In connection with the purchase of a Structured Finance Obligation, the Portfolio Manager shall obtain from Moody's the applicable Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate.

For purposes of the Diversity Test, multiple Structured Finance Obligations from CDOs managed by the same Portfolio Manager or multiple Structured Finance Obligations issued by the same master trust will be considered to be obligations of one issuer.

"Subordinated Lien Loan" means a Secured Loan (other than a Second Lien Loan) secured by a second (or lower) priority security interest in the relevant collateral.

"Super Majority" means, with respect to any Class or group of Notes and the Class E Certificates, Holders of more than 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of that Class or group of Securities. With respect to the Class Q-1 Securities as such, the Holders of more than 66-2/3% of the stated amount thereof. With respect to the Class P-1 Securities as such, the Holders of more than 66-2/3% of the stated amount thereof and with respect to the Class P-2 Securities as such, the Holders of more than 66-2/3% of the stated amount thereof.

"Synthetic Security" means any swap transaction, structured bond investment, credit linked note, or other derivative financial instrument relating to a debt instrument (but excluding any such instrument relating directly to a basket or portfolio of debt instruments) or an index or indices (such as the "SAMI" index published by Credit Suisse First Boston) in connection with a basket or portfolio of debt instruments or other similar instruments entered into by the Issuer with a Synthetic Security Counterparty that has in the Portfolio Manager's commercially reasonable judgment, equivalent expected loss characteristics (those characteristics, "credit risk") to those of the related Reference Obligations (taking account of those considerations as they relate to the Synthetic Security Counterparty), if (i) it is either a Form-Approved Synthetic Security or the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied, and (ii) the Reference Obligations thereof have a weighted average Market Value of at least 85% at the time the Synthetic Security is entered into

The maturity, interest rate, and other non-credit characteristics of a Synthetic Security may be different from the Reference Obligations to which the credit risk of the Synthetic Security relates.

No Synthetic Security shall require the Issuer to make any payment to the Synthetic Security Counterparty after its initial purchase other than any payments represented by the release of any cash collateral posted by the Issuer from the Collection Account to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of the posted cash collateral. Collateral may be posted only to a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. No Synthetic Security shall result in the Issuer being a "buyer" of credit protection.

The term Synthetic Security shall not include any Structured Finance Obligation or any Participation, but the Reference Obligation of a Synthetic Security may be a Structured Finance Obligation.

Any Synthetic Security shall be positively indexed to the Reference Obligation on no more than a one-for-one basis (i.e. unleveraged credit exposure).

Each Synthetic Security Agreement shall (i) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in the Indenture and (ii) include provisions satisfying the provisions of the Indenture and contain the limitations described under “Security for the Notes—Synthetic Securities”.

The ownership or disposition of any Synthetic Security (without regard to the Issuer’s other activities) must not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

Any “deliverable obligation” that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any “credit event” under any proposed Synthetic Security must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such “deliverable obligation” is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any “credit event”) as a Collateral Obligation (except that such “deliverable obligation” may constitute a Defaulted Collateral Obligation when delivered upon a “credit event”) and, unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, (i) must not provide that its transfer to the Issuer is subject to obtaining any consents, (ii) after giving effect to the delivery thereof would not cause the Concentration Limitations not to be satisfied and (iii) if the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security is a Senior Secured Loan then the “deliverable obligation” under the Synthetic Security must also be a Senior Secured Loan.

Synthetic Securities that are credit default swaps, credit linked notes, or other similar instruments may not provide for “restructuring” as a “credit event”.

For purposes of the Coverage Tests and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test, unless the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied in respect of any proposed alternative treatment, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligation.

With respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index investment providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, for purposes of: (i) calculating compliance with the Diversity Test, the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test, and the Concentration Limitations (other than limits relating to payment characteristics and except for clauses 20 and 20(a) of the definition of “Concentration Limitations”), and all related definitions, and (ii) any other provision or definition of the Indenture involving a determination with respect to a Reference Obligation, the characteristics of such Reference Obligations shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct investment by the Issuer in each such Reference Obligation in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation. In addition, each Reference Obligation under such Synthetic Security shall be assigned a Moody’s Rating Factor equal to the sum of the Moody’s Rating Factor of (i) the related reference obligor, (ii) the Synthetic Security

Counterparty of such Synthetic Security and (iii) the Synthetic Security Collateral of such Synthetic Security. In addition, the Moody's Priority Category Rate in respect of a Synthetic Security referencing multiple Reference Obligations pursuant to this paragraph shall be the Moody's Priority Category Rate as assigned by Moody's to each Reference Obligation underlying such Synthetic Security. For the avoidance of doubt, Reference Obligations upon which a Synthetic Security is based as described in this paragraph must meet the definition of "Collateral Obligation" to the extent provided in this definition.

Any Synthetic Security shall be positively indexed to the Reference Obligation on no more than a one-for-one basis (i.e. unleveraged credit exposure).

If the Rating Condition must be satisfied to execute the purchase of any Synthetic Security, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall give each applicable Rating Agency not less than 5 days' prior notice of the purchase of or entry into any Synthetic Security.

"Synthetic Security Agreement" means the documentation governing any Synthetic Security.

"Synthetic Security Collateral" means, respect to any Synthetic Security, amounts posted to the Synthetic Security Collateral Account by the Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its obligations under the Synthetic Security, including (i) all Eligible Investments or (ii) investments that satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's, in each case that mature no later than the Stated Maturity, in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account that are purchased with Synthetic Security Collateral; provided that Synthetic Security Collateral may not include any investment the acquisition (including the manner of acquisition), ownership, enforcement or disposition of which will subject the Issuer to net income tax in any jurisdiction outside its jurisdiction of incorporation.

"Synthetic Security Counterparty" means any entity (other than the Issuer) required to make payments on a Synthetic Security (including any guarantor) to the extent that a reference obligor makes payments on a related Reference Obligation and meeting the Synthetic Security Counterparty Ratings Requirement.

"Synthetic Security Counterparty Ratings Requirement" means, with respect to the Synthetic Security Counterparty and in respect of a Synthetic Security, a requirement that is satisfied if, at the time the Issuer enters into such Synthetic Security Agreement, the related Synthetic Security Counterparty has a senior unsecured credit rating assigned by S&P for short-term debt of at least "A-1+" or a senior unsecured credit rating assigned by S&P for long-term debt of at least "AA-".

"Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction" means one of the Cayman Islands, Bermuda, the Netherlands Antilles or the tax advantaged jurisdiction of the Channel Islands, or such other jurisdiction with respect to which the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied.

"Tax Affected Security" means any asset received or otherwise acquired by the Issuer (including, without limitation, an Equity Security, Defaulted Collateral Obligation, ETB/897 Asset and Workout Asset) that will cause the Issuer to be deemed to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

"Tax Event" means an event that occurs if either:

- (i) (A) one or more Collateral Obligations that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more Collateral Obligations that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them and (B) in any Due Period, the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on new withholding tax obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on increased rate withholding tax obligations, in each case to the extent not “grossed-up” (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period; or

(ii) taxes, fees, assessments, or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer in an aggregate amount in any twelve-month period in excess of U.S.$2,000,000, other than any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax with respect to any payment owing in respect of any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation or Collateral Obligation.

“Treasury Regulations” means regulations, including proposed or temporary regulations, promulgated under the Code. References herein to specific provisions of proposed or temporary regulations shall include analogous provisions of final Treasury Regulations or other successor Treasury Regulations.

“Trust Officer” means, when used with respect to the Trustee, any officer in the Corporate Trust Office (or any successor group of the Trustee) including any director, vice president, assistant vice president, associate, or any other officer of the Trustee customarily performing functions similar to those performed by such officers in the Corporate Trust Office, or to whom any corporate trust matter is referred at the Corporate Trust Office because of his knowledge of and familiarity with the particular subject and having direct responsibility for the administration of this Indenture.

“UCC” means the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect from time to time in the State of New York.

“Underlying Instrument” means the loan agreement, indenture, credit agreement, or other agreement pursuant to which a Pledged Obligation has been issued or created and each other agreement that governs the terms of or secures the obligations represented by the Pledged Obligation or of which the holders of the Pledged Obligation are the beneficiaries.

“Undrawn Amount” means at any time (i) with respect to any Class A-1A Note the excess, if any, of (x) the Commitment relating to such Class A-1A Note over (y) the Drawn Amount under such Class A-1A Note; provided that any funds deposited with the Trustee in a reserve account as a result of the failure of a Holder of such Class A-1A Note to satisfy the Rating Criteria during the Draw Period and any subsequent Prepayments in respect of such Holder’s Class A-1A Note placed pursuant to the Indenture in a separate subaccount of that reserve account relating to such Holder will for all purposes be part of the Undrawn Amount of such Class A-1A Note and such Holder will be entitled to receive the applicable Commitment Fee thereon, and (ii) with respect to any Class A-1B Note, the excess, if any, of (x) the applicable portion of the Fully Drawn Amount relating to such Class A-1B Note over (y) the Drawn Amount under such Class A-1B Note; provided that any funds deposited with the Trustee in a reserve account as a result of the failure of a Holder of a Class A-1B Note to satisfy the Rating Criteria during the Delayed Drawdown Period will for all purposes be part of the Undrawn Amount of such Class A-1B Note and such Holder will be entitled to receive the applicable Delayed Drawdown Fee thereon.

“Unfunded Amount” means at any time, with respect to any Delayed Drawdown Loan or Revolving Loan, the excess, if any, of (i) the amount of the commitment with respect to such obligation over (ii) the funded principal amount outstanding on such obligation.

“Unscheduled Principal Payments” means any principal payments received with respect to a Collateral Obligation as a result of optional redemptions, exchange offers, tender offers, other payments or prepayments made at the option of the issuer thereof or that are otherwise not scheduled to be made thereunder.

“Valuation Report” means the accounting report, determined as of the close of business on each Determination Date, rendered in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

“Warehouse Agreement” means the Asset Acquisition Agreement and Master Participation Agreement, dated as of August 1, 2005, among Citigroup Financial Products Inc., as the Warehouse Provider, the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager, as amended.

“Warehoused Loans” means loans acquired by the Issuer before the Closing Date pursuant to the Warehouse Agreement.

“Weighted Average Commitment Fee” means, as of any Measurement Date, an amount (rounded up to the next 0.001%) equal to the weighted average commitment fee on all Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans determined by dividing (i) the aggregate of all scheduled amounts (other than interest) of commitment fees or facility fees payable on the Aggregate Unfunded Amount of all Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans held by the Issuer as of such Measurement Date by (ii) the Aggregate Unfunded Amount of all Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans held by the Issuer as of such Measurement Date; provided that if such quotient is less than the Minimum Weighted Average Commitment Fee for such Measurement Date, there shall be added to the amount set forth in clause (i) above an amount equal to the Spread Excess, if any, as of such Measurement Date (less any portion of the Spread Excess that has been added to the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon as of such Measurement Date pursuant to clause (iv) of the definition of “Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon”), and the Weighted Average Commitment Fee as of such Measurement Date shall be the amount calculated after giving effect to such addition.

“Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon” means, as of any Measurement Date, the rate obtained by:

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Fixed Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum rate at which it pays interest (which (x) for PIK Securities for which interest has been deferred or capitalized, will be deemed to be zero and (y) for Collateral Obligations that would be PIK Securities but for the proviso in the definition thereof, will be deemed to be equal to the effective rate of PIK Cash-Pay Interest), using only the effective after-tax interest rate determined by the Portfolio Manager on any Fixed Rate Obligation after taking into account any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction and any gross-up paid by the obligor);

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);

(iii) dividing the sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations that are Fixed Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, adding to the sum the amount of any Spread Excess as of the Measurement Date, but only to the extent required to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test.

“Weighted Average Life” means, as of any Measurement Date the number obtained by (i) summing the products obtained by multiplying (A) the Average Life at that time of each Collateral Obligation by (B) the Principal Balance at that time of the Collateral Obligation and (ii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance at that time of all Collateral Obligations.

“Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor” means the summation of the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation (excluding Eligible Investments) by its respective Moody’s Rating Factor, dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) and rounding the result up to the nearest whole number.

“Weighted Average Spread” means, as of any Measurement Date, a rate obtained by:

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Floating Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum contract spread at which it pays interest in Cash (which (x) for PIK Securities for which interest has been deferred or capitalized, will be deemed to be zero and (y) for Collateral Obligations that would be PIK Securities but for the proviso in the definition thereof, will be deemed to be equal to the effective rate of PIK Cash-Pay Interest), determined with respect to any Floating Rate Obligation that does not bear interest based on a London interbank offered rate, by expressing the current interest rate on the Floating Rate Obligation as a spread above a three month London interbank offered rate calculated in a manner consistent with the calculation of LIBOR;

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);

(iii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to pass the Weighted Average Spread Test, adding to that sum the amount of Fixed Rate Excess as of the Measurement Date.

For purposes of calculating the Weighted Average Spread, the Principal Balance of each Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall not include any of its Unfunded Amount.

“Workout Assets” means a Loan, High-Yield Bond, or Qualified Equity Security acquired in connection with the workout or restructuring of any Collateral Obligation that the Issuer does not advance any funds to purchase and that does not qualify as a Collateral Obligation.

“Zero-Coupon Security” means a security that, at the time of determination, does not make periodic payments of interest. A Zero-Coupon Security will not include a security that is a PIK Security.

Indenture, dated as of December 8, 2005, among LIBERTY CLO, LTD. (the “Issuer”), LIBERTY CLO, CORP. (the “Co-Issuer”) and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as trustee (together with its permitted successors, the “Trustee”).

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Co-Issuers are duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture to provide for the Class A-1A Notes, Class A-1B Notes, the Class A-1C Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class A-4 Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class Q-1 Securities, the Class P-1 Securities and the Class P-2 Securities, in each case issuable as provided in this Indenture. All covenants and agreements made by the Co-Issuers in this Indenture are for the benefit and security of the Secured Parties and the Class P Securityholders as described herein. The Co-Issuers are entering into this Indenture, and the Trustee is accepting the trusts created by this Indenture, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged.

All things necessary to make this Indenture a valid agreement of the Co-Issuers in accordance with the agreement’s terms have been done.

GRANTING CLAUSES

The Issuer Grants to the Trustee, for the benefit and security of the Noteholders, the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager and each Hedge Counterparty (collectively, the “Secured Parties”), all of its right, title, and interest in, to, and under, in each case, whether now owned or existing, or hereafter acquired or arising:

(a) the Collateral Obligations (listed, as of the Closing Date, in Schedule 1 to this Indenture and as such Schedule 1 may be modified, amended and revised subsequent to the Closing Date by the Issuer) and all Workout Assets, including any part thereof which consists of general intangibles (as defined in the UCC) relating thereto, all payments made or to be made thereon or with respect thereto, which are delivered or credited to the Trustee, or for which a Security Entitlement is delivered or credited to the Trustee or which are credited to one or more of the Issuer Accounts on or after the Closing Date and all payments made or to be made thereon or with respect thereto;

(b) the Custodial Account, the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, the Class A-1A Funding Account, the Class A-1B Funding Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, and the Securities Lending Account (collectively, the “Issuer Accounts”) and the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account (subject to, in the case of any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account, any security interest in favor of the applicable Synthetic Security Counterparty), Eligible Investments purchased with funds on deposit in the Issuer Accounts, and all income from the investment of funds in the Issuer Accounts;

(c) the Management Agreement, the Securities Lending Agreements, the Hedge Agreements as set forth in Article 15 and the Collateral Administration Agreement to the extent of any rights of the Issuer therein;

(d) all Cash or money delivered to the Trustee (or its bailee);

(e) all securities, investments, investment property, general intangibles, instruments, money and agreements of any nature in which the Issuer has an interest (except for money, securities and investments in the Issuer's bank account in the Cayman Islands and except the Class P Accounts and any proceeds of any type credited thereto or deposited therein); and

(f) all proceeds with respect to the foregoing.

(all of the property and assets described in the foregoing clauses (a) through (g), but excluding the Class P Collateral, the "Collateral").

The Issuer as a second and separate grant Grants to the Trustee, for the benefit and security solely of the Class P-1 Securityholders, all of its right, title and interest in, to and under, in each case, whether now owned or existing, or hereafter acquired or arising, the Class P-1 Accounts and any property of any type deposited into such accounts (including the Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component) and all proceeds with respect to the foregoing (all of the foregoing, the "Class P-1 Collateral"), which security interest secures the Issuer's obligations under the Class P-1 Securities to pay in full aggregate amounts equal to the Class P-1 Nominal Principal Outstanding.

The Issuer as a third and separate grant Grants to the Trustee, for the benefit and security solely of the Class P-2 Securityholders, all of its right, title and interest in, to and under, in each case, whether now owned or existing, or hereafter acquired or arising, the Class P-2 Accounts and any property of any type deposited into such accounts (including the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component) and all proceeds with respect to the foregoing (all of the foregoing, the "Class P-2 Collateral"), which security interest secures the Issuer's obligations under the Class P-2 Securities to pay in full aggregate amounts equal to the Class P-2 Nominal Principal Outstanding.

For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the Class P Securityholders shall not be secured by the Collateral, (ii) the other Secured Parties shall not be secured by and shall have no claim to, allocation of, or other interest, in the Class P Collateral, (iii) the Class P-1 Securityholders shall not be secured by and shall have no claim to, allocation of, or other interest, in the Class P-2 Collateral and (iv) the Class P-2 Securityholders shall not be secured by and shall have no claim to, allocation of, or other interest in, the Class P-1 Collateral.

These Grants are not intended to and do not transfer any liability under the Collateral or the Class P Collateral, which liabilities shall remain the sole obligation of the Issuer. These Grants are made, however, in trust, to secure the Notes and other obligations listed in the following paragraph in the case of the first grant, only the Class P-1 Securities in the case of the second grant (to the extent provided therein) and only the Class P-2 Securities (to the extent provided therein) in the case of the third grant. Except as provided in Article 13 and the priorities set forth in the Priority of Payments, the Notes are secured by the first grant equally and ratably without prejudice, priority or distinction between any Note and any other Note because of difference in time of issuance or otherwise. (ii) that has an S&P Rating and an S&P Priority Category Recovery Rate;

(iii) that has a rating and a Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate assigned by Moody’s; and

(iv) whose ownership or disposition (without regard to the Issuer’s other activities) by the Issuer will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

In connection with the purchase of a Structured Finance Obligation, the Portfolio Manager shall obtain from Moody’s the applicable Moody’s Priority Category Recovery Rate.

For purposes of the Diversity Test, multiple Structured Finance Obligations from CDOs managed by the same Portfolio Manager or multiple Structured Finance Obligations issued by the same master trust will be considered to be obligations of one issuer.

“Subordinated Management Fee”: An amount equal to the sum of (i) a fee that accrues from the Closing Date payable to the Portfolio Manager in arrears on each Payment Date equal to 0.25% per annum of the Maximum Investment Amount as of the first day of the related Due Period if and to the extent funds are available for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments, (ii) on any Payment Date that any part of the Senior Management Fee was not paid on the preceding Payment Date, an amount equal to interest on such unpaid amount at a rate of LIBOR for the applicable period plus 3.00% per annum and (iii) on any Payment Date that any part of the Subordinated Management Fee was not paid on the preceding Payment Date, an amount equal to interest on such unpaid amount at a rate of LIBOR for the applicable period plus 3.00% per annum. The portion of the Subordinated Management Fee or Senior Management Fee, as applicable, in clauses (i) through (iii) above, as applicable, shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed divided by 360.

“Super Majority”: With respect to any Class or group of Securities (other than the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities), the Holders of more than 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of that Class or group of Securities. Holders of Class Q-1 Securities shall be included in the determination of a Super Majority of Holders of Class C Notes as if they were Holders of the Class C Notes in the Aggregate Outstanding Amount represented by the Class Q-1 Note Component and in the determination of a Super Majority of Holders of the Class E Certificates as if they were Holders of the number of Class E Certificates represented by the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component. Holders of the Class P-1 Securities and the Class P-2 Securities shall be included in the determination of a Super Majority of Holders of the Class E Certificates as if they were Holders of the number of Class E Certificates represented by the Class P-1 Class E Certificate Component or the Class P-2 Class E Certificate Component, as applicable. “Synthetic Security”: Any swap transaction, structured bond investment, credit linked note, or other derivative financial instrument relating to a debt instrument (but excluding any such instrument relating directly to a basket or portfolio of debt instruments) or an index or indices (such as the “SAMI” index published by Credit Suisse First Boston) in connection with a basket or portfolio of debt instruments or other similar instruments entered into by the Issuer with a Synthetic Security Counterparty that has in the Portfolio Manager’s commercially reasonable judgment, equivalent expected loss characteristics (those characteristics, “credit risk”) to those of the related Reference Obligations (taking account of those considerations as they relate to the Synthetic Security Counterparty), if (i) it is either a Form-Approved Synthetic Security or the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied, and (ii) the Reference Obligations thereof have a weighted average Market Value of at least 85% at the time the Synthetic Security is entered into.

The maturity, interest rate, and other non-credit characteristics of a Synthetic Security may be different from the Reference Obligations to which the credit risk of the Synthetic Security relates.

No Synthetic Security shall require the Issuer to make any payment to the Synthetic Security Counterparty after its initial purchase other than any payments represented by the release of any cash collateral posted by the Issuer from the Collection Account to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account simultaneously with the Issuer’s purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of the posted cash collateral. Collateral may be posted only to a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. No Synthetic Security shall result in the Issuer being a “buyer” of credit protection.

The term Synthetic Security shall not include any Structured Finance Obligation or any Participation, but the Reference Obligation of a Synthetic Security may be a Structured Finance Obligation.

Each Synthetic Security Agreement shall (i) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in this Indenture and (ii) include provisions satisfying Section 15.3 of this Indenture.

The ownership or disposition of any Synthetic Security (without regard to the Issuer’s other activities) must not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

Any “deliverable obligation” that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any “credit event” under any proposed Synthetic Security must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such “deliverable obligation” is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any “credit event”) as a Collateral Obligation (except that such “deliverable obligation” may constitute a Defaulted Collateral Obligation when delivered upon a “credit event) and, unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, (i) must not provide that its transfer to the Issuer is subject to obtaining any consents, (ii) after giving effect to the delivery thereof would not cause the Concentration Limitations not to be satisfied and (iii) if the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security is a Senior Secured Loan then the “deliverable obligation” under the Synthetic Security must also be a Senior Secured Loan..

Synthetic Securities that are credit default swaps, credit linked notes, or other similar instruments may not provide for “restructuring” as a “credit event”.

For purposes of the Coverage Tests and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test, unless the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied in respect of any proposed alternative treatment, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligation.

With respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index investment providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, for purposes of: (i) calculating compliance with the Diversity Test, the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test, and the Concentration Limitations (other than limits relating to payment characteristics and except for clauses 20 and 20(a) of the definition of “Concentration Limitations”), and all related definitions, and (ii) any other provision or definition of this Indenture involving a determination with respect to a Reference Obligation, the characteristics of such Reference Obligations shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct investment by the Issuer in each such Reference Obligation in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation. In addition, each Reference Obligation under such Synthetic Security shall be assigned a Moody’s Rating Factor equal to the sum of the Moody’s Rating Factor of (i) the related Reference Obligor, (ii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty of such Synthetic Security and (iii) the Synthetic Security Collateral of such Synthetic Security. In addition, the Moody’s Priority Category Rate in respect of a Synthetic Security referencing multiple Reference Obligations pursuant to this paragraph shall be the Moody’s Priority Category Rate as assigned by Moody’s to each Reference Obligation underlying such Synthetic Security. For the avoidance of doubt, Reference Obligations upon which a Synthetic Security is based as described in this paragraph must meet the definition of “Collateral Obligation” to the extent provided in this definition.

Any Synthetic Security shall be positively indexed to the Reference Obligation on no more than a one-for-one basis (i.e. unleveraged credit exposure).

If the Rating Condition must be satisfied to execute the purchase of any Synthetic Security, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall give each applicable Rating Agency not less than 5 days’ prior notice of the purchase of or entry into any Synthetic Security.

(i) (A) one or more Collateral Obligations that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax (“New Withholding Tax Obligations”) or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more Collateral Obligations that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them (“Increased Rate Withholding Tax Obligations”) and (B) in any Due Period, the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on New Withholding Tax Obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on Increased Rate Withholding Tax Obligations, in each case to the extent not “grossed-up” (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period; or

(ii) taxes, fees, assessments, or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any twelve-month period in excess of U.S.$2,000,000, other than any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax with respect to any payment owing in respect of any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation or Collateral Obligation.

“Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon”: As of any Measurement Date, the rate obtained by

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Fixed Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum rate at which it pays interest (which (x) for PIK Securities for which interest has been deferred or capitalized, will be deemed to be zero and (y) for Collateral Obligations that would be PIK Securities but for the proviso in the definition thereof, will be deemed to be equal to the effective rate of PIK Cash-Pay Interest), using only the effective after-tax interest rate determined by the Portfolio Manager on any Fixed Rate Obligation after taking into account any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction and any gross-up paid by the obligor),

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i),

Section 1.2. Assumptions as to Pledged Obligations; Construction Conventions.

This Section 1.2 shall be applied in connection with all calculations required to be made pursuant to this Indenture:

- with respect to the scheduled payment of principal or interest on any assets included in the Collateral or the Class P Collateral,
- with respect to the sale of and reinvestment in Collateral Obligations,
- with respect to the income that can be earned on the scheduled payment of principal or interest on the Pledged Obligations and on any other amounts that may be received for deposit in the Collection Account, and
- with respect to the treatment of Collateral Obligations loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement.

The provisions of this Section 1.2 shall be applicable to any determination or calculation that is covered by this Section 1.2, whether or not reference is specifically made to Section 1.2, unless some other method of calculation or determination is expressly specified in the particular provision.

(a) All calculations with respect to the scheduled payment of principal or interest on any assets shall be made on the basis of information as to the terms of each asset and on reports of payments received on the asset that are furnished by or on behalf of the issuer of the asset and, to the extent they are not manifestly in error, the information or report may be conclusively relied on in making the calculations.

(b) For each Due Period and as of any Measurement Date, the scheduled payment of principal or interest on any Pledged Obligation shall be the sum of

(i) the total amount of payments and collections reasonably expected to be received during the Due Period in respect of the Pledged Obligation that, if paid as scheduled, will be available for payment on the Notes and of certain expenses of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer in the Collection Account at the end of the Due Period; and

(ii) any such amounts received in prior Due Periods that were not disbursed on a previous Payment Date.

Except as provided in paragraph (h) below, a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation shall be assumed to have a scheduled payment of principal and interest of zero.

The total amount of payments and collections reasonably expected to be received includes the proceeds of the sale of the Pledged Obligation received and, in the case of sales which have not yet settled, to be received during the Due Period and not reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty, Securities Lending Counterparty, or Hedge Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security, Securities Lending Agreement, or Hedge Agreement) or Eligible Investments or retained in the Collection Account for subsequent reinvestment pursuant to Section 12.2.

(c) For purposes of the applicable determinations required by Article 12 and the definition of "Interest Coverage Ratio," the expected interest on Collateral Obligations shall be calculated using their then current interest rates.

(d) With respect to any Collateral Obligation, the date on which it "matures" (or its "maturity" date) shall be the earlier of

(i) the stated maturity of the obligation or

(ii) if the Issuer has the right to require the issuer or obligor of the Collateral Obligation to purchase, redeem, or retire the Collateral Obligation at a price of at least par on any one or more dates before its Stated Maturity (a "put right") and the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that it will cause the Issuer to direct the Trustee to exercise the put right on a date, the maturity date shall be the date specified in the certification.

(e) For purposes of calculating compliance with the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), the Coverage Tests, and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the Reference Obligation. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limits other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligations.

(f) Any Collateral Obligation loaned to a Securities Lending Counterparty shall be included in the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests, and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization

Test and the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation loaned to a Securities Lending Counterparty shall be included in the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations, in each case unless an “event of default” (under and as defined in the related Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing.

(g) If a Class of Notes (treating the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes and the Class A-4 Notes as one Class for this purpose) ceases to be Outstanding, then any Coverage Test computed by reference to the Class of Notes (but not to any subordinate Class of Notes then Outstanding) shall cease to be of any force.

(h) For purposes of calculating compliance with the Eligibility Criteria (other than the Weighted Average Life Test), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager by notice to the Trustee, during the Reinvestment Period any Eligible Investment purchased with Principal Proceeds received upon the maturity, redemption, sale, or other disposition of a Collateral Obligation (or, after the Reinvestment Period, with Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations) shall be deemed to have the characteristics of the disposed Collateral Obligation until reinvested in an additional Collateral Obligation. The calculations shall be based on the Principal Balance of the disposed Collateral Obligations except in the case of Defaulted Collateral Obligations and Credit Risk Securities, in which case the calculations will be based on the Principal Proceeds received on the disposition or sale of the Defaulted Collateral Obligation or Credit Risk Obligation.

Section 1.3. Rules of Interpretation.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture or unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) Defined terms include, as appropriate, all genders and the plural as well as the singular.

(b) References to designated articles, sections, subsections, exhibits, and other subdivisions of this Indenture, such as “Section 6.12 (a),” refer to the designated article, section, subsection, exhibit, or other subdivision of this Indenture as a whole and to all subdivisions of the designated article, section, subsection, exhibit, or other subdivision. The words “herein,” “hereof,” “hereto,” “hereunder,” and other words of similar import refer to this Indenture as a whole and not to any particular article, section, exhibit, or other subdivision of this Indenture.

(c) Any term that relates to a document or a statute, rule, or regulation includes any amendments, modifications, supplements, or any other changes that may have occurred since the document, statute, rule, or regulation came into being, including changes that occur after the date of this Indenture. References to law are not limited to statutes. Any reference to any person includes references to its successors and assigns.

(d) Any party may execute any of the requirements under this Indenture either directly or through others, and the right to cause something to be done rather than doing it directly shall be implicit in every requirement under this Indenture. Unless a provision is restricted as to time or limited as to frequency, all provisions under this Indenture are implicitly available and things may happen from time to time.

(e) The term “including” and all its variations mean “including but not limited to.” Except when used in conjunction with the word “either,” the word “or” is always used inclusively (for example, the phrase “A or B” means “A or B or both,” not “either A or B but not both”).

(f) A reference to “a thing” or “any of a thing” does not imply the existence or occurrence of the thing referred to even though not followed by “if any,” and “any of a thing” is any and all of it. A reference to the plural of anything as to which there could be either one or more than one does not imply the existence of more than one (for instance, the phrase “the obligors on a note” means “the obligor or obligors on a note”). “Until something occurs” does not imply that it must occur, and will not be modified by the word “unless.” The word “due” and the word “payable” are each used in the sense that the stated time for payment has passed. The word “accrued” is used in its accounting sense, i.e., an amount paid is no longer accrued. In the calculation of amounts of things, differences and sums may generally result in negative numbers, but when the calculation of the excess of one thing over another results in zero or a negative number, the calculation is disregarded and an “excess” does not exist. Portions of things may be expressed as fractions or percentages interchangeably. The word “shall” is used in its imperative sense, as for instance meaning a party agrees to something or something must occur or exist.

(g) All accounting terms used in an accounting context and not otherwise defined, and accounting terms partly defined in this Indenture, to the extent not completely defined, shall be construed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. To the extent that the definitions of accounting terms in this Indenture are inconsistent with their meanings under generally accepted accounting principles, the definitions contained in this Indenture shall control.

(h) In the computation of a period of time from a specified date to a later specified date or an open-ended period, the words “from” and “beginning” mean “from and including,” the word “after” means “from but excluding,” the words “to” and “until” mean “to but excluding,” and the word “through” means “to and including.” Likewise, in setting deadlines or other periods, “by” means “on or before.” The words “preceding,” “following,” “before,” “after,” “next,” and words of similar import, mean immediately preceding or following. References to a month or a year refer to calendar months and calendar years.

(i) Any reference to the enforceability of any agreement against a party means that it is enforceable against the party in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, and other similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors’ rights and to general equity principles.

(j) Except when only the registered holder is recognized, such as in Section 2.9., references to Noteholders, holders, and the like refer equally to Beneficial Owners who have an interest in a Note but are not reflected in the Indenture Register as the owner.

ARTICLE 2

THE NOTES

Section 2.1. Forms Generally.

The Indenture Securities and the Trustee’s or Authenticating Agent’s certificate of authentication on them (the “Certificate of Authentication”) shall be in substantially the forms required by this Article, with appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions, and other variations required or permitted by this Indenture, and may have any letters, numbers, or other marks of identification and any legends or endorsements on them that are consistent with this Indenture, as determined by the Authorized Officers of the Issuer executing the Indenture Securities, as applicable, as evidenced by their execution of the Indenture Securities.

Section 2.2. Forms of Indenture Securities and Certificate of Authentication.

(a) The Indenture Securities, including the Temporary Regulation S Global Securities, the Regulation S Global Securities, Rule 144A Global Notes, Certificated Class A-1A Notes, Certificated Class A-1B Notes, Certificated Class Q-1 Securities, Certificated Class P-1 Securities and Certificated Class P-2 Securities and the Certificate of Authentication shall be in the forms of the applicable portion of Exhibit A.

(b) Temporary Regulation S Global Securities and Regulation S Global Securities. The Notes (other than the Class A-1A Notes and the Class A-1B Notes), the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities initially sold to non-U.S. persons in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S shall each be initially represented by one or more temporary global securities in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of Exhibit A1-N, Exhibit A1-Q and Exhibit A1-P, as applicable, including legends (the “Temporary Regulation S Global Security”). On or after the first Business Day following the 40th day after the later of the Closing Date and the commencement of the offering of the Notes (the “Exchange Date”), interests in a Temporary Regulation S Global Security will be exchangeable for interests in one or more permanent global notes of the same Class in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of Exhibit A2-N, Exhibit A2-Q and Exhibit A2-P, as applicable, including legends (each a “Regulation S Global Security”), upon certification that the beneficial interests in such Temporary Regulation S Global Security are owned by persons that are not U.S. persons. The Temporary Regulation S Global Securities and Regulation S Global Securities shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Indenture Securities represented thereby with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depositary for credit to Depositary participants that hold such positions on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, for further credit to the respective accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream, duly executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Regulation S Global Securities may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee or the Depositary, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided. As used above and in subsection (c) below, “U.S. person” and “offshore transaction” have the meanings assigned to them in Regulation S.

(c) Rule 144A Global Notes. The Notes of each Class (other than the Class A-1A Notes and the Class A-1B Notes) initially sold to U.S. persons that are QIB/QPs shall each be issued initially in the form of one or more permanent global notes per Class in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of Exhibit A3, including legends (each, a “Rule 144A Global Note”), which shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Notes represented thereby with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depositary, duly executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Notes may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee or the Depositary, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided.

(d) (i) Class A-1A Notes and Class A-1B Notes shall be issued in the form of one or more Certificated Class A-1A Notes or Certificated Class A-1B Notes, as applicable, in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of Exhibit A4-A1A or Exhibit A4-A1B, as applicable, (each, a “Certificated Class A-1A Note” or “Certificated Class A-1B Note”, as applicable, and collectively, the “Certificated Class A-1 Notes”), which shall be registered in the name of the beneficial owner or a nominee thereof, duly executed by the Issuer and the Co-Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided.

(ii) Class Q-1 Securities initially sold to U.S. persons shall each be issued initially in the form of one or more Certificated Class Q-1 Securities in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of Exhibit A4-Q (each, a “Certificated Class Q-1 Security”), which shall be registered in the name of the beneficial owner or a nominee thereof, duly executed by the Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided.

(iii) Class P-1 Securities and Class P-2 Securities initially sold to U.S. persons shall each be issued in the form of one or more Certificated Class P-1 Securities or Certificated Class P-2 Securities, as applicable, in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of Exhibit A4-P (each, a “Certificated Class P-1 Security” or “Certificated Class P-2 Security”, as applicable, and collectively, the “Certificated Class P Securities”), which shall be registered in the name of the beneficial owner or a nominee thereof, duly executed by the Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided.

(e) Book-Entry Provisions. This Section 2.2(e) shall apply only to Global Securities deposited with or on behalf of the Depositary. The provisions of the “Operating Procedures of the Euroclear System” of Euroclear and the “Terms and Conditions Governing Use of Participants” of Clearstream, respectively, shall be applicable to the Temporary Regulation S Global Securities and Regulation S Global Securities insofar as interests in the Global Securities are held by the Agent Members of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be.

Agent Members shall have no rights under this Indenture with respect to any Global Security held on their behalf by the Trustee, as custodian for the Depositary and the Depositary may be treated by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, and any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee as the absolute owner of such Indenture Security for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Indenture shall prevent the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, or any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee, from giving effect to any written certification, proxy, or other authorization furnished by the Depositary or impair, as between the Depositary and its Agent Members, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a Holder of any Indenture Security.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in paragraphs (b) and (c) above, if (i) the Depositary notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for a Global Security or ceases to be a “Clearing Agency” registered under the Exchange Act and a successor depository is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days of such notice, (ii) as a result of any amendment to or change in, the laws or regulations of the Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which become effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or the Paying Agent becomes aware that it is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Securities which would not be required if the Global Securities were in definitive form or (iii) an Event of Default under this Indenture has occurred and is continuing and has not been waived; the Trustee shall execute an agreement with the Issuers amending this Indenture pursuant to Section 8.1 for the purpose of terminating the book entry deposit system and substituting definitive Securities for the Global Securities. Such agreement shall provide for the form and terms of such definitive Securities and the place and manner in which a Securityholder may obtain possession of such definitive Securities; provided, that in no event may holders of beneficial interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Securities receive definitive Securities pursuant to this provision prior to the Exchange Date and each such holder must certify to the Issuers and the Trustee that it is not a U.S. Person. Such agreement shall also provide the procedures for registration of transfer or exchange of such definitive Securities, as well as such other provisions as the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Trustee may agree shall be necessary or appropriate to effect the substitution of definitive Securities for Global Securities and to modify the provisions of this Indenture to provide for the use of definitive Securities in lieu of a book-entry deposit system.

(g) Upon the occurrence of any of the events described in paragraph (f) above, the Trustee shall notify all Holders of the Global Securities and shall advise such Holders of the Global Securities of the procedure by which the Global Securities shall be exchanged for definitive Securities. Each beneficial owner of Global Securities shall be entitled, at no cost to it, to have registered in the name of the beneficial owner of Global Securities one or more definitive Securities representing the same aggregate principal amount of Securities of the relevant Class as its beneficial interest in the related Global Security. Upon the occurrence of any such event, (i) the Trustee at the expense of the Issuer shall obtain from the Depository a listing of the Participants then holding Book-Entry Securities on the records of the Depository and (ii) upon surrender by the Depository to the Trustee of the Global Securities for each Class, the Trustee shall cancel such Global Securities and the Issuers shall execute and deliver to such Participants definitive Securities representing in the aggregate the identical Aggregate Outstanding Amount (or stated amount, as applicable) of beneficial interests in the Global Securities held by such Participants on the records of the Depository, registered in such names as such Participants shall have provided to the Trustee; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not register any such definitive Security or deliver any such definitive Security to a Participant unless and until such Participant shall have provided to the Trustee a certification acceptable to the Trustee that such registration instructions were given, and delivery of such definitive Security will be made, in accordance with the directions of the beneficial owners of Securities represented by such Participant. Neither the Issuers nor the Trustee shall be liable for any delay in delivery of such registration instructions by any Participant and each of them may conclusively rely on, and shall be protected in relying on, (i) information contained in the Participant listing provided by the Depository regarding the names of the Participants holding beneficial interests in the Global Securities and the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Securities represented by the beneficial interests in the Global Securities held by each such Participant, and (ii) the foregoing registration instructions and certifications provided by each such Participant with respect to definitive Securities representing the same Aggregate Outstanding Amounts of definitive Securities as the beneficial interests in the Global Securities stated to be held by such Participant in such Participant listing. If definitive Securities are issued in replacement of Notes listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Issuer will publish in the Republic of Ireland thereafter information explaining the payment, transfer and exchange procedures for the definitive Securities. The Trustee shall recognize the registered holders of the definitive Securities as Holders of the Securities hereunder. The Registrar shall reflect on its records the issuance of definitive Securities in exchange for the Global Securities.

In the event that certificated Securities for any reason are not so issued by the Co-Issuers to such beneficial owners of interests in Global Securities, the Issuer expressly acknowledges that such beneficial owners shall be entitled to pursue any remedy that the Holders of a Global Security would be entitled to pursue in accordance with the Indenture (but only to the extent of such beneficial owner's interest in the Global Security) as if certificated Securities had been issued. Payments on such certificated Securities will be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a Dollar-denominated account maintained by the owner or, if a wire transfer cannot be effected, by a Dollar check delivered to the Holder.

(i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Prices as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;

Failure of the Extension Conditions to be satisfied shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture.

(d) Extension Procedure.

(i) No later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer of its election to extend the Stated Maturity (the "Extension Notice"), the Trustee shall mail the Extension Notice to all Holders of Indenture Securities and the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Class E Certificates) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), in the form of Exhibit J, and shall request the Rating Condition for the Maturity Extension from S&P, if applicable;

(ii) Any Holder of Indenture Securities or Class E Certificates may give irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") within 30 days after the Trustee has mailed the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell its Indenture Securities or Class E Certificates to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension;

(iii) Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of Indenture Securities or Class E Certificates that has not given such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Indenture Securities or Class E Certificates to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension; and

(iv) If clause (iii)(b)(i) of the Extension Conditions is not satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date as determined by the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf), the Trustee shall request the Rating Condition to be satisfied with respect to Moody's.

(e) On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf) shall confirm (i) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Indenture Securities or Class E Certificates in compliance with all transfer restrictions in this Indenture (and in the case of the Class A-1A Notes, the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement and in the case of the Class A-1B Notes, the Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement, as applicable) and the legends on such Indenture Securities or Class E Certificates and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (ii) whether the requirements of clause (c)(iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (iii) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, in the case of Class A-1A Notes that are Extension Sale Securities, the purchase thereof by the Extension Qualifying Purchaser shall include the related Commitment thereunder.

(f) On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall automatically become effective under the terms of this Indenture; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth in clauses (a) and (c) above are satisfied as certified by the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf). No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer in consultation with the Portfolio Manager, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail a notice to all Holders of Indenture Securities, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates), the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), the Irish Listing and Paying Agent for forwarding to the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Securities is listed thereon) and the Administrator for forwarding to the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Securities is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depository for any Indenture Securities or Class E Certificates subject to the Maturity Extension.

Holders of the Class E Certificates, Class P-1 Securities and Class P-2 Securities shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to any applicable qualifying Beneficial Owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification on or before the 5th Business Day prior to the first Payment Date from and including each Extension Effective Date on which funds are available to be used for such purposes in accordance with Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption of the Notes. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments on a Payment Date shall not be considered "due and payable" hereunder. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Notes. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid, in the case of the Notes, to the accounts designated in the applicable

Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer.

Section 2.5. Execution, Authentication, Delivery, and Dating.

The Indenture Securities shall be executed on behalf of each of the Applicable Issuers by one of their respective Authorized Officers. The signature of the Authorized Officer on the Indenture Securities may be manual or facsimile.

Indenture Securities bearing the manual or facsimile signatures of individuals who were at any time the Authorized Officers of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, shall bind the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, notwithstanding that any of them have ceased to hold their offices before the authentication and delivery of the Indenture Securities or did not hold their offices at the date of issuance of the Indenture Securities.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer may deliver Indenture Securities executed by the Applicable Issuers to the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent for authentication and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent, upon Issuer Order, shall authenticate and deliver the Indenture Securities as provided in this Indenture and not otherwise.

Each Indenture Security authenticated and delivered by the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated as of the Closing Date. All other Indenture Securities that are authenticated after the Closing Date for any other purpose under this Indenture shall be dated the date of their authentication.

Indenture Securities issued upon transfer, exchange, or replacement of other Indenture Securities shall be issued in authorized denominations reflecting the original Aggregate Outstanding Amount (or, in the case of the Class Q-1 Securities, original stated amount) of the Indenture Securities so transferred, exchanged, or replaced, but shall represent only the current outstanding principal amount of the Indenture Securities so transferred, exchanged, or replaced. If any Indenture Security is divided into more than one Indenture Security in accordance with this Article 2, the original principal amount of the Indenture Security shall be proportionately divided among the Indenture Securities delivered in exchange for it and shall be the original aggregate principal amount of the subsequently issued Indenture Securities.

No Indenture Security shall be entitled to any benefit under this Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose, unless there appears on the Indenture Security a Certificate of Authentication executed by the Trustee or by the Authenticating Agent by the manual signature of one of their Authorized Officers, and that certificate on any Indenture Security shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that the Indenture Security has been duly authenticated and delivered under this Indenture.

Section 2.6. Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause a register (the “Indenture Register”) to be kept in which the Issuer shall provide for the registration of Indenture Securities and the registration of transfers of Indenture Securities. The Trustee is hereby initially appointed “Indenture Registrar” for the purpose of registering Indenture Securities and transfers of the Indenture Securities as provided in this Indenture. The Issuer may rely conclusively on any such information provided to it by the Trustee. Upon any resignation or removal of the Indenture Registrar, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor and notify the Portfolio Manager of the appointment or, in the absence of such appointment, assume the duties of Indenture Registrar.

If the Issuer appoints a person other than the Trustee to be Indenture Registrar, the Issuer will give the Trustee prompt written notice of the appointment of the Indenture Registrar and of the location, and any change in the location, of the Indenture Register. The Trustee may inspect the Indenture Register at all reasonable times and obtain copies of it. The Trustee may rely on a certificate executed on behalf of the Indenture Registrar by an Officer of the Indenture Registrar as to the names and addresses of the Holders of the Indenture Securities and the principal amounts and number of the Indenture Securities.

Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Indenture Securities at the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.2, if the requirements of this Indenture are met the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferees, new Indenture Securities of any authorized denomination and of a like original Aggregate Outstanding Amount (or, in the case of the Class Q-1 Securities, original stated amount).

At the option of its holder, Indenture Securities may be exchanged for Indenture Securities of like terms, in any authorized denominations and of like aggregate principal amount, upon surrender of the Indenture Securities to be exchanged at the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.2. Whenever any Indenture Security is surrendered for exchange, the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, the Indenture Securities that the Holder making the exchange is entitled to receive.

All Indenture Securities issued on any registration of transfer or exchange of Indenture Securities shall be the valid obligations of the Applicable Issuers evidencing the same obligations, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Indenture Securities surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

Purchasers and transferees who reside in certain states or jurisdictions may be subject to additional suitability standards and/or specific holding periods before the Class Q-1 Securities may be resold or otherwise transferred. It acknowledges that no representation is made as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or any state or other securities laws for resale of the Class Q-1 Securities.

(iii) In connection with the purchase of the Class Q-1 Securities: (a) it understands that none of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent and or any of their respective Affiliates is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment adviser for it; (b) it is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (in each case whether written or oral) of the Co-Issuers, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Trustee, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator or any of their respective Affiliates, agents and independent contractors in their capacities as such other than statements, if any, of such person in a current offering memorandum for the Class Q-1 Securities; (c) it has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisers to the extent it has deemed necessary and has made its own investment decisions based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisers as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator or any of their respective Affiliates, agents and independent contractors in their capacities as such; (d) its purchase of the Class Q-1 Securities will comply with all applicable laws in any jurisdiction in which it resides or is located; (e) it is acquiring the Class Q-1 Securities as principal solely for its own account for investment and not with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act; (f) it has made investments prior to the date hereof and was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Class Q-1 Securities; (g) it will not hold any Class Q-1 Securities for the benefit of any other person, it will at all times be the sole beneficial owner thereof for purposes of the Investment Company Act and all other purposes and it will not sell participation interests in the Class Q-1 Securities or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the dividends or distributions on the Class Q-1 Securities; (h) all Class Q-1 Securities (together with any other securities of the Co-Issuers) purchased and held directly or indirectly by it constitute in the aggregate an investment of no more than 40% of its assets or capital; and (i) it is a sophisticated investor and is purchasing the Class Q-1 Securities with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof, and it is capable of assuming and willing to assume those risks.

(iv) On each day from the date on which it acquires its interest in the Class Q-1 Securities through and including the date on which it disposes of its interest in such Class Q-1 Securities, (a) it is not, and is not acting on behalf of or using the assets of, a Plan; (b) if it is a governmental plan (as defined in Section 3(32) of ERISA), church plan (as defined in Section 3(33) of ERISA) or a non-US plan (as described in Section 4(b)(4) of ERISA), its purchase, holding and subsequent transfer of the Class Q-1 Securities will not result in a violation of any applicable laws, rules, regulations, policies and guidelines to which it and its investments are subject; and (c) it and any person causing it to acquire any Class Q-1 Securities agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, Co-Issuer, Portfolio Manager, Class E Certificates Paying Agent, Trustee, Collateral Administrator, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, Placement Agent and Initial Purchaser and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage or loss, liability, expense, claim, proceeding or excise tax incurred by them as a result of any of the foregoing representations being or becoming untrue. It understands that the Issuer may require any holder of the Class Q-1 Securities that has made a false representation with respect to the foregoing matters to sell the Class Q-1 Securities and, if such holder does not comply with such demand within 30 days thereof, the Issuer may sell such holder's interest in the Class Q-1 Securities. It understands that any transfer effected in connection with such a representation that was false will be of no force and effect, will be void ab initio, and will not operate to transfer any rights to the transferee, notwithstanding any instructions to the contrary to the Issuer, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent or any intermediary.

(v) It understands that this Indenture permits the Issuer to demand that any holder of a beneficial interest in Class Q-1 Securities in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security who is determined not to have acquired such beneficial interest in compliance with the requirements of Regulation S or who is a U.S. person (as defined in Regulation S) sell such beneficial interest (a) to a Person who is not a U.S. person (as defined in Regulation S) in a transaction meeting the requirements of Regulation S or (b) to a Person who will take delivery of the holder's interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Securities or Regulation S Global Securities in the form of a Certificated Class Q-1 Security, who is both (i) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (ii) a Qualified Purchaser, in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A of the Securities Act and, if the holder does not comply with such demand within 30 days thereof, the Issuer may cause the holder to sell its beneficial interest on such terms as the Issuer may choose.

(vi) It agrees to treat the Class Q-1 Security as a direct ownership interest in the different Classes of Securities corresponding to the components of the Class Q-1 Security. It acknowledges that it is its intent and that it understands it is the intent of the Issuer that, for purposes of U.S. federal income tax, state and local income and franchise tax and any other income taxes, the Issuer will be treated as a corporation, the Notes will be treated as indebtedness of the Issuer and the Class E Certificates (including the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component) (in the absence of an administrative determination or judicial ruling to the contrary) will be treated as equity in the Issuer; it agrees to such treatment and agrees to take no action inconsistent with such treatment.

(vii) It acknowledges that the Issuer is not authorized to engage in activities that could cause it to constitute a finance or lending business for federal income tax purposes and agrees that it will report its investment in the Class Q-1 Securities in a manner consistent with such limitation, and in particular will not treat the Issuer as an “eligible controlled foreign corporation” for purposes of Section 954(h) of the Code or as deriving income described in Section 1297(b)(2) of the Code.

(viii) It is not purchasing the Class Q-1 Securities in order to reduce any United States federal income tax liability or pursuant to a tax avoidance plan. In the case of a purchaser that is a bank (as defined in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code) or an affiliate of such a bank, the purchaser (a) is acquiring the Class Q-1 Securities as a capital markets investment and will not for any purpose treat the assets of the Issuer as loans acquired in its banking business and (b) has not proposed or identified, and will not propose or identify, any security or loan for inclusion in the Collateral.

(ix) In the case of any purchaser that is not a United States person (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code), the purchaser is not a bank (as defined in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code) or an affiliate of such a bank, unless the purchaser is a person that is eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates United States federal income taxation of United States source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States.

(x) Such beneficial owner is aware that, except as otherwise provided in this Indenture, the Class Q-1 Securities being sold to it will be represented (a) initially, by one or more Temporary Regulation S Global Securities and (b) after the Exchange Date, by one or more Regulation S Global Securities, and that beneficial interests therein may be held only through Euroclear or Clearstream.

(xi) A holder of a beneficial interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Security must provide Euroclear or Clearstream or the participant organization through which it holds such interest, as applicable, with a certificate certifying that the beneficial owner of the interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Security is a non-U.S. person, and Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, must provide to the Trustee a certificate to such effect, prior to (a) the payment of interest or principal or other amounts with respect to such holder’s beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Security and (b) any exchange of such beneficial interest for a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Security and no payment will be made to the holder of any beneficial interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Security unless such holder has provided Euroclear or Clearstream or such participant organization through which it holds such interest with such certificate.

(xii) It understands that any resale or other transfer of beneficial interests in a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security to U.S. persons shall not be permitted.

(xiii) It acknowledges that no governmental agency has passed upon the Class Q-1 Securities or made any finding or determination as to the fairness of an investment in the Class Q-1 Securities.

(xiv) It acknowledges that certain persons or organizations will perform services on behalf of the Co-Issuers and will receive fees and/or compensation for performing such services as described in the Offering Memorandum and this Indenture and Class E Certificate Documents.

(xv) It acknowledges that the Class Q-1 Securities do not represent deposits with or other liabilities or obligations of, and are not guaranteed or endorsed by, the Placement Agent, the Initial Purchaser, the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator or any of their respective Affiliates or any entity related to any of them or any other holder of Class Q-1 Securities. It acknowledges that none of such persons will, in any way, be responsible for or stand behind the value or the performance of the Class Q-1 Securities. It acknowledges that purchase of Class Q-1 Securities involves investment risks including possible delay in payment of distributions and loss of income and principal invested.

(xvi) It understands that the Stated Maturity of the Class Q-1 Securities is subject to up to four extensions of four years each (to a latest possible date of November 1, 2033) without consent of any beneficial owners of Securities if certain conditions are satisfied.

(xvii) It understands that in the case of any amendment to this Indenture that requires consent of one or more holders of Class Q-1 Securities (or holders of any Class of Securities that constitutes a Class Q-1 Component thereof), this Indenture and Class E Certificate Documents permit the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase at the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price, the Class Q-1 Securities (or the affected Component thereof) from any holder thereof that either (i) has declared in writing that it will not consent to such amendment or (ii) had not consented to such amendment by the last day on which consent could be given in accordance with the request therefor, and such holder will be required to sell its Class Q-1 Securities or the affected Component thereof (at the holder's option) to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price. In addition, in the case of any vote by holders of Class E Certificates to remove the Portfolio Manager without cause, the Class E Certificate Documents permit the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase at the Buy-Out Amount, the Class E Certificates represented by the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component from any holder that voted in favor of such removal, and in such case such holder's Class Q-1 Securities will be deemed exchanged into their Components and the resulting Class E Certificates sold to the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser at the applicable Buy-Out Amount.

(xviii) It understands that the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Portfolio Manager, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator and their respective counsel will rely upon the accuracy and truth of the foregoing representations, and it hereby consents to such reliance.

(m) Each initial purchaser and subsequent transferee who is purchasing an interest in a Class P Security represented by a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or a Regulation S Global Security will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows:

(i) It is aware that the sale of Class P Securities to it is being made in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Regulation S and understands that the Class P Securities offered in reliance on Regulation S will bear the legend set forth in the applicable Class P Security. It and each beneficial owner of its Class P Securities is not, and will not be, a U.S. person as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act, and its purchase of the Class P Securities will comply with all applicable laws in any jurisdiction in which it resides or is located. In addition, it represents and warrants that it will (i) provide notice to any subsequent transferee of the transfer restrictions provided in such legend and in this Indenture, (ii) hold and transfer its beneficial interest in any Class P Securities only in not less than the applicable minimum denomination; and (iii) provide the Issuer from time to time such information as it may reasonably request in order to ascertain compliance with this paragraph (i).

(ii) The Class P Securities are being purchased or transferred in accordance with the transfer restrictions set forth in this Indenture and pursuant to an exemption from Securities Act registration, and in accordance with applicable state securities laws or securities laws of any other relevant jurisdiction. It understands that the Class P Securities have been offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Class P Securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any states, and, if in the future it decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Class P Securities, such Class P Securities may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with an exemption from registration under such laws and pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture and the legend on such Class P Securities. In particular, it understands that the Class P Securities may be transferred only (a) in the form of a Certificated Class P Certificate to a Qualified Purchaser that is a Qualified Institutional Buyer or (b) in the form of an interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security to a person that is not a "U.S. person" as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act. Purchasers and transferees who reside in certain states or jurisdictions may be subject to additional suitability standards and/or specific holding periods before the Class P Securities may be resold or otherwise transferred. It acknowledges that no representation is made as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or any state or other securities laws for resale of the Class P Securities.

(iii) In connection with the purchase of the Class P Securities: (a) it understands that none of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent or any of their respective Affiliates is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment adviser for it; (b) it is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (in each case whether written or oral) of the Co-Issuers, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Trustee, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator or any of their respective Affiliates, agents and independent contractors in their capacities as such other than statements, if any, of such person in a current offering memorandum for the Class P Securities; (c) it has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisers to the extent it has deemed necessary and has made its own investment decisions based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisers as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator or any of their respective Affiliates, agents and independent contractors in their capacities as such; (d) its purchase of the Class P Securities will comply with all applicable laws in any jurisdiction in which it resides or is located; (e) it is acquiring the Class P Securities as principal solely for its own account for investment and not with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act; (f) it has made investments prior to the date hereof and was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Class P Securities; (g) it will not hold any Class P Securities for the benefit of any other person, it will at all times be the sole beneficial owner thereof for purposes of the Investment Company Act and all other purposes and it will not sell participation interests in the Class P Securities or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the dividends or distributions on the Class P Securities; (h) all Class P Securities (together with any other securities of the Co-Issuers) purchased and held directly or indirectly by it constitute in the aggregate an investment of no more than 40% of its assets or capital; and (i) it is a sophisticated investor and is purchasing the Class P Securities with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof, and it is capable of assuming and willing to assume those risks.

(iv) On each day from the date on which it acquires its interest in the Class P Securities through and including the date on which it disposes of its interest in such Class P Securities, (a) it is not, and is not acting on behalf of or using the assets of, a Plan; (b) if it is a governmental plan (as defined in Section 3(32) of ERISA), church plan (as defined in Section 3(33) of ERISA) or a non-US plan (as described in Section 4(b)(4) of ERISA), its purchase, holding and subsequent transfer of the Class P Securities will not result in a violation of any applicable laws, rules, regulations, policies and guidelines to which it and its investments are subject; and (c) it and any person causing it to acquire any Class P Securities agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, Co-Issuer, Portfolio Manager, Class E Certificates Paying Agent, Trustee, Collateral Administrator, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, Placement Agent and Initial Purchaser and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage or loss, liability, expense, claim, proceeding or excise tax incurred by them as a result of any of the foregoing representations being or becoming untrue. It understands that the representations made by it pursuant to this paragraph (iii) shall be deemed made on each day from the date made through and including the date on which it disposes of its interests in the Class P Securities. It understands that the Issuer may require any holder of the Class P Securities that has made a false representation with respect to the foregoing matters to sell the Class P Securities and, if such holder does not comply with such demand within 30 days thereof, the Issuer may sell such holder's interest in the Class P Securities. It understands that any transfer effected in connection with such a representation that was false will be of no force and effect, will be void ab initio, and will not operate to transfer any rights to the transferee, notwithstanding any instructions to the contrary to the Issuer, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent or any intermediary.

(v) It understands that this Indenture permits the Issuer to demand that any holder of a beneficial interest in Class P Securities in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security who is determined not to have acquired such beneficial interest in compliance with the requirements of Regulation S or who is a U.S. person (as defined in Regulation S) sell such beneficial interest (a) to a Person who is not a U.S. person (as defined in Regulation S) in a transaction meeting the requirements of Regulation S or (b) to a Person who will take delivery of the holder's interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Securities or Regulation S Global Securities in the form of a Certificated Class P Certificate, who is both (i) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (ii) a Qualified Purchaser, in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A of the Securities Act, and, if the holder does not comply with such demand within 30 days thereof, the Issuer may cause the holder to sell its beneficial interest on such terms as the Issuer may choose.

(vi) It agrees to treat the Class P Security as a direct ownership interest in the corresponding components of the Class P Security. It acknowledges that it is its intent and that it understands it is the intent of the Issuer that, for purposes of U.S. federal income tax, state and local income and franchise tax and any other income taxes, the Issuer will be treated as a corporation, the Notes will be treated as indebtedness of the Issuer and the Class E Certificates (in the absence of an administrative determination or judicial ruling to the contrary) will be treated as equity in the Issuer; it agrees to such treatment and agrees to take no action inconsistent with such treatment.

(vii) It acknowledges that the Issuer is not authorized to engage in activities that could cause it to constitute a finance or lending business for federal income tax purposes and agrees that it will report its investment in the Class P Securities in a manner consistent with such limitation, and in particular will not treat the Issuer as an “eligible controlled foreign corporation” for purposes of Section 954(h) of the Code or as deriving income described in Section 1297(b)(2) of the Code.

(viii) It is not purchasing the Class P Securities in order to reduce any United States federal income tax liability or pursuant to a tax avoidance plan. In the case of a purchaser that is a bank (as defined in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code) or an affiliate of such a bank, the purchaser (a) is acquiring the Class P Securities as a capital markets investment and will not for any purpose treat the assets of the Issuer as loans acquired in its banking business and (b) has not proposed or identified, and will not propose or identify, any security or loan for inclusion in the Collateral.

(ix) In the case of any purchaser that is not a United States person (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code), the purchaser is not a bank (as defined in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code) or an affiliate of such a bank, unless the purchaser is a person that is eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates United States federal income taxation of United States source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States.

(x) Such beneficial owner is aware that, except as otherwise provided in this Indenture, the Class P Securities being sold to it will be represented (a) initially, by one or more Temporary Regulation S Global Securities and (b) after the Exchange Date, by one or more Regulation S Global Securities, and that beneficial interests therein may be held only through Euroclear or Clearstream.

(xi) A holder of a beneficial interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Security must provide Euroclear or Clearstream or the participant organization through which it holds such interest, as applicable, with a certificate certifying that the beneficial owner of the interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Security is a non-U.S. person (as defined in Regulation S), and Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, must provide to the Trustee a certificate to such effect, prior to (a) the payment of interest or principal or other amounts with respect to such holder’s beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Security and (b) any exchange of such beneficial interest for a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Security and no payment will be made to the holder of any beneficial interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Note unless such holder has provided Euroclear or Clearstream or such participant organization through which it holds such interest with such certificate.

(xii) It understands that any resale or other transfer of beneficial interests in a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security to U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S) shall not be permitted.

(xiii) It acknowledges that no governmental agency has passed upon the Class P Securities or made any finding or determination as to the fairness of an investment in the Class P Securities.

(xiv) It acknowledges that certain persons or organizations will perform services on behalf of the Co-Issuers and will receive fees and/or compensation for performing such services as described in the Offering Memorandum and this Indenture and Class E Certificate Documents.

(xv) It acknowledges that the Class P Securities do not represent deposits with or other liabilities or obligations of, and are not guaranteed or endorsed by, the Placement Agent, the Initial Purchaser, the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator or any of their respective Affiliates or any entity related to any of them or any other holder of Class P Securities. It acknowledges that none of such persons will, in any way, be responsible for or stand behind the value or the performance of the Class P Securities. It acknowledges that purchase of Class P Securities involves investment risks including possible delay in payment of distributions and loss of income and principal invested.

(xvi) It understands that the Stated Maturity of the Class P Securities is subject to up to four extensions of four years each (to a latest possible date of November 1, 2033) without consent of any beneficial owners of Securities if certain conditions are satisfied.

(xvii) It understands that in the case of any amendment to this Indenture that requires consent of one or more holders of Class P Securities, this Indenture and Class E Certificate Documents permit the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase at the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price the Class P Class E Certificate Component of Class P Securities from any holder thereof that either (i) has declared in writing that it will not consent to such amendment or (ii) had not consented to such amendment by the last day on which consent could be given in accordance with the request therefor, and such holder will be required to exchange its Class P Securities for the components thereof and sell the Class E Certificates represented by such Class E Certificate Component to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price. In addition, in the case of any vote by holders of Class P Securities to remove the Portfolio Manager without cause, the Class E Certificate Documents permit the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase at the Buy-Out Amount, the Class P Class E Certificate Component thereof from any holder that voted in favor of such removal, and such holder will be required to exchange its Class P Securities for the components thereof and sell the Class E Certificates represented by such Class E Certificate Component to the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser at the Buy-out Amount.

(xviii) It understands that the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Portfolio Manager, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator and their respective counsel will rely upon the accuracy and truth of the foregoing representations, and it hereby consents to such reliance.

(n) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 2.6 to the contrary:

(i) Restrictions on U.S. Transfers. Transfers of an interest in Notes in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or a Regulation S Global Security that are not made in an offshore transaction pursuant to Regulation S or are made to U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S), shall be limited to transfers made pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.6(g)(iii).

(ii) Beneficial interests in a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security may only be held through Euroclear or Clearstream.

(o) Each person who becomes a beneficial owner of a Note evidenced by an interest in a Global Security, shall be deemed to make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in the applicable legends of the Notes set forth in Exhibit A1-N, A2-N or A3 hereto, as applicable, hereto upon such person's purchase or other acquisition of the relevant Global Security.

(p) The aggregate principal amount of any Global Security may be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee, as custodian for DTC for the Global Security, which adjustments shall be conclusive as to the aggregate principal amount of any Global Security.

(q) Any purported transfer of a Note not in accordance with this Section 2.6 shall be null and void and shall not be given effect for any purpose whatsoever.

Section 2.7. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost, or Stolen Notes.

If the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, and the relevant Transfer Agent receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss, or theft of any Indenture Security, and they receive the security or indemnity they require to hold each of them harmless, or if any mutilated Indenture Security is surrendered to a Transfer Agent, then, in the absence of notice to the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, or the Transfer Agent that the Indenture Security has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the Applicable Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for the mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Indenture Security, a replacement Indenture Security, of like tenor and equal principal amount.

If, after delivery of the replacement Indenture Security or payment on it, a protected purchaser of the predecessor Indenture Security presents it for payment, transfer, or exchange, the Applicable Issuers, the Transfer Agent, and the Trustee may recover the replacement Indenture Security (or the payment on it) from the person to whom it was delivered or any person taking the replacement Indenture Security from the person to whom the replacement Indenture Security was delivered or any assignee of that person, except a protected purchaser, and may recover on the security or indemnity provided therefor to the extent of any loss, damage, cost, or expense incurred by the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, and the Transfer Agent in connection with it.

If any mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Indenture Security has become payable, the Applicable Issuers in their discretion may, instead of issuing a new Indenture Security pay the Indenture Security without requiring its surrender except that any mutilated Indenture Security shall be surrendered.

Upon the issuance of any new Indenture Security under this Section 2.7, the Applicable Issuers or the Trustee may require the payment by its holder of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with the issuance and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected with it.

Every new Indenture Security issued pursuant to this Section 2.7 in replacement for any mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Indenture Security shall be an original additional contractual obligation of the Applicable Issuers and the new Indenture Security shall be entitled to all the benefits of this Indenture equally and proportionately with all other Indenture Securities of the same Class duly issued under this Indenture.

The provisions of this Section 2.7 are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Indenture Securities.

Section 2.8. Payment of Principal and Interest and Other Amounts; Principal and Interest Rights Preserved; Withholding.

(a) The Notes of each Class (other than the Class A-1A Notes and, with respect to the first Interest Period only, the Class A-1B Notes) shall accrue interest during each Interest Period on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (in each case determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day), the Class A-1A Notes shall accrue interest during each Interest Period on their Drawn Amount and the Class A-1B Notes shall accrue interest during the first Interest Period on their Drawn Amount and any Interest Period thereafter on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day), in each case at the Applicable Note Interest Rate. Interest shall be payable in arrears on each Payment Date. Payment of interest on each Class of Notes shall be subordinated to the payments of interest on the related Priority Classes and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The Commitment Fee on the Class A-1A Notes shall accrue as specified in the definition thereof and will be payable in arrears on each Payment Date. Interest shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class A-1A Notes on the accrued and unpaid Commitment Fees as specified in the definition of Commitment Fee Amount and shall be payable in arrears on each Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The Delayed Drawdown Fee on the Class A-1B Notes shall accrue as specified in the definition thereof and will be payable in arrears on the first Payment Date. To the extent the Delayed Drawdown Fee is not paid in full on the first Payment Date, interest shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class A-1B Notes on such accrued and unpaid Delayed Drawdown Fee as specified in the definition thereof and such unpaid Delayed Drawdown Fee and the interest thereon shall be payable in arrears on each Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments until paid in full.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of interest due on the Class of Deferred Interest Notes that is not available to be paid ("Deferred Interest") in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered "payable" for the purposes of this Indenture (and the failure to pay such interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the earlier of (i) the Stated Maturity or the date of redemption in full of the relevant Notes and (ii) the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for payment of such interest in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note, or in the case of a partial repayment, on the part repaid, from the date of repayment or its Stated Maturity unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or unless there is some other default with respect to the payments of principal.

To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for such Class and, to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest, until paid as provided in this Indenture.

(b) The principal of each Note of each Class (other than the Class A-1A Notes) and in the case of the Class A-1A Notes, the Drawn Amount, matures at par and is payable on the Payment Date that is the Stated Maturity for the Class of Notes, unless the unpaid principal of the Note becomes payable at an earlier date by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption, or otherwise (or, with respect to the Class A-1A Notes, as a Prepayment in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the payment of principal of each Class of Notes:

(i) may only occur after principal on each Class of Notes that is a Priority Class with respect to the Class has been paid in full; and

(ii) is subordinated to the payment on each Payment Date of the principal and interest payable on the Priority Classes, and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, Interest Proceeds may be used in certain circumstances to pay principal of the Class C Notes on any Payment Date, prior to the payment in full of Class A Notes and Class B Notes, to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class C Coverage Tests.

(c) Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Section 9.1.

(d) As a condition to the payment of principal of and interest on any Indenture Security without the imposition of U.S. withholding tax, the Paying Agent shall require the previous delivery of appropriate properly completed and signed original forms United States federal income tax certifications (generally, an Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a person that is a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a person that is not a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) or any other certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, and any Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments on the Indenture Security under any present or future law of the United States or any present or future law of any political subdivision of the United States or taxing authority in the United States or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under any such law.

(e) (A) Payments in respect of interest on and principal of any Note (including the Class Q-1 Note Component) shall be made by the Trustee, or by the Irish Paying and Listing Agent, if applicable, in U.S. Dollars to the Depositary or its designee with respect to a Global Security, by wire transfer, as directed by the Holder, in immediately available funds to a U.S. Dollar account maintained by the Depositary. Payments in respect of distributions on any Class E Certificate (including Class E Certificates represented by the Class E Certificate Components) payable to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent in accordance with the Priority of Payments for payments on the Class E Certificates in accordance with the Class E Certificate Documents shall be payable by wire transfer in immediately available funds (or by internal transfer if the Trustee and the Class E Certificates Paying Agent are the same Person) to the Class E Certificates Distribution Account.

(B) On each Payment Date on which payments, whether from Principal Proceeds or Interest Proceeds or upon redemption or otherwise are made on the Class C Notes or distributions are made to the Holders of the Class E Certificates, a portion of such payment and distributions shall be allocated to the Class Q-1 Security (to the extent of the Class Q-1 Note Component and the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component) or, in the case of distributions on the Class E Certificates only, allocated to the Class P-1 Securities (to the extent of the Class P-1 Class E Certificate Component) and the Class P-2 Securities (to the extent of the Class P-2 Class E Certificate Component) in the proportion that the principal of such Component bears to the principal of the related Class C Notes or Class E Certificates, as applicable, as a whole (in each case including the Components), and, in accordance with the other conditions set forth for payments on the Notes and distributions on the Class E Certificates pursuant to this Indenture, as applicable. No other payments will be made on the Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities (except, with respect to the Class P Securities, payments made in connection with Section 11.2). Such payments on the Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities shall be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a U.S. dollar account maintained by the related Holder or its nominee or, if wire transfer cannot be effected, by a U.S. dollar check sent to such Holder, at such Holder’s address appearing in the applicable Indenture Register, or its nominee. Final payments in respect of principal on the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class P Securities shall be made only against surrender of such Class Q-1 Securities and Class P Securities at the office designated by any Paying Agent.

If appropriate instructions for the wire transfer are not received by the related Record Date, then the payment will be made by check drawn on a U.S. bank mailed to the address of the Holder in the Indenture Register. Upon final payment due on the Maturity of an Indenture Security, its Holder shall present and surrender the Indenture Security at the office designated by the Trustee on or before the Maturity; provided that no presentation of (x) a Class Q-1 Security shall be required until the final payment of the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component thereof and (y) a Class P-1 Security or Class P-2 Security shall be required until the later of the final payment of the Class E Certificate Component thereof and the final payment of the Class P U.S. Treasury Component thereof. If the Trustee and the Applicable Issuers have been furnished the security or indemnity they require to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the certificate, then, in the absence of notice to the Applicable Issuers or the Trustee that the applicable Indenture Security has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender. Neither the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Class E Certificates Registrar, nor any Paying Agent shall have any responsibility or liability for any aspects of the records maintained by the Depository, Euroclear, Clearstream, or any of the Agent Members relating to or for payments made thereby on account of beneficial interests in a Global Security.

In the case where any final payment of principal and interest is to be made on any Note (other than on its Stated Maturity and except as otherwise provided in this Indenture), the Trustee, in the name and at the expense of the Applicable Issuers shall, not more than 30 nor less than 10 days before the date on which the payment is to be made, mail (by first-class mail, postage prepaid) to the persons entitled thereto at their addresses appearing on the Indenture Register, a notice specifying the date on which the payment will be made, the amount of the payment per U.S.$100,000 original principal amount of Notes and the place where the Notes may be presented and surrendered for payment. If the Trustee and the Issuer have been furnished any security or indemnity they require to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the certificate, then, in the absence of notice to the Issuer or the Trustee that the applicable certificate has been acquired by a protected purchaser, final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender of the applicable certificate.

(f) Payments of principal to Holders of the Notes of each Class shall be made in the proportion that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes of the Class registered in the name of each Holder on the applicable Record Date bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of all Notes of the Class on the Record Date. Prepayments to Holders of Class A-1A Notes shall be made in the proportion that the portion of the Drawn Amount in respect of the Class A-1A Note registered on the Record Date for such Prepayment Date bears to the aggregate Drawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes on such date.

(g) Interest accrued shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the applicable Interest Period divided by 360.

(h) All reductions in the principal amount of a Note (or one or more predecessor Notes) effected by payments of installments of principal made on any Payment Date or Redemption Date shall be binding on all future Holders of the Note and of any Note issued upon the registration of its transfer, exchange, or replacement, whether or not the payment is noted on such Note.

(i) (A) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, (x) the obligations of the Co-Issuers under the Notes and under this Indenture are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer and non-recourse obligations of the Co-Issuer, and the obligations of the Issuer under the Class Q-1

Securities (to the extent of the Class Q-1 Note Component) are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer, in each case payable solely from the Collateral and following realization of the assets, application of their proceeds in accordance with this Indenture and the reduction of the proceeds of the Collateral to zero, all obligations of, and any claims against, the Co-Issuers under this Indenture or under the Notes and Class Q-1 Securities or arising in connection therewith shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. No recourse shall be had against any Officer, director, employee, shareholder, or incorporator of either of the Co-Issuers or their respective successors or assigns for any amounts payable under the Notes or this Indenture. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not (1) prevent recourse to the Collateral for the sums due or to become due under any security, instrument, or agreement that is part of the Collateral or (2) be a waiver, release, or discharge of any indebtedness or obligation evidenced by the Notes or Class Q-1 Securities or secured by this Indenture until the Collateral have been realized. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not limit the right of any person to name the Issuer or the Co-Issuer as a party defendant in any Proceeding or in the exercise of any other remedy under the Indenture Securities or this Indenture, so long as no judgment in the nature of a deficiency judgment or seeking personal liability is sought or (if obtained) enforced against the person.

(B) The obligations of the Issuer under the Class P-1 Securities (other than in respect of the Class P Class E Certificate Component thereof) are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer payable solely from the Class P-1 Collateral in accordance with the terms of this Indenture. Once the Class P-1 Collateral has been realized and applied in accordance with Section 11.2, any such outstanding obligations of the Issuer shall be extinguished. No recourse shall be had for the payment of any amount owing in respect of the Class P-1 Securities or this Indenture against any officer, director, employee, administrator, shareholder or incorporator of the Issuer or any successors or assigns thereof for any amounts payable under the Class P-1 Securities or this Indenture. It is understood that the foregoing provisions of this clause (B) shall not (x) prevent recourse to the Class P-1 Collateral for the sums due or to become due under any security, instrument or agreement which is part of the Class P-1 Collateral, or (y) constitute a waiver, release or discharge of any indebtedness or obligation evidenced by the Class P-1 Securities or secured by this Indenture, and the same shall continue until paid or discharged. It is further understood that the foregoing provisions of this clause (B) shall not limit the right of any Person to name the Issuer as a party defendant in any action or suit or in the exercise of any other remedy under the Class P-1 Securities or this Indenture, so long as no judgment in the nature of a deficiency judgment or seeking personal liability shall be asked for or (if obtained) enforced against any such Person or entity.

(C) The obligations of the Issuer under the Class P-2 Securities (other than with respect to the Class P Class E Certificate Component thereof) are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer payable solely from the Class P-2 Collateral in accordance with the terms of this Indenture. Once the Class P-2 Collateral has been realized and applied in accordance with Section 11.2, any such outstanding obligations of the Issuer shall be extinguished. No recourse shall be had for the payment of any amount owing in respect of the Class P-2 Securities or this Indenture against any officer, director, employee, administrator, shareholder or incorporator of the Issuer or any successors or assigns thereof for any amounts payable under the Class P-2 Securities or this Indenture. It is understood that the foregoing provisions of this clause (B) shall not (x) prevent recourse to the Class P-2 Collateral for the sums due or to become due under any security, instrument or agreement which is part of the Class P-2 Collateral, or (y) constitute a waiver, release or discharge of any indebtedness or obligation evidenced by the Class P-2 Securities or secured by this Indenture, and the same shall continue until paid or discharged. It is further understood that the foregoing provisions of this clause (B) shall not limit the right of any Person to name the Issuer as a party defendant in any action or suit or in the exercise of any other remedy under the Class P-2 Securities or this Indenture, so long as no judgment in the nature of a deficiency judgment or seeking personal liability shall be asked for or (if obtained) enforced against any such Person or entity.

(j) If any withholding tax is imposed on the Issuer's payment (or allocations of income) under the Notes to any Noteholder, the tax shall reduce the amount otherwise distributable to the Noteholder. The Trustee is hereby authorized and directed to retain from amounts otherwise distributable to any Noteholder sufficient funds for the payment of any tax that is legally owed, or required by law to be collected, by or on behalf of the Issuer (but the authorization shall not prevent the Trustee or the Issuer from contesting any such tax in appropriate proceedings and withholding payment of the tax, if permitted by law, pending the outcome of the proceedings). The amount of any withholding tax imposed with respect to any Noteholder shall be treated as Cash distributed to the Noteholder when it is withheld by the Trustee and remitted to the appropriate taxing authority. If there is a possibility that withholding tax is payable with respect to a distribution, the Trustee may in its sole discretion withhold the amounts in accordance with this Section 2.8(j). If any Noteholder wishes to apply for a refund of any such withholding tax, the Trustee shall reasonably cooperate with the Noteholder in making the claim by providing information readily available to the Trustee so long as the Noteholder agrees to reimburse the Trustee for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred and provides the Trustee with security reasonably acceptable to the Trustee assuring the reimbursement. The Trustee hereby provides notice to each Noteholder that the failure by the Noteholder to provide the Trustee with appropriate tax certifications may result in amounts being withheld from payments to the Noteholder. Nothing in this Indenture shall impose an obligation on the part of the Trustee to determine the amount of any tax or withholding obligation on the part of the Issuer or in respect of the Notes.

(k) For so long as any of the Indenture Securities are listed on any stock exchange, to the extent required by the rules of such stock exchange, either of the Issuer or the Trustee shall notify the applicable listing agent (for forwarding such notice to the applicable stock exchange, if and to the extent such notification is then required by the rules of such stock exchange) in the event that the Notes do not receive scheduled payments of principal or interest on any Payment Date or the Maturity Date.

Section 2.9. Persons Considered Owners.

(a) The Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, and any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee may treat as the owner of the Indenture Security the person in whose name any Indenture Security is registered on the Indenture Register on the applicable Record Date for the purpose of receiving payments of principal of and interest on or any other payment with respect to the Indenture Security and on any other date for all other purposes whatsoever (whether or not the Indenture Security is overdue), and neither the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, nor the Trustee nor any agent of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Trustee shall be affected by notice to the contrary. The Portfolio Manager shall notify the Trustee of any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager that owns Indenture Securities or Class E Certificates.

(b) The Holders of Class Q-1 Securities shall be entitled to voting rights of the Class C Notes and the Class E Certificates represented by the Class Q-1 Note Component and the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component, respectively, in the proportion that such Class Q-1 Component bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes (in the case of the Class Q-1 Note Component) or to the aggregate number of Class E Certificates (in the case of the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component), in each case including the related Components. The Holders of Class Q-1 Securities shall not be entitled to any rights to vote as separate Classes except with respect to matters that only affect Holders of Class Q-1 Securities and as expressly permitted by this Indenture.

Securityholders shall not be entitled to any rights to vote as separate Classes except with respect to matters that only affect the Class P Securityholders and as expressly permitted by this Indenture.

Section 2.10. Cancellation.

All Indenture Securities surrendered for payment, registration of transfer, exchange, or redemption, or lost or stolen, shall be promptly canceled by the Trustee and may not be reissued or resold. No Indenture Securities shall be authenticated in lieu of or in exchange for any Indenture Securities canceled as provided in this Section 2.10, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture. All canceled Indenture Securities held by the Trustee shall be destroyed by the Trustee in accordance with its standard policy unless the Co-Issuers direct by an Issuer Order delivered to the Trustee prior to cancellation and destruction that they be returned to the Issuer.

Section 2.11. Indenture Securities Beneficially Owned by Non-Permitted Holders and Non-Permitted ERISA Holders.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary elsewhere in this Indenture, any transfer of, or transfer of a beneficial interest in, any Indenture Security to (i) a U.S. person (as defined in Regulation S) (for purposes of this Section 2.11 as defined in Regulation S) that is not a QIB/QP and (ii) a non-U.S. person (as defined in Regulation S) which transfer that does not comply with the requirements of Regulation S under the Securities Act, and that is not in each case made pursuant to an applicable exemption under the Securities Act, shall be void ab initio and any such purported transfer of which the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Trustee has notice may be disregarded by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, and the Trustee for all purposes.

(b) After discovery by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Trustee (and notice by the Trustee or the Co-Issuer to the Issuer, if either of them makes the discovery), that a person is a Non-Permitted Holder, the Issuer shall promptly send notice to the Non-Permitted Holder demanding that the Non-Permitted Holder transfer its interest to a person that is not a Non-Permitted Holder within 30 days of the date of the notice. If the Non-Permitted Holder fails to so transfer its Indenture Securities or interest in the Indenture Securities, without further notice to the Non-Permitted Holder, the Issuer may sell the Indenture Securities or interest in the Indenture Securities to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is not a Non-Permitted Holder on any terms the Issuer chooses. The Issuer, or the Trustee acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select the purchaser by soliciting bids (or by appointing an investment bank at the expense of the Issuer to solicit bids) from brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Indenture Securities, and selling the Indenture Securities, or interest in the Indenture Securities to the highest bidder. However, the Issuer or the Trustee may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion. The Holder of each Indenture Security, the beneficial owner of each interest in a Indenture Security, the Non-Permitted Holder, and each other person in the chain of title from the Holder or beneficial owner to the Non-Permitted Holder, by its acceptance of an interest in the Indenture Securities agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Trustee to effect the transfers. The proceeds of the sale, net of any commissions, expenses of the Trustee or otherwise, and taxes due in connection with the sale shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted Holder. The terms of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer (or the Trustee acting on its behalf), and the Issuer and the Trustee shall not be liable to any person having an interest in the Notes sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of its discretion.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no purchase by or proposed transfer to any Person of ERISA Restricted Indenture Securities will be permitted if such Person has represented that it is, or is acting on behalf of or using the assets of, a Plan, and the Trustee shall not register or permit the registration of any such purchase or transfer.

(d) If any Person shall become the beneficial owner of an interest in any ERISA Restricted Indenture Securities who has made an ERISA-related representation required by this Indenture that is subsequently shown to be false or misleading (any such person a “Non-Permitted ERISA Holder”), the Issuer shall, promptly after discovery that such person is a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder by the Issuer or the Trustee (and notice by the Trustee to the Issuer, if either of them makes the discovery), send notice to such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder demanding that such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder transfer all of the ERISA Restricted Indenture Securities held by such Person to a Person that is not a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder within 30 days of the date of such notice. If such Non-Permitted ERISA Holder fails to so transfer such ERISA Restricted Indenture Securities the Issuer shall have the right, without further notice to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, to sell such ERISA Restricted Indenture Securities or interest in such ERISA Restricted Indenture Securities to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is not a Non-Permitted ERISA Holder on such terms as the Issuer may choose. The Holder of each ERISA Restricted Indenture Security, the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder and each other Person in the chain of title from the Holder to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder, by its acceptance of an interest in the ERISA Restricted Indenture Securities agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Trustee to effect such transfers. The proceeds of such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted ERISA Holder. The terms and conditions of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer, and the Issuer shall not be liable to any Person having an interest in the ERISA Restricted Indenture Securities sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of such discretion.

Section 2.12. Borrowings Under Class A-1A Notes

(a) On any Business Day during the Draw Period, the Co-Issuers may borrow amounts under the Class A-1A Notes (together with amounts, if any, paid by Holders of Class A-1A Notes on the Closing Date and amounts, if any, funded by the Holders of the Class A-1A Notes under Section 2.3 of the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement, each a “Borrowing”) at the direction of the Portfolio Manager acting pursuant to the Management Agreement for a Permitted Use; provided, in each case that (i) each applicable condition to such Borrowing specified in Section 3 of the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement is satisfied on the date of such Borrowing (a “Borrowing Date”), (ii) in no event may the aggregate amount of Borrowings outstanding under the Class A-1A Notes exceed the aggregate amount of Commitments to make advances in respect of the Class A-1A Notes; and (iii) after giving effect to the Borrowing, the amount on reserve in the Revolving Reserve Account will either (x) equal 100% of the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount or (y) the Issuer will deposit therein Principal Proceeds and/or proceeds of the Borrowing in the amount required for clause (x) to be satisfied immediately after the Borrowing.

(b) Notice of any Borrowing shall be given by the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer acting pursuant to the Management Agreement) to the Revolving Note Agent, the Portfolio Manager and the Trustee in accordance with the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement.

(c) If any Holder of Class A-1A Notes shall at any time during the Draw Period fails to satisfy the Rating Criteria, the Issuer will enforce its rights under the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement to require such Holder to fund the full undrawn amount of its Commitment into a reserve account.

Section 2.13. Drawdowns Under Class A-1B Notes

(a) On any Business Day during the Delayed Drawdown Period, the Co-Issuers may draw down amounts under the Class A-1B Notes (together with amounts paid by Holders of Class A-1B Notes on the Closing Date, each a “Drawdown”) at the direction of the Portfolio Manager acting pursuant to the Management Agreement; provided, in each case that (i) each applicable condition to such Drawdown specified in Section 3 of the Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement is satisfied on the date of such Drawdown (a “Drawdown Date”) and (ii) in no event may the aggregate amount of Drawdowns outstanding under the Class A-1B Notes exceed the Fully Drawn Amount.

(b) Notice of any Drawdown shall be given by the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer acting pursuant to the Management Agreement) to the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Portfolio Manager and the Trustee in accordance with the Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement.

(c) If any Holder of Class A-1B Notes shall at any time during the Delayed Drawdown Period fail to satisfy the Rating Criteria, the Issuer will enforce its rights under the Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement to require such Holder to fund the full undrawn amount of its Commitment into a reserve account.

Section 2.14. Class Q-1 Securities

The provisions of this Section 2.14 shall apply only to the Class Q-1 Securities and shall override any contrary or inconsistent provisions of this Indenture. Subject to the foregoing sentence, the other provisions of Article 2 shall apply to the Class Q-1 Securities to the same extent as to the Notes.

(a) No transfer of a Class Q-1 Security will be permitted to a person that would not be permitted to acquire the Class C Notes and Class E Certificates comprising the Class Q-1 Components of the Class Q-1 Security under this Indenture.

Transfers of Class Q-1 Securities or interests therein may only be made as set forth in this subsection. As used in this subsection, “U.S. person” has the meaning set forth in Regulation S.

(i) Certificated Class Q-1 Security to Certificated Class Q-1 Security. Each purchaser or transferee of a Certificated Class Q-1 Security will be required to provide to the Trustee a properly completed certificate in the form of Exhibit B5-1 (with appropriate modifications acceptable to the Issuer and the Trustee, including in the case of a transfer that is a mortgage, charge, pledge or hypothecation) (a “Class Q-1 Transferee Certificate”) in which it shall represent, warrant and agree as set forth therein. If a Holder of a Certificated Class Q-1 Security wishes at any time to transfer such Certificated Class Q-1 Security to a U.S. person, such Person shall take delivery thereof in the form of a Certificated Class Q-1 Security. In such case such Holder may transfer or cause the transfer of such Certificated Class Q-1 Security as follows: Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of (A) such Holder’s Certificated Class Q-1 Security properly endorsed for assignment to the transferee and (B) a properly completed Class Q-1 Transferee Certificate by the transferee, and any other documentation as may be required thereunder, the Trustee will cancel such Certificated Class Q-1 Security in accordance with this Indenture, cause the Indenture Registrar to record the transfer in the Indenture Register and, upon execution by the Issuer, deliver to the transferee one or more Certificated Class Q-1 Securities in the aggregate stated amount transferred and in the Authorized Class Q-1 Denomination.

(ii) Class Q-1 Security in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security to Certificated Class Q-1 Security. An interest in a Class Q-1 Security in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or a Regulation S Global Security may be transferred only to (a) another person that is not a U.S. person who takes delivery in the form of or interest in Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security or (b) a U.S. person who takes delivery in the form of a Certificated Class Q-1 Security and is both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) a Qualified Purchaser. If a holder of a beneficial interest in a Class Q-1 Security in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security wishes at any time to transfer its interest in such Security, in the United States or to a U.S. person, the transferee must take delivery thereof in the form of a Certificated Class Q-1 Security. Such Holder may, subject to the rules and procedures of the Depositary, transfer or cause the transfer of such interest for an equivalent interest in one or more such Certificated Class Q-1 Securities as described below. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of (A) instructions given in accordance with the Applicable Procedures from a Participant, directing the Indenture Registrar to deliver one or more such Certificated Class Q-1 Securities designating the registered name or names, address, payment instructions, and the number and stated amount (and Aggregate Principal Amount of the related Class Q-1 Components) of such Certificated Class Q-1 Securities to be executed and delivered (the aggregate stated amount of such Certificated Class Q-1 Securities being equal to the aggregate stated amount of the interest in the related Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security to be transferred), in an Authorized Class Q-1 Denomination and (B) a properly completed transfer certificate in the form of Exhibit B5-1 and any other documentation as may be required thereunder, then the Indenture Registrar will instruct the Depositary to reduce, or cause to be reduced, the applicable Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security by the aggregate stated amount of the beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security to be transferred and the Indenture Registrar shall record the transfer in the Indenture Register and authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Class Q-1 Securities, registered in the names specified in the certificate described in clause (B) above in the stated amount designated by the transferee (the aggregate of such stated amount being equal to the beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security to be transferred) and in the applicable Authorized Class Q-1 Denomination. Any purported transfer in violation of this provision shall be null and void ab initio.

(iii) Certificated Class Q-1 Security to Class Q-1 Security in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security. If a Holder of a Certificated Class Q-1 Security wishes at any time to transfer such Certificated Class Q-1 Security to a person that is not a U.S. person in an offshore transaction in reliance on Regulation S, such Person shall take delivery thereof in the form of an interest in the corresponding Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security. In such case such Holder may exchange or transfer, or cause the exchange or transfer of, such Certificated Class Q-1 Security for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security, provided, that such proposed transferee or the person requesting such exchange, as applicable, is not a U.S. person and such transfer is otherwise being made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of (A) such Certificated Class Q-1 Security properly endorsed for such transfer, and written instructions from such Holder directing the Indenture Registrar to cause to be credited a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security in an amount equal to the stated amount transferred of such Certificated Class Q-1 Security, (B) a written order containing information regarding the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with such increase and (C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B5-2 attached hereto, given by the Holder of such Certificated Class Q-1 Security stating that the exchange or transfer of such interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security, including that the proposed transferee or the person requesting such exchange, as the case may be, is not a U.S. person and that the proposed transfer is being made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S, then the Indenture Registrar shall cancel such Certificated Class Q-1 Security in accordance with Section 2.10 record the transfer in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a) and instruct DTC to increase the stated amount of the Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security by the aggregate stated amount of the Certificated Class Q-1 Security to be transferred, and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the Person specified in such instructions a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security equal to the amount specified in the instructions received pursuant to clause (A) above. Notwithstanding anything else in this Section 2.14(a)(iii), prior to the Exchange Date a Certificated Class Q-1 Security may only be exchanged or transferred for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Temporary Regulation S Global Security.

(iv) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no purchase or proposed transfer of Class Q-1 Securities will be permitted, and the Trustee shall not register or permit the registration of any such purchase or transfer, to a Person that has represented that it is a Plan. Any purported transfer in violation of this provision shall be null and void ab initio.

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein, the rights and obligations of Holders of the Class Q-1 Securities shall consist solely of the rights and obligations of Holders of the applicable Class Q-1 Components. References herein to the rights and obligations of the Holders of Class C Notes or Class E Certificates include the rights and obligations of the Holders of Class Q-1 Securities to the extent of the applicable Class Q-1 Components.

(c) A Holder or beneficial owner of a Class Q-1 Security may exchange, subject to the applicable minimum denomination requirements, Class Q-1 Securities for interests in the Class C Notes (in an amount equal to the Class Q-1 Note Component) and Class E Certificates (in an amount equal to the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component), as applicable, that comprise the Class Q-1 Components of such Class Q-1 Securities, in the manner provided herein, in the case of the Class Q-1 Note Component, for transfer of beneficial interests to a Rule 144A Global Security, Regulation S Global Security or Temporary Regulation S Global Security, as applicable, and in the case of the Class Q-1 Class E Certificate Component, in the manner provided in the Class E Certificate Documents for transfer of a Certificated Class E Certificate or an interest in a Class E Certificate in the form of a Regulation S Global Security or Temporary Regulation S Global Security, as applicable:

Section 2.15. Class P Securities

The provisions of this Section 2.15 shall apply only to the Class P Securities and shall override any contrary or inconsistent provisions of this Indenture. Subject to the foregoing sentence, the other provisions of Article 2 shall apply to the Class P Securities to the same extent as the Notes.

(a) No transfer of a Class P Security will be permitted to a person that would not be permitted to acquire Class E Certificates comprising the Class P Class E Certificate Component under the Class E Certificate Documents and this Indenture. Transfers of Class P Securities or interests therein may only be made as set forth in this subsection. As used in this subsection, “U.S. person” has the meaning set forth in Regulation S.

(i) Certificated Class P Security to Certificated Class P Security. Each purchaser or transferee of a Certificated Class P Security will be required to provide to the Trustee a properly completed certificate in the form of Exhibit B6-1 (with appropriate modifications acceptable to the Issuer and the Trustee, including in the case of a transfer that is a mortgage, charge, pledge or hypothecation) (a “Class P Transferee Certificate”) in which it shall represent, warrant and agree as set forth therein. If a Holder of a Certificated Class P Security wishes at any time to transfer such Certificated Class P Security to a U.S. person, such Person shall take delivery thereof in the form of a Certificated Class P Security. In such case such Holder may transfer or cause the transfer of such Certificated Class P Security as follows: Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of (A) such Holder’s Certificated Class P Security properly endorsed for assignment to the transferee and (B) a properly completed Class P Transferee Certificate by the transferee, and any other documentation as may be required thereunder, the Trustee will cancel such Certificated Class P Security in accordance with this Indenture, cause the Indenture Registrar to record the transfer in the Indenture Register and, upon execution by the Issuer, deliver to the transferee one or more Certificated Class P Securities in the aggregate stated amount transferred and in the Authorized Class P-1 Denomination or Class P-2 Denomination, as applicable.

(ii) Class P Security in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security to Certificated Class P Security. An interest in a Class P Security in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or a Regulation S Global Security may be transferred only to (a) another person that is not a U.S. person who takes delivery in the form of or interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security or (b) a U.S. Person who takes delivery in the form of a Certificated Class P Security and is both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) a Qualified Purchaser. If a holder of a beneficial interest in a Class P Security in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security wishes at any time to transfer its interest in such Security, in the United States or to a U.S. person, the transferee must take delivery thereof in the form of a Certificated Class P Security. Such Holder may, subject to the rules and procedures of the Depositary, transfer or cause the transfer of such interest for an equivalent interest in one or more such Certificated Class P Securities as described below. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of (A) instructions given in accordance with the Applicable Procedures from a Participant, directing the Indenture Registrar to deliver one or more such Certificated Class P Securities and designating the registered name or names, address, payment instructions, and the number and stated amount of such Certificated Class P Securities to be executed and delivered (the aggregate stated amount of such Certificated Class P Securities being equal to the aggregate stated amount of the interest in the related Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security to be transferred), in an Authorized Class P-1 Denomination or Class P-2 Denomination, as applicable and (B) a properly completed transfer certificate in the form of Exhibit B6-1 and any other documentation as may be required thereunder, then the Indenture Registrar will instruct the Depositary to reduce, or cause to be reduced, the applicable Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security by the aggregate stated amount of the beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security to be transferred and the Indenture Registrar shall record the transfer in the Indenture Register and authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Class P Securities, registered in the names specified in the certificate described in clause (B) above in the stated amount designated by the transferee (the aggregate of such stated amount being equal to the beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security to be transferred) and in the applicable Authorized Class P Denomination. Any purported transfer in violation of this provision shall be null and void ab initio.

(iii) Certificated Class P Security to Class P Security in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security. If a Holder of a Certificated Class P Security wishes at any time to transfer such Certificated Class P Security to a person that is not a U.S. person in an offshore transaction in reliance on Regulation S, such Person shall take delivery thereof in the form of an interest in the corresponding Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security. In such case such Holder may exchange or transfer, or cause the exchange or transfer of, such Certificated Class P Security for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security, provided, that such proposed transferee or the person requesting such exchange, as applicable, is not a U.S. person and such transfer is otherwise being made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of (A) such Certificated Class P Security properly endorsed for such transfer, and written instructions from such Holder directing the Indenture Registrar to cause to be credited a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security in an amount equal to the stated amount transferred of such Certificated Class P Security, (B) a written order containing information regarding the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with such increase and (C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B6-2 attached hereto, given by the Holder of such Certificated Class P Security stating that the exchange or transfer of such interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security, including that the proposed transferee or the person requesting such exchange, as the case may be, is not a U.S. person and that the proposed transfer is being made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S, then the Indenture Registrar shall cancel such Certificated Class P Security in accordance with Section 2.10 record the transfer in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a) and instruct DTC to increase the stated amount of the Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security by the aggregate stated amount of the Certificated Class P Security to be transferred, and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the Person specified in such instructions a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security equal to the amount specified in the instructions received pursuant to clause (A) above. Notwithstanding anything else in this Section 2.15(a)(iii), prior to the Exchange Date a Certificated Class P Security may only be exchanged or transferred for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Temporary Regulation S Global Security.

(iv) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no purchase or proposed transfer of Class P Securities will be permitted, and the Trustee shall not register or permit the registration of any such purchase or transfer, to a Person that has represented that it is a Plan. Section 3.3. Representations as to Collateral.

(a) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants to the Secured Parties and the Class P Securityholders, as the case may be, as to the Collateral and the Class P Collateral as follows (which representations are repeated on each day on which the Issuer acquires new Collateral and Class P Collateral):

(i) This Indenture creates a valid and continuing security interest (as defined in the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) in the Collateral and the Class P Collateral in favor of the Trustee, which security interest is prior to all other liens, charges, claims, security interests, mortgages, and other encumbrances except as otherwise contemplated herein, and is enforceable as such as against creditors of and purchasers from the Issuer.

(ii) Except for any Securities Lending Collateral and Synthetic Securities Collateral, the Issuer has good and marketable title to and is the owner of each item of Collateral and Class P Collateral free of any liens, claims, or encumbrances of any nature whatsoever except for liens (A) that are being released on the Closing Date and (B) granted pursuant to or permitted by this Indenture. The Issuer has a first priority security interest in all Securities Lending Collateral to secure all obligations of Securities Lending Counterparty under the Securities Lending Agreement and a first priority interest in all Synthetic Securities Collateral to secure all obligations of Synthetic Securities Counterparty under the Synthetic Securities Agreement.

(iii) The Issuer has not assigned, pledged, or otherwise encumbered any interest in the Collateral or the Class P Collateral (or, if any interest in such collateral has been assigned, pledged, or otherwise encumbered, it has been released before the Closing Date or is being released on the Closing Date) other than interests granted pursuant to or contemplated by this Indenture.

(iv) The Issuer has full right, and has received all consents and approvals required by the related Underlying Instruments, to grant a security interest in its rights in the Collateral and the Class P Collateral to the Trustee.

(v) Each Collateral Obligation included in the Collateral and the Class P Collateral satisfied the requirements of the definition of “Collateral Obligation” or Class P-1 U.S. Treasury Component or Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component, as the case may be, as of the date the Issuer committed to purchase the same or, in the case of obligations acquired on or prior to the Closing Date, as of the Closing Date.

(vi) All Collateral Obligations, any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange did not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation, and Eligible Investments (other than, in each case, “general intangibles” within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) have been and will have been credited to one of the Accounts. The Relevant Securities Intermediary for each Account has agreed to treat all assets credited to the Accounts as “financial assets” within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code.

(vii) The Issuer has pledged to the Trustee all of the Issuer’s interest in the Collateral and the Class P Collateral pursuant to the Granting Clauses of this Indenture and has delivered each Collateral Obligation (including any promissory note and all its other Underlying Instruments to the extent received by the Issuer) to the Trustee as contemplated by Section 3.2.

(viii) Each item of the Collateral and the Class P Collateral constitutes “general intangibles,” “certificated securities,” “instruments,” “securities entitlements,” or “uncertificated securities,” each within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code, or any other category of collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code as to which the Issuer has complied with its obligations under Section 3.3(b).

(ix) The Issuer has caused (or will have caused within 10 days following the Closing Date) the filing of appropriate financing statements in the proper filing offices in the appropriate jurisdictions under applicable law to perfect the security interest in the portion of the Collateral and the Class P Collateral pledged to the Trustee under this Indenture that may be perfected by the filing of financing statements.

(x) The Issuer has not authorized the filing of and is not aware of any financing statements against the Issuer that include a description of collateral covering the Collateral or the Class P Collateral other than any financing statement (A) relating to the security interest in the Collateral or the Class P Collateral granted to the Trustee under this Indenture, (B) that has been terminated, or (C) that names the Trustee as the secured party. On the date of this Indenture, the Issuer is not aware of any judgment or Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation or tax lien filings against the Issuer.

(xi) The Issuer has delivered to the Trustee a fully executed agreement pursuant to which the Relevant Securities Intermediary for each Account has agreed to comply with all instructions originated by the Trustee relating to the Account without further consent by the Issuer.

(xii) All original executed copies of each “instrument” (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral or Class P Collateral have been delivered to the Relevant Securities Intermediary, to the extent received by the Issuer. None of the instruments that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class P Collateral has any marks or notations indicating that they are then pledged or otherwise assigned to any person other than the Trustee.

(xiii) The Accounts are not in the name of any person other than the Trustee. The Issuer has not consented to the securities intermediary of any Account to comply with instructions of any person other than the Trustee.

(xiv) All “certificated securities” (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class P Collateral have been delivered to the Relevant Securities Intermediary, to the extent received by the Issuer, registered in the name of the Relevant Securities Intermediary or indorsed to the Relevant Securities Intermediary or in blank. The Issuer has received a written acknowledgment from the Relevant Securities Intermediary that the Relevant Securities Intermediary is holding all the certificated securities delivered to it that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class P Collateral solely on behalf and for the benefit of the Trustee.

(xv) The Issuer has caused all “uncertificated securities” (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class P Collateral to be registered in the name of the Relevant Securities Intermediary.

(xvi) Upon grant by the Issuer, the Trustee has a first priority security interest in the Collateral and the Class P Collateral, subject in the case of the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account to any lien in favor of the Synthetic Security Counterparty.

(xvii) The parties to this Indenture (i) shall not waive any of the representations in this Section 3.3, unless the Rating Condition is satisfied in connection with such waiver; (ii) shall provide each of the Rating Agencies with prompt written notice of any breach of the representations contained in this Section 3.3 upon becoming aware thereof, and shall not waive a breach of any of the representations in this Section 3.3, unless the Rating Condition is satisfied (as determined after any adjustment or withdrawal of the ratings following notice of such breach) in connection with such waiver.

(b) If the Issuer acquires Collateral or Class P Collateral that is not “general intangibles,” “certificated securities,” “instruments,” “securities entitlements,” or “uncertificated securities,” each within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code, or another category of collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code as to which the Issuer has complied with its obligations under this Section 3.3(b), then on or before the date on which the Issuer acquires the Collateral or the Class P Collateral, as the case may be, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer) shall notify S&P and the Trustee (with respect to the Collateral, for the benefit of the Secured Parties) of its acquisition or intended acquisition of the Collateral or the Class P Collateral, as the case may be, and the Issuer shall represent to S&P and to the Trustee (with respect to such collateral, for the benefit of the Secured Parties and the Class P Securityholders, as the case may be) as to the category of such collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code and shall make any further representations as to the perfection and priority of the security interest in such collateral Granted under this Indenture acceptable to S&P.

Section 5.2. Acceleration of Maturity; Rescission and Annulment.

(a) If an Event of Default is continuing (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(e), (g), (h) or (i)), the Trustee may, with the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class, and upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, declare the principal of all the Notes to be immediately payable by notice to the Applicable Issuers, and upon that declaration the unpaid principal of all the Notes, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), and other amounts payable under this Indenture, shall become immediately payable. The Reinvestment Period shall terminate upon a declaration of acceleration (subject to re-commencement pursuant to Section 5.2(b)(x)). If an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(e), (g), (h) or (i) occurs, all unpaid principal, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), of all the Notes, and other amounts payable under this Indenture, shall automatically become payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Noteholder and the Reinvestment Period shall terminate automatically (subject to re-commencement pursuant to Section 5.2(b)).

(b) At any time after the declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Class E Certificates Paying Agent may rescind the declaration and its consequences if:

(i) The Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay;

No such rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right consequent thereon. The Issuer shall not terminate any Hedge Agreement at any time after a declaration of acceleration of Maturity of the Notes has been made, unless such declaration and its consequences may no longer be rescinded and annulled in accordance with this Section 5.2(b) and liquidation of the Collateral has begun.

If a declaration of acceleration is rescinded as described above:

(x) the Reinvestment Period, if terminated by the declaration, shall re-commence on the date of the rescission (unless the Reinvestment Period would have otherwise terminated before that date pursuant to clauses (i), (ii), or (iii) of its definition); and

If the preservation of the Collateral is rescinded pursuant to Section 5.5, the Notes may again be accelerated pursuant to Section 5.2(a), notwithstanding any previous rescission of a declaration of acceleration pursuant to this Section 5.2(b)).

No rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right resulting from the Default.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.2 to the contrary, the Notes will not be subject to acceleration by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class, or any other Holders solely as a result of the failure to pay any amount due on Notes that are not of the Controlling Class.

Section 5.3. Collection of Indebtedness and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee.

The Applicable Issuers covenant that if a default occurs in the payment of any principal of or interest when payable on any Note, upon demand of the Trustee or the Holder of any affected Note, the Applicable Issuers shall pay to the Trustee, for the benefit of such Holder of the Note, the whole amount then payable on the Note for principal and interest with interest on the overdue principal and, to the extent that payments of the interest shall be legally enforceable, on overdue installments of interest and all other amounts owing to the Holders of such Notes under this Indenture, at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable, and, in addition, an amount sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection, including the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements, and advances of the Trustee and the Holders and their agents and counsel.

If the Issuer or the Co-Issuer fails to pay those amounts immediately on demand, the Trustee, in its own name and as Trustee of an express trust, may, and shall at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, institute a Proceeding for the collection of the sums due, may prosecute the Proceeding to judgment or final decree, and may enforce the same against the Applicable Issuers or any other obligor on the Notes and collect the monies determined to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the Collateral.

If an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee may, and shall upon written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Holders of the Notes by any appropriate Proceedings as is deemed most effective (if no direction is received by the Trustee) or as the Trustee may be directed by a Majority of the Controlling Class, to protect and enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes, whether for the specific enforcement of any agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted in this Indenture, or to enforce any other proper remedy or legal or equitable right vested in the Trustee by this Indenture or by law. The reasonable compensation, costs, expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or paid by the Trustee and its agents and counsel, in connection with such Proceeding, including, without limitation, the exercise of any remedies pursuant to Section 5.4, shall be reimbursed to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7.

If any Proceedings are pending relating to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any other obligor on the Notes under the Bankruptcy Law or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, or other similar law, or if a receiver, assignee, or trustee in bankruptcy or reorganization, liquidator, sequestrator, or similar official has been appointed for or taken possession of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or their respective property or any other obligor on the Notes or its property, or if any other comparable Proceedings are pending relating to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes, or the creditors or property of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes or the Trustee, regardless of whether the principal of any Notes is then payable by declaration or otherwise and regardless of whether the Trustee has made any demand pursuant to this Section 5.3, may, by intervention in the Proceedings or otherwise:

(a) file and prove claims for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes, and file any other papers or documents appropriate and take any other appropriate action (including sitting on a committee of creditors) to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for reasonable compensation to the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys, and counsel, and for reimbursement of all expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, except as a result of negligence or bad faith) and of the Holders of the Notes allowed in any Proceedings relating to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes or to the creditors or property of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes;

(b) unless prohibited by applicable law, vote on behalf of the Holders of the Notes in any election of a trustee or a standby trustee in arrangement, reorganization, liquidation, or other bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings or person performing similar functions in comparable Proceedings; and

(c) collect and receive any monies or other property payable to or deliverable on any such claims, and distribute all amounts received with respect to the claims of the Holders of the Notes and of the Trustee on their behalf; and any trustee, receiver or liquidator, custodian, or other similar official is authorized by each of the Holders of the Notes to make payments to the Trustee, and, if the Trustee consents to making payments directly to the Holders of the Notes, to pay to the Trustee amounts sufficient to cover reasonable compensation to the Trustee, each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys, and counsel, and all other reasonable expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee except as a result of negligence or bad faith.

Nothing in this Indenture shall authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or vote for or accept or adopt on behalf of the Holder of any Note, any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, or composition affecting the Notes or any Holder of Notes, or to authorize the Trustee to vote on the claim of the Holder of any Note in any Proceeding except, as aforesaid, to vote for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy or similar person.

Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.3 to the contrary, the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Collateral or institute Proceedings in furtherance of the sale or liquidation of the Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.3 except according to Section 5.5(a).

Section 5.4. Remedies.

(a) If an Event of Default is continuing, and the Notes have been declared payable and the declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded, or at any time after the Stated Maturity, the Co-Issuers agree that the Trustee may, and shall, upon written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, to the extent permitted by applicable law, exercise one or more of the following rights:

(i) institute Proceedings for the collection of all amounts then payable on the Notes or otherwise payable under this Indenture, whether by declaration or otherwise, enforce any judgment obtained, and collect from the Collateral any monies adjudged due;

(ii) sell or liquidate all or a portion of the Collateral or interests in it, at one or more public or private sales called and conducted in any manner permitted by law and in accordance with Section 5.17;

(c) Upon any sale, whether made under the power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, any Holders or the Portfolio Manager (subject to the Management Agreement) may bid for and purchase any part of the Collateral and, upon compliance with the terms of sale, may hold, retain, possess, or dispose of the Collateral in its or their own absolute right without accountability.

Upon any sale, whether made under the power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, the receipt of the Trustee, or of the Officer making a sale under judicial Proceedings, shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchasers at any sale for their purchase money, and the purchasers shall not be obliged to see to its application.

Any sale, whether under any power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, shall bind the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, and the Holders of the Notes, shall operate to divest all interest whatsoever, either at law or in equity, of each of them in the property sold, and shall be a perpetual bar, both at law and in equity, against each of them and their successors and assigns, and against all persons claiming through or under them.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, none of the Secured Parties may, before the date that is one year and one day (or if longer, any applicable preference period plus one day) after the payment in full of all Notes and the reduction of the Commitment to zero in the case of the Class A-1A Notes, institute against, or join any other person in instituting against, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, or liquidation Proceedings, or other Proceedings under the Bankruptcy Law or any similar laws in any jurisdiction. Nothing in this Section 5.4 shall preclude the Trustee or any Secured Party (i) from taking any action before the expiration of that period in (A) any case or Proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or (B) any involuntary insolvency Proceeding filed or commenced by a person other than a Secured Party, or (ii) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of its properties any legal action that is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, or liquidation Proceeding.

Section 5.5. Optional Preservation of Collateral.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, if an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall retain the Collateral intact, collect, and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Collateral and the Notes, and any Hedge Agreements (other than amounts received under a Hedge Agreement that are used in putting a Replacement Hedge in place), in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Article 10 and Article 12 unless:

(i) the Trustee determines that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to any Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by any Hedge Counterparty and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) of Section 11.1(a)(i) and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination; or

(ii) in the case of an Event of Default other than pursuant Section 5.1 (d), the Holders of a Majority of each of the Class A-1 Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class A-4 Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral; or

(iii) in the event of an Event of Default pursuant to Section 5.1(d), a Majority of the Holders of the Class A Notes (voting together as a single Class) direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral.

The Trustee shall give written notice of the retention of the Collateral to the Issuer with a copy to the Co-Issuer and the Portfolio Manager. So long as the Event of Default is continuing, any retention pursuant to this Section 5.5(a) may be rescinded at any time when the conditions specified in clause (i) or (ii) exist.

(b) Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) shall be construed to require the Trustee to sell the Collateral if the conditions in clause (i) or (ii) of Section 5.5(a) are not satisfied. Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) shall be construed to require the Trustee to preserve the Collateral if prohibited by applicable law.

(c) In determining whether the condition specified in Section 5.5(a)(i) exists, the Trustee shall obtain bid prices with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one market maker, that market maker and if there is no market maker, from a pricing service), at the time making a market in those securities, and shall compute the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security. In addition, for the purposes of determining issues relating to the valuation of the Collateral, the satisfaction of the conditions specified in this Indenture, the execution of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral, and the execution of a sale or other liquidation of the Collateral in connection with a determination whether the condition specified in Section 5.5(a)(i) exists, the Trustee may retain, at the Issuer's expense, and rely on an opinion of an Independent investment banking firm of national reputation, which may be the Placement Agent.

The Trustee shall deliver to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates), the Holders of the Notes, the Co-Issuers, the Initial Purchaser, the Portfolio Manager and the Hedge Counterparties a report stating the results of any determination required pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i). The Trustee shall make the determinations required by Section 5.5(a)(i) after an Event of Default at the request of a Majority of the Controlling Class at any time during which the Trustee retains the Collateral pursuant to Section 5.5(a). The Trustee shall obtain (at the Issuer's expense) a letter of a firm of Independent certified public accountants confirming the accuracy of each calculation made by the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) and certifying their conformity to the requirements of this Indenture.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, the Trustee may not, and the Holders of the Notes representing the requisite percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes specified in Section 5.4 or 5.5, may not instruct the Trustee to sell or liquidate or (except in connection with the concurrent execution of a Replacement Hedge) terminate any Hedge Agreement during the continuance of an Event of Default until all Collateral other than the Hedge Agreements has been sold or liquidated and its proceeds applied in accordance with this Indenture.

(e) Collateral may not be sold or liquidated pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) after the last date on which the sale or liquidation is permitted under Section 5.5(a)(i) with respect to a determination made pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) (the last permitted date being determined by the Trustee under Section 5.5(a)(i)), unless a new determination is made in accordance with Section 5.5(a)(i) and the Collateral is sold or liquidated before the last sale date permitted in accordance with the new determination.

Section 5.6. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes.

All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or under any of the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Notes or their production in any trial or other Proceeding relating to them, and any Proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be applied as provided in Section 5.7.

In any Proceedings brought by the Trustee (and any Proceedings involving the interpretation of any provision of this Indenture to which the Trustee shall be a party) the Trustee shall be held to represent all the Holders of the Notes.

Section 5.7. Application of Money Collected.

Any money collected by the Trustee with respect to the Notes pursuant to this Article 5 and any money that may then be held or subsequently received by the Trustee with respect to the Notes under this Indenture shall be applied, subject to Section 13.1 and in accordance with Section 11.1, at the dates fixed by the Trustee.

Section 5.8. Limitation on Suits.

No Holder of any Note shall have any right to institute any Proceedings, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy under this Indenture, unless:

- (a) the Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of an Event of Default;
- (b) the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings with respect to the Event of Default in its own name as Trustee under this Indenture and the Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with the request;
- (c) the Trustee for 30 days after its receipt of the notice, request, and offer of indemnity has failed to institute a Proceeding; and
- (d) no direction inconsistent with the written request has been given to the Trustee during the 30 day period by a Majority of the Controlling Class.

No one or more Holders of Notes have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect the rights of any other Holders of Notes of the same Class or to obtain or to seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders of the Notes of the same Class or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner provided in this Indenture and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Notes of the same Class subject to and in accordance with Section 13.1 and the Priority of Payments.

If the Trustee receives conflicting or inconsistent requests and indemnity from two or more groups of Holders of the Controlling Class, each representing less than a Majority of the Controlling Class, the Trustee shall take the action requested by the Holders of the largest percentage in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture.

Section 5.9. Unconditional Rights of Holders of Notes.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture other than this Section 5.9 and Sections 2.8(i), 5.4(d), and 13.1, the Holder of any Note shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of the principal of and interest on such Note as it comes due in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Section 13.1, and, subject to Section 5.8, to institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment, and that right shall not be impaired without the consent of the Holder. Holders of Notes ranking junior to Notes still Outstanding may not institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until no Note ranking senior to their Note remains Outstanding, subject to Section 5.8, and shall not be impaired without the consent of any such Holder. For so long as any Notes are Outstanding, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent shall not be entitled to any payment of any amount for payments to the Holders of the Class E Certificates pursuant to the Class E Certificate Documents, to the extent legally permitted, on a claim against the Issuer unless there are sufficient funds to pay such amounts to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Section 5.10. Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If the Trustee or the Holder of any Note has instituted any Proceeding to enforce any right under this Indenture and the Proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to the Holder, then, subject to any determination in the Proceeding, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Holder shall be restored to their former positions under this Indenture, and thereafter all rights of the Trustee and the Holder shall continue as though no Proceeding had been instituted.

Section 5.11. Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

No right in this Indenture conferred on or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders of Notes is intended to be exclusive of any other right, and every right shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right given under this Indenture or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right under this Indenture, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right.

Section 5.12. Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

No delay or omission of the Trustee or the Holder of any Note to exercise any right accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair the right or be a waiver of the Event of Default or an acquiescence in it or of a subsequent Event of Default. Every right given by this Article 5 or by law to the Trustee or to the Holders of Notes may be exercised from time to time, and as often as deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the applicable Holders.

Section 5.13. Control by Majority of the Controlling Class.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, during the continuance of an Event of Default, a Majority of the Controlling Class, with respect to the Notes, may institute and direct the time, method, and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any right of the Trustee with respect to the Notes, if:

(i) the direction does not conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of this Indenture; and

(ii) the Trustee has been indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction (and the Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability unless it has received an indemnity against the liability).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, only a Majority of the Controlling Class may direct proceedings with respect to remedies specified in Section 5.4(a) or otherwise with respect to the Collateral.

(b) The Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with a direction under Section 5.13(a). Subject to Section 6.1, the Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability (unless the Trustee has received an indemnity against the liabilities reasonably satisfactory to it) and during the continuance of an Event of Default that has not been cured, or waived, the Trustee shall, before receiving directions from a Majority of the Controlling Class exercise the rights expressly vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise with respect to the Event of Default as is required by Section 6.1(b).

(c) Any direction to the Trustee to undertake a Sale of the Collateral shall be in accordance with Section 5.4 or 5.5.

Section 5.14. Waiver of Past Defaults.

Before a judgment or decree for payment of any money due has been obtained by the Trustee, as provided in this Article 5, a Majority of the Controlling Class may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes waive any past Default and its consequences, except a Default:

(a) in the payment of the principal or Redemption Price of any Note or in the payment of interest (including Defaulted Interest, Deferred Interest, and any interest on Defaulted Interest or Deferred Interest) on the Notes;

(b) with respect to a provision of this Indenture that under Section 8.2 cannot be modified or amended without the waiver or consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected by the modification or amendment;

(c) in the payment of amounts due to the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee or the Hedge Counterparty, which may only be waived with the consent of the affected party; or

(d) arising as a result of an Event of Default described in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h).

Upon any such waiver, the Default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising from it shall be cured, for every purpose of this Indenture, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereto. The Trustee shall promptly give written notice of any such waiver to the Portfolio Manager, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) and each Holder of Notes.

Section 5.15. Undertaking for Costs.

All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by its acceptance of its Note agrees, that in any suit for the enforcement of any right under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee or the Portfolio Manager for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee or for any action taken or omitted by the Portfolio Manager, as applicable, any court may in its discretion require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and that the court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 5.15 shall not apply to any suit instituted by the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, to any suit instituted by any Holder, or group of Holders, of Notes holding in the aggregate more than 10% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, or to any suit instituted by any Holder of Notes for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of or interest or distributions on, as the case may be any Note or any other amount payable under this Indenture after the applicable Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, after the applicable Redemption Date).

Section 5.16. Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws.

To the extent that they may lawfully do so, the Co-Issuers covenant that they will not at any time insist on, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law or any valuation, appraisal, redemption, or marshalling law or rights, in each case wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, that may affect the covenants, the performance of, or any remedies under this Indenture. To the extent that they may lawfully do so, the Co-Issuers expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such law or rights, and covenant that they shall not delay or impede the execution of any power in this Indenture granted to the Trustee or the Holders of the Notes but will permit the execution of every power as though the law had not been enacted or rights created.

Section 5.17. Sale of Collateral.

(a) The power to effect any sale (a “Sale”) of any portion of the Collateral pursuant to Sections 5.4 and 5.5 shall not be exhausted by any one or more Sales as to any portion of the Collateral remaining unsold, but shall continue unimpaired until the entire Collateral is sold or all amounts secured by the Collateral have been paid. The Trustee may upon notice to the Holders of the Notes and the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates), and shall, at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class from time to time postpone any Sale by public announcement made at the time and place of the Sale. The Trustee waives its rights to any amount fixed by law as compensation for any Sale. The Trustee may deduct the reasonable expenses incurred by it in connection with a Sale from its proceeds notwithstanding Section 6.7.

(b) The Trustee may bid for and acquire any portion of the Collateral in connection with a public Sale of the Collateral, and may pay all or part of the purchase price by crediting against amounts owing on the Notes or other amounts secured by the Collateral all or part of the net proceeds of the Sale after deducting the reasonable expenses incurred by the Trustee in connection with the Sale notwithstanding Section 6.7. The Notes need not be produced to complete any Sale, or for the net proceeds of the Sale to be credited against amounts owing on the Notes (in the case of the Collateral). The Trustee may hold, lease, operate, manage, or otherwise deal with any property so acquired in any manner permitted by law in accordance with this Indenture.

(c) If any portion of the Collateral consists of securities issued without registration under the Securities Act (“Unregistered Securities”), the Trustee may seek an Opinion of Counsel, or, if no Opinion of Counsel can be obtained, seek a no action position from the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other relevant federal or state regulatory authorities, regarding the legality of a public or private Sale of the Unregistered Securities.

(d) The Trustee shall execute and deliver an appropriate instrument of transfer transferring its interest in any portion of the Collateral in connection with its Sale. In addition, the Trustee is irrevocably appointed the agent and attorney-in-fact of the Issuer to transfer its interest in any portion of the Collateral in connection with its Sale, and to take all action necessary to effect the Sale. No purchaser or transferee at a Sale shall be bound to ascertain the Trustee’s authority, to inquire into the satisfaction of any conditions precedent, or see to the application of any monies.

Section 5.18. Action on the Notes.

The Trustee’s right to seek and recover judgment on the Notes or under this Indenture shall not be affected by the seeking or obtaining of or application for any other relief under or with respect to this Indenture. Neither the lien of this Indenture nor any rights or remedies of the Trustee or the Holders of the Notes shall be impaired by the recovery of any judgment by the Trustee against the Issuer or by the levy of any execution under the judgment on any portion of the Collateral or on any of the assets of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer.

(e) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to this Section 6.1 and Section 6.3.

(b) The Trustee's fees shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed divided by 360.

(c) The Trustee shall receive amounts pursuant to this Section 6.7 as provided in Sections 11.1(a)(i) and (ii) but only to the extent that funds are available for their payment. Subject to Section 6.9, the Trustee shall continue to serve as Trustee under this Indenture notwithstanding the fact that the Trustee has not received amounts due to it under this Indenture. No direction by the Holders of the Indenture Securities shall affect the right of the Trustee to collect amounts owed to it under this Indenture. If on any date when a fee is payable to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture insufficient funds are available for its payment any portion of a fee not so paid shall be deferred and payable on the next date on which a fee is payable and sufficient funds are available for it.

(d) The Trustee agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer for the non-payment to the Trustee of any amounts provided by this Section 6.7 until at least one year and one day, or if longer the applicable preference period then in effect plus one day, after the payment in full of all Notes issued under this Indenture (and the reduction of the Commitment in respect of the Class A-1A Notes to zero) and the payment to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent of all amounts payable with respect to the Class E Certificates in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Nothing in this Section 6.7(d) shall prohibit or otherwise prevent the Trustee from filing proofs of claim in any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceeding.

Section 6.8. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility.

There shall at all times be a Trustee under this Indenture that is an Independent entity organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any state of the United States, authorized under those laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least U.S.$200,000,000, subject to supervision or examination by federal or state banking authority, having a rating of at least “Baa1” (and not on credit watch with negative implications) by Moody’s and at least “BBB+” by S&P, and having an office within the United States. If the Trustee publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of its supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section 6.8, the combined capital and surplus of the Trustee shall be its combined capital and surplus in its most recent published report of condition. If at any time the Trustee ceases to be eligible in accordance with this Section 6.8, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.9.

Section 6.9. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article 6 shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.10. The indemnification in favor of the Trustee shall survive any resignation or removal of the Trustee.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving not less than 30 days written notice to the Co-Issuers, the Portfolio Manager, the Holders of the Notes, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) and each Rating Agency. Upon receiving the notice of resignation, the Co-Issuers shall at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class promptly appoint a successor trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.8, by written instrument, in duplicate, executed by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer and an Authorized Officer of the Co-Issuer, one copy of which shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and one copy to the successor Trustee, together with a copy to each Holder of Notes, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) and the Portfolio Manager. If no successor Trustee has been appointed and an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee has not been delivered to the Trustee within 60 days after the giving of the notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee or any Holder of a Note, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.8.

(c) The Trustee may be removed (i) at any time (including, for the avoidance of doubt, when an Event of Default is continuing) by a Majority of the Controlling Class, or (ii) by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, delivered to the Trustee and to the Co-Issuers.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee ceases to be eligible under Section 6.8 and fails to resign after written request by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class; or

(ii) the Trustee becomes incapable of acting or is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver or liquidator of the Trustee or of its property appointed or any public officer takes charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation, or liquidation, then, in any such case (subject to Section 6.9(a)), (A) the Co-Issuers, by Issuer Order, may, and at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, remove the Trustee, or (B) subject to Section 5.15, or any Holder may, on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee is removed or becomes incapable of acting, or if a vacancy occurs in the office of the Trustee for any reason (other than resignation), the Co-Issuers, by Issuer Order or at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If the Co-Issuers fail to appoint a successor Trustee within 60 days after the removal or incapability or the occurrence of the vacancy, a successor Trustee may be appointed by a Majority of the Controlling Class by written instrument delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee. The successor Trustee so appointed shall, upon its acceptance of its appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede any successor Trustee proposed by the Co-Issuers. If no successor Trustee has been so appointed by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class and accepted appointment pursuant to Section 6.10, subject to Section 5.15, then the Trustee to be replaced, or any Holder, may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Co-Issuers shall give prompt notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee by mailing written notice of the event by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the Portfolio Manager, to each Rating Agency, to the Holders of Notes as their names and addresses appear in the Indenture Register and to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates). Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office. If the Co-Issuers fail to mail the notice within ten days after acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee, the successor Trustee shall cause the notice to be given at the expense of the Co-Issuers.

Section 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

Every successor Trustee appointed under this Indenture shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the Co-Issuers and the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting its appointment. Upon delivery of the required instruments, the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and the successor Trustee, without any further act, shall become vested with all the rights and obligations of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Co-Issuers or a Majority of any Class of Notes or the successor Trustee, the retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of any amounts then due to it, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to the successor Trustee all the rights and obligations of the retiring Trustee, and shall duly assign, transfer, and deliver to the successor Trustee all property and money held by the retiring Trustee under this Indenture. Upon request of any successor Trustee, the Co-Issuers shall execute any instruments to more fully and certainly vest in and confirm to the successor Trustee all the rights and obligations of the Trustee under this Indenture.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of its acceptance the successor is qualified and eligible under Section 6.8 and either (a) each Rating Agency has been notified and the successor has long-term debt rated within the four highest rating categories by each Rating Agency, or (b) if not rated within the four highest categories by each Rating Agency, the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto.

Section 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation, or Succession to Business of Trustee.

Any entity into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion, or consolidation to which the Trustee is a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under this Indenture (and of the Bank under all of its other capacities under this Indenture, including as Custodian, Issuer Accounts Securities Intermediary, Class P-1 Accounts Securities Intermediary, Class P-2 Accounts Securities Intermediary, Indenture Registrar, and Paying Agent) without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. If any of the Notes have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion, or consolidation to the authenticating Trustee may adopt the authentication and deliver the Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if the successor Trustee had itself authenticated the Notes.

Section 6.12. Co-Trustees.

At any time, to meet the legal requirements of any jurisdiction in which any part of the Collateral may at the time be located, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may appoint a co-trustee (subject to the approval of the Rating Agencies) to act jointly with the Trustee, with respect to all or any part of the Collateral, with the power to file proofs of claim and take any other actions pursuant to Section 5.6 in this Indenture and to make claims and enforce rights of action on behalf of the Holders of the Notes and the, as the Holders themselves have the right to do, subject to the other provisions of this Section 6.12.

The Co-Issuers shall join with the Trustee in the execution, delivery, and performance of all instruments and agreements necessary or proper to appoint a co-trustee. If the Co-Issuers do not join in the appointment within 15 days after they receive a request to do so, the Trustee may make the appointment.

Any instruments to more fully confirm a co-trustee's appointment shall, on request, be executed, acknowledged, and delivered by the Co-Issuers. The Co-Issuers agree to pay (but only from and to the extent of the Collateral), to the extent funds are available therefor under Section 11.1(a)(i)(1), any reasonable fees and expenses in connection with the appointment.

Every co-trustee shall, to the extent permitted by law, but to that extent only, be appointed subject to the following terms:

(a) the Notes shall be authenticated and delivered and all rights and obligations under this Indenture in respect of the custody of securities, cash, and other personal property held by, or required to be deposited or pledged with, the Trustee under this Indenture, shall be exercised solely by the Trustee;

(b) the rights and obligations conferred or imposed on the Trustee in respect of any property covered by the appointment of a co-trustee shall be conferred or imposed on and exercised or performed by the Trustee or by the Trustee and the co-trustee jointly as provided in the instrument appointing the co-trustee;

(c) the Trustee at any time, by an instrument in writing executed by it, with the concurrence of the Co-Issuers evidenced by an Issuer Order, may accept the resignation of or remove any co-trustee appointed under this Section 6.12, and if an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall have the power to accept the resignation of, or remove, any co-trustee without the concurrence of the Co-

Issuers. A successor to any co-trustee so resigned or removed may be appointed in the manner provided in this Section 6.12;

(d) no co-trustee under this Indenture shall be personally liable because of any act or omission of the Trustee under this Indenture;

(e) the Trustee shall not be liable because of any act or omission of a co-trustee; and

(f) any Act of Holders of Notes delivered to the Trustee shall be deemed to have been delivered to each co-trustee.

Section 6.13. Certain Duties of Trustee Related to Delayed Payment of Proceeds.

If in any month the Trustee has not received a payment with respect to any Pledged Obligation on its Due Date:

(a) the Trustee shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager in writing, and

(b) unless the payment is received by the Trustee within three Business Days (or the end of the applicable grace period for the payment, if longer) after the notice, or unless the Issuer, in its absolute discretion (but only to the extent permitted by Section 10.2(a)), makes provision for the payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with Section 10.2(a), the Trustee shall request the issuer of the Pledged Obligation, the trustee under the related Underlying Instrument, or paying agent designated by either of them to make the payment as soon as practicable after the request but in no event later than three Business Days after the date of the request. If the payment is not made within that time period, the Trustee, subject to clause (iv) of Section 6.1(c), shall take the action directed by the Portfolio Manager in writing. Any such action shall be without prejudice to any right to claim a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture. If the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager requests a release of a Pledged Obligation or delivers a Collateral Obligation in connection with any such action under the Management Agreement, the release or substitution shall be subject to Section 10.7 and Article 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Trustee shall deliver to the Issuer or its designee any payment with respect to any Pledged Obligation or any Collateral Obligation received after its Due Date to the extent the Issuer previously made provisions for the payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with this Section 6.13 and the payment shall not be part of the Collateral.

Section 6.14. Authenticating Agents.

Upon the request of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee shall, and if the Trustee so chooses the Trustee may, appoint one or more Authenticating Agents with power to act on its behalf and subject to its direction in the authentication of Indenture Securities in connection with issuance, transfers, and exchanges under Sections 2.4, 2.5, 2.6, 2.7 and 8.5, as fully to all intents and purposes as though each Authenticating Agent had been expressly authorized by those Sections to authenticate the Notes. For all purposes of this Indenture, the authentication of Indenture Securities by an Authenticating Agent pursuant to this Section 6.14 shall be the authentication of Indenture Securities “by the Trustee.”

Any Authenticating Agent may at any time resign by giving written notice of resignation to the Trustee and the Issuer. The Trustee may at any time terminate the agency of any Authenticating Agent by giving written notice of termination to the Authenticating Agent and the Co-Issuers.

The Co-Issuers agree to pay to each Authenticating Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for its services, and reimbursement for its reasonable expenses relating to its services as an Administrative Expense; provided, however, that if the Trustee elects to appoint an Authenticating Agent without the approval or request of the Co-Issuers, then the Trustee shall pay such compensation and reimbursement. Sections 2.9, 6.4, and 6.5 shall be applicable to any Authenticating Agent.

Section 6.15. Fiduciary for Holders of Notes Only; Agent for Secured Parties.

With respect to the security interest created under this Indenture, the Delivery of any Pledged Obligation to the Trustee is to the Trustee as fiduciary for the Holders of Notes and agent for the other Secured Parties. With respect to the security interest created under this Indenture, the Delivery of any Class P-1 Collateral to the Trustee is to the Trustee as fiduciary for the Holders of Class P-1 Securities. With respect to the security interest created under this Indenture, the Delivery of any Class P-2 Collateral to the Trustee is to the Trustee as fiduciary for the Holders of Class P-2 Securities.

Section 6.16. Representations and Warranties of the Bank.

The Bank represents and warrants as follows for the benefit of the Noteholders:

(a) Organization. The Bank has been duly organized and is validly existing as a national banking association and has the power to conduct its business and affairs as a trustee.

(b) Authorization; Binding Obligations. The Bank has the corporate power and authority to perform the duties and obligations of trustee under this Indenture. The Bank has taken all necessary corporate action to authorize the execution, delivery, and performance of this Indenture, and all of the documents required to be executed by the Bank pursuant to this Indenture. Upon execution and delivery by the Bank, this Indenture will be the valid and legally binding obligation of the Bank enforceable in accordance with its terms.

(c) Eligibility. The Bank is eligible under Section 6.8 to serve as Trustee under this Indenture.

Section 6.17. Additional Reporting Requirements.

If the Initial Purchaser elects to enter into a posting dealer agreement pursuant to Section 7.19, upon the effectiveness of the posting dealer agreement, the Issuer shall provide to The Bond Market Association certain documents for posting in the Repository as mutually agreed between the Portfolio Manager and the Initial Purchaser.

If the Initial Purchaser has entered into a posting dealer agreement, as promptly as possible following the execution of any supplemental indenture under Article 8, the Trustee, on behalf of and at the expense of the Issuer, shall deliver a copy of such supplemental indenture to the Repository in the manner described in Section 14.3(a)(viii).

ARTICLE 7

COVENANTS

Section 7.1. Payment of Principal and Interest.

The Applicable Issuers shall pay the principal of and interest on the Notes in accordance with the Notes and this Indenture. The Issuer shall, subject to the Priority of Payments, reimburse the Co-Issuer for any amounts paid by the Co-Issuer pursuant to the Notes or this Indenture. The Co-Issuer shall not reimburse the Issuer for any amounts paid by the Issuer pursuant to the Notes or this Indenture.

Amounts properly withheld under the Code or other applicable law by any person from a payment to any Holder shall be considered as having been paid by the Applicable Issuers to the Holder for all purposes of this Indenture.

All payments under the Class A-1A Notes and the Class A-1B Notes to any Holder thereof will be made by the Issuer without any deduction or withholding for or on account of any Tax unless such deduction or withholding is required by any applicable law, as modified by the practice of any relevant governmental revenue authority, then in effect. If the Issuer is so required to deduct or withhold, then the Issuer (or its agent) will: (i) notify each affected Holder of such requirement no later than ten days prior to the date of the payment from which amounts are required to be withheld (provided that, despite the failure of the Issuer to give such notice, amounts withheld pursuant to applicable laws shall be considered as having been paid by the Co-Issuers as provided above); (ii) pay to the relevant authorities the full amount required to be deducted or withheld promptly upon the earlier of determining that such deduction or withholding is required or receiving notice that such amount has been assessed against the affected Holder; and (iii) promptly forward to the affected Holder documentation reasonably acceptable to the affected Holder evidencing such payment to such authorities.

Section 7.2. Maintenance of Office or Agency.

The Co-Issuers appoint the Trustee as a Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and interest on the Notes. The Co-Issuers appoint JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, 600 Travis Street, 50th Floor, Houston, Texas 77002, telecopy no. (713) 216-2101, Attention: Worldwide Securities Services—Liberty CLO, Ltd., as the Co-Issuers' agent where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Notes or this Indenture may be served and where Notes may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

The Co-Issuers may at any time and from time to time vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent and/or appoint any additional agents, including, without limitation, as may be required under the rules of the Irish Stock Exchange or the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange.

So long as any Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of such exchange so require, the Co-Issuers shall maintain in Ireland a Paying Agent and an office or agency where notices and demands to or upon the Co-Issuers in respect of such Notes and this Indenture may be served.

The Co-Issuers hereby appoint, for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, NCB Stockbrokers (the "Irish Paying and Listing Agent") as Paying Agent and Listing Agent in Ireland with respect to the Notes listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, for the payment of principal and interest on such Notes and as the Co-Issuers' agent where notices and demands to or upon the Co-Issuers in respect of such Notes or this Indenture may be served. In the event that the Irish Paying and Listing Agent is replaced at any time during such period, notice of the appointment of any replacement will be published in the Daily Official List of the Irish Stock Exchange as promptly as practicable after such appointment.

The Co-Issuers shall maintain in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, an office or agency where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Notes and this Indenture may be served and an office or agency outside of the United States where Notes may be presented and surrendered for payment.

No paying agent shall be appointed in a jurisdiction that subjects payments on the Notes to withholding tax.

If at any time the Co-Issuers fail to maintain any required office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, or outside the United States, or fail to furnish the Trustee with their addresses, notices and demands may be served on the Co-Issuers.

Section 7.3. Money for Note Payments to be Held in Trust.

All payments of amounts payable with respect to any Notes that are to be made from amounts withdrawn from the Payment Account shall be made on behalf of the Applicable Issuers by the Trustee or a Paying Agent with respect to payments on the Notes.

When the Applicable Issuers have a Paying Agent that is not also the Indenture Registrar, they shall furnish no later than the fifth calendar day after each Record Date a list in the form the Paying Agent reasonably requests, of the names and addresses of the Holders and of the certificate numbers of individual Notes held by each Holder.

Whenever the Applicable Issuers have a Paying Agent other than the Trustee, they shall, on or before the Business Day before each Payment Date or Redemption Date direct the Trustee to deposit on the Payment Date with the Paying Agent an aggregate sum sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due (to the extent funds are then available for that purpose in the Payment Account), that sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled to it and (unless the Paying Agent is the Trustee) the Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee of its action or failure so to act. Any monies deposited with a Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) in excess of an amount sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due on the Notes with respect to which the deposit was made shall be paid over by the Paying Agent to the Trustee for application in accordance with Article 10.

Additional or successor Paying Agents shall be appointed by Issuer Order with written notice of the appointment to the Trustee. So long as Notes of any Class are rated by a Rating Agency any Paying Agent must either have a long-term debt rating of “Aa3” (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or higher by Moody’s and “AA-” or higher by S&P or a short-term debt rating of “P-1” (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) by Moody’s and “A-1+” by S&P or the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency must be satisfied with respect to its appointment. If a successor Paying Agent ceases to have a long-term debt rating of “Aa3” (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or higher by Moody’s and “AA-” or higher by S&P or a short-term debt rating of “P-1” (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) by Moody’s and a short-term debt rating of “A-1+” by S&P, the Co-Issuers shall promptly remove the Paying Agent and appoint a successor Paying Agent. The Co-Issuers shall not appoint any Paying Agent that is not, at the time of the appointment, a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision and examination by federal or state or national banking authorities. The Co-Issuers shall cause each Paying Agent other than the Trustee to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which the Paying Agent agrees with the Trustee, subject to this Section 7.3, that the Paying Agent will:

- (i) allocate all sums received for payment to the Holders of Notes for which it acts as Paying Agent on each Payment Date and any Redemption Date among the Holders in the proportion specified in the applicable report to the extent permitted by applicable law;
- (ii) hold all sums held by it for the payment of amounts due with respect to the Notes in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled to them until they are paid or otherwise disposed of as provided in this Indenture;
- (iii) immediately resign as a Paying Agent and forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums held by it in trust for the payment of the Notes if at any time it ceases to meet the standards required to be met by a Paying Agent at the time of its appointment;
- (iv) immediately give the Trustee notice of any default by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer (or any other obligor on the Notes) in the making of any payment required to be made; and
- (v) during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held in trust by the Paying Agent.

To obtain the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture or for any other purpose, the Co-Issuers may at any time pay, or by Issuer Order direct any Paying Agent to pay, to the Trustee all sums held in trust by the Co-Issuers or the Paying Agent, and, upon the payment by any Paying Agent to the Trustee, the Paying Agent shall be released from all further liability with respect to the money paid.

Any money deposited with a Paying Agent and not previously returned that remains unclaimed for 20 Business Days shall be returned to the Trustee. Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent in trust for the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after the principal or interest has become payable shall be paid to the Applicable Issuers. The Holder of the Note shall thereafter look only to the Applicable Issuers for payment of the amounts due to it as an unsecured general creditor and all liability of the Trustee or the Paying Agent with respect to that money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Applicable Issuers) shall thereupon cease. The Trustee or the Paying Agent, before being required to release any payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Applicable Issuers any reasonable means of notification of the release of the payment, including mailing notice of the release to Holders whose Notes have been called but have not been surrendered for redemption or whose right to or interest in monies payable but not claimed is determinable from the records of any Paying Agent, at the last address of record of each Holder.

Section 7.4. Existence of Co-Issuers.

(a) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall maintain in full force their existence and rights as companies incorporated or organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands and the State of Delaware, respectively, and shall obtain and preserve their qualification to do business as foreign corporations in each jurisdiction in which the qualifications are necessary to protect the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes, the Class E Certificates Paying Agency Agreement, the Class E Certificates or any of the Collateral.

However, the Issuer may change its jurisdiction of incorporation from the Cayman Islands to any other jurisdiction outside the United States reasonably selected by the Issuer so long as:

(A) the Issuer has received a legal opinion (on which the Trustee may rely) to the effect that the change is not disadvantageous in any material respect to the Holders, the Portfolio Manager or any Hedge Counterparty,

(B) written notice of the change has been given by the Issuer to the Trustee, the Holders of the Notes, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Class E Certificates), the Portfolio Manager, any Hedge Counterparty and each Rating Agency, and

(C) on or before the 15th Business Day following its receipt of the notice the Trustee has not received written notice from a Majority of the Controlling Class objecting to the change.

The Issuer may take any action required by this Indenture within the United States notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture requiring the Issuer to take the action outside of the United States so long as before taking the action the Issuer receives a legal opinion from nationally recognized legal counsel to the effect that it is not necessary to take the action outside of the United States or any political subdivision of the United States to prevent the Issuer from becoming subject to any United States federal, state, or local withholding, income or other taxes.

(b) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall ensure that all corporate or other formalities regarding their respective existences (including holding regular board of directors' and shareholders', or other similar, meetings to the extent required by applicable law) are followed. Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall take any action, or conduct its affairs in a manner, that is likely to result in its separate existence being ignored or in its assets and liabilities being substantively consolidated with any other person in a bankruptcy, reorganization, or other insolvency proceeding. Without limiting the foregoing,

(i) the Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries other than an entity the sole asset of which consists of, and the sole activity of which is the acquisition and ownership of, ETB/897 Assets or other Tax Affected Securities;

(ii) the Co-Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries;

(iii) the Issuer shall maintain at all times at least one director who is Independent of the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, and any of their respective Affiliates,

(iv) the Issuer shall not commingle its funds with the funds of any other person, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture, and

(v) except to the extent contemplated in the Management Agreement, the Administration Agreement, the Class E Certificates Paying Agency Agreement and the declaration of trust by the Share Trustee, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall not:

(A) have any employees (other than their respective directors),

(B) engage in any transaction with any shareholder that would be a conflict of interest (the entry into the Administration Agreement with the Administrator shall not be deemed a conflict of interest), or

(C) pay dividends in violation of this Indenture, the resolutions of its board of directors and the Class E Certificate Documents.

Section 7.5. Protection of Collateral.

(a) The Issuer shall cause the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, to procure any action within the Portfolio Manager's control that is reasonably necessary to maintain the perfection and priority of the security interest of the Trustee in the Collateral and the Class P Collateral. The Issuer from time to time shall execute and deliver any supplements and amendments to this Indenture and shall execute and deliver any Financing Statements, continuation statements, instruments of further assurance, and other instruments and shall take any other action appropriate to secure the rights and remedies of the Secured Parties and Class P Securityholders under this Indenture and to:

- (i) Grant more effectively all or any portion of the Collateral and Class P Collateral;
- (ii) maintain or preserve the lien (and its priority) of this Indenture or to carry out more effectively the purposes of this Indenture;
- (iii) perfect, publish notice of, or protect the validity of any Grant made by this Indenture (including any actions appropriate as a result of changes in law);
- (iv) enforce any rights under any Collateral or Class P Collateral;
- (v) preserve and defend title to the Collateral and the Class P Collateral and the rights of the Secured Parties in the Collateral and the Class P Securityholders in the applicable Class P Collateral against the claims of anyone; and
- (vi) pay when due all taxes levied or assessed on any part of the Collateral or Class P Collateral.

The Issuer designates the Portfolio Manager as its agent and attorney in fact to execute any Financing Statement, continuation statement, and all other instruments, and take all other actions, required pursuant to this Section 7.5.

The Issuer hereby authorizes the filing of a financing statement that names the Issuer as "debtor" and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association as "secured party" and that describes the Collateral and the Class P Collateral as "all assets in which the debtor now or hereafter has rights."

(b) The Trustee shall not, except in accordance with Section 10.7, permit the removal of any portion of the Collateral or Class P Collateral or transfer any such Collateral or Class P Collateral from the Account to which it is credited, or cause or permit any change in the Delivery made pursuant to Section 3.2 with respect to any Collateral or Class P Collateral, if after giving effect thereto the jurisdiction whose law governs the perfection of the Trustee's security interest in such Collateral or Class P Collateral is different from the jurisdiction whose law governed perfection at the time of delivery of the most recent Opinion of Counsel pursuant to Section 7.6 (or, if no Opinion of Counsel has yet been delivered pursuant to Section 7.6, the Opinion of Counsel delivered at the Closing Date pursuant to Section 3.1(iii)), unless the Trustee shall have received an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to such property will continue to be maintained after giving effect to such action or actions.

(c) Without at least 30 days' prior written notice to the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall not change its "location" (as defined in Section 9-307 of the UCC) or change its name from the name shown on the signature pages of this Indenture.

(d) The Issuer shall, subject to the Priority of Payments, enforce all of its material rights and remedies under the Management Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Class E Certificates Paying Agency Agreement, each Hedge Agreement, each Securities Lending Agreement and each Synthetic Security Agreement.

(e) The Issuer shall pay any taxes levied because any Collateral or Class P Collateral is owned by the Issuer.

(f) The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will either exercise the “put” option that prevents a Collateral Obligation from being a Long-Dated Collateral Obligation on the last available date before the Stated Maturity of the Notes or sell the Collateral Obligation for Sale Proceeds at least equal to the Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligation, in either case by the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

Section 7.6. Opinions as to Collateral.

On or before March 31 in each calendar year, commencing in 2007, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager and each Rating Agency an Opinion of Counsel from each relevant jurisdiction stating that, in the counsel’s opinion, as of the date of the opinion, all actions necessary to maintain the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to the Collateral and the Class P Collateral have been taken and that no further action (other than as specified in the opinion) needs to be taken for the continued effectiveness and perfection of the lien over the next year. The opinion may be subject to customary assumptions and qualifications.

Section 7.7. Performance of Obligations.

(a) The Co-Issuers, each as to itself, shall not take any action, and shall use their reasonable commercial efforts not to permit any action to be taken by others, that would release any person from any of the person’s covenants or obligations under any instrument included in the Collateral or Class P Collateral, except in the case of enforcement action taken with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation in accordance with this Indenture and actions by the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement and in conformity with this Indenture or as otherwise required by this Indenture.

(b) The Applicable Issuers may, with the prior written consent of a Majority of each Class of Notes and a Majority of the Class E Certificates (except in the case of the Management Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement as initially executed), contract with other persons (including the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, and the Collateral Administrator) for the performance of actions and obligations to be performed by the Applicable Issuers under this Indenture. Notwithstanding any such arrangement, the Applicable Issuers shall remain primarily liable for performance under this Indenture. The Applicable Issuers shall punctually perform, and use their reasonable commercial efforts to cause the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent and any other person to perform, all of their obligations in the Management Agreement, this Indenture, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Class E Certificates Paying Agency Agreement or any other agreement.

Section 7.8. Negative Covenants.

(a) The Issuer shall not and, with respect to clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (vi), (viii), (ix) and (x), the Co-Issuer shall not, in each case from and after the Closing Date:

(i) sell, transfer, assign, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber (or permit or suffer the sale, transfer, assignment, exchange, or other disposition of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecation, or other encumbering of), any part of the Collateral or Class P Collateral, except as expressly permitted or contemplated by this Indenture and the Management Agreement;

(ii) claim any credit on, make any deduction from, or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, dispute the enforceability of payment of the principal or interest (or any other amount) payable in respect of the Notes (other than amounts withheld in accordance with the Code or any applicable laws of the Cayman Islands) or assert any claim against any present or future Holder of Notes because of the payment of any taxes levied or assessed on any part of the Collateral or Class P Collateral;

(iii) (A) incur or assume or guarantee any indebtedness, other than the Notes and this Indenture and the transactions contemplated by this Indenture (including, as contemplated hereby, entering into the Hedge Agreements and Securities Lending Agreements), or (B) issue any additional class of securities other than the Class E Certificates issued on or before the Closing Date, except as otherwise permitted by the Class E Certificate Documents;

(iv) (A) permit the validity or effectiveness of this Indenture or any Grant under this Indenture to be impaired, or permit the lien of this Indenture to be amended, hypothecated, subordinated, terminated, or discharged, or permit any person to be released from any covenants or obligations with respect to this Indenture or the Notes, except as may be expressly permitted by this Indenture or by the Management Agreement, (B) permit any lien, charge, adverse claim, security interest, mortgage, or other encumbrance (other than any lien of or contemplated by this Indenture) to be created on or extend to or otherwise arise on or burden any part of the Collateral or the Class P Collateral, any interest in it, or its proceeds of, or (C) take any action that would permit the lien of this Indenture not to be a valid first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral or Class P Collateral, subject in the case of a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account, to any lien in favor of the Synthetic Securities Counterparty;

(v) amend the Management Agreement except pursuant to its terms and Section 15.1(f)(v) or amend the Collateral Administration Agreement except pursuant to its terms unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the amendment or enter into any waiver in respect of any of the foregoing agreements without providing written notice to each Rating Agency and the Trustee (and, with respect to the Collateral Administration Agreement, without the consent of the Trustee);

(vi) to the extent permitted by applicable law, dissolve or liquidate in whole or in part, except as permitted under this Indenture;

(vii) pay any dividends or other distributions other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Class E Certificate Documents;

(viii) conduct business under any name other than its own;

(ix) have any employees (other than directors and officers to the extent they are employees);

(x) except for any Underlying Instrument and agreements involving the purchase or sale of Collateral Obligations having customary purchase or sale terms and documented with customary trading documentation (but not excepting any Synthetic Security or Hedge Agreement), enter into any agreement unless the agreement contains “non-petition” and “limited recourse” provisions and shall not amend such provisions without prior satisfaction of the Rating Condition;

(xi) operate so as to be subject to U.S. federal, state or local income or franchise taxes on its net income except that it may acquire Tax Affected Securities as expressly provided herein, pending their sale or transfer in accordance with Section 12.1 hereof; and will not, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (A) originate or make loans or hold itself out through advertising or otherwise, as originating loans, lending funds or making a market in or dealing in loans or other assets, (B) hold itself out as being willing and able to enter into derivative contracts or otherwise to enter into transactions with customers in the ordinary course of business, (C) solicit, advertise or publish its ability to, or otherwise hold itself out as generally willing to enter into, assume, offset, assign or otherwise terminate positions in, credit default swaps, total return swaps or other derivative transactions at the request of others, or (D) post or publish bid or offer quotations on or otherwise indicate its willingness to enter into or terminate credit default swaps, total return swaps and other derivative transactions on, any regular trading medium or quotation service for credit default swaps, total return swaps or other derivative transactions;

(xii) earn or receive from any Person any fee or other compensation for services, however denominated, in connection with its purchase or sale of a Collateral Obligation or entering into a Synthetic Security except for (A) commitment fees or facility maintenance fees that are received by the Issuer in connection with Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans; (B) yield maintenance and prepayment penalty fees; (C) fees on account of the Issuer’s consenting to amendments, waivers or other modifications of the terms of any Collateral Obligations; (D) fees from permitted securities lending; and (E) upfront payments in lieu of periodic payments under a Synthetic Security.

(xiii) except for services provided in connection with permitted fees as described in clause (xii) above, provide services to any Person;

(xiv) purchase any asset (directly or synthetically) that is treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as: (A) an equity interest in a “partnership” (within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(2) of the Code) or other fiscally transparent entity engaged or deemed to be engaged in a trade or business within the United States, or (B) a “United States real property interest” as defined in Section 897 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder; provided that the Issuer may acquire stock of a subsidiary and cause such subsidiary to acquire assets set forth in clauses (A) or (B) above (an “ETB/897 Asset”) that are received in connection with the workout of defaulted Collateral Obligations, so long as the acquisition of ETB/897 Assets by such subsidiary will not cause the stock of such subsidiary to be deemed to be an ETB/897 Asset;

(xv) acquire or enter into any Synthetic Security with respect to any Reference Obligation the direct acquisition of which would violate any provision of this Indenture hereto;

(xvi) use Synthetic Securities as a means of making advances to the Synthetic Security Counterparty following the date on which the Synthetic Security is acquired or entered into (for the avoidance of doubt, the establishment of Synthetic Security Collateral Accounts and the payment of Synthetic Security Counterparties from the amounts on deposit therein, in each case in accordance with the Indenture, shall not constitute the making of advances);

(xvii) acquire Synthetic Securities that require that the purchaser of credit protection thereunder own the applicable Reference Obligation or require by its terms the delivery of reports or other information relating to the Reference Obligation if the effect of such requirement is that the purchaser of credit protection thereunder would be required to own the applicable Reference Obligation;

(xviii) purchase any Collateral Obligation primarily for the purpose of entering into a securities lending agreement with respect thereto and will not hold itself out as being willing or able to lend securities in the ordinary course of business;

(xix) register as, hold itself out as, or become subject to regulatory supervision or other legal requirements under the laws of any country or political subdivision thereof as a brokerdealer, a bank, an insurance company, financial guarantor, surety bond issuer, or a company engaged in loan origination;

(xx) take any action causing it to be treated as a bank, insurance company, or company engaged in loan origination for purposes of any tax, securities law or other filing or submission made to any governmental authority;

(xxi) hold itself out, through advertising or otherwise, as originating, funding, guaranteeing or insuring debt obligations or as being willing and able to enter into transactions (either purchases or sales of debt obligations or entries into, assignments or terminations of hedging or derivative instruments, including Synthetic Securities) at the request of others;

(xxii) treat Synthetic Securities as insurance, reinsurance, indemnity bonds, guaranties, guaranty bonds or suretyship contracts for any purpose;

(xxiii) disclose the identity of any holder of its Securities to any person from whom it purchases Collateral Obligations or attempt to obtain more favorable terms from any seller as a result of the identity of any holder of a Security;

(xxiv) allow any non-U.S. bank or lending institution who is a holder of a Security to control or direct the Portfolio Manager's or Issuer's decision to invest in a particular asset except as otherwise allowed to such a holder, acting in that capacity, under the Indenture or acquire a Collateral Obligation conditioned upon a particular person or entity holding Securities;

(xxv) acquire any asset whose ownership or disposition (without regard to the Issuer's other activities) would cause the Issuer to be subject to income tax on a net income basis (other than a Tax Affected Security as expressly permitted herein, pending its sale or transfer in accordance with Section 12.1 hereto);

(xxvi) hold any security as nominee for another person; or

(xxvii) buy securities with the intent to subdivide them and sell the components or to buy securities and sell them with different securities as a package or unit.

(b) Neither the Issuer nor the Trustee shall sell, transfer, exchange, or otherwise dispose of Collateral or Class P Collateral, or enter into an agreement or commitment to do so, or enter into or engage in any business with respect to any part of the Collateral or Class P Collateral, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer, the Management Agreement.

(c) The Co-Issuer shall not invest any of its assets in "securities" as the term is defined in the 1940 Act, and shall keep all of its assets in Cash.

(d) Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall use the proceeds of the Notes to buy or carry Margin Stock.

Section 7.9. Notice of Default; Statement as to Compliance.

(a) The Co-Issuers shall notify the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, the Rating Agencies, and each Hedge Counterparty within 10 days of acquiring actual knowledge of Default.

(b) On or before March 31 in each calendar year commencing in 2007 and prior to the issuance of any Additional Class E Certificates, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (to be forwarded by the Trustee to the Portfolio Manager and each Holder of Notes making a written request therefor and, upon written request therefor by a Beneficial Owner in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a Beneficial Owner, to the Beneficial Owner (or its designee) and each Rating Agency) a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer that, to the best knowledge of the Issuer, no Default exists, and no Default has existed since the date of the last certificate or, if a Default does then exist or had existed, specifying the same and its nature and status, including actions undertaken to remedy it, and that the Issuer has complied with all of its obligations under this Indenture or, if that is not the case, specifying those obligations with which it has not complied.

Section 7.10. Co-Issuers May Consolidate, etc., Only on Certain Terms.

Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer (the “Merging Entity”) shall consolidate or merge with or into any other person or transfer or convey all or substantially all of its assets to any person, unless permitted by Cayman Islands law (in the case of the Issuer) or United States and Delaware law (in the case of the Co-Issuer) and unless:

(a) the Merging Entity shall be the surviving corporation, or the person (if other than the Merging Entity) formed by the consolidation or into which the Merging Entity is merged or to which all or substantially all of the assets of the Merging Entity are transferred (the “Successor Entity”),

(i) if the Merging Entity is the Issuer, is a company organized and existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands or another jurisdiction approved by a Majority of the Controlling Class (except that no approval shall be required in connection with any such transaction undertaken solely to effect a change in the jurisdiction of incorporation pursuant to Section 7.4), and

(ii) in any case shall expressly assume, by an indenture supplemental to this Indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee and each Noteholder, the due and punctual payment of all amounts on all Notes issued by the Merging Entity and the performance and observance of every covenant of this Indenture on its part to be performed or observed, all as provided in this Indenture;

(b) each Rating Agency shall have been notified of the consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the transaction;

(c) if the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall have agreed with the Trustee,

(i) to observe the same legal requirements for the recognition of the formed or surviving corporation as a legal entity separate and apart from any of its Affiliates as are applicable to the Merging Entity with respect to its Affiliates,

(ii) not to consolidate or merge with or into any other person or transfer or convey the Collateral or all or substantially all of its assets to any other person except in accordance with this Section 7.10; and

(iii) in any case shall expressly assume by an indenture supplemental to this Indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee, each Noteholder and the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates), the due and punctual payment of all amounts on all Notes issued by the Merging Entity and the performance and observance of every covenant of this Indenture on its part to be performed or observed, all as provided in this Indenture;

(d) if the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall have delivered to the Trustee and each Rating Agency an Officer's certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing in the jurisdiction in which it is organized; that it has sufficient power and authority to assume the obligations in subsection (a) above and to execute and deliver an indenture supplemental to this Indenture for the purpose of assuming the obligations in subsection (a) above; that it has duly authorized the execution, delivery, and performance of an indenture supplemental to this Indenture for the purpose of assuming the obligations in subsection (a) above and that the supplemental indenture is its valid and legally binding obligation, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject only to bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, moratorium, and other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity; if the Merging Entity is the Issuer, that, following the event that causes the Successor Entity to become the successor to the Issuer, (i) the Successor Entity has title, free of any lien, security interest, or charge, other than the lien and security interest of this Indenture, to the Collateral, and (ii) the lien of this Indenture continues to be effective in the Collateral; and in each case as to any other matters the Trustee or any Noteholder reasonably requires;

(e) after giving effect to the transaction, no Default or Event of Default shall be continuing;

(f) the Merging Entity shall have notified each Rating Agency of the consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance and shall have delivered to the Trustee, each Noteholder and the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) an Officer's certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that the consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance and the supplemental indenture comply with this Article 7 and that all conditions precedent in this Article 7 relating to the transaction have been complied with and that no adverse tax consequences will result therefrom to the Holders of the Notes or Class E Certificates;

(g) the Merging Entity shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel stating that after giving effect to the transaction, neither of the Co-Issuers (or, if applicable, the Successor Entity) nor the pool of Collateral will be an investment company under the 1940 Act; and

(h) after giving effect to the transaction, the outstanding stock of the Merging Entity (or, if applicable, the Successor Entity) will not be beneficially owned within the meaning of the 1940 Act by any U.S. person.

Section 7.11. Successor Substituted.

Upon any consolidation or merger, or transfer or conveyance of all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, in accordance with Section 7.10 in which the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall succeed to, and may exercise every right of, the Merging Entity under this Indenture with the same effect as if the person had been named as the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, in this Indenture. Upon any such consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance, the person named as the “Issuer” or the “Co-Issuer” in the first paragraph of this Indenture or any successor may be dissolved, wound up, and liquidated at any time thereafter, and the person thereafter shall be released from its liabilities as obligor and maker on all the Notes and from its obligations under this Indenture.

Section 7.12. No Other Business.

(a) The Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than (i) acquisition and disposition of, and investment and reinvestment in, Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, other Collateral described in clauses (a) to (g) of the Granting Clauses hereof, for its own account; (ii) entering into, and performing its obligations under, the Indenture, the Class E Certificate Documents, any Hedge Agreements, the Securities Lending Agreements, the Management Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Administration Agreement, the Purchase Agreement, the Placement Agreement, the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement and the Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement; (iii) the issuance and sale of the Securities and the Ordinary Shares; (iv) the pledge of the Collateral as security for its obligations in respect of the Notes and any Hedge Agreements; (v) the pledge of the Class P-1 Collateral as security for certain obligations in respect of the Class P-1 Securities and the pledge of the Class P-2 Collateral as security for certain obligations in respect of the Class P-2 Securities; and (vi) undertaking certain other activities incidental to the foregoing and permitted by this Indenture. The Issuer shall not enter into any derivative transaction except as expressly provided in this Indenture. The Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity or purchase any asset that would cause the Issuer to be engaged in a U.S. trade or business for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except as the result of ownership of Tax Affected Securities to the extent permitted herein and pending their sale or transfer in accordance with Section 12.1 hereto.

(b) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer may amend, or permit the amendment of, their Memorandum and Articles or the Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the amendment (but not otherwise).

Section 7.13. Annual Rating Review.

So long as any Notes of any Class remain Outstanding, the Co-Issuers shall obtain and pay for an ongoing surveillance of the rating of each Outstanding Class of Notes from each Rating Agency. The Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager in writing (and the Trustee shall promptly provide a copy of the notice to the Holders of the Notes) and the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) if at any time the rating of any Class of Notes has been, or is known will be, changed or withdrawn.

Section 7.14. Reporting.

At any time when the Co-Issuers are not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act and are not exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act, upon the request of a Holder or Beneficial Owner of any Note, the Co-Issuers shall promptly furnish “Rule 144A Information” to the Holder or Beneficial Owner, to a prospective purchaser of a Note designated by the Holder or Beneficial Owner or to the Trustee for delivery to the Holder or Beneficial Owner or a prospective purchaser designated by the Holder or Beneficial Owner, as the case may be, to permit compliance by the Holder or Beneficial Owner with Rule 144A under the Securities Act in connection with the resale of the Note by the Holder or Beneficial Owner. “Rule 144A Information” is the information specified pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

Section 7.15. Calculation Agent.

(a) The Issuer agrees that for so long as any Notes remain Outstanding an agent will always have been appointed (that does not control and is not controlled by or under common control with the Issuer or its Affiliates) to calculate LIBOR in respect of each Interest Period (the “Calculation Agent”). The Issuer has initially appointed the Trustee as Calculation Agent. The Issuer may remove the Calculation Agent at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Issuer, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager (on its behalf) shall promptly appoint a replacement Calculation Agent. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been duly appointed. For so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of such exchange so require, notice of the appointment of any replacement Calculation Agent shall be published by or on behalf of the Issuer in the Daily Official List of the Irish Stock Exchange as promptly as practicable after such appointment.

(b) As soon as possible after 11:00 a.m., London time, on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period, but in no event later than 11:00 a.m., London time, on the next Business Day, the Calculation Agent shall calculate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Notes for the next Interest Period. The Calculation Agent shall communicate those rates and amounts to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, each Paying Agent, the Portfolio Manager, the Depositary and, except for the Note Interest Rate for the Class A-1A Notes and Commitment Fee and the Note Interest Rate for the Class A-1B Notes and Delayed Drawdown Fee, Euroclear, Clearstream and, so long as any of the Notes are listed thereon and the rules of the exchange so require, the Irish Stock Exchange. In the latter case, such information will be published by the Irish Paying and Listing Agent in the Daily Official List of the Irish Stock Exchange as soon as possible after its determination. The Calculation Agent shall separately notify the Irish Stock Exchange of such information. The Calculation Agent shall also specify to the Co-Issuers the quotations on which the foregoing rates are based, and in any event the Calculation Agent shall notify the Co-Issuers before 7:00 p.m., London time, on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period that either:

(i) it has determined or is in the process of determining the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Notes, or

(ii) it has not determined and is not in the process of determining any such Note Interest Rate together with its reasons therefor.

The Calculation Agent’s determination of the foregoing rates for any Interest Period shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding on all parties and the Holders and Beneficial Owners of the Class E Certificates.

Section 7.16. Certain Tax Matters.

(a) The Issuer will not elect to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes and shall make any election necessary to avoid classification as a partnership or disregarded entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(b) The Issuer shall file, or cause to be filed, any tax returns, including information tax returns, required by any governmental authority; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not file, or cause to be filed, any income or franchise tax return in any state of the United States unless it shall have obtained an Opinion of Counsel from a tax counsel of nationally recognized standing experienced in such matters prior to such filing that, under the laws of such jurisdiction, the Issuer is required to file such income or franchise tax return.

(c) Notwithstanding any contrary agreement or understanding, the Portfolio Manager, the Issuers, the Trustee and the Holders and beneficial owners of the Notes (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Indenture and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. The foregoing provision shall apply from the beginning of discussions between the parties. For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. tax treatment of the transaction under applicable U.S. federal, state and local law, and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. tax treatment of the transaction under applicable U.S. federal, state and local law.

(d) If the Issuer is aware that it has purchased an interest in a "reportable transaction" within the meaning of Section 6011 of the Code, and a Holder of a Security requests information about any such transactions in which the Issuer is an investor, the Issuer shall provide such information it has reasonably available as soon as practicable after such request.

(e) The Issuer shall not conduct any business other than the business that the Issuer is permitted to conduct under this Indenture.

(f) Upon written request by the Independent accountants, the Indenture Registrar shall provide to the Independent accountants that information contained in the Indenture Register requested by the Independent accountants to comply with this Section 7.16.

(g) The Issuer will treat each purchase of Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments as a "purchase" for tax accounting and reporting purposes.

(h) Upon the Trustee's receipt of a request of a Holder holding a Security that is issued with original issue discount for U.S. Federal income tax purposes for the information described in Treasury regulation section 1.1275-3(b)(1) that is applicable to such Security that is issued with original issue discount for U.S. Federal income tax purposes, the Issuer will cause its independent accountants to provide promptly to the Trustee and such requesting Holder all of such information. Any issuance of additional Securities will be accomplished in a manner that will allow the Issuer to accurately provide the same information as the foregoing to the Holders of such additional Securities.

(i) Each Holder and beneficial owner of a Security, by acceptance of its Security or its interest in a Security, shall be deemed to understand and acknowledge that failure to provide the Paying Agent with the applicable U.S. federal income tax certifications (generally, a United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is not a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) may result in U.S. federal back-up withholding from payments in respect of such Note.

(j) The Issuer and each Holder of a Note shall treat the Notes as debt and the Class E Certificates as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes and further agrees not to take any action inconsistent with such treatment. The Issuer and each Holder of Class P Securities or Class Q-1 Securities shall treat each Class Q-1 Security and Class P Security as a direct ownership interest in the corresponding components of such Security.

(k) The Issuer shall provide, or cause the independent accountants to provide, within 90 days after the end of the Issuer's tax year, to each Holder of a Security, upon written request and, upon written request therefor, all information that a U.S. shareholder making a "qualified electing fund" election (as defined in the Code) with respect to the Security is required to obtain from the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and a "PFIC Annual Information Statement" as described in United States Treasury Regulation Section 1.1295-1(g)(1) (or any successor Treasury Regulation), including all representations and statements required by such statement, and the Issuer will take or cause the accountants to take any other reasonable steps to facilitate such election by a Holder or beneficial owner of a Security.

(l) The Issuer will provide, or cause its Independent accountants to provide, to a Holder of a Security, upon written request and, upon written request therefor, any information that such Holder or beneficial owner reasonably requests to assist such Holder or beneficial owner with regard to filing requirements that such Holder or beneficial owner is required to satisfy as a result of the controlled foreign corporation rules under the Code.

(m) The Issuer shall not purchase any asset if the acquisition (including the manner of acquisition), ownership, enforcement or disposition of such asset would cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise as subject to tax on a net income basis in any jurisdiction outside the Issuer's jurisdiction of incorporation.

Section 7.17. Securities Lending.

(a) So long as no Event of Default is continuing and if after the completion of the transaction the limit in clause (28) of the definition of "Concentration Limitations" would be satisfied, the Portfolio Manager may cause Collateral Obligations that are not Defaulted Collateral Obligations to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A+" from S&P (each, a "Securities Lending Counterparty") pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a "Securities Lending Agreement"); provided that Collateral Obligations whose Market Value cannot be determined under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Collateral Obligations to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Portfolio Manager. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Placement Agent or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

(b) Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Portfolio Manager (except as may be required below) and shall:

(i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Issuer debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent Collateral Obligations;

(ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Issuer amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent Collateral Obligation is entitled to for the period during which the Collateral Obligation is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities Lending Agreement to make "gross-up" payments to the Issuer that cover the full amount of the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;

(iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;

(iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;

(v) be governed by the laws of New York;

(vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture;

(vii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Collateral Obligation becomes a Credit Risk Obligation or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;

(viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty upon any redemption of the Notes in whole;

(ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of Cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement (the "Securities Lending Collateral") to secure its obligation to return the Collateral Obligations or in the alternative post the Securities Lending Collateral with a custodian for the benefit of the Issuer designated by the Securities Lending Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that custodian would qualify to be a successor trustee under Section 6.8;

(x) provide that the Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained at all times in an amount equal to at least 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value (determined daily and monitored by the Portfolio Manager) of the lent Collateral Obligations and if securities are delivered to the Trustee as security for the obligations of the Securities Lending Counterparty under the related Securities Lending Agreement, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will negotiate with the Securities Lending Counterparty a rate for the loan fee to be paid to the Issuer for lending the lent Collateral Obligations;

(xi) the lent Collateral Obligations shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Portfolio Manager on the basis of their Market Value;

(xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer's rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement rather than the loaned Collateral Obligation;

(xiii) provide for early termination within 10 days at the option of the Issuer and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in this Indenture; and

(xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in this Indenture.

(c) If either Moody's or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty, then the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, within 10 days of the downgrade, shall

(i) terminate its Securities Lending Agreements with the Securities Lending Counterparty unless a guarantor for the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements has been obtained; or

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations lent to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty so that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party, together with all other Securities Lending Agreements, are in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of Securities Lending Counterparties; or

(iii) take any other steps Moody's or S&P may require to cause the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party to be treated by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, as if the obligations were owed by a counterparty having a rating at least equivalent to the rating that was assigned by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty before its being downgraded.

(d) In connection with any such direction by the Portfolio Manager to enter into a Securities Lending Agreement, the Trustee may receive and rely on an Issuer Order to the effect that the Securities Lending Agreement, and its Securities Lending Counterparty, is each in compliance with the requirements of this Indenture (including the definition of "Securities Lending Counterparty"). The Issuer and the Trustee may enter into any Securities Lending Agreement (and any related account control agreement) at the instruction of the Portfolio Manager, and deliver and accept delivery and return of any Collateral Obligations pursuant to the Securities Lending Agreement, or pursuant to instructions from the Portfolio Manager in connection with the Securities Lending Agreement. The Trustee may take any actions and exercise any rights and remedies under any Securities Lending Agreement that the Portfolio Manager instructs. The Trustee need not enter into any Securities Lending Agreement (or any related account control agreement) that would in its judgment, subject it to any liability, whether financial or otherwise, or cause it to incur or subject it to risk of any cost or disbursement for which it is not, in its judgment, adequately indemnified, or that would impose on it any obligations or administrative burdens that are unacceptable to it. The Portfolio Manager shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity, or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in this Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Collateral Obligation is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement,

(a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Collateral Obligation because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action), and

(b) the loaned Collateral Obligations shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as a Collateral Obligation by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan

(including any change that would cause the Collateral Obligation to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under this Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

Section 7.18. Purchase of Collateral Obligations; Ramp-Up Completion Date.

(a) The Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase (or enter into commitments to purchase (with settlement as soon as practicable after such commitment, but in any event no later than 60 days thereafter) Collateral Obligations for inclusion in the Collateral on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period, in each case, such that as of the Business Day prior to March 3, 2006, either (A) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer equals at least $900,000,000 or (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations purchased (or committed to be purchased) by the Issuer (in each case in this clause (B), measured solely as of the date of purchase or commitment, as the case may be (provided that with respect to the Initial Collateral Obligations, the date of purchase shall be the Closing Date)) equals at least $900,000,000 (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations after the Closing Date and on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date).

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of this Indenture, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase a Collateral Obligation to be included in the Collateral, such commitment not to exceed 60 days, and at the time of the commitment the Collateral Obligation complied with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set forth in this Section 7.18, the Issuer may consummate the purchase of the Collateral Obligation notwithstanding that the Collateral Obligation fails to comply with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set out above on the date of settlement.

(c) Within 5 Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager (on behalf of the Issuer) shall request a Rating Confirmation and shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date identifying the Collateral Obligations then included in the Collateral (and, with respect to S&P, an excel file containing the S&P CDO Monitor input file and with respect to each Collateral Obligation, the name of the related obligor thereon, the CUSIP number thereof (if applicable) and the S&P Priority Category thereof) and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies (together with the delivery of such report), an Accountants' Certificate:

(i) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread and recovery rate for each Collateral Obligation owned by the Issuer as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included in the Collateral, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein;

(ii) confirming that as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date:

(1) each of the Coverage Tests is satisfied;

(2) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date is at least equal to the Maximum Investment Amount; and

(3) the Collateral Obligations comply with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests and the Concentration Limitations and the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 of this Indenture; and

(iii) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements.

(d) If a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to, and to the extent provided in, Section 9.1(a).

Section 7.19. Posting of Reports on Repository.

(a) If the Initial Purchaser has entered into a posting dealer agreement with The Bond Market Association relating to the transactions contemplated by this Indenture, each of the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager acknowledges and agrees that each Monthly Report and Valuation Report shall be posted to the Repository for use in the manner provided in the Repository. In connection therewith, the Trustee, on behalf of and at the expense of the Issuer, agrees to make available in accordance with Section 14.3(a)(viii) each Monthly Report or Valuation Report to the operator of the Repository for posting on the Repository.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, none of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee makes any representation or warranty to The Bond Market Association (or any successor thereto) or any affiliate thereof or any Person having or obtaining access to the information maintained in the Repository or to any of such Person's affiliates regarding the accuracy or completeness of any information, document, report or other communication transmitted to the Repository, and no Person having or obtaining access to the information maintained in the Repository shall have any rights under this Indenture or any other transaction document or otherwise by reason of the transmission of any such information, document, report or other communication to the Repository.

Section 7.20. [Reserved]

Section 7.21. Section 3(c)(7) Procedures.

In addition to the notices required to be given under Section 10.6 hereof, the Issuer shall take the following actions to ensure compliance with the requirements of Section 3(c)(7) of the 1940 Act (provided that such procedures and disclosures may be revised by the Issuer to be consistent with generally accepted practice for compliance with the requirements of Section 3(c)(7) of the 1940 Act):

(a) Section 3(c)(7) Notice to Investors. The Issuer shall (i) request the Depositary to cause, and cooperate with the Depositary in causing, the Depositary's security description and delivery order to include a "3(c)(7) marker" and the Depositary's user manual to contain an accurate description of the restrictions on the holding and transfer of the Notes due to the Issuer's reliance on the exclusion to registration provided by Section 3(c)(7) of the 1940 Act, (ii) request that the Depositary send, and cooperate with the Depositary in causing the Depositary to send, to its Agent Members (x) the Important Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice substantially in the form of Exhibit H-2 in connection with the initial offering of the Notes and (y) the Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice substantially in the form of Exhibit H-1 as set forth in Section 10.6(a) and (b) and (iii) request that the Depositary cause, and cooperate with the Depositary in causing, the Depositary's Reference Directory to include each Class of Notes (and the applicable CUSIP numbers for the Notes) in the listing of 3(c)(7) issues together with an attached description of the limitations as to the distribution, purchase, sale and holding of the Notes.

(b) CUSIP Numbers. The Issuer shall (a) request of S&P, and shall cooperate with S&P to ensure that all CUSIP numbers identifying the Notes shall have a “fixed field” attached thereto that contains “3c7” and “144A” indicators and (b) take steps to cause the Placement Agent, the Initial Purchaser and any market makers to require that all “confirms” of trades of the Notes contain CUSIP numbers with such “fixed field” identifiers.

(c) Bloomberg and other Third-Party Vendor Screens. The Issuer shall use all reasonable efforts to cause the Bloomberg screen or screens containing information about the Notes to include the following language: (a) the “Note Box” on the bottom of the “Security Display” page describing the Notes shall state: “Iss’d Under 144A/3(c)(7)”, (b) the “Security Display” page shall have the flashing red indicator “See Other Available Information”, and (c) the indicator shall link to the “Additional Security Information” page, which shall state that the securities are “being offered in reliance on the exemption from registration under Rule 144A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) to persons who are both (x) qualified institutional buyers (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act) and (y) qualified purchasers (as defined under Section 3(c)(7) under the Investment Company Act of 1940)”. The Issuer shall use all reasonable efforts to require that any other third-party vendor screens containing information about the Notes include substantially similar language to clauses (a) through (c) above.

Section 7.22. Listing.

(a) So long as any Class of Notes listed on the Irish Stock Exchange is Outstanding, the Issuer shall (i) use all reasonable efforts to maintain the listing of such Class of Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange; provided, however, that the Issuer will not be required to maintain a listing on the Irish Stock Exchange or any other E.U. stock exchange if compliance with requirements of the European Commission or a relevant Member State becomes commercially unreasonable in the sole judgment of the Portfolio Manager, (ii) notify the Irish Stock Exchange if the rating assigned to any Class of Notes has been qualified, downgraded or withdrawn; and (iii) make available for inspection at the office of the Irish Paying and Listing Agent copies of its Articles, bylaws, and resolutions authorizing the issuance of the Notes and this Indenture.

(b) So long as any Class E Certificates listed on the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange are Outstanding, the Issuer shall (i) use all reasonable efforts to maintain the listing of such Class E Certificates on the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange; provided, however, that the Issuer will not be required to maintain a listing on the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange if compliance with requirements of such stock exchange becomes commercially unreasonable in the sole judgment of the Portfolio Manager; and (ii) make available for inspection at the office of the Administrator copies of its Articles, bylaws, and resolutions authorizing the issuance of the Class E Certificates and the Class E Certificate Documents.

(4) evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment under this Indenture by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of this Indenture necessary to facilitate the administration of the trusts under this Indenture by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of Sections 6.9, 6.10, and 6.12;

(5) correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of this Indenture, or to better assure, convey, and confirm to the Trustee any property subject or required to be subject to the lien of this Indenture (including all actions appropriate as a result of changes in law) or to subject to the lien of this Indenture any additional property;

(6) modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of the Indenture Securities to reflect any changes in applicable law (or its interpretation) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely on any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the 1940 Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required under this Indenture;

(7) with the consent of the Portfolio Manager and a Majority of the Controlling Class (by Act of the Holders of the Controlling Class), to modify the restrictions on the sales of Collateral Obligations in Section 12.1 or the Eligibility Criteria in Section 12.2 (and the definitions related thereto) in a manner not materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of the Notes or the Class E Certificates as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Portfolio Manager to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of the Notes or the Class E Certificates;

(8) make any changes required by (i) the Irish Stock Exchange (so long as any of the Notes are listed thereon) or (ii) the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange (so long as any of the Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities are listed thereon) or (iii) any other stock exchange on which any Class of Securities is listed in order to permit or maintain the listing of any Securities thereon;

(10) accommodate the issuance of the Securities in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC or otherwise;

(11) to take any appropriate action to prevent the Issuer, the Holders of Securities, or the Trustee from becoming subject to withholding or other taxes, fees, or assessments or to prevent the Issuer from being treated as being engaged in a U.S. trade or business or otherwise being subject to U.S. federal, state, or local income tax on a net income basis, so long as the action will not cause the Holders of any Securities to be adversely affected to any material extent by any change to the timing, character, or source of the income from the Securities, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion);

(12) to authorize the appointment of any listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent, or additional registrar for any Class of Securities appropriate in connection with the listing of any Class of Securities on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange, and otherwise to amend this Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent, or additional registrar for any Class of Securities in connection with its appointment, so long as the supplemental indenture would not materially and adversely affect any Holder of Securities, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Portfolio Manager, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of the Securities;

(13) to amend, modify, enter into, or accommodate the execution of any contract relating to a Synthetic Security (including posting collateral under a Synthetic Security Agreement);

(14) to modify Section 3.3 to be consistent with applicable laws or Rating Agency requirements;

(15) to evidence any waiver by any Rating Agency as to any requirement or condition, as applicable, of the Rating Agency set forth in this Indenture;

(16) with the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class (by Act of the Holders of the Controlling Class), modify the calculation of the Collateral Quality Tests, Concentration Limitations or the Coverage Tests or related definitions to correspond with written changes in the guidelines, methodology or standards established by the Rating Agencies or as otherwise permitted by the Rating Agencies;

(17) (a) with the consent of a Majority of the Class A-1A Notes (by Act of the Holders of the Class A-1A Notes), to amend any provisions herein relating solely to the manner, timing and conditions of Borrowings; and (b) with the consent of a Majority of the Class A-1B Notes (by Act of the Holders of the Class A-1B Notes), to amend any provisions herein relating solely to the manner, timing and conditions of Drawdowns;

(18) to facilitate the issuance of participation notes, combination notes, combination securities and other similar securities;

(19) to facilitate hedging transactions;

(20) to facilitate the ability of the Issuer to lend Collateral Obligations pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement;

(21) to modify any provision to facilitate an A/B Exchange, including to effect any serial designation relating to the exchange;

(22) with the consent of the Portfolio Manager, to enter into any additional agreements not expressly prohibited by this Indenture as well as any amendment, modification, or waiver if the Issuer determines that the amendment, modification, or waiver would not, upon or after becoming effective, materially and adversely affect the rights or interest of the Holders of any Class of Securities as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Portfolio Manager to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities; or

(23) provide for the issuance of Additional Class E Certificates to the extent permitted by the Class E Certificate Documents and to extend to such Additional Class E Certificates the benefits applicable to the Class E Certificates hereunder and under the Class E Certificate Documents.

(b) Without the consent of the Portfolio Manager, no supplemental indenture may be entered into that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to the Portfolio Manager under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager.

(c) The Trustee is authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be in the agreements, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, except to the extent required by law. Unless notified by a Majority of any Class of the Securities that the Class of Securities would be materially and adversely affected, the Trustee may rely on a certificate of the Portfolio Manager and an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) as to whether the interests of any Holder of Securities would be materially and adversely affected by any such supplemental indenture. The Trustee shall give notice of any such supplemental indenture described in Section 8.1 to the Holders of Indenture Securities and to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) at least 15 Business Days before execution of any supplemental indenture by the Trustee (or 60 calendar days before execution, in the case of a supplemental indenture for the purpose described in paragraph (7), (16) and (17) of Section 8.1(a), which shall be identified as such in a certificate of the Portfolio Manager delivered to the Trustee before the date on which such notice is required to be given).

(d) Except for a supplemental indenture described in Section 8.1(a)(23) above, if any Outstanding Notes are rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall enter into a supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.1 only if either (1) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the supplemental indenture or (2) the Portfolio Manager and the Holders of 100% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes the ratings on which would be reduced or withdrawn consent to the supplemental indenture. Prior to the entry into any supplemental indenture with respect to which a the Rating Condition for one or more Classes of Indenture Securities is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Indenture Security informing them of such fact.

(e) Without limiting any other requirement to deliver notice pursuant to this Section 8.1, at the cost of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee shall provide to each Rating Agency (for so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), the Holders of the Indenture Securities and the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates), the Irish Listing and Paying Agent for forwarding to the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed thereon), the Administrator for forwarding to the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities are listed thereon) and each Hedge Counterparty a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.1 at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee.

Section 8.2. Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders.

(a) If the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency, the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may execute one or more indentures supplemental to this Indenture to add any provisions to, or change in any manner, or eliminate any of the provisions of, this Indenture or modify in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes under this Indenture with the consent of:

(1) the Portfolio Manager if the supplemental indenture would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager;

(2) a Majority of each Class of Indenture Securities adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of each such Class of Indenture Securities; and

(3) a Majority of the Class E Certificates adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of the Class E Certificates.

Any proposed supplemental indenture that would also necessitate a change to the Memorandum and Articles of Association may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Memorandum and Articles of Association) has been passed to permit the Issuer's constitutional documents to be altered to conform them to the proposed change to this Indenture as certified to the Trustee by the Issuer.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected thereby and the Holder of each Class E Certificate adversely affected thereby, no supplemental indenture shall:

(i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date of any installment of interest on any Note or of any payment to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Class E Certificates, reduce the principal amount or the rate of interest on any Note, or the Default Interest Rate or the Redemption Price with respect to any Note or Class E Certificate, or change the earliest date on which Notes or Class E Certificates may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, change the provisions of this Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of any Collateral to the payment of principal of or interest on Notes, or to payment to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Class E Certificates, or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which principal, interest or other distributions on Securities are paid or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after their Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the applicable Redemption Date);

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class or Holders of Class E Certificates whose consent is required for the authorization of any such supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of this

Indenture or certain defaults under this Indenture or their consequences provided for in this Indenture;

(iii) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture with respect to any part of the Collateral or Class P Collateral or terminate the lien on any property at any time subject hereto or deprive the Holder of any Note of the security afforded by the lien of this Indenture;

(iv) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class whose consent is required to direct remedies or to sell or liquidate the Collateral, pursuant to Section 5.4 or 5.5;

(v) modify any of the provisions of this Section, or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note and Class E Certificate affected thereby;

(vi) modify the definition of "Outstanding," "Controlling Class," or "Majority," or the Priority of Payments in Section 11.1(a) or Section 13.1; or

(vii) modify any of the provisions of this Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of Redemption Price or of interest or principal on any Note or any payment to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent for the payment of dividends or other payments on the Class E Certificates on any Payment Date or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes or Class E Certificates to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of the Notes or the Class E Certificates contained in this Indenture.

Prior to the entry into any supplemental indenture with respect to which the Rating Condition for one or more Classes of Indenture Securities is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Indenture Security and the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) informing them of such fact.

(b) No supplemental indenture may modify the terms of the Class Q-1 Securities as such in a manner that would adversely affect the Class Q-1 Securities without the prior written consent of a majority of the stated amount of the Class Q-1 Securities, or the consent of the Holders of each Outstanding Class Q-1 Security adversely affected thereby as set forth above. Except for any proposed such supplement that would affect the terms of the Class Q-1 Securities as such or as provided in subsection (a) above, Holders of Class Q-1 Securities shall be entitled to vote under this Section 8.2 only as Holders of the respective related Class Q-1 Components.

(c) No supplemental indenture may modify the terms of the Class P-1 Securities or the Class P-2 Securities, in each case as such, in a manner that would adversely affect the Class P-1 Securities or Class P-2 Securities, as applicable, without the prior written consent of a majority of the stated amount of the Class P-1 Securities or Class P-2 Securities, as applicable, or the consent of the Holders of each Outstanding Class Q Security adversely affected thereby as set forth above. Except for any proposed such supplement that would affect the terms of the Class P-1 Securities or Class P-2 Securities, as applicable, as such or as provided in subsection (a) above, Holders of Class P Securities shall be entitled to vote under this Section 8.2 only as Holders of the respective Class E Certificates represented by the related Class P Class E Certificate Component.

(d) At the cost of the Co-Issuers, for so long as any Notes are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall provide to the Rating Agency a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2 at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee.

(e) Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2, the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Holders of the Notes, the Portfolio Manager, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) a copy of such supplemental indenture and shall request any required consent from the applicable Holders of Notes or Class E Certificates to be given within the Initial Consent Period. Any consent given to a proposed supplemental indenture by the Holder of any Notes or Class E Certificates, as applicable, shall be irrevocable and binding on all future Holders or beneficial owners of that Note or Class E Certificate, irrespective of the execution date of the supplemental indenture. If the Holders of less than the required percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the relevant Notes or Class E Certificates consent to a proposed supplemental indenture within the Initial Consent Period, on the first Business Day after the Initial Consent Period, the Trustee shall notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager which Holders of Notes or Class E Certificates have consented to the proposed supplemental indenture and, which Holders (and, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Trustee, which beneficial owners) have not consented to the proposed supplemental indenture. If it intends to exercise its Amendment Buy-Out Option pursuant to Section 9.6, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall so notify the Trustee (which notice shall designate a date for the Amendment Buy-Out to occur no earlier than 10 Business Days after the date of such notice) no later than five (5) Business Days after so being notified by the Trustee and the Trustee shall mail such notice to all Holders of Notes and the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates). Any Non-Consenting Holder may give consent (by Act of such Holder) to the related proposed supplemental indenture until the 5th Business Day prior to the date of the Amendment Buy-Out designated by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and in such case shall cease to be a Non-Consenting Holder for purposes of the Amendment Buy-Out. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser exercises its Amendment Buy-Out Option and purchases the applicable Securities pursuant to Section 9.6 below, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, as Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Notes or Class E Certificates, may consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture within five (5) Business Days of the Amendment Buy-Out.

(f) It shall not be necessary for any Act of Holders of Notes under this Section 8.2 to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if the Act or consent approves its substance.

(g) The Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Holders of the Indenture Securities, the Portfolio Manager, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) and each Rating Agency a copy of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2 promptly after its execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee. Any failure of the Trustee to mail a copy of any supplemental indenture as provided in this Indenture, or any defect in the mailing, shall not in any way affect the validity of the supplemental indenture.

Section 8.3. Execution of Supplemental Indentures.

In executing or accepting the additional trusts created by any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article 8 or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee may receive, and (subject to Sections 6.1 and 6.3) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of the supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture and that all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture have been satisfied. In the event that any supplemental indenture is consented to by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes and the Rating Condition is satisfied or is specifically waived by all consenting parties, all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture shall be deemed satisfied, the execution of such supplemental indenture shall be authorized or permitted by this Indenture, and the Trustee shall execute and accept the additional trusts created by such supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 or modification thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture without obtaining an Opinion of Counsel. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise. The Portfolio Manager shall not be bound by any amendment or supplement to this Indenture that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager unless the Portfolio Manager consents to it in writing, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Portfolio Manager shall follow any amendment or supplement to this Indenture by which it is bound of which it has received written notice from the time it receives a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee.

Section 8.4. Effect of Supplemental Indentures; Certain Required Consents.

Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article 8, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and the supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and every Holder of Indenture Securities and Class E Certificates theretofore and thereafter authenticated and delivered under this Indenture shall be bound thereby.

Without the approval of each Hedge Counterparty to a then existing Hedge Agreement (so long as the Hedge Counterparty is not in default under any Hedge Agreement to which it is party), no supplemental indenture will be effective, and the Co-Issuers will not consent to any supplemental indenture, that would have a material adverse effect on the Hedge Counterparty. For purposes of this paragraph, any supplemental indenture will be deemed not to have a material adverse effect on the Hedge Counterparty if it does not object within 10 days of delivery of such supplemental indenture by the Trustee.

Section 8.5. Reference in Notes to Supplemental Indentures.

Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 may, and if required by the Trustee shall, bear a notice in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in the supplemental indenture. If the Applicable Issuers shall so determine, new Notes, so modified as to conform in the opinion of the Trustee and the Co-Issuers to any such supplemental indenture, may be prepared and executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes.

ARTICLE 9

Section 9.1. Mandatory Redemption.

(a) If either (a) a Coverage Test is not met on any Determination Date or (b) a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, principal payments on the Notes shall be made on the related Payment Date (without payment of any Redemption Price) in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Upon receipt of notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes, at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes, then the Portfolio Manager, in its sole discretion may direct the Trustee to sell, and if so directed, the Trustee shall sell in accordance with the instructions of the Portfolio Manager, Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for the purpose in the Collection Account will be used to redeem the Notes (but only to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes) pursuant to the Priority of Payments. Any sale under this Section 9.1 shall be conducted in such a manner that:

(i) after giving effect to the sale each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied or, if any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Overcollateralization Test is not reduced,

(ii) if the sale occurs on or after the second Payment Date, after giving effect to the sale each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied or, if any Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Interest Coverage Test is not reduced, and

(iii) after giving effect to the sale each Collateral Quality Test is satisfied or, if any Collateral Quality Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Collateral Quality Test is not reduced.

(b) The Class E Certificates will be redeemed in whole in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Class E Certificate Documents on any Payment Date on which a mandatory redemption of the Notes pursuant to Section 9.1(a) results in the payment in full of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes.

Section 9.2. Optional Redemption.

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Notes shall be redeemed by the Applicable Issuers, in whole but not in part, on any Payment Date from Principal Proceeds and all other funds available for that purpose in the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account and the Revolving Reserve Account, at the direction of the Holders of at least a Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Class E Certificates, which direction must be given to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made, at the applicable Redemption Price (exclusive of installments of interest and principal maturing on or before that date, payment of which shall have been made or duly provided for, to the Holders of the Notes on relevant Record Dates or as otherwise provided in this Indenture). All Notes must be simultaneously redeemed, and any termination payments pursuant to Hedge Agreements must be paid. The Class A-1A Notes also may be prepaid during the Reinvestment Period.

Upon receipt of a notice of redemption pursuant to this Section 9.2(a), the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Management Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer, direct the sale of the Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for such purpose in the Collection Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, and the Revolving Reserve Account, will be at least sufficient to redeem all of the Notes and to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations. If, in the Portfolio Manager's reasonable discretion, the sale would not be sufficient to redeem the Notes, and to pay the fees, expenses, and obligations, no Collateral Obligations shall be sold and the Notes shall not be redeemed.

Upon any redemption pursuant to this Section 9.2(a), the Issuer shall, at least 30 days before the Redemption Date (unless the Trustee shall agree to a shorter notice period), notify the Trustee, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) and each Rating Agency of the Redemption Date, the applicable Record Date, the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed on the Redemption Date, and the applicable Redemption Prices.

(b) On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, all administrative and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture and all amounts owing under this Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged,

(i) at the direction of a Majority of the Class E Certificates, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Class E Certificates, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Class E Certificates pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings; or

(ii) at the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Class E Certificates, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a directed portion (representing less than all) of the Class E Certificates to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Class E Certificates based upon such direction.

Upon a distribution pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(i), the Portfolio Manager will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Management Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer (and subject to Section 9.2(b)(ii)), direct the sale of all remaining Collateral Obligations. Upon a distribution pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii), the Portfolio Manager will effect the sale of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Class E Certificates.

Section 9.3. Redemption Procedures.

(a) Upon any redemption pursuant to Section 9.2, a notice of redemption shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days and not earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date, each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of DTC, Euroclear, and Clearstream, as applicable, to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates), and (in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a)) to each Rating Agency. In addition, (i) for so long as any Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of such exchange so require, notice of such redemption pursuant to Section 9.2 shall also be given to the Noteholders by the Irish Listing and Paying Agent publishing in the Daily Official List of the Irish Stock Exchange and (ii) for so long as any Class E Certificates, Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities are listed on the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of redemption of Securities pursuant to Section 9.2 shall also be given to the Administrator for forwarding to the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange.

(b) All notices of redemption delivered pursuant to Section 9.3(a) shall state:

- (i) the applicable Redemption Date;

Any such notice of redemption may be withdrawn by the Issuer up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates), the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager only if:

- (A) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a), the Portfolio Manager does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications (described in Section 9.3(c) and 12.1(f)), as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee,

Notice of any withdrawal shall be sent, not later than the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date (assuming that the Trustee has received timely written notice from the Issuer as provided above), by the Trustee, to each Holder of Notes scheduled to be redeemed at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery (or, to the extent the address contained in the Indenture Register is not sufficient for that purpose, by first class mail) and the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Class E Certificates). If the Issuer so withdraws any notice of redemption or is otherwise unable to complete any redemption of the Notes, the Sale Proceeds received from the sale of any Collateral Obligations sold pursuant to Sections 9.2 and 12.1(f) may, during the Reinvestment Period (and, in respect of Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, after the Reinvestment Period) at the Portfolio Manager's discretion, be reinvested in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria.

Notice of redemption shall be given by the Co-Issuers or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note selected for redemption or the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Class E Certificates) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Notes or Class E Certificates.

(c) The Notes may not be redeemed pursuant to Section 9.2(a) unless either of the following conditions are satisfied:

(ii) Before entering into any binding agreement to sell all or a portion of the Collateral and selling or terminating any Hedge Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall have certified that, in its commercially reasonable judgment, the settlement dates of the sales will be scheduled to occur on or before the Business Day before the Redemption Date and that the expected proceeds from the sales are to be delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date, in immediately available funds, in an amount (calculated as applicable in the manner provided below) sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties, and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices. (b) If any Note called for redemption is not paid on its surrender for redemption, its principal shall bear interest from the Redemption Date at the Applicable Note Interest Rate for each successive Interest Period the Note remains Outstanding if the reason for the non-payment is not the fault of the Holder of the Note.

Section 9.5. Special Redemption.

Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in whole or in part, at par, in accordance with the Priority of Payments if, at any time during the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager elects (subject to the Management Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the investment or reinvestment of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be invested in additional Collateral Obligations (a "Special Redemption").

Notice of payments pursuant to this Section 9.5

Section 9.6. Amendment Buy-Out.

(a) In the case of any supplemental indenture pursuant to Section 8.2 that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Securities held by such Holders of the Class of Securities whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price. If the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Securities of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of its Securities hereunder, each Holder of Securities agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser; provided that if the solicited consent to a supplemental indenture only applies to one Class Q-1 Component, the Non-consenting Holder will be required to sell, at the Non-consenting Holder's option, its Class Q-1 Security as a whole or solely the affected Class Q-1 Component; provided, further that in the case of the Class P Securities of Non-consenting Holders, such Class P Securities will be deemed exchanged for their respective Components, only the Class E Certificates represented by the related Class E Certificate Component must be sold to an Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser for a price equal to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price, which will be distributed to such Non-consenting Holders, and such Non-Consenting Holders will receive a distribution in kind of the related pro rata amount of the Class P U.S. Treasury Component. In the case of the Class A-1 Notes, if an Amendment Buy-Out occurs on a day (the "Amendment Buy-Out Trade Date") other than a Payment Date, the settlement of such Amendment Buy-Out will be deferred until the next following Payment Date (and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Non-Consenting Holder will be entitled to any payments received on such Payment Date and the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price will be calculated as of such Payment Date); provided that all other rights of a Holder or Beneficial Owner of such securities will be deemed transferred to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser as of the Amendment Buy-Out Trade Date. Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or beneficial owner of Notes or Class E Certificates as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option.

(b) All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Indenture Securities or Class E Certificates set forth herein (and in the case of the Class A-1A Notes, the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement and in the case of the Class A-1B Notes, the Class A-1B Note Purchase Agreement, as applicable) and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency). For the avoidance of doubt, any Amendment Buy-out of Class A-1A Notes shall include the related Commitment thereunder and any Amendment Buy-out of Class A-1B Notes shall include the related obligation to fund the Fully Drawn Amount.

Section 9.7. Prepayments of Class A-1A Notes.

(a) During the Reinvestment Period, the Class A-1A Notes may be prepaid without premium on any Business Day (in whole or in part) at the option of the Issuer (at the direction of the Portfolio Manager acting pursuant to the Management Agreement) from (i) Principal Proceeds otherwise available for reinvestment in Collateral Obligations pursuant to the terms hereof or (ii) amounts credited to the Revolving Reserve Account so long as, after giving effect thereto, the aggregate Balance of all Eligible Investments credited to the Revolving Reserve Account will be at least equal to the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount. Furthermore, any amounts repaid may be reborrowed until the Commitment Termination Date.

(b) Any Prepayment shall be made pro rata according to the Drawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes.

(c) The Issuer will duly and punctually perform each of its obligations under the Note Purchase Agreement.

(d) Subject to the requirement that the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Eligible Investments standing to the credit of the Revolving Reserve Account is at least equal to the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount, the Commitments in respect of the Class A-1A Notes will reduce automatically to the extent that principal is paid on the Class A-1A Notes as the result of a Mandatory Redemption or Special Redemption. Any such reduction will be final.

(c) During the Reinvestment Period (or, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, after the Reinvestment Period), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of the Issuer Order the Trustee shall withdraw funds on deposit in the Collection Account representing Principal Proceeds (and, to the extent expressly provided in this Indenture, Interest Proceeds) and reinvest (or invest, in the case of funds referred to in Section 7.18) the funds in Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral into the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security), or use such Principal Proceeds to make Prepayments on the Class A-1A Notes in accordance with Section 9.7, in each case in accordance with the requirements of Article 12 and the Issuer Order.

(e) The Trustee shall transfer to the Payment Account from the Collection Account for application pursuant to Section 11.1(a) on or not later than the Business Day preceding each Payment Date, the amount set forth to be so transferred in the Valuation Report for the Payment Date.

Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated trust account that shall be designated as the Custodial Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal, and into which the Trustee shall deposit the Collateral Obligations and other Collateral not deposited elsewhere in accordance with this Indenture (other than Loans, Participations and general intangibles, which in the case of Loans and Participations, shall be held by the Trustee as provided in Section 3.2). All assets or securities at any time on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Custodial Account shall be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties and any funds in the Custodial Account, if invested, shall be invested in Eligible Investments. The only permitted withdrawals from the Custodial Account shall be in accordance with this Indenture. The Co-Issuers shall not have any legal, equitable, or beneficial interest in the Custodial Account other than in accordance with Section 3.2 and the Priority of Payments.

(b) Revolving Reserve Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account which shall be designated as the Revolving Reserve Account which shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. Such Principal Proceeds so deposited shall be considered part of the Purchase Price of the related Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan for purposes of Article 12. All principal payments received on any Revolving Loan (except to the extent of any concurrent commitment reduction) will be deposited within two Business Days directly into the Revolving Reserve Account (and will not be available for distribution as Principal Proceeds) to the extent required to maintain the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount (including with respect to the amount of such principal payments that may be re-borrowed under such Revolving Loan). Amounts on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account shall be reinvested pursuant to Section 10.4(b). All interest and other income from amounts in the Revolving Reserve Account deposited to the Collection Account pursuant to Section 10.4(b) shall be considered Interest Proceeds in the Due Period in which they are so deposited. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period, the Trustee shall withdraw funds from the Revolving Reserve Account to fund extensions of credit pursuant to Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans, respectively. Upon the sale, maturity or termination of a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan in whole or in part or the reduction in part or termination of the Issuer's commitment thereunder, any funds in the Revolving Reserve Account in excess of the amount needed to maintain the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount shall be transferred from time to time by the Trustee (upon the direction of the Portfolio Manager) to the Collection Account and treated as Principal Proceeds.

(c) Expense Reimbursement Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Expense Reimbursement Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. On any Payment Date and on any date between Payment Dates, the Trustee will apply amounts, if any, in the Expense Reimbursement Account to the payment of expenses and fees that must be paid between Payment Dates or that are due on that Payment Date under Section 11.1(a)(i)(1) and the Trustee shall on any Payment Date other than on the final redemption date of the Class E Certificates transfer to the Expense Reimbursement Account an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Administrative Expense Cap over the amounts due under Section 11.1(a)(i)(1) to the Expense Reimbursement Account in accordance with Section 11.1(a)(i)(2). Funds in the Expense Reimbursement Account shall be invested in accordance with Section 10.4(a). Not later than 3 Business Days after such notice, the Class P-2 Securityholders representing a Majority of the Class P-2 Securities may instruct the Trustee of a face amount of the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component to liquidate (the “Class P-2 Optional Accelerated Payment Notional Amount”, which amount shall not exceed the applicable Class P-2 Accelerated Payment Notional Amount) and the minimum acceptable liquidation value. Not later than 2 Business Days after such direction, the Trustee shall liquidate, on behalf of the Class P-2 Securityholders, a portion of the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component with a face amount equal to the Class P-2 Optional Accelerated Payment Notional Amount at the then-prevailing Class P U.S. Treasury Bid (such sale proceeds less any transaction costs, the “Class P-2 Optional Accelerated Payment”); provided, that the liquidation value at such Class P U.S. Treasury Bid is equal to or higher than the minimum acceptable liquidation value provided by the Class P-2 Securityholders. If no such direction is given by the Class P-2 Securityholders representing a Majority of the Class P-2 Securities or if the then-prevailing Class P U.S. Treasury Bid would result in a liquidation value that is lower than the minimum acceptable liquidation value provided by the Class P-2 Securityholders, the Trustee shall not liquidate any portion of the Class P-2 U.S. Treasury Component. In addition, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf) shall within 5 Business Days of its receipt (or within 5 Business Days after such later date as such asset may first be sold in accordance with its terms and applicable law), sell any Tax Affected Security or transfer such Tax Affected Security to a subsidiary the sole assets of which consist of, and the sole activity of which is the acquisition and ownership of, Tax Affected Securities. If the Issuer sells any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset during the Reinvestment Period, the proceeds shall be reinvested in accordance with Section 12.2.

(a) Credit Risk Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Risk Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Risk Obligation in accordance with such direction. Following any sale of a Credit Risk Obligation pursuant to this Section 12.1(a) during the Reinvestment Period, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase in compliance with Section 12.2 additional Collateral Obligations (to the extent the purchase is in the best interest of the Issuer) with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Sale Proceeds received by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral Obligation sold. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount.

(b) Credit Improved Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Improved Obligation if either:

(i) during the Reinvestment Period, (x) the Portfolio Manager believes before the sale that it will be able to cause the Issuer to reinvest its Sale Proceeds, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria, in one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Credit Improved Obligation by the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest shall be its outstanding principal amount) or (y) the Portfolio Manager intends to use the Sale Proceeds to make Prepayments on the Class A-1A Notes; or

(c) Non-Performing Collateral Obligations and Current-Pay Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Current-Pay Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Current-Pay Obligation in accordance with such direction. Non-Performing Collateral Obligations may be sold regardless of price; provided that, the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation purchased with proceeds of any Current-Pay Obligation shall equal or exceed the Principal Balance of such Current-Pay Obligation that was sold.

(d) Non-qualifying Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell that obligation in accordance with such direction.

At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation subject to withholding tax at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction.

(f) Optional Redemption. After the Issuer has notified the Trustee of an Optional Redemption of the Notes in accordance with Article 9, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all or a portion of the Collateral Obligations as contemplated therein if (i) the requirements of Article 9 are satisfied and (ii) the Independent certified public accountants appointed pursuant to Section 10.8 have confirmed the calculations contained in any required certificate furnished by the Portfolio Manager pursuant to Section 9.3(c). After a Majority of the Class E Certificates have directed an Optional Redemption of the Class E Certificates in accordance with Section 9.2(b), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all of the remaining Collateral Obligations (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(i)) or all or a portion of the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous directions of Holders of the Class E Certificates (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii)) and the Trustee shall sell the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

(g) Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Portfolio Manager has received notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm the Initial Ratings of the Notes, the Issuer may, if so directed by the Portfolio Manager in the Portfolio Manager's sole discretion, direct the Trustee to sell Collateral Obligations as contemplated in Section 9.1 and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

(h) Discretionary Sales. In addition to sales permitted under the foregoing clauses, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation, at any time during the Reinvestment Period:

(i) at any time on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without regard to any restriction specified in clause (ii) below); and

(ii) at any time after the Ramp-Up Completion Date if:

(A) after giving effect to the sale and the sale of any other Collateral Obligations whose sale is pending, the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations sold pursuant to this Section 12.1(h)(ii) in any calendar year (in each case determined as of the date the direction to sell is given) is not greater than 20% of the Maximum Investment Amount as of January 1 of such calendar year (or, for the first calendar year, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date); and

(B) (x) the Portfolio Manager believes before the sale that it will be able to cause the Issuer within 30 days thereafter to reinvest or commit to reinvest its Sale Proceeds, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria, in one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to (i) as long as the Class C Overcollateralization Test is satisfied, the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Collateral Obligation and (ii) if the Class C Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the Aggregate Principal Balance of the sold Collateral Obligation (for the purpose of both (B)(i) and (B)(ii), the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest shall be its outstanding principal amount) or (y) the Portfolio Manager intends to use the Sale Proceeds to make Prepayments on the Class A-1A Notes; and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction. However, if the rating by Moody's of any of the Class A-1A Notes, the Class A-1B Notes, Class A-1C Notes, Class A-2 Notes, Class A-3 Notes or the Class A-4 Notes is one or more rating sub-categories below the Initial Rating of the Class A-1A Notes, the Class A-1B Notes, Class A-1C Notes, Class A-2 Notes, Class A-3 Notes or the Class A-4 Notes or has been withdrawn or the rating by Moody's of the Class B Notes or the Class C Notes is two or more rating sub-categories below the Initial Rating of the Class B Notes or the Class C Notes or has been withdrawn, the Issuer shall not instruct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligations pursuant to this Section 12.1(h). This restriction may be waived by written consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class. For the purposes of this subsection (h), any withdrawal or reduction in rating shall not restrict the sale of any Collateral Obligations pursuant to this subsection (h) if after the withdrawal or reduction Moody's has upgraded the reduced or withdrawn rating to at least the Initial Rating in the case of the Class A-1A Notes, the Class A-1B Notes, Class A-1C Notes, Class A-2 Notes, Class A-3 Notes and the Class A-4 Notes or to only one subcategory below their Initial Rating in the case of the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes.

For the purposes of determining the percentage of Collateral Obligations sold during any period in Section 12.1(h)(ii)(A):

(i) the amount of any Collateral Obligation sold shall be reduced:

(A) to the extent of any purchases of Collateral Obligations of the same obligor (that are pari passu with the sold Collateral Obligation) occurring within 30 Business Days of the sale (determined based on the date of any relevant trade confirmation or commitment letter) (but only for so long as (x) the Collateral Obligations purchased have not been downgraded by any of the Rating Agencies during the 30 Business Day period, (y) the Collateral Obligations have not been purchased from the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates acting, in each case, as principal or from any funds or accounts advised or managed by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, and (z) the purchase price of each purchased Collateral Obligation must not exceed the sale price of the sold Collateral Obligation), and

(B) to the extent of any purchases of Collateral Obligations permitted pursuant to Section 12.2(c); and

(ii) any Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index investment providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time that is invested into a substantially similar Synthetic Security but with a later maturity shall be treated as having been sold.

Class	Junior Classes	Priority Classes
Class A-1A	A-2, A-3, A-4, B, C, Class E Certificates	None
Class A-1B	A-2, A-3, A-4, B, C, Class E Certificates	None
Class A-1C	A-2, A-3, A-4, B, C, Class E Certificates	None
Class A-2	A-3, A-4, B, C, Class E Certificates	A-1A, A-1B, A-1C
Class A-3	A-4, B, C, Class E Certificates	A-1A, A-1B, A-1C, A-2
Class A-4	B, C, Class E Certificates	A-1A, A-1B, A-1C, A-2, A-3

Class C	Class E Certificates	A-1A, A-1B, A-1C, A-2, A-3, A-4, B
Class E Certificates	None*	A-1A, A-1B, A-1C, A-2, A-3, A-4, B, C

* The Class E Certificates will be entitled to certain residual cashflow after payment of senior obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

(b) Anything in this Indenture or the Notes to the contrary notwithstanding, the Holders of each Class of Notes that is a Junior Class agree for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class that the Junior Class shall be subordinate and junior to the Notes of each Priority Class to the extent and in the manner provided in this Indenture. If any Event of Default has not been cured or waived and acceleration occurs and is continuing in accordance with Article 5, each Priority Class of Notes shall be paid in full in Cash or, to the extent a Majority of the Class consents, other than in Cash, before any further payment or distribution is made on account of any Junior Class of Notes with respect to the Priority Class. The Holders of each Junior Class of Notes agree, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class in respect of the Junior Class, not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for failure to pay to them amounts due to the Junior Class, of the Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, or under this Indenture until the payment in full of the Priority Classes or all the Classes, as the case may be, and not before one year and a day, or if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect and a day, has elapsed since the payment in full of all Notes issued under the Indenture.

(c) If, notwithstanding the provisions of this Indenture, any Holder of Notes of any Junior Class has received any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes contrary to the provisions of this Indenture, then, until each Priority Class with respect to such Junior Class of Notes has been paid in full in Cash or, to the extent a Majority of the Priority Class consents, other than in Cash in accordance with this Indenture, the payment or distribution shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of, and shall forthwith be paid over and delivered to, the Trustee, which shall pay and deliver the same to the Holders of the applicable Priority Classes of Notes in accordance with this Indenture. If any such payment or distribution is made other than in Cash, it shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and subject in all respects to this Indenture, including this Section 13.1.

(d) Each Holder of Notes of any Junior Class agrees with all Holders of the applicable Priority Classes that the Holder of a Junior Class of Notes shall not demand, accept, or receive any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes in violation of this Indenture including this Section 13.1. After a Priority Class has been paid in full, the Holders of the Notes of the related Junior Class or Classes shall be fully subrogated to the rights of the Holders of the Priority Class. Nothing in this Section 13.1 shall affect the obligation of the Issuer to pay Holders of any Junior Class of Notes.

(e) Distributions to Holders of the Class E Certificates are subordinate to distributions on the Notes as described in the Priority of Payments.

(f) The Management Fees shall have priority only to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments.

Section 13.2. Standard of Conduct.

In exercising any of its or their voting rights, rights to direct and consent, or any other rights as a Noteholder under this Indenture, a Noteholder shall not have any obligation or duty to any person or to consider or take into account the interests of any person and shall not be liable to any person for any action taken by it or them or at its or their direction or any failure by it or them to act or to direct that an action be taken, without regard to whether the action or inaction benefits or adversely affects any Noteholder, the Issuer, or any other person, except for any liability to which the Noteholder may be subject to the extent the same results from the Noteholders taking or directing an action, or failing to take or direct an action, in bad faith or in violation of the express terms of this Indenture.

Section 13.3. Class A-1 Funding Allocations.

(a) In the event that the Class A-1 Notes are to be redeemed pursuant to the Priority of Payments, including by reason of (i) the failure of a Coverage Test to be satisfied on any date of determination or as contemplated by clause (9), (11) or (14) of Section 11.1(a)(i), (ii) in connection with a Rating Confirmation Failure as contemplated by clause (16) of Section 11.1(a)(i) or clause (4) of Section 11.1(a)(ii), or (iii) in connection with a Special Redemption as contemplated by clause (5) of Section 11.1(a)(ii), the aggregate amount required to be applied to the Class A-1A Notes (the “Aggregate Principal Reduction Amount”) shall be applied as follows: (1) the Aggregate Commitment Amount shall be reduced (but not below zero) by an amount equal to (i) the Aggregate Principal Reduction Amount multiplied by (ii) the Aggregate Commitment Amount in effect on the Closing Date divided by (iii) the sum of the Aggregate Commitment Amount in effect on the Closing Date plus the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1C Notes as of the Closing Date plus the Fully Drawn Amount of the Class A-1B Notes (such portion of the Aggregate Principal Reduction Amount, the “Class A-1A Principal Reduction Amount”) and the Class A-1A Principal Reduction Amount shall be applied to repay any Drawn Amount on the Class A-1A Notes (with any remaining portion of the Class A-1A Principal Reduction Amount deposited in the Revolving Reserve Account); and (2) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-

1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes shall be prepaid (but not below zero) in an amount equal to their respective pro rata shares (based on the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes) of (i) the Aggregate Principal Reduction Amount multiplied by (ii) the sum of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1C Notes as of the Closing Date and the Fully Drawn Amount of the Class A-1B Notes divided by (iii) the sum of the Aggregate Commitment Amount in effect on the Closing Date plus the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1C Notes as of the Closing Date plus the Fully Drawn Amount of the Class A-1B Notes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount after giving effect to any application described in clause (1) above exceeds the amount on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account any repayment of the Drawn Amount of the Class A-1A Notes and reduction in the Aggregate Commitment Amount will be reduced by an amount that if deposited in the Revolving Reserve Account would cause the aggregate balance of all Eligible Investments credited to the Revolving Reserve Account to equal the Revolver Funding Reserve Amount. Any amount that would have otherwise been applied to prepay the Class A-1A Notes but for such reduction will be deposited into the Revolving Reserve Account in order to satisfy such funding requirement.

(b) The Issuer will apply any advances under the Class A-1A Notes made pursuant to Section 2.3(c) of the Class A-1A Note Purchase Agreement to repay principal of the Class A-1B Notes and the Class A-1C Notes, pro rata based on their respective Aggregate Outstanding Amounts, independent of the Priority of Payments. Such payments will be deemed to occur prior to any other principal payments on any date pursuant to the Priority of Payments.

ARTICLE 14 MISCELLANEOUS

Section 14.1. Form of Documents Delivered to Trustee.

In any case where several matters are required to be certified by, or covered by an opinion of, any specified person, it is not necessary that all the matters be certified by, or covered by the opinion of, only one person, or that they be so certified or covered by only one document, but one such person may certify or give an opinion with respect to some matters and one or more other such persons as to other matters, and any such person may certify or give an opinion as to the matters in one or several documents.

Any certificate or opinion of an Officer of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager may be based, insofar as it relates to legal matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, counsel, unless the Officer knows, or should know that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to the matters upon which his certificate or opinion is based are erroneous. Any such certificate of an Officer of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Portfolio Manager or Opinion of Counsel may be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, or any other person, stating that the information with respect to the factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, or the other person, unless the Officer of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Portfolio Manager or the counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to factual matters are erroneous. Any Opinion of Counsel may also be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, an Officer of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, stating that the information with respect to factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, unless the counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to factual matters are erroneous.

Where any person is required to make, give, or execute two or more applications, requests, consents, certificates, statements, opinions, or other instruments under this Indenture, they may, but need not, be consolidated and form one instrument.

Whenever this Indenture provides that the absence of the continuation of a Default or Event of Default is a condition precedent to the taking of any action by the Trustee at the request or direction of either Co-Issuer, then notwithstanding that the satisfaction of the condition is a condition precedent to the Co-Issuer's right to make the request or direction, the Trustee shall be protected in acting in accordance with the request or direction if it does not have knowledge of the continuation of the Default or Event of Default as provided in Section 6.1(d).

Section 14.2. Acts of Noteholders or Holders of Class E Certificates.

(a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver, or other action provided by this Indenture to be given or taken by Noteholders or Holders of Class E Certificates may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments (which may be an electronic document, including but not limited to in the form of e-mail, to the extent permitted by applicable law) of substantially similar tenor signed by Noteholders or Holders of Class E Certificates in person or by agents duly appointed in writing (provided that no signature shall be required on electronic documents, including but not limited to in the form of e-mail). Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture the action shall become effective when the instruments are delivered to the Trustee (which instrument or instruments may be delivered through the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, in the case of the Holders of the Class E Certificates) and, if expressly required, to the Issuer. The instruments (and the action embodied in them) are referred to as the "Act" of the Noteholders or the Holders of Class E Certificates signing the instruments. Proof of execution of any instrument or of a writing appointing an agent for a Noteholder or Holder of a Class E Certificate shall be sufficient for any purpose of this Indenture and conclusive in favor of the Trustee and the Issuer, if made in the manner provided in this Section 14.2.

(b) The fact and date of the execution by any person of any instrument may be proved by an affidavit of a witness to the execution or the certificate of any notary public or other person authorized by law to acknowledge the execution of deeds. Any certificate on behalf of a jural entity executed by a person purporting to have authority to act on behalf of the jural entity shall itself be sufficient proof of the authority of the person executing it to act. The fact and date of the execution by any person of any instrument may also be proved in any other manner that the Trustee deems sufficient.

(c) The Indenture Register shall prove the ownership of Indenture Securities and the principal amount and registered numbers of Indenture Securities and the number of Class E Certificates held by and the number(s) of the Class E Certificate certificate(s) issued to, any Person shall be proved by the Class E Certificate register.

(d) Any Act by the Holder of a Note shall bind every Holder of the same Note and every Note issued on its transfer or in exchange for it or in lieu of it, in respect of anything done, omitted, or suffered to be done by the Trustee or the Issuer in reliance on the Act, whether or not notation of the action is made on the Note or Class E Certificates.

Section 14.3. Notices, etc., to Certain Persons or Parties.

(a) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture, where this Indenture provides for notice to the Noteholders or the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Class E Certificates) of any event,

(i) the notice shall be sufficiently given to the Noteholders or the Class E Certificates Paying Agent if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, each Noteholder affected by the event or the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, at the address of the Holder as it appears in the Indenture Register or at the address of the Class E Certificates Paying Agent supplied by the Class E Certificates Paying Agent supplied by the Class E Certificates Paying Agent to the Trustee, as applicable, not earlier than the earliest date and not later than the latest date, prescribed for the giving of the notice; provided, that, in addition, so long as any of the Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of such stock exchange so require, notice to the Noteholders shall also be given in the Irish Stock Exchange's Daily

Official List by the Trustee forwarding all notices to the Irish Paying and Listing Agent for publication;

If it is impracticable to give the notice by mail of any event to Noteholders or the Class E Certificates Paying Agent when the notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Indenture because of the suspension of regular mail service as a result of a strike, work stoppage, or similar activity or because of any other cause, then the notification to Noteholders or the Class E Certificates Paying Agent as shall be made with the approval of the Trustee shall be a sufficient notification to the Holders for every purpose under this Indenture.

(a) THIS INDENTURE AND THE INDENTURE SECURITIES (EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO ANY CLASS E CERTIFICATE COMPONENT) SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO ITS PROVISIONS THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

Section 14.11. Submission to Jurisdiction.

The Co-Issuers and the Trustee hereby irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Notes, the Class E Certificates or this Indenture, and the Co-Issuers and the Trustee hereby irrevocably agree that all claims in respect of the action or proceeding may be heard and determined in the New York State or federal court. The Co-Issuers and the Trustee hereby irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent that they may legally do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of the action or proceeding. The Co-Issuers and the Trustee irrevocably consent to the service of all process in any action or proceeding by the mailing or delivery of copies of the process to the Co-Issuers at the office of the Co-Issuers' agent in Section 7.2 and to the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office. The Co-Issuers and the Trustee agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

Section 14.12. Counterparts.

This Indenture may be executed in any number of copies, and by the different parties on the same or separate counterparts, each of which shall be considered to be an original instrument.

Section 14.13. Acts of Issuer.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver, or other action provided by this Indenture to be given or performed by the Issuer shall be effective if given or performed by the Issuer or by the Portfolio Manager on the Issuer's behalf.

Section 14.14. Consent to Posting of Documents on Repository

The Issuer hereby consents to (a) the posting of the final Offering Memorandum, this Indenture and the periodic reports to be delivered pursuant to the transaction documents and any amendments or other modifications thereto on the Repository for use in the manner provided in the Repository; and (b) the display of its name on the Repository in connection therewith. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, none of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Trustee makes any representation or warranty to The Bond Market Association (or any successor thereto) or any affiliate thereof or any Person having or obtaining access to the information maintained in the Repository or to any of such Person's affiliates regarding the accuracy or completeness of any information, document, report or other communication transmitted to the Repository, and no Person having or obtaining access to the information maintained in the Repository shall have any rights under this Indenture or otherwise by reason of the transmission of any such information, document, report or other communication to the Repository.

Section 14.15. Liability of Co-Issuers.

Notwithstanding any other terms of this Indenture, the Notes, or any other agreement entered into by either the Co-Issuers or otherwise, neither of the Co-Issuers shall have any liability whatsoever to the other Co-Issuers under this Indenture, the Notes, any other agreement, or otherwise. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, neither of the Co-Issuers may take any action to enforce, or bring any action or proceeding, in respect of this Indenture, the Notes, any other agreement, or otherwise against the other of the Co-Issuers. In particular, neither of the Co-Issuers may petition or take any other steps for the winding up or bankruptcy of the other of the Co-Issuers and neither of the Co-Issuers shall have any claim with respect to any assets of the other of the Co-Issuers.

Section 14.16. Indemnity of Co-Issuer.

The Issuer agrees to indemnify the Co-Issuer for any payments that may become due from the Co-Issuer under Article 11 with respect to any Notes issued under this Indenture and any administrative, legal or other costs incurred by the Co-Issuer in connection with those payments.

ARTICLE 15

ASSIGNMENT OF MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT; HEDGE AGREEMENTS

Section 15.1. Assignment of Management Agreement.

(a) The Issuer, in furtherance of the covenants of this Indenture and as security for the Notes and amounts payable to the Secured Parties under this Indenture and the performance and observance of the provisions of this Indenture, acknowledges that its Grant pursuant to the first Granting Clause includes all of the Issuer's interest in the Management Agreement, including:

- (i) the right to give all notices, consents, and releases under it,
- (ii) the right to give all notices of termination pursuant to the Management Agreement and to take any legal action upon the breach of an obligation of the Portfolio Manager under it, including the commencement, conduct, and consummation of proceedings at law or in equity,
- (iii) the right to receive all notices, accountings, consents, releases, and statements under it, and
- (iv) the right to do all other things whatsoever that the Issuer is or may be entitled to do under it.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, the Trustee may not exercise any of the rights in (i) through (iv) above or that may otherwise arise as a result of the Grant until the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Indenture and the authority shall terminate when the Event of Default is cured or waived.

(b) The assignment made hereby is executed as security, and the execution and delivery hereby shall not in any way impair or diminish the obligations of the Issuer under the Management Agreement, nor shall any of the obligations contained in the Management Agreement be imposed on the Trustee.

(c) Upon the retirement of the Notes and the release of the Collateral from the lien of this Indenture, this assignment, and all rights in this Indenture assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders shall cease and terminate and all the interest of the Trustee in the Management Agreement shall revert to the Issuer and no further instrument or act shall be necessary to evidence the termination and reversion.

(d) The Issuer represents that the Issuer has not executed any other assignment of the Management Agreement.

(e) The Issuer agrees that this assignment is irrevocable, and that it shall not take any action that is inconsistent with this assignment or make any other assignment inconsistent herewith.

The Issuer shall, from time to time upon the request of the Trustee, execute all instruments of further assurance and all such supplemental instruments with respect to this assignment as the Trustee may reasonably request.

(f) The Issuer agrees to obtain the agreement and consent of the Portfolio Manager in the Management Agreement to the following:

(i) The Portfolio Manager consents to this collateral assignment and agrees to perform any provisions of this Indenture made expressly applicable to the Portfolio Manager pursuant to the Management Agreement.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager acknowledges that the Issuer is collaterally assigning all of its interest in the Management Agreement to the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties and the Portfolio Manager agrees that all of the representations, covenants and agreements made by the Portfolio Manager in the Management Agreement are also for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

(iii) The Portfolio Manager shall deliver to the Trustee duplicate original copies of all notices, statements, communications, and instruments delivered or required to be delivered to the Issuer pursuant to the Management Agreement (other than any of them delivered to the Issuer by the Trustee or the Collateral Administrator).

(iv) The Issuer shall appoint a successor manager at the direction of a Super Majority of the Class E Certificates (excluding any Class E Certificates held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority) only if (a) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency with respect thereto is satisfied, (b) such successor has agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to the Management Agreement, this Indenture and the Collateral Administration Agreement, (c) the written consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class for such appointment has been received and (d) such successor portfolio manager is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single Class (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority)); provided that if two or more successor managers have been so nominated but have not been so appointed by the Issuer within 30 days of the date of notice of removal, termination or resignation of the Portfolio Manager, then the Issuer shall appoint a successor manager at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class only if (a) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency with respect thereto is satisfied, (b) such successor has agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to the Management Agreement and the Indenture and (c) such successor portfolio manager is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) the Majority of the Class E Certificates (excluding any Class E Certificates held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority) or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single Class (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority)).

(v) Neither the Issuer nor the Portfolio Manager shall enter into any agreement amending or modifying the Management Agreement (other than an amendment or modification of the type that may be made to this Indenture without Holder consent) (a) without satisfying the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency with respect thereto and (b) if a Majority of the Controlling Class or a Majority of the Class E Certificates have objected in writing to such amendment or modification within 30 days of notice thereof.

(vi) Except as otherwise provided in this Indenture and the Management Agreement, subject to the resignation rights of the Portfolio Manager pursuant to Section 12 of the Management Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall continue to serve as Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement notwithstanding that the Portfolio Manager shall not have received amounts due it under the Management Agreement because sufficient funds were not then available under this Indenture to pay the amounts pursuant to the Priority of Payments. The Portfolio Manager agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer for the nonpayment of the fees or other amounts payable by the Administrative Agent to the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement until the payment in full of all Notes issued under this Indenture and the payment to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent of all amounts payable with respect to the Class E Certificates in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the expiration of a period equal to the greater of (A) the applicable preference period plus one day or (B) one year and one day following the payment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager may commence any legal action that is not a bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, or similar proceeding against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of its properties and may take any action it deems appropriate at any time in any bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, or similar proceeding and any other Proceeding voluntarily commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or involuntarily commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer by anyone other than the Portfolio Manager or any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager.

(vii) The Portfolio Manager irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Notes, the Class E Certificates or this Indenture, and the Portfolio Manager irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of the action or proceeding may be heard and determined in the New York State or federal court. The Portfolio Manager irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may legally do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of the action or proceeding. The Portfolio Manager irrevocably consents to the service of all process in any action or Proceeding by the mailing or delivery of copies of the process to it the address provided for in Section 14.3. The Portfolio Manager agrees that a final and non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

(g) Following the resignation or removal of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall use its best efforts to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager, and the Issuer, the Trustee, and the resigning or removed Portfolio Manager shall take any action consistent with the Management Agreement and this Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, necessary to effectuate any such succession.

Section 15.2. Hedge Agreements.

(a) At any time and from time to time after the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, shall enter into the Hedge Agreements and shall assign its rights (but none of its obligations) under the Hedge Agreements to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture and the Collateral Assignment of Hedge Agreements. The Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall obtain the approval of each new Hedge Agreement from each Hedge Counterparty to a then-existing Hedge Agreement. The Trustee shall, on behalf of the Issuer and in accordance with the Valuation Report, pay amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements on any Payment Date in accordance with Section 11.1.

(b) The Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless at the time of entering the Hedge Agreement the Hedge Counterparty has:

(i) a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "Aa3" (which rating of "Aa3" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) or higher if the Hedge Counterparty has only a long-term rating; or a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "A1" (which rating of "A1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) or higher and a debt rating by Moody's for short-term debt of "P-1" (which rating of "P-1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) if the Hedge Counterparty has both long-term and short-term ratings; and

(ii) a short-term debt rating by S&P of not less than "A-1" or a long-term debt rating of not less than "A+" (the "Required Rating").

(c) If at any time a Hedge Counterparty has:

(A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating and that rating is below "Aa3" or is "Aa3" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's; or

(B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:

(i) the long-term Moody's rating is below "A1" or that rating is "A1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's, or

(ii) the short-term Moody's rating is below "P-1" or that rating is "P-1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

(i) post collateral with the Trustee to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement, in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's to be satisfied;

(ii) obtain a guarantor whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria;

(iii) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria; or

(iv) take other actions to satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's;

(d) If at any time the Hedge Counterparty has:

(A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating that is "A2" or below or has been suspended or withdrawn;

(B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:

(i) the long-term Moody's rating is "A3" or below or is suspended or withdrawn, or

(ii) the short-term Moody's rating is "P-2" or below, or

(C) a short-term debt rating by S&P below "A-1" or, if the Hedge Counterparty has no short-term rating by S&P, a long-term rating by S&P below "A+" or that has been suspended or withdrawn;

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

(i) post collateral as required by the Hedge Agreement to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's and S&P to be satisfied; or

(ii) (x) obtain a guarantor that has a Required Rating and that will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P with respect to its appointment;

(y) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty that has a Required Rating and the appointment of which will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P; or provided that, if at any time the Hedge Counterparty has a short-term debt rating by S&P below "A-3" or, if the Hedge Counterparty has no short-term rating by S&P, a long-term rating by S&P below "BBB-" or such Hedge Counterparty's rating has been suspended or withdrawn, then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to within 7 days replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty that has a Required Rating and the appointment of which will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P.

(z) take such other actions to satisfy the Ratings Condition;

Whenever a Hedge Agreement is being entered into, the Hedge Counterparty shall comply with the then current rating criteria.

(e) If the Issuer has the right under a Hedge Agreement at any time to demand that the related Hedge Counterparty deliver Eligible Collateral in accordance with an Approved Credit Support Document, the Issuer shall make the demand.

(f) Any payments required to be made under the Hedge Agreements shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Subordinated Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments shall be subordinate to interest and principal payments on the Notes and any other payments required to be made by the Issuer under the Hedge Agreements, but senior to distributions to Holders of the Class E Certificates.

(g) Except as provided in paragraph (h) of this Section 15.2, the Issuer, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, shall, promptly following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) (but no later than 60 days after the early termination), at the expense of the Issuer and to the extent possible through application of Hedge Termination Receipts, enter into a Replacement Hedge, unless, in the exercise of the Portfolio Manager's commercially reasonable judgment, to do so would not be in the best interest of the Issuer and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the non-entry into the a Replacement Hedge. In addition, a Replacement Hedge may not be entered into unless the Issuer provides the Rating Agencies with at least seven Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to enter into the agreement, together with its form and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the Replacement Hedge. The Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than a termination resulting from the bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar event with respect to the Hedge Counterparty) to become effective simultaneously with its entering into a Replacement Hedge. To the extent that (i) the Portfolio Manager determines not to replace the Hedge Agreement and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the determination; or (ii) termination is occurring on a Redemption Date, the Hedge Termination Receipts shall become part of Principal Proceeds and be distributed in accordance with Section 11.1 on the next following Payment Date (or on the Redemption Date, if the Notes are redeemed on the Redemption Date).

(h) Notwithstanding Section 15.2(g), the applicable requirements of Section 15.2(g) shall not have to be met if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is otherwise satisfied with respect thereto.

(i) The notional amounts of the Hedge Agreements outstanding at any time may be reduced or increased from time to time, by the Issuer, and the Hedge Agreements may be amended, modified, or terminated in accordance with the Hedge Agreements if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the reduction, increase, amendment, modification, or termination, as the case may be.

(j) Each Hedge Agreement may be terminated pursuant to its terms upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes or an acceleration of maturity of the Notes after an Event of Default. The Hedge Agreement will not be permitted to be terminated as the result of a Default or Event of Default unless any acceleration of maturity of the Notes resulting from the Event of Default is no longer permitted to be rescinded and liquidation of the Collateral has begun pursuant to this Indenture.

(k) The Issuer shall not enter into a hedge agreement (including any Hedge Agreement) unless (i) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied and (ii) the entry into, performance and termination of such hedge agreement will not subject the Issuer to net income tax in any jurisdiction outside its jurisdiction of incorporation.

Section 15.3. Synthetic Securities.

The Issuer shall not enter into a Synthetic Security Agreement with a Synthetic Security Counterparty unless the terms of such Synthetic Security Agreement provide that, if at any time the Synthetic Security Counterparty does not meet the Synthetic Security Counterparty Ratings Requirement, such Synthetic Security Counterparty shall (at the sole cost and expense of the Synthetic Security Counterparty) take one of the following actions within 30 days following the date on which the Synthetic Security Counterparty fails to meet such Synthetic Security Counterparty Ratings Requirement:

(a) post collateral with the Trustee to secure the Synthetic Security Counterparty's obligations under the Synthetic Security Agreement, in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to S&P to be satisfied; provided that, if the Synthetic Security Counterparty's senior unsecured credit rating by S&P for long-term debt of such Synthetic Security Counterparty are rated below "BBB+" and the senior unsecured, credit rating by S&P for short-term senior debt of such Synthetic Security Counterparty are rated below "A 2" (if such Synthetic Counterparty has a short term rating from Standard & Poor's), the Synthetic Security Counterparty shall obtain or provide a legal opinion addressed to the Issuer and the Trustee acceptable to S&P to the effect that the collateral will be available to the Trustee and the Noteholders in the event of the insolvency of such Synthetic Security Counterparty;

(b) obtain a guarantor whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the Synthetic Security Counterparty Ratings Requirement;

(c) cause an entity who satisfies the Security Counterparty Ratings Requirement to issue in favor of the Issuer a credit support of such Synthetic Security Counterparty's obligations under the related Synthetic Security acceptable in form and substance to the Issuer and that satisfies the Rating Condition;

(d) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Synthetic Security Agreement with a substitute Synthetic Security Counterparty whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the Synthetic Security Counterparty Ratings Requirement; provided that, upon successful consummation of any such substitution and assignment, the related Synthetic Security Counterparty's obligations to post collateral contemplated by clause (a) above shall terminate and Issuer shall release its security interest in, and return to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty, any then posted collateral; or

(e) take other actions to satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P.

If the Synthetic Security Counterparty has taken action pursuant to clause (b) above, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf) shall, in the event that the Synthetic Security Counterparty fails to meet its payment obligations under the Synthetic Security Agreement, demand payment from the guarantor on the day such payment from the Synthetic Security Counterparty is due for the purposes of requiring such guarantor to make payment on such same day.

Diversity Score Calculation

The Diversity Score for the Collateral Obligations is calculated by summing each of the Industry Diversity Scores, which are calculated as follows:

(i) An “Obligor Par Amount” is calculated for each obligor represented in the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) by summing the par amounts of all Collateral Obligations in the Collateral (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) issued by that obligor or any Affiliate of that obligor (other than obligors that the Portfolio Manager reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(ii) An “Average Par Amount” is calculated by summing the Obligor Par Amounts and dividing by the number of obligors represented. For purposes of calculating the number of issuers of the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations), any issuers Affiliated with one another shall be considered one issuer (other than obligors that the Portfolio Manager reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(iii) An “Equivalent Unit Score” is calculated for each obligor represented in the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) by taking the lesser of (A) one and (B) the Obligor Par Amount for the obligor divided by the Average Par Amount. For purposes of calculating the Equivalent Unit Score, any issuers Affiliated with one another shall be considered one issuer (other than obligors that the Portfolio Manager reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(iv) An “Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score” is then calculated for each of the Moody’s industrial classification groups by summing the Equivalent Unit Scores for each obligor in the industry.

(v) An “Industry Diversity Score” is then established by reference to the Diversity Score Table shown below for the related Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score. If any Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score falls between any two the scores then the applicable Industry Diversity Score shall be the lower of the two Industry Diversity Scores in the Diversity Score Table.

Schedule 7

Certain Defined Terms Relating to S&P Rating and Moody's Rating

“Assigned Moody's Rating”: The monitored publicly available rating or the monitored estimated rating expressly assigned to a debt obligation (or facility) by Moody's that addresses the full amount of the principal and interest promised.

“Moody's Default Probability Rating”: With respect to any Collateral Obligation, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (a) with respect to a Moody's Senior Secured Loan:
  - (i) if the Loan's obligor has a corporate family rating from Moody's, such corporate family rating; and
  - (ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's Obligation Rating of such Loan;
  - (iii) if the preceding clauses do not apply, the rating that is one subcategory above the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating;
- (b) with respect to a Moody's Non Senior Secured Loan or a bond, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating of such Collateral Obligation;
- (c) with respect to a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the rating that is one rating subcategory below the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof;
- (d) with respect to a Structured Finance Obligation, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof (or, if the obligation does not have an Assigned Moody's Rating but has a rating by S&P, the rating that is the number of rating subcategories specified by Moody's below such S&P rating); and
- (e) with respect to a Synthetic Security, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Moody's rating or ratings used to determine the Moody's Default Probability Rating are on watch for downgrade or upgrade by Moody's, such rating or ratings will be adjusted down one subcategory (if on watch for downgrade) or up one subcategory (if on watch for upgrade).

“Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating”: With respect to any Collateral Obligation that is a Loan or bond and the obligor thereof, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (a) if the obligor has a senior unsecured obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating;
- (b) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's “Issuer Rating” for the obligor;
- (c) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a subordinated obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, then

- (i) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is at least "B3" (and, if rated "B3," not on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be the rating which is one rating subcategory higher than such Assigned Moody's Rating, or
- (ii) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is less than "B3" (or rated "B3" and on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be such Assigned Moody's Rating;
- (d) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior secured obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, then:
  - (i) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is at least "Caa3" (and, if rated "Caa3," not on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be the rating which is one subcategory below such Assigned Moody's Rating, or
  - (ii) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is less than "Caa3" (or rated "Caa3" and on watch for downgrade), then the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be "C";
- (e) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but such obligor has a corporate family rating from Moody's, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be one rating subcategory below such corporate family rating;
- (f) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior unsecured obligation (other than a bank loan) with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), then the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be:
  - (i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher,
  - (ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower; or
  - (iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating no lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (f)(iii), or clauses (g)(iii) or (h)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;
- (g) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a subordinated obligation (other than a bank loan) with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), the Assigned Moody's Rating shall be deemed to be:
  - (i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower, and the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be determined pursuant to clause (c) above; or

(iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating not lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (g)(iii), or clauses (f)(iii) or (h)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(h) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior secured obligation with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), the Assigned Moody's Rating shall be deemed to be:

(i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower, and the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be determined pursuant to clause (d) above; or

(iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating not lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (h)(iii), or clauses (f)(iii) or (g)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(i) if the preceding clauses do not apply and each of the following clauses (i) through (viii) do apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Caa1":

(i) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings,

(ii) no debt securities or obligations of the obligor are in default,

(iii) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates has defaulted on any debt during the preceding two years,

(iv) the obligor has been in existence for the preceding five years,

(v) the obligor is current on any cumulative dividends,

(vi) the fixed-charge ratio for the obligor exceeds 125% for each of the preceding two fiscal years and for the most recent quarter,

(vii) the obligor had a net profit before tax in the past fiscal year and the most recent quarter, and

(viii) the annual financial statements of such obligor are unqualified and certified by a firm of Independent accountants of international reputation, and quarterly statements are unaudited but signed by a corporate officer;

(j) if the preceding clauses do not apply but each of the following clauses (i) and (ii) do apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Caa3":

(i) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings; and

(ii) no debt security or obligation of such obligor has been in default during the past two years; and

(k) if the preceding clauses do not apply and a debt security or obligation of the obligor has been in default during the past two years, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Ca."

Notwithstanding the foregoing, not more than 10% of the Maximum Investment Amount may consist of Investment Obligations given a Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating based on a rating given by S&P as provided in clauses (f), (g) and (h) above.

"Moody's Obligation Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

(a) With respect to a Moody's Senior Secured Loan:

(i) if it has an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating; or

(ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the rating that is one rating subcategory above the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating; and

(b) With respect to a Moody's Non Senior Secured Loan or a bond:

(i) if it has an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating; or

(ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating; and

(c) With respect to a Synthetic Security or a DIP Loan, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Moody's rating or ratings used to determine the Moody's Obligation Rating are on watch for downgrade or upgrade by Moody's, such rating or ratings will be adjusted down one subcategory (if on watch for downgrade) or up one subcategory (if on watch for upgrade).

“Moody’s Rating”: The Moody’s Default Probability Rating; provided that, with respect to the Collateral Obligations generally, if at any time Moody’s or any successor to it ceases to provide rating services, references to rating categories of Moody’s in this Indenture shall be deemed instead to be references to the equivalent categories of any other nationally recognized investment rating agency selected by the Portfolio Manager, as of the most recent date on which such other rating agency and Moody’s published ratings for the type of security in respect of which such alternative rating agency is used.

“S&P Rating”: With respect to any Collateral Obligation, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following methodology:

(i) If there is an issuer credit rating of the borrower of the Collateral Obligation (the “Borrower”), or the guarantor who unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the Collateral Obligation (the “Guarantor”) by S&P, the most current issuer credit rating for such Borrower or Guarantor;

(ii) (a) if there is not an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation will be one subcategory below such rating; (b) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior unsecured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be such rating; and (c) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a subordinated obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be two subcategories above such rating if such rating is “BBB-” or higher and will be one subcategory above such rating if such rating is “BB+” or lower; or

(iii) if there is neither an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P nor a rating by S&P on an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating may be determined using any one of the methods below:

(A) if an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is publicly rated by Moody’s, then the S&P Rating will be determined in accordance with the methodologies for establishing the Moody’s Default Probability Rating, except that the S&P Rating of such obligation will be (1) one subcategory below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody’s if such security is rated “Baa3” or higher by Moody’s and (2) two subcategories below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody’s if such security is rated “Bal” or lower by Moody’s; provided that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount (which concentration may be increased to 10% upon satisfaction of the Rating Condition with respect to S&P) may be given a S&P Rating based on a rating given by Moody’s as provided in this subclause (a) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable);

(B) if no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody’s, then the Portfolio Manager may apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating estimate, which will be its S&P Rating; or

(C) (1) if such Collateral Obligation (other than a Current-Pay Obligation) is not rated by Moody’s or S&P, no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody’s and if the Portfolio Manager determines in its sole discretion based on information available to it after reasonable inquiry that such Borrower (x) is not subject to any bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings nor in default on any of its obligations (unless the subject of a good faith business dispute), (y) is a legally constituted corporate entity having the minimum legal, financial and operational infrastructure to carry on a definable business, deliver and sell a product or service and report its results in generally accepted accounting terms as verified by a reputable audit firm and (z) is not so vulnerable to adverse business, financial and economic conditions that default in its financial or other obligations is foreseeable in the near term if current operating trends continue, then the S&P Rating will be “B-”; provided that the Portfolio Manager must apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating on such Borrower within 30 days after the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation; provided, further, that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount may be given an S&P Rating based on this subclause (C) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable) or (2) if such Collateral Obligation is a Current-Pay Obligation and is not rated by Moody’s or S&P and no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody’s, then the S&P Rating will be “CCC-”;

provided that if (i) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any positive “credit watch” list by S&P, such rating will be increased by one rating subcategory or (ii) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any negative “credit watch” list by S&P, such rating will be decreased by one rating subcategory.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the S&P Rating shall be (A) the rating assigned thereto by S&P if the rating is public, (B) the rating assigned by S&P if the rating is confidential, but only if all appropriate parties have provided written consent to its disclosure and use, (C) the rating assigned by S&P thereto through an estimated rating or (D) the rating assigned thereto by S&P in connection with the acquisition thereof upon the request of the Portfolio Manager. In the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a PIK Security, Structured Finance Obligation or Synthetic Securities, the S&P Rating may not be determined pursuant to clause (iii)(A) above.

S&P Ratings for entities or obligations relevant hereunder other than Borrowers and Collateral Obligations shall be determined in a corresponding manner.

ARTICLE II

THE CLASS E CERTIFICATES

Section 2.1 Issuance of Class E Certificates. (i) All Class E Certificates initially sold to non-U.S. persons in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S shall each be initially represented by one or more temporary global securities in definitive, fully registered form, substantially in the form of Exhibit A-2, including legends (each a “Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate”). On or after the first Business Day following the 40th day after the later of the Closing Date and the commencement of the offering of the Class E Certificates (the “Exchange Date”), interests in a Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate will be exchangeable for interests in one or more permanent global Class E Certificates in definitive, fully registered form substantially in the form of Exhibit A-3, including legends (each a “Regulation S Global Class E Certificate”, and together with the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate, the “Global Class E Certificates”), upon certification that the beneficial interests in such Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate are owned by persons that are not U.S. persons. The Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificates and Regulation S Global Class E Certificates shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Class E Certificates represented thereby with the Class E Certificate Paying Agent as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depositary for credit to Depositary participants that hold such positions on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, for further credit to the respective accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream, duly executed by the Issuer. The aggregate number of Class E Certificates represented by the Regulation S Global Class E Certificates may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or the Depositary, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided.

The provisions of the “Operating Procedures of the Euroclear System” of Euroclear and the “Terms and Conditions Governing Use of Participants” of Clearstream, respectively, shall be applicable to the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificates and Regulation S Global Class E Certificates insofar as interests in the Global Class E Certificates are held by the Agent Members of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be.

Agent Members shall have no rights under the Class E Certificate Documents with respect to any Global Class E Certificates held on their behalf by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, as custodian for the Depositary and the Depositary may be treated by the Issuer and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and any agent of the Issuer or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent as the absolute owner of such Class E Certificate for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Issuer or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or any agent of the Issuer or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, from giving effect to any written certification, proxy, or other authorization furnished by the Depositary or impair, as between the Depositary and its Agent Members, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a Holder of any Class E Certificates.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding paragraphs of this Section 2.1(i), if (i) the Depositary notifies the Issuer that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for a Global Class E Certificate or ceases to be a "Clearing Agency" registered under the Exchange Act and a successor depository is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days of such notice, (ii) as a result of any amendment to or change in, the laws or regulations of the Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which become effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent becomes aware that it is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Class E Certificate which would not be required if the Global Class E Certificates were in certificated form or (iii) an Event of Default under the Indenture has occurred and is continuing and has not been waived, then the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall execute an agreement with the Issuer amending this Agreement for the purpose of terminating the book entry deposit system and substituting certificated Class E Certificates for Global Class E Certificates. Such agreement shall provide for the form and terms of such certificated Class E Certificates and the place and manner in which a Holders of Class E Certificates may obtain possession of such certificated Class E Certificates; provided, that in no event may holders of beneficial interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificates receive certificated Class E Certificates pursuant to this provision prior to the Exchange Date and each such holder must certify to the Issuer and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent that it is not a U.S. Person. Such agreement shall also provide the procedures for registration of transfer or exchange of such certificated Class E Certificates, as well as such other provisions as the Issuer and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent may agree shall be necessary or appropriate to effect the substitution of certificated Class E Certificates for Global Class E Certificates and to modify the provisions of this Agreement to provide for the use of certificated Class E Certificates in lieu of a book-entry deposit system.

Upon the occurrence of any of the events described in the preceding paragraph, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall notify all Holders of the Global Class E Certificates and shall advise such Holders of the Global Class E Certificates of the procedure by which the Global Class E Certificates shall be exchanged for certificated Class E Certificates. Each beneficial owner of Global Class E Certificates shall be entitled, at no cost to it, to have registered in the name of the beneficial owner of Global Class E Certificates one or more certificated Class E Certificates representing the same aggregate number of Class E Certificates as its beneficial interest in the related Global Class E Certificate. Upon the occurrence of any such event, (i) the Class E Certificate Paying Agent at the expense of the Issuer shall obtain from the Depositary a listing of the Participants then holding Global Class E Certificates on the records of the Depositary and (ii) upon surrender by the Depositary to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent of the Global Class E Certificates, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall cancel such Global Class E Certificates and the Issuers shall execute and deliver to such Participants certificated Class E Certificates representing in the aggregate the identical aggregate number of Class E Certificates in which such Participants held beneficial interests in on the records of the Depositary, registered in such names as such Participants shall have provided to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent; provided, however, that the Class E Certificate Registrar shall not register any such certificated Class E Certificate or and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall not deliver any such certificated Class E Certificate to a Participant unless and until such Participant shall have provided to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent a certification acceptable to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent that such registration instructions were given, and delivery of such certificated Class E Certificate will be made, in accordance with the directions of the beneficial owners of Class E Certificates represented by such Participant. Neither the Issuer nor the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be liable for any delay in delivery of such registration instructions by any Participant and each of them may conclusively rely on, and shall be protected in relying on, (i) information contained in the Participant listing provided by the Depositary regarding the names of the Participants holding beneficial interests in the Global Class E Certificates and the aggregate number of Class E Certificates represented by the beneficial interests in the Global Class E Certificates held by each such Participant, and (ii) the foregoing registration instructions and certifications provided by each such Participant with respect to certificated Class E Certificates representing the same aggregate number of certificated Class E Certificates as the beneficial interests in the Global Class E Certificates stated to be held by such Participant in such Participant listing. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall recognize the registered holders of the certificated Class E Certificates as Holders of the Class E Certificates hereunder. The Class E Certificate Registrar shall reflect on its records the issuance of certificated Class E Certificates in exchange for the Global Class E Certificates. In the event that certificated Class E Certificates for any reason are not so issued by the Issuer to such beneficial owners of interests in Global Class E Certificates, the Issuer expressly acknowledges that such beneficial owners shall be entitled to pursue any remedy that the Holders of a Global Class E Certificate would be entitled to pursue in accordance with the Class E Certificate Documents (but only to the extent of such beneficial owner's interest in the Global Class E Certificate) as if certificated Class E Certificates had been issued. Payments on such certificated Class E Certificates will be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a Dollar-denominated account maintained by the owner or, if a wire transfer cannot be effected, by a Dollar check delivered to the Holder.

(ii) All Class E Certificates initially sold to U.S. persons shall be issued in the form of definitive, physical certificates in fully registered form, registered in the name of the owner thereof, and in the form of, with the applicable legends set forth in, Exhibit A-1 attached hereto (each such certificate, a "Certificated Class E Certificate").

(iii) As used in this Section 2.1 and 2.3, "U.S. person" and "offshore transaction" have the meanings assigned to them in Regulation S.

(iv) The Class E Certificate Components of the Class Q-1 Securities, Class P-1 Securities and Class P-2 Securities shall constitute Class E Certificates for all purposes hereunder, except to the extent expressly provided otherwise herein; provided that Sections 2.14 and 2.15 of the Indenture shall override any inconsistent or contrary provision of this Agreement with respect to the applicable Class E Certificate Components.

Section 2.2 Form of Certificates. Each Class E Certificate shall have such appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as are required or permitted by this Agreement, and may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification and such legends or endorsements placed thereon, as may, consistently herewith, be determined by the Authorized Officers of the Issuer executing such Class E Certificate as evidenced by their execution of such Class E Certificate. Any portion of the text of any Class E Certificate may be set forth on the reverse thereof, with an appropriate reference thereto on the face of the Class E Certificate.

Section 2.3 Initial Offering; Transfer. The Class E Certificates will only initially be offered (i) in the form of Certificated Class E Certificates, in the United States, to Qualified Institutional Buyers or Accredited Investors in reliance on Section 4(2) of the Securities Act, that in either case are also either Qualified Purchasers or Knowledgeable Employee, and (ii) in the form of Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificates, outside the United States, to non-U.S. persons in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act. Purchaser and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage or loss, liability, expense, claim, proceeding or excise tax incurred by them as a result of any of the foregoing representations being or becoming untrue. It understands that the representations made by it pursuant to this paragraph 4 shall be deemed made on each day from the date it acquires its interest in the Class E Certificates through and including the date on which it disposes of its interests in the Class E Certificates. It understands that the Issuer may require any holder of the Class E Certificates that has made a false representation with respect to the foregoing matters to sell the Class E Certificates and, if such holder does not comply with such demand within 30 days thereof, the Issuer may sell such holder's interest in the Class E Certificates. It understands that any transfer effected in connection with such a representation that was false will be of no force and effect, will be void ab initio, and will not operate to transfer any rights to the transferee, notwithstanding any instructions to the contrary to the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or any intermediary.

- (5) It understands that the Class E Certificates Documents permit the Issuer to demand that any holder of a beneficial interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Class E Certificate who is determined not to have acquired such beneficial interest in compliance with the requirements of Regulation S or who is a U.S. person (as defined in Regulation S) sell such beneficial interest (a) to a Person who is not a U.S. person in a transaction meeting the requirements of Regulation S or (b) to a Person who will take delivery of the holder's interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Class E Certificate in the form of a Certificated Class E Certificate, who is both (i) a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor (provided that in the case of any transfer to an Accredited Investor and if requested by the Issuer or on its behalf, the transferor or the transferee has provided an opinion of counsel to each of the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Class E Certificate Registrar that such transfer may be made pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws) and (ii) a Qualified Purchaser or Knowledgeable Employee, in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A of the Securities Act or another applicable exemption from the Securities Act (in the case of a transferee who is an Accredited Investor), and, if the holder does not comply with such demand within 30 days thereof, the Issuer may cause the holder to sell its beneficial interest on such terms as the Issuer may choose.
- (6) The purchaser acknowledges that it is its intent and that it understands it is the intent of the Issuer that, for purposes of U.S. federal income tax, state and local income and franchise tax and any other income taxes, the Issuer will be treated as a corporation, the Notes will be treated as indebtedness of the Issuer, the Class E Certificates (in the absence of an administrative determination or judicial ruling to the contrary) will be treated as equity in the Issuer; the Class Q-1 Securities will be treated as a direct ownership interest in the different Classes of Securities corresponding to the components of the Class Q-1 Securities, and the Class P Securities will be treated as a direct ownership interest in the corresponding components of the Class P Securities, and the purchaser agrees to such treatment and agrees to take no action inconsistent with such treatment.

- (7) The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer is not authorized to engage in activities that could cause it to constitute a finance or lending business for federal income tax purposes and agrees that it will report its investment in the Class E Certificates in a manner consistent with such limitation, and in particular will not treat the Issuer as an “eligible controlled foreign corporation” for purposes of Section 954(h) of the Code or as deriving income described in Section 1297(b)(2) of the Code.
- (8) Such beneficial owner is aware that, except as otherwise provided in the Class E Certificate Documents, the Class E Certificates being sold to it will be represented (a) initially, by one or more Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificates and (b) after the Exchange Date, by one or more Regulation S Global Class E Certificates, and that beneficial interests therein may be held only through Euroclear or Clearstream.
- (9) The purchaser is not purchasing the Class E Certificates in order to reduce any United States federal income tax liability or pursuant to a tax avoidance plan. In the case of a purchaser that is a bank (as defined in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code) or an affiliate of such a bank, the purchaser (a) is acquiring the Class E Certificates as a capital markets investment and will not for any purpose treat the assets of the Issuer as loans acquired in its banking business and (b) has not proposed or identified, and will not propose or identify, any security or loan for inclusion in the Collateral.
- (10) In the case of any purchaser that is not a United States person (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code), the purchaser is not a bank (as defined in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code) or an affiliate of such a bank, unless the purchaser is a person that is eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates United States federal income taxation of United States source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States.
- (11) The purchaser agrees to notify subsequent transferees of all transfer restrictions applicable to holders of Class E Certificates set forth in the Class E Certificate Documents.
- (12) The purchaser acknowledges that no governmental agency has passed upon the Class E Certificates or made any finding or determination as to the fairness of an investment in the Class E Certificates.
- (13) The purchaser acknowledges that certain persons or organizations will perform services on behalf of the Co-Issuers and will receive fees and/or compensation for performing such services as described in the Offering Memorandum and the Indenture and Class E Certificate Documents.

- (15) It understands that any resale or other transfer of beneficial interests in a Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Class E Certificate to U.S. Persons shall not be permitted.
- (16) The purchaser acknowledges that the Class E Certificates do not represent deposits with or other liabilities or obligations of, and are not guaranteed or endorsed by, the Placement Agent, the Initial Purchaser, the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator or any of their respective Affiliates or any entity related to any of them or any other holder of Class E Certificates. It acknowledges that none of such persons will, in any way, be responsible for or stand behind the value or the performance of the Class E Certificates. It acknowledges that purchase of Class E Certificates involves investment risks including possible delay in payment of distributions and loss of income and principal invested.
- (17) It understands that the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date is subject to up to four extensions of four years each (to a latest possible date of November 1, 2033) without consent of any beneficial owners of Securities if certain conditions are satisfied.
- (18) It understands that in the case of any amendment to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more holders of Class E Certificates, the Indenture and Class E Certificate Documents permit the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase at a purchase price determined pursuant to the Indenture and Class E Certificate Documents the Class E Certificates from any holder thereof that either (i) has declared in writing that it will not consent to such amendment or (ii) had not consented to such amendment by the last day on which consent could be given in accordance with the request therefor, and such holder will be required to sell its Class E Certificates to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at the applicable purchase price. In addition, in the case of any vote by holders of Class E Certificates to remove the Portfolio Manager without cause, the Class E Certificate Documents permit the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase at a purchase price determined pursuant to the Class E Certificate Documents the Class E Certificates from any holder that voted in favor of such removal, and such holder will be required to sell its Class E

- (19) It understands that the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Initial Purchaser, the Placement Agent, the Portfolio Manager, the Revolving Note Agent, the Delayed Drawdown Note Agent, the Collateral Administrator and their respective counsel will rely upon the accuracy and truth of the foregoing representations, and it hereby consents to such reliance.

The Certificated Class E Certificates, the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificates and the Regulation S Global Class E Certificates shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer by an Authorized Officer thereof. The signature of such Authorized Officer on the Class E Certificate Certificates may be manual or facsimile.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Issuer may deliver Class E Certificates executed on behalf of the Issuer to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, upon Issuer Order, shall deliver such Class E Certificates as provided in this Agreement and not otherwise.

Each Class E Certificate delivered by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated as of the Closing Date. All other Class E Certificates that are delivered after the Closing Date for any other purpose under this Agreement shall be dated the date of their issuance.

Section 2.7 Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange. (a) In accordance with the Articles, the Issuer shall cause to be kept a register (the “Class E Certificate Register”) outside the United States (although a duplicate copy may be kept inside the United States) in which, subject to such reasonable procedures as it may from time to time prescribe, the Issuer shall provide for the registration of the Class E Certificates and the registration of transfers of the Class E Certificates. Such procedures shall at all times conform to the requirements of Cayman Islands law. The Administrator is hereby initially appointed “Class E Certificate Registrar” for the purpose of registering Class E Certificates and transfers of such Class E Certificates and keeping the Class E Certificate Register. The Class E Certificate Register shall, at minimum, contain:

- (i) the names and addresses of the Class E Certificateholders, and a statement of the number of Class E Certificates held by each Class E Certificateholder, distinguishing each Class E Certificate by its number;
- (ii) the date on which the name of any Person was entered on the Class E Certificate Register as a Class E Certificateholder; and
- (iii) the date on which any Person ceased to be a Class E Certificateholder.

The Class E Certificate Registrar shall register the Holders of any Class Q-1 Securities, Class P-1 Securities and Class P-2 Securities as Class E Certificateholders with respect to the Class E Certificates represented by the related Class E Certificate Components. The Issuer shall notify the Class E Certificate Registrar and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent of any such reasonable procedures it may prescribe in relation to transfers of Class E Certificates; provided that such procedures are not in conflict with procedures agreed to pursuant to this Agreement. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be the transfer agent with regard to transfers of the Class E Certificates. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall maintain at its Corporate Trust Office such books and records as it may deem necessary or appropriate in respect of the performance of its duties hereunder, including the maintenance of a duplicate Class E Certificate Register, which shall contain, at minimum, the information set forth in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) above of this Section 2.7(a). Upon request at any reasonable time, the Class E Certificate Registrar shall provide to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Trustee or the Issuer a current list of Class E Certificateholders as reflected in the Class E Certificate Register. The Class E Certificate Registrar shall be required to provide the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Board of Directors of the Issuer at the Issuer’s Registered Office in the Cayman Islands with a copy of the most recent Class E Certificate Register promptly upon any changes being made thereto.

The Issuer shall give the Class E Certificate Paying Agent prompt written notice of the appointment of any replacement Class E Certificate Registrar and of the location, and any change in the location, of the Class E Certificate Registrar, and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall have the right to inspect the Class E Certificate Register at all reasonable times and to obtain copies thereof, and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall have the right to rely upon a certificate executed on behalf of the Class E Certificate Registrar by a Responsible Officer thereof as to the names and addresses of the Holders of the Class E Certificates and the number of Class E Certificates held by each such Holder. The Class E Certificate Registrar shall have the right to rely conclusively upon any information provided by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent regarding transfers and exchanges of Class E Certificates.

Subject to the provisions of this Section 2.7, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Class E Certificate, an Authorized Officer of the Issuer shall execute, and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Class E Certificates to reflect such transfer.

At the option of the Holder thereof, Class E Certificates may be exchanged for like Class E Certificates upon surrender of the Class E Certificates to be exchanged to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent. Whenever any Class E Certificate is surrendered for exchange, the Issuer shall execute and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall deliver the Class E Certificate that the Holder of the Class E Certificates making the exchange is entitled to receive.

The Issuer, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Class E Certificate Registrar shall not require a service charge to be paid by a Class E Certificateholder for any registration of transfer of Class E Certificates or exchange of a Class E Certificates, but the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Class E Certificate Registrar may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

(b) The Class E Certificate Paying Agent agrees that it shall require delivery prior to any sale or transfer of the certificates required hereunder (with appropriate modifications in the case of a transfer that is a mortgage, charge, pledge or hypothecation or other appropriate modifications acceptable to the Issuer) and any related Opinion of Counsel (as applicable).

(c) No Class E Certificate may be sold or transferred (including, without limitation, by mortgage, charge, pledge or hypothecation) unless such sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, would not require the registration of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Collateral or Class P Collateral (or any part thereof) under the Investment Company Act and is exempt under applicable state and foreign securities laws. None of the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or any other Person may register the Class E Certificates under the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

(d) At any time when the Issuer is not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act or is exempt from reporting requirements pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) thereunder, upon the request of any Class E Certificateholder, the Issuer shall promptly furnish to such Class E Certificateholder or to a prospective purchaser of any Class E Certificate designated by such Class E Certificateholder, as the case may be, the information which the Issuer determines to be required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act ("Rule 144A Information") in order to permit compliance by such Class E Certificateholder with Rule 144A in connection with the resale of such Class E Certificate by such Class E Certificateholder. Upon request by the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall cooperate with the Issuer in mailing or otherwise distributing (at the Issuer's expense) to Class E Certificateholders or prospective purchasers of Class E Certificates designated by Class E Certificateholders, at and pursuant to the Issuer's written direction, any Rule 144A Information prepared and provided by the Issuer; provided, however, that the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be entitled to affix thereto or enclose therewith such disclaimers as the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall deem reasonably appropriate, at its discretion (such as, for example, a disclaimer that such Rule 144A Information was assembled by the Issuer and not by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, that the Class E Certificate Paying Agent has not reviewed or verified the accuracy thereof, and that it makes no representation as to the sufficiency of such information under Rule 144A or for any other purpose).

(e) Upon the redemption of any Class E Certificate, the Holder thereof shall present and surrender the related Class E Certificate at the designated office of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (which, as of the Closing Date, shall be the Corporate Trust Office) on or prior to the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date; provided, however, that, if there is delivered to the Issuer and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent such security or indemnity as may be reasonably satisfactory to them to save each of them harmless and an undertaking by such Holder thereafter to surrender such Class E Certificate, then, in the absence of written notice to the Issuer or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent that the applicable Class E Certificate has been acquired by a bona fide or protected purchaser for value without notice, such final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender of such Class E Certificate.

(f) No Class E Certificate may be transferred, and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and Class E Certificate Registrar shall not register any such proposed transfer, to a proposed transferee that has represented that it is, or is acting on behalf of or using the assets of, a Plan.

(g) So long as any Class E Certificate remains Outstanding, transfers and exchanges of a Class E Certificate shall only be made in accordance with Section 2.3 and this Section 2.7(g).

(i) Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate to Regulation S Global Class E Certificate. On or after the Exchange Date, interests in a Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate may be exchanged for interests in a Regulation S Global Class E Certificate in the form of Exhibit A-3 hereto. Any such Regulation S Global Class E Certificate shall be so issued and delivered in exchange for only that portion of the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate in respect of which there shall have been presented to the Depositary by Euroclear or Clearstream a certification to the effect that it has received from or in respect of a person entitled to an interest (as shown by its records) therein a certification that the beneficial interests in such Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate are owned by persons who are not U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S).

(ii) Interest in Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Class E Certificate to Certificated Class E Certificate. If a holder of a beneficial interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Class E Certificate wishes at any time to transfer its interest in such Class E Certificate in the United States or to a U.S. person (as defined in Regulation S), the transferee must take delivery thereof in the form of a Certificated Class E Certificate. Upon receipt by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent of (A) instructions given in accordance with the applicable procedures from a Participant, directing the Class E Certificate Paying Agent to deliver one or more such Certificated Class E Certificates designating the registered name or names, address, payment instructions, and the number of Class E Certificates represented by such Certificated Class E Certificates to be executed and delivered (the aggregate number of Class E Certificates represented by such Certificated Class E Certificates being equal to the aggregate number of Class E Certificates represented by the interest in the related Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global S Class E Certificate to be transferred), and in the authorized minimum number of the Class E Certificates and integral multiples specified in Section 2.5 and (B) a properly completed transfer certificate in the form of Exhibit B-1 and any other documentation as may be required thereunder, then the Class E Certificate Paying Agent will instruct the Depositary to reduce, or cause to be reduced, the applicable Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Class E Certificate by the number of Class E Certificates represented by the beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Certificate to be transferred and the Class E Certificates Registrar shall record the transfer in the Class E Certificates Register and deliver one or more Certificated Class E Certificates, registered in the names specified in the certificate described in clause (B) above representing the number of Class E Certificates designated by the transferee (the aggregate number of Class E Certificates being equal to the aggregate number of Class E Certificates represented by the beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Class E Certificate to be transferred) and in the authorized minimum number of the Class E Certificates and integral multiples specified in Section 2.5. Any purported transfer in violation of this provision shall be null and void ab initio.

(iii) Certificated Class E Certificate to Class E Certificate in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Security or Regulation S Global Security. If a Holder of a Certificated Class E Certificate wishes at any time to transfer such Certificated Class E Certificate to a person that is not a U.S. person (as defined in Regulation S) in an offshore transaction in reliance on Regulation S, such Person shall take delivery thereof in the form of an interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Class E Certificate. Upon receipt by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent of (A) such Certificated Class E Certificate properly endorsed for such transfer, and written instructions from such Holder directing the Class E Certificate Paying Agent to cause to be credited a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Class E Certificate representing a number of Class E Certificates equal to the number of Class E Certificates transferred of such Certificated Class E Certificate, (B) a written order containing information regarding the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with such increase and (C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-2 attached hereto, given by the Holder of such Certificated Class E Certificate stating that the exchange or transfer of such interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Class E Certificate, including that the proposed transferee or the person requesting such exchange, as the case may be, is not a U.S. person and that the proposed transfer is being made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S, then the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall cancel such Certificated Class E Certificate in accordance with Section 2.11, record the transfer in the Class E Certificates Register in accordance with Section 2.7(a) and instruct the Depositary to increase the number of Class E Certificates represented by the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Class E Certificate by the number of Class E Certificates to be transferred, and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the Person specified in such instructions a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate or Regulation S Global Class E Certificate equal to the amount specified in the instructions received pursuant to clause (A) above. Notwithstanding anything else in this Section 2.7(g)(iii), prior to the Exchange Date a Certificated Class E Certificate may only be exchanged or transferred for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificate.

(iv) Certificated Class E Certificates to Certificated Class E Certificates. After giving effect to such transfer, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall deliver Certificated Class E Certificates to the transferor representing the number, if any, of the Class E Certificates represented by the cancelled Certificated Class E Certificates (prior to such transfer) that were retained by such transferor.

(v) Exchange of Class E Certificates. If a Holder of one or more Certificated Class E Certificates wishes at any time to exchange any or all such Class E Certificates for one or more Class E Certificates representing in the aggregate the same number of Class E Certificates as are represented by the Class E Certificate(s) to be exchanged, such Holder may exchange or cause the exchange of such Class E Certificate(s) as provided below. Upon receipt by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or the Class E Certificate Registrar of (A) such Holder's Class E Certificate(s) properly endorsed for such exchange and (B) written instructions from such Holder designating the number of the Certificated Class E Certificates to be issued and the number of the Class E Certificates to be represented by each such Certificated Class E Certificates (the aggregate number of such Class E Certificates being equal to the number of the Class E Certificates surrendered for exchange), the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or the Class E Certificate Registrar shall cancel such surrendered Class E Certificate(s) in accordance with Section 2.11, record the exchange in the Class E Certificate Register in accordance with Section 2.7(a) and shall instruct the Issuer to execute the Certificated Class E Certificates and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Class E Certificates representing in the aggregate the same number of Class E Certificates as are represented by the Class E Certificate(s) endorsed for exchange, registered in the same names as the Class E Certificate(s) surrendered by such Holder, and each in the authorized minimum number of the Class E Certificates and integral multiples specified in Section 2.5.

(vi) Issuance of Class E Certificates Upon Exchange of Class Q-1 or Class P Securities. If a Holder of Class Q-1 Securities or Class P Securities exchanges such securities for their respective components in accordance with the Indenture, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall deliver the applicable Certificated Class E Certificates (upon execution thereof by the Issuer) and/or instruct the Depositary to increase the number of Class E Certificates represented by the Temporary Regulation S Global Class E Certificates or Regulations S Global Class E Certificates, as applicable, in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture.

(h) Each initial purchaser of Certificated Class E Certificates, and after the Closing Date, each Person that becomes a Holder of a Certificated Class E Certificate shall be required to deliver to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent a transfer certificate in the form of Exhibit B-1 hereto (with appropriate modifications in the case of a transfer that is a mortgage, charge, pledge or hypothecation or other appropriate modifications acceptable to the Issuer) in which it shall represent and agree as set forth therein.

(i) The Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall not be responsible for ascertaining whether any transfer complies with, or for otherwise monitoring or determining compliance with, the requirements or terms of the Securities Act, Investment Company Act, applicable state securities laws, ERISA or the Code; except that if a transfer certificate or Opinion of Counsel is specifically required by the terms of Section 2.3 or this Section 2.7 to be provided to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether it conforms substantially on its face to the applicable requirements of this Section 2.7.

(j) The Class E Certificates shall be subject to the provisions of Section 2.4 of the Indenture relating to Maturity Extensions and the provisions of Section 9.6 of the Indenture relating to Amendment Buy-Outs. In addition, Directing Class E Certificates are subject to purchase under the terms and conditions set forth in Section 12(c) of the Management Agreement.

(k) Any purported transfer of a Class E Certificate not in accordance with this Section 2.7 shall be null and void ab initio and shall not be given effect for any purpose hereunder.

Section 2.8 Mutilated, Defaced, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Class E Certificates. If (a) any mutilated or defaced Class E Certificate is surrendered to the Class E Certificate Registrar or if there shall be delivered to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Class E Certificate Registrar evidence to their reasonable satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Class E Certificate, and (b) there is delivered to the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Class E Certificate Registrar such security or indemnity as may be reasonably satisfactory to them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of notice to the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or the Class E Certificate Registrar that the Class E Certificates or interest therein have been acquired by a bona fide or protected purchaser, the Issuer shall execute and, upon Issuer Request, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall deliver, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, defaced, destroyed, lost or stolen Class E Certificate, a new Class E Certificate, of like tenor (including the same date of issuance) and representing the same number of Class E Certificates, registered in the same manner, dated the date of its issuance and bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding.

If, after delivery of such new Class E Certificate, a bona fide or protected purchaser of the predecessor Class E Certificate presents for payment, transfer or exchange such predecessor Class E Certificate, the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Class E Certificate Registrar shall be entitled to recover such new Class E Certificate from the Person to whom it was delivered or any Person taking title therefrom, except a bona fide or protected purchaser, to amend the Class E Certificate Register accordingly, and shall be entitled to recover upon the security or indemnity provided therefor to the extent of any loss, damage, cost or expense incurred by the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Class E Certificate Registrar in connection therewith. If any such mutilated, defaced, destroyed, lost or stolen Class E Certificate shall have been called for redemption in full, instead of issuing a new Class E Certificate, the Issuer may redeem such Class E Certificates without surrender thereof, except that any mutilated or defaced Class E Certificate shall be surrendered.

Upon the issuance of any new Class E Certificate under this Section 2.8, the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or the Class E Certificate Registrar may require the payment by the registered Holder thereof of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto.

The provisions of this Section 2.8 are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights and remedies with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, defaced, destroyed, lost or stolen Class E Certificate Certificates.

Section 2.9 Class E Certificate Distribution Accounts; Dividends and any Final Distribution on Class E Certificates.

(a) (i) Establishment of Class E Certificate Distribution Account. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall, prior to the Closing Date, establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account, designated as the “Class E Certificates Distribution Account,” which shall be in the name of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for the benefit of the Issuer and over which the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. On each Payment Date and the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date and on any other relevant date, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall deposit into the Class E Certificate Distribution Account the amounts received from the Trustee that are payable to the Class E Certificateholders pursuant to the Priority of Payments. Any and all funds at any time on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Class E Certificate Distribution Account and not being disbursed for payment shall be invested by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for the benefit of the Issuer in Eligible Investments designated by a Majority of Class E Certificateholders and having stated maturities no later than the Business Day immediately preceding the next Payment Date. Payments shall be made from the Class E Certificate Distribution Account only in accordance with the provisions set forth below. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent or its Affiliates are permitted to receive additional compensation that could be deemed to be in the Class E Certificate Paying Agent’s economic self-interest for (i) serving as investment adviser, administrator, shareholder, servicing agent, custodian or sub-custodian with respect to certain of the Eligible

Investments, (ii) using Affiliates to effect transactions in certain Eligible Investments and (iii) effecting transactions in certain Eligible Investments

distribute) the applicable pro rata portion of such Class E Certificate Redemption Price payable (x) to the Holder of Class E Certificates represented by the Class P-1 Class E Certificate Component in respect of such Class E Certificates for deposit into the Class P-1 Collection Account and (y) to the Holder of Class E Certificates represented by the Class P-2 Class E Certificate Component in respect of such Class E Certificates for deposit into the Class P-2 Collection Account. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the distribution of the Class E Certificate Redemption Price shall be subject to the Issuer being solvent under Cayman Islands law (defined as the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business) immediately prior to, and after giving effect to, such payment. For purposes of this subsection (c), a determination as to whether the Issuer is solvent on the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date shall be made by the Issuer (A) after giving effect to any payments to be made on the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date and (B) in light of the fact that the obligations of the Issuer to the Noteholders, the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Collateral Administrator and the other Persons subject to the Priority of Payments are limited in recourse to the Collateral, and not to (i) amounts in the Class E Certificate Distribution Account or (ii) any other amounts released from the Collateral in accordance with the Indenture and held by or on behalf of the Issuer for the benefit of the Class E Certificateholders, and that after the assets in the Collateral are exhausted, such parties shall have no further claim against the Issuer. If such condition is not satisfied on the Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date with respect to any portion of the Class E Certificate Redemption Price, such portion shall not be paid on the Class E Certificates until the first succeeding Business Day upon which such condition is satisfied as notified by the Issuer to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the amounts so retained in the Class E Certificate Distribution Account shall be held for the benefit of the Issuer until such amounts are paid. The Issuer shall notify the Class E Certificate Paying Agent in writing not less than two Business Days prior to the related Scheduled Class E Certificates Redemption Date in the event that the Issuer is not solvent.

(d) Notice of Attachment. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent agrees to give each of the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager immediate notice if the Class E Certificate Distribution Account or any funds on deposit therein, or otherwise to the credit of the Class E Certificate Distribution Account, shall become subject to any writ, order, judgment, warrant of attachment, execution or similar process. In addition, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall provide notice to each of the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager in the event that any portion of the Class E Certificate Dividend Amount or Class E Certificate Redemption Price is not distributed to the Class E Certificateholders. Neither the Class E Certificate Paying Agent nor the Class E Certificate Registrar shall have any legal, equitable or beneficial interest in the Class E Certificate Distribution Account or any amounts on deposit therein.

(e) Payments to Holders of Class E Certificates. All payments of dividends and any final distribution on any Class E Certificate shall be made in United States dollars to the Holder or its nominee, by wire transfer, as directed by the Holder, in immediately available funds; provided that if appropriate instructions for any such wire transfer are not received at least five (5) Business Days prior to the relevant Payment

Date, then such payment shall be made by check drawn on a United States bank mailed to the address of the Holder specified in the Class E Certificate Register as of the Record Date applicable to such Payment Date; provided, that payment of dividends and any final distribution on Class E Certificates represented by the Class P-1 Class E Certificate Component or the Class P-2 Class E Certificate Component, as applicable, shall be made by transfer to the Trustee for deposit (or by the Trustee directly depositing) such amounts into the Class P-1 Collection Account or the Class P-2 Collection Account, as applicable. A record of each payment made in respect of the Class E Certificates shall be maintained by or on behalf of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent in accordance with its customary procedures, and such record shall be prima facie evidence that the payment in question has been made. The Issuer and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be fully protected relying upon any wire transfer instructions received from a Class E Certificateholder as described above in this clause (e) in making payments in accordance herewith on the Class E Certificates, and any payment transmitted in accordance with such instructions to Holders of the Class E Certificates in whose names such Class E Certificates were registered at the close of business on the preceding Record Date shall be deemed to have been made upon transmission thereof to the banking institution identified in such instructions. Subject to Section 6.4 hereof or as otherwise expressly provided herein, the final payment on any Class E Certificate, however, shall be made only upon presentation and surrender of the applicable Class E Certificate at the office or agency specified in the notice of final payment mailed to the Holders of the Class E Certificates, including the office of any paying agent specified in such notice.

(f) If any payment on the Class E Certificates is due on a day that is not a Business Day, then payment shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if made on the date for payment.

(g) All payments by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent hereunder shall be made without charging any commission or fee to the Holders of the Class E Certificates.

Section 2.10 Persons Deemed Owners. The Issuer, the Class E Certificate Registrar and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall deem and treat any Class E Certificateholder registered in the Class E Certificate Register as the absolute owner of such Class E Certificate, notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing on any Class E Certificate, for the purpose of receiving dividends thereon and the Class E Certificate Redemption Price thereof and for all other purposes, and none of the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Registrar or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary. All such payments so made to such Class E Certificateholder or upon such Class E Certificateholder's order shall be valid and, to the extent of the sum or sums so paid, effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability for the monies payable upon any such Class E Certificate. All notices and communications to be given to the Holders and all payments to be made to Holders in respect of the Class E Certificates shall be given or made only to or upon the order of the registered Holders determined as of (i) the relevant Record Date, in the case of payments, or (ii) any other date of determination selected by the Issuer or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, as applicable, in the case of notices and communications.

Section 2.11 Cancellation. Any Class E Certificate surrendered for redemption, registration of transfer or exchange or deemed destroyed, lost or stolen shall, if surrendered to any Person other than the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, be delivered to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and shall be promptly canceled by it (and notification thereof shall be given to the Class E Certificate Registrar), and any Class E Certificates which have been redeemed by the Issuer may not be reissued or resold. Any canceled Class E Certificate held by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be handled by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent in accordance with its standard retention policy unless the Issuer shall direct by an Issuer Order that it be returned to it. Upon redemption of any Class E Certificates, the name of the Holder thereof in respect of such Class E Certificates shall be removed from the Class E Certificate Register, and such Class E Certificateholder shall cease to be entitled to any rights in respect thereof except the right to receive the Class E Certificate Redemption Price and any dividend which was due and payable on or prior to the date of such redemption.

Section 2.12 Required Sale of Class E Certificates by Holder Upon Occurrence of Certain Circumstances. (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any transfer to a Holder of a Class E Certificate who (i) is a U.S. person (as defined in Regulation S) that is determined not to have been both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor and (y) a Qualified Purchaser or Knowledgeable Employee or (ii) is a non-U.S. person that is determined not to have acquired the Class E Certificate in compliance with Regulation S at the time of acquisition of such Class E Certificate or (iii) has made a false representation with respect to any of the matters described in its representations in its transfer certificate or its deemed representations under Section 2.4, as applicable (any such Person, a “Non-Permitted Holder”) shall be null and void ab initio and any such purported transfer of which the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Registrar or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall have written notice or a Responsible Officer of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent has actual knowledge may be disregarded by the Issuer, the Class E Certificate Registrar and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for all purposes. The Issuer shall be entitled to require any Non-Permitted Holder to sell such interest within 30 days after receipt of notice to a Qualified Transferee who makes such acknowledgments, representations and agreements required to be made and delivers such certificates and opinions required to be delivered by a transferee of an interest in a Class E Certificate pursuant to Section 2.7. If such Non-Permitted Holder fails to effect the sale within such 30-day period, the Issuer may cause such Non-Permitted Holder’s interest in the Class E Certificates to be transferred as provided herein to a Qualified Transferee that certifies to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Issuer that such Person is a Qualified Transferee, together with such acknowledgments, representations and agreements required to be made and delivers such certificates and opinions required to be delivered by a transferee of an interest in a Class E Certificate pursuant to Section 2.7. No payments shall be made with respect to such Class E Certificate from the date notice of the sale requirement is sent to the date on which the interest is sold. The Issuer shall also be entitled not to honor a transfer of an interest a Class E Certificate to a transferee that the Issuer believes is not a Qualified Transferee. In connection therewith, the Issuer shall also be entitled to require any Holder of a Class E Certificate to certify, upon request by the Issuer, whether such Holder is (i) a U.S. Person and was both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor and (y) either a Qualified Purchaser or Knowledgeable Employee at the time of acquisition thereof or (ii) is a non-U.S. Person and was a non-U.S. person at the time of acquisition thereof. The Issuer shall be entitled to assume that any Holder of a Class E Certificate that does not respond to such request is a Non-Permitted Holder. In the event that the Issuer causes the sale of the applicable Class E Certificates following failure of the Holder thereof to do so within the prescribed 30-day period, as described in Section 2.12(a) hereof, the Issuer may select a purchaser by any means determined by it in its sole discretion. The proceeds of such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale shall be remitted to such prior Holder of the Class E Certificates. The terms and conditions of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer, and neither the Issuer nor the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be liable to any Person having the Class E Certificates or interests therein sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of such discretion. Each Holder of a Class E Certificate shall be required to acknowledge and agree to the Issuer's entitlement to require any sale in connection with the circumstances described in this Section 2.12 and shall be required to agree to cooperate with such sale.

ARTICLE III

THE CLASS E CERTIFICATE PAYING AGENT

Section 3.1 Certain Duties and Responsibilities. (a) The Class E Certificate Paying Agent undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Agreement against the Class E Certificate Paying Agent.

(b) In the absence of willful misconduct, gross negligence or reckless disregard of obligations on its part, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and conforming to the requirements of this Agreement; provided, however, that in the case of any such certificates or opinions which by any provision hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be under a duty to examine the certificates and opinions to determine whether or not they conform on their face to the requirements of this Agreement, and shall promptly, but in any event within three (3) Business Days in the case of an Officer's Certificate furnished by the Issuer, notify the party delivering the same if such certificate or opinion does not so conform. If a corrected certificate or opinion shall not have been delivered to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent within 15 days after such notice from the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall so notify the Holders of the Class E Certificates.

(c) No provision of this Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Class E Certificate Paying Agent from liability for its own gross negligent action, its own gross negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(i) this subclause (c) does not limit the effect of subclause (a) or (b) of this Section 3.1;

(ii) the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer unless the Class E Certificate Paying Agent was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts; and

(iii) the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall not be liable with respect to any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Issuer and/or the Class E Certificateholders to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent in accordance with this Agreement under circumstances in which such direction is required or permitted by the terms of this Agreement.

(d) No provision of this Agreement shall require the Class E Certificate Paying Agent to expend or risk its own funds or incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds to believe that repayment of such funds or indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it unless such risk or liability relates to the performance of its ordinary services under this Agreement. In no event shall the Class E Certificate Paying Agent be liable under or in connection with this Agreement for special, indirect or consequential loss or damage (including, but not limited to, lost profits), even if the Class E Certificate Paying Agent has been advised of the likelihood of such damage and regardless of the form of action taken.

(e) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Agreement relating to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 3.1 and Section 3.2 hereof.

Section 3.2 Rights of Class E Certificate Paying Agent. Except as otherwise provided in Section 3.1:

(a) the Class E Certificate Paying Agent may rely conclusively and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, note or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request, consent or direction of the Issuer mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Issuer Order, and any request, consent or direction from the Portfolio Manager mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by a written request or direction from, or consented to or approved by, an authorized officer of the Portfolio Manager;

(c) whenever in the administration of this Agreement the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, rely conclusively upon an Officer's Certificate;

(d) as a condition to the taking or omitting of any action by it hereunder, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in reliance thereon;

(e) the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Agreement or to honor the request or direction of any of the Class E Certificateholders pursuant to this Agreement unless such Class E Certificateholders shall have offered to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent reasonable security or indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might reasonably be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction;

(f) the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, note, other paper or document, but the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, in its discretion, may and, upon the written direction of a Majority of the Class E Certificates, shall make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit or as it shall be directed at the sole expense of the Issuer, and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall incur no liability or additional liability of any kind by any reason of such inquiry or investigation, and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be entitled, on reasonable request made in advance to the Issuer, to examine the books and records of the Issuer relating to the Class E Certificates and the Eligible Investments in the Class E Certificate Distribution Account, personally or by agent or attorney during normal business hours; provided, that the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall, and shall cause its agents to, hold in confidence all such information, except to the extent disclosure may be required by law or by any regulatory or judicial authority and except to the extent that the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, in its sole judgment, may determine that such disclosure is consistent with its obligations hereunder;

(g) the Class E Certificate Paying Agent may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents or attorneys and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent may employ or retain such accountants, appraisers or other experts or advisors as it may reasonably require for the purpose of determining and discharging its rights and duties hereunder; and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall not be responsible for any misconduct or gross negligence on the part of any agent or advisor appointed or retained, or attorney appointed, with due care by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent hereunder;

(h) the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall not be deemed to have notice or knowledge of any matter unless a Responsible Officer within the Corporate Trust Office has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the Class E Certificates generally, the Issuer or this Agreement;

(i) to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the execution of this Agreement or otherwise;

(j) the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith that it reasonably believes to be authorized or within its discretion, rights or powers hereunder; and

(k) the rights, privileges, protections and benefits given to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, including, without limitation, its rights to be indemnified, are extended on the same terms to, and shall be enforceable by, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent in each of its capacities hereunder and each agent, custodian and other Person employed with due care by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent to act hereunder.

(i) the enumeration of any permissible right or power herein available to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall not be construed to be the imposition of a duty.

Section 3.3 Class E Certificate Paying Agent May Own Class E Certificates. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Class E Certificate Registrar, in their respective individual capacities or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Class E Certificates and may otherwise deal with the Issuer or any of its Affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or the Class E Certificate Registrar.

Section 3.4 Class E Certificate Paying Agent's Disclaimer. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall not be responsible for and, except as set forth in Section 3.14, makes no representations as to the validity or adequacy of this Agreement or any related documents. It shall not be accountable for the use by the Issuer of the proceeds from the Class E Certificates, it shall not be responsible for any statement of the Issuer in this Agreement or in any document issued in connection with the sale of the Class E Certificates or in the Class E Certificates and it shall in no event assume or incur any liability, duty or obligation to any Class E Certificateholder, other than as expressly provided in this Agreement or by law. Under no circumstances shall the Class E Certificate Paying Agent be liable for indebtedness evidenced by or arising under any of the Class E Certificate Documents, including the amounts payable on the Class E Certificates.

Section 3.5 Money Held in Trust. Money held by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be held in trust hereunder in a segregated account. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be under no liability for interest on any Money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed upon with the Issuer and except to the extent of income or other gain on investments which are deposits in or certificates of deposit of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent in its commercial capacity and income or other gain actually received by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent on amounts on deposit in the Class E Certificate Distribution Account.

Section 3.6 Compensation; Reimbursement; Indemnity. (a) The Issuer agrees, subject to the Priority of Payments under the Indenture:

(i) to pay the Class E Certificate Paying Agent on each Payment Date reasonable compensation as shall be set forth in a separate letter agreement for all services, including custodial services, rendered by it hereunder in accordance with the Priority of Payments;

(ii) except as otherwise expressly provided herein and in accordance with the Priority of Payments, to reimburse the Class E Certificate Paying Agent in a timely manner upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent in accordance with any provision of this Agreement or in the enforcement of any provision hereof (including securities transaction charges) and the reasonable compensation and the expenses incurred by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent including, without limitation, any legal counsel, investment banking firm, accounting firm or any other agent employed by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent pursuant to this Agreement and disbursements of its agents and counsel);

(iii) to pay or to reimburse the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for its payment of the fees of any accounting firm or investment banking firm employed by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent as provided herein; and

(iv) to indemnify fully and hold harmless each of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, its directors, officers, employees and agents for, and to hold each of them harmless against, any claims, loss, liability, damages, costs or expense (including without limitation, reasonable counsel fees and expenses) incurred without gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this Agreement, including the costs and expenses of defense against any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder.

(b) If on any date when a fee or expense shall be payable to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent pursuant to this Agreement insufficient funds are available for the payment thereof in accordance with the Priority of Payments, any portion of a fee or expense not so paid shall be deferred and payable on such later date on which a fee or expense shall be payable and sufficient funds are available therefor.

(c) The provisions of this Section 3.6 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the resignation or removal of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent under this Agreement.

Fees applicable to periods shorter or longer than a calendar quarterly period shall be prorated based on the number of days within such period. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall receive amounts pursuant to this Section 3.6 only to the extent that the payment thereof will not result in an Event of Default under the Indenture and the failure to pay such amounts to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall not, by itself, constitute an Event of Default under the Indenture.

Section 3.7 Eligibility; Disqualification. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall (a) be a Person organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any state thereof, (b) be authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, (c) have an office in the United States, (d) have a combined capital and surplus of at least $200,000,000 and be subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authorities, and (e) have (or have a parent which has) a long-term unsecured debt or deposit rating of at least "Baa1" by Moody's, "BBB+" by Standard & Poor's. If such Person shall publish reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purpose of this Section 3.7, the combined capital and surplus of such Person shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published. If at any time the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section 3.7, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 3.8.

Section 3.8 Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor. (a) No resignation or removal of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and no appointment of a successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent pursuant to this Article III shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent under Section 3.9. The indemnifications in favor of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent in Section 3.6 shall survive any resignation or removal of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the termination of this Agreement (to the extent of any indemnified liabilities, costs, expenses and other amounts arising or incurred prior to, or arising out of actions or omissions occurring prior to, such resignation, removal or termination).

(b) The Class E Certificate Paying Agent may resign at any time by giving 30 days' prior written notice thereof to the Issuer, the Class E Certificateholders, the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager.

(c) The Class E Certificate Paying Agent may be removed at any time by a Majority of the Class E Certificates upon written notice thereof to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager.

(d) If at any time:

- (i) the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible under Section 3.7 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Issuer or by any Class E Certificateholder; or
- (ii) the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall become incapable of acting; or
- (iii) a court having jurisdiction in the premises in respect of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent in an involuntary case or proceeding under any federal or state banking or bankruptcy laws, as now or hereafter constituted, or any other applicable federal or state bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, shall have entered a decree or order granting relief or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, conservator, sequestrator (or similar official) for the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or for any substantial part of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent's property, or ordering the winding-up or liquidation of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent's affairs; provided any such decree or order shall have continued unstayed and in effect for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days; or
- (iv) the Class E Certificate Paying Agent commences a voluntary case under any federal or state banking or bankruptcy laws, as now or hereafter constituted, or any other applicable federal or state bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or consents to the appointment of or taking possession by a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, conservator, sequestrator (or other similar official) for the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or for any substantial part of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent's property, or makes any assignment for the benefit of its creditors or fails generally to pay its debts as such debts become due or takes any corporate action in furtherance of any of the foregoing;

then, in any such case, (A) the Issuer, by Issuer Order, may remove the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent hereby agrees to resign immediately in the manner and with the effect provided in this Section 3.8 or (B) any Class E Certificateholder may, on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the appointment of a successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent.

(e) If the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of the Class E

Certificate Paying Agent for any cause, the Issuer, by Issuer Order, shall promptly appoint a successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent with the consent of a Majority of the Class E Certificateholders. If no successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall have been so appointed and shall have accepted appointment in the manner hereinafter provided within thirty (30) days after such removal or vacancy, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or any Class E Certificateholder may, on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent meeting the standards set forth in Section 3.7 hereof.

(f) The Issuer shall give prompt notice of each resignation and each removal of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and each appointment of a successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent by mailing written notice of such event by first class mail, postage prepaid, to the Portfolio Manager, to S&P and to the Class E Certificateholders as their names and addresses appear in the Class E Certificate Register. Each notice shall include, if known, the name of the successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

Section 3.9 Acceptance of Appointment by Successor. Every successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent appointed hereunder shall be required to meet the eligibility requirements set forth in Section 3.7 and shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Issuer and the retiring Class E Certificate Paying Agent an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon, the resignation or removal of the retiring Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall become effective and such successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent, without any other act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts, duties and obligations of the retiring Class E Certificate Paying Agent, but, on request of the Issuer, a Majority of the Class E Certificates or the successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent, such retiring Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall, upon payment of its fees and expenses then due, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Class E Certificate Paying Agent, and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent all property and Money held by such retiring Class E Certificate Paying Agent hereunder. Upon request of any such successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Issuer shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent all such rights, powers and trusts.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent as provided in this Section 3.9, the Issuer shall mail notice thereof by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the Holders of the Class E Certificates at their last addresses appearing upon the Class E Certificate Register, to the Trustee, the retiring Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Portfolio Manager. If the Issuer fails to mail such notice within ten (10) Business Days after acceptance of appointment by the successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall cause such notice to be mailed at the expense of the Issuer.

Section 3.10 Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business of Class E Certificate Paying Agent. Any Person into which the Class E Certificate Paying Agent may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be a party, or any Person succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (a “Change of Control”), shall be the successor of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent under this Agreement; provided, however, that such Person shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 3.7, without the execution or filing of any instrument or any further act on the part of any of the parties to this Agreement, anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 3.11 Withholding. If any withholding tax is imposed on the Issuer’s payment (or allocations of current or previously accrued income) under the Class E Certificates to any Class E Certificateholder, such tax shall reduce the amount otherwise distributable to such Class E Certificateholder. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent is hereby authorized and directed if required by law to retain from amounts otherwise distributable to any Class E Certificateholder sufficient funds for the payment of any withholding tax that is legally owed by the Issuer, or required by law to be withheld by the Issuer or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent (but such authorization shall not prevent the Class E Certificate Paying Agent from contesting any such tax in appropriate Proceedings and withholding payment of such tax, if permitted by law, pending the outcome of such Proceedings). The amount of any withholding tax imposed with respect to any Class E Certificateholder shall be treated as cash distributed to such Class E Certificateholder at the time it is withheld by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and remitted to the appropriate taxing authority and shall reduce the amount of the next distribution(s) made to the Class E Certificateholder to the extent thereof. If there is a possibility that withholding tax is payable with respect to a distribution, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent may in its sole discretion withhold such amounts in accordance with this Section 3.11. If any Class E Certificateholder wishes to apply for a refund of any such withholding tax, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall provide to such Class E Certificateholder any information with respect to such withholding tax reasonably available to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent so long as such Class E Certificateholder agrees to reimburse the Class E Certificate Paying Agent for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred. Nothing herein shall impose an obligation on the part of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent to determine the amount of any tax or withholding obligation on the part of the Issuer or in respect of the Class E Certificates. Each Holder, by its acceptance of Class E Certificates, agrees to provide any tax certification requested by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or the Issuer to permit the Issuer to make payments to Holders without, or at a reduced rate of, withholding. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent hereby provides notice to each Class E Certificateholder that the failure of any such Class E Certificateholder to provide the Class E Certificate Paying Agent with appropriate tax certifications may result in amounts being withheld from payments to such Class E Certificateholder under this Agreement (provided that amounts withheld pursuant to applicable tax laws shall be considered as having been paid to them by the Issuer as provided above).

Section 3.12 Non-Petition. The Class E Certificate Paying Agent, by entering into this Agreement, hereby covenants and agrees that it shall not, prior to the date which is one year (or, if longer the then applicable preference period in the relevant jurisdiction) and one day after the termination of the Indenture with respect to the Indenture Securities pursuant to Section 4.1 of the Indenture, acquiesce, petition or otherwise invoke or cause the Issuer to invoke the process of any court or government authority for the purpose of commencing or sustaining a case against the Issuer under any Bankruptcy Law or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, custodian, sequestrator or other similar official of the Issuer or any substantial part of its property, or making a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of the affairs of the Issuer, for the purpose of collecting any of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent's fees and expenses. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the other parties hereto agree that the obligations of the Issuer hereunder or arising in connection herewith shall constitute limited recourse obligations of the Issuer payable solely from the Collateral in accordance with the Priority of Payments, and following realization of the Collateral, all obligations of and all claims against the Issuer hereunder or arising in connection herewith shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. Neither the Issuer nor any of its agents, partners, beneficiaries, officers, directors, employees or any Affiliate of any of them or any of their successors or assigns shall be personally liable for any amounts payable, or performance due, under this Agreement. It is understood that the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not (i) prevent recourse to the Collateral for the sums due or to become due under any security, instrument or agreement which is part of the Collateral or (ii) constitute a waiver, release or discharge of any indebtedness or obligation arising hereunder until such Collateral has been realized whereupon any outstanding indebtedness or obligation shall be extinguished. It is further understood that the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not (a) limit the right of any person to name the Issuer hereunder as a party defendant in any action, suit or in the exercise of any other remedy hereunder, so long as no judgment in the nature of a deficiency judgment or seeking personal liability shall be asked for or (if obtained) enforced against any such person or entity, or (b) preclude, or be deemed to estop, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent from taking any action prior to expiration of the applicable stay period in (x) any case or Proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or (y) any involuntary insolvency Proceeding filed or commenced against the Issuer by a Person or Persons other than the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or any of its Affiliates. The provisions of this Section 3.12 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the resignation or removal of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent under this Agreement.

Section 3.13 Assignment of Rights; Not Assumption of Duties. Anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, (a) the Issuer shall remain liable under this Agreement and each of the documents contemplated herein and related hereto to which it is a party to the extent set forth therein to perform all of its duties and obligations thereunder to the same extent as if this Agreement had not been executed, (b) the exercise by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or any Class E Certificateholder of any of their rights, remedies or powers hereunder shall not release the Issuer from any of its duties or obligations under each of such documents to which it is a party and (c) none of the Class E Certificateholders or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall have any obligation or liability under any of such documents to which the Issuer is a party by reason of or arising out of this Agreement, nor shall the Class E Certificateholders or, except as expressly provided herein, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent be obligated to perform any of the obligations or duties of the Issuer thereunder or to take any action to collect or enforce any claim for payment assigned hereunder or otherwise.

This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent. Upon execution and delivery by the Issuer, this Agreement shall constitute the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as such enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws relating to or affecting the rights of creditors generally, and by general equity principles (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(c) No Conflict. Neither the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (i) is prohibited by, or requires the Class E Certificate Paying Agent to obtain any consent, authorization, approval or registration under, any law, statute, rule, regulation, or (to the best of its knowledge) judgment, order, writ, injunction or decree that is binding upon the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or any of its properties or assets, or (ii) will violate any provision of, result in any default or acceleration of any obligations under, result in the creation or imposition of any lien pursuant to, or require any consent under, any agreement to which the Class E Certificate Paying Agent is a party or by which it or any of its property is bound which would have a material adverse effect on the rights or interests of any Class E Certificateholder in or under the Class E Certificates or on the Class E Certificate Paying Agent's capacity to perform its obligations hereunder.

(d) No Proceedings. There are no proceedings pending, or to the best knowledge of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, threatened against the Class E Certificate Paying Agent before any federal, state or other governmental agency, authority, administrator or regulatory body, arbitrator, court or other tribunal, foreign or domestic, that would have a material adverse effect on the Collateral or any action taken or to be taken by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent under this Agreement.

Section 9.1 Amendments.

(a) This Agreement may be amended by the Issuer and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent without the consent of any of the Class E Certificateholders in order to: (i) evidence the succession of any Person to the Issuer and the assumption by any such successor of the covenants of the Issuer in the Class E Certificates and this Agreement or to change the name of the Issuer; (ii) add to the covenants of the Issuer for the benefit of the Class E Certificateholders; (iii) evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment by a successor Class E Certificate Paying Agent and to add to or change any of the provisions of this Agreement as shall be necessary to facilitate the administration of this Agreement or the Class E Certificate Distribution Account by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent; (iv) correct any inconsistency or cure any ambiguity or errors in this Agreement or to conform this Agreement to the Offering Memorandum; (v) modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of the Class E Certificates to reflect any changes in applicable law (or its interpretation) or to enable the

Issuer to rely on any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the 1940 Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required hereunder; (vi) make any changes required by the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange (so long as any of the Class E Certificates are listed thereon); (vii) take any action necessary or helpful to prevent the Issuer, the Trustee or the Class E Certificate Paying Agent from becoming subject to any withholding or other taxes, fees or assessments or to prevent the Issuer from being treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business or otherwise being subject to U.S. federal, state or local income tax on a net income basis, so long as the action will not cause any Class E Certificateholders to be adversely affected to any material extent by any change in the timing, character or source of the income from the Class E Certificates, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion); or (viii) provide for additional or modified reports to Class E Certificateholders;

(b) This Agreement may also be amended from time to time by the Issuer and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent with the consent of the Class E Certificateholders holding a Majority of the Class E Certificates for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of this Agreement, or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Class E Certificateholders hereunder; provided that no such amendment shall (i) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay the timing of, or change the allocation of, the payment of dividends and any final distribution on the Class E Certificates, (ii) reduce the number or percentage of Class E Certificates, the consent of holders of which is required for any amendment to or action under this Agreement or (iii) conflict with the provisions of the Articles, in each case without the consent of each Class E Certificateholder and, in the case of clause (iii), without amending the Articles in accordance therewith; provided further, that any such amendment shall not be made without written confirmation from each Rating Agency that the execution of such amendment will not result in a qualification, downgrade or withdrawal of the then current ratings of any Class of Notes rated by such Rating Agency. Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed amendment to this Agreement pursuant to this subsection, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall mail to each Class E Certificateholder a copy of such proposed amendment.

(c) Promptly after the execution of any amendment pursuant to this Section 9.1, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall furnish written notification of the substance of such amendment to each Class E Certificateholder. It shall not be necessary for the consent of Class E Certificateholders pursuant to this Section 9.1 to approve the specific form of any proposed amendment, but it shall be sufficient if such consent shall approve the substance thereof. The manner of obtaining such consents (and any other consents of Class E Certificateholders under this Agreement) and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Class E Certificateholders shall be subject to such reasonable requirements as the Class E Certificate Paying Agent may prescribe.

(d) The Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall be entitled to rely upon (i) an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by this Agreement and, in the case of an amendment under Section 9.1(a) hereof (unless notified by Class E Certificateholders holding at least a Majority of the Class E Certificates that the Class E Certificates are materially and adversely affected), that such amendment (as applicable) would not materially and adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Class E Certificates and (ii) an Officer's Certificate of the Issuer that all conditions precedent to the execution of such amendment have been complied with. In the event that any amendment is consented to by the Issuer and by Holders of 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class E Certificates and the Rating Condition is satisfied in case of Section 9.1(b) above, all conditions precedent to the execution of such amendment shall be deemed satisfied, the execution of such amendment shall be authorized or permitted by this Agreement, and the Class E Certificate Paying Agent shall execute and accept such amendment pursuant to this Section 9 without obtaining an Opinion of Counsel.

Section 9.2 Form of Documents Delivered to Class E Certificate Paying Agent. In any case where several matters are required to be certified by, or covered by an opinion of, any specified Person, it is not necessary that all such matters be certified by, or covered by the opinion of, only one such Person, or that they be so certified or covered by only one document, but one such Person may certify or give an opinion with respect to some matters and one or more other such Persons as to other matters, and any such Person may certify or give an opinion as to such matters in one or several documents.

Any certificate or opinion of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer may be based, insofar as it relates to legal matters, upon a certificate of or opinion of, or representations by, counsel, unless such Authorized Officer knows, or in the exercise of reasonable care should know, that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to the matters upon which his certificate or opinion is based are erroneous. Any such certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer or Opinion of Counsel or certificate of or representations by such counsel may be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, an Authorized Officer of the Issuer or any other Person, stating that the information with respect to such factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer or such other Person, unless such Authorized Officer of the Issuer or such counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to such matters are erroneous.

Where any Person is required to make, give or execute two or more applications, requests, consents, certificates, statements, opinions or other instruments under this Agreement, they may, but need not, be consolidated and form one instrument.

Section 9.3 Acts of Holders. (a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Agreement to be given or taken by Class E Certificateholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments (which may be an electronic document, including but not limited to in the form of e-mail, to the extent permitted by applicable law) of substantially similar tenor signed by such Class E Certificateholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing (provided that no signature shall be required on electronic documents, including but not limited to in the form of e-mail, to the extent permitted by applicable law). Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, and, where it is hereby expressly required, to the Issuer. The instruments (and the action embodied in them) are referred to as the "Act" of the Class E Certificateholders signing the instruments. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of this Agreement and conclusive in favor of the Class E Certificate Paying Agent and the Issuer, if made in the manner provided in this Section 9.3.

(b) The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner which the Class E Certificate Paying Agent deems sufficient.

(c) The registered number of Class E Certificates held by any Person, and the date of his holding the same, shall be proved by the Class E Certificate Register.

(d) Any Act by a Class E Certificateholder shall bind the Holder (and any transferee thereof) of such Class E Certificates, and of every Class E Certificate issued upon the registration thereof or in exchange therefor or in lieu thereof, in respect of anything done, omitted or suffered to be done by the Class E Certificate Paying Agent or the Issuer in reliance thereon, whether or not notation of such action is made upon such applicable Class E Certificate.

(ii) the Portfolio Manager shall select any Collateral which shall be acquired by the Issuer pursuant to the Indenture in accordance with the investment criteria set forth herein and in the Indenture;

(iii) the Portfolio Manager shall monitor the Collateral on an ongoing basis and provide to the Issuer all reports, certificates, schedules and other data with respect to the Collateral which the Issuer is required to prepare and deliver under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement, in the form and containing all information required thereby and in reasonable time for the Issuer to review such required reports, certificates, schedules and data and to deliver them to the parties entitled thereto under the Indenture; the Portfolio Manager shall undertake to determine to the extent reasonably practicable whether a Collateral Obligation has become a Defaulted Collateral Obligation; and the Portfolio Manager shall monitor any Hedge Agreements and direct the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer in respect of all actions to be taken thereunder by the Issuer;

(i) The Portfolio Manager agrees not to institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings or other proceedings under federal or state bankruptcy or similar laws of any jurisdiction until at least one year and one day (or if longer, any applicable preference period plus one day) after the payment in full of all Notes issued under the Indenture, the reduction of the Commitment to zero in the case of the Class A-1A Notes and the payment to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent of all amounts payable with respect to the Class E Certificates in accordance with the Priority of Payments; provided, however, that nothing in this clause (i) shall preclude, or be deemed to estop, the Portfolio Manager (A) from taking any action prior to the expiration of such period in (x) any case or proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, or (y) any involuntary insolvency proceeding filed or commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, by a Person other than the Portfolio Manager, or (B) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any properties of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any legal action which is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, liquidation or similar proceeding.

(ii) The Portfolio Manager shall cause each sale or purchase of any Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment to be conducted on an arm's-length basis.

(d) The Portfolio Manager shall not act for the Issuer in any capacity except as provided in this Section 2. In providing services hereunder, the Portfolio Manager may employ third parties, including its Affiliates, to render advice (including investment advice) and assistance; provided, however, that (i) the Portfolio Manager shall not be relieved of any of its duties or liabilities hereunder regardless of the performance of any services by third parties and (ii) such employment of third parties shall not cause the Issuer to be subject to tax in the United States. The Portfolio Manager shall seek to obtain the best prices and execution for all orders placed with respect to the Collateral, considering all reasonable circumstances. Subject to the objective of obtaining best prices and execution, the Portfolio Manager may take into consideration research and other brokerage services furnished to the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates by brokers and dealers which are not Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager. Such services may be used by the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates in connection with its other advisory activities or investment operations. The Portfolio Manager may aggregate sales and purchase orders of securities placed with respect to the Collateral with similar orders being made simultaneously for other accounts managed by Portfolio Manager or with accounts of the Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager, if in the Portfolio Manager's reasonable judgment such aggregation shall result in an overall economic benefit to the Issuer, taking into consideration the advantageous selling or purchase price, brokerage commission and other expenses. In the event that a sale or purchase of a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment (in accordance with the terms of the Indenture) occurs as part of any aggregate sales or purchase orders, the objective of the Portfolio Manager (and any of its Affiliates involved in such transactions) shall be to allocate the executions among the accounts in an equitable manner.

In addition to the foregoing and subject to the provisions of Section 2 and the limitations of Section 5, the objective of obtaining best prices and execution and to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Portfolio Manager may, on behalf of the Issuer, direct the Trustee to acquire any and all of the Eligible Investments or other Collateral from, or sell Collateral Obligations or other Collateral to, the Initial Purchaser, the Trustee or any of their respective Affiliates, or any other firm.

4. Additional Activities of the Portfolio Manager.

Nothing herein shall prevent the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Trustee, the Securityholders, or any other Person or entity to the extent permitted by applicable law. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Portfolio Manager and partners, directors, officers, employees and agents of the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates may, among other things, and subject to any limits specified in the Indenture:

(a) serve as directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, partners, employees, agents, nominees or signatories for any issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates, to the extent permitted by their Governing Instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates, pursuant to their respective Governing Instruments; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on any item of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Collateral Quality Test; provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the duties of the Portfolio Manager set forth in Section 2 hereof;

(b) receive fees for services of any nature rendered to the issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on any item of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Collateral Quality Test; and provided, further that if any portion of such services are related to purchase by the Issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral, the portion of such fees relating to such obligations shall be applied to the purchase price of such obligations; and

(c) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold an equity interest in, the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligation included in the Collateral; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on any item of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Collateral Quality Test; provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the duties of the Portfolio Manager set forth in Section 2 hereof.

It is understood that the Portfolio Manager and any of its Affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have investment policies similar to those followed by the Portfolio Manager with respect to the Collateral and which may own securities of the same class, or which are the same type, as the Collateral Obligations or other securities of the issuers of Collateral Obligations. The Portfolio Manager shall be free, in its sole discretion, to make recommendations to others, or effect transactions on behalf of itself or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Collateral.

Unless the Portfolio Manager determines in its reasonable judgment that such purchase or sale is appropriate and otherwise in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement and the Indenture, the Portfolio Manager may refrain from directing the purchase or sale hereunder of securities issued by (i) Persons of which the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or any of its or their officers, directors or employees are directors or officers, (ii) Persons for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliate act as financial adviser or underwriter or (iii) Persons about which the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates have information which the Portfolio Manager deems confidential or non-public or otherwise might prohibit it from trading such securities in accordance with applicable law. The Portfolio Manager shall not be obligated to pursue any particular investment strategy or opportunity with respect to the Collateral.

5. Conflicts of Interest.

(a) The Portfolio Manager shall not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Portfolio Manager such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Portfolio Manager, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other, (iii) such transaction is permitted by the Adviser's Act and (iv) such transaction satisfies the requirements of this Agreement and the Indenture.

(b) The Portfolio Manager shall not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager serves as investment advisor, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Portfolio Manager serves as investment advisor unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Portfolio Manager, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other, (ii) permitted by the Adviser's Act and (iii) in compliance with the terms of this Agreement and the Indenture.

(c) In addition, the Portfolio Manager shall not undertake any transaction described in this Section 5 unless such transaction is exempt from the prohibited transaction rules of ERISA and the Code.

6. Records; Confidentiality.

The Portfolio Manager shall maintain appropriate books of account and records relating to services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by a representative of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, the Noteholders, the Holders of the Securities and the Independent accountants appointed by the Issuer pursuant to the Indenture at a mutually agreed time during normal business hours and upon not less than three Business Days' prior notice. At no time shall the Portfolio Manager make a public announcement concerning the issuance of the Securities, the Portfolio Manager's role hereunder or any other aspect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Indenture. The Portfolio Manager shall keep confidential any and all information obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder and shall not disclose any such information to non-affiliated third parties except (i) with the prior written consent of the Issuer, (ii) such information as either Rating Agency shall reasonably request in connection with the rating of any class of Securities, (iii) as required by law, regulation, court order or the rules or regulations of any self regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Portfolio Manager, (iv) to its professional advisers, (v) such information as shall have been publicly disclosed other than in violation of this Agreement, or (vi) such information that was or is obtained by the Portfolio Manager on a non-confidential basis, provided, that the Portfolio Manager does not know or have reason to know of any breach by such source of any confidentiality obligations with respect thereto. For purposes of this Section 6, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Class E Certificate Paying Agent, the Holders of the Securities shall in no event be considered "non-affiliated third parties."

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Indenture to the contrary, the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Holders of the Securities (and the beneficial owners thereof) (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure, as such terms are defined under U.S. federal, state or local tax law.

7. Obligations of Portfolio Manager.

Unless otherwise specifically required by any provision of the Indenture or this Agreement or by applicable law, the Portfolio Manager shall use its best reasonable efforts to ensure that no action is taken by it, and shall not intentionally or with reckless disregard take any action, which would (a) materially adversely affect the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for purposes of Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state law or any other law known to the Portfolio Manager to be applicable to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, (b) not be permitted under the Issuer's Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association or the Co-Issuer's Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws, (c) violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer or the Co-Issuer including, without limitation, any Cayman Islands or United States federal, state or other applicable securities law the violation of which has or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any of the Collateral, (d) require registration of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the pool of Collateral as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act, (e) cause the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to violate the terms of the Indenture, including, without limitation, any representations made by the Issuer or Co-Issuer therein, or any other agreement contemplated by the Indenture or (f) subject the Issuer to U.S. federal or state income or franchise taxation or cause the Issuer to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Portfolio Manager covenants that it shall comply in all material respects with all laws and regulations applicable to it in connection with the performance of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Portfolio Manager shall not be required to take any action under this Agreement or the Indenture if such action would violate any applicable law, rule, regulation or court order.

8. Compensation.

(a) The Issuer shall pay to the Portfolio Manager, for services rendered and performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Management Fee, which shall be payable in such amounts and at such times as set forth in the Indenture. The provisions of the Indenture which relate to the amount and payment of the Management Fee shall not be amended without the consent of the Portfolio Manager. If on any Payment Date there are insufficient funds to pay such fee (and/or any other amounts due and payable to the Portfolio Manager) in full, the amount not so paid shall be deferred and shall be payable with accrued interest on such later Payment Date on which funds are available therefor as provided in the definition of "Subordinated Management Fee" in the Indenture.

(b) The Portfolio Manager shall be responsible for the ordinary expenses incurred in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that any extraordinary expenses incurred by the Collateral Manager in the performance of such obligations (including, but not limited to, any fees, expenses or other amounts payable to the Rating Agencies, the Collateral Administrator, the Trustee, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent and the accountants appointed by the Issuer, the reasonable expenses incurred by the Portfolio Manager to employ outside lawyers or consultants reasonably necessary in connection with the evaluation, transfer or restructuring of any Collateral Obligation, any reasonable expenses incurred by the Portfolio Manager in obtaining advice from outside counsel with respect to its obligations under this Agreement, brokerage commissions, transfer fees, registration costs, taxes and other similar costs and transaction related expenses and fees arising out of transactions effected for the Issuer's account and the portion allocated to the Issuer of any other fees and expenses that the Portfolio Manager customarily allocates among all of the funds or portfolios that it manages) shall be reimbursed by the Issuer to the extent funds are available therefor in accordance with and subject to the limitations contained in the Indenture.

(c) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 12, Section 14 or otherwise, the fees payable to the Portfolio Manager shall be prorated for any partial periods between Payment Dates during which this Agreement was in effect and shall be due and payable on the first Payment Date following the date of such termination and on any subsequent Payment Dates to the extent remaining unpaid and in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Indenture.

9. Benefit of the Agreement.

The Portfolio Manager agrees that its obligations hereunder shall be enforceable at the instance of the Issuer, the Trustee, on behalf of the Holders of the Notes and the Class Q-1 Securities, or the requisite percentage of Holders of the Notes and the Class Q-1 Securities or Holders of Class E Certificates, as applicable, as provided in the Indenture or the Class E Certificates Paying Agency Agreement, as applicable.

10. Limits of Portfolio Manager Responsibility; Indemnification.

(a) The Portfolio Manager assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture made applicable to it pursuant to the terms of this Agreement in good faith and, subject to the standard of conduct described in the next sentence, shall not be responsible for any action of the Issuer or the Trustee in following or declining to follow any advice, recommendation or direction of the Portfolio Manager. The Portfolio Manager, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, and its Affiliates and their directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, shall not be liable to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Holders of the Notes and the Class Q-1 Securities, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, the Holders of the Class E Certificates or any other person for any losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (collectively, "Liabilities") incurred by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Holders of the Notes and the Class Q-1 Securities, the Class E Certificates Paying Agent, the Holders of the Class E Certificates or any other person that arise out of or in connection with the performance by the Portfolio Manager of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture, except by reason of (i) acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance, or reckless disregard, of the obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to it or (ii) with respect to any information included in the Offering Circular in the sections entitled "The Portfolio Manager" that contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (the preceding clauses (i) and (ii) collectively being the "Portfolio Manager Breaches"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Portfolio Manager shall have no duty to independently investigate any laws not otherwise known to it in connection with its obligations under this Agreement and the Indenture. When purchasing, managing, selling or terminating Collateral Obligations on behalf of the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements in clause (bb) of the definition of Collateral Obligation, in the final sentence of Section 7.12(a) and in Sections 7.8(a)(xi) and 7.16(m) of the Indenture, in each case, as to the manner of acquisition, if it satisfies each of the requirements set forth in Section I and Section II of Schedule 1 hereto. When entering into, performing under and terminating Hedge Agreements on behalf of the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements in Section 14.2(k)(ii) of the Indenture as to U.S. federal income tax if it satisfies the requirements set forth in Section III of Schedule 1 hereto.

(b) The Issuer shall indemnify and hold harmless (the Issuer in such case, the “Indemnifying Party”) the Portfolio Manager, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees (such parties collectively in such case, the “Indemnified Parties”) from and against any and all Liabilities, and shall reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) (collectively, the “Expenses”) as such Expenses are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the “Actions”), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with, the issuance of the Securities, the transactions contemplated by the Offering Circular, the Indenture or this Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided, however, that no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions by any Indemnified Party constituting Portfolio Manager Breaches. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer under this Section 10 shall be payable solely out of the Collateral in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Indenture and shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(c) With respect to any claim made or threatened against an Indemnified Party, or compulsory process or request or other notice of any loss, claim, damage or liability served upon an Indemnified Party, for which such Indemnified Party is or may be entitled to indemnification under this Section 10, such Indemnified Party shall (or with respect to Indemnified Parties that are directors, officers, stockholders, agents or employees of the Portfolio Manager, the Portfolio Manager shall cause such Indemnified Party to):

(i) give written notice to the Indemnifying Party of such claim within ten (10) days after such Indemnified Party’s receipt of actual notice that such claim is made or threatened, which notice to the Indemnifying Party shall specify in reasonable detail the nature of the claim and the amount (or an estimate of the amount) of the claim; provided, however, that the failure of any Indemnified Party to provide such notice to the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under this Section 10 unless the Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced or otherwise forfeits rights or defenses by reason of such failure;

(ii) at the Indemnifying Party’s expense, provide the Indemnifying Party such information and cooperation with respect to such claim as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require, including, but not limited to, making appropriate personnel available to the Indemnifying Party at such reasonable times as the Indemnifying Party may request;

(iii) at the Indemnifying Party’s expense, cooperate and take all such steps as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request to preserve and protect any defense to such claim;

(iv) in the event suit is brought with respect to such claim, upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, which the Indemnifying Party may exercise in its sole discretion and at its expense, to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement of such claim;

(v) neither incur any material expense to defend against nor release or settle any such claim or make any admission with respect thereto (other than routine or incontestable admissions or factual admissions the failure to make which would expose such Indemnified Party to unindemnified liability) nor permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof, in each case without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party; and

(vi) upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, in its sole discretion and at its sole expense, to assume the defense of such claim, including, but not limited to, the right to designate counsel reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party and to control all negotiations, litigation, arbitration, settlements, compromises and appeals of such claim; provided, that if the Indemnifying Party assumes the defense of such claim, it shall not be liable for any fees and expenses of counsel for any Indemnified Party incurred thereafter in connection with such claim except that if such Indemnified Party reasonably determines that counsel designated by the Indemnifying Party has a conflict of interest in connection with its representation of such Indemnified Party, such Indemnifying Party shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of one counsel (in addition to any local counsel) separate from its own counsel for all Indemnified Parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances; provided, further, that prior to entering into any final settlement or compromise, such Indemnifying Party shall seek the consent of the Indemnified Party and use its commercially reasonable efforts in the light of the then prevailing circumstances (including, without limitation, any express or implied time constraint on any pending settlement offer) to obtain the consent of such Indemnified Party as to the terms of settlement or compromise. If an Indemnified Party does not consent to the settlement or compromise within a reasonable time under the circumstances, the Indemnifying Party shall not thereafter be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Party for any amount in excess of such proposed settlement or compromise.

(d) In the event that any Indemnified Party waives its right to indemnification hereunder, the Indemnifying Party shall not be entitled to appoint counsel to represent such Indemnified Party nor shall the Indemnifying Party reimburse such Indemnified Party for any costs of counsel to such Indemnified Party.

(e) The U.S. federal securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith; accordingly, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, nothing herein shall in any way constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Issuer, the Holders of Securities may have under any U.S. federal securities laws.

11. No Partnership or Joint Venture.

The Issuer and the Portfolio Manager are not partners or joint venturers with each other and nothing herein shall be construed to make them such partners or joint venturers or impose any liability as such on either of them. The Portfolio Manager's relation to the Issuer shall be deemed to be that of an independent contractor.

12. Term; Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall commence as of the date first set forth above and shall continue in force and effect until the first of the following occurs: (i) the payment in full of the Notes, the termination of the Indenture in accordance with its terms and the redemption in full of the Class E Certificates; (ii) the liquidation of the Collateral and the final distribution of the proceeds of such liquidation to the Holders of the Notes, the Holders of the Class Q-1 Securities and the Class E

Certificates Paying Agent; or (iii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with subsection (b), (c), (d) or (e) of this Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement.

(b) Subject to Section 12(f) below, the Portfolio Manager may resign, upon 90 days' written notice to the Issuer (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer). If the Portfolio Manager resigns, the Issuer agrees to appoint a successor Portfolio Manager to assume such duties and obligations in accordance with Section 12(f).

(c) Subject to Section 12(f) below, the Portfolio Manager may be removed without cause upon 90 days' prior written notice by the Issuer, at the direction of the Holders of at least 66 2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Class E Certificates (excluding Class E Certificates held by the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or any account for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority at the time of such vote); provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to avoid any such removal if, on or prior to the proposed removal date the following conditions are satisfied: (i) the Portfolio Manager provides written notice, not less than 20 Business Days prior to the proposed removal date, to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to Holders of Class E Certificates), the Issuer and the Trustee that the Portfolio Manager intends to purchase not less than all of the Class E Certificates voting for such removal from the Holders thereof (the "Directing Class E Certificates"), (ii) in the notice provided to the Class E Certificates Paying Agent (for forwarding to Holders of Class E Certificates) in the preceding clause (i), the Portfolio Manager includes a statement to the effect that each Holder of Class E Certificates who did not vote for removal may provide written notice to the Portfolio Manager not later than 5 Business Days prior to the proposed removal date that the Class E Certificates held by such Holder shall be deemed to be included in the Directing Class E Certificates as provided in the preceding clause (i), and (iii) the Portfolio Manager effects the purchase of not less than all of the Directing Class E Certificates (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Class E Certificate Components of Class P Securities and Class Q-1 Securities in accordance with the Indenture) at the Buy-out Amount. If all of the conditions set forth in the preceding sentence are satisfied on or prior to the proposed removal date, the Portfolio Manager shall continue as the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement. For purposes of this Section 12(c), "Buy-out Amount" means, with respect to the Directing Class E Certificates, an amount, when taken together with all payments and distributions made in respect of such Directing Class E Certificates since the Closing Date, would cause the Directing Class E Certificates to have received (as of the date of the Portfolio Manager's purchase thereof) a Class E Certificate Internal Rate of Return of 12.00% (assuming such purchase date was a "Payment Date" under the Indenture); provided that in the case of any such purchase by the Portfolio Manager on a date after the Payment Date in November 2018, and solely with respect to any single Holder of Directing Class E Certificates holding U.S. $30,000,000 or more in aggregate Face Amount of Class E Certificates, an amount, when taken together with all payments and distributions made in respect of such Holder's Directing Class E Certificates since the Closing Date, would cause such Directing Class E Certificates to have received (as of the date of the Portfolio Manager's purchase there) a Class E Certificate Internal Rate of Return of 15.00% (assuming such purchase date was a "Payment Date" under the Indenture). If the applicable Directing Class E Certificates have already received a Class E Certificate Internal Rate of Return of such respective levels, the Buy-out Amount will be zero.

(d) This Agreement shall be automatically terminated in the event that the Issuer determines in good faith that the Issuer or the pool of Collateral has become required to be registered under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, and the Issuer notifies the Portfolio Manager thereof.

(e) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 12, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other, except as provided in Sections 2(c)(i), 8, 10 and 15 of this Agreement.

(f) No removal, termination or resignation of the Portfolio Manager shall be effective unless the Issuer appoints a successor Portfolio Manager (a) (i) at the written direction of a Super Majority of the Class E Certificates (excluding any Class E Certificates held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority), (ii) such successor has agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture, (iii) a Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class of Notes has consented to the appointment of such successor portfolio manager and (iv) such successor portfolio manager is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single Class (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority)); or (b) if a Super Majority of the Class E Certificates (excluding any Class E Certificates held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority) has nominated two or more successor portfolio managers that have either not been consented to pursuant to the preceding clause (a)(iii) or been objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (a)(iv) or has otherwise failed to appoint a successor portfolio manager that has been consented to pursuant to the preceding clause (a)(iii) and is not objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (a)(iv) within 30 days of the date of notice of such removal, termination or resignation of the Portfolio Manager, then (i) at the direction of the Holders of at least a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class appoint a successor portfolio manager, (ii) such successor has agreed in writing to assume all of the Portfolio Manager's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture and (iii) such successor portfolio manager is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) a Majority of the Class E Certificates (excluding any Class E Certificates held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority) or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single Class (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority)); or (c) if a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class fails to appoint a successor portfolio manager pursuant to the preceding clause (b) within 90 days of the date of notice of such removal, termination or resignation of the Portfolio Manager, the Holders of a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class may petition a court of competent authority to appoint a successor portfolio manager. In addition, any successor Portfolio Manager must be an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Portfolio Manager hereunder, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as Portfolio Manager hereunder, as successor to the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Portfolio Manager hereunder and under the applicable terms of the Indenture, (iii) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of Collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, (iv) shall perform its duties as Portfolio Manager under this Agreement and the Indenture without causing the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any Holder of Class E Certificates to become subject to tax in any jurisdiction where such successor Portfolio Manager is established as doing business and (v) each Rating Agency has confirmed that the appointment of such successor Portfolio Manager shall not cause its then-current rating of any Class of Notes to be reduced or withdrawn. No compensation payable to a successor from payments on the Collateral shall be greater than that paid to the Portfolio Manager without the prior written consent of the Holders of a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class of Notes, the Holders of a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting collectively) and a Majority of the Class E Certificates. The Issuer, the Trustee and the successor Portfolio Manager shall take such action (or cause the retiring Portfolio Manager to take such action) consistent with this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Portfolio Manager, as shall be necessary to effectuate any such succession.

(g) In the event of removal of the Portfolio Manager pursuant to this Agreement, the Issuer shall have all of the rights and remedies available with respect thereto at law or equity, and, without limiting the foregoing, the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, the Trustee may by notice in writing to the Portfolio Manager as provided under this Agreement terminate all the rights and obligations of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement (except those that survive termination pursuant to Section 12(e) above). Upon expiration of the applicable notice period with respect to termination specified in this Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement, as applicable, all authority and power of the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement, whether with respect to the Collateral or otherwise, shall automatically and without further action by any person or entity pass to and be vested in the successor Portfolio Manager upon the appointment thereof.

13. Delegation; Assignments.

This Agreement, and any obligations or duties of the Portfolio Manager hereunder, shall not be delegated by the Portfolio Manager, in whole or in part, except to any entity that (i) is controlled by two or more of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers and (ii) is one in which two or more of James Dondero, Mark Okada and Todd Travers is involved in the day to day management and operations (and in any such case pursuant to an instrument of delegation in form and substance satisfactory to the Issuer), without the prior written consent of the Issuer, a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes and a Majority of the Class E Certificates (excluding Class E Certificates held by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates or any account for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority); provided that such delegation shall not cause the Issuer to be subject to tax in the United States, and, notwithstanding any such consent, no delegation of obligations or duties by the Portfolio Manager (including, without limitation, to an entity described above) shall relieve the Portfolio Manager from any liability hereunder.

Subject to Section 12, any assignment of this Agreement to any Person, in whole or in part, by the Portfolio Manager shall be deemed null and void unless (i) such assignment is consented to in writing by the Issuer, the Holders of at least 66 2/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class of Notes and the Holders of a Majority of the Class E Certificates (excluding Class E Certificates held by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates or any account for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority), (ii) the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to any such assignment and (iii) such assignee or delegate shall not cause the Issuer to be subject to tax in the United States. Any assignment consented to by the Issuer and such Noteholders and Holders of Class E Certificates shall bind the assignee hereunder in the same manner as the Portfolio Manager is bound. In addition, the assignee shall execute and deliver to the Issuer and the Trustee a counterpart of this Agreement naming such assignee as Portfolio Manager. Upon the execution and delivery of such a counterpart by the assignee and consent thereto by the Issuer, such Noteholders and such Holders of the Class E Certificates, the Portfolio Manager shall be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement, except with respect to its obligations arising under Section 10 of this Agreement prior to such assignment and except with respect to its obligations under Sections 2(c)(i) and 15 hereof. This Agreement shall not be assigned by the Issuer without the prior written consent of the Portfolio Manager and the Trustee, except in the case of assignment by the Issuer to (i) an entity which is a successor to the Issuer permitted under the Indenture, in which case such successor organization shall be bound hereunder and by the terms of said assignment in the same manner as the Issuer is bound thereunder or (ii) the Trustee as contemplated by the Indenture. In the event of any assignment by the Issuer, the Issuer shall cause its successor to execute and deliver to the Portfolio Manager such documents as the Portfolio Manager shall consider reasonably necessary to effect fully such assignment. The Portfolio Manager hereby consents to the matters set forth in Article 15 of the Indenture.

14. Termination by the Issuer for Cause.

This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

27. Provisions Separable.

In case any provision in this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable as written, such provision shall be construed in the manner most closely resembling the apparent intent of the parties with respect to such provision so as to be valid, legal and enforceable; provided, however, that if there is no basis for such a construction, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability and, unless the ineffectiveness of such provision destroys the basis of the bargain for one of the parties to this Agreement, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof or thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

28. Number and Gender.

In addition, with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may instruct the trustee for such Defaulted Collateral Obligation to enforce the Issuer's rights under the Underlying Instruments governing such Defaulted Collateral Obligation and any applicable law, rule or regulation in any manner permitted under the Indenture that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable judgment shall be in the best interests of the Holders of the Securities. In the event any Offer is made with respect to any Collateral Obligation, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, may take such action as is permitted by the Indenture and that the Portfolio Manager has determined in its reasonable judgment shall be in the best interests of the Holders of the Securities.

(b) In connection with taking or omitting any action under the Indenture or this Agreement, the Portfolio Manager may consult with counsel and may rely in good faith on the advice of such counsel or any opinion of counsel.

Without prejudice to Section 14(f) hereof, any corporation, partnership or limited liability company into which the Portfolio Manager may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Portfolio Manager shall be a party, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company succeeding to all or substantially all of the collateral management business of the Portfolio Manager, shall be the successor to the Portfolio Manager without any further action by the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Noteholders or any other person or entity.

31. Limitation of Liabilities.

The Issuer's obligations hereunder are solely the corporate obligations of the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager shall not have any recourse to any of the directors, officers, shareholders, members or incorporators of the Issuer with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby, except for any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations caused by the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such directors, officers, shareholders, members or incorporators of the Issuer. The obligations of the Issuer hereunder shall be limited to the net proceeds of the Collateral, if any, and following realization of the Collateral and its application in accordance with the Indenture, any outstanding obligations of the Issuer hereunder shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. ## Schedule 1

Certain Tax Provisions

Capitalized terms used but not defined herein will have the meanings ascribed to them in the Indenture.

Section I. Specific Restrictions.

A. Communications and Negotiations with Issuers.

Neither the Issuer nor the Portfolio Manager will have any communications or negotiations with the issuer of a Collateral Obligation or the issuer of a Reference Obligation (in any case, directly or indirectly through an intermediary such as the seller of such Collateral Obligation or the Synthetic Security) in connection with the issuance or funding of such Collateral Obligation or Reference Obligation or commitments with respect thereto, except for communications of an immaterial nature or customary due diligence communications; provided, that the Portfolio Manager may (i) consent to or withhold consent to any proposed amendments, supplements or other modifications of the term of any Collateral Obligations after such Collateral Obligations are acquired by the Issuer, and (ii) provide comments as to mistakes or inconsistencies in loan documents (including with respect to any provisions that are inconsistent with the terms and conditions of purchase of the loan by the Issuer).

B. Collateralized Obligations Purchased from the Portfolio Manager and Affiliates.

If the Portfolio Manager or an affiliate of the Portfolio Manager acted as an underwriter, placement or other agent, arranger, negotiator or structuror in connection with the issuance or origination of a Collateral Obligation or was a member of the original lending syndicate with respect to the Collateral Obligation, the Issuer will not acquire any interest in such Collateral Obligation (including entering into a commitment or agreement, whether or not legally binding or enforceable, to acquire such obligation directly or synthetically), from the Portfolio Manager, an affiliate of the Portfolio Manager, or a fund managed by the Portfolio Manager, unless such Collateral Obligation is a "Permitted Affiliated Collateral Obligation," which shall require that (i) the Collateral Obligation has been outstanding for at least 90 days, (ii) the holder of the Collateral Obligation did not identify the obligation or security as intended for sale to the Issuer within 90 days of its issuance, (iii) the employees or agents of the Portfolio Manager responsible for selecting Collateral Obligations for the Issuer were not directly involved in the origination of the Collateral Obligation on behalf of the Portfolio Manager, an affiliate of the Portfolio Manager, or a fund managed by the Portfolio Manager (e.g. responsible for approving or reviewing the lending decision, participation in a credit committee reviewing any loan proposed to be made), (iv) the price paid for such obligation by the Issuer is its fair market value at the time of acquisition by the Issuer, (v) after the acquisition the Issuer will own less than 50% of the aggregate principal amount of the tranche or class of the borrowing that includes such Collateral Obligation and (vi) the addition of such Collateral Obligation to the portfolio would not cause 25% or more of the Collateral Obligations to consist of Permitted Affiliated Collateral Obligations.

C. Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans.

(i) The Issuer will not purchase any Collateral Obligation that constitutes a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan unless the legal document closing with respect thereto has occurred and either (x) at least one advance of more than a de minimis amount has already been made under the facility or loan of which the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, respectively, is a part by a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager or (y) such Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan is not a stand-alone Revolving Loan or a stand-alone Delayed Drawdown Loan and such Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan is being acquired in connection with the related loan.

(ii) All of the terms of any advance required to be made by the Issuer under any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan will be fixed as of the date of the Issuer's purchase thereof (or will be determinable under a formula that is fixed as of such date), and the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager will not have any discretion (except for consenting or withholding consent to amendments, waivers or other modifications or granting customary waivers upon default) as to whether to make advances under such Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan.

(iii) The Issuer cannot acquire or hold more than a 50% interest in a Revolving Loan or a Delayed Drawdown Loan.

D. Application to Synthetic Securities.

With respect to each Synthetic Security: (a) the criteria used to determine whether to enter into any particular Synthetic Security is similar to the criteria used by the Portfolio Manager in making investment decisions in debt securities; (b) the Synthetic Security is acquired by or entered into by the Issuer for its own account and for investment purposes with the expectation of realizing a profit from income earned on the securities and/or any rise in their value during the interval of time between their purchase and sale or hedging purposes and not with an intention to trade or to sell for a short-term profit; (c) the Issuer enters into the Synthetic Security with a counterparty that is a broker-dealer or that holds itself out as in the business of entering into such contracts; (d) none of the Issuer and any other person acting on behalf of the Issuer advertises or publishes the Issuer's ability to enter into Synthetic Securities; and (e) except with respect to (x) credit-linked notes or similar Synthetic Securities and (y) any other Synthetic Securities where standard form ISDA documentation is not applicable, the Synthetic Security is written on standard form ISDA documentation.

Section II. Restrictions with Respect to Loans and Forward Purchase Commitments.

A. Any understanding or commitment to purchase a loan, a participation, a loan subparticipation or a collateralized loan obligation (collectively, "Loans") from a seller before completion of the closing and full funding of the Loan by such seller must be treated as a forward sale agreement (a "Forward Purchase Commitment") unless such an understanding or commitment is not legally binding and neither the Issuer nor the Portfolio Manager is economically compelled to purchase the Loan following the completion of the closing and full funding of the Loan (i.e., the Portfolio Manager will make an independent investment decision whether to purchase such Loan on behalf of the Issuer after completion of the closing and full funding of the Loan) (a "Non-Binding Agreement").

B. No Forward Purchase Commitment or Non-Binding Agreement shall be made until after the seller (or a transferor to such seller of such Loan) has made a legally binding commitment to fully fund such Loan to the obligor thereof, (subject to customary conditions), which commitment cannot be conditioned on the Issuer's ultimate purchase of such Loan from such seller.

C. In the event of any reduced or eliminated funding, the Issuer shall not receive any premium, fee, or other compensation in connection with having entered into the Forward Purchase Commitment or Non-Binding Commitment.

D. The Issuer shall not close any purchase of a Loan subject to a Forward Purchase Commitment earlier than 48 hours after the time of the closing and full funding of the Loan.

E. The Issuer cannot have a contractual relationship with the borrower with respect to a Loan until the Issuer actually purchases the Loan.

F. The Issuer cannot be a signatory on the lending agreement or otherwise acquire a loan as a member of the original lending syndicate, and cannot be obligated to fund an assignment of or a participation in a Loan prior to the actual funding of the Loan by the institutions lending to the borrower.

G. The Issuer cannot purchase or commit to purchase a Loan if it would cause the Issuer to own more than 50% of the aggregate principal amount of the tranche or class of the borrowing that includes such Loan.

Section III. Hedge Agreements.

When entering into, performing under or terminating a hedge agreement:

A. The Issuer and the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, shall not solicit, advertise, publish or otherwise hold the Issuer out as willing to execute or facilitate trades in, enter into, assume, offset or terminate derivative instruments or transactions in the ordinary course of business; and

B. The Issuer shall enter into hedge agreements (1) on standard form ISDA documentation, (2) solely for the purpose of hedging currency risk, interest risk, basis risk, and other non-credit related financial risk in connection with the Issuer's issuance of, and making payments on, the Notes and the Issuer's ownership and disposition of the Collateral, and (3) that it will treat as "notional principal contracts" for all applicable U.S. federal tax purposes except as otherwise may be required by any taxing authority.

Co-Placement Agent for Class A Notes

Payment of interest on, and principal of, the Notes will be made by the Issuer in U.S. Dollars on the first day of each February, May, August and November of each year (or if such day is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day) (each such date a “Payment Date”), commencing February 1, 2007, to the extent of available cash flow in respect of the Collateral in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Each Class of Notes will bear interest at the per annum rates set forth under “Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities.” The Preference Shares will receive as dividends certain amounts available for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Priority of Payments. In addition, Holders of the Class II Preference Shares are entitled, subject to any restrictions under Cayman Islands law, to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments equivalent to the proceeds that would otherwise constitute Servicing Fees payable to the Servicer during the first two years following the Closing Date. After the two-year anniversary of the Closing Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Issuer to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. See “Description of the Securities—Interest Payments on the Notes and Payments of Dividends on the Preference Shares from Interest Proceeds” and “—Priority of Payments.”

The Notes will be subject to Optional Redemption in whole, but not in part, on any Payment Date upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period, in each case at the direction of the Holders of at least 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares. The Notes will be subject to mandatory redemption on any Payment Date, to the extent that any of the Coverage Tests are not satisfied, as described herein. The Notes will be subject to Special Redemption, at the discretion of the Servicer, to the extent that at any time during the Replacement Period, the Servicer cannot identify satisfactory additional or replacement Collateral Obligations. After redemption in full of the Notes, the Preference Shares will be subject to Optional Redemption in whole or in part on any Payment Date by the Issuer at the direction of the Holders of the requisite percentage of the Preference Shares at the applicable Redemption Price pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted; provided, however, that the Preference Shares must be redeemed on or prior to the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. See “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption,” “—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes,” “—Special Redemption of Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture” and “—Priority of Payments.” The principal amount of the Notes will be payable at the Stated Maturity, unless redeemed or paid in full prior thereto. The Preference Shares are scheduled to be redeemed at their Redemption Price on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, unless redeemed prior thereto.

Certain pledged assets of the Issuer are the sole source of payments on the Securities. The Securities do not represent an interest in or obligations of, and are not insured or guaranteed by, the Holders of the Preference Shares, the Servicer, the Trustee, any paying agent, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty or any of their respective Affiliates.

Payments to each Holder of the Preference Shares shall be made ratably among the Holders of the Preference Shares in proportion to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of such Preference Shares held by each Holder (provided that the Class II Preference Share Special Payments shall be paid solely to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares in proportion to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class II Preference Shares held by each Holder).

Except as provided under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments,” the Class A Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares; the Class B Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares; the Class C Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares; the Class D Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares; the Class E Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Preference Shares; and the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares will rank pari passu in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date except that any payments to the Holders of Class II Preference Shares of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments will have priority to the extent provided under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

The Securities and certain other obligations of the Co-Issuers will have the priorities of payment described under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

Co-Issuers ..... The Issuer has been incorporated and exists as an exempted limited liability company under the laws of the Cayman Islands. The Issuer’s activities are limited to acquiring Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments, entering into any Hedge Agreements, issuing the Securities and entering into certain related transactions. The Issuer has been established as a special purpose vehicle for the purpose of issuing asset backed securities.

The Co-Issuer is organized as a corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of co-issuing the Senior Notes. The Co-Issuer has been established as a special purpose vehicle for the purpose of issuing asset backed securities.

The Issuer will not have any significant assets other than Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, any Hedge Agreements and certain other eligible assets. The Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, the rights of the Issuer under any Hedge Agreements and other collateral will be pledged to the Trustee as security for, among other things, the Issuer’s obligations under the Notes.

The Co-Issuer is not expected to have any significant assets and will not pledge any assets to secure the Senior Notes.

Investors Corp. ..... On the Closing Date, Red River Investors Corp. (“Investors Corp.”), an exempted limited liability corporation incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands, is expected to purchase all of the Class I Preference Shares and to finance such purchase by issuing preference shares (the “Holding Preference Shares”) in a number equal to the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares purchased by it. The Holding Preference Shares will be offered by Investors Corp. to investors pursuant to a separate offering memorandum (the “Investors Corp. Offering Memorandum”) and are not offered hereby.

Investors Corp. will exercise its consent and voting rights, in its capacity as a Holder of the Class I Preference Shares, in accordance with the directions of the Holders of the Holding Preference Shares; provided that Holding Preference Shares held by the Servicer or any of its Affiliates will have no such right to direct Investors Corp. in connection with the removal of the Servicer for “cause” or the appointment of a replacement servicer. For purposes of calculating such consents or votes exercised with respect to the Class I Preference Shares held by Investors Corp., each consent or vote exercised with respect to a Holding Preference Share will count as one consent or vote exercised with respect to a Class I Preference Share held by Investors Corp., as applicable.

Trustee ..... U.S. Bank National Association will act as the Trustee under the Indenture on behalf of the Holders of the Notes.

Servicer ..... Certain servicing and administrative functions with respect to the Collateral will be performed by Highland Capital Management, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (“Highland Capital” or, in such capacity, the “Servicer”), pursuant to the Servicing Agreement, which may be amended from time to time without the consent of the Holders of the Securities. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Servicing Agreement” and “The Servicing Agreement.”

On the Closing Date, (i) HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries are expected to purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares having an aggregate Face Amount equal to U.S.$45,000,000 and (ii) Highland Capital and its Affiliates are expected to purchase all of the Class E Notes having an aggregate principal amount equal to U.S.$31,500,000 and Holding Preference Shares having an aggregate Face Amount equal to U.S.$21,000,000.

The Share Registrar will record in the register maintained by it which Preference Shares are held by HFP or any of its subsidiaries. Such Preference Shares will be designated by the Share Registrar as Class II Preference Shares. HFP and/or its subsidiaries that purchase Class II Preference Shares will agree not to transfer any of the Class II Preference Shares to any Person other than Investors Corp. Any transfer of Class II Preference Shares by HFP or any of its subsidiaries to Investors Corp. will require redesignation by the Share Registrar of such Class II Preference Shares as Class I Preference Shares. Investors Corp. will finance the purchase of any Class II

Preference Shares to be redesignated in connection with such transfer by issuing additional Holding Preference Shares in a number equal to the aggregate number of, and at a price equal to the price of, such Class II Preference Shares. Any transfer of Class I Preference Shares to HFP or any of its subsidiaries from Investors Corp. will require redesignation by the Share Registrar of such Class I Preference Shares as Class II Preference Shares.

The Servicer or its Affiliates may also acquire Preference Shares upon the occurrence of the Amendment Buy-Out Option. In addition, the Servicer or its Affiliates may acquire all or any portion of any Extension Sale Securities in connection with a Maturity Extension. See “The Servicer,” “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities,” “—Relating to the Servicer” and “—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer,” “Description of the Securities—Amendment Buy-Out,” “Description of the Securities—Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date” and “The Servicing Agreement.”

Closing Date..... August 3, 2006.

Use of Proceeds..... The gross proceeds of the offering of the Securities received on the Closing Date are expected to equal approximately $900,000,000 and will be used by the Issuer to:

- purchase a portfolio of Collateral Obligations;
- fund a trust account for Revolving Loans (the “Revolving Reserve Account”) and a trust account for Delayed Drawdown Loans (the “Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account”) to cover any future draws on Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans;
- enter into any Hedge Agreements, as applicable;
- enter into any Securities Lending Agreements (and correspondingly to fund the Securities Lending Account);
- enter into any Synthetic Security Agreements (and correspondingly to fund the related accounts);
- repurchase and terminate Participations outstanding under the Warehouse Agreements (at a price reflecting the price originally paid by the Issuer to acquire the Warehoused Loans, plus the amount of extensions of credit in respect of certain Warehoused Loans, minus the aggregate amount of payments of principal received by the Warehouse Providers, respectively, in respect of such Warehoused Loans (excluding the amount of any such payment that was required to be repaid or returned by any Warehouse Provider by claw-back or otherwise), plus all accrued and unpaid interest and fees on such Warehoused Loans);

- fund the Closing Date Expense Account and the Interest Reserve Account; and
- undertake certain related activities.

See “Use of Proceeds.”

Payment Dates ..... Payment of interest on, and principal of, the Notes will be made by the Issuer in U.S. Dollars on the first day of each February, May, August and November of each year (or if such day is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day), commencing February 1, 2007, to the extent of available cash flow in respect of the Collateral in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Interest Payments and Distributions from Interest

Proceeds ..... The Notes will accrue interest from the Closing Date. Interest on the Notes will be payable, to the extent of funds available therefor, on each Payment Date.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of interest due on such Class of Deferred Interest Notes that is not available to be paid (“Deferred Interest”) in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered “payable” for the purposes of the Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments. To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for such Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest), until paid. See “Description of the Securities—Interest Payments on the Notes and Payments of Dividends on the Preference Shares from Interest Proceeds,” “—Priority of Payments” and “—The Indenture—Events of Default.”

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Interest Proceeds as described under clauses (22) and (24) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds”; provided that, in lieu of payment of such Interest Proceeds, in whole or in part, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, will have the right to direct the Trustee to distribute on any Payment Date Eligible Equity Securities pro rata to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date to the extent that the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) is equal to or lower than the aggregate amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be distributed on the relevant Payment Date to such Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares. Interest Proceeds in an amount equal to the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) distributed to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares will be treated for all purposes by the Issuer and the Servicer as Principal Proceeds available for distribution in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the relevant Payment Date. The amount of Interest Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date will be reduced and the amount of Principal Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date will be increased accordingly. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” and “—Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement—Distribution of Eligible Equity Securities.”

In addition, on each Payment Date during the first two years following the Closing Date, Holders of the Class II Preference Shares are entitled to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments. After the two-year anniversary of the Closing Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be distributed by the Issuer to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. Any Class II Preference Share Special Payment will be paid by the Issuer in accordance with the Priority of Payments described under clauses (3), (20) and (23) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

Principal Payments and Distributions from Principal

Proceeds ..... The Notes will mature at par on the Payment Date in July 27, 2018 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date (the “Stated Maturity”) and the Preference Shares are scheduled to be redeemed at the Redemption Price thereof by the Issuer on the Payment Date in July 27, 2018 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date (the “Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date”), in each case unless redeemed or (in the case of the Notes) repaid in full prior thereto. The average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years from issuance until Stated Maturity for such Notes. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary,” “—A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected” and “Maturity and Prepayment Considerations.”

In general, principal payments will not be made on the Notes before the end of the Replacement Period, except in the following circumstances:

- in connection with an Optional Redemption;
- at the option of the Servicer, to effect a Special Redemption of the Notes;
- pursuant to a redemption made in connection with a Tax Event; or
- following a mandatory redemption of the Notes caused by a failure to meet any of the Coverage Tests or a Rating Confirmation Failure.

See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments,” “—Optional Redemption,” “—Special Redemption of the Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture,” “—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes” and “Security for the Notes—Ramp-Up.”

No payments of principal will be made on the Class B Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class C Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class D Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class E Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes has been paid in full (other than with respect to the use of Interest Proceeds to pay principal of the Class E Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class E Coverage Tests). However, Principal Proceeds may be used to pay Deferred Interest and other amounts before the payment of principal of the Notes. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

No principal of any Class of Notes will be payable on any Payment Date other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and to the extent funds are available therefor on that Payment Date for that purpose, except that the principal of each Class of Notes will be payable in full at the Stated Maturity, unless repaid before that.

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares (including, with respect to the Class II Preference Shares, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Principal Proceeds as described under clauses (11)(A), (14) and (15) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

For a description of the relative priority of payments and level of subordination of the Securities and certain fees, expenses and other liabilities of the Co-Issuers, see “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares

Redemption Date..... The Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Replacement Period to the applicable Extended Replacement Period End Date up to a maximum of four times if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Replacement Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. For purposes of the foregoing, “Extension Effective Date” means if an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extension Effective Date (or, in the case of the first Extension Effective Date, the Payment Date in May 2011) and “Extended Replacement Period End Date” means, if an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Replacement Period End Date (or, in the case of the first Extension, the Payment Date in August 2017); provided that the “Extended Replacement Period End Date” will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in August 2029.

If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Notes shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date shall automatically be extended to the Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents (the “Maturity Extension”); provided that the Issuer will not be permitted to effect more than four Maturity Extensions. For purposes of the foregoing, “Extended Stated Maturity Date” means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Stated Maturity Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Stated Maturity Date, the Payment Date in August 2022), “Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date” means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, August 2022 and “Extended Weighted Average Life Date” means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Weighted Average Life Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Weighted Average Life Date, August 1, 2019); provided that the “Extended Stated Maturity Date” will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in August 2034, the “Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date” will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in August 2034 and the “Extended Weighted Average Life Date” will in no event be a date later than the Payment Date in August, 2031.

As a condition to a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes or Preference Shares will have the right to offer to sell their Notes or Preference Shares to one or more Extension Qualifying Purchasers for purchase on the applicable Extension Effective Date.

If all Extension Conditions are satisfied and a Maturity Extension is effected, each Noteholder, other than Holders of Extension Sale Securities, will be entitled to receive the applicable Extension Bonus Payment, to the extent of available funds and as provided in the Priority of Payments. Holders of Preference Shares will not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary,” “—A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected,” “Maturity and Prepayment Considerations,” and “Description of the Securities—Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date.”

Security for the Notes ..... The Notes will be secured by a portfolio having an Aggregate Principal Balance following the Ramp-Up Period of approximately U.S.$880,700,000 (in principal amount) and consisting primarily of Collateral Obligations and certain other debt securities, in each case having the characteristics set forth herein. The Notes will also be secured by funds on deposit in the Issuer Accounts, the Issuer's rights under any Hedge Agreements, any Securities Lending Agreements, the Servicing Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement. See "Security for the Notes."

Collateral Ramp-Up Period ..... The Issuer expects that, as of the Closing Date, it will have purchased (or entered into commitments to purchase) Collateral Obligations to be included in the anticipated portfolio such that the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator will be at least U.S.$880,700,000 as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date. The "Ramp-Up Completion Date" is the earlier of (i) the Business Day after the 120th day after the Closing Date, and (ii) the first day on which the following conditions are satisfied (x) either (A) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer equals at least U.S.$880,700,000 or (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations purchased (or committed to be purchased) by the Issuer with proceeds from the sale of the Securities (in each case in this clause (B), measured solely as of the date of purchase or commitment, as the case may be) equals at least U.S.$880,700,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date) and (y) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least U.S.$880,700,000.

In anticipation of the issuance of the Securities: (a) the Issuer, the Servicer, MMP-5 Funding, LLC (as participant and warehouse provider) and IXIS Financial Products Inc. ("IXIS Financial Products") entered into the IXIS Warehouse Agreement, (b) the Issuer, the Servicer and Highland Special Opportunities Holding Company (as participant and warehouse provider) entered into the Highland Warehouse Agreement and (c) the Issuer, the Servicer and Grand Central Asset Trust, SOH Series (as participant and warehouse provider) entered into the Grand Central Warehouse Agreement. Pursuant to the Warehouse Agreements, the Servicer has agreed to service, on behalf of the Issuer, the Warehoused Loans to be acquired by the Issuer before the Closing Date. 100% participation in each Warehoused Loan has been acquired by the applicable Warehouse Provider concurrently with the acquisition of such Warehoused Loan by the Issuer, for a purchase price equal to the purchase price paid by the Issuer for the related Warehoused Loan. The participation interests in certain Warehoused Loans granted by the Issuer to MMP-5 Funding, LLC pursuant to the IXIS Warehouse Agreement were subsequently acquired by Grand Central Asset Trust, SOH Series pursuant to the Grand Central Warehouse Agreement. On the Closing Date, eligible Warehoused Loans will be repurchased by the Issuer with proceeds of the offering. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Collateral Obligations—A Substantial Amount of Collateral Obligations Was Acquired Before the Closing Date, and the Terms of the Acquisition May Adversely Affect the Issuer.” See “Security for the Notes—Ramp-Up.”

Replacement Period; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations.....

During the Replacement Period, the Issuer may generally (and subject to certain requirements) use Principal Proceeds received with respect to the Collateral to purchase additional or replacement Collateral Obligations in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria (which Eligibility Criteria includes requirements that an item of Collateral purchased by the Issuer meet the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and that the portfolio of Collateral Obligations be in compliance with the Concentration Limitations to the extent provided in the Eligibility Criteria). See “—Collateral Obligations,” “—Concentration Limitations” and “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria.”

The “Replacement Period” will be the period from the Closing Date through and including the first to occur of:

- (i) the Payment Date after the date that the Servicer notifies the Trustee, each Rating Agency and the Administrator, in the sole discretion of the Servicer, that, in light of the composition of the Collateral, general market conditions, and other factors, the acquisition of additional Collateral Obligations within the foreseeable future would be impractical;
- (ii) the Payment Date in August 2013 or, in the case of an Extension, the Extended Replacement Period End Date;
- (iii) the Payment Date on which all Notes are to be optionally redeemed or an earlier date after notice of an Optional Redemption chosen by the Servicer to facilitate the liquidation of the Collateral for the Optional Redemption; and
- (iv) the date on which the Replacement Period terminates or is terminated as a result of an Event of Default (subject to the terms of the Indenture).

No acquisition of Collateral Obligations will be made after the termination of the Replacement Period, except that (x) Unscheduled Principal Payments and (y) Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations may be used to purchase Collateral Obligations after the Replacement Period subject to the limitations described under “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria” and “—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations.” After the termination of the Replacement Period, all Principal Proceeds (other than Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations) must be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no acquisition or disposition of a Collateral Obligation or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) shall be effected by or on behalf of the Issuer for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes.

Collateral Obligations..... Any obligation or security (a “Collateral Obligation”) that, when the Issuer commits to purchase (or otherwise acquire) the obligation or security, is a Loan, High-Yield Bond, Structured Finance Obligation or Synthetic Security with a Reference Obligation that is a Loan, a Structured Finance Obligation or High-Yield Bond that is:

- otherwise qualify for purchase under the Eligibility Criteria;
- (vii) an obligation that (a) has a Moody's Rating (including any estimated or confidential rating which is in respect of the full obligation of the obligor and which is monitored) and (b) has an S&P Rating (including any confidential rating which is in respect of the full obligation of the obligor and which is monitored), which S&P Rating does not have a "p", "pi", "q", "r" or "t" subscript unless S&P otherwise authorizes in writing;
  - (viii) an obligation that is a Finance Lease (if it is a lease) and the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to the acquisition thereof;
  - (ix) an obligation that is not a Current-Pay Obligation, Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Credit Risk Obligation and in the case of a Collateral Obligation that has a Moody's Rating of "Caal" or lower or an S&P Rating of "CCC+" or lower, an obligation for which the Servicer has certified in writing that such Collateral Obligation is not a Credit Risk Obligation;
  - (x) an obligation that (unless it is a High-Yield Bond) is not subordinated by its terms to other indebtedness for borrowed money of the applicable issuer; provided that for the avoidance of doubt, this clause shall not prohibit the inclusion as Collateral Obligations of Subordinated Lien Loans or Second Lien Loans;

  - (xii) an obligation the payment or repayment of the principal, if any, of which is not an amount determined by reference to any formula or index or subject to any contingency under the terms thereof;
  - (xiii) an obligation the portion of which to be acquired (including through a Synthetic Security with respect to the Reference Obligation) does not represent, directly or indirectly, more than a 25% interest in the obligation;

(xiv) not an obligation with a maturity later than two years after the Stated Maturity of the Notes;

(xv) an obligation upon which no payments are subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the obligor thereof or counterparty with respect thereto is required to make "gross-up" payments that cover the full amount of any such withholding tax on an after-tax basis (other than withholding taxes with respect to commitment fees associated with Collateral Obligations constituting Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans);

(xvi) not a Loan or Synthetic Security that would require the Issuer after its purchase of the Loan or Synthetic Security to advance any funds to the related borrower or Synthetic Security Counterparty or permit the borrower or Synthetic Security Counterparty to require that any future advances be made except for:

(A) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan if, simultaneously with its purchase of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, the Issuer deposits into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, respectively, the maximum amount of any advances that may be required of the Issuer under the related Underlying Instrument (as provided in the Indenture); and

(B) any Synthetic Security if, simultaneously with its purchase of the Synthetic Security, the Issuer posts cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) the Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of any future advances;

- (xviii) not a Loan that is an obligation of a debtor in possession or a trustee for a debtor in an insolvency proceeding other than a DIP Loan;

- (xx) in the case of a Synthetic Security, the Synthetic Security is one for which the counterparty or issuer, as the case may be, has a short-term debt rating by Moody's of at least "P-1" or long-term senior unsecured rating by Moody's of at least "A3" and, if rated "A3" by Moody's, such rating is not on watch for downgrade, and an issuer credit rating by S&P of at least "A-";

- (xxiv) not a security whose repayment is subject to substantial non-credit related risk as determined by the Servicer;
- (xxv) not an obligation the interest payments of which are scheduled to decrease (although interest payments may decrease due to unscheduled events such as a decrease if the index relating to a Floating Rate Obligation, the change from a default rate of interest to a non-default rate of interest or an improvement in the obligor's financial condition);
- (xxvi) not an obligation that will cause the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the pool of assets to be required to be registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act; and

Pursuant to the definition of “Synthetic Security,” unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any “deliverable obligation” that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any “credit event” must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such “deliverable obligation” is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any “credit event”) as a Collateral Obligation, except that such “deliverable obligation” may constitute a Defaulted Collateral Obligation when delivered upon a “credit event.”

See “Security for the Notes—Collateral Obligations” and “—Eligibility Criteria.”

Concentration Limitations ..... Upon a purchase of a Collateral Obligation, the Eligibility Criteria require that each of the limits set forth below with respect to a particular type of Relevant Obligation (measured by Aggregate Principal Balance) as a percentage of the Maximum Amount (the “Concentration Limitations”) is satisfied or, if any such limit is not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced:

See "Security For the Notes—Eligibility Criteria."

Coverage Tests and the Retention

Overcollateralization Test ..... The "Coverage Tests" will consist of the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Tests. In addition, the Retention Overcollateralization Test, which is not a Coverage Test, will apply as described herein. See "Security For the Notes—The Coverage Tests—The Overcollateralization Tests" and "—The Interest Coverage Tests" for the formulations of these tests, which are highly detailed. The ratios on which they are based are also described under such headings. The tests will be used to determine, among other things, whether (i) Notes will be redeemed in certain circumstances as described under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments" and (ii) in the case of the Coverage Tests, Collateral Obligations may be acquired as described under "Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria."

There will not be any Coverage Test applicable to the Preference Shares.

The Overcollateralization Tests..... The Overcollateralization Tests will consist of the “Class A/B Overcollateralization Test,” the “Class C Overcollateralization Test,” the “Class D Overcollateralization Test” and the “Class E Overcollateralization Test.” Each Overcollateralization Test will be satisfied with respect to any Class of Notes if, as of any Measurement Date, the Overcollateralization Ratio for the Class is at least equal to the specified required level for the specified Class indicated in the table below:

Test	Required Level
Class A/B Overcollateralization Test	114.8%
Class C Overcollateralization Test	111.3%
Class D Overcollateralization Test	107.4%
Class E Overcollateralization Test	103.8%

The Interest Coverage Tests..... The Interest Coverage Tests will consist of the “Class A/B Interest Coverage Test,” the “Class C Interest Coverage Test,” the “Class D Interest Coverage Test” and the “Class E Interest Coverage Test.” Each Interest Coverage Test will be satisfied with respect to any specified Class of Notes if, as of the second Payment Date and any Measurement Date thereafter on which any Notes remain Outstanding, the Interest Coverage Ratio equals or exceeds the applicable required level specified in the table below for the specified Class:

Test	Required Level
Class A/B Interest Coverage Test	120.0%
Class C Interest Coverage Test	115.0%
Class D Interest Coverage Test	110.0%
Class E Interest Coverage Test	105.0%

Retention Overcollateralization Test . A test that will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date during the Replacement Period on which any Notes remain Outstanding, if the Retention Overcollateralization Ratio as of such Measurement Date is at least equal to 104.8%.

Collateral Quality Tests..... The Collateral Quality Tests will be used primarily as criteria for purchasing Collateral Obligations. See “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria.” The “Collateral Quality Tests” will consist of the Diversity Test, the Weighted Average Life Test, the Weighted Average Moody’s Recovery Rate Test, the Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, the Weighted Average Spread Test, the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test and the S&P CDO Monitor Test, as described below.

Diversity Test ..... The Diversity Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date, if the Diversity Score equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score.

S&P CDO Monitor Test..... The S&P CDO Monitor Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if, after giving effect to the sale of a Collateral Obligation or the purchase of a Collateral Obligation, each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is positive.

Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test ..... The Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon equals or exceeds 7.5%.

Weighted Average Life Test ..... The Weighted Average Life Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the greater of (a) the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and August 1, 2015 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date and (b) 3.0 years.

Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test..... The Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Moody's Minimum Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 44.30%.

Weighted Average Rating Factor Test..... The Weighted Average Rating Factor Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date, if the Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor of the Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) as of such Measurement Date is less than or equal to the Maximum Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor.

Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test..... The Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the S&P Minimum Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 52.42%.

Weighted Average Spread Test ..... The Weighted Average Spread Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Weighted Average Spread.

See "Security for the Notes—The Collateral Quality Tests."

for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests .....

If any of the Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the last day of any Due Period (each, a “Determination Date”), funds will be used pursuant to the Priority of Payments to redeem the Notes to the extent necessary for such failing Coverage Tests to be satisfied that would otherwise be used:

- (i) to purchase additional Collateral Obligations during the Replacement Period; or
- (ii) to make interest and principal payments on the Notes and to make dividend or redemption payments in respect of the Preference Shares.

See “Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests.”

Certain Consequences of Failure to
Overcollateralization Test .....

If during the Replacement Period, the Retention Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied on any Determination Date, certain funds, as described under clause (18) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds,” representing Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be used to make payments on the Preference Shares and pay certain subordinated expenses of the Issuer, will be deposited instead into the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds to the extent necessary to cause the Retention Overcollateralization Test to be satisfied as of that Determination Date after application of Principal Proceeds as described under clause (1) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes
Upon Rating Confirmation Failure .....

The Issuer will request each of S&P and Moody’s to confirm in writing, by the Business Day after the 29th day after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, that it has not reduced, suspended or withdrawn the Initial Rating of each Class of Notes and that it has not placed any Class of Notes on credit watch with negative implications. If the Trustee does not receive evidence of confirmation before the Payment Date following the 29-day period (such an event, a “Rating Confirmation Failure”), all Interest Proceeds remaining after payment of amounts referred to in clauses (1) through (14) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” will be used to pay principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes sequentially in order of their priority on the next Payment

Date and each Payment Date thereafter until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. If necessary, after the foregoing payments are made out of Interest Proceeds, Principal Proceeds in accordance with clause (6) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds” will be used to pay principal of each Class of the Notes sequentially in order of their priority on each Payment Date until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. See “Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure.”

Non-Call Period..... The period from the Closing Date to but not including the Payment Date in August 2011 (the “Non-Call Period”).

Optional Redemption..... Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Holders of at least 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares may require the Issuer or Co-Issuers, as applicable, to redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, from Principal Proceeds and all other funds available for that purpose in the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account in accordance with the redemption procedures described under “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption.”

Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at their Redemption Price. From and after the Redemption Date the redeemed Notes will cease to bear interest.

The redemption price payable in connection with the Optional Redemption of any Class of Notes will be the sum of:

- (i) the outstanding principal amount of the portion of the Note being redeemed; plus
- (ii) accrued interest on the Note (including any Defaulted Interest and interest on Defaulted Interest); plus
- (iii) in the case of any Deferred Interest Note, the applicable Deferred Interest on the Note; plus
- (iv) any unpaid Extension Bonus Payment in respect of the Note.

The redemption price payable in connection with the Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares will be (i) at the direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the entire remaining amount of available funds after all prior applications or (ii) as specified by the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares, in each case, as described under “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption.”

Special Redemption..... The Notes will be subject to redemption in whole or in part by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, on Payment Dates during the Replacement Period if the Servicer elects (subject to the Servicing Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Servicer in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the use of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (a “Special Redemption”). On the first Payment Date following the Due Period for which such notice is effective (a “Special Redemption Date”), the funds in the Collection Account or the Payment Account representing Principal Proceeds which cannot be used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (the “Special Redemption Amount”) will be available to be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments. See “Description of the Securities—Special Redemption of the Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture.”

Additional Issuance of Preference

Shares..... At any time during the Replacement Period, the Issuer may issue and sell additional Preference Shares and use the net proceeds to purchase additional Collateral Obligations if the conditions for such additional issuance described under “Description of the Securities—Additional Issuance of Preference Shares” are met. Any amendment to the Indenture, the Preference Share Documents or any other related documents required to provide for or facilitate such additional issuance of Preference Shares will not require the consent of the Holders of Securities.

It is expected that Investors Corp. will finance the purchase of any additional Class I Preference Shares issued by the Issuer by issuing additional Holding Preference Shares in a number equal to the aggregate number of, and at a price equal to the price of, such additional Class I Preference Shares purchased by it.

The Offering..... The Senior Notes are initially being offered (i) in reliance on Regulation S, to non-U.S. Persons in offshore transactions (“Offshore Transactions”) as such term is defined in Regulation S and (ii) to purchasers that are U.S. persons (“U.S. Persons”) as such term is defined in Regulation S, that are (I) Accredited Investors as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D under the Securities Act (each, an “Accredited Investor”) and (II)(A) Qualified Purchasers or (B) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers. Subsequent transferees of the Senior Notes must be (i) non-U.S. Persons that purchase the Senior Notes in Offshore Transactions or (ii)(a) Qualified Institutional Buyers and (b) (A) Qualified Purchasers or (B) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers. The Class E Notes and the Preference Shares are initially offered and may be subsequently transferred only to purchasers that are (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers (as defined in Rule 144A) (each, a “Qualified Institutional Buyer”) and (ii) (I) Qualified Purchasers or (II) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers. See “Plan of Distribution” and “Transfer Restrictions.”

Form, Registration and Transfer of the Senior Notes .....

Except as provided herein, the Senior Notes sold in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(2) to Accredited Investors and Qualified Purchasers will be represented by one or more permanent global notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons (each, a “Rule 144A Global Note”) deposited with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of, a nominee of the Depository. The Depository will credit the account of each of its participants with the principal amount of the Senior Notes being purchased by or through the participant. Beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note will be shown on, and transfers thereof will be effected only through, records maintained by the Depository and its direct and indirect participants. See “Description of the Securities—Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Senior Notes.”

Except as provided herein, the Senior Notes sold in Offshore Transactions to non-U.S. Persons in reliance on Regulation S will be represented by one or more permanent global notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons (each, a “Regulation S Global Note,” and, together with the Rule 144A Global Notes, the “Global Notes”) which will be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of, a nominee of the Depository for the respective accounts of the beneficial owners at Euroclear or Clearstream. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may be held only through Euroclear or Clearstream at any time.

Except in the limited circumstances described herein, certificated Senior Notes will not be issued in exchange for beneficial interests in Global Notes. See “Settlement and Clearing.”

Transfers of interests in the Senior Notes are subject to certain restrictions and must be made in accordance with the procedures and requirements set forth in the Indenture. See “Description of the Securities—Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Senior Notes” and “Transfer Restrictions.” Each purchaser of Senior Notes in making its purchase will be required to make, or will be deemed to have made, as the case may be, certain acknowledgments, representations and agreements. See “Transfer Restrictions.”

Form, Registration and Transfers of the Class E Notes.....

The Class E Notes will be issued in the form of one or more certificated Class E Notes in definitive, fully registered form, registered in the name of the owner thereof (the “Certificated Class E Notes”).

Transfers of the Class E Notes are subject to certain restrictions and must be made in accordance with the procedures and requirements set forth in the Indenture. See “Description of the Securities—Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Class E Notes” and “Transfer Restrictions.” Each purchaser of Class E Notes in making its purchase will be required to make certain acknowledgments, representations and agreements, and will be required to deliver various tax forms (including applicable IRS Form W-8 or IRS Form W-9) and tax certifications. See “Transfer Restrictions” for more details.

the Preference Shares .....

The Preference Shares will be issued in the form of one or more certificated Preference Shares in definitive, fully registered form, registered in the name of the owner thereof (the “Certificated Preference Shares”).

Transfers of the Preference Shares are subject to certain restrictions and must be made in accordance with the procedures and requirements set forth in the Preference Share Documents. See “Description of the Securities—Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Preference Shares” and “Transfer Restrictions.” Each purchaser of Preference Shares in making its purchase will be required to make certain acknowledgments, representations and agreements, and will be required to deliver various tax forms (including applicable IRS Form W-8 or IRS Form W-9) and tax certifications. See “Transfer Restrictions” for more details.

Ratings ..... It is a condition of the issuance of the Securities that each Class of Notes are rated at least as indicated in the table under “—Principal Terms of the Securities” on the Closing Date.

No rating of the Preference Shares has been sought or obtained in connection with the issuance thereof.

Each of the above ratings assumes that no Maturity Extension occurs after the Closing Date.

A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning Rating Agency. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—Future Ratings of the Notes Are Not Assured and Limited in Scope; the Preference Shares are Not Rated.”

Listing ..... Application will be made to list each Class of the Senior Notes on the ISE. There can be no assurance that such admission will be granted or maintained. See “Listing and General Information.” The issuance and settlement of the Senior Notes on the Closing Date will not be conditioned on the listing of the Notes on the ISE. In addition, there is currently no market for the Senior Notes and there can be no assurance that a market will develop.

Governing Law ..... The terms and conditions of the Preference Shares (as set forth in the Issuer Charter and the Resolutions) will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the Cayman Islands. The Notes, Indenture, any supplemental indenture, the Servicing Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and any Hedge Agreements will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of New York.

Tax Status ..... See “Material Income Tax Considerations.”

Considerations for Benefit Plans ..... Except as described herein, the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares may not be purchased or held by, or transferred to, any Benefit Plan Investor, including a foreign benefit plan not subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. See “Considerations for Benefit Plans.”

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Securities involves certain risks. Prospective investors should carefully consider the following factors, in addition to the matters set forth elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum, prior to investing in any Class of Securities.

Investor Suitability

An investment in the Securities will not be appropriate or suitable for all investors. Structured investment products, like the Securities, are complex instruments, and typically involve a high degree of risk and are intended for sale only to sophisticated investors who are capable of understanding and assuming the risks involved. Any investor purchasing Securities should conduct its own investigation and analysis of an investment in the Securities and consult with its own professional advisors as to the risks involved in making such investment.

General; Priorities of Securities

The Issuer intends to acquire securities and other financial assets with certain risk characteristics as provided in the Indenture and the Servicing Agreement. See “Security for the Notes.” There can be no assurance that the Issuer will be successful in achieving its objectives to ensure that investors receive their initial investments under the Securities and that they receive a return (and avoid any losses, including total losses) on their investment in the Securities. Prospective investors are therefore advised to review this entire Offering Memorandum carefully and should consider, among other things, the following risk factors (along with, among other things, the inherent risks of investment activities) before deciding whether to invest in the Securities.

Except as is otherwise stated below, the risk factors are generally applicable to all the Securities, although the degree of risk associated with each Class of Securities may vary. In particular, the priorities of payment of the Notes are generally in the order of their alphabetic designation from the Class A Notes (the highest priority) to the Class E Notes (the lowest priority), the priorities of payment of the Notes are generally higher than priorities of payment of the Preference Shares.

Relating to the Securities

The Securities Will Have Limited Liquidity

There is currently no market for the Securities. There can be no assurance that a secondary market for any Class of Securities will develop, or if a secondary market does develop, that it will provide the Holders of the applicable Class of Securities with liquidity of investment or that it will continue for the life of such Class of Securities. In addition, each Class of Securities is subject to certain transfer restrictions and can only be transferred to certain transferees as described under “Transfer Restrictions.” The restrictions on the transfer of the Securities may further limit their liquidity. Consequently, an investor in the Securities must be prepared to hold such Securities until their Stated Maturity or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. In addition, the Securities will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws, and the Co-Issuers have no plans, and are under no obligation, to register the Securities under the Securities Act. Application will be made to admit each Class of the Senior Notes to the Daily Official List of the ISE. There can be no assurance that any such admission will be granted or maintained.

The Subordination of the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes, the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares Will Affect Their Right to Payment in Relation to the More Senior Securities

The Class B Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class B Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class B Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

The Class C Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class C Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class C Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full, except in connection with the payment of any Class C Deferred Interest.

The Class D Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class D Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class D Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full, except in connection with the payment of any Class D Deferred Interest.

The Class E Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Memorandum. Payments of interest on the Class E Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and certain other amounts (including certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class E Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full, except in connection with the payment of any Class E Deferred Interest and the use of Interest Proceeds to pay principal of the Class E Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class E Coverage Tests.

No payments will be made out of Interest Proceeds on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date (other than, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments), until due and unpaid interest on the Notes (including any Deferred Interest) and certain amounts (including certain amounts due under the Hedge Agreements, certain servicing fees payable to the Servicer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid on the Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments. No payments will be made out of Principal Proceeds on the Preference Shares (other than, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) until principal of each Class of Notes and certain other amounts payable out of Principal Proceeds on each Payment Date have been paid in full. In addition, the Preference Shares will not be redeemed until each Class of Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

In addition, the Co-Issuers will have only nominal equity capitalization. Consequently, to the extent that any losses are suffered by any of the Holders of any Securities, the losses will be borne first by the Holders of the Preference Shares, and then by the Holders of each Class of Notes, serially in inverse order of their alphabetic designations.

See “Description of the Securities.”

Interest Will Be Deferred on Deferred Interest Notes if There Are Insufficient Funds under the Priority of Payments for Payment of Interest

So long as any Class A Notes or Class B Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class C Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes as Class C Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on the Payment Date when it originally became due will not be an Event of Default. Class C Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds.

So long as any Class A Notes, Class B Notes or Class C Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class D Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class D Notes as Class D Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on the Payment Date when it originally became due will not be an Event of Default. Class D Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds.

So long as any Class A Notes, Class B Notes, Class C Notes or Class D Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class E Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class E Notes as Class E Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on the Payment Date when it originally became due will not be an Event of Default. Class E Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds.

Interest Proceeds May Be Retained in Priority to any Payments to Holders of Preference Shares

During the Replacement Period, if the Retention Overcollateralization Test is not met on any Determination Date, a portion of the Interest Proceeds that might otherwise have been paid to the Holders of the Preference Shares on the related Payment Date will instead be deposited into the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds, as described under clause (18) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

The Controlling Class Will Control Many Rights under the Indenture; However, Some Rights of the Controlling Class to Sell the Collateral in Connection with an Event of Default Are Limited

Under the Indenture, many rights of the Holders of the Notes will be controlled by a Majority of the Controlling Class. Remedies pursued by the Holders of the Controlling Class upon an Event of Default could be adverse to the interests of the Holders of Securities subordinated to the Controlling Class. After any realization on the Collateral, proceeds will be allocated in accordance with the Priority of Payments pursuant to which the Notes and certain other amounts owing by the Co-Issuers will be paid in full before any allocation to the Preference Shares (except, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments), and each Class of Notes (along with certain other amounts owing by the Co-Issuers) will be paid serially in alphabetic order until it is paid in full before any allocation is made to the next Class of Notes.

However, the ability of the Controlling Class to direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral is subject to certain limitations. As described under “Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default,” if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee must retain the Collateral intact and collect all payments in respect of the Collateral and continue making payments in accordance with the Priority of Payments and in accordance with the Indenture unless either (A) the Trustee, in consultation with the Servicer, determines that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds,” and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination or (B) the Holders of a Super Majority of each of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes direct, subject to the provisions of the Indenture, the sale and liquidation of the Collateral.

Net Proceeds Less Than Aggregate Amount of the Securities

It is anticipated that the proceeds received by the Issuer on the Closing Date from the issuance of the Securities, net of certain fees and expenses, will be less than the aggregate amount of the Securities. Consequently, it is anticipated that on the Closing Date the Collateral would be insufficient to repay the purchase price of the Securities in the event of an Event of Default under the Indenture on that date.

The Issuer is Highly Leveraged, which Increases Risks to Investors

The Issuer will be substantially leveraged. Use of leverage involves substantially increased risks to investors in the Securities. The leverage provided to the Issuer by the issuance of the Securities will result in interest expense and other costs incurred in connection with the borrowings that may not be covered by the net interest income, dividends and other cash flow in respect of the Collateral Obligations. The use of leverage generally magnifies the Issuer’s risk of loss, particularly for the more subordinate Classes of Notes and the Preference Shares. In certain circumstances, such as in connection with the exercise of remedies following an Event of Default, the Controlling Class may require the Issuer to dispose of some or all of the Collateral Obligations under unfavorable market conditions, thus causing the Issuer to recognize a loss that might not otherwise have occurred. In certain circumstances, the Controlling Class are entitled to direct the sales of Collateral Obligations and may be expected to do so in their own interest, rather than in the interests of the more subordinate Classes of Securities.

Each of the Co-Issuers Is Newly Formed, Has No Significant Operating History, Has No Material Assets Other than the Collateral and Is Limited in Its Permitted Activities

Each of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer is a newly formed entity and has no significant operating history, other than, with respect to the Issuer, in connection with the acquisition of the Collateral Obligations during the period up to the Ramp-Up Completion Date. Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer will have any material assets other than, with respect to the Issuer, the Collateral. The Indenture provides that the Issuer is not permitted to engage in any business activity other than the issuance of the Notes, the Preference Shares and the Issuer Ordinary Shares, the acquisition and disposition of Collateral Obligations, certain activities conducted in connection with the payment of amounts in respect of the Securities and the servicing of the Collateral, and other activities incidental or related to the foregoing and that the Co-Issuer is not permitted to engage in any business activity other than the co-issuance and sale of the Senior Notes, the issuance of its share capital, and other activities incidental or related to the foregoing. Income derived from the Collateral will be the Issuer’s principal source of cash.

The Securities Are Not Registered Under the Securities Act and the Issuer Is Not Registered under the Investment Company Act

The Issuer has not registered the Securities under the Securities Act and the Issuer is not registered under the Investment Company Act, in each case in reliance upon applicable exemptions to registration under the Securities Act and the Investment Company Act. The Issuer does not expect to register the Securities under the Securities Act nor become registered under the Investment Company Act at any time in the foreseeable future. As such, investors should be aware that the Issuer and the Securities are not subject to many of the regulatory protections and oversight applicable to securities that are registered under the Securities Act or applicable to registered investment companies.

The Notes Are Limited Recourse Obligations; Investors Must Rely on Available Collections from the Collateral and Will Have No Other Source for Payment

The Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Class D Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Co-Issuers and the Class E Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer. The Securities are payable solely from the Collateral pledged by the Issuer to secure the Notes. None of the security holders, members, officers, directors, partners, or incorporators of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer, the Placement Agents, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Administrator, the Share Registrar, the Share Trustee, any of their respective affiliates, or any other person will be obligated to make payments on the Notes. The Issuer's ability to make interest payments and principal repayments on the Notes will be constrained by the terms of the Indenture. Holders of the Notes must rely solely on collections received on the Collateral pledged to secure the Notes and for the payment of interest and principal on the Notes, and there can be no assurance that those collections will be sufficient to pay all amounts due on the Notes. If distributions on the Collateral are insufficient to make payments on the Notes, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and, following liquidation of all of the Collateral, the Co-Issuers will not have any obligation to pay any deficiency, which shall be extinguished and shall not revive.

The Preference Shares are not Secured Obligations; Investors Must Rely on Available Collections from the Collateral and Will Have No Other Source for Payment

The Preference Shares will be part of the issued share capital of the Issuer. The Preference Shares are equity in the Issuer and are not secured by the Collateral Obligations or other Collateral securing the Notes. As such, the Holders of Preference Shares will rank behind all creditors, whether secured or unsecured and known or unknown, of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the Holders of the Notes and any Hedge Counterparties (other than, to the extent described under the "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments," the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares with respect to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments). Except with respect to the obligations of the Issuer to pay the amounts described under the "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" and "—Principal Proceeds," the Issuer does not, however, expect to have any creditors though there can be no assurance that this will be the case. In addition, the Issuer is also subject to limitations with respect to the business that it may undertake. See "The Co-Issuers—Business." Payments in respect of the Preference Shares are subject to certain requirements imposed by Cayman Islands law. Any amounts paid by the Preference Shares Paying Agent as dividends on the Preference Shares will be payable only if the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or balance in the Issuer's share premium account. In addition, dividends and the final payment upon redemption of the Preference Shares will be payable only to the extent that the Issuer is and will remain solvent after such dividends or redemption payment is paid. Under Cayman Islands law, a company is generally deemed to be solvent if it is able to pay its debts as they come due.

The Issuer's obligation to pay dividends or to make other distributions to the Holders of the Preference Shares will therefore not be a secured obligation of the Issuer and such Holders will not be entitled to the benefits of the Indenture, nor will the Trustee have any obligation to act on behalf of the Holders of Preference Shares. With the exception of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments, Holders of the Preference Shares will only be entitled to receive amounts available for payment of dividends or other distributions after payment of all amounts payable on each Class of Notes and certain other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments and only to the extent of distributable profits of the Issuer and/or any balance in the Issuer's share premium account and (in each case) only to the extent that the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distributions.

To the extent the requirements under Cayman Islands law described in the preceding paragraphs are not met, amounts otherwise payable to the Holders of the Preference Shares (with the exception of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) will be retained in the Preference Shares Distribution Account until, in the case of dividends, the next succeeding Payment Date on which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent such requirements are met and, in the case of any payment on redemption of the Preference Shares, the next succeeding Business Day on which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent such requirements are met. Amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account will not be available to pay amounts due to the Holders of the Notes, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Servicer, any Hedge Counterparty or any other creditor of the Issuer whose claim is limited in recourse to the Collateral. However, amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account may be subject to the claims of creditors of the Issuer that have not contractually limited their recourse to the Collateral. The Indenture and the Preference Share Documents will limit the Issuer's activities to the issuance and sale of the Securities, the acquisition and disposition of the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments and the other activities related to the issuance and sale of the Securities described under the "The Co-Issuers." The Issuer therefore does not expect to have any significant full recourse liabilities that would be payable out of amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

The Issuer May Distribute Eligible Equity Securities to the Holders of the Preference Shares in Lieu of Cash

The Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, may direct the Trustee to distribute Eligible Equity Securities, in lieu of a distribution of Interest Proceeds, in whole or in part, to the Holders of the Preference Shares who consent to such distribution with respect to any applicable Payment Date to the extent that the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities, determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date, is equal to or lower than the aggregate amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be distributed to such Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares on the relevant Payment Date. The Market Value of any Eligible Equity Securities is subject to fluctuations and may increase or decrease following any distribution of such Eligible Equity Securities to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares, which, in certain circumstances, may result in the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares receiving overall a higher or lower internal rate of return compared with the internal rate of return received by the Holders of the Preference Shares who have not accepted any distribution of the Eligible Equity Securities.

The Issuer May Not Be Able to Apply Available Funds to Acquire Appropriate Collateral

The amount of Collateral Obligations purchased on the Closing Date, the amount and timing of the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations before the Ramp-Up Completion Date, and the subsequent application of Principal Proceeds, will affect the cash flows available to make payments on, and the return to the Holders of, the Securities. Reduced liquidity and relatively lower volumes of trading in certain Collateral Obligations, in addition to restrictions on acquisition represented by the Eligibility Criteria, could result in periods during which the Issuer is not able to fully utilize its available cash to acquire Collateral Obligations, and it is unlikely that the Issuer's available cash will be fully applied in Collateral Obligations at any time. The longer the period before application of cash or cash-equivalents to acquire Collateral Obligations and the larger the amount of such cash or cash equivalents, the greater the adverse impact may be on aggregate interest collected and distributed by the Issuer, thereby resulting in lower yield than could have been obtained if the net proceeds associated with the offering of the Securities and all Principal Proceeds were immediately and fully applied. The associated risk will be borne first by the Holders of the Preference Shares and second by the Holders of the Notes (beginning with the most subordinated Class of Notes). Although the Servicer may mitigate this risk to some degree during the Replacement Period by declaring a Special Redemption, the Servicer is not required to do so, and any Special Redemption may result in a lower yield on the Issuer's assets than could have been obtained if the net proceeds from the offering of the Securities and all Principal Proceeds were immediately and fully applied and no Special Redemption had taken place.

Generally, Principal Proceeds (together with Interest Proceeds, but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on Collateral Obligations, and Sale Proceeds received on the Collateral Obligations) will be applied during the Replacement Period (and, Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, may be applied on any date after the Replacement Period, at the discretion of the Servicer) to purchase replacement Collateral Obligations or temporarily held in Eligible Investments pending purchase of replacement Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The earnings with respect to replacement Collateral Obligations will depend, among other factors, on interest rates available in the marketplace at the time and on the availability of Collateral Obligations acceptable to the Servicer that satisfy the criteria under "Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria." The need to satisfy the criteria and identify acceptable Collateral Obligations may require the purchase of replacement Collateral Obligations having lower yields than those initially acquired or require that Principal Proceeds be held temporarily in cash or Eligible Investments, which will reduce the yield earned by the Issuer. Further, issuers of Collateral Obligations may be more likely to exercise any rights they may have to redeem them when interest rates or spreads are declining. Any decrease in the yield on the Collateral Obligations will reduce the amounts available to make payments of principal and interest on the Notes and payments on the Preference Shares.

The Issuer expects that, as of the Closing Date, it will have purchased (or entered into commitments to purchase) approximately U.S.$862,000,000 in Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations to be included in the anticipated portfolio as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date.

Changes in Tax Law Could Result in the Imposition of Withholding Taxes with Respect to Payments on the Securities, and the Issuer Will Not Gross-Up Payments to Holders

Although no withholding tax is currently imposed by the United States or the Cayman Islands on payments on the Securities, there can be no assurance that, as a result of any change in any applicable law, treaty, rule, regulation, or interpretation thereof, the payments with respect to the Securities would not in the future become subject to withholding taxes. If any withholding tax is imposed on payments on any Securities, the Issuer will not "gross up" payments to their Holders.

The Securities Are Subject to Substantial Transfer Restrictions

The Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act, under any U.S. state securities or "Blue Sky" laws, or under the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and are being issued and sold in reliance upon exemptions from registration provided by those laws. No Securities may be sold or transferred unless: the sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act (for example, in reliance on exemptions provided by Rule 144A or Regulation S) and applicable state securities laws; and the sale or transfer does not cause either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral to become subject to the registration requirements of the Investment Company Act. See "Transfer Restrictions" and "Considerations for Benefit Plans."

Non-Compliance with Restrictions on Ownership of the Securities and Acquisition or Disposition of Collateral Obligations under the United States Investment Company Act of 1940 Could Adversely Affect the Issuer

Neither of the Co-Issuers has registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") as an investment company pursuant to the Investment Company Act in reliance on an exclusion from the definition of "investment company" under Section 3(c)(7) for companies organized under the laws of a jurisdiction other than the United States or any of its states whose investors residing in the United States are solely "qualified purchasers" (within the meaning given to such term in the Investment Company Act and related SEC regulations).

The Issuer and the Co-Issuer may, at any time following the Closing Date, rely on exclusion from the definition of “investment company” under Rule 3a-7 in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7) upon (a) receipt of an opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm providing that neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer is required to register as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act in reliance on such exclusion under Rule 3a-7 and (b) notice to the Holders of the Securities in accordance with the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. In connection with this alternate reliance, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents may be amended without the consent of any Holders to (i) remove any restrictions and limitations imposed on the Issuers or the Holders that solely relate to compliance with Section 3(c)(7) and (ii) add any requirements that are necessary for compliance with Rule 3a-7. See “—The Servicer May Cause the Issuer to Amend the Indenture to Assure Compliance with Rule 3a-7 Without the Consent of the Holders of the Securities in a Manner that May Adversely Affect the Holders of Securities.”

No opinion or no-action position with respect to the registration of either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral under the Investment Company Act has been requested of, or received from, the SEC. If the SEC or a court of competent jurisdiction were to find that the Issuer or the Co-Issuer is required, but in violation of the Investment Company Act had failed, to register as an investment company, possible consequences include the following: (i) the SEC could apply to a district court to enjoin the violation; (ii) investors in the Issuer or the Co-Issuer could sue the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, and recover any damages caused by the violation; and (iii) any contract to which the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, is party whose performance involves a violation of the Investment Company Act would be unenforceable by any party to the contract unless a court were to find that under the circumstances enforcement would produce a more equitable result than non-enforcement and would not be inconsistent with the purposes of the Investment Company Act.

In addition, the Issuer’s being required to register as an investment company would result in an Event of Default. See “Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default.” Should the Issuer or the Co-Issuer be subjected to any or all of the foregoing, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, would be materially and adversely affected.

Restrictions on Acquisition or Disposition of Collateral Obligations May Reduce the Earnings of the Holders of the Securities

Rule 3a-7 imposes limitations on the ability of the Issuer to purchase or sell assets, including prohibiting the Issuer from purchasing or selling assets for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. The Indenture will restrict the Issuer from purchasing and selling assets consistent with such requirements of Rule 3a-7. Under these restrictions the Issuer may be required to hold a Collateral Obligation or precluded from acquiring a Collateral Obligation when it would have sold such Collateral Obligation or acquired such Collateral Obligation, as applicable, had it based such determination on the market value changes in the value of such Collateral Obligations. As a result, greater losses on the Collateral may be sustained and there may be insufficient proceeds on any Payment Date to pay in full any expenses of the Issuer or any amounts payable to the Trustee or the Administrator (all of which amounts are payable prior to payments in respect of the Notes) and the payments due on the Securities. See “Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations.”

The Servicer May Cause the Issuer to Amend the Indenture to Assure Compliance with Rule 3a-7 Without the Consent of the Holders of the Securities in a Manner That May Adversely Affect the Holders of Securities

On the Closing Date, HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries will purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares. The Servicer will act as the manager for HFP. HFP and Highland Financial Trust, the owner of substantially all of the limited partnership interests of HFP, may need to rely on an exception from the definition of “investment company” and the requirement to register under the Investment Company Act that in turn depends upon the Issuer not being an investment company required to register under the Investment Company Act by reason of Rule 3a-7 thereunder in lieu of the Issuer’s reliance on

Section 3(c)(7). It is expected that, in connection with certain capital raising activities of Highland Financial Trust, the SEC may consider the applicability of Rule 3a-7 to the Issuer. If it were determined that the Issuer cannot rely on Rule 3a-7, the Servicer may cause the Issuer to amend the Indenture without the consent of the Holders of the Notes and without the consent of the Holders of the Preference Shares to enable the Issuer to rely on Rule 3a-7, which could require additional limitations and prohibitions on the circumstances under which the Issuer may sell assets, on the type of assets that the Issuer may acquire out of the proceeds of assets that mature, are refinanced or otherwise sold, on the period during which such transactions may occur, on the level of transactions that may occur or on other provisions of the Indenture and could adversely affect the earnings of the Issuer and its ability to make payments on the Notes and distributions to the Preference Shares. As a condition to the effectiveness of any such amendment to the Indenture, the Issuer, the Trustee and the Servicer will receive (i) a Rating Confirmation with respect to such amendment and (ii) a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such amendment and assuming compliance with the Indenture as so amended, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act in reliance on such exemption under Rule 3a-7. Such nationally recognized law firm may also be acting as counsel to the Servicer, certain Holders of Notes and/or Preference Shares. The interests of any such parties may not coincide with the interest of other Holders of Notes and/or Preference Shares. See "Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Supplemental Indenture."

The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary

The Stated Maturity of the Notes is July 27, 2018 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date. The weighted average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years until their Stated Maturity. See "Description of the Securities." The weighted average life of a Class of Notes will be affected by the amount and timing of payments of principal of the Notes and the amount and timing of payments received on the Collateral Obligations. The amount and timing of payments of principal on the Notes will be affected by, among other things, any Optional Redemption of the Notes, a failure of any Coverage Test, a Rating Confirmation Failure, any failure by the Servicer to apply the proceeds of the offering of the Securities in Collateral Obligations, a redemption of the Securities made in connection with a Tax Event, any Special Redemption of one or more Classes of Notes, and an Event of Default by the Issuer in the payment of the Notes and an acceleration of the principal of the Notes in connection with an Event of Default. The occurrence of any of the foregoing unscheduled principal repayments of the Notes is, in turn, determined by the amount and timing of payments on the Collateral, which will be dependent on, among other things, the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral and the characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, including the existence and frequency of exercise of any prepayment, optional redemption, or sinking fund features, the prevailing level of interest rates, the redemption price, the actual default rate and the actual level of recoveries on any Defaulted Collateral Obligations, the frequency of tender or exchange offers for the Collateral Obligations and any sales of Collateral Obligations, dividends or other distributions received on any obligations that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange do not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation, as well as the risks unique to Collateral Obligations of foreign issuers. See "Security for the Notes."

A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected

Under the Indenture, the Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, shall be entitled, on each Extension Effective Date, to extend the Replacement Period (a maximum of four times) to the applicable Extended Replacement Period End Date if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Replacement Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. Under the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents, if the Replacement Period is so extended, the Stated Maturity of the Notes (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date) will be equally extended and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended without the requirement for any approval or consent of any Holders of Securities. Holders of Securities will not be able to prevent or prohibit the extension of the Stated Maturity of the Notes (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date) so long as the Extension Conditions are satisfied, which include the ability of Holders of Securities to sell their Securities at the designated purchase price to a designated purchaser under the Indenture. However, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Indenture provides that Holders of Preference Shares that have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12.0% as of the Extension Effective Date will not receive any payment in exchange for their Preference Shares sold in connection with a Maturity Extension.

The Issuer and/or Servicer may (but shall not be obligated to) agree separately with one or more Holders of Notes, Preference Shares or Holding Preference Shares (including an IXIS Company or an affiliate of the Servicer) that any such Holder will have the right to receive a greater purchase price than the Extension Purchase Price set forth in the Indenture and, in the case of any such Holder of Preference Shares or Holding Preference Shares (including an IXIS Company or an affiliate of the Servicer), that such Holder will have the right to receive such purchase price if such Holder has not received an agreed upon Preference Share Internal Rate of Return or Holding Preference Share Internal Rate of Return, as the case may be, as of the Extension Effective Date that is in excess of 12.0%.

As a consequence, if the Servicer elects to extend the Replacement Period and the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Holders of the Securities may either be required to hold their Securities for a significantly longer period of time or be forced to sell their Securities for the applicable purchase price under the Indenture, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Securities.

An Amendment Buy-Out May Result in a Shorter Holding Period Than Expected

Any Non-Consenting Holder of Securities with respect to an amendment of the Indenture (which includes Holders that fail to respond to a consent solicitation within the applicable period) may be forced to sell its applicable Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Securities. However, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Indenture provides that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price will be zero for Non-Consenting Holders that have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12.0% as of the Amendment Buy-Out Date. See “Description of the Securities—Amendment Buy-Out.” A Holder’s ability to vote against an amendment or affect or influence the amendment process with respect to the Indenture may thus be limited. The Amendment Buy-Out Option may also increase the ability of the Servicer to affect or influence the amendment process.

The Issuer and/or Servicer may (but shall not be obligated to) agree separately with one or more Holders of Notes, Preference Shares or Holding Preference Shares (including an IXIS Company or an affiliate of the Servicer) that any such Holder will have the right to receive a greater purchase price than the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price set forth in the Indenture and, in the case of any such Holder of Preference Shares or Holding Preference Shares (including an IXIS Company or an affiliate of the Servicer), that such Holder will have the right to receive such purchase price if such Holder has not received an agreed upon Preference Share Internal Rate of Return or Holding Preference Share Internal Rate of Return, as the case may be, as of the Amendment Buy-Out Date that is in excess of 12.0%.

The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests

If any of the Coverage Tests are not satisfied on any Determination Date on which the Notes of the relevant Class are Outstanding, Interest Proceeds available on the related Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments (and, to the extent Interest Proceeds are insufficient, Principal Proceeds available on the Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments) are required to be applied to pay principal of the relevant Class of Notes (and any Classes senior to it) to the extent necessary for the relevant Coverage Test to be satisfied. The application of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds to pay principal of the Notes to the extent necessary to restore the Coverage Tests to certain minimum required levels could result in an elimination, deferral or reduction in the amounts available to make distributions on the Preference Shares and interest and principal payments on one or more classes of Notes, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of the Securities.

The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure

If any rating of any Class of Notes is reduced or withdrawn or placed on credit watch with negative implications by the Business Day after the 29th day after the Ramp-Up Completion Date by either Rating Agency, Interest Proceeds and, if Interest Proceeds are insufficient, Principal Proceeds, are required to be diverted in accordance with the Priority of Payments and used to pay the principal of the Notes sequentially in order of their relative priority on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date after that until each rating is reinstated. The application of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds to pay principal of the Notes to the extent necessary for one or more ratings to be reinstated could result in an elimination, deferral, or reduction in one or more payments or distributions on one or more Classes of Securities, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of those Classes of Securities.

The Indenture Permits Special Redemption of Notes Based on the Servicer's Inability to Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations

The Servicer is permitted under the Indenture to elect to have all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations applied to a Special Redemption of the Notes, in whole or in part, on one or more Payment Dates during the Replacement Period because it has been unable, for a period of at least 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional or replacement Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Servicer in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the application of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be used to purchase additional or replacement Collateral Obligations. On the Special Redemption Date, in accordance with the Indenture, the Special Redemption Amount will be applied in accordance with "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds," to the extent available (which includes for this purpose unapplied proceeds specified by the Servicer), to pay the principal of the Notes. The application of funds in that manner could result in an elimination, deferral, or reduction of amounts available to make payments on Securities subordinate in priority to the Securities being amortized. See "Description of the Securities—Special Redemption of Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture."

The Notes Are Subject to Optional Redemption

Subject to satisfaction of certain conditions, on any Payment Date upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Holders of at least 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares may require that the Notes be redeemed as described under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption." In the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Servicer may be required to aggregate Collateral Obligations to be sold together in one block transaction, thereby possibly resulting in a lower realized value for the Collateral Obligations sold. There can be no assurance that the market value of the Collateral will be sufficient for the Holders of the Preference Shares to direct an Optional Redemption of the Notes. A decrease in the market value of the Collateral would adversely affect the Sale Proceeds from their sale. Consequently, the conditions precedent to the exercise of an Optional Redemption may not be met. Moreover, the Holders of the Notes may not be able to invest the proceeds of the redemption of the Notes in investments providing a return equal to or greater than the Holders of the Notes expected to obtain from their investment in the Notes.

Future Ratings of the Notes Are Not Assured and Limited in Scope; the Preference Shares Are Not Rated

It is a condition to the issuance of the Notes that they be rated as provided under “Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities.” A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and is subject to revision or withdrawal at any time. There is no assurance that a rating will remain for any given period or that a rating will not be lowered or withdrawn entirely by each Rating Agency if in its judgment circumstances in the future so warrant. Any such action could have an adverse effect on the Holders of the relevant Class of Securities. If a rating initially assigned to a Class of Notes is subsequently lowered for any reason, no person is obligated to provide any additional credit support or credit enhancement. The ratings of the Notes are based on the assumption that no Maturity Extension occurs at any time.

No rating of the Preference Shares will be sought or obtained in connection with their issuance.

Events Outside the Control of the Co-Issuers and the Servicer Can Affect the Securities

Various acts of God, force majeure, and certain other events beyond the control of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Collateral Administrator, the Indenture Registrar, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Administrator could affect the ability of financial institutions to process payments and transfer funds and could impair the financial records and record-keeping practices of financial institutions and others (including the Trustee, the Servicer, the Collateral Administrator, the Indenture Registrar, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Administrator). In addition, the existence of those circumstances could cause lenders and other creditors more readily to agree to restructure debt obligations (including payment terms) than they would in the absence of those circumstances. The existence of those circumstances could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, to make timely payments on the Securities.

The Issuer could be Treated as Engaged in a United States Trade or Business

Prior to the issuance of the Securities, the Issuer will receive an opinion from Latham & Watkins LLP (“Tax Counsel”), which opinion is based in part on the safe harbor provided by Section 864(b)(2) of the Code and the Treasury regulations thereunder applying to non-U.S. persons that restrict their activities in the United States to trading in stocks and securities for their own account. The opinion will be to the effect that, although no activity closely comparable to that contemplated by the Issuer has been the subject of any Treasury regulation, revenue ruling or judicial decision and the matter is not free from doubt, assuming compliance with the Issuer’s Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Indenture, the Servicing Agreement and other related documents by all parties thereto, the Issuer’s permitted activities will not cause it to be treated as engaged in the conduct of a U.S. trade or business under the Code. However, in the absence of authority on point, whether the Issuer is or will be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States or not is not entirely free from doubt, and there can be no assurance that positions contrary to those stated in the opinion of Tax Counsel or any other advice or opinion may not be asserted successfully by the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”). The opinion is based on certain assumptions and on certain representations and agreements regarding restrictions on the future conduct of the activities of the Issuer and the Servicer. Although the Issuer intends to conduct its business in accordance with such assumptions, representations and agreements, if it were nonetheless determined that the Issuer was engaged in a United States trade or business and had taxable income that is effectively connected with such United States trade or business, foreign investors in Preference Shares that would otherwise not be subject to U.S. federal income tax would be subject to U.S. federal income tax on their allocable share of the Issuer’s income and the Issuer would be required to withhold on income allocable to such foreign investors of the Preference Shares regardless of whether distributions were made to such holders. Such withholding may reduce the amounts available to make payments on the Notes and would reduce distributions to the holders of the Preference Shares. Investors should note that the Treasury and the IRS recently announced that they are considering taxpayer requests for specific guidance on, among other things, whether a foreign person may be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States by virtue of entering into credit default swaps. However, the Treasury and the IRS have not yet provided any guidance on whether they believe entering into credit default swaps may cause a foreign person to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States and if so, what facts and circumstances must be present for this conclusion to apply. Any future guidance issued by the Treasury and/or the IRS may have an adverse impact on the tax treatment of the Issuer. See discussion under the heading “Material Income Tax Considerations—U.S. Federal Income Taxation of the Issuer—U.S. Federal Income Tax” below. There can be no assurance that, if the Issuer were determined to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States, it would be able to make timely payments of interest on, payment of principal and payment of other distributions at the applicable Stated Maturity of the Securities. In addition, all or a portion of the payments on the Securities to a holder that is not a U.S. Holder (as defined in “Material Income Tax Considerations—General” below) could in such circumstance be subject to a 30% U.S. federal withholding tax. See “Material Income Tax Considerations.”

Benefit Plan Investors

Certain transactions involving the Co-Issuers in the ordinary course might be deemed to constitute “prohibited transactions” under the United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), and Section 4975 of the Code with respect to Benefit Plan Investors (as defined in “Considerations for Benefit Plans”) subject thereto that purchase the Securities, if assets of the Issuer and/or the Co-Issuer were deemed to be “plan assets” subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code or Similar Law (as defined in “Considerations for Benefit Plans”). The Issuer intends to restrict ownership of the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares by Benefit Plan Investors so that no assets of the Issuer will be deemed to be “plan assets” of a plan subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. Specifically, the Issuer, in reliance on purchaser and transferee representations and deemed representations, intends to restrict the acquisition of the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares so that less than 25% of the aggregate outstanding amount of each of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares will be held by Benefit Plan Investors (determined without regard to those Class E Notes and Preference Shares held by Controlling Persons (as defined in “Considerations for Benefit Plans”), such as the Class E Notes and the Class II Preference Shares held by the Servicer or its affiliates and employees thereof). However, there can be no assurance that the ownership of any of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares by Benefit Plan Investors will always remain below the 25% threshold established under the Plan Asset Regulation (as defined in “Considerations for Benefit Plans”).

Although the Co-Issuers believe that the Senior Notes should be classified as indebtedness (rather than as equity) for purposes of the Plan Asset Regulation (as defined in “Considerations for Benefit Plans”) (and thus will allow more than 25% of each class of Senior Notes to be purchased by Benefit Plan Investors), there can be no assurance that the Senior Notes will be so characterized, and the characterization of one or more classes of the Senior Notes could change if the financial condition of the Co-Issuers changes or other terms and conditions of the Senior Notes change.

If the Benefit Plan Investor ownership of any of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares were to meet or exceed the 25% threshold described above, or any class of the Senior Notes were characterized as equity and such threshold were exceeded with respect to such class, resulting in the assets of the Co-Issuers being deemed to be “plan assets,” certain transactions that the Co-Issuers might enter into, or may have entered into, in the ordinary course of business, might constitute non-exempt prohibited transactions under ERISA and/or Section 4975 of the Code and might have to be rescinded. Additionally, the Co-Issuers or other “parties in interest” (as defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA) or “disqualified persons” (as defined in Section 4975(e)(2) of the Code) may be subject to other penalties and liabilities with respect to the transaction.

In addition, the acquisition or holding of the Securities by or on behalf of a plan subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, or a governmental, foreign or church plan subject to laws substantially similar to the provisions of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, could give rise to a prohibited transaction if any of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Placement Agents, other persons providing services in connection with the Co-Issuers, or any of their respective affiliates, is a “disqualified person” or “party in interest” with respect to that plan. If such transaction is not exempt from ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code or, if applicable, substantially similar laws pertaining to governmental, foreign or church plans, the transaction may have to be rescinded and the Co-Issuers or other “disqualified persons” or “parties in interest” may be subject to other penalties with respect to the transaction. Therefore, each investor in the Securities will be required or deemed to represent and warrant that either (i) it is not, and is not using the assets of, and throughout the holding and disposition of such Securities will not become or transfer its interest to, a plan subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, or an entity that is deemed to hold assets of any of the foregoing or a governmental, foreign or church plan which is subject to any federal, state, foreign or local law that is substantially similar to the provisions of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code or (ii) its purchase, holding and disposition of such Securities will not result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law) because such purchase, holding and disposition either (x) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws or (y) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all of the conditions of which are and will be satisfied upon the acquisition of, and throughout its holding and disposition of such Securities.

Any transfer in violation of the foregoing representations will be treated as having no force and effect and will be null and void ab initio, potentially causing loss to the investor purchasing in violation of these representations.

See “Considerations for Benefit Plans” herein for a more detailed discussion of certain ERISA and related considerations with respect to an investment in the Securities by an employee benefit plan or similar plan or arrangement.

Relating to the Servicing Agreement

The Servicing Agreement May Be Amended Without the Consent of Holders of Securities Whether or Not Such Amendment Adversely Affects Holders of Securities

The Issuer may, at the request of the Servicer, enter into an amendment or modification of the Servicing Agreement from time to time, without the consent of the Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not the interests of the Holders of the Securities are adversely affected thereby; provided that, with respect to any such amendment or modification, (a) the Rating Condition is satisfied and (b) a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares have not objected in writing to such amendment or modification by delivering a notice to the Trustee prior to the relevant Objection Cut-Off Date. Holders of the Securities other than Holders of the Controlling Class of Notes and Holders of the Preference Shares will have no ability to vote against any such amendment or modification. The ability of the Holders of the Controlling Class of Notes and Holders of the Preference Shares to influence the amendment process is limited to the right of a Majority of either such Class to object as described above. To the extent that less than a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares object to the proposed amendment or modification, the Servicer may request that the Issuer enter into such amendment or modification and the Trustee consent thereto, without regard to the fact that certain Holders of the Securities may have objected to such proposed amendment or modification.

Relating to the Servicer

The Issuer Will Depend on the Expertise Available to the Servicer and its Key Personnel

The performance of the Issuer’s portfolio of Collateral Obligations depends heavily on the skills of the Servicer in analyzing, selecting and monitoring the Collateral Obligations. As a result, the Issuer will be highly dependent on the financial and servicing experience of certain professionals associated with the Servicer, none of whom is under a contractual obligation to the Issuer to continue to be associated with the Servicer for the term of this transaction. The loss of one or more of these individuals could have a material adverse effect on the performance of the Co-Issuers. Furthermore, the Servicer has informed the Issuer that these professionals are also actively involved in other activities and will not be able to devote all of their time to the Issuer's business and affairs. In addition, individuals not currently associated with the Servicer may become associated with the Servicer and the cash-flow performance of the Collateral Obligations may also depend on the financial and servicing experience of such individuals. See "The Servicing Agreement" and "The Servicer."

The Issuer Will Have Limited Control of the Administration and Amendment of Collateral Obligations

The Servicer will cause the Issuer to exercise or enforce, or refrain from exercising or enforcing, its rights in connection with the Collateral Obligations or any related documents or will refuse amendments or waivers of the terms of any Collateral Obligation and related documents in accordance with its ordinary business practices as if the Servicer were administering the Collateral Obligations for its own account. The authority of the Servicer to cause the Issuer to change the terms of the Collateral Obligations will generally not be restricted by the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement. As a result, the Issuer will be relying on the Servicer's customary standards, policies and procedures with respect to the servicing of the Collateral Obligations. The Holders of the Securities and the Issuer will not have any right to compel the Issuer or the Servicer to take or refrain from taking any actions other than in accordance with its ordinary business practices.

In addition, when the Issuer holds a Participation, the Issuer generally will have no right to enforce compliance by the borrower with the loan or credit agreement or other instrument evidencing the related loan obligation, no rights of set-off against the borrower, no direct interest in the collateral supporting the loan obligation, and no right to vote with respect to amendments of, or waivers of defaults under, the loan obligation. However, most participation agreements relating to Participations in loans provide that the Participating Institution may not vote in favor of any amendment, modification, or waiver that forgives principal, interest, or fees; reduces principal, interest, or fees that are payable; postpones any payment of principal (whether a scheduled payment or a mandatory prepayment), interest or fees; or releases any material guarantee or security without the consent of the participant (at least to the extent the participant would be affected by the amendment, modification, or waiver). A Participating Institution voting in connection with a potential waiver of a default by an obligor may have interests different from those of the Issuer, and the Participating Institution might not consider the interests of the Issuer in connection with its vote. In addition, many participation agreements relating to Participations in loans that do provide voting rights to the participant further provide that if the participant does not vote in favor of amendments, modifications, or waivers, the Participating Institution may repurchase the Participation at par. In the event of the insolvency of the Participating Institution, the Issuer may be treated as a general creditor of the Participating Institution with respect to a Participation and may not benefit from any set-off between the Participating Institution and the borrower and may not be able to proceed against the collateral supporting the loan obligation. As a result, the Issuer is subject to the credit risk of both the borrower and the Participating Institution. An acquisition by the Issuer of a Synthetic Security related to a Loan involves many of the same considerations relevant to Participations. See "—Relating to the Collateral Obligations—Loans Involve Particular Risks" and "—Synthetic Securities Involve Particular Risks" below.

A modification that would increase the commitment of a lender, reduce the interest rate, or postpone the final maturity of an obligation under a participation agreement, or release all of the collateral for an obligation, generally requires the affirmative vote of the participating lender for a loan in which the Issuer owns a Participation, or of the Issuer for a Loan purchased by assignment, for the increase, reduction, or postponement to be binding. The exercise of remedies may also be subject to the vote of a specified percentage of the lenders under the loan obligation. The Servicer will have the authority to cause the Issuer to consent to certain amendments, waivers, or modifications to the Collateral Obligations requested by obligors or the lead agents for participation agreements relating to Participations (subject to operating procedures intended to reduce the risk that the Issuer would be deemed to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States for United States federal income tax purposes). The Servicer may, subject to the transaction documents, cause the Issuer to extend or defer the maturity, adjust the outstanding balance of any Collateral Obligation, reduce or forgive interest or fees, release material collateral or guarantees, or otherwise amend, modify, or waive the terms of any related loan agreement, including its payment terms. The Servicer will make determinations in accordance with its servicing standards under the Servicing Agreement. Any amendment, waiver, or modification of a Collateral Obligation could postpone the expected maturity of the Notes or the expected redemption date of the Preference Shares, or reduce the likelihood of timely and complete payment of interest or principal under the Notes or a full return of an investment in the Preference Shares.

Performance History of the Servicer May Not Be Indicative of Future Results

Any prior results of the Servicer, and the persons associated with it or any other entity may not be indicative of the Issuer's future results. The nature of, and risks associated with, the Issuer's future assets may differ substantially from those assets historically associated with the Servicer, and the persons associated with it or any other entity. There can be no assurance that the Issuer's assets will perform as well as the past assets serviced or managed by the Servicer, and the persons associated with it or any other entity. Moreover, since the criteria that govern the acquisition of the Collateral Obligations do not govern the Servicer's activities generally, the acquisition and disposition of Collateral Obligations conducted in accordance with the criteria contained in the Indenture, and the results they yield, may differ substantially from other assets serviced or managed by the Servicer.

Other accounts, collateralized debt obligations or other funds managed or serviced by the Servicer that are similar to the Issuer ("Other Debt Funds") have been structured to comply with the exemption from registration under the Investment Company Act provided by Section 3(c)(7) thereunder, whereas the Issuer is also structured to comply with the exemption from registration provided by Rule 3a-7 under the Investment Company Act and may in the future, subject to the conditions described herein, rely exclusively on such exemption from registration provided by Rule 3a-7. Rule 3a-7 requires certain additional limitations and restrictions on the buying and selling of assets of the Issuer that are not applicable to the assets of the Other Debt Funds relying on the Section 3(c)(7) exemption from registration. As a result, the Issuer's ability to react to changes in market value of the assets is more limited and the returns on the Issuer's assets and the Securities, including the returns on the Preference Shares, may not be comparable to, and may differ materially from, the performance of the Other Debt Funds.

Notwithstanding the inapplicability of the results obtained and expected to be obtained from the past activities of the Servicer, a period of increased volatility in market conditions, including interest rate environments, can have an adverse effect on the realized and unrealized returns to investors in the past products of the Servicer. There can be no assurance that current economic conditions and the effects of increased interest rate and corresponding price volatility will not adversely impact the investment returns ultimately realized by investors or continued compliance with, among other things, applicable coverage requirements described in this Offering Memorandum.

Relating to the Collateral Obligations

In General, the Collateral Obligations Are Subject to Various Risks

The Collateral Obligations are subject to credit, liquidity, and interest rate risks, among others. The Eligibility Criteria and the Collateral Quality Tests have been established to address certain assumed deficiencies in payment occasioned by defaults with respect to the Collateral Obligations. If any deficiencies exceed certain modeled scenarios, however, payments or distributions on the Securities could be adversely affected. To the extent that a default occurs with respect to any Collateral Obligation securing the Notes and the Issuer (on the advice of the Servicer) sells or otherwise disposes of the Collateral Obligation, it is not likely that the proceeds of the sale or other disposition will be equal to the amount of principal and interest owing to the Issuer on the Collateral Obligation.

The value of the Collateral Obligations generally will fluctuate with, among other things, the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral Obligations and, with respect to Synthetic Securities, both the financial condition of the related Synthetic Security counterparties and the obligors on or issuers of the Reference Obligations, general economic conditions, the condition of certain financial markets, political events, developments or trends in any particular industry, and changes in prevailing interest rates.

The ability of the Issuer to sell Collateral Obligations before their maturity is subject to certain restrictions under the Indenture including those described under “Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations.”

Below Investment-Grade Obligations Involve Particular Risks

A substantial amount of the Collateral Obligations will consist of loans, bonds and other obligations that are below investment grade, including high-yield loans and securities. Those Collateral Obligations will have greater credit and liquidity risk than investment-grade obligations. They are also often unsecured and may be subordinated to certain other obligations of their issuer. The lower rating of those Collateral Obligations reflects a greater possibility that adverse changes in the financial condition of an issuer or in general economic conditions or both may impair the ability of their issuer to make payments of principal or interest. These Collateral Obligations may be speculative.

Risks of below investment-grade Collateral Obligations may include (among others):

- (i) limited liquidity and secondary market support;
- (ii) in the case of fixed-rate high-yield debt securities, substantial market place volatility resulting from changes in prevailing interest rates;
- (iii) subordination to the prior claims of senior lenders and creditors;
- (iv) the operation of mandatory sinking fund or call and redemption provisions during periods of declining interest rates that could cause the Issuer to apply premature redemption proceeds in lower-yielding debt obligations;
- (v) the possibility that earnings of the below investment-grade issuer may be insufficient to meet its debt service; and
- (vi) the declining creditworthiness and potential for insolvency of a below investment-grade issuer during periods of rising interest rates and economic downturn.

An economic downturn or an increase in interest rates could severely disrupt the market for below investment-grade obligations and could adversely affect the value of outstanding below investment-grade obligations and the ability of their issuers to repay principal and interest.

Issuers that are below investment grade may be highly leveraged and may not have available to them more traditional methods of financing. The risk associated with obligations of below investment-grade issuers is generally greater than is the case with investment-grade issuers. For example, during an economic downturn or a sustained period of rising interest rates, below investment-grade issuers may be more likely to experience financial stress, especially if they are highly leveraged. During those periods, timely service of debt obligations may also be adversely affected by specific issuer developments, or the issuer's inability to meet specific projected business forecasts or the unavailability of additional financing. The risk of loss from default by the issuer is significantly greater for the holders of below investment-grade obligations because those obligations may be unsecured and may be subordinated to obligations owed to other creditors of the issuer. In addition, the Issuer may incur additional expenses to the extent it is required to seek recovery upon a default on such an obligation or participate in its restructuring.

As a result of the limited liquidity of below investment-grade obligations, their prices have at times experienced significant and rapid decline when a substantial number of holders decided to sell. In addition, the Issuer may have difficulty disposing of certain below investment-grade obligations because there may be a thin trading market for them. To the extent that a secondary trading market for below investment-grade obligations does exist, it is generally not as liquid as the secondary market for highly rated obligations. Reduced secondary market liquidity may have an adverse impact on the Issuer's ability to dispose of particular Collateral Obligations in response to a specific economic event, such as a deterioration in the creditworthiness of the issuer of the Collateral Obligation.

Loans Involve Particular Risks

The Collateral Obligations will consist primarily of Dollar-denominated senior secured and senior unsecured loans, which are required by the Indenture to be obligations of corporations, partnerships, or other entities organized under the laws of the United States (or any of its states) or of foreign obligors meeting specified criteria, or Synthetic Securities the Reference Obligations of which are such loans. See "Security for the Notes—Collateral Obligations."

Loans may become non-performing for a variety of reasons. Non-performing loans may require substantial workout negotiations or restructuring that may entail, among other things, a substantial reduction in the interest rate or a substantial write-down of the principal of a loan. In addition, because of the unique and customized nature of a loan agreement and the private syndication of a loan, loans typically may not be purchased or sold as easily as publicly traded securities, and historically the trading volume in the bank term loan market has been small relative to the corporate bond market. Loans may encounter trading delays due to their unique and customized nature, and transfers may require the consent of an agent bank or borrower.

The Issuer may acquire interests in loans either directly (by assignment) or indirectly (by Participation or through Synthetic Securities). The Issuer may not originate any loans. The purchaser of an assignment of a loan obligation typically succeeds to all the rights and obligations of the selling institution and becomes a lender under the loan or credit agreement with respect to the debt obligation. In contrast, a Participation acquired by the Issuer in a portion of a loan obligation held by a Participating Institution or a security or other debt obligation typically results in a contractual relationship only with the Participating Institution, not with the borrower. The Issuer would have the right to receive payments of principal, interest, and any fees to which it is entitled under a Participation only from the Participating Institution and only upon receipt by the Participating Institution of those payments from the borrower. The Issuer will be subject to restrictions on the amount of Participations that may be acquired for inclusion in the Collateral. See "Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria."

Certain of the loans in the Issuer's portfolio may be unsecured or secured by collateral worth less than the outstanding balance of the loan. In addition to the general risks associated with loans described above, unsecured loans will not be secured by substantial collateral or any collateral and secured loans may be substantially under-secured. Without collateral and with materially inadequate collateral, the ability of the holder of the loan to recover amounts due from the borrower may be substantially limited.

Structured Finance Obligations Involve Particular Risks

A portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of Structured Finance Obligations and Synthetic Securities the Reference Obligations of which are Loans, Structured Finance Obligations or High-Yield Bonds. Structured Finance Obligations may present risks similar to those of the other types of Collateral Obligations which the Issuer may purchase and, in fact, the risks may be of greater significance in the case of Structured Finance Obligations. Moreover, purchasing Structured Finance Obligations may entail a variety of unique risks. Among other risks, Structured Finance Obligations may be subject to prepayment risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk, structural risk, legal risk and interest rate risk (which may be exacerbated if the interest rate payable on a Structured Finance Obligation changes based on multiples of changes in interest rates or inversely to changes in interest rates). In addition, certain Structured Finance Obligations (particularly subordinated collateralized bond obligations) may provide that non-payment of interest is not an event of default in certain circumstances and the holders of the securities will therefore not have available to them any associated default remedies.

During the period of non-payment, unpaid interest will generally be capitalized and added to the outstanding principal balance of the related security. Furthermore, the performance of a Structured Finance Obligation will be affected by a variety of factors, including its priority in the capital structure of its issuer, the availability of any credit enhancement, the level and timing of payments and recoveries on and the characteristics of the underlying receivables, loans, or other assets that are being securitized, bankruptcy remoteness of those assets from the originator or transferor, the adequacy of and ability to realize on any related collateral, and the skill of the manager or the servicer of the Structured Finance Obligation in managing or servicing securitized assets. The price of a Structured Finance Obligation, if required to be sold, may be subject to certain market and liquidity risks for securities of its type at the time of sale. In addition, Structured Finance Obligations may involve initial and ongoing expenses above the costs associated with the related direct purchases.

Synthetic Securities Involve Particular Risks

As described above, a portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of Synthetic Securities, the Reference Obligations of which are Loans, Structured Finance Obligations or High-Yield Bonds. Acquiring these types of assets through the purchase of Synthetic Securities present risks in addition to those inherently associated with direct purchases of such assets. With respect to Synthetic Securities, the Issuer will usually have a contractual relationship only with the counterparty of the Synthetic Security, and not the reference obligor on the Reference Obligation. The Issuer will have no right to enforce compliance by the reference obligor with the Reference Obligation nor any rights of set-off against the reference obligor, nor have any voting or other consensual rights of ownership with respect to the Reference Obligation. The Issuer will not directly benefit from any collateral supporting the Reference Obligation and will not have the benefit of the remedies that would normally be available to a holder of the Reference Obligation.

In addition, in the event of the insolvency of the Synthetic Security Counterparty, the Issuer will be treated as a general creditor of the counterparty and will not have any claim of title with respect to the Reference Obligation. Consequently, the Issuer will be subject to the credit risk of the counterparty as well as that of the reference obligor and concentrations of Synthetic Securities entered into with any one counterparty will subject the Securities to an additional degree of risk with respect to defaults by that counterparty. One or more Affiliates of the IXIS Placement Agents may act as counterparty with respect to all or a portion of the Synthetic Securities, which relationship may create certain conflicts of interest. See “—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the IXIS Placement Agent” below. In addition, Synthetic Securities may involve initial and ongoing expenses above the costs associated with the related direct acquisitions. The Issuer will be subject to restrictions on the amount of Synthetic Securities it may own at any one time.

Some of the Collateral Obligations Will Be Illiquid

Some of the Collateral Obligations purchased by the Issuer will have no, or only a limited, trading market. The Issuer's acquisition of illiquid Collateral Obligations may restrict its ability to dispose of Collateral Obligations in a timely fashion and for a fair price, as well as its ability to take advantage of market opportunities, although the Issuer is generally prohibited by the Indenture from selling Collateral Obligations except under certain limited circumstances described under “Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations.” Illiquid Collateral Obligations may trade at a discount from comparable, more liquid assets. In addition, the Issuer may purchase privately placed Collateral Obligations that may or may not be freely transferable under the laws of the applicable jurisdiction or due to contractual restrictions on resale, and even if those privately placed Collateral Obligations are transferable, the prices realized from their sale could be less than those originally paid by the Issuer or less than what may be considered their fair value.

Insolvency Considerations With Respect to Issuers of Collateral Obligations May Affect the Issuer's Rights

Various laws enacted for the protection of creditors may apply to the Collateral Obligations. If, in a lawsuit brought by a creditor or representative of creditors of an obligor under a Collateral Obligation (such as a trustee in bankruptcy), a court were to find that the obligor did not receive fair consideration or reasonably equivalent value for incurring the indebtedness evidenced by the Collateral Obligation and, after giving effect to the indebtedness and the use of the proceeds thereof, the obligor (i) was insolvent, (ii) was engaged in a business for which the remaining assets of the obligor constituted unreasonably small capital or (iii) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay them as they mature, the court could determine to invalidate, in whole or in part, the indebtedness as a fraudulent conveyance, to subordinate the indebtedness to existing or future creditors of the obligor, or to recover amounts previously paid by the obligor in satisfaction of the indebtedness. There can be no assurance as to what standard a court would apply to determine whether the obligor was "insolvent" or that, regardless of the method of valuation, a court would not determine that the obligor was "insolvent," in each case, after giving effect to the incurrence of the Collateral Obligation and the use of its proceeds. In addition, in the event of the insolvency of an obligor under a Collateral Obligation, payments made on the Collateral Obligation may be subject to avoidance as a "preference" if made within a certain period before insolvency (which may be as long as approximately one year).

In general, if payments on a Collateral Obligation are avoidable, whether as fraudulent conveyances or preferences, the payments can be recaptured either from the initial recipient (such as the Issuer) or from subsequent transferees of the payments (such as the Holders of the Securities). To the extent that any payments are recaptured from the Issuer, the resulting reduction in payments on the Securities will be borne by the Holders of the applicable Class of Securities. A court in a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding would be able to direct the recapture of any payment from a Holder of the Securities to the extent that the court has jurisdiction over the Holder or its assets. Since there is no judicial precedent relating to structured securities such as the Securities, there can be no assurance that a Holder of Securities will be able to avoid recapture on this basis.

The preceding discussion is based on principles of United States federal and state laws. Insofar as Collateral Obligations that are obligations of non-United States obligors are concerned, the laws of certain foreign jurisdictions may provide for avoidance remedies under factual circumstances similar to, or broader or narrower than, those described above, with consequences that may or may not be analogous to those described above under United States federal and state laws.

International Collateral Obligations Involve Particular Risks

A portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of obligations of obligors Domiciled outside the United States. Acquiring assets outside the United States may involve greater risks than acquiring assets in the United States. These risks may include: less publicly available information; varying levels of governmental regulation and supervision; and the difficulty of enforcing legal rights in a foreign jurisdiction and uncertainties as to the status, interpretation and application of laws. Moreover, foreign companies may be subject to accounting, auditing, and financial reporting standards, practices, and requirements different from those applicable to U.S. companies.

There generally is less governmental supervision and regulation of exchanges, brokers and issuers in foreign countries than there is in the United States. For example, there may be no comparable provisions under certain foreign laws with respect to insider trading and similar investor protection securities laws that apply with respect to securities transactions consummated in the United States.

Foreign markets also have different clearance and settlement procedures, and in certain markets there have been times when settlements have failed to keep pace with the volume of securities transactions, making it difficult to conduct transactions. Delays in settlement could result in periods when assets of the Issuer are unapplied and no return is earned on them. The inability of the Issuer to make intended purchases of Collateral Obligations due to settlement problems or the risk of intermediary counterparty failures could cause the Issuer to miss opportunities to acquire Collateral Obligations. The inability to dispose of a Collateral Obligation due to settlement problems could result either in losses to the Issuer due to subsequent declines in the value of the Collateral Obligation or, if the Issuer has entered into a contract to sell the security, could result in possible liability to the purchaser. Transaction costs of buying and selling foreign securities, including brokerage, tax, and custody costs, also are generally higher than those involved in domestic transactions. Furthermore, foreign financial markets, while generally growing in volume, have, for the most part, substantially less volume than U.S. markets, and securities of many foreign companies are less liquid and their prices more volatile than securities of comparable domestic companies.

In certain foreign countries there is the possibility of expropriation, nationalization, or confiscatory taxation; limitations on the convertibility of currency or the removal of securities, property, or other assets of the Issuer; political, economic, or social instability; or adverse diplomatic developments, each of which could have an adverse effect on the Issuer's purchase of Collateral Obligations in the foreign countries (which may make it more difficult to pay Dollar-denominated obligations such as the Collateral Obligations). The economies of individual non-U.S. countries may also differ favorably or unfavorably from the U.S. economy in such respects as growth of gross domestic product, rate of inflation, volatility of currency exchange rates, depreciation, capital reinvestment, resource self-sufficiency and balance of payments position.

Lender Liability Considerations and Equitable Subordination Can Affect the Issuer's Rights with Respect to Collateral Obligations

In recent years, a number of judicial decisions in the United States have upheld the right of borrowers to sue lenders and bondholders on the basis of various evolving legal theories (collectively termed "lender liability"). Generally, lender liability is founded on the premise that a lender has violated a duty (whether implied or contractual) of good faith and fair dealing owed to the debtor or has assumed a degree of control over the debtor resulting in the creation of a fiduciary duty owed to the debtor or its other creditors or shareholders. Because of the nature of the Collateral Obligations, the Issuer may be subject to allegations of lender liability. In addition, under common law principles that in some cases form the basis for lender liability claims, a court may elect to subordinate the claim of the offending lender to the claims of the disadvantaged creditors, a remedy called "equitable subordination," if a lender: (i) intentionally takes an action that results in the undercapitalization of a borrower to the detriment of other creditors of the borrower; (ii) engages in other inequitable conduct to the detriment of the other creditors; (iii) engages in fraud with respect to, or makes misrepresentations to, the other creditors; or (iv) uses its influence as a lender to dominate or control a borrower to the detriment of other creditors of the borrower.

Because the Collateral Obligations are primarily Loans, the Issuer may be subject to claims from creditors of an obligor that Collateral Obligations issued by the obligor that are held by the Issuer should be equitably subordinated. However, the Servicer does not intend to engage in conduct that would form the basis for a successful cause of action based on lender liability or the equitable subordination doctrine. Nonetheless, no assurances can be given that actions taken in good faith by the Servicer will not result in losses to issuers of Collateral Obligations, and that the Issuer will not be liable for any such losses. Furthermore, the Issuer and the Servicer may be unable to control the conduct of lenders under a loan syndication agreement requiring less than a unanimous vote, yet the Issuer may be subject to lender liability or equitable subordination for such conduct.

The preceding discussion is based on principles of United States federal and state laws. Insofar as Collateral Obligations that are obligations of non-United States obligors are concerned, the laws of certain foreign jurisdictions may impose liability on lenders or bondholders under factual circumstances similar to, or broader or narrower than, those described above, with consequences that may or may not be analogous to those described above under United States federal and state laws.

Notes May Be Affected by Interest Rate Risks, Including Mismatches Between the Notes and the Collateral Obligations

The Notes bear interest at a rate based on LIBOR as determined on the second Business Day prior to the first day of the relevant Interest Period. The Collateral Obligations will consist primarily of obligations that bear interest at floating rates, which floating rates may be different than the floating rates on the Floating Rate Notes. Accordingly, the Notes are subject to interest rate risk to the extent that there is an interest rate mismatch between the rates at which interest accrues on the Notes and the rates at which interest accrues on the Collateral. In addition, there may be a timing mismatch between the Floating Rate Notes and the Floating Rate Obligations as the interest on the Floating Rate Obligations may adjust more or less frequently, on different dates and based on different indices than the interest rates on the Floating Rate Notes. Furthermore, any payments of principal of or interest on Collateral received during a Due Period will (except to a limited extent specified in the Indenture) be held in Eligible Investments maturing not later than the Business Day immediately preceding the next Payment Date. There is no requirement that Eligible Investments bear interest at LIBOR or a similar rate, and the interest rates available for Eligible Investments are inherently uncertain. As a result of these mismatches, an increase or decrease in LIBOR for the relevant maturity could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to make interest payments on the Notes (including due to a rise or a decline in the value of previously issued Collateral Obligations or other Collateral that bear interest at a fixed rate as LIBOR decreases or increases, as applicable) and to make distributions or final distributions on the Preference Shares. To mitigate a portion of the interest rate mismatch, the Issuer may enter into Hedge Agreements that are (in the case of Hedge Agreements entered into after the Closing Date) subject to a Rating Confirmation. However, there can be no assurance that the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments, together with the Hedge Agreements, will in all circumstances generate sufficient Interest Proceeds to make timely payments of interest on the Notes. Moreover, the benefits of any Hedge Agreements may not be achieved in the event of the early termination of the Hedge Agreements, including termination upon the failure of the related Hedge Counterparty to perform its obligations under the Hedge Agreement. See “Security for the Notes—Hedge Agreements.”

The Servicer may direct the Issuer to reduce the notional amount of, or otherwise adjust the terms of, any Hedge Agreement outstanding at any time, subject, in the case of any reduction or adjustment made on or after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, to obtaining a Rating Confirmation.

Changes in Tax Law Could Result in the Imposition of Withholding Taxes with Respect to Payments on the Collateral Obligations, and the Obligor on the Collateral Obligations will not Gross-Up Payments to the Issuers

The Issuer expects that payments received on the Hedge Agreements, and generally on the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments, will not be subject to withholding taxes imposed by the United States or reduced by withholding taxes imposed by any other country from which such payments are sourced unless the obligor is required to make “gross-up” payments that cover the full amount of any such withholding taxes. In the case of Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments issued by U.S. obligors after July 18, 1984 that are in registered form, payments thereon generally are exempt under current United States tax law from the imposition of United States withholding tax. See “Material Income Tax Considerations—United States Federal Taxation of the Issuer.” However, there can be no assurance that, as a result of any change in any applicable law, treaty, rule or regulation or interpretation thereof, the payments on the Hedge Agreements, Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments would not in the future become subject to withholding taxes imposed by the United States of America or another jurisdiction. In that event, if the obligors of such Hedge Agreements, Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments were not then required to make “gross-up” payments that cover the full amount of any such withholding taxes, the amounts available to make payments on, or distributions to, the holders of the Notes would accordingly be reduced. There can be no assurance that remaining payments on the Collateral would be sufficient to make timely payments of interest on, payment of principal and payment of other distributions at the Stated Maturity of the Securities.

Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, the Notes shall be redeemable at the applicable Redemption Price, in whole, but not in part, by the Issuer at the written direction of the Holders of at least 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares, as described under “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption.”

The Issuer Has the Right to Engage in Securities Lending, which Involves Counterparty Risks and Other Risks

The Collateral Obligations may be loaned for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) that have, or are guaranteed by entities that have, long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or a guarantor with those ratings at the time of the loan, of at least “A1” (and not “A1” but on credit watch with negative implications) and “P-1” (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody’s and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least “A” from S&P. See “Security for the Notes—Securities Lending.” The loans must be secured by cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America, in an amount at least equal to 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value of the loaned Collateral Obligations, determined on a daily basis. However, if the borrower of a loaned Collateral Obligation defaults on its obligation to return the loaned Collateral Obligation because of insolvency or otherwise, the Issuer could experience delays and costs in gaining access to the collateral posted by the borrower (and in extreme circumstances could be restricted from selling the collateral). If the borrower defaults, the Issuer could suffer a loss to the extent that the realized value of the cash or securities securing the obligation of the borrower to return a loaned Collateral Obligation (less expenses) is less than the amount required to purchase the Collateral Obligation in the open market. This shortfall could be due to, among other factors, discrepancies between the mark-to-market and actual transaction prices for the loaned Collateral Obligations arising from limited liquidity or availability of the loaned Collateral Obligations and, in extreme circumstances, the loaned Collateral Obligations being unavailable at any price.

The Rating Agencies may downgrade any of the Notes if a borrower of a Collateral Obligation or, if applicable, the entity guaranteeing the performance of the borrower has been downgraded by one of the Rating Agencies such that the Issuer is not in compliance with the Securities Lending Counterparty rating requirements. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the IXIS Placement Agents or Affiliates of the Servicer, which may create certain conflicts of interest. See “—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer” and “—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the IXIS Placement Agents” below.

A Substantial Amount of Collateral Obligations Was Acquired Before the Closing Date, and the Terms of the Acquisition May Adversely Affect the Issuer

In anticipation of the issuance of the Securities, (a) the Issuer, the Servicer, MMP-5 Funding, LLC (in that capacity, the “IXIS Warehouse Provider”) and IXIS Financial Products entered into the Master Warehousing and Participation Agreement (the “IXIS Warehouse Agreement”), (b) the Issuer, the Servicer and Highland Special Opportunities Holding Company (in that capacity, the “Highland Warehouse Provider”) entered into a separate Master Warehousing and Participation Agreement (the “Highland Warehouse Agreement”) and (c) the Issuer, the Servicer and Grand Central Asset Trust, SOH Series (in that capacity, the “Grand Central Warehouse Provider” and, together with the IXIS Warehouse Provider and the Highland Warehouse Provider, the “Warehouse Providers”) entered into the Master Participation Agreement (the “Grand Central Warehouse Agreement” and, together with the IXIS Warehouse Agreement and Highland Warehouse Agreement, the “Warehouse Agreements”). Pursuant to the Warehouse Agreements:

- (i) the Servicer has agreed to service, on behalf of the Issuer, the selection of certain Loans and other obligations to be acquired by the Issuer before the Closing Date (the “Warehoused Loans”);

- (ii) 100% participation in each Warehoused Loan will be acquired by the applicable Warehouse Provider, concurrently with the acquisition of such Warehoused Loan by the Issuer, for a purchase price equal to the purchase price paid by the Issuer for the related Warehoused Loan; and
- (iii) the Servicer or one of its Affiliates is entitled to the economic return on, and has assumed the risks (including risks associated with defaults affecting the Warehoused Loans) in respect of, the Warehoused Loans for the period prior to the Closing Date as set forth in the Warehouse Agreements and certain related documents.

On the Closing Date, the Issuer and each of the Warehouse Providers will terminate the participations in the Warehoused Loans (with any Warehoused Loans that would not satisfy the eligibility criteria of the Warehouse Agreements applicable on or before the Closing Date being sold by the Issuer). Generally, the price to be paid by the Issuer to each of the Warehouse Providers in connection with the termination of their participation in a Warehoused Loan will reflect the price originally paid by the Issuer to acquire the Warehoused Loan, plus the amount of extensions of credit in respect of certain Warehoused Loans, minus the aggregate amount of payments of principal received by the applicable Warehouse Provider, in respect of such Warehoused Loan (excluding the amount, if any, of any such payment that was required to be repaid or returned by any Warehouse Provider by claw-back or otherwise), plus all accrued and unpaid interest and fees on such Warehoused Loan. Therefore, the purchase price paid by the Issuer on the Closing Date for each Collateral Obligation may be higher or lower than the prevailing market price of such Collateral Obligation as of the Closing Date.

Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest

In General, the Transaction Will Involve Various Potential and Actual Conflicts of Interest

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall servicing, advisory and other activities of the Servicer and its Affiliates and from the conduct by the Placement Agents and their respective Affiliates of other transactions with the Issuer, including acting as counterparty with respect to Hedge Agreements, Securities Lending Agreements, and Synthetic Securities. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

The Holders of the Class II Preference Shares Control Appointment and Removal of Directors of the Issuer

HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries are expected to purchase all of Class II Preference Shares on the Closing Date. Class II Preference Shares will have total control with respect to the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer as long as the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date is higher than the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date. The Class I Preference Shares will have no voting rights with respect to the appointment or removal of directors. As of the Closing Date, the Class II Preference Shares Outstanding will constitute a Majority of the Preference Shares Outstanding. HFP and/or its subsidiaries that purchase Class II Preference Shares will agree not to transfer any of the Class II Preference Shares to any Person other than Investors Corp. Any transfer of Class II Preference Shares by HFP or any of its subsidiaries to Investors Corp. will require redesignation by the Share Registrar of such Class II Preference Shares as Class I Preference Shares. If at any time, due to such redesignation upon sale of any Class II Preference Shares by HFP or any of its subsidiaries to Investors Corp., the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding is reduced so that it is equal to or lower than the number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding, Class II Preference Shares will automatically become non-voting shares and will no longer be entitled to vote with respect to the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer.

As long as Class II Preference Shares retain the voting rights with respect to the appointment and removal of directors of the Issuer, HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries that have purchased such Class II Preference Shares will be able to appoint and remove any of the directors. The directors appointed by HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries may be Affiliates of HFP or the Servicer. No other Holders of the Securities will have any right to vote with respect to such appointments and removals of directors of the Issuer.

The Holders of the Class II Preference Shares May Control or Prevent Removal of the Servicer, Appointment of a Replacement Servicer and Optional Redemption of the Notes

The Class II Preference Shares to be purchased by HFP or any of its subsidiaries at closing are expected to constitute a Majority of the Preference Shares. As such, and absent any express exclusion, so long as HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries maintain their position in such Preference Shares, HFP and such subsidiaries, as applicable, will hold the controlling vote on any decision that requires a Majority of the Preference Shares and will hold a blocking position with respect to any decision that requires a higher percentage of Preference Shares.

Pursuant to the Servicing Agreement, such agreement may be terminated and the Servicer may be removed by the Issuer, if directed by the Trustee (acting at the direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes) or by a Majority of the Preference Shares (excluding Preference Shares held by the Servicer, any of its Affiliates or any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority (or, with respect to Class I Preference Shares held by Investors Corp. at such time, Holding Preference Shares held by the Servicer, any of its Affiliates or any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority) other than, with respect to the Class II Preference Shares, HFP or any of its subsidiaries; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of the Class II Preference Shares owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote shall not be excluded only if such vote is determined by a vote of the majority of the “independent directors” (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiaries and certified in writing to the Preference Shares Paying Agent by any of the “independent directors” of HFP) of HFP or such subsidiaries) (each such non-excluded Preference Share, a “Voting Preference Share”), in each case for “cause” upon 10 days’ prior written notice. Further, the Issuer’s ability to appoint a successor servicer is subject to, among other things, the written direction of a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares. As such, if the Class II Preference Shares continue to constitute a Majority of Preference Shares, HFP and any of its subsidiaries that hold Class II Preference Shares will collectively control the ability of the Holders of the Preference Shares to both remove the Servicer for “cause” and appoint the Servicer’s replacement. Since HFP is managed by the Servicer, HFP may have a conflict of interest and may be less likely to exercise these rights than the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares. In such case, should the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares believe that “cause” exists to remove the Servicer, the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares may prevent their ability to do so.

The Holders of at least 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares may give written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer and the Servicer directing an optional redemption of the Notes upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period. After such Notes are retired, the Holders of a Majority or of all of the Preference Shares (depending on the form of redemption) may effect an optional redemption of the Preference Shares. As a result of the foregoing, and so long as they hold a controlling block of Preference Shares, the vote of HFP and/or its applicable subsidiaries will be required to redeem the Securities. As an entity managed by the Servicer, HFP may once again have interests that differ from those of the Class I Preference Shares. Should the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares seek to redeem the Securities, the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares may prevent their ability to do so.

The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall activities of the Servicer, its Affiliates and the subsidiaries of HFP. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

Conflicts of interest may arise for the Servicer with respect to its obligations to the Issuer from the overall activities of the Servicer, its Affiliates and the subsidiaries of HFP, for the accounts of its other clients. For example, the Servicer, its Affiliates and their respective clients and the subsidiaries of HFP may acquire loans, securities, and other obligations that would be appropriate for inclusion in the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations, as well as in loans, securities, and other obligations that are senior to, or have interests different from or adverse to, assets that are pledged to secure the Notes. Furthermore, Affiliates of the Servicer may serve as general partners or managers of special-purpose entities organized to issue other collateralized loan obligations ("CLOs") secured primarily by corporate loans and collateralized debt obligations ("CDOs") secured by corporate debt obligations or asset backed securities. The Servicer and its Affiliates may also have ongoing relationships with, render services to, or engage in transactions with, companies whose loan obligations or securities are pledged to secure the Notes and may now or in the future own (as portfolio assets or otherwise) loan obligations or equity or debt securities issued by issuers of or obligors on, Collateral Obligations or other Collateral. An Affiliate of the Servicer may earn fees with respect to financial advisory services rendered to companies in connection with workouts or the subsequent restructuring of such companies. Such fees and advice may continue for a period of time after any such workout or restructure. The Issuer may own an interest in the securities of such companies. The Servicer will endeavor to resolve conflicts with respect to opportunities in a manner that it deems equitable to the extent possible under the prevailing facts and circumstances.

The Servicer and its Affiliates may possess information relating to issuers of Collateral Obligations or other Collateral that (i) may constrain the Issuer's asset acquisition as a consequence of the Servicer's inability to use such information for asset acquisition purposes or otherwise to take actions that would be in the best of interests of the Issuer or (ii) is not known to the employees of the Servicer responsible for monitoring the Collateral and performing the other obligations of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement. The Servicer, its Affiliates and their respective clients and the subsidiaries of HFP may at certain times be simultaneously seeking to purchase or dispose of assets for the respective accounts of the Issuer, any similar entity for which it serves as manager or advisor, and for its clients or Affiliates.

Neither the Servicer nor any of its Affiliates has any affirmative obligation to offer any assets to the Issuer or to inform the Issuer of any assets before offering any assets to other funds or accounts that the Servicer or any of its Affiliates manage or service. Furthermore, the Servicer may be bound by affirmative obligations in the future, whereby the Servicer is obligated to offer certain assets to funds or accounts that it manages or services before or without the Servicer offering those assets to the Issuer.

Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Servicer such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Servicer, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (iii) such transaction is permitted by the United States Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the "Advisers Act"). The Servicing Agreement also provides that the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Servicer, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (ii) permitted by the Advisers Act.

The Servicer currently serves as the servicer or portfolio manager for a number of special purpose vehicles that have issued securities secured by or referencing collateral consisting of assets similar to the Collateral Obligations, which may create conflicts in allocating its time and services among the Issuer and the Servicer's other accounts. The Servicer and its Affiliates and the subsidiaries of HFP may own equity or other securities of issuers of or obligors on Collateral Obligations or other Collateral and may have provided and may provide in the future, advisory and other services to issuers of Collateral. In addition, the Servicer and its Affiliates may act as the Securities Lending Counterparty under any Securities Lending Agreement entered into by the Issuer.

The Servicer may resign at any time and may be removed for cause by the Issuer, if directed by the Trustee (acting at the direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes) or by a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares. Upon the resignation or removal of the Servicer, the Issuer, at the written direction of a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares, may appoint a replacement servicer if (x) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes held by the Servicer, its Affiliates or any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority other than HFP or any of its subsidiaries; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of Notes owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote shall not be excluded only if such vote is determined by a vote of the majority of the "independent directors" (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiaries and certified in writing to the Preference Shares Paying Agent by any of the "independent directors" of HFP) of HFP or such subsidiaries) (each such non-excluded Note, a "Voting Note") or (y) a Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Voting Notes (voting as a single Class) do not object to the replacement servicer. See "The Servicing Agreement." Securities (or, with respect to Preference Shares held by Investors Corp. at such time, Holding Preference Shares) held by the Servicer, its Affiliates or any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority (other than HFP or any of its subsidiaries) will have no voting rights with respect to any vote in connection with removal of the Servicer for "cause" and will be deemed not to be outstanding in connection with any vote to remove the Servicer for "cause" and to appoint a replacement servicer; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of Class II Preference Shares or Notes owned by HFP or any of its subsidiaries, such vote shall be determined by a vote of the majority of the "independent directors" (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP or such subsidiary) of HFP or such subsidiary. Except to the extent specified otherwise, Securities (or, with respect to Preference Shares held by Investors Corp. at such time, Holding Preference Shares) held by the Servicer, its Affiliates or any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority at the time of such vote will have voting rights with respect to all other matters as to which the Holders of the Securities are entitled to vote, including any vote to direct an Optional Redemption. See "The Servicing Agreement" and "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption."

The Issuer expects to acquire substantially all of the Collateral Obligations to be acquired by the Closing Date during an accumulation period before the Closing Date (the "Accumulation Period") and will finance those purchases with financing provided by (a) the IXIS Warehouse Provider, which has entered into a total return swap with an Affiliate of the IXIS Placement Agents and thereby transferred any risk of providing the warehouse to such Affiliate of the IXIS Placement Agents; (b) the Highland Warehouse Provider, which is an affiliate of the Servicer (c) the Grand Central Warehouse Provider. The Issuer will be required to repurchase the participations providing that financing by the Closing Date with the proceeds of the issuance of the Securities. The Collateral Obligations purchased before the Closing Date will be chosen by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, subject to certain rights of the Warehouse Providers. Any interest accrued on Collateral Obligations purchased by the Issuer before the Closing Date will be paid to the Servicer. As a result, investors in the Securities will be assuming the risk of market value and credit quality changes in the Collateral Obligations from the date the Collateral Obligations are acquired during the Accumulation Period but will not receive the benefit of interest earned on the Collateral Obligations during that period.

On the Closing Date, (i) HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries are expected to purchase Class II Preference Shares having an aggregate Face Amount equal to U.S.$45,000,000 and (ii) the Servicer or its Affiliates are expected to purchase Class E Notes having an aggregate principal amount equal to U.S.$31,500,000 and Holding Preference Shares having an aggregate Face Amount equal to U.S.$21,000,000. In addition, the Servicer or its Affiliates may also acquire Preference Shares upon the occurrence of an Amendment Buy-Out or a Maturity Extension as described herein. To the extent that the interests of the Holders of the Notes differ from the interests of the Holders of the Preference Shares, the holding of Preference Shares by the Servicer or its Affiliates may create additional conflicts of interest.

The Servicer will be entitled to receive the Senior Servicing Fee, the Subordinate Servicing Fee and the Supplemental Servicing Fee, as further described herein. The structure of such fees may cause the Servicer to direct the Issuer to purchase more speculative Collateral Obligations than it would otherwise acquire in the absence of such performance based compensation. See “The Servicing Agreement.”

In addition to acting as Servicer to the Issuer, Highland Capital will act as manager for HFP, which will, on the Closing Date, purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares. Because Highland Capital will receive both a Servicing Fee from the Issuer for servicing the Collateral and a management fee from HFP for managing HFP’s assets, which will include the Class II Preference Shares (and therefore a residual interest in the Collateral), Highland Capital has agreed, in connection with the capital raising of Highland Financial Trust, to waive a portion of its Servicing Fees from the Issuer for two years following the Closing Date so as not to reduce the income realized by HFP or any of its subsidiaries that hold Class II Preference Shares, as the case may be, in respect of such Class II Preference Shares. Thereafter Highland Capital may at its discretion continue to waive such portion of its Servicing Fees or may elect to receive such Servicing Fees in their entirety. Accordingly, during the first two years following the Closing Date, an amount equal to a portion (representing the percentage ownership of the Preference Shares represented by the Class II Preference Shares) of the amounts that would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as a Servicing Fee will instead be payable as a special payment to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Thereafter, the Servicer may elect to continue to waive such same portion of the amounts that would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as a Servicing Fee, or any lesser portion of such amounts, and an amount equal to such waived amounts will be paid as a special payment to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares. The Class II Preference Shares and the Class I Preference Shares will vote together as a single class. Receipt of Servicing Fees in the form of dividends on Class II Preference Shares may cause HFP to have different incentives from the Holders of the Class I Preference Shares.

The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Placement Agents

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise as a result of the investment banking, asset management, financing and financial advisory services and products provided by IXIS Capital Markets North America Inc. (“IXIS”) and its Affiliates (including the IXIS Placement Agents and their Affiliates, (each, an “IXIS Company” and together the “IXIS Companies”)) or by UBS Securities LLC and UBS Limited and their Affiliates (each, a “UBS Company” and together the “UBS Companies” and, together with the IXIS Companies, the “Placement Agent Related Entities”), to the Issuer, the Servicer, the issuers of the Collateral Obligations and others, as well as in connection with the investment, trading and brokerage activities of the Placement Agent Related Entities. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

The IXIS Placement Agents will serve as Placement Agents for the Senior Notes and will be paid fees and commissions for such service by the Issuer from the proceeds of the issuance of the Securities. One or more of the IXIS Companies may from time to time hold Securities for investment, trading or other purposes.

The UBS Placement Agents will serve as Placement Agents for a portion of the Class A Notes. Furthermore, it is expected that a UBS Company will purchase a certain amount of Class A Notes on the Closing Date and may hold such Class A Notes for its own account. Such UBS Company, as purchaser of such Class A Notes, will retain all voting rights associated with such Class A Notes, but will have no obligation to exercise any voting rights associated with such Class A Notes in any manner and, at any applicable time, may exercise such voting rights in a manner adverse to some or all of the other Holders of Securities. While such UBS Company may hold such Class A Notes, there is no requirement that such UBS Company continue to hold any Class A Notes after the Closing Date.

The Issuer's purchase of Collateral Obligations that are loans prior to the Closing Date was financed in part through the sale of participation interests therein to the IXIS Warehouse Provider pursuant to the IXIS Warehouse Agreement. A portion of the proceeds from the offering of the Securities will be paid to the IXIS Warehouse Provider to repurchase such participation interests. Pursuant to a total return swap transaction entered into on July 15, 2004, IXIS Financial Products, an Affiliate of the IXIS Placement Agents, will bear indirectly any risk to the IXIS Warehouse Provider for providing the warehouse. One or more conduits administered by an IXIS Company or an IXIS Company may purchase a portion of the Class A Notes or other Securities of the Issuer. Furthermore, it is expected that an IXIS Company will purchase a certain amount of Holding Preference Shares on the Closing Date. Each such IXIS Company, in its capacity as administrator of such conduits or purchaser, would retain all voting rights with respect to such Class A Notes or other Securities or Holding Preference Shares. While any such conduits administered by IXIS Companies or such IXIS Companies may hold such Class A Notes, other Securities or Holding Preference Shares, as the case may be, there is no requirement that any such conduits or IXIS Companies continue to hold such Class A Notes, other Securities or Holding Preference Shares after the Closing Date. If any such conduits or such IXIS Companies acquire such Class A Notes or any other Securities of the Issuer, it will have no obligation to exercise any voting rights associated with such Securities in any manner and, at any applicable time, may exercise such voting rights in a manner adverse to some or all of the other Holders of Securities.

The Issuer may have purchased and sold prior to the Closing Date, and may purchase or sell after the Closing Date, Collateral Obligations from, to or through, and purchase Synthetic Securities and enter into Hedge Agreements with, one or more of the Placement Agent Related Entities. Certain Eligible Investments may be issued, managed or underwritten by one or more of the Placement Agent Related Entities. One or more of the Placement Agent Related Entities may provide investment banking, commercial banking, asset management, financing and financial advisory services and products to the Servicer, its Affiliates, and funds serviced by the Servicer and its Affiliates, and purchase, hold and sell, both for their respective accounts or for the account of their respective clients, on a principal or agency basis, loans, securities, and other obligations and financial instruments of the Servicer, its Affiliates, and funds serviced by the Servicer and its Affiliates. As a result of such transactions or arrangements, one or more of the Placement Agent Related Entities may have interests adverse to those of the Issuer and Holders of the Notes and Preference Shares.

One or more of the Placement Agent Related Entities may:

- have placed or underwritten, or acted as a financial arranger, structuring agent or advisor in connection with the original issuance of, or may act as a broker or dealer with respect to, certain of the Collateral Obligations;
- be a counterparty to issuers of certain of the Collateral Obligations under swap or other derivative agreements;
- lend to certain of the issuers of Collateral Obligations or their respective Affiliates or receive guarantees from the issuers of those Collateral Obligations or their respective Affiliates;
- provide other investment banking, asset management, commercial banking, financing or financial advisory services to the issuers of Collateral Obligations or their respective Affiliates; or
- have an equity interest, which may be a substantial equity interest, in certain issuers of the Collateral Obligations or their respective Affiliates.

As a counterparty under swaps and other derivative agreements, the Placement Agent Related Entities might take actions adverse to the interests of the Issuer, including, but not limited to, demanding collateralization of its exposure under such agreements (if provided for thereunder) or terminating such swaps or agreements in accordance with the terms thereof. In making and administering loans and other obligations, the Placement Agent Related Entities might take actions including, but not limited to, restructuring a loan, foreclosing on or exercising other remedies with respect to a loan, requiring additional collateral or other credit enhancement, charging significant fees and interest, placing the obligor in bankruptcy or demanding payment on a loan guarantee or under other credit enhancement. The Issuer's purchase, holding and sale of Collateral Obligations may enhance the profitability or value of investments made by the Placement Agent Related Entities in the issuers thereof. As a result of all such transactions or arrangements between the Placement Agent Related Entities and issuers of Collateral Obligations or their respective Affiliates, the Placement Agent Related Entities may have interests that are contrary to the interests of the Issuer and the Holders of the Notes and Preference Shares.

As part of their regular business, the Placement Agent Related Entities may also provide investment banking, commercial banking, asset management, financing and financial advisory services and products to, and purchase, hold and sell, both for their respective accounts or for the account of their respective clients, on a principal or agency basis, loans, securities, and other obligations and financial instruments and engage in private equity investment activities. The Placement Agent Related Entities will not be restricted in their performance of any such services or in the types of debt or equity investments, which they may make. In conducting the foregoing activities, the Placement Agent Related Entities will be acting for their own account or the account of their customers and will have no obligation to act in the interest of the Issuer.

The Placement Agent Related Entities may, by virtue of the relationships described above or otherwise, at the date hereof or at any time hereafter, be in possession of information regarding certain of the issuers of Collateral Obligations and their respective Affiliates, that is or may be material in the context of the Securities and that is or may not be known to the general public. None of the Placement Agent Related Entities has any obligation, and the offering of the Securities will not create any obligation on their part, to disclose to any purchaser of the Securities any such relationship or information, whether or not confidential.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SECURITIES

The Notes will be issued pursuant to the Indenture. The terms of the Preference Shares are contained in the Issuer Charter and in certain resolutions adopted by the Issuer's Board of Directors on or before the Closing Date authorizing and approving the issuance of the Securities, as reflected in the minutes thereof (the "Resolutions" and, together with the Issuer Charter and the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the "Preference Share Documents"). The following summary describes certain provisions of the Notes, the Preference Shares, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the provisions of the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. Copies of the Indenture may be obtained by prospective purchasers upon request in writing to the Trustee at Corporate Trust Services, One Federal Street, 3rd Floor, Mailcode: EX-MA-FED, Boston, MA 02110-2004, Attention: CDO Unit—Red River CLO Ltd., and will be available at the office of AIB International Financial Services Ltd. (in such capacity, the "Irish Paying Agent") in the City of Dublin. Copies of the Preference Share Documents may be obtained upon request in writing to the Administrator at P.O. ### Status and Security

The Senior Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Co-Issuers. The Class E Notes are limited recourse debt obligations of the Issuer. Each Note within a Class will rank pari passu with all other Notes of that Class. Under the Indenture, the Issuer will grant to the Trustee a first-priority security interest in the Collateral to secure the Issuer's obligations under the Indenture, the Notes, Hedge Agreements and the Servicing Agreement (collectively, the "Secured Obligations"). The Notes are payable solely from amounts received in respect of the Collateral pledged by the Issuer to secure the Notes. If the amounts received in respect of the Collateral (net of certain expenses) are insufficient to make payments on the Secured Obligations, in accordance with the Priority of Payments, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and, following liquidation of all the Collateral, the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, to pay the deficiency will be extinguished.

The Preference Shares are entitled to proceeds of the Collateral only to the extent that any such proceeds are remaining on any Payment Date after payment of all interest and principal payable on each Class of Notes on that Payment Date and the satisfaction of certain other amounts payable in accordance with the Priority of Payments. In addition, the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares will be entitled, as and to the extent set forth herein, to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments pursuant to the priority provided in the Priority of Payments.

In furtherance of the priorities of payments among the Classes of Notes and the Preference Shares, the Indenture contains express subordination provisions pursuant to which the Holders of each Class of Notes that is a Junior Class as described below agree for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class that the Junior Class shall be subordinate and junior to the Notes of each Priority Class to the extent and in the manner provided in the Indenture.

If any Event of Default has not been cured or waived and acceleration occurs under and in accordance with the Indenture, each Priority Class of Notes shall be paid in full in cash or, to the extent a Majority of each Class consents, other than in cash, before any further payment or distribution is made on account of any Junior Class of Notes with respect to the Priority Class. The Holders of each Junior Class of Notes agree, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for failure to pay to them amounts due to the Junior Class, of the Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, or under the Indenture until the payment in full of the Priority Classes or all the Classes, as the case may be and not before one year and a day, or if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, has elapsed since the payment.

For purposes of this provision, with respect to each Class of Notes, the Classes of Notes that are Priority Classes and Junior Classes are as follows:

Class	Junior Classes	Priority Classes
A	B, C, D, E, Preference Shares*	None
B	C, D, E, Preference Shares*	A
C	D, E, Preference Shares*	A, B
D	E, Preference Shares*	A, B, C
Preference Shares	None	A, B, C, D, E

*Other than with respect to the Class II Preference Share Special Payments, which may be payable to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as set forth herein and will have priority to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments.

**The Preference Shares will be entitled to certain residual cash flow after payment of senior obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

If, notwithstanding the provisions of the Indenture, any Holder of Notes of any Junior Class has received any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes contrary to the provisions of the Indenture, then, until each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class of Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, or, to the extent a Majority of the Priority Class or the Class, as the case may be, consents, other than in cash in accordance with the Indenture, the payment or distribution shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of, and shall forthwith be paid over and delivered to, the Trustee, which shall pay and deliver the same to the Holders of the applicable Priority Classes of Notes or the Holders of all Classes of Notes, as the case may be. If any such payment or distribution is made other than in cash, it shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and subject in all respects to the Indenture.

Each Holder of Notes of any Junior Class agrees with all Holders of the applicable Priority Classes that the Holder of Junior Class Notes shall not demand, accept, or receive any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes in violation of the Indenture. After a Priority Class has been paid in full, the Holders of Notes of the related Junior Class or Classes shall be fully subrogated to the rights of the Holders of the Priority Class. Nothing in these provisions shall affect the obligation of the Issuer to pay Holders of any Junior Class of Notes.

Distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares are subordinate to distributions on the Notes as described in the Priority of Payments (other than, as and to the extent set forth herein, with respect to distribution of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments).

The Servicing Fees shall have priority only to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments.

Interest Payments on the Notes and Payments of Dividends on the Preference Shares from Interest Proceeds

The Notes of each Class will accrue interest during each Interest Period on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day) at the applicable per annum interest rates for each such Class (the “Note Interest Rate”) equal to LIBOR for Eurodollar deposits for the applicable Interest Period plus the spread, as specified above under “Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities.” Interest accrued on the Notes shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the applicable Interest Period divided by 360. Payment of interest on each Class of Notes shall be subordinated to the payments of interest on the related Priority Classes and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of Deferred Interest in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered “payable” for the purposes of the Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments. To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest), until paid.

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note, or in the case of a partial repayment, on the part repaid, from the date of repayment or its Stated Maturity unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or unless there is some other default with respect to the payments of principal.

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares, pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Interest Proceeds as described under clauses (22) and (24) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

In addition, on each Payment Date during the first two years following the Closing Date, Holders of the Class II Preference Shares will be entitled to distributions, on a pro rata basis, from the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account, equal to the Class II Preference Share Senior Special Payment, the Class II Preference Share Subordinated Special Payment and the Class II Preference Share Supplemental Special Payment (if any)(collectively, the “Class II Preference Share Special Payments”). After the two-year anniversary of the Closing Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Issuer as the Class II Preference Share Special Payments. Any payments to the Holders of Class II Preference Shares of the Class II Preference Share Special Payments will have priority to the extent provided under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

For purposes of calculating the Class II Preference Share Special Payments, the following definitions shall apply:

“Class II Preference Share Percentage” means, for any Payment Date, a fraction, expressed as a percentage, the numerator of which is the number of Outstanding Class II Preference Shares on such Payment Date and the denominator of which is the total number of Outstanding Preference Shares on such Payment Date.

“Class II Preference Share Portion” means, for any Payment Date, 100% minus the Servicing Fee Portion for such Payment Date.

“Class II Preference Share Senior Special Payment” means, for any Payment Date, an amount equal to the product of (a) the Senior Servicing Fee for such Payment Date and (b) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date.

“Class II Preference Share Subordinated Special Payment” means, for any Payment Date, an amount equal to the product of (a) the Subordinated Servicing Fee for such Payment Date and (b) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date.

“Class II Preference Share Supplemental Special Payment” means, for any Payment Date, an amount equal to the product of (a) the Supplemental Servicing Fee for such Payment Date and (b) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date.

“Servicing Fee Portion” means 100% minus (a) for any Payment Date from the Closing Date until (and including) the Payment Date on or immediately preceeding the second anniversary of the Closing Date, the Class II Preference Share Percentage for such Payment Date and (b) for any other Payment Date, a percentage (between 0% and 100%) selected by the Servicer in its sole discretion and reported to the Trustee in writing on or before the related Determination Date.

For purposes of calculating interest on each Class of Notes, the Issuer will initially appoint the Trustee as calculation agent (the Trustee in that capacity, and each successor calculation agent, the “Calculation Agent”).

As soon as possible after 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period, but in no event later than 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the next Business Day, the Calculation Agent will calculate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes for the related Interest Period and the amount of interest for the Interest Period payable in respect of each $100,000 in principal amount of each Class of Floating Rate Notes (in each case rounded to the nearest cent, with half a cent being rounded upward) on the related Payment Date and will communicate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes and the date of the next Payment Date to the Trustee, the Placement Agents, each paying agent, Euroclear, Clearstream, the Depository, and (as long as the Senior Notes are listed on the ISE) the ISE.

The Calculation Agent may be removed by the Co-Issuers at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Co-Issuers or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes or the amount of interest payable in respect of each Class of Floating Rate Notes for any Interest Period, the Issuer will promptly appoint as a replacement Calculation Agent a leading bank which is engaged in transactions in U.S. Dollar deposits in the international U.S. Dollar market and which does not control and is not controlled by or under common control with the Co-Issuers or any of their respective affiliates. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been duly appointed. The determination of the Note Interest Rate with respect to each Class of Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Period by the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon all parties.

“LIBOR” means the offered rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent for any Interest Period, for three month Dollar deposits that appears on Moneyline Telerate Page 3750 as reported on Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News (or a page that replaces Moneyline Telerate Page 3750 for the purpose of displaying comparable rates), as of 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period.

If, on the second Business Day before the first day of any relevant Interest Period, that rate does not appear on Moneyline Telerate Page 3750 as reported on Bloomberg Financial Market Commodities News (or a page that replaces Moneyline Telerate Page 3750 for the purpose of displaying comparable rates), the Calculation Agent shall determine the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations of the Reference Banks to prime banks in the London interbank market for three month Dollar deposits in Europe, by reference to requests by the Calculation Agent to four major banks in the London interbank market selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer) (the “Reference Banks”) for quotations as of approximately 11:00 A.M. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of the Interest Period. If at least two of the Reference Banks provide quotations as requested, LIBOR shall equal such arithmetic mean. If fewer than two Reference Banks provide quotations, LIBOR shall be the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations that leading banks in New York City selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer) are quoting to the principal London offices of leading banks in the London interbank market on the second Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period for three month Dollar deposits.

If the Calculation Agent is unable to determine a rate in accordance with any of the above procedures, LIBOR for the Interest Period shall be calculated on the last day of the Interest Period and shall be the arithmetic mean of the rate of interest for each day during the Interest Period determined by the Calculation Agent as being the rate of interest most recently announced by the Bank at its New York office as its base rate, prime rate, reference rate, or similar rate for Dollar loans (or if the Bank ceases to exist or is not quoting a base rate, prime rate, reference rate, or similar rate for Dollar loans, another major money center commercial bank in New York City selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer)).

For the first Interest Period and, unless the Maturity Extension occurs, the last Interest Period, LIBOR shall be determined based on the actual number of days in the Interest Period using straight-line interpolation of two rates calculated in accordance with the above procedure, except that instead of using three month deposits, one rate shall be determined using the period for which rates are obtainable next shorter than the Interest Period and the other rate shall be determined using the period for which rates are obtainable next longer than the Interest Period. All calculations shall be calculated to at least four decimal places and rounded to four decimal places.

Principal Payments on the Notes and Distributions on the Preference Shares from Principal Proceeds

The principal of each Note of each Class matures at par and is payable on the Payment Date that is the Stated Maturity for the Class of Notes, unless the unpaid principal of the Note becomes payable at an earlier date by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption, or otherwise. The Preference Shares are scheduled to be redeemed on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, unless redeemed prior thereto. The average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years from issuance until Stated Maturity for such Notes. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes Interests May Vary” and “Maturity and Prepayment Considerations.” Notwithstanding the foregoing, and except as set forth below, the payment of principal of each Class of Notes: (i) may only occur after principal on each Class of Notes that is a Priority Class with respect to the Class has been paid in full and (ii) is subordinated to the payment on each Payment Date of the principal and interest payable on the Priority Classes, and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments. However, (i) Interest Proceeds may be used to pay principal of the Class E Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class E Coverage Tests and (ii) Principal Proceeds may be used to pay Deferred Interest and other amounts before the payment of principal of the Notes. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments.”

In general, principal payments will not be made on the Notes before the end of the Replacement Period, except in the following circumstances: (i) in connection with an Optional Redemption, (ii) at the option of the Servicer, to effect a Special Redemption of the Notes, (iii) pursuant to a redemption made in connection with a Tax Event or (iv) following a mandatory redemption of the Notes caused by a failure to meet any of the Coverage Tests or a Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Replacement Period, Principal Proceeds will be applied on each Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments to pay principal of each Class of Notes (except for Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations which may be applied to purchase Collateral Obligations to the extent described herein). No principal of any Class of Notes will be payable on any Payment Date other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and to the extent funds are available therefor on that Payment Date for that purpose, except that the principal of each Class of Notes will be payable in full at the Stated Maturity, unless repaid before that.

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares, pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Principal Proceeds as described under clauses (11)(A), (14) and (15) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

Legal Provisions Applicable to the Payments of Dividends from Interest Proceeds and Dividends or Other Distributions from Principal Proceeds

Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds paid to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment of dividends on, or the payment of the Redemption Price in respect of, the Preference Shares, will be distributable to the Holders of the Preference Shares only if the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distribution and Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds paid to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment of dividends in respect of the Preference Shares will be distributable to the Holders of the Preference Shares only if the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium and if the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distribution. Payments will be paid by the Trustee to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for payment of dividends and other distributions to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, on a pro rata basis according to the number of Preference Shares held by each Holder on the Record Date for such Payment Date.

Extension of the Replacement Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date

General

The Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Replacement Period to the applicable Extended Replacement Period End Date up to four times if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given the Trustee written notice of its election to extend the Replacement Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Notes shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents.

In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes or Preference Shares wishing to sell all or a portion of its Securities (or, with respect to any Preference Shares held by Investors Corp. at such time, any Holder of Holding Preference Shares wishing to sell all or a portion of the Holding Preference Shares held by such Holder) to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to “—Extension Procedure” below (such Securities (or Holding Preference Shares, as applicable) as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, “Extension Sale Securities”). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Holder providing an Extension Sale Notice shall be deemed to agree that no Extension Sale Securities of any Holder shall be purchased unless all Extension Sale Securities of all Holders are purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date and the other Extension Conditions are satisfied as of such date. In addition, one or more Holders may enter into an agreement with the Issuer and/or the Servicer that such Holder will have the right to receive a greater purchase price than the Extension Purchase Price set forth in the Indenture. See “Risk Factors – A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected.”

The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the “Extension Conditions”) are satisfied:

- (i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;
- (ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions, in the Indenture, the Preference Share Documents and the Holding Preference Share Documents and described herein immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Extension Sale Securities and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);

- (iii) (a) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody's (so long as any Notes are then rated by Moody's);
- (iv) the Issuer has not effected more than three prior Extensions; and
- (v) such extension is not effected for the primary purpose of decreasing losses or recognizing gains resulting from market value changes.

In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Noteholder, other than Holders of Extension Sale Securities, shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment. Holders of Preference Shares shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to any applicable qualifying beneficial owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification on the first Payment Date from and including the Extension Effective Date on which funds are available for such purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption of the Notes. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments on a Payment Date shall not be considered "due and payable" hereunder. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Securities. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid, in the case of the Notes, to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer.

Extension Procedure

Not later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer of its election to extend the Replacement Period (the "Extension Notice"), the Trustee shall mail the Extension Notice to all Holders of Notes, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) and the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Holding Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), in the form set out in the Indenture, and shall request the Rating Confirmation for the Maturity Extension from each Rating Agency, if applicable.

Any Holder of Securities may deliver an irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") to the Issuer and the Trustee within 30 days after the Trustee has mailed the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell all or a portion of its Securities or, with respect to Investors Corp., in its capacity as a Holder of the Class I Preference Shares, all or a portion of Holding Preference Shares, as the case may be, to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of Securities that has not delivered such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Securities or Holding Preference Shares, as applicable, to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension.

If any Holder of Class II Preference Shares delivers an Extension Sale Notice notifying the Issuer and the Trustee of its intention to sell all or a portion of its Class II Preference Shares, (i) such Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to Investors Corp. and such Preference Shares will be redesignated as Class I Preference Shares, (ii) Investors Corp. will issue additional Holding Preference Shares in a number equal to the aggregate number of, and at a price equal to the price of, such redesignated Preference Shares purchased by it and (iii) the Extension Qualifying Purchaser will purchase such additional Holding Preference Shares in lieu of such redesignated Preference Shares.

On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) shall confirm (i) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Extension Sale Securities in compliance with all transfer restrictions in the Indenture, the Preference Share Documents and the Holding Preference Share Documents and the legends on such Extension Sale Securities and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (ii) whether the requirements of clause (iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (iii) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall automatically become effective under the terms of the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth above are satisfied (as certified to the Trustee by a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer). No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail a notice to all Holders of Notes, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Servicer, the Placement Agents, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) and the ISE (if and for so long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depository for any Securities subject to the Maturity Extension.

None of the Placement Agents, the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any duty to act as an Extension Qualifying Purchaser.

Optional Redemption

Notes. The Holders of at least 66⅔% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares may give written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer and the Servicer directing an optional redemption of the Notes (with respect to the Notes, an “Optional Redemption”) upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period. Such notice must be given not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made. Upon receipt of the written notice directing an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Co-Issuers with respect to the Senior Notes and the Issuer with respect to the Class E Notes are required by the Indenture to redeem the Notes (in whole but not in part) from amounts available therefor in accordance with “—Redemption Procedures” described below. Any Optional Redemption of the Notes shall be made at the applicable Redemption Price. Upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Replacement Period will terminate in accordance with the definition of that term. The Issuer shall, at least 30 days before the Redemption Date (unless the Trustee shall agree to a shorter notice period), notify the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency of the Redemption Date, the applicable Record Date, the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed on the Redemption Date and the applicable Redemption Prices.

Preference Shares. On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, all administrative and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), and all amounts owing under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged:

- (i) at the direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Preference Shares, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Preference Shares

Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings; or

(ii) at the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a directed portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such direction,

(with respect to the Preference Shares and each of clauses (i) and (ii) above, an “Optional Redemption”).

Upon a distribution pursuant to clause (i) above, the Servicer will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Servicing Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer (and subject to clause (ii) above), direct the sale of all remaining Collateral Obligations. Upon a distribution pursuant to clause (ii) above, the Servicer will effect the sale of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares.

Upon receipt of the written notice directing an Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares, the Issuer is required by the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement to redeem the Preference Shares in the applicable manner described above. Any Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares shall be made at the applicable Redemption Price.

Redemption Procedures. The Trustee will give notice of a redemption by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days and not earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date, to (i) each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder’s address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository, Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and to the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares) and (ii) in the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, to each Rating Agency. In addition, for so long as any Senior Notes are listed on the ISE and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of an Optional Redemption of Senior Notes shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

Notice of redemption having been given as provided above, the Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at the Redemption Price therein specified and from and after the Redemption Date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest) the Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Redemption Date.

Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, the Holder shall present and surrender the Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption to receive the applicable Redemption Price unless the Holder provides an undertaking to surrender the Note thereafter.

The Notes may not be optionally redeemed unless either of the following conditions is satisfied:

(i) at least 10 Business Days before the Redemption Date, the Servicer shall have furnished to the Trustee evidence (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) that the Issuer has entered into a binding agreements (with a financial or other institution or entity whose short-term unsecured debt obligations (other than obligations whose rating is based on the credit of a person other than the institution) have a credit rating of at least “A-1” from S&P and of “P-1” (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody’s (or to any other institution or entity if the Rating Condition with respect to Moody’s is satisfied with respect to the other entity) to sell to the financial or other institutions, not later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date in immediately available funds, all or part of the Collateral (directly or by participation or other arrangement) at a Purchase Price at least equal to an amount sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices; or

(ii) before entering into any binding agreement to sell all or a portion of the Collateral and selling or terminating any Hedge Agreement, the Servicer shall have certified that, in its commercially reasonable judgment, the settlement dates of the sales will be scheduled to occur on or before the Business Day before the Redemption Date and that the expected proceeds from the sales are to be delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date, in immediately available funds, in an amount (calculated as applicable in the manner provided below) sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount shall be calculated with respect to the classes of Collateral listed in the table below by multiplying the expected proceeds of sale of the Collateral by the indicated percentage in the table below.

		Number of Business Days Between Certification to the Trustee and Sale
		Same Day	1 to 2	3 to 5	6 to 15

Any certification delivered by the Servicer shall include (A) the prices of, and expected proceeds from, the sale of any Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or Hedge Agreements and (B) all calculations required by the Indenture.

Any notice of redemption may be withdrawn by the Issuer up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares), the Trustee and the Servicer only if:

(i) in the case of an Optional Redemption of Notes, the Servicer does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications required under the Indenture, as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee;

(ii) in the case of an Optional Redemption in whole of either the Notes or the Preference Shares as described above in "—Optional Redemption—Notes" and clause (i) of the first paragraph under "—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares," the Issuer receives the written direction of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption delivered by the percentage of the Preference Shares requesting redemption under "—Optional Redemption—

Notes” or clause (i) of the first paragraph under “—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares,” as applicable; or

(iii) in the case of an Optional Redemption of Preference Shares as described in clause (ii) of the first paragraph under “Optional Redemption—Preference Shares,” the Issuer receives the unanimous written direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer hereby agrees for the benefit of the directing Holders to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written direction referred to in the preceding clause (ii) or this clause (iii)).

Notice of any withdrawal shall be sent, not later than the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date (assuming that the Trustee has received timely written notice from the Issuer as provided above), by the Trustee, to each Holder of Notes scheduled to be redeemed at the Holder’s address in the Indenture Register by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery (or, to the extent the address contained in the Indenture Register is not sufficient for that purpose, by first-class mail), the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares) and the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares). If the Issuer so withdraws any notice of redemption or is otherwise unable to complete any redemption of the Notes, the Sale Proceeds received from the sale of any Collateral Obligations sold in accordance with the Indenture may, during the Replacement Period (and, in respect of Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, after the Replacement Period) at the Servicer’s discretion, be used to purchase replacement Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria.

Notice of redemption shall be given by the Co-Issuers or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note selected for redemption, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares) or the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Securities.

Special Redemption of Notes If the Servicer Does Not Identify Replacement Collateral Obligations as Contemplated by the Indenture

Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in whole or in part, at par, in accordance with the Priority of Payments if, at any time during the Replacement Period, the Servicer elects (subject to the Servicing Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional or replacement Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Servicer in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the application of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be used to purchase additional or replacement Collateral Obligations.

On the Special Redemption Date, the Special Redemption Amount will be available to be applied in accordance with “—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds” to the extent of available Principal Proceeds. Notice of payment of the Special Redemption Amount shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than three Business Days before the applicable Special Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder’s address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository. In addition, for so long as any Senior Notes are listed on the ISE and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of a Special Redemption of the Senior Notes shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

In connection with a Special Redemption, the principal of the Notes will be paid from Principal Proceeds in an aggregate amount equal to the Special Redemption Amount (first to any Class A Notes to be redeemed, then to any Class B Notes to be redeemed, then to any Class C Notes to be redeemed, then to any Class D Notes to be redeemed and then to any Class E Notes to be redeemed, in each case until paid in full) in accordance with the Priority of Payments. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

General

In the event of a Rating Confirmation Failure or a failure to meet any Coverage Test on any Determination Date, a mandatory redemption of one or more Classes of Notes in whole or in part will be required. Any mandatory redemption could result in an elimination, deferral or reduction in interest or principal payments to one or more Classes of Securities, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of the Class or Classes of Securities. See “Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Interests for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests” and “—The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure.”

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests

Except with respect to payments made pursuant to an Optional Redemption or a redemption made in connection with a Tax Event as described under “—Optional Redemption,” on any Payment Date with respect to which any Coverage Test (as described under “Security for the Notes—The Coverage Tests”) is not met on any Determination Date, principal payments on the Notes will be made as described under “—Priority of Payments.”

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure

Upon the event of a Rating Confirmation Failure, all Interest Proceeds remaining after payment of amounts referred to in clauses (1) through (14) of “—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” will be used to pay principal of the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes sequentially in order of their priority on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date thereafter until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. If necessary, after the foregoing payments are made out of Interest Proceeds, Principal Proceeds in accordance with clause (6) “—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds” will be used to pay principal of each Class of the Notes sequentially in order of their priority on each Payment Date until the Initial Ratings are confirmed.

Upon receipt of notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes, at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody’s and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes, then at the direction and in accordance with the instructions of the Servicer the Trustee shall sell Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for the purpose in the Collection Account will be used to redeem the Notes (but only to the extent necessary for each of Moody’s and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes) and to pay all administrative and other fees, expenses and obligations payable under the Priority of Payments. Any sale under these provisions shall be conducted in such a manner that:

- (i) after giving effect to the sale each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied or, if any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Overcollateralization Test is not reduced;
- (ii) if the sale occurs on or after the second Payment Date, after giving effect to the sale each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied or, if any Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Interest Coverage Test is not reduced; and
- (iii) after giving effect to the sale each Collateral Quality Test is satisfied or, if any Collateral Quality Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Collateral Quality Test is not reduced.

Redemption of the Preference Shares in Connection with Mandatory Redemption of the Notes

The Preference Shares will be redeemed in whole in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Preference Share Documents on any Payment Date on which a mandatory redemption of the Notes described under “—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes” results in the payment in full of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes.

Priority of Payments

Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Senior Notes

The Senior Notes sold in Offshore Transactions may only be sold to non-U.S. Persons in reliance on Regulation S. Except as provided below, the Senior Notes sold in reliance on Regulation S will be represented by one or more Regulation S Global Notes. The Regulation S Global Notes will be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of, a nominee of the Depository for the respective accounts of the beneficial owners at Euroclear and Clearstream. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may be held only through Euroclear or Clearstream. Investors may hold their interests in a Regulation S Global Note directly through Euroclear or Clearstream, if they are participants in such systems, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in such systems. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may not be held by a U.S. Person at any time. By acquisition of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note, the purchaser thereof will be deemed to represent that it is not a U.S. Person and that, if in the future it determines to transfer such beneficial interest, it will transfer such interest only to a person whom the seller reasonably believes to be a non-U.S. Person or to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note.

The Senior Notes initially sold in non-Offshore Transactions or to U.S. Persons in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(2) may only be sold to (i) Accredited Investors and (ii) (A) a Qualified Purchaser or (B) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and, except as provided below, will be represented by one or more permanent Rule 144A Global Notes. Investors may hold their interests in the Rule 144A Global Notes directly through the Depository if they are the Depository participants, or indirectly through organizations that are the Depository participants. The Rule 144A Global Notes will be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for the Depository, and registered in the name of a nominee of the Depository.

Beneficial interests in Senior Notes represented by Global Notes will be subject to certain restrictions on transfer set forth therein and in the Indenture and such Global Notes will bear the applicable legends regarding the restrictions set forth under "Transfer Restrictions." A beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note may be transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note only upon receipt by the Trustee of a written certification from (A) the transferor (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that the transfer is being made to a person whom the transferor reasonably believes is a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is also (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction and (B) the transferee (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is both a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser. Beneficial interests in the Rule 144A Global Notes may be transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note only upon receipt by the Trustee of a written certification from (A) the transferor (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that the transfer is being made to a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction in accordance with Regulation S and (B) the transferee (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is a non-U.S. Person.

Any beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note that is transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note will, upon transfer, cease to be an interest in such Regulation S Global Note and become an interest in the Rule 144A Global Note and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions and other procedures applicable to beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note for as long as it remains such an interest. Any beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Note that is transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note will, upon transfer, cease to be an interest in the Rule 144A Global Note and become an interest in the Regulation S Global Note and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions and other procedures applicable to beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note for as long as it remains such an interest. No service charge will be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of Senior Notes, but the Issuer or Co-Issuers, as the case may be, or the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

Except in the limited circumstances described in this paragraph, owners of beneficial interests in Senior Notes held in the form of Global Notes will not be entitled to receive delivery of certificated Senior Notes. The Senior Notes are not issuable in bearer form. A Global Note deposited with the Depository pursuant to the Indenture shall be transferred to the beneficial owners thereof only if such transfer complies with the Indenture and either (i) the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for a Global Note or ceases to be a "Clearing Agency" registered under the Exchange Act and a successor depository is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days of such notice or (ii) as a result of any amendment to or change in, the laws or regulations of the Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which become effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or the Paying Agent becomes aware that it is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Senior Notes which would not be required if the Senior Notes were in definitive form. In addition, the owner of a beneficial interest in a Global Note will be entitled to receive a certificated Note in exchange for such interest if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. In the event that certificated Senior Notes are not so issued by the Issuer to such beneficial owners of interests in Global Notes, the Issuer expressly acknowledges that such beneficial owners shall be entitled to pursue any remedy that the Holders of a Global Note would be entitled to pursue in accordance with the Indenture (but only to the extent of such beneficial owner's interest in the Global Note) as if certificated Senior Notes had been issued. Payments on such certificated Senior Notes will be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a Dollar-denominated account maintained by the owner or, if a wire transfer cannot be effected, by a Dollar check delivered to the owner. See "Settlement and Clearing."

The Senior Notes will be issued in minimum denominations of U.S.$250,000 and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess thereof for each Class of Senior Notes.

Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Class E Notes

The Class E Notes will be issued in the form of one or more certificated Class E Notes in definitive, fully registered form, registered in the name of the owner thereof (the “Certificated Class E Notes”).

The Class E Notes may only be sold to persons who are Qualified Institutional Buyers who are also (A) Qualified Purchasers or (B) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers.

The Class E Notes may be transferred only upon (inter alia) receipt by the Trustee of a written certification (in the form provided in the Indenture) from the transferee to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is also (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, and such transfer is being made in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction. Each initial Holder as well as each transferee of the Class E Notes is also required to provide certain tax forms and other tax-related certifications. See “Transfer Restrictions.”

The Class E Notes will be issued in minimum denominations of U.S.$250,000 and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess thereof.

Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Preference Shares

The Preference Shares will be issued in the form of one or more certificated Preference Shares in definitive, fully registered form, registered in the name of the owner thereof (the “Certificated Preference Shares”).

Preference Shares may only be sold to persons who are Qualified Institutional Buyers who are also (A) Qualified Purchasers or (B) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers.

Preference Shares may be transferred only upon (inter alia) receipt by the Preference Shares Paying Agent of a written certification (in the form provided in the Preference Share Documents) from the transferee to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is also (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, and such transfer is being made in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction. Each initial Holder as well as each transferee of the Preference Shares is also required to provide certain tax forms and other tax-related certifications. See “Transfer Restrictions.”

Ogier Fiduciary Services (Cayman) Limited has been appointed and will serve as the registrar with respect to the Preference Shares (the “Share Registrar”) and will provide for (inter alia) the registration of the Preference Shares and the registration of transfers of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Preference Share Documents and the Administration Agreement in the register maintained by it. The Preference Shares will be issued in minimum numbers of 100 Preference Shares per investor and integral multiples of one Preference Share in excess thereof.

The Indenture

The following summary describes certain provisions of the Indenture. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the provisions of the Indenture.

Events of Default

“Event of Default” is defined in the Indenture as:

- (a) a default for four Business Days in the payment of any interest on any Class of Notes that is currently part of the Controlling Class when it becomes payable (or in the case of a default in payment due to an administrative error or omission by the Trustee, the Irish Listing and Paying Agent or the Indenture Registrar, after seven Business Days);

(b) a default in the payment of principal (including Deferred Interest) of any Note when the same becomes payable, at its Stated Maturity or on the Redemption Date;

(c) the failure on any Payment Date to disburse amounts available in the Payment Account in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the failure continues for three Business Days;

(d) on any Measurement Date for so long as any Class A Notes are Outstanding, the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Pledged Obligations is less than 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A Notes;

(e) either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral becomes an investment company under the Investment Company Act;

(f) breach of any other covenant or other agreement of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Indenture (other than any failure to satisfy any of the Collateral Quality Tests, any of the Concentration Limitations, any of the Coverage Tests, the Retention Overcollateralization Test, or other covenants or agreements for which a specific remedy has been provided under the Indenture) in any material respect, or the failure of any representation or warranty of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer made in the Indenture or in any certificate or other writing delivered pursuant thereto, or in connection therewith, to be correct in any material respect when made, and the breach or failure continues for 30 days after either of the Co-Issuers has actual knowledge of it or after notice to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Servicer by the Trustee or to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class by registered or certified mail or overnight courier specifying the breach or failure and requiring it to be remedied and stating that the notice is a "Notice of Default" under the Indenture;

(g) the entry of a decree or order by a court having competent jurisdiction adjudging the Issuer or the Co-Issuer as bankrupt or insolvent, or approving as properly filed a petition seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, or composition of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Bankruptcy Law or any other applicable law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and if the decree or order remains unstayed and in effect for 45 consecutive days;

(h) the institution by the shareholders of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of Proceedings to have the Issuer or Co-Issuer, as the case may be, adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by the shareholders of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings against the Issuer or Co-Issuer, or the filing by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under the Bankruptcy Law or any other similar applicable law, or the consent by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the filing of any such petition or to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or the taking of any action by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in furtherance of any such action; or

(i) one or more final judgments is rendered against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer that exceed in the aggregate U.S.$2,000,000 (or any lesser amount specified by any Rating Agency) and that remain unstayed, undischarged, and unsatisfied for 30 days after the judgments become nonappealable, unless adequate funds have been reserved or set aside for their payment, and unless (except as otherwise specified in writing by Moody's) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereon.

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Trustee must give prompt (and in no event later than five Business Days after becoming aware of such event) notice thereof to the Noteholders.

If an Event of Default is continuing (other than an Event of Default described in clauses (e), (g) or (h) under “—Events of Default” above), the Trustee may, with consent of the Majority of the Controlling Class, and must, upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, declare the principal of all the Notes to be immediately payable by notice to the Co-Issuers and the Noteholders, and upon that declaration the unpaid principal of all the Notes, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), and other amounts payable under the Indenture, shall become immediately payable. The Replacement Period shall terminate upon a declaration of acceleration (subject to re-commencement as described below). If an Event of Default described in clauses (e), (g) or (h) above under “—Events of Default” occurs, all unpaid principal, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), of all the Notes, and other amounts payable under the Indenture, shall automatically become payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Noteholder and the Replacement Period shall terminate automatically (subject to re-commencement as described below).

At any time after the declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent, may rescind the declaration and its consequences if:

- (i) the Issuer or the Co-Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:
  - (A) all unpaid installments of interest and principal on the Notes then due (other than as a result of the acceleration);
  - (B) to the extent that payment of the interest is lawful, interest on any Deferred Interest and Defaulted Interest at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable;
  - (C) all Administrative Expenses of the Co-Issuers and other sums paid or advanced by the Trustee under the Indenture;
  - (D) all unpaid Senior Servicing Fees; and
  - (E) all amounts then payable to any Hedge Counterparty; and
- (ii) the Trustee has determined that all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of the interest on or principal of the Notes, that have become due solely by the acceleration, have been (A) cured, and a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Trustee has agreed with that determination, or (B) waived as provided in the Indenture.

No rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right resulting from the Default. The Issuer shall not terminate any Hedge Agreement at any time after a declaration of acceleration of Maturity of the Notes has been made, unless such declaration and its consequences may no longer be rescinded and annulled in accordance with the Indenture and liquidation of the Collateral has begun.

If an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee will retain the Collateral, collect, and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Collateral and the Notes and any Hedge Agreements (other than amounts received under a Hedge Agreement that are used in putting a replacement hedge in place) in the manner described under “—Priority of Payments” and the Indenture unless either:

(i) the Trustee, in consultation with the Servicer, determines (bid prices having been obtained with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one dealer, that dealer and if there is no dealer, from a pricing service), selected and specified by the Servicer to the Trustee in writing, at the time making a market in those securities, and having computed the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security) that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would (after deduction of the reasonable expenses of the sale or liquidation) be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and the Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) under “—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds,” and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination; or

During the continuance of an Event of Default, a Majority of the Controlling Class may institute and direct the Trustee in the conduct of any proceedings for any remedy available to the Trustee or for the exercise of any right of the Trustee under the Indenture if the direction does not conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of the Indenture and the Trustee has been indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction. Any direction to the Trustee to undertake a sale of the Collateral shall be by the Holders of Notes representing the requisite percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes specified in the Indenture. The Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability unless it has received an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the liability.

A Majority of the Controlling Class may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes, before the time a judgment or decree for the payment of money due has been obtained by the Trustee, waive any past Event of Default or event that, with notice or the lapse of time or both, would become an Event of Default and its consequences, except such a default:

- (i) in the payment of principal or Redemption Price of any Note or in the payment of interest (including Defaulted Interest, Deferred Interest, and any interest on Defaulted Interest or Deferred Interest) on the Notes;
- (ii) with respect to a provision of the Indenture that cannot be modified or amended without the waiver or consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected by the modification or amendment;
- (iii) in the payment of amounts due to the Servicer, the Trustee, or the Hedge Counterparty, which may only be waived with the consent of the affected party; or
- (iv) arising as a result of an Event of Default described in clause (e), (g) or (h) under “—Events of Default.”

No Holder of any Note may institute any proceeding with respect to the Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy under the Indenture, unless:

- (i) the Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of an Event of Default;
- (ii) the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings with respect to the Event of Default in its own name as Trustee under the Indenture and the Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with the request;

- (iii) the Trustee for 30 days after its receipt of the notice, request, and offer of indemnity has failed to institute a Proceeding; and
- (iv) no direction inconsistent with the written request has been given to the Trustee during the 30 day period by a Majority of the Controlling Class.

If the Trustee receives conflicting or inconsistent requests and indemnity from two or more groups of Holders of the Controlling Class, each representing less than a Majority of the Controlling Class, the Trustee shall take the action requested by the Holders of the largest percentage in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, notwithstanding any other provisions of the Indenture but subject to such Holders having offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs and liabilities that might reasonably be incurred by it in compliance with the request as provided in the Indenture.

Supplemental Indentures

Without Consent of Holders

Without the consent of the Holders of any Securities, but with the consent of the parties the consent of which is required as described in the following paragraph, the Co-Issuers, in each instance when authorized by resolutions of the respective Boards of Directors, and the Trustee, at any time and from time to time subject to the requirement provided below with respect to receipt of a Rating Confirmation, may, if, with respect to any matters described in clauses (1) through (22) below, the interests of the Holders of the Securities are not materially and adversely affected thereby (the Co-Issuers and the Trustee will be bound by a standard of good faith and fair dealing in making such determination) enter into one or more indentures supplemental to the Indenture, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, for any of the following purposes:

- (1) to evidence the succession of another person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and the assumption by the successor person of the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Indenture and in the Securities;
- (2) to add to the covenants of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders or to surrender any right in the Indenture conferred on the Co-Issuers;
- (3) to convey, transfer, assign, mortgage, or pledge any property to the Trustee, or add to the conditions, limitations or restrictions on the authorized amount, terms and purposes of the issue, authentication and delivery of the Notes;
- (4) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment under the Indenture by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of the Indenture necessary to facilitate the administration of the trusts under the Indenture by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of the Indenture;
- (5) to correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of the Indenture, or to better assure, convey, and confirm to the Trustee any property subject or required to be subject to the lien of the Indenture (including all actions appropriate as a result of changes in law) or to subject to the lien of the Indenture any additional property;
- (6) to conform any provision in the Indenture to the related provision in this Offering Memorandum that is intended to be a verbatim recitation of such provision;

- (7) to modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any changes in applicable law (or its interpretation) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely on any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the Investment Company Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required under the Indenture;
- (8) with the consent of the Servicer, to modify the restrictions on the sales of Collateral Obligations described in “Security for the Notes—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations” or the Eligibility Criteria described in “Security for the Notes—Eligibility Criteria” (and the related definitions);
- (9) to make appropriate changes for any Class of Senior Notes to be listed on an exchange other than the ISE;
- (10) otherwise to correct any inconsistency or cure any ambiguity or errors in the Indenture;
- (11) to accommodate the issuance of the Senior Notes in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC or otherwise;
- (12) to take any appropriate action to prevent the Issuer, the Holders of Securities or the Trustee from becoming subject to withholding or other taxes, fees, or assessments or to prevent the Issuer from being treated as being engaged in a U.S. trade or business or otherwise being subject to U.S. federal, state or local income tax on a net income basis, so long as the action will not cause the Holders of any Securities to be adversely affected to any material extent by any change to the timing, character, or source of the income from the Securities, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion);
- (13) to authorize the appointment of any listing agent, transfer agent, paying agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes appropriate in connection with the listing of any Class of Senior Notes on the ISE or any other stock exchange, and otherwise to amend the Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, transfer agent, paying agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes in connection with its appointment, so long as the supplemental indenture would not materially and adversely affect any Noteholders, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Servicer, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Notes;
- (14) to amend, modify, enter into or accommodate the execution of any contract relating to a Synthetic Security (including posting collateral under a Synthetic Security Agreement);
- (15) to modify certain representations as to Collateral in the Indenture in order that it may be consistent with applicable laws or Rating Agency requirements;
- (16) to evidence any waiver by any Rating Agency as to any requirement or condition, as applicable, of the Rating Agency in the Indenture;
- (17) to facilitate the issuance of participation notes, combination notes, composite securities and other similar securities;
- (18) to facilitate hedging transactions;

- (19) to facilitate the ability of the Issuer to lend collateral pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement;
- (20) to modify any provision to facilitate an exchange of one security for another security of the same issuers that has substantially identical terms except transfer restrictions, including to effect any serial designation relating to the exchange;
- (21) with the consent of the Servicer, to enter into any additional agreements not expressly prohibited by the Indenture as well as any amendment, modification, or waiver if the Issuer determines that the amendment, modification, or waiver would not, upon or after becoming effective, materially and adversely affect the rights or interest of the Holders of any Class of Securities, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Servicer, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities;
- (22) to provide for the issuance of additional Preference Shares to the extent permitted by the Preference Share Documents and to extend to such additional Preference Shares the benefits applicable to the Preference Shares under the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents; or
- (23) to prevent the Issuer from becoming an “investment company” as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7); provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Servicer shall have received (A) a Rating Confirmation with respect to such supplemental indenture and (B) a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental indenture, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act in reliance on the exemption provided by Rule 3a-7.

Without the consent of the Servicer, no supplemental indenture may be entered into that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to the Servicer under the Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Servicer. The Trustee is authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be in the agreements, but the Trustee should not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee’s own rights, duties, liabilities or immunities under the Indenture or otherwise, except to the extent required by law. Unless notified by a Majority of any Class of Securities that the Class of Securities would be materially and adversely affected, the Trustee may rely on a certificate of the Servicer and an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) as to whether the interests of any Holder of Securities would be materially and adversely affected by any such supplemental indenture.

If any Outstanding Notes are rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee will enter into a supplemental indenture without the consent of Holders only if either (1) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the supplemental indenture or (2) the Servicer and the Holders of 100% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes the ratings on which would be reduced or withdrawn consent to the supplemental indenture. Prior to the entry into any supplemental Indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note informing them of such fact.

At the cost of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee will mail to the Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares), each Rating Agency (for so long as any Notes are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency) and each Hedge Counterparty a copy of any such proposed supplemental indenture at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee (or 60 calendar days before execution in the case of a supplemental indenture for the purpose described in clause (8) above, which shall be identified as such in a certificate of the Servicer delivered to the Trustee before the date on which such notice is required to be given).

With Consent of Holders

If the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency, with the consent of (a) the Servicer if the supplemental indenture would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under the Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Servicer, (b) a Majority of each Class of Notes adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of each such Class of Notes and (c) a Majority of the Preference Shares adversely affected thereby, the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may enter into a supplemental indenture to add any provisions to, or change in any manner or eliminate any of the provisions of, the Indenture or modify in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes under the Indenture.

Any proposed supplemental indenture that would also necessitate a change to the Issuer Charter (or the memorandum and articles of association of Investors Corp.) may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined therein) has been passed to permit the Issuer's (or Investors Corp.'s) constitutional documents to be altered to conform with such proposed change to the Indenture as certified to the Trustee by the Issuer.

Notwithstanding anything in the Indenture to the contrary, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected thereby and the Holder of each Outstanding Preference Share adversely affected thereby, no supplemental indenture shall:

(i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date of any installment of interest on any Note or of any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares, reduce the principal amount or the rate of interest on any Note, or the Default Interest Rate or the Redemption Price with respect to any Note or Preference Share, or change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Share may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, change the provisions of the Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of any Collateral to the payment of principal of or interest on Notes or to payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares, or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which, Notes or their principal or interest are paid or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after their Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the applicable Redemption Date);

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class or Holders of Preference Shares whose consent is required for the authorization of any such supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of the Indenture or certain defaults under the Indenture or their consequences provided for in the Indenture;

(iii) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of the Indenture with respect to any part of the Collateral or terminate the lien on any property at any time subject hereto or deprive the Holder of any Note of the security afforded by the lien of the Indenture;

(iv) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class whose consent is required to request the Trustee to retain the Collateral pursuant to the Indenture or to sell or liquidate the Collateral pursuant to the Indenture;

(v) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture with respect to supplemental indentures or to provide that certain other provisions of the Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note and Preference Share affected thereby;

(vi) modify the definition of "Outstanding," "Controlling Class," or "Majority," or the Priority of Payments in the Indenture; or

(vii) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of Redemption Price or of interest or principal on any Note or any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the payment of dividends or other payments on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes or Preference Shares to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of the Notes or the Preference Shares contained in the Indenture.

Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to the above provision, the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, will mail to the Noteholders, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) a copy of such proposed supplemental indenture and will request any required consent from the applicable Holders of Securities to be given within the Initial Consent Period. Any consent given to a proposed supplemental indenture by the Holder of any Securities will be irrevocable and binding on all future Holders or beneficial owners of that Security, irrespective of the execution date of the supplemental indenture. If the Holders of less than the required percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the relevant Securities consent to a proposed supplemental indenture within the Initial Consent Period, on the first Business Day after the Initial Consent Period, the Trustee will notify the Issuer and the Servicer which Holders of Securities have consented to the proposed supplemental indenture and, which Holders (and, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Trustee, which beneficial owners) have not consented to the proposed supplemental indenture. If it intends to exercise its Amendment Buy-Out Option, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must so notify the Trustee (which notice will designate a date for the Amendment Buy-Out to occur no earlier than 10 Business Days after the date of such notice) no later than five Business Days after the Servicer is so notified by the Trustee and the Trustee will promptly mail such notice to all Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares). Any Non-Consenting Holder may give consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture until the 5th Business Day prior to the date of the Amendment Buy-Out designated by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and in such case will cease to be a Non-Consenting Holder for purposes of the Amendment Buy-Out. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser exercises its Amendment Buy-Out Option and purchases the applicable Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, as Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Securities, may consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture within five Business Days of the Amendment Buy-Out.

It is not necessary for any Act of Noteholders under the above provision to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if the Act or consent approves its substance.

The Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, will mail to the Noteholders, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency a copy of any supplemental indenture promptly after its execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee.

Additional Issuance of Preference Shares

The Preference Share Documents will provide that, at any time during the Replacement Period, the Issuer may issue and sell additional Preference Shares and use the proceeds from such issuance and sale to purchase additional Collateral Obligations or as otherwise permitted under the Preference Share Documents and the Indenture; provided that the following conditions are met: (a) the terms of the Preference Shares issued must be identical to the terms of previously issued Preference Shares and (b) the net proceeds of any additional Preference Shares are used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations. Such additional Preference Shares may be offered and sold at prices that differ from the initial offering prices of the outstanding Preference Shares; provided that the initial offering prices of additional Preference Shares shall not be below 100% of the face amount thereof. The Issuer must cause purchases of additional Preference Shares made pursuant to an additional issuance of Preference Shares to comply individually and in the aggregate with the applicable purchase and transfer restrictions for the Preference Shares set forth herein in "Transfer Restrictions" and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Any additional Preference Shares issued will, to the extent reasonably practicable, be offered by the Issuer first to the existing Holders of the Preference Shares, in such amounts as are necessary to preserve their pro rata holdings of the Preference Shares. By its acceptance of the Preference Shares, each Holder of a Preference Share agrees that additional Preference Shares can be issued in accordance with the Preference Share Documents and the Indenture without consent of any Holder of the Securities.

It is expected that Investors Corp. will finance the purchase of any additional Class I Preference Shares issued by the Issuer by issuing additional Holding Preference Shares in a number equal to the aggregate number of, and at a price equal to the price of, such additional Class I Preference Shares purchased by it.

The Indenture does not permit the issuance of additional Class A Notes, Class B Notes, Class C Notes, Class D Notes or Class E Notes or other obligations with terms similar to those of such Classes of Notes.

Amendment Buy-Out

In the case of any supplemental indenture that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Securities held by such Holders of the Class of Securities whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture or, with respect to any Class I Preference Shares held by Investors Corp. if the consent of the Holders of Holding Preference Shares has been solicited, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holding Preference Share Holders all Holding Preference Shares held by such Holders (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option"), in each case, for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; provided, however, that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser may not exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option during the Non-Call Period in connection with a proposed amendment to reduce the rate of interest on any Securities or to change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Shares may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Securities of Non-Consenting Holders and all such Holding Preference Shares of the Non-Consenting Holding Preference Share Holders, as the case may be, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"); provided that if any Non-Consenting Holder holds Class II Preference Shares, (i) such Non-Consenting Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to Investors Corp. and such Preference Shares will be redesignated as Class I Preference Shares, (ii) Investors Corp. will issue additional Holding Preference Shares in a number equal to the aggregate number of, and at a price equal to the price of, such redesignated Preference Shares purchased by it and (iii) the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser will purchase such additional Holding Preference Shares in lieu of such redesignated Preference Shares. By its acceptance of its Securities under the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents, as applicable, each Holder of Securities agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder and any Non-Consenting Holding Preference Share Holder will be required to sell its applicable Transaction Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser. Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or beneficial owner of Transaction Securities as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option.

All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Transaction Securities set forth herein in “Transfer Restrictions” or in the Investors Corp. Offering Memorandum, as applicable, and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

In addition, one or more Holders may enter into an agreement with the Issuer and/or the Servicer that such Holder will have the right to receive a greater purchase price than the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price set forth in the Indenture. See “Risk Factors—An Amendment Buy-Out May Result in a Shorter Holding Period Than Expected.”

Notices

Notices to the Holders of the Securities will be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the registered Holders of the Notes at their respective addresses appearing in the Indenture Register, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares). If and for so long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed on the ISE and the rules of the exchange so require, notice will also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

Any Holder or beneficial owner of any Class A Note may elect to acquire bond insurance, a surety bond, a credit default swap or similar credit enhancement supporting the payment of principal and/or interest on such Class A Note on terms and conditions acceptable to such Holder or beneficial owner and at the sole expense of such Holder or beneficial owner. On or after any such acquisition, such Holder or beneficial owner may deliver notice (and if from a beneficial owner, any such notice shall include certification that such owner is a beneficial owner of the Class A Notes) to the Trustee in substantially the form set out in the Indenture, specifying the name and contact information of the insurer, surety, credit protection seller or enhancer of such Class A Note (each, an “Insurer”). After receipt of any such notice by the Trustee, the Trustee shall copy the related Insurer on all notices, reports or other documents delivered to the Noteholders.

Certain Covenants

The Indenture contains certain covenants restricting the conduct of the Co-Issuers, including (i) restrictions on consolidations, mergers and transfers or conveyances of assets involving either Co-Issuer, (ii) restrictions on incurrence of debt other than the Notes and certain obligations incidental to the performance by each Co-Issuer of its obligations under the Indenture, (iii) restrictions on the ability of either Co-Issuer to conduct activities inconsistent with its special-purpose nature and (iv) certain restrictions on amendments of the Collateral Administration Agreement and the Servicing Agreement.

Certain Additional Issues Relating to Listing of Senior Notes

Application will be made to admit each Class of Senior Notes to the Daily Official List of the ISE. There can be no assurance that any such admission will be granted or maintained.

The Indenture provides that, so long as any Senior Notes remain Outstanding, the Co-Issuers shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain the listing of the Senior Notes on the ISE.

Cancellation

All Securities that are paid in full or redeemed and surrendered for cancellation will forthwith be canceled and may not be reissued or resold.

No Gross-Up

All payments made by the Issuer under the Securities will be made without any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax unless the deduction or withholding is required by any applicable law, as modified by the practice of any relevant governmental revenue authority, then in effect. If the Issuer is so required to deduct or withhold, then the Issuer will not be obligated to pay any additional amounts in respect of the withholding or deduction.

Petitions for Bankruptcy

The Indenture provides that the Trustee, each Hedge Counterparty, the Servicer and the Holders of the Notes may not cause the Issuer or Co-Issuer to petition for bankruptcy before one year and one day have elapsed since the final payments to the Holders of all Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, including any period established pursuant to the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Standard of Conduct

The Indenture provides that, in exercising any of its or their voting rights, rights to direct and consent or any other rights as a Noteholder under the Indenture, subject to the terms and conditions of the Indenture, a Noteholder shall not have any obligation or duty to any Person or to consider or take into account the interests of any Person and shall not be liable to any Person for any action taken by it or them or at its or their direction or any failure by it or them to act or to direct that an action be taken, without regard to whether the action or inaction benefits or adversely affects any Noteholder, the Issuer, or any other Person, except for any liability to which the Noteholder may be subject to the extent the same results from the Noteholder's taking or directing an action, or failing to take or direct an action, in bad faith or in violation of the express terms of the Indenture.

Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture

The Indenture will be discharged with respect to the Collateral upon delivery to the Trustee for cancellation of all of the Notes, or, within certain limitations (including the obligation to pay interest on or principal of the Notes) upon deposit with the Trustee of funds sufficient for the payment or redemption thereof and the payment by the Co-Issuers or the Issuer, as applicable, of all other amounts due under the Indenture.

Trustee

U.S. Bank National Association will be the Trustee under the Indenture. The Co-Issuers, the Servicer and their respective Affiliates may maintain other banking relationships in the ordinary course of business with the Trustee and its Affiliates. The payment of the fees and expenses of the Trustee relating to the Notes is solely the obligation of the Issuer. The payment of the fees and expenses, which will be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments, is secured by a lien on the Collateral which is senior to the lien of the Holders of the Notes. The Trustee and its Affiliates may receive compensation in connection with the purchase of trust assets in certain Eligible Investments as provided in the Indenture. Eligible Investments may include assets for which the Trustee or its Affiliates provide services. The Indenture contains provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee for any loss, liability or expense incurred without negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Indenture.

Pursuant to the Indenture, as security for the payment by the Issuer of the compensation and expenses of the Trustee and any sums the Trustee may be entitled to receive as indemnification by the Issuer, the Issuer will grant the Trustee a senior lien on the Collateral, which is senior to the lien of the holders of the Secured Obligations on the Collateral.

Pursuant to the Indenture, the Trustee may resign at any time by providing 30 days' written notice to the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, the Holders of each Class of Notes, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency, upon receipt of which the Co-Issuers shall, at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, promptly appoint a successor trustee that meets the requirements set forth in the Indenture. If no successor trustee is appointed within 60 days after such notice, the resigning Trustee or any Holder of a Class of Notes may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of such successor. The Trustee may be removed (i) at any time by a Majority of the Controlling Class or (ii) by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. If at any time the Trustee ceases to be an eligible trustee under the Indenture and fails to resign after written request by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class, or the Trustee becomes incapable of acting or is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, then (A) the Co-Issuers may, and at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, remove the Trustee, or (B) any Holder of a Security may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor trustee. If the Trustee is removed or becomes incapable of acting, or if a vacancy occurs in the office of the Trustee for any reason (other than resignation), the Co-Issuers shall promptly appoint a successor trustee. If the Co-Issuers fail to appoint a successor trustee within 60 days after the removal or incapability or the occurrence of the vacancy, a successor trustee may be appointed by a Majority of the Controlling Class by written instrument. If no successor trustee has been so appointed by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class, then the Trustee to be replaced or any Holder of a Security, may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, no resignation or removal of the Trustee will become effective until the acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

Governing Law

The Notes, the Indenture, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Servicing Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Subscription Agreements, the Securities Lending Agreements, and the Hedge Agreements will be governed by the laws of the State of New York. The Administration Agreement and the Issuer Charter will be governed by the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Method of Payments

Payments of principal and interest on any Note or payments on or in respect of the Preference Shares (including any Redemption Price paid on the applicable Redemption Date) and of any payments on any Notes or Preference Shares will be made to the person in whose name the related Note or Preference Share is registered fifteen days before the applicable Payment Date (the "Record Date"). Payments will be made (i) in the case of a Global Note, to the Depository or its designee and to the Holder or its nominee with respect to a Definitive Security, by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a United States dollar account maintained by the Depository or its nominee with respect to a Global Note and to the Holder or its designee with respect to a Definitive Security if the Holder has provided written wiring instructions to the Trustee and, if the payment is to be made by the Irish Paying Agent, the Irish Paying Agent on or before the related Record Date or, (ii) if appropriate wiring instructions are not received by the related Record Date, by check drawn on a U.S. bank mailed to the address of the Holder in the Indenture Register (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Preference Share register). Final payments of principal of the Notes or Preference Shares will be made against surrender of the related Notes or Preference Shares at the office designated by the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent. None of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Servicer, the Placement Agents, any paying agent, or any of their respective affiliates will have any responsibility or liability for any aspects of the records maintained by the Depository or its nominee or any of its direct or indirect participants (including Euroclear or Clearstream or any of their respective direct or indirect participants) relating to payments made on account of beneficial interests in a Global Note.

The Co-Issuers expect that the Depository or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal or interest in respect of a Global Note held by the Depository or its nominee, will immediately credit participants' accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the Global Note as shown on the records of the Depository or its nominee. The Co-Issuers also expect that payments by participants (i.e., direct participants) to owners of beneficial interests in a Global Note held through the participants (i.e., indirect participants) will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for the customers. The payments will be the responsibility of the participants.

For so long as any Senior Notes are listed on the ISE and the rules of the exchange shall so require, the Issuer and the Co-Issuers, as applicable, will have the Irish Paying Agent for the Senior Notes in Ireland and payments on the Senior Notes may be effected through the Irish Paying Agent. If the Irish Paying Agent is replaced at any time during the period, notice of the appointment of any replacement will be given to the Company Announcements Office of the ISE.

Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement

General

Pursuant to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agent will perform various fiscal services with respect to the Preference Shares on behalf of the Issuer, including the maintenance of the Preference Shares Distribution Account and the making of distributions on the Preference Shares. The Preference Shares Paying Agent will deliver or request the Trustee to deliver all Monthly Reports and Valuation Reports prepared pursuant to the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent will deliver, or shall cause the Trustee to deliver, a copy of any other notice or information it receives from the Trustee under the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares, in each case (i) by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to each Holder of a Preference Share at the address appearing in the Preference Share register or (ii) with respect to delivery of Monthly Reports and Valuation Reports, by making such reports available via its internet website, initially located at <https://trustinvestorreporting.usbank.com>. All information made available on the Preference Shares Paying Agent's website will be restricted and the Preference Shares Paying Agent will only provide access to such reports to those parties entitled thereto pursuant to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement. In connection with providing access to its website, the Preference Shares Paying Agent may require registration and the acceptance of a disclaimer. Questions regarding the Preference Shares Paying Agent's website can be directed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent's customer service desk at (866) 252-4360. The payment of the fees and expenses of the Preference Shares Paying Agent is solely the obligation of the Issuer. The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement contains provisions for the indemnification of the Preference Shares Paying Agent for any loss, liability or expense incurred without gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith on its part, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its function under the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

Redemption

On the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, the Issuer is scheduled to redeem the Preference Shares for a redemption price equal to all amounts distributable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares as provided under "—Priority of Payments," unless the Preference Shares have been redeemed earlier through an optional redemption as described herein or otherwise.

Governing Law

The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York. The rights of the Holders of the Preference Shares will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Redesignation of Class I Preference Shares and Class II Preference Shares

The Share Registrar will record in the register maintained by it which Preference Shares are held by HFP or any of its subsidiaries. Such Preference Shares will be designated by the Share Registrar as Class II Preference Shares. HFP and its subsidiaries will agree not to transfer any of the Class II Preference Shares to any third party other than Investors Corp. Any transfer of Class II Preference Shares by HFP or any of its subsidiaries to Investors Corp. will require redesignation by the Share Registrar of such Class II Preference Shares into Class I Preference Shares and any transfer of Class I Preference Shares to HFP or any of its subsidiaries from Investors Corp. will require redesignation by the Share Registrar of such Class I Preference Shares into Class II Preference Shares. Investors Corp. will finance the purchase of any Class II Preference Shares to be redesignated in connection with such transfer by issuing additional Holding Preference Shares in a number equal to the aggregate number of, and at a price equal to the price of, such Class II Preference Shares.

Distribution of Eligible Equity Securities

If the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, desires to make distributions of Eligible Equity Securities on any Payment Date in lieu of Interest Proceeds that are otherwise available for distribution to the Holders of Preference Shares on such Payment Date pursuant to the Priority of Payments, the Servicer will notify the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent not later than 20 calendar days prior to such Payment Date and provide the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding on the Record Date or promptly thereafter, but in any event no later than two Business Days after the Record Date, to each Holder of the Preference Shares registered as such on the Record Date for such Payment Date) and the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding on the Record Date or promptly thereafter, but in any event no later than two Business Days after the Record Date, to each Holder of the Holding Preference Shares registered as such on the Record Date for such Payment Date) with (i) details of the Eligible Equity Securities to be distributed, (ii) the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities determined as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date, (iii) any other information considered necessary by the Servicer in connection with such proposed distribution and (iv) any information as otherwise required by the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and/or the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to such proposed distribution. The Preference Shares Paying Agent will then mail such materials, within two Business Days of its receipt thereof from the Servicer, to each registered Holder of Preference Shares on the Record Date for such Payment Date along with a form of notice and consent (in a form attached to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement) seeking the written consent of each such Holder of Preference Shares to distribute such Eligible Equity Securities to such Holder in lieu of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such Payment Date. Each Holder of the Preference Shares wishing to receive such Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of a distribution of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such applicable Payment Date (each such Holder with respect to such Payment Date, a “Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares”) must deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent a written consent (which consent will be irrevocable) not later than five Business Days prior to such Payment Date. If any Holder of Preference Shares does not timely deliver its written consent to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in the manner set forth in such notice indicating its consent to the receipt of such Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of a distribution of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such Payment Date, such Holder will be deemed to have not given its consent and shall not be a Consenting Holder of Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date. On each applicable Payment Date (or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable), Eligible Equity Securities will be distributed pro rata to each Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date. Each Holder of Preference Shares that is not a Consenting Holder of Preference Shares (and, for the avoidance of doubt, each Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares to the extent the Market Value as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date of the pro rata portion of Eligible Equity Securities distributed to it on such Payment Date is less than the pro rata portion of the Interest Proceeds that it would have received on such Payment Date had the Eligible Equity Securities not been distributed on such Payment Date) on any applicable Payment Date will receive a distribution of Interest Proceeds to the extent available in accordance with the Priority of Payments on such Payment Date. See “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

Amendment

Without the Consent of Holders. The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement may be amended by the parties thereto, without the consent of the Holders of any Preference Shares, for the purpose of curing any ambiguity, or of curing, correcting or supplementing any defective provision contained therein, or in regard to matters or questions arising under the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement as the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may deem necessary or desirable and which shall not materially adversely affect the interests of Holders of the Preference Shares. In addition, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement may be amended without the consent of any Holders of the Preference Shares and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Preference Shares in order to prevent the Issuer from becoming an “investment company” as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7); provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such amendment, each of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Servicer shall have received a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such amendment, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act in reliance on the exemption provided by Rule 3a-7.

With the consent of Holders. Unless otherwise set forth in the preceding paragraph, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement may be amended with the consent of Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares materially and adversely affected thereby.

Any amendment to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement must be in writing, executed by each party thereto. The Preference Shares Paying Agent is entitled to receive, and (subject to its duties and obligations in the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an opinion of counsel, consent or certificate of the Issuer in determining whether or not any proposed amendment is permitted under Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

Any amendment to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement that would also necessitate a change to the Issuer Charter may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Issuer Charter) has been passed to permit the Issuer Charter to be altered to conform with such proposed amendment.

The Issuer Charter

The following summary describes certain provisions of the Issuer Charter relating to the Preference Shares that are not referred to elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum.

Voting Rights

Other than as provided below, only the holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares shall have the right to receive notice of, attend at and vote as a shareholder of the Issuer at any general meeting of the Issuer. Every holder of an Issuer Ordinary Share present at any meeting shall, on a show of hands, be entitled to one vote and, on a poll, shall be entitled to one vote per Issuer Ordinary Share held by such holder.

Other than as provided below, the Holders of the Preference Shares shall have the right to receive notice of, attend at and vote as a shareholder of the Issuer at any general meeting of the Issuer only in respect of a resolution which relates to any circumstance or matter which under the Indenture, the Preference Share Documents or the Servicing Agreement can take place or occur only at the direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares (a “Preference Share Vote”). Every Holder of Preference Shares present shall, on a show of hands, be entitled to one vote and, on a poll, shall be entitled to one vote per Preference Share held by such Holder except that, in relation to a Preference Share Vote relating to certain matters (as set out in the Indenture) Preference Shares held by certain Holders (as set out in the Indenture), shall be ignored.

The Class II Preference Shares will have total control with respect to the appointment and removal of the directors of the Issuer as long as the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date is higher than the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date. If the aggregate number of Class II Preference Shares Outstanding as of the relevant Voting Record Date is lower than or equal to the aggregate number of Class I Preference Shares Outstanding as of such date, only the Issuer Ordinary Shares will be entitled to vote with respect to the appointment and removal of the directors of the Issuer.

Liquidation

In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Issuer:

(i) the Holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares at the time outstanding will be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Issuer available for distribution to shareholders, before any distribution of assets is made to Holders of the Preference Shares, an amount equal to U.S.$2.00 in respect of each Issuer Ordinary Share held by each such holder; and

(ii) the Holders of the Preference Shares at the time Outstanding will be entitled to the balance of the assets of the Issuer available for distribution to shareholders, after distribution of amounts due to holders of Issuer Ordinary Shares under the above subparagraph, pro rata according to the number of Preference Shares held by each such holder.

If the assets available for distribution to holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares are not sufficient to pay to such holders U.S.$2.00 in respect of each Issuer Ordinary Share, the available assets shall be distributed to holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares pro rata according to the number of Issuer Ordinary Shares held by each such holder.

Transfer

The rights of a Holder of a Preference Share to transfer such Preference Share are subject to restrictions set out in the Preference Share Documents and as described in “Transfer Restrictions.”

Petitions for Bankruptcy

Each Holder of a Preference Share will be required to agree (or be deemed to have agreed) not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The Securities will be issued and sold for Cash on the Closing Date. The gross proceeds from the issuance of such Securities on the Closing Date are expected to equal approximately U.S.$ 900,000,000 and will be used by the Issuer to:

- purchase a portfolio of Collateral Obligations;

- fund the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account to cover any future draws on Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans;
- enter into any Hedge Agreements, as applicable;
- enter into any Securities Lending Agreements (and correspondingly to fund the Securities Lending Account);
- enter into Synthetic Security Agreements (and correspondingly to fund the related accounts);
- repurchase and terminate Participations outstanding under the Warehouse Agreements (at a price reflecting the price originally paid by the Issuer to acquire the Warehoused Loan, plus the amount of extensions of credit in respect of certain Warehoused Loans, minus the aggregate amount of payments of principal received by the Warehouse Providers, respectively, in respect of such Warehoused Loan (excluding the amount of any such payment that was required to be repaid or returned by any Warehouse Provider by claw-back or otherwise), plus all accrued and unpaid interest and fees on such Warehoused Loans);
- fund the Closing Date Expense Account and the Interest Reserve Account; and
- undertake certain related activities.

SECURITY FOR THE NOTES

The Notes and the Issuer's obligations under the Hedge Agreements and the Servicing Agreement will be secured by the following:

- (i) the Collateral Obligations and all Workout Assets;
- (ii) the Custodial Account, the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account and the Securities Lending Account (such accounts, collectively, the "Issuer Accounts"), Eligible Investments purchased with funds on deposit in the Issuer Accounts, and all income from funds in the Issuer Accounts;
- (iii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account (and together with the Issuer Accounts, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account and the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the "Accounts") and assets included therein, subject to the terms of the related Synthetic Security (provided, however, that any such rights in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be held in trust by the Trustee (or securities intermediary) first to secure the Issuer's payment obligations to the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty and second for the benefit of the Secured Parties);
- (iv) the Servicing Agreement, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, the Securities Lending Agreements and all Securities Lending Collateral and the Securities Lending Account, the Hedge Agreements as set forth in the Indenture and all Collateral securing the Hedge Counterparty's obligations thereunder including, without limitation, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account and the Collateral Administration Agreement to the extent of any rights of the Issuer therein;
- (v) all Cash or money delivered to the Trustee (or its bailee); and
- (vi) all proceeds with respect to the foregoing (collectively, the "Collateral").

For the avoidance of any doubt, Collateral will exclude (i) amounts released from the Trustee's lien in connection with certain Synthetic Securities, Hedge Agreements and Securities Lending Agreements in accordance with the Indenture and (ii) the Excluded Property.

Purchase of Collateral Obligations

The Indenture will provide that the Servicer will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Issuer to purchase or enter into binding commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations that meet certain minimum amounts and characteristics. The composition of the portfolio of Collateral Obligations will be determined by the selections of the Servicer designed to meet the Eligibility Criteria, the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests and the requirements provided in paragraphs (i) through (ix) in “—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations.” See “—Eligibility Criteria,” “—The Collateral Quality Tests,” “—The Coverage Tests” and “—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations.”

The Servicer expects that, by the end of the Ramp-Up Period, the Issuer will have purchased or committed to purchase Collateral Obligations having an Aggregate Principal Balance of approximately $880,700,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date).

Eligibility Criteria

On any date during the Replacement Period (and, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, on any date after the Replacement Period), so long as no Event of Default is continuing, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to apply Principal Proceeds (together with Interest Proceeds, but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on Collateral Obligations) to purchase Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security) if the conditions specified in the Indenture are satisfied. No obligations may be purchased unless each of the conditions in the following clauses (1) through (12) (the “Eligibility Criteria”) is satisfied as evidenced by a certificate of the Servicer as of the date the Issuer commits to make the purchase, in each case after giving effect to the purchase and all other purchases and sales previously or simultaneously committed to:

- (1) the obligation is a Collateral Obligation;
- (2) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period:
  - (A) each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied and, if the commitment is made on or after the second Payment Date, each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied; or
  - (B) if any such Coverage Test is not satisfied, both:
    - (i) the extent of satisfaction of the Coverage Test is not reduced; and
    - (ii) the Collateral Obligation is being purchased with Principal Proceeds other than:
      - (x) Principal Proceeds received in respect of a Defaulted Collateral Obligation; or

- (y) Principal Proceeds received in respect of a Workout Asset that has been received in exchange for a Defaulted Collateral Obligation;
- (3) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Diversity Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (4) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (5) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, each of the limits in the definition of "Concentration Limitations" is satisfied or, if any such limit is not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (6) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Spread Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (7) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (8) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Life Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (9) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (10) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (11) for any date occurring during the Replacement Period, the S&P CDO Monitor Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced; provided, however, that this Eligibility Criterion (11) shall not apply either to the application of the proceeds from the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation, Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset or to the application of Principal Proceeds in respect of Defaulted Collateral Obligations; and
- (12) for any date occurring after the Replacement Period:
  - (A) each Coverage Test is satisfied and the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
  - (B) each Collateral Quality Test is maintained or improved and the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied;
  - (C) each Concentration Limitation is maintained or improved and the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Caa1 Collateral Obligations do not exceed 7.5% of the Maximum Amount;
  - (D) the Weighted Average Life Test is satisfied;
  - (E) the S&P Rating of such Collateral Obligation is at least equal to the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation being the source of the Unscheduled Principal Payments or of the Credit Risk Obligations or Credit Improved Obligation being the source of Sale Proceeds, as applicable; and

(F) the current Moody's Ratings on the Class A Notes are "Aaa" and the current Moody's Ratings on the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes are no lower than one subcategory below their initial rating.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) one or more Collateral Obligations may be purchased pursuant to a Portfolio Improvement Exchange effected in compliance with "—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations—Credit Improved Obligations" regardless of whether such purchase would otherwise satisfy the Eligibility Criterion set forth in clause (12) above and (ii) the Issuer (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall not direct the Trustee to purchase any Collateral Obligation following receipt by the Servicer of notice of removal pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement until a successor servicer is appointed pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement. See "The Servicing Agreement."

The Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, exchange a Collateral Obligation for another Collateral Obligation in an exchange of one security for another security of the same issuers that has substantially identical terms except transfer restrictions.

Cash on deposit in the Collection Account may be held in Eligible Investments in accordance with this "Eligibility Criteria" section pending the application thereof to purchase Collateral Obligations.

The Indenture provides that any sale or purchase by the Issuer of a Collateral Obligation shall be conducted on an arm's length basis and, if effected with the Servicer or a person Affiliated with the Servicer or any fund or account for which the Servicer or an Affiliate of the Servicer acts as investment adviser, shall be effected in accordance with the requirements the Servicing Agreement on terms no less favorable to the Issuer than would be the case if the person were not so Affiliated.

The Collateral Quality Tests

The Collateral Quality Tests will be used primarily as criteria for purchasing Collateral Obligations. See "—Eligibility Criteria" above and "—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Collateral Obligations" below. The Collateral Quality Tests are described below.

Measurement of the degree of compliance with the Collateral Quality Tests will be required on each Measurement Date on and after the Ramp-Up Completion Date.

The Diversity Test

The "Diversity Test" is a test that will be satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Diversity Score as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score. For the purposes of calculating the Diversity Test, any Structured Finance Obligation that is a collateralized loan obligation will be disregarded.

Weighted Average Life Test

The "Weighted Average Life Test" is a test that is satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the greater of (a) the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and August 1, 2015 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date and (b) 3.0 years.

Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test

The "Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test" is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Moody's Minimum Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 44.30%.

Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test

The “Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test” is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the S&P Minimum Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 52.42%.

“S&P Minimum Average Recovery Rate” is a rate, as of any Measurement Date, equal to the number obtained by:

- (i) summing the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation by its respective S&P Priority Category Recovery Rate;
- (ii) dividing the sum determined pursuant to clause (i) above by the sum of the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations; and
- (iii) rounding up to the first decimal place.

S&P CDO Monitor Test

The “S&P CDO Monitor Test” is a test that is satisfied on any Measurement Date if, after giving effect to the sale of a Collateral Obligation or the purchase of a Collateral Obligation, each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is positive. The S&P CDO Monitor Test shall be considered to be improved if each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is at least equal to the corresponding Note Class Loss Differential of the Current Portfolio. The S&P CDO Monitor Test is not required to be satisfied or improved upon the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation and the application of the related Sale Proceeds to purchase additional Collateral Obligations. For purposes of the S&P CDO Monitor Test:

- (i) the S&P Rating of any S&P Unrated DIP Loan shall be “CCC”; and
- (ii) the S&P Industry Classification for a Synthetic Security shall be that of the related Reference Obligation and not the Synthetic Security.

The “Note Class Loss Differential” with respect to any Measurement Date and any Class of Notes that is rated by S&P, the rate calculated by subtracting the Class Scenario Loss Rate for the Class from the then-applicable Note Break-Even Loss Rate for the Class of Notes.

The “Note Break-Even Loss Rate” with respect to each Class of Notes that is rated by S&P, the maximum percentage of defaults that the Current Portfolio or Proposed Portfolio can sustain and nevertheless sufficient funds will remain for the payment of principal of the Class of Notes in full by its Stated Maturity and the timely payment of interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes and the ultimate payment of interest on the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes using S&P's assumptions on recoveries, defaults, and timing, and taking into account the Priority of Payments and the adjusted Weighted Average Spread level specified in the applicable row of the table below. The adjusted Weighted Average Spread as of any Measurement Date is the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date minus the amount of any Spread Excess added to the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon as of the Measurement Date.

9	Greater than or equal to 2.25% but less than 2.35%

The Coverage Tests

General

The Coverage Tests will be used to determine, among other things, whether Notes will be redeemed in certain circumstances as described under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments” and whether additional Collateral Obligations may be acquired as described under “—Eligibility Criteria.” There will not be any Coverage Test applicable to the Preference Shares.

The Overcollateralization Tests

The “Overcollateralization Tests” will consist of the Class A/B Overcollateralization Test, the Class C Overcollateralization Test and the Class D Overcollateralization Test.

Each Overcollateralization Test will be satisfied with respect to any Class of Notes on any Measurement Date if, as of such Measurement Date, the Overcollateralization Ratio for the Class is at least equal to the specified required level for the Class indicated in the table in “Summary of Terms—The Overcollateralization Tests.”

The Overcollateralization Ratio, with respect to each Class of Notes on any Measurement Date, is referred to as an “Overcollateralization Ratio,” and is the ratio calculated by dividing:

- (i) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator; by
- (ii) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class of Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it (excluding any Deferred Interest on the Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it).

The “Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator” is, on any date, the sum of:

- (1) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (other than any Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, any Deep Discount Obligations and any Collateral Obligations loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement with respect to which an “event of default” (under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing); plus

- (2) unpaid Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal (excluding any unpaid Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal in respect of Non-Performing Collateral Obligations); plus
- (3) the Aggregate Principal Balance of any Eligible Investments that were purchased with Principal Proceeds and the amount of Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account; plus
- (4) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Eligible Investments on deposit in a Securities Lending Account that relate to a Securities Lending Agreement with respect to which an “event of default” (under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing; plus
- (5) with respect Collateral Obligation that are Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, Deep Discount Obligations or Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, the amount determined by using one of the following methods applicable to such type of Collateral Obligation; provided that if a Collateral Obligation falls within more than one of such types, the Issuer will be required to use the method that results in the smallest amount:
  - (A) with respect to any Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, an amount equal to the product of (i) the lower of (1) 70% and (2) the weighted average of the Adjusted Market Value of all CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations, multiplied by (ii) the Excess CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligations;
  - (B) with respect to any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, the aggregate of the Applicable Collateral Obligation Amounts for all included Non-Performing Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations that have been held by the Issuer for more than three years, which shall be deemed to be zero for purposes of this clause (B)); and
  - (C) with respect to any Deep Discount Obligations, the Aggregate Purchase Price Amount for all Deep Discount Obligations.

As used in this definition,

“Adjusted Market Value” means, with respect to each CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligation, the lower of (x) 100% and (y) the Market Value of such CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligation, expressed as a percentage of its outstanding principal balance.

“Applicable Collateral Obligation Amount” for any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation means:

- (1) the lesser of (x) the Market Value Percentage of the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation and (y) the Applicable Percentage for the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation multiplied by:
- (2) if the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation is:
  - (A) any Pledged Obligation other than those in clauses (B) through (D) below, the outstanding principal amount of the Pledged Obligation as of the relevant Measurement Date;

- (B) a Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in the Synthetic Security;
- (C) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its Principal Balance including any unfunded amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer's obligation to fund the unfunded amount); and
- (D) any PIK Security, its Principal Balance.

As used in the calculation of Market Value Percentage of the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation, the Principal Balance of any Defaulted Collateral Obligation shall be, if the Defaulted Collateral Obligation is:

- (i) any Pledged Obligation other than those in clauses (ii) through (iv) below, the outstanding principal amount of the Pledged Obligation as of the relevant Measurement Date;
- (ii) a Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in the Synthetic Security;
- (iii) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its Principal Balance including any unfunded amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer's obligation to fund the unfunded amount); and
- (iv) any PIK Security, its Principal Balance.

The Interest Coverage Tests

The Interest Coverage Test in respect of each Class of Notes (each an "Interest Coverage Test") is a test the first Measurement Date for which will be on the second Payment Date and that is satisfied with respect to any specified Class of Notes if, as of the second Payment Date and any Measurement Date thereafter on which any Notes remain Outstanding, the Interest Coverage Ratio equals or exceeds the applicable required level specified in the table in "Summary of Terms— The Interest Coverage Tests."

The "Interest Coverage Ratio" with respect to any specified Class of Notes on any Measurement Date, the ratio calculated by dividing:

- (i) the sum of:
  - (A) the Interest Proceeds received or scheduled to be received with respect to the Due Period in which the Measurement Date occurs; minus
  - (B) amounts payable under clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" on the related Payment Date; by
- (ii) all accrued and unpaid interest on the specified Class of Notes and all Notes ranking senior to the Class, including any Deferred Interest on the related Payment Date.

For purposes of the Interest Coverage Ratio, only the amount of any interest payment (including any "gross up" payment) on any Collateral Obligation in excess of any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction on any date of determination shall be included in Interest Proceeds.

Retention Overcollateralization Test

The “Retention Overcollateralization Test” is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date during the Replacement Period on which any Notes remain Outstanding, if the Retention Overcollateralization Ratio as of such Measurement Date is at least equal to 104.8%.

Ramp-Up

In connection with the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer shall use its best efforts to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period or enter into commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period for purchase on or as soon as practicable thereafter (not to exceed 60 days thereafter), in each case, for inclusion in the Collateral so that the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator with respect to the Class A Notes is at least U.S.$880,700,000.

No Collateral Obligations may be purchased prior to the Ramp-Up Completion Date unless immediately following the purchase of any Collateral Obligation (as certified by the Servicer in writing), the remaining funds in the Collection Account, after giving effect to such purchase, are sufficient as of the date of determination to purchase Collateral Obligations for inclusion in the Collateral so that the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator with respect to the Class A Notes is at least U.S.$880,700,000 (taking into account the Collateral Obligations already part of the Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date)).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of the Indenture, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase a Collateral Obligation to be included in the Collateral, such commitment initially not to exceed 60 days, and at the time of the commitment the Collateral Obligation complied with the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and the requirements set forth under “—Ramp-Up,” the Issuer may consummate the purchase of the Collateral Obligation notwithstanding that the Collateral Obligation fails to comply with the definition of “Collateral Obligation” and the requirements set out above on the date of settlement.

The Issuer will use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, or to enter into binding agreements to purchase, Collateral Obligations by the Ramp-Up Completion Date, that, together with the Collateral Obligations purchased on or before the Closing Date and then held by the Issuer, will satisfy, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date), the Collateral Quality Tests, the Concentration Limitations, the criteria set forth in the Indenture and the Overcollateralization Tests.

Within 5 Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer or the Servicer (on behalf of the Issuer) shall request a Rating Confirmation on behalf of the Issuer and shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies identifying the Collateral Obligations then included in the Collateral and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies, together with the delivery of a report (and, with respect to S&P, the Excel Default Model Input File and, with respect to each Collateral Obligation, the name of the obligor thereon, the CUSIP number thereof (if applicable) and the S&P Priority Category thereof) substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, an accountants’ certificate:

(i) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread and recovery rate for each item of original Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included in the Collateral, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein;

- (ii) confirming that as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date:
  - (1) each of the Coverage Tests are satisfied;
  - (2) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date is at least equal to the Maximum Amount; and
  - (3) the Collateral Obligations comply with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests and the Concentration Limitations and the criteria set forth in “—Eligibility Criteria”; and
- (iii) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements.

If a Rating Confirmation Failure should occur, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to the Indenture and as described in “Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes upon Rating Confirmation Failure.”

Sale of Collateral Obligations; Acquisition of Replacement Collateral Obligations

Pursuant to the Indenture and so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, direct the Trustee to sell (and the Trustee will sell) any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset if the sale meets the requirements in paragraphs (i) through (ix) below:

- (i) Credit Risk Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Risk Obligation at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Risk Obligation in accordance with such direction. Following any sale of a Credit Risk Obligation pursuant to the Indenture, at the direction of the Servicer during the Replacement Period, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (to the extent the purchase is in the best interest of the Issuer) meeting the Eligibility Criteria with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Sale Proceeds received by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral Obligation sold. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount.
- (ii) Credit Improved Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Improved Obligation if either:
  - (1) during the Replacement Period, the Servicer has identified in writing before the sale one or more specific manners in which it will be able, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria and the requirements set forth in paragraph (ix) below, to cause the Issuer to use the Sale Proceeds (it being understood that such identification shall not be considered either a requirement or an assurance that any specified purchase will be consummated) to purchase one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Credit Improved Obligation by the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest) which in aggregate will result in (i) the Collateral Quality Tests, the Interest Coverage Tests, the Overcollateralization Tests and the Concentration Limitations herein being satisfied or if one or more of such

Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests or Concentration Limitations are not satisfied, the degree of compliance therewith being improved, (ii) the quality of the total portfolio of Collateral Obligations as measured by such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests and Concentration Limitations being improved on a net basis in the commercially reasonable judgement of the Servicer and (iii) in the case of each of clause (i) and (ii), any other Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests or Concentration Limitations not being violated or, in the commercially reasonable judgement of the Servicer, the likelihood of such violation in the future not being significantly increased; or

- (2) after the Replacement Period, the Sale Proceeds received in respect of the Credit Improved Obligation are at least equal to its Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest); and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Improved Obligation in accordance with such direction.

- (iii) Non-Performing Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction. Non-Performing Collateral Obligations may be sold regardless of price.
- (iv) Non-qualifying Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation (the “Non-Qualifying Collateral Obligation”) at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell that obligation in accordance with such direction.
- (v) Withholding Tax Sales. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation subject to withholding tax at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction.
- (vi) Optional Redemption. After the Issuer has notified the Trustee of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all or a portion of the Collateral Obligations as contemplated therein if (A) the requirements in respect of an Optional Redemption under the Indenture have been satisfied and (B) the independent certified public accountants appointed pursuant to the Indenture have confirmed the calculations contained in any required certificate furnished by the Servicer pursuant to the Indenture’s Note redemption procedure provisions. After the Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares have directed an Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Indenture, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all of the remaining Collateral Obligations (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to clause (i) under “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares”) or a portion of the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous directions of Holders of the Preference Shares (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to clause (ii) under “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares”) and the Trustee shall sell the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

- (vii) Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Servicer has received notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, direct the Trustee to sell Collateral Obligations as contemplated in the Indenture and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.
- (viii) Workout Assets. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Workout Asset at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and regardless of price and the Trustee shall sell the Workout Assets in accordance with such direction.
- (ix) Supervening Requirement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Issuer (at the direction of the Servicer or otherwise) will not acquire or dispose of a Collateral Obligation or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer or otherwise, may direct the Trustee to sell any CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligation or Deep Discount Obligation only (a) if it constitutes Credit Risk Obligation or Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or (b) in connection with the Optional Redemption as set out in paragraph (vi) above. The Trustee will have no obligation to monitor compliance by the Issuer or the Servicer with respect to the requirement set out in this paragraph.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall not direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation (other than the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation or a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation pursuant to a sale that meets the requirements in paragraph (i) or (iii) above, as applicable) following receipt by the Servicer of notice of removal pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement until a successor servicer is appointed pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement. See "The Servicing Agreement."

Certain Determinations Relating to Collateral Obligations

The Indenture provides that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained therein, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have purchased any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer enters into a contract to purchase, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to receive such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have acquired, granted or delivered, as the case may be, such Collateral Obligations on such date.

The Indenture provides that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained therein, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer enters into a contract to sell, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to sell, and requiring the purchaser to purchase, such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold such Collateral Obligations on such date.

Under the circumstances described in the two preceding paragraphs, if the transaction contemplated by the contract, commitment letter, confirmation or due bill referred to therein does not settle on or before the 60th day following the scheduled settlement date (the "Deadline"), the deemed purchase or sale shall be deemed not to have occurred; provided, however, that the Servicer shall have the right to extend the Deadline for an additional period (not to exceed an additional 60 days) by notice to the Trustee, which notice shall include the Servicer's certification to the effect that the Servicer believes that the settlement shall occur on or before the extended Deadline.

Scheduled distributions with respect to any Pledged Collateral Obligation shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Indenture.

The Accounts

The Indenture provides that the Trustee will establish separate segregated non-interest bearing trust accounts, which will be designated as the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Custodial Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Securities Lending Account and the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account. In addition, Synthetic Security Counterparty Accounts may also be established. Any account may contain any number of subaccounts.

Collection Account. The Trustee shall deposit into the "Collection Account":

- (i) any funds transferred from (1) the Closing Date Expense Account pursuant to the Indenture or (2) the Interest Reserve Account pursuant to the Indenture;
- (ii) all Principal Proceeds (unless (1) simultaneously used to purchase Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Indenture, (2) deposited into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or (3) posted by the Issuer as cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security or in Eligible Investments) received by the Trustee;
- (iii) all Interest Proceeds received by the Trustee (unless simultaneously used to purchase accrued interest in respect of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Indenture or in Eligible Investments); and
- (iv) all other funds received by the Trustee and not excluded above.

The Issuer and the Servicer may, but will not be required to, jointly deposit from time to time any monies in the Collection Account it deems, in its sole discretion, to be advisable (and may designate any amounts so deposited as Principal Proceeds or Interest Proceeds in its discretion).

Any Principal Proceeds received during the Replacement Period, and Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments received after the Replacement Period, which have not been used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations on the Business Day of receipt shall be deposited in the Collection Account and shall at the direction of the Servicer be applied to the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria and the other requirements set forth in the Indenture or the purchase of Eligible Investments pending such application or used to enter into additional Hedge Agreements or used in connection with a Special Redemption. Principal Proceeds (other than Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Improved Obligations, Credit Risk Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments) received after the Replacement Period shall be deposited into the Collection Account and applied to the purchase of Eligible Investments.

The Collection Account shall be maintained for the benefit of the Noteholders, the Trustee, the Servicer and each Hedge Counterparty and amounts on deposit in the Collection Account will be available for application in the order of priority under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments" and for the acquisition of Collateral Obligations under the circumstances and pursuant to the requirements in the Indenture. Amounts received in the Collection Account during a Due Period and amounts received in prior Due Periods and retained in the Collection Account under the circumstances stated above in “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments” will be applied in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions). All proceeds deposited in the Collection Account will be retained therein unless used to purchase Collateral Obligations during the Replacement Period (or, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, after the Replacement Period) in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria, to honor commitments with respect thereto entered into during or after the Replacement Period, or used as otherwise permitted under the Indenture. See “—Eligibility Criteria.”

The Trustee shall transfer to the Payment Account from the Collection Account for application pursuant to the Priority of Payments, no later than the Business Day preceding each Payment Date, the amount set forth to be so transferred in the Valuation Report for the Payment Date.

At any time during or after the Replacement Period, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to pay from amounts on deposit in the Collection Account on any Business Day during any Interest Period from Interest Proceeds only, any Administrative Expenses that require payment before the next Payment Date to the extent that the amount of the payments does not exceed the aggregate amount that may be paid on the next payment Date under, and at the level of priority specified by, “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.”

Custodial Account. The Trustee will from time to time deposit collateral into the “Custodial Account,” over which the Trustee will have exclusive control and sole right of withdrawal, in accordance with the Indenture. All assets or securities at any time on deposit in or otherwise to the credit of the Custodial Account will be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders, the Trustee, the Servicer and each Hedge Counterparty.

Revolving Reserve Account and Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account. Upon the purchase of any Collateral Obligation that is a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, at the direction of the Servicer, the Trustee shall deposit Principal Proceeds into the Revolving Reserve Account,” in the case of a Revolving Loan, and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account,” in the case of a Delayed Drawdown Loan, each equal to the unfunded commitment amount of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, respectively, and the Principal Proceeds so deposited shall be considered part of the Purchase Price of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan for purposes of the Indenture. At the direction of the Servicer at any time during or after the Replacement Period, the Trustee shall withdraw funds from the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account to fund extensions of credit pursuant to Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans, respectively. In addition, to the extent that the Issuer receives proceeds of a repayment in respect of a Revolving Loan (except to the extent of any concurrent commitment reduction) at any time during or after the Replacement Period, the Trustee shall deposit the proceeds into the Revolving Reserve Account.

Upon the sale of a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan in whole or in part or the reduction in part or termination of the Issuer’s commitment thereunder, an amount on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, as the case may be, specified by the Servicer as being equal to (i) the unfunded amount of the commitment (in the case of a sale in whole or a termination of the commitment), (ii) the proportionate amount of the amount on deposit (in the case of a sale in part) or (iii) the amount by which the commitment is reduced (in the case of a reduction thereof in part), shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds.

Amounts on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account will be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) not later than the Business Day after the date of their purchase. All interest and other income from amounts in the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account deposited to the Collection Account under the Indenture shall be considered Interest Proceeds in the Due Period in which they are so deposited.

Synthetic Security Collateral Account. On or before the date on which the Issuer enters into a Synthetic Security the Trustee shall create a sub-account of the non-interest bearing trust account established for Synthetic Security Collateral (the “Synthetic Security Collateral Account”) with respect to the Synthetic Security. All Synthetic Security Collateral posted by any Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Synthetic Security shall be immediately deposited into the Synthetic Security Collateral Account and posted to the sub-account related to the Synthetic Security. On each day on which amounts are payable to the Issuer out of Synthetic Security Collateral, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to withdraw amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account in an amount sufficient to make the payment (including any total or partial release of Synthetic Security Collateral). The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account shall be:

- (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty to the Issuer under a Synthetic Security if the Synthetic Security becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the Synthetic Security upon any “event of default” under and as defined in the terms of the Synthetic Security, including liquidating the related Synthetic Security Collateral Account; or
- (ii) to return the Synthetic Security Collateral to the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty when and as required by the terms of the Synthetic Security, in each case as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account will be held in Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities not later than one Business Day after their purchase, as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions), and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account. The Trustee will deposit all collateral received from a Hedge Counterparty under any Hedge Agreement into the “Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account.” The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account will be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer under a Hedge Agreement if the Hedge Agreement becomes subject to early termination or (ii) to return collateral to the relevant Hedge Counterparty when and as required by the relevant Hedge Agreement, in each case as directed by the Servicer. Amounts on deposit in the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account will be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Closing Date Expense Account. Amounts deposited in the “Closing Date Expense Account” on the Closing Date will be withdrawn to pay certain administrative expenses of the Co-Issuers. On the Payment Date in May 2007 (or, at the discretion of the Servicer, on the Payment Date in February 2007), the Trustee shall transfer all funds on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds and close the Closing Date Expense Account. Amounts on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account shall be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the second Payment Date as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Expense Reimbursement Account. On any Payment Date and on any date between Payment Dates, the Trustee will apply amounts, if any, in the “Expense Reimbursement Account” to the payment of expenses and fees that must be paid between Payment Dates or that are due on that Payment Date under clause (1) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” and the Trustee shall on any Payment Date transfer to the Expense Reimbursement Account an amount equal to the excess, if any of the Administrative Expense Cap over the amounts due under clause (1) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” to the Expense Reimbursement Account in accordance with clause (2) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds.” Amounts on deposit in the Expense Reimbursement Account shall be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions), no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date.

Securities Lending Account. The Trustee will deposit all Securities Lending Collateral posted by any Securities Lending Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Securities Lending Agreement in a non-interest bearing trust account (the “Securities Lending Account”). The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Securities Lending Account will be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty to the Issuer under a Securities Lending Agreement if the Securities Lending Agreement becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the Securities Lending Agreement upon any “event of default” under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement, including liquidating the related Securities Lending Collateral or (ii) to return collateral to the Securities Lending Counterparty when and as required by a Securities Lending Agreement. Amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account shall be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions) no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date. Amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the loaned security or asset that relates to the Securities Lending Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer.

Payment Account. The Trustee will deposit collateral into the “Payment Account,” over which the Trustee will have exclusive control and sole right of withdrawal, in accordance with the Indenture. All assets or securities at any time on deposit in or otherwise to the credit of the Payment Account will be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders, the Trustee, the Servicer, and each Hedge Counterparty. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Payment Account shall be to pay amounts due and payable on the Notes and to pay Administrative Expenses and other amounts specified in the Indenture, each in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Interest Reserve Account. Amounts deposited in the “Interest Reserve Account,” on the Closing Date will be withdrawn (i) to pay amounts necessary such that the amounts referred to in clauses (1) through (20) of “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” will be paid in full on each Payment Date occurring on or before the Payment Date in May 2007 or (ii) at any time, to be transferred at the discretion of the Servicer to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds. On the Payment Date in May 2007 (or, at the discretion of the Servicer, on the Payment Date in February 2007), the Trustee will transfer all funds on deposit in the Interest Reserve Account to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds and close the Interest Reserve Account. Amounts on deposit in the Interest Reserve Account will be held in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Servicer (which may be in the form of standing instructions), no later than the Business Day before the second Payment Date.

Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account. On each Payment Date, to the extent of available funds in accordance with the Priority of Payments, the Trustee will deposit into the “Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account” amounts equal to the products of (a) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date and (b) on any Payment Date during the first two years after the Closing Date or with respect to which the Servicer has notified the Trustee on or before the related Determination Date that it is waiving its Servicing Fee, the Servicing Fees then due and payable, as described in “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments,” for payment to the Servicer on such Payment Date. The Servicer has agreed to waive such amounts, which would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as Servicing Fees, on each Payment Date during the first two years following the Closing Date and an amount equal to such waived amounts will be distributed by the Trustee to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. After the two-year anniversary of the Closing Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion of the Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Trustee to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, subject to the laws of the Cayman Islands, for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. For purposes of any calculation under the Indenture and the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will be deemed to have received the Servicing Fee in an amount equal to the sum of the Servicing Fee actually paid to the Servicer and the amount distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments.

Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. To the extent that any Synthetic Security requires the Issuer to secure its obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee and the Trustee shall establish a segregated non-interest bearing trust account (the “Synthetic Security Counterparty Account”) for the Synthetic Security which shall be held in trust for the benefit of the related Synthetic Security Counterparty and over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security and the Indenture. In the alternative, a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account may be established with a trustee designated by the Synthetic Security Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that trustee would qualify to be a successor trustee under the Indenture and the account satisfies the other requirements of a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account under the Indenture.

As directed in writing by the Servicer, the Trustee shall deposit (or deliver for deposit) into each Synthetic Security Counterparty Account all amounts or securities that are required to secure the obligations of the Issuer in accordance with the related Synthetic Security, including the entire notional amount of any Synthetic Security in the form of a credit default swap or other similar transaction. The Servicer shall direct any such deposit only during the Replacement Period and only to the extent that monies are available for the purchase of Collateral Obligations pursuant to the Indenture. Any income received on amounts in the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall, after application in accordance with the relevant Synthetic Security, be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Interest Proceeds.

As directed by the Servicer in writing and in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security and the Indenture, amounts on deposit in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be held in Synthetic Security Collateral.

In connection with the occurrence of a credit event or an event of default or a termination event (each as defined in the applicable Synthetic Security) under the related Synthetic Security, amounts in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be withdrawn by the Trustee (or the Trustee shall request their withdrawal) and applied toward the payment of any amounts payable by the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the Synthetic Security, as directed by the Servicer in writing. Any excess amounts held in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account, or held directly by a Synthetic Security Counterparty, after payment of all amounts owing from the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the related Synthetic Security shall be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Principal Proceeds.

Amounts on deposit in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the Synthetic Security that relates to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer (with the notional amount as the Principal Balance unless a default exists under the applicable Synthetic Security).

Hedge Agreements

At any time and from time to time after the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, shall enter into the Hedge Agreements and will assign its rights (but none of its obligations) under the Hedge Agreements to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture and the collateral assignment of Hedge Agreements. The Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, will obtain the approval of each new Hedge Agreement from each Hedge Counterparty to a then-existing Hedge Agreement. The Trustee will, on behalf of the Issuer and in accordance with the Valuation Report, pay amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements on any Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Each Hedge Counterparty will be required to have (i) a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "Aa3" (which rating of "Aa3" is not on credit watch for a possible downgrade) or higher if the Hedge Counterparty has only a long-term rating; or a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "A1" (which rating of "A1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) or higher and a debt rating by Moody's for short-term debt of "P-1" (which rating of "P-1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) if the Hedge Counterparty has both long-term and short-term ratings and (ii) a short-term debt rating by S&P of not less than "A-1" or, if the Hedge Counterparty does not have a short-term debt rating by S&P, a long-term debt rating of not less than "A+" (the "Required Rating").

If at any time a Hedge Counterparty has:

- (A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating and that rating is below "Aa3" or is "Aa3" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's; or
- (B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:
  - (i) the long-term Moody's rating is below "A1" or that rating is "A1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's, or
  - (ii) the short-term Moody's rating is below "P-1" or that rating is "P-1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's;

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

- (i) post collateral with the Trustee to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement, in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's to be satisfied;
- (ii) obtain a guarantor whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria;
- (iii) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria; or
- (iv) take other actions to satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's.

If at any time the Hedge Counterparty has:

- (A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating that is "A2" or below or has been suspended or withdrawn;
- (B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:
  - (i) the long-term Moody's rating is "A3" or below or is suspended or withdrawn; or

- (ii) the short-term Moody's rating is "P-2" or below; or
- (C) a short-term debt rating by S&P below "A-1" or, if the Hedge Counterparty has no short-term rating by S&P, a long-term rating by S&P below "A+" or that has been suspended or withdrawn;

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

- (i) post collateral as required by the Hedge Agreement to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's and S&P to be satisfied; provided that the Hedge Counterparty shall, at the time such collateral is first posted, deliver to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Rating Agencies an opinion of counsel of nationally recognized standing in the jurisdiction in which the Hedge Counterparty is incorporated confirming that such collateral will be available in a timely manner upon a bankruptcy of the Hedge Counterparty; or
- (ii) (x) obtain a guarantor that has a Required Rating and that will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P with respect to its appointment; (y) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty that has a Required Rating and the appointment of which will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P; or (z) take such other actions to satisfy the Ratings Condition;

provided that failure to take any such steps set forth under paragraphs (i) and (ii) above shall be treated as an "Additional Termination Event" under such Hedge Agreement.

Whenever the Issuer enters into a Hedge Agreement, the Hedge Counterparty thereto shall comply with the then currently applicable rating criteria published by each Rating Agency from time to time.

If at any time the Hedge Counterparty has a long-term unsecured debt rating by S&P below "BBB-," then the Hedge Counterparty will be required to replace itself within 30 days under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty that has a Required Rating and the appointment of which will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P; provided that failure to do so shall be treated as an "Additional Termination Event" under such Hedge Agreement.

Any payments required to be made under the Hedge Agreements shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments shall be subordinate to interest and principal payments on the Notes and any other payments required to be made by the Issuer under the Hedge Agreements, but senior to distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Indenture.

Unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is otherwise satisfied, following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, shall promptly (but no later than 60 days after the early termination), at the expense of the Hedge Counterparty and to the extent possible through Hedge Termination Receipts, enter into a replacement hedge, unless, in the exercise of the Servicer's commercially reasonable judgment, to do so would not be in the best interest of the Issuer and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to not entering into a replacement hedge. In addition, a replacement hedge may not be entered into unless the Issuer provides the Rating Agencies with at least seven Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to enter into a replacement hedge, together with its form and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the replacement hedge. The Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the termination of a Hedge Agreement

(other than a termination resulting from the bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar event with respect to the Hedge Counterparty) to become effective simultaneously with its entering into a replacement hedge. To the extent that (i) the Servicer determines not to replace the Hedge Agreement and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the determination; or (ii) termination is occurring on a Redemption Date, the Hedge Termination Receipts shall become part of Principal Proceeds and be distributed in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the next following Payment Date (or on the Redemption Date, if the Notes are redeemed on the Redemption Date).

The notional amounts of the Hedge Agreements outstanding at any time may be reduced or increased from time to time, by the Issuer, and the Hedge Agreements may be amended, modified, or terminated in accordance with the Hedge Agreements if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the reduction, increase, amendment, modification, or termination, as the case may be.

Each Hedge Agreement may be terminated pursuant to its terms upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes or an acceleration of maturity of the Notes after an Event of Default. The Hedge Agreement will not be permitted to be terminated as the result of a Default or Event of Default unless any acceleration of maturity of the Notes resulting from the Event of Default is no longer permitted to be rescinded pursuant to the Indenture.

Except for Hedge Agreements entered into on or before the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied.

Securities Lending

The Indenture permits the Issuer to engage in a limited number of securities lending transactions as described below.

The Servicer may instruct the Trustee to cause Collateral Obligations that are not Defaulted Collateral Obligations to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A" from S&P (each, a "Securities Lending Counterparty") pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a "Securities Lending Agreement"); provided that Collateral Obligations the Market Value of which cannot be determined under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Collateral Obligations to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Servicer. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the IXIS Placement Agents or Affiliates of the Servicer. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Stated Maturity of the Notes. Collateral Obligations representing no more than 15% (measured by Aggregate Principal Balance) of the Maximum Amount may be loaned pursuant to Securities Lending Agreements at any time.

Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Servicer (except to the extent specified in the Indenture) and shall:

- (i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Issuer debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent Collateral Obligations;
- (ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Issuer amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent Collateral Obligation is entitled to for the period during which the Collateral Obligation is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities Lending Agreement to make “gross-up” payments to the Issuer that cover the full amount of the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;

- (iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;
- (iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;
- (v) be governed by the laws of New York;
- (vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture;
- (vii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Collateral Obligation becomes a Credit Risk Obligation or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;
- (viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty upon any redemption of the Notes in whole;
- (ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement to secure its obligation to return the Collateral Obligations or in the alternative post that collateral with a custodian for the benefit of the Issuer designated by the Securities Lending Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that custodian would qualify to be a successor trustee under the Indenture;
- (x) provide that the Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained at all times in an amount equal to at least 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value (determined daily and monitored by the Servicer) of the lent Collateral Obligations and if securities are delivered to the Trustee as security for the obligations of the Securities Lending Counterparty under the related Securities Lending Agreement, the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will negotiate with the Securities Lending Counterparty a rate for the loan fee to be paid to the Issuer for lending the lent Collateral Obligations;
- (xi) the lent Collateral Obligations shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Servicer on the basis of their Market Value;
- (xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer’s rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement rather than the loaned Collateral Obligation;
- (xiii) provide for early termination within 10 days at the option of the Issuer and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in the Indenture; and
- (xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in the Indenture.

In addition, each Securities Lending Agreement must provide that if either Moody’s or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty, then the Issuer, within 10 days of the downgrade, shall (i) terminate its Securities Lending Agreements with the Securities Lending Counterparty unless a guarantor for the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements has been obtained; or (ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations lent to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty so that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party, together with all other Securities Lending Agreements, are in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of Securities Lending Counterparties; or (iii) take any other steps Moody's or S&P may require to cause the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party to be treated by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, as if the obligations were owed by a counterparty having a rating at least equivalent to the rating that was assigned by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty before its being downgraded.

The Servicer shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity, or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in the Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Collateral Obligation is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement, (a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Collateral Obligation because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action) and (b) the loaned Collateral Obligations shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as a Collateral Obligation by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Collateral Obligation to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under the Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

MATURITY AND PREPAYMENT CONSIDERATIONS

The Stated Maturity of each Class of Notes will be July 27, 2018 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date; however, the principal of each Class of the Notes is expected to be paid in full prior to its Stated Maturity (or Extended Stated Maturity Date, as applicable). Average life refers to the average amount of time that will elapse from the date of delivery of a security until each dollar of the principal of such security will be paid to the investor. The average lives of the Notes will be determined by the amount and frequency of principal payments, which are dependent upon, among other things, the amount of sinking fund payments and any other payments received at or in advance of the scheduled maturity of Collateral Obligations (whether through sale, maturity, redemption, default or other liquidation or disposition).

The actual performance of the Securities will also be affected by the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral Obligations and the characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, including the interest rate or other rate of distribution, the actual default rate and actual losses sustained, the existence and frequency of exercise of any prepayment, optional redemption, or sinking fund features and any related premium, the prevailing level of interest rates, any sales of Collateral Obligations, and any unique risks of the Collateral Obligations. Any disposition of a Collateral Obligation may change the composition and characteristics of the portfolio of Collateral Obligations and their rate of payment, and, accordingly, may affect the actual performance of each respective Class of Securities. The ability of the Issuer to apply any Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds in the manner described under "Security for the Notes" will also affect the performance of the Securities. Redemptions will also affect the performance of the Securities.

General

Based in Dallas, Texas, Highland Capital is a registered investment adviser specializing in below investment-grade credit and special situation investing. As of March 31, 2006, Highland Capital managed over $25 billion in leveraged loans, high yield bonds, structured products and other assets for banks, insurance companies, pension plans, foundations and high net worth individuals.

Highland Capital manages or services these assets through a variety of fund structures including separate accounts, CDOs, hedge funds and mutual funds. As of March 31, 2006, Highland Capital invested in approximately 1,000 below investment grade and credit sensitive credit positions, and Highland Capital's 62 person credit team followed approximately 1,200 below investment grade and credit sensitive credit positions across over 40 industries. Highland Capital or an Affiliate or predecessor thereof has been an SEC-registered investment adviser since April 1993.

Philosophy and Process

Highland Capital has a large range and depth of experience. It has expertise in the fields of syndicated loans, high yield bonds, and distressed assets. Highland Capital believes it is in a position to maximize the spread differential between the yields on underlying collateral and the cost of financing. In addition, Highland Capital seeks to construct portfolios to (a) maximize relative value based on its credit views and (b) maximize diversification in order to minimize the effect of isolated credit events on the overall portfolio, utilizing Highland Capital's infrastructure to minimize defaults of underlying assets and to maximize recoveries in the case of defaults. Highland Capital has invested over $450 million of firm capital in its funds and expects that HFP, an Affiliate of the Servicer, and/or one or more of HFP's subsidiaries will on the Closing Date purchase all of the Class II Preference Shares.

Highland Capital believes that its disciplined selection process minimizes a portfolio's risk and that its analysis seeks to maximize yield spread while limiting downside risk. Portfolio managers actively follow each credit and several times each year the entire staff reviews all positions during multi-day monitoring meetings. Highland Capital diversifies its portfolios with set limits on exposure to any one given industry or issuer. Highland Capital believes that this philosophy and selection process has resulted in positive returns on its underlying loan portfolio and consistent outperformance relative to its indices.

Highland Capital focuses on a "team" approach that it has used since 1990. It is Highland Capital management's belief that this style creates the optimum environment for the exchange of information and the development of all asset management professionals. All aspects of the selection, monitoring and servicing process are coordinated through the senior asset portfolio managers' direct interaction. A committee of senior portfolio managers and analysts, Highland Capital's Chief Investment Officer and its Head of Structured Products meets every morning to discuss the status of the credits. Collectively, the committee utilizes a selection and monitoring process which is driven by fundamental credit research. Each portfolio manager/analyst makes specific credit recommendations based upon industry coverage. The credit recommendation is then brought to the committee for consideration. Based upon the consensus decision, the portfolio manager with the recommendation will direct Highland traders to execute the trade. Highland Capital has also provided its committee with a strong commitment to technology. The firm developed Wall Street Office® which is a proprietary software system that allows Highland Capital to model, portfolio manage, and trade syndicated loans. This software has been licensed to more than 70 financial institutions that acquire syndicated loans.

THE SERVICING AGREEMENT

The following summary describes certain provisions of the Servicing Agreement. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Servicing Agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement, and in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Indenture, the Servicer will select the portfolio of Collateral Obligations and will instruct the Trustee with respect to any acquisition, disposition or sale of a Collateral Obligation or an Eligible Investment. Neither the Placement Agents or any Affiliate thereof will select any of the Collateral Obligations.

Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will monitor the Collateral Obligations and provide the Issuer with certain information received from the Collateral Administrator with respect to the composition and characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, any disposition or tender of a Collateral Obligation, the application of the proceeds of any such disposition to the purchase of Eligible Investments and with respect to the retention of the proceeds of any such disposition or the application thereof toward the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations. The Servicer will, and will be authorized to, negotiate, on behalf of the Issuer, with respect to all actions to be taken by the Issuer under any Hedge Agreements.

As compensation for the performance of its obligations as Servicer, the Servicer will be entitled to receive:

- (i) a fee (the “Senior Servicing Fee”) that accrues from the Closing Date payable to the Servicer in arrears on each Payment Date equal to 0.30% per annum of the Maximum Amount if and to the extent funds are available for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments (with the Senior Servicing Fee being calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months);
- (ii) an amount (the “Subordinated Servicing Fee”) payable on each Payment Date equal to the sum of (a) a fee that accrues from the Closing Date payable to the Servicer in arrears on each Payment Date equal to 0.25% per annum of the Maximum Amount if and to the extent funds are available for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments, (b) on any Payment Date that any part of the Senior Servicing Fee was not paid on the preceding Payment Date, an amount equal to interest on such unpaid amount at a rate of LIBOR for the applicable period plus 3.00% per annum and (c) on any Payment Date that any part of the Subordinated Servicing Fee was not paid on the preceding Payment Date, an amount equal to interest on such unpaid amount at a rate of LIBOR for the applicable period plus 3.00% per annum (with the portion of the Subordinated Servicing Fee or Senior Servicing Fee, as applicable, in clauses (a) through (c) above, as applicable, being calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months); and

- (iii) a fee (the “Supplemental Servicing Fee” and together with the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee, the “Servicing Fee”), if any, payable on each Payment Date to the Servicer in an amount equal to: (i) 20% of the remaining Interest Proceeds, if any, available after making the distributions on such Payment Date pursuant to clause (22) under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds” and (ii) 20% of the remaining Principal Proceeds, if any, available for payment in respect of the Supplemental Servicing Fee pursuant to clause (11)(A) and, if applicable, clause (14), in each case pursuant to “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds.”

On each Payment Date, as and to the extent described under “Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments,” the Trustee will deposit the Class II Preference Share Portion of the Servicing Fees into the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account. The Servicer has agreed to waive such amounts, which would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as Servicing Fees, on each Payment Date during the first two years following the Closing Date and an amount equal to such waived amounts will be paid to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. After the two-year anniversary of the Closing Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive the Class II Preference Share Portion of its Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Issuer as Class II Preference Share Special Payments. For purposes of any calculation under the Indenture and the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will be deemed to have received the Servicing Fee in an amount equal to the sum of the Servicing Fee actually paid to the Servicer and the amount distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments as described above. See “Security for the Notes—The Accounts—Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account.”

In addition, notwithstanding anything set out above, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion: (i) waive all or any portion of the Servicing Fee, any funds representing the waived Servicing Fees to be retained in the Collection Account for distribution as either Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds (as determined by the Servicer) pursuant to the Priority of Payments; or (ii) defer all or any portion of the Servicing Fee, any funds representing the deferred Servicing Fees to be retained in the Collection Account, when they will become payable in the same manner and priority as their original characterization would have required unless deferred again.

The Servicer, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, and its Affiliates and their directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, shall not be liable to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Holders of the Securities or any other person for any losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (collectively “Liabilities”) incurred by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Holders of the Securities or any other person that arise out of or in connection with the performance by the Servicer of its duties under the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture, except by reason of (i) acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance, or reckless disregard, of the obligations of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement and under the terms of the Indenture applicable to it or (ii) with respect to any information included in this Offering Memorandum in the sections entitled “The Servicer” and “Risk Factors—Certain Conflicts of Interest—Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer” that contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (the preceding clauses (i) and (ii) collectively being the “Servicer Breaches”). The Servicer will be liable for any non-waivable breaches of applicable securities laws.

The Issuer will indemnify and hold harmless the Servicer, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees (such parties collectively in such case, the “Indemnified Parties”) from and against any and all Liabilities, and shall reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) (collectively, the “Expenses”) as such Expenses are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the “Actions”), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with, the issuance of the Securities, the transactions contemplated by the Offering Memorandum, the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided, however, that no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions by any Indemnified Party constituting Servicer Breaches. Any such indemnification by the Issuer will be paid in accordance with, and subject to, the Priority of Payments.

Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will agree that on the Closing Date (i) the Servicer and its Affiliates will purchase Class E Notes having an aggregate principal amount equal to U.S.$31,500,000 and (ii) the Servicer and its Affiliates (other than HFP or any of its subsidiaries) will purchase from Investors Corp. Holding Preference Shares having an aggregate Face Amount equal to U.S.$21,000,000.

The Issuer may, at the request of the Servicer, enter into an amendment or modification of the Servicing Agreement from time to time, without the consent of the Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not the interests of the Holders of the Securities are adversely affected thereby; provided that, with respect to any such amendment or modification, (a) a Rating Condition is satisfied and (b) a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or a Majority of the Holders of the Preference Shares have not objected in writing to such amendment or modification prior to the relevant Objection Cut-Off Date (as defined below).

If at any time the Servicer desires to amend or modify the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will notify the Issuer and the Trustee, providing details of such proposed amendment or modification. Not later than five Business Days after receipt of such notice, the Trustee will mail such notice to (i) each Noteholder at such Holder’s address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository, Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, (ii) to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), (iii) to the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Holding Preference Shares) and (iv) to each Rating Agency. If any Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes or any Holder of the Preference Shares notifies, by delivering a written notice to the Trustee within 35 days after the Trustee has mailed such notice, that it objects to such proposed amendment or modification, the Trustee will, within two Business Days after receiving such notice of objection, mail a notice of the receipt of such objection to the Issuer, the Servicer and other Holders of the Controlling Class of Notes and other Holders of the Preference Shares. Each Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes and each Holder of the Preference Shares that also wishes to object to such amendment or modification must, by delivering a written notice, so notify the Trustee within seven Business Days after the Trustee has mailed such notice of the receipt of such objection (the last day of such seven Business Day period, the “Objection Cut-Off Date”). If a Majority of either the Controlling Class of Notes or the Preference Shares notifies the Trustee in writing on or before the Objection Cut-Off Date that they object to the proposed amendment or modification to the Servicing Agreement, such amendment or modification will not be made.

The Servicing Agreement provides that the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Servicer such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Servicer, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm’s length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (iii) such transaction is permitted by the Advisers Act. The Servicing Agreement also provides that the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Servicer, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (ii) permitted by the Advisers Act.

Subject to the provisions for a successor servicer discussed below, the Servicer may resign, upon 90 days' written notice to the Issuer (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer).

The Servicing Agreement will be terminated, and the Servicer will be removed, by the Issuer, if directed by the Trustee (acting at the direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes)) or by a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares, in each case for "cause" upon 10 days' prior written notice to the Servicer and upon written notice to the Holders of the Securities as set forth below. For purposes of determining "cause" with respect to any such termination of the Servicing Agreement, such term shall mean any one of the following events:

(i) the Servicer willfully breaches in any respect, or takes any action that it knows violates in any respect, any provision of the Servicing Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it;

(ii) the Servicer breaches in any material respect any provision of the Servicing Agreement or any terms of the Indenture or the Collateral Administration Agreement applicable to it, or any representation, warranty, certification or statement given in writing by the Servicer shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect when made or given, and the Servicer fails to cure such breach or take such action so that the facts (after giving effect to such action) conform in all material respects to such representation, warranty, certificate or statement, in each case within 30 days of becoming aware of, or receiving notice from, the Trustee of, such breach or materially incorrect representation, warranty, certificate or statement;

(iii) certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency occur with respect to the Collateral;

(iv) the occurrence of any Event of Default under the Indenture that results from any breach by the Servicer of its duties under the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period; or

(v) (x) the occurrence of an act by the Servicer related to its activities in any servicing, securities, financial advisory or other investment business that constitutes fraud, (y) the Servicer being indicted, or any of its principals being convicted, of a felony criminal offense related to its activities in any servicing, securities, financial advisory or other investment business or (z) the Servicer being indicted for, adjudged liable in a civil suit for, or convicted of a violation of the Securities Act or any other United States Federal securities law or any rules or regulations thereunder.

No removal, termination or resignation of the Servicer will be effective under the Servicing Agreement unless (i) at the written direction of a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares, the Issuer appoints a successor servicer and such successor servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture and (ii) the successor servicer is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Voting Notes (voting as a single Class); provided that if a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares has nominated two or more successor servicers that have been objected to pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding sentence or has otherwise failed to appoint a successor servicer that is not objected to pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding sentence within 60 days of the date of notice of such removal, termination or resignation of the Servicer, then any Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) or the Trustee may petition a court of competent authority to appoint a successor servicer. In addition, any successor servicer must be an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as Servicer under the Servicing Agreement, as successor to the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement and under the applicable terms of the Indenture, (iii) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of Collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, (iv) shall perform its duties as successor servicer under the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture without causing the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any Holder of Preference Shares to become subject to tax in any jurisdiction where such successor servicer is established as doing business and (v) each Rating Agency has confirmed that the appointment of such successor servicer shall not cause its then-current rating of any Class of Notes to be reduced or withdrawn. No compensation payable to a successor from payments on the Collateral shall be greater than that paid to the Servicer without the prior written consent of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes, a Majority of the Notes and a Majority of the Preference Shares.

The Servicing Agreement, and any obligations or duties of the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement, cannot be delegated by the Servicer, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the Issuer, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) and a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares and, notwithstanding any such consent, no delegation of obligations or duties by the Servicer (including, without limitation, to an entity described above) shall relieve the Servicer from any liability under the Servicing Agreement.

THE LOAN MARKET

A substantial portion, by principal amount, of the Collateral Obligations is expected to consist of corporate loans rated below investment grade extended to U.S. and other non-U.S. borrowers. Such loans are typically negotiated by one or more commercial banks or other financial institutions and syndicated among a group of commercial banks and financial institutions.

Corporate loans are typically at the most senior level of the capital structure, and are often secured by specific collateral, including but not limited to, trademarks, patents, accounts receivable, inventory, equipment, buildings, real estate, franchises and common and preferred stock of the obligor and its subsidiaries. Some loans may be unsecured, subordinated to other obligations of the obligor and may have greater credit and liquidity risk than is typically associated with senior secured corporate loans. The corporate loans expected to secure the Notes are of a type generally incurred by the borrowers thereunder in connection with a highly leveraged transaction, often to finance internal growth, acquisitions, mergers, stock purchases, or for other reasons. As a result of the additional debt incurred by the borrower in the course of the transactions, the borrower's creditworthiness is often judged by the rating agencies to be below investment grade. In order to induce the banks and institutional investors to lend pursuant to a borrower's loan facility, and to offer a favorable interest rate, the borrower often provides the banks and institutional investors with extensive information about its business, which is not generally available to the public. Because of the provision of confidential information, the unique and customized nature of a loan agreement, and the private syndication of the loan, loans are not as easily purchased or sold as a publicly traded security, and historically the trading volume in the loan market has been small relative to the high yield bond market.

Corporate loans often provide for restrictive covenants designed to limit the activities of the borrower in an effort to protect the right of lenders to receive timely payments of interest on and repayment of principal of the loans. Such covenants may include restrictions on dividend payments, specific mandatory minimum financial ratios, limits on total debt and other financial tests. A breach of covenant (after giving effect to any cure period) in a loan that is not waived by the lending syndicate normally is an event of acceleration that allows the syndicate to demand immediate repayment in full of the outstanding loan. Loans usually have shorter terms than more junior obligations and may require mandatory prepayments from excess cash flow, asset dispositions and offerings of debt and/or equity securities.

The majority of loans bear interest based on a floating rate index, e.g., LIBOR, the certificate of deposit rate, a prime or base rate (each as defined in the applicable loan agreement) or other index, which may reset daily (as most prime or base rate indices do) or offer the borrower a choice of one, two, three, six, nine or twelve month interest rate and rate reset periods. The purchaser of a loan may receive certain syndication or participation fees in connection with its purchase. Other fees payable in respect of a loan, which are separate from interest payments on such loan, may include facility, commitment, amendment and prepayment fees.

Purchasers of loans are predominantly investment and commercial banks, which have applied their experience in high yield securities to the commercial and industrial loan market, acting as both principal and broker. The range of purchasers of loans has broadened to include money managers, insurance companies, arbitrageurs, bankruptcy investors and mutual funds seeking increased potential total returns and portfolio managers of trusts or special purpose companies issuing collateralized bond and loan obligations. As secondary market trading volumes increase, new loans are frequently adopting more standardized documentation to facilitate loan trading that should improve market liquidity. There can be no assurance, however, that future levels of supply and demand in loan trading will provide the degree of liquidity that currently exists in the market.

PREVENTION OF MONEY LAUNDERING

To ensure compliance with applicable statutory requirements relating to anti-money laundering and anti-terrorism initiatives, the Share Registrar, on behalf of the Issuer, will require verification of identity and source of funds from all prospective purchasers of the Preference Shares. Depending on the circumstances of each purchase, it may not always be necessary to obtain full documentary evidence of identity and/or source of funds where:

1. The purchaser is a licensed entity or financial institution regulated in a country recognized as having an adequate anti-money laundering regime<sup>1</sup>;
2. The purchaser is an entity or financial institution listed on the Cayman Islands or other approved stock exchange<sup>2</sup>; or
3. The funds have been paid from an account held in the name of the purchaser at a financial institution based in a country recognized as having an adequate anti-money laundering regime.

THE HIGH YIELD DEBT SECURITIES MARKET

A portion of the Collateral Obligations securing the Notes will consist of high yield debt securities rated below investment grade and Synthetic Securities, the Reference Obligations of which are high yield debt securities rated below investment grade. High yield debt securities are generally unsecured, may be subordinated to other obligations of the obligor and generally have greater credit and liquidity risk than is typically associated with investment grade corporate obligations. The lower rating of high yield debt securities reflects a greater possibility that adverse changes in the financial condition of the obligor or in general economic conditions (including a sustained period of rising interest rates or an economic downturn) may adversely affect the obligor's ability to pay principal and interest on its debt. Many issuers of high yield debt obligations are highly leveraged, and specific developments affecting such issuers, including reduced cash flow from operations or inability to refinance at maturity, may also adversely affect such issuers' ability to meet their debt service obligations.

High yield debt securities are often issued in connection with leveraged acquisitions or recapitalizations in which the issuers incur a substantially higher amount of indebtedness than the level at which they had previously operated. High yield debt securities have historically experienced greater default rates than has been the case for investment grade securities. Although several studies have been made of historical default rates in the high yield market, such studies do not necessarily provide a basis for drawing definitive conclusions with respect to default rates and, in any event, do not necessarily provide a basis for predicting future default rates.

MATERIAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

General

The following summary describes the principal U.S. federal income tax and Cayman Islands tax consequences that are expected to be applicable to the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Notes, but does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to purchase the Notes. In particular, special tax considerations that may apply to certain types of taxpayers, including, without limitation, securities dealers, banks, financial institutions, partnerships, insurance companies, purchasers of Notes who did not acquire the Notes at the applicable “issue price” (defined below), and subsequent purchasers of the Notes, are not addressed. In addition, this summary does not describe any tax consequences resulting from or relating to the Preference Shares or any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, locality or taxing jurisdiction other than the U.S. federal government and the Cayman Islands. In general, the summary assumes that a purchaser acquires a Note at original issuance and holds such Note as a capital asset and not as part of a hedge, straddle, or conversion transaction, within the meaning of section 1258 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”).

This summary is based on the U.S. and Cayman Islands tax laws, regulations, rulings and decisions in effect on the date of this Offering Memorandum. All of the foregoing are subject to change, which change may apply retroactively and could affect the continued validity of this summary.

Prospective purchasers of the Notes should note that no ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) will be sought with respect to any tax matters discussed herein, and there can be no assurance that the IRS will agree with such statement and conclusions. Prospective purchasers of the Notes should consult their tax advisors as to U.S. federal income tax and Cayman Islands tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Notes and the possible application of state, local, foreign or other tax laws.

As used in this section, “Material Income Tax Considerations,” the term “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of a Note who is a citizen or individual resident of the United States, a corporation (or any other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, or an estate or trust (other than a “foreign estate” or a “foreign trust,” each as defined in the Code).

If a partnership (including any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is a beneficial owner of the Notes, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership.

TO COMPLY WITH TREASURY DEPARTMENT CIRCULAR 230, YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT: (A) ANY DISCUSSION OF FEDERAL TAX ISSUES IN THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM IS NOT INTENDED OR WRITTEN TO BE USED, AND CANNOT BE USED BY YOU, FOR THE PURPOSE OF AVOIDING PENALTIES THAT MAY BE IMPOSED ON YOU UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE; (B) ANY SUCH DISCUSSION IS INCLUDED HEREIN BY THE ISSUERS IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROMOTION OR MARKETING (WITHIN THE MEANING OF CIRCULAR 230) BY THE ISSUERS OF THE TRANSACTIONS OR MATTERS ADDRESSED HEREIN; AND (C) YOU SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED ON YOUR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR.

U.S. Federal Income Taxation of the Issuer

U.S. Federal Income Tax. Although the Issuer will elect to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, there can be no assurance that it will not be treated as or become a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If the Issuer is treated as a partnership, the Issuer will not itself be subject to U.S. federal income tax. The following discussion assumes that the Issuer will be treated as a partnership of U.S. federal income tax purposes at all times.

Section 864(b)(2) of the Code provides a specific exemption from U.S. federal income tax to non-U.S. persons which either (i) trade stocks or securities through a resident broker, commission agent, custodian or other independent agent or (ii) restrict their activities in the United States to trading in stocks and securities (and any other activity closely related thereto) for their own account, whether such trading (or such other activity) is by such person or its employees or through a resident broker, commission agent, custodian or other agent. This particular exemption described in clause (ii) above does not apply to foreign persons that are dealers in stocks and securities. Moreover, the Treasury and the Internal Revenue Service recently announced that they are considering taxpayer requests for specific guidance on, among other things, whether a foreign person may be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States by virtue of entering into credit default swaps. However, the Treasury and the Internal Revenue Service have not yet provided any guidance on whether they believe entering into credit default swaps may cause a foreign person to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States and if so, what facts and circumstances must be present for this conclusion to apply. If any future guidance concludes that foreign persons entering into certain credit default swaps will be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States, such guidance may adversely impact the Issuer.

Prior to the issuance of the Securities, the Issuer will receive an opinion from Latham & Watkins LLP (“Tax Counsel”) based, in part, on the exemption described in the preceding paragraph to the effect that, although no activity closely comparable to that contemplated by the Issuer has been the subject of any Treasury regulation, revenue ruling or judicial decision and the matter is not free from doubt, assuming compliance with the Issuer’s Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Indenture, the Servicing Agreement and other related documents (collectively, the “Documents”) by all parties thereto, the Issuer’s permitted activities will not cause it to be treated as engaged in the conduct of a U.S. trade or business under the Code. Investors should note that gain or loss on a disposition by a foreign person of a United States real property interest may be subject to United States federal income tax even if the foreign person is otherwise not engaged in a U.S. trade or business. Because the determination of whether an asset constitutes a United States real property interest is made periodically, although the Issuer is prohibited from acquiring an asset that constitutes a United States real property interest, it is possible that an asset that was not a United States real property interest at the time such asset was acquired by the Issuer will become a United States real property interest after the asset is acquired. Because the Issuer may be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business solely with respect to such gain or loss, Tax Counsel’s opinion will not address the taxation of the Issuer with respect to such disposition. In addition, in interpreting and complying with the Documents, the Issuer and the Servicer are entitled to rely upon the advice and/or opinions of their selected counsel, and the opinion of Tax Counsel will assume that any such advice and/or opinions, other than advice given by Tax Counsel, are correct and complete. The opinion of Tax Counsel will be based on the Code, the Treasury regulations (final, temporary and proposed) thereunder, the existing authorities, and Tax Counsel’s interpretation thereof, all as in effect as of the date of such opinion, and on certain factual assumptions and representations as to the Issuer’s contemplated activities. The Issuer intends to conduct its business in accordance with the assumptions, representations and agreements upon which the opinion of Tax Counsel is based. However, opinions and advice of Tax Counsel or other counsel are not binding on the IRS. Accordingly, in the absence of authority on point, whether the Issuer is or will be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States or not is not entirely free from doubt, and there can be no assurance that positions contrary to those stated in the opinion of Tax Counsel or any other advice or opinion may not be asserted successfully by the IRS.

U.S. Federal Withholding Taxes. Generally, U.S. source interest income received by a foreign person not engaged in a trade or business within the United States is subject to U.S. withholding tax at the rate of 30% of the amount thereof. The Code provides an exception for interest that constitutes “portfolio interest,” which is exempt from withholding tax. The term “portfolio interest” is generally defined as interest paid with respect to debt issued after July 18, 1984 that meets the “registration” requirement, unless the interest constitutes a certain type of contingent interest or is paid to a 10% shareholder of the payor, to a controlled foreign corporation (a “CFC”) related to the payor, or to a bank with respect to a loan entered into in the ordinary course of its business. For purposes of applying the 10% shareholder and related CFC rules, certain constructive ownership rules contained in the Code apply. The Issuer intends that all of the Collateral Obligations purchased that consist of obligations of U.S. issuers to the extent that they are treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes will either (i) pay interest qualifying as “portfolio interest” for which federal income withholding tax is not otherwise applicable or (ii) require the obligor to make “gross-up” payments to offset fully any such tax on any such payments. However, withholding tax may be imposed on certain payments received by the Issuer as a result of one or more non-U.S. persons’ ownership of Preference Shares. Furthermore, there can be no assurance that the Issuer will not become subject to such withholding without “gross-up” payments as a result of a change in or the adoption of a U.S. tax statute, or any change in or the issuance of a regulation or equivalent authority. Any such change, adoption or issuance may constitute a Withholding Tax Event. See “Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption.”

The Issuer may acquire certain types of Collateral Obligations not constituting debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes under the assumption that they are not subject to U.S. withholding tax despite the absence of clear authority that withholding tax is not payable.

Any commitment fees and any lending fees received under a Securities Lending Agreement or similar fees or other items of income (other than interest) received by the Issuer may be subject to U.S. withholding tax. However, the Issuer does not anticipate that it will derive material amounts of any such commitment fees and lending fees or similar fees or other items of income that would be subject to U.S. withholding taxes.

The Issuer may also acquire Collateral Obligations that consist of obligations of non-U.S. issuers. Payments in respect of such Collateral Obligations may be or could become subject to foreign withholding tax. In this regard, the Issuer is not generally permitted to purchase any obligations, the payments on which are subject to withholding tax, unless the issuer of the obligation is required to make “gross-up” payments that cover the full amount of any such withholding tax.

U.S. Federal Income Taxation of U.S. Holders of Notes

Status of the Notes. In the opinion of Tax Counsel, the Senior Notes issued on the Closing Date will be treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Issuer will treat, and each person acquiring an interest in a Note will be deemed to agree to treat, the Notes as debt. The opinion of Tax Counsel is based on current law and certain representations and assumptions and is not binding on the IRS or the courts, and no ruling will be sought from the IRS regarding this, or any other, aspect of the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Notes. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not contend, and that a court will not ultimately hold, that for U.S. federal income tax purposes one or more Classes of the Notes are properly treated as equity in the Issuer. In that case, there might be adverse U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of Notes upon the sale, redemption, retirement or other disposition of, or the receipt of certain types of distributions on, the Notes. Except for the discussion under “United States Income Taxation of the Class E Notes if Characterized as Equity” below, the remainder of the discussion assumes that the Notes are properly characterized as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Maturity Extension and Extension Bonus Payment. Because the Stated Maturity of the Notes may be extended if certain conditions are met, it is unclear whether the Notes should be treated as maturing on July 27, 2018 or August 1, 2034, or on a date between such dates. The Treasury regulations do not provide clear guidance on debt instruments with terms similar to the Notes. Absent further guidance, the Issuer intends to take the position that the Notes should be treated as maturing on July 27, 2018. If the Notes are extended, the Issuer intends to treat each Note, solely for purposes of sections 1272 and 1273 of the Code, as retired and reissued for an amount equal to the adjusted issue price on the date of the new Extension Effective Date. Prospective investors in the Notes should consult their tax advisors regarding whether the Notes should be treated as maturing on a different date and the tax consequences if the Notes have a different maturity date than that chosen by the Issuer.

If the Stated Maturity is extended, the extension of the Stated Maturity would be treated as a modification of the Notes if the Notes may be sold to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser that is related to the Issuer within the meaning of section 267(b) of the Code. If such extension constitutes a modification, there is a significant risk that U.S. Holders who continue to hold their Notes after such extension will be treated as having exchanged their Notes for new Notes (“New Notes”) in a deemed exchange for U.S. federal income tax purposes (a “Deemed Exchange”). Any such Deemed Exchange would be treated as a taxable exchange, resulting in gain or loss, if any. Furthermore, if the Notes are treated as exchanged for New Notes in a Deemed Exchange as a result of a Maturity Extension, whether the New Notes would be treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes will depend on the facts and circumstances existing at the time of such Deemed Exchange. Tax Counsel is unable to opine on whether New Notes treated as received in a Deemed Exchange for the Notes will be treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In the event of a Deemed Exchange, U.S. Holders are strongly urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of such Deemed Exchange.

The tax treatment of the Extension Bonus Payment is unclear. The Issuer intends to take the positions that the full amount of the Extension Bonus Payment should be taxable to U.S. Holders as ordinary income in accordance with their method of accounting and that neither the Extension Bonus Payment nor the Issuer’s options to extend the Stated Maturity should cause the Notes to be treated as subject to the rules applicable to “contingent payment debt instruments” under section 1.1275-4 of the Treasury regulation. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the taxation of the Extension Bonus Payment and the tax consequences of the Notes if they are treated as contingent payment debt instruments.

Taxation of Interest Income. Stated interest on the Notes that is considered “unconditionally payable” (as described below) will be includable in income by a U.S. Holder when received or accrued in accordance with such Holder’s method of tax accounting as ordinary interest income from sources outside the United States.

If the “issue price” of any Note is less than the “stated redemption price at maturity” (“SRPM”) of such Note, the excess of the SRPM over the issue price may constitute original issue discount (“OID”). Under a de minimis rule, if the excess of the SRPM of such Note over its issue price is less than one-fourth of one percent of the SRPM multiplied by the weighted average maturity (determined under applicable Treasury regulations) of such Note, such Note will not be treated as issued with OID. If any such Notes are issued at a greater than de minimis discount or are otherwise treated as having been issued with OID, the excess of the SRPM of such Notes over their issue price will constitute OID. Under the Code, a U.S. Holder of such Notes would be required to include the daily portions of OID, if any, in income as interest from sources outside the United States over the term of such Notes under a constant yield method that reflects the time value of money, regardless of such U.S. Holder’s method of tax accounting and without regard to the timing of actual payments.

The “issue price” of the Notes is the first price at which a substantial amount of the Notes are sold for money (excluding sales to bond houses, brokers or similar persons or organizations acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents or wholesalers). Treasury regulations provide, for purposes of determining whether a debt instrument is issued with OID, that stated interest must be included in the SRPM of a debt instrument if such interest is not “unconditionally payable” in money at least annually. Interest is considered “unconditionally payable” if reasonable legal remedies exist to compel timely payment or terms and conditions of the debt instrument make the likelihood of late payment (other than late payment that occurs within a reasonable grace period) or nonpayment (ignoring the possibility of nonpayment due to default, insolvency or similar circumstances) a remote contingency. Stated interest on the Class A Notes and Class B Notes will be “unconditionally payable” at least annually and thus will be included in income in accordance with a U.S. Holder’s method of accounting. Because interest on the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes may not be due and payable on any Payment Date to the extent that funds are not available on such Payment Date to pay the full amount of such interest or in order to satisfy certain Coverage Tests, the Issuer intends to take the position that payment of interest on the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes will not be viewed as “unconditionally payable.” Assuming such treatment is respected, all interest payments on the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes would be required to be included in the SRPM of such Notes and, therefore, accrued by a U.S. Holder pursuant to these OID rules. Accordingly, the Class C Notes, the Class D Notes and the Class E Notes would be subject to the OID rules whether or not they are issued at an issue price equal to their principal amount.

Because the Floating Rate Notes provide for a floating rate of interest, a U.S. Holder of Floating Rate Notes must include in income interest or OID, if any, on the Floating Rate Notes at the floating rate in effect for the first accrual period (assuming the Floating Rate Notes are issued without OID other than any “deemed” discount attributable to the accrual of interest). The amount of interest or OID actually recognized for any applicable period will increase (or decrease) if interest actually paid during the period is more (or less) than the amount accrued at the initial floating rate.

If the Notes of a Class are not issued at an issue price equal to their principal amount, in computing OID with respect to such Notes, the Issuer intends (absent definitive guidance) to determine the amount of OID to be included in income annually by U.S. Holders of such Notes under an income accrual method, prescribed by Section 1272(a)(6) of the Code, applicable to debt instruments payments under which may be accelerated by reason of prepayments of other obligations securing such debt instruments or a pool of debt instruments the yield on which may be affected by reason of prepayments, that uses an assumption as to the expected prepayments on the Notes. The application of section 1272(a)(6) of the Code to debt instruments with prepayment features similar to the Notes is uncertain, however, and may be challenged by the IRS. In the event that the IRS successfully challenged the Issuer’s characterization of such Notes as subject to section 1272(a)(6) of the Code, any such Notes might be treated as contingent payment debt instruments. Prospective investors should consult their tax advisors regarding the potential application of the method under section 1272(a)(6) of the Code and the rules governing contingent payment debt instruments for accruing any prospective OID on the Notes.

Disposition of Notes. In general, a U.S. Holder of a Note will have a basis in such Note equal to the cost of such Note to such Holder, increased by any amount includable in income by such Holder as OID and reduced by any payments of principal and interest on such Note, other than payments of stated interest that are not required to be included in the SRPM of such Note.

Upon the sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition of such Note, a U.S. Holder will recognize taxable gain or loss, if any, generally equal to the difference between the amount realized on the sale or other disposition (other than accrued stated interest that was not required to be included in the SRPM of such Note, which interest will be taxable as such) and such U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in such Note. Any such gain or loss will generally be long-term capital gain or loss provided that such Note had been held for more than one year at the time of the sale or other disposition. In certain circumstances, U.S. Holders that are individuals may be entitled to preferential treatment for net long-term capital gains; however, the ability of U.S. Holders to offset capital losses against ordinary income is limited.

United States Income Taxation of the Class E Notes if Characterized as Equity. As discussed above, the Issuer will treat the Class E Notes as debt of the Issuer and the discussions above assume that the Class E Notes would be characterized as debt for United States federal income tax purposes. However, the United States federal income tax treatment of the Class E Notes is subject to significant uncertainty and no ruling from the IRS has been sought regarding this issue. Accordingly, there can be no assurances that the IRS will not contend, and that a court will not ultimately hold, that the Class E Notes are equity of the Issuer.

If the Class E Notes were treated as equity, a U.S. Holder of Class E Notes will generally be treated as a partner of the Issuer, and would be generally required to take into account such Holder’s allocable share of the Issuer’s items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit for the taxable year of the Issuer ending within or with the taxable year of the U.S. Holder regardless of whether such Holder has received or will receive corresponding distributions from the Issuer. Investors are strongly urged to consult their tax advisors as to the possible characterization of the Class E Notes as equity, the tax consequences resulting from such characterization, and the advisability of filing an IRS Form 8865.

Tax Treatment of Tax-Exempt U.S. Holders of Notes

U.S. Holders which are tax-exempt entities (“Tax-Exempt U.S. Holders”) will not be subject to the tax on unrelated business taxable income (“UBTI”) with respect to interest and capital gains income derived from an investment in the Notes. However, a Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder that also acquires Preference Shares should consider whether interest it receives in respect of the Notes may be treated as UBTI under rules governing certain payments received from controlled entities.

Notwithstanding the discussion in the preceding paragraph, a Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder which incurs “acquisition indebtedness” (as defined in Section 514(c) of the Code) with respect to the Notes may be subject to the tax on UBTI with respect to income from the Notes to the extent that the Notes constitute “debt-financed property” (as defined in Section 514(b) of the Code) of the Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder.

Tax-Exempt U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding an investment in the Notes.

Transfer Restrictions on the Class E Notes

The Issuer will not recognize any transfer of Class E Notes if the proposed transfer will cause the Issuer to have more than ninety-nine beneficial owners (as determined for purposes of the provisions of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h)) of its Class E Notes and Preference Shares unless it receives the consent of all of the Holders of the Preference Shares and an opinion of counsel to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such transfer, and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such transfer had not been made. In addition, the Class E Notes may not be traded on an “established securities market,” and the Issuer will not recognize any transfers made pursuant to any such trades. For this purpose, the term “established securities market” includes any national securities exchange registered under Section 6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or exempted from registration because of the limited volume of transaction; any foreign securities exchange that, under the laws of the jurisdiction where it is organized, satisfies regulatory requirements that are analogous to the regulatory requirements imposed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; any regional or local exchange; and any interdealer quotation system that regularly disseminates firm buy or sell quotations by identified brokers or dealers, by electronic means or otherwise.

Holders of the Class E Notes will not be permitted to transfer any of the Class E Notes they hold unless the transferee provides, among other things, the Trustee (1) appropriate documentation required under the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations establishing that the beneficial owner is either a non-U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-8BEN or an IRS Form W-8IMY with appropriate attachments) or a U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-9), (2) if the beneficial owner is not a U.S. Holder, certification that (i) the beneficial owner either is not a bank or is a person that is eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates U.S. federal income taxation of United States source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States and (ii) the beneficial owner is not purchasing the Class E Notes in order to reduce its United States federal income tax liability or pursuant to a tax avoidance plan, and (3) for a beneficial owner that is treated as a partnership, S-corporation or grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a written representation that (i) there will not be any interests in such beneficial owner where substantially all of the value of such interest is attributable to the value of the Class E Notes proposed to be transferred to such beneficial owner, together with the value of any Class E Notes, Holding Preference Shares and Preference Shares already held by such beneficial owner and (ii) the beneficial owner is not a part of any arrangement a principal purpose of which is to cause the Class E Notes and Preference Shares to be treated as owned by 100 persons or less within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h). Each transferee of a Class E Note will also be required to agree to provide a properly completed, newly executed U.S. tax form and other certificate in each of the following circumstances: (i) no later than 120 days prior to the expiration (if applicable) of the last previously provided U.S. tax form or certificate, (ii) upon any change of circumstance that would cause that the last previously provided U.S. tax form or certificate to be incorrect and (iii) upon a request by the Issuer or the Share Registrar. Each transferee will also be required to agree that if such transferee fails to provide a properly completed, newly executed U.S. tax form or other certificate no later than 120 days prior to the expiration of the last previously provided U.S. tax form or, if earlier, within the time specified in any request by the Issuer or the Share Registrar (which shall not be less than 30 days), the Issuer will have the unconditional right to cause such transferee to sell any and all Class E Notes to the Issuer or to a person chosen by the Issuer or the Issuer's agent on such terms as the Issuer may choose. For this purpose, an IRS Form W-8IMY (or any successor form thereto) will be deemed to expire upon the expiration of any withholding statement or U.S. tax forms associated with such IRS Form W-8IMY.

U.S. Federal Income Taxation of Non-U.S. Holders

The summary contained in this subsection outlines certain significant U.S. federal income tax principles that are likely to apply to a beneficial owner that is treated as a non-resident alien or foreign corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes (a “Non-U.S. Holder”). It assumes that the Non-U.S. Holder's investment in the Issuer is not effectively connected with the conduct by such Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States.

Payments on the Notes to a Non-U.S. Holder will generally be exempt from any U.S. federal income or withholding taxes, as will gains derived from the sale, exchange or redemption of the Notes, provided that such payments or gains are not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of such Holder, and generally, in the case of gain (excluding accrued OID, if any) of a non-resident alien individual Holder, the Holder is not present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year of the sale and certain other conditions are satisfied. However, if it were determined that the Issuer were engaged in a U.S. trade or business, a portion of the payments on the Notes paid to a Non-U.S. Holder may be subject to a 30% U.S. withholding tax.

As discussed above, the United States federal income tax treatment of the Class E Notes is subject to significant uncertainty and no ruling from the IRS has been sought regarding this issue. If the Class E Notes were treated as equity of the Issuer, among other things, a Non-U.S. Holder may be subject to withholding taxes with respect to payments under the Class E Notes. Furthermore, in such event, if the Issuer were engaged in a U.S. trade or business, a Non-U.S. Holder would also be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business and would be required to file and pay U.S. federal income taxes on its allocable share of the Issuer's income (and possibly on any gain on a disposition of Class E Notes) that is (or is deemed to be) effectively connected with such U.S. trade or business at graduated U.S. federal income tax rates applicable to U.S. Holders (corporate Non-U.S. Holders may also be subject to the branch profits tax). Investors are strongly urged to consult their tax advisors as to the possible U.S. federal income tax characterization of the Class E Notes as equity and the tax consequences resulting from such characterization.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Information reporting to the IRS generally will be required with respect to payments on the Notes, and proceeds of the sale of the Notes to U.S. Holders other than corporations and other exempt recipients. A “backup” withholding tax generally will apply to those payments if such Holder fails to provide certain identifying information (such as the Holder's taxpayer identification number) to the Trustee. “Non-effectively connected” gain or distributions received by a Non-U.S. Holder will generally not be subject to U.S. information reporting requirements or U.S. “backup” withholding tax, although such Holder may be required to furnish a certificate to the paying agent of the Issuer attesting to their status as a Non-U.S. Holder in order to avoid the application of such information reporting requirements and backup withholding. Backup withholding is not an additional tax and may be refunded (or credited against the Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any) provided that certain required information is furnished to the IRS in a timely manner.

Cayman Islands Tax Considerations

The following discussion of certain Cayman Islands income tax consequences of an investment in the Securities is based on the advice of Ogier as to Cayman Islands law. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It assumes that the Issuer will conduct its affairs in accordance with assumptions made by, and representations made to, counsel. It is not intended as tax advice, does not consider any investor's particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

Under existing Cayman Islands laws:

(i) payments of principal and interest on the Notes and dividends and capital in respect of the Preference Shares will not be subject to taxation in the Cayman Islands and no withholding will be required on such payments to any Holder of a Security and gains derived from the sale of Securities will not be subject to Cayman Islands income or corporation tax. The Cayman Islands currently have no income, corporation or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax;

(ii) no stamp duty is payable in respect of the issue or transfer of Securities although duty may be payable if Notes are executed in or brought into the Cayman Islands; and

(iii) certificates evidencing Securities, in registered form, to which title is not transferable by delivery, should not attract Cayman Islands stamp duty. However, an instrument transferring title to a Note, if brought to or executed in the Cayman Islands, would be subject to Cayman Islands stamp duty.

The Issuer has been incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands as an exempted company and, as such, has applied for and obtained an undertaking from the Governor in Cabinet of the Cayman Islands in substantially the following form:

"THE TAX CONCESSIONS LAW
(1999 REVISION)
UNDERTAKING AS TO TAX CONCESSIONS

In accordance with Section 6 of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision) the Governor in Cabinet undertakes with:

Red River CLO Ltd. "the Company"

- (a) that no Law which is hereafter enacted in the Islands imposing any tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations shall apply to the Company or its operations; and
- (b) in addition, that no tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations or which is in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax shall be payable
  - (i) on or in respect of the shares debentures or other obligations of the Company; or
  - (ii) by way of the withholding in whole or in part of any relevant payment as defined in Section 6(3) of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision).

These concessions shall be for a period of TWENTY years from the 7th day of February, 2006.

GOVERNOR IN CABINET"

The Cayman Islands does not have an income tax treaty arrangement with the U.S. or any other country.

THE PRECEDING DISCUSSION IS ONLY A SUMMARY OF CERTAIN OF THE TAX IMPLICATIONS OF AN INVESTMENT IN THE SECURITIES. PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS ARE URGED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS PRIOR TO INVESTING TO DETERMINE THE TAX IMPLICATIONS OF SUCH INVESTMENT IN LIGHT OF SUCH INVESTORS' CIRCUMSTANCES.

CONSIDERATIONS FOR BENEFIT PLANS

Except as described below, the Preference Shares and the Class E Notes may not be purchased by any Benefit Plan Investor. Subject to the following discussion, the Senior Notes may generally be acquired by Benefit Plan Investors. Any fiduciary or other person contemplating an investment in the Securities by, on behalf of or using the assets of, an employee benefit or similar plan or arrangement, whether or not subject to Title I of ERISA (as defined below) or Section 4975 of the Code, should consider, among other things, the matters described below before deciding whether to invest in any of the Securities.

The United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), establishes fiduciary standards for persons having authority or control of the assets of employee benefit plans subject to Title I thereof, including collective investment funds and other entities whose underlying assets are treated as if they were the assets of such plans (collectively, "ERISA Plans") pursuant to the regulation issued by the United States Department of Labor ("DOL") and found at 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101 (the "Plan Asset Regulation") or otherwise pursuant to ERISA. Under Title I of ERISA, any person who exercises any authority or control with respect to the management or disposition of the assets of an ERISA Plan is considered to be a fiduciary of such ERISA Plan.

Investments by ERISA Plans are subject to ERISA's general fiduciary requirements, including the requirement of investment prudence and diversification and the requirement that an ERISA Plan's investments be made in accordance with the documents governing the relevant plan. The prudence of a particular investment must be determined by the responsible fiduciary of an ERISA Plan by taking into account the ERISA Plan's particular circumstances and all of the facts and circumstances of the investment. A fiduciary of an ERISA Plan should consider, for example, that in the future there may be no market in which to sell or otherwise dispose of the Securities, whether an investment in the Securities may be too illiquid or too speculative, and whether the assets of the ERISA Plan would be sufficiently diversified.

Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code effectively prohibit certain transactions involving the assets of an ERISA Plan (as well as those plans that are not subject to Title I of ERISA but are subject to Section 4975 of the Code (each such plan or ERISA Plan, a "Plan")) and certain persons having certain relationships to such Plans (referred to as "parties in interest" or "disqualified persons"), unless a statutory or administrative exemption applies to the transaction. A violation of these "prohibited transaction" rules may generate excise tax or other penalties and liabilities under ERISA and the Code for such person.

Additionally, the acquisition or holding of Securities by or on behalf of benefits plans that are not subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, such as foreign plans, governmental plans (as defined in Section 3(32) of ERISA) and certain church plans (as defined in Section 3(33) of ERISA) could give rise to similar liabilities under federal, state, foreign or local law which may be substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (a "Similar Law"), and/or might be prohibited or otherwise restricted as described herein.

The Plan Asset Regulation describes what constitutes the assets of a Plan with respect to the Plan's investment in an entity for purposes of certain provisions of ERISA, including the fiduciary responsibility and prohibited transaction provisions of Title I of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code. Under the Plan Asset Regulation, if a Plan invests in an "equity interest" of an entity that is neither a "publicly-offered security" nor a security issued by an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act, the Plan's assets include both the equity interest and an undivided interest in each of the entity's underlying assets, unless it is established that the entity is an "operating company" or that equity participation in the entity by "Benefit Plan Investors" is not "significant." Equity participation in an entity by Benefit Plan Investors is “significant” if 25% or more of the value of any class of equity interest of the entity is held by Benefit Plan Investors. The term “Benefit Plan Investor” includes (a) an employee benefit plan as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, whether or not it is subject to Title I of ERISA, (b) a plan described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code and (c) any entity whose underlying assets include “plan assets” of any of the foregoing by reason of an investment in the entity by such a plan or arrangement (a “Benefit Plan Investor”). For purposes of making the 25% determination, the value of any equity interests held by a person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) who has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the entity or who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to such assets, or any “affiliate” of such a person (as defined under the Plan Asset Regulation), will be disregarded. Under the Plan Asset Regulation, an “affiliate” of a person includes any person, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controlling, controlled by or under common control with the person, and “control” with respect to a person other than an individual, means the power to exercise a controlling influence over the management or policies of such person.

Under the Plan Asset Regulation, the assets of the Co-Issuers might be treated as assets of a Plan if Benefit Plan Investors hold 25% or more of any class of “equity interests” in the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or if any Plan acquires an “equity interest” in the Issuer and/or the Co-Issuer and none of the exceptions contained in the Plan Asset Regulation is applicable. An “equity interest” is defined under the Plan Asset Regulation as an interest other than an instrument which is treated as indebtedness under applicable local law and which has no substantial equity features.

Senior Notes

The Co-Issuers believe that, at the time of their issuance, the Senior Notes should be treated as indebtedness without substantial equity features for purposes of the Plan Asset Regulation. This determination is based in part upon the traditional debt features of such Senior Notes, including the reasonable expectation of purchasers of such Senior Notes that they will be repaid when due, as well as the absence of conversion rights, warrants and other typical equity features. The Co-Issuers will therefore not monitor the investment by Benefit Plan Investors in the Senior Notes. It should be noted that the debt treatment of the Senior Notes for ERISA purposes could change subsequent to their issuance (i.e., they could be treated as equity) if the Issuers incur losses or the rating or other terms and conditions of the Senior Notes changes. The risk of recharacterization is enhanced for subordinate classes of the Senior Notes. The Co-Issuers have not obtained an opinion of counsel regarding the debt treatment of Senior Notes under local law or the Plan Asset Regulation.

Regardless of the characterization of the Senior Notes as debt or equity under the Plan Asset Regulation and regardless of the level of Benefit Plan Investor investment in any class of Securities, the acquisition or holding of Senior Notes by or on behalf of a Plan could give rise to a prohibited transaction if any of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Placement Agents, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, other persons providing services in connection with the Issuers, or any of their respective affiliates is a “party in interest” or “disqualified person” with respect to that Plan. Certain exemptions from the prohibited transaction rules could be applicable, however, depending in part upon the type of fiduciary making the decision to acquire Senior Notes and the circumstances under which such decision is made. Included among these exemptions are U.S. DOL Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption (“PTCE”) 84-14, regarding transactions effected by independent “qualified professional asset managers”; PTCE 90-1, regarding investments by insurance company pooled separate accounts; PTCE 91-38, regarding investments by bank collective investment funds; PTCE 95-60, regarding investments by insurance company general accounts; and PTCE 96-23, regarding transactions effected by certain “in-house asset managers.” However, even if the conditions specified in one or more of these exemptions are met, the scope of the relief provided by these exemptions might or might not cover all acts which might be construed as prohibited transactions. There can be no assurance that any of these, or any other exemption, will be available with respect to any particular transaction involving the Senior Notes.

Similarly, the acquisition or holding of Senior Notes by or on behalf of foreign plans, governmental plans (as defined in Section 3(32) of ERISA) and certain church plans (as defined in Section 3(33) of ERISA), which are not subject to Title I of ERISA and/or Section 4975 of the Code, could give rise to a prohibited transaction or other liabilities under Similar Law.

By acquiring a Senior Note, each purchaser and transferee will be deemed to represent, warrant and covenant that either (i) it is not, and is not acquiring such Senior Note with the assets of, a Plan or a foreign, governmental or church plan subject to Similar Law, and throughout the holding and disposition of such Senior Note, it will not become or transfer its interest to any Plan or foreign, governmental or church plan or to an entity using the assets thereof, or (ii) the acquisition, holding and disposition of such Senior Note by the purchaser or transferee, throughout its holding and disposition of such Senior Note, will not result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a foreign, governmental or church plan, any Similar Law), because such purchase, holding and disposition either (x) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws or (y) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all of the conditions of which are and will be satisfied upon its acquisition of, and throughout its holding and disposition of, such Senior Note. Each investor in a Senior Note will be deemed to represent, warrant and covenant that it will not sell, pledge or otherwise transfer such Senior Note in violation of the foregoing, and that it and any person causing it to acquire such Senior Note agree, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Placement Agents and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage or loss incurred by them as a result of such purchaser not satisfying the foregoing or as a result of its transferring its interest to a Person not meeting the foregoing requirements. Any purported transfer of the Senior Note to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of the foregoing shall be null and void ab initio, and will vest in the transferee no rights against the Trustee or the Co-Issuers.

Class E Notes and Preference Shares

Although the Issuer will treat the Class E Notes as debt, this characterization is subject to uncertainty and the Class E Notes may be characterized as equity for purposes of the Plan Asset Regulation. The Preference Shares are equity of the Issuer and will be treated as equity for purposes of the Plan Asset Regulation. Accordingly, the Issuer intends to limit the purchase and holding of each of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares by Benefit Plan Investors to less than 25% of the aggregate outstanding amount of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares, as applicable (excluding for purposes of such determination any Class E Notes or Preference Shares held by “Controlling Persons” as defined below), by requiring each purchaser or transferee thereof to make certain representations and agreements with respect to its status as a Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person, and to agree to additional transfer restrictions described under “Transfer Restrictions.” In making the 25% determination, Class E Notes or Preference Shares held by any person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the assets of the Issuer or any “affiliate” (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)(3)) of any such person (any such person, a “Controlling Person”) (such as the Class E Notes and the Class II Preference Shares held by the Servicer or its affiliates and employees thereof) will be disregarded and not treated as outstanding. No purchase of a Class E Note or a Preference Share by, or proposed transfer to, a person that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person will be permitted to the extent that such purchase or transfer would result in persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares, as applicable, (excluding for purposes of such determination any Class E Notes or Preference Shares, as applicable, held by any Controlling Person (such as the Class E Notes and the Class II Preference Shares held by the Servicer or its affiliates and employees thereof)) immediately after such purchase or proposed transfer (determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents).

In addition, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Trustee will agree that, after the initial distribution of the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares, neither they nor any of their respective affiliates will acquire any Class E Notes or Preference Shares (including pursuant to the Extension Procedure or the Amendment Buy-Out Option) unless such acquisition would not, as determined by the Trustee in reliance on representations made in the applicable transfer certificates with respect thereto, result in persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of any of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares immediately after such acquisition (determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents). The Class E Notes or the Preference Shares held as principal by the Servicer, the Trustee, any of their respective affiliates (as defined in the Plan Asset Regulation) and persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons will be disregarded and will not be treated as outstanding for purposes of determining compliance with such 25% limitation to the extent that such a Controlling Person is not a Benefit Plan Investor.

Each purchaser and transferee will be further required to represent, warrant and covenant that no transfer of a Class E Note or a Preference Share will be made to a Benefit Plan Investor or Controlling Person except as provided herein, and that it and any fiduciaries or other Person causing it to acquire such Securities agree, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Servicer, the Placement Agents and their respective affiliates from any cost, damage or loss incurred by them as a result of any transfer of Class E Notes or Preference Shares, as applicable, in violation of the foregoing.

It is expected that the Servicer and/or one or more of its Affiliates will acquire all of the Class E Notes on the Closing Date and therefore it is possible that no Benefit Plan Investors will be able to hold any Class E Notes.

Independent Review and Consultation with Counsel

Any person proposing to purchase Securities with assets of an employee benefit plan or similar plan or arrangement, including a collective investment fund, insurance company general account or a foreign, governmental or church plan, should consult with its counsel with respect to, among other things, the limitations applicable to Benefit Plan Investors specified herein, and the potential applicability of ERISA, the Code and Similar Law to such investment and whether any exemption from the prohibited transaction provisions of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code or such Similar Law would be applicable. Each investor must determine on its own whether all conditions of any applicable exemption have been satisfied. Moreover, each ERISA Plan fiduciary should determine whether, under the general fiduciary standards of investment prudence and diversification, an investment in the Securities is appropriate for the ERISA Plan, taking into account the overall investment policy of the ERISA Plan, the composition of the ERISA Plan's investment portfolio, and the risk/return characteristics of the Securities.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Placed Notes will be privately placed inside the United States by IXIS Securities North America Inc. and outside the United States by IXIS Corporate & Investment Bank. With respect to a portion of the Class A Notes only, the Placed Notes will be privately placed also by UBS Securities LLC and UBS Limited (each, a subsidiary of UBS AG and each acting through UBS AG's global investment banking and securities business). Pursuant to a Placement Agency Agreement (the "Placement Agency Agreement") among the Co-Issuers, IXIS Securities North America Inc., on behalf of the IXIS Placement Agents, and the UBS Placement Agents, the Placement Agents will agree, subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, to use their reasonable efforts to place the Placed Notes on behalf of the Co-Issuers. Any of the Placement Agents may, but will not be obligated to, purchase the Placed Notes as principal with a view to the resale and distribution thereof, and any such resales may be made by it at negotiated prices. In addition, each of the Placement Agents reserves the right to pay a fee to any purchaser of the Placed Notes, and any Affiliate of the Issuer or the Servicer may also pay a fee to any purchaser, in connection with such purchaser's participation in the transaction.

Certain of the Senior Notes and all of the Class E Notes will be sold directly by the Issuer to the Servicer or any of its Affiliates in privately negotiated transactions. The Issuer will agree to sell, and HFP and/or one or more of its subsidiaries will agree to purchase, all of the the Class II Preference Shares in a privately negotiated transaction and the Issuer will agree to sell, and Investors Corp. will agree to purchase, all of the Class I Preference Shares in privately negotiated transactions. None of the Placement Agents is acting as a placement agent or initial purchaser with respect to the Class E Notes or the Preference Shares.

In the Placement Agency Agreement, the Co-Issuers will agree to indemnify each of the Placement Agents against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribute to payments the Placement Agents may be required to make in respect thereof. In addition, the Issuer will agree to reimburse the IXIS Placement Agents for certain of its expenses incurred in connection with the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby.

The Co-Issuers have been advised by the Placement Agents that the Placement Agents propose to arrange the sale of the Placed Notes to certain non-U.S. persons in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act and to Accredited Investors in transactions exempt under Section 4(2) who are also (i) Qualified Purchasers or (ii) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers. Pursuant to the Placement Agency Agreement, the IXIS Placement Agents will be entitled to placement fees from the Issuer for placing the Placed Notes.

No action has been taken or will be taken by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Placed Notes or possession or distribution of any offering memorandum (in preliminary or final form) or any amendment thereof, or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Placed Notes in any jurisdiction where, or in any other circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. No offers, sales or deliveries of any Placed Notes, or distribution of any offering memorandum (in preliminary or final form) or any other offering material relating to the Placed Notes, may be made in or from any jurisdiction except in circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations and will not impose any obligations on the Issuer or the Placement Agents. Because of the restrictions contained in the front of this Offering Memorandum, purchasers are advised to consult legal counsel prior to making any offer, resale, pledge or transfer of the Placed Notes.

In the Placement Agency Agreement, each Placement Agent will agree that it or one or more of its Affiliates will arrange the sale of the Placed Notes only to or with (i) purchasers it reasonably believes to be (A) Accredited Investors and (B) (I) Qualified Purchasers or (II) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and (ii) non-U.S. Persons in Offshore Transactions pursuant to Regulation S. Resales of the Placed Notes offered in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act, as the case may be, are restricted as described under the "Transfer Restrictions." As used in this paragraph, the terms "United States" and "U.S." have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.

The Placed Notes are a new issue of securities for which there is currently no market. The Placement Agents are not under any obligation to make a market in any class of the Placed Notes and any market making activity, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time. There can be no assurance that a secondary market for any class of the Placed Notes will develop, or if one does develop, that it will continue. Accordingly, no assurance can be given as to the liquidity of or trading market for the Placed Notes.

The Co-Issuers extend to each prospective investor the opportunity to ask questions of, and receive answers from, the Co-Issuers or a person or persons acting on behalf of the Co-Issuers, including the Placement Agents concerning the Securities and the terms and conditions of this offering and to obtain any additional information it may consider necessary in making an informed investment decision and any information in order to verify the accuracy of the information set forth herein, to the extent the Co-Issuers possess the same. Requests for such additional information can be directed to IXIS Securities North America Inc., 9 West 57th Street, 36th Floor, New York, New York 10019 Attention: Structured Credit Products Group.

SETTLEMENT AND CLEARING

Book Entry Registration of the Global Notes

So long as the Depository, or its nominee, is the registered owner or Holder of a Global Note, the Depository or the nominee, as the case may be, will be considered the sole owner or Holder of the Senior Notes represented by a Global Note for all purposes under the Indenture, the Issuer Charter and the Global Notes, and members of, or participants in, the Depository as well as any other persons on whose behalf the participants may act (including Clearstream and Euroclear and account holders and participants therein) will have no rights under the Indenture, the Issuer Charter or a Global Note. Owners of beneficial interests in a Global Note will not be considered to be owners or Holders of the related Senior Note under the Indenture or the Issuer Charter. Unless the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for a Global Note or ceases to be a “clearing agency” registered under the Exchange Act, owners of a beneficial interest in a Global Note will not be entitled to have any portion of a Global Note registered in their names, will not receive or be entitled to receive physical delivery of Senior Notes in certificated form and will not be considered to be the owners or Holders of any Senior Notes under the Indenture. In addition, no beneficial owner of an interest in a Global Note will be able to transfer that interest except in accordance with the Depository’s applicable procedures (in addition to those under the Indenture and, if applicable, those of Euroclear and Clearstream).

Investors may hold their interests in a Regulation S Global Note directly through Clearstream or Euroclear, if they are participants in Clearstream or Euroclear, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in Clearstream or Euroclear. Clearstream and Euroclear will hold interests in the Regulation S Global Notes on behalf of their participants through their respective depositories, which in turn will hold the interests in Regulation S Global Notes in customers’ securities accounts in the depositories’ names on the books of the Depository. Investors may hold their interests in a Rule 144A Global Note directly through the Depository if they are participants in the Depository, or in directly through organizations that are participants in the Depository.

Payments of principal of, or interest or other distributions on a Global Note will be made to the Depository or its nominee, as the registered owner thereof. The Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the paying agents, the Placement Agents, the Servicer and their respective Affiliates will not have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in a Global Note or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to the beneficial ownership interests.

The Co-Issuers expect that the Depository or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal, interest, or other distributions in respect of a Global Note representing any Senior Notes, as the case may be, held by it or its nominee, will immediately credit participants’ accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the stated aggregate principal amount or number of a Global Note for the Senior Notes, as shown on the records of the Depository or its nominee. The Co-Issuers also expect that payments by participants to owners of beneficial interests in a Global Note held through the participants will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for those customers. The payments will be the responsibility of the participants.

Global Note Settlement Procedures

Transfers between the participants in the Depository will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with the Depository rules and will be settled in immediately available funds. The laws of some states require that certain persons take physical delivery of securities in definitive form. Consequently, the ability to transfer beneficial interests in a Global Note to these persons may be limited. Because the Depository can only act on behalf of participants, who in turn act on behalf of indirect participants and certain banks, the ability of a person holding a beneficial interest in a Global Note to pledge its interest to persons or entities that do not participate in the Depository system, or otherwise take actions in respect of its interest, may be affected by the lack of a physical certificate of the interest. Transfers between participants in Euroclear and Clearstream will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with their respective rules and operating procedures.

Subject to compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Securities described above and under “Transfer Restrictions,” cross-market transfers between the Depository, on the one hand, and directly or indirectly through Euroclear or Clearstream participants, on the other, will be effected in the Depository in accordance with the Depository rules on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, by its respective depository; however, the cross-market transactions will require delivery of instructions to Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, by the counterparty in the system in accordance with its rules and procedures and within its established deadlines (Brussels time). Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, will if the transaction meets its settlement requirements, deliver instructions to its respective depository to take action to effect final settlement on its behalf by delivering or receiving interests in a Senior Note represented by a Regulation S Global Note in the Depository and making or receiving payment in accordance with normal procedures for same-day funds settlement applicable to the Depository. Clearstream participants and Euroclear participants may not deliver instructions directly to the depositories of Clearstream or Euroclear.

Because of time zone differences, cash received in Euroclear or Clearstream as a result of sales of interests in a Regulation S Global Note by or through a Euroclear or Clearstream participant to the Depository participant will be received with value on the Depository settlement date but will be available in the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream cash account only as of the business day following settlement in the Depository.

The Depository has advised the Issuer that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a Holder of Securities (including the presentation of Securities for exchange as described above) only at the direction of one or more participants in the Depository to whose account with the Depository interests in the Securities are credited and only in respect of the portion of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities as to which the participant or participants has or have given the direction.

The Depository has advised the Issuer as follows: The Depository is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a “banking organization” within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a “clearing corporation” within the meaning of the UCC and a “Clearing Agency” registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act. The Depository was created to hold securities for its participants and facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of its participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Participants in the Depository include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, and clearing corporations and may include certain other organizations. Indirect access to the Depository system is available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers, and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a participant, either directly or indirectly.

Although the Depository, Clearstream and Euroclear have agreed to the foregoing procedures to facilitate transfers of interests in Regulation S Global Notes among participants of the Depository, Clearstream and Euroclear, they are under no obligation to perform or continue to perform the procedures, and the procedures may be discontinued at any time. Neither the Co-Issuers nor the Trustee will have any responsibility for the performance by the Depository, Clearstream, or Euroclear or their respective participants or indirect participants of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS

Because of the following restrictions, purchasers are advised to consult legal counsel prior to making any offer, resale, pledge or transfer of the Securities. Purchasers of Senior Notes represented by an interest in a Regulation S Global Note are advised that such interests are not transferable to U.S. Persons at any time except in accordance with the following restrictions.

Each prospective purchaser of Securities that is a U.S. Person or is purchasing the Securities in a non-Offshore Transaction (a “U.S. Offeree”), by accepting delivery of this Offering Memorandum, will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows:

(1) The U.S. Offeree acknowledges that this Offering Memorandum is personal to the U.S. Offeree and does not constitute an offer to any other person or to the public generally to subscribe for or otherwise acquire the Securities other than pursuant to transactions exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act or in Offshore Transactions in accordance with Regulation S. Distribution of this Offering Memorandum to any person other than the U.S. Offeree and those persons, if any, retained to advise the U.S. Offeree with respect thereto, and other persons that are, (a) in the case of the Senior Notes, Accredited Investors or non-U.S. Persons or, (b) in the case of the Class E Notes or the Preference Shares, Qualified Institutional Buyers is unauthorized and any disclosure of any of its contents, without the prior written consent of the Co-Issuers, is prohibited.

(2) The U.S. Offeree agrees to make no photocopies of this Offering Memorandum or any documents referred to herein and, if the U.S. Offeree does not purchase the Securities or the offering is terminated, to return this Offering Memorandum and all documents referred to herein to IXIS Securities North America Inc., 9 West 57th Street, 36th Floor, New York, New York, 10019, Attention: Structured Credit Products Group.

Under the Indenture (with respect to the Co-Issuers) and the Preference Share Documents (with respect to the Issuer), the Co-Issuers or the Issuer will agree to comply with the requirements of Rule 144A relative to the dissemination of information to prospective purchasers in the secondary market. See “Available Information.”

The Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act and, (a) in the case of the Senior Notes, may not be offered or sold in non-Offshore Transactions or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons, except to Accredited Investors in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act who are also (x) Qualified Purchasers or (y) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and, (b) in the case of the Class E Notes or the Preference Shares, may only be offered or sold to Qualified Institutional Buyers in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act who are also (x) Qualified Purchasers or (y) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers.

Any purported transfer of a Security not in accordance with this section shall be null and void and shall not be given effect for any purpose hereunder.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes

Each purchaser of a beneficial interest in Senior Notes represented by a Rule 144A Global Note will be deemed to represent and agree (on its own behalf, or if the purchaser is acquiring the Senior Notes for any account, on behalf of each such account) (and each transferee of a beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Note will be required or deemed to represent and agree) as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Rule 144A or Regulation S are used herein as defined therein):

(1) (A) The purchaser is an Accredited Investor and a Qualified Purchaser, (B) the purchaser is purchasing the Senior Notes for its own account or the account of another Qualified Purchaser that is also an Accredited Investor as to which the purchaser exercises sole investment discretion, (C) the purchaser and any such account is acquiring the Senior Notes as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (D) the purchaser and any such account was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Senior Notes (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (E) to the extent the purchaser (or any account for which it is purchasing the Senior Notes) is a private investment company formed on or before April 30, 1996, the purchaser and each such account has received the necessary consent from its beneficial owners,

(F) the purchaser is not a broker-dealer that owns and invests on a discretionary basis less than $25,000,000 in securities of unaffiliated issuers, (G) the purchaser is not a pension, profit-sharing or other retirement trust fund or plan in which the partners, beneficiaries or participants or affiliates may designate the particular investment to be made, (H) the purchaser agrees that it and each such account shall not hold such Senior Notes for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Senior Notes or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the distributions on the Senior Notes (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (I) the Senior Notes purchased directly or indirectly by the purchaser or any account for which it is purchasing the Senior Notes constitute an investment of no more than 40% of the purchaser's and each such account's assets (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (J) the purchaser and each such account is purchasing the Senior Notes in a principal amount of not less than the minimum denomination requirement for the purchaser and each such account, (K) the purchaser will provide notice of the transfer restrictions set forth in the Indenture (including the exhibits thereto) to any transferee of its Senior Notes and (L) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Senior Notes to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph (1) shall be null and void ab initio.

(2) The purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Senior Notes, and the purchaser, and any account for which it is acting, are each able to bear the economic risk of the purchaser's or its investment.

(3) The purchaser understands that the Senior Notes are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Senior Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and, if in the future the purchaser decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein, such Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with the applicable legend in respect of such Senior Notes set forth in (6) below and the restrictions set forth in the Indenture. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Co-Issuers, the Servicer or the Placement Agents as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any jurisdiction for resale of the Senior Notes.

(4) The purchaser is not purchasing the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that an investment in the Senior Notes involves certain risks, including the risk of loss of its entire investment in the Senior Notes under certain circumstances. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Co-Issuers, the Senior Notes and the Collateral as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein, including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Co-Issuers and the Placement Agents.

(5) In connection with the purchase of Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein (provided that no such representation is made with respect to the Servicer by any Affiliate of or account serviced by the Servicer): (i) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment adviser for the purchaser, (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates other than in the Offering Memorandum and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other person) any assurance, guarantee, or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence, or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting, or otherwise) of the Senior Notes or an investment therein; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the Indenture) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein reflect those in relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) if the purchaser is acting for the account of another investor, the purchaser represents that the investment on behalf of such account is based on a determination that the investment is suitable based on the risks referred to in this Offering Memorandum (including, without limitation, the "Risk Factors" and the "Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes"), given the investment objectives of the account for which the purchase is being made, and that the investment is consistent with any applicable legal requirements; (vii) the purchaser is purchasing the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and it is capable of assuming and willing to assume (financially and otherwise) those risks; and (viii) the purchaser is a sophisticated investor.

(6) (i) The purchaser understands that the Senior Notes offered to Accredited Investors in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act provided by Section 4(2) (a) will bear the legend substantially in the form set forth below unless the Co-Issuers determine otherwise in accordance with applicable law, (b) will be represented by one or more Rule 144A Global Notes, and (c) may not at any time be resold, pledged or transferred to U.S. Persons that are not Qualified Institutional Buyers and either (i) Qualified Purchasers or (ii) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers. Before any interest in a Rule 144A Global Note may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred to a Person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note, the transferor will be required to provide the Trustee with a written certification as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

ANY PURPORTED TRANSFER OF THIS NOTE THAT DOES NOT COMPLY WITH THESE REQUIREMENTS SHALL BE NULL AND VOID AB INITIO.

(ii) In addition, each Regulation S Global Note representing any Senior Note will contain the following additional legend:

EACH TRANSFEREE OF THE NOTE REPRESENTED HEREBY WILL, IF REQUIRED BY THE INDENTURE, BE REQUIRED TO DELIVER A TRANSFEREE CERTIFICATE IN A FORM PRESCRIBED IN THE INDENTURE OR WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE MADE THE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE INDENTURE.

(iii) In addition, each Regulation S Global Note representing any Senior Note will also contain the following additional legend:

UNLESS THIS NOTE IS PRESENTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF THE DEPOSITORY TRUST COMPANY ("DTC") TO THE INDENTURE REGISTRAR FOR REGISTRATION OF TRANSFER OR PAYMENT, AND ANY CERTIFICATE ISSUED IS REGISTERED IN THE NAME OF CEDE & CO. OR IN SUCH OTHER NAME AS IS REQUESTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF DTC (AND ANY PAYMENT MADE TO CEDE & CO. OR TO SUCH OTHER ENTITY AS IS REQUESTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF DTC), ANY TRANSFER, PLEDGE OR OTHER USE HEREOF FOR VALUE OR OTHERWISE BY OR TO ANY PERSON IS WRONGFUL INASMUCH AS THE REGISTERED OWNER HEREOF, CEDE & CO., HAS AN INTEREST HEREIN.

(7) The purchaser will provide notice to each person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Senior Notes of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Indenture, including the exhibits referenced therein.

(8) The purchaser understands that the Indenture permits the Issuer to compel any Holder of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein who is a U.S. Person and who is determined not to have been both (x) an Accredited Investor, in the case of the initial purchaser, or a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers at the time of acquisition of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein to sell such interest, or to sell such interest on behalf of such purchaser, to a person that is both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A or to a person that is a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction meeting the requirements of Regulation S.

(9) The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Senior Notes, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase Senior Notes from any Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell such Senior Note to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.

(10) The purchaser understands that the Stated Maturity of the Senior Notes is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of Securities at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.

(11) The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Co-Issuers that would permit a public offering of the Senior Notes in any jurisdiction. The purchaser further acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Co-Issuers that would permit possession or distribution of the Offering Memorandum or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Senior Notes in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the offering memorandum relating to the Senior Notes shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Senior Notes in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.

(12) The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.

(13) (a) Either (i) the purchaser is not, and is not using the assets of, and throughout the holding and disposition of the Senior Notes will not become or transfer its interest to, an employee benefit plan or other fund or arrangement subject to Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), a plan subject to Section 4975(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”) or a governmental, foreign or church plan which is subject to any federal, state, foreign or local law that is substantially similar to the provisions of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code or (ii) the purchaser’s purchase, holding and disposition of such Senior Notes will not result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any federal, state, foreign or local law that is substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code) because such purchase, holding and disposition of such Senior Notes either (x) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws, or (y) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all of the conditions of which are and will be satisfied upon the acquisition of, and throughout its holding and disposition of, such Senior Notes; (b) the purchaser shall not transfer an interest in such Senior Notes to any transferee unless such transferee meets the foregoing requirements; and (c) the purchaser and any fiduciaries or other Person causing it to acquire such Senior Notes agree, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Placement Agents, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage or loss incurred by them as a result of such purchaser not meeting the foregoing requirements or as a result of its transferring its interest to a transferee not meeting the foregoing requirements. Any purported purchase or transfer of the Senior Notes to a purchaser or transferee that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph (13) shall be null and void ab initio.

(14) The purchaser understands that the Co-Issuers may receive a list of participants holding positions in its securities from one or more book-entry depositories.

(15) The purchaser agrees that it will not offer or sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of the Senior Notes or any interest therein except (i) pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws or the applicable laws of any other jurisdiction and (ii) in accordance with the Indenture, to which provisions the purchaser hereby agrees it is subject.

(16) The purchaser is not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.

(17) The beneficial owner will agree to treat the Senior Notes as unconditional debt of the Issuer for tax, accounting and financial reporting purposes.

(18) To the extent required, as determined by the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Trustee, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Senior Notes to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the U.S. Patriot Act) and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Senior Note to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.

(19) The purchaser understands that, to the extent required, as determined by the Co-Issuers, the Co-Issuers may amend the Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer only, the Preference Share Documents, without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities to (i) remove any restrictions and limitations imposed on the Co-Issuers or the Holders of the Securities that solely relate to compliance with Section 3(c)(7) and (ii) add any requirements that are necessary for compliance with Rule 3a-7 if, at any time following the Closing Date, the Co-Issuers elect to rely on exclusion from the definition of “investment company” under Rule 3a-7 in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7).

(20) The purchaser understands that the Issuer may enter into amendments or modifications to the Servicing Agreement without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities.

(21) The purchaser agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.

(22) The purchaser acknowledges that the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, the Placement Agents and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Co-Issuers, the Servicer and the Placement Agents. If the purchaser is acquiring any Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein as a fiduciary or agent for one or more institutional accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Regulation S Global Notes

Each purchaser of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note will be further deemed (and each transferee of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note will be required or deemed), in addition to making the representations set forth in paragraphs (3), (4), (5) and (7) through (22) above in “—Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes,” to represent and agree as follows:

The purchaser is aware that the Senior Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or any other applicable state securities law and the sale of such Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein to it is being made in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Regulation S and understands that the Senior Notes offered in reliance on Regulation S will bear the appropriate legend set forth in paragraph (6) above in “—Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes” and will be represented by one or more Regulation S Global Notes. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Co-Issuers or the Placement Agents as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any other jurisdiction for resale of the Senior Notes. The purchaser and each beneficial owner of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein that it holds is not, and will not be, a U.S. Person as defined in Regulation S and its purchase of the Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein will comply with all applicable laws in any jurisdiction in which it resides or is located and will be in a principal amount of not less than U.S.$ 250,000. The purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Senior Notes or any beneficial interest therein, and it, and any accounts for which it is acting are each able to bear the economic risk of its investment. Before any interest in a Regulation S Global Note may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note, the transferor and the transferee will be required to provide the Trustee with written certifications as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Class E Notes

Each initial purchaser of Class E Notes acquiring such Class E Notes from the Issuer in the initial offering will be required to enter into a Subscription Agreement with the Issuer pursuant to which each such initial purchaser will be required to represent and agree (and each subsequent transferee will be required to represent and agree), on its own behalf, or if the purchaser is acquiring the Class E Notes for any account, on behalf of each such account, in each case as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Rule 144A are used herein as defined therein):

(1) The purchaser is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is aware that the sale of Class E Notes to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements provided by Section 4(2) and is acquiring the Class E Notes for its own account or for one or more accounts, each of which is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and as to each of which the purchaser exercises sole investment discretion. In addition, the purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Class E Notes, and the purchaser, and any accounts for which it is acting, are each able to bear the economic risk of the purchaser's or its investment.

(2) The purchaser understands that the Class E Notes are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Class E Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and, if in the future the purchaser decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Class E Notes, such Class E Notes may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with the legend in respect of such Class E Notes set forth in (7) below and the restrictions set forth in the Indenture. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Issuer, the Servicer or the Placement Agents or any of their respective Affiliates as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any jurisdiction for resale of the Class E Notes.

(3) The purchaser agrees that it will not offer or sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of the Class E Notes or any interest therein except (i) pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws or the applicable laws of any other jurisdiction and (ii) in accordance with the Indenture, to which provisions the purchaser agrees it is subject.

(4) The purchaser is not purchasing the Class E Notes with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that the Class E Notes will be highly illiquid and are not suitable for short-term trading. The Class E Notes are a leveraged investment in the Collateral Obligations that may expose the Class E Notes to disproportionately large changes in value. Payments in respect of the Class E Notes are not guaranteed as they are dependent on the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations. The purchaser understands that an investment in the Class E Notes involves certain risks, including the risk of loss of all or a substantial part of its investment. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Issuer, the Class E Notes and the Collateral as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Class E Notes, including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Issuer and the Placement Agents.

(5) In connection with the purchase of Class E Notes (provided that no such representation is made with respect to the Servicer by any Affiliate of or account serviced by the Servicer): (i) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty or the Servicer is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment adviser for the purchaser, (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates other than in the Offering Memorandum and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other Person or documentation for the Class E Notes) any assurance, guarantee, or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence, or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting, or otherwise) of the Class E Notes or an investment therein; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the documentation for the Class E Notes) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Class E Notes reflect those in relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) if the purchaser is acting for the account of another investor, the purchaser represents that the investment on behalf of such account is based on a determination that the investment is suitable based on the risks referred to in this Offering Memorandum (including, without limitation, the "Risk Factors" and the "Transfer Restrictions Applicable to the Class E Notes"), given the investment objectives of the account for which the purchase is being made, and that the investment is consistent with any applicable legal requirements; (vii) the purchaser is purchasing the Class E Notes with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and it is capable of assuming and willing to assume (financially and otherwise) those risks; and (viii) the purchaser is a sophisticated investor.

(6) (A) The purchaser on each account for which the purchaser is acquiring Class E Notes is (a) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (b) (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, (B) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Class E Notes for any account, each such account) is acquiring the Class E Notes as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (C) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Class E Notes for any account, each such account) was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Class E Notes (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (D) to the extent the purchaser or any account for which the purchaser is acquiring class E Notes is a private investment company formed before April 30, 1996, the purchaser or such account has received the necessary consent from its beneficial owners, (E) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Class E Notes for any account, each such account) agrees that it shall not hold such Class E Notes for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Class E Notes or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the dividends or other distributions on the Class E Notes (except when each such other Person is (a) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (b) a Qualified Purchaser) and (F) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Class E Notes to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph shall be null and void ab initio.

(7) The purchaser understands that the Class E Notes (A) will be represented by either one or more Class E Note certificates which will bear the legend substantially in the form set forth below unless the Issuer determines otherwise in accordance with applicable law, and (B) may only be resold, pledged or transferred to Qualified Institutional Buyers who are also (a) Qualified Purchasers or (b) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers. The purchaser understands that before the Class E Notes may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred, the transferee will be required to provide the Trustee and the Issuer with a written certification as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

THE NOTES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE “SECURITIES ACT”), AND THE ISSUER HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED (THE “INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT”). THE NOTES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED, EXCEPT (A) TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER (“QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER”) WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER (IN A TRANSACTION MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF RULE 144A SO LONG AS THE NOTES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR RESALE IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 144A) WHO IS ALSO (X) A QUALIFIED PURCHASER (“QUALIFIED PURCHASER”) WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 3(c)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT THAT WAS NOT FORMED FOR THE PURPOSE OF INVESTING IN THE ISSUER (EXCEPT WHEN EACH BENEFICIAL OWNER OF THE PURCHASER IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER) AND THAT HAS RECEIVED THE NECESSARY CONSENT FROM ITS BENEFICIAL OWNERS WHEN THE PURCHASER IS A PRIVATE INVESTMENT COMPANY FORMED ON OR BEFORE APRIL 30, 1996 OR (Y) AN ENTITY OWNED EXCLUSIVELY BY QUALIFIED PURCHASERS, (B) IN A PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF NOT LESS THAN U.S.$250,000 FOR THE PURCHASER AND FOR EACH ACCOUNT FOR WHICH IT IS ACTING AND (C) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER APPLICABLE JURISDICTION. EACH TRANSFEROR OF THE NOTES REPRESENTED HEREBY OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST THEREIN WILL PROVIDE NOTICE OF THE TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS AS SET FORTH HEREIN TO ITS PURCHASER. EACH PURCHASER OF THE NOTES REPRESENTED HEREBY WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE THE APPLICABLE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE INDENTURE. ANY TRANSFER IN VIOLATION OF THE FOREGOING WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT, WILL BE VOID AB INITIO, AND WILL NOT OPERATE TO TRANSFER ANY RIGHTS TO THE TRANSFEE, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRARY TO THE ISSUER, THE TRUSTEE OR ANY INTERMEDIARY. IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING, THE ISSUER MAINTAINS THE RIGHT TO RESELL ANY NOTES PREVIOUSLY TRANSFERRED TO NON-PERMITTED HOLDERS OR NON-PERMITTED BENEFIT PLAN INVESTORS (AS DEFINED IN THE INDENTURE) IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE INDENTURE.

THE FAILURE TO PROVIDE THE ISSUER AND ANY PAYING AGENT, WHENEVER REQUESTED BY THE ISSUER OR THE SERVICER ON BEHALF OF THE ISSUER, WITH THE APPLICABLE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CERTIFICATIONS (GENERALLY, AN INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-9 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS A “UNITED STATES PERSON” WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE OR AN APPROPRIATE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-8 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS NOT A “UNITED STATES PERSON” WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE) MAY RESULT IN THE IMPOSITION OF U.S. FEDERAL WITHHOLDING FROM PAYMENTS TO THE HOLDER IN RESPECT OF THE NOTES REPRESENTED HEREBY.

EACH TRANSFEREE WILL BE REQUIRED TO DELIVER A TRANSFEREE CERTIFICATE IN A FORM PRESCRIBED IN THE INDENTURE.

(8) The purchaser will provide notice to each Person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Class E Notes of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Indenture, including the exhibits referenced in the Indenture.

(9) The purchaser understands that the Indenture permits the Issuer to compel any Holder of the Class E Notes who is determined not to have been (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, at the time of acquisition of the Class E Notes to sell such Class E Notes, or to sell such Class E Notes on behalf of such purchaser, to a Person that is both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act.

(10) The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Class E Notes. The purchaser further acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit possession or distribution of the Offering Memorandum or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Securities in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the offering memorandum relating to the Class E Notes shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Class E Notes in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.

(11) The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Class E Notes, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase Class E Notes from any Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell such Class E Notes to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.

(12) The purchaser understands that the Stated Maturity of the Class E Notes is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of Securities at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.

(13) The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Class E Notes by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.

(14) The beneficial owner will agree to treat, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (a) the Preference Shares as equity of the Issuer, (b) the Notes as indebtedness of the Issuer and (c) the Issuer as a partnership (except to the extent the Issuer can no longer be treated as a partnership as a result of any election by the Issuer, changes in ownership of the Issuer or changes in the manner in which the equity of the Issuer is traded). The beneficial owner will be deemed to have acknowledged that the Issuer is not authorized to engage in activities that could cause it to constitute a finance or lending business for U.S. federal income tax purposes and agrees that it will report its investment in the Notes consistent with such limitation.

(15) The beneficial owner, if not a U.S. Person, either (i) is not a bank (within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code (as defined below in paragraph 23)) or (ii) is a person that is eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates United States federal income taxation of United States source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States. The beneficial owner is not purchasing the Class E Notes in order to reduce its United States federal income tax liability or pursuant to a tax avoidance plan.

(16) To the extent required, as determined by the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Trustee and the Indenture Registrar, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Class E Notes to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the U.S. Patriot Act) and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Class E Note to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.

(17) The purchaser agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.

(18) The purchaser is not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.

(19) The beneficial owner will agree to treat the Class E Notes as unconditional debt of the Issuer for tax, accounting and financial reporting purposes.

(20) The purchaser understands that, prior to any sale or other transfer of any interest in Class E Notes, it (or the transferee, as applicable) will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Trustee a duly executed transfer certificate substantially in the form provided in the Indenture and such other certificates and other information as they may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed transfer complies with the restrictions in the legend placed on each certificate representing the Class E Notes and in the Indenture.

(21) The purchaser understands that, to the extent required, as determined by the Co-Issuers, the Co-Issuers may amend the Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer only, the Preference Share Documents, without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities to (i) remove any restrictions and limitations imposed on the Co-Issuers or the Holders of the Securities that solely relate to compliance with Section 3(c)(7) and (ii) add any requirements that are necessary for compliance with Rule 3a-7 if, at any time following the Closing Date, the Co-Issuers elect to rely on exclusion from the definition of “investment company” under Rule 3a-7 in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7).

(22) The purchaser understands that the Issuer may enter into amendments or modifications to the Servicing Agreement without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities.

(23) The purchaser understands and agrees that no purchase or transfer of the Class E Notes to a purchaser or transferee that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person (each as defined under United States Department of Labor (“DOL”) Regulations, 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101) will be effective, and the Issuer or the Indenture Registrar will not recognize or register such purchase or transfer, if such purchase or transfer would result in (i) Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of Class E Notes (determined pursuant to 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101 and the Indenture) or (ii) a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”) or Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”) (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, a violation of any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law). The purchaser or transferee further understands and agrees that any transfer in violation of the applicable provisions of the Indenture will be null and void ab initio. For purposes of the determination described in clause (i) of the preceding sentence, the Class E Notes held by the Trustee, the Servicer, any of their respective affiliates (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)(3)) and any other persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons will be disregarded and will not be treated as outstanding unless such person is also a Benefit Plan Investor. The purchaser's acquisition, holding and disposition of the Class E Notes will not result in a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law), because such purchase, holding and disposition either (a) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws or (b) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all conditions of which are and will be been satisfied throughout its holding and disposition of such Class E Notes. The purchaser and any Person causing it to acquire the Class E Notes agree, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Placement Agents, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage, or loss incurred by them as a result of a breach of the representations set forth in this paragraph (23) and paragraph (24). If the purchaser is an insurance company investing through its general account as defined in PTCE 95-60, for so long as it holds the Class E Notes, such purchaser shall meet the requirements pertaining to the percentage of the assets of such insurance company general account that can be treated as plan assets for purposes of calculating the 25% threshold under the significant participation test of the Plan Asset Regulation (29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)).

(24) (a) The funds that the purchaser is using or will use to purchase the Class E Notes are___ / are not___ (check one) assets of a person who is or at any time while the Class E Notes are held by the purchaser will be (A) an "employee benefit plan" as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, whether or not such plan is subject to Title I of ERISA, including, without limitation, foreign, church and governmental plans, (B) a "plan" described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code or (C) an entity whose underlying assets would be deemed to include "plan assets" of either of the foregoing by reason of the investment by an employee benefit plan or other plan in the entity within the meaning of 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101 or otherwise (the plans and persons described in clauses (A), (B) and (C) being referred to as "Benefit Plan Investors"). For purposes of making this determination, foreign benefit plans, government or church plans, Keoghs and individual retirement accounts ("IRAs") are typically considered Benefit Plan Investors.

(b) The purchaser is___ / is not___ (check one) the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer or any other person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the assets of the Issuer, or any "affiliate" (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)(3)) of any such person (any such person, a "Controlling Person").

(25) The purchaser agrees to provide (and agrees it will cause any subsequent transferee of its Class E Notes to provide) the Indenture Registrar (1) appropriate documentation required under the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations establishing that the beneficial owner of the Class E Notes is either a non-U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-8BEN or an IRS Form W-8IMY with appropriate attachments) or a U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-9) and (2) if such beneficial owner is treated as a partnership, S-corporation or grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a written representation from such beneficial owner that (i) there will not be any interests in such beneficial owner where substantially all of the value of such interest is attributable to the value of the Class E Notes proposed to be transferred to such beneficial owner, together with the value of any Class E Notes, Holding Preference Shares and Preference Shares already held by such beneficial owner and (ii) such beneficial owner is not a part of any arrangement a principal purpose of which is to cause the Class E Notes and Preference Shares to be treated as owned by 100 persons or less within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h). The purchaser agrees to provide a properly completed, newly executed U.S. tax form and other certificate in each of the following circumstances: (i) no later than 120 days prior to the expiration (if applicable) of the last previously provided U.S. tax form or certificate, (ii) upon any change of circumstance that would cause that the last previously provided U.S. tax form or certificate to be incorrect and (iii) upon a request by the Issuer or the Indenture Registrar. The purchaser agrees that if it fails to provide a properly completed, newly executed U.S. tax form or other certificate no later than 120 days prior to the expiration of the last previously provided U.S. tax form or, if earlier, within the time specified in any request by the Issuer or the Indenture Registrar (which shall not be less than 30 days), the Issuer will have the unconditional right to cause such purchaser to sell any and all Class E Notes to the Issuer or to a person chosen by the Issuer or the Issuer's agent on such terms as the Issuer may choose. For this purpose, an IRS Form W-8IMY (or any successor form thereto) will be deemed to expire upon the expiration of any withholding statement or U.S. tax forms associated with such IRS Form W-8IMY.

(26) The purchaser understands and agrees that the Issuer will not recognize any transfers of Class E Notes if the proposed transfer will cause the Issuer to have more than ninety-nine beneficial owners (as determined for purposes of the provisions of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h)) of its Class E Notes and Preference Shares unless it receives the consent of all of the Holders of the Preference Shares and an opinion of counsel to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such transfer, and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such transfer had not been made.

(27) The purchaser represents that it has not acquired the Class E Notes pursuant to a trade on an "established securities market" and agrees that it will not trade any Class E Notes on an "established securities market." For this purpose, the term "established securities market" includes any national securities exchange registered under Section 6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or exempted from registration because of the limited volume of transaction; any foreign securities exchange that, under the laws of the jurisdiction where it is organized, satisfies regulatory requirements that are analogous to the regulatory requirements imposed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; any regional or local exchange; and any interdealer quotation system that regularly disseminates firm buy or sell quotations by identified brokers or dealers, by electronic means or otherwise. The purchaser understands and agrees that in the event that the purchaser acquires or trades the Class E Notes on an established securities market, as described above, the Issuer will not recognize any transfers of Class E Notes made pursuant to such acquisition or trade.

(28) The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer, the Servicer, the Placement Agents and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Class E Notes are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Issuer, the Servicer and the Placement Agents. If the purchaser is acquiring any Class E Notes as a fiduciary or agent for one or more institutional accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Preference Shares

Each initial purchaser of Preference Shares acquiring such Preference Shares from the Issuer in the initial offering will be required to enter into a Subscription Agreement with the Issuer pursuant to which each such initial purchaser will be required to represent and agree (and each subsequent transferee will be required to represent and agree), on its own behalf, or if the purchaser is acquiring the Preference Shares for any account, on behalf of each such account, in each case as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Rule 144A are used herein as defined therein):

(1) The purchaser is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is aware that the sale of Preference Shares to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements provided by Section 4(2) and is acquiring the Preference Shares for its own account or for one or more accounts, each of which is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and as to each of which the purchaser exercises sole investment discretion, and in a number not less than the minimum lot for the purchaser and each such account. In addition, the purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Preference Shares, and the purchaser, and any accounts for which it is acting, are each able to bear the economic risk of the purchaser's or its investment.

(2) The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Preference Shares have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and, if in the future the purchaser decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Preference Shares, such Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with the legend in respect of such Preference Shares set forth in (7) below and the restrictions set forth in the Preference Share Documents. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Issuer, the Servicer or the Placement Agents or any of their respective Affiliates as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any jurisdiction for resale of the Preference Shares.

(3) The purchaser agrees that it will not offer or sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of the Preference Shares or any interest therein except (i) pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws or the applicable laws of any other jurisdiction and (ii) in accordance with the Preference Share Documents, to which provisions the purchaser agrees it is subject.

(4) The purchaser is not purchasing the Preference Shares with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares will be highly illiquid and are not suitable for short-term trading. The Preference Shares are a leveraged investment in the Collateral Obligations that may expose the Preference Shares to disproportionately large changes in value. Payments in respect of the Preference Shares are not guaranteed as they are dependent on the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations. The purchaser understands that it is possible that, due to the structure of the transaction and the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations, dividends or other distributions in respect of the Preference Shares may be reduced or eliminated entirely. Furthermore, the Preference Shares constitute equity in the Issuer, are not secured by the Collateral and will rank behind all creditors (secured and unsecured and whether known or unknown) of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the Holders of the Notes, and any Hedge Counterparties. The Issuer has assets limited to the Collateral for payment of all Classes of the Notes and dividends and other distributions on the Preference Shares, and the Preference Shares bear, pro rata, the first risk of loss. The purchaser understands that an investment in the Preference Shares involves certain risks, including the risk of loss of all or a substantial part of its investment. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Issuer, the Preference Shares and the Collateral as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Preference Shares, including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Issuer and the Placement Agents.

(5) In connection with the purchase of Preference Shares (provided that no such representation is made with respect to the Servicer by any Affiliate of or account serviced by the Servicer): (i) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment adviser for the purchaser, (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates other than in the Offering Memorandum for such Preference Shares and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other Person or documentation for the Preference Shares) any assurance, guarantee, or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence, or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting, or otherwise) of the Preference Shares or an investment therein; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the documentation for the Preference Shares) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Preference Shares reflect those in relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) if the purchaser is acting for the account of another investor, the purchaser represents that the investment on behalf of such account is based on a determination that the investment is suitable based on the risks referred to in this Offering Memorandum (including, without limitation, the "Risk Factors" and the "Transfer Restrictions Applicable to the Preference Shares"), given the investment objectives of the account for which the purchase is being made, and that the investment is consistent with any applicable legal requirements; (vii) the purchaser is purchasing the Preference Shares with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and it is capable of assuming and willing to assume (financially and otherwise) those risks; and (viii) the purchaser is a sophisticated investor.

(6) (A) The purchaser and each account for which the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares is (a) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (b) (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, (B) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) is acquiring the Preference Shares as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (C) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Preference Shares (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (D) to the extent the purchaser or any account for which the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares is a private investment company formed before April 30, 1996, the purchaser or such account has received the necessary consent from its beneficial owners, (E) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) agrees that it shall not hold such Preference Shares for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Preference Shares or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the dividends or other distributions on the Preference Shares (except when each such other Person is (a) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (b) a Qualified Purchaser) and (F) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Preference Shares to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph shall be null and void ab initio.

(7) The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares (A) will be represented by either one or more Preference Share certificates which will bear the legend substantially in the form set forth below unless the Issuer determines otherwise in accordance with applicable law, and (B) may only be resold, pledged or transferred to Qualified Institutional Buyers who are also (a) Qualified Purchasers or (b) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers. The purchaser understands that before the Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred, the transferee will be required to provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Issuer with a written certification as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.
