter into the Hedge Agreements and shall assign its rights (but none of its obligations) under the Hedge Agreements to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture and the Collateral Assignment of Hedge Agreements. The Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall obtain the approval of each new Hedge Agreement from each Hedge Counterparty to a then-existing Hedge Agreement. The Trustee shall, on behalf of the Issuer and in accordance with the Valuation Report, pay amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements on any Payment Date in accordance with Section 11.1.

(b) The Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless at the time of entering the Hedge Agreement the Hedge Counterparty has:

(i) a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "Aa3" (which rating of "Aa3" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) or higher if the Hedge Counterparty has only a long-term rating; or a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "A1" (which rating of "A1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) or higher and a debt rating by Moody's for short-term debt of "P-1" (which rating of "P-1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) if the Hedge Counterparty has both long-term and short-term ratings; and

(ii) a short-term debt rating by S&P of not less than "A-1" or a long-term debt rating of not less than "A+" (the "Required Rating").

(c) If at any time a Hedge Counterparty has:

(A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating and that rating is below "Aa3" or is "Aa3" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's; or

(B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:

- (i) the long-term Moody's rating is below "A1" or that rating is "A1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's, or
- (ii) the short-term Moody's rating is below "P-1" or that rating is "P-1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

- (i) post collateral with the Trustee to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement, in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's to be satisfied;
- (ii) obtain a guarantor whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria;
- (iii) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria; or
- (iv) take other actions to satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's;

(d) If at any time the Hedge Counterparty has:

- (A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating that is "A2" or below or has been suspended or withdrawn;
- (B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:
  - (i) the long-term Moody's rating is "A3" or below or is suspended or withdrawn, or
  - (ii) the short-term Moody's rating is "P-2" or below, or
- (C) a short-term debt rating by S&P below "A-1" or, if the Hedge Counterparty has no short-term rating by S&P, a long-term rating by S&P below "A+" or that has been suspended or withdrawn;

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

- (i) post collateral as required by the Hedge Agreement to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's and S&P to be satisfied; or
- (ii) (x) obtain a guarantor that has a Required Rating and that will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P with respect to its appointment;

(y) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty that has a Required Rating and the appointment of which will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P; or

(z) take such other actions to satisfy the Ratings Condition.

Whenever the Issuer enters into a Hedge Agreement, the Hedge Counterparty shall comply with the then currently applicable rating criteria published by each Rating Agency from time to time.

(e) If the Issuer has the right under a Hedge Agreement at any time to demand that the related Hedge Counterparty deliver Eligible Collateral in accordance with an Approved Credit Support Document, the Issuer shall make the demand.

(f) Any payments required to be made under the Hedge Agreements shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Subordinated Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments shall be subordinate to interest and principal payments on the Notes and any other payments required to be made by the Issuer under the Hedge Agreements, but senior to distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares.

(g) Except as provided in paragraph (h) of this Section 15.2, the Issuer, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, shall, promptly following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) (but no later than 60 days after the early termination), at the expense of the Issuer and to the extent possible through application of Hedge Termination Receipts, enter into a Replacement Hedge, unless, in the exercise of the Portfolio Manager's commercially reasonable judgment, to do so would not be in the best interest of the Issuer and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the non-entry into the a Replacement Hedge. In addition, a Replacement Hedge may not be entered into unless the Issuer provides the Rating Agencies with at least seven Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to enter into the agreement, together with its form and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the Replacement Hedge. The Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than a termination resulting from the bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar event with respect to the Hedge Counterparty) to become effective simultaneously with its entering into a Replacement Hedge. To the extent that (i) the Portfolio Manager determines not to replace the Hedge Agreement and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the determination; or (ii) termination is occurring on a Redemption Date, the Hedge Termination Receipts shall become part of Principal Proceeds and be distributed in accordance with Section 11.1 on the next following Payment Date (or on the Redemption Date, if the Notes are redeemed on the Redemption Date).

(h) Notwithstanding Section 15.2(g), the applicable requirements of Section 15.2(g) shall not have to be met if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is otherwise satisfied with respect thereto.

(i) The notional amounts of the Hedge Agreements outstanding at any time may be reduced or increased from time to time, by the Issuer, and the Hedge Agreements may be amended, modified, or terminated in accordance with the Hedge Agreements if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the reduction, increase, amendment, modification, or termination, as the case may be.

(j) Each Hedge Agreement may be terminated pursuant to its terms upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes or an acceleration of maturity of the Notes after an Event of Default. The Hedge Agreement will not be permitted to be terminated as the result of a Default or Event of Default unless any acceleration of maturity of the Notes resulting from the Event of Default is no longer permitted to be rescinded pursuant to this Indenture.

(k) Except for Hedge Agreements entered into on or before the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied.

Diversity Score Calculation

The Diversity Score for the Collateral Obligations is calculated by summing each of the Industry Diversity Scores, which are calculated as follows:

(i) An "Obligor Par Amount" is calculated for each obligor represented in the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) by summing the par amounts of all Collateral Obligations in the Collateral (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) issued by that obligor or any Affiliate of that obligor (other than obligors that the Portfolio Manager reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(ii) An "Average Par Amount" is calculated by summing the Obligor Par Amounts and dividing by the number of obligors represented. For purposes of calculating the number of issuers of the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations), any issuers Affiliated with one another shall be considered one issuer (other than obligors that the Portfolio Manager reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(iii) An "Equivalent Unit Score" is calculated for each obligor represented in the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) by taking the lesser of (A) one and (B) the Obligor Par Amount for the obligor divided by the Average Par Amount. For purposes of calculating the Equivalent Unit Score, any issuers Affiliated with one another shall be considered one issuer (other than obligors that the Portfolio Manager reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(iv) An "Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score" is then calculated for each of the Moody's industrial classification groups by summing the Equivalent Unit Scores for each obligor in the industry.

(v) An "Industry Diversity Score" is then established by reference to the Diversity Score Table shown below for the related Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score. If any Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score falls between any two the scores then the applicable Industry Diversity Score shall be the lower of the two Industry Diversity Scores in the Diversity Score Table.

Schedule 7

Certain Defined Terms Relating to S&P Rating and Moody's Rating

"Assigned Moody's Rating": The monitored publicly available rating or the monitored estimated rating expressly assigned to a debt obligation (or facility) by Moody's that addresses the full amount of the principal and interest promised.

"Moody's Default Probability Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (a) with respect to a Moody's Senior Secured Loan:
  - (i) if the Loan's obligor has a senior implied rating from Moody's, such senior implied rating; and
  - (ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's Obligation Rating of such Loan;
  - (iii) if the preceding clauses do not apply, the rating that is one subcategory above the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating;
- (b) with respect to a Moody's Non Senior Secured Loan or a Bond, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating of such Collateral Obligation;
- (c) with respect to a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the rating that is one rating subcategory below the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof;
- (d) with respect to a Structured Finance Obligation, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof (or, if the obligation does not have an Assigned Moody's Rating but has a rating by S&P, the rating that is the number of rating subcategories specified by Moody's below such S&P rating); and
- (e) with respect to a Synthetic Security, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Moody's rating or ratings used to determine the Moody's Default Probability Rating are on watch for downgrade or upgrade by Moody's, such rating or ratings will be adjusted down one subcategory (if on watch for downgrade) or up one subcategory (if on watch for upgrade).

"Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation that is a Loan or bond and the obligor thereof, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (a) if the obligor has a senior unsecured obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating;
- (b) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's "Issuer Rating" for the obligor;
- (c) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a subordinated obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, then

- (i) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is at least "B3" (and, if rated "B3," not on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be the rating which is one rating subcategory higher than such Assigned Moody's Rating, or
- (ii) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is less than "B3" (or rated "B3" and on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be such Assigned Moody's Rating;
- (d) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior secured obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, then:
  - (i) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is at least "Caa3" (and, if rated "Caa3," not on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be the rating which is one subcategory below such Assigned Moody's Rating, or
  - (ii) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is less than "Caa3" (or rated "Caa3" and on watch for downgrade), then the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be "C";
- (e) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but such obligor has a senior implied rating from Moody's, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be one rating subcategory below such senior implied rating;
- (f) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior unsecured obligation (other than a bank loan) with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), then the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be:
  - (i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher,
  - (ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower; or
  - (iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating no lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or Bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (f)(iii), or clauses (g)(iii) or (h)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;
- (g) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a subordinated obligation (other than a bank loan) with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), the Assigned Moody's Rating shall be deemed to be:
  - (i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower, and the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be determined pursuant to clause (c) above; or

(iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating not lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or Bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (g)(iii), or clauses (f)(iii) or (h)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(h) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior secured obligation with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), the Assigned Moody's Rating shall be deemed to be:

(i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower, and the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be determined pursuant to clause (d) above; or

(iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating not lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or Bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (h)(iii), or clauses (f)(iii) or (g)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(i) if the preceding clauses do not apply and each of the following clauses (i) through (viii) do apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Caa1":

(i) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings,

(ii) no debt securities or obligations of the obligor are in default,

(iii) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates has defaulted on any debt during the preceding two years,

(vi) the fixed-charge ratio for the obligor exceeds 125% for each of the preceding two fiscal years and for the most recent quarter,

(vii) the obligor had a net profit before tax in the past fiscal year and the most recent quarter, and

(viii) the annual financial statements of such obligor are unqualified and certified by a firm of Independent accountants of international reputation, and quarterly statements are unaudited but signed by a corporate officer;

(j) if the preceding clauses do not apply but each of the following clauses (i) and (ii) do apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Caa3":

(i) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings; and

(ii) no debt security or obligation of such obligor has been in default during the past two years; and

(k) if the preceding clauses do not apply and a debt security or obligation of the obligor has been in default during the past two years, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Ca."

Notwithstanding the foregoing, not more than 10% of the Maximum Investment Amount may consist of Investment Obligations given a Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating based on a rating given by S&P as provided in clauses (f), (g) and (h) above.

"Moody's Obligation Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

(a) With respect to a Moody's Senior Secured Loan:

(i) if it has an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating; or

(ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the rating that is one rating subcategory above the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating; and

(b) With respect to a Moody's Non Senior Secured Loan or a Bond:

(i) if it has an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating; or

(ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating; and

(c) With respect to a Synthetic Security or a DIP Loan, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof.

"Moody's Rating": The Moody's Default Probability Rating; provided that, with respect to the Collateral Obligations generally, if at any time Moody's or any successor to it ceases to provide rating services, references to rating categories of Moody's in this Indenture shall be deemed instead to be references to the equivalent categories of any other nationally recognized investment rating agency selected by the Portfolio Manager, as of the most recent date on which such other rating agency and Moody's published ratings for the type of security in respect of which such alternative rating agency is used.

"S&P Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following methodology:

(i) If there is an issuer credit rating of the borrower of the Collateral Obligation (the "Borrower"), or the guarantor who unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the Collateral Obligation (the "Guarantor") by S&P, the most current issuer credit rating for such Borrower or Guarantor (provided, that with respect to any private or confidential rating, a consent has been granted by such Borrower or Guarantor and a copy of such consent shall be provided to S&P indicating that the issuer can rely on such private or confidential rating);

(ii) (a) if there is not an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation will be one subcategory below such rating; (b) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior unsecured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be such rating; and (c) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a subordinated obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be two subcategories above such rating if such rating is "BBB-" or higher and will be one subcategory above such rating if such rating is "BB+" or lower (provided, that with respect to any private or confidential rating, a consent has been granted by such Borrower or Guarantor and a copy of such consent shall be provided to S&P indicating that the issuer can rely on such private or confidential rating); or

(iii) if there is neither an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P nor a rating by S&P on an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating may be determined using any one of the methods below:

(A) if an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is publicly rated by Moody's, then the S&P Rating will be determined in accordance with the methodologies for establishing the Moody's Default Probability Rating, except that the S&P Rating of such obligation will be (1) one subcategory below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody's if such security is rated "Baa3" or higher by Moody's and (2) two subcategories below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody's if such security is rated "Ba1" or lower by Moody's; provided that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount may be given a S&P Rating based on a rating given by Moody's as provided in this subclause (a) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable);

(B) if no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's, then the Portfolio Manager may apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating estimate, which will be its S&P Rating; or

(C) if such Collateral Obligation is not rated by Moody's or S&P, no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's and if the Portfolio Manager determines in its sole discretion based on information available to it after reasonable inquiry that such Borrower (x) is not subject to any bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings nor in default on any of its obligations (unless the subject of a good faith business dispute), (y) is a legally constituted corporate entity having the minimum legal, financial and operational infrastructure to carry on a definable business, deliver and sell a product or service and report its results in generally accepted accounting terms as verified by a reputable audit firm and (z) is not so vulnerable to adverse business, financial and economic conditions that default in its financial or other obligations is foreseeable in the near term if current operating trends continue, then the S&P Rating will be "CCC-"; provided that the Portfolio Manager must apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating on such Borrower within 30 days after the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation; provided, further, that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount may be given an S&P Rating based on this subclause (c) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable); provided that if (i) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any positive "credit watch" list by S&P, such rating will be increased by one rating subcategory or (ii) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any negative "credit watch" list by S&P, such rating will be decreased by one rating subcategory.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the S&P Rating shall be (A) the rating assigned thereto by S&P if the rating is public, (B) the rating assigned by S&P if the rating is confidential, but only if all appropriate parties have provided written consent to its disclosure and use, (C) the rating assigned by S&P thereto through an estimated rating or (D) the rating assigned thereto by S&P in connection with the acquisition thereof upon the request of the Portfolio Manager. In the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a PIK Security, Structured Finance Obligation or Synthetic Securities, the S&P Rating may not be determined pursuant to clause (iii)(A) above.

S&P Ratings for entities or obligations relevant hereunder other than Borrowers and Collateral Obligations shall be determined in a corresponding manner.

PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENCY AGREEMENT

As of June 29, 2005

JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as Preference Shares Paying Agent
Worldwide Securities Services
Jasper CLO Ltd.
600 Travis Street, 50th Floor
Houston, Texas 77002

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Jasper CLO Ltd., a company existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the “Issuer”), has resolved to appoint JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association (“JPMCB”), as Preference Shares Paying Agent (the “Preference Shares Paying Agent”) for the Issuer’s Preference Shares (the “Preference Shares”). We hereby appoint JPMCB as such under the terms set forth below and confirm JPMCB’s agreement to hold any funds to be paid to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Priority of Payments set forth in the Indenture (as defined herein) in a segregated account described below. Reference is also made to the indenture, dated as of June 29, 2005, among the Issuer, Jasper CLO Corp., as Co-issuer (the “Co-Issuer”), and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as trustee (the “Indenture”). Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Indenture or, if not defined therein, certain resolutions passed at a meeting of the Issuer’s Board of Directors that was held on June 28, 2005, as reflected in the minutes thereof, including Annex A (“Annex A”) therein (the “Resolutions”). The Preference Shares will be issued, and may be exchanged or transferred, subject to the procedures set forth in Annex A to the Resolutions.

Except as otherwise specified herein or as the context may otherwise require or dictate or unless the Composite Securities are explicitly addressed in the same context, (A) all references in this Agreement to the “Preference Shares” include the “Preference Share Components” of the Class 1 Composite Securities and Class 2 Composite Securities and (B) all references in this Agreement to the rights of the Holders of the Preference Shares (including with respect to any payments, distributions, redemptions, votes or consents to be given by such Holders) include the rights of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities and the Holders of the Class 2 Composite Securities to the extent of the Preference Share Components of the Class 1 Composite Securities and the Class 2 Composite Securities, as applicable.

Section 1. Notice of Distribution to Directors. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, promptly after receipt of the Valuation Report, shall forward to the Directors the Valuation Report which identifies the Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds, payable to the Holders of the Preference Shares on the applicable Payment Date.

Section 2. Payments of Dividends and Other Distributions, Amounts Not Distributable. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall, subject to paragraphs (b) and (c) below, pay or cause to be paid, on behalf of the Issuer on such Payment Date, the Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds received from the Trustee to the Holders of the Preference Shares as a distribution on such Payment Date. Distributions of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds to the Holders of Preference Shares shall be paid pro rata in the proportion that the number of Preference Shares held by each such Holder bears to the total number of Preference Shares. The Issuer, or the Share Registrar on its behalf, shall provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with a copy of the Preference Share register on the Closing Date and thereafter, the Share Registrar shall promptly notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent of any changes to the Preference Share register. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall notify the Issuer and the Share Registrar of any transfers of Preference Shares.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, distributions of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds by way of dividend to the Holders of Preference Shares on any Payment Date out of amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account shall (i) be subject to the Issuer being solvent under Cayman Islands law (defined as the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business) immediately prior to, and after giving effect to, such payment as determined by the Issuer and (ii) be made only to the extent that the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium out of which to make such payment as determined by the Issuer. If the Issuer determines that the conditions set forth in either clause (i) or (ii) above are not satisfied with respect to any portion of Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds payable on such Payment Date, the Issuer shall instruct the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing no later than one Business Day prior to such Payment Date that such portion of Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds, as applicable, should not be paid, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not pay the same, to the Holders of the Preference Shares until the first succeeding Payment Date, or (in the case of any payments which would otherwise be payable on the Redemption Date or any Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date) until the first succeeding Business Day, upon which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing that each such condition is satisfied, at which time the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall distribute such amounts. To the extent available, distributions shall be made first out of distributable profits for the current Due Period, then out of distributable profits in excess of dividends for prior Due Periods and then out of share premium.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, distributions of the Redemption Price by way of redemption of the Preference Shares shall be subject to the Issuer being solvent under Cayman Islands law (defined as the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business) immediately prior to, and after giving effect to, such distribution as determined by the Issuer. For purposes of this subsection (c), a determination as to whether the Issuer is solvent on the Redemption Date shall be made by the Issuer (A) after giving effect to any payments to be made on such Redemption Date and (B) in light of the fact that the obligations of the Issuer to the Holders of the Securities, the other Secured Parties and the other Persons subject to the Priority of Payments are limited in recourse to the Collateral, and not to amounts (i) in the Preference Shares Distribution Account, (ii) any other amounts released from the Collateral in accordance with the Indenture and held by or on behalf of the Issuer for the benefit of the Holders of the Preference Shares or (iii) amounts on deposit in the Issuer's bank account in the Cayman Islands, and that after the assets in the Collateral are exhausted, such parties will have no further claim against the Issuer. If the Issuer determines that such condition is not satisfied on a Redemption Date with respect to any portion of the Redemption Price, the Issuer shall instruct the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing no later than one Business Day prior to such Redemption Date that such portion should not be distributed, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not distribute the same, to the Holders of the Preference Shares until the first succeeding Business Day upon which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing that such condition is satisfied, and the amounts so retained in the Preference Shares Distribution Account will be held therein until such amounts are paid.

Section 3. Payments and Redemption. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall make payments or distributions to each registered Holder on the relevant Record Date (as set out in Annex A to the Resolutions) by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a U.S. Dollar account maintained by the Holder as notified to the Preference Shares Paying Agent or, in the absence of such notification, by U.S. Dollar check mailed to the Holder at its address of record. The Issuer will, or will procure that the Share Registrar will, provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with all relevant information regarding the registered Holders of the Preference Shares as the Preference Shares Paying Agent may reasonably require to the extent such information is in possession or control of the Issuer or Share Registrar.

(b) The Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be obligated to pay any additional amounts to Holders or beneficial owners of the Preference Shares as a result of any withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges. As a condition to payment of any amount, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, may require certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments or distributions in respect of Preference Shares under any present or future law or regulation of the United States or any present or future law or regulation of any political subdivision thereof or taxing authority therein or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under such law or regulation. Amounts properly withheld under the Code by any Person from a payment or distribution to a Holder of Preference Shares shall be considered as having been paid by the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent to such Holder for all purposes herein. The Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereby provide notice to each Holder or beneficial owner of the Preference Shares that the failure to provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with appropriate tax certifications will result in amounts being withheld from payments to such Holders or beneficial owners of the Preference Shares under this Agreement (provided that amounts withheld pursuant to applicable tax laws shall be considered as having been paid by the Issuer as provided herein).

(c) The Issuer, the Share Registrar and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may deem and treat the Holder of any Preference Shares as the absolute owner of such Preference Shares, notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing on any certificate representing such Preference Shares, for the purpose of paying dividends and other distributions thereon, and for all other purposes, and neither the Issuer nor the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary. All such payments so made to such Holder or upon such Holder's order shall be valid and, to the extent of the sum or sums so paid, effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability for the monies payable upon any such Preference Share.

(d) All payments by the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder shall be made without charging any commission or fee to the Holders of the Preference Shares.

(e) On the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, the Issuer shall redeem the Preference Shares for a redemption price equal to all amounts distributable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Priority of Payments set forth in the Indenture, unless the Preference Shares have been redeemed earlier through an optional redemption or otherwise. Upon final payment due on the Preference Shares (whether on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date or any earlier Redemption Date), the Holder thereof shall present and surrender the certificates, if any, representing the Preference Shares at the office of the Preference Shares Paying Agent on or prior to such final payment date. On the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, all payments on redemption of Preference Shares to the Holders of the Preference Shares shall be made pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings.

Notice of final payment of the Preference Shares pursuant to an optional redemption in conjunction with an optional redemption of the Notes shall be given as set forth in Section 9.3 of the Indenture. Notice of any other final payment shall be given by the Preference Shares Paying Agent by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days nor earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date to each Holder of Preference Shares at such Holder's address as set forth in the Preference Share register.

All notices of redemption shall state:

- (i) the Redemption Date on which the Preference Shares are to be redeemed;
- (ii) the applicable Redemption Price for the Preference Shares being redeemed;
- (iii) the place or places where such Preference Shares to be redeemed are to be surrendered for payment of the applicable Redemption Price, which shall be the office of the Preference Shares Paying Agent; and
- (iv) in the case of an optional redemption, the latest possible date upon which such notice of redemption may be withdrawn.

The Issuer shall have the option to withdraw any such notice of redemption up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) in each case only if either (i) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) of the Indenture, the Portfolio Manager does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications required under the Indenture (as described in Section 9.3(c) and 12.1(f) of the Indenture), as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, (ii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i) of the Indenture, the Issuer receives the written direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption and (iii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii) of the Indenture, the Issuer receives the unanimous written direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer thereby agrees for the benefit of the directing person to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written direction referred to in the preceding clause (ii) or this clause (iii)). Notice of any such withdrawal shall be delivered pursuant to Section 9.3 of the Indenture.

Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Preference Shares.

(f) On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, so long as all administrative and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture and all amounts owing under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged:

- (i) at the direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Preference Shares, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings; or
- (ii) at the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares, voting as a single Class or group, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a directed portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such direction.

(g) If any Holder of Preference Shares desires to direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Notes in accordance with Article 9 of the Indenture, such Holder shall notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer, and the Portfolio Manager not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made. If the Holders of at least a Super Majority of the Preference Shares direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Notes, the Issuer shall effect an Optional Redemption of the Notes pursuant to the procedures described in the Indenture.

(h) If any Holder of Preference Shares desires to direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares after the redemption or repayment of the Notes and in accordance with Section (f)(i) and (ii) above, such Holder shall notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent not later than 30 (or with the Portfolio Manager's consent, not later than 10 Business Days prior to the proposed Redemption Date (which must be a Payment Date). Each Holder of Preference Shares that also wishes to direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares must so notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent (who shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager of such direction) within 10 Business Days after receipt of such notice. If the aggregate number of Preference Shares that have directed the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares equals or exceeds the minimum threshold set forth in Section (f)(i) and (ii) above, the Issuer shall effect an optional redemption of the Preference Shares pursuant to the procedures described in the Preference Share Documents and this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Preference Shares must be redeemed on or prior to the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. The Preference Shares shall be redeemed from the proceeds of any Collateral remaining after giving effect to the redemption or repayment of the Notes and payment in full of all expenses of the Co-Issuers.

Section 4. Preference Shares Distribution Account. (a) On or prior to the Closing Date, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the "Preference Shares Distribution Account" (the "Preference Shares Distribution Account") that shall be held in trust in the name of the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the benefit of the Issuer, over which the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall cause the Trustee to make any payment pursuant to the Priority of Payments by wire transfer (or by internal transfer if the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent are the same Person) to the Preference Shares Distribution Account in immediately available funds. All sums received by the Preference Shares Paying Agent from the Trustee or the Issuer for payment of dividends or other distributions or the Redemption Price in respect of the Preference Shares shall be deposited promptly in the Preference Shares Distribution Account until the first Payment Date or, in the case of the payment of the Redemption Price in respect of the Preference Shares, the first Business Day, on which, in either case, the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent that such distribution can be made to the Holders of the Preference Shares in accordance with Section 2. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall then apply such funds as provided for in Section 3. All sums payable by the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder shall be paid out of the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not incur any personal liability to pay amounts due to Holders of the Preference Shares and shall only be required to make payments or other distributions (including the Redemption Price thereof) if there are sufficient monies in the Preference Shares Distribution Account to make such payments or other distributions.

(c) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have no right of set off with respect to amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

(d) Amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account that are not paid out may be invested in an interest-bearing account as directed in writing by the Issuer.

Section 5. Unclaimed Payments. Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any money deposited with the Preference Shares Paying Agent and held in the Preference Shares Distribution Account or otherwise held for payment on any Preference Share and remaining unclaimed for two years after such payment has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer on Issuer Request; and the Holder of such Preference Share shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment of such amounts and all liability of the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to such money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Issuer) shall thereupon cease. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, before being required to make any such release of payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Issuer any reasonable means of notification of such release of payment, including, but not limited to, arranging with the Share Registrar for the Share Registrar to mail notice of such release to Holders of Preference Shares whose right to or interest in monies due and payable but not claimed is determinable from the records of the Issuer or Preference Shares Paying Agent, as applicable, at the last address of record of each such Holder.

Section 6. Purchase of Preference Shares. (a) Each Holder or beneficial owner of a Preference Share, by its ownership of such Preference Share, acknowledges and agrees that such Holder or beneficial owner of a Preference Share will be required to sell its beneficial interest in such Preference Share in the following circumstances:

(i) any Non-Consenting Holder of Preference Shares with respect to an amendment of the Indenture (which includes Holders that fail to respond to a consent solicitation with the applicable period) will be forced to sell its applicable Preference Shares pursuant to Section 9.6 of the Indenture, whereby the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser is permitted to purchase the beneficial interest in the Preference Shares held by any such Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; or

(ii) any Holder of a Directing Preference Share with respect to the removal of the Portfolio Manager without cause will be forced to sell its applicable Preference Shares pursuant to Section 12(c) of the Management Agreement, whereby the Portfolio Manager is permitted to purchase the beneficial interest in all Directing Preference Shares held by any such Holder thereof at the applicable Buy-Out Amount; and

(b) Each Holder or beneficial owner of a Preference Share will have the right to sell its beneficial interest in such Preference Share to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser upon a Maturity Extension pursuant to Section 2.4 of the Indenture at the applicable Extension Purchase Price.

Section 7. Execution, Delivery and Dating. The certificates (if required by the Resolutions) relating to the Preference Shares shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer as provided for in the Articles.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Issuer may deliver Preference Share certificates (the “Preference Share Certificates”) executed by the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent, upon Issuer Order, shall deliver such Preference Share Certificates as provided in this Agreement and not otherwise.

Each Preference Share Certificate delivered by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to or upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated the Closing Date. All other Preference Share Certificates that are delivered after the Closing Date for any other purpose under the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement shall be dated the date of their delivery.

Section 8. Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange. (a) When the Preference Shares Paying Agent receives a request for transfer or exchange of Preference Shares, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall comply with its obligations as set forth in Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions.

(b) No exchange or transfer of the Preference Shares shall be honored if such exchange or transfer will result in persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Components of the Composite Securities) immediately after such exchange or transfer (excluding for purposes of such determination any Preference Shares (and Preference Share Components) held by any Controlling Person and its affiliates that is not also a Benefit Plan Investor) determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation. Each purchaser or transferee of a Certified Preference Share or interest wherein and each purchaser of a Preference Share represented by a Regulation S Global Preference Share or interest therein acquired through the Placement Agents will be required to represent and agree whether or not such purchaser is, or is using the assets of, or will at any time throughout its holding and disposition of such Preference Share be or become, (i) an "employee benefit plan" as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, whether or not subject to ERISA and including any foreign, church or governmental plan, (ii) a "plan" described in Section 4975(c)(1) of the Code or (iii) an entity that is deemed to hold assets of either of the foregoing by reason of a plan's investment in such entity. In addition, each purchaser or transferee of a Certified Preference Share or interest therein and each purchaser of a Preference Share represented by a Regulation S Global Preference Share or interest therein acquired through the Placement Agents will be required to represent and agree whether or not it is, or is using the assets of, or will at any time throughout its holding and disposition of such Preference Share be or become the Portfolio Manager or any other person that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the assets of the Issuer or any "affiliate" (as defined in the Plan Asset Regulation) or any such person (any such person, a "Controlling Person"). Furthermore, no exchange or transfer of an interest in a Regulation S Global Preference Shares will be honored if the transferee has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person. Each subsequent purchaser or transferee of a Regulation S Global Preference Share or interest therein not acquired directly from the Issuer or through the Placement Agents will be deemed to represent and agree that it is not, is not using the assets of, and throughout its holding and disposition of such Regulation S Global Preference Share will not be or become or transfer any interest therein to, a Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person. If, after a purchaser's or transferee's initial acquisition of Preference Shares, the purchaser or transferee determines, it is determined by another person, or the Preference Shares Paying Agent becomes aware that such purchaser or transferee has breached any of the foregoing representations, such purchaser or transferee will dispose of its interest in the Preference Shares in a manner consistent with the requirements set forth in Annex A to the Resolutions. Each purchaser or transferee of a Preference Share or interest therein will be required or deemed to represent that either (i) it is not, and is not acquiring such Preference Share with the assets of, an "employee benefit plan" as defined under Section 3(3) of ERISA and that is subject to Title I of ERISA, any "plan" described in Section 4975(e) of the Code or a foreign, governmental or church plan subject to any federal, state, local or foreign law that is substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (each such plan, a "Covered Plan") and throughout the holding of such Preference Share, it will not become or transfer its interest to any Covered Plan to an entity using the assets thereof, or (ii) the acquisition and holding of such Preference Share by the purchaser or transferee, throughout its holding and disposition of such Preference Share, will not result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a foreign, governmental or church plan, any similar law), because such purchase, holding and disposition either (x) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws or (y) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all of the conditions of which are and will be satisfied upon its acquisition of, and throughout its holding and disposition of, such Preference Share. Each purchaser or transferee of a Preference Share will be required or deemed to represent and agree that it will not transfer such Preference Share or interest therein in violation of any of the foregoing representations and agreements, that any purported transfer that does not comply with such representations and agreements will be null and void ab initio and will vest in the transferee no rights against the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Issuer, and that such purchaser or transferee, as applicable, and any fiduciary or other Person causing it to acquire such Preference Share shall, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Share Paying Agent, the Portfolio Manager, the Placement Agents and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage or loss incurred by them as a result of any transfer in violation of any of the foregoing.

(c) Notwithstanding anything else contained herein to the contrary, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be responsible for ascertaining whether any purchase or transfer complies with, including but not limited to, the registration provisions of or exemptions from the Securities Act, applicable state laws, the Code, ERISA, the Plan Asset Regulation or the Investment Company Act; provided that if a certificate or other written representation is specifically required by the express terms of this Agreement or Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions to be delivered to the Preference Shares Paying Agent by the purchaser or transferee of a Preference Share, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether the same substantially conforms on its face with the terms of this Agreement or Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions, as applicable, and shall promptly notify the party delivering the same if such certificate does not comply with such terms.

(d) The Issuer shall (and shall cause the Share Registrar to) consult the Preference Shares Paying Agent in connection with all transfers of Preference Shares and shall (and shall cause the Share Registrar to) direct all transferors and transferees to correspond through the Preference Shares Paying Agent. The Share Registrar shall not be required to determine whether any proposed exchange, transfer, redemption or other transaction in relation to the Preference Shares complies with any restrictions imposed by law or under the terms of the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents but shall be entitled to rely completely in that respect on the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent.

(e) In the event that the Preference Shares Paying Agent is notified by the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer) that any Holder of Preference Shares has failed to provide the Issuer with the applicable United States federal income tax certifications, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall notify the Share Registrar and request it to record such transfer. Except as expressly provided herein or as required by this Agreement in connection with the Preference Shares Paying Agent's obligations to the Holders of Preference Shares, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have no obligation to oversee or participate in any such transfer of Preference Shares.

Section 9. Fees and Indemnification. The fee to be paid in connection with the Preference Shares Paying Agent's appointment and duties as Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be paid pursuant to a letter agreement dated March 10, 2005 between the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Issuer. The fees payable hereunder shall be paid by the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent's account as directed by the Preference Shares Paying Agent. The Issuer will indemnify the Preference Shares Paying Agent and its officers, directors, employees and agents, against any loss, liability or expense (including reasonable legal fees and out-of-pocket expenses of counsel) incurred in connection with their appointment and duties hereunder, except such as result from their own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Preference Shares Paying Agent agrees that such fees and indemnification shall be treated as an Administrative Expense of the Issuer as defined in the Indenture and paid pursuant to the Priority of Payments. Anything in this Agreement notwithstanding, in no event shall the Preference Shares Paying Agent be liable for special, indirect or consequential losses or damages of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to loss of profits), even if the Preference Shares Paying Agent has been advised of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action. The obligation of the Issuer to indemnify the Preference Shares Paying Agent under this Section 9 shall survive retirement of the Preference Shares and any resignation or removal of the Preference Shares Paying Agent but shall remain subject to the provisions of Section 21.

Section 10. Liabilities. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be responsible or accountable to anyone for any reason whatsoever with respect to the validity of this Agreement or of the Preference Shares, or for any act done or omitted by it in good faith, or for anything whatsoever in connection with this Agreement, except for its own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct in the performance of any duty to be performed by the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder.

(b) The Preference Shares Paying Agent may consult as to legal matters with lawyers selected with due care by it, who may be employees of or regular independent counsel to the Issuer, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be protected from and shall incur no liability for action taken, or suffered to be taken, with respect to such matters in good faith and in accordance with the opinion or advice of such lawyers.

(c) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be protected from and shall incur no liability for or in respect of any action taken or thing suffered by it in reliance upon any Preference Shares, notice, direction, consent, certificate, affidavit, statement or other paper or document reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been delivered or signed by the proper parties, except as may result from its own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct or that of its directors, officers, employees or agents.

(d) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be under any liability for interest on any money at any time received by it pursuant to any of the provisions of this Agreement, except as otherwise agreed in writing with the Issuer.

(e) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not incur any liability with respect to the validity or value of any of the Preference Shares unless otherwise specified herein.

Section 11. Conflicts. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent and its officers, directors and employees may become the holder of, or acquire any interest in, any Preference Shares, with the same rights that it or they would have if it were not the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder, or they were not such officers, directors, or employees, and may engage or be interested in any fiscal or other transaction with the Issuer and may act on, or as depository, trustee or agent for, any committee or body of holders of Preference Shares or other indebtedness of the Issuer as freely as if it were not the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder or they were not such officers, directors, or employees.

(b) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be obliged to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth herein, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Agreement or the Indenture against the Preference Shares Paying Agent. Except for Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions (to the extent they do not contradict this Agreement), the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have no duties under Annex A to the Resolutions. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be under any obligation to take any action hereunder that may tend to involve it in any expenses or liability, the payment of which within a reasonable time is not, in its reasonable opinion, assured to it. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be accountable or under any duty or responsibility in case of any default of which the Preference Shares Paying Agent has knowledge by the Issuer in the performance of its obligations contained in the Articles and Annex A to the Resolutions (including, without limitation, any duty or responsibility to initiate or attempt to initiate any proceedings at law or otherwise or to make any demand for payment upon the Issuer).

(c) In acting under this Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agent is acting solely as agent of the Issuer and does not assume any obligations to, or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the owners or Holders of the Preference Shares. All funds held by the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment on the Preference Shares shall be held in trust for the Issuer, until paid.

(d) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall, as between itself and the Holders of the Preference Shares, with respect to all the obligations, powers, authorities and discretions, vested in it hereunder and under the Articles and the Resolutions, have absolute and uncontrolled discretion as to the exercise thereof whether in relation to the manner or as to the mode of and time for the exercise thereof and, in the absence of gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct on its part or that of its officers, directors or employees shall be in no way responsible for any loss, costs, damages or inconvenience that may result from the exercise or non-exercise thereof.

Section 12. Amendment. (a) This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, without the consent of the Holders of any Preference Shares, for the purpose of curing any ambiguity, or of curing, correcting or supplementing any defective provision contained herein, or in regard to matters or questions arising under this Agreement as the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may deem necessary or desirable and which shall not materially adversely affect the interests of Holders of the Preference Shares.

(b) Unless otherwise as set forth in subsection (a) above, this Agreement may be amended with the consent of Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares materially and adversely affected thereby.

(c) Any amendment to this Agreement must be in writing executed by each party hereto.

(d) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to its duties and obligations herein) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an opinion of counsel, consent or certificate of the Issuer in determining whether or not any proposed amendment is permitted hereunder.

Section 13. Resignation or Removal of the Preference Shares Paying Agent. The Preference Shares Paying Agent may at any time resign as the Preference Shares Paying Agent, by giving written notice to the Issuer of its resignation, specifying the date on which its resignation shall become effective (which date shall not be less than 60 days after the date on which such notice is given unless the Issuer shall agree to a shorter period). The Issuer may remove the Preference Shares Paying Agent at any time by giving written notice of not less than 60 days to the Preference Shares Paying Agent specifying the date on which such removal shall become effective. Such resignation or removal shall only take effect upon the appointment by the Issuer of a successor Preference Shares Paying Agent and upon the acceptance of such appointment by such successor Preference Shares Paying Agent; provided, however, that if the successor Preference Shares Paying Agent has been appointed within 60 days after such notice of resignation or removal, then the Preference Shares Paying Agent, or any Holder of Preference Shares, may, on behalf of himself and others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Preference Shares Paying Agent; provided, further, that after the retirement of the Notes, if the Issuer determines that no material distributions will be paid on the Preference Shares, the Issuer may remove the Preference Shares Paying Agent at any time, by giving written notice of not less than 10 days, and assume the duties of the Preference Shares Paying Agent itself.

Section 14. Assignment. No party hereto may assign or novate any of its rights or obligations hereunder except with the prior written consent of all the parties hereto.

Section 15. Reports and Notices. The Issuer hereby authorizes the Preference Shares Paying Agent to deliver or request the Trustee to deliver all Monthly Reports and Valuation Reports (each a “Report” and, collectively, “Reports”) prepared pursuant to the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares and the Preference Shares Paying Agent will deliver, or shall cause the Trustee to deliver a copy of any such Report to such Holders within two Business Days of receipt of any such Report. In addition, the Preference Shares Paying Agent will deliver, or shall cause the Trustee to deliver, a copy of any other notice or information that it has received from the Trustee under the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares within two Business Days of receipt of such notice and information.

Section 16. Notices. (a) All communications by or on behalf of the Issuer relating to the transfer, exchange, or payment of a Preference Share or any interest therein shall be directed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent at its address set forth in clause (b)(ii) below.

Where this Agreement provides for notice to Holders of the Preference Shares of any event, such notice shall be sufficiently given (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) if such notice is in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to each Holder of the Preference Shares affected by such event, at such Holder’s address as it appears on the Preference Share register, not later than the latest date, and not earlier than the earliest date, prescribed for the giving of such notice.

Neither the failure to mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Holder of Preference Shares shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders. Any notice that is given in the manner herein provided shall conclusively be presumed to have been duly given whether or not actually received by such Holder. Any notice to Holders of the Preference Shares provided for in this Agreement will be deemed to have been given on the date of mailing.

Where this Agreement provides for notice in any manner, such notice may be waived in writing by any Person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice.

In the event that, by reason of the suspension of the regular mail service as a result of a strike, work stoppage or similar activity, it shall be impractical to mail notice of any event to Holders of the Preference Shares when such notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, then any manner of giving such notice as shall be satisfactory to the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be deemed to be a sufficient giving of such notice.

(b) Notices and other communications hereunder shall (except to the extent otherwise expressly provided) be in writing and shall be addressed as follows, or to such other addresses as the parties hereto shall specify from time to time:

(i) if to the Issuer:

Section 17. Covenants of the Issuer. The Issuer shall not take any action under this Agreement or the Indenture that requires the authorization, direction or consent from the Holders of the Preference Shares without obtaining such authorization, direction or consent from the Holders of the Preference Shares. It shall be the responsibility of the Issuer to satisfy the Preference Shares Paying Agent as to the compliance with the foregoing condition (on which the Preference Shares Paying Agent may rely on in good faith).

Section 18. Transfer of Issuer Ordinary Shares. For so long as any of the Preference Shares are outstanding, the Issuer shall not agree to the transfer of any Issuer Ordinary Shares to U.S. Persons (as defined in the Code), and shall not transfer any such Issuer Ordinary Shares to any Person other than a Person which is a resident of the Cayman Islands.

Section 19. Certain Tax Matters. (a) On demand of the Issuer, a Holder or beneficial owner of a Preference Share will notify the Issuer whether or not the Holder or beneficial owner of such Preference Share is a United States person within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code and the name and status of such Holder or beneficial owner as an individual, partnership, corporation, or other entity and such other information as the Issuer shall reasonably request for purposes of tax reporting of the Issuer or other Holders of the Preference Shares.

(b) The Issuer will cause the Independent accountants to make a determination as to whether a Holder's investment in the Preference Shares has become a "reportable transaction" as described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.6011-4 because, after the Closing Date, the Issuer entered into a transaction having a book-tax difference or recognized a significant loss or otherwise. If the Holder's investment in the Preference Shares has become such a "reportable transaction", then the Issuer shall include with the PFIC Annual Information Statement, and provide to any other Holder of Preference Shares that makes a written request, any information available to it which may be reasonably necessary for such Holder of Preference Shares to comply with any disclosure requirements under Section 6011 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder with respect to its investment in the Preference Shares, provided, that the foregoing will not require the Issuer to keep a set of books in accordance with U.S. GAAP or other general accounting principles.

(c) The Issuer will cause its Independent accountants within 60 days after the end of each calendar year to provide to each Holder or beneficial owner of the Preference Shares (or its designee), upon written request therefor, all information that a U.S. shareholder making a "qualified electing fund" election as defined in the Code, is required to obtain from the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a "PFIC Annual Information Statement" as described in United States Treasury Regulation 1.1295-1(g)(1) (or any successor Internal Revenue Service release or Treasury Regulation) (including all representations and statements required by such statement (or protective election)), and the Issuer will take or cause to be taken any other reasonable steps to facilitate such election by a Holder or beneficial owner of the Preference Shares.

(d) The Issuer will provide or cause to be provided to each Holder or beneficial owner of the Preference Shares (or its designee), upon written request therefor, any information that such Holder or beneficial owner reasonably requests to assist such Holder or beneficial owner with regard to filing requirements the Holder or beneficial owner is required to satisfy as a result of the controlled foreign corporation rules under the Code.

(e) Each Holder and beneficial owner of the Preference Shares agree to treat the Preference Shares as equity of the Issuer for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, if applicable.

Section 20. Minimum Lots. Preference Shares must be held in minimum lots of 100 Preference Shares per investor and integral multiples of 1 Preference Share in excess thereof.

Section 21. Limited Recourse; No Petition. The Preference Shares Paying Agent hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Issuer's obligations hereunder will be solely the corporate obligations of the Issuer, and that the Preference Shares Paying Agent will not have any recourse to any of the directors, officers, employees, shareholders or affiliates of the Issuer with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, recourse in respect of any obligations of the Issuer hereunder will be limited to the proceeds of the Collateral, paid pursuant to the Priority of Payments and on the exhaustion thereof all obligations of and all claims against the Issuer arising from this Agreement or any transactions contemplated hereby shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, by entering into this Agreement, hereby covenants and agrees that it will not, prior to the date which is one year and one day (or, if longer, the applicable preference period) after the payment in full of all amounts owing under the Indenture and this Agreement, institute against the Issuer, or voluntarily join in any institution against the Issuer of, any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under any United States federal or state bankruptcy or similar law of any jurisdiction within or without the United States in connection with any obligations relating to the Preference Shares or this Agreement. The provisions of this Section 21 shall survive termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

Section 22. (a) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

(b) WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE ISSUER AND THE PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE PREFERENCE SHARES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 23. Signatures. This Agreement may be signed in two or more counterparts with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument. A facsimile signature shall be considered due execution and shall be binding upon the signatory thereto with the same force and effect as if the signature were an original.

The Preference Shares (excluding any Preference Share Components) shall be issuable only in an Authorized Amount. Preference Share certificates issued upon transfer, exchange or replacement of other Preference Shares shall be issued in an Authorized Amount reflecting the original number of Preference Shares so transferred, exchanged or replaced.

No Holder of Preference Shares shall be entitled to any benefit under the Preference Share Documents until such time as the Holder thereof and the number of Preference Shares have been recorded in the Share Register. Section 5. Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause to be kept a register (the “Share Register”) in the Cayman Islands in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Issuer shall provide for the registration and registration of transfers thereof of Preference Shares, including the registration of the uncertificated Preference Shares underlying the Preference Share Components of the Class 1 Composite Securities and the Class 2 Composite Securities which shall be registered in the name of the Composite Securityholders registered in the Indenture Register. The Administrator is appointed the “Share Registrar” pursuant to the Administration Agreement for the purpose of registering Preference Shares and transfers of Preference Shares. Upon any resignation or removal of the Share Registrar, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor or, in the absence of such appointment, assume the duties of Share Registrar. The Share Registrar shall promptly provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with copies of all notices, certificates and requests received with respect to the Preference Shares and promptly provide notice of all transfers and exchanges of Preference Shares. The Share Registrar shall not be required to determine whether any proposed exchange, transfer, redemption or other transaction in relation to the Preference Shares complies with any restrictions imposed by law or under the terms of the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents but shall be entitled to rely completely in that respect on the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent.

The Issuer will give the Preference Shares Paying Agent prompt written notice of the appointment of any successor Share Registrar and of the location, and any change in the location, of the Share Registrar, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have the right to inspect the Share Register at all reasonable times and to obtain copies thereof and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have the right to rely upon a certificate executed on behalf of such Share Registrar by an Officer thereof as to the names and addresses of the Shareholders and the numbers of such Preference Shares. If the Preference Shares Paying Agent resigns or is removed in accordance with the terms of the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor.

Subject to this Section 5, upon surrender of a Preference Share certificate for registration of transfer thereof at the offices of the Preference Shares Paying Agent in compliance with the provisions set forth in the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall notify the Issuer and the Share Registrar thereof and the Issuer shall execute and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Preference Share certificates of like terms and of a like number, and the Share Register shall be amended accordingly. The Issuer shall (and shall cause the Share Registrar to) refuse to transfer any Preference Share to the fullest extent allowed under Cayman Islands law if such transfer would violate any of the transfer restrictions provided in this Section 5 or the transferee fails to provide a required transfer certificate. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the uncertificated Preference Shares may only be transferred in connection with a transfer of the Class 1 Composite Securities and the Class 2 Composite Securities in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Indenture.

At the option of the Shareholder, Preference Share certificates may be exchanged for one or more Preference Share certificates of like terms, each in an Authorized Amount. Upon surrender of the Preference Share certificates to be exchanged at the office of the Preference Shares Paying Agent and upon satisfaction of the requirements set forth in this Section 5, but subject to the Preference Shares Paying Agent's obligations set forth in the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall instruct the Share Registrar to make the appropriate entries in the Share Register and the Issuer shall execute and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall deliver the Preference Share certificates.

All Preference Share certificates presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Share Registrar, duly executed by the Holder of Preference Shares thereof or its attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge shall be made to a Holder for any registration of transfer or exchange of Preference Shares, but the Preference Shares Paying Agent or Transfer Agent may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

(b) No Preference Share may be sold or transferred (including, without limitation, by pledge or hypothecation) unless such sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and is exempt under applicable state securities law.

No Preference Share may be offered, sold or delivered in a non-Offshore Transaction or to, or for the benefit of, U.S. Persons except in accordance with this Section 5.

The Preference Shares may also be sold or resold, as the case may be, in an Offshore Transaction to non-U.S. Persons in reliance on Regulation S. None of the Issuer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or any other Person may register the Preference Shares under the Securities Act or any state securities law.

For so long as any of the Securities are Outstanding, neither the Issuer nor the Share Registrar shall register any transfer of any Issuer Ordinary Shares to U.S. Persons.

So long as Preference Shares remain Outstanding, transfers and exchanges of Preference Shares, in whole or in part, shall only be made in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) Certificated Preference Shares to Regulation S Global Preference Shares.
If a Holder of Certificated Preference Shares wishes at any time to exchange its interest in such Certificated Preference Shares for an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Preference Shares, or to transfer its interest in such Certificated Preference Shares to a Person who wishes to take delivery thereof in the form of an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Preference Shares, such Holder may, subject to the immediately succeeding sentence and the rules and procedures of the Depository, exchange or transfer or cause the exchange or transfer of such interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in Regulation S Global Preference Shares. Upon receipt by the Preference Shares Paying Agent of (A) instructions given in accordance with the Depository's procedures from a participant thereof directing the Preference Shares Paying Agent to instruct the Depository to cause to be credited a beneficial interest in Regulation S Global Preference Shares in an amount equal to the interest in the Certificated Preference Shares to be exchanged or transferred, (B) a written order given in accordance with the Depository's procedures containing information regarding the participant account of the Depository and the Euroclear and Clearstream accounts to be credited with such increase and (C) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto given by the transferee of the Regulation S Global Preference Shares stating that the Holder of the Certificated Preference Share (in the case of an exchange) or the Person acquiring such interest (in the case of transfer) is not a U.S. Person and that, in either case, such Holder or transferee is not a Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person and that the exchange or transfer of such Certificated Preference Shares has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Certificated Preference Shares, including in accordance with Rule 903 or 904 of Regulation S, the Share Registrar shall cancel the Certificated Preference Shares to be transferred and upon surrender by or on behalf of the Depository of the existing Regulation S Global Preference Share Certificates, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall instruct the Share Registrar to (i) cancel the same and deliver new Regulation S Global Preference Share Certificates registered in the name of the Depository or its nominee in the number of Preference Shares required and (ii) update the Share Register to reflect such exchange or transfer.

(ii) Regulation S Global Preference Shares to Certificated Preference Shares.
If a Holder of a beneficial interest in Regulation S Global Preference Shares registered in the name of the Depository wishes at any time to exchange its interest in such Regulation

S Global Preference Shares for Certificated Preference Shares or to transfer its interest in such Regulation S Global Preference Shares to a Person who wishes to take delivery thereof in the form of Certificated Preference Shares, such Holder may, subject to the immediately succeeding sentence and the rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream or the Depository, as the case may be, cause the exchange or transfer of such interest for an equivalent number of Certificated Preference Shares. Upon receipt by the Preference Shares Paying Agent of (A) instructions from Euroclear, Clearstream or the Depository, as the case may be, directing the Preference Shares Paying Agent to cause to be issued a certificate equal to the beneficial interest in the Regulations S Global Preference Shares to be exchanged or transferred, but not less than the Authorized Amount, such instructions to contain information regarding the participant account with the Depository to be credited with such decrease, and (B) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto given by the transferee of such beneficial interest and stating, among other things, that, in the case of transfer, (1) either the Person acquiring such interest in the Preference Shares is a Qualified Institutional Buyer, or the Person acquiring such interest in the Certificated Preference Shares is an Accredited Investor and, in either case, the Person acquiring the interest in the Certificated Preference Shares is a Qualified Purchaser, a Knowledgeable Employee or an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, or (2) the Person acquiring such interest in the Preference Shares is a non-U.S. Person, or that, in the case of an exchange, the Holder is (1) a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor and, in each case, a Qualified Purchaser, a Knowledgeable Employee or an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, or (2) a non-U.S. Person, then Euroclear or Clearstream or the Preference Shares Paying Agent will instruct the Depository to submit the Regulation S Global Preference Share to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, who shall instruct the Share Registrar to (i) cancel the same and deliver a new Regulation S Global Preference Share Certificate registered in the name of the Depository or its nominee in the number of Preference Shares required and the Share Registrar will issue Certificated Preference Shares in an amount equal to the original number of Preference Shares represented by such beneficial interest and (ii) update the Share Register to reflect such exchange or transfer.

(iii) Certificated Preference Shares to Certificated Preference Shares. If a Holder of a Certificated Preference Shares wishes at any time to transfer its interest in such Certificated Preference Shares to a Person who wishes to take delivery thereof in the form of Certificated Preference Shares, such Holder may cause the transfer of such interest for an equivalent number of Certificated Preference Shares, subject to the restrictions set forth herein. Upon receipt by the Preference Shares Paying Agent of (A) such Holder's Certificated Preference Share certificates duly endorsed and (B) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto given by the transferee of such Certificated Preference Shares and stating, among other things, that (1) either the Person acquiring such interest in the Preference Shares is a Qualified Institutional Buyer, or the Person acquiring such interest in the Certificated Preference Shares is an Accredited Investor and, in either case, the Person acquiring the interest in the Certificated Preference Shares is a Qualified Purchaser, a Knowledgeable Employee or an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, or (2) the Person acquiring such interest in the Preference Shares is a non-U.S. Person, then the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall instruct the Share Registrar to, and the Share Registrar shall (i) cancel the Certificated Preference Shares certificate representing such Certificated Preference Shares and the Share Registrar will issue to such transferee Certificated Preference Shares in an amount equal to the number of the Preference Shares to be transferred and (ii) update the Share Register to reflect such exchange or transfer.

The Components of the Composite Securities, whether such Composite Securities are in the form of Certificated Composite Securities or Regulation S Global Composite Securities, are not separately transferable. Subject to and in compliance with the provisions of the Indenture, a Holder of a Class 1 Composite Security or a Holder of a Class 2 Composite Security may exchange its Class 1 Composite Security or Class 2 Composite Security, respectively, for proportional interests in the underlying securities represented by the Components thereof.

Any transfer will be subject to the requirement that any transferee (and transferor, in the case of a partial transfer) acquire Preference Shares in an Authorized Amount.

Each Transferee Certificate furnished pursuant to this Section 5(b) may be relied on conclusively by the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Share Registrar. None of the Issuer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Share Registrar or any other Person shall be required to register the Preference Shares under the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary herein, so long as any Regulation S Global Preference Shares remain Outstanding and are held by or on behalf of the Depository, transfers of Regulation S Global Preference Shares or any beneficial interests therein shall only be made in accordance with this Annex A. Transfers of interests in Regulation S Global Preference Shares may be made (a) by book-entry transfer of beneficial interests within the relevant Clearing Agency or (b) in the case of transfers of interests between Certificated Preference Shares and Regulation S Global Preference Shares, in accordance with this Section 5. In each case of a transfer of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Preference Share that requires the Preference Shares Paying Agent to instruct the Depository to reduce or increase the aggregate number of Preference Shares represented by a Regulation S Global Preference Share certificate, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall cancel such Regulation S Global Preference Share certificate, and shall instruct the Issuer to issue a new Regulation S Global Preference Share certificate registered in the name of the Depository in an amount equal to the aggregate outstanding face amount of the Preference Shares represented by the Regulation S Global Preference Shares after such transfer as reflected in the Share Register. The new Regulation S Global Preference Share certificate shall be deposited with the Preference Shares Paying Agent as custodian for the Depository; provided that, the Issuer shall not be required to issue a Regulation S Global Preference Share certificate if the aggregate outstanding face amount of the Preference Shares represented by such Regulation S Global Preference Share certificate is zero, but will, at the request of the Preference Shares Paying Agent, provide a certificate to the Preference Shares Paying Agent stating that the Preference Shares remain eligible to be held by the Depository in the event of future transfer and exchanges.

In the event that Regulation S Global Preference Shares are transferred to the Beneficial Owners thereof pursuant to this Section 5, such Preference Shares may be transferred only in accordance with such procedures and restrictions as are substantially consistent with the provisions above (including certification requirements intended to ensure that such transfers comply with Rule 144A or another exemption from registration requirements of the Securities Act, or are to non-U.S. Persons and non-U.S. residents (as determined for purposes of the Investment Company Act), or otherwise comply with Regulation 5, as the case may be) and as may be from time to time adopted by the Issuer.

(c) By delivery of a Subscription Agreement on the Closing Date in connection with the initial issuance of the Certificated Preference Shares, or upon delivery of a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B upon the transfer of Certificated Preference Shares, each Holder of a Certificated Preference Share will represent, warrant and agree with the Issuer to what is in Exhibit B and set forth in Exhibit B. By delivery of a Subscription Agreement on the Closing Date in connection with the initial issuance of the beneficial interests in the Regulation S Global Preference Shares, or upon delivery of a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B upon the transfer of an interest in Certificated Preference Shares for an interest in a Regulation S Global Preference Share or upon any other transfer of an interest in a Regulation S Global Preference Share, each Holder of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Preference Share shall represent, warrant and agree or be deemed to have represented, warranted and agreed, as the case may be, to what is in Exhibit B with the Issuer, in each case as set forth in Exhibit B.

If Preference Share certificates are issued upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Preference Share certificates and a request is made to remove the applicable legend on such Preference Share certificates, the Preference Share certificates so issued shall bear such applicable legend, or such applicable legend shall not be removed, as the case may be, unless there is delivered to the Issuer such satisfactory evidence, which may include an opinion of counsel as may be reasonably required by the Issuer to the effect that neither such applicable legend nor the restrictions on transfer set forth therein are required to ensure that transfers thereof comply with the provisions of Rule 144A under, Section 4 of, or Regulation S under, the Securities Act, as applicable, or the Investment Company Act. Upon provision of such satisfactory evidence, the Issuer shall execute and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall deliver Preference Share certificates that do not bear such applicable legend.

(d) At any time when the Issuer is not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act and is not exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act, upon the request of any Holder or Beneficial Owner of Preference Shares, the Issuer shall promptly furnish Rule 144A Information to such Holder or Beneficial Owner, to a prospective purchaser of any Preference Share designated by such Holder or Beneficial Owner or to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for delivery to such Holder or Beneficial Owner or a prospective purchaser designated by such Holder or Beneficial Owner, as the case may be, in order to permit compliance by such Holder or Beneficial Owner with Rule 144A under the Securities Act in connection with the resale of such Preference Share by such Holder or Beneficial Owner.

Section 6. Mutilated, Defaced, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Preference Share certificates.

If any mutilated or defaced Preference Share certificate is surrendered to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, or if there shall be delivered to the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (i) evidence to their reasonable satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Preference Share certificate and (ii) such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them and any agent of any of them harmless that such Preference Share has been acquired by a protected purchaser, then, the Issuer shall execute and, upon Issuer Request, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall deliver, in lieu of any such mutilated, defaced, destroyed, lost or stolen Preference Share, a new Preference Share certificate identical in all respects to the entry in the Share Register with respect to such Preference Shares represented thereby, including the same date of issuance, number of Preference Shares and name of the Holder thereof, dated the date of its execution and bearing a number not contemporaneously Outstanding. Upon the execution and delivery of any new Preference Share certificates under this Section 6, the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent may require the payment by the registered Holder thereof of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Preference Shares Paying Agent, if applicable) connected therewith.

If, after delivery of such new Preference Share certificate, a protected purchaser of the Preference Shares represented by the predecessor Preference Share certificate presents for payment, transfer or exchange such predecessor Preference Share certificate, the Issuer, the Share Registrar and the Preference Share Paying Agent shall be entitled to recover such new Preference Share certificate from the Person to whom it was delivered or any Person taking therefrom, and shall be entitled to recover upon the security or indemnity provided therefor to the extent of any loss, damage, cost or expense incurred by the Issuer and the Preference Share Paying Agent in connection therewith.

Section 7. Payment of Distributions on Preference Shares.

Pursuant to the Indenture, amounts may be paid to the Preference Shares Paying Agent on behalf of the Issuer on each Payment Date, on the Redemption Date or on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. Unless the Preference Shares Paying Agent has received contrary instructions from the Directors of the Issuer prior to a Payment Date, the Redemption Date or the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date in accordance with the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, all amounts received as dividends by the Preference Shares Paying Agent pursuant to the Indenture shall be paid to the Holders of Preference Shares (i) in respect of a Payment Date or the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, pro rata on the Preference Shares on such Payment Date or Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date by way of a dividend on the Preference Shares or, if applicable, as redemption price therefor or (ii) in respect of the Redemption Date, in accordance with Section 3(f) of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement. If, prior to the date of distribution in accordance with the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Directors instruct the Preference Shares Paying Agent not to distribute all or any portion of monies to be received by the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to a Payment Date, the Redemption Date or the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date (which instruction shall be made if such distributions would be impermissible under Cayman law, and then only to the extent such distributions would be impermissible), the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall retain such monies in the Preference Shares Distribution Account and shall pay such amounts as soon as practicable after being instructed to do so by the Directors.

The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall make payments or distributions to each registered Holder of Preference Shares on the relevant Record Date by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a U.S. Dollar account maintained by each such Holder as notified to the Preference Shares Paying Agent or, in the absence of such notification, by U.S. Dollar check mailed to such Holder at its address of record as set forth in the Share Register. As a condition to payment of any amount hereunder without the imposition of U.S. withholding tax, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, may require certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments or distributions in respect of Preference Shares under any present or future law or regulation of the United States or any present or future law or regulation of any political subdivision thereof or taxing authority therein or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under such law or regulation. All payments of distributions by the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be made without charging any commission or fee to the Holders of the Preference Shares.

Section 8. Persons Deemed Owners.

The person listed in the Share Register (which shall, in the case of the Preference Share Components of the Class 1 Composite Securities and the Class 2 Composite Securities, which shall be in the name of the Composite Securityholder in the Indenture Register) shall be treated as the owner of Preference Shares related thereto for all purposes, notwithstanding the possession of any certificates for the Preference Shares by another Person.

Section 9. Cancellation.

All Preference Share certificates representing Preference Shares surrendered for payment, registration of transfer, exchange or redemption, or deemed lost or stolen, shall promptly be canceled by the Share Registrar in accordance with its policy and may not be reissued or resold. No Preference Share certificates shall be issued in lieu of or in exchange for any Preference Shares cancelled as provided in this Section 9, except as expressly permitted by this Annex A. All cancelled Preference Share certificates held by the Share Registrar shall be placed in the minute books in the corporate records of the Issuer. Any certificates issued in respect of Preference Shares repurchased by the Issuer shall be immediately delivered to the Share Registrar for cancellation.

Section 10. Preference Shares Owned by Non-Permitted U.S. Holders; Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investors; Non-Permitted Holders.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any transfer of a Preference Share to a U.S. Person that is not both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor and (y) either a Qualified Purchaser, a Knowledgeable Employee, or an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees (any such Person a “Non-Permitted U.S. Holder”) shall be null and void ab initio and any such purported transfer of which the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have notice may be disregarded by the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent for all purposes.

If any Non-Permitted U.S. Holder shall become the owner of any Preference Shares, the Issuer shall, promptly after discovery that such Person is a Non-Permitted U.S. Holder by the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (and notice by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to the Issuer, if the Preference Shares Paying Agent makes the discovery), send notice to such Non-Permitted U.S. Holder demanding that such Non-Permitted U.S. Holder transfer its Preference Shares to a Person that is eligible to purchase such Preference Shares hereunder within 30 days of the date of such notice. If such Non-Permitted U.S. Holder fails to so transfer its Preference Shares, the Issuer shall have the right, without further notice to the Non-Permitted U.S. Holder, to sell such Preference Shares to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is eligible to purchase such Preference Shares hereunder on such terms as the Issuer may choose. The Issuer, or the Preference Shares Paying Agent acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select the purchaser by soliciting one or more bids from one or more brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Preference Shares, and selling such Preference Shares to the highest such bidder. However, the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent acting on behalf of the Issuer may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion. The Holder of each Preference Share, the Non-Permitted U.S. Holder and each other Person in the chain of title from the Holder to the Non-Permitted U.S. Holder, by its acceptance of the Preference Shares, agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent to effect such transfers. The proceeds of such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale, shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted U.S. Holder. The terms and conditions of any sale under this Section shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer, and neither the Issuer nor the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be liable to any Person having an interest in the Preference Shares sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of such discretion.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no person shall be permitted to acquire Preference Shares if such acquisition would result in persons who have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owing 25% or more of the aggregate amount of the Preference Shares (including Preference Share Components) outstanding immediately after such acquisition (excluding for purposes of this determination the Preference Shares held by any Controlling Person and its Affiliates that are not also Benefit Plan Investor), determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation. Furthermore, no person shall be permitted to acquire Preference Shares if such person, or any account on behalf of which such person is acquiring the Preference Shares, is either (1) an ERISA Plan or (2) a Benefit Plan Investor that is not an ERISA Plan, but whose purchase, holding or disposition of a Preference Share or any beneficial interest therein will result in a non-exempt violation of any federal, state, foreign or local law substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. Any person described in the first sentence of this subsection (b) and any person described in clause (1) or (2) of the preceding sentence is referred to herein as a “Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor.” Any transfer of Preference Shares or Preference Share Components to a Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor shall be null and void ab initio and any such purported transfer of which the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have notice may be disregarded by the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent for all purposes.

If any Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor shall become the owner of Preference Shares, the Issuer shall, promptly after discovery that such person is a Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor by the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (and notice by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to the Issuer, if the Preference Shares Paying Agent makes the discovery), send notice to such Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor demanding that such Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor transfer its Preference Shares to a Person that is eligible to purchase such Preference Shares hereunder within 30 days of the date of such notice. If such Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor fails to so transfer such Preference Shares, the Issuer shall have the right, without further notice to the Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor, to sell such Preference Shares to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is eligible to purchase such Preference Shares hereunder on such terms as the Issuer may choose. The Issuer, or the Preference Shares Paying Agent acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select the purchaser by soliciting one or more bids from one or more brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Preference Shares and selling such Preference Shares to the highest such bidder. However, the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent acting on behalf of the Issuer may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion. The Holder of each Preference Share, the Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor and each other Person in the chain of title from the Holder to the Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor, by its acceptance of Preference Shares agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent to effect such transfers. The proceeds of such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor. The terms and conditions of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer, and the Issuer shall not be liable to any Person having an interest in the Preference Shares sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of such discretion.

Any Holder that becomes a Non-Permitted U.S. Holder or a Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor or any Holder who has made an ERISA-related representation required by this Annex A that was at the time made, or has subsequently become, false or misleading, must immediately give written notice to the Issuer of such event. Any Holder of Preference Shares that proposes or attempts a transfer that would result in the holding of Preference Shares by a Non-Permitted U.S. Holder or that the Holder knows or has reason to know would result in the holding of Preference Shares by a Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor, must give at least 15 days prior written notice to the Issuer of such proposed transfer. In any case, the notifying party must provide the Issuer such information as it may request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such event on the Issuer with respect to its compliance with the Securities Act, the 1940 Act, ERISA and the Code.

Section 11. Return of Undistributed Dividends.

Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any monies deposited with the Preference Shares Paying Agent and held in the Preference Shares Distribution Account or otherwise held for the payment of dividends with respect to the Preference Shares and remaining unclaimed for two years after such amounts have become payable shall be paid to the Issuer on Issuer Request; and the Holder of such Preference Shares shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment of such amounts and all liability of the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to such Money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Issuer) shall thereupon cease. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, before being required to make any such release of payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Issuer, any reasonable means of notification of such release of payment, including, but not limited to, mailing notice to Holders whose right to or interest in such unclaimed monies is determinable from the records of the Preference Shares Paying Agent or Share Registrar, or in the case of the Preference Shares underlying the Preference Share Components of the Class 1 Composite Securities and the Class 2 Composite Securities, the Indenture Registrar, at the last address of record of each such Holder.

Section 12. Disclosure of Tax Treatment.

In order to ensure the Holders' and Beneficial Owners' acquisition of the Preference Shares pursuant to this Agreement are not treated as offered under conditions of confidentiality, the Holders and Beneficial Owners of the Preference Shares (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) are hereby permitted to disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the ownership and disposition of the Preference Shares). For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction, and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction.

Section 13. Certain Tax Matters.

The Issuer and each Holder and each Beneficial Owner of a Preference Share, by acceptance of its Preference Share, or its interest in a Preference Share, shall be deemed to have agreed to treat, and shall treat, such Preference Share as equity of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes.

The Issuer will not elect to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The Issuer shall file, or cause to be filed, any tax return, including information tax returns, required by any governmental authority; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not file, or cause to be filed, any income or franchise tax return in any state of the United States unless it shall have obtained an Opinion of Counsel from a tax counsel of nationally recognized standing experienced in such matters prior to such filing that, under the laws of such jurisdiction, the Issuer is required to file such income or franchise tax return.

Each Holder and Beneficial Owner of a Preference Share, by acceptance of its Preference Share or its interest in a Preference Share, shall be deemed to understand and acknowledge that failure to provide the Issuer, the Trustee or the Preference Shares Paying Agent with the applicable U.S. federal income tax certifications (generally, a United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is not a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) may result in U.S. federal back-up withholding from payments in respect of such Preference Share.

The Issuer shall cause its independent accountants, within 90 days after the end of each calendar year, to provide to each Holder of the Preference Shares and, upon written request therefor certifying that it is a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Preference Share, to such Holder (or its designee), all information that a U.S. shareholder making a “qualified electing fund” election (as defined in the Code) with respect to the Preference Shares is required to obtain from the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes and a “PFIC Annual Information Statement” as described in United States Treasury Regulation section 1.1295-1(g)(1) (or any successor Treasury Regulation) (including all representations and statements required by such statement), and the Issuer will take or cause to be taken any other reasonable steps to facilitate such election by a Holder of the Preference Shares or Beneficial Owner of the Preference Shares.

The Issuer shall provide, or cause to be provided, upon the request of a Holder of a Preference Share and, upon written request certifying that it is a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Preference Share, to such Holder (or its designee), any information that a Holder or Beneficial Owner of the Preference Shares reasonably requests to assist such Holder of the Preference Shares or Beneficial Owner with regard to filing requirements the Holder of the Preference Shares or Beneficial Owner of the Preference Shares is required to satisfy as a result of the controlled foreign corporation rules under the Code.

If the Issuer is aware that it has purchased an interest in a “reportable transaction” within the meaning of Section 6011 of the Code, and a Holder of a Preference Shares requests information about any such transactions in which the Issuer is an investor, the Issuer shall provide such information it has reasonably available as soon as practicable after such request.

The Issuer shall not become the owner of any asset if the ownership or disposition of such asset (without regard to the other activities of the Issuer) would cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes, it being understood that the purchase of Collateral Obligations pursuant to the acquisition standards set forth in the Collateral Acquisition Agreement will not be deemed to cause the Issuer to be engaged in a trade or business with the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Re: Jasper CLO Ltd.
Preference Shares, Par Value $0.01 Per Share

Dear Sirs:

Reference is hereby made to the Issuer's Memorandum and Articles of Association (the "Articles") and certain resolutions adopted at a meeting of the Issuer's Board of Directors on or about June 28, 2005 (the "Resolutions"), as reflected in the minutes thereof. Reference is also made to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, dated as of June 29, 2005 (the "Agreement") by and between Jasper CLO Ltd., as Issuer and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as Preference Shares Paying Agent. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Resolutions, including Annex A thereto ("Annex A"), and if not defined in the Resolutions, in the Offering Memorandum.

This certificate relates to _____ Preference Shares which are to be transferred to the undersigned transferee (the "purchaser") in the form of a [Certificated] [Regulation S Global] Preference Share of such Class pursuant to Section 5(b) of Annex A.

1. The purchaser hereby represents, warrants and covenants for the benefit of the Issuer that the transfer has been effected in accordance with the transfer restrictions set forth in Section 5(b) of Annex A and the Offering Memorandum, dated June 27, 2005 (the "Offering Memorandum") relating to the Preference Shares and that:

(1) The purchaser hereby certifies that it is (check one):

_____ a person that is not a "U.S. person" as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act; or

- a Qualified Institutional Buyer as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act and it is a Qualified Purchaser for purposes of the Investment Company Act; or
- an Accredited Investor as defined in Rule 501(a) under the Securities Act and it is a Qualified Purchaser for purposes of the Investment Company Act.

(2) If the purchaser is:

(A) (i) a Qualified Institutional Buyer, such purchaser is aware that the sale of the Preference Shares to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act and is acquiring the Preference Shares for its own account or for one or more accounts, each of which is a Qualified Institutional Buyer, and as to each of which the purchaser exercises sole investment discretion, and in a number not less than the minimum lot, in each case for the purchaser and for each such account, or (ii) an Accredited Investor, such purchaser is aware that the sale of Preference Shares to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act and is acquiring the Preference Shares for its own account in a number not less than the minimum lot, or

(B) a non-U.S. Person, such purchaser is purchasing the Preference Shares in an Offshore Transaction not involving any directed selling efforts in the United States, is aware that the sale of Preference Shares to it is being made in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act provided by Regulation S and is acquiring the Preference Shares for its own account in a number not less than the minimum lot.

2. The purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in the Preference Shares, and the purchaser, and any accounts for which it is acting, are each able to bear the economic risk of the purchaser's or its investment.

3. The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Preference Shares have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and, if in the future the purchaser decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Preference Shares, such Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with the legend in respect of such Preference Shares set forth in clause (10) below and the restrictions set forth in the Preference Share Documents. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager or the Placement Agents or any of their respective affiliates as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any jurisdiction for resale of the Preference Shares.

4. The purchaser agrees that it will not offer or sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of the Preference Shares or any interest therein except (i) pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws or the applicable laws of any other jurisdiction and (ii) in accordance with the Preference Share Documents, to which provisions the purchaser hereby agrees it is subject.

5. The purchaser is not purchasing the Preference Shares with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares will be highly illiquid and are not suitable for short-term trading. The Preference Shares are a leveraged investment in the Collateral Obligations that may expose the Preference Shares to disproportionately large changes in value. Payments in respect of the Preference Shares are not guaranteed as they are dependent on the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations. The purchaser understands that it is possible that, due to the structure of the transaction and the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations, dividends or other distributions in respect of the Preference Shares may be reduced or eliminated entirely. Furthermore, the Preference Shares constitute equity in the Issuer, are not secured by the Collateral and will rank behind all creditors (secured and unsecured and whether known or unknown) of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the Holders of the Notes, and any Hedge Counterparties. The Issuer has assets limited to the Collateral for payment of all Classes of the Notes and dividends and other distributions on the Preference Shares, and the Preference Shares bear, pro rata, the first risk of loss. The purchaser understands that an investment in the Preference Shares involves certain risks, including the risk of loss of all or a substantial part of its investment. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Issuer, the Preference Shares and the Collateral as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Preference Shares, including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Issuer and the Placement Agents.

6. (i) None of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, or the Portfolio Manager is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment advisor for the purchaser, (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager or any of their respective affiliates other than in a current offering memorandum for the Preference Shares and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager or any of their respective affiliates has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other Person or documentation for the Preference Shares) any assurance, guarantee or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance, result, effect, consequence or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting or otherwise) of the Preference Shares or an investment therein; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the documentation for the Preference Shares) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Placement Agent, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager or any of their respective affiliates; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Preference Shares reflect those in the relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) if the purchaser is acting for the account of another investor, the purchaser represents that the investment on behalf of such account is based on a determination that the investment is suitable based on the risks referred to in the Offering Memorandum (including, without limitation, the "Risk Factors" and the "Transfer Restrictions for the Preference Shares"), given the investment objectives of the account for which the purchase is being made, and that the investment is consistent with any applicable legal requirements; (vii) the purchaser is purchasing the Preference Shares with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and it, and each account for which it is acquiring Preference Shares, is capable of assuming and willing to assume (financially and otherwise) those risks; and (viii) the purchaser is a sophisticated investor.

7. If the purchaser is acquiring the Preference Shares pursuant to paragraph (2)(A) above, (A) the purchaser and each account for which the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares is (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, (B) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) is acquiring the Preference Shares as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (C) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Preference Shares (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee), (D) to the extent the purchaser or any account for which the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares is a private investment company formed before April 30, 1996, the purchaser or such account has received the necessary consent from its beneficial owners, (E) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) agrees that it shall not hold such Preference Shares for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Preference Shares or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the dividends or other distributions on the Preference Shares (except when each person is (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee) and (F) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Preference Shares to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph shall be null and void ab initio.

8. The purchaser understands that, prior to any sale or other transfer of any interest in Preference Shares held in the form of a Certificated Preference Share, it (or the transferee, as applicable) will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent a duly executed transfer certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B attached to Annex A and such other certificates and other information as they may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed transfer complies with the restrictions in the legend placed on each certificate representing the Preference Shares and in the Preference Share Documents.

9. The purchaser understands and agrees that (i) no purchase or transfer may be made that would result in any person or entity holding beneficial ownership in any Preference Shares in less than an authorized number as set forth in Annex A and (ii) no purchase or transfer of Preference Shares that would have the effect of requiring either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act will be permitted.

10. (i) The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares (a) will be represented by either one or more Certificated Preference Shares or Regulation S Global Preference Share which will bear the legend substantially in the form set forth below unless the Issuer determines otherwise in accordance with applicable law, and (b) (i) in the case of Preference Shares represented by an interest in a Certificated Preference Share, may only be resold, pledged or transferred to (x) non-U.S. Persons or (y) U.S. Persons that are either Qualified Institutional Buyers or Accredited Investors and either (a) Qualified Purchasers, (b) Knowledgeable Employees or (c) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees and (ii) in the case of Preference Shares represented by an interest in a Regulation S Global Preference Share, may not at any time be held by or on behalf of any person that is a U.S. Person. The purchaser understands that before the Preference Shares represented by an interest in Certificated Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred, the transferee will be required to provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Issuer with a written certification as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), AND THE ISSUER HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED (THE "INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT"). THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY MAY BE PURCHASED BY OR TRANSFERRED TO A BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR OR CONTROLLING PERSON (EACH AS DEFINED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS) ONLY UPON THE SATISFACTION OF CERTAIN CONDITIONS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS. ANY TRANSFER IN VIOLATION OF THE FOREGOING WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT, WILL BE VOID AB INITIO, AND WILL NOT OPERATE TO TRANSFER ANY RIGHTS TO THE TRANSFEREE, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRARY TO THE ISSUER, THE PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENT OR ANY INTERMEDIARY. OR TO SUCH OTHER ENTITY AS IS REQUESTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF DTC), ANY TRANSFER, PLEDGE OR OTHER USE HEREOF FOR VALUE OR OTHERWISE BY OR TO ANY PERSON IS WRONGFUL INASMUCH AS THE REGISTERED OWNER HEREOF, CEDE & CO., HAS AN INTEREST HEREIN.

11. The funds that the purchaser is using or will use to purchase the Preference Shares are assets of a person who is or at any time while the Preference Shares are held by the purchaser will be (A) an “employee benefit plan” as defined in Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), whether or not such plan is subject to Title I of ERISA, including, without limitation, foreign, church and governmental plans, (B) a “plan” described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”) or (C) an entity whose underlying assets would be deemed to include “plan assets” of either of the foregoing by reason of the investment by an employee benefit plan or other plan in the entity within the meaning of 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101 or otherwise (the plans and persons described in clauses (A), (B) and (C) being referred to as “Benefit Plan Investors”). For purposes of making this determination, foreign benefit plans, government or church plans, Keoghs and individual retirement accounts (“IRAs”) are typically considered Benefit Plan Investors. Yes _____ No _____ (Please check either yes or no).

If yes, such funds are assets of an employee benefit plan subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA or a plan described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code and subject to Section 4975 of the Code, or a foreign plan, “governmental plan,” or “church plan” subject to foreign, federal, state or local laws, rules or regulations that are substantially similar to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code.

Yes _____ No _____ (Please check either yes or no).

The purchaser is not the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager or any other person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the assets of the Issuer, or any “affiliate” (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3 101(f)(3)) of any such person (any such person, a “Controlling Person”). Please place a check in the following space if the foregoing statement is NOT accurate:

If the purchaser is an insurance company investing through its general account as defined in PTCE 95-60, for so long as it holds the Preference Shares, no more than _____ % of the assets of such insurance company general account could be treated, for so long as it holds the Preference Shares, as plan assets for purposes of calculating the 25% threshold under the significant participation test (29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)). (Please provide percentage, if applicable).

The purchaser understands and acknowledges that the Share Registrar will not register any purchase or transfer of Preference Shares to (i) a proposed purchaser or transferee that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person if, after giving effect to such proposed transfer, persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors would own 25% or more of the Outstanding Preference Shares; or (ii) a purchaser or transferee that wishes to take delivery in the form of a Regulation S Global Preference Share that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person, assuming for this purpose that all deemed representations are true. For purposes of the determination described in clause (i) of the preceding sentence, Preference Shares held by the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, any of their respective affiliates (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3 101(f)(3)) and any other persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons will be disregarded and will not be treated as Outstanding.

The purchaser’s acquisition, holding and disposition of the Preference Shares will not result in a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law), unless an exemption is available, all conditions of which have been satisfied.

The purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement will entitle the Issuer to require the purchaser to dispose of the Preference Shares as soon as practicable following notification by the Issuer of any change in the information supplied in this clause (11).

The purchaser understands that the representations made in this clause (11) will be deemed made on each day from the date hereof through and including the date on which the purchaser disposes of its interests in the Preference Shares.

The purchaser agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Co-Issuers, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Placement Agent and the Portfolio Manager and their respective affiliates from any cost, damage, or loss incurred by them as a result of a breach of the representation in this Clause (11).

The purchaser agrees that it will not sell, pledge or otherwise transfer any Preference Shares in violation of the foregoing.

12. The purchaser will provide notice to each Person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Preference Shares of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Preference Share Documents, including the exhibits referenced in the Preference Share Documents.

13. The purchaser understands that the Preference Share Documents permit the Issuer to compel any Holder of the Preference Shares who is a U.S. Person and who is determined not to have been both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or Accredited Investor and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees at the time of acquisition of the Preference Shares to sell such Preference Shares, or to sell such Preference Shares on behalf of such purchaser, to a person that is both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or Accredited Investor and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act or to a person that is a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction meeting the requirements of Regulation S. The purchaser also understands that any transfer to an Accredited Investor may require delivery of an opinion of counsel evidencing that such transfer may be made pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Securities Act, as described in the Preference Share Documents.

14. The purchaser, if not a U.S. Person, either (i) is not a bank (within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code) or an affiliate of a bank or (ii) is a person (or a wholly owned affiliate of a person) that is eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates United States federal income taxation of United States source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States.

15. The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Preference Shares or possession or distribution of the Offering Memorandum with respect thereto or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Preference Shares in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the Offering Memorandum relating to the Preference

Shares shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Preference Shares in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.

16. The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Preference Shares, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase the beneficial interest in the Preference Shares from any Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its beneficial interest in the Preference Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.

17. The purchaser understands that the scheduled redemption date of the Preference Shares is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of the Preference Shares at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.

18. The purchaser understands that in the case of any vote to remove the Portfolio Manager, the Management Agreement permits the Portfolio Manager to purchase the beneficial interest in the Preference Shares from any Holder of Preference Shares that voted to remove the Portfolio Manager at the applicable Buy-Out Amount; and such Holder of Preference Shares will be required to sell its beneficial interest in the Preference Shares to the Portfolio Manager at such price.

19. The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Preference Shares by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.

20. The purchaser agrees to treat the Preference Shares as equity of the Issuer for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, if applicable.

21. To the extent required by the Issuer, as determined by the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Share Registrar, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Preference Shares to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the U.S. Patriot Act) and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Preference Share to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.

22. The purchaser agrees to not cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.

23. The purchaser is not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.

24. The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Preference Shares or any beneficial interest therein are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and the Initial Purchaser. If the purchaser is acquiring any Preference Shares or any beneficial interest therein as a fiduciary or agent for one or more institutional accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

AVAILABLE INFORMATION

The Issuer (and, solely in the case of the Notes, the Co-Issuer) will deliver to the Holders of the Securities, and make available to prospective purchasers designated by a Holder of Securities, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act. If and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and for so long as the rules of such stock exchange so require, any information requested under this section by the Holders of the Notes and prospective purchasers will be made available at the offices of NCB Stockbrokers as the Paying Agent in Ireland (“Paying Agent in Ireland”).

Copies of the Indenture and the Issuer Charter may be obtained by the Holders of the Securities upon request in writing to the Trustee. Copies of the Indenture will be available at the office of the Paying Agent in Ireland, for so long as any Class of the Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Any projections, forecasts and estimates contained herein are forward looking statements and are based upon certain assumptions that the Issuer consider reasonable. Projections are necessarily speculative in nature, and it can be expected that some or all of the assumptions underlying the projections will not materialize or will vary significantly from actual results. Accordingly, the projections are only an estimate. Actual results may vary from the projections, and the variations may be material.

Some important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in any forward looking statements include, among others, changes in interest rates, credit spreads, market, financial or legal uncertainties, differences in the actual allocation of the Obligors among categories from those assumed, the timing and the number of Collateral Obligations that become Defaulted Obligations and of modifications to the Collateral and differences in the market value of Collateral Obligations. Consequently, the inclusion of projections herein should not be regarded as a representation by the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Class E Certificates Registrar, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator, the Share Trustee, the Administrator or any of their respective affiliates or any other Person of the results that will actually be achieved by the Issuer.

None of the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Class E Certificates Registrar, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator, the Share Trustee, the Administrator or any of their respective affiliates or any other Person has any obligation to update or otherwise revise any projections, including any revisions to reflect changes in economic conditions or other circumstances arising after the date hereof, or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, even if the underlying assumptions do not come to fruition.

CERTAIN LEGAL INVESTMENT CONSIDERATIONS

Institutions whose investment activities are subject to legal investment laws and regulations or to review by certain regulatory authorities may be subject to restrictions on investments in the Securities. Any such institution should consult its legal advisers in determining whether and to what extent there may be restrictions on its ability to invest in the Securities. Without limiting the foregoing, any financial institution that is subject to the jurisdiction of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Office of Thrift Supervision, the National Credit Union Administration, any state insurance commission, or any other federal or state agencies with similar authority should review any applicable rules, guidelines and regulations prior to purchasing the Securities. Depository institutions should review and consider the applicability of the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council Supervisory Policy Statement on Securities Activities, which has been adopted by the respective federal regulators.

None of the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Class E Certificates Registrar, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator, the Share Trustee, the Administrator or any of their respective Affiliates makes any representation as to the proper characterization of the Securities for legal investment or other purposes, or as to the ability of particular purchasers to purchase the Securities under applicable investment restrictions. The uncertainties described above (and any unfavorable future determinations concerning legal investment or applicable regulatory or other characteristics of the Securities) may affect the liquidity of the Securities. Accordingly, all institutions whose activities are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, regulatory capital requirements, review by regulatory authorities or contractual or other restrictions should consult their own legal advisers in determining whether and to what extent the Securities are, or the institution by purchasing Securities would be, subject to investment, capital or other restrictions.

CERTAIN CONSIDERATIONS RELATING TO THE CAYMAN ISLANDS

The Issuer is an exempted company incorporated with limited liability under the laws of the Cayman Islands. As a result, it may not be possible for purchasers of the Securities to effect service of process upon the Issuer within the United States or to enforce against the Issuer in United States courts judgments predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States. The Issuer has been advised by Walkers, its legal advisor in the Cayman Islands, that the United States and the Cayman Islands do not currently have a treaty providing for reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters and that a final judgment for the payment of money rendered by any federal or state court in the United States based on civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon United States securities laws, would therefore not be automatically enforceable in the Cayman Islands, and that there is doubt as to the enforceability in the Cayman Islands, in original actions or in actions for the enforcement of judgments of the United States courts, of liabilities predicated solely upon United States securities laws. The Issuer will appoint Corporation Service Company, 1133 Avenue of the Americas, Suite 3100, New York, NY 10036 as its agent in New York for service of process.

Payment Dates..... Payment of interest on, and principal of, the Notes and distributions on the Class E Certificates will be made by the Issuer in U.S. Dollars, in each case to the extent of available cash flow in respect of the Collateral in accordance with the Priority of Payments, on the first day of each February, May, August and November of each year (or if such day is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day); provided that the first Payment Date will be on March 3, 2006 and the second Payment Date will be on May 2, 2006.

Interest Payments and Payments of Dividends from Interest

Proceeds..... The Notes will accrue interest from the Closing Date. Interest on the Notes will be payable, to the extent of funds available therefor, on each Payment Date.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of interest due on such Class of Deferred Interest Notes that is not available to be paid (“Deferred Interest”) in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date will not be considered “payable” for the purposes of the Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest will not be an Event of Default) until the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for payment of such interest in accordance with the Priority of Payments. To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes will accrue at the Note Interest Rate for such Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, will thereafter be additional Deferred Interest), until paid. See “Description of the Securities—Interest Payments on the Notes and Payments of Dividends on the Class E Certificates from Interest Proceeds,” “—Priority of Payments” and “—The Indenture—Events of Default.”

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Class E Certificates as dividends on the Class E Certificates pursuant to the Class E Certificate Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Interest Proceeds as described under clauses (22) and (24) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

The Class Q-1 Securities are entitled to receive only the payments associated with the related components.

Distributions from Principal Proceeds.....

The Notes and the Class Q-1 Securities will mature at par on the Payment Date in November 2017 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), on the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date (the “Stated Maturity”) and the Class E Certificates are scheduled to be redeemed at the Redemption Price thereof by the Issuer on the Payment Date in November 2017 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), on the applicable Extended Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date (the “Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date”), in each case unless redeemed or (in the case of the Notes) repaid in full prior thereto. The average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years from issuance until Stated Maturity for such Notes. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary,” “—A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected” and “Maturity and Prepayment Considerations.”

In general, principal payments will not be made on the Notes before the end of the Reinvestment Period, except in the following circumstances:

- in connection with an Optional Redemption;
- at the option of the Portfolio Manager, to effect a Special Redemption of the Notes;

- following a mandatory redemption of the Notes caused by a failure to meet any of the Coverage Tests or a Rating Confirmation Failure.

See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments,” “—Optional Redemption,” “—Special Redemption of the Notes If the Portfolio Manager Does Not Identify Investments as Contemplated by the Indenture,” “—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes” and “Security for the Notes—Ramp-Up.”

No payments of principal will be made on the Class A-2 Notes until the principal of the Class A-1 Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class A-3 Notes until the principal of the Class A-1 Notes and the Class A-2 Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class A-4 Notes until the principal of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class B Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class C Notes (other than with respect to the use of Interest Proceeds to pay principal of the Class C Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class C Coverage Tests in certain circumstances) until the principal of the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes has been paid in full. However, Principal Proceeds may be used to pay Deferred Interest (provided payment of the Deferred Interest would not cause any Coverage Test to be failed) and other amounts before the payment of principal of the Notes. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

No principal of any Class of Notes will be payable on any Payment Date other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and to the extent funds are available therefor on that Payment Date for that purpose, except that the principal of each Class of Notes will be payable in full at the Stated Maturity, unless repaid before that. In addition, principal payments may be made on any Business Day on the Class A-1A Notes, the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes as provided in “Description of the Securities—Class A-1 Funding Allocations and “—Prepayment of the Class A-1A Notes.”

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Class E Certificates as dividends on the Class E Certificates pursuant to the Class E Certificate Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Principal Proceeds as described under clauses (8) and (10) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

For a description of the relative priority of payments and level of subordination of the Securities and certain fees, expenses and other liabilities of the Co-Issuers, see “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

Extension of the Stated Maturity, the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date and the Reinvestment Period.....

The Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Stated Maturity to the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Reinvestment Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. For purposes of the foregoing, “Extension Effective Date” means in the case of the first Maturity Extension, the Payment Date in November, 2010 and in the case of any subsequent Maturity Extension, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extension Effective Date.

If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Notes, the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities will be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date (a “Maturity Extension”); provided that the Issuer will not be permitted to effect more than four Maturity Extensions. In the case of a Maturity Extension, the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date will automatically be extended to the related Extended Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date, the Weighted Average Life Test will be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, and the Reinvestment Period will be automatically extended to the related Extended Reinvestment Period End Date without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or the Class E Certificate Documents. For purposes of the foregoing, “Extended Reinvestment Period End Date” means, in the case of the first Maturity Extension, the Payment Date in November 2016 and in the case of any subsequent Maturity Extension, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Reinvestment Period End Date, “Extended Stated Maturity Date” means, in the case of the first Maturity Extension, the Payment Date in November 2021) and in the case of any subsequent Maturity Extension, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Stated Maturity Date, “Extended Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date” means, in the case of the first Maturity Extension, the Payment Date in November 2021 and in the case of any subsequent Maturity Extension, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date, and “Extended Weighted Average Life Date” means, in the case of the first Maturity Extension, the Payment Date in May 2019 and in the case of any subsequent Maturity Extension, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Weighted Average Life Date; provided that the “Extended Reinvestment Period End Date” will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in November 2028, the “Extended Stated Maturity Date” will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in November 2033, the “Extended Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date” will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in November 2033 and the “Extended Weighted Average Life Date” will in no event be a date later than the May 2031.

As a condition to a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Securities will have the right to offer to sell its Securities to one or more Extension Qualifying Purchasers for purchase on the applicable Extension Effective Date; provided that in the case of the Class P Securities only the Class E Certificates represented by the Class E Certificate Component will be sold, and the applicable Class P U.S. Treasury Component will be distributed to the Holder in kind.

If all Extension Conditions are satisfied and a Maturity Extension is effected, each Holder of a Note (including in the form of the Class Q-1 Note Component) (other than Extension Sale Securities) will be entitled to receive the applicable Extension Bonus Payment to the extent of available funds and as provided in the Priority of Payments. Holders of the Class E Certificates will not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary,” “—A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected,” “Maturity and Prepayment Considerations,” and “Description of the Securities—Extension of the Reinvestment Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date”.

Security for the Securities ..... The Notes and the Class Q-1 Securities (to the extent of the Class Q-1 Note Component) will be secured by a portfolio having an Aggregate Principal Balance at the end of the Ramp-Up Period of approximately U.S.$900 million (in principal amount) and consisting primarily of Collateral Obligations and certain other debt securities, in each case having the characteristics set forth herein. The Notes and the Class Q-1 Securities (to the extent of the Class Q-1 Note Component) will also be secured by funds on deposit in the Issuer Accounts, the Issuer's rights under any Hedge Agreements, any Securities Lending Agreements, the Management Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement. See "Security for the Notes."

Collateral Ramp-Up Period ..... The Issuer expects that, as of the Closing Date, it will have purchased (or entered into commitments to purchase) Collateral Obligations such that the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator will be at least $815,000,000. The Issuer expects to purchase or enter into commitments to purchase additional Collateral Obligations during the period until the Ramp-Up Completion Date. The "Ramp-Up Completion Date" is the earlier of (i) the Business Day prior to March 3, 2005 and (ii) the first day on which the following conditions are satisfied (x) either (A) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer equals at least $900,000,000 or (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations purchased (or committed to be purchased) by the Issuer (in each case in this clause (B), measured solely as of the date of purchase or commitment, as the case may be (provided that with respect to the Initial Collateral Obligations, the date of purchase shall be the Closing Date)) equals at least $900,000,000 (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations after the Closing Date and on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date) and (y) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $900,000,000.

In anticipation of the issuance of the Securities, the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and an affiliate of the Initial Purchaser (as the "Warehouse Provider") entered into the Asset Acquisition Agreement and Master Participation Agreement pursuant to which the Portfolio Manager has agreed to manage, on behalf of the Issuer, the Warehoused Loans to be acquired by the Issuer before the Closing Date and the Warehouse Provider has agreed to acquire a 100% participation in each Warehoused Loan concurrently with its acquisition by the Issuer. On the Closing Date, the participations in eligible Warehoused Loans will be repurchased by the Issuer with the proceeds of the offering.

See “Security for the Notes—Ramp-Up.”

Reinvestment in Collateral

Obligations ..... During the Reinvestment Period, the Issuer may generally (and subject to certain requirements) reinvest Principal Proceeds received with respect to the Collateral in additional or substitute Collateral Obligations in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria (which Eligibility Criteria includes requirements that an item of Collateral purchased by the Issuer meet the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and that the portfolio of Collateral Obligations be in compliance with the Concentration Limitations to the extent provided in the Eligibility Criteria). See “—Collateral Obligations,” “—Concentration Limitations” and “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria.”

The “Reinvestment Period” will be the period from the Closing Date through and including the first to occur of:

- (i) the Payment Date after the date that the Portfolio Manager notifies the Trustee, each Rating Agency and the Administrator, in the sole discretion of the Portfolio Manager, that, in light of the composition of the Collateral, general market conditions, and other factors, investments in additional Collateral Obligations within the foreseeable future would either be impractical or not beneficial;
- (ii) the Payment Date in November 2012 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Reinvestment Period End Date;
- (iii) the Payment Date on which all Notes are to be optionally redeemed or an earlier date after notice of an Optional Redemption chosen by the Portfolio Manager to facilitate the liquidation of the Collateral for the Optional Redemption; and
- (iv) the date on which the Reinvestment Period terminates or is terminated as a result of an Event of Default (subject to the terms of the Indenture).

No investment will be made in Collateral Obligations after the termination of the Reinvestment Period, except that (x) Unscheduled Principal Payments and (y) Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations may be invested in Collateral Obligations after the Reinvestment Period subject to the limitations described under “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria” and “—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds.” After the termination of the Reinvestment

Period, all Principal Proceeds (other than Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations) must be applied to make payments on the Securities in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Coverage Tests and the Reinvestment

Overcollateralization Test.....

The “Coverage Tests” will consist of the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Tests. In addition, the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test, which is not a Coverage Test, will apply as described herein. See “Security For the Notes—The Coverage Tests—The Overcollateralization Tests” and “—The Interest Coverage Tests” for the formulations of these tests. The ratios on which they are based are also described under such headings. The tests will be used to determine, among other things, whether (i) in the case of the Coverage Tests, Notes will be redeemed in the circumstances described under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments,” (ii) in the case of the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test, Collateral Obligations must be acquired from Interest Proceeds as described under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments” and

(iii) in the case of the Coverage Tests, Collateral Obligations may be acquired as described under “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria.”

The Overcollateralization Tests.....

The Overcollateralization Tests will consist of the “Class A Overcollateralization Test,” the “Class B Overcollateralization Test” and the “Class C Overcollateralization Test.” Each Overcollateralization Test will be satisfied with respect to any Class of Notes (treating the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, Class A-3 Notes and the Class A-4 Notes as one Class for this purpose) if, as of any Measurement Date, the Overcollateralization Ratio for the Class is at least equal to the specified required level for the specified Class indicated in the table below:

Test	Required Level
Class A Overcollateralization Test	111.7%
Class B Overcollateralization Test	106.0%
Class C Overcollateralization Test	103.8%

The Interest Coverage Tests .....

The Interest Coverage Tests will consist of the “Class A Interest Coverage Test,” “Class B Interest Coverage Test” and the “Class C Interest Coverage Test.” Each Interest Coverage Test will be satisfied with respect to any specified Class of Notes (treating the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes and the Class A-4 Notes as one Class for this purpose) if, as of the Determination Date immediately preceding the second Payment Date and any Measurement Date thereafter on which any Notes remain Outstanding, the Interest Coverage Ratio equals or exceeds the applicable required level specified in the table below for the specified Class:

Test	Required Level
Class A Interest Coverage Test	125%
Class B Interest Coverage Test	115%
Class C Interest Coverage Test	110%

Reinvestment Overcollateralization

Test..... A test that will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date on which any Notes remain Outstanding, if the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Ratio as of such Measurement Date is at least equal to 104.8%.

Collateral Quality Tests ..... The Collateral Quality Tests will be used primarily as criteria for purchasing Collateral Obligations. See “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria.” The “Collateral Quality Tests” will consist of the Diversity Test, the Weighted Average Life Test, the Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test, the Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, the Weighted Average Spread Test, the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test and the S&P CDO Monitor Test, as described below.

Diversity Test..... The Diversity Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Diversity Score equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score.

S&P CDO Monitor Test..... The S&P CDO Monitor Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if, after giving effect to the sale of a Collateral Obligation or the purchase of a Collateral Obligation, each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is positive.

Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test..... The Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon equals or exceeds 7.5%.

Weighted Average Life Test..... The Weighted Average Life Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and the Payment Date in May 2015 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date.

Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test..... The Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Moody’s Weighted Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 44.75%.

Weighted Average Rating Factor Test..... The Weighted Average Rating Factor Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date, if the Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor of the Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) as of such Measurement Date is less than or equal to the Maximum Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor.

Weighted Average S&P Recovery

Rate Test ..... The Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the S&P Weighted Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 51.5%.

Weighted Average Spread Test ..... The Weighted Average Spread Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if (i) the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Weighted Average Spread and (ii) the Weighted Average Commitment Fee as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Weighted Average Commitment Fee.

See “Security for the Notes—The Collateral Quality Tests.”

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes

for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests ..... If any of the Overcollateralization Tests is not satisfied on the last day of any Due Period (each, a “Determination Date”) or any of the Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied on the Determination Date relating to the second Payment Date or any Determination Date thereafter, funds will be used pursuant to the Priority of Payments to redeem the Notes to the extent necessary for such failing Coverage Tests to be satisfied that would otherwise be used:

- (i) to purchase additional Collateral Obligations during the Reinvestment Period; or
- (ii) to make interest and principal payments on Notes at lower levels of the Priority of Payments than the level at which the applicable Coverage Test is applied, and to make dividend or redemption payments in respect of the Class E Certificates.

See “Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests.”

Certain Consequences of Failure to Satisfy the Reinvestment

Overcollateralization Test ..... If the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied on any Determination Date, certain funds, as described under clause (17) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds,” representing Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be used to pay Administrative Expenses in excess of the Administrative Expense Cap, pay Subordinated Management Fees, make Extension Bonus Payments, make Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments, make distributions on the Class E Certificates and pay the Incentive Management Fee will be deposited instead into the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds for purposes of investment in additional Collateral Obligations.

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes

Upon Rating Confirmation Failure..... The Issuer will request each of S&P and Moody’s to confirm in writing, by the Business Day after the 29th day after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, that it has not reduced, suspended or withdrawn the Initial Rating of any Class of Notes or the Class Q-1 Securities and that it has not placed any Class of Notes or the Class Q-1 Securities on credit watch with negative implications. If the Trustee does not receive evidence of such confirmation before the Determination Date relating to the Payment Date following the 29-day period (such an event, a “Rating Confirmation Failure”), all Interest Proceeds remaining after payment of amounts referred to in clauses (1) through (15) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” will be used on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date thereafter to pay principal of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class A-4 Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes sequentially in order of their priority, in each case until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. If necessary, after the foregoing payments are made out of Interest Proceeds, Principal Proceeds in accordance with clause (4) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds” will also be used on each Payment Date for such purpose until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. In addition, if otherwise available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to pay principal on the Notes such that the Initial Ratings are confirmed, the Portfolio Manager, in its discretion, may sell Collateral Obligations and use the proceeds to pay principal on the Notes until such Initial Ratings are confirmed. See “Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure.”

Non-Call Period ..... The period from the Closing Date to but not including the Payment Date in November 2010 (the “Non-Call Period”).

Optional Redemption ..... Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Holders of at least a Majority of the Class E Certificates may require the Co-Issuers to redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, from Principal Proceeds and all other funds available for that purpose in the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account and the Revolving Reserve Account in accordance with the redemption procedures described under “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption.” In such event, the Portfolio Manager will direct the sale of all or part of the Collateral in an amount sufficient that the proceeds of sale therefrom and all other funds available for such purpose in the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account and the Revolving Reserve Account will be at least sufficient to redeem all of the Notes at the applicable redemption price and to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable pursuant to the Priority of Payments.

In addition, the Class A-1A Notes may be prepaid during the Reinvestment Period at the election of the Issuer, subject to certain conditions.

Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at their redemption price described below. From and after the Redemption Date the redeemed Notes will cease to bear interest.

The redemption price payable in connection with the Optional Redemption of any Class of Notes (other than any Class A-1A Note) will be the sum of:

- (i) the outstanding principal amount of the portion of the Note being redeemed; plus
- (ii) accrued and unpaid interest on the Note (including any Defaulted Interest and interest on Defaulted Interest); plus
- (iii) in the case of any Deferred Interest Note, the applicable Deferred Interest on the Note; plus
- (iv) in the case of the Class A-1B Notes, any accrued and unpaid Delayed Drawdown Fee; plus
- (v) any unpaid Extension Bonus Payment in respect of the Note.

The “Redemption Price”, when used with respect to any Class A-1A Note, shall be 100% of the Drawn Amount of such Class A-1A Note to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon (including any Defaulted Interest and interest on Defaulted Interest) at the applicable Interest Rate and any accrued and unpaid Commitment Fee Amount.

The redemption price payable in connection with the Optional Redemption of the Class E Certificates will be (i) the entire remaining amount of available funds after all prior applications or (ii) as otherwise specified by the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Class E Certificates, in each case, as described under “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption.”

Following the liquidation and distribution of the Collateral in full or early redemption of the Class E Certificates, if any Class P Notes are then Outstanding, on the next succeeding Class P Securities Payment Date the Class P Securities will automatically be redeemed at the applicable Class P Redemption Price.

Special Redemption ..... The Notes will be subject to redemption in whole or in part by the Co-Issuers on Payment Dates during the Reinvestment Period if the Portfolio Manager elects (subject to the Management Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the investment or reinvestment of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be invested in additional Collateral Obligations (a “Special Redemption”). On the first Payment Date following the Due Period for which such notice is effective (a “Special Redemption Date”), the funds in the Collection Account representing Principal Proceeds which the Portfolio Manager determines cannot be reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations (the “Special Redemption Amount”) will be available to be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments. See “Description of the Securities—Special Redemption of the Notes If the Portfolio Manager Does Not Identify Investments as Contemplated by the Indenture.”

Revolving Notes..... Pursuant to a Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement to be entered into among the Co-Issuers, the Revolving Note Agent and the holders of the Class A-1A Notes (the “Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement”), the Holders of the Class A-1A Notes will commit to make advances at any time beginning on the Closing Date and ending on the earlier to occur of (a) the later of (i) the end of the Reinvestment Period and (ii) the date on which the Aggregate Unfunded Amount is zero and (b) the Commitment Termination Date (such period, the “Draw Period”), subject to compliance with certain conditions specified therein. The aggregate Borrowings under the Class A-1A Notes at any time will not exceed U.S.$50,000,000. The Royal Bank of Scotland, plc, will be the initial purchaser of the Class A-1A Notes. See “Description of the Securities—Class A-1A Notes Borrowings.” JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association will serve as the Revolving Note Agent under the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement.

During the Reinvestment Period, the Class A-1A Notes may be prepaid (in whole or in part) without premium on any Business Day at the option of the Issuer (at the direction of the Portfolio Manager) (each, a “Prepayment”) from (i) Principal Proceeds otherwise available for reinvestment in Collateral Obligations or (ii) amounts credited to the Revolving Reserve Account so long as, after giving effect thereto, the aggregate Balance of all Eligible Investments credited to the Revolving Reserve Account will be at least equal to the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount. Any amounts repaid may be reborrowed until the date of termination of the Commitments. Accrued interest will be paid to the extent provided in the Indenture, without duplication, on amounts prepaid and reborrowed in the same Interest Period in respect of the actual number of days for which such amounts were drawn.

Each purchaser of Class A-1A Notes during the Draw Period will be required to satisfy the Rating Criteria. If any holder of Class A-1A Notes at any time during the Draw Period fails to comply with the Rating Criteria, such holder will be obligated under the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement to give immediate notice thereof to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Revolving Note Agent and the Rating Agencies and immediately following such notice to fund the full Undrawn Amount of its Class A-1A Notes into a reserve account.

Commitment Fee on the Revolving Notes .....

A commitment fee (the “Commitment Fee”) will accrue on the Aggregate Undrawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes at a rate per annum equal to 0.17% (the “Commitment Fee Rate”). The Commitment Fee will be payable (if applicable) on the first Payment Date and then quarterly in arrears on each Payment Date and will rank pari passu with the payment of interest on the Class A-1 Notes.

Delayed Drawdown Notes .....

Pursuant to a Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement to be entered into among the Co-Issuers, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent and the holders of the Class A-1B Notes (the “Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement”), the Holders of the Class A-1B Notes will commit to make advances at any time beginning on the Closing Date and ending on the earlier to occur of (a) the date on which the Fully Drawn Amount of Class A-1B Notes is fully drawn and (b) February 27, 2006 (such period, the “Delayed Drawdown Period”), subject to compliance with certain conditions specified therein. Any Aggregate Undrawn Amount of Class A-1B Notes as of the second Business Day prior February 27, 2006 will be drawn on that Business Day and required to be funded on the Business Day prior to February 27, 2006. The aggregate Fully Drawn Amount of the Class B Notes may will not exceed U.S.$50,000,000. Citigroup Global Markets Inc. will be the initial purchaser of the Class A-1B Notes. See “Description of the Securities—Class A-1B Notes Drawdowns.” JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association will serve as the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent under the Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement.

Each purchaser of Class A-1B Notes during the Delayed Drawdown Period will be required to satisfy the Rating Criteria. If any holder of Class A-1B Notes at any time during the Delayed Drawdown Period fails to comply with the Rating Criteria, such holder will be obligated under the Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement to give immediate notice thereof to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent and the Rating Agencies and immediately following such notice to fund the full Undrawn Amount of its Class A-1B Notes into a reserve account.

Delayed Drawdown Notes .....*

A commitment fee (the “Delayed Drawdown Fee”) will accrue on the Aggregate Undrawn Amount of the Class A-1B Notes at a rate per annum equal to 0.17% (the “Delayed Drawdown Fee Rate”). The Delayed Drawdown Fee will be payable (if applicable) on the first Payment Date and will rank pari passu with the payment of interest on the Class A-1 Notes.

See “Transfer Restrictions.”

Ratings ..... It is a condition of the issuance of the Securities that each Class of Notes, the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities are rated at least as indicated in the table under “—Principal Terms of the Securities” on the Closing Date.

No rating of the Class E Certificates has been sought or obtained in connection with the issuance thereof.

Each of such ratings assumes that no Maturity Extension occurs after the Closing Date. In addition, (i) the rating of the Class Q-1 Securities addresses solely the return of the Class Q-1 Rated Principal, (ii) the rating of the Class P-1

Securities addresses solely the ultimate payment of the Class P-1 Rated Principal and (iii) the rating of the Class P-2 Securities which addresses solely the ultimate payment of the Class P-2 Rated Principal.

A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning Rating Agency. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—Future Ratings of the Notes Are Not Assured and Limited in Scope; the Class E Certificates are Not Rated.”

Listing ..... Application will be made to the Irish Stock Exchange for the Notes to be admitted to the Daily Official List, but there can be no assurance that such listing will be granted. Application has been made to the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange for the Class E Certificates, the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities to be admitted to the official list of the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange, but there can be no assurance that such listing will be granted. In addition, the Indenture will not require the Issuer to maintain a listing for any Class of Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange or any other E.U. stock exchange if compliance with European Union directives (or other requirements adopted by the European Commission or a relevant Member State) becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Portfolio Manager. Further, neither the Indenture nor the Class E Certificate Documents will require the Issuer to maintain a listing for the Class E Certificates, the Class Q-1 Securities or the Class P Securities on the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange, if compliance with the rules of such stock exchange becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Portfolio Manager. The issuance and settlement of the Securities on the Closing Date will not be conditioned on the listing of the Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange or the listing of the Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or the Class P Securities on the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange.

Governing Law ..... The terms and conditions of the Class E Certificates (including the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component, the Class P-1 Class E Certificate Component and the Class P-2 Class E Certificate Component) (as set forth in the Issuer Charter and the Resolutions) will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the Cayman Islands. The Indenture Securities (except with respect to any Class E Certificate Component), the Indenture, the Management Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Class E Certificate Paying Agency Agreement and any Hedge Agreements will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of New York.

Tax Status .....	See “Income Tax Considerations.”
ERISA Considerations .....	See “ERISA Considerations.”
Additional Issuance .....	At any time during the Reinvestment Period, the Issuer may issue and sell additional Class E Certificates and use the net proceeds to purchase additional Collateral Obligations or for other purposes permitted under the Indenture if the conditions for such additional issuance described under “Description of the Securities—Supplemental Indentures—Additional Issuance of Class E Certificates” are met.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Securities involves certain risks. Prospective investors should carefully consider the following factors, in addition to the matters set forth elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum, prior to investing in any Class of Securities. Prospective purchasers of the Class Q-1 Securities and Class P Securities should consider, in addition to the matters set forth elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum, the risks applicable to the Class Q-1 Components and Class P Components, as applicable. Unless otherwise indicated or the context otherwise requires, all statements in these “Risk Factors” and elsewhere herein concerning the Notes in general or the Class C Notes in particular also relate to the applicable Class Q-1 Note Component, and all such statements concerning the Class E Certificates also relate to the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component and the Class P Class E Certificate Component.

Investor Suitability

An investment in the Securities will not be appropriate or suitable for all investors. Structured investment products, like the Securities, are complex instruments, and typically involve a high degree of risk and are intended for sale only to sophisticated investors who are capable of understanding and assuming the risks involved. Any investor purchasing Securities should conduct its own investigation and analysis of an investment in the Securities and consult with its own professional advisors as to the risks involved in making such investment.

General; Priorities of Securities

The Issuer intends to invest in securities and other financial assets with certain risk characteristics as provided in the Indenture and the Management Agreement. See “Security for the Notes.” There can be no assurance that the Issuer’s investments will be successful, that its investment objectives will be achieved, that investors will receive their initial investments under the Securities or that they will receive any return (or avoid any loss, including total loss) on their investment in the Securities. Prospective investors are therefore advised to review this entire Offering Memorandum carefully and should consider, among other things, the risk factors described herein (along with, among other things, the inherent risks of investment activities) before deciding whether to invest in the Securities.

Except as is otherwise stated below, the risk factors are generally applicable to all the Securities, although the degree of risk associated with each Class of Securities may vary depending among other factors on its position in the priority of payments under the Indenture.

Relating to the Securities

The Securities Will Have Limited Liquidity

There is currently no market for the Securities. There can be no assurance that a secondary market for any Class of Securities will develop, or if a secondary market does develop, that it will provide the Holders of the applicable Class of Securities with liquidity of investment or that it will continue for the life of such Class of Securities. In addition, each Class of Securities is subject to certain transfer restrictions and can only be transferred to certain transferees as described under “Transfer Restrictions.” The restrictions on the transfer of the Securities may further limit their liquidity. Consequently, an investor in the Securities must be prepared to hold such Securities until their Stated Maturity or, in the case of the Class E Certificates, the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date. In addition, the Securities will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws, and the Co-Issuers have no plans, and are under no obligation, to register the Securities under the Securities Act.

The Subordination of the Class A-2 Notes, Class A-3 Notes, Class A-4 Notes, Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class E Certificates Will Affect Their Right to Payment in Relation to the More Senior Securities

The Class A-2 Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A-1 Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class A-2 Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A-1 Notes and certain other amounts (including certain management fees payable to the Portfolio Manager, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class A-2 Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A-1 Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

The Class A-3 Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A-1 Notes and the Class A-2 Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class A-3 Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A-1 Notes and on the Class A-2 Notes and certain other amounts (including certain management fees payable to the Portfolio Manager, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class A-3 Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A-1 Notes and the Class A-2 Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

The Class A-4 Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class A-4 Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A-1 Notes, on the Class A-2 Notes and on the Class A-3 Notes and certain other amounts (including certain management fees payable to the Portfolio Manager, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class A-4 Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

The Class B Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class B Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and certain other amounts (including certain management fees payable to the Portfolio Manager, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class B Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

The Class C Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class C Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes and certain other amounts (including certain management fees payable to the Portfolio Manager, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class C Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full, except in connection with the payment of any Class C Deferred Interest and in certain circumstances in which the Class C Coverage Tests are not satisfied.

No payments will be made out of Interest Proceeds on the Class E Certificates on any Payment Date until due and unpaid interest on the Notes (including any Deferred Interest) and certain other amounts (including amounts due under the Hedge Agreements, certain management fees payable to the Portfolio Manager, hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid on the Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments. No payments will be made out of Principal Proceeds on the Class E Certificates until principal of each Class of Notes and certain other amounts payable out of Principal Proceeds on each Payment Date have been paid in full. In addition, the Class E Certificates will not be redeemed until each Class of Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

In addition, the Co-Issuers will have only nominal unpreferred equity capitalization. Consequently, to the extent that any losses are suffered by any of the Holders of any Securities, the losses will be borne first by the Holders of the Class E Certificates, then by the Holders of the Class C Notes, then by the Holders of the Class B Notes, then by the Holders the Class A-4 Notes, then by the Holders the Class A-3 Notes, then by the Holders the Class A-2 Notes, and then by the Holders of the Class A-1 Notes.

See “Description of the Securities.”

Interest Will Be Deferred on Deferred Interest Notes if There Are Insufficient Funds under the Priority of Payments for Payment of Interest

So long as any Class A-1 Notes, Class A-2 Notes, Class A-3 Notes or Class A-4 Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class B Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class B Notes as Class B Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on such Payment Date will not be an Event of Default. Class B Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes and the Class A-4 Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds and to the payment of current interest on the Class B Notes.

So long as any Class A Notes or Class B Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class C Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes as Class C Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on such Payment Date will not be an Event of Default. Class C Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, Class A-3 Notes, Class A-4 Notes and the Class B Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds and to the payment of current interest on the Class C Notes.

Interest Proceeds May Be Used to Reinvest Prior to any Payments to Holders of Class E Certificates

If the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test is not met on any Determination Date, a portion of the Interest Proceeds that might otherwise have been used to pay Administrative Expenses in excess of the Administrative Expense Cap, pay Subordinated Management Fees, make Extension Bonus Payments, pay Defaulted Hedge Termination payments, make distributions on the Class E Certificates and pay the Incentive Management Fee on the related Payment Date will instead be deposited into the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds which may be used for the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations, as described under clause (17) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

The Controlling Class Will Control Many Rights under the Indenture; However, Some Rights of the Controlling Class to Sell the Collateral in Connection with an Event of Default Are Limited

Under the Indenture, many rights of the Holders of the Notes will be controlled by a Majority of the Controlling Class. Remedies pursued by the Holders of the Controlling Class upon an Event of Default could be adverse to the interests of the Holders of Securities subordinated to the Controlling Class. After any realization on the Collateral, proceeds will be allocated in accordance with the Priority of Payments pursuant to which the Notes and certain other amounts owing by the Co-Issuers will be paid in full before any allocation to the Class E Certificates, and each Class of Notes (along with certain other amounts owing by the Co-Issuers) will be paid serially in order of seniority until it is paid in full before any allocation is made to the next most Junior Class of Notes.

However, the ability of the Controlling Class to direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral is subject to certain limitations. As described under “Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default,” if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee must retain the Collateral intact and collect all payments in respect of the Collateral and continue making payments in accordance with the Priority of Payments and in accordance with the Indenture unless either (A) the Trustee determines that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other net amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds,” and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination or (B) either (x) (except in the case of an Event of Default described in clause (y)) the Holders of a Majority of each of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class A-4 Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral or (y) in the case of an Event of Default because the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is less than 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes and the Class A-4 Notes, the Majority of the Class A Notes (voting together as a single Class) direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral.

Net Proceeds Less Than Aggregate Amount of the Notes

It is anticipated that the proceeds received by the Issuer on the Closing Date from the issuance of the Securities, net of certain fees and expenses, will be less than the aggregate amount of Securities. Consequently, it is anticipated that on the Closing Date the Collateral would be insufficient to repay the purchase price of the Securities in the event of an Event of Default under the Indenture on that date.

The Issuer is Highly Leveraged, which Increases Risks to Investors

The Issuer will be substantially leveraged. Use of leverage is a speculative investment technique and involves certain risks to investors in the Securities. The leverage provided to the Issuer by the issuance of the Securities will result in interest expense and other costs incurred in connection with the borrowings that may not be covered by the net interest income, dividends and appreciation of the Collateral Obligations. The use of leverage generally magnifies the Issuer’s risk of loss, particularly for the more subordinate Classes of Notes and the Class E Certificates. In certain circumstances, such as in connection with the exercise of remedies following an Event of Default, the Controlling Class may require the Issuer to dispose of some or all of the Collateral Obligations under unfavorable market conditions, thus causing the Issuer to recognize a loss that might not otherwise have occurred. In certain circumstances, the Controlling Class or certain other Noteholders are entitled to direct the sales of Collateral Obligations and may be expected to do so in their own interest, rather than in the interests of the more subordinate Classes of Securities.

Ongoing Commitments of the Class A-1A Notes

Holders of the Class A-1A Notes will be obligated, subject to compliance by the Issuer with certain borrowing conditions, to advance funds to the Issuer during the Draw Period so long as the aggregate Drawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes does not exceed the aggregate amount of Commitments. If a holder of a Class A-1A Note should fail to advance funds to the Issuer as required under the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement, the Issuer may be forced to obtain substitute sources of liquidity by selling Collateral Obligations (to the extent permitted by the Indenture) to meet the Issuer's obligations to fund Delayed Drawdown Loans and Revolving Loans. Such forced sales of Collateral Obligations by the Issuer may be at disadvantageous prices to the Issuer. If the Issuer is unable to obtain substitute sources of liquidity, the Issuer may default on its obligations to fund Delayed Drawdown Loans and Revolving Loans.

In addition, as described in "Description of the Securities—Class A-1 Funding Allocations", until the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes have been paid in full, the holders of the Class A-1A Notes will be absolutely and unconditionally obligated in certain circumstances to make advances in order to prepay a portion of the principal of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes then outstanding. Failure by a Holder of Class A-1A Notes to perform such obligations may adversely affect the Holders of other Classes.

Delayed Drawdown of the Class A-1B Notes

Holders of the Class A-1B Notes will be obligated, subject to compliance by the Issuer with certain drawdown conditions, to advance funds to the Issuer during the Delayed Drawdown Period so long as the aggregate Drawn Amount of the Class A-1B Notes does not exceed the Fully Drawn Amount. If a holder of a Class A-1B Note should fail to advance funds to the Issuer as required under the Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement, the Issuer may not be able to purchase additional Collateral Obligations, which may adversely affects the return on the Securities.

The Issuer Is Newly Formed, Has No Significant Operating History, Has No Material Assets Other than the Collateral and Is Limited in its Permitted Activities

The Issuer is a newly formed entity and has no significant operating history. The Issuer will have no material assets other than the Collateral and Class P Collateral. The Indenture provides that the Issuer is not permitted to engage in any business activity other than the issuance of the Securities and the Ordinary Shares, the acquisition and disposition of and investment and reinvestment in Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments, entry into Hedge Agreements and Securities Lending Agreement and other activities incidental to the foregoing. Income derived from the Collateral will be the Issuer's sole source of cash for making payments on the Securities.

The Co-Issuer Is Newly Formed, Has No Significant Operating History, Has No Material Assets and Is Limited in its Permitted Activities

The Co-Issuer is a newly formed Delaware corporation and has no prior operating history. The Co-Issuer will have no material assets. The Indenture provides that the Co-Issuer is not permitted to engage in any business activity other than the co-issuance and sale of the Notes, the issuance of its share capital, and other activities incidental to the foregoing.

The Notes and the Class Q-1 Securities Are Limited Recourse Obligations of the Issuer and Non-Recourse Obligations of the Co-Issuer; Investors Must Rely on Available Collections from the Collateral and Will Have No Other Source for Payment

The Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer and non-recourse debt obligations of the Co-Issuer. The Class Q-1 Securities will be limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer to the extent of the related Class Q-1 Note Component. The Notes and the Class Q-1 Securities are payable solely from the Collateral pledged by the Issuer to secure the Notes. Distributions on the Class Q-1 Securities will be made in respect of the Class Q-1 Components as described herein. None of the security holders, members, officers, directors, partners, or incorporators of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Trustee, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Administrator, the Class E Certificates Registrar, the Share Trustee, any of their respective affiliates, or any other person will be obligated to make payments on the Notes or the Class Q-1 Securities. The Issuer's ability to make interest payments and principal repayments on the Notes will be constrained by the terms of the Indenture. Holders of the Notes and the Class Q-1 Securities must rely solely on collections received on the Collateral pledged to secure the Notes for the payment of interest and principal on the Notes, and there can be no assurance that those collections will be sufficient to pay all amounts due on the Notes. If distributions on the Collateral are insufficient to make payments on the Notes, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and, following liquidation of all of the Collateral, the Co-Issuers will not have any obligation to pay any deficiency, which shall be extinguished and shall not revive.

The Class E Certificates are not Secured Obligations; Investors Must Rely on Available Collections from the Collateral and Will Have No Other Source for Payment

The Class E Certificates (including the Class E Certificate Components) are part of the issued share capital of the Issuer. The Class E Certificates are preferred equity interests in the Issuer and are not secured by the Collateral Obligations or other Collateral securing the Notes. As such, the Holders of Class E Certificates will rank behind all creditors, whether secured or unsecured and known or unknown, of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the holders of the Notes and any Hedge Counterparties. Except with respect to the obligations of the Issuer to pay the amounts described under the "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" and "—Principal Proceeds", the Issuer does not, however, expect to have any creditors, although there can be no assurance that this will be the case. See "The Co-Issuers—Business." Payments in respect of the Class E Certificates are subject to certain requirements imposed by Cayman Islands law. Any amounts paid by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent as dividends on the Class E Certificates will be payable only if the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or balance in the Issuer's certificate premium account. In addition, dividends and the final payment upon redemption of the Class E Certificates will be payable only to the extent that the Issuer is and will remain solvent after such dividends or redemption payment is paid. Under Cayman Islands law, a company is generally deemed to be solvent if it is able to pay its debts as they become due.

The Issuer's obligation to pay dividends or to make other distributions to the Holders of the Class E Certificates will therefore not be a secured obligation of the Issuer and such Holders will not be entitled to the benefits of the Indenture, nor will the Trustee have any obligation to act on behalf of the Holders of Class E Certificates. Holders of the Class E Certificates will only be entitled to receive amounts available for payment of dividends or other distributions after payment of all amounts payable on each Class of Notes and certain other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments and only to the extent of distributable profits of the Issuer and/or any balance in the Issuer's certificate premium account and (in each case) only to the extent that the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distributions.

To the extent the requirements under Cayman Islands law described in the preceding paragraphs are not met, amounts otherwise payable to the Holders of the Class E Certificates will be retained in the Class E Certificates Distribution Account until, in the case of dividends, the next succeeding Payment Date on which the Issuer notifies the Class E Certificate Paying Agent such requirements are met and, in the case of any payment on redemption of the Class E Certificates, the next succeeding Business Day on which the Issuer notifies the Class E Certificate Paying Agent such requirements are met. Amounts on deposit in the Class E Certificates Distribution Account will not be available to pay amounts due to the Holders of the Notes, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Portfolio Manager, any Hedge Counterparty or any other creditor of the Issuer whose claim is limited in recourse to the Collateral. However, amounts on deposit in the Class E Certificates Distribution Account may be subject to the claims of creditors of the Issuer that have not contractually limited their recourse to the Collateral. The Indenture and the Class E Certificate Documents will limit the Issuer's activities to the issuance and sale of the Securities, the acquisition and disposition of, and investment and reinvestment in, the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments and the other activities related to the issuance and sale of the Securities described under the “The Co-Issuers.” The Issuer therefore does not expect to have any significant full recourse liabilities that would be payable out of the amounts on deposit in the Class E Certificates Distribution Account.

The Class P-1 Securities and the Class P-2 Securities will be limited recourse obligations of the Issuer (except to the extent of their Class E Certificate Components). The Class P-1 Collateral will secure the Class P-1 Securities (other than the Class P-1 Class E Certificate Component), and the Class P-2 Collateral will secure the Class P-2 Securities (other than the Class P-2 Class E Certificate Component). Distributions on the Class P Securities will be made in respect of their respective components as described herein.

None of the security holders, members, officers, directors, partners, or incorporators of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Trustee, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Administrator, the Class E Certificates Registrar, the Share Trustee, any of their respective affiliates, or any other person will be obligated to make payments on the Class P Securities. In the event that the Class P-1 Collateral is not sufficient to pay the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class P-1 Securities or the Class P-2 Collateral is not sufficient to pay the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class P-2 Securities, the Issuer will have no obligation whatsoever to pay any such deficiency, except, in each case to the extent of payment, if any, with respect to the related Class P Class E Certificate Component in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Class E Certificate Documents.

The Issuer May Not Be Able to Invest and Reinvest Available Funds in Appropriate Collateral

The amount of Collateral Obligations purchased or refinanced on the Closing Date, the amount and timing of the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations before the Ramp-Up Completion Date, and the subsequent reinvestment of Principal Proceeds, will affect the cash flows available to make payments on, and the return to the Holders of, the Securities. Reduced liquidity and relatively lower volumes of trading in certain Collateral Obligations, in addition to restrictions on investment represented by the Eligibility Criteria, could result in periods during which the Issuer is not able to fully invest its available cash in Collateral Obligations, and it is unlikely that the Issuer’s available cash will be fully invested in Collateral Obligations at any time. The longer the period before reinvestment of cash or cash-equivalents in Collateral Obligations and the larger the amount of uninvested cash or cash equivalents, the greater the adverse impact may be on aggregate interest collected and distributed by the Issuer, thereby resulting in lower yield than could have been obtained if the net proceeds associated with the offering of the Securities and all Principal Proceeds were immediately and fully reinvested. The associated reinvestment risk on the Collateral Obligations will be borne first by the Holders of the Class E Certificates and second by the Holders of the Notes (beginning with the most subordinated Class of Notes). Although the Portfolio Manager may mitigate this risk to some degree during the Reinvestment Period by declaring a Special Redemption, the Portfolio Manager is not required to do so, and any Special Redemption may result in a lower yield on the Issuer’s assets than could have been obtained if the net proceeds from the offering of the Securities and all Principal Proceeds were immediately and fully reinvested and no Special Redemption had taken place.

Generally, Principal Proceeds (together with Interest Proceeds, but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on Collateral Obligations, and Sale Proceeds received on the Collateral Obligations) will be reinvested during the Reinvestment Period (and Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations may be invested on any date after the Reinvestment Period, at the discretion of the Portfolio Manager) in substitute Collateral Obligations or temporarily reinvested in the Eligible Investments pending reinvestment in substitute Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The earnings with respect to substitute Collateral Obligations will depend, among other factors, on reinvestment rates available in the marketplace at the time and on the availability of investments acceptable to the Portfolio Manager that satisfy the criteria under “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria.” The need to satisfy the criteria and identify acceptable investments may require the purchase of substitute Collateral Obligations having lower yields than those initially acquired or require that Principal Proceeds be held temporarily in cash or Eligible Investments, which will reduce the yield earned by the Issuer. Further, issuers of Collateral Obligations may be more likely to exercise any rights they may have to redeem them when interest rates or spreads are declining. Any decrease in the yield on the Collateral Obligations will reduce the amounts available to make payments of principal and interest on the Notes and payments on the Class E Certificates.

The Issuer expects that, as of the Closing Date, it will have purchased (or entered into commitments to purchase) at least $815,000,000 in Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations.

Changes in Tax Law Could Result in the Imposition of Withholding Taxes with Respect to Payments on the Securities, and the Issuer Will Not Gross-Up Payments to Holders

Although no withholding tax is currently imposed by the United States or the Cayman Islands on payments on the Securities, there can be no assurance that, as a result of any change in any applicable law, treaty, rule, regulation, or interpretation thereof, the payments with respect to the Securities would not in the future become subject to withholding taxes. If any withholding tax is imposed on payments on any Securities, the Issuer will not “gross up” payments to their Holders.

A Determination that the Issuer were Engaged in a U.S. Trade or Business would Reduce the Amounts Available to Make Payments on the Securities

The Issuer expects to conduct its affairs so that its net income will not become subject to United States federal income tax. There can be no assurance, however, that its net income will not become subject to United States federal income tax as the result of activities by the Issuer, changes in law or contrary conclusions by United States tax authorities. Imposition of such taxes would reduce the amounts available to make payments on the Securities and there can be no assurance that remaining payments on the Collateral would be sufficient to make payments on all Classes of Securities.

The Securities Are Subject to Substantial Transfer Restrictions

The Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act, under any U.S. state securities or “Blue Sky” laws, or under the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and are being issued and sold in reliance upon exemptions from registration provided by those laws. No Securities may be sold or transferred unless the sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act (for example, in reliance on exemptions provided by Rule 144A or Regulation S) and applicable state securities laws, and the sale or transfer does not cause either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral to become subject to the registration requirements of the Investment Company Act. Certain other transfer restrictions apply. See “Transfer Restrictions” and “ERISA Considerations.”

Non-Compliance with Restrictions on Ownership of the Securities under the United States Investment Company Act of 1940 Could Adversely Affect the Issuer

Neither of the Co-Issuers has registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) as an investment company pursuant to the Investment Company Act. The Issuer has not so registered in reliance on an exclusion from the definition of “investment company” for companies organized under the laws of a jurisdiction other than the United States or any of its states: (i) whose investors residing in the United States are solely “qualified purchasers” (within the meaning given to such term in the Investment Company Act and related SEC regulations); and (ii) that do not make a public offering of their securities in the United States. The Co-Issuer also has not registered with the SEC as an investment company, based on the fact that the Co-Issuer has no assets that could be construed as the holding of “securities” under the Investment Company Act. No opinion or no-action position with respect to the registration of either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral under the Investment Company Act has been requested of, or received from, the SEC.

If the SEC or a court of competent jurisdiction were to find that the Issuer or the Co-Issuer is required, but in violation of the Investment Company Act has failed, to register as an investment company, possible consequences include the following: (i) the SEC could apply to a district court to enjoin the violation; (ii) investors in the Issuer or the Co-Issuer could sue the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, and recover any damages caused by the violation; and (iii) any contract to which the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, is party whose performance involves a violation of the Investment Company Act would be unenforceable by any party to the contract unless a court were to find that under the circumstances enforcement would produce a more equitable result than non-enforcement and would not be inconsistent with the purposes of the Investment Company Act.

In addition, the Issuer’s or the Co-Issuer’s being required to register as an investment company would result in an Event of Default. See “Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default.” Should the Issuer or the Co-Issuer be subjected to any or all of the foregoing, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, would be materially and adversely affected.

The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary

The Stated Maturity of the Notes is the Payment Date in November 2017 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date. The weighted average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years until their Stated Maturity. See “Description of the Securities.” The weighted average life of a Class of Notes will be affected by the amount and timing of payments of principal of the Notes and the amount and timing of payments received on the Collateral Obligations. The amount and timing of payments of principal on the Notes will be affected by, among other things, any Optional Redemption of the Notes, a failure of any Coverage Test, a Rating Confirmation Failure, any failure by the Portfolio Manager to invest or reinvest uninvested proceeds of the offering of the Securities in Collateral Obligations, any Special Redemption of one or more Classes of Notes, and an Event of Default by the Issuer and an acceleration of the principal of the Notes in connection with an Event of Default. The occurrence of any of the foregoing unscheduled principal repayments of the Notes, in turn, may be determined by the amount and timing of payments on the Collateral, which will be dependent on, among other things, the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral and the characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, including the existence and frequency of exercise of any prepayment, optional redemption, or sinking fund features, the prevailing level of interest rates and spreads, the redemption price, the actual default rate and the actual level of recoveries on any Defaulted Collateral Obligations, the frequency of tender or exchange offers for the Collateral Obligations and any sales of Collateral Obligations, dividends or other distributions received on any obligations that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange do not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation, as well as the risks unique to investments in obligations of foreign issuers. See “Security for the Notes.”

A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected.

Under the Indenture, the Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, shall be entitled, on each Extension Effective Date, to extend the Stated Maturity (a maximum of four times) to the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Stated Maturity no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. Under the Indenture and the Class E Certificate Documents, if the Stated Maturity is so extended, the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date will be equally extended and the Weighted Average Life Test and Reinvestment Period shall be automatically extended without the requirement for any approval or consent of any Holders of Securities. Holders of Securities will not be able to prevent or prohibit the extension of the Stated Maturity of the Notes (or, in the case of the Class E Certificates, the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date) so long as the Extension Conditions are satisfied, which include the ability of Holders of Securities to sell their Securities at the designated purchase price to a designated purchaser under the Indenture. However, in the case of the Class E Certificates, the Indenture provides that Holders of Class E Certificates that have received a Class E Certificate Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12% as of the Extension Effective Date will not receive any payment in exchange for their Class E Certificates sold in connection with a Maturity Extension; provided, however that in the case of the 3rd or 4th Maturity Extension, for any single Holder of Class E Certificates who holds Class E Certificate with an aggregate Face Amount of at least U.S.$30,000,000 and cannot consent to the Maturity Extension due to tax, regulatory, compliance or accounting rules or investment policies (whether internally or externally governed), the designated purchase price payable to such Holder for its Class E Certificates will be an amount that, when taken together with all payments and distributions made in respect of such Class E Certificates since the Closing Date would cause such Class E Certificates to have received a Class E Certificate Internal Rate of Return of 15%.

As a consequence, if the Portfolio Manager elects to extend the Stated Maturity and the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Holders of the Securities may either be required to hold their Securities for a significantly longer period of time or be forced to sell their Securities for the applicable purchase price under the Indenture, potentially resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Securities.

Upon the Extension Effective Date of the second Maturity Extension, if any, and the Extension Effective Date of the fourth Maturity Extension, if any, it is likely that continuing holders of Securities will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as exchanging their Securities for newly issued longer-term Securities. Although Holders generally should not recognize gain or loss upon such a deemed exchange except to the extent of any Extension Bonus Payment, holders who purchased Securities at a discount could be required as a consequence of the deemed exchange to accrue such discount as interest income on a current basis as OID. See “Income Tax Considerations.”

An Amendment Buy-Out May Result in a Shorter Holding Period Than Expected.

Any Non-Consenting Holder of Securities with respect to an amendment of the Indenture (which includes Holders that fail to respond to a consent solicitation within the applicable period) may be forced to sell its applicable Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Securities. In the case of the Class E Certificates, the Indenture provides that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price will be zero for Non-Consenting Holders that have received a Class E Certificate Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12% as of the Amendment Buy-Out Date. See “Description of the Securities—Amendment Buy-Out.” A Holder’s ability to vote against an amendment or affect or influence the amendment process with respect to the Indenture may thus be limited. The Amendment

Buy-Out Option may also increase the ability of the Portfolio Manager to affect or influence the amendment process.

The existence or exercise of the buy-out right may increase the likelihood that an amendment to the Indenture could cause a deemed exchange of a Security for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon which capital gain or loss would be recognized. If such a deemed exchange were treated as a recapitalization, holders generally would not recognize gain or loss except to the extent of any cash received, but holders who purchased Securities at a discount could be required as a consequence of the deemed exchange to accrue such discount as interest income on a current basis as OID. See “Income Tax Considerations.”

The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests

If any of the Coverage Tests are not satisfied on any Determination Date on which the Notes of the relevant Class are Outstanding, Interest Proceeds available on the related Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments (and, to the extent Interest Proceeds are insufficient, Principal Proceeds available on the Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments) are required to be applied to pay principal on the Notes in the order of priority up to and including the Class to which the Coverage Test relates (other than in certain circumstances with respect to the Class C Coverage Tests in which Interest Proceeds will be applied to the Class C Notes without prior application to any Notes senior to the Class C Notes) to the extent necessary for the relevant Coverage Test to be satisfied. The application of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds to pay principal of the Notes to the extent necessary to restore the Coverage Tests to certain minimum required levels could result in an elimination, deferral or reduction in the amounts available to make distributions on the Class E Certificates and interest and principal payments on one or more Classes of Notes, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of the Securities.

The Indenture Requires Redemption of the Notes or Investment in Additional Collateral Obligations Upon Rating Confirmation Failure

If the Rating Agencies have not confirmed the initial rating of each Class of Notes by the Business Day after the 29th day after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, Interest Proceeds and, if Interest Proceeds are insufficient, Principal Proceeds, are required to be diverted in accordance with the Priority of Payments and used to redeem the Notes sequentially in order of their relative priority on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date thereafter until each rating is confirmed. In addition, the Portfolio Manager may cause Collateral Obligations to be sold to use the proceeds for such redemption. The application of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds to redeem the Notes to the extent necessary for one or more ratings to be confirmed could result in an elimination, deferral, or reduction in one or more payments or distributions on one or more Classes of Securities, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of those Classes of Securities.

The Indenture Permits Special Redemption of Notes Based on the Portfolio Manager’s Inability to Identify Investments

The Portfolio Manager is permitted under the Indenture to elect to have all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be invested in additional Collateral Obligations applied to a Special Redemption of the Notes, in whole or in part, on one or more Payment Dates during the Reinvestment Period because it has been unable, for a period of at least 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the investment or reinvestment of all such funds. On the Special Redemption Date, in accordance with the Indenture, the Special Redemption Amount will be applied in accordance with “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds,” to the extent available (which includes for this purpose uninvested proceeds specified by the Portfolio Manager), to pay the principal of the Notes. The application of funds in that manner could result in an elimination, deferral, or reduction of amounts available to make payments on Securities subordinate in priority to the Securities being amortized. See “Description of the Securities—Special Redemption of Notes If the Portfolio Manager Does Not Identify Investments as Contemplated by the Indenture.”

The Notes Are Subject to Optional Redemption

Subject to satisfaction of certain conditions, on any Payment Date upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Holders of at least a Majority of the Class E Certificates may require that the Notes be redeemed as described under “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption.” In the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Portfolio Manager may be required to aggregate Collateral Obligations to be sold together in one block transaction, thereby possibly resulting in a lower realized value for the Collateral Obligations sold. There can be no assurance that the market value of the Collateral will be sufficient for the Holders of the Class E Certificates to direct an Optional Redemption of the Notes. A decrease in the market value of the Collateral would adversely affect the Sale Proceeds from their sale. Consequently, the conditions precedent to the exercise of an Optional Redemption may not be met. Moreover, the Holders of the Notes may not be able to invest the proceeds of the redemption of the Notes in investments providing a return equal to or greater than the return the Holders of the Notes expected to obtain from their investment in the Notes.

Future Ratings of the Notes Are Not Assured and Limited in Scope; the Class E Certificates Are Not Rated

It is a condition to the issuance of the Securities that the Notes be rated as provided under “Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities.” A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and is subject to revision or withdrawal at any time. There is no assurance that a rating will remain for any given period or that a rating will not be lowered or withdrawn entirely by each Rating Agency if in its judgment circumstances in the future so warrant. Any such action could have an adverse effect on the Holders of the relevant Class of Securities. If a rating initially assigned to a Class of Securities is subsequently lowered for any reason, no person is obligated to provide any additional credit support or credit enhancement. The ratings of the Securities assumes no Maturity Extensions occur.

No rating of the Class E Certificates will be sought or obtained.

Events Outside the Control of the Co-Issuers and the Portfolio Manager Can Affect the Securities

Various acts of God, force majeure, and certain other events beyond the control of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, the Collateral Administrator, the Indenture Registrar, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Administrator could affect the ability of financial institutions to process payments and transfer funds and could impair the financial records and record-keeping practices of financial institutions and others (including the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, the Collateral Administrator, the Indenture Registrar, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Administrator). In addition, the existence of those circumstances could cause lenders and other creditors more readily to agree to restructure debt obligations (including payment terms) than they would in the absence of those circumstances. The existence of those circumstances could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, to make timely payments on the Securities.

The Listing of the Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange Would Subject the Issuer to Emerging Requirements of the European Union

As part of the harmonization of securities markets in Europe, the European Commission has adopted a directive known as the Prospectus Directive (which was required to be implemented by Member States by July 1, 2005) that will regulate offers of securities to the public and admissions to trading to E.U. regulated markets. A directive known as the Transparency Directive which came into force in the European Union at the beginning of 2005 and is required to be implemented by Member States by early 2007, will among other things, impose continuing financial reporting obligations on issuers that have certain types of securities admitted to trading on an E.U. regulated market. In addition, the Market Abuse Directive harmonizes the rules on insider trading and market manipulation in respect of securities admitted to trading on an E.U. regulated market and requires issuers of such securities to disclose any non-public price-sensitive information as soon as possible, subject to certain limited exemptions. The listing of the Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange would subject the Issuer to regulation under these directives, although the requirements applicable to the Issuer are not yet fully clarified. The Indenture will not require the Issuer to maintain a listing of any Class of Notes on an E.U. stock exchange if compliance with these directives (or other requirements adopted by the European Commission or a relevant Member State) becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Portfolio Manager.

Relating to the Portfolio Manager

The Issuer Will Depend on the Managerial Expertise Available to the Portfolio Manager and its Key Personnel

The performance of the Issuer's investment portfolio depends heavily on the skills of the Portfolio Manager in analyzing, selecting and managing the Collateral Obligations. As a result, the Issuer will be highly dependent on the financial and managerial experience of certain investment professionals associated with the Portfolio Manager, none of whom is under a contractual obligation to the Issuer to continue to be associated with the Portfolio Manager for the term of this transaction. The loss of one or more of these individuals could have a material adverse effect on the performance of the Co-Issuers. Furthermore, the Portfolio Manager has informed the Issuer that these investment professionals are also actively involved in other investment activities and will not be able to devote all of their time to the Issuer's business and affairs. In addition, individuals not currently associated with the Portfolio Manager may become associated with the Portfolio Manager and the performance of the Collateral Obligations may also depend on the financial and managerial experience of such individuals. See "The Management Agreement" and "The Portfolio Manager."

The Issuer Will Have Limited Control of the Administration and Amendment of Collateral Obligations

The Portfolio Manager will cause the Issuer to exercise or enforce, or refrain from exercising or enforcing, its rights in connection with the Collateral Obligations or any related documents or will grant or refuse amendments or waivers of the terms of any Collateral Obligation and related documents in accordance with its ordinary business practices as if the Portfolio Manager were administering the Collateral Obligations for its own account. The authority of the Portfolio Manager to cause the Issuer to change the terms of the Collateral Obligations will generally not be restricted by the Indenture or the Management Agreement. As a result, the Issuer will be relying on the Portfolio Manager's customary standards, policies and procedures with respect to the servicing of the Collateral Obligations. Neither the Issuer nor the Holders of the Securities will have any right to compel the Portfolio Manager to take or refrain from taking any actions other than in accordance with its ordinary business practices.

A modification that would increase the commitment of a lender, reduce the interest rate, or postpone the final maturity of an obligation, or release all of the collateral for an obligation, generally requires the affirmative vote of the participating lender for a loan in which the Issuer owns a Participation, or of the Issuer for a Loan purchased by assignment, for the increase, reduction, or postponement to be binding. The exercise of remedies may also be subject to the vote of a specified percentage of the lenders under the loan obligation. The Portfolio Manager will have the authority to cause the Issuer to consent to these and certain other amendments, waivers, or modifications to the Collateral Obligations requested by obligors or the lead agents (and Participating Institutions for participation agreements relating to Participations) (subject to operating procedures intended to reduce the risk that the Issuer would be deemed to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States for United States federal income tax purposes). The Portfolio Manager may, subject to the transaction documents, cause the Issuer to extend or defer the maturity, adjust the outstanding balance of any Collateral Obligation, reduce or forgive interest or fees, release material collateral or guarantees, or otherwise amend, modify, or waive the terms of any related loan agreement, including its payment terms. The Portfolio Manager will make determinations in accordance with its servicing standards under the Management Agreement. Any amendment, waiver, or modification of a Collateral Obligation could postpone the expected redemption of the Notes or the expected redemption date of the Class E Certificates, or reduce the likelihood of timely and complete payment of interest or principal under the Notes or a full return of an investment in the Class E Certificates.

Performance History of the Portfolio Manager May Not Be Indicative of Future Results

Any prior investment results of the Portfolio Manager, and the persons associated with it or any other entity may not be indicative of the Issuer's future investment results. The nature of, and risks associated with, the Issuer's future investments may differ substantially from those investments and strategies undertaken historically by the Portfolio Manager, and the persons associated with it or any other entity. There can be no assurance that the Issuer's investments will perform as well as the past investments of the Portfolio Manager, and the persons associated with it or any other entity. Moreover, since the investment criteria that govern investments in the Collateral Obligations do not govern the Portfolio Manager's investments and investment strategies generally, investments in the Collateral Obligations conducted in accordance with the investment criteria that govern investments in the Collateral Obligations, and the results they yield, may differ substantially from other investments undertaken by the Portfolio Manager.

Right of Portfolio Manager to Avoid Removal Without Cause May Result in a Shorter Holding Period of the Class E Certificates Than Expected; Limitations on Right to Remove.

The Portfolio Manager may be removed without cause upon 90 days' prior written notice by the Issuer, at the direction of the Holders of at least 66-2/3% of the Class E Certificates (excluding Class E Certificates held by the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or any account for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority at the time of such vote); provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to avoid such removal if, in accordance with the terms described in "The Management Agreement," the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser purchases not less than all of the Directing Class E Certificates. Upon the occurrence of such purchase by the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser of all of the Directing Class E Certificates, the Holders of such Directing Class E Certificates will be forced to sell their Class E Certificates to the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser at the Buy-Out Amount, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Class E Certificates. The ability of a Holder of Class E Certificates to remove the Portfolio Manager or affect or influence the removal of the Portfolio Manager may thus be limited. Moreover, the Management Agreement provides that any Buy-Out Amount payable to Holders of Directing Class E Certificates will be zero for all Directing Class E Certificates that have received a Class E Certificate Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12.0% as of the purchase date; provided that in the case of any such purchase date after the Payment Date in November 2018, the Buy-Out Amount payable to any single Holder of Directing Class E Certificates holding U.S.$30,000,000 or more in aggregate Face Amount of Class E Certificates will only be zero if its Directing Class E Certificates have received a Class E Certificate Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 15.0% as of the purchase date. See "The Management Agreement." Accordingly, once these respective thresholds are reached, the Holders of Class E Certificates will effectively have no ability to remove the Portfolio Manager without cause.

Relating to the Collateral Obligations

In General, the Collateral Obligations Are Subject to Various Risks

The Collateral Obligations are subject to credit, liquidity, and interest rate risks, among others. The Eligibility Criteria and the Collateral Quality Tests have been established to address certain assumed deficiencies in payment occasioned by defaults with respect to the Collateral Obligations. If any deficiencies exceed certain modeled scenarios, however, payments or distributions on the Securities could be adversely affected. To the extent that a default occurs with respect to any Collateral Obligation securing the Notes and the Issuer (on the advice of the Portfolio Manager) sells or otherwise disposes of the Collateral Obligation, it is not likely that the proceeds of the sale or other disposition will be equal to the amount of principal and interest owing to the Issuer on the Collateral Obligation.

The value of the Collateral Obligations generally will fluctuate with, among other things, the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral Obligations and, with respect to Synthetic Securities, both the financial condition of the related Synthetic Security counterparties and the obligors on or issuers of the Reference Obligations, general economic conditions, the condition of certain financial markets, political events, developments or trends in any particular industry, and changes in prevailing interest rates.

The ability of the Issuer to sell Collateral Obligations before their maturity is subject to certain restrictions under the Indenture including those described under “Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds.”

Investing in Below Investment-Grade Obligations Involves Particular Risks

A substantial amount of the Collateral Obligations will consist of loans, bonds and other obligations that are below investment grade, including high-yield loans and securities. Those Collateral Obligations will have greater credit and liquidity risk than investment grade obligations. They are also often unsecured and may be subordinated to certain other obligations of their issuer. The lower rating of those Collateral Obligations reflects a greater possibility that adverse changes in the financial condition of an issuer or in general economic conditions or both may impair the ability of their issuer to make payments of principal or interest. These Collateral Obligations may be speculative.

Risks of below investment-grade Collateral Obligations may include (among others):

- (i) limited liquidity and secondary market support;
- (ii) in the case of fixed-rate high-yield debt securities, substantial market place volatility resulting from changes in prevailing interest rates;
- (iii) subordination to the prior claims of senior lenders and creditors;
- (iv) the operation of mandatory sinking fund or call and redemption provisions during periods of declining interest rates that could cause the Issuer to reinvest premature redemption proceeds in lower-yielding debt obligations;
- (v) the possibility that earnings of the below investment-grade issuer may be insufficient to meet its debt service; and
- (vi) the declining creditworthiness and potential for insolvency of a below investment-grade issuer during periods of rising interest rates and economic downturn.

An economic downturn or an increase in interest rates could severely disrupt the market for below investment-grade obligations and could adversely affect the value of outstanding below investment-grade obligations and the ability of their issuers to repay principal and interest.

Issuers that are below investment grade may be highly leveraged and may not have available to them more traditional methods of financing. The risk associated with obligations of below investment-grade issuers is generally greater than is the case with investment grade issuers. For example, during an economic downturn or a sustained period of rising interest rates, below investment-grade issuers may be more likely to experience financial stress, especially if they are highly leveraged. During those periods, timely service of debt obligations may also be adversely affected by specific issuer developments, or the issuer's inability to meet specific projected business forecasts or the unavailability of additional financing. The risk of loss from default by the issuer is significantly greater for the holders of below investment-grade obligations because those obligations may be unsecured and may be subordinated to obligations owed to other creditors of the issuer. In addition, the Issuer may incur additional expenses to the extent it is required to seek recovery upon a default on such an obligation or participate in its restructuring.

As a result of the limited liquidity of below investment-grade obligations, their prices have at times experienced significant and rapid decline when a substantial number of holders decided to sell. In addition, the Issuer may have difficulty disposing of certain below investment-grade obligations because there may be a thin trading market for them. To the extent that a secondary trading market for below investment-grade obligations does exist, it is generally not as liquid as the secondary market for highly rated obligations. Reduced secondary market liquidity may have an adverse impact on the Issuer's ability to dispose of particular Collateral Obligations in response to a specific economic event, such as a deterioration in the creditworthiness of the issuer of the Collateral Obligation.

Investing in Loans Involves Particular Risks

The Collateral Obligations will consist primarily of Dollar-denominated senior secured and senior unsecured loans, which are required by the Indenture to be obligations of corporations, partnerships, or other entities organized under the laws of the United States (or any of its states) or of foreign obligors meeting specified criteria, or Synthetic Securities the Reference Obligations of which are such loans. See "Security for the Notes—Purchase of Collateral Obligations."

Loans may become non-performing for a variety of reasons. Non-performing loans may require substantial workout negotiations or restructuring that may entail, among other things, a substantial reduction in the interest rate or a substantial write-down of the principal of a loan. In addition, because of the unique and customized nature of a loan agreement and the private syndication of a loan, loans typically may not be purchased or sold as easily as publicly traded securities, and historically the trading volume in the bank term loan market has been small relative to the corporate bond market. Loans may encounter trading delays due to their unique and customized nature, and transfers may require the consent of an agent bank or borrower.

The Issuer may acquire interests in loans either directly (by assignment) or indirectly (by Participation or through Synthetic Securities). The Issuer may not originate any loans. The purchaser of an assignment of a loan obligation typically succeeds to all the rights and obligations of the selling institution and becomes a lender under the loan or credit agreement with respect to the debt obligation. In contrast, a Participation acquired by the Issuer in a portion of a loan obligation held by a Participating Institution or a security or other debt obligation typically results in a contractual relationship only with the Participating Institution, not with the borrower. The Issuer would have the right to receive payments of principal, interest, and any fees to which it is entitled under a Participation only from the Participating Institution and only upon receipt by the Participating Institution of those payments from the borrower. In addition, when the Issuer holds a Participation, the Issuer generally will have no right to enforce compliance by the borrower with the loan or credit agreement or other instrument evidencing the related loan obligation, no rights of set-off against the borrower, no direct interest in the collateral supporting the loan obligation, and no right to vote with respect to amendments of, or waivers of defaults under, the loan obligation. However, most participation agreements relating to Participations in loans provide that the Participating Institution may not vote in favor of any amendment, modification, or waiver that forgives principal, interest, or fees; reduces principal, interest, or fees that are payable; postpones any payment of principal (whether a scheduled payment or a mandatory prepayment), interest or fees; or releases any material guarantee or security without the consent of the participant (at least to the extent the participant would be affected by the amendment, modification, or waiver). A Participating Institution voting in connection with a potential waiver of a default by an obligor may have interests different from those of the Issuer, and the Participating Institution might not consider the interests of the Issuer in connection with its vote. In addition, many participation agreements relating to Participations in loans that do provide voting rights to the participant further provide that if the participant does not vote in favor of amendments, modifications, or waivers, the Participating Institution may repurchase the Participation at par. In the event of the insolvency of the Participating Institution, the Issuer may be treated as a general creditor of the Participating Institution with respect to a Participation and may not benefit from any set-off between the Participating Institution and the borrower and may not be able to proceed against the collateral supporting the loan obligation. As a result, the Issuer is subject to the credit risk of both the borrower and the Participating Institution. An investment by the Issuer in a Synthetic Security related to a Loan involves many of the same considerations relevant to Participations. See also “—Investing in Synthetic Securities Involves Particular Risks” below. The Issuer will be subject to restrictions on the amount of Participations that may be acquired for inclusion in the Collateral. See “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria.”

Certain of the loans in the Issuer’s portfolio may be unsecured or secured by collateral worth less than the outstanding balance of the loan. In addition to the general risks associated with loans described above, unsecured loans will not be secured by substantial collateral or any collateral and secured loans may be substantially under-secured. Without collateral and with materially inadequate collateral, the ability of the holder of the loan to recover amounts due from the borrower may be substantially limited.

Investing in Structured Finance Obligations Involves Particular Risks

A portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of Structured Finance Obligations and Synthetic Securities the Reference Obligations of which are Structured Finance Obligations. Structured Finance Obligations may present risks similar to those of the other types of Collateral Obligations in which the Issuer may invest and, in fact, the risks may be of greater significance in the case of Structured Finance Obligations. Moreover, investing in Structured Finance Obligations may entail a variety of unique risks. Among other risks, Structured Finance Obligations may be subject to prepayment risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk, structural risk, legal risk and interest rate risk (which may be exacerbated if the interest rate payable on a Structured Finance Obligation changes based on multiples of changes in interest rates or inversely to changes in interest rates). In addition, certain Structured Finance Obligations (particularly subordinated collateralized bond obligations) may provide that non-payment of interest is not an event of default in certain circumstances and the holders of the securities will therefore not have available to them any associated default remedies. During the period of non-payment, unpaid interest will generally be capitalized and added to the outstanding principal balance of the related security. Furthermore, the performance of a Structured Finance Obligation will be affected by a variety of factors, including its priority in the capital structure of its issuer, the availability of any credit enhancement, the level and timing of payments and recoveries on and the characteristics of the underlying receivables, loans, or other assets that are being securitized, bankruptcy remoteness of those assets from the originator or transferor, the adequacy of and ability to realize on any related collateral, and the skill of the manager of the Structured Finance Obligation in managing securitized assets. The price of a Structured Finance Obligation, if required to be sold, may be subject to certain market and liquidity risks for securities of its type at the time of sale. In addition, Structured Finance Obligations may involve initial and ongoing expenses above the costs associated with other investments.

Investing in Synthetic Securities Involves Particular Risks

As described above, a portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of Synthetic Securities the Reference Obligations of which are Loans, Structured Finance Obligations or High-Yield Bonds. Investments in these types of assets through the purchase of Synthetic Securities present risks in addition to those inherently associated with direct purchases of such assets. With respect to Synthetic Securities, the Issuer will usually have a contractual relationship only with the counterparty of the Synthetic Security, and not the reference obligor on the Reference Obligation. The Issuer will have no right to enforce compliance by the reference obligor with the Reference Obligation nor any rights of set-off against the reference obligor, nor have any voting or other consensual rights of ownership with respect to the Reference Obligation. The Issuer will not directly benefit from any collateral supporting the Reference Obligation and will not have the benefit of the remedies that would normally be available to a holder of the Reference Obligation.

In addition, in the event of the insolvency of the Synthetic Security Counterparty, the Issuer will be treated as a general creditor of the counterparty and will not have any claim of title with respect to the Reference Obligation. Consequently, the Issuer will be subject to the credit risk of the counterparty as well as that of the reference obligor and concentrations of Synthetic Securities entered into with any one counterparty will subject the Securities to an additional degree of risk with respect to defaults by that counterparty. One or more Affiliates of the Initial Purchaser may act as counterparty with respect to all or a portion of the Synthetic Securities, which relationship may create certain conflicts of interest. See “—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Initial Purchaser and the Placement Agent” below. In addition, Synthetic Securities may involve initial and ongoing expenses above the costs associated with the related direct investments. The Issuer will be subject to restrictions on the amount of Synthetic Securities it may own at any one time.

Some of the Collateral Obligations Will Be Illiquid

Some of the Collateral Obligations purchased by the Issuer will have no, or only a limited, trading market. The Issuer’s investment in illiquid Collateral Obligations may restrict its ability to dispose of investments in a timely fashion and for a fair price, as well as its ability to take advantage of market opportunities, although the Issuer is generally prohibited by the Indenture from selling Collateral Obligations except under certain limited circumstances described under “Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds.” Illiquid Collateral Obligations may trade at a discount from comparable, more liquid investments. In addition, the Issuer may invest in privately placed Collateral Obligations that may or may not be freely transferable under the laws of the applicable jurisdiction or due to contractual restrictions on resale, and even if those privately placed Collateral Obligations are transferable, the prices realized from their sale could be less than those originally paid by the Issuer or less than what may be considered their fair value.

Insolvency Considerations With Respect to Issuers of Collateral Obligations May Affect the Issuer’s Rights

Various laws enacted for the protection of creditors may apply to the Collateral Obligations. If, in a lawsuit brought by a creditor or representative of creditors of an obligor under a Collateral Obligation (such as a trustee in bankruptcy), a court were to find that the obligor did not receive fair consideration or reasonably equivalent value for incurring the indebtedness evidenced by the Collateral Obligation and, after giving effect to the indebtedness and the use of the proceeds thereof, the obligor (i) was insolvent, (ii) was engaged in a business for which the remaining assets of the obligor constituted unreasonably small capital or (iii) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay them as they mature, the court could determine to invalidate, in whole or in part, the indebtedness as a fraudulent conveyance, to subordinate the indebtedness to existing or future creditors of the obligor, or to recover amounts previously paid by the obligor in satisfaction of the indebtedness. There can be no assurance as to what standard a court would apply to determine whether the obligor was “insolvent” or that, regardless of the method of valuation, a court would not determine that the obligor was “insolvent,” in each case, after giving effect to the incurrence of the Collateral Obligation and the use of its proceeds. In addition, in the event of the insolvency of an obligor under a Collateral Obligation, payments made on the Collateral Obligation may be subject to avoidance as a “preference” if made within a certain period before insolvency (which may be as long as approximately one year).

In general, if payments on a Collateral Obligation are avoidable, whether as fraudulent conveyances or preferences, the payments can be recaptured either from the initial recipient (such as the Issuer) or from subsequent transferees of the payments (such as the Holders of the Securities). To the extent that any payments are recaptured from the Issuer, the resulting reduction in payments on the Securities will be borne by the Holders of the applicable Class of Securities. A court in a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding would be able to direct the recapture of any payment from a Holder of the Securities to the extent that the court has jurisdiction over the Holder or its assets. Since there is no judicial precedent relating to structured securities such as the Securities, there can be no assurance that a Holder of Securities will be able to avoid recapture on this basis.

The preceding discussion is based on principles of United States federal and state laws. Insofar as Collateral Obligations that are obligations of non-United States obligors are concerned, the laws of certain foreign jurisdictions may provide for avoidance remedies under factual circumstances similar to, or broader or narrower than, those described above, with consequences that may or may not be analogous to those described above under United States federal and state laws.

Concentration Risks

Payments on the Notes could be affected by the concentration of the Collateral in Collateral Obligations of any one country, industry or obligor. In addition, Defaulted Collateral Obligations may be highly correlated with particular geographic regions or industries represented in the Collateral. The Indenture will contain limitations on the concentration of the Collateral Obligations in a single Collateral Obligation and will also include diversity requirements intended to achieve diversity across countries and industries, but such requirements and limitations will not necessarily insulate the Co-Issuers or the Holders of Notes from the risks of geographic or industry concentration.

International Investing Involves Particular Risks

A portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of obligations of obligors Domiciled outside the United States. Investing outside the United States may involve greater or different risks than investing in the United States. These risks may include: less publicly available information; varying levels of governmental regulation and supervision; the difficulty of enforcing legal rights in a foreign jurisdiction and uncertainties as to the status, interpretation and application of laws. Moreover, foreign companies may be subject to accounting, auditing, and financial reporting standards, practices, and requirements different from those applicable to U.S. companies.

There generally is less governmental supervision and regulation of exchanges, brokers and issuers in foreign countries than there is in the United States. For example, there may be no comparable provisions under certain foreign laws with respect to insider trading and similar investor protection securities laws that apply with respect to securities transactions consummated in the United States.

Foreign markets also have different clearance and settlement procedures, and in certain markets there have been times when settlements have failed to keep pace with the volume of securities transactions, making it difficult to conduct transactions. Delays in settlement could result in periods when assets of the Issuer are uninvested and no return is earned on them. The inability of the Issuer to make intended purchases of Collateral Obligations due to settlement problems or the risk of intermediary counterparty failures could cause the Issuer to miss investment opportunities. The inability to dispose of a Collateral Obligation due to settlement problems could result either in losses to the Issuer due to subsequent declines in the value of the Collateral Obligation or, if the Issuer has entered into a contract to sell the security, could result in possible liability to the purchaser. Transaction costs of buying and selling foreign securities, including brokerage, tax, and custody costs, also are generally higher than those involved in domestic transactions. Furthermore, foreign financial markets, while generally growing in volume, have, for the most part, substantially less volume than U.S. markets, and securities of many foreign companies are less liquid and their prices more volatile than securities of comparable domestic companies.

In certain foreign countries there is the possibility of expropriation, nationalization, or confiscatory taxation; limitations on the convertibility of currency or the removal of securities, property, or other assets of the Issuer; political, economic, or social instability; or adverse diplomatic developments, each of which could have an adverse effect on the Issuer's investments in the foreign countries (which may make it more difficult to pay Dollar-denominated obligations such as the Collateral Obligations). The economies of individual non-U.S. countries may also differ favorably or unfavorably from the U.S. economy in such respects as growth of gross domestic product, rate of inflation, volatility of currency exchange rates, depreciation, capital reinvestment, resource self-sufficiency and balance of payments position.

Lender Liability Considerations and Equitable Subordination Can Affect the Issuer's Rights with Respect to Collateral Obligations

In recent years, a number of judicial decisions in the United States have upheld the right of borrowers to sue lenders and bondholders on the basis of various evolving legal theories (collectively termed "lender liability"). Generally, lender liability is founded on the premise that a lender has violated a duty (whether implied or contractual) of good faith and fair dealing owed to the debtor or has assumed a degree of control over the debtor resulting in the creation of a fiduciary duty owed to the debtor or its other creditors or shareholders. Because of the nature of the Collateral Obligations, the Issuer may be subject to allegations of lender liability. In addition, under common law principles that in some cases form the basis for lender liability claims, a court may elect to subordinate the claim of the offending lender to the claims of the disadvantaged creditors, a remedy called "equitable subordination," if a lender: (i) intentionally takes an action that results in the undercapitalization of a borrower to the detriment of other creditors of the borrower; (ii) engages in other inequitable conduct to the detriment of the other creditors; (iii) engages in fraud with respect to, or makes misrepresentations to, the other creditors; or (iv) uses its influence as a lender to dominate or control a borrower to the detriment of other creditors of the borrower.

Because the Collateral Obligations are primarily Loans, the Issuer may be subject to claims from creditors of an obligor that Collateral Obligations issued by the obligor that are held by the Issuer should be equitably subordinated. However, the Portfolio Manager does not intend to engage in conduct that would form the basis for a successful cause of action based on lender liability or the equitable subordination doctrine. Nonetheless, no assurances can be given that actions taken in good faith by the Portfolio Manager will not result in losses to issuers of Collateral Obligations, and that the Issuer will not be liable for any such losses. Furthermore, the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager may be unable to control the conduct of lenders under a loan syndication agreement requiring less than a unanimous vote, yet the Issuer may be subject to lender liability or equitable subordination for such conduct.

The preceding discussion is based on principles of United States federal and state laws. Insofar as Collateral Obligations that are obligations of non-United States obligors are concerned, the laws of certain foreign jurisdictions may impose liability on lenders or bondholders under factual circumstances similar to, or broader or narrower than, those described above, with consequences that may or may not be analogous to those described above under United States federal and state laws.

Securities May Be Affected by Interest Rate Risks, Including Mismatches Between the Notes and the Collateral Obligations

The Notes bear interest at a rate based on LIBOR as determined on the second Business Day prior to the first day of the relevant Interest Period. The Collateral Obligations will consist primarily of obligations that bear interest at floating rates, which floating rates may be different than the floating rates on the Notes. Accordingly, the Notes are subject to interest rate risk to the extent that there is a mismatch between the rates at which interest accrues on the Notes and the rates at which interest accrues on the Collateral. In addition, there may be a timing mismatch between the Notes and the Floating Rate Obligations as the interest on the Floating Rate Obligations may adjust more or less frequently, on different dates and based on different indices than the interest rates on the Notes. Furthermore, any payments of principal of or interest on Collateral received during a Due Period will (except to a limited extent specified in the Indenture) be reinvested in Eligible Investments maturing not later than the Business Day immediately preceding the next Payment Date. There is no requirement that Eligible Investments bear interest at LIBOR or a similar rate, and the interest rates available for Eligible Investments are inherently uncertain. As a result of these mismatches, an increase or decrease in LIBOR for the relevant maturity could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to make interest payments on the Notes (including due to a rise or a decline in the value of previously issued Collateral Obligations or other Collateral that bear interest at a fixed rate as LIBOR decreases or increases, as applicable) and to make distributions on the Class E Certificates. To mitigate a portion of the interest rate mismatch, the Issuer may enter into Hedge Agreements that are subject to a Rating Confirmation. However, there can be no assurance that the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments, together with any Hedge Agreements, will in all circumstances generate sufficient Interest Proceeds to make timely payments of interest on the Notes. Moreover, there can be no assurance that any Hedge Agreements will eliminate the risks of interest rate mismatch intended to be addressed by such agreements and the benefits of any Hedge Agreements may not be achieved in the event of the early termination of the Hedge Agreements, including termination upon the failure of the related Hedge Counterparty to perform its obligations under the Hedge Agreement. See “Security for the Notes—Hedge Agreements.”

The Portfolio Manager may direct the Issuer to reduce the notional amount of, or otherwise adjust the terms of, any Hedge Agreement outstanding at any time, subject, in the case of any reduction or adjustment made on or after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, to obtaining a Rating Confirmation.

Changes in Tax Law Could Result in the Imposition of Withholding Taxes with Respect to Payments on the Collateral Obligations, and the Obligors on the Collateral Obligations will not Gross-Up Payments to the Issuer

The Issuer expects that payments received on the Hedge Agreements, and generally on the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments, will not be subject to withholding taxes imposed by the United States or reduced by withholding taxes imposed by any other country from which such payments are sourced unless the obligor is required to make “gross-up” payments that cover the full amount of any such withholding taxes. In the case of Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments issued by U.S. obligors after July 18, 1984 that are in registered form, payments thereon generally are exempt under current United States tax law from the imposition of United States withholding tax. See “Income Tax Considerations—Tax Treatment of the Issuer—United States Withholding Taxes”. However, there can be no assurance that, as a result of any change in any applicable law, treaty, rule or regulation or interpretation thereof, the payments on the Hedge Agreements, Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments would not in the future become subject to withholding taxes imposed by the United States of America or another jurisdiction. In that event, if the obligors of such Hedge Agreements, Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments were not then required to make “gross-up” payments that cover the full amount of any such withholding taxes, the amounts available to make payments on, or distributions to, the holders of the Securities would accordingly be reduced. There can be no assurance that remaining payments on the Collateral would be sufficient to make timely payments of interest on, payment of principal and payment of other distributions at the Stated Maturity of the Securities.

Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, the Notes shall be redeemable at the applicable Redemption Price, in whole, but not in part, by the Issuer at the written direction of the Holders of at least a Majority of the Class E Certificates, as described under “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption.”

The Issuer Has the Right to Engage in Securities Lending, which Involves Counterparty Risks and Other Risks

The Collateral Obligations may be loaned for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) that have, or are guaranteed by entities that have, long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or a guarantor with those ratings at the time of the loan, of at least “A1” (and not “A1” but on credit watch with negative implications) and “P-1” (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody’s and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least “A” from S&P. See “Security for the Notes—Securities Lending.” The loans must be secured by cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America, in an amount at least equal to 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value of the loaned Collateral Obligations, determined on a daily basis. However, if the borrower of a loaned Collateral Obligation defaults on its obligation to return the loaned Collateral Obligation because of insolvency or otherwise, the Issuer could experience delays and costs in gaining access to the collateral posted by the borrower (and in extreme circumstances could be restricted from selling the collateral). If the borrower defaults, the Issuer could suffer a loss to the extent that the realized value of the cash or securities securing the obligation of the borrower to return a loaned Collateral Obligation (less expenses) is less than the amount required to purchase the Collateral Obligation in the open market. This shortfall could be due to, among other factors, discrepancies between the mark-to-market and actual transaction prices for the loaned Collateral Obligations arising from limited liquidity or availability of the loaned Collateral Obligations and, in extreme circumstances, the loaned Collateral Obligations being unavailable at any price.

The Rating Agencies may downgrade any of the rated Securities if a borrower of a Collateral Obligation or, if applicable, the entity guaranteeing the performance of the borrower has been downgraded by one of the Rating Agencies such that the Issuer is not in compliance with the Securities Lending Counterparty rating requirements. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Initial Purchaser or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager, which may create certain conflicts of interest. See “—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Portfolio Manager” and “—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Initial Purchaser and the Placement Agent” below.

Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest

In General, the Transaction Will Involve Various Potential and Actual Conflicts of Interest

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall advisory, investment, and other activities of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates and from the conduct by the Initial Purchaser and the Placement Agent and its Affiliates of other transactions with the Issuer, including acting as counterparty with respect to Hedge Agreements, Securities Lending Agreements, and Synthetic Securities. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Portfolio Manager

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise for the Portfolio Manager with respect to its obligations to the Issuer from the overall investment activities of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates, for the accounts of its other clients. For example, the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates and their respective clients may invest in loans, securities, and other obligations that would be appropriate for inclusion in the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations, as well as in loans, securities, and other obligations that are senior to, or have interests different from or adverse to, the loans and or other investments that are pledged to secure the Notes. Furthermore, Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager may serve as general partners or managers of special-purpose entities organized to issue other collateralized loan obligations ("CLOs") secured primarily by corporate loans and collateralized debt obligations ("CDOs") secured by corporate debt obligations. The Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may also have ongoing relationships with, render services to, or engage in transactions with, companies whose loan obligations or securities are pledged to secure the Notes and may now or in the future own (as portfolio investments or otherwise) loan obligations or equity or debt securities issued by issuers of or obligors on, Collateral Obligations or other Collateral.

The Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may possess information relating to issuers of Collateral Obligations or other Collateral that (i) may constrain the Issuer's investments as a consequence of the Portfolio Manager's inability to use such information for advisory purposes or otherwise to take actions that would be in the best of interests of the Issuer or (ii) is not known to the employees of the Portfolio Manager responsible for monitoring the Collateral and performing the other obligations of the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement. The Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates and their respective clients may at certain times be simultaneously seeking to purchase or dispose of investments for the respective accounts of the Issuer, any similar entity for which it serves as manager or advisor, and for its clients or Affiliates.

Neither the Portfolio Manager nor any of its Affiliates has any affirmative obligation to offer any investments to the Issuer or to inform the Issuer of any investments before offering any investments to other funds or accounts that the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates manage or advise. Furthermore, the Portfolio Manager may be bound by affirmative obligations in the future, whereby the Portfolio Manager is obligated to offer certain investments to funds or accounts that it manages or advises before or without the Portfolio Manager offering those investments to the Issuer.

The Portfolio Manager will endeavor to resolve conflicts with respect to investment opportunities in a manner that it deems equitable to the extent possible under the prevailing facts and circumstances. Further, the Portfolio Manager will be prohibited under the Management Agreement from directing the acquisition of Collateral Obligations from, or the disposition of Collateral Obligations to, its Affiliates or any other account managed by the Portfolio Manager except in a transaction conducted on an arm's-length basis for fair market value and if the Portfolio Manager has complied with its policies and procedures with respect to the acquisition or disposition and the acquisition or disposition otherwise complies with the requirements of the United States Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

The Portfolio Manager currently serves as the portfolio manager for a number of special purpose vehicles that have issued securities secured by or referencing collateral consisting of assets similar to the Collateral Obligations, which may create conflicts in allocating its time and services among the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager's other accounts.

Upon the removal or resignation of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer, at the written direction of a Super Majority of the Class E Certificates, may appoint a replacement Portfolio Manager if (i) a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes has consented to the appointment of such replacement Portfolio Manager and (ii) a Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single Class (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates)) does not object to the replacement Portfolio Manager. See "The Management Agreement." Securities held by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority will have no voting rights with respect to any vote in connection with removal of the Portfolio Manager and will be deemed not to be outstanding in connection with any vote to remove the Portfolio Manager. Securities held by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates will have voting rights with respect to all other matters as to which the Holders of the Securities are entitled to vote, including any vote to direct an Optional Redemption and any vote to appoint a replacement Portfolio Manager in accordance with the Management Agreement. See “The Management Agreement” and “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption.” The Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may own equity or other securities of issuers of or obligors on Collateral Obligations or other Collateral and may have provided and may provide in the future, advisory and other services to issuers of Collateral.

On the Closing Date, the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates are expected to purchase Class E Certificates having an aggregate Face Amount approximately equal to U.S.$22 million. To the extent that the interests of the Holders of the Notes differ from the interests of the Holders of the Class E Certificates, the holding of the Class E Certificates by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates may create additional conflicts of interest. In addition, the interests of the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates will not necessarily be aligned with those of other Holders of the Class E Certificates.

The Portfolio Manager will be entitled to receive the Senior Management Fee, the Subordinated Management Fee and the Incentive Management Fee, as further described herein. The structure of such fees may cause the Portfolio Manager to direct the Issuer to make more speculative investments in Collateral Obligations than it would otherwise make in the absence of such performance based compensation.

In addition, the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may act as the Securities Lending Counterparty under any Securities Lending Agreement entered into by the Issuer.

The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Initial Purchaser and the Placement Agent

The Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent and their affiliates are acting in a number of capacities in connection with the transactions described herein. The Initial Purchaser is also expected to be the initial Class A-1B Noteholder. The Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent and their affiliates may also in the future act as counterparties to Hedge Agreements, Participations and Synthetic Securities that are included in the Collateral. The Initial Purchaser and the Placement Agent and each of their affiliates acting in such capacities will have only the duties and responsibilities expressly agreed to by such entity in the relevant capacity and will not, by reason of its or any of its affiliates’ acting in any other capacity, be deemed to have other duties or responsibilities or be deemed to be held to a standard of care other than as expressly provided with respect to each such capacity. Neither the Initial Purchaser nor the Placement Agent take any responsibility for, or have any obligations in respect of, the Issuer.

The Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent and their affiliates may purchase, acquire, hold, sell and make loans secured by any Notes from time to time and exercise rights of Noteholders in connection therewith. In addition, the Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent and their affiliates may enter into derivative transactions with respect to the Notes from time to time.

The Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent and their affiliates may hold Collateral Obligations or other obligations or securities of any Obligor, may deal in any such obligations or securities, may enter into credit derivatives involving reference entities or reference obligations that may include the Obligors or Collateral Obligations, may accept deposits from, make loans or otherwise extend credit to, and generally engage in any kind of commercial or investment banking or other business with, any Obligor, any affiliate of any Obligor or any other Person or other entity having obligations relating to any Obligor, and may act with respect to such business, regardless of whether any such relationship or action might have an adverse effect on any Obligor (including, without limitation, any action which might result in or cause a Collateral Obligation to be a Defaulted Collateral Obligation), or on the position of the Issuer or any other party to the transactions described herein or otherwise. The Initial Purchaser, the Placement

Agent or one or more of their affiliates may act as a dealer for purposes of providing quotations with respect to the determination of the Market Value of any Collateral Obligation or for purposes of buying or selling Collateral Obligations. In addition, the Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent and/or their affiliates may from time to time possess interests in the Obligors and/or Collateral Obligations allowing the Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent or their affiliates, as applicable (or any investment manager or adviser acting on its or their behalf), to exercise voting or consent rights with respect thereto, and such rights may be exercised in a manner that may be adverse to the interests of the Holders or that may affect the market value of Collateral Obligations and/or the amounts payable thereunder. The Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent and their affiliates may maintain other banking and investment advisory relationships with the Portfolio Manager and its affiliates.

The Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent and their affiliates currently act as administrative agent, swap counterparty, underwriter, initial purchaser or placement agent or in a similar capacity for entities having investment objectives similar to those of the Issuer, and the Initial Purchaser and its affiliates may act as administrative agent, swap counterparty, underwriter, initial purchaser or placement agent for such entities and other similar entities in the future. The Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent (or an affiliate) may be advising or distributing securities on behalf of an issuer or providing banking or other services to an issuer at the same time at which the Portfolio Manager is determining whether to purchase or sell a Collateral Obligation of such issuer under the Indenture. The Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent has no duty to inform the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer or the Holders of the Notes of any such relationship or activity. Employees of the Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent and their affiliates may also serve as directors of other entities having investment objectives similar to those of the Issuer.

The Issuer may invest in Eligible Investments that are purchased from or sold to, or are obligations of, the Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent or their affiliates. The Initial Purchaser and Placement Agent and their affiliates may hold or deal in obligations of, or interests in, and may generally engage in any kind of commercial or investment banking or other business with, issuers of Eligible Investments.

Money Laundering Prevention

The Issuer and the Administrator are subject to anti-money laundering legislation in the Cayman Islands pursuant to the Proceeds of Criminal Conduct Law (2005 Revision) (the "PCCL"). Pursuant to the PCCL the Cayman Islands government enacted The Money Laundering Regulations (2005 Revision), which impose specific requirements with respect to the obligation "to know your client." Except in relation to certain categories of institutional investors, the Issuer may require a detailed verification of each investor's identity and the source of the payment used by such investor for purchasing the Securities in a manner similar to the obligations imposed under the laws of other major financial centers. In addition, if any person who is resident in the Cayman Islands knows or has a suspicion that a payment to the Issuer (by way of investment or otherwise) contains the proceeds of criminal conduct, that person must report such suspicion to the Cayman Islands authorities pursuant to the PCCL. If the Issuer were determined by the Cayman Islands government to be in violation of the PCCL or The Money Laundering Regulations (2005 Revision), the Issuer could be subject to substantial criminal penalties. Such a violation could materially adversely affect the timing and amount of payments by the Issuer to the Holders of the Securities.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SECURITIES

The Notes will be issued pursuant to the Indenture. The terms of the Class E Certificates are contained in the Issuer Charter and in certain resolutions adopted by the Issuer's Board of Directors on or before the Closing Date authorizing and approving the issuance of the Securities, as reflected in the minutes thereof (the "Resolutions" and, together with the Issuer Charter and the Class E Certificate Paying Agency Agreement, the "Class E Certificate Documents"). The following summary describes certain provisions of the Notes, the Class E Certificates, the Indenture and the Class E Certificate Documents. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the provisions of the Indenture and the Class E Certificate Documents. Copies of the Indenture may be obtained by prospective purchasers upon request in writing to the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office, 600 Travis Street, 50th Floor, Houston, Texas 77002, Attention: Worldwide Securities Services—Liberty CLO, Ltd. Copies of the Class E Certificate Documents may be obtained upon request in writing to the Administrator at P.O. Box 908GT, Walker House, Mary Street, George Town, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands.

Status and Security

The Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer and non-recourse debt obligations of the Co-Issuer. Each Note within a Class will rank pari passu with all other Notes of that Class (with the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes and the Class A-4 Notes being treated as separate Classes). Under the Indenture, the Issuer will grant to the Trustee a first-priority security interest in the Collateral to secure the Issuer's obligations under the Indenture, the Notes, the Hedge Agreements and the Management Agreement (collectively, the "Secured Obligations"). The Notes are payable solely from amounts received in respect of the Collateral pledged by the Issuer to secure the Notes. If the amounts received in respect of the Collateral (net of certain expenses) are insufficient to make payments on the Secured Obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and, following liquidation of all the Collateral, the obligations of the Co-Issuers to pay the deficiency will be extinguished.

The Class E Certificates will not be secured. The Class E Certificates are entitled only to proceeds of the Collateral to the extent that any proceeds are remaining on any Payment Date after payment of all interest and principal payable on each Class of Notes on that Payment Date and the satisfaction of other amounts ranking prior to the Class E Certificates in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

In furtherance of the priorities of payments among the Classes of Notes and the Class E Certificates, the Indenture contains express subordination provisions pursuant to which the Holders of each Class of Notes that is a Junior Class as described below agree for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class that the Junior Class shall be subordinate and junior to the Notes of each Priority Class to the extent and in the manner provided in the Indenture.

If any Event of Default has not been cured or waived and acceleration occurs under and in accordance with the Indenture, each Priority Class of Notes shall be paid in full in cash or, to the extent a Majority of the Class consents, other than in cash, before any further payment or distribution is made on account of any Junior Class of Notes with respect to the Priority Class. The Holders of each Junior Class of Notes agree, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for failure to pay to them amounts due to the Junior Class, of the Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, or under the Indenture until the payment in full of the Priority Classes or all the Classes, as the case may be and not before one year and a day, or if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect and a day, has elapsed since such payment.

For purposes of this provision, with respect to each Class of Securities, the Classes of Securities that are Priority Classes and Junior Classes are as follows:

A-1	A-2, A-3, A-4, B, C, Class E Certificates	None
A-2	A-3, A-4, B, C, Class E Certificates	A-1
A-3	A-4, B, C, Class E Certificates	A-1, A-2
A-4	B, C, Class E Certificates	A-1, A-2, A-3
B	C, Class E Certificates	A-1, A-2, A-3, A-4
C	Class E Certificates	A-1, A-2, A-3, A-4, B
Class E Certificates	None*	A-1, A-2, A-3, A-4, B, C

*Subject to applicable Cayman Islands law, the Class E Certificates will be entitled to certain residual cashflow after payment of senior obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

If, notwithstanding the provisions of the Indenture, any Holder of Notes of any Junior Class has received any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes contrary to the provisions of the Indenture, then, until each Priority Class with respect to such Junior Class of Notes has been paid in full in Cash or, to the extent a Majority of the Priority Class consents, other than in Cash in accordance with the Indenture, the payment or distribution shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of, and shall forthwith be paid over and delivered to, the Trustee, which shall pay and deliver the same to the Holders of the applicable Priority Classes of Notes. If any such payment or distribution is made other than in cash, it shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and subject in all respects to the Indenture.

Each Holder of Notes of any Junior Class agrees with all Holders of the applicable Priority Classes that the Holder of a Junior Class of Notes shall not demand, accept, or receive any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes in violation of the Indenture. After a Priority Class has been paid in full, the Holders of Notes of the related Junior Class or Classes shall be fully subrogated to the rights of the Holders of the Priority Class. Nothing in these provisions shall affect the obligation of the Issuer to pay Holders of any Junior Class of Notes.

Distributions to Holders of the Class E Certificates are subordinate to distributions on the Notes as described in the Priority of Payments.

The Management Fees shall have priority only to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments.

Interest Payments on the Notes and Payments of Dividends on the Class E Certificates from Interest Proceeds

The Notes of each Class (other than the Class A-1A Notes and the Class A-1B Notes) will accrue interest during each Interest Period, on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day) at the applicable per annum interest rates for each such Class (the “Note Interest Rate”) equal to LIBOR for the applicable Interest Period plus the spread, as specified above under “Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities.” The Class A-1A Notes will accrue interest only on the Drawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes at the applicable Note Interest Rate. A Commitment Fee of 0.17% per annum is payable on the Aggregate Undrawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes. The Class A-1B Notes will accrue interest only on the Drawn Amount of the Class A-1B Notes at the applicable Note Interest Rate. A Delayed Drawdown Fee of 0.17% per annum is payable on the Aggregate Undrawn Amount of the Class A-1B Notes during the Delayed Drawdown Period. Interest accrued on the Notes, the Commitment Fee and the Delayed Drawdown Fee shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the applicable period divided by 360. Payment of interest on each Class of Notes shall be subordinated to the payments of interest on the related Priority Classes and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any Deferred Interest in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered “payable” for the purposes of the Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments. To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest), until paid.

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note, or in the case of a partial repayment, on the part repaid, from the date of repayment or its Stated Maturity unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or unless there is some other default with respect to the payments of principal.

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Class E Certificates as dividends on the Class E Certificates pursuant to the Class E Certificate Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Interest Proceeds as described under clauses (22) and (24) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

For purposes of calculating interest on each Class of Notes, the Issuer will initially appoint the Trustee as calculation agent (the Trustee in that capacity, and each successor calculation agent, the “Calculation Agent”).

As soon as possible after 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period, but in no event later than 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the next Business Day, the Calculation Agent will calculate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Notes for the related Interest Period and the amount of interest for the Interest Period payable in respect of each $100,000 in principal amount of each Class of Notes (in each case rounded to the nearest cent, with half a cent being rounded upward) on the related Payment Date and will communicate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Notes and the date of the next Payment Date to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agent, each paying agent, the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed thereon), Euroclear, Clearstream and the Depositary.

The Calculation Agent may be removed by the Co-Issuers at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Co-Issuers or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Notes or the amount of interest payable in respect of each Class of Notes for any Interest Period, the Issuer will promptly appoint as a replacement Calculation Agent a leading bank which is engaged in transactions in U.S. Dollar deposits in the international U.S. Dollar market and which does not control and is not controlled by or under common control with the Co-Issuers or any of their respective affiliates. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been duly appointed. The determination of the Note Interest Rate with respect to each Class of Notes, the Commitment Fee with respect to the Class A-1A Notes and the Delayed Drawdown Fee with respect to the Class A-1B Notes for each Interest Period by the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon all parties. In addition, for so long as any Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of such exchange so require, notice of the appointment of any replacement Calculation Agent will be published by or on behalf of the Issuer in the Irish Stock Exchange's Daily Official List.

"LIBOR," determined by the Calculation Agent for any Interest Period, means the offered rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent, for three month Dollar deposits that appears on Moneyline Telerate Page 3750 as reported on Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News (or a page that replaces Moneyline Telerate Page 3750 for the purpose of displaying comparable rates), as of 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period.

If, on the second Business Day before the first day of any relevant Interest Period, that rate does not appear on Moneyline Telerate Page 3750 as reported on Bloomberg Financial Market Commodities News (or a page that replaces Moneyline Telerate Page 3750 for the purpose of displaying comparable rates), the Calculation Agent shall determine the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations of the Reference Banks to prime banks in the London interbank market for three month Dollar deposits in Europe, by reference to requests by the Calculation Agent to four major banks in the London interbank market selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Portfolio Manager) (the "Reference Banks") for quotations as of approximately 11:00 A.M. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of the Interest Period. If at least two of the Reference Banks provide quotations as requested, LIBOR shall equal such arithmetic mean. If fewer than two Reference Banks provide quotations, LIBOR shall be the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations that leading banks in New York City selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Portfolio Manager) are quoting to the principal London offices of leading banks in the London interbank market on the second Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period for three month Dollar deposits.

If the Calculation Agent is unable to determine a rate in accordance with any of the above procedures, LIBOR for the Interest Period shall be calculated on the last day of the Interest Period and shall be the arithmetic mean of the rate of interest for each day during the Interest Period determined by the Calculation Agent as being the rate of interest most recently announced by the Bank at its New York office as its base rate, prime rate, reference rate, or similar rate for Dollar loans (or if the Bank ceases to exist or is not quoting a base rate, prime rate, reference rate, or similar rate for Dollar loans, another major money center commercial bank in New York City selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Portfolio Manager)). All calculations shall be calculated to at least four decimal places and rounded to four decimal places.

For the first Interest Period, LIBOR shall be 4.44672%.

Principal Payments on the Notes and Distributions on the Class E Certificates from Principal Proceeds

The principal of each Note of each Class matures at par and is payable on the Payment Date that is the Stated Maturity for the Class of Notes, unless the unpaid principal of the Note becomes payable at an earlier date by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption, or otherwise. The Class E Certificates are scheduled to be redeemed on the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date, unless redeemed prior thereto. The average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years from issuance until Stated Maturity for such Notes. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary” and “Maturity and Prepayment Considerations.” Notwithstanding the foregoing, and except as set forth below, the payment of principal of each Class of Notes: (i) may only occur after principal on each Class of Notes that is a Priority Class with respect to the Class has been paid in full and (ii) is subordinated to the payment on each Payment Date of the principal and interest payable on the Priority Classes, and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments. However, (i) Interest Proceeds may be used in certain circumstances to pay principal of the Class C Notes on any Payment Date, prior to the payment in full of the Class A Notes and Class B Notes, to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class C Coverage Tests and (ii) Principal Proceeds may be used to pay Deferred Interest and other amounts pursuant to the Priority of Payments before the payment of principal of the Notes. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

In general, principal payments (other than Prepayments on the Class A-1A Notes) will not be made on the Notes before the end of the Reinvestment Period, except in the following circumstances: (i) in connection with an Optional Redemption, (ii) at the option of the Portfolio Manager, to effect a Special Redemption of the Notes or (iii) to effect a Mandatory Redemption in connection with a failure to meet any of the Coverage Tests or a Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Reinvestment Period, Principal Proceeds will be applied on each Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments to pay principal of each Class of Notes (except for Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations which may be reinvested as described herein). No principal of any Class of Notes will be payable on any Payment Date other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and to the extent funds are available therefor on that Payment Date for that purpose, except that the principal of each Class of Notes will be payable in full at the Stated Maturity, unless repaid before that. Payments of principal on the Class A-1 Notes will also be made as set forth in “Description of the Securities—Prepayment of the Class A-1A Notes” and “—Class A-1 Funding Allocations.”

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Class E Certificates as dividends or Redemption Price, as the case may be, on the Class E Certificates pursuant to the Class E Certificate Documents, to the extent legally permitted to the extent of available Principal Proceeds as described under clauses (8) and (10) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

Legal Provisions Applicable to the Payments of Dividends from Interest Proceeds and Dividends or Other Distributions from Principal Proceeds

Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds paid to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for payment of dividends on, or the payment of the Redemption Price in respect of, the Class E Certificates, will be distributable to the Holders of the Class E Certificates only if the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distribution and Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds paid to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for payment of dividends in respect of the Class E Certificates will be distributable to the Holders of the Class E Certificates only if the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or certificate premium and if the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distribution. Payments will be paid by the Trustee to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for payment of dividends and other distributions to the Holders of the Class E Certificates pursuant to the Class E Certificate Documents, to the extent legally permitted, on a pro rata basis according to the number of Class E Certificates held by each Holder on the Record Date for such Payment Date.

Extension of the Reinvestment Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date

General

The Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Stated Maturity to the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date (a “Maturity Extension”) up to a maximum of four times if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice to the Trustee of its election to extend the Stated Maturity no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Notes will be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date, the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date will be automatically extended to the related Extended Scheduled Class E Certificate Redemption Date, the Weighted Average Life Test will be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, and the Reinvestment Period will be automatically extended to the applicable Extended Reinvestment Period End Date without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or the Class E Certificate Documents.

In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Securities wishing to sell such Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to “—Extension Procedure” below (such Securities as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, “Extension Sale Securities”); provided that in the case of Holders of Class P Securities wishing to sell such Class P Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser, such Class P Securities will be deemed exchanged for their respective components, only the Class E Certificate represented by the related Class E Certificate Component shall constitute Extension Sale Securities and are to be purchased by an Extension Qualifying Purchaser for a price equal to the Extension Purchase Price, which will in case of such sale be distributed to the related selling Holders of Class P Securities, and such Holders will receive a distribution in kind of the related pro rata amount of the Class P U.S. Treasury Component. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Holder providing an Extension Sale Notice shall be deemed to agree that no Extension Sale Securities of any Holder shall be purchased unless all Extension Sale Securities of all Holders are purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date and the other Extension Conditions are satisfied as of such date.

The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the “Extension Conditions”) are satisfied:

- (i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Prices as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;
- (ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions herein, in the Indenture and the Class E Certificate Documents and the legends on such Securities and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);

- (iii) (a) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) either (A) all Coverage Tests and the Selected Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied as of the related Extension Determination Date, the rating of each Class of Notes and the Class Q-1 Securities then rated by Moody's has not been downgraded, withdrawn or qualified from that in effect on the Closing Date (unless it subsequently has been reinstated to the rating assigned on the Closing Date) and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $900,000,000 or (B) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody's (so long as any Notes are then rated by Moody's); and
- (iv) the Issuer has not effected more than three prior Maturity Extensions.

In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Holder of Notes (including in the form of the Class Q-1 Note Component) other than Extension Sale Securities will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment. Holders of Class E Certificates, Class P-1 Securities and Class P-2 Securities shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to any applicable qualifying beneficial owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification on or before the 5th Business Day prior to the first Payment Date from and including each Extension Effective Date on which funds are available to be used for such purposes in accordance with the Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption of the Securities. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments on a Payment Date shall not be considered "due and payable" hereunder and the failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Securities. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid, in the case of the Securities to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer.

Extension Procedure

No later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer of its election to extend the Stated Maturity (the "Extension Notice"), the Trustee shall mail the Extension Notice to all Holders of Notes, Class Q-1 Securities and Class P Securities and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Class E Certificates) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), in the form set out in the Indenture, and shall request the Rating Condition for the Maturity Extension from S&P, if applicable.

Any Holder of Securities may give irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") within 30 days after the Trustee has mailed the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell its Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of Securities that has not given such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension.

If clause (iii)(b)(A) of the Extension Conditions is not satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date as determined by the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf), the Trustee shall request the Rating Condition to be satisfied with respect to Moody's.

On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf) will confirm (i) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Securities in compliance with all transfer restrictions in the Indenture and the legends on such Securities and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (ii) whether the requirements of clause (iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (iii) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall automatically become effective under the terms of the Indenture and the Class E Certificate Documents; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth above are satisfied. No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer in consultation with the Portfolio Manager, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail a notice to all Holders of the Notes, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates), the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), the Paying Agent in Ireland for forwarding to the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Securities is listed thereon) and the Administrator for forwarding to the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities are listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf) shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depositary for any Securities subject to the Maturity Extension.

None of the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Portfolio Manager or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any duty to act as an Extension Qualifying Purchaser.

Optional Redemption

Notes. The Holders of at least a Majority of the Class E Certificates may give written notice to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager directing an optional redemption of the Notes (with respect to the Notes, an “Optional Redemption”) upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period. Such notice must be given not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made. Upon receipt of the written notice directing an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Co-Issuers are required by the Indenture to redeem the Notes (in whole but not in part) from amounts available therefor in accordance with “—Redemption Procedures” described below. Any Optional Redemption of the Notes shall be made at the applicable Redemption Price. Upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Reinvestment Period will terminate in accordance with the definition of that term. The Issuer shall, at least 30 days before the Redemption Date (unless the Trustee shall agree to a shorter notice period), notify the Trustee, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) and each Rating Agency of the Redemption Date, the applicable Record Date, the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed on the Redemption Date and the applicable Redemption Prices.

Class E Certificates. On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, all administrative and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), and all amounts owing under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged:

- (i) at the direction of a Majority of the Class E Certificates, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Class E Certificates, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Class E Certificates pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings; or

(ii) at the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Class E Certificates, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a directed portion (representing less than all) of the Class E Certificates to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Class E Certificates based upon such direction,

(with respect to the Class E Certificates and each of clauses (i) and (ii) above, an “Optional Redemption”).

Upon a distribution pursuant to clause (i) above, the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Management Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer, direct the sale of all remaining Collateral Obligations. Upon a distribution pursuant to clause (ii) above, the Portfolio Manager will effect the sale of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Class E Certificates.

Upon receipt of the written notice directing an Optional Redemption of the Class E Certificates, the Issuer is required by the Class E Certificate Paying Agency Agreement to redeem the Class E Certificates in the applicable manner described above.

Redemption Procedures. Notice of a redemption shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days and not earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date, to (i) each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder’s address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository, Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) and (ii) in the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, to each Rating Agency. In addition, (i) for so long as any Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of such exchange so require, notice of redemption to the Holders of such Notes shall also be given by publication in the Irish Stock Exchange’s Daily Official List and (ii) for so long as any Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities are listed on the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of redemption of Securities shall also be given to the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange.

Notice of redemption having been given as provided above, the Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at the Redemption Price therein specified and from and after the Redemption Date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest) the Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Redemption Date.

Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, the Holder shall present and surrender the Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption to receive the applicable Redemption Price unless the Holder provides an undertaking to surrender the Note thereafter.

The Notes may not be optionally redeemed unless either of the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) at least ten Business Days before the Redemption Date, the Portfolio Manager shall have furnished to the Trustee evidence (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) that the Issuer has entered into a binding agreement (with a financial or other institution or entity whose short-term unsecured debt obligations (other than obligations whose rating is based on the credit of a person other than the institution) have a credit rating of at least “A-1” from S&P and of “P-1” (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody’s (or to any other institution or entity if the Rating Condition with respect to Moody’s is satisfied with respect to the other entity)) to sell to the financial or other institutions, not later than the Business Day before the

Redemption Date in immediately available funds, all or part of the Collateral (directly or by participation or other arrangement) at a Purchase Price at least equal to an amount sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices; or

(ii) before entering into any binding agreement to sell all or a portion of the Collateral and selling or terminating any Hedge Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall have certified that, in its commercially reasonable judgment, the settlement dates of the sales will be scheduled to occur on or before the Business Day before the Redemption Date and that the expected proceeds from the sales are to be delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date, in immediately available funds, in an amount (calculated as applicable in the manner provided below) sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount shall be calculated with respect to the classes of Collateral listed in the table below by multiplying the expected proceeds of sale of the Collateral by the indicated percentage in the table below.

		Number of Business Days Between Certification to the Trustee and Sale
		Same Day	1 to 2	3 to 5	6 to 15
1.	Cash or other Eligible Investments	100%	100%	100%	100%
2.	Loans (other than 5 below)	100%	93%	92%	88%
3.	High-Yield Bonds (other than 5 below) and Structured Finance Obligations (in each case, other than 4 below)	100%	89%	85%	75%
4.	High-Yield Bonds (other than 5 below) and Structured Finance Obligations, in each case with a Moody's Rating of "B3" and on credit watch with negative implications or below "B3"	100%	75%	65%	55%
5.	Synthetic Securities	100%	65%	55%	35%

Any certification delivered by the Portfolio Manager shall include (A) the prices of, and expected proceeds from, the sale of any Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or Hedge Agreements and (B) all calculations required by the Indenture.

Any notice of redemption may be withdrawn by the Issuer up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates), the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager only if:

(i) in the case of an Optional Redemption of Notes, the Portfolio Manager does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications required under the Indenture, as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee;

(ii) in the case of an Optional Redemption in whole of either the Notes or the Class E Certificates as described above in “—Optional Redemption—Notes” and clause (i) of the first paragraph under “—Optional Redemption—Class E Certificates,” the Issuer receives the written direction of Holders of Class E Certificates holding Class E Certificates in an aggregate Face Amount at least equal to the Face Amount of the Holders of Class E Certificates that had requested redemption under “—Optional Redemption—Notes” or clause (i) of the first paragraph under “—Optional Redemption—Class E Certificates,” as applicable, to withdraw the notice of redemption; and

(iii) in the case of an Optional Redemption of Class E Certificates as described in clause (ii) of the first paragraph under “Optional Redemption— Class E Certificates,” the Issuer receives the unanimous written direction of the Holders of the Class E Certificates to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer hereby agrees for the benefit of the directing person to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written direction referred to in the preceding clause (ii) or this clause (iii)).

Notice of any withdrawal shall be sent, not later than the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date (assuming that the Trustee has received timely written notice from the Issuer as provided above), by the Trustee, to each Holder of Notes scheduled to be redeemed at the Holder’s address in the Indenture Register by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery (or, to the extent the address contained in the Indenture Register is not sufficient for that purpose, by first-class mail) and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Class E Certificates). If the Issuer so withdraws any notice of redemption or is otherwise unable to complete any redemption of the Notes, the Sale Proceeds received from the sale of any Collateral Obligations sold in accordance with the Indenture may, during the Reinvestment Period (and, in respect of Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, after the Reinvestment Period) at the Portfolio Manager’s discretion, be reinvested in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria.

Notice of redemption shall be given by the Co-Issuers or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note selected for redemption or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Class E Certificates) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Securities.

Special Redemption of Notes If the Portfolio Manager Does Not Identify Investments as Contemplated by the Indenture

Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in whole or in part, at par, in accordance with the Priority of Payments if, at any time during the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager elects (subject to the Management Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the investment or reinvestment of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be invested in additional Collateral Obligations.

On the Special Redemption Date, funds in the Collection Account or the Payment Account representing Principal Proceeds which the Portfolio Manager determines cannot be reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations (the “Special Redemption Amount”) will be available to be applied in accordance with “—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.” Notice of payment of the Special Redemption Amount shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than three Business Days before the applicable Special Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder’s address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depositary. In addition, (i) for so long as any Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of such exchange so require, notice of Special Redemption to the Holders of such Notes shall also be given by publication in the Irish Stock Exchange’s Daily Official List and (ii) for so long as any Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities are listed on the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of Special Redemption of Notes shall also be given to the Administrator for forwarding to the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange.

In connection with a Special Redemption, the principal of the Notes will be paid from Principal Proceeds in an aggregate amount equal to the Special Redemption Amount (first to any Class A-1 Notes, then to any Class A-2 Notes, then to any Class A-3 Notes, then to any Class A-4 Notes, then to any Class B Notes, then to any Class C Notes, in each case until paid in full) in accordance with the Priority of Payments. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

General

In the event of a failure to meet any Coverage Test on any applicable Determination Date, a mandatory redemption of one or more Classes of Notes in whole or in part will be required. In the event of a Rating Confirmation Failure, a redemption of one or more Classes of Notes in whole or in part will be required to obtain confirmation of the initial rating of the Notes. Any such redemption could result in an elimination, deferral or reduction in interest or principal payments to one or more Classes of Securities, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of the Class or Classes of Securities. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests” and “—The Indenture Requires Redemption of the Notes or Investment in Additional Collateral Obligations Upon Rating Confirmation Failure.”

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests

Except with respect to payments made pursuant to an Optional Redemption as described under “—Optional Redemption,” on any Payment Date with respect to which any Coverage Test (as described under “Security for the Notes—The Coverage Tests”) is not met on any Determination Date, principal payments on the Notes will be made as described under “—Priority of Payments.”

Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure

Upon the event of a Rating Confirmation Failure, all Interest Proceeds remaining after payment of amounts referred to in clauses (1) through (15) of “—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” will be used to pay principal of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class A-4 Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes sequentially in order of their priority on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date thereafter in each case until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. If necessary, after the foregoing payments are made out of Interest Proceeds, Principal Proceeds in accordance with clause (4) “—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds” will be used to for such purpose on each Payment Date until the Initial Ratings are confirmed.

Upon receipt of notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm the Initial Ratings, then the Portfolio Manager, in its sole discretion may direct the Trustee to sell Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for the purpose in the Collection Account will be used to redeem the Notes (but only to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities). Any sale under these provisions shall be conducted in such a manner that:

- (i) after giving effect to the sale each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied or, if any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Overcollateralization Test is not reduced;
- (ii) if the sale occurs on or after the second Payment Date, after giving effect to the sale each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied or, if any Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Interest Coverage Test is not reduced; and
- (iii) after giving effect to the sale each Collateral Quality Test is satisfied or, if any Collateral Quality Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Collateral Quality Test is not reduced.

Redemption of the Class E Certificates in Connection with Mandatory Redemption of the Notes

All Class E Certificates will be redeemed in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Class E Certificate Documents on any Payment Date on which a mandatory redemption of the Notes described under "—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes" above results in the payment in full of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes.

Redemption of the Class P Securities following Optional Redemption or liquidation of Collateral

Following an Optional Redemption of the Class E Certificates or the liquidation and distribution of the Collateral in full, if any Class P Notes are then Outstanding, on the next succeeding Class P Securities Payment Date the Class P Securities will automatically be redeemed at the applicable Class P Redemption Price.

Prepayment of the Class A-1A Notes

The Class A-1A Notes may be prepaid without premium on any Business Day (in whole or in part) at the option of the Issuer (at the direction of the Portfolio Manager acting pursuant to the Management Agreement) from (i) Principal Proceeds otherwise available for reinvestment in Collateral Obligations, or (ii) amounts credited to the Revolving Reserve Account so long as, after giving effect thereto, the aggregate Balance of all Eligible Investments credited to the Revolving Reserve Account will be at least equal to the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount. Amounts so prepaid ("Prepayments") may be reborrowed until the Commitment Termination Date. Accrued interest will be paid to the extent provided in the Indenture, without duplication, on amounts prepaid and reborrowed in the same Interest Accrual Period in respect of the actual number of days for which such amounts were drawn.

Class A-1A Notes Borrowings

On any Business Day during the Draw Period, the Co-Issuers may borrow amounts under the Class A-1A Notes (each, together with amounts paid by Holders of Class A-1A Notes on the Closing Date and additional amounts funded by the Holders of the Class A-1A Notes as described under "—Class A-1 Funding Allocations", each a "Borrowing") to (i) acquire additional Collateral Obligations during the Ramp-up Period, (ii) acquire substitute Collateral Obligations during the Reinvestment Period (or after the Reinvestment Period pursuant to commitments to purchase made by the Issuer during the Reinvestment Period) and (iii) fund commitments of the Issuer to obligors under Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans acquired during the Reinvestment Period. Each Borrowing for purposes other than to fund commitments of the Issuer to obligors under Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans acquired during the Reinvestment Period is subject to the conditions that: (i) at the time of and immediately after giving effect to such Borrowing, each of the Coverage Tests is satisfied (except the Coverage Tests will be deemed satisfied for the purposes of this paragraph if each Coverage Test was satisfied as of the date of the Issuer's commitment to acquire the Collateral Obligation for which such Borrowing is required) or, if any Coverage Test was not satisfied prior to such Borrowing, such Coverage Test will be at least as close to being satisfied after giving effect to such Borrowing, (ii) at the time of and immediately after giving effect to such Borrowing, no Event of Default or any occurrence that, with notice or the lapse of time or both, would become an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing and (iii) the representations and warranties made by the Issuer in the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects on the date of such Borrowing and after giving effect thereto. Aggregate Borrowings under the Class A-1A Notes may not exceed the Aggregate Commitment Amount, and the Issuer may not make any Borrowings unless after giving effect to the Borrowing, the amount on reserve in the Revolving Reserve Account will either equal 100% of the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount or the Issuer will deposit Principal Proceeds and/or proceeds of the Borrowing in an amount sufficient for the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount to be fully satisfied immediately after the Borrowing. Each Borrowing will be made pro rata to the Undrawn Amounts of the Holders of the Class A-1A Notes.

Notwithstanding the failure to satisfy any of the foregoing conditions and except under certain circumstances specified in the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement, the holders of the Class A-1A Notes will be obligated to make advances to the Issuer if the proceeds of the related Borrowing are to be used by the Issuer to advance funds in respect of the Unfunded Amount of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan.

To request a Borrowing, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer) will notify the Revolving Note Agent (with a copy to the Trustee) no later than 1:00 p.m., New York time and the Class A-1A Note Holders no later than 3:00 p.m., New York time, on the second Business Day prior to the date of the proposed Borrowing, of such request specifying the aggregate amount of the requested Borrowing and the date of such Borrowing, which shall be a Business Day. If notice of the Borrowing request is received by the Class A-1A Note Holder after 3:00 p.m. New York time on the second Business Day prior to the date of the proposed Borrowing, it will be treated as having been transmitted on the following Business Day.

Each purchaser of Class A-1A Notes during the Draw Period is required to satisfy the Rating Criteria upon the purchase of such Notes and at all times during the Draw Period while it holds the Class A-1A Notes. If any Holder of Class A-1A Notes at any time during the Draw Period fails to satisfy the Rating Criteria, such Holder will be obligated under the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement to (i) immediately give written notice of such fact to the Issuer (with a copy to the Portfolio Manager), the Revolving Note Agent, the Trustee and each Rating Agency and (ii) no later than three Business Days following such notice fund the full undrawn portion of such Holder's Commitment into a reserve account designated by the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf); provided that if such Holder transfers its interest in the Class A-1A Notes (including its commitment to fund advances) to an eligible purchaser that satisfies the Ratings Criteria and satisfies the other transfer restrictions set forth in the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement and in the Indenture within 60 days following such notice, the Issuer shall return to such Holder no later than three Business Days following any such transfer the amount funded by such Holder pursuant to this clause (ii) minus the amount of any advances applicable to such Class A-1A Notes made after such Holder funded the undrawn portion of its Class A-1A Notes and before such transfer.

Reduction and Termination of Commitments

The Commitments in respect of the Class A-1A Notes will be automatically reduced upon payment of principal on the Class A-1A Notes as described under “—Class A-1 Funding Allocations” below. Any such reduction of Commitments in respect of the Class A-1A Notes will be final and will be applied to the Commitments pro rata according to the respective amounts thereof. The Commitments will terminate on the Commitment Termination Date. The Commitments will not be reduced as a result of any Prepayments with respect to the Class A-1A Notes.

Class A-1 Funding Allocations

In order to maintain pari passu treatment among the Class A-1A Notes, the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes, the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement will provide that, so long as any Class A-1B Notes and/or Class A-1C Notes are outstanding, subject to a notice requirement, the holders of the Class A-1A Notes will be obligated to make certain advances from time to time the proceeds of which will be applied to repay principal of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes. These funding obligations are described below:

(i) On the last day of the Reinvestment Period, the holders of the Class A-1A Notes will be obligated to advance to the Issuer, in the aggregate, the amount, if any, by which (1) the product of (a) the Aggregate Commitment Amount multiplied by (b) the sum of (x) the Drawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes plus (y) the Aggregate Unfunded Amount minus the amount credited to the Revolving Reserve Account, plus (z) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes divided by (c) the sum of (x) the Aggregate Commitment Amount plus (y) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1B Notes and Class A-1C Notes exceeds (2) the sum of (x) the Drawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes plus (y) the Aggregate Unfunded Amount minus the amount credited to the Revolving Reserve Account. Immediately after such advance, the Aggregate Commitment Amount will be reduced, but not below the aggregate Drawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes and only to the extent the amount on reserve in the Revolving Reserve Account will, after such reduction, equal or exceed the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount.

(ii) After the Reinvestment Period, on each Business Day occurring on or after any date on which the Aggregate Unfunded Amount is reduced, the holders of the Class A-1A Notes will be obligated to advance to the Issuer, in the aggregate, the amount, if any, by which (1) the product of (a) the Aggregate Commitment Amount multiplied by (b) the sum of (x) the Drawn Amount of Class A-1A Notes plus (y) the Aggregate Unfunded Amount after giving effect to such reduction minus the amount credited to the Revolving Reserve Account, plus (z) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes divided by (c) the sum of (x) the Aggregate Commitment Amount plus (y) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes exceeds (2) the sum of (x) the Drawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes plus (y) the Aggregate Unfunded Amount after giving effect to such reduction minus the amount credited to the Revolving Reserve Account. In addition, immediately after such advance, the Aggregate Commitment Amount will be reduced, but not below the aggregate Drawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes and only to the extent the amount on reserve in the Revolving Reserve Account will, after such reduction, equal or exceed the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount.

(iii) Finally, upon any Optional Redemption or in connection with any liquidation of the Collateral following the occurrence of an Event of Default, the holders of the Class A-1A Notes will be obligated to advance to the Issuer, in the aggregate, the amount, if any, by which (1) the product of (a) the Aggregate Commitment Amount multiplied by (b) the sum of (x) the Drawn Amount of Class A-1A Notes plus (y) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes divided by (c) the sum of (x) the Aggregate Commitment Amount plus (y) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes exceeds (2) the Drawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes. In addition, immediately after such advance, the Aggregate Commitment Amount will be terminated. In connection with such advance, amounts required to be funded by the holders of the Class

A-1A Notes to the Issuer will be netted and offset against amounts that would be distributed to the holders of the Class A-1A Notes in respect of the principal of the Class A-1A Notes in connection with such redemption or liquidation.

The Issuer will apply any such advance received by it as described in clauses (i) through (iii) above to repay principal of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes, pro rata based on their respective Aggregate Outstanding Amount, independent of the Priority of Payments. Such payments will be deemed to occur prior to any other principal payments on any date pursuant to the Priority of Payments.

The Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement will provide that the obligations of the Holders of the Class A-1A Notes to make the advances described in paragraphs (i) through (iii) above are absolute and unconditional. In the event that, for any reason (including the insolvency of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or the existence of any judicial order or decree), the Holders of the Class A-1A Notes are unable to make any such advance or the proceeds of any such advance cannot be applied for account of the Issuer to the prepayment of the principal of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes, then the Holders of the Class A-1A Notes, ratably in accordance with their respective Commitments, shall severally be obligated to purchase (for cash at par value plus accrued interest) portions of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes on a pro rata basis to the extent necessary so that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1B Notes and Class A-1C Notes held by the Holders of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes, as applicable, in each case other than those purchased by the Holders of the Class A-1A Notes, immediately after giving effect to such purchase equals the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1B Notes and Class A-1C Notes, as applicable, that they would have held had such advance and prepayment been effected as described above.

The Indenture provides that, so long as any Class of Notes is outstanding, if any Coverage Test is not satisfied, certain amounts will be applied on the related Payment Date, to the extent necessary to satisfy such Coverage Tests and as provided in the Priority of Payments, to pay principal of the Class A-1 Notes. In addition, principal payments may be made on the Class A-1A Notes in connection with a Special Redemption.

In the event that principal of the Class A-1 Notes is to be redeemed as contemplated by the Priority of Payments (including as a result of the failure of a Coverage Test to be satisfied on a Determination Date or in connection with a Special Redemption), the aggregate amount required to be applied to the Class A-1A Notes (the “Aggregate Principal Reduction Amount”) shall be applied as follows: (1) the Aggregate Commitment Amount shall be reduced (but not below zero) by an amount equal to (i) the Aggregate Principal Reduction Amount multiplied by (ii) the Aggregate Commitment Amount in effect on the Closing Date divided by (iii) the sum of the Aggregate Commitment Amount in effect on the Closing Date plus the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1C Notes as of the Closing Date plus the Fully Drawn Amount of the Class A-1B Notes (such portion of the Aggregate Principal Reduction Amount, the “Class A-1A Principal Reduction Amount”) and the Class A-1A Principal Reduction Amount shall be applied to repay any Drawn Amount on the Class A-1A Notes (with any remaining portion of the Class A-1A Principal Reduction Amount deposited in the Revolving Reserve Account); and (2) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes shall be prepaid (but not below zero) in an amount equal to their respective pro rata shares (based on the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes) of (i) the Aggregate Principal Reduction Amount multiplied by (ii) the sum of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1C Notes as of the Closing Date and the Fully Drawn Amount of the Class A-1B Notes divided by (iii) the sum of the Aggregate Commitment Amount in effect on the Closing Date plus the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1C Notes as of the Closing Date plus the Fully Drawn Amount of the Class A-1B Notes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount after giving effect to any application described in clause (1) above exceeds the amount on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account any repayment of the Drawn Amount of the Class A-1A

Notes and reduction in the Aggregate Commitment Amount will be reduced by an amount that if deposited in the Revolving Reserve Account would cause the aggregate balance of all Eligible Investments credited to the Revolving Reserve Account to equal the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount. Any amount that would have otherwise been applied to prepay the Class A-1A Notes but for such reduction will be deposited into the Revolving Reserve Account in order to satisfy such funding requirement.

After any amount has been deposited into the Revolving Reserve Account, any payment of principal received with respect to any Revolving Loan (other than a Defaulted Collateral Obligation as to which the commitment to extend additional credit has been terminated) will be deposited into the Revolving Reserve Account to the extent that such deposit would be required to fund the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount after giving effect to such payment of principal on such Collateral Obligation. In addition, the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement provides that no amount shall be drawn under the Class A-1A Notes to fund an Unfunded Amount with respect to any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan until the balance credited to the Revolving Reserve Account has been reduced to zero. The Indenture provides that any amount credited to the Revolving Reserve Account may be withdrawn therefrom (a) to fund an Unfunded Amount with respect to any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, (b) whenever the Unfunded Amount with respect to any Revolving Loan and Delayed Drawdown Loan is reduced, in an amount equal to the amount of such reduction, (c) upon any Optional Redemption or in connection with any liquidation of the Collateral following the occurrence of an Event of Default and (d) in order to make Prepayments on the Class A-1A Notes.

Any Prepayments on the Class A-1A Notes will not reduce the Aggregate Commitment Amount of the Class A-1A Notes and will not cause any payments to be made with respect to principal of the Class A-1B Notes or the Class A-1C Notes.

Class A-1B Notes Drawdowns

On any Business Day during the Delayed Drawdown Period, the Co-Issuers may draw down amounts under the Class A-1B Notes (each, together with any amounts paid by holders of Class A-1B Notes on the Closing Date, a "Drawdown") to acquire additional Collateral Obligations during the Delayed Drawdown Period. The Drawn Amount of the Class A-1B Notes as of the Closing Date plus the Drawdowns under the Class A-1B Notes may not exceed the Fully Drawn Amount. Each Drawdown will be made pro rata to the portion of the Fully Drawn Amount of the Holders of the Class A-1B Notes.

To request a Drawdown, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer) will notify the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent (with a copy to the Trustee) of such request no later than 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to the date of the proposed Drawdown, specifying the aggregate amount of the requested Drawdown and the date of such Drawdown, which shall be a Business Day and the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent shall promptly, and no later than 3:00 p.m. on such the day on which it receives such notice, provide to the Class A-1B Note Holder a copy of such notice and a statement regarding the remaining Undrawn Amount applicable to such Holder after giving effect to such Drawdown. If notice of the Drawdown request is not transmitted to the Class A-1B Note Holder until after 3:00 p.m., New York time, it will be treated as having been transmitted on the following Business Day.

Each purchaser of Class A-1B Notes during the Delayed Drawdown Period is required to satisfy the Rating Criteria upon the purchase of such Notes and at all times during the Delayed Drawdown Period while it holds the Class A-1B Notes. If any Holder of Class A-1B Notes at any time during the Delayed Drawdown Period fails to satisfy the Rating Criteria, such Holder will be obligated under the Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement (i) to give immediate notice thereof to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent and each Rating Agency and (ii) no later than the Business Day following such notice fund the full Undrawn Amount of its Class A-1B Notes into a reserve account; provided that if such Holder transfers its interest in the Class A-1B Notes (including its commitment to fund Drawdowns) to an eligible purchaser that satisfies the Ratings Criteria and satisfies the other transfer restrictions set forth in the Class A-1B Notes Purchase Agreement and in the Indenture within 30 days following such notice, the Issuer shall return to such Holder no later than the Business Days following any such transfer the amount funded by such Holder pursuant to this clause (ii) minus the amount of such Holders portion of any Drawdown made after such Holder funded the Undrawn Amount of its Class A-1B Notes and before such transfer.

Any Aggregate Undrawn Amount of Class A-1B Notes as of the second Business Day prior to the first Payment Date will be drawn and required to be funded on the Business Day prior to February 27, 2006.

The Class Q-1 Securities

The Class Q-1 Securities will be issued pursuant to the Indenture. The Class Q-1 Securities will consist of the Class Q-1 Note Component and the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component. The Class Q-1 Note Component will represent an initial aggregate principal amount of U.S. $12,600,000 of Class C Notes. The Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component will represent a Face Amount of U.S. $7,400,000 of Class E Certificates. Each Class Q-1 Security is a single security, the components of which are not separately transferable. However, a Holder may exchange its Class Q-1 Security with the Trustee for the corresponding interests in the related components, as described below.

The initial aggregate principal amount of the Class C Notes and Class E Certificates to which the Class Q-1 Note Component and the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component relate are included in (and are not in addition to) the initial aggregate principal amount of the Class C Notes and Class E Certificates. Each Class Q-1 Security represents an undivided beneficial ownership interest in the cash flows on the Class Q-1 Note Component and the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component.

The Class Q-1 Securities are scheduled to mature on the Payment Date in November 2017; unless the maturity is extended.

Except as described herein or unless the context otherwise requires, references herein to the Class C Notes or Notes (or the Holders thereof) include the Class Q-1 Note Component (or the Holders of the Class Q-1 Securities to the extent thereof), whether or not explicitly mentioned, and references to the Class E Certificates (or the Holders thereof) include the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Components (or the Holders of the Class Q-1 Securities to the extent thereof), whether or not explicitly mentioned.

On each Payment Date on which payments, whether of principal or interest, are made on the Class C Notes or any distributions are made on the Class E Certificates, a portion of such payment will be allocated to the Class Q-1 Securities in the proportion that the principal amount of the Class C comprising the Class Q-1 Note Component bears to the aggregate principal amount of the Class C Notes as a whole (including the Class Q-1 Note Component) and the Face Amount of the Class E Certificates comprising the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component bears to the aggregate Face Amount of all Class E Certificates as a whole (including the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component). No other payments will be made on the Class Q-1 Securities.

The rating by Moody's on the Class Q-1 Securities applies only to the return of the Class Q-1 Rated Principal. All distributions made with respect to the Class Q-1 Securities will reduce the outstanding Class Q-1 Rated Principal. The rating assigned by Moody's to the Class Q-1 Securities represents Moody's view only as to the likelihood of receiving an ultimate return of principal on the Class Q-1 Securities.

The Holders of Class Q-1 Securities will be entitled to (i) voting rights in the Class C Notes, in the proportion that the Class Q-1 Note Component bears to the aggregate principal amount of the Class C Notes as a whole (including the Class Q-1 Note Component) and (ii) voting rights in the Class E Certificates, in the proportion that the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component bears to the aggregate Face Amount of the Class E Certificates as a whole (including the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component). The Holders of the Class Q-1 Securities will not be entitled to voting rights as a separate class, except in limited circumstances described in the Indenture.

Investors considering purchasing Class Q-1 Securities should consider carefully the discussions in this Offering Memorandum of the Class C Notes and the Class E Certificates represented by the Class Q-1 Note Component and the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component, as applicable, including the risk factors applicable thereto.

Pursuant to the Indenture, a Holder of the Class Q-1 Security may exchange, subject to the applicable minimum denomination requirements, Class Q-1 Securities for interests in the Class C Notes, in the form of a Rule 144A Global Note, Temporary Regulation S Global Security or a Regulation S Global Security (in an amount equal to the Class Q-1 Note Component of such Class Q-1 Securities) and a Certificated Class E Certificate or, in the case of a Holder that is a non-U.S. Person (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) an interest in Class E Certificates in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security (in an amount equal to the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component of such Class Q-1 Securities), in the manner described in the Indenture. Thereafter, the Holder or beneficial owner of a Class Q-1 Security so exchanged will be the Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Class C Notes and the Class E Certificates, in each case received upon such exchange. No Holder of Class C Notes or Class E Certificates (including a Holder that received such Class C Notes or Class E Certificates upon an exchange of a Class Q-1 Security) will have the right to exchange such Class C Notes and/or Class E Certificates for a Class Q-1 Security. No service charge will be made for any such exchange of Class Q-1 Securities, but the Issuer or the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection with such exchange. Following any such exchange, the rating of the exchanged Class Q-1 Securities by any Rating Agency may not apply to the Securities received in such exchange.

In an Amendment Buy-Out that affects only one Component of a Class Q-1 Security, the Non-Consenting Holder, at its option, may require the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase its Class Q-1 Security as a whole or may exchange its Class Q-1 Security into its Class Q-1 Components and require the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase solely the affected Component. See “Amendment Buy-Out” above. If a holder of Class Q-1 Securities votes the Class E Certificates represented by its related Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component to remove the Portfolio Manager without cause, and a Removal Buy-Out Purchaser exercise its right to purchase the Directing Class E Certificates, the Class Q-1 Securities that include such Class E Components will be deemed exchanged for their respective components, the Class E Certificates represented by such Class E Components will be so purchased and the applicable Buy-Out Amount will be distributed to the Holders of such Class Q-1 Securities, and such Holders will receive in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture the Class C Notes represented by the Class Q-1 Note Component of their Class Q-1 Securities.

The Class P Securities

The Class P-1 Securities will consist of the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component, representing U.S.$20,000,000 (face value) U.S. Treasury securities with zero coupon due November 15, 2013, and the Class P-1 Class E Certificate Component, representing 6,180 Class E Certificates. The Class P-2 Securities will consist of the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component, representing U.S.$5,000,000 (face value) U.S. Treasury securities with zero coupon due November 15, 2013, and the Class P-2 Class E Certificate Component, representing 1,500 Class E Certificates. The Class P-1 Securities and the Class P-2 Securities are each a single Class and their respective P-1 Components and P-2 Components are not transferable separately. Payments on the Class P Securities will be made on the Class P Securities Payment Dates as set forth herein and in the Indenture.

The Class P-1 Securities will be rated “Aaa” by Moody’s (which rating addresses the ultimate payment of principal of the Class P-1 Rated Principal Balance). The Class P-2 Securities will be rated “Aaa” by Moody’s (which rating addresses the ultimate payment of principal of the Class P-2 Rated Principal Balance. The rating assigned by Moody's to the Class P Securities represents Moody's view only as to the likelihood of receiving an ultimate return of principal on such Securities.

On each Payment Date, until the outstanding balance of the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component is reduced to $10,000, the Trustee will obtain a Class P U.S. Treasury Bid on a portion of the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component with a face amount equal to the Class P-1 Accelerated Payment Notional Amount as of such Payment Date. If such Class P U.S. Treasury Bid is equal to or higher than the corresponding reference price set forth in the Indenture, the Trustee will liquidate, on behalf of the Class P-1 Securityholders, a portion of the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component with a face amount equal to the Class P-1 Accelerated Payment Notional Amount at such Class P U.S. Treasury Bid (such sale proceeds less any transaction costs, the "Class P-1 Mandatory Accelerated Payment") not later than two Business Days after such Payment Date; provided, that, not later than 15 Business Days prior to a Payment Date, a Majority of the Class P-1 Securityholders may elect, by written notice to the Trustee, to waive the Class P-1 Mandatory Accelerated Payment for such Payment Date and all Payment Dates thereafter; provided, further, that not later than 15 Business Days prior to any subsequent Payment Date, a Majority of the Class P-1 Securityholders may, by written notice to the Trustee, reinstate the Class P-1 Mandatory Accelerated Payment for such Payment Date and/or all Payment Dates thereafter as set forth in such notice. If the Class P U.S. Treasury Bid is lower than the corresponding reference price set forth in the Indenture, the Trustee will notify the Class P-1 Securityholders of such Class P U.S. Treasury Bid not later than two Business Days after such Payment Date. Not later than three Business Days after such notice, the Class P-1 Securityholders representing a Majority of the Class P-1 Securities may instruct the Trustee of a face amount of the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component to liquidate (the "Class P-1 Optional Accelerated Payment Notional Amount," which amount may not exceed the applicable Class P-1 Accelerated Payment Notional Amount) and the minimum acceptable Liquidation Value. Not later than two Business Days after such direction, the Trustee will liquidate, on behalf of the Class P-1 Securityholders, a portion of the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component with a face amount equal to the Class P-1 Optional Accelerated Payment Notional Amount at the then-prevailing Class P U.S. Treasury Bid (such sale proceeds less any transaction costs, the "Class P-1 Optional Accelerated Payment"); provided, that the liquidation value at such Class P U.S. Treasury Bid is equal to or higher than the minimum acceptable liquidation value provided by the Class P-1 Securityholders. If no such direction is given by the Class P-1 Securityholders representing a Majority of the Class P-1 Securities or if the then-prevailing Class P U.S. Treasury Bid would result in a liquidation value that is lower than the minimum acceptable liquidation value provided by the Class P-1 Securityholders, the Trustee will not liquidate any portion of the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component. All proceeds from the liquidation of the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component will be deposited into the Class P-1 Collection Account.

On each Payment Date, until the outstanding balance of the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component is reduced to $10,000, the Trustee will obtain a Class P U.S. Treasury Bid on the portion of the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component with a face amount equal to the Class P-2 Accelerated Payment Notional Amount as of such Payment Date. If such Class P U.S. Treasury Bid is equal to or higher than the corresponding reference price set forth in the Indenture, the Trustee will liquidate, on behalf of the Class P-2 Securityholders, a portion of the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component with a face amount equal to the Class P-2 Accelerated Payment Notional Amount at such Class P U.S. Treasury Bid (such sale proceeds less any transaction costs, the "Class P-2 Mandatory Accelerated Payment") not later than two Business Days after such Payment Date; provided, that, not later than 15 Business Days prior to a Payment Date, a Majority of the Class P-2 Securityholders may elect, by written notice to the Trustee, to waive the Class P-2 Mandatory Accelerated Payment for such Payment Date and all Payment Dates thereafter; provided, further, that not later than 15 Business Days prior to any subsequent Payment Date, a Majority of the Class P-2 Securityholders may, by written notice to the Trustee, reinstate the Class P-2 Mandatory Accelerated Payment for such Payment Date and/or all Payment Dates thereafter as set forth in such notice. If the Class P U.S. Treasury Bid is lower than the corresponding reference price set forth in the Indenture, the Trustee will notify the Class P-2 Securityholders of such Class P U.S. Treasury Bid not later than two Business Days after such Payment Date. Not later than three Business Days after such notice, the Class P-2 Securityholders representing a Majority of the Class P-2 Securities may instruct the Trustee of a face amount of the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component to liquidate (the “Class P-2 Optional Accelerated Payment Notional Amount,” which amount will not exceed the applicable Class P-2 Accelerated Payment Notional Amount) and the minimum acceptable Liquidation Value. Not later than two Business Days after such direction, the Trustee will liquidate, on behalf of the Class P-2 Securityholders, a portion of the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component with a face amount equal to the Class P-2 Optional Accelerated Payment Notional Amount at the then-prevailing Class P U.S. Treasury Bid (such sale proceeds less any transaction costs, the “Class P-2 Optional Accelerated Payment”); provided, that the liquidation value at such Class P U.S. Treasury Bid is equal to or higher than the minimum acceptable liquidation value provided by the Class P-2 Securityholders. If no such direction is given by the Class P-2 Securityholders representing a Majority of the Class P-2 Securities or if the then-prevailing Class P U.S. Treasury Bid would result in a liquidation value that is lower than the minimum acceptable liquidation value provided by the Class P-2 Securityholders, the Trustee will not liquidate any portion of the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component. All proceeds from the liquidation of the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component will be deposited into the Class P-2 Collection Account.

On each Class P Securities Payment Date, (i) an amount equal to the Class P-1 Net Periodic Distribution for such Class P Securities Payment Date will be distributed to the Class P-1 Securityholders and (ii) an amount equal to the Class P-2 Net Periodic Distribution for such Class P Securities Payment Date will be distributed to the Class P-2 Securityholders.

Prior to the Stated Maturity, the Class P-1 Nominal Principal Outstanding will not be reduced to less than $500,000, and following the reduction of the Class P-1 Nominal Principal Amount Outstanding to $500,000, on each Class P Securities Payment Date, an amount equal to the amount that would otherwise be distributed with respect to the Class P-1 Securities on such date less the Class P-1 Notional Coupon Payment on the applicable Class P Securities Payment Date (so long as such Class P-1 Notional Coupon Payment is greater than zero) will be withheld and deposited into the Class P-1 Principal Reserve Account until the balance of the Class P-1 Principal Reserve Account is equal to $500,000. Upon the Stated Maturity (or, if earlier, redemption of the Class P-1 Securities), the Class P-1 Principal Reserve Account will be liquidated and distributed to the Class P-1 Securityholders as the final payment on the Class P-1 Securities. The Class P-1 Notional Coupon Rate will be adjusted upward accordingly should such final payment be higher than the Class P-1 Nominal Principal Outstanding at that time.

In connection with the liquidation of the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component (or portion thereof) or the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component (or portion thereof), the Class P Securityholders, by their purchase of such Class P Securities, acknowledge and agree that (i) the Trustee may utilize any dealer, including the Initial Purchaser, to accomplish the liquidation of the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component (or portion thereof) or Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component (or portion thereof), as applicable, (ii) the price obtained by the Trustee from such dealer shall be deemed to be the fair market value for the Class P-

Pursuant to the Indenture, a Holder of Class P Securities may exchange Class P Securities for (i) a Certificated Class E Certificate or, in the case of a Holder that is a non-U.S. person (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) an interest in Class E Certificates in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security (in an amount equal to the Class P-1 Class E Certificate Component or Class P-2 Class E Certificate Component of such Class P Securities, subject to the minimum denomination requirements applicable to the Class E Certificates), and (ii) a pro rata in kind distribution of the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component or Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component, as applicable, of such Class P Securities), subject to compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Class E Certificates and in the manner described in the Indenture and the Class E Certificate Documents. Thereafter, the Holder of a beneficial interest in a Class P Security so exchanged will be the Holder of the applicable Class E Certificates, in each case received upon such exchange. No Holder of Class E Certificates and any U.S. Treasury securities of the kind represented by the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component or the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component, as applicable (including a Holder that received such Class E Certificates or U.S. Treasury securities upon an exchange of a Class P Security) will have the right to exchange such Class E Certificates and/or U.S. Treasury securities for a Class P Security. No service charge will be made for any such exchange of Class P Securities, but the Issuer or the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection with such exchange. Following any such exchange, the rating of the exchanged Class P Securities by any Rating Agency will not apply to the Class E Certificates received in such exchange.

A Holder or beneficial owner of a Class P Security may exchange, subject to the applicable minimum denomination requirements, its Class P Securities for interests in the Class E Certificates (in an amount equal to the applicable Class P Class E Certificate Component) and the U.S. Treasury securities represented by the applicable Class P U.S. Treasury Component, as applicable, in the manner provided in the Indenture and in the case of the Class P Class E Certificate Component, in the manner provided in the Class E Certificate Documents for transfer of a Certificated Class E Certificate or an interest in a Class E Certificate in the form of a Regulation S Global Security or Temporary Regulation S Global Security, as applicable. (f) breach of any other covenant or other agreement or warranty of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Indenture (other than any failure to satisfy any of the Collateral Quality Tests, any of the Concentration Limitations, any of the Coverage Tests, the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test, or other covenants or agreements for which a specific remedy has been provided under the Indenture) in any material respect, or the failure of any representation or warranty of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer made in the Indenture or in any certificate or other writing delivered pursuant thereto, or in connection therewith, to be correct in any material respect when made, and the breach or failure continues for 30 days after either of the Co-Issuers has actual knowledge of it or after notice to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Portfolio Manager by the Trustee or to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class by registered or certified mail or overnight courier specifying the breach or failure and requiring it to be remedied and stating that the notice is a “Notice of Default” under the Indenture;

(g) the entry of a decree or order by a court having competent jurisdiction adjudging the Issuer or the Co-Issuer as bankrupt or insolvent, or approving as properly filed a petition seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, or composition of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Bankruptcy Law or any other applicable law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and if the decree or order remains unstayed and in effect for 45 consecutive days;

(h) the institution by the shareholders of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of Proceedings to have the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by the shareholders of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, or the filing by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under the Bankruptcy Law or any other similar applicable law, or the consent by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the filing of any such petition or to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or the taking of any action by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in furtherance of any such action; or

(i) one or more final judgments is rendered against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer that exceed in the aggregate U.S.$2,000,000 (or any lesser amount specified by Moody's) and that remain unstayed, undischarged, and unsatisfied for 30 days after the judgments become nonappealable, unless adequate funds have been reserved or set aside for their payment, unless (except as otherwise specified in writing by Moody's) the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's is satisfied with respect thereto.

If an Event of Default is continuing (other than an Event of Default described in clauses (e), (g), (h) or (i) under "—Events of Default" above), the Trustee may, with the written consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class, and upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, declare the principal of all the Notes to be immediately payable by notice to the Co-Issuers, and upon that declaration the unpaid principal of all the Notes, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), and other amounts payable under the Indenture, shall become immediately payable. The Reinvestment Period shall terminate upon a declaration of acceleration (subject to re-commencement as described below). If an Event of Default described in clauses (e), (g), (h) or (i) above under "—Events of Default" occurs, all unpaid principal, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), of all the Notes, and other amounts payable under the Indenture, shall automatically become payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Noteholder and the Reinvestment Period shall terminate automatically (subject to re-commencement as described below).

At any time after the declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, may rescind the declaration and its consequences if:

(i) the Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:

(A) all unpaid installments of interest and principal on the Notes then due (other than as a result of the acceleration);

(B) to the extent that payment of the interest is lawful, interest on any Deferred Interest and Defaulted Interest at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable;

(C) all Administrative Expenses of the Co-Issuers and other sums paid or advanced by the Trustee under the Indenture;

(D) all unpaid Senior Management Fees; and

- (E) all amounts then payable to any Hedge Counterparty; and
- (ii) the Trustee has determined that all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of the interest on or principal of the Notes that have become due solely by such acceleration, have been (A) cured, and a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Trustee has agreed with that determination, or (B) waived as provided in the Indenture.

No rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right resulting from the Default.

If an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee will retain the Collateral intact, collect, and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Collateral and the Notes and any Hedge Agreements (other than amounts received under a Hedge Agreement that are used in putting a replacement hedge in place) in the manner described under “—Priority of Payments” and the Indenture unless either:

- (i) the Trustee determines (bid prices having been obtained with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one dealer, that dealer and if there is no dealer, from a pricing service), selected and specified by the Portfolio Manager to the Trustee in writing, at the time making a market in those securities, and having computed the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security) that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would (after deduction of the reasonable expenses of the sale or liquidation) be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and the Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to any Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by such Hedge Counterparty and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) under “—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds,” and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination;
- (ii) in the case of an Event of Default other than pursuant to clause (d) of the definition thereof, the Holders of a Majority of each of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class A-4 Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral; or
- (iii) in the event of an Event of Default pursuant to clause (d) of the definition thereof, a Majority of the Class A Notes (voting together as a single Class) direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral.

During the continuance of an Event of Default, a Majority of the Controlling Class may institute and direct the time, method, and place of conducting any proceedings for any remedy available to the Trustee or for the exercise of any right of the Trustee under the Indenture if the direction does not conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of the Indenture and the Trustee has been indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction. Any direction to the Trustee to undertake a sale of the Collateral shall be by the Holders of Notes representing the requisite percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes specified in the Indenture. The Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability unless it has received an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the liability.

A Majority of the Controlling Class on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes before the time a judgment or decree for the payment of money due has been obtained by the Trustee, may waive any past Event of Default or event that, with notice or the lapse of time or both would become an Event of Default and its consequences, except such a default:

- (i) in the payment of principal or Redemption Price of any Note or in the payment of interest (including Defaulted Interest, Deferred Interest, and any interest on Defaulted Interest or Deferred Interest) on the Notes;
- (ii) with respect to a provision of the Indenture that cannot be modified or amended without the waiver or consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected by the modification or amendment;
- (iii) in the payment of amounts due to the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, or the Hedge Counterparty, which may only be waived with the consent of the affected party; or
- (iv) arising as a result of an Event of Default described in clause (e), (g) or (h) under “—Events of Default.”

No Holder of any Note may institute any proceeding judicial or otherwise with respect to the Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy under the Indenture, unless:

- (i) the Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of an Event of Default;
- (ii) the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings with respect to the Event of Default in its own name as Trustee under the Indenture and the Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with the request;
- (iii) the Trustee for 30 days after its receipt of the notice, request, and offer of indemnity has failed to institute a Proceeding; and
- (iv) no direction inconsistent with the written request has been given to the Trustee during the 30 day period by a Majority of the Controlling Class.

If the Trustee receives conflicting or inconsistent requests and indemnity from two or more groups of Holders of the Controlling Class, each representing less than a Majority of the Controlling Class, the Trustee shall take the action requested by the Holders of the largest percentage in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, notwithstanding any other provisions of the Indenture.

Supplemental Indentures

Without Consent of Holders

Without the consent of the Holders of any Indenture Securities (except as specifically provided in clauses (7), (16) and clause (17) below) or the Holders of any Class E Certificates, but with the consent of the parties the consent of which is required as described in the following paragraph, the Co-Issuers, when authorized by resolutions of the respective Boards of Directors, and the Trustee, at any time and from time to time subject to the requirement provided below with respect to satisfaction of the Rating Condition, may enter into one or more indentures supplemental to the Indenture, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, for any of the following purposes:

- (1) to evidence the succession of another person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and the assumption by the successor person of the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Indenture and in the Indenture Securities;

- (2) to add to the covenants of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee for the benefit of the Holders of the Indenture Securities or to surrender any right in the Indenture conferred on the Co-Issuers;
- (3) to convey, transfer, assign, mortgage, or pledge any property to the Trustee, or add to the conditions, limitations or restrictions on the authorized amount, terms and purposes of the issue, authentication and delivery of the Indenture Securities;
- (4) evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment under the Indenture by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of the Indenture necessary to facilitate the administration of the trusts under the Indenture by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of the Indenture;
- (5) correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of the Indenture, or to better assure, convey, and confirm to the Trustee any property subject or required to be subject to the lien of the Indenture (including all actions appropriate as a result of changes in law) or to subject to the lien of the Indenture any additional property;
- (6) modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of the Indenture Securities to reflect any changes in applicable law (or its interpretation) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely on any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the Investment Company Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required under the Indenture;
- (7) with the consent of the Portfolio Manager and the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class (by Act of the Holders of the Controlling Class), to modify the restrictions on the sales of Collateral Obligations described in “Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds” or the Eligibility Criteria described in “Security for the Notes —Eligibility Criteria” (and the related definitions) in a manner not materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Portfolio Manager to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Notes or Class E Certificates;
- (8) make any changes required by (i) the Irish Stock Exchange (so long as any of the Notes are listed thereon) or (ii) the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange (so long as any of the Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities are listed thereon) or (iii) any other stock exchange on which any Class of Securities is listed in order to permit or maintain the listing of any Securities thereon;
- (9) otherwise to correct any inconsistency or cure any ambiguity or errors in the Indenture or to conform the Indenture to this Offering Memorandum;
- (10) accommodate the issuance of the Securities in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC or otherwise;
- (11) to take any appropriate action to prevent the Issuer, the Holders of Securities or the Trustee from becoming subject to withholding or other taxes, fees, or assessments or to prevent the Issuer from being treated as being engaged in a U.S. trade or business or otherwise being subject to U.S. federal, state, or local income tax on a net income basis, so long as the action will not cause the Holders of any Securities to be adversely affected to any material extent by any change to the timing, character, or source of the income from the Securities, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion);

- (12) to authorize the appointment of any listing agent, transfer agent, paying agent, or additional registrar for any Class of Securities appropriate in connection with the listing of any such Class of Securities on any stock exchange, and otherwise to amend the Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, transfer agent, paying agent, or additional registrar for any Class of Securities in connection with its appointment, so long as the supplemental indenture would not materially and adversely affect any Holder of Securities, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Portfolio Manager, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of the Securities;
- (13) to amend, modify, enter into, or accommodate the execution of any contract relating to a Synthetic Security (including posting collateral under a Synthetic Security Agreement);
- (14) to modify certain representations as to Collateral and Class P Collateral in the Indenture in order that it may be consistent with applicable laws or Rating Agency requirements;
- (15) to evidence any waiver by any Rating Agency as to any requirement or condition, as applicable, of the Rating Agency in the Indenture;
- (16) with the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class (by Act of the Holders of the Controlling Class), modify the calculation of the Collateral Quality Tests, Concentration Limitations or the Coverage Tests or related definitions to correspond with written changes in the guidelines, methodology or standards established by the Rating Agencies or as otherwise permitted by the Rating Agencies;
- (17) (a) with the consent of a Majority of the Class A-1A Notes (by Act of the Holders of the Class A-1A Notes), to amend any provisions herein relating solely to the manner, timing and conditions of Borrowings; and (b) with the consent of a Majority of the Class A-1B Notes (by Act of the Holders of the Class A-1B Notes), to amend any provisions herein relating solely to the manner, timing and conditions of Drawdowns;
- (18) to facilitate the issuance of participation notes, combination notes, combination securities and other similar securities;
- (19) to facilitate hedging transactions;
- (20) to facilitate the ability of the Issuer to lend Collateral Obligations pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement;
- (21) to modify any provision to facilitate an exchange of one security for another security of the same issuer or issuers that has substantially identical terms except transfer restrictions, including to effect any serial designation relating to the exchange;

- (22) with the consent of the Portfolio Manager, to enter into any additional agreements not expressly prohibited by the Indenture as well as any amendment, modification, or waiver if the Issuer determines that the amendment, modification, or waiver would not, upon or after becoming effective, materially and adversely affect the rights or interest of the Holders of any Class of Securities, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Portfolio Manager to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities; or
- (23) provide for the issuance of additional Class E Certificates to the extent permitted by the Class E Certificate Documents and to extend to such additional Class E Certificates the benefits applicable to the Class E Certificates under the Indenture and the Class E Certificate Documents.

Without the consent of the Portfolio Manager, no supplemental indenture may be entered into that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to the Portfolio Manager under the Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager. The Trustee is authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be in the agreements, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, or immunities under the Indenture or otherwise, except to the extent required by law. Unless notified by a Majority of any Class of Securities that the Class of Securities would be materially and adversely affected, the Trustee may rely on a certificate of the Portfolio Manager and an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) as to whether the interests of any Holder of Securities would be materially and adversely affected by any such supplemental indenture. The Trustee will give notice of any such supplemental indenture to the Holders of Indenture Securities and to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) at least 15 Business Days before execution thereof (or 60 calendar days before execution thereof, in the case of a supplemental indenture pursuant to clause (7), (16) and (17) above).

Except for a supplemental indenture described in clause (23) above, if any Outstanding Securities are rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall enter into a supplemental indenture without the consent of Holders only if either (1) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the supplemental indenture or (2) the Portfolio Manager and the Holders of 100% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Indenture Securities the ratings on which would be reduced or withdrawn consent to the supplemental indenture. Prior to the entry into any supplemental Indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Indenture Securities is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Indenture Security informing them of such fact.

At the cost of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee will provide to each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), the Holders of the Notes and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates), the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed thereon), the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities are listed thereon) and each Hedge Counterparty a copy of any such proposed supplemental indenture at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee.

With Consent of Holders

If the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency, with the consent of (a) the Portfolio Manager if the supplemental indenture would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under the Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager, (b) a Majority of each Class of Indenture Securities adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of each such Class of Indenture Securities, and (c) a Majority of the Class E Certificates adversely affected thereby, the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may enter into a supplemental indenture to add any provisions to, or change in any manner, or eliminate any of the provisions of, the Indenture or modify in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Securities under the Indenture.

Any proposed supplemental indenture that would also necessitate a change to the Issuer Charter may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Issuer Charter) has been passed to permit the Issuer's constitutional documents to be altered to conform them to the proposed change to the Indenture as certified to the Trustee by the Issuer.

Notwithstanding anything in the Indenture to the contrary, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note or Class E Certificates adversely affected thereby, no supplemental indenture shall:

(i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date of any installment of interest on any Note or of any payment to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Class E Certificates, reduce the principal amount or the rate of interest on any Note, or the Default Interest Rate or the Redemption Price with respect to any Note or Class E Certificate, or change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Class E Certificate may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, change the provisions of the Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of any Collateral to the payment of principal of or interest on the Notes, or to payment to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Class E Certificates, or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which, principal, interest or other distributions on Securities are paid or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after their Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the applicable Redemption Date);

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class or Holders of Class E Certificates whose consent is required for the authorization of any such supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of the Indenture or certain defaults under the Indenture or their consequences provided for in the Indenture;

(iii) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of the Indenture with respect to any part of the Collateral or Class P Collateral or terminate the lien on any property at any time subject hereto or deprive the Holder of any Note of the security afforded by the lien of the Indenture;

(iv) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class whose consent is required to direct remedies or to sell or liquidate the Collateral pursuant to the Indenture;

(v) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture with respect to supplemental indentures or to provide that certain other provisions of the Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note and Class E Certificate affected thereby;

(vi) modify the definition of “Outstanding,” “Controlling Class,” or “Majority,” or the Priority of Payments in the Indenture; or

(vii) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of Redemption Price or of interest or principal on any Note or any payment to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for the payment of dividends or other payments on the Class E Certificates on any Payment Date or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes or Class E Certificates to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of the Notes or the Class E Certificates contained in the Indenture.

No supplemental indenture may modify the terms of the Class Q-1 Securities as such in a manner that would adversely affect the Class Q-1 Securities without the prior written consent of a majority of the stated amount of the Class Q-1 Securities or the consent of the Holders of each Outstanding Class Q-1 Security adversely affected thereby as set forth above. Except for any proposed such supplement that would affect the terms of the Class Q-1 Securities as such and except as set forth above, Holders of Class Q-1 Securities shall be entitled to vote with respect to any supplemental indenture only as Holders of the respective related components.

No supplemental indenture may modify the terms of the Class P Securities as such in a manner that would adversely affect the Class P Securities without the prior written consent of a majority of the stated amount of the Class P Securities or the consent of the Holders of each Outstanding Class P Security adversely affected thereby as set forth above. Except for any proposed such supplement that would affect the terms of the Class P-1 Securities and/or Class P-2 Securities, as applicable, as such and except as set forth above, Holders of Class P Securities shall be entitled to vote with respect to any supplemental indenture only as Holders of the related Class E Certificate Component.

Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to the above provision, the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Holders of the Notes, the Portfolio Manager, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Securities are Outstanding) a copy of such supplemental indenture and shall request any required consent from the applicable Holders of Securities to be given within the Initial Consent Period. Any consent given to a proposed supplemental indenture by the Holder of any Securities shall be irrevocable and binding on all future Holders or beneficial owners of that Security, irrespective of the execution date of the supplemental indenture. If the Holders of less than the required percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the relevant Securities consent to a proposed supplemental indenture within the Initial Consent Period, on the first Business Day after the Initial Consent Period, the Trustee shall notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager which Holders of Securities have consented to the proposed supplemental indenture and, which Holders (and, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Trustee, which beneficial owners) have not consented to the proposed supplemental indenture. If it intends to exercise its Amendment Buy-Out Option, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall so notify the Trustee (which notice shall designate a date for the Amendment Buy-Out to occur no earlier than 10 Business Days after the date of such notice) no later than five (5) Business Days after so being notified by the Trustee and the Trustee shall mail such notice to all Holders of Notes and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates). Any Non-Consenting Holder may give consent (by Act of such Holder), to the related proposed supplemental indenture until the 5th Business Day prior to the date of the Amendment Buy-Out designated by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and in such case shall cease to be a Non-Consenting Holder for purposes of the Amendment Buy-Out. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser exercises its Amendment Buy-Out Option and purchases the applicable Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, as Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Securities, may consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture within five (5) Business Days of the Amendment Buy-Out.

It shall not be necessary for any Act of Holders of Securities under the above provision to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if the Act or consent approves its substance.

At the cost of the Co-Issuers, for so long as any Notes are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee will provide to the Rating Agency a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee and a copy of the executed supplemental indenture will be mailed to the Holders of the Indenture Securities, the Portfolio Manager, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Class E Certificates) and each Rating Agency after its execution.

The Indenture will provide that, at any time during the Reinvestment Period, the Issuer may issue and sell additional Class E Certificates and use the proceeds to purchase additional Collateral Obligations or as otherwise permitted under the Class E Certificate Documents and the Indenture; provided, that the following conditions are met: (a) the terms of the Class E Certificates issued must be identical to the terms of previously issued Class E Certificates; (b) the net proceeds of any additional Class E Certificates are used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations; and (c) an opinion of tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters shall be delivered to the Trustee to the effect that such additional issuance will not result in the Issuer being deemed to engage in a trade or business in the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Such additional Class E Certificates may be offered at prices that differ from the applicable initial offering price; provided that such initial offering price shall not be below 100% of the face amount of the additional Class E Certificates being offered.

Any additional Class E Certificates issued will, to the extent reasonably practicable, be offered first to the existing Holders of the Class E Certificates, in such amounts as are necessary to preserve their pro rata holdings of Class E Certificates. By its acceptance of the Class E Certificates, each Holder of a Class E Certificate agrees that additional Class E Certificates can be issued in accordance with the Class E Certificate Documents and the Indenture without consent of any Holder of the Securities.

The Indenture does not permit the issuance of additional Class A-1 Notes, Class A-2 Notes, Class A-3 Notes, Class A-4 Notes, Class B Notes and Class C Notes or other obligations with terms similar to those of such Classes of Notes.

Amendment Buy-Out

In the case of any supplemental indenture that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Securities held by such Holders of the Class of Securities whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the “Amendment Buy-Out Option”) for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Securities of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an “Amendment Buy-Out”). If the solicited consent only affects one Class Q-1 Component of the Class Q-1 Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase, at the Non-consenting Holder’s option, its Class Q-1 Security as a whole or solely the affected Class Q-1 Component. In the case of the Class P Securities of Non-consenting Holders, such Class P Securities will be deemed exchanged for their respective components, only the Class E Certificate represented by the related Class E Certificate Component must be sold to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser for a price equal to the Amendment Buy-Out Price, which will be distributed to such Non-consenting Holders, and such Non-Consenting Holders will receive a distribution in kind of the related pro rata amount of the Class P U.S. Treasury Component. By its acceptance of its Securities under the Indenture or the Class E Certificate Documents, as applicable, each Holder of Securities agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser. In the case of the Class A-1 Notes, if an Amendment Buy-Out occurs on a day (the “Amendment Buy-Out Trade Date”) other than a Payment Date, the settlement of such Amendment Buy-Out will be deferred until the next following Payment Date (and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Non-Consenting Holder will be entitled to any payments received on such Payment Date and the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price will be calculated as of such Payment Date); provided that all other rights of a Holder or Beneficial Owner of such securities will be deemed transferred to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser as of the Amendment Buy-Out Trade Date. Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or beneficial owner of Securities as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option.

All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Securities set forth in “Transfer Restrictions” and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Voting Rights of the Class E Certificates

Holders of the Class E Certificates will have no voting rights, either general or special, of the Issuer, except as set forth in the Class E Certificate Documents, as required by Cayman Islands law or as otherwise described herein.

Notices

Notices to the Holders of the Securities will be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the registered Holders of the Notes at their respective addresses appearing in the Indenture Register and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Class E Certificates). In addition, for so long as one or more Classes of Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of such exchange so require, notices to the Holders of such Notes shall also be given by publication in the Daily Official List. If and for so long as any Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities are listed on the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, notice will also be given to the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange.

Certain Covenants

The Indenture contains certain covenants restricting the conduct of the Co-Issuers, including (i) restrictions on consolidations, mergers and transfers or conveyances of assets involving either Co-Issuer, (ii) restrictions on incurrence of debt other than the Notes and certain obligations incidental to the performance by each Co-Issuer of its obligations under the Indenture, (iii) restrictions on the ability of each Co-Issuer to conduct activities inconsistent with its special-purpose nature, (iv) certain restrictions on amendments of the Collateral Administration Agreement and the Management Agreement and (v) certain tax-related restrictions.

Cancellation

All Securities that are surrendered for payment, registration of transfer, exchange, or redemption, or lost or stolen will forthwith be canceled and may not be reissued or resold.

No Gross-Up

All payments made by the Issuer under the Securities will be made without any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax unless the deduction or withholding is required by any applicable law, as modified by the practice of any relevant governmental revenue authority, then in effect. If the Issuer is so required to deduct or withhold, then the Issuer will not be obligated to pay any additional amounts in respect of the withholding or deduction.

Petitions for Bankruptcy

The Indenture provides that the Trustee, each Hedge Counterparty, the Portfolio Manager and the Holders of the Notes may not cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the final payments to the Holders of all Notes (and the reduction of the Commitment to zero in the case of the Class A-1A Notes) or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, including any period established pursuant to the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Standard of Conduct

The Indenture provides that, in exercising any of its or their voting rights, rights to direct and consent or any other rights as a Noteholder under the Indenture, subject to the terms and conditions of the Indenture, a Noteholder shall not have any obligation or duty to any Person or to consider or take into account the interests of any Person and shall not be liable to any Person for any action taken by it or them or at its or their direction or any failure by it or them to act or to direct that an action be taken, without regard to whether the action or inaction benefits or adversely affects any Noteholder, the Issuer, or any other Person, except for any liability to which the Noteholder may be subject to the extent the same results from the Noteholders taking or directing an action, or failing to take or direct an action, in bad faith or in violation of the express terms of the Indenture.

Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture

The Indenture will be discharged with respect to the Indenture Securities and the Collateral and the Class P Collateral upon delivery to the Trustee for cancellation of all of the Indenture Securities or, within certain limitations (including the obligation to pay interest on or principal of the Indenture Securities) upon deposit with the Trustee of funds sufficient for the payment or redemption thereof and the payment by the Co-Issuers of all other amounts due under the Indenture.

Trustee

JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, will be the Trustee under the Indenture. The Co-Issuers, the Portfolio Manager and their respective Affiliates may maintain other banking relationships in the ordinary course of business with the Trustee and its Affiliates. The payment of the fees and expenses of the Trustee relating to the Notes is solely the obligation of the Issuer. The payment of the fees and expenses ranks higher in the Priority of Payments than payments to the Holders of the Notes. The Trustee and its Affiliates may receive compensation in connection with the investment of trust assets in certain Eligible Investments as provided in the Indenture. Eligible Investments may include investments for which the Trustee or its affiliates provide services. The Indenture contains provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee for any loss, liability or expense incurred without negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Indenture.

Pursuant to the Indenture, as security for the payment by the Issuer of the compensation and expenses of the Trustee and any sums the Trustee may be entitled to receive as indemnification by the Issuer, the Issuer will grant the Trustee a senior lien on the Collateral, which is senior to the lien of the holders of the Secured Obligations on the Collateral.

Pursuant to the Indenture, the Trustee may resign at any time by providing 30 days' written notice and the Trustee may be removed at any time by a Majority of the Controlling Class, or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. However, no resignation or removal of the Trustee will become effective until the acceptance of appointment by a successor Trustee pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

Governing Law

The Indenture Securities (except to the extent of any Class E Certificate Component), the Indenture, the Class E Certificate Paying Agency Agreement, the Management Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Purchase Agreement, the Placement Agency Agreement, the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement, the Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement, the Securities Lending Agreements, and the Hedge Agreements will be governed by the laws of the State of New York. The Administration Agreement, the Issuer Charter and the Class E Certificates will be governed by the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Subject to the provisions relating to submission of jurisdiction contained in each of the agreements listed above that are governed by the laws of the State of New York, as a general matter, the parties of such agreements have agreed to submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York, and that all claims in respect of the action or proceeding may be heard and determined in the New York State or federal court.

Method of Payments

Payments of principal and interest on any Indenture Security or payments on or in respect of the Class E Certificates (including, in each case, any Redemption Price paid on the applicable Redemption Date) and of any payments on any Notes or Class E Certificates will be made to the person in whose name the related Note or Class E Certificate is registered fifteen days before the applicable Payment Date (the "Record Date"). Payments will be made (i) in the case of a Global Security, to the Depositary or its designee and to the Holder or its nominee with respect to a Certificated Security, by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a United States dollar account maintained by the Depositary or its nominee with respect to a Global Security and to the Holder or its designee with respect to a Certificated Security if the Holder has provided written wiring instructions to the Trustee (or, in the case of the Class E Certificates, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent) on or before the related Record Date or, (ii) if appropriate wiring instructions are not received by the related Record Date, by check drawn on a U.S. bank mailed to the address of the Holder in the Indenture Register (or, in the case of the Class E Certificates, the Class E Certificate register). Final payments on the Indenture Securities or Class E Certificates will be made against surrender of the related Indenture Securities or Class E Certificates at the office designated by the Trustee or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent. None of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Portfolio Manager, the Placement Agent, any paying agent, or any of their respective affiliates will have any responsibility or liability for any aspects of the records maintained by the Depositary or its nominee or any of its direct or indirect participants (including Euroclear or Clearstream or any of their respective direct or indirect participants) relating to payments made on account of beneficial interests in a Global Security.

The Co-Issuers expect that the Depositary or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal or interest in respect of a Global Security held by the Depositary or its nominee, will credit participants' accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the Global Security as shown on the records of the Depositary or its nominee. The Co-Issuers also expect that payments by participants (i.e., direct participants) to owners of beneficial interests in a Global Security held through the participants (i.e., indirect participants) will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for the customers. The payments will be the responsibility of the participants.

Class E Certificate Paying Agency Agreement

Pursuant to the Class E Certificate Paying Agency Agreement, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent will perform various fiscal services with respect to the Class E Certificates on behalf of the Issuer, including the maintenance of the Class E Certificates Distribution Account and the making of distributions on the Class E Certificates. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent will act as transfer agent with respect to the Class E Certificates, deliver or request the Trustee to deliver all Monthly Reports and Valuation Reports prepared pursuant to the Indenture to the Holders of the Class E Certificates, and deliver, or shall cause the Trustee to deliver, a copy of any other notice or information it receives from the Trustee under the Indenture to the Holders of the Class E Certificates, in each case by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to each Holder of a Class E Certificate at the address appearing in the Class E Certificate register. The payment of the fees and expenses of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent is solely the obligation of the Issuer. The Class E Certificate Paying Agency Agreement contains provisions for the indemnification of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for any loss, liability or expense incurred without gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith on its part, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its function under the Class E Certificate Paying Agency Agreement.

On the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date, the Issuer is scheduled to redeem the Class E Certificates for a redemption price equal to all amounts distributable to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Class E Certificates as provided under “—Priority of Payments,” unless the Class E Certificates have been redeemed earlier through an optional redemption as described herein or otherwise.

The Class E Certificate Paying Agency Agreement will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York. The rights of the Holders of the Class E Certificates will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Cayman Islands.

The Issuer Charter

The following summary describes certain provisions of the Issuer Charter relating to the Class E Certificates that are not referred to elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum. For purposes of Cayman Islands law, the Class E Certificates will be characterized as shares of the Issuer.

Voting Rights

Other than as provided below, only the holders of the Ordinary Shares shall have the right to receive notice of, attend at and vote as a shareholder of the Issuer at any general meeting of the Issuer. Every holder of an Ordinary Share present at any meeting shall, on a show of hands, be entitled to one vote and, on a poll, shall be entitled to one vote per Ordinary Share held by such holder.

The Holders of the Class E Certificates shall have the right to receive notice of, attend at and vote as a shareholder of the Issuer at any general meeting of the Issuer only in respect of a resolution which relates to any circumstance or matter which under the Indenture, the Class E Certificate Documents or the Management Agreement can take place or occur only at the direction of the Holders of the Class E Certificates (a “Class E Certificate Vote”). Every Holder of Class E Certificates present shall, on a show of hands, be entitled to one vote and, on a poll, shall be entitled to one vote per Class E Certificate held by such Holder except that, in relation to a Class E Certificate Vote relating to certain matters (as set out in the Indenture) Class E Certificates held by certain Holders (as set out in the Indenture), shall be ignored.

Liquidation

In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Issuer:

(i) the Holders of the Ordinary Shares at the time outstanding will be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Issuer available for distribution to shareholders, before any distribution of assets is made to Holders of the Class E Certificates, an amount equal to U.S.$2.00 in respect of each Ordinary Share held by each such holder; and

(ii) the Holders of the Class E Certificates at the time Outstanding will be entitled to the balance of the assets of the Issuer available for distribution to shareholders, after distribution of amounts due to holders of Ordinary Shares under the above subparagraph, pro rata according to the number of Class E Certificates held by each such holder.

If the assets available for distribution to holders of the Ordinary Shares are not sufficient to pay to such holders U.S.$2.00 in respect of each Ordinary Share, the available assets shall be distributed to holders of the Ordinary Shares pro rata according to the number of Ordinary Shares held by each such holder.

Transfer

The rights of a Holder of a Class E Certificate to transfer such Class E Certificate are subject to restrictions set out in the Class E Certificate Documents and as described in “Transfer Restrictions.”

Petitions for Bankruptcy

The Issuer Charter provides that the Holders of Class E Certificates will not have the right to petition or to pass a resolution for the winding up of the Issuer.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The Securities will be issued and sold for Cash on the Closing Date. The gross proceeds from the issuance of such Securities and the Ordinary Shares on the Closing Date are expected to equal approximately U.S.$838 million and will be used by the Issuer to:

- purchase a portfolio of Collateral Obligations (including by entering into Synthetic Security Agreements (and correspondingly funding of the related accounts)), including terminate participations outstanding under the Warehouse Agreement;
- fund the Revolving Reserve Account to cover any future draws on Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans;
- enter into any Hedge Agreements, as applicable;
- enter into any Securities Lending Agreements (and correspondingly to fund the Securities Lending Account);
- fund the Closing Date Expense Account and the Interest Reserve Account;
- purchase the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component for deposit in the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component Account;
- purchase the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component for deposit in the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component Account; and
- undertake certain permitted incidental activities.

SECURITY FOR THE NOTES

The Notes and the Issuer's obligations under the Hedge Agreements and the Management Agreement will be secured by the following:

- (i) the Collateral Obligations and all Workout Assets;
- (ii) the Custodial Account, the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account and the Securities Lending Account (such accounts, collectively, the "Issuer Accounts"), Eligible Investments purchased with funds on deposit in the Issuer Accounts, and all income from the investment of funds in the Issuer Accounts;
- (iii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and assets included therein, subject to the terms of the related Synthetic Security (provided, however, that any such rights in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be held in trust by the Trustee (or securities intermediary) first to secure the Issuer's payment obligations to the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty and second for the benefit of the Secured Parties);
- (iv) the Management Agreement, the Securities Lending Agreements, the Hedge Agreements as set forth in the Indenture and the Collateral Administration Agreement;
- (v) all Cash or money delivered to the Trustee (or its bailee); and
- (vi) all proceeds with respect to the foregoing (collectively, the "Collateral").

For the avoidance of any doubt, Collateral will exclude amounts released from the Trustee's lien in connection with certain Synthetic Securities, Hedge Agreements and Securities Lending Agreements in accordance with the Indenture.

In addition, the Indenture provides that the Issuer, to secure the Issuer's obligations under the Class P-1 Securities to pay in full the Class P-1 Nominal Principal Outstanding, will grant to the Trustee, solely for the benefit of the Holders of the Class P-1 Securities a perfected security interest in the Class P-1 Collateral that is of first priority. For the avoidance of doubt, the Class P-1 Collateral will not include the Collateral or the Class P-2 Collateral.

In addition, the Indenture provides that the Issuer, to secure the Issuer's obligations under the Class P-2 Securities to pay in full the Class P-2 Nominal Principal Outstanding, will grant to the Trustee, solely for the benefit of the Holders of the Class P-2 Securities a perfected security interest in the Class P-2 Collateral that is of first priority. For the avoidance of doubt, the Class P-2 Collateral will not include the Collateral or the Class P-1 Collateral.

Purchase of Collateral Obligations

Collateral Obligations may be purchased if such purchases comply (and selections of Collateral Obligations for purchase will be made by the Portfolio Manager designed to comply) with the Eligibility Criteria and any applicable requirements described under “–Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds.”

The Portfolio Manager expects that, on or prior to the Business Day prior to March 3, 2006, the Issuer will have purchased or committed to purchase Collateral Obligations such that (x) either (A) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer equals at least $900,000,000 or (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations purchased (or committed to be purchased) by the Issuer (in each case in this clause (B), measured solely as of the date of purchase or commitment, as the case may be (provided that with respect to the Initial Collateral Obligations, the date of purchase shall be the Closing Date)) equals at least $900,000,000 (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations after the Closing Date and on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date) and (y) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $900,000,000.

Eligibility Criteria

On any date during the Reinvestment Period (and, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, on any date after the Reinvestment Period), so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to invest or reinvest Principal Proceeds (together with Interest Proceeds, but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on Collateral Obligations) and the funds available from Drawdowns under the Class A-1B Notes and Borrowings under the Class A-1A Notes in additional Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral into the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security) if the conditions specified in the Indenture are satisfied. No obligations may be purchased unless each of the conditions in the following clauses (1) through (12) (the “Eligibility Criteria”) is satisfied as evidenced by a certificate of the Portfolio Manager as of the date the Issuer commits to make the purchase, in each case after giving effect to the purchase and all other purchases and sales previously or simultaneously committed to:

- (1) the obligation is a Collateral Obligation;
- (2) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period:
  - (A) each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied and, if the commitment is made on or after the second Payment Date, each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied; or
  - (B) if any such Coverage Test is not satisfied, both:
    - (i) the extent of satisfaction of such Coverage Test is not reduced; and
    - (ii) the Collateral Obligation is being purchased with Principal Proceeds other than:
      - (x) Principal Proceeds received in respect of a Defaulted Collateral Obligation; or
      - (y) Principal Proceeds received in respect of a Workout Asset that has been received in exchange for a Defaulted Collateral Obligation;
- (3) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Diversity Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (4) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (5) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, each of the limits in the definition of “Concentration Limitations” is satisfied or, if any such limit is not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (6) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Spread Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (7) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (8) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Life Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (9) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (10) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (11) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the S&P CDO Monitor Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced; provided, however, that this Eligibility Criterion (11) shall not apply either to reinvestment of the proceeds from the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation, Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset or to the reinvestment of Principal Proceeds in respect of Defaulted Collateral Obligations; and

- (12) for any date occurring after the Reinvestment Period:
- (A) each Coverage Test is satisfied and the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
  - (B) each Collateral Quality Test is maintained or improved;
  - (C) each Concentration Limitation is maintained or improved;
  - (D) the maturity date of such Collateral Obligation will occur on or prior to the Stated Maturity of the Notes and the Weighted Average Life Test is satisfied;
  - (E) the S&P Rating of such Collateral Obligation is at least equal to the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation being the source of the Unscheduled Principal Payments or of the Credit Improved Obligation being the source of Sale Proceeds, as applicable; and.
  - (F) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations to be purchased in connection with such sale or prepayment must be no less than the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations sold or prepaid.

The Issuer may, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager (and regardless of the foregoing restrictions), exchange a Collateral Obligation for another Collateral Obligation in an exchange of one security for another security of the same issuers that has substantially identical terms except transfer restrictions.

Cash on deposit in the Collection Account may be invested at any time in Eligible Investments in accordance with the Indenture pending investment in Collateral Obligations.

The Indenture provides that any sale or purchase by the Issuer of a Collateral Obligation shall be conducted on an arm's length basis and if effected with the Portfolio Manager or a person Affiliated with the Portfolio Manager or any fund or account for which the Portfolio Manager or an Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager acts as investment adviser, shall be effected in accordance with the requirements of the Management Agreement on terms no less favorable to the Issuer than would be the case if the person were not so Affiliated. Under the Management Agreement, the Portfolio Manager will be prohibited from directing the acquisition of Collateral Obligations from, or the disposition of Collateral Obligations to, its Affiliates or any other account managed by the Portfolio Manager except on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's-length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and if the Portfolio Manager has complied with the requirements of the Management Agreement and the acquisition or disposition otherwise complies with the requirements of the United States Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

The Collateral Quality Tests

The Collateral Quality Tests will be used primarily as criteria for purchasing Collateral Obligations. See “—Eligibility Criteria” above and “—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds” below. The Collateral Quality Tests are described below.

Measurement of the degree of compliance with the Collateral Quality Tests will be required on each Measurement Date on and after the Ramp-Up Completion Date.

The Diversity Test

The “Diversity Test” is a test that will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Diversity Score equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score.

Weighted Average Life Test

The “Weighted Average Life Test” is a test that will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and the Payment Date in May 2015 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date.

Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test

The “Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test” is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Moody's Weighted Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 44.75%.

“Moody's Weighted Average Recovery Rate” means, as of any Measurement Date, a rate equal to the number obtained by (i) summing the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) by its respective Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate, (ii) dividing the sum determined pursuant to clause (i) above by the sum of the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) and (iii) rounding up to the first decimal place.

Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test

The “Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test” is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the S&P Weighted Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 51.5%.

“S&P Weighted Average Recovery Rate” is a rate, as of any Measurement Date, equal to the number obtained by:

- (i) summing the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation by its respective S&P Priority Category Recovery Rate;
- (ii) dividing the sum determined pursuant to clause (i) above by the sum of the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations; and
- (iii) rounding up to the first decimal place.

Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test

The “Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test” is a test that is satisfied if, as of any Measurement Date, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon equals or exceeds 7.5%.

Weighted Average Spread Test

The “Weighted Average Spread Test” is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if (i) the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Weighted Average Spread and (ii) the Weighted Average Commitment Fee as of such Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Weighted Average Commitment Fee.

Weighted Average Rating Factor Test

The “Weighted Average Rating Factor Test” is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor of the Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) as of the Measurement Date is less than or equal to the Maximum Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor.

S&P CDO Monitor Test

The “S&P CDO Monitor Test” is a test that will be satisfied on any Measurement Date if, after giving effect to the sale of a Collateral Obligation or the purchase of a Collateral Obligation, each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is positive. The S&P CDO Monitor Test shall be considered to be improved if each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is at least equal to the corresponding Note Class Loss Differential of the Current Portfolio. The S&P CDO Monitor Test is not required to be satisfied or improved upon the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation and certain other obligations and the reinvestment of the related Sale Proceeds in additional Collateral Obligations. For purposes of the S&P CDO Monitor Test:

- (i) the S&P Rating of any S&P Unrated DIP Loan shall be “CCC-”; and
- (ii) the S&P Industry Classification for a Synthetic Security shall be that of the related Reference Obligation and not the Synthetic Security.

The “Note Class Loss Differential” with respect to any Measurement Date and any Class of Notes that is rated by S&P, the rate calculated by subtracting the Class Scenario Loss Rate for such Class from the then-applicable Note Break-Even Loss Rate corresponding to the S&P Monitor Test that is created with the Adjusted Weighted Average Spread of the Current Portfolio) for such Class of Notes.

The “Note Break-Even Loss Rate” with respect to each Class of Notes that is rated by S&P, the maximum percentage of defaults that the Current Portfolio or Proposed Portfolio can sustain and nevertheless sufficient funds will remain for the payment of principal of such Class of Notes in full by its Stated Maturity and the timely payment of interest on the Class A-1 Notes, Class A-2 Notes, Class A-3 Notes and the Class A-4 Notes and the ultimate payment of interest on the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes using S&P’s assumptions on recoveries, defaults, and timing, and taking into account the Priority of Payments and the Adjusted Weighted Average Spread level specified in the applicable row of the table below. The “Adjusted Weighted Average Spread” as of any Measurement Date is the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date minus the amount of any Spread Excess added to the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon as of the Measurement Date.

1	Greater than or equal to 3.00%
2	Greater than or equal to 2.90% but less than 3.00%
3	Greater than or equal to 2.80% but less than 2.90%
4	Greater than or equal to 2.70% but less than 2.80%
5	Greater than or equal to 2.60% but less than 2.70%
6	Greater than or equal to 2.50% but less than 2.60%
7	Greater than or equal to 2.40% but less than 2.50%
8	Greater than or equal to 2.30% but less than 2.40%
9	Greater than or equal to 2.20% but less than 2.30%

The Coverage Tests

General

The Coverage Tests will be used to determine, among other things, whether Notes will be redeemed in certain circumstances as described under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments” and whether additional Collateral Obligations may be acquired as described under “—Eligibility Criteria.” There will not be any Coverage Test applicable to the Class E Certificates.

The Overcollateralization Tests

The “Overcollateralization Tests” will consist of the Class A Overcollateralization Test, the Class B Overcollateralization Test and the Class C Overcollateralization Test.

Each Overcollateralization Test will be satisfied with respect to any Class of Notes (treating the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes and the Class A-4 Notes as one Class for this purpose) on any Measurement Date if, as of such Measurement Date, the Overcollateralization Ratio for the Class is at least equal to the specified required level for the Class indicated in the table in “Summary of Terms—The Overcollateralization Tests.”

The Overcollateralization Ratio, with respect to any Class of Notes (treating the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes and the Class A-4 Notes as one Class for this purpose) on any Measurement Date, is referred to as an “Overcollateralization Ratio,” and is the ratio calculated by dividing:

- (i) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator; by
- (ii) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class of Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Deferred Interest on the Class of Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it).

The “Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator” is, on any date, the sum of:

- (1) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (other than any Excess CCC/Caa Collateral Obligations, any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, any Deep Discount Obligations, and any Collateral Obligations loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement with respect to which an “event of default” (under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing); plus
- (2) unpaid Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal (excluding any unpaid Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal in respect of Non-Performing Collateral Obligations); plus
- (3) the Aggregate Principal Balance of any Eligible Investments that were purchased with Principal Proceeds and, without duplication, the amount of Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account; plus
- (4) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Eligible Investments on deposit in a Securities Lending Account that relate to a Securities Lending Agreement with respect to which an “event of default” (under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing; plus

- (5) with respect to Collateral Obligation that are Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, Deep Discount Obligations or Excess CCC/Caa Collateral Obligations, the amount determined by using one of the following methods applicable to such type of Collateral Obligation; provided that if a Collateral Obligation falls within more than one of such types, the Issuer will be required to use the method that results in the smallest amount:
- (A) with respect to any Excess CCC/Caa Collateral Obligations, an amount equal to the product of (i) the lower of (1) 70% and (2) the weighted average Market Value of all Excess CCC/Caa Collateral Obligations, expressed as a percentage of their outstanding principal balances multiplied by (ii) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Excess CCC/Caa Collateral Obligations;
  - (B) with respect to any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, the aggregate of the Applicable Collateral Obligation Amounts for all included Non-Performing Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations that have been held by the Issuer for more than three years, which shall be deemed to be zero for purposes of this clause (B)); and
  - (C) with respect to any Deep Discount Obligations, the Aggregate Purchase Price Amount for all Deep Discount Obligations.

As used in this definition, “Applicable Collateral Obligation Amount” for any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation means:

- (1) the lesser of (x) the Market Value Percentage of the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation and (y) the Applicable Percentage for the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation multiplied by:
- (2) if the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation is:
  - (A) any Pledged Obligation other than those in clauses (B) through (D) below, its outstanding principal amount as of the relevant Measurement Date;
  - (B) any Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in such Synthetic Security;
  - (C) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its funded principal amount outstanding plus any Unfunded Amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer’s obligation to fund the Unfunded Amount); and
  - (D) any PIK Security, its outstanding principal amount but excluding any principal amount representing previously deferred or capitalized interest;

provided however, that, for the avoidance of doubt, the Applicable Collateral Obligation Amount with respect to any Collateral Obligation in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest will be zero.

As used in the calculation of Market Value Percentage of the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation, the Principal Balance of any Defaulted Collateral Obligation shall be, if the Defaulted Collateral Obligation is:

- (i) any Pledged Obligation other than those in clauses (ii) through (iv) below, its outstanding principal amount as of the relevant Measurement Date;

- (ii) any Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in such Synthetic Security;
- (iii) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its funded principal amount outstanding plus any Unfunded Amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer's obligation to fund the Unfunded Amount); and
- (iv) any PIK Security, its outstanding principal amount but excluding any principal amount representing previously deferred or capitalized interest.

The Interest Coverage Tests

The Interest Coverage Test in respect of each Class of Notes (each an “Interest Coverage Test”) is a test the first Measurement Date for which will be on the Determination Date immediately preceding the second Payment Date and that is satisfied with respect to any specified Class of Notes (treating the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes and the Class A-4 Notes as one Class for this purpose) if, as of the Determination Date immediately preceding the second Payment Date and any Measurement Date thereafter on which any Notes remain Outstanding, the Interest Coverage Ratio equals or exceeds the applicable required level specified in the table in “Summary of Terms— The Interest Coverage Tests.”

The “Interest Coverage Ratio” with respect to any specified Class of Notes (treating the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes and the Class A-4 Notes as one Class for this purpose) on any Measurement Date, the ratio calculated by dividing:

- (i) the sum of:
  - (A) the Interest Proceeds received or scheduled to be received with respect to the Due Period in which the Measurement Date occurs; minus
  - (B) amounts payable under clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” on the related Payment Date; by
- (ii) all accrued and unpaid interest on the specified Class of Notes (and the Commitment Fee Amount with respect to the Class A-1A Notes and the Delayed Drawdown Fee with respect to the Class A-1B Notes), and all Notes ranking senior to the Class on the related Payment Date, but excluding any Deferred Interest as of the related Payment Date.

For purposes of the Interest Coverage Ratio, only the amount of any interest payment (including any “gross up” payment) on any Collateral Obligation in excess of any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction on any date of determination shall be included in Interest Proceeds.

Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test

The “Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test” is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date on which any Notes remain Outstanding, if the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Ratio as of such Measurement Date is at least equal to 104.8%.

Ramp-Up

The Issuer expects that, as of the Closing Date, it will have purchased (or entered into commitments to purchase) Collateral Obligations such that the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator will be at least $815,000,000.

The Indenture will provide that the Issuer will use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase (or enter into commitments to purchase (with settlement as soon as practicable after such commitment, but in any event no later than 60 days thereafter)) Collateral Obligations for inclusion in the Collateral on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period such that together with the Collateral Obligations purchased on or before the Closing Date (the “Initial Collateral Obligations”) as of the Business Day prior to March 3, 2006, (i) either (A) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer equals at least $900,000,000 or (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations purchased (or committed to be purchased) by the Issuer (in each case in this clause (B), measured solely as of the date of purchase or commitment, as the case may be (provided that with respect to the Initial Collateral Obligations, the date of purchase shall be the Closing Date)) equals at least $900,000,000 (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations after the Closing Date and on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date).

If the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase a Collateral Obligation to be included in the Collateral, such commitment not to exceed 60 days, and at the time of the commitment the Collateral Obligation complied with the definition of “Collateral Obligation”, the Issuer may consummate the purchase of the Collateral Obligation notwithstanding that the Collateral Obligation fails to comply with the definition of “Collateral Obligation” on the date of settlement.

Within 5 Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager (on behalf of the Issuer) will request a Rating Confirmation and will provide a report to the Rating Agencies substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date identifying the Collateral Obligations then included in the Collateral and the Issuer will obtain and deliver to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies (together with the delivery of such report), an accountants’ certificate:

(i) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread and recovery rate for each Collateral Obligation owned by the Issuer as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included in the Collateral, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein;

(ii) confirming that as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date:

(1) each of the Coverage Tests is satisfied;

(2) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date is at least equal to the Maximum Investment Amount; and

(3) the Collateral Obligations comply with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests and the Concentration Limitations and the criteria set forth in “—Eligibility Criteria”; and

(iii) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements.

If a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to the Indenture and as described in “Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure.”

Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds

Pursuant to the Indenture and so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, direct the Trustee to sell (and the Trustee will sell) any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset if the sale meets the requirements in paragraphs (i) through (ix) below and the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell assets as set forth in paragraph (x) below. In addition, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf) shall within 5 Business Days of its receipt (or within 5 Business Days after such later date as such asset may first be sold in accordance with its terms and applicable law), sell any Tax Affected Security or transfer such Tax Affected Security to a subsidiary the sole assets of which consist of, and the sole activity of which is the acquisition and ownership of Tax Affected Securities.

- (i) Credit Risk Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Risk Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Risk Obligation in accordance with such direction. Following any sale of a Credit Risk Obligation pursuant to the Indenture during the Reinvestment Period, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase in compliance with the Indenture additional Collateral Obligations (to the extent the purchase is in the best interest of the Issuer) with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Sale Proceeds received by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral Obligation sold. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount.
- (ii) Credit Improved Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Improved Obligation if either:
  - (1) during the Reinvestment Period, (a) the Portfolio Manager believes before the sale that it will be able to cause the Issuer to reinvest its Sale Proceeds, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria, in one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Credit Improved Obligation by the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded principal amount outstanding and the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest shall be its outstanding principal amount) or (b) the Portfolio Manager intends to use the Sale Proceeds to make Prepayments on the Class A-1A Notes; or
  - (2) after the Reinvestment Period, the Sale Proceeds received in respect of the Credit Improved Obligation are at least equal to its Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded principal amount outstanding and the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest shall be its outstanding principal amount);

and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Improved Obligation in accordance with such direction.

- (iii) Non-Performing Collateral Obligations and Current-Pay Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Current-Pay Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Current-Pay Obligation in accordance with such direction. Non-Performing Collateral Obligations may be sold regardless of price; provided that the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation purchased with proceeds of any Current-Pay Obligation shall equal or exceed the Principal Balance of such Current-Pay Obligation that was sold.

- (iv) Non-qualifying Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell that obligation in accordance with such direction.
- (v) Withholding Tax Sales. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation subject to withholding tax at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction.
- (vi) Optional Redemption. After the Issuer has notified the Trustee of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all or a portion of the Collateral Obligations as contemplated therein if (A) the requirements in respect of an Optional Redemption under the Indenture have been satisfied and (B) the independent certified public accountants appointed pursuant to the Indenture have confirmed the calculations contained in any required certificate furnished by the Portfolio Manager pursuant to the Indenture's Note redemption procedure provisions. After a Majority of the Class E Certificates have directed an Optional Redemption of the Class E Certificates in accordance with the Indenture, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all of the remaining Collateral Obligations (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to clause (i) under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Class E Certificates") or all or a portion of the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous directions of Holders of the Class E Certificates (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to clause (ii) under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Class E Certificates") and the Trustee shall sell the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.
- (vii) Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Portfolio Manager has received notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm the Initial Ratings of the Notes, the Issuer may, if so directed by the Portfolio Manager in the Portfolio Manager's sole discretion, direct the Trustee to sell Collateral Obligations as contemplated in the Indenture and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.
- (viii) Discretionary Sales. In addition to sales permitted under the foregoing clauses, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation, at any time during the Reinvestment Period:
  - (1) at any time on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without regard to any restriction specified in clause (2) below); and
  - (2) at any time after the Ramp-Up Completion Date if:

- (A) after giving effect to the sale and the sale of any other Collateral Obligations whose sale is pending, the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations sold under “—Discretionary Sales” during any calendar year (in each case determined as of the date the direction to sell is given) is not greater than 20% of the Maximum Investment Amount as of January 1 of such calendar year (or, for the first calendar year, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date); and
- (B) (a) the Portfolio Manager believes before the sale that it will be able to cause the Issuer within 30 days thereafter to reinvest or commit to reinvest its Sale Proceeds, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria, in one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to (i) as long as the Class C Overcollateralization Test is satisfied, the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the sold Collateral Obligation and (ii) if the Class C Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the Aggregate Principal Balance of the sold Collateral Obligation (for the purpose of both clause (i) and (ii), the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded principal amount outstanding and the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest shall be its outstanding principal amount) or (b) the Portfolio Manager intends to use the Sale Proceeds to make Prepayments on the Class A-1A Notes;

- (i) the amount of any Collateral Obligation sold will be reduced (a) to the extent of any purchases of Collateral Obligations of the same obligor (which are pari passu with such sold Collateral Obligation) occurring within 30 Business Days of the sale (determined based on the date of any relevant trade confirmation or commitment letter) (but only for so long as (x) the Collateral Obligations purchased have not been downgraded by any of the Rating Agencies during the 30 Business Day period, (y) the Collateral Obligations have not been purchased from the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates acting, in each case, as principal or from any funds or accounts advised or managed by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, and (z) the purchase price of each purchased Collateral Obligation must not exceed the sale price of the sold Collateral Obligation) and (b) to the extent of any purchases of Collateral Obligations permitted pursuant to the second paragraph set forth under “—Eligibility Criteria”; and

(ii) any Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index investment providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time that is invested into a substantially similar Synthetic Security but with a later maturity will be treated as having been sold.

- (ix) Workout Assets. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Workout Asset at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and regardless of price and the Trustee shall sell the Workout Assets in accordance with such direction.
- (x) Margin Stock. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell any asset that is Margin Stock within 45 days of the later of (i) the acquisition of such asset by the Issuer or (ii) such asset’s becoming Margin Stock, and the Trustee shall sell such asset in accordance with such direction.

Certain Determinations Relating to Collateral Obligations

The Indenture provides that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained therein, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will be deemed to have purchased any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer delivers to the Trustee a contract to purchase, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to receive such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have acquired, granted or delivered, as the case may be, such Collateral Obligations on such date.

The Indenture provides that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained therein, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer delivers to the Trustee a contract to sell, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to sell, and requiring the purchaser to purchase, such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold such Collateral Obligations on such date.

Under the circumstances described in the two preceding paragraphs, if the transaction contemplated by the contract, commitment letter, confirmation or due bill referred to therein does not settle on or before the 60th day following the scheduled settlement date (the “Deadline”), the deemed purchase or sale shall be deemed not to have occurred; provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to extend the Deadline for an additional period (not to exceed an additional 60 days) by notice to the Trustee, which notice shall include the Portfolio Manager’s certification to the effect that the Portfolio Manager believes that the settlement shall occur on or before the extended Deadline.

Scheduled distributions with respect to any Pledged Collateral Obligation shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Indenture.

The Accounts

The Indenture provides that the Trustee will establish separate segregated non-interest bearing trust accounts, which will be designated as the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Custodial Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Interest Reserve Account and the Securities Lending Account. In addition, Synthetic Security Counterparty Accounts may also be established. Any account may contain any number of subaccounts.

Collection Account. The Trustee shall deposit into the “Collection Account”:

- (i) any funds transferred from (1) the Closing Date Expense Account pursuant to the Indenture or (2) the Interest Reserve Account pursuant to the Indenture;
- (ii) all Principal Proceeds (unless (1) simultaneously reinvested in Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Indenture, (2) deposited into the Revolving Reserve Account, (3) posted by the Issuer as cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer’s purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security or in Eligible Investments) or (4) used to make Prepayments with respect to the Class A-1A Notes), received by the Trustee;
- (iii) all Interest Proceeds received by the Trustee (unless simultaneously reinvested in accrued interest in respect of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Indenture or in Eligible Investments); and
- (iv) all other funds received by the Trustee and not excluded above.

The Issuer may, but under no circumstances will be required to, deposit from time to time any monies in the Collection Account it deems, in its sole discretion, to be advisable (and may designate any amounts so deposited as Principal Proceeds or Interest Proceeds in its discretion).

Any Principal Proceeds received during the Reinvestment Period, and Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments received after the Reinvestment Period, which have not been reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations on the Business Day of receipt shall be deposited in the Collection Account and shall at the direction of the Portfolio Manager be applied to the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria and the other requirements set forth in the Indenture or the purchase of Eligible Investments pending such investment or used to enter into additional Hedge Agreements or used in connection with a Special Redemption. Principal Proceeds (other than Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments) received after the Reinvestment Period shall be deposited into the Collection Account and applied to the purchase of Eligible Investments.

The Collection Account shall be maintained for the benefit of the Noteholders, the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager and each Hedge Counterparty and amounts on deposit in the Collection Account will be available for application in the order of priority under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments” and for the acquisition of Collateral Obligations under the circumstances and pursuant to the requirements in the Indenture. Amounts received in the Collection Account during a Due Period and amounts received in prior Due Periods and retained in the Collection Account under the circumstances stated above in “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments” will be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions). All proceeds deposited in the Collection Account will be retained therein unless used to purchase Collateral Obligations during the Reinvestment Period (or, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, after the Reinvestment Period) in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria, to honor commitments with respect thereto entered into during or after the Reinvestment Period, to make Prepayments on the Class A-1A Notes or used as otherwise permitted under the Indenture. See “—Eligibility Criteria.”

The Trustee shall transfer to the Payment Account from the Collection Account for application pursuant to the Priority of Payments, on or no later than the Business Day preceding each Payment Date, the amount set forth to be so transferred in the Valuation Report for the Payment Date.

At any time during or after the Reinvestment Period, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to pay from amounts on deposit in the Collection Account on any Business Day during any Interest Period from Interest Proceeds only, any Administrative Expenses that require payment before the next Payment Date to the extent that the amount of the payments does not exceed the aggregate amount that may be paid on the next payment Date under, and at the level of priority specified by, “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

Custodial Account. The Trustee will from time to time deposit the Collateral Obligations and other Collateral not deposited elsewhere in accordance with the Indenture into the “Custodial Account”, over which the Trustee will have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. All assets or securities at any time on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Custodial Account will be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders, the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager and each Hedge Counterparty. If invested, any amounts on deposit in the Custodial Account will be invested in Eligible Investments.

Revolving Reserve Account. Upon the purchase of any Collateral Obligation that is a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee will deposit into and maintain at all times in the Revolving Reserve Account amounts drawn under the Class A-1A Notes and Principal Proceeds in an amount at least equal to the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount. The “Revolver Funding Reserve Amount” means an amount, which cannot be negative, equal to (a) the Aggregate Unfunded Amount of all Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans minus (b) the Aggregate Undrawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes; provided, however, for purposes of this definition, the Aggregate Undrawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes used in such calculation shall not include the portion of the Aggregate Undrawn Amount of Class A-1A Notes attributable to each Holder of Class A-1A Notes at any time and for so long as and to the extent (x) such Holder does not meet the Rating Criteria and (y) has failed to fund the Undrawn Amount of its Class A-1A Notes into a reserve account fund when required to do so under the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement. The Principal Proceeds so deposited will be considered part of the Purchase Price of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan for purposes of the Indenture. In addition, principal payments received by the Issuer in respect of a Revolving Loan (except to the extent of any concurrent commitment reduction), will be deposited within two Business Days directly into the Revolving Reserve Account (and will not be available for distribution as Principal Proceeds) to the extent required to maintain the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount (including with respect to the amount of such principal payments that may be reborrowed under such Revolving Loan).

Amounts on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account will be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions) not later than the Business Day after the date of their purchase. All interest and other income from amounts in the Revolving Reserve Account deposited to the Collection Account under the Indenture will be considered Interest Proceeds in the Due Period in which they are so deposited.

At the direction of the Portfolio Manager at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period, the Trustee will withdraw funds from the Revolving Reserve Account to fund extensions of credit pursuant to Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans. Upon the sale, maturity or termination of a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan in whole or in part or the reduction in part or termination of the Issuer's commitment thereunder, any funds in the Revolving Reserve Account in excess of the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount will be transferred from time to time by the Trustee (upon the direction of the Portfolio Manager) to the Collection Account and treated as Principal Proceeds.

Synthetic Security Collateral Account. On or before the date on which the Issuer enters into a Synthetic Security, the Trustee shall create a sub-account of the non-interest bearing trust account established for Synthetic Security Collateral (the "Synthetic Security Collateral Account") with respect to the Synthetic Security. All Synthetic Security Collateral posted by any Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Synthetic Security shall be immediately deposited into the Synthetic Security Collateral Account and posted to the sub-account related to the Synthetic Security. On each day on which amounts are payable to the Issuer out of Synthetic Security Collateral, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to withdraw amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account in an amount sufficient to make the payment (including any total or partial release of Synthetic Security Collateral). The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account shall be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty under a Synthetic Security; or (ii) to return Synthetic Security Collateral to the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty at the termination of the relevant Synthetic Security Agreement or as otherwise required by the Synthetic Security Agreement, in each case as directed by the Portfolio Manager.

Amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account will be invested in Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities not later than one Business Day after their purchase, as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions), and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account. The Trustee will deposit all collateral received from a Hedge Counterparty under any Hedge Agreement into the "Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account." The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account will be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer under a Hedge Agreement if the Hedge Agreement becomes subject to early termination or (ii) to return collateral to the relevant Hedge Counterparty when and as required by the relevant Hedge Agreement, in each case as directed by the Portfolio Manager. Amounts on deposit in the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account will be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Closing Date Expense Account. Amounts deposited in the "Closing Date Expense Account" on the Closing Date will be withdrawn to pay certain administrative expenses of the Co-Issuers. On the Payment Date in March 2006, the Trustee shall transfer all funds on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds and close the Closing Date Expense Account. Amounts on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account shall be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the Payment Date in March 2006 as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Expense Reimbursement Account. On any Payment Date and on any date between Payment Dates, the Trustee will apply amounts, if any, in the "Expense Reimbursement Account" to the payment of expenses and fees that must be paid between Payment Dates or that are due on that Payment Date under clause (1) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” and the Trustee shall on any Payment Date (other than on the final redemption date of the Class E Certificates) transfer to the Expense Reimbursement Account an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Administrative Expense Cap over the amounts due under clause (1) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” to the Expense Reimbursement Account in accordance with clause (2) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.” Amounts on deposit in the Expense Reimbursement Account shall be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions), no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date. Any funds remaining in the Expense Reimbursement Account as of the Determination Date relating to the final redemption date of the Class E Certificates will be deposited in the Collection Account as Interest Proceeds for distribution on the Scheduled Class E Certificate Redemption Date as described under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

Securities Lending Account. The Trustee will deposit all Securities Lending Collateral posted by any Securities Lending Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Securities Lending Agreement in a non-interest bearing trust account (the “Securities Lending Account”). The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Securities Lending Account will be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty to the Issuer under a Securities Lending Agreement if the Securities Lending Agreement becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the Securities Lending Agreement upon any “event of default” under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement, including liquidating the related Securities Lending Collateral or (ii) to return collateral to the Securities Lending Counterparty when and as required by a Securities Lending Agreement, in each case as directed by the Portfolio Manager. Amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account shall be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions) no later than the stated termination date of the related Securities Lending Agreement. To the extent provided in a Securities Lending Agreement, earnings on amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account will be payable by the Issuer to the related Securities Lending Counterparty. Amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account will not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the loaned security or asset that relates to the Securities Lending Account will be so considered an asset of the Issuer.

Payment Account. The Trustee will in accordance with the Indenture deposit funds from the Collection Account into the “Payment Account”, over which the Trustee will have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. All assets or securities at any time on deposit in or otherwise to the credit of the Payment Account will be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Payment Account will be to pay amounts due and payable on the Notes in accordance with their terms and the provisions of the Indenture and to pay Administrative Expenses and other amounts specified in the Indenture, each in accordance with the Priority of Payments. If invested, any amounts on deposit in the Payment Account will be invested in Eligible Investments.

Interest Reserve Account. Amounts deposited in the “Interest Reserve Account”, on the Closing Date will be withdrawn on the first Payment Date to pay the amount necessary such that the amounts referred to in clauses (1) through (17) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” will be paid in full on the first Payment Date. In addition, the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion may direct that all or any portion of the funds remaining on deposit in the Interest Reserve Account after application pursuant to the preceding sentence be deposited into the Collection Account as Interest Proceeds and/or as Principal Proceeds (allocated in such proportion as the Portfolio Manager directs in its sole discretion) for distribution on the first Payment Date. Any funds remaining on deposit in the Interest Reserve Account after the first Payment Date will be withdrawn on the second Payment Date to pay the amount necessary such that the amounts referred to in clauses (1) through (17) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” will be paid in full on the second Payment Date. The Trustee will transfer any remaining funds on deposit in the Interest Reserve Account on the second Payment Date to the Collection Account, as directed by the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion as Interest Proceeds and/or as Principal Proceeds (allocated in such proportion as the Portfolio Manager directs in its sole discretion) and close the Interest Reserve Account. Amounts on deposit in the Interest Reserve Account shall be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions), no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date.

Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. To the extent that any Synthetic Security requires the Issuer to secure its obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee and the Trustee shall establish a segregated non-interest bearing trust account (the “Synthetic Security Counterparty Account”) for the Synthetic Security which shall be held in trust for the benefit of the related Synthetic Security Counterparty and over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security and the Indenture. In the alternative, a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account may be established with a trustee designated by the Synthetic Security Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that custodian would qualify to be a successor trustee under the Indenture and the account satisfies the other requirements of a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account under the Indenture.

As directed in writing by the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee shall deposit (or deliver for deposit) into each Synthetic Security Counterparty Account all amounts or securities that are required to secure the obligations of the Issuer in accordance with the related Synthetic Security, including the entire notional amount of any Synthetic Security in the form of a credit default swap or other similar transaction. The Portfolio Manager shall direct any such deposit only during the Reinvestment Period and only to the extent that monies are available for the purchase of Collateral Obligations pursuant to the Indenture. Any income received on amounts in the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall, after application in accordance with the relevant Synthetic Security, be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Interest Proceeds.

As directed by the Portfolio Manager in writing and in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security and the Indenture, amounts on deposit in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be invested in Synthetic Security Collateral.

In connection with the occurrence of a credit event or an event of default or a termination event (each as defined in the applicable Synthetic Security) under the related Synthetic Security, amounts in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be withdrawn by the Trustee (or the Trustee shall request their withdrawal) and applied toward the payment of any amounts payable by the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the Synthetic Security, as directed by the Portfolio Manager in writing. Any excess amounts held in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account, or held directly by a Synthetic Security Counterparty, after payment of all amounts owing from the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the related Synthetic Security shall be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Principal Proceeds.

Amounts on deposit in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the Synthetic Security that relates to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer (with the notional amount as the Principal Balance unless a default exists under the applicable Synthetic Security).

Hedge Agreements

At any time and from time to time after the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, may enter into the Hedge Agreements and will assign its rights (but none of its obligations) under the Hedge Agreements to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture and the collateral assignment of Hedge Agreements. The Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, will obtain the approval of each new Hedge Agreement from each Hedge Counterparty to a then-existing Hedge Agreement. The Trustee will, on behalf of the Issuer and in accordance with the Valuation Report, pay amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements on any Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Each Hedge Counterparty will be required to have (i) a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "Aa3" (which rating of "Aa3" is not on credit watch for a possible downgrade) or higher if the Hedge Counterparty has only a long-term rating; or a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "A1" (which rating of "A1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) or higher and a debt rating by Moody's for short-term debt of "P-1" (which rating of "P-1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) if the Hedge Counterparty has both long-term and short-term ratings and (ii) a short-term debt rating by S&P of not less than "A-1" or a long-term debt rating of not less than "A+" (the "Required Rating").

If at any time a Hedge Counterparty has:

- (A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating and that rating is below "Aa3" or is "Aa3" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's; or
- (B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:
  - (i) the long-term Moody's rating is below "A1" or that rating is "A1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's; or
  - (ii) the short-term Moody's rating is below "P-1" or that rating is "P-1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's;

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

- (i) post collateral with the Trustee to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement, in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's to be satisfied; or
- (ii) obtain a guarantor whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria; or
- (iii) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria; or
- (iv) take other actions to satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's.

If at any time the Hedge Counterparty has:

- (A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating that is "A2" or below or has been suspended or withdrawn;
- (B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:
  - (i) the long-term Moody's rating is "A3" or below or is suspended or withdrawn; or
  - (ii) the short-term Moody's rating is "P-2" or below; or
- (C) a short-term debt rating by S&P below "A-1" or, if the Hedge Counterparty has no short-term rating by S&P, a long-term rating by S&P below "A+" or that has been suspended or withdrawn;

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

- (i) post collateral as required by the Hedge Agreement to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's and S&P to be satisfied; or
- (ii) (x) obtain a guarantor that has a Required Rating and that will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P with respect to its appointment; (y) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty that has a Required Rating and the appointment of which will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P; or (z) take such other actions to satisfy the Ratings Condition;

provided that, if at any time the Hedge Counterparty has a short-term debt rating by S&P below "A-3" or, if the Hedge Counterparty has no short-term rating by S&P, a long-term rating by S&P below "BBB-" or such Hedge Counterparty's rating has been suspended or withdrawn, then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to within 7 days replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty that has a Required Rating and the appointment of which will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P.

Any payments required to be made under the Hedge Agreements shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments shall be subordinate to interest and principal payments on the Notes and any other payments required to be made by the Issuer under the Hedge Agreements, but senior to distributions to Holders of the Class E Certificates pursuant to the Indenture.

Unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is otherwise satisfied, following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) the Issuer, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, shall promptly (but no later than 60 days after the early termination), at the expense of the Issuer and to the extent possible through Hedge Termination Receipts, enter into a replacement hedge, unless, in the exercise of the Portfolio Manager's commercially reasonable judgment, to do so would not be in the best interest of the Issuer and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to not entering into a replacement hedge. In addition, a replacement hedge may not be entered into unless the Issuer provides the Rating Agencies with at least seven Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to enter into a replacement hedge, together with its form and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the replacement hedge. The Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than a termination resulting from the bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar event with respect to the Hedge Counterparty) to become effective simultaneously with its entering into a replacement hedge. To the extent that (i) the Portfolio Manager determines not to replace the Hedge Agreement and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the determination; or (ii) termination is occurring on a Redemption Date, the Hedge Termination Receipts shall become part of Principal Proceeds and be distributed in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the next following Payment Date (or on the Redemption Date, if the Notes are redeemed on the Redemption Date).

The notional amounts of the Hedge Agreements outstanding at any time may be reduced or increased from time to time, by the Issuer, and the Hedge Agreements may be amended, modified, or terminated in accordance with the Hedge Agreements if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the reduction, increase, amendment, modification, or termination, as the case may be.

Each Hedge Agreement may be terminated pursuant to its terms upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes or an acceleration of maturity of the Notes after an Event of Default. The Hedge Agreement will not be permitted to be terminated as the result of a Default or Event of Default unless any acceleration of maturity of the Notes resulting from the Event of Default is no longer permitted to be rescinded and liquidation of the Collateral has begun pursuant to the Indenture.

The Issuer shall not enter into any hedge agreement unless (i) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied and (ii) the entry into, performance and termination of such hedge agreement will not subject the Issuer to net income tax in any jurisdiction outside its jurisdiction of incorporation.

Synthetic Securities

The Issuer will not enter into a Synthetic Security Agreement with a Synthetic Security Counterparty unless the terms of such Synthetic Security Agreement provide that, if at any time the Synthetic Security Counterparty does not meet the Synthetic Security Counterparty Ratings Requirement, such Synthetic Security Counterparty shall (at the sole cost of the Synthetic Security Counterparty) take one of the following actions within 30 days following the date on which the Synthetic Security Counterparty fails to meet such Synthetic Security Counterparty Ratings Requirement:

- (i) post collateral with the Trustee to secure the Synthetic Security Counterparty's obligations under the Synthetic Security Agreement, in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to S&P to be satisfied; provided that, if the Synthetic Security Counterparty's senior unsecured credit rating by S&P for long-term debt of such Synthetic Security Counterparty are rated below "BBB+" and the senior unsecured, credit rating by S&P for short-term senior debt of such Synthetic Security Counterparty are rated below "A 2" (if such Synthetic Counterparty has a short term rating from Standard & Poor's), the Synthetic Security Counterparty shall obtain or provide a legal opinion addressed to the Issuer and the Trustee acceptable to S&P to the effect that the collateral will be available to the Trustee and the Noteholders in the event of the insolvency of such Synthetic Security Counterparty;
- (ii) obtain a guarantor whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the Synthetic Security Counterparty Ratings Requirement;
- (iii) cause an entity who satisfies the Security Counterparty Ratings Requirement to issue in favor of the Issuer a credit support of such Synthetic Security Counterparty's obligations under the related Synthetic Security acceptable in form and substance to the Issuer and that satisfies the Rating Condition;

(iv) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Synthetic Security Agreement with a substitute Synthetic Security Counterparty whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the Synthetic Security Counterparty Ratings Requirement; provided that, upon successful consummation of any such substitution and assignment, the related Synthetic Security Counterparty's obligations to post collateral contemplated by clause (i) above shall terminate and Issuer shall release its security interest in, and return to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty, any then posted collateral; or

(v) take other actions to satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P.

If the Synthetic Security Counterparty has maintained its Synthetic Security Counterparty Rating Requirements pursuant to clause (ii) above, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf) shall, in the event that the Synthetic Security Counterparty fails to meet its payment obligations under the Synthetic Agreement, demand payment from the guarantor on the day such payment from the Synthetic Security Counterparty is due for the purpose of requiring such guarantor to make payment on such same day.

Securities Lending

The Indenture permits the Issuer to engage in a limited number of securities lending transactions as described below and subject to certain limitations.

The Portfolio Manager may instruct the Trustee to cause Collateral Obligations that are not Defaulted Collateral Obligations to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A+" from S&P (each, a "Securities Lending Counterparty") pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a "Securities Lending Agreement"); provided that Collateral Obligations the Market Value of which cannot be determined under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Collateral Obligations to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Portfolio Manager. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Placement Agent or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Stated Maturity of the Notes. Collateral Obligations representing no more than 15% (measured by Aggregate Principal Balance) of the Maximum Investment Amount may be loaned pursuant to Securities Lending Agreements at any time.

Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Portfolio Manager (except to the extent specified in the Indenture) and shall:

- (i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Issuer debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent Collateral Obligations;
- (ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Issuer amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent Collateral Obligation is entitled to for the period during which the Collateral Obligation is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities Lending Agreement to make "gross-up" payments to the Issuer that cover the full amount of the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;
- (iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;

- (iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;
- (v) be governed by the laws of New York;
- (vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture;
- (vii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Collateral Obligation becomes a Credit Risk Obligation or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;
- (viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty upon any redemption of the Notes in whole;
- (ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of Cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement to secure its obligation to return the Collateral Obligations or in the alternative post that collateral with a custodian for the benefit of the Issuer designated by the Securities Lending Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that custodian would qualify to be a successor trustee under the Indenture;
- (x) provide that the Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained at all times in an amount equal to at least 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value (determined daily and monitored by the Portfolio Manager) of the lent Collateral Obligations and if securities are delivered to the Trustee as security for the obligations of the Securities Lending Counterparty under the related Securities Lending Agreement, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will negotiate with the Securities Lending Counterparty a rate for the loan fee to be paid to the Issuer for lending the lent Collateral Obligations;
- (xi) the lent Collateral Obligations shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Portfolio Manager on the basis of their Market Value;
- (xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer's rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement rather than the loaned Collateral Obligation;
- (xiii) provide for early termination within 10 days at the option of the Issuer and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in the Indenture; and
- (xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in the Indenture.

If either Moody's or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty, then the Issuer, within 10 days of the downgrade, shall (i) terminate its Securities Lending Agreements with the Securities Lending Counterparty unless a guarantor for the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements has been obtained; or (ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations lent to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty so that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party, together with all other Securities Lending Agreements, are in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of Securities Lending Counterparties; or (iii) take any other steps Moody's or S&P may require to cause the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party to be treated by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, as if the obligations were owed by a counterparty having a rating at least equivalent to the rating that was assigned by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty before its being downgraded.

The Portfolio Manager shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity, or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in the Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Collateral Obligation is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement, (a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Collateral Obligation because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action) and (b) the loaned Collateral Obligations shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as a Collateral Obligation by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Collateral Obligation to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under the Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

MATURITY AND PREPAYMENT CONSIDERATIONS

The Stated Maturity of each Class of Notes will be the Payment Date in November 2017 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date; however, the principal of each Class of the Notes is expected to be paid in full prior to its Stated Maturity. Average life refers to the average amount of time that will elapse from the date of delivery of a security until each dollar of the principal of such security will be paid to the investor. The average lives of the Notes will be determined by the amount and frequency of principal payments, which are dependent upon, among other things, the amount of sinking fund payments and any other payments received at or in advance of the scheduled maturity of Collateral Obligations (whether through sale, maturity, redemption, default or other liquidation or disposition).

The actual performance of the Securities will also be affected by the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral Obligations and the characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, including the interest rate or other rate of distribution, the actual default rate and actual losses sustained, the existence and frequency of exercise of any prepayment, optional redemption, or sinking fund features and any related premium, the prevailing level of interest rates, any sales of Collateral Obligations, and any unique risks of the Collateral Obligations. Any disposition of a Collateral Obligation may change the composition and characteristics of the portfolio of Collateral Obligations and their rate of payment, and, accordingly, may affect the actual performance of each respective Class of Securities. The ability of the Issuer to reinvest any Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds in the manner described under "Security for the Notes" will also affect the performance of the Securities. Redemptions will also affect the performance of the Securities.

General

Based in Dallas, Texas, Highland Capital is a registered investment adviser specializing in below investment grade credit and special situation investing. As of September 30, 2005, Highland Capital managed over $18 billion in leveraged loans, high yield bonds, structured products and other assets for banks, insurance companies, pension plans, foundations, and high net worth individuals.

Highland Capital manages these assets through a variety of fund structures including separate accounts, CDOs, hedge funds and mutual funds. As of September 30, 2005, Highland Capital invested in approximately 1,000 below investment grade and credit sensitive credit positions, and Highland Capital's 56 person credit team followed approximately 1,200 below investment grade and credit sensitive credit positions across over 40 industries. Highland Capital or an affiliate or predecessor thereof has been an SEC-registered investment advisor since April 1993.

Investment Philosophy and Process

Highland Capital has a large range and depth of experience. It has expertise in syndicated loans, high yield bonds, and distressed investments. Highland Capital believes it is in a position to arbitrage disparities in the historical spread relationship between various below investment grade asset classes. Highland Capital believes that, historically, the most inefficient asset classes have demonstrated the best risk/return characteristics.

Highland Capital has invested over $250 million of firm capital in its funds, and expects that one of its Affiliates or funds will invest approximately $22 million aggregate Face Amount in the Class E Certificates of the Issuer. Additionally, Highland Capital believes that it strives to minimize operating expenses and hires the brightest and most talented professionals, insisting on a high degree of dedication and integrity.

Highland Capital believes that its disciplined investment process minimizes a portfolio's risk and that its strategy seeks to maximize current yield over capital appreciation while limiting downside risk. Portfolio managers actively follow each credit and several times each year the entire investment staff reviews all positions during multi-day monitoring meetings. Highland Capital diversifies its portfolios with set limits on exposure to any one given industry or issuer. Highland Capital believes that this philosophy and process has resulted in positive returns in 48 of the last 50 quarters on its underlying loan portfolio and consistent outperformance relative to its indices.

Highland Capital focuses on a "team" approach that it has used since the investment committee started in 1990. It is Highland Capital management's belief that this style creates the optimum environment for the exchange of information and the development of all investment professionals. All aspects of the investment process are coordinated through the committee's direct interaction. The investment committee, which consists of senior portfolio managers, Highland Capital's Chief Investment Officer and its Head of Structured Products, meets every morning to discuss the market, investment strategy, and credits. In addition, the firm maintains an "informal" open door policy with regards to investment or personal issues. The committee is composed of senior management and portfolio managers/analysts. Collectively, the committee utilizes an investment process which is driven by fundamental credit research. Each portfolio manager/analyst makes specific credit recommendations based upon industry coverage. The investment proposal is then brought to the investment committee for consideration. Based upon the consensus decision, the portfolio manager with the recommendation will direct Highland traders to execute the trade. Highland Capital has also provided its investment committee with a strong commitment to technology. The firm developed Wall Street Office® which is a proprietary software system that allows Highland Capital to model, portfolio manage, and trade syndicated loans. This software has been licensed to more than 70 financial institutions that invest in syndicated loans.

THE MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

The following summary describes certain provisions of the Management Agreement. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Management Agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of the Management Agreement, and in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Indenture, the Portfolio Manager will select the portfolio of Collateral Obligations and will instruct the Trustee with respect to any acquisition, disposition or sale of a Collateral Obligation and an Eligible Investment. Neither the Initial Purchaser or the Placement Agent nor any Affiliate thereof will select any of the Collateral Obligations.

Pursuant to the terms of the Management Agreement, the Portfolio Manager will monitor the Collateral Obligations and provide the Issuer with certain information received from the Collateral Administrator with respect to the composition and characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, any disposition or tender of a Collateral Obligation, the reinvestment of the proceeds of any such disposition in Eligible Investments and with respect to the retention of the proceeds of any such disposition or the application thereof toward the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations. The Portfolio Manager will, and will be authorized to, negotiate, on behalf of the Issuer, with respect to all actions to be taken by the Issuer under any Hedge Agreements.

As compensation for the performance of its obligations as Portfolio Manager, the Portfolio Manager will be entitled to receive:

- (i) a fee (the “Senior Management Fee”) that accrues from the Closing Date payable to the Portfolio Manager in arrears on each Payment Date equal to 0.30% per annum of the Maximum Investment Amount as of the first day of the related Due Period if and to the extent funds are available for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments (with the Senior Management Fee being calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed divided by 360);
- (ii) an amount (the “Subordinated Management Fee”) payable on each Payment Date equal to the sum of (a) a fee that accrues from the Closing Date payable to the Portfolio Manager in arrears on each Payment Date equal to 0.25% per annum of the Maximum Investment Amount as of the first day of the related Due Period if and to the extent funds are available for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments, (b) on any Payment Date that any part of the Senior Management Fee was not paid on the preceding Payment Date, an amount equal to interest on such unpaid amount at a rate of LIBOR for the applicable period plus 3.00% per annum and (c) on any Payment Date that any part of the Subordinated Management Fee was not paid on the preceding Payment Date, an amount equal to interest on such unpaid amount at a rate of LIBOR for the applicable period plus 3.00% per annum (with the portion of the Subordinated Management Fee or Senior Management Fee, as applicable, in clauses (a) through (c) above, as applicable, being calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed divided by 360); and
- (iii) a fee (the “Incentive Management Fee” and together with the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee, the “Management Fee”), if any, payable on each Payment Date to the Portfolio Manager in an amount equal to: (i) 20% of the remaining Interest Proceeds, if any, available for payment in respect of the Incentive Management Fee pursuant to clause (23) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” and (ii) 20% of the remaining Principal Proceeds, if any, available for payment in respect of the Incentive Management Fee pursuant to clause (9) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

The Portfolio Manager may, in its sole discretion: (i) waive all or any portion of the Management Fee, any funds representing the waived Management Fees to be retained in the Collection Account for distribution as either Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds (as determined by the Portfolio Manager) pursuant to the Priority of Payments; or (ii) defer all or any portion of the Management Fee, any funds representing the deferred Management Fees to be retained in the Collection Account, when they will become payable in the same manner and priority as their original characterization would have required unless deferred again.

The Portfolio Manager, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, and its Affiliates and their directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, shall not be liable to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Noteholders, the Holders of Class Q-1 Securities, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Holders of the Class E Certificates or any other person for any losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (collectively “Liabilities”) incurred by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Noteholders, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Holders of the Class E Certificates or any other person that arise out of or in connection with the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under the Management Agreement and the Indenture, except by reason of (i) acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance, or reckless disregard, of the obligations of the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to it or (ii) with respect to any information included in this Offering Memorandum in the sections entitled “The Portfolio Manager” that contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (the preceding clauses (i) and (ii) collectively being the “Portfolio Manager Breaches”). The Portfolio Manager will be liable for any non-waivable breaches of applicable securities laws.

The Issuer will indemnify and hold harmless the Portfolio Manager, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees (such parties collectively in such case, the “Indemnified Parties”) from and against any and all Liabilities, and shall reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) (collectively, the “Expenses”) as such Expenses are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the “Actions”), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with, the issuance of the Securities, the transactions contemplated by the Offering Memorandum, the Indenture or the Management Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided, however, that no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions by any Indemnified Party constituting Portfolio Manager Breaches. Any such indemnification by the Issuer will be paid in accordance with, and subject to, the Priority of Payments.

Pursuant to the terms of the Management Agreement, the Portfolio Manager will agree that on the Closing Date the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates or funds will purchase Class E Certificates having an aggregate Face Amount approximately equal to $22 million.

The Management Agreement may not be amended or modified (other than an amendment or modification of the type that may be made to the Indenture without Holder consent) (a) without satisfying the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency and (b) if a Majority of the Controlling Class or a Majority of the Class E Certificates have objected in writing to such amendment or modification within 30 days of notice thereof.

Subject to the termination provisions of the Management Agreement, any assignment of the Management Agreement to any Person, in whole or in part, by the Portfolio Manager will be deemed null and void unless (i) such assignment is consented to in writing by the Issuer, the Holders of at least 66-2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class of Notes and Holders of a Majority of the Class E Certificates (excluding Class E Certificates held by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, or any account for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority), (ii) the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to any such assignment and (iii) such assignee or delegate shall not cause the Issuer to be subject to tax in the United States. The Management Agreement shall not be assigned by the Issuer without the prior written consent of the Portfolio Manager and the Trustee, except in the case of assignment by the Issuer to (i) an entity which is a successor to the Issuer permitted under the Indenture, in which case such successor organization shall be bound under the Management Agreement and by the terms of said assignment in the same manner as the Issuer is bound thereunder or (ii) the Trustee as contemplated by the Indenture.

The Management Agreement provides that the Portfolio Manager will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Portfolio Manager such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm’s length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other, (iii) such transaction is permitted by the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and (iv) such transaction satisfies the requirements in the Management Agreement and the Indenture. The Management Agreement also provides that the Portfolio Manager will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager serves as investment advisor, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager serves as investment advisor unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Portfolio Manager, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other, (ii) permitted by the Investment Adviser's Act of 1940 and (iii) in compliance with the terms of the Management Agreement and the Indenture.

Subject to the provisions for a successor portfolio manager discussed below, the Portfolio Manager may resign, upon 90 days' written notice to the Issuer (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer).

The Management Agreement provides that the Portfolio Manager may be removed without cause upon 90 days' prior written notice by the Issuer, at the direction of the Holders of at least 66-2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Class E Certificates (excluding Class E Certificates held by the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or any account for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority at the time of such vote); provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to avoid any such removal if, on or prior to the proposed removal date the following conditions are satisfied: (i) the Portfolio Manager provides written notice, not less than 20 Business Days prior to the proposed removal date, to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to Holders of Class E Certificates), the Issuer and the Trustee that the Portfolio Manager intends to purchase not less than all of the Class E Certificates voting for such removal from the Holders thereof (the "Directing Class E Certificates"), (ii) in the notice provided to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (for forwarding to Holders of Class E Certificates) in the preceding clause (i), the Portfolio Manager includes a statement to the effect that each Holder of Class E Certificates who did not vote for removal may provide written notice to the Portfolio Manager not later than 5 Business Days prior to the proposed removal date that the Class E Certificates held by such Holder shall be deemed to be included in the Directing Class E Certificates as provided in the preceding clause (i) and (iii) the Portfolio Manager effects the purchase of not less than all of the Directing Class E Certificates (including Class E Certificates represented by Class E Certificate Components in accordance with the Indenture) at the Buy-out Amount (provided that in the case of the Class P Securities only the Class E Certificates represented by the Class E Certificate Component will be sold, and the applicable Class P U.S. Treasury Component will be distributed to the Holder in kind). If all of the conditions set forth in the preceding sentence are satisfied on or prior to the proposed removal date, the Portfolio Manager shall continue as the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement.

In addition, the Management Agreement will be terminated, and the Portfolio Manager will be removed, by the Issuer, if directed by the Trustee or by Holders of a Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class of Notes or by Holders of at least 66-2/3% of the Class E Certificates (excluding any Class E Certificates held by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates or any account for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority at the time of such vote), in each case for "cause" upon 10 days' prior written notice to the Portfolio Manager and upon written notice to the Noteholders and the Holders of the Class E Certificates as set forth below. For purposes of determining "cause" with respect to any such termination of the Management Agreement, such term shall mean any one of the following events:

- (i) the Portfolio Manager willfully breaches in any respect, or takes any action that it knows violates in any respect, any provision of the Management Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it;
- (ii) the Portfolio Manager breaches in any material respect any provision of the Management Agreement or any terms of the Indenture or the Collateral Administration Agreement applicable to it, or any representation, warranty, certification or statement given in writing by the Portfolio Manager shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect when made or given, and the Portfolio Manager fails to cure such breach or take such action so that the facts (after giving effect to such action) conform in all material respects to such representation, warranty, certificate or statement, in each case within 30 days of becoming aware of, or receiving notice from, the Trustee of, such breach or materially incorrect representation, warranty, certificate or statement;

(iii) certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency occur with respect to the Portfolio Manager;

(iv) the occurrence of any Event of Default under the Indenture that results from any breach by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under the Indenture or the Management Agreement, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period; or

(v) (x) the occurrence of an act by the Portfolio Manager related to its activities in any securities, financial advisory or other investment business that constitutes fraud, (y) the Portfolio Manager being indicted, or any of its principals being convicted, of a felony criminal offense related to its activities in any securities, financial advisory or other investment business or (z) the Portfolio Manager being indicted for, adjudged liable in a civil suit for, or convicted of a violation of the Securities Act or any other United States Federal securities law or any rules or regulations thereunder.

No removal, termination or resignation of the Portfolio Manager will be effective under the Management Agreement unless:

(i) the Issuer appoints a successor portfolio manager:

(a) (A) at the written direction of a Super Majority of the Class E Certificates (excluding any Class E Certificates held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority), (B) such successor has agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to the Management Agreement and the Indenture and (C) a Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class of Notes has consented to the appointment of such successor portfolio manager and (D) such successor portfolio manager is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single Class (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority)); or

(b) if a Super Majority of the Class E Certificates (excluding any Class E Certificates held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority) has nominated two or more successor portfolio managers that have either not been consented to pursuant to subclause (C) of clause (a) above or been objected to pursuant to subclause (D) of clause (a) above or has otherwise failed to appoint a successor portfolio manager that has been consented to pursuant to subclause (C) of clause (a) above and is not objected to pursuant to clause (D) of clause (a) above within 30 days of the date of notice of such removal, termination or resignation of the Portfolio Manager, then (A) at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, (B) such successor has agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to the Management Agreement and the Indenture and (C) such successor portfolio manager is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) the Majority of the Class E Certificates (excluding any Class E Certificates held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority) or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single Class (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority)); or

(c) if a Majority of the Controlling Class fails to appoint a successor portfolio manager pursuant to clause (b) above, within 90 days of the date of notice of such removal, termination or resignation of the Portfolio Manager, the Majority of the Controlling Class may petition a court of competent authority to appoint a successor portfolio manager.

In addition, any successor portfolio manager must be an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement, as successor to the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement and under the applicable terms of the Indenture, (iii) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of Collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, (iv) shall perform its duties as Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement and the Indenture without causing the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any Holder of Class E Certificates to become subject to tax in any jurisdiction where such successor portfolio manager is established as doing business and (v) each Rating Agency has confirmed that the appointment of such successor portfolio manager shall not cause its then-current rating of any Class of Notes to be reduced or withdrawn. No compensation payable to a successor from payments on the Collateral shall be greater than that paid to the Portfolio Manager without the prior written consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes, a Majority of the Notes (voting collectively) and a Majority of the Class E Certificates (voting collectively).

The Management Agreement, and any obligations or duties of the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement, cannot be delegated by the Portfolio Manager, in whole or in part, except to any entity that (i) is controlled by two or more of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers, (ii) is one in which two or more of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers is involved in the day to day management and operations (and in such case pursuant to an instrument of delegation in form and substance satisfactory to the Issuer), without the prior written consent of the Issuer, a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes and a Majority of the Class E Certificates (excluding Class E Certificates held by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates or any account for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority); provided that such delegation shall not cause the Issuer to be subject to tax in the United States, and notwithstanding any such consent, no delegation of obligations or duties by the Portfolio Manager (including, without limitation, to an entity described above) shall relieve the Portfolio Manager from any liability under the Management Agreement.

THE LOAN MARKET

A substantial portion, by principal amount, of the Collateral Obligations is expected to consist of corporate loans rated below investment grade extended to U.S. and other non-U.S. borrowers. Such loans are typically negotiated by one or more commercial banks or other financial institutions and syndicated among a group of commercial banks and financial institutions.

Corporate loans are typically at the most senior level of the capital structure, and are often secured by specific collateral, including but not limited to, trademarks, patents, accounts receivable, inventory, equipment, buildings, real estate, franchises and common and preferred stock of the obligor and its subsidiaries. Some loans may be unsecured, subordinated to other obligations of the obligor and may have greater credit and liquidity risk than is typically associated with senior secured corporate loans. The corporate loans expected to secure the Notes are of a type generally incurred by the borrowers thereunder in connection with a highly leveraged transaction, often to finance internal growth, acquisitions, mergers, stock purchases, or for other reasons. As a result of the additional debt incurred by the borrower in the course of the transactions, the borrower's creditworthiness is often judged by the rating agencies to be below investment grade. In order to induce the banks and institutional investors to invest in a borrower's loan facility, and to offer a favorable interest rate, the borrower often provides the banks and institutional investors with extensive information about its business, which is not generally available to the public. Because of the provision of confidential information, the unique and customized nature of a loan agreement, and the private syndication of the loan, loans are not as easily purchased or sold as a publicly traded security, and historically the trading volume in the loan market has been small relative to the high yield bond market.

Corporate loans often provide for restrictive covenants designed to limit the activities of the borrower in an effort to protect the right of lenders to receive timely payments of interest on and repayment of principal of the loans. Such covenants may include restrictions on dividend payments, specific mandatory minimum financial ratios, limits on total debt and other financial tests. A breach of covenant (after giving effect to any cure period) in a loan that is not waived by the lending syndicate normally is an event of acceleration that allows the syndicate to demand immediate repayment in full of the outstanding loan. Loans usually have shorter terms than more junior obligations and may require mandatory prepayments from excess cash flow, asset dispositions and offerings of debt and/or equity securities.

The majority of loans bear interest based on a floating rate index, e.g., LIBOR, the certificate of deposit rate, a prime or base rate (each as defined in the applicable loan agreement) or other index, which may reset daily (as most prime or base rate indices do) or offer the borrower a choice of one, two, three, six, nine or twelve month interest rate and rate reset periods. The purchaser of a loan may receive certain syndication or participation fees in connection with its purchase. Other fees payable in respect of a loan, which are separate from interest payments on such loan, may include facility, commitment, amendment and prepayment fees.

Purchasers of loans are predominantly investment and commercial banks, which have applied their experience in high yield securities to the commercial and industrial loan market, acting as both principal and broker. The range of investors for loans has broadened to include money managers, insurance companies, arbitrageurs, bankruptcy investors and mutual funds seeking increased potential total returns and portfolio managers of trusts or special purpose companies issuing collateralized bond and loan obligations. As secondary market trading volumes increase, new loans are frequently adopting more standardized documentation to facilitate loan trading that should improve market liquidity. There can be no assurance, however, that future levels or supply and demand in loan trading will provide the degree of liquidity that currently exists in the market.

THE HIGH YIELD DEBT SECURITIES MARKET

A portion of the Collateral Obligations securing the Notes will consist of high yield debt securities rated below investment grade and Synthetic Securities, the Reference Obligations of which are high yield debt securities rated below investment grade. High yield debt securities are generally unsecured, may be subordinated to other obligations of the obligor and generally have greater credit and liquidity risk than is typically associated with investment grade corporate obligations. The lower rating of high yield debt securities reflects a greater possibility that adverse changes in the financial condition of the obligor or in general economic conditions (including a sustained period of rising interest rates or an economic downturn) may adversely affect the obligor's ability to pay principal and interest on its debt. Many issuers of high yield debt obligations are highly leveraged, and specific developments affecting such issuers, including reduced cash flow from operations or inability to refinance at maturity, may also adversely affect such issuers' ability to meet their debt service obligations.

High yield debt securities are often issued in connection with leveraged acquisitions or recapitalizations in which the issuers incur a substantially higher amount of indebtedness than the level at which they had previously operated. High yield debt securities have historically experienced greater default rates than has been the case for investment grade securities. Although several studies have been made of historical default rates in the high yield market, such studies do not necessarily provide a basis for drawing definitive conclusions with respect to default rates and, in any event, do not necessarily provide a basis for predicting future default rates.

INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations

In General

The following summary describes the principal U.S. federal income tax and Cayman Islands tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Securities. It does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to purchase the Securities. In particular, special tax considerations that may apply to certain types of taxpayers, including securities dealers, banks and insurance companies, and investors purchasing Securities after the initial offering, are not addressed. In addition, this summary does not describe any tax consequences arising under the laws of any taxing jurisdiction other than the United States federal government and the Cayman Islands. In general, the summary assumes that a holder acquires a Security at original issuance (and, in the case of the Notes, at its issue price) and holds such Security as a capital asset and not as part of a hedge, straddle, or conversion transaction, within the meaning of section 1258 of the Code.

This summary is based on the U.S. and Cayman Islands tax laws, regulations, rulings and decisions in effect or available on the date of this Offering Memorandum, as well as the expected Cayman Islands undertaking described in “— Cayman Islands Tax Considerations.” All of the foregoing are subject to change, and any change may apply retroactively and could affect the continued validity of this summary, although it is expected that no changes will apply in the Cayman Islands due to the undertaking.

Prospective purchasers of the Securities should consult their own tax advisers as to U.S. federal income tax and Cayman Islands tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Securities, including the possible application of state, local, non-U.S. or other tax laws.

As used in this section, the term “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of a Security who is, for U.S. federal tax purposes, a citizen or individual resident of the United States, a U.S. domestic corporation or partnership, any estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of the source of its income or any trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

IRS Circular 230 Notice

To ensure compliance with Internal Revenue Service Circular 230, prospective investors are hereby notified that: (a) any discussion of U.S. federal tax issues contained or referred to in this Offering Memorandum or any document referred to herein is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, by prospective investors for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed on them under the Internal Revenue Code; (b) such discussion is written for use in connection with the promotion or marketing of the transactions or matters addressed herein; and (c) prospective purchasers should seek advice based on their particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

Tax Treatment of the Issuer

United States Federal Income Taxes. The Issuer will be treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Except as otherwise described below under “— Potential U.S. Taxation of Net Income,” the Issuer intends to operate so as not to be subject to U.S. federal income taxes on its net income. The Issuer expects, based on an opinion it will receive from Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP, special U.S. federal income tax counsel to the Issuer, that it will conduct its affairs so that it will not be engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except to the extent it holds certain equity securities issued by non-corporate entities that are so engaged.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Issuer were engaged in a trade or business in the United States, it would potentially be subject to substantial U.S. federal taxes. The imposition of such taxes would materially affect the Issuer’s financial ability to repay the Notes and Class E Certificates and could materially affect the yield on the Notes and the return on the Class E Certificates.

With respect to Cayman Islands taxation, see the discussion below in “— Cayman Islands Tax Considerations.”

The remainder of this summary assumes that the opinion received by the Issuer from Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP is correct and that the Issuer will not be engaged in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Potential U.S. Taxation of Net Income. The Issuer may become the owner of a limited amount of equity securities that the issuers of Collateral Obligations distribute with respect to such Collateral Obligations. Such equity securities may be treated as stock of U.S. real property holding corporations or equity interests in partnerships that may be engaged in U.S. trades or businesses. Gain or loss realized by the Issuer on the disposition of stock of a U.S. real property holding corporation will be treated as if such gain or loss were effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. In addition, the U.S. trade or business of a partnership in which the Issuer holds an equity interest may be attributed to the Issuer and the income derived from such equity interest may be effectively connected with such U.S. trade or business. Net income of the Issuer that is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business will be potentially subject to substantial U.S. federal income taxation under sections 882(a) and 884 of the Code. In addition, holding such a partnership interest could cause the Issuer to be deemed to be “doing business” within a U.S. state or local taxing jurisdiction, or otherwise subject to U.S. state or local taxation. Any such U.S. federal, state or local taxation could affect the Issuer’s financial ability to repay the Notes.

Withholding Taxes. Although the Issuer does not intend to be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to its net income, income derived by the Issuer may be subject to withholding taxes imposed by the United States or other countries. In this regard and subject to certain exceptions, the Issuer may only acquire a particular Collateral Obligation if, at the time of commitment to purchase, either the payments thereon (other than commitment and similar fees or dividends in respect of an equity security acquired in connection with the exercise of a warrant purchased as apart of a unit) are not subject to withholding tax or the issuer of the Collateral Obligation is required to make “gross-up” payments. Similarly, the Issuer may only enter into a Securities Lending Agreement in respect of any Collateral Obligations if the substitute interest payments received thereunder are not subject to withholding tax or the counterparty is required to make “gross-up” payments. However, there can be no assurance that income derived by the Issuer will not become subject to withholding tax as a result of a change in law, practice or interpretation. Any lending fees received under a Securities Lending Agreement may be subject to withholding tax, which would reduce the Issuer’s net income from engaging in such Securities Lending Agreement.

Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of Notes

Status of, and Interest and Discount on, the Class A Notes. The Class A Notes will be treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes. U.S. Holders of Class A Notes will treat stated interest on the Class A Notes as ordinary interest when paid or accrued, in accordance with their tax method of accounting. In general, if the issue price of a Class A Note (the first price at which a substantial amount of the Class A Notes is sold to investors) is less than its principal amount by more than a de minimis amount, the Class A Note will be considered to have original issue discount (“OID”). If a U.S. Holder acquires a Class A Note with OID, then regardless of such holder’s method of accounting, the holder will be required to include such OID in income as it accrues under a constant yield method. Accruals of OID will be based on the projected weighted average life of the relevant Class of the Class A Notes rather than the Stated Maturity. In the case of the Class A Notes, accruals of OID, if any, should be calculated by assuming that interest will be paid over the life of the Class A Notes based on the value of LIBOR used in setting interest for the first Interest Period, and then adjusting the income for each subsequent Interest Period for any difference between the actual value of LIBOR used in setting interest for that subsequent Interest Period and the assumed rate.

Status of, and Interest and Discount on, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes. The Class B Notes and the Class C Notes (collectively, the “Deferrable Interest Notes”) will be treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, the characterization of an instrument for such purposes as debt or equity by its issuer as of the time of issuance is binding on a holder but not the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”), unless the holder takes an inconsistent position and discloses such position in its tax return. Because payments of stated interest on the Deferrable Interest Notes are contingent on available funds and subject to deferral, the Deferrable Interest Notes will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as having OID. The total amount of such discount with respect to a Deferrable Interest Note will equal the sum of all payments to be received under such Note less its issue price (the first price at which a substantial amount of Deferrable Interest Notes of each Class were sold to investors). A U.S. Holder of Deferrable Interest Notes will be required to include OID in income as it accrues. The amount of OID accruing in any Interest Period will generally equal the stated interest accruing in that period (whether or not currently due) plus any additional amount representing the accrual under a constant yield method of any additional OID represented by the excess of the principal amount of the Deferrable Interest Notes over their issue price. Accruals of any such additional OID will be based on the projected weighted average life of the Deferrable Interest Notes rather than their stated maturity.

Sale and Retirement of the Notes. In general, a U.S. Holder of a Note will have a basis in such Note equal to the cost of such Note to such holder, increased by any amount includible in income by such holder as OID and reduced by any payments thereon other than, in the case of the Class A Notes only, payments of stated interest. Upon a sale or exchange of the Note, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized (less any accrued interest, which would be taxable as such) and the holder’s tax basis in such Note. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder has held such Note for more than one year at the time of disposition. In certain circumstances, U.S. Holders that are individuals may be entitled to preferential treatment for net long-term capital gains. The ability of U.S. Holders to offset capital losses against ordinary income is limited.

A U.S. Holder that purchased its Note at a discount may also recognize gain upon receipt of a principal payment upon retirement (in whole or in part) equal to the difference between the amount received and the portion of its basis that is considered to be allocable to such payment. Such gain may be ordinary income.

Extension of Stated Maturity. As described in “Description of the Securities—Extension of the Reinvestment Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date” the Securities may be subject to one or more Maturity Extensions. Upon the Extension Effective Date of the second Maturity Extension, if any, and the Extension Effective Date of the fourth Maturity Extension, if any, it is likely that continuing Holders of Securities will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as exchanging their Securities for newly issued longer-term Securities (a “deemed exchange”). Such a deemed exchange should be treated as a recapitalization for U.S. federal income tax purposes and holders generally should not recognize gain or loss except to the extent of any Extension Buyout Bonus Payment. However, holders who purchased Securities at a discount could be required to accrue such discount as interest income on a current basis as OID. For information regarding OID on the Securities, holders may contact the Portfolio Manager at the address provided above.

Amendment Buy-Out. The existence or exercise of the buy-out right described under “Description of the Securities—Amendment Buy-Out” may increase the likelihood that an amendment to the Indenture could cause a deemed exchange of a Security for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If such a deemed exchange were treated as a recapitalization, holders generally would not recognize gain or loss except to the extent of any cash received. However, holders who purchased Securities at a discount could be required as a consequence of the deemed exchange to accrue such discount as interest income on a current basis as OID. For information regarding OID on the Securities, holders may contact the Portfolio Manager at the address provided above.

Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of Class E Certificates

For purposes of Cayman Islands law, the Class E Certificates will be characterized as equity of the Issuer. The Issuer will treat the Class E Certificates as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Except where otherwise indicated, this summary also assumes such treatment. No assurance can be given, however, that the IRS will respect this position. In general, the characterization of an instrument for such purposes as debt or equity by its issuer as of the time of issuance is binding on holders (but not the IRS) unless the holder takes an inconsistent position and discloses such position in its tax return.

In general, the timing and character of income under the Class E Certificates may differ substantially depending on whether the Class E Certificates are treated for federal income tax purposes as debt instruments or as equity of the Issuer. Investors should consider the tax consequences of an investment in the Class E Certificates under either possible characterization.

Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company. The Issuer will meet the income and asset tests so as to qualify as a “passive foreign investment company” (“PFIC”). In general, to avoid certain adverse tax rules described below that apply to deferred income from a PFIC, a U.S. Holder of Class E Certificates may want to make an election to treat the Issuer as a “qualified electing fund” (“QEF”) with respect to such holder. Generally, a QEF election should be made on or before the due date for filing a U.S. Holder’s federal income tax return for the first taxable year in which it held Class E Certificates. If a timely QEF election is made, an electing U.S. Holder of Class E Certificates will be required to include in its ordinary income such holder’s pro rata share of the Issuer’s ordinary earnings and to include in its long term capital gain income such holder’s pro rata share of the Issuer’s net capital gain, whether or not distributed, assuming that the Issuer is not a “controlled foreign corporation” as discussed below. Under Section 1293 of the Code, a U.S. Holder’s pro rata share of the Issuer’s ordinary income and net capital gain is the amount which would have been distributed with respect to such holder’s Class E Certificates if, on each day during the taxable year of the Issuer, the Issuer had distributed to each holder of Class E Certificates a pro rata share of that day's ratable share of the Issuer's ordinary earnings and net capital gain for such year. In certain cases in which a QEF does not distribute all of its earnings in a taxable year, its U.S. shareholders may also be permitted to elect to defer payment of some or all of the taxes on the QEF's income but will then be subject to an interest charge on the deferred amount. Prospective purchasers of the Class E Certificates should be aware that the Collateral Obligations may be purchased by the Issuer with substantial original issue discount. As a result, the Issuer may have significant ordinary earnings from such instruments, but the receipt of cash attributable to such earnings may be deferred, perhaps for a substantial period of time. In addition, under certain circumstances, Interest Proceeds may be used to pay principal of the Notes. Thus, absent an election to defer the payment of taxes, U.S. Holders that make a QEF election may owe tax on a significant amount of "phantom" income.

The Issuer will provide, upon request, all information that a U.S. Holder of Class E Certificates making a QEF election is required to obtain for U.S. federal income tax purposes (e.g., the U.S. Holder's pro rata share of ordinary income and net capital gain), will provide, upon request, a "PFIC Annual Information Statement" as described in Treasury Regulation section 1.1295-1 (or in any successor IRS release or Treasury regulation), including all representations and statements required by such statement, and will take any other steps it reasonably can to facilitate such election. The Issuer will also elect to calculate and report the amount and category of each type of long-term capital gain as provided in section 1(h) of the Code that was recognized by the Issuer with respect to each taxable year of the Issuer.

If a U.S. Holder of Class E Certificates does not make a timely QEF election for the year in which it acquired its Class E Certificates and the PFIC rules are otherwise applicable, such holder will be subject to a special tax at ordinary income tax rates on so-called "excess distributions," including both certain distributions from the Issuer and gain on the sale of Class E Certificates. The amount of income tax on excess distributions will be increased by an interest charge to compensate for tax deferral calculated as if excess distributions were earned ratably over the period the taxpayer held its Class E Certificates. In many cases, the tax on excess distributions will be more onerous than the taxes that would apply if a timely QEF election were made. Classification as a PFIC may also have other adverse tax consequences, including in the case of individuals, the denial of a "step up" in the basis of the Class E Certificates at death.

Where a QEF election is not timely made by a U.S. Holder of Class E Certificates for the year in which it acquired its Class E Certificates, but is made for a later year, the excess distribution rules can be avoided by making an election to recognize gain from a deemed sale of the Class E Certificates at the time when the QEF election becomes effective. U.S. Holders should consult with their tax counsel regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of investing in a PFIC and the desirability of making the QEF election.

U.S. HOLDERS OF CLASS E CERTIFICATES SHOULD CONSIDER CAREFULLY WHETHER TO MAKE A QEF ELECTION WITH RESPECT TO THE CLASS E CERTIFICATES AND THE CONSEQUENCES OF NOT MAKING SUCH AN ELECTION.

Investment in a Controlled Foreign Corporation. Depending on the degree of ownership of the Class E Certificates by U.S. Shareholders (as defined below), the Issuer may be considered a controlled foreign corporation ("CFC"). In general, a foreign corporation will be a CFC if more than 50% of the shares of the corporation, measured by combined voting power or value, are held, directly or indirectly, by U.S. Shareholders. A "U.S. Shareholder" for this purpose is any U.S. person who owns or is treated as owning, under specified attribution rules, 10% or more of the combined voting power of all classes of shares of a corporation. It is possible that the IRS would assert that the Class E Certificates are voting securities and that U.S. Holders owning 10% or more of the Class E Certificates are U.S. Shareholders. If this argument were successful and more than 50% of the Class E Certificates were held by such U.S. Shareholders, the Issuer would be treated as a CFC.

If the Issuer were a CFC, subject to certain exceptions, a U.S. Shareholder of the Issuer at the end of a taxable year of the Issuer would be required to recognize ordinary income in an amount equal to that person's pro rata share of the "subpart F income" of the Issuer for the year. Among other items, and subject to certain exceptions, "subpart F income" includes interest, gains from the sale of securities and income from certain notional principal contracts (e.g., swaps and caps). It is likely that, if the Issuer were a CFC, substantially all of its income would be subpart F income. If more than 70% of the Issuer's income is subpart F income, then 100% of its income will be so treated.

If the Issuer were a CFC, a U.S. Shareholder of the Issuer would be taxable on the subpart F income of the Issuer under the CFC regime and not under the PFIC rules previously described. As a result, to the extent subpart F income of the Issuer includes net capital gains, such gains would be treated as ordinary income of the U.S. Shareholder, notwithstanding the fact that generally the character of such gains otherwise would be preserved under the PFIC rules if a QEF election were made. Also, the PFIC rule permitting the deferral of tax on undistributed earnings would not apply.

A holder of Class E Certificates that is a U.S. Shareholder of the Issuer subject to the CFC rules for only a portion of the time in which it holds Class E Certificates should consult its own tax advisers regarding the interaction of the PFIC and CFC rules.

Indirect Interests in PFICs and CFCs. If the Issuer holds a security of a non-U.S. corporation that is treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, holders of Class E Certificates could be treated as holding an indirect investment in a PFIC or a CFC. Prospective purchasers should consult their tax advisors regarding the issues relating to such investments.

Distributions on Class E Certificates. The treatment of actual cash distributions on the Class E Certificates, in very general terms, will vary depending on whether a U.S. Holder has made a timely QEF election as described above. See "— Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company." If a timely QEF election has been made, dividends (which are distributions up to the amount of current and accumulated earnings and profits of the Issuer) allocable to amounts previously taxed pursuant to the QEF election will not be taxable to U.S. Holders. Similarly, if the Issuer is a CFC of which the U.S. Holder is a U.S. Shareholder, dividends will be allocated first to amounts previously taxed pursuant to the CFC rules and to this extent will not be taxable to U.S. Holders. Dividends in excess of such previously taxed amounts will be taxable to U.S. Holders as ordinary income upon receipt. Distributions in excess of any current and accumulated earnings and profits will be treated first as a nontaxable return of capital, to the extent of the holder's tax basis in the Class E Certificates, and then as capital gain. The distributions on the Class E Certificates do not qualify for the benefit of the reduced U.S. tax rate applicable to certain dividends received by individuals.

In the event that a U.S. Holder of Class E Certificates does not make a timely QEF election, then except to the extent that distributions may be attributable to amounts previously taxed pursuant to the CFC rules, some or all of any dividends distributed with respect to the Class E Certificates may be considered excess distributions, taxable as previously described. See "— Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company."

Sale, Redemption or other Disposition of Class E Certificates. In general, a U.S. Holder of Class E Certificates will recognize gain or loss (which will be capital gain or loss, except as discussed below) upon the sale or exchange of Class E Certificates equal to the difference between the amount realized and such holder's adjusted tax basis in the Class E Certificates. A U.S. Holder's tax basis in Class E Certificates will generally equal the amount it paid for the Class E Certificates, increased by amounts taxable to such holder by virtue of a QEF election, or under the CFC rules, and decreased by actual distributions from the Issuer that are deemed to consist of such previously taxed amounts or represent a return of capital.

If a U.S. Holder does not make a timely QEF election as described above and the PFIC rules are otherwise applicable, any gain realized on the sale or exchange of Class E Certificates will be treated as an excess distribution and effectively taxed as ordinary income with an interest charge under the special tax rules described above. See “— Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company.”

If the Issuer were treated as a CFC and a U.S. Holder were treated as a U.S. Shareholder therein, then any gain realized by such holder upon the disposition of Class E Certificates, other than gain constituting an excess distribution under the PFIC rules, would be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the U.S. Holder’s share of the current and accumulated earnings and profits of the Issuer. In this respect, earnings and profits would not include any amounts previously taxed pursuant to a QEF election or pursuant to the CFC rules. The pledge of stock of a PFIC may in some circumstances be treated as a disposition of such stock.

Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of Class Q-1 Securities and Class P Securities

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, each holder of a Class Q-1 Security or a Class P Security (together, the “Combination Securities”) will be treated as if it directly owned the corresponding components of such Combination Security. In calculating its basis in each of the components, a holder will be required to allocate the purchase price paid for its Combination Security among the components in proportion to their relative fair market values at the time of purchase. A similar principle would apply in determining the amount allocable to each component upon a sale. The exchange of a Combination Security for its corresponding components will not be a taxable event. A holder of a Combination Security should review the applicable discussion above and below to determine the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of such components that are Securities. Because the Class P U.S. Treasury Components consist of zero coupon U.S. Treasury securities, the Class P U.S. Treasury Components will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as having OID. Accordingly, a U.S. Holder of Class P Securities, or U.S. Treasury securities exchanged therefor, will be required to include OID in income as it accrues. A holder of a Class P Security should consult its tax advisor with respect to the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component.

Tax Treatment of Tax-Exempt U.S. Holders

In general, a tax-exempt U.S. Holder of Notes will not be subject to tax on unrelated business taxable income (“UBTI”) with respect to the income from the Notes regardless of whether they are treated as equity or debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except to the extent that the Notes are considered debt-financed property (as defined in the Code) of that entity. A tax-exempt U.S. Holder that owns more than 50% of the outstanding Class E Certificates and also owns Notes should consider the possible application of the special UBTI rules for amounts received from controlled entities.

A tax-exempt entity may not make a QEF election if the tax-exempt entity would not otherwise be subject to tax on income from the Class E Certificates.

Tax Treatment of Non-U.S. Holders of the Notes and Class E Certificates

Payments on the Notes and Class E Certificates to a non-U.S. Holder, or gain realized on the sale, exchange or redemption of such Notes or Class E Certificates by such holder, will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax, as the case may be, unless such income is effectively connected with a trade or business conducted by such non-U.S. Holder in the United States, or, in the case of gain, such holder is a nonresident alien individual who holds the Notes or Class E Certificates as a capital asset and who is present in the United States more than 182 days in the taxable year of the sale, exchange or redemption and certain other conditions are met. A non-U.S. Holder will not be considered to be engaged in a U.S. trade or business solely by reason of holding Notes or Class E Certificates. “Non-effectively connected” gain or distributions received by a non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to information reporting requirements or U.S. back-up withholding, although such holders generally will be required to furnish a certificate to the paying agent of the Issuer attesting to their status as non-U.S. Holders.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Information reporting to the IRS generally will be required with respect to payments on the Securities and proceeds of the sale of the Securities to holders other than corporations or other exempt recipients. A “backup” withholding tax will apply to those payments if such holder fails to provide certain identifying information (such as such holder’s taxpayer identification number) to the Trustee or other paying agent. Non-U.S. Holders generally will be required to comply with applicable certification procedures to establish that they are not U.S. Holders in order to avoid the application of such information reporting requirements and backup withholding.

Transfer Reporting Requirements

Treasury regulations require reporting for certain transfers of property (including cash) to a foreign corporation by U.S. persons or entities. In general, these rules require any U.S. Holders who acquire Class E Certificates to file a Form 926 with the IRS and to supply certain additional information to the IRS. In the event a U.S. Holder fails to file any such required form, the U.S. Holder could be subject to a penalty equal to 10% of the gross amount paid for the Class E Certificates, subject to a maximum penalty of $100,000 (except in cases involving intentional disregard). Holders of Notes who also purchase Class E Certificates should consult their tax advisers regarding these reporting requirements.

In addition, the Code and related Treasury regulations require that any U.S. Holder that directly or indirectly owns a significant portion of the voting power or value of the Issuer’s equity (generally 10%, but in some cases 50%) must comply with certain reporting requirements. While it is unclear how the voting power of the Class E Certificates would be measured for this purpose, a U.S. Holder that owns less than 10% (or 50%, as applicable) of the Class E Certificates generally should not be required to file this return. In general, such holders of the applicable percentage of the voting power or value of the Issuer’s equity are required to file a Form 5471 with the IRS and to supply certain information to the IRS, including with respect to the activities and assets of the Issuer and other holders of the Class E Certificates. If a U.S. Holder fails to comply with the reporting requirements, the U.S. Holder may be subject to a penalty, depending on the circumstances, equal to (a) U.S. $1,000 for each failure to comply or (b) U.S. $10,000 for each failure to comply, subject to a maximum of U.S. $60,000. Purchasers of Class E Certificates are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding these reporting requirements.

Cayman Islands Tax Considerations

The following discussion of certain Cayman Islands income tax consequences of an investment in the Securities is based on the advice of Walkers as to Cayman Islands law. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It assumes that the Issuer will conduct its affairs in accordance with assumptions made by, and representations made to, counsel. It is not intended as tax advice, does not consider any investor’s particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

Under existing Cayman Islands laws:

(i) payments of principal and interest on the Notes and dividends and capital in respect of the Class E Certificates will not be subject to taxation in the Cayman Islands and no withholding will be required on such payments to any Holder of a Security and gains derived from the sale of Securities will not be subject to Cayman Islands income or corporation tax. The Cayman Islands currently have no income, corporation or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax;

(ii) no stamp duty is payable in respect of the issue or transfer of Securities although duty may be payable if Notes are executed in or brought into the Cayman Islands; and

(iii) certificates evidencing Securities, in registered form, to which title is not transferable by delivery, should not attract Cayman Islands stamp duty. However, an instrument transferring title to a Note, if brought to or executed in the Cayman Islands, would be subject to Cayman Islands stamp duty.

The Issuer has been incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands as an exempted company and, as such, has applied for and obtained an undertaking from the Governor in Cabinet of the Cayman Islands in substantially the following form:

“THE TAX CONCESSIONS LAW
(1999 REVISION)
UNDERTAKING AS TO TAX CONCESSIONS

In accordance with Section 6 of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision) the Governor in Cabinet undertakes with:

Liberty CLO, Ltd. “the Company”

- (a) that no Law which is hereafter enacted in the Islands imposing any tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations shall apply to the Company or its operations; and
- (b) in addition, that no tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations or which is in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax shall be payable
  - (i) on or in respect of the shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company; or
  - (ii) by way of the withholding in whole or in part of any relevant payment as defined in Section 6(3) of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision).

These concessions shall be for a period of TWENTY years from the 9th day of August, 2005.

GOVERNOR IN CABINET”

The Cayman Islands does not have an income tax treaty arrangement with the U.S. or any other country.

THE PRECEDING DISCUSSION IS ONLY A SUMMARY OF CERTAIN OF THE TAX IMPLICATIONS OF AN INVESTMENT IN THE SECURITIES. PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS ARE URGED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS PRIOR TO INVESTING TO DETERMINE THE TAX IMPLICATIONS OF SUCH INVESTMENT IN LIGHT OF SUCH INVESTORS’ CIRCUMSTANCES.

ERISA CONSIDERATIONS

The U.S. Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), imposes certain requirements on “employee benefit plans” (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) subject to Title I of ERISA, including entities such as collective investment funds and separate accounts whose underlying assets include the assets of such plans (collectively, “ERISA Plans”), and on those persons who are fiduciaries with respect to ERISA Plans. Investments by ERISA Plans are subject to ERISA’s general fiduciary requirements, including the requirement of investment prudence and diversification and the requirement that an ERISA Plan’s investments be made in accordance with the documents governing the ERISA Plan. The prudence of a particular investment must be determined by the responsible fiduciary of an ERISA Plan by taking into account the ERISA Plan’s particular circumstances and all of the facts and circumstances of the investment including, but not limited to, the matters discussed above under “Risk Factors” and the fact that in the future there may be no market in which such fiduciary will be able to sell or otherwise dispose of any Notes it may purchase.

Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code prohibit certain transactions involving the assets of an ERISA Plan (as well as those plans that are not subject to ERISA but which are subject to Section 4975 of the Code, such as individual retirement accounts, including entities whose underlying assets include the assets of such plans (together with ERISA Plans, “Plans”)) and certain persons (referred to as “parties in interest” or “disqualified persons”) having certain relationships to such Plans, unless a statutory or administrative exemption is applicable to the transaction. A party in interest or disqualified person who engages in a prohibited transaction may be subject to excise taxes and other penalties and liabilities under ERISA and the Code. In addition, the fiduciary of the Plan that engaged in such a non-exempt prohibited transaction may be subject to penalties and liabilities under ERISA and/or the Code.

Governmental plans, certain church plans and non-U.S. plans, while not subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA or the provisions of Section 4975 of the Code, may nevertheless be subject to local, state or other federal laws or non-U.S. laws that are substantially similar to the foregoing provisions of ERISA and the Code (“Similar Laws”). Fiduciaries of any such plans should consult with their counsel before purchasing any Securities.

The Notes should not be considered to be “equity interests” in the Issuer, but the Class E Certificates will constitute “equity interests” in the Issuer and the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities may constitute “equity interests” in the Issuer, for purposes of the U.S. Department of Labor’s plan asset regulation, 29 CFR Section 2510.3-101 (the “Plan Asset Regulation”), describing what constitutes the assets of a Plan with respect to the Plan’s investment in an entity for purposes of certain provisions of ERISA, including the fiduciary responsibility provisions of Title I of ERISA, and Section 4975 of the Code. In light of the foregoing, the Class E Certificates, the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities may not be purchased or held by, with the assets of or on behalf of, any Plan. Each initial purchaser and each subsequent transferee of Certificated Class E Certificates, Certificated Class Q-1 Securities and Certificated Class P Securities will be required to represent and warrant, and each initial purchaser and subsequent transferee of Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities and Class P Securities represented by Temporary Regulation S Global Securities or Regulation S Global Securities by its acquisition thereof will be deemed to represent and warrant, that (a) it is not, and while it holds any Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities will not be, a Plan or acting on behalf of, or using assets of, a Plan, (b) if it is a governmental plan (as defined in Section 3(32) of ERISA) or a non-US plan (as described in Section 4(b)(4) of ERISA), its purchase, holding and subsequent transfer of the Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities will not result in a violation of any applicable laws, rules, regulations, policies and guidelines to which it and its investments are subject and (c) it and any person causing it to acquire any Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, Co-Issuer, Portfolio Manager, Trustee, Collateral Administrator, Placement Agent and Initial Purchaser and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage or loss incurred by them as a result of any of the foregoing representations being or becoming false. Any attempted acquisition by or transfer to a Plan of Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities shall be void and shall not bind the Issuer.

Additionally, prohibited transactions within the meaning of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code may arise if Notes are acquired by a Plan with respect to which the Issuer, Co-Issuer, Portfolio Manager, Trustee, Collateral Administrator, Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, Extension Qualifying Purchaser, Placement Agent or Initial Purchaser, or any of their respective Affiliates, is a party in interest or a disqualified person. Certain exemptions from the prohibited transaction provisions of Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code may be applicable, however, depending in part on the type of Plan fiduciary making the decision to acquire an interest in a Note and the circumstances under which such decision is made. Included among these exemptions are Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption (“PTCE”) 96-23 (relating to transactions directed by an in-house asset manager); PTCE 95-60 (relating to transactions involving insurance company general accounts); PTCE 91-38 (relating to investments by bank collective investment funds); PTCE 90-1 (relating to investments by insurance company pooled separate accounts); and PTCE 84-14 (relating to transactions effected by a qualified professional asset manager). There can be no assurance that any of these class exemptions or any other exemption will be available with respect to any particular transaction involving the Notes.

BY ITS PURCHASE OF ANY NOTE, THE PURCHASER THEREOF WILL REPRESENT AND WARRANT, OR WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE REPRESENTED AND WARRANTED, ON EACH DAY FROM THE DATE ON WHICH THE PURCHASER ACQUIRES ITS INTEREST IN SUCH NOTE THROUGH AND INCLUDING THE DATE ON WHICH THE PURCHASER DISPOSES OF ITS INTEREST IN SUCH NOTE, EITHER THAT (A) IT IS NOT, AND IS NOT USING THE ASSETS OF, A PLAN, AN ENTITY WHOSE UNDERLYING ASSETS INCLUDE THE ASSETS OF A PLAN BY REASON OF U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR REGULATION SECTION 2510.3-101 OR OTHERWISE, OR A PLAN WHICH IS SUBJECT TO SIMILAR LAWS OR (B) ITS PURCHASE, HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF SUCH SECURITY WILL NOT CONSTITUTE OR RESULT IN A PROHIBITED TRANSACTION UNDER SECTION 406 OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE (OR A VIOLATION OF ANY APPLICABLE SIMILAR LAWS) FOR WHICH AN EXEMPTION IS NOT AVAILABLE, ALL THE CONDITIONS OF WHICH ARE SATISFIED.

Any plan fiduciary that proposes to cause a plan to purchase an interest in any Securities should consult with its counsel regarding the applicability of the fiduciary responsibility and prohibited transaction provisions of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code (or applicable Similar Laws) to such an investment, and to confirm that such investment will not constitute or result in a prohibited transaction or any other violation of an applicable requirement of ERISA, the Code or other applicable law.

The sale of interests in any Securities to a plan is in no respect a representation by the Issuer, Initial Purchaser, Placement Agent, Portfolio Manager, Trustee, Collateral Administrator, Revolving Note Agent or the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent that such an investment meets all relevant legal requirements with respect to investments by plans generally or any particular plan, or that such an investment is appropriate for plans generally or any plan.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Notes (other than the Class A-1A Notes and the Class A-1B Notes), the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities are being offered by Citigroup Global Markets Inc. (in such capacity, the “Initial Purchaser”) pursuant to a purchase agreement with the Co-Issuers (the “Purchase Agreement”). The Class E Certificates (other than the Class E Certificate Components) are being offered by the Issuer through Citigroup Global Markets Inc. (in such capacity, the “Placement Agent”) pursuant to a placement agency agreement with the Issuer (the “Placement Agency Agreement”). The Securities will be sold to prospective purchasers from time to time in individually negotiated transactions at varying prices to be determined in each case at the time of sale. The Indenture Securities will be offered within the United States to Qualified Purchasers that are also Qualified Institutional Buyers. The Class E

Certificates will be offered within the United States to persons that are both (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers or Accredited Investors and (ii) Qualified Purchasers or Knowledgeable Employees. The Securities will be offered outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S. See “Purchase and Transfer Restrictions.”

The Purchase Agreement provides that the obligation of the Initial Purchaser to purchase such Notes, the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities is subject to approval of legal matters by counsel and to other conditions. The Initial Purchaser must purchase all such Notes, the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities if it purchases any of such Securities.

In connection with sales outside the United States, with respect to such Notes, the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities, the Initial Purchaser and with respect to the Class E Certificates, the Placement Agent have agreed that, except as permitted by the Purchase Agreement or the Placement Agency Agreement, as the case may be, they will not offer or sell such Notes, the Class Q-1 Securities, Class P Securities or the Class E Certificates within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S) (i) as part of its distribution at any time or (ii) otherwise (a) with respect to the Notes, until 40 days after the later of the commencement of the offering and the Closing Date, and it will have sent to each dealer to which it sells Notes during the 40-day restricted period and (b) with respect to the Class E Certificates, the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities, until one year after the later of the commencement of the offering and the Closing Date, and it will have sent to each dealer to which it sells Class E Certificates, the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities during the one year restricted period, in each case, a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Securities within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S). In addition, until 40 days (with respect to the Notes) and one year (with respect to the Class E Certificates, the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities) after the commencement of this offering, an offer or sale of Notes or the Class E Certificates or the Class Q-1 Securities or the Class P Securities, as applicable, within the United States by a dealer that is not participating in this offering may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if that offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with Rule 144A (or, in the case of the Class E Certificates, another exemption from registration under the Securities Act).

No action is being taken or is contemplated by the Co-Issuers that would permit a public offering of the Securities or possession or distribution of this Offering Memorandum or any amendment thereof, any supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Co-Issuers or the Securities in any jurisdiction where, or in any other circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required.

The Initial Purchaser and the Placement Agent or their respective Affiliates may have had in the past and may in the future have business relationships and dealings with one or more obligors of Collateral Obligations and their Affiliates and may own equity or debt securities issued by such entities or their Affiliates. The Initial Purchaser and the Placement Agent or their respective Affiliates may have provided and may in the future provide investment banking services to an obligor of Collateral Obligations or its Affiliates and may have received or may receive compensation for such services.

The Co-Issuers have agreed to indemnify the Initial Purchaser against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and have agreed to contribute to payments that the Initial Purchaser may be required to make in respect thereof.

The Issuer has agreed to indemnify the Placement Agent against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and has agreed to contribute to payments that the Placement Agent may be required to make in respect thereof.

The Securities are offered when, as and if issued, subject to prior sale or withdrawal, cancellation or modification of the offer without notice and subject to approval of certain legal matters by counsel and certain other conditions.

The Securities will constitute new classes of securities with no established trading market. Such a market may or may not develop, but the Initial Purchaser and the Placement Agent are not under any obligation to make such a market, and if they do make such a market they may discontinue any market-making activities with respect to the Securities at any time without notice. In addition, market-making activity will be subject to the limits imposed by the Securities Act and the Exchange Act. Accordingly, no assurances can be made as to the liquidity of or the trading market for the Securities.

Citigroup Global Markets Inc. may be contacted at 390 Greenwich Street, New York, New York 10013, Attention: Global Structured Credit Product Group.

An affiliate of the Placement Agent provided warehouse financing to the Issuer to enable it to acquire Collateral Obligations prior to the Closing Date and will be repaid out of the proceeds of the sale of the Securities.

SETTLEMENT AND CLEARING

Book Entry Registration of the Global Securities

So long as the Depositary, or its nominee, is the registered owner or Holder of a Global Security, the Depositary or the nominee, as the case may be, will be considered the sole owner or Holder of the Securities represented by a Global Security for all purposes under the Indenture, the Class E Certificate Documents, the Issuer Charter, and the Global Securities, and members of, or participants in, the Depositary as well as any other persons on whose behalf the participants may act (including Clearstream and Euroclear and account holders and participants therein) will have no rights under the Indenture or a Global Security. Owners of beneficial interests in a Global Security will not be considered to be owners or Holders of the related Security under the Indenture or the Class E Certificate Documents, except in limited circumstances described in the Indenture and the Class E Certificate Documents. Unless the Depositary notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depositary for a Global Security or ceases to be a “clearing agency” registered under the Exchange Act or in certain other limited cases as set forth in the Indenture and the Class E Certificate Documents, owners of a beneficial interest in a Global Security will not be entitled to have any portion of a Global Security registered in their names, will not receive or be entitled to receive physical delivery of Securities in certificated form and will not be considered to be the Holders of any Securities under the Indenture and the Class E Certificate Documents. In addition, no beneficial owner of an interest in a Global Security will be able to transfer that interest except in accordance with the Depositary’s applicable procedures (in addition to those under the Indenture and the Class E Certificate Documents, and, if applicable, those of Euroclear and Clearstream).

Investors may hold their interests in a Regulation S Global Security directly through Clearstream or Euroclear, if they are participants in Clearstream or Euroclear, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in Clearstream or Euroclear. Clearstream and Euroclear will hold interests in the Regulation S Global Securities on behalf of their participants through their respective depositories, which in turn will hold the interests in Regulation S Global Securities and Regulation S Global Securities in customers’ securities accounts in the depositories’ names on the books of the Depositary. Investors may hold their interests in a Rule 144A Global Note directly through the Depositary if they are participants in the Depositary, or in directly through organizations that are participants in the Depositary.

Payments of principal of, or interest or other distributions on a Global Security will be made to the Depositary or its nominee, as the registered owner thereof. The Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the paying agents, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Portfolio Manager and their respective Affiliates will not have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in a Global Security or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to the beneficial ownership interests.

The Co-Issuers expect that the Depositary or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal, interest, or other distributions in respect of a Global Security representing any Securities, held by it or its nominee, will immediately credit participants’ accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the stated aggregate principal amount or number of a Global Security for the Securities, as shown on the records of the Depositary or its nominee. The Co-Issuer also expect that payments by participants to owners of beneficial interests in a Global Security held through the participants will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for those customers. The payments will be the responsibility of the participants.

Global Security Settlement Procedures

Transfers between the participants in the Depositary will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with the Depositary rules and will be settled in immediately available funds. The laws of some states require that certain persons take physical delivery of securities in definitive form.

Consequently, the ability to transfer beneficial interests in a Global Security to these persons may be limited. Because the Depositary can only act on behalf of participants, who in turn act on behalf of indirect participants and certain banks, the ability of a person holding a beneficial interest in a Global Security to pledge its interest to persons or entities that do not participate in the Depositary system, or otherwise take actions in respect of its interest, may be affected by the lack of a physical certificate of the interest. Transfers between participants in Euroclear and Clearstream will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with their respective rules and operating procedures.

Subject to compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Securities described above and under “Transfer Restrictions,” cross-market transfers between the Depositary, on the one hand, and directly or indirectly through Euroclear or Clearstream participants, on the other, will be effected in the Depositary in accordance with the Depositary rules on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, by its respective depositary; however, the cross-market transactions will require delivery of instructions to Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, by the counterparty in the system in accordance with its rules and procedures and within its established deadlines (Brussels time). Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, will if the transaction meets its settlement requirements, deliver instructions to its respective depositary to take action to effect final settlement on its behalf by delivering or receiving interests in a Note represented by a Regulation S Global Security in the Depositary and making or receiving payment in accordance with normal procedures for same-day funds settlement applicable to the Depositary. Clearstream participants and Euroclear participants may not deliver instructions directly to the depositories of Clearstream or Euroclear.

Because of time zone differences, cash received in Euroclear or Clearstream as a result of sales of interests in a Regulation S Global Security by or through a Euroclear or Clearstream participant to the Depositary participant will be received with value on the Depositary settlement date but will be available in the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream cash account only as of the business day following settlement in the Depositary.

The Depositary has advised the Issuer that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a Holder of Securities (including the presentation of Securities for exchange as described above) only at the direction of one or more participants in the Depositary to whose account with the Depositary interests in the Securities are credited and only in respect of the portion of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities as to which the participant or participants has or have given the direction.

The Depositary has advised the Issuer as follows: The Depositary is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a “banking organization” within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a “clearing corporation” within the meaning of the UCC and a “Clearing Agency” registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act. The Depositary was created to hold securities for its participants and facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of its participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Participants in the Depositary include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, and clearing corporations and may include certain other organizations. Indirect access to the Depositary system is available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers, and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a participant, either directly or indirectly.

Although the Depositary, Clearstream and Euroclear have agreed to the foregoing procedures to facilitate transfers of interests in Regulation S Global Securities among participants of the Depositary, Clearstream and Euroclear, they are under no obligation to perform or continue to perform the procedures, and the procedures may be discontinued at any time. None of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent will have any responsibility for the performance by the Depositary, Clearstream, or Euroclear or their respective participants or indirect participants of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS

The Securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state “Blue Sky” laws or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and, accordingly, may not be reoffered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred except in accordance with the restrictions set forth in the Indenture and described under “Notices to Purchasers” and below.

Without limiting the foregoing, by holding a Security, each Holder of Securities will acknowledge and agree, among other things, that such Holder of Securities understands that neither of the Co-Issuers is registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act, but that the Issuer claims exemption from registration as such by virtue of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act. In general terms, Section 3(c)(7) excepts from the provisions of the Investment Company Act those non-U.S. issuers (i) whose investors residing in the United States are Qualified Purchasers and (ii) which do not make a public offering of their securities in the United States. In general terms, Qualified Purchaser is defined to mean, among other things, (i) natural persons who own not less than U.S. $5,000,000 in “investments”; (ii) a company that owns not less than U.S. $5,000,000 in “investments” and that is owned directly or indirectly by or for two or more natural persons who are related as siblings or spouses (including former spouses), or direct lineal descendants by birth or adoption, spouses of such persons, the estates of such persons, or foundations, charitable organizations, or trusts established by or for the benefit of such persons; (iii) certain trusts that were not formed for the specific purposes of acquiring the securities offered, as to which the trustee or other person authorized to make decisions with respect to the trust, and each settlor or other person who has contributed assets to the trust, is a qualified purchaser (other than certain trusts); and (iv) any person, acting for its own account or the accounts of other qualified purchasers, who in the aggregate owns and invests on a discretionary basis, not less than U.S. $25,000,000 in “investments.” For purposes of the definition of “qualified purchaser,” “investments” has the meaning given such term in Rule 270.2a51-1 under the Investment Company Act. See “Risk Factors— Non-Compliance with Restrictions on Ownership of the Securities under the United States Investment Company Act of 1940 Could Adversely Affect the Issuer.”

The Indenture permits the Issuer to require that any person that acquired or is holding Securities in violation of the provisions of the Indenture sell such Securities to a permitted holder thereof in accordance with the Indenture, and if such person fails to do so, the Issuer will have the right to sell such person’s Notes to a permitted holder.

Transferees of Interests in Rule 144A Global Notes

Each initial purchaser and subsequent transferee who is purchasing an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows:

LISTING AND GENERAL INFORMATION

Application will be made to the Irish Stock Exchange for the Notes to be admitted to the Daily Official List. No assurances can be given that any such listing will be obtained with respect to the Notes. The issuance and settlement of the Securities on the Closing Date are not conditioned on the listing of any Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange. As part of the harmonization of securities markets in Europe, the European Commission has adopted a directive known as the Prospectus Directive (which was required to be implemented by Member States by July 1, 2005) that will regulate offers of securities to the public and admissions to trading to E.U. regulated markets. A directive known as the Transparency Directive which came into force in the European Union at the beginning of 2005 and is required to be implemented by Member States by early 2007, will among other things, impose continuing financial reporting obligations on issuers that have certain types of securities admitted to trading on an E.U. regulated market. In addition, the Market Abuse Directive harmonizes the rules on insider trading and market manipulation in respect of securities admitted to trading on an E.U. regulated market and requires issuers of such securities to disclose any non-public price-sensitive information as soon as possible, subject to certain limited exemptions. The listing of the Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange would subject the Issuer to regulation under these directives, although the requirements applicable to the Issuer are not yet fully clarified. The Indenture will not require the Issuer to maintain a listing for any Class of Notes on an E.U. stock exchange if compliance with these directives (or other requirements adopted by the European Commission or a relevant Member State) becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Portfolio Manager.

If and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, copies of the Issuer Charter, the Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws of the Co-Issuer and the resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Co-Issuers authorizing the issuance of the Notes and the Indenture will be available for inspection at the office of the Trustee. The Issuer is not required by Cayman Islands law, and the Issuer does not intend, to publish annual reports and accounts. The Co-Issuer is not required by Delaware law, and the Co-Issuer does not intend, to publish annual reports and accounts. The Indenture, however, requires the Issuer to provide the Trustee with written confirmation, on an annual basis, that to the best of its knowledge following review of the activities of the prior year, no Event of Default or other matter required to be brought to the Trustee's attention has occurred or, if one has, specifying the same.

Each of the Co-Issuers represents that, as of the date of this Offering Memorandum, there has been no material adverse change in its financial position since the date of its creation. Neither of the Co-Issuers is involved, or has been involved since incorporation, in any litigation or arbitration proceedings relating to claims on amounts which may have or have had a material effect on the Co-Issuers in the context of the issue of the Securities, nor, so far as such Issuer or Co-Issuer, as applicable, is aware, is any such litigation or arbitration involving it pending or threatened.

The issuance of the Securities will be authorized by the Board of Directors of the Issuer by resolution passed on or about the Closing Date. The issuance of the Notes was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Co-Issuer by resolution passed on or about the Closing Date. Since incorporation, neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer has commenced trading, established any accounts or declared any dividends, except for the transactions described herein relating to the issuance of the Securities.

Application has been made to the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange for the Class E Certificates, the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities to be admitted to the official list of the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange. No assurances can be given that any such listing will be obtained with respect to the Class E Certificates, the Class Q-1 Securities or the Class P Securities. The issuance and settlement of the Securities on the Closing Date are not conditioned on the listing of any Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities on the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange.
