AVAILABLE INFORMATION

To permit compliance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act for transfers of the Preferred Shares, the Issuer will make available to investors and prospective investors in the Preferred Shares who request such information, the information required to be delivered under Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act, if at the time of the request the Issuer is not a reporting company under Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), or is not exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act. The Issuer does not expect to become such a reporting company or to be so exempt from reporting.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS

An investment in the Preferred Shares may be affected by the following factors, as well as the factors described under "Special Considerations" in the Note Offering Circular. In order to fully understand the structure and characteristics of the Preferred Shares, and the potential merits and risks of an investment in the Preferred Shares, potential investors must review and be familiar with the Note Offering Circular, which is attached hereto and incorporated herein as an integral part hereof, as well as the Indenture to be dated as of the Closing Date between the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and Investors Bank & Trust Company, as trustee (the "Indenture"). In particular the Note Offering Circular contains a description of the related Portfolio Collateral, the priority of distributions on the Notes and the Preferred Shares.

1. Limited Cash Flow Available to the Issuer. The Issuer has pledged substantially all of its assets to secure the Notes. Such assets will only be available to the Issuer to make payments on the Preferred Shares as and when released from the lien of the Indenture. Although the scheduled payments of principal and interest on the Portfolio Collateral are expected to exceed the amounts required to pay principal of and interest due on the Notes, failure to satisfy any of the Overcollateralization Tests, the Interest Coverage Test (after the second Payment Date) or the application of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement (after the second Payment Date) may result in temporary or permanent diversion of all or a portion of the amounts otherwise payable to the Issuer as Excess Cash Flow (as defined under "Description of the Preferred Shares—Distributions" herein). Furthermore, there can be no assurance that payments of principal of and interest on, and other proceeds from, the Portfolio Collateral and the other collateral making up the Trust Estate will continue to exceed required fees and expenses and payments of principal and interest on the Notes and be sufficient to provide Excess Cash Flow. The amount and frequency of distributions of Excess Cash Flow to the Issuer will depend on, among other things: (i) the purchase rate in respect of new Portfolio Collateral, (ii) the level of LIBOR, (iii) returns with respect to Eligible Investments in which funds held in the accounts of the Issuer may be temporarily held, (iv) the extent to which the Portfolio Collateral pledged to secure the Notes becomes Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, is subject to scheduled payments of principal, or is retired prior to the stated maturity of the Notes through mandatory or optional redemption, sale, maturity or other liquidation or disposition and (v) the extent to which Substitute Portfolio Collateral is available for purchase in accordance with the criteria described herein. See "Description of the Notes" in the Note Offering Circular. Such Excess Cash Flow would constitute the only assets available to the Issuer as a source for payment of amounts payable in respect of the Preferred Shares prior to the payment in full of the Notes.

2. Subordination of the Preferred Shares. Distributions on the Preferred Shares (other than the Class II Preferred Share Base Dividend) are fully subordinated to payments on the Notes and to payment of the Trustee Administrative Expenses, Preferred Shares Administrative Expenses, Issuer Base Administrative Expenses, Issuer Excess Administrative Expenses and the amounts owing to the Servicer, each as described more fully herein and in the Note Offering Circular. No distributions of Excess Cash Flow will be made to the Issuer on any Payment Date for distribution to holders of Preferred Shares until all senior obligations due on such date have been paid in full. See "Description of the Notes—Payment on the Notes; Priority of Distributions" in the Note Offering Circular. In addition, in case of an Event of Default under the Indenture, as long as any Notes are outstanding, the holders of such Notes will be entitled to determine the remedies to be exercised under the Indenture. Remedies pursued by the holders of Notes would likely adversely affect the interests of holders of Preferred Shares. On a winding up of the Issuer, holders of the Preferred Shares will rank after all creditors, secured and unsecured, of the Issuer and the holders of ordinary shares. In addition, Class II Preferred Share Dividends, which are generally senior to other payments by the Issuer, will be paid to the Holders of the Class II Preferred Shares.

3. Equity Status of the Preferred Shares. The Preferred Shares are equity in the Issuer and are not secured by the Portfolio Collateral or any other Collateral securing the Notes. As such, the Holders of the Preferred Shares will rank behind all of the creditors, whether secured or unsecured and known or unknown, of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the Holders of the Notes and the Servicer. No person or entity other than the Issuer will be required to make any distributions on the Preferred Shares. Except with respect to the obligations of the Issuer to make payments pursuant to the priority of payments set forth in the Indenture and more fully described in the Note Offering Circular, the Issuer does not expect to have any creditors. Any amounts paid by the Paying and Transfer Agent as dividends or other distributions on the Preferred Shares in accordance with the priority of payments set forth in the Indenture and more fully described in the Note Offering Circular will be payable only to the extent of the Issuer's distributable profits and/or share premium determined in accordance with Cayman Islands law. In addition, such distributions will be payable only to the extent that the Issuer is solvent on the applicable Payment Date and the Issuer will not be insolvent after such distributions are paid. Under Cayman Islands law, a company is generally deemed to be solvent if it is able to pay its debts as they fall due.

To the extent the requirements under Cayman Islands law described in the preceding paragraph are not met, amounts otherwise payable to the Holders of the Preferred Shares will be retained in an account with the Paying and Transfer Agent (the "Preferred Shares Collection Account") until, in the case of any payment by way of dividend, the next succeeding Payment Date or (in the case of any payment which would otherwise be payable on a redemption date of the Preferred Shares) the next succeeding Business Day on which the Issuer notifies the Paying and Transfer Agent that such requirements are met and, in the case of any payment on redemption of the Preferred Shares, the next succeeding Business Day on which the Issuer notifies the Paying and Transfer Agent that such requirements are met. Amounts on deposit in the Preferred Shares Collection Account will not be available to pay amounts due to the Holders of the Notes, the Trustee or any other creditor of the Issuer whose claim is limited in recourse to the Portfolio Collateral. However, amounts on deposit in the Preferred Shares Collection Account may be subject to the claims of creditors of the Issuer that have not contractually limited their recourse to the Portfolio Collateral. The Indenture and the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement will limit the Issuer's activities to the issuance and sale of the Notes, the Preferred Shares and ordinary shares, the acquisition and disposition of the Portfolio Collateral, the acquisition and disposition of the Eligible Investments and the other activities related to the issuance and the sale of the Notes and the Preferred Shares described under "The Issuer" herein. The Issuer does not expect to have any significant full recourse liabilities that would be payable out of amounts on deposit in the Preferred Shares Collection Account.

4. Restrictions on Transfer. The Preferred Shares have not been registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or under any U.S. state securities or "Blue Sky" laws or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and are being issued and sold in reliance upon exemptions from registration provided by such laws. The Preferred Shares are extremely illiquid. There is no market for the Preferred Shares offered hereby (and none is likely to develop) and, as a result, a holder of the Preferred Shares may find it difficult or uneconomic to liquidate its investment at any particular time. In addition, there are restrictions on transfer of the Preferred Shares. See "Description of the Preferred Shares—Restrictions on Transfer" herein.

5. The Issuer. The Issuer was formed on April 12, 2006 and has no significant prior operating history. The Issuer has no significant assets other than the Trust Estate. The Issuer will not engage in any business activity other than the co-issuance of the Notes (other than the Class B-2L Notes) and the issuance of the Combination Notes, the Preferred Shares and the ordinary shares as described herein, the acquisition and disposition of Portfolio Collateral as described herein and in the Note Offering Circular, certain activities conducted in connection with the payment of amounts in respect of the Notes, the Combination Notes and the Preferred Shares and other activities incidental to the foregoing. Income derived from the Trust Estate will be the Issuer's principal source of cash. The Issuer is an exempted limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands. Because the Issuer is a Cayman Islands company and its directors may reside in the Cayman Islands, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process within the United States on such persons or to enforce against them or against the Issuer in United States courts judgments predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the United States securities laws. None of the directors, security holders, members, officers or incorporators of the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, the Trustee, any of their respective affiliates or any other person or entity (other than the Issuer) will be obligated to make payments on the Notes, the Combination Notes or the Preferred Shares.

6. Potential Conflicts of Interest. It is expected that Highland Financial Partners, L.P. or an affiliate or subsidiary thereof ("HFP") will purchase approximately 13,450,000 Class I Preferred Shares and 44,000,000 Class II Preferred Shares of the Issuer on the Closing Date, representing approximately 67% of the total Preferred Shares outstanding (the "Original HFP Share Amount"). In addition, the Servicer, entities affiliated with the Servicer or clients of the Servicer (collectively, the "Servicer Entities") may also acquire Notes or Preferred Shares upon the occurrence of an Amendment Buy-Out, a Maturity Extension or an Optional Redemption by Refinancing as described herein. The interests of the Holders of the Preferred Shares that are Servicer Entities, or any other Notes owned by the Servicer Entities, may be different from or adverse to the interests of the Holders of the other Notes and Preferred Shares. As the result of the ownership of Preferred Shares and Notes by the Servicer Entities, and the ability to vote the Preferred Shares and the Notes owned by the Servicer Entities up to a maximum amount equal to the Original HFP Share Amount, the affirmative vote or approval of the Preferred Shares owned by such Servicer Entities, may be required in order to cause an Optional Redemption or a Tax Event Redemption of the Notes. Preferred Shares owned or controlled by the Servicer Entities above the Original HFP Share Amount will be excluded from voting on certain matters including any Optional Redemption.

In addition to the Base Servicing Fee, the Servicer is entitled to receive an Additional Servicing Fee and an Supplemental Servicing Fee (if any) after all other distributions (other than certain distributions with respect to the Preferred Shares and certain administrative expenses) are made, which is dependent in large part on the performance of the securities purchased by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer. This could create an inducement for the Servicer to service the Issuer's assets in such a manner as to seek to maximize the return on such securities. This could result in increasing the volatility of the Portfolio Collateral and could contribute to a decline in the aggregate value of the Portfolio Collateral. However, the Servicer's servicing of the Issuer's assets is restricted by the requirement that it comply with the restrictions described in "Security for the Notes" and by its internal policies with respect to the management of securities accounts.

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall activity of the Servicer, its affiliates and their respective clients. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

Certain Holders of the Notes and certain Holders of the Preferred Shares may be clients of the Servicer or one of its affiliates. Certain clients of the Servicer and its affiliates may invest in securities that would be appropriate for inclusion in the Trust Estate. Further, the Servicer currently serves and may in the future serve as servicer, collateral manager or the equivalent for other issuers of collateralized debt obligations, including collateralized debt obligation vehicles having objectives similar to those of the Issuer. The Servicer and its affiliates may make asset management decisions for its clients and affiliates that may be different from those made by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer. The Servicer and its affiliates may also have ongoing relationships with, and may own or invest assets of their clients in, equity securities issued by issuers of Portfolio Collateral. In addition, affiliates and clients of the Servicer may invest in securities that are senior to, or have interests different from or adverse to, the securities included in the Trust Estate. An affiliate of the Servicer may earn fees with respect to financial advisory services rendered to companies in connection with workouts or the subsequent restructuring of such companies. Such fees and advice may continue for a period of time after any such workout or restructure. The Issuer may own an interest in the securities of such companies.

The Amendment Buy-Out will increase the ability of the Servicer to affect or influence the amendment process under the Indenture and will limit any Holder's ability to vote against an amendment or affect or influence the amendment process with respect to the Indenture.

If the Servicer elects to extend the Revolving Period and the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Holders of the Notes and the Preferred Shares may either be required to hold their Notes and Preferred Shares for a significantly longer period of time or be forced to sell their Notes and Preferred Shares for the applicable purchase price under the Indenture, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Notes and Preferred Shares.

In addition, at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Holders of a Majority of the Preferred Shares may consent to or request an Optional Redemption by Refinancing. So long as HFP and/or its subsidiaries hold a controlling block of Preferred Shares, their vote will be required for such Optional Redemption. Consequentially, the Holders of the Class II Preferred Shares could prevent Holders of the Class I Preferred Shares from achieving any such Optional Redemption by Refinancing.

In addition to acting as Servicer to the Issuer, Highland Capital Management L.P. will act as manager for HFP, which will, on the Closing Date, purchase all of the Class II Preferred Shares and 32% of the Class I Preferred Shares. Because Highland Capital Management will receive both a servicing fee from the Issuer for servicing the Portfolio Collateral and a management fee from HFP for managing HFP's assets, which will include the Preferred Shares (and therefor a residual interest in the Portfolio Collateral), Highland Capital Management has agreed, in connection with the capital raising of HFP, to waive a portion of its servicing fees from the Issuer until February 3, 2008 so as not to reduce the return on investment realized by HFP in respect of the Class II Preferred Shares. Thereafter Highland Capital Management may at its discretion continue to waive such portion of its servicing fees or may elect to receive such servicing fees in their entirety. Accordingly, during the period from the Closing Date until February 3, 2008, a portion (representing the percentage ownership of the Preferred Shares represented by the Class II Preferred Shares, which will initially be owned entirely by HFP) of the amounts that would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as a servicing fee will instead be payable on the Class II Preferred Shares as the Class II Preferred Share Dividends in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Thereafter, the Servicer may elect to continue to waive such same portion of the amounts that would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as a servicing fee, or any lesser portion of such amounts, and have such amounts be paid instead as the Class II Preferred Share Dividends. The Class II Preferred Shares and the Class I Preferred Shares will vote together as a single class and the existence of the Class II Preferred Share Dividends may cause HFP to have interests different from the holders of the Class I Preferred Shares.

For a further description of certain conflicts of interest with respect to the Servicer, Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., and their respective affiliates and clients, see "Special Considerations—Potential Conflicts of Interest" in the Note Offering Circular.

7. Certain Tax Considerations. Investors in the Preferred Shares should review carefully the tax considerations set forth in "Certain Tax Considerations" and "Cayman Islands Taxation" herein.

8. Certain ERISA Considerations. Investors in the Preferred Shares should review carefully the ERISA considerations set forth in "Certain ERISA Considerations" herein.

9. Servicer Affiliates Reliance of Rule 3a-7; Potential Indenture Amendments. HFP will, on the Closing Date, purchase all of the Class II Preferred Shares and 32% of the Class I Preferred Shares. The Servicer will act as the manager for HFP. HFP and Highland Financial Trust, the owner of substantially all of the limited partnership interests of HFP, are relying on an exception from the definition of investment company and the requirement to register under the Investment Company Act that in turn depends, in part, upon the Issuer not being an investment company required to register under the Investment Company Act by reason of Rule 3a-7 thereunder. It is expected that, in connection with certain capital raising activities of Highland Financial Trust, the SEC may consider the applicability of Rule 3a-7 to the Issuer. If it were determined that the Issuer cannot rely on Rule 3a-7, the Servicer may cause the Issuer to amend the Indenture without the consent of the Holders of the Notes and without the consent of the Holders of the Preferred Shares to enable the Issuer to rely on Rule 3a-7, which could require additional limitations and prohibitions on the circumstances under which the Issuer may sell assets, on the type of assets that the Issuer may acquire out of the proceeds of assets that mature, are refinanced or otherwise sold, on the period during which such transactions may occur, on the level of transactions that may occur or on other provisions of the Indenture and could adversely affect the earnings of the Issuer and its ability to make payments on the Notes and distributions to the Preferred Shares. As a condition to the effectiveness of any such amendment to the Indenture, the Issuer, the Trustee and the Initial Purchaser will (i) satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to such amendment and (ii) receive a customary, unqualified opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such amendment and assuming compliance with the Indenture as so amended, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act. Such nationally recognized law firm may also be acting as counsel to the Servicer, certain Holders of Notes and/or Preferred Shares. The interests of any such parties may not coincide with the interest of other Holders of Notes and/or Preferred Shares. See "Legal Structure—The Indenture—Modification of Indenture" in the Note Offering Circular.

10. Legislation and Regulations In Connection With the Prevention of Money Laundering. The Uniting and Strengthening America By Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the "USA PATRIOT Act"), signed into law on and effective as of October 26, 2001, imposes anti-money laundering obligations on different types of financial institutions, including banks, broker-dealers and investment companies. The USA PATRIOT Act requires the Secretary of the United States Department of the Treasury (the "Treasury") to prescribe regulations to define the types of investment companies subject to the USA PATRIOT Act and the related anti-money laundering obligations. It is not clear whether the Treasury will require entities such as the Issuer to enact anti-money laundering policies. It is possible that the Treasury will promulgate regulations requiring the Co-Issuers or the Initial Purchaser or other service providers to the Co-Issuers, in connection with the establishment of anti-money laundering procedures, to share information with governmental authorities with respect to investors in the Notes and/or the Preferred Shares. Such legislation and/or regulations could require the Co-Issuers to implement additional restrictions on the transfer of the Notes and/or the Preferred Shares. As may be required, the Issuer reserves the right to request such information and take such actions as are necessary to enable it to comply with the USA PATRIOT Act.

11. Emerging Requirements of the European Union. As part of the harmonization of transparency requirements, the European Commission is scheduled to adopt a directive known as the Transparency Obligations Directive that, among other things, will regulate issuers of securities that are offered to the public or admitted to trading on a European Union regulated market. The listing of the Preferred Shares on any European Union stock exchange would subject the Issuer to regulation under this directive, although the requirements applicable to the Issuer are not yet fully clarified. The Indenture will not require the Issuer to apply for, list or maintain a listing for any Class of Notes or the Preferred Shares on a European Union stock exchange if compliance with this directive (or other requirements adopted by the European Commission or a relevant member state) becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Servicer. Should the Preferred Shares be delisted from any exchange, the ability of the holders of such Preferred Shares to sell such Preferred Shares in the secondary market may be negatively affected.

12. Tax Matters. By its acceptance of a Preferred Share, each Holder and beneficial owner of a Preferred Share that is a Non-U.S. Holder shall be deemed have represented that it is not purchasing its Preferred Shares in order to reduce its United States federal income tax liability pursuant to a tax avoidance plan within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.881-3(b), and each Holder and beneficial owner of a Preferred Share shall be deemed to have agreed (a) to treat the Issuer as a non-U.S. corporation, treat the Preferred Shares as equity in the Issuer, and treat the Notes as indebtedness of the Issuer and to take no action inconsistent with such treatment; (b) to timely furnish the Issuer or its agents any United States federal income tax form or certification (such as IRS Form W-8BEN, Form W-8IMY, Form W-8ECI or Form W-9 or any successors to such forms) that the Issuer or its agents may reasonably request and to update or replace such Form on or before the date that the most recently provided Form expires or becomes obsolete, or upon the occurrence of any event requiring an amendment or change to the most recently provided Form; (c) to provide the Issuer, upon request, with such information as may reasonably be requested by the Issuer (including but not limited to information relating to the beneficial owner of the Preferred Share) in connection with the Issuer's fulfillment of its tax reporting, notification, withholding and similar obligations arising under the Code (as amended from time to time) or the Transaction Documents; and (d) not to treat the Issuer as being engaged in the active conduct of a banking, financing, insurance, or other similar business for purposes of Section 954(h)(2) of the Code.

THE ISSUER

The issuer of the Preferred Shares is Rockwall CDO II Ltd., an exempted limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the "Issuer"). The Issuer has been established to acquire a diversified portfolio of commercial loans (and participations therein) and to a limited extent, high yield debt obligations and synthetic securities, as more fully described in the Note Offering Circular. See "Security for the Notes" in the Note Offering Circular. The Issuer's authorized share capital is U.S.$350,250 and consists of 250 ordinary shares of U.S.$1.00 par each, 175,000,000 Class I Preferred Shares of U.S.$0.001 par each and 175,000,000 Class II Preferred Shares of U.S.$0.001 par each. The activities of the Issuer will be limited to (i) the issuance of the Preferred Shares and its ordinary shares, (ii) the issuance of the Notes and the Combination Notes, which Notes will be secured by the Portfolio Collateral and certain other assets pledged by the Issuer under the Indenture, (iii) the acquisition of the Portfolio Collateral and other assets permitted by the Indenture among the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and Investors Bank & Trust Company, as trustee and as securities intermediary, (iv) the ownership of 100% of the capital stock of the Co-Issuer, and (v) other activities incidental to the foregoing and permitted by the Indenture. For a more complete discussion of the Issuer, see "The Issuer and the Co-Issuer" in the Note Offering Circular.

A portion of the Class I Preferred Shares will be sold on the Closing Date as part of the Combination Notes (the "Combination Notes") of the Issuer. The Combination Notes will consist of two components: (i) the Note Component having an aggregate initial principal amount of $6,750,000 Class B-1L Notes and (ii) the Preferred Share Component representing 3,250,000 Class I Preferred Shares. The Combination Notes represent an ownership interest in such Class B-1L Notes and such Class I Preferred Shares and do not represent an additional obligation of the Issuer. The Combination Notes will represent a stapled security comprising two components which are not separately transferable; however, a holder may exchange its Combination Notes for the corresponding interests in the component securities. The holders of the Combination Notes will be treated for all purposes under the Indenture and the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement as holders of the corresponding Class B-1L Notes and Class I Preferred Shares. The Combination Notes are not offered hereby.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PREFERRED SHARES

General

The Issuer will issue 42,200,000 Class I Preferred Shares, par value U.S. $0.001 per share (the "Class I Preferred Shares") and 44,000,000 Class II Preferred Shares, par value U.S. $0.001 per share (the "Class II Preferred Shares" and, together with the Class I Preferred Shares, the "Preferred Shares"). The Preferred Shares will be entitled to all distributions made from the Portfolio Collateral after payment of all prior amounts in accordance with the priority of payments set out in the Indenture and more fully described in the Note Offering Circular.

The Issuer will appoint an off-shore Paying and Transfer Agent (in addition to and not in lieu of Investors Bank & Trust Company) if requested by at least 33-2/3% of the Preferred Shares, the cost of such agent to be borne by the Issuer. There can be no assurance that any investor requesting payment from an off-shore paying agent will receive payments on the same day that they would have had the payments been made by Investors Bank & Trust Company.

The Preferred Shares will be issued pursuant to the Articles of Association of the Issuer (the "Articles") and certain resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Issuer passed on or prior to the issue of the Preferred Shares as memorialized in the board minutes relating thereto (the "Resolutions") and distributions made thereon will be made pursuant to the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, to be dated as of the Closing Date (the "Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement"), between the Issuer and Investors Bank & Trust Company, as the Paying and Transfer Agent thereunder (in such capacity, the "Paying Agent"). The Notes will be issued pursuant to the Indenture.

The assets of the Issuer are expected to be limited to the Portfolio Collateral having the characteristics described in the Note Offering Circular under "Security for the Notes" and the Trust Estate described therein, all of which, pursuant to the Indenture, will be pledged to secure the Notes. The Preferred Shares are entitled to receive distributions only to the extent monies are released therefor from the lien of the Indenture, as described herein and in the Note Offering Circular, and distributions are only payable out of profits of the Issuer and/or its share premium, being the difference between the issue price for the shares and their par value, and to the extent that the Issuer is able to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business immediately following such payments.

Form and Denomination

Except with respect to Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., the minimum number of Preferred Shares that may be purchased or transferred will be 200,000 and integral multiples of 1 share in excess thereof.

Upon issuance, the Preferred Shares sold to Non-U.S. Persons (as defined in Regulation S) under the Securities Act (each, a "Non-U.S. Person") that are also Qualified Institutional Buyers in Offshore Transactions (as defined in Regulation S) in reliance on Regulation S, initially will be represented by one or more permanent physical share certificates in fully registered definitive form (each a "Global Preferred Share"), which will be deposited with a common depository on behalf of Euroclear Bank S.A./N.V., as operator of The Euroclear System ("Euroclear") and Clearstream Banking, société anonyme ("Clearstream").

Subject to the receipt by the Paying Agent of a certificate in the form similar to the one provided by the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement from the person holding such interest, a beneficial interest in each Global Preferred Share may be transferred prior to the expiration of a one-year period beginning on the later of the Closing Date or on the day on which the offer of the Preferred Shares is completed (the "Distribution Compliance Period"), only to (i) a Non-U.S. Person who certifies that it is not a U.S. Person and is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is not acquiring an interest in the Global Preferred Share for the account or benefit of any U.S. Person or (ii) after the Distribution Compliance Period, to a U.S. Person who certifies that it is a qualified institutional buyer (a "Qualified Institutional Buyer") as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act, and in each case only to a purchaser who is also a "qualified purchaser" or "knowledgeable employee" within the meaning of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act, but only if such purchaser takes in the form of a Restricted Preferred Share (as defined below) registered in the name of such person.

Subject to the receipt by the Paying Agent of a certificate in the form similar to the one provided by the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement from the person holding such interest, a holder of a Restricted Preferred Share (as such term is defined below) who is a U.S. Person may at any time transfer its interest in such Preferred Share only (a) to a Non-U.S. Person pursuant to Regulation S who is also a "qualified institutional buyer" within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act or (b) to a "qualified institutional buyer" within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act, in each case in transactions not requiring registration under the Securities Act, and in the case of clause (b), only to a transferee who is also a "qualified purchaser" or "knowledgeable employee" within the meaning of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act.

Upon deposit of the Global Preferred Share with the common depository, Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, will credit each purchaser (or its agent or custodian) with the number of Preferred Shares for which it has paid. The holder of the Global Preferred Share will be the only entity entitled to receive payments in respect of the Preferred Shares represented by such Global Preferred Share, and the obligations of the Issuer will be discharged by payment to, or to the order of, the holder of such Global Preferred Shares in respect of each amount so paid. Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear as the holder of Global Preferred Shares must look solely to Euroclear, for its share of each payment so made by the Issuer to, or to the order of, the holder of such Global Preferred Shares. No person other than the holder of the Global Preferred Shares shall have any claim against the Issuer in respect of any payments due on the Global Preferred Shares.

Payments on the Global Preferred Shares will be made pursuant to certain procedures established between the Paying Agent, the common depository, Euroclear and Clearstream, as the case may be. All such payments will be made by wire transfer to a United States dollar account maintained by such holder with a bank outside the United States.

Global Preferred Shares will, for purposes of trading within Euroclear and Clearstream, have a notional issue price equal to U.S. $1 for each Preferred Share.

Definitive Preferred Share certificates, in fully registered form ("Definitive Preferred Shares") will be issued and exchanged for each Global Preferred Share within 30 days of the occurrence of any of the following: (i) either Euroclear or Clearstream is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holiday, statutory or otherwise) or announces an intention permanently to cease business and no alternative clearance system satisfactory to the Paying Agent is available, (ii) as a result of any amendment to, or change in, the laws or regulations of Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which becomes effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or the Paying Agent are or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Preferred Shares which would not be required were the Preferred Shares in definitive registered form, or (iii) the Issuer so elects by notice to the Preferred Shareholders in accordance with the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement and Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, does not object.

The Preferred Shares sold in the United States to Qualified Institutional Buyers who are U.S. Persons will be represented, on issue, by definitive fully registered Preferred Share certificates bearing the appropriate legend ("Restricted Preferred Shares").

Payments on the Definitive Preferred Shares and Restricted Preferred Shares will be made pursuant to certain procedures established by the Paying Agent. All such payments on such Preferred Shares will be made by wire transfer to a United States dollar account maintained by such holder.

Under the terms of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, the Paying Agent will be the initial paying agent with respect to the Preferred Shares. The Issuer may not appoint a paying agent with respect to the Preferred Shares within the United States. Payments of dividends on the Preferred Shares and redemption payments will be made from funds available in the Collection Account and released to the Paying Agent by the Trustee under the Indenture and will only be payable if the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium. All interest and principal payments on the Portfolio Collateral will be deposited directly into the Collection Account and, together with any income thereon, will be available for payments first to certain expenses and the Notes and then to the Preferred Shares to the extent that the Issuer is and remains solvent after such payments are made. Under Cayman Islands law, a company is generally deemed to be solvent if it is able to pay its debts as they fall due.

Status of Preferred Shares

The Preferred Shares are part of the share capital of the Issuer and, as such, their entitlement is limited to the assets of the Issuer after payment of all liabilities ranking ahead of them according to the Articles and at law.

The Articles, in conjunction with the Resolutions, provide for payments of dividends and capital on redemption of the Preferred Shares and any payments on liquidation of the Issuer to rank after payments due on the Notes (other than certain amounts constituting the Class II Preferred Share Base Dividend which will be senior to payments on the Notes), and, except as described in the Note Offering Circular under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions," after the payment of fees and expenses.

The Preferred Shares are entitled to receive the Excess Cash Flow, and in the case of the Class II Preferred Shares, the Class II Preferred Share Dividend. As a matter of Cayman Islands law, on a liquidation of the Issuer, the holders of the Preferred Shares will rank after all other creditors, both secured and unsecured, of the Issuer and holders of the ordinary shares.

Distributions

On each Payment Date and on the Final Maturity Date, the Paying Agent, on behalf of the holders of the Preferred Shares, will be entitled to receive from the Trustee (for payment to the holders of the Preferred Shares as a dividend or, on the Final Maturity Date, to redeem the Preferred Shares pursuant to the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement and in accordance with the Articles) all cash remaining after payment by the Trustee of all distributions which take priority over payments to the Holders of the Preferred Shares (such distributions including any Class II Preferred Share Base Dividend and Class II Preferred Shares Additional Dividend) described in detail in the Note Offering Circular under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions," if any, from the Collection Account (such remaining cash, if any, the "Excess Cash Flow").

Priority of Distributions

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will be entitled to receive any Excess Cash Flow as described in detail in the Secured Note Offering Circular under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions." Excess Cash Flow attributable to the Adjusted Collateral Interest Collections shall be distributed, in part, as follows:

(i) if the Internal Rate of Return of the Preferred Shares as of such Payment Date is less than 12%, to the pari passu payment to the Holders of all of the Preferred Shares, but only up to an amount that would cause the Internal Rate of Return of the Preferred Shares to equal 12%; and

(ii) any remaining amounts, (a) 20% to (x) the payment of the Supplemental Servicing Fee for such Payment Date, and (y) the Holders of the Class II Preferred Shares in accordance with the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, the Class II Preferred Share Supplemental Dividend then due and unpaid, and (b) 80% to the Holders of the Preferred Shares in accordance with the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, as a dividend thereon or as a redemption payment on the Redemption Date, as applicable.

Any Excess Cash Flow that constitutes part of the Class II Preferred Share Dividend will not be allocable to the Class I Preferred Shares, rather, such amounts will only be available for distributions on the Class II Preferred Shares on each Payment Date. The "Class II Preferred Share Dividend" shall mean the Class II Preferred Share Base Dividend, Class II Preferred Share Additional Dividend and Class II Preferred Share Supplemental Dividend, each as described in the Note Offering Circular.

Failure to satisfy any Overcollateralization Test, the Interest Coverage Test or the application of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement described under "Description of the Notes" in the Note Offering Circular may result in the temporary or permanent diversion of all or a portion of amounts otherwise payable as Excess Cash Flow (and will have a corresponding effect on Preferred Shares distributions). The amount and frequency of distributions of Excess Cash Flow to the Issuer will depend on, among other things, the purchase rate in respect of new Portfolio Collateral, the level of LIBOR, the extent to which the Portfolio Collateral pledged to secure the Notes becomes Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, is subject to scheduled payments of principal, or is retired prior to the stated maturity of the Notes through mandatory or optional redemption, sale, maturity or other liquidation or disposition and the extent to which Substitute Portfolio Collateral is available for purchase in accordance with the criteria described in the Note Offering Circular.

Payments of Dividends on Preferred Shares; Preferred Shares Redemption

The Articles, in conjunction with the Resolutions, will provide for the payment of dividends on the Preferred Shares, without requiring any declaration by the board of directors, on each Payment Date through and including the Final Maturity Date, commencing on the first Payment Date. In addition to the Class II Preferred Share Base Dividend and the Class II Preferred Share Additional Dividend, such payment of dividends on each Payment Date will be in an amount equal to all Excess Cash Flow, if any, for such Payment Date in accordance with the priority of distributions less, with respect to the Final Maturity Date, such part of the Excess Cash Flow paid to redeem the Preferred Shares on such date. Such dividends, if any, will be paid on each Payment Date other than the Final Maturity Date to the holders of the Preferred Shares in whose names the Preferred Shares are registered at the close of business on the Record Date for such Payment Date.

No redemption of the Preferred Shares will be made from the Portfolio Collateral until the Notes are paid in full. Upon payment of the Notes in full, all Excess Cash Flow attributable to Adjusted Collateral Principal Collections will be paid to the holders of the Preferred Shares as dividends or, with respect to the Final Maturity Date, as the redemption price on redemption of the Preferred Shares. The Preferred Shares are not subject to redemption at the option of the holders thereof, except in connection with a liquidation of the Trust Estate upon payment in full of the Notes at the direction of the holders of a Majority or more of the Preferred Shares. See "Description of the Preferred Shares—Termination of Trust Estate."

Payments of dividends and the redemption price on redemption of the Class I Preferred Shares and the Class II Preferred Shares will be made pro rata to registered holders of Class I Preferred Shares and the Class II Preferred Shares, respectively, according to the number of such Class I Preferred Shares and Class II Preferred Shares held by the respective Holders. The payment of dividends and the redemption of the Preferred Shares is subject to the Issuer having sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium (being the difference between the par value of the Preferred Shares and their issue price) of the Preferred Shares out of which to pay such amounts and, in the case of a payment from share premium, the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of its business.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon any redemption of the Preferred Shares, any Excess Cash Flow that constitutes part of the Class II Preferred Share Dividend will not be allocable to the Class I Preferred Shares, rather, such amounts will only be available for distributions on the Class II Preferred Shares.

Events of Default

The Note Offering Circular describes those circumstances that would constitute an Event of Default under the Indenture. See "Legal Structure—The Indenture—Events of Default" in the Note Offering Circular.

If an Event of Default under the Indenture should occur and be continuing with respect to the Notes, the Trustee may, with the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, and shall at the direction of the Requisite Noteholders, declare the principal of the Notes to be immediately due and payable. Such declaration may under certain circumstances be rescinded by the Trustee at the direction of the Requisite Noteholders. As long as any Notes are outstanding, if an Event of Default under the Indenture should occur, the holders of such Notes will be entitled to determine the remedies to be exercised under the Indenture. Remedies pursued by the holders of the Notes would likely adversely affect the interests of the holders of the Preferred Shares.

Exchange and Transfer

The Issuer shall maintain, or cause to be maintained, at a specified office a Share register (the "Share Register").

The Issuer will appoint a transfer agent (the "Transfer Agent"), at which office a holder of a Definitive Preferred Share may surrender such Preferred Share certificate for registration of transfer as described below. The Issuer has initially appointed the Paying Agent to act as Transfer Agent. The Issuer may at any time terminate the appointment of a Transfer Agent and appoint additional or other Transfer Agents. Notice of such termination or appointment and of any change in the specified office of a Transfer Agent will be provided in the manner described below in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

The costs and expenses of effecting any exchange or registration of transfer pursuant to the foregoing provisions, except for the expense of delivery by other than regular mail (if any) and except, if the Issuer shall so require, the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge or insurance charges that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of any Preferred Shares, will be borne by the Issuer.

A beneficial interest in a Global Preferred Share may only be transferred to (a) a Non-U.S. Person, who is also a Qualified Institutional Buyer, in an offshore transaction (as defined in Regulation S) (an "Offshore Transaction") in accordance with Regulation S (and in accordance with certain certification requirements in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement) or (b) after the Distribution Compliance Period, to a person who takes delivery in the form of a Definitive Preferred Share and delivers a written certification (in the form provided in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement) to the effect that such person is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is acquiring such interest for its own account (together with certain other requirements set forth in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement) and is a Qualified Purchaser or Knowledgeable Employee. Upon any exchange of any number of Preferred Shares represented by a Global Preferred Share for a Definitive Preferred Share, the Paying Agent shall surrender the certificate representing the Global Preferred Share to the Issuer for cancellation and the Issuer shall issue a new certificate for the reduced number of Preferred Shares represented by the Global Preferred Share and a new certificate in respect of the Definitive Preferred Share. The Issuer shall cause the Share Register to be updated accordingly.

Definitive Preferred Shares and Restricted Preferred Shares (or any interest therein) may only be transferred in accordance with the applicable laws of any State of the United States and (a) in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act involving a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is a U.S. Person as transferee and is a Qualified Purchaser or Knowledgeable Employee (in accordance with the certification requirements of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement) or (b) to a person who takes delivery in the form of a beneficial interest in a Global Preferred Share and in such case only upon receipt by the Paying Agent of a written certification from the transferor (in the form provided in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement) to the effect that such transfer is being made to a Non-U.S. Person, who is also a Qualified Institutional Buyer, in accordance with Regulation S. Upon any exchange of a Definitive Preferred Share for a beneficial interest in a Global Preferred Share, the Paying Agent shall surrender the Definitive Preferred Share certificate and the Global Preferred Share certificate to the Issuer for cancellation and the Issuer shall issue the Paying Agent with a new certificate for the Global Preferred Shares reflecting the increased number of Preferred Shares represented thereby. The Issuer shall cause the Share Register to be updated accordingly.

Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Definitive Preferred Share at the office of the Paying Agent, the Paying Agent, subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, will deliver in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, or (in the case of a partial transfer) the registered holder, one or more new certificates representing the registered Definitive Preferred Shares certificates. Every registered Preferred Share presented or surrendered for registration of transfer shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Paying Agent, duly executed by the registered holder thereof or its attorney duly authorized in writing.

Preferred Share certificates issued upon any exchange or transfer will be delivered at the office of the Paying Agent or mailed, at the request, risk and expense of the holder, to the address reflected for such holder in the register or such other address as such holder shall request. No service charge (other than any cost of delivery) shall be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of Preferred Shares, but the Issuer may require payment from the holder of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection therewith.

During the period of 15 days preceding any date fixed for payment of dividends on or redemption of the Preferred Shares, the Issuer shall not be required to register the transfer of or to exchange any Preferred Shares.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any Holder of Class II Preferred Shares wishes to transfer all or a portion of its Class II Preferred Shares (the "Class II Seller") to any qualified third party purchaser (the "Class II Buyer"), including any holders of Class I Preferred Shares, such transfer shall only be effected by the Issuer redeeming such Class II Preferred Shares and correspondingly issuing new Class I Preferred Shares in accordance with the mechanics described in this paragraph and the applicable provisions in the Articles of Association of the Issuer. At least 10 days prior to any transfer by a Class II Seller to a Class II Buyer, such Class II Seller and Class II Buyer shall jointly notify the Issuer, the Transfer Agent and the Servicer of their intention to effect such transfer of Class II Preferred Shares, indicating the number of Class II Preferred Shares to be sold and the corresponding number of Class I Preferred Shares to be issued and acquired by the Class II Buyer, the price for such purchase and sale and the date on which such purchase and sale is expected to occur (such notice, the "Sale Notice"). The Issuer shall, on the date indicated in the Sale Notice, subject to such redemption being approved in writing by the Board of Directors of the Issuer and subject to such redemption being in respect of 200,000 Class II Preferred Shares or more, redeem the indicated number of Class II Preferred Shares to be sold by the Class II Seller and shall issue an equal number of Class I Preferred Shares to the Class II Buyer as indicated in the Sale Notice. The Class II Buyer shall pay the subscription price to the Issuer for the newly issued Class I Preferred Shares, and the Issuer shall immediately apply such amount to pay the redemption price to the Class II Seller for the redemption of such Class II Seller's Class II Preferred Shares.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event the Holder of any Class II Preferred Shares (the "Class I Buyer") wishes to acquire any Class I Preferred Shares from any holder of Class I Preferred Shares (the "Class I Seller"), such transfer shall only be effected by the Issuer redeeming a corresponding number of Class I Preferred Shares and issuing new Class II Preferred Shares in accordance with the mechanics described in this paragraph and the applicable provisions in the Articles of Association of the Issuer. At least 10 days prior to any transfer by a Class I Seller to a Class I Buyer, such Class I Seller and Class I Buyer shall jointly notify the Issuer, the Transfer Agent and the Servicer of their intention to effect such acquisition of Class I Preferred Shares, indicating the number of Class I Preferred Shares to be sold by the Class I Seller, the corresponding number of Class I Preferred Shares to be redeemed by the Issuer and the number of Class II Preferred Shares to be issued and acquired by the Class I Buyer, respectively, the price for such purchase and sale and the date on which such purchase and sale is expected to occur (such notice, the "Acquisition Notice"). On the date indicated in the Sale Notice, Class I Seller shall, subject to such redemption being approved in writing by the Board of Directors of the Issuer and subject to such redemption being in respect of 200,000 Class I Preferred Shares or more, redeem the indicated number of Class I Preferred Shares to be sold by Class I Seller and the Issuer shall, subject to such redemption being approved in writing by the Board of Directors of the Issuer and subject to such redemption being in respect of 200,000 Class I Preferred Shares or more, redeem Class I Preferred Shares as indicated in the Acquisition Notice. Simultaneously with such redemption of Class I Preferred Shares, the Issuer shall issue Class II Preferred Shares to the Class I Buyer in an amount equal to the amount of Class I Preferred Shares being redeemed as indicated in the Acquisition Notice. The Class I Buyer shall pay the Issuer for its subscription to such newly issued Class II Preferred Shares in an amount indicated in the Acquisition Notice.

Prescription

Payments in respect of the Preferred Shares will cease to be due if not paid to the holder due to insufficient instructions for a period of ten years from the Relevant Date therefor. "Relevant Date" means the date on which the final payment in respect of Preferred Shares first becomes due, except that if the full amount of the monies payable has not been duly received by the Paying Agent on or prior to such due date, it means the date on which such monies have been so received.

Restrictions on Transfer

The Preferred Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act, the securities laws of any state of the United States or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction, and are being issued and sold in reliance upon exemptions from registration provided by such laws. There is no market for the Preferred Shares being offered hereby and, as a result, a purchaser must be prepared to hold the Preferred Shares for an indefinite period of time. No Preferred Shares may be sold or transferred unless such sale or transfer (i) is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act (for example, in reliance on exemptions provided by Rule 144A or Regulation S under the Securities Act) and other applicable securities laws, (ii) satisfies the transfer restrictions described in "Certain ERISA Considerations" herein, (iii) does not cause the Issuer to become subject to the registration requirements of the Investment Company Act, including by selling or otherwise transferring the Preferred Shares to a purchaser or other transferee (other than a Non-U.S. Person) which is not a "qualified purchaser" or "knowledgeable employee" within the meaning of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act, and (iv) otherwise fully complies with the Articles. The Preferred Shares may not be sold or transferred to any Plan, to any person acting on behalf of or with "plan assets" of any Plan, or to any other Benefit Plan Investor other than as described herein under "Certain ERISA Considerations."

Termination of Trust Estate

Upon payment in full of the Notes, the Issuer may elect, upon the direction the Requisite Noteholders, voting as a single class, to liquidate the Trust Estate in whole or in part. Any amounts realized from any such liquidation, after payment of any amounts due and payable under the Indenture, will be distributed in accordance with the provisions of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

The Issuer is permitted to exercise the Optional Redemption in accordance with the requirements of the Indenture when directed by the holders of the Preferred Shares holding at least 66-2/3% of the Preferred Shares, voting as a single class.

Modification of Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement and the Indenture

Without the consent of any holders of Preferred Shares, the Issuer and the Paying Agent, at any time and from time to time, may enter into one or more agreements supplemental to the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement for any of the following purposes: (a) to evidence the succession of a successor entity to the Issuer and the assumption by any such successor of the covenants of the Issuer therein and in the Preferred Shares; (b) to take any action deemed reasonably necessary by the Issuer to prevent the reduction of dividends payable on the Preferred Shares as a result of imposition of any taxes; (c) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment thereunder by a successor Paying Agent with respect to the Preferred Shares; (d) to correct any manifest error with respect to any provision therein; (e) to cure any ambiguity, correct or supplement any provision therein which may be inconsistent with any other provision thereunder, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising therein; (f) to take any action necessary or helpful to prevent the Issuer from being subject to any withholding or other taxes, fees or assessments or to reduce the risk that the Issuer or the Paying Agent, as applicable, will be engaged in a United States trade or business or otherwise subject to United States income tax on a net income basis; or (g) prevent the Issuer from becoming an "investment company" as defined in the Investment Company Act or better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 thereunder; provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental indenture under this clause (g), each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Initial Purchaser shall (A) have satisfied the Rating Condition with respect to such supplemental indenture and (B) received a customary, unqualified opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental agreement, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act; provided that in each case that such action for any matters described in clauses (a) through (f) will not adversely affect the interests of the holders of Preferred Shares in any material respect.

With the consent of the holders of not less than a Majority of the Preferred Shares (voting as a single class) affected by a supplemental agreement or agreement referred to below, the Issuer and the Paying Agent (and with the consent of the Servicer, if any supplemental agreement would reduce its rights or increase its obligations under the Collateral Management Agreement) may enter into an agreement or agreements supplemental to the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement for the purpose of adding any provisions to, or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of, the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement or of modifying in any manner the rights of the holders of Preferred Shares under such agreement; provided that no such supplemental agreement will, without the consent of the holder of each outstanding Preferred Share affected thereby: (a) change the method or methods by which dividends will be determined for any Preferred Share or reduce the par value thereof or change the coin or currency in which such amounts are, or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after the stated maturity thereof; or (b) reduce the percentage amount of the outstanding Preferred Shares, the consent of whose holders is required for any such supplemental agreement, or the consent of whose holders is required for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of such agreement or certain defaults thereunder and their consequences provided for in such agreement; or (c) modify any of the provisions of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement relating to the modification thereof, except to increase any such percentage or to provide that certain other provisions of such agreement cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the holder of each outstanding Preferred Share affected thereby.

In addition, as described in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, without the consent of at least 66-2/3% of the holders of the Preferred Shares materially and adversely affected thereby, the Issuer will not be permitted to enter into any supplemental indenture that would (i) increase the Applicable Periodic Rate for any Class of Notes, the Aggregate Principal Amount of any Class of Notes, the Optional Redemption Price or the mandatory redemption price, (ii) modify Article XI of the Indenture, (iii) change the maturity of the principal of or interest on any Note or reduce the principal amount thereof or the rate of interest thereon or change the time or amount of any other amount payable in respect of any Note or of any amount payable to the Issuer for distribution to the holders of the Preferred Shares, (iv) reduce the percentage of Holders of Notes or the percentage of the Preferred Shares whose consent is required for the authorization of any supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of the Indenture, (v) impair or adversely affect the Trust Estate securing the Notes, (vi) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on parity with the lien of the Indenture with respect to any part of the Trust Estate or terminate the lien of the Indenture, (vii) reduce the percentage of Holders of Notes or the holders of the Preferred Shares whose consent is required to direct the Trustee to liquidate the Trust Estate, (viii) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture with respect to whose consent is required for supplemental indentures or waiver of Defaults and their consequences except to increase the percentage of Outstanding Notes whose consent is required for any such action or to provide that other provisions of the Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected thereby, (ix) modify the provisions thereof relating to priority of distributions or subordination or the definition therein of the terms "Holder," "Noteholder," "Majority Noteholder," "Majority Preferred Shareholder," "Outstanding" or "Requisite Noteholder," (x) amend any provision that provides that the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer are non-recourse obligations or (xi) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of principal of or interest on or other amount in respect of any Note or of any payment to the Issuer for distribution to the holders of the Preferred Shares or to affect the right of the Holders of Notes to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of such Notes contained therein.

Amendment Buy-Out

In the case of any supplemental indenture that requires the consent of one or more Holders of the Notes or Preferred Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Notes and Preferred Shares held by such Holder whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all Notes and Preferred Shares of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes or Preferred Shares the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of a Note or Preferred Share, each Holder of a Note and Preferred Share agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Note or Preferred Share to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser.

All purchases made pursuant to the Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Notes and Preferred Shares set forth in "Delivery of the Notes; Transfer Restrictions; Settlement" in the Note Offering Circular and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency)

Governing Law

The Notes, the Indenture and the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. The rights attached to the Preferred Shares as set forth in the Articles will be governed by Cayman Islands law. The Issuer will irrevocably submit to the federal court sitting in the City and County of New York over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to any of the Notes, the Indenture and the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

THE SERVICER AND THE SERVICING AGREEMENT

Highland Capital Management, L.P. (the "Servicer"), will service the Portfolio Collateral and perform certain other reporting functions pursuant to a servicing agreement with the Issuer (the "Servicing Agreement"). For a description of the Servicer and the Servicing Agreement, see "The Servicer" and "The Servicing Agreement" in the Note Offering Circular.

ASSETS OF THE ISSUER

For a description of the assets of the Issuer, including a description of the criteria for the purchase or substitution of the Portfolio Collateral, see "Security for the Notes" in the Note Offering Circular.

DELIVERY OF THE PREFERRED SHARES; TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS; SETTLEMENT

The Preferred Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act, any United States state securities or "Blue Sky" laws or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and, accordingly, may not be reoffered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons, except in accordance with the restrictions described under "Notices to Purchasers."

Without limiting the foregoing, by holding Preferred Shares, each holder will acknowledge and agree, among other things, that such holder understands that the Issuer is not registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act, but that the Issuer is exempt from registration as such by virtue of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act, which in general excludes from the definition of an "investment company" any issuer whose outstanding securities (other than securities sold to Non-U.S. Persons under Regulation S) are beneficially owned solely by Qualified Purchasers or Knowledgeable Employees and which has not made and does not propose to make a public offering of its securities. Any sale or transfer which would violate these provisions shall be void ab initio, and no sale or transfer may be made if such sale or transfer would require the Issuer to become subject to the requirements of the Investment Company Act.

Unless determined otherwise by the Issuer in accordance with applicable law, all certificates representing the Preferred Shares will bear the legend set forth below:

THE PREFERRED SHARES HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), ANY STATE SECURITIES LAWS IN THE UNITED STATES OR THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION AND MAY NOT BE REOFFERED, RESOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OR TO, OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OR BENEFIT OF, U.S. PERSONS, EXCEPT AS PERMITTED BY THIS LEGEND. THE HOLDER OF ANY PREFERRED SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY, BY ITS ACCEPTANCE OF THIS PREFERRED SHARE CERTIFICATE, REPRESENTS, ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT WILL NOT REOFFER, RESELL, PLEDGE OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER THE PREFERRED SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE EXCEPT IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE SECURITIES ACT AND OTHER APPLICABLE LAWS AND EXCEPT (A) IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER AS DEFINED IN RULE 144A PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER, WHOM THE SELLER HAS INFORMED, IN EACH CASE, THAT THE REOFFER, RESALE, PLEDGE OR OTHER TRANSFER IS BEING MADE IN RELIANCE ON RULE 144A, PROVIDED THAT SUCH PURCHASER DELIVERS ALL DOCUMENTS AND CERTIFICATIONS AS THE ISSUER OR THE PAYING AGENT MAY REASONABLY REQUIRE; (B) OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 904 OF REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT TO A PERSON WHO IS ALSO A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER AS DEFINED IN RULE 144A; (C) TO THE ISSUER OR ITS AFFILIATES; OR (D) TO ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY PURSUANT TO A VALID EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECURITIES ACT PROVIDED THAT SUCH PURCHASER DELIVERS ALL DOCUMENTS AND CERTIFICATIONS AS THE ISSUER OR THE PAYING AGENT MAY REQUEST, IN EACH CASE IN ACCORDANCE WITH ANY APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAW OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER JURISDICTION IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RESTRICTIONS SET FORTH IN THE PAYING AND TRANSFER AGENCY AGREEMENT. IN ADDITION, EACH PURCHASER OF PREFERRED SHARES, BY ITS ACCEPTANCE THEREOF, REPRESENTS, ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT WILL NOT RESELL, PLEDGE OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER SUCH PREFERRED SHARES EXCEPT TO A NON-U.S. PERSON THAT IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER OR TO A "QUALIFIED PURCHASER" OR "KNOWLEDGEABLE EMPLOYEE" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 3(c)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT THAT IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER IN A TRANSACTION THAT DOES NOT CAUSE THE ISSUER TO BE REQUIRED TO REGISTER UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940. FURTHER, THE PREFERRED SHARES MAY NOT BE SOLD OR TRANSFERRED TO ANY PLAN SUBJECT TO TITLE I OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE, TO ANY PERSON ACTING ON BEHALF OF OR WITH "PLAN ASSETS" OF ANY SUCH PLAN,

OR TO ANY OTHER BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR (AS DEFINED IN SECTION 3(42) OF ERISA), INCLUDING AN INSURANCE COMPANY GENERAL ACCOUNT, EXCEPT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RESTRICTIONS SET FORTH IN THE CONFIDENTIAL OFFERING CIRCULAR RELATING TO THE PREFERRED SHARES.

Subject to the restrictions on transfer set forth in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement and on the Preferred Share certificates, the holder of any Preferred Shares may transfer the same in whole or in part (in any authorized denomination) by surrendering the certificate relating to such Preferred Shares at the specified office of the Paying Agent or at the office of any transfer agent, together with an executed instrument of assignment and transfer substantially in the form attached to the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement. In exchange for any certificate representing the Preferred Shares properly presented for transfer with all necessary accompanying documentation, the Paying Agent will, within five Business Days of such request if made at the specified office of the Paying Agent, or within ten Business Days if made at the office of a transfer agent, deliver at the specified office of the Paying Agent or the office of the transfer agent, as the case may be, to the transferee or send by first-class mail at the risk of the transferee to such address as the transferee may request a certificate in the name of the transferee representing the number of Preferred Shares transferred. The presentation for transfer of any Preferred Shares will not be valid unless made at the specified office of the Paying Agent or at the office of a transfer agent by the registered holder in person, or by a duly authorized attorney-in-fact. The holder of a Preferred Share certificate will not be required to bear the costs and expenses of effecting any transfer or registration of transfer, except that the relevant holder will be required to bear (i) the expenses of delivery by other than regular mail (if any) and (ii) if the Issuer so requires, the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any duty, stamp tax or governmental charge or insurance charges that may be imposed in relation thereto.

CERTAIN TAX CONSIDERATIONS

Introduction

The following is a summary of certain of the United States federal income tax consequences of an investment in the Preferred Shares by purchasers that acquire their Preferred Shares in the initial offering. The discussion and the opinions referenced below are based upon laws, regulations, rulings, and decisions in effect and available on the date hereof, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Prospective investors should note that no rulings have been or are expected to be sought from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") with respect to any of the United States federal income tax consequences discussed below, and no assurance can be given that the IRS will not take contrary positions. Further, the following summary does not deal with all United States federal income tax consequences applicable to any given investor, nor does it address the United States federal income tax considerations applicable to all categories of investors, some of which may be subject to special rules, such as Non-U.S. Holders (defined below), banks, grantor trusts, REITs, RICs, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, dealers or traders in securities or currencies, electing large partnerships natural persons, cash method taxpayers, S corporations, certain expatriates, estates and trusts, investors that hold their Preferred Shares as part of a hedge, straddle, or an integrated or conversion transaction, or investors whose "functional currency" is not the United States dollar. Furthermore, it does not address alternative minimum tax consequences, estate or gift tax consequences, or the indirect effects on investors of equity interests in either a U.S. Holder (as defined below) or a Non-U.S. Holder. In addition, this summary is generally limited to investors that acquire their Preferred Shares on the Closing Date for the issue price applicable to such Preferred Shares and who will hold their Preferred Shares as "capital assets" within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). Also, because any Non-U.S. Holder of Preferred Shares will be deemed to have represented, by virtue of its acquisition of the Preferred Shares, that it did not purchase the Preferred Shares pursuant to a tax avoidance plan with respect to United States federal income taxes (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.881-3(b)), this summary does not address the tax consequences applicable to Non-U.S. Holders that acquire their Preferred Shares pursuant to such a plan. Investors should consult their own tax advisors to determine the United States federal, state, local, and other tax consequences of the purchase, ownership, and disposition of the Preferred Shares.

As used herein, "U.S. Holder" means any Holder or beneficial owner of a Preferred Share that is an individual citizen or resident of the United States for United States federal income tax purposes, a corporation or other entity taxable as a corporation created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof (including the District of Columbia), an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation regardless of its source, or a trust where a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more United States persons (as defined in the Code) have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust (or a trust that has made a valid election under United States Treasury Regulations to be treated as a domestic trust). "Non-U.S. Holder" means any Holder or beneficial owner of a Preferred Share that is not a U.S. Holder, other than a partnership. If a partnership holds Preferred Shares, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend upon the status of the partner and upon the activities of the partnership. Partners of partnerships holding Preferred Shares should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of an investment in the Preferred Shares (including their status as U.S. Holders or Non-U.S. Holders).

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences to the Issuer

Upon the issuance of the Preferred Shares, Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, special United States tax counsel to the Issuer, will deliver an opinion generally to the effect that under current law, and assuming compliance with the Indenture (and certain other documents) and based on certain factual representations made by the Issuer and the Servicer, although the matter is not free from doubt, the permitted activities of the Issuer will not cause the Issuer to be engaged in the conduct of a trade or business in the United States. Accordingly, the Issuer does not expect to be subject to net income taxation in the United States. Prospective investors should be aware that opinions of counsel are not binding on the IRS and the IRS might seek to treat the Issuer as engaged in a United States trade or business. If the IRS were successfully to characterize the Issuer as engaged in a United States trade or business, among other consequences, the Issuer would be subject to net income taxation in the United States (as well as the branch profits tax) on its income that is effectively connected to the United States trade or business. The levying of such taxes would materially affect the Issuer's financial ability to make payments on the Preferred Shares. In addition, distributions on the Preferred Shares paid to Non-U.S. Holders could, in such circumstances, be subject to a 30% U.S. withholding tax.

The opinion of special U.S. tax counsel is subject to several considerations. Thus, the Issuer and Collateral Manager are entitled to rely upon advice of counsel with respect to deviations from the investment guidelines set forth in the Collateral Management Agreement; the foregoing opinion assumes (except in instances where Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP is providing the advice) that any such advice will be correct and complete. Additionally, it should be noted that the United States Treasury Department and the IRS recently announced that they are considering taxpayer requests for specific guidance on, among other things, whether a foreign person may be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States by virtue of entering into credit default swaps. No guidance has been issued to date. If any future guidance concludes that foreign persons entering into certain credit default swaps will be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States, such guidance would adversely impact the Issuer's ability to pay principal and interest on the Preferred Shares. Further, it should be noted that gain or loss on a disposition by a foreign person of a United States real property interest may be subject to United States federal income tax as if the foreign person were engaged in a United States trade or business (even if the foreign person is not actually so engaged). The determination of whether an asset constitutes a United States real property interest is made periodically and, therefore, it is possible that an asset that was not a United States real property interest at the time it was acquired by the Issuer could, thereafter, become a United States real property interest. Finally, if the Issuer accepted a new security in exchange for an existing security or if the terms of an existing security were modified, the new or modified security might cause the Issuer to become engaged in a United States trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes.

The Issuer intends to acquire the Portfolio Collateral and Eligible Investments the interest on which and any gain from the sale or disposition with respect to which is not expected to be subject to United States federal withholding tax or withholding tax imposed by other countries (unless, in the case of interest, the obligor is required to "gross up" its payments to compensate for these taxes). The Issuer will not, however, make any independent investigation of the circumstances surrounding the issuance of the individual assets comprising the Portfolio Collateral and, thus, there can be no assurance that payments of interest on and gain from the sale or disposition of the Portfolio Collateral will in all cases be received free of withholding tax. It is not expected that the Issuer will derive material amounts of any other items of income that will be subject to United States withholding taxes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any commitment fee, facility fee or other similar fee that the Issuer earns may be subject to a 30% United States federal withholding tax and any lending fees received under a securities lending agreement may also be subject to such tax. Additionally, if the Issuer is a CFC (defined below), the Issuer would incur United States withholding tax on interest received from a related United States person. If withholding or deduction of any taxes is required from payments received by the Issuer or is required from any payments made by the Issuer on the Preferred Shares, the Issuer shall be under no obligation to make any additional payments to any holder in respect of such withholding or deduction.

Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of the Preferred Shares

The Issuer has agreed and, by its acceptance of a Preferred Share, each holder will be deemed to have agreed, to treat the Preferred Shares as equity of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes. Therefore, subject to the rules discussed below relating to "passive foreign investment companies" ("PFICs") and "controlled foreign corporations" ("CFCs"), payments on such Preferred Shares should be treated as dividends to the extent of the current or accumulated earnings and profits of the Issuer. Payments characterized as dividends would be taxable at regular marginal income tax rates applicable to ordinary income, and would not be entitled to the benefit of the dividends received deduction or any reduction in tax rates that may be available for certain dividends. Distributions in excess of the Issuer's earnings and profits would be non-taxable to the extent of, and would be applied against and reduce, the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the Preferred Shares and, to the extent in excess of such basis, would be taxable as gain from the sale or exchange of property.

The tax consequences discussed in the preceding paragraph are likely to be significantly modified as a result of the application of the PFIC and CFC rules discussed below. Thus, U.S. Holders of Preferred Shares will be viewed as owning stock in a PFIC and, possibly, in a CFC (depending, in the latter instance, on the percentage of voting equity that is acquired and held by certain U.S. Holders). If applicable, the rules pertaining to CFCs would generally override those pertaining to PFICs, although in certain circumstances both set of rules could apply simultaneously.

Under the PFIC rules, U.S. Holders of the Preferred Shares (other than U.S. Holders that make a timely "QEF election," as described below) will be subject to special rules relating to the taxation of "excess distributions" – with excess distributions being defined to include certain distributions made by a PFIC on its stock as well as gain recognized on a disposition of PFIC stock. (For this purpose, a U.S. Holder that uses its Preferred Shares as security for an obligation may be treated as having made a disposition of PFIC stock.) In general, Section 1291 of the Code provides that the amount of any "excess distribution" will be allocated ratably to each day of the U.S. Holder's holding period for its PFIC stock. The amount allocated to the current year will be included in the U.S. Holder's gross income for the current year as ordinary income. With respect to amounts allocated to prior years, the tax imposed for the current year will be increased by the "deferred tax amount," which is an amount calculated with respect to each prior year by multiplying the amount allocated to such year by the highest rate of tax in effect for such year, together with an interest charge as though the amounts of tax were overdue.

In order to avoid the application of the PFIC rules, each U.S. Holder should consider making a qualified electing fund election (the "QEF election") provided in Section 1295 of the Code. In lieu of the PFIC rules discussed above, a U.S. Holder of Preferred Shares that makes a valid QEF election will, in very general terms, be required to include its pro rata share of the Issuer's ordinary income and net capital gains, unreduced by any prior year losses, in income for each taxable year (as ordinary income and long-term capital gain, respectively) and to pay tax thereon, even if the amount of that income is not the same as the interest or OID, if any, paid on the Preferred Shares during the year. If the Issuer later distributes the income or gain that the U.S. Holder has already included in income under the QEF rules, the amounts so distributed will not again be included in income in the hands of the U.S. Holder. A U.S. Holder's tax basis in any Preferred Shares as to which a QEF election has been validly made will be increased by the amount included in such U.S. Holder's income as a result of the QEF election and decreased by the amount of nontaxable distributions received by the U.S. Holder. On the disposition (including redemption or retirement) of a Preferred Share, a U.S. Holder making the QEF election generally will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between the amount realized upon such disposition and its adjusted tax basis in the Preferred Share. In general, a protective QEF election should be made on or before the due date for filing a U.S. Holder's federal income tax return for the first taxable year for which the U.S. Holder has held its Preferred Shares. In this regard, a QEF election is effective only if certain required information is made available by the Issuer. Upon request, the Issuer will provide any U.S. Holder of a Preferred Share with the information necessary for such U.S. Holder to make the QEF election. Nonetheless, there can be no assurance that such information will always be available.

The Issuer may be treated as holding securities issued by non-U.S. corporations that are characterized as equity in one or more PFICs for United States federal income tax purposes. In that event, U.S. Holders of Preferred Shares would be treated as holding an interest in these indirectly-owned PFICs. Because the U.S. Holder – and not the Issuer – would be required to make any QEF election with respect to any such indirectly-owned PFIC, and because PFIC information statements necessary for any such election may not be made available by the PFIC, there can be no assurance that a U.S. Holder would be able to make a QEF election with respect to any particular indirectly-held PFIC. If the U.S. Holder of Preferred Shares has not made a QEF election with respect to an indirectly-owned PFIC, the U.S. Holder would be subject to the consequences described above with respect to the excess distributions of such PFIC (including gain indirectly realized with respect to such PFIC on the sale of the Issuer's interest in the PFIC and gain indirectly realized with respect to such PFIC the sale by the U.S. Holder of its Preferred Shares). Alternatively, if the U.S. Holder has made a QEF election with respect to the indirectly-owned PFIC, the U.S. Holder would be required to include in income its share of the indirectly-owned PFIC's ordinary earnings and net capital gain.

United States tax law contains special provisions relating to CFCs. A foreign corporation is a CFC if "U.S. Shareholders" in the aggregate own, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of the voting power or value of the stock of such corporation. For this purpose, a United States person that owns, directly or indirectly, ten percent or more of the voting stock of a CFC is considered a "U.S. Shareholder" with respect to the CFC. Complex attribution rules apply for determining ownership of stock in a foreign corporation such as the Issuer. If any U.S. Holder of Preferred Shares were properly viewed as a U.S. Shareholder of the Issuer under the CFC rules, the U.S. Holder would be subject each year to U.S. income tax (at ordinary income rates) on its pro rata share of the income of the Issuer (assuming that the Issuer is properly classified as a CFC for the year and that the U.S. Holder holds its Preferred Shares as of the end of the year), regardless of the amount of cash distributions received by the U.S. Holder with respect to its Preferred Shares during the year. Earnings subject to tax to a U.S. Holder under the CFC rules generally would not be taxed again when distributed to the U.S. Holder. In addition, if the Issuer is a CFC and a U.S. Holder is a U.S. Shareholder with respect to the Issuer, all or a portion of the income that otherwise would be characterized as capital gain upon a sale of U.S. Holder's Preferred Shares may be classified as ordinary income. Certain income generated by a corporation conducting a banking, financing, insurance, or other similar business is not includible in a U.S. Shareholder's income under the CFC rules. However, by its acceptance of a Preferred Share, each Holder will be deemed to have agreed that the Issuer is not engaged in any such business. Accordingly, if the CFC rules were to apply, a U.S. Holder of Preferred Shares that constitutes a U.S. Shareholder under the CFC rules would generally be subject to tax on its share of all of the Issuer's income.

Prospective investors should be aware that, in computing the Issuer's earnings for purposes of the CFC rules, losses on dispositions of securities in bearer form may not be allowed. Additionally, in computing the Issuer's ordinary earnings and net capital gains for purposes of the PFIC rules, losses on dispositions of securities in bearer form may not be allowed, and any gain on such securities may be ordinary rather than capital. Further, investors should be aware that, in the event that any debt issued by the Issuer is not fully paid upon maturity, the Issuer may recognize cancellation of indebtedness income for United States federal income tax purposes, without any corresponding offsetting loss (due to tax character differences or otherwise). In such a case, U.S. Holders of any Preferred Shares may need to recognize phantom income as a result of such recognition by the Issuer (pursuant to the QEF and CFC rules discussed above), as to which an offsetting loss may not be available to the U.S. Holders.

Information Reporting Requirements

Information reporting to the IRS may be required with respect to payments on the Preferred Shares, and proceeds of the sale of the Preferred Shares to Holders other than corporations and certain other exempt recipients. A "backup" withholding tax may also apply to those payments if a Holder fails to provide certain identifying information (such as the Holder's taxpayer identification number or an attestation to the status of the Holder as a Non-U.S. Holder). Backup withholding is not an additional tax and may be refunded (or credited against the Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any) provided that certain required information is furnished to the IRS in a timely manner.

Prospective investors should consult with their own tax advisors regarding whether they are required to file an IRS Form 8886 in respect of this transaction (relating to certain "reportable transactions"). Thus, for example, if a U.S. Holder were to sell its Preferred Shares at a loss, it is possible that this loss could constitute a reportable transaction, and need to be reported on Form 8886. As another example, a transaction may be reportable if it is offered under conditions of confidentiality. In this regard, each Holder and beneficial owner of the Preferred Shares (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) is hereby advised that it is permitted to disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions described herein (including the ownership and disposition of the Preferred Shares), except where confidentiality is reasonably necessary to comply with U.S. federal or state securities laws. Significant penalties apply for failure to file Form 8886 when required, and Holders and beneficial owners of the Preferred Shares are therefore urged to consult their own tax advisors.

U.S. Holders of Preferred Shares may be required to file Forms with the IRS under applicable reporting provisions of the Code. For example, under Section 6038, 6038B and/or 6046 of the Code, U.S. Holders would be required to supply the IRS with certain information regarding the U.S. Holder, other U.S. Holders and/or the Issuer if (i) such U.S. Holder owns at least 10% of the total value or 10% of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote or (ii) the acquisition of Preferred Shares, when aggregated with certain other acquisitions that may be treated as related under applicable regulations, exceeds $100,000. Upon request, the Issuer will provide U.S. Holders of Preferred Shares with information available to the Issuer that may be needed by the U.S. Holder to complete any Form that is so required. In the event a U.S. Holder fails to file a form when required to do so, the U.S. Holder could be subject to substantial tax penalties.

In addition, if the Issuer participates in a reportable transaction, a U.S. Holder of Preferred Shares that is a "reporting shareholder" of the Issuer may be treated as participating in the transaction and be subject to the rules described above. Although most of the Issuer's activities generally are not expected to give rise to reportable transactions, the Issuer nevertheless may participate in certain types of transactions that could be treated as reportable transactions. A U.S. Holder of Preferred Shares will be treated as a "reporting shareholder" of the Issuer if (a) such U.S. Holder owns 10% or more of the Preferred Shares and makes a QEF election with respect to the Issuer or (b) the Issuer is treated as a CFC and such U.S. Holder is a U.S. Shareholder (as defined above) with respect to the Issuer.

Tax Treatment of Non-U.S. Holders of the Preferred Shares

A Non-U.S. Holder of a Preferred Share that has no connection with the United States other than holding its Preferred Shares should generally not be subject to United States withholding tax on payments in respect of a Preferred Share and also should not be subject to United States federal income tax on gains recognized in connection with the sale or other disposition of the Preferred Shares, provided that the non U.S. Holder makes certain tax representations regarding the identity of the beneficial owner of the Preferred Shares (and, with respect to gain recognized in connection with the sale or other disposition of Preferred Shares by a non resident alien individual, provided that such individual is not present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the sale or other disposition).

Circular 230

Under 31 C.F.R. part 10, the regulations governing practice before the IRS (Circular 230), the Co-Issuers and their tax advisors are (or may be) required to inform prospective investors that:

- Any advice contained herein, including any opinions of counsel referred to herein, is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used by any taxpayer, for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer;
- Any such advice is written to support the promotion or marketing of the Preferred Shares and the transactions described herein (or in such opinion or other advice); and

Each taxpayer should seek advice based on the taxpayer's particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

CAYMAN ISLANDS TAXATION

The following discussion of certain Cayman Islands income tax consequences of an investment in the Preferred Shares is based on the advice of Maples and Calder as to Cayman Islands law. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It assumes that the Issuer will conduct its affairs in accordance with assumptions made by, and representations made to, counsel. It is not intended as tax advice, does not consider any investor's particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

Under existing Cayman Islands laws:

(i) payments on the Preferred Shares will not be subject to taxation in the Cayman Islands and no withholding will be required on such payments to any holder of a Preferred Share and gains derived from the sale of Preferred Shares will not be subject to Cayman Islands income or corporation tax. The Cayman Islands currently have no income, corporation or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax; and

(ii) the Preferred Shares and transfers of Preferred Shares are not subject to Cayman Islands stamp duty but an agreement to transfer Preferred Shares if executed in or brought into the Cayman Islands will be subject to nominal Cayman Islands stamp duty.

The Issuer has been incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands as an exempted limited liability company and, as such, has applied for and obtained an undertaking from the Governor in Cabinet of the Cayman Islands in the following form:

The Tax Concessions Law
(1999 Revision)
Undertaking as to Tax Concessions

In accordance with Section 6 of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision), the Governor in Cabinet undertakes with Rockwall CDO II Ltd. (the "Company"):

(a) that no law which is hereafter enacted in the Islands imposing any tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations will apply to the Company or its operations; and

(b) in addition, that no tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations or which is in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax will be payable

(i) on or in respect of the shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company; or

(ii) by way of the withholding in whole or in part of any relevant payment as defined in Section 6(3) of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision).

These concessions shall be for a period of twenty years from the 2nd day of May, 2006.

The preceding discussion of certain Cayman Islands income tax consequences of an investment in the Preferred Shares is based on the advice of Maples and Calder as to Cayman Islands law. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It assumes that the Issuer will conduct its affairs in accordance with assumptions made by, and representations made to, counsel. It is not intended as tax advice, does not consider any investor's particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

CERTAIN ERISA CONSIDERATIONS

The United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), imposes certain requirements on employee benefit plans (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) subject to Title I of ERISA and on persons who are fiduciaries (as defined in Section 3(21)(A) of ERISA) with respect to such plans, and Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code prohibit such plans, as well as individual retirement accounts and Keogh plans, subject to either or both of such statutes (each, a "Plan") from engaging in certain transactions with persons that are "parties in interest" under ERISA or "disqualified persons" under Section 4975 of the Code (collectively, "Parties in Interest") with respect to such Plans. Any person who decides to invest "plan assets" of a Plan that is subject to Title I of ERISA in the Preferred Shares should consider, among other factors, the factors discussed above under "Special Considerations" herein.

Except as set forth below and except as otherwise provided in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement with respect to the initial sale of the Preferred Shares, the Preferred Shares may not be acquired or held by any (i) employee benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA), that is subject to Title I of ERISA; (ii) plan described in and subject to Section 4975 of the Code; (iii) entity whose underlying assets include "plan assets" by reason of a Plan's investment in the entity; or (iv) person who is otherwise a "benefit plan investor" (as defined in Section 3(42) of ERISA) (a "Benefit Plan Investor"), including a life insurance company general account or a governmental or foreign plan that is generally not subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. However, Preferred Shares may be acquired and held by or on behalf of, or with "plan assets" of, a Plan or other Benefit Plan Investor if:

(a) (1)(A) The investor is purchasing the Preferred Shares with assets of an "insurance company general account" (within the meaning of United States Department of Labor Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption ("PTCE") 95-60) (a "General Account"); (B) the investor's purchase and holding of the Preferred Shares are eligible for the exemptive relief available under Section I of PTCE 95-60; (C) less than 25% of the assets of such General Account constitute "plan assets" of Benefit Plan Investors; and (D) if, after the initial acquisition of Preferred Shares, during any calendar quarter 25% or more of the assets of such General Account (as determined by such insurance company) constitute "plan assets" of any Plan or other Benefit Plan Investor and no exemption or exception from the prohibited transaction rules applies such that the continued holding of the Preferred Shares would not result in violations of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, then such investor will dispose of all of the Preferred Shares then held in such General Account by the end of the next following calendar quarter; or (2) the investor's purchase and holding of the Preferred Shares are eligible for the exemptive relief available under any of Section 408(b)(17) of ERISA or PTCE 96-23, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14; and

(b) After giving effect to such purchase and all other purchases occurring simultaneously therewith, less than 25% of the Notes and of each Class of the Combination Notes and Preferred Shares (excluding the Preferred Shares held by the Servicer and its affiliates or clients) will be held by Benefit Plan Investors.

In addition, except as otherwise provided in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, if an investor (whether or not it is a Plan or any other Benefit Plan Investor) purchases a Preferred Share and if, after giving effect to such purchase, the investor (or its affiliates) will own 50% or more of the aggregate par value of the Preferred Shares, the investor should consult with its counsel regarding the effect such an investment may have on its ability (and that of its affiliates and their Plans) to purchase any Class of Notes in reliance upon any of PTCE 96-23, 95-60, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14.

Except with respect to certain secondary market transactions through Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., as more fully described in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, by its purchase of the Preferred Shares, each purchaser and transferee will be required to represent and warrant in writing to and agree with the Issuer, the Servicer, the Paying Agent and the Trustee that (i) its purchase and holding of such Preferred Shares will satisfy the ERISA requirements with respect to the 25% limitation described above and (ii) it will not assign or transfer such Preferred Shares unless (1) the proposed assignee or transferee delivers a letter to the Issuer evidencing its agreement to the foregoing ERISA representations and covenants with respect to its purchase, holding and transfer of such Preferred Shares and (2) if the investor:

(x) is not (and is not acting on behalf of) a Benefit Plan Investor, the assignee or transferee will also not be a Benefit Plan Investor; or

(y) is (or is acting on behalf of) a General Account, the assignee or transferee will be accurately identified in such letter as either another General Account or a person who is not (and is not acting on behalf of) a Benefit Plan Investor; or

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Issuer proposes to offer the Preferred Shares to prospective purchasers from time to time in individually negotiated transactions at varying prices to be determined in each case at the time of sale. In addition, the Servicer, clients of the Servicer, entities identified by the Servicer and other entities identified by such entities, are expected to acquire 13,450,000 of the Class I Preferred Shares on the Closing Date at negotiated prices. See "Special Considerations—Potential Conflicts of Interest" in the Note Offering Circular. The Issuer may offer or sell Preferred Shares to purchasers at negotiated prices, which may vary among different purchasers of Preferred Shares. The Preferred Shares are offered when, as and if issued by the Issuer, subject to prior sale or withdrawal, cancellation or modification of the offer without notice and subject to approval of certain legal matters by counsel and certain other conditions. It is expected that delivery of the Preferred Shares will be made on or about the Closing Date, against payment in immediately available funds.

Without limiting the foregoing, no transfer of Preferred Shares may be made except to a Non-U.S. Person in compliance with Regulation S who is also a Qualified Institutional Buyer or to a Qualified Purchaser (or Knowledgeable Employee) or if such transfer would require the Issuer to become subject to the registration requirements of the Investment Company Act.

The Issuer represents and agrees that it (i) has only communicated or caused to be communicated and will only communicate or cause to be communicated any invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ("FSMA")) received by them in connection with the issue or sale of any offered securities in circumstances in which section 21(1) of the FSMA does not apply to the Issuer and (ii) have complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by them in relation to the Preferred Shares in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

No invitation may be made to the public in the Cayman Islands to subscribe for the Preferred Shares.

Purchasers of Preferred Shares sold outside the United States may be required to pay stamp taxes and other charges in accordance with the laws and practices of the country of purchase in addition to the price charged to investors for the Preferred Shares.

The Preferred Shares are new securities for which there currently is no market. Accordingly, no assurance can be given as to the development or liquidity of any market for the Preferred Shares.

INDENTURE, dated as of May 9, 2007, among ROCKWALL CDO II LTD., an exempted limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the "Company") and, together with its permitted successors and assigns, the "Issuer"), ROCKWALL CDO II (DELAWARE) CORP., a Delaware corporation (the "Co-Issuer" and, together with the Issuer, the "Co-Issuers") and INVESTORS BANK & TRUST COMPANY, as trustee (together with its permitted successors in the trusts hereunder, the "Trustee") and as Securities Intermediary.

The Co-Issuers are entering into this Indenture, and the Trustee is accepting the trusts created hereby, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged.

It is a condition of issuance of the Notes that the Class A-1LA Notes be rated "AAA" by Standard & Poor's and "Aaa" by Moody's, the Class A-1LB Notes be rated "AAA" by Standard & Poor's and "Aaa" by Moody's, the Class A-2L Notes be rated at least "AA" by Standard & Poor's and at least "Aa2" by Moody's, the Class A-3L Notes be rated at least "A" by Standard & Poor's and at least "A2" by Moody's, the Class B-1L Notes be rated at least "BBB" by Standard & Poor's and at least "Baa2" by Moody's, the Class B-2L Notes be rated at least "BB" by Standard & Poor's and at least "Ba2" by Moody's and the Combination Notes be rated at least "Baa2" by Moody's with respect to the Rated Balance and the Rated Coupon of the Combination Notes. With respect to the Notes, such ratings by Standard & Poor's address solely the likelihood of the timely payment of the Periodic Interest Amount (which consists of interest accrued on the Aggregate Principal Amount of each applicable Class of Notes at the Applicable Periodic Rate) and the ultimate payment of the Aggregate Principal Amount in the case of the Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes and the Class A-2L Notes, and the ultimate payment of the Cumulative Interest Amount and the Aggregate Principal Amount in the case of the Class A-3L Notes, the Class B-1L Notes and the Class B-2L Notes. Such ratings by Moody's address the ultimate cash receipt of all required payments as provided by the governing documents, and are based on the expected loss to the Noteholders of each Class relative to the promise of receiving the present value of such payments. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligation to make any Extension Bonus Payment will not be rated by the Rating Agencies.

All things necessary to make this Indenture a valid agreement of the Co-Issuers in accordance with its terms have been done.

Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, in connection with all calculations required to be made pursuant to this Indenture with respect to Scheduled Distributions on any Pledged Security, or any payments on any other assets included in the Trust Estate, and with respect to the income that can be earned on Scheduled Distributions on such Pledged Securities and on any other amounts that may be received for deposit in the Collection Account, the provisions set forth in this Section 1.3 shall apply.

All calculations with respect to Scheduled Distributions on the Pledged Securities shall be made on the basis of information as to the terms of each such Pledged Security and upon accounting of payments, if any, received on such Pledged Security that are furnished by or on behalf of the issuer of such Pledged Security and such information or report may be conclusively relied upon in making such calculations.

For each Due Period, the Scheduled Distributions on any Pledged Security (excluding any item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral and Equity Portfolio Collateral, as to which Scheduled Distributions shall be assumed to be zero) shall be the amount required to be paid (including coupon payments, accrued interest, scheduled principal payments, if any, by way of sinking fund payments which are assumed to be on a pro rata basis or other scheduled amortization of principal (excluding any optional redemption), return of principal, and redemption premium, if any) that, if paid as scheduled, will be available in the Collection Account at the end of such Due Period. For purposes of calculating interest on Pledged Securities that have a rate of interest which varies with an objective index, the interest to be received thereon shall be assumed to be equal to the interest that would be received on such Pledged Security if the rate of interest accruing on such Pledged Security on the date of determination were to remain constant for each succeeding Due Period.

Each Scheduled Distribution with respect to a Pledged Security shall be assumed to be received on the applicable Due Date, and each such Scheduled Distribution shall be assumed to be immediately deposited in the Collection Account and to earn interest at the Assumed Interest Rate. All funds assumed to earn interest as provided herein shall be assumed to continue to earn interest at the applicable rate until the date on which they are required to be available in the Collection Account for application, in accordance with the terms hereof, to payment of principal of or interest on the Notes or other amounts payable or otherwise for application in accordance with the terms of this Indenture.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture if the Trustee receives an Issuer Order or Issuer Request and also receives a Servicer Order or Servicer Request with respect to the same subject matter, the Issuer Order or Issuer Request, as the case may be, shall supersede any such Servicer Order or Servicer Request and be the controlling order or request hereunder.

THE NOTES

Section 2.1. Forms Generally.

(a) The Notes, the Combination Notes and the Trustee's certificate of authentication thereon shall be in substantially the forms required by this article with such appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as are required or permitted by this Indenture, and may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification and such legends or endorsements placed thereon, as may, consistently herewith, be determined by the Authorized Officer of the Issuer executing such Notes and Combination Notes as evidenced by such Authorized Officer's execution of such Notes and Combination Notes. Any portion of the text of any Note or Combination Note may be set forth on the reverse thereof, with an appropriate reference thereto on the face of the Note or Combination Note.

(b) Regulation S Notes. The Class A-1L Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes, the Class B-1L Notes, the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes initially sold to Non-U.S. Persons in "offshore transactions" (within the meaning of Regulation S) shall be represented initially by single global notes (the "Temporary Regulation S Global Notes") in fully registered form without coupons, authenticated and delivered in substantially the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A-1L-1, Exhibit A-2L-1, Exhibit A-3L-1, Exhibit B-1L-1, Exhibit B-2L-1 and Exhibit C-1 respectively. The Issuer shall deposit such Notes and the Combination Notes on behalf of the subscribers for such Notes with the Trustee as custodian (in such capacity, the "Custodian") for the Depository, registered in the name of a nominee of the Depository, for the accounts of each of the Clearance Systems, for credit by the Clearance Systems to the respective accounts designated by the subscribers of such Notes or Combination Notes (or to such other accounts as they may direct) at each of the Clearance Systems. The Temporary Regulation S Global Notes shall be exchanged for interests in the Permanent Regulation S Global Notes as set forth below. The Permanent Regulation S Global Notes shall be substantially in the form set forth as Exhibit A-1L-2, Exhibit A-2L-2, Exhibit A-3L-2, Exhibit B-1L-2, Exhibit B-2L-2 and Exhibit C-2.

During the Distribution Compliance Period, beneficial interests in Class B-2L Notes and Combination Notes issued in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Note may be transferred for an interest in a Definitive Note of such Class pursuant to and as provided in Section 2.5(b), and after the expiration of the Distribution Compliance Period beneficial interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of each Class shall be exchanged for a Permanent Regulation S Global Note for such Class pursuant to and as provided below.

Without unnecessary delay but in any event prior to the termination of the Distribution Compliance Period, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent the Permanent Regulation S Global Notes executed by the Co-Issuers. Upon the termination of the Distribution Compliance Period any Notes or Combination Notes in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Note shall be surrendered by the Custodian to the Trustee, in each case as the Issuer's agent for such purpose (or, at the Authenticating Agent's option, the Custodian shall be instructed by the Authenticating Agent or the Trustee to endorse each such Temporary Regulation S Global Note to reduce the principal amount thereof), to be exchanged, in whole or from time to time in part, for a Permanent Regulation S Global Note without charge, and the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver to the Custodian for delivery in exchange for each such Temporary Regulation S Global Note or the portions thereof to be exchanged, an equal aggregate principal amount of a Permanent Regulation S Global Note, as shall be specified by the Custodian; provided that, upon such presentation by the Custodian: (i) the Trustee receives a certificate substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit F attached hereto, and signed by the respective Clearance System as to the portions of each Temporary Regulation S Global Note held for the respective accounts of such Clearance System, that it has received from each beneficial owner of the portion of each Temporary Regulation S Global Note then to be exchanged, written certification substantially to the effect set forth in Exhibit G attached hereto, with such changes therein as shall be approved by the Issuer, (ii) none of the Trustee or any Paying Agent have actual knowledge, nor have they received notification from the Issuer with respect to the original issuance and distribution of the Global Notes that such Person has actual knowledge, that such certificate is false, and (iii) the Trustee and any Paying Agent do not have a United States address as the address for payment to any Holder of the Permanent Regulation S Global Note issuable upon such exchange. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of redemption in whole or acceleration of all or any part of the Notes prior to the termination of the Distribution Compliance Period, the Permanent Regulation S Global Notes will not be issuable in respect of the Temporary Regulation S Global Note or portion thereof, and payment thereon will be made as provided in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note. Any other Class of Note in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Note presented to the Trustee for a Permanent Regulation S Global Note shall be endorsed by the Trustee to reduce the principal amount thereof by the amount so exchanged, and shall then be returned to the Custodian, pending exchange of the remaining balance thereof pursuant to the terms hereof.

On each Payment Date, if any, that falls on or prior to the date on which all Temporary Regulation S Global Notes shall have been exchanged for Permanent Regulation S Global Notes (the "Exchange Date"), interest, if any, and principal on the Temporary Regulation S Global Notes shall be paid to the Custodian, acting on behalf of the Clearance System for the benefit of persons for whom the Clearance System holds the Temporary Regulation S Global Notes on each such Payment Date to the extent the Clearance System has delivered a certificate or certificates, appropriately completed and signed, in substantially the form set forth in Exhibit F attached hereto, which certificate or certificates shall be dated the relevant Payment Date and shall be delivered to the Custodian.

The Issuer will obtain from each Clearance System an agreement that it will credit principal and interest, if any, as of each Payment Date that falls on or prior to the termination of the Distribution Compliance Period, received in respect of each Temporary Regulation S Global Note to the respective accounts of the persons for whom the Clearance System holds a Temporary Regulation S Global Note on each such Payment Date, upon, and only upon, receipt of certificates from such account holders in substantially the form set forth in Exhibit G attached hereto to be dated on or before each relevant Payment Date (copies of such form being available from the offices of Clearstream at 67, Boulevard Grande-Duchesse Charlotte, Luxembourg, the offices of Euroclear at 1 Boulevard du Roi Albert II, B-1210 Brussels, Belgium and each other Paying Agent of the Issuer).

Interest and principal payable prior to the Exchange Date in respect of any portion of any Temporary Regulation S Global Note representing Class B-2L Notes or Combination Notes as to which no certificate required by the third preceding paragraph hereof has been received from the Clearance System shall be held by the Trustee for payment together with delivery of Permanent Regulation S Global Notes upon receipt of the certification required hereby.

Upon any such exchange of a portion of any Temporary Regulation S Global Note for a Permanent Regulation S Global Note, the Custodian shall endorse (or, as provided above, the Trustee shall instruct the Custodian to endorse) such Temporary Regulation S Global Note to reflect the reduction of the principal amount evidenced thereby.

(c) Rule 144A Global Notes. The Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes initially sold to U.S. Persons (within the meaning of Rule 144A) shall be represented by single global notes (the "Rule 144A Global Notes") in fully registered form without coupons, authenticated and delivered in substantially the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A-1L-3, Exhibit A-2L-3, Exhibit A-3L-3, and Exhibit B-1L-3 respectively, which the Issuer shall deposit on behalf of the subscribers for such Notes with the Custodian for the Depository and registered in the name of Cede & Co., the nominee of DTC. The Aggregate Principal Amount of each Rule 144A Global Note may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Custodian for DTC or its nominees, as the case may be.

(d) Definitive Class B-2L Notes and Combination Notes. The Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes initially issued to U.S. Persons in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act shall be issued as definitive notes ("Definitive Notes") in fully registered form without coupons, authenticated and delivered in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit B-2L-4 and Exhibit C-4, respectively. On or prior to the Closing Date, the Issuer shall provide to the Trustee or Authenticating Agent (as applicable) an Issuer Order setting forth the amount of Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes (if any) to be issued on the Closing Date in the form of Definitive Notes and registration and delivery instructions (together with payment, taxpayer identification and other necessary information) for each of the Definitive Notes to be issued on the Closing Date. Interest and principal on the Definitive Notes will be paid to the registered holder thereof as indicated in the Note Register, and, in the case of the Preferred Share Component of the Combination Notes, the Share Register.

(e) Book-Entry Provisions. This Section 2.1(e) shall apply only to Regulation S Global Notes or Rule 144A Global Notes ("Global Notes") deposited with or on behalf of the Depository. On or prior to the Closing Date, the Issuer shall provide (i) to the Trustee or Authenticating Agent (as applicable) an Issuer Order setting forth the amount of Notes (if any) to be issued on the Closing Date in the form of Temporary Regulation S Global Notes and Rule 144A Global Notes for each Class, and (ii) to the Depository written instructions listing the names and addresses of the initial beneficial owners of the Temporary Regulation S Global Notes and the Rule 144A Global Notes of each Class or of the Combination Notes (if any) and the amounts of their respective ownership interests (together with payment instructions, taxpayer information and such other information as DTC reasonably may require). A Temporary Regulation S Global Note may be initially issued for each Class with an outstanding principal balance of zero (and the same may be reduced to zero at any time during the Distribution Compliance Period without cancellation).

(f) Definitive Notes. If at any time (including without limitation during the Distribution Compliance Period) (i) the Temporary Regulation S Global Notes or the Permanent Regulation S Global Notes or any of them become immediately due and repayable pursuant to Article Five hereof or (ii) any of DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream (A) is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holiday, statutory or otherwise) or (B) announces an intention permanently to cease business and no alternative clearance system satisfactory to the Issuer is available or (iii) as a result of any amendment to, or change in, the laws or regulations of the Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which becomes effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or any Paying Agent is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Notes which would not be required were the Notes in definitive registered form or (iv) the Issuer so elects by notice to the Noteholders and Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, does not object (as determined by the Issuer), then the Issuer will issue Definitive Notes in exchange for and to the extent of such Global Notes within 30 days of the occurrence of the relevant event set forth in (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) above.

If at any time (i) the Notes or any of them become immediately due and payable following an Event of Default hereunder or (ii) DTC notifies the Issuer or the Trustee in writing that it is unwilling or unable to discharge properly its responsibilities as a depository with respect to the Rule 144A Global Notes or it ceases to be a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act, and the Issuer is unable to locate a qualified successor within 90 days after such notice, then the Issuer will issue Definitive Notes in exchange for and to the extent of such Rule 144A Global Notes within 30 days of the occurrence of the relevant event set forth in (i) or (ii) above.

The Issuer shall notify the Trustee forthwith upon the occurrence of any of the events referred to in the two immediately preceding paragraphs and the Issuer shall, unless the Trustee agrees otherwise, promptly give notice thereof and of its obligation to issue Definitive Notes to the Noteholders. Upon giving such notice, the Issuer promptly shall cause the Custodian, as the case may be, to present forthwith for exchange and surrender such Global Note to the Trustee, for cancellation, together with appropriate exchange, registration, payment and delivery instructions (identifying according to its records the beneficial holders to whom, and in the amounts, the Definitive Notes are to be registered and delivered), upon which the Trustee shall be entitled to rely conclusively. The Issuer shall prepare, execute and deliver to the Trustee at its specified office a sufficient number of duly executed Definitive Notes not later than the 20th day following the date of such notice, and the Trustee shall then promptly authenticate and deliver the appropriate number and amount of such Definitive Notes in accordance with the instructions received from the Custodian.

(g) Form of Notes. The Notes and the Combination Notes shall be typed, printed, lithographed or engraved or produced by any combination of these methods or may be produced in any other manner, all as determined by the Authorized Officers of the Issuer or Co-Issuers, as applicable, executing such Notes or Combination Notes, as evidenced by the Authorized Officers' execution of such Notes or Combination Notes.

Section 2.2. Authorized Amount.

The aggregate principal amount of Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, Class A-2L Notes, Class A-3L Notes, Class B-1L Notes (including such Notes represented by the Note Component) and Class B-2L Notes that may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to $635,000,000, $115,000,000, $76,000,000, $48,000,000, $36,000,000 and $26,000,000, respectively, except for Notes authenticated and delivered upon registration of transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, other Notes pursuant to Section 2.5, 2.6 or 8.5 hereof.

The Combination Notes consisting of the Note Component representing an Aggregate Principal Amount of Class B-1L Notes of U.S. $6,750,000 (which is included in the Class B-1L Notes referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph) and the Preferred Share Component representing 3,250,000 Preferred Shares, shall be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture and shall have an initial Aggregate Principal Amount of U.S. $10,000,000.

Section 2.3. Denominations; Extension of Revolving Period and Final Maturity.

(a) Each Class of the Notes and the Combination Notes shall be issuable on the Closing Date in the forms set forth herein, without coupons, in minimum denominations of $200,000 and integral multiples of $1 in excess thereof (in each case expressed in terms of the stated or principal amounts thereof, as the case may be, at the Closing Date).

(b) The Issuer, if directed by the Board Resolution of the Issuer at the request of the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Revolving Period to the applicable Extended Revolving Period End Date up to a maximum of four times (so that the Notes can only be extended to 2040) if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date in accordance with this Section 2.3, (ii) the Extension Conditions set forth in Section 2.3(d) are satisfied, (iii) the Issuer has given written notice to the Trustee of its election to extend the Revolving Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date and (iv) no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Final Maturity Date of the Notes and the Combination Notes shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Final Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares (other than as may be required pursuant to the Extension Conditions) or amendment or supplement to this Indenture or the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement (the "Maturity Extension"); provided that the Issuer will not be permitted to effect more than four Maturity Extensions.

(c) In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder or Beneficial Owner of Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares wishing to sell such Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to Section 2.3(d) (such Notes and Preferred Shares as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, "Extension Sale Securities"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Holder providing an Extension Sale Notice shall be deemed to agree that no Extension Sale Securities of any Holder shall be purchased unless all Extension Sale Securities of all Holders are purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date and the other Extension Conditions are satisfied as of such date.

(d) The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the "Extension Conditions") are satisfied:

(i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;

(ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions herein, in the Indenture and the Preferred Share Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Notes, Combination Notes and Preferred Shares and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);

(iii) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) either (A) the Class B-2L Overcollateralization Ratio is at least 105% and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied as of the related Extension Determination Date and the Interest Coverage Test was satisfied on the immediately preceding Payment Date, the rating of each Class of Notes or Combination Notes by Moody's has not been downgraded, withdrawn or qualified from that in effect on the Closing Date (unless it subsequently has been reinstated to the rating assigned on the Closing Date) or (B) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody's (so long as any Notes or Combination Notes are then rated by Moody's); and

(iv) (A) the Holders of 100% of the Outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes have delivered the Extension Sale Notice in the Extension Sale Notice Period or (B) if the Holders of 100% of the Outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes fail to deliver an Extension Sale Notice pursuant to the preceding clause (A), either (x) the Issuer, acting through the Servicer, notifies the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes in writing not later than the last day of the Extension Sale Notice Period that such Class A-1LA Notes shall constitute "Extension Sale Securities" (as a result of which such Class A-1LA Notes must be purchased by an Extension Qualifying Purchaser) or (y) the Holders of 100% of the Outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes have consented in writing to the Maturity Extension not later than the last day of the Extension Sale Notice Period; provided that if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied because the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes have failed to deliver an Extension Sale Notice or have failed to provide their written consent to the related Maturity Extension, then the Servicer may extend the Extension Sale Notice Period by seven Business Days if the Servicer reasonably believes that it will receive such Extension Sale Notice or written consent within seven Business Days following the end of the Extension Sale Notice Period.

The Issuer, the Trustee and, by its acceptance of the Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares, each Holder or Beneficial Owner of Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares agrees that the Initial Purchasers or any placement agent shall not be responsible for causing the Extension Conditions to be satisfied and shall not be liable to any such person or Holder of Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares (whether or not such Holder gave an Extension Sale Notice with respect to its Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares) or to any other person if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied. Failure of the Extension Conditions to be satisfied shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture.

(e) The following procedure shall apply to effect any extension of the Revolving Period or the Maturity Date, pursuant to Section 2.3:

(i) No later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer of its election to extend the Revolving Period (the "Extension Notice"), at the cost of the Issuer the Trustee shall deliver the Extension Notice to all Holders of Notes, Combination Notes and the Preferred Shares Paying and Transfer Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preferred Shares and the Combination Notes with respect to the Preferred Share Component) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes, Combination Notes are Outstanding), and shall request the Rating Condition for the Maturity Extension from S&P, if applicable. Such Extension Notice shall include a statement to the effect that (i) no Extension Sale Notice delivered after the end of the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be effective and (ii) subject to Section 2.3(d)(iv)(B), only the Class A-1LA Notes for which an Extension Sale Notice has been delivered may be treated as Extension Sale Securities pursuant to the Extension Conditions (with the result that the Class A-1LA Notes must be purchased by an Extension Qualifying Purchaser).

(ii) Any Holder of Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares may give irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") within 30 days after the Trustee has delivered the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell its Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of Notes (other than the Class A-1LA Notes as described in clause (d)(iv) above) , Combination Notes or Preferred Shares that has not given such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension.

(iii) If the Holders of 100% of the Outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes have not delivered the Extension Sale Notice to the Trustee by the 20th calendar day after the date of the Extension Notice, the Trustee shall notify the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes of the date on which the Extension Sale Notice Period shall end and include a statement to the effect that (A) no Extension Sale Notice delivered after the end of the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be effective and (B) the Class A-1LA Notes for which no Extension Sale Notice has been delivered may be treated as Extension Sale Securities pursuant to clause (iv) of the Extension Conditions (as a result of which the Class A-1LA Notes must be purchased by an Extension Qualifying Purchaser).

(iv) If clause (iii)(b)(A) of the Extension Conditions is not satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date as determined by the Issuer (or its agent), the Trustee shall request the Rating Condition to be satisfied with respect to Moody's.

(v) On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) shall confirm (A) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares in compliance with all transfer restrictions in the Indenture and the legends on such Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (B) whether the requirements of clause (iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (C) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

(vi) On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall become effective hereunder; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth above are satisfied. No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall deliver a notice to all Holders of Notes and the Preferred Shares Paying and Transfer Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preferred Shares), the Servicer, Bear Stearns, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) and the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depository for any Notes subject to the Maturity Extension. None of Bear Stearns, the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any duty to act as an Extension Qualifying Purchaser.

(vii) In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Holder of Notes (other than Extension Sale Securities) shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment to the extent of available funds and as provided in Section 11.1. Holders of the Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment. The obligation to make any Extension Bonus Payment shall not be rated by Rating Agencies.

(f) The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to any applicable qualifying Beneficial Owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification on or before the 5th Business Day prior to the first Payment Date from and including each Extension Effective Date on which funds are available to be used for such purposes in accordance with Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Final Maturity Date and the date of redemption of the Notes. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments on a Payment Date shall not be considered "due and payable" hereunder but are due and payable on the next Payment Date on which funds are due and payable. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Final Maturity Date and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Notes. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid, in the case of the Notes, to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer.

Section 2.4. Execution, Authentication, Delivery and Dating.

The Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer, and the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes (to the extent of the Note Component) shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer, by an Authorized Officer of each of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable. The signature of such Authorized Officers on the Notes or the Combination Notes may be manual or facsimile.

Notes or the Combination Notes bearing the manual or facsimile signature of an individual who was at any time the Authorized Officer of the Co-Issuers (as applicable) shall bind the applicable Co-Issuer, notwithstanding the fact that such individual has ceased to hold such office prior to the authentication and delivery of such Notes or Combination Notes or did not hold such office at the date of issuance of such Notes or Combination Notes.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Co-Issuers may deliver the Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes, and the Issuer may deliver the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes, executed by the Co-Issuer (or the Issuer with respect to the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes) to the Trustee for authentication and the Trustee (or an Authenticating Agent on its behalf), upon Issuer Order, shall authenticate and deliver such Notes and the Combination Notes as provided in this Indenture and not otherwise.

Each Note or Combination Notes authenticated and delivered by the Trustee (or the Authenticating Agent) to or upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated as of the Closing Date. All other Notes or Combination Notes that are authenticated after the Closing Date for any other purpose hereunder shall be dated the date of their authentication.

Notes or Combination Notes issued upon transfer, exchange or replacement of other Notes or Combination Notes shall be issued in authorized denominations reflecting the original aggregate stated or principal amount of the Notes or Combination Notes so transferred, exchanged or replaced, but shall represent only the stated or principal amount of the Notes so transferred, exchanged or replaced. If any Note or Combination Notes is divided into more than one Note or Combination Notes in accordance with this Article II, the stated or original principal amount of such Note or Combination Note shall be proportionately divided among the Notes or Combination Notes delivered in exchange therefor and shall be deemed to be the aggregate stated or original principal amount of such subsequently issued Notes or Combination Notes.

No Note or Combination Note shall be entitled to any benefit under this Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose, unless there appears on such Note or Combination Notes a certificate of authentication, substantially in the form provided for herein, executed by the Trustee (or Authenticating Agent, as provided below) by the manual signature of one of its Authorized Officers, and such certificate upon any Note or Combination Notes shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Note has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder.

Upon the request of the Issuer, the Trustee shall and, at the election of the Trustee, the Trustee may, appoint one or more Authenticating Agents with power to act on its behalf and subject to its direction in the authentication of Notes or Combination Notes in connection with transfers and exchanges thereof hereunder as fully to all intents and purposes as though each such Authenticating Agent had been expressly authorized by this Indenture to authenticate the Notes; provided that any such appointment shall be upon terms and conditions reasonably acceptable to the Trustee (with respect to which the Trustee may require, among other things, appropriate indemnification for any damages, losses or reasonable costs arising from acts or omissions of such Authenticating Agent). For all purposes of this Indenture, the authentication of Notes or Combination Notes by an Authenticating Agent pursuant to this Section shall be deemed to be an authentication of such Notes "by the Trustee."

Investors Bank & Trust Company, is hereby appointed, at the request of the Issuer, as Authenticating Agent for purposes of authenticating Definitive Notes issued in exchange for beneficial interests in the Global Notes.

RSM Robson Rhodes LLP is hereby appointed, at the request of the Issuer, as the initial Irish Paying Agent with respect to the Notes.

Any corporation into which any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, consolidation or conversion to which any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to the corporate trust business of any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent, shall be the successor of such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent hereunder, without the execution or filing of any further act on the part of the parties hereto or such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent or such successor corporation.

Any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent may at any time resign by giving written notice of resignation to the Trustee and the Issuer. The Trustee may at any time terminate the agency of any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent by giving written notice of termination to such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent and the Issuer.

The Trustee shall pay to any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent reasonable compensation and shall reimburse each Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent for expenses reasonably incurred by such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent in the performance of its duties as a Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent, in each case as and to the extent agreed upon between the Trustee and such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent; provided that the Trustee shall be reimbursed for such fees and expenses pursuant to Section 6.7 and provided further that if the appointment of such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent is at the election or request of the Issuer, the Trustee's obligation to make such payments shall be limited to amounts for which it is entitled to be reimbursed pursuant to Section 6.7(b) or (c). The provisions of Section 6.5 shall be applicable to any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent.

Section 2.5. Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause to be kept a register (the "Note Register") in which, subject to such reasonable procedures as it may prescribe, the Issuer shall provide for the registration of the Notes and the Combination Notes and the registration of transfers of the Notes and the Combination Notes. The Trustee is hereby appointed "Note Registrar" for the purpose of registering and transferring the Notes and the Combination Notes as herein provided. The Note Registrar shall supply all relevant documents to the Share Registrar necessary for the Share Registrar to maintain the Share Register accordingly and the Share Registrar shall be able to rely upon such information provided by the Note Registrar without any liability on its part. For so long as a Combination Note is issued and outstanding, the Note Registrar shall cooperate with the Share Registrar as reasonably requested so as to ensure conformity of registrations and transfers of the Preferred Share Component of the Combination Note. The Issuer will notify the Trustee of any Notes or Combination Notes owned by or pledged to the Issuer or any of its Affiliates promptly upon the acquisition thereof or the creation of such pledge. So long as an Event of Default shall be continuing, the Note Registrar shall promptly, upon the written request of a Noteholder or holder of a Combination Note or a Preferred Share, but in no event later than five Business Days following such request, furnish such Noteholder or holder of a Combination Note or a Preferred Share with a list of all other Noteholders, holders of Combination Notes and Preferred Shares (as applicable); provided that the Note Registrar shall have no liability to any person for furnishing the Note Register to any Noteholder or holder of a Combination Note or Preferred Share. The Note Registrar shall, upon request, furnish a copy of the Note Register to the Trustee and the Servicer.

Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (k) of this Section 2.5, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Note or Combination Note, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer (as applicable) shall execute, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of the same Class or Combination Note, of any authorized denomination and of a like aggregate principal amount.

Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (k) of this Section 2.5, at the option of the Holder, Notes or Combination Notes may be exchanged for other Notes of the same Class or Combination Notes, as applicable, in any authorized denominations and of a like aggregate stated or principal amount, upon surrender of the Notes or Combination Notes to be exchanged at the office of the Trustee. Whenever any Notes are so surrendered for exchange, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer (as applicable) shall execute, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver, the Notes that the Holder making the exchange is entitled to receive.

All Notes (with the exception of the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes) issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes shall be the valid obligations of the Co-Issuers, and the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes shall be the valid obligations of the Issuer, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Notes or the Combination Notes, as applicable, surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

Every Note or Combination Note presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Co-Issuers (as applicable) and the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge shall be made to a Holder for any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes or Combination Notes, but the Co-Issuers or the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes or Combination Notes.

(b) No Note or Combination Notes may be sold or transferred (including, without limitation by pledge or hypothecation) unless such sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and is exempt under applicable state securities laws. No purported transfer of any interest in any Note or Combination Note or any portion thereof that is not made in accordance with this Section 2.5 shall be given effect by or be binding upon the Trustee or the Co-Issuers (as applicable) and any such purported transfer shall be null and void ab initio and vest in the transferee no rights against the Trustee, the Co-Issuers (as applicable) or the Trust Estate.

By its acceptance of a Note or Combination Note or a beneficial interest in a Note or Combination Note, each owner thereof will be deemed to have represented and agreed that transfer thereof is restricted and agrees that it shall transfer such Note or Combination Note or beneficial interest in such Note or Combination Note, only in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and such Note or Combination Note and in compliance with applicable law.

The applicable rules, regulations and procedures utilized or imposed by any Clearance System or DTC (collectively, "Applicable Procedures") shall be applicable to the Global Notes insofar as and to the extent beneficial interests in such Global Notes are held by the agent members of or participants in Euroclear, Clearstream or DTC, respectively. Account holders or agent members of or participants in Euroclear, Clearstream and DTC shall have no rights under this Indenture with respect to such Global Notes and DTC (or its nominee) as registered Holder of any Global Notes may be treated by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Note Registrar, the Authenticating Agent and any other Paying Agent (and any agent of any of the foregoing) as the owner of such Global Notes for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Note Registrar, the Authenticating Agent or any Paying Agent from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by DTC or any Clearance System or impair, as between DTC, the Clearance System and its agent members or participants, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a Holder of any Notes. Requests or directions from, or votes of, DTC, or any Clearance System with respect to any matter shall not be deemed inconsistent if made with respect to (or in separate proportions corresponding to) different beneficial owners. None of the Trustee, the Transfer Agent, the Note Registrar, the Authenticating Agent nor the Paying Agent shall have any duty to monitor, maintain records concerning (or determine compliance with any of the restrictions on transfer set forth herein with respect to) owners of beneficial interests in the Global Notes. None of the Trustee, the Transfer Agent, the Note Registrar, the Authenticating Agent nor the Paying Agent shall have any liability for the accuracy of the records of DTC or any Clearance System, or any actions or omissions of DTC or any Clearance System (or of the agent members of or participants in any Clearance System).

A Noteholder may transfer a Note or its beneficial interest in a Note only in accordance with the following provisions:

- (i) Definitive Note to Temporary Regulation S Global Note. To the extent permitted by the Applicable Procedures and subject to the provisions of Section 2.5, if a Holder of a Definitive Note of any Class wishes at any time to transfer its beneficial interest in such Definitive Note to a Non-U.S. Person during the Distribution Compliance Period, such Holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5, transfer its interest in such Definitive Note for an equivalent beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of the same Class. Upon (A) the surrender to the Trustee for cancellation of the Definitive Notes representing the beneficial interest to be so transferred and (B) the receipt by the Trustee and the Co-Issuers of (1) an Investor Representation Letter from such Noteholder's transferee, (2) a Regulation S Transferor Certificate from such Noteholder, and (3) a written order in accordance with the Applicable Procedures containing information regarding the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase in the Regulation S Global Note and the name of such account, the Trustee shall cancel such Definitive Note and, concurrently with such cancellation, instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of the same Class to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Definitive Note so cancelled. In the event of any partial transfer of an interest in a Definitive Note to a Temporary Regulation S Global Note, the Co-Issuers shall execute and provide to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall authenticate and return to the Holder, a Definitive Note evidencing the remaining balance thereof. After the Distribution Compliance Period, interests in any Definitive Notes may not be transferred or exchanged for interests in a Temporary Regulation S Global Note.

(ii) Definitive Note to Permanent Regulation S Global Note. If a Holder of a Definitive Note wishes at any time after the Distribution Compliance Period to transfer its interest in such Definitive Note to a Non-U.S. Person, such Holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5, transfer its interest in such Definitive Note for an equivalent beneficial interest in such Permanent Regulation S Global Note of the same Class. Upon (A) the surrender to the Trustee in the case of any Class of Notes or Combination Notes, of the Definitive Note representing the interest to be so transferred, for cancellation and (B) the receipt by the Trustee and the Co-Issuers of (1) an Investor Representation Letter from such Noteholder's transferee, (2) a Regulation S Transferor Certificate from such Noteholder and (3) a written order in accordance with the Applicable Procedures containing information regarding the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase in the Regulation S Global Note and the name of such account, the Trustee shall cancel such Definitive Note, and, concurrently with such cancellation instruct the Custodian to endorse the Permanent Regulation S Global Note to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Permanent Regulation S Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Definitive Note so cancelled. In the event of any partial transfer of an interest in a Definitive Note to a Permanent Regulation S Global Note, the Co-Issuers or the Issuer, as applicable, shall execute and provide to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall authenticate and return to the Holder, a Definitive Note evidencing the remaining balance thereof (which Definitive Note shall be so mailed or otherwise delivered from a location outside the United States).

In respect of any transfers involving Combination Notes, the Note Registrar shall ensure that the Note Register is amended in respect of the Note Component of the Combination Notes and request the Share Registrar to amend the Share Register in respect of the Preferred Share Component of the Combination Notes.

(iii) Temporary Regulation S Global Note to Definitive Note or Rule 144A Global Note. To the extent permitted by DTC, if a Holder of a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of a particular Class wishes at any time during the Distribution Compliance Period to transfer its beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note to a U.S. Person, such holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5, transfer its beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note for an equivalent interest in a Rule 144A Global Note, or, in the case of a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note, a Definitive Note. Upon receipt by the Trustee of (A) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit G hereto and (B) a written order given in accordance with the Applicable Procedures, the Trustee shall instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note to reflect a reduction of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the Aggregate Principal Amount of the beneficial interest thereof to be so transferred and concurrently with such reduction, in the case of a Rule 144A Global Note, instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Rule 144A Global Note of the same Class to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Rule 144A Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Temporary Regulation S Global Note so reduced, and, in the case of a Definitive Note, the Co-Issuers shall execute and furnish to the Trustee, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver to such Holder, a Definitive Note in a principal amount equal to the amount of the reduction in the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of such Class.

(iv) Transfer of Interests in a Definitive Note. A Holder of a Definitive Note may at any time transfer its interest in such Definitive Note in accordance with this Section 2.5(b)(iv). Any transfer of an interest in a Definitive Note to a Non-U.S. Person during the Distribution Compliance Period shall be made only pursuant to Section 2.5(b)(iii) above. Otherwise the Trustee shall require, prior to any such transfer of a Definitive Note, receipt by the Trustee and the Co-Issuers of (A) an Investor Representation Letter from such Noteholder's transferee and (B) a Transferor Certificate from such Noteholder (which shall only be a Regulation S Transferor Certificate for transfers to Non-U.S. Persons during the Distribution Compliance Period). Upon receipt of such letter and certificate, and surrender to the Trustee the Definitive Note representing the interest to be so transferred, the Trustee shall cancel such Definitive Note and the Co-Issuers shall execute and provide to the Trustee, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver, a Definitive Note to such transferee (and, in the event of a partial transfer, the Co-Issuers shall execute and provide to the Trustee, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver, a Definitive Note evidencing the remaining balance to the transferring Holder).

(v) Transfer of Interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note. Transfers of beneficial interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note may only be made (A) in accordance with Section 2.5(b)(i) above or (B) by book-entry transfer of beneficial interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note within the Clearance System (and subject to the Applicable Procedures) to Non-U.S. Persons in accordance with Regulation S in "offshore transactions" (as defined in Regulation S).

(vi) Transfer of Interests in a Permanent Regulation S Global Note. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in the Permanent Regulation S Global Note wishes at any time to transfer its beneficial interest in such Permanent Regulation S Global Note to a U.S. Person, such Holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5 and the Applicable Procedures, transfer its beneficial interest in such Permanent Regulation S Global Note for an equivalent interest in a Rule 144A Global Note or, in the case of the Class B-2L Notes or the Combination Note, a Definitive Note. Upon receipt by the Trustee of (A) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit G hereto and (B) a written order given in accordance with the Applicable Procedures, the Trustee shall instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Permanent Regulation S Global Note to reflect a reduction of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the Aggregate Principal Amount of the beneficial interest thereof to be so transferred and concurrently with such reduction, in the case of a Rule 144A Global Note, instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Rule 144A Global Note of the same Class to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Rule 144A Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Permanent Regulation S Global Note so reduced, and, in the case of a Definitive Note, the Issuer shall execute and furnish to the Trustee (or Paying Agent, as directed by the Trustee) and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to such Holder a Definitive Note in the Aggregate Principal Amount equal to the amount of the reduction in the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Permanent Regulation S Global Note (which Definitive Note shall be mailed or otherwise delivered to such Holder from a location outside the United States). Interests in any Permanent Regulation S Global Note shall not be exchanged for or transferred to a Definitive Note (except pursuant to the preceding sentence or Section 2.1, if applicable).

(vii) Transfer of Interest in a Rule 144A Global Note. Subject to the provisions of Section 2.5(k), transfers of beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note may only be made (A) in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.5(b)(iv) or (B) by book-entry transfer of beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note within DTC (and subject to the Applicable Procedures) and in accordance with the transfer restrictions contained in the legend on such Rule 144A Global Note. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Note wishes to transfer its beneficial interest in such Rule 144A Global Note to a Non-U.S. Person, such holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5 and the Applicable Procedures, transfer its beneficial interest in such Rule 144A Global Note for an equivalent interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Note or a Permanent Regulation S Global Note, provided such transfer occurs after the Distribution Compliance Period. Upon receipt by the Trustee of (A) a Regulation

S Transferor Certificate from such Noteholder and (B) a written order given in accordance with the DTC's Applicable Procedures, the Trustee shall instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Rule 144A Global Note to reflect a reduction of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the Aggregate Principal Amount of the beneficial interest thereof to be so transferred and concurrently with such reduction, instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note or the Permanent Regulation S Global Note of the same Class to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note or Permanent Regulation S Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Rule 144A Global Note so reduced.

(viii) Exchange of Combination Notes into Component Securities. Subject to the provisions of Section 2.5(l), a Holder of a Combination Note may exchange all or a proportionate amount of each Component Security for (i) a Definitive Note of the Class B-1L Notes or for proportional interests in a Rule 144A Global Note or a Regulation S Global Note of the Class B-1L Note (in the Case of the Note Component) in the amount of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the applicable Note Component being exchanged, and (ii) a Class I Preferred Share certificate (in the case of the Preferred Share Component) representing the number of Class I Preferred Shares comprised in the Preferred Share Component being exchanged, in the manner specified in this Indenture. Such exchange is subject to delivery to the Trustee, the Note Registrar, the Share Registrar and the Issuer of written certifications, substantially in the form of Exhibit B and Exhibit C or Exhibit D, as applicable, to the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement at least 10 Business Days prior to the Payment Date on which such exchange shall become effective.

No Holder of the Combination Notes may exchange or transfer any Note Component or any Preferred Share Component thereof without also exchanging or transferring the proportionate amount of the Preferred Share Component or the Note Component being exchanged or transferred.

The Trustee, upon receipt of such duly completed certificate and such Combination Note, shall (i) cancel such Combination Note (or, by following the procedures of the Depository, decrease the Aggregate Principal Amount of such Combination Note), (ii) authenticate and deliver, without charge, Notes in (or, by following the procedures of the Depository, increase the Aggregate Principal Amount of the applicable Global Note by) the same Aggregate Principal Amount as the Note Component surrendered for exchange and (iii) direct the Paying and Transfer Agent to deliver (in the case of a Preferred Share sold in reliance on Regulation S, by following the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream for delivery to the account of the Holder of the Combination Notes) a certificate for the Class I Preferred Shares represented by the face amount of such Preferred Share Component surrendered for exchange. Thereafter, the Holder of a Combination Note (or a beneficial interest therein) exchanged hereunder shall become the Holder of the Class B-1L Notes and Class I Preferred Shares (or beneficial interests therein) received upon such an exchange. At any time that the Combination Notes represent interests only in the Preferred Share Components, the Issuer will notify the holders of the Combination Notes and require the exchange of the Combination Notes for the Class I Preferred Shares.

Notwithstanding anything else in this Section 2.5, such Definitive Note or proportional interest in a Rule 144A Global Note or Regulation S Global Note, and such Preferred Share certificate (collectively, "Exchanged Interests") may be in a principal amount or number of shares, as the case may be, smaller than the authorized minimum otherwise applicable thereto; provided that the exchanging Holder of such Combination Note may not thereafter transfer any such Exchanged Interest except to a Person that, after giving effect to such transfer, would hold at least the authorized minimum principal amount or number of shares applicable to such Exchanged Interests.

No Holder of any Note or Preferred Share (including a Holder that receives such Note or Preferred Share upon exchange under this Section 2.5(b)(viii)) will have the right to exchange such Note or Preferred Share for a Combination Note.

At any time that the Combination Notes represent interests only in the Preferred Share Component, the Trustee, on behalf of the Issuer, shall send a notice to the Holders of the Combination Notes informing them that the Holders of the Combination Notes must deliver the Combination Notes to the Paying and Transfer Agent for exchange into the Class I Preferred Shares represented by the Preferred Share Component and, upon such delivery, the Paying and Transfer Agent, in accordance with the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, shall deliver a certificate representing such Preferred Shares to such Holders within five (5) Business Days of delivery to it of the Combination Notes.

No service charge shall be made for any exchange of Combination Notes into Component Securities, but the Trustee or the Paying and Transfer Agent may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

(ix) Initial Sale of Notes. Notwithstanding anything in clauses (i) through (viii) of this Section 2.5(b) to the contrary, in connection with any sale of Initial Purchaser Notes by any Initial Purchaser, no delivery of an Investor Representation Letter or a Transferor Certificate shall be required so long as each purchaser of Notes executes and delivers a transferee certificate acceptable to Bear Stearns (which certificate shall, in the case of any transfer pursuant to Sections 2.5(b)(i) or 2.5(b)(ii), identify each transferee of a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note, including name, address, payment instructions, Taxpayer information and such other information as the Trustee reasonably may require), which transferee certificate shall be delivered to the Trustee.

(x) Securities Act. No transfer of any Note or any beneficial interest in any Note shall be made unless such transfer (a) is made pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act and registration or qualification under applicable state securities laws or (b) is exempt from such registration or qualification requirements.

The Investor Representation Letters (and any alternative certification acceptable to Bear Stearns pursuant to clause (vi) above) and the Transferor Certificates furnished pursuant to this Section may be relied on conclusively by the Trustee in determining whether the provisions of this Section have been complied with. None of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee or any other person shall be required to register the Notes under the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

(c) (i) Unless a prospective Holder of a Note (and each beneficial owner of an interest in a Global Note) otherwise provides another representation acceptable to each of the Trustee, the Servicer and the Issuer, each Holder of a Note other than a Class B-1L Note, a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note (and each beneficial owner of an interest in a Class B-1L Note, a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note in the form of a Global Note), by its purchase thereof, shall be deemed to have represented to the Issuer, the Servicer and the Trustee that (a) no part of the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Notes constitutes an asset of any "employee benefit plan" (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) or "plan" (as defined in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code) that is subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (each a "Plan"), including assets held in an insurance company general account, or (b) if the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Notes include assets of any Plan, an exemption to the prohibited transaction rules applies to the purchase and holding of such Notes.

(ii) Each Holder of a Class B-1L Note shall be required (and each beneficial owner of an interest in a Class B-1L Note shall be deemed) to represent to the Issuer, the Servicer and the Trustee that either (a) the purchaser or transferee is not a Plan and is not acquiring the Class B-1L Note with assets of a Plan, (b) it is an insurance company and such funds include only assets of its general account, and its acquisition and holding of such Note are eligible for exemptive relief available under Section I of PTCE 95-60, or (c) the acquisition and holding of the Class B-1L Notes by the purchaser or transferee are eligible for the exemptive relief available under any of Section 408(b)(17) of ERISA or PTCE 96-23, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14.

(iii) Each Holder of a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note shall be required (and each beneficial owner of an interest in a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note in global form shall be deemed) to represent to the Issuer, the Servicer and the Trustee that either (a) no part of the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Note or Combination Note constitutes "plan assets" of any Plan or other "benefit plan investor" (as defined in Section 3(42) of ERISA) (a "Benefit Plan Investor"), or (b) if the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Note or Combination Note include "plan assets" of any Plan or other Benefit Plan Investor, (1) it is purchasing the Class B-2L Notes or Combination Notes with assets of an "insurance company general account" within the meaning of PTCE 95-60, its purchase and holding of the Class B-2L Note or Combination Note are eligible for the exemptive relief available under Section I of PTCE 95-60, less than 25% of the assets of such insurance company general account constitute "plan assets" of Benefit Plan Investors, and if, after the initial acquisition of Class B-2L Notes or Combination Notes, during any calendar quarter 25% or more of the assets of such general account (as determined by such insurance company) constitute "plan assets" of Benefit Plan Investors and full exemptive relief from the prohibited transaction prohibitions of Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code is not available under Section 401(c) of ERISA and the regulations thereunder, then such investor will dispose of all of the Class B-2L Notes and Combination Notes then held in such general account by the end of the next following calendar quarter; or (2) its purchase and holding of the Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note are eligible for the exemptive relief available under any of Section 408(b)(17) of ERISA or PTCE 96-23, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14. No purchase of a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note by a Plan or a person investing on behalf of or with "plan assets" of a Benefit Plan Investor shall be allowed unless, after giving effect to such transfer and all other purchases occurring simultaneously with such transfer, less than 25% of each of the Class B-2L Notes or the Combination Notes and the Preferred Shares (excluding any such Note, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares held by the Servicer or its affiliates or clients) will be held by Benefit Plan Investors, and each potential Holder of a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note will furnish to the Issuer and the Trustee information sufficient to ensure that this condition is met. Each potential Holder of a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note will be required to represent and agree that it will not assign or transfer such Class B-2L Note or Combination Note unless (1) the proposed transferee or assignee delivers a letter to the Trustee evidencing its agreement to the foregoing ERISA representations and covenants with respect to its purchase, holding and transfer of such Class B-2L Note or Combination Note and (2) if the Holder (x) is not, and is not acting on behalf of a Benefit Plan Investor, the assignee or transferee will also not be a Benefit Plan Investor, or (y) is or is acting on behalf of an insurance company general account, the assignee or transferee will be accurately identified in such letter as either another insurance company general account or a person who is not and is not acting on behalf of a Benefit Plan Investor; or (z) is or is acting on behalf of or with "plan assets" of a Benefit Plan Investor (other than an insurance company general account), the assignee or transferee will be accurately identified in such letter as either an insurance company general account, another Benefit Plan Investor or a person who is not and is not acting on behalf of any Benefit Plan Investor; provided that for purposes of clauses (x), (y) and (z), a transfer by a Holder (the "Transferring Holder") to Bear Stearns in a secondary market transaction and subsequent transfers by Bear Stearns to a Holder (the "Transferee Holder"), shall be deemed to be a transfer by the Transferring Holder to the Transferee Holder and Bear Stearns may therefore transfer such Notes to any potential Holder to whom the Transferring Holder would be permitted to transfer.

(d) No Note or Combination Note shall be sold or transferred (including, without limitation, by pledge or hypothecation), except to Non-U.S. Persons in "offshore transactions" in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act, who, in the case of the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes are also Qualified Institutional Buyers (or, solely in the case of a Holder purchasing Class B-2L Notes on the Closing Date, is an Institutional Accredited Investor), unless the purchaser or transferee is a Qualified Purchaser. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, no transfer of a Note or Combination Note may be made if such transfer would require registration of the Issuer or Co-Issuer under the Investment Company Act (subject, as regards the Trustee's duties, to Section 2.5(f) below).

(e) At any time when the Issuer is not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, upon the request of any Noteholder, the Issuer shall promptly furnish to such Noteholder or to a prospective purchaser of any Note or Combination Note designated by such Noteholder, as the case may be, the information which the Issuer determines to be required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act ("Rule 144A Information") in order to permit compliance by such Noteholder with Rule 144A in connection with the resale of such Note or Combination Note by such Noteholder; provided that the Issuer shall not be required to provide audited financial statements more than once a year or to furnish Rule 144A Information in connection with any request made on or after the date that is three years from the later of (i) the date such Note or Combination Note (or any predecessor Note or Combination Note) was acquired from the Issuer or (ii) the date such Note or Combination Note (or any predecessor Note or Combination Note) was last acquired from an "affiliate" of the Issuer within the meaning of Rule 144A, in each case as determined by the Issuer. Upon request by the Issuer, the Trustee shall cooperate with the Issuer in mailing or otherwise distributing (at the Issuer's expense) to such Noteholders or prospective purchasers, at and pursuant to the Issuer's written direction, the foregoing materials prepared and provided by the Issuer; provided that the Trustee shall be entitled to affix thereto or enclose therewith such disclaimers as the Trustee shall deem reasonably appropriate, at its discretion (such as, for example, a disclaimer that such Rule 144A Information was assembled by the Issuer and not by the Trustee, that the Trustee has not reviewed or verified the accuracy thereof, and that it makes no representation as to the sufficiency of such information under Rule 144A or for any other purpose).

(f) The Trustee shall not be responsible for ascertaining whether any transfer complies with, or otherwise to monitor or determine compliance with, the requirements or terms of the Securities Act, applicable state securities laws, ERISA, the Code or the Investment Company Act; except that if a certificate is specifically required by the terms of this Section to be provided to the Trustee by a prospective transferee, transferor or the Issuer, the Trustee shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether it conforms substantially on its face to the applicable requirements of this Section.

(g) If a Responsible Officer of the Trustee becomes aware that (i) a transfer or attempted or purported transfer of any Note or Combination Note or interest therein was consummated in compliance with the provisions of this Section 2.5 on the basis of a materially incorrect certification from the transferor or purported transferee, (ii) a transferee failed to deliver to the Trustee any certificate required to be delivered hereunder or (iii) the Holder of any Note or Combination Note or interest therein is in material breach of any representation or agreement set forth in any certificate or any deemed representation or agreement of such Holder, the Trustee will direct the Note Registrar not to register such attempted or purported transfer and if a transfer has been registered, such transfer shall be absolutely null and void ab initio and shall vest no rights in the purported transferee (such purported transferee, a "Disqualified Transferee") and the last preceding Holder of such Note or Combination Note that was not a Disqualified Transferee shall be restored to all rights as a Holder thereof retroactively to the date of transfer of such Note or Combination Note by such Holder.

(h) For so long as one or more Global Notes are Outstanding:

(i) the Trustee and its directors, officers, employees and agents may deal with the Depository, with respect to all Global Notes (the "Depository") for all purposes (including the making of distributions on, and the giving of notices with respect to, the Global Notes);

(ii) unless otherwise provided herein, the rights of beneficial owner in a Global Note shall be exercised only through the respective Depository and shall be limited to those established by law and agreements between such beneficial owners and the respective Depository;

(iii) for purposes of determining the identity of and Aggregate Principal Amount of Notes or Combination Notes beneficially owned by a Holder, the records of the Depository shall be conclusive evidence of such identity and Aggregate Principal Amount and the Trustee may conclusively rely on such records when acting hereunder;

(iv) the Depository will make book-entry transfers among the Depository participants of the Depository and will receive and transmit distributions of principal of and interest on the Global Notes to such Depository participants; and

(v) the Depository participants of the Depository shall have no rights under this Indenture under or with respect to any of the Global Notes held on their behalf by the Depository, and the Depository may be treated by the Trustee and its agents, employees, officers and directors as the absolute owner of the Global Notes for all purposes whatsoever.

(i) Each transferee of a Note (excluding any transferee of a Note (other than a Class B-2L Note transferred after the Closing Date or a Combination Note) who is a non-U.S. Person in an offshore transaction under Regulation S but including any transferee of a Class B-2L Note transferred after the Closing Date or a Combination Note who is a non-U.S. Person in an offshore transaction under Regulation S) or a Combination Note will be deemed to represent at time of transfer that the transferee is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and that (i) it is a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) it is not formed for the purpose of investing in the Notes or Combination Notes, unless each of its beneficial owners is a Qualified Purchaser, (iii) it is not a dealer described in paragraph (a)(1)(ii) of Rule 144A unless such transferee owns and invests on a discretionary basis at least U.S.$25 million in securities of issuers that are not affiliated persons of such dealer, (iv) it is not a plan referred to in paragraph (a)(1)(i)(D) or (E) of Rule 144A or a trust fund referred to in paragraph (a)(1)(i)(F) of Rule 144A that holds the assets of such plan, unless investment decisions are made solely by the fiduciary, trustee or sponsor of such plan, (v) it and each account for which it is purchasing is purchasing Notes or Combination Notes in at least the minimum denomination and (vi) it will provide written notice of the foregoing and any other applicable transfer restrictions to any transferee.

(j) Any Note or Combination Note issued upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes or Combination Notes shall bear such applicable legend set forth in the relevant Exhibit hereto unless there is delivered to the Trustee, Note Registrar and the Issuer such satisfactory evidence, which may include an Opinion of Counsel, as may be reasonably required by any of the Trustee, Note Registrar and the Issuer to the effect that (i) neither such applicable legend nor the restrictions on transfer set forth therein are required to ensure that transfers thereof comply with the provisions of Rule 144A and to ensure that neither of the Co-Issuers nor the Portfolio Collateral becomes an investment company required to be registered under the Investment Company Act, and (ii) the Co-Issuers and the Portfolio Collateral are exempt from registration under the Investment Company Act other than by reason of Section 3(c)(7) thereof. Upon provision of such satisfactory evidence, the Trustee, at the direction of the Issuer, shall authenticate and deliver Notes or Combination Notes that do not bear such applicable legend.

(k) If, notwithstanding the restrictions set forth in this Section 2.5, either of the Co-Issuers determines that any beneficial owner or Holder of a Rule 144A Global Note (i) is a U.S. Person and (ii) is not (A) a Qualified Purchaser or (B) a company beneficially owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, the Co-Issuers may require, by notice to such beneficial owner or Holder, as the case may be, that such beneficial owner or Holder sell all of its right, title and interest to such Note or Combination Note (or interest therein) to a Person that is both (1) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (2) a Qualified Purchaser or a company beneficially owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, with such sale to be effected within 30 days after notice of such sale requirement is given. If such beneficial owner or Holder fails to effect the transfer required within such 30-day period, (x) upon written direction from the Issuer, the Trustee shall, and is hereby irrevocably authorized by such beneficial owner or Holder, as the case may be, to cause its interest in such Note or Combination Note to be transferred in a commercially reasonable sale (conducted by the Trustee or by an investment banking firm selected by the Trustee and approved by the Issuer (whose fees are to be paid exclusively from the proceeds of such sale)), in accordance with Section 9-504(3) of the UCC as applied to securities that are sold on a recognized market or that may decline speedily in value) to a Person that certifies to the Trustee and the Co-Issuers, in connection with such transfer, that such Person is both (1) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (2) a Qualified Purchaser or a company beneficially owned exclusively by one or more Qualified Purchasers and (y) pending such transfer, no further payments will be made in respect of such Note or Combination Note (or beneficial interest therein) held by such Holder or beneficial owner.

(l) So long as Combination Notes represented by Regulation S Global Notes remain outstanding and are held by or on behalf of the Depository, transfers and exchanges of the interests in such Regulation S Global Notes shall only be made in accordance with Section 2.1 and 2.5 and any such transfers will be subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5(l). If a transfer of a beneficial interest in Regulation S Global Notes requires the Trustee to instruct the Depository to reduce or increase the Aggregate Principal Amount of Combination Notes that include the Preferred Share Component represented by the Regulation S Global Note, the Issuer shall cancel the Regulation S Global Note and issue a new Regulation S Global Note registered in the name of such Depository representing the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Combination Note after the transfer. The new Regulation S Global Note shall be deposited with the Depository. The Trustee shall ensure that the Note Register is amended, and shall notify the Share Registrar to amend the Share Register, to reflect the transfers of the Class B-1L Notes and Class I Preferred Shares, respectively, represented by the Combination Note in the form of the Regulation S Global Note. The Issuer is not required to issue a Regulation S Global Note at any time that the Aggregate Principal Amount of Combination Notes is zero.

Section 2.6. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Notes or Combination Notes.

If (i) any mutilated Note or Combination Note is surrendered to the Trustee or the Issuer or the Trustee and the Issuer receive evidence to their reasonable satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Note or Combination Note, and (ii) in the case of a destroyed, lost, or stolen Note or Combination Note, there is delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless (an unsecured indemnity agreement of an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any State in the United States with a net worth at least equal to twice the amount of the security or indemnity being deemed sufficient to satisfy such security or indemnity requirement), then, in the absence of notice to the Co-Issuers or the Trustee that such Note or Combination Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the Co-Issuers shall execute and, upon a written request therefor by the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note or Combination Note, a new Note or Combination Note of the same Class, tenor and principal amount, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding. If, after the delivery of such new Note or Combination Note, a protected purchaser of the original Note or Combination Note in lieu of which such new Note or Combination Note was issued presents such original Note or Combination Note for payment, the Issuer and the Trustee shall be entitled to recover such new Note or Combination Note from the Person to whom it was delivered or any Person taking title therefrom, except a protected purchaser, and the Issuer and the Trustee shall be entitled to recover upon the security or indemnity provided therefor to the extent of any loss, damage, cost or expense incurred by the Co-Issuers, or the Trustee, in connection therewith. If any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note or Combination Note shall have become or shall be about to become due and payable in full, or shall have been called for redemption in full, instead of issuing a new Note, the Co-Issuers may pay such Note or Combination Note without surrender thereof, except that any mutilated Note or Combination Note shall be surrendered.

Upon the issuance of any new Note or Combination Note under this Section 2.6, the Issuer or the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed or any other reasonable expense in relation thereto.

Every new Note or Combination Note issued pursuant to this Section in lieu of any mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note or Combination Note shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation of the Issuer, whether or not the mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note or Combination Note shall be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be entitled to all the benefits of this Indenture equally and proportionately with any and all other Notes or Combination Notes of the same Class duly issued hereunder.

The provisions of this Section are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights and remedies with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes or Combination Notes.

Section 2.7. Payments on the Notes.

(a) No principal will be payable in respect of the Class A-1L Notes (and principal collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be applied as described herein) during the Revolving Period, except in the event of an Initial Deposit Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-1L Notes as described herein. On each Payment Date with respect to the Amortization Period, the principal of the Class A-1L Notes will be payable (to the extent of funds available therefor and in the order of priority described herein) first to the Class A-1LA Notes and then to the Class A-1LB Notes, until the Payment Date on which the Aggregate Principal Amount of such Class A-1L Notes have been paid in full. The unpaid principal amount of the Class A-1L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to any of the Class A-1L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-1L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Initial Deposit Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-1L Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class A-1L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

The unpaid principal amount of the Class A-2L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to the Class A-2L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-2L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-2L Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class A-2L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

(c) No principal will be payable in respect of the Class A-3L Notes (and principal collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be applied as described herein) during the Revolving Period, except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-3L Notes, but only after the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1L Notes and the Class A-2L Notes have been paid in full. The unpaid principal amount of the Class A-3L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to the Class A-3L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-3L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-3L Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class A-3L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

(d) No principal will be payable in respect of the Class B-1L Notes (and principal collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be applied as described herein) during the Revolving Period, except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class B-1L Notes, but only after the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes have been paid in full. The unpaid principal amount of the Class B-1L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to the Class B-1L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class B-1L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class B-1L Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class B-1L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

(e) Except in connection with the application of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement or upon the failure of the Class B-2L Overcollateralization Test, as described herein, no principal will be payable in respect of the Class B-2L Notes during the Revolving Period, except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class B-2L Notes, but only after the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes and Class B-1L Notes have been paid in full. The principal amount of the Class B-2L Notes shall be due and payable (to the extent of funds available therefore and in the order of priority as described herein) on each Payment Date during the Amortization Period, but only after the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes have been paid in full (except in connection with the application of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement or upon the failure of the Class B-2L Overcollateralization Test). The unpaid principal amount of the Class B-2L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to the Class B-2L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class B-2L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class B-2L Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class B-2L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

(f) Payments in respect of the Combination Notes shall be made as set forth in Section 16.3 hereof.

(g) Holders of the Notes of each Class as of the Record Date in respect of a Payment Date or as of the Redemption Record Date with respect to the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, an Optional Redemption Date, a Special Redemption Date, a Tax Event Redemption Date or a Mandatory Redemption Date, shall be entitled, to the extent provided for herein, to the interest accrued and payable and principal payable (or Initial Deposit Redemption Price, an Optional Redemption Price, a Special Redemption Price, a Tax Event Redemption Price or a Mandatory Redemption Price payable, as applicable) on such Payment Date or Redemption Record Date with respect to the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, an Optional Redemption Date, a Special Redemption Date, a Tax Event Redemption Date or a Mandatory Redemption Date. Payments of principal to Holders entitled thereto shall be made in the proportion that the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes of such Class registered in the name of each such Holder on such Record Date or Redemption Record Date with respect to the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, an Optional Redemption Date, a Special Redemption Date, a Tax Event Redemption Date or a Mandatory Redemption Date.

(h) Interest accrued with respect to any Class of Notes shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year and the actual number of days elapsed during each Periodic Interest Accrual Period.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the obligations of the Co-Issuers' under this Indenture and the payment of principal of, interest on and all other amounts payable on or in respect of the Class A-1L Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes (including, with respect to the Class B-1L Notes, the Note Component) will constitute nonrecourse obligations of the Co-Issuers, and the payment of principal of, interest on and all other amounts payable on or in respect Class B-2L Notes will constitute nonrecourse obligations of the Issuer, payable solely from the Trust Estate. Having realized the Collateral and distributed the net proceeds thereof, in each case in accordance with this Indenture, neither the Trustee nor any holders of Notes or Combination Notes may take any further steps against the Co-Issuers to recover any sum still unpaid in respect of any claims under this Indenture or the Notes or Combination Notes issued under this Indenture and all claims against the Co-Issuers in respect of any such sum due but still unpaid shall be extinguished and shall not revive. Neither of the Co-Issuers, nor any of their respective agents, partners, beneficiaries, officers, directors, employees or any Affiliate of any of them or any of their respective successors or assigns shall be personally liable for any amounts payable, or performance due, under the Notes, Combination Notes or this Indenture. It is understood that the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not (A) prevent recourse to the Trust Estate for the sums due or to become due under any security, instrument or agreement which is part of the Trust Estate or (B) constitute a waiver, release or discharge of any indebtedness or obligation evidenced by the Notes, Combination Notes or secured by this Indenture, but the same shall continue until paid or discharged or (C) constitute a waiver of an otherwise valid cause of action with respect to the performance of the Servicer's obligations as set forth in the Servicing Agreement or (D) constitute a waiver of any otherwise valid cause of action against the Co-Issuers wherein the loss complained of is directly attributable to the willful misconduct or fraud of the Co-Issuers in making their respective representations or warranties or the performance of their respective obligations under this Indenture or (E) limit the right of any person to name the Co-Issuers as parties defendant in any action, suit or in the exercise of any other remedy under the Notes, Combination Notes or in this Indenture, so long as no judgment in the nature of a deficiency judgment or seeking personal liability shall be asked for or (if obtained) enforced against any such person or entity.

Section 2.8. Persons Deemed Owners.

The Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Note Registrar and the Servicer, and any agent of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Note Registrar and the Servicer shall treat the Person in whose name any Note or Combination Note is registered as it appears on the Note Register (or Share Register in the case of the Preferred Share Component of the Combination Notes) as the owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payments on such Note or Combination Note, and for all other purposes whatsoever (whether or not such Note or Combination Note is overdue), and none of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Note Registrar or the Servicer, nor any agent of any of them, shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 2.9. Cancellation.

All Notes or Combination Notes surrendered for payment, registration of transfer, exchange or redemption, or deemed destroyed, lost or stolen, shall, if surrendered to any Person other than the Trustee, be delivered to the Trustee and shall be promptly cancelled by it. No Notes or Combination Notes shall be authenticated in lieu of or in exchange for any Notes or Combination Notes cancelled as provided in this Section 2.9, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture. All cancelled Notes or Combination Notes held by the Trustee shall be destroyed or held by the Trustee in accordance with its standard retention policy unless the Issuer shall direct by an Issuer Order that they be returned to the Issuer.

Section 2.10. Tax Purposes.

Each of the Co-Issuers shall, and each Holder by acceptance of its Note shall be deemed to have agreed to, treat the Notes as debt solely of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes and to treat the Preferred Shares as equity of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes.

Section 2.11. Calculation Agent; Determination of LIBOR.

(a) The Issuer hereby agrees that for so long as any of the Notes remain Outstanding, there will at all times be an agent appointed to calculate LIBOR in respect of each Periodic Interest Accrual Period in accordance with the terms of the Notes. The Issuer has initially appointed Investors Bank & Trust Company, as agent with respect to the determination of LIBOR (in such capacity, the "Calculation Agent"). The Calculation Agent may be removed by the Issuer at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Issuer, or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine LIBOR for a Periodic Interest Accrual Period, the Issuer will promptly appoint as a replacement Calculation Agent a leading bank which is engaged in transactions in U.S. dollar deposits in the international U.S. dollar market and which does not control or is not controlled by or under common control with the Co-Issuers or their Affiliates. The Calculation Agent may not resign or be removed from its respective duties without a successor having been duly appointed.

(b) The Calculation Agent shall determine LIBOR for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period in accordance with the following provisions:

On each LIBOR Determination Date, LIBOR shall equal the rate, as obtained by the Calculation Agent, for three-month U.S. dollar deposits which appears on Telerate Page 3750 (as reported by Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News) or such other page as may replace such Page 3750, as of 11:00 a.m. (London time) on such LIBOR Determination Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, LIBOR for the initial Periodic Interest Accrual Period shall be determined through the use of straight-line interpolation by reference to two rates calculated in accordance with the provisions above, one of which shall be for five-month U.S. dollar deposits and the other of which shall be for six-month U.S. dollar deposits.

If, on any LIBOR Determination Date, such rate does not appear on Telerate Page 3750 (as reported by Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News) or such other page as may replace such Page 3750, the Calculation Agent shall determine the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations of the Reference Banks (as defined below) to leading banks in the London interbank market for three-month (or five-month or six-month, as applicable) U.S. dollar deposits in an amount determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to requests for quotations as of approximately 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the LIBOR Determination Date made by the Calculation Agent to the Reference Banks. If, on any LIBOR Determination Date, at least two of the Reference Banks provide such quotations, LIBOR shall equal such arithmetic mean of such quotations. If, on any LIBOR Determination Date, only one or none of the Reference Banks provide such quotations, LIBOR shall be deemed to be the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations that leading banks in The City of New York selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer) are quoting on the relevant LIBOR Determination Date for three-month (or five-month or six-month, as applicable) U.S. dollar deposits in an amount determined by the Calculation Agent that is representative of a single transaction in such market at such time by reference to the principal London offices of leading banks in the London interbank market; provided that, if the Calculation Agent is required but is unable to determine a rate in accordance with at least one of the procedures provided above, LIBOR shall be LIBOR as determined on the previous LIBOR Determination Date. As used herein, "Reference Banks" means four major banks in the London interbank market selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer).

For purposes of any calculations referred to in this paragraph (b), all percentages resulting from such calculations will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point.

(c) As soon as possible after 11:00 a.m. (New York time) on each LIBOR Determination Date, but in no event later than 11:00 a.m. (New York time) on the Business Day immediately following each LIBOR Determination Date, the Calculation Agent will notify the Issuer, the Trustee, the Irish Paying Agent (as long as any of the Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange) and the Servicer of LIBOR for the next Periodic Interest Accrual Period. The Calculation Agent will also specify to the Issuer the quotations upon which LIBOR is based, and in any event the Calculation Agent shall notify the Issuer before 5:00 p.m. (New York time) on each LIBOR Determination Date that either: (i) it has determined or is in the process of determining LIBOR or (ii) it has not determined and is not in the process of determining LIBOR together with its reasons therefor.

(d) Upon receipt of notice of LIBOR for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period from the Calculation Agent pursuant to subsection (c) of this Section 2.11, the Trustee shall determine the Applicable Periodic Rate with respect to the Notes for such Periodic Interest Accrual Period and notify the Irish Stock Exchange of the Applicable Periodic Rate for each Class of Note (as long as any of the Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange).

(e) The determination of LIBOR by the Calculation Agent and the Applicable Periodic Rate with respect to the Notes by the Trustee (in the absence of manifest error) shall be final and binding upon all parties.

Section 2.12. Option to Acquire Credit Enhancement.

Holders of any Class of Notes may elect to acquire bond insurance, a surety bond or similar credit enhancement supporting the payment of principal and/or interest on such Class of Notes, on terms and conditions acceptable to such Holders and at the sole expense of such Holders. Any Class of Notes subject to such enhancement will be designated pursuant to a supplemental indenture adopted pursuant to Section 8.1 as "Insured Notes" of such Class. Premiums for any such enhancement (together with any other amounts payable to the issuer of such bond insurance policy, surety bond or similar credit enhancement, including, without limitation, amounts payable to any such issuer to reimburse it for draws thereunder, together with interest thereon), and costs incurred by the Co-Issuers in connection with such enhancement will be payable from amounts otherwise payable to such Class of Insured Notes, or in such other manner chosen by such Holder (provided that any such payment does not adversely affect any other Noteholder or holder of a Preferred Share). Any Insured Notes for substantially all other purposes will be treated as Notes of such Class, except that the issuer of the bond insurance policy, surety bond or other such credit enhancement will generally be deemed to be the Holder of the Notes of such Class, enhanced by such entity and will in such capacity be entitled to exercise the rights otherwise exercisable by Holders of such Notes.

Section 2.13. Prescription.

Payment in respect of any Note will cease to be due if not paid to the Holder of such Note due to insufficient payment instructions from such Holder to the Trustee or the Paying Agent for a period of twenty years from the Relevant Date.

Section 2.14. Hedge Agreements.

(a) The Cap Agreement:

(i) On the Closing Date, the Issuer shall execute and deliver the Cap Agreement. The Issuer will make a single payment of the Fixed Amount to the Cap Provider on the Closing Date.

(ii) If, by 4:00 p.m., New York City time, on (i) any Payment Date on which the Trustee has not received from the Cap Provider any amount due from the Cap Provider on such Payment Date, (ii) the Business Day following any such Payment Date if the Trustee has not yet received such amount due from the Cap Provider, (iii) the Business Day on which such failure to pay by the Cap Provider becomes an event of default under the Cap Agreement or (iv) the Business Day on which the Trustee receives from the Cap Provider such amount due, the Trustee shall give prompt written notice thereof to the Cap Provider, S&P and Moody's. If the Cap Agreement has been terminated (such termination being subject to a Rating Confirmation) without a replacement, and any Cap Termination Amount owed to the Cap Provider under the Cap Agreement, if any, have been paid, all rights and liens of the Cap Provider under this Indenture with respect to the Cap Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force and effect. If after the Closing Date the credit rating of the Cap Provider is downgraded or withdrawn, a Responsible Officer of the Trustee, upon having actual knowledge of such downgrade or withdrawal, shall provide written notice of such downgrade or withdrawal to the Rating Agencies.

(iii) If, at any time, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes is less than the Cap Notional Amount, the Trustee may, at the direction of the Issuer, sell the Issuer's right to receive payments with respect to the Cap Agreement, but only to the extent that the Cap Notional Amount exceeds the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Notes. Proceeds from any such sale will be distributed as Collateral Interest Collections on the Payment Date relating to the Due Period in which such sale occurs.

(iv) The Cap Agreement will provide that in the event that (a) a S&P First Level Downgrade occurs and is continuing, then within 30 days after such rating withdrawal or downgrade, the Cap Provider shall, subject to satisfaction of the Rating Condition with respect to S&P, at its own expense, either (i) procure a Permitted Transfer, (ii) obtain an Eligible Guaranty or (iii) post collateral in accordance with the Cap Agreement; (b) an S&P Second Level Downgrade occurs and is continuing, then within 10 Local Business Days (as defined in the Cap Agreement) after such rating withdrawal or downgrade, the Cap Provider shall, subject to satisfaction of the Rating Condition with respect to S&P, at its own expense, either (i) procure a Permitted Transfer or (ii) obtain an Eligible Guaranty; and (c) a Moody's Second Level Downgrade occurs and is continuing, the Cap Provider shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, at its own expense and using commercially reasonable efforts, either (i) procure a Permitted Transfer or (ii) obtain an Eligible Guaranty.

(v) The Cap Agreement also will provide that the following will constitute "Additional Termination Events" under the Cap Agreement upon the occurrence of which the Issuer will have the right (subject to a Rating Confirmation) to terminate the Cap Agreement: (a) if a S&P First Level Downgrade has occurred and is continuing and the Cap Provider fails to take any action described in clause (a) in the preceding paragraph within the time period specified therein; (b) a S&P Second Level Downgrade has occurred and is continuing and the Cap Provider fails to take any action described in clause (b) in the preceding paragraph within the time period specified therein; (c)(i) a Moody's Second Level Downgrade has occurred and been continuing for 30 or more Local Business Days and (ii) the Cap Provider has failed to comply with or perform any obligation to be complied with or performed by the Cap Provider in accordance with the Cap Agreement; and (d)(i) a Moody's Second Level Downgrade has occurred and been continuing for 30 or more Local Business Days and (ii) either (I) at least one Eligible Replacement has made a Firm Offer to be the transferee or (II) at least one entity that satisfies the Moody's Approved Ratings Threshold has made a Firm Offer to provide an Eligible Guaranty in respect of all of the Cap Provider's present and future obligations under the Cap Agreement.

(vi) In the event of any transfer, assignment or replacement of the Cap Agreement following the occurrence of a "Rating Agency Downgrade" under the Cap Agreement, the Issuer shall use (and cause its agents to use) reasonable commercial efforts to incur only reasonable costs and expenses in connection with such transfer, assignment or replacement including, without limitation, costs and expenses of legal counsel.

(b) Other Hedge Agreements:

(i) On and after the Closing Date, subject to the conditions specified in this Section 2.14(b), the Issuer may enter into additional Hedge Agreements (including, without limitation, interest rate swap, cap or floor agreements, basis swap agreements or, with respect to the Revolving Period only, timing swap agreements) to hedge interest rate exposure or payment timing or accrual mismatches attributable to the Portfolio Collateral, increase or reduce the notional amount of an existing Hedge Agreement, sell all or a portion of any Hedge Agreement or terminate any Hedge Agreement if (x) Rating Agency Confirmation has been obtained or (y) such Hedge Agreement is a Form-Approved Hedge Agreement; provided, further, that with respect to a Form-Approved Hedge Agreement for which consent by the Rating Agencies to use the form in this transaction has been sought after the Closing Date, a Majority of the Controlling Class shall have consented to the use of such form.

(ii) Any termination or similar amount payable by a Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer upon any such reduction, increase, amendment, modification or termination pursuant to the related Hedge Agreement shall constitute Collateral Principal Collections in the Due Period in which such payment is received. Any such amount payable by the Issuer to such Hedge Counterparty shall be payable in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof. Any voluntary termination of a Hedge Agreement shall be subject to Rating Agency Confirmation.

(iii) Each Hedge Agreement shall be required to contain limited recourse and non-petition provisions equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in this Indenture.

(iv) Each Hedge Agreement shall provide that if the ratings of the related Hedge Counterparty or its guarantor, as applicable, are reduced to a level below the levels required in such Hedge Agreement, the related Hedge Counterparty (or guarantor, as applicable) shall be required to (x) provide credit support in order to collateralize its obligations under such Hedge Agreement, (y) provide a guarantee of its obligations under such Hedge Agreement from a guarantor having the required ratings or (z) assign such Hedge Agreement to an eligible assignee, in each case as provided in such Hedge Agreement.

(v) Each Hedge Agreement shall provide that the Issuer may terminate such Hedge Agreement (whether or not the Notes have been paid in full prior to such termination) if, among other things, any of the following events occurs: (w) the bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, reorganization or similar events with respect to the a Hedge Counterparty, (x) failure of the related Hedge Counterparty to make any payment when due (subject to any applicable grace period), (y) a change in law making it illegal for the Issuer or the related Hedge Counterparty to be party to or perform its obligations under such Hedge Agreement or (z) the failure of the related Hedge Counterparty to take the action or actions required of it (including but not limited to those set forth in clause (iv) hereof) upon a reduction or withdrawal of the ratings of the related Hedge Counterparty or its guarantor below the levels specified in the Hedge Agreement. Each Hedge Agreement shall also provide that it may be terminated pursuant to its terms upon any redemption of the Notes in whole and may provide for the right of the related Hedge Counterparty to terminate such Hedge Agreement upon the occurrence of specified "events of default" or "termination events"; provided that no Hedge Agreement may provide for termination upon the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default under Section 5.1 hereof unless any resulting acceleration of the Notes may no longer be rescinded pursuant to the terms of this Indenture.

(c) The Trustee shall in accordance with each applicable Note Valuation Report pay on each Payment Date amounts due by the Issuer to any Hedge Counterparty under each Hedge Agreement in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

(d) All termination or similar payments required to be paid by the Issuer under any Hedge Agreement shall be payable only on a Payment Date in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof. If a Hedge Counterparty is the sole "defaulting party" or sole "affected party" (as each such term is defined in the related Hedge Agreement), any such termination or similar payment shall be payable by the Issuer only on a subordinated basis in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof. A Hedge Agreement may provide that interest shall accrue on any such subordinated termination or similar payment not paid in full on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available for such payment on such Payment Date in accordance with Section 11.1.

(e) In addition to the right of the Issuer to enter into additional Hedge Agreements after the Closing Date as set forth in clause (b) hereof, the Issuer may enter into one or more Hedge Agreements in substitution for any terminated Hedge Agreement on terms similar to those of the terminated Hedge Agreement. Any costs attributable to such substitute Hedge Agreement in excess of the termination amounts or similar proceeds received by the Issuer upon termination of the terminated Hedge Agreement shall constitute Aggregate Base Fees and Expenses payable in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof.

(f) Upon the failure of a Hedge Counterparty to pay to the Issuer when due any payment required to be made by such Hedge Counterparty under the related Hedge Agreement, the Issuer or Servicer on its behalf shall promptly make demand for such payment. If such payment is not received by the Business Day immediately following such demand, the Issuer shall provide telephonic notice (promptly confirmed in writing) of such failure to the Trustee and, if applicable, any guarantor of such Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement. Upon receipt of such notice (or earlier, if the Trustee has actual knowledge of the failure), the Trustee shall demand payment by such Hedge Counterparty (or guarantor, if applicable) by 12:30 p.m., New York time, on such day (or, if such demand is made after 11:30 a.m. on any day, by 12:30 p.m. on the next succeeding Business Day). The Trustee shall notify Noteholders if such Hedge Counterparty fails to make any required payment within two Business Days after demand by the Trustee therefor.

(g) Any action provided for in this section to be undertaken by the Issuer with respect to a Hedge Agreement (including, without limitation, entering into, terminating or amending a Hedge Agreement or delivering any notice, demand, request, authorization, consent, waiver or other communication under a Hedge Agreement) may be taken by the Servicer pursuant to the authority granted to the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement.

Section 3.3. Initial Deposit Redemption.

(a) The Issuer shall use reasonable efforts to use on or prior to the Effective Date the available funds and Eligible Investments in the Initial Deposit Account (other than Account Income on funds on deposit in the Initial Deposit Account) to purchase additional Original Portfolio Collateral as permitted pursuant to Section 3.4 hereof taking into account the Initial Portfolio Collateral and Original Portfolio Collateral already purchased by the Issuer in the Trust Estate (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any of the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date). If the remaining Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account as of the Effective Date equals or exceeds $2,000,000 and the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Original Portfolio Collateral (determined in accordance with the foregoing sentence) acquired or committed to be acquired by the Issuer is less than the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount (subject to the second paragraph of Section 3.4(a)), the Issuer shall cause an Initial Deposit Redemption to occur on the Initial Deposit Redemption Date by redeeming the Class A-1LA Notes in an aggregate amount equal to the excess of the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount over the par amount of Original Portfolio Collateral; provided that the amount applied to such Initial Deposit Redemption shall not exceed the remaining amount of the Deposit (the "Initial Deposit Redemption Amount"). No interest or other amount in excess of the Initial Deposit Redemption Amount, other than the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-1LA Notes through the Initial Deposit Redemption Date due on the next succeeding Payment Date, shall be payable on or in respect of the Class A-1LA redeemed in an Initial Deposit Redemption. If there is a Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account on the Effective Date but no Initial Deposit Redemption is required pursuant to the terms of this Section 3.3(a), the remaining Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account shall be transferred to the Collection Account on the Effective Date and shall, subject to Section 3.4(d), constitute Collateral Principal Collections. Account Income in the Initial Deposit Account shall be transferred to the Collection Account on the Effective Date and shall constitute Collateral Interest Collections.

(b) If an Initial Deposit Redemption is required, the Issuer, not later than the third Business Day immediately following the Effective Date, shall notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency in writing that an Initial Deposit Redemption is required pursuant to Section 3.3(a) hereof and the amount of the Class A-1LA Notes required to be redeemed pursuant thereto.

(c) Notice of an Initial Deposit Redemption shall be given by the Trustee by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than ten calendar days prior to the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, to each Holder of the Class A-1LA Notes to be redeemed at the address for such Holder in the Note Register and so long as any Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, to the Irish Paying Agent. All notices of Initial Deposit Redemption shall state the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, the Redemption Record Date with respect thereto, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes to be redeemed, and that no interest or other amount in excess of the Initial Deposit Redemption Amount shall be payable on the amount of the Class A-1LA Notes to be redeemed.

(d) If an Initial Deposit Redemption is required, all Eligible Investments in the Initial Deposit Account representing the Deposit not applied to the purchase of Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date shall be liquidated on the Business Day immediately preceding the Initial Deposit Redemption Date and the proceeds thereof shall be held in the Initial Deposit Account. On the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Initial Deposit Account all funds therein and apply such funds to the payment of Holders of the Notes in an amount equal to the Initial Deposit Redemption Amount or to a deposit in the Collection Account, as applicable.

Section 3.4. Purchase of Portfolio Collateral between the Closing Date and the Effective Date; Effective Date Conditions.

(a) The Issuer may (i) purchase Original Portfolio Collateral on any Business Day during the period from and including the Closing Date to and including the Effective Date or (ii) enter into a commitment to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral on any Business Day during the period from and including the Closing Date to and including the Effective Date for purchase on or as soon as practicable thereafter (provided that the agreed to settlement date shall not be more than thirty (30) days after the Effective Date), in each case, for inclusion in the Trust Estate in an aggregate amount equal to the Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account. Upon receipt of a Servicer Order requesting the purchase of Original Portfolio Collateral the Trustee shall pay out of the Initial Deposit Account, during the period commencing on the Closing Date and ending on the Effective Date, all or a portion of the funds available therein for the purpose of purchasing Original Portfolio Collateral.

No Original Portfolio Collateral may be purchased prior to the Effective Date unless immediately following the purchase of such item of Portfolio Collateral (as certified by Servicer Order), the remaining Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account, after giving effect to such purchase, is sufficient as of the date of determination to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral in an Aggregate Principal Amount at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount for delivery into the Trust Estate (taking into account the Initial Portfolio Collateral and Original Portfolio Collateral already in the Trust Estate (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any of the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date)).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision hereof, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase an item of Portfolio Collateral to be included in the Trust Estate, such commitment not to exceed thirty (30) days, and at the time of such commitment such an item of Portfolio Collateral complied with the definition of Portfolio Collateral and this Section 3.4(a), then the Issuer may consummate the purchase of such an item of Portfolio Collateral notwithstanding that such an item of Portfolio Collateral fails to comply with the definition of Portfolio Collateral and such criteria on the date of settlement.

(b) The Servicer shall cause to be delivered to the Trustee on the Effective Date an amended Schedule A to this Indenture listing all Original Portfolio Collateral (including the Initial Portfolio Collateral then in the Trust Estate) and all commitments to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral, which schedule shall supersede any prior Schedule A delivered to the Trustee.

(c) The Issuer will use its commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, or to enter into binding agreements to purchase, Original Portfolio Collateral by the Effective Date, that, including the Initial Portfolio Collateral, will satisfy, as of the Effective Date, the Collateral Quality Tests, the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 and the Overcollateralization Tests. Within 5 Business Days after the Effective Date, the Issuer or the Servicer (on behalf of the Issuer) shall request a Rating Confirmation on behalf of the Issuer and shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies identifying the Original Portfolio Collateral and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies, together with the delivery of a report (and an electronic file of the Original Portfolio Collateral to S&P) substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Effective Date, an Accountants' Certificate (a) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread, coupon and recovery rate for each item of Original Portfolio Collateral as of the Effective Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included or to be included in the Trust Estate, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein, (b) confirming that as of the Effective Date (1) each Overcollateralization Test is met; (2) the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Original Portfolio Collateral that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Effective Date is at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount and (3) the Portfolio Collateral complies with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests and the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 and (c) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements. If a Rating Confirmation Failure should occur, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to Section 9.2 hereof.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision in this Indenture to the contrary, if, on the Effective Date, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or prior to such time) exceeds the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount and there are funds remaining from the Deposit held in the Initial Deposit Account, the Servicer may direct the Trustee to transfer up to the least of (i) 25% of such funds and (iii) $1,000,000, to the Collection Account as additional Collateral Interest Collections; provided that the Overcollateralization Tests and the collateral criteria described herein are satisfied and the Interest Coverage Test for the most recent Payment Date was satisfied. The remainder of the Deposit shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Collection Account to be applied as Collateral Principal Collections on the Payment Date immediately following the date of determination.

Section 3.5. Intermediaries.

(a) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, to the extent any items of Portfolio Collateral issued by an issuer that is not the United States of America, an agency or instrumentality thereof, or some other U.S. Person (collectively, "Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities") are Granted to the Trustee, such Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities may be delivered to and held by the Trustee through one or more Foreign Sub-custodians or Foreign Clearance Systems (as those terms are defined in the Section below; collectively, "Foreign Intermediaries") if such Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities cannot be Delivered to the Trustee.

(b) The Trustee, for the purpose of receiving and holding any Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities that cannot be Delivered to the Trustee, may appoint one or more banking or securities institutions located outside the United States (each a "Foreign Sub-custodian") and/or clearing agencies or systems located outside the United States (each, a "Foreign Clearance System"), including without limitation Euroclear and Clearstream. With respect to Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities (and related cash) held through Foreign Intermediaries, such Foreign Intermediaries may be authorized to hold Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities in central securities depositories or clearing agencies in which such Foreign Intermediaries participate.

(c) The Trustee's responsibility with respect to the selection or appointment of Foreign Intermediaries shall be limited to a duty to exercise reasonable care in the selection or retention of such Foreign Intermediaries in light of prevailing settlement and securities handling practices, procedures and controls in the relevant market and subject to Section 6.3 hereof; provided that the appointment of Euroclear or Clearstream to act as Foreign Intermediary shall be deemed to have been made in the exercise of due care. With respect to any costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, or claims (including, without limitation, attorneys' and accountants' fees) incurred by the Issuer as a result of the acts or the failure to act by any Foreign Intermediaries, the Trustee shall take reasonable action to recover such costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, or claims from such Foreign Intermediaries; provided that the Trustee's sole liability in that regard shall be limited to amounts actually received by it from such Foreign Intermediaries (exclusive of related costs and expenses incurred by the Trustee). The Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Indenture arising out of or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including without limitation, acts of God; earthquakes or fires; floods, wars, civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communication service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority; governmental actions; or inability to obtain labor, material, equipment or transportation.

Section 5.2. Acceleration of Maturity; Rescission and Annulment.

(a) If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(c) or (d)) with respect to the Notes occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may, with the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, and shall, at the written direction of the Requisite Noteholders, declare the principal of the Notes to be immediately due and payable, by a notice in writing to the Issuer and the Servicer. If an Event of Default as specified in Section 5.1(c) or (d) occurs and is continuing, the principal of the Notes shall be and become immediately due and payable without the necessity of notice or any other action of any Person. If the Notes are declared to be immediately due and payable or if an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(c) or (d) hereof occurs, the Holders of each Class of Notes shall be entitled to receive, as applicable, and in the order of priority set forth in Section 11.1(d), the Cumulative Interest Amount and the Aggregate Principal Amount with respect thereto (in each case as calculated and accrued through the date of payment in full of the Aggregate Principal Amount of each Class of Notes), and the Servicer shall be entitled to receive the amounts payable to the Servicer under and in the order of priority set forth in Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d).

(b) At any time after such a declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee as provided in this Article, the Requisite Noteholders, by written notice to the Trustee and the Co-Issuers, may rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences if:

(i) the Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:

(A) all overdue amounts payable on or in respect of the Notes (other than amounts due solely as a result of the acceleration);

(B) to the extent that payment of interest on such amount is lawful, interest on such overdue amounts at the Applicable Periodic Rate; and

(C) all unpaid Trustee Administrative Expenses, Preferred Shares Administrative Expenses, Issuer Base Administrative Expenses, Issuer Excess Administrative Expenses, and other sums paid or advanced by the Trustee and the Paying and Transfer Agent hereunder and under the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement and the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements

(ii) the Trustee has (A) received written evidence that the sum paid or deposited with the Trustee by the Issuer pursuant to clause (i) above is sufficient, and (B) determined that all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of such amount that has become due solely by such acceleration, have been (1) cured, and the Requisite Noteholders by written notice to the Trustee have agreed with such determination (which agreement shall not unreasonably be withheld), or (2) waived as provided in Section 5.15 hereof.

Section 5.3. Proceedings.

If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the Notes have been declared due and payable and such declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded and annulled, or at any time on or after the Final Maturity Date, the Trustee may in its discretion proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Noteholders by such appropriate Proceedings, in its own name and as trustee of an express trust, as the Trustee shall deem most effective or as the Trustee may be directed in writing by the Requisite Noteholders to protect and enforce any such rights, whether for the specific enforcement of any covenant or agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted herein, or for collection of sums due and unpaid, or to enforce any other proper remedy or legal or equitable right vested in the Trustee by this Indenture or by law, but subject, however, to the terms of Section 5.4 hereof. The reasonable compensation, costs, expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or paid by the Trustee, and its agents and counsel, in connection with any such Proceeding, including, without limitation, the exercise of any remedies pursuant to Section 5.4 hereof, shall be reimbursed to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7 hereof.

Section 5.4. Remedies.

(a) If the Notes have been declared due and payable and such declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded or annulled, or at any time on or after the Final Maturity Date, the Trustee may, after written notice to the Noteholders, and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent, and shall, upon written direction by the Requisite Noteholders, to the extent permitted by applicable law, do one or more of the following:

provided that the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Trust Estate, or any portion thereof, or any rights or interest therein, unless (x) in the case of an acceleration resulting from an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.1(a) hereof, or a sale or liquidation of any portion of the Trust Estate at or greater than its par value (provided that Defaulted Portfolio Collateral may be liquidated without reference to, or inclusion in the calculation of, such limitation), the Requisite Noteholders have so directed the Trustee in writing to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof (y) in the case of an acceleration resulting from an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.1(f) hereof, the Holders of more than 50% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Outstanding Senior Class A Notes (or, if the Senior Class A Overcollateralization Ratio is less than 85%, then 60% of the Controlling Class) have so directed the Trustee in writing to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof or (z) in the case of any other Event of Default or resulting sale or liquidation, 100% of the Noteholders have so directed the Trustee in writing to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof; provided further that no Default Swap, Synthetic Security or Hedge Agreement may be terminated so long as a declaration of acceleration may be rescinded or annulled pursuant to Section 5.2(b). The Trustee shall send written notice to each of the Noteholders, with a copy to the Rating Agencies and so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent, of any proposed sale or liquidation of the Trust Estate together with a brief description thereof and such written notice shall be accompanied by an Accountant's Certificate (i) confirming the information with respect to such sale or liquidation (to the extent such accountants shall be able and willing to confirm such information) and (ii) specifying the procedures, if any, undertaken by them to review the data and computations relating to such sale or liquidation. The cost of such Accountant's Certificate shall be reimbursed to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7 hereof. If the applicable Noteholders direct any sale or liquidation of the Trust Estate, or any portion thereof, the Trustee shall sell or liquidate the Trust Estate, or portion, thereof, in accordance with Section 5.18 hereof at one or more public or private sales conducted in any manner permitted by law.

(b) If an Event of Default as described in Section 5.1(b) hereof has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee may, after written notice to the Noteholders, with a copy to the Rating Agencies and each Hedge Counterparty, and so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent, and shall, upon written direction of the Requisite Noteholders, institute a Proceeding to compel performance of the covenant or to cure the representation or warranty, the breach of which gave rise to the Event of Default under such Section and enforce any decree or order arising from such Proceeding.

(c) If an Event of Default described in Sections 5.1(a)(iii) or 5.1(a)(iv) hereof has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall, upon written direction of the Requisite Noteholders, terminate the services of the Servicer in accordance with the terms of the Servicing Agreement (subject to the term thereof regarding the appointment of a successor servicer). In the event that such a direct to terminated the Servicer is given, the Trustee shall not be under any duty to appoint or cause the appointment of a successor Servicer or to perform or undertake any duties of the terminated Servicer.

Section 5.5. Preservation of Trust Estate.

(a) If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or if the Final Maturity Date has occurred and subject to Section 5.4 hereof, the Trustee shall retain the Trust Estate securing the Notes intact, collect and cause the collection of the proceeds thereof and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Notes in accordance with the provisions of Sections 10.1, 10.2(a), 10.2(b) and 11.1 hereof (unless and until the Notes have been declared due and payable and the applicable Noteholders have directed the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.4(a) hereof to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof). If the Notes have been declared due and payable pursuant to Section 5.2 hereof or if the Final Maturity Date has occurred, any such retention pursuant to this Section 5.5(a) may be rescinded at any time by written notice to the Trustee and the Co-Issuers from the applicable Noteholders directing the Trustee to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof, in accordance with Section 5.4(a).

(b) Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) hereof shall be construed to require the Trustee to preserve the Trust Estate securing the Notes if prohibited by applicable law.

Section 5.6. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim.

In case there shall be pending Proceedings relative to the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or in case a receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, liquidator, sequestrator or similar official shall have been appointed for or taken possession of the Issuer or its property or such other obligor or its property, or in case of any other comparable Proceedings relative to the Issuer or other obligor, or in case of any voluntary dissolution, liquidation or winding-up of the Issuer, regardless of whether the principal of any Notes shall then be due and payable as therein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and regardless of whether the Trustee shall have made any demand pursuant to the provisions of Section 5.3 hereof, the Trustee is hereby entitled and empowered to, and may and at the direction of the Requisite Noteholders, shall, by intervention in such Proceedings or otherwise:

(i) file one or more claims for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes, and to file such other papers or documents and take such other actions, including participating as a member, voting or otherwise, of any committee of creditors, as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for reasonable compensation to the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys and counsel, and for reimbursement of all expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee or any Noteholder, except as a result of negligence or bad faith) and of the Noteholders allowed in such Proceedings;

(ii) unless prohibited by applicable law, upon direction of the Requisite Noteholders vote on behalf of the Holders of the Notes in any election of a trustee, a standby trustee, (or a person performing similar functions); and

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or vote for or accept or adopt on behalf of any Noteholder any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or compromise affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Noteholder in any such Proceeding except, as provided in subparagraph (ii) above, to vote for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy (or person performing similar functions) or to participate as a member of any committee of creditors.

In any Proceedings brought by the Trustee (and also any Proceedings involving the interpretation of any provision of this Indenture to which the Trustee shall be a party) the Trustee shall be held to represent all the Holders of the Notes subject to the provisions of this Indenture, and it shall not be necessary to make any Holders of the Notes parties to any such Proceedings.

Section 5.7. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes.

All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Notes or the production thereof in any Proceeding relating thereto, and any such Proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be applied as set forth in Section 5.8 hereof.

Section 5.8. Application of Money Collected.

Any money collected by or on behalf of the Trustee with respect to the Notes pursuant to this Article V (including all collections from, and proceeds of the sale or liquidation of, the Trust Estate) shall be applied at the date or dates fixed by the Trustee and in the same order as specified in Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof.

it being understood and intended that no one or more Holders of Notes shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of any other Holders of Notes of the same Class or to obtain or to seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders of Notes of the same Class or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner herein provided and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Notes of the same Class.

Section 5.10. Unconditional Rights of Noteholders to Receive Principal and Interest.

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture, but subject to the provisions of Sections 2.7 and 11.1 hereof, (a) the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, (b) the Holders of the Class A-1LB Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LB Notes and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, (c) the Holders of the Class A-2L Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-2L Notes and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, (d) the Holders of the Class A-3L Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-3L Notes and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, (e) the Holders of the Class B-1L Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes and accrued and

Furthermore, the Holder of any Note shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to institute Proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment, and such right shall not be impaired without the consent of such Holder. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Section 5.10 or otherwise in this Indenture to the contrary, (i) Holders of the Class A-3L Notes shall have no right to institute Proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until such time as no Senior Class A Notes remain Outstanding, (ii) Holders of the Class B-1L Notes shall have no right to institute Proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until such time as no Class A Notes remain Outstanding, and (iii) Holders of the Class B-2L Notes shall have no right to institute Proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until such time as no Class A Notes or Class B-1L Notes remain Outstanding, and, in each case, any such right to institute Proceedings shall be subject to the provisions of Section 5.9 hereof.

Section 5.11. Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If the Trustee or any Noteholder has instituted any Proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture and such Proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Noteholder, then and in every such case the Issuer, the Trustee and the Noteholder shall, subject to any determination in such Proceeding, be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder, and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Noteholders shall continue as though no such Proceeding had been instituted.

Section 5.12. Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders of the Notes is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing by law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

Section 5.13. Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy occurring upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article V or by law to the Trustee or to the Noteholders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Noteholders, as the case may be.

Section 5.14. Control by Noteholders.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Requisite Noteholders, on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes, shall have the right (a) to cause the institution of and direct the time, method and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or (b) subject to Section 6.3(e) hereof, to direct the Trustee with respect to its exercise of any right, remedy, trust or power conferred on the Trustee; provided that:

(i) such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of this Indenture (including, without limitation, any provision hereof providing express personal protection to the Trustee or a limitation on the liability of the Co-Issuers as set forth in Section 2.7(i) hereof), and

(ii) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with such direction; provided that, subject to Section 6.1 hereof, the Trustee need not take any action that it reasonably determines might involve it in liability.

Section 5.15. Waiver of Past Defaults.

Prior to the time a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, the Requisite Noteholders may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes waive any past Default and its consequences, with notice to the Rating Agencies, except a Default:

(a) in the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note, or

(b) in respect of a covenant or provision hereof that under Section 8.2 hereof cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected.

In the case of any such waiver, the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder, respectively; but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereto. Upon such waiver, such Default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of this Indenture; but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 5.16. Undertaking for Costs.

All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by his acceptance thereof shall be deemed to have agreed, that any court may in its discretion require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken, or omitted by it as Trustee, the filing by any party litigant in such suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of such suit, and that such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party litigant; but the provisions of this Section 5.16 shall not apply to any suit instituted by the Trustee, to any suit instituted by any Noteholder, or group of Noteholders, holding in the aggregate more than 10% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes, or to any suit instituted by any Noteholder for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note on or after the Final Maturity Date expressed in such Note.

Section 5.17. Waiver of Stay or Execution Laws.

Each of the Co-Issuers covenants (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) that it will not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or execution law wherever enacted, including, but not limited to, filing a voluntary petition under the Bankruptcy Code now or at any time hereafter in force, which may affect the covenants or the performance of or the exercise of any remedies under this Indenture; and each of the Co-Issuers (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waives all benefit or advantage of any such law, and covenants that it will not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Trustee or any Noteholder, but will suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law had been enacted.

Section 5.18. Sale of Trust Estate.

(a) The power to effect any sale (a "Sale") of any portion of the Trust Estate pursuant to Section 5.4 and Section 5.5 hereof shall not be exhausted by any one or more Sales as to any portion of such Trust Estate remaining unsold, but shall continue unimpaired until the entire Trust Estate securing the Notes shall have been sold or all amounts payable on the Notes under this Indenture with respect thereto shall have been paid. The costs of any such sale of the Trust Estate shall be reimbursable to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7 hereof. The Trustee may, upon notice to the Noteholders, and so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent, and shall, upon direction of the Requisite Noteholders, postpone any Sale by public announcement made at the time of and place of such Sale. The Trustee hereby expressly waives its right to any amount fixed by law as compensation for any Sale.

(b) The Trustee may bid for and acquire any portion of the Trust Estate in connection with a Sale thereof on an arm's length basis to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, and may pay all or part of the purchase price by crediting against amounts owing on the Notes or other amounts secured by this Indenture, all or part of the net proceeds of such Sale after deducting the reasonable costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Trustee in connection with such Sale notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.7 hereof. The Notes need not be produced in order to complete any such Sale, or in order for the net proceeds of such Sale to be credited against amounts owing on the Notes. The Trustee may hold, lease, operate, manage or otherwise deal with any property so acquired in any manner permitted by law in accordance with this Indenture.

(c) If any portion of the Trust Estate consists of securities issued without registration under the Securities Act ("Unregistered Securities"), the Trustee may seek an Opinion of Counsel, or, if no such Opinion of Counsel can be obtained and with the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, seek a no-action position from the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other relevant Federal or state regulatory authorities, regarding the legality of a public or private sale of such Unregistered Securities (the costs of which in each case, shall be reimbursable to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7 hereof).

(d) The Trustee shall execute and deliver an appropriate instrument of conveyance transferring its interest in any portion of the Trust Estate in connection with a Sale thereof. In addition, the Trustee is hereby irrevocably appointed the agent and attorney-in-fact of the Issuer to transfer and convey its interest in any portion of the Trust Estate in connection with a Sale thereof and to take all action necessary to effect such Sale. No purchaser or transferee at such a Sale shall be bound to ascertain the Trustee's authority, inquire into the satisfaction of any conditions precedent or see to the application of any monies.

Section 5.19. Action on Notes.

The Trustee's right to seek and recover judgment on the Notes or under this Indenture shall not be affected by the seeking or obtaining of or application for any other relief under or with respect to this Indenture. Neither the lien of this Indenture nor any rights or remedies of the Trustee or the Noteholders hereunder shall be impaired by the recovery of any judgment by the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.1. Certain Duties and Responsibilities.

(1) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(2) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture; provided that in the case of any such certificates or opinions which by any provision hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, the Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform on their face to the requirements of this Indenture and shall promptly notify the party delivering the same if such certificate or opinion does not so conform. If a corrected certificate or opinion shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 15 days after such notice from the Trustee, the Trustee shall so notify the Noteholders.

(b) In case an Event of Default (other than a Trustee Payment-Related Event of Default) of which the Trustee has actual knowledge has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall, prior to the receipt of directions, if any, from the Requisite Noteholders, exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and

(3) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in accordance with this Indenture and/or the Requisite Noteholders (or Holders with such larger percentage as may be required by the terms hereof) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, under this Indenture;

(4) no provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers (unless such financial liabilities or exercise of any of its rights and powers relate to the performance of its ordinary services under this Indenture), if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it (provided that the unsecured agreement of any Noteholder that is an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any State in the United States shall constitute adequate assurance with respect to repayment and indemnity; provided that the aggregate net worth of the Institutional Investors providing such unsecured agreements shall be not less than $200,000,000); and

(5) the Trustee shall not be liable to the Noteholders for any action taken or omitted by it at the direction of the Issuer, the Servicer and/or the Holders of the Notes under circumstances in which such direction is required or permitted by the terms of this Indenture.

(d) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 6.1 and Section 6.3 hereof.

(e) The Trustee, promptly after receipt by a Responsible Officer, shall transmit by first class mail all Holders of Notes, as their names and addresses appear on the Note Register, all written communications that are required hereunder to be delivered to the Trustee and are received from or on behalf of the Issuer or the Servicer (excluding in the case of the Holders (i) information provided by the Trustee to the Issuer pursuant to Section 10.4 hereof, (ii) so long as no Event of Default (other than a Trustee Payment-Related Event of Default) has occurred and is continuing, Servicer Orders received by the Trustee pursuant to Sections 10.2, 11.3 and 12.4 hereof, and (iii) Monthly Reports received pursuant to Section 10.5(a) hereof, unless, in any such case, requested by any Holder) and any notification or other communication received from any of the Rating Agencies stating that the rating of any Class of Notes has been, or will be, changed or withdrawn.

Section 6.2. Notice of Default.

(a) the Trustee may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, note or other paper or document (including but not limited to any reports prepared and delivered under Article X hereunder) believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request or direction of the Servicer mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by a Servicer Request or Servicer Order, as the context may require;

(d) as a condition to the taking or omitting of any action by it hereunder, the Trustee may consult with counsel and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in reliance thereon;

(e) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Noteholders pursuant to this Indenture unless such Noteholders shall have offered to the Trustee security reasonably satisfactory to it or indemnity against all costs, expenses and liabilities which might reasonably be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction (an unsecured indemnity agreement of an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any state in the United States shall be deemed sufficient; provided that the aggregate net worth of the Institutional Investors providing such unsecured agreements shall not be less than $200,000,000);

Whenever reference is made in this Indenture to a Default or an Event of Default such reference shall, insofar as determining any liability on the part of the Trustee is concerned, be construed to refer only to a Default or an Event of Default of which the Trustee is deemed to have knowledge in accordance with this paragraph;

(j) the permissive right of the Trustee to take or refrain from taking any actions enumerated in this Indenture shall not be construed as a duty;

(k) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes, or omits to take, in good faith that it reasonably believes to be authorized or within its rights or powers hereunder;

(l) the rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and to each Paying Agent, Paying and Transfer Agent, Authenticating Agent, Transfer Agent and Note Registrar;

(m) the Trustee shall not be responsible for the accuracy of the books or records of, or acts or omissions of, the Depository, any Transfer Agent (other than the Trustee itself acting in that capacity), Clearstream, Euroclear, any Calculation Agent (other than the Trustee itself acting in that capacity) or any Paying Agent (other than the Trustee itself acting in that capacity); provided, the Trustee will make reasonable efforts to correct any errors they become aware of or to notify the appropriate parties of any errors they become aware of; and

(n) the Trustee will not be liable for the actions or omissions of the Servicer, and without limiting the foregoing, the Trustee will not be under any obligation to monitor, evaluate or verify compliance by the Servicer with the terms hereof or the Servicing Agreement, or to verify or independently determine the accuracy of the information received by it from the Servicer (or from any selling institution, agent, bank, trustee or similar source) with respect to the Portfolio Collateral.

Section 6.4. Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes or the Combination Notes.

The recitals contained herein and in the Notes or the Combination Notes, other than the certificate of authentication thereon, shall be taken as the statements of the Issuer, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture, of the Trust Estate, or of the Notes and the Combination Notes. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Issuer of the Notes, the Combination Notes or the Preferred Shares or the proceeds thereof.

Section 6.5. May Hold Notes and Combination Notes.

(a) Investors Bank & Trust Company, or any other Person that becomes Trustee hereunder, in any capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and Combination Notes, and may otherwise deal with the Issuer or any Affiliate thereof with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

(b) The Trustee and its Affiliates may invest in for their own account obligations or securities that would be appropriate for inclusion in the assets as Portfolio Collateral, and the Trustee in making those investments has no duty to act in a way that is favorable to the Issuer or the Holders of the Notes, the Combination Notes or the Preferred Shares. The Trustee's Affiliates currently serve, and may in the future serve as investment advisor for other issuers of collateralized debt obligations.

(c) The Trustee and its Affiliates are permitted to receive additional compensation that could be deemed to be in the Trustee's economic self interest for (i) serving as investment advisor, administrator, shareholder, servicing agent, custodian or sub-custodian with respect to certain Eligible Investments, (ii) using Affiliates to effect transactions in certain Eligible Investments selected by the Servicer and (iii) effecting transactions in certain Eligible Investments. Such compensation shall not be an amount that is reimbursable or payable pursuant to this Indenture. All purchases of Eligible Investments shall be made in accordance with Section 10.2(b).

Section 6.6. Money Held in Trust.

Money held by the Trustee in trust hereunder need not be segregated from other funds held by the Trustee in trust hereunder except to the extent required herein or required by law. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed upon with the Issuer and except to the extent of income or other gain on Eligible Investments which are deposits in, certificates of deposit of, or obligations of the Trustee in its commercial capacity and income or other gain actually received by the Trustee on Eligible Investments. Under no circumstances shall the Trustee be responsible for any losses on investments made in accordance with an Issuer Order or Servicer Order, unless such investment is made in an obligation of the Trustee in its corporate capacity.

Section 6.7. Compensation and Reimbursement.

The Issuer agrees:

(a) to pay the Trustee on each Payment Date (in accordance with the priority of payment provisions set forth in Section 11.1 hereof) compensation for all services rendered by it hereunder (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) in accordance with the Trustee Fee Letter Agreement;

(b) except as otherwise expressly provided herein, to reimburse the Trustee (in accordance with the priority of payment provisions set forth in Section 11.1 hereof) in a timely manner upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee (as such or as Securities Intermediary) in accordance with any provision of this Indenture or in the enforcement of any provision hereof (including the reasonable compensation and the expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel) and expenses related to the maintenance and administration of the Collateral; provided that any securities transaction charges to the extent included above shall, in the case of certain Eligible Investments specified by the Servicer, be waived in the event that any amounts are received by the Trustee during a Due Period from a financial institution in consideration of purchasing such Eligible Investments, except any such expense, disbursement or advance as may be attributable to the Trustee's negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith;

(c) to reimburse the Trustee (in accordance with the priority of payment provisions set forth in Section 11.1 hereof) for its payment of the fees and expenses of any accounting firm or investment banking firm employed by the Trustee to perform the accounting required pursuant to Section 5.4, Section 5.5, Section 6.3(c) or Section 10.6 hereof and for its payment of the fees and expenses of the Irish Paying Agent, Paying Agents or Authenticating Agents appointed by it at the request of the Issuer pursuant to Section 2.4;

(d) to indemnify the Trustee, its directors, officers, employees and agents (in accordance with the priority of payment provisions set forth in Section 11.1 hereof) for, and to hold it harmless against, any loss, liability or expense (including without limitation reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred without negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust and the Transaction Documents, including the costs and expenses of defense against any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder (including as Securities Intermediary); and

(e) to pay the Trustee (in accordance with the priority of payment provisions set forth in Section 11.1 hereof) reasonable additional compensation together with its expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) for any collection action taken pursuant to Section 6.12 hereof.

Section 6.8. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility.

(a) There shall at all times be a Trustee hereunder which shall be a bank organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any State, authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least $200,000,000, having a long-term unsecured debt rating of "BBB" or better by Standard & Poor's and "Baa1" or better by Moody's, and subject to supervision or examination by Federal or state authority. If such corporation publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section 6.8, the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published. In addition, the Trustee shall not be "affiliated" (as that term is defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act) with the Co-Issuers or with any person involved in the organization or operation of the Co-Issuers and shall not offer or provide credit or credit enhancement to the Co-Issuers (as provided per Rule 3a-7). The Trustee shall be deemed to be in compliance with the preceding sentence so long as it is not affiliated (within the meaning of the preceding sentence) with (i) the Issuer or the Administrator, or (ii) the Co-Issuer or Puglisi & Associates, in each case based upon the Trustee's records and actual knowledge, unless otherwise expressly notified in writing by the Issuer, Co-Issuer or Servicer, such notice to include the identity of any other Person or Persons with whom the Trustee must not be affiliated for such purpose. If at any time the Trustee has received such notice, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in this Article VI.

(b) In addition to the requirements set forth in Section 6.8(a) hereof, any successor Trustee appointed pursuant to Section 6.9(c) hereof shall (i) have total assets of at least $10,000,000,000, (ii) have a long-term unsecured debt rating of "A" or better by Standard & Poor's and "A2" or better by Moody's and (iii) be regularly engaged in providing trustee services to issuers of collateralized loan obligations. The Trustee appointed on the Closing Date shall not be required to satisfy the requirements set forth in this Section 9.8(b).

Section 6.9. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article VI shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.10 hereof. The indemnifications in favor of the Trustee in Section 6.7 hereof shall survive any resignation or removal (to the extent of any indemnified liabilities, costs, expenses and other amounts arising or incurred prior to, or arising out of actions or omissions occurring prior to, such resignation or removal).

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer, the Rating Agencies, the Noteholders and the Servicer, each Hedge Counterparty and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, the Issuer shall at the direction of its board of directors (with the written consent of the Servicer, not to be unreasonably withheld) promptly appoint a successor trustee or trustees by written instrument, in duplicate, executed by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer on behalf of the Issuer, one original copy of which shall be delivered to the Trustee so resigning and one original copy to the successor trustee or trustees, together with a copy to each Noteholder. If no successor trustee shall have been appointed and an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 30 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee, or any Holder of a Note, may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) Subject to Section 6.9(a) hereof, the Trustee may be removed at any time by the Issuer, at the direction of its board of directors, and shall be removed by the Issuer if at any time the Holders of more than 50% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Controlling Class have determined that the Trustee has been delinquent in the performance of its obligations under this Indenture and have notified the Issuer in advance of such determination. In addition, subject to Section 6.9(a) hereof, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee may be removed by the Holders of more than 50% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Controlling Class.

(d) The Issuer, at the direction of its board of directors, by Issuer Order, may also remove the Trustee and/or petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee, if at any time:

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 6.8 hereof and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Issuer or by the Requisite Noteholders, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver or liquidator of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation.

(e) If the Trustee shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of the Trustee for any cause, the Issuer, at the direction of its board of directors, by Issuer Order, shall (with the written consent of the Servicer, not to be unreasonably withheld) promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Issuer and shall have accepted appointment in the manner hereinabove provided, any Noteholder may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Issuer shall give prompt notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee by giving facsimile notice of such event, confirmed by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to each Rating Agency, Bear Stearns, the Servicer and to the Holders of the Notes as their names and addresses appear in the Note Register. Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

Section 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

Every successor Trustee appointed hereunder shall be required to meet the eligibility requirements set forth in Section 6.8 hereof and shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and such successor Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts, duties and obligations of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Issuer, the successor Trustee or the Requisite Noteholders, such retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of its fees, expenses and indemnities then unpaid, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Trustee. The retiring Trustee shall promptly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Trustee all property and money held by such retiring Trustee hereunder (subject to payment of amounts owing to it hereunder). Upon request of any such successor Trustee, the Issuer shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Trustee all such rights, powers and trusts.

No appointment of a successor Trustee shall become effective until the date ten days after notice of such appointment has been given to each Noteholder, and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

Section 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee hereunder; provided such corporation shall be otherwise qualified and eligible under this Article, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. In case any Notes or Combination Notes have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion or consolidation to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Notes or Combination Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Notes or Combination Notes.

Section 6.12. Certain Duties of Trustee Related to Delayed Payment of Proceeds.

If in any month the Trustee shall not have received a payment with respect to any Pledged Security on its Due Date, (a) the Trustee shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Servicer in writing and, (b) unless within three Business Days after such notice such payment shall have been received by the Trustee, or the Issuer shall have made provision for such payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with Section 10.2(a) hereof, the Trustee shall request the issuer of such Pledged Security, the trustee under the related Underlying Instrument or paying agent designated by either of them, as the case may be, to make such payment as soon as practicable after such request but in no event later than three Business Days after the date of such request. If such payment is not made within such time period, the Trustee shall take such action as the Servicer shall direct in writing; provided that any expenses incurred or to be incurred in taking any such action shall be deemed not to relate to the performance of "ordinary services" under clause (4) of Section 6.1(c) hereof. Any such action shall be without prejudice to any right to claim a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture. In the event that the Issuer or the Servicer requests a release of a Pledged Security and/or delivers Substitute Portfolio Collateral in connection with any such action under the Servicing Agreement, such release and/or substitution shall be subject to Section 10.3 hereof and Article XII of this Indenture as the case may be. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof the Trustee shall deliver to the Issuer or its designee any payment with respect to any Pledged Security received after the Due Date thereof to the extent the Issuer previously made provisions for such payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with this Section 6.12 and such payment shall not be deemed part of the Trust Estate.

Section 6.13. Non-Petition.

None of the Trustee, the Secured Parties, the Noteholders, the beneficial owners of the Notes, or the Paying and Transfer Agent, shall cause or join in the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for any reason, including for the nonpayment to any such party of any amounts due hereunder or under the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement or under the Notes, as applicable, until the expiration of the period which is one year and one day (or such longer preference period as may be in effect) after the final payment on the Notes; provided, however, nothing herein shall be deemed to prohibit the Trustee from filing proofs of claim for itself and on behalf of the Noteholders.

Section 6.14. Withholding.

(a) If any withholding tax is imposed on the Co-Issuers' payment (or allocations of income) to any Noteholder, such tax shall reduce the amount otherwise distributable to such Noteholder. The Trustee is hereby authorized and directed to retain from amounts otherwise distributable to any Noteholder sufficient funds for the payment of any tax that is legally owed by the Trust Estate or the Co-Issuers (as directed to it in writing by the Co-Issuers) (but such authorization shall not prevent the Trustee from contesting any such tax in appropriate Proceedings and withholding payment of such tax, if permitted by law, pending the outcome of such Proceedings), or that the Trustee may otherwise determine it is obligated to withhold under applicable law or regulation. The amount of any withholding tax imposed with respect to any Noteholder shall be treated as cash distributed to such Noteholder at the time it is withheld by the Trustee and remitted to the appropriate taxing authority. If there is a possibility that withholding tax is payable with respect to a distribution, the Trustee may in its sole discretion withhold such amounts in accordance with this Section 6.14 (a). If any Noteholder wishes to apply for a refund of any such withholding tax, the Trustee shall reasonably cooperate with such Noteholder in making such claim so long as such Noteholder agrees to reimburse the Trustee for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred. Nothing in this Section 6.14 shall be construed to impose upon the Trustee any obligation or duty to determine the tax liability or responsibilities of the Co-Issuers or the Trust Estate other than the duties required under applicable law, or otherwise to perform any related tax administration or return preparation or filing responsibilities, or to impose upon the Trustee any duty or obligation to commence Proceedings to contest any tax.

(b) Each Holder shall timely furnish the Issuer or its agents any U.S. federal income tax form or certification (such as Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Form W-8BEN (Certification of Foreign Status), Form W-8IMY (Certification of Foreign Intermediary Status), Form W-9 (Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification) or Form W-8ECI (Certification of Foreign Person's Claim for Exemption from Withholding on Income Effectively Connected with Conduct of a U.S. Trade or Business) or any successors to such IRS forms) that the Issuer or its agents may reasonably request and shall update or replace such form or certification in accordance with its terms or its subsequent amendments.

Section 6.15. The Securities Intermediary.

(a) There shall at all times be a securities intermediary appointed for purposes of this Indenture (the "Securities Intermediary"). Investors Bank & Trust Company is hereby appointed as the initial Securities Intermediary hereunder and accepts such appointment.

(b) The Securities Intermediary represents, warrants, and covenants, and the parties hereto agree, that at all times prior to the termination of this Indenture:

(i) The Securities Intermediary shall be a corporation or national bank that in the ordinary course of its business maintains securities accounts for others and is acting in that capacity hereunder.

(ii) Each Account shall be an account to which financial assets may be credited and the Securities Intermediary shall treat the Trustee as entitled to exercise the rights that comprise such financial assets. The Securities Intermediary shall not change the name or the account number of any Account without the prior written consent of the Trustee.

(iii) Each item of property credited to each Account shall be treated as a financial asset.

(iv) The Securities Intermediary shall comply with entitlement orders originated by the Trustee without further consent by the Issuer or any other person or entity.

(v) The Securities Intermediary shall not agree with any person or entity other than the Trustee that it will comply with entitlement orders originated by any person or entity other than the Trustee.

(vi) The Securities Intermediary shall not be a party to any agreement that is inconsistent with the provisions of this Indenture. The Securities Intermediary shall not take any action inconsistent with the provisions of this Indenture applicable to it.

(vii) Each item of property credited to each Account shall not be subject to any security interest, lien, claim, encumbrance, or right of setoff in favor of the Securities Intermediary or anyone claiming through the Securities Intermediary (other than the Trustee); provided, however, that the Securities Intermediary may set-off the face amount of any checks or other deposit items which have been credited to an Account but are subsequently returned unpaid because of uncollected or insufficient funds.

(viii) For purposes of Article 8 of the UCC, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction of the Securities Intermediary with respect to the Collateral shall be the State of New York.

(c) It is the intent of the Trustee, the Issuer, and the Co-Issuer that each Account shall be a securities account of the Trustee and not an account of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer.

(d) Nothing herein shall imply or impose upon the Securities Intermediary any duties or obligations other than those expressly set forth herein and those applicable to a securities intermediary under the UCC. The Securities Intermediary shall be entitled to all of the protections available to a securities intermediary under the UCC. Without limiting the foregoing, nothing herein shall imply or impose upon the Securities Intermediary any duties of a fiduciary nature (such as, without limitation, the fiduciary duties of the Trustee hereunder).

(e) The Securities Intermediary (i) shall satisfy the requirements of Section 6.8, and (ii) shall not be an Affiliate of the Issuer.

(f) The Securities Intermediary may at any time resign by written notice to the Trustee and may at any time be removed by written notice from the Trustee. The Trustee shall appoint a successor Securities Intermediary that satisfies the provisions of Section 6.15(e). The Trustee shall cause (i) each Account to be established and maintained with such successor Securities Intermediary in accordance with the terms hereof, and (ii) the successor Securities Intermediary to execute and deliver to the parties hereto a written agreement in which it agrees to be the Securities Intermediary hereunder and to be bound by the provisions of this Indenture applicable to the Securities Intermediary. The duties and obligations of the retiring Securities

Intermediary hereunder shall remain in effect until each Account and all of the Collateral credited thereto have been transferred to the successor Securities Intermediary.

(g) Any corporation into which the Securities Intermediary may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, consolidation or conversion to which the Securities Intermediary shall be a party, shall be the successor of the Securities Intermediary hereunder, without the execution or filing of any further document on the part of the parties hereto or such successor corporation.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 6.15, each item of the Trust Estate that constitutes a general intangible (including any loan, or any participation or assignment therein, that constitutes a general intangible) shall be Delivered to the Trustee as provided in clause (g) of the Definition of "Delivery" and shall not be credited to any Account.

Section 6.16. Eligible Investments.

Eligible Investments acquired with available funds in an Account shall be credited by the Trustee to such Account.

Section 6.17. Fiduciary For Noteholders; Agent for the Other Secured Parties.

The Trustee shall not by reason of this Indenture be deemed to be acting as a fiduciary for the Secured Parties other than the Noteholders; provided that the foregoing shall not limit any of the express obligations of the Trustee under this Indenture.

ARTICLE VII

COVENANTS

Section 7.1. Payment of Principal and Interest.

The Co-Issuers (as applicable) will duly and punctually pay the principal of, interest on and all other amounts payable on or in respect of the Notes and the Combination Notes in accordance with the terms of the Notes, the Combination Notes and this Indenture.

Section 7.2. Maintenance of Office or Agency.

The Issuer will maintain an office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York, the State of New York, where Notes may be presented or surrendered for payment. The Issuer hereby initially appoints the office of Investors Bank & Trust Company (the "New York Presenting Agent"), currently located at 33 Maiden Lane, 4th Floor, New York, NY 10038, Attention: CDO Services (Rockwall CDO II Ltd.), as such office or agency. The Trustee shall give prompt written notice to the Co-Issuers and the Noteholders of any change in the location of the New York Presenting Agent. Each New York Presenting Agent other than Investors Bank & Trust Company shall be a bank or trust company having a capital and surplus of not less than $100,000,000 and be registered as a transfer agent with the Securities and Exchange Commission. If the location of the New York Presenting Agent changes and such notice is not given or the Issuer fails to maintain any such office or agency, presentations and surrenders of the Notes may be made or served at the Corporate Trust Office.

Section 7.3. Money for Note Payments to Be Held in Trust.

All payments of amounts due and payable with respect to any Notes that are to be made from amounts withdrawn from the Collection Account shall be made on behalf of the Issuer by the Trustee.

Section 7.4. Existence of Co-Issuers; Corporate Formalities.

(a) Each of the Co-Issuers will, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, maintain in full force and effect its existence, rights and franchises as a company or corporation incorporated or organized under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization, as the case may be, and will obtain and preserve its qualification to do business as a foreign corporation in each jurisdiction in which such qualification is or shall be necessary to protect the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes, the Combination Notes or any of the Pledged Securities or other property included in the Trust Estate. Each of the Co-Issuers shall comply with its charter documents and shall not amend its charter documents without the consent of the Requisite Noteholders if such amendment would have a material adverse effect on the rights of the Noteholders and, for so long as any Notes are then rated, shall notify the Rating Agencies of any amendment and shall not amend its charter document in any material way without satisfaction of the Rating Condition.

(b) The Issuer shall ensure that all corporate or other formalities regarding its existence (including, to the extent required, holding, to the extent required, regular meetings of the board of directors and shareholders) are followed. The Issuer shall not take any action, or conduct its affairs in a manner, that is likely to result in its separate existence being ignored or its assets and liabilities being substantively consolidated with any other Person in a bankruptcy, reorganization or other insolvency proceeding. Without limiting the foregoing, (i) the Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries except the Co-Issuer and except as provided in Section 7.4(c), and (ii) the Issuer shall not (A) have any employees (other than its directors), (B) engage in any transaction with any shareholder that would constitute a conflict of interest, provided, however, that the entry into the Administration Agreement and the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement with Maples Finance Limited shall not be deemed a conflict of interest or (C) pay dividends other than in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, its organizational documents, and with regard to its Preferred Shares, in accordance with the terms of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

(c) In addition to the Co-Issuer, the Issuer may have as a subsidiary any entity that (x) meets the then-current general criteria of the Rating Agencies for bankruptcy remote entities, (y) is formed for the sole purpose of holding (1) stock of one or more corporations or other assets that are or may be treated as United States real property interests for purposes of Section 897 of the Code acquired or expected to be acquired in connection with a workout of an Asset (an "897 Subsidiary") or (2) equity interests in "partnerships" (within the meaning Section 7701(a)(2) of the Code), "grantor trusts" (within the meaning of the Code) or entities that are disregarded as separate from their owners for United States federal income tax purposes that are or may be engaged or deemed to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States, in each case acquired or expected to be acquired in connection with a workout of an Asset (an "ETB Subsidiary") and (z) is a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes; provided that any 897 Subsidiary and ETB Subsidiary (i) will be wholly-owned by the Issuer, (ii) will not sell, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate or otherwise encumber (or permit such to occur), any part of its assets, except in compliance with the Issuer's rights and obligations under this Indenture and with such subsidiary's constituent documents, (iii) will not have any subsidiaries, (iv) will not have any employees (other than directors to the extent they are employees) and will not conduct business under any name other than its own, (v) will not incur or guarantee any indebtedness, (vi) will include in its constituent documents a limitation on its business such that it may only engage in the acquisition of assets permitted under this Indenture and the disposition of such assets and the proceeds thereof to the Issuer (and activities ancillary thereto) and (vii) will distribute 100% of the proceeds of the assets acquired by it (net of applicable taxes and expenses payable by such subsidiary) to the Issuer.

Section 7.5. Protection of Trust Estate.

(a) The Issuer shall authorize, execute, deliver and file all such supplements and amendments hereto and all such financing statements, amendments of financing statements, continuation statements, instruments of further assurance and other instruments and shall take such other action as may be necessary or advisable to:

- (i) Grant more effectively all or any portion of the Trust Estate;
- (ii) maintain or preserve the lien of this Indenture or the priority thereof, or to carry out more effectively the purposes hereof;
- (iii) perfect, publish notice of, or protect the validity of any Grant made or to be made by this Indenture;
- (iv) enforce any of the Pledged Securities or other instruments or property included in the Trust Estate;
- (v) preserve and defend title to the Trust Estate and the rights therein of the Secured Parties against the claims of all other Persons; and
- (vi) pay any and all taxes levied or assessed upon all or any part of the Trust Estate.

The Issuer hereby authorizes the filing of financing statements (and amendments of financing statements and continuation statements) that name the Issuer as debtor and the Trustee as secured party and that cover all personal property of the Issuer. The Issuer also hereby ratifies its authorization of the filing of any such financing statements (or amendments of financing statements or continuation statements) that were filed prior to the execution hereof. The Issuer hereby designates the Trustee its agent and attorney-in-fact to take any action or authorize or execute any financing statement, amendment of financing statement, continuation statement or other instrument required pursuant to this Section 7.5; provided that such appointment shall not impose upon the Trustee any of the Issuer's obligations under this Section 7.5.

Provided that the Trustee (on or before, promptly after, the Closing Date) has been provided with a complete and accurate copy of each such financial statement (which copy is stamped to reflect, or is accompanied by, the applicable filing information, including filing number, original date of filing and filing office), the Trustee shall give written notice to the Issuer and the Servicer of the pending expiration of the financing statement filed in connection with the closing of the transaction contemplated herein and any continuation statement relating thereto, no earlier than six months prior to the scheduled expiration date of such financing statement or continuation statement, as applicable, and no later than two months prior to such scheduled expiration date.

(b) The Trustee shall not, except in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture, release any portion of the Trust Estate from the security interest and lien hereunder or remove any portion of the Trust Estate from the jurisdictions indicated in Section 10.3(a) hereof; provided that the Trustee shall be entitled to remove the Trust Estate or any portion thereof to a jurisdiction other than the applicable jurisdiction or jurisdictions indicated in Section 10.3(a) hereof if the Trustee shall have first obtained an Opinion of Counsel, at its own expense, to the effect that the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to such property, including the perfection and priority thereof, will continue to be maintained after giving effect to such action, and provided further that the Trustee shall thereafter (for so long as such property continues to be so located in such other jurisdiction) obtain at its own expense an annual Opinion of Counsel, on or before the date specified in Section 7.6(a) hereof, confirming the matters required by such Section to the extent governed by the law of such other jurisdiction.

(c) The Issuer shall pay or cause to be paid taxes, if any, levied on account of the beneficial ownership by the Issuer of any Pledged Securities.

(d) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants that its registered office is, and always has been, in the Cayman Islands; it has never had any offices in the United States of America, and the only offices of any type it has ever had have been in the Cayman Islands.

Section 7.6. Opinions and Tax Matters

(i) The Issuer has caused or will have caused, within ten days after the Closing Date, the filing of all appropriate financing statements in the proper filing office in the appropriate jurisdictions under applicable law in order to perfect the security interest in such general intangibles or accounts granted to the Trustee hereunder.

(f) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes "tangible chattel paper":

(i) (A) All original executed copies of each agreement that constitutes or evidences such tangible chattel paper have been delivered to the Trustee and (B) none of the agreements that constitute or evidence such tangible chattel paper has any marks or notations indicating that it has been pledged, assigned or otherwise conveyed to any person other than the Trustee.

(i) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes an uncertificated security, the issuer of such uncertificated security has registered the Trustee as the registered owner of such uncertificated security.

(j) None of the provisions of this Section 7.17 shall be waived without the prior written confirmation from S&P that such waiver shall not result in a reduction or withdrawal of the then-current rating of any Class of Notes.

Section 7.18. No "Gross-up" Amounts.

The Co-Issuers shall not be required to pay any "gross-up" or other additional amounts to the Holders of any Class of Notes because taxes or related amounts are required to be withheld from payments on the Notes or any payments to either of the Co-Issuers on any item of Portfolio Collateral or other assets of the Co-Issuers.

The Issuer and the Trustee may enter into any Securities Lending Agreement at the instruction of the Servicer, and deliver and accept delivery and return of any Portfolio Collateral pursuant to the Securities Lending Agreement, or pursuant to instructions from the Servicer in connection with the Securities Lending Agreement. The Trustee may take any actions and exercise any rights and remedies under any Securities Lending Agreement that the Servicer instructs. The Trustee need not enter into any Securities Lending Agreement that would in its judgment, subject it to any liability, whether financial or otherwise, or cause it to incur or subject it to risk of any cost or disbursement for which it is not, in its judgment, adequately indemnified, or that would impose on it any obligations or administrative burdens that are unacceptable to it. The Servicer shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity, or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in this Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Portfolio Collateral is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement, (a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Portfolio Collateral because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action), and (b) the lent Portfolio Collateral shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as an item of Portfolio Collateral by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Portfolio Collateral to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under this Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

ARTICLE VIII

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

Section 8.1. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Noteholders.

Without the consent of the Holders of any Notes, but with the consent of the Servicer, each Hedge Counterparty (to the extent the amendment would have a material adverse effect on such Hedge Counterparty), the Co-Issuers and the Trustee, at any time, may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, for any of the following purposes:

- (1) to correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of this Indenture, or better to assure, convey and confirm unto the Trustee any property subject or required to be subjected to the lien of this Indenture, or to subject to the lien of this Indenture additional property;
- (2) to evidence the succession of another Person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, and the assumption by any such successor of the covenants of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer contained herein and in the Notes or the Combination Notes;
- (3) to add to the covenants of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes and the Combination Notes, or to surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Issuer or the Co-Issuer;
- (4) to Grant any property to the Trustee;
- (5) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment hereunder by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of this Indenture as shall be necessary to facilitate the administration of the Trust Estate by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of Section 6.9 or 6.10 hereof;

(6) to cure any ambiguity, or to correct, modify or supplement any provision which is defective or inconsistent with any other provision herein;

(7) to take any action necessary or helpful to prevent the Issuer or the Trustee from becoming subject to any withholding or other taxes or assessments or to reduce the risk that the Issuer will be engaged in a United States trade or business or that the Issuer (or the beneficial owners thereof) will be subject to United States income tax on a net income basis;

(8) to correct any manifest error in any provision hereof upon receipt by the Trustee of written direction from the Issuer or Co-Issuer (as to which the Trustee may rely) describing in reasonable detail such error and the modification necessary to correct such error; or

(9) to effectuate the provisions of Section 2.12 hereof provided that such amendment shall not, as evidenced by an Officer's Certificate of the Issuer, adversely affect in any material respect the interests of any Noteholder; or

(10) to facilitate the delivery and maintenance of the Notes in accordance with the requirements of DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream;

(11) to authorize the appointment of any listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes required or advisable in connection with the listing of the Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange and otherwise to amend this Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent or additional registrar for such Notes in connection therewith;

(12) to modify the restrictions on and procedures for resale and other transfer of the Notes or the Combination Notes in accordance with any change in any applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely upon any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the Investment Company Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required thereunder;

(13) notwithstanding anything contained in clause (12), to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resale and transfer of the Notes in accordance with any change in ERISA;

(14) evidence the addition of an additional issuer or of a wholly owned subsidiary of the Issuer that, in either case, will acquire securities from the Issuer and pledge its assets to secure the obligations of the Issuer secured by the Trust Estate, to the extent necessary to permit the Issuer to comply with the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder or any other statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Issuer, and the assumption by any such additional issuer or subsidiary of the covenants and obligations of the Issuer in this Indenture; or provided further that (A) such amendment for any matters described in clauses (1) through (14) shall not, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion), adversely affect in any material respect the interests of any Noteholder and (B) no amendment shall be made that would cause the Issuer to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act. The Trustee shall be entitled to receive and rely upon an opinion of counsel to the effect that a proposed supplemental indenture does not materially adversely affect the interests of the Noteholders of any Class of Notes or the interest of the Preferred Shareholders; provided that any such opinion of counsel may rely on an officer's certificate covering any relevant factual matters.

(15) prevent the Issuer from becoming an "investment company" as defined in the Investment Company Act or better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 thereunder; provided that, with respect to this clause (15) only, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and Bear Stearns shall have (A) satisfied the Rating Condition with respect to such supplemental indenture and (B) received a customary, unqualified opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental indenture, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act;

The Trustee is hereby authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be therein contained. At the cost of the Issuer, the Trustee shall provide to the Servicer, the Cap Provider and for so long as any Notes or Combination Notes are then rated, each Rating Agency then rating any Notes or Combination Notes a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture at least 10 days prior to the execution thereof by the Trustee and request written confirmation that the entering into of such supplemental indenture satisfies the Rating Condition. The Trustee shall not enter into any such supplemental indenture if such supplemental indenture does not satisfy the Rating Condition, and, as soon as practicable after the execution by the Trustee and the Issuer of any such supplemental indenture, the Issuer or the Trustee at the request of the Issuer shall provide to the Servicer, each Hedge Counterparty and each Rating Agency then rating any Notes or Combination Notes a copy of the executed supplemental indenture.

In addition, upon the proposal of the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, and subject to the consent of at least a Majority of the Eligible Preferred Shares of such proposal or at the direction of such Preferred Shares, the Co-Issuers and the Servicer, the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may enter into one or more supplemental indentures (i) in connection with an Optional Redemption by Refinancing involving the issuance of additional notes, to accommodate the issuance of such additional notes and to establish the terms thereof or (ii) in connection with an Optional Redemption by Refinancing involving secured loans, to accommodate borrowings under such secured loans and to establish the terms thereof; provided that, if a supplemental indenture is entered into in connection with the issuance of additional notes or incurrence of secured loans related to an Optional Redemption by Refinancing, such supplemental indenture shall not be effective unless each of the Rating Agencies has (a) if additional notes are issued in substantially the same capital structure as the Notes issued on the Closing Date, (i) provided a Rating Confirmation and (ii) provided a rating to the additional notes to be issued or the secured loans to be incurred as agreed upon by the purchasers of such additional notes in such Optional Redemption by Refinancing or (b) in any other case, provided a rating to the additional notes to be issued or the secured loans to be incurred as agreed upon by the purchasers of such additional notes in such Optional Redemption by Refinancing.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (so long as the Rating Condition has been satisfied), with the consent of the Servicer and, except as provided in this Section 8.1, without the consent of the Holders of any Notes or the Holders of the Combination Notes or Preferred Shares, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may enter into an indenture or indentures supplemental thereto (other than as may otherwise be permitted under this Indenture): (a) to add additional rows to the Collateral Quality Matrix (other than in accordance with clause (ii) of the second sentence of the definition of "Collateral Quality Matrix"); (b) to change the definition of Collateral Quality Formula (and any related definitions), (c) to change the definition of Weighted Average Life Requirement (and any related definitions), (d) to change the definition of Minimum Average Recovery Rate Test (and any related definitions) and (e) to change the definition of S&P CDO Monitor Test (and any related definitions); provided that the Trustee must receive the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class with respect to any indenture or supplemental indenture with respect to items (a) (other than in accordance with clause (ii) of the second sentence of the definition of "Collateral Quality Matrix"), (b), (c), (d) and (e) above.

Section 8.2. Supplemental Indentures with Consent of Noteholders.

With the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, the Servicer and the Holders of the Preferred Shares, to the extent described in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, each Hedge Counterparty (to the extent the amendment would have a material adverse effect on each such Hedge Counterparty), the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may enter into an indenture or indentures supplemental hereto for the purpose of adding any provisions to, or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of, this Indenture or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes under this Indenture; provided that, notwithstanding any Amendment Buy-Out Option described in Section 9.4(b), no such supplemental indenture shall, without the consent of each Noteholder of each Class adversely affected thereby:

- (1) change the Final Maturity Date or Payment Date of any Note, or reduce the principal amount, notional principal amount or stated amount thereof, as the case may be, or the means of determining the Applicable Periodic Rate, the Optional Redemption Price, the Special Redemption Price, the Tax Event Redemption Price or the Mandatory Redemption Price, as applicable, with respect thereto, change the provisions of this Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of the Trust Estate to the payment of the Notes or the Combination Notes or change the jurisdiction where any Note or Combination Note is payable, or the coin or currency in which, any Note, Combination Note or any amount thereunder is payable, or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after the maturity thereof;

(2) reduce the percentage in Aggregate Principal Amount, the consent of the Holders of which is required for the execution of any such supplemental indenture, or the consent of the Holders of which is required for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of this Indenture or certain Events of Default hereunder and their consequences provided for in this Indenture;

(3) impair or adversely affect the Trust Estate except as otherwise permitted herein;

(4) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture with respect to any part of the Trust Estate or terminate the lien of this Indenture on any property at any time subject hereto (other than pursuant to the terms of this Indenture) or deprive the Holder of any Note or any other party expressly secured hereby of the security afforded by the lien of this Indenture;

(5) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes whose Holders must direct the Trustee to preserve the Trust Estate or must consent before any request is made to rescind the Trustee's election to preserve the Trust Estate pursuant to Section 5.5 hereof, or to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate pursuant to Section 5.4, 5.5 or 9.7 hereof or modify the requirement for consent of any other party to which the right to consent is expressly granted hereby;

(6) modify any of the provisions of this Section or Section 5.15 hereof, except to increase any such percentage or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected thereby;

(7) modify the provisions of Article XI hereof or the definition of the term "Holder," "Noteholder," "Majority Noteholders," "Majority Preferred Shareholders," "Requisite Noteholders" or of the term "Outstanding";

(8) amend any provision of this Indenture relating to the institution of proceedings for the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to be adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings against it, or the filing with respect to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under the Bankruptcy Code or any other similar applicable law, or the consent by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the filing of any such petition as to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, respectively;

(9) amend any provision of this Indenture or other such document that provides that the obligations of the Co-Issuer or the Issuer, as the case may be, are non-recourse obligations of the Co-Issuer or the Issuer, respectively, payable solely from the Collateral in accordance with the terms hereof; or

(10) modify any of the provisions of this Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount or timing of any payment of interest or principal due on any Note or Combination Note on any Payment Date (including the calculation of any of the individual components of such calculation) or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes or Combination Notes to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of such Notes or Combination Notes contained herein.

With respect to any action that requires consent from 100% of the Noteholders, if any Noteholder has notified the Trustee in writing that pursuant to such Noteholder's organizational documents or other documents governing such Noteholder's actions, the Noteholder is not permitted to take any affirmative action approving, rejecting or otherwise acting upon any Issuer request under the Indenture, the failure by such Noteholder to consent to or reject any such requested action will be deemed a consent by such Noteholder to the requested action. In addition, any consent required from a Noteholder or a Holder of a Preferred Share may be evidenced by one or more instruments (which may be an electronic document, including, but not limited to, in the form of email, to the extent permitted by applicable law), signed by Noteholders or Holders of Preferred Shares in person or by agents duly appointed in writing (provided that no signature shall be required on electronic documents, including, but not limited to, in the form of email to the extent permitted by law).

Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section, the Trustee shall mail to the Servicer and, so long as any Notes or Combination Notes are then rated by any Rating Agency, to each such Rating Agency, a copy of such supplemental indenture and, if any Notes or Combination Notes are then rated, prior to the execution of the proposed supplemental indenture, the Rating Condition must be satisfied with respect to such supplemental indenture.

Except for any proposed amendment that would affect the terms of the Combination Notes as such, Holders of the Combination Notes shall be entitled to vote under this Section 8.2 only as Holders of the related Component Securities.

It shall not be necessary in connection with any consent of Noteholders under this Section for the Noteholders to approve the specific form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if such consent shall approve the substance thereof.

In the event that any supplemental indenture is consented to by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes and the Rating Condition is satisfied or is specifically waived by all consenting parties, all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture shall be deemed satisfied, the execution of such supplemental indenture shall be authorized or permitted by this Indenture, and the Trustee shall execute and accept the additional trusts created by such supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article VIII or modification thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture without obtaining an Opinion of Counsel; provided that the Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise. The Servicer shall not be bound by any amendment or supplement to this Indenture that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Servicer unless the Servicer consents to it in writing, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Servicer shall follow any amendment or supplement to this Indenture by which it is bound of which it has received written notice from the time it receives a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee.

Promptly after the execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2, the Issuer or the Trustee at the request of the Issuer shall deliver to the Holders of the Notes, the Servicer, each Rating Agency then rating any Notes a copy thereof.

Section 8.3. Execution of Supplemental Indentures.

In executing or accepting the additional trusts created by any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article VIII or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to Section 6.3(d) hereof) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture, and that all conditions precedent applicable thereto under this Indenture have been satisfied. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

Section 8.4. Effect of Supplemental Indentures.

Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article VIII, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and such supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and every Holder of Notes and Combination Notes theretofore and thereafter authenticated and delivered hereunder shall be bound thereby.

Section 8.5. Reference in Notes and Combination Notes to Supplemental Indentures.

Notes and Combination Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article VIII may, and if required by the Trustee shall, bear a notation in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in such supplemental indenture. If the Issuer shall so determine, new Notes and Combination Notes, so modified as to conform in the opinion of the Trustee and the Issuer to any such supplemental indenture, may be prepared and executed by the Issuer and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes and Combination Notes.

ARTICLE IX

REDEMPTION; TERMINATION OF TRUST

Section 9.1. Optional Redemption.

(a) The Notes shall be redeemable, in whole but not in part, by the Co-Issuer or the Issuers, as applicable, at the direction of the Holders of at least 66-2/3% of the outstanding Eligible Preferred Shares on any Payment Date after the Non-Call Period at the Optional Redemption Price (such redemption of all the Notes, an "Optional Redemption by Liquidation"). No redemption pursuant to this Section 9.1(a) shall occur unless all Outstanding Notes are redeemed, all payments, fees and expenses are paid in full on the date of such redemption, all amounts due to or advanced by any Hedge Counterparty under any Hedge Agreement have been paid or reimbursed and the applicable notice requirements provided in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement have been satisfied.

(b) Any Class of Notes may be redeemed in whole but not in part, on any Payment Date after the Non-Call Period from the proceeds of a Refinancing (the "Refinancing Proceeds") with the consent of the Holders of at least a Majority of the Eligible Preferred Shares or at the direction of such Holders of Preferred Shares if the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, gives written notice thereof to the Holders of all the Preferred Shares (with a copy to the Trustee, the Paying and Transfer Agent and Rating Agencies) at least 30 days prior to the Payment Date fixed by the Issuer for such redemption (such date, the "Refinancing Date"), by obtaining a loan or an issuance of a replacement class of notes, the terms of which loan or issuance will be negotiated by, and acceptable to, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, from one or more financial institutions or purchasers (which may include the Servicer or its Affiliates) selected by the Servicer (a refinancing provided to such loan or issuance, a "Refinancing" and a redemption of the Notes in connection with such Refinancing, an "Optional Redemption by Refinancing") and, if such Refinancing has not been directed by a Majority of the Eligible Preferred Shares, such proposal is approved such Majority of the Preferred Shares prior to the Refinancing Date. The Issuer shall obtain a Refinancing only if the Servicer determines to its satisfaction (and so notifies the Trustee in writing) that: (i) the principal amount of any obligations providing the Refinancing is no greater than the principal amount of the Notes being redeemed plus the fees and administrative expenses of the Issuer related to the Refinancing; (ii) the stated maturity of the obligations providing the Refinancing is no earlier than the Stated Maturity of the Notes being redeemed; (iii) the interest rate payable in respect of the obligations providing the Refinancing is less than the interest rate payable on the Notes being redeemed; (iv) the agreements relating to the Refinancing contain non-recourse and non-petition provisions, investor qualification provisions and transfer restrictions equivalent to those applicable to the Notes being redeemed, as set forth in the Indenture; (v) the proceeds from the Refinancing will be at least sufficient to redeem the applicable Notes (at the Optional Redemption Price therefor) and to pay any fees and administrative expenses of the Issuer related to the Refinancing; (vi) the Refinancing Proceeds will be used (to the extent necessary) to redeem the applicable Notes; (vii) the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency shall be satisfied (other than with respect to the Notes being redeemed); (viii) the obligations providing the Refinancing are subject to the Priority of Payments and do not rank higher in priority pursuant to the Priority of Payments than the Class of Notes being redeemed; and (ix) the expenses in connection with the Refinancing have been paid or will be adequately provided for. Any Refinancing Proceeds shall not constitute Collateral Interest Collections or Collateral Principal Collections but shall be applied directly on the related Refinancing Date pursuant to the Indenture to redeem the Notes being refinanced without regard to the Priority of Payments; provided that, to the extent that any Refinancing Proceeds are not applied to redeem the Notes being refinanced, such Refinancing Proceeds shall be treated as Collateral Principal Collections or, if the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to such application, as Collateral Interest Collections. None of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee or any other Person shall be liable to the Holders of the Preferred Shares for the failure to issue additional notes or to obtain secured loans.

(c) The election of the Issuer to redeem any Notes pursuant to this Section 9.1 shall be set forth in an Issuer Order, given to the Trustee in accordance with Section 9.6 hereof, directing the Trustee to make the payment of the Optional Redemption Price for all (in the case of an Optional Redemption by Liquidation) or the selected Class (in the case of an Optional Redemption by Refinancing) of the Notes, as applicable, from funds in the Collection Account and/or from monies deposited with the Trustee by the Issuer pursuant to Section 9.8 hereof.

(d) The Issuer shall, simultaneously with electing to redeem Notes under this Section 9.1, set the Optional Redemption Date and the Redemption Record Date for any redemption pursuant to this Section and give notice thereof to the Trustee pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof.

(e) The Issuer shall have the option to withdraw the notice of redemption until (i) the earlier of the fifth Business Day prior to the proposed Optional Redemption Date and the date on which a forward purchase contract is entered into pursuant to Section 9.8 or (ii) the fifth Business Day prior to the proposed Refinancing Date, if (A) in the case of an Optional Redemption by Liquidation, the Servicer shall be unable to deliver the forward purchase contract which satisfies the terms of Section 9.8 to the Trustee, in form satisfactory to the Trustee or (B) in the case of an Optional Redemption by Refinancing, the Servicer does not make the determinations required pursuant to Section 9.1(b) or (C) in the case of any Optional Redemption, at least a Majority of the Eligible Preferred Shares direct such notice to be withdrawn, in each case by written notice to the Trustee, the Servicer, each Class of Notes and, for so long as any Class of Notes and the Rating Agencies is listed on any stock exchange and the rules of such stock exchange so require, to such stock exchange, on or prior to such earlier day.

(f) On the Optional Redemption Date, the Optional Redemption Price shall be distributed pursuant to Section 11.1(d) after payment of all amounts required to be paid pursuant to Section 11.1(b).

Section 9.2. Mandatory Redemption.

If either the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests (other than with respect to a failure of the Class B-2L Overcollateralization Test) are not satisfied as of any applicable Calculation Date or a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, all or a portion of the Notes shall be redeemed (or, in the case of the Class B-1L Notes and the Class B-2L Notes, any Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts shall be paid and then the Notes shall be redeemed) by the Issuer, in the order set forth in Section 11.1 hereof, on the Payment Date immediately following such Calculation Date at the Mandatory Redemption Price (pursuant to the applicable provisions of Sections 11.1 and 11.2 hereof) in an amount sufficient such that the Interest Coverage Test and Overcollateralization Tests are satisfied or a Rating Confirmation is received, as applicable. The amount of any Mandatory Redemption hereunder shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.2 hereof. If on any Payment Date the Class B-2L Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, 50% of available Interest Proceeds will be applied to pay principal on the Class B-2L Notes and 50% (or, after the Class B-2L Notes are paid in full, 100%) of available Interest Proceeds will be applied sequentially to pay principal on the Notes according to the priorities described herein until the Class B-2L Overcollateralization Test is satisfied. In addition, Principal Proceeds will be applied sequentially to pay principal on the Notes, as set forth in clause SECOND of Section 11.1(c)(ii) and 11.1(c)(iii) herein.

Section 9.3. Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement.

On each Payment Date after the second Payment Date, the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement shall be applied by the Issuer in the order set forth in Section 11.1 hereof.

Section 9.4. Special Redemption; Amendment Buy-Out

(a) The Notes shall be redeemable in part on any Payment Date during the Revolving Period at the option of the Issuer, as directed by and at the discretion of the Servicer, to the extent more than U.S. $2,000,000 of Collateral Principal Collections held in the Collection Account are not applied to the purchase of Additional Portfolio Collateral satisfying the criteria contained in Section 11.3 hereof by the earlier of the last day of the next succeeding Due Period or the last day of the Revolving Period, in the order and priority set forth in Section 11.1 hereof.

(b) In the case of any supplemental indenture pursuant to Section 8.2 that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Notes or Preferred Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders (which shall not include any Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes unless such Holders consent to being designated as "Non-Consenting Holders," as described below) all Notes or Preferred Shares held by such Holders of the Class of Notes or Preferred Shares whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; provided, however, that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser may not exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option during the Non-Call Period in connection with a proposed amendment to reduce the rate of interest on any Security, as applicable, or to change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preferred Shares may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer; provided further, that notwithstanding the definition of Non-Consenting Holder, any Holder of Notes (other than the Class A-1LA Notes) or Preferred Shares who fails to respond to any such consent solicitation shall be deemed to have consented to any such supplemental indenture. Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the Non-Call Period, "Non-Consenting Holder" shall exclude any Holder of Class A-1LA Notes (unless such Holder has consented in writing to be designated as a Non-Consenting Holder) and the Amendment Buy-Out Option shall not be applicable to such Class A-1LA Notes. If the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Notes or Preferred Shares of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes or Preferred Shares the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of its Securities or Preferred Shares hereunder, each Holder of Notes or Preferred Shares agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Notes or Preferred Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser. Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or Beneficial Owner of Securities or Preferred Shares as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) nothing described above or in the Indenture shall in any way limit or restrict the rights of the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes to consent or withhold their consent to a supplemental indenture or to otherwise vote their interest both during and after the Non-Call Period and (ii) the Trustee shall have no responsibility for overseeing the Servicer's compliance with the Amendment Buy-Out provisions herein.

(c) All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Securities or Preferred Shares set forth herein and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Section 9.5. Tax Event Redemption.

(a) The Notes shall be redeemable, in whole but not in part, by the Issuer at the direction of a Majority of the Preferred Shares or a Majority of the Controlling Class (but only if the Aggregate Principal Balance of Portfolio Collateral is less than 100% of the Class A-1L Notes) on any Payment Date at the Tax Event Redemption Price, if as a result of (i) change in tax law, rule or regulation or the interpretation thereof, the payments to be received on the Portfolio Collateral are reduced as a result of the imposition of withholding tax, (ii) the Issuer is otherwise subjected to tax such that the income of the Issuer is reduced in an amount determined by such holders of Preferred Shares to be material, (iii) (A) one or more items of Portfolio Collateral that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more items of Portfolio Collateral that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them and (B) in any Due Period the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on new withholding tax obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on increased rate withholding tax obligations, in each case to the extent not "grossed-up" (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period, or (iv) (A) a Hedge Counterparty being required to deduct or withhold from any payment to the Issuer under the related Hedge Agreement for or on account of any tax for whatever reason and such obligor or Hedge Counterparty is not required to pay to the Issuer such additional amount as is necessary to ensure that the net amount actually received by the Issuer (free and clear of taxes, whether assessed against such obligor, such Hedge Counterparty or the Issuer) will equal the full amount that the Issuer would have received had no such deduction or withholding occurred or (B) the Issuer being required to pay to the Hedge Counterparty an additional amount for or on account of any tax for whatever reason, the Issuer does not receive the full amount under a Hedge Agreement that it would otherwise be entitled to receive, or (v) taxes, fees, assessments or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any 12-month period in excess of $2,000,000, other than liabilities for withholding taxes included in clause (iii) above. No redemption pursuant to this Section 9.5 shall occur unless all Outstanding Notes are redeemed, unless all payments, fees and expenses are paid in full on the date of such redemption, all amounts due to or advanced by any Hedge Counterparty under any Hedge Agreement have been paid or reimbursed and unless all other payments, fees and expenses are paid in full.

(b) The election of the Issuer to redeem any Notes pursuant to this Section 9.5 shall be set forth in an Issuer Order, given to the Trustee in accordance with Section 9.6 hereof, directing the Trustee to make the payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price from funds in the Collection Account and/or from monies deposited with the Trustee by the Issuer pursuant to Section 9.8 hereof.

(c) The Issuer shall, simultaneously with electing to redeem Notes under this Section 9.5, set the Tax Event Redemption Date and the Redemption Record Date for any redemption pursuant to this Section 9.5 and give notice thereof to the Trustee pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof.

(d) The Issuer shall have the option to withdraw the notice of redemption until the earlier of the fifth Business Day prior to the proposed Tax Event Redemption Date and the date on which a forward purchase contract is entered into pursuant to Section 9.8(b) hereof by written notice to the Trustee and the Servicer on or prior to such earlier day.

(e) On the Tax Redemption Date, the Tax Event Redemption Price shall be distributed pursuant to Section 11.1(d) hereof after payment of all amounts required to be paid pursuant to Section 11.1(b) hereof.

Section 9.7. Notice of Optional Redemption and Tax Event Redemption by the Issuer.

(a) If notice thereof has been received by the Trustee from the Issuer pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof, notice of an Optional Redemption shall be given by the Trustee by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than twenty calendar days prior to the proposed

Redemption Record Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed at the address in the Note Register (with a copy to the Rating Agencies at the addresses specified in Section 10.7 hereof), and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

At the cost of the Issuer, the Trustee shall give notice of any withdrawal of the notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.1(d) hereof (to the extent feasible) by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery, sent not later than the third Business Day prior to the previously proposed Optional Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed at the address in the Note Register, and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

Failure to give notice of redemption or notice of withdrawal, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of the Notes or give rise to any claim based upon such failure or defect.

(b) If notice thereof has been received by the Trustee from the Issuer pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof, notice of a Tax Event Redemption shall be given by the Trustee by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than twenty calendar days prior to the proposed Redemption Record Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed at the address in the Note Register (with a copy to the Rating Agencies at the addresses specified in Section 10.7 hereof), and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

All notices of a Tax Event Redemption shall state: the proposed Tax Event Redemption Date; the proposed Redemption Record Date; and that on such proposed Tax Event Redemption Date, all of the Notes (to the extent of the Aggregate Principal Amount) are to be redeemed and paid in full and that interest thereon shall cease to accrue on the date specified in the notice and the place where such Notes may be surrendered for payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price, which shall be the agency of the Trustee to be maintained as provided in Section 7.2 hereof; and that the Issuer may withdraw such election at any time on or prior to the earlier of the fifth Business Day prior to such proposed Tax Event Redemption Date and the date before which a forward purchase contract is entered into pursuant to Section 9.8(b) hereof.

Notice of Tax Event Redemption of the Notes shall be given by the Issuer or, at the Issuer's request, by the Trustee in the name of the Issuer and at the expense of the Issuer. Failure to give notice of redemption or notice of withdrawal, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of the Notes or the withdrawal thereof or give rise to any claim based upon such failure or defect.

Section 9.8. Deposit of Optional Redemption Price and Tax Event Redemption Price.

(a) In the case of an Optional Redemption, on or before the fifth Business Day preceding the proposed Optional Redemption Date contained in the notice of redemption as provided in Section 9.6 hereof, the Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee cash or Eligible Investments maturing no later than the Business Day prior to the Optional Redemption Date (unless such Eligible Investments are issued by the Person acting as Trustee, in which event they may mature on the Optional Redemption Date), or any combination thereof, in an amount sufficient to provide for payment of the Optional Redemption Price with respect to the Outstanding Notes and all amounts due under Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof. The Issuer may use all available funds in the Collection Account to provide for payment of the Optional Redemption Price in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof. In the event that there are not sufficient available funds in the Collection Account as of the date the notice of redemption is sent out pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof to pay the Optional Redemption Price on the Optional Redemption Date in accordance with Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof, the Servicer shall give the Trustee written direction to sell Portfolio Collateral in an amount sufficient to provide available funds to pay the Optional Redemption Price in full pursuant to Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof, and shall give the Issuer written direction to enter into, as of a date which is not later than five (5) Business Days prior to the Optional Redemption Date, forward contracts (each of which shall provide for "payment versus delivery" and shall direct that payment be made to the Trustee) with a financial institution rated "A-1+" by Standard & Poor's and "P-1" by Moody's to sell such Portfolio Collateral for settlement at least three Business Days prior to the Optional Redemption Date, and shall provide a copy of such contract to the Trustee prior to such Business Day preceding such redemption date; and pursuant to such instruction, the Trustee shall release and sell such Portfolio Collateral for purposes of such redemption. In determining whether the proceeds of any Optional Redemption will be sufficient to pay the Optional Redemption Price on the Optional Redemption Date, the Issuer and the Trustee may rely on the Market Value of the Portfolio Collateral when entering into any forward purchase agreements.

(b) In the case of a Tax Event Redemption, on or before the fifth Business Day preceding the proposed Tax Event Redemption Date contained in the notice of redemption as provided in Section 9.6 hereof, the Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee cash or Eligible Investments maturing no later than the Business Day prior to the Tax Event Redemption Date (unless such Eligible Investments are issued by the Person acting as Trustee, in which event they may mature on the Tax Event Redemption Date), or any combination thereof, in an amount sufficient to provide for payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price with respect to the Outstanding Notes and all amounts due under Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof. The Issuer may use all available funds in the Collection Account to provide for payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof. In the event that there are not sufficient available funds in the Collection Account as of the date the notice of redemption is sent out pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof to pay the Tax Event Redemption Price on the Tax Event Redemption Date in accordance with Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof, the Servicer shall give the Trustee written direction to sell Portfolio Collateral in an amount sufficient to provide available funds to pay the Tax Event Redemption Price in full pursuant to Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof, and shall give the Issuer written direction to enter into, as of a date which is not later than five Business Days prior to the Tax Event Redemption Date, forward contracts (each of which shall provide for "payment versus delivery" and shall direct that payment be made to the Trustee) with a financial institution rated "A-1+" by Standard & Poor's and "P-1" by Moody's to sell such Portfolio Collateral for settlement at least three Business Days prior to the Tax Event Redemption Date, and shall provide a copy of such contract to the Trustee prior to such third Business Day preceding such redemption date; and pursuant to such instruction, the Trustee shall release and sell such Portfolio Collateral for purposes of such redemption.

Section 9.9. Notes Payable on Optional Redemption Date.

In the event that notice of Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.1 hereof has been given as provided in Section 9.6 hereof and not withdrawn, all Outstanding Notes shall on the Optional Redemption Date become due and payable at the Optional Redemption Price, and (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Optional Redemption Price) all Outstanding Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Optional Redemption Date. Each Holder shall present and surrender its Note at the place specified in the notice of Optional Redemption on or prior to such Optional Redemption Date; provided that if there is delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless (an unsecured indemnity agreement of an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any state in the United States with a net worth at least twice the amount of the security or indemnity being deemed sufficient to satisfy such security or indemnity requirement) and an undertaking thereafter to surrender such Note, then, in the absence of notice to the Issuer or the Trustee that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, such payment shall be made without presentation or surrender.

If any Note called for redemption shall not be so paid upon surrender thereof for Optional Redemption (or the delivery of the indemnity pursuant to the preceding paragraph), the principal shall, until paid, bear interest from the Optional Redemption Date at the Applicable Periodic Rate.

Section 9.10. Notes Payable on Mandatory Redemption Date.

In the event of a Mandatory Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2 hereof, principal of the Notes (or, in the case of Class B-1L Notes and the Class B-2L Notes, any Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount and then any principal) in an amount determined pursuant to Section 11.2 hereof shall on the Mandatory Redemption Date become due and payable, and (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Mandatory Redemption Price) such amounts shall cease to bear interest on the Mandatory Redemption Date.

Section 9.11. Notes Payable on Tax Event Redemption.

In the event that notice of a Tax Event Redemption pursuant to Section 9.5 hereof has been given as provided in Section 9.6 hereof and not withdrawn, all Outstanding Notes shall on the Tax Event Redemption Date become due and payable at the Tax Event Redemption Price, and (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price) all Outstanding Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Tax Event Redemption Date. Each Holder shall present and surrender its Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption on or prior to such Tax Event Redemption Date; provided that if there is delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless (an unsecured indemnity agreement of an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any state in the United States with a net worth at least twice the amount of the security or indemnity being deemed sufficient to satisfy such security or indemnity requirement) and an undertaking thereafter to surrender such Note, then, in the absence of notice to the Issuer or the Trustee that the applicable Note has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, such payment shall be made without presentation or surrender.

If any Note called for a Tax Event Redemption shall not be so paid upon surrender thereof for a Tax Event Redemption (or the delivery of the indemnity pursuant to the preceding paragraph), the principal shall, until paid, bear interest from the Tax Event Redemption Date at the Applicable Periodic Rate.

ACCOUNTS, ACCOUNTINGS AND RELEASES

Section 10.1. Collection of Money.

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the Trustee may demand payment or delivery of, and shall receive and collect, directly and without intervention or assistance of any fiscal agent or other intermediary, all money and other property payable to or receivable by the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture, including all payments due on the Pledged Securities included in the Trust Estate, in accordance with the terms and conditions of such Pledged Securities. The Trustee shall segregate and hold all such money and property received by it in trust for the Holders of the Notes and shall apply it as provided in this Indenture.

Section 10.2. Accounts.

(a) The Trustee shall, on or prior to the Closing Date, establish with the Securities Intermediary ten non-interest bearing segregated securities accounts (collectively, the "Accounts") which shall be designated as the "Collection Account," the "Collateral Account," the "Reserve Account," the "Initial Deposit Account," the "Expense Reimbursement Account," the "Loan Funding Account," the "Closing Expense Account," the "Securities Lending Account," the "Default Swap Collateral Account," and the "Default Swap Issuer Account," respectively, identified as held in trust for the benefit of the Noteholders and the applicable Secured Parties or, in the case of the Default Swap Collateral Account, as held in trust for the benefit of the related Default Swap Counterparty and, to the extent provided in this Indenture, the other Secured Parties. The Trustee may establish any number of sub-accounts to the Collection Account for its convenience in administering the Accounts and Trust Estate.

Each Account (including any sub-account) shall be a securities account established with the Securities Intermediary in the name of the Trustee in accordance with Section 6.15.

Pursuant to a Servicer Order, a Default Swap Collateral Account shall be established for each Default Swap. The Trustee shall credit to each such Default Swap Collateral Account on the Closing Date or on the date any such Default Swap is entered into, as applicable, the amount required to secure the obligations of the Issuer in accordance with the terms of the related Default Swap, as directed by the Servicer, which amount shall be at least equal to the amount referred to in paragraph (iv) of the definition of Default Swap, such amounts to be credited to any such Default Swap Collateral Account shall be transferred by the Trustee from the Collection Account or the Initial Deposit Account, as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts credited to a Default Swap Collateral Account shall be maintained in accordance with the terms and provisions of the related Default Swap. Amounts and property credited to a Default Swap Collateral Account shall be withdrawn by the Trustee and applied to the payment of any amounts payable by, or to the delivery of investment property deliverable by, the Issuer to the related Default Swap Counterparty, as directed by the Servicer, in accordance with the terms of such Default Swap. Income received on amounts credited to a Default Swap Collateral Account will be applied in accordance with the terms of the applicable Default Swap to the payment of any periodic amounts owed by the Issuer to the applicable Default Swap Counterparty on the date such amounts are due, as directed by the Servicer. After application of such amounts, any income then contained in such Default Swap Collateral Account will be withdrawn from such Account, upon direction of the Servicer, and credited to the Collection Account for distribution as Collateral Interest Collections. After payment of all amounts owing by the Issuer to a Default Swap Counterparty in accordance with the terms of the related Default Swap (other than any Default Swap Counterparty Termination Payment) the Trustee shall be directed by the Servicer to withdraw all funds and other property credited to the Default Swap Collateral Account related to such Default Swap and credit such funds and other property to the Collection Account, as Collateral Principal Collections (in the case of cash and Eligible Investments) and the Collateral Account (in the case of Portfolio Collateral and other financial assets) for application as Collateral Principal Collections (other than any income thereon which will be Collateral Interest Collections) in accordance with the terms of this Indenture. Any Default Swap Counterparty Termination Payments owed by the Issuer to the Default Swap Counterparty shall be paid solely from amounts available therefor under the priority of payment provisions described herein.

Except for interest on securities credited to a Default Swap Collateral Account payable to the Issuer as described pursuant to the preceding paragraph, funds and other property standing to the credit of a Default Swap Collateral Account will not be considered to be an asset of the Issuer for purposes of the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests; provided, however that the Default Swap that relates to such Default Swap Collateral Account will be considered an asset of the Issuer for such purposes.

If the terms of any Default Swap require the Default Swap Counterparty to secure its obligations with respect to such Default Swap, upon Servicer Order the Trustee will cause to be established a Default Swap Issuer Account in respect of such Default Swap. The Trustee shall credit to any such Default Swap Issuer Account all funds and other property received from the applicable Default Swap Counterparty to secure the obligations of such Default Swap Counterparty in accordance with the terms of such Default Swap.

Funds and other property standing to the credit of any Default Swap Issuer Account will not be considered to be an asset of the Issuer for purposes of the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests; provided, however that the Default Swap that relates to such Default Swap Issuer Account will be considered an asset of the Issuer for such purposes.

In accordance with the terms of the applicable Default Swap, funds and other property standing to the credit of the related Default Swap Issuer Account will be withdrawn by the Trustee, as directed by the Servicer, and applied to the payment of any amount owing by the related Default Swap Counterparty to the Issuer. After payment of all amounts owing by the Default Swap Counterparty to the Issuer in accordance with the terms of the related Default Swap, all funds and other property standing to the credit of the related Default Swap Issuer Account will be withdrawn from such Default Swap Issuer Account and paid or transferred to the related Default Swap Counterparty, as directed by the Servicer, in accordance with the applicable Default Swap.

The Collection Account shall be a segregated securities account (or, at the Trustee's option, may be comprised of two separate, segregated trust accounts, designated for the collection of Collateral Interest Collections and Collateral Principal Collections, respectively), to which money required to be credited to the Collection Account (and Eligible Investments in which such money may be held from time to time, which Eligible Investments shall be acquired and held pursuant to the terms of Section 6.16 hereof) shall be credited.

All Portfolio Collateral Delivered to the Trustee that consists of security entitlements shall be credited to the Collateral Account.

Pursuant to Servicer Order, on or before the date on which the Issuer enters into a Securities Lending Agreement and delivers a copy of it to the Trustee, the Trustee shall create a segregated securities account designated as the Securities Lending Account with respect to any such Securities Lending Agreement. All Securities Lending Collateral posted by any Securities Lending Counterparty and received by the Trustee in support of its respective obligation under a Securities Lending Agreement shall be immediately credited to the Securities Lending Account. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds credited to the Securities Lending Account shall be: (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty to the Issuer under a Securities Lending Agreement if the Securities Lending Agreement becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the related Securities Lending Agreement upon any "event of default" under and as defined in the related Securities Lending Agreement, including liquidating the related Securities Lending Collateral, or (ii) to return the Securities Lending Collateral to the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty when and as required by the relevant Securities Lending Agreement, in each case as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts credited to the Securities Lending Account shall be applied as provided in the preceding paragraph. To the extent provided in a Securities Lending Agreement, earnings on amounts credited to the Securities Lending Account shall be payable by the Issuer to the related Securities Lending Counterparty, as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts credited to the Securities Lending Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests, but the loaned security or asset that relates to the Securities Lending Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer.

The Trustee shall credit to the Collection Account (i) all Collections received and (ii) all amounts otherwise received by it which are required to be credited thereto pursuant to this Indenture, including but not limited to, Section 10.3(e)(i) hereof.

The Trustee shall credit to the Initial Deposit Account (i) the Deposit received on the Closing Date for credit to the Initial Deposit Account pursuant to Section 3.2(e) hereof, (ii) all other amounts received by the Trustee which are required to be credited thereto pursuant to this Indenture, including but not limited to, Sections 3.2(e), 10.3(e)(ii) and 11.3 hereof and (iii) all proceeds received with respect to the sale of the Post-Closing Sale Collateral.

Upon the purchase of any item of Portfolio Collateral that is a Delayed Drawdown Loan or a Revolving Loan, the Trustee (as instructed by the Servicer) shall credit Collateral Principal Collections to the Loan Funding Account in an amount equal to the Issuer's maximum future funding obligations under the terms of such Delayed Drawdown Loan or Revolving Loan (as identified by the Servicer) and the Collateral Principal Collections so credited shall be considered part of the purchase price of such Delayed Drawdown Loan or Revolving Loan for purposes of Article XII hereof. When Collateral Principal Collections are received by the Trustee with respect to a Delayed Drawdown Loan or a Revolving Loan, the amount of such Collateral Principal Collections that may thereafter be re-borrowed under the terms of the Delayed Drawdown Loan or the Revolving Loan shall be credited to the Loan Funding Account.

The Trustee shall credit to the Expense Reimbursement Account (i) on the Closing Date the $50,000 received on the Closing Date for credit to the Expense Reimbursement Account pursuant to Section 3.2(f) hereof, (ii) all other amounts received by the Trustee which are required to be credited thereto from available amounts in the Collection Account pursuant to Section 11.1 hereof and (iii) all amounts received by it which are required to be credited thereto pursuant to Section 10.3(e)(iii) hereof.

Upon receipt, the Trustee shall credit to the Closing Expense Account on the Closing Date the amount specified pursuant to Section 3.2(f) hereof.

In addition, the Issuer may, but under no circumstances shall be required to, credit such monies to the Collection Account as it deems, in its sole discretion, to be advisable in the event that, but for such action, an Event of Default would occur.

All monies, instruments, investment property and other property credited to the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Closing Expense Account and the Reserve Account pursuant to this Indenture, and all Portfolio Collateral and other property credited to the Collateral Account, shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Trust Estate and shall be applied in the manner set forth herein.

The Trustee shall pay free and clear of the lien of the Indenture, upon receipt (or withdrawal from the Collection Account if previously credited thereto), all Retained Accrued Interest, as directed by Bear Stearns.

(b) Upon Servicer Order (which may be in the form of standing instructions) or, after the occurrence of an Event of Default upon written direction of the Requisite Noteholders, any portion of the monies in the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, Reserve Account and the Closing Expense Account in excess of $10,000 (in the aggregate) shall be applied by the Trustee as directed in such Servicer Order (or written direction of Requisite Noteholders, as the case may be) to purchase one or more Eligible Investments, provided that Eligible Investments in the Loan Funding Account are to mature no later than one Business Day after the date of such purchase. If the amount in such Accounts is equal to or less than $10,000, such amount shall remain therein and shall not be held in Eligible Investments. The Servicer and Issuer acknowledge that the selection of Eligible Investments by the Servicer pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be subject to the availability of such Eligible Investment at the institution at which such Account is held. If, prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Servicer shall not have given directions pursuant to this Section 10.2(b) with respect to any amounts in excess of $10,000 for one Business Day, the Trustee, unless otherwise directed in writing by the Issuer within one Business Day, shall invest such monies in Standby Directed Investments (which, in the case of Eligible Investments in the Loan Funding Account, are to mature no later than one Business Day after the date of such purchase). If, after the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Requisite Noteholders shall not have given directions pursuant to this Section 10.2(b) with respect to any amounts in excess of $10,000 for one Business Day, the Trustee shall apply such moneys as fully as practicable to purchase Standby Directed Investments and maturing not later than the earlier of (i) 30 days after the date of such purchase or (ii) the Business Day prior to the next Payment Date (or, in the case of Eligible Investments in the Initial Deposit Account, the Business Day prior to the Effective Date and in the case of Eligible Investments in the Loan Funding Account, one Business Day after the date of such purchase). All income or other gain from such Eligible Investments shall be credited to the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Reserve Account or the Closing Expense Account, as the case may be (for which the related purchase was made) and any loss resulting from such Eligible Investments shall be charged to the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Reserve Account or the Closing Expense Account, as the case may be (for which the related purchase was made). The Trustee shall not in any way be held liable by reason of any insufficiency in the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Loan Funding Account or the Closing Expense Account resulting from any loss on any Eligible Investment. Except as expressly provided herein, the Trustee shall be under no obligation to invest funds held hereunder.

(c) Upon Servicer Order and subject to the provisions of Section 11.3 hereof, on any Business Day, the applicable portion of Collateral Interest Collections shall be released from the Collection Account as specified in such Servicer Order and applied by the Trustee in accordance with such Servicer Order in payment of one or more specified items of Additional Portfolio Collateral purchased in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.3 hereof.

(d) Upon Servicer Order and subject to the provisions of Section 11.3 hereof on any Business Day all or a portion of the Collateral Principal Collections (other than Collateral Disposition Proceeds) shall be released from the Collection Account as specified in such Servicer Order and applied by the Trustee in accordance with such Servicer Order in payment of one or more specified items of Additional Portfolio Collateral purchased in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.3 hereof.

(e) Upon Servicer Order and subject to the provisions of Section 12.4 hereof, on any Business Day all or a portion of the Collateral Disposition Proceeds shall be released from the Collection Account and applied by the Trustee in accordance with such Servicer Order in payment of one or more specified items of Substitute Portfolio Collateral purchased in accordance with the provisions of Section 12.4 hereof.

(f) Upon Servicer Order and subject to the requirements of Section 3.4 hereof, between the Closing Date and the close of business on the Effective Date only, all or a portion of the Deposit available in the Initial Deposit Account shall be released from the Initial Deposit Account and applied by the Trustee in accordance with such Servicer Order in payment for Original Portfolio Collateral purchased in accordance with Section 3.4 hereof. Upon Servicer Order, on the Effective Date and pursuant to Section 3.4(d), all Account Income credited to the Initial Deposit Account shall be released from the Initial Deposit Account and credited to the Collection Account to be applied as Collateral Interest Collections on the next Payment Date and the remainder of such funds shall be considered Collateral Principal Collections.

(g) Upon Servicer Order on behalf of the Issuer, all or a portion of the funds available in the Expense Reimbursement Account shall be released from the Expense Reimbursement Account and applied by the Trustee to the payment to the Issuer for the purpose of paying on or prior to the next Payment Date following the date of delivery of such Servicer Order the Issuer Base Administrative Expenses, as specified therein, which are payable during the Due Period relating to such Payment Date.

(h) On or before the first Payment Date, any remaining portion of the Closing Expense Deposit after the closing expenses have been paid in full, as confirmed by the Issuer, or Servicer on its behalf, (including any Account Income thereon) shall be transferred (i) upon receipt by the Trustee of a Servicer Order to the Initial Deposit Account (and be deemed to be part of the Deposit) or, after the Effective Date, to the Collection Account to be applied as Collateral Interest Collections or (ii) if no such Servicer Order has been received on the Business Day prior to the second Payment Date, to the Collection Account to be applied as Collateral Interest Collections.

(i) Upon Servicer Order on behalf of the Issuer, all or a portion of the funds available in the Loan Funding Account shall be released from the Loan Funding Account and applied by the Trustee to fund amounts drawn under any Delayed Drawdown Loan or Revolving Loan and only funds in the Loan Funding Account shall be used for such purpose. In addition, upon Servicer Order on behalf of the Issuer, all or a portion of the funds available in the Loan Funding Account at any time in excess of the aggregate principal amount of commitments which may be drawn upon all Delayed Drawdown Loans and Revolving Loans in the Portfolio Collateral will be released from the Loan Funding Account and applied by the Trustee to the Collection Account to be applied as Collateral Principal Collections.

(j) On or before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish with the Securities Intermediary a single, segregated securities account that shall be designated as the Reserve Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the applicable Secured Parties, and over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. On the Closing Date, the Trustee, at the direction of the Issuer, shall credit to the Reserve Account the Reserve Amount from the net proceeds of the Offering. Amounts credited to the Reserve Account shall be applied pursuant to subclause (b) of this Section 10.2.

Section 10.3. Custody and Release of Portfolio Collateral.

(a) The Issuer shall cause each item of the Trust Estate to be Delivered, and the Trustee shall hold each item of the Trust Estate as Delivered, separate and apart from all other property held by the Trustee. To the extent that such of the Trust Estate as constitutes a deposit account is maintained with Investors Bank & Trust Company, the parties hereto hereby make the agreements required pursuant to clause (h) of the definition of Delivery. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Trustee shall not hold any part of the Trust Estate through an agent or nominee except as expressly permitted by this Section 10.3(a). Each of the preceding requirements of this Section 10.3(a) is subject to the right of the Trustee to relocate the Trust Estate to another jurisdiction pursuant to and upon compliance with Section 7.5(b) hereof.

(b) If no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Servicer, by a Servicer Order delivered to the Trustee on or before the settlement date for any sale of an item of Portfolio Collateral, certifying that (i) it has determined that such Portfolio Collateral has become an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, an item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, an item of Equity Portfolio Collateral or an item of Portfolio Collateral to be sold pursuant to Section 12.1(d) hereof and, in each case, the sale of such Portfolio Collateral is in compliance with Section 12.1 hereof or (ii) based upon receipt of an Issuer Order, on or after the Payment Date occurring in November 2011, the Collections from the sale of such Portfolio Collateral shall be used to effect an Optional Redemption in accordance with Section 9.1 hereof or (iii) based on receipt of an Issuer Order, the Collections from the sale of such Portfolio Collateral shall be used to effect a Tax Event Redemption in accordance with Section 9.5 hereof or (iv) it has determined that such Portfolio Collateral has become subject to withholding or similar tax and its sale is in compliance with Section 12.1 hereof, may direct the Trustee to release from the lien of this Indenture and deliver the Portfolio Collateral specified in such Servicer Order and, upon receipt of such Servicer Order, the Trustee shall release such Portfolio Collateral from such lien and deliver such Portfolio Collateral in accordance with the Servicer Order, in each case against receipt of sale proceeds therefor.

(c) The Trustee on behalf of the Issuer shall notify the Servicer of any Portfolio Collateral for which the Trustee has received notice that such Portfolio Collateral is being redeemed or paid in full. ### SALE OF PORTFOLIO COLLATERAL; SUBSTITUTION

Section 12.1. Sale of Portfolio Collateral

(a) Provided that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and subject to the satisfaction of the conditions specified in Section 10.3 hereof and the restrictions in this Article, the Servicer may direct the Trustee, by Servicer Order, to sell, and the Trustee shall release (or cause to be released) from the lien of this Indenture and sell in the manner directed by the Servicer, any Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, Equity Portfolio Collateral, Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral (as described in such direction) so long as, with respect to an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral or Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, the Servicer certifies to the Trustee, as applicable, that:

(i) in the case of an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral (including in connection with a Portfolio Improvement Exchange), in writing before the sale, that the Servicer has identified one or more specific manners in which it will be able, in compliance with the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 and the other requirements of Article XII (and in connection with a Portfolio Improvement Exchange, the requirements set forth in the definition of such term), to cause the Issuer to purchase with the applicable Collateral Disposition Proceeds net of accrued interest and costs, no later than the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (it being understood that such identification shall not be considered either a requirement or an assurance that any specified purchase will be consummated), one or more items of Substitute Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Balance equal to or greater than the Principal Balance of such Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral; and

(ii) in the case of an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, after giving effect to such sale and the subsequent purchase described in (a) above, the Servicer is required to certify that it reasonably believes that (x) either the Collateral Quality Tests and the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 hereof are satisfied or if one or more of such Collateral Quality Tests or criteria is not satisfied, the degree of compliance therewith would not be diminished and (y) either the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test are satisfied or if any Overcollateralization Test or the Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the degree of compliance with such tests would not be diminished.

(b) An item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral may be sold at any time, subject to the Sale Restriction Condition as set forth below. Following any sale of a Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral pursuant to this Section 12.1(a), at the direction of the Servicer during the Revolving Period, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase additional Portfolio Collateral (to the extent the purchase is in the best interest of the Issuer) with an Aggregate Principal Amount at least equal to the sale proceeds received by the Issuer with respect to the Portfolio Collateral sold. For this purpose, the Aggregate Principal Amount of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount.

(c) Notwithstanding any term hereof to the contrary and provided that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and subject to compliance with the conditions specified in Section 10.3 hereof, any Portfolio Collateral may be sold upon delivery to the Trustee of a certificate of the Servicer to the effect that it has reasonably determined, which may be based upon the advice of an opinion of counsel (a copy of which opinion shall be included with such certificate), that such Portfolio Collateral is, or may become, subject to a withholding or other similar tax (or to an increased rate of withholding or other similar tax). Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated herein, the Servicer may direct the sale of an item of Portfolio Collateral that was CCC/Caa Portfolio Collateral or Discount Portfolio Collateral at the time of purchase only if it constitutes Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, is sold in connection with the Optional Redemption of Notes in whole or if the Servicer reasonably expects that the sale and any related purchase of Substitute Portfolio Collateral will restore compliance with any of the Interest Coverage Test, the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 or the Overcollateralization Tests that would be failed or not satisfied in the absence of such sale and purchase.

(d) During any period after the first Due Period if a Sale Restriction Condition occurs, the Issuer shall send a notice to the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes to the effect that, for so long as the applicable Sale Restriction Condition exists, unless the Holders of at least 60% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes elect to retain the guidelines in effect on the Closing Date for sales of an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, as applicable, (i) no item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral may be sold unless (A) the rating of the obligor or of any debt or securities issued by the obligor under such an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral has been lowered, withdrawn or put on any "credit watch" list for possible downgrade (or similar list) with negative implications by S&P, Moody's or Fitch or (B) such an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral satisfies the Credit Risk Criteria and is not objected to by the Holders of more than 60% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes within forty-five (45) days of the date of such notice, or such later date as extended by the Trustee at the direction of the Servicer provided that in making such determination to sell an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, an increase in credit spread or a decrease in Market Value of such item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral may only be used as corroboration of other bases for such determination or (ii) no item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral may be sold unless such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral satisfies the Credit Improved Criteria and is not objected to by the Holders of more than 60% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes within forty-five (45) days of the date of such notice, or such later date as extended by the Trustee at the direction of the Servicer provided, that in making such determination to sell such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, a reduction in credit spread or an increase in Market Value of such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral may only be utilized as corroboration or other bases for such judgment.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth above, the Servicer may at any time direct the Trustee to sell any item of Portfolio Collateral that (i) was obtained as a result of any reorganization or restructuring of any Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or other Portfolio Collateral of an issuer under financial distress, or (ii) does not comply with the criteria set forth in Section 12.2.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, no acquisition or disposition of Portfolio Collateral or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) shall be effected by or on behalf of the Issuer for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes.

Notwithstanding the forgoing, if there is no appointment of a successor Servicer with 90 days after the resignation or termination of the Servicer, any sales or disposition of Portfolio Collateral shall be limited to Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral and Defaulted Portfolio Collateral and Equity Portfolio Collateral; provided that such restriction on the sale or disposition of Portfolio Collateral shall not apply if the Portfolio Collateral is being liquidated in whole or in part in connection with an acceleration or early termination of the Notes.

In addition, if a Suspension Trigger Event is in effect, a majority of the Controlling Class may deliver notice to the Issuer directing the Issuer to suspend any purchases of additional items for inclusion in the Trust Estate as an item of Portfolio Collateral. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 12.2, if the Portfolio Collateral to be purchased is to be purchased with the Collateral Disposition Proceeds of the disposition of one or more assets that is not an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, Portfolio Collateral sold pursuant to a Portfolio Improvement Exchange or Portfolio Collateral that has become subject to withholding tax, the purchase of the proposed item of Portfolio Collateral must (i) restore compliance with a Collateral Quality Test, Interest Coverage Test, Overcollateralization Test or a concentration limitation set forth in this Section 12.2 (or bring the Portfolio Collateral closer to compliance with any such test or limitation) not then satisfied or (ii) on a net basis improve the quality of the Portfolio Collateral as measured by such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests and concentration limitations and (iii) in the case of each of clause (i) and clause (ii) without causing any other Collateral Quality Test, Interest Coverage Test, Overcollateralization Test or concentration limitation to be violated or significantly increasing the likelihood of such a violation in the future.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12.2 and Section 11.3, if the Issuer or the Servicer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase an item of Portfolio Collateral to be included in the Trust Estate and at the time of such commitment such item of Portfolio Collateral complied with the definition of Portfolio Collateral and each of the foregoing criteria in this Section 12.2, then the Issuer may consummate the purchase of such item of Portfolio Collateral notwithstanding that such item of Portfolio Collateral fails to comply with the definition of Portfolio Collateral and such criteria on the date of settlement, provided that the agreed to settlement date shall not be more than thirty (30) days after the commitment to acquire such item of Portfolio Collateral or, if settlement occurs more than 30 days following the commitment, such item of Portfolio Collateral satisfies the criteria of this Section 12.2 as of the date of settlement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12.2 and Section 11.3, the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed, except for purposes of the Granting Clauses, to have purchased or sold (as the case may be) any Portfolio Collateral as of the date on which the Issuer delivers to the Trustee a commitment to purchase or sell (as the case may be) such items of Portfolio Collateral, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to receive or sell (as the case may be), and requiring the purchaser to purchase (in the case of a sale), such Portfolio Collateral and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have purchased or sold (as the case may be) such Portfolio Collateral on such date. Under the circumstances described in the immediately preceding sentence, if the transaction contemplated by the commitment referred to therein does not settle on or before the thirtieth (30th) day following the scheduled settlement date, the deemed purchase or sale shall be deemed not to have occurred.

Further, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12.2 and Section 11.3, any certifications or other documents required to be delivered by the Servicer or the Issuer in connection with the purchase or sale of any item of Portfolio Collateral during the Revolving Period may be delivered by the Issuer or the Servicer on the settlement date for such item of Portfolio Collateral even if such date occurs after the Revolving Period.

Section 12.3. Sale of Portfolio Collateral Subject to Offer or Call

(a) The Servicer may only direct the Trustee to sell an item of Portfolio Collateral that is the subject of an Offer or call for redemption, if together with its direction to sell such security, the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that the sales price for such Security is equal to or greater than 1% of the price available pursuant to such Offer or call and such sale will be treated as if the Offer or call were consummated for purposes of determining the Collections for the Due Period relating to the date on which such sale occurs.

(b) If an item of Portfolio Collateral becomes subject to an Exchange Offer after it has been purchased by the Issuer, the Servicer will be permitted to take such action with respect to the Underlying Instrument or the issuer thereof as may be required to convert such item of Portfolio Collateral into an item of Equity Portfolio Collateral.

Section 12.4. Purchase of Substitute Portfolio Collateral

(a) Upon receipt by the Trustee of a Servicer Order with respect thereto, the Collateral Disposition Proceeds received during any Due Period during the Revolving Period may be paid out of the Collection Account, on any Business Day during such Due Period or the immediately succeeding Due Period, for the purpose of purchasing one or more items of Substitute Portfolio Collateral for inclusion in the Trust Estate in an amount not to exceed the amount of such proceeds and specified in such Servicer Order; provided that the Trustee shall have received (i) a certificate of the Servicer dated as of the date of the purchase and the Grant of such Substitute Portfolio Collateral to the effect that such purchase is in compliance with the requirements of this Section 12.4 and Section 12.5(a) hereof and (ii) the certificate required pursuant to Section 12.2 hereof.

(b) In addition to the requirements set forth in 12.4(a), in connection with Substitute Portfolio Collateral purchased with Collateral Disposition Proceeds from the sale of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, each of the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test are satisfied, in each case both before and after giving effect to such purchase.

(c) In connection with a sale of an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral after the Revolving Period or the receipt of Collateral Principal Collections due to an unscheduled prepayment after the Revolving Period, the Servicer may enter into commitments to apply such Collateral Disposition Proceeds or such unscheduled prepayments (net of accrued interest and costs) to the purchase of Portfolio Loans as either Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Amount equal to or greater than the Principal Balance of the original item of Portfolio Collateral within 90 days of receipt of such proceeds, so long as the Servicer certifies as of the date of purchase that it reasonably believes at the time of such commitment that, after giving effect to such sale and subsequent purchase, (A) each of the Overcollateralization Tests and the collateral criteria described in Section 12.2 would be satisfied and the Interest Coverage Test was satisfied for the most recent Payment Date, (B) such Portfolio Loan to be purchased has a Moody's Rating equal to or higher than the Moody's Rating of the original item of Portfolio Collateral, (C) such Portfolio Loan to be purchased has an S&P Rating equal to or higher than the S&P Rating of the original item of Portfolio Collateral, (D) such Portfolio Loan to be purchased has a stated maturity on or prior to the final maturity of such original item of Portfolio Collateral and (E) neither Rating Agency has reduced or withdrawn (and not restored) the rating assigned by it on the Closing Date to any Class of Notes.

Section 12.5. Conditions Applicable to all Transactions Involving Purchases of Portfolio Collateral

(a) Any transaction effected under this Article or under Sections 3.4, 10.2, 10.3, 11.3 or 12.4 hereof involving the Servicer and one or more Affiliates of the Servicer shall be conducted on an arm's-length basis. Any such transaction effected with an Affiliate of the Servicer, the Issuer or the Trustee, shall be effected on terms as favorable to the Noteholders as would be the case if such Person were not so affiliated; provided that the Trustee shall have no responsibility to oversee compliance with this clause by the Issuer or Servicer.

(b) Upon any purchase or substitution pursuant to this Article or Sections 11.3, 12.3(b) or 12.4 hereof, each such Pledged Security shall be Delivered to the Trustee.

(c) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants and will certify to the Trustee in an Officer's Certificate as of the date of each purchase and Grant to the Trustee of each Portfolio Collateral pursuant to Section 11.3, Section 12.3(b) and Section 12.4 hereof:

(i) the Issuer is the owner of such item of Portfolio Collateral and the Deposit free and clear of any liens, claims (including any adverse claims) or encumbrances of any nature whatsoever, except for those granted or expressly permitted pursuant to this Indenture and due bills, if any, with respect to interest, or a portion thereof, accrued on such Portfolio Collateral prior to the first payment date and owed by the Issuer to the seller of such Portfolio Collateral;

(ii) the Issuer has acquired its ownership in such item of Portfolio Collateral and the Deposit in good faith without notice of any adverse claim, except as described in paragraph (i) above;

(iii) the Issuer has Delivered such item of Portfolio Collateral to the Trustee and has not assigned, pledged or otherwise encumbered any interest in such Portfolio Collateral or the Deposit other than interests granted or expressly permitted pursuant to this Indenture;

(iv) the Issuer has full right to Grant and does Grant pursuant to the Granting Clauses such item of Portfolio Collateral and the Deposit to the Trustee;

(v) the information set forth with respect to such item of Portfolio Collateral in Schedule A hereto is correct; and

(vi) such item of Portfolio Collateral satisfies the requirements of the definition of Portfolio Collateral.

Section 12.6. Sale of Warrants

The Servicer may direct the Trustee in writing to sell, and the Trustee shall release from the lien of this Indenture and sell in the manner directed by the Servicer, any warrant that is part of a Unit at any time after such warrant becomes separately tradable.

Section 12.7. Underlying Instruments

(a) With respect to each Portfolio Loan acquired by a Participation, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to hold at its office in the State of New York or the Commonwealth of Massachusetts an original executed Underlying Instrument entered into between the Issuer and the Selling Institution which, except in the case of a Portfolio Loan evidenced by an instrument (the original of which shall be delivered to the Trustee), may be a copy thereof, which may be sent by telecopier, certified by the Servicer or the Issuer as a true and accurate copy (which in the case of a Participation shall include the loan and security documentation with respect to the underlying loan) as provided to it by the Servicer, and, provided that the Trustee has sufficient advance notice of such transaction, the Trustee shall send a notice of the assignment of such Participation to the Selling Institution and the underlying obligor of such Portfolio Loan on or prior to the Business Day on which such Portfolio Loan is to be included in the Trust Estate.

(b) The Issuer (upon Servicer Order) may enter into any amendment of or supplement to any Underlying Instrument with respect to any item of Portfolio Collateral, without notice to or consent of any Noteholder, but with prior written notice to the Trustee, if the amendment or supplement is required (a) by the provisions of the Underlying Instrument or this Indenture, (b) to cure any ambiguity, inconsistency or formal defect or omission, (c) in connection with any authorized amendment of or supplement to this Indenture, or (d) to make any other change deemed necessary or beneficial by the Issuer (upon Servicer Order); provided that, unless such Portfolio Loan is in default, or default is reasonably foreseeable, after giving effect to such amendment or supplement, such item of Portfolio Collateral satisfies the definition of Portfolio Collateral hereunder. The Issuer shall be under no obligation to enter into any such amendment or supplement, and the Servicer and the Issuer shall be under no obligation to provide any Person with any information related thereto (other than to confirm to the Trustee compliance with this Section), to the extent that the Servicer or the Issuer, as the case may be, believes in good faith that any action so taken is necessary in order not to violate any law, regulation or contractual arrangement. The Servicer shall retain any appropriate records of such amendments.

(c) If an amendment of or supplement to any Underlying Instrument without any consent of Noteholders is not permitted by subsection (b), the Issuer may enter into, and the Trustee shall, as directed by the Issuer, accept, or if necessary consent to, such amendment or supplement, with at least 10 days' prior written notice to the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes, unless the Trustee and the Issuer have received notification by the more than 33-1/3% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes objecting to such amendment or supplement within 10 days of such notice.

(d) If the Servicer determines that any amendment to the Underlying Instrument of a DIP Loan materially affects the credit quality of such DIP Loan, the Servicer shall promptly notify the Rating Agencies of such amendment, prior to execution of such amendment.

Section 12.8. Synthetic Securities

For purposes of the eligibility criteria and related tests herein, a Synthetic Security will generally be included as an item of Portfolio Collateral having the maturity, interest rate and other payment characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the Reference Obligation (including characterization as either an item of Fixed Rate Portfolio Collateral or Floating Rate Portfolio Collateral) and, with respect to all other characteristics, will be included as an item of Portfolio Collateral having the relevant characteristics of the related Reference Obligation and not of the Synthetic Security. The Servicer will notify Moody's and Standard & Poor's in writing or electronically with respect to each purchase of a Synthetic Security not later than the trade date for such Synthetic Security; except that, if, at any time, the rating by Moody's on any Class of Notes then rated by Moody's has been downgraded at least one rating sub-category (and has not been restored) or is put on credit watch (with negative implications), no Synthetic Security will be purchased by the Issuer for inclusion in the Trust Estate unless Moody's has received notice of such purchase and any information necessary to evaluate such purchase, receipt of which shall be acknowledged by a Vice President or more senior member of Moody's CDO Group, in writing or electronically, and after such receipt is acknowledged, either Moody's shall inform the Servicer that such purchase will not cause Moody's to withdraw or further downgrade any of the then-current ratings assigned by Moody's to any of the Notes within 10 Business Days, or after 10 Business Days the Servicer may assume that such purchase will not cause Moody's to withdraw or further downgrade any of the then-current ratings assigned by Moody's to any of the Notes. If after the trade date for any Synthetic Security, there is any modification to the terms of such Synthetic Security, the Servicer will provide notice of such modification to Moody's and Standard & Poor's. Further, unless otherwise agreed by Moody's or as otherwise contemplated in the definition of Synthetic Security in Section 1.1 hereof, upon maturity, acceleration or early termination of a Synthetic Security or the related Reference Obligation, the Issuer will accept only the Reference Obligation or the par amount thereof unless the Reference Obligation would be characterized as Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, Defaulted Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, in which case the Issuer may accept the current fair market value thereof, except in the event of the exercise of any put or call provision of the Synthetic Security or Reference Obligation, in which case the Issuer shall only accept the Reference Obligation or an amount greater than or equal to the par amount thereof, and the Issuer will take all commercially reasonable actions under the Synthetic Security to accomplish the foregoing. Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, in connection with the acquisition of a Synthetic Security and in lieu of all or a portion of the purchase price for such Synthetic Security, the Issuer may grant the related Synthetic Security a first priority security interest in cash and Eligible Investments designated by the Issuer and the proceeds thereof, which may be released from the lien of the Indenture and deposited with such Synthetic Security Obligor (or an intermediary or agent therefor) and invested as provided by the terms of such Synthetic Security, and the proceeds of which may be applied to make periodic payments under such Synthetic Security. For purposes of this Indenture, the grant of such security interest shall be treated as the payment of a purchase price equal to the value of the cash and Eligible Investments granted, and the Issuer's obligation to make periodic payments under such Synthetic Security shall be disregarded.

Section 12.9. Delayed Drawdown Loans and Revolving Loans

A Delayed Drawdown Loan will not be eligible for purchase by the Issuer for inclusion in the Trust Estate unless the related Underlying Instrument provides (i) that advances may be made for a period not to exceed one (1) year from the date of origination of the Delayed Drawdown Loan and in any event before the end of the Revolving Period; (ii) for a maximum amount that can be borrowed from the Issuer on one or more specified borrowing dates; (iii) that funds borrowed from the Issuer and subsequently repaid may not be reborrowed; and (iv) that the borrower is entitled to such additional advances only upon the achievement of financial performance or other objective criteria established at origination and set forth in such credit agreement.

(2) Prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default the Issuer will deliver to the Trustee copies of all notices and communications delivered or required to be delivered to the Issuer pursuant to the related Hedge Agreement, but only if such notice or communication relates to any (i) default under, (ii) early termination of or (iii) amendment of, such Hedge Agreement.

(3) Subject to Section 2.14(d), the Issuer will not enter into any agreement amending, modifying or terminating a Hedge Agreement, without prior written consent of the Requisite Noteholders and written confirmation by the Rating Agencies that such amendment, modification or termination would not cause the ratings of any Class of Notes to be reduced or withdrawn; provided (A) that the consent of Requisite Noteholders and confirmation by the Rating Agencies shall not be required for an amendment or modification to cure any ambiguity or to correct or supplement any provision with respect to matters or questions arising under such Hedge Agreement which shall not be inconsistent with the provisions thereof or of this Indenture, in each case so long as such amendment or modification does not adversely affect in any material respects the interests of any Noteholder (as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel acceptable to the Trustee) and (B) neither the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, confirmation by the Rating Agencies nor an Opinion of Counsel shall be required with respect to any amendment or modification that either only corrects a manifest error or is principally and manifestly for the benefit of the Noteholders.

ARTICLE XVI

COMBINATION NOTES

Section 16.1. Payments on Combination Notes.

Upon receipt by (i) the Trustee of any payment in respect of the Note Component, or by (ii) the Paying and Transfer Agent of any payment in respect of the Preferred Share Component, the Trustee or the Paying and Transfer Agent, as applicable, shall distribute such payment to the Holders of the Combination Notes by wire transfer to such accounts as the Holders may specify (in writing) to the Trustee and the Paying and Transfer Agent prior to the related Record Date. Payments on the Preferred Share Component of the Combination Notes shall be deposited in the Preferred Shares Collection Account and distributed by the Paying and Transfer Agent to the Holders of the Combination Notes on each Payment Date subject to the provisions of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

Section 16.2. Rights of Holders of the Combination Notes.

(a) All rights ordinarily allocable to a Holder of a Component Security shall be exercised by the Holder of the Combination Notes, all payments to be made hereunder to a Holder of a Component Security shall be made by the Trustee or the Paying and Transfer Agent, as applicable, directly to such Holder of the Combination Notes, and the Holder of the Combination Notes shall have all the rights, as the Holder of the Component Securities, for all purposes hereunder. All distributions to the Holder of the Combination Notes in respect of the Preferred Share Component shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

(b) Except as expressly provided herein, the Holders of the Combination Notes shall not be entitled to vote with respect to matters arising under this Indenture, the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement or the Servicing Agreement except as Holders of the Component Securities.

(c) All of the obligations of the Issuer under the Combination Notes (to the extent of the Note Component) are limited recourse obligations of the Issuer, payable solely from amounts paid in respect of the related Component Securities. No Holder of a Combination Note shall have any claim against the Co-Issuers or the Trustee for any amounts payable but not actually received by the Trustee in respect of any Component Security that is not a Note, and the claims and rights of a Holder of a Combination Note in respect of any amounts payable in respect of any Component Security that is a Note shall be identical to the claims and rights of a Holder of the same amount of such Component Security.

(d) The Combination Notes represent interests in the related Component Securities. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Combination Notes do not represent an obligation of the Issuer separate from or in addition to the obligation of the Issuer with respect to the related Component Securities.

Section 16.3. Application of Payments on the Combination Notes.

(a) The Aggregate Principal Amount of the Combination Notes shall at all times equal the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Note Component plus the Notional Amount of the Preferred Share Component. After issuance, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Combination Note shall be reduced by the amount and to the extent the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Note Component or the Notional Amount of the Preferred Share Component is reduced. When a payment causing the reduction of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes is made, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Note Component shall be reduced based on the proportion that the Note Component bears to the Class B-1L Notes. When a payment causing the reduction of the Notional Amount of the Class I Preferred Shares is made, the Notional Amount of the Preferred Share Component shall be reduced based on the proportion that the Preferred Share Component bears to the Class I Preferred Shares.

(b) Solely for purposes of determining the Rated Balance and the Rated Coupon of the Combination Notes (as applicable), all monies distributed to the Component Securities will be applied, first to interest accrued at the Rated Coupon (with interest thereon) for the related Periodic Interest Accrual Period (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year and the actual number of days elapsed during each Periodic Interest Accrual Period) and then to the Rated Balance, until the Rated Balance has been paid in full and thereafter any payment received will be deemed additional interest on the Combination Notes. The Rated Coupon will accrue on the Rated Balance of the Combination Notes.

Section 16.4. Mandatory Exchange of the Combination Notes

On any date the Issuer elects or the Trustee is instructed by the Issuer or Noteholders or the Holders of the Preferred Shares, as applicable, either to liquidate the Trust Estate, to redeem the Notes in whole pursuant to Article IX or to redeem the Class B-1L Notes pursuant to an Optional Redemption by Refinancing pursuant to Section 9.1(b), each Holder of a Combination Note shall surrender such Combination Note to the Trustee for exchange of such Combination Note for the corresponding Component Securities as provided in Section 2.5(b)(viii) hereof. In connection with such exchange, the respective obligations and responsibilities of the Issuer and the Trustee created hereby with respect to the Combination Notes shall terminate and this Indenture shall cease to be of further effect with respect to the Combination Notes as provided in Section 4.1 hereof.

The Issuer shall appoint an off-shore paying agent (in addition to and not in lieu of Investors Bank & Trust Company as Paying Agent) if requested by at least 33-2/3% of the Holders of the Preferred Shares, the cost of such agent to be borne by the Issuer. The Issuer may at any time and from time to time vary or terminate the appointment of the Paying Agent or appoint one or more additional Paying Agents. The Issuer will give prompt written notice to the Trustee of the appointment or termination of the Paying Agent and of the location and any change in the location of the Paying Agent’s office or agency. The Paying Agent shall provide notice to the Holders of any such change or variation of which it receives notice.

(b) The Issuer hereby further appoints the Paying Agent to act as the Transfer Agent for the Preferred Shares upon the terms, and subject to the conditions, set forth herein. The Issuer shall appoint an off-shore transfer agent (in addition to and not in lieu of Investors Bank & Trust Company as Transfer Agent) if requested by at least 33-2/3% of the Holders of the Preferred Shares, the cost of such agent to be borne by the Issuer. The Issuer may at any time and from time to time vary or terminate the appointment of the Transfer Agent or appoint one or more additional Transfer Agents. The Issuer will give prompt written notice to the Trustee of the appointment or termination of the Transfer Agent and of the location and any change in the location of the Transfer Agent’s office or agency. The Transfer Agent shall provide notice to the Holders of any such change or variation of which it receives notice.

(c) On or prior to the Closing Date, the Paying Agent shall establish a segregated non-interest bearing account designated as the “Preferred Shares Collection Account,” the deposits into which shall be held for the exclusive benefit of the Holders of the Preferred Shares. Any amounts deposited to the Preferred Shares Collection Account that constitute Class II Preferred Share Dividends shall for the benefit of and distributable only to the Holders of the Class II Preferred Shares.

(d) The Paying Agent shall deposit any funds received from the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture representing payments on the Preferred Shares (including, without limitation, all distributions made to the Paying Agent by the Trustee pursuant to Article XI of the Indenture) into the Preferred Shares Collection Account, all of which shall be distributed to the Preferred Shareholders in accordance with Sections 4, 5, 6 and 25 of this Agreement.

Section 3. Authorized Representatives.

From time to time the Issuer will furnish the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent (with a copy to the Trustee) with a signature list certifying the incumbency and specimen signatures of the Authorized Representatives. Each of the Paying Agent, the Transfer Agent and the Trustee shall be entitled to rely on the last such certificate delivered to it for the purposes of determining the identity of Authorized Representatives.

Section 4. Payment of Dividends.

(a) Subject to clause (c) below, on each Payment Date and the Redemption Date, the Holders of each Class of the Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive dividends on each respective Class of the Preferred Shares in an amount equal to the amount of Excess Cash Flow allocable to such Class for such Payment Date less, with respect to the Redemption Date, such part of the Excess Cash Flow paid to redeem each respective Class of the Preferred Shares pursuant to Section 6 (in each case, subject to the Issuer having sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium of the Preferred Shares out of which to pay such amounts and, in the case of a payment from share premium, the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of its business following such payment, in each case as determined by the Issuer).

Any Excess Cash Flow that constitutes part of the Class II Preferred Share Dividend will not be allocable to the Class I Preferred Shares, rather, such amounts will only be available for distributions on the Class II Preferred Shares.

The Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, shall promptly give notice of the amount of all Excess Cash Flow distributed hereunder (specifically identifying any Class II Preferred Shares Dividend Amount) for the relevant Payment Date to the Holders of the each Class of Preferred Shares in accordance with Section 12 hereof and to the Issuer, the Servicer and to Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. The Paying Agent shall also make such information available to each Class of Preferred Shareholders at the offices of the Paying Agent.

(b) Dividends, if any, will be paid on each Payment Date to the Holders of the Preferred Shares who are registered at the close of business on the Record Date for such Payment Date. Dividends payable to the Preferred Shares from Excess Cash Flow (other than those amounts constituting the Class II Preferred Share Dividend) shall be paid by the Paying Agent pro rata in the proportion that the number of Preferred Shares held by a Holder bears to the total number of Preferred Shares outstanding. Excess Cash Flow constituting Class II Preferred Share Dividends shall be paid by the Paying Agent pro rata in the proportion that the number of Class II Preferred Shares held by the related Holder bears to the total number of Class II Preferred Shares outstanding.

(c) On each Payment Date, Excess Cash Flow shall be paid to the Issuer, free and clear of the lien of the Indenture, to be applied to fund distributions to the holders of each respective Class of the Preferred Shares.

(d) To the extent the requirements under Cayman Islands law described in this Section 4 are not met, the Issuer shall notify the Paying Agent in writing, and upon receipt of such notice all amounts otherwise payable to the Holders of the Preferred Shares will be retained in the Preferred Shares Collection Account until, in the case of any payment by way of dividend, the next succeeding Payment Date on which the Issuer notifies the Paying Agent in writing that such requirements are met. Amounts on deposit in the Preferred Shares Collection Account will not be available to pay amounts due to the Holders of the Notes, the Trustee or any other creditor of the Issuer whose claim is limited in recourse to the Portfolio Collateral. However, amounts on deposit in the Preferred Shares Collection Account may be subject to the claims of creditors of the Issuer that have not contractually limited their recourse to the Portfolio Collateral.

Section 5. Procedures for Payment of Dividends and Redemption Price; Persons Deemed Owners; Withholding.

(a) All payments of dividends on the Preferred Shares and the payment of the Redemption Price for the Preferred Shares will be made in U.S. dollars and/or Payment Date Equity Securities. All of such payments in U.S. dollars shall be made by wire transfer from an account maintained by the Paying Agent (subject to usual and necessary banking procedures regarding U.S. Dollar denominated accounts), and payments of dividends shall be subject in all cases to any tax, fiscal or other laws or regulations applicable in the place of payment. Holders shall deliver a request to the Paying Agent setting forth the numbers of the Preferred Shares held by it and the Class designation of such Preferred Shares for which it shall receive payment by wire transfer and specifying the banking institution and account number (with any other appropriate information necessary to enable the Paying Agent to transmit such payment and to assure proper credit to such Holder's account) to which such payments are to be transferred. A record of each payment made will be maintained by or on behalf of the Paying Agent in accordance with its customary procedures, and such record shall be prima facie evidence that the payment in question has been made. The Issuer and the Paying Agent shall be fully protected in relying upon any such request in making payments on the Preferred Shares, and any payment transmitted in accordance with such request shall be deemed to have been made upon transmission thereof to the banking institution identified in such request.

(b) Unless the Holders request an off-shore Paying Agent pursuant to Section 2(a), all payments with respect to the Preferred Shares shall be made by the Paying Agent located in the United States of America.

(c) In the case where the Trust Termination Date or Redemption Date shall not be a Business Day, then payment need not be made on such date, but may be made on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if made on the nominal date of any such Trust Termination Date or Redemption Date, as the case may be.

The Issuer shall not be obligated to pay any additional amounts to the Holders of the Preferred Shares in the event that amounts are withheld from (i) payments to the Issuer on any of the Portfolio Collateral included in the Trust Estate or (ii) payments on the Notes or the Preferred Shares. As a condition to the payment of capital and dividends on any Preferred Share, the Issuer may require that certification acceptable to it be furnished to the Issuer and the Paying Agent in order to enable the Issuer and the Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments in respect of such Preferred Share under any present or future law or regulation of the United States or any present or future law or regulation of any political subdivision thereof or taxing authority therein or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under any such law or regulation.

(d) The Issuer, the Paying Agent, the Transfer Agent and the Share Registrar shall deem and treat the registered Holder of any Preferred Share as the absolute owner of such Preferred Share, notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing on any certificate representing such Preferred Share, for the purpose of receiving dividends and the Redemption Price thereof and for all other purposes, and none of the Issuer, the Paying Agent, the Transfer Agent nor the Share Registrar shall be affected by any notice to the contrary. All such payments so made to such Holder or upon such Holder's order shall be valid and, to the extent of the sum or sums so paid, effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability for the monies payable upon any such Preferred Share.

Section 6. Redemption.

(a) On the Redemption Date, subject to the Issuer having sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium of the Preferred Shares out of which to pay such amounts and, in the case of a payment from share premium, the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business following such payment, in each case as determined by the Issuer, the Preferred Shares shall be redeemed in whole at the Redemption Price.

(b) All redemption payments (other than those amounts constituting the Class II Preferred Share Dividend) to a Holder shall be made pro rata in the proportion that the number of Preferred Shares held by such Holder bears to the total number of Preferred Shares. Any redemption payments constituting Class II Preferred Share Dividends paid to a Holder of a Class II Preferred Share shall be made pro rata in the proportion that the number of Class II Preferred Shares held by such Holder bears to the total number of Class II Preferred Shares.

(c) To the extent the requirements under Cayman Islands law described in this Section 6 are not met, the Issuer shall notify the Paying Agent in writing, and upon receipt of such notice, amounts otherwise payable to the Holders of the Preferred Shares will be retained in the Preferred Shares Collection Account until, in the case of any payment which would otherwise be payable on a redemption date of the Preferred Shares, the next succeeding Business Day on which the Issuer notifies the Paying Agent that such requirements are met. Amounts on deposit in the Preferred Shares Collection Account will not be available to pay amounts due to the Holders of the Notes, the Trustee or any other creditor of the Issuer whose claim is limited in recourse to the Portfolio Collateral. However, amounts on deposit in the Preferred Shares Collection Account may be subject to the claims of creditors of the Issuer that have not contractually limited their recourse to the Portfolio Collateral.

Section 7. Accountings; Reports by Paying Agent; Information to Holders.

(a) With respect to each Calculation Date, the Paying Agent shall render an accounting, determined as of such Calculation Date, and delivered to the Holders, the Issuer, the Servicer and the Initial Purchaser not later than the Business Day prior to the Payment Date related to such Calculation Date. The Paying Agent shall render such accounting by reference to the accounting delivered by the Issuer pursuant to Section 10.5(b) of the Indenture. Such accounting shall contain the following information (stated in aggregate):

(i) the amount of Excess Cash Flow to be received by the Paying Agent from the Trustee on the related Payment Date;

(ii) the amounts payable as dividends on each Class of Preferred Shares on such Payment Date, specifically identifying any Class II Preferred Share Dividend payments; and

(iii) if such accounting relates to the Redemption Date, the Redemption Price payable with respect to the Preferred Shares on such Redemption Date and the amount, if any, payable as a dividend on such Redemption Date specifically identifying any Class II Preferred Share Dividend payments.

(b) On or prior to each Payment Date, the Paying Agent shall provide the Holders of each Class of Preferred Shares with a copy of the Note Valuation Report and Noteholder Report prepared for delivery pursuant to Section 10.5 of the Indenture (including the most recent Monthly Report delivered therewith), with the report prepared by the Paying Agent pursuant to Section 7(a) hereof.

(c) The Paying Agent shall provide the Holders of each Class of Preferred Shares with all notices received (and any ballots required in connection therewith) by the Paying Agent pursuant to the terms of the Indenture and the Servicing Agreement.

Section 8. Share Register; Registration, Transfer, Exchange; Persons Deemed Owners.

(a) The Issuer shall cause to be kept a register (the “Share Register”) in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe and to the Companies Law (2004 Revision) of the Cayman Islands (as amended from time to time), the Issuer shall provide for the registration of the Preferred Shares (and any other share capital of the Issuer) and the registration of transfers of the Preferred Shares (and any other share capital of the Issuer). The Administrator is hereby irrevocably appointed by the Issuer to act as the “Share Registrar” for the purpose of registering the Preferred Shares (and any other share capital of the Issuer) and all transfers of the Preferred Shares (and any other share capital of the Issuer) as herein provided (it being hereby acknowledged that nothing contained herein shall limit, bar or restrict the ability or the right of the Transfer Agent to appoint agents or to delegate duties from time to time); provided, however, that a duplicate Share Register shall be maintained at the offices of the Transfer Agent, who shall promptly provide a copy to the Administrator and the Trustee following the Closing Date and thereafter promptly upon any transfer or exchange information the Transfer Agent receives and shall notify the Administrator and the Trustee of any transfer or exchange of a Preferred Share. The Administrator will maintain the original Share Register. The Share Registrar and the Issuer may rely conclusively on any information or documentation provided by the Transfer Agent without any liability on their part, and the Transfer Agent may rely conclusively on any information or documentation provided by the Share Registrar or the Issuer with respect to the Share Registrar on the Preferred Shares without liability on its part. For purposes of distributions, notices or otherwise, the Paying Agent, the Transfer Agent and the Trustee may conclusively rely on the duplicate copy of the Share Register maintained by the Transfer Agent.

Preferred Shares sold outside the United States to non-U.S. Persons in reliance on Regulation S shall be represented by one or more permanent physical share certificates, in fully registered definitive form and substantially in the form of Exhibit A-2 attached hereto (the “Regulation S Global Preferred Shares” and, each, a “Regulation S Global Preferred Share”), which will be deposited with the Common Depositary on behalf of Euroclear Bank S.A./N.V., as operator of Euroclear and/or Clearstream. Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as applicable, will credit the Regulation S Global Preferred Shares to the respective accounts designated by the subscribers of such Preferred Shares at Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable. The registered owner of the relevant Regulation S Global Preferred Share (as indicated in the Share Register) shall be the only person entitled to receive payments in respect of the Preferred Shares represented by a Regulation S Global Preferred Share, and the Issuer will be discharged by payment to, or to the order of, the registered owner of such Regulation S Global Preferred Share in respect of each amount so paid. No person other than the registered owner of the relevant Regulation S Global Preferred Share shall have any claim against the Issuer in respect of any payment due on that Regulation S Global Preferred Share.

Preferred Shares sold in the United States to “qualified institutional buyers” within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act (“Qualified Institutional Buyers” and, each, a “Qualified Institutional Buyer”) who are U.S. Persons will be represented, on issue, by share certificates in definitive, fully registered form and substantially in the form of Exhibit A-3 attached hereto (“Definitive Preferred Shares” and, each, a “Definitive Preferred Share”).

Every certificate representing a Preferred Share presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Issuer or the Transfer Agent) be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Transfer Agent duly executed by the Holder thereof or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized in writing.

No service charge shall be made to a Holder for any registration of transfer or exchange of Preferred Shares, but the Issuer and/or the Transfer Agent may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of Preferred Shares.

During the period of 15 days preceding any Payment Date, the Issuer shall not register the transfer of or to exchange any Preferred Shares.

Subject to the receipt by the Transfer Agent of a written certification substantially in the form of Exhibit D attached hereto (a “Regulation S Transferor Certificate”), a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Preferred Share may be exchanged at any time for a Definitive Preferred Share if such beneficial interest will be transferred to a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is a U.S. Person. Such Definitive Preferred Share will be registered in the name of the transferee.

Definitive Preferred Shares will be issued and exchanged for each Regulation S Global Preferred Share within thirty days of the occurrence of any of the following: (i) either Euroclear or Clearstream is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holiday, statutory or otherwise) or announces an intention permanently to cease business and no alternative clearance system satisfactory to the Paying Agent is available, (ii) as a result of any amendment to, or change in, the laws or regulations of Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which becomes effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or the Paying Agent are or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Preferred Shares which would not be required were the Preferred Shares held as Definitive Preferred Shares, or (iii) the Issuer so elects by notice to the Holders of the Preferred Shares in accordance with this Agreement and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as applicable, does not object. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Preferred Share may be exchanged for a Definitive Preferred Share only upon the receipt by the Transfer Agent from the owner of such beneficial interest of a Regulation S Transferor Certificate.

(b) No Preferred Shares may be sold or transferred (including, without limitation by pledge or hypothecation) unless such sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and is exempt from registration under applicable state securities laws. No purported transfer of any interest in any Preferred Share or any portion thereof that is not made in accordance with this Section 8 shall be given effect by or be binding upon the Transfer Agent or the Issuer, and any such purported transfer shall be null and void ab initio and vest in the transferee no rights against the Paying Agent, the Transfer Agent or the Issuer.

A Holder of a Preferred Share may transfer a Preferred Share or its beneficial interest in a Preferred Share only in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) The Holder of a Preferred Share who is a Non-U.S. Person pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act may transfer such Preferred Share prior to the expiration of a one-year period beginning on the later of the Closing Date or on the day on which the offer of the Preferred Shares is completed (as notified in writing to the Paying Agent) (the “Distribution Compliance Period”), only (1) to a Non-U.S. Person who certifies that it is not a U.S. Person and is not acquiring the Preferred Share for the account or benefit of any U.S. Person and is a “qualified institutional buyer” within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act or (2) to a U.S. Person who agrees to receive a Restricted Preferred Share (as such term is defined in paragraph (ii) below) and who certifies that it is a "qualified institutional buyer" within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act, and, in each case, agrees to resell such Preferred Share only in accordance with the provisions of Regulation S and Rule 144A, pursuant to registration under the Securities Act, or pursuant to an available exemption from registration under the Securities Act and agrees not to engage in hedging transactions with regard to such securities unless in compliance with the Securities Act. Each Holder of a Preferred Share (other than Non-U.S. Persons purchasing Preferred Shares in reliance on Regulation S and Rule 144A) is required to be a "qualified purchaser" within the meaning of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act or a "knowledgeable employee" within the meaning of Rule 3c-5 of the Investment Company Act and may only transfer such Preferred Share to a U.S. Person if that U.S. Person is also a "qualified purchaser" within the meaning of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act or a "knowledgeable employee" within the meaning of Rule 3c-5 of the Investment Company Act.

(ii) A Holder of a Preferred Share (a "Restricted Preferred Share") who is a U.S. Person may at any time transfer its interest in such Preferred Share only (a) to a Non-U.S. Person pursuant to Regulation S who is a "qualified institutional buyer" within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act, in each case, in transactions and (b) to a "qualified institutional buyer" within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act not requiring registration under the Securities Act, and, in each case (b), only to a transferee who is also a "qualified purchaser" within the meaning of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act or a "knowledgeable employee" within the meaning of Rule 3c-5 of the Investment Company Act.

(iii) The Transfer Agent shall require, prior to any such transfer of a Preferred Share, receipt by the Transfer Agent and the Issuer of (A) an Investor Certificate from such Preferred Shareholder's transferee and (B) as applicable, a Regulation S Transferor Certificate or a Rule 144A/Regulation D Transferor Certificate from such Holder, in each case certifying to the foregoing and the other matters covered by the forms of such certificates prescribed by this Agreement. Upon receipt of the Investor Certificate and the relevant Transferor Certificate, and the surrender to the Transfer Agent of the Preferred Share Certificate representing the Preferred Shares to be so transferred, the Transfer Agent shall cancel such Preferred Share Certificate, and the Issuer shall execute and provide to the Transfer Agent, and the Transfer Agent shall deliver, a Preferred Share Certificate representing the Preferred Shares intended to be transferred to such transferee (and, in the event of a partial transfer, the Issuer shall execute and provide to the Transfer Agent, and the Transfer Agent shall deliver, a Preferred Share Certificate representing the remaining balance of Preferred Shares to the transferring Holder). The Issuer shall cause the Share Register to be updated accordingly.

(iv) Transfers of beneficial interests in the Regulation S Global Preferred Shares may only be made by book-entry transfer of beneficial interests in the Regulation S Global Shares within Euroclear and/or Clearstream (and subject to the Common Depositary's applicable procedures) to non-U.S. Persons in accordance with Regulation S who are also "qualified institutional buyers" within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act. Each subsequent transferee shall be deemed to have made the applicable representation set forth in this Section 8(b)

(v) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event any Holder of Class II Preferred Shares wishes to transfer all or a portion of its Class II Preferred Shares (the "Class II Seller") to any qualified third party purchaser (the "Class II Buyer"), the Issuer shall redeem such Class II Preferred Shares and shall issue corresponding new Class I Preferred Shares. At least 10 days prior to any transfer by a Class II Seller to a Class II Buyer, such Class II Seller and Class II Buyer shall jointly notify the Issuer, the Transfer Agent and the Servicer of their intention to effect such transfer of Class II Preferred Shares, in the form of Exhibit F (attached hereto) indicating the number of Class II Preferred Shares to be sold and the corresponding number of Class I Preferred Shares to be issued and acquired by the Class II Buyer, the price for such purchase and sale and the date on which such purchase and sale is expected to occur (such notice, the "Sale Notice"). The Issuer shall, on the date indicated in the Sale Notice subject to such redemption being approved in writing by the Board of Directors of the Issuer and subject to such redemption being in respect of 200,000 Class II Preferred Shares or more, redeem the indicated number of Class II Preferred Shares to be sold by the Class II Seller and issue an equal number of Class I Preferred Shares registered in the name of the Class II Buyer. The Class II Buyer shall pay the subscription price to the Issuer for the newly issued Class I Preferred Shares, and the Issuer shall immediately apply such amount to pay the redemption price to the Class II Seller for the redemption of such Class II Seller's Class II Preferred Shares.

(vi) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event the Holder of any Class II Preferred Shares (the "Class I Buyer") wishes to acquire any Class I Preferred Shares from any holder of Class I Preferred Shares (the "Class I Seller"), the Issuer shall redeem such Class I Preferred Shares and shall issue corresponding new Class II Preferred Shares. At least 10 days prior to any transfer by a Class I Seller to a Class I Buyer, such Class I Seller and Class I Buyer shall jointly notify the Issuer, the Transfer Agent and the Servicer of their intention to effect such acquisition of Class I Preferred Shares, indicating the number of Class I Preferred Shares to be sold by the Class I Seller, the corresponding number of Class II Preferred Shares to be issued and acquired by the Class I Buyer, respectively, the price for such purchase and sale and the date on which such purchase and sale is expected to occur (such notice, the "Acquisition Notice"). The Issuer shall, on the date indicated in the Sale Notice subject to such redemption being approved in writing by the Board of Directors of the Issuer and subject to such redemption being in respect of 200,000 Class I Preferred Shares or more, redeem the indicated number of Class I Preferred Shares to be sold by the Class I Seller and issue an equal number of Class II Preferred Shares registered in the name of the Class I Buyer. The Class I Buyer shall pay the subscription price to the Issuer for the newly issued Class II Preferred Shares, and the Issuer shall immediately apply such amount to pay the redemption price to the Class I Seller for the redemption of such Class I Seller's Class I Preferred Shares.

The Investor Certificate and any Rule 144A/Regulation D Transferor Certificate or Regulation S Transferor Certificate furnished pursuant to this Section 8(b) may be relied on conclusively by the Transfer Agent in determining whether the provisions of this Section 8(b) have been complied with. None of the Issuer, the Transfer Agent, or any other Person shall be required to register the Preferred Shares under the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

No delivery of an Investor Certificate, a 144A/Transferor Certificate or a Regulation S Transferor Certificate (as applicable) shall be required so long as each purchaser of Notes executes and delivers a transferee certificate acceptable to Bear Stearns (which certificate shall contain a representation that the transferee is a "qualified institutional buyer" within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act and shall, in the case of any transfer pursuant to Section 8(b)(iii), identify each transferee of a beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Preferred Share, including name, address, payment instructions and such other information as the Transfer Agent or Common Depositary reasonably may require), which transferee certificate shall be delivered to the Transfer Agent.

(c) The applicable procedures utilized or imposed from time to time by any Clearance System (collectively, "Applicable Procedures") shall be applicable to the Regulation S Global Preferred Shares insofar as and to the extent beneficial interests in such Regulation S Global Preferred Shares are held by the agent members of or participants in Euroclear or Clearstream. Account holders or agent members of or participants in Euroclear or Clearstream shall have no rights under this Agreement with respect to such Regulation S Global Preferred Shares, and the Common Depositary as registered Holder of the Regulation S Global Preferred Shares may be treated by the Issuer and the Paying Agent as the owner of such Regulation S Global Preferred Shares for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Issuer or the Paying Agent from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by any Clearance System or impair, as between the Clearance System and its agent members or participants, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a Holder of any Regulation S Global Preferred Shares. Requests or directions from, or votes of the Common Depositary or any Clearance System with respect to any matter shall not be deemed inconsistent if made with respect to (or in separate proportions corresponding to) different beneficial owners. The Paying Agent shall have no duty to monitor, maintain records concerning (or determine compliance with any of the restrictions on transfer set forth herein with respect to) owners of beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Preferred Shares. The Paying Agent shall have no liability for the accuracy of the records of the Common Depositary or any Clearance System, or any actions or omissions of the Common Depositary or any Clearance System (or of the agent members of or participants in any Clearance System).

(d) Except with respect to Preferred Shares sold to the Initial Purchaser, the minimum number of Preferred Shares (including the Preferred Share Components of the Combination Notes) that may be sold by the Issuer on the Closing Date or transferred by any Holder of Preferred Shares shall be 200,000 and integral multiples of $1 share in excess thereof.

(e) Regulation S Global Preferred Shares will trade notionally in an amount equal to U.S.$1 for each Preferred Share.

(f) The Preferred Shares may not be acquired or held by any employee benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) subject to Title I of ERISA ("ERISA Plan" and, together with individual retirement accounts and Keogh plans subject to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, "Plans") or Plan or other "benefit plan investor" (as defined in Section 3(42) of ERISA) ("Benefit Plan Investor"), including a life insurance company general account. However, Preferred Shares may be acquired and held by or on behalf of, or with "plan assets" of, a Plan or other Benefit Plan Investor if (a)(1)(A) the investor is purchasing the Preferred Shares with assets of an "insurance company general account" (within the meaning of PTCE 95-60) (a "General Account"); (B) the investor's purchase and holding of the Preferred Shares are eligible for the exemptive relief available under Section I of PTCE 95-60; (C) less than 25% of the assets of such General Account constitute "plan assets" of Benefit Plan Investors; and (D) if, after the initial acquisition of the Preferred Shares, during any calendar quarter, 25% or more of the assets of such General Account (as determined by such insurance company) constitute "plan assets" of any Plan or other Benefit Plan Investor and full exemptive relief from the prohibited transaction prohibitions of Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code is not available under Section 401(c) of ERISA and the regulations thereunder then such investor will dispose of all of the Preferred Shares then held in such General Account by the end of the next following calendar quarter; (2) the investor's purchase and holding of the Preferred Shares are eligible for the exemptive relief available under any of Sections 408(b)(17) of ERISA or PTCE 96-23, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14; and (b) after giving effect to such purchase and all other purchases occurring simultaneously therewith, less than 25% of each Class of the Preferred Shares (excluding the Preferred Shares held by the Servicer and its affiliates or clients) will constitute "plan assets" of Benefit Plan Investors.

By its purchase of the Preferred Shares, each purchaser and transferee will be required to represent, warrant and agree in writing that (i) its purchase and holding of such Preferred Shares will satisfy the ERISA requirements described in the preceding paragraph and (ii) it will not assign or transfer such Preferred Shares unless (1) the proposed assignee or transferee delivers a letter to the Issuer evidencing its agreement to the foregoing ERISA representations and covenants with respect to its purchase, holding and transfer of such Preferred Shares; and (2) if the investor (x) is not (and is not acting on behalf of) a Benefit Plan Investor, the assignee or transferee will also not be a Benefit Plan Investor; or (y) is (or is acting on behalf of) a General Account, the assignee or transferee will be accurately identified in such letter as either another General Account or a person who is not (and is not acting on behalf of) a Benefit Plan Investor; or (z) is (or is acting on behalf of or with “plan assets” of) a Benefit Plan Investor (other than a General Account), the assignee or transferee will be accurately identified in such letter as either a General Account, another Benefit Plan Investor or a person who is not (and is not acting on behalf of) any Benefit Plan Investor; provided that for purposes of clauses (x), (y) and (z), a transfer by a Holder (the “Transferring Holder”) to Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. in a secondary market transaction and subsequent transfers by Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. to a Holder (the “Transferee Holder”), shall be deemed to be a transfer by the Transferring Holder to the Transferee Holder and Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. may therefore transfer such Preferred Shares to any potential Holder to whom the Transferring Holder would be permitted to transfer.

(g) No Preferred Share shall be sold or transferred (including, without limitation, by pledge or hypothecation) to a U.S. Person unless such purchaser or transferee is a “qualified purchaser” within the meaning of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act or a “knowledgeable employee” within the meaning of Rule 3c-5 of the Investment Company Act. The Transfer Agent may conclusively rely on the statement in any Investor Certificate, and shall be entitled to rely conclusively on the continuing accuracy thereof from time to time (unless and until a Responsible Officer is otherwise notified in writing by the signatory thereto or by the Issuer) in determining whether the provisions of this Section 8(f) have been complied with. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no transfer of a Preferred Share may be made if such transfer would require registration of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Investment Company Act (subject, with respect to the Transfer Agent’s duties, to Section 8(g) below).

(h) At any time when the Issuer is not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, upon the request of any Preferred Shareholder, the Issuer shall promptly furnish to such Preferred Shareholder or to a prospective purchaser of any Preferred Share designated by such Preferred Shareholder, as the case may be, the information which the Issuer determines to be required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act (“Rule 144A Information”) in order to permit compliance by such Preferred Shareholder with Rule 144A in connection with the resale of such Preferred Share by such Preferred Shareholder; provided that the Issuer shall not be required to provide audited financial statements more than once a year or to furnish Rule 144A Information in connection with any request made on or after the date that is three years from the later of (i) the date such Preferred Share (or any predecessor Preferred Share) was acquired from the Issuer or (ii) the date such Preferred Share (or any predecessor Preferred Share) was last acquired from an “affiliate” of the Issuer within the meaning of Rule 144A, in each case as determined by the Issuer. Upon request by the Issuer, the Transfer Agent shall cooperate with the Issuer in mailing or otherwise distributing (at the Issuer’s expense) to such Preferred Shareholders or prospective purchasers, at and pursuant to the Issuer’s written direction, the foregoing materials prepared and provided by the Issuer, provided that the Transfer Agent shall be entitled to affix thereto or enclose therewith such disclaimers as the Transfer Agent shall deem reasonably appropriate, at its discretion (such as, for example, a disclaimer that such Rule 144A Information was assembled by the Issuer, and not by the Transfer Agent, that the Transfer Agent has not reviewed or verified the accuracy thereof, and that it makes no representation as to the sufficiency of such information under Rule 144A or for any other purpose).

(i) Neither the Transfer Agent nor the Paying Agent shall be responsible for ascertaining whether any transfer of the Preferred Shares complies with, or otherwise for monitoring or determining compliance with, the requirements or terms of the Securities Act, applicable state securities laws, ERISA, the Code or the Investment Company Act; except that if a certificate is specifically required by the terms of this Section 8 to be provided to the Transfer Agent or the Paying Agent by a transferee of the Preferred Shares, a transferor of the Preferred Shares, or the Issuer, the Transfer Agent or the Paying Agent, as applicable, shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether it conforms substantially on its face to the applicable requirements of this Section 8.

(j) If a Responsible Officer of the Transfer Agent becomes aware that (i) a transfer or attempted or purported transfer of any of the Preferred Shares or any interest therein was consummated in compliance with the provisions of this Section 8 on the basis of a materially incorrect certification from the transferor or purported transferee, (ii) a transferee failed to deliver to the Transfer Agent any certificate required to be delivered hereunder, or (iii) the Holder of any Preferred Share or interest therein is in material breach of any representation or agreement set forth in any certificate or any deemed representation or agreement of such Holder, then the Transfer Agent will not register such attempted or purported transfer, and, if a transfer has been registered, such transfer shall be absolutely null and void ab initio and shall vest no rights in the purported transferee (such purported transferee, a “Disqualified Transferee”), and the last preceding Holder of such Preferred Share that was not a Disqualified Transferee shall be restored to all rights as a Holder thereof retroactively to the date of transfer of such Preferred Share by such Holder.

(k) 3,250,000 of the Class I Preferred Shares will be issued as part of the Combination Notes issued pursuant to the Indenture and will comprise the Preferred Share Component thereof. In accordance with provisions of Article XVI of the Indenture, payments on the Preferred Share Component of the Combination Notes will be deposited in the Preferred Shares Collection Account and distributed by the Paying Agent to the Holders of the Combination Notes on each Payment Date in accordance with the provisions hereof. Subject to Section 2.5(b)(vii) of the Indenture, no separate Preferred Share Certificates will be issued to represent the Preferred Share Components until the Note Components of the Combination Notes are paid in full. The certificates for the Combination Notes will represent the Preferred Shares comprising the Preferred Share Components. Transfers of Preferred Shares that constitute Preferred Share Components of the Combination Notes will be made according to the provisions set forth in Section 2.5 of the Indenture.

Section 9. Liability.

Neither the Paying Agent nor the Transfer Agent nor the directors, officers, employees or agents of either of them shall be liable for any act or omission hereunder except that the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent shall be liable in the case of gross negligence, bad faith, or willful misconduct of the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, affiliates or agents, as the case may be, in violation of the duties of the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent under this Agreement. The duties and obligations of the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent and their respective employees or agents shall be determined solely by the express provisions of this Agreement, and they shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth herein, and no implied covenants shall be read into this Agreement against them. The Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent may consult with counsel selected by them with reasonable care and shall be protected in any action reasonably taken in good faith in accordance with the advice of such counsel.

The Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent each may rely conclusively on any notice, certificate instruction, consent, waiver, or other document (including any photocopy or facsimile) furnished to it hereunder and reasonably believed by it in good faith to be genuine. Neither the Paying Agent nor the Transfer Agent shall be liable for any action taken by it in good faith and reasonably believed by it to be within the discretion or powers conferred upon it, or taken by it pursuant to any direction or instruction by which it is governed hereunder, or omitted to be taken by it by reason of the lack of direction or instruction required hereby for such action. The Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent shall in no event be liable for the application or misapplication of funds by any other Person, or for the acts or omissions of any other Person. The Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any certificate, report or other document; provided that, if the form thereof is prescribed by this Agreement, the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent, as the case may be, shall examine the same to determine whether it conforms on its face to the requirements hereof. The Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent each may exercise or carry out any of its duties under this Agreement either directly or indirectly through agents or attorneys, and shall not be responsible for any acts or omissions on the part of any such agent or attorney appointed with due care, provided that the Paying Agent or, as the case may be, the Transfer Agent ensure that such agent or attorney are directly liable to the Issuer. To the extent permitted by applicable law, neither the Paying Agent nor the Transfer Agent shall be required to give any bond or surety in the execution of its duties. Neither the Paying Agent nor the Transfer Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge or notice of any matter unless actually known by a Responsible Officer of the Paying Agent or Transfer Agent, as applicable, or unless the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent, as applicable, has received written notice thereof from the Issuer, the Servicer, the Trustee, or the Holder of a Preferred Share. The Paying Agent shall not be obligated to make payments hereunder unless it has received (or is reasonably certain it will receive) the applicable amounts from the Trustee for which such payment is to be made. Neither the Paying Agent nor the Transfer Agent shall be charged with knowledge or notice of any matter unless actually known to a Responsible Officer of the Paying Agent or Transfer Agent responsible for the administration of this Agreement or unless written notice of such matter has been delivered to the Paying Agent or Transfer Agent as provided in Section 12 making reference to this Agreement, the Indenture, the Issuer, the Preferred Shares or the Notes. Any permissive grant of power to the paying Agent or Transfer Agent hereunder shall not be construed to imposed as duty to act. Nothing herein shall obligate the Paying Agent or Transfer Agent to advance its own funds, or to expend or risk its own funds or incur any expense or financial liability for which it is not, in its reasonable judgment, adequately indemnified. Neither the Paying Agent nor the Transfer Agent shall be liable for any indirect, special or consequential damages (included but not limited to lost profits) whatsoever, even if it has been informed of the likelihood thereof and regardless of the form of action.

Section 10. Indemnification.

Subject to the terms of the Indenture, the Issuer agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent, and their respective directors, officers, employees, affiliates and agents from and against any and all liabilities, costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) relating to or arising out of or in connection with its or their performance under this Agreement, except to the extent that they are caused by the gross negligence, bad faith, or willful misconduct of the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent, as the case may be. The foregoing indemnity includes, but is not limited to, any action taken or omitted in good faith within the scope of this Agreement upon telephone, telecopier or other electronically transmitted instructions, if authorized herein, received from or reasonably believed by the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent, as the case may be, acting in good faith, to have been given by, an Authorized Representative. This indemnity shall survive the resignation or removal of the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent, as the case may be, and the satisfaction or termination of this Agreement.

Section 11. Compensation of the Paying Agent and Transfer Agent.

Pursuant to, and at the times and to the extent contemplated by the Indenture, the Issuer shall pay to the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent compensation at such amounts and/or rates as shall be agreed between the Issuer and, as applicable, the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent and from time to time shall reimburse the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent for their respective reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses), disbursements, and advances incurred or made in accordance with any provisions of this Agreement, except any such expense, disbursement, or advance that may be attributable to its gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct. The obligations of the Issuer to the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent pursuant to the Indenture and this Section shall survive the resignation or removal of the Trustee and the satisfaction or termination of this Agreement. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary (other than with respect to Section 28), to the extent any amounts owing to the Paying Agent and/or the Transfer Agent from time to time pursuant to this Section 11 shall remain unpaid, the Paying Agent and/or the Transfer Agent shall be entitled, after having provided reasonable notice in writing to the Issuer, the Trustee, to pay to itself, for application to such unpaid amounts, any funds held or received by it at any time or times under or pursuant to this Agreement prior to making payment of amounts otherwise required under this Agreement to be made to the Preferred Shareholders (or any other Persons).

Section 12. Notices.

(a) All communications by or on behalf of the Issuer relating to the transfer, exchange, or payment in respect of a Preferred Share or any interest therein shall be directed to the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent at its address set forth in subsection (c)(ii) hereof.

(b) The Paying Agent shall notify the Preferred Shareholders of the occurrence of any Event of Default under the Indenture of which it receives notice from the Trustee.

Where this Agreement provides for notice to Preferred Shareholders of any event, such notice shall be sufficiently given (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) if such notice is in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to each Preferred Shareholder affected by such event, at such Preferred Shareholder's address as it appears on the Share Register, in the case of (a) or (b) not later than the latest date, and not earlier than the earliest date, prescribed for the giving of such notice.

Neither the failure to mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Preferred Shareholder shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Preferred Shareholders. Any notice that is given in the manner herein provided shall conclusively be presumed to have been duly given whether or not actually received by such Preferred Shareholder. Any notice to Preferred Shareholders provided for in this Agreement will be deemed to have been given on the date of mailing.

Where this Agreement provides for notice in any manner, such notice may be waived in writing by any Person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice. Waivers of notice by Preferred Shareholders shall be filed with the Paying Agent but such filing shall not be a condition precedent to the validity of any action taken in reliance upon such waiver.

In the event that, by reason of the suspension of the regular mail service as a result of a strike, work stoppage or similar activity, it shall be impractical to mail notice of any event to Preferred Shareholders when such notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, then any manner of giving such notice as shall be satisfactory to the Paying Agent shall be deemed to be a sufficient giving of such notice.

Section 13. Resignation or Removal of Paying Agent and Appointment of Successor Paying Agent; Merger, Conversion and Consolidation.

(a) The Issuer agrees, for the benefit of the Holders from time to time of the Preferred Shares, that there shall at all times be a Paying Agent and a Transfer Agent hereunder, each of which shall be a company authorized to engage in the activities set forth in this Agreement, subject to supervision or examination by governmental authorities, until all the Preferred Shares shall have been redeemed.

(b) The Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent may at any time resign as such agent by giving written notice to the Issuer and S&P of such intention on its part, specifying the date on which its desired resignation shall become effective; provided that such date shall be not less than 90 days after the giving of such notice by the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent to the Issuer. The Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent may be removed at any time by the filing with it of an instrument in writing signed by an Authorized Representative of the Issuer and specifying such removal and the date, which shall be at least thirty days after the date of such written notice, upon which it is intended to become effective. The Issuer shall give written notice of any removal of the Paying Agent or Transfer Agent to S&P. Any such resignation or removal shall take effect on the date of the appointment by the Issuer of a successor Paying Agent or Transfer Agent and the acceptance of such appointment by such successor Paying Agent or Transfer Agent that qualifies as such under Section 13(a) hereof. The Issuer shall give written notice of the appointment of any successor Paying Agent or Transfer Agent to S&P. In the event of resignation by the Paying Agent or Transfer Agent, if a successor agent has not been appointed by the Issuer within 90 days after the giving of notice by the Paying Agent or Transfer Agent of its intention to resign, the Paying Agent or Transfer Agent, as applicable, may, at the expense of the Issuer, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for appointment of a successor Paying Agent or Transfer Agent provided that it shall be qualified under Section 13(a) hereof. Upon any such resignation or removal, the Paying Agent shall transfer to the successor Paying Agent or Transfer Agent (or, if none shall have been appointed, to the Issuer) all monies held by the Paying Agent or Transfer Agent on behalf of the Issuer in respect of any Preferred Shares and all books and records related to Preferred Shares maintained by the Paying Agent or Transfer Agent, including a copy of the Share Register.

(c) Any corporation or bank into which the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent hereunder may be merged or converted, or any corporation or bank with which the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent may be consolidated, or any corporation or bank resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent shall be a party, or any corporation or bank to which the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent shall sell or otherwise transfer all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent, provided that it shall be qualified under Section 13(a) hereof, shall be the successor Paying Agent or successor Transfer Agent, as applicable, under this Agreement, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

(d) The successor Paying Agent or the successor Transfer Agent, as applicable, shall give prompt notice of the resignation and removal of the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent, as applicable, and the appointment of a successor Paying Agent or successor Transfer Agent, as applicable, by notifying the Holders of the Preferred Shares in accordance with Section 12 hereof. Each notice shall include the name of the successor Paying Agent or successor Transfer Agent, as applicable, and the address of the office from which this Agreement shall be administered.

Section 14. Benefit of Agreement.

This Agreement is solely for the benefit of the parties hereto, the Holders of the Preferred Shares from time to time, and their respective successors and assigns, and nothing herein, express or implied, shall give to any other persons any benefits or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by virtue of this Agreement. No party hereto may assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder except with the prior written consent of all the parties hereto.

Section 15. Preferred Shares Held by the Paying Agent; Other Business Relations.

Each of the Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent, in its individual or other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Preferred Shares with the same rights it would have if it were not acting as Paying Agent or Transfer Agent hereunder. The Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent may each conduct other business with the Issuer from time to time (including but not limited to its appointment and service as a paying agent under the Indenture).

Section 16. Amendment.

(a) Without the consent of any Holders of Preferred Shares, the Issuer, the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent, at any time, may enter into one or more agreements supplemental hereto for any of the following purposes:

(1) to evidence the succession of a successor entity to the Issuer and the assumption by any such successor of the covenants of the Issuer herein and in the Preferred Shares;

(2) to take any action deemed reasonably necessary by the Issuer to prevent the reduction of dividends payable on the Preferred Shares as a result of the imposition of any taxes;

(3) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment hereunder by a successor Paying Agent or Transfer Agent with respect to the Preferred Shares;

(4) to correct any manifest error with respect to any provision herein;

(5) to cure any ambiguity, correct or supplement any provision herein which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereunder, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising herein;

(6) to take any action necessary or helpful to prevent the Issuer from being subject to any withholding or other taxes, fees or assessments or to reduce the risk that the Issuer or the Paying Agent, as applicable, will be engaged in a United States trade or business or otherwise subject to United States income tax on a net income basis; or

(7) to prevent the Issuer from becoming an "investment company" as defined in the Investment Company Act or better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 thereunder; provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental agreement, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Initial Purchaser shall have (A) satisfied the Rating Condition with respect to such supplemental agreement and (B) received a customary, unqualified opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental agreement, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act;

provided that in each case that such action for any matters described in clauses (1) through (6) will not adversely affect the interests of the Holders of Preferred Shares in any material respect.

(b) With the consent of the Majority Preferred Shareholders affected by a supplemental agreement or agreement referred to below, the Issuer and the Paying Agent and/or Transfer Agent, as applicable, may enter into an agreement or agreements supplemental hereto for the purpose of adding any provisions to, or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of, this Agreement or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of Preferred Shares under this Agreement; provided that no such supplemental agreement will, without the consent of the Holder of each outstanding Preferred Share affected thereby:

(1) change the method or methods by which dividends will be determined for any Preferred Share or reduce the par value thereof or change the coin or currency in which such amounts are payable, or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after the stated maturity thereof;

(2) reduce the percentage amount of the outstanding Preferred Shares, the consent of whose Holders is required for any such supplemental agreement, or the consent of whose Holders is required for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of this Agreement or certain defaults hereunder and their consequences provided for in this Agreement; or

(3) modify any of the provisions of this Agreement relating to the modification thereof, except to increase any such percentage or to provide that certain other provisions of this Agreement cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each outstanding Preferred Share affected thereby.

The Issuer shall provide to each Initial Rating Agency then rating any Notes or Combination Notes, written notice of any such supplemental agreement or agreement supplemental to this Agreement at least 5 days prior to the execution thereof.

Prior to executing any amendment, the Issuer shall provide to the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent an Opinion of Counsel stating that such amendment is authorized and permitted hereunder.

In the event that any amendment is consented to by the Issuer and 100% of the aggregate outstanding Preferred Shares and the Rating Condition is satisfied or is specifically waived by all consenting parties, all conditions precedent to the execution of such amendment shall be deemed satisfied, the execution of such amendment shall be authorized or permitted by this Agreement, and the Paying and Transfer Agent shall execute and accept the such amendment pursuant to this Section 16 without obtaining an Opinion of Counsel.

In the case of any supplemental Indenture that requires the consent of one or more Holders of the Notes or Preferred Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Notes and Preferred Shares held by such Holder whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental Indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all Notes and Preferred Shares of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes or Preferred Shares the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of a Note or Preferred Share, each Holder of a Note and Preferred Share agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder shall be required to sell its applicable Note or Preferred Share to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser.

All purchases made pursuant to the Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Preferred Shares set forth herein and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Section 17. Governing Law.

This Agreement is to be delivered and performed in, and shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the rights of the parties shall be governed by, the laws of the State of New York.

Section 18. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, and each such counterpart, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 19. Exhibits.

The exhibits to this Agreement are hereby incorporated and made a part hereof and are an integral part of this Agreement.

Section 20. No Petition.

The Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent, by entering into this Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, each hereby covenant and agree that they will not at any time institute against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, or voluntarily join in any institution against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of, any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under any Cayman Islands, United States federal or state bankruptcy or similar law of any jurisdiction within or without the United States in connection with any obligations relating to the Preferred Shares or this Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement for a period of one-year and one-day (or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect) following the Trust Termination Date or, if later, the date upon which the Preferred Shares are redeemed.

Section 21. Prescription.

Dividends and the Redemption Price payable with respect to the Preferred Shares will cease to be payable by the Issuer if the share certificates with respect to the Preferred Shares are not presented for payment within ten years from the related Relevant Date therefor. "Relevant Date" means the date on which the final payment in respect of the Preferred Shares first becomes due, except that if the full amount of the monies payable has not been duly received by the Paying Agent on or prior to such due date, it means the date on which such monies have been so received.

Section 22. Identification of Preferred Shareholders.

On demand of the Issuer, a Holder of a Preferred Share will notify the Issuer whether or not the Preferred Share is held by a U.S. Person and the name and status of the Holder as an individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, trust or other entity and such other information the Issuer shall reasonably request for purposes of tax reporting of the Issuer or other Preferred Shareholders (including, in the case of a Holder that is a pass-through entity for federal income tax purposes, information relating to the beneficial owners of the Holder).

Section 23. Tax Matters.

(a) If required to prevent the withholding and imposition of United States income tax, the Issuer shall deliver or cause to be delivered a United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN to each issuer, counterparty or paying agent with respect to each item of Portfolio Collateral, each Eligible Investment, each Hedge Agreement and each Synthetic Security included in the Trust Estate at the time such item of Portfolio Collateral, Eligible Investment, Hedge Agreement or Synthetic Security is acquired or entered into by the Issuer and periodically thereafter prior to the last day of the third succeeding calendar year (or otherwise upon the expiration or obsolescence of such form).

(b) It is the intention of the parties hereto and, by its acceptance of a Preferred Share, each holder of a Preferred Share shall be deemed to have agreed not to treat the Issuer as being engaged in the active conduct of a banking, financing, insurance, or other similar business for purposes of section 954(e)(2) of the Code.

(c) It is the intention of the parties hereof that, for purposes of U.S. federal income, state and local income and franchise tax and any other similar taxes, the Issuer will be treated as a non-U.S. corporation, each Preferred Share will be treated as equity in the Issuer and the Notes will be treated as debt of the Issuer. The Issuer and each holder of a Preferred Share, by acceptance of a Preferred Share, agrees to such treatment and agrees to take no action inconsistent with such treatment and agrees that the terms of the Transaction Documents will be interpreted to further this intention of the parties.

(d) Each of the Issuer, the Trustee, and holder of Preferred Shares agrees that it does not intend for this Agreement to represent an agreement to enter into a partnership, a joint venture or any other business entity for United States federal income tax purposes, and none of such parties shall represent or otherwise hold themselves out to the IRS or other third parties as partners in a partnership or members of a joint venture or other business entity for United States federal income tax purposes. The Issuer, the Trustee, and each holder of Preferred Shares agrees that it will not elect for the Issuer to be treated as a partnership or disregarded entity for United States federal income tax purposes.

(e) The Issuer will take all actions necessary in order to permit Holders of Preferred Shares and holders of any Class of Notes that is or may reasonably be characterized as an equity interest in the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes, to make a "qualified electing fund" election with respect to the Issuer for United States income tax purposes.

(f) The Issuer will provide, upon the reasonable request of any Holder of Preferred Shares and any holder of a Class of Notes that is or may reasonably be characterized as an equity interest in the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes, any information the Issuer has reasonably available to it that may (1) assist such holder with regard to filing requirements that such holder may have as a result of the controlled foreign corporation rules under the Code or (2) assist such holder in fulfilling any filing requirements they may have under section 6038, 6038B or 6046 of the Code.

(g) Each Holder of a Preferred Share agrees to provide the Issuer, upon request, with such information as may reasonably be requested by the Issuer (including but not limited to information relating to the beneficial owner of the Preferred Share) in connection with the Issuer's fulfillment of its tax reporting, notification, withholding and similar obligations arising under the Code (as amended from time to time) or the Transaction Documents.

Re: Rockwall CDO II Ltd./[Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The undersigned proposes to purchase the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares identified below issued by Rockwall CDO II Ltd. (the "Issuer") pursuant to the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, to be dated as of May 9, 2007 (the "Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement"), between the Issuer and Investors Bank & Trust Company, as Paying and Transfer Agent (the "Paying and Transfer Agent"). In connection with our proposed purchase of such [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares we acknowledge, represent, agree and confirm that:

1. The [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or registered or qualified under the securities or "Blue Sky" laws of any jurisdiction, and may not be resold or otherwise transferred except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws and that the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares are subject to restriction on transfer as set forth in Section 8 of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

2. We are (i)(A) a "qualified institutional buyer" (within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act) and (B) a financial institution or other permitted offeree or purchaser for purposes of any applicable state securities or "Blue Sky" laws and have such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of our investment in the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares for an indefinite period of time or (ii) not a "U.S. person" within the meaning of Regulation S under the Securities Act (a "Non-U.S. Person") and a qualified institutional buyer. In the normal course of our business, we invest in or purchase securities similar to the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares.

3. We understand that the Issuer is not registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "Investment Company Act") but that the Issuer is exempt from registration as such by virtue of Rule 3a-7 and/or Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act. We are a (i) "Qualified Purchaser" as defined in Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act, (ii) "Knowledgeable Employee" within the meaning of Rule 3c-5 of the Investment Company Act or (iii) a Non-U.S. Person and we agree that we will transfer the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares owned by us only to a "Qualified Purchaser", a "Knowledgeable Employee" or to a Non-U.S. Person in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act. Any purported transfer or other disposition in violation of the foregoing restrictions will be void and of no effect.

4. Our Taxpayer Identification Number is _____.

5. If we are not a United States person (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code), we (x) are not a bank within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code or an affiliate of a bank or, alternatively, we are such a bank or an affiliate of a bank but we are eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates U.S. federal income taxation of U.S. source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States and (y) we are not purchasing the Preferred Shares in order to reduce our U.S. Federal income tax liability or pursuant to a tax avoidance plan within the meaning of Treas. Reg. 1.881-3(b)

6. For purposes of determining whether our acquisition and holding of the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares to be purchased by us pursuant hereto will constitute or result in a non-exempt "prohibited transaction" (within the meaning of Section 406 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), and/or Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code")), (i) the Issuer or the Paying and Transfer Agent may take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate in order to assure that, after giving effect to such purchase and all other purchases occurring simultaneously therewith, less than 25% of the each of the Class B-2L Notes and each of the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares (excluding the Class B-2L Notes and the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares held by the Servicer or its affiliates) will be held by employee benefit plans subject to Title I of ERISA, plans described in and subject to Section 4975 of the Code or other "benefit plan investors" (as defined in Section 3(42) of ERISA) (each, a "Benefit Plan Investor"); (ii) we will not assign or transfer such [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares unless the proposed assignee or transferee delivers a letter to the Issuer and the Paying and Transfer Agent substantially in the form hereof; and (iii) either [check and initial one box as appropriate]:

_____ ☐ No part of the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares constitutes "plan assets" of any Benefit Plan Investor and we will not assign or transfer such [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares to any person who is (or is acting on behalf of or with "plan assets" of) a Benefit Plan Investor;

_____ ☐ The funds being used to pay the purchase price for such [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares constitute assets of an "insurance company general account" (within the meaning of U.S. Department of Labor ("DOL") Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption ("PTCE") 95-60) (a "General Account"); our purchase and holding of such [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares are eligible for the exemptive relief available under PTCE 95-60; less than 25% of the assets of such General Account constitute "plan assets" of Benefit Plan Investors; if, after the initial acquisition of the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares, during any calendar quarter 25% or more of the assets of such General Account (as determined by such insurance company) constitute "plan assets" of any Plan or other Benefit Plan Investor, then such insurance company will dispose of all of the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares then held in its General Account by the end of the next following calendar quarter; and we will not assign or transfer such [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares to any person who is (or is acting on behalf of or with "plan assets" of) a Benefit Plan Investor (other than another General Account); or

- _____ ☐ The funds being used to pay the purchase price for such [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares constitute assets of a Benefit Plan Investor (other than a General Account); our purchase of such [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares is eligible for the exemptive relief available under any of Section 408(b)(17) of ERISA or PTCE 96-23, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14; and any person to whom we assign or transfer such [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares will be accurately identified in such letter as either a General Account, another Benefit Plan Investor who is eligible for such exemptive relief or a person who is not (and is not acting on behalf of) any Benefit Plan Investor.

7. The undersigned confirms that (i) it has received and reviewed a copy of the Confidential Offering Circular, dated May 8, 2007 relating to the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares and on which it has based its investment decision, (ii) it has had the opportunity to ask questions of, and receive answers from the Issuer concerning the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares and all matters relating thereto, and obtain any additional information (including documents) relevant to its decision to purchase the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares that the Issuer possesses or can possess without unreasonable effort or expense, (iii) it has undertaken its own independent analysis of the investment in the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares and (iv) it agrees to be bound by the representations and restrictions on transfer set forth therein. The undersigned will not use or disclose any information it receives in connection with its purchase of the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares other than in connection with a subsequent sale of the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares, except to the extent otherwise required under applicable law or regulation.

8. After giving effect to this purchase, we will not own more than 49% (directly or indirectly) of the aggregate par value of the [Class I][Class II] Preferred Shares, unless we are the Servicer (including our respective Affiliates and clients).

9. We hereby certify that we [check one] _____ are _____ are not an Affiliate (as defined in the Indenture) or nominee of Investors Bank & Trust Company, the Issuer or the Servicer or a nominee of an Affiliate of any of them.

10. We agree to provide the Paying and Transfer Agent in writing with any additional registration, payment and delivery information as the Trustee may reasonably request.

11. We are not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.

Very truly yours,

2. General Duties of the Servicer.

(a) The Servicer shall provide services to the Issuer as follows:

(i) Subject to and in accordance with the terms this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents, the Servicer shall supervise and direct the administration, acquisition and disposition of the Collateral, and shall perform on behalf of the Issuer those duties and obligations of the Servicer required by the Indenture and the other Transaction Documents, and including the furnishing of Orders, Requests and officer’s certificates, and such certifications as are required of the Servicer under the Indenture with respect to permitted purchases and sales of the Portfolio Collateral, Eligible Investments and other assets, and other matters, and, to the extent necessary or appropriate to perform such duties, the Servicer shall have the power to execute and deliver all necessary and appropriate documents and instruments on behalf of the Issuer with respect thereto. The Servicer shall, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents, perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder with reasonable care, using a degree of skill and attention no less than that which the Servicer exercises with respect to comparable assets that it services or manages for others having similar objectives and restrictions, and in a manner consistent with practices and procedures followed by institutional servicers or managers of national standing relating to assets of the nature and character of the Collateral for clients having similar objectives and restrictions, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement and/or the other Transaction Documents. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the Servicer shall follow its customary standards, policies and procedures in performing its duties under the Indenture and hereunder. The Servicer shall comply with all terms and conditions of the other Transaction Documents affecting the duties and functions to be performed hereunder. The Servicer shall not be bound to follow any amendment to any Transaction Document until it has received written notice thereof and until it has received a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee; provided, however, that the Servicer shall not be bound by any amendment to any Transaction Document that affects the rights, powers, obligations or duties of the Servicer unless the Servicer shall have consented thereto in writing. The Issuer agrees that it shall not permit any amendment to the Indenture that (x) affects the rights, powers, obligations or duties of the Servicer or (y) affects the amount or priority of any fees payable to the Servicer to become effective unless the Servicer has been given prior written notice of such amendment and consented thereto in writing;

(ii) the Servicer shall select any Collateral which shall be acquired by the Issuer pursuant to the Indenture in accordance with the Collateral criteria set forth herein and in the Indenture;

(iii) the Servicer shall monitor the Collateral on an ongoing basis and provide to the Issuer all reports, certificates, schedules and other data with respect to the Collateral which the Issuer is required to prepare and deliver under the Indenture, in the form and containing all information required thereby and in reasonable time for the Issuer to review such required reports, certificates, schedules and data and to deliver them to the parties entitled thereto under the Indenture; the Servicer shall undertake to determine to the extent reasonably practicable whether a Portfolio Collateral has become a Defaulted Portfolio Collateral;

(iv) the Servicer, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture may, at any time permitted under the Indenture, and shall, when required by the Indenture, direct the Trustee (x) to dispose of a Portfolio Collateral, Equity Security or Eligible Investment or other securities received in respect thereof in the open market or otherwise, (y) to acquire, as security for the Notes in substitution for or in addition to any one or more Portfolio Collateral or Eligible Investments included in the Collateral, one or more substitute Portfolio Collateral or Eligible Investments, or (z) direct the Trustee to take the following actions with respect to a Portfolio Collateral or Eligible Investment:

(1) retain such Portfolio Collateral or Eligible Investment;
or

(2) dispose of such Portfolio Collateral or Eligible Investment in the open market or otherwise; or

(3) if applicable, tender such Portfolio Collateral or Eligible Investment pursuant to an Offer; or

(4) if applicable, consent to any proposed amendment, modification or waiver pursuant to an Offer; or

(5) retain or dispose of any securities or other property (if other than cash) received pursuant to an Offer; or

(6) waive any default with respect to any Defaulted Portfolio Collateral; or

(7) vote to accelerate the maturity of any Defaulted Portfolio Collateral; or

(8) exercise any other rights or remedies with respect to such Portfolio Collateral or Eligible Investment as provided in the related

Underlying Instruments, including in connection with any workout situations, or take any other action consistent with the terms of the Indenture which is in the best interests of the Holders of the Securities; and

(v) the Servicer shall (a) on or prior to any day which is a Redemption Date, direct the Trustee to enter into contracts to dispose of the Portfolio Collateral and any other Collateral pursuant to the Indenture and otherwise comply with all redemption procedures and certification requirements in the Indenture in order to allow the Trustee to effect such redemption and (b) conduct Auctions in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

(b) In performing its duties hereunder, the Servicer shall seek to preserve the value of the Collateral for the benefit of the Holders of the Securities taking into account the Collateral criteria and limitations set forth herein and in the Indenture and the Servicer shall use reasonable efforts to select and service the Collateral in such a way that will permit a timely performance of all payment obligations by the Issuer under the Indenture; provided, that the Servicer shall not be responsible if such objectives are not achieved so long as the Servicer performs its duties under this Agreement in the manner provided for herein, and provided, further, that there shall be no recourse to the Servicer with respect to the Notes or the Preferred Shares. The Servicer and the Issuer shall take such other action, and furnish such certificates, opinions and other documents, as may be reasonably requested by the other party hereto in order to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement and to facilitate compliance with applicable laws and regulations and the terms of this Agreement.

(c) The Servicer hereby agrees to the following:

(i) The Servicer agrees not to institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings or other proceedings under federal or state bankruptcy or similar laws of any jurisdiction until at least one year and one day (or if longer, any applicable preference period plus one day) after the payment in full of all Notes issued under the Indenture; provided, however, that nothing in this clause (i) shall preclude, or be deemed to estop, the Servicer (A) from taking any action prior to the expiration of such period in (x) any case or proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, or (y) any involuntary insolvency proceeding filed or commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, by a Person other than the Servicer, or (B) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any properties of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any legal action which is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, liquidation or similar proceeding. The provisions of this Section 2(c)(i) shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(ii) The Servicer shall cause each sale or purchase of any Portfolio Collateral or Eligible Investment to be conducted on an arm's-length basis.

(d) The Servicer shall not act for the Issuer in any capacity except as provided in this Section 2. In providing services hereunder, the Servicer may employ third parties, including its Affiliates, to render advice (including advice with respect to the servicing of the Collateral) and assistance; provided, however, that the Servicer shall not be relieved of any of its duties or liabilities hereunder regardless of the performance of any services by third parties. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Servicer shall not be required to take any action required of it pursuant to this Agreement or the Indenture if such action would constitute a violation of any law.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or the Indenture, (i) any granted signatory powers or authority granted to the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer with respect to the Special Procedures Obligations shall be conditioned upon the prior written approval of the Independent Advisor and (ii) neither the Servicer nor any Affiliate of the Servicer shall have any authority to enter into agreements, or take any action, on behalf of the Issuer with respect to the Special Procedures Obligations without the prior written approval of the Independent Advisor.

3. Brokerage.

The Servicer shall seek to obtain the best prices and execution for all orders placed with respect to the Collateral, considering all reasonable circumstances. Subject to the objective of obtaining best prices and execution, the Servicer may take into consideration research and other brokerage services furnished to the Servicer or its Affiliates by brokers and dealers which are not Affiliates of the Servicer. Such services may be used by the Servicer or its Affiliates in connection with its other servicing or advisory activities or operations. The Servicer may aggregate sales and purchase orders of securities placed with respect to the Collateral with similar orders being made simultaneously for other accounts serviced or managed by Servicer or with accounts of the Affiliates of the Servicer, if in the Servicer's reasonable judgment such aggregation shall result in an overall economic benefit to the Issuer, taking into consideration the advantageous selling or purchase price, brokerage commission and other expenses. In the event that a sale or purchase of a Portfolio Collateral or Eligible Investment (in accordance with the terms of the Indenture) occurs as part of any aggregate sales or purchase orders, the objective of the Servicer (and any of its Affiliates involved in such transactions) shall be to allocate the executions among the accounts in an equitable manner and consistent with its obligations hereunder and under applicable law.

In addition to the foregoing and subject to the provisions of Section 2 and the limitations of Section 5, the objective of obtaining best prices and execution and to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Servicer may, on behalf of the Issuer, direct the Trustee to acquire any and all of the Eligible Investments or other Collateral from, or sell Portfolio Collateral or other Collateral to, the Initial Purchaser, the Trustee or any of their respective Affiliates, or any other firm.

4. Additional Activities of the Servicer.

Nothing herein shall prevent the Servicer or any of its Affiliates from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Trustee, the Holders of the Securities, or any other Person or entity to the extent permitted by applicable law. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Servicer and partners, directors, officers, employees and agents of the Servicer or its Affiliates may, among other things, and subject to any limits specified in the Indenture:

(a) serve as directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, partners, employees, agents, nominees or signatories for any issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates, to the extent permitted by their Governing Instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates, pursuant to their respective Governing Instruments; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Servicer, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on the enforceability of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Overcollateralization Ratio and the Interest Coverage Test; provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the duties of the Servicer set forth in Section 2 hereof;

(b) receive fees for services of any nature rendered to the issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Servicer, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on the enforceability of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Overcollateralization Ratio and the Interest Coverage Test; and provided, further that if any portion of such services are related to the purchase by the Issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral, the portion of such fees relating to such obligations shall be applied to the purchase price of such obligations; and

(c) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold an equity interest in, the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligation included in the Collateral; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Servicer, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on the enforceability of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Overcollateralization Ratio and the Interest Coverage Test; provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the duties of the Servicer set forth in Section 2 hereof.

It is understood that the Servicer and any of its Affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish servicing, investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have policies similar to those followed by the Servicer with respect to the Collateral and which may own securities of the same class, or which are the same type, as the Portfolio Collateral or other securities of the issuers of Portfolio Collateral. The Servicer shall be free, in its sole discretion, to make recommendations to others, or effect transactions on behalf of itself or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Collateral.

Unless the Servicer determines in its reasonable judgment that such purchase or sale is appropriate, the Servicer may refrain from directing the purchase or sale hereunder of securities issued by (i) Persons of which the Servicer, its Affiliates or any of its or their officers, directors or employees are directors or officers, (ii) Persons for which the Servicer or its Affiliate act as financial adviser or underwriter or (iii) Persons about which the Servicer or any of its Affiliates have information which the Servicer deems confidential or non-public or otherwise might prohibit it from trading such securities in accordance with applicable law. The Servicer shall not be obligated to have or pursue any particular strategy or opportunity with respect to the Collateral.

5. Conflicts of Interest.

(a) The Servicer shall not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Servicer such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Servicer, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (iii) such transaction is permitted by the Investment Advisers Act.

(b) The Servicer shall not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Servicer, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (ii) permitted by the Investment Advisers Act.

(c) In addition, the Servicer shall not undertake any transaction described in this Section 5 unless such transaction is exempt from the prohibited transaction rules of ERISA and the Code.

6. Records; Confidentiality.

The Servicer shall maintain appropriate books of account and records relating to services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by a representative of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Holders of the Securities and the Independent accountants appointed by the Issuer pursuant to the Indenture at a mutually agreed time during normal business hours and upon not less than three Business Days' prior notice. At no time shall the Servicer make a public announcement concerning the issuance of the Notes or the Preferred Shares, the Servicer's role hereunder or any other aspect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents. The Servicer shall keep confidential any and all information obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder and shall not disclose any such information to non-affiliated third parties except (i) with the prior written consent of the Issuer, (ii) such information as either Rating Agency shall reasonably request in connection with the rating of any class of Securities, (iii) as required by law, regulation, court order or the rules or regulations of any self regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Servicer, (iv) to its professional advisers, (v) such information as shall have been publicly disclosed other than in violation of this Agreement, or (vi) such information that was or is obtained by the Servicer on a non-confidential basis, provided, that the Servicer does not know or have reason to know of any breach by such source of any confidentiality obligations with respect thereto. For purposes of this Section 6, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator and the Holders of the Securities shall in no event be considered "non-affiliated third parties."

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Indenture to the contrary, the Servicer, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Holders of the Securities (and the beneficial owners thereof) (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure, as such terms are defined under U.S. federal, state or local tax law.

7. Obligations of Servicer.

Unless otherwise specifically required by any provision of the Indenture or this Agreement or by applicable law, the Servicer shall use its best reasonable efforts to ensure that no action is taken by it, and shall not intentionally or with reckless disregard take any action, which would (a) materially adversely affect the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for purposes of Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state law or any other law known to the Servicer to be applicable to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, (b) not be permitted under the Issuer's Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association or the Co-Issuer's Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws, (c) violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer or the Co-Issuer including, without limitation, any Cayman Islands or United States federal, state or other applicable securities law the violation of which has or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any of the Collateral, (d) require registration of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the pool of Collateral as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act, (e) cause the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to violate the terms of the Indenture, including, without limitation, any representations made by the Issuer or Co-Issuer therein, or any other agreement contemplated by the Indenture or (f) not be permitted by Annex 1 hereto and would subject the Issuer to U.S. federal or state income or franchise taxation or cause the Issuer to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Servicer covenants that it shall comply in all material respects with all laws and regulations applicable to it in connection with the performance of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Servicer shall not be required to take any action under this Agreement or the Indenture if such action would violate any applicable law, rule, regulation or court order.

8. Compensation.

(a) The Issuer shall pay to the Servicer, for services rendered and performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Servicing Fee, which shall be payable in such amounts and at such times as set forth in the Indenture. The provisions of the Indenture which relate to the amount and payment of the Servicing Fee shall not be amended without the written consent of the Servicer. If on any Payment Date there are insufficient funds to pay the Servicing Fee (and/or any other amounts due and payable to the Servicer) in full, the amount not so paid shall be deferred and shall be payable on such later Payment Date on which funds are available therefor as provided in the Indenture.

The Servicer hereby agrees to waive the Class II Preference Share Portion of the Servicing Fees which would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as Servicing Fees, on each Payment Date until February 3, 2008. After February 3, 2008, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive the Class II Preference Share Portion of its Servicing Fees then due and payable. All waived amounts will be paid to the Class II Preferred Shares as Class II Preferred Share Dividends pursuant to the Indenture. For purposes of any calculation under this Agreement and the Indenture, the Servicer shall be deemed to have received the Servicing Fee in an amount equal to the sum of the Servicing Fee actually paid to the Servicer and the amount distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preferred Shares as Class II Preference Share Dividends.

In addition, notwithstanding anything set out above, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion waive all or any portion of the Additional Servicing Fee or Supplemental Servicing Fee, any funds representing the waived Additional Servicing Fees and Supplemental Servicing Fees to be retained in the Collection Account for distribution as either Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds (as determined by the Servicer) pursuant to the Priority of Payments.

(b) The Servicer shall be responsible for the ordinary expenses incurred in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Indenture and the other Transaction Documents; provided, however, that any extraordinary expenses incurred by the Servicer in the performance of such obligations (including, but not limited to, any fees, expenses or other amounts payable to the Rating Agencies, the Collateral Administrator, the Trustee and the accountants appointed by the Issuer, the reasonable expenses incurred by the Servicer to employ outside lawyers or consultants reasonably necessary in connection with the evaluation, transfer or restructuring of any Portfolio Collateral or other unusual matters arising in the performance of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture, any reasonable expenses incurred by the Servicer in obtaining advice from outside counsel with respect to its obligations under this Agreement, brokerage commissions, transfer fees, registration costs, taxes and other similar costs and transaction related expenses and fees arising out of transactions effected for the Issuer's account and the portion allocated to the Issuer of any other fees and expenses that the Servicer customarily allocates among all of the funds or portfolios that it services or manages, including reasonable expenses incurred with respect to any compliance requirements, including, but not limited to, compliance with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, related solely to the ownership or holding of any Securities by HFP or its Affiliates) shall be reimbursed by the Issuer to the extent funds are available therefor in accordance with and subject to the limitations contained in the Indenture.

(c) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 12, Section 14 or otherwise, the fees payable to the Servicer shall be prorated for any partial periods between Payment Dates during which this Agreement was in effect and shall be due and payable on the first Payment Date following the date of such termination and on any subsequent Payment Dates to the extent remaining unpaid and in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Indenture.

9. Benefit of the Agreement.

The Servicer agrees that its obligations hereunder shall be enforceable at the instance of the Issuer, the Trustee, on behalf of the Noteholders, or the requisite percentage of Noteholders or the Holders of the Preferred Shares, as applicable, as provided in the Indenture.

10. Limits of Servicer Responsibility; Indemnification.

(a) The Servicer assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder and under the terms of the other Transaction Documents made applicable to it pursuant to the terms of this Agreement in good faith and, subject to the standard of liability described in the next sentence, shall not be responsible for any action of the Issuer or the Trustee in following or declining to follow any advice, recommendation or direction of the Servicer. The Servicer, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, and its Affiliates and their directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, shall not be liable to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Holders of the Securities or any other person, for any losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (collectively, “Liabilities”) incurred by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Holders of the Securities or any other person, that arise out of or in connection with the performance by the Servicer of its duties under this Agreement and under the terms of the other Transaction Documents made applicable to it pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, except by reason of (i) acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance, or reckless disregard, of the obligations of the Servicer hereunder and under the terms of the other Transaction Documents made applicable to it pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or (ii) with respect to any information included in the Offering Circular in the section entitled “The Servicer” that contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (the preceding clauses (i) and (ii) collectively being the “Servicer Breaches”). For the avoidance of doubt, the Servicer shall have no duty to independently investigate any laws not otherwise known to it in connection with its obligations under this Agreement, the Indenture and the other Transaction Documents. The Servicer shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements of the Indenture and this Agreement relating to not causing the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes (including as those requirements relate to the acquisition (including manner of acquisition), ownership, enforcement, and disposition of Collateral) to the extent the Servicer complies with the requirements set forth in Annex 1 hereto (unless the Servicer knows that as a result of a change in law the investment restrictions set forth in Annex 1 may no longer be relied upon).

(b) The Issuer shall indemnify and hold harmless (the Issuer in such case, the “Indemnifying Party”) the Servicer, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees (such parties collectively in such case, the “Indemnified Parties”) from and against any and all Liabilities, and shall reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) (collectively, the “Expenses”) as such Expenses are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the “Actions”), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with, the issuance of the Securities, the transactions contemplated by the Offering Circular, the Indenture or this Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided, however, that no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions by any Indemnified Party constituting Servicer Breaches. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer under this Section 10 shall be payable solely out of the Collateral in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Indenture and shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(c) With respect to any claim made or threatened against an Indemnified Party, or compulsory process or request or other notice of any loss, claim, damage or liability served upon an Indemnified Party, for which such Indemnified Party is or may be entitled to indemnification under this Section 10, such Indemnified Party shall (or with respect to Indemnified Parties that are directors, officers, stockholders, agents or employees of the Servicer, the Servicer shall cause such Indemnified Party to):

(i) give written notice to the Indemnifying Party of such claim within ten (10) days after such Indemnified Party's receipt of actual notice that such claim is made or threatened, which notice to the Indemnifying Party shall specify in reasonable detail the nature of the claim and the amount (or an estimate of the amount) of the claim; provided, however, that the failure of any Indemnified Party to provide such notice to the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under this Section 10 unless the Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced or otherwise forfeits rights or defenses by reason of such failure;

(ii) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, provide the Indemnifying Party such information and cooperation with respect to such claim as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require, including, but not limited to, making appropriate personnel available to the Indemnifying Party at such reasonable times as the Indemnifying Party may request;

(iii) at the Indemnifying Party's expense, cooperate and take all such steps as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request to preserve and protect any defense to such claim;

(iv) in the event suit is brought with respect to such claim, upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, which the Indemnifying Party may exercise in its sole discretion and at its expense, to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement of such claim;

(v) neither incur any material expense to defend against nor release or settle any such claim or make any admission with respect thereto (other than routine or incontestable admissions or factual admissions the failure to make which would expose such Indemnified Party to unindemnified liability) nor permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof, in each case without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party; and

(vi) upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, in its sole discretion and at its sole expense, to assume the defense of such claim, including, but not limited to, the right to designate counsel reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party and to control all negotiations, litigation, arbitration, settlements, compromises and appeals of such claim; provided, that if the Indemnifying Party assumes the defense of such claim, it shall not be liable for any fees and expenses of counsel for any Indemnified Party incurred thereafter in connection with such claim except that if such Indemnified Party reasonably determines that counsel designated by the Indemnifying Party has a conflict of interest in connection with its representation of such Indemnified Party, such Indemnifying Party shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of one counsel (in addition to any local counsel) separate from its own counsel for all Indemnified Parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances; provided, further, that prior to entering into any final settlement or compromise, such Indemnifying Party shall seek the consent of the Indemnified Party and use its commercially reasonable efforts in the light of the then prevailing circumstances (including, without limitation, any express or implied time constraint on any pending settlement offer) to obtain the consent of such Indemnified Party as to the terms of settlement or compromise. If an Indemnified Party does not consent to the settlement or compromise within a reasonable time under the circumstances, the Indemnifying Party shall not thereafter be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Party for any amount in excess of such proposed settlement or compromise.

(d) In the event that any Indemnified Party waives its right to indemnification hereunder, the Indemnifying Party shall not be entitled to appoint counsel to represent such Indemnified Party nor shall the Indemnifying Party reimburse such Indemnified Party for any costs of counsel to such Indemnified Party.

(e) The U.S. federal securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith; accordingly, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, nothing herein shall in any way constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Issuer or the Holders of the Securities may have under any U.S. federal securities laws.

11. No Partnership or Joint Venture.

The Issuer and the Servicer are not partners or joint venturers with each other and nothing herein shall be construed to make them such partners or joint venturers or impose any liability as such on either of them. The Servicer's relation to the Issuer shall be deemed to be that of an independent contractor.

12. Term; Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall commence as of the date first set forth above and shall continue in force and effect until the first of the following occurs: (i) the payment in full of the Notes, the termination of the Indenture in accordance with its terms and the redemption in full of the Preferred Shares; (ii) the liquidation of the Collateral and the final distribution of the proceeds of such liquidation to the Securityholders; or (iii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with subsection (b), (c), (d) or (e) of this Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement.

(b) Subject to Section 12(e) below, the Servicer may resign, upon 90 days' written notice to the Issuer (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer). If the Servicer resigns, the Issuer agrees to appoint a successor Servicer to assume such duties and obligations in accordance with Section 12(e).

(c) This Agreement shall be automatically terminated in the event that the Issuer determines in good faith that the Issuer or the pool of Collateral has become required to be registered under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, and the Issuer notifies the Servicer thereof.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 12, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other, except as provided in Sections 2(c)(i), 8, 10 and 15 of this Agreement.

(e) No removal or resignation of the Servicer shall be effective unless:

I. if the Class A-1LA Notes are Outstanding and (i) the sum of (A) the Aggregate Par Amount of Portfolio Collateral other than any Equity Portfolio Collateral and (B) the Market Value of all Equity Portfolio Collateral (as determined by the Servicer in a commercially reasonable manner), if any, is less than (ii) the sum of (A) the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Outstanding Notes other than the Class B-1L Notes plus any accrued and unpaid interest thereon and (B) 50% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes plus any accrued and unpaid interest thereon (a “Preferred Share Event”), then:

(i) (A) the Issuer appoints a successor Servicer at the written direction of a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single class and excluding any Notes held by the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority other than HFP), (B) such successor Servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the Servicer’s duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture and (C) such successor Servicer is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes); or

(iii) if the Issuer fails to appoint a successor Servicer pursuant to the preceding clauses (i) and (ii) within 90 days of any notice of resignation or removal of the Servicer, (A) a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes may petition a court of competent authority to appoint a successor Servicer, (B) such court appoints a successor Servicer and (C) such successor Servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the Servicer’s duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture.

II. if there is no Preferred Share Event in effect, then:

(i) (A) the Issuer appoints a successor Servicer at the written direction of a Majority of the Preferred Shares (excluding any Preferred Shares held by the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority, other than HFP which may exercise its vote with respect to Preferred Shares it owns, up to the Original HFP Share Amount), (B) such successor Servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture and (C) such successor Servicer is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single class and excluding any Notes held by the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority other than HFP); or

(ii) if a Majority of the Preferred Shares (excluding any Preferred Shares held by the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority other than HFP) has nominated two or more possible successor Servicers that have been objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (i)(C) or has otherwise failed to appoint a successor Servicer that has not been objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (i)(C) within 30 days of the date of notice of such removal or resignation of the Servicer (or, if later, within 30 days of the last failure to successfully appoint a successor Servicer), then (A) the Issuer appoints a successor Servicer at the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes, (B) such successor Servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture and (C) such successor Servicer is not objected to within 45 days after notice of such succession by either of (x) a Majority of the Preferred Shares (excluding any Preferred Shares held by the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority other than HFP which may exercise its vote with respect to Preferred Shares it owns, up to the Original HFP Share Amount) or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single class and excluding any Notes held by the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority other than HFP); or

(iii) if the Issuer fails to appoint a successor Servicer pursuant to the preceding clauses (i) and (ii) within 90 days of any notice of resignation or removal of the Servicer, (A) a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes may petition a court of competent authority to appoint a successor Servicer, (B) such court appoints a successor Servicer and (C) such successor Servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture.

In addition, any successor Servicer must be an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Servicer hereunder, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as Servicer hereunder, as successor to the Servicer under this Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Servicer hereunder and under the applicable terms of the Indenture, (iii) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of Collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, (iv) shall perform its duties as Servicer under this Agreement and the Indenture without causing the Issuer, the Co Issuer or any Holder of Preferred Shares to become subject to tax in any jurisdiction where such successor Servicer is established as doing business and (v) each Rating Agency has confirmed that the appointment of such successor Servicer shall not cause its then current rating of any Class of Notes to be reduced or withdrawn. No compensation payable to a successor Servicer from payments on the Collateral shall be greater than that paid to the Servicer without the prior written consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class, Majority of the Noteholders and a Majority of the Preferred Shares. The Issuer, the Trustee and the successor Servicer shall take such action (or cause the retiring Servicer to take such action) consistent with this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Servicer, as shall be necessary to effectuate any such succession.

If there has been no appointment of a successor Servicer within 90 days following the resignation or termination of the Servicer, until a successor Servicer has been appointed and has assumed its duties hereunder, any sales or disposition of Portfolio Collateral shall be limited to Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, Defaulted Portfolio Collateral and Equity Portfolio Collateral; provided, that, such restriction on the sale or disposition of Portfolio Collateral shall not apply if the Portfolio Collateral is being liquidated in whole or in part in connection with an acceleration or early termination of the Notes.

(f) In the event of removal of the Servicer pursuant to this Agreement, the Issuer shall have all of the rights and remedies available with respect thereto at law or equity, and, without limiting the foregoing, the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, the Trustee may by notice in writing to the Servicer as provided under this Agreement terminate all the rights and obligations of the Servicer under this Agreement (except those that survive termination pursuant to Section 12(d) above). Subject to Section 12, any assignment of this Agreement to any Person, in whole or in part, by the Servicer shall be deemed null and void unless (i) such assignment is consented to in writing by the Issuer, the Requisite Noteholders and the Holders of a Majority of the Preferred Shares (excluding Notes and Preferred Shares held by the Servicer or any of its Affiliates other than HFP) and (ii) the Rating Agency Confirmation is satisfied with respect to any such assignment. Any assignment consented to by the Issuer, the Requisite Noteholders and the Holders of Preferred Shares shall bind the assignee hereunder in the same manner as the Servicer is bound. In addition, the assignee shall execute and deliver to the Issuer and the Trustee a counterpart of this Agreement naming such assignee as Servicer. Upon the execution and delivery of such a counterpart by the assignee and consent thereto by the Issuer, the Requisite Noteholders and the Holders of the Preferred Shares, the Servicer shall be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement, except with respect to its obligations arising under Section 10 of this Agreement prior to such assignment and except with respect to its obligations under Sections 2(c)(i) and 15 hereof. This Agreement shall not be assigned by the Issuer without the prior written consent of the Servicer and the Trustee, except in the case of assignment by the Issuer to (i) an entity which is a successor to the Issuer permitted under the Indenture, in which case such successor organization shall be bound hereunder and by the terms of said assignment in the same manner as the Issuer is bound thereunder or (ii) the Trustee as contemplated by the Indenture. In the event of any assignment by the Issuer, the Issuer shall cause its successor to execute and deliver to the Servicer such documents as the Servicer shall consider reasonably necessary to effect fully such assignment. The Servicer hereby consents to the matters set forth in Article 15 of the Indenture.

19. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, inducements and conditions, express or implied, oral or written, of any nature whatsoever with respect to the subject matter hereof. The express terms hereof control and supersede any course of performance and/or usage of the trade inconsistent with any of the terms hereof. This Agreement may not be modified or amended other than by an agreement in writing executed by the parties hereto and in accordance with the terms of Section 14.1(f)(4) of the Indenture.

20. Conflict with the Indenture.

Subject to the last two sentences of Section 2(a)(i), in the event that this Agreement requires any action to be taken with respect to any matter and the Indenture requires that a different action be taken with respect to such matter, and such actions are mutually exclusive, the provisions of the Indenture in respect thereof shall control.

21. Priority of Payments.

The Servicer agrees that the payment of all amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture shall be due and payable only in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Indenture and only to the extent funds are available for such payments in accordance with such priorities.

22. Governing Law.

23. Indulgences Not Waivers.

Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of any party hereto to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise of the same or of any other right, remedy, power or privilege, nor shall any waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any occurrence be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any other occurrence. No waiver shall be effective unless it is in writing and is signed by the party asserted to have granted such waiver.

24. Costs and Expenses.

Except as may otherwise be agreed in writing, the costs and expenses (including the fees and disbursements of counsel and accountants) incurred by each party in connection with the negotiation and preparation of and the execution of this Agreement, and all matters incident thereto, shall be borne by such party.

25. Titles Not to Affect Interpretation.

The titles of paragraphs and subparagraphs contained in this Agreement are for convenience only, and they neither form a part of this Agreement nor are they to be used in the construction or interpretation hereof.

26. Execution in Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

27. Provisions Separable.

In case any provision in this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable as written, such provision shall be construed in the manner most closely resembling the apparent intent of the parties with respect to such provision so as to be valid, legal and enforceable; provided, however, that if there is no basis for such a construction, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability and, unless the ineffectiveness of such provision destroys the basis of the bargain for one of the parties to this Agreement, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof or thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

28. Number and Gender.

Words used herein, regardless of the number and gender specifically used, shall be deemed and construed to include any other number, singular or plural, and any other gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, as the context requires.

29. Written Disclosure Statement.

The Issuer and the Trustee acknowledge receipt of Part II of the Servicer's Form ADV filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, as required by Rule 204-3 under the Investment Advisers Act, more than 48 hours prior to the date of execution of this Agreement.

30. Miscellaneous.

(a) In the event that any vote is solicited with respect to any Portfolio Collateral, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall vote or refrain from voting any such security in any manner permitted by the Indenture that the Servicer has determined in its reasonable judgment shall be in the best interests of the Holders of the Securities. In addition, with respect to any Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, may instruct the trustee for such Defaulted Portfolio Collateral to enforce the Issuer's rights under the Underlying Instruments governing such Defaulted

Portfolio Collateral and any applicable law, rule or regulation in any manner permitted under the Indenture that the Servicer has determined in its reasonable judgment shall be in the best interests of the Holders of the Securities. In the event any Offer is made with respect to any Portfolio Collateral, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, may take such action as is permitted by the Indenture and that the Servicer has determined in its reasonable judgment shall be in the best interests of the Holders of the Securities.

(b) In connection with taking or omitting any action under the Indenture or this Agreement, the Servicer may consult with counsel and may rely in good faith on the advice of such counsel or any opinion of counsel.

Any corporation, partnership or limited liability company into which the Servicer may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Servicer shall be a party, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company succeeding to all or substantially all of the asset servicing and collateral management business of the Servicer, shall be the successor to the Servicer without any further action by the Servicer, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Noteholders or any other person or entity.

31. Limitation of Liabilities.

The Issuer's obligations hereunder are solely the corporate obligations of the Issuer and the Servicer shall not have any recourse to any of the directors, officers, shareholders, members or incorporators of the Issuer with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby. The obligations of the Issuer hereunder shall be limited to the net proceeds of the Collateral, if any, and following realization of the Collateral and its application in accordance with the Indenture, any outstanding obligations of the Issuer hereunder shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. The provisions of this section shall survive termination of this Agreement.

32. Consent to Posting of Documents on Repository.

The Servicer hereby consents to (i) the posting of the final Offering Circular and the Indenture (collectively, the "Documents") and the periodic reports to be delivered pursuant to the Documents and any amendments or other modifications thereto on the Repository (as such term is defined in the Indenture) for use in the manner provided in the Repository; and (ii) the display of its name on the Repository in connection therewith.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

ANNEX 1

Certain Tax Provisions

Unless otherwise noted, references to the Issuer in this Annex 1 include the Servicer and any other person acting on the Issuer's behalf. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein will have the meanings ascribed to them in the Indenture.

For purposes of this Annex 1,

“Affiliate” means, with respect to a specified Person, (a) any other Person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the specified Person and (b) any Person that is a member, director, officer or employee of (i) the specified Person or (ii) a Person described in clause (a) of this definition; and “Person” means an individual, a corporation, a limited liability company, a partnership, an association, a trust or any other entity or organization, including a government or political subdivision or an agency or instrumentality thereof.

Section I. General Restrictions.

As provided in this Annex 1, the Issuer shall only purchase debt securities, interests in loans and other assets (each a “Portfolio Collateral”) only in secondary-market transactions and shall not engage in any lending or underwriting activities or otherwise participate in the structuring or origination of any Portfolio Collateral.

A. Communications and Negotiations.

1. The Issuer will not have any communications or negotiations with the obligor of a Portfolio Collateral or a Reference Obligation (directly or indirectly through an intermediary such as the seller of such Portfolio Collateral or the Synthetic Security) in connection with the issuance or funding of such Portfolio Collateral or Reference Obligation or commitments with respect thereto, except for communications of an immaterial nature or customary due diligence communications; provided, that the Servicer may provide comments as to mistakes or inconsistencies in loan documents (including with respect to any provisions that are inconsistent with the terms and conditions of purchase of the loan by the Issuer).

2. By way of example, permitted due diligence activities may include, but are not limited to, (a) attendance at an obligor's general “roadshow” or other presentations to investment professionals, (b) direct private discussions with personnel of the obligor, arranged by a sponsor, lead bank or other arranger, and (c) other due diligence activities of the kind customarily performed by offerees of the type of Portfolio Collateral being offered, but may not include any negotiations with the obligor, employees or agents of the obligor of any terms or conditions of the Portfolio Collateral being offered.

3. Negotiations between the Servicer and the underwriter, placement agent or broker of Portfolio Collateral are permitted solely to the extent that they are limited to responses to customary pre-offering period and offering period inquiries by the underwriter or placement agent (e.g., “If we offered you 10-year senior subordinated bonds of XYZ company, what spread would it require to interest you?” or “If you will not buy the bonds as offered, would you buy if we convinced the obligor to add a fixed charge coverage test?”). For purposes of this Section I.A., “negotiations” shall not include (i) commenting on offering documents to an unrelated underwriter or placement agent when the ability to comment was generally available to other investors, or (ii) communicating certain objective criteria (such as the minimum yield or maturity) the Issuer generally uses in purchasing the relevant type of Portfolio Collateral.

4. The Issuer may consent or otherwise act with respect to amendments, supplements or other modifications of the terms of any Portfolio Collateral (other than a Subsidiary Obligation (as defined in Section III)) requiring consent or action after the date on which any such Portfolio Collateral is acquired by the Issuer if (a) such amendment, supplement or modification would not constitute a Significant Modification (as defined below), (b) (i) in the reasonable judgment of the Servicer, the obligor is in financial distress and such change in terms is desirable to protect the Issuer’s interest in such Portfolio Collateral and (ii) the Portfolio Collateral is described in clause 5(b) of this Section I.A., (c) the amendment or modification would not be treated as the acquisition of a new Portfolio Collateral under paragraph 5 of this Section I.A., or (d) otherwise, if it has received advice of counsel that its involvement in such amendment, supplement or modification will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States.

A “Significant Modification” means any amendment, supplement or other modification that involves (a) a change in the stated maturity or a change in the timing of any material payment of any Portfolio Collateral (including deferral of an interest payment), that would materially alter the weighted average life of the Portfolio Collateral, (b) any change (whether positive or negative) in the yield on the Portfolio Collateral immediately prior to the modification in excess of the greater of (i) 25 basis points or (ii) 5 percent of such unmodified yield, (c) any change involving a material new extension of credit, (d) a change in the obligor of any Portfolio Collateral (as determined for purposes of section 1001 of the Code), or (e) a material change in the collateral or security for any Portfolio Collateral, including the addition or deletion of a co-obligor or guarantor that results in a material change in payment expectations.

5. In the event the Issuer owns an interest in a Portfolio Collateral the terms of which are subsequently amended or modified, or in the case of a workout situation not described in Section III hereof, which Portfolio Collateral is subsequently exchanged for new obligations or other securities of the obligor of the Portfolio Collateral, such amendments or modifications or exchange will not be treated as the acquisition of an interest in a new Portfolio Collateral for purposes of this Annex 1, provided, that (a) the Issuer does not, directly or indirectly (through the Servicer or otherwise), seek the amendments or modifications or the exchange, or participate in negotiating the amendments or modifications or the exchange, and (b) at the time of original acquisition of the interest in the Portfolio Collateral, it was not reasonably anticipated that the terms of the Portfolio Collateral would, pursuant to a workout or other negotiation, subsequently be amended or modified.

B. Fees. The Issuer will not earn or receive from any Person any fee or other compensation for services, however denominated, in connection with its purchase or sale of a Portfolio Collateral or entering into a Synthetic Security; the foregoing prohibition shall not be construed to preclude the Issuer from receiving (i) commitment fees or facility maintenance fees that are received by the Issuer in connection with revolving or delayed drawdown Loans; (ii) yield maintenance and prepayment penalty fees; (iii) fees on account of the Issuer’s consenting to amendments, waivers or other modifications of the terms of any Portfolio Collateral; (iv) fees from permitted securities lending; or (v) upfront payments in lieu of periodic payments under a Synthetic Security. The Issuer will not provide services to any Person; the foregoing prohibition shall not be construed to preclude the Issuer from activities relating to the receipt of income described in (i) through (v) of the preceding sentence.

Section II. Loans and Forward Purchase Commitments.

A. Any understanding or commitment to purchase a loan, a participation, a loan subparticipation or a collateralized loan obligation (collectively, “Loans”) from a seller before completion of the closing and full funding of the Loan by such seller shall only be made pursuant to a forward sale agreement at an agreed price (stated as a dollar amount or as a percentage) (a “Forward Purchase Commitment”), unless such an understanding or commitment is not legally binding and neither the Issuer nor the Servicer is economically compelled (e.g., would otherwise be subject to a significant monetary penalty) to purchase the Loan following the completion of the closing and full funding of the Loan (i.e., the Servicer will make an independent decision whether to purchase such Loan on behalf of the Issuer after completion of the closing of the Loan) (a “Non-Binding Agreement”).

B. No Forward Purchase Commitment or Non-Binding Agreement shall be made until after the seller (or a transferor to such seller of such Loan) has made a legally binding commitment to fully fund such Loan to the obligor thereof (subject to customary conditions), which commitment cannot be conditioned on the Issuer’s ultimate purchase of such Loan from such seller.

C. In the event of any reduced or eliminated funding, the Issuer shall not receive any premium, fee, or other compensation in connection with having entered into the Forward Purchase Commitment or Non-Binding Agreement.

D. The Issuer shall not close any purchase of a Loan subject to a Forward Purchase Commitment or a Non-Binding Agreement earlier than 48 hours after the time of the closing of the Loan (i.e., execution of definitive documentation), and, in the case of a Forward Purchase Commitment, the Issuer’s obligation to purchase such Loan is subject to the condition that no material adverse change has occurred in the financial condition of the Loan’s obligor or the relevant market on or before the relevant purchase date.

E. The Issuer cannot have a contractual relationship with the borrower with respect to a Loan until the Issuer actually purchases the Loan.

F. The Issuer cannot be a signatory on the original lending agreement, and cannot be obligated to fund an assignment of or a participation in a Loan, prior to the time specified in subsection D above.

G. The Issuer will not purchase any Portfolio Collateral or enter into any Forward Purchase Commitment or Non-Binding Agreement as to which it knows that the seller or counterparty has acted or described itself as acting as the Issuer’s agent in purchasing the Portfolio Collateral or in making or committing to make the loan to which the Forward Purchase Commitment or Non-Binding Agreement relates, and for the avoidance of doubt no such sale or agreement shall be entered into with the understanding that the seller or counterparty will disclose to the borrower the Issuer’s intention to purchase the underlying Loan prior to execution of final legal documentation of the Loan.

H. The Issuer shall not purchase an item of Portfolio Collateral unless the purchase occurs after 48 hours from the closing and execution of final documentation with respect to such item.

Section III. Distressed Debt Obligations.

A. The Issuer may only purchase a Debt Instrument that is a Potential Workout Obligation to the extent permitted by this Section III.

B. The Issuer shall not purchase a Subsidiary Obligation from any Issuer Subsidiary.

C. Special Procedures for Subsidiary Obligations.

1. Potential Workout Obligations. On or prior to the date of acquisition, the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall identify each Portfolio Collateral that is a Potential Workout Obligation.

2. Transfer of Subsidiary Obligations. From and after the occurrence of a Workout Determination Date with respect to a Subsidiary Obligation, the Issuer shall not knowingly take any action in respect of such Subsidiary Obligation that may result in the Issuer being engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for United States federal income tax purposes. As soon as practicable, but in any event within 30 calendar days following a Workout Determination Date, the Servicer shall cause the Issuer either (i) to sell or dispose of any Subsidiary Obligation identified on such Workout Determination Date to a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Issuer or Servicer or (ii) to assign any Subsidiary Obligation identified on such Workout Determination Date to an Issuer Subsidiary.

For purposes of this Annex 1, an “Issuer Subsidiary” means any wholly-owned corporate subsidiary of the Issuer to which a Special Workout Obligation may be transferred in accordance with this Annex 1.

3. Consideration for Assignment of Subsidiary Obligations. Consideration given by an Issuer Subsidiary for the assignment to it of Subsidiary Obligations may be in the form of cash or in the form of indebtedness of, or equity interests in, such Issuer Subsidiary.

4. Classification of Issuer Subsidiaries. Each Issuer Subsidiary shall be an entity treated as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes.

As used herein:

“Potential Workout Obligation” means any debt instrument (any such instrument, including an interest in a Loan, a “Debt Instrument”) which, as of the date of acquisition by the Issuer or an Issuer Subsidiary, based on information specific to such Debt Instrument or the circumstances of the obligor thereof, is a Workout Obligation or, in the reasonable determination of the Servicer, has a materially higher likelihood of becoming a Workout Obligation as compared to debt obligations that par or other non-distressed debt purchasers or funds customarily purchase and expect to hold to maturity.

“Subsidiary Obligation” means any Potential Workout Obligation (a) as to which the Issuer on any Workout Determination Date either (i) owns more than 40% of the aggregate principal amount of such class of Potential Workout Obligation outstanding or (ii) is one of the two largest holders of any class of debt of the issuer of such Potential Workout Obligation (based on the outstanding principal amount of such class of debt owned by the Issuer as a percentage of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of such class of debt) unless not fewer than three other holders and the Issuer collectively own at least 65% of such class of debt and, if the Issuer is the largest holder of such class, the Issuer's percentage of such class does not exceed the percentage held by the next largest holder of the debt by more than 5% of such class or (b) that would, upon foreclosure or exercise of similar legal remedies, result in the Issuer directly owning assets (other than securities treated as debt, equity in a partnership not engaged in a trade or business within the United States, or corporate equity for United States federal income tax purposes, provided in the case of corporate equity that the corporation is not a "United States real property holding corporation" within the meaning of section 897 of the Code) which are "United States real property interests" within the meaning of section 897 of the Code or which the Servicer reasonably expects it would, on behalf of the Issuer, be required to actively manage to preserve the value of the Issuer's interest therein; provided that a Potential Workout Obligation shall not be treated as a Subsidiary Obligation if the Issuer obtains a Tax Opinion that, based on all the surrounding circumstances, the activities in which the Issuer intends to engage with respect to such Potential Workout Obligation will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes.

"Workout Determination Date" means any date on which, in connection with the occurrence of any event described in clauses (a) through (c), inclusive, of the definition of Workout Obligation, either (a) any material action by the Issuer is required to be taken, (b) the Servicer receives written notice that such material action shall be required or (c) the Servicer reasonably determines that the taking of such material action is likely to be required.

"Workout Obligation" means any Debt Instrument as to which the Issuer (a) consents to a Significant Modification in connection with the workout of a defaulted Portfolio Collateral, (b) participates in an official or unofficial committee or similar official or unofficial body in connection with a bankruptcy, reorganization, restructuring or similar proceeding, or (c) exercises, or has exercised, rights of foreclosure or similar judicial remedies.

Section IV. Purchases from the Servicer or its Affiliates.

A. If the Servicer or an Affiliate of the Servicer acted as an underwriter, placement or other agent, arranger, negotiator or structuror, or received any fee for services (it being understood that receipts described in clauses (i) through (v) of Section I.B. are not construed as so treated), in connection with the issuance or origination of a Portfolio Collateral or was a member of the original lending syndicate with respect to the Portfolio Collateral (any such Portfolio Collateral, a "Special Procedures Obligation"), the Issuer will not acquire any interest in such Special Procedures Obligation (including entering into a commitment or agreement, whether or not legally binding or enforceable, to acquire such obligation directly or synthetically), from (x) the Servicer or (y) an Affiliate of the Servicer, or a fund managed by the Servicer, unless, in the case of (y) only, (i) the Special Procedures Obligation has been outstanding for at least 90 days, (ii) the holder of the Special Procedures Obligation did not identify the obligation or security as intended for sale to the Issuer within 90 days of its issuance, (iii) the price paid for such Special Procedures Obligation by the Issuer is its fair market value at the time of acquisition by the Issuer, and (iv) the transaction is proposed to, and the ultimate purchase is approved on behalf of the Issuer by, one or more Independent Advisors to the Issuer in accordance with the provisions of Section IV.B. below. The Issuer will not acquire any Special Procedures Obligation if, immediately following such acquisition, the fair market value of all Special Procedures Obligations owned by the Issuer would constitute more than 49% of the fair market value of all of the Issuer's assets at such time.

B. An "Independent Advisor" is a Person who is not an Affiliate of the Issuer, the Servicer or any fund serviced or managed by the Servicer.

1. The Issuer may not purchase or commit to enter into any such Special Procedures Obligation without prior approval by an Independent Advisor. If the Independent Advisor declines to approve a proposed Special Procedures Obligation, at least three months must elapse before any proposal with respect to a purchase of debt or other obligations of the same obligor is proposed or considered.

2. The Issuer shall engage the Independent Advisor in an agreement the terms of which shall in substantial form set forth:

(a) the representation of the Independent Advisor, which the Servicer shall not know to be incorrect, that it has significant financial and commercial expertise, including substantial expertise and knowledge in and of the loan market and related investment arenas;

(b) the agreement between the Independent Advisor, the Issuer and the Servicer generally to the effect that (i) the Independent Advisor will operate pursuant to procedures consistent with maintaining his or her independence from the Servicer and its Affiliates, (ii) the Independent Advisor will have the sole authority and discretion to approve or reject acquisition proposals made by the Servicer with respect to any Special Procedures Obligation, (iii) all proposals for the Issuer to acquire any Special Procedures Obligation will be first submitted to the Independent Advisor, (iii) the Servicer will prepare the materials it deems necessary to describe the Special Procedures Obligation to the Independent Advisor, (iv) the Investment Advisor will not be required to make any decision to accept or decline a Special Procedures Obligation at the price offered prior to its review of the materials prepared, plus any additional information requested by the Independent Advisor, and (v) no Independent Advisor may be proposed to be removed or replaced by the Servicer, unless for cause or in the event of a resignation of such Independent Advisor; and

(c) such other commercially reasonable terms and conditions, including terms and conditions to the effect that (i) the Independent Advisor will be paid a reasonable fee for its services plus reimbursement of any reasonable expenses incurred in performance of his or her responsibilities, (ii) the Independent Advisor may be removed or replaced only by a majority (whether by positive act or failure to object) of the probable equity owners (as determined for United States federal income tax purposes) of the Issuer, (iii) if at any time there is more than one Independent Advisor to the Issuer, a majority of such Independent Advisors must approve any Special Procedures Obligation subject to Independent Advisor approval, (iv) an Independent Advisor may not engage, directly or indirectly, in the negotiation of the terms of any Special Procedures Obligation to be acquired by the Issuer (provided however, that an Independent Advisor may negotiate with the Servicer or the seller with respect to the price and terms of the Issuer's purchase of the Special Procedures Obligation, provided further that the Independent Advisor will not make suggestions to the Servicer or any other person about alternative or modified terms of the underlying Special Procedures Obligation on which they might be willing to approve such a Special Procedures Obligation).

3. Any servicing agreement or other document under which the Servicer is granted signatory powers or other authority on behalf of the Issuer will provide that such powers or authority with respect to Special Procedures Obligations are conditioned upon the prior written approval of the Independent Advisor

4. No Special Procedures Obligation will be presented to an Independent Advisor until at least 90 days have elapsed since the later of (a) the execution of final documentation and (b) the funding in whole or part of the Special Procedures Obligation and there will have been no commitment or arrangement prior to that time that the Issuer will acquire any such Special Procedures Obligation; provided, further, that if the person from whom the Issuer will acquire the Special Procedures Obligation is an Affiliate of the Servicer, the 90 day period specified in this clause (4) will be extended by such number of days as the Affiliate does not enjoy substantially all of the benefits and burdens of ownership (for example, because it has hedged its credit exposure to the Special Procedures Obligation).

5. The Issuer will have no obligation to, or understanding that it will refund, reimburse or indemnify any person (including an Affiliate of the Servicer), directly or indirectly, for “breakage” costs or other costs or expenses incurred by such person if the Independent Advisor determines that the Issuer should decline to purchase any Special Procedures Obligation.

6. Neither the Servicer nor any Affiliate of the Servicer will have any authority to enter into agreements, or take any action, on behalf of the Issuer with respect to Special Procedures Obligations without the prior written approval of an Independent Advisor. Except as may be conditioned upon such prior written approval, neither the Servicer nor any Affiliate of the Servicer may hold itself out as having signatory powers on behalf of the Issuer or authority to enter into agreements with respect to Special Procedures Obligations on behalf of the Issuer.

Section V. Synthetic Securities.

A. The Issuer shall not (i) acquire or enter into any Synthetic Security with respect to any Reference Obligation the direct acquisition of which would violate any provision of this Annex 1 or (ii) use Synthetic Securities as a means of making advances to the Synthetic Security Counterparty following the date on which the Synthetic Security is acquired or entered into (for the avoidance of doubt, the establishment of Synthetic Security collateral accounts and the payment of Synthetic Security Counterparties from the amounts on deposit therein, shall not constitute the making of advances).

B. With respect to each Synthetic Security, the Issuer will not acquire or enter into any Synthetic Security which does not satisfy all of the following additional criteria unless the Servicer has first received advice of counsel that the ownership and disposition of such Synthetic Security would not cause the Issuer to be engaged in a trade or business within the United States for United States federal income tax purposes:

1. the criteria used to determine whether to enter into any particular Synthetic Security was similar to the criteria used by the Servicer in making decisions to acquire debt securities;

2. the Synthetic Security is acquired by or entered into by the Issuer for its own account and for investment purposes with the expectation of realizing a profit from income earned on the securities (and any potential rise in their value during the interval of time between their purchase and sale) or hedging purposes and not with an intention to trade or to sell for a short-term profit;

3. the Issuer enters into the Synthetic Security with a counterparty that is not a special purpose vehicle and is a broker-dealer or that holds itself out as in the business of entering into such contracts;

4. neither the Issuer nor any Person acting on behalf of the Issuer advertises or publishes the Issuer's ability to enter into Synthetic Securities;

5. except with respect to (x) credit-linked notes or similar Synthetic Securities and (y) any other Synthetic Securities where standard form ISDA documentation is not applicable, the Synthetic Security is written on standard form ISDA documentation;

6. the net payment from the Issuer to the Synthetic Security Counterparty is not determined based on an actual loss incurred by the Synthetic Security Counterparty or any other designated person;

7. there exists no agreement, arrangement or understanding that (i) the Synthetic Security Counterparty is required to own or hold the related Reference Obligation while the Synthetic Security remains in effect or (ii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty is economically or practically compelled to own or hold the related physical Reference Obligation while the Synthetic Security remains in effect;

8. the Synthetic Security provides for (i) all cash settlement, (ii) all physical settlement or (iii) the option to either cash settle or physically settle; provided that, in the latter two cases, physical settlement provides the settling party the right to settle the Synthetic Security by delivering deliverable obligations which may include the Reference Obligation and the settling party must not be required to deliver the related Reference Obligation upon the settlement of such Synthetic Security.

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, a Synthetic Security providing for physical settlement may require a party to deliver the related Reference Obligation if either:

(i) at the time the Issuer enters into such Synthetic Security, such Reference Obligation is readily available to purchasers generally in a liquid market; or

(ii) the advice of both United States federal income tax and insurance counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters is that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such Synthetic Security, the acquisition of such Synthetic Security will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis and should not cause the Issuer to be treated as writing insurance in the United States under the law of the state in which the Synthetic Security Counterparty is organized.

9. the Synthetic Security is not treated by the Issuer as insurance or a financial guarantee sold by the Issuer for United States or Cayman Islands regulatory purposes.

As used herein:

"Reference Obligation" means a debt security or other obligation upon which a Synthetic Security is based.

"Synthetic Security" means any swap transaction or security, other than a participation interest in a Loan, that has payments associated with either payments of interest and/or principal on a Reference Obligation or the credit performance of a Reference Obligation.

“Synthetic Security Counterparty” means an entity (other than the Issuer) required to make payments on a Synthetic Security (including any guarantor).

Section VI. Other Types of Assets.

A. Equity Restrictions. The Issuer will not purchase any asset (directly or synthetically) that is:

1. not treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as debt if the issuing entity is a “partnership” (within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(2) of the Code) unless such entity is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States, or

2. a “United States real property interest” as defined in section 897 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

The Issuer may cause an Issuer Subsidiary to acquire assets set forth in clause (i) or (ii) above (each, an “ETB/897 Asset”) in connection with the workout of defaulted Portfolio Collateral, so long as the acquisition of ETB/897 Assets by such Issuer Subsidiary will not cause the stock of such Issuer Subsidiary to be deemed to be an ETB/897 Asset.

B. Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans. All of the terms of any advance required to be made by the Issuer under any revolving or delayed drawdown Loan will be fixed as of the date of the Issuer’s purchase thereof (or will be determinable under a formula that is fixed as of such date), and the Issuer and the Servicer will not have any discretion (except for consenting or withholding consent to amendments, waivers or other modifications or granting customary waivers upon default) as to whether to make advances under such revolving or delayed drawdown Loan. Further, the Issuer shall not purchase any item of Portfolio Collateral that requires the Issuer in any manner whatsoever to acquire new Portfolio Collateral from the borrower or otherwise lend, advance or provide new funds to the borrower unless the addition of such Portfolio Collateral would not cause 10% or more of the aggregate principal amount of the Portfolio Collateral owned by the Issuer to be considered revolving or delayed drawdown loans.

C. Securities Lending Agreements. The Issuer will not purchase any Portfolio Collateral primarily for the purpose of entering into a securities lending agreement with respect thereto.

Section VII. General Restrictions on the Issuer. The Issuer itself shall not:

A. hold itself out, through advertising or otherwise, as originating Loans, lending funds, or making a market in or dealing in Loans or other assets;

E. treat Synthetic Securities as insurance, reinsurance, indemnity bonds, guaranties, guaranty bonds or suretyship contracts for any purpose;

F. allow any non-U.S. bank or lending institution who is a holder of a Security to control or direct the Servicer's or Issuer's decision to acquire a particular asset except as otherwise allowed to such a holder, acting in that capacity, under the related indenture or acquire a Portfolio Collateral conditioned upon a particular person or entity holding Securities;

The Preference Shares will receive as dividends certain amounts available for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Priority of Payments. See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

The Notes will be subject to Optional Redemption in whole, but not in part, on any Payment Date upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period, in each case at the direction of the Holders of at least 63% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares. See "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption," "—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes," "—Special Redemption of Notes If the Portfolio Manager Does Not Identify Investments as Contemplated by the Indenture" and "—Priority of Payments." The principal amount of the Notes and the Composite Securities will be payable at the Stated Maturity, unless redeemed or paid in full prior thereto. The Preference Shares are scheduled to be redeemed at their Redemption Price on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, unless redeemed prior thereto.

Certain pledged assets of the Issuer are the sole source of payments on the Securities. <sup>1</sup> The Class 1 Composite Securities shall consist of the Preference Share Component and the Class 1 Component. The portions of the interest in the Treasury Strip and the Preference Shares that comprise the Class 1 Composite Securities are not separately transferable. On the Composite Security Payment Date, the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities will be entitled to receive the proceeds from the sale of the portion of the Treasury Strip with respect to such Composite Securities Payment Date and a pro rata share of the distribution on the Preference Shares on such date. No other payments will be made on the Class 1 Composite Securities.

<sup>6</sup> Upon the termination of the Policy, the Note Interest Rate for the Class A-1g Notes shall be LIBOR + 0.25% + the Premium Rate (the "Step-Up Note Interest Rate"). See "Description of the Securities—Termination of the Policy."

<sup>7</sup> The Stated Maturity of the Notes and the Composite Securities and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date of the Preference Shares are subject to multiple extensions to the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date (in the case of the Notes and the Composite Securities) and the applicable Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date (in the case of the Preference Shares), if the Issuer provides timely notice and the Extension Conditions are satisfied. See "Risk Factors—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary," "A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected," "Maturity and Prepayment Considerations" and "Description of the Securities—Extension of the Reinvestment Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date."

The Notes will be limited recourse obligations of the Co-Issuers and the Composite Securities will be limited recourse obligations of the Issuer. The Notes and the Composite Securities will be issued pursuant to the Indenture.

The Preference Shares will be part of the issued share capital of the Issuer and, accordingly, will not be secured obligations of the Issuer. JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association will act as the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the Preference Shares and will perform various administrative services pursuant to a Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, dated as of the Closing Date (the "Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement") by and between the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent, as amended from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof.

Payments to each Holder of the Notes of each Class shall be made ratably among the Holders of the Notes of that Class in proportion to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes of such Class held by each Holder (treating the Class A-1a Notes, the Class A-1b Notes, the Class A-1g Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3a Notes and the Class A-3b Notes as separate Classes for this purpose). Payments to each Holder of the Preference Shares shall be made ratably among the Holders of the Preference Shares in proportion to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of such Preference Shares held by each Holder.

Except as provided under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments," the Senior Class A Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class A-2 Notes; the Class A-2 Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class A-3 Notes; the Class A-3 Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class B Notes; the Class B Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Class C Notes; and the Class C Notes will be senior in right of interest and principal payments on each Payment Date to the Preference Shares.

The Class 1 Composite Securities consist of (i) a Preference Share Component entitling its holders to rights in respect of 2,000 Preference Shares and (ii) a Class 1 Component entitling its holders to rights to receive proceeds from a trust account initially holding a United States Treasury strip security maturing on November 15, 2016 with a principal amount at maturity of U.S.$6,000,000.

The Securities and certain other obligations of the Co-Issuers will have the priorities of payment described under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

Co-Issuers ..... The Issuer has been incorporated and exists under the laws of the Cayman Islands. Pursuant to the Indenture, the Issuer's activities are limited to acquiring Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments, entering into any Hedge Agreements, issuing the Securities and entering into certain related transactions.

The Co-Issuer is organized under the laws of the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of co-issuing the Notes.

The Issuer will not have any significant assets other than Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, any Hedge Agreement and certain other eligible assets. The Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, the rights of the Issuer under any Hedge Agreements and other collateral will be pledged to the Trustee as security for, among other things, the Issuer's obligations under the Notes and the Class 1 Collateral will be pledged to the Trustee as security solely for the benefit of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities.

The Co-Issuer is not expected to have any significant assets and will not pledge any assets to secure the Notes. The Co-Issuer will have no claim against the Issuer in respect of the Collateral Obligations or otherwise.

Portfolio Manager ..... Certain advisory and management functions with respect to the Collateral will be performed by Highland Capital Management, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("Highland Capital" or, in such capacity, the "Portfolio Manager"). On the Closing Date, the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates are expected to purchase Preference Shares having an aggregate Face Amount equal to U.S.$13,200,000. Under the Portfolio Management Agreement, the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates will maintain, in the aggregate, ownership of Preference Shares having an aggregate Face Amount of at least $10,000,000 until the earlier of such time as:

- (i) none of the Notes are Outstanding; or
- (ii) Highland Capital is removed or resigns as Portfolio Manager and such removal or resignation has become effective in accordance with the Portfolio Management Agreement.

The Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates may also acquire Preference Shares upon the occurrence of (i) the Amendment Buy-Out Option and (ii) a proposed removal of the Portfolio Manager by the Directing Preference Shares. In addition, the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates may acquire the Class A-1g Notes upon the occurrence of the Removal Buy-Out Option. In addition, the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates may acquire all or any portion of any Extension Sale Securities in connection with a Maturity Extension. See "The Portfolio Manager," "Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities," "—Relating to the Portfolio Manager" and "—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Portfolio Manager," "Description of the Securities—Amendment Buy-Out," "—Removal Buy-Out," "Description of the Securities—Extension of the Reinvestment Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date" and "The Management Agreement."

Insurer ..... As Insurer, Assured Guaranty Corp., a Maryland-domiciled insurance corporation ("Assured Guaranty"), will issue the Policy for the benefit of the Holders of the Insured Notes, pursuant to which it will irrevocably and unconditionally guarantee the Insured Amounts on the Insured Notes. No other Class of Securities will be entitled to the benefits of the Policy. See "The Insurer and the Policy."

The Indenture provides that, as the "Controlling Class," the Insurer, and not the Holders of the Insured Notes, will have certain voting rights under the Indenture at all times prior to the payment in full of the Class A-1g Notes and all amounts owing to the Insurer in accordance with the Insurance Agreement so long as no Insurer Default has occurred and is continuing. In addition, the Insurer will have certain other rights under the Insurance Agreement, including rights to declare events of default thereunder in certain circumstances, which events of default will constitute Events of Default under the Indenture. See "Risk Factors—Insurer as Controlling Class," "Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default" and "The Insurer and the Policy—The Policy."

Use of Proceeds ..... The gross proceeds of the offering of the Securities received on the Closing Date are expected to equal approximately $689,000,000 and will be used by the Issuer to:

- purchase a portfolio of Collateral Obligations;
- fund a trust account for Revolving Loans (the "Revolving Reserve Account") and a trust account for Delayed Drawdown Loans (the "Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account") to cover any future draws on Revolving Loans and Delayed Drawdown Loans;
- enter into any Hedge Agreements, as applicable;
- enter into any Securities Lending Agreements (and correspondingly to fund the Securities Lending Account);
- enter into any Synthetic Security Agreements (and correspondingly to fund the related accounts);

- repurchase and terminate Participations outstanding under the Warehouse Agreement (at a price reflecting the price originally paid by the Issuer to acquire the Warehoused Loans, plus the amount of extensions of credit in respect of certain Warehoused Loans, minus the aggregate amount of payments of principal received by the Warehouse Provider in respect of such Warehoused Loans (excluding the amount of any such payment that was required to be repaid or returned by the Warehouse Provider by claw-back or otherwise), plus all accrued and unpaid interest and fees on the Warehoused Loans;
- fund the Closing Date Expense Account and the Interest Reserve Account;
- purchase the Treasury Strip for deposit into the Class 1 Component Account;
- pay an arrangement and advisory fee to Sumitomo Trust & Banking Co., Ltd.; and
- undertake certain related activities.

See "Use of Proceeds."

Payment Dates..... Payment of interest on, and principal of, the Notes will be made by the Issuer in U.S. Dollars on the first day of each February, May, August and November of each year (or if such day is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day), commencing August 1, 2005, to the extent of available cash flow in respect of the Collateral in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Interest Payments and Payments of Dividends from Interest

Proceeds..... The Notes will accrue interest from the Closing Date. Interest on the Notes will be payable, to the extent of funds available therefor, on each Payment Date.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of interest due on such Class of Deferred Interest Notes that is not available to be paid ("Deferred Interest") in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered "payable" for the purposes of the Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments. To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest), until paid. See "Description of the Securities—Interest Payments on the Notes and Payments of Dividends on the Preference Shares from Interest Proceeds," "—Priority of Payments" and "—The Indenture—Events of Default."

On each Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date), the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Interest Proceeds as described under clauses (18), (21) and (23) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds."

On each Payment Date on which distributions are made in respect of the Preference Shares, a portion of such payment will be allocated to the Class 1 Composite Securities in the proportion that the aggregate Face Amount of the Preference Share Component bears to the aggregate Face Amount of the Preference Shares. The payment of distributions, redemption amounts and any other payments on the Class 1 Composite Securities will be distributed in the same manner as the Preference Shares to which the Preference Share Component relates, except that such payment will be made on the Composite Securities Payment Date. See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

On each Composite Securities Payment Date, the Trustee will disburse (solely from amounts in the Class 1 Component Account attributable to the proceeds from the sale of the Treasury Strip as described in "Description of the Securities—Class 1 Component Distributions") to the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, pro rata based on their share of the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance, the proceeds from the sale of the Treasury Strip relating to such Composite Securities Payment Date. See "Description of the Securities—Class 1 Component Distribution."

Principal Payments and Distributions from Principal Proceeds.....

The Notes and the Composite Securities will mature at par on the Payment Date in February, 2017 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date (the "Stated Maturity") and the Preference Shares are scheduled to be redeemed at the Redemption Price thereof by the Issuer on the Payment Date in February, 2017 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date (the "Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date"), in each case unless redeemed or (in the case of the Notes) repaid in full prior thereto. The average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years from issuance until Stated Maturity for such Notes. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary," "—A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected" and "Maturity and Prepayment Considerations."

In general, principal payments will not be made on the Notes before the end of the Reinvestment Period, except in the following circumstances:

- in connection with an Optional Redemption;
- at the option of the Portfolio Manager, to effect a Special Redemption of the Notes;
- pursuant to a redemption made in connection with a Tax Event; or
- following a mandatory redemption of the Notes caused by a failure to meet any of the Coverage Tests or a Rating Confirmation Failure.

See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments," "—Optional Redemption," "—Special Redemption of the Notes If the Portfolio Manager Does Not Identify Investments as Contemplated by the Indenture," "—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes" and "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Ramp-Up."

No payments of principal will be made on the Class A-2 Notes until the principal of the Senior Class A Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class A-3 Notes until the principal of the Senior Class A Notes and the Class A-2 Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class B Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes has been paid in full. No payments of principal will be made on the Class C Notes until the principal of the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes has been paid in full. However, Principal Proceeds may be used to pay Deferred Interest and other amounts before the payment of principal of the Notes. See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

No principal of any Class of Notes will be payable on any Payment Date other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and to the extent funds are available therefor on that Payment Date for that purpose, except that the principal of each Class of Notes will be payable in full at the Stated Maturity, unless repaid before that.

On each Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date), the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Principal Proceeds as described under clauses (6)(A), (9) and (10) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds."

On each Payment Date on which distributions are made in respect of the Preference Shares, a portion of such payment will be allocated to the Class 1 Composite Securities in the proportion that the aggregate Face Amount of the Preference Share Component bears to the aggregate Face Amount of the Preference Shares. The payment of distributions, redemption amounts and any other payments on the Class 1 Composite Securities will be distributed in the same manner as the Preference Shares to which the Preference Share Component relates, except that such payment will be made on the Composite Securities Payment Date. See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

For a description of the relative priority of payments and level of subordination of the Securities and certain fees, expenses and other liabilities of the Co-Issuers, see "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

Extension of the Reinvestment Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date .....

The Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Reinvestment Period to the applicable Extended Reinvestment Period End Date if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously affected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Reinvestment Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. For purposes of the foregoing, "Extension Effective Date" means if an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extension Effective Date (or, in the case of the first Extension Effective Date, the Payment Date in May, 2010) and "Extended Reinvestment Period End Date" means, if an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Reinvestment Period End Date (or, in the case of the first Extension, the Payment Date in May, 2016).

If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Notes and the Composite Securities shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents (the "Maturity Extension"). For purposes of the foregoing, "Extended Stated Maturity Date" means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Stated Maturity Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Stated Maturity Date, the Payment Date in February, 2021) and "Extended Weighted Average Life Date" means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Weighted Average Life Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Weighted Average Life Date, March 15, 2018).

As a condition to a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes, Composite Securities or Preference Shares will have the right to offer to sell their Notes, Composite Securities or Preference Shares to one or more Extension Qualifying Purchasers for purchase on the applicable Extension Effective Date.

If all Extension Conditions are satisfied and a Maturity Extension is effected, each Holder of a Note, other than Extension Sale Securities, and the Insurer (so long as the Policy has not been terminated) will be entitled to receive the applicable Extension Bonus Payment, in each case to the extent of available funds and as provided in the Priority of Payments. Holders of Composite Securities and Preference Shares will not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

If all Extension Conditions are satisfied, other than obtaining the consent of the Insurer to such Extension, and the Insurer has and continues to object to such Extension, so long as there are no Accrued Insurance Liabilities outstanding on the related Payment Date, the Policy may be terminated by the Holders of 100% of the Class A-1g Notes (after giving effect to the sale of any Insured Notes which are Extension Sale Securities in connection with the proposed Maturity Extension). Upon such termination of the Policy, the Note Interest Rate in respect of the Class A-1g Notes will be the Step-Up Note Interest Rate.

See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary," "—A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected," "Maturity and Prepayment Considerations," "Description of the Securities—Extension of the Reinvestment Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date" and "Description of the Securities—Termination of the Policy."

Security for the Notes and the #### Composite Securities .....

The Notes will be secured by a portfolio having an Aggregate Principal Balance following the Ramp-Up Period of approximately U.S.$663,000,000 (in principal amount) and consisting primarily of Collateral Obligations and certain other debt securities, in each case having the characteristics set forth herein. The Notes will also be secured by funds on deposit in the Issuer Accounts, the Issuer's rights under any Hedge Agreements, any Securities Lending Agreements, the Management Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement and, solely for the benefit of the Holders of the Class A-1g Notes only, the Insurance Documents. For the avoidance of any doubt, the Collateral shall not include the Class 1 Collateral or any Excluded Property. See "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities."

The Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities (solely to the extent of their Class 1 Component), will be secured by the Treasury Strip deposited in the Class 1 Component Account. See "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities."

Collateral Ramp-Up Period ..... The Issuer expects that, as of the Closing Date, it will have purchased (or entered into commitments to purchase) Collateral Obligations to be included in the anticipated portfolio such that the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator will be at least $663,000,000 as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date. The "Ramp-Up Completion Date" is the earlier of (i) the Business Day after the 179th day after the Closing Date, and (ii) the first day on which the following conditions are satisfied (x) either (A) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer equals at least $663,000,000 or (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations purchased (or committed to be purchased) by the Issuer with proceeds from the sale of the Securities (in each case in this clause (B), measured solely as of the date of purchase or commitment, as the case may be) equals at least $663,000,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date) and (y) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $663,000,000.

In anticipation of the issuance of the Securities, the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and JPMorgan Chase Bank (as Warehouse Provider) entered into the Warehouse Agreement pursuant to which the Portfolio Manager has agreed to manage, on behalf of the Issuer, the Warehoused Loans to be acquired by the Issuer before the Closing Date and the Warehouse Provider has agreed to acquire a 100% participation in each Warehoused Loan concurrently with its acquisition by the Issuer, for a purchase price equal to the purchase price paid by the Issuer for the related Warehoused Loan. On the Closing Date, eligible Warehoused Loans will be repurchased by the Issuer with proceeds of the offering. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Collateral Obligations—A Substantial Amount of Collateral Obligations

Was Acquired Before the Closing Date, and the Terms of the Acquisition May Adversely Affect the Issuer."

See "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Ramp-Up."

Reinvestment Period;
Reinvestment in Collateral Obligations .....

During the Reinvestment Period, the Issuer may generally (and subject to certain requirements) reinvest Principal Proceeds received with respect to the Collateral in additional or substitute Collateral Obligations in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria (which Eligibility Criteria includes a requirement that an item of Collateral purchased by the Issuer meet the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and that the portfolio of Collateral Obligations be in compliance with the Concentration Limitations to the extent provided in the Eligibility Criteria). See "—Collateral Obligations," "—Concentration Limitations" and "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Eligibility Criteria."

The "Reinvestment Period" will be the period from the Closing Date through and including the first to occur of:

- (i) the Payment Date after the date that the Portfolio Manager notifies the Trustee, each Rating Agency and the Administrator, in the sole discretion of the Portfolio Manager, that, in light of the composition of the Collateral, general market conditions, and other factors, investments in additional Collateral Obligations within the foreseeable future would either be impractical or not beneficial;
- (ii) the Payment Date in May, 2012 or, in the case of an Extension, the Extended Reinvestment Period End Date;
- (iii) the Payment Date on which all Notes are to be optionally redeemed or an earlier date after notice of an Optional Redemption chosen by the Portfolio Manager to facilitate the liquidation of the Collateral for the Optional Redemption; and
- (iv) the date on which the Reinvestment Period terminates or is terminated as a result of an Event of Default (subject to the terms of the Indenture).

No investment will be made in Collateral Obligations after the termination of the Reinvestment Period, except that (x) Unscheduled Principal Payments and (y) Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations may be invested in Collateral Obligations after the Reinvestment Period subject to the limitations described under "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Eligibility Criteria" and "—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds and Reinvestment Criteria." After the termination of the Reinvestment Period, all Principal Proceeds (other than Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations) must be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Collateral Obligations ..... Any obligation or security (a "Collateral Obligation") that, when the Issuer commits to purchase (or otherwise acquire) the obligation or security, is a Loan, High-Yield Bond, Structured Finance Obligation or Synthetic Security with a Reference Obligation that is a Loan, a Structured Finance Obligation or High-Yield Bond that is:

- (i) denominated and payable in U.S. Dollars and is not convertible by its obligor into any other currency;
- (ii) an obligation of an obligor Domiciled in an Eligible Country;
- (iii) an obligation that is eligible by its terms to be assigned to the Issuer and pledged by the Issuer to the Trustee for inclusion in the Collateral;
- (iv) not an exchangeable or convertible security that is exchangeable or convertible at the option of its issuer;
- (v) not an equity security or a component of an equity security or a security that has a component that is an equity security (other than for avoidance of doubt, a pass-through trust certificate in a trust holding Collateral Obligations);
- (vi) not an obligation or security that has been called for redemption and is not an obligation or security that is the subject of an Offer other than a Permitted Offer or an exchange offer in which a security that is not registered under the Securities Act is exchanged for (a) a security that has substantially identical terms (except for transfer restrictions) but is registered under the Securities Act or (b) a security that would otherwise qualify for purchase under the Eligibility Criteria;
- (vii) an obligation that (a) has a Moody's Rating (including any estimated or confidential rating which is in respect of the full obligation of the obligor and which is monitored) and (b) has an S&P Rating (including any confidential rating which is in respect of the full obligation of the obligor and which is monitored), which S&P Rating does not have a "p", "pi", "q", "r" or "t" subscript unless S&P otherwise authorizes in writing;

- (viii) an obligation that is a Finance Lease (if it is a lease) and the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to the acquisition thereof;
- (ix) an obligation that is not a Current-Pay Obligation, Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Credit Risk Obligation and in the case of a Collateral Obligation that has a Moody's Rating of "Caa1" or lower or an S&P Rating of "CCC+" or lower, an obligation for which the Portfolio Manager has certified in writing that such Collateral Obligation is not a Credit Risk Obligation;
- (x) an obligation that (unless it is a High-Yield Bond) is not subordinated by its terms to other indebtedness for borrowed money of the applicable issuer; provided that for the avoidance of doubt, this clause shall not prohibit the inclusion as Collateral Obligations of Subordinated Lien Loans;

- (xii) an obligation the payment or repayment of the principal, if any, of which is not an amount determined by reference to any formula or index or subject to any contingency under the terms thereof;
- (xiii) in the case of a Loan, an obligation that is part of, or a Participation in, a syndicated loan facility that provides for a commitment by the lenders, in the aggregate, of at least U.S.$100 million;
- (xiv) an obligation the portion of which to be acquired (including through a Synthetic Security with respect to the Reference Obligation) does not represent, directly or indirectly, more than a 25% interest in the obligation;
- (xv) not an obligation with a maturity later than one year after the Stated Maturity of the Notes;
- (xvi) an obligation upon which no payments are subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the obligor thereof or counterparty with respect thereto is required to make "gross-up" payments that cover the full amount of any such withholding tax on an after-tax basis

(other than withholding taxes with respect to commitment fees associated with Collateral Obligations constituting Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans);

(xvii) not a Loan or Synthetic Security that would require the Issuer after its purchase of the Loan or Synthetic Security to advance any funds to the related borrower or Synthetic Security Counterparty or permit the borrower or Synthetic Security Counterparty to require that any future advances be made except for:

(A) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan if, simultaneously with its purchase of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, the Issuer deposits into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, respectively, the maximum amount of any advances that may be required of the Issuer under the related Underlying Instrument (as provided in the Indenture); and

(B) any Synthetic Security if, simultaneously with its purchase of the Synthetic Security, the Issuer posts cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) the Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of any future advances;

(xviii) if such obligation is a Structured Finance Obligation that is a collateralized loan obligation, such obligation:

(A) has been assigned a rating by both Moody's and S&P;

Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto;

- (xxi) in the case of a Synthetic Security, a Synthetic Security for which the counterparty or issuer, as the case may be, has a long-term senior unsecured rating by Moody's of at least "A3", and if rated "A3" by Moody's, such rating is not on watch for downgrade, and an issuer credit rating by S&P of at least "A-";
- (xxii) not an obligation that constitutes Margin Stock;
- (xxiii) not a Zero-Coupon Security;
- (xxiv) not an obligation that is currently deferring interest or paying interest "in kind" or otherwise has an interest "in kind" balance outstanding at the time of purchase, which interest is otherwise payable in cash, unless the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to the acquisition thereof;
- (xxv) not a security whose repayment is subject to substantial non-credit related risk as determined by the Portfolio Manager;
- (xxvi) not an obligation the interest payments of which are scheduled to decrease (although interest payments may decrease due to unscheduled events such as a decrease if the index relating to a Floating Rate Obligation, the change from a default rate of interest to a non-default rate of interest or an improvement in the obligor's financial condition); and
- (xxvii) not an obligation that will cause the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the pool of assets to be required to be registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act.

The Treasury Strip shall not be a Collateral Obligation and it shall not be taken into account in any calculation involving Collateral Obligations.

Pursuant to the definition of "Synthetic Security", unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any "deliverable obligation" that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event" must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such "deliverable obligation" is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event") as a Collateral Obligation, except that such "deliverable obligation" may constitute a Defaulted Obligation when delivered upon a "credit event".

See "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Collateral Obligations" and "—Eligibility Criteria."

Coverage Tests and the Reinvestment

Overcollateralization Test..... The "Coverage Tests" will consist of the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Tests. In addition, the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test, which is not a Coverage Test, will apply as described herein. See "Security For the Notes and the Composite Securities—The Coverage Tests—The Overcollateralization Tests" and "—The Interest Coverage Tests" for the formulations of these tests, which are highly detailed. The ratios on which they are based are also described under such headings. The tests will be used to determine, among other things, whether (i) Notes will be redeemed in certain circumstances as described under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments" and (ii) in the case of the Coverage Tests, Collateral Obligations may be acquired as described under "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Eligibility Criteria."

There will not be any Coverage Test applicable to the Composite Securities or the Preference Shares.

The Overcollateralization Tests..... The Overcollateralization Tests will consist of the "Class A Overcollateralization Test," the "Class B Overcollateralization Test" and the "Class C Overcollateralization Test." Each Overcollateralization Test will be satisfied with respect to any Class of Notes (treating the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes as one Class for this purpose) if, as of any Measurement Date, the Overcollateralization Ratio for the Class is at least equal to the specified required level for the specified Class indicated in the table below:

Test	Required Level
Class A Overcollateralization Test	113.40%
Class B Overcollateralization Test	108.00%
Class C Overcollateralization Test	106.30%

The Interest Coverage Tests ..... The Interest Coverage Tests will consist of the "Class A Interest Coverage Test," the "Class B Interest Coverage Test" and the "Class C Interest Coverage Test." Each Interest Coverage Test will be satisfied with respect to any specified Class of Notes (treating the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes as one Class for this purpose) if, as of the second Payment Date and any Measurement Date thereafter on which any Notes remain Outstanding, the Interest Coverage Ratio equals or exceeds the applicable required level specified in the table below for the specified Class:

	Test	Required Level
	Class A Interest Coverage Test	120.00%
	Class B Interest Coverage Test	115.00%
	Class C Interest Coverage Test	110.00%
Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test .....	A test that will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date during the Reinvestment Period on which Class C Notes remain Outstanding, if the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Ratio as of such Measurement Date is at least equal to 107.30%.
Collateral Quality Tests .....	The Collateral Quality Tests will be used primarily as criteria for purchasing Collateral Obligations. See "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Eligibility Criteria." The " Collateral Quality Tests " will consist of the Diversity Test, the Weighted Average Life Test, the Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test, the Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, the Weighted Average Spread Test, the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test and the S&P CDO Monitor Test, as described below.
Diversity Test .....	The Diversity Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date, if the Diversity Score equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score.
S&amp;P CDO Monitor Test .....	The S&P CDO Monitor Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if, after giving effect to the sale of a Collateral Obligation or the purchase of a Collateral Obligation, each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is positive.
Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test .....	The Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon equals or exceeds 8.0%.
Weighted Average Life Test .....	The Weighted Average Life Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and March 15, 2014 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date.
Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test .....	The Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Moody's Minimum Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 44.5%.

Weighted Average Rating Factor

Test..... The Weighted Average Rating Factor Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date, if the Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor of the Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) as of such Measurement Date is less than or equal to the Maximum Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor.

Weighted Average S&P Recovery

Rate Test ..... The Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the S&P Minimum Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 49.3%.

Weighted Average Spread Test..... The Weighted Average Spread Test will be satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Weighted Average Spread.

See "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—The Collateral Quality Tests."

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes

for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests..... If any of the Coverage Tests are not satisfied on the last day of any Due Period (each, a "Determination Date"), funds will be used pursuant to the Priority of Payments to redeem the related Notes to the extent necessary for such failing Coverage Tests to be satisfied that would otherwise be used:

- (i) to purchase additional Collateral Obligations during the Reinvestment Period; or
- (ii) to make interest and principal payments on the Notes and to make dividend or redemption payments in respect of the Preference Shares.

See "Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests."

Certain Consequences of Failure to Satisfy the Reinvestment

Overcollateralization Test..... If during the Reinvestment Period, the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied on any Determination Date, certain funds, as described under clause (16) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds," representing Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be used to make payments on the Preference Shares and certain subordinated expenses of the Issuer, will be deposited instead into the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds to the extent necessary to cause the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test to be satisfied as of that Determination Date after application of Principal Proceeds as described under clause (1) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds."

Upon Rating Confirmation Failure..... The Issuer will request S&P to confirm and Moody's to confirm in writing, by the Business Day after the 29th day after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, that it has not reduced, suspended or withdrawn the Initial Rating of each Class of Notes and Composite Securities and that it has not placed any Class of Notes or Composite Securities on credit watch with negative implications. If the Trustee does not receive evidence of confirmation before the Payment Date following the 29-day period (such an event, a "Rating Confirmation Failure"), all Interest Proceeds remaining after payment of amounts referred to in clauses (1) and (3) through (12) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" will be used to pay principal of the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes sequentially in order of their priority on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date thereafter until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. If necessary, after the foregoing payments are made out of Interest Proceeds, Principal Proceeds in accordance with clause (3) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds" will be used to pay principal of each Class of the Notes sequentially in order of their priority on each Payment Date until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. See "Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure."

Non-Call Period ..... The period from the Closing Date to but not including the Payment Date in May, 2010 (the "Non-Call Period").

Optional Redemption ..... Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Holders of at least 63% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares may require the Issuer or Co-Issuers, as applicable, to redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, from Principal Proceeds and all other funds available for that purpose in the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account in accordance with the redemption procedures described under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption."

Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at their Redemption Price. From and after the Redemption Date the redeemed Notes will cease to bear interest.

The redemption price payable in connection with the Optional Redemption of any Class of Notes will be the sum of:

- (i) the outstanding principal amount of the portion of the Note being redeemed; plus
- (ii) accrued interest on the Note (including any Defaulted Interest and interest on Defaulted Interest); plus
- (iii) in the case of any Deferred Interest Note, the applicable Deferred Interest on the Note; plus
- (iv) in the case of the Fixed Rate Notes, the applicable Make-Whole Amount; plus
- (v) any unpaid Extension Bonus Payment in respect of the Note.

The redemption price payable in connection with the Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares will be (i) at the direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the entire remaining amount of available funds after all prior applications or (ii) as specified by the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares, in each case, as described under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption."

With respect to any Class 1 Component and any Optional Redemption, "Redemption Price" means the distribution in kind of the Treasury Strip provided for in "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares."

Special Redemption ..... The Notes will be subject to redemption in whole or in part by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, on Payment Dates during the Reinvestment Period if the Portfolio Manager elects (subject to the Management Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the investment or reinvestment of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be invested in additional Collateral Obligations (a "Special Redemption"). On the first Payment Date following the Due Period for which such notice is effective (a "Special Redemption Date"), the funds in the Collection Account or the Payment Account representing Principal Proceeds which cannot be reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations (the "Special Redemption Amount") will be available to be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments. See "Description of the Securities—Special Redemption of the Notes If the Portfolio Manager Does Not Identify Investments as Contemplated by the Indenture."

The Policy ..... The Insured Notes will be entitled to the benefit of the Policy to be issued on the Closing Date by the Insurer pursuant to an insurance and indemnity agreement among the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Insurer (the "Insurance Agreement"). Pursuant to the Policy, the Insurer will irrevocably and unconditionally guarantee to the Holders of the Insured Notes payment of the Insured Amounts that shall become Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer.

Payments on the Class A-1g Notes that become due on an accelerated basis as described under "Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default", in connection with a redemption prior to the Stated Maturity or otherwise will not constitute "Insured Amounts" unless the Insurer, in its sole discretion, elects to make such payments.

Any amounts paid by the Insurer under the Policy shall constitute Accrued Insurance Liabilities and shall be due and payable immediately by the Issuer. "Accrued Insurance Liabilities" consist of all amounts paid by the Insurer under the Policy for the benefit of the Class A-1g Notes, plus interest in respect of such amounts from the date incurred to the date of payment to or reimbursement of the Insurer at the Accrued Insurance Liabilities Interest Rate. See "The Insurer and the Policy."

The Policy may be terminated in certain circumstances as described in "Description of the Securities—Termination of the Policy." Upon such termination of the Policy, the Note Interest Rate in respect of the Class A-1g Notes will be the Step-Up Note Interest Rate.

See "Description of the Securities—Termination of the Policy."

See "Transfer Restrictions."

No Exchange of the Composite

Securities ..... A Holder of a Class 1 Composite Security may not exchange its Class 1 Composite Security for proportional interests in the underlying securities represented by the Components thereof. See "Description of the Securities—No Exchange of the Composite Securities."

Ratings..... It is a condition of the issuance of the Securities that each Class of Notes and the Composite Securities are rated (in the case of the Insured Notes, after giving effect to the Policy) at least as indicated in the table under "—Principal Terms of the Securities " on the Closing Date.

The Class 1 Composite Securities are rated only as to the ultimate payment of their Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance.

No rating of the Preference Shares has been sought or obtained in connection with the issuance thereof.

Each of the above ratings assume that no Maturity Extension occurs after the Closing Date.

A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning Rating Agency. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—Future Ratings of the Notes Are Not Assured and Limited in Scope; the Preference Shares are Not Rated."

Listing..... Application will be made to list each Class of the Securities (other than the Preference Shares) on the Irish Stock Exchange. There can be no assurance that such admission will be granted or maintained. See "Listing and General Information." In addition, there is currently no market for the Securities and there can be no assurance that a market will develop.

Governing Law ..... The terms and conditions of the Preference Shares (as set forth in the Issuer Charter and the Resolutions) will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the Cayman Islands. The Notes, the Composite Securities, the Indenture, any supplemental indenture, the Management Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Policy, the Insurance Agreement and any Hedge Agreements will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of New York.

Tax Status.....

The opinions expressed in this document were not written and are not intended by McKee Nelson LLP, special U.S. tax counsel to the Issuer, to be used and cannot be used by the Issuer or any holder of Notes for purposes of avoiding United States federal income tax penalties that may be imposed, the advice is written to support the promotion or marketing of the transactions, and each taxpayer should seek advice based on the taxpayer's particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

As more fully described in "Income Tax Considerations":

The Issuer and each Holder and beneficial owner of a Note, by acquiring such Note or an interest in such Note, will agree to treat such Note as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The Issuer expects the Issuer's permitted activities will not cause it to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States under the Code and, consequently, the Issuer will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis (or the branch profits tax described below).

Payments of interest on the Securities and the Collateral Obligations are not expected to be subject to the imposition of withholding tax.

See "Income Tax Considerations."

ERISA Considerations ..... See "ERISA Considerations."

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Securities involves certain risks. Prospective investors should carefully consider the following factors, in addition to the matters set forth elsewhere in this Offering Circular, prior to investing in any Class of Securities.

General; Priorities of Securities

The Issuer intends to invest in securities and other financial assets with certain risk characteristics as provided in the Indenture and the Management Agreement. See "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities." There can be no assurance that the Issuer's investments will be successful, that its investment objectives will be achieved, that investors will receive their initial investments under the Securities or that they will receive any return (or avoid any loss, including total loss) on their investment in the Securities. Prospective investors are therefore advised to review this entire Offering Circular carefully and should consider, among other things, the following risk factors (along with, among other things, the inherent risks of investment activities) before deciding whether to invest in the Securities.

Except as is otherwise stated below, the risk factors are generally applicable to all the Securities, although the degree of risk associated with each Class of Securities may vary. In particular, the priorities of payment of the Notes are generally in the order of their alphabetic designation (and, in the case of the Class A Notes, their numeric designation) from Senior Class A Notes (the highest priority) to the Class C Notes (the lowest priority), the priorities of payment of the Notes are generally higher than priorities of payment of the Preference Shares.

Relating to the Securities

The Securities Will Have Limited Liquidity

There is currently no market for the Securities. There can be no assurance that a secondary market for any Class of Securities will develop, or if a secondary market does develop, that it will provide the Holders of the applicable Class of Securities with liquidity of investment or that it will continue for the life of such Class of Securities. In addition, each Class of Securities is subject to certain transfer restrictions and can only be transferred to certain transferees as described under "Transfer Restrictions." The restrictions on the transfer of the Securities may further limit their liquidity. Consequently, an investor in the Securities must be prepared to hold such Securities until their Stated Maturity or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. In addition, the Securities will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws, and the Co-Issuers have no plans, and are under no obligation, to register the Securities under the Securities Act. Application will be made to admit each Class of the Securities (other than the Preference Shares) to the Daily Official List of the Irish Stock Exchange. There can be no assurance that any such admission will be granted or maintained.

The Subordination of the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class B Notes, the Class C Notes and the Preference Shares Will Affect Their Right to Payment in Relation to the More Senior Securities

The Class A-2 Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Senior Class A Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Circular. Payments of interest on the Class A-2 Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Senior Class A Notes and certain other amounts (including certain management fees payable to the Portfolio Manager, certain amounts payable to the Insurer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class A-2 Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Senior Class A Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

The Class A-3 Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Senior Class A Notes and the Class A-2 Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Circular. Payments of interest on the Class A-3 Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and certain other amounts (including certain management fees payable to the Portfolio Manager, certain amounts payable to the Insurer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class A-3 Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

The Class B Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Circular. Payments of interest on the Class B Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and certain other amounts (including certain management fees payable to the Portfolio Manager, certain amounts payable to the Insurer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class B Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full, except in connection with the payment of any Class B Deferred Interest.

The Class C Notes are subordinated in right of payment of interest and principal to the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the manner and to the extent described in this Offering Circular. Payments of interest on the Class C Notes will not be made until due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and certain other amounts (including certain management fees payable to the Portfolio Manager, certain amounts payable to the Insurer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid. No payments of principal of the Class C Notes will be made until principal of and due and unpaid interest on the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full, except in connection with the payment of any Class C Deferred Interest.

No payments will be made out of Interest Proceeds on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date), until due and unpaid interest on the Notes (including any Deferred Interest) and certain amounts (including certain amounts due under the Hedge Agreements, certain management fees payable to the Portfolio Manager, certain amounts payable to the Insurer, certain hedging termination payments and certain administrative fees) have been paid on the Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments. No payments will be made out of Principal Proceeds on the Preference Shares until principal of each Class of Notes and certain other amounts payable out of Principal Proceeds on each Payment Date have been paid in full. In addition, the Preference Shares will not be redeemed until each Class of Notes and certain other amounts have been paid in full.

In addition, the Co-Issuers will have only nominal equity capitalization. Consequently, to the extent that any losses are suffered by any of the Holders of any Securities, the losses will be borne first by the Holders of the Preference Shares, and then by the Holders of each Class of Notes, serially in inverse order of their alphabetic (and, in the case of the Class A Notes, numeric) designations.

For purposes of subordination, the Composite Securities will not be treated as a separate Class, but the Preference Share Component of the Composite Securities will be treated as Preference Shares.

See "Description of the Securities."

Interest Will Be Deferred on Deferred Interest Notes if There Are Insufficient Funds under the Priority of Payments for Payment of Interest

So long as any Class A Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class B Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class B Notes as Class B Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on the Payment Date when it originally became due will not be an Event of Default. Class B Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds and to the payment in full of the principal of the Class A Notes in the application of Principal Proceeds.

So long as any Class A Notes or Class B Notes are Outstanding, any interest due and accrued on the Class C Notes that remains unpaid on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available to pay it in accordance with the Priority of Payments will be added to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class C Notes as Class C Deferred Interest and failure to pay that interest on the Payment Date when it originally became due will not be an Event of Default. Class C Deferred Interest will then be payable on subsequent Payment Dates in accordance with the Priority of Payments, pursuant to which it will remain subordinated to the payment of interest on the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the application of Interest Proceeds and to the payment in full of the principal of the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes in the application of Principal Proceeds.

Payments of Interest Proceeds on the Class A-1g Notes May Be Subordinated to Payments of Premium

If on any Payment Date the amount of available Interest Proceeds is not sufficient for the payment in full of accrued and unpaid interest on the Senior Class A Notes, accrued and unpaid Premium and any accrued and unpaid Defaulted Interest on the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-1g Notes shall be subordinated to the payment of accrued and unpaid Premium to the extent provided in clause (5)(A) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds."

Interest Proceeds May Be Used to Reinvest in Priority to any Payments to Holders of Preference Shares

During the Reinvestment Period, if the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test is not met on any Determination Date, a portion of the Interest Proceeds that might otherwise have been paid to the Holders of the Preference Shares on the related Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date) will instead be deposited into the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds, as described under clause (16) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds."

The Insured Notes May Be Subject to the Insurer's Ability to Make Payments of the Insured Amounts

Pursuant to the Policy, the Insurer will guarantee the payment of Insured Amounts with respect to the Insured Notes. However, if the Insurer were to become bankrupt or insolvent or otherwise default on its obligations under the Policy, no other persons would be obligated to make any payments or make up any deficiencies in payment of the Insured Notes after the liquidation in full of the Collateral by the Trustee, on behalf of the Holders of the Notes.

The Controlling Class Will Control Many Rights under the Indenture; However, Some Rights of the Controlling Class to Sell the Collateral in Connection with an Event of Default Are Limited

Under the Indenture, many rights of the Holders of the Notes will be controlled by a Majority of the Controlling Class. As discussed below under "—The Insurer as Controlling Class Will Control Many Rights Under the Indenture," the Insurer will be the "Controlling Class" for so long as (i) the Class A-1g Notes are Outstanding, (ii) the Policy has not been terminated and (iii) there has not been an Insurer Default under the Policy. Remedies pursued by the Holders of the Controlling Class upon an Event of Default could be adverse to the interests of the Holders of Securities subordinated to the Controlling Class. After any realization on the Collateral, proceeds will be allocated in accordance with the Priority of Payments pursuant to which the Notes and certain other amounts owing by the Co-Issuers will be paid in full before any allocation to the Preference Shares, and each Class of Notes (along with certain other amounts owing by the Co-Issuers) will be paid serially in alphabetic order (or, with respect to the Class A Notes, in numeric order) until it is paid in full before any allocation is made to the next Class of Notes.

However, the ability of the Controlling Class to direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral is subject to certain limitations. As described under "Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default," if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee must retain the Collateral intact and collect all payments in respect of the Collateral and continue making payments in accordance with the Priority of Payments and in accordance with the Indenture unless either (A) the Trustee determines that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty, all amounts owing by the Issuer to the Insurer under the Insurance Agreement, and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds," and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination or (B) the Holders of a Super Majority of each of the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes direct, subject to the provisions of the Indenture, the sale and liquidation of the Collateral; provided, however, if an Event of Default described in clause (d) under "Description of the Securities—Events of Default" occurs and if the Insurer is the Controlling Class, the Insurer shall have the sole right to direct, subject to the provisions of the Indenture, the sale and liquidation of the Collateral.

The Insurer as Controlling Class Will Control Many Rights Under the Indenture

So long as (i) the Class A-1g Notes are Outstanding, (ii) the Policy has not been terminated and (iii) there has not been an Insurer Default under the Policy, most rights of the Holders of the Class A-1g Notes will be exercised by the Insurer. As a result, the Holders of the Class A-1g Notes, for example, generally will not have the right to accelerate the maturity of the Notes upon the occurrence of an Event of Default but instead will be entitled to continue to receive regularly scheduled payments of interest and payments of principal, if any, unless and until such maturity is accelerated by the Insurer. The exercise of the rights of the Controlling Class by the Insurer is not conditioned on, among other things, the Insurer's maintaining any specified credit ratings.

In addition, the Insurer has the right to declare an event of default under the Insurance Agreement in connection with breaches of covenants and misrepresentations by the Co-Issuers thereunder. See "The Insurer and the Policy—Insurance Agreement Events of Default." Any such event of default would also constitute an Event of Default under the Indenture, with respect to which the Insurer would have the rights described above. In certain circumstances, as described under "Description of the Securities—Termination of the Policy," the Policy may be terminated with the consent of 100% of the Holders of the Class A-1g Notes.

The Issuer is Highly Leveraged, which Increases Risks to Investors

The Issuer will be substantially leveraged. Use of leverage is a speculative investment technique and involves certain risks to investors in the Securities. The leverage provided to the Issuer by the issuance of the Securities will result in interest expense and other costs incurred in connection with the borrowings that may not be covered by the net interest income, dividends and appreciation of the Collateral Obligations. The use of leverage generally magnifies the Issuer's risk of loss, particularly for the more subordinate Classes of Notes and the Preference Shares. In certain circumstances, such as in connection with the exercise of remedies following an Event of Default, the Controlling Class (which, for so long as (i) the Class A-1g Notes are Outstanding, (ii) the Policy has not been terminated and (iii) there has not been an Insurer Default under the Policy, will be the Insurer) may require the Issuer to dispose of some or all of the Collateral Obligations under unfavorable market conditions, thus causing the Issuer to recognize a loss that might not otherwise have occurred. In certain circumstances, the Controlling Class (which, for so long as (i) the Class A-1g Notes are Outstanding, (ii) the Policy has not been terminated and (iii) there has not been an Insurer Default under the Policy, will be the Insurer) are entitled to direct the sales of Collateral Obligations and may be expected to do so in their own interest, rather than in the interests of the more subordinate Classes of Securities.

The Issuer Is Newly Formed, Has No Significant Operating History, Has No Material Assets Other than the Collateral and Is Limited in its Permitted Activities

The Issuer is a newly formed entity and has no significant operating history, other than in connection with the acquisition of the Collateral Obligations during the period up to the Ramp-Up Completion Date. The Issuer will have no material assets other than the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral. The Indenture provides that the Issuer is not permitted to engage in any business activity other than the issuance of the Notes, the Composite Securities, the Preference Shares and the Issuer Ordinary Shares, the acquisition and disposition of and investment and reinvestment in Collateral Obligations, certain activities conducted in connection with the payment of amounts in respect of the Securities and the management of the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral, and other activities incidental or related to the foregoing. Income derived from the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral will be the Issuer's principal source of cash.

The Co-Issuer Is Newly Formed, Has No Significant Operating History, Has No Material Assets, and Is Limited in its Permitted Activities

The Co-Issuer is a newly formed Delaware corporation and has no prior operating history. The Co-Issuer will have no material assets. The Indenture provides that the Co-Issuer is not permitted to engage in any business activity other than the co-issuance and sale of the Notes, the issuance of its share capital, and other activities incidental or related to the foregoing.

The Notes Are Non-Recourse Obligations; Investors Must Rely on Available Collections from the Collateral and Will Have No Other Source for Payment

The Class A Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes are non-recourse debt obligations of the Co-Issuers. The Securities are payable solely from the Collateral pledged by the Issuer to secure the Notes. None of the security holders, members, officers, directors, partners, or incorporators of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, the Insurer (other than in respect of the Class A-1g Notes), the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Administrator, the Share Registrar, the Share Trustee, any of their respective affiliates, or any other person will be obligated to make payments on the Notes. The Issuer's ability to make interest payments and principal repayments on the Notes will be constrained by the terms of the Indenture. Holders of the Notes must rely solely on collections received on the Collateral pledged to secure the Notes and, solely in respect of the Class A-1g Notes, the Policy, as applicable, for the payment of interest and principal on the Notes, and there can be no assurance that those collections will be sufficient to pay all amounts due on the Notes. If the Insurer fails to make payments due pursuant to the Policy, Holders of the Insured Notes must rely solely on collections received on the Collateral pledged to secure the Notes for the payment of interest and principal on the Insured Notes, and there can be no assurance that those collections will be sufficient to pay all amounts due on the Insured Notes. If distributions on the Collateral are insufficient to make payments on the Notes, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and, following liquidation of all of the Collateral, the Co-Issuers will not have any obligation to pay any deficiency, which shall be extinguished and shall not revive.

The Composite Securities Are Non-Recourse Obligations; Investors Must Rely on Available Collections from the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral and Will Have No Other Source for Payment.

The Composite Securities are non-recourse obligations of the Issuer. The Composite Securities are payable solely from the Collateral pledged by the Issuer to secure the Notes and from the Class 1 Collateral pledged by the Issuer to secure the Composite Securities. None of the security holders, members, officers, directors, partners, or incorporators of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, the Insurer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Administrator, the Share Registrar, the Share Trustee, any of their respective affiliates, or any other person will be obligated to make payments on the Composite Securities. The Issuer's ability to make payments on the Composite Securities will be constrained by the terms of the Indenture. Holders of the Composite Securities must rely solely on collections received on the Collateral pledged to secure the Notes and on the Class 1 Collateral pledged to secure the Composite Securities, and there can be no assurance that those collections will be sufficient to pay all amounts due on the Composite Securities. If distributions on the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral are insufficient to make payments on the Composite Securities, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and, following liquidation of all of the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral, the Issuer will not have any obligation to pay any deficiency, which shall be extinguished and shall not revive.

The Preference Shares are not Secured Obligations; Investors Must Rely on Available Collections from the Collateral and Will Have No Other Source for Payment

The Preference Shares will be part of the issued share capital of the Issuer. The Preference Shares are equity in the Issuer and are not secured by the Collateral Obligations or other Collateral securing the Notes. As such, the Holders of Preference Shares will rank behind all creditors, whether secured or unsecured and known or unknown, of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the holders of the Notes and any Hedge Counterparties. Except with respect to the obligations of the Issuer to pay the amounts described under the "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" and "—Principal Proceeds", the Issuer does not, however, expect to have any creditors though there can be no assurance that this will be the case. In addition, the Issuer is also subject to limitations with respect to the business that it may undertake. See "The Co-Issuers—Business." Payments in respect of the Preference Shares are subject to certain requirements imposed by Cayman Islands law. Any amounts paid by the Preference Shares Paying Agent as dividends on the Preference Shares will be payable only if the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or balance in the Issuer's share premium account. In addition, dividends and the final payment upon redemption of the Preference Shares, will be payable only to the extent that the Issuer is and will remain solvent after such dividends or redemption payment is paid. Under Cayman Islands law, a company is generally deemed to be solvent if it is able to pay its debts as they come due.

The Issuer's obligation to pay dividends or to make other distributions to the Holders of the Preference Shares will therefore not be a secured obligation of the Issuer and will not be entitled to the benefits of the Indenture, nor will the Trustee have any obligation to act on behalf of the Holders of Preference Shares. Holders of the Preference Shares will only be entitled to receive amounts available for payment of dividends or other distributions after payment of all amounts payable on each Class of Notes and certain other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments and only to the extent of distributable profits of the Issuer and/or any balance in the Issuer's share premium account and (in each case) only to the extent that the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distributions.

To the extent the requirements under Cayman Islands law described in the preceding paragraphs are not met, amounts otherwise payable to the Holders of the Preference Shares will be retained in the Preference Shares Distribution Account until, in the case of dividends, the next succeeding Payment Date on which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent such requirements are met and, in the case of any payment on redemption of the Preference Shares, the next succeeding Business Day on which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent such requirements are met. Amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account will not be available to pay amounts due to the Holders of the Notes, the Trustee, the Insurer, the Collateral Administrator, the Portfolio Manager, any Hedge Counterparty or any other creditor of the Issuer whose claim is limited in recourse to the Collateral. However, amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account may be subject to the claims of creditors of the Issuer that have not contractually limited their recourse to the Collateral. The Indenture and the Preference Share Documents will limit the Issuer's activities to the issuance and sale of the Securities, the acquisition and disposition of, and investment and reinvestment in, the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments and the other activities related to the issuance and sale of the Securities described under the "The Co-Issuers." The Issuer therefore does not expect to have any significant full recourse liabilities that would be payable out of amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

The Issuer May Not Be Able to Invest and Reinvest Available Funds in Appropriate Collateral

The amount of Collateral Obligations purchased on the Closing Date, the amount and timing of the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations before the Ramp-Up Completion Date, and the subsequent reinvestment of Principal Proceeds, will affect the cash flows available to make payments on, and the return to the Holders of, the Securities. Reduced liquidity and relatively lower volumes of trading in certain Collateral Obligations, in addition to restrictions on investment represented by the Eligibility Criteria, could result in periods during which the Issuer is not able to fully invest its available cash in Collateral Obligations, and it is unlikely that the Issuer's available cash will be fully invested in Collateral Obligations at any time. The longer the period before reinvestment of cash or cash-equivalents in Collateral Obligations and the larger the amount of uninvested cash or cash equivalents, the greater the adverse impact may be on aggregate interest collected and distributed by the Issuer, thereby resulting in lower yield than could have been obtained if the net proceeds associated with the offering of the Securities and all Principal Proceeds were immediately and fully reinvested. The associated reinvestment risk on the Collateral Obligations will be borne first by the Holders of the Preference Shares and second by the Holders of the Notes (beginning with the most subordinated Class of Notes). Although the Portfolio Manager may mitigate this risk to some degree during the Reinvestment Period by declaring a Special Redemption, the Portfolio Manager is not required to do so, and any Special Redemption may result in a lower yield on the Issuer's assets than could have been obtained if the net proceeds from the offering of the Securities and all Principal Proceeds were immediately and fully reinvested and no Special Redemption had taken place.

Generally, Principal Proceeds (together with Interest Proceeds, but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on Collateral Obligations, and Sale Proceeds received on the Collateral Obligations) will be reinvested during the Reinvestment Period (and, Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, may be invested on any date after the Reinvestment Period, at the discretion of the Portfolio Manager) in substitute Collateral Obligations or temporarily reinvested in the Eligible Investments pending reinvestment in substitute Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments. The earnings with respect to substitute Collateral Obligations will depend, among other factors, on reinvestment rates available in the marketplace at the time and on the availability of investments acceptable to the Portfolio Manager that satisfy the criteria under "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Eligibility Criteria." The need to satisfy the criteria and identify acceptable investments may require the purchase of substitute Collateral Obligations having lower yields than those initially acquired or require that Principal Proceeds be held temporarily in cash or Eligible Investments, which will reduce the yield earned by the Issuer. Further, issuers of Collateral Obligations may be more likely to exercise any rights they may have to redeem them when interest rates or spreads are declining. Any decrease in the yield on the Collateral Obligations will reduce the amounts available to make payments of principal and interest on the Notes and payments on the Preference Shares.

The Issuer expects that, as of the Closing Date, it will have purchased (or entered into commitments to purchase) at least $497,250,000 in Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations to be included in the anticipated portfolio as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date.

Changes in Tax Law Could Result in the Imposition of Withholding Taxes with Respect to Payments on the Securities, and the Issuer Will Not Gross-Up Payments to Holders

Although no withholding tax is currently imposed by the United States or the Cayman Islands on payments on the Securities, there can be no assurance that, as a result of any change in any applicable law, treaty, rule, regulation, or interpretation thereof, the payments with respect to the Securities would not in the future become subject to withholding taxes. If any withholding tax is imposed on payments on any Securities, the Issuer will not "gross up" payments to their Holders.

The Securities Are Subject to Substantial Transfer Restrictions

The Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act, under any U.S. state securities or "Blue Sky" laws, or under the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and are being issued and sold in reliance upon exemptions from registration provided by those laws. No Securities may be sold or transferred unless: the sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act (for example, in reliance on exemptions provided by Rule 144A or Regulation S) and applicable state securities laws; and the sale or transfer does not cause either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral to become subject to the registration requirements of the Investment Company Act. See "Transfer Restrictions" and "ERISA Considerations."

Non-Compliance with Restrictions on Ownership of the Securities under the United States Investment Company Act of 1940 Could Adversely Affect the Issuer

Neither of the Co-Issuers has registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") as an investment company pursuant to the Investment Company Act. The Issuer has not so registered in reliance on an exclusion from the definition of "investment company" for companies organized under the laws of a jurisdiction other than the United States or any of its states: (i) whose investors residing in the United States are solely "qualified purchasers" (within the meaning given to such term in the Investment Company Act and related SEC regulations); and (ii) that do not make a public offering of their securities in the United States. No opinion or no-action position with respect to the registration of either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral under the Investment Company Act has been requested of, or received from, the SEC.

If the SEC or a court of competent jurisdiction were to find that the Issuer or the Co-Issuer is required, but in violation of the Investment Company Act had failed, to register as an investment company, possible consequences include the following: (i) the SEC could apply to a district court to enjoin the violation; (ii) investors in the Issuer or the Co-Issuer could sue the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, and recover any damages caused by the violation; and (iii) any contract to which the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, is party whose performance involves a violation of the Investment Company Act would be unenforceable by any party to the contract unless a court were to find that under the circumstances enforcement would produce a more equitable result than non-enforcement and would not be inconsistent with the purposes of the Investment Company Act.

In addition, the Issuer's being required to register as an investment company would result in an Event of Default. See "Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default." Should the Issuer or the Co-Issuer be subjected to any or all of the foregoing, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, would be materially and adversely affected.

The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes May Vary

The Stated Maturity of the Notes is the Payment Date in February, 2017 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date. The weighted average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years until their Stated Maturity. See "Description of the Securities." The weighted average life of a Class of Notes will be affected by the amount and timing of payments of principal of the Notes and the amount and timing of payments received on the Collateral Obligations. The amount and timing of payments of principal on the Notes will be affected by, among other things, any Optional Redemption of the Notes, a failure of any Coverage Test, a Rating Confirmation Failure, any failure by the Portfolio Manager to invest or reinvest uninvested proceeds of the offering of the Securities in Collateral Obligations, a redemption of the Securities made in connection with a Tax Event, any Special Redemption of one or more Classes of Notes, and an Event of Default by the Issuer in the payment of the Notes and an acceleration of the principal of the Notes in connection with an Event of Default. The occurrence of any of the foregoing unscheduled principal repayments of the Notes is, in turn, determined by the amount and timing of payments on the Collateral, which will be dependent on, among other things, the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral and the characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, including the existence and frequency of exercise of any prepayment, optional redemption, or sinking fund features, the prevailing level of interest rates, the redemption price, the actual default rate and the actual level of recoveries on any Defaulted Collateral Obligations, the frequency of tender or exchange offers for the Collateral Obligations and any sales of Collateral Obligations, dividends or other distributions received on any obligations that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange do not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation, as well as the risks unique to investments in obligations of foreign issuers. See "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities."

A Maturity Extension May Result in a Longer or Shorter Holding Period Than Expected.

Under the Indenture, the Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, shall be entitled to, on each Extension Effective Date, to extend the Reinvestment Period to the applicable Extended Reinvestment Period End Date if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously affected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Reinvestment Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. Under the Indenture, if the Reinvestment Period is so extended, the Stated Maturity of the Notes and the Composite Securities (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date) will be equally extended and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended without the requirement for any approval or consent of any Holders of Securities. Holders of Securities will not be able to prevent or prohibit the extension of the Stated Maturity of the Notes and the Composite Securities (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date) so long as the Extension Conditions are satisfied, which include the ability of Holders of Securities to sell their Securities at the designated purchase price to a designated purchaser under the Indenture. However, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Indenture provides that Holders of Preference Shares that have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12.0% as of the Extension Effective Date will not receive any payment in exchange for their Preference Shares sold in connection with a Maturity Extension.

As a consequence, if the Portfolio Manager elects to extend the Reinvestment Period and the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Holders of the Securities may either be required to hold their Securities for a significantly longer period of time or be forced to sell their Securities for the applicable purchase price under the Indenture, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Securities.

An Amendment Buy-Out May Result in a Shorter Holding Period Than Expected.

Any Non-Consenting Holder of Securities with respect to an amendment of the Indenture (which includes Holders that fail to respond to a consent solicitation within the applicable period) may be forced to sell its applicable Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Securities. However, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Indenture provides that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price will be zero for Non-Consenting Holders that have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12.0% as of the Amendment Buy-Out Date. See "Description of the Securities—Amendment Buy-Out." A Holder's ability to vote against an amendment or affect or influence the amendment process with respect to the Indenture may thus be limited. The Amendment Buy-Out Option may also increase the ability of the Portfolio Manager to affect or influence the amendment process.

A Removal Buy-Out May Result in a Shorter Holding Period Than Expected.

Under the Management Agreement, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default described in clause (d) under "Description of the Securities—Events of Default" and so long as the Policy has not been terminated and delivered for cancellation as described in "Description of the Securities—Termination of the Policy," a Majority of the Controlling Class may terminate the Management Agreement and cause the Issuer to remove the Portfolio Manager; provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to avoid such removal if, in accordance with the terms described in "The Management Agreement," the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser purchases not less than all of the Class A-1g Notes at the Removal Buy-Out Purchase Price prior to the proposed removal date and terminates the Policy upon the effectiveness of such purchase. Upon the occurrence of such Removal Buy-Out Option, any Holder of Class A-1g Notes will be forced to sell its applicable Class A-1g Notes to the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser at the Removal Buy-Out Purchase Price, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Class A-1g Notes. See "Description of the Securities—Removal Buy-Out." A Holder's ability to vote to terminate the Management Agreement and remove the Portfolio Manager upon the occurrence of an Event of Default described in clause (d) under "Description of the Securities—Events of Default" may thus be limited.

The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests

If any of the Coverage Tests are not satisfied on any Determination Date on which the Notes of the relevant Class are Outstanding, Interest Proceeds available on the related Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments (and, to the extent Interest Proceeds are insufficient, Principal Proceeds available on the Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments) are required to be applied to pay principal of the relevant Class of Notes (and any Classes senior to it) to the extent necessary for the relevant Coverage Test to be satisfied. The application of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds to pay principal of the Notes to the extent necessary to restore the Coverage Tests to certain minimum required levels could result in an elimination, deferral or reduction in the amounts available to make distributions on the Preference Shares and interest and principal payments on one or more classes of Notes, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of the Securities.

The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure

If any rating of any Class of Notes is reduced or withdrawn or placed on credit watch with negative implications by the Business Day after the 29th day after the Ramp-Up Completion Date by either Rating Agency, Interest Proceeds and, if Interest Proceeds are insufficient, Principal Proceeds, are required to be diverted in accordance with the Priority of Payments and used to pay the principal of the Notes sequentially in order of their relative priority on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date after that until each rating is reinstated. The application of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds to pay principal of the Notes to the extent necessary for one or more ratings to be reinstated could result in an elimination, deferral, or reduction in one or more payments or distributions on one or more Classes of Securities, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of those Classes of Securities.

The Indenture Permits Special Redemption of Notes Based on the Portfolio Manager's Inability to Identify Investments

The Portfolio Manager is permitted under the Indenture to elect to have all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be invested in additional Collateral Obligations applied to a Special Redemption of the Notes, in whole or in part, on one or more Payment Dates during the Reinvestment Period because it has been unable, for a period of at least 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the investment or reinvestment of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be invested in additional Collateral Obligations. On the Special Redemption Date, in accordance with the Indenture, the Special Redemption Amount will be applied in accordance with "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds," to the extent available (which includes for this purpose uninvested proceeds specified by the Portfolio Manager), to pay the principal of the Notes. The application of funds in that manner could result in an elimination, deferral, or reduction of amounts available to make payments on Securities subordinate in priority to the Securities being amortized. See "Description of the Securities—Special Redemption of Notes If the Portfolio Manager Does Not Identify Investments as Contemplated by the Indenture."

The Notes Are Subject to Optional Redemption

Subject to satisfaction of certain conditions, on any Payment Date upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Holders of at least 63% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares may require that the Notes be redeemed as described under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption." In the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Portfolio Manager may be required to aggregate Collateral Obligations to be sold together in one block transaction, thereby possibly resulting in a lower realized value for the Collateral Obligations sold. There can be no assurance that the market value of the Collateral will be sufficient for the Holders of the Preference Shares to direct an Optional Redemption of the Notes. A decrease in the market value of the Collateral would adversely affect the Sale Proceeds from their sale. Consequently, the conditions precedent to the exercise of an Optional Redemption may not be met. Moreover, the Holders of the Notes may not be able to invest the proceeds of the redemption of the Notes in investments providing a return equal to or greater than the Holders of the Notes expected to obtain from their investment in the Notes.

Future Ratings of the Notes and the Composite Securities Are Not Assured and Limited in Scope; the Preference Shares Are Not Rated

It is a condition to the issuance of the Notes and the Composite Securities that they be rated as provided under "Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities." A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and is subject to revision or withdrawal at any time. There is no assurance that a rating will remain for any given period or that a rating will not be lowered or withdrawn entirely by each Rating Agency if in its judgment circumstances in the future so warrant. Any such action could have an adverse effect on the Holders of the relevant Class of Securities. If a rating initially assigned to a Class of Notes or Composite Securities is subsequently lowered for any reason, no person is obligated to provide any additional credit support or credit enhancement.

No rating of the Preference Shares will be sought or obtained in connection with their issuance.

Events Outside the Control of the Co-Issuers and the Portfolio Manager Can Affect the Securities

Various acts of God, force majeure, and certain other events beyond the control of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, the Insurer, the Collateral Administrator, the Indenture Registrar, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Administrator could affect the ability of financial institutions to process payments and transfer funds and could impair the financial records and record-keeping practices of financial institutions and others (including the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, the Insurer, the Collateral Administrator, the Indenture Registrar, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Administrator). In addition, the existence of those circumstances could cause lenders and other creditors more readily to agree to restructure debt obligations (including payment terms) than they would in the absence of those circumstances. The existence of those circumstances could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, to make timely payments on the Securities.

Anti-Money Laundering Provisions

The Uniting and Strengthening America By Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the "USA PATRIOT Act"), signed into law on and effective as of October 26, 2001, imposes anti-money laundering obligations on different types of financial institutions, including banks, broker-dealers and investment companies. The USA PATRIOT Act requires the Secretary of the United States Department of the Treasury (the "Treasury") to prescribe regulations to define the types of investment companies subject to the USA PATRIOT Act and the related anti-money laundering obligations. It is not clear whether Treasury will require entities such as the Issuer to enact anti-money laundering policies. It is possible that Treasury will promulgate regulations requiring the Co-Issuers or the Portfolio Manager or other service providers to the Co-Issuers, in connection with the establishment of anti-money laundering procedures, to share information with governmental authorities with respect to investors in the Securities. Such legislation and/or regulations could require the Co-Issuers to implement additional restrictions on the transfer of the Securities. As may be required, the Issuer reserves the right to request such information and take such actions as are necessary to enable it to comply with the USA PATRIOT Act.

The Issuer and the Administrator are also subject to anti-money laundering laws and regulations in the Cayman Islands which impose specific requirements with respect to the obligation "to know your client". Except in relation to certain categories of institutional investors, the Issuer will require a detailed verification of each initial investor's identity and the source of the payment used by such initial investor for purchasing the Securities in a manner similar to the obligations imposed under the laws of other major financial centers. If the Cayman Islands government determined the Issuer was in violation of the anti-money laundering provisions, the Issuer could be subject to substantial criminal penalties. Payment of any such penalties could materially adversely affect the timing and amount of payments to Holders of Securities.

Relating to the Portfolio ManagerThe Issuer Will Depend on the Managerial Expertise Available to the Portfolio Manager and its Key Personnel*

The performance of the Issuer's investment portfolio depends heavily on the skills of the Portfolio Manager in analyzing, selecting and managing the Collateral Obligations. As a result, the Issuer will be highly dependent on the financial and managerial experience of certain investment professionals associated with the Portfolio Manager, none of whom is under a contractual obligation to the Issuer to continue to be associated with the Portfolio Manager for the term of this transaction. The loss of one or more of these individuals could have a material adverse effect on the performance of the Co-Issuers. Furthermore, the Portfolio Manager has informed the Issuer that these investment professionals are also actively involved in other investment activities and will not be able to devote all of their time to the Issuer's business and affairs. In addition, individuals not currently associated with the Portfolio Manager may become associated with the Portfolio Manager and the performance of the Collateral Obligations may also depend on the financial and managerial experience of such individuals. See "The Management Agreement" and "The Portfolio Manager."

The Portfolio Manager Will Have Limited Control of the Administration and Amendment of Collateral Obligations

The Portfolio Manager will cause the Issuer to exercise or enforce, or refrain from exercising or enforcing, its rights in connection with the Collateral Obligations or any related documents or will refuse amendments or waivers of the terms of any Collateral Obligation and related documents in accordance with its ordinary business practices as if the Portfolio Manager were administering the Collateral Obligations for its own account. The authority of the Portfolio Manager to cause the Issuer to change the terms of the Collateral Obligations will generally not be restricted by the Indenture or the Management Agreement. As a result, the Issuer will be relying on the Portfolio Manager's ordinary business practices with respect to the servicing of the Collateral Obligations. The Holders of the Securities and the Issuer will not have any right to compel the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager to take or refrain from taking any actions other than in accordance with its ordinary business practices.

In addition, when the Issuer holds a Participation, the Issuer generally will have no right to enforce compliance by the borrower with the loan or credit agreement or other instrument evidencing the related loan obligation, no rights of set-off against the borrower, no direct interest in the collateral supporting the loan obligation, and no right to vote with respect to amendments of, or waivers of defaults under, the loan obligation. However, most participation agreements relating to Participations in loans provide that the Participating Institution may not vote in favor of any amendment, modification, or waiver that forgives principal, interest, or fees; reduces principal, interest, or fees that are payable; postpones any payment of principal (whether a scheduled payment or a mandatory prepayment), interest or fees; or releases any material guarantee or security without the consent of the participant (at least to the extent the participant would be affected by the amendment, modification, or waiver). A Participating Institution voting in connection with a potential waiver of a default by an obligor may have interests different from those of the Issuer, and the Participating Institution might not consider the interests of the Issuer in connection with its vote. In addition, many participation agreements relating to Participations in loans that do provide voting rights to the participant further provide that if the participant does not vote in favor of amendments, modifications, or waivers, the Participating Institution may repurchase the Participation at par. In the event of the insolvency of the Participating Institution, the Issuer may be treated as a general creditor of the Participating Institution with respect to a Participation and may not benefit from any set-off between the Participating Institution and the borrower and may not be able to proceed against the collateral supporting the loan obligation. As a result, the Issuer is subject to the credit risk of both the borrower and the Participating Institution. An investment by the Issuer in a Synthetic Security related to a Loan involves many of the same considerations relevant to Participations. See "—Relating to the Collateral Obligations—Investing in Loans Involves Particular Risks" and "—Investing in Synthetic Securities Involves Particular Risks" below.

A modification that would increase the commitment of a lender, reduce the interest rate, or postpone the final maturity of an obligation under a participation agreement, or release all of the collateral for an obligation, generally requires the affirmative vote of the participating lender for a loan in which the Issuer owns a Participation, or of the Issuer for a Loan purchased by assignment, for the increase, reduction, or postponement to be binding. The exercise of remedies may also be subject to the vote of a specified percentage of the lenders under the loan obligation. The Portfolio Manager will have the authority to cause the Issuer to consent to certain amendments, waivers, or modifications to the Collateral Obligations requested by obligors or the lead agents for participation agreements relating to Participations (subject to operating procedures intended to reduce the risk that the Issuer would be deemed to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States for United States federal income tax purposes). The Portfolio Manager may, subject to the transaction documents, cause the Issuer to extend or defer the maturity, adjust the outstanding balance of any Collateral Obligation, reduce or forgive interest or fees, release material collateral or guarantees, or otherwise amend, modify, or waive the terms of any related loan agreement, including its payment terms. The Portfolio Manager will make determinations in accordance with its servicing standards under the Management Agreement. Any amendment, waiver, or modification of a Collateral Obligation could postpone the expected maturity of the Notes or the expected redemption date of the Preference Shares, or reduce the likelihood of timely and complete payment of interest or principal under the Notes or a full return of an investment in the Preference Shares.

Performance History of the Portfolio Manager May Not Be Indicative of Future Results

Any prior investment results of the Portfolio Manager, and the persons associated with it or any other entity may not be indicative of the Issuer's future investment results. The nature of, and risks associated with, the Issuer's future investments may differ substantially from those investments and strategies undertaken historically by the Portfolio Manager, and the persons associated with it or any other entity. There can be no assurance that the Issuer's investments will perform as well as the past investments of the Portfolio Manager, and the persons associated with it or any other entity. Moreover, since the investment criteria that govern investments in the Collateral Obligations do not govern the Portfolio Manager's investments and investment strategies generally, investments in the Collateral Obligations conducted in accordance with the investment criteria that govern investments in the Collateral Obligations, and the results they yield, may differ substantially from other investments undertaken by the Portfolio Manager.

Notwithstanding the inapplicability of the results obtained and expected to be obtained from the past investments of the Portfolio Manager, a period of increased volatility in market conditions, including interest rate environments, can have an adverse effect on the realized and unrealized returns to investors in the past investments of the Portfolio Manager. There can be no assurance that current economic conditions and the effects of increased interest rate and corresponding price volatility will not adversely impact the investment returns ultimately realized by investors or continued compliance with, among other things, applicable coverage requirements described in this Offering Circular.

Right of Portfolio Manager to Avoid Removal Without Cause May Result in a Shorter Holding Period of the Preference Shares Than Expected.

The Portfolio Manager may be removed without cause upon 90 days' prior written notice by the Issuer, at the direction of the Holders of at least 63% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares (excluding Preference Shares held by the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates or any account for which the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority at the time of such vote); provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to avoid such removal if, in accordance with the terms described in "The Management Agreement," the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser purchases not less than all of the Directing Preference Shares and all of the Composite Securities relating to the Preference Share Component which constitute a part of the Directing Preference Shares. Upon the occurrence of such purchase by the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser of all of the Directing Preference Shares and all of the Composite Securities relating to the Preference Share Component which constitute a part of the Directing Preference Shares, the Holders of such Directing Preference Shares or Composite Securities, as the case may be, will be forced to sell its Preference Shares or Composite Securities, as the case may be, to the Portfolio Manager at the Buy-Out Amount, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Preference Shares or the Composite Securities, as the case may be,. However, the Management Agreement provides that the Buy-Out Amount will be zero for Directing Preference Shares that have received a Preference Share Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12.0% as of the purchase date. See "The Management Agreement." The ability of a Holder of Preference Shares to remove the Portfolio Manager or affect or influence the removal of the Portfolio Manager may thus be limited.

Relating to the Collateral Obligations

In General, the Collateral Obligations Are Subject to Various Risks

The Collateral Obligations are subject to credit, liquidity, and interest rate risks, among others. The Eligibility Criteria and the Collateral Quality Tests have been established to address certain assumed deficiencies in payment occasioned by defaults with respect to the Collateral Obligations. If any deficiencies exceed certain modeled scenarios, however, payments or distributions on the Securities could be adversely affected. To the extent that a default occurs with respect to any Collateral Obligation securing the Notes and the Issuer (on the advice of the Portfolio Manager) sells or otherwise disposes of the Collateral Obligation, it is not likely that the proceeds of the sale or other disposition will be equal to the amount of principal and interest owing to the Issuer on of the Collateral Obligation.

The value of the Collateral Obligations generally will fluctuate with, among other things, the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral Obligations and, with respect to Synthetic Securities, both the financial condition of the related Synthetic Security counterparties and the obligors on or issuers of the Reference Obligations, general economic conditions, the condition of certain financial markets, political events, developments or trends in any particular industry, and changes in prevailing interest rates.

The ability of the Issuer to sell Collateral Obligations before their maturity is subject to certain restrictions under the Indenture including those described under "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds and Reinvestment Criteria."

Investing in Loans Involves Particular Risks

The Collateral Obligations will consist primarily of Dollar-denominated senior secured and senior unsecured loans, which are required by the Indenture to be obligations of corporations, partnerships, or other entities organized under the laws of the United States (or any of its states) or of foreign obligors meeting specified criteria, or Synthetic Securities the Reference Obligations of which are such loans. See "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Collateral Obligations."

Loans may become non-performing for a variety of reasons. Non-performing loans may require substantial workout negotiations or restructuring that may entail, among other things, a substantial reduction in the interest rate or a substantial write-down of the principal of a loan. In addition, because of the unique and customized nature of a loan agreement and the private syndication of a loan, loans typically may not be purchased or sold as easily as publicly traded securities, and historically the trading volume in the bank term loan market has been small relative to the corporate bond market. Loans may encounter trading delays due to their unique and customized nature, and transfers may require the consent of an agent bank or borrower.

Investments in loans are also subject to interest rate risk and reinvestment risk. Prepayments of loans in the Issuer's portfolio are likely to be made during any period of declining interest rates. Prepayments would force the Issuer to replace the loans with lower-yielding investments.

The Issuer may acquire interests in loans either directly (by assignment) or indirectly (by Participation or through Synthetic Securities). The Issuer may not originate any loans. The purchaser of an assignment of a loan obligation typically succeeds to all the rights and obligations of the selling institution and becomes a lender under the loan or credit agreement with respect to the debt obligation. In contrast, a Participation acquired by the Issuer in a portion of a loan obligation held by a Participating Institution or a security or other debt obligation typically results in a contractual relationship only with the Participating Institution, not with the borrower. The Issuer would have the right to receive payments of principal, interest, and any fees to which it is entitled under a Participation only from the Participating

Institution and only upon receipt by the Participating Institution of those payments from the borrower. The Issuer will be subject to restrictions on the amount of Participations that may be acquired for inclusion in the Collateral. See "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Eligibility Criteria."

Certain of the loans in the Issuer's portfolio may be unsecured or secured by collateral worth less than the outstanding balance of the loan. In addition to the general risks associated with loans described above, unsecured loans will not be secured by substantial collateral or any collateral and secured loans may be substantially under-secured. Without collateral and with materially inadequate collateral, the ability of the holder of the loan to recover amounts due from the borrower may be substantially limited.

Investing in Below Investment-Grade Obligations Involves Particular Risks, as Does Investing in Investment-Grade Obligations

A substantial amount of the Collateral Obligations will consist of loans, bonds and other obligations that are below investment grade, including high-yield loans and securities. Those Collateral Obligations will have greater credit and liquidity risk than investment grade obligations. They are also often unsecured and may be subordinated to certain other obligations of their issuer. The lower rating of those Collateral Obligations reflects a greater possibility that adverse changes in the financial condition of an issuer or in general economic conditions or both may impair the ability of their issuer to make payments of principal or interest. These Collateral Obligations may be speculative.

Risks of below investment-grade Collateral Obligations may include (among others):

- (i) limited liquidity and secondary market support;
- (ii) in the case of fixed-rate high-yield debt securities, substantial market place volatility resulting from changes in prevailing interest rates;
- (iii) subordination to the prior claims of senior lenders and creditors;
- (iv) the operation of mandatory sinking fund or call and redemption provisions during periods of declining interest rates that could cause the Issuer to reinvest premature redemption proceeds in lower-yielding debt obligations;
- (v) the possibility that earnings of the below investment-grade issuer may be insufficient to meet its debt service; and
- (vi) the declining creditworthiness and potential for insolvency of a below investment-grade issuer during periods of rising interest rates and economic downturn.

An economic downturn or an increase in interest rates could severely disrupt the market for below investment-grade obligations and could adversely affect the value of outstanding below investment-grade obligations and the ability of their issuers to repay principal and interest.

Issuers that are below investment grade may be highly leveraged and may not have available to them more traditional methods of financing. The risk associated with obligations of below investment-grade issuers is generally greater than is the case with investment grade issuers. For example, during an economic downturn or a sustained period of rising interest rates, below investment-grade issuers may be more likely to experience financial stress, especially if they are highly leveraged. During those periods, timely service of debt obligations may also be adversely affected by specific issuer developments, or the issuer's inability to meet specific projected business forecasts or the unavailability of additional financing. The risk of loss from default by the issuer is significantly greater for the holders of below investment-grade obligations because those obligations may be unsecured and may be subordinated to obligations owed to other creditors of the issuer. In addition, the Issuer may incur additional expenses to the extent it is required to seek recovery upon a default on such an obligation or participate in its restructuring.

As a result of the limited liquidity of below investment-grade obligations, their prices have at times experienced significant and rapid decline when a substantial number of holders decided to sell. In addition, the Issuer may have difficulty disposing of certain below investment-grade obligations because there may be a thin trading market for them. To the extent that a secondary trading market for below investment-grade obligations does exist, it is generally not as liquid as the secondary market for highly rated obligations. Reduced secondary market liquidity may have an adverse impact on the Issuer's ability to dispose of particular Collateral Obligations in response to a specific economic event, such as a deterioration in the creditworthiness of the issuer of the Collateral Obligation.

In addition, a portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of Dollar-denominated investment-grade debt obligations. Those Collateral Obligations have higher ratings than high-yield debt securities, but they are subject to many risks similar to the foregoing, in varying degrees depending on the circumstances.

Investing in Structured Finance Obligations Involves Particular Risks

A portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of Structured Finance Obligations and Synthetic Securities the Reference Obligations of which are Loans, Structured Finance Obligations or High-Yield Bonds. Structured Finance Obligations may present risks similar to those of the other types of Collateral Obligations in which the Issuer may invest and, in fact, the risks may be of greater significance in the case of Structured Finance Obligations. Moreover, investing in Structured Finance Obligations may entail a variety of unique risks. Among other risks, Structured Finance Obligations may be subject to prepayment risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk, structural risk, legal risk and interest rate risk (which may be exacerbated if the interest rate payable on a Structured Finance Obligation changes based on multiples of changes in interest rates or inversely to changes in interest rates). In addition, certain Structured Finance Obligations (particularly subordinated collateralized bond obligations) may provide that non-payment of interest is not an event of default in certain circumstances and the holders of the securities will therefore not have available to them any associated default remedies. During the period of non-payment, unpaid interest will generally be capitalized and added to the outstanding principal balance of the related security. Furthermore, the performance of a Structured Finance Obligation will be affected by a variety of factors, including its priority in the capital structure of its issuer the availability of any credit enhancement, the level and timing of payments and recoveries on and the characteristics of the underlying receivables, loans, or other assets that are being securitized, bankruptcy remoteness of those assets from the originator or transferor, the adequacy of and ability to realize on any related collateral, and the skill of the manager of the Structured Finance Obligation in managing securitized assets. The price of a Structured Finance Obligation, if required to be sold, may be subject to certain market and liquidity risks for securities of its type at the time of sale. In addition, Structured Finance Obligations may involve initial and ongoing expenses above the costs associated with the related direct investments.

Investing in Synthetic Securities Involves Particular Risks

As described above, a portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of Synthetic Securities the Reference Obligations of which are Loans, Structured Finance Obligations, or High-Yield Bonds. Investments in these types of assets through the purchase of Synthetic Securities present risks in addition to those inherently associated with direct purchases of such assets. With respect to Synthetic Securities, the Issuer will usually have a contractual relationship only with the counterparty of the Synthetic Security, and not the reference obligor on the Reference Obligation. The Issuer will have no right to enforce compliance by the reference obligor with the Reference Obligation nor any rights of set-off against the reference obligor, nor have any voting or other consensual rights of ownership with respect to the Reference Obligation. The Issuer will not directly benefit from any collateral supporting the Reference Obligation and will not have the benefit of the remedies that would normally be available to a holder of the Reference Obligation.

In addition, in the event of the insolvency of the Synthetic Security Counterparty, the Issuer will be treated as a general creditor of the counterparty and will not have any claim of title with respect to the Reference Obligation. Consequently, the Issuer will be subject to the credit risk of the counterparty as well as that of the reference obligor and concentrations of Synthetic Securities entered into with any one counterparty will subject the Securities to an additional degree of risk with respect to defaults by that counterparty. One or more affiliates of the Initial Purchaser may act as counterparty with respect to all or a portion of the Synthetic Securities, which relationship may create certain conflicts of interest. See "—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Initial Purchaser" below. In addition, Synthetic Securities may involve initial and ongoing expenses above the costs associated with the related direct investments. The Issuer will be subject to restrictions on the amount of Synthetic Securities it may own at any one time.

Many of the Collateral Obligations Will Be Illiquid

Many of the Collateral Obligations purchased by the Issuer will have no, or only a limited, trading market. The Issuer's investment in illiquid Collateral Obligations may restrict its ability to dispose of investments in a timely fashion and for a fair price, as well as its ability to take advantage of market opportunities, although the Issuer is generally prohibited by the Indenture from selling Collateral Obligations except under certain limited circumstances described under "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds and Reinvestment Criteria." Illiquid Collateral Obligations may trade at a discount from comparable, more liquid investments. In addition, the Issuer may invest in privately placed Collateral Obligations that may or may not be freely transferable under the laws of the applicable jurisdiction or due to contractual restrictions on resale, and even if those privately placed Collateral Obligations are transferable, the prices realized from their sale could be less than those originally paid by the Issuer or less than what may be considered their fair value.

Insolvency Considerations With Respect to Issuers of Collateral Obligations May Affect the Issuer's Rights

Various laws enacted for the protection of creditors may apply to the Collateral Obligations. If, in a lawsuit brought by a creditor or representative of creditors of an obligor under a Collateral Obligation (such as a trustee in bankruptcy), a court were to find that the obligor did not receive fair consideration or reasonably equivalent value for incurring the indebtedness evidenced by the Collateral Obligation and, after giving effect to the indebtedness and the use of the proceeds thereof, the obligor (i) was insolvent, (ii) was engaged in a business for which the remaining assets of the obligor constituted unreasonably small capital or (iii) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay them as they mature, the court could determine to invalidate, in whole or in part, the indebtedness as a fraudulent conveyance, to subordinate the indebtedness to existing or future creditors of the obligor, or to recover amounts previously paid by the obligor in satisfaction of the indebtedness. There can be no assurance as to what standard a court would apply to determine whether the obligor was "insolvent" or that, regardless of the method of valuation, a court would not determine that the obligor was "insolvent," in each case, after giving effect to the incurrence of the Collateral Obligation and the use of its proceeds. In addition, in the event of the insolvency of an obligor under a Collateral Obligation, payments made on the Collateral Obligation may be subject to avoidance as a "preference" if made within a certain period before insolvency (which may be as long as approximately one year).

In general, if payments on a Collateral Obligation are avoidable, whether as fraudulent conveyances or preferences, the payments can be recaptured either from the initial recipient (such as the Issuer) or from subsequent transferees of the payments (such as the Holders of the Securities). To the extent that any payments are recaptured from the Issuer, the resulting reduction in payments on the Securities will be borne by the Holders of the applicable Class of Securities (except in the case of the Insured Notes, to the extent not paid from the Policy). A court in a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding would be able to direct the recapture of any payment from a Holder of the Securities to the extent that the court has jurisdiction over the Holder or its assets. Since there is no judicial precedent relating to structured securities such as the Securities, there can be no assurance that a Holder of Securities will be able to avoid recapture on this basis.

The preceding discussion is based on principles of United States federal and state laws. Insofar as Collateral Obligations that are obligations of non-United States obligors are concerned, the laws of certain foreign jurisdictions may provide for avoidance remedies under factual circumstances similar to, or broader or narrower than, those described above, with consequences that may or may not be analogous to those described above under United States federal and state laws.

International Investing Involves Particular Risks

A portion of the Collateral Obligations may consist of obligations of obligors Domiciled outside the United States. Investing outside the United States may involve greater risks than investing in the United States. These risks may include: less publicly available information; varying levels of governmental regulation and supervision; and the difficulty of enforcing legal rights in a foreign jurisdiction and uncertainties as to the status, interpretation and application of laws. Moreover, foreign companies may be subject to accounting, auditing, and financial reporting standards, practices, and requirements different from those applicable to U.S. companies.

There generally is less governmental supervision and regulation of exchanges, brokers and issuers in foreign countries than there is in the United States. For example, there may be no comparable provisions under certain foreign laws with respect to insider trading and similar investor protection securities laws that apply with respect to securities transactions consummated in the United States.

Foreign markets also have different clearance and settlement procedures, and in certain markets there have been times when settlements have failed to keep pace with the volume of securities transactions, making it difficult to conduct transactions. Delays in settlement could result in periods when assets of the Issuer are uninvested and no return is earned on them. The inability of the Issuer to make intended purchases of Collateral Obligations due to settlement problems or the risk of intermediary counterparty failures could cause the Issuer to miss investment opportunities. The inability to dispose of a Collateral Obligation due to settlement problems could result either in losses to the Issuer due to subsequent declines in the value of the Collateral Obligation or, if the Issuer has entered into a contract to sell the security, could result in possible liability to the purchaser. Transaction costs of buying and selling foreign securities, including brokerage, tax, and custody costs, also are generally higher than those involved in domestic transactions. Furthermore, foreign financial markets, while generally growing in volume, have, for the most part, substantially less volume than U.S. markets, and securities of many foreign companies are less liquid and their prices more volatile than securities of comparable domestic companies.

In certain foreign countries there is the possibility of expropriation, nationalization, or confiscatory taxation; limitations on the convertibility of currency or the removal of securities, property, or other assets of the Issuer; political, economic, or social instability; or adverse diplomatic developments, each of which could have an adverse effect on the Issuer's investments in the foreign countries (which may make it more difficult to pay Dollar-denominated obligations such as the Collateral Obligations). The economies of individual non-U.S. countries may also differ favorably or unfavorably from the U.S. economy in such respects as growth of gross domestic product, rate of inflation, volatility of currency exchange rates, depreciation, capital reinvestment, resource self-sufficiency and balance of payments position.

Lender Liability Considerations and Equitable Subordination Can Affect the Issuer's Rights with Respect to Collateral Obligations

In recent years, a number of judicial decisions in the United States have upheld the right of borrowers to sue lenders and bondholders on the basis of various evolving legal theories (collectively termed "lender liability"). Generally, lender liability is founded on the premise that a lender has violated a duty (whether implied or contractual) of good faith and fair dealing owed to the debtor or has assumed a degree of control over the debtor resulting in the creation of a fiduciary duty owed to the debtor or its other creditors or shareholders. Because of the nature of the Collateral Obligations, the Issuer may be subject to allegations of lender liability. In addition, under common law principles that in some cases form the basis for lender liability claims, a court may elect to subordinate the claim of the offending lender to the claims of the disadvantaged creditors, a remedy called "equitable subordination," if a lender: (i) intentionally takes an action that results in the undercapitalization of a borrower to the detriment of other creditors of the borrower; (ii) engages in other inequitable conduct to the detriment of the other creditors; (iii) engages in fraud with respect to, or makes misrepresentations to, the other creditors; or (iv) uses its influence as a lender to dominate or control a borrower to the detriment of other creditors of the borrower.

Because the Collateral Obligations are primarily Loans, the Issuer may be subject to claims from creditors of an obligor that Collateral Obligations issued by the obligor that are held by the Issuer should be equitably subordinated. However, the Portfolio Manager does not intend to engage in conduct that would form the basis for a successful cause of action based on lender liability or the equitable subordination doctrine. Nonetheless, no assurances can be given that actions taken in good faith by the Portfolio Manager will not result in losses to issuers of Collateral Obligations, and that the Issuer will not be liable for any such losses. Furthermore, the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager may be unable to control the conduct of lenders under a loan syndication agreement requiring less than a unanimous vote, yet the Issuer may be subject to lender liability or equitable subordination for such conduct.

The preceding discussion is based on principles of United States federal and state laws. Insofar as Collateral Obligations that are obligations of non-United States obligors are concerned, the laws of certain foreign jurisdictions may impose liability on lenders or bondholders under factual circumstances similar to, or broader or narrower than, those described above, with consequences that may or may not be analogous to those described above under United States federal and state laws.

Securities May Be Affected by Interest Rate Risks, Including Mismatches Between the Notes and the Collateral Obligations

The Notes (other than the Fixed Rate Notes) bear interest at a rate based on LIBOR as determined on the second Business Day prior to the first day of the relevant Interest Period and the Fixed Rate Notes bear interest at a fixed rate. The Collateral Obligations will consist primarily of obligations that bear interest at floating rates, which floating rates may be different than the floating rates on the Floating Rate Notes. Accordingly, the Notes are subject to interest rate risk to the extent that there is a fixed/floating interest rate mismatch between the rates at which interest accrues on the Notes and the rates at which interest accrues on the Collateral. In addition, there may be a timing mismatch between the Floating Rate Notes and the Floating Rate Obligations as the interest on the Floating Rate Obligations may adjust more or less frequently, on different dates and based on different indices than the interest rates on the Floating Rate Notes. Furthermore, any payments of principal of or interest on Collateral received during a Due Period will (except to a limited extent specified in the Indenture) be reinvested in Eligible Investments maturing not later than the Business Day immediately preceding the next Payment Date. There is no requirement that Eligible Investments bear interest at LIBOR or a similar rate, and the interest rates available for Eligible Investments are inherently uncertain. As a result of these mismatches, an increase or decrease in LIBOR for the relevant maturity could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to make interest payments on the Notes (including due to a rise or a decline in the value of previously issued Collateral Obligations or other Collateral that bear interest at a fixed rate as LIBOR decreases or increases, as applicable) and to make distributions or final distributions on the Preference Shares. To mitigate a portion of the interest rate mismatch, the Issuer may enter into Hedge Agreements that are (in the case of Hedge Agreements entered into after the Closing Date) subject to a Rating Confirmation. However, there can be no assurance that the Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments, together with the Hedge Agreements, will in all circumstances generate sufficient Interest Proceeds to make timely payments of interest on the Notes. Moreover, the benefits of any Hedge Agreements may not be achieved in the event of the early termination of the Hedge Agreements, including termination upon the failure of the related Hedge Counterparty to perform its obligations under the Hedge Agreement. See "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Hedge Agreements."

The Portfolio Manager may direct the Issuer to reduce the notional amount of, or otherwise adjust the terms of, any Hedge Agreement outstanding at any time, subject, in the case of any reduction or adjustment made on or after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, to obtaining a Rating Confirmation.

Changes in Tax Law Could Result in the Imposition of Withholding Taxes with Respect to Payments on the Collateral Obligations, and the Obligors on the Collateral Obligations Will Not Gross-Up Payments to the Issuers

A Collateral Obligation will be eligible for purchase by the Issuer if, at the time it is purchased, either no payments of principal, premium, if any, or interest thereon are subject to withholding taxes imposed by any jurisdiction or the obligor is required to make "gross-up" payments that cover the full amount of any such withholding taxes on an after-tax basis. In the case of Collateral Obligations issued by U.S. obligors after July 18, 1984, payments thereon generally are exempt under current United States federal income tax law from the imposition of United States federal withholding tax. See "Income Tax Considerations—Tax Treatment of the Issuer—United States Withholding Taxes." However, there can be no assurance that, as a result of any change in any applicable law, treaty, rule or regulation or interpretation thereof, the payments on the Collateral Obligations would not in the future become subject to withholding taxes imposed by the United States or another jurisdiction. In that event, if the obligors of such Collateral Obligations were not then required to make "gross-up" payments that cover the full amount of any such withholding taxes, the amounts available to make payments on the Securities would accordingly be reduced. There can be no assurance that remaining payments on the Collateral would be sufficient to make timely payments of interest on and payment of principal at the Stated Maturity of each Class of the Notes and payment of dividends or other distributions to the Holders of the Preference Shares.

Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, the Notes shall be redeemable at the applicable Redemption Price, in whole, but not in part, by the Issuer at the written direction of the Holders of at least 63% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares, as described under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption."

The Issuer Has the Right to Engage in Securities Lending, which Involves Counterparty Risks and Other Risks

The Collateral Obligations may be loaned for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) that have, or are guaranteed by entities that have, long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or a guarantor with those ratings at the time of the loan, of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A" from S&P. See "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Securities Lending." The loans must be secured by cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America, in an amount at least equal to 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value of the loaned Collateral Obligations, determined on a daily basis. However, if the borrower of a loaned Collateral Obligation defaults on its obligation to return the loaned Collateral Obligation because of insolvency or otherwise, the Issuer could experience delays and costs in gaining access to the collateral posted by the borrower (and in extreme circumstances could be restricted from selling the collateral). If the borrower defaults, the Issuer could suffer a loss to the extent that the realized value of the cash or securities securing the obligation of the borrower to return a loaned Collateral Obligation (less expenses) is less than the amount required to purchase the Collateral Obligation in the open market. This shortfall could be due to, among other factors, discrepancies between the mark-to-market and actual transaction prices for the loaned Collateral Obligations arising from limited liquidity or availability of the loaned Collateral Obligations and, in extreme circumstances, the loaned Collateral Obligations being unavailable at any price.

The Rating Agencies may downgrade any of the Notes or Composite Securities if a borrower of a Collateral Obligation or, if applicable, the entity guaranteeing the performance of the borrower has been downgraded by one of the Rating Agencies such that the Issuer is not in compliance with the Securities Lending Counterparty rating requirements. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Initial Purchaser or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager, which may create certain conflicts of interest. See "—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Portfolio Manager" and—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Initial Purchaser" below.

There Is Limited Disclosure About the Collateral Obligations in this Offering Circular

A substantial portion of the initial portfolio of Collateral Obligations to be acquired before the Ramp-Up Completion Date has been identified by the Portfolio Manager but, for reasons of confidentiality, is not identified in this Offering Circular. Investors that regard the identity of the portfolio in whole or in part necessary or desirable for their investment decision need to consider the availability of that information other than through this Offering Circular.

The Issuer and the Portfolio Manager will not be required to provide the Holders of the Securities or the Trustee with financial or other information (which may include material non-public information) it receives pursuant to the Collateral Obligations and related documents. The Portfolio Manager also will not disclose to any of these parties the contents of any notice it receives pursuant to the Collateral Obligations or related documents. In particular, the Portfolio Manager will not have any obligation to keep any of these parties informed as to matters arising in relation to any Collateral Obligations, except with respect to: (i) the receipt or non-receipt, on an aggregate basis, of principal, interest, or other amounts of collections or recoveries; (ii) the cancellation of any Collateral Obligations; (iii) default amounts in respect of the Collateral Obligations; and (iv) certain other information required to be reported under the Management Agreement and the Indenture.

The Holders of the Securities and the Trustee will not have any right to inspect any records relating to the Collateral Obligations, and the Portfolio Manager will not be obligated to disclose any further information or evidence regarding the existence or terms of, or the identity of any obligor on, any Collateral Obligations, unless specifically required by the Management Agreement. Furthermore, the Portfolio Manager and the Trustee may demand that any persons requesting that information execute confidentiality agreements before being provided with the information.

A Substantial Amount of Collateral Obligations Was Acquired Before the Closing Date, and the Terms of the Acquisition May Adversely Affect the Issuer

In anticipation of the issuance of the Securities, the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association (in that capacity, the "Warehouse Provider") entered into an agreement (the "Warehouse Agreement") pursuant to which:

- (i) the Portfolio Manager has agreed to manage, on behalf of the Issuer, the selection of certain Loans and other obligations to be acquired by the Issuer before the Closing Date (the "Warehoused Loans");
- (ii) the Warehouse Provider has agreed to acquire a 100% participation in each Warehoused Loan concurrently with its acquisition by the Issuer, for a purchase price equal to the purchase price paid by the Issuer for the related Warehoused Loan; and
- (iii) the Portfolio Manager and the Warehouse Provider have agreed to share the economic return on, and assume certain risks (including risks associated with defaults affecting the Warehoused Loans) in respect of, the Warehoused Loans for the period prior to the Closing Date in the specified percentages set forth in the Warehouse Agreement.

On the Closing Date, the Issuer and the Warehouse Provider will terminate the participations in the Warehoused Loans (with any Warehoused Loans that would not satisfy the "Warehousing Eligibility Criteria" applicable at the Closing Date being sold by the Issuer). Generally, the price to be paid by the Issuer to the Warehouse Provider in connection with the termination of the participation in a Warehoused Loan will reflect the price originally paid by the Issuer to acquire the Warehoused Loan (although that price may not reflect the market value of the Warehoused Loan on the Closing Date), plus the amount of extensions of credit in respect of certain Warehoused Loans, minus the aggregate amount of payments of principal received by the Warehouse Provider in respect of such Warehoused Loans (excluding the amount of any such payment that was required to be repaid or returned by the Warehouse Provider by claw-back or otherwise), plus all accrued and unpaid interest and fees on the Warehoused Loan.

Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest

In General, the Transaction Will Involve Various Potential and Actual Conflicts of Interest

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall advisory, investment, and other activities of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates and from the conduct by the Initial Purchaser and its respective Affiliates of other transactions with the Issuer, including acting as counterparty with respect to Hedge Agreements, Securities Lending Agreements, and Synthetic Securities. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Portfolio Manager

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise for the Portfolio Manager with respect to its obligations to the Issuer from the overall investment activities of the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates, for the accounts of its other clients. For example, the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates and their respective clients may invest in loans, securities, and other obligations that would be appropriate for inclusion in the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations, as well as in loans, securities, and other obligations that are senior to, or have interests different from or adverse to, the loans and or other investments that are pledged to secure the Notes. Furthermore, Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager may serve as general partners or managers of special-purpose entities organized to issue other collateralized loan obligations ("CLOs") secured primarily by corporate loans and collateralized debt obligations ("CDOs") secured by corporate debt obligations. The Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may also have ongoing relationships with, render services to, or engage in transactions with, companies whose loan obligations or securities are pledged to secure the Notes and may now or in the future own (as portfolio investments or otherwise) loan obligations or equity or debt securities issued by issuers of or obligors on, Collateral Obligations or other Collateral.

The Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may possess information relating to issuers of Collateral Obligations or other Collateral that (i) may constrain the Issuer's investments as a consequence of the Portfolio Manager's inability to use such information for advisory purposes or otherwise to take actions that would be in the best of interests of the Issuer or (ii) is not known to the employees of the Portfolio Manager responsible for monitoring the Collateral and performing the other obligations of the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement. The Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates and their respective clients may at certain times be simultaneously seeking to purchase or dispose of investments for the respective accounts of the Issuer, any similar entity for which it serves as manager or advisor, and for its clients or Affiliates.

Neither the Portfolio Manager nor any of its Affiliates has any affirmative obligation to offer any investments to the Issuer or to inform the Issuer of any investments before offering any investments to other funds or accounts that the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates manage or advise. Furthermore, the Portfolio Manager may be bound by affirmative obligations in the future, whereby the Portfolio Manager is obligated to offer certain investments to funds or accounts that it manages or advises before or without the Portfolio Manager offering those investments to the Issuer.

The Portfolio Manager will endeavor to resolve conflicts with respect to investment opportunities in a manner that it deems equitable to the extent possible under the prevailing facts and circumstances. Further, the Portfolio Manager will be prohibited under the Management Agreement from directing the acquisition of Collateral Obligations from, or the disposition of Collateral Obligations to, its Affiliates or any other account managed by the Portfolio Manager except in a transaction conducted on an arm's-length basis for fair market value and if the Portfolio Manager has complied with its policies and procedures with respect to the acquisition or disposition and the acquisition or disposition otherwise complies with the requirements of the United States Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

The Portfolio Manager currently serves as the portfolio manager for a number of special purpose vehicles that have issued securities secured by or referencing collateral consisting of assets similar to the Collateral Obligations, which may create conflicts in allocating its time and services among the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager's other accounts.

Upon the removal or resignation of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer, at the written direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, may appoint a replacement Portfolio Manager if a Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single Class (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates)) each Class of the Notes do not object to the replacement Portfolio Manager. See "The Management Agreement." Securities held by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates will have no voting rights with respect to any vote in connection with removal of the Portfolio Manager for "cause" and will be deemed not to be outstanding in connection with any vote to remove the Portfolio Manager for "cause." Securities held by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates will have voting rights with respect to all other matters as to which the Holders of the Securities are entitled to vote, including any vote to direct an Optional Redemption and any vote to appoint a replacement Portfolio Manager in accordance with the Management Agreement. See "The Management Agreement" and "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption." The Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may own equity or other securities of issuers of or obligors on Collateral Obligations or other Collateral and may have provided and may provide in the future, advisory and other services to issuers of Collateral.

The Issuer expects to acquire substantially all of the Collateral Obligations to be acquired by the Closing Date during an accumulation period before the Closing Date (the "Accumulation Period") and will finance those purchases with financing provided by the Warehouse Provider, which is an affiliate of the Initial Purchaser. The Issuer will be required to repurchase the participations providing that financing by the Closing Date with the proceeds of the issuance of the Securities. The Collateral Obligations purchased before the Closing Date will be chosen by the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, subject to certain rights of the Warehouse Provider. Any interest accrued on Collateral Obligations purchased by the Issuer before the Closing Date will be paid to the Warehouse Provider and the Portfolio Manager in the specified percentages provided in the Warehouse Agreement. As a result, investors in the Securities will be assuming the risk of market value and credit quality changes in the Collateral Obligations from the date the Collateral Obligations are acquired during the Accumulation Period but will not receive the benefit of interest earned on the Collateral Obligations during that period.

On the Closing Date, the Portfolio Manager or its Affiliates are expected to purchase Preference Shares having an aggregate Face Amount equal to U.S.$13,200,000. The Portfolio Manager will be entitled to receive the Senior Management Fee, the Subordinated Management Fee and the Incentive Management Fee, as further described herein. The structure of such fees may cause the Portfolio Manager to direct the Issuer to make more speculative investments in Collateral Obligations than it would otherwise make in the absence of such performance based compensation. The Portfolio Manager expects to borrow funds from a JPMorgan Company for a portion of the purchase price of the Preference Shares acquired by it and will pledge all such Preference Shares (including rights to the distributions thereon) as well as the Portfolio Manager's right to the Senior Management Fee and Subordinated Management Fee as collateral for such loan. The reliance by the Portfolio Manager on distributions on the Preference Shares for repayment of such loan from such JPMorgan Company could create a conflict of interest with respect to the performance of the Portfolio Manager's obligations. In addition, as agreed in the Portfolio Management Agreement, Highland Capital and its Affiliates will, so long as Highland Capital or any of its Affiliates is acting as Portfolio Manager, maintain, in the aggregate, ownership of the aggregate Face Amount of Preference Shares described in "Summary of Terms—The Portfolio Manager." See "The Portfolio Management Agreement."

In addition, the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates may act as the Securities Lending Counterparty under any Securities Lending Agreement entered into by the Issuer.

The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Initial Purchaser

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise as a result of the investment banking, commercial banking, asset management, financing and financial advisory services and products provided by J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. and its Affiliates (including JPMorgan, JPMCB and their Affiliates, (each, a "JPMorgan Company" and together the "JPMorgan Companies")), to the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the issuers of the Collateral Obligations and others, as well as in connection with the investment, trading and brokerage activities of the JPMorgan Companies. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

JPMorgan will serve as Initial Purchaser for the Notes, the Composite Securities and a portion of the Preference Shares and will be paid fees and commissions for such service by the Issuer from the proceeds of the issuance of the Securities. One or more of the JPMorgan Companies may from time to time hold Securities for investment, trading or other purposes. JPMCB will serve as Trustee, Collateral Administrator, securities intermediary and Preference Shares Paying Agent and a JPMorgan Company will serve as the Irish listing and paying agent and both will be entitled to fees and expenses senior in payment on each Payment Date to payments on the Notes. The Issuer's purchase of Collateral Obligations that are loans prior to the Closing Date was financed through the sale of participation interests therein to JPMCB pursuant to the Warehousing Agreement. A portion of the proceeds of the offering of the Securities will be paid to JPMCB to repurchase such participation interests. The Issuer may have purchased and sold prior to the Closing Date, and may purchase or sell after the Closing Date, Collateral Obligations from, to or through, and purchase Synthetic Securities and enter into Hedge Agreements with, one or more of the JPMorgan Companies. Certain Eligible Investments may be issued, managed or underwritten by one or more of the JPMorgan Companies. One or more of the JPMorgan Companies may provide investment banking, commercial banking, asset management, financing and financial advisory services and products to the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates, and funds managed by the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates, and purchase, hold and sell, both for their respective accounts or for the account of their respective clients, on a principal or agency basis, loans, securities, and other obligations and financial instruments of the Portfolio Manager, its Affiliates, and funds managed by the Portfolio Manager and its Affiliates. As a result of such transactions or arrangements, one or more of the JPMorgan Companies may have interests adverse to those of the Issuer and Holders of the Notes, Composite Securities and Preference Shares.

One or more of the JPMorgan Companies may:

- have placed or underwritten, or acted as a financial arranger, structuring agent or advisor in connection with the original issuance of, or may act as a broker or dealer with respect to, certain of the Collateral Obligations;
- act as trustee, paying agent and in other capacities in connection with certain of the Collateral Obligations or other classes of securities issued by an issuer of a Collateral Obligation or an Affiliate thereof;
- be a counterparty to issuers of certain of the Collateral Obligations under swap or other derivative agreements;
- lend to certain of the issuers of Collateral Obligations or their respective Affiliates or receive guarantees from the issuers of those Collateral Obligations or their respective Affiliates;
- provide other investment banking, asset management, commercial banking, financing or financial advisory services to the issuers of Collateral Obligations or their respective Affiliates; or
- have an equity interest, which may be a substantial equity interest, in certain issuers of the Collateral Obligations or their respective Affiliates.

When acting as a trustee, paying agent or in other service capacities with respect to a Collateral Obligation, the JPMorgan Companies will be entitled to fees and expenses senior in priority to payments to such Collateral Obligation. When acting as a trustee for other classes of securities issued by the issuer of a Collateral Obligation or an Affiliate thereof, the JPMorgan Companies will owe fiduciary duties to the holders of such other classes of securities, which classes of securities may have differing interests from the holders of the class of securities of which the Collateral Obligation is a part, and may take actions that are adverse to the holders (including the Issuer) of the class of securities of which the Collateral Obligation is a part. As a counterparty under swaps and other derivative agreements, the JPMorgan Companies might take actions adverse to the interests of the Issuer, including, but not limited to, demanding collateralization of its exposure under such agreements (if provided for thereunder) or terminating such swaps or agreements in accordance with the terms thereof. In making and administering loans and other obligations, the JPMorgan Companies might take actions including, but not limited to, restructuring a loan, foreclosing on or exercising other remedies with respect to a loan, requiring additional collateral or other credit enhancement, charging significant fees and interest, placing the obligor in bankruptcy or demanding payment on a loan guarantee or under other credit enhancement. The Issuer's purchase, holding and sale of Collateral Obligations may enhance the profitability or value of investments made by the JPMorgan Companies in the issuers thereof. As a result of all such transactions or arrangements between the JPMorgan Companies and issuers of Collateral Obligations or their respective Affiliates, J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. may have interests that are contrary to the interests of the Issuer and the Holders of the Notes and Preference Shares.

As part of their regular business, the JPMorgan Companies may also provide investment banking, commercial banking, asset management, financing and financial advisory services and products to, and purchase, hold and sell, both for their respective accounts or for the account of their respective clients, on a principal or agency basis, loans, securities, and other obligations and financial instruments and engage in private equity investment activities. The JPMorgan Companies will not be restricted in their performance of any such services or in the types of debt or equity investments, which they may make. In conducting the foregoing activities, the JPMorgan Companies will be acting for their own account or the account of their customers and will have no obligation to act in the interest of the Issuer.

The JPMorgan Companies may, by virtue of the relationships described above or otherwise, at the date hereof or at any time hereafter, be in possession of information regarding certain of the issuers of Collateral Obligations and their respective Affiliates, that is or may be material in the context of the Securities and that is or may not be known to the general public. None of the JPMorgan Companies has any obligation, and the offering of the Securities will not create any obligation on their part, to disclose to any purchaser of the Securities any such relationship or information, whether or not confidential.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SECURITIES

The Notes and the Composite Securities will be issued pursuant to the Indenture. The terms of the Preference Shares are contained in the Issuer Charter and in certain resolutions adopted by the Issuer's Board of Directors on or before the Closing Date authorizing and approving the issuance of the Securities, as reflected in the minutes thereof (the "Resolutions" and, together with the Issuer Charter and the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the "Preference Share Documents"). The following summary describes certain provisions of the Notes, the Composite Securities, the Preference Shares, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the provisions of the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. Copies of the Indenture may be obtained by prospective purchasers upon request in writing to the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office, 600 Travis Street, 50th Floor, Houston, Texas 77002, Attention: Institutional Trust Services—Southfork CLO Ltd., and will be available at the office of JP Morgan Bank (Ireland) PLC (in such capacity, the "Irish Paying and Listing Agent") in the City of Dublin. Copies of the Preference Share Documents may be obtained upon request in writing to the Administrator at P.O. Box 1093 GT, Queensgate House, South Church Street, George Town, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands, Attention: Southfork CLO Ltd.

Status and Security

The Notes are non-recourse debt obligations of the Co-Issuers. The Composite Securities are limited recourse obligations of the Issuer, secured as described in this Offering Circular. Each Note within a Class will rank pari passu with all other Notes of that Class (with the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes being treated as separate Classes). Under the Indenture, the Issuer will grant to the Trustee a first-priority security interest in the Collateral to secure the Issuer's obligations under the Indenture, the Notes, the Composite Securities, the Insurance Documents, the Hedge Agreements and the Management Agreement (collectively, the "Secured Obligations"). The Notes are payable solely from amounts received in respect of the Collateral pledged by the Issuer to secure the Notes which includes, solely for the benefit of the Class A-1g Notes, amounts available under the Policy with respect to Insured Amounts. The Composite Securities are payable solely from amounts received in respect of the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral, pledged by the Issuer to secure the Notes and the Composite Securities. If the amounts received in respect of the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral (net of certain expenses) are insufficient to make payments on the Secured Obligations and, solely in the case of the Class 1 Collateral, the Composite Securities, in accordance with the Priority of Payments, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and, following liquidation of all the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral, the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, to pay the deficiency will be extinguished.

The Preference Shares are entitled only to proceeds of the Collateral to the extent that any Sales Proceeds are remaining on any Payment Date after payment of all interest and principal payable on each Class of Notes on that Payment Date and the satisfaction of certain other amounts payable in accordance with the Priority of Payments (provided that payments in respect of the Preference Share Components will be made on the Composite Securities Payment Date).

In furtherance of the priorities of payments among the Classes of Notes and the Preference Shares, the Indenture contains express subordination provisions pursuant to which the Holders of each Class of Notes that is a Junior Class as described below agree for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class and (in the case of the Class A-1g Notes) the Insurer with respect to the Junior Class that the Junior Class shall be subordinate and junior to the Notes of each Priority Class to the extent and in the manner provided in the Indenture.

If any Event of Default has not been cured or waived and acceleration occurs under and in accordance with the Indenture, each Priority Class of Notes and all amounts owed by the Issuer to the Insurer under the Indenture or the Insurance Agreement shall be paid in full in cash (without giving effect to payments on the Policy) or, to the extent a Majority of the Class consents, other than in cash, before any further payment or distribution is made on account of any Junior Class of Notes with respect to the Priority Class. The Holders of each Junior Class of Notes agree, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes of each Priority Class and (in the case of the Class A-1g Notes) the Insurer in respect of the Junior Class, not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for failure to pay to them amounts due to the Junior Class, of the Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, or under the Indenture until the payment in full of the Priority Classes or all the Classes, as the case may be, and all amounts owed by the Issuer to the Insurer under the Indenture or the Insurance Agreement, and not before one year and a day, or if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, has elapsed since the payment.

For purposes of this provision, with respect to each Class of Notes, the Classes of Notes that are Priority Classes and Junior Classes are as follows:

Senior Class A	A-2, A-3, B, C, Preference Shares	None
A-2	A-3, B, C, Preference Shares	Senior Class A
A-3	B, C, Preference Shares	Senior Class A, A-2
B	C, Preference Shares	Senior Class A, A-2, A-3
C	Preference Shares	Senior Class A, A-2, A-3, B
Preference Shares	None*	Senior Class A, A-2, A-3, B, C

*The Preference Shares will be entitled to certain residual cashflow after payment of senior obligations in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

If, notwithstanding the provisions of the Indenture, any Holder of Notes of any Junior Class has received any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes contrary to the provisions of the Indenture, then, until each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class of Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, and the Insurer has been paid in full in cash or, to the extent a Majority of the Priority Class or the Class, as the case may be, consents, other than in cash in accordance with the Indenture, the payment or distribution shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of, and shall forthwith be paid over and delivered to, the Trustee, which shall pay and deliver the same to the Holders of the applicable Priority Classes of Notes or the Holders of all Classes of Notes, as the case may be, and the Insurer in accordance with the Indenture. If any such payment or distribution is made other than in cash, it shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and subject in all respects to the Indenture.

Each Holder of Notes of any Junior Class agrees with all Holders of the applicable Priority Classes and the Insurer that the Holder of Junior Class Notes shall not demand, accept, or receive any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes in violation of the Indenture. After a Priority Class and the Insurer has been paid in full, the Holders of the related Junior Class or Classes shall be fully subrogated to the rights of the Holders of the Priority Class and the Insurer. Nothing in these provisions shall affect the obligation of the Issuer to pay Holders of any Junior Class of Notes.

Distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares are subordinate to distributions on the Notes and Preference Shares as described in the Priority of Payments.

The Management Fees shall have priority only to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments.

For purposes of subordination, the Composite Securities shall not be treated as a separate Class, but the Preference Share Component shall be treated as forming a part of the Preference Shares.

Interest Payments on the Notes and Payments of Dividends on the Preference Shares from Interest Proceeds

The Notes of each Class will accrue interest during each Interest Period on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day) at the applicable per annum interest rates for each such Class (the "Note Interest Rate") equal to (i) in the case of the Notes (other than the Fixed Rate Notes), LIBOR for Eurodollar deposits for the applicable Interest Period plus the spread, as specified above under "Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities" and (ii) in the case of the Fixed Rate Notes, as specified above under "Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities." Interest shall be payable in arrears on each Payment Date. Interest accrued shall be calculated (i) in the case of the Notes (other than the Fixed Rate Notes) on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the applicable Interest Period divided by 360 and (ii) in the case of the Fixed Rate Notes on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months. Payment of interest on each Class of Notes shall be subordinated to the payments of interest on the related Priority Classes and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments. If on any Payment Date the amount of available Interest Proceeds is not sufficient for the payment in full of accrued and unpaid interest on the Senior Class A Notes, accrued and unpaid Premium and any accrued and unpaid Defaulted Interest on the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-1g Notes shall be subordinated to the payments of Premium to the extent provided in clause (5)(A) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds."

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of Deferred Interest in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered "payable" for the purposes of the Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments. To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest), until paid.

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note, or in the case of a partial repayment, on the part repaid, from the date of repayment or the respective Stated Maturity unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or unless there is some other default with respect to the payments of principal.

On each Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date), the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Interest Proceeds as described under clauses (18), (21) and (23) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds."

For purposes of calculating interest on each Class of Notes, the Issuer will initially appoint the Trustee as calculation agent (the Trustee in that capacity, and each successor calculation agent, the "Calculation Agent").

As soon as possible after 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period, but in no event later than 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the next Business Day, the Calculation Agent will calculate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes for the related Interest Period and the amount of interest for the Interest Period payable in respect of each $100,000 in principal amount of each Class of Floating Rate Notes (in each case rounded to the nearest cent, with half a cent being rounded upward) on the related Payment Date and will communicate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes and the date of the next Payment Date to the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, each paying agent, Euroclear, Clearstream, the Depository, and (as long as the Securities (other than the Preference Shares) are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange) the Irish Stock Exchange.

The Calculation Agent may be removed by the Co-Issuers at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Co-Issuers or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes or the amount of interest payable in respect of each Class of Floating Rate Notes for any Interest Period, the Issuer will promptly appoint as a replacement Calculation Agent a leading bank which is engaged in transactions in U.S. Dollar deposits in the international U.S. Dollar market and which does not control and is not controlled by or under common control with the Co-Issuers or any of their respective affiliates. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been duly appointed. The determination of the Note Interest Rate with respect to each Class of Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Period by the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon all parties.

"LIBOR," determined by the Calculation Agent for any Interest Period, means the offered rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent, for three month Dollar deposits that appears on Moneyline Telerate Page 3750 as reported on Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News (or a page that replaces Moneyline Telerate Page 3750 for the purpose of displaying comparable rates), as of 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period.

If, on the second Business Day before the first day of any relevant Interest Period, that rate does not appear on Moneyline Telerate Page 3750 as reported on Bloomberg Financial Market Commodities News (or a page that replaces Moneyline Telerate Page 3750 for the purpose of displaying comparable rates), the Calculation Agent shall determine the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations of the Reference Banks to prime banks in the London interbank market for three month Dollar deposits in Europe, by reference to requests by the Calculation Agent to four major banks in the London interbank market selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Portfolio Manager) (the "Reference Banks") for quotations as of approximately 11:00 A.M. (London time) on the second Business Day before the first day of the Interest Period. If at least two of the Reference Banks provide quotations as requested, LIBOR shall equal such arithmetic mean. If fewer than two Reference Banks provide quotations, LIBOR shall be the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations that leading banks in New York City selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Portfolio Manager) are quoting to the principal London offices of leading banks in the London interbank market on the second Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period for three month Dollar deposits.

If the Calculation Agent is unable to determine a rate in accordance with any of the above procedures, LIBOR for the Interest Period shall be calculated on the last day of the Interest Period and shall be the arithmetic mean of the rate of interest for each day during the Interest Period determined by the Calculation Agent as being the rate of interest most recently announced by the Bank at its New York office as its base rate, prime rate, reference rate, or similar rate for Dollar loans (or if the Bank ceases to exist or is not quoting a base rate, prime rate, reference rate, or similar rate for Dollar loans, another major money center commercial bank in New York City selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Portfolio Manager)).

For the first Interest Period, LIBOR shall be determined based on the actual number of days in the Interest Period using straight-line interpolation of two rates calculated in accordance with the above procedure, except that instead of using three month deposits, one rate shall be determined using the period for which rates are obtainable next shorter than the Interest Period and the other rate shall be determined using the period for which rates are obtainable next longer than the Interest Period. All calculations shall be calculated to at least four decimal places and rounded to four decimal places.

Principal Payments on the Notes and Distributions on the Preference Shares from Principal Proceeds

The principal of each Note of each Class matures at par and is payable on the Payment Date that is the Stated Maturity for the Class of Notes, unless the unpaid principal of the Note becomes payable at an earlier date by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption, or otherwise. The Preference Shares are scheduled to be redeemed on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, unless redeemed or repaid in full prior thereto. The average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years from issuance until Stated Maturity for such Notes. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Weighted Average Lives of the Notes Interests May Vary" and "Maturity and Prepayment Considerations." Notwithstanding the foregoing, the payment of principal of each Class of Notes: (i) may only occur after principal on each Class of Notes that is a Priority Class with respect to the Class has been paid in full and (ii) is subordinated to the payment on each Payment Date of the principal and interest payable on the Priority Classes, and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments. However, Principal Proceeds may be used to pay Deferred Interest and other amounts before the payment of principal of the Notes. See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments."

In general, principal payments will not be made on the Notes before the end of the Reinvestment Period, except in the following circumstances: (i) in connection with an Optional Redemption, (ii) at the option of the Portfolio Manager, to effect a Special Redemption of the Notes, (iii) pursuant to a redemption made in connection with a Tax Event or (iv) following a mandatory redemption of the Notes caused by a failure to meet any of the Coverage Tests or a Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Reinvestment Period, Principal Proceeds will be applied on each Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments to pay principal of each Class of Notes (except for Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations which may be reinvested as described herein). No principal of any Class of Notes will be payable on any Payment Date other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and to the extent funds are available therefor on that Payment Date for that purpose, except that the principal of each Class of Notes will be payable in full at the Stated Maturity, unless repaid before that.

On each Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date), the Issuer will make distributions to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends on the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, to the extent of available Principal Proceeds as described under clauses (6)(A), (9) and (10) under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds."

Legal Provisions Applicable to the Payments of Dividends from Interest Proceeds and Dividends or Other Distributions from Principal Proceeds

Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds paid to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment of dividends on, or the payment of the Redemption Price in respect of, the Preference Shares, will be distributable to the Holders of the Preference Shares only if the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distribution and Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds paid to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment of dividends in respect of the Preference Shares will be distributable to the Holders of the Preference Shares only if the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium and if the Issuer is and will remain solvent following such distribution. Payments will be paid by the Trustee to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, for payment of dividends and other distributions to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, on a pro rata basis according to the number of Preference Shares held by each Holder on the Record Date for such Payment Date.

Distributions on the Composite Securities

On each Payment Date on which distributions are made in respect of the Preference Shares, a portion of such payment will be allocated to the Class 1 Composite Securities in the proportion that the aggregate Face Amount of the Preference Share Component bears to the aggregate Face Amount of the Preference Shares. The payment of distributions, redemption amounts and any other payments on the Class 1 Composite Securities will be distributed in the same manner as the Preference Shares to which the Preference Share Component relates, except that such payment will be made on the Composite Securities Payment Date. See "—Priority of Payments."

On each Composite Securities Payment Date, the Trustee will disburse (solely from amounts in the Class 1 Component Account attributable to the proceeds from the sale of the Treasury Strip as described in "Description of the Securities—Class 1 Component Distributions") to the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, pro rata based on their share of the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance, the proceeds from the sale of the Treasury Strip relating to such Composite Securities Payment Date. See "—Priority of Payments—Class 1 Component Distributions."

Extension of the Reinvestment Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date

General

The Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Reinvestment Period to the applicable Extended Reinvestment Period End Date if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously affected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date and (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Reinvestment Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Notes shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or Preference Shares or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents.

In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes, Composite Securities or Preference Shares wishing to sell such Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to "—Extension Procedure" below (such Securities as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, "Extension Sale Securities"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Holder providing an Extension Sale Notice shall be deemed to agree that no Extension Sale Securities of any Holder shall be purchased unless all Extension Sale Securities of all Holders are purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date and the other Extension Conditions are satisfied as of such date.

The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the "Extension Conditions") are satisfied:

- (i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;
- (ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions herein, in the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Securities and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);
- (iii) (a) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) either (A) all Coverage Tests and the Selected Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied as of the related Extension Determination Date, the rating of each Class of Notes or Composite Securities by Moody's has not been downgraded, withdrawn or qualified from that in effect on the Closing Date (unless it subsequently has been reinstated to the rating assigned on the Closing Date) and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $663,000,000 or (B) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody's (so long as any Notes or Composite Securities are then rated by Moody's); and
- (iv) so long as the Insurer is the Controlling Class, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer has obtained the Insurer's consent; provided, however, in the event that the Insurer does not consent to a Maturity Extension, the Holders of 100% of the Insured Notes (after giving effect to the sale of any Insured Notes which are Extension Sale Securities in connection with the proposed Maturity Extension) the Insured Notes may, pursuant to the Indenture and as described below under "—Termination of the Policy," terminate the Policy, upon which, so long as clauses (i) through (iii) above have been satisfied, the Maturity Extension shall be effective.

In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Holder of Notes other than Extension Sale Securities and the Insurer (so long as the Policy has not been terminated as described below under "—Termination of the Policy") shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment. Holders of Composite Securities and Preference Shares shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to (i) any applicable qualifying beneficial owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification and (ii) to the Insurer, on the first Payment Date from and including the Extension Effective Date on which funds are available to be used for such purposes in accordance with the Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption of the Notes. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments on a Payment Date shall not be considered "due and payable" hereunder. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Securities. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid: (i) in the case of the Notes, to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer and (ii) in the case of the Insurer, to the account specified in the Premium Letter or as otherwise directed by the Insurer in writing.

If all Extension Conditions are satisfied, other than obtaining the consent of the Insurer to such Extension, and the Insurer has and continues to object to such Extension, so long as there are no Accrued Insurance Liabilities outstanding on the related Payment Date, the Policy may be terminated by the Holders of 100% of the Class A-1g Notes (after giving effect to the sale of any Insured Notes which are Extension Sale Securities in connection with the proposed Maturity Extension). Upon such termination of the Policy, the Note Interest Rate in respect of the Class A-1g Notes will be the Step-Up Note Interest Rate. See "—Termination of the Policy."

Extension Procedure

No later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer's election to extend the Reinvestment Period (the "Extension Notice"), the Trustee shall mail the Extension Notice to all Holders of Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes or Composite Securities are Outstanding), in the form set out in the Indenture, and shall request the Rating Condition for the Maturity Extension from S&P, if applicable.

Any Holder of Securities may give irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") within 30 days after the Trustee has mailed the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell its Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of Securities that has not given such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension.

If clause (iii)(b)(A) of the Extension Conditions is not satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date as determined by the Issuer (or its agent), the Trustee shall request the Rating Condition to be satisfied with respect to Moody's.

On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) shall confirm (i) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Securities in compliance with all transfer restrictions in the Indenture and the legends on such Securities and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (ii) whether the requirements of clause (iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (iii) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall automatically become effective under the terms of the Indenture; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth above are satisfied. No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail a notice to all Holders of Notes and Composite Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) and the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Notes or Composite Securities is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depository for any Securities subject to the Maturity Extension.

None of the Initial Purchaser, the Portfolio Manager or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any duty to act as an Extension Qualifying Purchaser.

Optional Redemption

Notes. The Holders of at least 63% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares may give written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer, the Insurer and the Portfolio Manager directing an optional redemption of the Notes (with respect to the Notes, an "Optional Redemption") upon the occurrence of a Tax Event or at any time after the Non-Call Period. Such notice must be given not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made. Upon receipt of the written notice directing an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Issuers are required by the Indenture to redeem the Notes (in whole but not in part) from amounts available therefor in accordance with "—Redemption Procedures" described below. Any Optional Redemption of the Notes shall be made at the applicable Redemption Price. Upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes, the Reinvestment Period will terminate in accordance with the definition of that term. The Issuer shall, at least 30 days before the Redemption Date (unless the Trustee shall agree to a shorter notice period), notify the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Insurer and each Rating Agency of the Redemption Date, the applicable Record Date, the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed on the Redemption Date and the applicable Redemption Prices.

Preference Shares. On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, all administrative and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture and the Insurance Documents to the Insurer, and all amounts owing under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged:

(i) at the direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Preference Shares, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings; or

(ii) at the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares, voting as a single Class or group the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a directed portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such direction,

(with respect to the Preference Shares and each of clauses (i) and (ii) above, an "Optional Redemption").

Upon a distribution pursuant to clause (i) above, the Portfolio Manager will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Management Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer (and subject to clause (ii) above), direct the sale of all remaining Collateral Obligations. Upon a distribution pursuant to clause (ii) above, the Portfolio Manager will effect the sale of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares.

Upon receipt of the written notice directing an Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares, the Issuer is required by the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement to redeem the Preference Shares in accordance with "—Redemption Procedures" described below. Any Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares shall be made at the applicable Redemption Price.

In connection with a redemption of the Preference Shares, a portion of the payments paid in respect of the Preference Shares will be allocated to the Composite Securities in the proportion that the aggregate Face Amount of the Preference Share Components bears to the aggregate Face Amount of the Preference Shares as a whole (including the related Preference Share Component and any other applicable Preference Share Component) (and such payment will be made on the Composite Securities Payment Date). Other than as set forth below, no other payments will be made on the Composite Securities in connection with a redemption of the Preference Shares.

Upon the occurrence of a redemption of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Indenture, in whole or in part, the Class 1 Components shall be redeemed by the Issuer, in whole but not in part, on the Composite Securities Payment Date from Class 1 Collateral available for that purpose in the Class 1 Component Account at the applicable Redemption Price. All Class 1 Components must be simultaneously redeemed. Upon any redemption of the Class 1 Components, the Holders of Class 1 Composite Securities shall receive the Redemption Price as a distribution in kind of a pro rata share (based on the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance) of each item of the Class 1 Collateral.

Redemption Procedures. Notice of a redemption shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days and not earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date, to (i) the Insurer, each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository, Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, to the Holders of the Composite Securities and to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and (ii) in the case of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, to each Rating Agency. In addition, for so long as any Securities (other than the Preference Shares) are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of an Optional Redemption of Notes shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

Notice of redemption having been given as provided above, the Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at the Redemption Price therein specified and from and after the Redemption Date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest) the Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Redemption Date.

Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, the Holder shall present and surrender the Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption to receive the applicable Redemption Price unless the Holder provides an undertaking to surrender the Note thereafter. If a Component is to be redeemed, the related Composite Security does not need to be surrendered at the office of any paying agent under the Indenture to receive the applicable Redemption Price.

The Notes may not be optionally redeemed unless either of the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) at least ten Business Days before the Redemption Date, the Portfolio Manager shall have furnished to the Trustee evidence (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) that the Issuer has entered into a binding agreements (with a financial or other institution or entity whose short-term unsecured debt obligations (other than obligations whose rating is based on the credit of a person other than the institution) have a credit rating of at least "A-1" from S&P and of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's (or to any other institution or entity if the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's is satisfied with respect to the other entity)) to sell to the financial or other institutions, not later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date in immediately available funds, all or part of the Collateral (directly or by participation or other arrangement) at a Purchase Price at least equal to an amount sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture and the Insurance Agreement to the Insurer, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices; or

(ii) before entering into any binding agreement to sell all or a portion of the Collateral and selling or terminating any Hedge Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall have certified that, in its commercially reasonable judgment, the settlement dates of the sales will be scheduled to occur on or before the Business Day before the Redemption Date and that the expected proceeds from the sales are to be delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date, in immediately available funds, in an amount (calculated as applicable in the manner provided below) sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture and the Insurance Documents to the Insurer, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount shall be calculated with respect to the classes of Collateral listed in the table below by multiplying the expected proceeds of sale of the Collateral by the indicated percentage in the table below.

		Number of Business Days Between Certification to the Trustee and Sale
		Same Day	1 to 2	3 to 5	6 to 15
1.	Cash or other Eligible Investments	100%	100%	100%	100%
2.	Loans (other than 5 below)	100%	93%	92%	88%
3.	High-Yield Bonds (other than 5 below) and Structured Finance Obligations (in each case, other than 4 below)	100%	89%	85%	75%
4.	High-Yield Bonds (other than 5 below) and Structured Finance Obligations, in each case with a Moody's Rating of "B3" and on credit watch with negative implications or below "B3"	100%	75%	65%	55%
5.	Synthetic Securities	100%	65%	55%	35%

Any certification delivered by the Portfolio Manager shall include (A) the prices of, and expected proceeds from, the sale of any Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments or Hedge Agreements and (B) all calculations required by the Indenture.

Any notice of redemption may be withdrawn by the Issuer up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Trustee, the Insurer and the Portfolio Manager only if:

(i) in the case of an Optional Redemption of Notes, the Portfolio Manager does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications required under the Indenture, as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee;

(ii) in the case of an Optional Redemption in whole of either the Notes or the Preference Shares as described above in "—Optional Redemption—Notes" and clause (i) of the first paragraph under "—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares," the Issuer receives the written direction of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption delivered by the percentage of the Preference Shares requesting redemption under "—Optional Redemption—Notes" or clause (i) of the first paragraph under "—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares," as applicable; and

(iii) in the case of an Optional Redemption of Preference Shares as described in clause (ii) of the first paragraph under "Optional Redemption—Preference Shares," the Issuer receives the unanimous written direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer hereby agrees for the benefit of the directing person to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written direction referred to in the preceding clause (ii) or this clause (iii)).

Notice of any withdrawal shall be sent, not later than the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date (assuming that the Trustee has received timely written notice from the Issuer as provided above), by the Trustee, to each Holder of Notes scheduled to be redeemed at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery (or, to the extent the address contained in the Indenture Register is not sufficient for that purpose, by first-class mail), the Holders of Composite Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares). If the Issuer so withdraws any notice of redemption or is otherwise unable to complete any redemption of the Notes, the Sale Proceeds received from the sale of any Collateral Obligations sold in accordance with the Indenture may, during the Reinvestment Period (and, in respect of Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, after the Reinvestment Period) at the Portfolio Manager's discretion, be reinvested in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria.

Notice of redemption shall be given by the Co-Issuers or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note selected for redemption, to each Holder of Composite Securities or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Securities.

Special Redemption of Notes If the Portfolio Manager Does Not Identify Investments as Contemplated by the Indenture

Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in whole or in part, at par, in accordance with the Priority of Payments if, at any time during the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager elects (subject to the Management Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the investment or reinvestment of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be invested in additional Collateral Obligations.

On the Special Redemption Date, the Special Redemption Amount will be available to be applied in accordance with "—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds" to the extent of available Principal Proceeds. Notice of payment of the Special Redemption Amount shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than three Business Days before the applicable Special Redemption Date, to the Insurer and each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Depository. In addition, for so long as any Securities (other than the Preference Shares) are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of a Special Redemption of the Notes shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

In connection with a Special Redemption, the principal of the Notes will be paid from Principal Proceeds in an aggregate amount equal to the Special Redemption Amount (first to any Senior Class A Notes to be redeemed, then to any Class A-2 Notes to be redeemed, then to any Class A-3 Notes to be redeemed, then to any Class B Notes to be redeemed and then to any Class C Notes to be redeemed, in each case until paid in full) in accordance with the Priority of Payments. See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds."

General

In the event of a Rating Confirmation Failure or a failure to meet any Coverage Test on any Determination Date, a mandatory redemption of one or more Classes of Notes in whole or in part will be required. Any mandatory redemption could result in an elimination, deferral or reduction in interest or principal payments to one or more Classes of Securities, which would adversely affect the returns to the Holders of the Class or Classes of Securities. See "Risk Factors—Relating to the Securities—The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Interests for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests" and "—The Indenture Requires Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure."

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes for Failure to Satisfy Coverage Tests

Except with respect to payments made pursuant to an Optional Redemption or a redemption made in connection with a Tax Event as described under "—Optional Redemption," on any Payment Date with respect to which any Coverage Test (as described under "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—The Coverage Tests") is not met on any Determination Date, principal payments on the Notes will be made as described under "—Priority of Payments."

Mandatory Redemption of the Notes Upon Rating Confirmation Failure

Upon the event of a Rating Confirmation Failure, all Interest Proceeds remaining after payment of amounts referred to in clauses (1) and (3) through (12) of "—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" will be used to pay principal of the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes sequentially in order of their priority on the next Payment Date and each Payment Date thereafter until the Initial Ratings are confirmed. If necessary, after the foregoing payments are made out of Interest Proceeds, Principal Proceeds in accordance with clause (3) "—Priority of Payments—Principal Proceeds" will be used to pay principal of each Class of the Notes sequentially in order of their priority on each Payment Date until the Initial Ratings are confirmed.

Upon receipt of notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes, at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes, then at the direction and in accordance with the instructions of the Portfolio Manager the Trustee shall sell Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for the purpose in the Collection Account will be used to redeem the Notes (but only to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes) and to pay all administrative and other fees, expenses and obligations payable under the Priority of Payments. Any sale under these provisions shall be conducted in such a manner that:

- (i) after giving effect to the sale each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied or, if any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Overcollateralization Test is not reduced;

Class 1 Component Distributions

On the first Business Day after each Payment Date, the Trustee shall make commercially reasonable efforts to sell a portion or all of the Treasury Strip held in the Class 1 Component Account on the customary open markets in accordance with customary industry standards. ### Termination of the Policy

The Policy may be terminated on any Payment Date if: (x) after giving effect to all payments to be made on such Payment Date, all Accrued Insurance Liabilities and all Administrative Expenses payable to the Insurer accrued through the date of termination have been paid and all Premium accrued through such Payment Date has been paid and (y) any of the following events has occurred and is continuing on such date:

(i) the Co-Issuers have elected to extend the Reinvestment Period as described under "—Extension of the Reinvestment Period, the Stated Maturity and the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date" and have satisfied all of the requirements related thereto (including each of the Extension Conditions), other than obtaining the consent of the Insurer to such Extension, and the Insurer has and continues to object to such Extension, and the Holders of 100% of the Insured Notes (after giving effect to the sale of any Insured Notes which are Extension Sale Securities in connection with the proposed Maturity Extension) consent to such termination in accordance with the Indenture;

(ii) the Co-Issuers have proposed to enter into a supplemental indenture pursuant to the Indenture and have satisfied all of the requirements for the effectiveness thereof and the Insurer has and continues to object to such amendment and 100% of the Holders of the Insured Notes consent to such termination in accordance with the Indenture; or

(iii) the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser shall have purchased the Insured Notes for the applicable Removal Buy-Out Purchase Price as described in "—Removal Buy-Out."

If none of the conditions set forth in clause (i) through (iii) above are satisfied, the Policy may be terminated on any Business Day if 100% of the Holders of the Insured Notes consent to such termination in accordance with the Indenture.

Upon such termination of the Policy, the Note Interest Rate in respect of the Class A-1g Notes will be the Step-Up Note Interest Rate.

If the Issuer or the Holders of at least 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Insured Notes wish to solicit the vote of the Holders of the Insured Notes in connection with a proposed termination of the Policy pursuant to the Indenture, the Issuer or such Holders shall notify the Trustee at least 45 days prior to the proposed termination date (which in the case of a termination pursuant to the first paragraph above must be a Payment Date). If the conditions for termination specified above are satisfied as of the date of such notice (or are expected to be satisfied as of the proposed date of termination), as certified to the Trustee by an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall, promptly upon receipt thereof, notify the Issuer (in the case of notice to the Trustee by the requisite Holders of the Insured Notes), the Portfolio Manager, and the Insurer and shall send to all Holders of the Insured Notes (with a copy to the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and the Insurer) a notice of proposed termination that shall state:

1. the notice is being sent at the request of the Issuer or certain Holders of the Insured Notes (as applicable) who wish to solicit the vote of the Holders of the Insured Notes in connection with a termination of the Policy pursuant to the Indenture;

2. a copy of the Issuer Order stating that the proposed termination is pursuant to the Indenture, and any conditions to such proposed termination have been satisfied;
3. the proposed date of termination (which in the case of a termination pursuant to the Indenture must be a Payment Date);
4. that from and after termination of the Policy, the Insured Notes will bear interest at a rate of LIBOR + 0.25% + the Premium Rate; and
5. that if the Policy is terminated, the Insurer shall have no further liability for losses, claims, demands, damages, controversies, losses, costs and expenses of any nature whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, fixed or contingent, under the Policy as of the date of such termination, whether such losses, claims, demands, damages, controversies, losses, costs and expenses occurred prior to or subsequent to the date of such termination, and whether in connection with an Avoided Payment or other amount that has been paid by the Issuer or the Insurer prior to or after the termination of the Policy and subsequently is required to be returned as a preference or otherwise.

Each Holder of the Insured Notes that wishes to terminate the Policy must notify the Issuer and Trustee in writing of such determination within 10 Business Days after delivery of the notice of proposed termination. If the Trustee and the Issuer have not received written notification from all of the Holders of the Insured Notes within 10 Business Days of delivery of notice of proposed termination, the solicitation of the vote of the Holders of the Notes will be deemed not to have succeeded. The Trustee shall promptly forward to the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and the Insurer the solicitation of votes received from the Holders of the Insured Notes. If all Holders of the Insured Notes notify the Issuer and the Trustee that they wish to terminate the Policy, the Issuer shall issue an Issuer Order instructing the Trustee to:

1. surrender the Policy to the Insurer for cancellation on the date of termination;
2. promptly notify each Rating Agency of such termination; and
3. execute, acknowledge and deliver (at the expense of Issuer) such other documents or instruments as the Insurer may reasonably request evidencing the termination of the Policy.

Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Notes

The Notes sold in Offshore Transactions may only be sold to non-U.S. Persons in reliance on Regulation S. Except as provided below, the Notes sold in reliance on Regulation S will be represented by one or more Regulation S Global Notes. The Regulation S Global Notes will be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of, a nominee of the Depository for the respective accounts of the beneficial owners at Euroclear and Clearstream. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may be held only through Euroclear or Clearstream. Investors may hold their interests in a Regulation S Global Note directly through Euroclear or Clearstream, if they are participants in such systems, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in such systems. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may not be held by a U.S. Person at any time. By acquisition of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note, the purchaser thereof will be deemed to represent that it is not a U.S. Person and that, if in the future it determines to transfer such beneficial interest, it will transfer such interest only to a person whom the seller reasonably believes to be a non-U.S. Person or to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note.

The Notes sold in non-Offshore Transactions or to U.S. Persons may only be sold to (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers and (ii) (A) a Qualified Purchaser or (B) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers. Except as provided below, the Notes sold in reliance on Rule 144A to Qualified Institutional Buyers and Qualified Purchasers will be represented by one or more permanent Rule 144A Global Notes. Investors may hold their interests in the Rule 144A Global Notes directly through the Depository if they are the Depository participants, or indirectly through organizations that are the Depository participants. The Rule 144A Global Notes will be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for the Depository, and registered in the name of a nominee of the Depository.

Beneficial interests in Notes represented by Global Notes will be subject to certain restrictions on transfer set forth therein and in the Indenture and such Global Notes will bear the applicable legends regarding the restrictions set forth under "Transfer Restrictions." A beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note may be transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note only upon receipt by the Trustee of a written certification from (A) the transferor (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that the transfer is being made to a person whom the transferor reasonably believes is a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is also (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction and (B) the transferee (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is both a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser. Beneficial interests in the Rule 144A Global Notes may be transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note only upon receipt by the Trustee of a written certification from (A) the transferor (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that the transfer is being made to a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction in accordance with Regulation S and (B) the transferee (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is a non-U.S. Person.

Any beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note that is transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note will, upon transfer, cease to be an interest in such Regulation S Global Note and become an interest in the Rule 144A Global Note and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions and other procedures applicable to beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note for as long as it remains such an interest. Any beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Note that is transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note will, upon transfer, cease to be an interest in the Rule 144A Global Note and become an interest in the Regulation S Global Note and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions and other procedures applicable to beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note for as long as it remains such an interest. No service charge will be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes, but the Issuer or Co-Issuers, as the case may be, or the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

Except in the limited circumstances described in this paragraph, owners of beneficial interests in Notes held in the form of Global Notes will not be entitled to receive delivery of certificated Notes. The Notes are not issuable in bearer form. A Global Note deposited with the Depository pursuant to the Indenture shall be transferred to the beneficial owners thereof only if such transfer complies with the Indenture and either (i) the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for a Global Note or ceases to be a "Clearing Agency" registered under the Exchange Act and a successor depository is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days of such notice or (ii) as a result of any amendment to or change in, the laws or regulations of the Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which become effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or the Paying Agent becomes aware that it is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Notes which would not be required if the Notes were in definitive form. In addition, the owner of a beneficial interest in a Global Note will be entitled to receive a certificated Note in exchange for such interest if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. In the event that certificated Notes are not so issued by the Issuer to such beneficial owners of interests in Global Notes, the Issuer expressly acknowledges that such beneficial owners shall be entitled to pursue any remedy that the holders of a Global Note would be entitled to pursue in accordance with the Indenture (but only to the extent of such beneficial owner's interest in the Global Note) as if certificated Notes had been issued. Payments on such certificated Notes will be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a Dollar-denominated account maintained by the owner or, if a wire transfer cannot be effected, by a Dollar check delivered to the owner. See "Settlement and Clearing."

The Notes will be issued in minimum denominations of U.S.$250,000 and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess thereof for each Class of Notes.

Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Composite Securities

Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Composite Security may be held only through Euroclear or Clearstream. Investors may hold their interests in a Regulation S Global Composite Security directly through Euroclear or Clearstream, if they are participants in such systems, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in such systems. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Composite Security may not be held by a U.S. Person at any time. By acquisition of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Composite Security, the purchaser thereof will be deemed to represent that it is not a U.S. Person and that, if in the future it determines to transfer such beneficial interest, it will transfer such interest only to a person whom the seller reasonably believes to be a non-U.S. Person or to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Composite Security.

Composite Securities sold in non-Offshore Transactions or to U.S. Persons may only be sold to (i) a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor who, in either case, is also (ii) (A) a Qualified Purchaser or (B) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, and will be issued in the form of one or more Certificated Composite Securities.

Beneficial interests in the Composite Securities will be subject to certain restrictions on transfer set forth therein and in the Indenture and the Composite Securities will bear the applicable legends regarding the restrictions set forth under "Transfer Restrictions." A beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Composite Security may be transferred only upon (inter alia) receipt by the Trustee of a written certification from (A) the transferor (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that the transfer is being made to a person whom the transferor reasonably believes is a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor who is also either (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction and (B) the transferee (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is (a) a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor who is also, in either case, (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers. Beneficial interests in the Certificated Composite Securities may be transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Composite Security only upon receipt by the Trustee of a written certification from (A) the transferor (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that the transfer is being made to a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction in accordance with Regulation S and (B) the transferee (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that, among other things, the transferee is a non-U.S. Person.

Except in the limited circumstances described in this paragraph, owners of beneficial interests in Composite Securities held in the form of Regulation S Global Composite Securities will not be entitled to receive delivery of certificated Composite Securities. A Regulation S Global Composite Security deposited with the Depository pursuant to the Indenture shall be transferred to the beneficial owners thereof only if such transfer complies with the Indenture and either (i) the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for a Regulation S Global Composite Securities or ceases to be a "Clearing Agency" registered under the Exchange Act and a successor depository is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days of such notice or (ii) as a result of any amendment to or change in, the laws or regulations of the Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which become effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or the Paying Agent becomes aware that it is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Composite Securities which would not be required if the Composite Securities were in definitive form. Payments on such certificated Composite Securities will be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a Dollar-denominated account maintained by the owner or, if a wire transfer cannot be effected, by a Dollar check delivered to the owner. See "Settlement and Clearing."

The Composite Securities will be issued in minimum denominations of U.S.$100,000 and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess thereof.

Form, Denomination, Registration and Transfer of the Preference Shares

In addition to Certificated Preference Shares and except as provided below, the Preference Shares sold in reliance on Regulation S may be represented by one or more Regulation S Global Preference Shares. The Regulation S Global Preference Shares be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of, a nominee of the Depository for the respective accounts of the beneficial owners at Euroclear and Clearstream. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Preference Share may be held only through Euroclear or Clearstream. Investors may hold their interests in a Regulation S Global Preference Share directly through Euroclear or Clearstream, if they are participants in such systems, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in such systems. Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Preference Share may not be held by a U.S. Person at any time. By acquisition of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Preference Share, the purchaser thereof will be deemed to represent that it is not a U.S. Person and that, if in the future it determines to transfer such beneficial interest, it will transfer such interest only to a person whom the seller reasonably believes to be a non-U.S. Person or to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Preference Share.

Preference Shares sold in non-Offshore Transactions or to U.S. Persons may only be sold to (i) a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor who, in either case, is also (ii) (A) a Qualified Purchaser, (B) a Knowledgeable Employee or (C) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledge Employees, and will be issued in the form of one or more Certificated Preference Shares. In addition, Preference Shares sold to non-U.S. Persons in Offshore Transactions in reliance on Regulation S may also be issued in the form of one or more Certificated Preference Shares.

Beneficial interests in the Preference Shares will be subject to certain restrictions on transfer set forth therein and in the Preference Share Documents and the Preference Shares will bear the applicable legends regarding the restrictions set forth under "Transfer Restrictions." Certificated Preference Shares may be transferred only upon (inter alia) receipt by the Preference Shares Paying Agent of a written certification (in the form provided in the Preference Share Documents) from the transferee to the effect that the transferee is (A) a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor who is also, in either case, (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledge Employees, and such transfer is being made in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction or (B) a non-U.S. Person and such transfer is being made in an Offshore Transaction in accordance with Regulation S. See "Transfer Restrictions."

Except in the limited circumstances described in this paragraph, owners of beneficial interests in Preference Shares held in the form of Regulation S Global Preference Shares will not be entitled to receive delivery of certificated Preference Shares. A Regulation S Global Preference Share deposited with the Depository pursuant to the Preference Share Documents shall be transferred to the beneficial owners thereof only if such transfer complies with the Preference Share Documents and either (i) the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for a Regulation S Global Preference Share or ceases to be a "Clearing Agency" registered under the Exchange Act and a successor depository is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days of such notice or (ii) as a result of any amendment to or change in, the laws or regulations of the Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which become effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or the Paying Agent becomes aware that it is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Preference Shares which would not be required if the Preference Shares were in definitive form. Payments on such certificated Preference Shares will be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a Dollar-denominated account maintained by the owner or, if a wire transfer cannot be effected, by a Dollar check delivered to the owner. See "Settlement and Clearing."

Maples Finance Limited, has been appointed and will serve as the registrar with respect to the Preference Shares (the "Share Registrar") and will provide for (inter alia) the registration of the Preference Shares and the registration of transfers of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Preference Share Documents and the Administration Agreement in the register maintained by it. The Preference Shares will be issued in minimum numbers of 100 Preference Shares per investor and integral multiples of one Preference Share in excess thereof.

No Exchange of the Composite Securities

The Components of the Composite Securities are not separately transferable. For the avoidance of doubt, a Holder of a Class 1 Composite Security may not exchange its Class 1 Composite Security for proportional interests in the underlying securities represented by the Components thereof.

The Indenture

The following summary describes certain provisions of the Indenture. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the provisions of the Indenture.

Events of Default

"Event of Default" is defined in the Indenture as:

- (a) a default for four Business Days in the payment of any interest on any Class of Notes (determined without giving effect to any payments made under the Policy) that is currently part of the Controlling Class when it becomes payable (or in the case of a default in payment due to an administrative error or omission by the Trustee, the Irish Listing and Paying Agent or the Indenture Registrar, after seven Business Days);
- (b) a default in the payment of principal of any Note (and any Make-Whole Premium, if applicable) (determined without giving effect to any payments made under the Policy) or any distribution with respect to the Class 1 Component under "—Priority of Payments—Class 1 Component Distributions," when the same becomes payable, at its Stated Maturity or on the Redemption Date;
- (c) the failure on any Payment Date to disburse amounts available in the Payment Account in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the failure continues for 3 Business Days;

(d) on any Measurement Date for so long as any Senior Class A Notes or Class A-2 Notes are Outstanding, the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is less than 102% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Senior Class A Notes and the Class A-2 Notes;

(e) either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral becomes an investment company under the 1940 Act;

(f) breach of any other covenant or other agreement of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Indenture (other than any failure to satisfy any of the Collateral Quality Tests, any of the Concentration Limitations, any of the Coverage Tests, the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test, or other covenants or agreements for which a specific remedy has been provided under the Indenture) in any material respect, or the failure of any representation or warranty of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer made in the Indenture or in any certificate or other writing delivered pursuant thereto, or in connection therewith, to be correct in any material respect when made, and the breach or failure continues for 30 days after either of the Co-Issuers has actual knowledge of it or after notice to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Portfolio Manager by the Trustee or to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class by registered or certified mail or overnight courier specifying the breach or failure and requiring it to be remedied and stating that the notice is a "Notice of Default" under the Indenture;

(g) the entry of a decree or order by a court having competent jurisdiction adjudging the Issuer or the Co-Issuer as bankrupt or insolvent, or approving as properly filed a petition seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, or composition of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Bankruptcy Law or any other applicable law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and if the decree or order remains unstayed and in effect for 45 consecutive days;

(h) the institution by the shareholders of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of Proceedings to have the Issuer or Co-Issuer, as the case may be, adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by the shareholders of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings against the Issuer or Co-Issuer, or the filing by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under the Bankruptcy Law or any other similar applicable law, or the consent by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the filing of any such petition or to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or the taking of any action by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in furtherance of any such action;

(i) one or more final judgments is rendered against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer that exceed in the aggregate U.S.$2,000,000 (or any lesser amount specified by any Rating Agency) and that remain unstayed, undischarged, and unsatisfied for 30 days after the judgments become nonappealable, unless adequate funds have been reserved or set aside for their payment, and unless (except as otherwise specified in writing by each Rating Agency) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereon; or

(j) the occurrence of an "Event of Default" under (and defined in) the Insurance Agreement.

If an Event of Default is continuing (other than (i) an Event of Default described in clauses (e), (g) or (h) under "—Events of Default" above or (ii) an Event of Default with respect to the Class 1 Component under clause (b) above "—Events of Default"), the Trustee may, and upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, declare the principal of all the Notes and the Class 1 Component to be immediately payable (and the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance shall become immediately payable) by notice to the Applicable Issuers, and upon that declaration the unpaid principal of all the Notes, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), and other amounts payable under the Indenture, shall become immediately payable. The Reinvestment Period shall terminate upon a declaration of acceleration (subject to re-commencement as described below). If an Event of Default described in clauses (e), (g) or (h) above under "—Events of Default" occurs, all unpaid principal, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), of all the Notes and the Class 1 Component, and other amounts payable under the Indenture, shall automatically become payable (and the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance shall become immediately payable) without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Noteholder and the Reinvestment Period shall terminate automatically (subject to re-commencement as described below). If an Event of Default occurs with respect to the Class 1 Component under clause (b) above under "—Events of Default," a Majority of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities may declare the Class 1 Component immediately payable by notice to the Issuer and the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance shall become immediately payable. Payment of the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance when made shall be made to the Holders of the Class 1 Components as a distribution in kind of a pro rata share (based on the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance) of each item of the Class 1 Collateral.

At any time after the declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class (or a Majority of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities solely in respect of the acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component) by written notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent, may rescind the declaration and its consequences if:

(i) the Issuer or the Co-Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:

(A) all unpaid installments of interest and principal on the Notes then due or, in the case of acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component, all distributions with respect to the Class 1 Component under "—Priority of Payments—Class 1 Component Distributions" (other than as a result of the acceleration);

(B) to the extent that payment of the interest is lawful, interest on any Deferred Interest and Defaulted Interest at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable;

(C) all unpaid Accrued Insurance Liabilities and unpaid Premium;

(D) all Administrative Expenses of the Co-Issuers and other sums paid or advanced by the Trustee under the Indenture;

(E) all unpaid Senior Management Fees; and

(F) all amounts then payable to any Hedge Counterparty; and

- (ii) the Trustee has determined that all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of the interest on or principal of the Notes or nonpayment of distributions with respect to the Class 1 Component under "—Priority of Payments—Class 1 Component Distributions" that have become due solely by the acceleration, have been (A) cured, and a Majority of the Controlling Class (or a Majority of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities solely in respect of the acceleration of the Class 1 Component) by written notice to the Trustee has agreed with that determination, or (B) waived as provided in the Indenture.

No rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right resulting from the Default.

If an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall retain the Class 1 Collateral intact, collect, and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Class 1 Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Class 1 Collateral and the Class 1 Components in accordance with "—Priority of Payments—Class 1 Component Distributions" and the Indenture and shall not sell the Class 1 Collateral in any circumstances unless so directed by all of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, in which case the Trustee shall sell the Class 1 Collateral to the Buyer identified by such Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities. If an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee will retain the Collateral intact, collect, and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Collateral and the Notes and any Hedge Agreements (other than amounts received under a Hedge Agreement that are used in putting a replacement hedge in place) in the manner described under "—Priority of Payments" and the Indenture unless either:

- (i) the Trustee determines (bid prices having been obtained with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one dealer, that dealer and if there is no dealer, from a pricing service), selected and specified by the Portfolio Manager to the Trustee in writing, at the time making a market in those securities, and having computed the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security) that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would (after deduction of the reasonable expenses of the sale or liquidation) be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and the Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty, all amounts owing by the Issuer to the Insurer under the Insurance Agreement, and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) under "—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds," and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination; or

- (ii) the Holders of a Super Majority of each of the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral; provided, however, if an Event of Default described in clause (d) under "Description of the Securities—Events of Default" occurs and if the Insurer is the Controlling Class, the Insurer shall have the sole right to direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral under this clause (ii).

During the continuance of an Event of Default, a Majority of the Controlling Class or a Majority of the Class 1 Composite Securities, as applicable, may institute and direct the Trustee in the conduct of any proceedings for any remedy available to the Trustee or for the exercise of any right of the Trustee under the Indenture if the direction does not conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of the Indenture and the Trustee has been indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction. Any direction to the Trustee to undertake a sale of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral shall be by the Holders of Notes or the Class 1 Composite Securities representing the requisite percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes or Class 1 Composite Securities, as applicable, specified in the Indenture. The Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability unless it has received an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the liability.

A Majority of the Controlling Class may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes or all of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, as the case may be, before the time a judgment or decree for the payment of money due has been obtained by the Trustee, waive any past Event of Default or event that, with notice or the lapse of time or both, would become an Event of Default and its consequences, except such a default:

- (i) in the payment of principal or Redemption Price of any Note or the Class 1 Component, as the case may be, or in the payment of interest (including Defaulted Interest, Deferred Interest, and any interest on Defaulted Interest or Deferred Interest) on the Notes;
- (ii) with respect to a provision of the Indenture that cannot be modified or amended without the waiver or consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note or Class 1 Composite Security adversely affected by the modification or amendment;
- (iii) in the payment of amounts due to the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Insurer or the Hedge Counterparty, which may only be waived with the consent of the affected party; or
- (iv) arising as a result of an Event of Default described in clause (e), (g) or (h) under "—Events of Default."

No Holder of any Security may institute any proceeding with respect to the Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy under the Indenture, unless:

- (i) the Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of an Event of Default;
- (ii) the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class or, in the case of acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component, the Class 1 Components, of the Class 1 Composite Securities shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings with respect to the Event of Default in its own name as Trustee under the Indenture and the Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with the request;
- (iii) the Trustee for 30 days after its receipt of the notice, request, and offer of indemnity has failed to institute a Proceeding; and
- (iv) no direction inconsistent with the written request has been given to the Trustee during the 30 day period by a Majority of the Controlling Class or, in the case of acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component, the Class 1 Components, of the Class 1 Composite Securities.

If the Trustee receives conflicting or inconsistent requests and indemnity from two or more groups of Holders of the Controlling Class, each representing less than a Majority of the Controlling Class, the Trustee shall take the action requested by the Holders of the largest percentage in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, notwithstanding any other provisions of the Indenture.

Without Consent of Holders

Without the consent of the Holders of any Securities, but with the consent of the parties the consent of which is required as described in the following paragraph, the Co-Issuers, in each instance when authorized by resolutions of the respective Boards of Directors, and the Trustee, at any time and from time to time subject to the requirement provided below with respect to receipt of a Rating Confirmation, may, and the Insurer shall, if it is not materially and adversely affected thereby (and will be bound by a standard of good faith and fair dealing in making such determination) enter into one or more indentures supplemental to the Indenture, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, for any of the following purposes:

- (1) to evidence the succession of another person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and the assumption by the successor person of the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Indenture and in the Securities;
- (2) to add to the covenants of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes and the Composite Securities or to surrender any right in the Indenture conferred on the Co-Issuers;
- (3) to convey, transfer, assign, mortgage, or pledge any property to the Trustee, or add to the conditions, limitations or restrictions on the authorized amount, terms and purposes of the issue, authentication and delivery of the Notes and the Composite Securities;
- (4) evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment under the Indenture by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of the Indenture necessary to facilitate the administration of the trusts under the Indenture by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of the Indenture;
- (5) correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of the Indenture, or to better assure, convey, and confirm to the Trustee any property subject or required to be subject to the lien of the Indenture (including all actions appropriate as a result of changes in law) or to subject to the lien of the Indenture any additional property;
- (6) modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of the Notes and the Composite Securities to reflect any changes in applicable law (or its interpretation) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely on any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the 1940 Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required under the Indenture;
- (7) with the consent of the Portfolio Manager, to modify the restrictions on the sales of Collateral Obligations described in "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds and Reinvestment Criteria" or the Eligibility Criteria described in "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities—Eligibility Criteria" (and the related definitions) in a manner not materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Portfolio Manager to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities;

- (8) make appropriate changes for any Class of Securities (other than the Preference Shares) to be listed on an exchange other than the Irish Stock Exchange;
- (9) otherwise to correct any inconsistency or cure any ambiguity or errors in the Indenture;
- (10) accommodate the issuance of the Notes or Composite Securities in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC or otherwise;
- (11) to take any appropriate action to prevent the Issuer, the Insurer, the Holders of Securities or the Trustee from becoming subject to withholding or other taxes, fees, or assessments or to prevent the Issuer from being treated as being engaged in a U.S. trade or business or otherwise being subject to U.S. federal, state, or local income tax on a net income basis, so long as the action will not cause the Insurer or the Holders of any Securities to be adversely affected to any material extent by any change to the timing, character, or source of the income from the Securities, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion);
- (12) to authorize the appointment of any listing agent, transfer agent, paying agent, or additional registrar for any Class of Notes or Composite Securities appropriate in connection with the listing of any Class of Securities (other than the Preference Shares) on the Irish Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange, and otherwise to amend the Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, transfer agent, paying agent, or additional registrar for any Class of Notes or Composite Securities in connection with its appointment, so long as the supplemental indenture would not materially and adversely affect any Holder of Notes or Composite Securities, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Portfolio Manager, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Notes or Composite Securities;
- (13) to amend, modify, enter into, or accommodate the execution of any contract relating to a Synthetic Security (including posting collateral under a Synthetic Security Agreement);
- (14) to modify certain representations as to Collateral in the Indenture in order that it may be consistent with applicable laws or Rating Agency requirements;
- (15) to evidence any waiver by any Rating Agency as to any requirement or condition, as applicable, of the Rating Agency in the Indenture;
- (16) to facilitate the issuance of participation notes, combination notes, composite securities and other similar securities;
- (17) to facilitate hedging transactions;
- (18) to facilitate the ability of the Issuer to lend collateral pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement;
- (19) to modify any provision to facilitate an exchange of one security for another security of the same issuers that has substantially identical terms except transfer restrictions, including to effect any serial designation relating to the exchange; or

- (20) with the consent of the Portfolio Manager, to enter into any additional agreements not expressly prohibited by the Indenture as well as any amendment, modification, or waiver if the Issuer determines that the amendment, modification, or waiver would not, upon or after becoming effective, materially and adversely affect the rights or interest of the Holders of any Class of Securities, as evidenced by an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Portfolio Manager, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities.

Without the consent of the Portfolio Manager, no supplemental indenture may be entered into that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to the Portfolio Manager under the Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager. The Trustee is authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be in the agreements, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, or immunities under the Indenture or otherwise, except to the extent required by law. Unless notified by a Majority of any Class of Securities that the Class of Securities would be materially and adversely affected, the Trustee may rely on a certificate of the Portfolio Manager and an opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) as to whether the interests of any Holder of Securities would be materially and adversely affected by any such supplemental indenture. The Trustee shall give at least 15 Business Days' notice of the proposed change to the Holders of the Notes and to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares).

If any Outstanding Notes or Composite Securities are rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall enter into a supplemental indenture without the consent of Holders only if either (1) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the supplemental indenture or (2) the Portfolio Manager and the Holders of 100% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes and Composite Securities the ratings on which would be reduced or withdrawn consent to the supplemental indenture. Prior to the entry into any supplemental Indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note and each Holder of each Outstanding Composite Security informing them of such fact.

For so long as any Notes or Composite Securities are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall provide to the Rating Agency, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Hedge Counterparty a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee.

With Consent of Holders

If the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency, with the consent of (a) the Portfolio Manager if the supplemental indenture would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under the Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager, (b) a Majority of each Class of Notes adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of each such Class of Notes, (c) a Majority of the Composite Securities adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of the Composite Securities and (d) a Majority of the Preference Shares adversely affected thereby, the Trustee, the Insurer and the Co-Issuers may enter into a supplemental indenture to add any provisions to, or change in any manner or eliminate any of the provisions of, the Indenture or modify in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes and the Composite Securities under the Indenture.

Any proposed supplemental indenture that would also necessitate a change to the Issuer Charter may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Issuer Charter) has been passed to permit the Issuer's constitutional documents to be altered to conform them to the proposed change to the Indenture as certified to the Trustee by the Issuer.

Notwithstanding anything in the Indenture to the contrary, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected thereby, the Holder of each Outstanding Composite Security adversely affected thereby and the Holder of each Outstanding Preference Share adversely affected thereby, no supplemental indenture shall:

(i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date of any installment of interest on any Note or the Class 1 Component or of any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares Interests, reduce its principal amount or the rate of interest on it, or the Default Interest Rate or the Redemption Price with respect to any Note, the Class 1 Component or Preference Share, or change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Share may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, change the provisions of the Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of any Collateral to the payment of principal of or interest on Notes and the application of proceeds of any Class 1 Collateral or Preference Share Components corresponding to their related Components, or to payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares, or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which, Notes or their principal or interest are paid or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after their Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the applicable Redemption Date);

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class or Composite Securities or Holders of Preference Shares whose consent is required for the authorization of any such supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of the Indenture or certain defaults under the Indenture or their consequences provided for in the Indenture;

(iii) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of the Indenture with respect to any part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral or terminate the lien on any property at any time subject hereto or deprive the Holder of any Note or Composite Security of the security afforded by the lien of the Indenture;

(iv) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class whose consent is required to request the Trustee to preserve the Collateral or the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Class 1 Composite Securities whose consent is required to request the Trustee to preserve the Class 1 Collateral or rescind the Trustee's election to preserve the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, as the case may be, pursuant to the Indenture or to sell or liquidate the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, as the case may be, pursuant to the Indenture;

(v) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture with respect to supplemental indentures or to provide that certain other provisions of the Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note, Preference Share and Composite Security affected thereby;

(vi) modify the definition of "Outstanding," "Controlling Class," or "Majority," or the Priority of Payments in the Indenture; or

(vii) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of Redemption Price or of interest or principal on any

Note or the Class 1 Component or any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the payment of dividends or other payments on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date) or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes or Preference Shares or the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of the Notes, the Class 1 Component or the Preference Shares contained in the Indenture.

Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to the above provision, the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Holders of the Notes and the Composite Securities, the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes or Composite Securities are Outstanding) a copy of such supplemental indenture and shall request any required consent from the applicable Holders of Securities to be given within the Initial Consent Period. Any consent given to a proposed supplemental indenture by the Holder of any Securities shall be irrevocable and binding on all future Holders or beneficial owners of that Security, irrespective of the execution date of the supplemental indenture. If the Holders of less than the required percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the relevant Securities consent to a proposed supplemental indenture within the Initial Consent Period, on the first Business Day after the Initial Consent Period, the Trustee shall notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager which Holders of Securities have consented to the proposed supplemental indenture and, which Holders (and, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Trustee, which beneficial owners) have not consented to the proposed supplemental indenture. If it intends to exercise its Amendment Buy-Out Option, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall so notify the Trustee (which notice shall designate a date for the Amendment Buy-Out to occur no earlier than 10 Business Days after the date of such notice) no later than five (5) Business Days after so being notified by the Trustee and the Trustee shall mail such notice to all Holders of Notes and Composite Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares). Any Non-Consenting Holder may give consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture until the 5th Business Day prior to the date of the Amendment Buy-Out designated by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and in such case shall cease to be a Non-Consenting Holder for purposes of the Amendment Buy-Out. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser exercises its Amendment Buy-Out Option and purchases the applicable Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, as Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Securities, may consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture within five (5) Business Days of the Amendment Buy-Out. In the event that the Insurer does not consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture but all of the Holders of the Notes whose consent is required have consented to such proposed supplemental indenture, the Holders of the Insured Notes may, pursuant to the Indenture and as described in "—Termination of the Policy," terminate the Policy, upon which, the consent of the Insurer pursuant to this clause (c) shall no longer be required; provided, however, that no such amendment shall (i) affect the rights of the Insurer to be reimbursed for Accrued Insurance Liabilities, (ii) decrease the rights of the Insurer or (iii) increase the duties or obligations of the Insurer that survive the termination of the Policy.

It shall not be necessary for any Act of Holders of Notes or Composite Securities under the above provision to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if the Act or consent approves its substance.

At the cost of the Co-Issuers, for so long as any Notes or Composite Securities are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee will provide to the Rating Agency a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee and a copy of the executed supplemental indenture will be mailed to the Holders of the Notes and the Composite Securities, the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency after its execution.

Amendment Buy-Out

In the case of any supplemental indenture that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Securities held by such Holders of the Class of Securities whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Securities of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of its Securities under the Indenture, each Holder of Securities agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser; provided that, if the solicited consent to a supplemental indenture only applies to one Component of a Composite Security, the Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell, at the Non-Consenting Holder's option, its Composite Security as a whole. Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or beneficial owner of Securities as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option.

All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Securities set forth in "Transfer Restrictions" and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Removal Buy-Out

In the case of any proposed removal of the Portfolio Manager relating to the occurrence of an Event of Default described in clause (d) under "—Events of Default," pursuant to the Management Agreement and as described in "The Management Agreement," the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from the Holders of the Class A-1g Notes, all Class A-1g Notes (the "Removal Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Removal Buy-Out Purchase Price. If such option is exercised, the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Class A-1g Notes, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class required to remove the Portfolio Manager pursuant to the Management Agreement and as described in "The Management Agreement" (a "Removal Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of the Class A-1g Notes under the Indenture, each Holder of Class A-1g Notes agrees that if the Removal Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Holder of Class A-1g Notes will be required to sell its applicable Class A-1g Notes to the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser. Neither the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or beneficial owner of Class A-1g Notes as a result of an election by the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Removal Buy-Out Option.

All purchases made pursuant to a Removal Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the Class A-1g Notes set forth in "Transfer Restrictions" herein and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Upon the effectiveness of the Removal Buy-Out, the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser shall be deemed to have exercised its right, without any further action or notice to any Person, to terminate the Policy pursuant to the Indenture and as described in "—Termination of the Policy."

Voting Rights of the Preference Shares

Holders of the Preference Shares will have no voting rights, either general or special, of the Issuer, except as set forth in the Preference Share Documents, as required by Cayman Islands law or as otherwise described herein.

Notices

Notices to the Holders of the Securities will be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the registered Holders of the Securities at their respective addresses appearing in the Indenture Register and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares). If and for so long as any Class of Securities (other than the Preference Shares) is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, notice will also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

Certain Covenants

The Indenture contains certain covenants restricting the conduct of the Co-Issuers, including (i) restrictions on consolidations, mergers and transfers or conveyances of assets involving either Co-Issuer, (ii) restrictions on incurrence of debt other than the Notes and certain obligations incidental to the performance by each Co-Issuer of its obligations under the Indenture, (iii) restrictions on the ability of either Co-Issuer to conduct activities inconsistent with its special-purpose nature and (iv) certain restrictions on amendments of the Collateral Administration Agreement and the Management Agreement.

Certain Additional Issues Relating to Listing of Securities

Application will be made to admit each Class of Securities (other than the Preference Shares) to the Daily Official List of the Irish Stock Exchange. There can be no assurance that any such admission will be granted or maintained.

The Indenture provides that, so long as any Notes or the Composite Securities remain Outstanding, the Co-Issuers shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain the listing of the Securities (other than the Preference Shares) on the Irish Stock Exchange.

Cancellation

All Securities that are paid in full or redeemed and surrendered for cancellation will forthwith be canceled and may not be reissued or resold.

No Gross-Up

All payments made by the Issuer under the Securities will be made without any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax unless the deduction or withholding is required by any applicable law, as modified by the practice of any relevant governmental revenue authority, then in effect. If the Issuer is so required to deduct or withhold, then the Issuer will not be obligated to pay any additional amounts in respect of the withholding or deduction.

Petitions for Bankruptcy

The Indenture provides that the Trustee, the Insurer, each Hedge Counterparty, the Portfolio Manager and the Holders of the Notes and the Composite Securities may not cause the Issuer or Co-Issuer to petition for bankruptcy before one year and one day have elapsed since the final payments to the Holders of all Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, including any period established pursuant to the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Standard of Conduct

The Indenture provides that, in exercising any of its or their voting rights, rights to direct and consent or any other rights as a Noteholder or Composite Securityholder under the Indenture, subject to the terms and conditions of the Indenture, a Noteholder or Composite Securityholder or the Insurer shall not have any obligation or duty to any Person or to consider or take into account the interests of any Person and shall not be liable to any Person for any action taken by it or them or at its or their direction or any failure by it or them to act or to direct that an action be taken, without regard to whether the action or inaction benefits or adversely affects any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder, the Issuer, or any other Person, except for any liability to which the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder or the Insurer may be subject to the extent the same results from the Noteholder's or Composite Securityholder's taking or directing an action, or failing to take or direct an action, in bad faith or in violation of the express terms of the Indenture.

Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture

The Indenture will be discharged with respect to the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral upon delivery to the Trustee for cancellation of all of the Notes and Composite Securities, or, within certain limitations (including the obligation to pay interest on or principal of the Notes and the obligation to make payments with respect to the Class 1 Component) upon deposit with the Trustee of funds sufficient for the payment or redemption thereof and the payment by the Co-Issuers or the Issuer, as applicable, of all other amounts due under the Indenture.

Trustee

JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, will be the Trustee under the Indenture. The Co-Issuers, the Portfolio Manager and their respective Affiliates may maintain other banking relationships in the ordinary course of business with the Trustee and its affiliates. The payment of the fees and expenses of the Trustee relating to the Notes and the Composite Securities is solely the obligation of the Issuer. The payment of the fees and expenses, which will be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments, is secured by a lien on the Collateral which is senior to the lien of the Holders of the Notes and is secured by a lien on the Class 1 Collateral which is senior to the lien of the Holders of the Composite Securities (solely to the extent of their Class 1 Component). The Trustee and its affiliates may receive compensation in connection with the investment of trust assets in certain Eligible Investments as provided in the Indenture. Eligible Investments may include investments for which the Trustee or its affiliates provide services. The Indenture contains provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee for any loss, liability or expense incurred without negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Indenture.

Pursuant to the Indenture, as security for the payment by the Issuer of the compensation and expenses of the Trustee and any sums the Trustee may be entitled to receive as indemnification by the Issuer, the Issuer will grant the Trustee a senior lien on the Collateral, which is senior to the lien of the holders of the Secured Obligations on the Collateral.

Pursuant to the Indenture, the Trustee may resign at any time by providing 30 days' written notice and the Trustee may be removed at any time by an Act of a Majority of each Class of Notes, at any time when an Event of Default is continuing by a Majority of the Controlling Class, or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. However, no resignation or removal of the Trustee will become effective until the acceptance of appointment by a successor Trustee pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

Governing Law

The Notes, the Composite Securities, the Indenture, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Management Agreement, the Policy, the Insurance Agreement, the Collateral

Administration Agreement, the Purchase Agreement, the Subscription Agreements, the Securities Lending Agreements, and the Hedge Agreements will be governed by the laws of the State of New York. The Administration Agreement and the Issuer Charter will be governed by the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Method of Payments

Payments of principal and interest on any Note or payments on or in respect of the Preference Shares (including any Redemption Price paid on the applicable Redemption Date) and of any payments on any Notes or Preference Shares will be made to the person in whose name the related Note or Preference Share is registered fifteen days before the applicable Payment Date (the "Record Date"). Payments will be made (i) in the case of a Global Security, to the Depository or its designee and to the Holder or its nominee with respect to a Certificated Composite Security or a Definitive Security, by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a United States dollar account maintained by the Depository or its nominee with respect to a Global Security and to the Holder or its designee with respect to a Certificated Composite Security or a Definitive Security if the Holder has provided written wiring instructions to the Trustee (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Preference Share Paying Agent) and, if the payment is to be made by the Irish Listing and Paying Agent, the Irish Listing and Paying Agent on or before the related Record Date or, (ii) if appropriate wiring instructions are not received by the related Record Date, by check drawn on a U.S. bank mailed to the address of the Holder in the Indenture Register (or, in the case of the Preference Shares, the Preference Share register). Final payments of principal of the Notes, Composite Securities or Preference Shares will be made against surrender of the related Notes, Composite Securities or Preference Shares at the office designated by the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent. None of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, any paying agent, or any of their respective affiliates will have any responsibility or liability for any aspects of the records maintained by the Depository or its nominee or any of its direct or indirect participants (including Euroclear or Clearstream or any of their respective direct or indirect participants) relating to payments made on account of beneficial interests in a Global Security.

The Co-Issuers expect that the Depository or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal or interest in respect of a Global Security held by the Depository or its nominee, will immediately credit participants' accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the Global Security as shown on the records of the Depository or its nominee. The Co-Issuers also expect that payments by participants (i.e., direct participants) to owners of beneficial interests in a Global Security held through the participants (i.e., indirect participants) will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for the customers. The payments will be the responsibility of the participants.

For so long as any Securities (other than the Preference Shares) are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange shall so require, the Issuer and the Co-Issuers, as applicable, will have the Irish Listing and Paying Agent for the Notes in Ireland and payments on the Notes may be effected through the Irish Listing and Paying Agent. If the Irish Listing and Paying Agent is replaced at any time during the period, notice of the appointment of any replacement will be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

The full, complete and timely payment of (i) the Insured Amounts in respect of the Insured Notes on each Payment Date and (ii) any Insured Amount which subsequently is avoided in whole or in part as a preference payment under applicable law, will be irrevocably and unconditionally guaranteed pursuant to the Policy issued by the Insurer. See "The Insurer and the Policy."

Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement

Pursuant to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agent will perform various fiscal services with respect to the Preference Shares on behalf of the Issuer, including the maintenance of the Preference Shares Distribution Account and the making of distributions on the Preference Shares. The Preference Shares Paying Agent will deliver or request the Trustee to deliver all Monthly Reports and Valuation Reports prepared pursuant to the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent will deliver, or shall cause the Trustee or the Administrator to deliver, a copy of any other notice or information it receives from the Trustee under the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares, in each case by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to each holder of a Preference Share at the address appearing in the Preference Share register. The payment of the fees and expenses of the Preference Shares Paying Agent is solely the obligation of the Issuer. The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement contains provisions for the indemnification of the Preference Shares Paying Agent for any loss, liability or expense incurred without gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith on its part, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its function under the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

On the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, the Issuer is scheduled to redeem the Preference Shares for a redemption price equal to all amounts distributable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares as provided under "—Priority of Payments," unless the Preference Shares have been redeemed earlier through an optional redemption as described herein or otherwise.

The Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York. The rights of the Holders of the Preference Shares will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Liquidation

In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Issuer:

(i) the Holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares at the time outstanding will be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Issuer available for distribution to shareholders, before any distribution of

(ii) the Holders of the Preference Shares at the time Outstanding will be entitled to the balance of the assets of the Issuer available for distribution to shareholders, after distribution of amounts due to holders of Issuer Ordinary Shares under the above subparagraph, pro rata according to the number of Preference Shares held by each such holder.

If the assets available for distribution to holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares are not sufficient to pay to such holders U.S.$2.00 in respect of each Issuer Ordinary Share, the available assets shall be distributed to holders of the Issuer Ordinary Shares pro rata according to the number of Issuer Ordinary Shares held by each such holder.

Purchase of Collateral Obligations

The Indenture will provide that the Portfolio Manager will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Issuer to purchase or enter into binding commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations that meet certain minimum amounts and characteristics. The composition of the portfolio of Collateral Obligations will be eligible for purchase by the Issuer if it meets the Eligibility Criteria and will be determined by the selections of the Portfolio Manager designed to meet the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests and the Reinvestment Criteria. See "—Eligibility Criteria," "—The Collateral Quality Tests" and "—The Coverage Tests."

The Portfolio Manager expects that, by the end of the Ramp-Up Period, the Issuer will have purchased or committed to purchase Collateral Obligations having an Aggregate Principal Balance of approximately $663,000,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date).

Eligibility Criteria

On any date during the Reinvestment Period (and, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, on any date after the Reinvestment Period), so long as no Event of Default is continuing, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to invest or reinvest Principal Proceeds (together with Interest Proceeds, but only to the extent used to pay for accrued interest on Collateral Obligations) in Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security) if the conditions specified in the Indenture are satisfied. No obligations may be purchased unless each of the conditions in the following clauses (1) through (12) (the "Eligibility Criteria") is satisfied as evidenced by a certificate of the Portfolio Manager as of the date the Issuer commits to make the purchase, in each case after giving effect to the purchase and all other purchases and sales previously or simultaneously committed to:

- (1) the obligation is a Collateral Obligation;
- (2) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period:
  - (A) each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied and, if the commitment is made on or after the second Payment Date, each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied; or
  - (B) if any such Coverage Test is not satisfied, both:
    - (i) the extent of satisfaction of the Coverage Test is not reduced; and
    - (ii) the Collateral Obligation is being purchased with Principal Proceeds other than:
      - (x) Principal Proceeds received in respect of a Defaulted Collateral Obligation; or
      - (y) Principal Proceeds received in respect of a Workout Asset that has been received in exchange for a Defaulted Collateral Obligation;
- (3) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Diversity Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (4) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (5) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, each of the limits in the definition of "Concentration Limitations" is satisfied or, if any such limit is not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (6) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Spread Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;

- (7) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (8) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Life Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (9) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (10) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
- (11) for any date occurring during the Reinvestment Period, the S&P CDO Monitor Test is satisfied or, if not satisfied, the extent of satisfaction is not reduced; provided, however, that this Eligibility Criterion (11) shall not apply either to reinvestment of the proceeds from the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation, Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset or to the reinvestment of Principal Proceeds in respect of Defaulted Collateral Obligations; and
- (12) for any date occurring after the Reinvestment Period:
  - (A) each Coverage Test is satisfied and the extent of satisfaction is not reduced;
  - (B) each Collateral Quality Test is maintained or improved;
  - (C) each Concentration Limitation is maintained or improved;
  - (D) the maturity date of such Collateral Obligation will occur prior to the Stated Maturity of the Notes; and
  - (E) the S&P Rating of such Collateral Obligation is at least equal to the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation being the source of the Unscheduled Principal Payments or of the Credit Improved Obligation being the source of Sale Proceeds, as applicable.

The Issuer may, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, exchange a Collateral Obligation for another Collateral Obligation in an exchange of one security for another security of the same issuers that has substantially identical terms except transfer restrictions.

Cash on deposit in the Collection Account may be invested at any time in Eligible Investments in accordance with this "Eligibility Criteria" section pending investment in Collateral Obligations.

The Indenture provides that any sale or purchase by the Issuer of a Collateral Obligation shall be conducted on an arm's length basis and, if effected with the Portfolio Manager or a person Affiliated with the Portfolio Manager or any fund or account for which the Portfolio Manager or an Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager acts as investment adviser, shall be effected in accordance with the requirements the Management Agreement on terms no less favorable to the Issuer than would be the case if the person were not so Affiliated.

The Collateral Quality Tests

The Collateral Quality Tests will be used primarily as criteria for purchasing Collateral Obligations. See "—Eligibility Criteria" above and "—Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds and Reinvestment Criteria" below. The Collateral Quality Tests are described below.

Measurement of the degree of compliance with the Collateral Quality Tests will be required on each Measurement Date on and after the Ramp-Up Completion Date.

The Diversity Test

The "Diversity Test" is a test that will be satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Diversity Score as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Diversity Score.

Weighted Average Life Test

The "Weighted Average Life Test" is a that will be satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and March 15, 2014 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date.

Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test

The "Weighted Average Moody's Recovery Rate Test" is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Moody's Minimum Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 44.5%.

Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test

The "Weighted Average S&P Recovery Rate Test" is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the S&P Minimum Average Recovery Rate is greater than or equal to 49.3%.

"S&P Minimum Average Recovery Rate" is a rate, as of any Measurement Date, equal to the number obtained by:

- (i) summing the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation by its respective S&P Priority Category Recovery Rate;
- (ii) dividing the sum determined pursuant to clause (i) above by the sum of the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations; and
- (iii) rounding up to the first decimal place.

Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test

The "Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test" is a test that is satisfied if, as of any Measurement Date, the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon equals or exceeds 8.0 %.

Weighted Average Spread Test

The "Weighted Average Spread Test" is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date equals or exceeds the Minimum Weighted Average Spread.

Weighted Average Rating Factor Test

The "Weighted Average Rating Factor Test" is a test that is satisfied on any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor of the Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) as of the Measurement Date is less than or equal to the Maximum Weighted Average Moody's Rating Factor.

S&P CDO Monitor Test

The "S&P CDO Monitor Test" is a test that will be satisfied on any Measurement Date if, after giving effect to the sale of a Collateral Obligation or the purchase of a Collateral Obligation, each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is positive. The S&P CDO Monitor Test shall be considered to be improved if each Note Class Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is at least equal to the corresponding Note Class Loss Differential of the Current Portfolio. The S&P CDO Monitor Test is not required to be satisfied or improved upon the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation and the reinvestment of the related Sale Proceeds in additional Collateral Obligations. For purposes of the S&P CDO Monitor Test:

- (i) the S&P Rating of any S&P Unrated DIP Loan shall be "CCC-"; and
- (ii) the S&P Industry Classification for a Synthetic Security shall be that of the related Reference Obligation and not the Synthetic Security.

The "Note Class Loss Differential" with respect to any Measurement Date and any Class of Notes that is rated by S&P, the rate calculated by subtracting the Class Scenario Loss Rate for the Class from the then-applicable Note Break-Even Loss Rate for the Class of Notes.

The "Note Break-Even Loss Rate" with respect to each Class of Notes that is rated by S&P, the maximum percentage of defaults that the Current Portfolio or Proposed Portfolio can sustain and nevertheless sufficient funds will remain for the payment of principal of the Class of Notes in full by its Stated Maturity and the timely payment of interest on the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes and the ultimate payment of interest on the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes using S&P's assumptions on recoveries, defaults, and timing, and taking into account the Priority of Payments and the adjusted Weighted Average Spread level specified in the applicable row of the table below. The adjusted Weighted Average Spread as of any Measurement Date is the Weighted Average Spread as of the Measurement Date minus the amount of any Spread Excess added to the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon as of the Measurement Date.

1	Greater than or equal to 3.05 %
2	Greater than or equal to 2.95% but less than 3.05%

5	Greater than or equal to 2.65% but less than 2.75%
6	Greater than or equal to 2.55% but less than 2.65%
7	Greater than or equal to 2.45% but less than 2.55%

The Coverage Tests

General

The Coverage Tests will be used to determine, among other things, whether Notes will be redeemed in certain circumstances as described under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments" and whether additional Collateral Obligations may be acquired as described under "—Eligibility Criteria." There will not be any Coverage Test applicable to the Composite Securities or the Preference Shares.

The Overcollateralization Tests

The "Overcollateralization Tests" will consist of the Class A Overcollateralization Test, the Class B Overcollateralization Test and the Class C Overcollateralization Test.

Each Overcollateralization Test will be satisfied with respect to any Class of Notes (treating the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes as one Class for this purpose) on any Measurement Date if, as of such Measurement Date, the Overcollateralization Ratio for the Class is at least equal to the specified required level for the Class indicated in the table in "Summary of Terms—The Overcollateralization Tests."

The Overcollateralization Ratio, with respect to each Class of Notes (treating the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes as one Class for this purpose) on any Measurement Date, is referred to as an "Overcollateralization Ratio," and is the ratio calculated by dividing:

- (i) the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator; by
- (ii) the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class of Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it together with any Deferred Interest on the Notes and all Notes ranking senior to it.

The "Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator" is, on any date, the sum of:

- (1) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (other than any Excess CCC/Caa Collateral Obligations, any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, any Deep Discount Obligations, and any Collateral Obligations loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement with respect to which an "event of default" (under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing); plus
- (2) unpaid Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal (excluding any unpaid Accrued Interest Purchased With Principal in respect of Non-Performing Collateral Obligations); plus

- (3) the Aggregate Principal Balance of any Eligible Investments that were purchased with Principal Proceeds and the amount of Principal Proceeds on deposit in the Collection Account; plus
- (4) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Eligible Investments on deposit in a Securities Lending Account that relate to a Securities Lending Agreement with respect to which an "event of default" (under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing; plus
- (5) with respect Collateral Obligation that are Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, Deep Discount Obligations or Excess CCC/Caa Collateral Obligations, the amount determined by using one of the following methods applicable to such type of Collateral Obligation; provided that if a Collateral Obligation falls within more than one of such types, the Issuer will be required to use the method that results in the smallest amount:
  - (A) with respect to any Excess CCC/Caa Collateral Obligations, an amount equal to the product of (i) the lower of (1) 70% and (2) the weighted average Market Value of all CCC/Caa Collateral Obligations, expressed as a percentage of their outstanding principal balances multiplied by (ii) the Excess CCC/Caa Collateral Obligations
  - (B) with respect to any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations, the aggregate of the Applicable Collateral Obligation Amounts for all included Non-Performing Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations that have been held by the Issuer for more than three years, which shall be deemed to be zero for purposes of this clause (B)); and
  - (C) with respect to any Deep Discount Obligations, the Aggregate Purchase Price Amount for all Deep Discount Obligations.

As used in this definition, "Applicable Collateral Obligation Amount" for any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation means:

- (1) the lesser of (x) the Market Value Percentage of the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation and (y) the Applicable Percentage for the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation multiplied by:
- (2) if the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation is:
  - (A) any Pledged Obligation other than those in clauses (B) through (D) below, the outstanding principal amount of the Pledged Obligation as of the relevant Measurement Date;
  - (B) a Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in the Synthetic Security;
  - (C) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its Principal Balance including any unfunded amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer's obligation to fund the unfunded amount); and
  - (D) any PIK Security, its Principal Balance.

As used in the calculation of Market Value Percentage of the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation, the Principal Balance of any Defaulted Obligation shall be, if the Defaulted Obligation is:

- (i) any Pledged Obligation other than those in clauses (ii) through (iv) below, the outstanding principal amount of the Pledged Obligation as of the relevant Measurement Date;
- (ii) a Synthetic Security, the notional amount specified in the Synthetic Security;
- (iii) any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, its Principal Balance including any unfunded amount thereof (regardless of the nature of the contingency relating to the Issuer's obligation to fund the unfunded amount); and
- (iv) any PIK Security, its Principal Balance.

The Interest Coverage Tests

The Interest Coverage Test in respect of each Class of Notes (each an "Interest Coverage Test") is a test the first Measurement Date for which will be on the second Payment Date and that is satisfied with respect to any specified Class of Notes (treating the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes as one Class for this purpose) if, as of the second Payment Date and any Measurement Date thereafter on which any Notes remain Outstanding, the Interest Coverage Ratio equals or exceeds the applicable required level specified in the table in "Summary of Terms— The Interest Coverage Tests."

The "Interest Coverage Ratio" with respect to any specified Class of Notes (treating the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes as one Class for this purpose) on any Measurement Date, the ratio calculated by dividing:

- (i) the sum of:
  - (A) the Interest Proceeds received or scheduled to be received with respect to the Due Period in which the Measurement Date occurs; minus
  - (B) amounts payable under clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" on the related Payment Date; by
- (ii) the sum of:
  - (A) all accrued and unpaid interest on the specified Class of Notes and all Notes ranking senior to the Class (excluding any Deferred Interest) on the related Payment Date; plus
  - (B) any accrued and unpaid Premium on the related Payment Date.

For purposes of the Interest Coverage Ratio, only the amount of any interest payment (including any "gross up" payment) on any Collateral Obligation in excess of any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction on any date of determination shall be included in Interest Proceeds.

Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test

The "Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test" is a test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date during the Reinvestment Period on which Class C Notes remain Outstanding, if the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Ratio as of such Measurement Date is at least equal to 107.30%.

Ramp-Up

In connection with the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer shall use its best efforts to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period or enter into commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period for purchase on or as soon as practicable thereafter (not to exceed 60 days thereafter), in each case, for inclusion in the Collateral so that each of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $663,000,000.

No Collateral Obligations may be purchased prior to the Ramp-Up Completion Date unless immediately following the purchase of any Collateral Obligation (as certified by the Portfolio Manager in writing), the remaining funds in the Collection Account, after giving effect to such purchase, are sufficient as of the date of determination to purchase Collateral Obligations for inclusion in the Collateral so that each of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $663,000,000 (taking into account the Collateral Obligations already part of the Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date)).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of the Indenture, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase a Collateral Obligation to be included in the Collateral, such commitment initially not to exceed 60 days, and at the time of the commitment the Collateral Obligation complied with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set forth under "—Ramp-Up," the Issuer may consummate the purchase of the Collateral Obligation notwithstanding that the Collateral Obligation fails to comply with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set out above on the date of settlement.

The Issuer will use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, or to enter into binding agreements to purchase, Collateral Obligations by the Ramp-Up Completion Date, that, together with the Collateral Obligations purchased on or before the Closing Date and then held by the Issuer, will satisfy, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date), the Collateral Quality Tests, the Concentration Limitations, the criteria set forth in the Indenture and the Overcollateralization Tests.

On or prior to July 1, 2005, so long as the Ramp-Up Completion Date has not already occurred, the Portfolio Manager shall certify by an order of the Portfolio Manager delivered to the Issuer, the Trustee and Moody's that, as of such date: (i)(A) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer equals at least $575,000,000, or (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations purchased (or committed to be purchased) by the Issuer with proceeds from the sale of the Securities (in each case in this clause (B), measured solely as of the date of purchase or commitment, as the case may be) equals at least $575,000,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date), (ii) the Diversity Score is equal to at least 45, (iii) the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied and (iv) each of the Coverage Tests are satisfied. If the Portfolio Manager is not able to certify each of the foregoing items, an Interim Ramp-Up Completion Date Failure shall occur.

Within 5 Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager (on behalf of the Issuer) shall request a Rating Confirmation on behalf of the Issuer and shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies identifying the Collateral Obligations then included in the Collateral and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies, together with the delivery of a report (and an electronic file of the Collateral Obligations to S&P) substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, an accountants' certificate:

(i) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread and recovery rate for each item of original Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included in the Collateral, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein;

(ii) confirming that as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date:

(1) each of the Coverage Tests are satisfied;

(2) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date is at least equal to the Maximum Investment Amount; and

(3) the Collateral Obligations comply with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests and the Concentration Limitations and the criteria set forth in "—Eligibility Criteria"; and

(iii) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements.

If a Rating Confirmation Failure should occur, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to the Indenture and as described in "Description of the Securities—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes—Mandatory Redemption of the Notes upon Rating Confirmation Failure."

Sale of Collateral Obligations; Reinvestment of Principal Proceeds and Reinvestment Criteria

Pursuant to the Indenture and so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, direct the Trustee to sell (and the Trustee will sell) any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset if the sale meets the requirements in paragraphs (i) through (ix) below:

(i) Credit Risk Securities. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Risk Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Risk Obligation in accordance with such direction. Following any sale of a Credit Risk Obligation pursuant to the Indenture, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager during the Reinvestment Period, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (to the extent the purchase is in the best interest of the Issuer) with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Sale Proceeds received by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral Obligation sold. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount.

(ii) Credit Improved Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Improved Obligation if either:

(1) during the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager believes before the sale that it will be able to cause the Issuer to reinvest its Sale Proceeds, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria, in one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Credit Improved Obligation by the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest); or

- (2) after the Reinvestment Period, the Sale Proceeds received in respect of the Credit Improved Obligation are at least equal to its Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest); and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Improved Obligation in accordance with such direction.

- (iii) Non-Performing Collateral Obligations and Current-Pay Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Current-Pay Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or Current-Pay Obligation in accordance with such direction. Non-Performing Collateral Obligations may be sold regardless of price.
- (iv) Non-qualifying Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell that obligation in accordance with such direction.
- (v) Withholding Tax Sales. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation subject to withholding tax at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction.
- (vi) Optional Redemption. After the Issuer has notified the Trustee of an Optional Redemption of the Notes, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all or a portion of the Collateral Obligations as contemplated therein if (A) the requirements in respect of an Optional Redemption under the Indenture have been satisfied and (B) the independent certified public accountants appointed pursuant to the Indenture have confirmed the calculations contained in any required certificate furnished by the Portfolio Manager pursuant to the Indenture's Note redemption procedure provisions. After a Majority of the Preference Shares have directed an Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares in accordance with the Indenture, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all of the remaining Collateral Obligations (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to clause (i) under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares") or a portion of the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous directions of Holders of the Preference Shares (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to clause (ii) under "Description of the Securities—Optional Redemption—Preference Shares") and the Trustee shall sell the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.
- (vii) Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Portfolio Manager has received notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, direct the Trustee to sell Collateral Obligations as contemplated in the Indenture and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

(viii) Discretionary Sales. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation:

(1) at any time on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without regard to any restriction specified in clause (2) below); and

(2) at any time after the Ramp-Up Completion Date if:

(A) after giving effect to the sale and the sale of any other Collateral Obligations whose sale is pending, the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations sold under "—Discretionary Sales" (in each case determined as of the date the direction to sell is given) is not greater than 20% of the Maximum Investment Amount as of January 1 of such calendar year (or, for the first calendar year, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date) (for the purpose of determining the percentage of Collateral Obligations sold during any such period, the amount of any Collateral Obligation sold shall be reduced (a) to the extent of any purchases of Collateral Obligations of the same obligor (which are pari passu with such sold Collateral Obligation) occurring within 30 Business Days of the sale (determined based on the date of any relevant trade confirmation or commitment letter) (but only for so long as (x) the Collateral Obligations purchased have not been downgraded by any of the Rating Agencies during the 30 Business Day period, (y) the Collateral Obligations have not been purchased from the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates acting, in each case, as principal or from any funds or accounts advised or managed by the Portfolio Manager or any of its Affiliates, and (z) the purchase price of each such Collateral Obligation must not exceed the sale price of the sold Collateral Obligation) and (b) to the extent of any purchases of Collateral Obligations permitted pursuant to the second paragraph set forth under "—Eligibility Criteria"; and

(B) during the Reinvestment Period the Portfolio Manager believes before the sale that it will be able to cause the Issuer within 30 days thereafter to reinvest or commit to reinvest its Sale Proceeds, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria, in one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Investment Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Collateral Obligation (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest); and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction. However, if the rating by Moody's of any of the Senior Class A Notes (without giving effect to the Policy), the Class A-2 Notes or the Class A-3 Notes is one or more rating sub-categories below the Initial Rating of the Senior Class A Notes (without giving effect to the Policy), the Class A-2 Notes or the Class A-3 Notes or has been withdrawn or the rating by Moody's of the Class B Notes or the Class C Notes is two or more rating subcategories below the Initial Rating of the Class B Notes or the Class C Notes or has been withdrawn, the Issuer shall not instruct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligations pursuant to "—Discretionary Sales." This restriction may be waived by written consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class. For the purposes of this clause (viii), any withdrawal or reduction in rating shall not restrict the sale of any Collateral Obligations pursuant to "—Discretionary Sales" if after the withdrawal or reduction Moody's has upgraded the reduced or withdrawn rating to at least the Initial Rating in the case of the Senior Class A Notes (without giving effect to the Policy), the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes, or to only one subcategory below their Initial Rating in the case of the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes.

- (ix) Workout Assets. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Workout Asset at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period without restriction and regardless of price and the Trustee shall sell the Workout Assets in accordance with such direction.

Certain Determinations Relating to Collateral Obligations

The Indenture provides that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained therein, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have purchased any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer delivers to the Trustee a contract to purchase, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to receive such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have acquired, granted or delivered, as the case may be, such Collateral Obligations on such date.

The Indenture provides that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained therein, solely for the purpose of calculations in connection with the Eligibility Criteria, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold any Collateral Obligations as of the date on which the Issuer delivers to the Trustee a contract to sell, a commitment letter, a confirmation or a due bill for such Collateral Obligation, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to sell, and requiring the purchaser to purchase, such Collateral Obligations and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have sold such Collateral Obligations on such date.

Under the circumstances described in the two preceding paragraphs, if the transaction contemplated by the contract, commitment letter, confirmation or due bill referred to therein does not settle on or before the 60th day following the scheduled settlement date (the "Deadline"), the deemed purchase or sale shall be deemed not to have occurred; provided, however, that the Portfolio Manager shall have the right to extend the Deadline for an additional period (not to exceed an additional 60 days) by notice to the Trustee, which notice shall include the Portfolio Manager's certification to the effect that the Portfolio Manager believes that the settlement shall occur on or before the extended Deadline.

Scheduled distributions with respect to any Pledged Collateral Obligation shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Indenture.

The Accounts

The Indenture provides that the Trustee will establish separate segregated non-interest bearing trust accounts, which will be designated as the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Custodial Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Policy Payment Account and the Securities Lending Account. In addition, Synthetic Security Counterparty Accounts may also be established. Any account may contain any number of subaccounts.

Collection Account. The Trustee shall deposit into the "Collection Account":

- (i) any funds transferred from (1) the Closing Date Expense Account pursuant to the Indenture or (2) the Interest Reserve Account pursuant to the Indenture;
- (ii) all Principal Proceeds (unless (1) simultaneously reinvested in Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Indenture, (2) deposited into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or (3) posted by the Issuer as cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security or in Eligible Investments) received by the Trustee;
- (iii) all Interest Proceeds received by the Trustee (unless simultaneously reinvested in accrued interest in respect of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Indenture or in Eligible Investments); and
- (iv) all other funds received by the Trustee and not excluded above.

The Issuer and the Portfolio Manager may, but will not be required to, jointly deposit from time to time any monies in the Collection Account it deems, in its sole discretion, to be advisable (and may designate any amounts so deposited as Principal Proceeds or Interest Proceeds in its discretion).

Any Principal Proceeds received during the Reinvestment Period, and Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments received after the Reinvestment Period, which have not been reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations on the Business Day of receipt shall be deposited in the Collection Account and shall at the direction of the Portfolio Manager be applied to the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria and the other requirements set forth in the Indenture or the purchase of Eligible Investments pending such investment or used to enter into additional Hedge Agreements or used in connection with a Special Redemption. Principal Proceeds (other than Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments) received after the Reinvestment Period shall be deposited into the Collection Account and applied to the purchase of Eligible Investments.

The Collection Account shall be maintained for the benefit of the Noteholders, the Composite Securityholders, the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager and each Hedge Counterparty and amounts on deposit in the Collection Account will be available for application in the order of priority under "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments" and for the acquisition of Collateral Obligations under the circumstances and pursuant to the requirements in the Indenture. Amounts received in the Collection Account during a Due Period and amounts received in prior Due Periods and retained in the Collection Account under the circumstances stated above in "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments" will be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions). All proceeds deposited in the Collection Account will be retained therein unless used to purchase Collateral Obligations during the Reinvestment Period (or, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, after the Reinvestment Period) in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria, to honor commitments with respect thereto entered into during or after the Reinvestment Period, or used as otherwise permitted under the Indenture. See "—Eligibility Criteria."

The Trustee shall transfer to the Payment Account from the Collection Account for application pursuant to the Priority of Payments, no later than the Business Day preceding each Payment Date, the amount set forth to be so transferred in the Valuation Report for the Payment Date.

At any time during or after the Reinvestment Period, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to pay from amounts on deposit in the Collection Account on any Business Day during any Interest Period from Interest Proceeds only, any Administrative Expenses that require payment before the next Payment Date to the extent that the amount of the payments does not exceed the aggregate amount that may be paid on the next payment Date under, and at the level of priority specified by, "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds."

Custodial Account. The Trustee will from time to time deposit collateral into the "Custodial Account", over which the Trustee will have exclusive control and sole right of withdrawal, in accordance with the Indenture. All assets or securities at any time on deposit in or otherwise to the credit of the Custodial Account will be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders, the Composite Securityholders, the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager and each Hedge Counterparty.

Revolving Reserve Account and Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account. Upon the purchase of any Collateral Obligation that is a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee shall deposit Principal Proceeds into the Revolving Reserve Account," in the case of a Revolving Loan, and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account," in the case of a Delayed Drawdown Loan, each equal to the unfunded commitment amount of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan, respectively, and the Principal Proceeds so deposited shall be considered part of the Purchase Price of the Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan for purposes of the Indenture. At the direction of the Portfolio Manager at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period, the Trustee shall withdraw funds from the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account to fund extensions of credit pursuant to Revolving Loans or Delayed Drawdown Loans, respectively. In addition, to the extent that the Issuer receives proceeds of a repayment in respect of a Revolving Loan (except to the extent of any concurrent commitment reduction) at any time during or after the Reinvestment Period, the Trustee shall deposit the proceeds into the Revolving Reserve Account.

Upon the sale of a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan in whole or in part or the reduction in part or termination of the Issuer's commitment thereunder, an amount on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, as the case may be, specified by the Portfolio Manager as being equal to (i) the unfunded amount of the commitment (in the case of a sale in whole or a termination of the commitment), (ii) the proportionate amount of the amount on deposit (in the case of a sale in part) or (iii) the amount by which the commitment is reduced (in the case of a reduction thereof in part), shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds.

Amounts on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account will be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions) not later than the Business Day after the date of their purchase. All interest and other income from amounts in the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account deposited to the Collection Account under the Indenture shall be considered Interest Proceeds in the Due Period in which they are so deposited.

Synthetic Security Collateral Account. On or before the date on which the Issuer enters into a Synthetic Security the Trustee shall create a sub-account of the non-interest bearing trust account established for Synthetic Security Collateral (the "Synthetic Security Collateral Account") with respect to the Synthetic Security. All Synthetic Security Collateral posted by any Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Synthetic Security shall be immediately deposited into the Synthetic Security Collateral Account and posted to the sub-account related to the Synthetic Security. On each day on which amounts are payable to the Issuer out of Synthetic Security Collateral, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to withdraw amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account in an amount sufficient to make the payment (including any total or partial release of Synthetic Security Collateral). The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account shall be:

- (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty to the Issuer under a Securities Lending Agreement if the Securities Lending Agreement becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the related Securities Lending Agreement upon any "event of default" under and as defined in the related Securities Lending Agreement, including liquidating the related Securities Lending Collateral; or
- (ii) to return the Securities Lending Collateral to the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty when and as required by the relevant Securities Lending Agreement, in each case as directed by the Portfolio Manager.

Amounts on deposit in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account will be invested in Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities not later than one Business Day after their purchase, as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions), and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account. The Trustee will deposit all collateral received from a Hedge Counterparty under any Hedge Agreement into the "Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account". The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account will be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer under a Hedge Agreement if the Hedge Agreement becomes subject to early termination or (ii) to return collateral to the relevant Hedge Counterparty when and as required by the relevant Hedge Agreement, in each case as directed by the Portfolio Manager. Amounts on deposit in the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account will be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Closing Date Expense Account. Amounts deposited in the "Closing Date Expense Account" on the Closing Date will be withdrawn to pay certain administrative expenses of the Co-Issuers. On the Payment Date in November 2005, the Trustee shall transfer all funds on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds and close the Closing Date Expense Account. Amounts on deposit in the Closing Date Expense Account shall be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the second Payment Date as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions) and shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests.

Expense Reimbursement Account. On any Payment Date and on any date between Payment Dates, the Trustee will apply amounts, if any, in the "Expense Reimbursement Account" to the payment of expenses and fees that must be paid between Payment Dates or that are due on that Payment Date under clause (1) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" and the Trustee shall on any Payment Date transfer to the Expense Reimbursement Account an amount equal to the excess, if any of the Administrative Expense Cap over the amounts due under clause (1) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" to the Expense Reimbursement Account in accordance with clause (2) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds." Amounts on deposit in the Expense Reimbursement Account shall be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions), no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date.

Securities Lending Account. The Trustee will deposit all Securities Lending Collateral posted by any Securities Lending Counterparty in support of its respective obligation under a Securities Lending Agreement in a non-interest bearing trust account (the "Securities Lending Account"). The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Securities Lending Account will be (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty to the Issuer under a Securities Lending Agreement if the Securities Lending Agreement becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the Securities Lending Agreement upon any "event of default" under and as defined in the Securities Lending Agreement, including liquidating the related Securities Lending Collateral or (ii) to return collateral to the Hedge Counterparty when and as required by a Hedge Agreement. Amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account shall be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions) no later than the Business Day before the next Payment Date. Amounts on deposit in the Securities Lending Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the loaned security or asset that relates to the Securities Lending Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer.

Payment Account. The Trustee will deposit collateral into the "Payment Account", over which the Trustee will have exclusive control and sole right of withdrawal, in accordance with the Indenture. All assets or securities at any time on deposit in or otherwise to the credit of the Payment Account will be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders, the Composite Securityholders, the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, and each Hedge Counterparty. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Payment Account shall be to pay amounts due and payable on the Notes and to pay Administrative Expenses, Premium, Accrued Insurance Liabilities and other amounts specified in the Indenture, each in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Interest Reserve Account. Amounts deposited in the "Interest Reserve Account", on the Closing Date will be withdrawn to pay amounts necessary such that the amounts referred to in clauses (1) through (14) of "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments—Interest Proceeds" will be paid in full on each Payment Date occurring on or before the Payment Date in November 2005. On the Payment Date in November 2005, the Trustee shall transfer all funds on deposit in the Interest Reserve Account to the Collection Account as Principal Proceeds and close the Interest Reserve Account. Amounts on deposit in the Interest Reserve Account shall be invested in Eligible Investments with Stated Maturities as directed by the Portfolio Manager (which may be in the form of standing instructions), no later than the Business Day before the second Payment Date.

Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. To the extent that any Synthetic Security requires the Issuer to secure its obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee and the Trustee shall establish a segregated non-interest bearing trust account (the "Synthetic Security Counterparty Account") for the Synthetic Security which shall be held in trust for the benefit of the related Synthetic Security Counterparty and over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security and the Indenture. In the alternative, a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account may be established with a trustee designated by the Synthetic Security Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that trustee would qualify to be a successor trustee under the Indenture and the account satisfies the other requirements of a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account under the Indenture.

As directed in writing by the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee shall deposit (or deliver for deposit) into each Synthetic Security Counterparty Account all amounts or securities that are required to secure the obligations of the Issuer in accordance with the related Synthetic Security, including the entire notional amount of any Synthetic Security in the form of a credit default swap or other similar transaction. The Portfolio Manager shall direct any such deposit only during the Reinvestment Period and only to the extent that monies are available for the purchase of Collateral Obligations pursuant to the Indenture. Any income received on amounts in the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall, after application in accordance with the relevant Synthetic Security, be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Interest Proceeds.

As directed by the Portfolio Manager in writing and in accordance with the applicable Synthetic Security and the Indenture, amounts on deposit in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be invested in Synthetic Security Collateral.

In connection with the occurrence of a credit event or an event of default or a termination event (each as defined in the applicable Synthetic Security) under the related Synthetic Security, amounts in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be withdrawn by the Trustee (or the Trustee shall request their withdrawal) and applied toward the payment of any amounts payable by the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the Synthetic Security, as directed by the Portfolio Manager in writing. Any excess amounts held in a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account, or held directly by a Synthetic Security Counterparty, after payment of all amounts owing from the Issuer to the related Synthetic Security Counterparty in accordance with the related Synthetic Security shall be withdrawn from the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Principal Proceeds.

Amounts on deposit in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the Synthetic Security that relates to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer (with the notional amount as the Principal Balance unless a default exists under the applicable Synthetic Security).

Class 1 Component Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account (the "Class 1 Component Account") that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal, and into which the Trustee shall deposit the United States Treasury strip security maturing on November 15, 2016 paying a principal amount at maturity equal to the original principal amount of the Class 1 Composite Securities specified in "Summary of Terms—Principal Terms of the Securities" (the "Treasury Strip"), which Treasury Strip shall be delivered to the Trustee by the Issuer on the Closing Date. All assets or securities at any time on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Class 1 Component Account shall be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities. The only permitted withdrawals from the Class 1 Component Account shall be in accordance with the Indenture. None of the Co-Issuers, the Noteholders, the Holders of Preference Shares (other than the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, to the extent of their Preference Share Components) or any other Secured Party shall have any legal, equitable, or beneficial interest in the Class 1 Component Account.

Policy Payment Account. The Trustee shall deposit all amounts received from the Insurer under the Policy in the "Policy Payment Account", over which the Trustee will have exclusive control and sole right of withdrawal, in accordance with the Indenture. Amounts held in the Policy Payment Account shall not be invested, unless otherwise instructed in writing by the Insurer. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Policy Payment Account shall be to make payments in respect of the amounts due on the Insured Notes on the related Payment Date in respect of which such funds are paid, to the extent such amounts are not paid pursuant to the Priority of Payments. Any monies held in the Policy Payment Account after the distributions made pursuant to the Indenture on any Payment Date shall promptly be remitted (but in no event later than two Business Days after such Payment Date) to the Insurer.

Hedge Agreements

At any time and from time to time after the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, shall enter into the Hedge Agreements and shall assign its rights (but none of its obligations) under the Hedge Agreements to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture and the collateral assignment of Hedge Agreements. The Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall obtain the approval of each new Hedge Agreement from each Hedge Counterparty to a then-existing Hedge Agreement. The Trustee shall, on behalf of the Issuer and in accordance with the Valuation Report, pay amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements on any Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Each Hedge Counterparty will be required to have (i) a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "Aa3" (which rating of "Aa3" is not on credit watch for a possible downgrade) or higher if the Hedge Counterparty has only a long-term rating; or a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "A1" (which rating of "A1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) or higher and a debt rating by Moody's for short-term debt of "P-1" (which rating of "P-1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) if the Hedge Counterparty has both long-term and short-term ratings and (ii) a short-term debt rating by S&P of not less than "A-1" or a long-term debt rating of not less than "A+" (the "Required Rating").

If at any time a Hedge Counterparty has:

- (A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating and that rating is below "Aa3" or is "Aa3" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's; or
- (B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:
  - (i) the long-term Moody's rating is below "A1" or that rating is "A1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's, or
  - (ii) the short-term Moody's rating is below "P-1" or that rating is "P-1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's;

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

- (i) post collateral with the Trustee to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement, in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's to be satisfied;
- (ii) obtain a guarantor whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria;
- (iii) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria; or
- (iv) take other actions to satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's.

If at any time the Hedge Counterparty has:

- (A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating that is "A2" or below or has been suspended or withdrawn;
- (B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:

- (i) the long-term Moody's rating is "A3" or below or is suspended or withdrawn; or
  - (ii) the short-term Moody's rating is "P-2" or below; or
- (C) a short-term debt rating by S&P below "A-1" or, if the Hedge Counterparty has no short-term rating by S&P, a long-term rating by S&P below "A+" or that has been suspended or withdrawn;

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

- (i) post collateral as required by the Hedge Agreement to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's and S&P to be satisfied; or
- (ii) (x) obtain a guarantor that has a Required Rating and that will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P with respect to its appointment; (y) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty that has a Required Rating and the appointment of which will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P; or (z) take such other actions to satisfy the Ratings Condition.

Any payments required to be made under the Hedge Agreements shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Hedge termination payments shall be subordinate to interest and principal payments on the Notes and any other payments required to be made by the Issuer under the Hedge Agreements, but senior distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Indenture.

Unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is otherwise satisfied, following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) the Issuer, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, shall promptly (but no later than 60 days after the early termination), at the expense of the Issuer and to the extent possible through Hedge Termination Receipts, enter into a replacement hedge, unless, in the exercise of the Portfolio Manager's commercially reasonable judgment, to do so would not be in the best interest of the Issuer and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to not entering into a replacement hedge. In addition, a replacement hedge may not be entered into unless the Issuer provides the Rating Agencies with at least seven Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to enter into a replacement hedge, together with its form and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the replacement hedge. The Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than a termination resulting from the bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar event with respect to the Hedge Counterparty) to become effective simultaneously with its entering into a replacement hedge. To the extent that (i) the Portfolio Manager determines not to replace the Hedge Agreement and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the determination; or (ii) termination is occurring on a Redemption Date, the Hedge Termination Receipts shall become part of Principal Proceeds and be distributed in accordance with the Priority of Payments on the next following Payment Date (or on the Redemption Date, if the Notes are redeemed on the Redemption Date).

The notional amounts of the Hedge Agreements outstanding at any time may be reduced or increased from time to time, by the Issuer, and the Hedge Agreements may be amended, modified, or terminated in accordance with the Hedge Agreements if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the reduction, increase, amendment, modification, or termination, as the case may be.

Each Hedge Agreement may be terminated pursuant to its terms upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes or an acceleration of maturity of the Notes after an Event of Default. The Hedge Agreement will not be permitted to be terminated as the result of a Default or Event of Default unless any acceleration of maturity of the Notes resulting from the Event of Default is no longer permitted to be rescinded pursuant to the Indenture.

Except for Hedge Agreements entered into on or before the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied.

Securities Lending

The Indenture permits the Issuer to engage in a limited number of securities lending transactions as described below.

The Portfolio Manager may instruct the Trustee to cause Collateral Obligations that are not Defaulted Collateral Obligations to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A" from S&P (each, a "Securities Lending Counterparty") pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a "Securities Lending Agreement"); provided that Collateral Obligations the Market Value of which cannot be determined under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Collateral Obligations to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Portfolio Manager. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Initial Purchaser or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Stated Maturity of the Notes. Collateral Obligations representing no more than 15% (measured by Aggregate Principal Balance) of the Maximum Investment Amount may be loaned pursuant to Securities Lending Agreements at any time.

Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Portfolio Manager (except to the extent specified in the Indenture) and shall:

- (i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Issuer debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent Collateral Obligations;
- (ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Issuer amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent Collateral Obligation is entitled to for the period during which the Collateral Obligation is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities Lending Agreement to make "gross-up" payments to the Issuer that cover the full amount of the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;
- (iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;
- (iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;
- (v) be governed by the laws of New York;

- (vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture;
- (vii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Collateral Obligation becomes a Credit Risk Obligation or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;
- (viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty upon any redemption of the Notes or Composite Securities in whole;
- (ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement to secure its obligation to return the Collateral Obligations or in the alternative post that collateral with a custodian for the benefit of the Issuer designated by the Securities Lending Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that custodian would qualify to be a successor trustee under the Indenture;
- (x) provide that the Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained at all times in an amount equal to at least 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value (determined daily and monitored by the Portfolio Manager) of the lent Collateral Obligations and if securities are delivered to the Trustee as security for the obligations of the Securities Lending Counterparty under the related Securities Lending Agreement, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will negotiate with the Securities Lending Counterparty a rate for the loan fee to be paid to the Issuer for lending the lent Collateral Obligations;
- (xi) the lent Collateral Obligations shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Portfolio Manager on the basis of their Market Value;
- (xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer's rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement rather than the loaned Collateral Obligation;
- (xiii) provide for early termination within 10 days at the option of the Issuer and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in the Indenture; and
- (xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in the Indenture.

In addition, each Securities Lending Agreement must provide that if either Moody's or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty, then the Issuer, within 10 days of the downgrade, shall (i) terminate its Securities Lending Agreements with the Securities Lending Counterparty unless a guarantor for the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements has been obtained; or (ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations lent to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty so that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party, together with all other Securities Lending Agreements, are in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of Securities Lending Counterparties; or (iii) take any other steps Moody's or S&P may require to cause the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party to be treated by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, as if the obligations were owed by a counterparty having a rating at least equivalent to the rating that was assigned by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty before its being downgraded.

The Portfolio Manager shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity, or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in the Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Collateral Obligation is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement, (a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Collateral Obligation because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action) and (b) the loaned Collateral Obligations shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as a Collateral Obligation by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Collateral Obligation to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under the Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

MATURITY AND PREPAYMENT CONSIDERATIONS

The Stated Maturity of each Class of Notes and Composite Securities will be the Payment Date in February, 2017 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date; however, the principal of each Class of the Notes and Composite Securities is expected to be paid in full prior to its Stated Maturity (or Extended Stated Maturity Date, as applicable). Average life refers to the average amount of time that will elapse from the date of delivery of a security until each dollar of the principal of such security will be paid to the investor. The average lives of the Notes will be determined by the amount and frequency of principal payments, which are dependent upon, among other things, the amount of sinking fund payments and any other payments received at or in advance of the scheduled maturity of Collateral Obligations (whether through sale, maturity, redemption, default or other liquidation or disposition). The average lives of the Composite Securities will be dependent on the proceeds received on its Components.

The actual performance of the Securities will also be affected by the financial condition of the obligors on or issuers of the Collateral Obligations and the characteristics of the Collateral Obligations, including the interest rate or other rate of distribution, the actual default rate and actual losses sustained, the existence and frequency of exercise of any prepayment, optional redemption, or sinking fund features and any related premium, the prevailing level of interest rates, any sales of Collateral Obligations, and any unique risks of the Collateral Obligations. Any disposition of a Collateral Obligation may change the composition and characteristics of the portfolio of Collateral Obligations and their rate of payment, and, accordingly, may affect the actual performance of each respective Class of Securities. The ability of the Issuer to reinvest any Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds in the manner described under "Security for the Notes and the Composite Securities " will also affect the performance of the Securities. Redemptions will also affect the performance of the Securities.

Investment Philosophy and Process

Highland Capital's investment philosophy is based on a belief that fundamental research and disciplined asset acquisition/disposition produces superior long-term results. Highland Capital's investment approach seeks to generate superior performance with muted volatility. Highland Capital anticipates long-term secular trends and identifies those sectors and issues that it believes have the highest relative value characteristics. Highland Capital's process and philosophy have been consistent over time.

Highland Capital has a large range and depth of experience. It has expertise in syndicated loans, high yield bonds, and distressed investments. Highland Capital believes it is in a position to arbitrage disparities in the historical spread relationship between various below investment grade asset classes. Highland Capital believes that, historically, the most inefficient asset classes have demonstrated the best risk/return characteristics.

Highland Capital has invested over $200 million of firm capital in its funds, and expects that one of its Affiliates or funds will invest $13.2 million aggregate Face Amount in the Preference Shares of the Issuer. Additionally, Highland Capital believes that it strives to minimize operating expenses and hires the brightest and most talented professionals, insisting on a high degree of dedication and integrity.

Highland Capital believes that its disciplined investment process minimizes a portfolio's risk and that its strategy seeks to maximize current yield over capital appreciation while limiting downside risk. Portfolio managers actively follow each credit and several times each year the entire investment staff reviews all positions during multi-day monitoring meetings. Highland Capital diversifies its portfolios with set limits on exposure to any one given industry or issuer. Highland Capital believes that this philosophy and process has resulted in positive returns in 46 of the last 48 quarters on its underlying loan portfolio and consistent outperformance relative to its indices.

Highland Capital focuses on a "team" approach that it has used since the investment committee started in 1990. It is Highland Capital management's belief that this style creates the optimum environment for the exchange of information and the development of all investment professionals. All aspects of the investment process are coordinated through the committee's direct interaction. The investment committee meets every morning to discuss the market, investment strategy, and credits. In addition, the firm maintains an "informal" open door policy with regards to investment or personal issues. The committee is composed of senior management and portfolio managers/analysts. Collectively, the committee utilizes an investment process which is driven by fundamental credit research. Each portfolio manager/analyst makes specific credit recommendations based upon industry coverage. The investment proposal is then brought to the investment committee for consideration. Based upon the consensus decision, the portfolio manager with the recommendation will direct Highland traders to execute the trade. Highland Capital has also provided its investment committee with a strong commitment to technology. The firm developed Wall Street Office® which is a proprietary software system that allows Highland Capital to model, portfolio manage, and trade syndicated loans. This software has been licensed to more than 70 financial institutions that invest in syndicated loans.

Pursuant to the terms of the Management Agreement, and in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Indenture, the Portfolio Manager will select the portfolio of Collateral Obligations and will instruct the Trustee with respect to any acquisition, disposition or sale of a Collateral Obligation and an Eligible Investment. Neither the Initial Purchaser or any Affiliate thereof will select any of the Collateral Obligations.

"Beneficiary" means JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as Trustee under the Indenture and any successor in such capacity, for the benefit of each Insured Noteholder.

"Due for Payment" with respect to an Insured Amount, means (i) scheduled interest on the Insured Notes when due and payable (after the expiration of any applicable or deemed grace period (after the satisfaction of any conditions precedent to the commencement of such grace period)) in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and (ii) final payment of principal of the Insured Notes on the Stated Maturity (in each of sub-clauses (i) and (ii), in accordance with the original terms of the Insured Notes when issued and without regard to any subsequent amendment or modification of the Insured Notes that has not been consented to in writing by the Insurer).

"Insured Amount" means the following amounts now owing or which may in the future be owing by the Issuer under the terms of the Indenture and the Insured Notes to the Beneficiary: (a) scheduled interest on the Insured Notes when due and payable (after the expiration of any applicable or deemed grace period (after the satisfaction of any conditions precedent to the commencement of such grace period)) in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and (b) final payment of principal of the Insured Notes on the Stated Maturity in a principal amount not to exceed $400,000,000. "Insured Amounts" will not include, nor will coverage be provided under the Policy in respect of:

(i) payments that become due on an accelerated basis as a result of the occurrence of (1) an Event of Default under the Indenture, (2) an Optional Redemption by the Issuers, (3) a failure to meet any Coverage Test as of any Determination Date, (4) the occurrence and continuance of a Rating Confirmation Failure or (5) any other cause;

(ii) any amounts due in respect of the Insured Notes attributable to any increase in interest rate, penalty or other sum payable by the Issuer by reason of any default under the Indenture or Event of Default in respect of the Insured Notes, or by reason of any deterioration of the creditworthiness of the Issuer;

(iii) any present or future taxes, withholding, deduction, assessment or other charge imposed by the United States, any other sovereign state, or any political subdivision or governmental or taxing authority thereof (including interest and penalties in respect of such taxes, withholding, deduction, assessment or other charge) with respect to any payment due under the Insured Notes;

(iv) any default, redemption or other make whole premium with respect to the Insured Notes;

(v) in the case of the election by 100% of the Holders of the Insured Notes to receive less than 100% of the portion of the Redemption Price that would otherwise be payable to such Holders in connection with any Optional Redemption, the amount by which the Redemption Price exceeds such lesser amount to be received by such Holders; or

(vi) any Extension Bonus Payment with respect to the Insured Notes.

"Nonpayment by the Issuer" with respect to an Insured Amount at a time when such Insured Amount is Due for Payment, means that the funds, if any, remitted to the Beneficiary under the terms of the Indenture are insufficient for payment in full of such Insured Amount. In addition to and without limiting the foregoing, "Nonpayment by the Issuer" applies to any portion of any Insured Amount that has become an Avoided Payment.

In the event that the payment of any amount in respect of any Insured Amount is accelerated or must otherwise be paid by the Issuer in advance of the scheduled payment date therefore, nothing in the Policy shall be deemed to require the Insurer to make any payment thereunder in respect of any such Insured Amount prior to the date such Insured Amount otherwise would have been Due for Payment without giving effect to such acceleration, unless the Insurer in its sole discretion elects to make any prior payment, in whole or in part, with respect to any such Insured Amount.

The Policy will be non-cancelable for any reason, including without limitation the non-payment of Premium. The Policy and the obligations of the Insurer thereunder shall terminate upon the earlier of: (i) the date on which all Insured Amounts have been paid or shall be deemed to have been paid under the Insured Notes or (ii) the date on which the Policy has been terminated by the Beneficiary and delivered for cancellation as described under "Description of the Securities—Termination of the Policy"; provided, however, that in the event that any amount with respect to any Insured Amount paid to the Beneficiary under the terms of the Indenture during the term of the Policy becomes an Avoided Payment, the Insurer's obligations with respect thereto shall, unless the term of the Policy has expired pursuant to clause (ii) above, remain in effect or shall be reinstated, as applicable, until payment in full by the Insurer pursuant to the terms of the Policy. For the avoidance of doubt, if the term of the Policy has expired pursuant to clause (ii), the Insurer shall have no further liability under the Policy, including, without limitation, for any subsequent Avoided Payment.

Following receipt by the Insurer of a notice of claim in the form attached to, and delivered in the manner specified in, the Policy, the Insurer will pay any amounts payable under the Policy (other than an amount that constitutes an Avoided Payment, which is discussed below) to the Beneficiary on behalf of the Insured Noteholder on the later to occur of (i) the date on which such payment becomes Due for Payment or (ii) the third Business Day following receipt by the Insurer of such notice of claim.

In the event the Insurer is required under law to deduct or withhold any tax or similar charge from or in respect of any amount payable under or in respect of the Policy, the Insurer will make all such deductions and withholdings and pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant taxation authority in accordance with law, but the Insurer will not "gross-up" or otherwise pay additional amounts in respect of such taxes, and the Insurer's payments to the Beneficiary, the bankruptcy trustee or the Insured Noteholders, as the case may be, will be amounts that are net of such deductions or withholdings.

Unless this Policy has been terminated by the Beneficiary and delivered by the Beneficiary for cancellation as described under "Description of the Securities—Termination of the Policy", if any amount or property paid to the Beneficiary under the terms of the Indenture becomes an Avoided Payment, the Insurer will pay the amount of such Avoided Payment when due to be paid pursuant to an applicable Order (referred to below), but in any event no earlier than the fourth Business Day following receipt (as specified in the Policy) by the Insurer from the Beneficiary of (i) a certified copy of such final, non-appealable order of the court or other body exercising jurisdiction in an insolvency proceeding by or against the Issuer to the effect that the Beneficiary is required to return or repay all or any portion of an Avoided Payment (the "Order"), (ii) a certificate by or on behalf of the Beneficiary that such Order has been entered and is not subject to any stay, (iii) an assignment in form and substance satisfactory to the Insurer, duly executed and delivered by the Beneficiary on behalf of the affected holders, irrevocably assigning to the Insurer all rights and claims of the Beneficiary on behalf of the affected holders against the estate of the Issuer or otherwise, which rights and claims relate to or arise under or with respect to the subject Avoided Payment, and (iv) a notice of claim, which notice is in the form specified in the Policy and appropriately completed and executed by the Beneficiary. Such payment shall be disbursed to the receiver, conservator, administrator, debtor-in-possession or trustee in bankruptcy named in the Order, and not to the Beneficiary directly, unless the Beneficiary has previously paid the Avoided Payment over to such court or receiver, conservator, administrator, debtor-in-possession or trustee in bankruptcy, in which case the Insurer will pay the Beneficiary subject to the delivery of (a) the items referred to in clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) above to the Insurer, and (b) evidence satisfactory to the Insurer that payment has been made to such court or receiver, conservator, administrator, debtor-in-possession or trustee in bankruptcy named in such Order.

The Policy may not be assigned by the Beneficiary without the prior written consent of the Insurer.

The Insurer's obligation under the Policy in respect of Insured Amounts shall be discharged to the extent that funds are transferred to the Beneficiary as provided in the notice of claim, whether or not such funds are properly applied by the Beneficiary.

In addition to the rights provided to the Insurer in the Indenture and unless the Policy has been terminated by the Beneficiary and delivered by the Beneficiary for cancellation as described under "Description of the Securities—Termination of the Policy", the Insurer shall be subrogated to the rights of the Insured Noteholders to receive payments in respect of Insured Amounts to the extent of any payment by the Insurer under the Policy (subject to the Priority of Payments). Any payment made by or on behalf of the Issuer to or for the benefit of the Insured Noteholders in respect of any Insured Amount forming the basis of a claim under the Policy (which claim shall have been paid by the Insurer) shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of the Insurer and shall be paid over to the Insurer. The Beneficiary on behalf of the Insured Noteholders shall cooperate in all reasonable respects, and at the expense of the Insurer, with any request by the Insurer for action to preserve or enforce the Insurer's rights and remedies in respect of the Issuer under the Insured Notes, any related security arrangements or otherwise, including without limitation any request to (i) institute or participate in any suit, action or other proceeding, (ii) enforce any judgment obtained and collect from the Issuer any amounts adjudged due or (iii) transfer to the Insurer, via absolute legal assignment, the Beneficiary's rights on behalf of the Insured Noteholders in respect of any Insured Amount which may form the basis of a claim thereunder.

For a discussion of the rights and powers of the Insurer as the Controlling Class upon an Event of Default, see "Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default."

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Insurer will waive, for the benefit of the Beneficiary and each Insured Noteholder, all its rights (whether by counterclaim, setoff or otherwise) and all defenses of any kind (including the defense of fraud), whether acquired by subrogation, assignment or otherwise, to the extent that such rights and defenses may be available to the Insurer to avoid payment of its obligations under the Policy. Any rights of subrogation acquired by the Insurer as a result of any payment under the Policy will be subject to the Priority of Payments in accordance with the express provisions of the Policy. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Insurer will reserve all rights to assert, subsequent to making payment to the Beneficiary of the Insured Amounts and payment in full of the Insured Notes in accordance with the Indenture, any claim it may have against the Beneficiary or any other Person (other than any Insured Noteholder) and none of the foregoing waivers shall prejudice any such claim the Insurer may have, whether directly or as a subrogee, subsequent to making such payment to the Beneficiary; provided that any such claim does not seek to impair payment by the Beneficiary to the Holders of Insured Notes of the proceeds of the Policy. The Insurer will acknowledge in the Policy that, with regard to the Insured Noteholders, the waivers contained in this paragraph are complete waivers and that there shall be no reserved rights to proceed against such parties subsequent to such payment.

THE POLICY IS NOT COVERED BY THE NEW YORK PROPERTY/CASUALTY INSURANCE SECURITY FUND SPECIFIED IN ARTICLE 76 OF THE NEW YORK INSURANCE LAW.

Insurance Agreement

The Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Insurer will enter into an Insurance Agreement. Pursuant to the Insurance Agreement and the Indenture, the Issuer will agree to pay or reimburse the Insurer for:

- (i) all amounts paid by the Insurer under the Policy for the benefit of the Holders of the Insured Notes (unless such amounts have previously been repaid to the Insurer); and
- (ii) all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by the Insurer in connection with the transactions contemplated by the related documents, as described in the Insurance Agreement; and, in the case of clause (i) above, interest accrued on the foregoing amounts at the Accrued Insurance Liabilities Interest Rate for the period from the date the Insurer paid or advanced such amounts until the date such amounts are paid in full. In addition, the Issuer will agree to pay and to protect, indemnify and save harmless, the Insurer and its officers, directors, shareholders, employees, agents and each Person, if any, who controls the Insurer within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act from and against all losses incurred by reason of:

- (i) any actual or alleged statement, omission or action (other than of or by the Insurer) in connection with the offering, issuance, sale or delivery of the Securities;
- (ii) the actual or alleged negligence, willful misconduct, misfeasance, malfeasance or theft committed by any director, officer, employee, agent or advisor of the Issuer in connection with the transactions or relating to any related document to which it is a party;
- (iii) the actual or alleged violation by the Issuer of any domestic or foreign law, rule or regulation, including, but not limited to, any securities or banking law, rule or regulation in connection with any issuance, offer and sale of the Securities, or any judgment, order or decree applicable to it;
- (iv) (A) the actual or alleged breach by the Issuer of any representation, warranty or covenant under any of the related documents, or (B) any event of default under any related document or any event which, with the giving of notice or the lapse of time or both, would constitute an event of default thereunder; or
- (v) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained herein or any omission or alleged omission to state herein a material fact required to be stated herein or necessary to make the statements herein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, except insofar as such claims arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission in information included herein furnished by the Insurer expressly for use herein (all such information so furnished being referred to herein as "Insurer Information"), it being understood that the Insurer Information is limited solely to the information included under the caption "The Insurer and the Policy—The Insurer" (including all information incorporated by reference therein) and in Exhibit A to this Offering Circular and the documents filed by the Insurer with the Maryland Insurance Administration and by AGL with the SEC incorporated by reference herein.

Pursuant to the Premium Letter, the Issuer will agree to pay to the Insurer on each Payment Date a premium (the "Premium") in accordance with the terms of the Insurance Agreement and the Indenture. All amounts owing by the Issuer under the Insurance Agreement will be payable in accordance with the Priority of Payments. See "Description of the Securities—Priority of Payments." The Premium payable to the Insurer will cease to accrue on any date on which the Policy is terminated or otherwise ceases to be outstanding and in full force and effect.

The occurrence of an Insurance Agreement Event of Default will constitute an Event of Default under the Indenture so long as the Insurer is the Controlling Party and will allow the Insurer, among other things, to direct the Trustee to declare the principal of and interest on the Notes immediately due and payable. See "Description of the Securities—The Indenture—Events of Default".

Pursuant to the Indenture, so long as it is the Controlling Class, the Insurer will have the right to exercise all the rights of the Holders of the Insured Notes under the Indenture and, except in certain limited circumstances, the Holders of the Insured Notes will not be permitted to exercise any such rights without the consent of the Insurer.

For information concerning the business, ratings and regulation of the Insurer, see "The Insurer and the Policy—The Insurer."

Insurance Agreement Events of Default

The occurrence of any of the following events shall constitute an "Event of Default" under the Insurance Agreement (each, an "Insurance Agreement Event of Default"):

(i) any representation or warranty made by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer under the Insurance Agreement shall prove to have been untrue, inaccurate or incorrect in any material respect when made, and it shall fail to cure such breach of representation or warranty within 15 calendar days for any representation or warranty regarding the Collateral or within 30 calendar days, for any other representation or warranty, in each case after the date which is the earlier of (x) the date on which it has actual knowledge of such breach or (y) the date on which notice thereof was given to it, and in each case, which breach or breaches (individually or collectively) has or can be reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Insurer; and

(ii) the Issuer or the Co-Issuer shall fail to perform or observe in any material respect any covenant or agreement to be performed or observed by it under the Insurance Agreement and such failure shall continue for a period of 30 calendar days after the date which is the earlier of (x) the date on which it has actual knowledge of such failure or (y) the date on which written notice thereof was given to it; provided, however, that if such failure shall be of a nature that it cannot be cured within 30 calendar days, such failure shall not constitute an Insurance Agreement Event of Default if within such 30 calendar-day period it shall have given written notice to the Insurer of corrective action it proposes to take, which corrective action shall have been agreed in writing by the Insurer to be satisfactory and it shall thereafter pursue such corrective action diligently until such default is cured.

THE CO-ISSUERS

The registered office of the Issuer is at the offices of Maples Finance Limited, P.O. Box 1093 GT, Queensgate House, South Church Street, George Town, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands. The Issuer has no prior operating experience (other than in connection with the acquisition of the Collateral Obligations during the Accumulation Period) and will not have any material assets other than (i) the Collateral pledged to secure the Secured Obligations, and (ii) $500 (of which $250 represents the Issuer's ordinary share capital and $250 represents a fee for issuing the Securities).

The Co-Issuer was incorporated on January 19, 2005 in the State of Delaware under registration number 3914226 as a corporation and has a perpetual existence. The registered office of the Co-Issuer is at 850 Library Avenue, Suite 204, Newark, Delaware 19711. The Co-Issuer has no prior operating history and will not have any material assets. The Issuer will be the sole member of the Co-Issuer.

The Notes are limited recourse obligations of the Co-Issuers, the Composite Securities will be limited recourse obligations of the Issuer and the Preference Shares are equity interests only in the Issuer. The Securities are not obligations of the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Portfolio Manager, JPMorgan, the Administrator, the Holders of the Preference Shares, Maples Finance Limited, as the share trustee (in such capacity, the "Share Trustee"), or any directors or officers of the Co-Issuers or any of their respective Affiliates.

At the Closing Date, the authorized and issued share capital of the Issuer consists of 250 ordinary shares, U.S.$1.00 par value per share (the "Issuer Ordinary Shares") and 82,200 Preference Shares, U.S.$0.01 par value per share, 100% of which will be issued on or about the Closing Date. The authorized common stock of the Co-Issuer consists of 1,000 shares of common stock, U.S.$0.01 par value (the "Co-Issuer Common Stock"), all of which shares will be issued on or about the Closing Date. All of the outstanding Issuer Ordinary Shares and all of the Co-Issuer Common Stock will be held by the Share Trustee. For so long as any of the Securities are Outstanding, no transfer of any Issuer Ordinary Shares or Co-Issuer Common Stock to a U.S. Person shall be registered.

Capitalization

The initial proposed capitalization of the Issuer as of the Closing Date after giving effect to the initial issuance of the Securities and the Issuer Ordinary Shares (before deducting expenses of the offering) is as set forth below.

 Total Capitalization.....	 689,000,250<sup>3</sup>

- <sup>2.</sup> Including the portion of the Preference Shares represented by the Class 1 Composite Securities.
- <sup>3.</sup> Does not total because the Total Capitalization has excluded the capitalization relating to the $2,000,000 aggregate Face Amount of the Preference Shares underlying the Preference Share Component.

The Co-Issuer will be capitalized only to the extent of its common equity of U.S.$10, will have no assets other than its equity capital and will have no debt other than as Co-Issuer of the Notes.

THE LOAN MARKET

A substantial portion, by principal amount, of the Collateral Obligations is expected to consist of corporate loans rated below investment grade extended to U.S. and other non-U.S. borrowers. Such loans are typically negotiated by one or more commercial banks or other financial institutions and syndicated among a group of commercial banks and financial institutions.

Corporate loans are typically at the most senior level of the capital structure, and are often secured by specific collateral, including but not limited to, trademarks, patents, accounts receivable, inventory, equipment, buildings, real estate, franchises and common and preferred stock of the obligor and its subsidiaries. Some loans may be unsecured, subordinated to other obligations of the obligor and may have greater credit and liquidity risk than is typically associated with senior secured corporate loans. The corporate loans expected to secure the Notes are of a type generally incurred by the borrowers thereunder in connection with a highly leveraged transaction, often to finance internal growth, acquisitions, mergers, stock purchases, or for other reasons. As a result of the additional debt incurred by the borrower in the course of the transactions, the borrower's creditworthiness is often judged by the rating agencies to be below investment grade. In order to induce the banks and institutional investors to invest in a borrower's loan facility, and to offer a favorable interest rate, the borrower often provides the banks and institutional investors with extensive information about its business, which is not generally available to the public. Because of the provision of confidential information, the unique and customized nature of a loan agreement, and the private syndication of the loan, loans are not as easily purchased or sold as a publicly traded security, and historically the trading volume in the loan market has been small relative to the high yield bond market.

Corporate loans often provide for restrictive covenants designed to limit the activities of the borrower in an effort to protect the right of lenders to receive timely payments of interest on and repayment of principal of the loans. Such covenants may include restrictions on dividend payments, specific mandatory minimum financial ratios, limits on total debt and other financial tests. A breach of covenant (after giving effect to any cure period) in a loan that is not waived by the lending syndicate normally is an event of acceleration that allows the syndicate to demand immediate repayment in full of the outstanding loan. Loans usually have shorter terms than more junior obligations and may require mandatory prepayments from excess cash flow, asset dispositions and offerings of debt and/or equity securities.

The majority of loans bear interest based on a floating rate index, e.g., LIBOR, the certificate of deposit rate, a prime or base rate (each as defined in the applicable loan agreement) or other index, which may reset daily (as most prime or base rate indices do) or offer the borrower a choice of one, two, three, six, nine or twelve month interest rate and rate reset periods. The purchaser of a loan may receive certain syndication or participation fees in connection with its purchase. Other fees payable in respect of a loan, which are separate from interest payments on such loan, may include facility, commitment, amendment and prepayment fees.

Purchases of loans are predominantly investment and commercial banks, which have applied their experience in high yield securities to the commercial and industrial loan market, acting as both principal and broker. The range of investors for loans has broadened to include money managers, insurance companies, arbitrageurs, bankruptcy investors and mutual funds seeking increased potential total returns and portfolio managers of trusts or special purpose companies issuing collateralized bond and loan obligations. As secondary market trading volumes increase, new loans are frequently adopting more standardized documentation to facilitate loan trading that should improve market liquidity. There can be no assurance, however, that future levels of supply and demand in loan trading will provide the degree of liquidity that currently exists in the market.

THE HIGH YIELD DEBT SECURITIES MARKET

A portion of the Collateral Obligations securing the Notes will consist of high yield debt securities rated below investment grade and Synthetic Securities, the Reference Obligations of which are high yield debt securities rated below investment grade. High yield debt securities are generally unsecured, may be subordinated to other obligations of the obligor and generally have greater credit and liquidity risk than is typically associated with investment grade corporate obligations. The lower rating of high yield debt securities reflects a greater possibility that adverse changes in the financial condition of the obligor or in general economic conditions (including a sustained period of rising interest rates or an economic downturn) may adversely affect the obligor's ability to pay principal and interest on its debt. Many issuers of high yield debt obligations are highly leveraged, and specific developments affecting such issuers, including reduced cash flow from operations or inability to refinance at maturity, may also adversely affect such issuers' ability to meet their debt service obligations.

High yield debt securities are often issued in connection with leveraged acquisitions or recapitalizations in which the issuers incur a substantially higher amount of indebtedness than the level at which they had previously operated. High yield debt securities have historically experienced greater default rates than has been the case for investment grade securities. Although several studies have been made of historical default rates in the high yield market, such studies do not necessarily provide a basis for drawing definitive conclusions with respect to default rates and, in any event, do not necessarily provide a basis for predicting future default rates.

INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

General

The following summary describes the principal U.S. federal income tax and Cayman Islands tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Notes and the Preference Shares to investors that acquire the Notes and the Preference Shares at original issuance and, in the case of the Notes, for an amount equal to the Issue Price of the relevant Class of Notes (for purposes of this section, with respect to each such Class of Notes, the first price at which a substantial amount of Notes of such Class are sold to investors (excluding bond houses, brokers, underwriters, placement agents and wholesalers) is referred to herein as the "Issue Price"). This summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a particular investor's decision to purchase the Notes and the Preference Shares. In addition, this summary does not describe any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, locality or taxing jurisdiction other than the United States federal income tax laws and Cayman Islands tax laws. In general, the summary assumes that a Holder holds a Security as a capital asset and not as part of a hedge, straddle or conversion transaction, within the meaning of Section 1258 of the Code.

The opinions expressed below were not written and are not intended by McKee Nelson LLP, special U.S. tax counsel to the Issuer, to be used and cannot be used by the Issuer or any Noteholder for purposes of avoiding United States federal income tax penalties that may be imposed, the advice is written to support the promotion or marketing of the transactions, and each taxpayer should seek advice based on the taxpayer's particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

This summary is based on the U.S. and Cayman Islands tax laws, regulations (final, temporary and proposed), administrative rulings and practice and judicial decisions in effect or available on the date of this Offering Circular. All of the foregoing are subject to change or differing interpretation at any time, which change or interpretation may apply retroactively and could affect the continued validity of this summary.

This summary is included herein for general information only, and there can be no assurance that the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") will take a similar view of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the Securities as described herein. ACCORDINGLY, PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS OF THE SECURITIES SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX AND CAYMAN ISLANDS TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PURCHASE, OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF THE SECURITIES, AND THE POSSIBLE APPLICATION OF STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN OR OTHER TAX LAWS.

As used in this section, the term "U.S. Holder" includes a beneficial owner of a Security that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a citizen or individual resident of the United States of America, an entity treated for United States federal income tax purposes as a corporation or a partnership created or organized in or under the laws of the United States of America or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, an estate the income of which is includable in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes regardless of its source, or a trust if, in general, a court within the United States of America is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of such trust, and certain eligible trusts that have elected to be treated as United States persons. This summary also does not address the rules applicable to certain types of investors that are subject to special U.S. federal income tax rules, including but not limited to, dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities, financial institutions, U.S. expatriates, tax-exempt entities (except with respect to specific issues discussed herein), charitable remainder trusts and their beneficiaries, insurance companies, persons or their qualified business units whose functional currency is not the U.S. Dollar, persons that own (directly or indirectly) equity interests in Holders of Securities and subsequent purchasers of the Securities.

In this summary, the treatment of each of the Class 1 Composite Securities either as a single unit or as its respective Components is uncertain because the Class 1 Composite Securities cannot be exchanged for its respective Components. If treated as a single unit, each of the Class 1 Composite Securities will be treated as equity (and the analysis applicable to equity interests in the Issuer shall apply). If treated as two separate Components, then a holder of a Class 1 Composite Security will be treated as directly holding the Preference Share constituting the Preference Share Component and the United States Treasury strip security constituting the Class 1 Component. Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities should refer to the discussion of the Preference Shares with respect to the Preference Share Component and should refer to their own tax advisers with respect to the Class 1 Component.

United States Federal Income Taxation

Tax Treatment of the Issuer

The Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder provide a specific exemption from U.S. federal income tax to non-U.S. corporations which restrict their activities in the United States to trading in stocks and securities (and any other activity closely related thereto) for their own account, whether such trading (or such other activity) is conducted by the corporation or its employees or through a resident broker, commission agent, custodian or other agent. This particular exemption does not apply to non-U.S. corporations that are engaged in activities in the United States other than trading in stocks and securities (and any other activity closely related thereto) for their own account or that are dealers in stocks and securities.

The Issuer intends to rely on the above exemption and does not intend to operate so as to be subject to U.S. federal income taxes on its net income. In this regard, on the Closing Date, the Issuer will receive an opinion from McKee Nelson LLP, special U.S. tax counsel to the Issuer ("Special U.S. Tax Counsel") to the effect that, although no activity closely comparable to that contemplated by the Issuer has been the subject of any Treasury Regulation, revenue ruling or judicial decision, under current law and assuming compliance with the Indenture, the Preference Share Documents, the Management Agreement, and other related documents (the "Documents") by all parties thereto, the Issuer's contemplated activities will not cause it to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States under the Code and, consequently, the Issuer's profits will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis (or the branch profits tax described below). The opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel will be based on the Code, the Treasury Regulations (final, temporary and proposed) thereunder, the existing authorities, and Special U.S. Tax Counsel's interpretation thereof, and on certain factual assumptions and representations as to the Issuer's contemplated activities. The Issuer intends to conduct its affairs in accordance with such assumptions and representations, and the remainder of this summary assumes such result. In addition, in interpreting and complying with the Documents and such assumptions and representations, the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager are entitled to rely upon the advice and/or opinions of their selected counsel, and the opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel will assume that any such advice and/or opinions are correct and complete. However, the opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel and any such other advice or opinions are not binding on the IRS or the courts, and no ruling will be sought from the IRS regarding this, or any other, aspect of the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Issuer. Accordingly, in the absence of authority on point, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Issuer is not entirely free from doubt, and there can be no assurance that positions contrary to those stated in the opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel or any such other advice or opinions may not be asserted successfully by the IRS.

If, notwithstanding the aforementioned opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel, it were determined that the Issuer were engaged in a trade or business in the United States (as defined in the Code), and the Issuer had taxable income that was effectively connected with such U.S. trade or business, the Issuer would be subject under the Code to the regular U.S. corporate income tax on such effectively connected taxable income (and possibly to the 30% branch profits tax as well). The imposition of such taxes would materially affect the Issuer's financial ability to make payments with respect to the Securities and could materially affect the yield of the Notes and the return on the Preference Shares.

United States Withholding Taxes. Although, based on the foregoing, the Issuer is not expected to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis, income derived by the Issuer may be subject to withholding taxes imposed by the United States or other countries. Generally, U.S. source interest income received by a foreign corporation not engaged in a trade or business within the United States is subject to U.S. withholding tax at the rate of 30% of the amount thereof. The Code provides an exemption (the "portfolio interest exemption") from such withholding tax for interest paid with respect to certain debt obligations issued after July 18, 1984, unless the interest constitutes a certain type of contingent interest or is paid to a 10% shareholder of the payor, to a controlled foreign corporation related to the payor, or to a bank with respect to a loan entered into in the ordinary course of its business. In this regard, the Issuer is permitted to acquire a particular Collateral Obligation only if the payments thereon are exempt from U.S. withholding taxes at the time of purchase or the obligor is required to make "gross-up" payments that offset fully any such tax on any such payments. Accordingly, assuming compliance with the foregoing restrictions and subject to the foregoing qualifications, income derived by the Issuer will be free of or fully "grossed up" for any material amount of U.S. withholding tax. However, there can be no assurance that income derived by the Issuer will not generally become subject to U.S. withholding tax as a result of a change in U.S. tax law or administrative practice, procedure, or interpretations thereof. It is also anticipated that the Issuer will acquire Collateral Obligations that consist of obligations of non-U.S. issuers. In this regard, the Issuer may only acquire a particular Collateral Obligation if either the payments thereon are not subject to foreign withholding tax or the obligor of the Collateral Obligation is required to make "gross-up" payments.

Prospective investors should be aware that, under certain Treasury Regulations, the IRS may disregard the participation of an intermediary in a "conduit" financing arrangement and the conclusions reached in the immediately preceding paragraph assume that such Treasury Regulations do not apply. Those Treasury Regulations could require withholding of U.S. federal income tax from payments to the Issuer of interest on the Collateral. In order to prevent "conduit" classification, each holder and beneficial owner of a Preference Share (including a Preference Share Component of a Class 1 Composite Security) (other than a subsequent transferee of an interest in the Regulation S Global Preference Shares) that is not a "United States person" (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Trustee written certification in a form of certification acceptable to the Issuer and the Trustee as to whether it is an Affected Bank. Each subsequent transferee (other than an initial transferee from the Initial Purchaser) of an interest in the Regulation S Global Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Components of the Class 1 Composite Securities) will be deemed to represent to the Issuer and to the Trustee that it is not an Affected Bank. No transfer of any Preference Share (including a Preference Share Component of a Class 1 Composite Security) to an Affected Bank will be effective, and the Trustee will not recognize any such transfer, unless such transfer is specifically authorized by the Issuer in writing; provided, however, that the Issuer shall authorize any such transfer if (x) such transfer would not cause more than 33 1/3% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Components of the Class 1 Composite Securities) to be owned by Affected Banks or (y) the transferor is an Affected Bank previously approved by the Issuer. In addition, each Holder and beneficial owner of a Preference Share (including a Preference Share Component of a Class 1 Composite Security) will be required to make the representations set forth under "Transfer Restrictions."

Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of the Notes

Treatment of the Notes. In the opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel, the Notes will be treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes when issued and this summary assumes such treatment. Further, the Issuer will treat, and each Holder and beneficial owner of a Note (by acquiring such Note or an interest in such Note) will agree to treat, such Note as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except as otherwise required by law. With regard to the characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes of the Notes issued after the Closing Date, prospective investors should note that the characterization of an instrument as debt or equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes is highly factual and must be based on the applicable law and the facts and circumstances existing at the time such instrument is issued and material changes from those existing on the Closing Date (e.g. a material decline in the value of the Issuer's assets, a material adverse change in the Issuer's ability to repay the Notes previously issued, and/or a material decline in the proportion of the Preference Shares) could affect the characterization of the Notes issued after (but not before) such changes. However, the opinion of Special U.S. Tax Counsel is based on current law and certain representations and assumptions and is not binding on the IRS or the courts, and no ruling will be sought from the IRS regarding this, or any other, aspect of the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Notes. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not contend, and that a court will not ultimately hold, that for U.S. federal income tax purposes one or more Classes of the Notes (e.g., the Class C Notes as a result of the terms of these Notes and place in the Issuer's capital structure) are properly treated as equity in the Issuer. In that case, the U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders of the Notes would be substantially the same as those set forth under "Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of Preference Shares" and there might be adverse U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of Notes upon the sale, redemption, retirement or other disposition of, or the receipt of certain types of distributions on, the Notes. The following discussion assumes that the Notes will be treated as debt of the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Interest or Discount on the Notes. U.S. Holders of the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes and the Class A-3 Notes generally will include in gross income payments of stated interest as received in accordance with their usual method of tax accounting, as ordinary interest income from sources outside the United States.

If the Issue Price of a Class of Notes is less than the "stated redemption price at maturity" of such Class of Notes by more than a de minimis amount, U.S. Holders of Notes of such Class will be considered to have purchased such Notes with original issue discount ("OID"). The stated redemption price at maturity of a Class of Notes will be the sum of all payments to be received on Notes of such Class, other than payments of "qualified stated interest" (i.e., generally, stated interest which is unconditionally payable in money at least annually during the entire term of a debt instrument). Interest is unconditionally payable if reasonable remedies exist to compel payment as the or the terms of the instrument make late payment or non-payment remote. Prospective U.S. Holders of the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes should note that, because interest on these Notes may not qualify as unconditionally payable on each Payment Date (and, therefore, may not be "qualified stated interest"), all of the stated interest payments on one or both of these Notes classes may be included in the stated redemption prices at maturity, and required to be accrued by U.S. Holders pursuant to the OID rules described below. Such OID inclusion on such Notes generally will be treated as income from sources outside the United States.

A U.S. Holder of such Class of Notes issued with OID will be required to accrue and include in gross income the sum of the "daily portions" of total OID on such Notes for each day during the taxable year on which the U.S. Holder held such Notes, generally under a constant yield method, regardless of such U.S. Holder's usual method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If a Note is issued at a discount from its stated principal balance and that discount is considered to represent only a de minimis amount of OID, such discount is not subject to accrual under the OID rules and should be included in gross income proportionately as stated principal payments are received. Such de minimis OID should be treated as gain from the sale or exchange of property and may be eligible as capital gain if the Note is a capital asset in the hands of the U.S. Holder.

In the case of such Class of Notes that provides for a floating rate of interest, the amount of OID to be accrued over the term of such Notes will be based initially on the assumption that the floating rate in effect for the first accrual period of such Notes will remain constant throughout their term. To the extent such rate varies with respect to any accrual period, such variation will be reflected in an increase or decrease of the amount of OID accrued for such period. Under the foregoing method, U.S. Holders of the Notes may be required to include in gross income increasingly greater amounts of OID and may be required to include OID in advance of the receipt of cash attributable to such income.

The Issuer intends to treat Classes of Notes issued with more than de minimis OID as being subject to rules prescribed by Section 1272(a)(6) of the Code using an assumption as to the prepayments on such Class of Notes, as discussed below under "—OID on the Notes." A prepayment assumption applies to debt instruments if payments under such debt instruments may be accelerated by reason of prepayments of other obligations securing such debt instruments.

OID on the Notes. The following discussion will apply to a Class of Notes if it is issued with more than de minimis OID. Because principal repayments on the Notes are subject to acceleration, the method by which OID on the Notes is required to be accrued is uncertain. For purposes of accruing OID on these Notes under such circumstances, the Issuer intends to treat these Notes as being subject to the "prepayment assumption method". These rules require that the amount and rate of accrual of OID be calculated based on a prepayment assumption and the anticipated reinvestment rate, if any, relating to the Notes and prescribe a method for adjusting the amount and rate of accrual of the discount where the actual prepayment rate differs from the prepayment assumption. Under the Code, the prepayment assumption must be determined in the manner prescribed by the Treasury Regulations, which have not yet been issued. The legislative history provides, however, that Congress intended the Treasury Regulations to require that the prepayment assumption be the prepayment assumption that is used in determining the initial offering price of the Notes. Solely for purposes of determining OID, market discount and bond premium, the Issuer intends to assume that the Collateral Obligations will either not prepay or any prepayments will be reinvested. No representation is made that the Notes will prepay at the prepayment assumption or at any other rate.

It is possible the IRS could contend that another method of accruing OID with respect to these Notes is appropriate that may result in adverse or more favorable U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of such Notes. One such alternative method of accruing OID may be the noncontingent bond method that governs contingent payment debt obligations. Such method could affect the amount and character of the gain or loss recognized upon a disposition of a Note.

A purchaser of a Note issued with OID who purchases such Note at a cost greater than the adjusted issue price but less than the stated redemption price at maturity will also be required to include in gross income the sum of the daily portions of OID on such Note. In computing the daily portions of OID, however, the daily portion is equal to the amount that would be the daily portion for the day (computed in accordance with the rules set forth above) multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount, if any, by which the price paid by the U.S. Holder for such Note exceeds the following amount:

- The sum of the Issue Price plus the aggregate amount of OID that would have been includible in the gross income of an original U.S. Holder (who purchased the Note at the Issue Price); less
- Any prior payments included in the stated redemption price at maturity, and the denominator of which is the sum of the daily portions for such Note for all days beginning on the date after the purchase date and ending on the maturity date computed under the prepayment assumption.

A U.S. Holder who purchases a Note at a cost greater than its stated redemption price at maturity may elect to amortize such premium under a constant yield method over the life of such Note. The amortizable amount for any accrual period would offset the amount of interest that must be included in the gross income of a U.S. Holder in such accrual period. The U.S. Holder's basis in such Note would be reduced by the amount of amortization. It is not clear whether the prepayment assumption would be taken into account in determining the life of such Note for this purpose.

If the Holder acquires a Note at a discount to the adjusted issue price of such Note that is greater than a specified de minimis amount, such discount is treated as market discount. Absent an election to accrue into income currently, the amount of accrued market discount on a Note is included in income as ordinary income when principal payments are received or the Holder disposes of the Note. Market discount is included ratably unless a Holder elects to use a constant yield method for accrual. For this purpose, ratable may be the term of the Note, or a Holder may be permitted to accrue market discount in proportion to interest on Notes issued without OID or in proportion to OID on Notes issued with OID.

As a result of the complexity of the OID rules, each U.S. Holder of a Note should consult its own tax advisor regarding the impact of the OID rules on its investment in such Note.

Election to Treat All Interest as OID. The OID rules permit a U.S. Holder of a Note to elect to accrue all interest, discount (including de minimis market or original issue discount) and premium in income, based on a constant yield method. If an election to treat all interest as OID were to be made with respect to a Note with market discount, the U.S. Holder of such Note would be deemed to have made an election to include in income currently market discount with respect to all other debt instruments having market discount that such U.S. Holder acquires during the taxable year of the election or thereafter. A U.S. Holder that makes this election for a Note that is acquired at a premium will be deemed to have made an election to amortize bond premium with respect to all debt instruments having amortizable bond premium that such U.S. Holder owns or acquires. The election to accrue interest, discount and premium on a constant yield method with respect to a Note cannot be revoked without the consent of the IRS.

Disposition of the Notes. In general, a U.S. Holder of a Note initially will have a basis in such Note equal to the cost of such Note to such U.S. Holder, (i) increased by any amount includable in income by such U.S. Holder as OID and by any accrued market discount the Holder previously included in income with respect to such Note, and (ii) reduced by any amortized premium and by payments on such Note, other than payments of qualified stated interest. Upon a sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition of a Note, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized on the disposition (other than amounts attributable to accrued qualified stated interest, which will be taxable as described above) and the U.S. Holder's tax basis in such Note. Except to the extent of any accrued interest or accrued market discount not previously included in income, gain or loss from the disposition of a Note generally will be long term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder held the Note for more than one year at the time of disposition, provided that such Note is held as a "capital asset" (generally, property held for investment) within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code.

In certain circumstances, U.S. Holders that are individuals may be entitled to preferential treatment for net long-term capital gains; however, the ability of U.S. Holders to offset capital losses against ordinary income is limited.

Gain recognized by a U.S. Holder on the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition of a Note generally will be treated as from sources within the United States and loss so recognized generally will offset income from sources within the United States.

Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of Preference Shares

Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company. The Issuer will constitute a "passive foreign investment company" ("PFIC") and the Preference Shares will be treated as equity in the Issuer. Accordingly, U.S. Holders of Preference Shares (other than certain U.S. Holders that are subject to the rules pertaining to a "controlled foreign corporation" with respect to the Issuer, described below) will be considered U.S. shareholders in a PFIC. In general, a U.S. Holder of a PFIC may desire to make an election to treat the Issuer as a "qualified electing fund" ("QEF") with respect to such U.S. Holder. Generally, a QEF election should be made with the filing of a U.S. Holder's federal income tax return for the first taxable year for which it held the Preference Shares. If a timely QEF election is made for the Issuer, an electing U.S. Holder will be required in each taxable year to include in gross income (i) as ordinary income, such holder's pro rata share of the Issuer's ordinary earnings and (ii) as long-term capital gain, such holder's pro rata share of the Issuer's net capital gain, whether or not distributed. A U.S. Holder will not be eligible for the dividends received deduction in respect of such income or gain. In addition, any losses of the Issuer in a taxable year will not be available to such U.S. Holder and may not be carried back or forward in computing the Issuer's ordinary earnings and net capital gain in other taxable years. An amount included in an electing U.S. Holder's gross income should be treated as income from sources outside the United States for U.S. foreign tax credit limitation purposes. However, if U.S. Holders collectively own (directly or constructively) 50% or more (measured by vote or value) of the Preference Shares, such amount will be treated as income from sources within the United States for such purposes to the extent that such amount is attributable to income of the Issuer from sources within the United States. If applicable to a U.S. Holder of Preference Shares, the rules pertaining to a "controlled foreign corporation", discussed below, generally override those pertaining to a PFIC with respect to which a QEF election is in effect.

In certain cases in which a QEF does not distribute all of its earnings in a taxable year, U.S. shareholders may also be permitted to elect to defer payment of some or all of the taxes on the QEF's undistributed income subject to an interest charge on the deferred amount. In this respect, prospective purchasers of Preference Shares should be aware that it is expected that the Collateral Obligations may be purchased by the Issuer with substantial OID the cash payment of which may be deferred, perhaps for a substantial period of time, and the Issuer may use interest and other income from the Collateral Obligations to purchase additional Collateral Obligations or to retire the Notes. As a result, the Issuer may have in any given year substantial amounts of earnings for U.S. federal income tax purposes that are not distributed on the Preference Shares. Thus, absent an election to defer payment of taxes, U.S. Holders that make a QEF election with respect to the Issuer may owe tax on significant "phantom" income.

In addition, it should be noted that if the Issuer invests in obligations that are not in registered form, a U.S. Holder making a QEF election (i) may not be permitted to take a deduction for any loss attributable to such obligations when calculating its share of the Issuer's earnings and (ii) may be required to treat income attributable to such obligations as ordinary income even though the income would otherwise constitute capital gains. It is possible that some portion of the investments of the Issuer will constitute obligations that are not in registered form.

The Issuer will provide, upon request, all information and documentation that a U.S. Holder making a QEF election is required to obtain for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

A U.S. Holder of Preference Shares (other than certain U.S. Holders that are subject to the rules pertaining to a "controlled foreign corporation," described below) that does not make a timely QEF election will be required to report any gain on disposition of any Preference Shares as if it were an excess distribution, rather than capital gain, and to compute the tax liability on such gain and other "excess distributions" received in respect of the Preference Shares as if such items had been earned ratably over each day in the U.S. Holder's holding period (or a certain portion thereof) for the Preference Shares. The U.S. Holder will be subject to tax on such items at the highest ordinary income tax rate for each taxable year, other than the current year of the U.S. Holder, in which the items were treated as having been earned, regardless of the rate otherwise applicable to the U.S. Holder. Further, such U.S. Holder will also be liable for an additional tax equal to interest on the tax liability attributable to income allocated to prior years as if such liability had been due with respect to each such prior year. For purposes of these rules, gifts, exchanges pursuant to corporate reorganizations and use of the Preference Shares as security for a loan may be treated as a taxable disposition of the Preference Shares. Very generally, an "excess distribution" is the amount by which distributions during a taxable year in respect of a Preference Share exceed 125 percent of the average amount of distributions in respect thereof during the three preceding taxable years (or, if shorter, the U.S. Holder's holding period for the Preference Share). In addition, a stepped-up basis in the Preference Share upon the death of an individual U.S. Holder may not be available.

In many cases, application of the tax on gain on disposition and receipt of excess distributions will be substantially more onerous than the treatment applicable if a timely QEF election is made. ACCORDINGLY, U.S. HOLDERS OF PREFERENCE SHARES SHOULD CONSIDER CAREFULLY WHETHER TO MAKE A QEF ELECTION WITH RESPECT TO THE PREFERENCE SHARES AND THE CONSEQUENCES OF NOT MAKING SUCH AN ELECTION.

Investment in a Controlled Foreign Corporation. The Issuer may be classified as a controlled foreign corporation ("CFC"). In general, a foreign corporation will be classified as a CFC if more than 50% of the shares of the corporation, measured by reference to combined voting power or value, is owned (actually or constructively) by "U.S. Shareholders." A U.S. Shareholder, for this purpose, is in general any U.S. Holder that possesses (actually or constructively) 10% or more of the combined voting power (generally the right to vote for directors of the corporation) of all classes of shares of a corporation. Although the Preference Shares do not vote for directors of the Issuer, it is possible that the IRS would assert that the Preference Shares are de facto voting securities and that U.S. Holders possessing (actually or constructively) 10% or more of the total stated amount of Outstanding Preference Shares are U.S. Shareholders. If this argument were successful and more than 50% of the Preference Shares (determined with respect to aggregate value or vote) are owned (actually or constructively) by such U.S. Shareholders, the Issuer would be treated as a CFC.

If the Issuer were treated as a CFC, a U.S. Shareholder of the Issuer (at the end of the taxable year of the Issuer) would be treated, subject to certain exceptions, as receiving a deemed dividend in an amount equal to that person's pro rata share of the "subpart F income" of the Issuer. Such deemed dividend normally would be treated as income from sources within the United States for U.S. foreign tax credit limitation purposes to the extent that it is attributable to income of the Issuer from sources within the United States. Among other items, and subject to certain exceptions, "subpart F income" includes dividends, interest, annuities, gains from the sale of shares and securities, certain gains from commodities transactions, income from certain notional principal contracts, certain types of insurance income and income from certain transactions with related parties. It is likely that, if the Issuer were to constitute a CFC, all or most of its income would be subpart F income. In general, if the subpart F income exceeds 70% of the Issuer's gross income, the entire amount of the Issuer's income will be subpart F income. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding these special rules.

If the Issuer were treated as a CFC, a U.S. Shareholder of the Issuer which made a QEF election with respect to the Issuer would be taxable on the subpart F income of the Issuer under rules described in the preceding paragraph and not under the QEF rules previously described. As a result, to the extent subpart F income of the Issuer includes net capital gains, such gains would be treated as ordinary income of the U.S. Shareholder under the CFC rules, notwithstanding the fact that the character of such gains generally would otherwise be preserved under the QEF rules.

Furthermore, if the Issuer were treated as a CFC and a U.S. Holder were treated as a U.S. Shareholder therein, the Issuer would not be treated as a PFIC or a QEF with respect to such U.S. Holder for the period during which the Issuer remained a CFC and such U.S. Holder remained a U.S. Shareholder therein (the "qualified portion" of the U.S. Holder's holding period for the Preference Shares). If the qualified portion of such U.S. Holder's holding period for the Preference Shares subsequently ceased (either because the Issuer ceased to be a CFC or the U.S. Holder ceased to be a U.S. Shareholder), then solely for purposes of the PFIC rules, such U.S. Holder's holding period for the Preference Shares would be treated as beginning on the first day following the end of such qualified portion, unless the U.S. Holder had owned any Preference Shares for any period of time prior to such qualified portion and had not made a QEF election with respect to the Issuer. In that case, the Issuer would again be treated as a PFIC which is not a QEF with respect to such U.S. Holder and the beginning of such U.S. Holder's holding period for the Preference Shares would continue to be the date upon which such U.S. Holder acquired the Preference Shares, unless the U.S. Holder made an election to recognize gain with respect to the Preference Shares and a QEF election with respect to the Issuer.

Indirect Interests in PFICs and CFCs. If the Issuer owns a Collateral Obligation or a Qualified Equity Security issued by a non-U.S. corporation that is treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, U.S. Holders of Preference Shares could be treated as owning an indirect equity interest in a PFIC or a CFC and could be subject to certain adverse tax consequences.

In particular, if the Issuer owns equity interests in PFICs ("Lower-Tier PFICs"), a U.S. Holder of Preference Shares would be treated as owning directly the U.S. Holder's proportionate amount (by value) of the Issuer's equity interests in the Lower-Tier PFICs. A U.S. Holder's QEF election with respect to the Issuer would not be effective with respect to such Lower-Tier PFICs. However, a U.S. Holder would be able to make QEF elections with respect to such Lower-Tier PFICs if the Lower-Tier PFICs provide certain information and documentation to the Issuer in accordance with applicable Treasury Regulations. However, there can be no assurance that the Issuer would be able to obtain such information and documentation from any Lower-Tier PFIC, and thus there can be no assurance that a U.S. Holder would be able to make or maintain a QEF election with respect to any Lower-Tier PFIC. If a U.S. Holder does not have a QEF election in effect with respect to a Lower-Tier PFIC, as a general matter, the U.S. Holder would be subject to the adverse consequences described above under "—Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company" with respect to any excess distributions made by such Lower-Tier PFIC to the Issuer, any gain on the disposition by the Issuer of its equity interest in such Lower-Tier PFIC treated as indirectly realized by such U.S. Holder, and any gain treated as indirectly realized by such U.S. Holder on the disposition of its equity in the Issuer (which may arise even if the U.S. Holder realizes a loss on such disposition). Such amount would not be reduced by expenses or losses of the Issuer, but any income recognized may increase a U.S. Holder's tax basis in its Preference Shares. Moreover, if the U.S. Holder has a QEF election in effect with respect to a Lower-Tier PFIC, the U.S. Holder would be required to include in income the U.S. Holder's pro rata share of the Lower-Tier PFIC's ordinary earnings and net capital gain as if the U.S. Holder's indirect equity interest in the Lower-Tier PFIC were directly owned, and it appears that the U.S. Holder would not be permitted to use any losses or other expenses of the Issuer to offset such ordinary earnings and/or net capital gains but recognition of such income may increase a U.S. Holder's tax basis in its Preference Shares.

Accordingly, if any of the Collateral Obligations or Qualified Equity Securities are treated as equity interests in a PFIC, such U.S. Holders could experience significant amounts of phantom income with respect to such interests. Other adverse tax consequences may arise for such U.S. Holders that are treated as owning indirect interests in CFCs. U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax issues associated with such investments in light of their own individual circumstances.

Distributions on the Preference Shares. The treatment of actual distributions of cash on the Preference Shares, in very general terms, will vary depending on whether a U.S. Holder has made a timely QEF election as described above. See "—Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company." If a timely QEF election has been made, distributions should be allocated first to amounts previously taxed pursuant to the QEF election (or pursuant to the CFC rules, if applicable) and to this extent will not be taxable to U.S. Holders. Distributions in excess of such previously taxed amounts pursuant to a QEF election (or pursuant to the CFC rules, if applicable) will be taxable to U.S. Holders as ordinary income upon receipt to the extent of any remaining amounts of untaxed current and accumulated earnings and profits of the Issuer. Distributions in excess of any current and accumulated earnings and profits will be treated first as a nontaxable reduction to the U.S. Holder's tax basis for the Preference Shares to the extent thereof and then as capital gain.

In the event that a U.S. Holder does not make a timely QEF election, then except to the extent that distributions may be attributable to amounts previously taxed pursuant to the CFC rules, some or all of any distributions with respect to the Preference Shares may constitute "excess distributions," taxable as previously described. See "—Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company." In that event, except to the extent that distributions may be attributable to amounts previously taxed to the U.S. Holder pursuant to the CFC rules or are treated as "excess distributions," distributions on the Preference Shares generally would be treated as dividends to the extent paid out of the Issuer's current or accumulated earnings and profits not allocated to any "excess distributions," then as a nontaxable reduction to the U.S. Holder's tax basis for the Preference Shares to the extent thereof and then as capital gain. Dividends received from a foreign corporation generally will be treated as income from sources outside the United States for U.S. foreign tax credit limitation purposes. However, if U.S. Holders collectively own (directly or constructively) 50% or more (measured by vote or value) of the Preference Shares, a percentage of the dividend income equal to the proportion of the Issuer's earnings and profits from sources within the United States generally will be treated as income from sources within the United States for such purposes.

Purchase or Disposition of the Preference Shares. In general, a U.S. Holder of a Preference Share will recognize a gain or loss upon the sale, exchange, redemption or other taxable disposition of a Preference Share equal to the difference between the amount realized and such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the Preference Share. Except as discussed below, such gain or loss will be a capital gain or loss and will be a long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder held the Preference Shares for more than one year at the time of the disposition. In certain circumstances, U.S. Holders who are individuals may be entitled to preferential treatment for net long-term capital gains; however, the ability of U.S. Holders to offset capital losses against ordinary income is limited. Any gain recognized by a U.S. Holder on the sale, exchange, redemption or other taxable disposition of a Preference Share (other than, in the case of a U.S. Holder treated as a "U.S. Shareholder," any such gain characterized as a dividend, as discussed below) generally will be treated as from sources within the United States and loss so recognized generally will offset income from sources within the United States.

Initially, a U.S. Holder's tax basis for a Preference Share will equal the cost of such Preference Share to such U.S. Holder. Such basis will be increased by amounts taxable to such U.S. Holder by virtue of a QEF election, or by virtue of the CFC rules, as applicable, and decreased by actual distributions from the Issuer that are deemed to consist of such previously taxed amounts or are treated as a nontaxable reduction to the U.S. Holder's tax basis for the Preference Share (as described above).

If a U.S. Holder does not make a timely QEF election as described above, any gain realized on the sale, exchange, redemption or other taxable disposition of a Preference Share (or any gain deemed to accrue prior to the time a non-timely QEF election is made) will be taxed as ordinary income and subject to an additional tax reflecting a deemed interest charge under the special tax rules described above. See "—Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company."

If the Issuer were treated as a CFC and a U.S. Holder were treated as a "U.S. Shareholder" therein, then any gain realized by such U.S. Holder upon the disposition of Preference Shares, other than gain constituting an excess distribution under the PFIC rules, if applicable, would be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the U.S. Holder's share of the current or accumulated earnings and profits of the Issuer. In this regard, earnings and profits would not include any amounts previously taxed pursuant to a timely QEF election or pursuant to the CFC rules.

Tax Treatment of Tax-Exempt U.S. Holders

U.S. Holders which are tax-exempt entities ("Tax-Exempt U.S. Holders") will not be subject to the tax on unrelated business taxable income ("UBTI") with respect to interest and capital gains income derived from an investment in the Notes. However, a Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder that also acquires the Preference Shares (or, any Note recharacterized as equity in the Issuer) should consider whether interest it receives in respect of the Notes may be treated as UBTI under rules governing certain payments received from controlled entities.

A Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to the tax on UBTI with respect to regular distributions or "excess distributions" (defined above under "Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of Preference Shares - Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company") on the Preference Shares (or, any Note recharacterized as equity in the Issuer). A Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder which is not subject to tax on UBTI with respect to "excess distributions" may not make a QEF election. In addition, a Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder which is subject to the rules relating to "controlled foreign corporations" with respect to the Preference Shares (or, any Note recharacterized as equity in the Issuer) generally should not be subject to the tax on UBTI with respect to income from such Preference Shares (or, any Note recharacterized as equity in the Issuer).

Notwithstanding the discussion in the preceding two paragraphs, a Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder which incurs "acquisition indebtedness" (as defined in Section 514(c) of the Code) with respect to the Securities may be subject to the tax on UBTI with respect to income from the Securities to the extent that the Securities constitute "debt-financed property" (as defined in Section 514(b) of the Code) of the Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder. A Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder subject to the tax on UBTI with respect to income from the Preference Shares (or, and Note recharacterized as equity in the Issuer) will be taxed on "excess distributions" in the manner discussed above under "Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders of Preference Shares—Investment in a Passive Foreign Investment Company". Such a Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder will be permitted, and should consider whether, to make a QEF election with respect to the Issuer as discussed above.

Tax-Exempt U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding an investment in the Securities.

Transfer Reporting Requirements

A U.S. Holder of Preference Shares (and, any Note recharacterized as equity in the Issuer) that owns (actually or constructively) at least 10% by vote or value of the Issuer (and each officer or director of the Issuer that is a U.S. citizen or resident) may be required to file an information return on IRS Form 5471. A U.S. Holder of Preference Shares (and, any Note recharacterized as equity in the Issuer) generally is required to provide additional information regarding the Issuer annually on IRS Form 5471 if it owns (actually or constructively) more than 50% by vote or value of the Issuer. U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding whether they are required to file IRS Form 5471.

A U.S. person (including a Tax-Exempt U.S. Holder) that purchases the Preference Shares for cash will be required to file a Form 926 or similar form with the IRS if (i) such person owned, directly or by attribution, immediately after the transfer at least 10% by vote or value of the Issuer or (ii) if the transfer, when aggregated with all transfers made by such person (or any related person) within the preceding 12 month period, exceeds $100,000. In the event a U.S. Holder fails to file any such required form, the U.S. Holder could be required to pay a penalty equal to 10% of the gross amount paid for such Preference Shares (subject to a maximum penalty of $100,000, except in cases involving intentional disregard). U.S. persons should consult their tax advisors with respect to this or any other reporting requirement which may apply with respect to their acquisition of the Preference Shares.

Tax Return Disclosure and Investor List Requirements

Any person that files a U.S. federal income tax return or U.S. federal information return and participates in a "reportable transaction" in a taxable year is required to disclose certain information on IRS Form 8886 (or its successor form) attached to such person's U.S. tax return for such taxable year (and also file a copy of such form with the IRS's Office of Tax Shelter Analysis) and to retain certain documents related to the transaction. In addition, under certain circumstances, certain organizers and sellers and advisors of a "reportable transaction" are required to file reports with the IRS and also will be required to maintain lists of participants in the transaction containing identifying information, retain certain documents related to the transaction, and furnish those lists and documents to the IRS upon request. Recently enacted legislation imposes significant penalties for failure to comply with these disclosure and list keeping requirements. The definition of "reportable transaction" is highly technical. However, in very general terms, a transaction may be a "reportable transaction" if, among other things, it is offered under conditions of confidentiality, it results in the claiming of a loss or losses for U.S. federal income tax purposes in excess of certain threshold amounts, or an item from the transaction is treated differently for U.S. federal income tax purposes and for book purposes (generally under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles).

In this regard, in order to prevent the investors' purchase of the Securities in this offering from being treated as offered under conditions of confidentiality, the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer and the Holders and beneficial owners of the Securities (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions described herein (including the ownership and disposition of the Securities) and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction, and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction.

In addition, under these Treasury Regulations, if the Issuer participates in a "reportable transaction", a U.S. Holder of Preference Shares that is a "reporting shareholder" of the Issuer will be treated as participating in the transaction and will be subject to the rules described above. Although most of the Issuer's activities generally are not expected to give rise to "reportable transactions", the Issuer nevertheless may participate in certain types of transactions that could be treated as "reportable transactions." A U.S. Holder of Preference Shares will be treated as a "reporting shareholder" of the Issuer if (i) such U.S. Holder owns 10% or more of the Preference Shares and makes a QEF election with respect to the Issuer or (ii) the Issuer is treated as a CFC and such U.S. Holder is a "U.S. Shareholder" (as defined above) of the Issuer. The Issuer will make reasonable efforts to make such information available.

Prospective investors in the Securities should consult their own tax advisors concerning any possible disclosure obligations under these Treasury Regulations with respect to their ownership or disposition of the Securities in light of their particular circumstances.

Tax Treatment of Non-U.S. Holders of Securities

In general, payments on the Securities to a Holder that is not, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. Holder (a "non-U.S. Holder") and gain realized on the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other disposition of the Securities by a non-U.S. Holder, will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax, unless (i) such income is effectively connected with a trade or business conducted by such non-U.S. Holder in the United States, or (ii) in the case of gain, such non-U.S. Holder is a nonresident alien individual who holds the Securities as a capital asset and is present in the United States for more than 182 days in the taxable year of the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other disposition and certain other conditions are satisfied.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Under certain circumstances, the Code requires "information reporting," and may require "backup withholding" with respect to certain payments made on the Securities and the payment of the proceeds from the disposition of the Securities. Backup withholding generally will not apply to corporations, tax-exempt organizations, qualified pension and profit sharing trusts, and individual retirement accounts. Backup withholding will apply to a U.S. Holder if the U.S. Holder fails to provide certain identifying information (such as the U.S. Holder's taxpayer identification number) or otherwise comply with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. The application for exemption from backup withholding for a U.S. Holder is available by providing a properly completed IRS Form W-9.

A non-U.S. Holder of the Securities generally will not be subject to these information reporting requirements or backup withholding with respect to payments of interest or distributions on the Securities if (1) it certifies to the Trustee its status as a non-U.S. Holder under penalties of perjury on the appropriate IRS Form W-8, and (2) in the case of a non-U.S. Holder that is a "nonwithholding foreign partnership," "foreign simple trust" or "foreign grantor trust" as defined in the applicable Treasury Regulations, the beneficial owners of such non-U.S. Holder also certify to the Trustee their status as non-U.S. persons under penalties of perjury on the appropriate IRS Form W-8 or as U.S. persons under penalties of perjury on IRS Form W-9.

The payments of the proceeds from the disposition of a Security by a non-U.S. Holder to or through the U.S. office of a broker generally will not be subject to information reporting and backup withholding if the non-U.S. Holder certifies its status as a non-U.S. Holder (and, if applicable, its beneficial owners also certify their status as non-U.S. Holders) under penalties of perjury on the appropriate IRS Form W-8, satisfies certain documentary evidence requirements for establishing that it is a non-U.S. Holder or otherwise establishes an exemption. The payment of the proceeds from the disposition of a Security by a non-U.S. Holder to or through a non-U.S. office of a non-U.S. broker will not be subject to backup withholding or information reporting unless the non-U.S. broker has certain specific types of relationships to the United States, in which case the treatment of such payment for such purposes will be as described in the following sentence. The payment of proceeds from the disposition of a Security by a non-U.S. Holder to or through a non-U.S. office of a U.S. broker or to or through a non-U.S. broker with certain specific types of relationships to the United States generally will not be subject to backup withholding but will be subject to information reporting unless the non-U.S. Holder certifies its status as a non-U.S. Holder (and, if applicable, its beneficial owners also certify their status as non-U.S. Holders) under penalties of perjury or the broker has certain documentary evidence in its files as to the non-U.S. Holder's foreign status and the broker has no actual knowledge to the contrary.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax and may be refunded (or credited against the U.S. Holder's or non-U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any); provided that certain required information is furnished to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. The information reporting requirements may apply regardless of whether withholding is required.

Cayman Islands Tax Considerations

The following discussion of certain Cayman Islands income tax consequences of an investment in the Securities is based on the advice of Maples and Calder as to Cayman Islands law. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It assumes that the Issuer will conduct its affairs in accordance with assumptions made by, and representations made to, counsel. It is not intended as tax advice, does not consider any investor's particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

Under existing Cayman Islands laws:

(i) payments of principal and interest on the Notes and dividends and capital in respect of the Preference Shares will not be subject to taxation in the Cayman Islands and no withholding will be required on such payments to any Holder of a Security and gains derived from the sale of Securities will not be subject to Cayman Islands income or corporation tax. The Cayman Islands currently have no income, corporation or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax;

(ii) no stamp duty is payable in respect of the issue or transfer of Securities although duty may be payable if Notes are executed in or brought into the Cayman Islands; and

(iii) certificates evidencing Securities, in registered form, to which title is not transferable by delivery, should not attract Cayman Islands stamp duty. However, an instrument transferring title to a Note, if brought to or executed in the Cayman Islands, would be subject to Cayman Islands stamp duty.

The Issuer has been incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands as an exempted company and, as such, has applied for and obtained an undertaking from the Governor in Cabinet of the Cayman Islands in substantially the following form:

"THE TAX CONCESSIONS LAW
(1999 REVISION)
UNDERTAKING AS TO TAX CONCESSIONS

Southfork CLO Ltd. "the Company"

- (a) that no Law which is hereafter enacted in the Islands imposing any tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations shall apply to the Company or its operations; and
- (b) in addition, that no tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations or which is in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax shall be payable
  - (i) on or in respect of the shares debentures or other obligations of the Company; or
  - (ii) by way of the withholding in whole or in part of any relevant payment as defined in Section 6(3) of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision).

These concessions shall be for a period of TWENTY years from the 16th day of November, 2004.

GOVERNOR IN CABINET"

The Cayman Islands does not have an income tax treaty arrangement with the U.S. or any other country.

THE PRECEDING DISCUSSION IS ONLY A SUMMARY OF CERTAIN OF THE TAX IMPLICATIONS OF AN INVESTMENT IN THE SECURITIES. PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS ARE URGED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS PRIOR TO INVESTING TO DETERMINE THE TAX IMPLICATIONS OF SUCH INVESTMENT IN LIGHT OF SUCH INVESTORS' CIRCUMSTANCES.

ERISA CONSIDERATIONS

The U.S. Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), imposes fiduciary standards and certain other requirements on employee benefit plans and other retirement arrangements subject thereto, including collective investment funds, insurance company general and separate accounts whose underlying assets are treated as if they were assets of such plans pursuant to the U.S. Department of Labor's "plan assets" regulation, set forth at 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101 (the "Plan Assets Regulation"), and on those persons who are fiduciaries with respect to such plans or arrangements. ERISA's general fiduciary requirements include the requirements of investment prudence and diversification and that investments be made in accordance with the governing plan documents. The prudence of a particular investment will be determined by the responsible fiduciary by taking into account the particular circumstances of the plan and all of the facts and circumstances of the investment including, but not limited to, the matters discussed above under "Risk Factors" and the fact that in the future there may be no market in which such fiduciary will be able to sell or otherwise dispose of an investment.

In addition, Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code prohibit certain transactions involving the assets of plans and arrangements subject to ERISA (as well as those that are not subject to ERISA but which are subject to Section 4975 of the Code (together "Plans")) and certain persons (referred to as "parties in interest" or "disqualified persons" (collectively, "Parties in Interest")) having certain relationships to such Plans, unless a statutory or administrative exemption applies to the transaction. In particular, a sale or exchange of property or an extension of credit between a Plan and a Party in Interest may constitute a prohibited transaction. In the case of indebtedness, the prohibited transaction provisions apply throughout the term of such indebtedness (and not only on the date of the initial borrowing). A Party in Interest who engages in a prohibited transaction may be subject to excise taxes or other liabilities under ERISA and the Code.

Governmental, church and non-U.S. plans, while not subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA or the provisions of Section 4975 of the Code, may nevertheless be subject to U.S. federal, state or local laws or non-U.S. laws that are substantially similar to the foregoing provisions of ERISA and the Code. Fiduciaries of any such plans should consult with their counsel before purchasing any Notes.

Under a "look-through rule" set forth in the Plan Assets Regulation, if a Plan invests in an "equity interest" of an entity such as the Issuer and no other exception applies, the Plan's assets include both the equity interest and an undivided interest in each of the entity's underlying assets. An equity interest does not include debt (as determined by applicable local law) which does not have any substantial equity features. Under the Plan Assets Regulation, if a Plan invests in an "equity interest" of an entity that is neither a "publicly-offered security" nor a security issued by an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act, the Plan's assets include both the equity interest and an undivided interest in each of the entity's underlying assets, unless it is established that the entity is an "operating company" or that equity participation in the entity by Benefit Plan Investors is not "significant." Equity participation in an entity by Benefit Plan Investors is "significant" if 25% or more of the value of any class of equity interest in the entity is held by Benefit Plan Investors, as calculated under the Plan Assets Regulation. The term "Benefit Plan Investor" includes (a) an employee benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA whether or not subject to ERISA), (b) a plan (as defined in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code whether or not subject to Section 4975) or (c) any entity whose underlying assets include "plan assets" by reason of any such plan's investment in the entity and thus would include most governmental, church and non-U.S. plans.

The Preference Shares and the Composite Securities would likely be considered to have substantial equity features under the Plan Assets Regulation, and the Issuer does not intend to limit the value of the interests held by Benefit Plan Investors in each class of Notes to below 25%. However, as (i) no employee benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA which is subject to ERISA), (ii) no plan (as defined in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code which is subject to Section 4975 of the Code) and (iii) no entity whose underlying assets include "plan assets" by reason of such plan's investment in the entity (collectively, "ERISA Plans") shall be permitted to acquire either Preference Shares or Composite Securities in the initial offering or thereafter, the fiduciary responsibility and prohibited transaction provisions of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code will not be applicable to the Issuer or to any other Benefit Plan Investors who invest in the Preference Shares or the Composite Securities. Therefore, provided no ERISA Plans acquire either Preference Shares or Composite Securities, even if other types of Benefit Plan Investors hold 25% or more of the value of one or more classes of Preference Shares or Composite Securities, the assets of the Issuer should not be deemed "plan assets" under the Plan Asset Regulations for purposes of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code.

In determining whether or not a Benefit Plan Investor is an ERISA Plan, life insurance company general accounts (both U.S. and non-U.S.) should consider the effect of the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in John Hancock Life Insurance Co. v. Harris Trust and Savings Bank, 510 U.S. 86 (1993), which held that those funds allocated to the general account of an insurance company pursuant to contracts which vary with the investment experience of the insurance company's general account and are attributable to ERISA Plans are considered to be "plan assets." Despite the presence of such contracts attributable to ERISA Plans invested in the general account, if the insurance company complies with certain regulations issued by the U.S. Department of Labor under Section 401(c) of ERISA, it will not be deemed to hold the plan assets of any ERISA Plans. However, any separate account funds held on behalf of an ERISA Plan by a life insurance company (whether held in or outside of the U.S.) would generally be considered to be "plan assets." Any Benefit Plan Investor, including a life insurance company general account, should consult with its counsel in determining whether or not it is an ERISA Plan prior to investing in the Preference Shares or the Composite Securities.

BY ITS PURCHASE OR HOLDING OF A PREFERENCE SHARE OR COMPOSITE SECURITY, OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN, THE PURCHASER AND/OR HOLDER THEREOF AND EACH TRANSFEREE WILL BE REQUIRED OR WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE REPRESENTED AND WARRANTED THAT, AT THE TIME OF ITS ACQUISITION, AND THROUGHOUT THE PERIOD THAT IT HOLDS SUCH PREFERENCE SHARE, COMPOSITE SECURITY OR INTEREST THEREIN, THAT (1) IT IS NOT AN ERISA PLAN; AND IF AFTER ITS INITIAL ACQUISITION OF A PREFERENCE SHARE, A COMPOSITE SECURITY OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN, THE INVESTOR DETERMINES, IT IS DETERMINED BY ANOTHER PARTY, OR THE PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENT BECOMES AWARE, THAT SUCH INVESTOR IS AN ERISA PLAN, THE INVESTOR WILL DISPOSE OF ALL OF ITS PREFERENCE SHARES AND COMPOSITE SECURITIES IN A MANNER CONSISTENT WITH THE RESTRICTIONS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS OR INDENTURE, AS APPLICABLE, AND (2) IF IT IS A BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR OTHER THAN AN ERISA PLAN, ITS PURCHASE, HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES OR COMPOSITE SECURITIES WILL NOT CAUSE A NON-EXEMPT VIOLATION OF ANY U.S. FEDERAL, STATE OR LOCAL LAW OR ANY NON-U.S. LAW WHICH IS SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR TO SECTION 406 OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE AS A RESULT OF THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREIN AND (3) IT WILL NOT SELL OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER ANY SUCH PREFERENCE SHARE, COMPOSITE SECURITY OR INTEREST THEREIN, TO ANY PERSON WHO IS UNABLE TO SATISFY THE SAME FOREGOING REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES.

Based on the credit quality and the absence of rights to payment in excess of principal and stated interest, the Issuer believes that the Notes should not be considered "equity interests" for purposes of the Plan Assets Regulation. Nevertheless, prohibited transactions within the meaning of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code may arise if the Notes are acquired by a Plan with respect to which the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager, or any of their respective affiliates, is a Party in Interest. Similarly, "prohibited transactions" within the meaning of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code may arise if a person or entity which is a Party in Interest with respect to a Plan acquires or holds 50% or more of the aggregate equity interest in the Issuer. Certain exemptions from the prohibited transaction provisions of Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code may apply depending in part on the type of Plan fiduciary making the decision to acquire a Note and the circumstances under which such decision is made. Included among these exemptions are Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption ("PTCE") 84-14 (relating to transactions effected by a "qualified professional asset manager"), PTCE 90-1 (relating to investments by insurance company pooled separate accounts), PTCE 91-38 (relating to investments by bank collective investment funds), PTCE 95-60 (relating to investments by insurance company general accounts) and PTCE 96-23 (relating to transactions determined by an in-house asset manager). There can be no assurance that any of these class exemptions or any other exemption will be available with respect to any particular transaction involving the Notes. The purchase and holding of the Notes could also result in a violation of U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. law which is substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code.

BY ITS PURCHASE OR HOLDING OF ANY NOTES, OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN, THE PURCHASER AND/OR HOLDER THEREOF AND EACH TRANSFEREE WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE REPRESENTED AND WARRANTED EITHER THAT (A) IT IS NOT AN EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN (AS DEFINED IN SECTION 3(3) OF ERISA AND SUBJECT TO ERISA), OR A PLAN (AS DEFINED IN SECTION 4975(e)(1) OF THE CODE AND SUBJECT TO SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE), OR A GOVERNMENTAL, CHURCH, NON-U.S. OR OTHER PLAN WHICH IS SUBJECT TO ANY U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL OR NON-U.S. LAW THAT IS SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR TO THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 406 OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE, OR AN ENTITY WHOSE ASSETS ARE TREATED AS ASSETS OF

ANY SUCH PLAN OR (B) ITS PURCHASE, HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF A NOTE, OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN, WILL NOT CONSTITUTE OR RESULT IN A NON-EXEMPT PROHIBITED TRANSACTION UNDER SECTION 406 OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE AND WILL NOT CAUSE A NON-EXEMPT VIOLATION OF ANY U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL OR NON-U.S. LAW WHICH IS SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR TO SECTION 406 OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE.

Other Fiduciary Considerations

Despite the prohibition upon, and the procedures employed to prevent, the acquisition of Preference Shares or Composite Securities by ERISA Plans, there can be no assurances that an ERISA Plan will not in fact acquire Preference Shares in violation of such restriction. In such an event, if the total value of the Preference Shares or Composite Securities in one or more classes held by Benefit Plan Investors (both ERISA Plans and non-ERISA plans) were to equal or exceed 25%, the assets of the Issuer could be deemed "plan assets."

If for any reason the assets of the Issuer are deemed to be "plan assets" of an ERISA Plan, certain transactions the Portfolio Manager might enter into, or may have entered into, on behalf of the Issuer in the ordinary course of its business might constitute non-exempt "prohibited transactions" under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code and might have to be rescinded at significant cost to the Issuer. The Portfolio Manager may be deemed an ERISA fiduciary, and may therefore be prevented from engaging in certain investments (as not being deemed consistent with the ERISA prudent investment standards) or engaging in certain transactions or fee arrangements because they might be deemed to cause non-exempt prohibited transactions. It also is not clear that Section 403(a) of ERISA, which generally requires that all of the assets of an ERISA Plan be held in trust and limits delegation of investment management responsibilities by fiduciaries of ERISA Plans, would be satisfied. In addition, it is unclear whether Section 404(b) of ERISA, which generally provides that no fiduciary may maintain the indicia of ownership of any assets of a plan outside the jurisdiction of the district courts of the U.S., would be satisfied or any of the exceptions to the requirement set forth in 29 C.F.R. Section 2550.404b-1 would be available.

Any fiduciary that proposes to cause a Benefit Plan Investor to purchase any Securities should consult with its counsel to confirm that such investment will not constitute or result in a prohibited transaction or any other violation of an applicable requirement of ERISA or the Code or any substantially similar law.

The sale of any Securities to a Benefit Plan Investor is in no respect a representation by the Co-Issuers, the Initial Purchaser, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager that such an investment meets all relevant legal requirements with respect to investments by Benefit Plan Investors generally or any particular Benefit Plan Investor, or that such an investment is appropriate for Benefit Plan Investors generally or any particular Benefit Plan Investor.

Investors whose investment activities are subject to regulation by federal, state or local law or governmental authorities should review the applicable laws and/or rules, policies and guidelines adopted from time to time by such authorities before purchasing any Securities. No representation is made as to the proper characterization of the Securities for legal investment or other purposes or as to the ability of particular investors to purchase any Securities under applicable law or other legal investment restrictions. Accordingly, all investors whose investment activities are subject to such laws and/or regulations, regulatory capital requirements or review by regulatory authorities should consult their own legal advisors in determining whether and to what extent the Securities constitute a legal investment or are subject to investment, capital or other restrictions.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Subject to the terms and conditions contained in a purchase agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") to be entered into among the Co-Issuers and JPMorgan, the Co-Issuers will agree to sell, and JPMorgan will agree to purchase, the Purchased Securities. The Issuer will agree to sell, and the Portfolio Manager and/or its Affiliates will agree to purchase, the Preference Shares not forming a part of the Purchased Securities in a privately negotiated transaction. JPMorgan is not acting as a placement agent or initial purchaser with respect to those Preference Shares sold directly by the Issuer to the Portfolio Manager and/or its Affiliates.

The Purchased Securities will be offered by the Initial Purchaser from time to time for sale to investors in negotiated transactions at varying prices to be determined in each case at the time of sale.

The Purchase Agreement provides that the obligations of the Initial Purchaser to pay for and accept delivery of the Purchased Securities thereunder are subject to certain conditions.

In the Purchase Agreement, each of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer will agree to indemnify the Initial Purchaser against certain liabilities under the Securities Act or to contribute to payments the Initial Purchaser may be required to make in respect thereof. In addition, the Issuer will agree to reimburse the Initial Purchaser for certain of its expenses incurred in connection with the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby.

The offering of the Securities has not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in non-Offshore Transactions except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

No action has been taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Securities or possession or distribution of this Offering Circular or any amendment thereof, or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Securities in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any other circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. No offers, sales or deliveries of any Securities, or distribution of this Offering Circular or any other offering material relating to the Securities, may be made in or from any jurisdiction except in circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations and will not impose any obligations on the Issuer or the Initial Purchaser. Because of the restrictions contained in the front of this Offering Circular, purchasers are advised to consult legal counsel prior to making any offer, resale, pledge or transfer of the Securities.

In the Purchase Agreement, the Initial Purchaser will agree that it or one or more of its Affiliates will sell the Notes, the Composite Securities and the Preference Shares only to or with, (a) purchasers it reasonably believes to be (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers, or with respect to the Composite Securities and the Preference Shares only, Accredited Investors and (ii)(1) Qualified Purchasers or, with respect to the Preference Shares only, Knowledgeable Employees or (2) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers or, with respect to the Preference Shares only, Knowledgeable Employees and (b) non-U.S. Persons in Offshore Transactions pursuant to Regulation S. In the Purchase Agreement, the Initial Purchaser will agree that it will send to each other dealer to which it sells Securities pursuant to Regulation S during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of Securities in non-Offshore Transactions or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons. Until 40 days (in the case of the Notes) or one year (in the case of the Composite Securities and the Preference Shares) after completion of the distribution by the Issuer, an offer or sale of Securities, in a non-Offshore Transaction by a dealer (whether or not participating in the Offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if the offer or sale is made otherwise than pursuant to Rule 144A or, in the case of the Composite Securities and the Preference Shares, a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act. Resales of the Securities offered in reliance on Rule 144A or in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act, as the case may be, are restricted as described under the "Transfer Restrictions." Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note, Regulation S Global Composite Security or a Regulation S Global Preference Share may not be held by a U.S. Person at any time, and resales of the Securities offered in non-Offshore Transactions to non-U.S. Persons in reliance on Regulation S may be effected only in accordance with the transfer restrictions described herein. As used in this paragraph, the terms "United States" and "U.S." have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.

The Securities are a new issue of securities for which there is currently no market. The Initial Purchaser is not under any obligation to make a market in any class of Securities and any market making activity, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time. There can be no assurance that a secondary market for any class of Securities will develop, or if one does develop, that it will continue. Accordingly, no assurance can be given as to the liquidity of or trading market for the Securities.

In connection with the offering of the Securities, the Initial Purchaser may, as permitted by applicable law, overallocate or effect transactions that stabilize or maintain the market price of the Securities at a level which might not otherwise prevail in the open market. The stabilizing, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

SETTLEMENT AND CLEARING

Book Entry Registration of the Global Securities

So long as the Depository, or its nominee, is the registered owner or Holder of a Global Security, the Depository or the nominee, as the case may be, will be considered the sole owner or Holder of the Note or Preference Share represented by a Global Security for all purposes under the Indenture, the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement and the Global Securities, and members of, or participants in, the Depository as well as any other persons on whose behalf the participants may act (including Clearstream and Euroclear and account holders and participants therein) will have no rights under the Indenture, the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement or a Global Security. Owners of beneficial interests in a Global Security will not be considered to be owners or Holders of the related Note or Preference Share under the Indenture or the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement. Unless the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers (or, with respect to the Composite Securities or the Preference Shares, the Issuer) that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for a Global Security or ceases to be a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act, owners of a beneficial interest in a Global Security will not be entitled to have any portion of a Global Security registered in their names, will not receive or be entitled to receive physical delivery of Notes, Composite Securities or Preference Shares in certificated form and will not be considered to be the owners or Holders of any Notes, Composite Securities or Preference Shares under the Indenture or the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement. In addition, no beneficial owner of an interest in a Global Security will be able to transfer that interest except in accordance with the Depository's applicable procedures (in addition to those under the Indenture, the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement and, if applicable, those of Euroclear and Clearstream).

Investors may hold their interests in a Regulation S Global Note, Regulation S Global Composite Security or Regulation S Global Preference Share directly through Clearstream or Euroclear, if they are participants in Clearstream or Euroclear, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in Clearstream or Euroclear. Clearstream and Euroclear will hold interests in the Regulation S Global Notes, Regulation S Global Composite Securities and Regulation S Global Preference Shares on behalf of their participants through their respective depositories, which in turn will hold the interests in Regulation S Global Notes, Regulation S Global Composite Securities and Regulation S Global Notes in customers' securities accounts in the depositories' names on the books of the Depository. Investors may hold their interests in a Rule 144A Global Note directly through the Depository if they are participants in the Depository, or in directly through organizations that are participants in the Depository.

Payments of principal of, or interest or other distributions on a Global Security will be made to the Depository or its nominee, as the registered owner thereof. The Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the paying agents, the Initial Purchaser, the Portfolio Manager and their respective affiliates will not have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in a Global Security or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to the beneficial ownership interests.

The Co-Issuers expect that the Depository or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal, interest, or other distributions in respect of a Global Security representing any Notes or Preference Shares, as the case may be, held by it or its nominee, will immediately credit participants' accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the stated aggregate principal amount or number of a Global Security for the Notes, Composite Securities or Preference Shares, as the case may be, as shown on the records of the Depository or its nominee. The Co-Issuers also expect that payments by participants to owners of beneficial interests in a Global Security held through the participants will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for those customers. The payments will be the responsibility of the participants.

Global Security Settlement Procedures

Transfers between the participants in the Depository will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with the Depository rules and will be settled in immediately available funds. The laws of some states require that certain persons take physical delivery of securities in definitive form. Consequently, the ability to transfer beneficial interests in a Global Security to these persons may be limited. Because the Depository can only act on behalf of participants, who in turn act on behalf of indirect participants and certain banks, the ability of a person holding a beneficial interest in a Global Security to pledge its interest to persons or entities that do not participate in the Depository system, or otherwise take actions in respect of its interest, may be affected by the lack of a physical certificate of the interest. Transfers between participants in Euroclear and Clearstream will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with their respective rules and operating procedures.

Subject to compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Securities described above and under "Transfer Restrictions," cross-market transfers between the Depository, on the one hand, and directly or indirectly through Euroclear or Clearstream participants, on the other, will be effected in the Depository in accordance with the Depository rules on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, by its respective depository; however, the cross-market transactions will require delivery of instructions to Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, by the counterparty in the system in accordance with its rules and procedures and within its established deadlines (Brussels time). Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, will if the transaction meets its settlement requirements, deliver instructions to its respective depository to take action to effect final settlement on its behalf by delivering or receiving interests in a Note, Composite Security or Preference Share, as the case may be, represented by a Regulation S Global Note, Regulation S Global Composite Security or Regulation S Global Preference Share in the Depository and making or receiving payment in accordance with normal procedures for same-day funds settlement applicable to the Depository. Clearstream participants and Euroclear participants may not deliver instructions directly to the depositories of Clearstream or Euroclear.

Because of time zone differences, cash received in Euroclear or Clearstream as a result of sales of interests in a Regulation S Global Note, Regulation S Global Composite Security or Regulation S Global Preference Share by or through a Euroclear or Clearstream participant to the Depository participant will be received with value on the Depository settlement date but will be available in the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream cash account only as of the business day following settlement in the Depository.

The Depository has advised the Issuer that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a Holder of Securities (including the presentation of Securities for exchange as described above) only at the direction of one or more participants in the Depository to whose account with the Depository interests in the Securities are credited and only in respect of the portion of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities as to which the participant or participants has or have given the direction. However, upon the occurrence of certain events, the Depository will exchange the Securities for Certificated Composite Securities, legended as appropriate, which it will distribute to its participants as set out in the Indenture.

The Depository has advised the Issuer as follows: The Depository is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the UCC and a "Clearing Agency" registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act. The Depository was created to hold securities for its participants and facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of its participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Participants in the Depository include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, and clearing corporations and may include certain other organizations. Indirect access to the Depository system is available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers, and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a participant, either directly or indirectly.

Although the Depository, Clearstream and Euroclear have agreed to the foregoing procedures to facilitate transfers of interests in Regulation S Global Notes, Regulation S Global Composite Securities and Regulation S Global Preference Shares among participants of the Depository, Clearstream and Euroclear, they are under no obligation to perform or continue to perform the procedures, and the procedures may be discontinued at any time. Neither the Co-Issuers nor the Trustee will have any responsibility for the performance by the Depository, Clearstream, or Euroclear or their respective participants or indirect participants of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS

Because of the following restrictions, purchasers are advised to consult legal counsel prior to making any offer, resale, pledge or transfer of the Securities. Purchasers of Securities represented by an interest in a Regulation S Global Note, Regulation S Global Composite Security or a Regulation S Global Preference Share are advised that such interests are not transferable to U.S. Persons at any time except in accordance with the following restrictions.

Each prospective purchaser of Securities that is a U.S. Person or is purchasing the Securities in a non-Offshore Transaction (a "U.S. Offeree"), by accepting delivery of this Offering Circular, will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows:

Distribution of this Offering Circular to any person other than the U.S. Offeree and those persons, if any, retained to advise the U.S. Offeree with respect thereto, and other persons that are Accredited Investors, Qualified Institutional Buyers or non-U.S. Persons, is unauthorized and any disclosure of any of its contents, without the prior written consent of the Co-Issuers, is prohibited except as authorized under "Income Tax Considerations—Tax Return Disclosure and Investor List Requirements."

(2) The U.S. Offeree agrees to make no photocopies of this Offering Circular or any documents referred to herein and, if the U.S. Offeree does not purchase the Securities or the Offering is terminated, to return this Offering Circular and all documents referred to herein to J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., 270 Park Avenue, 8th Floor, New York, New York 10017, Attention: Structured Credit Products.

Under the Indenture (with respect to the Co-Issuers) and the Preference Share Documents (with respect to the Issuer), the Co-Issuers or the Issuer will agree to comply with the requirements of Rule 144A relative to the dissemination of information to prospective purchasers in the secondary market. See "Available Information."

The Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in non-Offshore Transactions or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons, except to (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A or (ii) solely in the case of the Composite Securities and the Preference Shares, to Accredited Investors in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, who are in each case, also (x) Qualified Purchasers, (y) in the case of the Preference Shares only, Knowledgeable Employees or (z) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or, in the case of the Preference Shares only, Knowledgeable Employees.

Any purported transfer of a Security not in accordance with this section shall be null and void and shall not be given effect for any purpose hereunder.

Each purchaser of a beneficial interest in Notes represented by a Rule 144A Global Note will be deemed to have acknowledged, represented and agreed as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Rule 144A or Regulation S are used herein as defined therein):

(1) (A) The purchaser is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser, (B) the purchaser is purchasing the Notes for its own account or the account of another Qualified Purchaser that is also a Qualified Institutional Buyer as to which the purchaser exercises sole investment discretion, (C) the purchaser and any such account is acquiring the Notes as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (D) the purchaser and any such account was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Notes (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (E) to the extent the purchaser (or any account for which it is purchasing the Notes) is a private investment company formed on or before April 30, 1996, the purchaser and each such account has received the necessary consent from its beneficial owners, (F) the purchaser is not a broker-dealer that owns and invests on a discretionary basis less than $25,000,000 in securities of unaffiliated issuers, (G) the purchaser is not a pension, profit-sharing or other retirement trust fund or plan in which the partners, beneficiaries or participants or affiliates may designate the particular investment to be made, (H) the purchaser agrees that it and each such account shall not hold such Notes for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Notes or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the distributions on the Notes (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (I) the Notes purchased directly or indirectly by the purchaser or any account for which it is purchasing the Notes constitute an investment of no more than 40% of the purchaser's and each such account's assets (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (J) the purchaser and each such account is purchasing the Notes in a principal amount of not less than the minimum denomination requirement for the purchaser and each such account, (K) the purchaser will provide notice of the transfer restrictions set forth in the Indenture (including the exhibits thereto) to any transferee of its Notes, and (L) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Notes to

(4) The purchaser is not purchasing the Notes or any beneficial interest therein with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that an investment in the Notes involves certain risks, including the risk of loss of its entire investment in the Notes under certain circumstances. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Co-Issuers and the Notes as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Notes or any beneficial interest therein, including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Co-Issuers and the Initial Purchaser.

(5) In connection with the purchase of Notes or any beneficial interest therein (provided that no such representation is made with respect to the Portfolio Manager by any Affiliate of or account managed by the Portfolio Manager): (i) none of the Co-Issuers, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Trustee, the Preference Share Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment advisor for the purchaser, (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Co-Issuers, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Trustee, the Preference Share Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager other than in a current offering circular for such Notes and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Co-Issuers, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Trustee, the Preference Share Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other person) any assurance, guarantee, or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence, or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting, or otherwise) of an investment in the Notes; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the Indenture) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Co-Issuers, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Trustee, the Preference Share Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Notes or any beneficial interest therein reflect those in relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) the purchaser is purchasing the Notes or any beneficial interest therein with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and

(7) The purchaser will provide notice to each person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Notes of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Indenture, including the exhibits referenced therein.

(12) The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Co-Issuers that would permit a public offering of the Notes or possession or distribution of the offering circular with respect thereto or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Notes in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. (13) The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Notes or any beneficial interest therein by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.

(16) The purchaser understands that the Co-Issuers may receive a list of participants holding positions in its securities from one or more book-entry depositories.

(17) The purchaser acknowledges that the Co-Issuers, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Notes or any beneficial interest therein are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Co-Issuers, the Portfolio Manager and the Initial Purchaser. If the purchaser is acquiring any Notes or any beneficial interest therein as a fiduciary or agent for one or more institutional accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Regulation S Global Notes

Each purchaser of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note will be deemed to have made the representations set forth in paragraphs (4), (5) and (7) through (17) above in "—Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes" and to have further represented and agreed as follows:

The purchaser is aware that the Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or any other applicable state securities law and the sale of such Notes or any beneficial interest therein to it is being made in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Regulation S and understands that the Notes offered in reliance on Regulation S will bear the appropriate legend set forth in paragraph (6) above in "—Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Rule 144A Global Notes" and will be represented by one or more Regulation S Global Notes. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Co-Issuers or the Initial Purchaser as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any other jurisdiction for resale of the Notes. The purchaser and each beneficial owner of the Notes or any beneficial interest therein that it holds is not, and will not be, a U.S. Person as defined in Regulation S and its purchase of the Notes or any beneficial interest therein will comply with all applicable laws in any jurisdiction in which it resides or is located and will be in a principal amount of not less than U.S.$250,000. The purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Notes or any beneficial interest therein, and it, and any accounts for which it is acting are each able to bear the economic risk of its investment. Before any interest in a Regulation S Global Note may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note, the transferor and the transferee will be required to provide the Trustee with written certifications as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Composite Securities

Each purchaser of Certificated Composite Securities and each purchaser of Regulation S Global Composite Securities acquiring such Composite Securities from the Issuer in the initial offering will be required to acknowledge, represent and agree, and each subsequent purchaser of Regulation S Global Composite Securities will be deemed to have acknowledged, represented and agreed, in each case as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Rule 144A or Regulation S are used herein as defined therein):

(1) If the purchaser is:

(A) a U.S. Offeree, such purchaser is either (i) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is aware that the sale of the Composite Securities to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act and is acquiring the Composite Securities for its own account or for one or more accounts, each of which is a Qualified Institutional Buyer, and as to each of which the purchaser exercises sole investment discretion, and in an amount not less than the authorized denomination permitted by the Indenture, in each case for the purchaser and for each such account, or (ii) is an Accredited Investor and is aware that the sale of Composite Securities to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act and is acquiring the Composite Securities for its own account in an amount not less than the authorized denomination permitted by the Indenture, or

(B) a non-U.S. Person, such purchaser is purchasing the Composite Securities in an Offshore Transaction, is aware that the sale of Composite Securities to it is being made in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act provided by Regulation S and is acquiring the Composite Securities for its own account in an amount not less than the authorized denomination permitted by the Indenture.

In addition, the purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Composite Securities, and the purchaser, and any accounts for which it is acting, are each able to bear the economic risk of the purchaser's or its investment.

(2) The purchaser understands that the Composite Securities are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Composite Securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and, if in the future the purchaser decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Composite Securities, such Composite Securities may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with the legend in respect of such Composite Securities set forth in (5) below and the restrictions set forth in the Indenture. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Issuer or the Initial Purchaser as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any other jurisdiction for resale of the Composite Securities.

(3) In connection with the purchase of Composite Securities (provided that no such representation is made with respect to the Portfolio Manager by any Affiliate of or account managed by the Portfolio Manager): (i) none of the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, or the Portfolio Manager is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment advisor for the purchaser, (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager other than in a current offering circular for such Composite Securities and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other Person) any assurance, guarantee, or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence, or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting, or otherwise) of an investment in the Composite Securities; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the documentation for the Composite Securities) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Composite Securities reflect those in relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) the purchaser is purchasing the Composite Securities with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and it is capable of assuming and willing to assume (financially and otherwise) those risks; and (vii) the purchaser is a sophisticated investor.

(4) If the purchaser is acquiring the Composite Securities pursuant to paragraph (1)(A) above, (A) the purchaser and each account for which the purchaser is acquiring Composite Securities is (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers,

(B) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Composite Securities for any account, each such account) is acquiring the Composite Securities as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (C) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Composite Securities for any account, each such account) was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Composite Securities (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (D) to the extent the purchaser or any account for which the purchaser is acquiring Composite Securities is a private investment company formed before April 30, 1996, the purchaser or such account has received the necessary consent from its beneficial owners, (E) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Composite Securities for any account, each such account) agrees that it shall not hold such Composite Securities for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Composite Securities or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the dividends or other distributions on the Composite Securities (except when each such person is a Qualified Purchaser) and (F) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Composite Securities to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph shall be null and void ab initio.

(5) The purchaser understands that the Composite Securities (A) will be represented by either one or more Certificated Composite Securities or Regulation S Global Composite Securities which will bear the legend set forth below unless the Issuer determines otherwise in accordance with applicable law, and (B) (i) in the case of Composite Securities represented by an interest in Certificated Composite Securities, may not at any time be held by or on behalf of U.S. Persons that are not either Qualified Institutional Buyers or Accredited Investors and either (A) Qualified Purchasers or (B) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and (ii) in the case of Composite Securities represented by an interest in a Regulation S Global Composite Security, may not at any time be held by or on behalf of any person that is a U.S. Person. Before the Composite Securities represented by an interest in Certificated Composite Securities may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred, the transferor and the transferee will be required to provide the Trustee and the Issuer with written certifications as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

CONSENT FROM ITS BENEFICIAL OWNERS OR (Y) IS AN ENTITY OWNED EXCLUSIVELY BY QUALIFIED PURCHASERS, (B) IN EACH CASE, IN A PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF NOT LESS THAN U.S.$100,000 FOR THE PURCHASER AND FOR EACH SUCH ACCOUNT FOR WHICH IT IS ACTING, AND (C) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER APPLICABLE JURISDICTION. EACH TRANSFEROR OF THE COMPOSITE SECURITIES REPRESENTED HEREBY OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST THEREIN WILL PROVIDE NOTICE OF THE TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS AS SET FORTH HEREIN TO ITS PURCHASER. EACH PURCHASER OF THE COMPOSITE SECURITIES REPRESENTED HEREBY WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE (OR WILL BE DEEMED TO MAKE) THE APPLICABLE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE INDENTURE. ANY TRANSFER IN VIOLATION OF THE FOREGOING WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT, WILL BE VOID AB INITIO, AND WILL NOT OPERATE TO TRANSFER ANY RIGHTS TO THE PURCHASER, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRARY TO THE ISSUER, THE TRUSTEE OR ANY INTERMEDIARY. IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING, THE ISSUER MAINTAINS THE RIGHT TO RESELL ANY COMPOSITE SECURITIES PREVIOUSLY TRANSFERRED TO NON-PERMITTED U.S. HOLDERS (AS DEFINED IN THE INDENTURE) IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE INDENTURE.

BY ITS PURCHASE OR HOLDING OF THIS COMPOSITE SECURITY, OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN, EACH PURCHASER ACQUIRING SUCH COMPOSITE SECURITY FROM THE ISSUER IN THE INITIAL OFFERING AND EACH SUBSEQUENT PURCHASER THEREOF WILL BE REQUIRED TO REPRESENT AND WARRANT (OR, IN THE CASE OF A SUBSEQUENT PURCHASER OF A REGULATION S GLOBAL COMPOSITE SECURITY, WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE REPRESENTED AND WARRANTED), AT THE TIME OF ITS ACQUISITION, AND THROUGHOUT THE PERIOD THAT IT HOLDS SUCH COMPOSITE SECURITY OR INTEREST THEREIN, THAT (1) IT IS NOT AN EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN (AS DEFINED IN SECTION 3(3) OF THE UNITED STATES EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT INCOME SECURITY ACT OF 1974, AS AMENDED ("ERISA")), WHICH IS SUBJECT TO ERISA, (II) A PLAN (AS DEFINED IN SECTION 4975(e)(1) OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986, AS AMENDED (THE "CODE")), WHICH IS SUBJECT TO SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE, OR (III) AN ENTITY WHOSE UNDERLYING ASSETS INCLUDE "PLAN ASSETS" BY REASON OF SUCH PLAN'S INVESTMENT IN THE ENTITY (AN "ERISA PLAN"), AND IF AFTER ITS INITIAL ACQUISITION OF A COMPOSITE SECURITY OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN, THE PURCHASER DETERMINES, IT IS DETERMINED BY ANOTHER PARTY, OR THE TRUSTEE BECOMES AWARE, THAT SUCH PURCHASER IS AN ERISA PLAN, SUCH PURCHASER WILL DISPOSE OF ALL OF ITS COMPOSITE SECURITIES IN A MANNER CONSISTENT WITH THE PROVISIONS SET FORTH IN THE INDENTURE, AND (2) IF IT IS A BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR OTHER THAN AN ERISA PLAN, ITS PURCHASE, HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF THIS COMPOSITE SECURITY WILL NOT CAUSE A NON-EXEMPT VIOLATION OF ANY U.S. FEDERAL, STATE OR LOCAL LAW OR ANY NON-U.S. LAW WHICH IS SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR TO SECTION 406 OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE AS A RESULT OF THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREIN AND (3) IT WILL NOT SELL OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER ANY SUCH COMPOSITE SECURITY OR INTEREST THEREIN TO ANY PERSON WHO IS UNABLE TO SATISFY THE SAME FOREGOING REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES.

THE FAILURE TO PROVIDE THE ISSUER AND ANY PAYING AGENT, WHENEVER REQUESTED BY THE ISSUER OR THE PORTFOLIO MANAGER ON BEHALF OF THE ISSUER, WITH THE APPLICABLE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CERTIFICATIONS (GENERALLY, AN INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-9 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS A "UNITED STATES PERSON" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE OR AN APPROPRIATE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-8 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS NOT A "UNITED STATES PERSON" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE) SHALL RESULT IN THE IMPOSITION OF U.S. FEDERAL BACK-UP WITHHOLDING FROM PAYMENTS TO THE HOLDER IN RESPECT OF THE COMPOSITE SECURITIES REPRESENTED HEREBY.

Each Regulation S Global Composite Security will bear the additional legend set forth below.

UNLESS THIS COMPOSITE SECURITY IS PRESENTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF THE DEPOSITORY TRUST COMPANY ("DTC") TO THE INDENTURE REGISTRAR FOR REGISTRATION OF TRANSFER OR PAYMENT, AND ANY CERTIFICATE ISSUED IS REGISTERED IN THE NAME OF CEDE & CO. OR IN SUCH OTHER NAME AS IS REQUESTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF DTC (AND ANY PAYMENT MADE TO CEDE & CO. OR TO SUCH OTHER ENTITY AS IS REQUESTED BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF DTC), ANY TRANSFER, PLEDGE OR OTHER USE HEREOF FOR VALUE OR OTHERWISE BY OR TO ANY PERSON IS WRONGFUL INASMUCH AS THE REGISTERED OWNER HEREOF, CEDE & CO., HAS AN INTEREST HEREIN.

(6) The purchaser will provide notice to each Person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Composite Securities of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Indenture, including the exhibits referenced in the Indenture.

(7) The purchaser understands that the Indenture permits the Issuer to compel any holder of the Composite Securities who is a U.S. Person and who is determined not to have been both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or Accredited Investor and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, at the time of acquisition of the Composite Securities to sell such Composite Securities, or to sell such Composite Securities on behalf of such purchaser, to a person that is both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or Accredited Investor and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act or to a person that is a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction meeting the requirements of Regulation S.

(8) The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Composite Securities or possession or distribution of the offering circular with respect thereto or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Composite Securities in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the offering circular relating to the Composite Securities shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Composite Securities in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.

(9) The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Composite Securities, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase the beneficial interest in the Composite Securities from any Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its beneficial interest in this Composite Security to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.

(10) The purchaser understands that the Stated Maturity of the Composite Securities is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of Securities at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.

(11) The purchaser understands that in the case of any vote to remove the Portfolio Manager, the Management Agreement permits the Portfolio Manager to purchase the beneficial interest in the Composite Securities relating to those Preference Share Components which form a part of the Directing Preference Shares from any Holder of Composite Securities that voted to remove the Portfolio Manager at the applicable Buy-Out Amount; and such Holder of Composite Securities will be required to sell its beneficial interest in this Composite Security to the Portfolio Manager at such price.

(12) The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Composite Securities by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.

(13) The purchaser agrees to treat the Composite Securities as equity of the Issuer for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, if applicable.

(14) On each day the purchaser holds the Composite Securities or any beneficial interest therein, (i) the purchaser, and any account on behalf of which the purchaser is purchasing the Composite Securities, is not and will not be an ERISA Plan, and if, after its initial acquisition of a Composite Securities, the purchaser determines, it is determined by another person, or the Trustee becomes aware that it or any such account is an ERISA Plan, such purchaser will dispose of its interest in the Composite Securities in a manner consistent with the requirements of the Indenture and (ii) if the purchaser is a Benefit Plan Investor that is not an ERISA Plan, the purchaser's purchase, holding and disposition of a Composite Security or any beneficial interest therein will not result in a non-exempt violation of any U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. law which is substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. The purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of Composite Securities to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of clause (i) of this paragraph (14) shall not be recognized or effective and such purported purchaser or transferee shall acquire no rights thereby and that the Indenture permits the Issuer to require any purchaser of the Composite Securities or any beneficial interest therein who has made, or is deemed to have made, such ERISA-related representation that is subsequently shown to be false or misleading to sell such interest to a person able to make such ERISA-related representation. The purchaser and any fiduciary causing the purchaser to purchase the Composite Securities agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Initial Purchaser and the Trustee and their respective affiliates from any cost, damage, or loss incurred by them as a result of the purchaser being or being deemed to be an ERISA Plan.

(15) The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Composite Securities are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and the Initial Purchaser. If it is acquiring any Composite Securities as a fiduciary or agent for one or more institutional accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

(16) Each purchaser or subsequent transferee (other than a subsequent transferee of Regulation S Global Composite Securities) of Composite Securities will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Trustee written certification in a form acceptable to the Issuer and the Trustee as to whether it is an Affected Bank and each subsequent transferee of Regulation S Global Composite Securities will be deemed to represent to the Issuer and to the Trustee that it is not an Affected Bank. No transfer of any Composite Security to an Affected Bank will be effective, and the Trustee will not recognize any such transfer, unless such transfer is specifically authorized by the Issuer in writing; provided, however, that the Issuer shall authorize any such transfer if (x) such transfer would not cause more than 33 1/3% of the aggregate outstanding amount of the Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Components of the Class 1 Composite Securities) to be owned by Affected Banks or (y) the transferor is an Affected Bank previously approved by the Issuer.

(17) To the extent required by the Issuer, as determined by the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Trustee and the Indenture Registrar, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Composite Securities to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the U.S. Patriot Act) and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Composite Security to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.

(18) The purchaser agrees to not cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.

(19) The purchaser is not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.

Transfer Restrictions Applicable to Preference Shares

Each purchaser of Certificated Preference Shares and each purchaser of Regulation S Global Preference Shares acquiring such Preference Shares from the Issuer in the initial offering will be required to acknowledge, represent and agree, and each subsequent purchaser of Regulation S Global Preference Shares will be deemed to have acknowledged, represented and agreed, in each case as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Rule 144A or Regulation S are used herein as defined therein):

(1) If the purchaser is:

(A) a U.S. Offeree, such purchaser is either (i) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is aware that the sale of the Preference Shares to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act and is acquiring the Preference Shares for its own account or for one or more accounts, each of which is a Qualified Institutional Buyer, and as to each of which the purchaser exercises sole investment discretion, and in a number not less than the minimum lot, in each case for the purchaser and for each such account, or (ii) is an Accredited Investor and is aware that the sale of Preference Shares to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act and is acquiring the Preference Shares for its own account in a number not less than the minimum lot, or

(B) a non-U.S. Person, such purchaser is purchasing the Preference Shares in an Offshore Transaction, is aware that the sale of Preference Shares to it is being made in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act provided by Regulation S and is acquiring the Preference Shares for its own account in a number not less than the minimum lot.

In addition, the purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in Preference Shares, and the purchaser, and any accounts for which it is acting, are each able to bear the economic risk of the purchaser's or its investment.

(2) The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Preference Shares have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and, if in the future the purchaser decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Preference Shares, such Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with the legend in respect of such Preference Shares set forth in (6) below and the restrictions set forth in the Preference Share Documents. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Issuer or the Initial Purchaser as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any other jurisdiction for resale of the Preference Shares.

(3) The purchaser is not purchasing the Preference Shares with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares will be highly illiquid and are not suitable for short-term trading. The Preference Shares are a leveraged investment in the Collateral Obligations that may expose the Preference Shares to disproportionately large changes in value. Payments in respect of the Preference Shares are not guaranteed as they are dependent on the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations. The purchaser understands that it is possible that, due to the structure of the transaction and the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations, dividends or other distributions in respect of the Preference Shares may be reduced or eliminated entirely. Furthermore, the Preference Shares constitute equity in the Issuer, are not secured by the Collateral and will rank behind all creditors (secured and unsecured and whether known or unknown) of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the holders of the Notes, and any Hedge Counterparties. The Issuer has assets limited to the Collateral for payment of all Classes of the Notes and dividends and other distributions on the Preference Shares, and the Preference Shares bear, pro rata, the first risk of loss. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Issuer and the Preference Shares as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Preference Shares including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Issuer and the Initial Purchaser.

(4) In connection with the purchase of Preference Shares (provided that no such representation is made with respect to the Portfolio Manager by any Affiliate of or account managed by the Portfolio Manager): (i) none of the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, or the Portfolio Manager is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment advisor for the purchaser, (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager other than in a current offering circular for such Preference Shares and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other Person) any assurance, guarantee, or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance result, effect, consequence, or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting, or otherwise) of an investment in the Preference Shares; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the documentation for the Preference Shares) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Portfolio Manager; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Preference Shares reflect those in relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) the purchaser is purchasing the Preference Shares with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and it is capable of assuming and willing to assume (financially and otherwise) those risks; and (vii) the purchaser is a sophisticated investor.

(5) If the purchaser is acquiring the Preference Shares pursuant to paragraph (1)(A) above, (A) the purchaser and each account for which the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares is (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, (B) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) is acquiring the Preference Shares as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (C) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Preference Shares (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee), (D) to the extent the purchaser or any account for which the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares is a private investment company formed before April 30, 1996, the purchaser or such account has received the necessary consent from its beneficial owners, (E) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) agrees that it shall not hold such Preference Shares for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Preference Shares or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the dividends or other distributions on the Preference Shares (except when each person is (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee) and (F) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Preference Shares to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph shall be null and void ab initio.

(6) The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares (A) will be represented by either one or more Certificated Preference Shares or Regulation S Global Preference Shares which will bear the legend set forth below unless the Issuer determines otherwise in accordance with applicable law, and (B) (i) in the case of Preference Shares represented by an interest in a Certificated Preference Share, may only be held by or on behalf of either (x) non-U.S. Persons or (y) U.S. Persons that are either Qualified Institutional Buyers or Accredited Investors and either (a) Qualified Purchasers, (b) Knowledgeable Employees or (c) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees and (ii) in the case of Preference Shares represented by an interest in a Regulation S Global Preference Share, may not at any time be held by or on behalf of any person that is a U.S. Person. Before the Preference Shares represented by an interest in Certificated Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred, the transferee will be required to provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Issuer with a written certification as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), AND THE ISSUER HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED (THE "INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT"). THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED, EXCEPT (A)(1) TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER, IN A TRANSACTION MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF RULE 144A SO LONG AS THE PREFERENCE SHARES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR RESALE IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 144A, (2) TO AN ACCREDITED INVESTOR (AS DEFINED IN RULE 501(a) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) IN A TRANSACTION EXEMPT FROM REGISTRATION

UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, OR (3) TO A NON-U.S. PERSON IN AN OFFSHORE TRANSACTION IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 903 OR RULE 904 OF REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT AND, IN THE CASE OF CLAUSES (1) AND (2), TO A PURCHASER THAT (X) IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 3(C)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT THAT WAS NOT FORMED FOR THE PURPOSE OF INVESTING IN THE ISSUER (EXCEPT WHEN EACH BENEFICIAL OWNER OF THE PURCHASER IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER OR KNOWLEDGEABLE EMPLOYEE) THAT HAS RECEIVED THE NECESSARY CONSENT FROM ITS BENEFICIAL OWNERS WHEN THE PURCHASER IS A PRIVATE INVESTMENT COMPANY FORMED ON OR BEFORE APRIL 30, 1996, (Y) IS A KNOWLEDGEABLE EMPLOYEE (AS DEFINED IN RULE 3C-5 UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT) WITH RESPECT TO THE ISSUER OR (Z) IS AN ENTITY OWNED EXCLUSIVELY BY QUALIFIED PURCHASERS AND/OR KNOWLEDGEABLE EMPLOYEES, (B) IN EACH CASE, IN A NUMBER OF NOT LESS THAN 100 PREFERENCE SHARES FOR THE PURCHASER AND FOR EACH SUCH ACCOUNT FOR WHICH IT IS ACTING, AND (C) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER APPLICABLE JURISDICTION. EACH TRANSFEROR OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST THEREIN WILL PROVIDE NOTICE OF THE TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS AS SET FORTH HEREIN TO ITS PURCHASER. EACH PURCHASER OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE (OR WILL BE DEEMED TO MAKE) THE APPLICABLE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS. ANY TRANSFER IN VIOLATION OF THE FOREGOING WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT, WILL BE VOID AB INITIO, AND WILL NOT OPERATE TO TRANSFER ANY RIGHTS TO THE PURCHASER, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRARY TO THE ISSUER, THE PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENT OR ANY INTERMEDIARY. IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING, THE ISSUER MAINTAINS THE RIGHT TO RESELL ANY PREFERENCE SHARES PREVIOUSLY TRANSFERRED TO NON-PERMITTED U.S. HOLDERS (AS DEFINED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS) IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

(7) The purchaser will provide notice to each Person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Preference Shares of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Preference Share Documents, including the exhibits referenced in the Preference Share Documents.

(8) The purchaser understands that the Preference Share Documents permit the Issuer to compel any holder of the Preference Shares who is a U.S. Person and who is determined not to have been both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or Accredited Investor and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, at the time of acquisition of the Preference Shares to sell such Preference Shares, or to sell such Preference Shares on behalf of such purchaser, to a person that is both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or Accredited Investor and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act or to a person that is a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction meeting the requirements of Regulation S.

(9) The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Preference Shares or possession or distribution of the offering circular with respect thereto or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Preference Shares in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the offering circular relating to the Preference Shares shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Preference Shares in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.

(10) The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Preference Shares, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase the beneficial interest in the Preference Shares from any Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its beneficial interest in this Preference Share to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.

(11) The purchaser understands that the Scheduled Redemption Date of the Preference Shares is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of Securities at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.

(12) The purchaser understands that in the case of any vote to remove the Portfolio Manager, the Management Agreement permits the Portfolio Manager to purchase the beneficial interest in the Preference Shares from any Holder of Preference Shares that voted to remove the Portfolio Manager at the applicable Buy-Out Amount; and such Holder of Preference Shares will be required to sell its beneficial interest in this Preference Share to the Portfolio Manager at such price.

(13) The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Preference Shares by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.

(14) The purchaser agrees to treat the Preference Shares as equity of the Issuer for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, if applicable.

(15) On each day the purchaser holds the Preference Shares or any beneficial interest therein, (i) the purchaser, and any account on behalf of which the purchaser is purchasing the Preference Shares, is not and will not be an ERISA Plan, and if, after its initial acquisition of a Preference Shares, the purchaser determines, it is determined by another person, or the Preference Shares Paying Agent becomes aware that it or any such account is an ERISA Plan, such purchaser will dispose of its interest in the Preference Shares in a manner consistent with the requirements of the Preference Share Documents and (ii) if the purchaser is a Benefit Plan Investor that is not an ERISA Plan, the purchaser's purchase, holding and disposition of a Preference Share or any beneficial interest therein will not result in a non-exempt violation of any U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. law which is substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. The purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of Preference Shares to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of clause (i) of this paragraph (15) shall not be recognized or effective and such purported purchaser or transferee shall acquire no rights thereby and that the Preference Share Documents permit the Issuer to require any purchaser of the Preference Shares or any beneficial interest therein who has made, or is deemed to have made, such ERISA-related representation that is subsequently shown to be false or misleading to sell such interest to a person able to make such ERISA-related representation. The purchaser and any fiduciary causing the purchaser to purchase the Preference Shares agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Initial Purchaser and the Trustee and their respective affiliates from any cost, damage, or loss incurred by them as a result of the purchaser being or being deemed to be an ERISA Plan.

(16) The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Preference Shares are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager and the Initial Purchaser. If it is acquiring any Preference Shares as a fiduciary or agent for one or more institutional accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

(17) Each purchaser or subsequent transferee (other than a subsequent transferee of Regulation S Global Preference Shares) of Preference Shares will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Trustee written certification in a form acceptable to the Issuer and the Trustee as to whether it is an Affected Bank and each subsequent transferee of Regulation S Global Preference Shares will be deemed to represent to the Issuer and to the Trustee that it is not an Affected Bank. No transfer of any Preference Share to an Affected Bank will be effective, and the Trustee will not recognize any such transfer, unless such transfer is specifically authorized by the Issuer in writing; provided, however, that the Issuer shall authorize any such transfer if (x) such transfer would not cause more than 33 1/3% of the aggregate outstanding amount of the Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Components of the Class 1 Composite Securities) to be owned by Affected Banks or (y) the transferor is an Affected Bank previously approved by the Issuer.

(18) To the extent required by the Issuer, as determined by the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Share Registrar, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Preference Shares to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the U.S. Patriot Act) and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Preference Share to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.

(19) The purchaser agrees to not cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.
