Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the S&P Rating shall be (A) the rating assigned thereto by S&P if the rating is public, (B) the rating assigned by S&P if the rating is confidential, but only if all appropriate parties have provided written consent to its disclosure and use, (C) the rating assigned by S&P thereto through an estimated rating or (D) the rating assigned thereto by S&P in connection with the acquisition thereof upon the request of the Portfolio Manager. In the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a PIK Security or Structured Finance Obligation, the S&P Rating may not be determined pursuant to clause (iii)(A) above.

S&P Ratings for entities or obligations relevant hereunder other than Borrowers and Collateral Obligations shall be determined in a corresponding manner.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if and for so long as the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations consisting in the aggregate of (x) Participations and (y) Synthetic Securities exceeds 20% of the Maximum Investment Amount, then the S&P Rating for the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations representing that excess (determined assuming the excess is comprised of the Collateral Obligations having the lowest S&P Ratings that would otherwise be applicable as determined above) shall be the S&P Rating one sub-category below the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligations that would otherwise be applicable as determined above.

"S&P Unrated DIP Loan" means a DIP Loan acquired by the Issuer that does not have a rating assigned by S&P and for which the Portfolio Manager has commenced the process of having a rating assigned by S&P (as specified in the definition of "DIP Loan").

"Secondary Risk Table" means the table below:

Long-Term Senior Unsecured Debt Rating of Secondary Risk Counterparty		Individual Counterparty Limit	Aggregate Counterparty Limit

Aa1	AA+	10.0%	10.0%
Aa2	AA	10.0%	10.0%
Aa3	AA-	10.0%	10.0%
A1	A+	5.0%	10.0%

If any Secondary Risk Counterparty's long-term senior unsecured debt rating or short-term rating is on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's or S&P, then for the purposes of the table above, its rating by the Rating Agency putting its rating on credit watch shall be one rating notch lower for that Rating Agency.

In computing the Spread Excess on any Measurement Date, the Weighted Average Spread for the Measurement Date will be computed as if the Fixed Rate Excess were equal to zero.

"Structured Finance Obligation" means any obligation:

(i) secured directly by, referenced to, or representing ownership of, a pool of receivables or other assets of U.S. obligors, or obligors organized or incorporated in Moody's Group I Countries, Moody's Group II Countries or Moody's Group III Countries, including portfolio credit default swaps, synthetic collateralized debt obligations, and collateralized debt obligations, but excludes:

In connection with the purchase of a Structured Finance Obligation, the Portfolio Manager shall obtain from Moody's the applicable Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate.

The maturity, interest rate, and other non-credit characteristics of a Synthetic Security may be different from the Reference Obligations to which the credit risk of the Synthetic Security relates.

No Synthetic Security shall require the Issuer to make any payment to the Synthetic Security Counterparty after its initial purchase other than any payments represented by the release of any cash collateral posted by the Issuer from the Collection Account to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of the posted cash collateral. Collateral may be posted only to a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. No Synthetic Security shall result in the Issuer being a "buyer" of credit protection.

The term Synthetic Security shall not include any Structured Finance Obligation or any Participation, but the Reference Obligation of a Synthetic Security may be a Structured Finance Obligation.

Each Synthetic Security Agreement shall contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in the Indenture.

The ownership or disposition of any Synthetic Security (without regard to the Issuer's other activities) must not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

Unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any "deliverable obligation" that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event" under any proposed Synthetic Security must not provide that its transfer to the Issuer is subject to obtaining any consents and must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such "deliverable obligation" is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event") as a Collateral Obligation and satisfy the Concentration Limitations under the Indenture, except that such "deliverable obligation" may constitute a Defaulted Obligation when delivered upon a "credit event and if the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security is a Senior Secured Loan then the "deliverable obligation" under the Synthetic Security must also be a Senior Secured Loan.

Synthetic Securities that are credit default swaps, credit linked notes, or other similar instruments may not provide for "restructuring" as a "credit event".

For purposes of the Coverage Tests and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test, unless the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied in respect of any proposed alternative treatment, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligation.

With respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index investment providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, for purposes of: (i) calculating compliance with the Diversity Test, the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test, and the Concentration Limitations (other than limits relating to payment characteristics and except for clauses 17 and 17(a) of the definition of "Concentration Limitations"), and all related definitions, and (ii) any other provision or definition of the Indenture involving a determination with respect to a Reference Obligation, the characteristics of such Reference Obligations shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct investment by the Issuer in each such Reference Obligation in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation. In addition, each Reference Obligation under such Synthetic Security shall be assigned a Moody's Rating Factor equal to the sum of the Moody's Rating Factor of (i) the related Reference Obligor, (ii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty of such Synthetic Security and (iii) the Synthetic Security Collateral of such Synthetic Security. In addition, the Moody's Priority Category Rate in respect of a Synthetic Security referencing multiple Reference Obligations pursuant to this paragraph shall be the Moody's Priority Category Rate as assigned by Moody's to each Reference Obligation underlying such Synthetic Security. For the avoidance of doubt, Reference Obligations upon which a Synthetic Security is based as described in this paragraph must meet the definition of "Collateral Obligation" to the extent provided in this definition.

If the Rating Condition must be satisfied to execute the purchase of any Synthetic Security, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall give each applicable Rating Agency not less than 5 days' prior notice of the purchase of or entry into any Synthetic Security.

"Synthetic Security Counterparty" means any entity required to make payments on a Synthetic Security to the extent that a reference obligor makes payments on a related Reference Obligation.

"Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction" means one of the Cayman Islands, Bermuda, the Netherlands Antilles or the tax advantaged jurisdiction of the Channel Islands, or such other jurisdiction that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto.

"Tax Event" means an event that occurs if either:

(i) (A) one or more Collateral Obligations that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more Collateral Obligations that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them and (B) in any Due Period, the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on new withholding tax obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on increased rate withholding tax obligations, in each case to the extent not "grossed-up" (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period; or

(ii) taxes, fees, assessments, or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any twelve-month period in excess of U.S.$2,000,000, other than any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax with respect to any payment owing in respect of any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation or Collateral Obligation.

"Valuation Report" means the accounting report, determined as of the close of business on each Determination Date, rendered in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

"Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon" means, as of any Measurement Date, the rate obtained by:

- (i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Fixed Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum rate at which it pays interest, using only the effective after-tax interest rate determined by the Portfolio Manager on any Fixed Rate Obligation after taking into account any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction and any gross-up paid by the obligor;
- (ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);
- (iii) dividing the sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations that are Fixed Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and
- (iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, adding to the sum the amount of any Spread Excess as of the Measurement Date, but only to the extent required to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test.

"Weighted Average Life" means, as of any Measurement Date the number obtained by (i) summing the products obtained by multiplying (A) the Average Life at that time of each Collateral Obligation by (B) the Principal Balance at that time of the Collateral Obligation and (ii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance at that time of all Collateral Obligations.

"Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor" means the summation of the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation (excluding Eligible Investments) by its respective Moody's Rating Factor, dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) and rounding the result up to the nearest whole number.

"Weighted Average Spread" means, as of any Measurement Date, a rate obtained by:

- (i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Floating Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum overall rate at which it pays interest, determined with respect to any Floating Rate Obligation that does not bear interest based on a three month London interbank offered rate, by expressing the current interest rate on the Floating Rate Obligation as a spread above a three month London interbank offered rate calculated in a manner consistent with the calculation of LIBOR;
- (ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);
- (iii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and
- (iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to pass the Weighted Average Spread Test, adding to that sum the amount of Fixed Rate Excess as of the Measurement Date.

For purposes of calculating the Weighted Average Spread, the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall not include any of its unfunded amount.

1. Organization and Business

ACE Guaranty Corp. (formerly known as ACE Guaranty Re Inc.), (the "Company") is a Maryland domiciled company, which commenced operations in January 1988 and provides insurance and reinsurance of investment grade financial guaranty exposures, including municipal and nonmunicipal reinsurance, credit default swap ("CDS") transactions as well as trade credit and related reinsurance. The Company has financial strength ratings of AAA and Aa2 as of December 31, 2003 from Standard & Poor's Rating Service ("S&P") and Moody's Investor Services, Inc. ("Moody's"), respectively, and is licensed in 30 jurisdictions. The Company owns 100% of ACE Risk Assurance Company, a Maryland domiciled company.

As of December 31, 2003, the Company was an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of ACE Limited ("ACE"), a holding company incorporated with limited liability under Cayman Islands Companies Law. However, on April 28, 2004, subsidiaries of ACE completed an initial public offering ("IPO") of 49,000,000 common shares of their wholly owned subsidiary and parent of the Company, Assured Guaranty Ltd. ("Assured Guaranty"). Assured Guaranty's common shares are traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol AGO. This offering raised approximately $840.1 million in net proceeds, all of which went to the selling shareholders. As a result of the IPO, we implemented a new underwriting strategy. As part of this strategy, we have exited certain lines of business, including trade credit. The Company was renamed Assured Guaranty Corp. upon completion of the IPO.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, ACE Risk Assurance Company, after elimination of inter-company accounts and transactions. Certain items in the prior years' financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

The financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"), which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Premium Revenue Recognition

Premiums are received either upfront or in installments. Upfront premiums are earned in proportion to the expiration of the amount at risk. Each installment premium is earned ratably over its installment period, generally one year or less. For insured bonds for which the par value outstanding is declining during the insurance period, upfront premium earnings are greater in the earlier periods thus matching revenue recognition with the underlying risk. The premiums are allocated in accordance with the principal amortization schedule of the related bond issue and are earned ratably over the amortization period. When an insured issue is retired early, is called by the issuer, or is in substance paid in advance through a refunding accomplished by placing U.S. Government securities in escrow, the remaining unearned premium reserve is earned at that time. Unearned premium reserve represents the portion of premiums written that is applicable to the unexpired amount at risk of insured bonds.

Due to the customary lag (ranging from 30 to 90 days) in reporting premium data by some of the ceding companies, the Company must estimate the ultimate written and earned premiums to be received from a ceding company as of each balance sheet date for the reinsurance business. Actual written premiums reported in the statements of operations are based upon reports received by ceding companies supplemented by the Company's own estimates of premium for which ceding company reports have not yet been received. Differences between such estimates and actual amounts are recorded in the period in which the actual amounts are determined. Based on historical write-off percentages, the Company has not established an allowance for doubtful accounts for its premiums receivable as of December 31, 2003 or 2002.

Investments

The Company accounts for its investments in fixed maturity securities in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standard Board's ("FASB") Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("FAS") No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities" ("FAS 115"). Management determines the appropriate classification of securities at the time of purchase. As of December 31, 2003 and 2002, all investments in fixed maturity securities were designated as available-for-sale and are carried at fair value. The fair values of all investments are calculated from independent market quotations.

The amortized cost of fixed maturity securities is adjusted for amortization of premiums and accretion of discount computed using the effective interest method. That amortization or accretion is included in net investment income. For mortgage-backed securities, and any other holdings for which there is prepayment risk, prepayment assumptions are evaluated and revised as necessary. Any necessary adjustments required due to the resulting change in effective yields and maturities are recognized prospectively in current income.

Realized gains and losses on sales of investments are determined using the specific identification method. Unrealized gains and losses on investments, net of applicable deferred income taxes, are included in accumulated other comprehensive income in stockholder's equity. The Company has a formal review process for all securities in its investment portfolio, including a review for impairment losses. Factors considered when assessing impairment include:

- a decline in the market value of a security by 20% or more below amortized cost for a continuous period of at least six months;
- a decline in the market value of a security for a continuous period of 12 months;
- recent credit downgrades of the applicable security or the issuer by rating agencies;
- the financial condition of the applicable issuer;
- whether scheduled interest payments are past due; and
- whether the Company has the ability and intent to hold the security for a sufficient period of time to allow for anticipated recoveries in fair value.

If the Company believes a decline in the value of a particular investment is temporary, the decline is recorded as an unrealized loss on the balance sheet in "accumulated other comprehensive income" in stockholders equity. If the Company believes the decline is "other than temporary," the Company will write down the carrying value of the investment and record a realized loss in the statement of operations. The assessment of a decline in value includes management's current assessment of the factors noted above. If that assessment changes in the future, the Company may ultimately record a loss after having originally concluded that the decline in value was temporary. The Company had no writedown of securities for other than temporary declines during 2003, 2002 or 2001.

Short-term investments are recorded at cost, which approximates fair value. Short-term investments are those with original maturities of greater than three months but less than one year from date of purchase.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company classifies demand deposits as cash. Cash equivalents are short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

Deferred Acquisition Costs

Acquisition costs incurred, that vary with and are directly related to the production of new business, are deferred. These costs include direct and indirect expenses such as commissions, brokerage expenses and costs of underwriting and marketing personnel. The Company's management uses judgment in determining what types of costs should be deferred, as well as what percentage of these costs should be deferred. The Company periodically conducts a study to determine which operating costs vary with, and are directly related to, the acquisition of new business and qualify for deferral. Acquisition costs other than those associated with the credit derivative products are deferred and amortized in relation to earned premiums. Ceding commissions received on premiums ceded to other reinsurers reduce acquisition costs. Anticipated losses, loss adjustment expenses and the remaining costs of servicing the insured or reinsured business are considered in determining the recoverability of acquisition costs. The Company regularly conducts reviews for potential premium deficiencies. There were no premium deficiencies for any of the reported years as the sum of anticipated losses, loss adjustment expenses and the remaining costs of servicing the insured or reinsured did not exceed the related unearned premium. Acquisition costs associated with credit derivative products are expensed as incurred.

Reserve for Losses and Loss Adjustment Expenses

Reserve for loss and loss adjustment expenses ("LAE") includes case reserves, incurred but not reported reserves ("IBNR") and portfolio reserves.

Case reserves are established when specific insured obligations are in or near default. Case reserves represent the present value of expected future loss payments and LAE, net of estimated recoveries but before considering ceded reinsurance. Financial guaranty insurance and reinsurance case reserves are discounted at 6.0%, which is the approximate taxable equivalent yield on the investment portfolio in all periods presented.

IBNR is an estimate of the amount of losses when the insured event has occurred but the claim has not yet been reported to the Company. In establishing IBNR, the Company uses traditional actuarial methods to estimate the reporting lag of such claims based on historical experience, claim reviews and information reported by ceding companies.

In addition to IBNR, the Company records portfolio reserves for financial guaranty insurance and reinsurance, and credit derivative business. Portfolio reserves are established with respect to the portion of the Company's business for which case reserves have not been

ACE Guaranty Corp.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

established. Portfolio reserves are established in an amount equal to the portion of actuarially estimated ultimate losses related to premiums earned to date as a percentage of total expected premiums for that in-force business. Actuarially estimated ultimate losses on financial guaranty exposures are developed considering the net par outstanding of each insured obligation, taking account of the probability of future default, the expected timing of the default and expected recovery following default. These factors vary by type of issue (for example, municipal, structured finance or corporate), current credit rating and remaining term of the underlying obligation and are principally based on historical data obtained from rating agencies. During an accounting period, portfolio reserves principally increase or decrease based on changes in the aggregate net amount at risk and the probability of default resulting from changes in credit quality of insured obligations, if any.

The Company updates its estimates of loss and LAE reserves quarterly. Loss assumptions used in computing losses and LAE reserves are periodically updated for emerging experience, and any resulting changes in reserves are recorded as a charge or credit to earnings in the period such estimates are changed. Due to the inherent uncertainties of estimating loss and LAE reserves, specifically for the high severity, low frequency financial guaranty business that the Company writes, actual experience may differ from the estimates reflected in our consolidated financial statements, and the differences may be material.

Reinsurance

In the ordinary course of business, the Company assumes and retrocedes business with other insurance and reinsurance companies. These agreements provide greater diversification of business and may minimize the net potential loss from large risks. Reinsurance contracts do not relieve the Company of its obligation to the reinsured. Reinsurance recoverable on ceded losses includes balances due from reinsurance companies for paid and unpaid losses and LAE that will be recovered from reinsurers, based on contracts in force, and is presented net of any provision for estimated uncollectible reinsurance. Any change in the provision for uncollectible reinsurance is included in loss and loss adjustment expenses. Prepaid reinsurance premiums represent the portion of premiums ceded to reinsurers relating to the unexpired terms of the reinsurance contracts in force.

Certain of the Company's assumed and ceded reinsurance contracts are funds held arrangements. In a funds held arrangement, the ceding company retains the premiums instead of paying them to the reinsurer and losses are offset against these funds in an experience account. Because the reinsurer is not in receipt of the funds, the reinsurer earns interest on the experience account balance at a predetermined credited rate of interest. The Company generally earns interest at fixed rates of between 4% and 6% on its assumed funds held arrangements and generally pays interest at fixed rates of between 4% and 6% on its ceded funds held arrangements. The interest earned or credited on funds held arrangements is included in net investment income. In addition, interest on funds held arrangements will continue to be earned or credited until the experience account is fully depleted, which can extend many years beyond the expiration of the coverage period.

Goodwill

Goodwill of $94.6 million arose from ACE's acquisition of the Company as of December 31, 1999 and was being amortized over a period of twenty-five years. Beginning January 1, 2002, goodwill is no longer amortized, but rather is evaluated for impairment at least annually. Management has determined that goodwill is not impaired at December 31, 2003.

Income Taxes

In accordance with FAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes", deferred income taxes are provided for with respect to the temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and tax bases of assets and liabilities, using enacted rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. Such temporary differences relate principally to deferred acquisition costs, reserve for losses and LAE, unearned premium reserve, unrealized gains and losses on investments, unrealized gains and losses on derivative financial instruments and statutory contingency reserve.

Stock Based Compensation

Stock based compensation is based on ACE stock. The Company accounts for stock-based compensation plans in accordance with APB No. 25. No compensation expense for options is reflected in net income, as all options granted under the plan had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of the grant. Pro forma information regarding net income is required by FAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation." In December 2002, FASB issued FAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation—Transition and Disclosure." FAS 148 amends the disclosure requirements of FAS 123 to require prominent disclosure in financial statements regarding the method of accounting for stock-based compensation and the effect of the method used on reported results.

For restricted stock awards, the Company records the market value of the shares awarded at the time of the grant as unearned stock grant compensation and includes it as a separate component of stockholder's equity. The unearned stock grant compensation is amortized into income ratably over the vesting period.

The following table outlines the Company's net income for the years ended December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001, had the compensation cost been determined in accordance with the fair value method recommended in FAS 123.

3. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2003, Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued FAS No. 150, "Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity" ("FAS 150"), which establishes standards for classifying and measuring certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. FAS 150 requires the classification of a financial instrument that is within its scope as a liability (or an asset in some circumstances). FAS 150 is effective for financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. The adoption of FAS 150 had no impact on the consolidated financial statements.

In April 2003, the FASB issued FAS No. 149, "Amendment of FASB Statement No. 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities." This statement amends and clarifies financial accounting and reporting for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts (collectively referred to as derivatives) and for hedging activities under FAS No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities." This statement improves financial reporting by requiring that contracts with comparable characteristics be accounted for similarly. For example, this statement requires that financial guaranty insurance, for which the underlying risk is linked to a derivative, be accounted for as a derivative. This statement is effective for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003, except for the provisions of this Statement that relate to FAS No. 133 implementation issues that have been effective for fiscal quarters that began prior to June 15, 2003, and for hedging relationships designated after June 30, 2003. All provisions are to be applied prospectively, except for the provisions of this Statement that relate to FAS No. 133 implementation issues that have been effective for fiscal quarters that began prior to June 15, 2003. These provisions are to be applied in accordance with their respective effective dates. The adoption of FAS 149 did not have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements.

In January 2003, the FASB issued FAS Interpretation No. 46, "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities" ("FIN 46"), as an interpretation of Accounting Research Bullet No. 51, "Consolidated Financial Statements." FIN 46 addresses consolidation of variable interest entities (VIEs) by business enterprises. An entity is considered a VIE subject to consolidation if the equity investment at risk is not sufficient to permit the entity to finance its activities without additional subordinated financial support or if the equity investors lack one of three characteristics of a controlling financial interest. First, the equity investors lack the ability to make decisions about the entity's activities through voting rights or similar rights. Second, they do not bear the obligation to absorb the expected losses of the entity if they occur. Lastly, they do not claim the right to receive expected returns of the entity if they occur, which are the compensation for the risk of absorbing the expected losses. FIN 46 requires that VIEs be consolidated by the entity that maintains the majority of the risks and rewards of ownership. This Interpretation applies immediately to VIEs created after January 31, 2003 and to VIEs in which an enterprise obtains an interest after that date. FASB deferred the effective date of FIN 46 until the end of the first interim or annual period ending after December 15, 2003 for VIEs created before February 1, 2003. The adoption of FIN 46 had no impact on the consolidated financial statements.

4. Derivatives

The Company adopted FAS No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" ("FAS 133"), which established accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts (collectively referred to as derivatives), and for hedging activities as of January 1, 2001. FAS 133 requires that an entity recognize all derivatives as either assets or liabilities in the consolidated balance sheets and measure those instruments at fair value. If certain conditions are met, a derivative may be specifically designated as a fair value, cash flow or foreign currency hedge. The accounting for changes in the fair value of a derivative depends on the intended use of the derivative and the resulting designation. The Company had no derivatives that were designated as hedges during 2003, 2002 and 2001.

Certain products (principally credit protection oriented) issued by the Company have been deemed to meet the definition of a derivative under FAS 133. These products consist primarily of credit derivatives. In addition, the Company issued a few index-based derivative financial instruments. The Company uses derivative instruments primarily to offer credit protection to others. Effective January 1, 2001, the Company records these transactions at fair value. Where available; we use quoted market prices to fair value these insured credit derivatives. If quoted prices are not available, particularly for senior layer collateralized debt obligations ("CDO") and equity layer credit protection, the fair value is estimated using valuation models for each type of credit protection. These models may be developed by third parties, such as rating agency models, or may be developed internally, depending on the circumstances. These models and the related assumptions are continually reevaluated by management and enhanced, as appropriate, based upon improvements in modeling techniques and availability of more timely market information. The fair value of derivative financial instruments reflects the estimated cost to the Company to purchase protection on its outstanding exposures and is not an estimate of expected losses incurred. Due to the inherent uncertainties of the assumptions used in the valuation models to determine the fair value of these derivative products, actual experience may differ from the estimates reflected in our consolidated financial statements, and the differences may be material.

The Company records premiums received from the issuance of derivative instruments in gross written premiums and establishes unearned premium reserves and loss reserves. These loss reserves represent the Company's best estimate of the probable losses expected under these contracts. Unrealized gains and losses on derivative financial instruments are computed as the difference between fair value and the total of the unearned premium reserves, losses and LAE reserve, premiums receivable, prepaid reinsurance premiums and reinsurance recoverable on ceded losses. Changes in unrealized gains and losses on derivative financial instruments are reflected in the statement of operations. Cumulative unrealized gains and losses are reflected as assets and liabilities, respectively, in the Company's balance sheets. Unrealized gains and losses resulting from changes in the fair value of derivatives occur because of changes in interest rates, credit spreads, recovery rates, the credit ratings of the referenced entities and other market factors. In the event that we terminate a derivative contract prior to maturity as a result of a decision to exit a line of business or for risk management purposes, the unrealized gain or loss will be realized through premiums earned and losses incurred.

ACE Guaranty Corp.

As of January 1, 2001, the Company recorded an expense related to the cumulative effect of adopting FAS 133 of $22.8 million, net of applicable deferred income tax benefit of $12.3 million.

The Company recorded a pretax net unrealized gain on derivative financial instruments of $48.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2003, a pretax net unrealized loss on derivative financial instruments of $37.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 and a pretax net unrealized gain on derivative financial instruments of $5.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2001.

8. Reserves for Unpaid Losses and Loss Adjustment Expenses

The following table provides a reconciliation of the beginning and ending reserve balances for unpaid losses and LAE:

Reserve for unpaid losses and LAE, gross of reinsurance recoverables on unpaid losses at end of year	$ 110,259	$ 75,961	$ 70,521

The prior year adverse development in 2003 of $33.3 million in the provision for losses and LAE is due primarily to an increase in case activity on the structured finance line of business due to credit deterioration in collateralized debt obligations assumed through reinsurance treaties.

In 2002, the favorable prior year development of $11.0 million in the provision for losses and LAE relates primarily to higher than previously estimated salvage on a non-municipal transaction and favorable development in the trade credit reinsurance line of business.

The favorable prior year development in 2001 of $7.1 million in the provision for losses and LAE relates primarily to the favorable development of $9.6 million in the credit derivative line of business.

As of the IPO date, all of the above agreements have been terminated. New agreements are being finalized between the Company and other subsidiaries of Assured Guaranty that will become effective during 2004.

Reinsurance Agreements

In September 2001, the Company entered into an excess of loss reinsurance agreement with ACE Bermuda which was effective January 1, 2001. In June 2003, this agreement was canceled and the unearned premium of $39.8 million, loss reserves of $12.5 million and profit commission of $1.5 million were returned to the Company. This agreement was not replaced with a third party reinsurance contract. The Company ceded losses of $2.5 million and $10.0 million in 2003 and 2002, respectively, under this cover.

The Company cedes business to affiliated entities under certain reinsurance agreements. Amounts deducted from the premiums, losses and commissions in 2003, 2002 and 2001 for reinsurance ceded to affiliates are reflected in the table below.

Of the Company's total gross premiums written for the year ended December 31, 2003, 27.7% and 16.0% came from Municipal Bond Investors Assurance Company and Financial Security Assurance, respectively, two of four monoline primary financial guaranty companies. The Company's client base includes all six monolines, many banks and several European insurance and reinsurance companies.

15. Credit Facilities

As of December 31, 2003, the Company had entered into the following credit facilities, which were available for general corporate purposes:

Due to the IPO, as of April 2, 2004, this facility was replaced.
- (ii) A 364-day credit agreement in the amount of $140.0 million with a syndicate of the banks. Under the terms of this liquidity facility the Company would have been required to pledge collateral to one of the syndicate banks, if the amount of collateral posted for the benefit of the Company's credit default swap counterparties exceeded 11% of the Company shareholders' equity. In such case an amount equal to that excess was to have been pledged for the benefit of the syndicate banks. As of

To replace the general corporate purpose credit facilities, Assured Guaranty entered into a $250.0 million unsecured credit facility ("250.0 million credit facility") on April 29, 2004, with a syndicate of banks, for which ABN AMRO Incorporated and Bank of America (an affiliate of Banc of America Securities LLC) acted as co-arrangers to which each of Assured Guaranty, the Company and Assured Guaranty (UK) Ltd., a subsidiary of Assured Guaranty organized under the laws of the United Kingdom, is a party, as borrower. The 250.0 million credit facility is a 364-day day facility and any amounts outstanding under the facility at its expiration will be due and payable one year following the facility's expiration. ## 16. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The following methods and assumptions were used by the Company in estimating its fair value disclosure for financial instruments. These determinations were made based on available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. Considerable judgment is required to interpret market data to develop the estimates and therefore, they may not necessarily be indicative of the amount the Company could realize in a current market exchange.

Fixed Maturity Securities

The fair value for fixed maturity securities shown in Note 7 is based on quoted market prices.

Cash and Short-Term Investments

The carrying amount reported in the balance sheet for these instruments is cost, which approximates fair value due to the short-term maturity of these instruments.

Unearned Premium Reserve

The fair value of the Company's unearned premium reserve is based on the estimated cost of entering into a cession of the entire portfolio with third party reinsurers under current market conditions. This figure was determined by using the statutory basis unearned premium reserve, net of deferred acquisition costs.

credit reinsurance which the Company is no longer active and the impact of affiliate reinsurance transactions that were purchased by management for the benefit of all the Company's reporting segments.

The Company's reportable business segments are strategic business units that offer different products and services. They are managed separately since each business requires different marketing strategies and underwriting skill sets.

The Company does not segregate certain assets and liabilities at a segment level since management reviews and controls these assets and liabilities on a consolidated basis. The Company allocates certain operating expenses to each segment by identifying expenses related to staff that either directly acquire or service the business. The remaining expenses are generally allocated based on the expense ratios produced by the directly allocated expenses of these segments. Management uses underwriting gains and losses as the primary measure of each segment's financial performance.

20. Subsequent Event

Upon completion of the IPO, any unvested options to purchase ACE ordinary shares held by our officers or employees immediately vested and any unvested restricted ACE ordinary shares were forfeited. Our officers and employees have 90 days from the date of the IPO to exercise any vested options to acquire ACE ordinary shares. The acceleration of vesting of options to purchase ordinary shares resulted in a pre-tax charge to us of approximately $1.4 million. Based upon a price of $42.79 per ACE ordinary share, the Company incurred a pre-tax charge of $3.1 million and contributed cash in the same amount to fund a trust, with an independent trustee, for the value of the restricted ACE ordinary shares forfeited by all of our officers and employees. These pre-tax charges took place during the second quarter of 2004. The trust purchased common shares of Assured Guaranty and allocated to each such individual common shares having the approximate value of the ACE ordinary shares forfeited by such individual. Based on Assured Guaranty's initial public offering price of $18.00 per common share, the trust purchased approximately $173,000 Assured Guaranty common shares on behalf of the Company. The common shares will be deliverable to each individual on the 18-month anniversary of the IPO so long as during that 18-month period the individual was not employed, directly or indirectly, by any designated financial guaranty company. Any forfeited common shares will be delivered to Assured Guaranty. The independent trustee will not have any beneficial interest in the trust. Since completion of the IPO, our officers and employees are no longer eligible to participate in the ACE long-term incentive plans. In connection with these events, the Company received $2.5 million from ACE, for the book value of unrestricted compensation, which is recorded in unearned stock grant compensation, which is included in stockholder's equity.

The maturity, interest rate, and other non-credit characteristics of a Synthetic Security may be different from the Reference Obligations to which the credit risk of the Synthetic Security relates.

No Synthetic Security shall require the Issuer to make any payment to the Synthetic Security Counterparty after its initial purchase other than any payments represented by the release of any cash collateral posted by the Issuer from the Collection Account to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of the posted cash collateral. Collateral may be posted only to a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. No Synthetic Security shall result in the Issuer being a "buyer" of credit protection.

The term Synthetic Security shall not include any Structured Finance Obligation or any Participation, but the Reference Obligation of a Synthetic Security may be a Structured Finance Obligation.

Each Synthetic Security Agreement shall contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in this Indenture.

The ownership or disposition of any Synthetic Security (without regard to the Issuer's other activities) must not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

Unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any "deliverable obligation" that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event" under any proposed Synthetic Security must not provide that its transfer to the Issuer is subject to obtaining any consents and must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such "deliverable obligation" is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event") as a Collateral Obligation and satisfy the Concentration Limitations under this Indenture, except that such "deliverable obligation" may constitute a Defaulted Obligation when delivered upon a "credit event and if the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security is a Senior Secured Loan then the "deliverable obligation" under the Synthetic Security must also be a Senior Secured Loan.

Synthetic Securities that are credit default swaps, credit linked notes, or other similar instruments may not provide for "restructuring" as a "credit event".

For purposes of the Coverage Tests and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test, unless the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied in respect of any proposed alternative treatment, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligation.

With respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index investment providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, for purposes of: (i) calculating compliance with the Diversity Test, the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test, and the Concentration Limitations

(other than limits relating to payment characteristics and except for clauses 17 and 17(a) of the definition of "Concentration Limitations"), and all related definitions, and (ii) any other provision or definition of this Indenture involving a determination with respect to a Reference Obligation, the characteristics of such Reference Obligations shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct investment by the Issuer in each such Reference Obligation in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation. In addition, each Reference Obligation under such Synthetic Security shall be assigned a Moody's Rating Factor equal to the sum of the Moody's Rating Factor of (i) the related Reference Obligor, (ii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty of such Synthetic Security and (iii) the Synthetic Security Collateral of such Synthetic Security. In addition, the Moody's Priority Category Rate in respect of a Synthetic Security referencing multiple Reference Obligations pursuant to this paragraph shall be the Moody's Priority Category Rate as assigned by Moody's to each Reference Obligation underlying such Synthetic Security. For the avoidance of doubt, Reference Obligations upon which a Synthetic Security is based as described in this paragraph must meet the definition of "Collateral Obligation" to the extent provided in this definition.

withholding tax on New Withholding Tax Obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on Increased Rate Withholding Tax Obligations, in each case to the extent not "grossed-up" (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period; or

(ii) taxes, fees, assessments, or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any twelve-month period in excess of U.S.$2,000,000, other than any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax with respect to any payment owing in respect of any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation or Collateral Obligation.

- with respect to the income that can be earned on the scheduled payment of principal or interest on the Pledged Obligations and on any other amounts that may be received for deposit in the Collection Account, and
- with respect to the treatment of Collateral Obligations loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement.

The provisions of this Section 1.2 shall be applicable to any determination or calculation that is covered by this Section 1.2, whether or not reference is specifically made to Section 1.2, unless some other method of calculation or determination is expressly specified in the particular provision.

(a) All calculations with respect to the scheduled payment of principal or interest on the Pledged Obligations shall be made on the basis of information as to the terms of each Pledged Obligation and on reports of payments received on the Pledged Obligation that are furnished by or on behalf of the issuer of the Pledged Obligation and, to the extent they are not manifestly in error, the information or report may be conclusively relied on in making the calculations.

(b) For each Due Period and as of any Measurement Date, the scheduled payment of principal or interest on any Pledged Obligation shall be the sum of

(i) the total amount of payments and collections reasonably expected to be received during the Due Period in respect of the Pledged Obligation that, if paid as scheduled, will be available for payment on the Notes and of certain expenses of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer in the Collection Account at the end of the Due Period; and

(c) For purposes of the applicable determinations required by Article 12 and the definition of "Interest Coverage Ratio," the expected interest on Collateral Obligations shall be calculated using their then current interest rates.

(d) With respect to any Collateral Obligation, the date on which it "matures" (or its "maturity" date) shall be the earlier of

(i) the stated maturity of the obligation or

(ii) if the Issuer has the right to require the issuer or obligor of the Collateral Obligation to purchase, redeem, or retire the Collateral Obligation at a price of at least par on any one or more dates before its Stated Maturity (a "put right") and the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that it will cause the Issuer to direct the Trustee to exercise the put right on a date, the maturity date shall be the date specified in the certification.

(e) For purposes of calculating compliance with the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), the Coverage Tests, and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the Reference Obligation. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limits other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligations.

(f) Any Collateral Obligation loaned to a Securities Lending Counterparty shall be included in the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests, and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test and the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation loaned to a Securities Lending Counterparty shall be included in the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations, in each case unless an "event of default" (under and as defined in the related Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing.

(g) If a Class of Notes ceases to be Outstanding, then any Coverage Test computed by reference to the Class of Notes (but not to any subordinate Class of Notes then Outstanding) shall cease to be of any force.

(h) For purposes of calculating compliance with the Eligibility Criteria (other than the Weighted Average Life Test), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager by notice to the Trustee, during the Reinvestment Period any Eligible Investment representing Principal Proceeds received upon the maturity, redemption, sale, or other disposition of a Collateral Obligation (or, after the Reinvestment Period, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations) shall be deemed to have the characteristics of the disposed Collateral Obligation until reinvested in an additional Collateral Obligation. The calculations shall be based on the Principal Balance of the disposed Collateral Obligations except in the case of Defaulted Collateral Obligations and Credit Risk Securities, in which case the calculations will be based on the Principal Proceeds received on the disposition or sale of the Defaulted Collateral Obligation or Credit Risk Obligation.

Section 1.3. Rules of Interpretation.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture or unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) Defined terms include, as appropriate, all genders and the plural as well as the singular.

(b) References to designated articles, sections, subsections, exhibits, and other subdivisions of this Indenture, such as "Section 6.12 (a)," refer to the designated article, section, subsection, exhibit, or other subdivision of this Indenture as a whole and to all subdivisions of the designated article, section, subsection, exhibit, or other subdivision. The words "herein,"

"hereof," "hereto," "hereunder," and other words of similar import refer to this Indenture as a whole and not to any particular article, section, exhibit, or other subdivision of this Indenture.

(c) Any term that relates to a document or a statute, rule, or regulation includes any amendments, modifications, supplements, or any other changes that may have occurred since the document, statute, rule, or regulation came into being, including changes that occur after the date of this Indenture. References to law are not limited to statutes. Any reference to any person includes references to its successors and assigns.

(d) Any party may execute any of the requirements under this Indenture either directly or through others, and the right to cause something to be done rather than doing it directly shall be implicit in every requirement under this Indenture. Unless a provision is restricted as to time or limited as to frequency, all provisions under this Indenture are implicitly available and things may happen from time to time.

(e) The term "including" and all its variations mean "including but not limited to." Except when used in conjunction with the word "either," the word "or" is always used inclusively (for example, the phrase "A or B" means "A or B or both," not "either A or B but not both").

(f) A reference to "a thing" or "any of a thing" does not imply the existence or occurrence of the thing referred to even though not followed by "if any," and "any of a thing" is any and all of it. A reference to the plural of anything as to which there could be either one or more than one does not imply the existence of more than one (for instance, the phrase "the obligors on a note" means "the obligor or obligors on a note"). "Until something occurs" does not imply that it must occur, and will not be modified by the word "unless." The word "due" and the word "payable" are each used in the sense that the stated time for payment has passed. The word "accrued" is used in its accounting sense, i.e., an amount paid is no longer accrued. In the calculation of amounts of things, differences and sums may generally result in negative numbers, but when the calculation of the excess of one thing over another results in zero or a negative number, the calculation is disregarded and an "excess" does not exist. Portions of things may be expressed as fractions or percentages interchangeably. The word "shall" is used in its imperative sense, as for instance meaning a party agrees to something or something must occur or exist.

(g) All accounting terms used in an accounting context and not otherwise defined, and accounting terms partly defined in this Indenture, to the extent not completely defined, shall be construed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. To the extent that the definitions of accounting terms in this Indenture are inconsistent with their meanings under generally accepted accounting principles, the definitions contained in this Indenture shall control.

(h) In the computation of a period of time from a specified date to a later specified date or an open-ended period, the words "from" and "beginning" mean "from and including," the word "after" means "from but excluding," the words "to" and "until" mean "to but excluding," and the word "through" means "to and including." Likewise, in setting deadlines or other periods, "by" means "on or before." The words "preceding," "following," "before," "after," "next," and words of similar import, mean immediately preceding or following. References to a month or a year refer to calendar months and calendar years.

(i) Any reference to the enforceability of any agreement against a party means that it is enforceable against the party in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, and other similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights and to general equity principles.

(j) Except when only the registered holder is recognized, such as in Section 2.9., references to Noteholders, holders, and the like refer equally to beneficial owners who have an interest in a Note but are not reflected in the Indenture Register as the owner.

ARTICLE 2

THE NOTES AND THE COMPOSITE SECURITIES

Section 2.1. Forms Generally.

The Notes, the Composite Securities, and the Trustee's or Authenticating Agent's certificate of authentication on them (the "Certificate of Authentication") shall be in substantially the forms required by this Article, with appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions, and other variations required or permitted by this Indenture, and may have any letters, numbers, or other marks of identification and any legends or endorsements on them that are consistent with this Indenture, as determined by the Authorized Officers of the Issuer executing the Securities as evidenced by their execution of the Securities.

Section 2.2. Forms of Securities and Certificate of Authentication.

(a) The Securities, including the Certificated Composite Securities, Regulation S Global Securities, Rule 144A Global Notes and Certificate of Authentication, shall be in the forms of the applicable portion of Exhibit A.

(b) Regulation S Global Securities. The Notes of each Class and the Composite Securities sold to non-U.S. persons in off-shore transactions in reliance on Regulation S shall each be represented by one or more global securities in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit A, including legends (the "Regulation S Global Securities"). The global securities shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Securities represented thereby with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depository for the respective accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream, duly executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Regulation S Global Securities may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee or the Depository or its nominee, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided. As used above and in subsection (d) below, "U.S. person" and "off-shore transaction" have the meanings assigned to them in Regulation S.

(c) Rule 144A Global Securities. The Notes of each Class sold to U.S. persons that are QIB/QPs shall each be issued initially in the form of one permanent global note per Class in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit A, including legends (each, a "Rule 144A Global Security"), which shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Notes represented thereby with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depository, duly executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Notes may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee or the Depository or its nominee, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided.

(d) Certificated Composite Securities. The Composite Securities sold to U.S. persons that are either (x) QIB/QPs or (y) both Accredited Investors and Qualified Purchasers, shall be issued in the form of certificated securities in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit A (each, a "Certificated Composite Security"), which shall be registered in the name of their beneficial owner or a nominee of their beneficial owner, duly executed by the Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided.

(e) Book-Entry Provisions. This Section 2.2(e) shall apply only to Global Securities deposited with or on behalf of the Depository. The "Operating Procedures of the Euroclear System" of Euroclear and the "Terms and Conditions Governing Use of Participants" of Clearstream, respectively, shall be applicable to the Regulation S Global Securities insofar as interests in the Global Securities are held by the Agent Members of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be.

Agent Members shall have no rights under this Indenture with respect to any Global Security held on their behalf by the Trustee, as custodian for the Depository and the Depository may be treated by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, and any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee as the absolute owner of the Note for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Indenture shall prevent the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, or any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee, from giving effect to any written certification, proxy, or other authorization furnished by the Depository or impair, as between the Depository and its Agent Members, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a Holder of any Security.

Section 2.3. Authorized Amount; Denominations.

(a) The aggregate principal amount of Notes that may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to U.S.$602,800,000, except for Notes authenticated and delivered upon registration of, transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, other Notes pursuant to Section 2.6, 2.7, or 8.5.

The aggregate principal amount of Composite Securities that may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to U.S.$6,000,000, except for Composite Securities authenticated and delivered upon registration of transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, other Composite Securities pursuant to Section 2.6, 2.7, or 8.5.

- 2 The Class 1 Composite Securities shall consist of the Preference Share Component and the Class 1 Component. The portions of the interest in the Treasury Strip and the Preference Shares that comprise the Class 1 Composite Securities are not separately transferable. On each Composite Securities Payment Date, the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities will be entitled to receive the proceeds from the sale of the portion of the Treasury Strip with respect to such Composite Securities Payment Date and a pro rata share of the distribution on the Preference Shares on such date. No other payments will be made on the Class 1 Composite Securities.

(b) The Class 1 Composite Securities have 2 Components, the Class 1 Component and the Preference Share Component. At issuance U.S.$6,000,000 original principal amount of Class 1 Composite Securities represents a Preference Share Component equal to 2,000 Preference Shares combined with the Class 1 Component.

(c) The Notes will be issuable in minimum denominations of U.S.$250,000, and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess of that amount and the Composite Securities will be issuable in minimum denominations of U.S.$100,000, and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess of that amount.

(d) The Issuer will also issue 82,200 Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, simultaneously with the issuance of the Notes and Composite Securities under this Indenture. The Preference Shares are not secured by the lien of this Indenture. Any payments made by the Trustee hereunder with respect to the Preference Shares will be released by the Trustee to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in accordance with the Priority of Payments for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment (subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands) to Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends or redemption price, as applicable.

Section 2.4. Extension of Reinvestment Period and Stated Maturity.

(a) The Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Reinvestment Period to the applicable Extended Reinvestment Period End Date if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously affected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date in accordance with this Section 2.4 and (ii) the Extension Conditions set forth in Section 2.4(c) are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Reinvestment Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Securities shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or Preference Shares or amendment or supplement to this Indenture or the Preference Share Documents (the "Maturity Extension").

(b) In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes, Composite Securities or Preference Shares wishing to sell such Securities or Preference Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to Section 2.4(d) (such Securities as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, "Extension Sale Securities"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Holder providing an Extension Sale Notice shall be deemed to agree that no Extension Sale Securities of any Holder shall be purchased unless all Extension Sale Securities of all Holders are purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date and the other Extension Conditions are satisfied as of such date.

(c) The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the "Extension Conditions") are satisfied:

(i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;

(ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions in this Indenture and the Preference Share Documents immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Securities or Preference Shares and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);

(iii) (a) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) either (i) all Coverage Tests and the Selected Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied as of the related Extension Determination Date, the rating of each Class of Securities by Moody's has not been downgraded, withdrawn or qualified from that in effect on the Closing Date (unless it subsequently has been reinstated to the rating assigned on the Closing Date) and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $663,000,000 or (ii) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody's (so long as any Securities are then rated by Moody's); and

(iv) so long as the Insurer is the Controlling Class, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer has obtained the Insurer's consent; provided, however, in the event that the Insurer does not consent to a Maturity Extension, the Holders of 100% of the Insured Notes (after giving effect to the sale of any Insured Notes which are Extension Sale Securities in connection with the proposed Maturity Extension) may, pursuant to Section 16.8, terminate the Policy, upon which, so long as clauses (i) through (iii) above have been satisfied, the Maturity Extension shall be effective.

The Issuer, the Trustee, the Insurer and, by its acceptance of the Securities or Preference Shares, each Holder of Securities or Preference Shares agrees that the Initial Purchaser shall not be responsible for causing the Extension Conditions to be satisfied and shall not be liable to any such person or Holder of Securities or Preference Shares (whether or not such Holder gave an Extension Sale Notice with respect to its Securities or Preference Shares) or to any other person if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied. Failure of the Extension Conditions to be satisfied shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture.

(d) Extension Procedure.

(i) No later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer's election to extend the Reinvestment Period (the "Extension Notice"), the Trustee shall mail the Extension Notice to all Holders of Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Securities are Outstanding), in the form of Exhibit J, and shall request the Rating Condition for the Maturity Extension from S&P, if applicable;

(ii) Any Holder of Securities or Preference Shares may give irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") within 30 days after the Trustee has mailed the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell its Securities or Preference Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of Securities or Preference Shares that has not given such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Securities or Preference Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension; and

(iii) If clause (iii)(b)(i) of the Extension Conditions is not satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date as determined by the Issuer (or its agent), the Trustee shall request the Rating Condition to be satisfied with respect to Moody's.

(e) On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) shall confirm (i) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Securities or Preference Shares in compliance with all transfer restrictions in this Indenture and the legends on such Securities or Preference Shares and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (ii) whether the requirements of clause (c)(iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (iii) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

(f) On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall automatically become effective under the terms of this Indenture; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth in clauses (a) and (c) above are satisfied. No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer in consultation with the Portfolio Manager, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail a notice to all Holders of Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Securities are Outstanding) and the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depositary for any Securities or Preference Shares subject to the Maturity Extension.

(g) In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Holder of Notes (other than Extension Sale Securities) and the Insurer (so long as the Policy has not been terminated) shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment. Holders of Composite Securities and Preference Shares shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to (i) any applicable qualifying beneficial owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification and (ii) to the Insurer, on the first Payment Date from and including each Extension Effective Date on which funds are available to be used for such purposes in accordance with Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption of the Notes. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments on a Payment Date shall not be considered "due and payable" hereunder. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Securities. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid: (i) in the case of the Notes, to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer and (ii) in the case of the Insurer, to the account specified in the Premium Letter or as otherwise directed by the Insurer in writing.

Section 2.5. Execution, Authentication, Delivery, and Dating.

The Securities shall be executed on behalf of each of the Applicable Issuers by one of their respective Authorized Officers. The signature of the Authorized Officer on the Securities may be manual or facsimile.

Securities bearing the manual or facsimile signatures of individuals who were at any time the Authorized Officers of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, shall bind the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, notwithstanding that any of them have ceased to hold their offices before the authentication and delivery of the Securities or did not hold their offices at the date of issuance of the Securities.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer may deliver Securities executed by the Applicable Issuers to the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent for authentication and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent, upon Issuer Order, shall authenticate and deliver the Securities as provided in this Indenture and not otherwise.

Each Security authenticated and delivered by the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated as of the Closing Date. All other Securities that are authenticated after the Closing Date for any other purpose under this Indenture shall be dated the date of their authentication.

Securities issued upon transfer, exchange, or replacement of other Securities shall be issued in authorized denominations reflecting the original Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities so transferred, exchanged, or replaced, but shall represent only the current outstanding principal amount of the Securities so transferred, exchanged, or replaced. If any Security is divided into more than one Security in accordance with this Article 2, the original principal amount of the Security shall be proportionately divided among the Securities delivered in exchange for it and shall be the original aggregate principal amount of the subsequently issued Securities.

No Security shall be entitled to any benefit under this Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose, unless there appears on the Security a Certificate of Authentication executed by the Trustee or by the Authenticating Agent by the manual signature of one of their Authorized Officers, and that certificate on any Security shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that the Security has been duly authenticated and delivered under this Indenture.

Section 2.6. Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause a register (the "Indenture Register") to be kept in which the Issuer shall provide for the registration of Securities and the registration of transfers of Securities. The Trustee is hereby initially appointed "Indenture Registrar" for the purpose of registering Securities and transfers of the Securities as provided in this Indenture. The Issuer may rely conclusively on any such information provided to it by the Trustee. Upon any resignation or removal of the Indenture Registrar, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor and notify the Portfolio Manager of the appointment or, in the absence of such appointment, assume the duties of Indenture Registrar. The Issuer shall cause the Composite Securities to be registered and recorded in the Indenture Register and, with respect to the Preference Share Component, in the Preference Share register.

If the Issuer appoints a person other than the Trustee to be Indenture Registrar, the Issuer will give the Trustee prompt written notice of the appointment of the Indenture Registrar and of the location, and any change in the location, of the Indenture Register. The Trustee may inspect the Indenture Register at all reasonable times and obtain copies of it. The Trustee may rely on a certificate executed on behalf of the Indenture Registrar by an Officer of the Indenture Registrar as to the names and addresses of the Holders of the Securities and the principal amounts and number of the Securities.

Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Securities at the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.2, if the requirements of this Indenture are met the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferees, new Securities of any authorized denomination and of a like original Aggregate Outstanding Amount.

At the option of its holder, Securities may be exchanged for Securities of like terms, in any authorized denominations and of like aggregate principal amount, upon surrender of the Securities to be exchanged at the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.2. Whenever any Security is surrendered for exchange, the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, the Securities that the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder making the exchange is entitled to receive.

All Securities issued on any registration of transfer or exchange of Securities shall be the valid obligations of the Applicable Issuers evidencing the same obligations, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Securities surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

Every Security presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Indenture Registrar duly executed by its holder or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No Holder shall incur a service charge for any registration of transfer or exchange of Securities, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

(b) No Security may be sold or transferred (including by pledge or hypothecation) unless the sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, is exempt from the registration requirements under applicable state securities laws, and will not cause either of the Co-Issuers to become subject to the requirement that it register as an investment company under the 1940 Act. None of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, or any other person shall have any obligation to register the Securities under the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

The Trustee shall require, before any registration of transfer of a Composite Security in which delivery is to be made in the form of a Certificated Composite Security, that the Holder's prospective transferee deliver to the Trustee and the Co-Issuers a certificate relating to the transfer in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit B (each, a "Transferee Certificate").

(c) (i) No Note may be transferred, directly or indirectly, to a Benefit Plan Investor unless the purchaser's purchase, holding and disposition of a Note or any beneficial interest therein (x) will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code and (y) in the case of a governmental, church or other plan, will not result in a non-exempt violation of any substantially similar U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. law.

(ii) No Composite Security may be transferred, directly or indirectly, to (i) an ERISA Plan or (ii) a Benefit Plan Investor that is not an ERISA Plan but whose purchase, holding or disposition of a Composite Security or any beneficial interest therein will result in a non-exempt violation of any federal, state, local or non-U.S. law substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code.

(d) Neither the Trustee nor the Indenture Registrar shall be responsible for ascertaining whether any transfer complies with, or for otherwise monitoring or determining compliance with, the requirements or terms of the Securities Act, applicable state securities laws, ERISA, the Code or the 1940 Act; except that if a certificate or any other document is specifically required by this Section 2.6 to be provided to the Trustee by a prospective transferee, the Trustee shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether it conforms substantially on its face to the applicable requirements of this Section 2.6.

Each Holder of a Class 1 Composite Security (other than a Regulation S Global Security) will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Trustee written certification in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit B as to whether it is an Affected Bank and each subsequent transferee of a Regulation S Global Security will be deemed to represent to the Issuer and to the Trustee that it is not an Affected Bank. No transfer of any Class 1 Composite Security to a transferee that has represented it is an Affected Bank will be effective, and the Trustee will not recognize any such transfer, unless such transfer is specifically authorized by the Issuer in writing; provided, however, that the Issuer shall authorize any such transfer if (x) such transfer would not cause more than 33 1/3% of the aggregate outstanding amount of the Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Components of the Class 1 Composite Securities) to be owned by Affected Banks or (y) the transferor is an Affected Bank previously approved by the Issuer.

(e) For so long as any of the Securities are Outstanding, the Issuer shall not issue or register the transfer of any Issuer Ordinary Shares to U.S. persons and the Co-Issuer shall not issue or register the transfer of any of its shares of the Co-Issuer to U.S. persons. As used in this subsection (e), "U.S. person" has the meaning assigned to it in Regulation S.

(f) So long as a Global Security remains Outstanding and is held by or on behalf of the Depository, transfers of the Global Security, in whole or in part, shall only be made in accordance with Section 2.2(c) and this Section 2.6(f).

(i) Subject to clauses (ii), (iii), and (iv) of this Section 2.6(f), transfers of a Global Security shall be limited to transfers of the Global Security in whole, but not in part, to nominees of the Depository.

(ii) Rule 144A Global Security to Regulation S Global Security. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Security deposited with the Depository wishes at any time to exchange its interest in the Rule 144A Global Security for an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Security, or to transfer its interest in the Rule 144A Global Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Security, the Holder may exchange or transfer the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Security (subject to the rules and procedures of the Depository) if the Holder after the exchange or transfer is not a U.S. person.

The Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Security and to increase the principal amount of the Regulation S Global Security by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Rule 144A Global Security to be exchanged, and to credit to the securities account of the person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Security equal to the reduction in the principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Security upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of

(A) instructions given in accordance with the Depository's procedures from an Agent Member directing the Indenture Registrar to credit a beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Security, but not less than the minimum denomination applicable to the Holder's Securities, equal to the beneficial interest in the Rule 144A Global Security to be exchanged or transferred,

(B) a written order given in accordance with the Depository's procedures containing information regarding the participant account of the Depository and the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase,

(C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-2 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest stating that the exchange or transfer of the interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Global Securities, including that the Holder or the transferee, as applicable, is not a U.S. person, and that the transfer has been made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S, and

(D) in the case of a transfer, a certificate in the applicable form of Exhibit B given by the proposed transferee stating that it is not a U.S. person.

(iii) Regulation S Global Security to Rule 144A Global Security. If a Holder of a Note held as a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Security deposited with the Depository wishes at any time to exchange its interest in the Regulation S Global Security for an interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Security or to transfer its interest in the Regulation S Global Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Security, the Holder may, subject to the rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, exchange or transfer, or cause the exchange or transfer of, the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Security. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of:

(A) instructions from Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, directing the Indenture Registrar to cause to be credited a beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Security equal to the beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Security, but not less than the minimum denomination applicable to the Holder's Securities, to be exchanged or transferred, the instructions to contain information regarding the participant account with the Depository to be credited with the increase,

(B) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-3 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest and stating that, in the case of an exchange, the Holder is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is also a Qualified Purchaser or, in the case of a transfer, the person transferring the interest in the Regulation S Global Security reasonably believes that the person acquiring the interest in a Rule 144A Global Security is a Qualified Institutional Buyer, is obtaining the beneficial interest in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction, and is also a Qualified Purchaser, and

(C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-1 given by the proposed transferee stating that it is both a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser, then the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the Regulation S Global Security by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Security to be transferred or exchanged and the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository, concurrently with the reduction, to credit to the securities account of the person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Security equal to the reduction in the principal amount of the Regulation S Global Security.

(iv) Regulation S Global Composite Security to Certificated Composite Security. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Composite Security wishes at any time to transfer its interest in such Global Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of a Certificated Composite Security of the same Class, the Holder may, subject to the rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, transfer the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class as described below. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of:

(A) instructions given in accordance with the Depository's procedures from an Agent Member, or instructions from Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, directing the Trustee to deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class, designating the registered name or names, address, payment instructions, the Class, and the number and principal amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities to be executed and delivered (the Class and the aggregate principal amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities being equal to the aggregate principal amount of such Global Security to be transferred), in authorized denominations,

(B) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-6 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest and stating that the person transferring the interest in the Global Security reasonably believes that the person acquiring the interest in a Certificated Composite Security is either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor, is obtaining the beneficial interest in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A or in a transaction not requiring registration under the Securities Act and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction, and is also either (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, and

(C) a certificate in the applicable form of Exhibit B given by the transferee of the beneficial interest stating that it is both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, and then the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the applicable Global Security by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Global Security to be transferred and the Indenture Registrar shall record the transfer in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a) and authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the appropriate Class registered in the names specified in the certificate described in clause (B) above in principal amounts designated by the transferee (the aggregate of the amounts being equal to the beneficial interest in the Global Securities to be transferred) and in the minimum denominations and integral multiples in excess thereof as specified in Section 2.3.

If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Composite Security wishes at any time to exchange the interest in such Global Security for one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class, the Holder may exchange the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class as provided below. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of

(A) instructions given in accordance with the Depository's procedures from an Agent Member, or instructions from Euroclear,

Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, directing the Trustee to deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities and

(B) written instructions from the Holder designating the registered name, address, and payment instructions of the Holder and the Class and the face amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities to be executed and delivered to the Holder (the Class and the aggregate face amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities being the same as the beneficial interest in the Global Security to be exchanged), then the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the Global Security by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Global Security to be exchanged, shall record the exchange in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the appropriate Class registered as specified in the instructions described in clause (A) above, in authorized denominations.

(v) Other Exchanges. If a Global Security is exchanged for Securities in definitive registered form without interest coupons pursuant to Section 2.11, the Securities may be exchanged for one another only in accordance with procedures substantially consistent with the provisions above (including certification requirements intended to insure that the transfers are made only to Holders who are QIB/QPs or are to non-U.S. persons, or otherwise comply with Regulation S, as the case may be), and as may be from time to time adopted by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee.

(g) So long as a Certificated Composite Security remains Outstanding, transfers of a Certificated Composite Security, in whole or in part, shall only be made in accordance with this Section 2.6(g).

(i) Certificated Composite Security to Regulation S Global Composite Security. If a Holder of a Composite Security represented by a Certificated Composite Security wishes at any time to exchange the Certificated Composite Security for an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Composite Security, or to transfer the Certificated Composite Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Composite Security, the Holder may exchange or transfer the Security for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Composite Security, if the proposed transferee or the person requesting the exchange, as applicable, is not a U.S. person. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of:

(A) the Certificated Composite Security properly endorsed for the transfer, and written instructions from the Holder directing the Indenture Registrar to cause to be credited a beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Composite Security of the same Class equal to the principal amount of the Certificated Composite Security,

(B) a written order containing information regarding the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase,

(C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-5, given by the Holder of the Certificated Composite Security stating that the exchange or transfer of the interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Regulation S Global Composite Security, including that the proposed transferee or the person requesting the exchange, as the case may be, is not a U.S. person and that the proposed transfer is being made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S, and

(D) in the case of a transfer, a certificate in the appropriate form of Exhibit B given by the proposed transferee stating that it is not a U.S. person, the Indenture Registrar shall cancel the Certificated Composite Security in accordance with Section 2.10, record the transfer in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and instruct the Depository to increase the principal amount of Regulation S Global Composite Security by the aggregate principal amount of the Certificated Composite Security to be exchanged or transferred, and to credit to the account of the person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Composite Security of the same Class equal to the amount specified in the instructions received pursuant to clause (A) above.

(ii) Certificated Composite Security to Certificated Composite Security. If a Holder of a Certificated Composite Security wishes at any time to transfer the Certificated Composite Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class, the Holder may transfer the Security as provided below. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of

(A) the Holder's Certificated Composite Security properly endorsed for the transfer, and

(B) a certificate in the applicable form of Exhibit B given by the transferee of the Certificated Composite Security, then the Indenture Registrar shall cancel the Certificated Composite Security in accordance with Section 2.10, record the transfer in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and upon execution by the Applicable Issuers authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities bearing the same designation as the Certificated Composite Securities endorsed for transfer, registered in the names specified in the assignment described in clause (A) above, in principal amounts designated by the transferee (the aggregate of the principal amounts being equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Certificated Composite Securities surrendered by the transferor), and in authorized denominations.

(iii) Exchange of Certificated Composite Securities. If a Holder of one or more Certificated Composite Securities wishes at any time to exchange the Certificated Composite Securities for one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class of different face amounts, the Holder may exchange the Certificated Composite Security for Certificated Composite Securities bearing the same designation as the Certificated Composite Securities endorsed for exchange as provided below. Upon receipt by the Applicable Issuers and the Indenture Registrar of (A) the Holder's Certificated Composite Securities properly endorsed for the exchange and (B) written instructions from the Holder designating the face amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities to be issued (the aggregate of the face amounts being equal to the aggregate face amount of the Certificated Composite Securities surrendered for exchange), then the Indenture Registrar shall cancel the Certificated Composite Securities in accordance with Section 2.10, record the exchange in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and upon execution by the Applicable Issuers authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities bearing the same designation as the Certificated Composite Securities endorsed for exchange, registered in the same names as the Certificated Composite Securities surrendered by the Holder, in different face amounts designated by the Holder, and in authorized denominations.

(h) The Components of the Composite Securities, whether in the form of Certificated Preference Shares, Regulation S Global Preference Shares or the Treasury Strip, are not separately transferable. For the avoidance of doubt, a Holder of a Class 1 Composite Security may not exchange its Class 1 Composite Security for proportional interests in the underlying securities represented by the Components thereof.

(i) If Securities are issued upon the transfer, exchange, or replacement of Securities bearing the applicable legends in the applicable Exhibit A, and if a request is made to remove the legend on the Securities, the legend shall not be removed unless the Trustee and the Applicable Issuers received satisfactory evidence, which may include an Opinion of Counsel acceptable to them, reasonably required by the Applicable Issuers (and which shall by its terms permit reliance by the Trustee), to the effect that neither the legend nor the restrictions on transfer in it are required to ensure that transfers of the Securities comply with the Securities Act, the 1940 Act, ERISA, and the Code. Upon provision of satisfactory evidence, the Trustee or its Authenticating Agent, at the written direction of the Applicable Issuers shall, after due execution by the Applicable Issuers authenticate and deliver Securities that do not bear the applicable legend.

(j) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 2.6 to the contrary:

(i) Restrictions on U.S. Transfers. Transfers of an interest in a Regulation S Global Security that are not made in an offshore transaction pursuant to Regulation S or are made to U.S. Persons, if such transferees take delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note or a Certificated Composite Security, shall be limited to transfers made pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.6(f)(iii) and Section 2.6(f)(iv).

(ii) Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Security may only be held through Euroclear or Clearstream.

(k) Each person who becomes a beneficial owner of a Note or Composite Security evidenced by: (i) an interest in a Certificated Composite Security or Definitive Security, shall make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in the applicable Transferee Certificate set forth in Exhibit B upon such person's purchase or other acquisition of the relevant Certificated Composite Security or Definitive Security and (ii) an interest in a Global Security, shall be deemed to make (or, in the case of a Class 1 Composite Security, represented by a Global Security purchased in the Offering of the Securities, will be required to make) the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in the applicable legends of the Securities set forth in Exhibit A hereto and in the applicable Transferee Certificate set forth in Exhibit B hereto upon such person's purchase or other acquisition of the relevant Global Security.

(l) The aggregate principal amount of any Global Security may be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee, as custodian for DTC for the Global Security, which adjustments shall be conclusive as to the aggregate principal amount of any Global Security.

(m) Any purported transfer of a Security not in accordance with this Section 2.6 shall be null and void.

Section 2.7. *Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost, or Stolen Securities.

If the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, and the relevant Transfer Agent receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss, or theft of any Security, and they receive the security or indemnity they require to hold each of them harmless, or if any mutilated Security is surrendered to a Transfer Agent, then, in the absence of notice to the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, or the Transfer Agent that the Security has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the Applicable Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for the mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Security, a replacement Security, of like tenor and equal principal amount.

If, after delivery of the replacement Security or payment on it, a protected purchaser of the predecessor Security presents it for payment, transfer, or exchange, the Applicable Issuers, the Transfer Agent, and the Trustee may recover the replacement Security (or the payment on it) from the person to whom it was delivered or any person taking the replacement Note from the person to whom the replacement Note was delivered or any assignee of that person, except a protected purchaser, and may recover on the security or indemnity provided therefor to the extent of any loss, damage, cost, or expense incurred by the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, and the Transfer Agent in connection with it.

If any mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Security has become payable, the Applicable Issuers in their discretion may, instead of issuing a new Security pay the Security without requiring its surrender except that any mutilated Security shall be surrendered.

Upon the issuance of any new Security under this Section, the Applicable Issuers or the Trustee may require the payment by its holder of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with the issuance and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected with it.

Every new Security issued pursuant to this Section in replacement for any mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Security shall be an original additional contractual obligation of the Applicable Issuers and the new Security shall be entitled to all the benefits of this Indenture equally and proportionately with all other Securities of the same Class duly issued under this Indenture.

The provisions of this Section are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Securities.

Section 2.8. Payment of Principal and Interest and Other Amounts; Principal and Interest Rights Preserved; Withholding.

(a) The Notes of each Class shall accrue interest during each Interest Period on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day) at the Applicable Note Interest Rate. Interest shall be payable in arrears on each Payment Date. Payment of interest on each Class of Notes shall be subordinated to the payments of interest on the related Priority Classes and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of interest due on the Class of Deferred Interest Notes that is not available to be paid ("Deferred Interest") in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered "payable" for the purposes of this Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note, or in the case of a partial repayment, on the part repaid, from the date of repayment or the respective Stated Maturity unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or unless there is some other default with respect to the payments of principal.

To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest, until paid as provided in this Indenture.

(b) The principal of each Note of each Class matures at par and is payable on the Payment Date that is the Stated Maturity for the Class of Notes, unless the unpaid principal of the Note becomes payable at an earlier date by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption, or otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the payment of principal of each Class of Notes:

(i) may only occur after principal on each Class of Notes that is a Priority Class with respect to the Class has been paid in full and

(ii) is subordinated to the payment on each Payment Date of the principal and interest payable on the Priority Classes, and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

(c) Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Section 9.1.

(d) As a condition to the payment of principal of and interest on any Security without the imposition of U.S. withholding tax, the Paying Agent shall require the previous delivery of appropriate properly completed and signed United States federal income tax certifications (generally, an Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a person that is a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a person that is not a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) or any other certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, and any Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments on the Security under any present or future law of the United States or any present or future law of any political subdivision of the United States or taxing authority in the United States or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under any such law.

(e) Payments in respect of interest on and principal of any Note shall be made by the Trustee, or by the Irish Listing and Paying Agent, if applicable, in U.S. Dollars to the Depository or its designee with respect to a Global Security and to the Holder or its nominee with respect to a Certificated Composite Security or a Definitive Security, by wire transfer, as directed by the Holder, in immediately available funds to a U.S. Dollar account maintained by the Depository or its nominee with respect to a Global Security, and to the Holder or its designee with respect to a Certificated Composite Security or a Definitive Security, in the case of a Certificated Composite Security or a Definitive Security, its holder has provided written wiring instructions to the Trustee and, if the payment is to be made by the Irish Listing and Paying Agent, the Irish Listing and Paying Agent, on or before the related Record Date. Payments in respect of interest on and principal of any Preference Share payable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in accordance with the Priority of Payments for payments on the Preference Shares in accordance with the Preference Share Documents shall be payable by wire transfer in immediately available funds (or by internal transfer if the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent are the same Person) to the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

If appropriate instructions for the wire transfer are not received by the related Record Date, then the payment will be made by check drawn on a U.S. bank mailed to the address of the Holder in the Indenture Register. Upon final payment due on the Maturity of a Note, its holder shall present and surrender the Note at the office designated by the Trustee on or before the Maturity. If the Trustee and the Applicable Issuers have been furnished the security or indemnity they require to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the certificate, then, in the absence of notice to the Applicable Issuers or the Trustee that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender. In the case of Components to be redeemed, the related Composite Securities do not need to be surrendered at the office of any paying agent under this Indenture to receive the applicable Redemption Price. Neither the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, nor any Paying Agent shall have any responsibility or liability for any aspects of the records maintained by Euroclear, Clearstream, or any of the Agent Members relating to or for payments made thereby on account of beneficial interests in a Global Security.

In the case where any final payment of principal and interest is to be made on any Note (other than on its Stated Maturity and except as otherwise provided in this Indenture), the Trustee, in the name and at the expense of the Applicable Issuers shall, not more than 30 nor less than 10 days before the date on which the payment is to be made, mail (by first-class mail, postage prepaid) to the persons entitled thereto at their addresses appearing on the Indenture Register, a notice specifying the date on which the payment will be made, the amount of the payment per U.S.$100,000 original principal amount of Notes and the place where the Notes may be presented and surrendered for payment.

The final payment on any Composite Security shall be made only upon surrender of the certificate for the Composite Security to the Trustee at the office designated by the Trustee. If the Trustee and the Issuer have been furnished any security or indemnity they require to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the certificate, then, in the absence of notice to the Issuer or the Trustee that the applicable certificate has been acquired by a protected purchaser, final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender of the applicable certificate.

(f) Payments of principal to Holders of the Notes of each Class shall be made in the proportion that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes of the Class registered in the name of each Holder on the applicable Record Date bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of all Notes of the Class on the Record Date.

(g) Interest accrued shall be calculated (i) in the case of the Notes (other than the Fixed Rate Notes) on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the applicable Interest Period divided by 360 and (ii) in the case of the Fixed Rate Notes on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months.

(h) All reductions in the principal amount of a Security (or one or more predecessor Securities) effected by payments of installments of principal made on any Payment Date or Redemption Date shall be binding on all future Holders of the Security and of any Security issued upon the registration of its transfer, exchange, or replacement, whether or not the payment is noted on the Security.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the obligations of the Applicable Issuers under the Notes and the Class 1 Components and under this Indenture are limited recourse obligations of the Applicable Issuers payable solely from the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral (as applicable) and following realization of the assets, application of their proceeds in accordance with this Indenture and the reduction of the proceeds of the Collateral to zero, all obligations of, and any claims against, the Co-Issuers under this Indenture or under the Securities or arising in connection therewith shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. No recourse shall be had against any Officer, director, employee, shareholder, or incorporator of either of the Co-Issuers or their respective successors or assigns for any amounts payable under the Securities or this Indenture. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not (1) prevent recourse to the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral (as applicable) for the sums due or to become due under any security, instrument, or agreement that is part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral (as applicable) or (2) be a waiver, release, or discharge of any indebtedness or obligation evidenced by the Securities or secured by this Indenture until the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral (as applicable) have been realized. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not limit the right of any person to name the Issuer or the Co-Issuer as a party defendant in any Proceeding or in the exercise of any other remedy under the Notes or this Indenture, so long as no judgment in the nature of a deficiency judgment or seeking personal liability is sought or (if obtained) enforced against the person.

(j) If any withholding tax is imposed on the Issuer's payment (or allocations of income) under the Securities to any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder, as applicable, the tax shall reduce the amount otherwise distributable to the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder, as applicable. The Trustee is hereby authorized and directed to retain from amounts otherwise distributable to any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder sufficient funds for the payment of any tax that is legally owed, or required by law to be collected, by or on behalf of the Issuer (but the authorization shall not prevent the Trustee or the Issuer from contesting any such tax in appropriate proceedings and withholding payment of the tax, if permitted by law, pending the outcome of the proceedings). The amount of any withholding tax imposed with respect to any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder shall be treated as Cash distributed to the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder when it is withheld by the Trustee and remitted to the appropriate taxing authority. If there is a possibility that withholding tax is payable with respect to a distribution, the Trustee may in its sole discretion withhold the amounts in accordance with this Section 2.8(j). If any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder wishes to apply for a refund of any such withholding tax, the Trustee shall reasonably cooperate with the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder in making the claim by providing information readily available to the Trustee so long as the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder agrees to reimburse the Trustee for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred and provides the Trustee with security reasonably acceptable to the Trustee assuring the reimbursement. The Trustee hereby provides notice to each Noteholder or Composite Securityholder that the failure by the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder to provide the Trustee with appropriate tax certifications may result in amounts being withheld from payments to the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder. Nothing in this Indenture shall impose an obligation on the part of the Trustee to determine the amount of any tax or withholding obligation on the part of the Issuer or in respect of the Securities.

Section 2.9. Persons Considered Owners.

The Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, and any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee may treat as the owner of the Security the person in whose name any Security is registered on the Indenture Register on the applicable Record Date for the purpose of receiving payments of principal of and interest on the Security and on any other date for all other purposes whatsoever (whether or not the Security is overdue), and neither the Issuer, the Co-Issuers, nor the Trustee nor any agent of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Trustee shall be affected by notice to the contrary. The Portfolio Manager shall notify the Trustee of any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager that owns the Securities or Preference Shares.

Section 2.10. Cancellation.

All Securities surrendered for payment, registration of transfer, exchange, or redemption, or lost or stolen, shall be promptly canceled by the Trustee and may not be reissued or resold. No Securities shall be authenticated in lieu of or in exchange for any Securities canceled as provided in this Section 2.10, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture. All canceled Securities held by the Trustee shall be destroyed by the Trustee in accordance with its standard policy unless the Co-Issuers direct by an Issuer Order delivered to the Trustee prior to cancellation and destruction that they be returned to the Issuer.

Section 2.11. Definitive Securities.

(a) A Global Security deposited with the Depository pursuant to Section 2.2 shall be transferred in the form of a Definitive Security to their beneficial owners only if the transfer complies with Section 2.6 and either

(i) the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depository for the Global Security or

(ii) if at any time the Depository ceases to be a Clearing Agency registered under the Exchange Act and, in each case, a successor depository is not appointed by the Co-Issuers within 90 days after the notice.

(b) Any Global Security that is transferable in the form of a Definitive Security to its beneficial owners pursuant to this Section 2.11 shall be surrendered by the Depository to the office of the Trustee's agent located in the City of New York, New York as specified in Section 7.2 (or any other office designated by the Trustee) to be so transferred, in whole or from time to time in part, without charge, and the Applicable Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, upon the transfer of each portion of the Global Security, an equal aggregate principal amount of definitive physical certificates (pursuant to the instructions of the Depository) (each, a "Definitive Security") in authorized denominations. Any Definitive Security delivered in exchange for an interest in a Global Security, as applicable, shall, except as otherwise provided by Section 2.6(i), bear the legends in the applicable portion of Exhibit A and shall be subject to the transfer restrictions referred to in the legends.

(c) The Holder of a Global Security may grant proxies and otherwise authorize any person, including Agent Members and persons that may hold interests through Agent Members, to take any action which a Holder is entitled to take under this Indenture or the Securities, as applicable.

(d) Upon the occurrence of either of the events specified in Section 2.11(a)(i) and (ii), the Co-Issuers shall promptly make available to the Trustee a reasonable supply of Definitive Securities in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons.

The Definitive Securities shall be in substantially the same form as the Global Securities, with any changes the Issuer and Trustee agree to and the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange therefor, the same aggregate principal amount of Definitive Securities of authorized denominations.

Section 2.12. *Securities Beneficially Owned by Persons Not QIB/QPs or Qualified Purchasers.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary elsewhere in this Indenture, any transfer of a beneficial interest in any (i) Global Security to a U.S. person (for purposes of this Section 2.12 as defined in Regulation S) that is not a QIB/QP or (ii) Certificated Composite Security to a U.S. person that is not an Accredited Investor and a Qualified Purchaser, and that is not in each case made pursuant to an applicable exemption under the Securities Act, shall be void and any such purported transfer of which the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Trustee has notice may be disregarded by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, and the Trustee for all purposes.

(b) After discovery by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Trustee (and notice by the Trustee or the Co-Issuer to the Issuer, if either of them makes the discovery), that a person is a Non-Permitted Holder, the Issuer shall promptly send notice to the Non-Permitted Holder demanding that the Non-Permitted Holder transfer its interest to a person that is not a Non-Permitted Holder within 30 days of the date of the notice. The Issuer has received a written acknowledgment from the Custodian that the Custodian is holding all the instruments delivered to it that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral solely on behalf and for the benefit of the Trustee. None of the instruments that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral has any marks or notations indicating that they are then pledged or otherwise assigned to any person other than the Trustee.

(xiii) The Accounts are not in the name of any person other than the Issuer or the Trustee. The Issuer has not consented to the securities intermediary of any Account to comply with instructions of any person other than the Trustee.

(xiv) All "certificated securities" (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral have been delivered to the Custodian, to the extent received by the Issuer, registered in the name of the Custodian or indorsed to the Custodian. The Issuer has received a written acknowledgment from the Custodian that the Custodian is holding all the certificated securities delivered to it that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral solely on behalf and for the benefit of the Trustee.

(xv) The Issuer has caused all "uncertificated securities" (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral to be registered in the name of the Custodian.

(xvi) Upon grant by the Issuer, the Trustee has a first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral.

(b) If the Issuer acquires Collateral or Class 1 Collateral that is not "general intangibles," "certificated securities," "instruments," "securities entitlements," "uncertificated securities," each within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code, or another category of collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code as to which the Issuer has complied with its obligations under this Section 3.3(b), then on or before the date on which the Issuer acquires the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer) shall notify S&P and the Trustee (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) of its acquisition or intended acquisition of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral and the Issuer shall represent to S&P and to the Trustee (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) as to the category of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code and shall make any further representations as to the perfection and priority of the security interest in the Collateral Granted under this Indenture acceptable to S&P.

(a) If an Event of Default is continuing (other than (i) an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h) or (ii) an Event of Default with respect to the Class 1 Component under Section 5.1(b)), the Trustee may, and upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, declare the principal of all the Notes and the Class 1 Component to be immediately payable (and the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance shall become immediately payable) by notice to the Applicable Issuers, and upon that declaration the unpaid principal of all the Notes, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), and other amounts payable under this Indenture, shall become immediately payable. The Reinvestment Period shall terminate upon a declaration of acceleration (subject to re-commencement pursuant to Section 5.2(b)). If an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h) occurs, all unpaid principal, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), of all the Notes and the Class 1 Component, and other amounts payable under this Indenture, shall automatically become payable (and the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance shall become immediately payable) without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Noteholder and the Reinvestment Period shall terminate automatically (subject to re-commencement pursuant to Section 5.2(b)). If an Event of Default occurs with respect to the Class 1 Component under Section 5.1(b), a Majority of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities may declare the Class 1 Component immediately payable by notice to the Issuer and the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance shall become immediately payable. Payment of the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance when made shall be made to the Holders of the Class 1 Components as a distribution in kind of a pro rata share (based on the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance) of each item of the Class 1 Collateral.

(b) At any time after the declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class (or a Majority of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities solely in respect of the acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component) by written notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent, may rescind the declaration and its consequences if:

(i) The Issuer or the Co-Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:

(A) all unpaid installments of interest and principal on the Notes then due or, in the case of acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component, all distributions with respect to the Class 1 Component under Section 11.2 (other than as a result of the acceleration);

(B) to the extent that payment of the interest is lawful, interest on any Deferred Interest and Defaulted Interest at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable;

(C) all unpaid Accrued Insurance Liabilities and unpaid Premium;

(D) all Administrative Expenses of the Co-Issuers and other sums paid or advanced by the Trustee under this Indenture;

(E) all unpaid Senior Management Fees; and

(F) all amounts then payable to any Hedge Counterparty; and

(ii) The Trustee has determined that all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of the interest on or principal of the Notes or, in the case of acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component, nonpayment of distributions with respect to the Class 1 Component under Section 11.2 that have become due solely by the acceleration, have been (A) cured, and a Majority of the Controlling Class (or a Majority of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities solely in respect of the acceleration of the Class 1 Component) by written notice to the Trustee has agreed with that determination, or (B) waived as provided in Section 5.14.

If a declaration of acceleration is rescinded as described above:

(x) the Reinvestment Period, if terminated by the declaration, shall recommence on the date of the rescission (unless the Reinvestment Period would have otherwise terminated before that date pursuant to clauses (i), (ii), or (iii) of its definition); and

(y) the Trustee shall preserve the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral in accordance with this Indenture. If the preservation of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral is rescinded pursuant to Section 5.5, the Notes and the Class 1 Component may again be accelerated pursuant to Section 5.2(a), notwithstanding any previous rescission of a declaration of acceleration pursuant to this Section 5.2(b)).

No rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right resulting from the Default.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.2 to the contrary, the Notes will not be subject to acceleration by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class, or any other Holders solely as a result of the failure to pay any amount due on Notes that are not of the Controlling Class.

Section 5.3. *Collection of Indebtedness and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee.

The Applicable Issuers covenant that if a default occurs in the payment of any principal of or interest when payable on any Note (determined without giving effect to any payments made under the Policy) or the Class 1 Component, upon demand of the Trustee or the Holder of any affected Note or Class 1 Composite Securities, the Applicable Issuers shall pay to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Holder of the Note or the Class 1 Composite Securities, the whole amount then payable on the Note or the Class 1 Component for principal and interest with interest on the overdue principal and, to the extent that payments of the interest shall be legally enforceable, on overdue installments of interest and all other amounts owing to the Holders of the Securities and the Insurer under this Indenture and the Insurance Agreement, at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable, and, in addition, an amount sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection, including the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements, and advances of the Trustee and the Holders and their agents and counsel.

If the Issuer or the Co-Issuer fails to pay those amounts immediately on demand, the Trustee, in its own name and as Trustee of an express trust, may, and shall at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, institute a Proceeding for the collection of the sums due, may prosecute the Proceeding to judgment or final decree, and may enforce the same against the Applicable Issuers or any other obligor on the Notes or the Class 1 Component and collect the monies determined to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the Collateral.

If an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee may, and shall upon written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Holders of the Securities by any appropriate Proceedings as is deemed most effective (if no direction is received by the Trustee) or as the Trustee may be directed by a Majority of the Controlling Class, to protect and enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Holders of the Securities, whether for the specific enforcement of any agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted in this Indenture, or to enforce any other proper remedy or legal or equitable right vested in the Trustee by this Indenture or by law. The reasonable compensation, costs, expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or paid by the Trustee and its agents and counsel, in connection with such Proceeding, including, without limitation, the exercise of any remedies pursuant to Section 5.4, shall be reimbursed to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7.

If any Proceedings are pending relating to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any other obligor on the Notes or the Class 1 Component under the Bankruptcy Law or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, or other similar law, or if a receiver, assignee, or trustee in bankruptcy or reorganization, liquidator, sequestrator, or similar official has been appointed for or taken possession of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or their respective property or any other obligor on the Notes or its property, or if any other comparable Proceedings are pending relating to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes or the Class 1 Component, or the creditors or property of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes, the Trustee, regardless of whether the principal of any Notes is then payable by declaration or otherwise and regardless of whether the Trustee has made any demand pursuant to this Section 5.3, may, by intervention in the Proceedings or otherwise:

(a) file and prove claims for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes and the Class 1 Component, and file any other papers or documents appropriate and take any other appropriate action (including sitting on a committee of creditors) to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for reasonable compensation to the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys, and counsel, and for reimbursement of all expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, except as a result of negligence or bad faith) and of the Holders of the Securities allowed in any Proceedings relating to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes or to the creditors or property of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes;

(b) unless prohibited by applicable law, vote on behalf of the Holders of the Securities in any election of a trustee or a standby trustee in arrangement, reorganization, liquidation, or other bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings or person performing similar functions in comparable Proceedings; and

(c) collect and receive any monies or other property payable to or deliverable on any such claims, and distribute all amounts received with respect to the claims of the Holders of the Securities and of the Trustee on their behalf; and any trustee, receiver or liquidator, custodian, or other similar official is authorized by each of the Holders of the Securities to make payments to the Trustee, and, if the Trustee consents to making payments directly to the Holders of the Securities, to pay to the Trustee amounts sufficient to cover reasonable compensation to the Trustee, each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys, and counsel, and all other reasonable expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee except as a result of negligence or bad faith.

Nothing in this Indenture shall authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or vote for or accept or adopt on behalf of the Holder of any Security, any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, or composition affecting the Securities or any Holder of Securities, or to authorize the Trustee to vote on the claim of the Holder of any Security in any Proceeding except, as aforesaid, to vote for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy or similar person.

Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.3 to the contrary, the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral or institute Proceedings in furtherance of the sale or liquidation of the Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.3 except according to Section 5.5(a).

Section 5.4. Remedies.

(a) If an Event of Default is continuing, and the Notes have been declared payable and the declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded, or at any time after the Stated Maturity, the Co-Issuers agree that the Trustee may, and shall, upon written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, to the extent permitted by applicable law, exercise one or more of the following rights:

(i) institute Proceedings for the collection of all amounts then payable on the Notes or otherwise payable under this Indenture, whether by declaration or otherwise, enforce any judgment obtained, and collect from the Collateral any monies adjudged due;

(ii) sell or liquidate all or a portion of the Collateral or interests in it, at one or more public or private sales called and conducted in any manner permitted by law and in accordance with Section 5.17;

(iii) institute Proceedings from time to time for the complete or partial foreclosure of this Indenture with respect to the Collateral;

(iv) exercise any remedies of a secured party under the UCC and take any other appropriate action to protect and enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Holders of the Securities under this Indenture; and

(v) exercise any other rights that may be available at law or in equity;

except that the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Collateral or institute Proceedings in furtherance of the sale or liquidation of the Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.4 except according to Section 5.5(a).

If an Event of Default is continuing, and the Class 1 Component has been declared payable and the declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded, or at any time after the Stated Maturity, the Co-Issuers agree that the Trustee may, and shall, upon written direction of a Majority of the Class 1 Composite Securities, to the extent permitted by applicable law, exercise one or more of the following rights:

- (i) institute Proceedings for the collection of all amounts then payable on the Class 1 Component or otherwise payable under this Indenture, whether by declaration or otherwise, enforce any judgment obtained, and collect from the Class 1 Collateral any monies adjudged due;
- (ii) sell or liquidate all or a portion of the Class 1 Collateral or interests in it, at one or more public or private sales called and conducted in any manner permitted by law and in accordance with Section 5.17;
- (iii) institute Proceedings from time to time for the complete or partial foreclosure of this Indenture with respect to the Class 1 Collateral;
- (iv) exercise any remedies of a secured party under the UCC and take any other appropriate action to protect and enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Holders of the Securities under this Indenture; and
- (v) exercise any other rights that may be available at law or in equity;

except that the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Class 1 Collateral or institute Proceedings in furtherance of the sale or liquidation of the Class 1 Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.4 except according to Section 5.5(a).

The Trustee may, but need not, obtain at the Issuer's expense, and rely on an opinion of an Independent investment banking firm of national reputation with demonstrated capabilities in structuring and distributing securities similar to the Securities, which may be the Initial Purchaser, as to the feasibility of any action proposed to be taken in accordance with this Section 5.4 and as to the sufficiency of the proceeds and other amounts receivable with respect to the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral to make the required payments of principal of and interest on the Securities, which opinion shall be conclusive evidence as to the feasibility or sufficiency.

(b) If an Event of Default as described in Section 5.1(f) is continuing the Trustee may, with the consent of, and shall, at the direction of, the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, institute a Proceeding solely to compel performance of the covenant or agreement or to cure the representation or warranty, the breach of which gave rise to the Event of Default under Section 5.1(f), and enforce any equitable decree or order arising from the Proceeding.

(c) Upon any sale, whether made under the power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, any Holders or the Portfolio Manager (subject to the Management Agreement) may bid for and purchase any part of the Collateral and, upon compliance with the terms of sale, may hold, retain, possess, or dispose of the Collateral in its or their own absolute right without accountability.

Upon any sale, whether made under the power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, the receipt of the Trustee, or of the Officer making a sale under judicial Proceedings, shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchasers at any sale for their purchase money, and the purchasers shall not be obliged to see to its application.

Any sale, whether under any power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, shall bind the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, and the Holders of the Securities, shall operate to divest all interest whatsoever, either at law or in equity, of each of them in the property sold, and shall be a perpetual bar, both at law and in equity, against each of them and their successors and assigns, and against all persons claiming through or under them.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, none of the Trustee, the Secured Parties, or the Holders of the Securities may, before the date that is one year and one day (or if longer, any applicable preference period plus one day) after the payment in full of all Notes, institute against, or join any other person in instituting against, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, or liquidation Proceedings, or other Proceedings under the Bankruptcy Law or any similar laws in any jurisdiction. Nothing in this Section 5.4 shall preclude the Trustee or any Secured Party (i) from taking any action before the expiration of that period in (A) any case or Proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or (B) any involuntary insolvency Proceeding filed or commenced by a person other than a Secured Party, or (ii) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of its properties any legal action that is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, or liquidation Proceeding.

Section 5.5. Optional Preservation of Collateral.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall retain the Class 1 Collateral intact, collect, and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Class 1 Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Class 1 Collateral and the Class 1 Components in accordance with Section 11.2 and Article 10 and shall not sell the Class 1 Collateral in any circumstances unless so directed by all of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, in which case the Trustee shall sell the Class 1 Collateral to the buyer identified by such Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, if an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall retain the Collateral intact, collect, and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Collateral and the Notes, and any Hedge Agreements (other than amounts received under a Hedge Agreement that are used in putting a Replacement Hedge in place), in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Article 10 and Article 12 unless:

(i) the Trustee determines that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty, all amounts owing by the Issuer to the Insurer under the Insurance Agreement, and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) of Section 11.1(a)(i) and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination; or

(ii) the Holders of a Super Majority of each of the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral; provided, however, if an Event of Default specified in 5.1(d) occurs and if the Insurer is the Controlling Class, the Insurer shall have the sole right to direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral under this clause (ii).

The Trustee shall give written notice of the retention of the Collateral to the Issuer with a copy to the Co-Issuer and the Portfolio Manager. So long as the Event of Default is continuing, any retention pursuant to this Section 5.5(a) may be rescinded at any time when the conditions specified in clause (i) or (ii) exist.

(b) Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) shall be construed to require the Trustee to sell the Collateral if the conditions in clause (i) or (ii) of Section 5.5(a) are not satisfied. Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) shall be construed to require the Trustee to preserve the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral if prohibited by applicable law.

(c) In determining whether the condition specified in Section 5.5(a)(i) exists, the Trustee shall obtain bid prices with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one market maker, that market maker and if there is no market maker, from a pricing service), at the time making a market in those securities, and shall compute the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security. In addition, for the purposes of determining issues relating to the valuation of the Collateral, the satisfaction of the conditions specified in this Indenture, the execution of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral, and the execution of a sale or other liquidation of the Collateral in connection with a determination whether the condition specified in Section 5.5(a)(i) exists, the Trustee may retain, at the Issuer's expense, and rely on an opinion of an Independent investment banking firm of national reputation, which may be the Initial Purchaser.

The Trustee shall deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holders of the Securities, the Co-Issuers, the Insurer, the Portfolio Manager and the Hedge Counterparties a report stating the results of any determination required pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i). The Trustee shall make the determinations required by Section 5.5(a)(i) after an Event of Default at the request of a Majority of the Controlling Class at any time during which the Trustee retains the Collateral pursuant to Section 5.5(a). The Trustee shall obtain (at the Issuer's expense) a letter of a firm of Independent certified public accountants confirming the accuracy of each calculation made by the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) and certifying their conformity to the requirements of this Indenture.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, the Trustee may not, and the Holders of the Notes representing the requisite percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes specified in Section 5.4 or 5.5, may not instruct the Trustee to sell or liquidate or (except in connection with the concurrent execution of a Replacement Hedge) terminate any Hedge Agreement during the continuance of an Event of Default until all Collateral other than the Hedge Agreements has been sold or liquidated and its proceeds applied in accordance with this Indenture.

(e) Collateral may not be sold or liquidated pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) after the last date on which the sale or liquidation is permitted under Section 5.5(a)(i) with respect to a determination made pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) (the last permitted date being determined by the Trustee under Section 5.5(a)(i)), unless a new determination is made in accordance with Section 5.5(a)(i) and the Collateral is sold or liquidated before the last sale date permitted in accordance with the new determination.

Section 5.6. *Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Securities.

All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or under any of the Securities may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Securities or their production in any trial or other Proceeding relating to them, and any Proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be applied as provided in Section 5.7.

In any Proceedings brought by the Trustee (and any Proceedings involving the interpretation of any provision of this Indenture to which the Trustee shall be a party) the Trustee shall be held to represent all the Holders of the Securities.

Section 5.7. *Application of Money Collected.

Any money collected by the Trustee with respect to the Notes pursuant to this Article 5 and any money that may then be held or subsequently received by the Trustee with respect to the Notes under this Indenture shall be applied, subject to Section 13.1 and in accordance with Section 11.1, at the dates fixed by the Trustee.

Any money collected by the Trustee with respect to the Class 1 Component pursuant to this Article 5 and any money that may then be held or subsequently received by the Trustee with respect to the Class 1 Component under this Indenture shall be applied in accordance with Section 11.2 at the dates fixed by the Trustee.

Section 5.8. *Limitation on Suits.

No Holder of any Security shall have any right to institute any Proceedings, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy under this Indenture, unless:

(a) the Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of an Event of Default;

(b) the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class or, in the case of acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component, the Class 1 Components, of the Class 1 Composite Securities shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings with respect to the Event of Default in its own name as Trustee under this Indenture and the Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with the request;

(c) the Trustee for 30 days after its receipt of the notice, request, and offer of indemnity has failed to institute a Proceeding; and

(d) no direction inconsistent with the written request has been given to the Trustee during the 30 day period by a Majority of the Controlling Class or, in the case of acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component, the Class 1 Components, of the Class 1 Composite Securities.

No one or more Holders of Securities have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect the rights of any other Holders of Securities of the same Class or to obtain or to seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders of the Securities of the same Class or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner provided in this Indenture and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Securities of the same Class subject to and in accordance with Section 13.1 and the Priority of Payments or Section 11.2, as the case may be.

If the Trustee receives conflicting or inconsistent requests and indemnity from two or more groups of Holders of the Controlling Class, each representing less than a Majority of the Controlling Class, the Trustee shall take the action requested by the Holders of the largest percentage in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 5.8 shall not limit the right of the Insurer to exercise any rights or remedies that the Insurer may have pursuant to Section 16.2.

Section 5.9. Unconditional Rights of Holders of Securities.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture other than this Section 5.9 and Sections 2.8(i), 5.4(d), and 13.1, (i) the Holder of any Note and a Holder of the Class 1 Composite Securities shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of the principal of and interest on the Note or the Class 1 Component, as the case may be, as it comes due in accordance with the Priority of Payments or Section 11.2, as the case may be, and Section 13.1, and, subject to Section 5.8, to institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment, and that right shall not be impaired without the consent of the Holder; and (ii) the Insurer shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of all outstanding Accrued Insurance Liabilities in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Section 13.1, and subject to Section 5.8, to institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment, and that right shall not be impaired without the consent of the Insurer. Holders of Notes ranking junior to Notes still Outstanding may not institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until no Note ranking senior to their Note remains Outstanding, subject to Section 5.8, and shall not be impaired without the consent of any such Holder. For so long as any Notes are Outstanding, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be entitled to any payment of any amount for payments to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Shares Documents, to the extent legally permitted, on a claim against the Issuer unless there are sufficient funds to pay such amounts to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Section 5.10. Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If the Trustee, the Insurer or the Holder of any Security has instituted any Proceeding to enforce any right under this Indenture and the Proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee, the Insurer or to the Holder, then, subject to any determination in the Proceeding, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Insurer and the Holder shall be restored to their former positions under this Indenture, and thereafter all rights of the Trustee, the Insurer and the Holder shall continue as though no Proceeding had been instituted.

Section 5.11. *Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

No right in this Indenture conferred on or reserved to the Trustee, the Insurer or to the Holders of Securities is intended to be exclusive of any other right, and every right shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right given under this Indenture or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right under this Indenture, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right.

Section 5.12. *Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

No delay or omission of the Trustee, the Insurer or the Holder of any Security to exercise any right accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair the right or be a waiver of the Event of Default or an acquiescence in it or of a subsequent Event of Default. Every right given by this Article 5 or by law to the Trustee, the Insurer or to the Holders of Securities may be exercised from time to time, and as often as deemed expedient, by the Trustee, the Insurer or by the applicable Holders.

Section 5.13. *Control by Majority of the Controlling Class.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, during the continuance of an Event of Default, a Majority of the Controlling Class, with respect to the Notes, or all of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, with respect to acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component, the Class 1 Components, may institute and direct the time, method, and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any right of the Trustee with respect to the Notes or the Class 1 Components, as the case may be, if:

- (i) the direction does not conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of this Indenture; and
- (ii) the Trustee has been indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction (and the Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability unless it has received an indemnity against the liability).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, only a Majority of the Controlling Class may direct proceedings with respect to remedies specified in Section 5.4(a) or otherwise with respect to the Collateral, and only a Majority of the Class 1 Component may direct proceedings with respect to the remedies specified in Section 5.4(b) or otherwise with respect to the Class 1 Component.

(b) The Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with a direction under Section 5.13(a). Subject to Section 6.1, the Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability (unless the Trustee has received an indemnity against the liabilities reasonably satisfactory to it) and during the continuance of an Event of Default that has not been cured, or waived, the Trustee shall, before receiving directions from a Majority of the Controlling Class or all of the Holders of the Class 1 Components, as the case may be, exercise the rights expressly vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise with respect to the Event of Default as is required by Section 6.1(b).

(c) Any direction to the Trustee to undertake a Sale of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral shall be in accordance with Section 5.4 or 5.5.

Section 5.14. Waiver of Past Defaults.

Before a judgment or decree for payment of any money due has been obtained by the Trustee, as provided in this Article 5, a Majority of the Controlling Class may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes, with respect to the Notes, or all of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, with respect to the Class 1 Components, waive any past Default and its consequences, except a Default:

(a) in the payment of the principal or Redemption Price of any Note or the Class 1 Component, as the case may be, or in the payment of interest (including Defaulted Interest, Deferred Interest, and any interest on Defaulted Interest or Deferred Interest) on the Notes;

(b) with respect to a provision of this Indenture that under Section 8.2 cannot be modified or amended without the waiver or consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note or Class 1 Composite Security adversely affected by the modification or amendment;

(c) in the payment of amounts due to the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Insurer or the Hedge Counterparty, which may only be waived with the consent of the affected party; or

(d) arising as a result of an Event of Default described in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h).

Upon any such waiver, the Default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising from it shall be cured, for every purpose of this Indenture, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereto. The Trustee shall promptly give written notice of any such waiver to the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Holder of Securities.

Section 5.15. Undertaking for Costs.

All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by its acceptance of its Note agrees, that in any suit for the enforcement of any right under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee or the Portfolio Manager for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee or for any action taken or omitted by the Portfolio Manager, as applicable, any court may in its discretion require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and that the court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 5.15 shall not apply to any suit instituted by the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager or the Insurer, to any suit instituted by any Holder, or group of Holders, of Notes holding in the aggregate more than 10% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, or to any suit instituted by any Holder of Notes for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note or any other amount payable under this Indenture after the applicable Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, after the applicable Redemption Date).

Section 5.16. Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws.

To the extent that they may lawfully do so, the Co-Issuers covenant that they will not at any time insist on, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law or any valuation, appraisal, redemption, or marshalling law or rights, in each case wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, that may affect the covenants, the performance of, or any remedies under this Indenture. If any of the Securities have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion, or consolidation to the authenticating Trustee may adopt the authentication and deliver the Securities so authenticated with the same effect as if the successor Trustee had itself authenticated the Securities.

the Trustee shall request the issuer of the Pledged Obligation, the trustee under the related Underlying Instrument, or paying agent designated by either of them to make the payment as soon as practicable after the request but in no event later than three Business Days after the date of the request. If the payment is not made within that time period, the Trustee, subject to clause (iv) of Section 6.1(c), shall take the action directed by the Portfolio Manager in writing. Any such action shall be without prejudice to any right to claim a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture. If the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager requests a release of a Pledged Obligation or delivers a Collateral Obligation in connection with any such action under the Management Agreement, the release or substitution shall be subject to Section 10.6 and Article 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Trustee shall deliver to the Issuer or its designee any payment with respect to any Pledged Obligation or any Collateral Obligation received after its Due Date to the extent the Issuer previously made provisions for the payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with this Section 6.13 and the payment shall not be part of the Collateral.

Section 6.14. *Authenticating Agents.

Upon the request of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee shall, and if the Trustee so chooses the Trustee may, appoint one or more Authenticating Agents with power to act on its behalf and subject to its direction in the authentication of Securities in connection with issuance, transfers, and exchanges under Sections 2.4, 2.5, 2.6, 2.7, and 8.5, as fully to all intents and purposes as though each Authenticating Agent had been expressly authorized by those Sections to authenticate the Securities. For all purposes of this Indenture, the authentication of Securities by an Authenticating Agent pursuant to this Section 6.14 shall be the authentication of Securities "by the Trustee."

Any Authenticating Agent may at any time resign by giving written notice of resignation to the Trustee and the Issuer. The Trustee may at any time terminate the agency of any Authenticating Agent by giving written notice of termination to the Authenticating Agent and the Co-Issuers.

The Co-Issuers agree to pay to each Authenticating Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for its services, and reimbursement for its reasonable expenses relating to its services as an Administrative Expense; provided, however, that if the Trustee elects to appoint an Authenticating Agent without the approval or request of the Co-Issuers, then the Trustee shall pay such compensation and reimbursement. Sections 2.9, 6.4, and 6.5 shall be applicable to any Authenticating Agent.

Section 6.15. *Fiduciary for Holders of Notes Only; Agent for Secured Parties.

With respect to the security interest created under this Indenture, the delivery of any Pledged Obligation to the Trustee is to the Trustee as representative of the Holders of Notes or the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, as the case may be, and agent for the other Secured Parties. In furtherance of the foregoing, the possession by the Trustee of any Pledged Obligation and the endorsement to or registration in the name of the Trustee of any Pledged Obligation (including as entitlement holder of the Custodial Account) are all undertaken by the Trustee in its capacity as representative of the Holders of Notes or the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, as the case may be, and agent for the other Secured Parties. The Trustee shall owe no fiduciary duties to the Insurer other than as subrogee of the Noteholders; provided that, the foregoing shall not limit any of the express obligations of the Trustee under this Indenture.

Section 6.16. Representations and Warranties of the Bank.

The Bank represents and warrants as follows for the benefit of the Noteholders, the Composite Securityholders and the Insurer:

(a) Organization. The Bank has been duly organized and is validly existing as a national banking association and has the power to conduct its business and affairs as a trustee.

(b) Authorization; Binding Obligations. The Bank has the corporate power and authority to perform the duties and obligations of trustee under this Indenture. The Bank has taken all necessary corporate action to authorize the execution, delivery, and performance of this Indenture, and all of the documents required to be executed by the Bank pursuant to this Indenture. Upon execution and delivery by the Bank, this Indenture will be the valid and legally binding obligation of the Bank enforceable in accordance with its terms.

(c) Eligibility. The Bank is eligible under Section 6.8 to serve as Trustee under this Indenture.

Section 6.17. Additional Reporting Requirements.

If the Initial Purchaser elects to enter into a posting dealer agreement pursuant to Section 7.20, upon the effectiveness of the posting dealer agreement, the Issuer shall provide to The Bond Market Association certain documents for posting in the Repository as mutually agreed between the Portfolio Manager and the Initial Purchaser.

If the Initial Purchaser has entered into a posting dealer agreement, as promptly as possible following the execution of any supplemental indenture under Article 8, the Trustee at the expense of the Issuer shall deliver a copy of such supplemental indenture to the Repository in the manner described in Section 14.3(a)(viii).

ARTICLE 7

COVENANTS

Section 7.1. Payment of Principal and Interest.

The Applicable Issuers shall pay the principal of and interest on the Securities in accordance with the Securities and this Indenture.

The Issuer shall, subject to the Priority of Payments, reimburse the Co-Issuer for any amounts paid by the Co-Issuer pursuant to the Securities or this Indenture. The Co-Issuer shall not reimburse the Issuer for any amounts paid by the Issuer pursuant to the Securities or this Indenture.

Amounts properly withheld under the Code or other applicable law by any person from a payment to any Holder shall be considered as having been paid by the applicable Issuers to the Holder for all purposes of this Indenture.

Section 7.2. Maintenance of Office or Agency.

The Co-Issuers appoint the Trustee as a Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and interest on the Notes and of the Class 1 Component. The Co-Issuers appoint JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, 4 New York Plaza, Ground Floor, New York, NY 10004, Attn: ITS (Houston) Southfork CLO Ltd., as the Co-Issuers' agent where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Securities or this Indenture may be served and where Securities may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

The Co-Issuers may at any time and from time to time vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent or appoint any additional agents for all of these purposes.

The Co-Issuers shall maintain in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, an office or agency where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Securities and this Indenture may be served and an office or agency outside of the United States where Securities may be presented and surrendered for payment.

No paying agent shall be appointed in a jurisdiction that subjects payments on the Securities to withholding tax.

So long as any Class of Securities is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, the Co-Issuers shall maintain in Ireland a Paying Agent and an office or agency where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Securities and this Indenture may be served and where the Securities may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

The Co-Issuers appoint, for so long as any Class of Securities is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, JP Morgan Bank (Ireland) PLC (the "Irish Listing and Paying Agent") as Listing Agent and as Paying Agent in Ireland with respect to the Securities, for the payment of principal and interest on the Securities and as the Co-Issuers' agent where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Securities or this Indenture may be served. If the Irish Listing and Paying Agent is replaced at any time when any Class of Securities is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, notice of the appointment of any replacement shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange as promptly as practicable after the appointment. The Co-Issuers shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee, each Rating Agency, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and the Holders of the Securities of the appointment or termination of any such agent and of the location and any change in the location of any such office or agency.

If at any time the Co-Issuers fail to maintain any required office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, or outside the United States, or fail to furnish the Trustee with their addresses, notices and demands may be served on the Co-Issuers.

Section 7.3. Money for Note Payments to be Held in Trust.

All payments of amounts payable with respect to any Securities that are to be made from amounts withdrawn from the Payment Account shall be made on behalf of the Applicable Issuers by the Trustee or a Paying Agent with respect to payments on the Securities.

When the Applicable Issuers have a Paying Agent that is not also the Indenture Registrar, they shall furnish no later than the fifth calendar day after each Record Date a list in the form the Paying Agent reasonably requests, of the names and addresses of the Holders and of the certificate numbers of individual Securities held by each Holder.

Whenever the Applicable Issuers have a Paying Agent other than the Trustee, they shall, on or before the Business Day before each Payment Date or Redemption Date direct the Trustee to deposit on the Payment Date with the Paying Agent an aggregate sum sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due (to the extent funds are then available for that purpose in the Payment Account), that sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled to it and (unless the Paying Agent is the Trustee) the Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee of its action or failure so to act. Any monies deposited with a Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) in excess of an amount sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due on the Securities with respect to which the deposit was made shall be paid over by the Paying Agent to the Trustee for application in accordance with Article 10.

Additional or successor Paying Agents shall be appointed by Issuer Order with written notice of the appointment to the Trustee. So long as Notes of any Class are rated by a Rating Agency any Paying Agent must either have a long-term debt rating of "Aa3" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or higher by Moody's and "AA-" or higher by S&P or a short-term debt rating of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) by Moody's and "A-1+" by S&P or the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency must be satisfied with respect to its appointment. If a successor Paying Agent ceases to have a long-term debt rating of "Aa3" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or higher by Moody's and "AA-" or higher by S&P or a short-term debt rating of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) by Moody's and a short-term debt rating of "A-1+" by S&P, the Co-Issuers shall promptly remove the Paying Agent and appoint a successor Paying Agent. The Co-Issuers shall not appoint any Paying Agent that is not, at the time of the appointment, a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision and examination by federal or state or national banking authorities. The Co-Issuers shall cause each Paying Agent other than the Trustee to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which the Paying Agent agrees with the Trustee, subject to this Section 7.3, that the Paying Agent will:

- (i) allocate all sums received for payment to the Holders of Securities for which it acts as Paying Agent on each Payment Date and any Redemption Date among the Holders in the proportion specified in the applicable report to the extent permitted by applicable law;
- (ii) hold all sums held by it for the payment of amounts due with respect to the Securities in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled to them until they are paid or otherwise disposed of as provided in this Indenture;
- (iii) immediately resign as a Paying Agent and forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums held by it in trust for the payment of Securities if at any time it ceases to meet the standards required to be met by a Paying Agent at the time of its appointment;
- (iv) immediately give the Trustee notice of any default by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer (or any other obligor on the Notes) in the making of any payment required to be made; and
- (v) during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held in trust by the Paying Agent.

To obtain the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture or for any other purpose, the Co-Issuers may at any time pay, or by Issuer Order direct any Paying Agent to pay, to the Trustee all sums held in trust by the Co-Issuers or the Paying Agent, and, upon the payment by any Paying Agent to the Trustee, the Paying Agent shall be released from all further liability with respect to the money paid.

Any money deposited with a Paying Agent and not previously returned that remains unclaimed for 20 Business Days shall be returned to the Trustee. Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent in trust for the payment of the principal of or interest on any Security or with respect to the Class 1 Component and remaining unclaimed for two years after the principal or interest has become payable shall be paid to the Applicable Issuers. The Holder of the Security shall thereafter look only to the Applicable Issuers for payment of the amounts due to it as an unsecured general creditor and all liability of the Trustee or the Paying Agent with respect to that money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Applicable Issuers) shall thereupon cease. The Trustee or the Paying Agent, before being required to release any payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Applicable Issuers any reasonable means of notification of the release of the payment, including mailing notice of the release to Holders whose Securities have been called but have not been surrendered for redemption or whose right to or interest in monies payable but not claimed is determinable from the records of any Paying Agent, at the last address of record of each Holder.

Section 7.4. Existence of Co-Issuers.

(a) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall maintain in full force their existence and rights as companies incorporated or organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands and the State of Delaware, respectively, and shall obtain and preserve their qualification to do business as foreign corporations in each jurisdiction in which the qualifications are necessary to protect the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, the Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Preference Shares, any of the Collateral or any of the Class 1 Collateral.

However, the Issuer may change its jurisdiction of incorporation from the Cayman Islands to any other jurisdiction reasonably selected by the Issuer so long as:

- (A) the Issuer has received a legal opinion (on which the Trustee may rely) to the effect that the change is not disadvantageous in any material respect to the Holders, the Portfolio Manager, the Insurer or any Hedge Counterparty,
- (B) written notice of the change has been given by the Issuer to the Trustee, the Holders of the Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Portfolio Manager, any Hedge Counterparty, the Insurer and each Rating Agency, and
- (C) on or before the 15th Business Day following its receipt of the notice the Trustee has not received written notice from a Majority of the Controlling Class objecting to the change.

The Issuer may take any action required by this Indenture within the United States notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture requiring the Issuer to take the action outside of the United States so long as before taking the action the Issuer receives a legal opinion from nationally recognized legal counsel to the effect that it is not necessary to take the action outside of the United States or any political subdivision of the United States to prevent the Issuer from becoming subject to any United States federal, state, or local withholding or other taxes.

(b) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall ensure that all corporate or other formalities regarding their respective existences (including holding regular board of directors' and shareholders', or other similar, meetings to the extent required by applicable law) are followed. Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall take any action, or conduct its affairs in a manner, that is likely to result in its separate existence being ignored or in its assets and liabilities being substantively consolidated with any other person in a bankruptcy, reorganization, or other insolvency proceeding. Without limiting the foregoing,

- (i) the Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries other than the Co-Issuer,
- (ii) the Co-Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries,
- (iii) the Issuer shall maintain at all times at least one director who is Independent of the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, and any of their respective Affiliates,
- (iv) the Issuer shall not commingle its funds with the funds of any other person, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture, and
- (v) except to the extent contemplated in the Management Agreement, the Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and the declaration of trust by the Share Trustee, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall not:
  - (A) have any employees (other than their respective directors),
  - (B) engage in any transaction with any shareholder that would be a conflict of interest (the entry into the Administration Agreement with the Administrator shall not be deemed a conflict of interest), or
  - (C) pay dividends in violation of this Indenture, the resolutions of its board of directors and the Preference Share Documents.

Section 7.5. Protection of Collateral.

(a) The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will procure any action within the Portfolio Manager's control that is reasonably necessary to maintain the perfection and priority of the security interest of the Trustee in the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral. The Issuer from time to time (and promptly upon the request of the Insurer for so long as the Insurer is the Controlling Class) shall execute and deliver any supplements and amendments to this Indenture and shall execute and deliver any Financing Statements, continuation statements, instruments of further assurance, and other instruments and shall take any other action appropriate to secure the rights and remedies of the Secured Parties under this Indenture and to:

- (i) Grant more effectively all or any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral;
- (ii) maintain or preserve the lien (and its priority) of this Indenture or to carry out more effectively the purposes of this Indenture;

(iii) perfect, publish notice of, or protect the validity of any Grant made by this Indenture (including any actions appropriate as a result of changes in law);

(iv) enforce any of the Pledged Obligations or other instruments or property included in the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral;

(v) preserve and defend title to the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral and the rights of the Secured Parties in the Collateral and of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities in the Class 1 Collateral against the claims of anyone; and

(vi) pay when due all taxes levied or assessed on any part of the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral.

The Issuer designates the Portfolio Manager as its agent and attorney in fact to execute any Financing Statement, continuation statement, and all other instruments, and take all other actions, required pursuant to this Section 7.5.

The Issuer authorizes the filing without the Issuer's signature a financing statement that names the Issuer as "debtor" and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association as "secured party" (with or without indicating its capacity as Trustee hereunder) and that describes the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral as "all assets of the debtor, whether now owned or hereafter acquired and wherever located."

(b) The Trustee shall not:

(i) except in accordance with Section 10.6(a), (b), or (c), remove any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral that consists of Cash or is evidenced by an instrument, certificate, or other writing:

(A) from the jurisdiction in which it was held at the date the most recent Opinion of Counsel was delivered pursuant to Section 7.6 (or from the jurisdiction in which it was held as described in the Opinions of Counsel delivered at the Closing Date pursuant to Section 3.1(iii) if no Opinion of Counsel has yet been delivered pursuant to Section 7.6), or

(B) from the possession of the person who held it (other than the Bank), or

(ii) cause or permit ownership or the pledge of any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral that consists of book-entry securities to be recorded on the books of a person (other than the Bank):

(A) located in a different jurisdiction from the jurisdiction in which the ownership or pledge was recorded, or

(B) other than the person on whose books the ownership or pledge was originally recorded, unless the Trustee shall have first received an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to the property and its priority will continue to be maintained after giving effect to the change.

(c) Without at least 30 days' prior written notice to the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall not change its "location" (as defined in Section 9-307 of the UCC) or change its name from the name shown on the signature pages of this Indenture.

(d) The Issuer shall, subject to the Priority of Payments, enforce all of its material rights and remedies under the Management Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, each Hedge Agreement and each Securities Lending Agreement.

(e) The Issuer shall pay any taxes levied because any Pledged Obligations are owned by the Issuer.

(f) The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will either exercise the "put" option that prevents a Collateral Obligation from being a Long-Dated Collateral Obligation on the last available date before the Stated Maturity of the Securities or sell the Collateral Obligation for Sale Proceeds at least equal to the Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligation, in either case by the Stated Maturity of the Securities.

Section 7.6. *Opinions as to Collateral.

On or before May, 31 in each calendar year, commencing in 2006, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, the Insurer and each Rating Agency an Opinion of Counsel from each relevant jurisdiction stating that, in the counsel's opinion, as of the date of the opinion, all actions necessary to maintain the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral have been taken and that no further action (other than as specified in the opinion) needs to be taken for the continued effectiveness and perfection of the lien over the next year. The opinion may be subject to customary assumptions and qualifications.

Section 7.7. *Performance of Obligations.

(a) The Co-Issuers, each as to itself, shall not take any action, and shall use their reasonable commercial efforts not to permit any action to be taken by others, that would release any person from any of the person's covenants or obligations under any instrument included in the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, except in the case of enforcement action taken with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation in accordance with this Indenture and actions by the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement and in conformity with this Indenture or as otherwise required by this Indenture.

(b) The Applicable Issuers may, with the prior written consent of the Insurer, a Majority of each Class of Notes, a Majority of the Preference Shares and a Majority of the Class 1 Component (except in the case of the Management Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement as initially executed), contract with other persons (including the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, and the Collateral Administrator) for the performance of actions and obligations to be performed by the Applicable Issuers under this Indenture. Notwithstanding any such arrangement, the Applicable Issuers shall remain primarily liable for performance under this Indenture. The Applicable Issuers shall punctually perform, and use their reasonable commercial efforts to cause the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and any other person to perform, all of their obligations in the Management Agreement, this Indenture, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement or any other agreement.

Section 7.8. Negative Covenants.

(a) The Issuer shall not and, with respect to clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), and (vi), the Co-Issuer shall not, in each case from and after the Closing Date:

(i) sell, transfer, assign, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber (or permit or suffer the sale, transfer, assignment, exchange, or other disposition of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecation, or other encumbering of), any part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and the Management Agreement;

(ii) claim any credit on, make any deduction from, or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, dispute the enforceability of payment of the principal or interest (or any other amount) payable in respect of the Notes or the Class 1 Component (other than amounts withheld in accordance with the Code or any applicable laws of the Cayman Islands) or assert any claim against any present or future Holder of Notes because of the payment of any taxes levied or assessed on any part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral;

(iii) (A) incur or assume or guarantee any indebtedness, other than the Securities and this Indenture and the transactions contemplated by this Indenture (including, as contemplated hereby, entering into the Hedge Agreements and Securities Lending Agreements), or (B) issue any additional class of securities other than the Preference Shares issued on or before the Closing Date, except as otherwise permitted by the Preference Share Documents;

(iv) (A) permit the validity or effectiveness of this Indenture or any Grant under this Indenture to be impaired, or permit the lien of this Indenture to be amended, hypothecated, subordinated, terminated, or discharged, or permit any person to be released from any covenants or obligations with respect to this Indenture or the Securities, except as may be expressly permitted by this Indenture or by the Management Agreement, (B) permit any lien, charge, adverse claim, security interest, mortgage, or other encumbrance (other than the lien of this Indenture) to be created on or extend to or otherwise arise on or burden any part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, any interest in it, or its proceeds of, or (C) take any action that would permit the lien of this Indenture not to be a valid first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral;

(v) amend the Management Agreement except pursuant to its terms and Section 15.1(f)(iv) or amend the Collateral Administration Agreement except pursuant to its terms unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the amendment or enter into any waiver in respect of any of the foregoing agreements without providing written notice to each Rating Agency and the Trustee (and, with respect to the Collateral Administration Agreement, without the consent of the Trustee);

(d) Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall use the proceeds of the Securities to buy or carry Margin Stock.

Section 7.9. Notice of Default; Statement as to Compliance.

(b) On or before May, 31 in each calendar year commencing in 2006, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (to be forwarded by the Trustee to the Portfolio Manager and each Holder of Securities making a written request therefor and, upon written request therefor by a Beneficial Owner in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a Beneficial Owner, to the Beneficial Owner (or its designee), the Insurer and each Rating Agency) a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer that, to the best knowledge of the Issuer, no Default exists, and has not existed since the date of the last certificate or, if a Default does then exist or had existed, specifying the same and its nature and status, including actions undertaken to remedy it, and that the Issuer has complied with all of its obligations under this Indenture or, if that is not the case, specifying those obligations with which it has not complied.

Section 7.10. Co-Issuers May Consolidate, etc., Only on Certain Terms.

Upon any such consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance, the person named as the "Issuer" or the "Co-Issuer" in the first paragraph of this Indenture or any successor may be dissolved, wound up, and liquidated at any time thereafter, and the person thereafter shall be released from its liabilities as obligor and maker on all the Securities and from its obligations under this Indenture.

Section 7.12. No Other Business.

(a) From and after the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than issuing and selling the Securities pursuant to this Indenture and the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents and acquiring, owning, holding, and pledging and selling Collateral Obligations and the other Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral in connection therewith, and shall not act as agent, negotiator or structurer with respect to any Collateral, act as a participant in negotiating terms of a primary loan agreement, enter into a binding commitment to purchase any Collateral prior to the issuance thereof or engage in any transaction or activity not permitted by Schedule 7 or which the Issuer knows would cause it to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States within the meaning of Section 864 of the Code, and the Co-Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than issuing and selling the Notes to be issued by it pursuant to this Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, other activities appropriate to accomplish the foregoing or incidental thereto or connected therewith.

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of clause (a) of this Section 7.12, the Issuer shall comply with all of the provisions set forth in Schedule 7 hereto, unless, with respect to a particular transaction, the Issuer and the Trustee shall have received an opinion or advice of tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such transaction, the Issuer's failure to comply with one or more of such provisions will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States within the meaning of Section 864 of the Code or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis. The provisions set forth in Schedule 7 hereto may be amended, eliminated or supplemented (without execution of a supplemental indenture) if the Issuer and the Trustee shall have received an opinion of tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters that the Issuer's compliance with such amended provisions or supplemental provisions or the Issuer's failure to comply with such provisions proposed to be eliminated, as the case may be, will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States within the meaning of Section 864 of the Code or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis provided, however, that written notice of any such amendment, elimination or supplementation of or to the provisions of Schedule 7 pursuant to this Section 7.12(b) shall be provided to the Insurer and each Rating Agency then rating any Outstanding Class of Securities within 90 days of any such amendment, elimination or supplementation. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event an opinion of tax counsel as described above has been obtained in accordance with the terms hereof, no consent of any Holder of the Securities or satisfaction of the Rating Condition shall be required in order to comply with this Section 7.12(b) in connection with the amendment, elimination or supplementation of any provision of Schedule 7 contemplated by such opinion of tax counsel.

(c) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer may amend, or permit the amendment of, their Memorandum and Articles or the Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the amendment (but not otherwise).

Section 7.13. *Listing on Irish Stock Exchange.

So long as any Securities remain Outstanding, the Co-Issuers shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain the listing of the Securities on the Irish Stock Exchange.

Section 7.14. *Annual Rating Review.

So long as any Securities of any Class remain Outstanding, on or before May, 31 in each year commencing in 2006, the Co-Issuers shall obtain and pay for an annual review or ongoing surveillance of the rating of each Outstanding Class of Securities (including, in the case of the Insured Notes, the rating thereof without giving effect to the Policy) from each Rating Agency, as applicable. The Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager in writing (and the Trustee shall promptly provide a copy of the notice to the Holders of the Securities) and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) if at any time the rating of any Class of Securities has been, or is known will be, changed or withdrawn.

Section 7.15. Reporting.

At any time when the Co-Issuers are not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act and are not exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act, upon the request of a Holder or Beneficial Owner of any Note or a Holder of a Composite Security, the Co-Issuers shall promptly furnish "Rule 144A Information" to the Holder or Beneficial Owner, to a prospective purchaser of a Security designated by the Holder or Beneficial Owner or to the Trustee for delivery to the Holder or Beneficial Owner or a prospective purchaser designated by the Holder or Beneficial Owner, as the case may be, to permit compliance by the Holder or Beneficial Owner with Rule 144A under the Securities Act in connection with the resale of the Security by the Holder or Beneficial Owner. "Rule 144A Information" is the information specified pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

Section 7.16. Calculation Agent.

(a) The Issuer agrees that for so long as any floating rate Notes remain Outstanding an agent will always have been appointed (that does not control and is not controlled by or under common control with the Issuer or its Affiliates) to calculate LIBOR in respect of each Interest Period (the "Calculation Agent"). The Issuer has initially appointed the Trustee as Calculation Agent. The Issuer may remove the Calculation Agent at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Issuer or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine any of the information required to be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange, as described in subsection (b), in respect of any Interest Period, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager (on its behalf) shall promptly appoint a replacement Calculation Agent. For so long as any Securities are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, notice of the appointment of any replacement Calculation Agent shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange or the Irish Listing and Paying Agent as promptly as practicable after the appointment. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been duly appointed.

(b) As soon as possible after 11:00 A.M., London time, on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period, but in no event later than 11:00 A.M., London time, on the next Business Day, the Calculation Agent shall calculate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of floating rate Notes for the next Interest Period. The Calculation Agent shall communicate those rates and amounts to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Insurer, each Paying Agent, the Portfolio Manager, Euroclear, Clearstream, the Depository, and, so long as any of the floating rate Notes are listed thereon and the rules of the exchange so require, the Irish Stock Exchange or the Listing Agent. In the latter case, the information shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange or the Listing Agent as soon as possible after its determination. The Calculation Agent shall separately notify the Irish Stock Exchange or the Irish Listing and Paying Agent of the information. The Calculation Agent shall also specify to the Co-Issuers the quotations on which the foregoing rates are based, and in any event the Calculation Agent shall notify the Co-Issuers before 7:00 P.M., London time, on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period that either:

(i) it has determined or is in the process of determining the Note Interest Rate for each Class of floating rate Notes, or

(ii) it has not determined and is not in the process of determining any such Note Interest Rate together with its reasons therefor.

The Calculation Agent's determination of the foregoing rates for any Interest Period shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding on all parties and the Holders and Beneficial Owners of the Preference Shares.

Section 7.17. Certain Tax Matters.

(a) For United States federal income tax purposes, the Issuer shall treat the Preference Shares as equity and the Notes as debt. The Issuer shall treat the Composite Securities as consisting of Preference Shares corresponding to the Preference Share Component and representing an ownership interest in the Class 1 Collateral. Each Holder of a Note, by its acquisition of that Note, agrees to treat those Notes as debt for United States federal income tax purposes. Each Holder of a Composite Security, by its acquisition of the Composite Security, agrees to treat the Composite Securities as consisting of Preference Shares corresponding to corresponding to the Preference Share Component, and representing an ownership interest in the Class 1 Collateral and to treat the Preference Shares as equity in the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes.

(b) The Issuer will not elect to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(c) The Issuer shall file, or cause to be filed, any tax returns, including information tax returns, required by any governmental authority; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not file, or cause to be filed, any income or franchise tax return in any state of the United States unless it shall have obtained an opinion of tax counsel of nationally recognized standing experienced in such matters prior to such filing that, under the laws of such jurisdiction, the Issuer is required to file such income or franchise tax return.

(d) Upon the Trustee's receipt of a request of a Holder holding a Note that is issued with original issue discount for U.S. Federal income tax purposes for the information described in United States Treasury Regulations section 1.1275-3(b)(1) that is applicable to such Note that is issued with original issue discount for U.S. Federal income tax purposes, the Issuer will cause its independent accountants to provide promptly to the Trustee and such requesting Holder all of such information.

(e) Notwithstanding any contrary agreement or understanding, the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Insurer and the Holders and beneficial owners of the Notes and Composite Securities (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Indenture and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. The foregoing provision shall apply from the beginning of discussions between the parties. For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. tax treatment of the transaction under applicable U.S. federal, state or local law, and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. tax treatment of the transaction under applicable U.S. federal, state or local law.

(f) The Issuer and each Holder and each beneficial owner of a Senior Class A Note, Class A-2 Note, Class A-3 Notes, Class B Note or Class C Note (as the case may be), by acceptance of its Senior Class A Note, Class A-2 Note, Class A-3 Notes, Class B Note or Class C Note (as the case may be), or its interest in a Senior Class A Note, Class A-2 Note, Class A-3

Notes, Class B Note or Class C Note (as the case may be), as the case may be, shall be deemed to have agreed to treat, and shall treat, such Senior Class A Note, Class A-2 Note, Class A-3 Notes, Class B Note or Class C Note as debt of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes.

(g) Each Holder and beneficial owner of a Note or Composite Security, by acceptance of its Note or Composite Security or its interest in a Note or Composite Security, shall be deemed to understand and acknowledge that failure to provide the Issuer, the Trustee or any Paying Agent with the applicable U.S. federal income tax certifications (generally, a United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is not a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) may result in U.S. federal back-up withholding from payments in respect of such Note or Composite Security.

(h) The Issuer shall cause its independent accountants, within 90 days after the end of each calendar year, to provide to each Holder of Securities and, upon written request therefor certifying that it is a holder of a beneficial interest in a Note or Composite Security, to such holder (or its designee), all information that a U.S. shareholder making a "qualified electing fund" election (as defined in the Code) with respect to the Notes is required to obtain from the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes and a "PFIC Annual Information Statement" as described in United States Treasury Regulation section 1.1295-1(g)(1) (or any successor Treasury Regulation) (including all representations and statements required by such statement), and the Issuer will take or cause to be taken any other reasonable steps to facilitate such election by a Noteholder or Composite Securityholder or beneficial owner of Notes or Composite Securities.

(i) If the Issuer is aware that it has purchased an interest in a "reportable transaction" within the meaning of Section 6011 of the Code, and a Holder of a Note or Composite Security requests information about any such transactions in which the Issuer is an investor, the Issuer shall provide such information it has reasonably available as soon as practicable after such request.

(j) The Issuer shall provide, or cause to be provided, upon the request of a Noteholder or Composite Securityholder and, upon written request certifying that it is a holder of a beneficial interest in a Note or Composite Security, to such holder (or its designee), any information that a Holder or beneficial owner of Notes or Composite Securities reasonably requests to assist such Noteholder, Composite Securityholder or beneficial owner with regard to filing requirements the Noteholder, Composite Securityholder or beneficial owner of Notes or Composite Securities is required to satisfy as a result of the controlled foreign corporation rules under the Code.

(k) The Issuer shall not conduct any business other than the business that the Issuer is permitted to conduct under this Agreement.

Section 7.18. Securities Lending.

(a) So long as no Event of Default is continuing and if after the completion of the transaction the limit in clause (28) of the definition of "Concentration Limitations" would be satisfied, the Portfolio Manager may cause Collateral Obligations that are not Defaulted

Collateral Obligations to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A" from S&P (each, a "Securities Lending Counterparty") pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a "Securities Lending Agreement"); provided that Collateral Obligations the Market Value of which cannot be determined under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Collateral Obligations to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Portfolio Manager. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Initial Purchaser or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Stated Maturity of the Securities.

(b) Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Portfolio Manager (except as may be required below) and shall:

(i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Issuer debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent Collateral Obligations;

(ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Issuer amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent Collateral Obligation is entitled to for the period during which the Collateral Obligation is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities Lending Agreement to make "gross-up" payments to the Issuer that cover the full amount of the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;

(iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;

(iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;

(v) be governed by the laws of New York;

(vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture;

(vii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Collateral Obligation becomes a Credit Risk Obligation or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;

(viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty upon any redemption of the Securities in whole;

(ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement (the "Securities Lending");

Collateral") to secure its obligation to return the Collateral Obligations or in the alternative post the Securities Lending Collateral with a custodian for the benefit of the Issuer designated by the Securities Lending Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that custodian would qualify to be a successor trustee under Section 6.8;

(x) provide that the Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained at all times in an amount equal to at least 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value (determined daily and monitored by the Portfolio Manager) of the lent Collateral Obligations and if securities are delivered to the Trustee as security for the obligations of the Securities Lending Counterparty under the related Securities Lending Agreement, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will negotiate with the Securities Lending Counterparty a rate for the loan fee to be paid to the Issuer for lending the lent Collateral Obligations;

(xi) the lent Collateral Obligations shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Portfolio Manager on the basis of their Market Value;

(xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer's rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement rather than the loaned Collateral Obligation;

(xiii) provide for early termination within 10 days at the option of the Issuer and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in this Indenture; and

(xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in this Indenture.

(c) If either Moody's or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty, then the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, within 10 days of the downgrade, shall

(i) terminate its Securities Lending Agreements with the Securities Lending Counterparty unless a guarantor for the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements has been obtained; or

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations lent to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty so that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party, together with all other Securities Lending Agreements, are in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of Securities Lending Counterparties; or

(iii) take any other steps Moody's or S&P may require to cause the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party to be treated by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, as if the obligations were owed by a counterparty having a rating at least equivalent to the rating that was assigned by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty before its being downgraded.

(d) In connection with any such direction by the Portfolio Manager to enter into a Securities Lending Agreement, the Trustee may receive and rely on an Issuer Order to the effect that the Securities Lending Agreement, and its Securities Lending Counterparty, is each in compliance with the requirements of this Indenture (including the definition of "Securities Lending Counterparty"). The Issuer and the Trustee may enter into any Securities Lending Agreement (and any related account control agreement) at the instruction of the Portfolio Manager, and deliver and accept delivery and return of any Collateral Obligations pursuant to the Securities Lending Agreement, or pursuant to instructions from the Portfolio Manager in connection with the Securities Lending Agreement. The Trustee may take any actions and exercise any rights and remedies under any Securities Lending Agreement that the Portfolio Manager instructs. The Trustee need not enter into any Securities Lending Agreement (or any related account control agreement) that would in its judgment, subject it to any liability, whether financial or otherwise, or cause it to incur or subject it to risk of any cost or disbursement for which it is not, in its judgment, adequately indemnified, or that would impose on it any obligations or administrative burdens that are unacceptable to it. The Portfolio Manager shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity, or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in this Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Collateral Obligation is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement,

(a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Collateral Obligation because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action), and

(b) the loaned Collateral Obligations shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as a Collateral Obligation by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Collateral Obligation to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under this Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

Section 7.19. Purchase of Collateral Obligations; Ramp-Up Completion Date.

(a) The Issuer shall use its best efforts to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period or enter into commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period for purchase on or as soon as practicable thereafter (not to exceed 60 days thereafter), in each case, for inclusion in the Collateral so that each of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $663,000,000.

(b) No Collateral Obligations may be purchased prior to the Ramp-Up Completion Date unless immediately following the purchase of any Collateral Obligation (as certified by the Portfolio Manager in writing), the remaining funds in the Collection Account, after giving effect to such purchase, are sufficient as of the date of determination to purchase Collateral Obligations for inclusion in the Collateral so that each of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $663,000,000 (taking into account the Collateral Obligations already part of the Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date)).

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of this Indenture, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase a Collateral Obligation to be included in the Collateral, such commitment initially not to exceed 60 days, and at the time of the commitment the Collateral Obligation complied with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set forth in this Section 7.19, the Issuer may consummate the purchase of the Collateral Obligation notwithstanding that the Collateral Obligation fails to comply with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set out above on the date of settlement.

(d) The Issuer will use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, or to enter into binding agreements to purchase, Collateral Obligations by the Ramp-Up Completion Date, that, together with the Collateral Obligations purchased on or before the Closing Date and then held by the Issuer, will satisfy, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date), the Collateral Quality Tests, the Concentration Limitations, the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 of this Indenture and the Overcollateralization Tests.

(e) On or prior to July 1, 2005, so long as the Ramp-Up Completion Date has not already occurred, the Portfolio Manager shall certify by an order of the Portfolio Manager delivered to the Issuer, the Trustee and Moody's that, as of such date: (i)(A) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer equals at least $575,000,000, or (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations purchased (or committed to be purchased) by the Issuer with proceeds from the sale of the Securities (in each case in this clause (B), measured solely as of the date of purchase or commitment, as the case may be) equals at least $575,000,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date, (ii) the Diversity Score is equal to at least 45, (iii) the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied and (iv) each of the Coverage Tests is satisfied. If the Portfolio Manager is not able to certify each of the foregoing items, an Interim Ramp-Up Completion Date Failure shall occur.

(f) Within 5 Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager (on behalf of the Issuer) shall request a Rating Confirmation on behalf of the Issuer and shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies identifying the Collateral Obligations then included in the Collateral and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee, the Insurer and the Rating Agencies, together with the delivery of a report (and an electronic file of the Collateral Obligations to S&P) substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, an Accountants' Certificate:

(i) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread and recovery rate for each item of Original Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included in the Collateral, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein;

(ii) confirming that as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date:

(1) each of the Coverage Tests are satisfied;

(2) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date is at least equal to the Maximum Investment Amount; and

(3) the Collateral Obligations comply with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests and the Concentration Limitations and the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 of this Indenture; and

(iii) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements.

(g) If a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to, and to the extent provided in, Section 9.1(a).

Section 7.20. *Posting of Reports on Repository.

If the Initial Purchaser has entered into a posting dealer agreement with The Bond Market Association relating to the transactions contemplated by this Indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager acknowledges and agrees that each Monthly Report and Valuation Report shall be posted to the Repository for use in the manner provided in the Repository. In connection therewith, the Trustee at the expense of the Issuer agrees to make available in accordance with Section 14.3(a)(viii) each Monthly Report or Valuation Report to the operator of the Repository for posting on the Repository.

Section 7.21. *Secondary Risk Procedures.

The Portfolio Manager shall notify S&P and request that S&P modify the S&P CDO Monitor accordingly if on any date (as disclosed in the most recent Monthly Report):

(a) the Aggregate Principal Amount of all Collateral Obligations participated from or entered into with the same Secondary Risk Counterparty exceeds the percentage of the Maximum Investment Amount in the Secondary Risk Table opposite the long-term S&P credit rating of the Secondary Risk Counterparty under the caption "Individual Counterparty Limit," or

(b) the Aggregate Principal Amount of all Collateral Obligations participated from or entered into with Secondary Risk counterparties with the same long-term credit rating exceeds the percentage of the Maximum Investment Amount in the Secondary Risk Table opposite that rating under the caption "Aggregate Counterparty Limit" (excluding up to 5% by Aggregate Principal Amount of Synthetic Securities with respect to Collateral Obligations the Aggregate Counterparty Limit of which is 20% to the extent that (x) such exposure is fully collateralized with respect to principal and (y) the related Synthetic Security Counterparties are rated at least "A-1+" by S&P).

ARTICLE 8

(18) to facilitate the ability of the Issuer to lend collateral pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement;

(19) to modify any provision to facilitate an A/B Exchange, including to effect any serial designation relating to the exchange; or

(20) with the consent of the Portfolio Manager, to enter into any additional agreements not expressly prohibited by this Indenture as well as any amendment, modification, or waiver if the Issuer determines that the amendment, modification, or waiver would not, upon or after becoming effective, materially and adversely affect the rights or interest of the Holders of any Class of Securities or the Holders of Preference Shares as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Portfolio Manager to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities or the Holders of Preference Shares.

(b) Without the consent of the Portfolio Manager, no supplemental indenture may be entered into that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to the Portfolio Manager under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager.

(c) The Trustee is authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be in the agreements, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, except to the extent required by law. Unless notified by a Majority of any Class of the Securities or a Majority of the Holders of Preference Shares that the Class of Securities or Holders of Preference Shares would be materially and adversely affected, the Trustee may rely on a certificate of the Portfolio Manager and an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) as to whether the interests of any Holder of Securities or Holder of Preference Shares would be materially and adversely affected by any such supplemental indenture. The Trustee shall give notice of the proposed change to the Holders of Securities and to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) at least 15 Business Days before execution of any supplemental indenture by the Trustee (or 60 calendar days before execution, in the case of a supplemental indenture for the purpose described in paragraph (7) of Section 8.1(a), which shall be identified as such in a certificate of the Portfolio Manager delivered to the Trustee before the date on which such notice is required to be given).

(d) If any Outstanding Securities are rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall enter into a supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.1 only if either (1) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the supplemental indenture or (2) the Portfolio Manager and the Holders of 100% in Aggregate Outstanding

Amount of each Class of Securities the ratings on which would be reduced or withdrawn consent to the supplemental indenture. Prior to the entry into any supplemental Indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes or Composite Securities is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note and each Holder of each Outstanding Composite Security informing them of such fact.

(e) At the cost of the Co-Issuers, for so long as any Securities are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall provide to the Rating Agency, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Hedge Counterparty a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee.

Section 8.2. *Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders.

(a) If the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency, the Trustee, the Insurer and the Co-Issuers may execute one or more indentures supplemental to this Indenture to add any provisions to, or change in any manner, or eliminate any of the provisions of, this Indenture or modify in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Securities under this Indenture with the consent of:

- (1) the Portfolio Manager if the supplemental indenture would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager;
- (2) a Majority of each Class of Notes adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of each such Class of Notes;
- (3) a Majority of the Composite Securities adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of the Composite Securities; and
- (4) a Majority of the Preference Shares adversely affected thereby.

Any proposed supplemental indenture that would also necessitate a change to the Memorandum and Articles of Association may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Memorandum and Articles of Association) has been passed to permit the Issuer's constitutional documents to be altered to conform them to the proposed change to this Indenture as certified to the Trustee by the Issuer.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected thereby, the Holder of each Outstanding Composite Security adversely affected thereby and the Holder of each Preference Share adversely affected thereby, no supplemental indenture shall:

- (i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date of any installment of interest on any Note or the Class 1 Component or of any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares Interests, reduce its principal amount or the rate of interest on it, or the Default Interest Rate or the Redemption Price with respect to any Note, the Class 1 Component or Preference Share, or change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Share may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, change the provisions of this

Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of any Collateral to the payment of principal of or interest on Notes and the application of proceeds of any Class 1 Collateral or Preference Share Component corresponding to their related Components, or to payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares, or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which, Notes or their principal or interest are paid or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after their Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the applicable Redemption Date);

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class or Composite Securities or Holders of Preference Shares whose consent is required for the authorization of any such supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of this Indenture or certain defaults under this Indenture or their consequences provided for in this Indenture;

(iii) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture with respect to any part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral or terminate the lien on any property at any time subject hereto or deprive the Holder of any Security of the security afforded by the lien of this Indenture;

(iv) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class whose consent is required to request the Trustee to preserve the Collateral or the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Class 1 Composite Securities whose consent is required to request the Trustee to preserve the Class 1 Collateral or rescind the Trustee's election to preserve the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, as the case may be, pursuant to Section 5.5 or to sell or liquidate the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, as the case may be, pursuant to Section 5.4 or 5.5;

(v) modify any of the provisions of this Section, or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note, Preference Share and Composite Security affected thereby;

(vi) modify the definition of "Outstanding," "Controlling Class," or "Majority," or the Priority of Payments in Section 11.1(a) or Section 13.1; or

(vii) modify any of the provisions of this Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of Redemption Price or of interest or principal on any Note or the Class 1 Component or any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the payment of dividends or other payments on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date) or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes or Preference Shares or the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of the Notes, the Class 1 Component or the Preference Shares contained in this Indenture.

Prior to the entry into any supplemental indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes or Composite Securities is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note, each Holder of each Outstanding Composite Security and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) informing them of such fact.

(b) At the cost of the Co-Issuers, for so long as any Securities are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall provide to the Rating Agency a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee.

(c) Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2, the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Holders of the Securities, the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Securities are Outstanding) a copy of such supplemental indenture and shall request any required consent from the applicable Holders of Securities or Preference Shares to be given within the Initial Consent Period. Any consent given to a proposed supplemental indenture by the Holder of any Securities or Preference Shares, as applicable, shall be irrevocable and binding on all future Holders or beneficial owners of that Security or Preference Share, irrespective of the execution date of the supplemental indenture. If the Holders of less than the required percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the relevant Securities or Preference Shares consent to a proposed supplemental indenture within the Initial Consent Period, on the first Business Day after the Initial Consent Period, the Trustee shall notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager which Holders of Securities or Preference Shares have consented to the proposed supplemental indenture and, which Holders (and, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Trustee, which beneficial owners) have not consented to the proposed supplemental indenture. If it intends to exercise its Amendment Buy-Out Option pursuant to Section 9.6, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall so notify the Trustee (which notice shall designate a date for the Amendment Buy-Out to occur no earlier than 10 Business Days after the date of such notice) no later than five (5) Business Days after so being notified by the Trustee and the Trustee shall mail such notice to all Holders of Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares). Any Non-Consenting Holder may give consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture until the 5th Business Day prior to the date of the Amendment Buy-Out designated by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and in such case shall cease to be a Non-Consenting Holder for purposes of the Amendment Buy-Out. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser exercises its Amendment Buy-Out Option and purchases the applicable Securities pursuant to Section 9.6 below, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, as Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Securities or Preference Shares, may consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture within five (5) Business Days of the Amendment Buy-Out. In the event that the Insurer does not consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture but all of the Holders of the Notes whose consent is required have consented to such proposed supplemental indenture, the Holders of the Insured Notes may, pursuant to Section 16.8, terminate the Policy, upon which, the consent of the Insurer pursuant to this clause (c) shall no longer be required; provided, however, that no such amendment shall decrease the rights of the Insurer (including, but not limited to the right of the Insurer to be reimbursed for Accrued Insurance Liabilities) or increase the duties or obligations of the Insurer, in any case, that survive the termination of the Policy.

(d) It shall not be necessary for any Act of Holders of Securities under this Section 8.2 to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if the Act or consent approves its substance.

(e) The Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Holders of the Securities, the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency a copy of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2 promptly after its execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee. Any failure of the Trustee to mail a copy of any supplemental indenture as provided in this Indenture, or any defect in the mailing, shall not in any way affect the validity of the supplemental indenture.

Section 8.3. *Execution of Supplemental Indentures.

In executing or accepting the additional trusts created by any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article 8 or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee may receive, and (subject to Sections 6.1 and 6.3) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of the supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture and that all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture have been satisfied. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise. The Portfolio Manager shall not be bound by any amendment or supplement to this Indenture that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager unless the Portfolio Manager consents to it in writing, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Portfolio Manager shall follow any amendment or supplement to this Indenture by which it is bound of which it has received written notice from the time it receives a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee.

Section 8.4. *Effect of Supplemental Indentures; Certain Required Consents.

Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article 8, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and the supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and the Insurer and every Holder of Securities and Preference Shares theretofore and thereafter authenticated and delivered under this Indenture shall be bound thereby.

Without the approval of each Hedge Counterparty to a then existing Hedge Agreement (so long as the Hedge Counterparty is not in default under any Hedge Agreement to which it is party), no supplemental indenture will be effective, and the Co-Issuers will not consent to any supplemental indenture, that would have a material adverse effect on the Hedge Counterparty. For purposes of this paragraph, any supplemental indenture will be deemed not to have a material adverse effect on the Hedge Counterparty if it does not object within 10 days of delivery of such supplemental indenture by the Trustee.

Section 8.5. *Reference in Securities to Supplemental Indentures.

Securities authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 may, and if required by the Trustee shall, bear a notice in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in the supplemental indenture. If the Applicable Issuers shall so determine, new Notes and new Composite Securities, so modified as to conform in the opinion of the Trustee and the Co-Issuers to any such supplemental indenture, may be prepared and executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Securities.

Section 8.6. Composite Securities.

For purposes of this Article 8, the Composite Securities shall only be adversely affected or materially and adversely affected, as the context requires, by any proposed supplemental indenture if the Composite Securities would suffer an adverse effect or material adverse effect, as the context requires, that does not arise directly from an adverse effect or material adverse effect suffered by the Preference Shares.

REDEMPTION OF NOTES

Section 9.1. Mandatory Redemption.

(a) If either (a) a Coverage Test is not met on any Determination Date or (b) a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, principal payments on the Notes shall be made on the related Payment Date (without payment of any Redemption Price) in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Upon receipt of notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes, at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities, then at the direction and in accordance with the instructions of the Portfolio Manager the Trustee shall sell Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for the purpose in the Collection Account will be used to redeem the Notes and the Preference Shares (but only to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities) and to pay all administrative and other fees, expenses, and obligations payable under the Priority of Payments. Any sale under this Section shall be conducted in such a manner that:

(i) after giving effect to the sale each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied or, if any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Overcollateralization Test is not reduced,

(ii) if the sale occurs on or after the second Payment Date, after giving effect to the sale each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied or, if any Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Interest Coverage Test is not reduced, and

(iii) after giving effect to the sale each Collateral Quality Test is satisfied or, if any Collateral Quality Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Collateral Quality Test is not reduced.

(b) The Preference Shares will be redeemed in whole in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Preference Share Documents on any Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date) on which a mandatory redemption of the Notes pursuant to Section 9.1(a) results in the payment in full of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes.

Section 9.2. Optional Redemption.

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Notes shall be redeemed by the Applicable Issuers, in whole but not in part, on any Payment Date from Principal Proceeds and all other funds available for that purpose in the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account at the direction of the Holders of at least 63% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Preference Shares, which direction must be given to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer, the Insurer and the Portfolio Manager not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made, at the applicable Redemption Price (exclusive of installments of interest and principal maturing on or before that date, payment of which shall have been made or duly provided for, to the Holders of the Notes on relevant Record Dates or as otherwise provided in this Indenture). All Notes must be simultaneously redeemed, and any termination payments pursuant to Hedge Agreements must be paid.

Upon receipt of a notice of redemption pursuant to this Section 9.2(a), the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Management Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer, direct the sale of the Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for such purpose in the Collection Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account will be at least sufficient to redeem all of the Notes and to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations. If, in the Portfolio Manager's reasonable discretion, the sale would not be sufficient to redeem the Notes, and to pay the fees, expenses, and obligations, the Notes shall not be redeemed.

Upon any redemption pursuant to this Section 9.2(a), the Issuer shall, at least 30 days before the Redemption Date (unless the Trustee shall agree to a shorter notice period), notify the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Insurer and each Rating Agency of the Redemption Date, the applicable Record Date, the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed on the Redemption Date, and the applicable Redemption Prices.

(b) On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, all administrative and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture and the Insurance Documents to the Insurer, and all amounts owing under this Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged,

(i) at the direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Preference Shares, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings or

(ii) at the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares, voting as a single Class or group, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a directed portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such direction.

Upon the occurrence of a redemption of the Preference Shares pursuant to this Section 9.2, in whole or in part, the Class 1 Components shall be redeemed by the Issuer, in whole but not in part, on the related Composite Securities Payment Date from the Class 1 Collateral available for that purpose in the Class 1 Component Account at the applicable Redemption Price. All Class 1 Components must be simultaneously redeemed. Upon any redemption of the Class 1 Components, the Holders of Class 1 Composite Securities shall receive the Redemption Price as a distribution in kind of a pro rata share (based on the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance) of each item of the Class 1 Collateral.

Upon a distribution pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(i), the Portfolio Manager will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Management Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer (and subject to Section 9.2(b)(ii)), direct the sale of all remaining Collateral Obligations. Upon a distribution pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii), the Portfolio Manager will effect the sale of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares.

Section 9.3. Redemption Procedures.

(a) Upon any redemption pursuant to Section 9.2, a notice of redemption shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days and not earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date, to the Insurer, each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of DTC, Euroclear, and Clearstream, as applicable, to the Holders of the Composite Securities and to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), and (in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a)) to each Rating Agency. In addition, for so long as any Securities are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of redemption of Securities pursuant to Section 9.2 shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

(b) All notices of redemption delivered pursuant to Section 9.3(a) shall state:

- (i) the applicable Redemption Date;
- (ii) the Redemption Price of the Notes or the Class 1 Component to be redeemed (in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a));
- (iii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a), that all of the Notes, are to be redeemed in full and that interest on the Notes to be redeemed shall cease to accrue on the Payment Date specified in the notice; and
- (iv) the places where Securities to be redeemed in whole are to be surrendered for payment of the Redemption Price, which shall be the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained as provided in Section 7.2 and, so long as any Securities to be redeemed are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Listing and Paying Agent.

Any such notice of redemption may be withdrawn by the Issuer up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Trustee, the Insurer and the Portfolio Manager only if:

(A) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a), the Portfolio Manager does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications (described in Section 9.3(c) and 12.1(f)), as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee,

(B) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i), the Issuer receives the written direction of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption delivered by a percentage of the Preference Shares requesting redemption under Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i), as applicable, and

(C) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii), the Issuer receives the unanimous written direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer hereby agrees for the benefit of the directing person to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written direction referred to in the preceding clause (B) or this clause (C)).

Notice of any withdrawal shall be sent, not later than the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date (assuming that the Trustee has received timely written notice from the Issuer as provided above), by the Trustee, to each Holder of Securities scheduled to be redeemed at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery (or, to the extent the address contained in the Indenture Register is not sufficient for that purpose, by first class mail) and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares). If the Issuer so withdraws any notice of redemption or is otherwise unable to complete any redemption of the Notes, the Sale Proceeds received from the sale of any Collateral Obligations sold pursuant to Sections 9.2 and 12.1(f) may, during the Reinvestment Period (and, in respect of Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, after the Reinvestment Period) at the Portfolio Manager's discretion, be reinvested in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria.

Notice of redemption shall be given by the Co-Issuers or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Security selected for redemption or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Securities or Preference Shares.

(c) The Notes may not be redeemed pursuant to Section 9.2(a) unless either of the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) At least ten Business Days before the Redemption Date, the Portfolio Manager shall have furnished to the Trustee evidence (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) that the Issuer has entered into a binding agreements (with a financial or other institution or entity whose short-term unsecured debt obligations (other than obligations whose rating is based on the credit of a person other than the institution) have a credit rating of at least "A-1" from S&P and of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's (or to any other institution or entity if the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's is satisfied with respect to the other entity)) to sell to the financial or other institutions, not later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date in immediately available funds, all or part of the Collateral (directly or by participation or other arrangement) at a Purchase Price at least equal to an amount sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture and the Insurance Agreement to the Insurer, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties, and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices; or

(ii) Before entering into any binding agreement to sell all or a portion of the Collateral and selling or terminating any Hedge Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall have certified that, in its commercially reasonable judgment, the settlement dates of the sales will be scheduled to occur on or before the Business Day before the Redemption Date and that the expected proceeds from the sales are to be delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date, in immediately available funds, in an amount (calculated as applicable in the manner provided below) sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture and the Insurance Documents to the Insurer, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties, and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount shall be calculated with respect to the classes of Collateral listed in the table below by multiplying the expected proceeds of sale of the Collateral by the indicated percentage in the table below.

Same Day    1 to 2    3 to 5    6 to 15

Any certification delivered pursuant to this Section 9.3(c) shall include (A) the prices of, and expected proceeds from, the sale of any Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, or Hedge Agreements and (B) all calculations required by this Section 9.3(c).

Section 9.4.    Notes Payable on Redemption Date.

(a) Notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.3 having been given as aforesaid, the Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at the Redemption Price therein specified and from and after the Redemption Date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest) the Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Redemption Date. Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, the Holder shall present and surrender the Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption on or before the Redemption Date unless the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and (in the case of the Class A-1g Notes) the Insurer, receive the security or indemnity required by them to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the Note, and in the absence of notice to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and (in the case of the Class A-1g Notes) the Insurer, that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender. If a Component is to be redeemed, the related Composite Security does not need to be surrendered at the office of any paying agent under this Indenture to receive the applicable Redemption Price. Payments of interest on Notes so to be redeemed whose Stated Maturity is on or before the Redemption Date shall be payable to the Holders of the Notes, or one or more predecessor Notes, registered as such at the close of business on the relevant Record Date if the Record Date is a Business Day (or, if the Record Date is not a Business Day, the close of business on the Business Day before the Record Date) according to Section 2.8(e).

(b) If any Note called for redemption is not paid on its surrender for redemption, its principal shall bear interest from the Redemption Date at the Applicable Note Interest Rate for each successive Interest Period the Note remains Outstanding if the reason for the non-payment is not the fault of the Holder of the Note.

Section 9.5.    Special Redemption.

Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in whole or in part, at par, in accordance with the Priority of Payments if, at any time during the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager elects (subject to the Management Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the investment or reinvestment of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be invested in additional Collateral Obligations (a "Special Redemption").

On the first Payment Date following the Due Period for which the notice is effective (a "Special Redemption Date"), the funds in the Collection Account or the Payment Account representing Principal Proceeds that, by operation of the preceding paragraph, are not reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations (the "Special Redemption Amount") will be available to be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments under Section 11.1(a)(ii). Notice of payments pursuant to this Section 9.5 shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than three Business Days before the applicable Special Redemption Date, to the Insurer and each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of DTC. In addition, for so long as any Securities are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of redemption of Securities pursuant to Section 9.2 shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

Section 9.6. Amendment Buy-Out.

(a) In the case of any supplemental indenture pursuant to Section 8.2 that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities or Preference Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Securities or Preference Shares held by such Holders of the Class of Securities or Preference Shares whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Securities or Preference Shares of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities or Preference Shares the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture, the Trustee may demand payment or delivery of, and shall receive and collect, directly and without intervention or assistance of any fiscal agent or other intermediary, all money and other property payable to or receivable by the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture, including all payments due on the Pledged Obligations, in accordance with the terms of the Pledged Obligations. The Trustee shall segregate and hold all money and property received by it in trust for the Secured Parties and shall apply it as provided in this Indenture. Any Account may contain any number of sub-accounts for the convenience of the Trustee or as required by the Portfolio Manager for convenience in administering the Accounts, the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral.

Section 10.2. Collection Account.

(a) Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Collection Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal, and into which the Trustee shall from time to time deposit, in addition to the deposits required pursuant to Section 10.7(e), immediately upon the Trustee's receipt thereof:

(i) any funds transferred from (1) the Closing Date Expense Account pursuant to Section 10.3(g) or (2) the Interest Reserve Account pursuant to Section 10.3(i),

(ii) all Principal Proceeds (unless (1) simultaneously reinvested in Collateral Obligations in accordance with Article 12, (2) deposited into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or (3) posted by the Issuer as cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security or in Eligible Investments) received by the Trustee,

(iii) all Interest Proceeds received by the Trustee (unless simultaneously reinvested in accrued interest in respect of Collateral Obligations in accordance with Article 12 or in Eligible Investments), and

(iv) all other funds received by the Trustee and not excluded above.

In addition to the items described above, the Issuer may, but under no circumstances shall be required to, deposit from time to time any monies, securities and other instruments in the Collection Account it deems, in its sole discretion, to be advisable (and may designate any amounts deposited pursuant to this sentence as Principal Proceeds or Interest Proceeds in its discretion). Any Principal Proceeds received during the Reinvestment Period, and Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments received after the Reinvestment Period, which have not been reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations on the Business Day of receipt shall be deposited in the Collection Account and shall at the direction of the Portfolio Manager be applied to the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria and the other requirements set forth herein or the purchase of Eligible Investments pending such investment or used to enter into additional Hedge Agreements or used in connection with a Special Redemption. Principal Proceeds (other than Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments) received after the Reinvestment Period shall be deposited into the Collection Account and applied to the purchase of Eligible Investments. All monies deposited from time to time in the Collection Account pursuant to this Indenture shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and shall be applied to the purposes provided in this Indenture. Amounts in the Collection Account shall be reinvested pursuant to Section 10.4(a).

(b) Within one Business Day after receipt of any distribution or other proceeds of the Collateral that are not Cash, the Trustee shall so notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager. Within five Business Days of receipt of the notice from the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall sell the distribution or other proceeds for Cash in an arm's length transaction to a person that is not the Portfolio Manager or an Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager and deposit its proceeds in the Collection Account. The Issuer need not sell the distributions or other proceeds if it delivers an Issuer Order or an Officer's certificate to the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager certifying that the distributions or other proceeds are Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, or Workout Assets.

(c) During the Reinvestment Period (or, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, after the Reinvestment Period), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of the Issuer Order the Trustee shall withdraw funds on deposit in the Collection Account representing Principal Proceeds (and, to the extent expressly provided in this Indenture, Interest Proceeds) and reinvest (or invest, in the case of funds referred to in Section 7.19) the funds in Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security), in each case in accordance with the requirements of Article 12 and the Issuer Order.

(d) At any time during or after the Reinvestment Period, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of the Issuer Order the Trustee shall, pay from amounts on deposit in the Collection Account on any Business Day during any Interest Period from Interest Proceeds only, any Administrative Expenses that require payment before the next Payment Date to the extent that the amount of the payments does not exceed the aggregate amount that may be paid on the next Payment Date under, and at the level of priority specified by, Section 11.1(a)(i)(1).

(e) The Trustee shall transfer to the Payment Account from the Collection Account for application pursuant to Section 11.1(a) or 11.2, as applicable, on or not later than the Business Day preceding each Payment Date, the amount set forth to be so transferred in the Valuation Report for the Payment Date.

All Synthetic Security Collateral posted by any Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Synthetic Security shall be immediately deposited into the Synthetic Security Collateral Account and posted to the sub-account related to the Synthetic Security. (a) By Issuer Order (which may be in the form of standing instructions), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall at all times before an Event of Default occurs, direct the Trustee to, and, upon receipt of the Issuer Order, the Trustee shall, invest all funds on deposit in the Collection Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Closing Date Expense Account and the Interest Reserve Account as so directed in Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date. All investments on any Business Day shall be subject to the timely receipt of the funds and the availability of any investments. Before an Event of Default occurs, if the Issuer has not given investment directions, the Trustee shall seek instructions from the Portfolio Manager within three Business Days after transfer of any funds to the Collection Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Closing Date Expense Account or the Interest Reserve Account. If the Trustee does not receive written instructions from the Portfolio Manager within five Business Days after transfer of the funds to the account, it shall invest and reinvest the funds held in the account, as fully as practicable, but only in one or more Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (c) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" maturing no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date. After an Event of Default occurs, if the Issuer does not give investment directions to the Trustee for three consecutive days, the Trustee shall invest and reinvest the monies as fully as practicable in Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (c) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" maturing not later than the earlier of (i) 30 days after the date of the investment or (ii) the Business Day before the next Payment Date. All interest and other income from the investments shall be deposited in the Collection Account, any gain realized from the investments shall be credited to the Collection Account, and any loss resulting from the investments shall be charged to the Collection Account. Subject to Section 6.6, the Trustee shall not in any way be held liable for the selection of investments or because of any insufficiency of the Collection Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Closing Date Expense Account or the Interest Reserve Account or any other account that results from any loss relating to any such investment.

(b) By Issuer Order (which may be in the form of standing instructions), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall at all times direct the Trustee to, and, upon receipt of the Issuer Order, the Trustee shall, invest all funds on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, and the Synthetic Security Collateral Account in Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities not later than one Business Day after the date of their purchase. All investments on any Business Day shall be subject to the timely receipt of the funds and the availability of any investments. If before an Event of Default, the Issuer does not give investment directions, the Trustee shall seek instructions from the Portfolio Manager within three Business Days after transfer of any funds to the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, or the Synthetic Security Collateral Account. If the Trustee does not thereupon receive written instructions from the Portfolio Manager within five Business Days after transfer of the funds to the account, it shall invest and reinvest the funds held in the account, as fully as practicable, but only in one or more Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (e) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" that are overnight funds. If after an Event of Default, the Issuer does not give investment directions to the Trustee for three consecutive days, the Trustee shall invest and reinvest the monies as fully as practicable in Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (e) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" that are overnight funds. All interest and other income from the investments shall be deposited in the Collection Account, any gain realized from the investments shall be credited to the Collection Account, and any loss resulting from the investments shall be charged to the Collection Account.

(c) By Issuer Order (which may be in the form of standing instructions), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall at all times direct the Trustee to, and, upon receipt of the Issuer Order, the Trustee shall, invest all funds on deposit in the Securities Lending Account in Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the stated termination date of the related Securities Lending Agreement. All investments on any Business Day shall be subject to the timely receipt of the funds and the availability of any investments. The interest on the Eligible Investments shall be allocated between the Issuer and the Securities Lending Counterparty pursuant to the related Securities Lending Agreement. If before an Event of Default, the Issuer does not give investment directions, the Trustee shall seek instructions from the Portfolio Manager within three Business Days after transfer of any funds to the Securities Lending Account. If the Trustee does not thereupon receive written instructions from the Portfolio Manager within five Business Days after transfer of the funds to the account, it shall invest and reinvest the funds held in the account, as fully as practicable, but only in one or more Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (e) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" that mature no later than the Business Day before the stated termination date of the related Securities Lending Agreement. If after an Event of Default, the Issuer does not give investment directions to the Trustee for three consecutive days, the Trustee shall invest and reinvest the monies as fully as practicable in Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (e) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" maturing no later than the Business Day before the stated termination date of the related Securities Lending Agreement. All interest and other income from the investments shall be deposited in the Collection Account, any gain realized from the investments shall be credited to the Collection Account, and any loss resulting from the investments shall be charged to the Collection Account.

(d) The Trustee agrees to give the Issuer notice as soon as reasonably practicable if a Trust Officer obtains actual knowledge that any Account or any funds on deposit in any Account, or otherwise to the credit of an Account, shall become subject to any writ, order, judgment, warrant of attachment, execution, or similar process. All Accounts shall remain at all times with the Custodian or a financial institution having a long-term debt rating of at least "Baa1" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) by Moody's and at least "BBB+" by S&P and having combined capital and surplus of at least U.S.$200,000,000 that has entered into a securities account control agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit G.

(e) The Trustee shall supply, in a timely fashion, to the Co-Issuers and the Portfolio Manager any information regularly maintained by the Trustee that the Co-Issuers or the Portfolio Manager may from time to time request with respect to the Pledged Obligations, the Accounts, the Class 1 Collateral and the Collateral and provide any other requested information reasonably available to the Trustee because of its acting as Trustee under this Indenture and required to be provided by Section 10.6, to permit the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations under the Management Agreement or is required pursuant to the Insurance Agreement. The Trustee shall promptly forward to the Portfolio Manager copies of notices and other writings received by it from the issuer of any Collateral Obligation or from any Clearing Agency with respect to any Collateral Obligation which notices or writings advise the holders of the security of any rights that the holders might have with respect to the Collateral Obligation (including requests to vote with respect to amendments or waivers and notices of prepayments and redemptions) as well as all periodic financial reports received from the issuer and Clearing Agencies with respect to the issuer.

(f) To the extent monies deposited in any Account exceed amounts insured by the Bank Insurance Fund or Savings Association Insurance Fund administered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or any agencies succeeding to its insurance functions, and are not fully collateralized by direct obligations of the United States of America, the excess shall be invested in Eligible Investments as described above.

Section 10.5. Synthetic Security Counterparty Account.

(a) To the extent that any Synthetic Security requires the Issuer to secure its obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee and the Trustee shall establish a segregated non-interest bearing trust account for the Synthetic Security which shall be held in trust for the benefit of the related Synthetic Security Counterparty and over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security and this Indenture (a "Synthetic Security Counterparty Account"). In the alternative, a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account may be established with a trustee designated by the Synthetic Security Counterparty if that trustee would qualify to be a successor trustee under Section 6.8 and the account satisfies the other requirements of this Section.

As directed in writing by the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee shall deposit (or deliver for deposit) into each Synthetic Security Counterparty Account all amounts or securities that are required to secure the obligations of the Issuer in accordance with the related Synthetic Security, including the entire notional amount of any Synthetic Security in the form of a credit default swap or other similar transaction. The Portfolio Manager shall direct any such deposit only during the Reinvestment Period and only to the extent that monies are available for the purchase of Collateral Obligations pursuant to this Indenture. Any income received on amounts in the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall, after application in accordance with the relevant Synthetic Security, be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Interest Proceeds.

(b) As directed by the Portfolio Manager in writing and in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security and this Indenture, amounts on deposit in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be invested in Synthetic Security Collateral.

(c) In connection with the occurrence of a credit event or an event of default or a termination event (each as defined in the applicable Synthetic Security) under the related Synthetic Security, amounts in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be withdrawn by the Trustee (or the Trustee shall request their withdrawal) and applied toward the payment of any amounts payable by the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the Synthetic Security, as directed by the Portfolio Manager in writing. Any excess amounts held in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account, or held directly by a Synthetic Security Counterparty, after payment of all amounts owing from the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the related Synthetic Security shall be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Principal Proceeds.

(d) Amounts on deposit in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the Synthetic Security that relates to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer (with the notional amount as the Principal Balance unless a default exists under the applicable Synthetic Security).

Manager, direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset if the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that the sale meets the requirements of any one of paragraphs (a) through (i) of this Section 12.1. If the Issuer sells any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset during the Reinvestment Period, the proceeds shall be reinvested in accordance with Section 12.2.

(a) Credit Risk Securities. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Risk Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Risk Obligation in accordance with such direction. Following any sale of a Credit Risk Obligation pursuant to this Section 12.1(a), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager during the Reinvestment Period, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (to the extent the purchase is in the best interest of the Issuer) with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Sale Proceeds received by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral Obligation sold. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount.

(b) Credit Improved Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Improved Obligation if either:

(i) during the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager believes before the sale that it will be able to cause the Issuer to reinvest its Sale Proceeds, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria, in one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Credit Improved Obligation by the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest); or

(ii) after the Reinvestment Period, the Sale Proceeds received in respect of the Credit Improved Obligation are at least equal to its Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest; and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Improved Obligation in accordance with such direction.

(c) Non-Performing Collateral Obligations and Current-Pay Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Current-Pay Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Current-Pay Obligation in accordance with such direction. Non-Performing Collateral Obligations may be sold regardless of price.

(d) Non-qualifying Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell that obligation in accordance with such direction.

(e) Withholding Tax Sales. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation subject to withholding tax at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction.

(f) Optional Redemption. After the Issuer has notified the Trustee of an Optional Redemption of the Notes in accordance with Article 9, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all or a portion of the Collateral Obligations as contemplated therein if (i) the requirements of Article 9 are satisfied and (ii) the Independent certified public accountants appointed pursuant to Section 10.7 have confirmed the calculations contained in any required certificate furnished by the Portfolio Manager pursuant to Section 9.3(c). After a Majority of the Preference Shares have directed an Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares in accordance with Section 9.2(b), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all of the remaining Collateral Obligations (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(i)) or a portion of the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous directions of Holders of the Preference Shares (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii)) and the Trustee shall sell the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

(g) Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Portfolio Manager has received notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, direct the Trustee to sell Collateral Obligations as contemplated in Section 9.1 and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

(h) Discretionary Sales. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation:

(i) at any time on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without regard to any restriction specified in clause (ii) below); and

(ii) at any time after the Ramp-Up Completion Date if:

Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest);

This restriction may be waived by written consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class. For the purposes of this subsection (h), any withdrawal or reduction in rating shall not restrict the sale of any Collateral Obligations pursuant to this subsection (h) if after the withdrawal or reduction Moody's has upgraded the reduced or withdrawn rating to at least the Initial Rating in the case of the Senior Class A Notes (without giving effect to the Policy), the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes, or to only one subcategory below their Initial Rating in the case of the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes.

(A) to the extent of any purchases of Collateral Obligations of the same obligor (that are pari passu with the sold Collateral Obligation) occurring within 30 Business Days of the sale (determined based on the date of any relevant trade confirmation or commitment letter) (but only for so long as (x) the Collateral Obligations purchased have not been downgraded by any of the Rating Agencies during the 30 Business Day period, (y) the Collateral Obligations have not been purchased from the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates acting, in each case, as principal or from any funds or accounts advised or managed by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, and (z) the purchase price of each Notes purchased Collateral Obligation must not exceed the sale price of the sold Collateral Obligation), and

(B) to the extent of any purchases of Collateral Obligations permitted pursuant to Section 12.2(c); and

(ii) any Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index investment providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time that is invested into a substantially similar Synthetic Security but with a later maturity shall be treated as having been sold.

(i) Workout Assets. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Workout Asset at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and regardless of price and the Trustee shall sell the Workout Assets in accordance with such direction.

The Holders of each

Junior Class of Notes agree, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class and (in the case of the Class A-1g Notes) the Insurer in respect of the Junior Class, not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for failure to pay to them amounts due to the Junior Class, of the Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, or under this Indenture until the payment in full of the Priority Classes or all the Classes, as the case may be, and all amounts owed by the Issuer to the Insurer hereunder or under the Insurance Agreement, and not before one year and a day, or if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, has elapsed since the payment.

(c) If, notwithstanding the provisions of this Indenture, any Holder of Notes of any Junior Class has received any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes contrary to the provisions of this Indenture, then, until each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class of Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, and the Insurer has been paid in full in Cash or, to the extent a Majority of the Priority Class or the Class, as the case may be, consents, other than in Cash in accordance with this Indenture, the payment or distribution shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of, and shall forthwith be paid over and delivered to, the Trustee, which shall pay and deliver the same to the Holders of the applicable Priority Classes of Notes or the Holders of all Classes of Notes, as the case may be, and the Insurer in accordance with this Indenture. If any such payment or distribution is made other than in Cash, it shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and subject in all respects to this Indenture, including this Section 13.1.

(d) Each Holder of Notes of any Junior Class agrees with all Holders of the applicable Priority Classes and the Insurer that the Holder of Junior Class Notes shall not demand, accept, or receive any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes in violation of this Indenture including this Section 13.1. After a Priority Class and the Insurer has been paid in full, the Holders of the related Junior Class or Classes shall be fully subrogated to the rights of the Holders of the Priority Class and the Insurer. Nothing in this Section 13.1 shall affect the obligation of the Issuer to pay Holders of any Junior Class of Notes.

(e) Distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares are subordinate to distributions on the Notes and Preference Shares as described in the Priority of Payments.

(f) The Management Fees shall have priority only to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments.

(g) For purposes of subordination, the Composite Securities shall not be treated as a separate Class, but the Preference Share Component shall be treated as being pari passu with the Preference Shares.

Section 13.2. Standard of Conduct.

In exercising any of its or their voting rights, rights to direct and consent, or any other rights as a Noteholder or a Composite Securityholder under this Indenture, a Noteholder or a Composite Securityholder or the Insurer shall not have any obligation or duty to any person or to consider or take into account the interests of any person and shall not be liable to any person for any action taken by it or them or at its or their direction or any failure by it or them to act or to direct that an action be taken, without regard to whether the action or inaction benefits or adversely affects any Noteholder, Composite Securityholder, the Issuer, or any other person, except for any liability to which the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder or the Insurer may be subject to the extent the same results from the Noteholder's or Composite Securityholder's taking or directing an action, or failing to take or direct an action, in bad faith or in violation of the express terms of this Indenture.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 14.1. Form of Documents Delivered to Trustee.

In any case where several matters are required to be certified by, or covered by an opinion of, any specified person, it is not necessary that all the matters be certified by, or covered by the opinion of, only one person, or that they be so certified or covered by only one document, but one such person may certify or give an opinion with respect to some matters and one or more other such persons as to other matters, and any such person may certify or give an opinion as to the matters in one or several documents.

Any certificate or opinion of an Officer of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager may be based, insofar as it relates to legal matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, counsel, unless the Officer knows, or should know that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to the matters upon which his certificate or opinion is based are erroneous. Any such certificate of an Officer of the Issuer, Co-Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager or Opinion of Counsel may be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, or any other person, stating that the information with respect to the factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, or the other person, unless the Officer of the Issuer, Co-Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager or the counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to factual matters are erroneous. Any Opinion of Counsel may also be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, an Officer of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, stating that the information with respect to factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, unless the counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to factual matters are erroneous.

Where any person is required to make, give, or execute two or more applications, requests, consents, certificates, statements, opinions, or other instruments under this Indenture, they may, but need not, be consolidated and form one instrument.

Whenever this Indenture provides that the absence of the continuation of a Default or Event of Default is a condition precedent to the taking of any action by the Trustee at the request or direction of either Co-Issuer, then notwithstanding that the satisfaction of the condition is a condition precedent to the Co-Issuer's right to make the request or direction, the Trustee shall be protected in acting in accordance with the request or direction if it does not have knowledge of the continuation of the Default or Event of Default as provided in Section 6.1(d).

Section 14.2. Acts of Noteholders, Composite Securityholders or Holders of Preference Shares.

(a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver, or other action provided by this Indenture to be given or taken by Noteholders or Holders of Preference Shares may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by Noteholders or Holders of Preference Shares in person or by agents duly appointed in writing. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture the action shall become effective when the instruments are delivered to the Trustee (which instrument or instruments may be delivered through the Preference Shares Paying Agent, in the case of the Holders of the Preference Shares) and, if expressly required, to the Issuer. The instruments (and the action embodied in them) are referred to as the "Act" of the Noteholders or the Holders of Preference Shares signing the instruments. Proof of execution of any instrument or of a writing appointing an agent for a Noteholder or Holder of a Preference Share shall be sufficient for any purpose of this Indenture and conclusive in favor of the Trustee and the Issuer, if made in the manner provided in this Section.

(b) The fact and date of the execution by any person of any instrument may be proved by an affidavit of a witness to the execution or the certificate of any notary public or other person authorized by law to acknowledge the execution of deeds. Any certificate on behalf of a jural entity executed by a person purporting to have authority to act on behalf of the jural entity shall itself be sufficient proof of the authority of the person executing it to act. The fact and date of the execution by any person of any instrument may also be proved in any other manner that the Trustee deems sufficient.

(c) The Indenture Register shall prove the ownership of Securities and the principal amount and registered numbers of Securities and the number of Preference Shares held by and the number(s) of the Preference Share certificate(s) issued to, any Person shall be proved by the Preference Share register.

(d) Any Act by the Holder of a Security shall bind every Holder of the same Security and every Security issued on its transfer or in exchange for it or in lieu of it, in respect of anything done, omitted, or suffered to be done by the Trustee or the Issuer in reliance on the Act, whether or not notation of the action is made on the Security or Preference Shares.

Section 14.3. Notices, etc., to Certain Persons or Parties.

(b) If any provision in this Indenture calls for any notice or document to be delivered simultaneously to the Trustee and any other person, the Trustee's receipt of the notice or document shall entitle the Trustee to assume that the notice or document was delivered to the other person unless otherwise expressly specified in this Indenture.

Section 14.4. *Notices to Holders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent; Waiver.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture, where this Indenture provides for notice to the Insurer, the Noteholders, the Composite Securityholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) of any event,

(a) the notice shall be sufficiently given to the Insurer, the Noteholders, the Composite Securityholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to the Insurer, each Noteholder and Composite Securityholder affected by the event or the Preference Shares Paying Agent, at the address of the Insurer set forth in Section 14.3(a)(iii), at the address of the Holder as it appears in the Indenture Register or at the address of the Preference Shares Paying Agent supplied by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to the Trustee, as applicable, not earlier than the earliest date and not later than the latest date, prescribed for the giving of the notice; and

(b) the notice shall be in the English language.

Notices shall be deemed to have been given on the date of their mailing.

Notwithstanding clause (a), a Noteholder, Composite Securityholder or the Preference Shares Paying Agent may give the Trustee a written notice that it is requesting that notices to it be given by facsimile transmissions and stating the telecopy number for the transmission. Thereafter, the Trustee shall give notices to the Holder or the Preference Shares Paying Agent by facsimile transmission. If the notice also requests that notices be given by mail, then the notice shall also be given by mail in accordance with clause (a) above, as the case may be.

The Trustee shall deliver to the Holders of Notes any information or notice relating to this Indenture requested to be so delivered by at least 10% (by Aggregate Outstanding Amount) of the Holders of any Class of Notes at the expense of the Issuer. The Trustee shall deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent any information or notice that the Preference Shares Paying Agent certifies was requested to be so delivered by at least 10% (by Aggregate Outstanding Amount) of the Holders of the Preference Shares at the expenses of the Issuer.

Neither the failure to mail any notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Noteholder, Composite Securityholder or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall affect the sufficiency of the notice with respect to other Noteholders, Composite Securityholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent. If it is impracticable to give the notice by mail of any event to Noteholders, Composite Securityholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent when the notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Indenture because of the suspension of regular mail service as a result of a strike, work stoppage, or similar activity or because of any other cause, then the notification to Noteholders, Composite Securityholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent as shall be made with the approval of the Trustee shall be a sufficient notification to the Holders for every purpose under this Indenture.

Where this Indenture provides for notice in any manner, the notice may be waived in writing by any person entitled to receive the notice, either before or after the event, and the waiver shall be the equivalent of the notice. Waivers of notice by Noteholders, Composite Securityholders or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be filed with the Trustee but the filing shall not be a condition precedent to the validity of any action taken in reliance on the waiver.

So long as any Securities are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, all notices to Holders of the Securities or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to Holders of Preference Shares) shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange or the Irish Listing and Paying Agent.

The Issuer shall (and authorizes the Trustee to) deliver to J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. all periodic reports, notices, demands, and other written information delivered or received by the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, trustees, paying agents, accountants, or other persons pursuant to this Indenture and other operative documentation relating to the Securities requested by J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. (collectively, the "Transaction Reports") and the Issuer consents to J.P. Morgan Securities Inc.'s providing Transaction Reports received by it to current and prospective investors in the Securities (including by means of electronic transmissions or posting the Transaction Reports on internet sites maintained by J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. or any of its affiliates).

Section 14.8. Benefits of Indenture.

Nothing in this Indenture or in the Securities, expressed or implied, shall give to any person, other than the parties hereto and their successors under this Indenture, the Portfolio Manager, the Insurer, the Noteholders, the Composite Securityholders, the Holders of Preference Shares or the Preference Shares Paying Agent any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy, or claim under this Indenture.

Section 14.9. Legal Holidays.

If any Payment Date, Redemption Date, or Stated Maturity is not a Business Day, then notwithstanding any other provision of the Notes or this Indenture, payment need not be made on that date, but shall be made on the next Business Day with the same effect as if made on the nominal date of the Payment Date, Redemption Date, or Stated Maturity date, as the case may be, and except as provided in the definition of "Due Period," no interest shall accrue on the payment for the period beginning on the nominal date.

(a) THIS INDENTURE, EACH NOTE, AND EACH COMPOSITE SECURITY SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO ITS PROVISIONS THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

Section 14.11. Submission to Jurisdiction.

The Co-Issuers and the Trustee hereby irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Securities, the Preference Shares or this Indenture, and the Co-Issuers and the Trustee hereby irrevocably agree that all claims in respect of the action or proceeding may be heard and determined in the New York State or federal court. The Co-Issuers and the Trustee hereby irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent that they may legally do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of the action or proceeding. The Co-Issuers and the Trustee irrevocably consent to the service of all process in any action or proceeding by the mailing or delivery of copies of the process to the Co-Issuers at the office of the Co-Issuers' agent in Section 7.2 and to the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office. The Co-Issuers and the Trustee agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

Section 14.12. Counterparts.

This Indenture may be executed in any number of copies, and by the different parties on the same or separate counterparts, each of which shall be considered to be an original instrument.

Section 14.13. Acts of Issuer.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver, or other action provided by this Indenture to be given or performed by the Issuer shall be effective if given or performed by the Issuer or by the Portfolio Manager on the Issuer's behalf.

Section 14.14. Consent of Posting of Documents on Repository.

The Issuer hereby consents to (a) the posting of the final Offering Circular, this Indenture and the periodic reports to be delivered pursuant to the transaction documents and any amendments or other modifications thereto on the Repository for use in the manner provided in the Repository; and (b) the display of its name on the Repository in connection therewith. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, none of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Trustee makes any representation or warranty to The Bond Market Association (or any successor thereto) or any affiliate thereof or any Person having or obtaining access to the information maintained in the Repository or to any of such Person's affiliates regarding the accuracy or completeness of any information, document, report or other communication transmitted to the Repository, and no Person having or obtaining access to the information maintained in the Repository shall have any rights under this Indenture or otherwise by reason of the transmission of any such information, document, report or other communication to the Repository.

Section 14.15. Liability of Co-Issuers.

Notwithstanding any other terms of this Indenture, the Notes, the Composite Securities, or any other agreement entered into by either of the Co-Issuers or otherwise, neither of the Co-Issuers shall have any liability whatsoever to the other of the Co-Issuers under this Indenture, the Notes, the Composite Securities, any other agreement, or otherwise. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, neither of the Co-Issuers may take any action to enforce, or bring any action or proceeding, in respect of this Indenture, the Notes, the Composite Securities, any other agreement, or otherwise against the other of the Co-Issuers. In particular, neither of the Co-Issuers may petition or take any other steps for the winding up or bankruptcy of the other of the Co-Issuers and neither of the Co-Issuers shall have any claim with respect to any assets of the other of the Co-Issuers.

Section 14.16. Indemnity of Co-Issuer.

ASSIGNMENT OF MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT; HEDGE AGREEMENTS

Section 15.1. Assignment of Management Agreement.

(a) The Issuer, in furtherance of the covenants of this Indenture and as security for the Notes and amounts payable to the Secured Parties under this Indenture and the performance and observance of the provisions of this Indenture, acknowledges that its Grant pursuant to the first Granting Clause includes all of the Issuer's interest in the Management Agreement, including:

- (i) the right to give all notices, consents, and releases under it,
- (ii) the right to give all notices of termination pursuant to the Management Agreement and to take any legal action upon the breach of an obligation of the Portfolio Manager under it, including the commencement, conduct, and consummation of proceedings at law or in equity,
- (iii) the right to receive all notices, accountings, consents, releases, and statements under it, and
- (iv) the right to do all other things whatsoever that the Issuer is or may be entitled to do under it.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, the Trustee may not exercise any of the rights in (i) through (iv) above or that may otherwise arise as a result of the Grant until the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Indenture and the authority shall terminate when the Event of Default is cured or waived.

(b) The assignment made hereby is executed as security, and the execution and delivery hereby shall not in any way impair or diminish the obligations of the Issuer under the Management Agreement, nor shall any of the obligations contained in the Management Agreement be imposed on the Trustee.

(c) Upon the retirement of the Notes and the Class 1 Component and the release of the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral from the lien of this Indenture, this assignment, and all rights in this Indenture assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders shall cease and terminate and all the interest of the Trustee in the Management Agreement shall revert to the Issuer and no further instrument or act shall be necessary to evidence the termination and reversion.

(d) The Issuer represents that the Issuer has not executed any other assignment of the Management Agreement.

(e) The Issuer agrees that this assignment is irrevocable, and that it shall not take any action that is inconsistent with this assignment or make any other assignment inconsistent herewith. The Issuer shall, from time to time upon the request of the Trustee, execute all instruments of further assurance and all such supplemental instruments with respect to this assignment as the Trustee may reasonably request.

(f) The Issuer agrees to obtain the agreement and consent of the Portfolio Manager in the Management Agreement to the following:

- (i) The Portfolio Manager consents to this collateral assignment and agrees to perform any provisions of this Indenture made expressly applicable to the Portfolio Manager pursuant to the Management Agreement.
- (ii) The Portfolio Manager acknowledges that the Issuer is collaterally assigning all of its interest in the Management Agreement to the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties and the Portfolio Manager agrees that all of the representations, covenants and agreements made by the Portfolio Manager in the Management Agreement are also for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

(iii) The Portfolio Manager shall deliver to the Trustee duplicate original copies of all notices, statements, communications, and instruments delivered or required to be delivered to the Issuer pursuant to the Management Agreement (other than any of them delivered to the Issuer by the Trustee or the Collateral Administrator).

(iv) Neither the Issuer nor the Portfolio Manager shall select or consent to a successor manager or enter into any agreement amending, modifying, or terminating the Management Agreement (other than an amendment or modification of the type that may be made to this Indenture without Holder consent) without obtaining the consents of the Insurer and Holders that would be required if an amendment or modification of the same type were being made to this Indenture and without the satisfaction of the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency with respect thereto.

(v) Except as otherwise provided in this Indenture and the Management Agreement, subject to the resignation rights of the Portfolio Manager pursuant to Section 12 of the Management Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall continue to serve as Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement notwithstanding that the Portfolio Manager shall not have received amounts due it under the Management Agreement because sufficient funds were not then available under this Indenture to pay the amounts pursuant to the Priority of Payments. The Portfolio Manager agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer for the nonpayment of the fees or other amounts payable by the Administrative Agent to the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement until the payment in full of all Notes issued under this Indenture and the payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent of all amounts payable with respect to the Preference Shares in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the expiration of a period equal to the greater of (A) the applicable preference period plus one day or (B) one year and one day following the payment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager may commence any legal action that is not a bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, or similar proceeding against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of their properties and may take any action it deems appropriate at any time in any bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, or similar proceeding and any other Proceeding voluntarily commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or involuntarily commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer by anyone other than the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager.

(vi) The Portfolio Manager irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Notes, the Preference Shares or this Indenture, and the Portfolio Manager irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of the action or proceeding may be heard and determined in the New York State or federal court. The Portfolio Manager irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may legally do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of the action or proceeding. The Portfolio Manager irrevocably consents to the service of all process in any action or Proceeding by the mailing or delivery of copies of the process to it the address provided for in Section 14.3. The Portfolio Manager agrees that a final and non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

(g) Following the resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall use its best efforts to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager, and the Issuer, the Trustee, and the resigning or removed Portfolio Manager shall take any action consistent with the Management Agreement and this Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, necessary to effectuate any such succession.

Section 15.2. Hedge Agreements.

(a) At any time and from time to time after the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, shall enter into the Hedge Agreements and shall assign its rights (but none of its obligations) under the Hedge Agreements to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture and the Collateral Assignment of Hedge Agreements. The Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall obtain the approval of each new Hedge Agreement from each Hedge Counterparty to a then-existing Hedge Agreement. The Trustee shall, on behalf of the Issuer and in accordance with the Valuation Report, pay amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements on any Payment Date in accordance with Section 11.1.

(b) The Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless at the time of entering the Hedge Agreement the Hedge Counterparty has:

(i) a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "Aa3" (which rating of "Aa3" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) or higher if the Hedge Counterparty has only a long-term rating; or a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "A1" (which rating of "A1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) or higher and a debt rating by Moody's for short-term debt of "P-1" (which rating of "P-1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) if the Hedge Counterparty has both long-term and short-term ratings; and

(ii) a short-term debt rating by S&P of not less than "A-1" or a long-term debt rating of not less than "A+" (the "Required Rating").

(c) If at any time a Hedge Counterparty has:

(A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating and that rating is below "Aa3" or is "Aa3" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's; or

(B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:

(i) the long-term Moody's rating is below "A1" or that rating is "A1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's, or

(ii) the short-term Moody's rating is below "P-1" or that rating is "P-1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

- (i) post collateral with the Trustee to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement, in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's to be satisfied;
  - (ii) obtain a guarantor whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria;
  - (iii) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria; or
  - (iv) take other actions to satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's;
- (d) If at any time the Hedge Counterparty has:
- (A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating that is "A2" or below or has been suspended or withdrawn;
  - (B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:
    - (i) the long-term Moody's rating is "A3" or below or is suspended or withdrawn, or
    - (ii) the short-term Moody's rating is "P-2" or below, or
  - (C) a short-term debt rating by S&P below "A-1" or, if the Hedge Counterparty has no short-term rating by S&P, a long-term rating by S&P below "A+" or that has been suspended or withdrawn;

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

- (i) post collateral as required by the Hedge Agreement to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's and S&P to be satisfied; or
- (ii) (x) obtain a guarantor that has a Required Rating and that will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P with respect to its appointment;

(y) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty that has a Required Rating and the appointment of which will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P; or

(z) take such other actions to satisfy the Ratings Condition.

(e) If the Issuer has the right under a Hedge Agreement at any time to demand that the related Hedge Counterparty deliver Eligible Collateral in accordance with an Approved Credit Support Document, the Issuer shall make the demand.

(f) Any payments required to be made under the Hedge Agreements shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Subordinated Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments shall be subordinate to interest and principal payments on the Notes and any other payments required to be made by the Issuer under the Hedge Agreements, but senior to distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares.

(g) Except as provided in paragraph (h) of this Section 15.2, the Issuer, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, shall, promptly following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) (but no later than 60 days after the early termination), at the expense of the Issuer and to the extent possible through application of Hedge Termination Receipts, enter into a Replacement Hedge, unless, in the exercise of the Portfolio Manager's commercially reasonable judgment, to do so would not be in the best interest of the Issuer and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the non-entry into the a Replacement Hedge. In addition, a Replacement Hedge may not be entered into unless the Issuer provides the Rating Agencies with at least seven Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to enter into the agreement, together with its form and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the Replacement Hedge. The Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than a termination resulting from the bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar event with respect to the Hedge Counterparty) to become effective simultaneously with its entering into a Replacement Hedge. To the extent that (i) the Portfolio Manager determines not to replace the Hedge Agreement and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the determination; or (ii) termination is occurring on a Redemption Date, the Hedge Termination Receipts shall become part of Principal Proceeds and be distributed in accordance with Section 11.1 on the next following Payment Date (or on the Redemption Date, if the Notes are redeemed on the Redemption Date).

(h) Notwithstanding Section 15.2(g), the applicable requirements of Section 15.2(g) shall not have to be met if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is otherwise satisfied with respect thereto.

(i) The notional amounts of the Hedge Agreements outstanding at any time may be reduced or increased from time to time, by the Issuer, and the Hedge Agreements may be amended, modified, or terminated in accordance with the Hedge Agreements if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the reduction, increase, amendment, modification, or termination, as the case may be.

(j) Each Hedge Agreement may be terminated pursuant to its terms upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes or an acceleration of maturity of the Notes after an Event of Default. The Hedge Agreement will not be permitted to be terminated as the result of a Default or Event of Default unless any acceleration of maturity of the Notes resulting from the Event of Default is no longer permitted to be rescinded pursuant to this Indenture.

(k) Except for Hedge Agreements entered into on or before the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied.

ARTICLE 16

THE POLICY

Section 16.1. Miscellaneous.

(a) So long as no Insurer Default shall have occurred and be continuing, (i) the Trustee shall provide the Insurer copies of each report, notice, Opinion of Counsel, officer's certificate, request for consent or request for amendment to any document related hereto that the Trustee is required to send to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, any Holder of Securities, the Rating Agencies or the Portfolio Manager promptly upon the Trustee's production or receipt thereof (in each case, to the extent the Insurer is not expressly required to be provided such document directly or to the extent that another party is not responsible for delivery of such document directly to the Insurer), (ii) the Co-Issuers shall provide the Insurer copies of each report, notice, Issuer Order, Opinion of Counsel, officer's certificate, request for consent or request for amendment to any document related hereto that the Issuer is required to send to the Trustee, any Holder of Securities, the Rating Agencies or the Portfolio Manager promptly upon the Co-Issuers' production or receipt thereof (in each case, to the extent the Co-Issuers are not expressly required to be provided such document directly or to the extent that another party is not responsible for delivery of such document directly to the Insurer) and (iii) the Trustee shall forward to the Insurer upon receipt (x) a copy of any notice or order received from the Portfolio Manager pursuant to (A) clause (i) of the definition of "Reinvestment Period", (B) Section 7.19(e) and (C) Section 9.5 or (y) a copy of any instrument received from any Paying Agent pursuant to Section 7.3. All references to the rights of the Insurer to act as the Controlling Class, the Majority of the Controlling Class and the Super Majority of the Controlling Class herein (including, with respect to any action proposed to be taken by the Trustee, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or any Person, any requirements that the consent or approval of the Insurer be obtained in connection with the taking of such action) shall exist only so long as (i) the Insured Notes are Outstanding or any Accrued Insurance Liabilities are due and owing to the Insurer (it being understood that such right shall be reinstated if an Avoided Payment is made for so long as any such Avoided Payment is pending during the applicable statutory preference period or, if the Insurer is required to pay the amount of any such Avoided Payment, for so long as any Accrued Insurance Liabilities owing to the Insurer have not been paid in full), (ii) no Insurer Default has occurred and is continuing and (iii) the Policy has not been delivered for cancellation in accordance with Sections 16.8 and 16.9. The satisfaction of clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of the foregoing sentence shall entitle the Insurer to exercise the rights of the Controlling Class, the Majority of the Controlling Class and the Super Majority of the Controlling Class and to take all such other action to grant or withhold consent to actions proposed to be taken by the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer to the extent expressly granted to the Controlling Class, the Majority of the Controlling Class and the Super Majority of the Controlling Class in this Indenture. From and after the date on which the Policy expires in accordance with its terms and all Accrued Insurance Liabilities and any other amounts owing to the Insurer under this Indenture and the Insurance Documents have been paid in full, the Insurer shall have no rights or benefits as the Controlling Class, the Majority of the Controlling Class and the Super Majority of the Controlling Class hereunder.

(b) So long as the conditions set forth in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of the second sentence of Section 16.1(a) are satisfied, the Insurer shall have the right to exercise all rights of the Holders of the Insured Notes hereunder or under the Management Agreement (other than the right to grant or withhold any consent under Section 8.2) without any consent of such Holders, and such Holders may exercise such rights (other than the right to grant or withhold any consent under Section 8.2) only with the prior written consent of the Insurer.

Section 16.2. Representative of the Noteholder of the Insured Notes.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, so long as the Insurer is the Controlling Class, the Insurer shall have the right (to the exclusion of the Holders of the Insured Notes) to direct the Trustee as to any and all remedies to be sought or taken on behalf of the Holders of the Insured Notes under this Indenture and the Trustee shall not exercise any such remedies unless directed by the Insurer to the extent the Holders of the Insured Notes could control the actions of the Trustee. Each Holder of an Insured Note shall be deemed to have consented to the Insurer's rights hereunder. At such time as there exists and is continuing an Insurer Default the Trustee shall not be bound to continue to comply with any term or condition of this Indenture that requires the consent of or approval or direction from the Insurer.

In addition, the Insurer may exercise any rights and remedies that are available to such Holders of Insured Notes at law or in equity on its own behalf as the representative of the Holders of the Insured Notes, including, without limitation, under the Securities Act and/or the Exchange Act at any time and without preconditions or the further consent of any such Holders of Insured Notes or the Trustee. All proceeds received by Holders of the Insured Notes arising out of any proceeding at law or equity conducted by the Insurer as representative of the Holders of the Insured Notes (including any settlement proceeds in respect of any such proceeding) shall be paid over by such Noteholders to the Trustee and shall be applied by the Trustee to (A) first, make a payment to the Insurer of any amount then due and payable under the Insurance Agreement and (B) second, redeem the Insured Notes at par plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon.

Section 16.3. Drawings under Policy.

(a) If by 11:00 a.m., on the date (a "Deficiency Notice Date") that is the third Business Day prior to any Payment Date, the amount then on deposit and available for distribution (or scheduled to be on deposit and available for distribution on such a Payment Date) in the Collection Account is insufficient (based on the information set forth in the Valuation Report prepared as of the Determination Date related to such Payment Date) to pay the Insured Amount (as defined in the Policy) in respect of the Insured Notes on such Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments (the amounts of such deficiency, the "Deficiency Amount"), the Trustee shall:

(i) no later than 12:00 noon, New York City time, on the Deficiency Notice Date, give notice (which notice is in the appropriate form and delivered in the manner specified in the Policy) to the Insurer, specifying therein the Deficiency

Amount, and thereupon submit a notice of drawing under the Policy in such amount, all in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and in compliance with the terms of the Policy; and

(ii) on the date on which the Trustee receives payment under the Policy from the Insurer (but not earlier than the applicable Payment Date) in respect of the Deficiency Amount (so long as such payment is received by the Trustee by 10:00 a.m., New York City time, on the applicable Payment Date), pay over to each Holder of an Insured Note, for application by such Holder to amounts due in respect of such Holder's Insured Notes due on the related Payment Date, such Holder's ratable share of the amounts so received by the Trustee.

Any payment by the Insurer under the Policy in respect of amounts due on the Insured Notes shall be applied solely to the payment of amounts due on the Insured Notes.

(b) The Trustee agrees to furnish to the Insurer upon its reasonable request copies of the Trustee's records evidencing the payment of amounts due on the Insured Notes that have been made by the Trustee and subsequently recovered from Holders of the Insured Notes, and the dates on which such payments were made.

(c) The Trustee shall be entitled to enforce on behalf of the Holders of the Insured Notes the obligations of the Insurer under the Policy. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Holders of the Insured Notes are not entitled to make any claims under the Policy or institute proceedings directly against the Insurer.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any payment of interest or principal with respect to the Insured Notes made by or on behalf of the Insurer shall not be deemed to be a payment made by the Issuer and shall remain due for payment until payments in respect of such amounts are made by the Issuer in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Subject to and conditional upon payment of any interest or principal with respect to the Insured Notes by or on behalf of the Insurer, the Trustee shall assign to the Insurer all rights to the payment of interest or principal on or with respect to the Insured Notes, which are then due for payment to the extent of all payments made by the Insurer, and the Insurer may exercise any option, vote, right or power to the extent it has made a principal payment pursuant to the Policy in addition to its other rights hereunder. The Trustee and each Holder of an Insured Note by its purchase thereof agrees that the Insurer shall be subrogated to all of the rights to payment of such Holders or in relation thereto to the extent that any payment of principal or interest on or in respect of the Insured Notes was made to such Holders with payments made under the Policy by the Insurer.

Section 16.4. Preference Claims and Insolvency Proceedings.

(a) In the event the Trustee receives a certified copy of an order of the appropriate court that an amount due on an Insured Note constitutes an Avoided Payment, unless the Policy has been terminated in accordance with Section 16.8, the Trustee shall so notify the Insurer, shall comply with the provisions of the Policy to obtain payment from the Insurer of such Avoided Payment, and shall, at the time it provides notice to the Insurer, notify the Holders of the Insured Notes that, in the event that any such Holder's payment is so recoverable, such Holder shall be entitled to payment pursuant to the terms of the Policy. The Trustee shall furnish to the Insurer copies of its records evidencing the payments of amounts due on the Insured Notes, if any, that have been made by the Trustee and subsequently recovered from Holders of such Notes, and the dates on which such payments were made. The Insurer, however, shall not be obligated to make any payment in respect of any Insured Amount representing a payment of principal avoided as preference prior to the time the Insurer would have been required to make payment in respect of such principal pursuant to the Policy. Pursuant to the terms of the Policy, the Insurer shall make such payment on behalf of such Holders to the receiver, conservator, debtor-in-possession or trustee in bankruptcy named in the Order (as defined in the Policy) and not to the Trustee or any such Holder directly (unless the Trustee or any such Holder, as the case may be, has previously paid such preference amount to the receiver, conservator, debtor-in-possession or trustee in bankruptcy named in such Order, in which case the Insurer shall make such payment to the Trustee or such Holder, as in the case may be, in accordance with the Policy for distribution to such Holder upon proof of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Insurer). In the event the Policy is terminated in accordance with Section 16.8, the Insurer will have no further liability under the Policy or otherwise with respect to the Avoided Payment.

(b) The Trustee shall promptly notify the Insurer of any proceeding or the institution of any action (of which the Trustee has actual knowledge) (i) seeking the avoidance as a preferential transfer under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, rehabilitation or similar law (a "Preference Claim") of any distribution made with respect to any amount due on an Insured Note or (ii) the commencement of any proceeding by or against the Issuer commenced under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, rehabilitation or similar law (an "Insolvency Proceeding"). Each Holder of an Insured Note, by its purchase thereof, and the Trustee hereby agree that, so long as a Insurer Default shall not have occurred and be continuing, the Insurer may at any time during the continuation of any proceeding relating to a Preference Claim in respect of the Insured Notes or Insolvency Proceeding direct all matters relating to such Preference Claim or Insolvency Proceeding, as applicable, including, without limitation, (i) the direction of any appeal of any order relating to any such Preference Claim or Insolvency Proceeding, as applicable, and (ii) the posting of any surety or supersedeas performance bond pending any such appeal. In addition, and without limitation of the foregoing, as set forth in Section 16.5, the Insurer shall be subrogated to, and each Holder of the Insured Notes and the Trustee hereby delegates and assigns, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the rights of the Trustee and such Holder in the conduct of any proceeding with respect to such a Preference Claim or Insolvency Proceeding, as applicable, including, without limitation, all rights of any party to an adversary proceeding action with respect to any court order issued in connection with any such Preference Claim or Insolvency Proceeding, as applicable.

Section 16.5. Subrogation.

Anything in this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, any payment with respect to the principal of or interest on or with respect to the Insured Notes that is made with monies received pursuant to the terms of the Policy shall not be considered payment by the Issuer of the Insured Notes and shall not discharge the Issuer in respect of its obligation to make such payment. The Issuer and the Trustee acknowledge that, without the need for any further action on the part of the Insurer, the Issuer, the Trustee or any other Person, to the extent that the Insurer makes payment directly or indirectly on account of principal of or interest on or with respect to the Insured Notes to the Holders thereof, (i) the Insurer shall be fully subrogated to the rights of such Holders to receive such principal and interest from the Issuer and (ii) the Insurer shall be paid such principal and interest in its capacity as Holder of the Insured Notes but only from the sources and in the manner provided in this Indenture for the payment of such principal and interest in accordance with the Priority of Payments; provided, however, that such subrogation rights shall terminate upon the termination of the Policy pursuant to Section 16.8(b).

Section 16.6. Policy Payment Account.

The Trustee shall, on or prior to the Closing Date, establish in the name of the Trustee a single, segregated trust account which shall be designated as the Policy Payment Account (the "Policy Payment Account"), that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Holders of the Insured Notes, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and sole right of withdrawal. The Trustee shall deposit all amounts received from the Insurer under the Policy in the Policy Payment Account. Amounts held in the Policy Payment Account shall not be invested, unless otherwise instructed in writing by the Insurer. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Policy Payment Account shall be to make payments in respect of the amounts due on the Insured Notes on the related Payment Date in respect of which such funds are paid, to the extent such amounts are not paid pursuant to the Priority of Payments. Any monies held in the Policy Payment Account after the distributions made pursuant to this Section 16.6 on any Payment Date shall promptly be remitted (but in no event later than two Business Days after such Payment Date) to the Insurer.

Section 16.7. Limited Recourse; Non-Petition.

The Insurer hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Issuer's obligations under the Insurance Agreement and the Premium Letter shall be solely the obligations of the Issuer, and the Insurer shall not have any recourse to any director, officer, agent, member, limited partner, general partner or Affiliate of the Issuer with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated thereby. Recourse in respect of any obligations of the Issuer under the Insurance Agreement and the Premium Letter shall be limited to the Collateral applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments and on the exhaustion thereof all claims against the Issuer thereunder or any transactions contemplated thereby shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. In addition, the Insurer agrees that it shall not institute against the Issuer any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, receivership or similar proceeding so long as any Securities (including the Insured Notes) shall be Outstanding and there shall have elapsed one year plus one day or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect since the last day on which any Securities (including the Insured Notes) shall have been Outstanding; provided that, the Insurer may become a party to and participate in any such proceeding applicable to the Issuer that is initiated by any Person that is not an Affiliate of the Insurer. The agreements contained in this paragraph shall survive the termination of the Insurance Agreement and the Premium Letter and the payment of all obligations under this Indenture.

Section 16.8. Termination of the Policy.

(a) The Policy may be terminated on any Payment Date if: (x) after giving effect to all payments to be made on such Payment Date, all Accrued Insurance Liabilities and all Administrative Expenses payable to the Insurer accrued through the date of termination have been paid and all Premium accrued through such Payment Date has been paid and (y) any of the following events has occurred and is continuing on such date:

- (i) the Co-Issuers have elected to extend the Reinvestment Period pursuant to Section 2.4 and have satisfied all of the requirements related thereto (including each of the Extension Conditions set forth in Section 2.4(c)), other than obtaining the consent of the Insurer to such Extension, and the Insurer has and continues to object to such Extension, and the Holders of 100% of the Insured Notes (after giving effect to the sale of any Insured Notes which are Extension Sale Securities in connection with the proposed Maturity Extension) consent to such termination in accordance with Section 16.9;

(ii) the Co-Issuers have proposed to enter into a supplemental indenture pursuant to Article 8 and have satisfied all of the requirements for the effectiveness thereof, and the Insurer has and continues to object to such amendment and 100% of the Holders of the Insured Notes consent to such termination in accordance with Section 16.9; or

(iii) the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser shall have purchased the Insured Notes for the applicable Removal Buy-Out Purchase Price pursuant to Section 9.7.

(b) If none of the conditions set forth in clause (a)(i) through (iii) above are satisfied, the Policy may be terminated on any Business Day if 100% of the Holders of the Insured Notes consent to such termination in accordance with Section 16.9.

(c) In connection with a termination of the Policy pursuant to Section 16.8(a), any Administrative Expenses payable to the Insurer arising after termination of the Policy shall remain payable from Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds in accordance with the Priority of Payments. In connection with a termination of the Policy pursuant to Section 16.8(b), Premium through the date of termination of the Policy and all Administrative Expenses payable to the Insurer shall remain payable from Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds in accordance with the Priority of Payments. In connection with a termination of the Policy pursuant to Section 16.8(b), the rights of the Insurer pursuant to Section 16.3(d) and Section 16.5 to be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of the Insured Notes to the extent of any payment of principal or interest on or with respect of the Insured Notes shall terminate, and the Holders of the Insured Notes shall be entitled to the payment of such interest or principal. In connection with any termination of the Policy pursuant to this Section 16.8, the Insurer will continue to be entitled to any Extension Bonus Payment so long as such Extension Bonus Payment was due and payable prior to the termination of the Policy.

(d) Upon termination of the Policy in accordance with the terms of this Section 16.8, (i) all rights of the Insurer to receive notices hereunder shall survive such termination and (ii) no provision hereof (including, without limitation, the Priority of Payments and this Section 16.8) may be amended or otherwise modified in any manner adverse to the Insurer without the prior written consent of the Insurer.

(e) Upon termination of the Policy in accordance with the terms of this Section 16.8, the Insurer shall have no further liability for losses, claims, demands, damages, controversies, losses, costs and expenses of any nature whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, fixed or contingent, under the Policy as of the date of such termination, whether such losses, claims, demands, damages, controversies, losses, costs and expenses occurred prior to or subsequent to the date of such termination, and whether in connection with an Avoided Payment or other amount that has been paid by the Issuer or the Insurer prior to or after termination of the Policy and subsequently is required to be returned as a preference or otherwise.

Section 16.9. Termination Procedures.

(a) If the Issuer or the Holders of at least 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Insured Notes wish to solicit the vote of the Holders of the Insured Notes in connection with a proposed termination of the Policy pursuant to Section 16.8, the Issuer or such Holders shall notify the Trustee at least 45 days prior to the proposed termination date (which in the case of a termination pursuant to Section 16.8(a) must be a Payment Date). If the conditions for termination specified in Section 16.8 are satisfied as of the date of such notice (or are expected to be satisfied as of the proposed date of termination), as certified to the Trustee by an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall, promptly upon receipt thereof, notify the Issuer (in the case of notice to the Trustee by the requisite Holders of the Insured Notes), the Portfolio Manager, and the Insurer and shall send to all Holders of the Insured Notes (with a copy to the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and the Insurer) a notice of proposed termination that shall state:

1. the notice is being sent at the request of the Issuer or certain Holders of the Insured Notes (as applicable) who wish to solicit the vote of the Holders of the Insured Notes in connection with a termination of the Policy pursuant to Section 16.8;
2. a copy of the Issuer Order stating that the proposed termination is pursuant to Section 16.8(a)(i), Section 16.8(a)(ii), Section 16.8(a)(iii) or Section 16.8(b), and any conditions to such proposed termination have been satisfied;
3. the proposed date of termination (which in the case of a termination pursuant to Section 16.8(a) must be a Payment Date);
4. that from and after termination of the Policy, the Insured Notes will bear interest at a rate of LIBOR + 0.25% + the Premium Rate; and
5. that if the Policy is terminated, the Insurer shall have no further liability for losses, claims, demands, damages, controversies, losses, costs and expenses of any nature whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, fixed or contingent, under the Policy as of the date of such termination, whether such losses, claims, demands, damages, controversies, losses, costs and expenses occurred prior to or subsequent to the date of such termination, and whether in connection with an Avoided Payment or other amount that has been paid by the Issuer or the Insurer prior to or after the termination of the Policy and subsequently is required to be returned as a preference or otherwise.

(b) Each Holder of the Insured Notes that wishes to terminate the Policy must notify the Issuer and Trustee in writing of such determination within 10 Business Days after delivery of the notice of proposed termination. If the Trustee and the Issuer have not received written notification from all of the Holders of the Insured Notes within 10 Business Days of delivery of notice of proposed termination, the solicitation of the vote of the Holders of the Notes will be deemed not to have succeeded. The Trustee shall promptly forward to the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and the Insurer the solicitation of votes received from the Holders of the Insured Notes. If all Holders of the Insured Notes notify the Issuer and the Trustee that they wish to terminate the Policy, the Issuer shall issue an Issuer Order instructing the Trustee to:

1. surrender the Policy to the Insurer for cancellation on the date of termination;

2. promptly notify each Rating Agency of such termination; and
3. execute, acknowledge and deliver (at the expense of Issuer) such other documents or instruments as the Insurer may reasonably request evidencing the termination of the Policy.

Schedule 4Diversity Score Calculation

The Diversity Score for the Collateral Obligations is calculated by summing each of the Industry Diversity Scores, which are calculated as follows:

(i) An "Obligor Par Amount" is calculated for each obligor represented in the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) by summing the par amounts of all Collateral Obligations in the Collateral (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) issued by that obligor or any Affiliate of that obligor (other than obligors that the Portfolio Manager reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(ii) An "Average Par Amount" is calculated by summing the Obligor Par Amounts and dividing by the number of obligors represented. For purposes of calculating the number of issuers of the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations), any issuers Affiliated with one another shall be considered one issuer (other than obligors that the Portfolio Manager reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(iii) An "Equivalent Unit Score" is calculated for each obligor represented in the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) by taking the lesser of (A) one and (B) the Obligor Par Amount for the obligor divided by the Average Par Amount. For purposes of calculating the Equivalent Unit Score, any issuers Affiliated with one another shall be considered one issuer (other than obligors that the Portfolio Manager reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(iv) An "Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score" is then calculated for each of the Moody's industrial classification groups by summing the Equivalent Unit Scores for each obligor in the industry.

(v) An "Industry Diversity Score" is then established by reference to the Diversity Score Table shown below for the related Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score. If any Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score falls between any two the scores then the applicable Industry Diversity Score shall be the lower of the two Industry Diversity Scores in the Diversity Score Table.

Certain Tax Provisions

Schedule 8Certain Defined Terms Relating to S&P Rating and Moody's Rating

"Assigned Moody's Rating": The monitored publicly available rating or the monitored estimated rating expressly assigned to a debt obligation (or facility) by Moody's that addresses the full amount of the principal and interest promised.

"Moody's Default Probability Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (a) with respect to a Moody's Senior Secured Loan:
  - (i) if the Loan's obligor has a senior implied rating from Moody's, such senior implied rating; and
  - (ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's Obligation Rating of such Loan;
  - (iii) if the preceding clauses do not apply, the rating that is one subcategory above the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating;
- (b) with respect to a Moody's Non Senior Secured Loan or a Bond, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating of such Collateral Obligation;
- (c) with respect to a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the rating that is one rating subcategory below the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof;
- (d) with respect to a Structured Finance Obligation, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof (or, if the obligation does not have an Assigned Moody's Rating but has a rating by S&P, the rating that is the number of rating subcategories specified by Moody's below such S&P rating); and
- (e) with respect to a Synthetic Security, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Moody's rating or ratings used to determine the Moody's Default Probability Rating are on watch for downgrade or upgrade by Moody's, such rating or ratings will be adjusted down one subcategory (if on watch for downgrade) or up one subcategory (if on watch for upgrade).

"Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation that is a Loan or bond and the obligor thereof, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (a) if the obligor has a senior unsecured obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating;
- (b) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's "Issuer Rating" for the obligor;

(c) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a subordinated obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, then

(i) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is at least "B3" (and, if rated "B3," not on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be the rating which is one rating subcategory higher than such Assigned Moody's Rating, or

(ii) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is less than "B3" (or rated "B3" and on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be such Assigned Moody's Rating;

(d) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior secured obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, then:

(i) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is at least "Caa3" (and, if rated "Caa3," not on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be the rating which is one subcategory below such Assigned Moody's Rating, or

(e) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but such obligor has a senior implied rating from Moody's, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be one rating subcategory below such senior implied rating;

(f) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior unsecured obligation (other than a bank loan) with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), then the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be:

(i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher,

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower; or

(iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating no lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or Bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (f)(iii), or clauses (g)(iii) or (h)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower, and the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be determined pursuant to clause (c) above; or

(i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower, and the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be determined pursuant to clause (d) above; or

(iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating not lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or Bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (h)(iii), or clauses (f)(iii) or (g)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(i) if the preceding clauses do not apply and each of the following clauses (i) through (viii) do apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Caa1":

(i) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings,

(ii) no debt securities or obligations of the obligor are in default,

- (iii) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates has defaulted on any debt during the preceding two years,
- (iv) the obligor has been in existence for the preceding five years,
- (v) the obligor is current on any cumulative dividends,
- (vi) the fixed-charge ratio for the obligor exceeds 125% for each of the preceding two fiscal years and for the most recent quarter,
- (vii) the obligor had a net profit before tax in the past fiscal year and the most recent quarter, and
- (viii) the annual financial statements of such obligor are unqualified and certified by a firm of Independent accountants of international reputation, and quarterly statements are unaudited but signed by a corporate officer;
- (j) if the preceding clauses do not apply but each of the following clauses (i) and (ii) do apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Caa3":
  - (i) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings; and
  - (ii) no debt security or obligation of such obligor has been in default during the past two years; and
- (k) if the preceding clauses do not apply and a debt security or obligation of the obligor has been in default during the past two years, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Ca."

Notwithstanding the foregoing, not more than 10% of the Maximum Investment Amount may consist of Investment Obligations given a Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating based on a rating given by S&P as provided in clauses (f), (g) and (h) above.

"Moody's Obligation Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (a) With respect to a Moody's Senior Secured Loan:
  - (i) if it has an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating;
  - or
  - (ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the rating that is one rating subcategory above the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating; and
- (b) With respect to a Moody's Non Senior Secured Loan or a Bond:
  - (i) if it has an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating;
  - or

(ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating; and

(c) With respect to a Synthetic Security or a DIP Loan, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Moody's rating or ratings used to determine the Moody's Default Probability Rating are on watch for downgrade or upgrade by Moody's, such rating or ratings will be adjusted down one subcategory (if on watch for downgrade) or up one subcategory (if on watch for upgrade).

"Moody's Rating": The Moody's Default Probability Rating; provided that, with respect to the Collateral Obligations generally, if at any time Moody's or any successor to it ceases to provide rating services, references to rating categories of Moody's in this Indenture shall be deemed instead to be references to the equivalent categories of any other nationally recognized investment rating agency selected by the Portfolio Manager, as of the most recent date on which such other rating agency and Moody's published ratings for the type of security in respect of which such alternative rating agency is used.

"S&P Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following methodology:

(i) If there is an issuer credit rating of the borrower of the Collateral Obligation (the "Borrower"), or the guarantor who unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the Collateral Obligation (the "Guarantor") by S&P, the most current issuer credit rating for such Borrower or Guarantor;

(ii) (a) if there is not an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation will be one subcategory below such rating; (b) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior unsecured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be such rating; and (c) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a subordinated obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be two subcategories above such rating if such rating is "BBB-" or higher and will be one subcategory above such rating if such rating is "BB+" or lower; or

(iii) if there is neither an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P nor a rating by S&P on an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating may be determined using any one of the methods below:

(A) if an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is publicly rated by Moody's, then the S&P Rating will be determined in accordance with the methodologies for establishing the Moody's Default Probability Rating, except that the S&P Rating of such obligation will be (1) one subcategory below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody's if such security is rated "Baa3" or higher by Moody's and (2) two subcategories below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody's if such security is rated "Ba1" or lower by Moody's; provided that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 10% of the Maximum Investment Amount may be given a S&P Rating based on a rating given by Moody's as provided in this subclause (a) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable);

(B) if no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's, then the Portfolio Manager may apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating estimate, which will be its S&P Rating; or

(C) if such Collateral Obligation is not rated by Moody's or S&P, no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's and if the Portfolio Manager determines in its sole discretion based on information available to it after reasonable inquiry that such Borrower (x) is not subject to any bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings nor in default on any of its obligations (unless the subject of a good faith business dispute), (y) is a legally constituted corporate entity having the minimum legal, financial and operational infrastructure to carry on a definable business, deliver and sell a product or service and report its results in generally accepted accounting terms as verified by a reputable audit firm and (z) is not so vulnerable to adverse business, financial and economic conditions that default in its financial or other obligations is foreseeable in the near term if current operating trends continue, then the S&P Rating will be "CCC-"; provided that the Portfolio Manager must apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating on such Borrower within 30 days after the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation; provided, further, that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount may be given an S&P Rating based on this subclause (c) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable);

provided that if (i) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any positive "credit watch" list by S&P, such rating will be increased by one rating subcategory or (ii) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any negative "credit watch" list by S&P, such rating will be decreased by one rating subcategory.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the S&P Rating shall be (A) the rating assigned thereto by S&P if the rating is public, (B) the rating assigned by S&P if the rating is confidential, but only if all appropriate parties have provided written consent to its disclosure and use, (C) the rating assigned by S&P thereto through an estimated rating or (D) the rating assigned thereto by S&P in connection with the acquisition thereof upon the request of the Portfolio Manager. In the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a PIK Security or Structured Finance Obligation, the S&P Rating may not be determined pursuant to clause (iii)(a) above.

S&P Ratings for entities or obligations relevant hereunder other than Borrowers and Collateral Obligations shall be determined in a corresponding manner.

(a) The Portfolio Manager shall provide services to the Issuer as follows:

(i) Subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall supervise and direct the investment and reinvestment of the Collateral, and shall perform on behalf of the Issuer those investment-related duties and functions that have been specifically delegated or assigned to the Portfolio Manager in the Indenture (and the Portfolio Manager shall have no obligation to perform any other duties other than as specified herein or under the Indenture) and, to the extent necessary or appropriate to perform such duties, the Portfolio Manager shall have the power to execute and deliver all necessary and appropriate documents and instruments on behalf of the Issuer with respect thereto, including without limitation, providing such certifications and Officer's certificates as are required of the Portfolio Manager or the Issuer under the Indenture with respect to the permitted purchases and sales of Collateral Obligations and other securities required or permitted to be purchased or sold under the Indenture. The Portfolio Manager shall, subject to the terms and conditions hereof and of the Indenture, perform its obligations hereunder and under the Indenture (including, without limitation, its obligations in Sections 2.4 and 9.6 thereof) with reasonable care and in good faith, using a degree of skill and attention no less than that which the Portfolio Manager exercises with respect to comparable assets that it manages for others having similar investment objectives and restrictions, and in a manner consistent with practices and procedures followed by institutional managers of national standing relating to assets of the nature and character of the Collateral for clients having similar investment objectives and restrictions, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement and/or the Indenture. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager shall follow its customary standards, policies and procedures in performing its duties under the Indenture and hereunder. The Portfolio Manager shall comply with all terms and conditions of the Indenture affecting the duties and functions to be performed hereunder. The Portfolio Manager shall not be bound to follow any amendment to the Indenture until it has received written notice thereof and until it has received a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee; provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall not be bound by any amendment to the Indenture that affects the rights, duties or liabilities of the Portfolio Manager unless the Portfolio Manager shall have consented thereto in writing. The Issuer agrees that it shall not permit any amendment to the Indenture that (x) affects the rights, duties or liabilities of the Portfolio Manager or (y) affects the amount or priority of any fees payable to the Portfolio Manager to become effective unless the Portfolio Manager has been given prior written notice of such amendment and consented thereto in writing;

(ii) the Portfolio Manager shall select any Collateral which shall be acquired by the Issuer pursuant to the Indenture in accordance with the investment criteria set forth therein;

(iii) the Portfolio Manager shall monitor the Collateral on an ongoing basis and provide to the Issuer all reports, certificates, schedules and other data with respect to the Collateral which the Issuer is required to prepare and deliver under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement, in the form and containing all information required thereby and in reasonable time for the Issuer to review such required reports, certificates, schedules and data and to deliver them to the parties entitled thereto under the Indenture; the Portfolio Manager shall undertake to determine to the extent reasonably practicable whether a Collateral Obligation has become a Defaulted Collateral Obligation; and the Portfolio Manager shall monitor any Hedge Agreements and direct the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer in respect of all actions to be taken thereunder by the Issuer;

(iv) the Portfolio Manager, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture may, at any time permitted under the Indenture, and shall, when required by the Indenture, direct the Trustee (i) to dispose of a Collateral Obligation, Equity Security or Eligible Investment or other securities received in respect thereof in the open market or otherwise, or (ii) to acquire, as security for the Notes in substitution for or in addition to any one or more Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments included in the Collateral, one or more substitute Collateral Obligations or

Eligible Investments, and may, in each case subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture, direct the Trustee to take the following actions with respect to a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment:

(1) retain such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment;
or

(2) dispose of such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment in the open market or otherwise; or

(3) if applicable, tender such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment pursuant to an Offer; or

(4) if applicable, consent to any proposed amendment, modification or waiver pursuant to an Offer; or

(5) retain or dispose of any securities or other property (if other than cash) received pursuant to an Offer; or

(6) waive any default with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation; or

(7) vote to accelerate the maturity of any Defaulted Collateral Obligation; or

(8) exercise any other rights or remedies with respect to such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment as provided in the related Underlying Instruments or take any other action consistent with the terms of the Indenture which is in the best interests of the Noteholders and the Holders of the Preference Shares; and

(v) subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer shall determine whether to enter into any additional hedging arrangements, increase or reduce the notional amounts of existing Hedge Agreements or terminate existing Hedge Agreements, and the Portfolio Manager shall use its reasonable efforts to cause the Issuer, promptly following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) and to the extent possible through application of funds received as a result of the early termination (including the proceeds of the liquidation of any collateral pledged by the Hedge Counterparty), to enter into a replacement Hedge Agreement.

(b) In performing its duties hereunder, the Portfolio Manager shall seek to maximize the value of the Collateral for the benefit of the Noteholders and the Holders of the Preference Shares taking into account the investment criteria and limitations set forth herein and in the Indenture and the Portfolio Manager shall use reasonable efforts to manage the Collateral in such a way that will (i) permit a timely performance of all payment obligations by the Issuer under the Indenture and (ii) subject to such objective, maximize the return to the Holders of the Preference Shares; provided, that the Portfolio Manager shall not be responsible if such objectives are not achieved so long as the Portfolio Manager performs its duties under this Agreement in the manner provided for herein, and provided, further, that there shall be no recourse to the Portfolio Manager with respect to the Notes or the Preference Shares. The Portfolio Manager and the Issuer shall take such other action, and furnish such certificates, opinions and other documents, as may be reasonably requested by the other party hereto in order to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement and to facilitate compliance with applicable laws and regulations and the terms of this Agreement. The Portfolio Manager shall notify the Trustee and the Issuer in writing of an Event of Default under the Indenture of which the Portfolio Manager has actual knowledge.

(c) The Portfolio Manager hereby agrees to the following:

(i) The Portfolio Manager agrees not to institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings or other proceedings under federal or state bankruptcy or similar laws of any jurisdiction until at least one year and one day after the payment in full of all Notes issued under the Indenture and all amounts due under the Insurance Agreement or, if longer, the applicable period then provided by law; provided, however, that nothing in this clause (i) shall preclude, or be deemed to estop, the Portfolio Manager (A) from taking any action prior to the expiration of such period in (x) any case or proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, or (y) any involuntary insolvency proceeding filed or commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, by a Person other than the Portfolio Manager, or (B) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any properties of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any legal action which is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, liquidation or similar proceeding.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager shall cause each sale or purchase of any Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment to be conducted on an arm's-length basis.

(d) The Portfolio Manager shall not act for the Issuer in any capacity except as provided in this Section 2. In providing services hereunder, the Portfolio Manager may employ third parties, including its Affiliates, to render advice (including investment advice) and assistance; provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall not be relieved of any of its duties or liabilities hereunder regardless of the performance of any services by third parties. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall not be required to take any action required of it pursuant to this Agreement or the Indenture if such action would constitute a violation of any law.

(e) The Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates will maintain, in the aggregate, ownership of Preference Shares having an aggregate Face Amount of at least $10,000,000 until the earlier of such time as (i) none of the Notes are Outstanding or (ii) Highland is removed or resigns as Portfolio Manager and such removal or resignation has become effective in accordance with this Agreement.

3. Brokerage.

The Portfolio Manager shall seek to obtain the best prices and execution for all orders placed with respect to the Collateral, considering all reasonable circumstances. Subject to the objective of obtaining best prices and execution, the Portfolio Manager may take into consideration research and other brokerage services furnished to the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates by brokers and dealers which are not Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager. Such services may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with its other advisory activities or investment operations. The Portfolio Manager may aggregate sales and purchase orders of securities placed with respect to the Collateral with similar orders being made simultaneously for other accounts managed by Portfolio Manager or with accounts of the Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager, if in the Portfolio Manager's reasonable judgment such aggregation shall result in an overall economic benefit to the Issuer, taking into consideration the advantageous selling or purchase price, brokerage commission and other expenses. In the event that a sale or purchase of a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment (in accordance with the terms of the Indenture) occurs as part of any aggregate sales or purchase orders, the objective of the Portfolio Manager (and any of its Affiliates involved in such transactions) shall be to allocate the executions among the accounts in an equitable manner.

In addition to the foregoing and subject to the provisions of Section 2 and the limitations of Section 5, the objective of obtaining best prices and execution and to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Portfolio Manager may, on behalf of the Issuer, direct the Trustee to acquire any and all of the Eligible Investments or other Collateral from, or sell Collateral Obligations or other Collateral to, the Initial Purchaser, the Trustee or any of their respective Affiliates, or any other firm.

4. Additional Activities of the Portfolio Manager.

Nothing herein shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Trustee, the Noteholders, the Holders of the Preference Shares or any other Person or entity to the extent permitted by applicable law. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager and partners, directors, officers, employees and agents of the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates may, among other things, and subject to any limits specified in the Indenture:

(a) serve as directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, partners, employees, agents, nominees or signatories for any issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates; to the extent permitted by their Governing Instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates, pursuant to their respective Governing Instruments; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on any item of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Collateral Quality Test; provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the duties of the Portfolio Manager set forth in Section 2 hereof;

(b) receive fees for services of any nature rendered to the issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on any item of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Collateral Quality Test; and provided, further that if any portion of such services are related to purchase by the Issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral, the portion of such fees relating to such obligations shall be deposited into the Collection Account; and

(c) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold an equity interest in, the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligation included in the Collateral; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on any item of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Collateral Quality Test; provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the duties of the Portfolio Manager set forth in Section 2 hereof.

It is understood that the Portfolio Manager and any of its Affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have investment policies similar to those followed by the Portfolio Manager with respect to the Collateral and which may own securities of the same class, or which are the same type, as the Collateral Obligations or other securities of the issuers of Collateral Obligations. The Portfolio Manager shall be free, in its sole discretion, to make recommendations to others, or effect transactions on behalf of itself or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Collateral.

Unless the Portfolio Manager determines in its reasonable judgment that such purchase or sale is appropriate, the Portfolio Manager may refrain from directing the purchase or sale hereunder of securities issued by (i) Persons of which the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or any of its or their officers, directors or employees are directors or officers, (ii) Persons for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliate act as financial adviser or underwriter or (iii) Persons about which the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates have information which the Portfolio Manager deems confidential or non-public or otherwise might prohibit it from trading such securities in accordance with applicable law. The Portfolio Manager shall not be obligated to pursue any particular investment strategy or opportunity with respect to the Collateral.

5. Conflicts of Interest.

(a) The Portfolio Manager shall not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Portfolio Manager such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (iii) such transaction is permitted by the Adviser's Act.

(b) The Portfolio Manager shall not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager serves as investment advisor, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager serves as investment advisor unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Portfolio Manager, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (ii) permitted by the Adviser's Act.

(c) In addition, the Portfolio Manager shall not undertake any transaction described in this Section 5 unless such transaction is exempt from the prohibited transaction rules of ERISA and the Code.

6. Records; Confidentiality.

The Portfolio Manager shall maintain appropriate books of account and records relating to services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by a representative of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Share Paying Agent, the Controlling Class of Notes, the Noteholders, the Holders of the Preference Shares and the Independent accountants appointed by the Issuer pursuant to the Indenture at a mutually agreed time during normal business hours and upon not less than three Business Days' prior notice. At no time shall the Portfolio Manager make a public announcement concerning the issuance of the Notes or the Preference Shares, the Portfolio Manager's role hereunder or any other aspect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Indenture. The Portfolio Manager shall keep confidential any and all information obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder and shall not disclose any such information to non-affiliated third parties except (i) with the prior written consent of the Issuer, (ii) such information as either Rating Agency shall reasonably request in connection with the rating of the Notes, (iii) as required by law, regulation, court order or the rules or regulations of any self regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager, (iv) to its professional advisers, (v) such information as shall have been publicly disclosed other than in violation of this Agreement, or (vi) such information that was or is obtained by the Portfolio Manager on a non-confidential basis, provided, that the Portfolio Manager does not know or have reason to know of any breach by such source of any confidentiality obligations with respect thereto. For purposes of this Section 6, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Share Paying Agent, the Controlling Class of Notes, the Noteholders and the Holders of the Preference Shares shall in no event be considered "non-affiliated third parties."

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Indenture to the contrary, the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes and the Preference Shares (and the beneficial owners thereof) (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure, as such terms are defined under U.S. federal, state or local tax law.

7. Obligations of Portfolio Manager.

Unless otherwise specifically required by any provision of the Indenture or this Agreement or by applicable law, the Portfolio Manager shall use its best reasonable efforts to ensure that no action is taken by it, and shall not intentionally or with reckless disregard take any action, which would (a) materially adversely affect the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for purposes of Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state law or any other law known to the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, (b) not be permitted under the Issuer's Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association or the Co-Issuer's Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws, (c) violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer or the Co-Issuer including, without limitation, any Cayman Islands or United States federal, state or other applicable securities law the violation of which has or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any of the Collateral, (d) require registration of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the pool of Collateral as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act, (e) cause the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to violate the terms of the Indenture, including, without limitation, any representations made by the Issuer or Co-Issuer therein, or any other agreement contemplated by the Indenture or (f) engage in activities not permitted by Schedule 7 of the Indenture that would subject the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to U.S. federal or state income or franchise taxation or cause the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The Portfolio Manager covenants that it shall comply in all material respects with all laws and regulations applicable to it in connection with the performance of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Portfolio Manager shall not be required to take any action under this Agreement or the Indenture if such action would violate any applicable law, rule, regulation or court order.

8. Compensation.

(a) The Issuer shall pay to the Portfolio Manager, for services rendered and performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Management Fee, which shall be payable in such amounts and at such times as set forth in the Indenture. The provisions of the Indenture which relate to the amount and payment of the Management Fee shall not be amended without the consent of the Portfolio Manager. If on any Payment Date there are insufficient funds to pay such fee (and/or any other amounts due and payable to the Portfolio Manager) in full, the amount not so paid shall be deferred and shall be payable with accrued interest on such later Payment Date on which funds are available therefor as provided in the definition of "Subordinated Management Fee" in the Indenture.

(b) The Portfolio Manager shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by it in the course of performing its obligations under this Agreement, including the expenses and fees of any third party employed by the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement or the Indenture; provided, however, that the Issuer, and not the Portfolio Manager, shall be responsible for: (i) any fees, expenses or other amounts payable to the Rating Agencies, the Collateral Administrator, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the accountants appointed by the Issuer, (ii) the reasonable expenses incurred by the Portfolio Manager to employ outside lawyers or consultants reasonably necessary in connection with the evaluation, transfer or restructuring of any Collateral Obligation, (iii) any reasonable expenses incurred by the Portfolio Manager in obtaining advice from outside counsel with respect to its obligations under this Agreement (but excluding any such counsel fees and expenses not otherwise ordered by any court incurred in connection with any dispute between the Portfolio Manager and any of the Trustee, or a Holder of Notes or Preference Shares), (vi) brokerage commissions, transfer fees, registration costs, taxes and other similar costs and transaction related expenses and fees arising out of transactions effected for the Issuer's account and (v) the portion allocated to the Issuer of any other fees and expenses that the Portfolio Manager customarily allocates among all of the funds or portfolios that it manages.

(c) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 12, Section 14 or otherwise, the fees payable to the Portfolio Manager shall be prorated for any partial periods between Payment Dates during which this Agreement was in effect and shall be due and payable on the first Payment Date following the date of such termination and on any subsequent Payment Dates to the extent remaining unpaid and in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Indenture.

9. Benefit of the Agreement.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that its obligations hereunder shall be enforceable at the instance of the Issuer, the Trustee, on behalf of the Noteholders, or the requisite percentage of Noteholders or Holders of Preference Shares, as applicable, as provided in the Indenture or the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement, as applicable.

10. Limits of Portfolio Manager Responsibility; Indemnification.

(a) The Portfolio Manager assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture made applicable to it pursuant to the terms of this Agreement in good faith and, subject to the standard of conduct described in the next sentence, shall not be responsible for any action of the Issuer or the Trustee in following or declining to follow any advice, recommendation or direction of the Portfolio Manager. The Portfolio Manager, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, and its Affiliates and their directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, shall not be liable to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Noteholders, the Preference Share Paying Agent, the Holders of the Preference Shares or any other person for any losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (collectively, "Liabilities") incurred by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Noteholders, the Preference Share Paying Agent, the Holders of the Preference Shares or any other person that arise out of or in connection with the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture, except by reason of (i) acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance, or reckless disregard, of the obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to it or (ii) with respect to any information included in the Offering Circular in the sections entitled "The Portfolio Manager" and "Certain Conflicts of Interest—Conflicts of Interest Involving the Portfolio Manager" that contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (the preceding clauses (i) and (ii) collectively being the "Portfolio Manager Breaches").

(b) The Issuer shall indemnify and hold harmless (the Issuer in such case, the "Indemnifying Party") the Portfolio Manager, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees (such parties collectively in such case, the "Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Liabilities, and shall reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) (collectively, the "Expenses") as such Expenses are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the "Actions"), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with, the issuance of the Securities, the transactions contemplated by the Offering Circular, the Indenture or this Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided, however, that no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions by any Indemnified Party constituting Portfolio Manager Breaches. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer under this Section 10 shall be payable solely out of the Collateral in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Indenture and shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(c) With respect to any claim made or threatened against an Indemnified Party, or compulsory process or request or other notice of any loss, claim, damage or liability served upon an Indemnified Party, for which such Indemnified Party is or may be entitled to indemnification under this Section 10, such Indemnified Party shall (or with respect to Indemnified Parties that are directors, officers, stockholders, agents or employees of the Portfolio Manager, the Portfolio Manager shall cause such Indemnified Party to):

(i) give written notice to the Indemnifying Party of such claim within ten (10) days after such Indemnified Party's receipt of actual notice that such claim is made or threatened, which notice to the Indemnifying Party shall specify in reasonable detail the nature of the claim and the amount (or an estimate of the amount) of the claim; provided, however, that the failure of any Indemnified Party to provide such notice to the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under this Section 10 unless the Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced or otherwise forfeits rights or defenses by reason of such failure;

(ii) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, provide the Indemnifying Party such information and cooperation with respect to such claim as the Indemnifying

Party may reasonably require, including, but not limited to, making appropriate personnel available to the Indemnifying Party at such reasonable times as the Indemnifying Party may request;

(iii) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, cooperate and take all such steps as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request to preserve and protect any defense to such claim;

(iv) in the event suit is brought with respect to such claim, upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, which the Indemnifying Party may exercise in its sole discretion and at its expense, to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement of such claim;

(v) neither incur any material expense to defend against nor release or settle any such claim or make any admission with respect thereto (other than routine or incontestable admissions or factual admissions the failure to make which would expose such Indemnified Party to unindemnified liability) nor permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof, in each case without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party; and

(vi) upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, in its sole discretion and at its sole expense, to assume the defense of such claim, including, but not limited to, the right to designate counsel reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party and to control all negotiations, litigation, arbitration, settlements, compromises and appeals of such claim; provided, that if the Indemnifying Party assumes the defense of such claim, it shall not be liable for any fees and expenses of counsel for any Indemnified Party incurred thereafter in connection with such claim except that if such Indemnified Party reasonably determines that counsel designated by the Indemnifying Party has a conflict of interest in connection with its representation of such Indemnified Party, such Indemnifying Party shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of one counsel (in addition to any local counsel) separate from its own counsel for all Indemnified Parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances; provided, further, that prior to entering into any final settlement or compromise, such Indemnifying Party shall seek the consent of the Indemnified Party and use its commercially reasonable efforts in the light of the then prevailing circumstances (including, without limitation, any express or implied time constraint on any pending settlement offer) to obtain the consent of such Indemnified Party as to the terms of settlement or compromise. If an Indemnified Party does not consent to the settlement or compromise within a reasonable time under the circumstances, the Indemnifying Party shall not thereafter be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Party for any amount in excess of such proposed settlement or compromise.

(d) In the event that any Indemnified Party waives its right to indemnification hereunder, the Indemnifying Party shall not be entitled to appoint counsel to represent such Indemnified Party nor shall the Indemnifying Party reimburse such Indemnified Party for any costs of counsel to such Indemnified Party.

(e) The U.S. federal securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith; accordingly, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, nothing herein shall in any way constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Issuer, the Holders of Notes or Preference Shares may have under any U.S. federal securities laws.

11. No Partnership or Joint Venture.

The Issuer and the Portfolio Manager are not partners or joint venturers with each other and nothing herein shall be construed to make them such partners or joint venturers or impose any liability as such on either of them. The Portfolio Manager's relation to the Issuer shall be deemed to be that of an independent contractor.

12. Term; Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall commence as of the date first set forth above and shall continue in force and effect until the first of the following occurs: (i) the payment in full of the Notes, the termination of the Indenture in accordance with its terms and the redemption in full of the Preference Shares; (ii) the liquidation of the Collateral and the final distribution of the proceeds of such liquidation to the Noteholders and the Preference Share Paying Agent; or (iii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with subsection (b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) of this Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement.

(b) Subject to Section 12(g) below, the Portfolio Manager may resign, upon 90 days' written notice to the Issuer (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer). If the Portfolio Manager resigns, the Issuer agrees to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager to assume such duties and obligations.

(c) Subject to Section 12(g) below, the Portfolio Manager may be removed without cause upon 90 days' prior written notice by the Issuer, at the direction of the Holders of at least 63% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Preference Shares (excluding Preference Shares held by the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or any account for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority at the time of such vote); provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to avoid any such removal if, on or prior to the proposed removal date the following conditions are satisfied: (i) the Portfolio Manager provides written notice, not less than 20 Business Days prior to the proposed removal date, to the Holders of the Composite Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to Holders of Preference Shares), the Issuer and the Trustee that the Portfolio Manager intends to purchase not less than all of the Preference Shares voting for such removal from the Holders thereof (the "Directing Preference Shares"), (ii) in the notice provided to the Holders of the Composite Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to Holders of Preference Shares) in the preceding clause (i), the Portfolio Manager includes a statement to the effect that each Holder of Preference Share (including each Holder of a Composite Security in respect of the Preference Share Component) who did not vote for removal may provide written notice to the Portfolio Manager not later than 5 Business Days prior to the proposed removal date that the Preference Shares or Preference Share Component, as applicable, held by such Holder shall be deemed to be included in the Directing Preference Shares as provided in the preceding clause (i), and (iii) the Portfolio Manager effects the purchase of not less than all of the Directing Preference Shares and all of the Composite Securities relating to the Preference Share Component which constitute a part of the Directing Preference Shares at the Buy-out Amount. If all of the conditions set forth in the preceding sentence are satisfied on or prior to the proposed removal date, the Portfolio Manager shall continue as the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement. For purposes of this Section 12(c), "Buy-out Amount" means, with respect to (i) the Directing Preference Shares, an amount, when taken together with all payments and distributions made in respect of such Directing Preference Shares since the Closing Date, would cause the Directing Preference Shares to have received (as of the date of the Portfolio Manager's purchase thereof) a Preference Share

Internal Rate of Return of 12% (assuming such purchase date was a "Payment Date" under the Indenture) and (ii) the Class 1 Composite Securities, the sum of (x) the amount that would be payable pursuant to the preceding clause (i) in respect of the Preference Shares underlying the Class 1 Composite Security Preference Share Component, (y) the Treasury Strip Market Value and (z) the Composite Security Make-Up Amount.

(d) Subject to Section 12(g) below, if (i) an Event of Default described in Section 5.1(d) of the Indenture occurs, and (ii) the Policy has not been terminated and delivered for cancellation in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, this Agreement shall be terminated, and the Portfolio Manager shall be removed, by the Issuer, if directed by a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes upon 10 days' prior written notice to the Portfolio Manager and upon written notice to the Securityholders as set forth below; provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to avoid any such removal if, on or prior to the proposed removal date, the Portfolio Manager provides written notice, not less than 2 Business Days prior to the proposed removal date, to the Controlling Class, the Issuer and the Trustee that the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser intends to (i) purchase not less than all of the Class A-1g Notes at the Removal Buy-Out Purchase Price pursuant to the Indenture and as described in Section 9.7(a) therein and (ii) terminate the Policy pursuant to the Indenture upon the effectiveness of such purchase, and the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser purchases not less than all of the Class A-1g Notes prior to the proposed removal date. If the conditions set forth in the preceding sentence are satisfied on or prior to the proposed removal date, the Portfolio Manager shall continue as the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement. "Removal Buy-Out Purchase Price" means, the purchase price payable by the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser for the Class A-1g Notes purchased in an Removal Buy-Out, if any, in an amount equal to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of such Class A-1g Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of purchase payable to the Holder of such Class A-1g Notes (giving effect to any amounts paid to the Holder on such date).

(e) This Agreement shall be automatically terminated in the event that the Issuer determines in good faith that the Issuer or the pool of Collateral has become required to be registered under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, and the Issuer notifies the Portfolio Manager thereof.

(f) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 12, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other, except as provided in Sections 2(c)(i), 8, 10 and 15 of this Agreement.

(g) No removal, termination or resignation of the Portfolio Manager shall be effective unless (i) at the written direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer appoints a successor Portfolio Manager that has agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture and (ii) the successor Portfolio Manager is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) the Controlling Class of Notes or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single Class (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates)); provided, that if a Majority of the Preference Shares has nominated two or more successor Portfolio Managers that have been objected to pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding sentence or has otherwise failed to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager that is not objected to pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding sentence within 60 days of the date of notice of such removal, termination or resignation of the Portfolio Manager, then the Controlling Class of Notes may petition a court of competent authority to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager. In addition, any successor Portfolio Manager must be an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager hereunder, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as Portfolio Manager hereunder, as successor to the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder and under the applicable terms of the Indenture, (iii) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of Collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, (iv) shall perform its duties as Portfolio Manager under this Agreement and the Indenture without causing the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any Holder of Preference Shares to become subject to tax in any jurisdiction where such successor Portfolio Manager is established as doing business and (v) each Rating Agency has confirmed that the appointment of such successor Portfolio Manager shall not cause its then-current rating of any Class of Notes or Composite Securities to be reduced or withdrawn (without consideration of the Policy). No compensation payable to a successor from payments on the Collateral shall be greater than that paid to the Portfolio Manager without the prior written consent of the Controlling Class of Notes, a Majority of the Notes, a Majority of the Composite Securities and a Majority of the Preference Shares (voting collectively). The Issuer, the Trustee and the successor Portfolio Manager shall take such action (or cause the retiring Portfolio Manager to take such action) consistent with this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, as shall be necessary to effectuate any such succession.

(h) In the event of removal of the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement, the Issuer shall have all of the rights and remedies available with respect thereto at law or equity, and, without limiting the foregoing, the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, the Trustee may by notice in writing to the Portfolio Manager as provided under this Agreement terminate all the rights and obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement (except those that survive termination pursuant to Section 12(f) above). Upon expiration of the applicable notice period with respect to termination specified in this Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement, as applicable, all authority and power of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement, whether with respect to the Collateral or otherwise, shall automatically and without further action by any person or entity pass to and be vested in the successor Portfolio Manager upon the appointment thereof.

13. Delegation; Assignments.

This Agreement, and any obligations or duties of the Portfolio Manager hereunder, shall not be delegated by the Portfolio Manager, in whole or in part, except to any entity that is both (i) controlled by two or more of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers and (ii) one in which two or more of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers (or any Approved Replacement thereof) is involved in the day to day management and operations (and in any such case pursuant to an instrument of delegation in form and substance satisfactory to the Issuer), without the prior written consent of the Issuer, the Controlling Class of Notes, a Majority of the Composite Securities and a Majority of the Preference Shares (excluding Preference Shares held by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates), and, notwithstanding any such consent, no delegation of obligations or duties by the Portfolio Manager (including, without limitation, to an entity described above) shall relieve the Portfolio Manager from any liability hereunder.

Subject to Section 12, any assignment of this Agreement to any Person, in whole or in part, by the Portfolio Manager shall be deemed null and void unless (i) such assignment is consented to in writing by the Issuer, the Controlling Class of Notes and the Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares (excluding Preference Shares held by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates) and (ii) the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to any such assignment. Any assignment consented to by the Issuer and such Noteholders and Holders of Preference Shares shall bind the assignee hereunder in the same manner as the Portfolio Manager is bound. In addition, the assignee shall execute and deliver to the Issuer and the Trustee a counterpart of this Agreement naming such assignee as Portfolio Manager. Upon the execution and delivery of such a counterpart by the assignee and consent thereto by the Issuer, such Noteholders and such Holders of the Preference Shares, the Portfolio Manager shall be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement, except with respect to its obligations arising under Section 10 of this Agreement prior to such assignment and except with respect to its obligations under Sections 2(c)(i) and 15 hereof. This Agreement shall not be assigned by the Issuer without the prior written consent of the Portfolio Manager and the Trustee, except in the case of assignment by the Issuer to (i) an entity which is a successor to the Issuer permitted under the Indenture, in which case such successor organization shall be bound hereunder and by the terms of said assignment in the same manner as the Issuer is bound thereunder or (ii) the Trustee as contemplated by the Indenture. In the event of any assignment by the Issuer, the Issuer shall cause its successor to execute and deliver to the Portfolio Manager such documents as the Portfolio Manager shall consider reasonably necessary to effect fully such assignment. The Portfolio Manager hereby consents to the matters set forth in Article 15 of the Indenture.

14. Termination by the Issuer for Cause.

Subject to Section 12(g) above, this Agreement shall be terminated, and the Portfolio Manager shall be removed, by the Issuer, if directed by the Trustee or the Controlling Class of Notes or by a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares (excluding any Preference Shares held by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates), in each case for cause upon 10 days' prior written notice to the Portfolio Manager and upon written notice to the Noteholders and the Holders of the Preference Shares as set forth below. For purposes of determining "cause" with respect to any such termination of this Agreement, such term shall mean any one of the following events:

(a) the Portfolio Manager willfully breaches in any respect, or takes any action that it knows violates in any respect, any provision of this Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it;

(b) the Portfolio Manager breaches in any material respect any provision of this Agreement or any terms of the Indenture or the Collateral Administration Agreement applicable to it, or any representation, warranty, certification or statement given in writing by the Portfolio Manager shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect when made or given, and the Portfolio Manager fails to cure such breach or take such action so that the facts (after giving effect to such action) conform in all material respects to such representation, warranty, certificate or statement, in each case within 30 days of becoming aware of, or receiving notice from, the Trustee of, such breach or materially incorrect representation, warranty, certificate or statement;

(c) the Portfolio Manager is wound up or dissolved (other than a dissolution in which the remaining members elect to continue the business of the Portfolio Manager in accordance with its Governing Instruments) or there is appointed over it or a substantial portion of its assets a receiver, administrator, administrative receiver, trustee or similar officer, or the Portfolio Manager (i) ceases to be able to, or admits in writing its inability to, pay its debts as they become due and payable, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of or enters into any composition or arrangement with, its creditors generally; (ii) applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, assignee, custodian, liquidator or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Portfolio Manager or of any substantial part of its properties or assets, or authorizes such an application or consent, or proceedings seeking such appointment are commenced without such authorization, consent or application against the Portfolio Manager and continue undismissed for 60 days; (iii) authorizes or files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, or applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the application of any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, insolvency or dissolution, or authorizes such application or consent, or proceedings to such end are instituted against the Portfolio Manager without such authorization, application or consent and are approved as properly instituted and remain undismissed for 60 days or result in adjudication of bankruptcy or insolvency; or (iv) permits or suffers all or any substantial part of its properties or assets to be sequestered or attached by court order and the order remains undismissed for 60 days;

(d) the occurrence of any Event of Default under the Indenture that results from any breach by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under the Indenture or this Agreement, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period;

(e) (x) the occurrence of an act by the Portfolio Manager related to its activities in any securities, financial advisory or other investment business that constitutes fraud, (y) the Portfolio Manager being indicted, or any of its principals being convicted, of a felony criminal offense related to its activities in any securities, financial advisory or other investment business or (z) the Portfolio Manager being indicted for, adjudged liable in a civil suit for, or convicted of a violation of the Securities Act or any other United States Federal securities law or any rules or regulations thereunder; or

(f) a Change of Control shall occur with respect to the Portfolio Manager.

If any of the events specified in this Section 14 shall occur, the Portfolio Manager shall give prompt written notice thereof to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Share Paying Agent and the Holders of all outstanding Notes and Preference Shares upon the Portfolio Manager's becoming aware of the occurrence of such event. The Controlling Class of Notes and a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares (excluding any Preference Shares held by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates) may, acting together, waive any event described above as a basis for termination of this Agreement and removal of the Portfolio Manager under this Section 14.

15. Action Upon Termination.

(a) From and after the effective date of termination of this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall not be entitled to compensation for further services hereunder, but shall be paid all compensation accrued to the date of termination, as provided in Section 8 hereof, and shall be entitled to receive any amounts owing under Section 10 hereof. Upon the effective date of termination of this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall as soon as practicable:

(i) deliver to the Issuer all property and documents of the Trustee or the Issuer or otherwise relating to the Collateral then in the custody of the Portfolio Manager; and

(ii) deliver to the Trustee an accounting with respect to the books and records delivered to the Trustee or the successor Portfolio Manager appointed pursuant to Section 12(e) hereof.

Notwithstanding such termination, the Portfolio Manager shall remain liable to the extent set forth herein (but subject to Section 10 hereof) for its acts or omissions hereunder arising prior to termination and for any expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in respect of or arising out of a breach of the representations and warranties made by the Portfolio Manager in Section 16(b) hereof or from any failure of the Portfolio Manager to comply with the provisions of this Section 15.

(b) The Portfolio Manager agrees that, notwithstanding any termination, it shall reasonably cooperate in any Proceeding arising in connection with this Agreement, the Indenture or any of the Collateral (excluding any such Proceeding in which claims are asserted against the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager) upon receipt of appropriate indemnification and expense reimbursement.

16. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants to the Portfolio Manager as follows:

(i) The Issuer has been duly registered and is validly existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands, has full power and authority to own its assets and the securities proposed to be owned by it and included in the Collateral and to transact the business in which it is presently engaged and is duly qualified under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Indenture, the Notes or the Preference Shares would require, such qualification, except for failures to be so qualified, authorized or licensed that would not in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer.

(ii) The Issuer has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement, the Indenture, the Notes and the Preference Shares and all obligations required hereunder, under the Indenture, the Notes and the Preference Shares and has taken all necessary action to authorize this Agreement, the Indenture, the Notes and the Preference Shares on the terms and conditions hereof and thereof and the execution by the Issuer, delivery and performance of this Agreement, the Indenture, the Notes and the Preference Shares and the performance of all obligations imposed upon it hereunder and thereunder. No consent of any other person including, without limitation, stockholders and creditors of the Issuer, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority, other than those that may be required under state securities or "blue sky" laws and those that have been or shall be obtained in connection with the Indenture and the issuance of the Notes and the Preference Shares, is required by the Issuer in connection with this Agreement, the Indenture, the Notes or the Preference Shares or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of this Agreement, the Indenture, the Notes or the Preference Shares or the obligations imposed upon it hereunder or thereunder. This Agreement constitutes, and each instrument or document required hereunder, when executed and delivered hereunder, shall constitute, the legally valid and binding obligation of the Issuer enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with its terms, subject to (a) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights and (b) general equitable principles.

(iii) The execution by the Issuer, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the documents and instruments required hereunder shall not violate any provision of any existing law or regulation binding on the Issuer, or any order, judgment, award or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority binding on the Issuer, or the Governing Instruments of, or any securities issued by, the Issuer or of any mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking to which the Issuer is a party or by which the Issuer or any of its assets may be bound, the violation of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer, and shall not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its property, assets or revenues pursuant to the provisions of any such mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or undertaking (other than the lien of the Indenture).

(iv) The Issuer is not in violation of its Governing Instruments or in breach or violation of or in default under the Indenture or any contract or agreement to which it is a party or by which it or any of its assets may be bound, or any applicable statute or any rule, regulation or order of any court, government agency or body having jurisdiction over the Issuer or its properties, the breach or violation of which or default under which would have a material adverse effect on the validity or enforceability of this Agreement or the performance by the Issuer of its duties hereunder.

(v) True and complete copies of the Indenture and the Issuer's Governing Instruments have been delivered to the Portfolio Manager.

The Issuer agrees to deliver a true and complete copy of each amendment to the documents referred to in Section 16(a)(v) above to the Portfolio Manager as promptly as practicable after its adoption or execution.

(b) The Portfolio Manager hereby represents and warrants to the Issuer as follows:

(i) The Portfolio Manager is a limited partnership duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware, has full power and authority to own its assets and to transact the business in which it is currently engaged and is duly qualified and in good standing under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of this Agreement would require such qualification, except for those jurisdictions in which the failure to be so qualified, authorized or licensed would not have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Portfolio Manager or on the ability of the Portfolio Manager to perform its obligations under, or on the validity or enforceability of, this Agreement and the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and all obligations required hereunder and under the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, and has taken all necessary action to authorize this Agreement on the terms and conditions hereof and the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and all obligations required hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager. No consent of any other person, including, without limitation, creditors of the Portfolio Manager, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority is required by the Portfolio Manager in connection with this Agreement or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of this Agreement or the obligations required hereunder or under the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager. (iv) There is no charge, investigation, action, suit or proceeding before or by any court pending or, to the best knowledge of the Portfolio Manager, threatened that, if determined adversely to the Portfolio Manager, would have a material adverse effect upon the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under, or on the validity or enforceability of, this Agreement and the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager hereunder.

(v) The Portfolio Manager is a registered investment advisor under the United States Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended.

The Portfolio Manager hereby consents to the collateral assignment of this Agreement as provided in the Indenture and further agrees that the Trustee may enforce the Portfolio Manager's obligations hereunder.

This Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, inducements and conditions, express or implied, oral or written, of any nature whatsoever with respect to the subject matter hereof. The express terms hereof control and supersede any course of performance and/or usage of the trade inconsistent with any of the terms hereof. This Agreement may not be modified or amended other than by an agreement in writing executed by the parties hereto and in accordance with the terms of Section 15.1(f)(iv) of the Indenture.

20. Conflict with the Indenture.

Subject to the last two sentences of Section 2(a)(ii), in the event that this Agreement requires any action to be taken with respect to any matter and the Indenture requires that a different action be taken with respect to such matter, and such actions are mutually exclusive, the provisions of the Indenture in respect thereof shall control.

21. Priority of Payments.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that the payment of all amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture shall be due and payable only in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Indenture and only to the extent funds are available for such payments in accordance with such priorities.

22. Governing Law.

23. Indulgences Not Waivers.

Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of any party hereto to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise of the same or of any other right, remedy, power or privilege, nor shall any waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any occurrence be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any other occurrence. No waiver shall be effective unless it is in writing and is signed by the party asserted to have granted such waiver.

24. Costs and Expenses.

Except as may otherwise be agreed in writing, the costs and expenses (including the fees and disbursements of counsel and accountants) incurred by each party in connection with the negotiation and preparation of and the execution of this Agreement, and all matters incident thereto, shall be borne by such party.

25. Titles Not to Affect Interpretation.

The titles of paragraphs and subparagraphs contained in this Agreement are for convenience only, and they neither form a part of this Agreement nor are they to be used in the construction or interpretation hereof.

26. Execution in Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

27. Provisions Separable.

In case any provision in this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable as written, such provision shall be construed in the manner most closely resembling the apparent intent of the parties with respect to such provision so as to be valid, legal and enforceable; provided, however, that if there is no basis for such a construction, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability and, unless the ineffectiveness of such provision destroys the basis of the bargain for one of the parties to this Agreement, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof or thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

28. Number and Gender.

Words used herein, regardless of the number and gender specifically used, shall be deemed and construed to include any other number, singular or plural, and any other gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, as the context requires.

29. Written Disclosure Statement.

30. Miscellaneous.

(a) In the event that any vote is solicited with respect to any Collateral Obligation, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall vote or refrain from voting any such security in any manner permitted by the Indenture that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable judgment shall be in the best interests of the Noteholders and the Holders of the Preference Shares. In addition, with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may instruct the trustee for such Defaulted Collateral Obligation to enforce the Issuer's rights under the Underlying Instruments governing such Defaulted Collateral Obligation and any applicable law, rule or regulation in any manner permitted under the Indenture that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable judgment shall be in the best interests of the Noteholders and the Holders of the Preference Shares. In the event any Offer is made with respect to any Collateral Obligation, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may take such action as is permitted by the Indenture and that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable judgment shall be in the best interests of the Noteholders and the Holders of the Preference Shares.

(b) In connection with taking or omitting any action under the Indenture or this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager may consult with counsel and may rely in good faith on the advice of such counsel or any opinion of counsel.

Without prejudice to Section 14(f) hereof, any corporation, partnership or limited liability company into which the Portfolio Manager may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Portfolio Manager shall be a party, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company succeeding to all or substantially all of the collateral management business of the Portfolio Manager, shall be the successor to the Portfolio Manager without any further action by the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Noteholders or any other person or entity.

31. Limitation of Liabilities.

The Issuer's obligations hereunder are solely the corporate obligations of the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager shall not have any recourse to any of the directors, officers, shareholders, members or incorporators of the Issuer with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby, except for any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations caused by the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such directors, officers, shareholders, members or incorporators of the Issuer. The obligations of the Issuer hereunder shall be limited to the net proceeds of the Collateral, if any, and following realization of the Collateral and its application in accordance with the Indenture, any outstanding obligations of the Issuer hereunder shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. The provisions of this section shall survive termination of this Agreement.

Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement
As of March 15, 2005

JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as Preference Shares Paying Agent
Institutional Trust Services
Southfork CLO Ltd.
600 Travis Street, 50th Floor
Houston, Texas 77002

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Southfork CLO Ltd., a company existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the "Issuer"), has resolved to appoint JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association ("JPMCB"), as Preference Shares Paying Agent (the "Preference Shares Paying Agent") for the Issuer's Preference Shares (the "Preference Shares"). We hereby appoint JPMCB as such under the terms set forth below and confirm JPMCB's agreement to hold any funds to be paid to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Priority of Payments set forth in the Indenture (as defined herein) in a segregated account described below. Reference is also made to the indenture, dated as of March 15, 2005, among the Issuer, Southfork CLO Corp., as Co-Issuer (the "Co-Issuer"), Assured Guaranty Corp., as insurer, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as trustee (the "Indenture"). Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Indenture or, if not defined therein, certain resolutions passed at a meeting of the Issuer's Board of Directors that was held on March 14, 2005, as reflected in the minutes thereof, including Annex A ("Annex A") therein (the "Resolutions"). The Preference Shares will be issued, and may be exchanged or transferred, subject to the procedures set forth in Annex A to the Resolutions.

Except as otherwise specified herein or as the context may otherwise require or dictate or unless the Composite Securities are explicitly addressed in the same context, (A) all references in this Agreement to the "Preference Shares" include the "Preference Share Component" of the Class 1 Composite Securities and (B) all references in this Agreement to the rights of the Holders of the Preference Shares (including with respect to any payments, distributions, redemptions, votes or consents to be given by such Holders) include the rights of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities to the extent of the Preference Share Component of the Class 1 Composite Securities.

Section 1. Notice of Distribution to Directors. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, promptly after receipt of the Valuation Report, shall forward to the Directors the Valuation Report which identifies the Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds, payable to the Holders of the Preference Shares on the applicable Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date).

Section 2. Payments of Dividends and Other Distributions, Amounts Not Distributable. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall, subject to paragraphs (b) and (c) below, pay or cause to be paid, on behalf of the Issuer on such Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date), the Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds received from the Trustee to the Holders of the Preference Shares as a distribution on such Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, such Composite Securities Payment Date). Distributions of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds to the Holders of Preference Shares shall be paid pro rata in the proportion that the number of Preference Shares held by each such Holder bears to the total number of Preference Shares. The Issuer, or the Share Registrar on its behalf, shall provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with a copy of the Preference Share register on the Closing Date and thereafter, the Share Registrar shall promptly notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent of any changes to the Preference Share register. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall notify the Issuer and the Share Registrar of any transfers.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, distributions of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds by way of dividend to the Holders of Preference Shares on any Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date) out of amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account shall (i) be subject to the Issuer being solvent under Cayman Islands law (defined as the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business) immediately prior to, and after giving effect to, such payment as determined by the Issuer and (ii) be made only to the extent that the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium out of which to make such payment as determined by the Issuer. If the Issuer determines that the conditions set forth in either clause (i) or (ii) above are not satisfied with respect to any portion of Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds payable on such Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, such Composite Securities Payment Date), the Issuer shall instruct the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing no later than one Business Day prior to such Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, such Composite Securities Payment Date) that such portion of Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds, as applicable, should not be paid, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not pay the same, to the Holders of the Preference Shares until the first succeeding Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, such Composite Securities Payment Date), or (in the case of any payments which would otherwise be payable on the Redemption Date or any Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date) until the first succeeding Business Day, upon which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing that each such condition is satisfied, at which time the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall distribute such amounts. To the extent available, distributions shall be made first out of distributable profits for the current Due Period, then out of distributable profits in excess of dividends for prior Due Periods and then out of share premium.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, distributions of the Redemption Price by way of redemption of the Preference Shares shall be subject to the Issuer being solvent under Cayman Islands law (defined as the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business) immediately prior to, and after giving effect to, such distribution as determined by the Issuer. For purposes of this subsection (c), a determination as to whether the Issuer is solvent on the Redemption Date shall be made by the Issuer (A) after giving effect to any payments to be made on such Redemption Date and (B) in light of the fact that the obligations of the Issuer to the Holders of the Securities, the other Secured Parties and the other Persons subject to the Priority of Payments are limited in recourse to the Collateral (and, in respect of the Composite Securities, the Class 1 Collateral), and not to amounts (i) in the Preference Shares Distribution Account, (ii) any other amounts released from the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral in accordance with the Indenture and held by or on behalf of the Issuer for the benefit of the Holders of the Preference Shares or (iii) amounts on deposit in the Issuer's bank account in the Cayman Islands, and that after the assets in the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral are exhausted, such parties will have no further claim against the Issuer. If the Issuer determines that such condition is not satisfied on a Redemption Date with respect to any portion of the Redemption Price, the Issuer shall instruct the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing no later than one Business Day prior to such Redemption Date that such portion should not be distributed, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not distribute the same, to the Holders of the Preference Shares until the first succeeding Business Day upon which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing that such condition is satisfied, and the amounts so retained in the Preference Shares Distribution Account will be held therein until such amounts are paid.

Section 3. Payments and Redemption. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall make payments or distributions to each registered Holder on the relevant Record Date (as set out in Annex A to the Resolutions) by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a U.S. Dollar account maintained by the Holder as notified to the Preference Shares Paying Agent or, in the absence of such notification, by U.S. Dollar check mailed to the Holder at its address of record. The Issuer will, or will procure that the Share Registrar will, provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with all relevant information regarding the registered Holders of the Preference Shares as the Preference Shares Paying Agent may reasonably require to the extent such information is in possession or control of the Issuer or Share Registrar.

(b) The Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be obligated to pay any additional amounts to Holders or beneficial owners of the Preference Shares as a result of any withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges. As a condition to payment of any amount, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, may require certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments or distributions in respect of Preference Shares under any present or future law or regulation of the United States or any present or future law or regulation of any political subdivision thereof or taxing authority therein or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under such law or regulation. Amounts properly withheld under the Code by any Person from a payment or distribution to a Holder of Preference Shares shall be considered as having been paid by the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent to such Holder for all purposes herein. The Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereby provide notice to each Holder or beneficial owner of the Preference Shares that the failure to provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with appropriate tax certifications will result in amounts being withheld from payments to such Holders or beneficial owners of the Preference Shares under this Agreement (provided that amounts withheld pursuant to applicable tax laws shall be considered as having been paid by the Issuer as provided herein).

(c) The Issuer, the Share Registrar and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may deem and treat the Holder of any Preference Shares as the absolute owner of such Preference Shares, notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing on any certificate representing such Preference Shares, for the purpose of paying dividends and other distributions thereon, and for all other purposes, and neither the Issuer nor the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary. All such payments so made to such Holder or upon such Holder's order shall be valid and, to the extent of the sum or sums so paid, effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability for the monies payable upon any such Preference Share.

(d) All payments by the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder shall be made without charging any commission or fee to the Holders of the Preference Shares.

(e) On the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, the Issuer shall redeem the Preference Shares for a redemption price equal to all amounts distributable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Priority of Payments set forth in the Indenture, unless the Preference Shares have been redeemed earlier through an optional redemption or otherwise. Upon final payment due on the Preference Shares (whether on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date or any earlier Redemption Date), the Holder thereof shall present and surrender the certificates, if any, representing the Preference Shares at the office of the Preference Shares Paying Agent on or prior to such final payment date. On the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, all payments on redemption of Preference Shares to the Holders of the Preference Shares shall be made pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings.

Notice of final payment of the Preference Shares pursuant to an optional redemption in conjunction with an optional redemption of the Notes shall be given as set forth in Section 9.3 of the Indenture. Notice of any other final payment shall be given by the Preference Shares Paying Agent by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days nor earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date to each Holder of Preference Shares at such Holder's address as set forth in the Preference Share register.

All notices of redemption shall state:

- (i) the Redemption Date on which the Preference Shares are to be redeemed;
- (ii) the applicable Redemption Price for the Preference Shares being redeemed;
- (iii) the place or places where such Preference Shares to be redeemed are to be surrendered for payment of the applicable Redemption Price, which shall be the office of the Preference Shares Paying Agent; and
- (iv) in the case of an optional redemption, the latest possible date upon which such notice of redemption may be withdrawn.

The Issuer shall have the option to withdraw any such notice of redemption up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) in each case only if either (i) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) of the Indenture, the Portfolio Manager does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications required under the Indenture (as described in Section 9.3(c) and 12.1(f) of the Indenture), as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, (ii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i) of the Indenture, the Issuer receives the written direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption and (iii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii) of the Indenture, the Issuer receives the unanimous written direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer thereby agrees for the benefit of the directing person to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written direction referred to in the preceding clause (ii) or this clause (iii)). Notice of any such withdrawal shall be delivered pursuant to Section 9.3 of the Indenture.

Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Preference Shares.

(f) On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, so long as all administrative and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture and the Insurance Documents to the Insurer and all amounts owing under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged:

(i) at the direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Preference Shares, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings; or

(ii) at the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares, voting as a single Class or group, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a directed portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such direction.

(g) If any Holder of Preference Shares desires to direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Notes in accordance with Article 9 of the Indenture, such Holder shall notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer, and the Portfolio Manager not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made. If the Holders of at least 63% of the Preference Shares direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Notes, the Issuer shall effect an Optional Redemption of the Notes pursuant to the procedures described in the Indenture.

(h) If any Holder of Preference Shares desires to direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares after the redemption or repayment of the Notes and in accordance with Section (f)(i) and (ii) above, such Holder shall notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent not later than 30 (or with the Portfolio Manager's consent, not later than 10) Business Days prior to the proposed Redemption Date (which must be a Payment Date). Each Holder of Preference Shares that also wishes to direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares must so notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent (who shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager of such direction) within 10 Business Days after receipt of such notice. If the aggregate number of Preference Shares that have directed the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares equals or exceeds the minimum threshold set forth in Section (f)(i) and (ii) above, the Issuer shall effect an optional redemption of the Preference Shares pursuant to the procedures described in the Preference Share Documents and this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Preference Shares must be redeemed on or prior to the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. The Preference Shares shall be redeemed from the proceeds of any Collateral remaining after giving effect to the redemption or repayment of the Notes and payment in full of all expenses of the Co-Issuers.

Section 4. Preference Shares Distribution Account. (a) On or prior to the Closing Date, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the "Preference Shares Distribution Account" (the "Preference Shares Distribution Account") that shall be held in trust in the name of the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the benefit of the Issuer, over which the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall cause the Trustee to make any payment pursuant to the Priority of Payments by wire transfer (or by internal transfer if the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent are the same Person) to the Preference Shares Distribution Account in immediately available funds. All sums received by the Preference Shares Paying Agent from the Trustee or the Issuer for payment of dividends or other distributions or the Redemption Price in respect of the Preference Shares shall be deposited promptly in the Preference Shares Distribution Account until the first Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, such Composite Securities Payment Date) or, in the case of the payment of the Redemption Price in respect of the Preference Shares, the first Business Day, on which, in either case, the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent that such distribution can be made to the Holders of the Preference Shares in accordance with Section 2. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall then apply such funds as provided for in Section 3. All sums payable by the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder shall be paid out of the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not incur any personal liability to pay amounts due to Holders of the Preference Shares and shall only be required to make payments or other distributions (including the Redemption Price thereof) if there are sufficient monies in the Preference Shares Distribution Account to make such payments or other distributions.

(c) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have no right of set off with respect to amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

(d) Amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account that are not paid out may be invested in an interest-bearing account as directed in writing by the Issuer.

Section 5. Unclaimed Payments. Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any money deposited with the Preference Shares Paying Agent and held in the Preference Shares Distribution Account or otherwise held for payment on any Preference Share and remaining unclaimed for two years after such payment has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer on Issuer Request; and the Holder of such Preference Share shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment of such amounts and all liability of the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to such money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Issuer) shall thereupon cease. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, before being required to make any such release of payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Issuer any reasonable means of notification of such release of payment, including, but not limited to, arranging with the Share Registrar for the Share Registrar to mail notice of such release to Holders of Preference Shares whose right to or interest in monies due and payable but not claimed is determinable from the records of the Issuer or Preference Shares Paying Agent, as applicable, at the last address of record of each such Holder.

Section 6. Purchase of Preference Shares. (a) Each Holder or beneficial owner of a Preference Share, by its ownership of such Preference Share, acknowledges and agrees that such Holder or beneficial owner of a Preference Share will be required to sell its beneficial interest in such Preference Share in the following circumstances:

(i) any Non-Consenting Holder of Preference Shares with respect to an amendment of the Indenture (which includes Holders that fail to respond to a consent solicitation with the applicable period) will be forced to sell its applicable Preference Shares pursuant to Section 9.6 of the Indenture, whereby the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser is permitted to purchase the beneficial interest in the Preference Shares held by any such Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; or

(ii) any Holder of a Directing Preference Share with respect to the removal of the Portfolio Manager without cause will be forced to sell its applicable Preference Shares pursuant to Section 12(c) of the Management Agreement, whereby the Portfolio Manager is permitted to purchase the beneficial interest in all Directing Preference Shares held by any such Holder thereof at the applicable Buy-Out Amount; and

(b) Each Holder or beneficial owner of a Preference Share will have the right to sell its beneficial interest in such Preference Share to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser upon a Maturity Extension pursuant to Section 2.4 of the Indenture at the applicable Extension Purchase Price.

Section 7. Execution, Delivery and Dating. The certificates (if required by the Resolutions) relating to the Preference Shares shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer as provided for in the Articles.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Issuer may deliver Preference Share certificates (the "Preference Share Certificates") executed by the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent, upon Issuer Order, shall deliver such Preference Share Certificates as provided in this Agreement and not otherwise.

Each Preference Share Certificate delivered by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to or upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated the Closing Date. All other Preference Share Certificates that are delivered after the Closing Date for any other purpose under the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement shall be dated the date of their delivery.

Section 8. Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange. (a) When the Preference Shares Paying Agent receives a request for transfer or exchange of Preference Shares, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall comply with its obligations as set forth in Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions.

(b) No exchange or transfer of the Preference Shares shall be honored unless the transferee represents or is deemed to represent that (i) the transferee, and any account on behalf of which the transferee is purchasing the Preference Shares, is not and will not be an ERISA Plan, and if, after its initial acquisition of Preference Shares, the transferee determines, it is determined by another person, or the Preference Shares Paying Agent becomes aware that it or any such account is an ERISA Plan, such transferee will dispose of its interest in the Preference Shares in a manner consistent with the requirements set forth in Annex A to the Resolutions and (ii) if the transferee is a Benefit Plan Investor that is not an ERISA Plan, the transferee's purchase, holding and disposition of a Preference Share or any beneficial interest therein will not result in a non-exempt violation of any U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. law which is substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code.

(c) Notwithstanding anything else contained herein to the contrary, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be responsible for ascertaining whether any purchase or transfer complies with, including but not limited to, the registration provisions of or exemptions from the Securities Act, applicable state laws, the Code, ERISA, the Plan Asset Regulations or the Investment Company Act; provided that if a certificate or other written representation is specifically required by the express terms of this Agreement or Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions to be delivered to the Preference Shares Paying Agent by the purchaser or transferee of a Preference Share, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether the same substantially conforms on its face with the terms of this Agreement or Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions, as applicable, and shall promptly notify the party delivering the same if such certificate does not comply with such terms.

(d) The Issuer shall (and shall cause the Share Registrar to) consult the Preference Shares Paying Agent in connection with all transfers of Preference Shares and shall

(and shall cause the Share Registrar to) direct all transferors and transferees to correspond through the Preference Shares Paying Agent. The Share Registrar shall not be required to determine whether any proposed exchange, transfer, redemption or other transaction in relation to the Preference Shares complies with any restrictions imposed by law or under the terms of the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents but shall be entitled to rely completely in that respect on the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent.

(e) In the event that the Preference Shares Paying Agent is notified by the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer) that any Holder of Preference Shares has failed to provide the Issuer with the applicable United States federal income tax certifications, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall notify the Share Registrar and request it to record such transfer. Except as expressly provided herein or as required by this Agreement in connection with the Preference Shares Paying Agent's obligations to the Holders of Preference Shares, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have no obligation to oversee or participate in any such transfer of Preference Shares.

Each purchaser or subsequent transferee (other than a subsequent transferee of Regulation S Global Preference Shares) of Preference Shares will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Trustee written certification in a form acceptable to the Issuer and the Trustee as to whether it is an Affected Bank and each subsequent transferee of Regulation S Global Preference Shares will be deemed to represent to the Issuer and to the Trustee that it is not an Affected Bank. No transfer of any Preference Share to an Affected Bank will be effective, and the Trustee will not recognize any such transfer, unless such transfer is specifically authorized by the Issuer in writing; provided, however, that the Issuer shall authorize any such transfer if (x) such transfer would not cause more than 33 1/3% of the aggregate outstanding amount of the Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Components of the Class 1 Composite Securities) to be owned by Affected Banks or (y) the transferor is an Affected Bank previously approved by the Issuer.

Section 9. Fees and Indemnification. The fee to be paid in connection with the Preference Shares Paying Agent's appointment and duties as Preference Shares Paying Agent is U.S.$5,000 for each year any Preference Shares are outstanding. The fees payable hereunder shall be paid by the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent's account as directed by the Preference Shares Paying Agent. The Issuer will indemnify the Preference Shares Paying Agent and its officers, directors, employees and agents, against any loss, liability or expense (including reasonable legal fees and out-of-pocket expenses of counsel) incurred in connection with their appointment and duties hereunder, except such as result from their own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Preference Shares Paying Agent agrees that such fees and indemnification shall be treated as an Administrative Expense of the Issuer as defined in the Indenture and paid pursuant to the Priority of Payments. Anything in this Agreement notwithstanding, in no event shall the Preference Shares Paying Agent be liable for special, indirect or consequential losses or damages of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to loss of profits), even if the Preference Shares Paying Agent has been advised of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action. The obligation of the Issuer to indemnify the Preference Shares Paying Agent under this Section 9 shall survive retirement of the Preference Shares and any resignation or removal of the Preference Shares Paying Agent but shall remain subject to the provisions of Section 21.

Section 10. Liabilities. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be responsible or accountable to anyone for any reason whatsoever with respect to the validity of this Agreement or of the Preference Shares, or for any act done or omitted by it in good faith, or for anything whatsoever in connection with this Agreement, except for its own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct in the performance of any duty to be performed by the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder.

(b) The Preference Shares Paying Agent may consult as to legal matters with lawyers selected with due care by it, who may be employees of or regular independent counsel to the Issuer, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be protected from and shall incur no liability for action taken, or suffered to be taken, with respect to such matters in good faith and in accordance with the opinion or advice of such lawyers.

(c) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be protected from and shall incur no liability for or in respect of any action taken or thing suffered by it in reliance upon any Preference Shares, notice, direction, consent, certificate, affidavit, statement or other paper or document reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been delivered or signed by the proper parties, except as may result from its own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct or that of its directors, officers, employees or agents.

(d) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be under any liability for interest on any money at any time received by it pursuant to any of the provisions of this Agreement, except as otherwise agreed in writing with the Issuer.

(e) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not incur any liability with respect to the validity or value of any of the Preference Shares unless otherwise specified herein.

Section 11. Conflicts. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent and its officers, directors and employees may become the holder of, or acquire any interest in, any Preference Shares, with the same rights that it or they would have if it were not the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder, or they were not such officers, directors, or employees, and may engage or be interested in any fiscal or other transaction with the Issuer and may act on, or as depository, trustee or agent for, any committee or body of holders of Preference Shares or other indebtedness of the Issuer as freely as if it were not the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder or they were not such officers, directors, or employees.

(b) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be obliged to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth herein, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Agreement or the Indenture against the Preference Shares Paying Agent. Except for Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions (to the extent they do not contradict this Agreement), the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have no duties under Annex A to the Resolutions. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be under any obligation to take any action hereunder that may tend to involve it in any expenses or liability, the payment of which within a reasonable time is not, in its reasonable opinion, assured to it. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be accountable or under any duty or responsibility in case of any default of which the Preference Shares Paying Agent has knowledge by the Issuer in the performance of its obligations contained in the Articles and Annex A to the Resolutions (including, without limitation, any duty or responsibility to initiate or attempt to initiate any proceedings at law or otherwise or to make any demand for payment upon the Issuer).

(c) In acting under this Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agent is acting solely as agent of the Issuer and does not assume any obligations to, or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the owners or Holders of the Preference Shares. All funds held by the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment on the Preference Shares shall be held in trust for the Issuer, until paid.

(d) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall, as between itself and the Holders of the Preference Shares, with respect to all the obligations, powers, authorities and discretions, vested in it hereunder and under the Articles and the Resolutions, have absolute and uncontrolled discretion as to the exercise thereof whether in relation to the manner or as to the mode of and time for the exercise thereof and, in the absence of gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct on its part or that of its officers, directors or employees shall be in no way responsible for any loss, costs, damages or inconvenience that may result from the exercise or non-exercise thereof.

Section 12. Amendment. (a) This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, without the consent of the Holders of any Preference Shares, for the purpose of curing any ambiguity, or of curing, correcting or supplementing any defective provision contained herein, or in regard to matters or questions arising under this Agreement as the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may deem necessary or desirable and which shall not materially adversely affect the interests of Holders of the Preference Shares.

(b) Unless otherwise as set forth in subsection (a) above, this Agreement may be amended with the consent of Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares materially and adversely affected thereby, as evidenced by Opinion of Counsel.

(c) Any amendment to this Agreement must be in writing executed by each party hereto.

(d) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to its duties and obligations herein) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an opinion of counsel, consent or certificate of the Issuer in determining whether or not any proposed amendment is permitted hereunder.

Section 13. Resignation or Removal of the Preference Shares Paying Agent. The Preference Shares Paying Agent may at any time resign as the Preference Shares Paying Agent, by giving written notice to the Issuer of its resignation, specifying the date on which its resignation shall become effective (which date shall not be less than 60 days after the date on which such notice is given unless the Issuer shall agree to a shorter period). The Issuer may remove the Preference Shares Paying Agent at any time by giving written notice of not less than 60 days to the Preference Shares Paying Agent specifying the date on which such removal shall become effective. Such resignation or removal shall only take effect upon the appointment by the Issuer of a successor Preference Shares Paying Agent and upon the acceptance of such appointment by such successor Preference Shares Paying Agent; provided, however, that in any event, such resignation or removal shall take effect not later than 90 days from the date of such notice of resignation or removal; provided, further, that after the retirement of the Notes, if the Issuer determines that no material distributions will be paid on the Preference Shares, the Issuer may remove the Preference Shares Paying Agent at any time, by giving written notice of not less than 10 days, and assume the duties of the Preference Shares Paying Agent itself.

Section 14. Assignment. No party hereto may assign or novate any of its rights or obligations hereunder except with the prior written consent of all the parties hereto.

Section 15. Reports and Notices. The Issuer hereby authorizes the Preference Shares Paying Agent to deliver or request the Trustee to deliver all Monthly Reports and Valuation Reports (each a "Report" and, collectively, "Reports") prepared pursuant to the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares and the Preference Shares Paying Agent will deliver, or shall cause the Administrator or the Trustee to deliver a copy of any such Report to such Holders within two Business Days of receipt of any such Report. In addition, the Preference Shares Paying Agent will deliver, or shall cause the Administrator or the Trustee to deliver, a copy of any other notice or information that it has received from the Trustee under the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares within two Business Days of receipt of such notice and information.

Section 16. Notices. (a) All communications by or on behalf of the Issuer relating to the transfer, exchange, or payment of a Preference Share or any interest therein shall be directed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent at its address set forth in clause (b)(ii) below.

Where this Agreement provides for notice to Holders of the Preference Shares of any event, such notice shall be sufficiently given (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) if such notice is in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to each Holder of the Preference Shares affected by such event, at such Holder's address as it appears on the Preference Share register, not later than the latest date, and not earlier than the earliest date, prescribed for the giving of such notice.

Neither the failure to mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Holder of Preference Shares shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders. Any notice that is given in the manner herein provided shall conclusively be presumed to have been duly given whether or not actually received by such Holder. Any notice to Holders of the Preference Shares provided for in this Agreement will be deemed to have been given on the date of mailing.

Where this Agreement provides for notice in any manner, such notice may be waived in writing by any Person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice.

In the event that, by reason of the suspension of the regular mail service as a result of a strike, work stoppage or similar activity, it shall be impractical to mail notice of any event to Holders of the Preference Shares when such notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, then any manner of giving such notice as shall be satisfactory to the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be deemed to be a sufficient giving of such notice.

(b) Notices and other communications hereunder shall (except to the extent otherwise expressly provided) be in writing and shall be addressed as follows, or to such other addresses as the parties hereto shall specify from time to time:

(i) if to the Issuer:

Section 17. Covenants of the Issuer. The Issuer shall not take any action under this Agreement or the Indenture that requires the authorization, direction or consent from the Holders of the Preference Shares without obtaining such authorization, direction or consent from the Holders of the Preference Shares. It shall be the responsibility of the Issuer to satisfy the Preference Shares Paying Agent as to the compliance with the foregoing condition (on which the Preference Shares Paying Agent may rely on in good faith).

Section 18. Transfer of Issuer Ordinary Shares. For so long as any of the Preference Shares are outstanding, the Issuer shall not agree to the transfer of any Issuer Ordinary Shares to U.S. Persons (as defined in the Code), and shall not transfer any such Issuer Ordinary Shares to any Person other than a Person which is a resident of the Cayman Islands.

Section 19. Identification of Holders. On demand of the Issuer, a Holder or beneficial owner of a Preference Share will notify the Issuer whether or not the Holder or beneficial owner of such Preference Share is a United States person within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code and the name and status of such Holder or beneficial owner as an individual, partnership, corporation, or other entity and such other information as the Issuer

Section 20. Minimum Lots. Preference Shares (excluding any Preference Share Component) must be held in minimum lots of 100 Preference Shares per investor and integral multiples of 1 Preference Share in excess thereof.

Section 21. Limited Recourse; No Petition. The Preference Shares Paying Agent hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Issuer's obligations hereunder will be solely the corporate obligations of the Issuer, and that the Preference Shares Paying Agent will not have any recourse to any of the directors, officers, employees, shareholders or affiliates of the Issuer with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, recourse in respect of any obligations of the Issuer hereunder will be limited to the proceeds of the Collateral, paid pursuant to the Priority of Payments and on the exhaustion thereof all obligations of and all claims against the Issuer arising from this Agreement or any transactions contemplated hereby shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, by entering into this Agreement, hereby covenants and agrees that it will not, prior to the date which is one year and one day (or, if longer, the applicable preference period) after the payment in full of all amounts owing under the Indenture and this Agreement, institute against the Issuer, or voluntarily join in any institution against the Issuer of, any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under any United States federal or state bankruptcy or similar law of any jurisdiction within or without the United States in connection with any obligations relating to the Preference Shares or this Agreement. The provisions of this Section 21 shall survive termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

Section 22. (a) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

(b) WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE ISSUER AND THE PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE PREFERENCE SHARES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

However, there can be no assurance that the ISE will in fact accept the listing of the Notes or, if accepted, that such listing will be maintained. The Co-Issuers will not be required to maintain a listing of the Notes on a stock exchange in the European Union if compliance with requirements of the European Commission on a member state becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Servicer.

This Offering Memorandum does not constitute an offer of, or an invitation by or on behalf of, the Co-Issuers or the Initial Purchasers to subscribe to or purchase any of the Securities in any jurisdiction in which it is unlawful to make such an offer or invitation. The distribution of this Offering Memorandum and the offering of the Securities in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Offering Memorandum comes are required by the Co-Issuers and the Initial Purchasers to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer has been registered under the United States Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "Investment Company Act"), in reliance on an exclusion from the definition of "investment company" under Section 3(c)(7) under the Investment Company Act ("Section 3(c)(7)"). Each purchaser of Notes represented by an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note will be deemed to represent and agree that (i) the purchaser is acquiring such Notes in a principal amount of not less than U.S.$250,000, and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess thereof for such purchaser (and each account for which such purchaser is purchasing such Notes) and (ii) the purchaser (and each such account), is a Qualified Purchaser for purposes of Section 3(c)(7) ("Qualified Purchaser") or an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers. Each purchaser of Preference Shares will be deemed to represent and agree and be required to represent and agree that (i) the purchaser is acquiring such Preference Shares in a number of not less than 250 Preference Shares and in integral multiples of one Preference Share in excess thereof for such purchaser and (ii) the purchaser is a Qualified Purchaser. See "Transfer Restrictions."

The Issuer and the Co-Issuer may, at any time following the Closing Date, rely on exclusion from the definition of "investment company" under Rule 3a-7 under the Investment Company Act ("Rule 3a-7") in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7) upon (a) receipt of an opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm providing that neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer is required to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act in reliance on such exclusion under Rule 3a-7 and (b) notice to the Holders of the Securities in accordance with the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. In connection with the Issuer's reliance on Rule 3a-7 in lieu of Section 3(c)(7), the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents may be amended without the consent of any Holders and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities to prevent the Issuer from becoming an "investment company" as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7). See "Risk Factors—The Servicer May Cause the Issuer to Amend the Indenture to Assure Compliance with Rule 3a-7 Without the Consent of the Holders of the Securities in a Manner That May Adversely Affect the Holders of Securities."

No invitation to subscribe for the Securities may be made to the public in the Cayman Islands.

Prospective purchasers are hereby notified that a seller of the Securities may be relying on an exemption from the registration requirements of Section 5 of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act ("Section 4(2)").

In this Offering Memorandum references to "Dollars," "$" and "U.S.$" are dollars or other equivalent units in such coin or currency of the United States of America as at the time shall be legal tender for all debts, public and private.

The Notes will be issued pursuant to an indenture, to be dated as of the Closing Date (the "Indenture"), among the Co-Issuers and State Street Bank and Trust Company, as Trustee (the "Trustee").

The Preference Shares will be part of the issued share capital of the Issuer and, accordingly, will not be secured obligations of the Issuer. State Street Bank and Trust Company will act as the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the Preference Shares and will perform various administrative services pursuant to a Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, to be dated as of the Closing Date (the "Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement") by and between the Issuer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and Maples Finance Limited, as share registrar (in such capacity, the "Share Registrar") as amended from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof.

The Class I Preference Shares and Class II Preference Shares will be identical in respect of rights to distributions except that (i) with respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, which waived portion will not be payable at a later date, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be distributed by the Issuer to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments, provided that with respect to the Payment Date in May 2008 such Class II Preference Share Special Payments will, at a minimum, include amounts that would otherwise constitute a portion of the Servicing Fees that have accrued from the Closing Date through February 3, 2008 and (ii) the Class II Preference Shares have total control with respect to the appointment and removal of the directors of the Issuer as long as the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date is higher than the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date. See "Description of the Securities—The Issuer Charter—Voting Rights." On the Closing Date, HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries will purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares.

Payments to each Holder of the Notes of each Class will be made ratably among the Holders of the Notes of that Class in proportion to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes of such Class held by each Holder. Payments to each Holder of the Preference Shares will be made ratably among the Holders of the Preference Shares in proportion to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of such Preference Shares held by each Holder (provided that the Class II Preference Share Special Payments will be paid solely to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares in proportion to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class II Preference Shares held by each Holder).

Except as provided under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments," the Class A-1 Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class A-2 Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares; the Class A-2 Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares; the Class B Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares; the Class C Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares; the Class E Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Preference Shares; and the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares will rank pari passu in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date except that any payments to the Holders of Class II Preference Shares of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments will have priority to the extent provided under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

The Securities and certain other obligations of the Co-Issuers will have the priorities of payment described under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

Co-Issuers ..... The Issuer has been incorporated and exists as an exempted limited liability company under the laws of the Cayman Islands. The Issuer's activities are limited to acquiring Collateral Obligations (including by entering into LCDS Securities and other Synthetic Securities) and Eligible Investments, entering into any Hedge Agreements, issuing the Securities and entering into certain related transactions. The Issuer has been established as a special purpose vehicle for the purpose of issuing asset-backed securities.

The Co-Issuer is organized as a limited liability company under the laws of the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of co-issuing the Notes. The Co-Issuer has been established as a special purpose vehicle for the purpose of issuing asset-backed securities.

The Issuer will not have any significant assets other than Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, any Hedge Agreements and certain other eligible assets. The Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, the rights of the Issuer under any Hedge Agreements and other collateral will be pledged to the Trustee as security for, among other things, the Issuer's obligations under the Notes.

The Co-Issuer is not expected to have any significant assets and will not pledge any assets to secure the Notes.

Trustee ..... State Street Bank and Trust Company will act as the Trustee under the Indenture on behalf of the Holders of the Notes.

Servicer ..... Certain servicing and administrative functions with respect to the Collateral will be performed by Highland Capital Management, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("Highland Capital" or, in such capacity, the "Servicer"), pursuant to the Servicing Agreement, which may be amended from time to time without the consent of the Holders of the Securities. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Servicing Agreement" and "The Servicing Agreement."

On the Closing Date, (i) HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries are expected to purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes and (ii) Highland Capital or one or more of its Affiliates (other than HFP or any of its subsidiaries) are expected to purchase certain of the Class I Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes. No assurance can be given whether HFP or Highland Capital will retain such Securities for any amount of time. See "Plan of Distribution."

The Share Registrar will record in the register maintained by it which Preference Shares are held by HFP or any of its subsidiaries. Such Preference Shares will be designated by the Share Registrar as Class II Preference Shares. Any transfer of Class II Preference Shares by HFP or any of its subsidiaries to any Person other than HFP or any of its subsidiaries will require redesignation by the Share Registrar of such Class II Preference Shares as Class I Preference Shares. Any transfer of Class I Preference Shares to HFP or any of its subsidiaries will require redesignation by the Share Registrar of such Class I Preference Shares as Class II Preference Shares.

The Servicer or its Affiliates may also acquire Securities upon the occurrence of the Amendment Buy-Out Option or in connection with a Refinancing. In addition, the Servicer or its Affiliates may acquire all or any portion of any Extension Sale Securities in connection with a Maturity Extension. See "The Servicer," "Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities," "—Relating to the Servicer" and "—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer," "Description of the Securities—Amendment Buy-Out," "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Redemption by Refinancing," "Description of the Securities—Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date" and "The Servicing Agreement."

Closing Date ..... October 25, 2007.

Use of Proceeds ..... The gross proceeds of the offering of the Securities received on the Closing Date are expected to equal approximately $700,000,000. The gross proceeds will be used by the Issuer to:

- purchase a portfolio of Collateral Obligations;
- fund a securities account for Revolving Loans (the "Revolving Reserve Account") and a securities account for Delayed Drawdown Loans (the "Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account") to cover any future draws on Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans;
- enter into any Hedge Agreements, as applicable;
- enter into any Synthetic Security Agreements (and correspondingly to fund the related accounts);
- repurchase participations made by the Pre-Closing Participant to finance the Issuer's pre-closing acquisition of Collateral Obligations;
- fund the Closing Date Expense Account;

- pay certain organizational and structuring fees expenses related to the transaction; and
- undertake certain related activities.

See "Use of Proceeds."

Payment Dates..... Payment of interest on, and principal of, the Notes and distributions on the Preference Shares will be made by the Issuer in U.S. Dollars on the first day of each February, May, August and November of each year (or if such day is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day), commencing in May, 2008, to the extent of available cash flow in respect of the Collateral in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Hedge Agreements..... At any time and from time to time on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, will enter into the Hedge Agreements and will assign its rights (but none of its obligations) under the Hedge Agreements to the Trustee. See "Hedge Agreements."

Interest Payments and Distributions from Interest
Proceeds.....

The Notes will accrue interest from the Closing Date. Interest on the Notes will be payable, to the extent of funds available therefor, on each Payment Date.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of interest due on such Class of Deferred Interest Notes that is not available to be paid ("Deferred Interest") in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date will not be considered "payable" for the purposes of the Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest will not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes will be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments. To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes will accrue at the Note Interest Rate for such Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, will thereafter be additional Deferred Interest), until paid. See "Description of the Securities—Interest Payments on the Notes and Payments of Dividends on the Preference Shares from Interest Proceeds," "—Priority of Payments" and "—The Indenture—Events of Default."

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Interest Proceeds as described under clauses (23) and (25) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds;" provided that, in lieu of payment of such Interest Proceeds, in whole or in part, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, will have the right to direct the Trustee to distribute on any Payment Date Eligible Equity Securities pro rata to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date to the extent that the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) is equal to or lower than the aggregate amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be distributed on the relevant Payment Date to such Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares. Interest Proceeds in an amount equal to the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) distributed to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares will be treated for all purposes by the Issuer and the Servicer as Principal Proceeds available for distribution in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the relevant Payment Date. The amount of Interest Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date will be reduced and the amount of Principal Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date will be increased accordingly. See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" and "—Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement—Distribution of Eligible Equity Securities."

In addition, with respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be distributed by the Issuer to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments, provided that with respect to the Payment Date in May 2008 such Class II Preference Share Special Payments will, at a minimum, include amounts that would otherwise constitute a portion of the Servicing Fees that have accrued from the Closing Date through February 3, 2008. Any Class II Preference Share Special Payment will be paid by the Issuer in accordance with the Priority of Payments described under clauses (3), (21) and (24) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds."

Principal Payments and Distributions from Principal
Proceeds.....

The Notes will mature at par on the Payment Date in November 2021 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date (the "Stated Maturity") and the Preference Shares are scheduled to be redeemed at the Redemption Price thereof by the Issuer on the Payment Date in November 2021 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date (the "Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date"), in each case unless redeemed or (in the case of the Notes) repaid in full prior thereto. The average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years from issuance until Stated Maturity for such Notes. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary," "—A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected" and "Maturity and Prepayment Considerations."

In general, principal payments will not be made on the Notes before the end of the Replacement Period, except in the following circumstances:

- in connection with the payment of Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes;
- in connection with an Optional Redemption;
- at the option of the Servicer, to effect a Special Redemption of the Notes;
- in connection with a Refinancing;
- pursuant to a redemption made in connection with a Tax Event; or
- following a mandatory redemption of the Notes caused by a failure to meet any of the Coverage Tests or a Rating Confirmation Failure.

See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments," "—Optional Redemption," "—Special Redemption of the Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture," "Optional Redemption—Redemption by Refinancing," "—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes" and "Security for the Notes—Ramp-Up."

No payments of principal will be made on the Class A-2 Notes until the principal of the Class A-1 Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class B Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class C Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class D Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes, the Class

B Notes and the Class C Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class E Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes has been paid in full (other than with respect to the use of Interest Proceeds to pay principal of the Class E Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class E Coverage Test). However, Principal Proceeds may be used to pay Deferred Interest and other amounts before the payment of principal of the Notes.

No principal of any Class of Notes will be payable on any Payment Date other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and to the extent funds are available therefor on that Payment Date for that purpose, except that the principal of each Class of Notes will be payable in full at the Stated Maturity, unless repaid before that.

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares (including, with respect to the Class II Preference Shares, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Principal Proceeds as described under clauses (11)(A), (14) and (15) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds."

For a description of the relative priority of payments and level of subordination of the Securities and certain fees, expenses and other liabilities of the Co-Issuers, see "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date .....

The Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, will be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Replacement Period to the applicable Extended Replacement Period End Date up to a maximum of four times if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Replacement Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. For purposes of the foregoing, "Extension Effective Date" means if an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extension Effective Date (or, in the case of the first Extension Effective Date, the Payment Date in November 2012) and "Extended Replacement Period End Date" means, if an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Replacement Period End Date (or, in the case of the first Extension, the Payment Date in November 2018); provided that the "Extended Replacement Period End Date" will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in November 2030.

If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Notes will be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date will automatically be extended to the Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date and the Weighted Average Life Test will be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents (the "Maturity Extension"); provided that the Issuer will not be permitted to effect more than four Maturity Extensions. For purposes of the foregoing, "Extended Stated Maturity Date" means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Stated Maturity Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Stated Maturity Date, the Payment Date in November 2025), "Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date" means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, the Payment Date in November 2025) and "Extended Weighted Average Life Date" means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Weighted Average Life Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Weighted Average Life Date, the Payment Date in November 2021); provided that the "Extended Stated Maturity Date" will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in November 2037, the "Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date" will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in November 2037 and the "Extended Weighted Average Life Date" will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in November 2033.

As a condition to a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes or Preference Shares will have the right to offer to sell their Notes or Preference Shares to one or more Extension Qualifying Purchasers for purchase on the applicable Extension Effective Date.

If all Extension Conditions are satisfied and a Maturity Extension is effected, each Noteholder, other than Holders of Extension Sale Securities, will be entitled to receive the applicable Extension Bonus Payment, to the extent of available funds and as provided in the Priority of Payments. Holders of Preference Shares will not be entitled to receive any Extension

Bonus Payment.

See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary," "—A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected," "Maturity and Prepayment Considerations," and "Description of the Securities—Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date."

Security for the Notes ..... The Notes will be secured by a portfolio having an Aggregate Principal Balance following the Ramp-Up Period of approximately U.S.$687,400,000 (in principal amount) and consisting primarily of Collateral Obligations and certain Eligible Investments, in each case having the characteristics set forth herein. The Notes will also be secured by any cash on deposit in the Issuer Accounts, the Issuer's rights under any Hedge Agreements, any Securities Lending Agreements, the Servicing Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement. See "Security for the Notes."

Collateral Ramp-Up Period ..... The Issuer expects that, as of the Closing Date, it will have purchased (or entered into commitments to purchase) Collateral Obligations to be included in the anticipated portfolio such that the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator will be at least U.S.$687,400,000 as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date. The "Ramp-Up Completion Date" is the earlier of (i) the Business Day after the 90th day after the Closing Date, and (ii) the first day on which the following conditions are satisfied: (x) either (A) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer equals at least U.S.$687,400,000 or (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations purchased (or committed to be purchased) by the Issuer with proceeds from the sale of the Securities (in each case in this clause (B), measured solely as of the date of purchase or commitment, as the case may be) equals at least U.S.$687,400,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date) and (y) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least U.S.$687,400,000.

In anticipation of the issuance of the Securities, one of the Initial Purchasers (the "Pre-Closing Participant") is financing the acquisition of Collateral Obligations by the Issuer during the Accumulation Period. On the Closing Date, the participations acquired by the Pre-Closing Participant will be repurchased by the Issuer with proceeds of the offering to the extent not terminated prior thereto. In exchange for bearing the risk of loss on the Collateral Obligations acquired prior to the Closing Date, the Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates will be entitled to a share of the interest and any fees and commissions (net of any other amounts payable to the Pre-Closing Participant in connection with its financing of the acquisition of Collateral Obligations) paid by the obligors of such Collateral Obligations or accrued from the time of purchase to the Closing Date, plus a share of the amount by which any realized net gains exceed any realized net losses on Collateral Obligations sold or fully repaid during the Accumulation Period, in each case, in proportion to the percentage of Preference Shares each such party purchases on the Closing Date. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Collateral Obligations—A Substantial Amount of Collateral Obligations Was Acquired Before the Closing Date, and the Terms of the Acquisition May Adversely Affect the Issuer."

See "Security for the Notes—Ramp-Up."

Replacement Period; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral

Obligations ..... During the Replacement Period, the Issuer may generally (and subject to certain requirements) use Principal Proceeds received with respect to the Collateral to purchase additional or replacement Collateral Obligations in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria (which Eligibility Criteria include requirements that an item of Collateral purchased by the Issuer meet the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and that the portfolio of Collateral Obligations be in compliance with the Concentration Limitations to the extent provided in the Eligibility Criteria). See "—Collateral Obligations," "—Concentration Limitations" and "Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria."

The "Replacement Period" will be the period from the Closing Date through and including the first to occur of:

- (i) the Payment Date after the date that the Servicer notifies the Trustee, each Rating Agency and the Administrator, in the sole discretion of the Servicer, that, in light of the composition of the Collateral, general market conditions, and other factors, the acquisition of additional Collateral Obligations within the foreseeable future would be impractical;
- (ii) the Payment Date in November 2014 or, in the case of an Extension, the Extended Replacement Period End Date;

- (iii) the Payment Date on which all Notes are to be optionally redeemed or an earlier date after notice of an Optional Redemption chosen by the Servicer to facilitate the liquidation of the Collateral for the Optional Redemption; and
- (iv) the date on which the Replacement Period terminates or is terminated as a result of an Event of Default (subject to the terms of the Indenture).

No acquisition of Collateral Obligations will be made after the termination of the Replacement Period, except that (x) Unscheduled Principal Payments and (y) Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations may be used to purchase Collateral Obligations after the Replacement Period subject to the limitations described under "Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria" and "—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations." After the termination of the Replacement Period, all Principal Proceeds (other than Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations) must be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no acquisition or disposition of a Collateral Obligation or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) will be effected by or on behalf of the Issuer for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes.

Collateral Obligations ..... Any obligation or security (a "Collateral Obligation") that, when the Issuer commits to purchase (or otherwise acquire) the obligation or security, is a Loan, High-Yield Bond, Structured Finance Obligation or Synthetic Security with a Reference Obligation that is, in either case, a Loan, a Structured Finance Obligation or High-Yield Bond that is (or in the case of a Synthetic Security, the Reference Obligation is):

- (xxx) in the case of an obligation that is a synthetic or pre-funded letter of credit or includes or supports a letter of credit (a "Synthetic Letter of Credit"), the acquisition of such Synthetic Letter of Credit does not cause the Issuer to have entered into more than ten currently outstanding Synthetic Letters of Credit; and

- (xxxi) in the case of an obligation that is a Synthetic Letter of Credit, (a) such obligation is acquired in connection with the acquisition of another obligation issued under the same credit facility that is not a Synthetic Letter of Credit (a "Related Obligation"), (b) the amount of the Synthetic Letter of Credit acquired by the Issuer is not more than one-half of the amount of the Related Obligation acquired by the Issuer and (c) the proportionate amount of the Synthetic Letter of Credit acquired by the Issuer is not greater than the proportionate amount of such Related Obligation acquired under the relevant credit facility.

In the case of a Synthetic Security, in addition to the related Reference Obligation meeting the requirements above, the Synthetic Security itself must also meet the requirements of paragraphs (xv), (xxviii) and (xxix); provided that a Synthetic Security shall be deemed to meet the requirements of paragraph (xxviii) if the terms of such Synthetic Security require prior written consent of the Issuer or counterparty, as relevant, prior to a transfer.

Pursuant to the definition of "Synthetic Security," unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any "deliverable obligation" that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event" must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such "deliverable obligation" is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event") as a Collateral Obligation, except that such "deliverable obligation" may constitute a Defaulted Collateral Obligation when delivered upon a "credit event."

See "Security for the Notes—Collateral Obligations" and "—Eligibility Criteria."

Coverage Tests and the Retention

Overcollateralization Test.....

The "Coverage Tests" will consist of the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Tests. In addition, the Retention Overcollateralization Test, which is not a Coverage Test, will apply as described herein. See "Security For the Notes—The Coverage Tests—The Overcollateralization Tests" and "—The Interest Coverage Tests" for the formulations of these tests, which are highly detailed. The ratios on which they are based are also described under such headings. The tests will be used to determine, among other things, whether (i) Notes will be redeemed in certain circumstances as described under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments" and (ii) in the case of the Coverage Tests, Collateral Obligations may be acquired as described under "Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria."

There will not be any Coverage Test applicable to the Preference Shares.

The Overcollateralization Tests.....

The Overcollateralization Tests will consist of the "Class A/B Overcollateralization Test," the "Class C Overcollateralization Test," the "Class D Overcollateralization Test" and the "Class E Overcollateralization Test." Each Overcollateralization Test will be satisfied with respect to any Class of Notes if, as of any Measurement Date, the Overcollateralization Ratio for the Class is at least equal to the specified required level for the specified Class indicated in the table below:

Test	Required Level
Class A/B Overcollateralization Test	112.14%
Class C Overcollateralization Test	107.59%

The Interest Coverage Tests .....

The Interest Coverage Tests will consist of the "Class A/B Interest Coverage Test," the "Class C Interest Coverage Test" and the "Class D Interest Coverage Test". Each Interest Coverage Test will be satisfied with respect to any specified Class of Notes if, as of the second Payment Date and any Measurement Date thereafter on which any Notes remain Outstanding, the Interest Coverage Ratio equals or exceeds the applicable required level specified in the table below for the specified Class:

Test	Required Level
Class A/B Interest Coverage Test	120.0%
Class C Interest Coverage Test	110.0%
Class D Interest Coverage Test	106.0%

Retention Overcollateralization Test.

A test that will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date during the Replacement Period on which any Notes remain Outstanding, if the Retention Overcollateralization Ratio as of such Measurement Date is at least equal to 104.91%

Collateral Quality Tests .....

The Collateral Quality Tests will be used primarily as criteria for purchasing Collateral Obligations. See "Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria." The "Collateral Quality Tests" will consist of the Diversity Test, the Weighted Average Life Test, the Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test, the S&P Minimum Weighted Average Recovery Rate Test, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, the Weighted Average Spread Test, the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test and the S&P CDO Monitor Test, as described below.

Diversity Test.....

The Diversity Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date, if the Diversity Score equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score.

The S&P CDO Monitor Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if, after giving effect to the sale of a Collateral Obligation or the purchase of a Collateral Obligation, each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is positive.

Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test.....

The Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon equals or exceeds 7.5%

The Weighted Average Life Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the greater of (a) the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and November 1, 2017 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date and (b) 3.0 years.

Weighted Average Moody's

Recovery Rate Test..... The Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Moody's Weighted Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 43.6%.

Weighted Average Rating Factor

Test..... The Weighted Average Rating Factor Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date, if the Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor of the Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) as of such Measurement Date is less than or equal to the Maximum Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor.

Recovery Rate Test..... Weighted Average Spread Test..... The Weighted Average Spread Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Weighted Average Spread.

See "Security for the Notes—The Collateral Quality Tests."

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes

for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests..... If any of the Coverage Tests is not satisfied as of the last day of any Due Period (each, a "Determination Date"), funds will be used pursuant to the Priority of Payments on the related Payment Date to redeem the Notes to the extent necessary for such failing Coverage Tests to be satisfied. Such funds would otherwise be used:

- (i) to purchase additional Collateral Obligations during the Replacement Period; or
- (ii) to make interest and principal payments on the Notes and to make dividend or redemption payments in respect of the Preference Shares.

See "Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests."

Certain Consequences of Failure to Satisfy the Retention

Overcollateralization Test..... If during the Replacement Period, the Retention Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied on any Determination Date, certain funds, as described under clause (19) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds," representing Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be used to make payments on the Preference Shares and pay certain subordinated expenses of the Issuer, will be deposited instead into the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds to the extent necessary to cause the Retention Overcollateralization Test to be satisfied as of that Determination Date after application of Principal Proceeds as described under clause (1) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds."

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes

Upon Rating Confirmation Failure..... No later than five Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer shall (a) provide certain information to S&P and Moody's as required by the Indenture and described herein and (b) notify each of the Rating Agencies in writing of the occurrence of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (each, a "Ramp-Up Notice") and request in writing that each of S&P and Moody's confirm in writing prior to the Determination Date related to the first Payment Date that it has not reduced or withdrawn the ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes; provided, however, that the Issuer will not be required to request a Rating Confirmation from Moody's if, prior to the Determination Date related to the first Payment Date Moody's has received an accountants' certificate confirming (i) the Issuer is in compliance with each of the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests and the Concentration Limitations and (ii) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owns or has committed to purchase is at least equal to U.S.$687,400,000. If the Issuer is unable to obtain a requested Rating Confirmation from S&P or, if required, Moody's with respect to any Class of Notes prior to the Determination Date related to the first Payment Date, a "Rating Confirmation Failure" will be deemed to have occurred and will thereafter be deemed to be continuing until the first date thereafter on which the Trustee shall have received evidence of confirmation of the Initial Ratings, on which date it shall be deemed to have been cured. If a Rating Confirmation Failure is continuing, then, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all Interest Proceeds remaining after payment of amounts referred to in clauses (1) through (17) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" will be used to pay principal of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes in accordance with the Note Payment Sequence on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date thereafter until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. If necessary, after the foregoing payments are made out of Interest Proceeds, Principal Proceeds in accordance with clause (10) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds" will be used to pay principal of each Class of the Notes sequentially in order of their priority on each Payment Date until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. See "Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure."

Non-Call Period ..... The period from the Closing Date to but not including the Payment Date in November 2010 (the "Non-Call Period").

Optional Redemption ..... Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the applicable Required Redemption Percentage may require the Issuer or Co-Issuers, as applicable, to redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, from Principal Proceeds and all other funds available for that purpose in the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Synthetic Security Reserve Account, the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account in accordance with the optional redemption procedures described under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption."

Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at their Redemption Price. From and after the Redemption Date the redeemed Notes will cease to bear interest.

The Redemption Price payable in connection with the Optional Redemption of any Class of Notes will be the sum of:

- (i) the outstanding principal amount of the portion of the Note being redeemed; plus
- (ii) accrued and unpaid interest on such Class of Notes (including any Defaulted Interest and interest on Defaulted Interest); plus

(iii) in the case of any Deferred Interest Note, any Deferred Interest on such Class of Notes; plus

(iv) any unpaid Extension Bonus Payment in respect of such Class of Notes.

The Redemption Price payable in connection with the Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares will be (i) at the direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the entire remaining amount of available funds after all prior applications or (ii) as specified by the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares, in each case, as described under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption."

In addition, any Class of Notes may be redeemed in whole, but not in part, on any Payment Date after the Non-Call Period from Refinancing Proceeds obtained from a loan or the issuance of a replacement class of notes, subject to the written consent of a Majority of the Preference Shares (voting as a single class) and to the extent and subject to the restrictions and conditions described herein and set forth in the Indenture.

Special Redemption ..... The Notes will be subject to redemption in whole or in part by the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, on Payment Dates during the Replacement Period if the Servicer elects (subject to the Servicing Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Servicer in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the use of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (a "Special Redemption"). On the first Payment Date following the Due Period for which such notice is effective (a "Special Redemption Date"), the funds in the Collection Account or the Payment Account representing Principal Proceeds which cannot be used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (the "Special Redemption Amount") will be available to be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments. See "Description of the Securities—Special Redemption of the Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture."

Additional Issuance of Preference Shares.....

At any time during the Replacement Period, the Issuer may issue and sell additional Preference Shares and use the net proceeds to purchase additional Collateral Obligations if the conditions for such additional issuance described under "Description of the Securities—Additional Issuance of Preference Shares" are met. Any amendment to the Indenture, the Preference Share Documents or any other related documents required to provide for or facilitate such additional issuance of Preference Shares will not require the consent of the Holders of Securities.

The Offering..... The Notes are initially being offered (i) in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act ("Regulation S") to non-U.S. Persons in offshore transactions ("Offshore Transactions") as such term is defined in Regulation S and (ii) to purchasers that are U.S. persons ("U.S. Persons") as such term is defined in Regulation S, that are (I) Qualified Institutional Buyers (as defined in Rule 144A) (each, a "Qualified Institutional Buyer") and (II) Qualified Purchasers. Subsequent transferees of the Notes must be (i) non-U.S. Persons that purchase the Notes in Offshore Transactions or (ii) both (a) Qualified Institutional Buyers and (b) Qualified Purchasers. The Preference Shares are initially offered and may be subsequently transferred only to purchasers that are (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers and (ii) Qualified Purchasers. See "Plan of Distribution" and "Transfer Restrictions."

Form, Registration and Transfer of the Notes ..... Except as provided herein, the Notes sold in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A to persons that are both Qualified Institutional Buyers and Qualified Purchasers will be represented by one or more permanent global notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons (each, a "Rule 144A Global Note") deposited with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of, a nominee of the Depository. The Depository will credit the account of each of its participants with the principal amount of the beneficial interests in Notes being purchased by or through the participant. Beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note will be shown on, and transfers thereof will be effected only through, records maintained by the Depository and its direct and indirect participants. See "Description of the Securities—Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Notes."

Except as provided herein, the Notes sold in Offshore Transactions to non-U.S. Persons in reliance on Regulation S will be represented by one or more permanent global notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons (each, a "Regulation S Global Note," and, together with the Rule 144A Global Notes, the "Global Notes") which will be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of, a nominee of the Depository for the respective accounts of the beneficial owners at Euroclear or Clearstream. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may be held only through Euroclear or Clearstream at any time.

Except in the limited circumstances described herein, certificated Notes will not be issued in exchange for beneficial interests in Global Notes. See "Settlement and Clearing."

Transfers of the Notes are subject to certain restrictions and must be made in accordance with the procedures and requirements set forth in the Indenture. See "Description of the Securities—Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Notes" and "Transfer Restrictions." Each purchaser of Notes in making its purchase will be required to make certain acknowledgments, representations and agreements. See "Transfer Restrictions" for more details.

Form, Registration and Transfers of the Preference Shares.....

The Preference Shares will be issued in the form of one or more certificated Preference Shares in definitive, fully registered form, registered in the name of the owner thereof (the "Certificated Preference Shares").

Transfers of the Preference Shares are subject to certain restrictions and must be made in accordance with the procedures and requirements set forth in the Preference Share Documents. See "Description of the Securities—Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Preference Shares" and "Transfer Restrictions." Each purchaser of Preference Shares in making its purchase will be required to make certain acknowledgments, representations and agreements. See "Transfer Restrictions" for more details.

Ratings .....

It is a condition of the issuance of the Securities that each Class of Notes are rated at least as indicated in the table under "—Principal Terms of the Securities" on the Closing Date.

No rating of the Preference Shares has been sought or obtained in connection with the issuance thereof.

Each of the above ratings assumes that no Maturity Extension occurs after the Closing Date.

A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning Rating Agency. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—Future Ratings of the Notes Are Not Assured and Limited in Scope; the Preference Shares are Not Rated."

Listing.....	Application is expected to be made to list each Class of the Notes on the regulated market of the ISE. There can be no assurance that such admission will be granted or maintained. See "Listing and General Information." The issuance and settlement of the Notes on the Closing Date will not be conditioned on the listing of the Notes on the ISE. Furthermore, the Co-Issuers will not be required to maintain a listing on a stock exchange in the European Union if compliance with requirements of the European Commission on a member state becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Servicer. In addition, there is currently no market for such Notes and there can be no assurance that a market will develop.
Governing Law .....	The terms and conditions of the Preference Shares (as set forth in the Issuer Charter and the Resolutions) will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the Cayman Islands. The Notes, Indenture, any supplemental indenture, the Servicing Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and any Hedge Agreements will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of New York.
Tax Status.....	See "Income Tax Considerations."

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Securities involves certain risks. Prospective investors should carefully consider the following factors, in addition to the matters set forth elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum, prior to investing in any Class of Securities.

Investor Suitability

An investment in the Securities will not be appropriate or suitable for all investors. Investors in the Securities could lose their entire investment. Structured investment products, like the Securities, are complex instruments, and typically involve a high degree of risk and are intended for sale only to sophisticated investors who are capable of understanding and assuming the risks involved. Any investor purchasing Securities should conduct its own investigation and analysis of an investment in the Securities and consult with its own professional advisors as to the risks involved in making such investment.

General; Priorities of Securities

The Issuer intends to acquire securities and other financial assets with certain risk characteristics as provided in the Indenture and the Servicing Agreement. See "Security for the Notes." There can be no assurance that the Issuer will be successful in achieving its objectives to ensure that investors receive their initial investments under the Securities and that they receive a return (and avoid any losses, including total losses) on their investment in the Securities. Prospective investors are therefore advised to review this entire Offering Memorandum carefully and should consider, among other things, the following risk factors (along with, among other things, the inherent risks of investment activities) before deciding whether to invest in the Securities.

Except as is otherwise stated below, the risk factors are generally applicable to all the Securities, although the degree of risk associated with each Class of Securities may vary. In particular, the priorities of payment of the Notes are generally in the order of their alphabetic designation from the Class A Notes (the highest priority) to the Class E Notes (the lowest priority), the priorities of payment of the Notes are higher than priorities of payment of the Preference Shares except with respect to the amount, if any, required for payment of Class II Preference Share Special Payments. See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

Relating to the Securities

The Securities Will Have Limited Liquidity

There is currently no market for the Securities. There can be no assurance that a secondary market for any Class of Securities will develop, or if a secondary market does develop, that it will provide the Holders of the applicable Class of Securities with liquidity of investment or that it will continue for the life of such Class of Securities. In addition, each Class of Securities is subject to certain transfer restrictions and can only be transferred to certain transferees as described under "Transfer Restrictions." The restrictions on the transfer of the Securities may further limit their liquidity. The Securities are designed for long-term investors and should not be considered a vehicle for short-term trading purposes. Consequently, an investor in the Securities must be prepared to bear the risk of holding such Securities until their Stated Maturity or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. To the extent that any secondary market exists for the Securities in the future, the price (if any) at which Securities may be sold could be at a discount, which in some cases may be substantial, from the principal amount of the Securities. To the extent any market exists for the Securities in the future, significant delays could occur in the actual sale of Securities. In addition, the Securities will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws, and the Co-Issuers have no plans, and are under no obligation, to register the Securities under the Securities Act. Application is expected to be made to admit each Class of the Notes to the Official List of the ISE. There can be no assurance that any such admission will be granted or maintained.

The Initial Purchasers Will Not Monitor Performance of the Collateral

The Initial Purchasers will have no obligation to monitor the performance of the Collateral Obligations or other Collateral or the actions of the Servicer or the Issuer and will have no authority to direct the action of the Issuer or the Servicer. If an Initial Purchaser or an Affiliate of an Initial Purchaser acts as a Hedge Counterparty or Synthetic Security Counterparty or owns any Securities, it will have no responsibility to consider the interests of any Holder of Securities in actions it takes in such capacity.

The Subordination of the Class A-2 Notes, Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares Will Affect Their Right to Payment in Relation to the More Senior Securities

The Class A-2 Notes will be subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A-1 Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class A-2 Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A-1 Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees and expenses) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class A-2 Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A-1 Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

The Class B Notes will be subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class B Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees and expenses) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class B Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

The Class C Notes will be subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class C Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees and expenses) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class C Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full, except in connection with the payment of any Class C Deferred Interest.

The Class D Notes will be subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class D Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees and expenses) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class D Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full, except in connection with the payment of any Class D Deferred Interest.

The Class E Notes will be subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class E Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees and expenses) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class E Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full, except in connection with the payment of any Class E Deferred Interest and the use of Interest Proceeds to pay principal of the Class E Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class E Coverage Test.

No payments will be made out of Interest Proceeds on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date (other than, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments), until due and unpaid interest on the Notes (including any Deferred Interest) and certain amounts (including certain amounts due under the Hedge Agreements, certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees and expenses) have been paid on the Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments. No payments will be made out of Principal Proceeds on the Preference Shares (other than, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) until principal of each Class of Notes and certain other amounts payable out of Principal Proceeds on each Payment Date have been paid in full. In addition, the Preference Shares will not be redeemed until each Class of Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

In addition, the Co-Issuers will have only nominal equity capitalization. Consequently, to the extent that any losses are suffered by any of the Holders of any Securities, the losses will be borne first by the Holders of the Preference Shares, and then by the Holders of each Class of Notes, sequentially in inverse order of their alphabetic designations.

See "Description of the Securities."

Interest Will Be Deferred on Deferred Interest Notes if There Are Insufficient Funds under the Priority of Payments for Payment of Interest

So long as any Class A Notes or Class B Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class C Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes as Class C Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on the Payment Date when it originally became due will not be an Event of Default. Class C Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds.

So long as any Class A Notes, Class B Notes or Class C Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class D Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class D Notes as Class D Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on the Payment Date when it originally became due will not be an Event of Default. Class D Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds.

So long as any Class A Notes, Class B Notes, Class C Notes or Class D Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class E Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class E Notes as Class E Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on the Payment Date when it originally became due will not be an Event of Default. Class E Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds.

Interest Proceeds May Be Retained in Priority to any Payments to Holders of Preference Shares

During the Replacement Period, if the Retention Overcollateralization Test is not met on any Determination Date, a portion of the Interest Proceeds that might otherwise have been paid to the Holders of the Preference Shares on the related Payment Date will instead be deposited into the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds, as described under clause (19) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds."

The Controlling Class Will Control Many Rights under the Indenture; However, Some Rights of the Controlling Class to Sell the Collateral in Connection with an Event of Default Are Limited

Under the Indenture, many rights of the Holders of the Notes will be controlled by a Majority of the Controlling Class. Remedies pursued by the Holders of the Controlling Class upon an Event of Default could be adverse to the interests of the Holders of Securities subordinated to the Controlling Class. After any realization on the Collateral, proceeds will be allocated in accordance with the Priority of Payments pursuant to which the Notes and certain other amounts owing by the Co-Issuers will be paid in full before any allocation to the Preference Shares (except, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments), and each Class of Notes (along with certain other amounts owing by the Co-Issuers) will be paid sequentially in alphabetic order until it is paid in full before any allocation is made to the next Class of Notes.

The ability of the Controlling Class to direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral is subject to certain limitations. As described under "Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default," if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee must retain the Collateral intact and collect all payments in respect of the Collateral and continue making payments in accordance with the Priority of Payments and in accordance with the Indenture unless either (A) the Trustee, in consultation with the Servicer, determines that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds," and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination, (B) the Holders of a Super Majority of each of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes direct, subject to the provisions of the Indenture, the sale and liquidation of the Collateral or (C) the Class A/B Overcollateralization Ratio is less than 90% and the Holders of a Majority of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class B Notes voting together as a single Class direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral; provided that upon such direction, the Trustee will (x) first sell or liquidate any Collateral for which either (a) two or more bid-side prices have been determined by an Approved Pricing Service or (b) bid-side prices have been obtained from at least two nationally recognized broker-dealers selected by a Majority of the Controlling Class and (y) thereafter will sell or liquidate such remaining Collateral to the extent such Collateral can be liquidated or sold in accordance with the Indenture and applicable law; provided that any Collateral consisting of equity securities or Defaulted Collateral Obligations will not be subject to sale or liquidation pursuant to this clause (C). If any Collateral is sold in accordance with clause (C)(x) above and Highland is the Servicer, the Servicer will have the exclusive right to purchase such Collateral for the first two Business Days from the date the last of such bid-prices was determined by an Approved Pricing Service or obtained from a nationally recognized broker-deal selected by a Majority of the Controlling Class with respect to such Collateral at a price equal to the highest bid-price for such Collateral that was determined by an Approved Pricing Service or obtained from a nationally recognized broker-dealer selected by a Majority of the Controlling Class and, thereafter, the Trustee may sell such Collateral to other parties in accordance with the terms of the Indenture; provided that, in any such case, such sale to the Servicer or to any other party is effected in accordance with applicable law, including all notice and other requirements under the UCC.

Net Proceeds Will be Less Than Aggregate Amount of the Securities

It is anticipated that the proceeds received by the Issuer on the Closing Date from the issuance of the Securities, net of certain fees and expenses, will be less than the aggregate principal amount of the Securities. Consequently, it is anticipated that on the Closing Date the Collateral will be insufficient to repay the full principal amount of the Notes and the Face Amount of the Preference Shares in the event an Event of Default were to occur under the Indenture on or shortly after the Closing Date.

In addition, during the lifetime of the transaction, except as described herein, excess interest will be distributed to the Holders of the Preference Shares, rather than being invested in additional Collateral Obligations. Therefore, it is highly likely that after payments of the Notes and the other amounts payable prior to the Preference Shares under the Priority of Payments, Principal Proceeds will be insufficient to return the initial investment made in the Preference Shares. Therefore, Holders of Preference Shares must rely on distributions of excess interest proceeds to achieve their expected return.

The Issuer is Highly Leveraged, which Increases Risks to Investors

The Issuer will be substantially leveraged. The use of leverage in acquiring assets is a speculative technique which increases the risk to Holders of the Securities, particularly Holders of the subordinated Securities. In certain scenarios, the Notes may not be paid in full and the Preference Shares may be subject to up to 100% loss of invested capital. The leverage provided to the Issuer by the issuance of the Securities will result in interest expense and other costs incurred in connection with the borrowings that may not be covered by the net interest income, dividends and other cash flow in respect of the Collateral Obligations. The use of leverage generally magnifies the Issuer's risk of loss, particularly for the more subordinate Classes of Notes and the Preference Shares. The Preference Shares represent the most junior Securities in a highly leveraged capital structure. As a result, any deterioration in performance of the Collateral, including defaults and losses, a reduction of realized yield or other factors, will be borne first by Holders of the Preference Shares. In addition, the use of leverage can magnify the effects on the Preference Shares of a deterioration in the performance of the Collateral. In certain circumstances, such as in connection with the exercise of remedies following an Event of Default, the Controlling Class may require the Issuer to dispose of some or all of the Collateral Obligations under unfavorable market conditions, thus causing the Issuer to recognize a loss that might not otherwise have occurred. In certain circumstances, the Controlling Class are entitled to direct the sales of Collateral Obligations and may be expected to do so in their own interest, rather than in the interests of the more subordinate Classes of Securities.

Each of the Co-Issuers Is Recently Formed, Has No Significant Operating History, Has No Material Assets Other than the Collateral and Is Limited in Its Permitted Activities

Each of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer is a recently formed entity and has no significant operating history, other than, with respect to the Issuer, in connection with the acquisition of the Collateral Obligations during the period up to the Ramp-Up Completion Date. Accordingly, neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer has a performance history for prospective investors to consider. The performance of other CDO vehicles serviced or advised by the Servicer should not be relied upon as an indication or prediction of the performance of the Issuer. Such other CDO vehicles may have significantly different characteristics, including structures, composition of the collateral pool, objectives, management personnel and terms when compared to the Issuer and the Co-Issuer. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Servicer—Performance History of the Servicer May Not Be Indicative of Future Results."

Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer will have any material assets other than, with respect to the Issuer, the Collateral. The Indenture provides that the Issuer is not permitted to engage in any business activity other than the issuance of the Notes, the Preference Shares and the Issuer Ordinary Shares, the acquisition and disposition of Collateral Obligations, certain activities conducted in connection with the payment of amounts in respect of the Securities and the servicing of the Collateral, and other activities incidental or related to the foregoing and that the Co-Issuer is not permitted to engage in any business activity other than the co-issuance and sale of the Notes, the issuance of its membership interests, and other activities incidental or related to the foregoing. Income derived from the Collateral will be the Issuer's principal source of cash.

The Securities Are Not Registered Under the Securities Act and the Issuer Is Not Registered under the Investment Company Act

The Issuer has not registered and will not register the Securities under the Securities Act and the Issuer is not registered under the Investment Company Act, in each case in reliance upon applicable exemptions to registration under the Securities Act and the Investment Company Act. The Issuer does not expect to register the Securities under the Securities Act nor become registered under the Investment Company Act at any time in the foreseeable future. As such, investors should be aware that the Issuer and the Securities are not subject to many of the regulatory protections and oversight applicable to securities that are registered under the Securities Act or applicable to registered investment companies.

The Notes Are Limited-Recourse Debt Obligations of the Issuer; Investors Must Rely on Available Collections from the Collateral and Will Have No Other Source for Payment

The Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer and non-recourse debt obligations of the Co-Issuer. The Securities are payable solely from the Collateral pledged by the Issuer to secure the Notes. None of the security holders, members, officers, directors, partners, or incorporators of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer, the Initial Purchasers, any Synthetic Security Counterparty, any Hedge Counterparty, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator, the Administrator, the Share Registrar, the Share Trustee, any of their respective affiliates, or any other person will be obligated to make payments on the Notes. The Issuer's ability to make interest payments and principal repayments on the Notes will be constrained by the terms of the Indenture. Holders of the Notes must rely solely on collections received on the Collateral pledged to secure the Notes and for the payment of interest and principal on the Notes, and there can be no assurance that those collections will be sufficient to pay all amounts due on the Notes. If distributions on the Collateral are insufficient to make payments on the Notes, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and, following liquidation of all of the Collateral, the Co-Issuers will not have any obligation to pay any deficiency, which will be extinguished and will not revive.

The Securities will not be Guaranteed by the Initial Purchaser, the Servicer, any Synthetic Security Counterparty, any Hedge Counterparty, the Trustee or any Other Person

None of the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, the Servicer, any Synthetic Security Counterparty, any Hedge Counterparty, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Trustee or any Affiliate thereof makes any assurance, guarantee or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting or otherwise) to investors of ownership of the Securities and no investor may rely on any such person for a determination of expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting or otherwise) to such investor of ownership of the Securities.

The Preference Shares are not Secured Obligations; Investors Must Rely on Available Collections from the Collateral and Will Have No Other Source for Payment

The Preference Shares will be part of the issued share capital of the Issuer. The Preference Shares are equity in the Issuer and are not secured by the Collateral Obligations or other Collateral securing the Notes. As such, the Holders of Preference Shares will rank behind all creditors, whether secured or unsecured and known or unknown, of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the Holders of the Notes, any Synthetic Security Counterparties and any Hedge Counterparties (other than, to the extent described under the "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments," the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares with respect to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments). Except with respect to the obligations of the Issuer to pay the amounts described under the "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" and "—Principal Proceeds," the Issuer does not, however, expect to have any creditors though there can be no assurance that this will be the case. In addition, the Issuer is also subject to limitations with respect to the business that it may undertake. See "The Co-Issuers—Business." Payments in respect of the Preference Shares are subject to certain requirements imposed by Cayman Islands law. Any amounts paid by the Preference Shares Paying Agent as dividends on the Preference Shares will be payable only if the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or balance in the Issuer's share premium account. In addition, dividends and the final payment upon redemption of the Preference Shares will be payable only to the extent that the Issuer is and will remain solvent after such dividends or redemption payment is paid. Under Cayman Islands law, a company is generally deemed to be solvent if it is able to pay its debts as they come due.

The Issuer's obligation to pay dividends or to make other distributions to the Holders of the Preference Shares will therefore not be a secured obligation of the Issuer and such Holders will not be entitled to the benefits of the Indenture, nor will the Trustee have any obligation to act on behalf of the Holders of Preference Shares. With the exception of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments, Holders of the Preference Shares will only be entitled to receive amounts available for payment of dividends or other distributions after payment of all amounts payable on each Class of Notes and certain other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments and only to the extent of distributable profits of the Issuer and/or any balance in the Issuer's share premium account and (in each case) only to the extent that the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distributions.

To the extent the requirements under Cayman Islands law described in the preceding paragraphs are not met, amounts otherwise payable to the Holders of the Preference Shares (with the exception of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) will be retained in the Preference Shares Distribution Account until, in the case of dividends, the next succeeding Payment Date on which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent such requirements are met and, in the case of any payment on redemption of the Preference Shares, the next succeeding Business Day on which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent such requirements are met. Amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares

Distribution Account will not be available to pay amounts due to the Holders of the Notes, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Servicer, any Synthetic Security Counterparty, any Hedge Counterparty or any other creditor of the Issuer whose claim is limited in recourse to the Collateral. However, amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account may be subject to the claims of creditors of the Issuer that have not contractually limited their recourse to the Collateral. The Indenture and the Preference Share Documents will limit the Issuer's activities to the issuance and sale of the Securities, the acquisition and disposition of the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments and the other activities related to the issuance and sale of the Securities described under the "The Co-Issuers." The Issuer therefore does not expect to have any significant full recourse liabilities that would be payable out of amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

The Issuer May Distribute Eligible Equity Securities to the Holders of the Preference Shares in Lieu of Cash

The Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, may direct the Trustee to distribute Eligible Equity Securities, in lieu of a distribution of Interest Proceeds, in whole or in part, to the Holders of the Preference Shares who consent to such distribution with respect to any applicable Payment Date to the extent that the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities, determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date, is equal to or lower than the aggregate amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be distributed to such Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares on the relevant Payment Date. The Market Value of any Eligible Equity Securities is subject to fluctuations and may increase or decrease following any distribution of such Eligible Equity Securities to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares, which, in certain circumstances, may result in the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares receiving overall a higher or lower internal rate of return compared with the internal rate of return received by the Holders of the Preference Shares who have not accepted any distribution of the Eligible Equity Securities.

The Issuer May Not Be Able to Apply Available Funds to Acquire Appropriate Collateral

The amount of Collateral Obligations purchased on the Closing Date, the amount and timing of the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations before the Ramp-Up Completion Date, and the subsequent application of Principal Proceeds, will affect the cash flows available to make payments on, and the return to the Holders of, the Securities. Additionally, the market price of Collateral Obligations on the Closing Date may be less than the price paid by the Issuer during the Accumulation Period and any net losses experienced in respect of any such Collateral Obligation during the period in which they were warehoused will be for the Issuer's account. See "—A Substantial Amount of Collateral Obligations Was Acquired Before the Closing Date, and the Terms of the Acquisition May Adversely Affect the Issuer" below. Reduced liquidity and relatively lower volumes of trading in certain Collateral Obligations, in addition to restrictions on acquisition represented by the Eligibility Criteria, could result in periods during which the Issuer is not able to fully utilize its available cash to acquire Collateral Obligations, and it is unlikely that the Issuer's available cash will be fully applied in Collateral Obligations at any time. The longer the period before application of cash or cash-equivalents to acquire Collateral Obligations and the larger the amount of such cash or cash equivalents, the greater the adverse impact may be on aggregate interest collected and distributed by the Issuer, thereby resulting in lower yield than could have been obtained if the net proceeds associated with the offering of the Securities and all Principal Proceeds were immediately and fully applied. The associated risk will be borne first by the Holders of the Preference Shares and second by the Holders of the Notes (beginning with the most subordinated Class of Notes). Although the Servicer may mitigate this risk to some degree during the Replacement Period by declaring a Special Redemption, the Servicer is not required to do so, and any Special Redemption may result in a lower yield on the Issuer's assets than could have been obtained if the net proceeds from the offering of the Securities and all Principal Proceeds were immediately and fully applied and no Special Redemption had taken place.

Generally, Principal Proceeds (together with Interest Proceeds, but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on Collateral Obligations, and Sale Proceeds received on the Collateral Obligations) will be applied during the Replacement Period (and, Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, may be applied on any date after the Replacement Period, at the discretion of the Servicer) to purchase replacement Collateral Obligations or temporarily held in Eligible Investments pending purchase of replacement Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The earnings with respect to replacement Collateral Obligations will depend, among other factors, on interest rates available in the marketplace at the time and on the availability of Collateral Obligations acceptable to the Servicer that satisfy the criteria under "Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria." The need to satisfy the criteria and identify acceptable Collateral Obligations may require the purchase of replacement Collateral Obligations having lower yields than those initially acquired or require that Principal Proceeds be held temporarily in cash or Eligible Investments, which will reduce the yield earned by the Issuer. Further, issuers of Collateral Obligations may be more likely to exercise any rights they may have to redeem them when interest rates or spreads are declining. Any decrease in the yield on the Collateral Obligations will reduce the amounts available to make payments of principal and interest on the Notes and payments on the Preference Shares.

The Issuer expects that, as of the Closing Date, it will have purchased (or entered into commitments to purchase) an Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations to be included in the anticipated portfolio equal to at least 90% of the Maximum Amount as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date. As such, on the Closing Date, the Issuer is expected to have unapplied proceeds. This will likely reduce the amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be available to distribute to the Holders of the Preference Shares, particularly on the first Payment Date. If the Issuer issues additional Preference Shares after the Closing Date, the Issuer would likely have unapplied proceeds of the offering, pending the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations. The extent to which cash balances remain unapplied will be subject to a variety of factors, including future market conditions and is difficult to predict.

The Issuer and the Initial Purchasers Will Not be Required to Provide Valuation Information

Neither the Issuer, the Initial Purchasers nor any other party will be required to provide periodic pricing or valuation information to investors regarding the Securities or the Collateral. Therefore, investors must be prepared to make their own determination on the value of the Securities they hold or on the Collateral.

The Securities Will be Subject to Substantial Transfer Restrictions

The Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act, under any U.S. state securities or "Blue Sky" laws, or under the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and are being issued and sold in reliance upon exemptions from registration provided by those laws. No Securities may be sold or transferred unless: the sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act (for example, in reliance on exemptions provided by Rule 144A or Regulation S) and applicable state securities laws; and the sale or transfer does not cause either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral to become subject to the registration requirements of the Investment Company Act. See "Transfer Restrictions" and "Certain ERISA Considerations."

Non-Compliance with Restrictions on Ownership of the Securities and Acquisition or Disposition of Collateral Obligations under the Investment Company Act Could Adversely Affect the Issuer

Neither of the Co-Issuers has registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") as an investment company pursuant to the Investment Company Act in reliance on an exclusion from the definition of "investment company" under Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act for companies organized under the laws of a jurisdiction other than the United States or any of its states whose investors residing in the United States are solely "qualified purchasers" (within the meaning given to such term in the Investment Company Act and related SEC regulations).

The Issuer may, at any time following the Closing Date, rely on exclusion from the definition of "investment company" under Rule 3a-7 in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7) upon (a) receipt of an opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm providing that neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer is required to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act in reliance on such exclusion under Rule 3a-7 and (b) notice to the Holders of the Securities in accordance with the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. In connection with this alternate reliance, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents may be amended without the consent of any Holders to prevent the Issuer from becoming an "investment company" as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7). There can be no assurance that the Issuer will satisfy the requirements of Rule 3a-7 or that any investor will be able to treat the Issuer as excluded from the definition of "investment company" in reliance on Rule 3a-7. See "—Restrictions on Acquisition or Disposition of Collateral Obligations May Reduce the Earnings of the Holders of the Securities" and "—The Servicer May Cause the Issuer to Amend the Indenture to Assure Compliance with Rule 3a-7 Without the Consent of the Holders of the Securities in a Manner that May Adversely Affect the Holders of Securities" below.

No opinion or no-action position with respect to the registration of either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral under the Investment Company Act has been requested of, or received from, the SEC. If the SEC or a court of competent jurisdiction were to find that the Issuer or the Co-Issuer is required, but in violation of the Investment Company Act had failed, to register as an investment company, possible consequences include the following: (i) the SEC could apply to a district court to enjoin the violation; (ii) investors in the Issuer or the Co-Issuer could sue the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, and recover any damages caused by the violation; and (iii) any contract to which the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, is party whose performance involves a violation of the Investment Company Act would be unenforceable by any party to the contract unless a court were to find that under the circumstances enforcement would produce a more equitable result than non-enforcement and would not be inconsistent with the purposes of the Investment Company Act.

In addition, the Issuer's being required to register as an investment company would result in an Event of Default. See "Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default." Should the Issuer or the Co-Issuer be subjected to any or all of the foregoing, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, would be materially and adversely affected.

Restrictions on Acquisition or Disposition of Collateral Obligations May Reduce the Earnings of the Holders of the Securities

Rule 3a-7 imposes limitations on the ability of the Issuer to purchase or sell assets, including prohibiting the Issuer from purchasing or selling assets for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. Regardless of whether the Issuer relies on the exclusion from the definition of "investment company" under Rule 3a-7, the Indenture will restrict the Issuer from purchasing and selling assets in accordance with criteria intended to be consistent with requirements of Rule 3a-7. Compliance with Rule 3a-7 may limit the Issuer's ability to enter into Synthetic Securities to the extent otherwise permitted by the Eligibility Criteria. In addition, under these restrictions the Issuer may be required to hold a Collateral Obligation or precluded from acquiring a Collateral Obligation when it would have sold such Collateral Obligation or acquired such Collateral Obligation, as applicable, had it based such determination on the market value changes in the value of such Collateral Obligations. As a result, greater losses on the Collateral may be sustained and there may be insufficient proceeds on any Payment Date to pay in full any expenses of the Issuer or any amounts payable to the Trustee or the Administrator (all of which amounts are payable prior to payments in respect of the Notes) and the payments due on the Securities. See "Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations."

The Servicer May Cause the Issuer to Amend the Indenture to Assure Compliance with Rule 3a-7 Without the Consent of the Holders of the Securities in a Manner That May Adversely Affect the Holders of Securities

On the Closing Date, HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries will purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares. The Servicer will act as the manager for HFP. HFP, for purposes unrelated to the transactions contemplated herein, may need to rely on an exception from the definition of "investment company" and the requirement to register under the Investment Company Act that in turn depends upon the Issuer not being an investment company required to register under the Investment Company Act by reason of Rule 3a-7 thereunder in lieu of the Issuer's reliance on Section 3(c)(7). It is expected that, in connection with certain capital raising activities of HFP, the SEC may consider the applicability of Rule 3a-7 to the Issuer. If it were determined that the Issuer cannot rely on Rule 3a-7, the Servicer may cause the Issuer to amend the Indenture without the consent of the Holders of the Notes and without the consent of the Holders of the Preference Shares to enable the Issuer to rely on Rule 3a-7 or to better assure compliance therewith, which could require additional limitations and prohibitions on the circumstances under which the Issuer may sell assets, on the type of assets that the Issuer may acquire out of the proceeds of assets that mature, are refinanced or otherwise sold, on the period during which such transactions may occur, on the level of transactions that may occur or on other provisions of the Indenture and could adversely affect the earnings of the Issuer and its ability to make payments on the Notes and distributions to the Preference Shares. As a condition to the effectiveness of any such amendment to the Indenture, the Issuer, the Trustee and the Servicer will receive (i) a Rating Confirmation with respect to such amendment and (ii) a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such amendment and assuming compliance with the Indenture as so amended, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act in reliance on such exemption under Rule 3a-7. Such nationally recognized law firm may also be acting as counsel to the Servicer, certain Holders of Notes and/or Preference Shares. The interests of any such parties may not align with the interest of other Holders of Notes and/or Preference Shares. See "Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Supplemental Indenture."

The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary

The Stated Maturity of the Notes is November 1, 2021 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date. The weighted average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years until their Stated Maturity. See "Description of the Securities." The weighted average life of a Class of Notes will be affected by the amount and timing of payments of principal of the Notes and the amount and timing of payments received on the Collateral Obligations. The amount and timing of payments of principal on the Notes will be affected by, among other things, any Optional Redemption of the Notes, any Refinancing of the Notes, a failure of any Coverage Test, a Rating Confirmation Failure, any failure by the Servicer to apply the proceeds of the offering of the Securities in Collateral Obligations, a redemption of the Securities made in connection with a Tax Event, any Special Redemption of one or more Classes of Notes, and an Event of Default by the Issuer in the payment of the Notes and an acceleration of the principal of the Notes in connection with an Event of Default. The occurrence of any of the foregoing unscheduled principal repayments of the Notes is, in turn, determined by the amount and timing of payments on the Collateral, which will be dependent on, among other things, the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral and the characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, including the existence and frequency of exercise of any prepayment, optional redemption, or sinking fund features, the prevailing level of interest rates, the redemption price, the actual default rate and the actual level of recoveries on any Defaulted Collateral Obligations, the frequency of tender or exchange offers for the Collateral Obligations and any sales of Collateral Obligations, dividends or other distributions received on any obligations that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange do not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation, as well as the risks unique to Collateral Obligations of foreign issuers. A shortening of the average life of the Notes may adversely affect returns on the Preference Shares. See "Security for the Notes."

The Collateral Obligations actually acquired by the Issuer may be different from those expected to be purchased by the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, due to market conditions, availability of such Collateral Obligations and other factors. The actual portfolio of Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer will change from time to time as a result of sales and purchases of Collateral Obligations.

A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected

Under the Indenture, the Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, will be entitled, on each Extension Effective Date, to extend the Replacement Period (a maximum of four times) to the applicable Extended Replacement Period End Date if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Replacement Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. Under the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents, if the Replacement Period is so extended, the Stated Maturity of the Notes (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date) will be equally extended and the Weighted Average Life Test will be automatically extended without the requirement for any approval or consent of any Holders of Securities. Holders of Securities will not be able to prevent or prohibit the extension of the Stated Maturity of the Notes (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date) so long as the Extension Conditions are satisfied, which include the ability of Holders of Securities to sell their Securities at the designated purchase price to a designated purchaser under the Indenture. However, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Indenture provides that Holders of Preference Shares that have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12.0% as of the Extension Effective Date will not receive any payment in exchange for their Preference Shares sold in connection with a Maturity Extension.

As a consequence, if the Servicer elects to extend the Replacement Period and the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Holders of the Securities must either hold their Securities for a significantly longer period of time than initially expected or sell their Securities at the applicable purchase price under the Indenture.

An Amendment Buy-Out May Result in a Shorter Holding Period Than Expected

Any Non-Consenting Holder of Securities with respect to an amendment of the Indenture (which includes Holders that fail to respond to a consent solicitation within the applicable period) may be forced to sell its applicable Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Securities. However, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Indenture provides that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price will be zero for Non-Consenting Holders that have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12.0% as of the Amendment Buy-Out Date. See "Description of the Securities—Amendment Buy-Out." Given these features, a Holder's ability to affect or influence the amendment process through voting against such amendment may be limited, while the Servicer's ability to affect or influence the amendment process may be enhanced.

The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests

If any of the Coverage Tests are not satisfied on any Determination Date on which the Notes of the relevant Class are Outstanding, Interest Proceeds available on the related Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments (and, to the extent Interest Proceeds are insufficient, Principal Proceeds available on the Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments) are required to be applied to pay principal of the relevant Class of Notes (and any Classes senior to it) to the extent necessary for the relevant Coverage Test to be satisfied. The application of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds to pay principal of the Notes to the extent necessary to restore the Coverage Tests to certain minimum required levels could result in an elimination, deferral or reduction in the amounts available to make distributions on the Preference Shares and interest and principal payments on one or more classes of Notes, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of the Securities.

The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure

If a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, Interest Proceeds and, if Interest Proceeds are insufficient, Principal Proceeds, are required to be diverted in accordance with the Priority of Payments and used to pay the principal of the Notes sequentially in order of their relative priority on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date after that until each rating is reinstated. The application of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds to pay principal of the Notes to the extent necessary for one or more ratings to be reinstated could result in an elimination, deferral, or reduction in one or more payments or distributions on one or more Classes of Securities, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of those Classes of Securities.

The Indenture Permits Special Redemption of Notes Based on the Servicer's Inability to Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations

The Servicer is permitted under the Indenture to elect to have all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations applied to a Special Redemption of the Notes, in whole or in part, on one or more Payment Dates during the Replacement Period because it has been unable, for a period of at least 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional or replacement Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Servicer in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the application of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be used to purchase additional or replacement Collateral Obligations. On the Special Redemption Date, in accordance with the Indenture, the Special Redemption Amount will be applied in accordance with "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds," to the extent available (which includes for this purpose unapplied proceeds specified by the Servicer), to pay the principal of the Notes. The application of funds in that manner could result in an elimination, deferral, or reduction of amounts available to make payments on Securities subordinate in priority to the Securities being amortized. See "Description of the Securities—Special Redemption of Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture."

The Notes Are Subject to Optional Redemption

Subject to satisfaction of certain conditions, on any Payment Date upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the applicable Required Redemption Percentage may require that the Notes be redeemed as described under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption." In the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Servicer may be required to aggregate Collateral Obligations to be sold together in one block transaction, thereby possibly resulting in a lower realized value for the Collateral Obligations sold. There can be no assurance that the market value of the Collateral will be sufficient for the applicable Required Redemption Percentage to direct an Optional Redemption of the Notes. A decrease in the market value of the Collateral would adversely affect the Sale Proceeds from their sale. Consequently, the conditions precedent to the exercise of an Optional Redemption may not be met. Moreover, the Holders of the Notes may not be able to invest the proceeds of the redemption of the Notes in investments providing a return equal to or greater than the return the Holders of the Notes expected to obtain from their investment in the Notes.

The Notes are Subject to Redemption by Refinancing

The Indenture provides that any Class of the Notes may be redeemed in whole, but not in part, on any Payment Date after the Non-Call Period from Refinancing Proceeds subject to the satisfaction of certain requirements. See "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Redemption by Refinancing." Accordingly, a more junior Class of Notes may be redeemed from Refinancing Proceeds in whole even if a more senior Class of Notes remains outstanding. Holders of Notes that are refinanced (or otherwise optionally redeemed) may not be able to reinvest the proceeds of such Notes in assets with comparable interest rates or maturity. An optional redemption from Refinancing Proceeds may also result in a shorter investment than a Holder of Notes may have anticipated.

Future Ratings of the Notes Are Not Assured and Limited in Scope; the Preference Shares Are Not Rated

It is a condition to the issuance of the Notes that they be rated as provided under "Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities." A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and is subject to revision or withdrawal at any time. There is no assurance that a rating will remain for any given period or that a rating will not be lowered or withdrawn entirely by each Rating Agency if in its judgment circumstances in the future so warrant. Any such action could have an adverse effect on the Holders of the relevant Class of Securities. If a rating initially assigned to a Class of Notes is subsequently lowered for any reason, no person is obligated to provide any additional credit support or credit enhancement. The ratings of the Notes are based on the assumption that no Maturity Extension occurs at any time.

No rating of the Preference Shares will be sought or obtained in connection with their issuance.

Holders of Beneficial Interests in Global Notes will not be Considered "holders" Under the Indenture

Holders of beneficial interests in any Securities held in global form will not be considered holders of such Securities under the Indenture. DTC will be the sole holder for any such Securities, and therefore each beneficial owner of a Security held in global form must rely on the procedures of DTC (and, in the case of beneficial interests in (Regulation S Global Notes) Euroclear or Clearstream) to exercise any rights of a holder of a Security under the Indenture.

The Issuer Could Be Subject to Tax on a Net Income Basis

The Issuer expects to conduct its affairs so that its income generally will not be subject to tax on a net income basis in the United States or any other jurisdiction. There are no restrictions on the location from which the Servicer may perform its duties under the Servicing Agreement and performance of such duties from certain locations could subject the Issuer to state, local or foreign net income or franchise tax. The Issuer also expects that payments received on the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments generally will not be subject to withholding taxes imposed by the United States or other countries from which such payments are sourced. The Issuer's income might become subject to net income or withholding taxes in the United States or other jurisdictions due to unanticipated circumstances, a change in law, contrary positions of relevant taxing authorities or other causes. Payments with respect to any equity securities held by the Issuer likely will be subject to withholding taxes imposed by the United States or other countries from which such payments are sourced. In addition, the Issuer may hold up to ten Synthetic Letters of Credit acquired in connection with the acquisition of a Loan issued under the same credit facility. Whether payments received with respect to such Synthetic Letters of Credit are subject to United States withholding tax is unclear. The imposition of unanticipated withholding taxes or tax on the Issuer's net income could materially impair the Issuer's ability to make payments on the Securities. See "Income Tax Considerations".

Issuer Not Obligated to Gross-Up

The Issuer expects that payments on the Securities ordinarily will not be subject to any withholding tax in the Cayman Islands, the United States or any other jurisdiction. If withholding or deduction of taxes is required in any jurisdiction, neither Co-Issuer shall be under any obligation to make any additional payments to the holders of Securities in respect of such withholding or deduction.

Holders of Preference Shares Should Consider Tax Treatment

Because the Issuer will be a passive foreign investment company, a U.S. person holding Preference Shares may be subject to additional taxes unless it elects to treat the Issuer as a qualified electing fund and to recognize currently its proportionate share of the Issuer's income. The Issuer also may be a controlled foreign corporation, in which case U.S. persons holding Preference Shares could be subject to different tax treatments.

Purchasers of the Class I Preference Shares should note that, because of the priority given to the Class II Preference Shares in respect of certain distributions, U.S. persons holding Class I Preference Shares that make a QEF election could pay taxes on their pro rata share of earnings even though the related cash is distributed to holders of the Class II Preference Shares. See "Income Tax Considerations".

Restrictions Will Be Placed On Benefit Plan Investors

Certain transactions involving the Co-Issuers in the ordinary course might be deemed to constitute "prohibited transactions" under the United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), and Section 4975 of the Code with respect to Benefit Plan Investors (as defined in "Certain ERISA Considerations") that purchase the Securities, if assets of the Issuer and/or the Co-Issuer were deemed to be "plan assets" subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code or Similar Law (as defined in "Certain ERISA Considerations"). The Issuer intends to restrict ownership of the Preference Shares by Benefit Plan Investors so that no assets of the Issuer will be deemed to be "plan assets" of a plan subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. Specifically, the Issuer, in reliance on purchaser and transferee representations and deemed representations, intends to restrict the acquisition of the Preference Shares so that less than 25% of the aggregate outstanding amount of each of the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares will be held by Benefit Plan Investors (determined without regard to those Preference Shares held by Controlling Persons (as defined in "Certain ERISA Considerations")), such as the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares held by the Servicer or its affiliates and employees thereof). In this regard, although Section 3(42) of ERISA provides that an entity is considered to hold plan assets only to the extent of the percentage of the equity interest held by Benefit Plan Investors, 100% of Preference Shares, as applicable, held by an entity that is a Benefit Plan Investor (including an insurance company whose general account assets are treated as "plan assets") will be treated as Preference Shares, as applicable, held by a Benefit Plan Investor. However, there can be no assurance that the ownership of any of the the Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares by Benefit Plan Investors will always remain below the 25% threshold established under the Plan Asset Regulation (as defined in "Certain ERISA Considerations").

Although the Co-Issuers believe that the Notes should be classified as indebtedness (rather than as equity) for purposes of the Plan Asset Regulation (as defined in "Certain ERISA Considerations") (and thus will allow more than 25% of each class of Notes to be purchased by Benefit Plan Investors), there can be no assurance that the Notes will be so characterized, and the characterization of one or more classes of the Notes could change if the financial condition of the Co-Issuers changes or other terms and conditions of the Notes change.

If the Benefit Plan Investor ownership of any of the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares were to meet or exceed the 25% threshold described above, or any class of the Notes were characterized as equity and such threshold were exceeded with respect to such class, resulting in the assets of the Co-Issuers being deemed to be "plan assets," certain transactions that the Co-Issuers might enter into, or may have entered into, in the ordinary course of business, might constitute non-exempt prohibited transactions under ERISA and/or Section 4975 of the Code and might have to be rescinded. Additionally, the Co-Issuers or other "parties in interest" (as defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA) or "disqualified persons" (as defined in Section 4975(e)(2) of the Code) may be subject to other penalties and liabilities with respect to the transaction.

In addition, the acquisition or holding of the Securities by or on behalf of a plan subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code could give rise to a prohibited transaction if any of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Initial Purchasers, other persons providing services in connection with the Co-Issuers, or any of their respective affiliates, is a "party in interest" or "disqualified person" with respect to that plan. The acquisition or holding of Securities by a governmental, foreign or church plan subject to laws substantially similar to the provisions of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code could constitute a violation of such similar laws. If such transaction is not exempt from ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code or, if applicable, substantially similar laws pertaining to governmental, foreign or church plans, the transaction may have to be rescinded and the Co-Issuers or other "parties in interest" or "disqualified persons" may be subject to other penalties with respect to the transaction. Therefore, each investor in the Securities will be required or deemed to represent and warrant that either (i) it is not, and is not using the assets of, and throughout the holding and disposition of such Securities will not become or transfer its interest to, a plan subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, or an entity that is deemed to hold assets of any of the foregoing or a governmental, foreign or church plan which is subject to any federal, state, foreign or local law that is substantially similar to the provisions of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code or (ii) its purchase, holding and disposition of such Securities will not result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, a violation of any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law) because such purchase, holding and disposition either (x) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws or (y) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all of the conditions of which are and will be satisfied upon the acquisition of, and throughout its holding and disposition of such Securities.

Any transfer in violation of the foregoing representations will be treated as having no force and effect and will be null and void ab initio, potentially causing loss to the investor purchasing in violation of these representations.

See "Certain ERISA Considerations" herein for a more detailed discussion of certain ERISA and related considerations with respect to an investment in the Securities by an employee benefit plan or similar plan or arrangement.

Relating to the Servicing Agreement

The Servicing Agreement May Be Amended Without the Consent of Holders of Securities Whether or Not Such Amendment Adversely Affects Holders of Securities

The Issuer may, at the request of the Servicer, enter into an amendment or modification of the Servicing Agreement from time to time, without the consent of the Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not the interests of the Holders of the Securities are adversely affected thereby; provided that, with respect to any such amendment or modification, (a) the Rating Condition is satisfied and (b) a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares have not objected in writing to such amendment or modification by delivering a notice to the Trustee prior to the relevant Objection Cut-Off Date. Holders of the Securities other than Holders of the Controlling Class of Notes and Holders of the Preference Shares will have no ability to vote against any such amendment or modification. The ability of the Holders of the Controlling Class of Notes and Holders of the Preference Shares to influence the amendment process is limited to the right of a Majority of either such Class to object as described above. To the extent that less than a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares object to the proposed amendment or modification, the Servicer may request that the Issuer enter into such amendment or modification and the Trustee consent thereto, without regard to the fact that certain Holders of the Securities may have objected to such proposed amendment or modification.

The Servicing Agreement Cannot be Delegated Except to Entities Controlled by Certain Key Persons

The Servicing Agreement, and any obligations or duties of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement, cannot be delegated by the Servicer, in whole or in part, except to any entity that (i) is controlled by any of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers and (ii) is one in which any of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers is involved in the day to day management and operations (and in any such case pursuant to an instrument of delegation in form and substance satisfactory to the Issuer), without the prior written consent of the Issuer, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) and a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares and, notwithstanding any such consent, no delegation of obligations or duties by the Servicer (including, without limitation, to an entity described above) shall relieve the Servicer from any liability under the Servicing Agreement.

Relating to the Servicer

The Issuer Will Depend on the Expertise Available to the Servicer and its Key Personnel

The performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations depends heavily on the skills of the Servicer in analyzing, selecting and monitoring the Collateral Obligations. As a result, the Issuer will be highly dependent on the financial and servicing experience of certain professionals associated with the Servicer, none of whom is under a contractual obligation to the Issuer to continue to be associated with the Servicer for the term of this transaction. The loss of one or more of these individuals could have a material adverse effect on the performance of the Co-Issuers. Furthermore, the Servicer has informed the Issuer that these professionals are also actively involved in other activities and will not be able to devote all of their time to the Issuer's business and affairs. In addition, individuals not currently associated with the Servicer may become associated with the Servicer and the cash-flow performance of the Collateral Obligations may also depend on the financial and servicing experience of such individuals. See "The Servicing Agreement" and "The Servicer."

The Issuer Will Have Limited Control of the Administration and Amendment of Collateral Obligations

The Servicer will cause the Issuer to exercise or enforce, or refrain from exercising or enforcing, its rights in connection with the Collateral Obligations or any related documents or will refuse amendments or waivers of the terms of any Collateral Obligation and related documents in accordance with its ordinary business practices as if the Servicer were administering the Collateral Obligations for its own account. The authority of the Servicer to cause the Issuer to change the terms of the Collateral Obligations will generally not be restricted by the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement. As a result, the Issuer will be relying on the Servicer's customary standards, policies and procedures with respect to the servicing of the Collateral Obligations. The Holders of the Securities and the Issuer will not have any right to compel the Issuer or the Servicer to take or refrain from taking any actions other than in accordance with its ordinary business practices.

In addition, when the Issuer holds a Participation, the Issuer generally will have no right to enforce compliance by the borrower with the loan or credit agreement or other instrument evidencing the related loan obligation, no rights of set-off against the borrower, no direct interest in the collateral supporting the loan obligation, and no right to vote with respect to amendments of, or waivers of defaults under, the loan obligation. An acquisition by the Issuer of a Synthetic Security related to a Loan involves many of the same considerations relevant to Participations. See "—Relating to the Collateral Obligations—Loans Involve Particular Risks" and "—Synthetic Securities Involve Particular Risks" below.

A modification that would increase the commitment of a lender, reduce the interest rate, or postpone the final maturity of an obligation under a participation agreement, or release all of the collateral for an obligation, generally requires the affirmative vote of the Participating Institution for a loan in which the Issuer owns a Participation, or of the Issuer for a Loan purchased by assignment, for the increase, reduction, or postponement to be binding. The exercise of remedies may also be subject to the vote of a specified percentage of the lenders under the loan obligation. The Servicer will have the authority to cause the Issuer to consent to certain amendments, waivers, or modifications to the Collateral Obligations requested by obligors or the lead agents for participation agreements relating to Participations (subject to operating procedures intended to reduce the risk that the Issuer would be deemed to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States for United States federal income tax purposes). The Servicer may, subject to the transaction documents, cause the Issuer to extend or defer the maturity, adjust the outstanding balance of any Collateral Obligation, reduce or forgive interest or fees, release material collateral or guarantees, or otherwise amend, modify, or waive the terms of any related loan agreement, including its payment terms. The Servicer will make determinations in accordance with its servicing standards under the Servicing Agreement. Any amendment, waiver, or modification of a Collateral Obligation could postpone the expected maturity of the Notes or the expected redemption date of the Preference Shares, or reduce the likelihood of timely and complete payment of interest or principal under the Notes or a full return of an investment in the Preference Shares.

Performance History of the Servicer May Not Be Indicative of Future Results

Any prior results of the Servicer, and the persons associated with it or any other entity may not be indicative of the Issuer's future results. The nature of, and risks associated with, the Issuer's future assets may differ substantially from those assets historically associated with the Servicer, and the persons associated with it or any other entity. There can be no assurance that the Issuer's assets will perform as well as the past assets serviced or managed by the Servicer, and the persons associated with it or any other entity. Moreover, since the criteria that govern the acquisition of the Collateral Obligations do not govern the Servicer's activities generally, the acquisition and disposition of Collateral Obligations conducted in accordance with the criteria contained in the Indenture, and the results they yield, may differ substantially from other assets serviced or managed by the Servicer.

Other accounts, collateralized debt obligations or other funds managed or serviced by the Servicer that are similar to the Issuer ("Other Debt Funds") have been structured to comply with the exemption from registration under the Investment Company Act provided by Section 3(c)(7) thereunder, whereas the Issuer is also structured to comply with the exemption from registration provided by Rule 3a-7 under the Investment Company Act and may in the future, subject to the conditions described herein, rely exclusively on such exemption from registration provided by Rule 3a-7. Rule 3a-7 requires certain additional limitations and restrictions on the buying and selling of assets of the Issuer that are not applicable to the assets of the Other Debt Funds relying on the Section 3(c)(7) exemption from registration. As a result, the Issuer's ability to react to changes in market value of the assets is more limited and the returns on the Issuer's assets and the Securities, including the returns on the Preference Shares, may not be comparable to, and may differ materially from, the performance of the Other Debt Funds.

Notwithstanding the inapplicability of the results obtained and expected to be obtained from the past activities of the Servicer, a period of increased volatility in market conditions, including interest rate environments, can have an adverse effect on the realized and unrealized returns to investors in the past products of the Servicer. There can be no assurance that current economic conditions and the effects of increased interest rate and corresponding price volatility will not adversely impact the investment returns ultimately realized by investors or continued compliance with, among other things, applicable coverage requirements described in this Offering Memorandum.

Relating to the Collateral Obligations

In General, the Collateral Obligations Are Subject to Various Risks

The Collateral Obligations are subject to credit, liquidity, and interest rate risks, among others. The Eligibility Criteria and the Collateral Quality Tests have been established to address certain assumed deficiencies in payment occasioned by defaults with respect to the Collateral Obligations. If any deficiencies exceed certain modeled scenarios, however, payments or distributions on the Securities could be adversely affected. To the extent that a default occurs with respect to any Collateral Obligation securing the Notes and the Issuer (on the advice of the Servicer) sells or otherwise disposes of the Collateral Obligation, it is not likely that the proceeds of the sale or other disposition will be equal to the amount of principal and interest owing to the Issuer on the Collateral Obligation.

The value of the Collateral Obligations generally will fluctuate with, among other things, the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral Obligations and, with respect to Synthetic Securities, both the financial condition of the related Synthetic Security counterparties and the obligors on or issuers of the Reference Obligations, general economic conditions, the condition of certain financial markets, political events, developments or trends in any particular industry, and changes in prevailing interest rates.

The ability of the Issuer to sell Collateral Obligations before their maturity is subject to certain restrictions under the Indenture including those described under "Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations."

Below Investment-Grade Obligations Involve Particular Risks

A substantial amount of the Collateral Obligations will consist of loans, bonds and other obligations that are below investment grade, including high-yield loans and securities. Those Collateral Obligations will have greater credit and liquidity risk than investment-grade obligations. They are also often unsecured and may be subordinated to certain other obligations of their issuer. The lower rating of those Collateral Obligations reflects a greater possibility that adverse changes in the financial condition of an issuer or in general economic conditions or both may impair the ability of their issuer to make payments of principal or interest. These Collateral Obligations may be speculative.

Risks of below investment-grade Collateral Obligations may include (among others):

- (i) limited liquidity and secondary market support;
- (ii) in the case of fixed-rate high-yield debt securities, substantial market place volatility resulting from changes in prevailing interest rates;
- (iii) subordination to the prior claims of senior lenders and creditors;
- (iv) the operation of mandatory sinking fund or call and redemption provisions during periods of declining interest rates that could cause the Issuer to apply premature redemption proceeds in lower-yielding debt obligations;
- (v) the possibility that earnings of the below investment-grade issuer may be insufficient to meet its debt service; and
- (vi) the declining creditworthiness and potential for insolvency of a below investment-grade issuer during periods of rising interest rates and economic downturn.

An economic downturn or an increase in interest rates could severely disrupt the market for below investment-grade obligations and could adversely affect the value of outstanding below investment-grade obligations and the ability of their issuers to repay principal and interest.

Issuers that are below investment grade may be highly leveraged and may not have available to them more traditional methods of financing. The risk associated with obligations of below investment-grade issuers is generally greater than is the case with investment-grade issuers. For example, during an economic downturn or a sustained period of rising interest rates, below investment-grade issuers may be more likely to experience financial stress, especially if they are highly leveraged. During those periods, timely service of debt obligations may also be adversely affected by specific issuer developments, or the issuer's inability to meet specific projected business forecasts or the unavailability of additional financing. The risk of loss from default by the issuer is significantly greater for the holders of below investment-grade obligations because those obligations may be unsecured and may be subordinated to obligations owed to other creditors of the issuer. Further, bankruptcy and similar laws applicable to issuers of the Collateral Obligations may limit the amount of any recovery in respect of a Collateral Obligation if its issuer is insolvent and may also adversely affect the timing of receipt of any recovery to which the Issuer may be entitled. In addition, the Issuer may incur additional expenses to the extent it is required to seek recovery upon a default on such an obligation or participate in its restructuring.

As a result of the limited liquidity of below investment-grade obligations, their prices have at times experienced significant and rapid decline when a substantial number of holders decided to sell. In addition, it may be difficult or impossible for the Issuer to dispose of certain below investment-grade obligations in a timely manner because there may be a thin trading market for them. Even if it is possible to dispose of such Collateral Obligations, it is unlikely that the proceeds of such disposition would equal the unpaid principal and interest thereof. To the extent that a secondary trading market for below investment-grade obligations does exist, it is generally not as liquid as the secondary market for highly rated obligations. Reduced secondary market liquidity may have an adverse impact on the Issuer's ability to dispose of particular Collateral Obligations in response to a specific economic event, such as a deterioration in the creditworthiness of the issuer of the Collateral Obligation.

All risks associated with the Issuer's purchase of such Collateral Obligations will be borne by the Holders of the Securities in reverse order of seniority, beginning with the Preference Shares as the most junior Class.

Effect of Portfolio Diversification Limited for Junior Classes

The Indenture will require that certain levels of diversification are maintained or improved in connection with purchases of Collateral Obligations. The Collateral Obligations are expected to consist primarily of below investment grade debt obligations. To the extent that below investment grade debt obligations as an asset class generally underperform or experience increased levels of credit losses or market volatility, the Collateral Obligations will likely experience credit losses and losses in connection with sales even with significant issuer and industry diversification. In addition, given the leveraged capital structure of the Issuer, any losses resulting from defaults and/or trading losses will be borne first by the Preference Shares, as the most junior Class. Because the value of the obligations of any single issuer or industry sector will represent a higher percentage of the issuance price, as the case may be, of the Preference Shares (or any other junior Class) than it represents in relation to the aggregate principal amount of the total portfolio, there can be no assurance that the diversification guidelines of the Indenture will be effective in minimizing losses on the junior Classes of Securities, particularly the Preference Shares.

Loans Involve Particular Risks

The Collateral Obligations will consist primarily of Dollar-denominated senior secured and senior unsecured loans, which are required by the Indenture to be obligations of corporations, partnerships, or other entities organized under the laws of the United States (or any of its states) or of foreign obligors meeting specified criteria, or Synthetic Securities the Reference Obligations of which are such loans. See "Security for the Notes—Collateral Obligations."

Loans may become non-performing for a variety of reasons. Non-performing loans may require substantial workout negotiations or restructuring that may entail, among other things, a substantial reduction in the interest rate or a substantial write-down of the principal of a loan. In addition, because of the unique and customized nature of a loan agreement and the private syndication of a loan, loans typically may not be purchased or sold as easily as publicly traded securities, and historically the trading volume in the bank term loan market has been small relative to the corporate bond market. Loans may encounter trading delays due to their unique and customized nature, and transfers may require the consent of an agent bank or borrower. Consequently, there can be no assurance that there will be any market for any Loan if the Issuer is required to sell or otherwise dispose of such Loan. Depending on the terms of the underlying loan documentation, consent of the borrower may be required for an assignment, and a purported assignee may not have any direct right to enforce compliance by the obligor with the terms of the loan agreement in the absence of this consent.

The Issuer may acquire interests in loans either directly (by assignment) or indirectly (by Participation or through Synthetic Securities). The Issuer may not originate any loans. The purchaser of an assignment of a loan obligation typically succeeds to all the rights and obligations of the Participating Institution and becomes a lender under the loan or credit agreement with respect to the debt obligation. In contrast, a Participation acquired by the Issuer in a portion of a loan obligation held by a Participating Institution or a security or other debt obligation typically results in a contractual relationship only with the Participating Institution, not with the borrower. The Issuer would have the right to receive payments of principal, interest, and any fees to which it is entitled under a Participation only from the Participating Institution and only upon receipt by the Participating Institution of those payments from the borrower. Participating Institutions commonly reserve the right to administer the Participations sold by them as they see fit (unless their actions constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct) and to amend the documentation evidencing the obligations in all respects. However, most participation agreements provide that the Participating Institutions may not vote in favor of any amendment, modification or waiver that forgives principal, interest or fees, reduces principal, interest or fees that are payable, postpones any payment of principal (whether a scheduled payment or a mandatory prepayment), interest or fees or releases any material guarantee or security without the consent of the participant (at least to the extent the participant would be affected by any such amendment, modification or waiver). Participating Institutions voting in connection with a potential waiver of a restrictive covenant may have interests different from those of the Issuer, and such Participating Institutions might not consider the interests of the Issuer in connection with their votes. In addition, many participation agreements that provide voting rights to the holder of the Participation further provide that if the holder does not vote in favor of amendments, modifications or waivers, the selling lender may repurchase such Participation at par. The Issuer will be subject to restrictions on the amount of Participations that may be acquired for inclusion in the Collateral. See "Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria."

Holders of Participations are subject to additional risks not applicable to a holder of a direct interest in a loan. In the event of the insolvency of the Participating Institution, under the laws of the United States and the various States thereof, a holder of a Participation may be treated as a general creditor of the Participating Institution and may not have any exclusive or senior claim with respect to the Participating Institution's interest in, or the collateral with respect to, the loan. Consequently, the holder of a Participation will be subject to the credit risk of the Participating Institution as well as of the borrower. Participants also often do not benefit from the collateral (if any) supporting the loans in which they have a participation interest because Participations often do not provide a purchaser with direct rights to enforce compliance by the borrower with the terms of the loan agreement or any rights of set-off against the borrower. The Servicer is not required, and does not expect, to perform independent credit analyses of the Participating Institutions.

Certain of the loans in the Issuer's portfolio may be unsecured or secured by collateral worth less than the outstanding balance of the loan. In addition to the general risks associated with loans described above, unsecured loans will not be secured by substantial collateral or any collateral and secured loans may be substantially under-secured. Without collateral and with materially inadequate collateral, the ability of the holder of the loan to recover amounts due from the borrower may be substantially limited.

Recent Developments in the Loan Market.

Recent developments in the loan market, in particular, in connection with the financing of leveraged buy-outs, have resulted in lenders making loans that do not require the borrower to maintain debt service or other financial ratios or that do not contain common restrictions on the ability of the borrower to change significantly its operations or to enter into other significant transactions that could affect its ability to repay such loans. A portion of the loans acquired by the Issuer (directly or through Participations) may consist of such loans and the Issuer may enter into Synthetic Securities referencing such borrower or such loans. Such loans may expose the lenders to greater credit risk than loans that contain more extensive covenants and may affect the lenders' ability to restructure loans or to mitigate potential losses and acquiring such loans or entering into Synthetic Securities referencing such borrower or such loan may subject the Issuer to greater credit risk.

Risks Associated with Applying Proceeds of Dispositions

The Issuer's income will decline if and when the Issuer applies the proceeds from matured, prepaid, sold or called Collateral Obligations into lower yielding instruments. A decline in income will affect the amount available for distributions on the Securities. Subject to criteria described herein, the Servicer will have discretion to use Principal Proceeds to purchase Collateral Obligations in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria and other requirements for the acquisition of Collateral Obligations described herein. The yield with respect to such Collateral Obligations will depend on, among other factors, interest rates available at the time, the availability of assets satisfying the Eligibility Criteria and acceptable to the Servicer, and market conditions related to leveraged Loans and high yield bonds in general. The need to satisfy the Eligibility Criteria and other requirements for the acquisition of Collateral Obligations described herein and identify acceptable assets may require the purchase of Collateral Obligations with a lower yield than those replaced, with different characteristics than those replaced (including, but not limited to, coupon, spread, maturity, call features and/or credit quality) or require that such funds be maintained in Eligible Investments pending such replacement of Collateral Obligations, which will further reduce the yield on the Collateral Obligations. Any decrease in the yield on the Collateral Obligations will have the effect of reducing the amounts available to make distributions on the Securities, especially the most junior Class of Securities. There can be no assurance that in the event Collateral Obligations are sold, prepaid, called, or mature, yields on Collateral Obligations that are available and eligible for purchase will be at the same levels as those replaced, that the characteristics of any Collateral Obligations purchased will be the same as those replaced or as to the timing of the purchase of any such Collateral Obligations.

Leveraged Loans and privately placed high yield bonds are not as easily (or as quickly) purchased or sold as publicly traded securities for a variety of reasons, including confidentiality requirements with respect to obligor information, the customized non-uniform nature of loan agreements and private syndication. The reduced liquidity and lower volume of trading in such debt obligations, in addition to restrictions on purchase represented by the Eligibility Criteria, could result in periods of time during which the Issuer is not able to fully apply its cash to purchase Collateral Obligations. The longer the period before the application of cash to purchase Collateral Obligations, the greater the adverse impact will be on aggregate Interest Proceeds collected and distributed by the Issuer, including on the Securities, especially the most junior Class of Securities, thereby resulting in lower yields than could have been obtained if proceeds were immediately applied. In addition, leveraged Loans are often prepayable by the borrowers with no, or limited, penalty or premium. As a result, leveraged Loans generally prepay more frequently than other corporate obligations of the same borrower. Senior leveraged Loans usually have shorter terms than more junior obligations and often require mandatory repayments from excess cash flow, asset dispositions and offerings of debt and/or equity securities. The increased levels of prepayments and amortization of leveraged Loans increase the associated replacement risk on the Collateral Obligations which risk will first be borne by Holders of the Securities, beginning with the Preference Shares as the most junior Class.

Defaults and Market Volatility

To the extent that a default occurs with respect to any Collateral Obligation and the Issuer sells or otherwise disposes of that Collateral Obligation, it is likely that the proceeds will be less than its unpaid principal, interest or its purchase price. This could have a material adverse effect on the payments on the Securities. The Issuer also may incur additional expenses to the extent it is required to seek recovery after a default or participate in the restructuring of an obligation. Even in the absence of a default with respect to any of the Collateral Obligations, the market value of the Collateral Obligation at any time will vary, and may vary substantially, from the price at which that Collateral Obligation was initially purchased and from the principal amount of such Collateral Obligation, due to market volatility, changes in relative credit quality, general economic conditions, the level of interest rates, changes in exchange rates, the supply of below investment grade debt obligations and other factors that are difficult to predict. In addition, the Indenture places significant restrictions on the Servicer's ability to buy and sell Collateral Obligations which restrictions may be greater if amendments are made to assure compliance with Rule 3a-7. See "—The Servicer May Cause the Issuer to Amend the Indenture to Assure Compliance with Rule 3a-7 Without the Consent of the Holders of the Securities in a Manner that May Adversely Affect the Holders of Securities".

The market price of below investment grade debt obligations may from time to time experience significant volatility. During certain periods, this market has experienced significant volatility with respect to market prices, a significant increase in issues trading at distressed levels, a significant increase in default rates, and a significant decrease in recovery rates. No assurance can be given that volatility in the below investment grade debt market will not continue in the future. Such volatility can adversely impact the liquidity, market prices and other performance characteristics of leveraged Loans and high yield bonds.

Structured Finance Obligations Involve Particular Risks

A portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of Structured Finance Obligations. Structured Finance Obligations may present risks similar to those of the other types of Collateral Obligations which the Issuer may purchase and, in fact, the risks may be of greater significance in the case of Structured Finance Obligations. Moreover, purchasing Structured Finance Obligations may entail a variety of unique risks. Among other risks, Structured Finance Obligations may be subject to prepayment risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk, structural risk, legal risk and interest rate risk (which may be exacerbated if the interest rate payable on a Structured Finance Obligation changes based on multiples of changes in interest rates or inversely to changes in interest rates). In addition, certain Structured Finance Obligations (particularly subordinated collateralized bond obligations) may provide that non-payment of interest is not an event of default in certain circumstances and the holders of the securities will therefore not have available to them any associated default remedies. During the period of non-payment, unpaid interest will generally be capitalized and added to the outstanding principal balance of the related security. Furthermore, the performance of a Structured Finance Obligation will be affected by a variety of factors, including its priority in the capital structure of its issuer, the availability of any credit enhancement, the level and timing of payments and recoveries on and the characteristics of the underlying receivables, loans, or other assets that are being securitized, bankruptcy remoteness of those assets from the originator or transferor, the adequacy of and ability to realize on any related collateral, and the skill of the manager or the servicer of the Structured Finance Obligation in managing or servicing securitized assets. The price of a Structured Finance Obligation, if required to be sold, may be subject to certain market and liquidity risks for securities of its type at the time of sale. In addition, Structured Finance Obligations may involve initial and ongoing expenses above the costs associated with the related direct purchases.

Synthetic Securities Involve Particular Risks

A portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of Synthetic Securities the Reference Obligations of which are Loans, Structured Finance Obligations or High-Yield Bonds. Although it is not expected that any of the Collateral Obligations will consist of Synthetic Securities as of the Closing Date, after the Closing Date the Issuer may enter into Synthetic Securities with a notional amount of up to 15.0% of the Maximum Amount. However, the ability of the Issuer to enter into Synthetic Securities up to such extent may be limited to the extent the Issuer purchases and sells assets in accordance with criteria intended to be consistent with Rule 3a-7 under the Investment Company Act.

Acquiring these types of assets through the purchase of Synthetic Securities present risks in addition to those inherently associated with direct purchases of such assets. With respect to Synthetic Securities, the Issuer will usually have a contractual relationship only with the counterparty of the relevant Synthetic Security, and not the reference obligor on the Reference Obligation. The Issuer will have no right to enforce compliance by the reference obligor with the Reference Obligation nor any rights of set-off against the reference obligor, nor have any voting or other consensual rights of ownership with respect to the Reference Obligation. The Issuer will not directly benefit from any collateral supporting the Reference Obligation and will not have the benefit of the remedies that would normally be available to a holder of the Reference Obligation.

In addition, in the event of the insolvency of any Synthetic Security Counterparty, the Issuer will be treated as a general creditor of such counterparty and will not have any claim of title with respect to the Reference Obligation. Consequently, the Issuer will be subject to the credit risk of the counterparty as well as that of the reference obligor and concentrations of Synthetic Securities entered into with any one counterparty will subject the Securities to an additional degree of risk with respect to defaults by that counterparty. One or more Affiliates of the Initial Purchasers may act as counterparty with respect to all or a portion of the Synthetic Securities, which relationship may create certain conflicts of interest. See "—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Initial Purchasers" below. In addition, Synthetic Securities may involve initial and ongoing expenses above the costs associated with the related direct acquisitions. The Issuer will be subject to restrictions on the amount of Synthetic Securities it may own at any one time.

Some of the Collateral Obligations Will Be Illiquid

Some of the Collateral Obligations purchased by the Issuer will have no, or only a limited, trading market. The Issuer's acquisition of illiquid Collateral Obligations may restrict its ability to dispose of Collateral Obligations in a timely fashion and for a fair price, as well as its ability to take advantage of market opportunities, although the Issuer is generally prohibited by the Indenture from selling Collateral Obligations except under certain limited circumstances described under "Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations." Illiquid Collateral Obligations may trade at a discount from comparable, more liquid assets. The market for below investment grade debt obligations may become illiquid from time to time as a result of adverse market conditions, regulatory developments or other circumstances. In addition, the Issuer may purchase privately placed Collateral

Obligations that may or may not be freely transferable under the laws of the applicable jurisdiction or due to contractual restrictions on resale, and even if those privately placed Collateral Obligations are transferable, the prices realized from their sale could be less than those originally paid by the Issuer or less than what may be considered their fair value.

Insolvency Considerations With Respect to Issuers of Collateral Obligations May Affect the Issuer's Rights

Various laws enacted for the protection of creditors may apply to the Collateral Obligations. If, in a lawsuit brought by a creditor or representative of creditors of an obligor under a Collateral Obligation (such as a trustee in bankruptcy), a court were to find that the obligor did not receive fair consideration or reasonably equivalent value for incurring the indebtedness evidenced by the Collateral Obligation and, after giving effect to the indebtedness and the use of the proceeds thereof, the obligor (i) was insolvent, (ii) was engaged in a business for which the remaining assets of the obligor constituted unreasonably small capital or (iii) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay them as they mature, the court could determine to invalidate, in whole or in part, the indebtedness as a fraudulent conveyance, to subordinate the indebtedness to existing or future creditors of the obligor, or to recover amounts previously paid by the obligor in satisfaction of the indebtedness. There can be no assurance as to what standard a court would apply to determine whether the obligor was "insolvent" or that, regardless of the method of valuation, a court would not determine that the obligor was "insolvent," in each case, after giving effect to the incurrence of the Collateral Obligation and the use of its proceeds. In addition, in the event of the insolvency of an obligor under a Collateral Obligation, payments made on the Collateral Obligation may be subject to avoidance as a "preference" if made within a certain period before insolvency (which may be as long as approximately one year).

In general, if payments on a Collateral Obligation are avoidable, whether as fraudulent conveyances or preferences, the payments can be recaptured either from the initial recipient (such as the Issuer) or from subsequent transferees of the payments (such as the Holders of the Securities). To the extent that any payments are recaptured from the Issuer, the resulting reduction in payments on the Securities will be borne by the Holders of the Securities beginning with the Preference Shares as the most junior Class of Securities. A court in a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding would be able to direct the recapture of any payment from a Holder of the Securities to the extent that the court has jurisdiction over the Holder or its assets. Since there is no judicial precedent relating to structured securities such as the Securities, there can be no assurance that a Holder of Securities will be able to avoid recapture on this basis.

The preceding discussion is based on principles of United States federal and state laws. Insofar as Collateral Obligations that are obligations of non-United States obligors are concerned, the laws of certain foreign jurisdictions may provide for avoidance remedies under factual circumstances similar to, or broader or narrower than, those described above, with consequences that may or may not be analogous to those described above under United States federal and state laws.

Collateral Obligations consisting of obligations of non-U.S. issuers may be subject to various laws enacted in their home countries for the protection of debtors or creditors, which could adversely affect the Issuer's ability to recover amounts owed. These insolvency considerations will differ depending on the country in which each issuer is located and may differ depending on whether the issuer is a non-sovereign or a sovereign entity.

International Collateral Obligations Involve Particular Risks

A portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of obligations of obligors Domiciled outside the United States. Acquiring assets outside the United States may involve greater risks than acquiring assets in the United States. These risks may include: less publicly available information; varying levels of governmental regulation and supervision; and the difficulty of enforcing legal rights in a foreign jurisdiction and uncertainties as to the status, interpretation and application of laws. Moreover, foreign companies may be subject to accounting, auditing, and financial reporting standards, practices, and requirements different from those applicable to U.S. companies.

There generally is less governmental supervision and regulation of exchanges, brokers and issuers in foreign countries than there is in the United States. For example, there may be no comparable provisions under certain foreign laws with respect to insider trading and similar investor protection securities laws that apply with respect to securities transactions consummated in the United States.

Foreign markets also have different clearance and settlement procedures, and in certain markets there have been times when settlements have failed to keep pace with the volume of securities transactions, making it difficult to conduct transactions. Delays in settlement could result in periods when assets of the Issuer are unapplied and no return is earned on them. The inability of the Issuer to make intended purchases of Collateral Obligations due to settlement problems or the risk of intermediary counterparty failures could cause the Issuer to miss opportunities to acquire Collateral Obligations. The inability to dispose of a Collateral Obligation due to settlement problems could result either in losses to the Issuer due to subsequent declines in the value of the Collateral Obligation or, if the Issuer has entered into a contract to sell the security, could result in possible liability to the purchaser. Transaction costs of buying and selling foreign securities, including brokerage, tax, and custody costs, also are generally higher than those involved in domestic transactions. Furthermore, foreign financial markets, while generally growing in volume, have, for the most part, substantially less volume than U.S. markets, and securities of many foreign companies are less liquid and their prices more volatile than securities of comparable domestic companies.

In certain foreign countries there is the possibility of expropriation, nationalization, or confiscatory taxation; limitations on the convertibility of currency or the removal of securities, property, or other assets of the Issuer; political, economic, or social instability; or adverse diplomatic developments, each of which could have an adverse effect on the Issuer's purchase of Collateral Obligations in the foreign countries (which may make it more difficult to pay Dollar-denominated obligations such as the Collateral Obligations). The economies of individual non-U.S. countries may also differ favorably or unfavorably from the U.S. economy in such respects as growth of gross domestic product, rate of inflation, volatility of currency exchange rates, depreciation, capital reinvestment, resource self-sufficiency and balance of payments position.

Lender Liability Considerations and Equitable Subordination Can Affect the Issuer's Rights with Respect to Collateral Obligations

In recent years, a number of judicial decisions in the United States have upheld the right of borrowers to sue lenders and bondholders on the basis of various evolving legal theories (collectively termed "lender liability"). Generally, lender liability is founded on the premise that a lender has violated a duty (whether implied or contractual) of good faith and fair dealing owed to the debtor or has assumed a degree of control over the debtor resulting in the creation of a fiduciary duty owed to the debtor or its other creditors or shareholders. Because of the nature of the Collateral Obligations, the Issuer may be subject to allegations of lender liability. In addition, under common law principles that in some cases form the basis for lender liability claims, a court may elect to subordinate the claim of the offending lender to the claims of the disadvantaged creditors, a remedy called "equitable subordination," if a lender: (i) intentionally takes an action that results in the undercapitalization of a borrower to the detriment of other creditors of the borrower; (ii) engages in other inequitable conduct to the detriment of the other creditors; (iii) engages in fraud with respect to, or makes misrepresentations to, the other creditors; or (iv) uses its influence as a lender to dominate or control a borrower to the detriment of other creditors of the borrower.

Because the Collateral Obligations are primarily Loans, the Issuer may be subject to claims from creditors of an obligor that Collateral Obligations issued by the obligor that are held by the Issuer should be equitably subordinated. However, the Servicer does not intend to engage in conduct that would form the basis for a successful cause of action based on lender liability or the equitable subordination doctrine. Nonetheless, no assurances can be given that actions taken in good faith by the Servicer will not result in losses to issuers of Collateral Obligations, and that the Issuer will not be liable for any such losses. Furthermore, the Issuer and the Servicer may be unable to control the conduct of lenders under a loan syndication agreement requiring less than a unanimous vote, yet the Issuer may be subject to lender liability or equitable subordination for such conduct.

The preceding discussion is based on principles of United States federal and state laws. Insofar as Collateral Obligations that are obligations of non-United States obligors are concerned, the laws of certain foreign jurisdictions may impose liability on lenders or bondholders under factual circumstances similar to, or broader or narrower than, those described above, with consequences that may or may not be analogous to those described above under United States federal and state laws.

Notes May Be Affected by Interest Rate Risks, Including Mismatches Between the Notes and the Collateral Obligations

The Notes bear interest at a rate based on LIBOR as determined on the second Business Day prior to the first day of the relevant Interest Period. The Collateral Obligations will consist primarily of obligations that bear interest at floating rates, which floating rates may be different than the floating rates on the Floating Rate Notes. Accordingly, the Notes are subject to interest rate risk to the extent that there is an interest rate mismatch between the rates at which interest accrues on the Notes and the rates at which interest accrues on the Collateral. In addition, there may be a timing mismatch between the Floating Rate Notes and the Floating Rate Obligations as the interest on the Floating Rate Obligations may adjust more or less frequently, on different dates and based on different indices than the interest rates on the Floating Rate Notes. Furthermore, any payments of principal of or interest on Collateral received during a Due Period will (except to a limited extent specified in the Indenture) be held in Eligible Investments maturing not later than the Business Day immediately preceding the next Payment Date. There is no requirement that Eligible Investments bear interest at LIBOR or a similar rate, and the interest rates available for Eligible Investments are inherently uncertain. As a result of these mismatches, an increase or decrease in LIBOR for the relevant maturity could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to make interest payments on the Notes (including due to a rise or a decline in the value of previously issued Collateral Obligations or other Collateral that bear interest at a fixed rate as LIBOR decreases or increases, as applicable) and to make distributions or final distributions on the Preference Shares. To mitigate a portion of the interest rate mismatch, the Issuer may enter into Hedge Agreements that are (in the case of Hedge Agreements entered into on or after the Closing Date) subject to a Rating Confirmation. However, there can be no assurance that the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments, together with the Hedge Agreements, will in all circumstances generate sufficient Interest Proceeds to make timely payments of interest on the Notes. Moreover, the benefits of any Hedge Agreements may not be achieved in the event of the early termination of the Hedge Agreements, including termination upon the failure of the related Hedge Counterparty to perform its obligations under the Hedge Agreement. Although any Hedge Counterparty will be a highly rated institution at the time of entering into the applicable Hedge Agreement, there can be no assurance that it will meet its obligations under the applicable Hedge Agreement. In addition, the actual principal balance of any rate mismatch between the Collateral Obligations and the Notes may not exactly match the notional balance under any Hedge Agreement. All risks associated with any rate or notional balance mismatch will be borne by the Holders of the Securities, beginning with the Preference Shares as the most junior Class. See "Security for the Notes—Hedge Agreements."

The Servicer may direct the Issuer to reduce the notional amount of, or otherwise adjust the terms of, any Hedge Agreement outstanding at any time, subject, in the case of any reduction or adjustment made on or after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, to obtaining a Rating Confirmation.

The Issuer Has the Right to Engage in Securities Lending, which Involves Counterparty Risks and Other Risks

The Collateral Obligations may be loaned for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) that have, or are guaranteed by entities that have, long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or a guarantor with those ratings at the time of the loan, of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A" from S&P. See "Security for the Notes—Securities Lending." The loans must be secured by cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America and maintained as provided in the related Securities Lending Agreement. However, if the borrower of a loaned Collateral Obligation defaults on its obligation to return the loaned Collateral Obligation because of insolvency or otherwise, the Issuer could experience delays and costs in gaining access to the collateral posted by the borrower (and in extreme circumstances could be restricted from selling the collateral). If the borrower defaults, the Issuer could suffer a loss to the extent that the realized value of the cash or securities securing the obligation of the borrower to return a loaned Collateral Obligation (less expenses) is less than the amount required to purchase the Collateral Obligation in the open market. This shortfall could be due to, among other factors, discrepancies between the mark-to-market and actual transaction prices for the loaned Collateral Obligations arising from limited liquidity or availability of the loaned Collateral Obligations and, in extreme circumstances, the loaned Collateral Obligations being unavailable at any price.

The Rating Agencies may downgrade any of the Notes if a borrower of a Collateral Obligation or, if applicable, the entity guaranteeing the performance of the borrower has been downgraded by one of the Rating Agencies such that the Issuer is not in compliance with the Securities Lending Counterparty rating requirements. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Initial Purchasers or Affiliates of the Servicer, which may create certain conflicts of interest. See "—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer" and "—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Initial Purchaser" below.

A Substantial Amount of Collateral Obligations Was Acquired Before the Closing Date, and the Terms of the Acquisition May Adversely Affect the Issuer

In anticipation of the issuance of the Securities, one of the Initial Purchasers (the "Pre-Closing Participant") is financing the acquisition of Collateral Obligations by the Issuer during an accumulation period before the Closing Date (the "Accumulation Period") pursuant to a warehousing and participation agreement. The participations acquired by the Pre-Closing Participant will be repurchased by the Issuer on the Closing Date to the extent not yet acquired by prior thereto. Furthermore, in return for bearing the risk of loss on the Collateral Obligations acquired prior to the Closing Date, the Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates will each be entitled to a share of the interest and any fees and commissions (net of any other amounts payable to the Pre-Closing Participant in connection with its financing of the acquisition of Collateral Obligations) paid by the obligors under such obligations or accrued on such obligations, from the time of purchase through the Closing Date, plus a share of the amount by which any realized net gains exceed any realized net losses on Collateral Obligations sold or fully repaid during the Accumulation Period, in each case, in proportion to the percentage of Preference Shares each such party purchases on the Closing Date. There can be no assurance that the market value of any such Collateral Obligation on the Closing Date will be equal to or greater than the price paid by the Issuer during the Accumulation Period, and any net losses, and, except to the extent described above, net gains, experienced in respect of any such Collateral Obligation during the period in which they were warehoused will be for the Issuer's account. The market value of a Collateral Obligation at any time will vary, and may vary substantially, from the price at which that Collateral Obligation was initially purchased and from the principal amount of such Collateral Obligation, due to market volatility, changes in relative credit quality, general economic conditions, the level of interest rates, changes in exchange rates, the supply of below investment grade debt obligations and other factors that are difficult to predict. See "—Defaults and Market Volatility"

Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest

In General, the Transaction Will Involve Various Potential and Actual Conflicts of Interest

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall servicing, advisory and other activities of the Servicer and its Affiliates and from the conduct by the Initial Purchasers and their respective Affiliates of other transactions with the Issuer, including acting as counterparty with respect to Hedge Agreements, Securities Lending Agreements, and Synthetic Securities. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

The Holders of the Class II Preference Shares Control Appointment and Removal of Directors of the Issuer

HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries are expected to purchase all of Class II Preference Shares on the Closing Date. Class II Preference Shares will control the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer as long as the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date is higher than the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date. The Class I Preference Shares will have no voting rights with respect to the appointment or removal of directors. If the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date does not exceed the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date, the Issuer Ordinary Shares will be entitled to vote with respect to the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer. As of the Closing Date, the Class II Preference Shares Outstanding will constitute a Majority of the Preference Shares Outstanding. Any transfer of Class II Preference Shares by HFP or any of its subsidiaries to any Person other than HFP or any of its subsidiaries will require redesignation by the Share Registrar of such Class II Preference Shares as Class I Preference Shares. If at any time, due to such redesignation upon sale of any Class II Preference Shares by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding is reduced so that it is equal to or lower than the number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding, Class II Preference Shares will automatically become non-voting shares and will no longer be entitled to vote with respect to the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer (and, in such case, the directors will be appointed in accordance with the definition of "Board of Directors").

As long as Class II Preference Shares retain the voting rights with respect to the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer, HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries that have purchased such Class II Preference Shares will be able to appoint and remove any of the directors. The directors appointed by HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries may be Affiliates of HFP or the Servicer. No Holders of the Securities will have any right to vote with respect to such appointments and removals of directors of the Issuer other than the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares for as long as Class II Preference Shares retain the voting rights with respect to the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer.

The Holders of the Class II Preference Shares May Control or Prevent Removal of the Servicer, Appointment of a Replacement Servicer and Optional Redemption or Refinancing of the Notes

The Class II Preference Shares to be purchased by HFP or any of its subsidiaries at closing are expected to constitute a Majority of the Preference Shares. As long as HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries hold a Majority of the Preference Shares, HFP and such subsidiaries will hold the controlling vote on any decision to be made under the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement that requires a Majority of the Preference Shares (and does not exclude from voting Preference Shares held by the Servicer or its Affiliates) and will hold a blocking position with respect to any decision that requires a higher percentage of Preference Shares.

Pursuant to the Servicing Agreement, such agreement may be terminated and the Servicer may be removed by the Issuer, if directed by the Trustee (acting at the direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes) or by a Super Majority of the Preference Shares (excluding Preference Shares held by the Servicer, any of its Affiliates or any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority other than, with respect to the Class II Preference Shares, HFP or any of its subsidiaries; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of the Class II Preference Shares owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote will not be excluded only if such vote is determined by a vote of the majority of the "independent directors" (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiaries and certified in writing to the Preference Shares Paying Agent by any of the "independent directors" of HFP) of HFP or such subsidiaries) (each such non-excluded Preference Share, a "Voting Preference Share"), in each case for "cause" upon 10 days' prior written notice. Further, the Issuer's ability to appoint a successor servicer is subject to, among other things, the written direction of a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares. As such, if the Class II Preference Shares continue to constitute a Majority of Preference Shares, HFP and any of its subsidiaries that hold Class II Preference Shares will collectively control the ability of the Holders of the Preference Shares to both remove the Servicer for "cause" and appoint the Servicer's replacement. Since HFP is managed by the Servicer, HFP may have a conflict of interest and may be less likely to exercise these rights than the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares. In such case, should the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares believe that "cause" exists to remove the Servicer, the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares may prevent their ability to do so.

The Holders of a Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares may give written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer and the Servicer directing an optional redemption of the Notes upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period. After such Notes are retired, the Holders of a Majority or of all of the Preference Shares (depending on the form of redemption) may effect an optional redemption of the Preference Shares. As a result of the foregoing, and so long as they hold a controlling block of Preference Shares, the vote of HFP and/or its applicable subsidiaries will be required to redeem the Securities. As an entity managed by the Servicer, HFP may once again have interests that differ from those of the Class I Preference Shares. Should the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares seek to redeem the Securities, the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares may prevent their ability to do so.

In addition, at any time after the Non-Call Period, upon a proposal by the Servicer, the Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares may consent to a redemption of any Class of Notes pursuant to a Refinancing. As a result of the foregoing, and so long as they hold a controlling block of Preference Shares, the vote of HFP and/or its applicable subsidiaries will be required for such Refinancing. If the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares seek a redemption of Notes pursuant to Refinancing, the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares could prevent their ability to achieve this.

The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall activities of the Servicer, its Affiliates and the subsidiaries of HFP. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

On the Closing Date, (i) HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries are expected to purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares directly from the Issuer and all or a portion of the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes and (ii) the Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates is expected to purchase certain of the Class I Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes. The Initial Purchasers will not be acting as Initial Purchasers with respect to such Class II Preference Shares purchased by HFP or any of HFP's subsidiaries. On the Closing Date, the Servicer will be reimbursed by the Issuer for certain of its expenses incurred in connection with the organization of the Issuer (including legal fees and expenses). In addition, a broker-dealer Affiliate of the Servicer may receive a fee for placing certain of the Securities.

Conflicts of interest may arise for the Servicer with respect to its obligations to the Issuer from the overall activities of the Servicer, its Affiliates and the subsidiaries of HFP, for the accounts of its other clients. For example, the Servicer, its Affiliates and their respective clients and the subsidiaries of HFP may acquire loans, securities, and other obligations that would be appropriate for inclusion in the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations, as well as in loans, securities, and other obligations that are senior to, or have interests different from or adverse to, assets that are pledged to secure the Notes. Furthermore, Affiliates of the Servicer may serve as general partners or managers of special-purpose entities organized to issue other collateralized loan obligations ("CLOs") secured primarily by corporate loans and collateralized debt obligations ("CDOs") secured by corporate debt obligations or asset backed securities. The Servicer and its Affiliates may also have ongoing relationships with, render services to, or engage in transactions with, companies whose loan obligations or securities are pledged to secure the Notes and may now or in the future own (as portfolio assets or otherwise) loan obligations or equity or debt securities issued by issuers of or obligors on, Relevant Obligations or other Collateral. An Affiliate of the Servicer may earn fees with respect to financial advisory services rendered to companies in connection with workouts or the subsequent restructuring of such companies. Such fees and advice may continue for a period of time after any such workout or restructure. The Issuer may own an interest in the securities of such companies. The Servicer will endeavor to resolve conflicts with respect to opportunities in a manner that it deems equitable to the extent possible under the prevailing facts and circumstances.

The Servicer and its Affiliates may possess information relating to issuers of Relevant Obligations or other Collateral that (i) may constrain the Issuer's asset acquisition as a consequence of the Servicer's inability to use such information for asset acquisition purposes or otherwise to take actions that would be in the best of interests of the Issuer or (ii) is not known to the employees of the Servicer responsible for monitoring the Collateral and performing the other obligations of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement. The Servicer, its Affiliates and their respective clients and the subsidiaries of HFP may at certain times be simultaneously seeking to purchase or dispose of assets for the respective accounts of the Issuer, any similar entity for which it serves as manager or advisor, and for its clients or Affiliates.

Neither the Servicer nor any of its Affiliates has any affirmative obligation to offer any assets to the Issuer or to inform the Issuer of any assets before offering any assets to other funds or accounts that the Servicer or any of its Affiliates manage or service. Furthermore, the Servicer may be bound by affirmative obligations in the future, whereby the Servicer is obligated to offer certain assets to funds or accounts that it manages or services before or without the Servicer offering those assets to the Issuer.

Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer will have received from the Servicer such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Servicer, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (iii) such transaction is permitted by the United States Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the "Advisers Act"). The Servicing Agreement also provides that the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Servicer, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (ii) permitted by the Advisers Act.

The Servicer currently serves as the servicer or portfolio manager for a number of special purpose vehicles that have issued securities secured by or referencing collateral consisting of assets similar to the Relevant Obligations, which may create conflicts in allocating its time and services among the Issuer and the Servicer's other accounts. The Servicer and its Affiliates and the subsidiaries of HFP may own equity or other securities of issuers of or obligors on Collateral Obligations or other Collateral and may have provided and may provide in the future, advisory and other services to issuers of Collateral. In addition, the Servicer and its Affiliates may act as the Securities Lending Counterparty under any Securities Lending Agreement entered into by the Issuer.

The Servicer may resign at any time and may be removed for cause by the Issuer, if directed by the Trustee (acting at the direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes) or by a Super Majority of the Voting Preference Shares. Upon the resignation or removal of the Servicer, the Issuer, at the written direction of a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares, may appoint a replacement servicer if (x) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes held by the Servicer, its Affiliates or any account over which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority other than HFP or any of its subsidiaries; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of Notes owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote will not be excluded only if such vote is determined by a vote of the majority of the "independent directors" (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiaries and certified in writing to the Trustee by any of the "independent directors" of HFP) of HFP or such subsidiaries) (each such non-excluded Note, a "Voting Note") or (y) a Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Voting Notes (voting as a single Class) do not object to the replacement servicer. See "The Servicing Agreement." Securities held by the Servicer, its Affiliates or any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority (other than HFP or any of its subsidiaries) will have no voting rights with respect to any vote in connection with removal of the Servicer for "cause" and appointment of a replacement servicer and will be deemed not to be outstanding in connection with any vote to remove the Servicer for "cause" and to appoint a replacement servicer; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of Class II Preference Shares or Notes owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote will be determined by a vote of the majority of the "independent directors" (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiary) of HFP or such subsidiary. Except to the extent specified otherwise, Securities held by the Servicer, its Affiliates or any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority at the time of such vote will have voting rights with respect to all other matters as to which the Holders of the Securities are entitled to vote, including any vote to direct an Optional Redemption or a Refinancing. See "The Servicing Agreement", "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption" and "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Redemption by Refinancing."

On the Closing Date, (i) HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries are expected to purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes and (ii) Highland Capital or one or more of its Affiliates (other than HFP or any of its subsidiaries) are expected to purchase certain of the Class I Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes. In addition, the Servicer or its Affiliates may also acquire Securities upon the occurrence of an Amendment Buy-Out or a Maturity Extension or Notes upon the occurrence of a Refinancing as described herein. To the extent that the interests of the Holders of the Notes differ from the interests of the Holders of the Preference Shares, the holding of Preference Shares by the Servicer or its Affiliates may create additional conflicts of interest.

The Servicer will be entitled to receive the Senior Servicing Fee, the Subordinated Servicing Fee and the Supplemental Servicing Fee, as further described herein. The structure of such fees may cause the Servicer to direct the Issuer to purchase more speculative Collateral Obligations than it would otherwise acquire in the absence of such performance based compensation. See "The Servicing Agreement."

In addition to acting as Servicer to the Issuer, Highland Capital will act as manager for HFP, which will, on the Closing Date, purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares. Because Highland Capital will receive both a Servicing Fee from the Issuer for servicing the Collateral and a management fee from HFP for managing HFP's assets, which will include the Class II Preference Shares (and therefore a residual interest in the Collateral), Highland Capital may, at its discretion, waive a portion of its Servicing Fees from the Issuer or may elect to receive such Servicing Fees in their entirety. Accordingly, the Servicer may elect to waive a portion (or all) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event such amount will be distributed by the Issuer to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments; provided that with respect to the Payment Date in May 2008 such Class II Preference Share Special Payments will, at a minimum, include amounts that would otherwise constitute a portion of the Servicing Fees that have accrued from the Closing Date through February 3, 2008. The Class II Preference Shares and the Class I Preference Shares will vote together as a single class. Receipt of Servicing Fees in the form of dividends on Class II Preference Shares may cause HFP to have different incentives from the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares.

The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Initial Purchasers

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall activities of the Initial Purchasers and their Affiliates. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

The Initial Purchasers will receive certain fees for arranging and structuring the transaction and placing the Securities pursuant to an engagement letter entered into by the Initial Purchasers with the Servicer.

The Initial Purchasers and their Affiliates are involved in a wide range of commercial banking, investment banking and other activities (including investment management, corporate finance and securities issuing, trading and research) from which conflicting interests or duties may arise. Thus, the Initial Purchasers and their Affiliates may have had in the past and may in the future have business relationships and dealings with one or more issuers of the Relevant Obligations and their Affiliates and may own equity or debt securities issued by such issuers or their Affiliates. It is expected that the Initial Purchasers and/or their Affiliates may have acted as agent on a syndicated loan facility relating to Relevant Obligations, placed or underwritten and may in the future place or underwrite certain of the Relevant Obligations at original issuance, may own or may in the future own equity or other securities of issuers of or obligors on Relevant Obligations or will have provided and may in the future provide investment banking services, advisory, banking and other services to issuers of Relevant Obligations and may have received or may in the future receive compensation for such services. In addition, the Initial Purchasers and their Affiliates may buy securities from and sell securities to an issuer of Relevant Obligations or its Affiliates for its own account or for the accounts of its customers. The Initial Purchasers and their Affiliates may also have provided and in the future may provide commercial or investment banking or other services to the Servicer and its Affiliates.

The Initial Purchasers and their Affiliates may be actively engaged in purchases and sales of the same securities or loans as owned by the Issuer. Such purchases and sales may be on terms different from those made on behalf of the Issuer. Subject to applicable law, either of the Initial Purchasers or any of their respective Affiliates, as a principal or through one of the investment funds that it manages, may purchase or sell the securities of, or otherwise invest in or finance or provide investment banking, advisory and other services to, companies in which the Issuer has an interest or to the Servicer, including one or more of the issuers of Relevant Obligations and one or more of such issuers may be or may become controlled by such Initial Purchaser or its Affiliates. The Initial Purchasers and their Affiliates may, or may in the future, also have a proprietary interest in, and may manage, or advise or provide services to other accounts or investment funds that have investment objectives similar or dissimilar to those of the Issuer and/or which engage in transactions in, the same types of securities as the Issuer. As a result, the Initial Purchasers and their Affiliates may, or may in the future, possess information relating to obligors on or issuers of Relevant Obligations which is not known to the Servicer or the Issuer. Neither of the Initial Purchasers and none of their Affiliates are under any obligation to share any investment opportunity, idea or strategy with the Servicer or the Issuer or to utilize for the Issuer's benefit any non-public information acquired by it or any of its Affiliates in the course of providing services to any other person, engaging in any transaction (on its own account or otherwise) or otherwise carrying on its business. As a result, the Initial Purchasers and their Affiliates may, or may in the future, compete with the Issuer for appropriate securities or loans to purchase and will be under no duty or obligation to share such opportunities with the Issuer. The Initial Purchasers or their Affiliates may act as a placement agent and/or initial purchaser in other transactions involving issues of collateralized debt obligations and other similar portfolios managed by other investment managers, and may provide financing for the accumulation of leveraged loans and high yield bonds as collateral for such transactions. The Initial Purchasers are not obligated to make any particular securities or loans available to the Issuer or the Servicer, and may allocate such securities or loans among its various customer relationships, including the Issuer and the Servicer. Such activities may have an adverse effect on the availability of Collateral for the Issuer.

The Issuer also may invest in the securities of companies affiliated with the Initial Purchasers or in which the Initial Purchasers have an equity or participation interest. The purchase, holding and sale of such securities by the Issuer may enhance the profitability of the Initial Purchasers' investments in such companies.

The Initial Purchasers and their Affiliate may act as Hedge Counterparties and will likely buy Securities for their own account or for re-packaging purposes or enter into transactions related or linked to the Securities. If either Initial Purchaser or any such Affiliate acts in such capacities or holds any Securities, it will have no obligation to exercise its rights under the related Hedge Agreements or Synthetic Security Agreements and any Voting Rights associated with such Securities in any manner without regard to the interests of the Issuer or any Holder of Securities and, at any applicable time, may exercise such rights in a manner adverse to some or all of the other Holders of the Securities. The Initial Purchasers or their Affiliates may also provide financing to the Servicer or its Affiliates in connection with their purchase of certain Class D Notes, Class E Notes and Class II Preference Shares which will be secured by a lien on such financed Class D Notes, Class E Notes and Class II Preference Shares.

The Initial Purchasers or one of their Affiliates may act as Synthetic Security Counterparty with respect to LCDS Securities or other Synthetic Securities. The Synthetic Security Counterparty with respect to LCDS Securities or other Synthetic Securities is likely to have the right to make determinations and to take actions or to decline to take actions which may have an adverse effect on the Issuer and the Holders of the Securities. Whether and when to declare a "credit event" and to deliver any notice that a "credit event" or a "floating amount event" has occurred will be in the sole discretion of the Synthetic Security Counterparty, and none of the Synthetic Security Counterparty, the Calculation Agent and any of their Affiliates will have any liability to any Holder or any other Person as a result of giving (or not giving) any such notice. In addition, the Synthetic Security Counterparty may have the right to determine, in its sole discretion, the termination payment to be made by the Issuer to it or by it to the Issuer in connection with the termination at the request of the Issuer of an LCDS Security, and such Synthetic Security Counterparty will have no liability to any Holder or any other Person (other than any liability that it may have to the Issuer under the LCDS Security or other Synthetic Security) as a result of making such determination.

The Issuer's purchase of Collateral Obligations prior to the Closing Date was financed through the acquisition of participations by the Pre-Closing Participant, which is an Initial Purchaser. A portion of the proceeds from the offering of the Securities will be paid to the Pre-Closing Participant to repurchase such participations.

The Initial Purchasers and their Affiliates may, by virtue of the relationships described above or otherwise, at the date hereof or at any time hereafter, be in possession of information regarding certain of the issuers of Collateral Obligations and their respective Affiliates, that is or may be material in the context of the Securities and that is or may not be known to the general public. Neither of the Initial Purchasers and none of their Affiliates have any obligation, and the offering of the Securities will not create any obligation on their part, to disclose to any purchaser of the Securities any such relationship or information, whether or not confidential.

By purchasing a Security, each investor will be deemed to have acknowledged the existence of the conflicts of interest inherent to this transaction, including as described above, and to have consented thereto.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SECURITIES

The Notes will be issued pursuant to the Indenture. The terms of the Preference Shares are contained in the Issuer Charter and in certain resolutions adopted by the Issuer's Board of Directors on or before the Closing Date authorizing and approving the issuance of the Securities, as reflected in the minutes thereof (the "Resolutions" and, together with the Issuer Charter and the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the "Preference Share Documents"). The following summary describes certain provisions of the Notes, the Preference Shares, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the provisions of the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. Copies of the Indenture may be obtained by prospective purchasers upon request in writing to the Trustee at 200 Clarendon Street, Mail Code: EUC 108, Boston, MA 02116 Attention: CDO Services Group, and will also be available at the office of Maples Finance Dublin at 75 St. Stephens Green, Dublin 2, Ireland. Copies of the Preference Share Documents may be obtained upon request in writing to the Administrator at P.O. Box 1093GT, Boundary Hall, Cricket Square, George Town, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands, Attention: the Directors — Stratford CLO Ltd.

Status and Security

The Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer and non-recourse debt obligations of the Co-Issuer. Each Note within a Class will rank pari passu with all other Notes of that Class. Under the Indenture, the Issuer will grant to the Trustee a first-priority security interest in the Collateral to secure the Issuer's obligations under the Indenture, the Notes, Hedge Agreements and the Servicing Agreement (collectively, the "Secured Obligations"). The Notes are payable solely from amounts received in respect of the Collateral pledged by the Issuer to secure the Notes. If the amounts received in respect of the Collateral (net of certain expenses) are insufficient to make payments on the Secured Obligations, in accordance with the Priority of Payments, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and, following liquidation of all the Collateral, the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, to pay the deficiency will be extinguished.

The Preference Shares are entitled to proceeds of the Collateral only to the extent that any such proceeds are remaining on any Payment Date after payment of all interest and principal payable on each Class of Notes on that Payment Date and the satisfaction of certain other amounts payable in accordance with the Priority of Payments. In addition, the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares will be entitled, as and to the extent set forth herein, to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments pursuant to the priority provided in the Priority of Payments.

In furtherance of the priorities of payments among the Classes of Notes and the Preference Shares, the Indenture contains express subordination provisions pursuant to which the Holders of each Class of Notes that is a Junior Class as described below agree for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class that the Junior Class will be subordinate and junior to the Notes of each Priority Class to the extent and in the manner provided in the Indenture.

If any Event of Default has not been cured or waived and acceleration occurs under and in accordance with the Indenture, each Priority Class of Notes will be paid in full in cash or, to the extent a Majority of each Class consents, other than in cash, before any further payment or distribution is made on account of any Junior Class of Notes with respect to the Priority Class. The Holders of each Junior Class of Notes agree, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for failure to pay to them amounts due to the Junior Class, of the Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, or under the Indenture until the payment in full of the Priority Classes or all the Classes, as the case may be and not before one year and a day, or if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, has elapsed since the payment.

For purposes of this provision, with respect to each Class of Notes, the Classes of Notes that are Priority Classes and Junior Classes are as follows:

Class	Junior Classes	Priority Classes
A-1	A-2, B, C, D, E, Preference Shares*	None
A-2	B, C, D, E, Preference Shares*	A-1
B	C, D, E, Preference Shares*	A-1, A-2
C	D, E, Preference Shares*	A-1, A-2, B
D	E, Preference Shares*	A-1, A-2, B, C
E	Preference Shares*	A-1, A-2, B, C, D
Preference Shares	None	A-1, A-2, B, C, D, E

* Other than with respect to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments, which may be payable to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as set forth herein and will have priority to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments.

** The Preference Shares will be entitled to certain residual cash flow after payment of senior obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

If, notwithstanding the provisions of the Indenture, any Holder of Notes of any Junior Class has received any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes contrary to the provisions of the Indenture, then, until each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class of Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, or, to the extent a Majority of the Priority Class or the Class, as the case may be, consents, other than in cash in accordance with the Indenture, the payment or distribution will be received and held in trust for the benefit of, and will forthwith be paid over and delivered to, the Trustee, which will pay and deliver the same to the Holders of the applicable Priority Classes of Notes or the Holders of all Classes of Notes, as the case may be. If any such payment or distribution is made other than in cash, it will be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and subject in all respects to the Indenture.

Each Holder of Notes of any Junior Class agrees with all Holders of the applicable Priority Classes that the Holder of Junior Class Notes will not demand, accept, or receive any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes in violation of the Indenture. After a Priority Class has been paid in full, the Holders of Notes of the related Junior Class or Classes will be fully subrogated to the rights of the Holders of the Priority Class. Nothing in these provisions will affect the obligation of the Issuer to pay Holders of any Junior Class of Notes.

Distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares are subordinate to distributions on the Notes as described in the Priority of Payments (other than, as and to the extent set forth herein, with respect to distribution of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments).

The Servicing Fees will have priority only to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments.

Interest Payments on the Notes and Payments of Dividends on the Preference Shares from Interest Proceeds

The Notes of each Class will accrue interest during each Interest Period on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day) at the applicable per annum interest rates for each such Class (the "Note Interest Rate") equal to LIBOR for Eurodollar deposits for the applicable Interest Period plus the spread, as specified above under "Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities." Interest accrued on the Notes will be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the applicable Interest Period divided by 360. Payment of interest on each Class of Notes will be subordinated to the payments of interest on the related Priority Classes and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of Deferred Interest in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date will not be considered "payable" for the purposes of the Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest will not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes will be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments. To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes will accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, will thereafter be additional Deferred Interest), until paid.

Interest will cease to accrue on each Note, or in the case of a partial repayment, on the part repaid, from the date of repayment or its Stated Maturity unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or unless there is some other default with respect to the payments of principal.

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares, pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Interest Proceeds as described under clauses (23) and (25) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds."

In addition, with respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as the Class II Preference Share Special Payments, provided that with respect to the Payment Date in May 2008 such Class II Preference Share Special Payments will, at a minimum, include amounts that would otherwise constitute a portion of the Servicing Fees that have accrued from the Closing Date through February 3, 2008. Any payments to the Holders of Class II Preference Shares of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments will have priority to the extent provided under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

For purposes of calculating the Class II Preference Share Special Payments, the following definitions will apply:

"Class II Preference Share Percentage" means, for any Payment Date, a fraction, expressed as a percentage, the numerator of which is the number of Outstanding Class II Preference Shares on such Payment Date and the denominator of which is the total number of Outstanding Preference Shares on such Payment Date.

"Class II Preference Share Portion" means, for any Payment Date, 100% minus the Servicing Fee Portion for such Payment Date.

"Class II Preference Share Senior Special Payment" means, for any Payment Date, an amount equal to the product of (a) the Senior Servicing Fee for such Payment Date and (b) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date.

"Class II Preference Share Subordinated Special Payment" means, for any Payment Date, an amount equal to the product of (a) the Subordinated Servicing Fee for such Payment Date and (b) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date.

"Class II Preference Share Supplemental Special Payment" means, for any Payment Date, an amount equal to the product of (a) the Supplemental Servicing Fee for such Payment Date and (b) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date.

"Servicing Fee Portion" 100% minus a percentage (between 0% and 100%) selected by the Servicer in its sole discretion and reported to the Trustee in writing on or before the related Determination Date, provided that, with respect to the Payment Date in May 2008, such percentage shall, at a minimum, include amounts that would otherwise constitute a portion (representing the Class II Preference Share Percentage) of the Servicing Fees that have accrued from the Closing Date to February 3, 2008.

For purposes of calculating interest on each Class of Notes, the Issuer will initially appoint the Trustee as calculation agent (the Trustee in that capacity, and each successor calculation agent, the "Calculation Agent").

As soon as possible after 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period, but in no event later than 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the next Business Day, the Calculation Agent will calculate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes for the related Interest Period and the amount of interest for the Interest Period payable in respect of each $100,000 in principal amount of each Class of Floating Rate Notes (in each case rounded to the nearest cent, with half a cent being rounded upward) on the related Payment Date and will communicate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes and the date of the next Payment Date to the Trustee, the Initial Purchasers, each paying agent, Euroclear, Clearstream, the Depository, and (as long as the Notes are listed on the ISE) the ISE.

The Calculation Agent may be removed by the Co-Issuers at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Co-Issuers or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes or the amount of interest payable in respect of each Class of Floating Rate Notes for any Interest Period, the Issuer will promptly appoint as a replacement Calculation Agent a leading bank which is engaged in transactions in U.S. Dollar deposits in the international U.S. Dollar market and which does not control and is not controlled by or under common control with the Co-Issuers or any of their respective affiliates. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been duly appointed. The determination of the Note Interest Rate with respect to each Class of Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Period by the Calculation Agent will (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon all parties.

"LIBOR" means the offered rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent for any Interest Period, for three month Dollar deposits that appears on Reuters Screen LIBOR01 as reported on Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News (or a page that replaces Reuters Screen LIBOR01 for the purpose of displaying comparable rates), as of 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period.

If, on the second Business Day before the first day of any relevant Interest Period, that rate does not appear on Reuters Screen LIBOR01 as reported on Bloomberg Financial Market Commodities News (or a page that replaces Reuters Screen LIBOR01 for the purpose of displaying comparable rates), the Calculation Agent will determine the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations of the Reference Banks to prime banks in the London interbank market for three month Dollar deposits in Europe, by reference to requests by the Calculation Agent to four major banks in the London interbank market selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer) (the "Reference Banks") for quotations as of approximately 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of the Interest Period. If at least two of the Reference Banks provide quotations as requested, LIBOR will equal such arithmetic mean. If fewer than two Reference Banks provide quotations, LIBOR will be the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations that one or more leading banks in New York City selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer) are quoting to the principal London offices of leading banks in the London interbank market on the second Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period for three month Dollar deposits.

If the Calculation Agent is unable to determine a rate in accordance with any of the above procedures, LIBOR for the Interest Period will be calculated on the last day of the Interest Period and will be the arithmetic mean of the rate of interest for each day during the Interest Period determined by the Calculation Agent as being the rate of interest most recently announced by the Bank at its New York office as its base rate, prime rate, reference rate, or similar rate for Dollar loans (or if the Bank ceases to exist or is not quoting a base rate, prime rate, reference rate, or similar rate for Dollar loans, another major money center commercial bank in New York City selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer)).

For the first Interest Period and, unless the Maturity Extension occurs, the last Interest Period, LIBOR will be determined based on the actual number of days in the Interest Period using straight-line interpolation of two rates calculated in accordance with the above procedure, except that instead of using three month deposits, one rate will be determined using the period for which rates are obtainable next shorter than the Interest Period and the other rate will be determined using the period for which rates are obtainable next longer than the Interest Period. All calculations will be calculated to at least four decimal places and rounded to four decimal places.

Principal Payments on the Notes and Distributions on the Preference Shares from Principal Proceeds

The principal of each Note of each Class matures at par and is payable on the Payment Date that is the Stated Maturity for the Class of Notes, unless the unpaid principal of the Note becomes payable at an earlier date by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption, or otherwise. The Preference Shares are scheduled to be redeemed on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, unless redeemed prior thereto. The average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years from issuance until Stated Maturity for such Notes. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes Interests May Vary" and "Maturity and Prepayment Considerations." Notwithstanding the foregoing, and except as set forth below, the payment of principal of each Class of Notes: (i) may only occur after principal on each Class of Notes that is a Priority Class with respect to the Class has been paid in full and (ii) is subordinated to the payment on each Payment Date of the principal and interest payable on the Priority Classes, and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments. However, (i) Interest Proceeds may be used to pay principal of the Class E

Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class E Coverage Test and (ii) Principal Proceeds may be used to pay Deferred Interest and other amounts before the payment of principal of the Notes. See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

In general, principal payments will not be made on the Notes before the end of the Replacement Period, except in the following circumstances: (i) in connection with the payment of Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, (ii) in connection with an Optional Redemption, (iii) in connection with a Refinancing, (iv) at the option of the Servicer, to effect a Special Redemption of the Notes, (v) pursuant to a redemption made in connection with a Tax Event or (vi) following a mandatory redemption of the Notes caused by a failure to meet any of the Coverage Tests or a Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Replacement Period, Principal Proceeds will be applied on each Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments to pay principal of each Class of Notes (except for Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations which may be applied to purchase Collateral Obligations to the extent described herein). No principal of any Class of Notes will be payable on any Payment Date other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and to the extent funds are available therefor on that Payment Date for that purpose, except that the principal of each Class of Notes will be payable in full at the Stated Maturity, unless repaid before that.

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares, pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Principal Proceeds as described under clauses (11)(A), (14) and (15) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds."

Legal Provisions Applicable to the Payments of Dividends from Interest Proceeds and Dividends or Other Distributions from Principal Proceeds

Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds paid to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment of dividends on, or the payment of the Redemption Price in respect of, the Preference Shares, will be distributable to the Holders of the Preference Shares only if the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distribution and Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds paid to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment of dividends in respect of the Preference Shares will be distributable to the Holders of the Preference Shares only if the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium and if the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distribution. Payments will be paid by the Trustee to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for payment of dividends and other distributions to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, on a pro rata basis according to the number of Preference Shares held by each Holder on the Record Date for such Payment Date.

Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date

General

The Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, will be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Replacement Period to the applicable Extended Replacement Period End Date up to four times if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given the Trustee written notice of its election to extend the Replacement Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension

Effective Date. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Notes will be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date will be automatically extended to the related Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date and the Weighted Average Life Test will be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents.

In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes or Preference Shares wishing to sell all or a portion of its Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to "—Extension Procedure" below (such Securities as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, "Extension Sale Securities"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in connection with an Extension Sale, all, but not part, of the Extension Sale Securities must be purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date.

The Maturity Extension will be effective only if the following conditions (the "Extension Conditions") are satisfied:

- (i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;
- (ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions in the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents and described herein immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Extension Sale Securities and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);
- (iii) (a) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody's (so long as any Notes are then rated by Moody's);
- (iv) the Issuer has not effected more than three prior Extensions; and
- (v) such extension is not effected for the primary purpose of decreasing losses or recognizing gains resulting from market value changes.

In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Noteholder, other than Holders of Extension Sale Securities, will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment. Holders of Preference Shares will not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

The Extension Bonus Payment will be payable to any applicable qualifying beneficial owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification on the first Payment Date from and including the Extension Effective Date on which funds are available for such purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption of the Notes. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments will not be considered "due and payable" hereunder. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date will not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer will fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Securities. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments will not accrue interest. Such amounts will be paid, in the case of the Notes, to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer.

Extension Procedure

Not later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer of its election to extend the Replacement Period (the "Extension Notice"), the Trustee will mail the Extension Notice to all Holders of Notes and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), in the form set out in the Indenture, and will request the Rating Confirmation for the Maturity Extension from each Rating Agency, if applicable.

Any Holder of Securities may deliver an irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") to the Issuer and the Trustee within 30 days after the Trustee has mailed the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell all or a portion of its Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period will be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of Securities that has not delivered such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period will be entitled to sell its Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension.

If any Holder of Class II Preference Shares delivers an Extension Sale Notice notifying the Issuer and the Trustee of its intention to sell all or a portion of its Class II Preference Shares such Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to the Extension Qualifying Purchaser and such Preference Shares will be redesignated as Class I Preference Shares.

On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) will confirm (i) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Extension Sale Securities in compliance with all transfer restrictions in the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents and the legends on such Extension Sale Securities and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (ii) whether the requirements of clause (iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (iii) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension will automatically become effective under the terms of the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth above are satisfied (as certified to the Trustee by a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer). No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, will mail a notice to all Holders of Notes, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Servicer, the Initial Purchasers, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) and the ISE (if and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer will make any required notifications thereof to the Depositary for any Securities subject to the Maturity Extension.

None of the Initial Purchasers, the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates will have any duty to act as an Extension Qualifying Purchaser.

Optional Redemption

Notes. The applicable Required Redemption Percentage may give written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer and the Servicer directing an optional redemption of the Notes (with respect to the Notes, an "Optional Redemption") upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period. Such notice must be given not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made. In the event that the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee and the Issuer receive notice directing an optional redemption from any one or more Holders of Preference Shares holding less than a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall, within five Business Days of receipt of such notice, notify the Holders of the Preference Shares (i) of the receipt of such notice and (ii) that any Holder of Preference Shares may join in directing an Optional Redemption by notifying the Issuer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing within five Business Days after such Holder's receipt of the Preference Shares Paying Agent's notice.

Upon receipt of the written notice directing an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Co-Issuers with respect to the Notes are required by the Indenture to redeem the Notes (in whole but not in part) from amounts available therefor in accordance with "—Optional Redemption Procedures" described below. Any Optional Redemption of the Notes will be made at the applicable Redemption Price. Upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Replacement Period will terminate in accordance with the definition of that term. The Issuer shall, at least 30 days before the Redemption Date (unless the Trustee shall agree to a shorter notice period), notify the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency of the Redemption Date, the applicable Record Date, the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed on the Redemption Date and the applicable Redemption Prices.

Preference Shares. On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, all administrative and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), and all amounts owing under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged:

(i) at the direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Preference Shares, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings; or

(ii) at the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a directed portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such direction,

(with respect to the Preference Shares and each of clauses (i) and (ii) above, an "Optional Redemption").

Upon a distribution pursuant to clause (i) above, the Servicer will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Servicing Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer (and subject to clause (ii) above), direct the sale of all remaining Collateral Obligations. Upon a distribution pursuant to clause (ii) above, the Servicer will effect the sale of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares.

Upon receipt of the written notice directing an Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares, the Issuer is required by the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement to redeem the Preference Shares in the applicable manner described above. Any Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares shall be made at the applicable Redemption Price.

Optional Redemption Procedures. The Trustee will give notice of a redemption by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days and not earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date, to (i) each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository, Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and (ii) in the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, to each Rating Agency. In addition, for so long as any Notes are listed on the ISE and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of an Optional Redemption of Notes will also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

Notice of redemption having been given as provided above, the Notes to be redeemed will, on the Redemption Date, become payable at the Redemption Price therein specified and from and after the Redemption Date (unless the Issuer will default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest) the Notes will cease to bear interest on the Redemption Date.

Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, the Holder will present and surrender the Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption to receive the applicable Redemption Price unless the Holder provides an undertaking to surrender the Note thereafter.

The Notes may not be optionally redeemed unless either of the following conditions is satisfied:

(i) at least 10 Business Days before the Redemption Date, the Servicer will have furnished to the Trustee evidence (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) that the Issuer has entered into a binding agreement (with (x) a financial or other institution or entity whose short-term unsecured debt obligations (other than obligations whose rating is based on the credit of a Person other than the institution) have a credit rating of at least "A-1" from S&P and of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's, (y) any other entity that has the benefit of a credit facility, a warehouse agreement, a liquidity facility or a similar arrangement with a financial or other institution or entity that satisfies the criteria in sub-clause (x) above and such financial or other institution or entity irrevocably agrees to fund the purchase of all or part of the Collateral as set forth herein or (z) any other institution or entity if the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's is satisfied with respect to the other entity) to sell to the financial or other institutions, not later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date in immediately available funds, all or part of the Collateral (directly or by participation or other arrangement) at a Purchase Price at least equal to an amount sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices; or

(ii) before entering into any binding agreement to sell all or a portion of the Collateral and selling or terminating any Hedge Agreement, the Servicer will have certified that, in its commercially reasonable judgment, the settlement dates of the sales will be scheduled to occur on or before the Business Day before the Redemption Date and that the expected proceeds from the sales are to be delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date, in immediately available funds, in an amount (calculated as applicable in the manner provided below) sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount will be calculated with respect to the classes of Collateral listed in the table below by multiplying the expected proceeds of sale of the Collateral by the indicated percentage in the table below. For the avoidance of doubt, no Hedge Agreement will be sold or terminated unless the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date has passed and no notice of withdrawal has been issued.

		Number of Business Days Between Certification to the Trustee and Sale
		Same Day	1 to 2	3 to 5	6 to 15
1.	Cash or other Eligible Investments	100%	100%	100%	100%
2.	Loans (other than 5 below)	100%	93%	92%	88%
3.	High-Yield Bonds (other than 5 below) and Structured Finance Obligations (in each case, other than 4 below)	100%	89%	85%	75%
4.	High-Yield Bonds (other than 5 below) and Structured Finance Obligations, in each case with a Moody's Rating of "B3" and on credit watch with negative implications or below "B3"	100%	75%	65%	55%
5.	Synthetic Securities	100%	65%	55%	35%

Any certification delivered by the Servicer will include (A) the prices of, and expected proceeds from, the sale of any Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or Hedge Agreements and (B) all calculations required by the Indenture.

Any notice of redemption may be withdrawn by the Issuer up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Trustee and the Servicer only if:

(i) in the case of an Optional Redemption of Notes, the Servicer does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications required under the Indenture, as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee;

(ii) in the case of an Optional Redemption in whole of either the Notes or the Preference Shares as described above in "—Optional Redemption—Notes" and clause (i) of the first paragraph under "—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares," the Issuer receives the written direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares (or, in the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes resulting from a Tax Event, the Affected Class) to withdraw the notice of redemption delivered by the percentage of the Holders of the Preference Shares (or, in the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes resulting from a Tax Event, the Affected Class) requesting redemption under "—Optional Redemption—Notes" or clause (i) of the first paragraph under "—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares," as applicable; or

(iii) in the case of an Optional Redemption of Preference Shares as described in clause (ii) of the first paragraph under "Optional Redemption—Preference Shares," the Issuer receives the unanimous written direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer hereby agrees for the benefit of the directing Holders to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written direction referred to in the preceding clause (ii) or this clause (iii)).

Notice of any withdrawal will be sent, not later than the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date (assuming that the Trustee has received timely written notice from the Issuer as provided above), by the Trustee, to each Holder of Notes scheduled to be redeemed at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery (or, to the extent the address contained in the Indenture Register is not sufficient for that purpose, by first-class mail) and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares). If the Issuer so withdraws any notice of redemption or is otherwise unable to complete any redemption of the Notes, the Sale Proceeds received from the sale of any Collateral Obligations sold in accordance with the Indenture may, during the Replacement Period (and, in respect of Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, after the Replacement Period) at the Servicer's discretion, be used to purchase replacement Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria.

Notice of redemption will be given by the Co-Issuers or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note selected for redemption or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares) will not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Securities.

Redemption by Refinancing. In addition, any Class of the Notes may be redeemed in whole, but not in part, on any Payment Date after the Non-Call Period from Refinancing Proceeds if the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, proposes to the Holders of the Preference Shares in writing (by notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares)) with a copy to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies) at least 30 days prior to the Payment Date for such redemption (such date, the "Refinancing Date") to redeem such Notes in accordance with the Indenture, which notice will, among other things, specify the Refinancing Date and the Class of Notes to be Refinanced. Such redemption will be effected by the Issuer obtaining a loan or an issuance of a replacement class of notes ("Refinancing Notes"), the terms of which loan or issuance will be negotiated by the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, from one or more financial institutions or purchasers (which may include the Servicer or its Affiliates) selected by the Servicer (a refinancing provided pursuant to such loan or issuance, a "Refinancing"), and provided that (i) such proposal is approved by a Majority of the Preference Shares (voting as a single class) at least 15 days prior to the Refinancing Date and (ii) the Servicer completes such Refinancing and causes the Refinancing Proceeds to be deposited with the Trustee (in immediately available funds) no later than the close of the Business Day immediately preceding the Refinancing Date.

The Issuer will obtain a Refinancing only if the Servicer determines and certifies to the Trustee that:

- (i) a Rating Confirmation has been obtained from each Rating Agency for each Class of Refinancing Notes and each Class of Notes not subject to Refinancing;
- (ii) the proceeds from the Refinancing will be at least sufficient to pay the Refinancing Price plus any Administrative Expenses of the Issuer related to the Refinancing;
- (iii) the interest rate payable in respect of the obligations providing the Refinancing is less than the interest rate payable on the Notes being refinanced;
- (iv) the principal amount of any obligations providing the Refinancing is no greater than the principal amount of the Notes being redeemed with the proceeds of such obligations;
- (v) the stated maturity of the obligations providing the Refinancing is no earlier than the Stated Maturity of the Notes being refinanced;
- (vi) the Refinancing Proceeds will be used (to the extent necessary) to redeem the applicable Notes;
- (vii) the agreements relating to the Refinancing contain limited recourse, non-recourse and non-petition provisions, investor qualification provisions and transfer restrictions equivalent to those applicable to the Notes being redeemed, as set forth in the Indenture;
- (viii) the obligations providing the Refinancing are subject to the Priority of Payments and do not rank higher in priority pursuant to the Priority of Payments than the Class of Notes being redeemed; and
- (ix) the expenses in connection with the Refinancing have been paid or will be adequately provided for.

Any Refinancing Proceeds will not constitute Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds but will be applied directly on the related Refinancing Date pursuant to the Indenture to redeem the Notes being refinanced and pay Administrative Expenses in connection with the Refinancing without regard to the Priority of Payments; provided that, to the extent that any Refinancing Proceeds exceed the amount necessary to redeem the Notes being refinanced (and any associated Administrative Expenses), such excess Refinancing Proceeds will be treated as Principal Proceeds.

Refinancing Notes may be issued from time to time pursuant to a Refinancing as described above and subject to and in compliance with the terms of the Indenture. Any such Refinancing Note will be issued by the Co-Issuers and will be authenticated by the Trustee upon delivery to the Trustee of an order of the Issuer and the applicable opinion of counsel as set forth in the Indenture.

Special Redemption of Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture

Principal payments on the Notes will be made in whole or in part, at par, in accordance with the Priority of Payments if, at any time during the Replacement Period, the Servicer elects (subject to the Servicing Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional or replacement Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Servicer in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the application of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be used to purchase additional or replacement Collateral Obligations.

On the Special Redemption Date, the Special Redemption Amount will be available to be applied in accordance with "—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds" to the extent of available Principal Proceeds. Notice of payment of the Special Redemption Amount will be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than three Business Days before the applicable Special Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository. In addition, for so long as any Notes are listed on the ISE and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of a Special Redemption of the Notes will also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

In connection with a Special Redemption, the principal of the Notes will be paid from Principal Proceeds in an aggregate amount equal to the Special Redemption Amount (first to any Class A-1 Notes to be redeemed, and Class A-2 Notes to be redeemed, then to any Class B Notes to be redeemed, then to any Class C Notes to be redeemed, then to any Class D Notes to be redeemed and then to any Class E Notes to be redeemed, in each case until paid in full) in accordance with the Priority of Payments. See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds."

General

In the event of a Rating Confirmation Failure or a failure to meet any Coverage Test on any Determination Date, a mandatory redemption of one or more Classes of Notes in whole or in part will be required. Any mandatory redemption could result in an elimination, deferral or reduction in interest or principal payments to one or more Classes of Securities, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of the Class or Classes of Securities. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Interests for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests" and "—The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure."

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests

Except with respect to payments made pursuant to an Optional Redemption or a redemption made in connection with a Tax Event as described under "—Optional Redemption," on any Payment Date with respect to which any Coverage Test (as described under "Security for the Notes—The Coverage Tests") is not met on any Determination Date, principal payments on the Notes will be made as described under "—Priority of Payments."

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure

Upon the event of a Rating Confirmation Failure, all Interest Proceeds remaining after payment of amounts referred to in clauses (1) through (17) of "—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" will be used to pay principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes in the Note Payment Sequence on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date thereafter until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. If necessary, after the foregoing payments are made out of Interest Proceeds, Principal Proceeds in accordance with clause (10) "—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds" will be used to pay principal of each Class of the Notes sequentially in order of their priority on each Payment Date until the Initial Ratings are confirmed.

Upon receipt of notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes, at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes, then at the direction and in accordance with the instructions of the Servicer the Trustee will sell Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for the purpose in the Collection Account will be used to redeem the Notes (but only to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes) and to pay all administrative and other fees, expenses and obligations payable under the Priority of Payments. Any sale under these provisions will be conducted in such a manner that:

- (i) after giving effect to the sale each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied or, if any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Overcollateralization Test is not reduced;
- (ii) if the sale occurs on or after the second Payment Date, after giving effect to the sale each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied or, if any Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Interest Coverage Test is not reduced; and
- (iii) after giving effect to the sale each Collateral Quality Test is satisfied or, if any Collateral Quality Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Collateral Quality Test is not reduced.

Redemption of the Preference Shares in Connection with Mandatory Redemption of the Notes

The Preference Shares will be redeemed in whole in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Preference Share Documents on any Payment Date on which a mandatory redemption of the Notes described under "—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes" results in the payment in full of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes.

Tax Certification

As a condition to the payment on any Security in accordance with the Priority of Payments without the imposition of withholding tax, the Issuer will require certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer, the Trustee, and any paying agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments in respect of such Security under any present or future law or regulation of the United States or other jurisdiction or any present or future law or regulation of any political subdivision thereof or taxing authority therein or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under any such law or regulation. Without limiting the foregoing, as a condition to payments on any Security without U.S. federal back-up withholding, the Issuer will require the delivery of properly completed and signed applicable U.S. federal income tax certifications (generally, an IRS Form W-9 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a person that is a "United States person" as defined in the Code or an IRS Form W-8 (or applicable successor form), together with any required attachments, in the case of a person that is not a "United States person" as defined in the Code).

Priority of Payments

Collections received on the Collateral during the related Due Period will be segregated into Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds and applied on each Payment Date in the priority below under "—Interest Proceeds" and "—Principal Proceeds," respectively (collectively, the "Priority of Payments").

Interest Proceeds

On each Payment Date, Interest Proceeds with respect to the related Due Period (other than Interest Proceeds previously used during such Due Period to purchase accrued interest in respect of Collateral Obligations or otherwise used as permitted under the Indenture) will be distributed in the following order of priority:

- (1) to the payment of any taxes and registration and filing fees owed by the Co-Issuers (without limit) and then to the payment of Administrative Expenses up to the Administrative Expense Cap as follows:

FIRST, in the following order of priority:

- (i) fees, expenses and indemnities of the Trustee; and then
- (ii) fees, expenses and indemnities of the Collateral Administrator; and then
- (iii) fees, expenses and indemnities of the Preference Shares Paying Agent;

SECOND, in the following order of priority;

- (i) fees and expenses of the Administrator; and then;
- (ii) fees and expenses of the Co-Issuers (including fees and expenses of counsel and ongoing surveillance, credit estimate, and other fees owing to the Rating Agencies) and any other person (except the Servicer) if specifically provided for in the Indenture, and to the expenses (but not fees) of the Servicer if payable under the Servicing Agreement;

- (2) the excess, if any, of the Administrative Expense Cap over the amounts paid pursuant to clause (1) above to deposit into the Expense Reimbursement Account;
- (3) FIRST, to deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account for payment in accordance with "Security for the Notes—The Accounts—Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account" an amount equal to the product of (i) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date, if any, and (ii) any accrued and unpaid Senior Servicing Fee then due and payable and SECOND, to the payment to the Servicer of an amount equal to the difference between (i) the accrued and unpaid Senior Servicing Fee as of such Payment Date and (ii) the amount deposited to the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account in accordance with the preceding clause;
- (4) to the payment of all amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements (if any) other than any Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments;

- (5) to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Class A-1 Notes, and any accrued and unpaid Defaulted Interest on, and any Defaulted Interest Charge with respect to, the Class A-1 Notes;

Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Notes

The Notes sold in Offshore Transactions may only be sold to non-U.S. Persons in reliance on Regulation S. Except as provided below, the Notes sold in reliance on Regulation S will be represented by one or more Regulation S Global Notes (the "Regulation S Global Notes"). The Regulation S Global Notes will be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of, a nominee of the Depository for the respective accounts of the beneficial owners at Euroclear and Clearstream. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may be held only through Euroclear or Clearstream. Investors may hold their interests in a Regulation S Global Note directly through Euroclear or Clearstream, if they are participants in such systems, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in such systems. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may not be held by a U.S. Person at any time. By acquisition of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note, the purchaser thereof will be deemed to represent that it is not a U.S. Person and that, if in the future it determines to transfer such beneficial interest, it will transfer such interest only to a person whom the seller reasonably believes to be a non-U.S. Person or to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note.

The Notes initially sold in non-Offshore Transactions or to U.S. Persons in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A may only be sold to (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers that are also (ii) Qualified Purchasers and, except as provided below, will be represented by one or more permanent Rule 144A Global Notes. Investors may hold their interests in the Rule 144A Global Notes directly through the Depository if they are the Depository participants, or indirectly through organizations that are the Depository participants. The Rule 144A Global Notes will be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for the Depository, and registered in the name of a nominee of the Depository.

Beneficial interests in Notes represented by Global Notes will be subject to certain restrictions on transfer set forth therein and in the Indenture and such Global Notes will bear the applicable legends regarding the restrictions set forth under "Transfer Restrictions." A beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note may be transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note only upon receipt by the Trustee of a written certification from (A) the transferor (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that the transfer is being made to a person whom the transferor reasonably believes is a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is also a Qualified Purchaser and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction and (B) the transferee (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is both a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser. Beneficial interests in the Rule 144A Global Notes may be transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note only upon receipt by the Trustee of a written certification from (A) the transferor (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that the transfer is being made to a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction in accordance with Regulation S and (B) the transferee (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is a non-U.S. Person.

Any beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note that is transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note will, upon transfer, cease to be an interest in such Regulation S Global Note and become an interest in the Rule 144A Global Note and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions and other procedures applicable to beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note for as long as it remains such an interest. Any beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Note that is transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note will, upon transfer, cease to be an interest in the Rule 144A Global Note and become an interest in the Regulation S Global Note and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions and other procedures applicable to beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note for as long as it remains such an interest. No service charge will be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes, but the Issuer or the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

Except in the limited circumstances described in this paragraph, owners of beneficial interests in Notes held in the form of Global Notes will not be entitled to receive delivery of certificated Notes. The Notes are not issuable in bearer form. A Global Note deposited with the Depository pursuant to the Indenture will be transferred to the beneficial owners thereof only if such transfer complies with the Indenture and either (i) the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for a Global Note or ceases to be a "Clearing Agency" registered under the Exchange Act and a successor depository is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days of such notice or (ii) as a result of any amendment to or change in, the laws or regulations of the Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which become effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or the Paying Agent becomes aware that it is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Notes which would not be required if the Notes were in definitive form. In addition, the owner of a beneficial interest in a Global Note will be entitled to receive a certificated Note in exchange for such interest if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. In the event that certificated Notes are not so issued by the Issuer to such beneficial owners of interests in Global Notes, the Issuer expressly acknowledges that such beneficial owners will be entitled to pursue any remedy that the Holders of a Global Note would be entitled to pursue in accordance with the Indenture (but only to the extent of such beneficial owner's interest in the Global Note) as if certificated Notes had been issued. Payments on such certificated Notes will be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a Dollar-denominated account maintained by the owner or, if a wire transfer cannot be effected, by a Dollar check delivered to the owner. See "Settlement and Clearing."

The Notes will be issued in minimum denominations of U.S.$250,000 and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess thereof.

Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Preference Shares

The Preference Shares will be issued in the form of one or more certificated Preference Shares in definitive, fully registered form, registered in the name of the owner thereof (the "Certificated Preference Shares").

Preference Shares may only be sold to persons who are Qualified Institutional Buyers who are also Qualified Purchasers.

Preference Shares may be transferred only upon (inter alia) receipt by the Preference Shares Paying Agent of a written certification (in the form provided in the Preference Share Documents) from the transferee to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is also a Qualified Purchaser, and such transfer is being made in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction. Each initial Holder as well as each transferee of the Preference Shares is also required to provide certain tax forms and other tax-related certifications. See "Transfer Restrictions."

Maples Finance Limited has been appointed and will serve as the registrar with respect to the Preference Shares (the "Share Registrar") and will provide for (inter alia) the registration of the Preference Shares and the registration of transfers of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Preference Share Documents and the Administration Agreement in the register maintained by it. The Preference Shares will be issued in minimum numbers of 250 Preference Shares per investor and integral multiples of one Preference Share in excess thereof.

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Trustee must give prompt (and in no event later than five Business Days after becoming aware of such event) notice thereof to the Noteholders.

If an Event of Default is continuing (other than an Event of Default described in clauses (e), (g) or (h) under "—Events of Default" above), the Trustee may, with consent of the Majority of the Controlling Class, and must, upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, declare the principal of all the Notes to be immediately payable by notice to the Co-Issuers and the Noteholders, and upon that declaration the unpaid principal of all the Notes, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), and other amounts payable under the Indenture, will become immediately payable. The Replacement Period will terminate upon a declaration of acceleration (subject to re-commencement as described below). If an Event of Default described in clauses (e), (g) or (h) above under "—Events of Default" occurs, all unpaid principal, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), of all the Notes, and other amounts payable under the Indenture, will automatically become payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Noteholder and the Replacement Period will terminate automatically (subject to re-commencement as described below).

At any time after the declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent, may rescind the declaration and its consequences if:

- (i) the Issuer or the Co-Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:
  - (A) all unpaid installments of interest and principal on the Notes then due (other than as a result of the acceleration);
  - (B) to the extent that payment of the interest is lawful, interest on any Deferred Interest and Defaulted Interest at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable;
  - (C) all Administrative Expenses of the Co-Issuers and other sums paid or advanced by the Trustee under the Indenture;
  - (D) all unpaid Senior Servicing Fees; and
  - (E) all amounts then payable to any Hedge Counterparty and any Synthetic Security Counterparty; and
- (ii) the Trustee has determined that all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of the interest on or principal of the Notes, that have become due solely by the acceleration, have been (A) cured, and a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Trustee has agreed with that determination, or (B) waived as provided in the Indenture.

No rescission will affect any subsequent Default or impair any right resulting from the Default. The Issuer shall not terminate any Hedge Agreement at any time after a declaration of acceleration of Maturity of the Notes has been made, unless such declaration and its consequences may no longer be rescinded and annulled in accordance with the Indenture and liquidation of the Collateral has begun.

If an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee will retain the Collateral, collect, and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Collateral and the Notes and any Hedge Agreements (other than amounts received under a Hedge Agreement that are used in putting a replacement hedge in place) in the manner described under "—Priority of Payments" and the Indenture unless either:

- (i) the Trustee, in consultation with the Servicer, determines (bid prices having been obtained with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one dealer, that dealer and if there is no dealer, from a pricing service), selected and specified by the Servicer to the Trustee in writing, at the time making a market in those securities, and having computed the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security) that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would (after deduction of the reasonable expenses of the sale or liquidation) be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and the Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) under "—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds," and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination;
- (ii) the Holders of a Super Majority of each of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral; or

(iii) the Class A/B Overcollateralization Ratio is less than 90% and the Holders of a Majority of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class B Notes voting together as a single Class direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral; provided that upon such direction, the Trustee shall (x) first sell or liquidate any Collateral for which either (a) two or more bid-side prices have been determined by an Approved Pricing Service or (b) bid-side prices have been obtained from at least two nationally recognized broker-dealers selected by a Majority of the Controlling Class and (y) thereafter shall sell or liquidate such remaining Collateral to the extent such Collateral can be liquidated or sold in accordance with the Indenture and applicable law; provided that any Collateral consisting of equity securities or Defaulted Collateral Obligations shall not be subject to sale or liquidation pursuant to this clause (iii).

If any Collateral is sold in accordance with clause (iii)(x) above and Highland is the Servicer, the Servicer shall have the exclusive right to purchase such Collateral for the first two Business Days from the date the last of such bid-prices was determined by an Approved Pricing Service or obtained from a nationally recognized broker-dealer selected by a Majority of the Controlling Class with respect to such Collateral at a price equal to the highest bid-price for such Collateral that was determined by an Approved Pricing Service and, thereafter, the Trustee may sell such Collateral to other parties in accordance with the terms of the Indenture; provided that any such sale to the Servicer or to any other party is effected in compliance with applicable law, including all notice and other requirements under the UCC.

During the continuance of an Event of Default, a Majority of the Controlling Class may institute and direct the Trustee in the conduct of any proceedings for any remedy available to the Trustee or for the exercise of any right of the Trustee under the Indenture if the direction does not conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of the Indenture and the Trustee has been indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction. Any direction to the Trustee to undertake a sale of the Collateral shall be by the Holders of Notes representing the requisite percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes specified in the Indenture. The Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability or expense unless it has received an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the liability or expense.

A Majority of the Controlling Class may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes, before the time a judgment or decree for the payment of money due has been obtained by the Trustee, waive any past Event of Default or event that, with notice or the lapse of time or both, would become an Event of Default and its consequences, except such a default:

- (i) in the payment of principal or Redemption Price of any Note or in the payment of interest (including Defaulted Interest, Deferred Interest, and any interest on Defaulted Interest or Deferred Interest) on the Notes;
- (ii) with respect to a provision of the Indenture that cannot be modified or amended without the waiver or consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected by the modification or amendment;
- (iii) in the payment of amounts due to the Servicer, the Trustee, or the Hedge Counterparty, which may only be waived with the consent of the affected party; or
- (iv) arising as a result of an Event of Default described in clause (e), (g) or (h) under "—Events of Default."

No Holder of any Note may institute any proceeding with respect to the Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy under the Indenture, unless:

- (i) the Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of an Event of Default;
- (ii) the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings with respect to the Event of Default in its own name as Trustee under the Indenture and the Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with the request;
- (iii) the Trustee for 30 days after its receipt of the notice, request, and offer of indemnity has failed to institute a Proceeding; and
- (iv) no direction inconsistent with the written request has been given to the Trustee during the 30 day period by a Majority of the Controlling Class.

If the Trustee receives conflicting or inconsistent requests and indemnity from two or more groups of Holders of the Controlling Class pursuant to the paragraph above, each representing less than a Majority of the Controlling Class, the Trustee shall take the action requested by the Holders of the largest percentage in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, notwithstanding any other provisions of the Indenture but subject to such Holders having offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs and liabilities that might reasonably be incurred by it in compliance with the request as provided in the Indenture.

Supplemental Indentures

Without Consent of Holders

Without the consent of the Holders of any Securities (other than with respect to the consent of the Majority of the Controlling Class specified in clause (15) below), any Hedge Counterparty (except to the extent such consent is required under the applicable Hedge Agreement) or any Synthetic Security Counterparty (except to the extent such consent is required under the applicable Synthetic Security Agreement), but with the consent of the parties the consent of which is required as described in the following paragraph, the Co-Issuers, in each instance when authorized by resolutions of the respective Boards of Directors, and the Trustee, at any time and from time to time subject to the requirement provided below with respect to receipt of a Rating Confirmation, may, if, with respect to any matters described in clauses (1) through (23) below, the interests of the Holders of the Securities (except, in the case of clause (12) below, any Holders of Notes subject to the applicable Refinancing) are not materially and adversely affected thereby (the Co-Issuers and the Trustee will be bound by a standard of good faith and fair dealing in making such determination, subject to the terms of the Indenture) enter into one or more indentures supplemental to the Indenture, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, for any of the following purposes:

- (1) to evidence the succession of another person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and the assumption by the successor person of the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Indenture and in the Securities;
- (2) to add to the covenants of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders or to surrender any right in the Indenture conferred on the Co-Issuers;
- (3) to convey, transfer, assign, mortgage, or pledge any property to the Trustee, or add to the conditions, limitations or restrictions on the authorized amount, terms and purposes of the issue, authentication and delivery of the Notes;

- (4) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment under the Indenture by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of the Indenture necessary to facilitate the administration of the trusts under the Indenture by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of the Indenture;
- (5) to correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of the Indenture, or to better assure, convey, and confirm to the Trustee any property subject or required to be subject to the lien of the Indenture (including all actions appropriate as a result of changes in law) or to subject to the lien of the Indenture any additional property;
- (6) to cause any provision of the Indenture to conform to, or be consistent with, the statements made with respect to such provision in this Offering Memorandum;
- (7) to modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any changes in applicable law (or its interpretation) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely on any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act (including, without limitation, to add provisions for resales and transfers of the Class E Notes and/or Preference Shares under Regulation S) or the Investment Company Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required under the Indenture;
- (8) with the consent of the Servicer, to modify (A) the restrictions on the sales of Collateral Obligations described in "Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations" or (B) with the consent of the Majority of the Controlling Class (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), the Eligibility Criteria described in "Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria" (and the related definitions); provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall not be required if such amendment also satisfies the requirements of clause (24) below;
- (9) to make appropriate changes for any Class of Notes to be listed on an exchange other than the ISE;
- (10) otherwise to correct any inconsistency or cure any ambiguity or errors in the Indenture;
- (11) to accommodate the issuance of the Notes in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC or otherwise;
- (12) to accommodate a Refinancing effected pursuant to and in compliance with the terms of the Indenture; provided that no Holders of Notes or Preference Shares are materially adversely affected thereby, other than Holders of Notes subject to such Refinancing;
- (13) to avoid the imposition of tax on the net income of the Issuer or Co-Issuer or of withholding tax on any payment to the Issuer or Co-Issuer;
- (14) to authorize the appointment of any listing agent, transfer agent, paying agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes appropriate in connection with the listing of any Class of Notes on the ISE or any other stock exchange, and otherwise to amend the Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, transfer agent, paying agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes in connection with its appointment, so long as the supplemental indenture would not materially and adversely affect any Noteholders, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Servicer, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Notes;

- (15) with the consent of the Majority of the Controlling Class, to amend, modify, enter into or accommodate the execution of any contract relating to a Synthetic Security (including posting collateral under a Synthetic Security Agreement) if such particular action is not otherwise permitted under the Indenture;
- (16) to modify certain representations as to Collateral in the Indenture in order that it may be consistent with applicable laws or Rating Agency requirements;
- (17) to evidence any waiver by any Rating Agency as to any requirement or condition, as applicable, of the Rating Agency in the Indenture;
- (18) to facilitate the issuance of participation notes, combination notes, composite securities and other similar securities;
- (19) to facilitate hedging transactions;
- (20) to facilitate the ability of the Issuer to lend collateral pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement;
- (21) to modify any provision to facilitate an exchange of one security for another security of the same issuers that has substantially identical terms except transfer restrictions, including to effect any serial designation relating to the exchange;
- (22) with the consent of the Servicer to enter into any additional agreements not expressly prohibited by the Indenture as well as any amendment, modification, or waiver if the Issuer determines that the amendment, modification, or waiver would not, upon or after becoming effective, materially and adversely affect the rights or interest of the Holders of any Class of Securities, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Servicer, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, this clause (22) shall not permit the Co-Issuers and the Trustee to effect any amendment that expressly requires the consent of the Majority of the Controlling Class without such consent;
- (23) to provide for the issuance of additional Preference Shares to the extent permitted by the Preference Share Documents and to extend to such additional Preference Shares the benefits applicable to the Preference Shares under the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents; or
- (24) to prevent the Issuer from becoming an "investment company" as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section

3(c)(7); provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Servicer shall have received (A) a Rating Confirmation with respect to such supplemental indenture and (B) a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental indenture, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act in reliance on the exemption provided by Rule 3a-7.

Without the consent of the Servicer, no supplemental indenture may be entered into that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to the Servicer under the Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Servicer. The Trustee is authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be in the agreements, but the Trustee should not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities or immunities under the Indenture or otherwise, except to the extent required by law. Unless notified by a Majority of any Class of Securities that the Class of Securities would be materially and adversely affected, the Trustee may rely on a certificate of the Servicer and an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) as to whether the interests of any Holder of Securities would be materially and adversely affected by any such supplemental indenture.

If any Outstanding Notes are rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee will enter into a supplemental indenture without the consent of Holders only if either (1) the Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the supplemental indenture or (2) the Servicer and the Holders of 100% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes the ratings on which would be reduced or withdrawn consent to the supplemental indenture. Prior to the entry into any supplemental Indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note informing them of such fact.

At the cost of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee will mail to the Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), each Rating Agency (for so long as any Notes are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency) and each Hedge Counterparty a copy of any such proposed supplemental indenture at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee (or 60 calendar days before execution in the case of a supplemental indenture for the purpose described in clause (8) above, which shall be identified as such in a certificate of the Servicer delivered to the Trustee before the date on which such notice is required to be given).

With Consent of Holders

If the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency, with the consent of (a) the Servicer if the supplemental indenture would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under the Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Servicer, (b) a Majority of each Class of Notes adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of each such Class of Notes, (c) a Majority of the Preference Shares adversely affected thereby, (d) each Hedge Counterparty (if such consent is required pursuant to the applicable Hedge Agreement) and (e) each Synthetic Security Counterparty (if such consent is required pursuant to the applicable Synthetic Security Agreement), the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may enter into a supplemental indenture to add any provisions to, or change in any manner or eliminate any of the provisions of, the Indenture or modify in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes under the Indenture.

Any proposed supplemental indenture that would also necessitate a change to the Issuer Charter may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined therein) has been passed to permit the Issuer's constitutional documents to be altered to conform with such proposed change to the Indenture as certified to the Trustee by the Issuer.

Notwithstanding anything in the Indenture to the contrary, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected thereby and the Holder of each Outstanding Preference Share adversely affected thereby, no supplemental indenture shall:

(i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date of any installment of interest on any Note or of any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares (other than in the case of any Maturity Extension in connection with an extension of the Replacement Period as described in "—Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date"), reduce the principal amount or the rate of interest on any Note, or the Default Interest Rate or the Redemption Price with respect to any Note or Preference Share, or change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Share may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, change the provisions of the Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of any Collateral to the payment of principal of or interest on Notes or to payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares, or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which, Notes or their principal or interest are paid or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after their Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the applicable Redemption Date);

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class or Holders of Preference Shares whose consent is required for the authorization of any such supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of the Indenture or certain defaults under the Indenture or their consequences provided for in the Indenture;

(iii) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of the Indenture with respect to any part of the Collateral or terminate the lien on any property at any time subject hereto or deprive the Holder of any Note of the security afforded by the lien of the Indenture;

(iv) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class whose consent is required to request the Trustee to retain the Collateral pursuant to the Indenture or to sell or liquidate the Collateral pursuant to the Indenture;

(v) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture with respect to supplemental indentures or to provide that certain other provisions of the Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note and Preference Share affected thereby;

(vi) modify the definition of "Outstanding," "Controlling Class," or "Majority," or the Priority of Payments in the Indenture; or

(vii) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of Redemption Price or of interest or principal on any Note or any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the payment of dividends or other payments on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes or Preference Shares to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of the Notes or the Preference Shares contained in the Indenture.

Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to the above provision, the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, will mail to the Noteholders, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), each Hedge Counterparty, each Synthetic Security Counterparty (to the extent required by the terms of the related Synthetic Security) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) a copy of such proposed supplemental indenture and will request any required consent from the applicable Holders of Securities to be given within the Initial Consent Period. Any consent given to a proposed supplemental indenture by the Holder of any Securities will be irrevocable and binding on all future Holders or beneficial owners of that Security, irrespective of the execution date of the supplemental indenture. If the Holders of less than the required percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the relevant Securities consent to a proposed supplemental indenture within the Initial Consent Period, on the first Business Day after the Initial Consent Period, the Trustee will notify the Issuer and the Servicer which Holders of Securities have consented to the proposed supplemental indenture and, which Holders (and, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Trustee, which beneficial owners) have not consented to the proposed supplemental indenture. If it intends to exercise its Amendment Buy-Out Option, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must so notify the Trustee (which notice will designate a date for the Amendment Buy-Out to occur no earlier than 10 Business Days after the date of such notice) and S&P no later than five Business Days after the Servicer is so notified by the Trustee and the Trustee will promptly mail such notice to all Noteholders and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares). Any Non-Consenting Holder may give consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture until the 5th Business Day prior to the date of the Amendment Buy-Out designated by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and in such case will cease to be a Non-Consenting Holder for purposes of the Amendment Buy-Out. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser exercises its Amendment Buy-Out Option and purchases the applicable Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, as Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Securities, may consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture within five Business Days of the Amendment Buy-Out.

It is not necessary for any Act of Noteholders under the above provision to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if the Act or consent approves its substance.

The Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, will mail to the Noteholders, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), each Hedge Counterparty, each Synthetic Security Counterparty and each Rating Agency a copy of any supplemental indenture promptly after its execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee.

Additional Issuance of Preference Shares

The Preference Share Documents will provide that, at any time during the Replacement Period, the Issuer may issue and sell additional Preference Shares and use the proceeds from such issuance and sale to purchase additional Collateral Obligations or as otherwise permitted under the Preference Share Documents and the Indenture; provided that the following conditions are met: (a) the terms of the Preference Shares issued must be identical to the terms of previously issued Preference Shares and (b) the net proceeds of any additional Preference Shares are used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations. Such additional Preference Shares may be offered and sold at prices that differ from the initial offering prices of the outstanding Preference Shares; provided that the initial offering prices of additional Preference Shares shall not be below 100% of the Face Amount thereof. The Issuer must cause purchases of additional Preference Shares made pursuant to an additional issuance of Preference Shares to comply individually and in the aggregate with the applicable purchase and transfer restrictions for the Preference Shares set forth herein in "Transfer Restrictions" and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Any additional Preference Shares issued will, to the extent reasonably practicable, be offered by the Issuer first to the existing Holders of the Preference Shares, in such amounts as are necessary to preserve their pro rata holdings of the Preference Shares. By its acceptance of the Preference Shares, each Holder of a Preference Share agrees that additional Preference Shares can be issued in accordance with the Preference Share Documents and the Indenture without consent of any Holder of the Securities.

Except as contemplated in connection with a Refinancing, the Indenture does not permit the issuance of additional Class A-1 Notes, Class A-2 Notes, Class B Notes, Class C Notes, Class D Notes or Class E Notes or other obligations with terms similar to those of such Classes of Notes. See "—Redemption by Refinancing."

Amendment Buy-Out

In the case of any supplemental indenture that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Securities held by such Holders of the Class of Securities whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option"), in each case, for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; provided, however, that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser may not exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option during the Non-Call Period in connection with a proposed amendment to reduce the rate of interest on any Securities or to change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Shares may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Securities of Non-Consenting Holders for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"); provided that if any Non-Consenting Holder holds Class II Preference Shares, such Non-Consenting Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser and such Preference Shares will be redesignated as Class I Preference Shares. By its acceptance of its Securities under the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents, as applicable, each Holder of Securities agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser. Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or beneficial owner of Securities as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option.

All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Securities set forth herein in "Transfer Restrictions" and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Notices

Notices to the Holders of the Securities will be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the registered Holders of the Notes at their respective addresses appearing in the Indenture Register and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares). If and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the ISE and the rules of the exchange so require, notice will also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

Any Holder or beneficial owner of any Class A-1 Notes or Class A-2 Notes may elect to acquire bond insurance, a surety bond, a credit default swap or similar credit enhancement supporting the payment of principal and/or interest on such Class A-1 Notes or Class A-2 Notes on terms and conditions acceptable to such Holder or beneficial owner and at the sole expense of such Holder or beneficial owner. On or after any such acquisition, such Holder or beneficial owner may deliver notice (and if from a beneficial owner, any such notice shall include certification that such owner is a beneficial owner of the Class A-1 Notes or Class A-2 Notes, as applicable) to the Trustee in substantially the form set out in the Indenture, specifying the name and contact information of the insurer, surety, credit protection seller or enhancer of such Class A-1 Notes or Class A-2 Notes, as applicable (each, an "Insurer"). After receipt of any such notice by the Trustee, the Trustee shall copy the related Insurer on all notices, reports or other documents delivered to the Noteholders.

Certain Covenants

The Indenture contains certain covenants restricting the conduct of the Co-Issuers, including (i) restrictions on consolidations, mergers and transfers or conveyances of assets involving either Co-Issuer, (ii) restrictions on incurrence of debt other than the Notes and certain obligations incidental to the performance by each Co-Issuer of its obligations under the Indenture, (iii) restrictions on the ability of either Co-Issuer to conduct activities inconsistent with its special-purpose nature and (iv) certain restrictions on amendments of the Collateral Administration Agreement and the Servicing Agreement.

Certain Additional Issues Relating to Listing of Notes

Application has been made to admit each Class of Notes to the Official List of the ISE. There can be no assurance that any such admission will be granted or maintained.

The Indenture provides that, so long as any Notes remain Outstanding, the Co-Issuers shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain the listing of the Notes on the regulated market of the ISE; provided that the Co-Issuers will not be required to maintain a listing on a stock exchange in the European Union if compliance with requirements of the European Commission on a member state becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Servicer.

Cancellation

All Securities that are paid in full or redeemed and surrendered for cancellation will forthwith be canceled and may not be reissued or resold.

No Gross-Up

All payments made by the Issuer under the Securities will be made without any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax unless the deduction or withholding is required by any applicable law, as modified by the practice of any relevant governmental revenue authority, then in effect.

If the Issuer is so required to deduct or withhold, then the Issuer will not be obligated to pay any additional amounts in respect of the withholding or deduction.

Tax Characterization

The Issuer intends to treat the Notes as debt instruments of the Issuer only for accounting, financial reporting and U.S. federal and, to the extent permitted by law, state and local income and franchise tax purposes. The Indenture will provide that each registered holder and beneficial owner, by accepting a Note, agrees to such treatment, to report all income (or loss) in accordance with such treatment and not to take any action inconsistent with such treatment unless otherwise required by any relevant taxing authority.

Petitions for Bankruptcy

The Indenture provides that none of the Trustee, each Synthetic Security Counterparty, each Hedge Counterparty, the Servicer and the Holders of the Notes may cause the Issuer or Co-Issuer to petition for bankruptcy before one year and one day have elapsed since the final payments to the Holders of all Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, including any period established pursuant to the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Standard of Conduct

The Indenture provides that, in exercising any of its or their voting rights, rights to direct and consent or any other rights as a Noteholder under the Indenture, subject to the terms and conditions of the Indenture, a Noteholder shall not have any obligation or duty to any Person or to consider or take into account the interests of any Person and shall not be liable to any Person for any action taken by it or them or at its or their direction or any failure by it or them to act or to direct that an action be taken, without regard to whether the action or inaction benefits or adversely affects any Noteholder, the Issuer, or any other Person, except for any liability to which the Noteholder may be subject to the extent the same results from the Noteholder's taking or directing an action, or failing to take or direct an action, in bad faith or in violation of the express terms of the Indenture.

Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture

The Indenture will be discharged with respect to the Collateral upon delivery to the Trustee for cancellation of all of the Notes, or, within certain limitations (including the obligation to pay interest on or principal of the Notes) upon deposit with the Trustee of funds sufficient for the payment or redemption thereof and the payment by the Co-Issuers or the Issuer, as applicable, of all other amounts due under the Indenture.

Trustee

State Street Bank and Trust Company will be the Trustee under the Indenture. The Co-Issuers, the Servicer and their respective Affiliates may maintain other banking relationships in the ordinary course of business with the Trustee and its Affiliates. The payment of the fees and expenses of the Trustee relating to the Notes is solely the obligation of the Issuer. The payment of the fees and expenses, which will be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments, is secured by a lien on the Collateral which is senior to the lien of the Holders of the Notes. The Trustee and its Affiliates may receive compensation in connection with the purchase of trust assets in certain Eligible Investments as provided in the Indenture. Eligible Investments may include assets for which the Trustee or an Affiliate of the Trustee is the obligor or depository institution or provide services. The Indenture contains provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee for any loss, liability or expense (including reasonable attorney's fees and costs) incurred without negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Indenture.

Pursuant to the Indenture, as security for the payment by the Issuer of the compensation and expenses of the Trustee and any sums the Trustee may be entitled to receive as indemnification by the Issuer, the Issuer will grant the Trustee a senior lien on the Collateral, which is senior to the lien of the holders of the Secured Obligations on the Collateral.

Pursuant to the Indenture, the Trustee may resign at any time by providing 30 days' written notice to the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, the Holders of each Class of Notes, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency, upon receipt of which the Co-Issuers shall by board resolution (or, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class) promptly appoint a successor trustee that meets the requirements set forth in the Indenture. If no successor trustee is appointed within 60 days after such notice, the resigning Trustee or any Holder of a Class of Notes may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of such successor. The Trustee may be removed (i) at any time by the Co-Issuers as directed by board resolution (or, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, by a Majority of the Controlling Class) or (ii) by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. If at any time the Trustee ceases to be an eligible trustee under the Indenture and fails to resign after written request by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class, or the Trustee becomes incapable of acting or is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, then (A) the Co-Issuers may, and at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, remove the Trustee, or (B) any Holder of a Security may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor trustee. If the Trustee is removed or becomes incapable of acting, or if a vacancy occurs in the office of the Trustee for any reason (other than resignation), the Co-Issuers shall promptly appoint a successor trustee. If the Co-Issuers fail to appoint a successor trustee within 60 days after the removal or incapability or the occurrence of the vacancy, a successor trustee may be appointed by a Majority of the Controlling Class by written instrument. If no successor trustee has been so appointed by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class, then the Trustee to be replaced or any Holder of a Security, may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, no resignation or removal of the Trustee will become effective until the acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

Governing Law

The Notes, the Indenture, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Servicing Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Subscription Agreements, the Securities Lending Agreements and the Hedge Agreements will be governed by the laws of the State of New York. The Administration Agreement and the Issuer Charter will be governed by the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Method of Payments

Payments of principal and interest on any Note or payments on or in respect of the Preference Shares (including any Redemption Price paid on the applicable Redemption Date) and of any payments on any Notes or Preference Shares will be made to the person in whose name the related Note or Preference Share is registered 15 days before the applicable Payment Date (the "Record Date"). Payments will be made (i) in the case of a Global Note, to the Depository or its designee and to the Holder or its nominee with respect to a Definitive Security, by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a United States dollar account maintained by the Depository or its nominee with respect to a Global Note and to the Holder or its designee with respect to a Definitive Security if the Holder has provided written wiring instructions to the Trustee on or before the related Record Date or, (ii) if appropriate wiring instructions are not received by the related Record Date, by check drawn on a U.S. bank mailed to the address of the Holder in the Indenture Register (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Preference Share register). Final payments of principal of the Notes or Preference Shares will be made against surrender of the related Notes or Preference Shares at the office designated by the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent. None of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Servicer, the Initial Purchasers, any paying agent, or any of their respective affiliates will have any responsibility or liability for any aspects of the records maintained by the Depository or its nominee or any of its direct or indirect participants (including Euroclear or Clearstream or any of their respective direct or indirect participants) relating to payments made on account of beneficial interests in a Global Note.

The Co-Issuers expect that the Depository or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal or interest in respect of a Global Note held by the Depository or its nominee, will immediately credit participants' accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the Global Note as shown on the records of the Depository or its nominee. The Co-Issuers also expect that payments by participants (i.e., direct participants) to owners of beneficial interests in a Global Note held through the participants (i.e., indirect participants) will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for the customers. The payments will be the responsibility of the participants.

For so long as any Notes are listed on the ISE and the rules of the exchange shall so require, the Issuer and the Co-Issuers, as applicable, will have the Irish Paying Agent for the Notes in Ireland. If the Irish Paying Agent is replaced at any time during the period, notice of the appointment of any replacement will be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement

General

Pursuant to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agent will perform various fiscal services with respect to the Preference Shares on behalf of the Issuer, including the maintenance of the Preference Shares Distribution Account and the making of distributions on the Preference Shares. The Preference Shares Paying Agent will deliver or request the Trustee to deliver all Monthly Reports and Valuation Reports prepared pursuant to the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent will deliver, or shall cause the Trustee to deliver, a copy of any other notice or information it receives from the Trustee under the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares, in each case (i) by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to each Holder of a Preference Share at the address appearing in the Preference Share register or (ii) with respect to delivery of Monthly Reports and Valuation Reports, by making such reports available via its internet website, initially located at <http://www.cdocalc.com/ibt/cdo/>. All information made available on the Preference Shares Paying Agent's website will be restricted and the Preference Shares Paying Agent will only provide access to such reports to those parties entitled thereto pursuant to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement. In connection with providing access to its website, the Preference Shares Paying Agent may require registration and the acceptance of a disclaimer. Questions regarding the Preference Shares Paying Agent's website can be directed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent's customer service desk at (617) 937-5585. The payment of the fees and expenses of the Preference Shares Paying Agent is solely the obligation of the Issuer. The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement contains provisions for the indemnification of the Preference Shares Paying Agent for any loss, liability or expense incurred without gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith on its part, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its function under the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

Redemption

On the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, the Issuer is scheduled to redeem the Preference Shares for a redemption price equal to all amounts distributable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares as provided under "—Priority of Payments," unless the Preference Shares have been redeemed earlier through an optional redemption as described herein or otherwise.

Governing Law

The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York. The rights of the Holders of the Preference Shares will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Redesignation of Class I Preference Shares and Class II Preference Shares

The Share Registrar will record in the register maintained by it which Preference Shares are held by HFP or any of its subsidiaries. Such Preference Shares will be designated by the Share Registrar as Class II Preference Shares. Any transfer of Class II Preference Shares by HFP or any of its subsidiaries to any Person other than HFP or any of its subsidiaries will require redesignation by the Share Registrar of such Class II Preference Shares into Class I Preference Shares and any transfer of Class I Preference Shares to HFP or any of its subsidiaries will require redesignation by the Share Registrar of such Class I Preference Shares into Class II Preference Shares.

Distribution of Eligible Equity Securities

If the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, desires to make distributions of Eligible Equity Securities on any Payment Date in lieu of Interest Proceeds that are otherwise available for distribution to the Holders of Preference Shares on such Payment Date pursuant to the Priority of Payments, the Servicer will notify the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent not later than 20 calendar days prior to such Payment Date and provide the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding on the Record Date or promptly thereafter, but in any event no later than two Business Days after the Record Date, to each Holder of the Preference Shares registered as such on the Record Date for such Payment Date) with (i) details of the Eligible Equity Securities to be distributed, (ii) the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities determined as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date, (iii) any other information considered necessary by the Servicer in connection with such proposed distribution and (iv) any information as otherwise required by the Trustee and/or the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to such proposed distribution. The Preference Shares Paying Agent will then mail such materials, within two Business Days of its receipt thereof from the Servicer, to each registered Holder of Preference Shares on the Record Date for such Payment Date along with a form of notice and consent (in a form attached to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement) seeking the written consent of each such Holder of Preference Shares to distribute such Eligible Equity Securities to such Holder in lieu of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such Payment Date. Each Holder of the Preference Shares wishing to receive such Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of a distribution of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such applicable Payment Date (each such Holder with respect to such Payment Date, a "Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares") must deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent a written consent (which consent will be irrevocable) not later than five Business Days prior to such Payment Date. If any Holder of Preference Shares does not timely deliver its written consent to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in the manner set forth in such notice indicating its consent to the receipt of such Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of a distribution of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such Payment Date, such Holder will be deemed to have not given its consent and shall not be a Consenting Holder of Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date. On each applicable Payment Date (or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable), Eligible Equity Securities will be distributed pro rata to each Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date. Each Holder of Preference Shares that is not a Consenting Holder of Preference Shares (and, for the avoidance of doubt, each Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares to the extent the Market Value as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date of the pro rata portion of Eligible Equity Securities distributed to it on such Payment Date is less than the pro rata portion of the Interest Proceeds that it would have received on such Payment Date had the Eligible Equity Securities not been distributed on such Payment Date) on any applicable Payment Date will receive a distribution of Interest Proceeds to the extent available in accordance with the Priority of Payments on such Payment Date. See "Description of the Securities-Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds."

Amendment

Without the Consent of Holders. The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement may be amended by the parties thereto, without the consent of the Holders of any Preference Shares, for the purpose of curing any ambiguity, or of curing, correcting or supplementing any defective provision contained therein, or in regard to matters or questions arising under the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement as the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may deem necessary or desirable and which shall not materially adversely affect the interests of Holders of the Preference Shares. In addition, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement may be amended without the consent of any Holders of the Preference Shares and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Preference Shares in order to prevent the Issuer from becoming an "investment company" as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7); provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such amendment, each of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Servicer shall have received a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such amendment, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act in reliance on the exemption provided by Rule 3a-7.

With the consent of Holders. Unless otherwise set forth in the preceding paragraph, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement may be amended with the consent of Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares materially and adversely affected thereby.

Any amendment to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement must be in writing, executed by each party thereto. The Preference Shares Paying Agent is entitled to receive, and (subject to the terms of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an opinion of counsel, consent or certificate of the Issuer in determining whether or not any proposed amendment is permitted under Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

Any amendment to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement that would also necessitate a change to the Issuer Charter may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Issuer Charter) has been passed to permit the Issuer Charter to be altered to conform with such proposed amendment.

Tax Characterization of the Preference Shares

The Issuer intends to treat the Preference Shares as equity interests in the Issuer only for accounting, financial reporting and U.S. federal income tax purposes and, to the extent permitted by law, state and local income and franchise tax purposes. The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement will provide that each Preference Shareholder, by accepting a Preference Share, agrees to such treatment and agrees to report all income (or loss) from each Preference Share in accordance with such characterization, except as otherwise required by any relevant taxing authority.

The Issuer Charter

The following summary describes certain provisions of the Issuer Charter relating to the Preference Shares that are not referred to elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum.

Voting Rights

Other than as provided below, only the holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares shall have the right to receive notice of, attend at and vote as a shareholder of the Issuer at any general meeting of the Issuer. Every holder of an Issuer Ordinary Share present at any meeting shall, on a show of hands, be entitled to one vote and, on a poll, shall be entitled to one vote per Issuer Ordinary Share held by such holder.

Other than as provided below, the Holders of the Preference Shares shall have the right to receive notice of, attend at and vote as a shareholder of the Issuer at any general meeting of the Issuer only in respect of a resolution which relates to any circumstance or matter which under the Indenture, the Preference Share Documents or the Servicing Agreement can take place or occur only at the direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares (a "Preference Share Vote"). Every Holder of Preference Shares present shall, on a show of hands, be entitled to one vote and, on a poll, shall be entitled to one vote per Preference Share held by such Holder except that, in relation to a Preference Share Vote relating to certain matters (as set out in the Indenture) Preference Shares held by certain Holders (as set out in the Indenture), shall be ignored.

The Class II Preference Shares will have total control with respect to the appointment and removal of the directors of the Issuer as long as the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date is higher than the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date. If the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date is lower than or equal to the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date, only the Issuer Ordinary Shares will be entitled to vote with respect to the appointment and removal of the directors of the Issuer.

Liquidation

In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Issuer:

(i) the Holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares at the time outstanding will be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Issuer available for distribution to shareholders, before any distribution of assets is made to Holders of the Preference Shares, an amount equal to U.S.$2.00 in respect of each Issuer Ordinary Share held by each such holder; and

(ii) the Holders of the Preference Shares at the time Outstanding will be entitled to the balance of the assets of the Issuer available for distribution to shareholders, after distribution of amounts due to holders of Issuer Ordinary Shares under the above subparagraph, pro rata according to the number of Preference Shares held by each such holder.

If the assets available for distribution to holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares are not sufficient to pay to such holders U.S.$2.00 in respect of each Issuer Ordinary Share, the available assets shall be distributed to holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares pro rata according to the number of Issuer Ordinary Shares held by each such holder.

Transfer

The rights of a Holder of a Preference Share to transfer such Preference Share are subject to restrictions set out in the Preference Share Documents and as described in "Transfer Restrictions."

Petitions for Bankruptcy

Each Holder of a Preference Share will be required to agree (or be deemed to have agreed) not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The Securities will be issued and sold for Cash on the Closing Date. The gross proceeds of the offering of the Securities received on the Closing Date are expected to equal approximately $700,000,000. The gross proceeds will be used by the Issuer to:

- purchase a portfolio of Collateral Obligations;
- fund the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account to cover any future draws on Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans;
- enter into any Hedge Agreements, as applicable;
- enter into Synthetic Security Agreements (and correspondingly to fund the related accounts);
- repurchase participations made by the Pre-Closing Participant to finance the Issuer's pre-closing acquisition of Collateral Obligations;
- fund the Closing Date Expense Account;
- pay certain organizational and structuring fees expenses related to the transaction; and
- undertake certain related activities.

SECURITY FOR THE NOTES

The Notes and the Issuer's obligations under the Hedge Agreements and the Servicing Agreement will be secured by the following:

- (i) the Collateral Obligations and all Workout Assets;
- (ii) the Custodial Account, the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, the Synthetic Security Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account and the Securities Lending Account (such accounts, collectively, the "Issuer Accounts"), Eligible Investments purchased with funds on deposit in the Issuer Accounts, and all income from funds in the Issuer Accounts;
- (iii) the Issuer's rights with respect to the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and any Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account (and together with the Issuer Accounts, the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account and the Preference Shares Distribution Account, the "Accounts");
- (iv) the Issuer's rights under the Servicing Agreement, the Securities Lending Agreements, the Hedge Agreements and the Collateral Administration Agreement to the extent of any rights of the Issuer therein;
- (v) all Cash or money delivered to the Trustee (or its bailee); and
- (vi) all proceeds with respect to the foregoing (collectively, the "Collateral").

For the avoidance of any doubt, Collateral will exclude (i) amounts released from the Trustee's lien in connection with certain Synthetic Securities, Hedge Agreements and Securities Lending Agreements in accordance with the Indenture and (ii) the Excluded Property.

Purchase of Collateral Obligations

The Indenture will provide that the Servicer will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Issuer to purchase or enter into binding commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations that meet certain minimum amounts and characteristics. The composition of the portfolio of Collateral Obligations will be determined by the selections of the Servicer designed to meet the Eligibility Criteria, the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests and the requirements provided in paragraphs (i) through (ix) in "—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations." See "—Eligibility Criteria," "—The Collateral Quality Tests," "—The Coverage Tests" and "—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations."

The Servicer expects that, by the end of the Ramp-Up Period, the Issuer will have purchased or committed to purchase Collateral Obligations having an Aggregate Principal Balance of approximately U.S.$687,400,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date).

The Servicing Agreement provides that in purchasing, entering into, managing, selling or terminating Collateral Obligations on behalf of the Issuer, the Servicer shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements in paragraph (xxix) of the definition of Collateral Obligation that the Issuer not become subject to United States net income tax if it follows certain guidelines.

Eligibility Criteria

On any date during the Replacement Period (and, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, on any date after the Replacement Period), so long as no Event of Default is continuing, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to apply Principal Proceeds (together with Interest Proceeds, but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on Collateral Obligations) to purchase Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Synthetic Security Reserve Account, the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security) if the conditions specified in the Indenture are satisfied. No obligations may be purchased unless each of the conditions in the following clauses (1) through (12) (the "Eligibility Criteria") is satisfied as evidenced by a certificate of the Servicer as of the date the Issuer commits to make the purchase, in each case after giving effect to the purchase and all other purchases and sales previously or simultaneously committed to:

- (1) the obligation is a Collateral Obligation;
- (2) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period:
  - (A) each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied and, if the commitment is made on or after the second Payment Date, each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied; or
  - (B) if any such Coverage Test is not satisfied, both:
    - (i) the extent of satisfaction of the Coverage Test is not reduced; and
    - (ii) the Collateral Obligation is being purchased with Principal Proceeds other than:

- (5) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, each of the limits in the definition of "Concentration Limitations" is satisfied or, if any such limit is not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (6) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Spread Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (7) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (8) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Life Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (9) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (10) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the S&P Minimum Weighted Average Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (11) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the S&P CDO Monitor Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced; provided, however, that this Eligibility Criterion (11) shall not apply either to the application of the proceeds from the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation, Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset or to the application of Principal Proceeds in respect of Defaulted Collateral Obligations; and
- (12) for any date occurring after the Replacement Period:
  - (A) each Coverage Test is satisfied and the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
  - (B) each Collateral Quality Test is satisfied or, in the case of the Diversity Test and the Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test, maintained or improved; provided that if the Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor exceeds 2750 prior to giving effect to such purchase or sale, the Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor is not increased and the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied;
  - (C) each Concentration Limitation is maintained or improved and the Aggregate Principal Balance of all CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations do not exceed 7.5% of the Maximum Amount;
  - (D) the S&P Rating of such Collateral Obligation is at least equal to the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation being the source of the Unscheduled Principal Payments or of the Credit Risk Obligations or Credit Improved Obligation being the source of Sale Proceeds, as applicable;

(F) the stated maturity of such Collateral Obligation is equal to or earlier than the stated maturity of the Collateral Obligation being the source of the Unscheduled Principal Payments or of the Credit Risk Obligations or Credit Improved Obligation being the source of Sale Proceeds, as applicable.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall not direct the Trustee to purchase any Collateral Obligation following receipt by the Servicer of notice of removal or resignation pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement until a successor servicer is appointed pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement. See "The Servicing Agreement."

The Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, exchange a Collateral Obligation for another Collateral Obligation in an exchange of one security for another security of the same issuers that has substantially identical terms except transfer restrictions.

Cash on deposit in the Collection Account may be held in Eligible Investments in accordance with this "Eligibility Criteria" section pending the application thereof to purchase Collateral Obligations.

The Indenture provides that any sale or purchase by the Issuer of a Collateral Obligation shall be conducted on an arm's length basis and, if effected with the Servicer or a person Affiliated with the Servicer or any fund or account for which the Servicer or an Affiliate of the Servicer acts as investment adviser, shall be effected in accordance with the requirements the Servicing Agreement on terms no less favorable to the Issuer than would be the case if the person were not so Affiliated.

The Collateral Quality Tests

The Collateral Quality Tests will be used primarily as criteria for purchasing Collateral Obligations. See "—Eligibility Criteria" above and "—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations" below. The Collateral Quality Tests are described below.

Measurement of the degree of compliance with the Collateral Quality Tests will be required on each Measurement Date on and after the Ramp-Up Completion Date.

The Diversity Test

The "Diversity Test" is a test that will be satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Diversity Score as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score. For the purposes of calculating the Diversity Test, any Structured Finance Obligation that is (i) a collateralized loan obligation, (ii) any Synthetic Security with respect to which the Reference Obligation is a collateralized loan obligation or (iii) any Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time will be disregarded.

Weighted Average Life Test

The "Weighted Average Life Test" is a test that is satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the greater of (a) the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and November 1, 2017 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date and (b) 3.0 years.

Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test

The "Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test" is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Moody's Weighted Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 43.6%.

Weighted Average Rating Factor Test

The "Weighted Average Rating Factor Test" is a test that is satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor of the Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) as of the Measurement Date is less than or equal to the Maximum Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor plus (y) the Moody's Weighted Average Rating Factor Recovery Rate Modifier.

S&P CDO Monitor Test

The "S&P CDO Monitor Test" is a test that is satisfied on any Measurement Date if, after giving effect to the sale of a Collateral Obligation or the purchase of a Collateral Obligation, each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is positive. The S&P CDO Monitor Test shall be considered to be improved if each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is at least equal to the corresponding Note Class Loss Differential of the Current Portfolio. The S&P CDO Monitor Test is not required to be satisfied or improved upon the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation and the application of the related Sale Proceeds to purchase additional Collateral Obligations. For purposes of the S&P CDO Monitor Test,

- (i) the S&P Rating of any S&P Unrated DIP Loan shall be "CCC;" and
- (ii) the S&P Industry Classification for a Synthetic Security shall be that of the related Reference Obligation and not the Synthetic Security.

The "Note Break-Even Loss Rate" with respect to each Class of Notes that is rated by S&P, the maximum percentage of defaults that the Current Portfolio or Proposed Portfolio can sustain and nevertheless sufficient funds will remain for the payment of principal of the Class of Notes in full by its Stated Maturity and the timely payment of interest on the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class B Notes and the ultimate payment of interest on the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes using S&P's assumptions on recoveries, defaults, and timing, and taking into account the Priority of Payments and the adjusted Weighted Average Spread level specified in the applicable row of the table below. The adjusted Weighted Average Spread as of any Measurement Date is the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date minus the amount of any Spread Excess added to the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon as of the Measurement Date.

13	Greater than or equal to 2.00% but less than 2.10%

General

The Coverage Tests will be used to determine, among other things, whether Notes will be redeemed in certain circumstances as described under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments" and whether additional Collateral Obligations may be acquired as described under "—Eligibility Criteria." There will not be any Coverage Test applicable to the Preference Shares.

The Overcollateralization Tests

The "Overcollateralization Tests" will consist of the Class A/B Overcollateralization Test, the Class C Overcollateralization Test, the Class D Overcollateralization Test and the Class E Overcollateralization Test.

Each Overcollateralization Test will be satisfied with respect to any Class of Notes on any Measurement Date if, as of such Measurement Date, the Overcollateralization Ratio for the Class is at least equal to the specified required level for the Class indicated in the table in "Summary of Terms—The Overcollateralization Tests."

The Overcollateralization Ratio, with respect to each Class of Notes on any Measurement Date, is referred to as an "Overcollateralization Ratio," and is the ratio calculated by dividing:

- (i) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator; by
- (ii) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of such Class of Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it (excluding any Deferred Interest on such Notes and all Notes ranking senior to such Notes).

The "Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator" is, on any date, the sum of:

- (1) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (other than any Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, any Deep Discount Obligations and any Collateral Obligations loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement with respect to which an "event of default" (under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing); plus
- (2) unpaid Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal (excluding any unpaid Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal in respect of Non-Performing Collateral Obligations); plus
- (3) the Aggregate Principal Balance of any Eligible Investments that were purchased with Principal Proceeds and the amount of Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account; plus
- (4) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Eligible Investments on deposit in a Securities Lending Account that relate to a Securities Lending Agreement with respect to which an "event of default" (under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing; plus
- (5) with respect to Collateral Obligations that are Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, Deep Discount Obligations or Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, the amount determined by using one of the following methods applicable to such type of Collateral Obligation; provided that if a Collateral Obligation falls within more than one of such types, the Issuer will be required to use the method that results in the smallest amount:
  - (A) with respect to any Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, an amount equal to the product of (i) the CCC+/Caa1 Excess Market Value Percentage, multiplied by (ii) the Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations;
  - (B) with respect to any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, the aggregate of the Applicable Collateral Obligation Amounts for all included Non-Performing Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations that have been held by the Issuer for more than three years, which shall be deemed to be zero for purposes of this clause (B)); and
  - (C) with respect to any Deep Discount Obligations, the Aggregate Purchase Price Amount for all Deep Discount Obligations.

"Applicable Collateral Obligation Amount" for any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation means:

- (1) the lesser of (x) the Market Value Percentage of the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation and (y) the Applicable Percentage for the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation multiplied by:
- (2) if the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation is:
  - (A) any Pledged Obligation other than those in clauses (B) through (D) below, the outstanding principal amount of the Pledged Obligation as of the relevant Measurement Date;
  - (B) a Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in the Synthetic Security;
  - (C) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its Principal Balance including any Unfunded Amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer's obligation to fund the Unfunded Amount); and
  - (D) any PIK Security, its Principal Balance.

As used in the calculation of Market Value Percentage of the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation, the Principal Balance of any Defaulted Collateral Obligation shall be, if the Defaulted Collateral Obligation is:

- (i) any Pledged Obligation other than those in clauses (ii) through (iv) below, the outstanding principal amount of the Pledged Obligation as of the relevant Measurement Date;
- (ii) a Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in the Synthetic Security;
- (iii) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its Principal Balance including any Unfunded Amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer's obligation to fund the Unfunded Amount); and
- (iv) any PIK Security, its Principal Balance.

The Interest Coverage Tests

The Interest Coverage Test in respect of each Class of Notes (each an "Interest Coverage Test") is a test the first Measurement Date for which will be on the second Payment Date and that is satisfied with respect to any specified Class of Notes if, as of the second Payment Date and any Measurement Date thereafter on which any Notes remain Outstanding, the Interest Coverage Ratio equals or exceeds the applicable required level specified in the table in "Summary of Terms— The Interest Coverage Tests."

The "Interest Coverage Ratio" with respect to any specified Class of Notes on any Measurement Date, the ratio calculated by dividing:

- (i) the sum of:
  - (A) the Interest Proceeds received or scheduled to be received with respect to the Due Period in which the Measurement Date occurs; minus

- (B) amounts payable under clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" on the related Payment Date; by
- (ii) all accrued and unpaid interest on the specified Class of Notes and all Notes ranking senior to the Class, including any Deferred Interest on the related Payment Date.

For purposes of the Interest Coverage Ratio, only the amount of any interest payment (including any "gross up" payment) on any Collateral Obligation in excess of any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction on any date of determination shall be included in Interest Proceeds.

Retention Overcollateralization Test

The "Retention Overcollateralization Test" is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date during the Replacement Period on which any Notes remain Outstanding, if the Retention Overcollateralization Ratio as of such Measurement Date is at least equal to 104.91%.

Interim Ramp-Up Tests

On the date occurring 45 days after the Closing Date (the "Interim Ramp-Up Test Date"), the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall submit to Moody's a statement showing compliance with the Interim Ramp-Up Test specified in the Interim Ramp-Up Test table below. Should the results of any such Interim Ramp-Up Test fail to comply with the levels established for such Interim Ramp-Up Test Date by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, and that are acceptable to Moody's, the Issuer shall discuss a plan with Moody's for achieving compliance with such tests by the Ramp-Up Completion Date at the levels required on the Ramp-Up Completion Date.

Interim Ramp-Up Test

Ramp-Up

In connection with the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer shall use its best efforts to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period or enter into commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period for purchase on or as soon as practicable thereafter (not to exceed 60 days thereafter), in each case, for inclusion in the Collateral so that the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator with respect to the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes is at least U.S.$687,400,000.

No Collateral Obligations may be purchased prior to the Ramp-Up Completion Date unless immediately following the purchase of any Collateral Obligation (as certified by the Servicer in writing), the remaining funds in the Collection Account, after giving effect to such purchase, are sufficient as of the date of determination to purchase Collateral Obligations for inclusion in the Collateral so that the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator with respect to the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes is at least U.S.$687,400,000 (taking into account the Collateral Obligations already part of the Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date)).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of the Indenture, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase a Collateral Obligation to be included in the Collateral, such commitment initially not to exceed 60 days, and at the time of the commitment the Collateral Obligation complied with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set forth under "—Ramp-Up," the Issuer may consummate the purchase of the Collateral Obligation notwithstanding that the Collateral Obligation fails to comply with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set out above on the date of settlement.

The Issuer will use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, or to enter into binding agreements to purchase, Collateral Obligations by the Ramp-Up Completion Date, that, together with the Collateral Obligations purchased on or before the Closing Date and then held by the Issuer, will satisfy, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date), the Collateral Quality Tests, the Concentration Limitations, the criteria set forth in the Indenture and the Overcollateralization Tests.

No later than five Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer or the Servicer (on behalf of the Issuer) shall deliver a Ramp-Up Notice to each of the Rating Agencies and request in writing that each of S&P and Moody's confirm in writing within 25 days of delivery of such Ramp-Up Notice that it has not reduced or withdrawn the Initial Ratings; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to request a Rating Confirmation from Moody's if, prior to the Ramp-Up Completion Date Moody's has received, as described below, an accountant's certificate confirming (i) the Issuer is in compliance with each of the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests and the Concentration Limits and (ii) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owns or has committed to purchase is at least equal to $687,400,000. In connection with such request or, in the case of Moody's, in lieu of such request, the Issuer shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies identifying the Collateral Obligations then included in the Collateral and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies, together with the delivery of a report (and, with respect to S&P, the Excel Default Model Input File and, with respect to each Collateral Obligation, the name of the obligor thereon and the CUSIP number thereof (if applicable)) substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, an accountants' certificate:

(i) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread and recovery rate for each item of original Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included in the Collateral, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein;

(ii) confirming that as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date:

(1) each of the Coverage Tests are satisfied;

(2) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date is at least equal to the Maximum Amount; and

(3) the Collateral Obligations comply with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests and the Concentration Limitations and the criteria set forth in "—Eligibility Criteria;" and

(iii) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements.

If the Issuer is unable to obtain a requested Rating Confirmation from either S&P or, if required, Moody's with respect to any Class of Notes prior to the date 25 days after the delivery of the Ramp-Up Notice, as described above, a Rating Confirmation Failure will be deemed to have occurred (a "Rating Confirmation Failure"). If a Rating Confirmation Failure should occur, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to the Indenture and as described in "Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes upon Rating Confirmation Failure."

Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations

Pursuant to the Indenture and so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, direct the Trustee to sell (and the Trustee will sell) any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset if the sale meets the requirements in paragraphs (i) through (ix) below:

- (i) Credit Risk Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Risk Obligation at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Risk Obligation in accordance with such direction. Following any sale of a Credit Risk Obligation pursuant to the Indenture, at the direction of the Servicer during the Replacement Period, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (to the extent the purchase is in the best interest of the Issuer) meeting the Eligibility Criteria with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Sale Proceeds received by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral Obligation sold. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its Funded Amount.
- (ii) Credit Improved Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Improved Obligation if either:
  - (1) during the Replacement Period, the Servicer has identified in writing before the sale one or more specific manners in which it will be able, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria and the requirements set forth in paragraph (ix) below, to cause the Issuer to use the Sale Proceeds (it being understood that such identification shall not be considered either a requirement or an assurance that any specified purchase will be consummated) to purchase one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Credit Improved Obligation by the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its Funded Amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest) which in aggregate will result in (i) the Collateral Quality Tests, the Interest Coverage Tests, the Overcollateralization Tests and the Concentration Limitations herein being satisfied or if one or more of such

Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests or Concentration Limitations are not satisfied, the degree of compliance therewith being improved, (ii) the quality of the total portfolio of Collateral Obligations as measured by such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests and Concentration Limitations being improved on a net basis in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer and (iii) in the case of each of clause (i) and (ii), any other Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests or Concentration Limitations not being violated or, in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, the likelihood of such violation in the future not being significantly increased; and

- (2) after the Replacement Period, the Sale Proceeds received in respect of the Credit Improved Obligation are at least equal to its Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its Funded Amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest); and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Improved Obligation in accordance with such direction.

- (iii) Non-Performing Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction. Non-Performing Collateral Obligations may be sold regardless of price.
- (iv) Non-qualifying Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation (the "Non-Qualifying Collateral Obligation") at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell that obligation in accordance with such direction.
- (v) Withholding Tax Sales. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation subject to withholding tax at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction.
- (vi) Optional Redemption. After the Issuer has notified the Trustee of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all or a portion of the Collateral Obligations as contemplated therein if (A) the requirements in respect of an Optional Redemption under the Indenture have been satisfied and (B) the independent certified public accountants appointed pursuant to the Indenture have confirmed the calculations contained in any required certificate furnished by the Servicer pursuant to the Indenture's Note redemption procedure provisions. After the Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares have directed an Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Indenture, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all of the remaining Collateral Obligations (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to clause (i) under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares") or a portion of the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous directions of Holders of the Preference Shares (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to clause (ii) under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares") and the Trustee shall sell the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

- (vii) Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Servicer has received notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, direct the Trustee to sell Collateral Obligations as contemplated in the Indenture and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.
- (viii) Workout Assets. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Workout Asset at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and regardless of price and the Trustee shall sell the Workout Assets in accordance with such direction.
- (ix) Tax Sales. The Issuer must sell (not merely hedge) any Eligible Equity Security or security or other consideration that is received in an exchange and any Defaulted Collateral Obligation or any other obligation or security that in each case does not comply with paragraphs (xv), (xxviii) or (xxix) of the definition of Collateral Obligation not later than five Business Days after the Issuer's receipt thereof (or within five Business Days of such later date as such security may first be sold of in accordance with its terms and applicable law).
- (x) Supervening Requirement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Issuer (at the direction of the Servicer or otherwise) will not acquire or dispose of a Collateral Obligation or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer or otherwise, may direct the Trustee to sell any CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligation or Deep Discount Obligation only (a) if it constitutes a Credit Risk Obligation or Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or (b) in connection with the Optional Redemption as set out in paragraph (vi) above. The Trustee will have no obligation to monitor compliance by the Issuer or the Servicer with respect to the requirement set out in this paragraph.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall not direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation (other than the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation or a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation pursuant to a sale that meets the requirements in paragraph (i) or (iii) above, as applicable) following receipt by the Servicer of notice of removal pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement until a successor servicer is appointed pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement. See "The Servicing Agreement."

Certain Determinations Relating to Collateral Obligations

The Indenture provides that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained therein, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have purchased any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer enters into a contract to purchase, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to receive such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have acquired, granted or delivered, as the case may be, such Collateral Obligations on such date.

The Indenture provides that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained therein, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer enters into a contract to sell, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to sell, and requiring the purchaser to purchase, such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold such Collateral Obligations on such date.

Under the circumstances described in the two preceding paragraphs, if the transaction contemplated by the contract, commitment letter, confirmation or due bill referred to therein does not settle on or before the 60th day following the scheduled settlement date (the "Deadline"), the deemed purchase or sale shall be deemed not to have occurred; provided, however, that the Servicer shall have the right to extend the Deadline for an additional period (not to exceed an additional 60 days) by notice to the Trustee, which notice shall include the Servicer's certification to the effect that the Servicer believes that the settlement shall occur on or before the extended Deadline.

Scheduled distributions with respect to any Pledged Collateral Obligation shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Indenture.

The Accounts

The Indenture provides that the Trustee will establish separate segregated securities accounts in the name of the Trustee as entitlement holder for the benefit of the Secured Parties over which the Trustee will have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal, which will be designated as the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Custodial Account, the Synthetic Security Reserve Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Securities Lending Account and the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account. In addition, Synthetic Security Counterparty Accounts and Hedge Counterparty Collateral Accounts may also be established. The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement provides that the Preference Shares Paying Agent will establish a segregated securities account that shall be designated as the Preference Shares Distribution Account for the sole benefit of the Preference Shareholders. Any account may contain any number of subaccounts.

Collection Account. The Trustee shall deposit into the "Collection Account":

- (i) any funds transferred from the Closing Date Expense Account pursuant to the Indenture pursuant to the Indenture;
- (ii) all Principal Proceeds (unless (1) simultaneously used to purchase Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Indenture, (2) deposited into the Synthetic Security Reserve Account, the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or (3) posted by the Issuer as cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security or in Eligible Investments) received by the Trustee;

- (iii) all Interest Proceeds received by the Trustee (unless simultaneously used to purchase accrued interest in respect of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Indenture or in Eligible Investments); and
- (iv) all other funds received by the Trustee from the Collateral and not excluded above.

The Issuer and the Servicer may, but will not be required to, jointly deposit from time to time any monies in the Collection Account it deems, in its sole discretion, to be advisable (and may designate any amounts so deposited as Principal Proceeds or Interest Proceeds in its discretion).

Any Principal Proceeds received during the Replacement Period, and Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments received after the Replacement Period, which have not been used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations on the Business Day of receipt shall be deposited in the Collection Account and shall at the direction of the Servicer be applied to the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria and the other requirements set forth in the Indenture or the purchase of Eligible Investments pending such application or used to enter into additional Hedge Agreements or used in connection with a Special Redemption. Principal Proceeds (other than Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Improved Obligations, Credit Risk Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments) received after the Replacement Period shall be deposited into the Collection Account and applied to the purchase of Eligible Investments.

The Collection Account shall be maintained for the benefit of the Secured Parties and amounts on deposit in the Collection Account will be available for application in the order of priority under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments" and for the acquisition of Collateral Obligations under the circumstances and pursuant to the requirements in the Indenture. Amounts received in the Collection Account during a Due Period and amounts received in prior Due Periods and retained in the Collection Account under the circumstances stated above in "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments" will be applied in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions). All proceeds deposited in the Collection Account will be retained therein unless used to purchase Collateral Obligations during the Replacement Period (or, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, after the Replacement Period) in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria, to honor commitments with respect thereto entered into during or after the Replacement Period, or used as otherwise permitted under the Indenture. See "—Eligibility Criteria."

The Trustee shall transfer to the Payment Account from the Collection Account for application pursuant to the Priority of Payments, no later than the Business Day preceding each Payment Date, the amount set forth to be so transferred in the Valuation Report for the Payment Date.

At any time during or after the Replacement Period, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to pay from amounts on deposit in the Collection Account on any Business Day during any Interest Period from Interest Proceeds only, any Administrative Expenses that require payment before the next Payment Date to the extent that the amount of the payments does not exceed the aggregate amount that may be paid on the next payment Date under, and at the level of priority specified by, "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds"; provided that the Trustee shall be entitled (but not required), without liability on its part, to refrain from making such a requested payment of an Administrative Expense on a day other than a Payment Date if in the reasonable determination of the Trustee the payment of such amount would leave insufficient funds available to pay in full each of the items described in "—Interest Proceeds" in amounts reasonably anticipated by the Trustee to be payable thereunder on the next Payment Date (taking into account the Administrative Expense Cap) or that would result in payments being made that are not in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

On the Determination Date related to the first Payment Date, and at the option of the Servicer, Principal Proceeds in the Collection Account in an amount not to exceed U.S.$2,000,000 may be designated as Interest Proceeds for distribution on the first Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments to the extent such funds are not required to be applied to cure a Rating Confirmation Failure or applied to a Special Redemption.

Custodial Account. The Trustee will hold Collateral Obligations in the "Custodial Account." All assets or securities at any time on deposit in or otherwise to the credit of the Custodial Account will be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

Revolving Reserve Account and Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account. Upon the purchase of any Collateral Obligation that is a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, at the direction of the Servicer, the Trustee shall deposit Principal Proceeds into the Revolving Reserve Account, in the case of a Revolving Loan, and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, in the case of a Delayed Drawdown Loan, each equal to the unfunded commitment amount of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, respectively, and the Principal Proceeds so deposited shall be considered part of the Purchase Price of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan for purposes of the Indenture. At the direction of the Servicer at any time during or after the Replacement Period, the Trustee shall withdraw funds from the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account to fund extensions of credit pursuant to Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans, respectively. In addition, to the extent that the Issuer receives proceeds of a repayment in respect of a Revolving Loan (except to the extent of any concurrent commitment reduction) at any time during or after the Replacement Period, the Trustee shall deposit the proceeds into the Revolving Reserve Account.

Upon the sale of a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan in whole or in part or the reduction in part or termination of the Issuer's commitment thereunder, an amount on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, as the case may be, specified by the Servicer as being equal to (i) the Unfunded Amount of the commitment (in the case of a sale in whole or a termination of the commitment), (ii) the proportionate amount of the amount on deposit (in the case of a sale in part) or (iii) the amount by which the commitment is reduced (in the case of a reduction thereof in part), shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds.

Amounts on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account will be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) not later than the Business Day after the date of their purchase. All interest and other income from amounts in the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account deposited to the Collection Account under the Indenture shall be considered Interest Proceeds in the Due Period in which they are so deposited.

Synthetic Security Reserve Account. Upon the purchase of any Unfunded Synthetic Security, at the direction of the Servicer, the Trustee shall deposit Principal Proceeds into the "Synthetic Security Reserve Account" equal to the commitment amount of such Unfunded Synthetic Security. At the direction of the Servicer at any time during or after the Replacement Period, the Trustee shall withdraw funds from the Synthetic Security Reserve Account to fund the Issuer's payment obligations under the Unfunded Synthetic Securities.

Upon the sale of an Unfunded Synthetic Security in whole or in part or the reduction in part or termination of the Issuer's commitment thereunder, an amount on deposit in the Synthetic Security Reserve Account specified by the Servicer as being equal to (i) the proportionate amount of the amount on deposit (in the case of a sale in part) or (ii) the amount by which the commitment is reduced (in the case of a reduction thereof in part), shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds.

Amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Reserve Account will be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) not later than the Business Day after the date of their purchase. All interest and other income from amounts in the Synthetic Security Reserve Account deposited to the Collection Account under the Indenture shall be considered Interest Proceeds in the Due Period in which they are so deposited.

Synthetic Security Collateral Account. On or before the date on which the Issuer enters into a Synthetic Security the Trustee shall create a sub-account of the securities account established for Synthetic Security Collateral (the "Synthetic Security Collateral Account") with respect to the Synthetic Security. All Synthetic Security Collateral posted by any Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Synthetic Security shall be immediately deposited into the Synthetic Security Collateral Account and posted to the sub-account related to the Synthetic Security. On each day on which amounts are payable to the Issuer out of Synthetic Security Collateral, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to withdraw amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account in an amount sufficient to make the payment (including any total or partial release of Synthetic Security Collateral). The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account shall be:

- (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty to the Issuer under a Synthetic Security if the Synthetic Security becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the Synthetic Security upon any "event of default" under and as defined in the terms of the Synthetic Security, including liquidating the related Synthetic Security Collateral Account; or
- (ii) to return the Synthetic Security Collateral to the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty when and as required by the terms of the Synthetic Security, in each case as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account will be held in Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities not later than one Business Day after their purchase, as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions), and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account. The Trustee will deposit all collateral received from a Hedge Counterparty under any Hedge Agreement into the "Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account." The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account will be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer under a Hedge Agreement if the Hedge Agreement becomes subject to early termination or (ii) to return collateral to the relevant Hedge Counterparty when and as required by the relevant Hedge Agreement, in each case as directed by the Servicer. Amounts on deposit in the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account will be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Closing Date Expense Account. Amounts deposited in the "Closing Date Expense Account" on the Closing Date will be withdrawn to pay certain administrative expenses of the Co-Issuers. On the Payment Date in August 2008 (or, at the discretion of the Servicer, on the Payment Date in May 2008), the Trustee, at the direction of the Servicer in its sole discretion, shall transfer all funds on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account to the Collection Account as Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds and close the Closing Date Expense Account. Amounts on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account shall be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the second Payment Date as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Expense Reimbursement Account. On any Payment Date and on any date between Payment Dates, the Trustee will apply amounts, if any, in the "Expense Reimbursement Account" to the payment of expenses and fees that must be paid between Payment Dates or that are due on that Payment Date under clause (1) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" and the Trustee shall on any Payment Date transfer to the Expense Reimbursement Account an amount equal to the excess, if any of the Administrative Expense Cap over the amounts due under clause (1) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" to the Expense Reimbursement Account in accordance with clause (2) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds." Amounts on deposit in the Expense Reimbursement Account shall be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions), no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date.

Securities Lending Account. The Trustee will deposit all Securities Lending Collateral posted by any Securities Lending Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Securities Lending Agreement in a securities account (the "Securities Lending Account"). The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Securities Lending Account will be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty to the Issuer under a Securities Lending Agreement if the Securities Lending Agreement becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the Securities Lending Agreement upon any "event of default" under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement, including liquidating the related Securities Lending Collateral or (ii) to return collateral to the Securities Lending Counterparty when and as required by a Securities Lending Agreement. Amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account shall be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date. Amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the loaned security or asset that relates to the Securities Lending Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer.

Payment Account. The Trustee will from time to time transfer funds into the "Payment Account," in accordance with the Indenture. All assets or securities at any time on deposit in or otherwise to the credit of the Payment Account will be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Payment Account shall be to pay amounts due and payable on the Notes and to pay Administrative Expenses and other amounts specified in the Indenture, each in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account. On each Payment Date, to the extent of available funds in accordance with the Priority of Payments, the Trustee will deposit into the "Class II

Preference Share Special Payment Account" amounts equal to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments. With respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion (or all) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments, provided that with respect to the Payment Date in May 2008 such Class II Preference Share Special Payments will, at a minimum, include amounts that would otherwise constitute a portion (representing the Class II Preference Share Percentage) of the Servicing Fees that have accrued from the Closing Date to February 3, 2008. For purposes of any calculation under the Indenture and the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will be deemed to have received the Servicing Fee in an amount equal to the sum of the Servicing Fee actually paid to the Servicer and the amount distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments.

Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. To the extent that any Synthetic Security requires the Issuer to secure its obligations to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee and the Trustee shall establish a segregated securities account (the "Synthetic Security Counterparty Account") in the name of the Trustee as entitlement holder in trust for the benefit of such Synthetic Security Counterparty and over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal, acting at the direction of the Synthetic Security Counterparty, in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security and the Indenture. In the alternative, a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account may be established with a trustee designated by the Synthetic Security Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that trustee would qualify to be a successor trustee under the Indenture and the account satisfies the other requirements of a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account under the Indenture.

As directed in writing by the Servicer, the Trustee shall deposit (or deliver for deposit) into each Synthetic Security Counterparty Account all amounts or securities that are required to secure the obligations of the Issuer in accordance with the related Synthetic Security, such deposit to be made from funds held in the Collection Account and available for the purchase of Collateral Obligations under the Indenture (as instructed by the Servicer). The Servicer shall direct any such deposit only during the Replacement Period and only to the extent that monies are available for the purchase of Collateral Obligations pursuant to the Indenture. Any income received on amounts in the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall, after application in accordance with the relevant Synthetic Security, be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Interest Proceeds.

As directed by the Servicer in writing and in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security and the Indenture, amounts on deposit in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be held in Synthetic Security Collateral.

In connection with the occurrence of a credit event or an event of default or a termination event (each as defined in the applicable Synthetic Security) under the related Synthetic Security, amounts in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be withdrawn by the Trustee (or the Trustee shall request their withdrawal) and applied toward the payment of any amounts payable by the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty (other than any Defaulted Synthetic Termination Payments) in accordance with the Synthetic Security, as directed by the Servicer in writing. Any excess amounts held in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account, or held directly by a Synthetic Security Counterparty, after payment of all amounts owing from the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the related Synthetic Security shall be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Principal Proceeds.

Amounts on deposit in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the Synthetic Security that relates to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer (with the notional amount as the Principal Balance unless a default exists under the applicable Synthetic Security).

Hedge Agreements

At any time and from time to time on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer and with the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class, shall enter into the Hedge Agreements and will assign its rights (but none of its obligations) under the Hedge Agreements to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture. The Trustee will, on behalf of the Issuer and in accordance with the Valuation Report, pay amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements on any Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

The Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement the payments from which are subject to withholding tax unless the Issuer is not required to make additional payments to the Hedge Counterparty on account of amounts withheld and the Hedge Counterparty is required to make additional payments so that the net amount received by the Issuer after satisfaction of such tax is the amount due to the Issuer before the imposition of withholding tax. The Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement the entry into, performance or termination of which would subject the Issuer to net income tax in any jurisdiction outside of the Issuer's jurisdiction of incorporation.

Whenever the Issuer enters into a Hedge Agreement, the Hedge Counterparty thereto shall comply with the then currently applicable rating criteria of each Rating Agency from time to time (the "Required Rating").

If at any time a Hedge Counterparty does not have the Required Rating, then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within the applicable period specified in the related Hedge Agreement post collateral, obtain a guarantor, replace itself with a substitute Hedge Counterparty or take such other measures as specified in the applicable Hedge Agreement.

Any payments required to be made under the Hedge Agreements shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments shall be subordinate to interest and principal payments on the Notes and any other payments required to be made by the Issuer under the Hedge Agreements, but senior to distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Indenture.

Unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is otherwise satisfied, following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, shall promptly (but no later than 60 days after the early termination), and to the extent possible through Hedge Termination Receipts, enter into a replacement hedge, unless, in the exercise of the Servicer's commercially reasonable judgment, to do so would not be in the best interest of the Issuer and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to not entering into a replacement hedge. In addition, a replacement hedge may not be entered into unless the Issuer provides the Rating Agencies with at least seven Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to enter into a replacement hedge, together with its form and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the replacement hedge. The Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than a termination resulting from the bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar event with respect to the Hedge Counterparty) to become effective simultaneously with its entering into a replacement hedge. To the extent that (i) the Servicer determines not to replace the Hedge Agreement and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the determination; or (ii) termination is occurring on a Redemption Date, the Hedge Termination Receipts shall become part of Principal Proceeds and be distributed in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the next following Payment Date (or on the Redemption Date, if the Notes are redeemed on the Redemption Date).

The notional amounts of the Hedge Agreements outstanding at any time may be reduced or increased from time to time, by the Issuer, and the Hedge Agreements may be amended, modified, or terminated in accordance with the Hedge Agreements if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the reduction, increase, amendment, modification, or termination, as the case may be.

Each Hedge Agreement may be terminated pursuant to its terms by the Hedge Counterparty upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes, an acceleration of maturity of the Notes followed by the liquidation of any or all of the Collateral after an Event of Default or the entry into certain amendments to the Indenture without the consent of the Hedge Counterparty. The Hedge Agreement will not be permitted to be terminated by the Issuer as the result of a Default or Event of Default unless any acceleration of maturity of the Notes resulting from the Event of Default is no longer permitted to be rescinded pursuant to the Indenture.

Except for Hedge Agreements entered into on or before the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied.

Securities Lending

The Indenture permits the Issuer to engage in a limited number of securities lending transactions as described below.

The Servicer may instruct the Trustee to cause Collateral Obligations that are not Defaulted Collateral Obligations to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A" or a short-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A-1" from S&P (each, a "Securities Lending Counterparty") pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a "Securities Lending Agreement"); provided that Collateral Obligations the Market Value of which cannot be determined under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Collateral Obligations to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Servicer. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Initial Purchasers or Affiliates of the Servicer. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Stated Maturity of the Notes. Collateral Obligations representing no more than 15% (measured by Aggregate Principal Balance) of the Maximum Amount may be loaned pursuant to Securities Lending Agreements at any time.

Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Servicer (except to the extent specified in the Indenture) and shall:

- (i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Issuer debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent Collateral Obligations;
- (ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Issuer amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent Collateral Obligation is entitled to for the period during which the Collateral Obligation is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities Lending Agreement to make "gross-up" payments to the Issuer that cover the full amount of the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;

- (iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;
- (iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;
- (v) be governed by the laws of New York;
- (vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture;
- (vii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Collateral Obligation becomes a Credit Risk Obligation or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;
- (viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty upon any redemption of the Notes in whole;
- (ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement to secure its obligation to return the Collateral Obligations or in the alternative post that collateral with a custodian for the benefit of the Issuer designated by the Securities Lending Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that custodian would qualify to be a successor trustee under the Indenture;
- (x) provide that the Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained as provided in the related Securities Lending Agreement and if securities are delivered to the Trustee as security for the obligations of the Securities Lending Counterparty under the related Securities Lending Agreement, the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will negotiate with the Securities Lending Counterparty a rate for the loan fee to be paid to the Issuer for lending the lent Collateral Obligations;
- (xi) the lent Collateral Obligations shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Servicer on the basis of their Market Value;
- (xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer's rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement rather than the loaned Collateral Obligation;
- (xiii) provide for early termination within ten days at the option of the Issuer and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in the Indenture; and

- (xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in the Indenture.

In addition, if either Moody's or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty, then the Issuer shall take such steps as provided in the related Securities Lending Agreements.

The Servicer shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity, or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in the Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Collateral Obligation is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement, (a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Collateral Obligation because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action) and (b) the loaned Collateral Obligations shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as a Collateral Obligation by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Collateral Obligation to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under the Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

MATURITY AND PREPAYMENT CONSIDERATIONS

The Stated Maturity of each Class of Notes will be November 1, 2021 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date; however, the principal of each Class of the Notes is expected to be paid in full prior to its Stated Maturity (or Extended Stated Maturity Date, as applicable). Average life refers to the average amount of time that will elapse from the date of delivery of a security until each dollar of the principal of such security will be paid to the investor. The average lives of the Notes will be determined by the amount and frequency of principal payments, which are dependent upon, among other things, the amount of sinking fund payments and any other payments received at or in advance of the scheduled maturity of Collateral Obligations (whether through sale, maturity, redemption, default or other liquidation or disposition).

The actual performance of the Securities will also be affected by the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral Obligations and the characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, including the interest rate or other rate of distribution, the actual default rate and actual losses sustained, the existence and frequency of exercise of any prepayment, optional redemption, or sinking fund features and any related premium, the prevailing level of interest rates, any sales of Collateral Obligations, and any unique risks of the Collateral Obligations. Any disposition of a Collateral Obligation may change the composition and characteristics of the portfolio of Collateral Obligations and their rate of payment, and, accordingly, may affect the actual performance of each respective Class of Securities. The ability of the Issuer to apply any Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds in the manner described under "Security for the Notes" will also affect the performance of the Securities. Redemptions will also affect the performance of the Securities.

General

Based in Dallas, Texas, Highland Capital is a registered investment adviser specializing in below investment-grade credit and special situation investing. As of June 30, 2007, Highland Capital managed over $40.02 billion in leveraged loans, high yield bonds, structured products and other assets for banks, insurance companies, pension plans, foundations and high net worth individuals.

Highland Capital manages or services these assets through a variety of fund structures including separate accounts, CDOs, hedge funds and mutual funds. As of June 30, 2007, Highland Capital invested in approximately 1,700 issuers across its portfolios and Highland Capital's 100-person credit team followed below investment grade and credit sensitive credit positions across over 36 industries. Highland Capital or an Affiliate or predecessor thereof has been an SEC-registered investment adviser since April 1993.

Philosophy and Process

Highland Capital has a large range and depth of experience. It has expertise in the fields of syndicated loans, high yield bonds, and distressed assets. Highland Capital believes it is in a position to maximize the spread differential between the yields on underlying collateral and the cost of financing. In addition, Highland Capital seeks to construct portfolios to (a) maximize relative value based on its credit views and (b) maximize diversification in order to minimize the effect of isolated credit events on the overall portfolio, utilizing Highland Capital's infrastructure to minimize defaults of underlying assets and to maximize recoveries in the case of defaults. Highland Capital has over $1.0 billion of firm capital exposure to the firm's funds and expects that HFP, an Affiliate of the Servicer, and/or one or more of HFP's subsidiaries will on the Closing Date purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares.

Highland Capital believes that its disciplined selection process minimizes a portfolio's risk and that its analysis seeks to maximize yield spread while limiting downside risk. Portfolio managers actively follow each credit and several times each year the entire staff reviews all positions during multi-day monitoring meetings. Highland Capital diversifies its portfolios with set limits on exposure to any one given industry or issuer. Highland Capital believes that this philosophy and selection process has resulted in positive returns on its underlying loan portfolio and consistent outperformance relative to its indices.

Highland Capital focuses on a "team" approach that it has used since 1990. It is Highland Capital management's belief that this style creates the optimum environment for the exchange of information and the development of all asset management professionals. All aspects of the selection, monitoring and servicing process are coordinated through the senior asset portfolio managers' direct interaction. A committee of senior portfolio managers and analysts, Highland Capital's Chief Investment Officer and its Head of Structured Products meets every morning to discuss the status of the credits. Collectively, the committee utilizes a selection and monitoring process which is driven by fundamental credit research. Each portfolio manager/analyst makes specific credit recommendations based upon industry coverage. The credit recommendation is then brought to the committee for consideration. Based upon the consensus decision, the portfolio manager with the recommendation will direct Highland Capital traders to execute the trade. Highland Capital has also provided its committee with a strong commitment to technology.

The firm developed Wall Street Office® which is a proprietary software system that allows Highland Capital to model, portfolio manage, and trade syndicated loans. This software has been licensed to more than 70 financial institutions that acquire syndicated loans.

THE SERVICING AGREEMENT

The following summary describes certain provisions of the Servicing Agreement. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Servicing Agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement, and in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Indenture, the Servicer will select the portfolio of Collateral Obligations and will instruct the Trustee with respect to any acquisition, disposition or sale of a Collateral Obligation or an Eligible Investment. Neither of the Initial Purchasers and none of their Affiliates will select any of the Collateral Obligations.

Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will monitor the Collateral Obligations and provide the Issuer with certain information received from the Collateral Administrator with respect to the composition and characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, any disposition or tender of a Collateral Obligation, the application of the proceeds of any such disposition to the purchase of Eligible Investments and with respect to the retention of the proceeds of any such disposition or the application thereof toward the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations. The Servicer will, and will be authorized to, negotiate, on behalf of the Issuer, with respect to all actions to be taken by the Issuer under any Hedge Agreements.

As compensation for the performance of its obligations as Servicer, the Servicer will be entitled to receive:

- (i) a fee (the "Senior Servicing Fee") that accrues from the Closing Date payable to the Servicer in arrears on each Payment Date equal to 0.30% per annum of the Maximum Amount if and to the extent funds are available for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments (with the Senior Servicing Fee being calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months);
- (ii) an amount (the "Subordinated Servicing Fee") payable on each Payment Date equal to the sum of (a) a fee that accrues from the Closing Date payable to the Servicer in arrears on each Payment Date equal to 0.25% per annum of the Maximum Amount if and to the extent funds are available for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments and (b) on any Payment Date that any part of the Subordinated Servicing Fee was not paid on the preceding Payment Date, an amount equal to interest on such unpaid amount at a rate of LIBOR for the applicable period plus 3.00% per annum (with the portion of the Subordinated Servicing Fee, in clauses (a) and (b) above, as applicable, being calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months); and
- (iii) a fee (the "Supplemental Servicing Fee" and together with the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee, the "Servicing Fee"), if any, payable on each Payment Date to the Servicer in an amount equal to: (i) 20% of the remaining Interest Proceeds, if any, available after making the distributions on such Payment Date pursuant to clause (23) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" and (ii) 20% of the remaining Principal Proceeds, if any, available for payment in respect of the Supplemental Servicing Fee pursuant to clause (11)(A) and, if applicable, clause (14), in each case pursuant to "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds."

On each Payment Date, as and to the extent described under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments," the Trustee will deposit the Class II Preference Share Portion of the Servicing Fees into the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account. With respect to any Payment Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments, provided that with respect to the Payment Date in May 2008 such Class II Preference Share Special Payments will, at a minimum, include amounts that would otherwise constitute a portion of the Servicing Fees that have accrued from the Closing Date through February 3, 2008. For purposes of any calculation under the Indenture and the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will be deemed to have received the Servicing Fee in an amount equal to the sum of the Servicing Fee actually paid to the Servicer and the amount distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments as described above. See "Security for the Notes—The Accounts—Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account."

In addition, notwithstanding anything set out above, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion waive all or any portion of the Subordinated Servicing Fee or Supplemental Servicing Fee, any funds representing the waived Subordinated Servicing Fees or Supplemental Servicing Fees to be retained in the Collection Account for distribution as either Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds (as determined by the Servicer) pursuant to the Priority of Payments.

In addition, the Servicer will be reimbursed for its reasonable expenses incurred with respect to any compliance requirements, including, but not limited to, compliance with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act solely related to the ownership or holding of any Securities by HFP or any of its subsidiaries to the extent funds are available therefor in accordance with and subject to the Priority of Payments and other limitations contained in the Indenture.

The Servicer, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, and its Affiliates and their directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, shall not be liable to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Holders of the Securities or any other person for any losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (collectively "Liabilities") incurred by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Holders of the Securities or any other person that arise out of or in connection with the performance by the Servicer of its duties under the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture, except by reason of (i) acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance, or reckless disregard, of the obligations of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to it or (ii) with respect to any information included in this Offering Memorandum in the section entitled "The Servicer" and paragraphs 1,2,3,4,5,7 and 11 in the section entitled "Risk Factors—Certain Conflicts of Interest— The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer" that contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (the preceding clauses (i) and (ii) collectively being the "Servicer Breaches"). The Servicer will be liable for any non-waivable breaches of applicable securities laws.

The Issuer will indemnify and hold harmless the Servicer, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees (such parties collectively in such case, the "Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Liabilities, and shall reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) (collectively, the "Expenses") as such Expenses are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the "Actions"), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with, the issuance of the Securities, the transactions contemplated by this Offering Memorandum, the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided, however, that no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions by any Indemnified Party constituting Servicer Breaches. Any such indemnification by the Issuer will be paid in accordance with, and subject to, the Priority of Payments.

Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will agree that on the Closing Date, (i) HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries will purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes and (ii) the Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates is expected to purchase certain of the Class I Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes.

The Issuer may, at the request of the Servicer, enter into an amendment or modification of the Servicing Agreement from time to time, without the consent of the Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not the interests of the Holders of the Securities are adversely affected thereby; provided that, with respect to any such amendment or modification, (a) the Rating Condition is satisfied and (b) a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares have not objected in writing to such amendment or modification prior to the relevant Objection Cut-Off Date (as defined below).

If at any time the Servicer desires to amend or modify the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will notify the Issuer and the Trustee, providing details of such proposed amendment or modification. Not later than five Business Days after receipt of such notice, the Trustee will mail such notice to (i) each Noteholder at such Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository, Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, (ii) to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and (iii) to each Rating Agency. If any Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes or any Holder of the Preference Shares notifies, by delivering a written notice to the Trustee within 35 days after the Trustee has mailed such notice, that it objects to such proposed amendment or modification, the Trustee will, within two Business Days after receiving such notice of objection, mail a notice of the receipt of such objection to the Issuer, the Servicer and other Holders of the Controlling Class of Notes and other Holders of the Preference Shares. Each Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes and each Holder of the Preference Shares that also wishes to object to such amendment or modification must, by delivering a written notice, so notify the Trustee within seven Business Days after the Trustee has mailed such notice of the receipt of such objection (the last day of such seven Business Day period, the "Objection Cut-Off Date"). If a Majority of either the Controlling Class of Notes or the Preference Shares notifies the Trustee in writing on or before the Objection Cut-Off Date that they object to the proposed amendment or modification to the Servicing Agreement, such amendment or modification will not be made.

The Servicing Agreement provides that the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Servicer such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Servicer, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (iii) such transaction is permitted by the Advisers Act. The Servicing Agreement also provides that the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Servicer, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (ii) permitted by the Advisers Act.

Subject to the provisions for a successor servicer discussed below, the Servicer may resign, upon 90 days' written notice to the Issuer (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer).

The Servicing Agreement will be terminated, and the Servicer will be removed, by the Issuer, if directed by the Trustee (acting at the direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes)) or by a Super Majority of the Voting Preference Shares, in each case for "cause" upon 10 days' prior written notice to the Servicer and upon written notice to the Holders of the Securities as set forth below. For purposes of determining "cause" with respect to any such termination of the Servicing Agreement, such term shall mean any one of the following events:

(i) the Servicer willfully breaches in any respect, or takes any action that it knows violates in any respect, any provision of the Servicing Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it;

(ii) the Servicer breaches in any material respect any provision of the Servicing Agreement or any terms of the Indenture or the Collateral Administration Agreement applicable to it, or any representation, warranty, certification or statement given in writing by the Servicer shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect when made or given, and the Servicer fails to cure such breach or take such action so that the facts (after giving effect to such action) conform in all material respects to such representation, warranty, certificate or statement, in each case within 30 days of becoming aware of, or receiving notice from, the Trustee of, such breach or materially incorrect representation, warranty, certificate or statement;

(iii) certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency occur with respect to the Servicer;

(iv) the occurrence of any Event of Default under the Indenture that results from any breach by the Servicer of its duties under the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period; or

(v) (x) the occurrence of an act by the Servicer related to its activities in any servicing, securities, financial advisory or other investment business that constitutes fraud, (y) the Servicer being indicted, or any of its principals being convicted, of a felony criminal offense related to its activities in any servicing, securities, financial advisory or other investment business or (z) the Servicer being indicted for, adjudged liable in a civil suit for, or convicted of a violation of the Securities Act or any other United States Federal securities law or any rules or regulations thereunder.

No removal or resignation of the Servicer will be effective under the Servicing Agreement unless (A)(i) at the written direction of a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares, the Issuer appoints a successor servicer and such successor servicer has assumed in writing all of the Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture and (ii) the successor servicer is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Voting Notes (voting as a single Class) or (B) if a Majority of the Voting Preferences Shares has nominated two or more successor servicers that have been objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (A)(ii) or has failed to appoint a successor servicer that has not been objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (A)(ii) within 30 days of the date of notice of such removal or resignation of the Servicer, (i) at the written direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes), the Issuer appoints a successor servicer and such successor servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture and (ii) the successor servicer is not objected to within 45 days after notice of such succession by either (x) a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares (voting as a single class) or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Voting Notes (voting as a single Class); provided that if the Issuer fails to appoint a successor servicer pursuant to the preceding clauses (A)(ii) and (B)(ii) within 90 days of the date of notice of such removal or resignation of the Servicer, any Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) or any Holder of Voting Preference Shares petitions a court of competent authority to appoint a successor servicer, such court appoints a successor servicer and such successor servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to the Servicing Agreement. In addition, any successor servicer must be an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as Servicer under the Servicing Agreement, as successor to the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement and under the applicable terms of the Indenture, (iii) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of Collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, (iv) shall perform its duties as successor servicer under the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture without causing the Issuer to become subject to net income tax in any jurisdiction outside the Issuer's jurisdiction of incorporation or otherwise incur adverse tax consequences to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Holder of any Securities and (v) each Rating Agency has confirmed that the appointment of such successor servicer shall not cause its then-current rating of any Class of Notes to be reduced or withdrawn. No compensation payable to a successor from payments on the Collateral shall be greater than that paid to the Servicer without the prior written consent of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes, a Majority of the Notes and a Majority of the Preference Shares.

The Servicing Agreement, and any obligations or duties of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement, cannot be delegated by the Servicer, in whole or in part, except to any entity that (i) is controlled by any of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers and (ii) is one in which any of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers is involved in the day to day management and operations (and in any such case pursuant to an instrument of delegation in form and substance satisfactory to the Issuer), without the prior written consent of the Issuer, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) and a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares and, notwithstanding any such consent, no delegation of obligations or duties by the Servicer (including, without limitation, to an entity described above) shall relieve the Servicer from any liability under the Servicing Agreement.

The Administration Agreement may be terminated by the Issuer upon 14 days' written notice following the happening of certain events or upon 90 days' written notice in all other cases. There is no requirement in the Administration Agreement that a replacement administrator be appointed prior to the effectiveness of any withdrawal or termination of the Administrator. 1. The purchaser is a licensed entity or financial institution regulated in a country recognized as having an adequate anti-money laundering regime<sup>1</sup>;
2. The purchaser is an entity or financial institution listed on the Cayman Islands or other approved stock exchange<sup>2</sup>; or
3. The funds have been paid from an account held in the name of the purchaser at a financial institution based in a country recognized as having an adequate anti-money laundering regime.

INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a summary based on present law of certain Cayman Islands and U.S. federal income tax considerations for prospective purchasers of the Securities. It addresses only purchasers that buy in the original offering at the original offering price, hold the Securities as capital assets and use the U.S. dollar as their functional currency. The discussion is a general summary. It is not a substitute for tax advice. The discussion does not consider the circumstances of particular purchasers, some of which (such as banks, insurance companies, securities traders and dealers or persons holding the Notes or Preference Shares as part of a hedge, straddle, conversion, integrated or constructive sale transaction) are subject to special tax regimes.

THE STATEMENTS ABOUT U.S. FEDERAL TAX ISSUES ARE MADE TO SUPPORT MARKETING OF THE SECURITIES. NO TAXPAYER CAN RELY ON THEM TO AVOID TAX PENALTIES. EACH PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER SHOULD SEEK ADVICE FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR ABOUT THE TAX CONSEQUENCES UNDER ITS OWN PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES OF INVESTING IN SECURITIES UNDER THE LAWS OF THE CAYMAN ISLANDS, THE UNITED STATES AND ITS CONSTITUENT JURISDICTIONS AND ANY OTHER JURISDICTION WHERE THE PURCHASER MAY BE SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

For purposes of this discussion, a "Holder" is a beneficial owner of a Security. A "U.S. Holder" is a Holder that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes (i) an individual citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation, partnership or other business entity organized in or under the laws of the United States or its political subdivisions, (iii) a trust subject to the control of a U.S. person and the primary supervision of a U.S. court or (iv) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source. A "Non-U.S. Holder" is any Holder other than a U.S. Holder.

Taxation of the Issuer

Cayman Islands Taxation

The Issuer will not be subject to income, capital, transfer, sales or franchise tax in the Cayman Islands. The Issuer has been incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands as an exempted company. The Issuer has obtained or expects to obtain an undertaking from the Governor-in-Cabinet of the Cayman Islands in substantially the following form:

The Tax Concessions Law
(1999) Revision
Undertaking as to Tax Concessions

In accordance with Section 6 of the Tax Concession Law (1999 Revision) the Governor in Cabinet undertakes with Stratford CLO, Ltd. (the "Issuer"):

(a) That no law which is hereinafter enacted in the Cayman Islands imposing any tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations shall apply to the Issuer or its operations; and

(b) In addition, that no tax be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations or which is in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax shall be payable:

(i) on or in respect of the shares, debentures or other obligations of the Issuer; or

(ii) by way of the withholding in whole or in part of any relevant payments as defined in Section 6(3) of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision).

These concessions shall be for a period of twenty years from October 24, 2006.

U.S. Taxation

Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP, special U.S. federal income tax counsel to the Issuer, will provide the Issuer with an opinion of counsel to the effect that although there is no authority directly addressing the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a non-U.S. corporation engaging in similar activities, assuming that the Servicer and the Issuer comply with the provisions of the Indenture, the Servicing Agreement and the other transaction documents, the Issuer will not be engaged in a trade or business within the United States. Prospective investors should be aware that an opinion of counsel is not binding on the IRS or the courts, and that no ruling will be sought from the IRS regarding the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Issuer. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not take a position that is contrary to the opinions of special U.S. federal income tax counsel to the Issuer, or that a court will not agree with the contrary position of the IRS if the matter were litigated. As long as the Issuer conducts its affairs so that it is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States, its net income will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax. Should the Issuer acquire certain Eligible Equity Securities, Defaulted Collateral Obligations or securities received in an exchange issued by a non-corporate entity engaged in a U.S. trade or business, those securities or obligations should not cause the Issuer's income from other securities or obligations to become subject to net income tax in the United States. There are no restrictions on the location from which the Servicer may perform its duties under the Servicing Agreement and performance of such duties from certain locations could subject the Issuer to state, local or foreign net income or franchise tax. The Issuer also expects that payments received on the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments generally will not be subject to withholding taxes imposed by the United States or other countries from which such payments are sourced. There can be no assurance, however, that the Issuer's income will not become subject to net income or withholding taxes in the United States or other countries as the result of unanticipated activities by the Issuer, changes in law, contrary conclusions by relevant tax authorities or other causes. Income from Eligible Equity Securities, Defaulted Collateral Obligations or securities received in an exchange of U.S. issuers is likely to be subject to U.S. tax. The extent to which United States or other source country taxes may apply to the Issuer's income will depend on the actual composition of its assets. In addition, the Issuer will hold obligations or securities that include or support letters of credit. Whether payments received with respect to such obligations or securities are subject to United States withholding tax is unclear. The imposition of unanticipated net income or withholding taxes could materially impair the Issuer's ability to pay principal, interest and other amounts on the Notes and to make distributions on the Preference Shares.

Taxation of the Holders

U.S. Taxation

Notes

Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP, special U.S. federal income tax counsel to the Issuer, believes that the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes will be treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Issuer intends, and the Indenture provides that each holder will agree, to treat all of the Notes as debt for such purposes, and the following discussion assumes that the Notes will be debt.

U.S. Holders. A U.S. Holder of a Note generally must include qualified stated interest in gross income in accordance with its regular method of tax accounting. Qualified stated interest generally is interest that is unconditionally payable. Because stated interest on the Notes is determined at a floating rate, it is treated as accruing at a hypothetical fixed rate equal to the value of the floating rate on the issue date. The amount of qualified stated interest actually recognized for any accrual period will increase (or decrease) if the interest actually paid during the period is more (or less) than the amount accrued at the hypothetical fixed rate.

A U.S. Holder of a Note issued with more than de minimis original issue discount ("OID") also must include the OID in income on a constant yield to maturity basis whether or not it receives cash payments. Generally, a debt instrument has OID if its stated redemption price at maturity exceeds its issue price by as much as 0.25% of its stated redemption price multiplied its weighted average maturity ("de minimis OID"). The issue price of a debt instrument is the initial offering price at which a substantial amount is sold (excluding sales to brokers or similar persons). The stated redemption price at maturity of a debt instrument is the total of all payments due on the debt instrument other than payments of qualified stated interest. Because stated interest on the Class A Notes and Class B Notes may not be deferred, stated interest on these Notes is treated as qualified stated interest. The amount of OID, if any, allocable to each accrual period will be an amount equal to the product of the Note's adjusted issue price at the beginning of the accrual period and the yield to maturity, less the amount of any qualified stated interest payments for such accrual period. A Note's adjusted issue price at the beginning of any accrual period generally equals its initial issue price increased by the aggregate amounts of OID accrued on the Note in all prior accrual periods and reduced by all prior payments other than payments of qualified stated interest.

Because interest on the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes may be deferred, stated interest on those Notes will not be treated as qualified stated interest and therefore will be treated as OID unless the likelihood of deferral is remote. The Issuer has not been able to determine that the likelihood of deferral is remote and, therefore, will treat the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes as issued with OID that includes all stated interest as well as any excess of their par amount over issue price (since any such excess will, together with stated interest, exceed the de minimis amount). Because the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes bear interest at a floating rate, a holder must make adjustments to the OID recognized in an accrual period to the extent the interest actually payable for the period differs from the interest payable at the hypothetical fixed rate. Even if the likelihood of deferral were remote, a U.S. Holder must accrue OID on the unpaid amount (including accrued but undistributed OID of any Class of Notes on which interest actually was deferred).

Because the Stated Maturity of the Notes may be extended if certain conditions are met, it is unclear whether the Notes should be treated as maturing on 2021 or 2037. The Treasury regulations do not provide clear guidance on debt instruments with terms similar to the Notes. The Issuer intends to take the position that the Notes should, prior to exercise of the Issuer's extension right, be treated as maturing on 2021. The Issuer also intends to take the position that the Extension Bonus Payment is not treated as contingent interest (causing the Notes to be subject to special rules for contingent payment debt instruments) but rather as consideration for exercise of that right. The following discussion assumes those treatments are correct. Prospective investors in the Notes should consult their tax advisors regarding whether the Notes should be treated as maturing on a different date and the tax consequences if the Notes have a maturity date other than 2021 or if the Extension Bonus Payment is treated as contingent interest.

If the Issuer's exercises its extension right, the federal income tax consequences to a Holder will depend on whether that extension is treated as resulting in a deemed retirement of the Notes in exchange for an issuance of new Notes ("New Notes") in a deemed exchange for U.S. federal income tax purposes (a "Deemed Exchange"). The first extension of the Stated Maturity of the Notes (the "Extension") will result in a Deemed Exchange if the Issuer's right to extend that maturity is not treated as a unilateral option and the yield to maturity of the Notes is, after taking into account the Extension Bonus Payment, changed by more than 25 basis points from the yield to maturity of the Notes immediately before the Extension. For any subsequent Extension, the Extension will result in a Deemed Exchange unless the right to extend is treated as a unilateral option. If the Extension is treated as a Deemed Exchange, a U.S. Holder will recognize gain, if any, and any recognition of loss will be deferred until the Holder disposes of the Note, if any. In computing that gain or loss, a U.S. Holder will be treated as realizing an amount equal to the sum of (x) the Extension Bonus Payment and (y) (i) if the New Notes are treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the issue price of the New Notes or (ii) if the New Notes are not treated as debt for such purposes, their fair market value. Whether the New Notes are treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes would depend on the facts and circumstances at the time of such a Deemed Exchange. If the New Notes are treated as debt, their issue price will depend on whether the Notes or New Notes are treated as "publicly traded" for U.S. federal income tax purposes taking into account facts at that time. If the Notes are treated as publicly traded, the issue price of the New Notes will be their fair market value. If they are debt but are not publicly traded, assuming the stated interest rate on the Notes exceeds the "applicable federal rate" at that time (as the Issuer expects to be the case), their issue price will be equal to stated par amount. U.S. Holders are strongly urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of such a Deemed Exchange.

The Issuer's right to extend maturity should, assuming the Extension Bonus Payment is considered determined based on a formula that uses objective financial information (as Issuer expects), be treated as a unilateral option (so that exercise of that right does not, by itself, cause a Deemed Exchange) unless at the time of the Extension, the Extension Qualifying Purchaser is related to the Issuer. Whether the Extension Qualifying Purchaser will be treated as related to the Issuer must be determined by the ownership of the Preference Shares at each Extension Effective Date.

Even if the Issuer's right to extend maturity is not a unilateral option, the Extension may not be treated as a Deemed Exchange unless the Extension Bonus Payment changes yield by more than 25 basis points. In making this determination, (a) the Extension Bonus Payment should be treated as reducing the adjusted issue price of the Notes, (b) remaining yield to maturity determined based on discounting all remaining payments (with the assumed amount of stated interest payments determined using the current value of the floating rate) back to that adjusted issue price over the remaining maturity of the Notes and (c) that remaining yield compared to the yield on the Notes as of the date of the Extension (determined without regard to the Extension Bonus Payment, and also using the current value of the floating rate on the Notes).

If the Issuer's right to extend maturity is a unilateral option and the change in yield resulting from payment of the Extension Bonus Payment does not exceed 25 basis points, the Extension should not be treated as a Deemed Exchange. In that case, the Issuer will treat the Extension Bonus Payment as reducing a U.S. Holder's basis in the Notes and will treat the Notes as reissued solely for purposes of determining OID at a price equal to their adjusted issue price at that time (reduced by the Extension Bonus Payment), generally with the effect that the Extension Bonus Payment is taken into account over the remaining maturity of the Notes rather than upon a Deemed Exchange in computing gain or loss.

Interest and OID on the Notes will be ordinary income, and assuming the Issuer is not engaged in a U.S. trade or business, the interest and OID will be generally from sources outside the United States.

A U.S. Holder generally will recognize gain or loss on the disposition of a Note in an amount equal to the difference between the amount realized (excluding accrued but unpaid, qualified stated interest) and the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the Note. The gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss from sources within the United States.

Alternative Treatment. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service may challenge the treatment of the Notes, particularly the Class D Notes and Class E Notes, as debt of the Issuer. If the challenge were to succeed, a U.S. Holder of the affected Notes would be treated like a Holder of Preference Shares that had not elected to treat the Issuer as a qualified electing fund, as described below.

Non-U.S. Holders. Interest paid to a Non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to U.S. withholding tax as long as the Issuer is not engaged in a U.S. trade or business. Even if the Issuer were engaged in a U.S. trade or business, interest paid to many Non-U.S. Holders would qualify for an exemption from withholding tax if the holders certify their foreign status. Interest paid to a Non-U.S. Holder also will not be subject to U.S. federal net income tax unless such amounts are effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States. Gain realized by a Non-U.S. Holder on the redemption or disposition of a Note will not be subject to U.S. tax unless (i) the gain is effectively connected with the Holder's conduct of a U.S. trade or business or (ii) the Holder is an individual present in the United States for at least 183 days during the taxable year of disposition and certain other conditions are met.

Preference Shares

U.S. Holders. Subject to the passive foreign investment company rules and the controlled foreign corporation rules discussed below, a U.S. Holder generally must treat distributions received with respect to the Preference Shares as dividend income. Dividends will not be eligible for the dividends-received deduction allowable to corporations or for the preferential tax rate applicable to qualified dividend income of individuals and certain other non-corporate taxpayers. For purposes of determining a U.S. Holder's foreign tax credit limitation, dividends received from a foreign corporation generally are treated as income from sources outside the United States. If U.S. Holders together hold at least half (by vote or value) of the Preference Shares and other interests treated as equity in the Issuer, however, a percentage of the dividend income equal to the proportion of the Issuer's income that comes from U.S. sources will be treated as income from sources within the United States. Except as otherwise required by the rules discussed below, gain or loss on the sale or other disposition of the Preference Shares will be capital gain or loss. Gain and loss realized by a U.S. Holder generally will be U.S. source income.

Passive Foreign Investment Company. The Issuer will be a passive foreign investment company (a "PFIC"). A U.S. Holder therefore will be subject to additional tax on excess distributions received on the Preference Shares or gains realized on the disposition of the Preference Shares. A U.S. Holder will have an excess distribution if distributions received on the Preference Shares during any tax year exceed 125% of the average amount received during the three preceding tax years (or, if shorter, the U.S. Holder's holding period). A U.S. Holder may realize gain for this purpose not only through a sale or other disposition, but also by pledging the Preference Shares as security for a loan or entering into certain constructive disposition transactions. To compute the tax on an excess distribution or any gain, (i) the excess distribution or gain is allocated ratably over the U.S. Holder's holding period, (ii) the amount allocated to the current tax year is taxed as ordinary income and (iii) the amount allocated to each previous tax year is taxed at the highest applicable marginal rate for that year and an interest charge is imposed to recover the deemed benefit from the deferred payment of the tax. These rules effectively prevent a U.S. Holder from treating gain on the Preference Shares as capital gain.

A U.S. Holder of Preference Shares may wish to avoid the tax consequences just described by electing to treat the Issuer as a qualified electing fund ("QEF"). If the U.S. Holder makes a QEF election, the U.S. Holder will be required to include in gross income each year, whether or not the Issuer makes distributions, its pro rata share of the Issuer's net earnings. That income will be long-term capital gain to the extent of the U.S. Holder's pro rata share of the Issuer's net capital gains. The remainder will be ordinary income. Amounts recognized by a U.S. Holder making a QEF election generally are treated as income from sources outside the United States. If U.S. Holders together hold at least half (by vote or value) of the Preference Shares and other interests treated as equity in the Issuer, however, a percentage of those amounts equal to the proportion of the Issuer's income that comes from U.S. sources will be U.S. source income for the U.S. Holders. Because the U.S. Holder has already paid tax on them, the amounts previously included in income will not be subject to tax when they are distributed to the U.S. Holder. An electing U.S. Holder's basis in the Preference Shares will increase by any amounts the holder includes in income currently and decrease by any amounts not subject to tax when distributed. The Issuer will provide holders of the Preference Shares with the information needed to make a QEF election.

A U.S. Holder that makes a QEF election may recognize income in amounts significantly greater than the distributions received from the Issuer. Income may exceed distributions when, for example, the Issuer uses earnings to repay principal on the Notes or accrues original issue discount or market discount on Collateral Obligations. A U.S. Holder that makes a QEF election will be required to include in income currently its pro rata share of the earnings or discount whether or not the Issuer actually makes distributions. Purchasers of the Class I Preference Shares should note that, because of the priority given to the Class II Preference Shares in respect of certain distributions, U.S. holders of Class I Preference Shares that make a QEF election could pay taxes on their pro rata share of earnings even though the related cash is distributed to holders of the Class II Preference Shares. The holder may be able to elect to defer payment, subject to an interest charge for the deferral period, of the tax on income recognized on account of the QEF election. Prospective purchasers should consult their tax advisors about the advisability of making the QEF and deferred payment elections.

Controlled Foreign Corporation. The Issuer also may be a controlled foreign corporation (a "CFC") if U.S. Holders that each own (directly, indirectly or by attribution) at least 10% of the Preference Shares and any other interests treated as voting equity in the Issuer (each such U.S. Holder, a "10% U.S. Shareholder") together own more than 50% (by vote or value) of the Preference Shares and any other interests treated as equity in the Issuer. If the Issuer is a CFC, a 10% U.S. Shareholder will be subject to the CFC rules rather than the PFIC rules. A 10% U.S. Shareholder on the last day of the Issuer's taxable year must recognize ordinary income equal to its pro rata share of the Issuer's net earnings (including both ordinary earnings and capital gains) for the tax year whether or not the Issuer makes a distribution. The income will be treated as income from sources within the United States to the extent it is derived by the Issuer from U.S. sources. Earnings on which the U.S. Holder pays tax currently will not be taxed again when they are distributed to the U.S. Holder. A U.S. Holder's basis in its interest in the Issuer will increase by any amounts the holder includes in income currently and decrease by any amounts not subject to tax when distributed. If the Issuer is a CFC, (i) the Issuer will incur U.S. withholding tax on interest received from a related U.S. person, (ii) special reporting rules will apply to directors of the Issuer and certain other persons and (iii) certain other restrictions may apply. Subject to a special limitation for individual U.S. Holders that have held the Preference Shares for more than one year, gain from disposition of Preference Shares recognized by a U.S. Holder that is (or recently has been) a 10% U.S. Shareholder will be treated as dividend income to the extent earnings attributed to the Preference Shares accumulated while the U.S. Holder held the Preference Shares and the Issuer was a CFC. If the Issuer is a CFC, a 10% U.S. Shareholder will be subject to the CFC rules rather than the PFIC rules.

U.S. Holders generally must report, with their tax return for the tax year that includes the Closing Date, certain information relating to their purchase of the Preference Shares on IRS Form 926. In the event that a U.S. Holder fails to file any such required form, the U.S. Holder could be subject to a penalty equal to 10% of the gross amount paid for the Preference Shares subject to a maximum penalty equal to $100,000 (except in cases of intentional disregard). A U.S. Holder may be required specifically to disclose any loss on the Preference Shares on its tax return under regulations on tax shelter transactions. When the U.S. Holder holds 10% of the shares in a CFC or QEF, the holder also must disclose any Issuer transactions reportable under those regulations. The Issuer will provide holders of the Preference Shares with information about Issuer transactions reportable under those regulations. A significant penalty may be imposed on taxpayers who fail to make a required disclosure. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors about these and all other specific reporting requirements.

Non-U.S. Holders. Distributions to a Non-U.S. Holder of Preference Shares will not be subject to U.S. tax unless the distributions are effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States. Gain realized by a Non-U.S. Holder on the sale or other disposition of the Preference Shares will not be subject to U.S. tax unless (i) the gain is effectively connected with the holder's conduct of a U.S. trade or business or (ii) the holder is an individual present in the United States for at least 183 days during the taxable year of disposition and certain other conditions are met.

Tax-Exempt Investors

Special considerations apply to pension plans and other investors that are subject to tax only on their unrelated business taxable income ("UBTI"). A tax-exempt investor's interest income and gain from the Notes and Preference Shares generally would not be treated as UBTI if the investor's investment in the Notes or Preference Shares is not debt-financed. However, a tax-exempt investor in Notes that also owns (directly, indirectly or by attribution) more than 50% (by vote or value) of the Preference Shares should consider the possible application of the special UBTI rules for interest received from controlled entities. Each prospective tax-exempt investor should consult its own tax advisor regarding the tax consequences to it of an investment in the Notes or the Preference Shares.

U.S. Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Payments of principal and interest on the Notes, distributions on the Preference Shares and proceeds from the disposition of the Notes or Preference Shares paid to a non-corporate Holder generally will be subject to U.S. information reporting. Payments to Non-U.S. Holders that provide certification of foreign status generally are exempt from information reporting. Backup withholding tax may apply to reportable payments unless the Holder provides a correct taxpayer identification number or otherwise establishes an exemption. Any amount withheld may be credited against a Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability or refunded to the extent it exceeds the Holder's liability.

THE DISCUSSION ABOVE IS A GENERAL SUMMARY. IT DOES NOT COVER ALL TAX MATTERS THAT MAY BE IMPORTANT TO A PARTICULAR INVESTOR. EACH PROSPECTIVE INVESTOR SHOULD CONSULT ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR ABOUT THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF AN INVESTMENT IN THE RATED NOTES OR THE INCOME NOTES UNDER THE INVESTOR'S OWN CIRCUMSTANCES.

CERTAIN ERISA CONSIDERATIONS

THE STATEMENTS ABOUT U.S. FEDERAL TAX ISSUES ARE MADE TO SUPPORT MARKETING OF THE OFFERED SECURITIES. NO TAXPAYER CAN RELY ON THEM TO AVOID U.S. FEDERAL TAX PENALTIES. EACH PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER SHOULD SEEK ADVICE FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR ABOUT THE TAX CONSEQUENCES UNDER ITS OWN PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES OF INVESTING IN THE OFFERED SECURITIES UNDER THE LAWS OF THE CAYMAN ISLANDS, THE UNITED STATES AND ITS CONSTITUENT JURISDICTIONS AND ANY OTHER JURISDICTION WHERE THE PURCHASER MAY BE SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

Except as described below, the Preference Shares may not be purchased by any Benefit Plan Investor. Subject to the following discussion, the Notes may generally be acquired by Benefit Plan Investors. Any fiduciary or other person contemplating an investment in the Securities by, on behalf of or using the assets of, an employee benefit or similar plan or arrangement, whether or not subject to Title I of ERISA (as defined below) or Section 4975 of the Code, should consider, among other things, the matters described below before deciding whether to invest in any of the Securities.

The United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), establishes fiduciary standards for persons having authority or control of the assets of employee benefit plans subject to Title I thereof, including collective investment funds and other entities whose underlying assets are treated as if they were the assets of such plans (collectively, "ERISA Plans") pursuant to Section 3(42) of ERISA, and the regulation issued by the United States Department of Labor ("DOL") and found at 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101 (the "Plan Asset Regulation") or otherwise pursuant to ERISA. Under Title I of ERISA, any person who exercises any authority or control with respect to the management or disposition of the assets of an ERISA Plan is considered to be a fiduciary of such ERISA Plan.

Investments by ERISA Plans are subject to ERISA's general fiduciary requirements, including the requirement of investment prudence and diversification and the requirement that an ERISA Plan's investments be made in accordance with the documents governing the relevant plan. The prudence of a particular investment must be determined by the responsible fiduciary of an ERISA Plan by taking into account the ERISA Plan's particular circumstances and all of the facts and circumstances of the investment. A fiduciary of an ERISA Plan should consider, for example, that in the future there may be no market in which to sell or otherwise dispose of the Securities, whether an investment in the Securities may be too illiquid or too speculative, and whether the assets of the ERISA Plan would be sufficiently diversified.

Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code effectively prohibit certain transactions involving the assets of an ERISA Plan (as well as those plans that are not subject to Title I of ERISA but are subject to Section 4975 of the Code (each such plan or ERISA Plan, a "Plan")) and certain persons having certain relationships to such Plans (referred to as "parties in interest" or "disqualified persons"), unless a statutory or administrative exemption applies to the transaction. A violation of these "prohibited transaction" rules may generate excise tax or other penalties and liabilities under ERISA and the Code for such person.

Additionally, the acquisition or holding of Securities by or on behalf of benefit plans that are not subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, such as foreign plans, governmental plans (as defined in Section 3(32) of ERISA) and certain church plans (as defined in Section 3(33) of ERISA) could give rise to similar liabilities under federal, state, foreign or local law which may be substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (a "Similar Law"), and/or might be prohibited or otherwise restricted as described herein.

Section 3(42) of ERISA and the Plan Asset Regulation define "plan assets" of a Plan with respect to the Plan's investment in an entity for purposes of certain provisions of ERISA, including the fiduciary responsibility and prohibited transaction provisions of Title I of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code. Under Section 3(42) of ERISA and the Plan Asset Regulation, if a Plan invests in an "equity interest" of an entity that is neither a "publicly-offered security" nor a security issued by an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act, the Plan's assets include both the equity interest and an undivided interest in each of the entity's underlying assets, unless it is established that the entity is an "operating company" or that Benefit Plan Investors hold less than 25% of the value of any class of equity interest of the entity, determined as of the most recent acquisition of an equity interest. The term "Benefit Plan Investor" includes (a) an employee benefit plan as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, that is subject to Title I of ERISA, (b) a plan described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code that is subject to Section 4975 of the Code and (c) any entity whose underlying assets include "plan assets" of any of the foregoing by reason of an investment in the entity by such a plan or arrangement (a "Benefit Plan Investor"). For purposes of making the 25% determination, the value of any equity interests held by a person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) who has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the entity or who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to such assets, or any "affiliate" of such a person (as defined under the Plan Asset Regulation), will be disregarded. Under the Plan Asset Regulation, an "affiliate" of a person includes any person, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controlling, controlled by or under common control with the person, and "control" with respect to a Person other than an individual, means the power to exercise a controlling influence over the management or policies of such person.

An "equity interest" is defined under the Plan Asset Regulation as an interest other than an instrument which is treated as indebtedness under applicable local law and which has no substantial equity features.

Notes

The Co-Issuers believe that, at the time of their issuance, the Notes should be treated as indebtedness without substantial equity features for purposes of the Plan Asset Regulation. This determination is based in part upon the traditional debt features of such Notes, including the reasonable expectation of purchasers of such Notes that they will be repaid when due, as well as the absence of conversion rights, warrants and other typical equity features. The Co-Issuers will therefore not monitor the investment by Benefit Plan Investors in the Notes. It should be noted that the debt treatment of the Notes for ERISA purposes could change subsequent to their issuance (i.e., they could be treated as equity) if the Issuers incur losses or the rating or other terms and conditions of the Notes changes. The risk of recharacterization is enhanced for subordinate classes of the Notes. The Co-Issuers have not obtained an opinion of counsel regarding the debt treatment of Notes under local law or the Plan Asset Regulation.

Regardless of the characterization of the Notes as debt or equity under the Plan Asset Regulation and regardless of the level of Benefit Plan Investor investment in any class of Securities, the acquisition or holding of Notes by or on behalf of a Plan could give rise to a prohibited transaction if any of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Initial Purchasers, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, other persons providing services in connection with the Issuers, or any of their respective affiliates is a "party in interest" or "disqualified person" with respect to that Plan. Persons acting on behalf of Plans that acquire the Securities should also consider that an indirect prohibited transaction could result in connection with the Issuer's acquisition of Collateral from the Initial Purchasers (or one of their affiliates) if either of the Initial Purchasers is a "party in interest" or "disqualified person" with respect to such Regulated Plans.

Certain exemptions from the prohibited transaction rules could be applicable, however, depending in part upon the type of fiduciary making the decision to acquire Notes and the circumstances under which such decision is made. Included among these exemptions are the statutory prohibited transactions exemption under Section 408(b)(17) of ERISA and Section 4975(d)(20) of the Code available to "service providers" to the Plan (other than a fiduciary with respect to the Plan assets used to acquire the Notes or any of its affiliates) provided that the transaction is for "adequate consideration", DOL Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption ("PTCE") 84-14, regarding transactions effected by independent "qualified professional asset managers;" PTCE 90-1, regarding investments by insurance company pooled separate accounts; PTCE 91-38, regarding investments by bank collective investment funds; PTCE 95-60, regarding investments by insurance company general accounts; and PTCE 96-23, regarding transactions effected by certain "in-house asset managers." However, even if the conditions specified in one or more of these exemptions are met, the scope of the relief provided by these exemptions might or might not cover all acts which might be construed as prohibited transactions. There can be no assurance that any of these, or any other exemption, will be available with respect to any particular transaction involving the Notes.

Similarly, the acquisition or holding of Notes by or on behalf of foreign plans, governmental plans (as defined in Section 3(32) of ERISA) and certain church plans (as defined in Section 3(33) of ERISA), which are not subject to Title I of ERISA and/or Section 4975 of the Code, could give rise to a prohibited transaction or other liabilities under Similar Law.

By acquiring a Note, each purchaser and transferee will be deemed to represent, warrant and covenant that either (i) it is not, and is not acquiring such Note with the assets of, a Plan or a foreign, governmental or church plan subject to Similar Law, and throughout the holding and disposition of such Note, it will not become or transfer its interest to any Plan or foreign, governmental or church plan or to an entity using the assets thereof, or (ii) the acquisition, holding and disposition of such Note by the purchaser or transferee, throughout its holding and disposition of such Note, will not result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a foreign, governmental or church plan, any violation of Similar Law), because such purchase, holding and disposition either (x) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws or (y) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all of the conditions of which are and will be satisfied upon its acquisition of, and throughout its holding and disposition of, such Note. Each investor in a Note will be deemed to represent, warrant and covenant that it will not sell, pledge or otherwise transfer such Note in violation of the foregoing, and that it and any person causing it to acquire such Note agree, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Initial Purchasers and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage or loss incurred by them as a result of such purchaser not satisfying the foregoing or as a result of its transferring its interest to a Person not meeting the foregoing requirements. Any purported transfer of the Note to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of the foregoing shall be null and void ab initio, and will vest in the transferee no rights against the Trustee or the Co-Issuers.

Preference Shares

The Preference Shares are equity of the Issuer and will be treated as equity interests for purposes of Section 3(42) of ERISA and the Plan Asset Regulation. Accordingly, the Co-Issuers intend to limit the purchase and holding of each of the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares by Benefit Plan Investors to less than 25% of the aggregate outstanding amount of each of the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares (excluding for purposes of such determination any Preference Shares held by "Controlling Persons" as defined below), by requiring each purchaser or transferee thereof to make certain representations and agreements with respect to its status as a Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person, and to agree to additional transfer restrictions described under "Transfer Restrictions." In making the 25% determination, Preference Shares held by any person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the assets of the Issuer or any "affiliate" (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)(3)) of any such person (any such person, a "Controlling Person") (such as the Preference Shares held by the Servicer or its affiliates and employees thereof) will be disregarded and not treated as outstanding. No purchase of a Preference Share by, or proposed transfer to, a person that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person will be permitted to the extent that such purchase or transfer would result in persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares, as applicable, (excluding for purposes of such determination any Preference Shares, as applicable, held by any Controlling Person) immediately after such purchase or proposed transfer. In this regard, although Section 3(42) of ERISA provides that an entity is considered to hold plan assets only to the extent of the percentage of the equity interest held by Benefit Plan Investors, 100% Preference Shares held by an entity that is a Benefit Plan Investor (including an insurance company whose general account assets are treated as "plan assets") will be treated as Preference Shares held by a Benefit Plan Investor.

In addition, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Trustee will agree that, after the initial distribution of the Preference Shares, neither they nor any of their respective affiliates will acquire any Preference Shares (including pursuant to the Extension Procedure or the Amendment Buy-Out Option) unless such acquisition would not, as determined by the Trustee in reliance on representations made in the applicable transfer certificates with respect thereto, result in persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of any of the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares immediately after such acquisition (determined in accordance with Section 3(42) of ERISA, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents). The Preference Shares held as principal by the Servicer, the Trustee, any of their respective affiliates (as defined in the Plan Asset Regulation) and persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons will be disregarded and will not be treated as outstanding for purposes of determining compliance with such 25% limitation to the extent that such Controlling Person is not a Benefit Plan Investor.

Each purchaser and transferee will be further required to represent, warrant and covenant that no transfer of a Preference Share will be made to a Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person except as provided herein, and that it and any fiduciaries or other Person causing it to acquire such Securities agree, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Initial Purchasers, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage or loss incurred by them as a result of any transfer of Preference Shares in violation of the foregoing.

Insurance Companies

It should be noted that an insurance company's general account may be deemed to include assets of ERISA Plans under certain circumstances, e.g., where an ERISA Plan purchases an annuity contract issued by such an insurance company, based on the reasoning of the United States Supreme Court in John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co. v. Harris Trust and Savings Bank, 510 U.S. 86 (1993). An insurance company considering the purchase of Offered Securities with assets of its general account should consider such purchase and the insurance company's ability to make the representations described above in light of John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co. v. Harris Trust and Savings Bank, Section 401(c) of ERISA and 29 C.F.R. §2550.40c-1.

Independent Review and Consultation with Counsel

Any person proposing to purchase Securities with assets of an employee benefit plan or similar plan or arrangement, including a collective investment fund, insurance company general account or a foreign, governmental or church plan, should consult with its counsel with respect to, among other things, the limitations applicable to Benefit Plan Investors specified herein, and the potential applicability of ERISA, the Code and Similar Law to such investment and whether any exemption from the prohibited transaction provisions of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code or such Similar Law would be applicable. Each investor must determine on its own whether all conditions of any applicable exemption have been satisfied. Moreover, each ERISA Plan fiduciary should determine whether, under the general fiduciary standards of investment prudence and diversification, an investment in the Securities is appropriate for the ERISA Plan, taking into account the overall investment policy of the ERISA Plan, the composition of the ERISA Plan's investment portfolio, and the risk/return characteristics of the Securities.

The discussion of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code contained in this Offering Memorandum, is, of necessity, general, and does not purport to be complete. Moreover, the provisions of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code are subject to extensive and continuing administrative and judicial interpretation and review. Therefore, the matters discussed above may be affected by future regulations, rulings and court decisions, some of which may have retroactive application and effect.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Initial Purchasers will, pursuant to and subject to the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, agree to purchase all of the Notes and the Class I Preference Shares. The offering price and other terms of the offering of the Securities (the "Offering") may be changed at any time without notice. Pursuant to the engagement letter entered into by the Initial Purchasers with the Servicer, the Initial Purchasers will receive certain fees and expenses on the Closing Date.

On the Closing Date, (i) HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries are expected to purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes and (ii) the Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates is expected to purchase certain of the Class I Preference Shares and all or a portion of the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes. No assurance can be given whether HFP or Highland Capital will retain such Securities for any amount of time. The Initial Purchasers or an Affiliate of the Initial Purchasers may provide financing for these purchases. The Initial Purchasers are not acting as placement agents or initial purchasers with respect to the Preference Shares sold by the Issuer to HFP or any of its subsidiaries.

In connection with the offering of the Offered Securities, the Initial Purchasers may, as permitted by applicable law, overallocate or effect transactions that stabilize or maintain the market price of the Securities at a level which might not otherwise prevail in the open market. The stabilizing, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

The Securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, a U.S. person, on behalf of the Co-Issuers (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Issuer), except to Qualified Institutional Buyers in transactions not subject to the registration requirements of the Securities Act in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act, that are also Qualified Purchasers.

Accordingly, in connection with sales outside the United States, the Initial Purchasers will agree that, except as permitted by the Purchase Agreement, they will not offer or sell the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons as part of its distribution at any time. In addition, an offer or sale of the Securities within the United States by a dealer that is not participating in the offering may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if that offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with Rule 144A (or, in case of the Preference Shares only, in accordance with another exemption from registration of securities under the Securities Act).

The Co-Issuers have been advised by each Initial Purchaser that it proposes to resell the Notes and the Class I Preference Shares purchased pursuant to the Purchase Agreement (a) only to Qualified Institutional Buyers that are also Qualified Purchasers in reliance on an exemption under the Securities Act and (b), in the case of the Notes, to non U.S. persons in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S. Any offer or sale of Notes or Class I Preference Shares in the United States will be made by the Initial Purchasers or other broker-dealers, including Affiliates of the Initial Purchasers, who are registered as broker-dealers under the Exchange Act. Until the expiration of 40 days after the later of the Closing Date and the commencement of the Offering of the Notes, a re-offer or resale of any Notes originally sold pursuant to Regulation S to, or for the account or benefit of, a U.S. person by a dealer or person receiving a concession, fee or remuneration in respect of the Notes (whether or not they participated in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act unless such offer or sale is made in accordance with an exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

Each purchaser of the Class I Preference Shares on the Closing Date will be required to execute and deliver, a subscription agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Co-Issuers and (in the case of the Class I Preference Shares, the Issuer), which will include, among other things, representations and warranties substantially similar to those described under "Transfer Restrictions."

The Securities are offered when, as and if issued, subject to prior sale or withdrawal, cancellation or modification of the offer. The Securities will constitute new classes of securities with no established trading market. Such a market may or may not develop, but the Initial Purchasers are under no obligation to make such a market, and if they do make such a market they may discontinue any market-making activities with respect to the Securities at any time without notice. Any market-making activities will be subject to restrictions under applicable law. No assurances can be made as to the liquidity of or any trading market for the Securities.

The Pre-Closing Participant is financing the acquisition of Collateral Obligations by the Issuer prior to the Closing Date. The Servicer or one or more of its Affiliates will each be entitled to a share of the interest and any fees and commissions (net of any other amounts payable to the Pre-Closing Participant on loans made by them to finance the acquisition of Collateral Obligations) paid by the obligors of such Collateral Obligations or accrued from the time of purchase to the Closing Date, plus a share of the amount by which any realized net gains exceed any realized net losses on Collateral Obligations sold or fully repaid during the Accumulation Period, in each case, in proportion to the percentage of Preference Shares each such party purchases on the Closing Date. In addition, a broker-dealer Affiliate of the Servicer may receive a fee for placing certain of the Securities. The Initial Purchasers or their Affiliates may also provide financing to the Servicer or its Affiliates in connection with their purchase of certain Class D Notes, Class E Notes and Class II Preference Shares which will be secured by a lien on such financed Class D Notes, Class E Notes and Class II Preference Shares.

This Offering Memorandum is being furnished on a confidential basis solely for the purpose of considering the purchase of the Securities. Each recipient of this Offering Memorandum should make such investigations as it deems necessary to arrive at an independent evaluation of an investment in the Securities and should consult its own legal counsel and financial, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to determine the consequences of such an investment. Delivery of this Offering Memorandum should not be construed as a recommendation by the Initial Purchasers to purchase the Securities. This Offering Memorandum is intended for the exclusive use of persons who are both Qualified Institutional Buyers and Qualified Purchasers and, if applicable, non-U.S. persons, and may not be reproduced or used for any other purpose or furnished to any other party. No action has been or will be taken in any jurisdiction that would permit a public offering of the Securities, or the possession, circulation or distribution of this Offering Memorandum or any other material relating to the Initial Purchasers or the Securities, in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, the Securities may not be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and neither this Offering Memorandum nor any other offering material or advertisements in connection with the Securities may be distributed or published, in or from any country or jurisdiction except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable rules and regulations of any such country or jurisdiction.

Each Initial Purchaser will represent and agree that (1) it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act (2000) (the "FSMA") with respect to anything done by it in relation to the Securities in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom; and (2) it has only communicated or caused to be communicated and will only communicate or cause to be communicated any invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of FSMA) received by it in connection with the issue or sale of any Notes in circumstances in which section 21(1) of FSMA does not apply to the Issuer.

Each Initial Purchaser has agreed that it has not made and will not make any invitation to the public in the Cayman Islands to subscribe for the Securities.

No action is being taken or is contemplated by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Securities or possession or distribution of any Offering Memorandum (in preliminary or final form) or any amendment thereof, any supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Securities in any jurisdiction where, or in any other circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Each Initial Purchaser understands and agrees that it is solely responsible for its own compliance with all laws applicable in each jurisdiction in which it offers and sells the Securities or distributes any Offering Memorandum (in preliminary or final form) or any amendments thereof or supplements thereto or any other material and it agrees to comply with all of these laws.

The Issuer has agreed to indemnify each Initial Purchaser, the Servicer, the Administrator, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Trustee against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribute to payments it may be required to make in respect thereof.

The Co-Issuers extend to each prospective investor the opportunity, prior to the consummation of the sale of the Securities, to ask questions of, and receive answers from the Co-Issuers or a person or persons acting on behalf of the Co-Issuers, including the Initial Purchasers concerning the Securities and the terms and conditions of this Offering and to obtain any additional information it may consider necessary in making an informed investment decision and any information in order to verify the accuracy of the information set forth herein, to the extent the Co-Issuers possess the same or can acquire the same without unreasonable effort or expense. Requests for such additional information can be directed to the Initial Purchasers at 1301 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY, 10019, Attention: Credit Markets & CDOs.

SETTLEMENT AND CLEARING

Book Entry Registration of the Global Notes

So long as the Depository, or its nominee, is the registered owner or Holder of a Global Note, the Depository or the nominee, as the case may be, will be considered the sole owner or Holder of the Notes represented by a Global Note for all purposes under the Indenture, the Issuer Charter and the Global Notes, and members of, or participants in, the Depository as well as any other persons on whose behalf the participants may act (including Clearstream and Euroclear and account holders and participants therein) will have no rights under the Indenture, the Issuer Charter or a Global Note. Owners of beneficial interests in a Global Note will not be considered to be owners or Holders of the related Note under the Indenture or the Issuer Charter. Unless the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for a Global Note or ceases to be a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act, owners of a beneficial interest in a Global Note will not be entitled to have any portion of a Global Note registered in their names, will not receive or be entitled to receive physical delivery of Notes in certificated form and will not be considered to be the owners or Holders of any Notes under the Indenture. In addition, no beneficial owner of an interest in a Global Note will be able to transfer that interest except in accordance with the Depository's applicable procedures (in addition to those under the Indenture and, if applicable, those of Euroclear and Clearstream).

Investors may hold their interests in a Regulation S Global Note directly through Clearstream or Euroclear, if they are participants in Clearstream or Euroclear, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in Clearstream or Euroclear. Clearstream and Euroclear will hold interests in the Regulation S Global Notes on behalf of their participants through their respective depositories, which in turn will hold the interests in Regulation S Global Notes in customers' securities accounts in the depositories' names on the books of the Depository. Investors may hold their interests in a Rule 144A Global Note directly through the Depository if they are participants in the Depository, or in directly through organizations that are participants in the Depository.

Payments of principal of, or interest or other distributions on a Global Note will be made to the Depository or its nominee, as the registered owner thereof. The Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the paying agents, the Initial Purchasers, the Servicer and their respective Affiliates will not have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in a Global Note or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to the beneficial ownership interests.

The Co-Issuers expect that the Depository or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal, interest, or other distributions in respect of a Global Note representing any Notes, as the case may be, held by it or its nominee, will immediately credit participants' accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the stated aggregate principal amount or number of a Global Note for the Notes, as shown on the records of the Depository or its nominee. The Co-Issuers also expect that payments by participants to owners of beneficial interests in a Global Note held through the participants will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for those customers. The payments will be the responsibility of the participants.

Global Note Settlement Procedures

Transfers between the participants in the Depository will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with the Depository rules and will be settled in immediately available funds. The laws of some states require that certain persons take physical delivery of securities in definitive form.

Consequently, the ability to transfer beneficial interests in a Global Note to these persons may be limited. Because the Depository can only act on behalf of participants, who in turn act on behalf of indirect participants and certain banks, the ability of a person holding a beneficial interest in a Global Note to pledge its interest to persons or entities that do not participate in the Depository system, or otherwise take actions in respect of its interest, may be affected by the lack of a physical certificate of the interest. Transfers between participants in Euroclear and Clearstream will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with their respective rules and operating procedures.

Subject to compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Securities described above and under "Transfer Restrictions," cross-market transfers between the Depository, on the one hand, and directly or indirectly through Euroclear or Clearstream participants, on the other, will be effected in the Depository in accordance with the Depository rules on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, by its respective depository; however, the cross-market transactions will require delivery of instructions to Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, by the counterparty in the system in accordance with its rules and procedures and within its established deadlines (Brussels time). Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, will if the transaction meets its settlement requirements, deliver instructions to its respective depository to take action to effect final settlement on its behalf by delivering or receiving interests in a Note represented by a Regulation S Global Note in the Depository and making or receiving payment in accordance with normal procedures for same-day funds settlement applicable to the Depository. Clearstream participants and Euroclear participants may not deliver instructions directly to the depositories of Clearstream or Euroclear.

Because of time zone differences, cash received in Euroclear or Clearstream as a result of sales of interests in a Regulation S Global Note by or through a Euroclear or Clearstream participant to the Depository participant will be received with value on the Depository settlement date but will be available in the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream cash account only as of the business day following settlement in the Depository.

The Depository has advised the Issuer that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a Holder of Securities (including the presentation of Securities for exchange as described above) only at the direction of one or more participants in the Depository to whose account with the Depository interests in the Securities are credited and only in respect of the portion of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities as to which the participant or participants has or have given the direction.

The Depository has advised the Issuer as follows: The Depository is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the UCC and a "Clearing Agency" registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act. The Depository was created to hold securities for its participants and facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of its participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Participants in the Depository include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, and clearing corporations and may include certain other organizations. Indirect access to the Depository system is available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers, and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a participant, either directly or indirectly.

Although the Depository, Clearstream and Euroclear have agreed to the foregoing procedures to facilitate transfers of interests in Regulation S Global Notes among participants of the Depository, Clearstream and Euroclear, they are under no obligation to perform or continue to perform the procedures, and the procedures may be discontinued at any time. Neither the Co-Issuers nor the Trustee will have any responsibility for the performance by the Depository, Clearstream, or Euroclear or their respective participants or indirect participants of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS

Because of the following restrictions, purchasers are advised to consult legal counsel prior to making any offer, resale, pledge or transfer of the Securities. Purchasers of Notes represented by an interest in a Regulation S Global Note are advised that such interests are not transferable to U.S. Persons at any time except in accordance with the following restrictions.

Each prospective purchaser of Securities that is a U.S. Person or is purchasing the Securities in a non-Offshore Transaction (a "U.S. Offeree"), by accepting delivery of this Offering Memorandum, will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows:

(1) The U.S. Offeree acknowledges that this Offering Memorandum is personal to the U.S. Offeree and does not constitute an offer to any other person or to the public generally to subscribe for or otherwise acquire the Securities other than pursuant to transactions exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act or in Offshore Transactions in accordance with Regulation S. Distribution of this Offering Memorandum to any Person other than the U.S. Offeree and those persons, if any, retained to advise the U.S. Offeree with respect thereto, and other persons that are, (a) in the case of the Notes, Qualified Institutional Buyers or non-U.S. Persons or, (b) in the case of the Preference Shares, Qualified Institutional Buyers, is unauthorized and any disclosure of any of its contents, without the prior written consent of the Co-Issuers, is prohibited.

(2) The U.S. Offeree agrees to make no photocopies of this Offering Memorandum or any documents referred to herein and, if the U.S. Offeree does not purchase the Securities or the offering is terminated, to return this Offering Memorandum and all documents referred to herein to the Initial Purchasers at 1301 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY, 10019, Attention: Credit Markets & CDOs.

Under the Indenture (with respect to the Co-Issuers) and the Preference Share Documents (with respect to the Issuer), the Co-Issuers or the Issuer will agree to comply with the requirements of Rule 144A relative to the dissemination of information to prospective purchasers in the secondary market. See "Available Information."

The Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act and, (a) in the case of the Notes, may not be offered or sold in non-Offshore Transactions or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons, except to Qualified Institutional Buyers in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act who are also Qualified Purchasers and, (b) in the case of the Preference Shares, may only be offered or sold to Qualified Institutional Buyers in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act who are also Qualified Purchasers.

Any purported transfer of a Security not in accordance with this section shall be null and void and shall not be given effect for any purpose hereunder.

The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Co-Issuers, the Servicer or the Initial Purchasers as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any jurisdiction for resale of the Notes.

(4) The purchaser is not purchasing the Notes or any beneficial interest therein with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that an investment in the Notes involves certain risks, including the risk of loss of its entire investment in the Notes under certain circumstances. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Co-Issuers, the Notes and the Collateral as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Notes or any beneficial interest therein, including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Co-Issuers and the Initial Purchasers.

(iii) In addition, the legend set forth on any Class C Note, Class D Note or Class E Note and on each Note in any other Class sold to the public by either of the Initial Purchasers at a discount that is more than de minimis, if any, will also contain the following additional legend:

THIS NOTE HAS BEEN ISSUED WITH ORIGINAL ISSUE DISCOUNT (OID) FOR UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX PURPOSES. THE ISSUE PRICE, AMOUNT OF OID, ISSUE DATE AND YIELD TO MATURITY OF THIS NOTE MAY BE OBTAINED BY WRITING TO CALYON, ATTN: CREDIT MARKETS & CDOS, 1301 AVENUE OF THE AMERICAS, NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10019.

(7) The purchaser will provide notice to each person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Notes of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Indenture, including the exhibits referenced therein.

(8) The purchaser understands that the Indenture permits the Issuer to compel any Holder of the Notes or any beneficial interest therein who is a U.S. Person and who is determined not to have been both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) a Qualified Purchaser at the time of acquisition of the Notes or any beneficial interest therein to sell such interest, or to sell such interest on behalf of such purchaser, to a person that is both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) a Qualified Purchaser, in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A or to a person that is a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction meeting the requirements of Regulation S.

(9) The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Notes, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase Notes from any Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell such Note to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.

(10) The purchaser understands that the Stated Maturity of the Notes is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of Securities at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.

(11) The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Co-Issuers that would permit a public offering of the Notes in any jurisdiction. The purchaser further acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Co-Issuers that would permit possession or distribution of the Offering Memorandum or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Notes in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the Offering Memorandum relating to the Notes shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Notes in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.

(12) The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Notes or any beneficial interest therein by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.

(13) (a) Either (i) the purchaser is not, and is not using the assets of, and throughout the holding and disposition of the Notes will not become or transfer its interest to, an employee benefit plan or other fund or arrangement subject to Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), a plan subject to Section 4975(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or a governmental, foreign or church plan which is subject to any federal, state, foreign or local law that is substantially similar to the provisions of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code or (ii) the purchaser's purchase, holding and disposition of such Notes will not result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any federal, state, foreign or local law that is substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code) because such purchase, holding and disposition of such Notes either (x) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws, or (y) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all of the conditions of which are and will be satisfied upon the acquisition of, and throughout its holding and disposition of, such Notes; (b) the purchaser shall not transfer an interest in such Notes to any transferee unless such transferee meets the foregoing requirements; and (c) the purchaser and any fiduciaries or other Person causing it to acquire such Notes agree, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Initial Purchasers, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage or loss incurred by them as a result of such purchaser not meeting the foregoing requirements or as a result of its transferring its interest to a transferee not meeting the foregoing requirements. Any purported purchase or transfer of the Notes to a purchaser or transferee that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph (13) shall be null and void ab initio.

(14) The purchaser understands that the Co-Issuers may receive a list of participants holding positions in its securities from one or more book-entry depositories.

(15) The purchaser agrees that it will not offer or sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of the Notes or any interest therein except (i) pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws or the applicable laws of any other jurisdiction and (ii) in accordance with the Indenture, to which provisions the purchaser hereby agrees it is subject.

(16) The purchaser is not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.

(17) Each purchaser and beneficial owner acknowledges that it is its intent and that it understands it is the intent of the Issuer that for accounting, financial reporting and U.S. federal and, to the extent permitted by law, state and local income and franchise tax purposes, the Issuer will be treated as a corporation, the Notes will be treated as debt of the Issuer only and not of the Co-Issuer, and the Preference Shares will be treated as equity in the Issuer; it agrees to such treatment, to report all income (or loss) in accordance with such treatment and to take no action inconsistent with such treatment unless otherwise required by any relevant taxing authority under applicable law.

(18) The beneficial owner, if it is not a "U.S. person" as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, is not acquiring any Note or any Preference Share as part of a plan to reduce, avoid or evade U.S. federal income taxes owed, owing or potentially owed or owing.

(19) To the extent required, as determined by the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Trustee, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Notes to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools

Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the U.S. Patriot Act) and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Note to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.

(20) The purchaser understands that, to the extent required, as determined by the Co-Issuers, the Co-Issuers may amend the Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer only, the Preference Share Documents, without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities to (i) remove any restrictions and limitations imposed on the Co-Issuers or the Holders of the Securities that solely relate to compliance with Section 3(c)(7) and (ii) add any requirements that are necessary for compliance with Rule 3a-7 if, at any time following the Closing Date, the Co-Issuers elect to rely on exclusion from the definition of "investment company" under Rule 3a-7 in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7).

(21) The purchaser understands that the Issuer may enter into amendments or modifications to the Servicing Agreement without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities.

(22) The purchaser agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.

(23) The purchaser acknowledges that the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, the Trustee, the Initial Purchasers and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Notes or any beneficial interest therein are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, the Trustee and the Initial Purchasers. If the purchaser is acquiring any Notes or any beneficial interest therein as a fiduciary or agent for one or more institutional accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Regulation S Global Notes

Each purchaser of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note will be further deemed (and each transferee of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note will be required or deemed), in addition to making the representations set forth in paragraphs (3), (4), (5) and (7) through (22) above in "—Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes," to represent and agree as follows:

The purchaser is aware that the Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or any other applicable state securities law and the sale of such Notes or any beneficial interest therein to it is being made in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Regulation S and understands that the Notes offered in reliance on Regulation S will bear the appropriate legend set forth in paragraph (6) above in "—Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes" and will be represented by one or more Regulation S Global Notes. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Co-Issuers or the Initial Purchasers as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any other jurisdiction for resale of the Notes. The purchaser and each beneficial owner of the Notes or any beneficial interest therein that it holds is not, and will not be, a U.S. Person as defined in Regulation S and its purchase of the Notes or any beneficial interest therein will comply with all applicable laws in any jurisdiction in which it resides or is located and will be in a principal amount of not less than U.S.$250,000. The purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Notes or any beneficial interest therein, and it, and any accounts for which it is acting are each able to bear the economic risk of its investment. Before any interest in a Regulation S Global Note may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note, the transferor and the transferee will be required to provide the Trustee with written certifications as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Preference Shares

Each initial purchaser of Preference Shares acquiring such Preference Shares from the Issuer in the initial offering will be deemed to represent and agree and will be required to enter into a Subscription Agreement with the Issuer pursuant to which each such initial purchaser will be required to represent and agree (and each subsequent transferee will be required to represent and agree), on its own behalf as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Rule 144A are used herein as defined therein):

(1) The purchaser is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is aware that the sale of Preference Shares to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements provided by Section 4(2) and is acquiring the Preference Shares for its own account (and not for the account of any family or other trust, any family member or any other person). In addition, the purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Preference Shares, and the purchaser is able to bear the economic risk of its investment.

(2) The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Preference Shares have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and, if in the future the purchaser decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Preference Shares, such Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with the legend in respect of such Preference Shares set forth in (7) below and the restrictions set forth in the Preference Share Documents. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Issuer, the Servicer or the Initial Purchasers or any of their respective Affiliates as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any jurisdiction for resale of the Preference Shares.

(3) The purchaser agrees that it will not offer or sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of the Preference Shares or any interest therein except (i) pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws or the applicable laws of any other jurisdiction and (ii) in accordance with the Preference Share Documents, to which provisions the purchaser agrees it is subject.

(4) The purchaser is not purchasing the Preference Shares with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares will be highly illiquid and are not suitable for short-term trading. The Preference Shares are a leveraged investment in the Collateral Obligations that may expose the Preference Shares to disproportionately large changes in value. Payments in respect of the Preference Shares are not guaranteed as they are dependent on the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations. The purchaser understands that it is possible that, due to the structure of the transaction and the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations, dividends or other distributions in respect of the Preference Shares may be reduced or eliminated entirely. Furthermore, the Preference Shares constitute equity in the Issuer, are not secured by the Collateral and will rank behind all creditors (secured and unsecured and whether known or unknown) of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the Holders of the Notes, any Synthetic Security Counterparty and any Hedge Counterparties. The Issuer has assets limited to the Collateral for payment of all Classes of the Notes and dividends and other distributions on the Preference Shares, and the Preference Shares bear, pro rata, the first risk of loss. The purchaser understands that an investment in the Preference Shares involves certain risks, including the risk of loss of all or a substantial part of its investment. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Issuer, the Preference Shares and the Collateral as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Preference Shares, including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Issuer and the Initial Purchasers.

(5) In connection with the purchase of Preference Shares (provided that no such representation is made with respect to the Servicer by any Affiliate of or account serviced by the Servicer): (i) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchasers, any Synthetic Security Counterparty, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator or the Servicer is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment adviser for the purchaser; (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchasers, any Synthetic Security Counterparty, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates other than in the Offering Memorandum for such Preference Shares and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchasers, any Synthetic Security Counterparty, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other Person or documentation for the Preference Shares) any assurance, guarantee, or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence, or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting, or otherwise) of the Preference Shares or an investment therein; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the documentation for the Preference Shares) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Initial Purchasers, any Synthetic Security Counterparty, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Preference Shares reflect those in relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) the purchaser is purchasing the Preference Shares with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and it is capable of assuming and willing to assume (financially and otherwise) those risks; and (vii) the purchaser is a sophisticated investor.

(6) (A) The purchaser is (a) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (b) a Qualified Purchaser, (B) the purchaser is acquiring the Preference Shares as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (C) the purchaser was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Preference Shares (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser is a Qualified Purchaser), (D) if the purchaser is an entity that would be an investment company but for the exception provided for in Section 3(c)(1) or

Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act (any such entity, an "excepted investment company") (a) all of the beneficial owners of outstanding securities (other than short-term paper) of such entity (such beneficial owners determined in accordance with Section 3(c)(1)(A) of the Investment Company Act) that acquired such securities on or before April 30, 1996 ("pre-amendment beneficial owners") and (b) all pre-amendment beneficial owners of the outstanding securities (other than short-term paper) of any excepted investment company that, directly or indirectly, owns any outstanding securities of such entity, have consented to such entity's treatment as a Qualified Purchaser in accordance with the Investment Company Act, (E) the purchaser is not a broker-dealer that owns and invests on a discretionary basis less than $25,000,000 in securities of unaffiliated issuers, (F) the purchaser is not a pension, profit-sharing or other retirement trust fund or plan in which the partners, beneficiaries or participants or affiliates may designate the particular investment to be made, (G) the purchaser agrees that it shall not hold such Preference Shares for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Preference Shares or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the dividends or other distributions on the Preference Shares (except when each such other Person is (a) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (b) a Qualified Purchaser) and (H) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Preference Shares to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph shall be null and void ab initio.

(7) The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares (A) will be represented by either one or more Preference Share certificates which will bear the legend substantially in the form set forth below unless the Issuer determines otherwise in accordance with applicable law, and (B) may only be resold, pledged or transferred to Qualified Institutional Buyers who are also Qualified Purchasers. The purchaser understands that before the Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred, the transferee will be required to provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Issuer with a written certification as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), AND THE ISSUER HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED (THE "INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT"). THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED, EXCEPT (A) TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER ("QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER") WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT (IN A TRANSACTION MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF RULE 144A SO LONG AS THE PREFERENCE SHARES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR RESALE IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 144A) WHO IS ALSO A QUALIFIED PURCHASER ("QUALIFIED PURCHASER") WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 3(c)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT THAT WAS NOT FORMED FOR THE PURPOSE OF INVESTING IN THE ISSUER (EXCEPT WHEN EACH BENEFICIAL OWNER OF THE PURCHASER IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER) AND THAT (1) IF SUCH PERSON IS AN ENTITY THAT WOULD BE AN INVESTMENT COMPANY BUT FOR THE EXCEPTION PROVIDED FOR IN SECTION 3(C)(1) OR SECTION 3(C)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT (ANY SUCH ENTITY, AN "EXCEPTED INVESTMENT COMPANY") HAS RECEIVED CONSENT TO SUCH ENTITY'S TREATMENT AS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT FROM (A) ALL OF THE BENEFICIAL OWNERS OF OUTSTANDING SECURITIES (OTHER THAN SHORT-TERM PAPER)

OF SUCH ENTITY (SUCH BENEFICIAL OWNERS DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 3(C)(1)(A) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT) THAT ACQUIRED SUCH SECURITIES ON OR BEFORE APRIL 30, 1996 ("PRE-AMENDMENT BENEFICIAL OWNERS") AND (B) ALL PRE-AMENDMENT BENEFICIAL OWNERS OF THE OUTSTANDING SECURITIES (OTHER THAN SHORT-TERM PAPER) OF ANY EXCEPTED INVESTMENT COMPANY THAT, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, OWNS ANY OUTSTANDING SECURITIES OF SUCH ENTITY, (2) IS NOT A BROKER-DEALER THAT OWNS AND INVESTS ON A DISCRETIONARY BASIS LESS THAN $25,000,000 IN SECURITIES OF UNAFFILIATED ISSUERS AND (3) IS NOT A PENSION, PROFIT-SHARING OR OTHER RETIREMENT TRUST FUND OR PLAN IN WHICH THE PARTNERS, BENEFICIARIES OR PARTICIPANTS OR AFFILIATES MAY DESIGNATE THE PARTICULAR INVESTMENT TO BE MADE, (B) IN EACH CASE, IN A NUMBER OF NOT LESS THAN 250 PREFERENCE SHARES FOR THE PURCHASER AND (C) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER APPLICABLE JURISDICTION. EACH TRANSFEROR OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST THEREIN WILL PROVIDE NOTICE OF THE TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS AS SET FORTH HEREIN TO ITS PURCHASER. EACH PURCHASER OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE THE APPLICABLE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS. THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY MAY BE PURCHASED BY OR TRANSFERRED TO A BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR OR CONTROLLING PERSON (EACH AS DEFINED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS) ONLY UPON THE SATISFACTION OF CERTAIN CONDITIONS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS. ANY TRANSFER IN VIOLATION OF THE FOREGOING WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT, WILL BE VOID AB INITIO, AND WILL NOT OPERATE TO TRANSFER ANY RIGHTS TO THE TRANSFEREE, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRARY TO THE ISSUER, THE PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENT OR ANY INTERMEDIARY. IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING, THE ISSUER MAINTAINS THE RIGHT TO RESELL ANY PREFERENCE SHARES PREVIOUSLY TRANSFERRED TO NON-PERMITTED HOLDERS OR NON-PERMITTED BENEFIT PLAN INVESTORS (AS DEFINED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS) IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY MAY NOT BE ACQUIRED OR HELD BY (I) ANY "EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 3(3) OF THE EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT INCOME SECURITY ACT OF 1974, AS AMENDED ("ERISA"), THAT IS SUBJECT TO TITLE I OF ERISA, (II) ANY "PLAN" DESCRIBED BY SECTION 4975(e)(1) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986, AS AMENDED (THE "CODE"), THAT IS SUBJECT TO SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE, OR (III) ANY ENTITY WHOSE UNDERLYING ASSETS INCLUDE "PLAN ASSETS" OF ANY PLAN DESCRIBED IN (I) OR (II) BY REASON OF A PLAN'S INVESTMENT IN SUCH ENTITY (EACH OF (I), (II) AND (III), A "BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR"), EXCEPT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RESTRICTIONS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

EACH TRANSFEREE WILL BE REQUIRED TO DELIVER A TRANSFEREE CERTIFICATE IN A FORM PRESCRIBED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

(8) The purchaser will provide notice to each Person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Preference Shares of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Preference Share Documents, including the exhibits referenced in the Preference Share Documents.

(9) The purchaser understands that the Preference Share Documents permit the Issuer to compel any Holder of the Preference Shares who is determined not to have been (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) a Qualified Purchaser, at the time of acquisition of the Preference Shares to sell such Preference Shares, or to sell such Preference Shares on behalf of such purchaser, to a Person that is both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) a Qualified Purchaser, in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act.

(10) The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Preference Shares. The purchaser further acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit possession or distribution of the Offering Memorandum or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Securities in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the Offering Memorandum relating to the Preference Shares shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Preference Shares in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.

(11) The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Preference Shares, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase Preference Shares from any Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell such Preference Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.

(12) The purchaser understands that the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date of the Preference Shares is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of Securities at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.

(13) The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Preference Shares by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.

(14) Each purchaser and beneficial owner acknowledges that it is its intent and that it understands it is the intent of the Issuer that for accounting, financial reporting and U.S. federal and, to the extent permitted by law, state and local income and franchise tax purposes, the Issuer will be treated as a corporation, the Notes will be treated as debt of the Issuer only and not of the Co-Issuer, and the Preference Shares will be treated as equity in the Issuer; it agrees to such treatment, to report all income (or loss) in accordance with such treatment and to take no action inconsistent with such treatment unless otherwise required by any relevant taxing authority under applicable law.

(15) The beneficial owner, if it is not a "U.S. person" as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, is not acquiring any Note or any Preference Share as part of a plan to reduce, avoid or evade U.S. federal income taxes owed, owing or potentially owed or owing.

(16) To the extent required, as determined by the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Share

Registrar, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Preference Shares to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the U.S. Patriot Act) and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Preference Share to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.

(17) The purchaser agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.

(18) The purchaser is not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.

(19) The purchaser understands that, prior to any sale or other transfer of any interest in Preference Shares, it (or the transferee, as applicable) will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent a duly executed transfer certificate substantially in the form provided in the Preference Share Documents and such other certificates and other information as they may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed transfer complies with the restrictions in the legend placed on each certificate representing the Preference Shares and in the Preference Share Documents.

(20) The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer has the right pursuant to Section 6 of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement to issue additional Preference Shares.

(21) The purchaser understands that, to the extent required, as determined by the Co-Issuers, the Co-Issuers may amend the Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer only, the Preference Share Documents without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities to (i) remove any restrictions and limitations imposed on the Co-Issuers or the Holders of the Securities that solely relate to compliance with Section 3(c)(7) and (ii) add any requirements that are necessary for compliance with Rule 3a-7 if, at any time following the Closing Date, the Co-Issuers elect to rely on exclusion from the definition of "investment company" under Rule 3a-7 in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7).

(22) The purchaser understands that the Issuer may enter into amendments or modifications to the Servicing Agreement without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities.

(23) The purchaser understands and agrees that no purchase or transfer of the Preference Shares to (i) a purchaser or transferee that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor (as defined in Section 3(42) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA")), or a Controlling Person (as defined under the Indenture) will be effective, and the Issuer or the Share Registrar will not recognize or register such purchase or transfer, if such purchase or transfer would result in Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares (determined pursuant to Section 3(42) of ERISA, 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents) or (ii) will be permitted if such purchase or transfer will result in a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, a violation of any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law). In this regard, 100% of Preference Shares held by an entity that is a Benefit Plan Investor (including an insurance company whose general account assets are treated as "plan assets") will be treated as Preference Shares held by a Benefit Plan Investor. The purchaser or transferee further understands and agrees that any transfer in violation of the applicable provisions of the Preference Share Documents will be null and void ab initio. For purposes of the determination described in the first sentence of this paragraph (23), the Preference Shares held by the Trustee, the Servicer, any of their respective affiliates (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)(3)) and any other persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons will be disregarded and will not be treated as outstanding unless such person is also a Benefit Plan Investor. The purchaser's acquisition, holding and disposition of the Preference Shares will not result in a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any violation of substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law), because such purchase, holding and disposition either (a) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws or (b) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all conditions of which are and will be been satisfied throughout its holding and disposition of such Preference Shares. The purchaser and any fiduciary or Person causing it to acquire the Preference Shares agree, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Initial Purchasers, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage, or loss incurred by them as a result of a breach of the representations set forth in this paragraph (23) and paragraph (24).

(24) (a) The funds that the purchaser is using or will use to purchase the Preference Shares are ___ / are not ___ (check one) assets of a person who is or at any time while the Preference Shares are held by the purchaser will be (A) an "employee benefit plan" as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, that is subject to Title I of ERISA, (B) a "plan" described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code that is subject to Section 4975 of the Code or (C) an entity whose underlying assets include "plan assets" of either of the foregoing by reason of the investment by an employee benefit plan or other plan in the entity within the meaning of the Plan Asset Regulation, as modified by Section 3(42) of ERISA.

(b) The purchaser is ___ / is not ___ (check one) the Co-Issuer, the Servicer or any other person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the assets of the Issuer, or any "affiliate" (as defined in 29 C.F.R. "S&P Minimum Weighted Average Recovery Rate Test" means a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Class A S&P Minimum Weighted Average Recovery Rate Test, Class B S&P Minimum Weighted Average Recovery Rate Test, Class C S&P Minimum Weighted Average Recovery Rate Test, Class D S&P Minimum Weighted Average Recovery Rate Test and the Class E S&P Minimum Weighted Average Recovery Rate Test is satisfied

(i) If there is an issuer credit rating of the borrower of the Collateral Obligation (the "Borrower"), or the guarantor who unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the Collateral Obligation (the "Guarantor") by S&P, the most current issuer credit rating for such Borrower or Guarantor (provided that with respect to any private or confidential rating, a consent has been granted by such Borrower or Guarantor and a copy of such consent shall be provided to S&P indicating that the issuer can rely on such private or confidential rating);

(ii) (a) if there is not an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation will be one subcategory below such rating; (b) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior unsecured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be such rating; and (c) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a subordinated obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be two subcategories above such rating if such rating is "BBB-" or higher and will be one subcategory above such rating if such rating is "BB+" or lower (provided that with respect to any private or confidential rating, a consent has been granted by such Borrower or Guarantor and a copy of such consent shall be provided to S&P indicating that the issuer can rely on such private or confidential rating); or

(iii) if there is neither an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P nor a rating by S&P on an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating may be determined using any one of the methods below:

(A) if an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is publicly rated by Moody's, then the S&P Rating will be determined in accordance with the methodologies for establishing the Moody's Default Probability Rating, except that the S&P Rating of such obligation will be (1) one subcategory below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody's if such security is rated "Baa3" or higher by Moody's and (2) two subcategories below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody's if such security is rated "Bal" or lower by Moody's; provided that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 10% of the Maximum Amount may be given a S&P Rating based on a rating given by Moody's as provided in this subclause (A) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable);

(B) if no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's, then the Servicer may apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating estimate, which will be its S&P Rating; provided that, prior to or upon acquisition of any such Collateral Obligation and on or prior to each one year anniversary of the acquisition of such Collateral Obligation, the Issuer shall submit to S&P a request for a S&P credit rating estimate for such Collateral Obligation, which shall be its S&P Rating, together with all information reasonably required by S&P to perform such estimate; or

(C) if such Collateral Obligation is not rated by Moody's or S&P, no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's and if the Servicer determines in its sole discretion based on information available to it after reasonable inquiry that such Borrower (1) is not subject to any bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings nor in default on any of its obligations (unless the subject of a good faith business dispute), (2) is a legally constituted corporate entity having the minimum legal, financial and operational infrastructure to carry on a definable business, deliver and sell a product or service and report its results in generally accepted accounting terms as verified by a reputable audit firm and (3) is not so vulnerable to adverse business, financial and economic conditions that default in its financial or other obligations is foreseeable in the near term if current operating trends continue, then the S&P Rating will be the rating determined by the Servicer, using its commercially reasonable judgment, to be applicable for such Collateral Obligation during such time as the credit estimate is pending; provided that (x) if the Issuer submit all information reasonably required by S&P to perform such estimate within 30 days upon acquisition of any such Collateral Obligation, the aforementioned rating determined by the Servicer will apply until S&P assigns a different rating, (y) if the Issuer does not submit all information reasonably required by S&P to perform such estimate within 30 days upon acquisition of any such Collateral Obligation and if, upon the 90th day following the acquisition of such Collateral Obligation (which 90-day period will be extended by S&P upon request by the Servicer so long as the Servicer has applied to S&P for a S&P credit rating and has provided all the information necessary for S&P to provide a credit rating to such Collateral Obligation prior to or upon acquisition of the such Collateral Obligation), S&P has not assigned a credit rating to such Collateral Obligation, then such Collateral Obligation shall be treated by the Issuer as having a rating of "CCC-" and (z) Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 5% of the Maximum Amount may be given an S&P Rating based on this subclause (c) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable);

provided that, if (i) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any positive "credit watch" list by S&P, such rating will be increased by one rating subcategory or (ii) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any negative "credit watch" list by S&P, such rating will be decreased by one rating subcategory.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the S&P Rating shall be (A) the rating assigned thereto by S&P if the rating is public, (B) the rating assigned by S&P if the rating is confidential, but only if all appropriate parties have provided written consent to its disclosure and use, (C) the rating assigned by S&P thereto through an estimated rating or (D) the rating assigned thereto by S&P in connection with the acquisition thereof upon the request of the Servicer. In the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a PIK Security, Structured Finance Obligation or Synthetic Securities, the S&P Rating may not be determined pursuant to clause (iii)(A) above.

S&P Ratings for entities or obligations relevant hereunder other than Borrowers and Collateral Obligations shall be determined in a corresponding manner.

"S&P Rating Confirmation" means confirmation in writing from S&P that it has not reduced, suspended, or withdrawn the Initial Rating assigned by it to any Class of Notes.

"S&P Recovery Rate" means, as of any date of determination, with respect to any Collateral Obligation, the percentage for such Collateral Obligation set forth in (x) the applicable table below, (y) the row in such table opposite the S&P CRR (or, if the relevant assets have no S&P CRR, the senior secured recovery rating, the U.S. loan recovery rating or the CDO liability rating, as applicable) of such Collateral Obligation (or, in the case of a Form-Approved Synthetic Security, the Reference Obligation unless otherwise specified by S&P) and (z) the column in such table below the initial S&P Rating of the respective Class of Notes; provided, however that (i) with respect to a DIP Loan or a Synthetic Security (other than a Form-Approved Synthetic Security), the S&P Recovery Rate shall be the recovery rate assigned by S&P and with respect to a Structured Finance Obligation the S&P Recovery Rate shall be the recovery rate determined by reference to Table V or Table VI below, as applicable and (ii) the Issuer or the Servicer may request the assignment of a recovery rate from S&P with respect to any Collateral Obligation, any such assignment by S&P to be in writing (electronic or otherwise).

- (I) obligations secured directly by, referenced to, or representing ownership of, a pool of receivables or other assets where the obligors with respect to such receivables or other assets are non-corporate credit risks; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, collateralized loan obligations shall not be excluded by this clause (I);

(ii) that has an S&P Rating;

(iii) that has a rating and a Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate assigned by Moody's; and

(iv) whose ownership or disposition (without regard to the Issuer's other activities) by the Issuer will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

In connection with the purchase of a Structured Finance Obligation, the Servicer shall obtain from Moody's the applicable Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate.

For purposes of the Diversity Test, multiple Structured Finance Obligations from CDOs serviced by the same Servicer or multiple Structured Finance Obligations issued by the same master trust will be considered to be obligations of one issuer.

"Subordinated High-Yield Bond" means a Secured High-Yield Bond secured by a second (or lower) priority security interest in the relevant collateral.

"Subordinated Lien Loan" means a Secured Loan (other than a Second Lien Loan) secured by a second (or lower) priority security interest in the relevant collateral.

"Subscription Agreement" means a subscription agreement dated between a purchaser and the Issuer entered into on or before the Closing Date for the subscription of a specified number of Preference Shares.

"Super Majority" means, with respect to any Class or group of Notes or Preference Shares, the Holders of more than 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of that Class or group of Notes or Preference Shares, as the case may be.

"Synthetic Security" means any swap transaction (including any LCDS Security), structured bond, credit linked note, or other derivative financial instrument providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a debt instrument (but excluding any such instrument relating directly to a basket or portfolio of debt instruments) or an index or indices (such as the "SAMI" index published by Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC) in connection with a basket or portfolio of debt instruments or other similar instruments entered into by the Issuer with a Synthetic Security Counterparty that has in the Servicer's commercially reasonable judgment, equivalent expected loss characteristics (those characteristics, "credit risk") to those of the related Reference Obligations (taking account of those considerations as they relate to the Synthetic Security Counterparty), if (i) it is either a Form-Approved Synthetic Security or the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied, and (ii) the Reference Obligations thereof have a Market Value equal to at least 85% of the Principal Balance of the Reference Obligation at the time the Synthetic Security is entered into.

Each Synthetic Security that is a credit default swap the Reference Obligation of which are Loans shall require each such Reference Obligation to be denominated and payable in U.S. Dollars.

The maturity, interest rate, and other non-credit characteristics of a Synthetic Security may be different from the Reference Obligations to which the credit risk of the Synthetic Security relates.

No Synthetic Security shall result in the Issuer being a "buyer" of credit protection.

The term Synthetic Security shall not include any Structured Finance Obligation or any Participation, but the Reference Obligation of a Synthetic Security may be a Structured Finance Obligation.

Each Synthetic Security Agreement shall contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in the Indenture.

The ownership or disposition of any Synthetic Security (without regard to the Issuer's other activities) must not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

Unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any "deliverable obligation" that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event" under any proposed Synthetic Security must not provide that its transfer to the Issuer is subject to obtaining any consents and must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such "deliverable obligation" is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event") as a Collateral Obligation and satisfy the Concentration Limitations under the Indenture, except that such "deliverable obligation" may constitute a Defaulted Collateral Obligation when delivered upon a "credit event" and if the Reference

Obligation of the Synthetic Security is a Senior Secured Loan then the "deliverable obligation" under the Synthetic Security must also be a Senior Secured Loan.

No Synthetic Security may provide for any event other than bankruptcy or a failure to pay as a "credit event."

No Synthetic Security may provide for termination by the Synthetic Security Counterparty at any time (i) after a declaration of acceleration of Maturity of the Notes has been made upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, unless such declaration and its consequences may no longer be rescinded and annulled in accordance with the Indenture and liquidation of the Collateral has begun or (ii) upon an Optional Redemption, unless the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date has passed and no notice of withdrawal has been issued.

For purposes of the Coverage Tests and the Retention Overcollateralization Test, unless the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied in respect of any proposed alternative treatment, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligation.

With respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, for purposes of: (i) calculating compliance with the Diversity Test, the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test, and the Concentration Limitations (other than limits relating to payment characteristics and except for clauses (17) and (17)(a) of the definition of "Concentration Limitations"), and all related definitions, and (ii) any other provision or definition of the Indenture involving a determination with respect to a Reference Obligation, the characteristics of such Reference Obligations shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct interest of the Issuer in each such Reference Obligation in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation. In addition, each Reference Obligation under such Synthetic Security shall be assigned a Moody's Rating Factor equal to the sum of the Moody's Rating Factor of (i) the related Reference Obligor, (ii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty of such Synthetic Security and (iii) the Synthetic Security Collateral of such Synthetic Security. In addition, the Moody's Priority Category Rate in respect of a Synthetic Security referencing multiple Reference Obligations pursuant to this paragraph shall be the Moody's Priority Category Rate as assigned by Moody's to each Reference Obligation underlying such Synthetic Security. For the avoidance of doubt, Reference Obligations upon which a Synthetic Security is based as described in this paragraph must meet the definition of "Collateral Obligation" to the extent provided in this definition.

If the Rating Condition must be satisfied to execute the purchase of any Synthetic Security, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall give each applicable Rating Agency not less than five days' prior notice of the purchase of or entry into any Synthetic Security.

"Synthetic Security Agreement" means the documentation governing any Synthetic Security.

"Synthetic Security Collateral" means, respect to any Synthetic Security, amounts posted to the Synthetic Security Collateral Account by the Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its obligations under the Synthetic Security, including (i) all Eligible Investments that mature no later than the Stated Maturity or (ii) floating rate credit card securitizations that are rated "Aaa" by Moody's and "AAA" by S&P (that mature no later than the Stated Maturity), in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account that are purchased with Synthetic Security Collateral; provided that any amounts described in clause (ii) above shall be hedged by a guaranteed investment contract or a total return swap which shall be subject to Rating Confirmation by S&P.

"Synthetic Security Counterparty" means any entity required to make payments on a Synthetic Security to the extent that a reference obligor makes payments on a related Reference Obligation.

"Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction" means one of the Cayman Islands, Bermuda, the Netherlands Antilles or the tax advantaged jurisdiction of the Channel Islands, or such other jurisdiction that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto; provided that any Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction that is the jurisdiction of organization of an obligor of a Collateral Obligation other than obligors that are special purpose vehicles or issuers of Structured Finance Obligations shall have a Moody's foreign currency rating of at least "Aa2" and a S&P foreign currency rating of at least "AA-".

"Tax Event" means an event that occurs if:

(i) (A) one or more Collateral Obligations that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax (other than a withholding tax on fees received with respect to a letter of credit) or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more Collateral Obligations that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them and (B) in any Due Period, the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on new withholding tax obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on increased rate withholding tax obligations, in each case to the extent not "grossed-up" (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period;

(ii) taxes, fees, assessments, or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any twelve-month period in excess of U.S.$2,000,000, other than any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax with respect to any payment owing in respect of any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation; or

(iii) if the Issuer is at the time treated as a pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, investors in the Preference Shares who are non-U.S. Persons not otherwise subject to U.S. net income tax are or have become subject to U.S. net income taxation in respect of income of the Issuer in an amount in excess of 10% of the net income of the Issuer in any twelve-month period.

"Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon" means, as of any Measurement Date, the rate obtained by:

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Fixed Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum rate at which it pays interest (other than, with respect to Collateral Obligations that are not PIK Securities, any interest that is not required to be paid in Cash and may be deferred), using only the effective after-tax interest rate determined by the Servicer on any Fixed Rate Obligation after taking into account any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction and any gross-up paid by the obligor);

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);

(iii) dividing the sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations that are Fixed Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, adding to the sum the amount of any Spread Excess as of the Measurement Date, but only to the extent required to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test.

"Weighted Average Life Test" is a test that is satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the greater of (a) the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and November 1, 2017 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date and (b) 3.0 years.

"Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor" means the summation of the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation (excluding Eligible Investments) by its respective Moody's Rating Factor, dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) and rounding the result up to the nearest whole number.

"Weighted Average Rating Factor Test" means a test that is satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor of the Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) as of the Measurement Date is less than or equal to the Maximum Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor plus (y) the Moody's Weighted Average Rating Factor Recovery Rate Modifier.

"Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test" is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Moody's Weighted Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 43.6%.

"Weighted Average Spread" means, as of any Measurement Date, a rate obtained by:

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Floating Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum contract spread at which it pays interest (which (w) for PIK Securities for which interest has been deferred or capitalized, will be deemed to be zero, (x) for Collateral Obligations that would be PIK Securities but for the proviso in the definition thereof, will be deemed to be equal to the effective rate of PIK Cash-Pay Interest applicable thereto and (y) for any Revolving Loan or Delayed Draw Loan, will be the per annum contract spread for the Funded Amount thereof and the rate of the commitment fee and such other fees payable to the Issuer for any Unfunded Amount thereof, and (z) for any Synthetic Letter of Credit, will be the all-in rate (including any fees (net of any taxes required to be paid by the Issuer under the Indenture) payable to the Issuer by the underlying obligor) minus the applicable LIBOR, calculated net of any taxes that could be, or have been, withheld in respect thereof (unless the payer is obligated to indemnify the Issuer for any taxes so withheld), determined with respect to any Floating Rate Obligation that does not bear interest based on a London interbank offered rate, by expressing the current interest rate on the Floating Rate Obligation as a spread above a three month London interbank offered rate calculated in a manner consistent with the calculation of LIBOR;

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);

(iii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to pass the Weighted Average Spread Test, adding to that sum the amount of Fixed Rate Excess as of the Measurement Date.
