THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED, EXCEPT (A) TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER (“QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER”) WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER (IN A TRANSACTION MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF RULE 144A SO LONG AS THE PREFERENCE SHARES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR RESALE IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 144A) WHO IS ALSO (X) A QUALIFIED PURCHASER (“QUALIFIED PURCHASER”) WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 3(c)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT THAT WAS NOT FORMED FOR THE PURPOSE OF INVESTING IN THE ISSUER (EXCEPT WHEN EACH BENEFICIAL OWNER OF THE PURCHASER IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER) AND THAT HAS RECEIVED THE NECESSARY CONSENT FROM ITS BENEFICIAL OWNERS WHEN THE PURCHASER IS A PRIVATE INVESTMENT COMPANY FORMED ON OR BEFORE APRIL 30, 1996 OR (Y) AN ENTITY OWNED EXCLUSIVELY BY QUALIFIED PURCHASERS, (B) IN EACH CASE, IN A NUMBER OF NOT LESS THAN 100 PREFERENCE SHARES FOR THE PURCHASER AND FOR EACH SUCH ACCOUNT FOR WHICH IT IS ACTING AND (C) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER APPLICABLE JURISDICTION. EACH TRANSFEROR OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST THEREIN WILL PROVIDE NOTICE OF THE TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS AS SET FORTH HEREIN TO ITS PURCHASER. EACH PURCHASER OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE THE APPLICABLE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS. ANY TRANSFER IN VIOLATION OF THE FOREGOING WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT, WILL BE VOID AB INITIO, AND WILL NOT OPERATE TO TRANSFER ANY RIGHTS TO THE TRANSFeree, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRARY TO THE ISSUER, THE PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENT OR ANY INTERMEDIARY. IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING, THE ISSUER MAINTAINS THE RIGHT TO RESELL ANY PREFERENCE SHARES PREVIOUSLY TRANSFERRED TO NON-PERMITTED HOLDERS OR NON-PERMITTED BENEFIT PLAN INVESTORS (AS DEFINED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS) IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

THE FAILURE TO PROVIDE THE ISSUER AND ANY PAYING AGENT, WHENEVER REQUESTED BY THE ISSUER OR THE SERVICER ON BEHALF OF THE ISSUER, WITH THE APPLICABLE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CERTIFICATIONS (GENERALLY, AN INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-9 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS A “UNITED STATES PERSON” WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE OR AN APPROPRIATE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-8 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS NOT A “UNITED STATES PERSON” WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE) MAY RESULT IN THE IMPOSITION OF U.S. FEDERAL WITHHOLDING FROM PAYMENTS TO THE HOLDER IN RESPECT OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY.

EACH TRANSFEREE WILL BE REQUIRED TO DELIVER A TRANSFEREE CERTIFICATE IN A FORM PRESCRIBED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

(8) The purchaser will provide notice to each Person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Preference Shares of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Preference Share Documents, including the exhibits referenced in the Preference Share Documents.

(9) The purchaser understands that the Preference Share Documents permit the Issuer to compel any Holder of the Preference Shares who is determined not to have been (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, at the time of acquisition of the Preference Shares to sell such Preference Shares, or to sell such Preference Shares on behalf of such purchaser, to a Person that is both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act.

(10) The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Preference Shares. The purchaser further acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit possession or distribution of the Offering Memorandum or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Securities in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the offering memorandum relating to the Preference Shares shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Preference Shares in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.

(11) The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Preference Shares, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase Preference Shares from any Non-Consenting Holder thereof (or, with respect to any Preference Shares held by Investors Corp., to purchase the Holding Preference Shares from any Non-Consenting Holding Preference Share Holder thereof), in each case, at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder or Non-Consenting Holding Preference Shares Holder will be required to sell such Preference Shares or Holding Preference Shares, as the case may be, to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.

(12) The purchaser understands that the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date of the Preference Shares is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of Securities at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.

(13) The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Preference Shares by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.

(14) The beneficial owner will agree to treat, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (a) the Preference Shares as equity of the Issuer, (b) the Notes as indebtedness of the Issuer and (c) the Issuer as a partnership (except to the extent the Issuer can no longer be treated as a partnership as a result of any election by the Issuer, changes in ownership of the Issuer or changes in the manner in which the equity of the Issuer is traded). The beneficial owner will be deemed to have acknowledged that the Issuer is not authorized to engage in activities that could cause it to constitute a finance or lending business for U.S. federal income tax purposes and agrees that it will report its investment in Preference Shares consistent with such limitation.

(15) The beneficial owner, if not a U.S. Person, either (i) is not a bank (within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code (as defined below in paragraph 23)) or (ii) is a person that is eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates United States federal income taxation of United States source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States. The beneficial owner is not purchasing the Preference Shares in order to reduce its United States federal income tax liability or pursuant to a tax avoidance plan.

(16) To the extent required, as determined by the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Share Registrar, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Preference Shares to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the U.S. Patriot Act) and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Preference Share to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.

(17) The purchaser agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.

(18) The purchaser is not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.

(19) The purchaser understands that, prior to any sale or other transfer of any interest in Preference Shares, it (or the transferee, as applicable) will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent a duly executed transfer certificate substantially in the form provided in the Preference Share Documents and such other certificates and other information as they may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed transfer complies with the restrictions in the legend placed on each certificate representing the Preference Shares and in the Preference Share Documents.

(20) The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer has the right pursuant to Section 6 of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement to issue additional Preference Shares.

(21) The purchaser understands that, to the extent required, as determined by the Co-Issuers, the Co-Issuers may amend the Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer only, the Preference Share Documents without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities to (i) remove any restrictions and limitations imposed on the Co-Issuers or the Holders of the Securities that solely relate to compliance with Section 3(c)(7) and (ii) add any requirements that are necessary for compliance with Rule 3a-7 if, at any time following the Closing Date, the Co-Issuers elect to rely on exclusion from the definition of "investment company" under Rule 3a-7 in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7).

(22) The purchaser understands that the Issuer may enter into amendments or modifications to the Servicing Agreement without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities.

(23) The purchaser understands and agrees that no purchase or transfer of the Preference Shares to a purchaser or transferee that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person (each as defined under United States Department of Labor Regulations, 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101) will be effective, and the Issuer or the Share Registrar will not recognize or register such purchase or transfer, if such purchase or transfer would result in (i) Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of Class I Preference Shares or Class II Preference Shares (determined pursuant to 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents) or (ii) a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") or Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”) (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, a violation of any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law). The purchaser or transferee further understands and agrees that any transfer in violation of the applicable provisions of the Preference Share Documents will be null and void ab initio. For purposes of the determination described in clause (i) of the preceding sentence, the Preference Shares held by the Trustee, the Servicer, any of their respective affiliates (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)(3)) and any other persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons will be disregarded and will not be treated as outstanding unless such person is also a Benefit Plan Investor. The purchaser’s acquisition, holding and disposition of the Preference Shares will not result in a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law), because such purchase, holding and disposition either (a) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws or (b) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all conditions of which are and will be been satisfied throughout its holding and disposition of such Preference Shares. The purchaser and any Person causing it to acquire the Preference Shares agree, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Servicer, the Placement Agents, Preference Shares Paying Agent and their respective Affiliates from any cost, damage, or loss incurred by them as a result of a breach of the representations set forth in this paragraph (23) and paragraph (24). If the purchaser is an insurance company investing through its general account as defined in PTCE 95-60, for so long as it holds the Preference Shares, such purchaser shall meet the requirements pertaining to the percentage of the assets of such insurance company general account that can be treated as plan assets for purposes of calculating the 25% threshold under the significant participation test of the Plan Asset Regulation (29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)).

(24) (a) The funds that the purchaser is using or will use to purchase the Preference Shares are___ / are not___ (check one) assets of a person who is or at any time while the Preference Shares are held by the purchaser will be (A) an “employee benefit plan” as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, whether or not such plan is subject to Title I of ERISA, including, without limitation, foreign, church and governmental plans, (B) a “plan” described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code or (C) an entity whose underlying assets would be deemed to include “plan assets” of either of the foregoing by reason of the investment by an employee benefit plan or other plan in the entity within the meaning of 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101 or otherwise. For purposes of making this determination, foreign benefit plans, government or church plans, Keoghs and IRAs are typically considered Benefit Plan Investors.

(b) The purchaser is___ / is not___ (check one) the Co-Issuer, the Servicer or any other person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the assets of the Issuer, or any “affiliate” (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)(3)) of any Controlling Person.

(25) The purchaser agrees to provide (and agrees it will cause any subsequent transferee of its Preference Shares to provide) the Share Registrar (1) appropriate documentation required under the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations establishing that the beneficial owner of the Preference Shares to be transferred is either a non-U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-8BEN or an IRS Form W-8IMY with appropriate attachments) or a U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-9) and (2) if such beneficial owner is treated as a partnership, S-corporation or grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a written representation from such beneficial owner that (i) there will not be any interests in such beneficial owner where substantially all of the value of such interest is attributable to the value of the Preference Shares proposed to be transferred to such beneficial owner, together with the value of any Class E Notes, Holding Preference Shares and Preference Shares already held by such beneficial owner and (ii) such beneficial owner is not a part of any arrangement a principal purpose of which is to cause the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares to be treated as owned by 100 persons or less within the meaning of Treasury

Regulation section 1.7704-1(h). The purchaser agrees to provide a properly completed, newly executed U.S. tax form and other certificate in each of the following circumstances: (i) no later than 120 days prior to the expiration (if applicable) of the last previously provided U.S. tax form or certificate, (ii) upon any change of circumstance that would cause that the last previously provided U.S. tax form or certificate to be incorrect and (iii) upon a request by the Issuer or the Share Registrar. The purchaser agrees that if it fails to provide a properly completed, newly executed U.S. tax form or other certificate no later than 120 days prior to the expiration of the last previously provided U.S. tax form or, if earlier, within the time specified in any request by the Issuer or the Share Registrar (which shall not be less than 30 days), the Issuer will have the unconditional right to cause such purchaser to sell any and all Preference Shares to the Issuer or to a person chosen by the Issuer or the Issuer's agent on such terms as the Issuer may choose. For this purpose, an IRS Form W-8IMY (or any successor form thereto) will be deemed to expire upon the expiration of any withholding statement or U.S. tax forms associated with such IRS Form W-8IMY.

(26) The purchaser understands and agrees that the Issuer will not recognize any transfers of Preference Shares if the proposed transfer will cause the Issuer to have either (a) exactly one beneficial owner or (b) more than ninety-nine beneficial owners (as determined for purposes of the provisions of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h)) of its Class E Notes and its Preference Shares unless, in the case of clause (b), it receives the consent of all of the Holders of the Preference Shares and an opinion of counsel to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such transfer, and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such transfer had not been made.

(27) The purchaser represents that it has not acquired the Preference Shares pursuant to a trade on an "established securities market" and agrees that it will not trade any Preference Shares on an "established securities market." For this purpose, the term "established securities market" includes any national securities exchange registered under Section 6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or exempted from registration because of the limited volume of transaction; any foreign securities exchange that, under the laws of the jurisdiction where it is organized, satisfies regulatory requirements that are analogous to the regulatory requirements imposed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; any regional or local exchange; and any interdealer quotation system that regularly disseminates firm buy or sell quotations by identified brokers or dealers, by electronic means or otherwise. The purchaser understands and agrees that in the event that the purchaser acquires or trades the Preference Shares on an established securities market, as described above, the Issuer will not recognize any transfers of Preference Shares made pursuant to such acquisition or trade.

(28) The purchaser is ___ / is not ___ (check one) Highland Financial Partners, L.P. or any of its subsidiaries.

(29) The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer, the Servicer, the Placement Agents and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Preference Shares are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Issuer, the Servicer and the Placement Agents. If it is acquiring any Preference Shares as a fiduciary or agent for one or more institutional accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

A Loan or Synthetic Security shall only be considered to be a Revolving Loan for so long as its commitment amount is greater than zero.

“S&P CDO Monitor” means a dynamic, analytical computer model developed by S&P (and as may be modified by S&P from time to time) and provided to the Servicer and the Collateral Administrator to be used to calculate the default frequency in terms of the amount of debt assumed to default as a percentage of the original principal amount of the Collateral Obligations consistent with a specified benchmark rating level based on certain assumptions and S&P’s proprietary corporate default studies. For the purpose (and only for the purpose) of applying the S&P CDO Monitor to a portfolio of obligations, for each obligation in the portfolio, the rating of the obligation shall be its S&P Rating.

“S&P Industry Classification” means the S&P Industry Classifications in Schedule 3 of the Indenture as modified, amended, and supplemented from time to time by S&P.

“S&P Priority Category” means each type of Collateral Obligation specified in the definition of “Applicable Percentage” as an “S&P Priority Category.”

- (i) If there is an issuer credit rating of the borrower of the Collateral Obligation (the “Borrower”), or the guarantor who unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the Collateral Obligation (the “Guarantor”) by S&P, the most current issuer credit rating for such Borrower or Guarantor (provided that with respect to any private or confidential rating, a consent has been granted by such Borrower or Guarantor and a copy of such consent shall be provided to S&P indicating that the issuer can rely on such private or confidential rating);

(ii) (a) if there is not an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation will be one subcategory below such rating; (b) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior unsecured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be such rating; and (c) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a subordinated obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be two subcategories above such rating if such rating is “BBB-” or higher and will be one subcategory above such rating if such rating is “BB+” or lower (provided that with respect to any private or confidential rating, a consent has been granted by such Borrower or Guarantor and a copy of such consent shall be provided to S&P indicating that the issuer can rely on such private or confidential rating); or

(iii) if there is neither an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P nor a rating by S&P on an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating may be determined using any one of the methods below:

(A) if an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is publicly rated by Moody’s, then the S&P Rating will be determined in accordance with the methodologies for establishing the Moody’s Default Probability Rating, except that the S&P Rating of such obligation will be (1) one subcategory below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody’s if such security is rated “Baa3” or higher by Moody’s and (2) two subcategories below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody’s if such security is rated “Ba1” or lower by Moody’s; provided that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 10% of the Maximum Amount may be given a S&P Rating based on a rating given by Moody’s as provided in this subclause (A) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable);

(B) if no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody’s, then the Servicer may apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating estimate, which will be its S&P Rating; or

(C) if such Collateral Obligation is not rated by Moody’s or S&P, no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody’s and if the Servicer determines in its sole discretion based on information available to it after reasonable inquiry that such Borrower (x) is not subject to any bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings nor in default on any of its obligations (unless the subject of a good faith business dispute), (y) is a legally constituted corporate entity having the minimum legal, financial and operational infrastructure to carry on a definable business, deliver and sell a product or service and report its results in generally accepted accounting terms as verified by a reputable audit firm and (z) is not so vulnerable to adverse business, financial and economic conditions that default in its financial or other obligations is foreseeable in the near term if current operating trends continue, then the S&P Rating will be “B-”; provided that the Servicer must apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating on such Borrower within 30 days after the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation; provided, further, that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 5% of the Maximum Amount may be given an S&P Rating based on this subclause (c) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable);

provided that, if (i) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any positive “credit watch” list by S&P, such rating will be increased by one rating subcategory or (ii) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any negative “credit watch” list by S&P, such rating will be decreased by one rating subcategory.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the S&P Rating shall be (A) the rating assigned thereto by S&P if the rating is public, (B) the rating assigned by

S&P if the rating is confidential, but only if all appropriate parties have provided written consent to its disclosure and use, (C) the rating assigned by S&P thereto through an estimated rating or (D) the rating assigned thereto by S&P in connection with the acquisition thereof upon the request of the Servicer. In the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a PIK Security, Structured Finance Obligation or Synthetic Securities, the S&P Rating may not be determined pursuant to clause (iii)(A) above.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if and for so long as the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations consisting in the aggregate of (x) Participations and (y) Synthetic Securities exceeds 20% of the Maximum Amount, then the S&P Rating for the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations representing that excess (determined assuming the excess is comprised of the Collateral Obligations having the lowest S&P Ratings that would otherwise be applicable as determined above) shall be the S&P Rating one sub-category below the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligations that would otherwise be applicable as determined above. For purposes of any calculation under the Indenture, if a S&P Rating is withdrawn by S&P with respect to a Collateral Obligation, the Issuer will continue using the latest S&P Rating available immediately prior to such withdrawal until a bankruptcy event occurs with respect to such Collateral Obligation.

“S&P Unrated DIP Loan” means a DIP Loan acquired by the Issuer that does not have a rating assigned by S&P and for which the Servicer has commenced the process of having a rating assigned by S&P (as specified in the definition of “DIP Loan”).

“Second Lien Loan” means a Loan that (i) is not (and cannot by its terms become) subordinated in right of payment to any other obligation of the obligor of the Loan other than a Senior Secured Loan with respect to the liquidation of such obligor or the collateral for such Loan and (ii) is secured by a valid second priority perfected security interest in or lien on specified collateral securing the obligor's obligations under the Loan, which specified collateral does not consist solely of common stock or shares issued by the obligor or any of its Affiliates or intangible assets.

“Secondary Risk Counterparty” means any obligor Domiciled other than in the United States, any Participating Institution, any Synthetic Security Counterparty and any Securities Lending Counterparty.

Aa3	AA-	10.0%	10.0%

If any Secondary Risk Counterparty's long-term senior unsecured debt rating or short-term rating is on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's or S&P, then for the purposes of the table above, its rating by the Rating Agency putting its rating on credit watch shall be one rating notch lower for that Rating Agency.

“Secured High-Yield Bond” means a High-Yield Bond that is secured by a valid and perfected security interest in specified collateral.

“Secured Loan” means a Loan that is secured by a valid and perfected security interest in specified collateral.

“Senior Secured High-Yield Bond” means a Secured High-Yield Bond that is not subordinated by its terms to indebtedness of the borrower for borrowed money, trade claims, capitalized leases, or other similar obligations, with a first priority security interest in collateral that in the opinion of the Servicer has value at least equal to the amount of the High-Yield Bond.

“Senior Secured Loan” means a Secured Loan that is not subordinated by its terms to indebtedness of the borrower for borrowed money, trade claims, capitalized leases, or other similar obligations, with a first priority security interest in collateral that in the opinion of the Servicer has value at least equal to the amount of the Loan.

“Spread Excess” means, as of any Measurement Date, a fraction whose (i) numerator is the product of (A) the greater of zero and the excess of the Weighted Average Spread for the Measurement Date over the Minimum Weighted Average Spread specified in the applicable row of the Ratings Matrix and (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date and (ii) denominator is the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Fixed Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date. In computing the Spread Excess on any Measurement Date, the Weighted Average Spread for the Measurement Date will be computed as if the Fixed Rate Excess were equal to zero.

“Structured Finance Obligation” means any obligation (other than the Notes or any other security or obligation issued by the Issuer):

(i) secured directly by, referenced to, or representing ownership of, a pool of receivables or other assets of U.S. obligors, or obligors organized or incorporated in Moody’s Group I Countries, Moody’s Group II Countries, Moody’s Group III Countries or Tax Advantaged Jurisdictions, including portfolio credit default swaps and collateralized debt obligations, but excludes:

- (D) market value collateralized debt obligations;
- (E) securities backed by “future flow” receivables;
- (F) securities backed by “trust preferred securities”;

In connection with the purchase of a Structured Finance Obligation, the Servicer shall obtain from Moody's the applicable Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate.

For purposes of the Diversity Test, multiple Structured Finance Obligations from CDOs serviced by the same Servicer or multiple Structured Finance Obligations issued by the same master trust will be considered to be obligations of one issuer.

"Subordinated High-Yield Bond" means a Secured High-Yield Bond secured by a second (or lower) priority security interest in the relevant collateral.

"Synthetic Security" means any swap transaction, structured bond, credit linked note, or other derivative financial instrument providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a debt instrument (but excluding any such instrument relating directly to a basket or portfolio of debt instruments) or an index or indices (such as the "SAMI" index published by Credit Suisse First Boston) in connection with a basket or portfolio of debt instruments or other similar instruments entered into by the Issuer with a Synthetic Security Counterparty that has in the Servicer's commercially reasonable judgment, equivalent expected loss characteristics (those characteristics, "credit risk") to those of the related Reference Obligations (taking account of those considerations as they relate to the Synthetic Security Counterparty), if (i) it is either a Form-Approved Synthetic Security or the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied, and (ii) the Reference Obligations thereof have a Market Value equal to at least 85% of the Principal Balance of the Reference Obligation at the time the Synthetic Security is entered into.

The maturity, interest rate, and other non-credit characteristics of a Synthetic Security may be different from the Reference Obligations to which the credit risk of the Synthetic Security relates.

No Synthetic Security shall require the Issuer to make any payment to the Synthetic Security Counterparty after its initial purchase other than any payments represented by the release of any cash collateral posted by the Issuer from the Collection Account to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of the posted cash collateral. Collateral may be posted only to a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. No Synthetic Security shall result in the Issuer being a "buyer" of credit protection.

The term Synthetic Security shall not include any Structured Finance Obligation or any Participation, but the Reference Obligation of a Synthetic Security may be a Structured Finance Obligation.

Each Synthetic Security Agreement shall contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in the Indenture.

The ownership or disposition of any Synthetic Security (without regard to the Issuer's other activities) must not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

Unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any "deliverable obligation" that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event" under any proposed Synthetic Security must not provide that its transfer to the Issuer is subject to obtaining any consents and must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such "deliverable obligation" is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event") as a Collateral Obligation and satisfy the Concentration Limitations under the Indenture, except that such "deliverable obligation" may constitute a Defaulted Collateral Obligation when delivered upon a "credit event" and if the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security is a Senior Secured Loan then the "deliverable obligation" under the Synthetic Security must also be a Senior Secured Loan.

Synthetic Securities that are credit default swaps, credit linked notes, or other similar instruments may not provide for "restructuring" as a "credit event."

For purposes of the Coverage Tests and the Retention Overcollateralization Test, unless the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied in respect of any proposed alternative treatment, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in the Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligation.

With respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, for purposes of: (i) calculating compliance with the Diversity Test, the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test, and the Concentration Limitations (other than limits relating to payment characteristics and except for clauses 17 and 17(a) of the definition of "Concentration Limitations"), and all related definitions, and (ii) any other provision or definition of the Indenture involving a determination with respect to a Reference Obligation, the characteristics of such Reference Obligations shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct interest of the Issuer in each such Reference Obligation in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation. In addition, each Reference Obligation under such Synthetic Security shall be assigned a Moody's Rating Factor equal to the sum of the Moody's Rating Factor of (i) the related Reference Obligor, (ii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty of such Synthetic Security and (iii) the Synthetic Security Collateral of such Synthetic Security. In addition, the Moody's Priority Category Rate in respect of a Synthetic Security referencing multiple Reference Obligations pursuant to this paragraph shall be the Moody's Priority Category Rate as assigned by Moody's to each Reference Obligation underlying such Synthetic Security. For the avoidance of doubt, Reference Obligations upon which a Synthetic Security is based as described in this paragraph must meet the definition of "Collateral Obligation" to the extent provided in this definition.

If the Rating Condition must be satisfied to execute the purchase of any Synthetic Security, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall give each applicable Rating Agency not less than 5 days' prior notice of the purchase of or entry into any Synthetic Security.

"Synthetic Security Agreement" means the documentation governing any Synthetic Security.

"Synthetic Security Collateral" means, respect to any Synthetic Security, amounts posted to the Synthetic Security Collateral Account by the Synthetic Security Counterparty in support of its obligations under the Synthetic Security, including (i) all Eligible Investments or (ii) Collateral Obligations that satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's, in each case that mature no later than the Stated Maturity, in the Synthetic Security Collateral Account that are purchased with Synthetic Security Collateral.

"Synthetic Security Counterparty" means any entity required to make payments on a Synthetic Security to the extent that a reference obligor makes payments on a related Reference Obligation.

"Tax Advantaged Jurisdiction" means one of the Cayman Islands, Bermuda, the Netherlands Antilles or the tax advantaged jurisdiction of the Channel Islands, or such other jurisdiction that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto.

"Tax Event" means an event that occurs if either:

(i) (A) one or more Collateral Obligations that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more Collateral Obligations that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them and (B) in any Due Period, the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on new withholding tax obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on increased rate withholding tax obligations, in each case to the extent not "grossed-up" (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period;

(ii) taxes, fees, assessments, or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any twelve-month period in excess of U.S.$2,000,000, other than any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax with respect to any payment owing in respect of any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation or Collateral Obligation; or

(iii) if the Issuer is at the time treated as a pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, that investors in the Preference Shares who are non-U.S. persons not otherwise subject to U.S. net income tax are or have become subject to U.S. net income taxation in respect of income of the Issuer in an amount in excess of 10% of the net income of the Issuer in any twelve-month period.

"Transaction Documents" means, collectively, this Indenture, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

"Transaction Securities" means, collectively, the Securities and the Holding Preference Shares.

“Unscheduled Principal Payments” means any principal payments received with respect to a Collateral Obligation as a result of optional redemptions, exchange offers, tender offers, other payments or prepayments made at the option of the issuer thereof or that are otherwise not scheduled to be made thereunder.

“Valuation Report” means the accounting report, determined as of the close of business on each Determination Date, rendered in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

“Voting Record Date” means, with respect to any vote by the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares in relation to the appointment or removal of the directors of the Issuer, (a) 15 days prior to the relevant shareholders meeting or (b) in the case of any vote by the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares exercised by written consent resolution, the date of such resolution.

“Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon” means, as of any Measurement Date, the rate obtained by:

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Fixed Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum rate at which it pays interest (other than, with respect to Collateral Obligations that are not PIK Securities, any interest that is not required to be paid in Cash and may be deferred), using only the effective after-tax interest rate determined by the Servicer on any Fixed Rate Obligation after taking into account any withholding tax or other deductions on account of tax of any jurisdiction and any gross-up paid by the obligor);

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);

(iii) dividing the sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations that are Fixed Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, adding to the sum the amount of any Spread Excess as of the Measurement Date, but only to the extent required to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test.

“Weighted Average Life” means, as of any Measurement Date the number obtained by (i) summing the products obtained by multiplying (A) the Average Life at that time of each Collateral Obligation by (B) the Principal Balance at that time of the Collateral Obligation and (ii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance at that time of all Collateral Obligations.

“Weighted Average Moody’s Rating Factor” means the summation of the products obtained by multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation (excluding Eligible Investments) by its respective Moody’s Rating Factor, dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations (excluding Eligible Investments) and rounding the result up to the nearest whole number.

“Weighted Average Spread” means, as of any Measurement Date, a rate obtained by:

(i) multiplying the Principal Balance of each Collateral Obligation that is a Floating Rate Obligation held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date by the current per annum contract spread at which it pays interest (which (x) for PIK Securities for which interest has been deferred or capitalized, will be deemed to be zero and (y) for Collateral Obligations that would be PIK Securities but for the proviso in the definition thereof, will be deemed to be equal to the effective rate of PIK Cash-Pay Interest applicable thereto), determined with respect to any Floating Rate Obligation that does not bear interest based on a London interbank offered rate, by expressing the current interest rate on the Floating Rate Obligation as a spread above a three month London interbank offered rate calculated in a manner consistent with the calculation of LIBOR;

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i);

(iii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date; and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to pass the Weighted Average Spread Test, adding to that sum the amount of Fixed Rate Excess as of the Measurement Date.

“Written-Down Obligation” means as of any date of determination, any Structured Finance Obligation as to which the Issuer or the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, has been notified by the issuer of the Structured Finance Obligation that the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Structured Finance Obligation and all other Structured Finance Obligations secured by the same pool of collateral that rank pari passu with or senior in priority of payment to the Structured Finance Obligation exceeds the aggregate principal balance (including reserved interest or other amounts available for overcollateralization) of all collateral securing the Structured Finance Obligation and such other pari passu and senior Structured Finance Obligations (excluding defaulted collateral).

“Zero-Coupon Security” means a security that, at the time of determination, does not make periodic payments of interest. A Zero-Coupon Security shall not include a security that is a PIK Security.

(i) the Collateral Obligation has been downgraded or has been put on credit watch list with the potential for developing negative credit implications by either of the Rating Agencies since the date the Issuer first acquired the Collateral Obligation under this Indenture,

(ix) that is a Written-Down Obligation;

(x) that is a DIP Loan as to which an order has been entered converting the debtor's chapter 11 case to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code; or

"Senior Secured Loan": A Secured Loan that is not subordinated by its terms to indebtedness of the borrower for borrowed money, trade claims, capitalized leases, or other similar obligations, with a first priority security interest in collateral that in the opinion of the Servicer has value at least equal to the amount of the Loan.

- (i) numerator is the product of:
  - (A) the greater of zero and the excess of the Weighted Average Spread for the Measurement Date over the Minimum Weighted Average Spread specified in the applicable row of the Ratings Matrix, and
  - (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date, and
- (ii) denominator is the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Fixed Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date.

In computing the Spread Excess on any Measurement Date, the Weighted Average Spread for the Measurement Date will be computed as if the Fixed Rate Excess were equal to zero.

"Stated Maturity": With respect to any Collateral Obligation, the maturity date specified in it or the applicable Underlying Instrument (or, if earlier, the first date on which any Person may be required by the Issuer to repurchase the entire principal amount of the Collateral Obligation at or above par) and with respect to the Notes of any Class, July 27, 2018 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date. - (iv) whose ownership or disposition (without regard to the Issuer's other activities) by the Issuer will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

In connection with the purchase of a Structured Finance Obligation, the Servicer shall obtain from Moody's the applicable Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate.

For purposes of the Diversity Test, multiple Structured Finance Obligations from CDOs serviced by the same Servicer or multiple Structured Finance Obligations issued by the same master trust will be considered to be obligations of one issuer.

The portion of the Subordinated Servicing Fee or Senior Servicing Fee, as applicable, in clauses (i) through (iii) above, as applicable, shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months.

"Successor Entity": The meaning specified in Section 7.10.

"Synthetic Security": Any swap transaction, structured bond, credit linked note or other derivative financial instrument providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a debt instrument (but excluding any such instrument relating directly to a basket or portfolio of debt instruments) or an index or indices (such as the "SAMI" index published by Credit Suisse First Boston) in connection with a basket or portfolio of debt instruments or other similar instruments entered into by the Issuer with a Synthetic Security Counterparty that has in the Servicer's commercially reasonable judgment, equivalent expected loss characteristics (those characteristics, "credit risk") to those of the related Reference Obligations (taking account of those considerations as they relate to the Synthetic Security Counterparty), if (i) it is either a Form-Approved Synthetic Security or the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied, and (ii) the Reference Obligations thereof have a Market Value equal to at least 85% of the Principal Balance of the Reference Obligation at the time the Synthetic Security is entered into.

The maturity, interest rate, and other non-credit characteristics of a Synthetic Security may be different from the Reference Obligations to which the credit risk of the Synthetic Security relates.

No Synthetic Security shall require the Issuer to make any payment to the Synthetic Security Counterparty after its initial purchase other than any payments represented by the release of any cash collateral posted by the Issuer from the Collection Account to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of the posted cash collateral. Collateral may be posted only to a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. No Synthetic Security shall result in the Issuer being a "buyer" of credit protection.

The term Synthetic Security shall not include any Structured Finance Obligation or any Participation, but the Reference Obligation of a Synthetic Security may be a Structured Finance Obligation.

Each Synthetic Security Agreement shall contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in this Indenture.

The ownership or disposition of any Synthetic Security (without regard to the Issuer's other activities) must not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

Unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any "deliverable obligation" that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event" under any proposed Synthetic Security must not provide that its transfer to the Issuer is subject to obtaining any consents and must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such "deliverable obligation" is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event") as a Collateral Obligation and satisfy the Concentration Limitations under this Indenture, except that such "deliverable obligation" may constitute a Defaulted Collateral Obligation when delivered upon a "credit event and if the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security is a Senior Secured Loan then the "deliverable obligation" under the Synthetic Security must also be a Senior Secured Loan.

Synthetic Securities that are credit default swaps, credit linked notes, or other similar instruments may not provide for "restructuring" as a "credit event."

For purposes of the Coverage Tests and the Retention Overcollateralization Test, unless the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied in respect of any proposed alternative treatment, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligation.

With respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, for purposes of: (i) calculating compliance with the Diversity Test, the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test, and the Concentration Limitations (other than limits relating to payment characteristics and except for clauses 17 and 17(a) of the definition of "Concentration Limitations"), and all related definitions, and (ii) any other provision or definition of this Indenture involving a determination with respect to a Reference Obligation, the characteristics of such Reference Obligations shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct interest of the Issuer in each such Reference Obligation in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation. In addition, each Reference Obligation under such Synthetic Security shall be assigned a Moody's Rating Factor equal to the sum of the Moody's Rating Factor of (i) the related Reference Obligor, (ii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty of such Synthetic Security and (iii) the Synthetic Security Collateral of such Synthetic Security. In addition, the Moody's Priority Category Rate in respect of a Synthetic Security referencing multiple Reference Obligations pursuant to this paragraph shall be the Moody's Priority Category Rate as assigned by Moody's to each Reference Obligation underlying such Synthetic Security. For the avoidance of doubt, Reference Obligations upon which a Synthetic Security is based as described in this paragraph must meet the definition of "Collateral Obligation" to the extent provided in this definition.

If the Rating Condition must be satisfied to execute the purchase of any Synthetic Security, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall give each applicable Rating Agency not less than 5 days' prior notice of the purchase of or entry into any Synthetic Security.

(i) (A) one or more Collateral Obligations that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax ("New Withholding Tax Obligations") or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more Collateral Obligations that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them ("Increased Rate Withholding Tax Obligations") and (B) in any Due Period, the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on New Withholding Tax Obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on Increased Rate Withholding Tax Obligations, in each case to the extent not "grossed-up" (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period;

(ii) taxes, fees, assessments, or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any twelve-month period in excess of U.S.$2,000,000, other than any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax with respect to any payment owing in respect of any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation or Collateral Obligation; or

(iii) if the Issuer is at the time treated as a pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, that investors in the Preference Shares who are non-U.S. persons not otherwise subject to U.S. net income tax are or have become subject to U.S. net income taxation in respect of income of the Issuer in an amount in excess of 10.0% of the net income of the Issuer in any twelve-month period.

(ii) summing the amounts determined pursuant to clause (i),

(iii) dividing the sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Collateral Obligations that are Fixed Rate Obligations held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date, and

(iv) if the result obtained in clause (iii) is less than the minimum percentage rate specified to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test, adding to the sum the amount of any Spread Excess as of the Measurement Date, but only to the extent required to satisfy the Weighted Average Fixed Rate Coupon Test.

- (ii) dividing that sum by the Aggregate Principal Balance at that time of all Collateral Obligations.

"Weighted Average Life Test": A test that is satisfied as of any Measurement Date if the Weighted Average Life on that date of all Collateral Obligations is equal to or less than the greater of (a) the number of years (including any fraction of a year) between such Measurement Date and August 1, 2015 or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date and (b) 3.0 years.

Section 1.2. Assumptions as to Pledged Obligations; Construction Conventions.

This Section 1.2 shall be applied in connection with all calculations required to be made pursuant to this Indenture:

- with respect to the scheduled payment of principal or interest on any Pledged Obligation, or any payments on any other assets included in the Collateral,
- with respect to the sale of and acquisition of Collateral Obligations,
- with respect to the income that can be earned on the scheduled payment of principal or interest on the Pledged Obligations and on any other amounts that may be received for deposit in the Collection Account, and
- with respect to the treatment of Collateral Obligations loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement.

The provisions of this Section 1.2 shall be applicable to any determination or calculation that is covered by this Section 1.2, whether or not reference is specifically made to Section 1.2, unless some other method of calculation or determination is expressly specified in the particular provision.

(a) All calculations with respect to the scheduled payment of principal or interest on the Pledged Obligations shall be made on the basis of information as to the terms of each Pledged Obligation and on reports of payments received on the Pledged Obligation that are furnished by or on behalf of the issuer of the Pledged Obligation and, to the extent they are not manifestly in error, the information or report may be conclusively relied on in making the calculations.

(b) For each Due Period and as of any Measurement Date, the scheduled payment of principal or interest on any Pledged Obligation shall be the sum of

(i) the total amount of payments and collections reasonably expected to be received during the Due Period in respect of the Pledged Obligation that, if paid as scheduled, will be available for payment on the Notes and of certain expenses of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer in the Collection Account at the end of the Due Period; and

(ii) any such amounts received in prior Due Periods that were not disbursed on a previous Payment Date.

Except as provided in paragraph (h) below, a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation shall be assumed to have a scheduled payment of principal and interest of zero.

The total amount of payments and collections reasonably expected to be received includes the proceeds of the sale of the Pledged Obligation received and, in the case of sales which have not yet settled, to be received during the Due Period and not used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty, Securities Lending Counterparty, or Hedge Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security, Securities Lending Agreement, or Hedge Agreement) or Eligible Investments or retained in the Collection Account for subsequent application thereof to purchase additional Collateral Obligations pursuant to Section 12.2.

(c) For purposes of the applicable determinations required by Article 12 and the definition of "Interest Coverage Ratio," the expected interest on Collateral Obligations shall be calculated using their then current interest rates.

(d) With respect to any Collateral Obligation, the date on which it "matures" (or its "maturity" date) shall be the earlier of

(i) the stated maturity of the obligation or

(ii) if the Issuer has the right to require the issuer or obligor of the Collateral Obligation to purchase, redeem, or retire the Collateral Obligation at a price of at least par on any one or more dates before its Stated Maturity (a "put right") and the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that it will cause the Issuer to direct the Trustee to exercise the put right on a date, the maturity date shall be the date specified in the certification.

(e) For purposes of calculating compliance with the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), the Coverage Tests, and the Retention Overcollateralization Test and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the Reference Obligation. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limits other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligations.

(f) Any Collateral Obligation loaned to a Securities Lending Counterparty shall be included in the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests, and the Retention Overcollateralization Test and the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation loaned to a Securities Lending Counterparty shall be included in the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations, in each case unless an "event of default" (under and as defined in the related Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing.

(g) If a Class of Notes ceases to be Outstanding, then any Coverage Test computed by reference to the Class of Notes (but not to any subordinate Class of Notes then Outstanding) shall cease to be of any force.

(h) For purposes of calculating compliance with the Eligibility Criteria (other than the Weighted Average Life Test), at the direction of the Servicer by notice to the Trustee, during the Replacement Period any Eligible Investment representing Principal Proceeds received upon the maturity, redemption, sale, or other disposition of a Collateral Obligation (or, after the Replacement Period, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations) shall be deemed to have the characteristics of the disposed Collateral Obligation until used to purchase an additional Collateral Obligation. The calculations shall be based on the Principal Balance of the disposed Collateral Obligations except in the case of Defaulted Collateral Obligations and Credit Risk Securities, in which case the calculations will be based on the Principal Proceeds received on the disposition or sale of the Defaulted Collateral Obligation or Credit Risk Obligation.

(i) The calculation on any Coverage Test on any Determination Date shall be made by giving effect to all payments to be made pursuant to all subclauses of the Priority of Payments as applicable, payable on the Payment Date following such Determination Date. In addition no Principal Proceeds will be used to pay a subordinated Class on a Payment Date if, after giving effect to such payment, any Coverage Test of a more senior Class of Notes is failing on such Payment Date or would fail as a result of such application of the Principal Proceeds on such Payment Date.

Section 1.3. Rules of Interpretation.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture or unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) Defined terms include, as appropriate, all genders and the plural as well as the singular.

(b) References to designated articles, sections, subsections, exhibits, and other subdivisions of this Indenture, such as "Section 6.13 (a)," refer to the designated article, section, subsection, exhibit, or other subdivision of this Indenture as a whole and to all subdivisions of the designated article, section, subsection, exhibit, or other subdivision. The words "herein," "hereof," "hereto," "hereunder," and other words of similar import refer to this Indenture as a whole and not to any particular article, section, exhibit, or other subdivision of this Indenture.

(c) Any term that relates to a document or a statute, rule, or regulation includes any amendments, modifications, supplements, or any other changes that may have occurred since the document, statute, rule, or regulation came into being, including changes that occur after the date of this Indenture. References to law are not limited to statutes. Any reference to any Person includes references to its successors and assigns.

(d) Any party may execute any of the requirements under this Indenture either directly or through others, and the right to cause something to be done rather than doing it directly shall be implicit in every requirement under this Indenture. Unless a provision is restricted as to time or limited as to frequency, all provisions under this Indenture are implicitly available and things may happen from time to time.

(e) The term "including" and all its variations mean "including but not limited to." Except when used in conjunction with the word "either," the word "or" is always used inclusively (for example, the phrase "A or B" means "A or B or both," not "either A or B but not both").

(f) A reference to "a thing" or "any of a thing" does not imply the existence or occurrence of the thing referred to even though not followed by "if any," and "any of a thing" is any and all of it. A reference to the plural of anything as to which there could be either one or more than one does not imply the existence of more than one (for instance, the phrase "the obligors on a note" means "the obligor or obligors on a note"). "Until something occurs" does not imply that it must occur, and will not be modified by the word "unless." The word "due" and the word "payable" are each used in the sense that the stated time for payment has passed. The word "accrued" is used in its accounting sense, i.e., an amount paid is no longer accrued. In the calculation of amounts of things, differences and sums may generally result in negative numbers, but when the calculation of the excess of one thing over another results in zero or a negative number, the calculation is disregarded and an "excess" does not exist. Portions of things may be expressed as fractions or percentages interchangeably. The word "shall" is used in its imperative sense, as for instance meaning a party agrees to something or something must occur or exist.

(g) All accounting terms used in an accounting context and not otherwise defined, and accounting terms partly defined in this Indenture, to the extent not completely defined, shall be construed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. To the extent that the definitions of accounting terms in this Indenture are inconsistent with their meanings under generally accepted accounting principles, the definitions contained in this Indenture shall control.

(h) In the computation of a period of time from a specified date to a later specified date or an open-ended period, the words "from" and "beginning" mean "from and including," the word "after" means "from but excluding," the words "to" and "until" mean "to but excluding," and the word "through" means "to and including." Likewise, in setting deadlines or other periods, "by" means "on or before." The words "preceding," "following," "before," "after," "next," and words of similar import, mean immediately preceding or following. References to a month or a year refer to calendar months and calendar years.

(i) Any reference to the enforceability of any agreement against a party means that it is enforceable against the party in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, and other similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights and to general equity principles.

(j) Except when only the registered holder is recognized, such as in Section 2.9., references to Noteholders, holders, and the like refer equally to beneficial owners who have an interest in a Note but are not reflected in the Indenture Register as the owner.

ARTICLE 2

THE NOTES

Section 2.1. Forms Generally.

The Notes and the Trustee's or Authenticating Agent's certificate of authentication on them (the "Certificate of Authentication") shall be in substantially the forms required by this Article, with appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions, and other variations required or permitted by this Indenture, and may have any letters, numbers, or other marks of identification and any legends or endorsements on them that are consistent with this Indenture, as determined by the Authorized Officers of the Issuer executing the Notes as evidenced by their execution of the Notes.

(a) The Senior Notes, including the Regulation S Global Notes, Rule 144A Global Notes and Certificate of Authentication, shall be in the forms of the applicable portion of Exhibit A-1.

(b) Regulation S Global Notes. The Senior Notes of each Class sold to non-U.S. persons in off-shore transactions in reliance on Regulation S shall each be represented by one or more global notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit A-1, including legends (the "Regulation S Global Notes"). The global notes shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Senior Notes represented thereby with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depository for the respective accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream, duly executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Regulation S Global Notes may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee or the Depository or its nominee, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided. As used above and in subsection (d) below, "U.S. person" and "off-shore transaction" have the meanings assigned to them in Regulation S.

(c) Rule 144A Global Notes. The Senior Notes of each Class initially sold to U.S. persons that are Accredited Investors and Qualified Purchasers shall each be issued initially in the form of one permanent global note per Class in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit A-1, including legends (each, a "Rule 144A Global Note"), which shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Senior Notes represented thereby with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depository, duly executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Notes may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee or the Depository or its nominee, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided.

(d) Book-Entry Provisions. This Section 2.2(d) shall apply only to Global Notes deposited with or on behalf of the Depository. The "Operating Procedures of the Euroclear System" of Euroclear and the "Terms and Conditions Governing Use of Participants" of Clearstream, respectively, shall be applicable to the Regulation S Global Notes insofar as interests in the Global Notes are held by the Agent Members of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be.

Agent Members shall have no rights under this Indenture with respect to any Global Note held on their behalf by the Trustee, as custodian for the Depository and the Depository may be treated by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, and any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee as the absolute owner of the Senior Note for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Indenture shall prevent the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, or any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee, from giving effect to any written certification, proxy, or other authorization furnished by the Depository or impair, as between the Depository and its Agent Members, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a Holder of any Senior Note.

(e) The Class E Notes shall be issued in the form of one or more certificated Class E Notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of Exhibit A-2, including legends (each, a "Certificated Class E Note"), which shall be registered in the name of the owner thereof.

Section 2.3. *Authorized Amount; Denominations.

(a) The aggregate principal amount of Notes that may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to U.S.$819,000,000, except for Notes authenticated and delivered upon registration of, transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, other Notes pursuant to Section 2.6, 2.7, or 8.5.

(b) The Notes shall be divided into the following Classes, having the designations, original principal amounts and other characteristics as follows:

Original Principal Amount	U.S.$657,000,000	U.S.$45,000,000	U.S.$40,500,000	U.S.$45,000,000	U.S.$31,500,000
Interest Rate	LIBOR + 0.27%	LIBOR + 0.45%	LIBOR + 0.72%	LIBOR + 1.65%	LIBOR + 3.75%
Initial Rating (Moody's/S&P)	Aaa/AAA	Aa2/AA	A2/A	Baa2/BBB	Ba2/BB

(c) The Notes will be issuable in minimum denominations of U.S.$250,000, and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess of that amount.

(d) The Issuer will also issue 36,000 Class I Preference Shares and 45,000 Class II Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, simultaneously with the issuance of the Notes under this Indenture. At any time during the Replacement Period, the Issuer may issue and sell additional Preference Shares and use the proceeds from such issuance and sale to purchase additional Collateral Obligations or as otherwise permitted under the Preference Share Documents and this Indenture pursuant to Section 6 of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement. The Preference Shares are not secured by the lien of this Indenture. Any payments made by the Trustee hereunder with respect to the Preference Shares (other than, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) will be released by the Trustee to the Preference Shares Paying Agent on each Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments for deposit into the Preference Shares Distribution Account for payment, subject to Cayman Islands law, to Holders of the Preference Shares as dividends or Redemption Price, as applicable.

Section 2.4. *Extension of Replacement Period and Stated Maturity.

(a) The Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Replacement Period to the applicable Extended Replacement Period End Date up to a maximum of four times if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date in accordance with this Section 2.4 and (ii) the Extension Conditions set forth in Section 2.4(c) are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Replacement Period to the Trustee no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Notes shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Notes or Preference Shares or amendment or supplement to this Indenture or the Preference Share Documents (the "Maturity Extension"); provided that the Issuer will not be permitted to effect more than four Maturity Extensions.

(b) In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Securities wishing to sell such Securities to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to Section 2.4(d) (such Securities (or the related Holding Preference Shares, as applicable) as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, "Extension Sale Securities"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Holder providing an Extension Sale Notice shall be deemed to agree that no Extension Sale Securities of any Holder shall be purchased unless all Extension Sale Securities of all Holders are purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date and the other Extension Conditions are satisfied as of such date.

(c) The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the "Extension Conditions") are satisfied:

(i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;

(ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions in this Indenture, the Preference Share Documents and the Holding Preference Share Documents immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Extension Sale Securities and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);

(iii) (a) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody's (so long as any Notes are then rated by Moody's);

(iv) the Issuer has not effected more than three prior Extensions; and

(v) such extension is not effected for the primary purpose of decreasing losses or recognizing gains resulting from market value changes.

The Issuer, the Trustee and, by its acceptance of the Notes, each Noteholder agrees that the Placement Agents shall not be responsible for causing the Extension Conditions to be satisfied and shall not be liable to any such Person or Noteholders (whether or not such Holder gave an Extension Sale Notice with respect to its Notes) or to any other Person if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied. Failure of the Extension Conditions to be satisfied shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture.

(d) Extension Procedure.

(i) Not later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer of its election to extend the Replacement Period (the "Extension Notice"), the Trustee shall mail the Extension Notice to all Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Holding Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), in the form of Exhibit J, and shall request the Rating Confirmation for the Maturity Extension from each Rating Agency, if applicable;

(ii) Any Holder of the Securities may deliver an irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") to the Issuer and the Trustee within 30 days after the Trustee has mailed the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell all or a portion of its Securities or, with respect to Investors Corp., in its capacity as a Holder of the Class I Preference Shares, all or a portion of Holding Preference Shares, as the case may be, to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of the Securities that has not delivered such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Securities or Holding Preference Shares, as applicable, to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension; and

(iii) If clause (iii)(b)(i) of the Extension Conditions is not satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date as determined by the Issuer (or its agent), the Trustee shall request the Rating Condition to be satisfied with respect to Moody's.

(e) On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) shall confirm (i) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Extension Sale Securities in compliance with all transfer restrictions in this Indenture, the Preference Share Documents and the Holding Preference Share Documents and the legends on such Extension Sale Securities and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (ii) whether the requirements of clause (c)(iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (iii) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

(f) On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall automatically become effective under the terms of this Indenture; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth in clauses (a) and (c) above are satisfied (as certified to the Trustee by a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer). No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer in consultation with the Servicer, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail a notice to all Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Servicer, the Placement Agents, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) and the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depository for any Notes subject to the Maturity Extension.

(g) In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Noteholder, other than a Holder of Extension Sale Securities, shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment. Holders of Preference Shares shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to any applicable qualifying beneficial owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification on the first Payment Date from and including each Extension Effective Date on which funds are available to be used for such purposes in accordance with Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption of the Notes. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments on a Payment Date shall not be considered "due and payable" hereunder. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Securities. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid, in the case of the Notes, to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer.

(h) If any Holder of Class II Preference Shares delivers an Extension Sale Notice notifying the Issuer and the Trustee of its intention to sell all or a portion of its Class II Preference Shares, (i) such Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to Investors Corp. and such Preference Shares will be redesignated as Class I Preference Shares, (ii) Investors Corp. will issue additional Holding Preference Shares in a number equal to the aggregate number of, and at a price equal to the price of, such redesignated Preference Shares purchased by it and (iii) the Extension Qualifying Purchaser will purchase such additional Holding Preference Shares in lieu of such redesignated Preference Shares.

Section 2.5. Execution, Authentication, Delivery, and Dating.

The Notes shall be executed on behalf of each of the Applicable Issuers by one of their respective Authorized Officers. The signature of the Authorized Officer on the Notes may be manual or facsimile.

Notes bearing the manual or facsimile signatures of individuals who were at any time the Authorized Officers of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, shall bind the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, notwithstanding that any of them have ceased to hold their offices before the authentication and delivery of the Notes or did not hold their offices at the date of issuance of the Notes.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Co-Issuers may deliver the Senior Notes and the Issuer may deliver the Class E Notes, in each case executed by the Applicable Issuers to the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent for authentication and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent, upon Issuer Order, shall authenticate and deliver the Notes as provided in this Indenture and not otherwise.

Each Note authenticated and delivered by the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated as of the Closing Date. All other Notes that are authenticated after the Closing Date for any other purpose under this Indenture shall be dated the date of their authentication.

Notes issued upon transfer, exchange, or replacement of other Notes shall be issued in authorized denominations reflecting the original Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes so transferred, exchanged, or replaced, but shall represent only the current outstanding principal amount of the Notes so transferred, exchanged, or replaced. If any Note is divided into more than one Note in accordance with this Article 2, the original principal amount of the Note shall be proportionately divided among the Notes delivered in exchange for it and shall be the original aggregate principal amount of the subsequently issued Notes.

No Note shall be entitled to any benefit under this Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose, unless there appears on the Note a Certificate of Authentication executed by the Trustee or by the Authenticating Agent by the manual signature of one of their Authorized Officers, and that certificate on any Note shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that the Note has been duly authenticated and delivered under this Indenture.

Section 2.6. *Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause a register (the "Indenture Register") to be kept in which the Issuer shall provide for the registration of Notes and the registration of transfers of Notes. The Trustee is hereby initially appointed "Indenture Registrar" for the purpose of registering Notes and transfers of the Notes as provided in this Indenture. The Issuer may rely conclusively on any such information provided to it by the Trustee. Upon any resignation or removal of the Indenture Registrar, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor and notify the Servicer of the appointment or, in the absence of such appointment, assume the duties of Indenture Registrar.

If the Issuer appoints a Person other than the Trustee to be Indenture Registrar, the Issuer will give the Trustee prompt written notice of the appointment of the Indenture Registrar and of the location, and any change in the location, of the Indenture Register. The Trustee may inspect the Indenture Register at all reasonable times and obtain copies of it. The Trustee may rely on a certificate executed on behalf of the Indenture Registrar by an Officer of the Indenture Registrar as to the names and addresses of the Noteholders and the principal amounts and number of the Notes.

Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Notes at the office or agency of the Applicable Issuers to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.2, if the requirements of this Indenture are met the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferees, new Notes of any authorized denomination and of a like original Aggregate Outstanding Amount.

At the option of their Holder, Notes may be exchanged for Notes of like terms, in any authorized denominations and of like aggregate principal amount, upon surrender of the Notes to be exchanged at the office or agency of the Applicable Issuers to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.2. Whenever any Note is surrendered for exchange, the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, the Notes that the Noteholder making the exchange is entitled to receive.

All Notes issued on any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes shall be the valid obligations of the Applicable Issuers evidencing the same obligations and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture as the Notes surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

Every Note presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Indenture Registrar duly executed by its holder or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No Holder shall incur a service charge for any registration of transfer or exchange of the Notes, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

(b) No Note may be sold or transferred (including by pledge or hypothecation) unless the sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, is exempt from the registration requirements under applicable state securities laws, and will not cause either of the Co-Issuers to become subject to the requirement that it register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act. None of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee or any other Person shall have any obligation to register the Notes under the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

(c) (i) No Note or interest therein may be transferred to any purchaser or transferee unless such purchase, holding and disposition of such Note will not result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any federal, state, foreign or local law that is substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code).

(ii) No person shall be permitted to acquire any Class E Note if (A) such acquisition would result in persons who have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of the Class E Notes immediately after such sale or transfer (excluding for purposes of such determination any Class E Notes held by any Controlling Person (as defined below) and its affiliates (as defined below)) determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation or (B) such person, or any account on behalf of which such person is acquiring the Class E Notes, is an employee benefit plan or other plan subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, including entities whose underlying assets are treated as if they are they assets of such plans. . Under the Plan Asset Regulation, an “affiliate” of a person includes any person, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controlling, controlled by or under common control with the person, and “control” with respect to a person other than an individual, means the power to exercise a controlling influence over the management or policies of such person. In making the 25% determination, Class E Notes held by any person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the assets of the Issuer or any affiliate of any such person (any such person, a “Controlling Person”) (such as the Class E Notes held by the Servicer or its affiliates) will be disregarded and not treated as outstanding

(iii) Any person described in paragraph (i) and (ii) above is referred to herein as a “Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor.” Any transfer of a beneficial interest to a Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor shall be void and any such purported transfer of which the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee has notice may be disregarded by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Trustee for all purposes.

(d) None of the Trustee, the Share Registrar or the Indenture Registrar shall be responsible for ascertaining whether any transfer complies with, or for otherwise monitoring or determining compliance with, the requirements or terms of the Securities Act, applicable state securities laws, ERISA, the Code or the Investment Company Act; except that if a certificate or any other document is specifically required by this Section 2.6 to be provided to the Trustee or such Registrar by a prospective transferee, the Trustee and such Registrar, as applicable, shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether it conforms substantially on its face to the applicable requirements of this Section 2.6.

(e) For so long as any of the Notes are Outstanding, the Issuer shall not issue or register the transfer of any Issuer Ordinary Shares to U.S. persons and the Co-Issuer shall not issue or register the transfer of any of its shares of the Co-Issuer to U.S. persons. As used in this subsection (e), "U.S. person" has the meaning assigned to it in Regulation S.

(f) So long as a Global Note remains Outstanding and is held by or on behalf of the Depository, transfers of the Global Note, in whole or in part, shall only be made in accordance with Section 2.2(c), Section 2.6(c) and this Section 2.6(f).

(i) Subject to clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Section 2.6(f), transfers of a Global Note shall be limited to transfers of the Global Note in whole, but not in part, to nominees of the Depository.

(ii) Rule 144A Global Note to Regulation S Global Note. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Note deposited with the Depository wishes at any time to exchange its interest in the Rule 144A Global Note for an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note, or to transfer its interest in the Rule 144A Global Note to a Person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note, the Holder may exchange or transfer the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note (subject to the rules and procedures of the Depository) if the Holder after the exchange or transfer is not a U.S. person.

The Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Note and to increase the principal amount of the Regulation S Global Note by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Rule 144A Global Note to be exchanged, and to credit to the securities account of the Person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note equal to the reduction in the principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Note upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of

(A) instructions given in accordance with the Depository's procedures from an Agent Member directing the Indenture Registrar to credit a beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Note, but not less than the minimum denomination applicable to the Holder's Senior Notes, equal to the beneficial interest in the Rule 144A Global Note to be exchanged or transferred,

(B) a written order given in accordance with the Depository's procedures containing information regarding the participant account of the Depository and the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase,

(C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-3 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest stating that the exchange or transfer of the interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Global Notes, including that the Holder or the transferee, as applicable, is not a U.S. person, and that the transfer has been made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S, and

(D) in the case of a transfer, a certificate in the applicable form of Exhibit B-1 given by the proposed transferee stating that it is not a U.S. person.

(iii) Regulation S Global Note to Rule 144A Global Note. If a Holder of a Senior Note held as a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note deposited with the Depository wishes at any time to exchange its interest in the Regulation S Global Note for an interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note or to transfer its interest in the Regulation S Global Note to a Person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note, the Holder may, subject to the rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream or the Depository, as the case may be, exchange or transfer, or cause the exchange or transfer of, the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of:

(A) instructions from Euroclear, Clearstream or the Depository, as the case may be, directing the Indenture Registrar to cause to be credited a beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note equal to the beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Note, but not less than the minimum denomination applicable to the Holder's Senior Notes, to be exchanged or transferred, the instructions to contain information regarding the participant account with the Depository to be credited with the increase,

(B) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-2 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest and stating that, in the case of an exchange, the Holder is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser or, in the case of a transfer, the Person transferring the interest in the Regulation S Global Note reasonably believes that the Person acquiring the interest in a Rule 144A Global Note is a Qualified Institutional Buyer, is obtaining the beneficial interest in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction, and a Qualified Purchaser, and

(C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-1 given by the proposed transferee stating that it is a QIB/QP, the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the Regulation S Global Note by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Note to be transferred or exchanged and the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository, concurrently with the reduction, to credit to the securities account of the Person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Note equal to the reduction in the principal amount of the Regulation S Global Note.

(iv) Other Exchanges. If a Global Note is exchanged for Senior Notes in definitive registered form without interest coupons pursuant to Section 2.11, the Senior Notes may be exchanged for one another only in accordance with procedures substantially consistent with the provisions above (including certification requirements intended to insure that the transfers are made only to Holders who are QIB/QPs or non-U.S. persons, or otherwise comply with Regulation S, as the case may be), and as may be from time to time adopted by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee.

(g) So long as the Class E Notes remain Outstanding transfers of such Class E Notes shall only be made in accordance with Section 2.6(c) and this Section 2.6(g) upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of (i) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-4 given by the proposed transferee stating that it is a QIB/QP and containing other representations, warranties and agreements of such transferee and (ii) (A) appropriate documentation required under the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations establishing that the beneficial owner of the Class E Notes to be transferred is either not a U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-8BEN or an IRS Form W-8IMY with appropriate attachments) or a U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-9) and (B) if such beneficial owner of Class E Notes to be transferred is treated as a partnership, S-corporation or grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a written representation from such beneficial owner that (1) there will not be any interests in such beneficial owner where substantially all of the value of such interest is attributable to the value of the Class E Notes proposed to be transferred to such beneficial owner, together with the value of any Class E Notes, Holding Preference Shares and Preference Shares already held by such beneficial owner and (2) such beneficial owner is not a part of any arrangement a principal purpose of which is to cause the Class E Notes and Preference Shares to be treated as owned by 100 persons or less within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h). In addition, neither the Trustee nor the Issuer shall recognize any transfers of Class E Notes, and any such proposed transfer shall be null and void, if (a) the proposed transfer will cause the Issuer to have more than ninety-nine beneficial owners (as determined for purposes of the provisions of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h)) of its Class E Notes and Preference Shares unless it receives the consent of all of the Holders of the Preference Shares and an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such transfer, and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such transfer had not been made or (b) such transfer was made pursuant to a trade on an Established Securities Market. The Trustee shall contact the Preference Shares Paying Agent to determine the number of beneficial owners of the Preference Shares. The Trustee shall provide, upon request by the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the number of beneficial owners of the Class E Notes.

(h) If the Notes are issued upon the transfer, exchange, or replacement of Notes bearing the applicable legends in the applicable forms in Exhibit A, as applicable, and if a request is made to remove the legend on the Notes, the legend shall not be removed unless the Trustee and the Applicable Issuers received satisfactory evidence, which may include an Opinion of Counsel acceptable to them, reasonably required by the Applicable Issuers (and which shall by its terms permit reliance by the Trustee), to the effect that neither the legend nor the restrictions on transfer in it are required to ensure that transfers of the Notes comply with the Securities Act, the Investment Company Act, ERISA and the Code. Upon provision of satisfactory evidence, the Trustee or its Authenticating Agent, at the written direction of the Applicable Issuers shall, after due execution by the Applicable Issuers authenticate and deliver Notes that do not bear the applicable legend.

(i) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 2.6 to the contrary:

(i) Restrictions on U.S. Transfers. Transfers of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note that are not made in an offshore transaction pursuant to Regulation S or are made to U.S. Persons, if such transferees take delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note, shall be limited to transfers made pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.6(f)(iii) and Section 2.6(f)(iv).

(ii) Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Note may only be held through Euroclear or Clearstream.

(j) (i) Each Person who becomes a beneficial owner of a Senior Note evidenced by: (A) an interest in a Definitive Note, shall make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in the applicable Transferee Certificate set forth in Exhibit B-1 upon such Person's purchase or other acquisition of the relevant Definitive Note and (B) an interest in a Global Note, shall be deemed to make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in the applicable legends of the Notes set forth in Exhibit A-1 hereto and in the applicable Transferee Certificate set forth in Exhibit B-1 hereto upon such Person's purchase or other acquisition of the relevant Global Note.

(k) The aggregate principal amount of any Global Note may be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee, as custodian for DTC for the Global Note, which adjustments shall be conclusive as to the aggregate principal amount of any Global Note.

Section 2.7. *Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Notes.

If the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, and the relevant Transfer Agent receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Note, and they receive the security or indemnity they require to hold each of them harmless, or if any mutilated Note is surrendered to a Transfer Agent, then, in the absence of notice to the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, or the Transfer Agent that the Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the Applicable Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for the mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Note, a replacement Note, of like tenor and equal principal or face amount.

If, after delivery of the replacement Note or payment on it, a protected purchaser of the predecessor Note presents it for payment, transfer, or exchange, the Applicable Issuers, the Transfer Agent, and the Trustee may recover the replacement Note (or the payment on it) from the Person to whom it was delivered or any Person taking the replacement Note from the Person to whom the replacement Note was delivered or any assignee of that Person, except a protected purchaser, and may recover on the security or indemnity provided therefor to the extent of any loss, damage, cost, or expense incurred by the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, and the Transfer Agent in connection with it.

If the final payment in respect of any mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Note has become payable, the Applicable Issuers in their discretion may, instead of issuing a new Note pay the Note without requiring its surrender except that any mutilated Note shall be surrendered.

Upon the issuance of any new Note under this Section, the Applicable Issuers or the Trustee may require the payment by its holder of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with the issuance and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected with it.

Every new Note issued pursuant to this Section in replacement for any mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Note shall be an original additional contractual obligation of the Applicable Issuers and the new Note shall be entitled to all the benefits of this Indenture equally and proportionately with all other Notes of the same Class duly issued under this Indenture, as applicable.

The provisions of this Section are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Notes.

Section 2.8. Payment of Principal and Interest and Other Amounts; Principal and Interest Rights Preserved; Withholding.

(a) The Notes of each Class shall accrue interest during each Interest Period on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day) at the Applicable Note Interest Rate. Interest shall be payable in arrears on each Payment Date. Payment of interest on each Class of Notes shall be subordinated to the payments of interest on the related Priority Classes and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of interest due on the Class of Deferred Interest Notes that is not available to be paid ("Deferred Interest") in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered "payable" for the purposes of this Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note, or in the case of a partial repayment, on the part repaid, from the date of repayment or its Stated Maturity unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or unless there is some other default with respect to the payments of principal.

To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest, until paid as provided in this Indenture.

(b) The principal of each Note of each Class matures at par and is payable on the Payment Date that is the Stated Maturity for the Class of Notes, unless the unpaid principal of the Note becomes payable at an earlier date by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption, or otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the payment of principal of each Class of Notes:

(i) may only occur after principal on each Class of Notes that is a Priority Class with respect to the Class has been paid in full; and

(ii) is subordinated to the payment on each Payment Date of the principal and interest payable on the Priority Classes, and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, Interest Proceeds may be used to pay principal of the Class E Notes on any Payment Date to the extent necessary to satisfy the Class E Coverage Tests.

(c) Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Section 9.1.

(d) As a condition to the payment of principal of and interest on any Note without the imposition of U.S. withholding tax, the Paying Agent shall require the previous delivery of appropriate properly completed and signed original forms United States federal income tax certifications (generally, an Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a Person that is a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a Person that is not a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) or any other certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, and any Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments on the Note under any present or future law of the United States or any present or future law of any political subdivision of the United States or taxing authority in the United States or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under any such law.

(e) Payments in respect of interest on and principal of any Note shall be made by the Trustee, or by the Irish Paying Agent, if applicable, in U.S. Dollars to the Depository or its designee with respect to a Global Note and to the Holder or its nominee with respect to a Definitive Note and a Class E Note, by wire transfer, as directed by the Holder, in immediately available funds to a U.S. Dollar account maintained by the Depository or its nominee with respect to a Global Note, and to the Holder or its designee with respect to a Definitive Note and a Class E Note. In the case of a Definitive Note and a Class E Note, its Holder has provided written wiring instructions to the Trustee and, if the payment with respect to a Definitive Note is to be made by the Irish Paying Agent, the Irish Paying Agent, on or before the related Record Date.

If appropriate instructions for the wire transfer are not received by the related Record Date, then the payment will be made by check drawn on a U.S. bank mailed to the address of the Holder in the Indenture Register. Upon final payment due on the Maturity of a Note, its Holder shall present and surrender the Note at the office designated by the Trustee on or before the Maturity. If the Trustee and the Applicable Issuers have been furnished the security or indemnity they require to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the certificate, then, in the absence of notice to the Applicable Issuers or the Trustee that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender. Neither the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Share Registrar nor any Paying Agent shall have any responsibility or liability for any aspects of the records maintained by Euroclear, Clearstream, or any of the Agent Members relating to or for payments made thereby on account of beneficial interests in a Global Note.

In the case where any final payment of principal and interest is to be made on any Note (other than on its Stated Maturity and except as otherwise provided in this Indenture), the Trustee, in the name and at the expense of the Applicable Issuers shall, not more than 30 nor less than 10 days before the date on which the payment is to be made, mail (by first-class mail, postage prepaid) to the Persons entitled thereto at their addresses appearing on the Indenture Register, a notice specifying the date on which the payment will be made, the amount of the payment per U.S.$100,000 original principal amount of Notes and the place where the Notes may be presented and surrendered for payment. If the Trustee and the Issuer have been furnished any security or indemnity they require to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the certificate, then, in the absence of notice to the Issuer or the Trustee that the applicable certificate has been acquired by a protected purchaser, final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender of the applicable certificate.

(f) Payments of principal to Holders of the Notes of each Class shall be made in the proportion that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes of the Class registered in the name of each Holder on the applicable Record Date bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of all Notes of the Class on the Record Date.

(g) Interest accrued shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the applicable Interest Period divided by 360.

(h) All reductions in the principal amount of a Note (or one or more predecessor Notes) effected by payments of installments of principal made on any Payment Date or Redemption Date shall be binding on all future Holders of the Note and of any Note issued upon the registration of its transfer, exchange, or replacement, whether or not the payment is noted on the Note.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the obligations of the Applicable Issuers under the Notes and under this Indenture are limited recourse obligations of the Applicable Issuers payable solely from the Collateral and following realization of the assets, application of their proceeds in accordance with this Indenture and the reduction of the proceeds of the Collateral to zero, all obligations of, and any claims against, the Co-Issuers under this Indenture or under the Notes or arising in connection therewith shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. No recourse shall be had against any Officer, director, employee, shareholder, or incorporator of either of the Co-Issuers or their respective successors or assigns for any amounts payable under the Notes or this Indenture. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not (1) prevent recourse to the Collateral for the sums due or to become due under any security, instrument, or agreement that is part of the Collateral or (2) be a waiver, release, or discharge of any indebtedness or obligation evidenced by the Notes or secured by this Indenture until the Collateral have been realized. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not limit the right of any Person to name the Issuer or the Co-Issuer as a party defendant in any Proceeding or in the exercise of any other remedy under the Notes or this Indenture, so long as no judgment in the nature of a deficiency judgment or seeking personal liability is sought or (if obtained) enforced against the person.

(j) If any withholding tax is imposed on the Issuer's payment (or allocations of income) under the Notes to any Noteholder, the tax shall reduce the amount otherwise distributable to the Noteholder. The Trustee is hereby authorized and directed to retain from amounts otherwise distributable to any Noteholder sufficient funds for the payment of any tax that is legally owed, or required by law to be collected, by or on behalf of the Issuer (but the authorization shall not prevent the Trustee or the Issuer from contesting any such tax in appropriate proceedings and withholding payment of the tax, if permitted by law, pending the outcome of the proceedings). The amount of any withholding tax imposed with respect to any Noteholder shall be treated as Cash distributed to the Noteholder when it is withheld by the Trustee and remitted to the appropriate taxing authority. If there is a possibility that withholding tax is payable with respect to a distribution, the Trustee may in its sole discretion withhold the amounts in accordance with this Section 2.8(j). If any Noteholder wishes to apply for a refund of any such withholding tax, the Trustee shall reasonably cooperate with the Noteholder in making the claim by providing information readily available to the Trustee so long as the Noteholder agrees to reimburse the Trustee for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred and provides the Trustee with security reasonably acceptable to the Trustee assuring the reimbursement. The Trustee hereby provides notice to each Noteholder that the failure by the Noteholder to provide the Trustee with appropriate tax certifications may result in amounts being withheld from payments to the Noteholder. Nothing in this Indenture shall impose an obligation on the part of the Trustee to determine the amount of any tax or withholding obligation on the part of the Issuer or in respect of the Notes.

Section 2.9. Persons Considered Owners.

The Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, and any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee may treat as the owner of the Note the Person in whose name any Note is registered on the Indenture Register on the applicable Record Date for the purpose of receiving payments on the Note and on any other date for all other purposes whatsoever (whether or not the Note is overdue), and neither the Issuer, the Co-Issuer nor the Trustee nor any agent of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee shall be affected by notice to the contrary. Pursuant to the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will notify the Trustee, the Share Registrar and the Holding Share Registrar of any Affiliate of the Servicer that owns any of the Transaction Securities.

Section 2.10. Cancellation.

All Notes surrendered for payment, registration of transfer, exchange, or redemption, or lost or stolen, shall be promptly canceled by the Trustee and may not be reissued or resold. No Notes shall be authenticated in lieu of or in exchange for any Notes canceled as provided in this Section 2.10, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture. All canceled Notes held by the Trustee shall be destroyed by the Trustee in accordance with its standard policy unless the Applicable Issuers direct by an Issuer Order delivered to the Trustee prior to cancellation and destruction that they be returned to the Issuer.

Section 2.11. Definitive Notes.

(a) A Global Note deposited with the Depository pursuant to Section 2.2 shall be transferred in the form of a Definitive Note to its beneficial owners only if the transfer complies with Section 2.6 and either

- (i) the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depository for the Global Note or
- (ii) if at any time the Depository ceases to be a Clearing Agency registered under the Exchange Act and, in each case, a successor depository is not appointed by the Co-Issuers within 90 days after the notice.

(b) Any Global Note that is transferable in the form of a Definitive Note to its beneficial owners pursuant to this Section 2.11 shall be surrendered by the Depository to the office of the Trustee's agent located in the City of New York, New York as specified in Section 7.2 (or any other office designated by the Trustee) to be so transferred, in whole or from time to time in part, without charge, and the Applicable Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, upon the transfer of each portion of the Global Note, an equal aggregate principal amount of definitive physical certificates (pursuant to the instructions of the Depository) (each, a "Definitive Note") in authorized denominations. Any Definitive Note delivered in exchange for an interest in a Global Note, as applicable, shall, except as otherwise provided by Section 2.6(j), bear the legends in the applicable portion of Exhibit A-1 and shall be subject to the transfer restrictions referred to in the legends.

(c) The Holder of a Global Note may grant proxies and otherwise authorize any Person, including Agent Members and Persons that may hold interests through Agent Members, to take any action which a Holder is entitled to take under this Indenture or the Senior Notes, as applicable.

(d) Upon the occurrence of either of the events specified in Section 2.11(a)(i) and (ii), the Co-Issuers shall promptly make available to the Trustee a reasonable supply of Definitive Notes in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons.

The Definitive Notes shall be in substantially the same form as the Global Notes, with any changes the Issuer and Trustee agree to and the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange therefor, the same aggregate principal amount of Definitive Notes of authorized denominations.

Section 2.12. *Notes Beneficially Owned by Non-Permitted Holders.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary elsewhere in this Indenture, (i) any transfer of a beneficial interest in any Global Note to a U.S. person (for purposes of this Section 2.12 as defined in Regulation S) that is not a QIB/QP and that is not made pursuant to an applicable exemption under the Securities Act and (ii) any transfer of a beneficial interest in any Class E Note to a Person that is not a QIB/QP, shall be void and any such purported transfer of which the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee has notice may be disregarded by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Trustee for all purposes.

(b) After discovery by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee (and notice by the Trustee or the Co-Issuer to the Issuer, if either of them makes the discovery) that a Person is a Non-Permitted Holder, the Issuer shall promptly send notice to the Non-Permitted Holder demanding that the Non-Permitted Holder transfer its interest to a Person that is not a Non-Permitted Holder within 30 days of the date of the notice. If the Non-Permitted Holder fails to so transfer its Notes or interest in the Notes without further notice to the Non-Permitted Holder, the Issuer may sell the Notes or interest in the Notes to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is not a Non-Permitted Holder on any terms the Issuer chooses. The Issuer, or the Trustee acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select the purchaser by soliciting bids (or by appointing an investment bank at the expense of the Issuer to solicit bids) from brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Notes, and selling the Notes, or interest in the Notes to the highest bidder. However, the Issuer or the Trustee may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion. The Holder of each Note, the beneficial owner of each interest in a Note, the Non-Permitted Holder, and each other Person in the chain of title from the Holder or beneficial owner to the Non-Permitted Holder, by its acceptance of an interest in the Notes agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Trustee to effect the transfers. The proceeds of the sale, net of any commissions, expenses of the Trustee or otherwise, and taxes due in connection with the sale shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted Holder. The terms of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer (or the Trustee acting on its behalf), and the Issuer and the Trustee shall not be liable to any Person having an interest in the Notes sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of its discretion.

Section 2.13 *Tax Purposes

The Issuer agrees, and each Holder and each beneficial owner of a Note, by acceptance of its Note or its interest in a Note, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have agreed, to treat, and shall treat, such Note as unconditional debt of the Issuer for tax, accounting and financial reporting purposes.

The Issuer has a first priority security interest in all Securities Lending Collateral to secure all obligations of Securities Lending Counterparty under the Securities Lending Agreement and a first priority interest in all Synthetic Securities Collateral to secure all obligations of Synthetic Security Counterparty under the Synthetic Securities Agreement.

(iii) The Issuer has not assigned, pledged or otherwise encumbered any interest in the Collateral (or, if any interest in the Collateral has been assigned, pledged or otherwise encumbered, it has been released before the Closing Date or is being released on the Closing Date) other than interests granted pursuant to or permitted by this Indenture.

(iv) The Issuer has full right, and has received all consents and approvals required by the related Underlying Instruments, to grant a security interest in its rights in the Collateral to the Trustee.

(v) Each Collateral Obligation included in the Collateral satisfied the requirements of the definition of "Collateral Obligation" as of the date the Issuer committed to purchase the same or, in the case of the Warehoused Loans, as of the Closing Date.

(vi) All Collateral Obligations, any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion or exchange did not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation, and Eligible Investments (other than, in each case, "general intangibles" within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) have been and will have been credited to one of the Accounts. The securities intermediary for each Account has agreed to treat all assets credited to the Accounts as "financial assets" within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code.

(vii) The Issuer has pledged to the Trustee all of the Issuer's interest in each Collateral Obligation included in the Collateral pursuant to the Granting Clauses of this Indenture and has delivered each Collateral Obligation (including any promissory note and all its other Underlying Instruments to the extent received by the Issuer) to the Trustee or the Custodian as contemplated by Section 3.2.

(viii) Each of the Collateral constitutes "general intangibles," "certificated securities," "instruments," "securities entitlements" or "uncertificated securities," each within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code, or any other category of collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code as to which the Issuer has complied with its obligations under Section 3.3(b).

(ix) The Issuer has caused (or will have caused within 10 days following the Closing Date) the filing of appropriate financing statements in the proper filing offices in the appropriate jurisdictions under applicable law to perfect the security interest in the portion of the Collateral pledged to the Trustee under this Indenture that may be perfected by the filing of financing statements.

(x) The Issuer has not authorized the filing of and is not aware of any financing statements against the Issuer that include a description of collateral covering the Collateral other than any financing statement (A) relating to the security interest granted to the Trustee under this Indenture, (B) that has been terminated or (C) that names the Trustee as the secured party. On the date of this Indenture, the Issuer is not aware of any judgment or Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation or tax lien filings against the Issuer.

(xi) The Issuer has delivered to the Trustee a fully executed agreement pursuant to which the securities intermediary for each Account has agreed to comply with all instructions originated by the Trustee relating to the Account without further consent by the Issuer.

(xii) All original executed copies of each "instrument" (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral have been delivered to the Custodian, to the extent received by the Issuer. The Issuer has received confirmation from the Custodian that the Custodian has credited the instruments to one of the Accounts. None of the instruments that are or evidence the Collateral has any marks or notations indicating that they are then pledged or otherwise assigned to any Person other than the Trustee.

(xiii) The Accounts are not in the name of any Person other than the Issuer or the Trustee. The Issuer has not consented to the securities intermediary of any Account to comply with instructions of any Person other than the Trustee.

(xiv) All "certificated securities" (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral have been delivered to the Custodian, to the extent received by the Issuer, registered in the name of the Custodian or indorsed to the Custodian. The Issuer has received confirmation from the Custodian that the Custodian has credited such certificated securities to one of the Accounts.

(xv) The Issuer has caused all "uncertificated securities" (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral to be registered in the name of the Custodian.

(xvi) Upon grant by the Issuer, the Trustee has a first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral.

The parties to this Indenture shall not waive any of the representations in this Section 3.3, unless the Rating Condition is satisfied in connection with such waiver. The Issuer shall provide each of the Rating Agencies with prompt written notice of any breach of the representations contained in this Section 3.3 upon becoming aware thereof, and shall not waive a breach of any of the representations in this Section 3.3, unless the Rating Condition is satisfied (as determined after any adjustment or withdrawal of the ratings following notice of such breach) in connection with such waiver.

If the Issuer acquires Collateral that is not "general intangibles," "certificated securities," "instruments," "securities entitlements," or "uncertificated securities," each within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code, or another category of collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code as to which the Issuer has complied with its obligations under this Section 3.3(b), then on or before the date on which the Issuer acquires the Collateral, the Issuer (or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer) shall notify S&P and the Trustee (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) of its acquisition or intended acquisition of the Collateral and the Issuer shall represent to S&P and to the Trustee (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) as to the category of the Collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code and shall make any further representations as to the perfection and priority of the security interest in the Collateral Granted under this Indenture acceptable to S&P.

(c) the Co-Issuers have delivered to the Trustee Officer's certificates and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent in this Indenture provided for relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been complied with.

Section 5.2. *Notice of Event of Default; Acceleration of Maturity; Rescission and Annulment.

(a) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Trustee shall give prompt (and in no event later than five Business Days after becoming aware of such event) notice thereof to the Noteholders.

(b) If an Event of Default is continuing (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h)), the Trustee may, with consent of the Majority of the Controlling Class, and shall, upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, declare the principal of all the Notes to be immediately payable by notice to the Applicable Issuers and the Noteholders, and upon that declaration the unpaid principal of all the Notes, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), and other amounts payable under this Indenture, shall become immediately payable. The Replacement Period shall terminate upon a declaration of acceleration (subject to re-commencement pursuant to Section 5.2(c)). If an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h) occurs, all unpaid principal, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), of all the Notes, and other amounts payable under this Indenture, shall automatically become payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Noteholder and the Replacement Period shall terminate automatically (subject to re-commencement pursuant to Section 5.2(c)).

(c) At any time after the declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class by written notice to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may rescind the declaration and its consequences:

(i) The Issuer or the Co-Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:

(A) all unpaid installments of interest and principal on the Notes then due;

(B) to the extent that payment of the interest is lawful, interest on any Deferred Interest and Defaulted Interest at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable;

No such rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right consequent thereon. The Issuer shall not terminate any Hedge Agreement at any time after a declaration of acceleration of Maturity of the Notes has been made, unless such declaration and its consequences may no longer be rescinded and annulled in accordance with this Section 5.2(c) and liquidation of the Collateral has begun.

If a declaration of acceleration is rescinded as described above:

(x) the Replacement Period, if terminated by the declaration, shall re-commence on the date of the rescission (unless the Replacement Period would have otherwise terminated before that date pursuant to clauses (i), (ii), or (iii) of its definition); and

(y) the Trustee shall retain the Collateral in accordance with this Indenture. If the retention of the Collateral is rescinded pursuant to Section 5.5, the Notes may again be accelerated pursuant to Section 5.2(b), notwithstanding any previous rescission of a declaration of acceleration pursuant to this Section 5.2(c)).

No rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right resulting from the Default.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.2 to the contrary, the Notes will not be subject to acceleration by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class or any other Holders solely as a result of the failure to pay any amount due on Notes that are not of the Controlling Class.

Section 5.3. *Collection of Indebtedness and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee.

The Applicable Issuers covenant that if a default occurs in the payment of any principal of or interest when payable on any Note, upon demand of the Trustee or the Holder of any affected Note, the Applicable Issuers shall pay to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Holder of the Note, the whole amount then payable on the Note for principal and interest with interest on the overdue principal and, to the extent that payments of the interest shall be legally enforceable, on overdue installments of interest and all other amounts owing to the Noteholders under this Indenture, at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable, and, in addition, an amount sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection, including the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and the Holders and their agents and counsel.

If the Issuer or the Co-Issuer fails to pay those amounts immediately on demand, the Trustee, in its own name and as Trustee of an express trust, may, and shall at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, institute a Proceeding for the collection of the sums due, may prosecute the Proceeding to judgment or final decree, and may enforce the same against the Applicable Issuers or any other obligor on the Notes and collect the monies determined to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the Collateral.

If an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee may, and shall upon written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Noteholders by any appropriate Proceedings as is deemed most effective (if no direction is received by the Trustee) or as the Trustee may be directed by a Majority of the Controlling Class, to protect and enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Noteholders, whether for the specific enforcement of any agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted in this Indenture, or to enforce any other proper remedy or legal or equitable right vested in the Trustee by this Indenture or by law. The reasonable compensation, costs, expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or paid by the Trustee and its agents and counsel, in connection with such Proceeding, including, without limitation, the exercise of any remedies pursuant to Section 5.4, shall be reimbursed to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.8.

If any Proceedings are pending relating to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any other obligor on the Notes under the Bankruptcy Law or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or if a receiver, assignee, or trustee in bankruptcy or reorganization, liquidator, sequestrator or similar official has been appointed for or taken possession of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or their respective property or any other obligor on the Notes or its property, or if any other comparable Proceedings are pending relating to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or other obligor on the Notes, or the creditors or property of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or other obligor on the Notes, the Trustee, regardless of whether the principal of any Notes is then payable by declaration or otherwise and regardless of whether the Trustee has made any demand pursuant to this Section 5.3, may, by intervention in the Proceedings or otherwise:

(a) file and prove claims for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes, and file any other papers or documents appropriate and take any other appropriate action (including sitting on a committee of creditors) to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for reasonable compensation to the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys, and counsel, and for reimbursement of all expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, except as a result of negligence or bad faith) and of the Noteholders allowed in any Proceedings relating to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes or to the creditors or property of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or other obligor on the Notes;

(b) unless prohibited by applicable law, vote on behalf of the Noteholders in any election of a trustee or a standby trustee in arrangement, reorganization, liquidation or other bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings or Person performing similar functions in comparable Proceedings; and

(c) collect and receive any monies or other property payable to or deliverable on any such claims, and distribute all amounts received with respect to the claims of the Noteholders and of the Trustee on their behalf; and any trustee, receiver or liquidator, custodian or other similar official is authorized by each of the Noteholders to make payments to the Trustee, and, if the Trustee consents to making payments directly to the Noteholders, to pay to the Trustee amounts sufficient to cover reasonable compensation to the Trustee, each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys, and counsel, and all other reasonable expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee except as a result of negligence or bad faith.

Nothing in this Indenture shall authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or vote for or accept or adopt on behalf of the Holder of any Note, any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or any Noteholder, or to authorize the Trustee to vote on the claim of the Holder of any Note in any Proceeding except, as aforesaid, to vote for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy or similar Person.

Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.3 to the contrary, the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Collateral or institute Proceedings in furtherance of the sale or liquidation of the Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.3 except according to Section 5.5(a).

Section 5.4. Remedies.

(a) If an Event of Default is continuing, and the Notes have been declared payable and the declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded, or at any time after the Stated Maturity, the Co-Issuers agree that the Trustee may, and shall, upon written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, to the extent permitted by applicable law, exercise one or more of the following rights:

(i) institute Proceedings for the collection of all amounts then payable on the Notes or otherwise payable under this Indenture, whether by declaration or otherwise, enforce any judgment obtained, and collect from the Collateral any monies adjudged due;

(ii) sell or liquidate all or a portion of the Collateral or interests in it, at one or more public or private sales called and conducted in any manner permitted by law and in accordance with Section 5.17;

(iii) institute Proceedings from time to time for the complete or partial foreclosure of this Indenture with respect to the Collateral;

(iv) exercise any remedies of a secured party under the UCC and take any other appropriate action to protect and enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Noteholders under this Indenture; and

(v) exercise any other rights that may be available at law or in equity;

except that the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Collateral or institute Proceedings in furtherance of the sale or liquidation of the Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.4 except according to Section 5.5(a).

(b) If an Event of Default as described in Section 5.1(f) is continuing the Trustee may, with the consent of, and shall, at the direction of, the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, subject to Section 5.8, institute a Proceeding solely to compel performance of the covenant or agreement or to cure the representation or warranty, the breach of which gave rise to the Event of Default under Section 5.1(f), and enforce any equitable decree or order arising from the Proceeding.

(c) Upon any sale, whether made under the power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, any Holders or the Servicer (subject to the Servicing Agreement) may bid for and purchase any part of the Collateral and, upon compliance with the terms of sale, may hold, retain, possess, or dispose of the Collateral in its or their own absolute right without accountability.

Upon any sale, whether made under the power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, the receipt of the Trustee, or of the Officer making a sale under judicial Proceedings, shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchasers at any sale for their purchase money, and the purchasers shall not be obliged to see to its application.

Any sale, whether under any power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, shall bind the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Noteholders, shall operate to divest all interest whatsoever, either at law or in equity, of each of them in the property sold, and shall be a perpetual bar, both at law and in equity, against each of them and their successors and assigns, and against all Persons claiming through or under them.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, none of the Trustee, the Secured Parties or the Noteholders may, before the date that is one year and one day (or if longer, any applicable preference period plus one day) after the payment in full of all Notes, institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, or liquidation Proceedings, or other Proceedings under the Bankruptcy Law or any similar laws in any jurisdiction. Nothing in this Section 5.4 shall preclude the Trustee or any Secured Party (i) from taking any action before the expiration of that period in (A) any case or Proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or (B) any involuntary insolvency Proceeding filed or commenced by a Person other than a Secured Party or (ii) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of its properties any legal action that is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation Proceeding.

Section 5.5. Optional Retention of Collateral.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, if an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall retain the Collateral, collect, and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Collateral and the Notes, and any Hedge Agreements (other than amounts received under a Hedge Agreement that are used in putting a Replacement Hedge in place), in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Article 10 and Article 12 unless:

(i) the Trustee, in consultation with the Servicer, determines that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) of Section 11.1(a)(i) and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination; or

The Trustee shall give written notice of the retention of the Collateral to the Issuer with a copy to the Co-Issuer and the Servicer. So long as the Event of Default is continuing, any retention pursuant to this Section 5.5(a) may be rescinded at any time when the conditions specified in clause (i) or (ii) exist.

(b) Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) shall be construed to require the Trustee to sell the Collateral if the conditions in clause (i) or (ii) of Section 5.5(a) are not satisfied. Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) shall be construed to require the Trustee to retain the Collateral if prohibited by applicable law.

(c) In determining whether the condition specified in Section 5.5(a)(i) exists, the Trustee, in consultation with the Servicer, shall obtain bid prices with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one market maker, that market maker and if there is no market maker, from a pricing service) selected and specified by the Servicer to the Trustee in writing, at the time making a market in those securities, and shall compute the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security. In addition, for the purposes of determining issues relating to the valuation of the Collateral, the satisfaction of the conditions specified in this Indenture, the execution of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral, and the execution of a sale or other liquidation of the Collateral in connection with a determination whether the condition specified in Section 5.5(a)(i) exists, the Trustee may retain, at the Issuer's expense, and rely on an opinion of an Independent investment banking firm of national reputation, which may be any of the Placement Agents.

The Trustee shall deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Noteholders, the Co-Issuers, the Servicer and the Hedge Counterparties a report stating the results of any determination required pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i). The Trustee shall make the determinations required by Section 5.5(a)(i) after an Event of Default at the request of a Majority of the Controlling Class at any time during which the Trustee retains the Collateral pursuant to Section 5.5(a). The Trustee shall obtain (at the Issuer's expense) a letter of a firm of Independent certified public accountants confirming the accuracy of each calculation made by the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) and certifying their conformity to the requirements of this Indenture.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, the Trustee may not, and the Noteholders representing the requisite percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes specified in Section 5.4 or 5.5, may not instruct the Trustee to sell or liquidate or (except in connection with the concurrent execution of a Replacement Hedge) terminate any Hedge Agreement during the continuance of an Event of Default until all Collateral other than the Hedge Agreements has been sold or liquidated and its proceeds applied in accordance with this Indenture.

(e) Collateral may not be sold or liquidated pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) after the last date on which the sale or liquidation is permitted under Section 5.5(a)(i) with respect to a determination made pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) (the last permitted date being determined by the Trustee under Section 5.5(a)(i)), unless a new determination is made in accordance with Section 5.5(a)(i) and the Collateral is sold or liquidated before the last sale date permitted in accordance with the new determination.

Section 5.6. *Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes.

All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or under any of the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Notes or their production in any trial or other Proceeding relating to them, and any Proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be applied as provided in Section 5.7.

In any Proceedings brought by the Trustee (and any Proceedings involving the interpretation of any provision of this Indenture to which the Trustee shall be a party) the Trustee shall be held to represent all the Noteholders.

Section 5.7. *Application of Money Collected.

Any money collected by the Trustee with respect to the Notes pursuant to this Article 5 and any money that may then be held or subsequently received by the Trustee with respect to the Notes under this Indenture shall be applied, subject to Section 13.1 and in accordance with Section 11.1, at the dates fixed by the Trustee.

Section 5.8. *Limitation on Suits.

No Holder of any Note shall have any right to institute any Proceedings, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy under this Indenture, unless:

(a) the Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of an Event of Default;

(b) the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings with respect to the Event of Default in its own name as Trustee under this Indenture and the Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with the request;

(c) the Trustee for 30 days after its receipt of the notice, request and offer of indemnity has failed to institute a Proceeding; and

(d) no direction inconsistent with the written request has been given to the Trustee during the 30 day period by a Majority of the Controlling Class.

No Noteholder shall have any right in any manner whatsoever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect the rights of any other Noteholders of the same Class or to obtain or to seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders of Notes of the same Class or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner provided in this Indenture and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Notes of the same Class subject to and in accordance with Section 13.1 and the Priority of Payments or Section 11.2, as the case may be.

If the Trustee receives conflicting or inconsistent requests and indemnity from two or more groups of Holders of the Controlling Class, each representing less than a Majority of the Controlling Class, the Trustee shall take the action requested by the Holders of the largest percentage in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture but subject to Section 6.3(e).

Section 5.9. *Unconditional Rights of Noteholders.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture other than this Section 5.9 and Sections 2.8(i), 5.4(d), and 13.1, the Holder of any Note shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of the principal of and interest on the Note as it comes due in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Section 13.1, and, subject to Section 5.8, to institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment, and that right shall not be impaired without the consent of the Holder. Noteholders ranking junior to Notes still Outstanding may not institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until no Note ranking senior to their Note remains Outstanding, subject to Section 5.8, and shall not be impaired without the consent of any such Holder. For so long as any Notes are Outstanding, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be entitled to any payment of any amount for payments to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents, to the extent legally permitted, on a claim against the Issuer unless there are sufficient funds to pay such amounts to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Section 5.10. *Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If the Trustee or the Holder of any Note has instituted any Proceeding to enforce any right under this Indenture and the Proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to the Holder, then, subject to any determination in the Proceeding, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Holder shall be restored to their former positions under this Indenture, and thereafter all rights of the Trustee and the Holder shall continue as though no Proceeding had been instituted.

Section 5.11. *Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

No right in this Indenture conferred on or reserved to the Trustee or to the Noteholders is intended to be exclusive of any other right, and every right shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right given under this Indenture or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right under this Indenture, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right.

Section 5.12. *Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

No delay or omission of the Trustee or the Holder of any Note to exercise any right accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair the right or be a waiver of the Event of Default or an acquiescence in it or of a subsequent Event of Default. Every right given by this Article 5 or by law to the Trustee or to the Noteholders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the applicable Noteholders.

Section 5.13. Control by Majority of the Controlling Class.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, during the continuance of an Event of Default, a Majority of the Controlling Class may institute and direct the time, method and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any right of the Trustee with respect to the Notes if:

(i) the direction does not conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of this Indenture; and

(ii) the Trustee has been indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction (and the Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability unless it has received an indemnity against the liability).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, only a Majority of the Controlling Class may direct proceedings with respect to remedies specified in Section 5.4(a) or otherwise with respect to the Collateral.

(b) The Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with a direction under Section 5.13(a). Subject to Section 6.1, the Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability (unless the Trustee has received an indemnity against the liabilities reasonably satisfactory to it) and during the continuance of an Event of Default that has not been cured, or waived, the Trustee shall, before receiving directions from a Majority of the Controlling Class, exercise the rights expressly vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise with respect to the Event of Default as is required by Section 6.1(b).

(c) Any direction to the Trustee to undertake a Sale of the Collateral shall be in accordance with Section 5.4 or 5.5.

Section 5.14. Waiver of Past Defaults.

Before a judgment or decree for payment of any money due has been obtained by the Trustee, as provided in this Article 5, a Majority of the Controlling Class may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes, with respect to the Notes waive any past Default and its consequences, except a Default:

(a) in the payment of the principal or Redemption Price of any Note or in the payment of interest (including Defaulted Interest, Deferred Interest, and any interest on Defaulted Interest or Deferred Interest) on the Notes;

(b) with respect to a provision of this Indenture that under Section 8.2 cannot be modified or amended without the waiver or consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected by the modification or amendment;

(c) in the payment of amounts due to the Servicer, the Trustee or the Hedge Counterparty, which may only be waived with the consent of the affected party; or

(d) arising as a result of an Event of Default described in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h).

Upon any such waiver, the Default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising from it shall be cured, for every purpose of this Indenture, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereto. The Trustee shall promptly give written notice of any such waiver to the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Noteholder.

Section 5.15. *Undertaking for Costs.

All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by its acceptance of its Note agrees, that in any suit for the enforcement of any right under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee or the Servicer for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee or for any action taken or omitted by the Servicer, as applicable, any court may in its discretion require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and that the court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 5.15 shall not apply to any suit instituted by the Trustee or the Servicer, to any suit instituted by any Holder, or group of Holders, of Notes holding in the aggregate more than 10% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, or to any suit instituted by any Noteholder for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note or any other amount payable under this Indenture after the applicable Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, after the applicable Redemption Date).

Section 5.16. *Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws.

To the extent that they may lawfully do so, the Co-Issuers covenant that they will not at any time insist on, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law or any valuation, appraisal, redemption, or marshalling law or rights, in each case wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, that may affect the covenants, the performance of, or any remedies under this Indenture. To the extent that they may lawfully do so, the Co-Issuers expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such law or rights, and covenant that they shall not delay or impede the execution of any power in this Indenture granted to the Trustee or the Noteholders but will permit the execution of every power as though the law had not been enacted or rights created.

Section 5.17. *Sale of Collateral.

(a) The power to effect any sale (a "Sale") of any portion of the Collateral pursuant to Sections 5.4 and 5.5 shall not be exhausted by any one or more Sales as to any portion of the Collateral remaining unsold, but shall continue unimpaired until the entire Collateral is sold or all amounts secured by the Collateral have been paid. The Trustee may upon notice to the Noteholders and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), and shall, at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class with respect to Collateral, from time to time postpone any Sale by public announcement made at the time and place of the Sale. The Trustee waives its rights to any amount fixed by law as compensation for any Sale. The Trustee may deduct the reasonable expenses (including the reasonable fees and expenses of its agents and attorneys) incurred by it in connection with a Sale from its proceeds notwithstanding Section 6.8.

(b) The Trustee may bid for and acquire any portion of the Collateral in connection with a public Sale of the Collateral, and may pay all or part of the purchase price by crediting against amounts owing on the Notes or other amounts secured by the Collateral all or part of the net proceeds of the Sale after deducting the reasonable expenses incurred by the Trustee in connection with the Sale notwithstanding Section 6.8. The Notes need not be produced to complete any Sale, or for the net proceeds of the Sale to be credited against amounts owing on the Notes. The Trustee may hold, lease, operate, manage or otherwise deal with any property so acquired in any manner permitted by law in accordance with this Indenture.

(c) If any portion of the Collateral consists of securities issued without registration under the Securities Act ("Unregistered Securities"), the Trustee may seek an Opinion of Counsel, or, if no Opinion of Counsel can be obtained, seek a no action position from the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other relevant federal or state regulatory authorities, regarding the legality of a public or private Sale of the Unregistered Securities.

(d) The Trustee shall execute and deliver an appropriate instrument of transfer transferring its interest in any portion of the Collateral in connection with its Sale. In addition, the Trustee is irrevocably appointed the agent and attorney-in-fact of the Issuer to transfer its interest in any portion of the Collateral in connection with its Sale, and to take all action necessary to effect the Sale. No purchaser or transferee at a Sale shall be bound to ascertain the Trustee's authority, to inquire into the satisfaction of any conditions precedent, or see to the application of any monies.

Section 5.18. *Action on the Notes.

The Trustee's right to seek and recover judgment on the Notes or under this Indenture shall not be affected by the seeking or obtaining of or application for any other relief under or with respect to this Indenture. Neither the lien of this Indenture nor any rights or remedies of the Trustee or the Noteholders shall be impaired by the recovery of any judgment by the Trustee against the Issuer or by the levy of any execution under the judgment on any portion of the Collateral or on any of the assets of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer.

ARTICLE 6

THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.1. *Certain Duties and Responsibilities.

(a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default:

(i) the Trustee undertakes to perform the duties and only the duties specifically provided in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(ii) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, on certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture; the Trustee shall examine any certificates or opinions that by any provision of this Indenture are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee to determine whether or not they substantially conform on their face to the requirements of this Indenture and shall promptly notify the party delivering the same if the certificate or opinion does not conform. If a corrected form has not been delivered to the Trustee within 15 days after the notice from the Trustee, the Trustee shall so notify the Noteholders and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares).

(b) If the Trustee has actual knowledge that an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall, before the receipt of directions from a Majority of the Controlling Class, exercise the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise, as a prudent Person would use under the circumstances in the conduct of the Person's own affairs.

(c) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(i) this subsection shall not be construed to limit the effect of subsection (a) of this Section 6.1;

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Trust Officer, unless it is proven that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or the Servicer in accordance with this Indenture or a Majority (or the other percentage required or permitted by this Indenture) of the Controlling Class (or other Class if required or permitted by this Indenture) relating to the time, method, and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee, under this Indenture; and

(iv) no provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties under this Indenture, or in the exercise of any of its rights contemplated under this Indenture, if it has reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of the funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against the risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it; provided that the reasonable costs of performing its ordinary services under this Indenture shall not be deemed a "financial liability" for purposes hereof.

(d) For all purposes under this Indenture, the Trustee shall not have notice or knowledge of any Event of Default described in Section 5.1(d) through 5.1(i) or any Default described in Section 5.1(e) through 5.1(i) unless a Trust Officer assigned to and working in the Corporate Trust Office has actual knowledge of it or unless written notice of any event that is in fact the an Event of Default or Default is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office, and the notice references the Notes generally, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Collateral or this Indenture. For purposes of determining the Trustee's responsibility and liability under this Indenture, whenever reference is made in this Indenture to an Event of Default or a Default, the reference shall be construed to refer only to an Event of Default or Default of which the Trustee has notice as described in this Section 6.1.

(e) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to this Section 6.1 and Section 6.3.

Section 6.2. Notice of Default.

Promptly (and in no event later than five Business Days) after the occurrence of any Default known to the Trustee or after any declaration of acceleration has been made or delivered to the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.2, the Trustee shall transmit notice of all Defaults under this Indenture known to the Trustee, unless the Default has been cured or waived, and of the declaration by mail to the Servicer and the Co-Issuers, each Rating Agency, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and to all Noteholders, as their names and addresses appear on the Indenture Register, the Irish Stock Exchange, for so long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, and, upon

(e) the Trustee need not exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Noteholders pursuant to this Indenture, unless the Holders have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs and liabilities that might reasonably be incurred by it in compliance with the request or direction;

(f) the Trustee need not make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, note or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may, and upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, subject to Section 6.3(e), shall, make any the further inquiry or investigation into the facts or matters that it deems appropriate or as it is directed, and the Trustee shall be entitled, on reasonable prior notice to the Co-Issuers and the Servicer, to examine the books and records relating to the Notes, the Collateral, personally or by agent or attorney, during the Co-Issuers' or the Servicer's normal business hours. The Trustee shall, and shall cause its agents to, hold in confidence all such information, except to the extent (i) disclosure may be required by law by any regulatory or administrative authority and (ii) that the Trustee, in its sole judgment, determines that disclosure is consistent with its obligations under this Indenture; provided, however,

(j) the Trustee may request and receive (and rely on) instruction from the Issuer, the Servicer, or the accountants identified in the Accountants' Certificate (and in the absence of its receipt of timely instruction from them, may obtain from an Independent accountant at the expense of the Issuer) as to the application of GAAP to the extent any defined term in this Indenture, or any calculation required to be made or determined by the Trustee under this Indenture, is dependent on or defined by reference to United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), in any instance;

(k) the permissive rights of the Trustee to take or refrain from taking any actions enumerated in this Indenture are not duties;

(l) the Trustee is not responsible for the accuracy of the books and records of, or for any acts or omissions of, the Depository, any Transfer Agent, Custodian, Securities Intermediary, Collateral Administrator, Clearstream, Euroclear, Calculation Agent or any Paying Agent (in each case, other than the Bank acting in that capacity);

(m) in purchasing or disposing of any asset permitted by this Indenture, the Trustee is authorized to deal with itself (in its individual capacity) or with any one or more of its Affiliates, whether it or the Affiliate is acting as a subagent of the Trustee or for any third Person or dealing as principal for its own account. If otherwise qualified, obligations of the Bank or any of its Affiliates shall qualify as Eligible Investments under this Indenture; and

The recitals contained in this Indenture and in the Notes, other than the Certificate of Authentication, shall be taken as the statements of the Applicable Issuers. The Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture (except as may be made with respect to the validity of the Trustee's obligations under this Indenture), the Collateral or the Notes. Section 6.6. *Acquisition of Class E Notes and Preference Shares

The Trustee, in its individual or any other capacity, agrees that after the initial distribution of the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares, neither the Trustee nor any of its affiliates (as defined in the Plan Asset Regulation) will acquire any Class E Notes or Preference Shares (including pursuant to a Maturity Extension and the Amendment Buy-Out Option) unless such acquisition would not, as determined by the Trustee in reliance on representations made in the applicable transfer certificates with respect thereto, result in persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of any of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares immediately after such acquisition (determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation, this Indenture and the Preference Share Documents). Any Class E Notes or Preference Shares held as principal by the Trustee or any of its affiliates shall be disregarded and shall not be treated as outstanding for purposes of determining compliance with such 25% limitation to the extent that such person has represented that it is not a Benefit Plan Investor.

Section 6.7. *Money Held in Trust.

Money held by the Trustee under this Indenture shall be held in trust to the extent required in this Indenture. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it under this Indenture except as otherwise agreed on with the Issuer and except to the extent of income or other gain on assets that are deposits in or certificates of deposit of the Bank in its commercial capacity and income or other gain actually received by the Trustee on Eligible Investments. Under no circumstances shall the Trustee be responsible for any losses on assets purchased in accordance with an Issuer Order or a written order or request by the Servicer, unless such asset is purchased in an obligation of the Trustee in its corporate capacity.

Section 6.8. *Compensation and Reimbursement.

(a) The Issuer agrees:

(i) to pay the Trustee on each Payment Date reasonable compensation for all services rendered by it under this Indenture in accordance with its letter agreement with the Trustee (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(ii) except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture or in its letter agreement with the Trustee, to reimburse the Trustee in a timely manner upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with this Indenture (including securities transaction charges and the reasonable compensation and expenses and disbursements of its agents and legal counsel and of any accounting firm or investment banking firm employed by the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.4, 5.5, 10.5 or 10.7, except any such expense, disbursement or advance attributable to its negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith) but with respect to securities transaction charges, only to the extent they have not been waived during a Due Period due to the

Trustee's receipt of a payment from a financial institution with respect to certain Eligible Investments, as specified by the Servicer;

(iii) to indemnify the Trustee and its officers, directors, employees and agents for any loss, liability or expense incurred without negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith on their part, arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust, including the costs and expenses of defending themselves (including reasonable attorney's fees and costs) against any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of their powers or duties under this Indenture; and

(iv) to pay the Trustee reasonable additional compensation together with its expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and costs) for any collection action taken pursuant to Section 6.14.

(b) The Trustee shall receive amounts pursuant to this Section 6.8 as provided in Sections 11.1(a)(i) and (ii) but only to the extent that funds are available for their payment. Subject to Section 6.10, the Trustee shall continue to serve as Trustee under this Indenture notwithstanding the fact that the Trustee has not received amounts due to it under this Indenture. No direction by the Noteholders shall affect the right of the Trustee to collect amounts owed to it under this Indenture. If on any date when a fee is payable to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture insufficient funds are available for its payment any portion of a fee not so paid shall be deferred and payable on the next date on which a fee is payable and sufficient funds are available for it.

(c) The Trustee agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy for the non-payment to the Trustee of any amounts provided by this Section 6.8 until at least one year and one day, or if longer the applicable preference period then in effect plus one day, after the payment in full of all Notes issued under this Indenture and the payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent of all amounts payable with respect to the Preference Shares in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Nothing in this Section 6.8(c) shall prohibit or otherwise prevent the Trustee from filing proofs of claim in any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceeding.

Section 6.9. *Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility.

There shall at all times be a Trustee under this Indenture that is an Independent entity organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any state of the United States, authorized under those laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least U.S.$200,000,000, subject to supervision or examination by federal or state banking authority, having a rating of at least "Baa1" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) by Moody's and at least "BBB+" by S&P, and having an office within the United States. In addition, the Trustee shall not be "affiliated" (within the meaning of Rule 405 under the Securities Act) with either of the Co-Issuers or any person involved in the organization or operation of either of the Co-Issuers and shall not provide credit or credit enhancement to either of the Co-Issuers. If the Trustee publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of its supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section 6.9, the combined capital and surplus of the Trustee shall be its combined capital and surplus in its most recent published report of condition. If at any time the Trustee ceases to be eligible in accordance with this Section 6.9, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.10.

Section 6.10. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article 6 shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.11. The indemnification in favor of the Trustee shall survive any resignation or removal of the Trustee.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving not less than 30 days written notice to the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, the Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency. Upon receiving the notice of resignation, the Co-Issuers shall at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class promptly appoint a successor trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.9, by written instrument, in duplicate, executed by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer and an Authorized Officer of the Co-Issuer, one copy of which shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and one copy to the successor Trustee, together with a copy to each Noteholder, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares) and the Servicer. If no successor Trustee has been appointed and an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee has not been delivered to the Trustee within 60 days after the giving of the notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee or any Noteholder, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.9.

(c) The Trustee may be removed (i) at any time by an Act of a Majority of the Controlling Class or (ii) by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, delivered to the Trustee and to the Co-Issuers.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee ceases to be eligible under Section 6.9 and fails to resign after written request by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class; or

(ii) the Trustee becomes incapable of acting or is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver or liquidator of the Trustee or of its property appointed or any public officer takes charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then, in any such case (subject to Section 6.10(a)), (A) the Co-Issuers, by Issuer Order (as directed by Board Resolution), may, and at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, remove the Trustee or (B) subject to Section 5.15, or any Holder may, on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee is removed or becomes incapable of acting, or if a vacancy occurs in the office of the Trustee for any reason (other than resignation), the Co-Issuers, by Issuer Order (as directed by Board Resolution) or at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If the Co-Issuers fail to appoint a successor Trustee within 60 days after the removal or incapability or the occurrence of the vacancy, a successor Trustee may be appointed by a Majority of the Controlling Class by written instrument delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee. The successor Trustee so appointed shall, upon its acceptance of its appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede any successor Trustee proposed by the Co-Issuers. If no successor Trustee has been so appointed by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class and accepted appointment pursuant to Section 6.11, subject to Section 5.15, then the Trustee to be replaced, or any Holder, may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Co-Issuers shall give prompt notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee by mailing written notice of the event by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the Servicer, to each Rating Agency, to the Noteholders as their names and addresses appear in the Indenture Register, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and to the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares). Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office. If the Co-Issuers fail to mail the notice within ten days after acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee, the successor Trustee shall cause the notice to be given at the expense of the Co-Issuers.

Section 6.11. *Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

Every successor Trustee appointed under this Indenture shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the Co-Issuers and the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting its appointment. Upon delivery of the required instruments, the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and the successor Trustee, without any further act, shall become vested with all the rights and obligations of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Co-Issuers or a Majority of any Class of Notes or the successor Trustee, the retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of any amounts then due to it, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to the successor Trustee all the rights and obligations of the retiring Trustee, and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to the successor Trustee all property and money held by the retiring Trustee under this Indenture. Upon request of any successor Trustee, the Co-Issuers shall execute any instruments to more fully and certainly vest in and confirm to the successor Trustee all the rights and obligations of the Trustee under this Indenture.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of its acceptance the successor is qualified and eligible under Section 6.9 and either (a) each Rating Agency has been notified and the successor has long-term debt rated within the four highest rating categories by each Rating Agency, or (b) if not rated within the four highest categories by each Rating Agency, the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto.

Section 6.12. *Merger, Conversion, Consolidation, or Succession to Business of Trustee.

Any entity into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee is a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under this Indenture (and of the Bank under all of its other capacities under this Indenture, including as Custodian, Securities Intermediary, Indenture Registrar and Paying Agent) without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. If any of the Notes have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion or consolidation to the authenticating Trustee may adopt the authentication and deliver the Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if the successor Trustee had itself authenticated the Notes.

Section 6.13. Co-Trustees.

At any time, to meet the legal requirements of any jurisdiction in which any part of the Collateral may at the time be located, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may appoint a co-trustee (subject to the approval of the Rating Agencies) to act jointly with the Trustee, with respect to all or any part of the Collateral, with the power to file proofs of claim and take any other actions pursuant to Section 5.6 in this Indenture and to make claims and enforce rights of action on behalf of the Noteholders, as the Holders themselves have the right to do, subject to the other provisions of this Section 6.13.

The Co-Issuers shall join with the Trustee in the execution, delivery and performance of all instruments and agreements necessary or proper to appoint a co-trustee. If the Co-Issuers do not join in the appointment within 15 days after they receive a request to do so, the Trustee may make the appointment.

Any instruments to more fully confirm a co-trustee's appointment shall, on request, be executed, acknowledged and delivered by the Co-Issuers. The Co-Issuers agree to pay (but only from and to the extent of the Collateral), to the extent funds are available therefor under Section 11.1(a)(i)(1), any reasonable fees and expenses in connection with the appointment.

Every co-trustee shall, to the extent permitted by law, but to that extent only, be appointed subject to the following terms:

- (a) the Notes shall be authenticated and delivered and all rights and obligations under this Indenture in respect of the custody of securities, cash and other personal property held by, or required to be deposited or pledged with, the Trustee under this Indenture, shall be exercised solely by the Trustee;
- (b) the rights and obligations conferred or imposed on the Trustee in respect of any property covered by the appointment of a co-trustee shall be conferred or imposed on and exercised or performed by the Trustee or by the Trustee and the co-trustee jointly as provided in the instrument appointing the co-trustee;
- (c) the Trustee at any time, by an instrument in writing executed by it, with the concurrence of the Co-Issuers evidenced by an Issuer Order, may accept the resignation of or remove any co-trustee appointed under this Section 6.13, and if an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall have the power to accept the resignation of, or remove, any co-trustee without the concurrence of the Co-Issuers. A successor to any co-trustee so resigned or removed may be appointed in the manner provided in this Section 6.13;
- (d) no co-trustee under this Indenture shall be personally liable because of any act or omission of the Trustee under this Indenture;
- (e) the Trustee shall not be liable because of any act or omission of a co-trustee; and
- (f) any Act of Noteholders delivered to the Trustee shall be deemed to have been delivered to each co-trustee.

Section 6.14. Certain Duties of Trustee Related to Delayed Payment of Proceeds.

If in any month the Trustee has not received a payment with respect to any Pledged Obligation on its Due Date:

(a) the Trustee shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Servicer in writing, and

(b) unless the payment is received by the Trustee within three Business Days (or the end of the applicable grace period for the payment, if longer) after the notice, or unless the Issuer, in its absolute discretion (but only to the extent permitted by Section 10.2(a)), makes provision for the payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with Section 10.2(a), the Trustee shall request the issuer of the Pledged Obligation, the trustee under the related Underlying Instrument, or paying agent designated by either of them to make the payment as soon as practicable after the request but in no event later than three Business Days after the date of the request. If the payment is not made within that time period, the Trustee, subject to clause (iv) of Section 6.1(c), shall take the action directed by the Servicer in writing. Any such action shall be without prejudice to any right to claim a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture. If the Issuer or the Servicer requests a release of a Pledged Obligation or delivers a Collateral Obligation in connection with any such action under the Servicing Agreement, the release or substitution shall be subject to Section 10.6 and Article 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Trustee shall deliver to the Issuer or its designee any payment with respect to any Pledged Obligation or any Collateral Obligation received after its Due Date to the extent the Issuer previously made provisions for the payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with this Section 6.14 and the payment shall not be part of the Collateral.

Section 6.15. Authenticating Agents.

Upon the request of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee shall, and if the Trustee so chooses the Trustee may, appoint one or more Authenticating Agents with power to act on its behalf and subject to its direction in the authentication of the Notes in connection with issuance, transfers, and exchanges under Sections 2.4, 2.5, 2.6, 2.7, and 8.5, as fully to all intents and purposes as though each Authenticating Agent had been expressly authorized by those Sections to authenticate the Notes. For all purposes of this Indenture, the authentication of Notes by an Authenticating Agent pursuant to this Section 6.15 shall be the authentication of the Notes "by the Trustee."

Any Authenticating Agent may at any time resign by giving written notice of resignation to the Trustee and the Issuer. The Trustee may at any time terminate the agency of any Authenticating Agent by giving written notice of termination to the Authenticating Agent and the Co-Issuers.

The Co-Issuers agree to pay to each Authenticating Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for its services, and reimbursement for its reasonable expenses relating to its services as an Administrative Expense; provided, however, that if the Trustee elects to appoint an Authenticating Agent without the approval or request of the Co-Issuers, then the Trustee shall pay such compensation and reimbursement. Sections 2.9, 6.4, and 6.5 shall be applicable to any Authenticating Agent.

Section 6.16. Fiduciary for Noteholders Only; Agent for Secured Parties.

With respect to the security interest created under this Indenture, the delivery of any Pledged Obligation to the Trustee is to the Trustee as representative of the Noteholders and agent for the other Secured Parties. In furtherance of the foregoing, the possession by the Trustee of any Pledged Obligation and the endorsement to or registration in the name of the Trustee of any Pledged Obligation (including as entitlement holder of the Custodial Account) are all undertaken by the Trustee in its capacity as representative of the Noteholders and agent for the other Secured Parties.

Section 6.17. Representations and Warranties of the Bank.

The Bank represents and warrants as follows for the benefit of the Noteholders:

- (a) Organization. The Bank has been duly organized and is validly existing as a national banking association and has the power to conduct its business and affairs as a trustee.
- (b) Authorization; Binding Obligations. The Bank has the corporate power and authority to perform the duties and obligations of trustee under this Indenture. The Bank has taken all necessary corporate action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Indenture, and all of the documents required to be executed by the Bank pursuant to this Indenture. Upon execution and delivery by the Bank, this Indenture will be the valid and legally binding obligation of the Bank enforceable in accordance with its terms.
- (c) Eligibility. The Bank is eligible under Section 6.9 to serve as Trustee under this Indenture.

Section 6.18. Additional Reporting Requirements.

If the Placement Agents elect to enter into a posting dealer agreement pursuant to Section 7.20, upon the effectiveness of the posting dealer agreement, the Issuer shall provide to The Bond Market Association certain documents for posting in the Repository as mutually agreed between the Servicer and the Placement Agents.

If the Placement Agents have entered into a posting dealer agreement, as promptly as possible following the execution of any supplemental indenture under Article 8, the Trustee at the expense of the Issuer shall deliver a copy of such supplemental indenture to the Repository in the manner described in Section 14.3(a)(viii).

ARTICLE 7

COVENANTS

Section 7.1. Payment of Principal and Interest.

The Applicable Issuers shall pay the principal of and interest on the Notes in accordance with the Notes and this Indenture.

The Issuer shall, subject to the Priority of Payments, reimburse the Co-Issuer for any amounts paid by the Co-Issuer pursuant to the Senior Notes or this Indenture. The Co-Issuer shall not reimburse the Issuer for any amounts paid by the Issuer pursuant to the Notes or this Indenture.

Amounts properly withheld under the Code or other applicable law by any Person from a payment to any Holder shall be considered as having been paid by the Applicable Issuers to the Holder for all purposes of this Indenture.

Section 7.2. Maintenance of Office or Agency.

The Co-Issuers appoint the Trustee as a Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and interest on the Notes. The Co-Issuers appoint U.S. Bank National Association, Corporate Trust Services, One Federal Street, 3rd Floor, Mailcode: EX-MA-FED, Boston, Massachusetts 02110-2004, Attn: CDO Unit — Red River CLO Ltd., as the Co-Issuers' agent where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Notes or this Indenture may be served and where the Notes may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

The Co-Issuers may at any time and from time to time vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent or appoint any additional agents for all of these purposes.

The Co-Issuers shall maintain in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, an office or agency where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Notes and this Indenture may be served, which office will initially be the office of U.S. Bank Trust National Association, an Affiliate of the Trustee, located at 100 Wall Street, New York, New York 10005, and an office or agency outside of the United States where the Notes may be presented and surrendered for payment.

No paying agent shall be appointed in a jurisdiction that subjects payments on the Notes to withholding tax.

So long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, the Co-Issuers shall maintain in Ireland a Paying Agent and an office or agency where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Senior Notes and this Indenture may be served and where the Senior Notes may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

The Co-Issuers appoint, for so long as any Class of Senior Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, AIB International Financial Services Ltd. (the "Irish Paying Agent") as Paying Agent in Ireland with respect to the Senior Notes, for the payment of principal, interest and other distributions on the Senior Notes and as the Co-Issuers' agent where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Senior Notes or this Indenture may be served. If the Irish Paying Agent is replaced at any time when any Class of Senior Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, notice of the appointment of any replacement shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange as promptly as practicable after the appointment. The Co-Issuers shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee, each Rating Agency, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and the Holders of the Senior Notes of the appointment or termination of any such agent and of the location and any change in the location of any such office or agency.

If at any time the Co-Issuers fail to maintain any required office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, or outside the United States, or fail to furnish the Trustee with their addresses, notices and demands may be served on the Co-Issuers.

Section 7.3. *Money for Note Payments to be Held in Trust.

All payments of amounts payable with respect to any Notes that are to be made from amounts withdrawn from the Payment Account shall be made on behalf of the Applicable Issuers by the Trustee or a Paying Agent with respect to payments on the Notes.

When the Applicable Issuers have a Paying Agent that is not also the Indenture Registrar, they shall furnish not later than the fifth calendar day after each Record Date a list in the form the Paying Agent reasonably requests, of the names and addresses of the Holders and of the certificate numbers of individual Notes held by each Holder.

Whenever the Applicable Issuers have a Paying Agent other than the Trustee, they shall, on or before the Business Day before each Payment Date or Redemption Date direct the Trustee to deposit on the Payment Date with the Paying Agent an aggregate sum sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due (to the extent funds are then available for that purpose in the Payment Account), that sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled to it and (unless the Paying Agent is the Trustee) the Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee of its action or failure so to act. Any monies deposited with a Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) in excess of an amount sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due on the Notes with respect to which the deposit was made shall be paid over by the Paying Agent to the Trustee for application in accordance with Article 10.

Additional or successor Paying Agents shall be appointed by Issuer Order with written notice of the appointment to the Trustee. So long as Notes of any Class are rated by a Rating Agency any Paying Agent must either have a long-term debt rating of "Aa3" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or higher by Moody's and "AA-" or higher by S&P or a short-term debt rating of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) by Moody's and "A-1+" by S&P or the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency must be satisfied with respect to its appointment. If a successor Paying Agent ceases to have a long-term debt rating of "Aa3" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or higher by Moody's and "AA-" or higher by S&P or a short-term debt rating of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) by Moody's and a short-term debt rating of "A-1+" by S&P, the Co-Issuers shall promptly remove the Paying Agent and appoint a successor Paying Agent. The Co-Issuers shall not appoint any Paying Agent that is not, at the time of the appointment, a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision and examination by federal or state or national banking authorities. The Co-Issuers shall cause each Paying Agent other than the Trustee to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which the Paying Agent agrees with the Trustee, subject to this Section 7.3, that the Paying Agent will:

- (i) allocate all sums received for payment to the Noteholders for which it acts as Paying Agent on each Payment Date and any Redemption Date among the Holders in the proportion specified in the applicable report to the extent permitted by applicable law;
- (ii) hold all sums held by it for the payment of amounts due with respect to the Notes in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled to them until they are paid or otherwise disposed of as provided in this Indenture;
- (iii) immediately resign as a Paying Agent and forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums held by it in trust for the payment of the Notes if at any time it ceases to meet the standards required to be met by a Paying Agent at the time of its appointment;
- (iv) immediately give the Trustee notice of any default by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer (or any other obligor on the Notes) in the making of any payment required to be made; and
- (v) during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held in trust by the Paying Agent.

To obtain the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture or for any other purpose, the Co-Issuers may at any time pay, or by Issuer Order direct any Paying Agent to pay, to the Trustee all sums held in trust by the Co-Issuers or the Paying Agent, and, upon the payment by any Paying Agent to the Trustee, the Paying Agent shall be released from all further liability with respect to the money paid.

Any money deposited with a Paying Agent and not previously returned that remains unclaimed for 20 Business Days shall be returned to the Trustee. Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent in trust for the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after the principal or interest has become payable shall be paid to the Applicable Issuers. The Noteholder shall thereafter look only to the Applicable Issuers for payment of the amounts due to it as an unsecured general creditor and all liability of the Trustee or the Paying Agent with respect to that money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Applicable Issuers) shall thereupon cease. The Trustee or the Paying Agent, before being required to release any payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Applicable Issuers any reasonable means of notification of the release of the payment, including mailing notice of the release to Holders whose Notes have been called but have not been surrendered for redemption or whose right to or interest in monies payable but not claimed is determinable from the records of any Paying Agent, at the last address of record of each Holder.

Section 7.4. *Existence of Co-Issuers.

(a) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall maintain in full force their existence and rights as companies incorporated or organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands and the State of Delaware, respectively, and shall obtain and preserve their qualification to do business as foreign corporations in each jurisdiction in which the qualifications are necessary to protect the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and any of the Collateral.

However, the Issuer may change its jurisdiction of incorporation from the Cayman Islands to any other jurisdiction reasonably selected by the Issuer so long as:

(A) the Issuer has received a legal opinion (on which the Trustee may rely) to the effect that the change is not disadvantageous in any material respect to the Holders, the Servicer or any Hedge Counterparty,

(B) written notice of the change has been given by the Issuer to the Trustee, the Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Servicer, any Hedge Counterparty and each Rating Agency, and

(C) on or before the 15th Business Day following its receipt of the notice the Trustee has not received written notice from a Majority of the Controlling Class objecting to the change.

The Issuer may take any action required by this Indenture within the United States notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture requiring the Issuer to take the action outside of the United States so long as before taking the action the Issuer receives a legal opinion from nationally recognized legal counsel to the effect that it is not necessary to take the action outside of the United States or any political subdivision of the United States to prevent the Issuer from becoming subject to any United States federal, state, or local withholding or other taxes.

(b) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall ensure that all corporate or other formalities regarding their respective existences (including holding regular board of directors' and shareholders', or other similar, meetings to the extent required by applicable law) are followed. Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall take any action or conduct its affairs in a manner that is likely to result in its separate existence being ignored or in its assets and liabilities being substantively consolidated with any other Person in a bankruptcy, reorganization or other insolvency proceeding. Without limiting the foregoing,

(i) the Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries,

- (ii) the Co-Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries,
- (iii) the Issuer shall maintain at all times at least one director who is Independent of the Servicer, the Trustee and any of their respective Affiliates,
- (iv) the Issuer shall not commingle its funds with the funds of any other Person, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture, and
- (v) except to the extent contemplated in the Servicing Agreement, the Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Investors Corp. Subscription Agreement and the declaration of trust by the Share Trustee, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall not:
  - (A) engage in any transaction with any shareholder that would be a conflict of interest (the entry into the Administration Agreement with the Administrator shall not be deemed a conflict of interest), or
  - (B) pay dividends in violation of this Indenture, the resolutions of its board of directors and the Preference Share Documents.

Section 7.5. *Protection of Collateral.

(a) The Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will procure any action within the Servicer's control that is reasonably necessary to maintain the perfection and priority of the security interest of the Trustee in the Collateral. The Issuer from time to time shall execute and deliver any supplements and amendments to this Indenture and shall execute and deliver any Financing Statements, continuation statements, instruments of further assurance, and other instruments and shall take any other action appropriate to secure the rights and remedies of the Secured Parties under this Indenture and to:

- (i) Grant more effectively all or any portion of the Collateral;
- (ii) maintain or preserve the lien (and its priority) of this Indenture or to carry out more effectively the purposes of this Indenture;
- (iii) perfect, publish notice of, or protect the validity of, any Grant made by this Indenture (including any actions appropriate as a result of changes in law);
- (iv) enforce any of the Pledged Obligations or other instruments or property included in the Collateral;
- (v) preserve and defend title to the Collateral and the rights of the Secured Parties in the Collateral against the claims of anyone; and
- (vi) pay when due all taxes levied or assessed on any part of the Collateral.

The Issuer designates the Servicer as its agent and attorney in fact to execute any Financing Statement, continuation statement, and all other instruments, and take all other actions, required pursuant to this Section 7.5.

The Issuer authorizes the filing without the Issuer's signature a financing statement that names the Issuer as "debtor" and U.S. Bank National Association as "secured party" (with or without indicating its capacity as Trustee hereunder) and that describes the Collateral as "all assets of the debtor, whether now owned or hereafter acquired and wherever located."

(b) The Trustee shall not:

(i) except in accordance with Section 10.6(a), (b) or (c), remove any portion of the Collateral that consists of Cash or is evidenced by an instrument, certificate or other writing:

(A) from the jurisdiction in which it was held at the date the most recent Opinion of Counsel was delivered pursuant to Section 7.6 (or from the jurisdiction in which it was held as described in the Opinions of Counsel delivered at the Closing Date pursuant to Section 3.1(iii) if no Opinion of Counsel has yet been delivered pursuant to Section 7.6), or

(B) from the possession of the Person who held it (other than the Bank), or

(ii) cause or permit ownership or the pledge of any portion of the Collateral that consists of book-entry securities to be recorded on the books of a Person (other than the Bank):

(A) located in a different jurisdiction from the jurisdiction in which the ownership or pledge was recorded, or

(B) other than the Person on whose books the ownership or pledge was originally recorded, unless the Trustee shall have first received an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to the property and its priority will continue to be maintained after giving effect to the change.

(c) Without at least 30 days' prior written notice to the Trustee and the Servicer, the Issuer shall not change its "location" (as defined in Section 9-307 of the UCC) or change its name from the name shown on the signature pages of this Indenture.

(d) The Issuer shall, subject to the Priority of Payments, enforce all of its material rights and remedies under the Servicing Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, each Hedge Agreement and each Securities Lending Agreement.

(e) The Issuer shall pay any taxes levied because any Pledged Obligations are owned by the Issuer.

(f) The Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will either exercise the "put" option that prevents a Collateral Obligation from being a Long-Dated Collateral Obligation on the last available date before the Stated Maturity of the Notes or sell the Collateral Obligation for Sale Proceeds at least equal to the Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligation, in either case by the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

Section 7.6. *Opinions as to Collateral.

On or before September 1 in each calendar year, commencing in 2007, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee, the Servicer and each Rating Agency an Opinion of Counsel from each relevant jurisdiction stating that, in the counsel's opinion, as of the date of the opinion, all actions necessary to maintain the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to the Collateral have been taken and that no further action (other than as specified in the opinion) needs to be taken for the continued effectiveness and perfection of the lien over the next year. The opinion may be subject to customary assumptions and qualifications.

Section 7.7. *Performance of Obligations.

(a) The Co-Issuers, each as to itself, shall not take any action, and shall use their reasonable commercial efforts not to permit any action to be taken by others, that would release any Person from any of the Person's covenants or obligations under any instrument included in the Collateral, except in the case of enforcement action taken with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation in accordance with this Indenture and actions by the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement and in conformity with this Indenture or as otherwise required by this Indenture.

(b) The Applicable Issuers may, with the prior written consent of a Majority of each Class of Notes and a Majority of the Preference Shares (except in the case of the Servicing Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement as initially executed), contract with other Persons (including the Servicer, the Trustee and the Collateral Administrator) for the performance of actions and obligations to be performed by the Applicable Issuers under this Indenture. Notwithstanding any such arrangement, the Applicable Issuers shall remain primarily liable for performance under this Indenture. The Applicable Issuers shall punctually perform, and use their reasonable commercial efforts to cause the Servicer, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and any other Person to perform, all of their obligations in the Servicing Agreement, this Indenture, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement or any other agreement.

Section 7.8. *Negative Covenants.

(a) The Issuer shall not and, with respect to clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (vi) and (ix), the Co-Issuer shall not, in each case from and after the Closing Date:

(i) sell, transfer, assign, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber (or permit or suffer the sale, transfer, assignment, exchange, or other disposition of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecation, or other encumbering of), any part of the Collateral, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and the Servicing Agreement;

(ii) claim any credit on, make any deduction from, or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, dispute the enforceability of payment of the principal or interest (or any other amount) payable in respect of the Notes (other than amounts withheld in accordance with the Code or any applicable laws of the Cayman Islands) or assert any claim against any present or future Noteholder because of the payment of any taxes levied or assessed on any part of the Collateral;

(iii) (A) incur or assume or guarantee any indebtedness, other than the Notes and this Indenture and the transactions contemplated by this Indenture (including, as contemplated hereby, entering into the Hedge Agreements and Securities Lending Agreements) or (B) issue any additional class of securities other than the Preference Shares issued on or before the Closing Date, except as otherwise permitted by the Preference Share Documents;

(iv) (A) permit the validity or effectiveness of this Indenture or any Grant under this Indenture to be impaired, or permit the lien of this Indenture to be amended, hypothecated, subordinated, terminated, or discharged or permit any Person to be released from any covenants or obligations with respect to this Indenture or the Notes, except as may be expressly permitted by this Indenture or by the Servicing Agreement, (B) permit any lien, charge, adverse claim, security interest, mortgage or other encumbrance (other than the lien of this Indenture) to be created on or extend to or otherwise arise on or burden any part of the Collateral, any interest in it, or its proceeds of or (C) take any action that would permit the lien of this Indenture not to be a valid first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral;

(v) amend the Servicing Agreement except pursuant to its terms and Section 15.1(h) or amend the Collateral Administration Agreement except pursuant to its terms unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the amendment or enter into any waiver in respect of any of the foregoing agreements without providing written notice to each Rating Agency and the Trustee (and, with respect to the Collateral Administration Agreement, without the consent of the Trustee);

(vi) to the extent permitted by applicable law, dissolve or liquidate in whole or in part, except as permitted under this Indenture;

(vii) pay any dividends or other distributions other than in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Preference Share Documents;

(viii) conduct business under any name other than its own;

(ix) have any employees (other than directors and officers to the extent they are employees); or

(x) except for any Underlying Instrument and agreements involving the purchase or sale of Collateral Obligations having customary purchase or sale terms and documented with customary trading documentation (but not excepting any Synthetic Security or Hedge Agreement), enter into any agreement unless the agreement contains "non-petition" and "limited recourse" provisions and shall not amend such "non-petition" and "limited recourse" provisions without prior Rating Confirmation.

(b) Neither the Issuer nor the Trustee shall sell, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of Collateral, or enter into an agreement or commitment to do so, or enter into or engage in any business with respect to any part of the Collateral, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer, the Servicing Agreement.

(c) The Co-Issuer shall not invest any of its assets in "securities" as the term is defined in the Investment Company Act, and shall keep all of its assets in Cash.

(d) Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall use the proceeds of the Notes to buy or carry Margin Stock.

Section 7.9. Notice of Default; Statement as to Compliance.

(a) The Co-Issuers shall notify the Trustee, the Servicer, the Rating Agencies and each Hedge Counterparty within 10 days of acquiring actual knowledge of Default.

(b) On or before July 31 in each calendar year, commencing in 2007, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (to be forwarded by the Trustee to the Servicer and each Noteholder making a written request therefor and, upon written request therefor by a Beneficial Owner in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a Beneficial Owner, to the Beneficial Owner (or its designee) and each Rating Agency) a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer that, to the best knowledge of the Issuer, no Default exists, and has not existed since the date of the last certificate or, if a Default does then exist or had existed, specifying the same and its nature and status, including actions undertaken to remedy it, and that the Issuer has complied with all of its obligations under this Indenture or, if that is not the case, specifying those obligations with which it has not complied.

Section 7.10. Co-Issuers May Consolidate, etc., Only on Certain Terms.

Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer (the "Merging Entity") shall consolidate or merge with or into any other Person or transfer or convey all or substantially all of its assets to any Person, unless permitted by Cayman Islands law (in the case of the Issuer) or United States and Delaware law (in the case of the Co-Issuer) and unless:

(a) the Merging Entity shall be the surviving corporation, or the Person (if other than the Merging Entity) formed by the consolidation or into which the Merging Entity is merged or to which all or substantially all of the assets of the Merging Entity are transferred (the "Successor Entity"),

(i) if the Merging Entity is the Issuer, is a company organized and existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands or another jurisdiction approved by a Majority of the Controlling Class (except that no approval shall be required in connection with any such transaction undertaken solely to effect a change in the jurisdiction of incorporation pursuant to Section 7.4), and

(ii) in any case shall expressly assume, by an indenture supplemental to this Indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee and each Noteholder, the due and punctual payment of all amounts on all Notes issued by the Merging Entity and the performance and observance of every covenant of this Indenture on its part to be performed or observed, all as provided in this Indenture;

(b) each Rating Agency shall have been notified of the consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the transaction;

(c) if the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall have agreed with the Trustee,

(i) to observe the same legal requirements for the recognition of the formed or surviving corporation as a legal entity separate and apart from any of its Affiliates as are applicable to the Merging Entity with respect to its Affiliates,

(ii) not to consolidate or merge with or into any other Person or transfer or convey the Collateral or all or substantially all of its assets to any other Person except in accordance with this Section 7.10; and

(iii) in any case shall expressly assume by an indenture supplemental to this Indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee, each Noteholder and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the due and punctual payment of all amounts on all the Notes issued by the Merging Entity and the performance and observance of every covenant of this Indenture on its part to be performed or observed, all as provided in this Indenture;

(d) if the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall have delivered to the Trustee and each Rating Agency an Officer's certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing in the jurisdiction in which it is organized; that it has sufficient power and authority to assume the obligations in subsection (a) above and to execute and deliver an indenture supplemental to this Indenture for the purpose of assuming the obligations in subsection (a) above; that it has duly authorized the execution, delivery, and performance of an indenture supplemental to this Indenture for the purpose of assuming the obligations in subsection (a) above and that the supplemental indenture is its valid and legally binding obligation, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject only to bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, moratorium, and other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity; if the Merging Entity is the Issuer, that, following the event that causes the Successor Entity to become the successor to the Issuer, (i) the Successor Entity has title, free of any lien, security interest, or charge, other than the lien and security interest of this Indenture, to the Collateral, and (ii) the lien of this Indenture continues to be effective in the Collateral; and in each case as to any other matters the Trustee or any Noteholder reasonably requires;

(e) after giving effect to the transaction, no Default or Event of Default shall be continuing;

(f) the Merging Entity shall have notified each Rating Agency of the consolidation, merger, transfer or conveyance and shall have delivered to the Trustee, each Noteholder and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) an Officer's certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that the consolidation, merger, transfer or conveyance and the supplemental indenture comply with this Article 7 and that all conditions precedent in this Article 7 relating to the transaction have been complied with and that no adverse tax consequences will result therefrom to the Holders of the Securities;

(g) the Merging Entity shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel stating that after giving effect to the transaction, neither of the Co-Issuers (or, if applicable, the Successor Entity) will be required to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act; and

(h) after giving effect to the transaction, the outstanding stock of the Merging Entity (or, if applicable, the Successor Entity) will not be beneficially owned within the meaning of the Investment Company Act by any U.S. Person.

Section 7.11. *Successor Substituted.

Upon any consolidation or merger, or transfer or conveyance of all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, in accordance with Section 7.10 in which the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right of, the Merging Entity under this Indenture with the same effect as if the Person had been named as the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, in this Indenture. Upon any such consolidation, merger, transfer or conveyance, the Person named as the "Issuer" or the "Co-Issuer" in the first paragraph of this Indenture or any successor may be dissolved, wound up and liquidated at any time thereafter, and the Person thereafter shall be released from its liabilities as obligor and maker on all the Notes and from its obligations under this Indenture.

Section 7.12. No Other Business.

(a) From and after the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than issuing and selling the Notes pursuant to this Indenture and the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents and acquiring, owning, holding, and pledging and selling Collateral Obligations and the other Collateral in connection therewith, and shall not act as agent, negotiator or structurer with respect to any Collateral, act as a participant in negotiating terms of a primary loan agreement, enter into a binding commitment to purchase any Collateral prior to the issuance thereof or engage in any transaction or activity not permitted by the Collateral Acquisition Agreement or which the Issuer knows would cause it to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States within the meaning of the Code or subject the Issuer's income to taxation on a net basis in any jurisdiction, and the Co-Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than issuing and selling the Notes to be issued by it pursuant to this Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, other activities appropriate to accomplish the foregoing or incidental thereto or connected therewith.

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of clause (a) of this Section 7.12, the Issuer shall comply with all of the provisions set forth in the Collateral Acquisition Agreement, unless, with respect to a particular transaction, the Issuer and the Trustee shall have received an opinion or advice of tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such transaction, the Issuer's failure to comply with one or more of such provisions will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States within the meaning of the Code or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis. The provisions set forth in the Collateral Acquisition Agreement may be amended, eliminated or supplemented (without execution of a supplemental indenture) if the Issuer and the Trustee shall have received an opinion of tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters that the Issuer's compliance with such amended provisions or supplemental provisions or the Issuer's failure to comply with such provisions proposed to be eliminated, as the case may be, will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States within the meaning of the Code or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis and, at the request of the Issuer, the Trustee is hereby authorized to enter into any amendment of the Collateral Acquisition Agreement under such circumstances; provided, however, that written notice of any such amendment, elimination or supplementation of or to the provisions of the Collateral Acquisition Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.12(b) shall be provided to each Rating Agency then rating any Outstanding Class of Notes within 90 days of any such amendment, elimination or supplementation. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event an opinion of tax counsel as described above has been obtained in accordance with the terms hereof, no consent of any Noteholder or satisfaction of the Rating Condition shall be required in order to comply with this Section 7.12(b) in connection with the amendment, elimination or supplementation of any provision of the Collateral Acquisition Agreement contemplated by such opinion of tax counsel.

(c) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer may amend, or permit the amendment of, their Memorandum and Articles or the Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the amendment (but not otherwise).

Section 7.13. *Listing on Irish Stock Exchange.

So long as any Senior Notes remain Outstanding, the Co-Issuers shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain the listing of the Senior Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange.

Section 7.14. *Annual Rating Review.

So long as any Notes of any Class remain Outstanding, on or before September 30 in each year commencing in 2007, the Co-Issuers shall obtain and pay for an annual review or ongoing surveillance of the rating of each Outstanding Class of Notes from each Rating Agency, as applicable. The Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee and the Servicer in writing (and the Trustee shall promptly provide a copy of the notice to the Noteholders) and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) if at any time the rating of any Class of Notes has been, or is known will be, changed or withdrawn.

Section 7.15. *Reporting.

At any time when the Co-Issuers are not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act and are not exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act, upon the request of a Holder or Beneficial Owner of any Note, the Co-Issuers shall promptly furnish "Rule 144A Information" to the Holder or Beneficial Owner, to a prospective purchaser of a Note designated by the Holder or Beneficial Owner or to the Trustee for delivery to the Holder or Beneficial Owner or a prospective purchaser designated by the Holder or Beneficial Owner, as the case may be, to permit compliance by the Holder or Beneficial Owner with Rule 144A under the Securities Act in connection with the resale of the Note by the Holder or Beneficial Owner. "Rule 144A Information" is the information specified pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

Section 7.16. *Calculation Agent.

(a) The Issuer agrees that for so long as any Floating Rate Notes remain Outstanding an agent will always have been appointed (that does not control and is not controlled by or under common control with the Issuer or its Affiliates) to calculate LIBOR in respect of each Interest Period (the "Calculation Agent"). The Issuer has initially appointed the Trustee as Calculation Agent. The Issuer may remove the Calculation Agent at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Issuer or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine any of the information required to be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange, as described in subsection (b), in respect of any Interest Period, the Issuer or the Servicer (on its behalf) shall promptly appoint a replacement Calculation Agent. For so long as any Floating Rate Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, notice of the appointment of any replacement Calculation Agent shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange as promptly as practicable after the appointment. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been duly appointed.

(b) As soon as possible after 11:00 A.M., London time, on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period, but in no event later than 11:00 A.M., London time, on the next Business Day, the Calculation Agent shall calculate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes for the next Interest Period. The Calculation Agent shall communicate those rates and amounts to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, each Paying Agent, the Servicer, Euroclear, Clearstream, the Depository, and, so long as any of the Floating Rate Notes are listed thereon and the rules of the exchange so require, the Irish Stock Exchange. In the latter case, the information shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange as soon as possible after its determination. The Calculation Agent shall separately notify the Irish Stock Exchange of the information. The Calculation Agent shall also specify to the Co-Issuers the quotations on which the foregoing rates are based, and in any event the Calculation Agent shall notify the Co-Issuers before 7:00 P.M., London time, on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period that either:

- (i) it has determined or is in the process of determining the Note Interest Rate for each Class of Floating Rate Notes, or
- (ii) it has not determined and is not in the process of determining any such Note Interest Rate together with its reasons therefor.

The Calculation Agent's determination of the foregoing rates for any Interest Period shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding on all parties and the Holders and Beneficial Owners of the Preference Shares.

Section 7.17. *Certain Tax Matters.

(a) For United States federal income tax purposes, the Issuer shall treat the Preference Shares as equity and the Notes as debt. Each Holder of a Note, by its acquisition of that Note, agrees to treat those Notes as debt for United States federal income tax purposes.

(b) The Issuer will make an election to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and will take all necessary actions to maintain its status as a partnership (or, if the equity of the Issuer is treated as owned by one person, as a disregarded entity of such person) for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(c) The Issuer shall file, or cause to be filed, any tax returns, including information tax returns, required by any governmental authority; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not file, or cause to be filed, any income or franchise tax return in any state of the United States unless it shall have obtained an Opinion of Counsel from a tax counsel of nationally recognized standing experienced in such matters prior to such filing that, under the laws of such jurisdiction, the Issuer is required to file such income or franchise tax return.

(d) In order to ensure the Holders' and Beneficial Owners' acquisition of the Notes pursuant to this Indenture are not treated as offered under conditions of confidentiality, the Holders and Beneficial Owners of the Notes (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) are hereby permitted to disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the ownership and disposition of the Notes). For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction, and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction.

(e) If the Issuer is aware that it has purchased an interest in a "reportable transaction" within the meaning of Section 6011 of the Code, and a Noteholder requests information about any such transactions in which the Issuer is a purchaser, the Issuer shall provide such information it has reasonably available as soon as practicable after such request.

(f) The Issuer shall not conduct any business other than the business that the Issuer is permitted to conduct under this Indenture and the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

(g) Upon written request by the Independent accountants, the Indenture Registrar shall provide to the Independent accountants that information contained in the Indenture Register requested by the Independent accountants to comply with this Section 7.17.

(h) The Issuer will treat each purchase of Collateral Obligations and Eligible Investments as a "purchase" for tax accounting and reporting purposes.

(i) The Issuer shall not participate in listing or including the Class E Notes or Preference Shares on or in any Established Securities Markets, and shall not participate in establishing any Established Securities Market for its Class E Notes or Preference Shares. In addition, the Issuer shall not recognize any transfers made on any Established Securities Markets with respect to its Class E Notes or Preference Shares (including any transfers of any financial instrument (other than the Senior Notes) or contract the value of which is determined in whole or in part by reference to the Issuer).

Section 7.18. Securities Lending.

(a) So long as no Event of Default is continuing and if after the completion of the transaction the limit in clause (28) of the definition of "Concentration Limitations" would be satisfied, the Servicer may cause Collateral Obligations that are not Defaulted Collateral Obligations to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A" from S&P (each, a "Securities Lending Counterparty") pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a "Securities Lending Agreement"); provided that Collateral Obligations the Market Value of which cannot be determined under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Collateral Obligations to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Servicer. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Placement Agents or Affiliates of the Servicer. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

(b) Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Servicer (except as may be required below) and shall:

(i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Issuer debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent Collateral Obligations;

(ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Issuer amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent Collateral Obligation is entitled to for the period during which the Collateral Obligation is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities Lending Agreement to make "gross-up" payments to the Issuer that cover the full amount of the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;

(iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;

(iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;

(v) be governed by the laws of New York;

(vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture;

(vii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Collateral Obligation becomes a Credit Risk Obligation or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;

(viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty upon any redemption of the Notes in whole;

(ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement (the "Securities Lending Collateral") to secure its obligation to return the Collateral Obligations or in the alternative post the Securities Lending Collateral with a custodian for the benefit of the Issuer designated by the Securities Lending Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that custodian would qualify to be a successor trustee under Section 6.9;

(x) provide that the Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained at all times in an amount equal to at least 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value (determined daily and monitored by the Servicer) of the lent Collateral Obligations and if securities are delivered to the Trustee as security for the obligations of the Securities Lending Counterparty under the related Securities Lending Agreement, the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will negotiate with the Securities Lending Counterparty a rate for the loan fee to be paid to the Issuer for lending the lent Collateral Obligations;

(xi) the lent Collateral Obligations shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Servicer on the basis of their Market Value;

(xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer's rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement rather than the loaned Collateral Obligation;

(xiii) provide for early termination within 10 days at the option of the Issuer and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in this Indenture; and

(xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in this Indenture.

(c) If either Moody's or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty, then the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, within 10 days of the downgrade, shall

(i) terminate its Securities Lending Agreements with the Securities Lending Counterparty unless a guarantor for the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements has been obtained; or

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations lent to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty so that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party, together with all other Securities Lending Agreements, are in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of Securities Lending Counterparties; or

(iii) take any other steps Moody's or S&P may require to cause the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party to be treated by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, as if the obligations were owed by a counterparty having a rating at least equivalent to the rating that was assigned by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty before its being downgraded.

(d) In connection with any such direction by the Servicer to enter into a Securities Lending Agreement, the Trustee may receive and rely on an Issuer Order to the effect that the Securities Lending Agreement, and its Securities Lending Counterparty, is each in compliance with the requirements of this Indenture (including the definition of "Securities Lending Counterparty"). The Issuer and the Trustee may enter into any Securities Lending Agreement (and any related account control agreement) at the instruction of the Servicer, and deliver and accept delivery and return of any Collateral Obligations pursuant to the Securities Lending Agreement, or pursuant to instructions from the Servicer in connection with the Securities Lending Agreement. The Trustee may take any actions and exercise any rights and remedies under any Securities Lending Agreement that the Servicer instructs. The Trustee need not enter into any Securities Lending Agreement (or any related account control agreement) that would in its judgment, subject it to any liability, whether financial or otherwise, or cause it to incur or subject it to risk of any cost or disbursement for which it is not, in its judgment, adequately indemnified, or that would impose on it any obligations or administrative burdens that are unacceptable to it. The Servicer shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in this Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Collateral Obligation is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement,

(a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Collateral Obligation because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action), and

(b) the loaned Collateral Obligations shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as a Collateral Obligation by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Collateral Obligation to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under this Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

Section 7.19. *Purchase of Collateral Obligations; Ramp-Up Completion Date.

(a) The Issuer shall use its best efforts to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period or enter into commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period for purchase on or as soon as practicable thereafter (not to exceed 60 days thereafter), in each case, for inclusion in the Collateral so that each of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator with respect to the Class A Notes is at least U.S.$880,700,000.

(b) No Collateral Obligations may be purchased prior to the Ramp-Up Completion Date unless immediately following the purchase of any Collateral Obligation (as certified by the Servicer in writing), the remaining funds in the Collection Account, after giving effect to such purchase, are sufficient as of the date of determination to purchase Collateral Obligations for inclusion in the Collateral so that each of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator with respect to the Class A Notes is at least U.S.$880,700,000 (taking into account the Collateral Obligations already part of the Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date)).

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of this Indenture, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase a Collateral Obligation to be included in the Collateral, such commitment initially not to exceed 60 days, and at the time of the commitment the Collateral Obligation complied with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set forth in this Section 7.19, the Issuer may consummate the purchase of the Collateral Obligation notwithstanding that the Collateral Obligation fails to comply with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set out above on the date of settlement.

(d) The Issuer will use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, or to enter into binding agreements to purchase, Collateral Obligations by the Ramp-Up Completion Date, that, together with the Collateral Obligations purchased on or before the Closing Date and then held by the Issuer, will satisfy, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date), the Collateral Quality Tests, the Concentration Limitations, the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 of this Indenture and the Overcollateralization Tests.

(e) Within 5 Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer or the Servicer (on behalf of the Issuer) shall request a Rating Confirmation on behalf of the Issuer and shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies identifying the Collateral Obligations then included in the Collateral and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies, together with the delivery of a report (and, with respect to S&P, a Microsoft Excel file of the S&P CDO Monitor input file and, with respect to each Collateral Obligation, the name of the obligor thereon, the CUSIP number thereof (if applicable) and the S&P Priority Category thereof) substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, an Accountants' Certificate:

- (i) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread and recovery rate for each item of Original Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included in the Collateral, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein;
- (ii) confirming that as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date:
  - (1) each of the Coverage Tests are satisfied;
  - (2) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date is at least equal to the Maximum Amount; and
  - (3) the Collateral Obligations comply with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests and the Concentration Limitations and the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 of this Indenture; and
- (iii) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements.
- (f) If a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to, and to the extent provided in, Section 9.1(a).

Section 7.20. *Posting of Reports on Repository.

If any of the Placement Agents have entered into a posting dealer agreement with The Bond Market Association relating to the transactions contemplated by this Indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Servicer acknowledges and agrees that each Monthly Report and Valuation Report shall be posted to the Repository for use in the manner provided in the Repository. In connection therewith, the Trustee, at the expense of the Issuer, agrees to make available in accordance with Section 14.3(a)(viii) each Monthly Report or Valuation Report to the operator of the Repository for posting on the Repository. Such Placement Agents will notify the Trustee, the Co-Issuers and the Servicer upon entering into a posting dealer agreement.

Section 7.21. *Secondary Risk Procedures.

The Servicer shall notify S&P and request that S&P modify the S&P CDO Monitor accordingly if on any date (as disclosed in the most recent Monthly Report):

- (a) the Aggregate Principal Amount of all Collateral Obligations participated from or entered into with the same Secondary Risk Counterparty exceeds the percentage of the Maximum Amount in the Secondary Risk Table opposite the long-term S&P credit rating of the Secondary Risk Counterparty under the caption "Individual Counterparty Limit," or

(b) the Aggregate Principal Amount of all Collateral Obligations participated from or entered into with Secondary Risk Counterparties with the same long-term credit rating exceeds the percentage of the Maximum Amount in the Secondary Risk Table opposite that rating under the caption "Aggregate Counterparty Limit" (excluding up to 5% by Aggregate Principal Amount of Synthetic Securities with respect to Collateral Obligations the Aggregate Counterparty Limit of which is 20% to the extent that (x) such exposure is fully collateralized with respect to principal and (y) the related Synthetic Security Counterparties are rated at least "A-1+" by S&P).

Section 7.22. *Section 3(c)(7) Procedures.

In addition to the notices required to be given under Section 10.6 hereof, the Issuer shall take the following actions to ensure compliance with the requirements of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act (provided that such procedures and disclosures may be revised by the Issuer to be consistent with generally accepted practice for compliance with the requirements of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act):

(a) Section 3(c)(7) Notice to Investors. The Issuer shall (i) request the Depository to cause, and cooperate with the Depository in causing, the Depository's security description and delivery order to include a "3(c)(7) marker" and the Depository's user manual to contain an accurate description of the restrictions on the holding and transfer of the Notes due to the Issuer's reliance on the exclusion to registration provided by Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act, (ii) request that the Depository send, and cooperate with the Depository in causing the Depository to send, to its Agent Members (x) the Important Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice substantially in the form of Exhibit H-2 in connection with the initial offering of the Notes and (y) the Section 3(c)(7) Reminder Notice substantially in the form of Exhibit H-1 as set forth in Section 10.6(b) and (iii) request that the Depository cause, and cooperate with the Depository in causing, the Depository's Reference Directory to include each Class of Notes (and the applicable CUSIP numbers for the Notes) in the listing of 3(c)(7) issues together with an attached description of the limitations as to the distribution, purchase, sale and holding of the Notes.

(b) CUSIP Numbers. The Issuer shall (a) request of S&P, and shall cooperate with S&P to ensure that all CUSIP numbers identifying the Notes shall have a "fixed field" attached thereto that contains "3c7" and "144A" indicators and (b) take steps to cause the Placement Agents and any market makers to require that all "confirms" of trades of the Notes contain CUSIP numbers with such "fixed field" identifiers.

(c) Bloomberg and other Third-Party Vendor Screens. The Issuer shall use all reasonable efforts to cause the Bloomberg screen or screens containing information about the Notes to include the following language: (a) the "Note Box" on the bottom of the "Security Display" page describing the Notes shall state: "Iss'd Under 144A/3(c)(7)," (b) the "Security Display" page shall have the flashing red indicator "See Other Available Information" and (c) the indicator shall link to the "Additional Security Information" page, which shall state that the securities are "being offered in reliance on the exemption from registration under Rule 144A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), to persons who are both (x) qualified institutional buyers (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act) and (y) qualified purchasers (as defined under Section 3(c)(7) under the Investment Company Act)." The Issuer shall use all reasonable efforts to require that any other third-party vendor screens containing information about the Notes include substantially similar language to clauses (a) through (c) above.

Section 8.1. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders.

(a) Without the consent of the Holders of any Securities, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and subject to the requirement provided below in this Section 8.1 with respect to the ratings of any Class of Notes, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may, if, with respect to any matters described in paragraphs (1) through (22) below, the interests of the Holders of the Securities are not materially and adversely affected thereby (the Co-Issuers and the Trustee will be bound by a standard of good faith and fair dealing in making such determination) execute one or more indentures supplemental to this Indenture, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, to:

(1) evidence the succession of another Person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and the assumption by the successor Person of the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in this Indenture and in the Securities;

(2) add to the covenants of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders or to surrender any right in this Indenture conferred on the Co-Issuers;

(3) convey, transfer, assign, mortgage or pledge any property to the Trustee, or add to the conditions, limitations, or restrictions on the authorized amount, terms, and purposes of the issue, authentication and delivery of the Notes;

(4) evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment under this Indenture by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of this Indenture necessary to facilitate the administration of the trusts under this Indenture by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of Sections 6.10, 6.11, and 6.13;

(5) correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of this Indenture, or to better assure, convey, and confirm to the Trustee any property subject or required to be subject to the lien of this Indenture (including all actions appropriate as a result of changes in law) or to subject to the lien of this Indenture any additional property;

(6) conform any provision in this Indenture to the related provision in the Offering Memorandum that is intended to be a verbatim recitation of such provision;

(7) modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any changes in applicable law (or its interpretation) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely on any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the Investment Company Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required under this Indenture;

(8) with the consent of the Servicer, modify the restrictions on the sales of Collateral Obligations in Section 12.1 or the Eligibility Criteria in Section 12.2 (and the definitions related thereto);

(9) make appropriate changes for any Class of Senior Notes to be listed on an exchange other than the Irish Stock Exchange;

(10) otherwise to correct any inconsistency or cure any ambiguity or errors in this Indenture;

(11) accommodate the issuance of the Senior Notes in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC or otherwise;

(12) take any appropriate action to prevent the Issuer, the Holders of the Securities, or the Trustee from becoming subject to withholding or other taxes, fees, or assessments or to prevent the Issuer from being treated as being engaged in a U.S. trade or business or otherwise being subject to income tax on a net income basis, so long as the action will not cause the Holders of any Securities to be adversely affected to any material extent by any change to the timing, character, or source of the income from the Securities, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion);

(13) authorize the appointment of any listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes appropriate in connection with the listing of any Class of Senior Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange, and otherwise to amend this Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes in connection with its appointment, so long as the supplemental indenture would not materially and adversely affect any Noteholder, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Servicer, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Notes;

(14) amend, modify, enter into or accommodate the execution of any contract relating to a Synthetic Security (including posting collateral under a Synthetic Security Agreement);

(15) modify Section 3.3 to be consistent with applicable laws or Rating Agency requirements;

(16) evidence any waiver by any Rating Agency as to any requirement or condition, as applicable, of the Rating Agency set forth in this Indenture;

(17) facilitate the issuance of participation notes, combination notes, composite securities and other similar securities;

(18) facilitate hedging transactions;

(19) facilitate the ability of the Issuer to lend collateral pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement;

(20) modify any provision to facilitate an A/B Exchange, including to effect any serial designation relating to the exchange;

(21) with the consent of the Servicer, enter into any additional agreements not expressly prohibited by this Indenture as well as any amendment, modification, or waiver if the Issuer determines that the amendment, modification, or waiver would not, upon or after becoming effective, materially and adversely affect the rights or interest of the Holders of any Class of Securities as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Servicer to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities;

(22) provide for the issuance of additional Preference Shares to the extent permitted by the Preference Share Documents and to extend to such additional Preference Shares the benefits applicable to the Preference Shares under the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents; or

(23) prevent the Issuer from becoming an “investment company” as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7); provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Servicer shall have received (A) a Rating Confirmation with respect to such supplemental indenture and (B) a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental indenture, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act in reliance on the exemption provided by Rule 3a-7.

(b) Without the consent of the Servicer, no supplemental indenture may be entered into that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to the Servicer under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Servicer.

(c) The Trustee is authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be in the agreements, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, except to the extent required by law. Unless notified by a Majority of any Class of Notes or a Majority of the Preference Shares that Holders of the Class of the Notes or Holders of the Preference Shares would be materially and adversely affected, the Trustee may rely on a certificate of the Servicer and an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) as to whether the interests of any Holder of Securities would be materially and adversely affected by any such supplemental indenture.

(d) If any Outstanding Notes are rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall enter into a supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.1 only if either (1) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the supplemental indenture or (2) the Servicer and the Holders of 100% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes the ratings on which would be reduced or withdrawn consent to the supplemental indenture. Prior to the entry into any supplemental Indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note informing them of such fact.

(e) At the cost of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee shall mail to the Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares), each Rating Agency (for so long as any Notes are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency) and each Hedge Counterparty a copy of any such proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee (or 60 calendar days before execution in the case of a supplemental indenture for the purpose described in paragraph (8) of Section 8.1(a), which shall be identified as such in a certificate of the Servicer delivered to the Trustee before the date on which such notice is required to be given).

Section 8.2. *Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders.

(a) If the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency, the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may execute one or more indentures supplemental to this Indenture to add any provisions to, or change in any manner, or eliminate any of the provisions of, this Indenture or modify in any manner the rights of the Noteholders under this Indenture with the consent of:

- (1) the Servicer if the supplemental indenture would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Servicer;
- (2) a Majority of each Class of Notes adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of each such Class of Notes; and
- (4) a Majority of the Preference Shares adversely affected thereby.

Any proposed supplemental indenture that would also necessitate a change to the Memorandum and Articles of Association may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Memorandum and Articles of Association) has been passed to permit the Issuer's constitutional documents to be altered to conform them to the proposed change to this Indenture as certified to the Trustee by the Issuer.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected thereby and the Holder of each Preference Share adversely affected thereby, no supplemental indenture shall:

- (i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date of any installment of interest on any Note or of any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares, reduce the principal amount or the rate of interest on any Note, or the Default Interest Rate or the Redemption Price with respect to any Note or Preference Share, or change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Share may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, change the provisions of this Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of any Collateral to the payment of principal of or interest on Notes, or to payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares, or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which, Notes or their principal or interest are paid or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after their Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the applicable Redemption Date);
- (ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class or Holders of Preference Shares whose consent is required for the authorization of any such supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of this Indenture or certain defaults under this Indenture or their consequences provided for in this Indenture;

(iii) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture with respect to any part of the Collateral or terminate the lien on any property at any time subject hereto or deprive the Holder of any Note of the security afforded by the lien of this Indenture;

(iv) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class whose consent is required to request the Trustee to retain the Collateral or rescind the Trustee's election to retain the Collateral, pursuant to Section 5.5 or to sell or liquidate the Collateral, pursuant to Section 5.4 or 5.5;

(v) modify any of the provisions of this Section, or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note and Preference Share affected thereby;

(vi) modify the definition of "Outstanding," "Controlling Class," or "Majority," or the Priority of Payments in Section 11.1(a) or Section 13.1; or

(vii) modify any of the provisions of this Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of Redemption Price or of interest or principal on any Note or any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the payment of dividends or other payments on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date or to affect the rights of the Holders of the Securities to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of the Notes or the Preference Shares contained in this Indenture.

Prior to the entry into any supplemental indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) informing them of such fact.

(b) Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2, the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Noteholders, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (for so long as any Notes are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency) a copy of such proposed supplemental indenture and shall request any required consent from the applicable Holders of Securities to be given within the Initial Consent Period. Any consent given to a proposed supplemental indenture by the Holder of any Securities, as applicable, shall be irrevocable and binding on all future Holders or beneficial owners of that Security, irrespective of the execution date of the supplemental indenture. If the Holders of less than the required percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the relevant Securities consent to a proposed supplemental indenture within the Initial Consent Period, on the first Business Day after the Initial Consent Period, the Trustee shall notify the Issuer and the Servicer which Holders of Securities have consented to the proposed supplemental indenture and, which Holders (and, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Trustee, which beneficial owners) have not consented to the proposed supplemental indenture. If it intends to exercise its Amendment Buy-Out Option pursuant to Section 9.6, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall so notify the Trustee (which notice shall designate a date for the Amendment Buy-Out to occur no earlier than 10 Business Days after the date of such notice) no later than five Business Days after the Servicer is so notified by the Trustee and the Trustee shall promptly mail such notice to all Noteholders, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares). Any Non-Consenting Holder may give consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture until the 5th Business Day prior to the date of the Amendment Buy-Out designated by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and in such case shall cease to be a Non-Consenting Holder for purposes of the Amendment Buy-Out. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser exercises its Amendment Buy-Out Option and purchases the applicable Securities pursuant to Section 9.6 below, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, as Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Securities, may consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture within five Business Days of the Amendment Buy-Out.

(c) It shall not be necessary for any Act of Noteholders under this Section 8.2 to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if the Act or consent approves its substance.

(d) The Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Noteholders, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency a copy of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2 promptly after its execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee. Any failure of the Trustee to mail a copy of any supplemental indenture as provided in this Indenture, or any defect in the mailing, shall not in any way affect the validity of the supplemental indenture.

Section 8.3. Execution of Supplemental Indentures.

In executing or accepting the additional trusts created by any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article 8 or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee may receive, and (subject to Sections 6.1 and 6.3) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of the supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture and that all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture have been satisfied. In the event that any supplemental indenture is consented to by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes and the Rating Condition is satisfied or is specifically waived by all consenting parties, all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture shall be deemed satisfied, the execution of such supplemental indenture shall be authorized or permitted by this Indenture, and the Trustee shall execute and accept the additional trusts created by such supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 or modification thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture without obtaining an Opinion of Counsel; provided that the Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise. The Servicer shall not be bound by any amendment or supplement to this Indenture that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Servicer unless the Servicer consents to it in writing, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Servicer shall follow any amendment or supplement to this Indenture by which it is bound of which it has received written notice from the time it receives a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee. The Trustee shall deliver any such amendment or supplement to the Repository in accordance with Section 6.18.

Section 8.4. Effect of Supplemental Indentures; Certain Required Consents.

Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article 8, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and the supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and every Holder of Notes theretofore and thereafter authenticated and delivered under this Indenture shall be bound thereby.

Without the approval of each Hedge Counterparty to a then existing Hedge Agreement (so long as the Hedge Counterparty is not in default under any Hedge Agreement to which it is party), no supplemental indenture will be effective, and the Co-Issuers will not consent to any supplemental indenture, that would have a material adverse effect on the Hedge Counterparty. For purposes of this paragraph, any supplemental indenture will be deemed not to have a material adverse effect on the Hedge Counterparty if it does not object within 10 days of delivery of such supplemental indenture by the Trustee.

Any supplemental indenture that would necessitate a change to the Memorandum and Articles of Association (or the memorandum and articles of association of Investors Corp.) may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Memorandum and Articles of Association) has been passed to permit the Memorandum and Articles of Association (or the memorandum and articles of association of Investors Corp.) to be altered to conform with such proposed amendment.

Section 8.5. *Reference in Notes to Supplemental Indentures.

Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 may, and if required by the Trustee shall, bear a notice in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in the supplemental indenture. If the Applicable Issuers shall so determine, new Notes, so modified as to conform in the opinion of the Trustee and the Co-Issuers to any such supplemental indenture, may be prepared and executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes.

ARTICLE 9

REDEMPTION OF NOTES

Section 9.1. *Mandatory Redemption.

(a) If either (a) a Coverage Test is not met on any Determination Date or (b) a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, principal payments on the Notes shall be made on the related Payment Date (without payment of any Redemption Price) in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Upon receipt of notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes, at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes, then at the direction and in accordance with the instructions of the Servicer the Trustee shall sell Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for the purpose in the Collection Account will be used to redeem the Notes and the Preference Shares (but only to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes) and to pay all administrative and other fees, expenses and obligations payable under the Priority of Payments. Any sale under this Section shall be conducted in such a manner that:

(i) after giving effect to the sale each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied or, if any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Overcollateralization Test is not reduced,

(ii) if the sale occurs on or after the second Payment Date, after giving effect to the sale each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied or, if any Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Interest Coverage Test is not reduced, and

(iii) after giving effect to the sale each Collateral Quality Test is satisfied or, if any Collateral Quality Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Collateral Quality Test is not reduced.

(b) The Preference Shares will be redeemed in whole in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Preference Share Documents on any Payment Date on which a mandatory redemption of the Notes pursuant to Section 9.1(a) results in the payment in full of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes.

Section 9.2. *Optional Redemption.

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Notes shall be redeemed by the Applicable Issuers, in whole but not in part, on any Payment Date from Principal Proceeds and all other funds available for that purpose in the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account at the direction of the Holders of a Super Majority of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Preference Shares, which direction must be given to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer and the Servicer not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made, at the applicable Redemption Price (exclusive of installments of interest and principal maturing on or before that date, payment of which shall have been made or duly provided for, to the Noteholders on relevant Record Dates or as otherwise provided in this Indenture). All Notes must be simultaneously redeemed, and any termination payments pursuant to Hedge Agreements must be paid.

Upon receipt of a notice of redemption pursuant to this Section 9.2(a), the Servicer in its sole discretion will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Servicing Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer, direct the sale of the Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for such purpose in the Collection Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Revolving Reserve Account and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account will be at least sufficient to redeem all of the Notes and to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations. If, in the Servicer's reasonable discretion, the sale would not be sufficient to redeem the Notes, and to pay the fees, expenses and obligations, the Notes shall not be redeemed.

Upon any redemption pursuant to this Section 9.2(a), the Issuer shall, at least 30 days before the Redemption Date (unless the Trustee shall agree to a shorter notice period), notify the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), to the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency of the Redemption Date, the applicable Record Date, the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed on the Redemption Date and the applicable Redemption Prices.

(b) On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, all administrative and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture and all amounts owing under this Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged,

(i) at the direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Preference Shares, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings or

(ii) at the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares, voting as a single Class or group, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a directed portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such direction.

Upon a distribution pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(i), the Servicer will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Servicing Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer (and subject to Section 9.2(b)(ii)), direct the sale of all remaining Collateral Obligations. Upon a distribution pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii), the Servicer will effect the sale of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares.

Section 9.3. *Redemption Procedures.

(a) Upon any redemption pursuant to Section 9.2, the Trustee shall give notice of a redemption by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days and not earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date, each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of DTC, Euroclear, and Clearstream, as applicable, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), to the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares) and (in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a)) to each Rating Agency. In addition, for so long as any Senior Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of redemption of Senior Notes pursuant to Section 9.2 shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

(b) All notices of redemption delivered pursuant to Section 9.3(a) shall state:

(i) the applicable Redemption Date;

(ii) the Redemption Price of the Notes to be redeemed (in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a));

(iii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a), that all of the Notes, are to be redeemed in full and that interest on the Notes to be redeemed shall cease to accrue on the Payment Date specified in the notice; and

(iv) the places where the Notes to be redeemed in whole are to be surrendered for payment of the Redemption Price, which shall be the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained as provided in Section 7.2 and, so long as any Senior Notes to be redeemed are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, and the Irish Paying Agent.

Any such notice of redemption may be withdrawn by the Issuer up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Holding Preference Shares), the Trustee and the Servicer only if:

(A) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a), the Servicer does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications (described in Section 9.3(c) and 12.1(f)), as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee,

(B) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i), the Issuer receives the written direction of the Majority of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption delivered by a percentage of the Preference Shares requesting redemption under Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i), as applicable, or

(C) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii), the Issuer receives the unanimous written direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer hereby agrees for the benefit of the directing Holders to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written direction referred to in the preceding clause (B) or this clause (C)).

Notice of any withdrawal shall be sent, not later than the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date (assuming that the Trustee has received timely written notice from the Issuer as provided above), by the Trustee, to each Noteholder scheduled to be redeemed at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery (or, to the extent the address contained in the Indenture Register is not sufficient for that purpose, by first class mail), the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares) and the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Holding Preference Shares). If the Issuer so withdraws any notice of redemption or is otherwise unable to complete any redemption of the Notes, the Sale Proceeds received from the sale of any Collateral Obligations sold pursuant to Sections 9.2 and 12.1(f) may, during the Replacement Period (and, in respect of Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, after the Replacement Period) at the Servicer's discretion, be used to purchase replacement Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria.

Notice of redemption shall be given by the Co-Issuers or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Notes selected for redemption, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares) or the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each of Holding Preference Shares) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Securities.

(c) The Notes may not be redeemed pursuant to Section 9.2(a) unless either of the following conditions is satisfied:

(i) At least ten Business Days before the Redemption Date, the Servicer shall have furnished to the Trustee evidence (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) that the Issuer has entered into a binding agreements (with a financial or other institution or entity whose short-term unsecured debt obligations (other than obligations whose rating is based on the credit of a Person other than the institution) have a credit rating of at least "A-1" from S&P and of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's (or to any other institution or entity if the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's is satisfied with respect to the other entity)) to sell to the financial or other institutions, not later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date in immediately available funds, all or part of the Collateral (directly or by participation or other arrangement) at a Purchase Price at least equal to an amount sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties, and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices; or

(ii) Before entering into any binding agreement to sell all or a portion of the Collateral and selling or terminating any Hedge Agreement, the Servicer shall have certified that, in its commercially reasonable judgment, the settlement dates of the sales will be scheduled to occur on or before the Business Day before the Redemption Date and that the expected proceeds from the sales are to be delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date, in immediately available funds, in an amount (calculated as applicable in the manner provided below) sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties, and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount shall be calculated with respect to the classes of Collateral listed in the table below by multiplying the expected proceeds of sale of the Collateral by the indicated percentage in the table below.

Section 9.4. *Notes Payable on Redemption Date.

(a) Notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.3 having been given as aforesaid, the Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at the Redemption Price therein specified and from and after the Redemption Date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest) the Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Redemption Date. Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, the Holder shall present and surrender the Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption on or before the Redemption Date unless the Co-Issuers and the Trustee receive the security or indemnity required by them to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the Note, and in the absence of notice to the Co-Issuers and the Trustee, that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender. Payments of interest on Notes so to be redeemed whose Stated Maturity is on or before the Redemption Date shall be payable to the Noteholders, or one or more predecessor Notes, registered as such at the close of business on the relevant Record Date if the Record Date is a Business Day (or, if the Record Date is not a Business Day, the close of business on the Business Day before the Record Date) according to Section 2.8(e).

(b) If any Note called for redemption is not paid on its surrender for redemption, its principal shall bear interest from the Redemption Date at the Applicable Note Interest Rate for each successive Interest Period the Note remains Outstanding if the reason for the non-payment is not the fault of the Holder of the Note.

Section 9.5. *Special Redemption.

Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in whole or in part, at par, in accordance with the Priority of Payments if, at any time during the Replacement Period, the Servicer elects (subject to the Servicing Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional or replacement Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Servicer in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the application of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be used to purchase additional or replacement Collateral Obligations (a "Special Redemption").

On the first Payment Date following the Due Period for which the notice is effective (a "Special Redemption Date"), the funds in the Collection Account or the Payment Account representing Principal Proceeds that, by operation of the preceding paragraph, are not used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (the "Special Redemption Amount") will be available to be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments under Section 11.1(a)(ii). Notice of payments pursuant to this Section 9.5 shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than three Business Days before the applicable Special Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of DTC. Section 9.6. *Amendment Buy-Out.

(a) In the case of any supplemental indenture pursuant to Section 8.2 that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Securities held by such Holders whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture or, with respect to any Class I Preference Shares held by Investors Corp. if the consent of the Holders of Holding Preference Shares has been solicited, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holding Preference Share Holders all Holding Preference Shares held by such Holders (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option"), in each case, for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; provided, however, that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser may not exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option during the Non-Call Period in connection with a proposed amendment to reduce the rate of interest on any Note or to change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Shares may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Securities of Non-Consenting Holders and all such Holding Preference Shares of the Non-Consenting Holding Preference Share Holders, as the case may be, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of its Securities hereunder, each Holder of Securities agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder and any Non-Consenting Holding Preference Share Holder will be required to sell its applicable Transaction Securities to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser; provided that if any Non-Consenting Holder holds Class II Preference Shares, (i) such Non-Consenting Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to Investors Corp. and such Preference Shares will be redesignated as Class I Preference Shares, (ii) Investors Corp. will issue additional Holding Preference Shares in a number equal to the aggregate number of, and at a price equal to the price of, such redesignated Preference Shares purchased by it and (iii) the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser will purchase such additional Holding Preference Shares in lieu of such redesignated Preference Shares. Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or beneficial owner of Transaction Securities as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option.

(b) All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Transaction Securities set forth herein and in the Preference Share Documents or the Holding Preference Share Documents, as applicable, and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

(c) During the Replacement Period (or, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Risk Obligations and Credit Improved Obligations, after the Replacement Period), at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of the Issuer Order the Trustee shall withdraw funds on deposit in the Collection Account representing Principal Proceeds (and, to the extent expressly provided in this Indenture, Interest Proceeds) and apply the funds to purchase Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security), in each case in accordance with the requirements of Article 12 and the Issuer Order.

In addition, to the extent that the Issuer receives proceeds of a repayment in respect of a Revolving Loan (except to the extent of any concurrent Commitment Reduction) at any time during or after the Replacement Period, the Trustee shall deposit the proceeds into the Revolving Reserve Account. Upon the sale of a Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan in whole or in part or the reduction in part or termination of the Issuer's commitment thereunder, an amount on deposit in the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, as the case may be, specified by the Servicer as being equal to:

(c) By Issuer Order (which may be in the form of standing instructions), at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall at all times direct the Trustee to, and, upon receipt of the Issuer Order, the Trustee shall, apply all funds on deposit in the Securities Lending Account in Eligible Investments having Stated Maturities no later than the Business Day before the stated termination date of the related Securities Lending Agreement. All applications on any Business Day shall be subject to the timely receipt of the funds and the availability of any Eligible Investments. The interest on the Eligible Investments shall be allocated between the Issuer and the Securities Lending Counterparty pursuant to the related Securities Lending Agreement. If before an Event of Default, the Issuer does not give directions, the Trustee shall seek instructions from the Servicer within three Business Days after transfer of any funds to the Securities Lending Account. If the Trustee does not thereupon receive written instructions from the Servicer within five Business Days after transfer of the funds to the account, it shall apply the funds held in the account, as fully as practicable, but only in one or more Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (e) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" that mature no later than the Business Day before the stated termination date of the related Securities Lending Agreement. If after an Event of Default, the Issuer does not give directions to the Trustee for three consecutive days, the Trustee shall apply the monies as fully as practicable in Eligible Investments of the type described in clause (e) of the definition of "Eligible Investments" maturing no later than the Business Day before the stated termination date of the related Securities Lending Agreement. All interest and other income from such Eligible Investments shall be deposited in the Collection Account, any gain realized from such Eligible Investments shall be credited to the Collection Account, and any loss resulting from such Eligible Investments shall be charged to the Collection Account.

(d) The Trustee agrees to give the Issuer notice as soon as reasonably practicable if a Trust Officer obtains actual knowledge that any Account or any funds on deposit in any Account, or otherwise to the credit of an Account, shall become subject to any writ, order, judgment, warrant of attachment, execution or similar process. #### Section 12.1. Sales of Collateral Obligations.

Subject to the satisfaction of the conditions specified in Section 10.6, Section 12.1 and Section 12.3 and if no Event of Default is continuing as evidenced by an Officer's Certificate of the Servicer provided to the Trustee, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset if the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that the sale meets the requirements of any one of paragraphs (a) through (i) of this Section 12.1. If the Issuer sells any Collateral Obligation or Workout Asset during the Replacement Period, the proceeds shall be applied in accordance with Section 12.2.

(a) Credit Risk Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Risk Obligation at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Risk Obligation in accordance with such direction. Following any sale of a Credit Risk Obligation pursuant to this Section 12.1(a), at the direction of the Servicer during the Replacement Period, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase additional Collateral Obligations (to the extent the purchase is in the best interest of the Issuer) meeting the Eligibility Criteria with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Sale Proceeds received by the Issuer with respect to the Collateral Obligation sold. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount.

(b) Credit Improved Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Credit Improved Obligation if either:

(i) during the Replacement Period, the Servicer has identified in writing before the sale one or more specific manners in which it will be able, in compliance with the Eligibility Criteria and the requirements set forth in Section 12.1(i), to cause the Issuer to use the Sale Proceeds (it being understood that such identification shall not be considered either a requirement or an assurance that any specified purchase will be consummated) to purchase one or more additional Collateral Obligations with an Aggregate Principal Balance at least equal to the Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance of the Credit Improved Obligation by the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (for this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest) which in aggregate will result in (i) the Collateral Quality Tests, the Interest Coverage Tests, the Overcollateralization Tests and the Concentration Limitations herein being satisfied or if one or more of such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests or Concentration Limitations are not satisfied, the degree of compliance therewith being improved, (ii) the quality of the total portfolio of Collateral Obligations as measured by such Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests and Concentration Limitations being improved on a net basis in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer and (iii) in the case of each of clause (i) and (ii), any other Collateral Quality Tests, Interest Coverage Tests, Overcollateralization Tests or Concentration Limitations not being violated or, in the commercially reasonable judgment of the Servicer, the likelihood of such violation in the future not being significantly increased; or

(ii) after the Replacement Period, the Sale Proceeds received in respect of the Credit Improved Obligation are at least equal to its Purchase Criteria Adjusted Balance. For this purpose, the Principal Balance of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount and Principal Balance shall include the principal balance of Collateral Obligations in which the Trustee does not have a first priority perfected security interest; and the Trustee shall sell the Credit Improved Obligation in accordance with such direction.

(c) Non-Performing Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Non-Performing Collateral Obligation at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Non-Performing Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction. Non-Performing Collateral Obligations may be sold regardless of price.

(d) Non-qualifying Collateral Obligations. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation (the “Non-qualifying Collateral Obligation”) at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell that obligation in accordance with such direction.

(e) Withholding Tax Sales. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation subject to withholding tax at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligation in accordance with such direction.

(f) Optional Redemption. After the Issuer has notified the Trustee of an Optional Redemption of the Notes in accordance with Article 9, at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all or a portion of the Collateral Obligations as contemplated therein if (i) the requirements of Article 9 are satisfied and (ii) the Independent certified public accountants appointed pursuant to Section 10.7 have confirmed the calculations contained in any required certificate furnished by the Servicer pursuant to Section 9.3(c). After a Majority of the Preference Shares have directed an Optional Redemption of the Preference Shares in accordance with Section 9.2(b), at the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer shall direct the Trustee to sell all of the remaining Collateral Obligations (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(i)) or a portion of the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous directions of Holders of the Preference Shares (in the case of an Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii)) and the Trustee shall sell the remaining Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

(g) Rating Confirmation Failure. After the Servicer has received notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities, the Issuer may, at the direction of the Servicer, direct the Trustee to sell Collateral Obligations as contemplated in Section 9.1 and the Trustee shall sell the Collateral Obligations in accordance with such direction.

(h) Workout Assets. At the direction of the Servicer, the Issuer may direct the Trustee to sell any Workout Asset at any time during or after the Replacement Period without restriction and regardless of price and the Trustee shall sell the Workout Assets in accordance with such direction.

(i) Supervening Requirement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Issuer (at the direction of the Servicer or otherwise) shall not acquire or dispose of a Collateral Obligation or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer or otherwise, may direct the Trustee to sell any CCC+/Caa1 Collateral Obligation or Deep Discount Obligation only (a) if it constitutes Credit Risk Obligation or Non-Performing Collateral Obligation or (b) in connection with the Optional Redemption as set out in paragraph (f) above. The Trustee shall have no obligation to monitor compliance by the Issuer or the Servicer with respect to the requirement set out in this paragraph (i).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall not direct the Trustee to sell any Collateral Obligation (other than the sale of a Credit Risk Obligation or a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation pursuant to a sale that meets the requirements in paragraph (a) or (c) above, as applicable) following receipt by the Servicer of notice of removal pursuant to Section 14 of the Servicing Agreement until a successor Servicer is appointed pursuant to Section 12 of the Servicing Agreement.

certifies to the Trustee that, to the best knowledge of the Servicer, the conditions specified in this Section 12.2 and Section 12.3 are met.

If any Event of Default has not been cured or waived and acceleration occurs and is continuing in accordance with Article 5, each Priority Class of Notes shall be paid in full in Cash or, to the extent a Majority of each Class consents, other than in Cash, before any further payment or distribution is made on account of any Junior Class of Notes with respect to the Priority Class. The Holders of each Junior Class of Notes agree, for the benefit of the Holders of Notes of each Priority Class in respect of the Junior Class, not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for failure to pay to them amounts due to the Junior Class, of the Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, or under this Indenture until the payment in full of the Priority Classes or all the Classes, as the case may be, and not before one year and a day, or if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect, has elapsed since the payment.

(c) If, notwithstanding the provisions of this Indenture, any Holder of Notes of any Junior Class has received any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes contrary to the provisions of this Indenture, then, until each Priority Class with respect to the Junior Class of Notes or each Class of Notes, as the case may be, has been paid in full in Cash or, to the extent a Majority of the Priority Class or the Class, as the case may be, consents, other than in Cash in accordance with this Indenture, the payment or distribution shall be received and held in trust for the benefit of, and shall forthwith be paid over and delivered to, the Trustee, which shall pay and deliver the same to the Holders of the applicable Priority Classes of Notes or the Holders of all Classes of Notes, as the case may be, in accordance with this Indenture. If any such payment or distribution is made other than in Cash, it shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and subject in all respects to this Indenture, including this Section 13.1.

(d) Each Holder of Notes of any Junior Class agrees with all Holders of the applicable Priority Classes that the Holder of Junior Class Notes shall not demand, accept, or receive any payment or distribution in respect of the Notes in violation of this Indenture including this Section 13.1. After a Priority Class has been paid in full, the Holders of Notes of the related Junior Class or Classes shall be fully subrogated to the rights of the Holders of the Priority Class. Nothing in this Section 13.1 shall affect the obligation of the Issuer to pay Holders of any Junior Class of Notes.

(e) Distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares (other than, as and to the extent described herein, the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) are subordinate to distributions on the Notes as described in the Priority of Payments.

(f) The Servicing Fees shall have priority only to the extent provided in the Priority of Payments.

Section 13.2. Standard of Conduct.

In exercising any of its or their voting rights, rights to direct and consent, or any other rights as a Noteholder under this Indenture, a Noteholder shall not have any obligation or duty to any Person or to consider or take into account the interests of any Person and shall not be liable to any Person for any action taken by it or them or at its or their direction or any failure by it or them to act or to direct that an action be taken, without regard to whether the action or inaction benefits or adversely affects any Noteholder, the Issuer or any other Person, except for any liability to which the Noteholder may be subject to the extent the same results from the Noteholder's taking or directing an action, or failing to take or direct an action, in bad faith or in violation of the express terms of this Indenture.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 14.1. Form of Documents Delivered to Trustee.

In any case where several matters are required to be certified by, or covered by an opinion of, any specified Person, it is not necessary that all the matters be certified by, or covered by the opinion of, only one Person, or that they be so certified or covered by only one document, but one such Person may certify or give an opinion with respect to some matters and one or more other such Persons as to other matters, and any such Person may certify or give an opinion as to the matters in one or several documents.

Any certificate or opinion of an Officer of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Servicer may be based, insofar as it relates to legal matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, counsel, unless the Officer knows, or should know that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to the matters upon which his certificate or opinion is based are erroneous. Any such certificate of an Officer of the Issuer, Co-Issuer or the Servicer or Opinion of Counsel may be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer or any other Person, stating that the information with respect to the factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer or the other Person, unless the Officer of the Issuer, Co-Issuer or the Servicer or the counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to factual matters are erroneous. Any Opinion of Counsel may also be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, an Officer of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, stating that the information with respect to factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, unless the counsel knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to factual matters are erroneous.

Where any Person is required to make, give, or execute two or more applications, requests, consents, certificates, statements, opinions or other instruments under this Indenture, they may, but need not, be consolidated and form one instrument.

Whenever this Indenture provides that the absence of the continuation of a Default or Event of Default is a condition precedent to the taking of any action by the Trustee at the request or direction of either Co-Issuer, then notwithstanding that the satisfaction of the condition is a condition precedent to the Co-Issuer's right to make the request or direction, the Trustee shall be protected in acting in accordance with the request or direction if it does not have knowledge of the continuation of the Default or Event of Default as provided in Section 6.1(d).

Section 14.2. Acts of Holders of Securities.

The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any instrument may also be proved in any other manner that the Trustee deems sufficient.

(c) The Indenture Register shall prove the ownership of the Notes and the principal amount and registered numbers of Notes and the number of Preference Shares held by and the number(s) of the Preference Share certificate(s) issued to, any Person shall be proved by the Preference Share register.

(e) With respect to any time period or deadline to deliver any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other communication provided by this Indenture to be given by Holders of the Preference Shares, the Holders of Holding Preference Shares shall not be prejudiced by any delay in delivery of such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other communication from the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, Trustee or the Issuer, as the case may be. ASSIGNMENT OF SERVICING AGREEMENT; HEDGE AGREEMENTS

Section 15.1. *Assignment of Servicing Agreement; Amendment of Servicing Agreement.

(a) The Issuer, in furtherance of the covenants of this Indenture and as security for the Notes and amounts payable to the Secured Parties under this Indenture and the performance and observance of the provisions of this Indenture, acknowledges that its Grant pursuant to the first Granting Clause includes all of the Issuer's interest in the Servicing Agreement, including:

- (i) the right to give all notices, consents and releases under it,
- (ii) the right to give all notices of termination pursuant to the Servicing Agreement and to take any legal action upon the breach of an obligation of the Servicer under it, including the commencement, conduct and consummation of proceedings at law or in equity,
- (iii) the right to receive all notices, accountings, consents, releases and statements under it, and
- (iv) the right to do all other things whatsoever that the Issuer is or may be entitled to do under it.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, the Trustee may not exercise any of the rights in (i) through (iv) above or that may otherwise arise as a result of the Grant until the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Indenture and the authority shall terminate when the Event of Default is cured or waived.

(b) The assignment made hereby is executed as security, and the execution and delivery hereby shall not in any way impair or diminish the obligations of the Issuer under the Servicing Agreement, nor shall any of the obligations contained in the Servicing Agreement be imposed on the Trustee.

(c) Upon the retirement of the Notes and the release of the Collateral from the lien of this Indenture, this assignment, and all rights in this Indenture assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders shall cease and terminate and all the interest of the Trustee in the Servicing Agreement shall revert to the Issuer and no further instrument or act shall be necessary to evidence the termination and reversion.

(d) The Issuer represents that the Issuer has not executed any other assignment of the Servicing Agreement.

(e) The Issuer agrees that this assignment is irrevocable, and that it shall not take any action that is inconsistent with this assignment or make any other assignment inconsistent herewith. The Issuer shall, from time to time upon the request of the Trustee, execute all instruments of further assurance and all such supplemental instruments with respect to this assignment as the Trustee may reasonably request.

(f) The Issuer agrees to obtain the agreement and consent of the Servicer in the Servicing Agreement to the following:

year and one day following the payment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Servicer may commence any legal action that is not a bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation or similar proceeding against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of their properties and may take any action it deems appropriate at any time in any bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation or similar proceeding and any other Proceeding voluntarily commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or involuntarily commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer by anyone other than the Servicer or any Affiliate of the Servicer.

(vi) the Servicer irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Notes, the Preference Shares or this Indenture, and the Servicer irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of the action or proceeding may be heard and determined in the New York State or federal court. Each Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes and each Holder of the Preference Shares that also wishes to object to such amendment or modification must, by delivering a written notice, so notify the Trustee within seven Business Days after the Trustee has mailed such notice of the receipt of such objection (the last day of such seven Business Day period, the "Objection Cut-Off Date"). If a Majority of either the Controlling Class of Notes or the Preference Shares notifies the Trustee in writing on or before the Objection Cut-Off Date that they object to the proposed amendment or modification to the Servicing Agreement, such amendment or modification shall not be made.

Section 15.2. Hedge Agreements.

(a) At any time and from time to time after the Closing Date, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, shall enter into the Hedge Agreements and shall assign its rights (but none of its obligations) under the Hedge Agreements to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture and the Collateral Assignment of Hedge Agreements. The Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall obtain the approval of each new Hedge Agreement from each Hedge Counterparty to a then-existing Hedge Agreement. The Trustee shall, on behalf of the Issuer and in accordance with the Valuation Report, pay amounts due to the Hedge Counterparties under the Hedge Agreements on any Payment Date in accordance with Section 11.1.

(b) The Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless at the time of entering the Hedge Agreement the Hedge Counterparty has:

(i) a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "Aa3" (which rating of "Aa3" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) or higher if the Hedge Counterparty has only a long-term rating; or a debt rating by Moody's for long-term debt of "A1" (which rating of "A1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) or higher and a debt rating by Moody's for short-term debt of "P-1" (which rating of "P-1" is not on credit watch for possible downgrade) if the Hedge Counterparty has both long-term and short-term ratings; and

(ii) a short-term debt rating by S&P of not less than "A-1" or, if the Hedge Counterparty does not have a short-term debt rating by S&P, a long-term debt rating of not less than "A+" (the "Required Rating").

(c) If at any time a Hedge Counterparty has:

(A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating and that rating is below "Aa3" or is "Aa3" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's; or

(B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:

(i) the long-term Moody's rating is below "A1" or that rating is "A1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's, or

(ii) the short-term Moody's rating is below "P-1" or that rating is "P-1" and has been placed on credit watch for possible downgrade by Moody's

then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:

- (i) post collateral with the Trustee to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement, in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's to be satisfied;
    - (ii) obtain a guarantor whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria;
    - (iii) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty whose short-term and long-term debt ratings equal or exceed the above criteria; or
    - (iv) take other actions to satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's;
  - (d) If at any time the Hedge Counterparty has:
    - (A) no short-term Moody's rating and a long-term Moody's rating that is "A2" or below or has been suspended or withdrawn;
    - (B) both a short-term and long-term Moody's rating; and either:
      - (i) the long-term Moody's rating is "A3" or below or is suspended or withdrawn, or
      - (ii) the short-term Moody's rating is "P-2" or below, or
    - (C) a short-term debt rating by S&P below "A-1" or, if the Hedge Counterparty has no short-term rating by S&P, a long-term rating by S&P below "A+" or that has been suspended or withdrawn;
- then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required, at its sole expense, to, within 30 days, either:
- (i) post collateral as required by the Hedge Agreement to secure the Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement in an amount and of the type sufficient to cause the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's and S&P to be satisfied; provided that the Hedge Counterparty shall, at the time such collateral is first posted, deliver to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Rating Agencies an Opinion of Counsel of nationally recognized standing in the jurisdiction in which the Hedge Counterparty is incorporated confirming that such collateral will be available in a timely manner upon a bankruptcy of the Hedge Counterparty; or
    - (ii) (x) obtain a guarantor that has a Required Rating and that will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P with respect to its appointment;

(y) replace itself under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty that has a Required Rating and the appointment of which will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P; or provided that failure to take any such steps set forth under paragraphs (i) and (ii) above shall be treated as an "Additional Termination Event" under such Hedge Agreement.

(z) take such other actions to satisfy the Ratings Condition;

Whenever the Issuer enters into a Hedge Agreement, the Hedge Counterparty shall comply with the then currently applicable rating criteria published by each Rating Agency from time to time.

(e) If at any time the Hedge Counterparty has a long-term unsecured debt rating by S&P below "BBB-," then the Hedge Counterparty shall be required to replace itself within 30 days under the related or substantially equivalent Hedge Agreement with a substitute Hedge Counterparty that has a Required Rating and the appointment of which will satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to S&P; provided that failure to do so shall be treated as an "Additional Termination Event" under such Hedge Agreement.

(f) If the Issuer has the right under a Hedge Agreement at any time to demand that the related Hedge Counterparty deliver Eligible Collateral in accordance with an Approved Credit Support Document, the Issuer shall make the demand.

(g) Any payments required to be made under the Hedge Agreements shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Subordinated Defaulted Hedge Termination Payments shall be subordinate to interest and principal payments on the Notes and any other payments required to be made by the Issuer under the Hedge Agreements, but senior to distributions to Holders of the Preference Shares.

(h) Except as provided in paragraph (i) of this Section 15.2, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, shall, promptly following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) (but no later than 60 days after the early termination), at the expense of the Hedge Counterparty and to the extent possible through application of Hedge Termination Receipts, enter into a Replacement Hedge, unless, in the exercise of the Servicer's commercially reasonable judgment, to do so would not be in the best interest of the Issuer and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the non-entry into the a Replacement Hedge. In addition, a Replacement Hedge may not be entered into unless the Issuer provides the Rating Agencies with at least seven Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to enter into the agreement, together with its form and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the Replacement Hedge. The Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than a termination resulting from the bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar event with respect to the Hedge Counterparty) to become effective simultaneously with its entering into a Replacement Hedge. To the extent that (i) the Servicer determines not to replace the Hedge Agreement and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the determination or (ii) termination is occurring on a Redemption Date, the Hedge Termination Receipts shall become part of Principal Proceeds and be distributed in accordance with Section 11.1 on the next following Payment Date (or on the Redemption Date, if the Notes are redeemed on the Redemption Date).

(i) Notwithstanding Section 15.2(h), the applicable requirements of Section 15.2(h) shall not have to be met if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is otherwise satisfied with respect thereto.

(j) The notional amounts of the Hedge Agreements outstanding at any time may be reduced or increased from time to time, by the Issuer, and the Hedge Agreements may be amended, modified or terminated in accordance with the Hedge Agreements if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the reduction, increase, amendment, modification or termination, as the case may be.

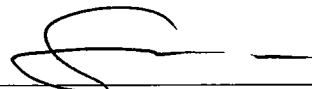

(k) Each Hedge Agreement may be terminated pursuant to its terms upon an Optional Redemption of the Notes or an acceleration of maturity of the Notes after an Event of Default. The Hedge Agreement will not be permitted to be terminated as the result of a Default or Event of Default unless any acceleration of maturity of the Notes resulting from the Event of Default is no longer permitted to be rescinded pursuant to this Indenture.

(l) Except for Hedge Agreements entered into on or before the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not enter into any Hedge Agreement unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied.

Schedule 4

Diversity Score Calculation

The Diversity Score for the Collateral Obligations is calculated by summing each of the Industry Diversity Scores, which are calculated as follows:

(i) An "Obligor Par Amount" is calculated for each obligor represented in the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) by summing the par amounts of all Collateral Obligations in the Collateral (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) issued by that obligor or any Affiliate of that obligor (other than obligors that the Servicer reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(ii) An "Average Par Amount" is calculated by summing the Obligor Par Amounts and dividing by the number of obligors represented. For purposes of calculating the number of issuers of the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations), any issuers Affiliated with one another shall be considered one issuer (other than obligors that the Servicer reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(iii) An "Equivalent Unit Score" is calculated for each obligor represented in the Collateral Obligations (other than Defaulted Collateral Obligations) by taking the lesser of (A) one and (B) the Obligor Par Amount for the obligor divided by the Average Par Amount. For purposes of calculating the Equivalent Unit Score, any issuers Affiliated with one another shall be considered one issuer (other than obligors that the Servicer reasonably determines are Affiliated but are not dependent upon one another for credit support and are not dependent upon a Person by which they are commonly controlled for credit support).

(iv) An "Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score" is then calculated for each of the Moody's industrial classification groups by summing the Equivalent Unit Scores for each obligor in the industry.

(v) An "Industry Diversity Score" is then established by reference to the Diversity Score Table shown below for the related Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score. If any Aggregate Industry Equivalent Unit Score falls between any two the scores then the applicable Industry Diversity Score shall be the lower of the two Industry Diversity Scores in the Diversity Score Table.

The Diversity Score for any Structured Finance Obligation that is a collateralized loan obligation is equal to zero.

Schedule 7

Certain Defined Terms Relating to S&P Rating and Moody's Rating

"Assigned Moody's Rating": The monitored publicly available rating or the monitored estimated rating expressly assigned to a debt obligation (or facility) by Moody's that addresses the full amount of the principal and interest promised.

"Moody's Default Probability Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (a) with respect to a Moody's Senior Secured Loan:
  - (i) if the Loan's obligor has a corporate family rating from Moody's, such corporate family rating; and
  - (ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's Obligation Rating of such Loan;
  - (iii) if the preceding clauses do not apply, the rating that is one subcategory above the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating;
- (b) with respect to a Moody's Non Senior Secured Loan or a Bond, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating of such Collateral Obligation;
- (c) with respect to a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the rating that is one rating subcategory below the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof;
- (d) with respect to a Structured Finance Obligation, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof or, if the obligation does not have an Assigned Moody's Rating but has a rating by S&P, then the Moody's Default Probability Rating shall be:
  - (i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher, or
  - (ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower; and
- (e) with respect to a Synthetic Security, the Assigned Moody's Rating thereof.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Moody's rating or ratings used to determine the Moody's Default Probability Rating are on watch for downgrade or upgrade by Moody's, such rating or ratings will be adjusted down (if on watch for downgrade) (i) with respect to any Collateral Obligation other than Structured Finance Obligations, one subcategory and (ii) with respect to any Structured Finance Obligation, two subcategories or adjusted up (if on watch for upgrade) (i) with respect to any Collateral Obligation other than Structured Finance Obligations, one subcategory and (ii) with respect to any Structured Finance Obligation, two subcategories. For purposes of any calculation under this Indenture, if a Moody's Default Probability Rating is withdrawn by Moody's with respect to a Collateral Obligation, the Issuer will continue using the latest Moody's Default Probability Rating available immediately prior to such withdrawal until a bankruptcy event occurs with respect to such Collateral Obligation.

"Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation that is a Loan or bond and the obligor thereof, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

(a) if the obligor has a senior unsecured obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating;

(b) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's "Issuer Rating" for the obligor;

(c) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a subordinated obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, then

(ii) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is less than "B3" (or rated "B3" and on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be such Assigned Moody's Rating;

(d) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior secured obligation with an Assigned Moody's Rating, then:

(i) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is at least "Caa3" (and, if rated "Caa3," not on watch for downgrade), the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be the rating which is one subcategory below such Assigned Moody's Rating, or

(ii) if such Assigned Moody's Rating is less than "Caa3" (or rated "Caa3" and on watch for downgrade), then the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be "C";

(e) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but such obligor has a corporate family rating from Moody's, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be one rating subcategory below such corporate family rating;

(f) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior unsecured obligation (other than a bank loan) with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), then the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be:

(i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher,

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower; or

(g) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a subordinated obligation (other than a bank loan) with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), the Assigned Moody's Rating shall be deemed to be:

(i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower, and the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be determined pursuant to clause (c) above; or

(iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Servicer obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating not lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Servicer on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or Bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (g)(iii), or clauses (f)(iii) or (h)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(h) if the preceding clauses do not apply, but the obligor has a senior secured obligation with a monitored public rating from S&P (without any postscripts, asterisks or other qualifying notations, that addresses the full amount of principal and interest promised), the Assigned Moody's Rating shall be deemed to be:

(i) one rating subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BBB-" or higher;

(ii) two rating subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such S&P rating if it is "BB+" or lower, and the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating shall be determined pursuant to clause (d) above; or

(iii) "B3" until the Issuer or the Servicer obtains an estimated rating from Moody's if (A) the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that in its commercially reasonable judgment, it believes an estimated rating equivalent to a rating not lower than "B3" will be assigned by Moody's and the Issuer or the Servicer on its behalf applies for an estimated rating from Moody's within five Business Days of the date of the commitment to purchase the Loan or Bond, (B) the aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations having an Assigned Moody's Rating pursuant to either this clause (h)(iii), or clauses (f)(iii) or (g)(iii) does not exceed 5% of the Maximum Amount, and (C) all the Coverage Tests and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied;

(i) if the preceding clauses do not apply and each of the following clauses (i) through (viii) do apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Caa1":

(i) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings,

(ii) no debt securities or obligations of the obligor are in default,

(iii) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates has defaulted on any debt during the preceding two years,

- (iv) the obligor has been in existence for the preceding five years,

- (vi) the fixed-charge ratio for the obligor exceeds 125% for each of the preceding two fiscal years and for the most recent quarter,
- (vii) the obligor had a net profit before tax in the past fiscal year and the most recent quarter, and
- (viii) the annual financial statements of such obligor are unqualified and certified by a firm of Independent accountants of international reputation, and quarterly statements are unaudited but signed by a corporate officer;
- (j) if the preceding clauses do not apply but each of the following clauses (i) and (ii) do apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Caa3":
  - (i) neither the obligor nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings; and
  - (ii) no debt security or obligation of such obligor has been in default during the past two years; and
- (k) if the preceding clauses do not apply and a debt security or obligation of the obligor has been in default during the past two years, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating will be "Ca."

Notwithstanding the foregoing, not more than 10% of the Maximum Amount may consist of Relevant Obligations given a Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating based on a rating given by S&P as provided in clauses (f), (g) and (h) above.

"Moody's Obligation Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following, in the following order of priority:

- (a) With respect to a Moody's Senior Secured Loan:
  - (i) if it has an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating; or
  - (ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the rating that is one rating subcategory above the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating; and
- (b) With respect to a Moody's Non Senior Secured Loan or a Bond:
  - (i) if it has an Assigned Moody's Rating, such Assigned Moody's Rating; or
  - (ii) if the preceding clause does not apply, the Moody's Equivalent Senior Unsecured Rating; and

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Moody's rating or ratings used to determine the Moody's Obligation Rating are on watch for downgrade or upgrade by Moody's, such rating or ratings will be adjusted down one subcategory (if on watch for downgrade) or up one subcategory (if on watch for upgrade).

"Moody's Rating": The Moody's Default Probability Rating; provided that, with respect to the Collateral Obligations generally, if at any time Moody's or any successor to it ceases to provide rating services, references to rating categories of Moody's in this Indenture shall be deemed instead to be references to the equivalent categories of any other nationally recognized investment rating agency selected by the Servicer, as of the most recent date on which such other rating agency and Moody's published ratings for the type of security in respect of which such alternative rating agency is used.

"S&P Rating": With respect to any Collateral Obligation, as of any date of determination, the rating determined in accordance with the following methodology:

(i) If there is an issuer credit rating of the borrower of the Collateral Obligation (the "Borrower"), or the guarantor who unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the Collateral Obligation (the "Guarantor") by S&P, the most current issuer credit rating for such Borrower or Guarantor (provided that with respect to any private or confidential rating, a consent has been granted by such Borrower or Guarantor and a copy of such consent shall be provided to S&P indicating that the issuer can rely on such private or confidential rating);

(ii) (a) if there is not an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating of the Collateral Obligation will be one subcategory below such rating; (b) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior unsecured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be such rating; and (c) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a subordinated obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be two subcategories above such rating if such rating is "BBB-" or higher and will be one subcategory above such rating if such rating is "BB+" or lower (provided that with respect to any private or confidential rating, a consent has been granted by such Borrower or Guarantor and a copy of such consent shall be provided to S&P indicating that the issuer can rely on such private or confidential rating); or

(iii) if there is neither an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P nor a rating by S&P on an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating may be determined using any one of the methods below:

(A) if an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is publicly rated by Moody's, then the S&P Rating will be determined in accordance with the methodologies for establishing the Moody's Default Probability Rating, except that the S&P Rating of such obligation will be (1) one subcategory below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody's if such security is rated "Baa3" or higher by Moody's and (2) two subcategories below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody's if such security is rated "Ba1" or lower by Moody's; provided that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 10% of the Maximum Amount may be given a S&P Rating based on a rating given by Moody's as provided in this subclause (a) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable);

(B) if no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's, then the Servicer may apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating estimate, which will be its S&P Rating; or

(C) if such Collateral Obligation is not rated by Moody's or S&P, no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's and if the Servicer determines in its sole discretion based on information available to it after reasonable inquiry that such Borrower (x) is not subject to any bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings nor in default on any of its obligations (unless the subject of a good faith business dispute), (y) is a legally constituted corporate entity having the minimum legal, financial and operational infrastructure to carry on a definable business, deliver and sell a product or service and report its results in generally accepted accounting terms as verified by a reputable audit firm and (z) is not so vulnerable to adverse business, financial and economic conditions that default in its financial or other obligations is foreseeable in the near term if current operating trends continue, then the S&P Rating will be "B-"; provided that the Servicer must apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating on such Borrower within 30 days after the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation; provided, further, that Collateral Obligations constituting no more than 5% of the Maximum Amount may be given an S&P Rating based on this subclause (c) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant Collateral Obligation, if applicable);

provided that if (i) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any positive "credit watch" list by S&P, such rating will be increased by one rating subcategory or (ii) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any negative "credit watch" list by S&P, such rating will be decreased by one rating subcategory.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a DIP Loan, the S&P Rating shall be (A) the rating assigned thereto by S&P if the rating is public, (B) the rating assigned by S&P if the rating is confidential, but only if all appropriate parties have provided written consent to its disclosure and use, (C) the rating assigned by S&P thereto through an estimated rating or (D) the rating assigned thereto by S&P in connection with the acquisition thereof upon the request of the Servicer. In the case of a Collateral Obligation that is a PIK Security, Structured Finance Obligation or Synthetic Securities, the S&P Rating may not be determined pursuant to clause (iii)(A) above. For purposes of any calculation under the Indenture, if a S&P Rating is withdrawn by S&P with respect to a Collateral Obligation, the Issuer will continue using the latest S&P Rating available immediately prior to such withdrawal until a bankruptcy event occurs with respect to such Collateral Obligation.

S&P Ratings for entities or obligations relevant hereunder other than Borrowers and Collateral Obligations shall be determined in a corresponding manner.

PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENCY AGREEMENT

As of August 3, 2006

Preference Shares Paying Agent
Corporate Trust Services
Red River CLO Ltd.
One Federal Street, 3rd Floor
Mailcode: EX-MA-FED
Boston, Massachusetts 02110-2004

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Red River CLO Ltd., a company existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the “Issuer”), has resolved to appoint U.S. Bank National Association (“U.S. Bank”), as preference shares paying agent (the “Preference Shares Paying Agent”) for the Class I Preference Shares and the Class II Preference Shares issued by the Issuer (collectively, the “Preference Shares”). The Issuer hereby appoints U.S. Bank as such under the terms set forth below and confirms U.S. Bank’s agreement to distribute any funds to be paid to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Priority of Payments set forth in the Indenture (as defined herein). Reference is also made to the indenture, dated as of August 3, 2006, among the Issuer, Red River CLO Corp., as co-issuer (the “Co-Issuer”), and U.S. Bank, as trustee (the “Indenture”). Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Indenture or, if not defined therein, certain resolutions passed at a meeting of the Issuer’s Board of Directors that was held on August 3, 2006, as reflected in the minutes thereof, including Annex A (“Annex A”) therein (the “Resolutions” and, together with this Agreement and the Issuer’s Memorandum and Articles of Association, the “Preference Share Documents”). The Preference Shares will be issued, and may be transferred, subject to the procedures set forth in Annex A to the Resolutions.

On the Closing Date, (i) all of the Class I Preference Shares will be offered and sold directly by the Issuer to Red River Investors Corp., an exempted limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“Investors Corp.”) and (ii) all of the Class II Preference Shares will be offered and sold by the Issuer directly to Highland Financial Partners, L.P. (“HFP”) (an Affiliate of the Servicer) and/or one or more of its subsidiaries. Investors Corp. will finance its purchase of the Class I Preference Shares by issuing preference shares (the “Holding Preference Shares”) in a number equal to the aggregate number of, at a price equal to the price of, such Class I Preference Shares purchased by it.

Section 1. Notice of Distribution to Directors. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, promptly after receipt of the Valuation Report, shall forward or make available to the directors of the Issuer (as identified to it by the Issuer) the Valuation Report which identifies the Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds, payable to the Holders of the Preference Shares on the applicable Payment Date.

Section 2. Payments of Dividends and Other Distributions, Amounts Not Distributable. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall, subject to paragraphs (b), (c), (d) and (e) below, pay or cause to be paid, on behalf of the Issuer on each applicable Payment Date, the Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds received from the Trustee to the Holders of the Preference Shares as a distribution of dividend on such Payment Date. Such distributions of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds by way of dividend to the Holders of Preference Shares shall be paid pro rata in the proportion that the number of Preference Shares held by each such Holder bears to the total number of Preference Shares. The Issuer, or the Share Registrar on its behalf, shall provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with a copy of the Preference Share register on the Closing Date and thereafter, the Share Registrar will promptly notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent of any changes to the Preference Share register. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall notify the Issuer and the Share Registrar of any transfers of Preference Shares known to it.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, distributions of Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds by way of dividend to the Holders of Preference Shares on any Payment Date shall (i) be subject to the Issuer being solvent under Cayman Islands law (defined as the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business) immediately prior to, and after giving effect to, such payment as determined by the Issuer and (ii) be made only to the extent that the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium out of which to make such payment as determined by the Issuer. If the Issuer determines that the conditions set forth in either clause (i) or (ii) above are not satisfied with respect to any portion of Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds payable on such Payment Date, the Issuer shall instruct the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing not later than one Business Day prior to such Payment Date that such portion of Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds, as applicable, should not be paid, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not pay the same, to the Holders of the Preference Shares until the first succeeding Payment Date, or (in the case of any payments which would otherwise be payable on the Redemption Date or any Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date) until the first succeeding Business Day, upon which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing that each such condition is satisfied, at which time the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall distribute such amounts. To the extent available, distributions shall be made first out of distributable profits for the current Due Period, then out of distributable profits in excess of dividends for prior Due Periods and then out of share premium.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, distributions of the Redemption Price by way of redemption of the Preference Shares shall be subject to the Issuer being solvent under Cayman Islands law (defined as the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business) immediately prior to, and after giving effect to, such distribution as determined by the Issuer. For purposes of this subsection (c), a determination as to whether the Issuer is solvent on the Redemption Date shall be made by the Issuer (A) after giving effect to any payments to be made on such Redemption Date and (B) in light of the fact that the obligations of the Issuer to the Holders of the Notes, the other Secured Parties and the other Persons subject to the Priority of Payments are limited in recourse to the Collateral, and not to amounts (i) in the Preference Shares Distribution Account, (ii) any other amounts released from the Collateral in accordance with the Indenture and held by or on behalf of the Issuer for the benefit of the Holders of the Preference Shares or (iii) amounts on deposit in the Issuer's bank account in the Cayman Islands, and that after the assets in the Collateral are exhausted, such parties will have no further claim against the Issuer. If the Issuer determines that such condition is not satisfied on a Redemption Date with respect to any portion of the Redemption Price, the Issuer shall instruct the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing not later than one Business Day prior to such Redemption Date that such portion should not be distributed, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not distribute the same, to the Holders of the Preference Shares until the first succeeding Business Day upon which the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent in writing that such condition is satisfied, and the amounts so retained in the Preference Shares Distribution Account will be held therein until such amounts are paid.

(d) On each Payment Date during the first two years following the Closing Date, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall distribute, on behalf of the Issuer, amounts received by it from amounts on deposit in the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account pursuant to Section 10.3(j) of the Indenture that are equal to the products of (a) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date and (b) the Servicing Fees then due and payable to the Servicer as described in Section 11.1(a)(i) of the Indenture, for payment pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as the Class II Preference Share Special Payment. After the two-year anniversary of the Closing Date, the Preference Shares Payment Agent shall make distribution of such Class II Preference Share Special Payment pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares in an amount equal to any portion (between 0% and 100%) of the Servicing Fees then due and payable that the Servicer elects to waive at any time in its sole discretion.

(e) Dividends to the Holders of the Preference Shares (other than Class II Preference Share Special Payments) may be paid, in whole or in part on any Payment Date, with any Eligible Equity Securities held by, or on behalf of, the Issuer at such time in lieu of a distribution of Interest Proceeds. The Servicer, on behalf the Issuer, shall have the right to direct the Trustee to distribute any Eligible Equity Securities pro rata to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares (as identified to the Trustee by the Preference Shares Paying Agent) with respect to such Payment Date to the extent that the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) is equal to or lower than the aggregate amount of Interest Proceeds that would otherwise be due and payable on such Payment Date to such Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares. Interest Proceeds in an amount equal to the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities (determined by the Servicer as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date) distributed to the Consenting Holders of the Preference Shares with respect to any such Payment Date shall be treated for all purposes by the Issuer and the Servicer as Principal Proceeds available for distribution on the relevant Payment Date. The amount of Interest Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date shall be reduced and the amount of Principal Proceeds available on the relevant Payment Date shall be increased accordingly.

Section 3. Payments and Redemption. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall make payments or distributions (other than distributions of Eligible Equity Securities) to each registered Holder on the relevant Record Date (as set out in Annex A to the Resolutions) by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a U.S. Dollar account maintained by such Holder as notified to the Preference Shares Paying Agent or, in the absence of such notification, by U.S. Dollar check mailed to such Holder at its address of record. The Issuer shall, or shall procure that the Share Registrar will, provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with all relevant information regarding the registered Holders of the Preference Shares as the Preference Shares Paying Agent may reasonably require to the extent such information is in possession or control of the Issuer or Share Registrar.

(b) If the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, desires to make distributions of Eligible Equity Securities on any Payment Date in lieu of Interest Proceeds that are otherwise available for distribution to the Holders of Preference Shares on such Payment Date pursuant to the Priority of Payments as described in Section 2(e) above, the Servicer will notify the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent pursuant to the Servicing Agreement not later than 20 calendar days prior to such Payment Date and provide the Trustee, the Issuer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding on the Record Date or promptly thereafter, but in no event later than two Business Days after the Record Date, to each Holder of the Preference Shares registered as such on the Record Date for such Payment Date) and the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding on the Record Date or promptly thereafter, but in no event later than two Business Days after the Record Date, to each Holder of the Holding Preference Shares registered as such on the Record Date for such Payment Date) with (i) details of the Eligible Equity Securities to be distributed, (ii) the Market Value of such Eligible Equity Securities determined as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date, (iii) any other information considered necessary by the Servicer in connection with such proposed distribution and (iv) any information as otherwise required by the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and/or the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to such proposed distribution. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall then mail such materials, within two Business Days of its receipt thereof from the Servicer, to each registered Holder of Preference Shares on the Record Date for such Payment Date along with a form of notice and consent (in a form attached hereto in Schedule I) seeking the written consent of each such Holder of Preference Shares to distribute such Eligible Equity Securities to such Holder in lieu of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such Payment Date. Each Holder of the Preference Shares wishing to receive such Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of a distribution of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such applicable Payment Date (each such Holder with respect to such Payment Date, a “Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares”) is required to deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent a written consent (which consent will be irrevocable) no later than five Business Days prior to such Payment Date. If any Holder of Preference Shares does not timely deliver its written consent to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in the manner set forth in such notice indicating its consent to the receipt of such Eligible Equity Securities in lieu of a distribution of all or a portion of the Interest Proceeds available for distribution to such Holder on such Payment Date, such Holder shall be deemed to have not given its consent and shall not be a Consenting Holder of Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date. On each applicable Payment Date (or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable), Eligible Equity Securities shall be distributed pro rata to each Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares with respect to such Payment Date. Each Holder of Preference Shares that is not a Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares (and, for the avoidance of doubt, each Consenting Holder of the Preference Shares to the extent the Market Value as of the relevant Market Value Determination Date of the pro rata portion of Eligible Equity Securities distributed to it on such Payment Date is less than the pro rata portion of the Interest Proceeds that it would have received on such Payment Date had the Eligible Equity Securities not been distributed on such Payment Date) on any applicable Payment Date shall receive a distribution of Interest Proceeds to the extent available in accordance with the Priority of Payments on such Payment Date in accordance with Section 2(e) herein and the Indenture.

(c) The Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be obligated to pay any additional amounts to Holders or beneficial owners of the Preference Shares as a result of any withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges. As a condition to payment of any amount, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, may require certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments or distributions in respect of Preference Shares under any present or future law or regulation of the United States or any present or future law or regulation of any political subdivision thereof or taxing authority therein or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under such law or regulation. Amounts properly withheld under the Code by any Person from a payment or distribution to a Holder of Preference Shares shall be considered as having been paid by the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent to such Holder for all purposes herein. The Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereby provide notice to each Holder or beneficial owner of the Preference Shares that the failure to provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with appropriate tax certifications will result in amounts being withheld from payments to such Holders or beneficial owners of the Preference Shares under this Agreement (provided that amounts withheld pursuant to applicable tax laws shall be considered as having been paid by the Issuer as provided herein).

(d) The Issuer, the Share Registrar and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may deem and treat the Holder of any Preference Shares as the absolute owner of such Preference Shares, notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing on any certificate representing such Preference Shares, for the purpose of paying dividends and other distributions thereon, and for all other purposes, and none of the Issuer, the Share Registrar or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary. All such payments (including distributions of Eligible Equity Securities) so made to such Holder or upon such Holder’s order shall be valid and, to the extent of the sum or sums so paid, effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability for the monies payable upon any such Preference Share.

(e) All payments by the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder shall be made without charging any commission or fee to the Holders of the Preference Shares.

(f) On the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, the Issuer shall redeem the Preference Shares for a redemption price equal to all amounts distributable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Priority of Payments set forth in the Indenture, unless the Preference Shares have been redeemed earlier through an optional redemption or otherwise. Upon final payment due on the Preference Shares (whether on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date or any earlier Redemption Date), the Holder thereof shall present and surrender the certificates, if any, representing the Preference Shares at the office of the Preference Shares Paying Agent on or prior to such final payment date. On the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, all payments on redemption of Preference Shares to the Holders of the Preference Shares shall be made pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings.

Notice of final payment of the Preference Shares pursuant to an optional redemption in conjunction with an optional redemption of the Notes shall be given as set forth in Section 9.3 of the Indenture. Notice of any other final payment shall be given by the Preference Shares Paying Agent by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days nor earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date to each Holder of Preference Shares at such Holder's address as set forth in the Preference Share register.

All notices of redemption shall state:

- (i) the Redemption Date on which the Preference Shares are to be redeemed;
- (ii) the applicable Redemption Price for the Preference Shares being redeemed;
- (iii) the place or places where such Preference Shares to be redeemed are to be surrendered for payment of the applicable Redemption Price, which shall be the office of the Preference Shares Paying Agent; and
- (iv) in the case of an optional redemption, the latest possible date upon which such notice of redemption may be withdrawn.

The Issuer shall have the option to withdraw any such notice of redemption up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Trustee, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) and the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Holding Preference Shares) in each case only if either (i) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) of the Indenture, the Servicer does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications required under the Indenture (as described in Section 9.3(c) and 12.1(f) of the Indenture), as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, (ii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i) of the Indenture, the Issuer receives the written direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption and (iii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii) of the Indenture, the Issuer receives the unanimous written direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer thereby agrees for the benefit of the directing person to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written direction referred to in the preceding clause (ii) or this clause (iii)). Notice of any such withdrawal shall be delivered pursuant to Section 9.3 of the Indenture.

Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) or the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Holding Preference Shares) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Preference Shares.

(g) On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, so long as all administrative fees and expenses and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Servicing Fee and the Subordinated Servicing Fee), all amounts owing under the Indenture and all amounts owing under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged:

(i) at the direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Preference Shares, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings; or

(ii) at the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares, voting as a single Class or group, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a directed portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such direction.

(h) If any Holder of Preference Shares desires to direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Notes in accordance with Section 9.2(a) of the Indenture, such Holder shall notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer, and the Servicer not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made. If the Holders of at least a Super Majority of the Preference Shares direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Notes, the Issuer shall effect an Optional Redemption of the Notes pursuant to the procedures described in the Indenture.

(i) If any Holder of Preference Shares desires to direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares after the redemption or repayment of the Notes and in accordance with paragraphs (g)(i) and (ii) above, such Holder shall notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent not later than 30 Business Days (or with the Servicer's consent, not later than 20 Business Days) prior to the proposed Redemption Date (which must be a Payment Date). Upon receiving such notice, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall promptly (and in no event later than two Business Days thereafter) notify the Issuer and each Holder of the Preference Shares thereof. Each Holder of Preference Shares that also wishes to direct the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares must so notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent (who shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Servicer of such direction) within 20 Business Days after receipt of such notice. If the aggregate number of Preference Shares that have directed the Issuer to optionally redeem the Preference Shares equals or exceeds the minimum threshold set forth in paragraphs (g)(i) and (ii) above, the Issuer shall effect an optional redemption of the Preference Shares pursuant to the procedures described in the Preference Share Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Preference Shares must be redeemed on or prior to the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. The Preference Shares shall be redeemed from the proceeds of any Collateral remaining after giving effect to the redemption or repayment of the Notes and payment in full of all expenses of the Co-Issuers.

Section 4. Preference Shares Distribution Account. (a) On or prior to the Closing Date, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the "Preference Shares Distribution Account" (the "Preference Shares Distribution Account") that shall be held in trust in the name of the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the benefit of the Issuer, over which the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall cause the Trustee to make any payment pursuant to the Priority of Payments by wire transfer (or by internal transfer if the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent are the same Person) to the Preference Shares Distribution Account in immediately available funds. All sums received by the Preference Shares Paying Agent from the Trustee or the Issuer for payment of dividends or other distributions (other than the Class II Preference Share Special Payments) or the Redemption Price in respect of the Preference Shares shall be deposited promptly in the Preference Shares Distribution Account until the first Payment Date or, in the case of the payment of the Redemption Price in respect of the Preference Shares, the first Business Day, on which, in either case, the Issuer notifies the Preference Shares Paying Agent that such distribution can be made to the Holders of the Preference Shares in accordance with Section 2. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall then apply such funds as provided for in Section 3. All sums payable by the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder shall be paid out of the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not incur any personal liability to pay amounts due to Holders of the Preference Shares and shall only be required to make payments or other distributions (including the Redemption Price thereof) if there are sufficient monies in the Preference Shares Distribution Account to make such payments or other distributions.

(c) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have no right of set off with respect to amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

(d) Amounts on deposit in the Preference Shares Distribution Account that are not paid out may be deposited in an interest-bearing account as directed in writing by the Issuer.

Section 5. Unclaimed Payments. Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any money deposited with the Preference Shares Paying Agent and held in the Preference Shares Distribution Account or otherwise held for payment on any Preference Share and remaining unclaimed for two years after such payment has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer upon Issuer Request; and the Holder of such Preference Share shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment of such amounts and all liability of the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to such money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Issuer) shall thereupon cease. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, before being required to make any such release of payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Issuer any reasonable means of notification of such release of payment, including, but not limited to, arranging with the Share Registrar for the Share Registrar to mail notice of such release to Holders of Preference Shares whose right to or interest in monies due and payable but not claimed is determinable from the records of the Issuer or Preference Shares Paying Agent, as applicable, at the last address of record of each such Holder.

Section 6. Additional Issuance of Preference Shares. (a) At any time during the Replacement Period, the Issuer may issue and sell additional Preference Shares and use the proceeds from such issuance and sale to purchase additional Collateral Obligations or as otherwise permitted under the Preference Share Documents and the Indenture; provided that the following conditions are met: (i) the terms of the Preference Shares issued shall be identical to the terms of previously issued Preference Shares and (ii) the net proceeds of any additional Preference Shares shall be used to purchase additional Collateral Obligations. Such additional Preference Shares may be offered and sold at prices that differ from the initial offering prices of the outstanding Preference Shares; provided that the initial offering prices of additional Preference Shares shall not be below 100% of the face amount thereof. The Issuer shall cause purchases of additional Preference Shares made pursuant to an additional issuance of Preference Shares to comply individually and in the aggregate with the applicable purchase and transfer restrictions for the Preference Shares set forth herein in Section 9 and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

(b) Any additional Preference Shares issued shall, to the extent reasonably practicable, be offered by the Issuer first to the existing Holders of the Preference Shares, in such amounts as are necessary to preserve their pro rata holdings of the Preference Shares.

Section 7. Purchase and Redesignation of Preference Shares. (a) Each Holder or beneficial owner of a Preference Share, by its ownership of such Preference Share, acknowledges and agrees that each Non-Consenting Holder of Preference Shares with respect to an amendment of the Indenture (which includes Holders that fail to respond to a consent solicitation within the applicable period) will be forced to sell its applicable Preference Shares pursuant to Section 9.6 of the Indenture, whereby the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser is permitted to purchase the Preference Shares held by any such Non-Consenting Holder thereof at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; provided that if any Non-Consenting Holder holds Class II Preference Shares, (i) such Non-Consenting Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to Investors Corp. and such Preference Shares will be redesignated as Class I Preference Shares, (ii) Investors Corp. will issue additional Holding Preference Shares in a number equal to the aggregate number of, and at a price equal to the price of, such redesignated Preference Shares purchased by it and (iii) the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser will purchase such additional Holding Preference Shares in lieu of such redesignated Preference Shares.

(b) Each Holder or beneficial owner of a Preference Share will have the right to sell such Preference Share to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser upon a Maturity Extension pursuant to Section 2.4 of the Indenture at the applicable Extension Purchase Price and absent such sale shall be subject to an extension of the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date as set forth in the Indenture and the other aspects of a Maturity Extension under the Indenture; provided that if any Holder of Class II Preference Shares delivers an Extension Sale Notice notifying the Issuer and the Trustee of its intention to sell all or a portion of its Class II Preference Shares, (i) such Holder will sell such Class II Preference Shares to Investors Corp. and such Preference Shares will be redesignated as Class I Preference Shares, (ii) Investors Corp. will issue additional Holding Preference Shares in a number equal to the aggregate number of, and at a price equal to the price of, such redesignated Preference Shares purchased by it and (iii) the Extension Qualifying Purchaser will purchase such additional Holding Preference Shares in lieu of such redesignated Preference Shares.

(c) The Share Registrar will record in the register maintained by it those Preference Shares which it has been notified in writing are held by HFP or any of its subsidiaries. Such Preference Shares shall be designated by the Share Registrar as Class II Preference Shares. HFP and its subsidiaries will agree not to transfer any of the Class II Preference Shares to any Person (including pursuant to the Amendment Buy-Out Option and a Maturity Extension as set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) above) other than Investors Corp. The Share Registrar will redesignate (i) Class II Preference Shares as Class I Preference Shares upon any transfer of such Class II Preference Shares by HFP or any of its subsidiaries to Investors Corp. and (ii) Class I Preference Shares as Class II Preference Shares upon any transfer of Class I Preference Shares by Investors Corp. to HFP or any of its subsidiaries.

Section 8. Execution, Delivery and Dating. The certificates (if required by the Resolutions) relating to the Preference Shares shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer as provided for in the Memorandum and Articles of Association.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Issuer may deliver Preference Share certificates (the “Preference Share Certificates”) executed by the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent, upon Issuer Order, shall deliver such Preference Share Certificates as provided in this Agreement and not otherwise.

Each Preference Share Certificate delivered by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to or upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated the Closing Date. All other Preference Share Certificates that are delivered after the Closing Date for any other purpose under this Agreement shall be dated the date of their delivery.

Section 9. Registration and Registration of Transfer. (a) When the Preference Shares Paying Agent receives a request for transfer of Preference Shares, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall comply with its obligations as set forth in Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions.

(b) No transfer of the Preference Shares shall be registered if such transfer will result in persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors (as defined below) owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of either the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares immediately after such transfer (excluding for purposes of such determination any Preference Shares held by any Controlling Person (as defined below) and its affiliates (such as the Preference Shares held by the Servicer or its affiliates) that is not also a Benefit Plan Investor) determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation issued by the United States Department of Labor and found at 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101 (the “Plan Asset Regulation”). Each purchaser or transferee of a Preference Share will be required to represent and agree whether or not such purchaser is, or is using the assets of, or will at any time throughout its holding and disposition of such Preference Share be or become, (i) an “employee benefit plan” as defined in Section 3(3) of the United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), whether or not subject to Title I ERISA and including any foreign, church or governmental plan, (ii) a “plan” described in Section 4975(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”) or (iii) any entity whose underlying assets include “plan assets” of any of the foregoing by reason of an investment in the entity by such a plan or arrangement. In addition, each purchaser or transferee of a Preference Share (other than the Servicer or its affiliates) will be required to represent and agree whether or not it is, or is using the assets of, or will at any time throughout its holding and disposition of such Preference Share be or become the Servicer or any other person that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the assets of the Issuer or any “affiliate” (as defined in the Plan Asset Regulation) or any such person (any such person, a “Controlling Person”). If, after a purchaser’s or transferee’s initial acquisition of Preference Shares, the purchaser or transferee determines or the Issuer, the Share Registrar or the Preference Shares Paying Agent obtain actual knowledge that such purchaser or transferee has breached any of the foregoing representations, such purchaser or transferee will dispose of its interest in the Preference Shares in a manner consistent with the requirements set forth in Annex A to the Resolutions. Each purchaser or transferee of a Preference Share will be required to represent that either (i) it is not, and is not acquiring such Preference Share with the assets of, an “employee benefit plan” as defined under Section 3(3) of ERISA and that is subject to Title I of ERISA, any “plan” described in Section 4975(e) of the Code or a foreign, governmental or church plan subject to any federal, state, local or foreign law that is substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (each such plan, a “Covered Plan”) and throughout the holding of such Preference Share, it will not become or transfer its interest to any Covered Plan or to an entity using the assets thereof, or (ii) the acquisition and holding of such Preference Share by the purchaser or transferee, throughout its holding and disposition of such Preference Share, will not result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a foreign, governmental or church plan, any similar law), because such purchase, holding and disposition either (x) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws or (y) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all of the conditions of which are and will be satisfied upon its acquisition of, and throughout its holding and disposition of, such Preference Share. Each purchaser or transferee of a Preference Share will be required to represent and agree that it will not transfer such Preference Share in violation of any of the foregoing representations and agreements, that any purported transfer that does not comply with such representations and agreements will be null and void ab initio and will vest in the transferee no rights against the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Issuer, and that such purchaser or transferee, as applicable, and any fiduciary or other Person causing it to acquire such Preference Share shall, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Share Paying Agent, the Servicer, the Share Registrar, the Placement Agents and their respective affiliates from any cost, damage or loss incurred by them as a result of any transfer in violation of any of the foregoing.

(c) The Preference Shares Paying Agent agrees that, after the initial distribution of the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares, neither it nor any of its affiliates will acquire any Class E Notes or Preference Shares (including pursuant to a Maturity Extension or the Amendment Buy-Out Option) unless such acquisition would not, as determined by the Trustee, result in persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of any of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares immediately after such acquisition (determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents). The Class E Notes and the Preference Shares held by the Preference Shares Paying Agent or any of its affiliates (as defined in the Plan Asset Regulation) that have represented that they are Controlling Persons will be disregarded and will not be treated as outstanding for purposes of determining compliance with such 25% limitation to the extent that such person has represented that it is not a Benefit Plan Investor.

(d) Notwithstanding anything else contained herein to the contrary, neither the Preference Shares Paying Agent nor the Share Registrar shall be responsible for ascertaining whether any purchase or transfer complies with the registration provisions of or exemptions from the Securities Act, applicable state laws, the Code, ERISA, the Plan Asset Regulation or the Investment Company Act; provided that if a certificate or other written representation is specifically required by the express terms of this Agreement or Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions to be delivered to the Preference Shares Paying Agent by the purchaser or transferee of a Preference Share, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether the same substantially conforms on its face with the terms of this Agreement or Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions, as applicable, and shall promptly notify the party delivering the same if such certificate does not comply with such terms.

(e) The Issuer shall (and shall cause the Share Registrar to) consult the Preference Shares Paying Agent in connection with all transfers of Preference Shares and shall (and shall cause the Share Registrar to) direct all transferors and transferees to correspond through the Preference Shares Paying Agent. The Share Registrar will not be required to determine whether any proposed transfer, redemption or other transaction in relation to the Preference Shares complies with any restrictions imposed by law or under the terms of the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents but shall be entitled to rely completely in that respect on the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent.

(f) In the event that the Preference Shares Paying Agent is notified by the Issuer (or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer) that any Holder of Preference Shares has failed to provide the Issuer with the applicable United States federal income tax certifications, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall notify the Share Registrar and request that it not record such transfer. Except as expressly provided herein or as required by this Agreement in connection with the Preference Shares Paying Agent's obligations to the Holders of Preference Shares, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have no obligation to oversee or participate in any such transfer of Preference Shares.

Section 10. Fees and Indemnification. The fee to be paid in connection with the Preference Shares Paying Agent's appointment and duties as Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be paid pursuant to a letter agreement dated August 3, 2006 between the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Servicer on behalf of Investors Corp. and the Issuer. The fees payable hereunder shall be paid by the Issuer to the Preference Shares Paying Agent's account as directed by the Preference Shares Paying Agent. The Issuer will indemnify the Preference Shares Paying Agent and its officers, directors, employees and agents, against any loss, liability or expense (including reasonable legal fees and out-of-pocket expenses of counsel) incurred in connection with their appointment and duties hereunder, except such as result from their own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Preference Shares Paying Agent agrees that such fees and indemnification shall be treated as an Administrative Expense of the Issuer as defined in the Indenture and paid pursuant to the Priority of Payments. Anything in this Agreement notwithstanding, in no event shall the Preference Shares Paying Agent be liable for special, indirect or consequential losses or damages of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to loss of profits), even if the Preference Shares Paying Agent has been advised of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action. The obligation of the Issuer to indemnify the Preference Shares Paying Agent under this Section 10 shall survive retirement of the Preference Shares and any resignation or removal of the Preference Shares Paying Agent but shall remain subject to the provisions of Section 23.

Section 11. Liabilities. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be responsible or accountable to anyone for any reason whatsoever with respect to the validity of this Agreement or of the Preference Shares, or for any act done or omitted by it in good faith, or for anything whatsoever in connection with this Agreement, except for its own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct in the performance of any duty to be performed by the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder.

(b) The Preference Shares Paying Agent may consult as to legal matters with lawyers selected with due care by it, who may be employees of or regular independent counsel to the Issuer, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be protected from and shall incur no liability for action taken, or suffered to be taken, with respect to such matters in good faith and in accordance with the opinion or advice of such lawyers.

(c) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be protected from and shall incur no liability for or in respect of any action taken or thing suffered by it in reliance upon any Preference Shares, notice, direction, consent, certificate, affidavit, statement or other paper or document reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been delivered or signed by the proper parties, except as may result from its own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct or that of its directors, officers, employees or agents.

(d) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be under any liability for interest on any money at any time received by it pursuant to any of the provisions of this Agreement, except as otherwise agreed in writing with the Issuer.

(e) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not incur any liability with respect to the validity or value of any of the Preference Shares unless otherwise specified herein.

Section 12. Conflicts. (a) The Preference Shares Paying Agent and its officers, directors and employees may, subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 9(c), become the Holder of, or acquire any interest in, any Preference Shares, with the same rights that it or they would have if it were not the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder, or they were not such officers, directors, or employees, and may engage or be interested in any fiscal or other transaction with the Issuer and may act on, or as depository, trustee or agent for, any committee or body of Holders of Preference Shares or other indebtedness of the Issuer as freely as if it were not the Preference Shares Paying Agent hereunder or they were not such officers, directors, or employees.

(b) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be obliged to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth herein, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Agreement or the Indenture against the Preference Shares Paying Agent. Except for Section 5 of Annex A to the Resolutions (to the extent they do not contradict this Agreement), the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have no duties under Annex A to the Resolutions. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be under any obligation to take any action hereunder that may tend to involve it in any expenses or liability, the payment of which within a reasonable time is not, in its reasonable opinion, assured to it. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be accountable or under any duty or responsibility in case of any default of which the Preference Shares Paying Agent has knowledge by the Issuer in the performance of its obligations contained in the Memorandum and Articles of Association and Annex A to the Resolutions (including, without limitation, any duty or responsibility to initiate or attempt to initiate any proceedings at law or otherwise or to make any demand for payment upon the Issuer).

(c) In acting under this Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agent is acting solely as agent of the Issuer and does not assume any obligations to, or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the owners or Holders of the Preference Shares. All funds held by the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment on the Preference Shares shall be held in trust for the Issuer, until paid.

(d) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall, as between itself and the Holders of the Preference Shares, with respect to all the obligations, powers, authorities and discretions, vested in it hereunder and under the Memorandum and Articles of Association and the Resolutions, have absolute and uncontrolled discretion as to the exercise thereof whether in relation to the manner or as to the mode of and time for the exercise thereof and, in the absence of gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct on its part or that of its officers, directors or employees shall be in no way responsible for any loss, costs, damages or inconvenience that may result from the exercise or non-exercise thereof.

Section 13. Amendment. (a) This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, without the consent of the Holders of any Preference Shares, for the purpose of curing any ambiguity, or of curing, correcting or supplementing any defective provision contained herein, or in regard to matters or questions arising under this Agreement as the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent may deem necessary or desirable and which shall not materially adversely affect the interests of Holders of the Preference Shares. In addition, this Agreement may be amended without the consent of any Holders of the Preference Shares and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Preference Shares in order to prevent the Issuer from becoming an "investment company" as defined in the Investment Company Act or to better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 and/or to remove transfer restrictions and other requirements relating to Section 3(c)(7); provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Servicer shall have received a customary opinion of counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental indenture, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act in reliance on the exemption provided by Rule 3a-7.

(b) Unless otherwise as set forth in subsection (a) above, this Agreement may be amended with the consent of Holders of a Majority of the Preference Shares materially and adversely affected thereby.

(c) Any amendment to this Agreement must be in writing executed by each party hereto.

(d) The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to its duties and obligations herein) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an opinion of counsel, consent or certificate of the Issuer in determining whether or not any proposed amendment is permitted hereunder.

(e) Any amendment to this Agreement that would necessitate a change to the Memorandum and Articles of Association may only be made after a Special Resolution (as therein defined) has been passed to permit the Memorandum and Articles of Association to be altered to conform with such proposed amendment.

Section 14. Resignation or Removal of the Preference Shares Paying Agent. The Preference Shares Paying Agent may at any time resign as the Preference Shares Paying Agent, by giving written notice to the Issuer of its resignation, specifying the date on which its resignation shall become effective (which date shall not be less than 60 days after the date on which such notice is given unless the Issuer shall agree to a shorter period). The Issuer may remove the Preference Shares Paying Agent at any time by giving written notice of not less than 60 days to the Preference Shares Paying Agent specifying the date on which such removal shall become effective. Such resignation or removal shall only take effect upon the appointment by the Issuer of a successor Preference Shares Paying Agent and upon the acceptance of such appointment by such successor Preference Shares Paying Agent; provided, however, that if the successor Preference Shares Paying Agent has not been appointed within 60 days after such notice of resignation or removal, then the Preference Shares Paying Agent, or any Holder of Preference Shares, may, on behalf of himself and others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Preference Shares Paying Agent; provided, further, that after the retirement of the Notes, if the Issuer determines that no material distributions will be paid on the Preference Shares, the Issuer may remove the Preference Shares Paying Agent at any time, by giving written notice of not less than 10 days, and assume the duties of the Preference Shares Paying Agent itself.

Section 15. Assignment. No party hereto may assign or novate any of its rights or obligations hereunder except with the prior written consent of all the parties hereto.

Section 16. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business of Preference Shares Paying Agent. Any entity into which the Preference Shares Paying Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Preference Shares Paying Agent is a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Preference Shares Paying Agent, shall be the successor of the Preference Shares Paying Agent under this Agreement without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

Section 17. Reports and Notices. The Issuer hereby authorizes the Preference Shares Paying Agent to deliver or request the Trustee to deliver all Monthly Reports and Valuation Reports (each a “Report” and, collectively, “Reports”) prepared pursuant to the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall deliver, or shall cause the Trustee to deliver a copy of any such Report to such Holders within two Business Days of receipt of any such Report. In addition, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall deliver, or shall cause the Trustee to deliver, a copy of any other notice or information that it has received from the Trustee under the Indenture to the Holders of the Preference Shares within two Business Days of receipt of such notice and information. Any notices or information to be delivered by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to this Agreement shall be delivered, in each case, (i) by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to each Holder of a Preference Share at the address appearing in the Preference Share register or (ii) with respect to delivery of the Reports, by making such Reports available via its internet website, initially located at <https://trustinvestorreporting.usbank.com>. All information made available on the Preference Shares Paying Agent’s website shall be restricted and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall only provide access to such reports to those parties entitled thereto pursuant to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement. In connection with providing access to its website, the Preference Shares Paying Agent may require registration and the acceptance of a disclaimer. Questions regarding the Preference Shares Paying Agent’s website may be directed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent’s customer service desk at (866) 252-4360.

Section 18. Notices. (a) All communications by or on behalf of the Issuer relating to the transfer or payment of a Preference Share or any interest therein shall be directed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent at its address set forth in clause (b)(ii) below. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall mail any notice it receives from the Trustee (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) to the Holders of the Preference Shares on the Business Day it receives such notice.

Where this Agreement provides for notice to Holders of the Preference Shares of any event, such notice shall be sufficiently given (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) if such notice is in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to each Holder of the Preference Shares affected by such event, at such Holder’s address as it appears on the Preference Share register, not later than the latest date, and not earlier than the earliest date, prescribed for the giving of such notice.

Neither the failure to mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Holder of Preference Shares shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders. Any notice that is given in the manner herein provided shall conclusively be presumed to have been duly given whether or not actually received by such Holder. Any notice to Holders of the Preference Shares provided for in this Agreement will be deemed to have been given on the date of mailing.

Any notice by any Holder of Holding Preference Shares delivered to the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be treated by the Preference Shares Paying Agent, for the purposes of this Agreement, as a notice, by a Holder of Preference Shares with respect to a number of Preference Shares equal to the number of Holding Preference Shares with respect to which such notice relates, delivered to the Preference Shares Paying Agent on the same date such notice is delivered to the Holding Preference Shares Paying Agent.

Where this Agreement provides for notice in any manner, such notice may be waived in writing by any Person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice.

In the event that, by reason of the suspension of the regular mail service as a result of a strike, work stoppage or similar activity, it shall be impractical to mail notice of any event to Holders of the Preference Shares when such notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, then any manner of giving such notice as shall be satisfactory to the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be deemed to be a sufficient giving of such notice.

(b) Notices and other communications hereunder shall (except to the extent otherwise expressly provided) be in writing and shall be addressed as follows, or to such other addresses as the parties hereto shall specify from time to time:

(i) if to the Issuer:

Section 19. Covenants of the Issuer. The Issuer shall not take any action under this Agreement or the Indenture that requires the authorization, direction or consent from the Holders of the Preference Shares without obtaining such authorization, direction or consent from the Holders of the Preference Shares. It shall be the responsibility of the Issuer to satisfy the Preference Shares Paying Agent as to the compliance with the foregoing condition (on which the Preference Shares Paying Agent may rely on in good faith).

Section 20. Transfer of Issuer Ordinary Shares. For so long as any of the Preference Shares are Outstanding, the Issuer shall not agree to the transfer of any Issuer Ordinary Shares to U.S. Persons (as defined in the Code), and shall not transfer any such Issuer Ordinary Shares to any Person other than a Person which is a resident of the Cayman Islands.

Section 21. Certain Tax Matters. (a) On demand of the Issuer, a Holder or beneficial owner of a Preference Share will notify the Issuer whether or not the Holder or beneficial owner of such Preference Share is a United States person within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code and the name and status of such Holder or beneficial owner as an individual, partnership, corporation, or other entity and such other information as the Issuer shall reasonably request for purposes of tax reporting of the Issuer or other Holders of the Preference Shares.

(b) The Issuer will cause the Independent accountants to make a determination as to whether a Holder's investment in the Preference Shares has become a "reportable transaction" as described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.6011-4 because, after the Closing Date, the Issuer entered into a transaction whereby the Issuer recognized a significant loss or otherwise. If the Holder's investment in the Preference Shares has become such a "reportable transaction," then the Issuer shall provide to Holders of Preference Shares any information available to it which may be reasonably necessary for such Holders of Preference Shares to comply with any disclosure requirements under Section 6011 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder with respect to its investment in the Preference Shares.

(c) The Issuer will provide or cause to be provided to each Holder or beneficial owner of the Preference Shares (or its designee), upon written request therefor, any information that such Holder or beneficial owner reasonably requests to assist such Holder or beneficial owner with regard to its or its equity owners' U.S. federal income tax filing requirements.

(d) Each Holder and beneficial owner of the Preference Shares agrees to treat the Preference Shares as equity of the Issuer and the Notes as debt of the Issuer for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, if applicable.

(e) The Issuer will make an election to be treated as a partnership, and will take all necessary actions to maintain its status as a partnership (or, if the Issuer is treated as owned by one person, as a disregarded entity of such person) for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(f) The Issuer shall not participate in listing or including the Class E Notes or Preference Shares on or in any Established Securities Markets, and shall not participate in establishing any Established Securities Market for its Class E Notes or Preference Shares. In addition, the Issuer shall not recognize any transfers made on any Established Securities Markets with respect to its Class E Notes or Preference Shares (including any transfers of any financial instrument (other than the Senior Notes) or contract the value of which is determined in whole or in part by reference to the Issuer).

(g) Transfers of Preference Shares may only be made upon receipt by the Preference Shares Paying Agent of (1) appropriate documentation required under the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations establishing that the beneficial owner of the Preference Shares to be transferred is either not a U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-8BEN or an IRS Form W-8IMY with appropriate attachments) or a U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-9) and (2) if such beneficial owner of Preference Shares to be transferred is treated as a partnership, S-corporation or grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a written representation from such beneficial owner that (i) there will not be any interests in such beneficial owner where substantially all of the value of such interest is attributable to the value of the Preference Shares proposed to be transferred to such beneficial owner, together with the value of any Class E Notes, Holding Preference Shares and Preference Shares already held by such beneficial owner and (ii) such beneficial owner is not a part of any arrangement a principal purpose of which is to cause the Class E Notes and Preference Shares to be treated as owned by 100 persons or less within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h). In addition, neither the Preference Shares Paying Agent nor the Issuer shall recognize any transfers of Preference Shares, and any such proposed transfer shall be null and void, if (a) the proposed transfer will cause the Issuer to have more than ninety-nine beneficial owners (as determined for purposes of the provisions of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h)) of its Class E Notes and Preference Shares unless it receives the consent of all of the Holders of the Preference Shares and an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such transfer, and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such transfer had not been made or (b) such transfer was made pursuant to a trade on an Established Securities Market. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall contact the Trustee to determine the number of beneficial owners of the Class E Notes. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall provide, upon request by the Trustee, the number of beneficial owners of the Preference Shares.

Section 22. Minimum Lots. Preference Shares must be held in minimum lots of 100 Preference Shares per investor and integral multiples of one Preference Share in excess thereof.

Section 23. Limited Recourse; No Petition. The Preference Shares Paying Agent hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Issuer's obligations hereunder will be solely the corporate obligations of the Issuer, and that the Preference Shares Paying Agent will not have any recourse to any of the directors, officers, employees, shareholders or Affiliates of the Issuer with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, recourse in respect of any obligations of the Issuer hereunder will be limited to the proceeds of the Collateral, paid pursuant to the Priority of Payments and on the exhaustion thereof all obligations of and all claims against the Issuer arising from this Agreement or any transactions contemplated hereby shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, by entering into this Agreement, hereby covenants and agrees that it will not, prior to the date which is one year and one day (or, if longer, the applicable preference period) after the payment in full of all amounts owing under the Indenture and this Agreement, institute against the Issuer, or voluntarily join in any institution against the Issuer of, any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under any United States federal or state bankruptcy or similar law of any jurisdiction within or without the United States in connection with any obligations relating to the Preference Shares or this Agreement. The provisions of this Section 23 shall survive termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

Section 24. (a) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

(b) WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE ISSUER AND THE PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE PREFERENCE SHARES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

(c) Service of Process. The Issuer irrevocably appoints U.S. Bank National Association (the "Process Agent") c/o U.S. Bank Trust National Association, located at 100 Wall Street, New York, New York 10005, to receive, for it and on its behalf, service of process in any suit, action or proceeding relating to this Agreement. If for any reason the Process Agent is unable to act as such, the Issuer shall promptly notify the Preference Shares Paying Agent and within 30 days appoint a substitute process agent acceptable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent.

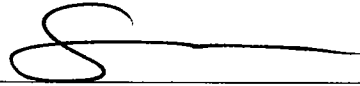

Section 25. Signatures. This Agreement may be signed in two or more counterparts with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument. A facsimile signature shall be considered due execution and shall be binding upon the signatory thereto with the same force and effect as if the signature were an original.

No Person shall be entitled to any benefit under the Preference Share Documents until such time as such Person and the number of Preference Shares held by such Person have been recorded in the Share Register. Notwithstanding delivery of a Preference Share certificate, the Share Register shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, of the issuance and registered Holders of Preference Shares.

Section 5. Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause to be kept a register (the “Share Register”) in the Cayman Islands in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Issuer shall provide for the registration and registration of transfers thereof of Preference Shares. The Administrator is appointed the “Share Registrar” pursuant to the Administration Agreement for the purpose of registering Preference Shares and transfers of Preference Shares. Upon any resignation or removal of the Share Registrar, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor or, in the absence of such appointment, assume the duties of Share Registrar. The Share Registrar shall promptly provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent with copies of all notices, certificates and requests received with respect to the Preference Shares and promptly provide notice of all transfers of Preference Shares. The Share Registrar shall not be required to determine whether any proposed transfer, redemption or other transaction in relation to the Preference Shares complies with any restrictions imposed by law or under the terms of the Indenture or the Preference Share Documents but shall be entitled to rely completely in that respect on the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent.

The Issuer will give the Preference Shares Paying Agent prompt written notice of the appointment of any successor Share Registrar and of the location, and any change in the location, of the Share Registrar, and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have the right to inspect the Share Register at all reasonable times and to obtain copies thereof and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have the right to rely upon a certificate executed on behalf of such Share Registrar by an Officer thereof as to the names and addresses of the Shareholders and the numbers of Preference Shares held by each Shareholder. If the Preference Shares Paying Agent resigns or is removed in accordance with the terms of the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor.

Subject to this Section 5, upon surrender of a Preference Share certificate for registration of transfer thereof at the offices of the Preference Shares Paying Agent in compliance with the provisions set forth in the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall notify the Issuer and the Share Registrar thereof and the Issuer shall execute and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Preference Share certificates of like terms and of a like number, and the Share Register shall be amended accordingly. The Issuer shall (and shall cause the Share Registrar to) refuse to register any transfer of any Preference Share to the fullest extent allowed under Cayman Islands law if such transfer would violate any of the transfer restrictions provided in this Section 5 or the transferee fails to provide a required transfer certificate.

All Preference Share certificates presented or surrendered for registration of transfer shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Share Registrar, duly executed by the Holder of Preference Shares thereof or its attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge shall be made to a Holder for any registration of transfer of Preference Shares, but the Preference Shares Paying Agent may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

(b) No Preference Share may be sold or transferred (including, without limitation, by pledge or hypothecation) unless such sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and is exempt under applicable state securities law.

No Preference Share may be offered, sold or delivered except in accordance with this Section 5. None of the Issuer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or any other Person may register the Preference Shares under the Securities Act or any state securities law.

If a Holder of a Preference Shares wishes at any time to transfer its interest in such Preference Shares, such Holder may cause the transfer of such interest, subject to the restrictions set forth herein. Upon receipt by the Preference Shares Paying Agent of (A) such Holder's Preference Share certificates duly endorsed and (B) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto given by the transferee of such Preference Shares and stating, among other things, that either the Person acquiring such interest in the Preference Shares is a (1) Qualified Institutional Buyer and (2) a Qualified Purchaser or an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers then the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall instruct the Share Registrar to, and the Share Registrar shall (i) cancel the Preference Shares certificate representing such Preference Shares and the Share Registrar will issue to such transferee a Preference Shares certificate representing the Preference Shares transferred and (ii) update the Share Register to reflect such transfer.

Any transfer will be subject to the requirement that any transferee (and transferor, in the case of a partial transfer) acquire (and retain, if applicable) Preference Shares in an Authorized Amount.

Each Transferee Certificate furnished pursuant to this Section 5(b) may be relied on conclusively by the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Share Registrar. None of the Issuer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Share Registrar or any other Person shall be required to register the Preference Shares under the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

(c) By delivery of a Subscription Agreement on the Closing Date in connection with the initial issuance of the Preference Shares, or upon delivery of a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B upon the transfer of Preference Shares, each Holder of a Preference Share will represent, warrant and agree with the Issuer to what is in Exhibit B and set forth in Exhibit B.

If Preference Share certificates are issued upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Preference Share certificates and a request is made to remove the applicable legend on such Preference Share certificates, the Preference Share certificates so issued shall bear such applicable legend, or such applicable legend shall not be removed, as the case may be, unless there is addressed to the Issuer and delivered to the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent on the Issuer's behalf such satisfactory evidence, which may include an opinion of counsel as may be reasonably required by the Issuer to the effect that neither such applicable legend nor the restrictions on transfer set forth therein are required to ensure that transfers thereof comply with the provisions of Rule 144A under the Securities Act or the Investment Company Act. Upon provision of such satisfactory evidence, the Issuer shall execute and the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall deliver Preference Share certificates that do not bear such applicable legend.

(d) At any time when the Issuer is not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act and is not exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act, upon the request of any Holder of Preference Shares, the Issuer shall promptly furnish Rule 144A Information to such Holder, to a prospective purchaser of any Preference Share designated by such Holder or to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for delivery to such Holder or a prospective purchaser designated by such Holder, as the case may be, in order to permit compliance by such Holder with Rule 144A under the Securities Act in connection with the resale of such Preference Share by such Holder.

(e) Transfers of Preference Shares may only be made upon receipt by the Preference Shares Paying Agent of (1) appropriate documentation required under the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations establishing that the beneficial owner of the Preference Shares to be transferred is either not a U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-8BEN or an IRS Form W-8IMY with appropriate attachments) or a U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-9) and (2) if such beneficial owner of Preference Shares to be transferred is treated as a partnership, S-corporation or grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a written representation from such beneficial owner that (i) there will not be any interests in such beneficial owner where substantially all of the value of such interest is attributable to the value of the Preference Shares proposed to be transferred to such beneficial owner, together with the value of any Class E Notes, Holding Preference Shares and Preference Shares already held by such beneficial owner and (ii) such beneficial owner is not a part of any arrangement a principal purpose of which is to cause the Class E Notes and Preference Shares to be treated as owned by 100 persons or less within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h). In addition, neither the Preference Shares Paying Agent nor the Issuer shall recognize any transfers of Preference Shares, and any such proposed transfer shall be null and void, if (a) the proposed transfer will cause the Issuer to have more than ninety-nine beneficial owners (as determined for purposes of the provisions of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h)) of its Class E Notes and Preference Shares unless it receives the consent of all of the Holders of the Preference Shares and an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such transfer, and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such transfer had not been made or (b) such transfer was made pursuant to a trade on an Established Securities Market. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall contact the Trustee to determine the number of beneficial owners of the Class E Notes. The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall provide, upon request by the Trustee, the number of beneficial owners of the Preference Shares.

Section 6. Mutilated, Defaced, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Preference Share certificates.

If any mutilated or defaced Preference Share certificate is surrendered to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, or if there shall be delivered to the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (i) evidence to their reasonable satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Preference Share certificate and (ii) such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them and any agent of any of them harmless that such Preference Share has been acquired by a protected purchaser, then, the Issuer shall execute and, upon Issuer Request, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall deliver, in lieu of any such mutilated, defaced, destroyed, lost or stolen Preference Share, a new Preference Share certificate identical in all respects to the entry in the Share Register with respect to such Preference Shares represented thereby, including the same date of issuance, number of Preference Shares and name of the Holder thereof, dated the date of its execution and bearing a number not contemporaneously Outstanding. Upon the execution and delivery of any new Preference Share certificates under this Section 6, the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent may require the payment by the registered Holder thereof of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Preference Shares Paying Agent, if applicable) connected therewith.

Section 7. Payment of Distributions on Preference Shares.

Pursuant to the Indenture, amounts may be paid by way of dividends to the Preference Shares Paying Agent on behalf of the Issuer on each Payment Date, on the Redemption Date or on the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date. Unless the Preference Shares Paying Agent has received contrary instructions from the directors of the Issuer (the “Directors”) prior to a Payment Date, the Redemption Date or the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date in accordance with the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, all amounts received as dividends by the Preference Shares Paying Agent pursuant to the Indenture shall be paid to the Holders of Preference Shares (i) in respect of a Payment Date or the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date, pro rata on the Preference Shares on such Payment Date or Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date by way of a dividend on the Preference Shares or, if applicable, as redemption price therefor or (ii) in respect of the Redemption Date, in accordance with Section 3(g) of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement. If, prior to the date of distribution in accordance with the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Directors instruct the Preference Shares Paying Agent not to distribute all or any portion of monies to be received as dividends by the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to a Payment Date, the Redemption Date or the Scheduled Preference Shares Redemption Date (which instruction shall be made if such distributions would be impermissible under Cayman Islands law, and then only to the extent such distributions would be impermissible), the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall retain such monies in the Preference Shares Distribution Account and shall pay such amounts as soon as practicable after being instructed to do so by the Directors.

In addition to the distributions of dividends, pursuant to Section 2(d) of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, on each Payment Date during the first two years following the Closing Date, Holders of the Class II Preference Shares shall receive, on a pro rata basis, the Class II Preference Share Special Payment in an amount equal to the product of (x) the Class II Preference Share Portion for such Payment Date and (y) the Servicing Fees then due and payable to the Servicer. After the two-year anniversary of the Closing Date, such Class II Preference Share Special Payment shall be distributed pro rata to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares in an amount as determined by the Servicer in its sole discretion.

The Preference Shares Paying Agent shall make payments or distributions (other than distributions of Equity Securities) to each registered Holder of the Preference Shares on the relevant Record Date by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a U.S. Dollar account maintained by each such Holder as notified to the Preference Shares Paying Agent or, in the absence of such notification, by U.S. Dollar check mailed to such Holder at its address of record as set forth in the Share Register. As a condition to payment of any amount hereunder without the imposition of U.S. withholding tax, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, on behalf of the Issuer, may require certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments or distributions in respect of Preference Shares under any present or future law or regulation of the United States or any present or future law or regulation of any political subdivision thereof or taxing authority therein or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under such law or regulation. All payments of distributions by the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be made without charging any commission or fee to the Holders of the Preference Shares.

Section 8. Persons Deemed Owners.

The person listed in the Share Register shall be treated as the owner of Preference Shares related thereto for all purposes, notwithstanding the possession of any certificates for the Preference Shares by another Person.

Section 9. Cancellation.

All Preference Share certificates representing Preference Shares surrendered for payment, registration of transfer, exchange or redemption, or deemed lost or stolen, shall promptly be canceled by the Share Registrar in accordance with its policy and may not be reissued or resold. No Preference Share certificates shall be issued in lieu of or in exchange for any Preference Share certificate cancelled as provided in this Section 9, except as expressly permitted by this Annex A. All cancelled Preference Share certificates held by the Share Registrar shall be placed in the minute books in the corporate records of the Issuer. Any certificates issued in respect of Preference Shares repurchased by the Issuer shall be immediately delivered to the Share Registrar for cancellation.

Section 10. Preference Shares Owned by Non-Permitted Holders; Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investors.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any transfer of a Preference Share to a Person that is not both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) either a Qualified Purchaser or an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers (any such Person a “Non-Permitted Holder”) shall be null and void ab initio and any such purported transfer of which the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have notice may be disregarded by the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent for all purposes.

If any Non-Permitted Holder shall become the owner of any Preference Shares, the Issuer shall, promptly after discovery that such Person is a Non-Permitted Holder by the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (and notice by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to the Issuer, if the Preference Shares Paying Agent makes the discovery), send notice to such Non-Permitted Holder demanding that such Non-Permitted Holder transfer its Preference Shares to a Person that is eligible to purchase such Preference Shares hereunder within 30 days of the date of such notice. If such Non-Permitted Holder fails to so transfer its Preference Shares, the Issuer shall have the right, without further notice to the Non-Permitted Holder, to sell such Preference Shares to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is eligible to purchase such Preference Shares hereunder on such terms as the Issuer may choose. The Issuer, or the Preference Shares Paying Agent acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select the purchaser by soliciting one or more bids from one or more brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Preference Shares, and selling such Preference Shares to the highest such bidder. However, the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent acting on behalf of the Issuer may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion. The Holder of each Preference Share, the Non-Permitted Holder and each other Person in the chain of title from the Holder to the Non-Permitted Holder, by its acceptance of the Preference Shares, agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent to effect such transfers. The proceeds of such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale, shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted Holder. The terms and conditions of any sale under this Section shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer, and neither the Issuer nor the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall be liable to any Person having an interest in the Preference Shares sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of such discretion.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no person shall be permitted to acquire Preference Shares if such acquisition would result in persons who have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owing 25% or more of the aggregate amount of either the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares outstanding immediately after such acquisition (excluding for purposes of this determination the Preference Shares held by any Controlling Person and its affiliates), determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents. Furthermore, no person shall be permitted to acquire Preference Shares if such person, or any account on behalf of which such person is acquiring the Preference Shares, is either (1) an ERISA Plan or (2) a Benefit Plan Investor that is not an ERISA Plan, but whose purchase, holding or disposition of a Preference Share or any beneficial interest therein will result in a non-exempt violation of any federal, state, foreign or local law substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. Any person described in the first sentence of this subsection (b) and any person described in clause (1) or (2) of the preceding sentence is referred to herein as a “Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor.” Any transfer of Preference Shares to a Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor shall be null and void ab initio and any such purported transfer of which the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall have notice may be disregarded by the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent for all purposes.

If any Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor shall become the owner of Preference Shares, the Issuer shall, promptly after discovery that such person is a Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor by the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (and notice by the Preference Shares Paying Agent to the Issuer, if the Preference Shares Paying Agent makes the discovery), send notice to such Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor demanding that such Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor transfer its Preference Shares to a Person that is eligible to purchase such Preference Shares hereunder within 30 days of the date of such notice. If such Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor fails to so transfer such Preference Shares, the Issuer shall have the right, without further notice to the Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor, to sell such Preference Shares to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is eligible to purchase such Preference Shares hereunder on such terms as the Issuer may choose. The Issuer, or the Preference Shares Paying Agent acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select the purchaser by soliciting one or more bids from one or more brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Preference Shares and selling such Preference Shares to the highest such bidder. However, the Issuer or the Preference Shares Paying Agent acting on behalf of the Issuer may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion. The Holder of each Preference Share, the Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor and each other Person in the chain of title from the Holder to the Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor, by its acceptance of Preference Shares agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Preference Shares Paying Agent to effect such transfers. The proceeds of such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor. The terms and conditions of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer, and the Issuer shall not be liable to any Person having an interest in the Preference Shares sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of such discretion.

Any Holder that becomes a Non-Permitted Holder or a Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor or any Holder who has made an ERISA-related representation required by this Annex A that was at the time made, or has subsequently become, false or misleading, must immediately give written notice to the Issuer of such event. Any Holder of Preference Shares that proposes or attempts a transfer that would result in the holding of Preference Shares by a Non-Permitted Holder or that the Holder knows or has reason to know would result in the holding of Preference Shares by a Non-Permitted Benefit Plan Investor, must give at least 15 days prior written notice to the Issuer of such proposed transfer. In any case, the notifying party must provide the Issuer such information as it may request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such event on the Issuer with respect to its compliance with the Securities Act, the Investment Company Act, ERISA and the Code.

Section 11. Return of Undistributed Payments.

Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any monies deposited with the Preference Shares Paying Agent and held in the Preference Shares Distribution Account or otherwise held for any payment with respect to the Preference Shares and remaining unclaimed for two years after such amounts have become payable shall be paid to the Issuer on Issuer Request; and the Holder of such Preference Shares shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment of such amounts and all liability of the Preference Shares Paying Agent with respect to such Money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Issuer) shall thereupon cease. The Preference Shares Paying Agent, before being required to make any such release of payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Issuer, any reasonable means of notification of such release of payment, including, but not limited to, mailing notice to Holders whose right to or interest in such unclaimed monies is determinable from the records of the Preference Shares Paying Agent or Share Registrar at the last address of record of each such Holder.

Section 12. Disclosure of Tax Treatment.

In order to ensure the Holders' and beneficial owners' acquisition of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents are not treated as offered under conditions of confidentiality, the Holders and beneficial owners of the Preference Shares (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) are hereby permitted to disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by the Preference Share Documents (including the ownership and disposition of the Preference Shares). For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction, and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income or state and local tax treatment of the transaction.

Section 13. Certain Tax Matters.

The Issuer and each Holder and each beneficial owner of a Preference Share, by acceptance of its Preference Share, or its interest in a Preference Share, shall be deemed to have agreed to treat, and shall treat, such Preference Share as equity of the Issuer and the Notes as debt of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes.

The Issuer will make an election to be treated as a partnership, and will take all necessary actions to maintain its status as a partnership (or, if the Issuer is treated as owned by one person, as a disregarded entity of such person) for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The Issuer shall file, or cause to be filed, any tax return, including information tax returns, required by any governmental authority; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not file, or cause to be filed, any income or franchise tax return in any state of the United States unless it shall have obtained an Opinion of Counsel from a tax counsel of nationally recognized standing experienced in such matters prior to such filing that, under the laws of such jurisdiction, the Issuer is required to file such income or franchise tax return.

Each Holder and beneficial owner of a Preference Share, by acceptance of its Preference Share or its interest in a Preference Share, shall be deemed to understand and acknowledge that failure to provide the Issuer, the Trustee or the Preference Shares Paying Agent with the applicable U.S. federal income tax certifications (generally, a United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is not a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) may result in U.S. federal withholding from payments in respect of such Preference Share and the Issuer will have the unconditional right to cause such Holder to sell any and all Preference Shares to the Issuer or to a person chosen by the Issuer or the Issuer’s agent on such terms as the Issuer may choose.

The Issuer will provide or cause to be provided to each Holder or beneficial owner of the Preference Shares (or its designee), upon written request therefor, any information that such Holder or beneficial owner reasonably requests to assist such Holder or beneficial owner with regard to its or its equity owners’ U.S. federal income tax filing requirements.

The Issuer will cause the Independent accountants to make a determination as to whether a Holder’s investment in the Preference Shares has become a “reportable transaction” as described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.6011-4 because, after the Closing Date, the Issuer entered into a transaction whereby the Issuer recognized a significant loss or otherwise. If the Holder’s investment in the Preference Shares has become such a “reportable transaction,” then the Issuer shall provide to Holders of Preference Shares any information available to it which may be reasonably necessary for such Holders of Preference Shares to comply with any disclosure requirements under Section 6011 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder with respect to its investment in the Preference Shares.

The Issuer shall not become the owner of any asset if the ownership or disposition of such asset (without regard to the other activities of the Issuer) would cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes, it being understood that the purchase of Collateral Obligations pursuant to the acquisition standards set forth in the Collateral Acquisition Agreement will not be deemed to cause the Issuer to be engaged in a trade or business with the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Re: Red River CLO Ltd.
Preference Shares, Par Value $0.01 Per Share

Dear Sirs:

Reference is hereby made to the Issuer's Memorandum and Articles of Association (the "Articles") and certain resolutions adopted at a meeting of the Issuer's Board of Directors on or about August 3, 2006 (the "Resolutions"), as reflected in the minutes thereof. Reference is also made to the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, dated as of August 3, 2006 (the "Agreement") by and between Red River CLO Ltd., as Issuer and U.S. Bank National Association, as Preference Shares Paying Agent. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Resolutions, including Annex A thereto ("Annex A"), and if not defined in the Resolutions, in the Offering Memorandum.

This certificate relates to _____ Preference Shares which are to be transferred to the undersigned transferee (the "purchaser") pursuant to Section 5(b) of Annex A.

1. The purchaser hereby represents, warrants and covenants for the benefit of the Issuer that the transfer has been effected in accordance with the transfer restrictions set forth in Section 5(b) of Annex A and the Offering Memorandum, dated July 31, 2006 (the "Offering Memorandum") relating to the Preference Shares and that:

(1) The purchaser hereby certifies that it is a Qualified Institutional Buyer as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act and it is either a Qualified Purchaser or an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers for purposes of the Investment Company Act; and

(2) The Purchaser is aware that the sale of the Preference Shares to it is being made in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities

Act and it is acquiring the Preference Shares for its own account or for one or more accounts, each of which is a Qualified Institutional Buyer, and as to each of which the purchaser exercises sole investment discretion, and in a number not less than the minimum lot, in each case for the purchaser and for each such account.

2. The purchaser has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in the Preference Shares, and the purchaser, and any accounts for which it is acting, are each able to bear the economic risk of the purchaser's or its investment.

3. The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, the Preference Shares have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and, if in the future the purchaser decides to offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Preference Shares, such Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred only in accordance with the legend in respect of such Preference Shares set forth in clause (11) below and the restrictions set forth in the Preference Share Documents. The purchaser acknowledges that no representation is made by the Issuer, the Servicer or the Placement Agents or any of their respective Affiliates as to the availability of any exemption under the Securities Act or other applicable laws of any jurisdiction for resale of the Preference Shares.

4. The purchaser agrees that it will not offer or sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of the Preference Shares or any interest therein except (i) pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws or the applicable laws of any other jurisdiction and (ii) in accordance with the Preference Share Documents, to which provisions the purchaser hereby agrees it is subject.

5. The purchaser is not purchasing the Preference Shares with a view to the resale, distribution or other disposition thereof in violation of the Securities Act. The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares will be highly illiquid and are not suitable for short-term trading. The Preference Shares are a leveraged investment in the Collateral Obligations that may expose the Preference Shares to disproportionately large changes in value. Payments in respect of the Preference Shares are not guaranteed as they are dependent on the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations. The purchaser understands that it is possible that, due to the structure of the transaction and the performance of the Issuer's portfolio of Collateral Obligations, dividends or other distributions in respect of the Preference Shares may be reduced or eliminated entirely. Furthermore, the Preference Shares constitute equity in the Issuer, are not secured by the Collateral and will rank behind all creditors (secured and unsecured and whether known or unknown) of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the Holders of the Notes, and any Hedge Counterparties. The Issuer has assets limited to the Collateral for payment of all Classes of the Notes and dividends and other distributions on the Preference Shares, and the Preference Shares bear, pro rata, the first risk of loss. The purchaser understands that an investment in the Preference Shares involves certain risks, including the risk of loss of all or a substantial part of its investment. The purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning the Issuer, the Preference Shares and the Collateral as it deemed necessary or appropriate in order to make an informed investment decision with respect to its purchase of the Preference Shares, including an opportunity to ask questions of and request information from the Issuer and the Placement Agents.

6. (i) None of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer is acting as a fiduciary or financial or investment advisor for the purchaser, (ii) the purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, counsel or representations (whether written or oral) of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates other than in the Offering Memorandum and any representations expressly set forth in a written agreement with such party; (iii) none of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Placement Agents, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates has given to the purchaser (directly or indirectly through any other Person or documentation for the Preference Shares) any assurance, guarantee or representation whatsoever as to the expected or projected success, profitability, return, performance, result, effect, consequence or benefit (including legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting or otherwise) of the Preference Shares or an investment therein; (iv) the purchaser has consulted with its own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent it has deemed necessary, and it has made its own investment decisions (including decisions regarding the suitability of any transaction pursuant to the documentation for the Preference Shares) based upon its own judgment and upon any advice from such advisors as it has deemed necessary and not upon any view expressed by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Placement Agent, any Hedge Counterparty, the Preference Shares Paying Agent or the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates; (v) the purchaser has determined that the rates, prices or amounts and other terms of the purchase and sale of the Preference Shares reflect those in the relevant market for similar transactions; (vi) if the purchaser is acting for the account of another investor, the purchaser represents that the investment on behalf of such account is based on a determination that the investment is suitable based on the risks referred to in the Offering Memorandum (including, without limitation, the "Risk Factors" and the "Transfer Restrictions Applicable to the Preference Shares"), given the investment objectives of the account for which the purchase is being made, and that the investment is consistent with any applicable legal requirements; (vii) the purchaser is purchasing the Preference Shares with a full understanding of all of the terms, conditions and risks thereof (economic and otherwise), and it, and each account for which it is acquiring Preference Shares, is capable of assuming and willing to assume (financially and otherwise) those risks; and (viii) the purchaser is a sophisticated investor.

7. (A) The purchaser and each account for which the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares is (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, (B) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) is acquiring the Preference Shares as principal for its own account for investment and not for sale in connection with any distribution thereof, (C) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) was not formed solely for the purpose of investing in the Preference Shares (except when each beneficial owner of the purchaser or any such account is a Qualified Purchaser), (D) to the extent the purchaser or any account for which the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares is a private investment company formed before April 30, 1996, the purchaser or such account has received the necessary consent from its beneficial owners, (E) the purchaser (or if the purchaser is acquiring Preference Shares for any account, each such account) agrees that it shall not hold such Preference Shares for the benefit of any other Person and shall be the sole beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and that it shall not sell participation interests in the Preference Shares or enter into any other arrangement pursuant to which any other Person shall be entitled to a beneficial interest in the dividends or other distributions on the Preference Shares (except when each such other Person is a Qualified Purchaser) and (F) the purchaser understands and agrees that any purported transfer of the Preference Shares to a purchaser that does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph shall be null and void ab initio.

8. The purchaser understands that, prior to any sale or other transfer of any interest in a Preference Share, it (or the transferee, as applicable) will be required to provide to the Issuer and Preference Shares Paying Agent a duly executed transfer certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B attached to Annex A and such other certificates and other information as they may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed transfer complies with the restrictions in the legend placed on each certificate representing the Preference Shares and in the Preference Share Documents.

9. The purchaser understands and agrees that (i) no purchase or transfer may be made that would result in any person or entity holding beneficial ownership in any Preference Shares in less than an authorized number as set forth in Annex A and (ii) no purchase or transfer of Preference Shares that would have the effect of requiring either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of Collateral to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act will be permitted.

10. The Purchaser understands and agrees that no purchase or transfer of Specified Securities to a purchaser or transferee that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person (each as defined under United States Department of Labor (“DOL”) Regulations, 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101) will be effective, and the Issuer or the Share Registrar will not recognize or register such purchase or transfer, if such purchase or transfer would result in (i) Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares (determined pursuant to 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101 and the Preference Share Documents) or (ii) a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”) or Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”) (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law). The Purchaser further understands and agrees that any transfer in violation of the applicable provisions of the Preference Share Documents will be null and void ab initio. For purposes of the 25% determination described in the first sentence of this clause (10), the Preference Shares held by the Trustee, the Servicer, any of their respective affiliates (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)(3)) and any other persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons will be disregarded and will not be treated as outstanding. The Purchaser’s acquisition, holding and disposition of the Specified Securities will not result in a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law), because such purchase, holding or acquisition either (a) is not, and will not become, subject to such laws or (b) is covered by an exemption from all applicable prohibited transactions, all conditions of which are and will be satisfied throughout its holding of such Specified Securities. The Purchaser and any Person causing it to acquire the Specified Securities agree, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Placement Agents, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Servicer and their respective affiliates from any cost, damage or loss incurred by them as a result of a breach of the representations set forth in this clause (10) and clause (12) below. If the Purchaser is an insurance company investing through its general account as defined in DOL Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption (“PTCE”) 95-60, for so long as it holds the Specified Securities, such Purchaser shall meet the requirements pertaining to the percentage of the assets of such insurance company general account that can be treated as plan assets for purposes of calculating the 25% threshold under the significant participation test of the Plan Asset Regulation (29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)).

11. The purchaser understands that the Preference Shares (a) will be represented by one or more Preference Share certificates which will bear the legend substantially in the form set forth below unless the Issuer determines otherwise in accordance with applicable law, and (b) may only be resold, pledged or transferred to Qualified Institutional Buyers who are also (x) Qualified Purchasers or (y) entities owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers. The purchaser understands that before the Preference Shares may be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred, the transferee will be required to provide the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Issuer with a written certification as to compliance with the transfer restrictions.

THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE “SECURITIES ACT”), AND THE ISSUER HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED (THE “INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT”). THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED, EXCEPT (A) TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER (“QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER”) WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER (IN A TRANSACTION MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF RULE 144A SO LONG AS THE PREFERENCE SHARES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR RESALE IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 144A) WHO IS ALSO (X) A QUALIFIED PURCHASER (“QUALIFIED PURCHASER”) WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION (3)(c)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT THAT WAS NOT FORMED FOR THE PURPOSE OF INVESTING IN THE ISSUER (EXCEPT WHEN EACH BENEFICIAL OWNER OF THE PURCHASER IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER) THAT HAS RECEIVED THE NECESSARY CONSENT FROM ITS BENEFICIAL OWNERS WHEN THE PURCHASER IS A PRIVATE INVESTMENT COMPANY FORMED ON OR BEFORE APRIL 30, 1996 OR (Y) IS AN ENTITY OWNED EXCLUSIVELY BY QUALIFIED PURCHASERS, (B) IN EACH CASE, IN A NUMBER OF NOT LESS THAN 100 PREFERENCE SHARES FOR THE PURCHASER AND FOR EACH SUCH ACCOUNT FOR WHICH IT IS ACTING AND (C) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER APPLICABLE JURISDICTION. EACH TRANSFEROR OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES

REPRESENTED HEREBY OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST THEREIN WILL PROVIDE NOTICE OF THE TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS AS SET FORTH HEREIN TO ITS PURCHASER. EACH PURCHASER OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE THE APPLICABLE REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS. THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY MAY BE PURCHASED BY OR TRANSFERRED TO A BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR OR CONTROLLING PERSON (EACH AS DEFINED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS) ONLY UPON THE SATISFACTION OF CERTAIN CONDITIONS SET FORTH IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS. ANY TRANSFER IN VIOLATION OF THE FOREGOING WILL BE OF NO FORCE AND EFFECT, WILL BE VOID AB INITIO, AND WILL NOT OPERATE TO TRANSFER ANY RIGHTS TO THE TRANSFEREE, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRARY TO THE ISSUER, THE PREFERENCE SHARES PAYING AGENT OR ANY INTERMEDIARY. IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING, THE ISSUER MAINTAINS THE RIGHT TO RESELL ANY PREFERENCE SHARES PREVIOUSLY TRANSFERRED TO NON-PERMITTED HOLDERS OR NON-PERMITTED BENEFIT PLAN INVESTORS (AS DEFINED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS) IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

THE FAILURE TO PROVIDE THE ISSUER AND ANY PAYING AGENT, WHENEVER REQUESTED BY THE ISSUER OR THE SERVICER ON BEHALF OF THE ISSUER, WITH THE APPLICABLE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CERTIFICATIONS (GENERALLY, AN INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-9 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS A "UNITED STATES PERSON" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE OR AN APPROPRIATE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FORM W-8 (OR APPLICABLE SUCCESSOR FORM) IN THE CASE OF A PERSON THAT IS NOT A "UNITED STATES PERSON" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 7701(A)(30) OF THE CODE) MAY RESULT IN THE IMPOSITION OF U.S. FEDERAL WITHHOLDING FROM PAYMENTS TO THE HOLDER IN RESPECT OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY.

EACH TRANSFEREE WILL BE REQUIRED TO DELIVER A TRANSFER CERTIFICATE IN A FORM PRESCRIBED IN THE PREFERENCE SHARE DOCUMENTS.

12. The funds that the purchaser is using or will use to purchase the Preference Shares are assets of a person who is or at any time while the Preference Shares are held by the purchaser will be (A) an "employee benefit plan" as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, whether or not such plan is subject to Title I of ERISA, including, without limitation, foreign, church and governmental plans, (B) a "plan" described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code or (C) an entity whose underlying assets would be deemed to include "plan assets" of either of the foregoing by reason of the investment by an employee benefit plan or other plan in the entity within the meaning of 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101 or otherwise (the plans and persons described in clauses (A), (B) and (C) being referred to as "Benefit Plan Investors"). For purposes of making this determination, foreign benefit plans, government or church plans, Keoghs and individual retirement accounts ("IRAs") are typically considered Benefit Plan Investors.

Yes _____ No _____ (Please check either yes or no).

If yes, such funds are assets of an employee benefit plan subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA or a plan described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code and subject to Section 4975 of the Code, or a foreign plan, "governmental plan," or "church plan" subject to foreign, federal, state or local laws, rules or regulations that are substantially similar to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code.

Yes _____ No _____ (Please check either yes or no).

The purchaser is not the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Servicer or any other person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) that has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Issuer or a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the assets of the Issuer, or any "affiliate" (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3 101(f)(3)) of any such person (any such person, a "Controlling Person"). Please place a check in the following space if the foregoing statement is NOT accurate: _____.

If the purchaser is an insurance company investing through its general account as defined in PTCE 95-60, for so long as it holds the Preference Shares, no more than ____% of the assets of such insurance company general account could be treated, for so long as it holds the Preference Shares, as plan assets for purposes of calculating the 25% threshold under the significant participation test (29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101(f)). (Please provide percentage, if applicable).

The purchaser understands and acknowledges that the Share Registrar will not register any purchase or transfer of Preference Shares to a proposed purchaser or transferee that has represented that it is a Benefit Plan Investor or a Controlling Person if, after giving effect to such proposed transfer, persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors would own 25% or more of the outstanding amount of the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares. For purposes of the 25% determination described in clause (i) of the preceding sentence, Preference Shares held by the Trustee, the Servicer, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, any of their respective affiliates (as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3 101(f)(3)) and any other persons that have represented that they are Controlling Persons will be disregarded and will not be treated as outstanding.

The purchaser's acquisition, holding and disposition of the Preference Shares will not result in a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, foreign or church plan, a violation of any substantially similar federal, state, foreign or local law), unless an exemption is available, all conditions of which have been satisfied.

The purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement will entitle the Issuer to require the purchaser to dispose of the Preference Shares as soon as practicable following notification by the Issuer of any change in the information supplied in this clause (12).

The purchaser understands that the representations made in this clause (12) will be deemed made on each day from the date hereof through and including the date on which the purchaser disposes of its interests in the Preference Shares.

The purchaser agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Placement Agent and the Servicer and their respective affiliates from any cost, damage, or loss incurred by them as a result of a breach of the representation in this clause (12).

The purchaser agrees that it will not sell, pledge or otherwise transfer any Preference Shares in violation of the foregoing.

13. The purchaser will provide notice to each Person to whom it proposes to transfer any interest in the Preference Shares of the transfer restrictions and representations set forth in the Preference Share Documents, including the exhibits referenced in the Preference Share Documents.

14. The purchaser understands that the Preference Share Documents permit the Issuer to compel any Holder of the Preference Shares who is a U.S. Person and who is determined not to have been both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers at the time of acquisition of the Preference Shares to sell such Preference Shares, or to sell such Preference Shares on behalf of such purchaser, to a Person that is both (x) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser or (ii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act.

15. The beneficial owner, if not a U.S. Person, either (i) is not a bank (within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code) or (ii) is a person that is eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates United States federal income taxation of United States source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States. The beneficial owner is not purchasing the Preference Shares in order to reduce its United States federal income tax liability or pursuant to a tax avoidance plan.

16. The purchaser acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Preference Shares. The purchaser further acknowledges that no action was taken or is being contemplated by the Issuer that would permit possession or distribution of the Offering Memorandum or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Securities in any jurisdiction (other than Ireland) where, or in any circumstances in which, action for those purposes is required. Nothing contained in the Offering Memorandum relating to the Preference Shares shall constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any Preference Shares in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so absent the taking of such action or the availability of an exemption therefrom.

17. The purchaser understands that in the case of any supplemental indenture to the Indenture that requires consent of one or more Holders of the Preference Shares, the Indenture permits the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser to purchase Preference Shares from any Non-

Consenting Holder thereof (or, with respect to any Preference Shares held by Investors Corp., to purchase the Holding Preference Shares from any Non-Consenting Holding Preference Share Holder thereof), in each case, at the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; and such Non-Consenting Holder or Non-Consenting Holding Preference Share Holder will be required to sell such Preference Shares or Holding Preference Shares, as the case may be, to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at such price.

18. The purchaser understands that the scheduled redemption date of the Preference Shares is subject to multiple extensions of four years each without consent of any Holders of the Preference Shares at the option of the Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, upon satisfaction of certain conditions.

19. The purchaser will not, at any time, offer to buy or offer to sell the Preference Shares by any form of general solicitation or advertising, including, but not limited to, any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitations or advertising.

20. The beneficial owner will agree to treat, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (a) the Preference Shares as equity of the Issuer, (b) the Notes as indebtedness of the Issuer and (c) the Issuer as a partnership (except to the extent the Issuer can no longer be treated as a partnership as a result of any election by the Issuer, changes in ownership of the Issuer or changes in the manner in which the equity of the Issuer is traded). The beneficial owner will be deemed to have acknowledged that the Issuer is not authorized to engage in activities that could cause it to constitute a finance or lending business for U.S. federal income tax purposes and agrees that it will report its investment in Preference Shares consistent with such limitation.

21. To the extent required, as determined by the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, the Issuer may, upon notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent and the Share Registrar, impose additional transfer restrictions on the Preference Shares to comply with the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the U.S. Patriot Act) and other similar laws or regulations, including, without limitation, requiring each transferee of a Preference Share to make representations to the Issuer in connection with such compliance.

22. The purchaser agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or winding up against the Issuer before one year and one day have elapsed since the payment in full of the Notes or, if longer, the applicable preference period in effect.

23. The purchaser is not a member of the public in the Cayman Islands.

24. The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer has the right pursuant to Section 6 of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement to issue additional Preference Shares.

25. The purchaser understands that, to the extent required, as determined by the Co-Issuers, the Co-Issuers may amend the Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer only, the Preference Share Documents, without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities to (i) remove any restrictions and limitations imposed on the Co-Issuers or the Holders of the Securities that solely relate to compliance with Section 3(c)(7) and (ii) add any requirements that are necessary for compliance with Rule 3a-7 if, at any time following the Closing Date, the Co-Issuers elect to rely on exclusion from the definition of “investment company” under Rule 3a-7 in lieu of the exclusion under Section 3(c)(7).

26. The purchaser understands that the Issuer may enter into amendments or modifications to the Servicing Agreement without the consent of any Holders of the Securities and without regard to whether or not such amendment adversely affects the interest of the Holders of the Securities.

27. The purchaser agrees to provide (and agrees it will cause any subsequent transferee of its Preference Shares to provide) the Share Registrar (1) appropriate documentation required under the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations establishing that the beneficial owner of the Preference Shares to be transferred is either a non-U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-8BEN or an IRS Form W-8IMY with appropriate attachments) or a U.S. person (e.g., an IRS Form W-9) and (2) if such beneficial owner is treated as a partnership, S-corporation or grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a written representation from such beneficial owner that (i) there will not be any interests in such beneficial owner where substantially all of the value of such interest is attributable to the value of the Preference Shares proposed to be transferred to such beneficial owner, together with the value of any Class E Notes, Holding Preference Shares and Preference Shares already held by such beneficial owner and (ii) such beneficial owner is not a part of any arrangement a principal purpose of which is to cause the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares to be treated as owned by 100 persons or less within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h). The purchaser agrees to provide a properly completed, newly executed U.S. tax form and other certificate in each of the following circumstances: (i) no later than 120 days prior to the expiration (if applicable) of the last previously provided U.S. tax form or certificate, (ii) upon any change of circumstance that would cause that the last previously provided U.S. tax form or certificate to be incorrect and (iii) upon a request by the Issuer or the Share Registrar. The purchaser agrees that if it fails to provide a properly completed, newly executed U.S. tax form or other certificate no later than 120 days prior to the expiration of the last previously provided U.S. tax form or, if earlier, within the time specified in any request by the Issuer or the Share Registrar (which shall not be less than 30 days), the Issuer will have the unconditional right to cause such purchaser to sell any and all Preference Shares to the Issuer or to a person chosen by the Issuer or the Issuer’s agent on such terms as the Issuer may choose. For this purpose, an IRS Form W-8IMY (or any successor form thereto) will be deemed to expire upon the expiration of any withholding statement or U.S. tax forms associated with such IRS Form W-8IMY.

28. The purchaser understands and agrees that the Issuer will not recognize any transfers of Preference Shares if the proposed transfer will cause the Issuer to have either (a) exactly one beneficial owner or (b) more than ninety-nine beneficial owners (as determined for purposes of the provisions of Treasury Regulation section 1.7704-1(h)) of its Class E Notes and its Preference Shares unless, in the case of clause (b), it receives the consent of all of the Holders of the Preference Shares and an opinion of counsel to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such transfer, and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such transfer had not been made.

29. The purchaser represents that it has not acquired the Preference Shares pursuant to a trade on an “established securities market” and agrees that it will not trade any Preference Shares on an “established securities market.” For this purpose, the term “established securities market” includes any national securities exchange registered under Section 6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or exempted from registration because of the limited volume of transaction; any foreign securities exchange that, under the laws of the jurisdiction where it is organized, satisfies regulatory requirements that are analogous to the regulatory requirements imposed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; any regional or local exchange; and any interdealer quotation system that regularly disseminates firm buy or sell quotations by identified brokers or dealers, by electronic means or otherwise. The purchaser understands and agrees that in the event that the purchaser acquires or trades the Preference Shares on an established securities market, as described above, the Issuer will not recognize any transfers of Preference Shares made pursuant to such acquisition or trade.

30. The purchaser is ___ / is not ___ (check one) Highland Financial Partners, L.P. or any of its subsidiaries.

31. The purchaser acknowledges that the Issuer, the Servicer, the Placement Agents and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or agreements deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of the Preference Shares or any beneficial interest therein are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Issuer, the Servicer and the Placement Agents. If the purchaser is acquiring any Preference Shares or any beneficial interest therein as a fiduciary or agent for one or more institutional accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

(a) The Servicer shall provide services to the Issuer as follows:

(i) Subject to and in accordance with the terms the Indenture and this Agreement, the Servicer shall supervise and direct the administration, acquisition and disposition of the Collateral, and shall perform on behalf of the Issuer those duties and obligations of the Servicer required by the Indenture and this Agreement, and including the furnishing of orders, requests and officer’s certificates, and such certifications as are required of the Servicer under the Indenture with respect to permitted purchases and sales of the Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments and other assets, and other matters, and, to the extent necessary or appropriate to perform such duties, the Servicer shall have the power to execute and deliver all necessary and appropriate documents and instruments on behalf of the Issuer with respect thereto. The Servicer shall, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Indenture, perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder with reasonable care and in good faith, using a degree of skill and attention no less than that which the Servicer exercises with respect to comparable assets that it services or manages for others having similar objectives and restrictions, and in a manner consistent with practices and procedures followed by institutional servicers or managers of national standing relating to assets of the nature and character of the Collateral for clients having similar objectives and restrictions, except as expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement and/or the Indenture. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the Servicer shall follow its customary standards, policies and procedures in performing its duties under the Indenture and hereunder. The Servicer shall comply with all terms and conditions of the Indenture affecting the duties and functions to be performed hereunder. The Servicer shall not be bound to follow any amendment to the Indenture until it has received written notice thereof and until it has received a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee; provided, however, that the Servicer shall not be bound by any amendment to the Indenture that affects the rights, powers, obligations or duties of the Servicer unless the Servicer shall have consented thereto in writing. The Issuer agrees that it shall not permit any amendment to the Indenture that (x) affects the rights, powers, obligations or duties of the Servicer or (y) affects the amount or priority of any fees payable to the Servicer to become effective unless the Servicer has been given prior written notice of such amendment and consented thereto in writing;

(ii) the Servicer shall select any Collateral which shall be acquired by the Issuer pursuant to the Indenture in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria;

(iii) the Servicer shall monitor the Collateral on an ongoing basis and provide to the Issuer all reports, certificates, schedules and other data with respect to the Collateral which the Issuer is required to prepare and deliver under the Indenture and any Hedge Agreement, in the form and containing all information required thereby and in reasonable time for the Issuer to review such required reports, certificates, schedules and data and to deliver them to the parties entitled thereto under the Indenture; the Servicer shall undertake to determine to the extent reasonably practicable whether a Collateral Obligation has become a Defaulted Collateral Obligation; and the Servicer shall monitor any Hedge Agreements and direct the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer in respect of all actions to be taken thereunder by the Issuer;

(iv) the Servicer, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture may, at any time permitted under the Indenture, and shall, when required by the Indenture, direct the Trustee to (x) dispose of a Collateral Obligation, Equity Security or Eligible Investment or other securities received in respect thereof in the open market or otherwise, (y) acquire, as security for the Notes in substitution for or in addition to any one or more Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments included in the Collateral, one or more substitute Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investments, or (z) direct the Trustee to take the following actions with respect to a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment:

(1) retain such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment;

(2) if applicable, tender such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment pursuant to an Offer; or

(3) if applicable, consent to any proposed amendment, modification or waiver pursuant to an Offer; or

(4) retain or dispose of any securities or other property (if other than Cash) received pursuant to an Offer; or

(5) waive any default with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation; or

(6) vote to accelerate the maturity of any Defaulted Collateral Obligation; or

(7) exercise any other rights or remedies with respect to such Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment as provided in the related

Underlying Instruments, including in connection with any workout situations, or take any other action consistent with the terms of the Indenture which is in the best interests of the Holders of the Securities;

(v) subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and this Agreement, the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall determine whether to enter into any additional hedging arrangements, increase or reduce the notional amounts of existing Hedge Agreements or terminate existing Hedge Agreements, and the Servicer shall use its reasonable efforts to cause the Issuer, promptly following the early termination of a Hedge Agreement (other than on a Redemption Date) and to the extent possible through application of funds received as a result of the early termination (including the proceeds of the liquidation of any collateral pledged by the hedge counterparty), to enter into a replacement Hedge Agreement;

(vi) the Servicer shall on or prior to any day which is a Redemption Date, direct the Trustee to enter into contracts to dispose of the Collateral Obligations and any other Collateral pursuant to the Indenture and otherwise comply with all redemption procedures and certification requirements in the Indenture in order to allow the Trustee to effect such redemption; and

(vii) if the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, desires to make distributions of Eligible Equity Securities on any Payment Date pursuant to Section 2(e) of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Servicer shall so notify the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent and provide the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of the Preference Shares with respect to the applicable Record Date) details of such Eligible Equity Securities in accordance with the procedure set forth in Section 3(b) of the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement.

(b) In performing its duties hereunder, the Servicer shall seek to preserve the value of the Collateral for the benefit of the Holders of the Securities taking into account the collateral criteria and limitations set forth herein and in the Indenture and the Servicer shall use reasonable efforts to select and service the Collateral in such a way that will permit a timely performance of all payment obligations by the Issuer under the Indenture; provided, that the Servicer shall not be responsible if such objectives are not achieved so long as the Servicer performs its duties under this Agreement in the manner provided for herein, and provided, further, that there shall be no recourse to the Servicer with respect to the Notes or the Preference Shares. The Servicer and the Issuer shall take such other action, and furnish such certificates, opinions and other documents, as may be reasonably requested by the other party hereto in order to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement and to facilitate compliance with applicable laws and regulations and the terms of this Agreement.

(c) The Servicer hereby agrees to the following:

(i) The Servicer agrees not to institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings or other proceedings under federal or state bankruptcy or similar laws of any jurisdiction until at least one year and one day (or if longer, any applicable preference period plus one day) after the payment in full of all Notes issued under the Indenture; provided, however, that nothing in this clause (i) shall preclude, or be deemed to estop, the Servicer (A) from taking any action prior to the expiration of such period in (x) any case or proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, or (y) any involuntary insolvency proceeding filed or commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, by a Person other than the Servicer, or (B) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any properties of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any legal action which is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, liquidation or similar proceeding.

(ii) The Servicer shall cause each sale or purchase of any Collateral Obligations or Eligible Investment to be conducted on an arm's-length basis.

(iii) The Servicer shall notify the Trustee, the Share Registrar and the Holding Share Registrar of any Affiliate of the Servicer that owns the Securities or the Holding Preference Shares.

(iv) The Servicer and/or its Affiliates will purchase Class E Notes having an aggregate principal amount equal to U.S.$31,500,000 and the Servicer and/or its Affiliates (other than HFP) will purchase Holding Preferences Shares having an aggregate Face Amount equal to U.S.$21,000,000.

(d) The Servicer shall not act for the Issuer in any capacity except as provided in this Section 2. In providing services hereunder, the Servicer may employ third parties, including its Affiliates, to render advice (including advice with respect to the servicing of the Collateral) and assistance; provided, however, that the Servicer shall not be relieved of any of its duties or liabilities hereunder regardless of the performance of any services by third parties. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Servicer shall not be required to take any action required of it pursuant to this Agreement or the Indenture if such action would constitute a violation of any law.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or the Indenture, (i) any granted signatory powers or authority granted to the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer with respect to the Special Procedures Obligations shall be conditioned upon the prior written approval of the Independent Advisor and (ii) neither the Servicer nor any Affiliate of the Servicer shall have any authority to enter into agreements, or take any action, on behalf of the Issuer with respect to the Special Procedures Obligations without the prior written approval of the Independent Advisor.

3. Brokerage.

The Servicer shall seek to obtain the best prices and execution for all orders placed with respect to the Collateral, considering all reasonable circumstances. Subject to the objective of obtaining best prices and execution, the Servicer may take into consideration research and other brokerage services furnished to the Servicer or its Affiliates by brokers and dealers which are not Affiliates of the Servicer. Such services may be used by the Servicer or its Affiliates in connection with its other servicing or advisory activities or operations. The Servicer may aggregate sales and purchase orders of securities placed with respect to the Collateral with similar orders being made simultaneously for other accounts serviced or managed by Servicer or with accounts of the Affiliates of the Servicer, if in the Servicer's reasonable judgment such aggregation shall result in an overall economic benefit to the Issuer, taking into consideration the advantageous selling or purchase price, brokerage commission and other expenses. In the event that a sale or purchase of a Collateral Obligation or Eligible Investment (in accordance with the terms of the Indenture) occurs as part of any aggregate sales or purchase orders, the objective of the Servicer (and any of its Affiliates involved in such transactions) shall be to allocate the executions among the accounts in an equitable manner and consistent with its obligations hereunder and under applicable law.

In addition to the foregoing and subject to the provisions of Section 2 and the limitations of Section 5, the objective of obtaining best prices and execution and to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Servicer may, on behalf of the Issuer, direct the Trustee to acquire any and all of the Eligible Investments or other Collateral from, or sell Collateral Obligations or other Collateral to, the Placement Agents, the Trustee or any of their respective Affiliates, or any other firm.

4. Additional Activities of the Servicer.

Nothing herein shall prevent the Servicer or any of its Affiliates from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Trustee, the Holders of the Securities, or any other Person or entity to the extent permitted by applicable law. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Servicer and partners, directors, officers, employees and agents of the Servicer or its Affiliates may, among other things, and subject to any limits specified in the Indenture:

(a) serve as directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, partners, employees, agents, nominees or signatories for any issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates, to the extent permitted by their Governing Instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates, pursuant to their respective Governing Instruments; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Servicer, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on any item of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Collateral Quality Test; provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the duties of the Servicer set forth in Section 2 hereof;

(b) receive fees for services of any nature rendered to the issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral or their respective Affiliates; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Servicer, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on any item of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Collateral Quality Test; and provided, further that if any portion of such services are related to the purchase by the Issuer of any obligations included in the Collateral, the portion of such fees relating to such obligations shall be applied to the purchase price of such obligations; and

(c) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold an equity interest in, the Issuer, its Affiliates or any issuer of any obligation included in the Collateral; provided, that in the reasonable judgment of the Servicer, such activity shall not have a material adverse effect on any item of Collateral or the ability of the Issuer to comply with each Collateral Quality Test; provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the duties of the Servicer set forth in Section 2 hereof.

It is understood that the Servicer and any of its Affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish servicing, investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have policies similar to those followed by the Servicer with respect to the Collateral and which may own securities of the same class, or which are the same type, as the Collateral Obligations or other securities of the issuers of Collateral Obligations. The Servicer shall be free, in its sole discretion, to make recommendations to others, or effect transactions on behalf of itself or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Collateral.

Unless the Servicer determines in its reasonable judgment that such purchase or sale is appropriate, the Servicer may refrain from directing the purchase or sale hereunder of securities issued by (i) Persons of which the Servicer, its Affiliates or any of its or their officers, directors or employees are directors or officers, (ii) Persons for which the Servicer or its Affiliate act as financial adviser or underwriter or (iii) Persons about which the Servicer or any of its Affiliates have information which the Servicer deems confidential or non-public or otherwise might prohibit it from trading such securities in accordance with applicable law. The Servicer shall not be obligated to pursue any particular strategy or opportunity with respect to the Collateral.

5. Conflicts of Interest.

(a) The Servicer shall not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Servicer such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Servicer, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (iii) such transaction is permitted by the Advisers Act.

(b) The Servicer shall not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as servicer or investment adviser unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Servicer, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (ii) permitted by the Advisers Act.

(c) The Servicer shall not undertake any transaction described in this Section 5 unless such transaction is exempt from the prohibited transaction rules of ERISA and the Code. In addition, after the initial distribution of the Class E Notes and the Preference Shares, neither the Servicer nor any of its affiliates (as defined in the Plan Asset Regulation) shall acquire any Class E Notes or Preference Shares (including pursuant to the Extension Procedure or the Amendment Buy-Out Option) unless such acquisition would not, as determined by the Trustee in reliance on representations made in the applicable transfer certificates with respect thereto, result in persons that have represented that they are Benefit Plan Investors owning 25% or more of the aggregate outstanding amount of any of the Class E Notes, the Class I Preference Shares or the Class II Preference Shares immediately after such acquisition (determined in accordance with the Plan Asset Regulation, the Indenture and the Preference Share Documents). The Class E Notes and the Preference Shares held as principal by the Servicer or any of its affiliates shall be disregarded and shall not be treated as outstanding for purposes of determining compliance with such 25% limitation to the extent that such person has represented that it is not a Benefit Plan Investor.

6. Records; Confidentiality.

The Servicer shall maintain appropriate books of account and records relating to services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by a representative of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Holders of the Securities and the Independent accountants appointed by the Issuer pursuant to the Indenture at a mutually agreed time during normal business hours and upon not less than three Business Days' prior notice. At no time shall the Servicer make a public announcement concerning the issuance of the Notes or the Preference Shares, the Servicer's role hereunder or any other aspect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Indenture. The Servicer shall keep confidential any and all information obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder and shall not disclose any such information to non-affiliated third parties except (i) with the prior written consent of the Issuer, (ii) such information as either Rating Agency shall reasonably request in connection with the rating of any class of Securities, (iii) as required by law, regulation, court order or the rules or regulations of any self regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Servicer, (iv) to its professional advisers, (v) such information as shall have been publicly disclosed other than in violation of this Agreement, or (vi) such information that was or is obtained by the Servicer on a non-confidential basis, provided, that the Servicer does not know or have reason to know of any breach by such source of any confidentiality obligations with respect thereto. For purposes of this Section 6, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator and the Holders of the Securities shall in no event be considered "non-affiliated third parties."

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Indenture to the contrary, the Servicer, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and the Holders of the Securities (and the beneficial owners thereof) (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such U.S. tax treatment and U.S. tax structure, as such terms are defined under U.S. federal, state or local tax law.

7. Obligations of Servicer.

Unless otherwise specifically required by any provision of the Indenture or this Agreement or by applicable law, the Servicer shall use its best reasonable efforts to ensure that no action is taken by it, and shall not intentionally or with reckless disregard take any action, which would (a) materially adversely affect the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for purposes of Cayman Islands law, United States federal or state law or any other law known to the Servicer to be applicable to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, (b) not be permitted under the Issuer's or the Co-Issuer's respective governing instruments, (c) violate any law, rule or regulation of any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction over the Issuer or the Co-Issuer including, without limitation, any Cayman Islands or United States federal, state or other applicable securities law the violation of which has or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or any of the Collateral, (d) require registration of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the pool of Collateral as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act, (e) cause the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to violate the terms of the Indenture, including, without limitation, any representations made by the Issuer or Co-Issuer therein, or any other agreement contemplated by the Indenture or (f) not be permitted by the Collateral Acquisition Agreement and would subject the Issuer to U.S. federal or state income or franchise taxation or cause the Issuer to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Servicer covenants that it shall comply in all material respects with all laws and regulations applicable to it in connection with the performance of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Servicer shall not be required to take any action under this Agreement or the Indenture if such action would violate any applicable law, rule, regulation or court order.

8. Compensation.

(a) The Issuer shall pay to the Servicer, for services rendered and performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Servicing Fee, which shall be payable in such amounts and at such times as set forth in the Indenture. The provisions of the Indenture which relate to the amount and payment of the Servicing Fee shall not be amended without the written consent of the Servicer. If on any Payment Date there are insufficient funds to pay the Servicing Fee (and/or any other amounts due and payable to the Servicer) in full, the amount not so paid shall be deferred and shall be payable with accrued interest on such later Payment Date on which funds are available therefor as provided in the Indenture.

The Servicer hereby agrees to waive the Class II Preference Share Portion of the Servicing Fees deposited by the Trustee into the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account pursuant to the Indenture, which would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as Servicing Fees, on each Payment Date during the first two years following the Closing Date. After the two-year anniversary of the Closing Date, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive the Class II Preference Share Portion of its Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Issuer as Class II Preference Share Special Payments pursuant to the Indenture. For purposes of any calculation under this Agreement and the Indenture, the Servicer shall be deemed to have received the Servicing Fee in an amount equal to the sum of the Servicing Fee actually paid to the Servicer and the amount distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments.

In addition, notwithstanding anything set out above, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion: (i) waive all or any portion of the Servicing Fee, any funds representing the waived Servicing Fees to be retained in the Collection Account for distribution as either Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds (as determined by the Servicer) pursuant to the Priority of Payments; or (ii) defer all or any portion of the Servicing Fee, any funds representing the deferred Servicing Fees to be retained in the Collection Account, when they will become payable in the same manner and priority as their original characterization would have required unless deferred again.

(b) The Servicer shall be responsible for the ordinary expenses incurred in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement and the Indenture; provided, however, that any extraordinary expenses actually incurred by the Servicer in the performance of such obligations (including, but not limited to, any fees, expenses or other amounts payable to the Rating Agencies, the Collateral Administrator, the Trustee and the accountants appointed by the Issuer, the reasonable expenses incurred by the Servicer to employ outside lawyers or consultants reasonably necessary in connection with the evaluation, transfer or restructuring of any Collateral Obligations or other unusual matters arising in the performance of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture, any reasonable expenses incurred by the Servicer in obtaining advice from outside counsel with respect to its obligations under this Agreement, brokerage commissions, transfer fees, registration costs, taxes and other similar costs and transaction related expenses and fees arising out of transactions effected for the Issuer's account and the portion allocated to the Issuer of any other fees and expenses that the Servicer customarily allocates among all of the funds or portfolios that it services or manages) shall be reimbursed by the Issuer to the extent funds are available therefor in accordance with and subject to the priority of payments and the other limitations contained in the Indenture.

(c) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 12, Section 14 or otherwise, the fees payable to the Servicer shall be prorated for any partial periods between Payment Dates during which this Agreement was in effect and shall be due and payable on the first Payment Date following the date of such termination and on any subsequent Payment Dates to the extent remaining unpaid and in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Indenture.

9. Benefit of the Agreement.

The Servicer agrees that its obligations hereunder shall be enforceable at the instance of the Issuer, the Trustee, on behalf of the Noteholders, or the requisite percentage of Noteholders or the Holders of the Preference Shares, as applicable, as provided in the Indenture or the Preference Share Paying Agency Agreement, as applicable.

10. Limits of Servicer Responsibility; Indemnification.

(a) The Servicer assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder and under the terms of the Indenture made applicable to it pursuant to the terms of this Agreement in good faith and, subject to the standard of liability described in the next sentence, shall not be responsible for any action of the Issuer or the Trustee in following or declining to follow any advice, recommendation or direction of the Servicer. The Servicer, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, and its Affiliates and their directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees, shall not be liable to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Holders of the Securities or any other person, for any losses, claims, damages, judgments, assessments, costs or other liabilities (collectively, "Liabilities") incurred by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Holders of the Securities or any other person, that arise out of or in connection with the performance by the Servicer of its duties under this Agreement and the Indenture, except by reason of (i) acts or omissions constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance, or reckless disregard, of the obligations of the Servicer hereunder and under the Indenture or (ii) with respect to any information included in the Offering Memorandum in the sections entitled "The Servicer" and "Risk Factors—Relating to Certain Conflicts of Interest—The Issuer Will Be Subject to Various Conflicts of Interest Involving the Servicer" that contain any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (the preceding clauses (i) and (ii) collectively being the "Servicer Breaches"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Servicer shall have no duty to independently investigate any laws not otherwise known to it in connection with its obligations under this Agreement and the Indenture. The Servicer shall be liable for any non-waivable breaches of applicable securities laws. The Servicer shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements of the Indenture and this Agreement relating to not causing the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes (including as those requirements relate to the acquisition (including manner of acquisition), ownership, enforcement, and disposition of Collateral) to the extent the Servicer (i) complies with the requirements set forth in the Collateral Acquisition Agreement and (ii) the Servicer does not have actual knowledge that its actions with respect to a Collateral Obligation or an Eligible Investment would violate Section 7(f).

(b) The Issuer shall indemnify and hold harmless (the Issuer in such case, the "Indemnifying Party") the Servicer, its directors, officers, stockholders, partners, agents and employees (such parties collectively in such case, the "Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Liabilities, and shall reimburse each such Indemnified Party for all reasonable fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) (collectively, the “Expenses”) as such Expenses are incurred in investigating, preparing, pursuing or defending any claim, action, proceeding or investigation with respect to any pending or threatened litigation (collectively, the “Actions”), caused by, or arising out of or in connection with, the issuance of the Securities, the transactions contemplated by the Offering Memorandum, the Indenture or this Agreement, and/or any action taken by, or any failure to act by, such Indemnified Party; provided, however, that no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified for any Liabilities or Expenses it incurs as a result of any acts or omissions by any Indemnified Party constituting Servicer Breaches. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Issuer under this Section 10 shall be payable solely out of the Collateral in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Indenture and shall survive termination of this Agreement.

(c) With respect to any claim made or threatened against an Indemnified Party, or compulsory process or request or other notice of any loss, claim, damage or liability served upon an Indemnified Party, for which such Indemnified Party is or may be entitled to indemnification under this Section 10, such Indemnified Party shall (or with respect to Indemnified Parties that are directors, officers, stockholders, agents or employees of the Servicer, the Servicer shall cause such Indemnified Party to):

(i) give written notice to the Indemnifying Party of such claim within ten (10) days after such Indemnified Party’s receipt of actual notice that such claim is made or threatened, which notice to the Indemnifying Party shall specify in reasonable detail the nature of the claim and the amount (or an estimate of the amount) of the claim; provided, however, that the failure of any Indemnified Party to provide such notice to the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under this Section 10 unless the Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced or otherwise forfeits rights or defenses by reason of such failure;

(ii) at the Indemnifying Party’s expense, provide the Indemnifying Party such information and cooperation with respect to such claim as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require, including, but not limited to, making appropriate personnel available to the Indemnifying Party at such reasonable times as the Indemnifying Party may request;

(iii) at the Indemnifying Party’s expense, cooperate and take all such steps as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request to preserve and protect any defense to such claim;

(iv) in the event suit is brought with respect to such claim, upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, which the Indemnifying Party may exercise in its sole discretion and at its expense, to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement of such claim;

(v) neither incur any material expense to defend against nor release or settle any such claim or make any admission with respect thereto (other than routine or incontestable admissions or factual admissions the failure to make which would expose such Indemnified Party to unindemnified liability) nor permit a default or consent to the entry of any judgment in respect thereof, in each case without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party; and

(vi) upon reasonable prior notice, afford to the Indemnifying Party the right, in its sole discretion and at its sole expense, to assume the defense of such claim, including, but not limited to, the right to designate counsel reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party and to control all negotiations, litigation, arbitration, settlements, compromises and appeals of such claim; provided, that if the Indemnifying Party assumes the defense of such claim, it shall not be liable for any fees and expenses of counsel for any Indemnified Party incurred thereafter in connection with such claim except that if such Indemnified Party reasonably determines that counsel designated by the Indemnifying Party has a conflict of interest in connection with its representation of such Indemnified Party, such Indemnifying Party shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of one counsel (in addition to any local counsel) separate from its own counsel for all Indemnified Parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances; provided, further, that prior to entering into any final settlement or compromise, such Indemnifying Party shall seek the consent of the Indemnified Party and use its commercially reasonable efforts in the light of the then prevailing circumstances (including, without limitation, any express or implied time constraint on any pending settlement offer) to obtain the consent of such Indemnified Party as to the terms of settlement or compromise. If an Indemnified Party does not consent to the settlement or compromise within a reasonable time under the circumstances, the Indemnifying Party shall not thereafter be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Party for any amount in excess of such proposed settlement or compromise.

(d) In the event that any Indemnified Party waives its right to indemnification hereunder, the Indemnifying Party shall not be entitled to appoint counsel to represent such Indemnified Party nor shall the Indemnifying Party reimburse such Indemnified Party for any costs of counsel to such Indemnified Party.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, nothing herein shall in any way constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Issuer or the Holders of the Securities may have under any U.S. federal securities laws.

11. No Partnership or Joint Venture.

The Issuer and the Servicer are not partners or joint venturers with each other and nothing herein shall be construed to make them such partners or joint venturers or impose any liability as such on either of them. The Servicer's relation to the Issuer shall be deemed to be that of an independent contractor.

12. Term; Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall commence as of the date first set forth above and shall continue in force and effect until the first of the following occurs: (i) the payment in full of the Notes, the termination of the Indenture in accordance with its terms and the redemption in full of the Preference Shares; (ii) the liquidation of the Collateral and the final distribution of the proceeds of such liquidation to the Holders of the Securities; or (iii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with subsection (b), (c), (d) or (e) of this Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement.

(b) Subject to Section 12(e) below, the Servicer may resign, upon 90 days' written notice to the Issuer (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer). If the Servicer resigns, the Issuer agrees to appoint a successor Servicer to assume such duties and obligations in accordance with Section 12(e).

(c) This Agreement shall be automatically terminated in the event that the Issuer determines in good faith that the Issuer or the pool of Collateral has become required to be registered under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, and the Issuer notifies the Servicer thereof.

(d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 12, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other, except as provided in Sections 2(c)(i), 8, 10 and 15 of this Agreement.

(e) No removal or resignation of the Servicer shall be effective unless:

(i) (A) the Issuer appoints a successor Servicer at the written direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares (excluding any Preference Shares held by the retiring Servicer, any of its Affiliates or any account over which the retiring Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority (or, with respect to Class I Preference Shares held by Investors Corp. at such time, Holding Preference Shares held by the retiring Servicer, any of its Affiliates or any account over which the retiring Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority) other than, with respect to the Class II Preference Shares, HFP; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of Class II Preference Shares owned by HFP, such vote shall not be excluded only if such vote is determined by a vote of the majority of the "independent directors" (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP and certified in writing to the Preference Shares Paying Agent by any of the "independent directors" of HFP) of HFP) (each such non-excluded Preference Share, a "Voting Preference Share"), (B) such successor Servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the retiring Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture and (C) such successor Servicer is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by either (x) a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Servicer, its Affiliates or any account over which the retiring Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority other than HFP; provided that, with respect to the voting authority of Notes owned by HFP, such vote shall not be excluded only if such vote is determined by a vote of the majority of the "independent directors" (determined in accordance with the governing documents of HFP and certified in writing to the Trustee by any of the "independent directors" of HFP) of HFP) (each such non-excluded Note, a "Voting Note") or (y) a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Voting Notes (voting as a single class); or

(ii) if a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares has nominated two or more successor Servicers that have been objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (i)(C) or has otherwise failed to appoint a successor Servicer that has not been objected to pursuant to the preceding clause (i)(C) within 60 days of the date of notice of such removal or resignation of the Servicer, then (A) any Holder of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) or the Trustee may petition a court of competent authority to appoint a successor Servicer, (B) such court appoints a successor Servicer and (C) such successor Servicer has agreed in writing to assume all of the retiring Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture.

In addition, any successor Servicer must be an established institution which (i) has demonstrated an ability to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Servicer hereunder, (ii) is legally qualified and has the capacity to act as Servicer hereunder, as successor to the Servicer under this Agreement in the assumption of all of the responsibilities, duties and obligations of the Servicer hereunder and under the applicable terms of the Indenture, (iii) shall not cause the Issuer or the pool of Collateral to become required to register under the provisions of the Investment Company Act, (iv) shall perform its duties as Servicer under this Agreement and the Indenture without causing the Issuer, the Co Issuer or any Holder of Preference Shares to become subject to tax in any jurisdiction where such successor Servicer is established as doing business and (v) each Rating Agency has confirmed that the appointment of such successor Servicer shall not cause its then current rating of any Class of Notes to be reduced or withdrawn. No compensation payable to a successor Servicer from payments on the Collateral shall be greater than that paid to the retiring Servicer without the prior written consent of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes, a Majority of the Noteholders and a Majority of the Preference Shares. The Issuer, the Trustee and the successor Servicer shall take such action (or cause the retiring Servicer to take such action) consistent with this Agreement and the terms of the Indenture applicable to the Servicer, as shall be necessary to effectuate any such succession.

(f) In the event of removal of the Servicer pursuant to this Agreement, the Issuer shall have all of the rights and remedies available with respect thereto at law or equity, and, without limiting the foregoing, the Issuer or, to the extent so provided in the Indenture, the Trustee may by notice in writing to the Servicer as provided under this Agreement terminate all the rights and obligations of the Servicer under this Agreement (except those that survive termination pursuant to Section 12(d) above). Upon expiration of the applicable notice period with respect to termination specified in this Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement, as applicable, all authority and power of the Servicer under this Agreement, whether with respect to the Collateral or otherwise, shall automatically and without further action by any person or entity pass to and be vested in the successor Servicer upon the appointment thereof.

13. Delegation; Assignments.

This Agreement, and any obligations or duties of the Servicer hereunder, shall not be delegated by the Servicer, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the Issuer, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) and a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares and, notwithstanding any such consent, no delegation of obligations or duties by the Servicer (including, without limitation, to an entity described above) shall relieve the Servicer from any liability hereunder.

Subject to Section 12, any assignment of this Agreement to any Person, in whole or in part, by the Servicer shall be deemed null and void unless (i) such assignment is consented to in writing by the Issuer, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) and a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares and (ii) the Rating Agency Confirmation is satisfied with respect to any such assignment. Any assignment consented to by the Issuer, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) and a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares shall bind the assignee hereunder in the same manner as the Servicer is bound. In addition, the assignee shall execute and deliver to the Issuer and the Trustee a counterpart of this Agreement naming such assignee as Servicer. Upon the execution and delivery of such a counterpart by the assignee and consent thereto by the Issuer, a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) and a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares, the Servicer shall be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement, except with respect to its obligations arising under Section 10 of this Agreement prior to such assignment and except with respect to its obligations under Sections 2(c)(i) and 15 hereof. This Agreement shall not be assigned by the Issuer without the prior written consent of the Servicer and the Trustee, except in the case of assignment by the Issuer to (i) an entity which is a successor to the Issuer permitted under the Indenture, in which case such successor organization shall be bound hereunder and by the terms of said assignment in the same manner as the Issuer is bound thereunder or (ii) the Trustee as contemplated by the Indenture. In the event of any assignment by the Issuer, the Issuer shall cause its successor to execute and deliver to the Servicer such documents as the Servicer shall consider reasonably necessary to effect fully such assignment. The Servicer hereby consents to the matters set forth in Article 15 of the Indenture.

14. Termination by the Issuer for Cause.

Subject to Section 12(e) above, this Agreement shall be terminated and the Servicer shall be removed by the Issuer for cause upon 10 days' prior written notice to the Servicer and upon written notice to the Holders of the Securities as set forth below, but only if directed to do so by (1) the Trustee, acting at the direction of a Super Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes (excluding any Notes that are not Voting Notes) or (2) the Holders of a Majority of the Voting Preference Shares. For purposes of determining "cause" with respect to any such termination of this Agreement, such term shall mean any one of the following events:

(a) the Servicer willfully breaches in any respect, or takes any action that it knows violates in any respect, any provision of this Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it;

(b) the Servicer breaches in any material respect any provision of this Agreement or any terms of the Indenture or the Collateral Administration Agreement applicable to it, or any representation, warranty, certification or statement given in writing by the Servicer shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect when made or given, and the Servicer fails to cure such breach or take such action so that the facts (after giving effect to such action) conform in all material respects to such representation, warranty, certificate or statement, in each case within 30 days of becoming aware of, or receiving notice from, the Trustee of, such breach or materially incorrect representation, warranty, certificate or statement;

(c) the Servicer is wound up or dissolved (other than a dissolution in which the remaining members elect to continue the business of the Servicer in accordance with its Governing Instruments) or there is appointed over it or a substantial portion of its assets a receiver, administrator, administrative receiver, trustee or similar officer, or the Servicer (i) ceases to be able to, or admits in writing its inability to, pay its debts as they become due and payable, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of or enters into any composition or arrangement with, its creditors generally; (ii) applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, assignee, custodian, liquidator or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Servicer or of any substantial part of its properties or assets, or authorizes such an application or consent, or proceedings seeking such appointment are commenced without such authorization, consent or application against the Servicer and continue undismissed for 60 days; (iii) authorizes or files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, or applies for or consents (by admission of material allegations of a petition or otherwise) to the application of any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, insolvency or dissolution, or authorizes such application or consent, or proceedings to such end are instituted against the Servicer without such authorization, application or consent and are approved as properly instituted and remain undismissed for 60 days or result in adjudication of bankruptcy or insolvency; or (iv) permits or suffers all or any substantial part of its properties or assets to be sequestered or attached by court order and the order remains undismissed for 60 days;

(d) the occurrence of any Event of Default under the Indenture that results from any breach by the Servicer of its duties under the Indenture or this Agreement, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period; or

(e) (x) the occurrence of an act by the Servicer related to its activities in any servicing, securities, financial advisory or other investment business that constitutes fraud, (y) the Servicer being indicted, or any of its principals being convicted, of a felony criminal offense related to its activities in any servicing, securities, financial advisory or other investment business or (z) the Servicer being indicted for, adjudged liable in a civil suit for, or convicted of a violation of the Securities Act or any other United States Federal securities law or any rules or regulations thereunder.

If any of the events specified in this Section 14 shall occur, the Servicer shall give prompt written notice thereof to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders of all outstanding Notes and Preference Shares upon the Servicer's becoming aware of the occurrence of such event.

15. Action Upon Termination.

(a) From and after the effective date of termination of this Agreement, the Servicer shall not be entitled to compensation for further services hereunder, but shall be paid all compensation accrued to the date of termination, as provided in Section 8 hereof, and shall be entitled to receive any amounts owing under Section 10 hereof. Upon the effective date of termination of this Agreement, the Servicer shall as soon as practicable:

(i) deliver to the Issuer all property and documents of the Trustee or the Issuer or otherwise relating to the Collateral then in the custody of the Servicer; and

(ii) deliver to the Trustee an accounting with respect to the books and records delivered to the Trustee or the successor Servicer appointed pursuant to Section 12(e) hereof.

Notwithstanding such termination, the Servicer shall remain liable to the extent set forth herein (but subject to Section 10 hereof) for its acts or omissions hereunder arising prior to termination and for any expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, demands, charges and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in respect of or arising out of a breach of the representations and warranties made by the Servicer in Section 16(b) hereof or from any failure of the Servicer to comply with the provisions of this Section 15.

(b) The Servicer agrees that, notwithstanding any termination of this Agreement, it shall reasonably cooperate in any Proceeding arising in connection with this Agreement, the Indenture or any of the Collateral (excluding any such Proceeding in which claims are asserted against the Servicer or any Affiliate of the Servicer) upon receipt of appropriate indemnification and expense reimbursement.

16. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants to the Servicer as follows:

(i) The Issuer has been duly registered and is validly existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands, has full power and authority to own its assets and the securities proposed to be owned by it and included in the Collateral and to transact the business in which it is presently engaged and is duly qualified under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires, or the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Indenture or the Securities would require, such qualification, except for failures to be so qualified, authorized or licensed that would not in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the Issuer.

(ii) The Issuer has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement, the Indenture and the Securities and all obligations required hereunder and thereunder and has taken all necessary action to authorize this Agreement, the Indenture and the Securities on the terms and conditions hereof and thereof and the execution by the Issuer, delivery and performance of this Agreement, the Indenture and the Securities and the performance of all obligations imposed upon it hereunder and thereunder. No consent of any other person including, without limitation, shareholders and creditors of the Issuer, and no license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority, other than those that may be required under state securities or "blue sky" laws and those that have been or shall be obtained in connection with the Indenture and the Securities is required by the Issuer in connection with this Agreement, the Indenture and the Securities or the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of this Agreement, the Indenture and the Securities or the obligations imposed upon it hereunder or thereunder. This Agreement constitutes, and each instrument or document required hereunder, when executed and delivered hereunder, shall constitute, the legally valid and binding obligation of the Issuer enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with its terms, subject to (a) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting generally the enforcement of creditors' rights and (b) general equitable principles.

This Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, inducements and conditions, express or implied, oral or written, of any nature whatsoever with respect to the subject matter hereof. The express terms hereof control and supersede any course of performance and/or usage of the trade inconsistent with any of the terms hereof. This Agreement may not be modified or amended other than by an agreement in writing executed by the parties hereto and in accordance with the terms of Section 15.1(h) of the Indenture.

20. Conflict with the Indenture.

Subject to the last two sentences of Section 2(a)(i), in the event that this Agreement requires any action to be taken with respect to any matter and the Indenture requires that a different action be taken with respect to such matter, and such actions are mutually exclusive, the provisions of the Indenture in respect thereof shall control.

The Servicer agrees that the payment of all amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to this Agreement and the Indenture shall be due and payable only in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Indenture and only to the extent funds are available for such payments in accordance with such priorities.

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO ITS PROVISIONS THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

23. Indulgences Not Waivers.

Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of any party hereto to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise of the same or of any other right, remedy, power or privilege, nor shall any waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any occurrence be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege with respect to any other occurrence. No waiver shall be effective unless it is in writing and is signed by the party asserted to have granted such waiver.

24. Costs and Expenses.

Except as may otherwise be agreed in writing, the costs and expenses (including the fees and disbursements of counsel and accountants) incurred by each party in connection with the negotiation and preparation of and the execution of this Agreement, and all matters incident thereto, shall be borne by such party.

26. Execution in Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

27. Provisions Separable.

In case any provision in this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable as written, such provision shall be construed in the manner most closely resembling the apparent intent of the parties with respect to such provision so as to be valid, legal and enforceable; provided, however, that if there is no basis for such a construction, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability and, unless the ineffectiveness of such provision destroys the basis of the bargain for one of the parties to this Agreement, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof or thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

28. Number and Gender.

Words used herein, regardless of the number and gender specifically used, shall be deemed and construed to include any other number, singular or plural, and any other gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, as the context requires.

29. Written Disclosure Statement.

The Issuer and the Trustee acknowledge receipt of Part II of the Servicer's Form ADV filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, as required by Rule 204-3 under the Advisers Act, more than 48 hours prior to the date of execution of this Agreement.

30. Miscellaneous.

(a) In the event that any vote is solicited with respect to any Collateral Obligation, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, shall vote or refrain from voting any such security in any manner permitted by the Indenture that the Servicer has determined in its reasonable judgment shall be in the best interests of the Holders of the Securities. In addition, with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, may instruct the trustee for such Defaulted Collateral Obligation to enforce the Issuer's rights under the Underlying Instruments governing such Defaulted Collateral Obligation and any applicable law, rule or regulation in any manner permitted under the Indenture that the Servicer has determined in its reasonable judgment shall be in the best interests of the Holders of the Securities. In the event any Offer is made with respect to any Collateral Obligation, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, may take such action as is permitted by the Indenture and that the Servicer has determined in its reasonable judgment shall be in the best interests of the Holders of the Securities.

(b) In connection with taking or omitting any action under the Indenture or this Agreement, the Servicer may consult with counsel and may rely in good faith on the advice of such counsel or any opinion of counsel.

Any corporation, partnership or limited liability company into which the Servicer may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Servicer shall be a party, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company succeeding to all or substantially all of the servicing and collateral management business of the Servicer, shall be the successor to the Servicer without any further action by the Servicer, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Noteholders or any other person or entity.

31. Limitation of Liabilities.

The Issuer's obligations hereunder are solely the corporate obligations of the Issuer and the Servicer shall not have any recourse to any of the directors, officers, shareholders, members or incorporators of the Issuer with respect to any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby, except for any claims, losses, damages, liabilities, indemnities or other obligations caused by the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such directors, officers, shareholders, members or incorporators of the Issuer. The obligations of the Issuer hereunder shall be limited to the net proceeds of the Collateral, if any, and following realization of the Collateral and its application in accordance with the Indenture, any outstanding obligations of the Issuer hereunder shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. The provisions of this section shall survive termination of this Agreement.

32. Consent to Posting of Documents on Repository.

The Servicer hereby consents to (i) the posting of the final Offering Memorandum, the Indenture and any Hedge Agreements (collectively, the "Documents") and the periodic reports to be delivered pursuant to the Documents and any amendments or other modifications thereto on the Repository (as such term is defined in the Indenture) for use in the manner provided in the Repository; and (ii) the display of its name on the Repository in connection therewith.

THIS AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO SERVICING AGREEMENT (the “Amendment”), dated as of October 2, 2007, among Red River CLO Ltd. (the “Issuer”), Red River CLO Corp. (the “Co-Issuer”) and Highland Capital Management, L.P. (the “Servicer”), hereby amends the Servicing Agreement, dated as August 3, 2006, among the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Servicer.

W I T N E S S E T H

WHEREAS, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Servicer entered into the Servicing Agreement;

WHEREAS, the Issuers and the Servicer desire to change certain provisions with respect to the Servicer’s ability to waive certain Servicing Fees;

WHEREAS, Section 19 of the Servicing Agreement provides that the Servicing Agreement may be amended by the Issuer, Co-Issuer and the Servicer in accordance with the terms of Section 15.1(h) of the Indenture;

WHEREAS, Section 15.1(h) of the Indenture provides that the Servicing Agreement may be amended by the Issuer, Co-Issuer and the Servicer with the consent of Majority of each Class of Notes or a Majority of the Preference Shares have not objected in writing to such amendment;

WHEREAS, the necessary consents pursuant to the preceding paragraph have been obtained;

WHEREAS, Section 15.1(h) of the Indenture provides that the Ratings Agencies shall confirm that this Amendment to the Indenture will not cause the rating of any Class of Notes to be reduced or withdrawn; and

WHEREAS, the Ratings Agencies have confirmed that this Amendment to the Indenture will not cause the rating of any Class of Notes to be reduced or withdrawn.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto agree as follows:

SECTION 1. Defined Terms.

For purposes of this Amendment, all capitalized terms which are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings assigned to such terms in the Indenture.

SECTION 2. Amendment.

Section 8(a) of the Servicing Agreement is hereby amended and replaced in its entirety with the following:

8. Compensation.

(a) The Issuer shall pay to the Servicer, for services rendered and performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the Servicing Fee, which shall be payable in such amounts and at such times as set forth in the Indenture. The provisions of the Indenture which relate to the amount and payment of the Servicing Fee shall not be amended without the written consent of the Servicer. If on any Payment Date there are insufficient funds to pay the Servicing Fee (and/or any other amounts due and payable to the Servicer) in full, the amount not so paid shall be deferred and shall be payable with accrued interest on such later Payment Date on which funds are available therefor as provided in the Indenture.

The Servicer hereby agrees to waive the Class II Preference Share Portion of the Servicing Fees deposited by the Trustee into the Class II Preference Share Special Payment Account pursuant to the Indenture, which would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as Servicing Fees, on each Payment Date prior to February 3, 2008. With respect to any Payment Date after February 3, 2008, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion, at any time waive a portion (or all) of its Servicing Fees then due and payable, in which event an amount equal to such waived portion will be paid by the Issuer as Class II Preference Share Special Payments pursuant to the Indenture; provided that with respect to the Payment Date in May 2008 such Class II Preference Share Special Payments will, at a minimum, include amounts that would otherwise constitute a portion (representing the Class II Preference Share Percentage) of the Servicing Fees that have accrued from the Payment Date in February 2008 through February 3, 2008. For purposes of any calculation under this Agreement and the Indenture, the Servicer shall be deemed to have received the Servicing Fee in an amount equal to the sum of the Servicing Fee actually paid to the Servicer and the amount distributed to the Holders of the Class II Preference Shares as Class II Preference Share Special Payments.

In addition, notwithstanding anything set out above, the Servicer may, in its sole discretion waive all or any portion of the Subordinate Servicing Fee or Supplemental Servicing Fee, any funds representing the waived Subordinate Servicing Fees or Supplemental Servicing Fees to be retained in the Collection Account for distribution as either Interest Proceeds or Principal Proceeds (as determined by the Servicer) pursuant to the Priority of Payments.

SECTION 3. Effect of Amendment.

Upon execution of this Amendment, the Indenture shall be, and be deemed to be, modified and amended in accordance herewith and the respective rights, limitations, obligations, duties, liabilities and immunities of the Issuer, Co-Issuer and the Servicer shall hereafter be determined, exercised and enforced subject in all respects to such modifications and amendments, and all the terms and conditions of this Amendment shall be deemed to be part of the terms and conditions of the Indenture for any and all purposes. Except as modified and expressly amended by this Amendment, the Indenture is in all respects ratified and confirmed, and all the terms, provisions and conditions thereof shall be and remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 4. Binding Effect.

The provisions of this Amendment shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Servicer and each of their respective successors and assigns.

THIS AMENDMENT TO THE INDENTURE SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK APPLICABLE TO AGREEMENTS MADE AND TO BE PERFORMED THEREIN WITHOUT REFERENCE TO ITS CONFLICT OF LAW PROVISIONS, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

SECTION 6. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the provisions or terms of this Amendment shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then such provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining provisions or terms of this Amendment and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions or terms of this Amendment.

SECTION 7. Section Headings.

are Outstanding. Any shortfall in the payment of Periodic Interest to the Class B-1L Notes on any Payment Date will be payable, together with interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, on one or more subsequent Payment Dates (to the extent that funds are available therefor and subject to the priority of distribution provisions described herein). Class X Payment. The Class X Notes will provide for a periodic payment (the "Class X Interest Payment") (to the extent of funds available therefor as described herein) for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period at the rate of 0.36% per annum above LIBOR (the "Class X Periodic Interest Rate") on each Payment Date, commencing on the November 1, 2006 Payment Date through and including the August 1, 2013 Payment Date. Such amount may be reduced in connection with a redemption of the Class X Notes, as set forth in the Indenture. Any shortfall in the payment of the Class X Payment to the Class X Notes on any Payment Date will be payable, together with interest thereon at the Class X Periodic Interest Rate, on one or more subsequent Payment Dates (to the extent funds are available therefor and subject to the priority of distribution provisions described herein). Any such interest will be calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days and the actual number of days elapsed. The Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class X Notes will be reduced on each Payment Date by the Class X Principal Payment for such Payment Date beginning on November 1, 2007, in accordance with the amortization schedule provided in the Indenture. The Class X Principal Payment will be made from available Adjusted Collateral Interest Collections. The Holders of the Class X Notes are entitled to receive the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class X Notes on the Final Maturity Date, whether such Final Maturity Date occurs in connection with a redemption of the Class X Notes as described herein or otherwise.

Application of Funds

On each Payment Date and on the Final Maturity Date, Collateral Interest Collections and Collateral Principal Collections, to the extent of Available Funds in the Collection Account, will be applied by the Trustee in the manner and order of priority set forth herein under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions."

Overcollateralization Tests

The "Overcollateralization Tests" are applicable until the Notes are retired and all amounts payable in respect thereof are paid, and are satisfied if the Class A Overcollateralization Ratio is at least equal to the Class A Overcollateralization Percentage (the "Class A Overcollateralization Test") and the Class B-1L Overcollateralization Ratio is at least equal to the Class B-1L Overcollateralization Percentage (the "Class B-1L Overcollateralization Test").

Applicability of Overcollateralization Tests

At any time that any of the Notes are Outstanding, if on any Calculation Date related to a Payment Date any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, amounts that are junior in right of payment to such Overcollateralization Test, as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied to the redemption of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes (or, in the case of the Class B-1L Notes, first to pay accrued and unpaid interest from prior Payment Dates, then to pay principal) until each such Class is paid in full, in the order and according to the priorities described herein, to the extent necessary to satisfy such Overcollateralization Test, in accordance with the provisions described herein. In addition, generally, satisfaction or, in certain cases, maintenance of the Overcollateralization Tests is a condition to the purchase or sale of Portfolio Collateral during certain specified periods.

Interest Coverage Test

The "Interest Coverage Test" is applicable on each Payment Date after the second Payment Date and on certain measurement dates after the second Payment Date, and is satisfied if the Interest Coverage Ratio (as described under "Description of the Notes—Interest Coverage Test") is at least 1.5%.

Applicability of Interest Coverage Test

At any time after the second Payment Date, if on any Calculation Date related to a Payment Date the Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, amounts that are junior in right of payment to the Interest Coverage Test as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied to the redemption of the Class A Notes until each such Class is paid in full, in the order and according to the priorities described herein, to the extent necessary to satisfy the Interest Coverage Test in accordance with the provisions described herein. In addition, satisfaction of the Interest Coverage Test on the prior Payment Date is a condition to certain purchases and sales of Portfolio Collateral during certain specified periods as described herein.

Additional Collateral
Deposit Requirement

As described under "Description of the Notes—Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement," even if the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test are satisfied, on each Payment Date after the second Payment Date, Collateral Interest Collections that would otherwise be used for payments that are junior in right of payment to the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied (i) during the Revolving Period, to the payment of principal of the Class B-1L Notes and to the purchase of Additional Portfolio Collateral, as described herein, and (ii) during the Amortization Period, to the payment of principal of the Class B-1L Note and to the payment of principal of each Class of Notes, in each case, in the order and according to the priorities described herein, in an amount equal to the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement as described herein.

Rating Confirmation Failure

The Issuer will request that each Rating Agency confirm after the Effective Date that it has not reduced or withdrawn (and not restored) the ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes (a "Rating Confirmation"). If the Issuer is unable to obtain a Rating Confirmation by the 35th day after the Effective Date (a "Rating Confirmation Failure"), on the next Payment Date and on each subsequent Payment Date during the Revolving Period, amounts that are junior in right of payment to such Rating Confirmation Failure, as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied to the redemption of the Notes (or, in the case of the Class B-1L Notes, first to pay accrued and unpaid interest from prior Payment Dates, then to pay principal) until each such Class is paid in full, in the order and according to the priorities described herein (a "Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption"), to the extent necessary to receive a Rating Confirmation, in accordance with the provisions described herein.

O/C Redemption

If on the Calculation Date related to any Payment Date any Overcollateralization Test or, after the second Payment Date, the Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, amounts that are junior in right of payment to such test as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied by the Issuer to the redemption of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes (or, in the case of the Class B-1L Notes, first to pay accrued and unpaid interest from prior Payment Dates, then to pay principal) until each such Class is paid in full, in each case on a pro rata basis among the Noteholders of the applicable Class and in the order and according to the priorities described herein (an "O/C Redemption") to the extent necessary to satisfy the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test, as applicable. See "Description of the Notes—O/C Redemption." A redemption of the Notes through a Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption or an O/C Redemption is sometimes referred to herein as a "Mandatory Redemption." The Class X Notes are not subject to O/C Redemption, but are subject to Rating Confirmation Failure.

Initial Deposit Redemption

To the extent that the full amount of the Deposit is not used to purchase or commit to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Amount (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date) at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount in accordance with the guidelines described herein on or before the Effective Date, an amount (not in excess of the unused amount of the Deposit) equal to the difference between the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount and the par amount of Portfolio Collateral actually acquired (or committed to be acquired) (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date) will be applied by the Issuer on the November 2006 Payment Date (the "Initial Deposit Redemption Date") to principal payments of the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes, on a pro rata basis (an "Initial Deposit Redemption"), except, if the amount of the Deposit not so used to purchase or commit to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral does not exceed U.S.$2,000,000 in the aggregate, such amount will be transferred to the Collection Account on the Effective Date and applied as Collateral Principal Collections. See "Description of the Notes—Initial Deposit Redemption."

Special Redemption

The Notes (other than the Class X Notes) are redeemable in part at the option of the Issuer, as directed by and at the discretion of the Servicer, on one or more Payment Dates during the Revolving Period, to the extent the Issuer is unable to reinvest more than U.S.$2,000,000 of principal collections in Additional Portfolio Collateral selected by the Servicer and satisfying the criteria described herein for at least ninety days after receipt, in an amount of at least U.S.$2,000,000. See "Description of the Notes—Special Redemption."

Optional Redemption

The Notes are redeemable in whole or in part (an "Optional Redemption") at the option of the Issuer at the direction of (i) at least 75% of the Preferred Shares eligible to vote (including any Class II Preferred Shares held by Highland Financial Partners L.P. or an affiliate or subsidiary thereof ("HFP") and any other Preferred Shares held by the Servicer, entities affiliated with the Servicer or clients of the Servicer (collectively, the "Servicer Entities") up to a maximum amount equal to the amount of Class II Preferred Shares acquired by HFP on the Closing Date ("Original HFP Share Amount"), but excluding any other Preferred Shares beneficially owned or controlled by the Servicer Entities which shall be deemed ineligible to vote) in the case of an Optional Redemption in whole (a "Total Optional Redemption"), and (ii) at least 10% of the Preferred Shares eligible to vote (any Class II Preferred Shares held by HFP or any other Preferred Shares beneficially owned or controlled by any other Servicer Entities shall be deemed ineligible to vote) in the case of an Optional Redemption in part (a "Partial Optional Redemption"), in the case of either (i) or (ii) above on any Payment Date on or after the Payment Date occurring on August 1, 2010 (the "Optional Redemption Date," which date shall then be considered the Final Maturity Date in the case of a Total Optional Redemption at a price equal to the Optional Redemption Price. See "Description of the Notes—Optional Redemption."

Tax Event Redemption

Notes—Tax Event Redemption."

Amendment Buy-Out

In the case of any supplemental indenture that requires the consent of one or more Holders of the Notes or Preferred Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from all Non-Consenting Holders all Notes and Preferred Shares held by such Holders whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture, with certain exceptions as set forth in "Legal Structure—The Indenture; Amendment Buy-Out" (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all Notes and Preferred Shares of Non-Consenting Holders (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of a Note or Preferred Share, each such Holder agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its Notes or Preferred Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser. See "Legal Structure—The Indenture; Amendment Buy-Out."

All purchases made pursuant to the Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Notes set forth in "Delivery of the Notes; Transfer Restrictions; Settlement" herein and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Security for the Notes

The Notes are non-recourse obligations of the Co-Issuers, with recourse therefor limited solely to any funds and other assets available in the Trust Estate, including the Portfolio Collateral and the proceeds therefrom. All payments on the Notes are subject to the priority of distribution provisions described herein.

The Notes will be secured by the Trust Estate, consisting of substantially all property of the Issuer, including the Portfolio Collateral, the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Closing Expense Account, the Reserve Account, each Default Swap Collateral Account and the Default Swap Issuer Account (collectively, the "Trust Estate"). The security interest granted under the Indenture in each Default Swap Collateral Account is subject to and subordinate to the security interest and rights of the relevant Default Swap Counterparty in and to such Default Swap Collateral Account and the security interest granted under the Indenture in the Default Swap Issuer Account is subject to the rights of the relevant Default Swap Counterparty to the extent described in the related Default Swap. References to the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Closing Expense Account, the Reserve Account, the Default Swap Collateral Account and the Default Swap Issuer Account, when used with respect to the contents of the Trust Estate, shall include all proceeds of such Accounts and all Eligible Investments purchased with funds on deposit in such Accounts.

Portfolio Collateral
and Deposit

The Portfolio Collateral will consist of United States dollar denominated commercial loans and collateralized loan obligations, including synthetic securities, that are rated primarily below investment grade issued by corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies or trusts. Interests in commercial loans included in the Portfolio Collateral, which may be in the form of participations and assignments, are referred to herein as "Portfolio Loans" and the collateralized loan obligations included in the Portfolio

Collateral are referred to herein as "CLO Securities." See "Security for the Notes—Portfolio Collateral—General."

The Issuer will acquire all of the Initial Portfolio Collateral from various sources, including Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., in each case, at negotiated prices acceptable to the Issuer. Between the Closing Date and the Effective Date, purchases of additional Original Portfolio Collateral from the Deposit together with the Initial Portfolio Collateral will be required to meet the criteria described herein. See "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral."

During the Revolving Period, certain collections and disposition proceeds in respect of Portfolio Collateral may be applied to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral, respectively, subject to satisfaction of the collateral criteria described herein and the satisfaction or, in certain cases, maintenance of the Overcollateralization Tests and, after the second Payment Date, the Interest Coverage Test. In addition, after the Revolving Period, certain limited collections and certain disposition proceeds in respect of Portfolio Collateral may be applied to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral and Substitute Portfolio Collateral subject to satisfaction of the Overcollateralization Tests, the Interest Coverage Test and the collateral criteria contained herein. The Indenture also authorizes the Servicer to direct the Trustee to sell items of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, Equity Portfolio Collateral, Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral and other items of Portfolio Collateral, subject to the limitations set forth therein and described herein under "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral," "The Servicer" and "The Servicing Agreement." During any Due Period when certain collections are to be used to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral, the Servicer generally will have the authority to commence the purchase of such Additional Portfolio Collateral if collections have been or are scheduled to be received during such Due Period in an amount at least equal to the sum of the Periodic Reserve Amount.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, no item of Portfolio Collateral may be disposed of, and no item of Portfolio Collateral may be acquired, for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. See "Security for the Notes—Portfolio Collateral—General."

Extension of the Revolving Period
and the Final Maturity Date

The Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date up to a maximum of four times (so that the Notes can only be extended to 2037) to extend the Revolving Period to the applicable Extended Revolving Period End Date if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously affected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date, (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied, (iii) the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Revolving Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date and (iv) no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. For purposes of the foregoing, "Extension Effective Date" means if an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extension Effective Date (or, in the case of the first Extension Effective Date, the Payment Date in August 2011) and "Extended Revolving Period End Date" means, if an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Revolving Period End Date (or, in the case of the first Extension, the Payment Date in August 2015). If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Final Maturity Date of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes) shall be extended to the related Extended Final Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of the Notes or the Preferred Shares or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or any other transaction document (the "Maturity Extension"). For purposes of the foregoing, "Extended Final Maturity Date" means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Final Maturity Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Final Maturity Date, the Payment Date in August 2025) and "Extended Weighted Average Life Date" means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Weighted Average Life Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Weighted Average Life Date, May 1, 2019); provided that if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied because the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes have failed to deliver an Extension Sale Notice or have failed to provide their written consent to the related Maturity Extension, then the Servicer may exceed seven Business Days after the then proposed Extension Effective Date) if the Servicer shall cause the Extension Conditions set forth in clause (v) of such definition to be satisfied as of such later date. As a condition to a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes (other than the Class X Notes) will have the right to offer to sell their Notes to one or more Extension Qualifying Purchasers for purchase on the applicable Extension Effective Date. If all Extension Conditions are satisfied and a Maturity Extension is effected, each Holder of such Notes, other than Extension Sale Securities will be entitled to receive the applicable Extension Bonus Payment, in each case to the extent of available funds and as provided in the priority of payments. Holders of Preferred Shares will not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment. The obligation to make any Extension Bonus Payment shall not be rated by the Rating Agencies. See "Special Considerations—A Maturity Extension," "Maturity and Prepayment Considerations," "Description of the Notes—Extension of the Revolving Period and the Final Maturity Date". The Class X Notes are not subject to Maturity Extension.

Additional Issuance

At any time during the Revolving Period, the Issuer, as applicable, may issue and sell Additional Preferred Shares and use the proceeds therefrom to purchase additional eligible Portfolio Collateral and pay the expenses of such additional issuance (an "Additional Issuance"); provided that certain conditions precedent specified in the Indenture (as described herein) are satisfied. See "Description of the Notes—Additional Issuance." Any amendment to the Indenture, Issuer's Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association or any other related documents required to provide for or facilitate such Additional Issuance will not require the consent of the Holders of Securities.

Accounts

All Collections (together with any income thereon) will be remitted to the Trustee and deposited into the Collection Account and will be available, to the extent described herein, for application in the manner and for the purposes as described herein. Funds held in the Collection Account that are not used to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral will be applied as promptly as practicable to purchase Eligible Investments. All cash pledged to the Trustee on the Closing Date which is to be subsequently used to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date will be deposited into the Initial Deposit Account. Funds held in the Initial Deposit Account pending application to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral will be held in Eligible Investments at the direction of the Issuer. A Closing Expense Account will be established by the Trustee for the payment of fees, commissions and expenses associated with the issuance of the Notes. A Reserve Account will be established by the Trustee to fund a portion of the payments to be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments, or to otherwise fund any payments of interest or principal on the Notes at the direction of the Servicer. An Expense Reimbursement Account of U.S.$50,000 will be established by the Trustee for the payment of Issuer administrative expenses which become due and must be paid between Payment Dates. Any amounts withdrawn from the Expense Reimbursement Account will be reimbursed on each Payment Date in accordance with the priority of distribution provisions described herein. The Trustee will establish a Loan Funding Account into which certain amounts with respect to any Delayed Drawdown Loans and Revolving Bank Loans will be deposited. The Trustee will establish the Default Swap Collateral Account to which Default Swap Collateral will be credited for the benefit of the related Default Swap Counterparties. In addition, if the terms of any Default Swap require the related Default Swap Counterparty to secure its obligations with respect to such Default Swap, the Trustee will cause to be established a Default Swap Issuer Account in respect of such Default Swap. Funds held in such Accounts will be held in Eligible Investments. See "Security for the Notes—Accounts."

The Servicer

Highland Capital Management, L.P. (the "Servicer" or "Highland"), will service the Portfolio Collateral and perform certain other reporting functions pursuant to a servicing agreement with the Issuer (the "Servicing Agreement"). See "The Servicer" and "The Servicing Agreement."

It is expected that Highland Financial Partners, L.P. or an affiliate or subsidiary thereof ("HFP") will purchase approximately 45,000,000 Class II Preferred Shares of the Issuer on the Closing Date, representing approximately 58% of the total Preferred Shares outstanding (the "Original HFP Share Amount"). It is also expected that Highland will purchase approximately 10,000,000 of the preferred shares of Investor Corp. and approximately U.S.$2,000,000 Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes on the Closing Date. In addition, the Servicer Entities may also acquire Notes or Preferred Shares upon the occurrence of an Amendment Buy-Out or a Maturity Extension as described herein. See "Special Considerations—Conflicts of Interest," "Special Considerations—Amendment Buy-Out Risk," "Special Considerations—Amendment Buy-Out Risk," "Legal Structure—The Indenture; Amendment Buy-Out," "Description of the Notes—Extension of the Revolving Period and the Final Maturity Date" and "The Servicing Agreement."

The Trustee

JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as Trustee under the Indenture. The Trustee maintains its principal corporate trust offices at 600 Travis Street, 50th Floor, Houston, Texas 77002, at which the Notes may be surrendered for payment or for transfer or exchange.

Independent Accountants

A firm of Independent Accountants as selected by the Servicer, or any successor accounting firm selected pursuant to the Indenture, will periodically perform certain procedures with respect to the Portfolio Collateral and the compliance with the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test as required by the Indenture.

The Administrator

Maples Finance Limited (the "Administrator") will act as administrator for the Issuer in the Cayman Islands and will perform certain administrative services on behalf of the Issuer. The Administrator maintains its offices at

P.O. Box 1093 GT, Queensgate House, South Church Street, George Town, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands.

Option to Acquire Credit
Enhancement

The Indenture will provide that Holders of any Class of Notes may elect to acquire bond insurance, a surety bond or similar credit enhancement supporting the payment of principal and/or interest on such Class of Notes, on terms and conditions acceptable to such Holders. Any Class of Notes subject to such enhancement will be designated as Insured Notes of such Class. Premiums for any such enhancement will be payable from amounts otherwise payable to such Class of Insured Notes or in such other manner chosen by such Holder. Any Insured Notes of a Class for substantially all other purposes will be treated as Notes of such Class, except that the issuer of the bond insurance policy, surety bond or other such credit enhancement will generally be deemed to be the Holder of the Notes of such Class enhanced by such entity and will in such capacity be entitled to exercise the rights otherwise exercisable by Holders of such Notes.

Certain Federal Income
Tax Consequences

Federal Income Tax Consequences to U.S. Holders of Notes. The Notes should be treated as debt of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes. Under rules applicable to original issue discount, a U.S. Holder of a Class A-3L Note, a Class A-4L Note or a Class B-1L Note may need to include all stated interest as original issue discount in gross income as it accrues according to a constant yield method based on daily compounding, regardless of such Holder's method of accounting. See "Certain Tax Considerations."

Federal Income Tax Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders. A Non-U.S. Holder that has no connection with the United States other than holding its Note will not be subject to United States federal withholding tax or income tax on payments of principal and interest (including original issue discount) in respect of a Note. See "Certain Tax Considerations—Non-U.S. Holders."

Federal Income Tax Consequences to the Issuer. The Issuer generally expects not to be subject to United States federal withholding tax (provided certain tax representations are made) or income tax on interest income (including original issue discount) or gain from the Portfolio Collateral or the Eligible Investments. See "Certain Tax Considerations."

Certain ERISA Considerations

Fiduciaries and other persons investing "plan assets" of employee benefit or other plans subject to Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), or Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") (each, a "Plan"), should consider the fiduciary investment standards and prohibited transaction rules of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code before authorizing an investment of "plan assets" of any Plan in the Notes. Each person purchasing a Class X Note, a Class A-1LA Note, a Class A-1LB Note, a Class A-2L Note, a Class A-3L Note or a Class A-4L Note will be deemed to have made certain representations regarding the prohibited transaction rules of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code. The Class B-1L Notes may not be sold or transferred to any Plan, or to any person acting on behalf of or with "plan assets" of any Plan, including an insurance company general account, unless the purchaser or transferee is eligible for the exemptive relief available under PTCE 96-23, 95-60, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14. See "Certain ERISA Considerations."

Legal Investment

Institutions whose investment activities are subject to legal investment laws and regulations or to review by certain regulatory authorities may be subject to conditions on investment in the Notes. See "Certain Legal Investment Considerations."

Rating of Notes

It is a condition to the issuance of the Notes that the Class X Notes, the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class A-1LB Notes be rated "AAA" by Standard & Poor's Ratings Services ("S&P") and "Aaa" by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's"), that the Class A-2L Notes be rated at least "AA" by S&P and at least "Aa2" by Moody's, that the Class A-3L Notes be rated at least "A" by S&P and at least "A2" by Moody's, that the Class A-4L Notes be rated at least "A-" by S&P and at least "A3" by Moody's and that the Class B-1L Notes be rated at least "BBB" by S&P and at least "Baa2" by Moody's. Each of S&P and Moody's is sometimes referred to herein as a "Rating Agency." Each of the ratings of the Notes described herein assume that no Maturity Extension occurs after the Closing Date.

The ratings of the Notes by S&P address solely the likelihood of timely payment of the Periodic Interest Amount on and the ultimate payment of the Aggregate Principal Amount of each Class of Senior Class A Notes, the timely payment of the Class X Payment and the ultimate payment of the Cumulative Interest Amount and the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes. The ratings of the Notes by Moody's address the ultimate cash receipt of all required payments as provided by the governing documents, and are based on the expected loss to the Noteholders of each Class relative to the promise of receiving the present value of such payments. Any obligation to make an Extension Bonus Payment will not be rated by the Rating Agencies. A rating is not a recommendation to purchase, hold or sell securities, in as much as such rating does not comment as to market price or suitability for a particular investor and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating organization.

Security ratings are subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning Rating Agency. In the event that any rating initially assigned to the Notes is subsequently lowered for any reason, no person or entity is obligated to provide any additional support or credit enhancement with respect to the Notes, nor will any other remedies be available to Noteholders. The Issuer has not requested a rating on the Notes by any rating agencies other than S&P and Moody's, although data with respect to the Portfolio Collateral may have been provided to other rating agencies solely for informational purposes. There can be no assurance that, if a rating is assigned to the Notes by any other rating agency, such rating will be as high as that assigned by the applicable Rating Agencies.

Listing

Application may be made to the Irish Stock Exchange to admit the Notes to the Official List. There can be no assurance that such admission will be granted or maintained.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS

Prospective Holders of Notes should consider, among other things, the following factors in connection with the purchase of the Notes.

1. Non-recourse Obligations. The Notes will be non-recourse obligations of the Co-Issuers, payable solely from the Portfolio Collateral (including the Portfolio Collateral initially pledged to secure the Notes, as well as Additional Portfolio Collateral and Substitute Portfolio Collateral to be purchased from time to time as described herein), the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Default Swap Collateral Account (subject to the rights of the related Default Swap Counterparty), the Default Swap Issuer Account (subject to the rights of the related Default Swap Counterparty) the Expense Reimbursement Account and the Closing Expense Account, including all proceeds of such Accounts and all Eligible Investments purchased with funds on deposit in such Accounts (collectively, the "Trust Estate") pledged to secure the Notes. The Issuer, as a special purpose Cayman Islands company, will have no significant assets other than the Trust Estate. The Co-Issuer will have no substantial assets, and no other person or entity except for the Co-Issuers will be obligated to make any payments on the Notes. Consequently, Holders of the Notes must rely solely upon distributions on the Trust Estate for the payment of amounts payable in respect of the Notes. If distributions on the Trust Estate are insufficient to make payments on the Notes, no other assets of the Issuer or any other person or entity will be available for the payment of the deficiency, the Co-Issuers shall have no further obligation to pay such deficiency, and any sums outstanding and unpaid shall be extinguished.

2. Subordination. The Class A-1LB Notes are subordinated to the Class A-1LA Notes with respect to principal only, to the extent described herein, the Class A-2L Notes are subordinated to the Class A-1L Notes and the Class X Notes, the Class A-3L Notes are subordinated to the Senior Class A Notes and the Class X Notes, the Class A-4L Notes are subordinated to the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class X Notes and the Class B-1L Notes are subordinated to the Class A Notes and the Class X Notes, and, in the case of each Class of Notes, to the payment of certain fees and expenses as described herein. Payments of principal and interest on the Notes are subject to the priority of distribution provisions described herein. The failure to pay interest on the Class A-3L Notes will not constitute an Event of Default so long as any Senior Class A Notes or Class X Notes remain Outstanding, the failure to pay interest on the Class A-4L Notes will not constitute an Event of Default so long as any Senior Class A Notes, as Class A-3L Notes or Class X Notes remain Outstanding and the failure to pay interest on the Class B-1L Notes will not constitute an Event of Default so long as any Class A Notes or Class X Notes remain Outstanding. In addition, in the case of a Default or an Event of Default, so long as any Senior Class A Notes or Class X Notes remain Outstanding, the Holders of such Senior Class A Notes or Class X Notes will generally be entitled to determine the remedies to be exercised under the Indenture. Remedies pursued by the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes could be adverse to the interests of the Class A-1LB Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes. Once an Event of Default has occurred and the Notes have been accelerated, Holders of the Class A-2L Notes are not entitled to be paid the Cumulative Interest Amount with respect thereto and the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof unless the Class A-1L Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid such amounts in full in cash, Holders of the Class A-3L Notes are not entitled to be paid the Cumulative Interest Amount with respect thereto and the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof unless the Senior Class A Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid such amounts in full in cash, Holders of the Class A-4L Notes are not entitled to be paid the Cumulative Interest Amount with respect thereto and the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof unless the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid such amounts in full in cash, and Holders of the Class B-1L Notes are not entitled to be paid the Cumulative Interest Amount with respect thereto and the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof unless the Class A Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid such amounts in full in cash. Notwithstanding such subordination, the Holders of the Class B-1L Notes may be entitled to payments of principal in connection with the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement before the Notes senior thereto receive any payments of principal.

3. Nature of Collateral Pledged to Secure the Notes; Ability to Obtain Additional Portfolio Collateral; Availability of Funds for Subordinate Payments. The Portfolio Collateral pledged to secure the Notes includes commercial loans and collateralized loan obligations of both U.S. and certain non-U.S. obligors rated below investment grade, which have greater credit and liquidity risk than more highly rated obligations, and synthetic securities.

The Portfolio Collateral will consist primarily of senior secured floating rate term commercial loans. Other loans in which the Issuer may invest include unsecured loans, second lien loans, debtor-in-possession financings and delayed drawdown loans and revolving bank loans. Loans are not generally traded on organized exchange markets but rather would typically be traded by banks and other institutional investors engaged in loan syndications. The liquidity of the Portfolio Loans will therefore depend on the liquidity of this market. Trading in loans is subject to delays as transfers may require extensive and customized documentation, the payment of significant fees and the consent of the agent bank or underlying obligor. Furthermore, Portfolio Loans typically provide that the applicable interest rate may be computed by reference to any of several base indices, at the option of the obligor. The interest rates of the Notes generally are calculated by reference to three-month LIBOR as an index. See "—Interest Rate Risk."

The Issuer intends to purchase Participations of Portfolio Loans in certain circumstances. Participations held by the Issuer in a Selling Institution's portion of a Portfolio Loan typically result in a contractual relationship only with such Selling Institution, not with the obligor. The Issuer has the right to receive payments of principal, interest and any fees to which it is entitled only from the Selling Institution selling the Participation and only upon receipt by such Selling Institution of such payments from the obligor. In connection with purchasing Participations, the Issuer generally will have no right to enforce compliance by the obligor with the terms of the related loan agreement, nor any rights of set-off against the obligor and the Issuer may not directly benefit from the collateral supporting the Portfolio Loan in which it has purchased the Participation. As a result, the Issuer will assume the credit risk of both the obligor and the Selling Institution selling the Participation. In the event of the insolvency of such Selling Institution, the Issuer may be treated as a general creditor of such Selling Institution, and may not benefit from any set-off between such Selling Institution and the obligor. When the Issuer holds a Participation in a Portfolio Loan it may not have the right to vote to waive enforcement of any restrictive covenant breached by an obligor or, if the Issuer does not vote as requested by the Selling Institution, it may be subject to repurchase of the Participation at par. Selling Institutions voting in connection with a potential waiver of a restrictive covenant may have interests different from those of the Issuer, and such Selling Institutions may not consider the interests of the Issuer in connection with their votes.

The Issuer will also purchase Assignments. The purchaser of an Assignment typically succeeds to all the rights and obligations of the assignor of the loan and becomes a lender under the loan agreement and other operative agreements relating to the Portfolio Loan. Assignments are, however, arranged through private negotiations between potential assignees and potential assignors, and the rights and obligations acquired by the purchaser of an Assignment may differ from, and be more limited than, those held by the assignor of the loan. In contrast to the rights of the Issuer as an owner of a Participation, the Issuer, as an assignee, will generally have the right to receive directly from the obligor all payments of principal, interest and any fees to which it is entitled. In some Assignments, the obligor may have the right to continue to make payments to the assignor with respect to the assigned portion of the Portfolio Loan. In such a case, the assignor would be obligated to receive such payments as agent for the Issuer and to promptly pay over to the Issuer such amounts as are received. As a purchaser of an Assignment, the Issuer typically will have the same voting rights as other lenders under the applicable loan agreement and will have the right to vote to waive enforcement of breaches of covenants. The Issuer will also have the same rights as other lenders to enforce compliance by the obligor with the terms of the loan agreement, to set-off claims against the obligor and to have recourse to collateral supporting the Portfolio Loan. As a result, the Issuer may not bear the credit risk of the assignor and the insolvency of an assignor of a loan should have little effect on the ability of the Issuer to continue to receive payments of principal, interest or fees from the obligor. The Issuer will, however, assume the credit risk of the obligor. Non-performing Portfolio Loans may require substantial workout negotiations or restructuring that may entail, among other things, a substantial reduction in the interest rate, a substantial write-down of the principal and/or a substantial extension of the amortization and/or maturity date of the Portfolio Loan. Any such reduction, write-down or extension will likely cause a significant decrease in the interest collections on the Portfolio Loans and any such write-down or extension will likely also cause a significant decrease in the principal collections on the Portfolio Loans.

The Portfolio Collateral will also consist of CLO Securities. CLO Securities generally are limited-recourse obligations of the issuer thereof payable solely from the underlying securities of such issuer or proceeds thereof. Consequently, holders of CLO Securities must rely solely on distributions on the underlying securities or proceeds thereof for payment in respect thereof. If distributions on the underlying securities are insufficient to make payments on the CLO Securities, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and following realization of the underlying assets, the obligations of such issuer to pay such deficiency shall be extinguished. Such underlying securities are expected to consist mainly of loans and other debt instruments, generally rated below investment grade (or of equivalent credit quality). In addition, certain CLO Securities (particularly subordinated CLO Securities) provide that the non payment of interest in cash on such securities will not constitute an event of default in certain circumstances and the holders of such securities will not have available to them any associated default remedies. Interest not paid in cash will generally be capitalized and added to the outstanding principal balance of the related security. Any such deferral will reduce the yield on such CLO Securities. Loan securities may be unsecured and may be subordinated to certain other obligations of the issuer thereof. The lower rating of below investment grade loans reflects a greater possibility that adverse changes in the financial condition of an issuer or in general economic conditions or both may impair the ability of the issuer to make payments of principal or interest. Such Portfolio Collateral may be speculative.

Issuers of CLO Securities may acquire interests in loans and other debt obligations by way of sale, assignment or participation. The purchaser of an assignment typically succeeds to all the rights and obligations of the assigning institution and becomes a lender under the credit agreement with respect to the debt obligation; however, its rights can be more restricted than those of the assigning institution.

CLO Securities are also subject to interest rate risk. The underlying securities of an issuer of CLO Securities may bear interest at a floating rate while the CLO Securities issued by such issuer may bear interest at a fixed rate (or the reverse may be true). As a result, there could be a floating/fixed rate or basis mismatch between such CLO Securities and underlying securities. In addition, there may be a timing mismatch between the CLO Securities and underlying securities that bear interest at a floating rate, as the interest rate on such floating rate underlying securities may adjust more frequently or less frequently, on different dates and based on different indices, than the interest rates on the CLO Securities. As a result of such mismatches, an increase or decrease in the level of the floating rate indices could adversely impact the ability of the issuers thereof to make payments on the CLO Securities.

In order to purchase and hold CLO Securities, the Issuer must satisfy at all times the investor qualifications in the indenture for each such obligation and in applicable securities laws. Generally, such indentures and applicable securities laws require that the Issuer either be a Qualified Institutional Buyer which is also a Qualified Purchaser or that it be a non-U.S. Person (as defined in Regulation S) which is also not a U.S. resident for purposes of the Investment Company Act. There can be no assurance that the Issuer will satisfy these requirements. In the event that the Issuer does not satisfy these requirements at any time, it will not be able to purchase CLO Securities, and it may be required under the underlying indentures for such underlying securities to sell CLO Securities which it previously purchased; any such "forced sale" by the Issuer is likely to be made at a loss.

In addition, a portion of the Portfolio Collateral may consist of Synthetic Securities. With respect to Synthetic Securities, the Issuer will usually have a contractual relationship only with the counterparty of such Synthetic Security, and not the Reference Obligor on the Reference Obligation. The Issuer generally will have no right directly to enforce compliance by the Reference Obligor with the terms of the Reference Obligation nor any rights of set-off against the Reference Obligor, nor have any voting or other consensual rights of ownership with respect to the Reference Obligation. The Issuer will not directly benefit from any collateral supporting the Reference Obligation and will not have the benefit of the remedies that would normally be available to a holder of such Reference Obligation. In addition, in the event of the insolvency of the counterparty, the Issuer will be treated as a general creditor of such counterparty, and will not have any claim of title with respect to the Reference Obligation. Consequently, the Issuer will be subject to the credit risk of the counterparty as well as that of the Reference Obligor. As a result, concentrations of Synthetic Securities entered into with any one counterparty will subject the Notes to an additional degree of risk with respect to defaults by such counterparty as well as by the Reference Obligor. One or more affiliates of the Initial Purchaser may act as counterparty with respect to all or a portion of the Synthetic Securities. These relationships may create certain conflicts of interest. See "—Potential Conflicts of Interest."

All or a portion of the Synthetic Securities are expected to consist of "pay as you go" credit default swaps. The obligation of the Issuer to make payments to the Default Swap Counterparties under the Default Swaps creates credit exposure to the related Reference Obligations (as well as to the default risk of the Default Swap Counterparties). Following the occurrence of a "credit event" with respect to any Reference Obligation (a "Credit Event"), the Issuer will be required to pay to the Default Swap Counterparty an amount equal to the relevant "physical settlement amount" in return for the Reference Obligation. The payment of any physical settlement amount will be funded by the Issuer by drawing on amounts standing to the credit of the related Default Swap Collateral Account. In addition, each Default Swap will require the Issuer, in its capacity as protection seller, to pay "floating amounts" to the Default Swap Counterparty equal to any principal shortfalls, writedowns and interest shortfalls under the Reference Obligation upon the occurrence thereof (any such payment, a "Credit Protection Payment"). Although the Default Swap Counterparty, in its capacity as protection buyer, will be obligated to reimburse all or part of such Credit Protection Payments to the Issuer if the writedowns of the related shortfalls are ultimately paid to holders of the Reference Obligations or if the related Reference Obligations are written up, the amounts available to the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Notes and Preferred Shares will be reduced after payment by the Issuer of the relevant Credit Protection Payment to the Default Swap Counterparty until the Issuer receives such reimbursement, if any, from the Default Swap Counterparty. Under the Default Swaps, a writedown or failure to pay principal in respect of a Reference Obligation will entitle the Default Swap Counterparty, as protection buyer, to elect whether to require the Issuer to pay a physical settlement amount or a Credit Protection Payment under the related Default Swap.

In certain other circumstances in which a Default Swap may be terminated early, a termination payment may be due to or from the Issuer. If the Issuer is required to make a termination payment to the Default Swap Counterparty, such termination payment may be substantial and may affect the ability of the Issuer to make payments to the Noteholders and to the Holders of the Preferred Shares. Termination payments payable by the Issuer in respect of any Default Swap will include the market value to the Default Swap Counterparty of such terminated Default Swap, which may expose the Issuer to deterioration in the credit of the Reference Obligations and result in losses to the Issuer, even where no Credit Event has occurred. Even if the Default Swap Counterparty is required to make a termination payment to the Issuer, there is no assurance that the amount of such payment would be sufficient such that payments to the Holders of the Notes and the Preferred Shares would not be affected.

It is expected that the Issuer will acquire all of the Initial Portfolio Collateral to be acquired on the Closing Date from various sources, including Bear Stearns, at prices agreed upon by the Issuer with the advice of the Servicer. The price to be paid by the Issuer for such securities may be higher or lower, based on market conditions at the time of purchase by Bear Stearns or such other sources than the prices the Issuer would have paid had such securities all been purchased by such persons on the date such securities were sold to the Issuer. After the Closing Date, the Issuer with the advice of the Servicer may acquire from or through various sources, including Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., Portfolio Collateral at current market prices which will be negotiated by or on behalf of the Issuer at such time. The Indenture does not restrict the ability of the Issuer to invest in Portfolio Collateral on the basis of its market value.

As described herein, the Indenture provides that the Servicer and the Issuer will seek to invest the Deposit in Original Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Amount at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount no later than the Effective Date, and that during certain specified periods thereafter significant portions of the collections received in respect of the Portfolio Collateral will be used to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral to secure the Notes, which securities in any such case must satisfy the criteria specified in the Indenture. In addition, Collateral Disposition Proceeds may be used to purchase Substitute Portfolio Collateral, subject to satisfaction of the specified criteria. The ability of the Issuer to obtain such Original Portfolio Collateral, Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral (and the rates and other terms thereof) and the terms on which such securities can be obtained, as well as the timing and amount of draws under the Delayed Drawdown Loans and the Revolving Loans and the rates and other terms obtained in connection with the funds held in Eligible Investments (including the Loan Funding Account), may affect the timing and amount of payments received by the Noteholders.

The Issuer will purchase and sell Portfolio Collateral from or to the Servicer and its affiliates, including assets managed by the Servicer and its affiliates, only to the extent the Servicer determines that such purchases and sales are consistent with the collateral guidelines and objectives of the Issuer, the restrictions contained in the Indenture and the Servicing Agreement and applicable law. In any event, all purchases or sales of Portfolio Collateral from such entities will be on an arms'-length basis for a price at least equal to the Market Value thereof.

On each Payment Date, subject to the satisfaction of the Overcollateralization Tests and, after the second Payment Date, the Interest Coverage Test and application of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement, and in accordance with the priority of distribution provisions described herein, certain collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be used to make certain subordinate payments free and clear of the lien of the Indenture, including payment of certain fees to the Servicer, payment of certain administrative expenses of the Issuer and payment to fund distributions to Holders of the Preferred Shares. To the extent that any such distributions are made rather than retained as additional collateral for the Notes, the amounts so distributed will not be available to support payments of principal and interest subsequently payable in respect of the Notes.

4. Default Rates of Commercial Loans and CLO Securities. There are varying sources of statistical default rate data for commercial loans and collateralized loan obligations and numerous methods for measuring default rates. The historical performance of the loan market or collateralized loan market is not necessarily indicative of its future performance. Should increases in default rates occur with respect to the type of collateral comprising the Portfolio Collateral, the actual default rates of the Portfolio Collateral may exceed the hypothetical default rates used herein. See "Maturity and Prepayment Considerations." PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS OF THE NOTES SHOULD CONSIDER AND DETERMINE FOR THEMSELVES THE LIKELY LEVEL OF DEFAULTS AND THE LEVEL OF RECOVERIES ON THE PORTFOLIO COLLATERAL DURING THE TERM OF THE NOTES.

5. Potential Illiquidity of Portfolio Collateral. There is no established, liquid secondary market for many of the CLO Securities and Portfolio Loans which the Issuer may purchase and the lack of such an established, liquid secondary market may have an adverse effect on the market value of such CLO Securities and Portfolio Loans and the Issuer's ability to dispose of them. Such illiquidity may adversely affect the price and timing of the Issuer's liquidation of CLO Securities and Portfolio Loans, including the liquidation of CLO Securities and Portfolio Loans following the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Indenture or in connection with a redemption of the Notes.

Further, the items of Portfolio Collateral will be subject to certain transfer restrictions that may further restrict liquidity. Therefore, no assurance can be given that if the Issuer were to dispose of a particular item of Portfolio Collateral held by the Issuer, it could dispose of such Portfolio Collateral at the previously prevailing market price. A decrease in the market value of Portfolio Collateral would adversely affect the sale proceeds that could be obtained upon the sale of Portfolio Collateral and could ultimately affect the ability of the Co-Issuers to effect an Optional Redemption or Tax Event Redemption or pay the principal of the Notes, upon a liquidation of the Portfolio Collateral following the occurrence of an Event of Default.

The market value of the Portfolio Collateral will generally fluctuate with, among other things, changes in prevailing interest rates, general economic and political conditions, the condition of certain financial markets, developments or trends in any particular industry and the financial condition of the issuers of the Portfolio Collateral.

Any concentration of Portfolio Collateral in any one issuer, servicer or other characteristic may expose the Issuer to greater risk than would be the case if the Portfolio Collateral were more diversified, which would affect the Issuer's ability to make payments on the Notes.

The description of the Portfolio Collateral herein and the risks related thereto is general in nature and prospective purchasers should review the descriptions and risk factors relating to each item of Portfolio Collateral set forth in the underlying disclosure documents, transaction documents and servicing reports. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD ASSESS FOR THEMSELVES THE RISKS INHERENT IN THE PORTFOLIO COLLATERAL.

6. The Issuer and Investors Will Have Limited Control of the Administration and Amendment of Portfolio Loans. The Servicer will cause the Issuer to exercise or enforce, or refrain from exercising or enforcing, any or all of its rights in connection with the Portfolio Loans or any related documents or will refuse amendments or waivers of the terms of any Portfolio Loan and related documents in accordance with its customary business practices as if the Servicer were administering the Portfolio Loans for its own account. The authority of the Servicer to cause the Issuer to change the terms of the Portfolio Loans will generally not be restricted by the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement. As a result, the Issuer will be relying on the Servicer's customary business practices with respect to the servicing of the Portfolio Loans. The Holders of the Notes and the Issuer will not have any right to compel the Issuer or the Servicer to take or refrain from taking any actions other than in accordance with its customary business practices.

The terms and conditions of the loan agreements and related assignments may be amended, modified or waived only by the agreement of the lenders. Generally, any such agreement must include a majority or a super majority (measured by outstanding loans or commitments) or, in certain circumstances, a unanimous vote of the lenders. Consequently, the terms and conditions of the payment obligation arising from loan agreements could be modified, amended or waived in a manner contrary to the preferences of the Servicer or the Issuer, as the case may be, if a sufficient number of the other lenders concurred with such modification, amendment or waiver. There can be no assurance that any obligations arising from a loan agreement will maintain the terms and conditions to which the Issuer originally agreed.

The exercise of remedies may also be subject to the vote of a specified percentage of the lenders thereunder. The Servicer will have the authority to cause the Issuer to consent to certain amendments, waivers or modifications to the Portfolio Loans requested by obligors or the lead agents for loan syndication agreements. The Servicer may, in accordance with its servicing standards and subject to the transaction documents, cause the Issuer to extend or defer the maturity, adjust the outstanding balance of any Portfolio Loan, reduce or forgive interest or fees, release material collateral or guarantees, or otherwise amend, modify or waive the terms of any related loan agreement, including the payment terms thereunder. The Servicer will make such determinations in accordance with its servicing standards. Any amendment, waiver or modification of a Portfolio Loan could postpone the expected maturity of the Notes and/or reduce the likelihood of timely and complete payment of interest or principal under the Notes, as well as the timing and amount of payments to Holders of the Preferred Shares.

7. Sale of Portfolio Collateral by Servicer Under Certain Circumstances. Under the Indenture, the Servicer may only direct the disposition of Portfolio Collateral under certain limited circumstances. More specifically, the Servicer may direct the disposition of Portfolio Collateral that meets the definition of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, Equity Portfolio Collateral, and, subject to satisfaction of the conditions set forth herein, Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral [or Collateral other than Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral]. Furthermore, the Servicer's ability to dispose of Portfolio Collateral may be subject to greater restrictions if any Class of Notes is downgraded. See "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral." Notwithstanding such restrictions and satisfaction of the conditions set forth in the Indenture, sales and purchases by the Servicer of Portfolio Collateral could result in losses by the Issuer, which losses may result in the reduction or withdrawal of the rating of any or all of the Notes by any of the Rating Agencies. On the other hand, circumstances may exist under which the Servicer may believe that it is in the best interests of the Issuer to dispose of Portfolio Collateral, but the Issuer will not be permitted to do so under the restrictions and conditions of the Indenture.

A portion of the Portfolio Collateral may have fixed interest rates that remain constant until a specified date or their maturity, and a portion of the Portfolio Collateral will bear interest based on a fixed margin over a reference rate, which margin will generally remain constant until the maturity of such Portfolio Collateral. Accordingly, the market value of the fixed rate Portfolio Collateral will generally decrease as market rates of interest increase. The market value of such Portfolio Collateral will also generally fluctuate with, among other things, general economic conditions, world political events, developments or trends in any particular industry, the conditions of financial markets and the financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the Portfolio Collateral issuers. The Issuer will be relying on Rule 3a-7 and/or Section 3(c)(7) of the U.S. Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "Investment Company Act") for its exemption from the Investment Company Act. The Rule 3a-7 exemption restricts the Issuer from disposing of any item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, Equity Portfolio Collateral, Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral or acquiring any item of Portfolio Collateral for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. These restrictions mean that the Issuer may be required to hold an item of Portfolio Collateral or precluded from acquiring an item of Portfolio Collateral when it would have sold such item of Portfolio Collateral or acquired such item of Portfolio Collateral, as applicable, had it based such determination on expected market value changes. As a result, greater losses on the Portfolio Collateral may be sustained and there may be insufficient proceeds on any Payment Date to pay in full any expenses of the Issuer or any amounts payable to the Trustee or the Administrator (all of which amounts are payable prior to payments in respect of the Notes) and the principal of and interest on the Notes. See "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral."

8. Sale of Collateral Upon Default of the Notes. The market value of the Portfolio Collateral will generally fluctuate with, among other things, general economic conditions, world political events, developments or trends in any particular industry, the conditions of financial markets and the financial condition of the issuers of the Portfolio Collateral. In addition, CLO Securities included in the Portfolio Collateral, which will comprise no more than 35% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral included in the Trust Estate, may have interest rates that remain constant until their maturity. Accordingly, their market value will generally fluctuate with changes in market rates of interest. Therefore, if an Event of Default occurs with respect to the Notes, there can be no assurance that the proceeds of any sale by the Trustee of the Portfolio Collateral and the other collateral securing the Notes will be sufficient to pay in full the principal of and interest on the Notes and any amounts payable to the Trustee. However, certain conditions set forth in the Indenture must be satisfied before the Trustee is permitted to sell the Portfolio Collateral and other collateral pledged as security for the Notes following an Event of Default. See "Legal Structure—The Indenture—Events of Default."

9. Restrictions on Transfer. The Notes have not been registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or under any U.S. state securities or "Blue Sky" laws or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and are being issued and sold in reliance upon exemptions from registration provided by such laws. There is no market for the Notes being offered hereby and, as a result, a purchaser must be prepared to hold the Notes for an indefinite period of time or until the maturity thereof. No Note may be sold or transferred unless such sale or transfer (i) is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act (for example, in reliance on exemptions provided by Rule 144A or Regulation S under the Securities Act) and applicable state securities laws, (ii) will not constitute or result in a non-exempt "prohibited transaction" under ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code and (iii) does not cause either of the Co-Issuers to become subject to the registration requirements of the Investment Company Act. In addition, the Class B-1L Notes may not be sold or transferred to any Plan or to any person acting on behalf of or with "plan assets" of any such Plan, including an insurance company general account, unless the purchaser or transferee is eligible for the exemptive relief available under PTCE 96-23, 95-60, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14. Prospective transferees of the Notes will be required pursuant to the terms of the Indenture to deliver a certificate to the Trustee and the Co-Issuers relating to compliance with the Securities Act, applicable state securities laws, ERISA, Section 4975 of the Code and the Investment Company Act. The Co-Issuers will not provide registration rights to any purchaser of the Notes and neither of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, nor any other person may register the Notes under the Securities Act or any state securities or "Blue Sky" laws nor may the Co-Issuers or the Trustee take such action with respect to the Portfolio Collateral. See "Description of the Notes—General." The Notes will be owned by a relatively small number of investors and it is highly unlikely that an active secondary market for the Notes will develop. Purchasers of the Notes may find it difficult or uneconomic to liquidate their investment at any particular time.

The Issuer has not registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act in reliance on the exception provided under Rule 3a-7 and/or Section 3(c)(7) thereof. While counsel will opine in connection with the sale of the Notes to the Initial Purchaser that neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer is on the Closing Date required to register as an investment company (assuming the Notes are sold to the Initial Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement (as defined herein) and that the Servicer services the Portfolio Collateral and other assets of the Issuer in accordance with the terms of the Servicing Agreement (as defined herein)), no opinion or no-action position has been requested of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). If the SEC or a court of competent jurisdiction were to find that the Issuer or the Co-Issuer is required to register as an investment company, possible consequences include, but are not limited to, the SEC applying to enjoin the violation, investors suing the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, to recover any damages caused by the violation and any contract to which the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, is a party made in violation or whose performance involves a violation of the Investment Company Act being unenforceable unless enforcing such contract would produce a more equitable result. Should the Issuer or the Co-Issuer be subjected to any or all of the foregoing or to any other consequences, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, would be materially and adversely affected.

Each transferee of a Note (except with respect to a transfer pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act) will be deemed to make certain representations at the time of transfer relating to compliance with Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act. See "Delivery of the Notes; Transfer Restrictions; Settlement."

The Indenture will provide that if, notwithstanding the restrictions on transfer contained therein, the Issuer determines any beneficial owner or Holder of a Note (other than a Note transferred in reliance on Regulation S of the Securities Act) is not a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser, the Issuer will require that such beneficial owner or Holder sell all of its right, title and interest in such Note to a person who is so qualified, with such sale to be effected within 30 days after notice of such sale requirement is given. If such sale is not effected within such 30 days, upon written direction from the Issuer, the Trustee (or an investment banker selected by the Trustee and approved by the Issuer) will be authorized to conduct a commercially reasonable sale of such Note to a person who does so qualify and pending transfer, no further payments will be made in respect of such Note or any beneficial interest therein.

10. Final Maturity Date; Average Life and Prepayment Considerations; Redemption. The Final Maturity Date of each Class of Notes (other than the Class X Notes) will be the Payment Date occurring in August 1, 2021 and the Final Maturity Date of the Class X Notes will be the Payment Date occurring in August 1, 2013; provided that, the Final Maturity Dates of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes) are extendable upon a Maturity Extension (if any) as described herein, in which case the Final Maturity Date of such Notes will be extended to the applicable Extended Final Maturity Date. See "Description of the Notes—Extension of the Revolving Period and the Final Maturity Date". The average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years until the Final Maturity Date, and the average lives may vary due to various factors affecting the early retirement of the Portfolio Collateral and the ability of the Servicer to invest collections in Additional Portfolio Collateral or reinvest disposition proceeds in Substitute Portfolio Collateral. Retirement of an item of Portfolio Collateral prior to that item of Portfolio Collateral's respective final maturity will depend, among other things, on the financial condition of the issuer and the characteristics of the underlying item of Portfolio Collateral, including the existence and frequency of exercise of any prepayment or redemption features, the prevailing level of interest rates, the prepayment or redemption price and the actual default rate and the actual amount collected on any Defaulted Portfolio Collateral. See "Maturity and Prepayment Considerations" and "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral." The ability of the Issuer to reinvest proceeds in securities with comparable interest rates, with final maturity dates on or before the Calculation Date prior to the Final Maturity Date and otherwise satisfying the criteria specified herein may affect the timing and amount of payments received by the Noteholders and the yield to maturity of the Notes. If the Issuer is unable to reinvest more than U.S.$2,000,000 of collections of principal in Additional Portfolio Collateral selected by the Servicer meeting the criteria described herein for ninety days after receipt, the Servicer may direct the Trustee to apply such amounts to pay principal of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes) in a Special Redemption. Any such application will affect the timing and amount of payments received by the Noteholders and the average life and yield to maturity of the Notes.

As described herein, the Notes are subject to a Tax Event Redemption on any Payment Date, at the option of the Issuer acting at the direction of at least a Majority of the Preferred Shares or a majority of the Controlling Class (but only if the Aggregate Principal Balance of Portfolio Collateral is less than 100% of the Class A-1L Notes), if as a result of a change in tax law, rule or regulation or the interpretation thereof, the payments to be received on the Portfolio Collateral are reduced as a result thereof as described herein.

As described herein, the Notes will be subject to an Optional Redemption, at the option of the Issuer acting at the direction of the Holders of the requisite amount of the Preferred Shares eligible to vote for any such redemption (See "Description of the Notes—Optional Redemption"), on any Optional Redemption Date, at a price equal to the Optional Redemption Price.

As described herein, at any time that the Notes are Outstanding, if any Overcollateralization Test or, after the second Payment Date, the Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied on any Payment Date, amounts that are junior in right of payment to such test as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied to the redemption of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes (or, in the case of the Class B-1L Notes, first to pay accrued and unpaid interest from prior Payment Dates, then to pay principal) in an O/C Redemption on each such Payment Date, in the order described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions," to the extent necessary to satisfy both the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test. Further, if following the Effective Date, the Issuer is not able to receive a Rating Confirmation, amounts that are junior in right of payment to such redemption as described herein, will be applied to the redemption of the Notes until the earlier of the Ratings Confirmation being received or each such Class being paid in full, in the order and according to the priorities described herein. The Class X Notes are not subject to redemption in connection with an O/C Redemption, but are subject to Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption.

The Class B-1L Notes may be retired early as a result of principal payments made to the Class B-1L Notes in connection with the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement.

As described herein, if the Issuer or the Servicer is unable to use (or commit) the full amount of the Deposit to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Amount (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date) at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount and meeting the specified requirements no later than the Effective Date, an amount (not in excess of the amount of the Deposit not so used or committed for use) equal to the difference between the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount and the par amount of Portfolio Collateral actually acquired (or committed to be acquired) (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date) shall be used to make principal payments of the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes, on a pro rata basis, on the Initial Deposit Redemption Date except, if the amount of the Deposit not so used (or committed to be used) does not exceed U.S.$2,000,000 in the aggregate, such amount will be transferred to the Collection Account on the Effective Date.

11. Maturity Extension Risk. Under the Indenture, the Issuer, at the direction of the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date, to extend the Revolving Period to the applicable Extended Revolving Period End Date up to a maximum of four times (so that the Notes can only be extended to 2037) if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously affected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date, (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied and (iii) the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Revolving Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. Under the Indenture, if the Revolving Period is so extended, the Final Maturity Date of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes) will be equally extended and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be extended without the requirement for any approval or consent of any Holders of Notes or Preferred Shares; provided that if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied because the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes have failed to deliver an Extension Sale Notice or have failed to provide their written consent to the related Maturity Extension, then the Servicer may exceed seven Business Days after the then proposed Extension Effective Date) if the Servicer shall cause the Extension Conditions set forth in clause (iv) of such definition to be satisfied as of such later date. Holders of the Notes will not be able to prevent or prohibit the extension of the Final Maturity Date so long as the Extension Conditions are satisfied, which include the ability of Holders of such Notes to sell their Notes at the designated purchase price to a designated purchaser under the Indenture. In the case of the Preferred Shares and any Maturity Extension, Holders of Preferred Shares that have received an Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12.0% as of the Extension Effective Date will not receive any payment in exchange for their Preferred Shares sold in connection with a Maturity Extension. See "Description of the Notes—Extension of the Revolving Period and the Final Maturity Date." As a consequence, if the Servicer elects to extend the Revolving Period and the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Holders of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes) and the Preferred Shares may either be required to hold their Notes and Preferred Shares for a significantly longer period of time or be forced to sell their Notes and Preferred Shares for the applicable purchase price under the Indenture, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Notes and Preferred Shares.

12. Amendment Buy-Out Risk. Any Non-Consenting Holder of Notes or Preferred Shares with respect to an amendment of the Indenture (which includes Holders that fail to respond to a consent solicitation within the applicable period) may be forced to sell their applicable Notes or Preferred Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser at the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Notes or Preferred Shares; provided that during the Non-Call Period, "Non-Consenting Holder" shall exclude any Holder of Class A-1LA Notes (unless such Holder has consented in writing to be designated as a Non-Consenting Holder) and the Amendment Buy-Out Option shall not be applicable to such Class A-1LA Notes. In the case of the Preferred Shares, the Indenture provides that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price will be zero for Non-Consenting Holders that have received an Internal Rate of Return equal to or in excess of 12.0% as of the Amendment Buy-Out Date. See "Legal Structure—The Indenture; Amendment Buy-Out." A Holder's ability to vote against an amendment or affect or influence the amendment process with respect to the Indenture will be limited by the possibility of an Amendment Buy-Out. The Amendment Buy-Out will also increase the ability of the Servicer to affect or influence the amendment process.

13. Interest Rate Risk. The Notes generally will bear interest at a rate based on three-month LIBOR, as described herein. While most of the Portfolio Collateral will bear interest at floating rates, up to 5% of the Portfolio Collateral may bear interest at fixed rates. Further, the obligors under the Portfolio Loans which are Floating Rate Collateral may choose different interest indices than the London interbank rate for three-month U.S. dollar deposits or the interest rates on the Floating Rate Collateral may be determined or adjustments may take effect on different dates than is the case for the Notes. Additionally, interest on the Notes is payable quarterly on each Payment Date while a portion of the Portfolio Collateral may provide for semiannual payments of interest. Any such mismatches may adversely affect the Issuer's ability to pay amounts due in respect of the Notes.

14. The Issuer. The Issuer is a recently formed entity and has no significant prior operating history. The Issuer has no significant assets other than the Trust Estate. The Issuer will not engage in any business activity other than the co-issuance of the Notes and the issuance of the Preferred Shares and the ordinary shares as described herein, the acquisition and disposition of Portfolio Collateral as described herein, certain activities conducted in connection with the payment of amounts in respect of the Notes and the Preferred Shares and the management of the collateral and other activities incidental to the foregoing. Income derived from the collateral will be the Issuer's principal source of cash. The Issuer is a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands. Because the Issuer is a Cayman Islands company and some of its directors reside in the Cayman Islands, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process within the United States on such persons or to enforce against them or against the Issuer in United States courts judgments predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the United States securities laws. None of the directors, security holders, members, officers or incorporators of the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, any of their respective affiliates or any other person or entity (other than the Issuer) will be obligated to make payments on the Notes or the Preferred Shares.

15. The Co-Issuer. The Co-Issuer is a newly-formed entity and has no prior operating history. The Co-Issuer has no substantial assets. The Co-Issuer will not engage in any business activity other than the co-issuance of the Class X Notes, the Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes.

16. Fraudulent Conveyance Considerations. Various federal and state laws enacted for the protection of creditors may apply to the Portfolio Collateral by virtue of the Issuer's role as a creditor with respect to such Portfolio Collateral. If a court in a lawsuit brought by an unpaid creditor or representative of creditors of an obligor under an item of Portfolio Collateral, such as a trustee in bankruptcy or the obligor as debtor-in-possession, were to find that the obligor did not receive fair consideration or reasonably equivalent value for incurring indebtedness evidenced by an item of Portfolio Collateral and the grant of any security interest or other lien securing such Portfolio Collateral, and, after giving effect to the incurring of such indebtedness, the obligor (i) was insolvent, (ii) was engaged in a business for which the assets remaining in such obligor constituted unreasonably small capital, or (iii) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay such debts as they mature, such court could invalidate, in whole or in part, such indebtedness and such security interest or other lien as fraudulent conveyances, subordinate such indebtedness to existing or future creditors of the obligor or recover amounts previously paid by the obligor (including to the Issuer) in satisfaction of such indebtedness or proceeds of such security interest or other lien previously applied in satisfaction of such indebtedness. In addition, in the event of the insolvency of an issuer or other obligor of an item of Portfolio Collateral, payments made on the Portfolio Collateral could be subject to avoidance as a "preference" if made within a certain period of time (which may be as long as one year) before insolvency depending on a number of factors, including the amount of equity of the obligor owned by the Issuer and its affiliates and any contractual arrangements between the obligor, on the one hand, and the Issuer and its affiliates, on the other hand. The measure of insolvency for purposes of the foregoing will vary depending on the law of the jurisdiction which is being applied. Generally, however, an obligor would be considered insolvent at a particular time if the sum of its debts was greater than all of its property at a fair valuation or if the present fair saleable value of its assets was then less than the amount that would be required to pay its probable liabilities on its existing debts as they became absolute and matured. There can be no assurance as to what standard a court would apply in order to determine whether an obligor was insolvent after giving effect to the incurrence of the loan or that, regardless of the method of evaluation, a court would not determine that the obligor was "insolvent" upon giving effect to such incurrence.

In general, if payments on Portfolio Collateral are avoidable, whether as fraudulent conveyances or preferences, such payments can be recaptured either from the initial recipient (such as the Issuer) or from subsequent transferees of such payments, including Holders of the Notes.

17. Lender Liability Considerations. In recent years, a number of judicial decisions in the United States have upheld the right of borrowers to sue lending institutions on the basis of various evolving legal theories, including equitable subordination (collectively termed "lender liability"). Generally, lender liability is founded upon the premise that the institutional lender has violated a duty (whether implied or contractual) of good faith and fair dealing owed to the borrower or has assumed a degree of control over the borrower resulting in the creation of a fiduciary duty owed to the borrower. Although the Issuer is not engaged in the business of lending, the Issuer, as a creditor, may be subject to allegations of lender liability. Furthermore, the Issuer and the Servicer may be unable to control the conduct of the lenders under a loan syndication agreement requiring less than a unanimous vote, yet the Issuer may be subject to lender liability for such conduct.

18. Environmental Risks. Real property pledged as security with respect to an item of Portfolio Collateral may be subject to potential environmental risks. Of particular concern may be those mortgaged properties which are, or have been, the site of manufacturing, industrial or disposal activity. Such environmental risks may give rise to a diminution in the value of property securing any item of Portfolio Collateral or liability for cleanup costs or other remedial actions, which liability could exceed the value of such property or the principal balance of the related item of Portfolio Collateral. In certain circumstances, a lender may choose not to foreclose on contaminated property rather than risk incurring liability for remedial actions.

19. Potential Conflicts of Interest. It is expected that Highland Financial Partners, L.P. or an affiliate or subsidiary thereof ("HFP") will purchase approximately 45,000,000 of the Class II Preferred Shares of the Issuer on the Closing Date, representing approximately 58% of the total Preferred Shares outstanding (the "Original HFP Share Amount"). It is also expected that Highland will purchase approximately 10,000,000 of the preferred shares of Investor Corp. and approximately U.S.$2,000,000 Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes on the Closing Date. In addition, the Servicer, entities affiliated with the Servicer or clients of the Servicer (collectively, the "Servicer Entities") may also acquire Notes or Preferred Shares upon the occurrence of an Amendment Buy-Out or a Maturity Extension as described herein. The interests of the Holders of the Preferred Shares and the Class B-1L Notes that are Servicer Entities, or any other Notes owned by the Servicer Entities, may be different from or adverse to the interests of the Holders of the other Notes and Preferred Shares. As the result of the ownership of Preferred Shares and Notes by the Servicer Entities, and the ability to vote the Preferred Shares and the Notes owned by the Servicer Entities up to a maximum amount equal to the Original HFP Share Amount, the affirmative vote or approval of the Preferred Shares owned by such Servicer Entities, may be required in order to cause an Optional Redemption or a Tax Redemption of the Notes. Preferred Shares owned or controlled by the Servicer Entities above the Original HFP Share Amount will be excluded from voting on certain matters including any Optional Redemption.

In addition to the Base Servicing Fee, the Servicer is entitled to receive an Additional Servicing Fee and an Supplemental Servicing Fee (if any) after all other distributions (other than certain distributions with respect to the Preferred Shares and certain administrative expenses) are made, which is dependent in large part on the performance of the securities purchased by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer. This could create an inducement for the Servicer to service the Issuer's assets in such a manner as to seek to maximize the return on such securities. This could result in increasing the volatility of the Portfolio Collateral and could contribute to a decline in the aggregate value of the Portfolio Collateral. However, the Servicer's servicing of the Issuer's assets is restricted by the requirement that it comply with the restrictions described in "Security for the Notes" and by its internal policies with respect to the management of securities accounts.

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall activity of the Servicer, its affiliates and their respective clients. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

Certain Holders of the Notes and certain Holders of the Preferred Shares may be clients of the Servicer or one of its affiliates. Certain clients of the Servicer and its affiliates may invest in securities that would be appropriate for inclusion in the Trust Estate. Further, the Servicer currently serves and may in the future serve as servicer, collateral manager or the equivalent for other issuers of collateralized debt obligations, including collateralized debt obligation vehicles having objectives similar to those of the Issuer. The Servicer and its affiliates may make asset management decisions for its clients and affiliates that may be different from those made by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer. The Servicer and its affiliates may also have ongoing relationships with, and may own or invest assets of their clients in, equity securities issued by issuers of Portfolio Collateral. In addition, affiliates and clients of the Servicer may invest in securities that are senior to, or have interests different from or adverse to, the securities included in the Trust Estate. An affiliate of the Servicer may earn fees with respect to financial advisory services rendered to companies in connection with workouts or the subsequent restructuring of such companies. Such fees and advice may continue for a period of time after any such workout or restructure. The Issuer may own an interest in the securities of such companies.

The Amendment Buy-Out will increase the ability of the Servicer to affect or influence the amendment process under the Indenture and will limit any Holder's ability to vote against an amendment or affect or influence the amendment process with respect to the Indenture.

If the Servicer elects to extend the Revolving Period and the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Holders of the Notes and the Preferred Shares may either be required to hold their Notes and Preferred Shares for a significantly longer period of time or be forced to sell their Notes and Preferred Shares for the applicable purchase price under the Indenture, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Notes and Preferred Shares.

In addition to acting as Servicer to the Issuer, Highland Capital Management L.P. will act as manager for HFP, which will, on the Closing Date, purchase all of the Class II Preferred Shares. Because Highland Capital Management will receive both a servicing fee from the Issuer for servicing the Portfolio Collateral and a management fee from HFP for managing HFP's assets, which will include the Class II Preferred Shares (and therefore a residual interest in the Portfolio Collateral), Highland Capital Management has agreed, in connection with the capital raising of HFP, to waive a portion of its servicing fees from the Issuer for two years following the Closing Date so as not to reduce the return on investment realized by HFP in respect of the Class II Preferred Shares. Thereafter Highland Capital Management may at its discretion continue to waive such portion of its servicing fees or may elect to receive such servicing fees in their entirety. Accordingly, during the first two years following the Closing Date, a portion (representing the percentage ownership of the Preferred Shares represented by the Class II Preferred Shares, which will initially be owned entirely by HFP) of the amounts that would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as a servicing fee will instead be payable on the Class II Preferred Shares as the Class II Preferred Share Dividends in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Thereafter, the Servicer may elect to continue to waive such same portion of the amounts that would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as a servicing fee, or any lesser portion of such amounts, and have such amounts be paid instead as the Class II Preferred Share Dividends. The Class II Preferred Shares and the Class I Preferred Shares will vote together as a single class and the existence of the Class II Preferred Share Dividends may cause HFP to have interests different from the holders of the Class I Preferred Shares.

The Trustee and its affiliates may invest in the loans or securities that would be appropriate for inclusion in the Trust Estate and the Trustee has no duty, in making those investments, to act in a way that is favorable to the Issuer or the Holders of the Notes or the Preferred Shares. The Trustee's affiliates currently serve and may in the future serve as collateral manager or the equivalent for other issuers of collateralized loan obligations.

It is expected that the Issuer will acquire all of the Initial Portfolio Collateral to be acquired on the Closing Date from Bear Stearns or other sources in each case, at prices agreed upon by the Issuer with the advice of the Servicer. Certain of such securities will be securities of issuers for which Bear Stearns has acted as underwriter, agent, placement agent or principal or of which Bear Stearns is an equity owner or which the Servicer or an affiliate of the Servicer has acted as manager, principal or counterparty. The price to be paid by the Issuer for such securities may be higher or lower, based on market conditions at the time of purchase from such sellers, than the prices the Issuer would have paid had such securities all been purchased from such sellers on the date such securities were sold to the Issuer. After the Closing Date, the Issuer with the advice of the Servicer may acquire from or through Bear Stearns or other sources Portfolio Collateral at current market prices which will be negotiated by or on behalf of the Issuer at such time. In addition, from time to time the Servicer may sell Portfolio Collateral through Bear Stearns. Bear Stearns will also receive compensation for the sale of the Notes and the Preferred Shares. See "Use of Proceeds" and "Plan of Distribution" herein. Bear Stearns has also entered into certain indemnification agreements with the Servicer relating to, among other things, the acquisition of the Initial Portfolio Collateral. An affiliate of the Initial Purchaser may be a Synthetic Security Counterparty and/or a Default Swap Counterparty.

20. Servicer Affiliates Reliance on Rule 3a-7; Potential Indenture Amendments. HFP, an affiliate of the Servicer will, on the Closing Date, purchase all of the Class II Preferred Shares. The Servicer will act as the manager for HFP. HFP and Highland Financial Trust, the owner of substantially all of the limited partnership interests of HFP, are relying on an exception from the definition of investment company and the requirement to register under the Investment Company Act that in turn depends, in part, upon the Issuer not being an investment company required to register under the Investment Company Act by reason of Rule 3a-7 thereunder. It is expected that, in connection with certain capital raising activities of Highland Financial Trust, the SEC may consider the applicability of Rule 3a-7 to the Issuer. If it were determined that the Issuer cannot rely on Rule 3a-7, the Servicer may cause the Issuer to amend the Indenture without the consent of the Holders of the Notes and without the consent of the Holders of the Preferred Shares to enable the Issuer to rely on Rule 3a-7, which could require additional limitations and prohibitions on the circumstances under which the Issuer may sell assets, on the type of assets that the Issuer may acquire out of the proceeds of assets that mature, are refinanced or otherwise sold, on the period during which such transactions may occur, on the level of transactions that may occur or on other provisions of the Indenture and could adversely affect the earnings of the Issuer and its ability to make payments on the Notes and distributions to the Preferred Shares. As a condition to the effectiveness of any such amendment to the Indenture, the Issuer, the Trustee and the Initial Purchaser will (i) satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to such amendment and (ii) receive a customary, unqualified opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such amendment and assuming compliance with the Indenture as so amended, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act. Such nationally recognized law firm may also be acting as counsel to the Servicer, certain Holders of Notes and/or Preferred Shares. The interests of any such parties may not coincide with the interest of other Holders of Notes and/or Preferred Shares. See "Legal Structure—The Indenture—Modification of Indenture."

21. Dependence on Key Personnel of the Servicer. The performance of the Portfolio Collateral will be highly dependent on the financial and managerial expertise of the Servicer. See "The Servicer" and "The Servicing Agreement." The loss of one or more of the individuals servicing the Portfolio Collateral could have a significant material adverse effect on the performance of the Portfolio Collateral. Although the Servicer will commit a significant amount of its efforts to the servicing of the Portfolio Collateral, it manages and will manage in the future other products and vehicles and is not required (and will not be able) to devote all of its time to the servicing of the Portfolio Collateral.

22. Ratings of the Notes. The ratings of the Notes by S&P address solely the likelihood of timely payment of the Periodic Interest Amount on and the ultimate payment of the Aggregate Principal Amount of each Class of Senior Class A Notes, the timely payment of the Class X Payment and the ultimate payment of the Cumulative Interest Amount and the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes. The ratings of the Notes by Moody's address the ultimate cash receipt of all required payments as provided by the governing documents, and are based on the expected loss to the Noteholders of each Class relative to the promise of receiving the present value of such payments. A rating is not a recommendation to purchase, hold or sell securities, in as much as such rating does not comment as to market price or suitability for a particular investor and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating organization.

23. Certain Tax Considerations. Investors in the Notes should review carefully the tax considerations set forth in "Certain Tax Considerations" herein.

24. Certain ERISA Considerations. Investors in the Notes should review carefully the ERISA considerations set forth in "Certain ERISA Considerations" herein.

25. Legislation and Regulations In Connection With the Prevention of Money Laundering. The Uniting and Strengthening America By Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the "USA PATRIOT Act"), signed into law on and effective as of October 26, 2001, imposes anti-money laundering obligations on different types of financial institutions, including banks, broker-dealers and investment companies. The USA PATRIOT Act requires the Secretary of the United States Department of the Treasury (the "Treasury") to prescribe regulations to define the types of investment companies subject to the USA PATRIOT Act and the related anti-money laundering obligations. It is not clear whether Treasury will require entities such as the Issuer to enact anti-money laundering policies. It is possible that Treasury will promulgate regulations requiring the Co-Issuers or the Initial Purchaser or other service providers to the Co-Issuers, in connection with the establishment of anti-money laundering procedures, to share information with governmental authorities with respect to investors in the Notes and/or the Preferred Shares. Such legislation and/or regulations could require the Co-Issuers to implement additional restrictions on the transfer of the Notes and/or the Preferred Shares. As may be required, the Issuer reserves the right to request such information and take such actions as are necessary to enable it to comply with the USA PATRIOT Act.

26. Emerging Requirements of the European Union. As part of the harmonization of transparency requirements, the European Commission is scheduled to adopt a directive known as the Transparency Obligations Directive that, among other things, will regulate issuers of securities that are offered to the public or admitted to trading on a European Union regulated market. The listing of Notes on any European Union stock exchange would subject the Issuer to regulation under this directive, although the requirements applicable to the Issuer are not yet fully clarified. The Indenture will not require the Issuer to apply for, list or maintain a listing for any Class of Notes on a European Union stock exchange if compliance with this directive (or other requirements adopted by the European Commission or a relevant member state) becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Servicer. Should the Notes be delisted from any exchange, the ability of the Holders of such Notes to sell such Notes in the secondary market may be negatively affected.

27. Document Repository. Pursuant to the Indenture, the Issuer will consent to the posting of this Confidential Offering Circular, the Indenture and certain periodic reports required to be delivered pursuant to the Indenture, together with any amendments or modifications thereto, to the internet-based password protected electronic repository of transaction documents relating to privately offered and sold collateralized debt obligation securities located at "www.cdolibrary.com".

THE ISSUER AND THE CO-ISSUER

The Issuer

Rockwall CDO Ltd. (the "Issuer") was incorporated in the Cayman Islands on June 7, 2005, for the express purpose of issuing the Notes and the Preferred Shares, acquiring, disposing of and holding the assets described herein and engaging in the related transactions contemplated hereby.

The Issuer has no significant prior operating experience. ## DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

Certain definitions used herein are set forth in the Glossary of Certain Defined Terms (the "Glossary") set forth as Annex A hereto.

General

The Notes will be issued on the Closing Date pursuant to an indenture (the "Indenture"), to be dated as of the Closing Date, among the Co-Issuers and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as trustee (the "Trustee") and as securities intermediary. The following summaries generally describe certain provisions of the Notes and the Indenture. The summaries do not purport to be complete and are subject to, and are qualified in their entirety by reference to, the provisions of the Notes and the Indenture. When particular provisions or terms used in the Notes and the Indenture are referred to, the actual provisions (including definitions of terms) are incorporated by reference. Copies of the Indenture may be obtained by Holders of the Notes upon request to the Issuer or the Initial Purchaser.

The Indenture limits the amount of Notes that can be issued thereunder to the Class X Notes, the Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes in the aggregate principal amounts and notional principal amounts, as applicable, set forth on the cover hereof. Subject to the foregoing, the Notes will be issued in minimum denominations of U.S.$200,000 and integral multiples of U.S.$1 in excess of such minimum denomination.

The Notes will be non-recourse obligations of the Co-Issuers and all amounts payable in respect of the Notes will be paid solely from and to the extent of the available proceeds from the Trust Estate. To the extent the assets of the Trust Estate are insufficient to pay all amounts due on the Notes on each Payment Date, on the Final Maturity Date or otherwise, the Co-Issuers shall have no further obligations in respect of the Notes and any sums outstanding and unpaid shall be extinguished.

The Record Date for each Payment Date (including the Final Maturity Date) is the Business Day immediately preceding such Payment Date; provided, however, if Definitive Notes are issued, the Record Date for such Definitive Notes shall be the fifteenth calendar day preceding such Payment Date. Payments of interest and principal or any other amount payable on or in respect of the Notes will be made on each Payment Date by wire transfer to registered Holders of the Notes on the Record Date applicable to such Payment Date to accounts maintained by such registered Holders as reflected in the Note Register. In the case of redemption, notice will be mailed to each Holder of record no later than twenty days before the Payment Date on which the final principal payment is expected to be made to such Holder.

Under the terms of the Indenture, the Trustee will act as a paying agent (together with any other paying agent appointed by the Co-Issuers from time to time, the "Paying Agents"). JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association will act as the paying and transfer agent for the Preferred Shares (the "Paying and Transfer Agent"). The Issuer will appoint an off-shore Paying and Transfer Agent (other than in the Cayman Islands) (in addition to and not in lieu of JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association) if requested by at least 33-2/3% of the Preferred Shares, with the cost of any such agent to be borne by the Issuer. There can be no assurance that any investor requesting payment from an off-shore paying agent will receive payments on the same day that they would have received such payments had the payments been made by JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association. Payments of principal of and interest on and other amounts in respect of the Notes will be made by the Trustee to the Paying Agents from funds available in the Collection Account established under the Indenture as described herein.

All distributions in respect of the Portfolio Collateral will be deposited directly into the Collection Account and will be available to the extent described herein for the payment of amounts payable in respect of the Notes and, under the circumstances set forth herein and in the Indenture, for the applications described herein.

The Notes are subject to restrictions on transfer. See "—Form, Transfer and Transfer Restrictions." Subject to such restrictions, the Notes may be transferred or exchanged at the office designated by the Trustee for such purposes without the payment of any service charge, other than tax or other governmental charges payable in connection therewith.

The Class A-1LB Notes are subordinated in right of payment to the Class A-1LA Notes to the extent described herein. In addition, all payments of principal on the Class A-1L Notes that are made in connection with an Initial Deposit Redemption, a Rating Confirmation Failure, a Tax Event Redemption or an Optional Redemption will be paid on a pro rata basis with the Class X Notes as described herein. To the extent Periodic Interest accrued at the Applicable Periodic Rate with respect to any Periodic Interest Accrual Period is not paid on the related Payment Date, the amount of such interest shortfall will accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate and will be paid (to the extent funds are available therefor as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate with respect to the Periodic Interest Accrual Period relating to such subsequent Payment Date (the amount of such shortfall, together with interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, the "Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount" and, with the Periodic Interest Amount for such subsequent Payment Date, the "Cumulative Interest Amount" with respect to such Payment Date). Interest will be calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days and the actual number of days elapsed.

The Class A-2L Notes are subordinated in right of payment to the Class A-1L Notes and the Class X Notes to the extent described herein.

The failure to pay in full Periodic Interest on the Class A-3L Notes as a result of insufficient funds being available therefor will not constitute an Event of Default so long as any Senior Class A Notes or Class X Notes are Outstanding. Interest will be calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days and the actual number of days elapsed.

No principal will be payable in respect of the Class A-3L Notes (and principal collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be applied as described herein) during the Revolving Period, except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-3L Notes. on such Payment Date, the Holders of the Class X Notes have been paid the Cumulative Class X Payment due to them on such Payment Date, and, in the case of the Final Maturity Date, until the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Senior Class A Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid in full.

The Class A-4L Notes will provide for the payment of periodic interest on the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof ("Periodic Interest" and, the amount of such periodic interest, the "Periodic Interest Amount" with respect to the Class A-4L Notes) (to the extent of funds available therefor as described herein) for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period at the rate of 1.70% per annum above LIBOR (the "Applicable Periodic Rate" with respect to the Class A-3L Notes) on each Payment Date commencing on the November 1, 2006 Payment Date. The failure to pay in full Periodic Interest on the Class B-1L Notes as a result of insufficient funds being available therefor will not constitute an Event of Default so long as any Class A Notes or Class X Notes are Outstanding. Interest will be calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days and the actual number of days elapsed.

No principal will be payable in respect of the Class B-1L Notes until the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid in full, except with respect to the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement. Principal payments are not expected to begin until the commencement of the Amortization Period (except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Tax Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class B-1L Notes or in connection with the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement) and are to continue until the Payment Date on which the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes has been paid in full. In connection with a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption, an Optional Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption, no principal in respect of the Class B-1L Notes will be payable until the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes and (other than with respect to an O/C Redemption or a Special Redemption) the Class X Notes have been paid in full. All outstanding principal of the Class B-1L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date. The Class B-1L Notes are subordinated in right of payment to the Class A Notes and the Class X Notes to the extent described herein.

The Class X Notes will provide for the payment of periodic interest on the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof ("Periodic Interest" and, the amount of such periodic interest, the "Periodic Interest Amount" with respect to the Class X Notes) (to the extent of funds available therefor as described herein) for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period at the rate of 0.36% per annum above LIBOR (the "Applicable Periodic Rate" with respect to the Class X Notes) on each Payment Date, commencing on the November 1, 2006 Payment Date through and including the August 1, 2013 Payment Date. Any such interest will be calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days and the actual number of days elapsed. Such amount may be reduced in connection with a redemption of the Class X Notes, as set forth in the Indenture.

To the extent the Class X Payment is not paid on any Payment Date, the amount of such shortfall will accrue interest at the rate of 0.36% per annum above LIBOR (the "Class X Periodic Interest Rate") (to the extent funds are available therefor and subject to the priority of distribution provisions described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates (the amount of such shortfall, together with interest thereon, calculated at the Class X Periodic Interest Rate, the "Class X Shortfall Amount" and, together with the Class X Payment for such subsequent Payment Date, the "Cumulative Class X Payment" with respect to such Payment Date). The Class X Shortfall Amount shall be payable after payment of the Class X Payment relating to such subsequent Payment Date. Payments of principal on the Class X Notes that are made in connection with an Initial Deposit Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption, an Optional Redemption or a Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption will be paid on a pro rata basis with the Class A-1LA Notes as described herein. The Class X Notes are not subject to an O/C Redemption or a Special Redemption. The Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class X Notes will be reduced on each Payment Date by the Class X Principal Payment for such Payment Date. The Holders of the Class X Notes are entitled to receive the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class X Notes on the Final Maturity Date, whether such Final Maturity Date occurs in connection with a redemption of the Class X Notes as described herein or otherwise.

To the extent assets of the Trust Estate are insufficient to pay all amounts due on the Notes, the Co-Issuers shall have no further obligations in respect of the Notes.

The Co-Issuers will not be required to pay additional amounts to Holders of any Class of Notes if taxes or related amounts are withheld from payments on the Notes or any payments on any item of Portfolio Collateral or other assets of the Co-Issuers. However, such withholding tax on payments on items of Portfolio Collateral could result in the Notes being redeemed by the Issuer. See "—Tax Event Redemption."

Determination of LIBOR

For purposes of calculating the Applicable Periodic Rate, the Issuer initially will appoint JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as agent with respect to the determination of LIBOR (in such capacity, the "Calculation Agent"). LIBOR will be determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the following provisions:

On the second London Business Day prior to the commencement of a Periodic Interest Accrual Period (each such day, a "LIBOR Determination Date"), LIBOR shall equal the rate, as obtained by the Calculation Agent, for three-month U.S. dollar deposits which appears on Telerate Page 3750 (as defined in the 2000 ISDA Definitions and as reported by Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News) or such other page as may replace such Page 3750, as of 11:00 a.m. (London time) on such LIBOR Determination Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, LIBOR for the initial Periodic Interest Accrual Period will be determined through the use of straight-line interpolation by reference to two rates calculated in accordance with the provisions above, one of which shall be for five-month U.S. dollar deposits and the other of which shall be for six-month U.S. dollar deposits.

If, on any LIBOR Determination Date, such rate does not appear on Telerate Page 3750 or such other page as may replace such Page 3750, the Calculation Agent shall determine the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations of the Reference Banks to leading banks in the London interbank market for three-month (or five-month and six-month, as applicable) U.S. dollar deposits in an amount determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to requests for quotations as of approximately 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the LIBOR Determination Date made by the Calculation Agent to the Reference Banks. If, on any LIBOR Determination Date, at least two of the Reference Banks provide such quotations, LIBOR shall equal such arithmetic mean of such quotations. If, on any LIBOR Determination Date, only one or none of the Reference Banks provide such quotations, LIBOR shall be deemed to be the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations that leading banks in The City of New York selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer) are quoting on the relevant LIBOR Determination Date for three-month (or five-month and six-month, as applicable) U.S. dollar deposits in an amount determined by the Calculation Agent that is representative of a single transaction in such market at such time by reference to the principal London offices of leading banks in the London interbank market; provided that, if the Calculation Agent is required but is unable to determine a rate in accordance with at least one of the procedures provided above, LIBOR shall be LIBOR as determined on the previous LIBOR Determination Date. As used herein, "Reference Banks" means four major banks in the London interbank market selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer).

As soon as possible after 11:00 a.m. (New York time) on each LIBOR Determination Date, but in no event later than 11:00 a.m. (New York time) on the Business Day immediately following each LIBOR Determination Date, the Calculation Agent will notify the Issuer, the Trustee, the Servicer and (for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange) the Irish Stock Exchange, of LIBOR for the next Periodic Interest Accrual Period. The Calculation Agent will also specify to the Issuer the quotations upon which LIBOR is based, and in any event the Calculation Agent shall notify the Issuer before 5:00 p.m. (New York time) on each LIBOR Determination Date that either: (i) it has determined or is in the process of determining LIBOR or (ii) it has not determined and is not in the process of determining LIBOR together with its reasons therefor.

Upon receipt of notice of LIBOR for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period from the Calculation Agent as described in the preceding paragraph, the Trustee will determine the Applicable Periodic Rate for each Class of Notes for such Periodic Interest Accrual Period and notify the Irish Stock Exchange of the Applicable Periodic Rate for each Class of Notes (for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange). The determination of LIBOR by the Calculation Agent and the Applicable Periodic Rate by the Trustee (in the absence of manifest error) will be final and binding upon all parties.

The Calculation Agent may be removed by the Issuer at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Issuer, or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine LIBOR for a Periodic Interest Accrual Period, the Issuer will promptly appoint as a replacement Calculation Agent a leading bank which is engaged in transactions in U.S. dollar deposits in the international U.S. dollar market and which does not control or is not controlled by or under common control with the Issuer or its affiliates. The Calculation Agent may not resign or be removed from its duties without a successor having been duly appointed.

Adjusted Collateral Collections

On each Payment Date, in accordance with the Note Valuation Report for the Calculation Date immediately preceding such Payment Date, Collateral Interest Collections, to the extent of Available Funds in the Collection Account (excluding from such Available Funds any Collateral Disposition Proceeds received during the Due Period relating to such Calculation Date to be applied by the Trustee during the related Due Period or the immediately succeeding Due Period to purchase Substitute Portfolio Collateral and, with respect to the purchase of Additional Portfolio Collateral as described in the Indenture, certain Collateral Principal Collections with respect to which the Issuer has entered into a commitment to purchase Portfolio Collateral prior to the end of such Due Period), and a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the Notes in an amount equal to U.S.$1,600,000 (the "Reserve Amount") to fund a portion of the payments to be made in accordance with Priority of Payments on any Payment Date constituting Collateral Interest Collections or Collateral Principal Collections at the direction of the Servicer, will be applied by the Trustee to pay each of the following in the order of priority set forth below:

Final Maturity Date.

On the Final Maturity Date (including an Optional Redemption Date or a Tax Event Redemption or any other Payment Date on which the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes is paid in full as described herein), in accordance with the Note Valuation Report for the Calculation Date immediately preceding the Final Maturity Date (or in the case of an Optional Redemption or a Tax Event Redemption, in accordance with the related redemption date statement delivered pursuant to the Indenture), Available Funds in the Collection Account in an amount equal to the sum of Adjusted Collateral Collections plus Collateral Disposition Proceeds, together with all available funds in the Expense Reimbursement Account and the Loan Funding Account, will be applied by the Trustee in the following order of priority:

- (i) to pay, pari passu, the Cumulative Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-1LA Notes, the Cumulative Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-1LB Notes and such Payment Date and the Class X Shortfall Amount plus the Periodic Interest Amount for the Class X Notes and such Payment Date;

The amount and frequency of principal and interest payments will depend on, among other things, the extent to which the Portfolio Collateral pledged to secure the Notes become items of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, are subject to early payment provisions or are retired prior to the Final Maturity Date through mandatory or optional redemption, sale, maturity or other liquidation or disposition and the extent to which Additional Portfolio Collateral meeting the requirements specified herein are available for purchase in circumstances in which Available Funds are to be used for the purchase of Additional Portfolio Collateral or in circumstances in which the Issuer may dispose of Portfolio Collateral and apply the proceeds thereof to the purchase of Substitute Portfolio Collateral as described herein as well as other factors, including the interest rates obtained in connection with the purchase of any such item of Portfolio Collateral or any Eligible Investment in which funds held in the accounts described herein may be maintained.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, with respect to Adjusted Collateral Collections held in the Collection Account in Eligible Investments pending application to purchase Portfolio Collateral, any such amounts not used to purchase Portfolio Collateral by the last day of the Due Period next succeeding the Due Period in which such amounts were collected may be used to purchase Portfolio Collateral in subsequent Due Periods in accordance with "Security for the Notes."

In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, upon the direction of the Issuer (as directed by and in the time and manner directed by the Servicer), Payment Date Equity Securities may be distributed on any Payment Date in lieu of cash as follows:

(i) Payment Date Equity Securities will be paid as Collateral Interest Collections in accordance with the Priority of Payments with respect to the Preferred Shares, and upon such payment, the aggregate amount of Collateral Interest Collections distributable to the Holders of the Preferred Shares on such Payment Date will be reduced by the value of such Payment Date Equity Securities. Payment Date Equity Securities distributed on any Payment Date shall be distributed to the Holders of the Preferred Shares in the same manner as Collateral Interest Collections would be distributable to such Holders of Preferred Shares on such Payment Date and subject to the same restriction as to payment set out in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement; and

(ii) in calculating the amounts of Collateral Interest Collections and Collateral Principal Collections for such Payment Date, Collateral Interest Collections in an amount equal to the value of Payment Date Equity Securities distributed to the Holders of the Preferred Shares shall be recharacterized as Collateral Principal Collections and distributed in accordance with the Priority of Payments herein.

Overcollateralization Tests

The "Overcollateralization Tests" are applicable until the Notes are retired and all amounts payable in respect thereof are paid, and are satisfied if the Class A Overcollateralization Ratio is at least equal to the Class A Overcollateralization Percentage (the "Class A Overcollateralization Test") and the Class B-1L Overcollateralization Ratio is at least equal to the Class B-1L Overcollateralization Percentage (the "Class B-1L Overcollateralization Test").

The "Class A Overcollateralization Percentage" is 107% and the "Class B-1L Overcollateralization Percentage" is 106%.

The "Class A Overcollateralization Ratio" means, with respect to a determination made as of any date of calculation, the ratio (expressed as a percentage) obtained by dividing (a) the sum of (1) the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral in the Trust Estate as of such date, calculated in accordance with the Overcollateralization Ratio Adjustment plus (2) the sum of the Balance of Eligible Investments and cash in the Collection Account representing Collateral Principal Collections plus the Balance of Eligible Investments and cash in the Initial Deposit Account plus unpaid Purchased Accrued Interest, each as of such date by (b) the sum of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes (including for this purpose any Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts with respect to such Classes of Notes not paid when due, until such amounts, if any, are paid in full) as of such date.

The "Class B-1L Overcollateralization Ratio" is calculated in the same manner, but reduces the numerator by the Overcollateralization Haircut Amount and includes in the denominator the Class B-1L Notes (including, in each case any Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts with respect to such Classes of Notes not paid when due, until any such amounts are paid in full).

With respect to an item of Portfolio Collateral that it is both eligible to be included in the Overcollateralization Haircut Amount and is subject to an Overcollateralization Ratio Adjustment, for purposes of calculating the Class B-1L Overcollateralization Ratio, such item of Portfolio Collateral will not be discounted multiple times, but will be treated in the category that results in the largest discount to the par amount of the Portfolio Collateral.

The "Overcollateralization Ratio Adjustment" means, for purposes of calculating the Overcollateralization Ratios (i) items of Equity Portfolio Collateral shall not be included as Portfolio Collateral, (ii) items of Deferred Interest PIK Bonds and Defaulted Portfolio Collateral shall be included at the lesser of (a) the Market Value of such Deferred Interest PIK Bond and item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral and (b) the Applicable Percentage for such Deferred Interest PIK Bond and item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral multiplied by its Principal Balance; provided that any Portfolio Loan that has been an item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral for four years shall not be included as Portfolio Collateral and any CLO Security that has been an item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral for three years shall not be included as Portfolio Collateral, (iii) with respect to items of Discount Portfolio Collateral, an amount equal to the original purchase price of such item of Discount Portfolio Collateral shall be included as Portfolio Collateral and (iv) to the extent the Aggregate Principal Amount of Current Pay Obligations exceeds 7.5% of the Aggregate Par Amount, such excess shall be included as Defaulted Portfolio Collateral. If an item of Portfolio Collateral could be classified in more than one of the categories set forth in clauses (i) through (iv), such item of Portfolio Collateral will not be discounted multiple times but will be treated in the applicable category that results in the largest discount to the par amount of such item of Portfolio Collateral. Notwithstanding the foregoing, there may be included as Portfolio Collateral (with respect to items (i) through (iv) above) such greater amount as confirmed by the Rating Agencies which will not result in a reduction or withdrawal of the then-current ratings assigned by them to any Class of the Notes.

Applicability of Overcollateralization Tests

At any time that the Notes are Outstanding, if any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied on any Calculation Date related to a Payment Date, amounts that are junior in right of payment to such Overcollateralization Test as described under "—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes (or, in the case of the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes and Class B-1L Notes, first to pay Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts and then to pay principal), in the order described under "—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", in an O/C Redemption to the extent necessary to satisfy the applicable Overcollateralization Tests (recalculated on such Payment Date, but as of such Calculation Date, after taking into account such O/C Redemption) in accordance with the provisions described herein.

In addition, generally, satisfaction or, in certain cases, maintenance, of both Overcollateralization Tests is a condition to the purchase or sale of Portfolio Collateral during certain specified periods. See "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral".

Interest Coverage Test

The "Interest Coverage Test" is applicable on each Payment Date after the second Payment Date and will be satisfied as of such Payment Date if the Interest Coverage Ratio is at least equal to 1.5%. The "Interest Coverage Ratio" means, with respect to any Payment Date after the second Payment Date, a number (expressed as a percentage) calculated by dividing (a) four times the amount by which (i) the Collateral Interest Collections received or scheduled to be received during the Due Period in which such calculation occurs (other than Collateral Interest Collections (including deferred interest thereon) scheduled to be received on any item of Portfolio Collateral that is not paying or expected to pay current interest), exceeds (ii) the Periodic Reserve Amount (excluding amounts payable on the Class B-1L Notes) as of such Payment Date, by (b) the Aggregate Principal Amount of Class A Notes with respect to such Payment Date, as adjusted, to take into account any O/C Redemption to occur on the Payment Date related to such Due Period pursuant the Indenture.

Applicability of Interest Coverage Test

At any time after the second Payment Date that any of the Notes are Outstanding, if the Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied on any Calculation Date related to a Payment Date, amounts that are junior in right of payment to the Interest Coverage Test as described under "—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes in the order described under "—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", in an O/C Redemption to the extent necessary to satisfy the Interest Coverage Test (recalculated on such Payment Date, but as of such Calculation Date, after taking into account such O/C Redemption) in accordance with the provisions described herein.

In addition, satisfaction of the Interest Coverage Test on the prior Payment Date is a condition to certain purchases and sales of Portfolio Collateral during certain specified periods as described herein. See "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral."

Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement

On each Payment Date after the second Payment Date, even if the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test are satisfied, Collateral Interest Collections that would otherwise be used for payments that are junior in right of payment to the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement, as described under "—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions—Revolving Period," will be applied during the Revolving Period, to the payment of principal of the Class B-1L Notes and will be made available to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral or, during the Amortization Period, will be applied to the payment of the Class B-1L Notes and to pay principal of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes) in the order described under "—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions—Amortization Period." The "Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement" with respect to any Payment Date is the amount necessary such that:

(a) the sum of:

(i) the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral in the Trust Estate as of the Calculation Date relating to such Payment Date, plus

(ii) the sum of the Balance of Eligible Investments and cash in the Collection Account representing Collateral Principal Collections plus the Balance of Eligible Investments and cash in the Initial Deposit Account plus unpaid Purchased Accrued Interest as of such date, less

(iii) the Overcollateralization Haircut Amount (if any), equals or exceeds:

(b) 107% of the amount necessary, after giving effect to the amount applied to any O/C Redemption of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes) to satisfy the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test (if applicable) on such Payment Date, to repay the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes), including any Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Additional Collateral

Deposit Requirement is a positive number that is more than the amount available therefor in the Priority of Payments, then the amount distributed with respect to the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement shall be such lesser amount available.

For purposes of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement, no item of Equity Portfolio Collateral shall be included as Portfolio Collateral. In addition for purposes of this requirement, (i) with respect to Defaulted Portfolio Collateral as to which there has occurred a payment default or an event of bankruptcy, only the portion equal to the lesser of (a) the Market Value of such item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral and (b) the Applicable Percentage multiplied by the Principal Balance of such item of Portfolio Collateral, shall be included as Portfolio Collateral and (ii) with respect to items of Discount Portfolio Collateral, only an amount equal to the original purchase price of such item of Discount Portfolio Collateral shall be included as Portfolio Collateral. For purposes of calculating the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement, to the extent an item of Portfolio Collateral is considered Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, Discount Portfolio Collateral and/or is included in the Overcollateralization Haircut Amount, such item of Portfolio Collateral will not be discounted multiple times, but will be treated in the category that results in the largest discount to the par amount of the Portfolio Collateral.

Rating Confirmation Failure

The Issuer will request that each Rating Agency confirm after the Effective Date that it has not reduced or withdrawn (and not restored) the ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes (a "Rating Confirmation"). If the Issuer is unable to obtain a Rating Confirmation by the 35th day after the Effective Date (a "Rating Confirmation Failure"), on the next Payment Date and on each subsequent Payment Date during the Revolving Period, amounts that are junior in right of payment to such Rating Confirmation Failure, as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied to the redemption of the Notes (or, in the case of the Class B-1L Notes, first to pay Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts, then to pay principal) until each such Class is paid in full, in the order and according to the priorities described herein (a "Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption"), to the extent necessary to receive a Rating Confirmation, in accordance with the provisions described herein. The Trustee will give notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange if any Class of Notes is then listed on the Irish Stock Exchange.

O/C Redemption

If on any Calculation Date any of the Overcollateralization Tests or the Interest Coverage Test are required to be satisfied and are not satisfied, amounts that are junior in right of payment to such test as described under "—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied to the redemption of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes (or, in the case of the Class B-1L Notes, first to pay Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts, then to pay principal) in the order described under "—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions" (an "O/C Redemption") to the extent necessary in order to satisfy both the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test. A redemption of the Notes through a Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption or an O/C Redemption is sometimes referred to herein as a "Mandatory Redemption". Any Mandatory Redemption will be effected at par. The Class X Notes are not subject to O/C Redemption, but are subject to Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption. The Trustee will give notice of a Mandatory Redemption to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange if any Class of Notes is then listed on the Irish Stock Exchange.

Initial Deposit Redemption

On the Effective Date, to the extent that the full amount of the Deposit is not used to purchase or committed to be used to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Amount (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date) at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount in accordance with the guidelines described herein and in the Indenture, an amount (not in excess of the amount of the Deposit not so used to purchase or committed to be used to purchase) equal to the excess of the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount over the par amount of Portfolio Collateral actually acquired (or committed to be acquired) (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date) will be applied by the Issuer on the November 2006 Payment Date (the "Initial Deposit Redemption Date") to make principal payments on the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes, on a pro rata basis (an "Initial Deposit Redemption") except, if the amount of the Deposit not so used to purchase or committed to be used to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral does not exceed U.S.$2,000,000 in the aggregate, such amount will be transferred to the Collection Account on the Effective Date and applied as Collateral Principal Collections. The Trustee will give notice of an Initial Deposit Redemption to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange if any Class of Notes is then listed on the Irish Stock Exchange.

Optional Redemption

On any Payment Date after the Non-Call Period (the "Optional Redemption Date," which date shall be considered the Final Maturity Date in the case of a Total Optional Redemption (as hereinafter defined)), subject to satisfaction of certain conditions described herein, the Notes will be redeemed, in whole or in part, by the Co-Issuers or the Issuer, as applicable, in accordance with the priority of distributions described herein, if such redemption is directed by the holders of Preferred Shares in the amounts described below.

(a) In the case of an Optional Redemption in whole (a "Total Optional Redemption"):

(i) the Holders of at least 75% of the outstanding Preferred Shares eligible to vote direct the Co-Issuer or the Issuer to redeem the Notes; provided that any Preferred Shares beneficially owned or controlled by the Servicer, entities affiliated with the Servicer or clients of the Servicer (collectively, the "Servicer Entities") in excess of the Original HFP Share Amount, shall be excluded from, and be deemed ineligible to participate in, any such vote to direct any Total Optional Redemption;

(ii) sufficient liquidation proceeds from the Portfolio Collateral must exist to effect the redemption of all Notes in full at their Redemption Price in accordance with the priority of distributions described herein; and

(b) in the case of an Optional Redemption in part (a "Partial Optional Redemption" and together with a Total Optional Redemption, referred to herein as an "Optional Redemption"):

(i) the Holders of at least 10% of the outstanding Preferred Shares eligible to vote direct the Co-Issuer or the Issuer to redeem the Notes in part; provided that any Preferred Shares beneficially owned or controlled by the Servicer Entities, including any HFP Shares, shall be excluded from, and be deemed ineligible to participate in, any such vote to direct any Partial Optional Redemption;

(ii) the Holders of Preferred Shares directing such Partial Optional Redemption shall specify the percentage of Notes that will be subject to redemption pro rata (the "Partial Redemption Percentage"); provided that the Partial Redemption Percentage must be the percentage equivalent to at least 10% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Notes as of the Closing Date; and

(iii) the following conditions must be satisfied:

(1) the Partial Redemption Percentage of the Notes must be redeemed pro rata at their respective Optional Redemption Price,

(2) the Collateral Quality Matrix tests, Overcollateralization Tests, Interest Coverage Tests and any other eligibility criteria with respect to the Portfolio Collateral must be satisfied before and after giving effect to such redemption; provided that the degree of compliance with the Moody's Weighted Average Rating Test and the Weighted Average Margin Test shall not be diminished after giving effect to such redemption,

(3) any applicable Default Swaps of the Issuer must be modified or terminated in a manner consistent with the economic effect of such redemption and in consideration of the Portfolio Collateral and Eligible Investments that will be owned by the Issuer after giving effect to such redemption, and any net termination payments payable by the Issuer must be paid,

(4) the Rating Condition must be satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency,

(5) not more than three (3) prior Partial Optional Redemptions may have occurred, and

(6) no claims may be pending against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and no judgments may have been rendered against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer which exceed, or reasonably could be expected to result in liabilities that exceed, in the aggregate, $100,000, unless adequate funds have been reserved or set aside for the payment thereof.

In connection with any Optional Redemption, the Issuer may use all funds credited to the Collection Account to provide for payment of the Optional Redemption Price. If there are not sufficient funds in the Collection Account as of the date the notice of redemption is given to pay the Optional Redemption Price on the Optional Redemption Date and all such payments, fees and expenses (including any termination payments with respect to any Synthetic Securities and any Default Swaps), the Servicer is required to give the Trustee written direction to sell Portfolio Collateral in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay the Optional Redemption Price in full. The Trustee will give notice of an Optional Redemption to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange if any Class of Notes is then listed on the Irish Stock Exchange.

The Servicer shall have the right to purchase the Preferred Shares held by any Holder that directs the Issuer to effect a Partial Optional Redemption at a price equal to the liquidation value of such Preferred Shares.

Tax Event Redemption

The Notes are also subject to redemption on any Payment Date, at the option of the Issuer, in whole but not in part, at the direction of at least 66-2/3% of the Preferred Shares or a majority of the Controlling Class (but only if the Aggregate Principal Balance of Portfolio Collateral is less than 100% of the Class A-1L Notes) on any Payment Date at the Tax Event Redemption Price, if as a result of (i) change in tax law, rule or regulation or the interpretation thereof, the payments to be received on the Portfolio Collateral are reduced as a result of the imposition of withholding tax, (ii) the Issuer is otherwise subjected to tax such that the income of the Issuer is reduced in an amount determined by such holders of Preferred Shares to be material, (iii) (A) one or more items of Portfolio Collateral that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more items of Portfolio Collateral that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them and (B) in any Due Period the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on new withholding tax obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on increased rate withholding tax obligations, in each case to the extent not "grossed-up" (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period, or (iv) taxes, fees, assessments or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any 12-month period in excess of $2,000,000, other than liabilities for withholding taxes included in clause (iii) above.

As the result of the ownership of Preferred Shares and Notes by the Servicer Entities, and the ability to vote the Preferred Shares and the Notes owned by the Servicer Entities up to a maximum amount equal to the Original HFP Share Amount, the affirmative vote or approval of the Preferred Shares owned by such Servicer Entities, may be required in order to cause an Optional Redemption or a Tax Redemption of the Notes.

Special Redemption

The Notes (other than the Class X Notes) are subject to redemption in part on any Payment Date (and on one or more Payment Dates) during the Revolving Period, at the option of the Issuer acting at the direction of the Servicer, if more than U.S.$2,000,000 of Collateral Principal Collections received are not applied to the purchase of Additional Portfolio Collateral selected by the Servicer and satisfying the criteria described herein by the earlier of ninety days of receipt or the last day of the Revolving Period, in an amount of at least U.S.$2,000,000 as described under "—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions—Revolving Period—Collateral Principal Collections".

The Trustee will give notice of any redemption which the Issuer and the Servicer have directed to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange if any Class of Notes is then listed on the Irish Stock Exchange.

Extension of the Revolving Period and the Final Maturity Date

General

The Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Revolving Period to the applicable Extended Revolving Period End Date up to a maximum of four times (so that the Notes can only be extended to 2037) if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously affected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date, (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied, (iii) the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Revolving Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date and (iv) no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Final Maturity Date of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes) shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Final Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Notes (other than the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes) or Preferred Shares (other than as may be required pursuant to the Extension Conditions) or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or any other transaction document (the "Maturity Extension"). In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes or Preferred Shares wishing to sell such Notes or Preferred Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to "—Extension Procedure" below (such Notes or Preferred Shares as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, "Extension Sale Securities"). Each Holder providing an Extension Sale Notice shall be deemed to agree that no Extension Sale Securities shall be purchased unless all Extension Sale Securities are purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date and the other Extension Conditions are satisfied as of such date. The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the "Extension Conditions") are satisfied:

(i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;

(ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions herein, in the Indenture and the Preferred Share Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Notes and Preferred Shares and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);

(iii) (a) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) either (A) the Class B-1L Overcollateralization Ratio is at least 107.5% and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied as of the related Extension Determination Date and the Interest Coverage Test was satisfied on the immediately preceding Payment Date, the rating of each Class of Notes by Moody's has not been downgraded, withdrawn or qualified from that in effect on the Closing Date (unless it subsequently has been reinstated to the rating assigned on the Closing Date) or (B) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody's (so long as any Notes are then rated by Moody's); and

(iv) (a) the Holders of 100% of the Outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes have delivered the Extension Sale Notice in the Extension Sale Notice Period or (b) if the Holders of 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes fail to deliver an Extension Sale Notice pursuant to the preceding clause (a), either (A) the Issuer, acting through the Servicer, notifies the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes in writing not later than the last day of the Extension Sale Notice Period that such Class A-1LA Notes shall constitute "Extension Sale Securities" (as a result of which such Class A-1LA Notes must be purchased by an Extension Qualifying Purchaser) or (B) the Holders of 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes have consented in writing to the Maturity Extension not later than the last day of the Extension Sale Notice Period.

In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Holder of Notes other than Extension Sale Securities and the Class X Notes shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment. Holders of Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment. The obligation to make any Extension Bonus Payment shall not be rated by the Rating Agencies. The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to any applicable qualifying beneficial owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the priority of distributions on a Payment Date shall not be considered "due and payable" hereunder. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Final Maturity Date and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Notes. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer.

Extension Procedure

No later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer of its election to extend the Revolving Period (the "Extension Notice"), the Trustee shall deliver the Extension Notice to all Holders of Notes (other than the Class X Notes) and the Preferred Shares Paying and Transfer Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preferred Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), in the form set out in the Indenture, and shall request the Rating Condition for the Maturity Extension from S&P, if applicable. Any Holder of Notes (other than the Class X Notes) and Preferred Shares may give irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") within 30 days after the Trustee has delivered the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell its Notes or Preferred Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. If the Holders of 100% of the Outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes have not delivered the Extension Sale Notice to the Trustee by the 20th calendar day after the date of the Extension Notice, the Trustee shall notify the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes of the date on which the Extension Sale Notice Period shall end and include a statement to the effect that (i) no Extension Sale Notice delivered after the end of the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be effective and (ii) the Class A-1LA Notes for which no Extension Sale Notice has been delivered may be treated as Extension Sale Securities pursuant to clause (v) of the Extension Conditions (as a result of which the Class A-1LA Notes must be purchased by an Extension Qualifying Purchaser). Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of Notes or Preferred Shares that has not given such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Notes or Preferred Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension. If clause (iii)(b)(A) of the Extension Conditions is not satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date as determined by the Issuer (or its agent), the Trustee shall request the Rating Condition to be satisfied with respect to Moody's. On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) shall confirm (i) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Notes or Preferred Shares in compliance with all transfer restrictions in the Indenture and the legends on such Notes or Preferred Shares and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (ii) whether the requirements of clause (iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (iii) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date. On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall become effective under the terms of the Indenture; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth above are satisfied. No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall deliver a notice to all Holders of Notes and the Preferred Shares Paying and Transfer Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preferred Shares), the Servicer, the Initial Purchaser, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) and the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depositary for any Notes subject to the Maturity Extension. None of the Initial Purchaser, the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any duty to act as an Extension Qualifying Purchaser.

Additional Issuance

At any time during the Revolving Period, the Issuer, as applicable, may issue and sell Additional Preferred Shares and use the proceeds from such issuance and sale (net of any fees and expenses incurred in connection with the issuance thereof, including, without limitation, compensation payable to the Initial Purchaser or any placement agent for any services provided in connection therewith) to purchase additional eligible Portfolio Collateral (which may include eligible Portfolio Collateral purchased from any Servicer Entity on an arms-length transaction basis) (an "Additional Issuance"); provided that certain conditions are satisfied, including without limitation: (a) such Additional Issuance will be a percentage (the "Additional Issuance Percentage") specified by the Servicer, of the original issue price of the Preferred Shares issued and Outstanding on the date of the Additional Issuance; (b) such Additional Preferred Shares must be issued for a cash sales price (the net sale proceeds to be used to purchase eligible Portfolio Collateral (or, pending such applications, deposited into the Collection Account and held in Eligible Investments)); (c) the terms (other than the date of issuance, the issue price, the date from which dividends will accrue and similar matters) of such Preferred Shares must be identical to the terms of the applicable Class of Preferred Shares; (d) the Holders of Preferred Shares must be notified in writing 30 days prior to such issuance; (e) the Servicer must consent to such Additional Issuance; and (f) Initial Purchaser must be notified in writing at least 30 days prior to such issuance.

Any amendment to the Indenture, Issuer's Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association or any other related documents required to provide for or facilitate such Additional Issuance will not require the consent of the Holders of Securities.

Prescription

Payment in respect of the Notes will cease to be due if not paid to the Holder due to insufficient instructions for a period of twenty years from the Relevant Date therefor. "Relevant Date" means the date on which the final payment in respect of the Notes first becomes due, except that if the full amount of the monies payable has not been duly received by the Paying Agent on or prior to such due date, it means the date on which such monies have been so received.

Form, Transfer and Transfer Restrictions

Upon issuance, the Notes of each Class sold to non-U.S. Persons (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act ("Regulation S")) (each, a "non-U.S. Person") in Offshore Transactions (as defined in Regulation S) in reliance on Regulation S, initially will be represented by a single, temporary global note in fully registered form without interest coupons (the "Temporary Regulation S Global Note"), which will be deposited with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee on behalf of The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") on behalf of Euroclear Bank, S.A./N.V., as operator of The Euroclear System ("Euroclear") and Clearstream Banking, société anonyme ("Clearstream").

Subject to the receipt by the Trustee of a certificate in the form provided by the Indenture from the person holding such interest, a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note may be exchanged for (i) after the 40th day after the later of the conclusion of the offering and the Closing Date (the "Exchange Date"), an interest in a permanent global note in fully registered form without coupons (the "Permanent Regulation S Global Note" and, together with the Temporary Regulation S Global Note, the "Regulation S Global Notes"), in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of such interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note or (ii) at any time for an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note (defined below), if a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note will be transferred to a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is a U.S. Person (defined below), which note will be registered in the name of such person.

Upon deposit of the Permanent Regulation S Global Note of a Class with the Trustee, as custodian for DTC or the common depository, as applicable, Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, will credit each purchaser (or its agent or custodian) with a principal amount of Notes of such Class equal to the principal amount thereof for which it has paid. The Holder of the Regulation S Global Notes (which will be DTC or its nominee) shall be the only person entitled to receive payments in respect of the Notes represented by such Regulation S Global Notes, and the Co-Issuers will be discharged by payment to, or to the order of, such Holder of such Regulation S Global Notes in respect of each amount so paid. Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear or of Clearstream as the Holder of a particular principal amount of Regulation S Global Notes must look solely to Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, for its share of each payment so made by the Co-Issuers to, or to the order of, the Holder of such Regulation S Global Notes. No person other than the Holder of the Regulation S Global Notes shall have any claim against the Co-Issuers in respect of any payments due on the Regulation S Global Notes.

Payments on the Regulation S Global Notes will be made pursuant to certain procedures established by DTC, provided that the final payment of principal and interest will be made upon presentation and endorsement of such Regulation S Global Notes at the office of a Paying Agent.

Definitive fully registered notes ("Definitive Notes") will be issued and exchanged for each Permanent Regulation S Global Note within 30 days of the occurrence of any of the following: (i) the Notes or any of them become immediately due and payable following an Event of Default under the Indenture; (ii) either Euroclear or Clearstream is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holiday, statutory or otherwise) or announces an intention permanently to cease business and no alternative clearance system satisfactory to the Trustee is available; or (iii) as a result of any amendment to, or change in, the laws or regulations of the Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which becomes effective on or after the Closing Date, the Co-Issuers or the Paying Agents are or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Notes which would not be required were the Notes in definitive registered form. Notwithstanding the foregoing, interests in any Temporary Regulation S Global Note or any definitive registered Note purchased by a non-U.S. Person in an Offshore Transaction in accordance with Regulation S may not be exchanged for a Definitive Note until receipt by the Trustee from the owner of such beneficial interest of a certificate in the form provided by the Indenture.

Upon issuance, the Notes sold in the United States to Qualified Institutional Buyers will be issued in book-entry form ("Rule 144A Global Notes") only through the facilities of DTC. So long as DTC or its nominee is the registered Holder of the Rule 144A Global Notes, DTC or such nominee, as the case may be, will be considered the absolute owner or Holder of such the Notes represented by such Rule 144A Global Notes for all purposes under the Indenture and such Notes. DTC or such nominee, as the case may be, will be the only person entitled to receive payments in respect of the Notes represented by such Rule 144A Global Notes and the Co-Issuers will be discharged by payment to DTC or such nominee. Each of the persons shown in the records of DTC as the beneficial owner of a Rule 144A Global Note must look solely to DTC for its share of each payment made by the Issuer to DTC. No person other than DTC shall have any claim against the Co-Issuers in respect of any payment due under the Rule 144A Global Notes.

Payments on the Rule 144A Global Notes will be made in accordance with the established procedures of DTC and the Co-Issuers will have no liability therefor. In addition, no beneficial owner of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note will be able to exchange or transfer such interest except in accordance with the applicable procedures of DTC. None of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, the Registrar or any Paying Agent will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in the Rule 144A Global Notes or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating thereto.

Definitive Notes will be issued and exchanged for each Rule 144A Global Note within 30 days of the occurrence of any of the following: (i) the Notes or any of them become immediately due and payable following an Event of Default under the Indenture; or (ii) DTC notifies the Issuer or the Trustee in writing that it is unwilling or unable to discharge properly its responsibilities as a depository with respect to the Rule 144A Global Notes or it ceases to be a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act (defined below), and the Issuer and the Trustee are unable to locate a qualified successor within 90 days after such notice.

Definitive Notes may be presented for registration of transfer (with the form of transfer endorsed thereon duly executed), at the office of the Registrar, without service charge but upon payment of any taxes and other governmental charges as described in the Indenture. Any registration of transfer will be effected upon the Trustee being satisfied with the documents of title and identity of the person making the request, upon their receipt of any applicable certificates and opinions relating to transfer restrictions, as described below, and subject to such reasonable regulations as the Issuer may from time to time agree with the Trustee, all as described in the Indenture.

The Issuer has initially appointed the Trustee as Registrar. Definitive Notes may be presented for payment or for transfer or exchange at the offices of the Registrar's agent, JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, 4 New York Plaza, ground floor, New York, New York 10004, Attention: WSS Window – WSS (Houston) – Rockwall CDO. The Issuer reserves the right to vary or terminate the appointment of the Registrar or to appoint additional or other registrars or to approve any change in the office through which any Registrar acts, provided that there will at all times be an office or agent located in New York, New York at which the Definitive Notes may be presented for payment or for transfer or exchange.

For so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of such exchange shall so require, the Issuer will have a listing agent and a paying agent (which shall be the "Irish Paying Agent") for the Notes in Ireland and payments on such Notes may be effected through the Irish Paying Agent. In the event that the Irish Paying Agent is replaced at any time during such period, notice of the appointment of any replacement will be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

A beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note may only be transferred to (a) a non-U.S. Person in an offshore transaction (as defined in Regulation S) (an "Offshore Transaction") in accordance with Regulation S (and in accordance with certain certification requirements in the Indenture) or (b) after the Exchange Date, a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note and who delivers a written certification (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that such person is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is acquiring such interest for its own account (together with certain other requirements set forth in the Indenture). Upon any exchange of a portion of a Regulation S Global Note for a Definitive Note, the Trustee shall endorse such Regulation S Global Note to reflect the reduction of the principal amount evidenced thereby.

Definitive Notes (or any interest therein) may only be transferred in accordance with the applicable laws of any state of the United States and (a) in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act involving a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is a U.S. Person as transferee (in accordance with the certification requirements of the Indenture) or (b) to a person who takes delivery in the form of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note and in such case only upon receipt by the Trustee of a written certification from the transferor (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that such transfer is being made to a non-U.S. Person in accordance with Regulation S. Upon any exchange of a Definitive Note for a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note, the Trustee shall endorse such Regulation S Global Note to reflect the increase in the principal amount evidenced thereby.

The Registrar for the Notes will not be required to accept for registration of transfer any Note except upon presentation of a certificate substantially in the form required by the Indenture representing that these restrictions on transfer have been complied with, and, if requested by the Issuer or the Trustee, an opinion of counsel in form and substance satisfactory to the Issuer or the Trustee to the effect that such transfer has been made in compliance with an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States and any other jurisdiction. See "Delivery of the Notes; Transfer Restrictions; Settlement."

No Note may be sold or transferred unless such sale or transfer will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. In addition, no Class B-1L Note may be sold or transferred to any Plan, or to any person acting on behalf of or with "plan assets" of any Plan, including an insurance company general account, unless the purchaser or transferee is eligible for the exemptive relief available under PTCE 96-23, 95-60, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14. See "Certain ERISA Considerations."

In addition, sales or other transfers of the Notes may only be made to a purchaser or other transferee (other than a non-U.S. Person in an offshore transaction under Regulation S) that is a Qualified Purchaser in a sale or transfer that would not require the Co-Issuers to become subject to the requirements of the Investment Company Act and the Notes will bear a legend to this effect. See "Delivery of the Notes; Transfer Restrictions; Settlement."

Each prospective purchaser will be deemed to (i) represent that such prospective purchaser is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is purchasing or acquiring Notes solely for its own account or is a non-U.S. Person, (ii) that it and each account for which it is purchasing is purchasing a Class of Notes in at least the related minimum denomination, (iii) that it is a 'single beneficial owner' for purposes of Section 3(c)(1) of the Investment Company Act and (iv) have made the additional representations described under "Delivery of the Notes; Transfer Restrictions; Settlement."

DTC is a limited purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and a "clearing agency" registered pursuant to Section 17A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). DTC was created to hold securities for its participants (the "DTC Participants") and to facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between DTC Participants through electronic computerized book-entries, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. DTC Participants include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations. Indirect access to the DTC system also is available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a DTC Participant, either directly or indirectly ("Indirect Participants").

Unless and until Definitive Notes are issued, all references to actions by Holders of the Rule 144A Global Notes holding through DTC will refer to actions taken by DTC upon instructions received from beneficial owners of the Rule 144A Global Notes through DTC Participants, and all references herein to payments, notices, reports, statements and other information to Holders of Rule 144A Global Notes will refer to payments, notices, reports and statements to DTC or its nominees, as the registered Holder of the Rule 144A Global Notes, for distribution to beneficial owners of Rule 144A Global Notes through DTC Participants in accordance with DTC procedures.

Clearstream is incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg as a professional depository. Clearstream holds securities for its participating organizations ("Clearstream, Luxembourg Participants") and facilitates the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between Clearstream, Luxembourg Participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of Clearstream, Luxembourg Participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Clearstream provides to its Clearstream, Luxembourg Participants, among other things, services for safekeeping, administration, clearance and settlement of internationally traded securities and securities lending and borrowing. Clearstream interfaces with domestic markets in several countries. As a professional depository, Clearstream is subject to regulation by the Luxembourg Monetary Institute. Clearstream, Luxembourg Participants are recognized financial institutions around the world, including underwriters, securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and certain other organizations and may include the Initial Purchaser. Indirect access to Clearstream is also available to others, such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Clearstream, Luxembourg Participant, either directly or indirectly.

Euroclear was created to hold securities for participants of Euroclear ("Euroclear Participants") and to clear and settle transactions between Euroclear Participants through simultaneous electronic book-entry delivery against payment, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates and any risk from lack of simultaneous transfers of securities and cash. Euroclear includes various other services, including securities lending and borrowing and interfaces with domestic markets in several countries generally similar to the arrangements for cross-market transfers with DTC described above. Euroclear is operated by Euroclear Bank S.A./N.V. (the "Euroclear Operator"), under contract with Euroclear Clearance System, S.C., a Belgian cooperative corporation (the "Cooperative"). All operations are conducted by the Euroclear Operator, and all Euroclear securities clearance accounts and Euroclear cash accounts are accounts with the Euroclear Operator, not the Cooperative. The Cooperative establishes policy for Euroclear on behalf of Euroclear Participants. Euroclear Participants include banks (including central banks), securities brokers and dealers and other professional financial intermediaries and may include the Initial Purchaser. Indirect access to Euroclear is also available to other firms that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Euroclear Participant, either directly or indirectly.

The Euroclear Operator is the Belgian branch of a New York banking corporation which is a member bank of the Federal Reserve System. As such, it is regulated and examined by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the New York State Banking Department, as well as the Belgian Banking Commission.

Securities clearance accounts and cash accounts with the Euroclear Operator are governed by the Terms and Conditions Governing Use of Euroclear and the related Operating Procedures of Euroclear and applicable Belgian law (collectively, the "Terms and Conditions"). The Terms and Conditions govern transfers of securities and cash within Euroclear, withdrawal of securities and cash from Euroclear, and receipts of payments with respect to securities in Euroclear. All securities in Euroclear are held on a fungible basis without attribution of specific certificates to specific securities clearance accounts. The Euroclear Operator acts under the Terms and Conditions only on behalf of Euroclear Participants and has no record of or relationship with persons holding through Euroclear Participants.

Option to Acquire Bond Insurance

The Indenture will provide that Holders of any Class of Notes may elect to acquire bond insurance, a surety bond or similar credit enhancement supporting the payment of principal and/or interest on such Class of Notes, on terms and conditions acceptable to such Holders. Any Class of Notes subject to such enhancement will be designated as "Insured Notes" of such Class. Premiums for any such enhancement will be payable from amounts otherwise payable to such Class of Insured Notes or in such other manner chosen by such Holder. Any Insured Notes of a Class for substantially all other purposes will be treated as Notes of such Class, except that the issuer of the bond insurance policy, surety bond or other such credit enhancement will generally be deemed to be the Holder of the Notes of such Class enhanced by such entity and will in such capacity be entitled to exercise the rights otherwise exercisable by Holders of such Notes.

SECURITY FOR THE NOTES

The Notes will be secured by the Trust Estate. The Trust Estate will consist of substantially all property of the Issuer, including the Portfolio Collateral, the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account and the Closing Expense Account.

Portfolio Collateral—General

The Portfolio Collateral (including Original Portfolio Collateral, Additional Portfolio Collateral and Substitute Portfolio Collateral) when purchased (or when committed to be purchased) by the Issuer, will consist of (I) United States dollar denominated commercial loans in registered form, including participation and assignment interests therein, collateralized loan obligations, including synthetic securities, of any corporation, partnership, limited liability company or trust, of the United States government or any agency or instrumentality thereof or of other sovereign issuers, which obligations:

- (a) are "eligible assets" as defined in Rule 3a-7;
- (b) except as described below, provide for periodic payments of interest thereon in cash no less frequently than semiannually;
- (c) provide for a fixed amount of principal to be payable according to a fixed schedule or at maturity;
- (d) are not items of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, items of Equity Portfolio Collateral or a margin stock, or, except as described below, items of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral;
- (e) except as described below, are not zero-coupon bonds, bonds that provide for a combination of no coupon and a fixed coupon, step-up bonds (except for step-up bonds providing for the payment of current interest at a rate no less than 5% per annum or Collateral LIBOR, if floating rate), other than with respect to the Initial Portfolio Collateral on the Closing Date, Partial Deferred Interest Bonds (except for such bonds providing for the payment of current interest at a rate no less than 5% per annum or Collateral LIBOR, if floating rate);
- (f) are not currently the subject of an Offer that would result in (i) the Issuer owning a security not meeting the requirements of Portfolio Collateral, not paying current interest, or, in the reasonable judgment of the Servicer, not expected to pay in full at maturity, or (ii) the Issuer receiving Eligible Investments or cash in a par amount less than that of the original security or the subject of an Exchange Offer;
- (g) do not provide for conversion or exchange into equity capital at any time over their respective lives (other than the exercise of any warrant, profit participation or other equity-like interest which is a component of a Unit);

(h) with respect to Portfolio Collateral which consists of Floating Rate Collateral, have an interest rate which adjusts periodically in accordance with changes in one or more established indices at least one of which is the London interbank offered rate for one-, two-, three- or six-month U.S. dollar deposits and which adjusts at least semiannually or, with respect to items of Fixed Rate Collateral, have an interest rate that remains constant until the maturity of such obligations or are Reset Debt Securities; provided that not more than 5.0% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral included in the Trust Estate may include items of Portfolio Collateral the interest rate on which adjusts in accordance with one or more indices that do not include the London interbank offered rate for one-, two-, three-, or six-month U.S. dollar deposits;

(i) have coupon or other payments that are not subject to U.S. withholding tax and are not at time of purchase subject to foreign withholding tax unless the issuer of the security is required to make "gross-up" payments sufficient to cause the net amount to be received on the debt obligations to equal the amount that would have been paid had no such withholding tax applied;

(j) mature on or before August 1, 2021 or, if a Maturity Extension as occurred, the then applicable Extended Final Maturity Date, except that up to 5.0% of the Aggregate Par Amount may mature after such date but before 5 years after such date; provided that, with respect to Portfolio Loans, no more than 3.0% of the Aggregate Par Amount may mature after August 1, 2021 or, if a Maturity Extension as occurred, the then applicable Extended Final Maturity Date, but before two years after such date and no Portfolio Loans may mature after two years after such date;

(k) the terms of which do not, unless they are Delayed Drawdown Loans or Revolving Loans, require the Holder to assume or otherwise undertake any funding obligations or liabilities (of a contingent nature or otherwise);

(l) are payable only in United States dollars;

(m) are not Current Pay Obligations

(n) are not Debt Securities;

(o) the S&P Rating of which does not include a subscript of "r", "t", "p", "pi" or "q" unless otherwise agreed to by Standard & Poor's in writing and a Moody's Rating that addresses the full amount of principal or interest indicated would be paid;

(p) and, during the Revolving Period, CLO Securities having a Moody's Rating of "Ba2" or higher and an S&P Rating of "BB" or higher and, after the Revolving Period are not CLO Securities;

(q) are not PIK Bonds which are currently deferring interest payments or receiving payments in-kind pursuant to the terms of the related Underlying Instrument; and

(r) satisfy, together with the other Portfolio Collateral to be concurrently included in the Trust Estate, the other applicable criteria set forth in the Indenture, including the ratings guidelines and guidelines concerning issuer concentration and industry concentration described below; or

(II) Synthetic Securities (as described herein); provided that the Servicer concludes, based on advice of counsel, that the Synthetic Securities are "eligible assets" for purposes of Rule 3a-7.

Interests in commercial loans included in the Portfolio Collateral are referred to herein as "Portfolio Loans," and interests in collateralized loan obligations in the Portfolio Collateral are referred to herein as "CLO Securities." The Issuer may invest in participations ("Participations") in Portfolio Loans, or purchase assignments ("Assignments") of portions of Portfolio Loans.

In addition, up to 20% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of Synthetic Securities. The purchase of Synthetic Securities may involve certain additional risks not present in the purchase of other Portfolio Collateral.

See "Special Considerations—Nature of Collateral Pledged to Secure the Notes; Ability to Obtain Additional Portfolio Collateral; Availability of Funds for Subordinate Payments" For purposes of the eligibility criteria and related tests, a Synthetic Security will generally be included as an item of Portfolio Collateral having the maturity, interest rate and other payment characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the Reference Obligation (including characterization as either an item of Fixed Rate Collateral or Floating Rate Collateral) and, with respect to all other characteristics, will be included as an item of Portfolio Collateral having the relevant characteristics of the related Reference Obligation and not of the Synthetic Security.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, in no event may the Issuer acquire or dispose of any item of Portfolio Collateral or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Issuer or the Servicer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase an item of Portfolio Collateral to be included in the Trust Estate and at the time of such commitment such item of Portfolio Collateral complied with the definition of Portfolio Collateral, then the Issuer or Servicer may consummate the purchase of such item of Portfolio Collateral notwithstanding that such item of Portfolio Collateral fails to comply with the definition of Portfolio Collateral on the date of settlement.

The Servicer may only direct the Trustee to sell an item of Portfolio Collateral that is the subject of an Offer or call for redemption, if together with its direction to sell such security, the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that the sales price for such Security is equal to or greater than 1% less than the price available pursuant to such Offer or call and such sale will be treated as if the Offer or call were consummated for purposes of determining the Collections for the Due Period relating to the date on which such sale occurs.

The manner and timing for any purchase or sale of any item of Portfolio Collateral and the determination of when any such purchase or sale becomes effective for purposes of any calculations of the Overcollateralization Tests or other collateral criteria shall be set forth in the Indenture.

If an item of Portfolio Collateral becomes subject to an Exchange Offer after it has been purchased by the Issuer, the Servicer will be permitted to take such action with respect to the Underlying Instrument or the issuer thereof as may be required to convert such item of Portfolio Collateral into an item of Equity Portfolio Collateral.

Simultaneously with the issuance of the Notes, an Aggregate Principal Amount of Initial Portfolio Collateral securing the Notes at least equal to the Initial Portfolio Collateral Amount will be acquired or committed to be acquired by the Issuer from the net proceeds of the sale of the Notes and the Preferred Shares. The Issuer will also pledge the Deposit (consisting of cash deposited in the Initial Deposit Account in the approximate amount such that the Issuer can purchase or commit to purchase an Aggregate Principal Amount of Original Portfolio Collateral on or before November 1, 2006 (the "Effective Date"), at least equal the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount) to the Trustee on the Closing Date, which Deposit will be used to purchase Eligible Investments at the direction of the Issuer pending application to purchase or commit to purchase Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date, subject to the requirements and restrictions set forth in the Indenture. A portion of the Initial Portfolio Collateral, and the remaining Portfolio Collateral may be, acquired from or through Bear Stearns, the Servicer or their affiliates, at negotiated prices acceptable to the Issuer and the Servicer or if purchased from the Servicer or its affiliates at prices determined in accordance with the procedures described under "Special Considerations—Potential Conflicts of Interest."

The Issuer and the Servicer will seek to use the Deposit to purchase additional Original Portfolio Collateral prior to the Effective Date in accordance with the guidelines described herein and in the Indenture. If the Issuer and the Servicer are unable to use or commit to use the full amount of the Deposit on or prior to the Effective Date to purchase additional Original Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Amount (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date) at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount, the Issuer will be required to effect an Initial Deposit Redemption on the Initial Deposit Redemption Date as described herein except, if the amount of the Deposit not so used or committed does not exceed U.S.$2,000,000 in the aggregate, such amount will be transferred to the Collection Account as Collateral Principal Collections on the Effective Date.

If a Suspension Trigger Event is in effect, a majority of the Controlling Class may deliver notice to the Issuer directing the Issuer and the Servicer to suspend any purchases of additional items for inclusion in the Trust Estate as an item of Portfolio Collateral. Such suspension shall automatically terminate once a Suspension Trigger Event is no longer in effect.

Criteria for Purchase and Substitution of Collateral

The Issuer's entry into a commitment to purchase any additional collateralized loan obligations, synthetic securities and commercial loans after the Effective Date (each, an item of "Additional Portfolio Collateral") with Available Funds is subject to the limitations described under "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral" and further is subject in each case to the following restrictions: (i) each of the Overcollateralization Tests is satisfied (provided that unscheduled principal proceeds may be used to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral even if such tests are not satisfied, so long as the results of such tests would not be diminished) and (ii) the collateral criteria specified below are satisfied or the degree of compliance with such collateral criteria would not be diminished. In addition, during the Amortization Period, Collateral Principal Collections from any unscheduled prepayment may be used to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral as described and meeting the requirements herein. The Issuer's entry into a commitment to purchase any substitute collateralized loan obligations, synthetic securities and commercial loans (each, an item of "Substitute Portfolio Collateral") with Collateral Disposition Proceeds during the Revolving Period is subject in each case to the following restrictions: (i) the Overcollateralization Tests and the collateral criteria specified herein are satisfied and the Interest Coverage Test (after the second Payment Date) for the most recent Payment Date was satisfied or (ii) if the Overcollateralization Tests and the collateral criteria specified below are not satisfied, the degree of compliance with such tests or criteria would not be diminished. In connection with a sale of an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral after the Revolving Period or the receipt of Collateral Principal Collections in connection with an unscheduled prepayment after the Revolving Period, the Issuer may enter into commitments to apply such net disposition proceeds or such unscheduled prepayments (net of accrued interest and costs) to the purchase of Portfolio Loans either as Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral. Substitute Portfolio Collateral may not be purchased with Collateral Disposition Proceeds from the sale of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral unless, after giving effect to such purchase, each of the Overcollateralization Tests is satisfied and the Interest Coverage Test for the most recent Payment Date was satisfied. The Issuer is not required, and may not be permitted under certain circumstances, to purchase or sell Portfolio Collateral and the rules described above are limited as set forth below under "—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral."

Notwithstanding the forgoing, if there is no appointment of a successor Servicer within 90 days after the resignation or termination of the Servicer, any sales or disposition of Portfolio Collateral shall be limited to Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral and Defaulted Portfolio Collateral; provided that such restriction on the sale or disposition of Portfolio Collateral shall not apply if the Portfolio Collateral is being liquidated in whole or in part in connection with an acceleration or early termination of the Notes.

S&P CDO Monitor Test

The "S&P CDO Monitor Test" will be satisfied if, after giving effect to the purchase or sale of an item of Portfolio Collateral (or both), as the case may be, (i) the S&P Loss Differential (defined below) of the Proposed Portfolio (defined below) is positive or (ii) the S&P Loss Differential of the Proposed Portfolio is greater than the S&P Loss Differential of the Current Portfolio (defined below). The S&P CDO Monitor Test is not applicable and does not have to be satisfied or maintained when reinvesting the proceeds of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral or Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral.

The "S&P Loss Differential" at any time, is the rate calculated by subtracting the S&P Scenario Default Rate (defined below) from the S&P Break-Even Default Rate (defined below) at such time.

The "S&P Scenario Default Rate" at any time, is an estimate of the cumulative default rate for the Current Portfolio or the Proposed Portfolio, as applicable, consistent with a "AAA" rating by S&P with respect to the Class A-1L Notes and the Class X Notes, a "AA" rating by S&P with respect to the Class A-2L Notes, a "A" rating by

S&P with respect to the Class A-3L Notes, a "A-" rating by S&P with respect to the Class A-4L Notes and a "BBB" rating by S&P with respect to the Class B-1L Notes, determined by application of the S&P CDO Monitor (defined below) at such time.

The "S&P Break-Even Default Rate" at any time, is the maximum percentage of defaults which the Current Portfolio or the Proposed Portfolio, as applicable, can sustain, as determined by S&P through application of the S&P CDO Monitor which, after giving effect to S&P's assumptions on recoveries and timing and to the priority of payments, will result in sufficient funds remaining for the principal repayment of the Notes in full and the timely payment, as applicable, of interest on each Class of Notes as set forth in the Indenture.

The "Current Portfolio" means the Pledged Securities in the Trust Estate immediately prior to the sale, maturity or other disposition of an item of Portfolio Collateral or immediately prior to the acquisition of an item of Portfolio Collateral, as the case may be.

The "Proposed Portfolio" means the Aggregate Par Amount resulting from the sale, maturity or other disposition of an item of Portfolio Collateral or a proposed purchase of an item of Portfolio Collateral, as the case may be.

The "S&P CDO Monitor" is a dynamic, analytical computer model developed by S&P and used to estimate default risk of items of Portfolio Collateral and provided to the Servicer and the Issuer on or before the Closing Date, as it may be modified by S&P from time to time in connection with its confirmation of the ratings of the Notes following the Closing Date. The S&P CDO Monitor calculates the cumulative default rate of a pool of Portfolio Collateral consistent with a specified benchmark rating level based upon S&P's proprietary corporate debt default studies. In calculating the S&P Scenario Default Rate, the S&P CDO Monitor considers each obligor's most senior unsecured debt rating, the number of obligors in the portfolio, the obligor and industry concentration in the portfolio and the remaining weighted average maturity of the Portfolio Collateral and calculates a cumulative default rate based on the statistical probability of distributions of defaults on the Portfolio Collateral.

Moody's Asset Correlation Test and Weighted Average Rating Test

The Moody's Asset Correlation Test and weighted average rating of the Portfolio Collateral will be calculated in accordance with the methodology prescribed by Moody's and more fully described in the Indenture. The MAC Test and "Weighted Average Rating Test" will be satisfied in accordance with the application of the Collateral Quality Matrix described below.

The Moody's Asset Correlation ("MAC") Test (the "MAC Test") will be satisfied on each Measurement Date if the Moody's Correlation Factor on such Measurement Date (rounded up to the nearest whole number) is equal to or less than the designated Moody's Correlation Factor determined by application of the Collateral Quality Matrix. In connection with the MAC Test, the Moody's Correlation Factor is a single number determined in accordance with the correlation methodology provided to the Servicer and the Collateral Administrator by Moody's.

Collateral Quality Matrix Tests

Under the Indenture, the Servicer will be permitted to select from a table (that will be included in the Indenture, the "Collateral Quality Matrix"), a different group of thresholds for satisfying or otherwise determining the following tests:

- the Moody's Asset Correlation Test;
- the Minimum Average Recovery Rate Test;
- the Weighted Average Rating Test; and
- the Weighted Average Margin Test.

Therefore, notwithstanding anything to the contrary described herein, after giving effect to the proposed purchase of any Portfolio Collateral, the minimum/maximum amounts required to satisfy each of such tests may vary from time to time. In determining whether the criteria set forth in the Collateral Quality Matrix are satisfied, the Servicer may use the Collateral Quality Formula (as set forth in the Indenture) to interpolate between values of such criteria or may use any other method that is agreed to by the Issuer and Moody's. Depending on the combination of thresholds in the Collateral Quality Matrix selected by the Servicer at any time, except as described below, the minimum required MAC Test can range from 3.0% to 4.0%; the maximum permitted weighted average rating factor prescribed by Moody's can range from 1500 to 2500; the minimum required average recovery rate prescribed by Moody's can range from 40.0% to 45.5% and the minimum Weighted Average Margin can range from 1.50% to 3.00%.

Each group of minimum/maximum amounts included in the Collateral Quality Matrix will include a combination of the minimum/maximum scores that are required to satisfy each of the Collateral Quality Matrix Tests. The Servicer may elect from time to time to have different combinations apply so long as (a) immediately after giving effect to the change in combinations, each of the applicable tests will be satisfied or not diminished and (b) the S&P CDO Monitor Test would have been satisfied as of the date of the most recent purchase or sale of an item of Portfolio Collateral had such test been calculated using the Current Portfolio, the Proposed Portfolio, and the S&P Scenario Default Rate that was in effect immediately prior to such purchase or sale, but using the S&P Break-Even Default Rate applicable to the Notes that would have been applicable after giving effect to the change in combinations. In no event will the Servicer be obligated to change the combinations contemplated by the Collateral Quality Matrix. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the combination of scores required to satisfy each of the Collateral Quality Matrix Tests may be changed if the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to such change and, as a result, the minimum/maximum amounts may change as well.

Weighted Average Margin Test

The "Weighted Average Margin Test" will be determined by application of the Collateral Quality Matrix described above, after giving effect to any Coupon Adjustment.

The "Weighted Average Margin" refers to the amount (rounded up to the nearest 0.001%) equal to (i) the sum of the products obtained by multiplying the margin over Collateral LIBOR on each item of Floating Rate Collateral (other than items of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral) as of the date of calculation (which will be determined for items of Floating Rate Collateral that do not bear interest based on Collateral LIBOR by expressing the current interest rate on such Floating Rate Collateral as a margin above or below three-month LIBOR on the date of determination, which margin will be expressed as a negative number if such current interest rate is lower than three-month LIBOR) by the Principal Balance of such item of Floating Rate Collateral (other than items of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral) as of such date, divided by (ii) the Aggregate Principal Amount of all such Floating Rate Collateral (other than items of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral) on such date.

For purposes of calculating the Weighted Average Margin for any Delayed Drawdown Loan or Revolving Bank Loan, the principal balance representing the funded portion will be multiplied by the margin above Collateral LIBOR and the principal balance representing the unfunded portion will be multiplied by the commitment fee related thereto.

If an item of Floating Rate Portfolio Collateral does not provide for Collateral LIBOR, the margin for this purpose shall be equal to the then applicable interest rate minus then current LIBOR. If an item of Floating Rate Portfolio Collateral has a Collateral LIBOR floor, the excess of such floor rate over Collateral LIBOR will be added to the margin above Collateral LIBOR for purposes of calculating the Weighted Average Margin of such item of Floating Rate Portfolio Collateral.

Weighted Average Coupon Test

The "Weighted Average Coupon Test" will be satisfied if, after the Effective Date, none of the Portfolio Collateral is Fixed Rate Portfolio Collateral or if, after giving effect to the proposed purchase of any Portfolio Collateral and after giving effect to any Coupon Adjustment, the Weighted Average Coupon is at least equal to 7.5% per annum as of the date of determination (or such lower per annum rate that the Rating Agencies have confirmed would not result in a withdrawal or downgrade of any of the then current ratings assigned by them to the Notes).

The "Weighted Average Coupon" refers to the amount (rounded up to the nearest 0.001%) determined by summing the products obtained by multiplying, for each item of Fixed Rate Collateral then included in the Trust Estate (other than items of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral), the Principal Balance of such item of Portfolio Collateral and the stated rate of interest of such item of Portfolio Collateral and then dividing such sum by the Aggregate Principal Amount of all of the Fixed Rate Collateral included in the Trust Estate (other than items of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral) as of such date of determination.

Minimum Average Recovery Rate Test. The Minimum Average Recovery Rate will be calculated in accordance with the methodology prescribed by Moody's and S&P and more fully described in the Indenture. The "Minimum Average Recovery Rate Test" with respect to Moody's, will be determined by application of the Collateral Quality Matrix described above and with respect to S&P, will be determined as set forth in the Indenture.

Weighted Average Life Requirement. The "Weighted Average Life Requirement" will be satisfied on any date of determination if the Weighted Average Life on such date of all items of Portfolio Collateral is equal to or less than the number of years set forth in Schedule I to the Indenture opposite the period set forth in Schedule I to the Indenture in which such requirement is being measured or, in the case of a Maturity Extension, the Extended Weighted Average Life Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Weighted Average Life may vary from the restrictions set forth in the Indenture if the Rating Agencies have confirmed such variance would not result in a withdrawal or downgrade of any of the then current ratings assigned by them to the Notes.

The "Weighted Average Life" refers to the amount determined by summing the products obtained by multiplying, for each item of Portfolio Collateral (other than items of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral) then included in the Trust Estate, the Principal Balance of such item of Portfolio Collateral and the Average Life (as such term is defined below) of such item of Portfolio Collateral as of such date of determination and then dividing such sum by the Aggregate Principal Amount of all of the Portfolio Collateral (other than items of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral and Current Pay Obligations) included in the Trust Estate as of such date of determination. For any item of Portfolio Collateral, the "Average Life" shall be equal to the number of years obtained by dividing (a) the Principal Balance of such item of Portfolio Collateral into (b) the sum of the products obtained by multiplying (i) the amount of each of the remaining, required principal payments on such item of Portfolio Collateral by (ii) the number of years (calculated to the nearest one-twelfth) that will have elapsed between such date of determination and the making of such payment.

Rating. After giving effect to the proposed purchase of any Portfolio Collateral: (i) at least 90% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral included in the Trust Estate must be obligations of issuers having at least one class of indebtedness actually rated by Moody's (either publicly or privately) and (ii) at least 90% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral in the Trust Estate must be obligations of issuers having at least one class of indebtedness actually rated by S&P (either publicly or privately).

CCC/Caa Portfolio Collateral Limitation. The proposed purchase of any Portfolio Collateral may not increase the Aggregate Principal Amount of CCC/Caa Portfolio Collateral in the Trust Estate to more than 5.0% of the Aggregate Par Amount; provided that the Issuer may purchase CCC/Caa Portfolio Collateral which would increase the Aggregate Principal Amount of CCC/Caa Portfolio Collateral in the Trust Estate above 5.0% of the Aggregate Par Amount with the proceeds of CCC/Caa Portfolio Collateral; and provided further that no CLO Securities may be included in the determination of this CCC/Caa Portfolio Collateral Limitation.

Limitation on Non-U.S. Debt. After giving effect to the proposed purchase of any Portfolio Collateral,

(a) not more than 10% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of items of Portfolio Loans that are obligations of Permitted Non-U.S. Obligors;

(b) not more than 10% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of items of Portfolio Loans that are obligations of Permitted Non-U.S. Obligors in any single Group A Country;

(c) not more than 5% of the Aggregate Par Amount included may consist of items of Portfolio Loans that are obligations of Permitted Non-U.S. Obligor in all Group B Countries;

(d) not more than 2% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of items of Portfolio Loans that are obligations of Permitted Non-U.S. Obligor in any single Group B Country;

(e) not more than 2.5% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of items of Portfolio Loans that are obligations of Permitted Non-U.S. Obligor in all jurisdictions that are not Group A Countries or Group B Countries;

(f) not more than 1% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of items of Portfolio Loans that are obligations of Permitted Non-U.S. Obligor in any single jurisdiction that is not a Group A Country or Group B Country; and

(g) no Portfolio Collateral may consist of CLO Securities that are obligations of Non-U.S. Obligor.

Issuer Limitation. (i) After giving effect to the proposed purchase of any Portfolio Loan, no more than 1.50% of the Aggregate Par Amount may represent obligations of any single obligor, provided that obligations of not more than five obligors of Portfolio Loans may represent no more than 2.00% of the Aggregate Par Amount and (ii) after giving effect to the proposed purchase of any CLO Security, no more than 2.75% of the Aggregate Par Amount may represent obligations of any single obligor.

Industry Category Concentration. (i) No more than 8% of the Aggregate Par Amount is in any one Standard & Poor's Industry Category; provided, however, in the case of three (3) Standard & Poor's Industry Categories, 12% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of items of Portfolio Collateral that are obligations of obligors in any one Standard & Poor's Industry Category, and (ii) no more than 32% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of items of Portfolio Collateral that are obligations of obligors in any three Standard & Poor's Industry Categories.

Limitation on Fixed Rate Collateral. After giving effect to the proposed purchase of any Portfolio Collateral, no more than 5% of the Aggregate Par Amount may bear interest at a fixed rate.

Limitation on Portfolio Loans. After giving effect to the proposed purchase of any Portfolio Collateral,

(a) at least 70% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral included in the Trust Estate must be Portfolio Loans (including Synthetic Securities, the Reference Obligations of which are loans); and

(b) not more than 10% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral included in the Trust Estate may be Portfolio Loans that are not Senior Secured Loans (including Synthetic Securities, the Reference Obligations of which are loans).

Limitation on CLO Securities. After giving effect to the proposed purchase of any Portfolio Collateral,

(a) not more than 30% of the Aggregate Par Amount may be CLO Securities;

(b) not more than 10% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of CLO Securities that have a Moody's Rating below "Baa3" or an S&P Rating below "BBB-", provided that not more than 2.0% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of a single CLO Security with such ratings;

(c) not more than 4.0% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of CLO Securities of a single manager which shall not be any of the Servicer Entities; and

(d) not more than 5.0% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of CLO Securities managed by any of the Servicer Entities; provided that not more than 1.5% of the Aggregate Par Amount may consist of CLO Securities of a single issuer serviced or managed by the Servicer;

provided, that no CLO Securities may be purchased after August 1, 2009, unless an Extension shall occur in which case CLO Securities may be purchased during the full period of such Extension in accordance with all the criteria and restrictions provided herein that are applicable during the Revolving Period.

Limitations on Step-Up Bonds. After giving effect to the proposed purchase of any Portfolio Collateral, no more than 5% of the Aggregate Par Amount may include step-up bonds.

Limitation on Semiannual Portfolio Collateral. After giving effect to the proposed purchase of any Portfolio Collateral, no more than 5% of the Aggregate Par Amount may include items of Portfolio Collateral that provide for the periodic payment in cash of interest less frequently than quarterly, but not less frequently than semiannually.

Limitation on Participations, Synthetic Securities and Non-U.S. Portfolio Loans. After giving effect to the proposed purchase of any Substitute Portfolio Collateral or Additional Portfolio Collateral, no more than 20% of the Aggregate Par Amount may be Participations, Synthetic Securities, securities lending agreements or Portfolio Loans that are obligations of non-U.S. entities which are not in a Group A Country. Further, no Participation may be purchased from any Selling Institution (including for this purpose the seller of any participation and the seller of any sub-participation) rated below "A" by S&P or "A2" by Moody's. In addition, the table below generally describes limitations on (i) the percentage of the Aggregate Par Amount which consist of Synthetic Securities related to the long-term debt rating of the Synthetic Security Counterparty, (ii) the percentage of the Aggregate Par Amount which consists of Participations related to the long-term debt rating of the related Selling Institution, and (iii) the limitations on the percentage of the Aggregate Par Amount which consists of Participations and Synthetic Securities in the aggregate related to the long-term debt rating of the Selling Institution or Synthetic Security Counterparty, as the case may be.

provided, that no more than 3% of the Aggregate Par Amount may be Synthetic Securities consisting of Default Swaps. For purposes of the foregoing, the limitations shall be calculated separately for each of Standard & Poor's and Moody's and each such limitation must be satisfied.

Original Issue Size. After giving effect to the proposed purchase of any Portfolio Collateral, at least 80% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral included in the Trust Estate will be Portfolio Loans that are part of a senior credit facility whose aggregate original principal amount (whether or not funded and including all tranches thereunder) is not less than U.S.$100,000,000. No item of Portfolio Collateral included in the Trust Estate will be CLO Securities that are part of an issuer's aggregate issuance whose aggregate original principal amount (including all tranches thereunder) is less than U.S.$100,000,000. A Delayed Drawdown Loan will not be eligible for purchase by the Issuer for inclusion in the Trust Estate unless the agreement or instrument that governs the rights and obligations of the related borrower and lender or lenders provides (i) that advances may be made for a period not to exceed one (1) year from the date of origination of the Delayed Drawdown Loan and in any event before the end of the Revolving Period; (ii) for a maximum amount that can be borrowed from the Issuer on one or more specified borrowing dates; (iii) that funds borrowed from the Issuer and subsequently repaid may not be reborrowed and (iv) that the borrower is entitled to such additional advances only upon the achievement of financial performance or other objective criteria established at origination and set forth in such credit agreement.

In addition, simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of any Delayed Drawdown Loan or Revolving Loan, the Issuer is required to deposit into the Loan Funding Account the full amount of any advances or delayed draws that may be required of the Issuer thereunder and principal repaid under any Revolving Loan is required to be deposited in the Loan Funding Account to the extent the Issuer's obligation to fund any future advances has not been irrevocably reduced.

No Event of Default. No Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing.

Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral

The Portfolio Collateral may be retired prior to their respective final maturities, as a result of, among other things, the existence and frequency of exercise of any optional or mandatory redemption features of such securities. Subject to the terms of the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture, the Servicer is also permitted to direct the Trustee to sell (i) any Defaulted Portfolio Collateral and (ii) any Equity Portfolio Collateral.

In addition, subject to the terms of the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture, including the restrictions described herein, the Servicer may, at any time during the life of the Notes, direct the Trustee to dispose of one or more items of Portfolio Collateral in cases where (i) an item of Portfolio Collateral is, in the Servicer's sole judgment (which judgment shall not be questioned as a result of subsequent events), likely to decline in credit quality and, with the passage of time, become an item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral; provided, that in forming such judgment an increase in credit spread or a decrease in Market Value of such item of Portfolio Collateral may only be utilized as corroboration of other bases of such judgment ("Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral") or (ii) an item of Portfolio Collateral has, in the Servicer's sole judgment, improved in credit quality or otherwise satisfies the Credit Improved Criteria (subject to the proviso thereof); provided, that in forming such judgment a reduction in credit spread or an increase in Market Value of such item of Portfolio Collateral may only be utilized as corroboration of other bases of such judgment ("Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated herein, if any item of Portfolio Collateral is to be purchased with the Collateral Disposition Proceeds of one or more assets that are not Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, Portfolio Collateral Sold pursuant to a Portfolio Improvement Exchange or Portfolio Collateral that has become subject to withholding tax, the purchase of the proposed item of Portfolio Collateral must (i) restore compliance with the collateral criteria described above, the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests (or bring the total Portfolio Collateral closer to compliance with any such test or limitation) not then satisfied or (ii) on a net basis improve the quality of the Portfolio Collateral as measured by such collateral criteria, Interest Coverage Test or Overcollateralization Tests and (iii) in the case of each of clause (i) and (ii) without causing any other collateral criteria, Interest Coverage Test or Overcollateralization Test to be violated or significantly increase the likelihood of such violation in the future.

In determining whether any Portfolio Collateral is likely to decline in credit quality and, with the passage of time become Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, the Servicer may, in its sole judgment, consider any relevant factor, including (without limitation) whether any of the Credit Risk Criteria exist. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the existence or absence of any particular factor shall not require or prevent the Servicer's determination that any Portfolio Collateral is likely to decline in credit quality and, with the passage of time, become Defaulted Portfolio Collateral; provided that in forming such determination an increase in credit spread or a decrease in Market Value of such item of Portfolio Collateral may only be used as corroboration of other bases for such determination. Substitute Portfolio Collateral may not be purchased with Collateral Disposition Proceeds from the sale of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral unless, after giving effect to such purchase, each of the Overcollateralization Tests is satisfied and the Interest Coverage Test for the most recent Payment Date was satisfied.

In determining whether any Portfolio Collateral meets the definition of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, the Servicer may, in its sole judgment, consider any relevant factor, including (without limitation) whether any of the Credit Improved Criteria exist. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the existence or absence of any particular factor shall not require or prevent the Servicer's determination that any Portfolio Collateral has a market price that is greater than the price that is warranted by its terms and credit characteristics; provided, that in forming such judgment a reduction in credit spread or an increase in Market Value of such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral may only be utilized as corroboration or other bases for such judgment.

Subject to the Sale Restriction Condition, Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral may be sold at any time. In connection with a sale of an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral during the Revolving Period, the Servicer (x) is required to identify in writing before the sale one or more specific manners in which it will be able, in accordance with the requirements of the Indenture, to cause the Issuer to apply the Collateral Disposition Proceeds of such sale (net of accrued interest and costs) to the purchase of Substitute Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Amount equal to or greater than the Principal Balance of such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral by the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (it being understood that such identification shall not be considered a requirement or an assurance that my specific purchase will be consummated) and (y) is required to certify that it reasonably believes at the time of such sale that, after giving effect to such sale and subsequent purchase, either (i) the Overcollateralization Tests and all other criteria for the purchase of Portfolio Collateral are satisfied or (ii) if one or more of such tests or criteria is not satisfied, the degree of compliance with such test or criteria would not be diminished. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Portfolio Collateral may also be sold upon the advice of an opinion of counsel that such item of Portfolio Collateral is, or may become, subject to a withholding or other similar tax. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated herein, the Servicer may direct the sale of an item of Portfolio Collateral that was CCC/Caa Portfolio Collateral or Discount Portfolio Collateral at the time of purchase only if it constitutes Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, is sold in connection with the Optional Redemption of Notes in whole or if the Servicer reasonably expects that the sale and any related purchase of Substitute Portfolio Collateral will restore compliance with any of the Interest Coverage Test, the collateral criteria described above or the Overcollateralization Tests that would be failed or not satisfied in the absence of such sale and purchase.

During any period after the first Due Period (x) with respect to sales of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, if the rating of the Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes or the Class A-2L Notes has been downgraded at least one rating sub-category by Moody's (and has not been restored) or the rating of any of the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes or the Class B-1L Notes has been downgraded by at least two rating sub-categories by Moody's (and has not been restored to a rating no more than one rating sub-category below the original rating of such Class of Notes), or if the Class A Overcollateralization Ratio is less than 90% of the Class A Overcollateralization Percentage, or (y) with respect to sales of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, if the rating of the Class A-1L Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes or the Class A-2L Notes has been downgraded at least one rating sub-category by Moody's (and has not been restored) or the rating of any of the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes or the Class B-1L Notes has been downgraded by at least two rating sub-categories by Moody's (and has not been restored to a rating no more than one rating sub-category below the original rating of such Class of Notes) (each applicable condition described in clauses (x) and (y), a "Sale Restriction Condition"), the Issuer is required to send a notice to the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes to the effect that for so long as the applicable Sale Restriction Condition exists, unless the Holders of at least 60% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes elect to retain the guidelines in effect on the Closing Date for sales of an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, as applicable, (i) no item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral may be sold unless (A) the rating of the obligor or of any debt or securities issued by the obligor under such an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral has been lowered, withdrawn or put on any "credit watch" list (or similar list) with negative implications by S&P, Moody's or Fitch, or (B) such an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral satisfies the Credit Risk Criteria and not objected to by the Holders of more than 60% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes within forty-five (45) days of the date of such notice; provided that in making such determination to sell an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, an increase in credit spread or a decrease in Market Value of such item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral may only be used as corroboration of other bases for such determination or (ii) no item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral may be sold unless such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral satisfies the Credit Improved Criteria and not objected to by the Holders of more than 60% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes within forty-five (45) days of the date of such notice; provided, that in making such determination to sell such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, a reduction in credit spread or an increase in Market Value of such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral may only be utilized as corroboration or other bases for such judgment.

During the Due Periods relating to the Revolving Period, and under certain circumstances during the Amortization Period as described below, certain Collections identified above under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions" will be used to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral as described below subject to satisfaction or, in certain cases, maintenance of the Overcollateralization Tests and the collateral criteria described herein and satisfaction of the Interest Coverage Test (after the second Payment Date) for the most recent Payment Date as more specifically set forth in the Indenture.

During any period when certain Collections are to be used to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral, the Servicer generally will have the authority to commit to a purchase of such Additional Portfolio Collateral upon the receipt (actual or scheduled) in the Collection Account of Collections of an amount at least equal to the Periodic Reserve Amount with respect to the relevant Payment Date. For purposes of this calculation, Collections will be deemed to include, as of any date of determination, the sum of 100% of all cash collections actually received in respect of the Portfolio Collateral as of such date of determination and 100% of all distributions scheduled or otherwise reasonably expected to be received in respect of the Portfolio Collateral (other than any items of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral or Equity Portfolio Collateral) during the period from such date of determination until the end of the applicable Due Period. In addition, the Indenture will permit the Servicer or the Issuer to direct the Trustee to deposit or retain in the Collection Account after the relevant Payment Date amounts that are to be used to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral as long as such amounts are held in Eligible Investments pending such use to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral and are used to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral meeting the specified requirements no later than the last day of the Due Period relating to the Payment Date next following such Payment Date.

In connection with a sale of an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral after the Revolving Period or the receipt of Collateral Principal Collections due to an unscheduled prepayment after the Revolving Period, the Servicer may enter into commitments to apply such Collateral Disposition Proceeds or such unscheduled prepayments (net of accrued interest and costs) to the purchase of Portfolio Loans as either Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Amount equal to or greater than the Principal Balance of the original item of Portfolio Collateral within 90 days of receipt of such proceeds, so long as the Servicer certifies as of the date of purchase that it reasonably believes at the time of such commitment that, after giving effect to such sale and subsequent purchase, (A) each of the Overcollateralization Tests and the other collateral criteria described herein would be satisfied and the Interest Coverage Test was satisfied for the most recent Payment Date, (B) such Portfolio Loan to be purchased has a Moody's Rating equal to or higher than the Moody's Rating of the original item of Portfolio Collateral, (C) such Portfolio Loan to be purchased has an S&P Rating equal to or higher than the S&P Rating of the original item of Portfolio Collateral, (D) such Portfolio Loan to be purchased has a stated maturity on or prior to the final maturity of such original item of Portfolio Collateral, (E) the Weighted Average Life of the Portfolio Collateral would not be increased and (F) neither Rating Agency has reduced or withdrawn (and not restored) the rating assigned by it on the Closing Date to any Class of Notes.

No purchase of Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral will be permitted during the continuance of an Event of Default.

No acquisition or disposition of any item of Portfolio Collateral or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) will be permitted for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. In addition, the Issuer may not dispose of any item of Portfolio Collateral unless such disposition is made on an "arm's-length basis" for fair market value (as determined at the time the Issuer first enters into a binding commitment to dispose of such item of Portfolio Collateral). Any disposition of Portfolio Collateral will be conducted in accordance with the requirements of the Servicing Agreement and, if effected with the Servicer, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee or any of their affiliates, will be effected in a secondary market transaction on terms as favorable to the holders of the Notes as would be the case if such person were not so affiliated. In the event of an Optional Redemption, or Tax Event Redemption, the Servicer may direct the Trustee to sell certain Portfolio Collateral without regard to the foregoing limitations (except for the limitation that no Portfolio Collateral be disposed of for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes); provided that (i) the proceeds therefrom will be at least sufficient to pay certain expenses and other amounts and redeem in whole but not in part all Notes to be redeemed simultaneously; and (ii) such proceeds are used to make such a redemption. See "Description of the Notes-Optional Redemption," "Tax Event Redemption" and "Special Redemption."

The Servicer will select the Initial Portfolio Collateral and will be responsible for monitoring the items of Portfolio Collateral that at any time are included in the Trust Estate, selecting Additional Portfolio Collateral and Substitute Portfolio Collateral and effecting additions and substitutions. Any addition or substitution of an item of Portfolio Collateral by the Servicer shall be in accordance with the applicable requirements provided in the Servicing Agreement.

Accounts

All Collections will be remitted to the Collection Account and will be available, to the extent described herein, for application in the manner and for the purposes described herein. Funds held in the Collection Account that are not used to purchase or committed to use to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral will be held by the Trustee, as directed by the Servicer, as soon as practicable in Eligible Investments. All Eligible Investments in the Collection Account must mature on or before the Business Day prior to the next Payment Date. The Trustee may establish any number of sub-accounts to the Collection Account for its convenience in administering the accounts and the Trust Estate.

All cash pledged to the Trustee on the Closing Date which is to be used to purchase additional Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date will be deposited into the Initial Deposit Account. Funds held in the Initial Deposit Account pending use to purchase additional Original Portfolio Collateral will be held by the Trustee, as directed by the Servicer, in Eligible Investments. Eligible Investments in the Initial Deposit Account are to mature no later than the Business Day prior to the date on which such funds are to be invested in additional Original Portfolio Collateral; provided that, to the extent the Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account is not so used or committed to be used on or before the Effective Date such unused amount will be applied to effect an Initial Deposit Redemption of the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes, in the order described herein, or deposited in the Collection Account as described herein.

If, at any time on or after the Effective Date, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or prior to such time) exceeds the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount and there are funds remaining from the Deposit held in the Initial Deposit Account, the Servicer may direct the Trustee to transfer up to the lesser of U.S.$1,000,000 and 25% of such funds to the Collection Account as additional Collateral Interest Collections; provided that the Overcollateralization Tests and the collateral criteria described herein are satisfied and the Interest Coverage Test for the most recent Payment Date was satisfied. The remainder of the Deposit shall be used to purchase Portfolio Collateral, as directed by the Servicer.

An Expense Reimbursement Account of U.S.$50,000 will be established by the Issuer and pledged to the Trustee for the payment of Issuer administrative expenses which become due and must be paid between Payment Dates. Any amounts withdrawn from the Expense Reimbursement Account will be reimbursed on each Payment Date in accordance with the priority of the distribution provisions described herein. Funds held in the Expense Reimbursement Account will be held by the Trustee, as directed by the Servicer, in Eligible Investments. Eligible Investments in the Expense Reimbursement Account are to mature on or before the date on which such funds are expected to be used by the Issuer for the payment of expenses.

A Closing Expense Account will be established by the Trustee. From the Closing Date to the Payment Date occurring in November 2006 (or February 2007, to the extent unpaid expenses are identified to the Trustee), funds deposited in the Closing Expense Account will be used to pay the fees, commissions and expenses associated with the issuance of the Notes. Funds held in the Closing Expense Account will be held by the Trustee, as directed by the Servicer, in Eligible Investments. On the Payment Date occurring in November 2006 (or February 2007, to the extent unpaid expenses are identified to the Trustee), any remaining funds in the Closing Expense Account (not being held for a pre-approved closing expense) will be transferred to the Collection Account and applied as Collateral Interest Collections.

A Reserve Account will be established by the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders and the other secured parties under the Indenture, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal at the direction of the Servicer. On the Closing Date, the Trustee, at the direction of the Issuer, shall deposit into the Reserve Account approximately $1,600,000 from the net proceeds of the Offering. Amounts on deposit in the Reserve Account shall be held in Eligible Investments in accordance with the Indenture.

A Loan Funding Account will be established by the Issuer with the Trustee into which an amount equal to the Issuer's commitment to make or otherwise fund advances related to the Delayed Drawdown Loans and the Revolving Loans will be deposited. Such amount will be reduced upon a sale in whole or in part of such Delayed Drawdown Loan or Revolving Loan as prescribed in the Indenture. Funds held in the Loan Funding Account will be held by the Trustee, as directed by the Servicer, in Eligible Investments. Eligible Investments in the Loan Funding Account are required to mature no later than one Business Day after the date such Eligible Investment is purchased.

A Default Swap Collateral Account will be established for each Default Swap. The Trustee will deposit into each such Default Swap Collateral Account on the Closing Date or on the date any such Default Swap is entered into, as applicable, the amount required to secure the obligations of the Issuer in accordance with the terms of the related Default Swap, which amount shall be at least equal to the amount referred to in paragraph (iv) of the definition of Default Swap Collateral.

Amounts on deposit in a Default Swap Collateral Account will be maintained in accordance with the terms and provisions of the related Default Swap. Amounts and property credited to a Default Swap Collateral Account shall be withdrawn by the Trustee and applied to the payment of any amounts payable by, or to the delivery of securities deliverable by, the Issuer to the related Default Swap Counterparty in accordance with the terms of such Default Swap. Income received on amounts on deposit in a Default Swap Collateral Account will be applied in accordance with the terms of the applicable Default Swap to the payment of any periodic amounts owed by the Issuer to the applicable Default Swap Counterparty on the date such amounts are due. After application of such amounts, any income then contained in such Default Swap Collateral Account will be withdrawn from such account and deposited in the Collection Account for distribution as Collateral Interest Collections. After payment of all amounts owing by the Issuer to a Default Swap Counterparty in accordance with the terms of the related Default Swap (other than any Default Swap Counterparty Termination Payment) the Trustee shall be directed to withdraw all funds and other property credited to the Default Swap Collateral Account related to such Default Swap and credit such funds and other property to the Collection Account, as Collateral Principal Collections (in the case of cash and Eligible Investments) and the Collateral Account (in the case of Portfolio Collateral and other financial assets) for application as Collateral Principal Collections (other than any income thereon which will be Collateral Interest Collections) in accordance with the terms of the Indenture. Any Default Swap Counterparty Termination Payments owed by the Issuer to the Default Swap Counterparty shall be paid solely from amounts available therefor under the priority of payment provisions described herein.

Except for interest on securities credited to a Default Swap Collateral Account payable to the Issuer as described pursuant to the preceding paragraph, funds and other property standing to the credit of a Default Swap Collateral Account will not be considered to be an asset of the Issuer for purposes of the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests; provided, however that the Default Swap that relates to such Default Swap Collateral Account will be considered an asset of the Issuer for such purposes.

If the terms of any Default Swap require the Default Swap Counterparty to secure its obligations with respect to such Default Swap, the Trustee will cause to be established a Default Swap Issuer Account in respect of such Default Swap. The Trustee shall credit to any such Default Swap Issuer Account all funds and other property received from the applicable Default Swap Counterparty to secure the obligations of such Default Swap Counterparty in accordance with the terms of such Default Swap.

Funds and other property standing to the credit of any Default Swap Issuer Account will not be considered to be an asset of the Issuer for purposes of the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests; provided, however that the Default Swap that relates to such Default Swap Issuer Account will be considered an asset of the Issuer for such purposes.

In accordance with the terms of the applicable Default Swap, funds and other property standing to the credit of the related Default Swap Issuer Account will be withdrawn by the Trustee and applied to the payment of any amount owing by the related Default Swap Counterparty to the Issuer. After payment of all amounts owing by the Default Swap Counterparty to the Issuer in accordance with the terms of the related Default Swap, all funds and other property standing to the credit of the related Default Swap Issuer Account will be withdrawn from such Default Swap Issuer Account and paid or transferred to the related Default Swap Counterparty in accordance with the applicable Default Swap.

Note Valuation Report; Noteholder Reports

Promptly after receipt by the Trustee thereof, but in any event not later than the Business Day prior to each Payment Date, the Trustee shall deliver (or otherwise make available) to each Noteholder and each Rating Agency a Noteholder report setting forth certain information regarding payments due to the Noteholders on such Payment Date and the Pledged Securities. In addition, not later than the first day (or, if such day is not a Business Day, on the next succeeding Business Day) of each month (for months in which no Payment Date occurs) or the related Payment Date (for months in which a Payment Date occurs), commencing in July, 2006, the Issuer shall provide, or procure the provision, to each Rating Agency and the Trustee, who shall forward a copy (or otherwise make available) to each Noteholder, a monthly report containing additional information with respect to the Pledged Securities included in the Trust Estate. Except as provided herein, the Indenture provides that the information contained in these reports is confidential and may not be disclosed, except as provided therein.

Pursuant to the Indenture, the Issuer will consent to the posting of each such report, together with this Confidential Offering Circular, the Indenture and any amendments or modifications thereto, to the internet based password protected electronic repository of transaction documents relating to privately offered and sold collateralized debt obligation securities located at "www.cdolibrary.com".

MATURITY AND PREPAYMENT CONSIDERATIONS

The Final Maturity Date of the Class X Notes is the Payment Date occurring in August 2013 and the Final Maturity Date of each other Class of Notes is the Payment Date occurring in August 2021, or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Final Maturity Date, and subject to prior redemption under the circumstances described herein. The average life of each Class of Notes is expected to be shorter than the number of years until the Final Maturity Date, and the average lives may vary due to various factors. The average life of each Class of Notes, refers to the weighted amount of time that will elapse from the date of delivery of such Notes until each dollar of the principal of such securities will be paid to the investor. Such average lives will be determined by the amount and frequency of principal payments which in turn are dependent upon, among other things, the amount of sinking fund payments and other payments received at or in advance of the scheduled maturity of Portfolio Collateral (whether through sale, maturity, redemption, prepayment, default or other liquidation or disposition). The actual average life and final maturity of each Class of Notes will be affected by the financial condition of the issuers of the underlying Portfolio Collateral and the characteristics of such collateral, including the existence and frequency of exercise of any optional or mandatory redemption features, the prevailing level of interest rates, the redemption price, the actual default rate and the actual level and timing of recoveries on any Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, the frequency of tender or exchange offers for such item of Portfolio Collateral, and the ability of the Issuer to reinvest proceeds in Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral satisfying the criteria set forth in the Indenture and the interest rates obtained in connection with the purchase of such Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral or in connection with the application of proceeds to purchase Eligible Investments. It is expected that a substantial amount (by Principal Balance) of the Portfolio Collateral will be subject to mandatory redemption or optional redemption or prepayment by the issuer thereof or obligor thereunder. Any acquisition of Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral or disposition of an item of Portfolio Collateral will likely change the composition and characteristics of the Portfolio Collateral included in the Trust Estate and the rate of payment thereon, and, accordingly, may affect the actual average life of the Notes. See "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral."

In addition, the Notes are subject to redemption at the times and under the circumstances described herein, including Initial Deposit Redemption, O/C Redemption (other than with respect to the Class X Notes), Optional Redemption, Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption, Tax Event Redemption and Special Redemption (other than with respect to the Class X Notes), as described herein. Any such redemption will affect the average lives of the Notes.

Under the assumptions identified below, the Class X Notes are expected to have an average life of approximately 4.35 years and an expected final payment occurring on the Payment Date in August 2013, the Class A-1LA Notes are expected to have an average life of approximately 6.80 years and an expected final payment occurring on the Payment Date in August 2014, the Class A-1LB Notes are expected to have an average life of approximately 8.23 years and an expected final payment occurring on the Payment Date in August 2014, the Class A-2L Notes are expected to have an average life of approximately 8.23 years and an expected final payment occurring on the Payment Date in August 2014, the Class A-3L Notes are expected to have an average life of approximately 8.23 years and an expected final payment occurring on the Payment Date in August 2014, the Class A-4L Notes are expected to have an average life of approximately 8.23 years and an expected final payment occurring on the Payment Date in August 2014, and the Class B-1L Notes are expected to have an average life of approximately 8.23 years and an expected final payment occurring on the Payment Date in August 2014. There can be no assurance that the average lives and expected final payment of any Class of Notes will be as set forth above. Prospective investors should make their own determinations of the payments expected to be made in respect of the Notes.

The hypothetical scenario used to determine the average lives of the Notes is as follows: (i) approximately U.S.$850,000,000 in Aggregate Principal Amount of various assumed Portfolio Collateral would be purchased on the Closing Date using all funds available on the Closing Date for the purchase of Portfolio Collateral; (ii) 100% of the Portfolio Collateral (by Aggregate Principal Amount) will consist of Floating Rate Collateral which will have a weighted average margin (in order to adjust for not being fully invested in Portfolio Collateral until after the second Payment Date) of (a) 2.5457% from the Closing Date to the first Payment Date and (b) 2.5900% thereafter; (iii) all Floating Rate Collateral bear interest based on three-month LIBOR. Three-month LIBOR is approximately 5.2041% for the first period and 3 month forward LIBOR thereafter; (iv) the Portfolio Collateral has a scheduled maturity date of November 1, 2015, with respect to Portfolio Loans, and August 1, 2014, with respect to CLO Securities, with a weighted average maturity date of May 8, 2015; (v) no Initial Deposit Redemption, Special Redemption, Tax Event Redemption or Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption of the Notes is made; (vi) an Optional Redemption occurs on the Payment Date occurring in August 1, 2014; (vii) the Additional Portfolio Floating Collateral purchased from Collections as described herein will bear interest quarterly at the rate of 2.85% per annum above LIBOR for the first year, 2.95% per annum above LIBOR for the second year, 3.00% per annum above LIBOR for the third year, 3.00% per annum above LIBOR for the fourth year and 3.00% per annum above LIBOR thereafter; (viii) all Additional Portfolio Collateral in the portfolio become callable or prepayable on the payment date immediately following the purchase date and are callable at their respective call price; (ix) all Eligible Investments will bear interest at a rate of LIBOR minus 0.25% per annum; (x) the Additional Portfolio Collateral have an initial call price of par; and (xi) the Additional Portfolio Collateral have a 6 year maturity in the case of the Floating Rate Collateral. In addition, it is assumed that no calls or defaults with respect to such Additional Portfolio Collateral will occur on the Final Maturity Date.

Further, the hypothetical scenario assumes that there are no defaults during the period from the Closing Date to February 1, 2007 and there are defaults equal to 3.00% per annum thereafter until the Optional Redemption occurs on the Payment Date occurring in August 1, 2014. The principal recovery on any defaulted Portfolio Loan and any defaulted underlying loan in a CLO Security is assumed to be 75% and in each case such recovery is assumed to occur at the default date. It is also assumed that the Scheduled Distributions on Portfolio Collateral are timely received and that such distributions earn the indicated interest rates until the next payment date without compounding. It is assumed that Floating Rate Collateral has no prepayment for one period after the Closing Date; thereafter prepayments are calculated on a 20% per annum constant prepayment rate basis for Portfolio Loans. It is assumed that during any period when the Overcollateralization Tests or the Interest Coverage Test are not satisfied, principal payments (or, in the case of the Class B-1L Notes, payments of accrued and unpaid interest and then principal) will be made in respect of the Notes to the extent necessary to satisfy the Overcollateralization Tests or the Interest Coverage Test, as applicable (to the extent funds are available therefor).

The Base Fee Amount and the Additional Fee Amount, are assumed to be approximately 0.55% per annum in aggregate, and the Trustee Administrative Expenses, Issuer Base Administrative Expenses and Issuer Excess Administrative Expenses will be 0.0275% (but no less than $75,000 per annum) plus U.S.$250,000 per annum, in the aggregate, each as a percentage of either the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral as of the first day of the Due Period relating to each Payment Date or the average of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral as of the first day of the Due Period relating to each Payment Date and the last day of the Due Period relating to such Payment Date, as appropriate for the related fee and subject to the availability of funds in the performance scenario. For purposes of calculating the Base Fee Amount and the Additional Fee Amount, the Quarterly Collateral Amount on the first calculation date is assumed to be U.S.$850,000,000.

Cash received on or before a Calculation Date is assumed to be available on the following Payment Date. Cash collected after the Calculation Date but before the immediately following Payment Date is assumed to be used to purchase Eligible Investments until the second succeeding Payment Date. With respect to Floating Rate Collateral, the accrual date on Portfolio Collateral is assumed to be the full quarterly period before the Payment Date subsequent to the Closing Date.

The weighted average lives and expected final payment dates described above are included only for illustrative purposes. The usefulness of these scenarios is limited by, among other things, the predictive value of the underlying assumptions, the uncertain relevance of the assumptions as compared to other factors which have not been identified or taken into account, and assumptions incorporated with respect to the timing of cash flows, prepayments, defaults and recoveries on the Portfolio Collateral and available interest rates. The assumptions are inherently subject to significant economic uncertainties, all of which are impossible to predict and beyond the control of the Co-Issuers. There can be no assurance that any particular performance scenario will be realized, and the performance of the Notes may be materially different from that shown. Such scenario is not a projection or forecast and was not prepared with a view to complying with published guidelines of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants regarding projections or forecasts. Under no circumstances should the inclusion of such information be regarded as a representation, warranty or prediction with respect to their accuracy or the accuracy or appropriateness of the underlying assumptions, or that the Notes will achieve or are likely to achieve any particular results. There can be no assurance that the actual performance of the Notes will not vary materially from the scenario and assumptions set forth herein or otherwise used by a prospective investor. Moreover, to the extent that the individual characteristics of the assumed Portfolio Collateral used for such purposes differ from the individual characteristics of the actual Portfolio Collateral purchased on the Closing Date and thereafter, the actual performance of the Notes may differ. Prospective investors should conduct such financial analysis as they deem prudent, which may include the preparation of their own performance scenarios under a range of economic and other assumptions chosen by such prospective investors or their advisers. Each prospective investor must make its own evaluation of the merits and risks of investment in the Notes. ## LEGAL STRUCTURE

The Indenture

The following summaries generally describe certain provisions of the Indenture. The summaries do not purport to be complete and are subject to, and qualified in their entirety by reference to, the provisions of the Indenture.

Modification of Indenture. Except as set forth below, with the consent of the Requisite Noteholders and the Servicer, the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may execute a supplemental indenture to add provisions to, or change in any manner or eliminate any provisions of, the Indenture or modify in any manner the rights of the Holders of such Notes. However, without the consent of the Holders of each Outstanding Note affected thereby, and, to the extent provided in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, the Holders of the Preferred Shares materially adversely affected thereby, no supplemental indenture may (i) change the maturity of the principal of or interest on any Note or reduce the principal amount thereof or the rate of interest thereon or change the time or amount of any other amount payable in respect of any Note, (ii) reduce the percentage of Holders of Notes whose consent is required for the authorization of any supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of the Indenture, (iii) impair or adversely affect the Trust Estate securing the Notes, (iv) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on parity with the lien of the Indenture with respect to any part of the Trust Estate or terminate the lien of the Indenture, (v) reduce the percentage of Holders of Notes whose consent is required to direct the Trustee to liquidate the Trust Estate, (vi) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture with respect to supplemental indentures or waiver of Defaults and their consequences except to increase the percentage of Outstanding Notes whose consent is required for any such action or to provide that other provisions of the Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected thereby, (vii) modify the provisions thereof relating to priority of distributions or subordination or the definition therein of the terms "Holder," "Noteholder," "Majority Noteholder," "Majority Preferred Shareholder," "Outstanding," or "Requisite Noteholder," (viii) modify any provisions in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount or timing of any payment of interest or principal due on any Note on any Payment Date (including the calculation of any of the individual components of such calculation) or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of such Notes contained in the Indenture; (ix) modify any provision relating to the institution of proceedings for the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to be adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent, (x) amend any provision that provides that the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer are non-recourse obligations or (xi) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of principal of or interest on or other amount in respect of any Note or to affect the right of the Holders of Notes to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of such Notes contained therein.

The Co-Issuers and the Trustee may also enter into supplemental indentures with the consent of the Servicer but without obtaining the consent of Noteholders, in order to (i) evidence the succession of any person to the Co-Issuers, (ii) evidence the addition of an additional issuer or of a wholly owned subsidiary of the Issuer that, in either case, will acquire securities from the Issuer and pledge its assets to secure the obligations of the Issuer secured by the Trust Estate, to the extent necessary to permit the Issuer to comply with the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder or any other statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Issuer, and the assumption by any such additional issuer or subsidiary of the covenants and obligations of the Issuer in the Indenture and, if applicable, in the Notes, (iii) add to the covenants of the Co-Issuers for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes or to surrender any right or power conferred upon the Co-Issuers, (iv) pledge any property to or with the Trustee, (v) evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of the Indenture as shall be necessary to facilitate the administration of the Trust Estate by more than one Trustee, (vi) correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of the Indenture, or to better assure, convey and confirm unto the Trustee any property subject to the lien of the Indenture, (vii) take any action necessary or helpful to prevent the Issuer or the Trustee from becoming subject to any withholding or other taxes or assessments or to reduce the risk that the Issuer will be engaged in a United States trade or business or otherwise subject to United States income tax on a net income basis, (viii) correct any manifest error in the Indenture, (ix) facilitate the delivery and maintenance of the Notes in accordance with the requirements of DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream, (x) facilitate the listing of all or any of the Notes on one or more securities exchanges, (xi) modify the restrictions on and procedures for resale and other transfer of the Notes in accordance with any change in applicable law or regulation or enable the Co-Issuers to rely upon any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the Investment Company Act, (xii) cure any ambiguity, or correct, modify or supplement any provision which is defective or inconsistent with any other provision in the Indenture, (xiii) to effectuate a Noteholder's election to acquire bond insurance, a surety bond or similar credit enhancement as described in the Indenture, or (xiv) prevent the Issuer from becoming an "investment company" as defined in the Investment Company Act or better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 thereunder; provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Initial Purchaser shall have (A) satisfied the Rating Condition with respect to such supplemental indenture and (B) received a customary, unqualified opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental indenture, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act; provided further that (A) any such amendment for any matters described in clauses (i) through (xiii) shall not materially adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Notes and (B) no amendment shall be made that would cause the Issuer to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act.

The Trustee will not be permitted to enter into any supplemental indenture if such amendment would materially adversely affect the interests of the Preferred Shareholders without the consent of the Holders representing at least 66-2/3% of the outstanding Preferred Shares.

Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to the above provisions, the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall deliver to the Holders of the Notes, the Servicer, the Preferred Share Paying and Transfer Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preferred Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) a copy of such supplemental indenture and shall request any required consent from the applicable Holders of Notes and Preferred Shares to be given within the Initial Consent Period. Any consent given to a proposed supplemental indenture by the Holder of any Notes or Preferred Shares shall be irrevocable and binding on all future Holders or beneficial owners of Notes or Preferred Shares, irrespective of the execution date of the supplemental indenture. If the Holders of less than the required percentage of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the relevant Notes or required percentage of the Preferred Shares consent to a proposed supplemental indenture within the Initial Consent Period, on the first Business Day after the Initial Consent Period, the Trustee shall notify the Issuer and the Servicer which Holders of Notes and Preferred Shares have consented to the proposed supplemental indenture and, which Holders (and, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Trustee, which beneficial owners) have not consented to the proposed supplemental indenture. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser intends to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall so notify the Trustee (which notice shall designate a date for the Amendment Buy-Out to occur no earlier than 10 Business Days after the date of such notice) no later than five (5) Business Days after so being notified by the Trustee and the Trustee shall deliver such notice to all Holders of Notes and the Preferred Share Paying and Transfer Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preferred Shares). Any Non-Consenting Holder may give consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture until the 5th Business Day prior to the date of the Amendment Buy-Out designated by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and in such case shall cease to be a Non-Consenting Holder for purposes of the Amendment Buy-Out. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser exercises its Amendment Buy-Out Option and purchases the applicable Notes or Preferred Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, as Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Notes or Preferred Shares, may consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture within five (5) Business Days of the Amendment Buy-Out.

The Indenture provides that no amendment to any provision of the Indenture or any other transaction document that materially adversely affects the obligations of any Synthetic Security Counterparty will be of any effect without the consent of such Synthetic Security Counterparty and the Issuer will not enter into any such amendment unless such Synthetic Security Counterparty has consented thereto (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld).

The Co-Issuers and the Trustee may also enter into supplemental indentures upon satisfying the Rating Condition and receiving consent from the Servicer, but without obtaining the consent of any other Person, including any Noteholder or any Holder of Preferred Shares, in order to add additional rows to the Collateral Quality Matrix; provided that any such supplemental indenture which expands the minimum or maximum ranges of the Collateral Quality Matrix from that set forth in the Indenture on the Closing Date, shall require the prior consent of the Requisite Noteholders.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee will not be permitted to enter into any supplemental indenture if, as a result of such supplemental indenture, the rating of any Class of Outstanding Notes (if then rated) would be reduced or withdrawn without the unanimous consent of the Holders of that Class of Notes.

Amendment Buy-Out

In the case of any supplemental indenture that requires the consent of one or more Holders of the Notes or Preferred Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Notes and Preferred Shares held by such Holder whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; provided, however, that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser may not exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option during the Non-Call Period in connection with a proposed amendment to reduce the rate of interest on any Security, as applicable, or to change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preferred Shares may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer; provided, further that notwithstanding the definition of Non-Consenting Holder, any Holder of Notes (other than the Class A-1LA Notes) or Preferred Shares who fails to respond to any such consent solicitation shall be deemed to have consented to any such supplemental indenture. Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the Non-Call Period, "Non-Consenting Holder" shall exclude any Holder of Class A-1LA Notes (unless such Holder has consented in writing to be designated as a Non-Consenting Holder) and the Amendment Buy-Out Option shall not be applicable to such Class A-1LA Notes. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all Notes and Preferred Shares of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes or Preferred Shares the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of a Note or Preferred Share, each Holder of a Note and Preferred Share agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Note or Preferred Share to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing described above or in the Indenture shall in any way limit or restrict the rights of Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes to consent or withhold their consent to a supplemental indenture or otherwise vote their interest both during and after the Non-Call Period.

All purchases made pursuant to the Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Notes and Preferred Shares set forth in "Delivery of the Notes; Transfer Restrictions; Settlement" herein and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Acts of Noteholders. Under the Indenture, with respect to any Noteholder which has notified the Trustee in writing that pursuant to such Noteholder's organizational documents or other documents governing such Noteholder's actions, such Noteholder is not permitted to take any affirmative action approving, rejecting or otherwise acting upon any Issuer request including, but not limited to, a request for the consent of such Noteholder to a proposed amendment or waiver pursuant to this Indenture, the failure by such Noteholder to consent to or reject any such requested action will be deemed a consent by such Noteholder to the requested action.

Consolidation, Merger or Transfer of Assets, Incurrence of Indebtedness, Conduct of Business. The Co-Issuers may not consolidate with, merge into, or transfer or convey all or substantially all of their assets to, any other corporation, partnership, trust or other person or entity (except for sales or exchanges of Portfolio Collateral as contemplated by the Indenture). In addition, the Co-Issuers may not incur any indebtedness other than the Notes and trade debt incidental to the performance of their obligations under the Indenture or engage in any business or activity other than the issuance of the Notes, the Preferred Shares, the ordinary shares and the other transactions and activities, as applicable, contemplated herein. Pursuant to the Indenture and the Co-Issuers' organizational documentation, the Co-Issuers may also not, without the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, amend their organizational documentation if such amendment would have a material adverse effect on the right of the Noteholders.

Events of Default. An event of default ("Event of Default") is defined in the Indenture as being (i) a default for four Business Days or more (or in the case of a default in payment due to an administrative error or omission by the Trustee, any Paying Agent or the Note Registrar, for a period of seven Business Days or more, provided that the Trustee has notified each Rating Agency of any such administrative error or omission) in the payment of any amount payable in respect of any Note when due when funds in such amount are available for payment in accordance with the Indenture, (ii) a failure after four Business Days (or in the case of a default in payment due to an administrative error or omission by the Trustee, any Paying Agent or the Note Registrar, for a period of seven Business Days or more, provided that the Trustee has notified each Rating Agency of any such administrative error or omission), to apply available amounts in accordance with the priority of distribution set forth in the Indenture, (iii) a default for four Business Days or more (or in the case of a default in payment due to an administrative error or omission by the Trustee, any Paying Agent or the Note Registrar, for a period of seven Business Days or more, provided that the Trustee has notified each Rating Agency of any such administrative error or omission) in the payment of (A) the Periodic Interest Amount due on any Senior Class A Notes on any Payment Date or a Class X Payment due on any Class X Notes, (B) after the Senior Class A Notes and Class X Notes are paid in full, the Periodic Interest Amount due on the Class A-3L Notes on any Payment Date, (C) after the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class X Notes are paid in full, the Periodic Interest Amount due on the Class

A-4L Notes on any Payment Date and (D) after the Class A Notes and the Class X Notes are paid in full, the Periodic Interest Amount due on the Class B-1L Notes on any Payment Date; (iv) a default in the payment of the Aggregate Principal Amount and the Cumulative Interest Amount due on any Class of Notes on the Final Maturity Date, (v) a default in the performance, or a breach of any covenant, representation, warranty or other agreement of the Co-Issuers (or either one of them) other than compliance with the Overcollateralization Tests, the Interest Coverage Test or the collateral quality criteria described herein, or the failure of any representation or warranty of the Co-Issuers (or either one of them) in the Indenture or in any certificate or other writing delivered pursuant to or in connection with the Indenture to be correct in all material respects when the same shall have been made, in any such case which materially and adversely affects the rights of any Class of Noteholders and continuance of such default, breach or failure for a period of 30 days after written notice to the Co-Issuers or the Servicer by the Trustee or to the Co-Issuers or the Servicer and the Trustee by the Holders of at least a majority in principal amount of the Notes, (vi) certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or reorganization of the Co-Issuers, (vii) either of the Co-Issuers or the pool of assets constituting the Trust Estate becomes required to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act of 1940, (viii) the failure to maintain on any Calculation Date a Senior Class A Overcollateralization Ratio of at least 100%. The failure to pay in full Periodic Interest on the Class A-3L Notes as a result of insufficient funds being available therefor will not constitute an Event of Default so long as the Senior Class A Notes or Class X Notes are Outstanding. The failure to pay in full Periodic Interest on the Class A-4L Notes as a result of insufficient funds being available therefore will not constitute an Event of Default so long as the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-3L Notes or the Class X Notes are Outstanding. The failure to pay in full Periodic Interest on the Class B-1L Notes as a result of insufficient funds being available therefor will not constitute an Event of Default so long as any Class A Notes or Class X Notes are Outstanding. An event of insolvency could result if relief has been ordered against the Co-Issuers in a case under applicable bankruptcy law and the Co-Issuers, the trustee, if any, for either of the Co-Issuers or a creditor of either of the Co-Issuers were to file an involuntary petition against either of the Co-Issuers. The filing of a petition against the Co-Issuers under applicable bankruptcy law could adversely affect the rights of the Holders of Notes to receive timely payments.

If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in clause (vi) above) under the Indenture should occur and be continuing with respect to the Notes, the Trustee may with the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, and shall, at the written direction of the Requisite Noteholders, declare the principal of the Notes to be immediately due and payable. Such declaration may under certain circumstances be rescinded by the Trustee with the consent of the Requisite Noteholders or at the written direction of the Requisite Noteholders. If an Event of Default specified in clause (vi) above should occur and be continuing, the principal of the Notes shall become immediately due and payable without the necessity of notice or any other action. If the Notes are accelerated, or if the Final Maturity Date has occurred, the Holders of the Notes shall be entitled to receive the Cumulative Interest Amount and the Aggregate Principal Amount with respect thereto (as calculated and accrued through the date of payment in full of the Aggregate Principal Amount of each Class of Notes) in the order of priority set forth under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions—Final Maturity Date."

If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing or if the Final Maturity Date has occurred, the Trustee shall refrain from liquidating and shall preserve the Trust Estate intact unless (i) the Requisite Noteholders have directed the Trustee to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof in the case of (A) an Event of Default resulting from failure to pay interest or principal on a Note or (B) a sale or liquidation of all or a portion of the Trust Estate at or above the aggregate par value of all Collateral so liquidated or sold (and Defaulted Portfolio Collateral may be liquidated or sold without reference to, or inclusion in the calculation of, such limitation), or (ii) 100% of the Noteholders have otherwise directed the Trustee to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof. In addition, under certain circumstances, if an Event of Default as described under clauses (iii) and (iv) of "Events of Default" shall have occurred and be continuing, the Servicer may be terminated as described under "The Servicing Agreement—Termination of Servicing Agreement."

Pursuant to the Indenture, as security for the payment by the Issuer of the compensation and expenses of the Trustee and the Paying and Transfer Agent and any sums to which the Trustee and the Paying and Transfer Agent may be entitled to receive as indemnification by the Issuer, the Issuer has granted the Trustee a senior lien on the Trust Estate, which is senior to the lien of the Notes on the Trust Estate. These liens are exercisable by the Trustee or the Paying and Transfer Agent only if the Notes have been declared due and payable following an Event of Default, and the acceleration of the maturity of such Notes as a result of such Event of Default has not been rescinded or annulled.

Subject to the provisions of the Indenture relating to the duties of the Trustee in case an Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall occur and be continuing, the Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers under the Indenture at the request or direction of any Holders of Notes, unless such Holders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it. Subject to such provisions for indemnification and certain limitations contained in the Indenture, the Requisite Noteholders will have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding of any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee with respect to the Notes; and, in certain cases, waive any default with respect to such Notes, except a default in payment of any amount payable in respect of any Note or a default in respect of a covenant or provision of the Indenture that cannot be modified without the waiver or consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected thereby.

Rights Under the Indenture. No Holder of a Note will have the right to institute any proceeding with respect to the Indenture, unless (1) such Holder previously has given to the Trustee written notice of an Event of Default with respect to such Notes, (2) the Requisite Noteholders have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such proceedings in its own name as Trustee, (3) such Holder or Holders have offered the Trustee indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it as provided in the Indenture, (4) the Trustee has for 30 days failed to institute any such proceeding, and (5) no direction inconsistent with such written request has been given to the Trustee during such 30-day period by the Requisite Noteholders.

Satisfaction and Discharge of the Indenture. The Indenture will be discharged with respect to the collateral securing the Notes upon delivery to the Trustee for cancellation of all of the Notes, or, within certain limitations (including the obligation to pay principal and interest), upon deposit with the Trustee of cash or Eligible Investments sufficient for the amount thereof.

Trustee. JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association will be the Trustee under the Indenture for the Notes. The Issuer, the Servicer and their affiliates may maintain other banking relationships in the ordinary course of business with the Trustee. The Indenture provides that the Trustee may appoint one or more co-trustees in the event that Holders of the Notes have conflicting interests and in certain other circumstances. The Trustee or an Affiliate of the Trustee may receive compensation in connection with the purchase of certain Eligible Investments as provided in the Indenture.

The parent company of the Trustee, JPMorgan Chase & Co. ("JPMorgan"), has entered into an agreement with The Bank of New York Company, Inc. ("BNY") pursuant to which JPMorgan intends to exchange select portions of its corporate trust business, including municipal, corporate and structured finance trusteeships, for BNY's consumer, small-business and middle-market banking businesses. This transaction has been approved by both companies' boards of directors and is subject to regulatory approvals. It is expected to close in the late third quarter or fourth quarter of 2006.

The Indenture contains provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee for any loss, liability or expense incurred without negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of its duties under the Indenture.

The Trustee may resign at any time by giving notice as set forth in the Indenture. The Trustee may be removed for any reason by the Holders of more than 50% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Controlling Class, or by the Issuer if at any time the Trustee fails to meet certain eligibility criteria set forth in the Indenture or if the Trustee is adjudged to be bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver or liquidator or similar official of the Trustee or its property is appointed. No resignation or removal of the Trustee shall be effective until a successor trustee has been appointed pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

Governing Law. The Indenture and the other documents relating to the Notes will be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

Notices. Notices to the Holders of the Notes will be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the registered Holders of the Notes at their address appearing in the Note Register. In addition, for so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of such exchange so require, notice given to the Holders of any such Class of Notes will also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

Voting Rights of Preferred Shares of HFP. The aggregate amount of the Preferred Shares owned or controlled by HFP and the Servicer Entities in excess of the Original HFP Share Amount will be excluded from voting on certain matters including any Optional Redemption.

DELIVERY OF THE NOTES; TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS; SETTLEMENT

The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and, accordingly, may not be reoffered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons, except in accordance with the restrictions described under "Notices to Purchasers." Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.

Without limiting the foregoing, by holding a Note, each Holder will acknowledge and agree, among other things, that such Holder understands that neither of the Co-Issuers is registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act, but that the Co-Issuers are exempt from registration as such by virtue of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act, which in general excludes from the definition of an investment company any issuer whose outstanding securities are beneficially owned solely by Qualified Purchasers and which has not made and does not propose to make a public offering of its securities and Rule 3a-7. Any sale or transfer which would violate these provisions shall be void from the time of such sale or transfer, and no sale or transfer may be made if such sale or transfer would require the Co-Issuers to become subject to the requirements of the Investment Company Act.

Each transferee of a Note (except with respect to a transfer pursuant to Regulation S) will be deemed to represent at time of transfer that the transferee is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (i) that it is a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) that it is not formed for the purpose of investing in the Notes, unless all of its beneficial owners are Qualified Purchasers, (iii) that it is not a dealer described in paragraph (a)(1)(ii) of Rule 144A unless such transferee owns and invests on a discretionary basis at least U.S.$25 million in securities of issuers that are not affiliated persons of such dealer, (iv) that it is not a plan referred to in paragraph (a)(1)(i)(D) or (E) of Rule 144A or a trust fund referred to in paragraph (a)(1)(i)(F) of Rule 144A that holds the assets of such plan, unless investment decisions are made solely by the fiduciary, trustee or sponsor of such plan, (v) that it and each account for which it is purchasing is purchasing Notes in at least the minimum denomination and (vi) that it will provide written notice of the foregoing and any other applicable transfer restrictions to any transferee.

The Indenture provides that if, notwithstanding the restrictions on transfer contained therein, the Issuer determines any beneficial owner or Holder of a Note (other than a Note transferred in reliance on Regulation S) is not a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser, the Issuer will require that such beneficial owner or Holder sell all of its right title and interest in such Note to a person who is so qualified, with such sale to be effected within 30 days after notice of such sale requirement is given. If such sale is not effected within such 30 days, upon written direction from the Issuer, the Trustee (or an investment banker selected by the Trustee and approved by the Issuer) will be authorized to conduct a commercially reasonable sale of such Note to a person who does so qualify and pending transfer, no further payments will be made in respect of such Note or any beneficial interest therein.

Except for interests in Notes represented by a Regulation S Global Note or a Rule 144A Global Note as described herein, the Notes will be represented by definitive registered Notes registered in the name of the purchaser thereof.

Unless determined otherwise by the Co-Issuers in accordance with applicable law, the Notes will bear the legend set forth below:

THIS NOTE HAS NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE U.S. SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), ANY STATE SECURITIES LAWS IN THE UNITED STATES OR THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION AND MAY NOT BE REOFFERED, RESOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OR TO, OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OR BENEFIT OF, UNITED STATES PERSONS, EXCEPT AS PERMITTED BY THIS LEGEND. THE HOLDER HEREOF, BY ITS ACCEPTANCE OF THIS NOTE, REPRESENTS, ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT WILL NOT REOFFER, RESELL, PLEDGE OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER THIS NOTE EXCEPT IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE SECURITIES ACT AND OTHER APPLICABLE LAWS AND EXCEPT (A) IN

COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER AS DEFINED IN RULE 144A PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER, WHOM THE SELLER HAS INFORMED, IN EACH CASE, THAT THE REOFFER, RESALE, PLEDGE OR OTHER TRANSFER IS BEING MADE IN RELIANCE ON RULE 144A, PROVIDED THAT SUCH PURCHASER DELIVERS ALL DOCUMENTS AND CERTIFICATIONS AS THE CO-ISSUERS OR THE TRUSTEE MAY REASONABLY REQUIRE; (B) TO A NON U.S. PERSON OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 903 OR 904 OF REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT; OR (C) TO THE CO-ISSUERS OR THEIR AFFILIATES, IN EACH CASE IN ACCORDANCE WITH ANY APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAW OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER JURISDICTION. THE HOLDER HEREOF, BY ITS ACCEPTANCE OF THIS NOTE, REPRESENTS, ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT WILL NOT REOFFER, RESELL, PLEDGE OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER THIS NOTE EXCEPT TO A NON-U.S. PERSON OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES IN COMPLIANCE WITH REGULATION S OR TO A "QUALIFIED PURCHASER" WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 3(c)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED (THE "INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT"), IN A TRANSACTION THAT DOES NOT CAUSE THE CO-ISSUERS TO BE REQUIRED TO REGISTER UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT. FURTHER, THE CLASS X NOTES, THE CLASS A-1LA NOTES, THE CLASS A-1LB NOTES, THE CLASS A-2L NOTES, THE CLASS A-3L NOTES AND THE CLASS A-4L NOTES MAY NOT BE SOLD OR TRANSFERRED UNLESS SUCH SALE OR TRANSFER WILL NOT CONSTITUTE OR RESULT IN A NON-EXEMPT PROHIBITED TRANSACTION UNDER ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE. THE CLASS B-1L NOTES MAY NOT BE SOLD OR TRANSFERRED TO ANY PLAN SUBJECT TO TITLE I OF ERISA OR SECTION 4975 OF THE CODE, OR TO ANY PERSON ACTING ON BEHALF OF OR WITH "PLAN ASSETS" OF ANY SUCH PLAN, INCLUDING AN INSURANCE COMPANY GENERAL ACCOUNT, UNLESS THE PURCHASER OR TRANSFEREE IS ELIGIBLE FOR THE EXEMPTIVE RELIEF AVAILABLE UNDER PTCE 96-23, 95-60, 91-38, 90-1 OR 84-14.

EACH TRANSFEREE OF A NOTE (EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO A TRANSFER PURSUANT TO REGULATION S) WILL BE DEEMED TO REPRESENT AT TIME OF TRANSFER THAT SUCH TRANSFEREE IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER OR A NON U.S. PERSON AND (I) THAT IT IS A QUALIFIED PURCHASER, (II) THAT IT IS NOT FORMED FOR THE PURPOSE OF INVESTING IN THE NOTES, UNLESS ALL OF ITS BENEFICIAL OWNERS ARE QUALIFIED PURCHASERS, (III) THAT IT IS NOT A DEALER DESCRIBED IN PARAGRAPH (a)(1)(ii) OF RULE 144A UNLESS SUCH TRANSFEREE OWNS AND INVESTS ON A DISCRETIONARY BASIS AT LEAST U.S.$25 MILLION IN SECURITIES OF ISSUERS THAT ARE NOT AFFILIATED PERSONS OF SUCH DEALER, (IV) THAT IT IS NOT A PLAN REFERRED TO IN PARAGRAPH (a)(1)(i)(D) OR (E) OF RULE 144A OR A TRUST FUND REFERRED TO IN PARAGRAPH (a)(1)(i)(F) OF RULE 144A THAT HOLDS THE ASSETS OF SUCH PLAN, UNLESS INVESTMENT DECISIONS ARE MADE SOLELY BY THE FIDUCIARY, TRUSTEE OR SPONSOR OF SUCH PLAN, (V) THAT IT AND EACH ACCOUNT FOR WHICH IT IS PURCHASING IS PURCHASING NOTES IN AT LEAST THE MINIMUM DENOMINATION AND (VI) THAT IT WILL PROVIDE WRITTEN NOTICE OF THE FOREGOING AND ANY OTHER APPLICABLE TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS TO ANY TRANSFEREE.

THE INDENTURE PROVIDES THAT IF, NOTWITHSTANDING THE RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER CONTAINED THEREIN, THE ISSUER DETERMINES ANY BENEFICIAL OWNER OR HOLDER OF A NOTE (OTHER THAN A NOTE TRANSFERRED IN RELIANCE ON REGULATION S) IS NOT A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER AND A QUALIFIED PURCHASER, THE ISSUER WILL REQUIRE THAT SUCH BENEFICIAL OWNER OR HOLDER SELL ALL OF ITS RIGHT TITLE AND INTEREST IN SUCH NOTE TO A PERSON WHO IS SO QUALIFIED, WITH SUCH SALE TO BE EFFECTED WITHIN 30

DAYS AFTER NOTICE OF SUCH SALE REQUIREMENT IS GIVEN. IF SUCH SALE IS NOT EFFECTED WITHIN SUCH 30 DAYS, UPON WRITTEN DIRECTION FROM THE ISSUER, THE TRUSTEE (OR AN INVESTMENT BANKER SELECTED BY THE TRUSTEE AND APPROVED BY THE ISSUER) WILL BE AUTHORIZED TO CONDUCT A COMMERCIALY REASONABLE SALE OF SUCH NOTE TO A PERSON WHO DOES SO QUALIFY AND PENDING TRANSFER, NO FURTHER PAYMENTS WILL BE MADE IN RESPECT OF SUCH NOTE OR ANY BENEFICIAL INTEREST THEREIN.

TRANSFERS OF THE NOTES MUST GENERALLY BE ACCOMPANIED BY APPROPRIATE TAX TRANSFER DOCUMENTATION AND ARE SUBJECT TO RESTRICTIONS AS PROVIDED IN THE INDENTURE.

THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IS PROVIDED PURSUANT TO UNITED STATES TREASURY REGULATION SECTION 1.1275-3(b). THIS NOTE HAS BEEN ISSUED WITH ORIGINAL ISSUE DISCOUNT FOR UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX PURPOSES. THE HOLDER OF THIS NOTE MAY OBTAIN THE INFORMATION DESCRIBED IN UNITED STATES TREASURY REGULATION SECTION 1.1275-3(b)(1)(i) FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR, AT THE FOLLOWING ADDRESS: P.O. BOX 1093 GT, GRAND CAYMAN, CAYMAN ISLANDS.

Subject to the restrictions on transfer set forth in the Indenture and the Notes and except with respect to transfer of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note or a Rule 144A Global Note (the procedure for which is set forth in the Indenture), the Holder of any Notes may transfer the same in whole or in part (in a principal amount equal to any authorized denomination) by surrendering such Notes at the corporate trust office of the Trustee or at the office of any transfer agent, together with an executed instrument of assignment and transfer substantially in the form attached to the Indenture. In exchange for any Notes properly presented for transfer with all necessary accompanying documentation, the Trustee will authenticate and deliver at the corporate trust office of the Trustee or the office of the transfer agent, as the case may be, to the transferee or send by first-class mail at the risk of the transferee to such address as the transferee may request, a Note or Notes, for a like aggregate principal amount and in such authorized denomination or denominations as may be requested. The presentation for transfer of any Notes will not be valid unless made at the office of the Trustee designated for such purpose or at the office of a transfer agent by the registered Holder in person, or by a duly authorized attorney-in-fact. The Holder of a Note will not be required to bear the costs and expenses of effecting any transfer or registration of transfer, except that the relevant Holder will be required to bear (i) the expenses of delivery by other than regular mail (if any) and (ii) if the Co-Issuers so require, the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any duty, stamp tax or governmental charge or insurance charges that may be imposed in relation thereto.

Settlement

All payments in respect of the Notes shall be made in United States dollars in same-day funds.

CERTAIN TAX CONSIDERATIONS

Introduction

The following is a summary of certain of the United States federal income tax consequences of an investment in the Notes by purchasers that acquire their Notes in the initial offering. The discussion and the opinions referenced below are based upon laws, regulations, rulings, and decisions currently in effect, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Prospective investors should note that no rulings have been or are expected to be sought from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") with respect to any of the United States federal income tax consequences discussed below, and no assurance can be given that the IRS will not take contrary positions. Further, the following summary does not deal with all United States federal income tax consequences applicable to any given investor, nor does it address the United States federal income tax considerations applicable to all categories of investors, some of which may be subject to special rules, such as Non-U.S. Holders (defined below), banks, REITs, RICs, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, dealers in securities or currencies, electing large partnerships, natural persons, cash method taxpayers, S corporations, estates and trusts, investors that hold their Notes as part of a hedge, straddle, or an integrated or conversion transaction, or investors whose "functional currency" is not the United States dollar. Furthermore, it does not address alternative minimum tax consequences, or the indirect effects on investors of equity interests in either a U.S. Holder (as defined below) or a Non-U.S. Holder. In addition, this summary is generally limited to investors that acquire their Notes on the Closing Date for the issue price applicable to such Notes and who will hold their Notes as "capital assets" within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). Investors should consult their own tax advisors to determine the United States federal, state, local, and other tax consequences of the purchase, ownership, and disposition of the Notes.

As used herein, "U.S. Holder" means a beneficial owner of a Note that is an individual citizen or resident of the United States for United States federal income tax purposes, a corporation or other entity taxable as a corporation created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof (including the District of Columbia), an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation regardless of its source, or a trust where a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more United States persons (as defined in the Code) have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust (or a trust that has made a valid election under United States Treasury Regulations to be treated as a domestic trust). If a partnership holds Notes, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend upon the status of the partner and upon the activities of the partnership. Partners of partnerships holding Notes should consult their own tax advisors. "Non-U.S. Holder" means any holder (or beneficial holder) of a Note that is not a U.S. Holder.

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences to the Issuer

Upon the issuance of the Notes, Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, special United States tax counsel to the Issuer, will deliver an opinion generally to the effect that under current law, and assuming compliance with the Indenture (and certain other documents) and based on certain factual representations made by the Issuer and the Servicer, although the matter is not free from doubt, the Issuer will not be engaged in the conduct of a trade or business in the United States. Prospective investors should be aware that opinions of counsel are not binding on the IRS and the IRS might seek to treat the Issuer as engaged in a United States trade or business. In addition, the Issuer and Servicer are entitled to rely upon the advice and/or opinions of their selected counsel with respect to amendments, supplements and other modifications of the terms of the Portfolio Collateral and deviations from the investment guidelines set forth in the Servicing Agreement; the foregoing opinion assumes that any such advice and/or opinions will be correct and complete. It should be noted as well that the United States Treasury Department and the IRS recently announced that they are considering taxpayer requests for specific guidance on, among other things, whether a foreign person may be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States by virtue of entering into credit default swaps. No guidance has been issued to date. If any future guidance concludes that foreign persons entering into certain credit default swaps will be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States, such guidance would adversely impact the Issuer's ability to pay principal and interest on the Notes. Additionally, it should be noted that gain or loss on a disposition by a foreign person of a United States real property interest may be subject to United States federal income tax as if the foreign person were engaged in a United States trade or business (even if the foreign person is not actually so engaged). Because the determination of whether an asset constitutes a United States real property interest is made periodically, although the Issuer is prohibited from acquiring an asset that constitutes a United States real property interest, it is possible that an asset that was not a United States real property interest at the time such asset was acquired by the Issuer could become a United States real property interest after the asset is acquired. Similarly, if the Issuer accepted a new security in exchange for an existing security or if the terms of an existing security were modified, the new or modified security might cause the Issuer to become engaged in a United States trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes.

The Issuer intends to elect to be (and expects to be) treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes. There can be no assurance, however, that the Issuer will not (at some point in time) become classified as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes. If the Issuer were to be treated as a corporation and if the IRS were to successfully characterize the Issuer as engaged in a United States trade or business, among other consequences, the Issuer would be subject to net income taxation in the United States (as well as the branch profits tax) on its income that is effectively connected to the United States trade or business. The levying of such taxes would materially affect the Issuer's financial ability to pay principal and interest on the Notes.

The Issuer intends to acquire the Portfolio Collateral the interest on which and any gain from the sale or disposition with respect to which is not expected to be subject to United States federal withholding tax or withholding tax imposed by other countries (unless, in the case of interest, the obligor is required to "gross up" its payments to compensate for these taxes). The Issuer will not, however, make any independent investigation of the circumstances surrounding the issuance of the individual assets comprising the Portfolio Collateral and, thus, there can be no assurance that payments of interest on and gain from the sale or disposition of the Portfolio Collateral will in all cases be received free of withholding tax. It is not expected that the Issuer will derive material amounts of any other items of income that will be subject to United States withholding taxes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any commitment fee, facility fee or other similar fee that the Issuer earns may be subject to a 30% United States federal withholding tax and any lending fees received under a securities lending agreement may also be subject to such tax.

If withholding or deduction of any taxes from payments on the Notes is required by law in any jurisdiction, the Issuer shall be under no obligation to make any additional payments to any holder in respect of such withholding or deduction.

Classification and Tax Treatment of the Notes

The Issuer has agreed and, by its acceptance of a Note, each holder will be deemed to have agreed, to treat each of the Notes as debt of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes. Upon the issuance of the Notes, Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP will deliver an opinion generally to the effect that, assuming compliance with the Indenture (and certain other documents) and based on certain factual representations made by the Issuer and the Servicer, the Notes should be characterized as debt of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes. Prospective investors should be aware that opinions of counsel are not binding on the IRS, and there can be no assurance that the IRS will not seek to characterize any Class of Notes as other than indebtedness. However, except as provided under "Alternative Characterizations of the Notes," the balance of this discussion assumes that the Notes will be characterized as debt of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes.

Each U.S. Holder will include interest on the Notes in income in accordance with its regular method of accounting for Federal income tax purposes unless the Notes are viewed as having been issued with original issue discount ("OID") in which case, generally, each U.S. Holder would be required to accrue interest on the Note on an accrual basis under a constant yield methodology, based on the original yield to maturity of the Note. Because interest on the Class A-3L Notes, Class A-4L Notes and Class B-1L Notes may be deferred without giving rise to an Event of Default, all interest (including interest on accrued but unpaid interest) will be treated as OID unless the likelihood of deferral is remote. The Issuer has not determined whether the likelihood of interest being deferred is remote for this purpose, and hence will treat the interest on the Class A-3L Notes, Class A-4L Notes and Class B-1L Notes as OID. Even if the likelihood of deferral is remote, if the Issuer does in fact defer interest on a Class of Notes, a U.S. Holder would thereafter be required to accrue interest (including deferred interest) with respect to such Notes as OID. Any accrued but unpaid OID included in income by a U.S. Holder would increase the U.S. Holder's basis in the Note and thereby reduce the amount of gain or increase the amount of loss recognized by the U.S. Holder on a subsequent sale or other disposition of the Note.

If any of the Notes are viewed as having been issued with OID, the OID may be accruable under the special rules set forth in Section 1272(a)(6) of the Code (which apply to debt instruments that may be accelerated by reason of the prepayment of other debt obligations securing such debt instruments). If Section 1272(a)(6) does not apply, the Notes might be treated as "contingent payment debt instruments" ("CPDIs") within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.1275-4. If any Class of Notes were considered CPDIs, among other consequences, gain on the sale of such Notes that might otherwise be capital gain would be ordinary income. Prospective investors should consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential application of Section 1272(a)(6) of the Code to the Notes and the rules governing CPDIs.

The United States federal income tax consequences of a Maturity Extension are unclear. If a Maturity Extension occurs with respect to the Notes (other than the Class X Notes), the Issuer intends to treat such Notes, solely for purposes of sections 1272 and 1273 of the Code, as having been retired and reissued for an amount equal to their adjusted issue price on the date of the new Extension Effective Date. Additionally, U.S. Holders may be deemed for United States federal income tax purpose to have exchanged their Notes in a taxable exchange for new notes with an extended final maturity date (the "New Notes") if, at such time, the Extension Qualifying Purchaser is related to the Issuer within the meaning of Section 267(b) or 707(b)(1) of the Code. If such relationship existed, U.S. Holders that did not exercise their right to put their Notes to the Extension Qualifying Purchaser may be treated as having acquired such New Notes with market discount or premium (and there might be other possible tax consequences). In addition, if the Notes are treated as exchanged for New Notes, the characterization of the New Notes (as debt or equity) would depend on the facts and circumstances existing at the time of such deemed exchange. In the event of a Maturity Extension, all U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors with respect to whether the Extension Qualifying Purchaser is related to the Issuer, and, if so, the United States federal income tax consequences of any deemed exchange.

The tax treatment of the Extension Bonus Payment is also unclear. The Issuer intends to take the position that the Extension Bonus Payment is an incidental payment within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.1275-2(h)(3), and that the amount of such payment should be includible in income as ordinary income in accordance with the U.S. Holder's normal method of tax accounting. The Issuer's determination with respect to this issue will not be binding on the IRS, but will be binding on any U.S. Holder that does not disclose an objection on its timely filed tax return for the taxable year that includes the acquisition date of such Note. U.S. Holders should consult with their own tax advisors concerning the proper taxation and characterization of such payments, and whether the right to such payments could cause the Notes to be subject to the OID rules or to be treated as CPDIs.

In general, a U.S. Holder of a Note will have a basis in such Note equal to the cost of such Note to such U.S. Holder, increased by any amount includible in income by such U.S. Holder as OID and reduced by any amortized premium, any principal payments and any payments of OID. Upon a sale, exchange or other disposition of a Note, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized on the sale, exchange or other disposition (less any accrued and unpaid interest, which would be taxable as such) and the U.S. Holder's tax basis in such Note (as reduced by any accrued and unpaid interest). Such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder held the Note for more than one year at the time of disposition (other than accrued market discount if the U.S. Holder did not elect to include such discount in income on a current basis). In certain circumstances, U.S. Holders that are individuals may be entitled to preferential treatment for net long-term capital gains; however, the ability of U.S. Holders to offset capital losses against ordinary income is limited.

The Indenture provides that Holders of any Class of Notes may elect to acquire credit enhancement on terms and conditions acceptable to such Holders. Prior to acquiring such enhancement, U.S. Holders should consult with their own tax advisors concerning the treatment of the credit enhancement for United States federal income tax purposes (including the viability of integrating the Notes and the credit enhancement).

Alternative Characterizations of the Notes

Notwithstanding special United States tax counsel's opinion, U.S. Holders should recognize that there is some uncertainty regarding the appropriate classification of instruments such as the Notes. It is possible, for example, that the IRS may contend that the Class B-1L Notes and, possibly, any other Class of Notes should be treated as equity interests in the Issuer. In such a case, payments on the Notes would likely be viewed as guaranteed payments (rather than as interest) for United States federal income tax purposes. Additionally, U.S. Holders would be required to file information returns with the IRS with respect to their acquisition of the Notes and be subject to significant penalties for failure to do so. Moreover, if the Issuer were classified as a corporation rather than as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes and the Notes were viewed as equity in this corporation, the Issuer would constitute a passive foreign investment company and, possibly, a controlled foreign corporation, which would produce adverse tax consequences for U.S. Holders. Accordingly, all U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the consequences that would result if the Notes were characterized as equity (and the additional consequences that would result if the Issuer were classified as a corporation) for United States federal income tax purposes.

Information Reporting Requirements

Information reporting to the IRS may be required with respect to payments on the Notes, and proceeds of the sale of the Notes to holders other than corporations and certain other exempt recipients. A “backup” withholding tax may also apply to those payments if a holder fails to provide certain identifying information (such as the holder’s taxpayer identification number or an attestation to the status of the holder as a Non-U.S. Holder). Backup withholding is not an additional tax and may be refunded (or credited against the holder’s U.S. federal income tax liability, if any) provided that certain required information is furnished to the IRS in a timely manner.

Prospective investors should consult with their own tax advisors regarding whether they are required to file an IRS Form 8886 in respect of this transaction (relating to certain “reportable transactions”). Thus, for example, if a U.S. Holder were to sell its Notes at a loss, it is possible that this loss could constitute a reportable transaction, and need to be reported on Form 8886. As another example, a transaction may be reportable if it is offered under conditions of confidentiality. In this regard, each holder and beneficial holder of the Notes (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) is hereby advised that it is permitted to disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions described herein (including the ownership and disposition of the Notes). Significant penalties apply for failure to file Form 8886 when required, and holders are therefore urged to consult their own tax advisors.

Non-U.S. Holders

Assuming that the Issuer is not engaged in a United States trade or business, a Non-U.S. Holder of a Note that has no connection with the United States and is not related, directly or indirectly, with the Issuer or the holders of the Issuer's equity, will not be subject to United States withholding tax on interest payments. Non-U.S. Holders may be required to make certain tax representations regarding the identity of the beneficial owner of the Notes in order to receive payments free of withholding.

Circular 230

Under 31 C.F.R. part 10, the regulations governing practice before the IRS (Circular 230), we and our tax advisors are (or may be) required to inform you that:

- Any advice contained herein, including any opinions of counsel referred to herein, is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used by any taxpayer, for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer;
- Any such advice is written to support the promotion or marketing of the Notes and the transactions described herein (or in such opinion or other advice); and
- Each taxpayer should seek advice based on the taxpayer's particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

CAYMAN ISLANDS TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion of certain Cayman Islands income tax consequences of an investment in the Notes is based on the advice of Maples and Calder as to Cayman Islands law. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It assumes that the Issuer will conduct its affairs in accordance with assumptions made by, and representations made to, counsel. It is not intended as tax advice, does not consider any investor's particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

Under existing Cayman Islands laws:

- (i) payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes will not be subject to taxation in the Cayman Islands and no withholding will be required on such payments to any Holder of a Note and gains derived from the sale of Notes will not be subject to Cayman Islands income or corporation tax. The Cayman Islands currently have no income, corporation or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax; and

(ii) the Holder of any Note (or the legal personal representative of such Holder) whose Note is brought into the Cayman Islands may in certain circumstances be liable to pay stamp duty imposed under the laws of the Cayman Islands in respect of such Note.

The Issuer has been incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands as an exempted company and, as such, has applied for and obtained an undertaking from the Governor In Cabinet of the Cayman Islands in the following form:

The Tax Concessions Law

(1999 Revision)

Undertaking as to Tax Concessions

In accordance with Section 6 of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision) the Governor in Cabinet undertakes with Rockwall CDO Ltd. (the "Company"):

- (a) that no law which is hereafter enacted in the Islands imposing any tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations shall apply to the Company or its operations; and
- (b) in addition, that no tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations or which is in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax shall be payable
  - (i) on or in respect of the shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company; or
  - (ii) by way of the withholding in whole or in part of any relevant payment as defined in Section 6(3) of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision).

These concessions shall be for a period of twenty years from the 21st day of June 2005.

CERTAIN ERISA CONSIDERATIONS

The United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), imposes requirements on employee benefit plans (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) subject to Title I of ERISA ("ERISA Plans") and on persons who are fiduciaries (as defined in Section 3(21) of ERISA) with respect to such ERISA Plans. Investments by ERISA Plans are subject to ERISA's general fiduciary requirements, including the requirement of investment prudence and diversification, requirements respecting delegation of investment authority and the requirement that an ERISA Plan's investments be made in accordance with the documents governing the ERISA Plan. Each ERISA Plan fiduciary should give appropriate consideration to the facts and circumstances that are relevant to an investment in the Notes, including the role that an investment in the Notes plays in the Plan's investment portfolio. Before deciding to invest "plan assets" of any ERISA Plan in the Notes, the investing ERISA Plan fiduciary should be satisfied that investment in the Notes is a prudent investment for the ERISA Plan, that the investments of the ERISA Plan, including the investment in the Notes, are diversified so as to minimize the risk of large losses and that an investment in the Notes complies with the ERISA Plan and related trust documents. Any person who decides to invest "plan assets" of an ERISA Plan in the Notes should consider, among other factors, the factors discussed above under "Special Considerations."

Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code prohibit ERISA Plans, as well as individual retirement accounts and Keogh plans, subject to either or both of such statutes (each, a "Plan") from engaging in certain transactions with persons that are "parties in interest" under ERISA or "disqualified persons" under Section 4975 of the Code (collectively, "Parties in Interest") with respect to such Plans. A violation of these prohibited transaction rules may result in an excise tax or other penalties and liabilities under ERISA and/or Section 4975 of the Code for such persons.

Certain transactions involving the purchase, holding or transfer of the Notes might be deemed to constitute or result in prohibited transactions under ERISA and/or Section 4975 of the Code. For example, if the "plan assets" of an investing Plan were deemed to include assets of the Issuer and if any of the Portfolio Collateral constitutes an obligation of or is purchased from or sold to a Party in Interest with respect to such Plan, an indirect prohibited transaction in the nature of an extension of credit or a purchase or sale of assets between such Plan and such Party in Interest might be deemed to occur. In addition, if the assets of the Issuer were deemed to be "plan assets" of any Plan investors, Notes sold to a Party in Interest with respect to such Plan would constitute a prohibited extension of credit transaction, possibly subjecting such Noteholder to excise taxes under Section 4975 of the Code. Under regulations issued by the United States Department of Labor, set forth in 29 C.F.R. § 2510.3-101 (the "Plan Asset Regulations"), the assets of the Issuer would be treated as "plan assets" of a Plan for purposes of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code if the Plan acquires an equity interest in the Issuer and none of the exceptions contained in the Plan Asset Regulations applies. An equity interest is defined under the Plan Asset Regulations as any interest in an entity other than an instrument which is treated as indebtedness under applicable local law and which has no substantial equity features.

Although there is no authority directly on point, it is anticipated that the Notes should be treated as indebtedness under local law and should not be treated as having substantial equity features for purposes of the Plan Asset Regulations. However, without regard to whether (i) the Notes are treated as an equity interest for such purposes or (ii) the assets of the Issuer are deemed to be "plan assets" of an investing Plan, the acquisition or holding of Notes by or on behalf of, or with "plan assets" of, a Plan could be considered to give rise to a prohibited transaction if the Issuer, the Trustee, the Initial Purchaser, the Servicer, an issuer of an item of Portfolio Collateral, or any of their respective affiliates is or becomes a Party in Interest with respect to an investing Plan. Certain exemptions from the prohibited transaction rules could apply to the acquisition of a Note by or with "plan assets" of a Plan, depending on the type and circumstances of the Plan fiduciary making the decision to acquire a Note. Included among these exemptions are: Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption ("PTCE") 96-23, regarding transactions effected by certain "in-house asset managers"; PTCE 95-60, regarding investments by insurance company general accounts; PTCE 91-38, regarding investments by bank collective investment funds; PTCE 90-1, regarding investments by insurance company pooled separate accounts; and PTCE 84-14, regarding transactions effected by independent "qualified professional asset managers." However, even if the conditions specified in one or more of these exemptions are met, the scope of the relief provided by these exemptions might or might not cover all acts which might be construed as prohibited transactions and in particular would not apply to prohibited transactions arising from the operations of the Issuer.

In any event, a fiduciary or other person investing "plan assets" of any Plan should not purchase Notes if the Issuer, the Initial Purchaser, the Trustee, the Servicer or any of their respective affiliates (a) has investment discretion with respect to the investment of such assets; (b) has authority or responsibility to give or regularly gives investment advice with respect to such assets, for a fee, pursuant to an agreement or understanding that such advice will serve as a primary basis for investment decisions with respect to such assets and that such advice will be based on the particular investment needs of such Plan; or (c) unless PTCE 95-60, 91-38 or 90-1 is applicable, is an employer maintaining or contributing to such Plan. A party that is described in clause (a) or (b) of the preceding sentence is a fiduciary under ERISA with respect to the Plan and any such purchase might result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code.

As a general rule, certain employee benefit plans, including governmental plans (as defined in Section 3(32) of ERISA) and certain church plans (as defined in Section 3(33) of ERISA), are not subject to ERISA's requirements. Accordingly, assets of many such plans may be invested in the Notes without regard to ERISA prohibited transaction considerations described above, subject to the provisions of other applicable federal and state law. However, any such plan which is qualified and exempt from taxation under Sections 401(a) and 501(a) of the Code may nonetheless be subject to the prohibited transaction rules set forth in Section 503 of the Code and, under certain circumstances in the case of church plans, Section 4975 of the Code. Also, some governmental plans are subject to federal, state or local laws which are, to a material extent, similar to the provisions of Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (a "Similar Law"). Each governmental plan fiduciary should make its own determination as to the need for and the availability of any exemptive relief under a Similar Law.

Each Holder of a Class X Note, a Class A-1LA Note, a Class A-1LB, a Class A-2L Note, a Class A-3L Note or a Class A-4L Note, by its acquisition thereof, shall be deemed to represent to the Issuer, the Servicer and the Trustee that either (i) no part of the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Note constitutes "plan assets" of any Plan, or (ii) if the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Note includes "plan assets" of any Plan, an exemption to the prohibited transaction rules applies.

Each Holder of a Class B-1L Note by its acquisition thereof, shall be deemed to represent to the Issuer, the Servicer and the Trustee that either (a) the purchaser or transferee is not a Plan and is not acquiring the Class B-1L Note with assets of a Plan or (b) it is an insurance company and such funds include only assets of its general account, and its acquisition and holding of such Note are eligible for exemptive relief available under Section I of PTCE 95-60, or the acquisition and holding of the Class B-1L Notes by the purchaser or transferee are eligible for the exemptive relief under PTCE 96-23, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14.

Any person proposing to invest assets of any Plan, or any governmental plan subject to Similar Law, in the Notes should consult with its counsel to confirm that such investment will not constitute or result in any prohibited transaction that is not subject to an exemption and will satisfy the other requirements of ERISA, the Code and, in the case of such a governmental plan, Similar Law.

CERTAIN LEGAL INVESTMENT CONSIDERATIONS

Institutions whose investment activities are subject to legal investment laws and regulations or to review by certain regulatory authorities may be subject to restrictions on investments in the Notes. Any such institution should consult its legal advisors in determining whether and to what extent there may be restrictions on its ability to invest in the Notes. Without limiting the foregoing, any financial institution that is subject to the jurisdiction of the Comptroller of Currency, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Office of Thrift Supervision, the National Credit Union Administration, any state insurance commission, or any other federal or state agencies with similar authority should review any applicable rules, guidelines and regulations prior to purchasing the Notes. Depository institutions should review and consider the applicability of the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council Supervisory Policy Statement on Securities Activities, which has been adopted by the respective federal regulators.

None of the Co-Issuers or the Initial Purchaser make any representation as to the proper characterization of the Notes for legal investment or other purposes, or as to the ability of particular investors to purchase the Notes for legal investment or other purposes, or as to the ability of particular investors to purchase the Notes under applicable investment restrictions. The Co-Issuers understand that certain state insurance regulators, in response to a request for guidance, may be considering the characterization (as U.S. domestic or foreign (non-U.S.)) of certain collateralized debt obligation securities co-issued by a non-U.S. issuer and a U.S. co-issuer. There can be no assurance as to the nature of any guidance or other action that may result from such consideration. The uncertainties described above (and any unfavorable future determinations concerning legal investment or financial institution regulatory characteristics of the Notes) may affect the liquidity of the Notes. Accordingly, all institutions whose activities are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, regulatory capital requirements or review by regulatory authorities should consult their own legal advisors in determining whether and to what extent the Notes are subject to investment, capital or other restrictions.

RATINGS

It is a condition to the issuance of the Notes that the Class X Notes, Class A-1LA Notes and Class A-1LB Notes each be rated "AAA" by S&P and "Aaa" by Moody's, that the Class A-2L Notes be rated at least "AA" by S&P and at least "Aa2" by Moody's, that the Class A-3L Notes be rated at least "A" by S&P and at least "A2" by Moody's, that the Class A-4L Notes be rated at least "A-" by S&P and at least "A3" by Moody's and that the Class B-1L Notes be rated at least "BBB" by S&P and at least "Baa2" by Moody's. Each of the ratings of the Notes described herein assumes that no Maturity Extension occurs after the Closing Date. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating organization.

The ratings of the Notes by S&P address solely the likelihood of timely payment of the Periodic Interest Amount on and the ultimate payment of the Aggregate Principal Amount of each Class of Senior Class A Notes, the timely payment of the Class X Payment and the ultimate payment of the Cumulative Interest Amount and the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes. The ratings of the Notes by Moody's address the ultimate cash receipt of all required payments as provided by the governing documents, and are based on the expected loss to the Noteholders of each Class relative to the promise of receiving the present value of such payments. A rating is not a recommendation to purchase, hold or sell securities, in as much as such rating does not comment as to market price or suitability for a particular investor and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating organization.

In the event that any rating initially assigned to the Notes is subsequently lowered for any reason, no person or entity is obligated to provide any additional support or credit enhancement with respect to the Notes. The Issuer has not requested a rating on the Notes by any rating agencies other than S&P and Moody's, although data with respect to the Portfolio Collateral may have been provided to other rating agencies solely for informational purposes. There can be no assurance that, if a rating is assigned to the Notes by any other rating agency, such rating will be as high as that assigned by S&P and Moody's.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from the sale of the Notes as described herein, together with net proceeds from the sale of the Preferred Shares will be used by the Issuer to fund the purchase of a principal amount of the Initial Portfolio Collateral at least equal to the Initial Portfolio Collateral Amount, to fund the Deposit on the Closing Date of cash in the approximate amount such that the Aggregate Principal Amount of Original Portfolio Collateral originally purchased by the Issuer on or before the Effective Date will equal the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount and to fund the deposit in the Expense Reimbursement Account on the Closing Date of approximately U.S.$50,000, which Expense Reimbursement Account will be available for payment from time to time of future expenses of the Issuer pending the receipt of collections in respect of the Portfolio Collateral as described herein, to pay organizational, legal and other fees and expenses, related to the transaction, and to fund the Reserve Amount. The net proceeds from the sale of the Notes and the Preferred Shares will be approximately U.S.$856,312,500.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Initial Purchaser has advised the Co-Issuers that it proposes to offer the Notes to prospective purchasers from time to time in individually negotiated transactions at varying prices to be determined in each case at the time of sale. The price(s) paid by the Initial Purchaser for the Notes may be less than those paid by other purchasers of the Notes. The Initial Purchaser may offer or sell Notes to purchasers at negotiated prices, which may vary among different purchasers of Notes of any Class. In addition to the structuring and placement fees paid to the Initial Purchaser, the Initial Purchaser may be deemed to receive compensation for the sale of the Notes to the extent that the price(s) paid by it for Notes is less than the price(s) at which they are resold. The Notes are offered when, as and if issued by the Co-Issuers, subject to prior sale or withdrawal, cancellation or modification of the offer without notice and subject to approval of certain legal matters by counsel and certain other conditions. It is expected that delivery of the Notes will be made on or about the Closing Date, against payment in immediately available funds.

The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, United States persons except to (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act and (ii) other persons or entities pursuant to other valid exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Without limiting the foregoing, no transfer of Notes may be made except to a non-U.S. Person in an offshore transaction in compliance with Regulation S or to a Qualified Purchaser or if such transfer would not require the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to become subject to the registration requirements of the Investment Company Act.

Each of the Co-Issuers and the Initial Purchaser represents and agrees that it (i) has only communicated or caused to be communicated and will only communicate or cause to be communicated any invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of Section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act of 2000 ("FSMA")) received by it in connection with the issue or sale of any offered securities in circumstances in which Section 21(a) of the FSMA does not apply to the Issuer; and (ii) has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by it in relation to the offered securities, in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

No invitation may be made to the public in the Cayman Islands to subscribe for the Notes.

Purchasers of Notes sold outside the United States may be required to pay stamp taxes and other charges in accordance with the laws and practices of the country of purchase in addition to the price charged to investors for the Notes.

The Notes are new securities for which there currently is no market. Accordingly, no assurance can be given as to the development or liquidity of any market for the Notes.

THE SERVICER

The information appearing in this Section has been prepared by Highland Capital Management, L.P. and has not been independently verified by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Initial Purchaser. Accordingly, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and the Initial Purchaser do not assume any responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or applicability of such information.

General

As of September 30, 2005, Highland Capital managed over $18 billion in leveraged loans, high yield bonds, structured products and other assets for banks, insurance companies, pension plans, foundations, and high net worth individuals.

Highland Capital manages these assets through a variety of fund structures including separate accounts, CDOs, hedge funds and mutual funds. As of September 30, 2005, Highland Capital had under management approximately 1,000 below investment grade and credit sensitive credit positions, and Highland Capital's 56 person credit team followed approximately 1,200 below investment grade and credit sensitive credit positions across over 40 industries. Highland Capital or an affiliate or predecessor thereof has been an SEC-registered investment adviser since April 1993.

Highland Capital has invested over $250 million of firm capital in its funds, and expects that HFP, one of its Affiliates, will on the Closing Date purchase 100% of the Class II Preferred Shares.

Philosophy and Process

Highland Capital has expertise in the fields of syndicated loans, high yield bonds, and distressed assets. Portfolio managers follow each credit and several times each year the entire professional staff reviews all positions during multi-day monitoring meetings. Highland Capital diversifies its portfolios with set limits on exposure to any one given industry or issuer.

Since 1990, Highland Capital has been using a committee to coordinate the selection, monitoring and servicing process. The committee, which consists of senior portfolio managers, Highland Capital's Chief Investment Officer and its Head of Structured Products, meets every morning to discuss the status of the credits. Collectively, the committee utilizes a selection process which is driven by credit research. Each portfolio manager/analyst makes specific credit recommendations based upon industry coverage. The credit proposal is then brought to the committee for consideration. Based upon the consensus decision, the portfolio manager will direct Highland traders to execute the trade. Highland Capital has also provided its committee with a commitment to technology. The firm developed Wall Street Office® which is a proprietary software system that allows Highland Capital to model, portfolio manage, and trade syndicated loans. This software has been licensed to more than 70 financial institutions that invest in syndicated loans.

THE SERVICING AGREEMENT

The following summary describes certain provisions of the Servicing Agreement. The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Servicing Agreement.

The Servicer will select the Initial Portfolio Collateral and will select all remaining Portfolio Collateral. The Servicer will also monitor the performance and credit quality of all of the Portfolio Collateral on an ongoing basis as further provided in the Servicing Agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture, the Servicer will direct the Issuer with respect to the use of collections on Portfolio Collateral to purchase Substitute Portfolio Collateral or Additional Portfolio Collateral, direct the Trustee when to deliver an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, Equity Portfolio Collateral or other item of Portfolio Collateral for sale and direct the use of proceeds therefrom to purchase Substitute or Additional Portfolio Collateral and Eligible Investments. The Servicer will advise the Issuer with respect to the use of certain Collections as described herein to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral meeting the specifications set forth herein. If any Portfolio Collateral is an item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, the Servicer will instruct the Trustee as to the appropriate action to be taken against the issuer of such item of Portfolio Collateral and whether to retain or dispose of such item of Portfolio Collateral. See "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral."

Upon any disposition of Portfolio Collateral, the Trustee, upon direction of the Servicer, will either deposit the proceeds of such disposition in the Collection Account or apply the proceeds of such disposition to the purchase of an item of Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral, all in accordance with the terms of the Indenture. Any such actions directed by the Servicer may change the composition and characteristics of the Portfolio Collateral included in the Trust Estate, the rate of payment thereon, and, accordingly, may affect the actual average life of the Notes.

The Indenture places significant restrictions on the ability of the Issuer to buy and sell securities for the Trust Estate, and the Servicer is subject to compliance with such document. Accordingly, during certain periods or in certain specified circumstances, the Issuer may be unable to buy or sell securities or to take other actions which the Servicer might consider in the interests of the Issuer and its creditors and the Holders of Preferred Shares.

In its capacity as servicer or manager, the Servicer engages in other business and furnishes asset management and other services to other clients which may differ from those followed by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, as required by the Indenture. The Servicer may make recommendations or effect transactions which may differ from those effected with respect to the securities in the Trust Estate.

The Servicing Agreement provides that the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral from the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal or to sell an obligation to the Servicer or any of its Affiliates as principal unless (i) the Issuer shall have received from the Servicer such information relating to such acquisition or sale as it may reasonably require and shall have approved such acquisition, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) in the judgment of the Servicer, such transaction is on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (iii) such transaction is permitted by the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. The Servicing Agreement also provides that the Servicer will not direct the Trustee to acquire an obligation to be included in the Collateral directly from any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as investment adviser, or direct the Trustee to sell an obligation directly to any account or portfolio for which the Servicer serves as investment adviser unless such acquisition or sale is (i) in the judgment of the Servicer, on terms no less favorable than would be obtained in a transaction conducted on an arm's length basis between third parties unaffiliated with each other and (ii) permitted by the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

Compensation

As compensation for its services under the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer will be entitled to receive a Base Servicing Fee, an Additional Servicing Fee and a Supplemental Servicing Fee (if any).

The Base Servicing Fee is a fee that will accrue from the Closing Date and be payable to the Servicer, if and to the extent funds are available for such purpose as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", in arrears on each Payment Date. The Base Servicing Fee will be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year and the actual number of days elapsed. The Base Servicing Fee payable on any Payment Date will be payable from Collateral Interest Collections remaining after payment of certain fees and expenses of the Issuer but prior to payment of interest on the Notes. The Base Servicing Fee will accrue interest if unpaid. To the extent Collateral Interest Collections are insufficient to pay any accrued and unpaid Base Servicing Fee payable on any Payment Date, the Base Servicing Fee will be payable from Collateral Principal Collections available for such purpose as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions."

The Additional Servicing Fee is a fee that will accrue from the Closing Date and be payable to the Servicer, if and to the extent funds are available for such purpose as described under "Description of the Note—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", in arrears on each Payment Date (to the extent provided in the Servicing Agreement). The Additional Servicing Fee will be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year and the actual number of days elapsed. The Additional Servicing Fee payable on any Payment Date will be payable from Collateral Interest Collections remaining after payment of certain fees and expenses of the Issuer, the Base Servicing Fee, interest (and, if any of the Overcollateralization Tests or the Interest Coverage Test are not satisfied on the related Payment Date (other than the Interest Coverage Test on the first or second Payment Date) or if a Rating Confirmation Failure exists, principal) on the Notes and certain other amounts. The Additional Servicing Fee will accrue interest if unpaid.

The Supplemental Servicing Amount means an amount that will be payable to the Servicer in accordance with the Indenture on each Payment Date, if and to the extent funds are available for such purpose as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions." Excess cashflow remaining after the payment or deposit of the amounts described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions" will be paid: (a) if the Internal Rate of Return of the Preferred Shares as of such Payment Date is less than 12%, to the Issuer to be applied to fund distributions to the Holders of the Preferred Shares, but only up to an amount that would cause the Internal Rate of Return of the Preferred Shares to equal 12%, and (b) if the Internal Rate of Return of the Preferred Shares as of such Payment Date is equal to or greater than 12%, after giving effect to any payments made under clause (a) above, (x) 20% of any remaining amount to (1) the Servicer in payment of the Supplemental Servicing Fee for such Payment Date, and (2) the Holders of the Class II Preferred Shares in accordance with the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, in payment of the Class II Preferred Share Supplemental Dividend then due and unpaid, and (y) 80% to the Holders of the Preferred Shares in accordance with the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, a dividend thereon or the redemption thereof, as applicable

If amounts distributable on any Payment Date as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions" are insufficient to pay the Base Servicing Fee or the Additional Servicing Fee, then the payment thereof will be deferred and will be payable with interest on subsequent Payment Dates as described herein.

The Servicer will have a senior lien on the Trust Estate with respect to its Base Servicing Fee and a junior lien on the Trust Estate with respect to its Additional Servicing Fee. The Servicer will receive reimbursement for certain expenses from the proceeds of the issuance of the Notes and the Preferred Shares. The Servicer will generally be responsible for its own expenses incurred in the course of performing its obligations under the Servicing Agreement, but may be reimbursed for certain expenses as provided in the Servicing Agreement. Generally, the Servicer will not be liable to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Holders of Notes or Preferred Shares for any loss incurred as a result of the actions taken or recommended by the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement or the Indenture, except by reason of acts constituting bad faith, willful misconduct, or gross negligence in the performance of its obligations thereunder. The Servicer will be entitled to indemnification by the Issuer under certain circumstances as described in the Servicing Agreement. In addition, the Servicer has entered into certain indemnification agreements with Bear Stearns. Under certain circumstances the Servicer also may resign or be removed.

Amendment to Servicing Agreement

The Servicing Agreement may not be amended (a) without satisfying the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency or (b) if a Majority of the Controlling Class or a Majority of the Preferred Shares have objected in writing to such amendment or modification within 30 days of notice thereof.

Resignation of Servicer

Subject to the provisions for a successor Servicer discussed below, the Servicer may resign, upon 90 days' written notice to the Issuer (or such shorter notice as is acceptable to the Issuer).

Termination of Servicing Agreement

The Servicing Agreement will be terminated, and the Servicer will be removed, by the Issuer, if directed by a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes or by at least 66 2/3% of the Holders of the Preferred Shares (excluding any Preferred Shares held by the Servicer or its Affiliates or any account for which the Servicer or its Affiliates have discretionary voting authority at the time of such vote), in each case for "cause" upon 10 days' prior written notice to the Servicer and upon written notice to the Noteholders and the Holders of the Preferred Shares as set forth below. For purposes of determining "cause" with respect to any such termination of the Servicing Agreement, such term shall mean any one of the following events:

(i) the Servicer willfully breaches in any respect, or takes any action that it knows violates in any respect, any provision of the Servicing Agreement or any terms of the Indenture applicable to it;

(ii) the Servicer breaches in any material respect any provision of the Servicing Agreement or any terms of the Indenture or the Collateral Administration Agreement applicable to it, or any representation, warranty, certification or statement given in writing by the Servicer shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect when made or given, and the Servicer fails to cure such breach or take such action so that the facts (after giving effect to such action) conform in all material respects to such representation, warranty, certification or statement, in each case within 30 days of becoming aware of, or receiving notice from, the Trustee of, such breach or materially incorrect representation, warranty certification or statement;

(iii) certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency occur with respect to the Servicer;

(iv) the occurrence of any Event of Default under the Indenture that results from any breach by the Servicer of its duties under the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement, which breach or default is not cured within any applicable cure period; or

(v) (x) the occurrence of an act by the Servicer related to its activities in any securities, servicing, financial advisory or other investment business that constitutes fraud, (y) the Servicer being indicted, or any of its principals being convicted, of a felony criminal offense related to its activities in any securities, servicing, financial advisory or other investment business or (z) the Servicer being indicted for, adjudged liable in a civil suit for, or convicted of a violation of the Securities Act or any other United States Federal securities law or any rules or regulations thereunder.

Successor Servicer

No removal, termination or resignation of the Servicer will be effective under the Servicing Agreement unless the Issuer appoints a successor Servicer:

I. if the Class A-1LA Notes are Outstanding and (i) the sum of (A) the Aggregate Par Amount of Portfolio Collateral other than any Equity Portfolio Collateral and (B) the Market Value of all Equity Portfolio Collateral (as determined by the Servicer in a commercially reasonable manner), if any, is less than (ii) the sum of (A) the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Outstanding Notes other than the Class B-1L Notes plus any accrued and unpaid interest thereon and (B) 50% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes plus any accrued and unpaid interest thereon (a "Preferred Share Event"), then:

(a) (A) at the written direction of a Majority of the Notes (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority other than HFP), (B) such successor has agreed in writing to assume all of the Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture and (C) such successor Servicer is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by a Majority of the Controlling Class of Notes; or

(b) if a Majority of the Notes (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority other than HFP) has nominated two or more successor Servicers that have been objected to pursuant to clause (a) above or has otherwise failed to appoint a successor Servicer that is not objected to pursuant to clause (C) under clause (a) above within 30 days of the date of notice of such removal, termination or resignation of the Servicer (or, if later, within 30 days of the last failure to successfully appoint a successor Servicer), then (A) at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, (B) such successor has agreed in writing to assume all of the Servicer's duties and obligations pursuant to the Servicing Agreement and the Indenture and (C) such successor Servicer is not objected to within 30 days after notice of such succession by a Majority in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes (voting as a single Class (excluding any Notes held by the retiring Servicer or any of its Affiliates and accounts over which the retiring Portfolio or any of its Affiliates exercise discretionary voting authority, other than HFP));

II. if there is no Preferred Share Event in effect, then:

NOTICES TO PURCHASERS

THE PREFERRED SHARES HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE “SECURITIES ACT”), THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES OR THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION, NOR HAS THE ISSUER BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED (THE “INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT”). THE PREFERRED SHARES MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OR TO, OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF, U.S. PERSONS UNLESS A REGISTRATION STATEMENT WITH RESPECT THERETO IS THEN EFFECTIVE UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OR AN EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT AND OTHER APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS IS AVAILABLE. THE ISSUER IS RELYING ON AN EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT PURSUANT TO THE EXEMPTIONS PROVIDED IN RULE 3a-7 AND/OR SECTION 3(c)(7) UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT, AND NO TRANSFER OF PREFERRED SHARES MAY BE MADE WHICH WOULD CAUSE THE ISSUER TO BECOME SUBJECT TO THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT. THE PREFERRED SHARES ARE ALSO SUBJECT TO CERTAIN OTHER RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER DESCRIBED HEREIN AND IN THE PAYING AGENCY AGREEMENT.

EACH PURCHASER OF PREFERRED SHARES, BY ITS ACCEPTANCE THEREOF, REPRESENTS, ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT WILL NOT RESELL, PLEDGE OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER SUCH PREFERRED SHARES EXCEPT IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE SECURITIES ACT AND OTHER APPLICABLE LAWS AND EXCEPT (A) IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER AS DEFINED IN RULE 144A PURCHASING FOR ITS OWN ACCOUNT OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER, WHOM THE SELLER HAS INFORMED, IN EACH CASE, THAT THE RESALE, PLEDGE OR OTHER TRANSFER IS BEING MADE IN RELIANCE ON RULE 144A, PROVIDED THAT SUCH PURCHASER DELIVERS ALL DOCUMENTS AND CERTIFICATIONS AS THE ISSUER OR THE PAYING AGENT MAY REASONABLY REQUEST; (B) OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 903 OR 904 OF REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT TO A PERSON WHOM THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS ALSO A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER AS DEFINED IN RULE 144A PROVIDED THAT SUCH PURCHASER DELIVERS ALL DOCUMENTS AND CERTIFICATIONS AS THE ISSUER OR THE PAYING AGENT MAY REQUEST; (C) TO THE ISSUER OR ITS AFFILIATES; OR (D) TO ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY PURSUANT TO A VALID EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECURITIES ACT PROVIDED THAT SUCH PURCHASER DELIVERS ALL DOCUMENTS AND CERTIFICATIONS AS THE ISSUER OR THE PAYING AGENT MAY REQUEST, IN EACH CASE IN ACCORDANCE WITH ANY APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAW OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER JURISDICTION IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RESTRICTIONS SET FORTH IN THE PAYING AGENCY AGREEMENT. IN ADDITION, THE PURCHASER OF A PREFERRED SHARE, BY ITS ACCEPTANCE THEREOF, REPRESENTS, ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT WILL NOT RESELL, PLEDGE OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER SUCH PREFERRED SHARE EXCEPT TO A NON-U.S. PERSON THAT IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER IN AN OFFSHORE TRANSACTION PURSUANT TO REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OR TO A “QUALIFIED PURCHASER” OR “KNOWLEDGEABLE EMPLOYEE” WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 3(c)(7) OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT THAT IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER IN A TRANSACTION THAT DOES NOT CAUSE THE ISSUER TO BE REQUIRED TO REGISTER UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT.

THE PREFERRED SHARES MAY NOT BE SOLD OR TRANSFERRED TO ANY PLAN SUBJECT TO TITLE I OF THE UNITED STATES EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT INCOME SECURITY ACT OF 1974, AS AMENDED (“ERISA”), OR SECTION 4975 OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986, AS AMENDED (THE “CODE”), TO ANY PERSON ACTING ON BEHALF OF OR WITH “PLAN ASSETS” OF ANY SUCH PLAN, OR TO ANY OTHER “BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR” (AS DEFINED IN UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR REGULATION SECTION 2510.3-101(f)(2)) (A “BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR”), INCLUDING AN INSURANCE COMPANY GENERAL ACCOUNT, EXCEPT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RESTRICTIONS SET FORTH HEREIN.

ANY SALE OR TRANSFER OF PREFERRED SHARES WHICH WOULD VIOLATE THE FOREGOING WILL BE NULL AND VOID.

THE PREFERRED SHARES ARE PART OF THE SHARE CAPITAL OF THE ISSUER AND, AS SUCH, THEIR ENTITLEMENT IS LIMITED TO THE ASSETS OF THE ISSUER AFTER PAYMENT OF ALL LIABILITIES RANKING AHEAD OF THEM ACCORDING TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE ISSUER AND AT LAW. ACCORDINGLY, TO THE EXTENT THE PORTFOLIO COLLATERAL IS INSUFFICIENT TO PAY DIVIDENDS ON THE PREFERRED SHARES OR TO REDEEM THE PREFERRED SHARES, THE ISSUER WILL HAVE NO OBLIGATION TO PAY ANY FURTHER AMOUNTS IN RESPECT OF THE PREFERRED SHARES.

AN INVESTMENT IN THE PREFERRED SHARES IS NOT SUITABLE FOR ALL INVESTORS AND IS APPROPRIATE ONLY FOR AN INVESTOR CAPABLE OF ANALYZING AND ASSESSING THE RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH SECURITIES SUCH AS THE PREFERRED SHARES, AND BEARING SUCH RISKS AND THE FINANCIAL CONSEQUENCES THEREOF AS THEY RELATE TO AN INVESTMENT IN THE PREFERRED SHARES.

EACH PURCHASER OF A PREFERRED SHARE BY ITS ACCEPTANCE THEREOF ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT IS USING ITS INDEPENDENT JUDGMENT IN ASSESSING THE OPPORTUNITIES AND RISKS PRESENTED BY THE PREFERRED SHARES FOR ITS INVESTMENT PORTFOLIO AND IN DETERMINING WHETHER THE ACQUISITION IS SUITABLE AND COMPLIES WITH SUCH PURCHASER'S INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES.

AVAILABLE INFORMATION

To permit compliance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act for transfers of the Preferred Shares, the Issuer will make available to investors and prospective investors in the Preferred Shares who request such information, the information required to be delivered under Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act, if at the time of the request the Issuer is not a reporting company under Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or is not exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act. The Issuer does not expect to become such a reporting company or to be so exempt from reporting.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS

An investment in the Preferred Shares may be affected by the following factors, as well as the factors described under “Special Considerations” in the Note Offering Circular. In order to fully understand the structure and characteristics of the Preferred Shares, and the potential merits and risks of an investment in the Preferred Shares, potential investors must review and be familiar with the Note Offering Circular, which is attached hereto and incorporated herein as an integral part hereof, as well as the Indenture to be dated as of the Closing Date between the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association as trustee (the “Indenture”). In particular the Note Offering Circular contains a description of the related Portfolio Collateral, the priority of distributions on the Notes and the Preferred Shares.

1. Limited Cash Flow Available to the Issuer. The Issuer has pledged substantially all of its assets to secure the Notes. Such assets will only be available to the Issuer to make payments on the Preferred Shares as and when released from the lien of the Indenture. Although the scheduled payments of principal and interest on the Portfolio Collateral are expected to exceed the amounts required to pay principal of and interest due on the Notes, failure to satisfy any of the Overcollateralization Tests, the Interest Coverage Test or the application of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement may result in temporary or permanent diversion of all or a portion of the amounts otherwise payable to the Issuer as Excess Cash Flow (as defined under “Description of the Preferred Shares—Distributions” herein). Furthermore, there can be no assurance that payments of principal of and interest on, and other proceeds from, the Portfolio Collateral and the other collateral making up the Trust Estate will continue to exceed required fees and expenses and payments of principal and interest on the Notes and be sufficient to provide Excess Cash Flow. The amount and frequency of distributions of Excess Cash Flow to the Issuer will depend on, among other things: (i) the purchase rate in respect of new Portfolio Collateral, (ii) the level of LIBOR, (iii) returns with respect to Eligible Investments in which funds held in the accounts of the Issuer may be temporarily held, (iv) the extent to which the Portfolio Collateral pledged to secure the Notes becomes Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, is subject to scheduled payments of principal, or is retired prior to the stated maturity of the Notes through mandatory or optional redemption, sale, maturity or other liquidation or disposition and (v) the extent to which Substitute Portfolio Collateral is available for purchase in accordance with the criteria described herein. See “Description of the Notes” in the Note Offering Circular. Such Excess Cash Flow would constitute the only assets available to the Issuer as a source for payment of amounts payable in respect of the Preferred Shares prior to the payment in full of the Notes.

2. Subordination of the Preferred Shares. Distributions on the Preferred Shares are fully subordinated to payments on the Notes and to payment of the Trustee Administrative Expenses, Preferred Shares Administrative Expenses, Issuer Base Administrative Expenses, Issuer Excess Administrative Expenses and the amounts owing to the Servicer, each as described more fully herein and in the Note Offering Circular. No distributions of Excess Cash Flow will be made to the Issuer on any Payment Date for distribution to holders of Preferred Shares until all senior obligations due on such date have been paid in full. See “Description of the Notes—Payment on the Notes; Priority of Distributions” in the Note Offering Circular. In addition, in case of an Event of Default under the Indenture, as long as any Notes are outstanding, the holders of such Notes will be entitled to determine the remedies to be exercised under the Indenture. Remedies pursued by the holders of Notes would likely adversely affect the interests of holders of Preferred Shares. On a winding up of the Issuer, holders of the Preferred Shares will rank after all creditors, secured and unsecured, of the Issuer and the holders of ordinary shares. In addition, Class II Preferred Share Dividends, which are generally senior to other payments by the Issuer, will be paid to the Holders of the Class II Preferred Shares.

3. Equity Status of the Preferred Shares. The Preferred Shares are equity in the Issuer and are not secured by the Portfolio Collateral or any other Collateral securing the Notes. As such, the Holders of the Preferred Shares will rank behind all of the creditors, whether secured or unsecured and known or unknown, of the Issuer, including, without limitation, the Holders of the Notes and the Servicer. No person or entity other than the Issuer will be required to make any distributions on the Preferred Shares. Except with respect to the obligations of the Issuer to make payments pursuant to the priority of payments set forth in the Indenture and more fully described in the Note Offering Circular, the Issuer does not expect to have any creditors. Any amounts paid by the Paying and Transfer Agent as dividends or other distributions on the Preferred Shares in accordance with the priority of payments set forth in the Indenture and more fully described in the Note Offering Circular will be payable only to the extent of the Issuer's distributable profits and/or share premium determined in accordance with Cayman Islands law. In addition, such distributions will be payable only to the extent that the Issuer is solvent on the applicable Payment Date and the Issuer will not be insolvent after such distributions are paid. Under Cayman Islands law, a company is generally deemed to be solvent if it is able to pay its debts as they fall due.

To the extent the requirements under Cayman Islands law described in the preceding paragraph are not met, amounts otherwise payable to the Holders of the Preferred Shares will be retained in an account with the Paying and Transfer Agent (the “Preferred Shares Collection Account”) until, in the case of any payment by way of dividend, the next succeeding Payment Date or (in the case of any payment which would otherwise be payable on a redemption date of the Preferred Shares) the next succeeding Business Day on which the Issuer notifies the Paying and Transfer Agent that such requirements are met and, in the case of any payment on redemption of the Preferred Shares, the next succeeding Business Day on which the Issuer notifies the Paying and Transfer Agent that such requirements are met. Amounts on deposit in the Preferred Shares Collection Account will not be available to pay amounts due to the Holders of the Notes, the Trustee or any other creditor of the Issuer whose claim is limited in recourse to the Portfolio Collateral. However, amounts on deposit in the Preferred Shares Collection Account may be subject to the claims of creditors of the Issuer that have not contractually limited their recourse to the Portfolio Collateral. The Indenture and the Paying Agency Agreement will limit the Issuer's activities to the issuance and sale of the Notes, the Preferred Shares and ordinary shares, the acquisition and disposition of the Portfolio Collateral, the acquisition and disposition of the Eligible Investments and the other activities related to the issuance and the sale of the Notes and the Preferred Shares described under “The Issuer” herein. The Issuer does not expect to have any significant full recourse liabilities that would be payable out of amounts on deposit in the Preferred Shares Collection Account.

4. Restrictions on Transfer. The Preferred Shares have not been registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or under any U.S. state securities or “Blue Sky” laws or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and are being issued and sold in reliance upon exemptions from registration provided by such laws. The Preferred Shares are extremely illiquid. There is no market for the Preferred Shares offered hereby (and none is likely to develop) and, as a result, a holder of the Preferred Shares may find it difficult or uneconomic to liquidate its investment at any particular time. In addition, there are restrictions on transfer of the Preferred Shares. See “Description of the Preferred Shares—Restrictions on Transfer” herein.

5. The Issuer. The Issuer was formed on June 7, 2005 and has no significant prior operating history. The Issuer has no significant assets other than the Trust Estate. The Issuer will not engage in any business activity other than the co-issuance of the Notes and the issuance of the Preferred Shares and the ordinary shares as described herein, the acquisition and disposition of Portfolio Collateral as described herein and in the Note Offering Circular, certain activities conducted in connection with the payment of amounts in respect of the Notes and the Preferred Shares and other activities incidental to the foregoing. Income derived from the Trust Estate will be the Issuer's principal source of cash. The Issuer is an exempted limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands. Because the Issuer is a Cayman Islands company and its directors may reside in the Cayman Islands, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process within the United States on such persons or to enforce against them or against the Issuer in United States courts judgments predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the United States securities laws. None of the directors, security holders, members, officers or incorporators of the Co-Issuers, the Servicer, the Trustee, any of their respective affiliates or any other person or entity (other than the Issuer) will be obligated to make payments on the Notes or the Preferred Shares.

6. Potential Conflicts of Interest. It is expected that Highland Financial Partners, L.P. or an affiliate or subsidiary thereof (“HFP”) will purchase approximately 45,000,000 of the Class II Preferred Shares of the Issuer on the Closing Date, representing approximately 58% of the total Preferred Shares outstanding (the “Original HFP Share Amount”). It is also expected that Highland will purchase approximately 10,000,000 of the preferred shares of Investors Corp. and approximately U.S.$2,000,000 Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes on the Closing Date. In addition, the Servicer, entities affiliated with the Servicer or clients of the Servicer (collectively, the “Servicer Entities”) may also acquire Notes or Preferred Shares upon the occurrence of an Amendment Buy-Out or a Maturity Extension as described herein. The interests of the Holders of the Preferred Shares and the Class B-1L Notes that are Servicer Entities, or any other Notes owned by the Servicer Entities, may be different from or adverse to the interests of the Holders of the other Notes and Preferred Shares. As the result of the ownership of Preferred Shares and Notes by the Servicer Entities, and the ability to vote the Preferred Shares and the Notes owned by the Servicer Entities up to a maximum amount equal to the Original HFP Share Amount, the affirmative vote or approval of the Preferred Shares owned by such Servicer Entities, may be required in order to cause an Optional Redemption or a Tax Redemption of the Notes. Preferred Shares owned or controlled by the Servicer Entities above the Original HFP Share Amount will be excluded from voting on certain matters including any Optional Redemption.

In addition to the Base Servicing Fee, the Servicer is entitled to receive an Additional Servicing Fee and an Supplemental Servicing Fee (if any) after all other distributions (other than certain distributions with respect to the Preferred Shares and certain administrative expenses) are made, which is dependent in large part on the performance of the securities purchased by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer. This could create an inducement for the Servicer to service the Issuer's assets in such a manner as to seek to maximize the return on such securities. This could result in increasing the volatility of the Portfolio Collateral and could contribute to a decline in the aggregate value of the Portfolio Collateral. However, the Servicer's servicing of the Issuer's assets is restricted by the requirement that it comply with the restrictions described in “Security for the Notes” and by its internal policies with respect to the management of securities accounts.

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall activity of the Servicer, its affiliates and their respective clients. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

Certain Holders of the Notes and certain Holders of the Preferred Shares may be clients of the Servicer or one of its affiliates. Certain clients of the Servicer and its affiliates may invest in securities that would be appropriate for inclusion in the Trust Estate. Further, the Servicer currently serves and may in the future serve as servicer, collateral manager or the equivalent for other issuers of collateralized debt obligations, including collateralized debt obligation vehicles having objectives similar to those of the Issuer. The Servicer and its affiliates may make asset management decisions for its clients and affiliates that may be different from those made by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer. The Servicer and its affiliates may also have ongoing relationships with, and may own or invest assets of their clients in, equity securities issued by issuers of Portfolio Collateral. In addition, affiliates and clients of the Servicer may invest in securities that are senior to, or have interests different from or adverse to, the securities included in the Trust Estate. An affiliate of the Servicer may earn fees with respect to financial advisory services rendered to companies in connection with workouts or the subsequent restructuring of such companies. Such fees and advice may continue for a period of time after any such workout or restructure. The Issuer may own an interest in the securities of such companies.

The Amendment Buy-Out will increase the ability of the Servicer to affect or influence the amendment process under the Indenture and will limit any Holder's ability to vote against an amendment or affect or influence the amendment process with respect to the Indenture.

If the Servicer elects to extend the Revolving Period and the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Holders of the Notes and the Preferred Shares may either be required to hold their Notes and Preferred Shares for a significantly longer period of time or be forced to sell their Notes and Preferred Shares for the applicable purchase price under the Indenture, resulting in a shorter holding period than expected at the time of investment in the Notes and Preferred Shares.

In addition to acting as Servicer to the Issuer, Highland Capital Management will act as manager for HFP, which will, on the Closing Date, purchase all of the Class II Preferred Shares. Because Highland Capital Management will receive both a servicing fee from the Issuer for servicing the Portfolio Collateral and a management fee from HFP for managing HFP's assets, which will include the Class II Preferred Shares (and therefor a residual interest in the Portfolio Collateral), Highland Capital Management has agreed, in connection with the capital raising of HFP, to waive a portion of its servicing fees from the Issuer for two years following the Closing Date so as not to reduce the return on investment realized by HFP in respect of the Class II Preferred Shares. Thereafter Highland Capital Management may at its discretion continue to waive such portion of its servicing fees or may elect to receive such servicing fees in their entirety. Accordingly, during the first two years following the Closing Date, a portion (representing the percentage ownership of the Preferred Shares represented by the Class II Preferred Shares, which will initially be owned entirely by HFP) of the amounts that would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as a servicing fee will instead be payable on the Class II Preferred Shares as the Class II Preferred Share Dividends in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Thereafter, the Servicer may elect to continue to waive such same portion of the amounts that would otherwise be payable to the Servicer as a servicing fee, or any lesser portion of such amounts, and have such amounts be paid instead as the Class II Preferred Share Dividends. The Class II Preferred Shares and the Class I Preferred Shares will vote together as a single class and the existence of the Class II Preferred Share Dividends may cause HFP to have interests different from the holders of the Class I Preferred Shares..

For a further description of certain conflicts of interest with respect to the Servicer, Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., and their respective affiliates and clients, see "Special Considerations—Potential Conflicts of Interest" in the Note Offering Circular.

7. Certain Tax Considerations. Investors in the Preferred Shares should review carefully the tax considerations set forth in "Certain Tax Considerations" and "Cayman Islands Taxation" herein.

8. Certain ERISA Considerations. Investors in the Preferred Shares should review carefully the ERISA considerations set forth in "Certain ERISA Considerations" herein.

9. Servicer Affiliates Reliance of Rule 3a-7; Potential Indenture Amendments. HFP, will, on the Closing Date, purchase all of the Class II Preferred Shares. The Servicer will act as the manager for HFP. HFP and Highland Financial Trust, the owner of substantially all of the limited partnership interests of HFP, are relying on an exception from the definition of investment company and the requirement to register under the Investment Company Act that in turn depends, in part, upon the Issuer not being an investment company required to register under the Investment Company Act by reason of Rule 3a-7 thereunder. It is expected that, in connection with certain capital raising activities of Highland Financial Trust, the SEC may consider the applicability of Rule 3a-7 to the Issuer. If it were determined that the Issuer cannot rely on Rule 3a-7, the Servicer may cause the Issuer to amend the Indenture without the consent of the Holders of the Notes and without the consent of the Holders of the Preferred Shares to enable the Issuer to rely on Rule 3a-7, which could require additional limitations and prohibitions on the circumstances under which the Issuer may sell assets, on the type of assets that the Issuer may acquire out of the proceeds of assets that mature, are refinanced or otherwise sold, on the period during which such transactions may occur, on the level of transactions that may occur or on other provisions of the Indenture and could adversely affect the earnings of the Issuer and its ability to make payments on the Notes and distributions to the Preferred Shares. As a condition to the effectiveness of any such amendment to the Indenture, the Issuer, the Trustee and the Initial Purchaser will (i) satisfy the Rating Condition with respect to such amendment and (ii) receive a customary, unqualified opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such amendment and assuming compliance with the Indenture as so amended, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act. Such nationally recognized law firm may also be acting as counsel to the Servicer, certain Holders of Notes and/or Preferred Shares. The interests of any such parties may not coincide with the interest of other Holders of Notes and/or Preferred Shares. See "Legal Structure—The Indenture—Modification of Indenture" in the Note Offering Circular.

10. Legislation and Regulations In Connection With the Prevention of Money Laundering. The Uniting and Strengthening America By Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (the "USA PATRIOT Act"), signed into law on and effective as of October 26, 2001, imposes anti-money laundering obligations on different types of financial institutions, including banks, broker-dealers and investment companies. The USA PATRIOT Act requires the Secretary of the United States Department of the Treasury (the "Treasury") to prescribe regulations to define the types of investment companies subject to the USA PATRIOT Act and the related anti-money laundering obligations. It is not clear whether the Treasury will require entities such as the Issuer to enact anti-money laundering policies. It is possible that the Treasury will promulgate regulations requiring the Co-Issuers or the Initial Purchaser or other service providers to the Co-Issuers, in connection with the establishment of anti-money laundering procedures, to share information with governmental authorities with respect to investors in the Notes and/or the Preferred Shares. Such legislation and/or regulations could require the Co-Issuers to implement additional restrictions on the transfer of the Notes and/or the Preferred Shares. As may be required, the Issuer reserves the right to request such information and take such actions as are necessary to enable it to comply with the USA PATRIOT Act.

11. Emerging Requirements of the European Union. As part of the harmonization of transparency requirements, the European Commission is scheduled to adopt a directive known as the Transparency Obligations Directive that, among other things, will regulate issuers of securities that are offered to the public or admitted to trading on a European Union regulated market. The listing of the Preferred Shares on any European Union stock exchange would subject the Issuer to regulation under this directive, although the requirements applicable to the Issuer are not yet fully clarified. The Indenture will not require the Issuer to apply for, list or maintain a listing for any Class of Notes or the Preferred Shares on a European Union stock exchange if compliance with this directive (or other requirements adopted by the European Commission or a relevant member state) becomes burdensome in the sole judgment of the Servicer. Should the Preferred Shares be delisted from any exchange, the ability of the holders of such Preferred Shares to sell such Preferred Shares in the secondary market may be negatively affected.

THE ISSUER

The issuer of the Preferred Shares is Rockwall CDO Ltd., an exempted limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the “Issuer”). The Issuer has been established to acquire a diversified portfolio of commercial loans (and participations therein) and to a limited extent, high yield corporate and other debt obligations and synthetic securities, as more fully described in the Note Offering Circular. See “Security for the Notes” in the Note Offering Circular. The Issuer’s authorized share capital is U.S.$600,250 and consists of 250 ordinary shares of U.S.$1.00 par each, 300,000,000 Class I Preferred Shares of U.S.$0.001 par each and 300,000,000 Class II Preferred Shares of U.S.$0.001 par each. The activities of the Issuer will be limited to (i) the issuance of the Preferred Shares and its ordinary shares, (ii) the acquisition of the Portfolio Collateral and other assets permitted by the Indenture among the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as trustee and as securities intermediary, (iii) the ownership of 100% of the capital stock of the Co-Issuer, and (iv) other activities incidental to the foregoing and permitted by the Indenture. For a more complete discussion of the Issuer, see “The Issuer and the Co-Issuer” in the Note Offering Circular.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PREFERRED SHARES

General

The Issuer will issue 33,200,000 Class I Preferred Shares, par value U.S. $0.001 per share (the “Class I Preferred Shares”) and 45,000,000 Class II Preferred Shares, par value U.S. $0.001 per share (the “Class II Preferred Shares” and, together with the Class I Preferred Shares, the “Preferred Shares”). The Preferred Shares will be entitled to all distributions made from the Portfolio Collateral after payment of all prior amounts in accordance with the priority of payments set out in the Indenture and more fully described in the Note Offering Circular.

The Issuer will appoint an off-shore Paying and Transfer Agent (in addition to and not in lieu of JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association) if requested by at least 33-2/3% of the Preferred Shares, the cost of such agent to be borne by the Issuer. There can be no assurance that any investor requesting payment from an off-shore paying agent will receive payments on the same day that they would have had the payments been made by JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association.

The Preferred Shares will be issued pursuant to the Articles of Association of the Issuer (the “Articles”) and certain resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Issuer passed on or prior to the issue of the Preferred Shares as memorialized in the board minutes relating thereto (the “Resolutions”) and distributions made thereon will be made pursuant to the Paying Agency Agreement, to be dated as of the Closing Date (the “Paying Agency Agreement”), between the Issuer and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as the Paying and Transfer Agent thereunder (in such capacity, the “Paying Agent”). The Notes will be issued pursuant to the Indenture.

The assets of the Issuer are expected to be limited to the Portfolio Collateral having the characteristics described in the Note Offering Circular under “Security for the Notes” and the Trust Estate described therein, all of which, pursuant to the Indenture, will be pledged to secure the Notes. The Preferred Shares are entitled to receive distributions only to the extent monies are released therefor from the lien of the Indenture, as described herein and in the Note Offering Circular, and distributions are only payable out of profits of the Issuer and/or its share premium, being the difference between the issue price for the shares and their par value, and to the extent that the Issuer is able to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business immediately following such payments.

Form and Denomination

Except with respect to Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., the minimum number of Preferred Shares that may be purchased or transferred will be 200,000 and integral multiples of 1 share in excess thereof.

Upon issuance, the Preferred Shares sold to Non-U.S. Persons (as defined in Regulation S) under the Securities Act (each, a “Non-U.S. Person”) that are also Qualified Institutional Buyers in Offshore Transactions (as defined in Regulation S) in reliance on Regulation S, initially will be represented by one or more permanent physical share certificates in fully registered definitive form (each a “Global Preferred Share”), which will be deposited with a specialized depository on behalf of Euroclear Bank S.A./N.V., as operator of The Euroclear System (“Euroclear”) and Clearstream Banking, société anonyme (“Clearstream”).

Subject to the receipt by the Paying Agent of a certificate in the form similar to the one provided by the Paying Agency Agreement from the person holding such interest, a beneficial interest in each Global Preferred Share may be transferred prior to the expiration of a one-year period beginning on the later of the Closing Date or on the day on which the offer of the Preferred Shares is completed (the “Distribution Compliance Period”), only to (i) a Non-U.S. Person who certifies that it is not a U.S. Person and is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is not acquiring an interest in the Global Preferred Share for the account or benefit of any U.S. Person or (ii) after the Distribution Compliance Period, to a U.S. Person who certifies that it is a qualified institutional buyer (a “Qualified Institutional Buyer”) as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act, and in each case only to a purchaser who is also a “qualified purchaser” or “knowledgeable employee” within the meaning of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act, but only if such purchaser takes in the form of a Restricted Preferred Share (as defined below) registered in the name of such person.

Subject to the receipt by the Paying Agent of a certificate in the form similar to the one provided by the Paying Agency Agreement from the person holding such interest, a holder of a Restricted Preferred Share (as such term is defined below) who is a U.S. Person may at any time transfer its interest in such Preferred Share only (a) to a Non-U.S. Person pursuant to Regulation S who is also a “qualified institutional buyer” within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act or (b) to a “qualified institutional buyer” within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Securities Act, in each case in transactions not requiring registration under the Securities Act, and in the case of clause (b), only to a transferee who is also a “qualified purchaser” or “knowledgeable employee” within the meaning of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act.

Upon deposit of the Global Preferred Share with the specialized depository, Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, will credit each purchaser (or its agent or custodian) with the number of Preferred Shares for which it has paid. The holder of the Global Preferred Share will be the only entity entitled to receive payments in respect of the Preferred Shares represented by such Global Preferred Share, and the Issuer will be discharged by payment to, or to the order of, the holder of such Global Preferred Shares in respect of each amount so paid. Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear as the holder of Global Preferred Shares must look solely to Euroclear, for its share of each payment so made by the Issuer to, or to the order of, the holder of such Global Preferred Shares. No person other than the holder of the Global Preferred Shares shall have any claim against the Issuer in respect of any payments due on the Global Preferred Shares.

Payments on the Global Preferred Shares will be made pursuant to certain procedures established between the Paying Agent, the specialized depository, Euroclear and Clearstream, as the case may be. All such payments will be made by wire transfer to a United States dollar account maintained by such holder with a bank outside the United States.

Global Preferred Shares will, for purposes of trading within Euroclear and Clearstream, have a notional issue price equal to U.S. $1 for each Preferred Share.

Definitive Preferred Share certificates, in fully registered form (“Definitive Preferred Shares”) will be issued and exchanged for each Global Preferred Share within 30 days of the occurrence of any of the following: (i) either Euroclear or Clearstream is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holiday, statutory or otherwise) or announces an intention permanently to cease business and no alternative clearance system satisfactory to the Paying Agent is available, (ii) as a result of any amendment to, or change in, the laws or regulations of Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which becomes effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or the Paying Agent are or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Preferred Shares which would not be required were the Preferred Shares in definitive registered form, or (iii) the Issuer so elects by notice to the Preferred Shareholders in accordance with the Paying Agency Agreement and Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, does not object.

The Preferred Shares sold in the United States to Qualified Institutional Buyers who are U.S. Persons will be represented, on issue, by definitive fully registered Preferred Share certificates bearing the appropriate legend (“Restricted Preferred Shares”).

Payments on the Definitive Preferred Shares and Restricted Preferred Shares will be made pursuant to certain procedures established by the Paying Agent. All such payments on such Preferred Shares will be made by wire transfer to a United States dollar account maintained by such holder.

Under the terms of the Paying Agency Agreement, the Paying Agent will be the initial paying agent with respect to the Preferred Shares. The Issuer may not appoint a paying agent with respect to the Preferred Shares within the United States. Payments of dividends on the Preferred Shares and redemption payments will be made from funds available in the Collection Account and released to the Paying Agent by the Trustee under the Indenture and will only be payable if the Issuer has sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium. All interest and principal payments on the Portfolio Collateral will be deposited directly into the Collection Account and, together with any income thereon, will be available for payments first to certain expenses and the Notes and then to the Preferred Shares to the extent that the Issuer is and remains solvent after such payments are made. Under Cayman Islands law, a company is generally deemed to be solvent if it is able to pay its debts as they fall due.

Status of Preferred Shares

The Preferred Shares are part of the share capital of the Issuer and, as such, their entitlement is limited to the assets of the Issuer after payment of all liabilities ranking ahead of them according to the Articles and at law.

The Articles, in conjunction with the Resolutions, provide for payments of dividends and capital on redemption of the Preferred Shares and any payments on liquidation of the Issuer to rank after payments due on the Notes (other than certain amounts constituting the Class II Preferred Share Dividend which will be senior to payments on the Notes), and, except as described in the Note Offering Circular under “Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions,” after the payment of fees and expenses.

The Preferred Shares are entitled to receive the Excess Cash Flow, including in the case of the Class II Preferred Shares, the Class II Preferred Share Dividend. As a matter of Cayman Islands law, on a liquidation of the Issuer, the holders of the Preferred Shares will rank after all other creditors, both secured and unsecured, of the Issuer and holders of the ordinary shares.

Distributions

On each Payment Date and on the Final Maturity Date, the Paying Agent, on behalf of the holders of the Preferred Shares, will be entitled to receive from the Trustee (for payment to the holders of the Preferred Shares as a dividend or, on the Final Maturity Date, to redeem the Preferred Shares pursuant to the Paying Agency Agreement and in accordance with the Articles) all cash remaining after payment by the Trustee of all distributions which take priority over payments to the Issuer (including any Class II Preferred Share Dividend) described in detail in the Note Offering Circular under “Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions,” if any, from the Collection Account (such remaining cash, if any, the “Excess Cash Flow”).

Priority of Distributions

On each Payment Date, the Issuer will be entitled to receive any Excess Cash Flow as described in detail in the Secured Note Offering Circular under “Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions.” Excess Cash Flow shall be distributed, in part, as follows:

(i) if the Internal Rate of Return of the Preferred Shares as of such Payment Date is less than 12%, to the payment to the Holders of the Preferred Shares, but only up to an amount that would cause the Internal Rate of Return of the Preferred Shares to equal 12%; and

(ii) any remaining amounts, (a) 20% to (x) the payment of the Supplemental Servicing Fee for such Payment Date, and (y) the Holders of the Class II Preferred Shares in accordance with the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, the Class II Preferred Share Supplemental Dividend then due and unpaid, and (b) 80% to the Holders of the Preferred Shares in accordance with the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, as a dividend thereon or as a redemption payment on the Redemption Date, as applicable.

Any Excess Cash Flow that constitutes part of the Class II Preferred Share Dividend will not be allocable to the Class I Preferred Shares, rather, such amounts will only be available for distributions on the Class II Preferred Shares on each Payment Date. The “Class II Preferred Share Dividend” shall mean the Class II Preferred Share Base Dividend, Class II Preferred Share Additional Dividend and Class II Preferred Share Supplemental Dividend, each as described in the Note Offering Circular.

Failure to satisfy any Overcollateralization Test, the Interest Coverage Test or the application of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement described under “Description of the Notes” in the Note Offering Circular may result in the temporary or permanent diversion of all or a portion of amounts otherwise payable as Excess Cash Flow (and will have a corresponding effect on Preferred Shares distributions). The amount and frequency of distributions of Excess Cash Flow to the Issuer will depend on, among other things, the purchase rate in respect of new Portfolio Collateral, the level of LIBOR, the extent to which the Portfolio Collateral pledged to secure the Notes becomes Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, is subject to scheduled payments of principal, or is retired prior to the stated maturity of the Notes through mandatory or optional redemption, sale, maturity or other liquidation or disposition and the extent to which Substitute Portfolio Collateral is available for purchase in accordance with the criteria described in the Note Offering Circular.

Payments of Dividends on Preferred Shares; Preferred Shares Redemption

The Articles, in conjunction with the Resolutions, will provide for the payment of dividends on the Preferred Shares, without requiring any declaration by the board of directors, on each Payment Date through and including the Final Maturity Date, commencing on the first Payment Date. Such payment of dividends on each Payment Date will be in an amount equal to all Excess Cash Flow, if any, for such Payment Date in accordance with the priority of distributions less, with respect to the Final Maturity Date, such part of the Excess Cash Flow paid to redeem the Preferred Shares on such date. Such dividends, if any, will be paid on each Payment Date other than the Final Maturity Date to the holders of the Preferred Shares in whose names the Preferred Shares are registered at the close of business on the Record Date for such Payment Date.

No redemption of the Preferred Shares will be made from the Portfolio Collateral until the Notes are paid in full. Upon payment of the Notes in full, all Excess Cash Flow attributable to Adjusted Collateral Principal Collections will be paid to the holders of the Preferred Shares as dividends on or, with respect to the Final Maturity Date, as the redemption price on redemption of the Preferred Shares. The Preferred Shares are not subject to redemption at the option of the holders thereof, except in connection with a liquidation of the Trust Estate upon payment in full of the Notes at the direction of the holders of a Majority or more of the Preferred Shares. See “Description of the Preferred Shares—Termination of Trust Estate.”

Payments of dividends and the redemption price on redemption of the Class I Preferred Shares and the Class II Preferred Shares will be made pro rata to registered holders of Class I Preferred Shares and the Class II Preferred Shares, respectively, according to the number of such Class I Preferred Shares and Class II Preferred Shares held by the respective Holders. The payment of dividends and the redemption of the Preferred Shares is subject to the Issuer having sufficient distributable profits and/or share premium (being the difference between the par value of the Preferred Shares and their issue price) of the Preferred Shares out of which to pay such amounts and, in the case of a payment from share premium, the Issuer being able to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of its business.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon any redemption of the Preferred Shares, any Excess Cash Flow that constitutes part of the Class II Preferred Share Dividend will not be allocable to the Class I Preferred Shares, rather, such amounts will only be available for distributions on the Class II Preferred Shares.

Events of Default

The Note Offering Circular describes those circumstances that would constitute an Event of Default under the Indenture. See “Legal Structure—The Indenture—Events of Default” in the Note Offering Circular.

If an Event of Default under the Indenture should occur and be continuing with respect to the Notes, the Trustee may, with the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, and shall at the direction of the Requisite Noteholders, declare the principal of the Notes to be immediately due and payable. Such declaration may under certain circumstances be rescinded by the Trustee at the direction of the Requisite Noteholders. As long as any Notes are outstanding, if an Event of Default under the Indenture should occur, the holders of such Notes will be entitled to determine the remedies to be exercised under the Indenture. Remedies pursued by the holders of the Notes would likely adversely affect the interests of the holders of the Preferred Shares.

Exchange and Transfer

The Issuer shall maintain, or cause to be maintained, at a specified office a Share register (the “Share Register”).

The Issuer will appoint a transfer agent (the “Transfer Agent”), at which office a holder of a Definitive Preferred Share may surrender such Preferred Share certificate for registration of transfer as described below. The Issuer has initially appointed the Paying Agent to act as Transfer Agent. The Issuer may at any time terminate the appointment of a Transfer Agent and appoint additional or other Transfer Agents. Notice of such termination or appointment and of any change in the specified office of a Transfer Agent will be provided in the manner described below in the Paying Agency Agreement.

The costs and expenses of effecting any exchange or registration of transfer pursuant to the foregoing provisions, except for the expense of delivery by other than regular mail (if any) and except, if the Issuer shall so require, the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge or insurance charges that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of any Preferred Shares, will be borne by the Issuer.

A beneficial interest in a Global Preferred Share may only be transferred to (a) a Non-U.S. Person, who is also a Qualified Institutional Buyer, in an offshore transaction (as defined in Regulation S) (an “Offshore Transaction”) in accordance with Regulation S (and in accordance with certain certification requirements in the Paying Agency Agreement) or (b) after the Distribution Compliance Period, to a person who takes delivery in the form of a Definitive Preferred Share and delivers a written certification (in the form provided in the Paying Agency Agreement) to the effect that such person is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is acquiring such interest for its own account (together with certain other requirements set forth in the Paying Agency Agreement) and is a Qualified Purchaser or Knowledgeable Employee. Upon any exchange of any number of Preferred Shares represented by a Global Preferred Share for a Definitive Preferred Share, the Paying Agent shall surrender the certificate representing the Global Preferred Share to the Issuer for cancellation and the Issuer shall issue a new certificate for the reduced number of Preferred Shares represented by the Global Preferred Share and a new certificate in respect of the Definitive Preferred Share. The Issuer shall cause the Share Register to be updated accordingly.

Definitive Preferred Shares and Restricted Preferred Shares (or any interest therein) may only be transferred in accordance with the applicable laws of any State of the United States and (a) in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act involving a Qualified Institutional Buyer who is a U.S. Person as transferee and is a Qualified Purchaser or Knowledgeable Employee (in accordance with the certification requirements of the Paying Agency Agreement) or (b) to a person who takes delivery in the form of a beneficial interest in a Global Preferred Share and in such case only upon receipt by the Paying Agent of a written certification from the transferor (in the form provided in the Paying Agency Agreement) to the effect that such transfer is being made to a Non-U.S. Person, who is also a Qualified Institutional Buyer, in accordance with Regulation S. Upon any exchange of a Definitive Preferred Share for a beneficial interest in a Global Preferred Share, the Paying Agent shall surrender the Definitive Preferred Share certificate and the Global Preferred Share certificate to the Issuer for cancellation and the Issuer shall issue the Paying Agent with a new certificate for the Global Preferred Shares reflecting the increased number of Preferred Shares represented thereby. The Issuer shall cause the Share Register to be updated accordingly.

Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Definitive Preferred Share at the office of the Paying Agent, the Paying Agent, subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Paying Agency Agreement, will deliver in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, or (in the case of a partial transfer) the registered holder, one or more new certificates representing the registered Definitive Preferred Shares certificates. Every registered Preferred Share presented or surrendered for registration of transfer shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Paying Agent, duly executed by the registered holder thereof or its attorney duly authorized in writing.

Preferred Share certificates issued upon any exchange or transfer will be delivered at the office of the Paying Agent or mailed, at the request, risk and expense of the holder, to the address reflected for such holder in the register or such other address as such holder shall request. No service charge (other than any cost of delivery) shall be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of Preferred Shares, but the Issuer may require payment from the holder of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection therewith.

During the period of 15 days preceding any date fixed for payment of dividends on or redemption of the Preferred Shares, the Issuer shall not be required to register the transfer of or to exchange any Preferred Shares.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any Holder of Class II Preferred Shares wishes to transfer all or a portion of its Class II Preferred Shares (the "Class II Seller") to any qualified third party purchaser (the "Class II Buyer"), including any holders of preferred shares (the "Holding Preferred Shares") of Rockwall Investors Corp. ("Investors Corp."), such transfer shall only be effected by the Issuer redeeming such Class II Preferred Shares and correspondingly issuing new Class I Preferred Shares and Investors Corp. issuing new Holding Preferred Shares in accordance with the mechanics described in this paragraph and the applicable provisions in the Articles of Association of each of the Issuer and Investors Corp. At least 10 days prior to any transfer by a Class II Seller to a Class II Buyer, such Class II Seller and Class II Buyer shall jointly notify the Issuer, the Transfer Agent, the Servicer and Investors Corp. of their intention to effect such transfer of Class II Preferred Shares, indicating the number of Class II Preferred Shares to be sold and the corresponding number of Class I Preferred Shares to be issued and sold to Investors Corp. and the number of Holding Preferred Shares to be issued and acquired by the Class II Buyer, the price for such purchase and sale and the date on which such purchase and sale is expected to occur (such notice, the "Sale Notice"). The Issuer shall, on the date indicated in the Sale Notice, subject to such redemption being approved in writing by the Board of Directors of the Issuer and subject to such redemption being in respect of 200,000 Class II Preferred Shares or more, redeem the indicated number of Class II Preferred Shares to be sold by the Class II Seller and shall issue an equal number of Class I Preferred Shares registered in the name of Investors Corp. Simultaneously with such redemption and new issuance by the Issuer, Investors Corp., pursuant to the Investors Corp. Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, shall issue new Holding Preferred Shares to the Class II Buyer equal in number to the number of Class II Preferred Shares being sold by the Class II Seller as indicated in the Sale Notice. The Class II Buyer shall pay Investors Corp. for its subscription to such newly issued Holding Preferred Shares in an amount indicated in the Sale Notice, Investors Corp. shall immediately apply such amount to pay the subscription price to the Issuer for the newly issued Class I Preferred Shares, and the Issuer shall immediately apply such amount to pay the redemption price to the Class II Seller for the redemption of such Class II Seller's Class II Preferred Shares.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event the Holder of any Class II Preferred Shares (the "Holding Buyer") wishes to acquire any Holding Preferred Shares from any holder of Holding Preferred Shares (the "Holding Seller"), such transfer shall only be effected by the Investors Corp. redeeming such Holding Preferred Shares and the Issuer redeeming a corresponding number of Class I Preferred Shares and issuing new Class II Preferred Shares in accordance with the mechanics described in this paragraph and the applicable provisions in the Articles of Association of each of the Issuer and Investors Corp. At least 10 days prior to any transfer by a Holding Seller to a Holding Buyer, such Holding Seller and Holding Buyer shall jointly notify the Issuer, the Transfer Agent, the Servicer and Investors Corp. of their intention to effect such acquisition of Holding Preferred Shares, indicating the number of Holding Preferred Shares to be sold by the Holding Seller, the corresponding number of Class I Preferred Shares to be redeemed by the Issuer and the number of Class II Preferred Shares to be issued and acquired by the Holding Buyer, respectively, the price for such purchase and sale and the date on which such purchase and sale is expected to occur (such notice, the “Acquisition Notice”). On the date indicated in the Sale Notice, Investors Corp. shall, subject to such redemption being approved in writing by the Board of Directors of Investors Corp. and subject to such redemption being in respect of 200,000 Class Holding Preferred Shares or more, redeem the indicated number of Holding Preferred Shares to be sold by Holding Seller and the Issuer shall, subject to such redemption being approved in writing by the Board of Directors of the Issuer and subject to such redemption being in respect of 200,000 Class I Preferred Shares or more, redeem Class I Preferred Shares in an amount equal to the number of Holding Preferred Shares being sold as indicated in the Acquisition Notice. Simultaneously with such redemption of Class I Preferred Shares, the Issuer shall issue Class II Preferred Shares to the Holding Buyer in an amount equal to the amount of Class I Preferred Shares being redeemed as indicated in the Acquisition Notice. The Holding Buyer shall pay the Issuer for its subscription to such newly issued Class II Preferred Shares in an amount indicated in the Acquisition Notice, the Issuer shall immediately apply such amount to pay the redemption price to Investors Corp. for the redemption of the Class I Preferred Shares, and Investors Corp. shall immediately apply such amount to pay the redemption price to the Holding Seller for the redemption of the Holding Preferred Shares.

Prescription

Payments in respect of the Preferred Shares will cease to be due if not paid to the holder due to insufficient instructions for a period of ten years from the Relevant Date therefor. “Relevant Date” means the date on which the final payment in respect of Preferred Shares first becomes due, except that if the full amount of the monies payable has not been duly received by the Paying Agent on or prior to such due date, it means the date on which such monies have been so received.

Restrictions on Transfer

The Preferred Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act, the securities laws of any state of the United States or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction, and are being issued and sold in reliance upon exemptions from registration provided by such laws. There is no market for the Preferred Shares being offered hereby and, as a result, a purchaser must be prepared to hold the Preferred Shares for an indefinite period of time. No Preferred Shares may be sold or transferred unless such sale or transfer (i) is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act (for example, in reliance on exemptions provided by Rule 144A or Regulation S under the Securities Act) and other applicable securities laws, (ii) satisfies the transfer restrictions described in “Certain ERISA Considerations” herein, (iii) does not cause the Issuer to become subject to the registration requirements of the Investment Company Act, including by selling or otherwise transferring the Preferred Shares to a purchaser or other transferee (other than a Non-U.S. Person) which is not a “qualified purchaser” or “knowledgeable employee” within the meaning of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act, and (iv) otherwise fully complies with the Articles. The Preferred Shares may not be sold or transferred to any Plan, to any person acting on behalf of or with “plan assets” of any Plan, or to any other Benefit Plan Investor other than as described herein under “Certain ERISA Considerations.” Additionally, no transfer may be made unless the Issuer shall have determined that the transfer is not being effected through an “established securities market” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.7704-1(b) and will not result in the Issuer having more than 75 shareholders (determined in conformity with Treasury Regulation Section 1.7704-1(h)(3)).

Termination of Trust Estate

Upon payment in full of the Notes, the Issuer may elect, upon the direction of holders of a Majority of the Preferred Shares, voting as a single class, to liquidate the Trust Estate in whole or in part. Any amounts realized from any such liquidation, after payment of any amounts due and payable under the Indenture, will be distributed in accordance with the provisions of the Paying Agency Agreement.

The Issuer is permitted to exercise the Optional Redemption in accordance with the requirements of the Indenture when directed by the holders of the Preferred Shares holding at least a Majority of the Preferred Shares, voting as a single class.

Modification of Paying Agency Agreement and the Indenture

Without the consent of any holders of Preferred Shares, the Issuer and the Paying Agent, at any time and from time to time, may enter into one or more agreements supplemental to the Paying Agency Agreement for any of the following purposes: (a) to evidence the succession of a successor entity to the Issuer and the assumption by any such successor of the covenants of the Issuer therein and in the Preferred Shares; (b) to take any action deemed reasonably necessary by the Issuer to prevent the reduction of dividends payable on the Preferred Shares as a result of imposition of any taxes; (c) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment thereunder by a successor Paying Agent with respect to the Preferred Shares; (d) to correct any manifest error with respect to any provision therein; (e) to cure any ambiguity, correct or supplement any provision therein which may be inconsistent with any other provision thereunder, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising therein; (f) to take any action necessary or helpful to prevent the Issuer from being subject to any withholding or other taxes, fees or assessments or to reduce the risk that the Issuer or the Paying Agent, as applicable, will be engaged in a United States trade or business or otherwise subject to United States income tax on a net income basis; or (g) prevent the Issuer from becoming an “investment company” as defined in the Investment Company Act or better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 thereunder; provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental indenture under this clause (g), each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Initial Purchaser shall (A) have satisfied the Rating Condition with respect to such supplemental indenture and (B) received a customary, unqualified opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental agreement, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act; provided that in each case that such action for any matters described in clauses (a) through (f) will not adversely affect the interests of the holders of Preferred Shares in any material respect.

With the consent of the holders of not less than a Majority of the Preferred Shares (voting as a single class) affected by a supplemental agreement or agreement referred to below, the Issuer and the Paying Agent (and with the consent of the Servicer, if any supplemental agreement would reduce its rights or increase its obligations under the Collateral Management Agreement) may enter into an agreement or agreements supplemental to the Paying Agency Agreement for the purpose of adding any provisions to, or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of, the Paying Agency Agreement or of modifying in any manner the rights of the holders of Preferred Shares under such agreement; provided that no such supplemental agreement will, without the consent of the holder of each outstanding Preferred Share affected thereby: (a) change the method or methods by which dividends will be determined for any Preferred Share or reduce the par value thereof or change the coin or currency in which such amounts are, or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after the stated maturity thereof; or (b) reduce the percentage amount of the outstanding Preferred Shares, the consent of whose holders is required for any such supplemental agreement, or the consent of whose holders is required for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of such agreement or certain defaults thereunder and their consequences provided for in such agreement; or (c) modify any of the provisions of the Paying Agency Agreement relating to the modification thereof, except to increase any such percentage or to provide that certain other provisions of such agreement cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the holder of each outstanding Preferred Share affected thereby.

In addition, as described in the Paying Agency Agreement, without the consent of at least 66-2/3% of the holders of the Preferred Shares materially and adversely affected thereby, the Issuer will not be permitted to enter into any supplemental indenture that would (i) increase the Applicable Periodic Rate for any Class of Notes, the Aggregate Principal Amount of any Class of Notes, the Optional Redemption Price or the mandatory redemption price, (ii) modify Article XI of the Indenture, (iii) change the maturity of the principal of or interest on any Note or reduce the principal amount thereof or the rate of interest thereon or change the time or amount of any other amount payable in respect of any Note or of any amount payable to the Issuer for distribution to the holders of the Preferred Shares, (iv) reduce the percentage of Holders of Notes or the percentage of the Preferred Shares whose consent is required for the authorization of any supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of the Indenture, (v) impair or adversely affect the Trust Estate securing the Notes, (vi) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on parity with the lien of the Indenture with respect to any part of the Trust Estate or terminate the lien of the Indenture, (vii) reduce the percentage of Holders of Notes or the holders of the Preferred Shares whose consent is required to direct the Trustee to liquidate the Trust Estate, (viii) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture with respect to whose consent is required for supplemental indentures or waiver of Defaults and their consequences except to increase the percentage of Outstanding Notes whose consent is required for any such action or to provide that other provisions of the Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected thereby, (ix) modify the provisions thereof relating to priority of distributions or subordination or the definition therein of the terms "Holder," "Noteholder," "Majority Noteholder," "Majority Preferred Shareholder," "Outstanding" or "Requisite Noteholder," (x) amend any provision that provides that the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer are non-recourse obligations or (xi) modify any of the provisions of the Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of principal of or interest on or other amount in respect of any Note or of any payment to the Issuer for distribution to the holders of the Preferred Shares or to affect the right of the Holders of Notes to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of such Notes contained therein.

Amendment Buy-Out

In the case of any supplemental indenture that requires the consent of one or more Holders of the Notes or Preferred Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Notes and Preferred Shares held by such Holder whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all Notes and Preferred Shares of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes or Preferred Shares the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of a Note or Preferred Share, each Holder of a Note and Preferred Share agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Note or Preferred Share to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser.

All purchases made pursuant to the Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Notes and Preferred Shares set forth in "Delivery of the Notes; Transfer Restrictions; Settlement" in the Note Offering Circular and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency)

Governing Law

The Notes, the Indenture and the Paying Agency Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. The rights attached to the Preferred Shares as set forth in the Articles will be governed by Cayman Islands law. The Issuer will irrevocably submit to the federal court sitting in the City and County of New York over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to any of the Notes, the Indenture and the Paying Agency Agreement.

THE SERVICER AND THE SERVICING AGREEMENT

Highland Capital Management, L.P. (the “Servicer”), will service the Portfolio Collateral and perform certain other reporting functions pursuant to a servicing agreement with the Issuer (the “Servicing Agreement”). For a description of the Servicer and the Servicing Agreement, see “The Servicer” and “The Servicing Agreement” in the Note Offering Circular.

ASSETS OF THE ISSUER

For a description of the assets of the Issuer, including a description of the criteria for the purchase or substitution of the Portfolio Collateral, see “Security for the Notes” in the Note Offering Circular.

DELIVERY OF THE PREFERRED SHARES; TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS; SETTLEMENT

The Preferred Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act, any United States state securities or “Blue Sky” laws or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and, accordingly, may not be reoffered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons, except in accordance with the restrictions described under “Notices to Purchasers.”

Without limiting the foregoing, by holding Preferred Shares, each holder will acknowledge and agree, among other things, that such holder understands that the Issuer is not registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act, but that the Issuer is exempt from registration as such by virtue of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act, which in general excludes from the definition of an “investment company” any issuer whose outstanding securities (other than securities sold to Non-U.S. Persons under Regulation S) are beneficially owned solely by Qualified Purchasers or Knowledgeable Employees and which has not made and does not propose to make a public offering of its securities. Any sale or transfer which would violate these provisions shall be void ab initio, and no sale or transfer may be made if such sale or transfer would require the Issuer to become subject to the requirements of the Investment Company Act.

Unless determined otherwise by the Issuer in accordance with applicable law, all certificates representing the Preferred Shares will bear the legend set forth below:

THE PREFERRED SHARES HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE “SECURITIES ACT”), ANY STATE SECURITIES LAWS IN THE UNITED STATES OR THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION AND MAY NOT BE REOFFERED, RESOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OR TO, OR

FOR THE ACCOUNT OR BENEFIT OF, U.S. PERSONS, EXCEPT AS PERMITTED BY THIS LEGEND. Subject to the restrictions on transfer set forth in the Paying Agency Agreement and on the Preferred Share certificates, the holder of any Preferred Shares may transfer the same in whole or in part (in any authorized denomination) by surrendering the certificate relating to such Preferred Shares at the specified office of the Paying Agent or at the office of any transfer agent, together with an executed instrument of assignment and transfer substantially in the form attached to the Paying Agency Agreement. In exchange for any certificate representing the Preferred Shares properly presented for transfer with all necessary accompanying documentation, the Paying Agent will, within five Business Days of such request if made at the specified office of the Paying Agent, or within ten Business Days if made at the office of a transfer agent, deliver at the specified office of the Paying Agent or the office of the transfer agent, as the case may be, to the transferee or send by first-class mail at the risk of the transferee to such address as the transferee may request a certificate in the name of the transferee representing the number of Preferred Shares transferred. The presentation for transfer of any Preferred Shares will not be valid unless made at the specified office of the Paying Agent or at the office of a transfer agent by the registered holder in person, or by a duly authorized attorney-in-fact. The holder of a Preferred Share certificate will not be required to bear the costs and expenses of effecting any transfer or registration of transfer, except that the relevant holder will be required to bear (i) the expenses of delivery by other than regular mail (if any) and (ii) if the Issuer so requires, the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any duty, stamp tax or governmental charge or insurance charges that may be imposed in relation thereto.

Introduction

The following is a limited summary of certain United States federal income tax consequences pertaining to an investment in the Preferred Shares. As discussed herein, this summary is not intended to be complete, and is not complete; it addresses few of the tax consequences relating to an investor's tax treatment with respect to its investment in Preferred Shares, focusing principally on the certain consequences germane to the Issuer, and insofar as it may address investor tax consequences, it does so only as specifically set forth. The discussion and the opinions referenced below are based upon laws, regulations, rulings, and decisions currently in effect, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Prospective investors should note that no rulings have been or are expected to be sought from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") with respect to any of the United States federal income tax consequences discussed below, and no assurance can be given that the IRS will not take contrary positions. Further, the following summary does not deal with all United States federal income tax consequences applicable to any given investor, nor does it address the United States federal income tax considerations applicable to all categories of investors, some of which may be subject to special rules, such as, banks, real estate investment trusts, regulated investment companies, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, dealers in securities or currencies, electing large partnerships, natural persons, cash method taxpayers, S corporations, estates and trusts, investors that hold their Preferred Shares as part of a hedge, straddle, or an integrated or conversion transaction, or investors whose “functional currency” is not the United States dollar. Furthermore, it does not address alternative minimum tax consequences, or the indirect effects on investors of equity interests in a Holder. In addition, this summary is generally limited to investors that will hold their Preferred Shares as “capital assets” within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). Investors should consult their own tax advisors to determine the United States federal, state, local, and other tax consequences of the purchase, ownership, and disposition of the Preferred Shares.

As used herein, “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of a Preferred Share that is an individual citizen or resident of the United States for United States federal income tax purposes, a corporation or other entity taxable as a corporation created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof (including the District of Columbia), an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation regardless of its source, or a trust where a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more United States persons (as defined in the Code) have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust (or a trust that has made a valid election under United States Treasury Regulations to be treated as a domestic trust). If a partnership holds Preferred Shares, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend upon the status of the partner and upon the activities of the partnership. Partners of partnerships holding Preferred Shares should consult their own tax advisors. “Non-U.S. Holder” means any holder (or beneficial holder) of a Preferred Share that is not a U.S. Holder.

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences to the Issuer

Upon the issuance of the Preferred Shares, Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, special United States tax counsel to the Issuer, will deliver an opinion generally to the effect that under current law, and assuming compliance with the Indenture (and certain other documents) and based on certain factual representations made by the Issuer and the Servicer, although the matter is not free from doubt, the Issuer will not be engaged in the conduct of a trade or business in the United States. Prospective investors should be aware that opinions of counsel are not binding on the IRS and the IRS might seek to treat the Issuer as engaged in a United States trade or business. In addition, the Issuer and Servicer are entitled to rely upon the advice and/or opinions of their selected counsel with respect to amendments, supplements and other modifications of the terms of the Portfolio Collateral and deviations from the investment guidelines set forth in the Servicing Agreement; the foregoing opinion assumes that any such advice and/or opinions will be correct and complete. It should be noted as well that the United States Treasury Department and the IRS recently announced that they are considering taxpayer requests for specific guidance on, among other things, whether a foreign person may be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States by virtue of entering into credit default swaps. No guidance has been issued to date. If any future guidance concludes that foreign persons entering into certain credit default swaps will be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States, such guidance would adversely impact the Issuer's ability to make payments on the Preferred Shares. Additionally, it should be noted that gain or loss on a disposition by a foreign person of a United States real property interest may be subject to United States federal income tax as if the foreign person were engaged in a United States trade or business (even if the foreign person is not actually so engaged). The determination of whether an asset constitutes a United States real property interest is made periodically and, therefore, notwithstanding that the Issuer is prohibited from acquiring an asset that constitutes a United States real property interest, it is possible that an asset that was not a United States real property interest at the time it was acquired by the Issuer could, thereafter, become a United States real property interest. Similarly, if the Issuer accepted a new security in exchange for an existing security or if the terms of an existing security were modified, the new or modified security might cause the Issuer to become engaged in a United States trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes. If the Issuer were viewed as engaged in a U.S. trade or business, a Non-U.S. Holder of Preferred Shares would be subject to net income taxation in the United States on its pro rata share of such of the Issuer's income as is effectively connected to the trade or business (as well as the branch profits tax, in the case of a corporate Non-U.S. Holder) assuming that the Issuer is properly characterized as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes.

In this regard, the Issuer intends to elect to be (and expects to be) treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes. There can be no assurance, however, that the Issuer will not (at some point in time) become classified as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes. If the Issuer were to be treated as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes and the IRS were successfully to characterize the Issuer as engaged in a United States trade or business, among other consequences, the Issuer would be subject to net income taxation in the United States on such of its income as is effectively connected with the United States trade or business (as well as the branch profits tax). The levying of such taxes would materially affect the Issuer's financial ability to make payments on the Preferred Shares.

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders

As indicated above, this discussion generally does not address tax consequences to Holders of any investment in the Preferred Shares. In particular, it does not address any consequences to U.S. Holders (including possible treatment of such Holders as investors in a controlled foreign corporation or passive foreign investment company), nor do the consequences to Non-U.S. Holders referenced below aim or purport to be complete in any respect. It does not address information reporting requirements that may apply to any Holder or to the Issuer, which can impose significant penalties for failures in compliance.

Assuming that the Issuer is properly classified as partnership for United States federal income tax purposes, the Issuer's income (and loss) will be allocated to the Holders of the Preferred Shares and any other entity viewed as holding equity in the Issuer (which could, possibly, include holders of certain classes of notes issued by the Issuer, as well as other persons). Many complex rules (not discussed herein) will apply for purposes of determining the income and loss of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes, some of which may have the effect of deferring or disallowing losses and deductions and/or recharacterizing items of capital gain into ordinary income items. The amount of United States federal income taxes payable in any year by a Holder with respect its distributive share of the Issuer's taxable income and loss could exceed the amount of cash, if any, received by the Holder in that year. The Issuer has not yet determined how it will allocate its distributive share of taxable income among Holders, and can offer no assurance that the methods ultimately adopted and followed will have substantial economic effect. If it were determined that one or more of the allocations did not have substantial economic effect, a Holder of Preferred Shares might be required to recognize a greater or smaller amount of income and loss than otherwise would have been the case (without any corresponding increase in distributions to the Holder). Numerous restrictions may limit the ability of a Holder of Preferred Shares to utilize any losses allocated to it for United States federal income tax purposes – such as, for example, the at-risk limitations under Section 465, the passive activity loss limitations under Section 469, the tax-exempt use property limitations under Section 470, the investment interest limitations under Section 163(d), and the basis limitations under Section 704(d). Investors are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the application of these limitations.

Under 31 C.F.R. part 10, the regulations governing practice before the IRS (Circular 230), we and our tax advisors are (or may be) required to inform you that:

- Any advice contained herein, including any opinions of counsel referred to herein, is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used by any taxpayer, for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer;
- Any such advice is written to support the promotion or marketing of the Preferred Shares and the transactions described herein (or in such opinion or other advice); and
- Each taxpayer should seek advice based on the taxpayer's particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

CAYMAN ISLANDS TAXATION

The following discussion of certain Cayman Islands income tax consequences of an investment in the Preferred Shares is based on the advice of Maples and Calder as to Cayman Islands law. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It assumes that the Issuer will conduct its affairs in accordance with assumptions made by, and representations made to, counsel. It is not intended as tax advice, does not consider any investor's particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

Under existing Cayman Islands laws:

(i) payments on the Preferred Shares will not be subject to taxation in the Cayman Islands and no withholding will be required on such payments to any holder of a Preferred Share and gains derived from the sale of Preferred Shares will not be subject to Cayman Islands income or corporation tax. The Cayman Islands currently have no income, corporation or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax; and

(ii) the Preferred Shares and transfers of Preferred Shares are not subject to Cayman Islands stamp duty but an agreement to transfer Preferred Shares if executed in or brought into the Cayman Islands will be subject to nominal Cayman Islands stamp duty.

The Issuer has been incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands as an exempted limited liability company and, as such, has applied for and obtained an undertaking from the Governor in Cabinet of the Cayman Islands in the following form:

The Tax Concessions Law
(1999 Revision)
Undertaking as to Tax Concessions

In accordance with Section 6 of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision), the Governor in Cabinet undertakes with Rockwall CDO Ltd. (the "Company"):

(a) that no law which is hereafter enacted in the Islands imposing any tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations will apply to the Company or its operations; and

(b) in addition, that no tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations or which is in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax will be payable

(i) on or in respect of the shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company; or

(ii) by way of the withholding in whole or in part of any relevant payment as defined in Section 6(3) of the Tax Concessions Law (1999 Revision).

These concessions shall be for a period of twenty years from the 21st day of June, 2005.

The preceding discussion of certain Cayman Islands income tax consequences of an investment in the Preferred Shares is based on the advice of Maples and Calder as to Cayman Islands law. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It assumes that the Issuer will conduct its affairs in accordance with assumptions made by, and representations made to, counsel. It is not intended as tax advice, does not consider any investor's particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

CERTAIN ERISA CONSIDERATIONS

The United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), imposes certain requirements on employee benefit plans (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) subject to Title I of ERISA and on persons who are fiduciaries (as defined in Section 3(21)(A) of ERISA) with respect to such plans, and Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code prohibit such plans, as well as individual retirement accounts and Keogh plans, subject to such statutes (each, a “Plan”) from engaging in certain transactions with persons that are “parties in interest” under ERISA or “disqualified persons” under Section 4975 of the Code (collectively, “Parties in Interest”) with respect to such Plans. Any person who decides to invest “plan assets” of a Plan that is subject to Title I of ERISA in the Preferred Shares should consider, among other factors, the factors discussed above under “Special Considerations” herein.

Except as set forth below and except as otherwise provided in the Paying Agency Agreement with respect to the initial sale of the Preferred Shares, the Preferred Shares may not be acquired or held by any (i) employee benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA), whether or not it is subject to Title I of ERISA; (ii) plan described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code; (iii) entity whose underlying assets include “plan assets” by reason of a Plan’s investment in the entity; or (iv) person who is otherwise a “benefit plan investor” (as defined in the regulations issued by the United States Department of Labor set forth at 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101) (a “Benefit Plan Investor”), including a life insurance company general account or a governmental or foreign plan that is generally not subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. However, Preferred Shares may be acquired and held by or on behalf of, or with “plan assets” of, a Plan or other Benefit Plan Investor if:

(a) (1)(A) The investor is purchasing the Preferred Shares with assets of an “insurance company general account” (within the meaning of DOL Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption (“PTCE”) 95-60) (a “General Account”); (B) the investor’s purchase and holding of the Preferred Shares are eligible for the exemptive relief afforded under Section I of PTCE 95-60; (C) less than 25% of the assets of such General Account constitute “plan assets” of Benefit Plan Investors; and (D) if, after the initial acquisition of Preferred Shares, during any calendar quarter 25% or more of the assets of such General Account (as determined by such insurance company) constitute “plan assets” of any Plan or other Benefit Plan Investor and no exemption or exception from the prohibited transaction rules applies such that the continued holding of the Preferred Shares would not result in violations of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, then such investor will dispose of all of the Preferred Shares then held in such General Account by the end of the next following calendar quarter; (2) the investor's purchase and holding of the Preferred Shares are eligible for the exemptive relief afforded under PTCE 96-23, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14; or (3) it is purchasing the Preferred Shares solely with "plan assets" not subject to Title I of ERISA, Section 4975 of the Code or similar law; and

(b) After giving effect to such purchase and all other purchases occurring simultaneously therewith, less than 25% of each Class of the Preferred Shares (excluding the Preferred Shares held by the Servicer and its affiliates or clients) will constitute "plan assets" of Benefit Plan Investors.

In addition, except as otherwise provided in the Paying Agency Agreement, if an investor (whether or not it is a Plan or any other Benefit Plan Investor) purchases a Preferred Share and if, after giving effect to such purchase, the investor (or its affiliates) will own 50% or more of the aggregate par value of the Preferred Shares, the investor should consult with its counsel regarding the effect such an investment may have on its ability (and that of its affiliates and their Plans) to purchase any Class of Notes in reliance upon any of PTCE 96-23, 95-60, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14.

Except with respect to certain secondary market transactions through Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., as more fully described in the Paying Agency Agreement, by its purchase of the Preferred Shares, each purchaser and transferee will be required to represent and warrant in writing to and agree with the Issuer, the Servicer, the Paying Agent and the Trustee that (i) its purchase and holding of such Preferred Shares will satisfy the ERISA requirements with respect to the 25% limitation described above and (ii) it will not assign or transfer such Preferred Shares unless (1) the proposed assignee or transferee delivers a letter to the Issuer evidencing its agreement to the foregoing ERISA representations and covenants with respect to its purchase, holding and transfer of such Preferred Shares and (2) if the investor:

(x) is not (and is not acting on behalf of) a Benefit Plan Investor, the assignee or transferee will also not be a Benefit Plan Investor; or

(y) is (or is acting on behalf of) a General Account, the assignee or transferee will be accurately identified in such letter as either another General Account or a person who is not (and is not acting on behalf of) a Benefit Plan Investor; or

(z) is (or is acting on behalf of or with "plan assets" of) a Benefit Plan Investor (other than a General Account), the assignee or transferee will be accurately identified in such letter as either a General Account, another Benefit Plan Investor or a person who is not (and is not acting on behalf of) any Benefit Plan Investor.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from the sale of the Preferred Shares, together with the net proceeds from the sale of the Notes, will be applied by the Issuer in the manner described in the Note Offering Circular.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Issuer proposes to offer the Preferred Shares to prospective purchasers from time to time in individually negotiated transactions at varying prices to be determined in each case at the time of sale. On the Closing Date, Investors Corp. is expected to purchase 100% of the Class I Preferred Shares from the Issuer. In addition, it is expected that HFP or an affiliate or subsidiary thereof will purchase 45,000,000 Class II Preferred Shares of the Issuer on the Closing Date at negotiated prices. The Servicer, clients of the Servicer, entities identified by the Servicer and other entities identified by such entities, are expected to acquire 10,000,000 of the Holding Preferred Shares of Investors Corp. on the Closing Date at negotiated prices. See “Special Considerations—Potential Conflicts of Interest” in the Note Offering Circular. The Issuer may offer or sell Preferred Shares to purchasers at negotiated prices, which may vary among different purchasers of Preferred Shares. The Preferred Shares are offered when, as and if issued by the Issuer, subject to prior sale or withdrawal, cancellation or modification of the offer without notice and subject to approval of certain legal matters by counsel and certain other conditions. It is expected that delivery of the Preferred Shares will be made on or about the Closing Date, against payment in immediately available funds.

The Preferred Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, United States persons except to (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act, and (ii) other persons or entities pursuant to other valid exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and the Investment Company Act.

Without limiting the foregoing, no transfer of Preferred Shares may be made except to a Non-U.S. Person in compliance with Regulation S who is also a Qualified Institutional Buyer or to a Qualified Purchaser (or Knowledgeable Employee) or if such transfer would require the Issuer to become subject to the registration requirements of the Investment Company Act.

The Issuer represents and agrees that it (i) has only communicated or caused to be communicated and will only communicate or cause to be communicated any invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (“FSMA”)) received by them in connection with the issue or sale of any offered securities in circumstances in which section 21(1) of the FSMA does not apply to the Issuer and (ii) have complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by them in relation to the Preferred Shares in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

No invitation may be made to the public in the Cayman Islands to subscribe for the Preferred Shares.

Purchasers of Preferred Shares sold outside the United States may be required to pay stamp taxes and other charges in accordance with the laws and practices of the country of purchase in addition to the price charged to investors for the Preferred Shares.

The Preferred Shares are new securities for which there currently is no market. Accordingly, no assurance can be given as to the development or liquidity of any market for the Preferred Shares.

CERTAIN LEGAL MATTERS

Certain legal matters, including certain matters relating to certain United States federal income tax consequences of the ownership of the Preferred Shares, will be passed upon for the Issuer by Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, New York, New York. Certain legal matters relating to the Preferred Shares, including matters relating to the laws of the Cayman Islands will be passed on for the Issuer by Maples and Calder. General. The Co-Issuers expect to issue approximately U.S.$10,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of Class A-4L Notes to be secured by the Portfolio Collateral pursuant to the Indenture.

Interest. No interest will be payable on the Class A-4L Notes on any Payment Date unless the Holders of the Class A-1L Notes and the Class A-2L Notes have been paid the Cumulative Interest Amount due to them on such Payment Date, the Holders of the Class A-3L Notes have been paid the Periodic Interest Amount due to them on such Payment Date, the Holders of the Class X Notes have been paid the Cumulative Class X Payment due to them on such Payment Date, and, in the case of the Final Maturity Date, until the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid in full.

The Class A-4L Notes will provide for the payment of periodic interest ("Periodic Interest" with respect to the Class A-4L Notes) (to the extent of funds available therefor as described herein) for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period at the rate of 1.70% per annum above LIBOR (the "Applicable Periodic Rate" with respect to the Class A-4L Notes) on each Payment Date commencing on the November 1, 2006 Payment Date. The failure to pay in full Periodic Interest on the Class A-4L Notes as a result of insufficient funds being available therefor will not constitute an Event of Default so long as any Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-3L Notes or Class X Notes are Outstanding. Any shortfall in the payment of Periodic Interest to the Class A-4L Notes on any Payment Date will be payable, together with interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, on one or more subsequent Payment Dates (to the extent funds are available therefor and subject to the priority of distribution provisions described herein). Interest will be calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days and the actual number of days elapsed.

Principal. No principal will be payable in respect of the Class A-4L Notes (and principal collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be applied as described herein) during the Revolving Period, except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-4L Notes. On each Payment Date with respect to the Amortization Period after the Class A-1L Notes, Class A-2L Notes, Class A-3L Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid in full, principal of the Class A-4L Notes will be payable (to the extent of funds available therefor and in the order of priority described herein) until the Payment Date on which the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-4L Notes has been paid in full. In connection with a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption, a Total Optional Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption, no principal in respect of the Class A-4L Notes will be payable until the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1L Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, Class A-3L Notes and (other than with respect to an O/C Redemption or a Special Redemption) the Class X Notes have been paid in full. All outstanding principal of the Class A-4L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date. The Class A-4L Notes are subordinated in right of payment to the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class X Notes to the extent described herein.

Class B-1L Notes

General. The Co-Issuers expect to issue approximately U.S.$21,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of Class B-1L Notes to be secured by the Portfolio Collateral pursuant to the Indenture.

Interest. No interest will be payable on the Class B-1L Notes on any Payment Date unless the Holders of the Class A-1L Notes and the Class A-2L Notes have been paid the Cumulative Interest Amount due to them on such Payment Date, the Holders of the Class A-3L Notes and the Class A-4L Notes have been paid the Periodic Interest Amount due to them on such Payment Date, the Holders of the Class X Notes have been paid the Cumulative Class X Payment due to them on such Payment Date, the Overcollateralization Tests with respect to the Class A Notes and the Interest Coverage Test have been satisfied, and, in the case of the Final Maturity Date, until the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid in full.

The Class B-1L Notes will provide for the payment of periodic interest ("Periodic Interest" with respect to the Class B-1L Notes) (to the extent funds are available therefor and in the order of priority described herein) for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period at the rate of 2.25% per annum above LIBOR (the "Applicable Periodic Rate" with respect to the Class B-1L Notes) on each Payment Date commencing on the November 1, 2006 Payment Date. The failure to pay in full Periodic Interest on the Class B-1L Notes as a result of insufficient funds being available therefor will not constitute an Event of Default so long as any Class A Notes or Class X Notes are Outstanding. Any shortfall in the payment of Periodic Interest to the Class B-1L Notes on any Payment Date will be payable, together with interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, on one or more subsequent Payment Dates (to the extent that funds are available therefor and subject to the priority of distribution provisions described herein). Interest will be calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days and the actual number of days elapsed.

Principal. No principal will be payable in respect of the Class B-1L Notes until the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid in full, except with respect to the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement. Principal payments are not expected to begin until the commencement of the Amortization Period (except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class B-1L Notes or in connection with the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement) and are to continue until the Payment Date on which the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes has been paid in full. In connection with a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption, a Total Optional Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption, no principal in respect of the Class B-1L Notes will be payable until the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes and (other than with respect to an O/C Redemption or a Special Redemption) the Class X Notes have been paid in full. All outstanding principal of the Class B-1L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date. The Class B-1L Notes are subordinated in right of payment to the Class A Notes and the Class X Notes to the extent described herein.

Class X Notes

General. The Co-Issuers expect to issue approximately U.S.$14,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of Class X Notes to be secured by the Portfolio Collateral pursuant to the Indenture.

Class X Payment. The Class X Notes will provide for a periodic payment (the "Class X Interest Payment") (to the extent of funds available therefor as described herein) for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period at the rate of 0.36% per annum above LIBOR (the "Class X Periodic Interest Rate") on each Payment Date, commencing on the November 1, 2006 Payment Date through and including the August 1, 2013 Payment Date. Such amount may be reduced in connection with a redemption of the Class X Notes, as set forth in the Indenture. Any shortfall in the payment of the Class X Payment to the Class X Notes on any Payment Date will be payable, together with interest thereon at the Class X Periodic Interest Rate, on one or more subsequent Payment Dates (to the extent funds are available therefor and subject to the priority of distribution provisions described herein). Any such interest will be calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days and the actual number of days elapsed. Payments of interest to the Class A-1L Notes and the Class X Payment will be payable pari passu among the Class A-1L Notes and the Class X Notes as described herein.

Payments of principal on the Class X Notes that are made in connection with an Initial Deposit Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption, an Optional Redemption or a Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption will be paid on a pro rata basis with the Class A-1LA Notes as described herein. The Class X Notes are not subject to an O/C Redemption or a Special Redemption. The Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class X Notes will be reduced on each Payment Date by the Class X Principal Payment for such Payment Date beginning on November 1, 2007, in accordance with the amortization schedule provided in the Indenture. The Class X Principal Payment will be made from available Adjusted Collateral Interest Collections. The Holders of the Class X Notes are entitled to receive the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class X Notes on the Final Maturity Date, whether such Final Maturity Date occurs in connection with a redemption of the Class X Notes as described herein or otherwise.

Application of Funds

On each Payment Date and on the Final Maturity Date, Collateral Interest Collections and Collateral Principal Collections, to the extent of Available Funds in the Collection Account, will be applied by the Trustee in the manner and order of priority set forth herein under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions."

Overcollateralization Tests

The "Overcollateralization Tests" are applicable until the Notes are retired and all amounts payable in respect thereof are paid, and are satisfied if the Class A Overcollateralization Ratio is at least equal to the Class A Overcollateralization Percentage (the "Class A Overcollateralization Test") and the Class B-1L Overcollateralization Ratio is at least equal to the Class B-1L Overcollateralization Percentage (the "Class B-1L Overcollateralization Test").

Applicability of Overcollateralization Tests

At any time that any of the Notes are Outstanding, if on any Calculation Date related to a Payment Date any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, amounts that are junior in right of payment to such Overcollateralization Test, as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied to the redemption of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes (or, in the case of the Class B-1L Notes, first to pay accrued and unpaid interest from prior Payment Dates, then to pay principal) until each such Class is paid in full, in the order and according to the priorities described herein, to the extent necessary to satisfy such Overcollateralization Test, in accordance with the provisions described herein. In addition, generally, satisfaction or, in certain cases, maintenance of the Overcollateralization Tests is a condition to the purchase or sale of Portfolio Collateral during certain specified periods.

Interest Coverage Test

The "Interest Coverage Test" is applicable on each Payment Date after the second Payment Date and on certain measurement dates after the second Payment Date, and is satisfied if the Interest Coverage Ratio (as described under "Description of the Notes—Interest Coverage Test") is at least 1.5%.

Applicability of Interest Coverage Test

At any time after the second Payment Date, if on any Calculation Date related to a Payment Date the Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, amounts that are junior in right of payment to the Interest Coverage Test as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied to the redemption of the Class A Notes until each such Class is paid in full, in the order and according to the priorities described herein, to the extent necessary to satisfy the Interest Coverage Test in accordance with the provisions described herein. In addition, satisfaction of the Interest Coverage Test on the prior Payment Date is a condition to certain purchases and sales of Portfolio Collateral during certain specified periods as described herein.

Additional Collateral
Deposit Requirement

As described under "Description of the Notes—Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement," even if the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test are satisfied, on each Payment Date after the second Payment Date, Collateral Interest Collections that would otherwise be used for payments that are junior in right of payment to the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied (i) during the Revolving Period, to the payment of principal of the Class B-1L Notes and to the purchase of Additional Portfolio Collateral, as described herein, and (ii) during the Amortization Period, to the payment of principal of the Class B-1L Note and to the payment of principal of each Class of Notes, in each case, in the order and according to the priorities described herein, in an amount equal to the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement as described herein.

Rating Confirmation Failure

The Issuer will request that each Rating Agency confirm after the Effective Date that it has not reduced or withdrawn (and not restored) the ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Notes (a "Rating Confirmation"). If the Issuer is unable to obtain a Rating Confirmation by the 35th day after the Effective Date (a "Rating Confirmation Failure"), on the next Payment Date and on each subsequent Payment Date during the Revolving Period, amounts that are junior in right of payment to such Rating Confirmation Failure, as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied to the redemption of the Notes (or, in the case of the Class B-1L Notes, first to pay accrued and unpaid interest from prior Payment Dates, then to pay principal) until each such Class is paid in full, in the order and according to the priorities described herein (a "Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption"), to the extent necessary to receive a Rating Confirmation, in accordance with the provisions described herein.

O/C Redemption

If on the Calculation Date related to any Payment Date any Overcollateralization Test or, after the second Payment Date, the Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, amounts that are junior in right of payment to such test as described under "Description of the Notes—Payments on the Notes; Priority of Distributions", will be applied by the Issuer to the redemption of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes (or, in the case of the Class B-1L Notes, first to pay accrued and unpaid interest from prior Payment Dates, then to pay principal) until each such Class is paid in full, in each case on a pro rata basis among the Noteholders of the applicable Class and in the order and according to the priorities described herein (an "O/C Redemption") to the extent necessary to satisfy the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test, as applicable. See "Description of the Notes—O/C Redemption." A redemption of the Notes through a Rating Confirmation Failure Redemption or an O/C Redemption is sometimes referred to herein as a "Mandatory Redemption." The Class X Notes are not subject to O/C Redemption, but are subject to Rating Confirmation Failure.

Initial Deposit Redemption

To the extent that the full amount of the Deposit is not used to purchase or commit to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Amount (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date) at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount in accordance with the guidelines described herein on or before the Effective Date, an amount (not in excess of the unused amount of the Deposit) equal to the difference between the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount and the par amount of Portfolio Collateral actually acquired (or committed to be acquired) (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date) will be applied by the Issuer on the November 2006 Payment Date (the "Initial Deposit Redemption Date") to principal payments of the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes, on a pro rata basis (an "Initial Deposit Redemption"), except, if the amount of the Deposit not so used to purchase or commit to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral does not exceed U.S.$2,000,000 in the aggregate, such amount will be transferred to the Collection Account on the Effective Date and applied as Collateral Principal Collections. See "Description of the Notes—Initial Deposit Redemption."

Special Redemption

The Notes (other than the Class X Notes) are redeemable in part at the option of the Issuer, as directed by and at the discretion of the Servicer, on one or more Payment Dates during the Revolving Period, to the extent the Issuer is unable to reinvest more than U.S.$2,000,000 of principal collections in Additional Portfolio Collateral selected by the Servicer and satisfying the criteria described herein for at least ninety days after receipt, in an amount of at least U.S.$2,000,000. See "Description of the Notes—Special Redemption."

Optional Redemption

The Notes are redeemable in whole or in part (an "Optional Redemption") at the option of the Issuer at the direction of (i) at least 75% of the Preferred Shares eligible to vote (including any Class II Preferred Shares held by Highland Financial Partners L.P. or an affiliate or subsidiary thereof ("HFP") and any other Preferred Shares held by the Servicer, entities affiliated with the Servicer or clients of the Servicer (collectively, the "Servicer Entities") up to a maximum amount equal to the amount of Class II Preferred Shares acquired by HFP on the Closing Date ("Original HFP Share Amount"), but excluding any other Preferred Shares beneficially owned or controlled by the Servicer Entities which shall be deemed ineligible to vote) in the case of an Optional Redemption in whole (a "Total Optional Redemption"), and (ii) at least 10% of the Preferred Shares eligible to vote (any Class II Preferred Shares held by HFP or any other Preferred Shares beneficially owned or controlled by any other Servicer Entities shall be deemed ineligible to vote) in the case of an Optional Redemption in part (a "Partial Optional Redemption"), in the case of either (i) or (ii) above on any Payment Date on or after the Payment Date occurring on August 1, 2010 (the "Optional Redemption Date," which date shall then be considered the Final Maturity Date in the case of a Total Optional Redemption at a price equal to the Optional Redemption Price. See "Description of the Notes—Optional Redemption."

Tax Event Redemption

Notes—Tax Event Redemption."

Amendment Buy-Out

In the case of any supplemental indenture that requires the consent of one or more Holders of the Notes or Preferred Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from all Non-Consenting Holders all Notes and Preferred Shares held by such Holders whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture, with certain exceptions as set forth in "Legal Structure—The Indenture; Amendment Buy-Out" (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all Notes and Preferred Shares of Non-Consenting Holders (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of a Note or Preferred Share, each such Holder agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its Notes or Preferred Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser. See "Legal Structure—The Indenture; Amendment Buy-Out."

All purchases made pursuant to the Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Notes set forth in "Delivery of the Notes; Transfer Restrictions; Settlement" herein and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Security for the Notes

The Notes are non-recourse obligations of the Co-Issuers, with recourse therefor limited solely to any funds and other assets available in the Trust Estate, including the Portfolio Collateral and the proceeds therefrom. All payments on the Notes are subject to the priority of distribution provisions described herein.

The Notes will be secured by the Trust Estate, consisting of substantially all property of the Issuer, including the Portfolio Collateral, the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Closing Expense Account, the Reserve Account, each Default Swap Collateral Account and the Default Swap Issuer Account (collectively, the "Trust Estate"). The security interest granted under the Indenture in each Default Swap Collateral Account is subject to and subordinate to the security interest and rights of the relevant Default Swap Counterparty in and to such Default Swap Collateral Account and the security interest granted under the Indenture in the Default Swap Issuer Account is subject to the rights of the relevant Default Swap Counterparty to the extent described in the related Default Swap. References to the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Closing Expense Account, the Reserve Account, the Default Swap Collateral Account and the Default Swap Issuer Account, when used with respect to the contents of the Trust Estate, shall include all proceeds of such Accounts and all Eligible Investments purchased with funds on deposit in such Accounts.

Portfolio Collateral
and Deposit

The Portfolio Collateral will consist of United States dollar denominated commercial loans and collateralized loan obligations, including synthetic securities, that are rated primarily below investment grade issued by corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies or trusts. Interests in commercial loans included in the Portfolio Collateral, which may be in the form of participations and assignments, are referred to herein as "Portfolio Loans" and the collateralized loan obligations included in the Portfolio

Collateral are referred to herein as "CLO Securities." See "Security for the Notes—Portfolio Collateral—General."

The Issuer will acquire all of the Initial Portfolio Collateral from various sources, including Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., in each case, at negotiated prices acceptable to the Issuer. Between the Closing Date and the Effective Date, purchases of additional Original Portfolio Collateral from the Deposit together with the Initial Portfolio Collateral will be required to meet the criteria described herein. See "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral."

During the Revolving Period, certain collections and disposition proceeds in respect of Portfolio Collateral may be applied to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral, respectively, subject to satisfaction of the collateral criteria described herein and the satisfaction or, in certain cases, maintenance of the Overcollateralization Tests and, after the second Payment Date, the Interest Coverage Test. In addition, after the Revolving Period, certain limited collections and certain disposition proceeds in respect of Portfolio Collateral may be applied to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral and Substitute Portfolio Collateral subject to satisfaction of the Overcollateralization Tests, the Interest Coverage Test and the collateral criteria contained herein. The Indenture also authorizes the Servicer to direct the Trustee to sell items of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, Equity Portfolio Collateral, Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral and other items of Portfolio Collateral, subject to the limitations set forth therein and described herein under "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral," "The Servicer" and "The Servicing Agreement." During any Due Period when certain collections are to be used to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral, the Servicer generally will have the authority to commence the purchase of such Additional Portfolio Collateral if collections have been or are scheduled to be received during such Due Period in an amount at least equal to the sum of the Periodic Reserve Amount.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, no item of Portfolio Collateral may be disposed of, and no item of Portfolio Collateral may be acquired, for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes. See "Security for the Notes—Portfolio Collateral—General."

Extension of the Revolving Period
and the Final Maturity Date

The Issuer, if directed by the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date up to a maximum of four times (so that the Notes can only be extended to 2037) to extend the Revolving Period to the applicable Extended Revolving Period End Date if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously affected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date, (ii) the Extension Conditions are satisfied, (iii) the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Revolving Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date and (iv) no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. For purposes of the foregoing, "Extension Effective Date" means if an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extension Effective Date (or, in the case of the first Extension Effective Date, the Payment Date in August 2011) and "Extended Revolving Period End Date" means, if an Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Revolving Period End Date (or, in the case of the first Extension, the Payment Date in August 2015). If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Final Maturity Date of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes) shall be extended to the related Extended Final Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of the Notes or the Preferred Shares or amendment or supplement to the Indenture or any other transaction document (the "Maturity Extension"). For purposes of the foregoing, "Extended Final Maturity Date" means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Final Maturity Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Final Maturity Date, the Payment Date in August 2025) and "Extended Weighted Average Life Date" means, if a Maturity Extension has occurred, the sixteenth Payment Date after the then current Extended Weighted Average Life Date (or, in the case of the first Extended Weighted Average Life Date, May 1, 2019); provided that if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied because the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes have failed to deliver an Extension Sale Notice or have failed to provide their written consent to the related Maturity Extension, then the Servicer may exceed seven Business Days after the then proposed Extension Effective Date) if the Servicer shall cause the Extension Conditions set forth in clause (v) of such definition to be satisfied as of such later date. As a condition to a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes (other than the Class X Notes) will have the right to offer to sell their Notes to one or more Extension Qualifying Purchasers for purchase on the applicable Extension Effective Date. If all Extension Conditions are satisfied and a Maturity Extension is effected, each Holder of such Notes, other than Extension Sale Securities will be entitled to receive the applicable Extension Bonus Payment, in each case to the extent of available funds and as provided in the priority of payments. Holders of Preferred Shares will not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment. The obligation to make any Extension Bonus Payment shall not be rated by the Rating Agencies. See "Special Considerations—A Maturity Extension," "Maturity and Prepayment Considerations," "Description of the Notes—Extension of the Revolving Period and the Final Maturity Date". The Class X Notes are not subject to Maturity Extension.

Additional Issuance

At any time during the Revolving Period, the Issuer, as applicable, may issue and sell Additional Preferred Shares and use the proceeds therefrom to purchase additional eligible Portfolio Collateral and pay the expenses of such additional issuance (an "Additional Issuance"); provided that certain conditions precedent specified in the Indenture (as described herein) are satisfied. See "Description of the Notes—Additional Issuance." Any amendment to the Indenture, Issuer's Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association or any other related documents required to provide for or facilitate such Additional Issuance will not require the consent of the Holders of Securities.

Accounts

All Collections (together with any income thereon) will be remitted to the Trustee and deposited into the Collection Account and will be available, to the extent described herein, for application in the manner and for the purposes as described herein. Funds held in the Collection Account that are not used to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral will be applied as promptly as practicable to purchase Eligible Investments. All cash pledged to the Trustee on the Closing Date which is to be subsequently used to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date will be deposited into the Initial Deposit Account. Funds held in the Initial Deposit Account pending application to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral will be held in Eligible Investments at the direction of the Issuer. A Closing Expense Account will be established by the Trustee for the payment of fees, commissions and expenses associated with the issuance of the Notes. A Reserve Account will be established by the Trustee to fund a portion of the payments to be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments, or to otherwise fund any payments of interest or principal on the Notes at the direction of the Servicer. An Expense Reimbursement Account of U.S.$50,000 will be established by the Trustee for the payment of Issuer administrative expenses which become due and must be paid between Payment Dates. Any amounts withdrawn from the Expense Reimbursement Account will be reimbursed on each Payment Date in accordance with the priority of distribution provisions described herein. The Trustee will establish a Loan Funding Account into which certain amounts with respect to any Delayed Drawdown Loans and Revolving Bank Loans will be deposited. The Trustee will establish the Default Swap Collateral Account to which Default Swap Collateral will be credited for the benefit of the related Default Swap Counterparties. In addition, if the terms of any Default Swap require the related Default Swap Counterparty to secure its obligations with respect to such Default Swap, the Trustee will cause to be established a Default Swap Issuer Account in respect of such Default Swap. Funds held in such Accounts will be held in Eligible Investments. See "Security for the Notes—Accounts."

The Servicer

Highland Capital Management, L.P. (the "Servicer" or "Highland"), will service the Portfolio Collateral and perform certain other reporting functions pursuant to a servicing agreement with the Issuer (the "Servicing Agreement"). See "The Servicer" and "The Servicing Agreement."

It is expected that Highland Financial Partners, L.P. or an affiliate or subsidiary thereof ("HFP") will purchase approximately 45,000,000 Class II Preferred Shares of the Issuer on the Closing Date, representing approximately 58% of the total Preferred Shares outstanding (the "Original HFP Share Amount"). It is also expected that Highland will purchase approximately 10,000,000 of the preferred shares of Investor Corp. and approximately U.S.$2,000,000 Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes on the Closing Date. In addition, the Servicer Entities may also acquire Notes or Preferred Shares upon the occurrence of an Amendment Buy-Out or a Maturity Extension as described herein. See "Special Considerations—Conflicts of Interest," "Special Considerations—Amendment Buy-Out Risk," "Special Considerations—Amendment Buy-Out Risk," "Legal Structure—The Indenture; Amendment Buy-Out," "Description of the Notes—Extension of the Revolving Period and the Final Maturity Date" and "The Servicing Agreement."

The Trustee

JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as Trustee under the Indenture. The Trustee maintains its principal corporate trust offices at 600 Travis Street, 50th Floor, Houston, Texas 77002, at which the Notes may be surrendered for payment or for transfer or exchange.

Independent Accountants

A firm of Independent Accountants as selected by the Servicer, or any successor accounting firm selected pursuant to the Indenture, will periodically perform certain procedures with respect to the Portfolio Collateral and the compliance with the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test as required by the Indenture.

The Administrator

Maples Finance Limited (the "Administrator") will act as administrator for the Issuer in the Cayman Islands and will perform certain administrative services on behalf of the Issuer. The Administrator maintains its offices at

P.O. Box 1093 GT, Queensgate House, South Church Street, George Town, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands.

Enhancement

The Indenture will provide that Holders of any Class of Notes may elect to acquire bond insurance, a surety bond or similar credit enhancement supporting the payment of principal and/or interest on such Class of Notes, on terms and conditions acceptable to such Holders. Any Class of Notes subject to such enhancement will be designated as Insured Notes of such Class. Premiums for any such enhancement will be payable from amounts otherwise payable to such Class of Insured Notes or in such other manner chosen by such Holder. Any Insured Notes of a Class for substantially all other purposes will be treated as Notes of such Class, except that the issuer of the bond insurance policy, surety bond or other such credit enhancement will generally be deemed to be the Holder of the Notes of such Class enhanced by such entity and will in such capacity be entitled to exercise the rights otherwise exercisable by Holders of such Notes.

Certain Federal Income
Tax Consequences

Federal Income Tax Consequences to U.S. Holders of Notes. The Notes should be treated as debt of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes. Under rules applicable to original issue discount, a U.S. Holder of a Class A-3L Note, a Class A-4L Note or a Class B-1L Note may need to include all stated interest as original issue discount in gross income as it accrues according to a constant yield method based on daily compounding, regardless of such Holder's method of accounting. See "Certain Tax Considerations."

Federal Income Tax Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders. A Non-U.S. Holder that has no connection with the United States other than holding its Note will not be subject to United States federal withholding tax or income tax on payments of principal and interest (including original issue discount) in respect of a Note. See "Certain Tax Considerations—Non-U.S. Holders."

Federal Income Tax Consequences to the Issuer. The Issuer generally expects not to be subject to United States federal withholding tax (provided certain tax representations are made) or income tax on interest income (including original issue discount) or gain from the Portfolio Collateral or the Eligible Investments. See "Certain Tax Considerations."

Certain ERISA Considerations

Fiduciaries and other persons investing "plan assets" of employee benefit or other plans subject to Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), or Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") (each, a "Plan"), should consider the fiduciary investment standards and prohibited transaction rules of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code before authorizing an investment of "plan assets" of any Plan in the Notes. Each person purchasing a Class X Note, a Class A-1LA Note, a Class A-1LB Note, a Class A-2L Note, a Class A-3L Note or a Class A-4L Note will be deemed to have made certain representations regarding the prohibited transaction rules of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code. The Class B-1L Notes may not be sold or transferred to any Plan, or to any person acting on behalf of or with "plan assets" of any Plan, including an insurance company general account, unless the purchaser or transferee is eligible for the exemptive relief available under PTCE 96-23, 95-60, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14. See "Certain ERISA Considerations."

Rating of Notes

It is a condition to the issuance of the Notes that the Class X Notes, the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class A-1LB Notes be rated "AAA" by Standard & Poor's Ratings Services ("S&P") and "Aaa" by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's"), that the Class A-2L Notes be rated at least "AA" by S&P and at least "Aa2" by Moody's, that the Class A-3L Notes be rated at least "A" by S&P and at least "A2" by Moody's, that the Class A-4L Notes be rated at least "A-" by S&P and at least "A3" by Moody's and that the Class B-1L Notes be rated at least "BBB" by S&P and at least "Baa2" by Moody's. Each of S&P and Moody's is sometimes referred to herein as a "Rating Agency." Each of the ratings of the Notes described herein assume that no Maturity Extension occurs after the Closing Date.

The ratings of the Notes by S&P address solely the likelihood of timely payment of the Periodic Interest Amount on and the ultimate payment of the Aggregate Principal Amount of each Class of Senior Class A Notes, the timely payment of the Class X Payment and the ultimate payment of the Cumulative Interest Amount and the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes. The ratings of the Notes by Moody's address the ultimate cash receipt of all required payments as provided by the governing documents, and are based on the expected loss to the Noteholders of each Class relative to the promise of receiving the present value of such payments. Any obligation to make an Extension Bonus Payment will not be rated by the Rating Agencies. A rating is not a recommendation to purchase, hold or sell securities, in as much as such rating does not comment as to market price or suitability for a particular investor and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating organization.

Security ratings are subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning Rating Agency. In the event that any rating initially assigned to the Notes is subsequently lowered for any reason, no person or entity is obligated to provide any additional support or credit enhancement with respect to the Notes, nor will any other remedies be available to Noteholders. The Issuer has not requested a rating on the Notes by any rating agencies other than S&P and Moody's, although data with respect to the Portfolio Collateral may have been provided to other rating agencies solely for informational purposes. There can be no assurance that, if a rating is assigned to the Notes by any other rating agency, such rating will be as high as that assigned by the applicable Rating Agencies.

Application may be made to the Irish Stock Exchange to admit the Notes to the Official List. There can be no assurance that such admission will be granted or maintained.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS

Prospective Holders of Notes should consider, among other things, the following factors in connection with the purchase of the Notes.

1. Non-recourse Obligations. The Notes will be non-recourse obligations of the Co-Issuers, payable solely from the Portfolio Collateral (including the Portfolio Collateral initially pledged to secure the Notes, as well as Additional Portfolio Collateral and Substitute Portfolio Collateral to be purchased from time to time as described herein), the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Default Swap Collateral Account (subject to the rights of the related Default Swap Counterparty), the Default Swap Issuer Account (subject to the rights of the related Default Swap Counterparty) the Expense Reimbursement Account and the Closing Expense Account, including all proceeds of such Accounts and all Eligible Investments purchased with funds on deposit in such Accounts (collectively, the "Trust Estate") pledged to secure the Notes. The Issuer, as a special purpose Cayman Islands company, will have no significant assets other than the Trust Estate. The Co-Issuer will have no substantial assets, and no other person or entity except for the Co-Issuers will be obligated to make any payments on the Notes. Consequently, Holders of the Notes must rely solely upon distributions on the Trust Estate for the payment of amounts payable in respect of the Notes. If distributions on the Trust Estate are insufficient to make payments on the Notes, no other assets of the Issuer or any other person or entity will be available for the payment of the deficiency, the Co-Issuers shall have no further obligation to pay such deficiency, and any sums outstanding and unpaid shall be extinguished.

2. Subordination. The Class A-1LB Notes are subordinated to the Class A-1LA Notes with respect to principal only, to the extent described herein, the Class A-2L Notes are subordinated to the Class A-1L Notes and the Class X Notes, the Class A-3L Notes are subordinated to the Senior Class A Notes and the Class X Notes, the Class A-4L Notes are subordinated to the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class X Notes and the Class B-1L Notes are subordinated to the Class A Notes and the Class X Notes, and, in the case of each Class of Notes, to the payment of certain fees and expenses as described herein. Payments of principal and interest on the Notes are subject to the priority of distribution provisions described herein. The failure to pay interest on the Class A-3L Notes will not constitute an Event of Default so long as any Senior Class A Notes or Class X Notes remain Outstanding, the failure to pay interest on the Class A-4L Notes will not constitute an Event of Default so long as any Senior Class A Notes, as Class A-3L Notes or Class X Notes remain Outstanding and the failure to pay interest on the Class B-1L Notes will not constitute an Event of Default so long as any Class A Notes or Class X Notes remain Outstanding. In addition, in the case of a Default or an Event of Default, so long as any Senior Class A Notes or Class X Notes remain Outstanding, the Holders of such Senior Class A Notes or Class X Notes will generally be entitled to determine the remedies to be exercised under the Indenture. Remedies pursued by the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes could be adverse to the interests of the Class A-1LB Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes. Once an Event of Default has occurred and the Notes have been accelerated, Holders of the Class A-2L Notes are not entitled to be paid the Cumulative Interest Amount with respect thereto and the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof unless the Class A-1L Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid such amounts in full in cash, Holders of the Class A-3L Notes are not entitled to be paid the Cumulative Interest Amount with respect thereto and the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof unless the Senior Class A Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid such amounts in full in cash, Holders of the Class A-4L Notes are not entitled to be paid the Cumulative Interest Amount with respect thereto and the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof unless the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid such amounts in full in cash, and Holders of the Class B-1L Notes are not entitled to be paid the Cumulative Interest Amount with respect thereto and the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof unless the Class A Notes and the Class X Notes have been paid such amounts in full in cash. Notwithstanding such subordination, the Holders of the Class B-1L Notes may be entitled to payments of principal in connection with the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement before the Notes senior thereto receive any payments of principal.

3. Nature of Collateral Pledged to Secure the Notes; Ability to Obtain Additional Portfolio Collateral; Availability of Funds for Subordinate Payments. The Portfolio Collateral pledged to secure the Notes includes commercial loans and collateralized loan obligations of both U.S. and certain non-U.S. obligors rated below investment grade, which have greater credit and liquidity risk than more highly rated obligations, and synthetic securities.

The Portfolio Collateral will consist primarily of senior secured floating rate term commercial loans. Other loans in which the Issuer may invest include unsecured loans, second lien loans, debtor-in-possession financings and delayed drawdown loans and revolving bank loans. Loans are not generally traded on organized exchange markets but rather would typically be traded by banks and other institutional investors engaged in loan syndications. The liquidity of the Portfolio Loans will therefore depend on the liquidity of this market. Trading in loans is subject to delays as transfers may require extensive and customized documentation, the payment of significant fees and the consent of the agent bank or underlying obligor. Furthermore, Portfolio Loans typically provide that the applicable interest rate may be computed by reference to any of several base indices, at the option of the obligor. The interest rates of the Notes generally are calculated by reference to three-month LIBOR as an index. See "—Interest Rate Risk."

The Issuer intends to purchase Participations of Portfolio Loans in certain circumstances. Participations held by the Issuer in a Selling Institution's portion of a Portfolio Loan typically result in a contractual relationship only with such Selling Institution, not with the obligor. The Issuer has the right to receive payments of principal, interest and any fees to which it is entitled only from the Selling Institution selling the Participation and only upon receipt by such Selling Institution of such payments from the obligor. In connection with purchasing Participations, the Issuer generally will have no right to enforce compliance by the obligor with the terms of the related loan agreement, nor any rights of set-off against the obligor and the Issuer may not directly benefit from the collateral supporting the Portfolio Loan in which it has purchased the Participation. As a result, the Issuer will assume the credit risk of both the obligor and the Selling Institution selling the Participation. In the event of the insolvency of such Selling Institution, the Issuer may be treated as a general creditor of such Selling Institution, and may not benefit from any set-off between such Selling Institution and the obligor. When the Issuer holds a Participation in a Portfolio Loan it may not have the right to vote to waive enforcement of any restrictive covenant breached by an obligor or, if the Issuer does not vote as requested by the Selling Institution, it may be subject to repurchase of the Participation at par. Selling Institutions voting in connection with a potential waiver of a restrictive covenant may have interests different from those of the Issuer, and such Selling Institutions may not consider the interests of the Issuer in connection with their votes.

The Issuer will also purchase Assignments. The purchaser of an Assignment typically succeeds to all the rights and obligations of the assignor of the loan and becomes a lender under the loan agreement and other operative agreements relating to the Portfolio Loan. Assignments are, however, arranged through private negotiations between potential assignees and potential assignors, and the rights and obligations acquired by the purchaser of an Assignment may differ from, and be more limited than, those held by the assignor of the loan. In contrast to the rights of the Issuer as an owner of a Participation, the Issuer, as an assignee, will generally have the right to receive directly from the obligor all payments of principal, interest and any fees to which it is entitled. In some Assignments, the obligor may have the right to continue to make payments to the assignor with respect to the assigned portion of the Portfolio Loan. In such a case, the assignor would be obligated to receive such payments as agent for the Issuer and to promptly pay over to the Issuer such amounts as are received. As a purchaser of an Assignment, the Issuer typically will have the same voting rights as other lenders under the applicable loan agreement and will have the right to vote to waive enforcement of breaches of covenants. The Issuer will also have the same rights as other lenders to enforce compliance by the obligor with the terms of the loan agreement, to set-off claims against the obligor and to have recourse to collateral supporting the Portfolio Loan. As a result, the Issuer may not bear the credit risk of the assignor and the insolvency of an assignor of a loan should have little effect on the ability of the Issuer to continue to receive payments of principal, interest or fees from the obligor. The Issuer will, however, assume the credit risk of the obligor. Non-performing Portfolio Loans may require substantial workout negotiations or restructuring that may entail, among other things, a substantial reduction in the interest rate, a substantial write-down of the principal and/or a substantial extension of the amortization and/or maturity date of the Portfolio Loan. Any such reduction, write-down or extension will likely cause a significant decrease in the interest collections on the Portfolio Loans and any such write-down or extension will likely also cause a significant decrease in the principal collections on the Portfolio Loans.

The Portfolio Collateral will also consist of CLO Securities. CLO Securities generally are limited-recourse obligations of the issuer thereof payable solely from the underlying securities of such issuer or proceeds thereof. Consequently, holders of CLO Securities must rely solely on distributions on the underlying securities or proceeds thereof for payment in respect thereof. If distributions on the underlying securities are insufficient to make payments on the CLO Securities, no other assets will be available for payment of the deficiency and following realization of the underlying assets, the obligations of such issuer to pay such deficiency shall be extinguished. Such underlying securities are expected to consist mainly of loans and other debt instruments, generally rated below investment grade (or of equivalent credit quality). In addition, certain CLO Securities (particularly subordinated CLO Securities) provide that the non payment of interest in cash on such securities will not constitute an event of default in certain circumstances and the holders of such securities will not have available to them any associated default remedies. Interest not paid in cash will generally be capitalized and added to the outstanding principal balance of the related security. Any such deferral will reduce the yield on such CLO Securities. Loan securities may be unsecured and may be subordinated to certain other obligations of the issuer thereof. The lower rating of below investment grade loans reflects a greater possibility that adverse changes in the financial condition of an issuer or in general economic conditions or both may impair the ability of the issuer to make payments of principal or interest. Such Portfolio Collateral may be speculative.

Issuers of CLO Securities may acquire interests in loans and other debt obligations by way of sale, assignment or participation. The purchaser of an assignment typically succeeds to all the rights and obligations of the assigning institution and becomes a lender under the credit agreement with respect to the debt obligation; however, its rights can be more restricted than those of the assigning institution.

CLO Securities are also subject to interest rate risk. The underlying securities of an issuer of CLO Securities may bear interest at a floating rate while the CLO Securities issued by such issuer may bear interest at a fixed rate (or the reverse may be true). As a result, there could be a floating/fixed rate or basis mismatch between such CLO Securities and underlying securities. In addition, there may be a timing mismatch between the CLO Securities and underlying securities that bear interest at a floating rate, as the interest rate on such floating rate underlying securities may adjust more frequently or less frequently, on different dates and based on different indices, than the interest rates on the CLO Securities. As a result of such mismatches, an increase or decrease in the level of the floating rate indices could adversely impact the ability of the issuers thereof to make payments on the CLO Securities.

In order to purchase and hold CLO Securities, the Issuer must satisfy at all times the investor qualifications in the indenture for each such obligation and in applicable securities laws. Generally, such indentures and applicable securities laws require that the Issuer either be a Qualified Institutional Buyer which is also a Qualified Purchaser or that it be a non-U.S. Person (as defined in Regulation S) which is also not a U.S. resident for purposes of the Investment Company Act. There can be no assurance that the Issuer will satisfy these requirements. In the event that the Issuer does not satisfy these requirements at any time, it will not be able to purchase CLO Securities, and it may be required under the underlying indentures for such underlying securities to sell CLO Securities which it previously purchased; any such "forced sale" by the Issuer is likely to be made at a loss.

In addition, a portion of the Portfolio Collateral may consist of Synthetic Securities. With respect to Synthetic Securities, the Issuer will usually have a contractual relationship only with the counterparty of such Synthetic Security, and not the Reference Obligor on the Reference Obligation. The Issuer generally will have no right directly to enforce compliance by the Reference Obligor with the terms of the Reference Obligation nor any rights of set-off against the Reference Obligor, nor have any voting or other consensual rights of ownership with respect to the Reference Obligation. The Issuer will not directly benefit from any collateral supporting the Reference Obligation and will not have the benefit of the remedies that would normally be available to a holder of such Reference Obligation. In addition, in the event of the insolvency of the counterparty, the Issuer will be treated as a general creditor of such counterparty, and will not have any claim of title with respect to the Reference Obligation. Consequently, the Issuer will be subject to the credit risk of the counterparty as well as that of the Reference Obligor. As a result, concentrations of Synthetic Securities entered into with any one counterparty will subject the Notes to an additional degree of risk with respect to defaults by such counterparty as well as by the Reference Obligor. One or more affiliates of the Initial Purchaser may act as counterparty with respect to all or a portion of the Synthetic Securities. These relationships may create certain conflicts of interest. See "—Potential Conflicts of Interest."

All or a portion of the Synthetic Securities are expected to consist of "pay as you go" credit default swaps. The obligation of the Issuer to make payments to the Default Swap Counterparties under the Default Swaps creates credit exposure to the related Reference Obligations (as well as to the default risk of the Default Swap Counterparties). Following the occurrence of a "credit event" with respect to any Reference Obligation (a "Credit

Event"), the Issuer will be required to pay to the Default Swap Counterparty an amount equal to the relevant "physical settlement amount" in return for the Reference Obligation. The payment of any physical settlement amount will be funded by the Issuer by drawing on amounts standing to the credit of the related Default Swap Collateral Account. In addition, each Default Swap will require the Issuer, in its capacity as protection seller, to pay "floating amounts" to the Default Swap Counterparty equal to any principal shortfalls, writedowns and interest shortfalls under the Reference Obligation upon the occurrence thereof (any such payment, a "Credit Protection Payment"). Although the Default Swap Counterparty, in its capacity as protection buyer, will be obligated to reimburse all or part of such Credit Protection Payments to the Issuer if the writedowns of the related shortfalls are ultimately paid to holders of the Reference Obligations or if the related Reference Obligations are written up, the amounts available to the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Notes and Preferred Shares will be reduced after payment by the Issuer of the relevant Credit Protection Payment to the Default Swap Counterparty until the Issuer receives such reimbursement, if any, from the Default Swap Counterparty. Under the Default Swaps, a writedown or failure to pay principal in respect of a Reference Obligation will entitle the Default Swap Counterparty, as protection buyer, to elect whether to require the Issuer to pay a physical settlement amount or a Credit Protection Payment under the related Default Swap.

In certain other circumstances in which a Default Swap may be terminated early, a termination payment may be due to or from the Issuer. If the Issuer is required to make a termination payment to the Default Swap Counterparty, such termination payment may be substantial and may affect the ability of the Issuer to make payments to the Noteholders and to the Holders of the Preferred Shares. Termination payments payable by the Issuer in respect of any Default Swap will include the market value to the Default Swap Counterparty of such terminated Default Swap, which may expose the Issuer to deterioration in the credit of the Reference Obligations and result in losses to the Issuer, even where no Credit Event has occurred. Even if the Default Swap Counterparty is required to make a termination payment to the Issuer, there is no assurance that the amount of such payment would be sufficient such that payments to the Holders of the Notes and the Preferred Shares would not be affected.

It is expected that the Issuer will acquire all of the Initial Portfolio Collateral to be acquired on the Closing Date from various sources, including Bear Stearns, at prices agreed upon by the Issuer with the advice of the Servicer. The price to be paid by the Issuer for such securities may be higher or lower, based on market conditions at the time of purchase by Bear Stearns or such other sources than the prices the Issuer would have paid had such securities all been purchased by such persons on the date such securities were sold to the Issuer. After the Closing Date, the Issuer with the advice of the Servicer may acquire from or through various sources, including Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., Portfolio Collateral at current market prices which will be negotiated by or on behalf of the Issuer at such time. The Indenture does not restrict the ability of the Issuer to invest in Portfolio Collateral on the basis of its market value.

As described herein, the Indenture provides that the Servicer and the Issuer will seek to invest the Deposit in Original Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Amount at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount no later than the Effective Date, and that during certain specified periods thereafter significant portions of the collections received in respect of the Portfolio Collateral will be used to purchase Additional Portfolio Collateral to secure the Notes, which securities in any such case must satisfy the criteria specified in the Indenture. In addition, Collateral Disposition Proceeds may be used to purchase Substitute Portfolio Collateral, subject to satisfaction of the specified criteria. The ability of the Issuer to obtain such Original Portfolio Collateral, Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral (and the rates and other terms thereof) and the terms on which such securities can be obtained, as well as the timing and amount of draws under the Delayed Drawdown Loans and the Revolving Loans and the rates and other terms obtained in connection with the funds held in Eligible Investments (including the Loan Funding Account), may affect the timing and amount of payments received by the Noteholders.

The Issuer will purchase and sell Portfolio Collateral from or to the Servicer and its affiliates, including assets managed by the Servicer and its affiliates, only to the extent the Servicer determines that such purchases and sales are consistent with the collateral guidelines and objectives of the Issuer, the restrictions contained in the Indenture and the Servicing Agreement and applicable law. In any event, all purchases or sales of Portfolio Collateral from such entities will be on an arms'-length basis for a price at least equal to the Market Value thereof.

On each Payment Date, subject to the satisfaction of the Overcollateralization Tests and, after the second Payment Date, the Interest Coverage Test and application of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement, and in accordance with the priority of distribution provisions described herein, certain collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be used to make certain subordinate payments free and clear of the lien of the Indenture, including payment of certain fees to the Servicer, payment of certain administrative expenses of the Issuer and payment to fund distributions to Holders of the Preferred Shares. To the extent that any such distributions are made rather than retained as additional collateral for the Notes, the amounts so distributed will not be available to support payments of principal and interest subsequently payable in respect of the Notes.

4. Default Rates of Commercial Loans and CLO Securities. There are varying sources of statistical default rate data for commercial loans and collateralized loan obligations and numerous methods for measuring default rates. The historical performance of the loan market or collateralized loan market is not necessarily indicative of its future performance. Should increases in default rates occur with respect to the type of collateral comprising the Portfolio Collateral, the actual default rates of the Portfolio Collateral may exceed the hypothetical default rates used herein. See "Maturity and Prepayment Considerations." PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS OF THE NOTES SHOULD CONSIDER AND DETERMINE FOR THEMSELVES THE LIKELY LEVEL OF DEFAULTS AND THE LEVEL OF RECOVERIES ON THE PORTFOLIO COLLATERAL DURING THE TERM OF THE NOTES.

5. Potential Illiquidity of Portfolio Collateral. There is no established, liquid secondary market for many of the CLO Securities and Portfolio Loans which the Issuer may purchase and the lack of such an established, liquid secondary market may have an adverse effect on the market value of such CLO Securities and Portfolio Loans and the Issuer's ability to dispose of them. Such illiquidity may adversely affect the price and timing of the Issuer's liquidation of CLO Securities and Portfolio Loans, including the liquidation of CLO Securities and Portfolio Loans following the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Indenture or in connection with a redemption of the Notes.

Further, the items of Portfolio Collateral will be subject to certain transfer restrictions that may further restrict liquidity. Therefore, no assurance can be given that if the Issuer were to dispose of a particular item of Portfolio Collateral held by the Issuer, it could dispose of such Portfolio Collateral at the previously prevailing market price. A decrease in the market value of Portfolio Collateral would adversely affect the sale proceeds that could be obtained upon the sale of Portfolio Collateral and could ultimately affect the ability of the Co-Issuers to effect an Optional Redemption or Tax Event Redemption or pay the principal of the Notes, upon a liquidation of the Portfolio Collateral following the occurrence of an Event of Default.

The market value of the Portfolio Collateral will generally fluctuate with, among other things, changes in prevailing interest rates, general economic and political conditions, the condition of certain financial markets, developments or trends in any particular industry and the financial condition of the issuers of the Portfolio Collateral.

Any concentration of Portfolio Collateral in any one issuer, servicer or other characteristic may expose the Issuer to greater risk than would be the case if the Portfolio Collateral were more diversified, which would affect the Issuer's ability to make payments on the Notes.

The description of the Portfolio Collateral herein and the risks related thereto is general in nature and prospective purchasers should review the descriptions and risk factors relating to each item of Portfolio Collateral set forth in the underlying disclosure documents, transaction documents and servicing reports. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD ASSESS FOR THEMSELVES THE RISKS INHERENT IN THE PORTFOLIO COLLATERAL.

6. The Issuer and Investors Will Have Limited Control of the Administration and Amendment of Portfolio Loans. The Servicer will cause the Issuer to exercise or enforce, or refrain from exercising or enforcing, any or all of its rights in connection with the Portfolio Loans or any related documents or will refuse amendments or waivers of the terms of any Portfolio Loan and related documents in accordance with its customary business practices as if the Servicer were administering the Portfolio Loans for its own account. The authority of the Servicer to cause the Issuer to change the terms of the Portfolio Loans will generally not be restricted by the Indenture or the Servicing Agreement. As a result, the Issuer will be relying on the Servicer's customary business practices with respect to the servicing of the Portfolio Loans. The Holders of the Notes and the Issuer will not have any right to compel the Issuer or the Servicer to take or refrain from taking any actions other than in accordance with its customary business practices.

The terms and conditions of the loan agreements and related assignments may be amended, modified or waived only by the agreement of the lenders. Generally, any such agreement must include a majority or a super majority (measured by outstanding loans or commitments) or, in certain circumstances, a unanimous vote of the lenders. Consequently, the terms and conditions of the payment obligation arising from loan agreements could be modified, amended or waived in a manner contrary to the preferences of the Servicer or the Issuer, as the case may be, if a sufficient number of the other lenders concurred with such modification, amendment or waiver. There can be no assurance that any obligations arising from a loan agreement will maintain the terms and conditions to which the Issuer originally agreed.

The exercise of remedies may also be subject to the vote of a specified percentage of the lenders thereunder. The Servicer will have the authority to cause the Issuer to consent to certain amendments, waivers or modifications to the Portfolio Loans requested by obligors or the lead agents for loan syndication agreements. The Servicer may, in accordance with its servicing standards and subject to the transaction documents, cause the Issuer to extend or defer the maturity, adjust the outstanding balance of any Portfolio Loan, reduce or forgive interest or fees, release material collateral or guarantees, or otherwise amend, modify or waive the terms of any related loan agreement, including the payment terms thereunder. The Servicer will make such determinations in accordance with its servicing standards. Any amendment, waiver or modification of a Portfolio Loan could postpone the expected maturity of the Notes and/or reduce the likelihood of timely and complete payment of interest or principal under the Notes, as well as the timing and amount of payments to Holders of the Preferred Shares.

7. Sale of Portfolio Collateral by Servicer Under Certain Circumstances. Under the Indenture, the Servicer may only direct the disposition of Portfolio Collateral under certain limited circumstances. More specifically, the Servicer may direct the disposition of Portfolio Collateral that meets the definition of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, Equity Portfolio Collateral, and, subject to satisfaction of the conditions set forth herein, Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral [or Collateral other than Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral]. Furthermore, the Servicer's ability to dispose of Portfolio Collateral may be subject to greater restrictions if any Class of Notes is downgraded. See "Security for the Notes—Changes in Composition of Portfolio Collateral." Notwithstanding such restrictions and satisfaction of the conditions set forth in the Indenture, sales and purchases by the Servicer of Portfolio Collateral could result in losses by the Issuer, which losses may result in the reduction or withdrawal of the rating of any or all of the Notes by any of the Rating Agencies. On the other hand, circumstances may exist under which the Servicer may believe that it is in the best interests of the Issuer to dispose of Portfolio Collateral, but the Issuer will not be permitted to do so under the restrictions and conditions of the Indenture.
